

Gardevoir 95

Chapter 95 He is still wagging his tail at me.

"Okay, let's go. I'll leave the rest to Ai Guanshi. Is that ok?"

Yu Feng stood up and stopped observing Charmander. He turned and walked towards the Elf Center. He was afraid that if he stayed any longer, he would not be able to control himself and do something bad.

However, before leaving, Yu Feng still gave some instructions to Ai Guanshi, after all, the weather did not look very good.

"Ai Wan!"

Ai Guanshi bowed slightly and saluted Yu Feng's back, indicating that he would absolutely carry out Yu Feng's will.

Xiaozhi and the others looked at each other. There was no way Yu Feng could solve the problem, so it would be better for them not to interfere.

Not long after they started walking, the sky started to turn gloomy, and Xiaoxia spotted the Pokémon Center standing on the side of the road.

"Great, now we're very close to Highway 24."

Xiaozhi temporarily forgot about the Charmander. After all, Yu Feng said that there was a way to solve it, so he might as well wait and see.

Not long after Xiaozhi finished saying this, a sparse drizzle began to fall from the sky, and before they could react, it turned into a downpour.

"What are you guys still chatting about? You're getting soaked."

Yuto Sundae took the lead and ran towards the Pokémon Center. She didn't want to be drenched by the heavy rain.

Xiaozhi and the others only then realized that they really needed to find a place to hide from the rain, and followed Yuto Sundae to run towards the Pokémon Center.

.....

Charmander got a large leaf from somewhere and used it to cover the flame on his tail. There was no reason for it, because he knew that if the flame on his tail went out, he would never see his trainer again.

The steward hiding in the shadows took a sip of the black tea. It was originally prepared for Yu Feng, but since she was not needed there, she enjoyed it herself.

A small shelter had been built above her head at some point. She had invited Charmander to come over to take shelter, but the little dragon was very stubborn. He picked a leaf that was just enough to protect his body and lay there without moving.

Ai Guanshi has been taking care of Yu Feng for four or five years. This little fire dragon is more difficult to deal with than Yu Feng when he was a child. When Yu Feng was a child, at least he knew what he could and could not do after some persuasion.

(Yu Feng: Oh, cut!)

However, the superpower glow represented by this kind of Ai Guanshi's eyes never dissipated. After all, it was something arranged by Yu Feng, so it had to be done perfectly.

Charmander himself didn't notice that although the wind was blowing hard, there were unexpectedly few raindrops, and even if there were raindrops, they did not drift towards the flame on his tail.

.....

"Here, hot soup for you."

"Xiao Gang, what's wrong?"

Xiaoxia walked in front of everyone with the hot soup and distributed the soup bowl by bowl.

Everyone thanked Xiaoxia for helping to get the food, but Xiaogang was the only one who looked out the window with a worried look on his face.

"Charmander's master, I wonder if he can find this guy. Maybe he wasn't abandoned?"

Xiaogang still felt that it was not a good idea to just leave Charmander alone.

"I think it should be his master. Is there something wrong? After all, he wouldn't be so loyal to wait there if he was abandoned, right?"

Xiaozhi felt that Yu Feng's statement that Charmander was abandoned was an exaggeration. After all, it was too loyal for Charmander to still wait there even after being abandoned.

Yu Feng smiled but said nothing. After all, not everyone knew what the current situation was.

At this moment, a group of gangster-like people chatting nearby attracted everyone's attention.

"How about it? It's that simple."

A blue-haired man was sitting proudly on the sofa, looking around at his friends. The table in front of him was filled with Poké Balls, and at a glance there were about twenty Poké Balls.

It seems that he is showing off his gains today to them.

"That's amazing! You are worthy of being Dayou brother."

A scoundrelly boy praised the harvest of this man named Dayou.

"But Daiyou-kun, you don't have Charmander, right?"

Just then, a gangster with earrings asked this question for some reason.

Dayou glanced at him with his eyes slanted. It seemed that his question was really annoying, so his face was not very good, but he still answered the question of this thug: "Of course I have, but the strength of my little dragon is too weak. It can't even beat the mosquito coil tadpole. It's really bad."

As he spoke, Daisuke spread his hands to indicate that Charmander's strength was really poor.

"That person is so annoying."

Misty hates people who only care about Pokémon fighting. It's no wonder that Charmander can't beat Pokémon Go.

"It's true that Charmander is afraid of water-type Pokémon, but it can definitely become stronger if trained properly."

Xiaogang gave Xiaozhi some popular science, but also mentioned in passing that any Pokémon can be cultivated and become stronger.

After all, attribute restraint is one of the great pleasures of Pokémon, and you can't be unable to fight just because you're restrained.

At this moment, they didn't know that the annoying thing in front of them was the real culprit who abandoned Charmander. They just thought it was a trainer complaining about his Pokémon being weak.

"So what happened to that little Charmander?"

But it was as if they had specifically told Xiaozhi and the others that the gangster started asking about Charmander's whereabouts again.

"Ah, I lost it in the mountain."

Daisuke said something that would make a normal person numb with anger as if it didn't matter.

This sentence made Xiaozhi and the others immediately understand who the Charmander in the mountain was waiting for. It was the person in front of them, and from what he said, it seemed that he had deliberately abandoned Charmander.

Then everyone looked at Yu Feng in shock, as if they were surprised why he knew from the beginning that Charmander was abandoned.

Yu Feng replied with the word "secret" and said nothing more.

"He's so stupid. I lost him several times but he kept following me. Finally, I told him to wait for me here and I would come back. Only then did he stop following me."

At this point, Dayou glanced at his companions' reactions, and seeing that they all looked curious, he continued speaking with great satisfaction.

"And stupidly he was wagging his tail at me to send me off, hahaha."

Daisuke didn't care at all about abandoning Pokémon, and even treated it as a joke. It seemed that he didn't feel any guilt at all for abandoning Pokémon.

The younger brothers around him saw Dayou laughing and started laughing too, but no one knew what they were laughing at.

Xiaogang looked at this group of people and their faces turned unfriendly. God knows why he could see anger in their squinting eyes.

But to be honest, Daisuke's ability is extraordinary, as he can irritate a good guy like Xiaogang.

Xiaogang slapped his hands on the table and walked towards Dayou calmly.