Chapter 96 Good intentions lead to bad things

"Who knows? He may still be wagging his tail on the top of the hill."

"Maybe the tail was shaken too hard and the fire was shaken out."

"This will be fun, hahahahahaha."

Dayou and his group did not notice any changes in the aura around them. They were still happily discussing and teasing the little Charmander that was abandoned in the mountains.

They were even laughing happily when they were talking excitedly, not noticing that the surrounding environment was getting colder.

Xiao Gang appeared beside Dayou without knowing when, grabbed his collar and said seriously: "Go pick him up."

Dayou and the others here haven't figured out the current situation yet. They were caught by Xiaogang and were a little overwhelmed. Xiaogang continued to say seriously: "The little fire dragon is still waiting for you on the top of the mountain. Hurry up and pick him up."

"What? Who are you to mind my business here?"

Although he still didn't quite understand what was happening, Dayou's resistance was very strong.

"If you tell your captured Pokémon that you will go pick him up, he will wait for you there until he dies. Did you know that?"

Xiaogang had a serious expression on his face, and he felt a little nervous when he looked at Dayou, but he quickly realized that this was his own business and it was not anyone else's turn to comment on it.

"Stop talking nonsense, this matter has nothing to do with you!"

Daisuke slapped away Xiaogang's hand that was grabbing his collar with a very dissatisfied tone. Of course, he had the right to deal with his own Pokémon.

"Xiao Gang is right!"

Xiaozhi also stood up and agreed with Xiaogang's statement. As a Pokémon lover, when he saw Daisuke treating Charmander like this, he felt an inexplicable anger in his heart and didn't know how to vent it.

"What? There are companions?"

When Dayou saw the four people surrounding him from behind, he took a step back. Since they were outnumbered and powerful, he had to temporarily avoid their attack.

"As someone who also loves Pokémon, I am ashamed of your behavior."

Xiaozhi's expression also became serious. He never thought that there would be someone who deceived Pokémon like this.

Yuto Sundae, Misty and Pikachu also echoed what Ash said. After all, this matter was not a good thing no matter how you looked at it. He could obviously choose to let the Pokémon go, but he chose the worst option, abandoning it and lying that the Pokémon would come to pick him up.

This was unacceptable to the educated Yuto Seidai. Although she would selectively choose Pokémon, she would not fall to the point of cheating on Pokémon.

"Shut up, who are you? Do you want to get beaten?"

Seeing that the other side had more people, Dayou picked up a Poké Ball on the table and started threatening them. After all, the Pokémon carried by these people in front of him might not be as many as those on his table.

"Dayou, I'll help you too."

Seeing that Dayou was in a bad condition, the thugs behind him hurried over to express their loyalty and wanted to help Dayou fight against the five people in front of them.

"Want to fight?"

When Xiaozhi heard what the other party said, he put his hand on the Poké Ball at his waist to prevent the other party from doing anything.

Although Yu Feng looked serious on the outside, he was almost laughing to death on the inside.
Fighting?

This is Daisuke? How can he fight them? Pokémon battles are not won by having more Pokémon.

Let's take a look at their lineup, Brock, a certified Rock-type Gym Leader from the Kanto region, Misty, a certified Water-type Gym Leader from the Kanto region, and Satoshi...we'll skip them for now.

Yuto Seidai, a top student in the Pokémon research class, comes from a family that is at least powerful.

Finally, he himself is a humanoid Pokémon, and the most difficult Psychic Pokémon. When he evolves into Gardevoir, he is at least an elite Pokémon, not to mention that he also has a Shiny Gardevoir, which is at least at the quasi-king level, and behind him stands a group of Gardevoirs at the lowest king level.

They compare their heads with them? Power Power has two gym owners and a rich girl, and Strength Strength has Yu Feng who can trade one for one with the "Flying King" Yulongdu Ace Dragonite.

As for the background? Are you kidding? Behind Xiaozhi is Professor Oak. In the entire Kanto region, who dares to touch him except for the legendary beasts? In this region, no one who is greater than Professor Oak has been born yet.

"No, you stop here."

"Pokémon are not tools for you to fight with. If you fight, you will lose your qualifications as Pokémon trainers."

Miss Joy walked over to them from the front desk at some point and put an end to the tense atmosphere between them.

Although she said so, I don't know if it was Yu Feng's illusion. Although Miss Joy was talking about their two groups, her eyes were looking at Dayou and others as if warning.

As Miss Joy who has been stationed here for a long time, how could she not know what kind of people Daisuke and his crew are? To put it nicely, they are trainers, to put it bluntly, they are just a bunch of troublemakers.

"Humph! They were the ones who provoked me first."

Dayou is not a fool. When he saw Miss Joy's gaze, he knew that she would definitely favor Xiaogang and the others. He left after saying something harsh.

The gangsters glanced at them as if they wanted to remember them, but when they saw Miss Joy jumped off the sofa, they quickly took the Poké Ball on the table and walked away with Dayou.

"It's better not to get involved with those people. They have a very bad reputation."

As Yu Feng expected, Miss Joy seemed to come to stop their fight, but in fact she came to warn Dayou and others not to mess around. After all, as members of the Joy clan, they hated people who did not cherish Pokémon.

"Yes, I will be careful."

The low pressure around Xiaogang suddenly disappeared, and a faint blush could be seen on his dark skin.

"You have blue hair and look like a woman. You must be Xiao Feng that the sisters mentioned. Don't worry, we are following up on your matter."

Miss Joy looked at the tall girl in front of her... or was it a young man? But since the sisters said it was a boy, it didn't matter.

"Actually, you don't have to worry about it, Miss Joy. We may not be the ones in trouble. Look at this guy. Although he has dark skin, he is the former gym leader of Nibe City."

"And this... beautiful girl is also the gym leader of Cerulean City."

Yu Feng pulled the blushing Xiao Gang over and introduced him to Miss Joey. He didn't really want to add "beautiful girl" to Xiao Xia's introduction, but he couldn't resist the death stare on Xiao Xia's face.

"So it's the two gym masters? Looks like I missed an opportunity to teach Daisuke a lesson this time."

When Miss Joy heard Yu Feng say that these were the two gym masters, she covered her mouth in surprise. After all, her place was usually visited by only some trainers passing by or living nearby, and she basically never saw gym masters here.

However, after realizing that they were gym leaders, Miss Joy knew that her intentions were good but her intentions were bad. She could have seen them teach Daisuke and his group a lesson.
