Chapter 98 Assist Team Online

The lights in the operating room went out, and Xiaozhi and the others who had been waiting at the door for a long time looked at Miss Joy with hope in their eyes.

Miss Joy, who had just come out, had a very solemn expression on her face. When she saw Satoshi and the others waiting here and not sleeping yet, she made a "yeah" gesture, indicating that Charmander was fine.

This made Xiaozhi and the others who had been waiting here for several hours finally put their worries aside.

"Luckily you guys got him here in time, and he wasn't exposed to too much rain. By tomorrow morning, he'll be back to good health."

After saying this, Miss Joy made way for the operating room so that Satoshi and the others could see Charmander, which was now safe.

Xiaozhi, Xiaoxia, Xiaogang and Yuto Seidai stacked their heads on top of each other and stuck them into the operating room to observe what was inside.

Charmander was placed in the treatment device and was receiving treatment. Looking at the flame on Charmander's tail burning steadily, Xiaozhi and the others could finally put their minds at ease.

The early morning sun shone on the people sleeping in the hall. Xiaoxia and Yuto Seidai were lying in the tent specially built by Yu Feng.

Yu Feng was sitting on a chair nearby, elegantly eating the breakfast prepared by the butler.

"Da da da."

"Hurry up, everyone, get up!"

Xiaogang's hurried footsteps woke up Xiaozhi from his sleep. Xiaozhi, who was still dazed, looked at Xiaogang with some confusion.

Seeing everyone looking at him in confusion, Xiao Gang panted and said anxiously:
"Charmander...Charmander is missing."

This suddenly woke up the still dazed Xiaozhi, who quickly put on his shoes and walked towards the treatment room.

Yu Feng looked up at them and wanted to say something, but then he looked at the breakfast on his table and thought it would not be too late to finish breakfast before going over.

So he sped up his eating, but even with the speed increase he was still very elegant.

When he finished his meal and rushed to the ward where Charmander had stayed yesterday, he only heard Miss Gajoy say, "No one can change Charmander's mind until he realizes that he has been deceived."

"You are still thinking in a conventional way."

When Yu Feng heard what was said inside, he interrupted their conversation without thinking.

"We have a recording of Dayou's conversation with us. We can just play it for him at the right opportunity."

Yu Feng tossed the recorder up and down. This thing was a secret weapon. When the time was right, he would play the conversation in it for Charmander. It would be useless even if Dayou could make black into white.

"Yup!"

After hearing Yu Feng's words, Xiaozhi also became excited. They still have this recording thing. As long as he lets Charmander play it... Xiaozhi soon realized a problem. This thing is indeed a killer, but the prerequisite is that Charmander must be able to hear it.

"But how do we tell Charmander? We're leaving soon, aren't we?"

Yuto Seidai came over calmly and asked a question that even Xiaozhi noticed.

"So how long ago did I say that you all forgot everything?"

Seeing that they seemed to have forgotten everything he said, Yu Feng helplessly held his forehead. It was only a day later that they could forget everything. However, he still repeated what he said that day: "I said that an old friend would help us. Why do you think that there is no turning point when the old friend hasn't appeared yet?"

"But we are leaving soon, and the old friend you mentioned is not yet..."

Xiaozhi became impatient when he heard Yu Feng's words. It's not like they would stay here forever. You know, they were about to set off. The old friend Xiaofeng mentioned had not shown up yet.

"Just do what you have to do. I don't want to say more. You will know when the time comes."

Yu Feng didn't want to say more. They knew that Pokémon would repay a favor. Did they really think that Charmander could leave with a clear conscience?

At least they will protect Xiaozhi and the others and make them leave the vicinity. Then it will be the turn of their old friends to provide assists.

Yu Feng turned around and disappeared into the room. He didn't want to waste any more words with them.

"Xiao Feng..."

Xiaozhi stared at the place where Yu Feng disappeared, his hands involuntarily clenched into fists.

"Okay Xiaozhi, Xiaofeng is that kind of person. He is also worried about Charmander, otherwise he wouldn't have asked Aibutsu to help. You don't need to be angry with him."

Xiaogang walked up and patted Xiaozhi on the shoulder. As a companion who has been traveling for such a long time, isn't he clear about what kind of personality Yu Feng has?

Although he looks sunny, cheerful and positive, he actually has his own code of conduct. He also has superpowers and he must have done this after seeing that the problem has been solved.

"I know, I just can't help it."

Xiaozhi of course knew that Yu Feng had the same idea as he did. What made him angry was that Xiao Feng always acted like he had everything under control.

Sooner or later he will suffer a great loss because of his attitude. Even a psychic Pokémon will be subdued.

.....

Musashi, Kojiro and Meowth were looking at the machine in front of them with admiration.

"To prevent the world from being destroyed!"

"To protect world peace!"

.....

"I'm Musashi!"

"I'm Kojiro!"

For some reason, the two of them started reciting their old opening remarks again.

"Meow! There's no time to dance now, and those guys haven't come yet. What opening line are you reciting?"

Mao Miao looked speechlessly at Musashi and Kojiro who suddenly started introducing themselves.

"We must catch that Pikachu today!"

"Yes, yes, for this special day, we have specially prepared the world's most powerful super machine."

Speaking of Satoshi and the others, Kojiro and Musashi suddenly became alert. They didn't see that troublesome big devil last time, so maybe they had parted ways. Now there is only one little devil left, so they must catch Pikachu.

Thinking of this, Kojiro took out a remote control and pressed the start button at the same time as Musashi.

"What kind of machine is that?"

Meow Meow looked at the machine started by Musashi and the others with horror. The machine gradually deformed with a roar and then a huge drill was revealed, digging into the ground.

"Meow, what? Another trap. This is all you have!"

Meow Meow, who had a look of fear on his face, suddenly had a bunch of '#' signs appearing on his head. He had been expecting this machine to be something super powerful, but it turned out to be just a trap-digging machine.

Are they dead? If they are dead, they can bite the lighter. Have they ever stepped on the trap since the trap was dug?

In the end, they just enjoyed it themselves, okay? Why did they spend so much money in secrecy to build this thing?

For a moment, Miaomiao felt his fist harden.
