

Genius 1271

Chapter 1271: Acting Too Arrogant Can Easily Get You Struck By Lightning!

...

The conflict between these siblings had escalated to such a degree that even Qin Fang found it quite astonishing. However, since it didn't concern him, he naturally kept his distance.

Shua~~

With Ruan Youlin's order, his subordinates uniformly lowered their guns, though each remained highly vigilant and, intentionally or not, kept Ruan Youlin within their protective circle.

Judging from their stance, it seemed that if Ruan Beauty showed even the slightest sign of misconduct, these men would immediately place their bodies in front of Ruan Youlin and launch the fiercest attack against Ruan Beauty and her group.

These men were Ruan Youlin's private soldiers, essentially his personal guards, loyal only to one person—the sinister-looking man before them, Ruan Youlin.

For Ruan Youlin's orders, these personal guards obeyed unconditionally...

Aside from Ruan Youlin, not even Ruan Wenzhong, the warlord of the Northern Anlang and Ruan Youlin's father, had the authority to command these men.

These private soldiers had been brainwashed since their formation, loyal only to one individual; no one else could control them.

In regions dominated by warlords, such occurrences were very common. Almost every warlord with military power had a personal guard detail like this.

Ordinarily, such a team was primarily for personal safety, but should they find themselves in extreme danger, the team would transform into a daredevil team, willing to sacrifice themselves entirely to ensure their commanding warlord could escape alive...

Large warlords had large teams, and smaller warlords had smaller ones. The offspring of these warlords often had their own personal guard teams as well...

The Ruan siblings before them were children of the warlord Ruan Wenzhong, each with their own personal guard teams...

The team in front belonged to Ruan Youlin. As for Ruan Beauty's team... regrettably, over ninety percent of it had been wiped out by a terrifying bombing by the Dragon Country Military, leaving only the last two!

Under normal circumstances, Ruan Beauty would naturally not fear her brother. Even if they clashed head-on, neither would overpower the other.

However, unexpectedly, not only did she fail her mission, but she also almost lost her life... Although she was fortunate enough to escape with her life, her personal guards were reduced to just the last two members.

Faced with Ruan Youlin's team of over twenty, Ruan Beauty's face turned grim... The sibling relationship was quite bad; though it wouldn't lead to directly drawing guns for a fight, certain events were bound to happen.

For instance...

Snatching the item in her hand!

"Tsk tsk... Is this the secret weapon of the Hand of the Demon?"

Indeed, Ruan Youlin wasn't someone who truly cared for his sister. After a brief pretense, his gaze immediately focused on the silver-black box cradled in Qin Fang's arms.

Not long ago, during an air raid, though it wasn't a direct attack on Anlang's city or military base, the uproar it caused was significant.

Controlling the Northern Anlang, Ruan Wenzhong naturally had extremely efficient intelligence. Upon seeing the soaring flames and the swift bombing runs, he already knew what had occurred.

Facing such a terrifying assault, even the Hand of the Devil Mercenary Corps couldn't withstand it and were likely completely annihilated...

For this operation, Ruan Wenzhong had spent a significant amount of money, even leaking a substantial secret to the Hand of the Demon to secure their cooperation.

But, in reality, from the outset, Ruan Wenzhong hadn't expected the mission to be a guaranteed success!

If it succeeded, it would be a cause for celebration, granting him an unimaginable colossal achievement... But if it failed, at most, he would lose some money and an important piece of information.

The plan began over three days ago, and the initial stages proceeded smoothly, almost accomplishing the mission... Unfortunately, due to unexpected events, the first attempt failed.

From that first failure onward, Ruan Wenzhong had ceased hoping for the mission's success, even though he knew the Hand of the Demon wielded a secret weapon.

Thus, he specifically sent his daughter to check on this secret weapon of the Hand of the Demon.

Who would have thought that Dragon Country would dispatch its combat aircraft at that moment, and without waiting for the Hand of the Demon to use their secret weapon, they were wiped out directly.

The mission was declared a failure, leaving Ruan Wenzhong helpless. Fortunately, he hadn't held high hopes initially.

As for his beloved daughter...

He merely felt a sense of regret!

Don't expect men in Anlang to be family-oriented; that would be utterly ridiculous.

Men in Anlang, especially those with power and influence, were almost always surrounded by multiple wives and concubines, naturally resulting in many children, and Ruan Wenzhong was no exception.

Losing a daughter didn't cost Ruan Wenzhong much; he had several daughters, after all.

Of course, if any child could accomplish tasks for him, especially significant ones, he would be pleased and even more indulgent...

Chapter 1272: Acting Too Arrogant Can Easily Get You Struck By Lightning! _2

For example, the two people in front... Ruan Youlin and Ruan Yingxiu are among the more outstanding of his many children.

Perhaps it's for this reason that the relationship between this brother and sister is extremely discordant.

The secret weapon of the Hand of the Demon is not known only by Ruan Wenzhong, Ruan Yingxiu was a participant, so she naturally knew it quite well.

Although Ruan Youlin did not participate, he had also heard about it.

So when Dragon Country's fighter jets destroyed the base of the Hand of the Demon, as Ruan Wenzhong was preparing to gather troops to investigate the situation, Ruan Youlin immediately volunteered to go.

Perhaps from the very beginning, he wanted to find something valuable from the ruins... like the secret weapon treasured by the Hand of the Demon.

However, before they even arrived at the explosion site, they accidentally encountered Ruan Yingxiu and her group, who had survived by luck, and coincidentally saw the box that Qin Fang was holding.

As long as Ruan Youlin wasn't completely brainless, he would definitely know that the contents of this box were extraordinary...

After all, his sister had managed to escape, carrying nothing else but this large box; clearly, this box was not simple.

Upon hearing Ruan Youlin's words, Ruan Beauty's complexion instantly changed. The more you worry about something, the more likely it is to happen. This was something she had risked her life to bring out, narrowly surviving the attempt.

But now, just when she was about to take it back, it was suddenly snatched mid-way. How could she accept this?

"My dear sister... look at this big box. You don't have many people left, and they're all very tired. How about I call someone over to help you move it?"

Ruan Youlin's smile was quite bright, seeming to amicably negotiate with Ruan Beauty.

Though he called it a negotiation, it was actually no different from outright robbery.

The faces of the two guards beside Ruan Beauty changed upon hearing this. They intended to draw their guns to confront him when suddenly...

BANG BANG~~

Someone moved faster than their reaction time, and much faster indeed. Two shots were fired, bullets instantly hitting the foreheads of these unlucky guards, killing them instantly!

"Sorry, the gun accidentally fired..."

As the gunshot subsided, Ruan Youlin casually blew away the faint smoke emitting from the gun barrel, speaking in an utterly indifferent tone, as if this was nothing more than an accident.

The shooter just now was naturally him...

Daring to compete with a formidable sorcerer like Ruan Beauty, if Ruan Youlin wasn't a bit capable, he would've been dead long ago.

This much was crystal clear to Qin Fang, an outsider observing the situation. Though Ruan Youlin had a sinister appearance and an effeminate voice that caused goosebumps, his skills were undeniably strong.

Not only was his gunmanship exceptionally remarkable, nearly comparable to that of a military sharpshooter, he had also cultivated Muay Thai to Level 4, making him far superior to his sister Ruan Yingxiu.

Moreover, he was an extremely adept soldier, proficient in nearly all special forces techniques...

Even though this fellow had yet to reach the level of the Tang Cheng Soldier King, he was only slightly inferior, making him a fearsome opponent indeed.

On top of that, his thick-skinned nature made Qin Fang secretly amazed, as his vexing unpredictability skyrocketed several levels.

"You..."

Seeing her only two guards killed by Ruan Youlin, Ruan Beauty's face turned extremely ugly, her pretty face twisted completely, and the fury in her eyes seemed like it was about to explode.

But the problem was, the enemy was strong while she was weak, and there was nothing she could do about it. She could only suffer silently this immediate loss...

"Dear sister, don't be angry! At most, I'll choose a few better ones for you once we return..."

Ruan Youlin's thick skin was truly not of the ordinary kind; he killed Ruan Beauty's people and still smiled while suggesting he'd pick new guards for her...

Not to mention if Ruan Beauty would accept it, just knowing his intentions toward her, it's clear he didn't have any kind intentions.

Letting him choose guards for Ruan Beauty would be more of a pretense to plant spies around her... Naturally, Ruan Beauty would never accept it,

Yet, this was merely Ruan Youlin's nonsense, and even he wasn't serious about it.

He was merely provoking his sister.

While saying this, Ruan Youlin sidestepped and moved past Ruan Beauty, heading towards Qin Fang, who was carrying the box.

Ruan Beauty was his biological sister. Though their conflicts were massive, killing each other's underlings was acceptable, but fratricide was not.

Once discovered by their father Ruan Wenzhong, no matter how capable one was, there would only be the road to death...

Killing his sister was not an option, so the box was what he truly cared about.

If he could seize the box, it would not only hurt his sister but also earn credit from his father Ruan Wenzhong, achieving two goals at once; naturally, he wouldn't miss the chance!

"Kid, put the box down... I might spare your life!"

Walking straight up to Qin Fang, Ruan Youlin focused intently on the tightly bound box and said very arrogantly to Qin Fang.

Perhaps, in his view, his previous move of killing two people was quite intimidating, and the person in front of him, who looked a bit dazed, was nothing but an ordinary attendant of his sister, posing no real threat.

Especially with Qin Fang's slightly blank expression and somewhat glazed-over eyes, it seemed he had already been intimidated, so naturally, he spoke with no courtesy.

However...

Ruan Youlin could hardly imagine that Qin Fang was not at all related to his sister Ruan Yingxiu, not even an Anlang Person. He would not fear him, nor Ruan Youlin's father Ruan Wenzhong.

Therefore...

His tragedy was destined!

Qin Fang had long been annoyed with Ruan Youlin, but since he was pretending to be mute, it was inconvenient to speak out the words at the tip of his tongue, so he simply acted directly.

At this moment, Ruan Youlin was leaning close to Qin Fang, scrutinizing the box in Qin Fang's hands, when unexpectedly, Qin Fang suddenly made his move.

A hand that seemed quite robust surged with lightning speed, and before Ruan Youlin could make any reaction, it directly clamped onto Ruan Youlin's neck.

"Ugh..."

Ruan Youlin never imagined that the laborer hauling the box, whom he had ignored from the beginning, was actually the fiercest entity.

By the time he realized something was wrong, he had no chance to escape. Qin Fang directly clamped his neck, and with a slight exertion, lifted him entirely off the ground.

Though Ruan Youlin was quite capable, he was no match for Qin Fang. Moreover, Anlang people were generally shorter, while Qin Fang was relatively tall, making it easy to lift Ruan Youlin off the ground with his legs helplessly dangling, serving no purpose...

Just like that, Ruan Youlin was restrained by Qin Fang with one hand, while Qin Fang's other hand still clutched the extremely heavy box.

This strength almost rendered Ruan Beauty dumbfounded.

Or perhaps she was bewildered by such an abrupt change...

"Put the young master down!"

"Put the young master down quickly..."

Click-click-click-click~~

But someone reacted faster than her, and it was Ruan Youlin's personal guard unit. They had not at all anticipated things would turn out this way.

Their master Ruan Youlin was a dominant powerhouse, always bullying others, with no one daring to stand up to him.

Especially now, they seemed to hold an absolute advantage, so they were less cautious. Only when Qin Fang restrained Ruan Youlin did they become completely dumbfounded... hastily raising their guns to aim at Qin Fang, intending to force him to comply.

Chapter 1273: Scare You to Death!

Over twenty guns immediately aimed at Qin Fang.

Yet Qin Fang remained unfazed, his arm still tightening around Ruan Youlin's neck, even squeezing harder, causing Ruan Youlin's originally purplish face to turn even more purple.

It was obvious that Qin Fang's grip was extremely painful for him, making it increasingly difficult to breathe...

If this continues, there's a real possibility that Qin Fang might actually strangle him to death!

Even Ruan Youlin was vaguely aware of this, but his hands could only weakly claw at Qin Fang's palm, having absolutely no effect on that arm as hard as iron.

Click click click click~~

The guards were incredibly tense, loading bullets into their guns, all aiming at Qin Fang, seemingly ready to fire at any moment.

They didn't dare harm Miss Ruan, but killing one of Miss Ruan's guards wouldn't be a big deal, at most they'd face some reprimands.

They were doing this to protect their master, Ruan Youlin, who would naturally defend them, and at most, they might just face a whipping.

However...

Would Qin Fang give them the opportunity?

Clearly not.

Qin Fang was there single-handedly strangling Ruan Youlin, using his body to shield his head, while the large alloy box happened to protect his body.

The vital parts that could be fatally hit were all securely protected, only his two feet were exposed outside.

Shooting the feet was pointless; nobody's ever heard of anyone dying just because they got shot in the foot...

As long as Qin Fang wasn't instantly killed, with Qin Fang's strength, even a fool could see he'd definitely kill Ruan Youlin immediately.

As a result, Ruan Youlin's guards were flummoxed, clueless about what to do, simply holding their guns and staring blankly at Qin Fang and the others.

"Stop..."

In this standoff, Miss Ruan played quite a significant role, immediately speaking out to stop them.

She was mainly startled by the sudden happening until she finally reacted to it; amid her shock, she was slightly panicked.

The people opposite her were all under her brother Ruan Youlin, and they, including Ruan Youlin, believed that the box-carrying Qin Fang was Ruan Yingxiu's man.

But in reality, she was most aware that this person was merely someone they'd found midway to help carry the box; in fact, they had no real affiliations.

Ruan Youlin's guards were cautious and assumed Qin Fang wouldn't dare take drastic actions against Ruan Youlin.

Much like when they aimed numerous guns at Ruan Yingxiu, yet wouldn't actually fire at Ruan Yingxiu... the consequences were beyond what they could bear, nor could even their master protect them.

But Ruan Yingxiu was very clear that Qin Fang wasn't her man; if Qin Fang truly wanted to kill Ruan Youlin, even she wouldn't be able to talk him down...

Especially now that Qin Fang was under the aim of so many guns, capable of impulsive actions that everyone would regret.

Upon hearing Miss Ruan's words, these people were visibly displeased; their master was Ruan Youlin, not Miss Ruan...

Therefore, upon hearing Miss Ruan's words, they showed hesitation, not lowering their guns immediately, still seemingly looking for an opportunity to strike.

"If you don't want your master to be killed, lower your guns immediately..."

Miss Ruan was infuriated, but these people were not her subordinates, naturally wouldn't heed her orders; this was unavoidable. Yet Qin Fang's move was unexpected to her, giving her quite a good opportunity.

"My dear brother, if you don't want to be killed by him, you'd better have your people put their guns down immediately! Otherwise... humph humph, I can't guarantee he won't do something to you..."

To make this matter go more smoothly, Ruan Beauty also took the opportunity to speak to Ruan Youlin, who was nearly out of breath.

At this moment, Ruan Youlin was truly frightened. Qin Fang's arm was incredibly strong; even with his strength, he couldn't ease it even a little. The more he struggled, the more Qin Fang's grip tightened, making it unbearably painful for him.

In the face of death threats, no one truly remains indifferent, especially someone like Ruan Youlin, who is usually arrogant and domineering, desiring nothing more than a long life.

He was regretting his carelessness, but regret was useless. How to get through this immediate crisis was the most important thing.

Just as his sister's voice came, Ruan Youlin, without even thinking, immediately waved his arms weakly towards his bodyguards behind him, signaling them to put down their guns.

Ruan Youlin's bodyguards could ignore Miss Ruan's orders and disregard Qin Fang's threats, but they could never defy Ruan Youlin's commands.

They glanced at each other; although their master was still under the enemy's control, they dared not hesitate and immediately dropped the guns in their hands to the ground in front of them.

Ruan Beauty wasn't foolish. Although these weapons were dropped to the ground, once Ruan Youlin was out of Qin Fang's control, these people would definitely pick up the guns immediately and shoot Qin Fang.

Although she wasn't too concerned about Qin Fang's life or death, Qin Fang was now the key to protecting this box, so she had to take it seriously.

Seeing the guns on the ground, Ruan Beauty immediately went over, either removing the magazines from the guns or tossing them aside. She stood there holding a gun, as if daring anyone to approach easily, she would shoot immediately.

This was not impossible... just look at Ruan Youlin. He had just killed the last two bodyguards beside Ruan Yingxiu without even blinking.

Ruan Yingxiu could kill them too; tit for tat is a common occurrence. As the children of the largest warlord in the north, they enjoyed such privileges.

By gathering these weapons together and personally controlling them, the possibility of these people turning hostile immediately was temporarily eliminated...

Poof~~

Seeing the guns confiscated, the pressure on Qin Fang's side was reduced, and he seemed to lose interest in Ruan Youlin. With a shake of his arm, Ruan Youlin's body was sent flying across to the other side.

Heavily crashing into the two bodyguards at the forefront on the opposite side, a dull thud sounded as the three of them rolled into a heap.

Witnessing this scene, Ruan Beauty secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

She was a bit worried that she couldn't persuade Qin Fang, fearing Qin Fang would harm her brother Ruan Youlin. If that happened, although she could escape this disaster, it would be challenging to clear her name upon returning.

Now, Qin Fang had directly thrown aside Ruan Youlin. Although his action seemed heavy-handed, Ruan Youlin was clearly still alive, and that was enough...

With the box in her hands secured and a sharp lesson taught to Ruan Youlin, crushing his arrogance, this was very beneficial for her as Miss Ruan!

Ruan Youlin was only choked by Qin Fang for a while and wasn't injured. At this point, with the help of a few bodyguards, he had risen from the ground, panting heavily, while occasionally casting a sinister glance at Qin Fang across the way...

However, Qin Fang didn't seem to notice his sinister, venomous gaze, and he even appeared harsher than Ruan Youlin had expected.

He walked up to the pile of guns in front of Ruan Beauty, picked one up with one hand, gripped the barrel, and with a slight twist, the steel barrel turned into a twisted gun...

Discarding one gun, Qin Fang didn't stop there. He continued to grab another gun and twisted it as before, creating another "twisted gun"...

Following that, the second, third, fourth... each time Qin Fang twisted, a gun turned into a useless piece of scrap metal in his hand.

With the barrels twisted like this, the guns were utterly unusable; bullets couldn't be fired, and they would likely explode the chamber, certainly harmful to others and inevitably to themselves...

Hiss~~

Seeing this scene, everyone couldn't help but gasp.

Especially Ruan Youlin, who felt a personal connection. Earlier, he was caught in Qin Fang's grasp; if Qin Fang had twisted his neck like these barrels...

Even these steel barrels could be easily twisted, recalling the powerless suffocation just now, Ruan Youlin's recently aroused vengeful thoughts immediately dissipated. He had no desire to "enjoy" that suffocation again.

Ruan Youlin's bodyguards were all trembling with fear. If they had guns, they might not be so afraid, but now their guns were confiscated, and unarmed, they seemed no match for the extraordinarily strong Qin Fang...

Not only were Ruan Youlin and his men terrified, even Ruan Beauty was quite frightened. Qin Fang's immense strength was terrifying, entirely beyond their psychological endurance.

However, compared to Ruan Youlin and his men, she was somewhat fortunate because Qin Fang seemed to be on her side...

Chapter 1274: Charming~

...

Qin Fang's speed is still very fast. In no time, this pile of guns was no longer usable.

Only Ruan Beauty has a few guns in her hand, enough for her self-defense... At the same time, it truly eliminated the threat of Ruan Youlin and others.

With a gun in hand, even Qin Fang has to be very careful... After all, his body can't withstand bullets!

But now without a gun, Ruan Youlin and his guards are like tigers without teeth and claws... Completely harmless.

Fighting with Qin Fang?

Ruan Youlin must be out of his mind to plan something like that.

He's also an expert trained in Muay Thai, quite skilled, but has no resistance against Qin Fang.

Previously, Qin Fang indeed seemed to sneak attack, but Ruan Youlin isn't stupid. Upon simple reflection, he knows Qin Fang is much stronger than him, even in a fair fight, the one who loses will undoubtedly be Ruan Youlin...

Since that's the case, he naturally has no need to humiliate himself...

If he, a Level 4 expert, can't handle it, then his subordinates who are at most Level 2 or Level 3 are even less reliable...

Regardless of their number being about twenty, whether or not Qin Fang can kill them all is doubtful, he naturally won't try any further.

"Let's go..."

Ruan Beauty also saw it clearly, so naturally, there's no need to worry anymore. Looking at Qin Fang, who had silently stood beside her, a strange light flickered in her eyes, but she didn't show anything, instead softly saying these words.

Then, Ruan Beauty stepped forward to continue on their journey...

And Qin Fang remained as silent as before, carrying the box and following behind Ruan Beauty, both walking consecutively forward.

As for what Ruan Youlin and his gang, who lost their weapons, might plan, it's not something they need to worry about, not even caring about the corpses of Ruan Beauty's two guards killed by Ruan Youlin...

Anlang's mountain forests are like this, nearly every day someone buries bodies here, these unfortunate kids are just among them...

Moreover, more people died today than usual, a whole Thousand-person Formation of Hand of the Demon was almost entirely interred here.

Safely escaping, the two immediately headed to their destination, complete without pausing and notably faster in pace.

Ruan Beauty also learned some martial arts, physically stronger than the average woman, but walking such mountain roads left her panting heavily.

On the contrary, Qin Fang, carrying a large box, seemed calm, as if he held a small ball of cotton instead of numerous heavy kilos, throughout the journey he didn't shed a single drop of sweat...

"I'm too tired, let's rest for a bit..."

Anlang's mountain forest is vast, especially the northern areas are mostly covered by thick forests, a journey even men would struggle with, let alone a girl like Ruan Beauty.

After walking over ten kilometers, she was quite exhausted and they weren't particularly far from the closest city to Anlang.

Qin Fang frowned upon hearing this, clearly this wasn't to his liking.

The forest here hides dangers everywhere, and he has vaguely felt a subtle threat lingering until now...

Clap clap clap clap~

After pondering, Qin Fang decided not to speak, instead squatted down and patted his back to signal.

"You want to carry me?"

Seeing Qin Fang's action, Ruan Beauty quickly understood his intention, but she hesitated.

After all, she remains cautious towards Qin Fang, even though he helped her... Coupled with her family background, she generally looks down on ordinary men, always keeping a considerable distance.

Just like earlier when they traveled, Ruan Beauty stayed ahead, maintaining nearly two meters distance from Qin Fang, indicating her thoughts...

Now, she was lying on top of Qin Fang, an action that was overly intimate, which explained his hesitation.

However, time was tight now, and her brother Ruan Youlin wasn't the kindest person. Who knows what kind of trouble he might cause, so getting back to the city quickly was the best option.

Grinding her teeth, Ruan Beauty immediately moved behind Qin Fang, placing her hands on his shoulders to support her body while trying to maintain some distance.

Yet, Qin Fang didn't pay any attention to all that; his hands reached out behind, directly grabbing Ruan Beauty's slippery, tender, long legs, spreading them and resting them on his sturdy Tiger waist...

At this moment, Qin Fang's hand also naturally cupped Ruan Beauty's buttocks. With a slight exertion, Ruan Beauty felt her body suddenly lighten, and she immediately left the ground...

"Ah..."

Her more private parts were lightly touched by Qin Fang, making Ruan Beauty quite uncomfortable, causing her to exclaim involuntarily.

She quickly realized Qin Fang didn't have any other intention; he was simply carrying her. With this understanding, she calmed down a bit.

Ruan Beauty was not used to being carried by a man, and her body was very stiff as she propped herself on Qin Fang's back, desperately trying to maintain some distance.

Qin Fang just smiled faintly about this. Pretending to be mute, he naturally couldn't speak. One hand supported Ruan Beauty's body, while the other grabbed the box, his feet started exerting force, and he transformed swiftly like an agile monkey, as fast as an arrow, dashing swiftly through the forest...

"Ah..."

With Qin Fang's burst of speed, the thought of keeping a distance vanished from Ruan Beauty's mind.

At such high speed, she had to hold tightly onto Qin Fang to ensure she wouldn't fall off... Thus, her hands, originally supporting his back, couldn't bother with being reserved anymore. They passed around Qin Fang's neck and clasped tightly around it.

This way, Ruan Beauty's body was tightly pressed against Qin Fang's back, with almost no gap between them...

Anlang was in the tropics, also within such a rainforest, where the temperature was quite high, so the Anlang people's clothes were always relatively thin.

Ruan Beauty was the same, wearing just a silk dress, while Qin Fang wore a simple shirt...

Thus, their bodies almost completely adhered to each other, her body pressing against Qin Fang's iron-hard back, feeling the slight warmth and the rich masculine scent seeping into her heart, making the inexperienced Ruan Beauty's face blush bright red.

As for Qin Fang, while moving quickly, he very clearly felt Ruan Beauty's proud fullness constantly rubbing his back...

Qin Fang could even vaguely sense two slight elevations pressing against his back!

Ruan Beauty was born into an extraordinary family, and her life was far superior to that of the average Anlang people. Her clothes were all top-quality, even the lingerie she wore closest to her body was extremely thin and form-fitting.

Perhaps Ruan Beauty had never expected such an encounter with a man, but unexpectedly, it benefited Qin Fang. The feeling was so clear, and Qin Fang's sensitivity was originally much keener than most people; it was impossible not to notice...

This journey was very picturesque and alluring; Ruan Beauty's beautiful face was flushed, and her eyebrows and eyes exuded endless allure.

Fortunately, Qin Fang carried her forward without turning back, avoiding Ruan Beauty's excessive embarrassment...

During this bumpy journey, Ruan Beauty's mindset was subtly changing, primarily driven by curiosity about this mysterious man carrying her.

"Could he be from the Hand of the Demon?"

This thought inevitably popped into Ruan Beauty's mind.

Most of the Hand of the Demon was eradicated, but in reality, there were still some remnants left. Coincidentally, Qin Fang's appearance was too close to the Hand of the Demon's territory, inevitably causing Ruan Beauty to wonder.

Qin Fang's displayed strength was incredibly strong; her brother, Ruan Youlin, was a seasoned expert at home and in the military, almost at Soldier King level.

Yet, in Qin Fang's hands, he seemed no different from unarmed women and children, easily manipulated at will.

Such a powerful expert was extremely rare; Ruan Beauty hadn't seen many, especially someone so young. She had heard that the Hand of the Demon was among the world's top mercenary groups, so it wasn't unimaginable they had such experts...

Thus, beauty admires heroes; even Ruan Beauty, born into a military family, was no exception. With considerable prowess herself, she naturally hoped her future partner would be stronger.

Perhaps it was her high standards that led her to remain single until now, unable to find anyone suitable...

Yet unexpectedly, this mysteriously powerful Qin Fang suddenly appeared in her view in such a manner, causing her to entertain a few special thoughts.

Especially now, with them intertwined in such an intimately connected manner, it was easy for certain thoughts to arise...

Chapter 1275: Such Father and Daughter

...

However, such enchanting moments cannot last very long and were soon broken by interruptions...

When a large number of soldiers with guns, armed vehicles, and set-up roadblocks appeared ahead, Qin Fang had no choice but to temporarily pause.

And just a short distance behind these layers of roadblocks was their destination for this trip... Luo City.

"So fast..."

Seeing the city already in front of her, even though Ruan Beauty had experienced all of this herself, she couldn't help but exclaim when they suddenly stopped.

Of course, whether her words meant Qin Fang's running speed was really fast or those beautiful moments passed too quickly, only she herself knew.

However, upon reaching here, she couldn't remain on Qin Fang's back anymore and got down from his broad back. But from her look, it seemed she was still somewhat reluctant to part.

Perhaps the time was indeed too short...

The area of this mountain was vast, but it wasn't too far from the city. Under Qin Fang's high-speed pace, what would normally take at least an hour was completed in just over ten minutes.

And this was even with Qin Fang carrying Ruan Beauty on his back and holding several hundred pounds of items in his hands...

Given such circumstances, Ruan Beauty's exclamation of "too fast" was entirely understandable.

However, Qin Fang had no response to Ruan Beauty's exclamation, still playing his role as a mute, standing by her side like a diligent guard.

Yet, Ruan Beauty knew very well that he was not her guard, and to be precise, she still had no idea about Qin Fang's true identity...

There was no way, as Qin Fang was a mute now and couldn't speak; even if she wanted to ask, there was nothing she could find out.

But one thing Ruan Beauty could be sure of was that Qin Fang harbored no malice towards her and was even very attentive in protecting her...

"Could it be because he likes me?"

Suddenly, such a thought popped up in Ruan Beauty's mind, startling her greatly.

However, looking at Qin Fang's wooden expression, it was hard to discern any emotion, leaving Ruan Beauty feeling quite unsettled...

Nevertheless, it was apparent she couldn't afford to slowly guess and ponder because they had reached the edge of the city and were stopped by a group of soldiers armed to the teeth.

Whether it was due to the recent Dragon Country fighter jet bombing of the Hand of the Demon camp, even the Anlang Military Region was alerted.

As the guardian of Northern Anlang and the highest commander of the military forces... Ruan Wenzhong dared not be negligent. To prevent any unexpected events, he immediately dispatched troops to seal off various points around Luo City, especially rigorously blocking roads leading to the northern mountains.

As for why he did so?

Whether it was to prevent Dragon Country intelligence and operatives from infiltrating Luo City or to thwart residual forces of the Hand of the Demon, only Ruan Wenzhong knew best, and his troops merely followed orders obediently.

Luo City is a crucial town in Northern Anlang. Although not the city closest to Dragon Country's border, it is strategically significant.

This place is a hub for Northern Anlang; heading north through the vast forested areas leads one to the Dragon Country border, walking west across several tributaries of the Mekong River leads to the jade-producing Mian Dian, and going southeast directly reaches the Anlang Capital... thus the importance of this city is self-evident.

And it is precisely such an important city that is under the control of Ruan Wenzhong, or rather, it is Ruan Wenzhong's stronghold.

If it weren't, Ruan Wenzhong wouldn't be so cautious and careful.

Qin Fang was unfazed, all this was foreseeable, even if the event occurred in Dragon Country, similar reactions would probably follow.

Ruan Beauty did not hesitate, heading towards the roadblock ahead, while Qin Fang followed behind her carrying the boxes, walking slowly...

"Who goes there?"

However, they were still stopped, as a soldier aimed his gun at the approaching Ruan Beauty and Qin Fang, shouting with some hostility.

Pop~~

But just as he spoke, he was kicked severely, falling to the ground with a groan. Upon looking back, he immediately realized it was his superior, angrily glaring at him, leaving him bewildered and tense...

"Miss Ruan... Hello!"

The officer ignored the soldier, immediately and respectfully addressing Ruan Beauty.

Once they heard the address "Miss Ruan" and saw their officer's reaction, how could these soldiers not understand the woman's identity?

They immediately stood at attention with a crisp salute and respectfully addressed her.

Even the soldier who was just kicked got up from the ground at once, stood amongst the crowd, and greeted nervously, seemingly very afraid that Miss Ruan might get upset and decide to finish him off!

Chapter 1276: Such Father and Daughter_2

"Get me a car..."

However, Ruan Beauty clearly had no such idle thoughts, and at this moment seemed to have returned to her former cold and glamorous demeanor as a proud beauty, immediately instructing the officer.

"Yes..."

The officer naturally did not dare to have the slightest defiance, and went off to prepare without delay.

Ruan Beauty is the daughter of Ruan Wenzhong, a princess-like existence, definitely an extremely prominent figure both in terms of background and status, and moreover, Ruan Beauty is such a dazzlingly beautiful lady, becoming the dream girl of many young men...

Coincidentally, this young officer was one of them, previously only able to fantasize in dreams, but this time was the first to speak with his dream goddess up close.

Even though the goddess, the princess only spoke to him to prepare a car... it was enough to keep him happy for several days.

Ruan Beauty's background is well known here in Northern Anlang, easily recognizable by many, making her orders readily obeyed.

The officer wasted no time, arranging a car for Ruan Beauty and Qin Fang, though just an ordinary jeep, it was quite suitable.

Anlang's conditions weren't great, and the roads weren't very good either. Most regular cars were found in economically developed cities, but places like Luo City were less bustling, making it difficult for regular cars to navigate, whereas jeeps were very suitable for use here...

Moreover, the car bore the Anlang Military license plate, leaving little chance for anyone to stop them, essentially allowing them to go anywhere without issue...

With the car, the journey became much easier.

Ruan Beauty took the driver's seat, driving Qin Fang directly towards the Ruan Family Mansion in Luo City.

Initially, Qin Fang, tasked with carrying boxes, was supposed to disappear automatically after safely delivering Ruan Beauty to Luo City as he had completed his mission.

However, Qin Fang was a mute, unable to speak, so naturally unable to express this, and Ruan Beauty seemed to have her own reasons, so neither mentioned the matter, leading the two to continue together towards the Ruan Family Mansion...

As the century's ruler of Luo City, the Ruan Family wielded the greatest authority here, possessing the largest mansion located in the center of the city, vast in area and luxuriously decorated, with strict protection, armed soldiers everywhere, exuding an air of menace.

Said to be a mansion, it was akin to a city lord's estate, a forbidden palace, where the Ruan Family lived and handled various official matters...

Others lacked the privilege to enter the Ruan Family Mansion unless specially requested by the Ruan Family; if one attempted to force entry, the guards would likely shoot them to pieces.

But Ruan Beauty was different, being a member of the Ruan Family, could freely enter and exit, and Qin Fang, by association, was also able to smoothly enter the Ruan Family Mansion, even directly heading towards Ruan Wenzhong's office, which was dubbed the city of the "King of Northern Anlang."

Ruan Beauty walked ahead, with Qin Fang following, carrying the box.

There was an officer who seemed to have just finished his business, coincidentally walking out from Ruan Wenzhong's office and seeing Ruan Beauty, wanting to curry favor by taking over Qin Fang's heavy task.

However, when Qin Fang tossed the box lightly, playfully, the unfortunate officer almost broke his back under its weight...

If Qin Fang had not held it in time, the box would have been heavily dropped to the ground; despite that, the unfortunate officer's hands suffered some bone injuries... gaining nothing but losing face in front of Ruan Beauty...

It was just a minor episode, which neither Qin Fang nor Ruan Beauty cared much about, soon forgetting about it.

Unexpectedly, the slighted officer harbored a grudge, contemplating how to teach Qin Fang a hard lesson...

Yet Qin Fang paid no mind to the officer, thinking he could crush many people like him with just a slap...

Meanwhile, Ruan Beauty had led him into Ruan Wenzhong's office.

Ruan Wenzhong was a middle-aged man in his fifties, not looking very heroic, resembling a dry, thin old man, with a receding hairline.

Yet his eyes occasionally flashed with brilliance, indicating he was not as simple as he appeared...

Often the case, if Ruan Wenzhong wasn't capable, he couldn't have reached his current position, commanding Northern Anlang, even the capital being helpless against him.

"Yingxiu, what happened exactly?"

Seeing his daughter's return, Ruan Wenzhong smiled slightly, appearing pleased, but when mentioning the recent incident, his face betrayed dissatisfaction and doubt.

"The Hand of the Demon's people failed to eliminate Dragon Country's special agents, eventually being pinpointed, leading to Dragon Country fighter jets bombing... If it weren't for my luck, I might have... never returned!"

Ruan Beauty didn't conceal anything, having been directly involved and knowledgeable about the internal details, she already guessed what had happened and promptly reported truthfully!

"Unreasonable... Dragon Country People are truly excessive!"

Ruan Wenzhong burst into rage, slamming his palm heavily on the table, roaring angrily, seeming genuinely furious.

"But Dragon Country's power is overwhelming; the Ruan Family cannot oppose it. Let's leave it at that."

Yet a moment later, Ruan Wenzhong's tone changed again, appearing quite helpless, refraining from further pursuit.

"By the way, I heard you received something from the Hand of the Demon?"

Not just that, Ruan Wenzhong's skill in changing demeanor was remarkable, again shifting, seemingly very interested in asking.

Throughout the process, Qin Fang coldly observed, his eyes filled with disdain, clearly perceiving Ruan Wenzhong barely cared for his daughter's safety, truly concerned only about the box Ruan Beauty brought back...

"Indeed, Father, I risked my life to obtain this from the Hand of the Demon... There were originally several, but unfortunately they were destroyed in the explosion..."

Ruan Beauty didn't deny it; instead, as if seeking credit, she proclaimed.

"Good, good, good... One is better than none at all!"

Ruan Wenzhong's small eyes squinted into slits, directly approaching Qin Fang, carefully examining the large box in Qin Fang's hands.

"Who is he?"

Yet Qin Fang's presence was quite substantial; even with the large object drawing most of Ruan Wenzhong's attention, he couldn't escape Ruan Wenzhong's notice.

Seeing Qin Fang's unfamiliar face, Ruan Wenzhong's heart tightened, stepping back a few paces, shouting with utmost vigilance.

"Father, he's my newly recruited personal guard..."

Ruan Beauty paused, then glanced at Qin Fang, slowly explaining.

"I see..."

Ruan Wenzhong seemed not entirely satisfied with his daughter's answer, but said nothing further, simply responding briefly.

Chapter 1277: Top Fierce Woman!

"Just leave the thing there..."

Ruan Wenzhong glanced at Qin Fang again, then at his daughter beside him. A glimmer of strange color flashed in his eyes as he looked at the box in Qin Fang's hand, and he spoke with extreme indifference.

Looking at his demeanor and tone, it seemed as if he didn't care much about this box...

"Father, this has the most important treasure of the Hand of the Demon inside. I went through a lot of trouble to get one; don't you want to open it first..."

Ruan Beauty seemed eager to claim credit before her father, immediately expressing impatience, even walking towards Qin Fang as she spoke.

"No need..."

But before Ruan Beauty reached Qin Fang, her father's voice, cold and indifferent, came from behind, making her freeze instantly, her body stiffening and her face turning pale.

"We are not professional weapon experts. I will hand this over to them for research later..."

Noticing his daughter's change in expression, Ruan Wenzhong added simply. Although it sounded like an explanation, it seemed somewhat insincere.

"Father..."

Ruan Beauty opened her mouth as if wanting to say something, but at this moment, Ruan Wenzhong appeared to have some important files to review, which made her swallow the words back helplessly.

"Father, if there's nothing else, I will take my leave first..."

Seeing that her father didn't seem to care greatly about this matter, Ruan Beauty's face darkened with disappointment, and she said helplessly.

"Hmm... go back and rest, you must be tired!"

Ruan Wenzhong didn't make much effort to keep her, just nodded lightly, agreeing to her request, and though he showed a trace of concern, even Qin Fang could detect the underlying coldness in his words.

"Yes..."

Ruan Beauty replied lightly, then left the office with her head lowered, silently.

Of course, Qin Fang followed Ruan Beauty out. As for that box containing some mysterious weapon, it was naturally left behind in the office.

Although the weapon inside might be very powerful, one thing is certain: it does not contain a nuclear warhead or some such weapon of mass destruction.

Since it's not some weapon of terrifying destructive power, Qin Fang didn't have much to worry about, even if it were some advanced bombs or missiles... There are plenty of advanced weapons in the world, and not many have actually been used!

Moreover, at most, this box contains a single weapon, and its individual power is extremely limited. If it were more, the Hand of the Demon wouldn't be carrying twenty or thirty of such weapons for this mission alone.

Even if it falls into the hands of Ruan Wenzhong, it doesn't matter. Not to mention whether he has weapon experts who can decipher the manufacturing technology, even if he gets the weapon's production technology, it wouldn't be a significant issue.

Ruan Wenzhong is currently just the King of Northern Anlang. If he had weapons of mass destruction, his priority would be to incite a coup in Anlang, rather than taking on a superpower like Dragon Country. That would be pure suicide...

Understanding this, Qin Fang didn't bother with the contents of the weapon.

In comparison, Qin Fang was more interested in the sorcery that Ruan Beauty mastered.

Thus, Qin Fang left with an air of elegance, following Ruan Beauty away from Ruan Wenzhong... His state of mind was remarkably calm, even though he could sense Ruan Wenzhong's underlying hostility towards him.

Almost as soon as Qin Fang and Ruan Yingxiu left the office, Ruan Wenzhong raised his head and pressed a button on the telephone next to him.

In no time, a side door of the office opened, and a man in military uniform respectfully walked in, standing quietly to the side, waiting patiently.

This man wasn't very old, with ordinary looks, wearing a well-fitting military uniform, which seemed somewhat different from those of the Anlang Government Army.

"Send someone to investigate the personal guard beside the lady, as soon as possible..."

Seeing this person's arrival, Ruan Wenzhong showed no obvious change in expression, merely instructing calmly.

The soldier listened quietly, made no response, and then immediately left the office, as if he had never appeared.

Ruan Wenzhong is ultimately a heroic figure, clearly not so trusting of Qin Fang, the man who suddenly appeared beside his daughter.

Perhaps Ruan Youlin's message from the rear hasn't been passed on yet, but just from the first meeting, he already felt considerable suspicion towards Qin Fang... which shows how cautious he is.

Qin Fang could vaguely guess some of Ruan Wenzhong's thoughts, but he wasn't worried at all. He was now appearing in the identity of Fourth Brother, so he wasn't afraid of Ruan Wenzhong's investigation.

At most, they'd find out he was once a drug dealer, but as to how a regular drug dealer suddenly turned into a top-notch strongman, he'd leave that for Ruan Wenzhong to figure out...

He wasn't a drug dealer anymore now; he was the personal guard of Ruan Yingxiu, daughter of King of Northern Anlang, Ruan Wenzhong, and he couldn't speak.

It's certainly true that Ruan Yingxiu is Ruan Wenzhong's daughter, but given the previous scene, Qin Fang vaguely felt that Ruan Yingxiu isn't very favored. Ruan Wenzhong seems to keep quite a distance from her, indifferent...

Though Qin Fang knew a bit about the Anlang people's character, like daughters being tools for making money. Generally, marrying off a daughter can yield considerable wealth... So many Anlang people are happier the more daughters they have, seemingly contradicting the male-preference mindset in Dragon Country.

Perhaps that's why many wealthy and powerful men mostly have multiple wives, because they can afford the bride price and support so many wives and children...

The Ruan Family, being the local emperors of Anlang Northern Region, occupies the largest mansion in Luo City, where almost the whole family lives. Each person owns their own small courtyard, keeping things relatively quiet.

Now Ruan Beauty was walking ahead, while Qin Fang followed behind with his head down. His peripheral vision continuously scanned the surroundings, seemingly getting familiar with the paths so he could move conveniently without suddenly stumbling into a dead-end.

"Isn't that little sister? I heard there was a serious explosion in the north, and I was worried if you would..."

While Qin Fang was following behind Ruan Yingxiu, strolling inside the Ruan Family Mansion, a voice suddenly reached his ears.

Very coarse, deep, and with a strong nasal tone, it seemed to belong to a rather rugged man.

At this moment, they happened to pass by an independent courtyard, and the door of that courtyard was open, seemingly speaking to Ruan Beauty, likely another brother of Ruan Beauty.

When Qin Fang slightly raised his head following the voice, he noticed the "man" speaking. Instantly, his eyes nearly popped out...

"Oh my..."

Even though Qin Fang was someone who had seen quite a bit, he was nearly surprised to the point of losing his breath upon seeing this "fierce person" before him.

The first name that flashed in Qin Fang's mind upon seeing this person... was a legendary figure well-known in Dragon Country.

Who was it?

Fish-eyed, garlic-shaped nose, toad-like lips... Sister Feng!

And the fierce person suddenly appearing in front of him also had fish eyes, garlic nose, toad lips, and he faintly realized it seemed to be a woman as well...

The height was almost the same as Sister Feng's, estimated under one and a half meters, but at least Sister Feng had half a spellbinding figure, whereas the one in front was an outright black, rough, fat... Black skin, thick legs, fat lady!

It seemed the coarse, deep voice earlier also came from this fierce person's mouth... My goodness, this was definitely a rarity among rarities!

It seemed if this fat lady were to compete in ugliness with Sister Feng, Sister Feng would probably have to admit defeat...

Of course, Sister Feng's intelligence was too high, whether the one before him could rival it, Qin Fang wasn't sure yet, but he thought few could match Sister Feng's intelligence!

"Second sister..."

Ruan Beauty didn't have as big a reaction as Qin Fang, casually looking back at this unbeatable "beauty" and calling out calmly.

This was quite normal, as the fierce woman's remark earlier wasn't polite even for Qin Fang. It probably rivaled Ruan Youlin.

Looking at this pair of sisters in front of him... temporarily not knowing how to address them, Qin Fang just felt that Ruan Wenzhong really had some strong genes to be able to produce two entirely disparate daughters!

Of course, perhaps because of these two extreme sisters, it's natural for the two not to get along well. How could this older sister not feel envy towards little sister Ruan Yingxiu...

One was the goddess, the dream lover for many young men in Luo City, who would wish to give anything for her favor.

The other, however, was known as the nightmare of Luo City men, the absolute female Satan, whom everyone avoided as much as possible, fearing to be entangled by this fierce girl, risking skin-deep wounds...

Even Qin Fang, new to here, seeing this fearsome woman of ultimate hideousness for the first time, had the urge to flee. Let alone others...

Chapter 1278 Dark Horse Prince

...

The destructive power of this top-notch fierce woman is really too strong. Just standing there and taking a couple of glances, Qin Fang already felt his Life Points rapidly decreasing...

If he looked a few more times, he might just deplete his Life Points and die on the spot.

Caring for his own little life, Qin Fang took a glance and immediately lowered his head, not daring to look a second time. He really couldn't help but be intimidated!

Now that he's the personal guard of Ruan Beauty, reacting this way is quite reasonable.

Qin Fang didn't want to look at this fierce woman at all, wishing he could disappear from there, but that fierce woman might not ignore his presence. At this moment, she's staring at Qin Fang with her dead fish eyes that make people want to puke.

Her gaze flickering with unusual light, she seemed rather interested, scanning Qin Fang's entire body bit by bit. Especially his robust arms, his bulging muscles, and perfect lines...

Just looking seemed to elevate a person to the ultimate peak, and a low, satisfied grunt escaped her nose.

"Second sister, if there's nothing else, I'll go back and rest first..."

The gaze of this fierce woman naturally couldn't escape Ruan Beauty's eyes. As family, Ruan Beauty naturally understood her second sister more than Qin Fang did. Seeing her staring at Qin Fang like that, her brows showed obvious displeasure.

But Ruan Beauty seemed quite wary of this fierce woman, not wanting to confront her directly, so she asked politely.

The meaning was clear, reminding her second sister not to go overboard.

"Little sister is indeed quite tired from working outside, so please go back and rest..."

The fierce woman slightly recovered, her eyes showing a hint of dissatisfaction, as if complaining that Ruan Beauty disrupted her enjoyment of the handsome man.

Yet she didn't turn hostile, instead, her incredibly ugly fat face blossomed into an equally hideous flower, showing concern.

"Phew..."

Hearing this, Ruan Beauty's mood eased a bit, just as she was about to sigh in relief, her exceptionally ugly second sister spoke again.

"However, I have something here that needs to be sent to father urgently, and I have no one at hand. Your guard looks quite strong, so let me borrow him temporarily..."

The ugly fat sister added with a wide smile, her reasoning quite sufficient, making it seem quite legitimate...

But as she spoke, her gaze was completely wrong. Saliva was even starting to dribble at the corners of her toad-like mouth. If she weren't at a distance from Qin Fang, she might have tried to snatch him directly.

"My god..."

Hearing the words of this extremely ugly fat lady, Qin Fang almost jumped three feet high on the spot. He wasn't happy, he was scared.

Qin Fang had seen ugly women before, even quite a few really unfortunate looking ones, but this was the first time he was so frightened by a woman whose combat power was less than five.

Back when Qin Fang was in the dorm, the guys would joke about Sister Feng. Qin Fang always thought that actually seeing Sister Feng wouldn't be that scary except for her unmatched intelligence.

But this one in front of him was definitely a more terrifying existence than Sister Feng by countless times... Mainly Sister Feng's criteria for choosing a partner was too high, while this one seems totally undiscriminating, just looking at him makes her drool, and almost reach a climax, which is just so bizarre!

Ruan Beauty was also startled by her second sister's words, a look of surprise flashing across her face, yet it seemed somewhat expected.

"I'm sorry, second sister, I only have this last guard with me now. I still need someone on my side, I think you should find someone else to help..."

Just as Qin Fang was contemplating whether to reveal his identity and suppress this monstrosity, Ruan Beauty finally spoke, outright rejecting her fat sister's suggestion. After saying that, she pulled Qin Fang's hand and quickly left, giving no chance for her sister to make more trouble again...

The fat elder sister was also quite shocked by Ruan Beauty's sudden action and just as she was about to say something, she found that her beautiful sister didn't give her a chance and left directly, leaving her words unsaid.

"You little flirt! How dare you throw attitude at me... hmpf, we'll see!"

Those dead fish eyes watched Qin Fang and Ruan Beauty walking farther away, and the fat elder sister cursed a few times with hatred, her eyes flashing with a very sinister look.

"Tsk tsk, but this little flirty's guard isn't bad at all, looks pretty strong... must be quite a ride in bed!"

In just a moment, she had already thought about Qin Fang, and a faint smile appeared on her fat and ugly face, although that smile would definitely frighten a baby into silence...

"Hmph, there isn't a man in this Luo City whom Ruan Yingmei can't catch... there's no way you can escape from my grasp!"

This fat elder sister muttered softly to herself again before turning back to her courtyard, feeling satisfied, and apparently, she had no real business to attend to, it was just an excuse earlier.

After temporarily escaping from the fat lady's clutches, Ruan Beauty led Qin Fang back to her courtyard in a swift pace, even shutting the door, and only then did she let out a long sigh of relief.

Qin Fang also breathed a slight sigh of relief; if Ruan Beauty had really agreed to her demon-like elder sister's request, he would have already planned to transform into Fahai and exorcise the demon himself...

Fortunately, at the crucial moment, Ruan Beauty proved to be fairly reliable, and it wasn't in vain that Qin Fang helped her.

After catching her breath slightly, Ruan Beauty's emotions gradually calmed down, and she was about to head back to her room to rest... but as soon as she took a step, she abruptly stopped because Qin Fang was still following her.

Generally speaking, although she has her own personal guard team, these guards do not stay at the small courtyard with her, but live in the big courtyard next to it.

After all, most of the personal guards are men, and living together with her alone is very inappropriate, so without her permission, they don't even have the right to enter this courtyard.

But this time, things happened too suddenly, and Ruan Beauty had some kind of idea in her heart, so she didn't think too much and directly pulled Qin Fang into the courtyard.

"That woman just now is my second sister, the most favored among our siblings by my father, and no one dares to offend her. But as a person... she's a bit too... you know, with men, so you need to be very careful in the future, never let her find an opportunity, otherwise, even I can't help you!"

Originally, Ruan Beauty intended to go back to rest, but her steps stopped, after some thought, she turned to simply inform Qin Fang about it.

Originally, she seemed somewhat hesitant, as if unsure whether to say it out loud, but ultimately she couldn't hold it in anymore, not for anything else, but because Qin Fang helped her and she couldn't let him suffer...

As sisters, although their relationship isn't great, they are very clear about each other's personalities, especially these two sisters, one beautiful, the other ugly, they know each other all too well.

Ruan Yingxiu is so beautiful, she is immediately revered as a goddess, the dream goddess of all men in Luo City, but because her external conditions are too good, plus her own abilities are extraordinary, her standards are naturally higher, and although not young, she's still single!

On the contrary, her second sister, Ruan Yingmei, is a perfect opposite, perhaps because she is too ugly, too extraordinarily ugly, this second sister has been shunned by others almost from birth, gradually forming her extremely eccentric personality.

Regarding men, she has an almost pathological need, from her teens onwards, being the kind who nearly finds no man displeasing, needing male company every night to feel comfortable!

So when second sister Ruan Yingmei came up with that excuse, Ruan Yingxiu knew what second sister wanted to do, definitely planning to drag Qin Fang into her courtyard and then lock the door...

Ruan Yingmei is Ruan Wenzhong's most cherished daughter, with a high status in the Ruan family. Not to mention Ruan Yingxiu doesn't dare to easily offend her, even Ruan Youlin has to respectfully call her second sister upon meeting her, daring not to act rashly.

Because of this, any man as long as he's favored by Ruan Yingmei, unless Ruan Wenzhong intervenes, has little chance of escaping her clutches.

Of course, Ruan Wenzhong dotes on this daughter, giving her whatever she wants, generally not stopping her...

Don't think being Ruan Yingxiu's personal guard can help avoid this mishap, facing Ruan Yingmei's coercion and enticement, almost no one can resist. Ruan Yingxiu herself knows that a few of her previous guards were toyed with by her second sister Ruan Yingmei...

It's said that for over ten days, they looked sickly, as if the she-demon had drained their elemental energy and vital blood...

Especially now that Qin Fang has turned into a look-alike of Fourth Brother, though maintaining an Anlang appearance, those muscular biceps, the martial artist's well-proportioned figure, and those perfectly exquisite body curves, make Ruan Yingmei drool at the sight...

She originally favored this type, and now with Qin Fang's current appearance, it was almost love at first sight with the invincible strong woman Ruan Yingmei, who saw her Black Horse Prince... Anlang People, due to more sun exposure, look slightly darker!

Chapter 1279 Assassination Mission

...

Qin Fang is now pretending to be mute, so it's naturally inconvenient for him to speak. But even if Ruan Beauty didn't remind him proactively, Qin Fang would definitely stay away from that terrifyingly fierce woman with respect.

Such a formidable existence, even just taking a few glances would cost Life Points. Unless Qin Fang's brain was kicked by a donkey, he wouldn't let her succeed...

Even if Qin Fang occasionally wants to try something unconventional, it would at most be some technical innovation or breakthroughs, but he can't stomach dealing with this one.

With her ferocity, even spending a night with her would definitely leave one skinned if not dead... In fact, it would be even worse!

Regarding Ruan Beauty's kind reminder, regardless of her intentions, Qin Fang still nodded in agreement and also gestured his thanks.

"It's good that you understand..."

Seeing that Qin Fang nodded, Ruan Beauty also let out a light breath, feeling much relieved.

However, she then thought of the current situation. Her personal guards were all dead; the adjacent courtyard was now vacated, and Qin Fang could move in there anytime.

But thinking of her immensely fierce second sister, Ruan Yingxiu, she simply considered it for a moment and pointed to a side room in the yard and said.

"You'll stay in this room from now on. You can move around freely here... but that's my room over there; without my permission, you cannot go near it!"

This is usually a guest room where some of her sisters come to stay. Although the occupancy rate isn't high, it has certainly never been occupied by a man.

But now, for Qin Fang's safety, Ruan Beauty still felt it would be best for Qin Fang to temporarily stay here.

As for the gossip worried about in the past or any other inconveniences, Ruan Yingxiu automatically ignored them.

Qin Fang didn't refuse either. Although everything was unfamiliar, Anlang as a whole didn't make much difference to him.

Staying here, on one hand, is closer and safer. Considering Ruan Beauty has been relatively good to him, he naturally had no objections and immediately agreed, and went over to tidy up his room.

This large courtyard, also the home of the King of the North, Ruan Wenzhong, includes maids and servants serving Ruan Beauty, though they usually stay in the main quarters with her, rarely coming to the side rooms.

Additionally, Ruan Beauty wouldn't allow her maids to come over, leaving Qin Fang in a very quiet environment, which he was very satisfied with.

After such a lengthy upheaval, even approaching death at one point, Ruan Beauty was quite exhausted, both physically and mentally weary. She simply settled Qin Fang and immediately went back to her room to rest.

Qin Fang also returned to his room, closed the door, and took a break.

With nothing else to do, Qin Fang retrieved a computer from his Props Box... It was a special computer made by the Assassin's Alliance, capable of receiving signals globally, allowing internet access at any time without being tracked.

"Oh, there's a mission..."

But as soon as Qin Fang turned on the computer and logged in, he found a new mission posted in the task area.

Assassin missions. Until now, Qin Fang hasn't undertaken many, just a few, albeit those with high Points.

But even so, Qin Fang has now easily advanced into the ranks of Three-Star Assassins, albeit at the lowest tier in terms of Points.

Starting from Three-Star Assassin level, accumulating Points became relatively easier, as each task had higher Points and commissions, but the difficulty also increased significantly.

Many Three-Star Assassin tasks require Four-Star Assassins considerable effort to complete... You can imagine how high the failure rate is when Three-Star Assassins take them on.

Assassin is a consuming profession; once a mission fails, especially for missions rated Three-Star or higher, the survival rate of the assassin is very low.

Of course, we can't rule out some assassins getting lucky, not completing the task yet keeping their lives... Then they can attempt a second assassination or pay double Points to abandon the task!

However, most assassins don't get such a chance and lose their lives with mission failure... Even when failing, most choose to try a second time rather than opting to abandon it by paying double Points... after all, the Points for tasks Three-Star and above are already very high, doubling it could easily set one back significantly.

If the Points are zeroed, the assassin himself becomes at risk, facing elimination by the Assassin's Alliance... For useless assassins, the Assassin's Alliance is never lenient, exterminating them outright!

This assassin trading platform's System can automatically lock onto the computer's IP, pinpointing the area, unless it's something like Qin Fang's Props Box, which can block signals; therefore, once Qin Fang took it out, his location in Anlang was immediately confirmed.

Hence, the posted task also automatically appeared in Qin Fang's task bar.

This is just like when Qin Fang was within Dragon Country, tasks in the bar would generally appear as local Dragon Country assassin missions, similar to the ones Qin Fang had accepted, which were almost all such tasks.

Chapter 1280 Assassination Mission_2

Overseas tasks aren't impossible to take on; they can be accepted as long as the search range is expanded. However, there are many fine fragments of assassin missions, and searching without purpose is quite troublesome, since usually you can only see a general outline of the task before accepting a mission published by the Assassin's Alliance.

Of course, the task board of the Assassin's Alliance sets tasks within large areas, such as Dragon Country with its vast land, naturally as a major region.

As Qin Fang is currently in Anlang, the tasks that appear on the board cover the entire large area of Southeast Asia, then automatically subdivided by countries.

For example, Qin Fang sees a task that's placed at the very top of the task board because the target to be eliminated is in Anlang... and it could even be right in Luo City where Qin Fang is now!

"Target: Li Yaonan, identity: Famous drug lord in Golden Triangle, task level: Three-Star..."

Before officially accepting this task, this is all the information available. To know more details, you either spend points to query, or you take on the task.

While the latter usually requires spending points to query some information, the amount spent is much less than the former.

Even so, most people would choose the former when seeing the target's identity, rather than directly accepting the task.

The reasons are known well by those in the Underground World.

The Golden Triangle is globally considered one of the most complex regions, where all the figures mixing here are extremely tough. They are either very strong themselves or have an incredible military force around them. This can be their own, or something they can rely on, but they are definitely not easy to deal with.

Take Han Long for example, whom Qin Fang assassinated; as the biggest drug lord in Southeast Asia, though he wasn't a Golden Triangle man, he had armed forces under his control. Thus, despite many assassination tasks against him over many years, no assassin would take them, for this very reason.

Li Yaonan is another such person, though clearly not as famous as Han Long. But as a drug lord rooted in the Golden Triangle, he is by no means simple.

After considering whether to directly query or directly take the task, Qin Fang didn't hesitate to take the task directly.

Firstly, his current points are just enough to reach the rank of a Three-Star Assassin, and he does not want to waste points and return to the rank of a Two-Star Assassin, making him ineligible to accept tasks.

Secondly, Qin Fang believes he has enough strength to eliminate the target, even if not successful the first time, he can attempt a second, third, or fourth time...

Other assassins rarely have such multiple opportunities, but Qin Fang's ability to protect himself is top-notch, and it's not easy for anyone to deal with him.

Indeed, this task is very difficult, though the points are objectively considerable. However, unless you are a Four-Star Level or higher assassin, even experienced Three-Star Assassins have to think carefully about whether to accept it.

Perhaps it was considered this way, Qin Fang was lucky enough that no one competed with him, and he just took this task...

Now, unless he himself actively gives up the task, until the task is completed, or the time limit is reached, or he is killed, the task belongs to him alone.

After accepting the task, more content was displayed, including information Qin Fang cared about, such as... Li Yaonan himself is now in Anlang, and more specifically, in Luo City.

Li Yaonan is a well-known drug lord in the Golden Triangle. Unlike Han Long who was more of an outside broker type of drug lord, Li Yaonan himself commands military as a warlord-style drug lord.

He has his own territory in the Golden Triangle and commands a significant size armed force. Plus, Li Yaonan is from the Li Family, one of the notable families from Anlang, with a powerful family backing him. In the Golden Triangle area, he's a rather formidable figure.

Anlang has two major surnames... Ruan and Li. Basically, the entire Anlang is controlled by these two major surnames and numerous families. They have the largest voice in the region.

For instance, the Northern Anlang is almost entirely under the control of Ruan Wenzhong, while the Southern Anlang is essentially Li Family's territory... These two families have balanced powers.

However, not everyone with the surname Ruan is from the same family, and not everyone with the surname Li is from the same family either; these are further divided into various families.

There's no direct governance between them; having the same surname doesn't mean relations are good, and different surnames don't mean they are bad...

In fact, the opposite is true; many Ruan families can be hostile and hate each other, as can the Li families. In essence, it's all about individual interests, which lead to constant conflict.

However, many families under the surname Ruan and Li have good relationships with each other, and they even have intermarriages often to draw closer, becoming allies to fight against other families of the same or different surnames...

The reason Li Yaonan came to Luo City this time is related to this.

He is not very old, only in his thirties, and for his age, compared to his achievements, he is undoubtedly a remarkable figure.

Besides, Li Yaonan belongs to a prominent Li Family from the south, though he generally doesn't engage in Anlang's political realm, his family is undoubtedly a significant support that no one dares underestimate.

Li Yaonan has quite a few women. In the Golden Triangle area alone, he keeps over ten women to satisfy his desires. Though some of these women have borne children for him, they have no name or status. This time he plans to marry formally...

This news stirred many families who moved at once, all trying various ways to bridge connections with him, attempting to establish relations with Li Yaonan.

To marry a daughter to Li Yaonan, even without any status, is understandable. But with a connection, it's possible to leverage Li Yaonan's power.

With the armed forces of the Golden Triangle and the support of the Li Family, it's a significant aid that all families in Anlang covet...

Li Yaonan is also a discerning man, otherwise he couldn't have achieved so much at a young age. So he's very selective about choosing a wife.

Traveling from south to north, he has met the beauties and socialites of various families in Anlang, but hasn't shown interest in anyone thus far. Coming to Luo City is also for this reason...

Though Luo City is ruled thoroughly by Covering Heaven of Ruan Wenzhong, in reality, there are still several small families dependent on him, naturally with some girls among them.

Li Yaonan choosing a wife surely interests these small families, who wouldn't give up. If by some lucky chance they are picked by Li Yaonan, maybe such small families can rise instantly to prominent families.

However, the most famous beauty of Luo City seems to be Miss Ruan Yingxiu of the Ruan Family, residing just a dozen meters away from Qin Fang... it's uncertain if Li Yaonan is here for her.

"Ah, buddy, looks like you're unlucky... Wanting to marry, perhaps only possible in your next life!"

After Qin Fang reviewed these materials, he only silently mourned for Li Yaonan a few times in his heart. Since Qin Fang has accepted the assassination task against Li Yaonan, it's destined that Li Yaonan is unlikely to leave Luo City alive...