

Genius 160

Chapter 160 Being forcefully kissed by a beautiful woman_1

"I'm sorry for making you wait so long... Are you not angry anymore?"

When Qin Fang and Wen Yi came out of the kitchen, the sky had already darkened. Looking at the two "boss ladies" who were still sitting in the shop, Qin Fang apologized with embarrassment.

"Hmph, we'll settle this score with you later. We're going to talk to Sister Wen Yi..."

Tang Feifei rolled her eyes at Qin Fang and then, along with Xiao Muxue, took a somewhat timid Wen Yi upstairs to the break room for a chat, leaving Qin Fang alone downstairs.

"Hey, beauties, we haven't had dinner yet..."

Looking at the darkening sky outside, it was getting late, and Qin Fang's stomach couldn't help but feel a little hungry. He used this as a pretext to speak to the two beauties.

"Xiao Qin, stop yelling. They've already eaten!"

The two beauties just giggled, but didn't respond. Instead, Uncle Fang, who was taking money at the side, commented. That's when Qin Fang realized that the two beauties had gotten too bored waiting for him, and feeling a bit hungry, had the head chef whip up a couple of dishes for them, having their dinner early.

This was probably a perk of being a boss lady. The head chef in the kitchen was happy to do it—after all, it was less trouble for him, and it didn't cost any money.

Qin Fang felt a bit helpless. He ended up eating dinner in the shop as well and then sat downstairs waiting. With three girls talking upstairs, it was inconvenient for him as a man to go up.

He waited quite a while, but the three didn't come down. Occasionally, he could hear cries and laughter, which both surprised Qin Fang and left him feeling quite helpless.

Finally, bored with waiting, he greeted Uncle Fang and asked him to tell the two beauties upstairs that when they came down, to inform them that Qin Fang had gone to the cabin to surf the internet. If they wanted to go back to campus, they should call him in advance; he would come to pick them up.

The cabin was still the same as before, perhaps just a bit tidier, with some new, yet-to-be-installed electronics around. The internet was already set up, though, and Qin Fang occasionally came back here to browse the web; it was a bit more freeing than being in the dormitory.

The renovation plans for the cabin had been set in motion. Tang Feifei and Xiao Muxue had agreed that they would find someone to do the renovations this weekend. Qin Fang was considering whether he should get Mouse Qiang involved in this, but he knew that Tang and Xiao didn't like the idea of him having too much contact with underworld figures.

Qin Fang also didn't want to worry Tang Feifei, so he tried to limit his interactions with those people as much as possible. Even when Deng Zhongwen had a banquet and invited him, he didn't go. Instead, he let Xiao Nan take Tang Feifei, Xiao Muxue, and a few other girls from their dorm to enjoy the meal. It was the thought that counted; there was no need to be too serious about it.

Li Feng hadn't appeared for the time being. He had taken a sick leave for half a month and, with the upcoming National Day holiday, Qin Fang reckoned it would be a while before he saw him again. This meant his framing plan would have to be put on hold for now.

Nevertheless, the news of Pi San's disappearance had certainly spread, but no one knew where Pi San had gone. Even less could anyone prove that Qin Fang had killed him.

Tang Feifei and Xiao Muxue talked with Wen Yi for a long time. Qin Fang was online in the cabin until almost nine o'clock before he received a call from Tang Feifei, asking him to come over to take the two beauties back to school.

"Teacher Fan... are you looking for me?"

Qin Fang immediately locked the door and left the cabin, heading towards Lanyuan. But not long after entering Lanyuan, he ran into an acquaintance—it was his homeroom teacher, the stunning yet flat-chested Fan Ning.

Her sexy and provocative attire dazzled Qin Fang. But at that moment, she suddenly blocked Qin Fang's path and, while he was still stunned, her soft, boneless hands suddenly wound around his neck. At the same time, her moist lips pressed against Qin Fang's.

Qin Fang was instantly dumbfounded. The change had come so quickly that he didn't even have a chance to react before Teacher Fan, the beauty, had kissed him forcefully, catching him completely unprepared.

"I'm still a virgin... My first kiss!"

Qin Fang bore a bitter smile, crying out inwardly like this.

"You little rascal, don't touch me carelessly..."

Unfortunately, Teacher Fan only slightly loosened her lips and whispered softly, then, as if she saw something, hugged Qin Fang's head again. Their lips came together once more, and they both moved backward slightly until they reached the corner of the wall, taking shelter beneath the shadow there.

With Qin Fang being taller than the 1.7-meter-tall Fan Ning, as they maintained this kissing stance, Fan Ning was completely hidden from view.

"Quick, chase after them..."

Almost at that moment, Qin Fang heard a series of urgent voices in his ears. Clearly, a group of people was chasing someone and they seemed very anxious.

Qin Fang instinctively wanted to turn his head to look, but just like a serpent, Fan Ning's hands were tightly clenched around Qin Fang's neck, refusing to let him turn. Qin Fang could only give up helplessly.

"Boss, there's a woman over here..."

Someone suddenly said something, and Qin Fang immediately felt Fan Ning's body tremble slightly, pressing her body even closer against his.

"Over there, chase..."

Just as a large hand was about to touch Qin Fang's shoulder, preparing to twist their faces around, Fan Ning's breathing grew even more rapid. It was at this critical moment that someone shouted from behind, causing the large hand to freeze mid-air, and then Qin Fang heard the sound of hurried footsteps fading away.

Without looking directly, Qin Fang still twisted his neck slightly, catching a glimpse from the corner of his eye of a group of figures quickly disappearing into the darkness.

Not until these people had gradually gone away did Fan Ning slightly loosen her grip; Qin Fang finally managed to catch his breath and took the opportunity to look in that direction again.

Although it was very dark and there were hardly any stars in the sky, the streetlights in Lanyuan were quite complete. With the help of the dim light from the streetlights, he could still see the retreating figures of the group. "They aren't Li Dong's men..."

Although he had only glanced for a moment, Qin Fang was sure these people were not Li Dong's men.

Just by looking at their movements, it seemed they had received some kind of training, nothing like the riffraff under Li Dong's command; they looked more like professional bodyguards.

"They're finally gone..."

As these people gradually disappeared, Fan Ning finally let out a long sigh of relief and gently patted her almost nonexistent flat chest with her fair and smooth hand, muttering to herself.

"They were after you? I mean, dear homeroom teacher Fan, what on earth have you done that's so terrible that so many people are after you..."

Qin Fang looked at Fan Ning with surprise. It was clear that these people were after her, and in her desperation, she had used Qin Fang as a shield, pretending to forcefully kiss Qin Fang and using his body to block the pursuers' line of sight, which had tricked them for the moment.

"They are from the underworld, okay! I went to a bar to drink, and when their boss saw me, he tried to molest me. I kicked him hard, and then they started chasing me..."

The kiss they had shared ended up being a bit too intense, and it took Fan Ning a while to catch her breath. She rolled her eyes seductively at Qin Fang, then explained the reason why these people were after her while sounding quite annoyed.

They say beauty is a curse, and Qin Fang didn't think this phrase was false at all.

An ordinary beauty might have been trouble enough, but when it came to the likes of Tang Feifei, Xiao Muxue, and Fan Ning, the trouble they attracted really began to multiply. Lately, Qin Fang seemed to have encountered such situations several times; he couldn't tell if it was good or bad luck.

Even though Qin Fang had been kissed by such a beauty, which should have been a cause for joy, he felt that there must be more to it than Fan Ning had let on while looking at the figures fading into the distance.

"Really?"

Qin Fang couldn't help but let out a scoff.

He wasn't a three-year-old child. Fan Ning didn't have to explain her reasons to him, her reasons were her own business and unrelated to Qin Fang. He didn't want to bring any major troubles upon himself, but there was no need for Fan Ning to give him such a poor excuse. It wasn't just misleading Qin Fang; it was practically an insult to his intelligence.

"Believe it or not, whatever! Hmmph, I'm leaving..."

Fan Ning just pursed her lips and didn't say much more, slowly picking up her small handbag and disappearing into the darkness.

"Why didn't I notice she had a bag just now?"

Qin Fang really was surprised for a moment; he couldn't remember Fan Ning having a bag..