

Genius 263

Chapter 263 Kidnapping_1

Qin Fang didn't even notice when the interview ended; he had dozed off in a corner by himself. Fortunately, it wasn't a live broadcast—if it had been, his embarrassing state would have surely been captured by the camera, possibly giving him a bit of minor fame.

The interview studio was actually the smallest one in the TV station. Miao Yue, sitting on the stage and being interviewed, only needed to glance around lightly to see the entire studio quite clearly. She could even make out the detailed facial expressions and movements of the nearby audience members.

Although Qin Fang's seat was a bit off to the side, his posture of sleeping with his head tilted back really irritated Miao Yue. If looks could kill, he would have died in his sleep seven or eight times over by now.

However, Qin Fang had no such awareness and was sleeping soundly, making Miao Yue even more irritated. Unfortunately, she had to maintain her composure. Although she was angry inside, she still kept a faint smile on her face and chatted away in response to the host's questions.

Xiao Muxue noticed this and couldn't help but cover her mouth to keep from laughing, then with a few turns of her eyes, an idea popped into her head.

"Fangfang, time to wake up!"

A fair little hand patted Qin Fang's chest while warm breath was blown into his ear, which finally woke him up.

"Uh...is it over?"

Qin Fang opened his bleary eyes, couldn't help but stretch lazily, and even planned to get up and leave.

But before he could stand up, Xiao Muxue strong-armed him back into his seat; otherwise, he really would have made a fool of himself. A little clearer-headed now, Qin Fang realized the interview was still ongoing.

"You've slept all day long, and you can still sleep like a dead pig..."

Xiao Muxue said resentfully, but then she remembered the distance between them, her pretty face instantly blushed, stirring Qin Fang's heart.

"Isn't this just taking the opportunity to rest? I was planning to stay up late for a battle tonight..."

Qin Fang whispered into Xiao Muxue's ear, embarrassing her even further until her body grew hot, and something seemed to flow out from her lower half.

It has to be said, Qin Fang's stretch really had an impact. Including Miao Yue and the host, nobody expected an audience member to be so bold, and they almost broke out laughing. Fortunately, they both had their own ways of dealing with such situations and managed to cover up this awkwardness. However, Miao Yue was now even less pleased with Qin Fang.

Thankfully, Xiao Muxue could understand Miao Yue's difficulties and didn't focus on the interview any longer, instead attending to Qin Fang to prevent him from causing more trouble later on.

When the interview was finally over, Qin Fang stretched thoroughly and the two of them left the studio together.

"It's late, we should head back!"

Once they walked out of the venue, it was already past ten o'clock, quite late indeed. Qin Fang spoke so.

"I told Sister Yue I would chat with her after the interview... You go wait outside for a bit!"

But Xiao Muxue just smiled, and right then, Miao Yue also came out from the studio and waved at Xiao Muxue.

"Then go ahead, be quick, I'll wait for you..."

Qin Fang had no interest in joining women's conversations, so he directly headed to the parking lot to fetch the car.

"Muxue, it hasn't even been a day, and I feel like you've become even more beautiful! I'm so envious I can barely stand it..."

Miao Yue and Xiao Muxue walked together through the TV station's special corridor toward the parking lot. Along the way, Miao Yue couldn't help but express her envy.

"Sister Yue, you're exaggerating! Next to you, I'm just an ugly duckling!"

Xiao Muxue knew about the transformation herself but, of course, that was not something to share with others, even if she considered Miao Yue a close friend.

However, Miao Yue was also a very beautiful woman, not inferior to Xiao Muxue in looks but with an added mature charm and sexiness.

"If you're an ugly duckling, then I must be an old hag!"

Miao Yue also responded with a laugh.

"By the way, Muxue, your boyfriend is really impolite. If I were you, I would have dumped him already!"

But soon, Miao Yue's criticism turned towards Qin Fang. She didn't know much about him, only that he was Xiao Muxue's boyfriend. However, his behavior during today's show made her particularly uncomfortable, and being a bit petty, she couldn't help but complain.

"Giggle, Sister Yue, I knew you would say something about him. Actually, he's a pretty good person; he just doesn't like these kinds of events. He didn't even want to come; I had to drag him here. If you're going to blame anyone, blame me!"

Xiao Muxue said, a bit embarrassed, for it was her who had caused Qin Fang's lazy stretching. Now that Miao Yue brought it up, she felt even more embarrassed.

"Hehe, I can tell that you two are really in love, the way you defend him!"

Miao Yue said cheerfully, and though the little resentment in her heart wouldn't disappear so quickly, her mood improved considerably.

"I'll be in Shenzhou for two more days, so if you're free, let's have a meal together!" Miao Yue invited, taking the initiative.

"No problem, just call me whenever you have time!"

Xiao Muxue naturally agreed with a smile, and Miao Yue even gave her some of her signed posters, which made Xiao Muxue even happier.

"Well, this is my stop, I should go..."

Seeing that the nanny van had arrived, Miao Yue smiled and bid farewell to Xiao Muxue, who also spotted Qin Fang's Mercedes.

But just at that moment, trouble struck.

"Who are you?"

Just as Miao Yue was about to step into the nanny van, she took one look at the person inside and immediately exclaimed.

"Sister Yue..."

Xiao Muxue also froze for a moment, almost instinctively wanting to check what was happening.

Someone inside the nanny van immediately grabbed Miao Yue's hand, forcefully pulling her in, and Miao Yue started to scream in panic.

Xiao Muxue was stunned as well, knowing something was wrong with Miao Yue. She quickly took out her phone, intending to call the police.

"Catch that girl, she's pretty too, take her with us..."

But as she was just taking out her phone, she saw two strong men come down from the nanny van and grab Xiao Muxue from both sides, forcefully shoving her into the van, which then quickly left the parking lot.

Qin Fang had been paying attention to Xiao Muxue and Miao Yue as soon as they appeared. He was about to go over to meet Xiao Muxue when he witnessed this scene.

"Fuck..."

Qin Fang blurted out an expletive almost instinctively, then drove the Mercedes at high speed in pursuit.

Whether Miao Yue lived or died was of no concern to Qin Fang, but Xiao Muxue was his woman, and he couldn't just watch as she was kidnapped.

Moreover, Qin Fang was furious. He had already sworn to himself that if anyone dared to touch Xiao Muxue, he would blow their head off with a gun.

It was already past ten o'clock, but Shenzhou was a city that never slept. Nightlife was just beginning, and the streets were still busy with traffic.

The black Mercedes, like a ghost, weaved through the cars quickly. The nanny van in front was very fast, and had gotten a head start on Qin Fang.

But Qin Fang cared nothing for red lights, using his superb driving skills to chase the other vehicle, closing the distance. Although the Mercedes couldn't fully exploit its performance in a city like Shenzhou, Qin Fang's driving made it incredibly smooth.

"Who the hell are you? Why are you kidnapping us?"

Though Miao Yue was very scared, she still mustered more courage; after all, she was the woman who dared to pour hot coffee into a director's lap. Even now, as she was being kidnapped, she tried to suppress her fear and asked.

"It's just that you're pretty and like to pretend to be innocent, and our Young Master Zhang likes women like you. As long as you obey and make him happy, you'll be well rewarded..."

The man in the passenger seat was the very fool Qin Fang had previously cursed, still as rude as ever, his words as offensive as one would expect.

"You... you're kidnapping us? I'm going to call the police on you..."

Miao Yue trembled with rage and indignation, instinctively wanting to grab her phone, until she realized it was with her agent, who had not appeared at all.

"Don't bother, you best just behave, or we can't guarantee you'll be unharmed by the time we're done with you. I heard that Young Master Zhang personally went to Hong Kong to invite the photography-loving Teacher Chen to direct this time. If you annoy him, you might very well become the subject of his photography..."

With a single sentence, the brute effectively silenced Miao Yue.

"Fuck, Big Bro Four-Eyes, that Mercedes chasing us behind seems to be catching up..."

The driver noticed the black Mercedes rapidly approaching from behind and immediately informed his boss, known as Four-Eyes, whom the underlings called Big Bro Four-Eyes.

"Haha, you're going to be in trouble now..."

Miao Yue was immediately delighted, not caring whether it was true or not, and started to revel in schadenfreude.

"Shut up!"

But Four-Eyes darkly commanded, "Lose him!"

Xiao Muxue, after the initial shock and fear, gradually calmed down and gently tugged on Miao Yue's hand, indicating for her to stay composed.

Although she didn't have a chance to look back, from the driver's words, Xiao Muxue immediately thought of Qin Fang, and she believed that he would come to rescue her. Most importantly, Qin Fang was driving a Mercedes today.
