Chapter 37 - Show Off_1

"Hello there, may I ask if all of you are ready to order? Our resort can provide a variety of fresh meats including pork, beef, lamb, chicken, duck, fish, crab, as well as various vegetables suitable for barbecue... and other raw materials. You may freely choose and mix, and all barbecue tools are provided for free."

"Of course, if you ladies don't want to get your clothes or skin spoiled by grease, you can also ask for our BBQ masters who are specially assigned at the barbecue area. These masters are very skilled, and we even have Afanti Master who has won the Ninghai Food Festival's barbecue competition for three consecutive years!"

"Here's the menu, you can choose on your own. If you need professional barbecue services, please let me know in advance, and I will get it ready for you!"

The waitress was quite professional, she came over and politely introduced the services offered by the barbecue area to the people present, making the young people there a bit eager to start.

Aside from Qin Fang, these youngsters were all grown up in the city, they had eaten barbecue before, but doing it themselves... clearly, they hadn't experienced that, so everyone seemed very interested, and a few boys even volunteered to show their girlfriends their grilling chops.

The girls were looking forward to it as well, and Tang Feifei was no exception, looking at Qin Fang with some anticipation.

"Miss, could you please call the manager over..."

Before the lead girls could speak up, Li Feng, who was isolated from the group, suddenly spoke up arrogantly to the waitress.

The faces of the people around tensed slightly, Li Feng's actions were somewhat embarrassing for them, but they just pursed their lips and didn't say much.

"Sir, if you have any requests, you can tell me too!" The pretty waitress remained very enthusiastic and polite, expressing her willingness to help.

"I'm asking you to get Afanti over here to barbecue for me, can you make that decision?" Li Feng glared at her, clearly dissatisfied, "The barbecue area is managed by Li Xiangrong, right? Call him!!"

The waitress was at a loss now, there weren't many people who could name the manager on the spot, and with such an attitude, it was obvious this individual must be some noble young master, and since Afanti was a pillar of the barbecue area, she was just a lowly waitress and couldn't command him.

"Please take your time with the menu. I'll be right back!"

Having no other choice, the waitress greeted Qin Fang and the others before hurrying off to call for the manager. Her voluptuous behind swaying seductively as she walked away caught the attention of an already irritably smitten Li Feng, who found his interest piqued slightly.

"Hm, I'll have Li Xiangrong send this little chick to my room tonight..." Li Feng thought to himself in secret.

Before long, the waitress came back leading a somewhat portly middle-aged man who was clearly the manager. However, even when he was still twenty to thirty meters away from Qin Fang and the others, he noticed Li Feng sitting among the crowd and quickened his pace, rushing over.

"Young Master Feng, how come you didn't let us know you were coming? I could have served you personally!"

The manager was a crafty one, noticing that Li Feng seemed isolated among the group, he naturally wanted to lend him support, immediately assuming the role of a sycophantic servant, bustling over to offer his eager flattery.

"That won't be necessary, I just happened to run into some classmates today, and we came over to have some fun! Here's what you can do, go call that Afanti fellow over, and let him grill for me..."

With someone there to back him up, Li Feng confidently began to issue orders to Li Pangzi, who nodded repeatedly. Any difficulties could be set aside for the time being; he was very aware that as long as he could curry favor with this individual, his promotion was secured.

"My family also has a stake in this vacation resort, so... dear old classmates, feel free to order whatever you want to eat, it's on me! Feifei, just let me know what you want, don't be shy..."

After Li Pangzi finished speaking, Li Feng turned to others present, especially casting a disparaging glance at Qin Fang, then, smiling genially, he said to Tang Feifei.

"There's no need, you can treat them, whatever Feifei and I eat we can tally up ourselves and pay our own bill..."

Not everyone was about to give Li Feng face, at least not Qin Fang. Before Tang Feifei could even open her mouth to decline, Qin Fang was already speaking up, even presumptively including Tang Feifei in his decision.

"Really? I've heard that the consumption level here isn't low, can you afford it? You're not planning on letting Feifei pay, are you?"

Qin Fang's refusal was undoubtedly a hard slap in Li Feng's face, and even if Li Feng was adept at biding his time with his anger, by now he was getting a bit enraged, his face wearing a scornful smile as his tone became sarcastically taunting.

However, by saying this, although Li Feng apparently aimed at Qin Fang's face, in reality, he somewhat counted the others in too, which kind of provoked public indignation.

Pan Chen and Tang Ming, being offspring of officials, knew their parents were still involved in politics and that they couldn't afford to offend Li Feng. Even though they were somewhat unwilling internally, they had to endure it, and even held back their own girlfriends.

"Young Master Li is so generous, Sun shouldn't decline, but I can't dare let my beloved Yao pay, so I'll take care of it myself..."

Sun Shu, who wasn't from Ninghai, had no need to pay heed to Li Feng's expression, and in fact, looked at Qin Fang with a bit more respect, and followed suit in shrugging off Li Feng's offer, and while this made Li Yao feel slightly disgraced, she compliantly accepted Sun Shu's action.

As for Tang Feifei, needless to say, she naturally went along with Qin Fang. She didn't even speak, just subtly leaned a bit closer to Qin Fang, which already clearly indicated her position at the moment.

"This Li Feng... he really has a narrow mind!"

At the same time, Tang Feifei's opinion of Li Feng, which wasn't great to start with, dropped even lower in her heart, and as she looked again at Qin Fang beside her, she saw that although his background might be a bit less distinguished, everything else about him after such extended contact seemed far superior to Li Feng.

They say every young girl harbors a springtime of youth, especially at Tang Feifei's age, and this was no exception.

She had pulled Qin Fang in as her "boyfriend" partly as a shield, but now it seemed that Qin Fang was turned out to be quite suitable for the role.

Especially after everything that happened since this morning, getting slapped, eating noodles, biking with her, shielding her... now that she thought about it, Tang Feifei felt a small bit of happiness.

"Let's go for a walk... and you need to seriously learn how to barbecue. You can't embarrass me in front of the girls!"

As the saying goes, when two people are out of tune, more is said than necessary, and with Qin Fang clashing with Li Feng, it was obvious to anyone. Tang Feifei, worried that Qin Fang would be at a disadvantage here on Li Feng's turf, pulled Qin Fang aside to walk away.

"You go get ready..."

In fact, Li Feng was choked with frustration, fostering further resentment towards Qin Fang. Deeming it inappropriate to have a direct fallout, he waved his hand at Li Pangzi, signalling him to get ready.

"Qin Fang, we'll see about this..."

Li Feng, with his temper flaring internally, and his eyes shifting slyly, started to contemplate other schemes.
