

Genius 791

Chapter 791 - Ambiguous Relationship with Cai Qing_1

...

Just as Qin Fang and Old Master Lei had expected, neither Lei Peng nor Shangguan Tianling would let this go so easily. They had lost so much face, and with their vindictive nature, retaliation was inevitable.

"Uncle..."

Lei Peng had actually woken up long ago, but after being made a mess by Qin Fang in front of so many people, he was too ashamed to open his eyes, so he chose to continue pretending to be unconscious.

However, he had not expected that even his uncle, Grandmaster-level Expert Shangguan Tianling, was unable to do anything to Qin Fang—in fact, Qin Fang had even caught him in some kind of leverage, forcing him to abandon all his plans and arrangements.

When Shangguan Tianling turned to leave, Lei Peng wanted to shout out, but then he remembered that he was still "in a coma," so he forcibly held back his voice. He was helped to the back hall to rest before he could sit down and speak with Shangguan Tianling.

"Peng'er, stop talking, your uncle did not foresee things turning out like this..."

Shangguan Tianling's face was also quite unpleasant. Made a fool of by Qin Fang, he felt a great loss of face, especially feeling somewhat apologetic towards his nephew, Lei Peng.

"Uncle, what exactly happened?"

Until now, Lei Peng still did not know what sort of leverage Qin Fang had over Shangguan Tianling. Although he was close to Shangguan Tianling, he had been pretending to be unconscious at the time and dared not lift his head to look.

"Your cousin has fallen into the hands of the Qin..."

Shangguan Tianling said with a dark expression, inwardly berating his underachieving son who had complicated matters at a critical moment.

"Xiao Hao? What about him..."

Lei Peng was slightly startled, for he truly had not thought about Shangguan Hao.

Shangguan Hao and he were very close. Generally, with Shangguan Hao using the Lei Family's name in the Capital City and accompanied by his two Level 5 Experts, ordinary people couldn't do much to him...

However, thinking that Lei Peng himself couldn't handle Qin Fang when he tried his best, Shangguan Hao's bodyguards would undoubtedly be no match for Qin Fang—especially given Qin Fang's Acupuncture Secret Technique that appeared and vanished unpredictably, truly a powerful weapon for Sneak Attack!

"Let's not talk about that for now. Immediately send someone to look for Xiao Hao, we must get him back..."

Shangguan Tianling waved his hand, seeming reluctant to discuss these matters, primarily because the video was too scandalous. Although the main character was not himself, it was his son, and it left him disgraced!

"Uncle, that Qin Fang..."

Rescuing Hao was naturally a priority, but Lei Peng also lingered on thoughts of Qin Fang.

"I have my own plans for this brat... Humph, since he dared to offend me, Shangguan Tianling, don't expect him to leave the Capital City alive..."

Shangguan Tianling's expression was dark as he spoke, having lost so much face, how could he let it go like that? Naturally, he still had more moves to play.

"Yes, we cannot let him leave the Capital City alive..."

Lei Peng's eyebrows shot up upon hearing this. Surprised and yet extremely excited, he harbored extreme hatred for Qin Fang, wishing for Qin Fang's demise sooner rather than later!

"But the restriction on my body..."

As Lei Peng laughed, he suddenly remembered the restriction Qin Fang had placed on him—his legs were still immobile. His face immediately fell.

"Don't worry, that kid left behind a prescription for lifting the restriction before he left... It has already been delivered, and the restriction will soon be lifted!"

Shangguan Tianling said nonchalantly.

Although Lei Peng's acupuncture points were sealed by Qin Fang, coughing up blood had more or less broken the restriction. He sure couldn't move now, but with a bit of rest over the next few days, he would soon recover.

However, before Qin Fang left, he deliberately threw down a prescription to the Lei Family, claiming that only with this prescription could Lei Peng's injuries be healed. Otherwise, he would be paralyzed for the rest of his life.

The prescription certainly wasn't poison. Qin Fang may not have liked Lei Peng, but he wouldn't resort to such despicable methods to eliminate him... Thus, this prescription was definitely harmless and might even detoxify... only, it would probably have a rather severe effect—it was an exceptionally rare and powerful laxative!

This prescription was an ancient remedy that Qin Fang had learned from Elder Ma, a renowned healer. Due to its potent effects, it had been banned early on and gradually fell into obscurity. Elder Ma had come upon it by chance...

When Old Master Wu had been poisoned by a 'gu' toxin, although most of the poison had been forced out by Qin Fang's Detoxification Pill, some residue remained. Elder Ma took over and used this potent prescription to extract the last remnants... Old Master Wu only managed because of his strong constitution; it would probably be life-threatening to a normal person!

Lei Peng's prowess was not to be underestimated either, having reached the Peak of Level 5. After taking the medicine from this prescription, he'd likely be debilitated several times over...

"Sister, this is my way of seeking revenge..."

Qin Fang secretly shared this incident with Cai Qing, saying with a smile.

"You... you... why didn't you go even harder?"

Cai Qing was also dumbfounded. She had never expected Qin Fang to not only cause Lei Peng to vomit blood uncontrollably, but to also viciously thrash him even as he was leaving.

But when she thought about the pressure and grievances she had endured over these past days, Cai Qing felt that Lei Peng was truly despicable. The words that reached her lips suddenly took on a different taste.

"Er... this... any harder, and the kid wouldn't have a life left..."

Qin Fang suddenly found himself with a forehead full of black lines, his expression indescribably awkward, and he hurriedly concluded that his flattery clearly hadn't been loud enough...

The prescription was really extremely poisonous. Elder Ma had shared this prescription with Qin Fang mainly because he knew Qin Fang could concoct medicine, and he specifically reminded Qin Fang to use it with caution, mainly because the potency was too fierce. Even a Grandmaster-level Expert like Old Master Wu couldn't bear it, let alone the mere Lei Peng.

In Qin Fang's estimate, Lei Peng wouldn't be in mortal danger this time, but lying in bed for ten days to half a month was definitely not out of the question... and he would be extremely weak, the kind that couldn't withstand a breeze.

"In any case, such a person deserves to die..."

Cai Qing still expressed her indignation, showing how dissatisfied and resentful she was toward Lei Peng.

"Thank you..."

However, turning her head, Cai Qing still expressed her deep gratitude to Qin Fang, who had rescued her from that abyss.

"Who are we kidding here, it's too boring to be so polite..."

As Qin Fang was driving, he casually patted Cai Qing's slender thigh and spoke.

This was a very casual gesture, and Qin Fang swore to himself that it was absolutely without any other meaning...

But...

Cai Qing's reaction was quite odd. Her facial expression instantly froze, and her gaze fixed intently on Qin Fang's hand resting on her thigh...

If it were any other day, anyone who dared to tease her like this would be met with an immediate response from Cai Qing's first instinct to break the offender's arm clean off!

But this time, Cai Qing was stunned for a good while, yet ultimately she didn't show any reaction, just a slight blush on her face and then turning her head to the side as if pretending that nothing had happened.

The thing was, as they were talking, the sudden silence came over them, and Qin Fang couldn't help but notice even if he wanted to. He looked at Cai Qing in surprise and realized that where he had placed his hand was somewhat inappropriate.

"Er... this... sorry, Senior Sister... I didn't mean it!"

Qin Fang withdrew his hand in embarrassment, his words sounding somewhat clumsy with apology.

"It's just a touch, what's the big deal! You've helped me out so much, consider it a reward... How about it? Feel good?"

Originally, if Qin Fang hadn't said anything, it might not have been so awkward between them, but now, Cai Qing's fair face was even more suffused with red.

However, she responded quickly, expressing herself very boldly, as if she was a straightforward man...

Yet her beautiful and unmatched face flushed with redness was extraordinarily striking. Especially with that slightly shy demeanor, it was full of feminine allure...

"Senior Sister, to tell you the truth, you look good like this! Quite feminine..."

Qin Fang, on impulse, blurted out the words. Seeing Cai Qing's expression and her eyes that suddenly widened, Qin Fang wished he could slap himself hard.

He knew very well that there was something off with Cai Qing's sexual orientation - she always saw herself as a man - but what he said was almost like poking a hornet's nest...

Cai Qing's eyes went round, her face full of surprise, and her stare made Qin Fang's skin crawl...

"Pah! Don't think just because you helped me out, I'll let you have Yu Mo. We'll just wait and see! Humph..."

It took quite a while for Cai Qing to regain her composure and express herself with a huff, looking like she was on the verge of falling out with Qin Fang.

"This..."

Qin Fang didn't know what to say. The mess was one he had created with his own careless words, so it was no wonder Cai Qing was upset. However, regarding Cai Qing's threat, Qin Fang didn't really care. He and Ning Yumo had already pierced through that layer of window paper, and their affections were steadily rising, which wasn't something Cai Qing could destroy just by saying so.

But if he and Ning Yumo were on a date, having such a third wheel trailing behind them all the time could be quite a mood killer...

"Hmph, you little brat, daring to tease me, I'll see how I deal with you in the future?"

While Qin Fang was internally conflicted, Cai Qing had another thought in her mind, "Did I really just seem very feminine? Hehe... the kid can really talk smooth!"

Even Cai Qing herself hadn't noticed that her mentality was gradually changing... But as the two young people were lost in their own thoughts, a faint air of ambiguity was swirling inside the car!

Chapter 792 - Teasing ~_1

...

Fortunately, an eerie silence was broken by a phone call... Otherwise, Qin Fang didn't know how to face Sister Ning, with whom relations were quite complicated.

The call was naturally from Ning Yumo, who had been paying close attention to the development of the situation. She was worried that Cai Qing might be forced to marry someone like Lei Peng and was equally concerned that Qin Fang might get injured in a conflict with the Lei Family.

In fact, she had wanted to make the call earlier but had been holding back. In the end, she couldn't resist any longer and dialed Qin Fang's number to find out how things were progressing.

However, to her surprise, all she got was the message "The number you have dialed is switched off," which made her even more nervous.

After many failed attempts, Ning Yumo started to panic and decided to call Cai Qing instead— the call that was happening now...

"Yu Mo, everything's been settled... Don't worry, he's fine... Let me pass him to you..."

Cai Qing had picked up the phone and after a brief conversation with Ning Yumo, who was clearly worried, she handed the phone to Qin Fang.

"Sister Ning, I'm fine... No injuries... My phone? It broke... Haha, I'll tell you the details when I get back... Oh, it just so happens, we're almost there..."

Qin Fang was driving at the time and couldn't go into too much detail with Ning Yumo. Besides, the drive out wasn't far from the hotel where Ning Yumo was staying. It was a good opportunity to invite her for dinner, and then they could speak openly about everything she wanted to know...

The phone shattered by Shangguan Tianling was, of course, Qin Fang's. Given Shangguan Tianling's rage at the time and the pressure Qin Fang had put on him, it wasn't a good time to nag about phone compensation. The only thing to do was to take the SIM card with him.

With the phone broken, Ning Yumo naturally couldn't contact Qin Fang and their concern was understandable. While Qin Fang consoled Ning Yumo, he also felt very happy, as their relationship was getting closer and closer.

Soon, Qin Fang met up with Ning Yumo and the threesome had a meal together, during which they recounted the day's events in full detail.

Ning Yumo listened with wide-eyed astonishment. Although she hadn't been there in person, she knew well how perilous a fight between Martial Arts Experts could be, with a risk of broken bones and ligament injuries...

Especially when she heard Cai Qing describe Qin Fang being hit by Lei Peng's Tianchi Secret Technique, she was so shocked she almost exclaimed out loud. But then she heard that Qin Fang had performed unbelievably well, breaking the Tianchi Secret Technique and triumphing over everyone...

Only then did Ning Yumo sigh with relief, her face lighting up with an excited, slightly proud smile.

But as they talked about Qin Fang facing the terrifyingly powerful Grandmaster-level Expert Shangguan Tianling alone, Ning Yumo couldn't help but worry again. However, the outcome was nothing like she had imagined. She had thought Qin Fang would be at a serious disadvantage, but the result turned out to be quite dramatic.

"Qin Fang, what on earth did you show Shangguan Tianling?"

"You owe me a week's worth of meals at least..."

The meal passed amidst laughter and banter, in an atmosphere that was rather harmonious. As for the words exchanged, they were just that—spoken without anyone taking them too much to heart.

The potential threats from Lei Peng and Shangguan Tianling were temporarily set aside by Qin Fang. Given his current abilities, unless Shangguan Tianling personally took action, ordinary experts wouldn't pose much threat to him. And even if Shangguan Tianling did come after him, Qin Fang wasn't afraid of such a Grandmaster-level Expert...

How strong could Shangguan Tianling be? Could his body stop a bullet?

Perhaps because of this, Qin Fang remained relaxed, happily finishing the meal with the two women, only to find himself obliged to accompany them shopping afterwards...

It was perhaps during this time that Cai Qing, like a true woman, and Ning Yumo laughed and teased each other as they picked out clothes and shoes, occasionally asking Qin Fang for his opinion. They even tried on clothes to let Qin Fang admire them before deciding to make a purchase...

The two women, while buying clothes and shoes, did not forget about Qin Fang; they each picked out an expensive outfit for him. Of course, they also made sure to get Qin Fang a new phone.

After all the fuss, it wasn't until after ten at night that Qin Fang finally returned to Chang'an Club. He had intended to bring Ning Yumo back with him so the two could enjoy a candlelit dinner and a beautiful aria— a wonderful evening just for the two of them.

But Cai Qing acted as if guarding against a thief, clinging to Ning Yumo and not letting Qin Fang take her away. She kept egging Ning Yumo on, and eventually, Qin Fang had to let his plan go astray.

Qin Fang had no choice but to return alone to the Chang'an Club only to discover that there were two beautiful women in thin nightwear, watching television and chatting, in his room...

"You're back!"

As soon as they saw Qin Fang come in, the two women seemed pleasantly surprised, greeting him excitedly.

These two beauties were none other than Li Yuerong and Su Yuan, whom Qin Fang had temporarily placed in the Chang'an Club. They had seemed like enemies when they first met, but now they acted as if they were long-lost sisters...

Chapter 793 - Continuous Invitations_1

...

Faced with such alluring teasing, Qin Fang decisively chose to retreat, heading straight back to his room to rest...

The two beauties merely exchanged glances, a faint smile hanging on their faces as they continued to sit down to watch TV and chat until they felt somewhat sleepy, after which they each went back to their own rooms to rest.

There was no talking overnight.

Having dealt with Cai Qing's matter, Qin Fang had also removed a burden from his mind, so he slept very comfortably, until he woke up naturally.

Just as usual, Qin Fang got up in the morning and practiced his punches as usual, moving his body around and working up a good sweat, before he received a phone call.

It was a strange number, and it was from Capital City, which made Qin Fang wonder for a moment, as he really didn't know many people in Capital City.

But as soon as he answered the call, Qin Fang couldn't help but be stunned for a moment, mainly because the caller was beyond Qin Fang's expectations.

"Grandpa Chu, it's you, I'm really sorry..."

Qin Fang hadn't expected the call to be from Elder Chu, and he was quite surprised.

This elder was an old friend of Qin Fang's grandfather who had passed away a long time ago, and just like Old Master Tang, he was a very respectable old man, someone whom Qin Fang had only met once but respected immensely.

However, what left the deepest impression on Qin Fang was the elder's insistence on setting him up with a wife as soon as they met, which made him both laugh and cry...

"You kid, you still remember this old man, huh? It's been quite some days, and you haven't even come to visit this old man..."

Elder Chu was quite direct, showing quite a disgruntled stance, but Qin Fang could still hear the caring tone in his words.

"This..."

Faced with Elder Chu's words, Qin Fang felt a bit awkward.

He had indeed been rather perfunctory when he promised to visit, and with his business in Capital City finished and planning to leave, he hadn't thought to stop by the Chu Family, so it seemed that Elder Chu was here to demand an explanation, which made him feel somewhat embarrassed.

"Hehe, how about this? Are you free today? Come and have a meal with this old man, can you do that..."

People often talk about the old being child-like, and as they age, their personalities can become quite naive. Elder Chu had just been holding Qin Fang to account, but he quickly shifted to discussing arrangements with Qin Fang.

"This... No problem, I'm free!"

Qin Fang had no reason not to agree, especially since he had no other plans for the day, so he immediately accepted.

"Okay, it's settled then... let's set it for this evening! In a while, I'll have Brother Cheng come pick you up..."

Elder Chu immediately said this.

"Brother Cheng is back in Capital City?"

Qin Fang was surprised for a moment.

Brother Cheng, mentioned by Elder Chu, was naturally his elder brother-in-law, Tang Cheng, who was also Elder Chu's son-in-law. After attending Old Master Tang's birthday banquet, Qin Fang changed the way he addressed his brother-in-law. Since the Tang Family had so many brothers, calling him "Brother Tang" was no longer suitable, so he switched to calling him Brother Cheng.

But Tang Cheng had returned to Ninghai for work a few days earlier, and Qin Fang had no idea he had come back.

"Sure, no problem, no problem..."

Despite the surprise, Qin Fang readily agreed. Having Tang Cheng come to guide and play interference would make his visit to the Chu Family more comfortable.

"Alright, it's a promise then, this old man will be waiting for you at home..."

Seeing Qin Fang's agreement, Elder Chu didn't say much more and politely ended the call after a few words.

Not long after the call ended, Tang Cheng's call indeed came through. He heard about this arrangement from Elder Chu and gave Qin Fang a heads-up.

"You better be careful when you visit the Chu Family, don't let that old man fool you... The women in the Chu Family are famously ferocious. If you're not afraid of death, go ahead!"

What surprised Qin Fang was that his elder brother-in-law, Tang Cheng, actually sent Qin Fang such a warning.

"Got it! Understood..."

If this warning had come on any other day, Qin Fang would have thought it was just a simple caution from his brother-in-law, but Qin Fang had heard from Tang Feifei that her elder brother, despite being so imposing outside, was actually quite well-behaved at home and listened to his sister-in-law the most.

Now it seemed that Qin Fang immediately felt Tang Cheng's words were very sincere; the women in the Chu Family were exceptionally fierce, enough to train a man like Tang Cheng to be completely obedient.

And thinking back to Elder Chu's squinted eyes, his eagerness to shove Chu Family women at Qin Fang made Qin Fang involuntarily shiver.

After some idle chat with Tang Cheng, Qin Fang hung up the phone, ready to take a shower and change his clothes, but at that moment, another call came in.

"Why so many calls today..."

Qin Fang was puzzled; his phone hardly received this many calls normally, but today, in just a short span, calls were coming through one after another.

Upon checking, it was yet another strange number... but Qin Fang still pressed the answer button.

"It's connected! It's connected... uh, Mr. Qin, is that you?"

As soon as the call connected, Qin Fang had yet to speak when he heard an extremely excited voice on the other end of the line. It seemed to be directed at someone else, but the speaker quickly realized who was on the line and immediately started talking to Qin Fang.

"You are..."

Qin Fang was slightly taken aback, clearly having no recollection of the voice, yet the caller was able to say his name and clearly knew him, not to mention that not many people had his number.

"I'm Cen Lin, the Xiao Dao you saved a few days ago..."

The caller immediately said anxiously.

"Xiao Dao? Oh, it's you... How's it going? Are your injuries healed?"

Upon hearing the name, Qin Fang was momentarily puzzled but quickly remembered. It was Xiao Dao whom he had rescued from the Korean Park Sung-guk when he was visiting the Great Wall with Tang Feifei.

"All healed, all healed... Thank you!"

Xiao Dao hurriedly stated and even made a point to express gratitude.

"It was nothing, really; no thanks needed! What's this about..."

Qin Fang hadn't really dwelled on the matter, as he had only helped Xiao Dao after being unable to stand by and watch. He had completely forgotten about it afterward—if it hadn't been for Xiao Dao's call, he wouldn't have recalled the incident at all.

"Mr. Qin, it's like this. A few of us brothers are very grateful to you for saving us that day, so we would like to invite you to dinner..."

Seeing that Qin Fang remembered who he was, Xiao Dao directly explained why he called, "We know it's rather abrupt, but..."

"Oh, I see. Well, alright then, you just set a time and place, and I'll be there..."

Qin Fang actually appreciated the kind of brotherhood that arises among classmates, much like the friends in his dormitory who were also on very good terms with each other. Therefore, without much hesitation, he agreed.

"That's excellent..."

Xiao Dao seemed thrilled, "How about tonight?"

"Tonight? I'm afraid tonight won't work, I already have plans..."

Qin Fang had already promised Elder Chu for the evening, and that was something he could not change, so he had to apologize.

"Then, how about this afternoon?"

Xiao Dao, on the other end, hesitated slightly after hearing Qin Fang's words, then carefully inquired.

"This afternoon? I don't have anything this afternoon..."

Qin Fang glanced at the time. He had gotten up a bit late that day, and noon was quickly approaching. Since he didn't have any appointments, he had no other plans.

"Let's do noon, then. The place is Deyue Tower near Capital University... We'll head there first and wait for you, how does that sound?" As soon as Xiao Dao heard this, he perked up and immediately gave the address.

"No problem, I'll be there in a bit!"

Qin Fang didn't care much about where he ate. Since he had agreed, he wasn't going to back out.

Having settled on that, Qin Fang promptly set off to take a shower and change clothes. However, once he was all set to meet Xiao Dao and the others, he found Su Yuan and Li Yuerong sitting in the living room as if they were waiting for him.

"What's up? Something wrong?"

While Qin Fang wasn't the kind of person who liked to meddle in others' affairs, their expressions made it clear they had something to say, so he asked casually.

"Um... Mr. Qin..."

Li Yuerong was the first to speak, but she seemed hesitant and stammered as if unsure of what to say.

"Call me Qin Fang, please. If there's something you want to say, just tell me..."

Qin Fang smiled. He was about the same age as Li Yuerong and felt awkward with the formal address. He preferred that people simply call him by his name.

"Actually, I want to go back to school... I have an exam tomorrow, and I'm afraid..."

Encouraged by Qin Fang's words, Li Yuerong finally summoned the courage to speak.

"I see... Okay, no problem!"

Qin Fang was momentarily surprised. Although he was also attending college, he'd hardly attended class, let alone sat exams—he didn't even know when and what exams were taking place...

However just because he was slacking off, he couldn't let Li Yuerong follow suit. He nodded and agreed immediately. Since Shangguan Tianling and Lei Peng's targets had shifted to focus solely on him, Qin Fang believed they wouldn't jeopardize Li Yuerong for the time being, and he could be temporarily relieved.

"And you?"

After addressing Li Yuerong, Qin Fang naturally didn't forget Su Yuan.

"I just wanted to let you know that I'll be leaving the Capital City today... this afternoon's flight!"

Compared to Li Yuerong, Su Yuan seemed much more carefree, speaking with a relaxed and comfortable air, almost as if she was eager to be rid of Qin Fang's trouble-filled place and pleased to be setting herself free.

"Then, I wish you a smooth journey... if you're flying, then perhaps not with the wind, but a safe trip!"

Qin Fang was slightly taken aback but still nodded. His acquaintance with Su Yuan was merely accidental. He had avenged her and resolved significant trouble for her, but in return, she had given him a treasure as valuable as the Qianmen Charm...

Chapter 794 - Human Shield_1

...

"Pfft~~"

Even though it was a moment of farewell, both girls couldn't help but laugh out loud at Qin Fang's parting words. Had they not been concerned about maintaining their ladylike demeanor, they probably would have laughed even louder.

"Thank you for your blessings..."

With a beaming smile on her face, Su Yuan said cheerfully.

Qin Fang nodded, having said all he needed to say. He glanced at the time and, realizing it was getting late, prepared to leave for his appointment... But just as he had taken a few steps, something suddenly occurred to him, and he quickly asked Su Yuan, "By the way, what time is your flight?"

"At four in the afternoon! Why?"

She replied immediately, looking curiously at Qin Fang.

"Do you have an exam tomorrow?"

Qin Fang didn't answer her question and instead turned to Li Yuerong and asked.

"Yes!"

Li Yuerong was a bit surprised but still nodded.

"How about this, I'm being treated to lunch at Capital University, and since you two haven't eaten yet, why don't you join us? Later on, I'll drop you back at school and then take you to the airport..."

After spending a few days running around, Qin Fang had gotten a bit familiar with the traffic in Capital City. Going from the Chang'an Club to Capital University wasn't too far, and then heading to Capital Normal University before dropping by Capital Airport was conveniently on the way... Even though the return trip might be a bit longer.

"Really? That would be great... We haven't had lunch yet!"

Qin Fang's words instantly brightened Su Yuan's eyes, and she quickly agreed with a grin, also tugging at Li Yuerong's arm as if signaling something, although Qin Fang didn't quite understand.

"I have no objections..."

When Qin Fang's gaze fell on Li Yuerong, she shyly nodded in agreement.

"That's settled, then. Let's go together..."

Seeing that both girls had agreed, and considering that they were already prepared to take their leave from Qin Fang, there was no need for them to change their clothing, they followed him out.

...

Deyue Tower was considered a slightly upscale hotel near Capital University. Although the prices weren't outrageous, the food quality was quite commendable. Therefore, students from Capital University and Qing University who were slightly better off preferred to treat guests there.

The number of customers at noon wasn't usually high, so Xiao Dao and his group could still book a table on short notice, something that would have required a booking a day or two in advance in the evening.

At that moment, Xiao Dao and the others, dressed spiritedly, were the same group Qin Fang had encountered at the foot of the Great Wall. They were eagerly craning their necks, peering outside the restaurant.

"Mr. Qin..."

Upon seeing Qin Fang appear, Xiao Dao and the others immediately welcomed him with beaming smiles, their enthusiasm evident... and the sight of Su Yuan and Li Yuerong stepping out of the car after him surprised them even more.

However, their astonishment was short-lived. Beautiful as they were, they had come to express their gratitude to Qin Fang, and they couldn't let the presence of beautiful women sidetrack them from their purpose, especially since the women were with Qin Fang.

"Xiao Dao, I'm really sorry for bringing along two extra people..."

Qin Fang did indeed feel a little embarrassed, as Xiao Dao and his friends were the hosts and Qin Fang had brought two more guests without prior notice, which was somewhat inappropriate.

It was a coincidence, of course. He simply couldn't let the two beauties leave without a word, not even offering them a meal.

"Mr. Qin, what are you talking about? It's just two more pairs of chopsticks, right?"

Xiao Dao was a gracious person and didn't mind at all, immediately reassuring with a slap on his chest.

"Look at you all being so polite. As I said last time, just call me Brother Qin and we're good," Qin Fang chortled, quite liking Xiao Dao's straightforwardness.

"Brother Qin..."

Xiao Dao and the others were quite casual and immediately called out with a chuckle.

"Brother Qin, I'm really sorry that all the private rooms are booked out, so we can only sit in the main hall..." Xiao Dao still showed some embarrassment.

The booking was last-minute, and it was only because it was a quieter time at noon that they managed to get a spot. Any later, and they might not even have had a place in the main hall.

"No worries. The main hall is fine..."

Qin Fang was easy-going; he wasn't the type to be fussy about where to eat... He would dine the same way in a five-star hotel as he would at a roadside stall, seeing no big difference between them.

In fact, given the choice, he would rather eat at a roadside stall than dine at a five-star hotel.

Though it was called the main hall, the spot Xiao Dao and his group had booked was actually a quiet corner with no other tables nearby, almost qualifying as a semi-private area. The only drawback was its proximity to the staircase, meaning any guests going upstairs could easily glance over and see them.

However, Qin Fang wasn't picky and sat down right away with Xiao Dao and the rest at the table. Li Yuerong and Su Yuan, the two beauties, naturally flanked him on either side, sandwiching him in the middle.

Such a scene was bound to ignite envy and jealousy among men... Xiao Dao, Li Yi, and the others couldn't help but feel envious; after all, Li Yuerong and Su Yuan had looks that were definitely campus belle material.

But as much as they envied, they acknowledged they didn't have the same charm as Qin Fang. They remembered that the last time they met him, he had been accompanied by a stunning beauty as well, though it wasn't the same two as now...

Chapter 795 - Human Shield_2

After sitting down, it wasn't long before the food and drinks were immediately served.

"Brother Qin, a great kindness doesn't need to be thanked with words. This drink, I offer to you..."

Xiao Dao's temperament was very firm and hearty and it was because of this character that Qin Fang had so resolutely decided to help them in the beginning.

At that moment, Xiao Dao poured a full glass for himself and downed it in one gulp.

It was unclear whether the large glass cups used for drinking were a feature of the restaurant or specially arranged by Xiao Dao and his friends... Fortunately, they were drinking beer. Had it been spirits, Xiao Dao would probably have been half wasted after one glass.

"Good, what a capacity for alcohol... I'll drink too!"

Qin Fang was naturally quite pleased, filled his own glass to the brim, and prepared to bring it to his mouth.

"Maybe it's better not to drink. You still have to drive in the afternoon!"

But just as Qin Fang was about to drink, his arm was grabbed. Looking at the full glass of beer, the usually quiet Li Yuerong frowned and said softly to Qin Fang.

"Hehe, it's okay, don't worry... If I can't drive, I'll just have someone come to do it!"

Qin Fang chuckled. Since they came out to eat and everyone was drinking, it would be disrespectful if he didn't drink... Besides, his tolerance was pretty much of the 'thousand cups without a stumble' type, so this bit of beer was nothing to him.

When Li Yuerong heard Qin Fang's response, she did not persist in advising him. She knew that Qin Fang had people protecting him and if he did drink too much, someone would take him home. This reassured her quite a bit.

Su Yuan was more composed, just sneakily glancing at Li Yuerong, throwing a mischievous look that made Li Yuerong's cheeks turn slightly red and she rolled her eyes at Su Yuan.

"Me too, I'll drink up..."

With no one stopping him, Qin Fang raised his glass and, like Xiao Dao, finished his beer in one long draft without changing color or losing breath, as if he hadn't drunk a thing.

"Great..."

Everyone immediately praised in unison!

"It's my turn next, my turn next..."

Thus, the food continued to be served, but the drinking slowly picked up, glass by glass, round by round, and the group quickly became one lively bunch.

The atmosphere gradually warmed up, and even Su Yuan and Li Yuerong began to blend into it, both having consumed a few drinks.

Su Yuan could handle a few glasses; when Qin Fang first met her, she was unconscious from drunkenness, and although there might have been suspicions of her being drugged, she did have some tolerance for alcohol. She was in high spirits today and drank more than a bottle.

Li Yuerong had never drunk before, but she even joined Qin Fang for a glass... However, after one glass, her face developed the flushed redness of inebriation, and she leaned to one side.

But this also showed the spirited atmosphere of their meal, with everyone quickly mixing in together.

"Hey, isn't that Teacher Chu?"

Tian Ziqi had the sharpest eyes, or as described by Xiao Dao's friends, "a pair of rat eyes" – shifty and always looking around... During the drinking, he suddenly mumbled this observation.

Everyone was slightly startled, and following Tian Ziqi's gaze, they looked over just as the other party was also about to go upstairs. Their eyes met as they looked in their direction, colliding with each other.

"It really is Teacher Chu..."

"It truly is!"

"Who are those two men with him, never seen them before..."

Upon this collision, Xiao Dao, Li Yi, and the others all turned to look, their expressions changing as they began murmuring to each other.

Qin Fang hadn't been concerned at first, considering the newcomer was Xiao Dao and their teacher, whom Qin Fang certainly didn't know. He naturally wouldn't butt in, but that didn't stop him from taking a glance.

But that one look was enough for him to understand why Xiao Dao and the rest had such a strong reaction.

Ascending the stairs was a woman flanked by two men. The men were adequate, decent-looking and somewhat handsome, but they were clad in clothes that were noticeably expensive.

Qin Fang had just gone shopping yesterday with Ning Yumo and Cai Qing, visiting several boutiques of world-famous brands. He knew that some brands offered custom-tailored clothing at eye-wateringly high prices... and the garments these two men were wearing belonged to that category.

But that wasn't what mattered to Qin Fang. Compared to the woman, these two men were nothing but toads to a swan, beauty only enhancing their mediocrity, like piles of cow dung beside a flower offering...

Her flowing black hair casually draped over her shoulders, her face shaped like a melon seed with willow-leaf brows, cherry lips, thin lips, a round chin, and a pert nose. Such features combined to create a strikingly stunning impression...

There's no need to mention her figure either, with a tight black leather jacket accentuating her shapely bust and a common style of black slimming leggings covered by an exceedingly short black leather skirt, showcasing her elongated legs...

The black stiletto boots on her feet only highlighted her statuesque and perfect form... With just one look, even with her company, the two men didn't measure up anymore.

Even someone like Qin Fang, who had seen his fair share of exquisite beauties, couldn't help but admire this woman and exhale a single word – "Beautiful!"

This woman was not just beautiful, she also exuded an extremely wild aura... like an untamable stallion! Using a more contemporary term, she was indeed a "Queen"!

Yes, a Queen!

If she had a whip in her hand, the image would be even more fitting!

Yet this kind of woman was a university teacher. Without even thinking, Qin Fang knew she must be the object of many students' dreams and... nocturnal emissions!

As a man who had been through it, Qin Fang remembered the first time he saw his first woman and teacher, Fan Ning, he too had harbored such thoughts...

Knock, knock, knock, knock~~

Just as Xiao Dao and the others were wondering why their dream goddess, Teacher Chu, would come to dine here with two men, they noticed the beautiful teacher confidently marching toward them in her high-heeled boots...

The two pitiful men with her had a subtle shift in their expressions but had no choice but to follow Teacher Chu as she approached.

"Teacher Chu..."

Li Yi, the leader of their group and one of Teacher Chu's students, quickly stood up to greet the beautiful teacher as she approached.

"I haven't eaten yet, and seeing that you are all dining here, I don't mind adding an extra pair of chopsticks, do I?"

However, unexpectedly, Teacher Chu was anything but polite, pulling up a chair with a nonchalant air and sitting down.

Xiao Dao and the others totaled six people, plus Qin Fang, Su Yuan, and Li Yuerong, that made nine. The table was a standard ten-person round table, and just like that, Teacher Chu had commandeered the one spare seat.

"Mr. Xiao Chuan, Mr. Tanaka, I'm truly sorry, but it seems I won't be able to join you. These are all my students, and we had already arranged to dine together... Sorry!"

Not only had she taken the seat, but Teacher Chu also unapologetically used Qin Fang and the group as a shield... From their names alone, it appeared that the two lackluster men were from Japan.

"Right, we have an appointment with Teacher Chu, please forgive us..."

After Xiao Dao's issue, they all had a considerable distaste for Koreans, but the Japanese weren't much better in their eyes. Since the beautiful teacher clearly disliked dining with these two men, Li Yi and the others were more than willing to play the part of the shield and promptly shooed them away.

"Baka..."

While the beautiful teacher had spoken with some civility, Li Yi's remark was quite blunt. Xiao Chuan merely changed his expression, but Tanaka, apparently lacking composure, retorted angrily!

Chapter 796 - The Most Shameless_1

...

"Cough cough~~"

But just as Mr. Tanaka was about to explode with rage and flip the table of Qin Fang and his friends, Xiao Chuan beside him suddenly coughed twice.

Mr. Tanaka's status seemed a bit lower, and upon hearing Xiao Chuan's cough, the anger that was about to erupt was quelled, and his tone became somewhat subdued. He found a different way to express himself.

"Miss Chu, you were specifically arranged by Principal Chen to receive us, but this behavior of yours... You should know your Shina also claims to be a civilization of thousands of years, a country of propriety, but isn't your behavior a bit too impolite..."

This guy was really shameless, indirectly hurling insults!

Especially since this, "gaijin" was actually using the word "Shina," which was particularly irritating, and even Qin Fang, who didn't want to meddle too much, couldn't help but frown upon hearing it.

Similarly, the instigator, Teacher Chu, also had a slight change in expression, but she didn't back down and responded immediately.

"Mr. Tanaka, Principal Chen had me bring you to the hotel because I had already made plans with the students, it was just on the way... If you don't believe it, you can ask him yourself! He will be arriving soon..."

Whether or not that was the real situation no longer mattered. The main thing was that the beautiful teacher wanted to rid herself of these two "gaijin." As for that Principal Chen, he seemed to have not shown up yet.

"Teacher Chu said so, didn't you hear? We're going to eat now, please leave immediately... I'm being very polite!" Li Yi was also a slick character. They were already displeased with these "gaijin," and how could they allow them to desecrate their dream goddess, the beautiful teacher?

So, Li Yi immediately stood up and very rudely told them to leave, of course not forgetting to look down upon Mr. Tanaka fiercely.

"Baka~~"

Mr. Tanaka didn't expect the beauty to snub him, and now even such a young student dared to speak to him like this. It seemed his pride was severely wounded, and he suddenly became furious, quickly stepping over to Li Yi, grabbing him by the collar with one hand while the other hand couldn't help but rise.

"What are you doing? What do you want to do?"

This turn of events surprised many people who didn't expect this "gaijin" to be so arrogant, daring to make the first move even though he was wrong.

Li Yi immediately shouted, reaching out to pry off Mr. Tanaka's wrist, trying to free himself. Xiao Dao and the others all stood up with a snap, grabbing a beer bottle and getting ready to fight.

"Stop! Everyone stop..."

At the critical moment, the beautiful teacher also couldn't sit still and immediately stood up to break up the fight.

She wanted to use the students' help to escape the entanglement of these two "gaijin," but she also didn't want to provoke the Japanese too fiercely. What she didn't expect was for Mr. Tanaka to be so volatile, ready to resort to violence at the drop of a hat...

She couldn't just stand by and watch her student get hit, especially since she was the one who got him involved. She had to intervene no matter what.

But her voice was fast, yet it couldn't beat the speed of someone else.

As Mr. Tanaka anticipated Teacher Chu's intervention, expecting her to ask him to release Li Yi, he suddenly felt his wrist being held by another hand, and a very cold voice reached his ears.

"Let go!"

It was simple content, just two words, but they conveyed immense authority and irrefutability that made Mr. Tanaka's heart tremble slightly.

He looked up and saw a young face with an emotionless gaze fixed on him, and that hand clearly belonged to this young man.

"What if I don't let go..."

Mr. Tanaka was not an ordinary person. He began practicing karate from a young age and had toughened himself for nearly twenty years. Although he was still inferior to the true masters, he was considered a minor expert — someone even special forces might not contend with.

Karate emphasized sheer strength, and with his years of practice, Mr. Tanaka could smash seven or eight bricks with a single punch. His power was already quite terrifying.

The young man opposite him, although tall and muscular, appeared to have loose muscles, not on the same level as him, and a cold smile crept onto Mr. Tanaka's face.

"Unwilling to let go?"

The young man who had grasped Mr. Tanaka's wrist let out a slightly playful smile and looked at the considerably shorter Mr. Tanaka, speaking lightly.

The young man who had intervened was naturally Qin Fang.

Li Yi, Xiao Dao, and the others were also considered his friends, especially those who shared a meal with him, Qin Fang couldn't possibly stand by and watch them being bullied, let alone by a little Japanese devil.

Qin Fang had never had a good impression of these little devils, otherwise, he wouldn't have gone out of his way to devise a plan to trap them, not to mention he was from Ninghai.

In the past, these little devils were extremely disliked. As time went on, perhaps many things had changed, and many Japanese people were very polite and respectable, but it's undeniable that there were still many little devils like Tanaka.

"Hmph~~"

Unfortunately, Qin Fang's implied threat was seen by Tanaka as nothing more than a weakling's verbal counterattack, he didn't care at all, and even increased the pressure on Li Yi's hand.

Before, when they saw the two little devils appear with Chu Beauty, they thought it was because Chu Beauty was wearing high-heeled leather boots that made the two little devils look short in stature.

But when Qin Fang actually stood in front of Tanaka, he was surprised to discover that it wasn't that Chu Beauty was too tall, but that these two little devils were too short.

At a height of one meter eighty, Qin Fang had to look down to speak to Tanaka, towering over him by at least half a head or more.

In the past, Qin Fang knew that the height of the little devils was considered very short in Asia, but nowadays, there had been a significant change, and it was basically not noticeable. However, upon closer comparison, Qin Fang still felt that the little devils tended to be on the short side...

"Hehe, not only will I not let go of this hand, but you also..."

As Qin Fang's thoughts were a bit scattered, Tanaka thought he had intimidated him and became even more enthusiastic, reaching out with another hand and actually grabbing Qin Fang's collar...

Xiao Dao and the others were a little worried that Li Yi might get into trouble, but seeing Qin Fang lend a hand, their worries eased considerably.

But unexpectedly, Tanaka turned out to be so brain-dead. It was one thing to bully Li Yi, but to bully Qin Fang—was this like pulling hairs from a tiger's butt—asking for trouble?

Even Li Yi, originally worried about getting hit, found his face twisting into a strange expression upon witnessing this scene, yet he said nothing and even stopped struggling, sitting back to enjoy the show.

Similarly, Su Yuan and Li Yuerong, sitting aside, were quite calm, not worried for Qin Fang in the least, even looking forward to seeing Qin Fang give the little devil a good beating.

The only one who seemed worried was the beautiful teacher, Chu Beauty, who didn't know anything. On one side was the Japanese guest Tanaka, and on the other were her students Li Yi and...

She glanced at Qin Fang and clearly had no recollection of him but didn't think much of it. After all, it was common in university for there to be many students who skipped classes and whom the teacher might not meet until the exams.

"Mr. Tanaka, please don't... Mr. Xiao Chuan..."

Chu Beauty, now in a panic, desperately sought remedy and immediately tried to intercede, even reluctantly turning to Xiao Chuan, who stood by impartially, for help.

"Ahem, Tanaka..."

When Chu Beauty spoke up, Xiao Chuan finally reacted, pretending to cough twice and called out to Tanaka.

"Miss Chu, it's not that I don't want to give you face... Just now, your student insulted me and made me very angry. I must teach them a lesson..."

The two little devils seemed to be in sync; one played the tough guy and the other the good cop. Tanaka immediately approached Chu Beauty, smiling and saying, "Of course, since Miss Chu has spoken, I'll give her this face, but... these two must apologize to me, and then Miss Chu has to join us for a meal; otherwise, not only will these two be unlucky, but I'll also have every reason to terminate our collaboration!"

"This..."

In reality, Li Yi and the others had done nothing wrong. If anything, it was the little devils who had no reason to start the fight. Asking her to make her blameless students apologize was something she found impossible to do.

But upon hearing Tanaka threaten to terminate the collaboration, Chu Beauty's face turned pale... The reason she had accompanied these two little devils for a meal today was that they represented a Japanese consortium in talks for a very important collaboration project with the university.

If she were to cause the project to fail, her responsibility would be immense...

This dilemma clearly distressed her!

"Get lost~~"

Qin Fang originally wanted to see just how shameless the little devil Tanaka could be, but in truth, the level of Tanaka's shamelessness was beyond words, impressing Qin Fang immensely. To think he could come up with such an idea.

Since that was the case, Qin Fang lost the interest to continue this nonsense with Tanaka. With a slight exertion of strength in his wrist, Tanaka instantly felt a surge of intense pain there, and then saw a shadow swiftly approaching him... followed by a thunderous roar in his ears.

Chapter 797 - Crushing the Little Devils_1

...

The pain in his wrist was unbearable, as if the bones had been forcibly twisted and broken by someone. Tanaka almost instinctively let go, unable to clutch Qin Fang's collar any longer... Even his other hand let go, coming to cover his injured wrist.

Smack~~

However, the wrist pain was just the beginning. The shadow struck swiftly, and Tanaka had no time to react before a sharp pain exploded on his face, as if a solid iron plate had been ruthlessly slapped onto it.

His face instantly felt a burning pain, and the powerful impact made his neck crack and twist to one side... Of course, it didn't break, it just got twisted.

At that moment, Tanaka felt stars dancing before his eyes; his head was spinning, his steps became unsteady, and he staggered. His legs gave way, and he collapsed to the ground.

Smack~~

By coincidence, as he fell, his body knocked over an enormous vase that the restaurant had placed as a decoration.

Ceramic vases are quite fragile, and upon colliding with the hard marble floor, they immediately made a piercing crash...

The vase was so large that the noise was tremendous, echoing throughout the entire lobby in an instant. Many dining guests, who hadn't been paying attention to the disturbance, couldn't help but look over now.

"Baka..."

Witnessing such a scene, Xiao Chuan's face turned quite ugly.

He had a good understanding with Tanaka; they always played good cop, bad cop. Unexpectedly, just when they were about to succeed in their designs on the Chu beauty, planning to take advantage of the situation... It turned into this. Tanaka, usually tough to beat, was slapped into such a state; for Xiao Chuan, it was utterly humiliating.

"Damn Shina... Lowly race!"

With that thought, Xiao Chuan glared hatefully at Qin Fang. He muttered this phrase in Japanese under his breath, fearing that if he had said it in Chinese, Qin Fang might retaliate.

"Say that again, I dare you..."

Qin Fang hadn't initially been inclined to deal with Xiao Chuan, mainly because the guy had been quietly standing aside the whole time without making a peep, giving him no just cause for assault.

But now it seemed that Xiao Chuan was no different from Tanaka, just that Tanaka used Chinese to insult, while he used Japanese.

Hearing the young man's words, Qin Fang's gaze sharpened as he glared at Xiao Chuan and countered in Japanese.

"Eh..."

Xiao Chuan was momentarily stunned, his face turning the color of an eggplant. His neck shrank in fear of being Qin Fang's next target. He hadn't expected Qin Fang to speak Japanese, and certainly not that he would have understood the words Xiao Chuan had just muttered, so he pulled his head in tight like a Ninja Turtle...

Although Qin Fang almost never used Japanese to communicate with others, it didn't mean he couldn't understand it. In fact, his proficiency in the language had already reached the level required for normal communication with Japanese people.

The skill "Language Proficiency" might seem useless on the surface, but it actually provided Qin Fang with substantial assistance in languages. He had already self-taught Japanese, English, German... and was preparing to master French, Russian, Spanish, and others.

Confronted with Qin Fang's fierce gaze, Xiao Chuan could only shrink his neck and dared not make another sound. Compared to Tanaka, his physique was much thinner, and his strength was even less noteworthy. Even if he had to take a beating, he wouldn't be able to withstand much of it.

Whenever they caused trouble together, it was always Tanaka who handled the fighting. At most, Xiao Chuan would join in with a few kicks once the victim was down.

But facing Qin Fang, he was clearly at a significant disadvantage. Even Tanaka had been laid out by Qin Fang, let alone him. Considering Qin Fang's slap, Xiao Chuan ultimately backed down.

Xiao Chuan was completely intimidated by just one look from Qin Fang. The Japanese are like that, bullies who are actually cowards at heart; it's an intrinsic character flaw of their nation, as certain as dogs can't change their habit of eating feces; it's an unchangeable truth.

When they're strong, they bully whoever they can. When they face someone stronger, they're utterly submissive... Not only ready to bend over for the powerful, but also offering their own daughters for the strong to use as they please... such are the Japanese!

In just that short while, Tanaka, who had been slapped by Qin Fang, had staggered to his feet, shook his head as if he wasn't seriously hurt.

"Huh, he's standing up that quickly..."

Seeing Tanaka get up, Qin Fang was also surprised. He was well aware of the force behind his own blow—normally, anyone who took that slap would lie on the ground for quite a while before being able to get up, but Tanaka had managed to rise so quickly.

"It seems I've underestimated him..."

Qin Fang cast a Scouting Skill towards Tanaka, only then realizing that this was no ordinary man, which explained his arrogance; he was obviously a trained fighter.

However, what he practiced was not Dragon Country's martial arts or Japan's Ninjutsu, but the more common Japanese Karate, designated as a national sport in Japan. And he seemed to have mastered it quite well, reaching Level 3, comparable to an average special forces warrior.

Chapter 798 - Crushing the Little Devils_2

With such a level of skill, bullying ordinary people was really too easy for him; typical folks were no match for him. Just like Li Yi and Xiao Dao, even combined, they were no match for Tanaka, so it's no wonder that Tanaka's audacity had grown so obese.

Unfortunately... Tanaka had not consulted the almanac before going out this time and had hit a snag—he ran into Qin Fang.

"So arrogant at merely Level 3. If you reach Level 4 or Level 5, won't you claim to be invincible under heaven?"

Watching Tanaka gradually regain his footing, Qin Fang couldn't help but sneer, still not taking this little devil seriously...

"Damn Shina! Damn Sick Man of East Asia..."

At this moment, Tanaka was truly at the brink of rage. He had been in Dragon Country for quite some time, and everyone he met treated him politely. He always bullied others, and as a foreigner, even if he assaulted someone, Dragon Country's laws couldn't punish him.

But unexpectedly, this time he had hit a snag. Failing to bully others, he instead got beaten up like this.

A wave of pain crossed his face, and Tanaka subconsciously touched it, immediately grimacing as his entire half face swelled up like a bun, with those five clear finger marks all the more visible, glaringly conspicuous.

"Damn Shina! I'm going to kill you!"

The scorching pain on his face further stirred the ferocity in Tanaka's heart. Used to bullying others, he couldn't stand this situation. Gazing at the utterly calm Qin Fang, violence seethed in Tanaka's eyes, as if he wished to tear Qin Fang into pieces...

The more he thought about it, the angrier he got. Tanaka's sinister eyes were fixed on Qin Fang, searching for an opportunity. Finally, seeing Qin Fang turn his head to speak with Li Yi and Xiao Dao, a flash of madness sparked in Tanaka's eyes. His feet suddenly erupted with force, transforming into an agile shadow as he swiftly lunged toward Qin Fang.

Not only that, but as he moved quickly, his fist also gathered an incredibly violent amount of strength... Looking at the fierce wind trailing the fist and the bulging veins there, one could imagine just how formidable this strength was.

Meanwhile, Qin Fang seemed completely unaware of Tanaka's approach, smilingly inquiring about Li Yi's situation, without even a glance in Tanaka's direction.

Tanaka chose his moment to strike quite well, seizing an opportunity when Qin Fang was off guard, simultaneously unleashing his strongest power.

"Be careful!"

Even if Qin Fang hadn't seen Tanaka's actions, it didn't mean others hadn't noticed, such as the beautiful female teacher who had been monitoring the situation.

Although Qin Fang had just slapped Tanaka, seemingly gaining a huge advantage, it was all due to a sneak attack. The teacher didn't know that Qin Fang's strength was far greater than Tanaka's. Seeing Tanaka suddenly strike while Qin Fang appeared completely unguarded, she couldn't help but cry out.

It was an almost instinctive shout, and she even wanted to reach out to pull Qin Fang back. Since she was not very far from him, just a slight stretch of her hand would be enough to reach him.

However, she was much slower in reacting and making a move; by the time she could grab Qin Fang, Tanaka's fist would probably have already hit him.

This made the teacher even more worried...

Compared to her, Xiao Dao and the rescued Li Yi were much calmer. They didn't know much about Qin Fang's combat power but they were sure it was much stronger than Tanaka's.

Tanaka's strength was at most similar to that of Park Sung-guk, who had beaten them up that day. And what had become of Park Sung-guk? Wasn't he left with a swine's head by Qin Fang...

So they had a lot of faith in Qin Fang. At least, in their view, Tanaka couldn't pose any real threat to Qin Fang!

As for Su Yuan and Li Yuerong at the side, they were even more composed. They did not know the full extent of Qin Fang's strength, but they had witnessed Qin Fang fight.

For example, when Qin Fang and Lei Laohu clashed, Su Yuan had been present. The fight was truly earth-shattering, far more intense than the present situation.

Li Yuerong, on the other hand, had seen Qin Fang move like a phantom and effortlessly subdued Shangguan Hao and the two strong bodyguard brothers beside him...

Compared to these formidable Level 5 experts, Tanaka was obviously much weaker. The force of his punched-out fist seemed quite formidable and terrifying to others, but compared to Lei Laohu's Bear Fist, it was practically child's play...

Moreover, Su Yuan had personally witnessed Qin Fang endure the Lei Family's most daunting sure-kill technique—the Explosive Bear Strike—with his bare body.

The power of that punch, if landed on an average person, would turn even the hardest skull into a smashed watermelon... Yet Qin Fang withstood it effortlessly, seemingly unscathed, leaving Su Yuan completely astounded to the point where she still couldn't forget about it until now.

Tanaka's fist, even using all of his strength, did not possess one-tenth the power of the Explosive Bear Strike...

Chapter 799 - Crushing the Little Devils_3

Such a fragile fist, how could it possibly pose a threat to Qin Fang?

Therefore, Su Yuan and Li Yuerong both appeared incredibly calm, and having had a little to drink, their vision was somewhat blurred, giving Qin Fang a dreamy, enchanted look...

At that moment, Mr. Tanaka, in their eyes, was nothing more than a sleazy, repulsive toad, and both women were eagerly anticipating Qin Fang crushing this ugly toad underfoot like a Heavenly God descending to earth!

As Mr. Tanaka's companion and friend, Xiao Chuan naturally hoped that Tanaka could succeed in knocking Qin Fang down with a punch. As for the others like Xiao Dao and Li Yi, they were merely onlookers, the type that Mr. Tanaka would typically beat up in every scuffle...

But the key point was that this guy discovered that at Qin Fang's table, not only was the Chu beauty an exceptional woman, but also sitting slightly inside were Su Yuan and Li Yuerong, who turned out to be top-notch beauties as well, not at all inferior to the Chu beauty... This revelation was a real eye-opener for him.

Xiao Chuan and Tanaka were both lecherous hungry ghosts; in Japan, they had never had such good conditions to throw their weight around, let alone the fact that Japanese women were often spoiled before even coming of age, having been with too many men to count on all fingers and toes...

But coming to Dragon Country was different. Not only were they waited on hand and foot on a regular basis, but many of the beauties were quite pure, like the several ladies in front of them. With their countless experiences with women, they realized that all of them were still unripe...

This realization instantly set Xiao Chuan's heart ablaze... He immediately looked forward to Tanaka knocking Qin Fang down, then he could be with these three beauties...

At this thought, Xiao Chuan couldn't help but sneer sleazily, his expression unspeakably sleazy, making anyone who saw it want to beat him up fiercely!

What others were thinking, Tanaka clearly did not know. His fist was getting closer and closer to Qin Fang, and at that moment, there was only one thought in his mind—knock down Qin Fang.

Tanaka's heart was also growing more and more tense, yet at the same time, quite excited.

Previously, Tanaka hadn't really thought Qin Fang was that strong, but as he threw his punch, he vaguely recalled past events, seeming to remember that Qin Fang's Strength might actually surpass his own, and his control over force was far greater too.

All these realizations suddenly made Tanaka think—Qin Fang is a master!

But seeing Qin Fang still not reacting, and with his fist about to hit Qin Fang, Tanaka felt his earlier thought was ridiculously stupid, a mere illusion.

The fist grew closer and closer...

Tanaka grew increasingly smug, seemingly already envisioning Qin Fang writhing in pain before him, even beginning to plan how he would use his hand to slap Qin Fang's face into the size of an elephant's.

Slap~~

Just as he was so excited that he could hardly contain himself, his fist finally made contact with Qin Fang's body, producing such a dull sound.

But...

The anticipated event did not happen; in fact, what truly happened was completely different from what he had imagined.

"How can this be..."

Tanaka and Xiao Chuan almost simultaneously let out such cries of shock.

Because Tanaka's fist did not hit Qin Fang's chest, head, face, or any other possibly threatening parts, but was instead grabbed by one of Qin Fang's palms.

Tanaka struggled a bit with his fist being caught, but Qin Fang's palm remained completely immovable, no matter how much he tried to pull away.

Tanaka threw another punch, but Qin Fang still had another hand, and it was caught again...

"Tsk tsk, I really love brave warriors like you..."

Qin Fang's face wore a playful smile, looking utterly harmless, and he spoke very calmly and indifferently, "Since Mr. Tanaka, such an enthusiastic friend from Japan, is so passionate, as someone from a land of courtesy, I naturally can't be too rude... Let's have a hug!"

But for some reason, as Tanaka looked at Qin Fang's warm smile, he felt an uneasiness in his heart, as if he were facing not a young man but a fierce beast from ancient times.

Indeed, without any chance for Tanaka to resist, he saw Qin Fang suddenly give him a bear hug...

Keep in mind that not long before, Qin Fang had just sparred with Bear Fist successors Lei Laohu and Lei Peng. He had some understanding of many Bear Fist moves, albeit not the essence; still, the basic techniques could be used.

Bear Hug!

This was a very simple but deadly move in Bear Fist, much like Black Tiger Heart Technique in Tiger Fist, simple yet with considerable killing power.

In comparison to Qin Fang, Tanaka's build was quite small, perfectly suitable for a move like the Bear Hug...

With Qin Fang's tremendous Strength, as Tanaka was hugged, he felt Qin Fang's arms turn from soft to steel rods in an instant, completely immobilizing his body. Tanaka struggled left and right, to no avail; Qin Fang's arms wouldn't budge at all.

If it was only simple immobilization, that would have been fine, but just when Tanaka was about to give up struggling, Qin Fang suddenly began to tighten his arms, and Tanaka felt his body being compressed in an extremely small space, his bones starting to constrict...

"Ah~~"

An extremely agonized scream was released from Tanaka's mouth; he felt his muscles and bones in extreme compression, an intense agony that could only be slightly relieved through such a scream...

But when Qin Fang let go innocently, Tanaka fell to the ground like a dead snake, limp and powerless, foaming at the mouth...

Chapter 800 - Dog Traitor

...

"Stop... Stop!"

Just as Qin Fang let go, he heard someone cry out not far away, their tone filled with urgency and tension...

Qin Fang just curled his lips indifferently. Tanaka was already lying on the ground; he had stopped long ago!

Yet, hearing this voice, Qin Fang turned his head to look in that direction and saw a fat man with glasses urgently running towards them...

Perhaps because of his stout body, his running strides were not very large, and his face wore a look of intense anxiety and fear, sweat forming on his forehead, dampening the sparse hair of his Mediterranean baldness...

Seeing the fat man's appearance, Qin Fang suddenly thought of a character from a movie—The fat interpreter from "Soldier Zhang Ga" mirrored the image of the fat man before him.

"Principal... Principal Chen..."

However, when that beautiful teacher saw the fat man, her expression changed dramatically. She couldn't sit still any longer, quickly stood up, and looked at the running fat man with a nervous gaze.

Qin Fang and the others were stunned as they realized that this fat man was none other than Principal Chen, who both Tanaka and Chu Beauty had mentioned before...

"Teacher Chu... what's going on here?"

Principal Chen, seeing Chu Beauty standing to one side, then looked at Qin Fang and the several young people around him, all seemingly around twenty years old and with clearly inexperienced faces, as if they were still students.

Then looking at Tanaka on the ground, foaming at the mouth and unconscious, Principal Chen's face suddenly turned grim, and he asked sternly.

"Teacher Chu, I have reminded you over and over again to take good care of Mr. Xiao Chuan and Mr. Tanaka. Could you please tell me what exactly happened here..."

While sternly asking, Principal Chen immediately bent over to try and help the downed Tanaka, but his belly was too big, making it hard for him to bend down and touch the ground, let alone help someone up.

"Principal Chen, I..."

Chu Beauty's face also turned rather unsightly, she opened her mouth wanting to say something but she didn't know how to start...

"Principal Chen, your students are really something, beating Mr. Tanaka to this state. If you provide me with a reasonable explanation, I might suggest to the board to terminate our collaboration...hmph!"

Seeing Principal Chen appear, Xiao Chuan, who had been cowering aside, suddenly jumped out and spoke in a very assertive tone, displaying a bit of the Fox Assumes Tiger's Might.

"Eh... My school's students did this?"

Principal Chen, hearing this, was stunned and surprised. He looked at Qin Fang and then at Xiao Dao, Li Yi, and the others around him. Seeing that these people knew Chu Beauty, he immediately understood the situation.

"Mr. Xiao Chuan, it's a misunderstanding, definitely a misunderstanding..."

Though Principal Chen responded quickly, consistently explaining to Xiao Chuan while plotting, "Mr. Xiao Chuan, please calm down. I will definitely investigate this matter seriously. If it truly was the act of our students, I will sternly punish them, not only expelling them but also handing them over to the public security authorities for processing..."

Hiss~~

Really, Principal Chen isn't ordinarily ruthless; to appease Xiao Chuan, he even could say such things.

You should know, university students are not high school students; they are already adults over eighteen years old. Legal violations can lead to imprisonment, and if the police get involved, it would stain their lives forever.

Hearing this, Xiao Dao, Li Yi, and the others also grew nervous... Although it wasn't they who had beaten Tanaka, if the situation escalated, they suspected that Principal Chen wouldn't hesitate to take action against them.

"Principal Chen..."

Chu Beauty couldn't sit still any longer. This incident started because of her, and if her students suffered such penalties, no matter the outcome for her personally, she definitely wouldn't be able to live with herself.

"Teacher Chu, I will deal with your issue later...hmph!"

Yet, Principal Chen didn't give Chu Beauty a chance, rebuking her with a huff before heading straight towards Qin Fang and his group, his demeanor fiercely aggressive. Meanwhile, Xiao Chuan standing behind wore a face full of satisfaction, even daring to tease Qin Fang with his eyes, truly asking for trouble.

By this point, Qin Fang had figured something out—the beautiful Chu was seemingly arranged by Principal Chen to accompany Xiao Chuan and Tanaka. What exactly Principal Chen was intending, Qin Fang wasn't completely clear, but his first impression of him wasn't very good—or rather, it was very bad!

Even if the young Japanese had hit someone, Qin Fang was not the type to shy away from trouble, and could even be described as fearless; he simply didn't regard Tanaka and Xiao Chuan as threats at all.

Even if these young Japanese had some backing, Qin Fang was unafraid, not to mention that he had already prepared some measures.

If these young Japanese had let it go at that, Qin Fang would not have bothered with them much, but if they were being unreasonable, then Qin Fang saw no need to stay polite anymore.

Unexpectedly, Tanaka fainted, Xiao Chuan cowered, and the seemingly irrelevant Chen Pangzi jumped out to make trouble, which really annoyed Qin Fang.

"You...you...talk! Why did you hit someone?"

Chen Pangzi hadn't thought much, seeing Qin Fang as just a naïve youngster and a student from Capital City University, while he held considerable power as a vice principal, thinking subduing a student would be easy.

Looking at Principal Chen in front of him, Qin Fang felt even more that this guy was no different from the fat translator—both were nothing but traitors!

Qin Fang was most displeased with such traitors... Not long ago, when Qin Fang beat up Park Sung-guk, he also took the opportunity to give that worthless minister a severe beating.

The pudgy principal in front of him was a vice principal of Capital City University, one of Dragon Country's top two universities, and his administrative rank was quite high, probably at least at the bureau level.

However, this pudgy principal didn't carry the least air of a scholar, rather, saying he resembled a mercantile businessman would probably be more fitting.

At this moment, the principal took his mercantile spirit to an extreme level, turning it into outright shamelessness... To curry favor with the young Japanese, he actually made a move against his own student.

"Hit someone? Who hit anyone? Which of your eyes saw me hitting someone?"

Qin Fang saw no need to be polite with such a person, his face wore a faint smile, and he retorted with a grin.

"You...it's you...what's your name? From which college...hitting someone and still not admitting it, I just saw it with my own eyes, could there be a mistake? Humph...I'm going to expel you..."

Principal Chen trembled with rage, his plump face trembling like climbing up to the vice-principal position hadn't been easy, and although he wasn't exactly tyrannical usually, he still felt he could squash a mere student however he wished...

However, he hadn't expected this student to be so arrogant, not only hitting the guest he invited but also blatantly lying, which infuriated him, who's usually so haughty.

"Expelling? Just because of you?"

But hearing Chen Pangzi's words, Qin Fang just laughed out loud, his laughter was exceedingly joyous and incredibly mocking, particularly the way he looked at Chen Pangzi, as if he was staring at an idiot.

Chen Pangzi was certainly no good bird, always using "expulsion" to threaten students without a shred of the demeanor or decorum expected of an educational professional—truly an embarrassment to the educational world.

That such a person could climb to the position of vice-principal, and at one of the country's top universities no less, was utterly embarrassing for Capital City University in Qin Fang's view.

Therefore, Qin Fang felt no need to be polite with such a person, his tone even more dismissive.

"You...you...I'm definitely going to expel you!"

Chen Pangzi's fat face turned a purplish red, looking incredibly like an engorged pig's liver, the sight was as comical as it was dramatic, and as he spoke, his body trembled violently, making one worry if his blood vessels might burst on the spot...

"Principal Chen, right? You're really boring, I already said if you want to expel me...you, you're not qualified enough!"

Qin Fang rolled his eyes, looking utterly speechless and as arrogant as before, even more scornful and mocking toward Chen Pangzi than earlier.

Of course, Qin Fang was merely stating a fact, albeit one that Chen Pangzi was unaware of. Qin Fang was indeed still a university student, just not of Capital City University where Chen Pangzi worked, but of Ninghai University... Could Chen Pangzi's reach, however long or powerful, cover Capital City University and even extend to Ninghai University?

Moreover, Qin Fang had quite strong connections at Ninghai University, and was on good terms with several of the university leaders. Occasionally, these university leaders would dine and hold banquets at Fang Feixue, and as the owner, Qin Fang offered them the biggest discounts.

As the saying goes, 'receive a person's food, follow a person's lead'—while these university leaders weren't technically accepting bribes, they still turned a blind eye toward Qin Fang, such as him skipping classes long-term without consequences.

Not to mention, Qin Fang was the future son-in-law of Secretary Tang, the top official in Ninghai, and was sure to be given due respect...

It was precisely because of all these connections that even if Chen Pangzi's influence was significant enough to find out Qin Fang was attending Ninghai University, he still couldn't do much to Qin Fang...