Chapter 71 Family! (5/5) _1

"Enough, enough! Rest assured, I will definitely arrange it properly."

Seeing that the young Chen Mo could casually pull out 80 silver coins and seemed able to add more if needed, the nurse realized this young man was extraordinary. He seemed to have a boundless future, and it was not wise to offend him.

As a lifestyle professional herself, she dared not easily offend such a promising young combat professional. Her tone had now become somewhat ingratiating.

It seemed she was apologizing for the disdain she had unknowingly showed when she first walked in.

"Hmm, that's good. What are you still stunned for? Hurry up and get the medicine." Chen Mo had noticed her contemptuous attitude before, hence his lack of cordiality towards her.

"Yes, yes, yes." Instinctively feeling as if she had been given an order, the nurse quickly ran out with the tray in her arms.

After she left, Chen Mo turned around to speak, only to find Sister Yiyi and Granny staring at him in complete shock.

"Mo, where did you get so much money?" Liu Yiyi was the first to snap out of her surprise and asked incredulously.

"Actually, I was prepared to tell you this at home before, but with the sudden incident here, I didn't get a chance to. I was just lucky to come across a strange item, which I sold to a big shot and made a fortune. He gave me one eternal gold coin straight away. That took me by surprise too."

What Chen Mo said was not entirely a lie. When the other party suddenly handed over one eternal gold coin, he was indeed very surprised.

Chen Mo lying was not because he didn't trust Sister Yiyi, but some things could not all be disclosed. Otherwise, he himself would be in danger and might even involve his family.

"Really?"

"Yes, the shoes I used to fly you here just now were also bought with the money I earned."

"So that's how it is. But with so much money, if you could use it to upgrade yourself, it could greatly increase your chances of being admitted to a key university. Why did you take it all out? We could have just used 10 silver coins for an installment payment and considered the rest once you get into university."

Liu Yiyi felt that Chen Mo had acted recklessly this time. Tens of millions! If that could be exchanged for equipment, Chen Mo's combat power would undoubtedly increase substantially. Even if he couldn't get into a top university, he could still strive for the possibility of a first-tier or a second-tier university.

Universities mainly fall under five tiers: top universities, key universities, first-tier universities, second-tier universities, and third-tier universities.

Top universities have numerous SS level and S level instances, and even a handful of SSS-level instances.

Key universities control numerous S-level instances, and a few SS level ones.

First-tier universities control a few S-level instances and one graded SS level instance.

Second-tier universities control one graded S-level instance.

To obtain legendary-level materials, one must try to get into a university above the first tier, or at the very least a second-tier university. Then, a large group of people would use their academic credits to buy spots, waiting in line for S-level instances to gain entry.

After all, there's just one S-level instance in a second-tier university for all the students to share, which is naturally slower.

Although it doesn't mean that all students have the strength to challenge S-level instances, there are still a lot who can.

According to Liu Yiyi's original plan, she was aiming to help Chen Mo secure a spot in a second-tier and strive for the first-tier.

With this sudden situation before her, she almost didn't know what to do. To her surprise, not only did Chen Mo solve the problem with money, but he also took out a large sum that could potentially influence his own future.

Her heart naturally ached for Chen Mo.

"Sister Yiyi, don't worry. I can't guarantee anything else, but even without this money, I'll at least get into a key university for you to see!"

As Chen Mo spoke, the Magic Wand in his hands suddenly burst with a dazzling golden light.

"Is this... platinum-grade equipment?"

Both Liu Yiyi and her mother were stunned by the unusually radiant Magic Wand in Chen Mo's hands.

Platinum-grade equipment starts at tens of millions!

If they knew this was bound equipment, they would probably be even more shocked. Moreover, the bound equipment that Chen Mo had synthesized actually possessed superior strength. Although it seemed platinum-grade at first glance, its efficacy was much stronger.

When Chen Mo displayed the Magic Wand, the nurse had already returned with the medicine. She watched as Chen Mo concealed the glow of the Wand.

"A platinum-grade Magic Wand!"

Instantly, she was even more certain of her earlier guess.

This young man definitely had a promising future. No wonder he easily gave dozens of silver coins. It turns out he was using equipment worth tens of millions. She wondered what the origins of this young man were. He didn't seem to belong to this impoverished family at all.

Although she thought this in her heart, she did not dare to voice it out. Instead, she obediently ran back in to apply medicine to Chen Mo's grandfather.

After the nurse finished applying the medicine and had sorted out the change of ward and other issues, Granny began to usher people out.

"You two should go now. Our relatives will be here later to help. The next few days are crucial for Mo, and we must not delay him."

"Then Granny, you keep this money first, in case there's a need for it here."

Chen Mo then took out another 10 silver coins and was about to place them in Granny's hand.

"No, no! You've already spent 80 million, boy. At this time, your elders should be helping you. Taking money from you is already inappropriate. How could I take even more of your money? If your grandfather knew about this, he would scold me."

"Granny, if you consider me as your own grandson, then please take this. There's no need to be polite; we're family after all."

Listening to Chen Mo's words, Granny was momentarily speechless.

After a moment of silence, Liu Yiyi also came to a realization.

She felt that Chen Mo was right, and refusing would only make Chen Mo think too much and feel uncomfortable.

She immediately stood up behind Chen Mo and put her hands on his shoulders. Looking at her mother, she said, "Mom, since Mo has said this, we should accept it. We shouldn't be so formal as a family. Mo has always been a sensible kid. Since he says he doesn't need this money and can still get into a key university, we should trust him not to gamble with his future."

"Well... fine." Granny reluctantly accepted the money and said to her husband in the hospital bed, "This old guy will certainly scold me when he wakes up."

"No problem. I'll come to deal with that," Chen Mo said with a smile.

"Only you can handle this stubborn old man." Granny gave a resigned smile.

She was really scared when her husband encountered this incident, and now that the matter was resolved and her husband had a chance of recovery, she finally managed to muster a smile.

"Mom, Mo's examination is in two days, and I need to take care of him. I'll leave Dad with you for now."

"Hmm, the doctor said he'll be fine, so don't worry about this side anymore. At this stage, Mo's matters are more important. Everything should prioritize him."

"Sister Yiyi, Granny, I'm all grown up now. Why do you still treat me like a child? You should both stay here. I can manage alone at home."

"How can that be?"

Liu Yiyi still wasn't accustomed to letting Chen Mo live alone. If she couldn't see Chen Mo in front of her, she would inevitably be anxious.

After all, being a combat professional meant running around outside all day, and the risk of death was not small.

Many young people die young out in the wilderness, and many never even have their bodies recovered.
