

Gluey Love 1271

Chapter 1271

Thinking of what had happened in the past, Eden was somewhat sad.

At that time, she was very lonely. Under Myra's eyes, no one dared to make friends with her.

She had no friends in high school and college.

At that time, she really had nothing but a strong appearance.

She sighed and looked at the computer. She didn't want to think about the past anymore and continued to work.

She worked hard and soon forgot about the unpleasant things.

Victor woke up at 3 o'clock in the morning.

He got up and took a shower. But he did not see Eden when he came out of the bathroom.

Seeing that Eden had dealt with all the documents on the desk, he raised his eyebrows slightly in surprise. Eden was really amazing, and she was almost more capable than him.

However, where was she? He was not used to not seeing her after he woke up.

Victor put on his coat and went out to look for Eden.

Out of the office, Victor saw Dean talking with a girl and frowned slightly. Eden was not here.

Seeing Victor, Dean immediately went forward with a flattering smile, "Mr. Alwynn, you're awake." Dean was a little envious, because Victor skipped work openly.

Paula, who was standing not far away, was completely amazed when she saw Victor. Under the lights, Victor's tall and straight figure looked so imposing, and his face was noble, handsome and perfect.

Victor actually looked more charming than in the photo.

"Yeah!" Victor answered indifferently, "Where's Mrs. Alwynn?"

Dean blinked, "Isn't Mrs. Alwynn in the office?" He didn't seem to see Eden come out.

"No!" Dean asked Victor in reply, which made Victor frown unhappily. If Eden was in the office, why should he come out?

"Wait a minute, Mr. Alwynn. I'll call Mrs. Alwynn right now."

Saying this, Dean dialed Eden's phone number.

"The phone you dialed is power off." He heard the mechanical female voice.

Dean was speechless. What was going on? Had Mrs. Alwynn run away from home again?

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn's phone is power off."

Victor did not believe it and took out his phone to call Eden. He really couldn't get through to her.

Victor frowned and looked confused.

He looked at Dean and asked, "What's news online today?"

Hearing this question, Dean was stunned. When Victor frowned, he reacted very quickly and immediately understood what he meant.

He turned on his phone and showed it to Victor, "Mr. Alwynn, the only hot topic online is about what happened in the airport. However, this matter no longer attracts many people's attention now. Mr.

Ronen said that someone had schemed it behind the scenes. I told Mrs. Alwynn about it, and she said that we didn't have to care about it. At that time, she was dealing with the documents for you in the office."

"Really?" Victor pursed his lips doubtfully. Where would Eden go?

"Do your own work. I'll look for her." Victor said and walked forward.

After Victor took a few steps forward, Paula greeted him with a smile and introduced herself, "Hi, Mr. Alwynn, I'm Cyan's classmate, Paula. Now I work as her assistant."

Victor's eyes darkened when he heard the name "Cyan". His expression was even colder as he said, "Who told you that my wife's name is Cyan?"

Paula was dumbfounded. Eden was just Cyan, wasn't she?

"Mr. Alwynn..."

"What did you say when you saw Mrs. Alwynn?" Victor's tone was extremely apathetic.

Seeing Victor like this, Paula was frightened and immediately lowered her head. "I... didn't say anything."

"Humph! I hope you really didn't say anything." Victor said gloomily and then strode out. The name "Cyan" would make Eden think of many terrible things in the past.

Paula was very puzzled. Eden was Cyan, and this was an indisputable fact.

Dean looked at Victor's back in confusion.

Just as Victor was about to press the elevator button, he saw Eden coming out of the stairs of the fire exit.

Eden's face was a little pale. It was windy on the roof, and she went there for some fresh air, but she did not dare to stay there for too long. She was afraid that she would get sick and concern her family.

Seeing that she only wore a white suit, Victor frowned slightly. Then he quickly took off his windbreaker and walked toward her.

"Eden, did you go to the top floor?" Saying this, he wore the windbreaker for her, and he was somewhat annoyed when he saw her red cheeks. What if she caught a cold?

Eden nodded, "I went there to take the air."

"Are you in a bad mood?" Victor looked at her cautiously and thought for a while. Had he offended her?

"No. I finished my work early, didn't I? So I went there for some fresh air." Eden said while walking. When she saw Paula, she didn't say anything and only nodded politely.

"Eden, let's get off work ahead of time." Victor said behind her.

Hearing this, Dean said with a smile, "Mr. Alwynn, you really can't get off work ahead of time today. There is a very important dinner tonight. Mr. Ronen is not here, so you must go there in person."

Victor glanced at him, "My wife is not happy, and I'll accompany her. You go there on my behalf."

Dean was taken aback. If he could handle it, he wouldn't have let Victor go there.

The cooperation had just begun. If Victor did not go there, they would think that he was insincere.

Dean knew Victor's character, so he could only look at Eden and said pitifully, "Well, Mrs. Alwynn..."

Eden looked at Dean absent-mindedly and asked, "What's wrong?"

She was lost in thought just now, so she didn't hear what they were talking about.

Dean took the initiative to speak before Victor could say anything, "Mrs. Alwynn, Mr. Alwynn has to attend a very important dinner party tonight. Mr. Ronen is not here, so he must go there."

Victor gritted his teeth and glared at Dean.

Dean smiled and lowered his head. He had no choice but to tell Eden about it.

Eden looked back at Victor, "That's right. Victor, you have to attend a dinner party tonight. It's early now. You can rest for a while before going there."

Victor walked to her, took her hand and went to the office without saying anything.

"Yeah!" Dean waved V-sign for victory.

Paula was in a daze because Victor's attitude towards Eden was completely different. Dean's words pulled her back to sense.

She envied Eden's good luck in an instant.

"Dean, does Mr. Alwynn listen to Cyan all the time?" She asked in a low voice.

Dean looked at her and said in a serious tone, "Paula, the Alwynn family is the most powerful family in River City, and Mrs. Alwynn's identity is special. You'd better call her Mrs. Alwynn."

Paula laughed, "There's no need! Cyan and I are classmates. She won't mind it."

Chapter 1272

Dean smiled and said, "Then I wish you good luck. But have you been familiar with the workflow? Tomorrow, you will start to do some simple work, and you can't make any mistake during the probationary period. Let me tell you again. Mrs. Alwynn's attitude towards work is more rigorous than that of Mr. Alwynn sometimes. When you are about to get off work, I will let you sort out the documents."

After saying these words, Dean turned around and returned to his office.

Why did he feel that Paula was so annoying?

Paula pouted her red lips slightly. She had been busy sharing the news that she had entered Alwynn Group with her friends, and she hadn't read the documents yet.

However, she was not eye candy. She would not allow Eden, who was once bullied by her in school, to look down on her.

She glanced at Victor's office, and a trace of jealousy flashed through her eyes. So many years had passed, but she hadn't had a boy friend who owned a luxurious car, while Eden had married the most powerful man in River City.

Such a clear difference made her jealous. However, she was more beautiful than Eden, and she was sure that she could seduce Victor.

She smiled and turned back to her office.

Eden was still in a bad mood, so Victor followed her all the time.

Eden sat on the sofa and lowered her head to turn on the phone.

Victor sat next to her and watched her every move.

After turning on the phone, Eden saw two missed calls. One was from Victor and the other was from Dean. It seemed that they were looking for her after she went out.

Eden put her phone on the tea table and looked at Victor's worried face. Then she smiled and said, "You don't have to worry about me. I'm fine. I saw Paula and remembered something in high school."

"Don't think about it, and you're not allowed to think about it. If she makes you unhappy, I will let her get out of here immediately." Victor reached out and held her in his arms.

Eden smiled and shook her head slightly, "That's unnecessary. Let's see if she can do a good job in the probationary period. I can't forget my past, and I have to face it anyway. What's more, I only thought about it today. It won't affect me too much in the future. You're not allowed to drink at the party. I want to get pregnant." She felt that she was in good health these days, and she had to give birth to another child before she was thirty years old.

Perhaps she would be unwilling to give birth after she was thirty years old.

"Ha-ha..." Hearing this, Victor laughed.

"Honey, I will try my best to let you get pregnant from tonight on."

How could Eden not know what he was thinking? She blushed and glared at him.

She loved him, so she was willing to give birth to a child for him.

They had had three children, and it was enough, but she gave birth to the children when he was not by her side, so she wanted him to feel the joy of being a father once.

This was what she thought.

Victor looked so delighted, "Eden, you'll be too tired, won't you?"

He was worried that she would get sick.

Eden shook her head slightly. When she got pregnant last time, he was so happy that he couldn't fall asleep at night. Thinking of this, she felt so guilty. If she had not known Rebecca's secret, her child would have been two years.

"I was tired when I was pregnant with the three children, but I made it through, didn't I? Now I'm recovering well. Don't worry. Besides, my depression has been cured, right? I'm in good health now. I can't participate in the international design competition this year, so I have enough time to give birth to a child."

Victor's heart ached, "Eden, I don't want you to be tired."

"I've told that I am not that delicate." Eden leaned against his arms lightly.

"Victor, in fact, I want you to experience the whole process of accompanying me to give birth to a child. We are very lucky, because we have two sons and one daughter. If we can have another daughter, we will be luckier. Kenny will be very busy in the future, so will Ricky. I can't even see him recently. He is busy acting in the new movie, and he is tired. Fortunately, he likes his job and never thinks about giving up."

"Seeing how hard-working they are, I have a positive attitude towards life and I'm optimistic. As long as we're positive, we'll be lucky and receive good news."

Eden smiled faintly, and she was no longer in a bad mood.

She didn't want to take a passive attitude and sigh every day. In that case, she would feel uncomfortable and dislike herself.

"Okay, as long as you're happy." Victor gently kissed her head.

Words couldn't describe how proud and glad he was. Anyway, at this moment, he was like over the moon.

Eden really loved him, so she did everything for him wholeheartedly and cared about his feelings so much.

He wanted another child indeed, but he felt distressed for her and didn't want her to be tired.

"Victor, I'll go back to see Abby later. I haven't given the gift to her yet. I'll ask if she is at home first. The child has been stabilized, and she always goes out."

When Victor heard Abigail's name, he remembered that Abigail had said he was a toy boy, and he felt so depressed.

Eden took the phone and sent a message to Abigail.

"Abby, are you at home? I'll come to see you later. I haven't given the present to you yet."

She waited for a long while, but Abigail did not reply to her.

Just as Eden was about to call Abigail, Abigail replied to her.

"Eden, I am not at home. I'm accompanying Maureen to have a check-up in the hospital."

Eden was stunned when she saw Maureen's name. Was Maureen sick?

She asked, "What's wrong with Maureen?"

Abigail replied, "Eden, Maureen has been pregnant for three months. During this period of time, she doesn't get along well with Jasper, so she didn't know that she was pregnant. She didn't feel well, but she thought it was because she was too tired. These days, she is under great pressure. She has been thinking about the relationship between her and Jasper, and she didn't expect herself to be pregnant. Today, she reacted and then called me.

"However, when Jasper heard that Maureen was pregnant, he did not respond at all. What should we do now? This is really not good news for Jasper."

Eden was surprised when she saw that.

She looked up at Victor, "Maureen is pregnant."

Victor smiled faintly, "That's good news."

Eden said, "It's not good at all! Alas..." Eden sighed. Such an accident was a disaster to the relationship between Maureen and Jasper.

Victor did not take it seriously. He smiled and pinched her pink cheeks, "Eden, this is what Jasper should think about. After all, they have a child now..."

"So, will he be happy if he gets married because of the child?" Eden interrupted him, "However, Jasper is a responsible man, and he will not abandon Maureen. Even if he doesn't love her, he will be responsible for her because she has got pregnant. No one can predict love. Perhaps he will gradually fall in love with her as time goes by."

Chapter 1273

"That's right, Eden. He will be touched by her as time goes by." Victor knew that it was possible.

"Yeah!" Eden said softly.

She lowered his head and sent a message to Abigail, "Abby, is the child and Maureen all right?"

Abigail replied, "The child is healthy, and its heart is beating normally. Maureen gets pregnant for the first time, so she has no experience. She's a confused mother. She said that when she didn't sleep well, she had no strength and vomited sometimes, but she didn't take it seriously."

"Eden, I seem to have seen Jasper. Let's talk later. I will go home around eight o'clock in the evening. When I pass by your house, I will go in and get the bracelet. Thank you for your gift!"

Eden smiled and said, "Jasper went there. I knew that he would not escape."

Victor asked jealously, "Do you know him very well?"

"Yep! I know him quite well. In the past, Maureen liked him because his family is rich. Now several years have passed, and it seems that she has changed her mind. She wants to be with a man who is worth spending the rest of her life with. After all, a rich man is not as good as a man who loves her wholeheartedly. There is no doubt that Jasper is a nice man."

"What about me?" Victor looked at her with a unhappy face. Jasper was a nice man. Then how about him?

"Ha-ha..." When Victor was jealous, he really looked horrible. She was afraid of nothing but his jealousy. When he was jealous, he looked upset and filled his mind with nonsense. Although he looked all right on the surface, he was a maelstrom of churning emotions inside.

That was Victor. Of course, he had changed quite much.

Eden suddenly wrapped her arms around his neck and kissed him quickly with a smile, "You are my nice man. I don't like your money, but your gentleness. As a woman and your wife, I never regret marrying you."

Victor lowered his head and rubbed against her forehead, "Fool, I won't let you regret it. As a woman, my wife, and my children's mother, you'll live a happy life everyday." He only loved her in life, and they would live together till old and grey.

"Ha-ha..." Eden laughed happily.

"I'm going to prepare the documents for you. Since Dean will accompany you, I can rest assured." Eden stood up with a smile, walked towards his desk and put all the documents that he could use into his bag.

After work, Eden watched Victor and Dean drive away.

Then she picked up the car key and walked to her car.

Paula watched Eden get in a red Rolls-Royce. Even the number plate was worth two hundred thousand dollars, and the logo of the car was made of karat gold. She was so envious. After working in this city for so many years, she couldn't even afford to own a number plate.

Seeing that Eden started the car and was about to leave, she quickly walked over and knocked on the car window.

When Eden saw Paula, her eyes turned slightly cold. She rolled down the window slowly and asked indifferently, "What's the matter?"

Paula smiled and said, "Eden, we used to be classmates. You don't have to be so distant, do you? I'm off work. Why don't you give me a ride?"

Paula said with a smiling face, as if she was very familiar with Eden.

Eden grabbed the steering wheel more tightly. They used to be classmates indeed, but Paula never treated her as a classmate, but a puppet that she could bully at will.

"Get in the car." Anyway, she had nothing to do, so she could give her a ride.

She could forgive Paula for what she had done in the past, but if Paula dared to make troubles in Alwynn Group, she would never let her go.

Dean went to the office at noon, and she asked Dean about it. Paula got the job by her own ability.

She had been well prepared in order to enter Alwynn Group.

"Thank you!" Paula smiled with joy as she opened the car door and got on the car. It was the first time she had sat in such a luxurious car, and her heart jumped fast with excitement as if she had met her Prince Charming.

"Mrs. Alwynn, are you going home?" Seth had just got off work and walked over with a smile.

Eden smiled at her in a friendly way, "Yeah. Seth, go back and have a good rest. Tomorrow morning, go to Windsor Villa to pick me up. I want to go to Monroe Group and meet Mr. Monroe."

"No problem, Mrs. Alwynn. Please be careful on your way back." Seth maintained a decent smile and said neither humbly nor pushily.

Eden smiled faintly. Seth was indeed an assistant trained by Zaiden. Even her temperament was somewhat similar to his.

"Okay, be careful on the road, too!" Eden smiled and drove out of the parking lot.

Outside the parking lot, Eden asked Paula, "Where do you live?"

Paula smiled with embarrassment, "Near the subway station of Subway Line 1 on the second ring road." She rented a small apartment with one room and one living room and lived alone.

Eden did not say anything else. She took out her phone and used the guide map. She was really not very familiar with that place.

Paula observed Eden's reaction from the rearview mirror. Eden was quite cold to her. Was it because she still blamed her for what had happened back then?

As for Eden, she had been bullied by them for three years. How could she not remember it?

She felt uncomfortable to see Paula in this way.

Not to mention that they were sitting in the same car.

At that time, how could Paula know her helplessness? After leaving the Gienger family, she was really alone. Her longing for family affection and family members made her endure herself to the extreme.

When Paula was about to speak, Eden's phone rang.

Eden wore Bluetooth headsets and looked at the front.

"Victor." If she remembered correctly, Victor had only left for about ten minutes.

"Eden, have you arrived home?"

Eden was speechless.

"Victor, it's only been ten minutes since you left. How can I get home now? Don't worry about me and talk business with concentration." She said helplessly with a faint smile.

Victor said, "Eden, I will come back earlier. You have to wait for me."

Eden replied, "Okay, got it. I'll chat with mom and dad and wait for you to come back by the way."

"Sure!" Victor hung up the phone.

As soon as Eden hung up the phone, she received another phone call from Abigail, "Hello? Abby."

"Eden, Jasper is here, but Maureen doesn't want this child anymore. They are quarrelling now."

Eden opened mouth slightly in surprise, "Why? She loves Jasper very much, doesn't she?"

"Maureen knows that Jasper doesn't love her, so she doesn't want to use the child to restrain him. There is no love between them, and the child will not be happy."

Eden knew that it was the fact, "Abby, Jasper needs some time to fall in love with her, but the child is innocent."

"Yeah. They are arguing now. No matter what I say, they don't listen to me. Jasper said that he would be responsible for Maureen and the child, but Maureen said that the child would grow up very painfully without love. I don't know what she is thinking."

"She even drugged Jasper in order to be with him. Now she is pregnant, but she flinches."

Eden looked helpless, "Abby, we can't change their minds, and we can only respect their choices."

Abigail replied sullenly, "Eden, I just want to tell you the fact. Don't worry too much. I'll let them calm down and think about what to do. As you said, the child is innocent. Why should they give up the child? Maureen's idea is a bit domineering. Even if Jasper can fall in love with her, it will take some time."

"Alright! I see." After hanging up, Eden felt a little depressed.

Seeing that Eden had hung up the phone, Paula wanted to ask her how she met Victor.

But Eden answered a phone call again, "Hello?"

"Long time no see, Irene. You seem to be very busy."

Eden received another call from Irene.

Irene said, "Eden, thanks to you, I've been transferred here. I'm really much busier than before, but I have something to talk to you today."

"Uh-huh, Irene, go ahead."

"Well, Eden, the winter collection of TS Company is very similar to ours. I compared the design of two companies carefully, only to find that many of their clothes were the same as ours. What on earth do they want to do?"

Hearing this, Eden could guess what Melissa wanted to do.

She had long been prepared for this matter.

She smiled and said, "Irene, you don't have to worry about this. You will know when the new products come on the market." She smiled with confidence.

She had mastered Melissa's tricks. This time, she would surprise Melissa a lot.

What Melissa had copied was the design that she showed her deliberately.

"Ha-ha... Since you say so, I'm relieved. Once again, thank you and Victor for trusting me. I have to get off work now. But Eden, treat me to dinner another day. I've been really hard-working during this period of time. As Mrs. Alwynn, shouldn't you reward me for my hard work?" Irene was very familiar with Eden, and she often joked like this.

Eden smiled and said, "Of course. Tomorrow is Friday. Why don't we get together and invite all the employees of the two departments to have a party in River City Restaurant?"

"Ah... River City Restaurant, I'm coming! Eden, see you tomorrow." Irene said in a loud voice happily.

Hearing her happy voice, Eden could not help but smile.

Irene had been very capable. When she worked in Alwynn Group, she did a good job.

The red lights were on, so Eden parked at the intersection and called the manager of the River City Restaurant to ask him to prepare for the party tomorrow.

After finishing her words, she hung up the phone. The green lights were on, and she checked the guide map again, only to find that she had to drive more than ten kilometres to send Paula back. There was a traffic jam in peak hours, and she frowned slightly.

But she continued to drive.

Paula had long heard of River City Restaurant. She smiled and asked, "Eden, can I go to River City Restaurant tomorrow night?"

Eden glanced at her from the rearview mirror, "If you can finish your wok on time, of course you can go there."

"Okay, I will finish my work early." She didn't expect herself to be so lucky to meet the top managers in the company on the second day of work. She must dress up well the next day.

Chapter 1274

Paula looked at Eden again and said with a smile, "Eden, you are so lucky. You actually married Mr. Alwynn."

Eden pursed her lips slightly and did not say anything. She remembered that Paula followed Myra all the time in the high school. They didn't have good grades and even got to know a few idle gangsters.

On weekends, they would go out and play with those gangsters.

She knew that Paula had lost her virginity when she was in her third year in high school. At that time, the man was a bit rich. When she was about to graduate, he often drove to the school gate to pick her up.

At that time, Eden was preparing for the college entrance examination. Paula was busy going out with the man, which made her life much easier.

Later, her dream came true, and she was admitted to a college. Since then, she had never heard any news about them, nor did she inquire about them deliberately.

"Eden, why don't you speak? Are you angry with me because of what happened in high school? At that time, we were young and insensible. You know Myra's temper. She asked us to bully you."

Her tone was not apologetic at all. Even if it was Myra who had instructed them to do so, they had the right to choose. They treated her as a puppet and bullied her just to please Myra. At this time, she hadn't realized that she had done a wrong thing. Eden only sneered and didn't know what to say.

If someone slapped her in the face and then gave her candy, should she eat the candy with a smile in front of that person?

At that time, she was indeed easy to bully, because she had no one to rely on. After she left the Gienger family, she had nothing. Only by studying hard could she change her life. She had a hard life everyday, and she would encourage herself as long as she had restrained herself and spent a day.

However, she was no longer the coward girl she used to be.

"Paula, aren't you ashamed to mention the past in front of me?" Eden's indifferent words made Paula extremely embarrassed.

"Eden, let bygones be bygones. Just forgive me. Now we work in the same company and we have to meet each other everyday. If you still have a knot in your heart, we won't be able to get along well, right?"

"That's right. If I could go back to the past, I wish that you would never be my classmate and I would never meet you. I won't personalize the issue. As long as you finish your work according to my request, we won't be embarrassed in the company." Eden's voice was extremely cold and her expression was even more displeased.

Paula did not apologize, but asked her to forgive her. She was not so broad-minded.

"Oh!" Paula puckered her mouth. Eden had even married Victor. Why was she still so narrow-minded?

She took out her phone, took a video secretly and sent it to Jodie.

"Jodie, look! I asked Cyan to send me back, and she listened to me obediently."

Jodie immediately replied to her, "It seems that she is still so easy to bully. Why don't you ask her to pick you up tomorrow morning? When we were in high school, you asked her to clean up the classroom for you, and she did it obediently, didn't she?"

Paula had a sense of superiority, "I'll ask her later."

Twenty minutes later, Eden parked the car at the subway entrance and said indifferently, "Here we are."

"Oh, thank you. Eden, do you have time tomorrow morning? Come and pick me up if you have time. It is a squeeze in the subway every morning."

When Eden heard these words, rage bubbled just below the surface of her mind. Did Paula think that she was still so weak and easy to bully?

From the rearview mirror, she looked at Paula who was waiting for her answer. Then she turned her head slowly and looked at her with a sneer sarcastically, "What? You still treat me as Cyan whom you could bully at will? In the past, I didn't argue with you because I wanted to study hard, and I didn't take what you did seriously. But now, Paula, you're not qualified to give yourself airs in front of me. Get out and don't dirty my car!"

"Cyan, you..." Paula didn't expect that Eden would say such words.

Eden even asked her to get out of the car, which had injured her self-esteem severely.

Paula pulled open the car door and left angrily.

Eden did not stay. She turned on the guide map and drove away.

Paula stood where she was and stamped her feet, "Humph! You are just lucky. Cyan, what qualification do you have to be so arrogant? Just wait and see! I'll definitely seduce your husband and let you pay the price!"

On the way back, Eden did not think too much. She knew very well how she had made it through these years, and she would not annoy herself because of Paula.

When she got home, she cooked with Jaida with joy. After dinner, Zaiden, Jaida and she took the children out for a walk. At eight o'clock in the evening, Abigail came over and they went home to chat.

Abigail said that Maureen had gone back with Jasper. She didn't know how they would deal with this matter and could only wait for their decision.

Eden did not say much about this and kept talking to Abigail about their trip.

Listening to her words, Abigail was very excited, and she planned to go there with Anson when she had time.

Abigail did not go back until nine o'clock. Victor had not come back, so Eden discussed the cooperation with Monroe Group with Zaiden in detail.

After hearing his words, Eden learned a lot. After the children fell asleep, Zaiden and Jaida went back to their room, and she went back to her room to study the knowledge that Zaiden had taught her.

Victor came back at ten o'clock at night.

After taking a bath, he had sex with Eden twice before they fell asleep.

As a result, Eden got up late the next morning. She immediately called Seth and ask her not to pick her up. She would go to Monroe Group at noon.

Eden and Victor went to work normally.

As soon as they reached the 25th floor, they saw Paula and Dean waiting for them in the hall.

Dean looked a little anxious.

However, Paula looked at Eden gloatingly.

Eden had an ominous presentiment.

Victor said nothing, and Eden asked first, "Dean, what happened?"

Dean smiled flatteringly and glanced at Victor who did not know anything. His heart was torn with anxiety.

"Mrs. Alwynn, before you know this, I have to clarify for Mr. Alwynn. I was with him last night. It was definitely not his fault. When we were about to go back, Mr. Alwynn met two drunk ladies, and they hugged him all of a sudden. So... this morning... this matter became a hot topic online."

"What?" Victor looked at Dean with a mad face.

Eden glanced at Victor and took out her phone quickly. The news was that Victor had a one-night-stand with two young ladies.

"Victor!" She yelled exasperatedly.

Victor had a nasty feeling in an instant.

Chapter 1275

He immediately explained, "Honey, I went home before ten o'clock last night. I definitely didn't do that." Victor looked at her with a bitter face. Who the hell wanted to slander him all day long?

Eden glared at him fiercely but did not say anything. Her big clear eyes seemed to be brimming with tears, and Victor's heart ached severely.

Dean felt that this was too weird. The two women seemed to be waiting for Victor at the door deliberately.

He explained with a smile, "Mrs. Alwynn, I can testify that Mr. Alwynn didn't drink last night. Mr. Parma even asked why he didn't drink. Mr. Alwynn said you were ready to get pregnant, so he couldn't drink and had to go home early."

"Therefore, at nine fifteen last night, Mr. Alwynn and I said goodbye to them, and we went through the deal because of Mr. Alwynn's deep love for you."

"But as soon as we went out, two ladies sprang at Mr. Alwynn. He really did not take the initiative to help them. Moreover, he pushed the two drunk ladies to the ground. One lady's hand was broken, and she would go to the hospital today."

Eden took a look at the picture. The two women tried their best to cling to Victor like octopuses.

She always suspected that some people wanted to cast a bone between her and Victor deliberately.

This was why they kept playing such a trick to make them fall out.

Humph!

She would never let them get what they wanted.

"Honey." Victor looked at Eden's furious face nervously.

Eden did not look at him, and she was lost in thought.

Since Victor met Dorothy, someone had been scheming against them behind the scenes.

Later, Sandra did the same thing. Their purposes seemed to be the same. They wanted her to get mad and then leave Victor.

She was angry indeed. She went to the sea in a fit of anger because of Sandra.

Therefore, those people went even further.

What if she got mad again this time?

What would they do?

It was no accident that both of her and Gia were injured.

The murderer was caught, but he was dead. How could it be so coincidental?

She had doubted it since then.

Eden felt a tightness in the chest. Why did she feel that she was enveloped by an invisible net?

"Eden, are you all right? Mr. Alwynn is not that kind of person. Don't be angry. Since Mr. Alwynn has explained, you should be generous and don't take it to heart." Paula persuaded Eden hypocritically.

She had seen the news on the subway. Therefore, she came to work with joy and wanted to see how upset Eden would be.

Dean glanced at Paula. It turned out that she was a scheming woman. She meant that Eden was not sensible, didn't she?

"Shut up! My wife knows me the best! You're not qualified to say explain for me!" Victor said with harshness and hostility.

Paula was stunned. Seeing that Victor went berserk all of a sudden, she trembled in fear and lowered her head, not daring to speak.

Eden glanced at Paula and handed over the documents to her, "Paula, sort out these documents, especially the documents of the marketing department. Be careful, and I'll read them when I come back later."

After finishing her words, Eden turned around and left.

"Honey, don't be angry." Victor took her hand quickly.

Eden glanced at him and pinched her thigh with her other hand. Tears immediately rolled down her cheeks, and she did not say anything.

"Eden... Don't cry. I really trampled on the woman who touched my skin and broke her hand. If you don't believe me, I can ask Dean to bring her to you."

"There's no need. I don't want to dirty my eyes. I have something to do in Monroe Group, and I will come back later." Saying this, Eden shook off his hand and turned around madly.

"Mrs. Alwynn..."

"Eden..." Victor scratched his hair with irritation. Looking at Eden's tearful face and her exasperated back, he had no courage to chase after her.

Eden did not use the special elevator. She took the elevator and went to the lobby on the first floor.

She had a reason for doing so.

After all, those people just wanted to see her get mad and leave.

She cried because she pinched her thigh. When she entered the elevator, she complained that she shouldn't have used so much strength. It hurt so much, and her thigh must be bruised. She was not Ricky, and she didn't have excellent acting skills...

Seeing that Victor's face had darkened to the extreme, Dean said nervously, "Mr. Alwynn, as soon as I saw the news, I informed Brian. Brian was afraid that Mrs. Alwynn would be annoyed, so he went to the restaurant to check the surveillance video. If Brian got the video successfully, he could prove your innocence and Mrs. Alwynn would forgive you."

"Yes!" Victor nodded and said, "Call Mrs. Alwynn every twenty minutes and ask her where she is. She didn't eat much this morning, so ask her to have lunch earlier. Besides, she doesn't wear much today. Ask Seth to prepare a coat for her just in case. She probably doesn't want to answer my phone call now. Tell Brian to find out who is slandering me as soon as possible."

After saying that, Victor strode to the office with his long legs.

"Alas! What a bad day!" Dean said helplessly. Obviously, someone did these things on purpose.

However, Paula smiled, "Dean, has Mrs. Alwynn left in anger just like that? Mr. Alwynn and you explained so seriously, but she didn't believe you."

Hearing this, Dean took a step back and looked at Paula with indifferent and distant eyes.

"Paula, you'd better work hard, and don't meddle in the affairs of Mr. Alwynn and Mrs. Alwynn. Mrs. Alwynn has the final say in Alwynn Group. Behave yourself."

Dean left quickly after saying this.

Paula was shocked and stood where she was.

Alwynn Group belonged to Victor. Why did Eden have the final say?

She turned around in confusion and looked down at the information in her hands. Then she instantly understood the gap between herself and Eden.

It was a great honour to be loved by the most powerful man in this city.

How did Eden do it?

Victor's words showed how much he cared about Eden. As a woman, she could clearly feel Victor's love and affection towards Eden.

Victor was not in the mood for work. He sat down on the sofa and called Brian.

"Hello? Mr. Alwynn, why don't you call me earlier? Let me tell you. It was too late for me to check the surveillance video. The security camera in the place where you were held by the two women is broken."

Victor frowned and supported his forehead helplessly, "That is to say, has someone been scheming against me since I met Dorothy?"

Brian said, "Right! Their purpose is very simple, which is to separate you and Eden. Last time, Eden ran away from home because she was angered by you, didn't she? So, this time they want to make things worse. But they know the current situation very well, so they didn't leave any clue for us."

"Find out who they are!" After Victor finished speaking, he hung up the phone with a surge of great fury.

He leaned on the sofa irritably, and his heart ached severely when he thought of Eden's tearful face.

His tall and straight figure couldn't help trembling.

After they got up in the morning, they came to work together happily. Her smile was so beautiful that his heart melted. But the next moment, all the happiness was ruined by the d*mn news.

Eden didn't expect there would be reporters on the first floor. As soon as she walked out of the gate, a lot of reporters surrounded her.

Seeing this, the security guards at the gate stepped forward to stop them.

Eden asked them to step aside.

It was a good thing that the reporters were here. After all, her sadness should be publicized, shouldn't it? Those people were very malicious, and they wanted to ruin the marriage of her and Victor.

Eden had to pinch her thigh fiercely again. She had been happy for too long, so she really had nothing to cry about.

"Ouch..." Eden gulped in pain secretly. It was extremely painful.

She blinked her big bright eyes and her eyes turned red instantly.

When the reporters surrounded her, they saw her like this.

A reporter immediately asked, "Mrs. Alwynn, there have been gossips about Mr. Alwynn these days, which is not in line with the rumours. May I ask if he really has an love affair?"

Eden's eyes were brimming with tears, but she answered his question with a smile, "My husband has nothing to do with those women. Someone took those pictures and posted them online deliberately to frame my husband. You have sharp eyes, don't you? Those photos were all edited by computer. Don't take them seriously." Eden spoke neither fast nor slowly, and her smile was fresh and elegant. Everyone heard what she said clearly.

"But, Mrs. Alwynn, your eyes are red. Are you sad because Mr. Alwynn has mistresses outside?"

Eden smiled faintly, "Sir, you misunderstand me. The weather is cold, and it's windy. I've got a piece of grit in my eye."

Another reporter asked, "Mrs. Alwynn, I heard that two days ago, you ran away from home because of the relationship between Mr. Alwynn and Miss Rulin. Is this true? Moreover, you took the chance and took over Rulin Group. Is it true?"

The corner of Eden's mouth twitched. She didn't run away from home, did she?

Besides, what did they mean by saying that she took the chance and took over Rulin Group?

Victor was such a scheming man. Didn't he know what he had done? Why should she take the blame for him?

Eden smiled and said calmly, "I didn't run away from home. Instead, I went on a trip with my husband. You all know that place, right? It's very beautiful, and it is a special place for couples. These days, the butterflies are fluttering among the flowers there, and this trip is meaningful to us. As for Rulin Group, this is a business matter. Even if I wanted to take over the company, I couldn't do it without their permission, could I? If they disagreed, how could I take it over?"

Eden's reply was equivocal.

The shareholders of Rulin Group were not stupid. They could make a lot of money if they worked with Victor, and they couldn't gain a lot if they stayed in Rulin Group.

But she didn't know how Victor took over Rulin Group. According to his character, nine times out of ten he had bought all the shares at a high price.

Victor was really narrow-minded. Ordinary people really couldn't afford to offend him.

Moreover, he was rich and wilful.

She didn't see the acquisition plan of Rulin Group. Victor should be following the procedure.

"Mrs. Alwynn, where are you going in such a hurry? Are you angry because you've seen the news today? Are you going to leave?"

Eden looked at the reporter and shook her head with an elegant smile, "You misunderstand me. I have a cooperation with Monroe Group, and I'm going to talk something to Mr. Monroe. My husband loves me sincerely and wholeheartedly. How can I be angry with him?"

"Is that so? Mrs. Alwynn, what do you think about the news these days?" The reporter asked again.

Eden still looked at the reporter with a faint smile, and her beautiful lips looked very attractive under the sun. At this moment, she looked extremely pure and lovely, "Are you asking about my opinion? Of course, I thought a lot. But no matter what has happened, I trust my husband."

The reporter was rendered speechless and couldn't get any further information out of her.

Eden's fluent answer, calm smile and pretty face were very eye-catching among the crowd. She didn't need to explain more, but those reporters couldn't bear to give her pressure. She was just so charming.

She was not a mighty queen, and she was very ordinary among the crowd, but her faint smile was so pure that it could make people have a peaceful mind.

"Well, thank you for your concern about me and Victor. But I have to hold a very important meeting now, and I'll leave first."

After Eden finished speaking, she walked forward, and the reporters made a way for her on their own initiative.

Seth had driven to the gate. Eden opened the car door and got in the car, isolating herself from the noisy reporters.

"Whew..." She exhaled tiredly.

Seth glanced at her. Seeing that there were tears on her long lashes, she said comfortingly, "Mrs. Alwynn, it's obvious that someone is trying to ruin your relationship with Mr. Alwynn on purpose. Don't be too sad."

"Yeah!" Eden smiled and nodded. She was not sad at all, and she wept deliberately.

How could those people believe her words since she explained with tears in eyes?

No matter how she really felt, that person wanted to see her sad and dejected the most.

There was still a long way to go, and she couldn't rely on Victor all the time. If she could solve this problem on her own, she didn't want to rely on anyone.

Eden looked out of the window. The sun was sometimes dim and sometimes bright. When the sunshine came through the car window, it was so dazzling that she couldn't open her eyes.

She was a little disconsolate. Who wanted to separate her and Victor deliberately?

Melissa?

But Melissa didn't do anything during this period of time.

Eden narrowed her eyes. With Melissa's personality, she couldn't be so quiet, and she must have done something.

She was not in a hurry. If Melissa intended to separate them, she would take other actions.

As for her, as long as she kept a certain distance from Victor, he would be upset and agitated all day long.

If Melissa saw what she wanted, would she expose herself?

Sitting in the office, Victor maintained the same posture and didn't move.

Dean walked in and put the laptop in front of Victor.

"Mr. Alwynn, the reporters interviewed Mrs. Alwynn just now. Please have a look."

Victor frowned slightly and looked at Eden who was surrounded by reporters. He smiled calmly and answered the reporter's questions fluently. However, her eyes misted with tears, and there were tears on her long eyelashes. Seeing her like this, he was really distressed.

She said, "Of course, I thought a lot. But no matter what has happened, I trust my husband."

Hearing the word "trust", Victor was immediately in a better mood. But looking at her red eyes, he felt upset again in an instant.

"What a fool. Didn't she say she believed me? Why did she cry?" Victor's voice was a little hoarse. He wished that he would run to her immediately and wipe her tears.

Dean thought for a moment and then smiled, "Mr. Alwynn, why don't you buy some presents for Mrs. Alwynn? Women all like gifts, don't they?"

Victor rolled his eyes at him, "Do you think my wife is the same as other women? She's a designer, and she won't like the clothes bought by me. Moreover, she dislikes jewellery more. I bought her the eternal heart which is worth three hundred million dollars, but she never wears it. In short, she doesn't love money, because she has more money than I do." The property of Zaiden all belonged to her, and she was much richer than him.

Zaiden kept a low profile in daily life. He was so powerful, and he had a great reputation in Gate City.

Dean was stunned. Why couldn't he tell that Mrs. Alwynn was richer than Mr. Alwynn?

"So, Mr. Alwynn, about the investment in Monroe Group..."

Victor explained patiently, "Of course she used her own money to invest. Dorothy came to apologize to her in person, and she wanted to use Monroe Group to train herself. That's why she cooperated with Monroe Group."

"Oh! So that's how it is. Mrs. Alwynn is really amazing!" Dean praised Eden with a smile.

When Paula came in with a cup of coffee, she heard Victor's words.

She was so shocked that the coffee cup almost fell off her hand.

Eden was truly beyond her expectations.

She looked at Victor who leaned against the sofa lazily. There was no expression on his handsome face, and his brooding eyes were full of worry.

"Mr. Alwynn, I called Mrs. Alwynn just now. Her tone was quite calm, and it seemed that she was not really mad. She asked me to keep an eye on you and let you have lunch on time, and she would come back around three o'clock in the afternoon."

"Alright, I see. Go out and tell everyone that today's morning meeting has been cancelled." Saying this, Victor closed his eyes, waiting for the news from Brian.

"No problem." Dean smiled and left.

When he turned around and saw Paula, his eyes widened and he was shocked. Didn't she take his words seriously?

He walked out in a hurry and pulled Paula away.

Out of the office, Dean looked at her with a sneer, "Paula, I don't think you can continue to work here."

Hearing this, Paula immediately became nervous, "Dean, why do you say so? I didn't do anything wrong. Eden is not there, so I made a cup of coffee for Mr. Alwynn."

"Ha-ha..." Dean looked at the coffee in her hand with disdain. He could tell that the coffee didn't taste good by smelling it.

Looking Paula up and down, he felt that he had hired a troublesome woman, "Do you forget what I told you yesterday? When Mrs. Alwynn is not here, you can't go to Mr. Alwynn's office. What's more, except for the coffee made by Mrs. Alwynn and Mr. Ronen, Mr. Alwynn won't drink the coffee made by anyone."

"Don't try to attract Mr. Alwynn's attention. Now he is in a terrible mood because Mrs. Alwynn has left. If you dare to rush in recklessly, you will only be driven out of the company immediately."

Chapter 1277

When Paula heard this, she couldn't help but tremble. She thought that Victor would pay attention to her because she was beautiful and well-dressed.

But she didn't expect that Victor didn't drink the coffee made by others.

How could such a domineering man have such an odd rule?

Paula could only feel her entire back was wet by sweat. Fortunately, she did not say anything just now.

Seeing that she stood still, Dean couldn't help but say, "Isn't there a party tonight? Hurry up and finish your work. Although the probationary period will last for three months, you'll have to leave here in three days if you can't do a good job. Remember what I told you. When you work in this company, you must work hard. Alwynn Group doesn't want idle people who have impure motives."

After saying that, Dean turned around and mumbled, "It seems that she's not suitable for the job. I have to hire another assistant for Mrs. Alwynn to avoid unnecessary troubles."

Hearing these words, Paula was so scared. She turned her around and returned to the office, bringing the cup of coffee with her.

She didn't have time to be angry and only looked at the documents on the table coldly, "Eden, I won't let you look down on me!"

She sat in front of the desk, turned on her computer and started to work.

In Melissa's office.

She wore a red coat, and her long curly beautiful hair cascaded over her shoulders. She looked coquettish and charming. At this time, she was talking on the phone with a smiling face.

Looking at Eden's misty eyes on the computer screen, she was extremely pleased in heart.

"This time, we did a good job. Eden is very sad now. However, it is difficult to separate them by playing such a trick. You have your trump card, don't you? Why don't you play it?"

"Why are you in such a hurry? Such small things can damage their marriage easily. Don't look down on these news. It can make Eden suspect Victor completely. So, last time I told you last time that haste made waste. If you don't listen to me, I will cancel our cooperation."

Hearing this, Melissa smiled and said, "Why are you so bad-tempered? I just said it casually. I really want to see them break up, so I am a little anxious. It's up to you."

"Yeah! When we can take actions, I will inform you in advance. What's more, Victor has been suspicious of this matter. His assistants are investigating who did those things. You'd better not call me every day. At noon, I will ask someone to deliver a mobile phone to you. The phone number can't be found and you can only use it to contact me."

Hearing this, Melissa realized that he was very cautious.

"Sure. If Victor finds us out, we'll both be doomed." Melissa didn't want to be hurt by Victor again.

If he knew that she had hurt Eden again, he wouldn't spare her.

"Okay! They're going to have a party at River City Restaurant tonight. If we can make use of the party, I will call you in advance. You can prepare a camera now. At that time, you can take more pictures of Victor and other women. There's no smoke without fire. If there are so many rumours about Victor, Eden will naturally believe it."

Melissa only felt that such a speed was a little slow. She wanted to do it herself, but she was not smart enough. She would be found out by Victor if she was careless.

If Victor aimed at her again, the Craig family would really be ruined.

As soon as she thought of Victor's terrible expression and tone that night, she went berserk and wanted to take revenge.

She knew that it was possible for Victor to fall in love with her. However, it was good to make him a toy of her.

She really didn't believe that she couldn't deal with Victor.

"Okay, I'll wait for your good news." Melissa hung up the phone and looked at her purple nails which had been carefully painted. The colour was gentle, flattering her fair hands. Besides, her nails were decorated with glitter, making her hand even tenderer.

She smiled in a charming way, but the smile was so malicious. It could be seen that she was in a good mood these days.

She picked up the phone and called her assistant, telling him to book a private box in River City Restaurant.

Eden would go there tonight, and she would find a chance to embarrass Eden in public.

Eden returned to the office around half past three in the afternoon. Things went on well in Monroe Group. Dorothy was very polite to her. After discussing the funds and dividing the shares, she came back.

Seth had finished her work, and she could get off work earlier, so Eden went upstairs alone.

As soon as she entered the office, someone walked towards her in a hurry.

She looked up immediately. Before she could see who it was, she was hugged tightly.

"Honey, you're back. You're finally back." Victor said in a low voice and kissed her ear.

Eden was speechless. She did not say that she wanted to leave. She really went out to deal with something, didn't she?

Look at how worried he was!

"Alright, let go of me." Eden's tone was a little bad, and her bland voice was a bit angry.

Victor took a small step back and looked down at her, "Eden, didn't you say that you believed me?"

Eden knew what he meant. She sneered, and she was not moved by his aggrieved look at all, "Victor, do you want me to tell all the reporters that I don't believe you?"

Victor was choked and felt a little sad. Did she deliberately say that in front of the media?

Victor's calm and handsome face looked a bit dejected.

"So, Eden, you have never believed me, have you?" His depressed tone made Eden feel distressed for no reason.

Eden's heart almost softened.

However, as soon as she thought of those people's purpose, she made up her mind. She forced herself to look away and not to look at his pitiful face. Then she said in an indifferent tone, "Victor, there is no smoke without fire."

Her words showed that she did not trust him.

Victor felt so painful in heart, as if his heart had been stabbed by a sharp knife.

There was no smoke without fire. She didn't believe him. He loved her so much, but she actually said so.

Knowing that Eden was back, Paula came in with the documents. She felt that the atmosphere in the office was very depressing and suffocating.

She stole a glance at Victor and found that he looked much more disconsolate. At the same time, Eden's face was gloomy.

There were no waves without wind. It seemed that Victor did not love Eden that much.

She said cautiously, "Director, here are the documents you want."

Victor suddenly roared furiously, "Get out of here! Don't you know that you should knock on the door before coming in?"

Paula was stunned. Her heart trembled violently as she looked at Victor's gloomy and horrible face, and her eyes glistened with tears.

Eden glanced at Victor's exasperated face and felt quite helpless. He was terrifying when he lost his temper.

Paula immediately turned around and left, closing the door.

With tears in her eyes, she looked at the exquisite frosted glass door. There was only a door between their office and the hall, but she felt that their office was like hell.

After standing for a while, she screwed up her courage to knock on the door.

"Rat-a-tat..."

"Come in." She didn't push the door open cautiously until she heard Eden's bland voice.

Victor had returned to his desk.

Eden was tidying up her desk.

Paula did not dare to look at Victor anymore. She walked straight towards Eden.

"Director, I've sorted out the documents you want."

Eden glanced at her and said, "Put them on the table first. I'll read them later."

"Okay." In front of Victor, Paula did not dare to act recklessly.

She remembered Dean's words clearly. She could not lose this job. Alwynn Group paid well. Moreover, when she worked with Eden, she could meet many nice and capable customers and learn a lot of things.

Paula turned around silently and left.

Eden did not talk to Victor. She looked at the computer screen and didn't work. There would be a party in River City Restaurant at night, and those people might know this.

So, what would happen at night?

Obviously, they were very clear about Victor's whereabouts and knew when he would leave.

"Victor." She said blandly.

Victor turned his head slowly and looked sideways at her. Seeing that she did not look at him but looked at the computer screen, he exhaled with depression.

He did not speak. Instead, he looked at her quietly, waiting for her to speak.

Only then did Eden look away from the computer screen and look at him, "Ask Dean to check if there are any bugs in your car. They know your whereabouts very well, and their purpose is very simple. They want to separate us."

When Victor heard this, his dull black eyes lit up instantly. He got up, walked to her quickly and lowered his head to stare at her quietly, "Eden, you know it very well, and you ignored me on purpose."

When she lost her temper just now, she looked so serious.

"Yes!" Eden could not bear to see him so dejected.

"Ah..." Victor breathed a sigh of relief and smiled, "Eden, you scared me a lot! I love you so much, but you didn't believe me, which really broke my heart. But you have to compensate me now."

Victor carried her in his arms.

"Ah..." Eden exclaimed, "No, there will be a party later. You have to go with us. Put me down quickly!"

"No, there is enough time left. If I don't do this, I'll be very flustered. When you left this morning, my heart went away with you. Now you have to return my heart to me." Victor held her and walked to the room.

Eden struggled helplessly, but Victor hugged her so tightly. At this moment, he was so excited because he had regained what he lost, and he had to way to hold back his joy and excitement.

When they went back to the office, it was already past five o'clock in the afternoon. Eden had glared at Victor many times.

However, Victor looked at her with a shameless smile, serving her to drink water and eat fruit.

After Eden regained her strength, she took a shower and changed her clothes. Then she went to River City Restaurant with Paula, Dean and the leaders of other departments.

There were a lot of employees in two companies. The manager prepared buffet and arranged the party on the top floor.

Chapter 1278

When Eden and Victor arrived, it was just dark outside.

It was a party of their own company, so they were not so reserved.

Eden was dressed casually.

She wore a black suit and a white shirt, like a capable female leader. The ribbon on the collar made her look feminine and tender. The clothes suited her very well, and she looked brisk and elegant.

Victor was still dressed in a dark suit. He held Eden in his arms all the time and greeted the people around him with a cold face.

Anson and Abigail would come here.

Eden had called Adonis, Lucian and Brian. They had been working wholeheartedly for Alwynn Group. Generally speaking, they would come to such a party.

Of course, when she and Victor pretended to be deep in love at such a party, they wouldn't arouse suspicion of those who wanted to separate them.

It was the first time that Paula attended such a high-grade party, and she was extremely excited.

Victor looked at Eden in his arms and asked in a low voice, "Eden, are you hungry?"

Eden looked up at him, and her big watery eyes were filled with grievances, "I didn't even have time to eat lunch. Do you think I am not hungry? After I came back, you had sex with me first. I'm so hungry that I'm going to faint." Her voice was very low, and only Victor could hear her.

"Ha-ha..." Victor smiled ambiguously, "You shouldn't have left in anger, should you? I was worried about you all the time, so I asked Dean to call you and let you have lunch on time."

Eden answered him gloomily, "I went to the western district to check the construction site, and then I had a meeting, so I didn't have time to eat."

"I said it would be very hard, but you didn't believe me." Victor looked at her quite helplessly.

However, Eden smiled and said, "Victor, if I can get busier, I won't fill my mind with nonsense. I am afraid that I'll suffer from depression again. In that case, you'll have to put aside your work and accompany me."

Victor said, "I prefer to accompany you."

Eden, "So you want me to get sick?"

Victor took a look at her with brooding eyes and said with a faint smile, "Alright, I can't outargue you. When did you become so sharp-tongued? It seems that my little rabbit has become a wild cat."

Eden was speechless. How could he describe her like that?

"Eden!" Abigail ran to Eden happily.

"Abby, slow down." Eden looked at her big belly worriedly.

"Alas! It's okay. I can walk and jump now. My baby is particularly strong." Abigail smiled and looked at Eden's face. When she saw Victor from the corner of her eye, she glared at him fiercely.

Victor didn't know what to say. Abigail cared about Eden more than he did. Although she rolled her eyes at him, he could only endure it.

"Oh, let go of my Eden. I'm angry when I see you." Abigail pulled Eden to her.

"Hey! Abigail, she is my wife." Victor turned unhappy instantly when Eden left his arms.

"Humph! She is your wife, but so what? You should dote on her instead of angering her. Didn't you see the news today? Eden was annoyed by you and even cried."

Saying this, Abigail glared at Eden, "Who said that she wouldn't forgive him so easily? I knew you couldn't bear to be mad with him."

"Abby, you know his temper. If I didn't forgive him, he would make a scene all the time."

"Then just let him make a scene." Abigail still glared at Victor with annoyance.

Victor was speechless and raised his head to look for Anson. He had to ask Anson to watch Abigail who wanted to take away Eden from him.

"Don't look around anymore. Anson is in the hall!" How could Abigail not know what Victor was thinking?

"Then I'll go look for Anson. You two hurry up and eat something. Eden didn't have lunch." Victor only wanted to leave Abigail's sight. She would only speak to him harshly.

"Let's go. Eden, why can't you take good care of yourself?" Abigail took her to the food area.

Dean pushed Paula and let her follow Eden.

Originally, Paula wanted to go play by herself, but she couldn't leave at will because she was Eden's assistant.

She could only follow behind Eden.

Wherever Eden went, people called her "Mrs. Alwynn" respectfully, which made her so envious.

"Eden, I have a small surprise for you. I came here with our son."

"Oh!" Eden glanced at her, "Do you mean Ricky?"

"Yeah, he's eating over there. Let's get some food and go there." Abigail picked up a plate and picked up the dishes she liked.

Eden had been hungry for a long time. Smelling the aroma of the dishes, she almost drooled.

When she took the plate, she noticed Paula beside her.

She said indifferently, "Paula, you don't have to follow me. You can eat first. After eating, you can play by yourself and get to know the people in the company."

Hearing this, Paula was so delighted, "Okay, Director."

She picked up a plate with a smile and walked to the food area on the other side.

Abigail frowned slightly, "It seems that Amelia is determined not to come back. Lucian is also here, but he seems to be in a bad mood. Anson went to accompany him last night. Lucian drank a lot and kept calling Amelia's name."

Eden nodded, "She is a computer expert, so she has many ways to hide her whereabouts from Lucian. Now we can only wait for her to show up on her own. I hope that Lucian won't wait too long."

"Alas! It is so sad that lovers couldn't be together." Abigail had a deep understanding of it, because she had experienced a lot with Anson.

Eden smiled, "Abby, let's eat something and then go to find Irene."

"Alright!"

Eden took her favorite dishes and left side by side with Abigail.

Abigail was taller than Eden. When they walked together, their beautiful faces always attracted people's attention.

However, someone took a photo of their backs secretly.

"Mom, come here." Henrick looked at them with a smile and said excitedly.

"I'm here, Ricky." Eden looked at Ricky dotingly.

Only Victor, Lucian, Adonis, Sean, Dean, Anson and Brian were in the hall.

Victor's eyes darkened as he looked at Brian and asked, "Didn't you get the surveillance video in the end?"

Brian nodded, "They are well-prepared and didn't leave any clue. Today, a sum of money was transferred to the woman whose hand has been broken by you. However, it's a foreign bank account."

"So, someone is doing this behind the scenes." Victor clenched his fists. Which b*stard was it?

Brian nodded, "In addition, it might have something to do with Gia and Eden's accidents. I suspect that it's Melissa, but none of us have seen her do anything unusual these days."

Chapter 1279

Victor's face suddenly turned colder and colder. After a moment of silence, he looked at Brian again, "Have you arranged it tonight?"

Brian leaned on the sofa lazily, nodded and smiled wickedly, "I have installed the security cameras everywhere except for the female toilet."

Everyone looked at him at the same time.

Brian ignored their sharp eyes, picked up the wine glass and took a sip elegantly before saying slowly, "We must guarantee complete success."

Adonis chuckled, "I was going to the toilet, but I don't dare to go there anymore after hearing what you said."

Anson could not help but laugh, "I'll go the bathroom downstairs later."

Brian did not care which bathrooms they would go. His goal was to complete the task.

Sean was not involved in this matter, so he simply lowered his head and played with his mobile phone.

Lucian was drinking alone with depression.

Victor said with a trace of concern in his cold eyes, "Lucian, stop drinking. Even if you drink like this, Amelia will not show up. Solve the problems in your family before going to find her. Since you love her deeply, you must take her back." Amelia hid from on purpose, and she would not come back.

He didn't want to touch Lucian's raw nerve, but his heart ached when he saw Lucian like this.

Lucian glanced at him slowly, and his listless black eyes were filled with pain.

When he heard Amelia's name, his heart couldn't help but tremble.

He loved her so deeply, but she left him so ruthlessly!

Words couldn't describe how bitter his heart was.

He once read a sentence in a book, "The one who really loves you will not move you all of a sudden, but spoil you in your daily life."

He loved her. Although his love was somewhat overbearing, he wanted to be domineering and give her a warm embrace, because she had suffered a lot.

He wanted to smile at her, play with her, care about her and dote on her. However, before he could do all these, she had left him completely.

Lucian did not listen to Victor. Instead, he raised his wine glass and gulped down the wine.

Seeing him like this, everyone was distressed.

Amelia let him down, broke his heart and left him, which was a disaster to his life, and he had no way to let go of his affection towards her.

"Lucian..." Anson looked at him worriedly. Lucian had lost a lot of weight in just a few days.

He rarely drank, but he drank a lot in the past few nights.

Lucian narrowed his eyes and looked at Anson. Under the dazzling light, his slightly drunken face looked so handsome, and his every casual move was charming.

Lucian finally put down the glass in his hand and leaned against the sofa lazily, "I'm not drunk!" He said in a bland tone. Then, he crossed his legs gracefully, and his expression turned to normal.

However, his deep and calm eyes had changed. They were no longer as calm as before, and there was a trace of pain and grief in them.

After a while, he added, "Pay more attention to Melissa. She didn't do anything openly during this period of time. The more she acts like this, the more terrifying the result will be."

Brian looked at him and said thoughtfully, "She's been very quiet these days. She stays in her office all day and doesn't contact anyone. I've been keeping an eye on her."

Lucian sneered, "I think you should install security cameras in the toilets in her company."

Brian was speechless. He was not insane!

"No, I don't want to. I installed security cameras in the toilets here because I had no choice. I have to make extra certain."

Sean looked at them and touched his growling stomach, "Aren't you hungry?"

Adonis said, "Of course I'm hungry. I'm going to eat something. Only when we're full can we have the energy to work. Sean, let's go and eat together."

"Okay!" Sean nodded.

Dean followed them and then brought some food for Victor.

Anson smiled faintly and looked at Victor, "Ricky is here."

"Really?" Victor narrowed his intense eyes. The three children disliked him very much.

"Yeah! He stays with Abby now." Anson smiled and said.

"He heard that there was a party here, so he wanted to come over and have a relax. He has finished his homework, so you don't have to worry."

Victor looked at Anson smugly, "I've never worried that they couldn't finish their homework." However, when he thought of their disgusted eyes, he had a sense of frustration.

"Ha-ha..." Anson laughed enviously. After his child was born, he would have to learn from Eden.

Eden, Abigail and Ricky were enjoying their food.

After eating half of it, Eden was finally satisfied.

"Abby, I didn't eat much all day, and I was about to starve to death. Now, I finally feel better." Eden touched her belly with satisfaction. She felt much better after being full.

Abigail looked up at her and said, "Even Ricky knows how to take care of himself, and you're inferior to him. When he is hungry, he will eat something on his own."

Eden smiled and stroked Ricky's head. "Ricky, I haven't seen you for several days. You brat. You're so small, but you're busy making money. I can't even see you."

Henrick smiled. His big eyes were bright, but his cute face was full of guilt, "Mom, during this time, I have to act in the play and go to school. When I am on holiday, I will spend more time with you."

"Okay, I'll take you on a trip during the winter vacation."

"Ah! I can't go with you. Eden, you want to make me envious, don't you?" Abigail felt unhappy in an instant.

"Ha-ha..." Eden looked at her and smiled, "Abby, we can travel together after you give birth to the child. Besides, we'll play nearby and won't go too far. If you're in a good condition at that time, we can travel together and relax ourselves."

"That's right. I haven't gone out to travel for a long time. Remember to call me at that time." Abigail's delicate eyes were filled with grievances.

Eden knew how she felt at the moment.

Therefore, she nodded with a smile.

"What are you doing? That's my boyfriend! Why do you ask him for his phone number?" An angry voice suddenly came from behind.

Eden turned around and saw Paula standing with a woman.

Eden knew the woman. She was from the design department.

However, both of them looked a little annoyed.

"Miss, don't be angry. We work in the same department, so it will be convenient for us to work together if I have his phone number, right?" Paula's tone was a bit arrogant, and her eyes looked so lofty.

Eden looked at her and found that she didn't change at all. She could bully others in high school, but she would suffer losses if she still behaved so arrogantly after she started to work.

Abigail looked behind her and then looked back at Eden, "Isn't that your new assistant? She looks pretty, but she is silly. Are you at ease to let her work for you?"

Chapter 1280

Eden took a look at Paula's confident and domineering face and touched her forehead helplessly, "Who knows? She used to be my classmate in high school. She has always been like this. Let's talk about it after her probationary period." When Eden said this, there was no emotion in her tone.

She only wanted hard-working employees. Even if her own son didn't work seriously, she wouldn't show him any mercy.

As soon as Abigail heard it, she knew what was going on.

It seemed that Paula made Eden very unhappy.

"Eden, don't make yourself unhappy because of her. Don't always be so kind to help others and make yourself upset." She had to remind Eden, otherwise Eden would get hurt.

Eden smiled and held Abigail's arm gently, "Abby, I see. I won't let myself be wronged in the future. Besides, after your child is born, there will be four babies who can support me, and no one will dare to bully me at that time." She knew that Abby didn't want her to think of her past. Although she didn't have a friend in high school and college, Abby had made up for her regret.

"Ha-ha..." Abigail turned her head with joy and rubbed against Eden's head, and they looked so intimate. "It will be great if my baby is a boy."

Eden looked at her with confusion and blinked her big bright eyes, "Abby, you like daughters, don't you?"

Abigail had always said that she wanted a daughter. Why did she suddenly want a son?

Abigail shook her head slowly, "I want a son first, because he can inherit my family business. Then I want to give birth to a daughter. After that, Anson and I can enjoy our lives, right? We spend the first half of our lives to earn money. When the children grow up, we will be more than fifteen years old.

At that time, shouldn't we enjoy ourselves? After experiencing memorable love, I suddenly feel that our lives are too short."

Abigail said with emotions. When she thought about the past, she felt that her ideas were somewhat unrealistic when she was young.

Eden looked at her with a smile, "Abby, you have changed a lot."

Abigail smiled with happiness, squinted her eyes and nodded. Her skin was fair and smooth. Wearing no make-up on the face, she looked much purer, "Eden, as I grow older, my state of mind has changed. Back then, I promised that I wouldn't get married until I was thirty years old, and I wouldn't have a child until I was forty. Look! When I met the man I love, I forgotten what I had said."

"Ha-ha..." Eden smiled very brightly when she heard this. They became maturer day by day.

Being ignored by them, Henrick looked somewhat unhappy. However, he smiled as well when he saw Eden and Abigail laughing, and his cute face looked lovelier and lovelier.

But Eden and Abigail only focused on chatting and didn't talk to him, which made him very upset.

"I'll say it again. If you dare to pester my boyfriend, don't blame me for being rude to you."

"Humph! What are you going to do? Let me tell you. Mrs. Alwynn used to be my classmate! Classmate! Do you know what it means?"

"Yo! You've only entered the company for two days, but you're so arrogant. Don't you know that Alwynn Group only values ability? No matter how good the relationship between you and Mrs. Alwynn is, you have to get out of the company if you're incapable and despicable. What's more, I know Mrs. Alwynn better than you do. She won't cover up your work and character just because you used to be her classmate. She is very good to everyone. As long as we work hard, we will get different rewards."

Eden heard their conversation. Hadn't they stopped quarrelling?

She looked coldly from the side-lines and did not want to get involved in their business.

She knew that Paula didn't have good conduct.

Abigail glanced at Paula and then looked at Eden. She always felt that Eden didn't want to meddle in this matter, "Eden, aren't you going to meet Irene? I think Irene is a good person. She is capable and very cheerful. You don't have to worry too much because she is at the party."

Eden nodded with a smiling face, "Isn't it just? Irene is really capable. In order to become a rich landlady, she has been working desperately. After being transferred to be the general manager in the company, she often has to go on a business trip, but she is happy to do so."

"We should have a goal to keep us spunky. My next goal is to make Ricky an international superstar." Abigail took a look at Ricky.

Henrick smiled and said proudly, "I will try my best, but where is dad? I'm going to find him." When Eden and Abigail stayed together, they chatted all the time and always ignored him.

He felt uncomfortable in heart. His feelings were important, but they didn't care about what he was thinking. He wanted to amuse himself, but the party was so boring to him.

Eden pointed to the position of the hall, "Your dad and his friends are in the hall. Go there by yourself."

Henrick stood up, nodded with a smile and walked towards the hall.

Seeing that Henrick had grown taller, Eden could not help but smile, "He is rather obedient in front of us, but you will never know what he will do once he leaves our sight."

"You're right. This time, a beautiful little girl is acting together with him. He likes to make a fool of her so much. The agent of the girl has told me many times that Ricky is shameless, because he always teases that little girl."

"Is that so?" Eden was shocked to hear that. She knew that Ricky was wicked, but how could he tease a girl at such a young age?

"Yeah. Today, the girl's agent came to me again. They acted outdoors today, and Ricky drank up her water and ate up her sandwiches. The girl was hungry and thirsty after filming, but she had nothing to eat. She burst into tears and said that Ricky was bullying her."

"Then, Ricky gave his water and bread to the little girl, but she didn't appreciate his kindness and didn't even look at it. She was very proud. They almost had a fight at that time."

Eden was quite surprised. She rarely went to watch Ricky act in a play.

That was Ricky's mistake.

"Abby, should he work tomorrow? I have time tomorrow, and I'll go there and apologize to the little girl. Ricky had his own food. Why did he have to eat hers?"

Abigail smiled helplessly, "He did it for fun. When he saw the sandwiches, he wanted to eat them. His assistant forgot to buy him sandwiches today. Tomorrow Ricky will still act outdoors, and I'll send you the address. It's not far away from here. This movie is invested by your company. The little girl is selected because of the director. In fact, I think she is very delicate and spoiled."

"But no matter what, this is Ricky's fault. He often teases the girl."
