

Gluey Love 1371

Chapter 1371

Dean explained with a smile, "Mr. Alwynn, it's not too coincidental. Those people are so bold that they actually dare to plot against you."

Victor looked away slowly and glanced at him with appreciation.

"Yes, those people are so bold." Victor's tone was cold, and his eyes were shrewd. Rage bubbled just below the surface of his mind.

"Call someone in the company and ask what has happened to Mrs. Alwynn."

Victor looked so horrible just now, but he became gentle as soon as he mentioned Eden.

He nodded with a smile and called Paula.

The phone was soon connected and Dean asked about Eden's condition euphemistically.

Hearing Paula's words, Dean frowned hard.

Victor became more and more nervous as he looked at Dean's expression.

Was Eden angry with him?

He knew that someone had been separating them deliberately, but Eden cared about these things. Besides, this matter was more serious than ever.

Dean hung up the phone and looked at Victor, "Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn is injured. Someone tempered with the crystal lamp. For the sake of the spokesperson's safety, Mrs. Alwynn protected her with her own body. Now she is injured and hospitalized."

"D*mn it!" Victor got up and kicked the glass table hard.

"Crack..." The table was kicked to the corner. The beautiful vase on the table fell to the ground and broke into pieces. Several beautiful flowers dropped on the ground.

Looking at Victor who was like an angry lion, the woman shrank in fear. Victor was really horrible.

"Book the flight. We'll go back immediately."

Dean glanced at the woman next to him and said, "Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn just has a superficial wound on her back. Now she is fine. The most important thing is to solve this matter so that Mrs. Alwynn wouldn't get mentally hurt."

Victor suppressed the impulse in his heart and glanced at the woman with gloomy eyes, "You'd better tell me who sent you here. Then I can spare you."

The woman looked at Victor with tears on her face, "Mr. Alwynn, you pulled me into the room. No one sent me here. Mr. Alwynn, don't you want to admit what you've done?"

As she said this, she pulled down her clothes. Victor could see the bruise on her body clearly.

Victor said with a sarcastic smile, "Are you sure it was made by me?"

The woman nodded with grievances.

"Well, since you don't choose the easy way, it looks like we have to do it the hard way."

He looked at Dean, "Investigate this matter as soon as possible. Send this woman to the underground casino. There, she will have more terrible bruises on her body. They like to abuse woman sexually, and she will definitely enjoy it."

"Woo-woo..." Hearing this, the woman burst into tears, "Mr. Alwynn, how can you treat me like this? You pulled me into the room. Otherwise, I wouldn't dare to sleep with you no matter how bold I am."

"Is that so? This is my exclusive room. I'd like to ask you how you dared to come in. Last night, I fell sleep in the small hours, and I slept until dawn. Why don't I remember that I pulled you into my room? I gave you a chance, but you refused to tell me the truth."

"I'll let you and the one who schemes against me go to hell!"

His cold voice was penetrating, and the woman heard him very clearly.

The woman was stunned. She didn't expect Victor to be so unsympathetic.

Wasn't the bruise on her body enough to explain everything?

Any man who saw this would feel that he had made a mistake.

No, she could not be sent to the underground casino

"Mr. Alwynn, I really didn't scheme against you. Did you forget that? Last night, you were a little unconscious. You suddenly pulled me into the elevator and brought me to the room." Anyway, the security camera had been destroyed. Even if Victor had doubts, there was no evidence to prove anything.

When Dean heard this, he knew that it was not true without thinking.

"Miss, when you have a chance to make up for what you've done, don't head for your doom. If you confess everything honestly now, you can leave here safely."

Was Victor unconscious last night?

No! When he left, Victor almost fell asleep.

How could he have time to drag her?

The woman had a fearless attitude. As long as she could win Victor's favor, she would live a good life in the future.

Since there was no surveillance video, they could do nothing to her as long as she stuck to it.

She looked at Victor pitifully, "I'm telling the truth."

Victor sneered and said in a cold voice, "Dean, ask someone to take her away. Don't show her any mercy!"

Dean mourned for the woman silently for a second, picked up the phone and dialed a number.

"You can come in now."

The woman looked at Victor in horror, "Mr. Alwynn, I am your woman now. Why do you do this to me? Don't you want to admit what you've done? Mr. Alwynn, you are not such a heartless person. Now this matter has become a hot topic online. Do you want me to live in shame in the future?"

Victor said, "Whether you'll live in shame or not is none of my business. Even if you want to jump down from here, I won't stop you. Since you make my wife sad, I'll send you to hell."

As soon as Victor finished speaking, four bodyguards came in.

They are his trusted subordinates.

The four of them nodded respectfully, "Mr. Alwynn."

Victor said, "Send this woman to the underground casino. You know what to do next, don't you?"

"Mr. Alwynn, I see." One of the bodyguards nodded.

"No! Mr. Alwynn, don't treat me like this! I am really innocent..."

Victor did not want to hear her explanation and looked at Dean, "Investigate her family. If her family members run a company, let them go bankrupt before sunset."

"Ah..." Hearing this, the woman went deathly pale.

Watching the two bodyguards walking towards her, she was anxious. She rushed to Victor, knelt down and held his feet, "No, Mr. Alwynn, this has nothing to do with my family. Please don't hurt them."

Victor kicked her away with a disgusted face.

"Ouch..." The woman felt a severe pain.

"Don't touch me with your dirty hands!" Then, he looked at Dean and ordered, "Get someone to throw everything out and prepare a new set of clothes for me. Throw away everything that this woman has touched."

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn." Dean quickly picked up the phone and asked the cleaner to come.

Victor could share a cup of bubble tea with Eden, but he was actually obsessive about cleanliness, which was horrible.

Chapter 1372

It was a great insult to anyone.

After hearing his words, the woman felt as if she had fallen into an ice house. She had been greatly humiliated.

Victor was really scary. She could feel how brutal and cruel he was very clearly.

Victor looked at the bodyguards and said furiously, "Why are you standing there? Take her away now!"

The two bodyguards immediately stepped forward, pulled the woman up from the ground without pity and grabbed her arms. "Ah..." The intense pain made her scream loudly.

"No, Mr. Alwynn, please don't do this to me. I can tell you everything! I don't want to go to that place. It's too terrible. Someone asked me to come here. They gave me a large sum of money and asked me to come here to seduce you. Last night, someone sent me here. Nothing happened between us. I just slept next to you."

Victor squinted at her and asked coldly, "Who sent you here?"

The woman shook her head quickly. At this time, she was scared to the extreme. She felt like she had provoked the King of Hell. As long as she looked into his eyes, a chill ran down her spine.

She once heard that women who were sent to the underground casino would be tortured to death.

She cried and said, "I don't know who they're. They sent me a message. There is something wrong with my family's business. They told me that as long as I could become your woman, you would help me. So I came here. Mr. Alwynn, I am made use of by others. Please let me go."

Victor said, "Dean, call the media and let her clarify this matter in front of them."

Dean breathed a sigh of relief and sighed in heart. She refused to be convinced until she was faced with grim reality

Dean immediately called to gather the media.

This matter had become a hot topic online. Those reporters probably had been waiting downstairs.

Sure enough, as soon as he hung up the phone, the receptionist called him, saying that there were a lot of reporters at the gate.

Dean said, "Mr. Alwynn, there are reporters downstairs."

Victor tipped him a wink, "Take her down. If she dares to play any trick, send her to the casino directly."

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn." Dean glanced at the woman and said, "Did you hear what Mr. Alwynn said? When you get downstairs, you'd better tell the truth. If you dare to tell a lie, your family will face bankruptcy. Whether there is a surveillance video or not, it will only take us a few hours to find out the truth. Think about it before you go downstairs."

Dean didn't know if this woman had told the all truth.

But on second thought, he felt that something was wrong. If she really came here for money and she was really used by someone, how could she not know that person's name? She couldn't be so stupid, could she?

The woman looked at Dean. Hearing his words, she thought for a while and knew that she had no turning back.

Whether she told the truth or not, she would suffer.

After thinking about it, she said, "It's a woman, but I don't know who she is."

Dean said, "Give me her phone number. I can find her out soon. You can go back as long as you don't lie."

The woman glanced at Victor who stood by the window. He always looked so noble and distant, and his indifference made her suffocated.

She picked up her phone and showed the phone number and text message to Dean.

Dean said, "Show the message to the reporters later."

"Okay!" She had no choice but to compromise.

"Now, follow me down." Dean glanced at the four bodyguards.

They left the room together.

Only then did Victor get up and go to the opposite room to change his clothes with an apathetic expression. Then he asked the cleaner to throw everything out.

After he changed into a suit, he did not tie the tie but picked up his phone and dialed Abigail's number.

Abigail was definitely with Eden at this moment.

"Victor, what are you doing?" Abigail's tone was still very harsh.

Victor couldn't bear it and frowned. Abigail always had a prejudice against him. He had been doting on Eden, but Abigail was dissatisfied. They were indeed best friends. He was even a little jealous.

"How is my wife now?" He asked directly.

"Ha-ha..." Abigail laughed sarcastically, "Do you still remember that you have a wife? She's injured and unconscious. Gia and I are here. You don't have to worry about her. Just enjoy your happy journey."

Before Victor could speak, she had hung up the phone.

"D*mn it!" Victor kicked the sofa and fell on the sofa heavily.

Who exactly was this b*stard? If he were to catch her, he would kill her!

In Alwynn Group.

Irma walked into Gwyneth's office with a worried look on her face, "Gwyneth, bad news! That person has been caught."

Gwyneth had no reaction when she heard that. At this time, she was watching the news about Victor. Such shocking news made her in a good mood.

"Irma, what's there to be surprised at? He has been caught, but does it have anything to do with us?"

However, she did not expect that Eden would risk her life to protect a spokesperson.

Why didn't Eden die on the spot?

However, Irma felt a little uneasy, "Gwyneth, Eden is in the hospital now. Victor loves her so much. He will definitely investigate this matter thoroughly."

Gwyneth's face darkened as she looked at Irma with disdain, "Irma, how can you handle things well since you're so impatient? You don't have to worry about this. Go back and do your own work."

Remember that this matter has nothing to do with us. Although it has something to do with us, you have to think that we're innocent."

In the security room.

Kenneth, Anson and several security guards stood there and looked at the man who was sitting on the ground.

Kenneth's handsome face was gloomy to the extreme. He pursed his thin lips tightly and looked at the man with a pair of fierce eyes.

"Beat him until he admits."

Hearing Kenny say these words in an unsympathetic tone, Anson couldn't help but tremble. Kenny was as bad-tempered and ruthless as Victor.

He was a child, but he was more domineering than everyone here.

The man shuddered. Before he could beg for mercy, several security guards had punched him.

He kept screaming in pain.

"Ah... It hurts! Don't beat me anymore! I'll tell the truth." The man couldn't stand it anymore. If they kept beating him like this, he would be beaten to death.

Chapter 1373

Kenneth glanced at the security guards and asked them to stop.

He squinted at the man's painful face and warned him coldly, "You'd better be honest, or I'll let you suffer ten times more miserable than my mother."

Kenny was young, but he was commanding. The man was so scared that he didn't dare to hide anything.

He kept nodding in fear, "Young Master, Mr. Skye, the story goes like this. Recently, my mother is ill and we need a lot of money. Last night, I suddenly received a text message. I was told that I could get a large sum of money as long as I could make an accident. I am a staff in the technical department, and it is very simple for me to create an accident, so the accident happened."

When Anson heard this, he was not surprised at all. Someone created the incident deliberately.

Kenneth asked with a gloomy face, "Who sent you the text message?"

The man shook his head quickly, "I don't know. After I agreed, I really received a sum of money."

Kenneth said, "Give me the phone number and your account number."

The man hesitated for a moment. Looking at Kenneth's face which was as horrible as Victor's, he gave up struggling in an instant and gave Kenny the phone number and his account number.

After Kenneth wrote down the information, he looked at the security guard next to him and said, "Send him to the police station. I have recorded what he said just now. Hand the recording to the police."

"Ah..." Hearing this, the man looked at Kenneth in horror and begged him in a hurry, "Young master, please let me go. My mother is ill. If it weren't for the money, I wouldn't have done such a heartless thing. I need to take care of my mother. If I am sent to prison, no one will look after her."

Kenneth sneered and said, "Master Hawk, I have investigated your family background. Your mother is indeed ill, but she just caught a cold. It's not as serious as you said. But my mother is still lying in the hospital. No one can be safe and sound after hurting my mother." His words proved that he loved and cared about Eden so much.

Anson looked at him and smiled. Kenny cared about Eden so much. Except for Victor, no one could make Eden unhappy.

"Okay, young master."

The two security guards dragged Master Hawk out and the other one called the police.

The security room quieted down. Anson looked at him and said, "Kenny, you did a good job. Such a man is too greedy, and he is willing to do anything for money. We can not tolerate them."

Kenneth nodded. He naturally understood this.

"Uncle Anson, godmother is accompanying my mom in the hospital. Go there and pick her up. I have something to deal with. After that, I will go to accompany my mom. Godmother is pregnant, and she can't be too tired."

Anson shook his head with a smile, "If your mother hasn't woken up, your godmother won't go home with me. Why don't we go there together after you finish your work?"

Kenneth nodded, "Then let's go to dad's office. I have to use his computer."

"Okay!" Anson accompanied him to the office.

When Anson reached the 25th floor and looked at the office that he had not visited for a long time, he missed the days when he worked here quite much.

They were all single at that time. When they had nothing to do, they chatted with each other.

At that time, they talked about everything under the sun.

Especially him. He always spoke his mind readily.

At this time, each of them had a woman they liked, and they had become maturer and steadier.

He suddenly realized that everyone would change when he met someone whom he was willing to change for.

Kenneth said, "Uncle Anson, wait for me for a while. I will finish it soon."

"Okay!" Anson went to Lucian's office. Although Lucian was not here, everything in the office was in order.

Just like his conscientious and meticulous character.

He sat down, turned on his phone and saw Victor's news. He clicked on it and saw a video of the woman clarifying her relationship with Victor.

He frowned slightly. During this period of time, Victor had been slandering.

There were rumours about him almost every day. Brian had been investigating it for so many days, but he hadn't found any clue. It seemed that those people were quite cunning.

In the hospital, Eden woke up slowly, and her back ached a lot. She frowned and thought for a while before she realized that she was injured. Before she could see everything around her clearly, she heard Gia's anxious voice, "Mom, are you awake?"

Gia looked so worried. Her face was pale and her eyes were brimming with tears. "Gia, don't cry. I'm fine."

Abigail said, "Don't say that you're fine. The deepest wound on your back is closed with four stitches. You're really brave. You ran forward to hold Claire at the risk of your life. Why didn't you think for yourself? You're such a foolish." Abigail said very teasingly.

Eden looked at her and smiled. She almost couldn't believe that she was so brave at the crucial moment.

"Abby, the new products are going on market. If something happened to Claire, our progress would be slowed down. Those people just want to delay our progress. You know that every design is the fruit of my painstaking labour. My design is my brainchild, so I will never let them succeed."

"Alas!" Abigail sighed, "The business world is just like a battlefield. Others' business go smoothly, but why do you and Victor have such a hard time?"

Eden got hurt all the time. If it weren't for the fact that Eden hadn't realized her dream, Abigail really hoped that she could only be a housewife. In that case, she would not get injured again.

"Abby, it's really like a war. You don't know how nervous I am before the new products are released. I am afraid of being plotted against by others. In the past, someone once tampered with our products. This time, it is the same. I'm so high-strung, and I even feel very tired when I go home and lie down at night."

Abigail thought the same in heart.

"You can never take good care of yourself." Saying this, Abigail was a little angry.

"Eden, we are women, and we must take good care of ourselves."

Eden looked at her leisurely, "Abby, actually, we are quite lucky. Our husbands love us deeply."

Abigail was stunned, and then she and Giada looked at each other. If Eden saw the news about Victor in the morning, would she get a slap in the face?

"What's wrong? Your expressions are strange. Are you hiding something from me?"

Abigail and Giada shook their heads quickly.

Giada turned around, poured a glass of warm water and put a straw in it. Then she said with a smile, "Mom, have some water first."

Chapter 1374

Eden looked at Gia doubtfully. She knew that they were hiding something from her.

She took a sip of water and then shook her head.

If she drank too much water, she would feel uncomfortable when she lay down.

Eden glanced at Abigail, "Abby, you are quite tired today. Go back first."

"No! How can I leave you alone? Aunt Jaida has to take care of the whole family and Graciella's children. If she came here to look after you, wouldn't she be tired? Anyway, I have nothing to do. I will stay here with you and chat with you." She was afraid that Eden would suffer a blow after she knew the news about Victor.

After all, this matter was more serious than ever. They were both women. When she saw such a scene, she was so angry that she wanted to kill Victor, not to mention Eden.

Victor was such a cautious person, but there were too many gossips about him recently. She really couldn't figure out the reason.

Since there was so much such news, who knew if he really had something to do with those women?

Eden was so innocent. She might not know that she had been deceived by Victor.

"Mom, I don't want to leave, either. I'll stay here with you." Gia said in a choked voice.

Eden smiled and said, "Gia, don't cry. I can go back after having the intravenous drip. Where's Kenny?"

Eden suddenly remembered the moment when Kenny chased out. Her heart was about to jump out of her throat.

"Mom, Kenny is fine. Uncle Anson is there with him."

"Then I'm relieved." Eden looked at Abigail, "Abby, don't let Jasper know that I'm injured. He has been very sad."

Abigail replied, "Okay! I did not tell him."

"Ha-ha! How treacherous you women are! Do you think I don't know it since you didn't tell me?" Jasper's indignant voice came from the door.

Abigail was speechless.

Eden was stunned.

"Uncle Joye, I haven't seen you for a long time. I miss you." Giada ran over and threw herself into Jasper's arms.

Jasper rubbed her head lovingly.

"I miss you, too."

Jasper held Giada's small hand and walked over. Looking at Eden who was lying on the hospital bed, he felt so distressed.

He had seen Victor's news. For fear that Eden would be sombre, he went to Alwynn Group to see her. But the receptionist told him that Eden had an accident, so he immediately came to the hospital.

Eden looked at him as well. He still looked dejected, and he was thinner and thinner.

She smiled and said, "Jasper, your new collection is about to go on market soon. Why do you have time to visit me?"

Jasper said, "I have to come and see you no matter how busy I am. Look at how you. You don't know how to take care of yourself and you get hurt again. Do you really want to die young?"

Hearing this, Eden glared at him, "Who said that I want to die young? I'm in my prime. How could I bear to die?"

"Then why don't you take good care of yourself? Almost every part of your body has once got hurt except for your face. No, your face was once hurt, too. You have scars all over. As a woman, how can you be so careless?" Jasper's tone was not as depressed as before.

Hearing his words, Eden felt that they had gone back to the past. She and he always bickered, and they were happy every day.

Eden looked at his handsome face and teased him, "Jasper, don't you know that the world is unpredictable? We never know what will happen tomorrow. Anyway, I am a mother of three children. It doesn't matter if I leave a scar."

"That's so ugly."

"Jasper, how dare say so?" Eden glared at him fiercely.

Abigail glanced at Jasper. He was in good spirits that day. "Alright, Jasper, don't make Eden get so excited. You two are the same, and neither of you make me relieved."

"Abby, have I ever made you worry about me? Eden never knows how to protect herself. She's the one that worries us the most." Jasper said with complaints. He had been obedient these years except when he was troubled by love.

Eden was dumbfounded. Was she the one that worried them the most?

"Jasper, everyone will get sick."

The corner of Jasper's mouth twitched.

"So, everyone has to take care of himself."

Eden was stunned, "So, do you mean that I'm a fool because I don't know how to take care of myself?"

"Ha-ha..." Jasper smiled happily and looked at her with a bright smile, "Eden, I didn't say that."

Eden pouted unhappily, "That's what you mean. But since you're here, I won't stand on ceremony. Go downstairs and buy me a bowl of beef noodles. I'm hungry."

Abigail said, "Buy beef noodles for me and Gia as well. Eden had had an accident before we went to have lunch."

Jasper looked at them in surprise, "Since you're hungry, why don't you order takeout?"

Abigail glared at him. Why did he suddenly mention this?

What if Eden saw the news on the phone?

"Anyway, you always run errands for us. Hurry up. Remember to add more beef and less pepper."

Jasper glanced at them, pretended to be unwilling and walked out.

Giada thought for a moment and chased after him, "Uncle Joye, I'll go with you."

"Alright, lest I can't carry four bowls of noodles on my own."

"Uncle Joye, you didn't have lunch, did you?"

"Gia, I had lunch, but I can't just watch you guys eat. I will drool, and I'm afraid that I will eat your noodles."

"Wow! Uncle, don't you mind sharing the same bowl of noodles with me?"

Their voices gradually disappeared.

Abigail and Eden looked at each other and smiled.

"Abby, Jasper is in a good mood today."

Abigail nodded and said with a trace of distress in her eyes, "He is in good spirits today. When I saw him a few days ago, I felt that he was dispirited to the extreme. He seems to have been reborn."

"But could he recover from his experiences quickly?"

Eden said, "Maybe he doesn't want us to see his dejected look and feel sad for him. But I'm really happy to see that he has become as casual as before. He looks very energetic in this way."

Abigail said, "What can we do? As long as he has hope in heart, he will live in peace. I believe that he can drag himself out of the morass of despair one day."

Eden knew that time was the best healing medicine. They would be happier together.

They tried their best to live, so God would definitely treat them well.

Twenty minutes later, Jasper and Gia came back with several bags.

They bought four boxes of beef noodles, as well as some light dishes and fruit.

Eden put out her tongue greedily. She was so hungry.

Seeing that she had been staring at the noodles, Jasper knew that she was very hungry.

He raised the head of the bed, put a small table on it and let Eden eat first.

"Thank you, Jasper!" Eden gave him a sweet smile.

Her gentle and warm smile left a glow in Jasper's heart.

Chapter 1375

With a smile on his face, he opened the lid for her and poured her a glass of water considerately.

Seeing how thoughtful he was, Eden was so touched that she dissolved into tears. She was very satisfied when she smelled the delicious beef noodles.

"Jasper, hurry up and eat. The noodles will be less yummy later."

"Okay!" Eden was very hungry and ate fast, so Jasper reminded her, "Slow down. No one will eat your food. Eating so quickly is not good for your stomach."

"I see. I know what I'm doing." Eden waved at him in disdain. She only wanted to satisfy her stomach at the moment.

Jasper looked at her and smiled. Then, he went back to eat his own food.

After eating for a while, Eden was no longer so hungry, so she looked at Gia and said, "Gia, give my phone to me."

The three of them immediately looked at Eden vigilantly.

Eden blinked at them and asked smilingly, "What's wrong?" Couldn't she get her phone?

Giada smiled, "Mom, your phone is dead."

Abigail gave Gia an admiring look.

Eden frowned, "But I remember that I charged it last night. I didn't use it frequently. Why is it dead?"

"Mom, I had nothing to do just now, so I played mobile games with Boris for a while. Then the phone was dead. I'll charge it for you later. Have your noodles first."

Eden could only nod and continue to eat.

After taking a bite of noodles, she said with depression, "Abby, I am so unlucky these days. Why don't we visit a geomancy master the other day?"

"You're superstitious." Jasper suddenly said.

Eden took a look at him and said in a good mood, "I don't mind. I just want to set myself at ease now. My mother said that someone has been aiming at me."

Jasper said, "Does Aunt Jaida know something about geomancy?"

Eden said, "My father is interested in it, so my mother studied it on account of him."

Jasper almost couldn't believe it, "Is that so?"

Eden glanced at Jasper's surprised face and smiled, "Don't you believe it? Before my father buys every piece of land, he invites a geomancy master to have a look at the land. He said that we'd better believe it to set ourselves at ease."

Jasper replied, "Then I might as well believe myself."

Eden smiled and teased him, "Jasper, what do you usually hope everyday?"

Jasper swallowed a mouthful of noodles and said with a smile, "I hope that tomorrow would be a sunny day."

"What if tomorrow is a rainy day?" Eden looked at him with a grin.

Jasper winked at her in a friendly way, "Then I'll smile at the mirror."

Eden was speechless. Indeed, this was Jasper.

Eden said, "What if you can't smile that day? What if your smile is bitter? You will be in a bad mood all day long, won't you?"

Jasper paused and his chopsticks almost fell to the ground, "Eden, are you sure you're not out of your head?"

Eden said seriously, "I am very sober now."

While they were chatting happily, an unexpected guest came.

Irving and his assistant came in with various of nutrition products in their hands.

The four of them were taken aback.

Why would someone disturb them at such a wonderful moment?

Jasper's playful face immediately became cold when he saw Irving.

Eden was very surprised. Why did Irving come to the hospital? She remembered that she had made it clear to him that morning.

Irving ignored the others in the ward and walked to Eden directly.

"Eden, why don't you call me since you are hospitalized?"

Jasper went berserk. Who did Irving think he was? How dared he call Eden by her name?

Eden said, "Mr. Matthews, I remember that I said..."

Irving interrupted her with a good temper, "Eden, I remember it. Don't be angry and recover from your injured in a good mood."

Eden said, "Mr. Matthews, I am not angry. I just feel that we are neither relatives nor friends, so there is no need for me to call you."

Seeing that she was determined to reject his kindness, Irving felt a little helpless. He looked down at her and smiled softly, "Eden, I just want to come here to see you. I don't want to cause any burden to you. But you're injured. How can you eat such food?"

Eden said, "I like it."

Why couldn't she have a bowl of beef noodles at this time? She became energetic after eating it.

"Fine, as long as you like it!" His voice was as gentle as the spring breeze.

Eden felt that he talked too much.

He was so shameless and stubborn. No matter how coldly she treated him, he didn't give up.

"By the way, Eden, you're not brokenhearted because of the news about Victor, are you?"

The three people in the room immediately looked at Irving's back with sharp eyes.

Eden looked at Irving in confusion, "What news?"

Seeing the puzzled and lovely expression on her face, Irving smiled gently, "Eden..."

"Well, Mr. Matthews, this is something between Eden and Victor. It doesn't seem to be proper for an outsider like you to talk about this, right?" Jasper said with a mad face.

What was wrong with him? Didn't he know that Eden couldn't be too excited at the moment?

Eden looked at Jasper's furious face with suspicion. She seemed to understand why Gia did not give her the phone.

It turned out that Gia was afraid that she would be sad when she saw Victor's scandal.

Since they were so cautious, this matter must be so serious.

"Mr. Joye, I just care about Eden. She deserves a better man, doesn't she?"

"A better man? Do you refer to yourself?" Jasper's tone was extremely indifferent, and he looked at Irving with cold and dark eyes.

However, Irving smiled shamelessly, "If Eden likes me, it's my pleasure."

"Humph! My mom's taste is not that bad!" Giada said exasperatedly aside. If Eden hadn't met Victor, her father was very likely to be Jasper.

She believed that Jasper would also become the best father in the world.

Only then did Irving look at Gia. Gia was very beautiful, and she looked like both of Victor and Eden. It seemed that she had inherited all the good qualities of them. When she grew up, she would be a charming beauty.

"It turns out that you are Eden's daughter. Your mother and I used to be classmates." Irving looked at Gia gently.

Gia said, "But you have an evil intention to my mother. You look like a jerk who will abandon your wife. Even if my mother leaves my father, she will be cherished by a better man."

Eden was shocked. Gia was awesome. She actually knew that Irving was a jerk.

However, she and Victor would never leave each other. What a fool. How could she leave Victor?

Irving smiled. Although Gia scold him, he didn't get mad.

"That's because your mom is charming, and I fell in love with her at first sight."

Eden said, "Mr. Matthews, how can you say this in front of a child?"

Chapter 1376

"Mom, I am not a child anymore. I know what it means."

The technology was so advanced, and everyone had a phone. She could learn a lot online.

Eden always regarded her as a child.

But Gia forgot that she indeed a child.

Eden was a bit embarrassed and didn't know what to say. The children were really precocious. They knew what love was at such a young age.

She didn't even understand what love was in high school.

"Ha-ha..." Irving smiled, "Eden, your daughter is as pretty as you."

Eden was rendered speechless and nodded proudly. Gia was the child of her and Victor. How could she not be beautiful?

When Victor was young, he was really charismatic.

Seeing that Eden didn't want to see him, Irving felt painful in heart. Perhaps he was too impatient, which made her disgusted, and the result turned out to be just the opposite of his wish.

"Eden, have a good rest. I have something else to do, so I'll leave first."

"Goodbye, Mr. Matthews!" Eden spoke in a bland voice. She did not want to have anything to do with him.

Jasper glanced at Irving's back with cold eyes. Irving mentioned the news about Victor and then left. Wasn't he ashamed to say that he fell in love with Eden at first sight?

B*stard!

After Irving left, Eden looked at Gia with serious eyes, "Gia, you lied just now, didn't you?"

Giada was stunned. Just now, she lied indeed, because she was afraid that Eden would be sad.

"Mom, I'm sorry!" Giada handed Eden's phone to her.

Jasper said, "Eden, you'd better not look at it."

Eden smiled bitterly, "Jasper, I have to see it. He and I are husband and wife."

In love, if one knew when to compromise and the other knew when to stop at the right time, both of them wouldn't get hurt.

Jasper felt a little helpless. Others might know that she was sad, but they didn't know how painful her heart was.

She was the only one in pain, and they could only watch her suffer.

Although the news might not be true, it would affect her mood more or less.

Eden lowered her head and clicked on the screen quickly.

When she saw the video of Victor and a woman sitting on the bed with their clothes in disarray, her heart sank to the bottom.

When he left, she reminded him earnestly. Was he so careless?

"Victor, couldn't you be more cautious? As your wife, I know this is not real, but my heart aches when I see such a scene." She said in heart.

"Eden." Jasper looked at her with concern.

Eden looked up at him and maintained a bright and happy smile, "Jasper, I'm fine. You don't have to worry. Recently, someone has been trying to separate me and Victor. I'm afraid that someone framed him on purpose."

Jasper clenched his fists tightly. He hoped that Victor had been framed and nothing had happened between him and this woman. Otherwise, Eden would be very sombre.

"Mom, you have to believe dad. In this world, he loves you the most. He will never betray you." Giada pouted her red lips and looked at Eden. She did not want Victor and Eden to be separated.

It was not easy for them to have a happy family, and she couldn't let anyone ruin her family.

When Anson and Kenneth entered the ward, they heard Gia's words.

Kenny's eyes were cold and angry. It seemed that Eden had seen the news.

"Godmother, Uncle Joye, mom, we're here." Kenneth greeted them with his face darkened.

Anson asked, "Eden, do you feel better?"

Eden said, "I feel much better now."

Anson sat beside Abigail. Seeing that she was eating takeout, he frowned, "Are you hungry?"

"Yeah! I want to eat beef noodles!"

Anson said with dotting eyes, "I'll make beef noodles for you at night."

"Great! The noodles cooked by you are more delicious." Abigail nodded with joy.

In order to let her eat yummy food, Anson had spent a lot of time on studying recipes. He had mastered great cooking skills.

Seeing that they were deep in love, Eden smiled and hoped that they could be happy forever.

"Come on! Don't show off your love as long as you stay together. Can you care about our feelings?" Jasper said discontentedly. Anson was almost like Abigail's slave, and he was very obedient to her.

In his eyes, Abigail was perfect.

Even if she was unreasonable, he humoured her.

If things went on like this, he would lose his status at home.

Women would become haughty because of love and indulgence, and Abigail was just like this.

Anson said with a proud face, "I dote on my wife, but why are you jealous?"

Jasper was speechless. He just couldn't stand them!

In the past, Abigail was charming, confident and generous, but she had become so delicate because of Anson. She had really changed a lot.

Abigail leaned against Anson's arms and looked at Jasper with a happy smile, "Jasper, do you want to go home for dinner tonight?"

"No, I'm afraid that I'll be so jealous and lose my appetite." Jasper refused without hesitation.

"Ha-ha... Dear, we'll eat ourselves." Anson kissed Abigail's face.

Jasper was dumbfounded. How could they kiss each other in front of children?

After Eden finished the intravenous drip, Jasper sent the three of them home. Jaida had cooked dinner, so he stayed there for dinner.

Jasper did not have a good appetite during this period of time, so he did not refuse. After dinner, he had some work to do, so he went back to the company to work overtime after saying goodbye to Eden.

Eden called Paula to ask about the shooting. Things went on smoothly, and she was relieved.

In the still of night, it was drizzling outside the window.

Eden sat on the soft bed, holding her phone and waiting for Victor's phone call.

Victor hadn't called her after she came back from the hospital.

After she came back, she saw the video of the woman explaining the media, but he should call her though it was a misunderstanding.

Was his phone dead?

Or was it because he was too busy?

Eden stared at the night sky outside the window in a daze.

At eleven o'clock at night, Eden felt a little sleepy and lay down sideways. As soon as lay down, she heard the door opening.

She was stunned. Did the children come to her because they couldn't fall asleep?

She sat up slowly, only to see Victor coming in in a hurry.

Eden stared at Victor with her eyes widen open. Shouldn't he come back the next day?

With tender eyes, Victor looked at Eden whom he had missed for a long time and said, "Honey, I'm back."

Eden was surprised, "Didn't you say that you would come back tomorrow night? Why did you come back tonight?"

Victor took a careful look at her expression. Seeing that she was not angry, he said, "You're injured. How could I still stay there? Nothing is more important than you in my heart."

Chapter 1377

Eden looked at him and did not speak.

Victor took off his jacket and looked at her, "Eden, I'm going to take a bath. I'll be back soon."

After that, he ran to the bathroom.

Eden was speechless.

Victor finally felt at ease when he returned home. He had thousands of dreams, and he only saw Eden in those dreams.

When he knew that she was injured, he handled the affairs over there and came back as fast as he could.

After he took a shower, he wrapped himself in a white towel, revealing his strong body. Then he went to bed and began to examine her body.

Eden did not move and allowed his hand to touch her body.

Seeing that there was no wound on her face and arms, he lifted the clothes on her back cautiously. Looking at the scars on her back, he gulped in shock.

"How did you get so badly hurt?" He hugged her with distress.

Eden raised her head and looked at him innocently, "Why did you come back so quickly? Is it because I am injured or you've let me down?"

Victor was stunned and looked down at her calm face. She had seen the news.

"Eden, I swear that I didn't touch that d*mn woman. Someone in the hotel is disloyal to me. He deliberately took the woman to my room and lit up something in my room, which caused me to fall asleep in a trance. She has clarified everything. Didn't you see it?"

He felt uneasy. After all, it was not so easy to explain it clearly unless Eden trusted him wholeheartedly.

Eden lowered her head slightly. When she saw that scene in the daytime, she was indeed heartbroken.

It became quiet in the room, and Victor became more and more nervous.

"Eden." He rubbed her head gently. Didn't she believe him?

He ran back in such a hurry just because he was afraid that she would think too much.

After a long while, Eden asked, "Did you find out who did it?"

Victor's eyes were full of hostility. When he looked down at Eden, his face turned tender again, "We've found out the moles in the hotel. The person who was in charge of the monitoring room and the manager were bribed and betrayed me. But we haven't found the person behind the scene. Someone used a phone number in River City to contact them. I have sent it to Brian and asked him to investigate."

Eden glared at him and said with complicated feelings, "Why were you so careless? If you didn't love me so much, I really would suspect that you had cheated on me." She had been in a bad mood since she learned about this in the hospital.

Hearing this, Victor knew that she believed him, but she was unhappy.

He said with a soft and warm smile, "Honey, thank you for trusting me. Otherwise, I wouldn't be able to prove my innocence no matter what I do."

Eden said, "Can you prove your innocence now?"

Victor smiled shamelessly, "As long as you trust me, I am innocent."

Eden clenched her fists and punched him on the chest, "You should have been more careful. I will never forgive you if such a thing happens again. Besides, they make use of every opportunity. Obviously, they know that we're about to release our new products. Both Irma and Gwyneth have been bought off. I don't know if there is another spy in our company. We will finish the shooting of the endorsement tomorrow. The day after tomorrow, TS Company will hold an investment meeting in River City Restaurant. Obviously, they're not well-prepared. Since they have the mood to hold an investment meeting, we'll have enough time to release the new products."

"Humph!" Victor snorted coldly, "This matter must have something to do with TS Company. This time, I will let them pay a price!"

Paulina and Melissa were the leading suspects.

Eden looked at him, "Have you found something out?"

Victor nodded, "As long as we can get the evidence."

"Bah! I thought you were capable." Eden snorted.

It was not hard to understand, was it? She suspected Paulina and Melissa as well.

Being despised by them, Victor looked wronged, "Honey, believe me. This time, I must make them pay the heaviest price."

"You're right. Sometimes, if we look too weak on the surface, everyone will bully and aim at us. If we give them a lesson this time, I believe we'll live a more peaceful life in the future." So many things happened during this period of time, and they were tired.

Being kind to enemies was a kind of unfair kindness. If she helped someone who hated her, she would wrong herself, and others would regard her as a fool.

She would not be softhearted again, and she would talk to Kenny the next morning.

To be honest, she trusted Kenny the most.

"Just sleep. You've been tired for a whole day." Eden lay down sideways.

Victor held her in his arms gently and felt distresses as he looked at her pale face, "Eden, tell me. Are you really not mad?"

Eden looked at him and pinched his handsome face, "Victor, if I'm angry, do you think you can lie next to me now? I believe my husband."

"Ha-ha..." Victor was amused by her words, "Honey, thank you!" Victor lowered his head and kissed her on the forehead.

"Sleep." His deep and low voice seemed to be magical. Eden smiled softly and closed her eyes to rest.

In less than ten minutes, Victor heard her even breathing.

Victor opened his dark and cold eyes slowly and looked at Eden's sleeping face with pity.

He caressed her delicate eyebrows with his slender fingers, "Fool, I'm sorry. I made you sad again. Don't worry. It won't last for too long. I will definitely become stronger and no one will have the ability to bully you."

He didn't attack TS Company before, because he wanted to make TS Company his own.

He wanted Melissa to get out of their life completely.

He was going to create a business kingdom that only belonged to Eden.

The next morning, Victor got up early to make breakfast while Eden was asleep.

Jaida woke up early in the morning and saw Victor in the kitchen. She was shocked.

"Victor, aren't you on a business trip? When did you come back?"

Victor glanced at her and said with a smile, "I came back last night."

"Oh..." Jaida couldn't help laughing when she heard this, "Have you done something wrong? Why did you come back in the middle of the night? Weren't you afraid that Eden would be worried?"

Victor said, "Mom, how can you say this to your own son? You should believe me. I never do anything to hurt Eden."

Jaida put on the apron before saying, "Fortunately, Eden trusts you, or I wouldn't help you. Go out and don't stand in my way. Chat with your father, and I'll make breakfast."

Chapter 1378

Victor didn't leave and looked at Jaida with a smile. "Mom, I won't go. Teach me how to cook porridge. I want to make porridge for Eden."

Looking at his serious face, Jaida couldn't help but smile.

"Did Eden make things difficult for you?"

"No, she forgave me. She's a kind girl. How could she bear to make things difficult for me? But I feel so guilty just because she's so considerate."

Hearing this, Jaida smiled brightly, "Fortunately, you are not as unfaithful as your father when he was young. When I married him, I often saw him with different women. At that time, I didn't feel sad because I didn't love him. But you and Eden are different. You are in love."

"You should pay more attention when you go out in the future. Don't be tricked by others again. If you're really seduced by a woman, you will really lose Eden."

"Mom, I see. I will be more careful in the future." However, why did he feel that his mom loved Eden more than him?

That was right. No one could imagine how much Eden and Jaida loved each other.

"Okay!" Jaida pointed at the refrigerator, "Take out the ribs in the refrigerator. Eden likes the porridge cooked with ribs. She's injured, so we won't eat seafood."

"Alright!" Victor walked to the refrigerator quickly and took out the ribs. Under Jaida's guidance, he washed and blanched the ribs before cooking them together with rice.

Then he waited aside happily.

Jaida looked at him. His love for Eden was persistent and stubborn.

He was so proud in front of others, but he could lower himself in front of Eden.

Men should be like this. They should be loyal to their wives and be confident in their careers. Family harmony was the basis for success and happiness in any undertaking.

At that time, they were more or less reserved and pedantic, and she was not brave enough to divorce, because she was afraid that she would be laughed at. If she could see it through earlier, she and Zaiden wouldn't have missed each other for so many years.

When Eden got up, she didn't see Victor. She washed up and was ready to play with the children.

When she walked to the living room, she saw the three children chatting with Victor.

When the three children saw her, they all greeted her with a smile.

Eden walked over with a smile, "Good morning, dad!"

Zaiden smiled and looked at her dotingly, "Eden, do you feel better?"

Eden sat beside him and said coyly, "Dad, it's just a superficial injury, and it's not a big deal."

Zaiden looked at her quite helplessly, "You get injured from time to time. I really don't know why you're so unlucky."

There was a slight smile in Eden's eyes as she said, "Dad, I got hurt yesterday because someone created an accident. Someone hurt me on purpose." She forgot she had said that she wanted to visit a geomancy master yesterday. Sure enough, she had no feeling when she gave herself a slap in the face.

Zaiden reached out to rub her head and said in a serious tone, "Eden, the business world is like a battlefield. Someone is jealous of your talent. You should be more careful in the future. Understand?"

"Okay, dad, I'll take pepper spray with me from now on."

"Ha-ha... Look at you." How could Zaiden not know how kind Eden was?

Fortune favoured fools. Eden was a lucky person who could weather the storms.

With Victor by her side, she had sense of security.

Victor's love made her more confident.

"Babies, Zaiden, time for breakfast." Jaida's loving voice came from the kitchen.

Only then did Eden remember that Mary didn't work on weekends. She got up and went to the kitchen to get bowls and chopsticks for everyone.

Seeing Victor in the kitchen, she was stunned.

However, Victor looked at her with a gentle smile, and his eyes were full of affection.

"Honey, look at the rib porridge I cooked for you." Victor took out a bowl of rib porridge and placed it in front of Eden as if it was a treasure.

Eden looked at the delicious rib porridge and said in surprise, "I didn't see you early in the morning, and I thought you had gone out. It turns out that you were cooking porridge for me."

Eden was deeply touched and said sweetly, "Thank you, honey!"

Hearing her soft tone, Victor was taken aback. She wouldn't call him so coquettishly unless he really touched her.

Victor immediately leaned over and gave her a passionate kiss. He didn't let go of Eden until she punched him, and then they walked out affectionately.

After they had breakfast with joy, Victor went to the company to work, while Zaiden and Jaida went to Love Sea.

Only Eden stayed at home to look after the children.

After Victor came back last night, he explained to her and gave her a set of delicate jewelry as gift. Eden's heart was filled with happiness, and she was in a good mood.

Eden cut some fruit for the three children, and she planned to talk to Kenny about what had happened recently.

But as soon as she arrived at the stairs, she heard Gia and Ricky quarreling.

"Henrick, you little b*stard! Did you take away my painting and give it to your girlfriend as a gift?"

Eden was really shocked when she heard the word "girlfriend".

She quickened her pace and went upstairs. Then she saw them fighting with each other.

"Gia, you have so many paintings. Can't you give me one? Why are you so stingy?"

"Henrick, let me tell you. That's the painting I drew for the competition. It's a wash painting of lotus under the starry night. Do you know how long I painted it? You took it away without my permission. Even if you want to please her, you don't have to steal my painting, do you?"

When Henrick heard this, he not only didn't feel embarrassed, but also looked at Gia angrily, "Giada, don't speak so harshly. Did I steal it? Just tell me how much you want. I can pay you."

This was the reason why Giada argued with him for so long. She had been waiting for him to say so. Kenneth was rich, and she must take the chance to make a profit."

"Alright, two million dollars." Giada looked at Henrick with a smile.

Kenneth looked at her wicked smile and felt that something was wrong. But this was the best solution. Otherwise, she would keep arguing with him.

"Two million dollars? Why don't you go rob the bank directly?" Henrick earned the money with hard work and couldn't bear to give it to her like that.

Although he saved his money in Eden's bank card, Eden never used his money. It was his private money.

"Humph! That painting is the fruit of my painstaking labour. If I sell it, I can earn more than two million dollars. Don't forget that I am a famous celebrity in the art industry. You have to pay me all the money." It seemed that Giada wouldn't make a concession.

Chapter 1379

Ah...

Henrick wailed in heart. Who could control and teach this little witch? She was too greedy.

"Humph!" Giada laughed wickedly and said with clear and mischievous eyes, "Henrick, if you don't pay me the money, I will tell mom that you like the girl in our class, and you even stole my painting to please her."

Henrick said, "Hey! Giada, Martin has brought you breakfast for almost three years, but you're just normal friends, not to mention me and Alma Parma. Look at how fat you are now. Aren't you ashamed to say this to me? I just want to thank her for teaching me English."

"Ha-ha..." Giada smiled and did not believe his words, "Henrick, do you think I'm a fool? Do you need someone to help you with your English? You obviously want to please her. Don't think that I can't see through your mind. Alma is different from other girls. She is quiet, gentle and considerate. When someone bullies her, she doesn't get angry and only smiles. Isn't she the type you like?"

Gia's words came as a complete shock for Eden.

They really fell in love at an early age!

In the past, she had never worried about this matter, but it seemed that she had to take it seriously.

She sighed in heart, "Are the children so precocious now?"

Henrick's handsome face blushed a little.

Looking over, Eden was shocked. Henrick's face actually... turned red.

Eden couldn't believe what she had seen. How should she solve this problem?

The three children were much taller than their peers.

Their heights had reached her shoulder.

They were almost ten years old. As they grew up, they were more adorable.

Especially Kenny whose expression was always calm. The more he grew up, the more brooding and mysterious his eyes became. When he looked at others, it was hard for others to understand the emotions in his eyes.

Kenneth said furiously, "Giada, don't talk nonsense! Do you dare to say that Martin has no feelings for you? He is even losing weight for you. The friendship between you two is definitely not pure."

"Ha-ha... Your filthy thoughts really don't deserve your attractive face." Giada sneered. She was just a child. How could she think about being in a relationship?

Two days ago, she saw a short video that three boys surrounded a little girl and confessed their love on Children's Day. The little girl wore an ancient dress and looked very beautiful. But their feelings were so pure.

How could Henrick always think regard it as love?

Eden, who was standing at the stairs, was completely ignored by Giada and Henrick.

"Henrick, if you don't give me the money, I'll tell mom about this." Giada said with determination and confidence.

Henrick was helpless. If he gave her money, it would mean that he really liked Alma, wouldn't it?

He didn't like her, and he just wanted to thank her.

But Giada would keep quarrelling with him if he didn't pay the money.

Fine! He could do nothing about the little mischievous sister.

"Okay, I'll give it to you."

Giada smiled smugly.

Eden thought, "Has Ricky admitted it?"

"Uh-huh!" Eden, who had been ignored, could not help but say.

Hearing her voice, Gia and Ricky both looked at her in shock.

Henrick asked, "Mom, when did you come here?"

Eden was speechless. She had been standing here and listening to them, but they didn't notice her until they finished quarrelling.

"I've been here for a quite while." Eden's face darkened.

Henrick smiled flatteringly, "Mom, you're very busy these days. You must be tired. I'll massage your back for you."

Eden said, "No, I have an injury on my back."

Henrick suddenly fell silent.

"Mom, let me massage your legs." Giada walked over with a flattering smile on her face.

Eden replied, "My legs aren't sore."

Giada knew that Eden was angry.

It was not easy to deal with Eden, but dealing with Victor was just a piece of cake, because Victor doted on them, and his way of pampering them was different from Eden's.

Eden loved them, but she didn't overindulge them.

Eden put the fruit plate on the tea table.

Both of Giada and Henrick looked at her flatteringly with their innocent eyes wide open. They were no longer arrogant and looked to timid.

Eden glanced at Henrick and then glanced at Gia. She was extremely depressed when she thought of what she had overheard just now.

"Gia, is what you said just now true?" She squinted at Gia. Unlike Kenny who always told the truth, Gia and Henrick were very cunning.

Giada smiled and played dumb, "Mom, what do you mean? Did we say anything just now?"

Giada looked at Henrick with a puzzled expression.

Henrick pretended to be stunned and looked at Eden.

Looking at Eden's gloomy eyes, they felt that they had been seen through.

"Mom, we really didn't talk about anything just now." When Henrick said this, he suddenly felt a bit scared. He didn't know when Eden came here and how much she had heard.

Eden looked at Gia and Ricky who had a tacit understanding. She had heard their conversation with her own ears, but they lied to her in front of her.

It seemed that they were really out of control.

Eden's pretty face darkened instantly. She was about to lose her temper.

"How dare you lie in front of me? Go to the attic, face the wall and think about your mistakes! If you dare to go out without my permission, I'll give you a lesson!"

Eden said fiercely.

Gia and Ricky felt desperate.

Their grandparents and father were not at home, so no one could help them.

It was even more impossible for them to ask for Kenny's help. Kenny always stood by Eden's side.

Henrick didn't dare to say anything else. He stood up and walked to the attic on his own.

With Eden's character, he would be punished more severely if he said anything else.

Giada looked at Eden's beautiful face with an aggrieved expression. Eden looked so charming, but was she so cruel?

Giada stood up sadly and went upstairs. Her innocent eyes couldn't look more pitiful.

Eden watched them go upstairs madly. They actually dared to cheat her. How unreasonable they were!

She allowed the children to quarrel with each other, but she would never allow them to lie.

Eden ate a piece of pear angrily and looked back at Kenny's room. Kenny was very patient. He could sit there at ease when Gia and Ricky were quarreling.

Eden picked up the plate and walked to his room.

"Rat-a-tat..."

"Mom, come in."

Eden walked in slowly. Kenny was concentrated on the computer screen. Seeing his handsome face, she could not help but smile.

Eden grinned and said, "Kenny, take a rest and eat some fruit. I have something to talk to you."

Chapter 1380

Kenneth said, "Mom, wait a minute. I'll finish it soon."

"Oh!" Eden answered casually and started to eat the fruit out of boredom.

She prepared the fruit for the children, but she had eaten half of it in a few minutes.

Seeing that Kenny had not finished his work, she was a little discouraged. Kenny would be so busy after he grew up. Would he have time to date with a girl?

Eden could not help but worry if she would have a daughter-in-law.

Of course, she did not have to worry about Ricky. Ricky was plausible and easy-going, and many girls liked him.

However, Kenny was different. He kept a straight face all day long and didn't like a child at all.

Eden was about to eat up all the fruit, but Kenny was still busy.

He typed on the keyboard with his slender fingers skillfully, and his brooding eyes looked so serious.

Looking at his adorable face, Eden sighed with admiration in heart. Kenny was more handsome than Victor when he was young.

Eden smiled proudly in heart. Kenny was indeed more excellent than his father.

When Kenneth stopped what he was doing, he saw Eden giggling at him.

"Mom." Kenneth said tenderly, which left a glow in Eden's heart.

Eden immediately came to sense, and her expression was a bit embarrassed, "Kenny, have you finished your work?"

"Yes!" A trace of malice flashed through Kenneth's eyes. These days, he did everything to aim at TS Company the day after tomorrow.

From Monday to Friday, he had to go to school and didn't have much time, so he could only be busier on weekends.

Melissa had hurt Eden many times, and he would let her pay the price.

He would ruin all her plans.

As long as he was by Eden's side, no one could hurt her.

That day, he only gave TS Company a lesson. Since they wanted to delay the progress of Alwynn Group, he could make them suffer.

When Kenneth sat next to Eden, all the network platforms of TS Company were paralyzed. It was the critical moment, and all the technicians in TS Company were anxious.

Hearing this news, Melissa, who was enjoying her weekend, immediately rushed to the company.

On weekends, many Internet platforms still worked. Now that they suddenly paralyzed, she would suffer a big loss.

"Kenny, eat the watermelon." Eden fed Kenny a piece of watermelon with a fork.

Kenny didn't refuse and ate it.

"Mom, do you want to talk to me?"

Eden nodded with a smile and glanced at the computer.

She knew that Kenny would not spare those who had bullied her, and she was very confident in him.

Unlike Brian, Kenny wouldn't take the interests of the whole into account. Before Brian found out the truth, Kenny would definitely give them a lesson.

"Kenny, you know that I'm unhappy these days. Do you have any good ideas? Can you teach them a lesson?"

Kenny smiled and said, "Mom, you are instigating me to do bad things."

Eden was stunned. When did Kenny learn to joke seriously?

It seemed that he had grown up as well.

"Kenny, we won't do bad things, and we'll just give them a lesson. But I don't want to go against them openly, so we can only do something secretly."

Kenneth said, "Mom, we can play some dirty tricks."

Eden was taken aback. It seemed that Kenny was as wicked as Ricky. She looked at Kenny in horror, "Are you Kenny or Ricky?"

Kenneth smiled bitterly. Did Eden think that he was not wicked at all?

"Mom, Ricky and Gia were quarreling outside just now."

"Oh, they're in the attic now. They went too far. How dare they lie to me?" Eden felt depressed and sad when she thought of this.

In front of her, Gia and Ricky were not honest at all.

Kenneth looked at Eden's dejected face and smiled. In fact, they were all growing up, and their minds were getting maturer. But to Eden, they were always her babies.

Obviously, Ricky was going through a period of rebelling.

He played with his phone all day long. Fortunately, his study was not affected.

"Mom, it's good to punish them. In this case, they won't play with their phones all the time."

"Yeah. Kenny, tell me. What do you want to do?" Eden looked at him expectantly and blinked her big bright eyes.

Seeing how cute she was, Kenneth smiled and looked so charming.

"Mom, you'll know it the day after tomorrow."

"The day after tomorrow..." Eden was confused. Would anything happen the day after tomorrow?

Eden's eyes suddenly lit up. TS Company would hold an investment meeting the day after tomorrow!

"Ha-ha..." She looked at Kenny and smiled proudly, "Kenny, this time, you have to take revenge for me. I am not capable, but I have an awesome son."

Hearing this, Kenneth smiled with joy. It turned out that Eden regarded him as a man who could protect her.

That was right. He had the ability to protect her.

Protecting Eden had been his hope all the time.

"Mom, I want to eat poached beef with hot chili tonight." Kenny smiled.

"Oh! Sure! There's beef in the fridge. Then I won't bother you anymore. If you want to drink water or eat fruit, call me and I'll bring it to you."

Eden was willing to serve him like a servant.

Looking at Eden like this, Kenny found that she was totally different from when she worked. She could be tender and vigorous.

No wonder Victor loved her so much.

He loved her so much that he wanted to keep her by his side all the time.

"Mom, I want to have orange juice later."

"Alright, I will send it to you later." Eden left with a smile.

Kenneth stood there for a while, and then sat back at the computer desk.

He picked up the phone he had assembled on his own and called his master.

The phone rang several times, but no one answered.

Kenneth frowned. Was his master busy again?

His master was a lecher. When he was young, he didn't know what he was doing when he said that he was busy.

As he grew older, he finally understood it.

When he thought the phone wouldn't get through, his master answered the phone call.

"Hello?" A lazy voice came from the phone.

Kenny said, "Master, were you busy just now?"

"Ha-ha... Brat, you've finally grown up."

Kenneth blushed. At the thought of what he was going to say, his eyes turned serious and cold, "Master, you have seen the message I sent, right? I will have a live broadcast the night after next. I will let my parents take over TS Company and let those who have bullied my mother and sister pay a severe price. It was her who hurt my mother and sister in the past."
