

Gluey Love 611

Chapter 611

Jasper grinned, "I saw you." He just pretended not to see her.

Eden frowned. "Then why did you pretend?"

Jasper said in his heart, "On purpose."

He looked up at her and wondered resignedly that why Eden always could not figure out his thoughts.

He was creating opportunities for her to get along with Victor.

He could only find an excuse, "I am busy! I have something in business and I have to deal with it as soon as possible."

He lied. Eden didn't know that it was not easy for him to turn around and leave her. He forced himself.

But when he heard her calling him, he couldn't help but stay.

Looking at Victor's gloomy face, he knew that Victor didn't like to see him.

However...

He laughed at himself. They were all in the same circle. How could they not meet each other?

He didn't like Victor too.

Eden was the daughter of the Clement family and also the woman Victor had been waiting for for many years. Eden had never told him these things, but he could investigate.

Therefore, he had to quit and let them, who were childhood sweethearts, be together.

Eden also knew that he was very busy, but she had never seen him in such a hurry. She told him, "Jasper, you should pay attention to your health no matter how busy you are. Take good care of yourself. Come to have dinner someday when you have time. You haven't meet Abby after she came back."

"Okay! Don't worry about me. I am not a workaholic like you. I'm going to meet my friends here. Have a good time." He left directly before Eden could say a word.

Victor looked at his back with a complicated expression.

Eden also frowned slightly. She noticed that Jasper was somewhat different. She hoped that he could untie the knot in his heart and find his own happiness.

Seeing Eden's eyes on Jasper, Victor was a little jealous, "Eden, let's go back!"

At this time, Eden felt hungry. She looked at Victor's empty hands and frowned, "Victor, didn't you go to get some food? Why did you come back empty-handed?"

Victor,

He was first entangled with Haven and Vincent, then saw her in trouble. There were too many incidents so he didn't remember where he threw the tray in his hand.

"Eden, what about we having dinner in our hotel?"

"Er..." Eden looked at him and blinked her big watery eyes. If he had told her to leave early, nothing would have happened.

"Sure!" Eden agreed.

Victor always had different ideas all the time. What else could she do?

Victor turned around with a smile. But he suddenly saw that Jarred, who was smiling obsequiously, had not left yet. The smile on his face froze gradually.

Jarred felt that he was finally noticed by Victor, who had been treating him as the air before.

But when he saw the frozen smile on Victor's face, he was nervous again.

Jarred was afraid to look at Victor, so he quickly turned to Eden and said with a smile, "Miss Bleu, I'm very sorry for what happened just now. Hope you are not frightened."

"Ah... I'm fine. Don't worry." Eden looked at Jarred strangely. Who was this man? He seemed to be afraid of Victor.

"It was our negligence. I am very sorry." He stayed here carefully for so long just to apologize.

He did not want to offend a big shot like Victor.

Eden smiled and said, "Never mind. You don't have to feel sorry. We are leaving now." Eden's tone was calm. She glanced at Victor, who was upset about Jarred, and gestured for him to leave.

People always use apologies to cover their mistakes. But she had already learned how to encounter such things and protect herself.

Moreover, the incident was not started by him.

"Miss Bleu, take care." Jarred grinned from ear to ear. He thought that Eden did not blame him, so Victor would not make him look too bad.

Victor warned him through his eyes.

Jarred understood his meaning instantly. Victor was warning him that he couldn't talk about their relationship to others. Actually, he knew it even if Victor did not warn him. He still needed to earn money from Victor.

Victor took Eden to the exit.

Jarred looked at the two people's backs and wiped the sweat on his face. It was finally over.

Buddy and Delmont also looked at the movements of Eden and Victor. Seeing that Eden was about to leave, Buddy said, "Delmont, I have something to discuss with Eden. You come to find our cooperation partner first. I will be here in a moment."

Then, he chased after Eden immediately and Delmont did not have time to speak.

Delmont did not move. He frowned as he looked at his younger brother's back. Buddy had recently become more and more wordless.

Was it because of Zofia?

Aisling would never approve of their love because of Zofia's family. Buddy knew very well how stubborn his mother was.

She would not waver in order to cater to her son.

She believed that Buddy could have a better wife. Why would he be so obsessed with Zofia?

Seeing his brother uneasy and upset every day, Delmont didn't understand his obsession.

Why did he have to treat himself so harshly?

Delmont sighed and looked around. Where was the partner?

He searched for the partner at the banquet.

"Eden." Buddy came up with Victor and Eden, and called her in a flat tone.

Eden turned around. Seeing his brother coming, she smiled and said, "Buddy, you're here too."

"Yes." Buddy looked at his sister's delicate smiling face and nodded gently. Then his eyes slowly moved to Victor, "Victor, I have something to tell Eden. Can you wait for a while?"

Victor knew what he was going to say, but there were too many people here, so he said, "Let's go down and talk!"

"OK!" Buddy nodded in agreement.

The three of them took the elevator to leave.

Just as Haven came out of the restroom and saw them left together. A strong sense of tension and uneasiness suddenly rose from the bottom of her heart.

Why would Buddy be together with Eden?

Until now, Victor hadn't said that Eden Bleu was Eden Clement. She knew Victor's concern. But Buddy was a sensitive and cautious man, he might realize something.

She had prepared a lot of traps that can make Eden fell to the bottom. She was going to implement the plan after the exhibition.

"Haven, let's go!" Paulina also came out and call Haven in the distance.

Haven turned back, and she suddenly seemed serene.

Paulina asked doubtfully, "What are you looking at?"

Haven answered, "Victor left with Eden."

Chapter 612

Paulina was astonished. Looking in the direction of the elevator, she lowered her head slightly disappointedly. She realized that Victor was serious about Eden. Otherwise, he would not protect Eden like this.

He even beat Aro for Eden.

"By the way, I remember that Eden has three children. Why would Victor like a loose woman like her?" Paulina asked curiously.

Haven turned her eyes slightly and sneered, "Because she has clever means."

"Clever means?" Paulina sarcastically pulled up the corners of her mouth, and her eyes were full of contempt.

"I don't think so. It's because she is shameless." Paulina bit her lips lightly. She always could get the men she liked, and Victor would not be the exception.

He could even fall in love with a woman who had three children, let alone her.

Her confidence was back again. She could definitely win Victor's love.

She was bound to get the fateful man in her life and then become the best herself.

She liked Victor. The process might be a little complicated, but as long as he got it, everything was worth it.

She finally found her destiny after returning from abroad this time.

Haven chimed in with a smile, "That's right. Eden has always been so shameless. Paulina, have you decided on our cooperation? Rebecca is still waiting for your reply. We are friends now. I promise that I will be grateful to you if you choose the Jotham Alwynn Group! I will tell you about Victor's preferences, the places he likes to go, and also his schedule. What do you say? "

Paulina completely fell into Victor's charm just like Haven before.

She pretended to accompany Paulina just because she wanted to snare Eden and got the cooperation with her. Victor was just an excuse to approach her.

If Paulina agreed, she would definitely take Paulina to Phillip and recover her previous image.

Phillip had always been unhappy about how she had framed Eden. He did not like her at all.

Paulina glanced at her and smiled slightly. "Haven, why are you in such a hurry? Isn't this communication meeting not over yet? I will definitely give you a satisfactory answer before the exhibition is over."

She preferred to cooperate with the Alwynn Group. The E.H company was also very influential. She did not believe that Victor would not be tempted. There was still one day left, and she would make more efforts and then make the final decision.

Upon hearing the word "satisfactory", Haven smiled with pleasure.

Since Paulina said this, that meant that she agreed to cooperate with her.

"Thank you, Paulina!" Haven said with a smile.

Paulina also smiled. "We're friends." "Yes! so we must cooperate this time." Haven took the opportunity to emphasize.

They went to the hall again.

Eden, Victor, and Buddy went to the first floor. Victor was waiting for Eden in the car, while Eden and Buddy were sitting on the stone bench on the corner

Buddy took out a cigarette and lit it. He bowed his head and slowly had some smokes, but said nothing.

Eden glanced at him and knew. She knew that he was going to ask her about Zofia. Zofia was doing well recently and her child was also very healthy.

"Buddy, what's going on?" Although she guessed what he was going to ask, she should let Buddy mention that first.

Buddy puffed out smokes with a painful expression on his face. He then put out the smoke and looked up at Eden. He said in a hoarse voice, "Eden, now that the problem with the Clement family has been solved, I want to go to Zofia and marry her. I promised her that I would be with her for the rest of my life. We shouldn't be like this."

Eden's expression changed and she asked, "Mom won't agree. Even so, do you want to marry her?"

"Yes'" Buddy nodded without hesitation.

"Eden, I have already decided. Can you tell me where Zofia is?"

He had been thought about it for a long time. After finding Zofia, he was going to tell his parents about his decision. And he would move out from their house whether they agreed or not.

Eden didn't answer his question directly. Instead, she sighed and said, "Zofia is a good girl."

Hearing her praise, Buddy's expression was not cold anymore, "I know. She is very special. I know so many girls, but she is the only one who can catch my attention. She is pure and lovely. I always want to get close to her."

Thought back about the time when they were dating. How happy they were!

Buddy thought back to the past, and he smiled happily unconsciously.

Seeing Buddy's expression, Eden knew that he loved Zofia with all his heart.

However, it was time to tell him about what had happened before.

She said, "Buddy, Zofia lives with me now."

"What?" Buddy was shocked to hear this answer. "Has she lived in your house all the time?"

"Yes." Eden nodded slightly. "Also, I have something to tell you before you go to see her. Zofia may not accept you so quickly."

"OK." Buddy suddenly became nervous, "I'm hearing."

Eden told Buddy all the things from the meet of her and Zofia to Zofia's suicide, and also about the child.

Buddy just sat there in shock, and his face was as pale as paper.

After breaking up with him, Zofia wanted to suicide. At that time, Eden happened to pass by and saved her.

Her fetus was very healthy now, and she opened a food stall, working very hard every day.

Buddy closed her eyes in pain. He trembled because his heart was almost broken.

Eden pulled his arm and comforted him. "Buddy, don't be sad. It's not too late to make up. Every cloud has a silver lining. I believe that you can live a happy life because you love each other."

Then, she took out her mobile phone and showed Buddy a video of Haven bullying Zofia.

"This is a video that Haven went to find Zofia. Zofia was in a bad mood at that time. I was afraid that she would be hurt, so I recorded it. Buddy, Mom and Haven don't recognize Zofia now. So you must talk with Mom first. Zofia and the child are well. You don't have to worry about them. I think you should first get Mom's approval. As long as you get the blessing from family, you can give Zofia happiness." If he just disengaged from the Clement family angrily, nothing would change.

The only different thing was, Zofia took a tough stance now.

Some injuries were irreparable. She might not accept Buddy easily.

She was a kind woman, but she was also stubborn.

Living together for a few months, she knew Zofia's temper well.

Speaking of love, Eden felt a little touched in her heart. She didn't know if Victor and she would be together for the rest of their lives. She hoped so sometimes.

She also hoped that Buddy and Zofia could live together after all the twists.

After a long silence, Buddy said, "Eden, thank you!" He was a little choked with sobs. He couldn't imagine what would happen if Eden didn't save Zofia at that time.

That silly girl, she could have told him everything. But she chose to take all the things by herself and even suicide.

Fortunately, she and the baby were all fine now. He was very grateful for that.

Eden smiled and said, "This may be fate. One night, I and Jasper went to the food stall and happened to see you and Zofia breaking up. Although I only saw her once, I still remembered her."

"It was also because I saw you two breaking up, and Mom creating difficulties for her, I knew what she was going to do that night when I saw her walking to the river."

Another reason Eden didn't tell was that, she had been there before.

The passers-by all thought that Zofia was just taking a walk, but she didn't think so. She could tell that Zofia was as desperate as she was at that time.

Thinking about it, she was very grateful that she did not hurt herself.

Because she had babies. And she became stronger and stronger to protect herself and her children.

After she had made it through, she asked herself again and again, "I've paid so much just for survival. Was it worthy?"

In fact, she had already known the answer. No matter what she used to do, as long as she could get through it, everything was worthy.

Buddy gazed at Eden with a grateful expression and said, "Eden, don't worry. I will definitely get Mom's approval."

"I believe you! I think my Mom has changed a lot after going through so many things. At least, Dad doesn't object to your love. As long as you convince Mom, all the difficulties will be solved." Having seen them several times, she knew a thing or two about her family.

"Right!" Buddy smiled and nodded. There was a feeling of being suddenly enlightened from the bottom of his heart.

"Eden, I'm sorry that we've made you suffer a lot in the past few years. Now we finally reunite. We'll have a sweet life." Buddy said in a doting tone and looked at his sister with a gentle smile.

Eden grinned amiably at him, "Yeah, I am very happy now. You don't have to worry. Go back and talk to mom about Zofia. And I will also try to persuade her. Compared with the marriage of aristocratic families, marry a girl who you truly love is better."

Buddy nodded in a hurry and said, "Eden, that's what I think. I understand Mom. Because she was born in an aristocratic family and our grandparents are also entrepreneurs, she doesn't want to bring shame on herself. But I believe that we can have great conditions, even if we don't unite another family by marriage. I really love Zofia and want to be with her." Buddy spoke out his thoughts. The pain that had been buried in the bottom of his heart at this moment was relieved a lot.

The Clement family was lucky to have Eden. Since she was born, their family had always been very happy.

Even though she was lost later on, it was also because of her that Victor had always helped their family. After finding her again, she had always brought good luck to the Clement family.

Eden smiled with relief, "I agree with you. Money can't buy happiness. Real happiness comes from your heart. No matter how much money you have, it's useless. I support you! As for Zofia, you don't have to worry about her. I will take care of my future sister-in-law and nephew."

"Thanks!" Buddy, at this time, showed a smile that had not been seen on his face for a long time.

"Eden, I want to buy Zofia some things. Can you help me send them to her?" Knowing that Zofia and their baby were healthy now, he showed a beatific smile.

"Why not! Zofia liked the snack that you bought last time." Eden laughed. She had hidden the truth in her heart for a long time. Now she spoke it out, and she believed that he, who had always been calm, knew what to do.

Buddy also smiled, but suddenly looked at her with a frown, "Eden, I have one more word to say. Victor has always been sincere to you. Over the years, he didn't give up looking for you and what you have seen now is what he did for you. And he has been helping our family for many years. He gave us cooperation chances and helped us a lot."

"I don't know how you get along with him, but I think that he is the person who loves you most in the world."

"Even if you don't like him at all, he will never marry anyone. I know he suffered a lot to find you."

Eden's heart ached bit by bit when she heard what he said.

She knew all these things, but it hurt her more when it was said by her brother.

All her feelings welled up from her heart.

She knew Victor's pain deep in his heart. She saw his weakness, helplessness, and gentleness, which were never shown to others. Therefore, she had been trying her best to fall in love with him, with the man who had spent his all for her.

"I know, Buddy. And, I've gradually developed a better impression of him." Otherwise, she would not spend so much time with Victor.

She was also happy because it was the first time for her to speak out her innermost thoughts to her brother.

Hearing this, Buddy smiled, "Eden, now I'm relieved. I want to thank you for Victor."

"Er..." Eden's was speechless.

"You shouldn't have. I am your sister." Eden complained and felt a little confused.

Buddy looked at her lovely expression and gently touched her nose, "Eden, we have always regarded Victor as our family. I was sad every time I saw him coming back with pain because he couldn't find you. Since you came back, I have never seen him disappointed again."

Chapter 614

These days, he saw Victor, who had seldom laughed before, would always smile involuntarily.

Seeing Victor's change, Buddy knew that Victor's love for Eden was done to the bone.

Only then did he reflect on himself, and he found that his love for Zofia was far from enough.

Eden smiled but did not say anything.

Buddy stood up and said, "Eden, let's go back. I will talk to Mom after I back to the hotel. You are right. Zofia and I should get the blessing from family. I believe I can persuade Mom."

Eden also got up and said with a smile, "OK! As long as Mom agrees, you can pursue Zofia with all your strength! You will get her back and make her happy."

"Right." Buddy's lips curled up slightly. Fortunately, he chatted with Eden tonight, otherwise, he would do stupid things again.

Eden also smiled slightly. "Buddy, I'm leaving. Don't stay out too late and rest early."

Buddy nodded.

Then, Eden turned around and walked to the parking lot.

Buddy still stood and watched her leave with a look of reluctance.

But when he thought of Haven, his eyes darkened and became sharp. Haven put an obstacle in Eden's way, indeed.

It was hard to think that what happened to Eden tonight was just a coincidence.

He looked up at the sign of the hotel, which was lit by the neon lights.

He knew Jarred. And he decided to investigate the incident tonight.

Taking a deep breath, he strode back to the hotel.

Seeing Eden coming back, Victor drove the car towards her.

Eden saw him driving over, so she stepped aside and waited for him.

Victor stopped the car slowly in front of Eden, and her bright smiling face suddenly came into his sight. Looking at her smiling eyes, Victor felt that her eyes hid some meaning, making her somehow different. But he couldn't tell that specifically.

Eden opened the door and got in the car.

Victor helped her fasten her seat belt, started the car, and asked, "Did you tell him?"

"Yeah," Eden nodded. "I've told him everything. He now knows what to do."

Victor smiled calmly, "Buddy is a good man. He's not a playboy and he's very spoony."

Victor thought highly of Buddy.

Hearing Victor's praise, Eden turned her head and looked at him with a smile, "Victor, you are a good man too, and you are also very spoony."

Victor's hand on the steering wheel shook, and a sense of excitement spread quickly all over his body.

He took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down. It was not a good idea to suddenly praise himself like that when he was driving.

He compressed his lips and felt a little thirsty. "What did she mean?" He couldn't help thinking.

His excitement, which had just calmed down, suddenly burned like fire again and spread to his chest.

"You really think so?" Although he knew it was childish, he still asked. He wanted to know what kind of person he was in her heart.

Eden chuckled and looked at him. "Yes. Victor, I always think so."

These were her true feelings. In addition to their first meet, Victor had always been special to her.

Victor tightened his hands on the steering wheel again and glanced at her with complicated eyes.

"She was different from before." He thought.

He didn't know why, but it made him feel a little happy.

The two hotels were very close. Victor quickly drove the car into the underground parking of Marriott Hotel.

Then, he quickly unfastened Eden's seat belt, got off the car, went around to Eden's side, and opened the door for her. Then, he led her out of the car and went straight to the elevator.

Eden looked at him anxious expression and wondered, "What's the rush?"

As soon as they entered the elevator, Victor stared at her with his black eyes, "Eden, did you have sweets today?" He asked in a low voice, with his eyes tightly gazed on her charming face. Her skin was as delicate as porcelain. She was so attractive even she just wore simple makeup.

Eden, "What?"

What sweets?

What happened to Victor?

"No, I don't eat anything. I'm very hungry now." Eden complained. She didn't notice that Victor was surprised by the words she said.

However, Eden suddenly thought of what

Buddy told her. She felt distressed.

Therefore, she slowly stretched out her arms to hold Victor's sturdy waist, gently leaned her head on Victor's chest, and whispered, "Victor, I'm back." This was what she wanted to say to him tonight. Although she could accept a more endearing name, it was not bad to call him Victor.

She was more used to this name.

Her whisper took Victor's breath. He slowly bowed his head and his eyes, deep and excited, gazed at the girl who was hugging him. Through the thin shirt, he can feel her warmth, which burned his heart.

"Eden." He called her in a low and gentle voice, holding her tightly with his powerful arms. He had never been so excited before.

Eden was very thin. He hugged her tightly because he was afraid she would disappear if he let her go.

They hugged each other until they reached the top floor. When the elevator doors opened, Eden raised her head to look at Victor.

He was so moved just because of her one sentence. He cherished her so much.

"We're going to go down again if we don't go out." She laughed slightly.

Victor stared at her dainty face with his infinite eyes and whispered, "But I don't want to let you go."

How could he let her go? She was his lost-and-found treasure. He could not bear to leave her for even one second.

He stretched out his slender fingers and gently touched her fair cheek, looking at her with more and more affection.

He slowly bent down. He couldn't help but get close to Eden's soft lips.

Suddenly, Eden's stomach grew.

It destroyed the atmosphere completely.

Victor lowered his head and looked at the embarrassed Eden.

Eden flushed and said shyly, "I've told you that I'm starving."

Victor glanced at her resignedly. He hated the sound. It interrupted their good time.

He took her out of the elevator. He had told the staff to prepare food when he was waiting for Eden.

She usually ate little, so she got hungry very quickly.

He would accompany her every meal in the future. He hoped that she could gain a little more weight after being with him. She was too thin now.

Chapter 615

Victor took her back to the room, and the dishes had been prepared.

They were all the dishes that Eden liked. She smiled happily, "Thank you, Victor, you are so kind!"

Victor slightly curled his lips, "Eden, I feel so lonely when you are not by my side. In this world, you are the only one I want."

Victor took the opportunity to confess his love. Thinking that he could spend the rest of his life with Eden, he got the hopes up.

Eden looked at him and smiled softly, "I will always be by your side, I promise."

Victor was stunned. Eden was really different tonight. Every word said by her can take his breath.

A mild and reassuring smile was on his handsome face, and in his dark eyes, there was tenderness.

He couldn't help hugging her in his arms, and said in a deep voice, "You are so special and unique. I will only love you, forever." She could drive away his negative emotions only with a smile, or a look.

"Eden," Victor called her name softly. "As long as you're here, I don't care about anything. Perhaps to you, I'm just a passer-by in your life, but to me, you're the whole world." His voice was deep and filled with love.

Hearing him expressing his love, Eden felt extremely touched. His words made her sure that she is the one he would love for the rest of his life. Victor's affection was like the spring rain, making the seed of love in her heart grow quietly.

"Victor, I have never liked anyone and haven't had any expectations for love before I met you. Because life is so hard for me. Just surviving took all my time and energy. But this time, I seem to be touched by you." Eden said slowly and sincerely.

"Victor, I decide to be with you. This is the bravest thing I have ever done before."

"Don't let me down."

Victor hugged her tighter. He closed his eyes and deeply breathed the smell that belonged to her, "I get you, finally."

He said with excitement, which could not be controlled anymore.

He had been waiting for this moment for too long.

And now, she finally responded to his love.

"Haha..." Eden laughed happily. Her heart, which had been entangled with complex emotions was suddenly relieved at this moment.

She accepted Victor's feelings after careful consideration.

She said, "Let's eat first, and then call Mom. I've been too busy these two days and haven't had time to call her."

"Okay!" Victor loosed his arms gently. His black and bright eyes, shining like gems, were filled with happiness, excitement, and delight, which made him more dazzling and charming.

Eden looked at him and smiled unconsciously.

After washing their hands, they sat down to eat dinner.

They talked while eating. Eden had much more conversable in front of Victor than before, which made him realized that she actually opened her heart to him.

"Eden, I want to send Kenny abroad to learn the computer." Victor took the opportunity to say. In fact, he wanted to say that he was Kenny's birth father. H e was afraid to ruin the hard-won relationship between him and Eden.

But he dared not to say it directly.

He didn't know how Eden would react if he told her the truth. But according to her temperament, she would not forgive him easily.

His harm to her almost eight years ago was fatal.

This matter was like a ticking time bomb in his heart. If one day, it was exposed, the relationship between him and Eden would be totally different.

However, Eden just accepted his love. He was really scared, not daring to say it out.

Eden looked up at him. "Kenny just entered the first grade. It's still early for him to go abroad."

Victor smiled slightly and said, "What about preparing a painting room for Gia? She can draw quietly then."

Eden slowed down. She saw Victor's serious expression and understood that he treated her children sincerely.

But the more he acted like this, the more guilty she felt in her heart.

"Victor, why don't you ever ask me who their father is?"

"Why? I'm their father." Victor suddenly patted his breast. His tone was serious, but he was very nervous in the heart.

Eden, "..."

It was rare to see a man who could be so proud to be a stepfather.

"I mean, birth father." Eden said with a low voice. After saying that, she lowered her head and didn't look at Victor.

This was the painful secret deep down in her heart that she had never wanted to say.

Seeing Eden becoming somber, Victor was sure that she mind about that thing very much.

Eden had been thinking about this the entire time. She had always convinced herself that she must face the past to undo the knot in her heart.

She suddenly said, "In fact, I don't know who their birth father is either. At that time, I was framed by Bethany. I took medicine and felt dizzy so I don't know who he is. And I want to tell you, I have never thought about looking for him and letting him take his responsibilities. For me, he is just a dispensable person. You are the only man I care about. I want you to know this."

Victor's heart tightened. His words were taken back again.

"Eden, actually I..."

At this time, Victor's phone suddenly rang.

It was a video call from his daughter.

He smiled relievedly. He was saved.

"Eden, it's Gia."

Eden was surprised. Her daughter called Victor first instead of her.

"How sweet!" Eden said jealously.

Victor answered and smiled, "Gia."

"When will you come back, my dad in the future?" asked Gia wittily with a smile.

Eden's heart was pricked when she heard Gia calling Victor "dad in the future". She knew that they always want to have a father.

Especially Gia. In the family picture she drew, there was always an empty area by her side. It was for their dad.

Victor answered, "Do you miss me? We will be back at noon the day after tomorrow."

Gia was happy, "OK! Do well when you are with Mom! I'm expecting your marriage. And I've discussed with my brothers, we agreed on you to be our Dad!"

Chapter 616

Eden,

They were talking as if Eden was invisible.

And Gia even encouraged Victor to pursue her, which made her feel complex.

Her children had a discussion behind her back.

They even voted for Victor to be their father!

Eden felt that she was not their only one anymore.

So sad!

Victor looked at Eden with a proud smile and said, "Don't worry, Gia. Mom has promised to be with me! So, don't call me Dad in the future now. Call me Dad."

Eden sighed.

What a liar!

She stared at Victor and said with her eyes, "Victor, you really do everything just to hear her calling you Dad."

Victor also responded with eyes, "What? Did I do anything wrong?"Eden looked at her and lowered her head speechlessly.

Eden was speechless again. She had to lower her head.

"Wow! Good job, Daddy! Kenny and Ricky are all here. They want to talk to you."

As Gia spoke, she turned the phone to Kenneth and Henrick.

"Hi, Uncle Alwynn."

"Hello, Uncle Alwynn." They greeted him with a smile.

Seeing Kenny smiling, Victor was very touched. Kenny was a mature child and he rarely smiled. Therefore, Victor was really happy that Kenny could accept him.

His eyes darkened slightly, "You two should also call me Dad now."

Kenneth said in a deep voice, "After you marry Mom."

Henrick also agreed, "Uncle Alwynn, don't worry. Marry Mom and you will be our dad definitely."

Victor had nothing to say in reply.

"What do you mean by 'will be our dad ? I was your dad!'" He complained in mind.

"Kenny, Ricky, that's not a good assistance." Victor said with a gentle voice.

As he spoke, he raised the phone so that the kids could not see Eden.

If they saw their mom here, they would not be so candid.

Eden looked at his movements with a look of dislike.

However, Kenneth and Henrick looked at each other.

Then, Henrick suddenly asked, "Uncle Alwynn, is Mom here?"

Victor glanced at Eden casually and answered with a playful smile, "No, she's not."

Eden, '..."

Liar!

Victor became bolder now.

He dared to tell a lie in front of her.

But she was also very curious about what the kids wanted to do.

Henrick smiled and said, "Great! Uncle Alwynn, we just googled and found out that the fastest way for you to get married. You can have a baby with Mom now and then you can be together soon!"

Kenneth said proudly.

Google, a "good" helper.

Eden, who was sitting by the side, was almost choked by her son's words.

However, Victor smiled happily. He turned his head slightly and looked at the girl who was totally red now. His smile was wider, "Good idea. I promise you, you will have a sister soon."

Henrick said, "Uncle, Abigail said that this business trip is a good opportunity for you! But she also said you are a little too cautious. Uncle Alwynn, go for it! I'm on your side!"

The previous advice made Victor so happy that he wanted to carry Eden in his arms. But Henrick's words just now made him felt annoyed.

Abigail said he was "too cautious"! To him, that meant he was a coward!

There must be something wrong with Abigail's eyes.

At that time, Eden was stunned with her mouth slightly open. How could Abby also join them?

A sister? Didn't they realize that raising them had already made her very busy?

Henrick said, "Uncle Alwynn, we won't bother you and Mom now. Take good care of her!"

After Henrick finished, it was Kenneth's turn to speak. But he thought for a moment, then just said, "Good night, Uncle Alwynn."

Giada,

Henrick,

Giada couldn't help complaining, "Kenny, why are you always so wordless?"

Kenneth glanced at his sister without speaking anything. Then, he looked at the drawer not far away. He was going to send the hair to do DNA identification.

Victor's identity would come to obvious soon. His mom was very resistant to what had happened that year, and she never mentioned it. But he wanted to figure it out.

During this time, Victor had been treated them like they were his own kids. He guided them, taught them, and took care of them.

Kenneth had to admit that he was a good father. But if Mom didn't accept him, he would not admit Victor either even though he was their birth father.

Tomorrow, he would send it out and the result would come out soon.

Hearing Giada's words, Victor laughed again. She was truly his daughter, being so nice to him.

Looking at Victor's proud expression, Eden felt that Victor was here to strive for her kids.

The three children were very close to Victor.

Sometimes, she was even jealous. She was their mother.

Eden complained in her heart.

Giada said, "We have to go now. Chat latter. Bye, Dad in the future!"

"Bye!" Victor hung up happily.

Only then did he noticed that Eden was looking at him strangely. Then, he realized what he had said just now.

"Haha..." He laughed in a weak voice, "Eden, I..." He found that he could not find a reasonable excuse.

He suddenly rolled his black eyes and smiled playfully, "Eden, why don't we have a baby?"

Eden,

He took Ricky's words seriously! Eden thought she should be wary of Victor tonight.

She looked at the crab claws on the table, which seemed to be a good weapon.

Victor followed her eyes and noticed the crab on the table.

Suddenly, a bad feeling rose from the bottom of his heart.

"No way... Will she be so cruel to me?" He thought.

He asked nervously, "Are you full?"

"Yeah." Eden nodded with her eyes guarded.

And her hand on the knee moved up bit by bit, eyes staring at the crab.

Victor swallowed nervously and felt a little bit regretful for what he had said just now.

Eden just had some affection for him. He didn't want to ruin it.

Therefore, he immediately got up and cleaned up the leftovers on the table. He put them all in the dining car next to him. Eden was surprised by his fast speed. She remembered that Victor didn't know how to do housework, but it seemed that he was quite deft.

Of course, Eden's "weapon" was also thrown into the dining car.

Then, ignoring Eden's surprised eyes, Victor pushed the dining car out.

Victor didn't relieve until the door was closed. Now, he won't be bitten by crab claws.

But when he turned around and saw Eden's behavior. He was dumbfounded.

Chapter 617

Eden was holding a wooden hanger in her hand. Victor was so shocked and thought Eden was going to beat him by the hanger.

"Eden, I..." Before Victor finished speaking, he suddenly saw her take off her coat and hang it on the hanger.

He broke off, and his heart in his mouth was settled again.

He was really scared by her behavior.

Eden looked up at him casually and asked, "What's wrong? What do you want to say?"

Victor breathed a sigh of relief and licked his mouth lightly. He smiled and said, "Nothing. I'll prepare the bathtub and you can take a bath first."

Eden looked at his guilty face and frowned slightly, "Thanks, but I'll do it myself."

She was not used to being looked after by him.

On second thought, Eden found that she was used to looking after others.

When she lived with the Gienger family, she was indeed the one who wait upon others.

She shook her head to herself, then he heard Victor's gentle voice, "Let me help you."

As he said that, he quickly went to the bathroom.

Seeing him fled quickly, Eden felt a little puzzled.

Victor seemed to be scared, making Eden wonder if she did something wrong.

Eden shook her head resignedly. She knew that Victor how powerful Victor was in front of an outsider.

Usually speaking, people didn't dare to stare at him for too long because of his temperament.

But in front of her, he was like a lamb.

She was sure that no one had seen Victor so gentle and docile, except for her.

He had always been defenseless when with her.

She hung up her clothes. While Victor was in the bathroom, she went to the closet and changed into pajamas, ready to take a bath and have a rest.

She didn't expect that Victor knew what she was thinking when she stared at the crabs.

Victor was afraid that she would not only guard against him but also drive him out of here.

He must act well at this time.

He only had one wish in his heart. That was, he couldn't be driven out tonight, and neither tomorrow night.

Eden glanced at the bed and was going to make the bed, so she picked up the quilt.

However, in Victor's eyes, her action indicated that she was not willing to sleep in the same room with him.

His eyes were filled with worry, "Eden, are you..." he asked carefully.

Eden didn't look at Victor so she didn't know the grievance on Victor's face at this moment. She answered without any doubts, "I'm making the bed."

"Whew..." Victor breathed out slowly. He felt that he would be scared to death because of her.

The topic they had just talked about was too sensitive, and he regretted it a little.

He was afraid of nothing, except for the girl in front of him.

Moreover, she was different from other women. She didn't ask anything from him and she was not insatiable at all.

She had a clear mind.

However, Victor hoped that she could be greedier and wanted to get more from him, then he would feel that he was important to her.

He walked towards her slowly and said with a smile, "Eden, I'll do that."

Eden refused, "I'm good, thanks."

Therefore, Victor stood aside and looked at her. She tidied up the pillow and pulled the sheet, then spread the quilt neatly.

She straightened up and looked back at

Victor, "I'm going to take a bath. You can sit for a while."

As she spoke, she headed towards the bathroom without waiting for Victor's reply, as if she was never wary of him before.

Victor sat down on the soft bed decadently, feeling that his heart was going to jump out of his mouth.

Listening to the running water coming from the bathroom, he was extremely excited, but what could he do?

If Eden disagreed, he could not do anything. He would really be a coward. Abigail hit the nail on the head.

Victor was very depressed. He lay on the bed and pulled the quilt over his head, trying to calm his turbulent heart.

He had never expected that he would be intertwined with a girl named Eden. From the moment she was born, the moment he saw her wrinkled little face, they were destined to connect closely with each other in this life.

He liked her. No, he loved her. He loved her dearly. He loved her with his all, unconditionally and without any expectation.

Someone once said, "Nobody is indispensable in life."

But he thought it was wrong. Because he wouldn't be able to live without Eden.

She was the brightest star in his universe and his life.

The luxurious room was so quiet. Only the sound of the running water gradually spread throughout the room.

Victor lay quietly as if listening to the sound of the water was also a kind of happiness.

Suddenly, the sound stopped. Hearing Eden opening the door, Victor sat up instantly.

He stared intently at Eden, who was slowly walking out and drying her hair.

Eden lowered her head. After taking a shower, she seemed to be very relaxing. She said, "I have put the water on. You can go to wash later. I'll dry my hair."

After saying that, Eden walked to the other room.

Victor looked at the little girl who didn't even look at him, feeling so depressed.

He was a hit among other women. They all desired to have some affairs with him.

But to Eden, he always felt that he was ignored.

Victor did not move at first. But after hesitating for a while, he got up and followed her to the room.

Seeing Eden was drying her hair, he took the hairdryer from her hand and helped her.

Eden just took a look, and then she smiled slightly, saying nothing.

Victor dried her hair carefully. Her hair was smooth and soft, with a faint fragrance of shampoo, which made Victor's mind roam about.

In fact, he hadn't touched any woman before except her.

But now, the woman he loved was right in front of him. He felt that he could hardly hold himself.

After a while, he said in a low voice, "Eden, it's done."

"Thank you!" Eden looked at him and smiled. "You can shower now."

"Okay." Victor responded sulkily and walked to the bathroom.

Looking at his tall and straight figure, Eden felt a little touched in her heart.

He was so gentle and nice to her, which even made her a little uncomfortable.

She walked towards the bed and laid down on it. There were two quilts of their own on the bed. She pulled one to cover herself.

Remembering that Victor said they slept in the same bed once. She couldn't help imagining that scene.

Chapter 618

She didn't expect that Victor would be so gentle although he had a cold appearance.

She was the only person he loved in his life. She felt that she was favored by the Goddess of Luck.

Listening to the sound of water, Eden thought a lot.

The sound of running water was like a lullaby, Eden gradually falling asleep and letting her defenses down.

Once she trusted someone, she would no longer be on guard against that person.

After a time, Victor came out of the bathroom. He wiped his wet hair and glanced at the bed, where Eden was sleeping quietly and was breathing steadily.

Victor:

He could not understand.

Just now, Eden was alert, but now she was sleeping soundly.

Was this her special way to protect herself? Victor was so confused.

He casually wiped his hair and slowly walked over to watch Eden's sleeping face. She looked more cute and delicate when she was asleep. Her skin after bathing was as smooth as silk, and her long and curled eyelashes fluttered a little sometimes.

Victor gingerly sat on the bed, greedily looking at Eden's beautiful face.

"You silly girl, why do you trust me so much?" He whispered to himself, and a slight smile flickered across his lips.

Victor sat there for about half an hour before he got up to dry his hair.

Then he changed into pajamas and came back again. He glanced at his quilt and gave a playful smile.

He slowly pulled off Eden's quilt and hugged Eden from behind. He gave her a sweet and soft kiss, only then did he close his eyes and gradually fall asleep.

Eden dreamed that she was lying in a very warm place. She turned around and found herself lying in Victor's arms.

And Victor, with his alluring black eyes, was looking at her tenderly. He slowly approached her and kissed her lips...

Eden felt that it was hard to breathe. She tried to gulp but she could not. She was like a dying fish without water.

"Mmm..." Eden moaned.

Because of the uncomfortable, Eden opened her eyes drowsily and saw Victor's face right in front of her.

Victor woke up early in the morning while Eden was still asleep. He looked at her charming face and could not help kissing her.

She immediately awoke. How could I be so defenseless? What happened?" She didn't know what to do for a while.

This was not a dream! She realized.

This was real!

"Where's my weapon?" Eden was panicked.

"How could I be so defenseless? What happened?"

She didn't know what to do for a while.

"Victor Alwynn!" Eden could only yell in a muffled voice and pinch Victor hard.

Victor felt the pain and was pulled back to reality in an instant. Looking at Eden's angry face, he felt that he had suddenly fallen from heaven to hell.

Eden was very angry. She quickly sat up and kicked Victor before he could react.

With a dull thud, Victor was kicked to the floor.

Now he was completely conscious.

Eden questioned Victor angrily, "How... How can you do this!" she blushed and tried to remember what happened last night. But she could not recall anything.

Victor was kicked down unexpectedly. He pretended to be in pain, but actually, he felt happy in his heart.

Why would she thought that he could hold himself when facing his beloved alone?

But it was too embarrassing to be kicked down like this.

Anyway. His dignity was not important now.

People were stupid in love, and he was the stupidest one.

"Eden, it hurts!" Instead of explaining, he complained aggrievedly.

Eden,

Eden did not want to talk to him. She was the one who really wanted to complain, but why did Victor always seem more aggrieved than her?

"It hurts!" Victor did not give up. His normally cold face was now making a cute expression, and it did not seem strange at all.

Eden was so shocked that she opened her mouth slightly. She suddenly suspected that the man in front of her was not Victor.

"Am I still dreaming?"

She pinched her hand hard.

"Ouch!" She gasped in pain and regretted being so cruel to herself.

Victor looked at Eden's behavior and was amused, "Do you think you're still dreaming?"

Eden looked at her red hand and shook her head, trying to calm down.

"Am I?" She looked at Victor with disbelief.

Her eyes were so innocent, which made Victor involuntarily felt guilty.

Victor,

He could not figure out what Eden was thinking about.

He loved her so much, but she seemed to feel nothing at all.

"Eden, I couldn't help it." Victor explained finally.

Eden had an expression that said "I knew it" on her face.

"You should be glad that I didn't get up on the wrong side. Otherwise, you'll be in trouble." She was so naive that she trusted him so much, "We go home tonight."

Everything that happened just now was not an illusion.

Hearing her say this, Victor panicked.

He knew Eden was not kidding, so he argued, "Eden, we're a couple, right? I think it's normal to kiss for two people who fall in love with each other. But now we're arguing for that. I'm so sad..."

Eden opened her eyes wide and stared at Victor strangely.

She blinked her eyes a few times with confusion.

In such a case, he still found a reason for his offensive.

And the reason seemed to be reasonable.

"Amazing!" Eden gave Victor a thumbs-up.

Victor suddenly stood up and leaned on the edge of the bed, smiling at Eden with his hands on his cheeks, "Eden, love is addictive. People need time and the chance so that they can have time and the chance to do what they didn't have time and the chance to do."

"Huh...?" Eden looked at him with a disgusted expression, "Don't say tongue twister! I hate excuses."

Chapter 619

Victor did not stop. His grieved expression with his hands cupping his cheeks was very cute "This's the truth, not an excuse."

Eden was speechless. She did not want to waste her precious time arguing with him about this.

Forget it, forget it. She persuaded herself. Victor always regarded her as his unique treasure and treated her very well. For this sake, she decided to be generous this time and pass him over.

She looked at him calmly, "I forgive you this time. But next time if..."

"Baby, we're a couple. Definitely, there will be next time." Victor interrupted her with a playful smile. He must make it clear.

Unless they were not lovers, there will be another time. Moreover, except for him, she could not marry anyone. Even if she did not love him, he would keep her by his side.

Eden,

She looked straight at Victor's face, which seemed unpleasant to her now. Why was he so annoying this morning?

She didn't know the result of their relationship. She was taking her life as a bet.

"Well, but you can't do that again before I have feelings for you." Life was not always as good as people imagined. Maybe they were in love now, but at the next moment, they would go their separate ways. Such things were everywhere.

Seeing that Eden was not angry, Victor suddenly smiled very brightly, "Yes, Ma'am! Anything you wish!"

"There were so many people in this world, but only you attracted me."

"So, you must marry me." Victor said in his heart.

Eden was different from other women he knew. Those women would be angry if they were not satisfied. However, Eden was always kind and sympathetic. She would always think about others. Maybe that was why she was so attractive to him.

Looking at Eden's surprised eyes, Victor continued to say, "Honey, I want you to know that I'm not ambitious. I just want to be your whole world."

Eden breathed out, looked at Victor, and blinked her eyes, "Victor, why are you so strange this morning?" She was so annoyed.

Victor slowly got up. After squatting for this long, his leg suddenly felt a little numb, so he tripped and fell towards Eden.

"Ah!" Eden was knocked down by him accidentally and fell on the bed again.

Victor also fell and clung to her. But he could not restrain his smile because he liked this accident so much.

"Victor."

Suddenly, Eden's voice went into Victor's ear, which sounded a bit angry.

Victor felt nervous. He looked sideways and saw that Eden blushed because of anger, and she was staring at him angrily with her big eyes.

Victor grinned and said, "It's an accident."

"Get up!" Eden yelled, "We're going to be late!" Eden still glared at him.

Victor smiled at her, "This's not important."

He stretched out his fingers and gently touched her soft and rosy lips. They were charming.

Such an ambiguous action made Eden's face turn red. She instantly became anxious and nervously looked at Victor.

"S... stop it. We're just childhood sweethearts, but we..."

"Haha..." Victor suddenly interrupted her with a hearty laugh, "Eden, you finally admit that we are childhood sweethearts."

Eden, "... so what?"

"Aren't we?" she asked.

"Yes! We are! I'm your only friend, best friend!" Victor nodded his head in a hurry. No one had expected that Victor would be so lovely.

"Uh..." Eden did not know what to say. She remembered her childhood, and Victor was right.

She only played with him and ignored other kids.

They dawdled for more than an hour.

Finally, Eden got in the car.

She felt tired. The time being together with Victor was filled with romance and hardness.

But romance was for Victor. For her, there was only hardness.

Victor was like a child when he was with her.

They arrived at the venue. There were still many people present today.

Victor went to meet the organizers, so Eden went to the venue with Lucian and Irene.

Seeing that Victor had left, Irene started gossip immediately. She whispered into Eden's ear, "Director Bleu, since you came to the company, our days have been so much better."

Eden smiled.

She replied in a low voice, "I think you've been living a good life!"

Irene squinted at her, "That's because you have never seen Mr. Alwynn get angry. Work was too tired for us before."

Eden asked, "Who doesn't feel tired at work?"

Irene said, "That's different! We're always taking the risk of being fired. That was torture! Now you are here, Mr. Alwynn doesn't get angry often, and the snobs are gone. We're having a better time now. Moreover, we got ten overseas cooperation and twenty regional cooperation this year! We're NO.1."

"These are all your credits. Many partners like your designs very much."

Irene was extremely excited as she looked at the arranged clothes.

Eden's design was more popular than Marianne's.

Eden smiled. She did not expect she could bring such influence.

Irene suddenly took Eden's hand and said, "Eden, our year-end bonus depends on you."

Eden,

Did she look like she could bring a bonanza?

She didn't think so.

"Irene, you think too highly of me." Eden laughed and said.

"I don't think so." Lucian's pleasant voice went into Eden's ears.

She turned around quickly. Lucian looked aloof with a thin black suit. He looked at her deeply with his black and sparkling eyes and slightly raised his eyebrows.

Eden looked at him doubtfully. "What?"

Lucian smiled and said, "The year-end bonus."

Eden was speechless.

Lucian's family was well-known and noble in River City. How would he care about the year-end bonus?

Eden chuckled and said, "Mr. Ronen, Irene, you seem to expect too much from me."

"No, no, no." Irene said instantly, "Director Bleu, as long as you can make Mr. Alwynn happy every day, everything is possible."

Eden looked at Lucian and Irene with a helpless expression. She said with a wry smile, "The more you expect, the more disappointed you will feel."

Chapter 620

"No, no, no!" Irene shook her head and suddenly smiled mysteriously, "Director Bleu, we only hold hope for you! Full of hope!"

"Uh..." Eden glanced at her quickly. She did not know how to answer her. If she let them down, she would be the one to be blamed.

Lucian chuckled and echoed, "Eden, our year-end bonus depends on you. We trust you!" As he finished, he raised his eyebrows slightly and gave a playful smile.

"Ha..." Eden forced a smile, "Mr. Bonen, can I give up? I don't really think I can make it."

She had really tried her best. This year she took over Marianne's job, so she stayed up late many times to design new clothes, which had made her have some pimples on the forehead.

"Eden..."

"Mr. Bonen, why did you call her Eden?" Irene looked at Lucian with a faint smile and strange eyes.

Lucian glanced at Irene and asked, "Ms. Poplar, why did you call her Eden?"

Irene said, "She's my ladybro."

Lucian replied, "She's my good friend."

Irene asked, "What? I don't know that."

Lucian smiled, "Of course you don't know.

You're not on the 25th floor."

Irene complained, "Lucian, can we have a good talk? Do you think I don't want to go to the 25th floor?"

Lucian said carelessly, "People chat with me never feel good."

Irene was silent.

Eden's gaze kept moving across them. This was the first time she saw Lucian chatting with another person like this.

He could have a good talk, but only with the right person.

He appreciated Irene because she treated every hard-working colleague equally and she herself was also a kind and diligent person.

Lucian looked indifferent, but deep down he was kind. However, it also depended on people. For example, he was never nice to Haven.

But he and Irene seemed to have endless topics to talk about.

Looking at their tiff, Eden smiled slightly. And many people still came to see their exhibits today, which made her feel happy.

Victor just finished the talk with the organizers and came back. He was thinking about how to spend the romantic night with Eden.

However, he bumped into Paulina at the corner.

"Ah..." They ran into each other.

Paulina wore a red tight skirt, and her delicate makeup made her more charming and mature. But now, she was sitting on the ground and looked painful.

Looking at the woman who fell to the ground, Victor's face gone black and his eyes were as cold as ice.

She bumped into him on purpose.

Victor glanced at Paulina and was going to leave without saying anything.

Paulina saw that Victor was about to leave. She knitted slightly and groaned, "Ah... It hurts...."

But Victor didn't stop and left without any hesitation.

Paulina,

She had never seen such a distant person who didn't even help her up.

"Mr. Alwynn," she called.

Only then did Victor stop.

He looked back at Paulina, and his bright black eyes were horribly cold, "You know me?" His icy voice made people frozen.

Paulina was stunned. They had just met yesterday, but he didn't remember her at all.

She lost to Eden, who was less outstanding than her. She was the focus of attention, while Eden was just an unknown.

However, Eden was coming, so she had to continue her performance.

Paulina pretended to be painful and looked at Victor with her piteous eyes, "Mr. Alwynn, we just meet yesterday. You knocked me down just now. Can you give me a hand? My foot hurt a lot and it seems to be sprained. I'm afraid that I have to go to the hospital."

Victor was not swayed. His face was cold as before, and his strong vigour could make people retreat unconsciously. He asked, "I knocked you down? Are you sure?"

He snorted and looked down on Paulina. His eyes were full of sarcasm. He was so condescending but still had a fatal attraction to her.

Paulina looked at Victor with an obsession for a moment. He was her dream lover.

Then she smiled enchantingly and said, "It was fate that makes us bump into each other. But Mr. Alwynn, I really can't get up. Can you help me?"

"I'll call an ambulance." Victor's ruthless voice went into Paulina's ear, which was extremely harsh to her.

At that moment, Paulina saw a woman in white coming this way. A strange smile flickered around the corner of her mouth.

Seeing that Victor took out his mobile phone and was about to make a phone call, she sneered silently.

Meanwhile, she quickly reached up to grab Victor, "Mr. Alwynn, can you send me to the hospital? My foot is really painful."

She pulled Victor hard so that Victor's phone fell to the ground in an instant. The mobile phone quietly lying on the red carpet, and the number that had not been broadcasted was still flashing on the screen.

And Paulina threw herself into Victor's arms.

A pungent smell of perfume came into Victor's nose, making him frown with disgust.

And this scene happened to be witnessed by Eden, who came over to find Victor.

Seeing the two people hugging each other, Eden froze slightly. Her expression suddenly became gloomy, and she felt bitter in heart. A sense of loss that she had never felt before spread. Her face grew paler.

Looking at Victor's mobile phone on the ground, she walked over and wanted to pick it up, but she didn't have the strength.

She had never been in love before, so such a bad mood is unfamiliar to her.

When she finally picked up the phone and then looked up, she saw that they were still hugging, and Paulina threw a provocative look at her. Eden could not bear it. So she narrowed her eyes and said, "Victor, is that your phone?"

Hearing Eden's voice, Victor pushed Paulina away without any hesitation or pity.

He immediately took off his coat and threw it away disgustingly.

It seemed that his movements were much faster than Paulina's fall to the ground.

"Ah!" Paulina let out a scream.

She looked at Victor complainingly.

Eden's reaction was completely beyond her expectations.

She thought that Eden would be so angry that she would turn around and leave at once.

At that time, Paulina felt that the misunderstandings in the TV series were all lies.

On the TV series, the leading actress would always leave at once if she saw such a scene.

"It's an incident, honey." Victor quickly walked to Eden and explained.

Eden glared at him and said with a pale face, "Victor, I saw it! With my own eyes!"
