Chapter 61 do it again

Crying!

The more Ye Yu cried, the more comfortable he was. In the flames of burning paper money, the more he cried, the sadder he became. The left sentence, 'Cao Feiyu, you died so miserably', the right sentence, 'reborn in the next life and be a good man'. With this, Ye Yu's heart suddenly felt smooth and comfortable.

"Nima! Am I assimilated by neuropathy?" Ye Yu shuddered, and he also had a tendency to pervert. It was so scary to cry in funeral.

Cao Feiyu's paper money is piled up every time, and after he burns it, he begins to sing. Ye Yu really wanted him to burn for a while, but Cao Feiyu ignored him at all and just sang for himself.

Of course, seeing Ye Yu standing there, he dragged Ye Yu to sing with him.

"I'm crazy, I'll sing with you!" Ye Yu firmly refused, but while Cao Feiyu's hand was tightly grasped, Ye Yu... was singing.

Ye Yu finally understood why Chi is not fat and painting beautiful people can't stand him, and Cao Feiyu's hobby is too torturous.

But...it seems...sung to the back...um...it seems pretty cool!

With this thought of Ye Yu, he shook his head vigorously: Damn, you must be firm, you must get out of the mud and not get infected, don't be assimilated by these neuroses.

After the paper money was burned, Ye Yu practiced in it to devour the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, Ye Yu felt that his injury was almost healed, and his strength was greatly improved. At this time, the raindrops were crystal clear, and they were about to turn into real raindrops. , Dacheng is expected.

"But it's only three months, so I still have to speed up!" Ye Yu muttered, thinking about how to do it.

"Ye Yu, this is something the pavilion master rewarded you!" While Ye Yu was thinking about how to improve his strength, Du Qixi was excited about the many things he brought to Ye Yu.

“Seven Phoenix Spirit Grass, 30 Spirit Storage Pills!” Ye Yu couldn’t help being surprised when he looked at these things.

“I gave you everything I originally gave Situ Zhen, but the combat skills have been replaced with Phoenix Spirit Grass. The pavilion owner said that you have two combat skills that are good enough to chew too much. Phoenix Spirit Grass can help you recover as soon as possible. Injuries, this is what you need!” Du Qixi said.

“Good, good!” Ye Yu looked at these things with a smile on his face, “but there are still a few! Thirty soul storage pills can’t support me for how long?”

Du Qixi handed the things to Ye Yu, and he said, “Brother Ye, it’s really impossible, you can run away. Three months later... a life and death battle... alas!”

“Escape?” Ye Yu thought that he was really going to escape, and Tianhuo Sect and Bitao Pavilion were afraid that they would chase him down. When the two overlords of Kyushu were chasing and killing them at the same time, he was in big trouble. At least in Bi Tao Pavilion, the threat of the Skyfire Sect does not matter.

“Situ Zhengtian is in the marrow-washing state, he is powerful. You want to fight him, it is still very difficult now!” Du Qixi said, “you don’t think you can reach the marrow-washing state in three months, right?”

“How can I know if I don’t try?” Ye Yu said.

“Brother Ye, it’s not that I pour cold water. Although your talent is extraordinary, I can accept it when you reach the peak of the spiritual realm in three months. But the marrow washing realm, this is a big realm. Countless peaks of the spiritual realm are stuck here, this is not accumulating aura. If you can break through it later, there is a big bottleneck in the big realm.” Du Qixi replied.

“What’s the bottleneck?” Ye Yu asked.

“The bottleneck is only known when you reach that level of cultivation.” Du Qixi shook his head and said, “Forget it, let’s not talk about it!”

Ye Yu heard Du Qixi say so, his pressure suddenly increased again. Ye Yu entered Yunling instantly, and he had never felt the difficulty of breaking through the realm. But... just as Du Qixi said. I might think of the marrow-washing realm too simple. The breakthrough of the great realm is not so easy, otherwise the entire Bi Tao Pavilion only has a holy birth realm, and the entire Kyushu is also one of the few.

“It is necessary to reach the great achievement of the Yun Ling realm as soon as possible, and then step into the peak realm. Make time to break through the marrow washing realm.” Ye Yu muttered to himself, looking at the Phoenix Spirit Grass, this is a healing medicine. In this case, then...

“Clang...clang...”

Bi Tao Pavilion suddenly rang the bell again.

Many people looked at each other and counted the bells: “Oh my God, someone is going to fight again!”

“What’s wrong with Bi Tao Pavilion? No one has been in the battle for a hundred years, but now there are people who have made it!”

“Could it be that Ye Yu gave them confidence?”

“Who do you think it is? I think it is Liang Bufan. He was the leader of the core disciples before, and he must be unwilling to be robbed!”

“It makes sense, let’s go and see!” Many people were excited.

Many people rushed to the Dragon Head Peak, but the Liang Bufan they were expecting did not appear. But a familiar figure, Ye Yu stood in front of the clock, and he rang the bell.

“Which one is he playing?” Many people peeked at each other, and Long Shoufeng’s bell can also be knocked randomly?

Peak Master Biyun appeared, he was also taken aback when he saw Ye Yu, and then frowned angrily, “When you treat yourself as a core disciple, won’t Bi Tao Pavilion blame you?”

“Why do you want to blame me? I ring the bell according to the rules of the cabinet!” Ye Yu asked doubtfully.

“Then what are the rules?” Peak Master Biyun glared at Ye Yu. He admired this guy very much, but it was his character... it was really impossible to say.

“The disciple ringing the bell represents the battle!” Ye Yu replied earnestly.

“You also know that if you have broken through, it will sound, don’t you have to break through again!” Peak Master Biyun said angrily.

“That’s right! I’m going to do it again!” Ye Yu answered Peak Master Biyun seriously.

“What’s right... wait, what did you say? You want to break through again?” Peak Master Biyun just wanted to scold Ye Yu angrily, but when he reacted, he looked at Ye Yu in astonishment.

Many disciples also looked at Ye Yu suspiciously, what did Ye Yu play again?

“Yes! I am going to make another break!” Ye Yu replied seriously.

“Naughty!” Peak Master Biyun said angrily, “You have already broken through, what do you mean by breaking through again!”

“Peak Master, the last time I rushed, I felt that my posture was not beautiful and the process was not perfect. So I will do it again. I am a perfect person, so I must do things to perfection!” Ye Yuyi Looking at Peak Master Biyun proudly.

“Fuck!” Everyone who heard Ye Yu’s words, they couldn’t help cursing. This is too shameless.

Also, how do you play this battle? You still feel that your posture is not graceful, why don’t you just dance over it?

“Peak Master, I have checked the classics in the pavilion. The classics did not say that disciples should not be allowed to make a second attempt!” Ye Yu said to the peak master.

Peak Master Biyun also wanted to scold him, even though he had nothing to do after eating, do he need to write again?

Seeing that Peak Master Biyun didn’t speak, Ye Yu didn’t care about that much, and ran directly towards Biyun Peak’s formation.

“Anyway, I don’t care, I’m going to make it a second time, I must be perfect!” Ye Yu ran away with a puff of smoke, which made everyone present look weird.

“Ye Yu...isn’t he really insane?”

Chapter 62 The bell stops

In the third stage of the formation, the flame burning body can not only temper his soul, but the most important thing is that the infiltrated spiritual energy can enhance his strength.

Cao Feiyu’s paper money was not enough to burn, so he just went to the battlefield and burned it again to improve his strength again.

Ye Yu’s Wushuang Fingers have entered the country, and entering the battlefield will definitely be easier than last time. Coupled with the Phoenix Spirit Grass healing his injuries afterwards, he felt nothing to worry about.

Ye Yu's second entry into the formation was indeed easier than the first, especially the second level. Under his entry-level Wushuang fingers, he passed smoothly, not as tragically as the first.

As for the third level...

Ye Yu sat in the flames and stopped leaving. He looked like he was enjoying, and many people who watched him couldn't laugh or cry.

When the flame went out, Ye Yu stood up and sighed, "Hey, this can't satisfy me!"

Then he looked at the ugly face of Peak Master Biyun and continued, "Peak Master! I know my posture is still imperfect, I will work hard, I will not disappoint you, I will continue tomorrow!"

I am not disappointed at all! Don't you continue? !

The corner of Biyun Peak's mouth twitched, he really wanted to choke this * to death.

In the days that followed, the bell of Longshoufeng could be heard every day in Bi Tao Pavilion.

Ye Yu went to ask Xinfeng every day, and after crying and singing with Cao Feiyu, he went down the mountain to ring the bell and rushed for a battle.

The bell of Dragon Head Peak was originally sacred and rare. But now it has become a noise that can be heard every day. Many disciples couldn't laugh or cry, and in the end they got used to it.

Occasionally a disciple saw Ye Yu and even waved hello: "Brother Ye, next time you ring the bell, you can be quiet, it's too noisy!"

At this time, Ye Yu will earnestly promise: "Junior, don't worry, I will be gentle!"

Then, the bell rang through Bi Tao Pavilion.

Ye Yu's rush into the formation became a scene of Bi Tao Pavilion, and many disciples watched every day.

The executives of Bitao Pavilion couldn't laugh or cry, and were very helpless about it. He gritted his teeth with hatred but Ye Yu couldn't help it. But they were surprised at Ye Yu's transformation. In this time of battle, Ye Yu's strength was increasing crazily, and it became easier and easier every time.

In the end, Ye Yu won't leave much injury after passing two levels.

"In addition to his temperament, this kid is really a talent!" Someone among the top ten elders sighed.

Ye Yu's strength is increasing day by day, and on the fifth day, he will make a breakthrough and directly reach the grand achievement of the Yun Ling realm. This kind of improvement was incredible. He was asking Xinfeng when he made a breakthrough, so no one knew that Ye Yu had broken through a realm in just a few days. They only saw Ye Yu break through the formation and seemed even more relaxed.

After reaching the great achievement of the Yunling Realm, Ye Yu felt the majestic power in his body, like a dormant python. The power between the raised hands was raging, Ye Yu was confident to face all the enemies in the Yun Ling Realm at this time.

But in the face of marrow washing realm, such power is still weak. Ye Yu practiced madly, crying and fighting every day, but after more than ten days, Ye Yu found that these two had become very limited in improving his strength.

In fact, Ye Yu had already discovered that the more times he was burned by the fire, the more the effect would decline. For example, at first, he felt that he could reach the great achievement of the aggregate spirit realm by burning four or five times, but in fact it took five days to reach the great achievement of the aggregate spirit realm.

"I can't go on like this, although the current burning practice is still three or four times faster than my own practice. But I only have more than two months left." Ye Yu muttered, at this rate, more than two months. It's not enough for him to reach the peak of the spiritual realm.

Ye Yu finally started to use the Spirit Storage Pill, and the Spirit Storage Pill was used in conjunction with the incineration. The speed at which Ye Yu's strength increased once again.

But what made Ye Yu sigh was that the heaven and earth aura that Dacheng needed to accumulate to the peak was too strong, even though his strength had improved a lot after using up the 30 spirit storage pills, he was still far away from the peak.

"There is good fortune, and the fire has tempered the soul, what I have is the accumulation of aura. As long as the accumulation of aura is enough, it is easy to break through to the peak level!" Ye Yu muttered, he estimated his own situation and wanted to break through. The pinnacle needs at least three hundred soul storage pills.

The precious Ye Yu of the Spirit Storage Pill is very clear that he only rewarded thirty pieces for revenge for the pavilion master. Three hundred? This is simply a huge amount!

“Why is the heaven and earth aura needed for the Yun Lingjing Dacheng to reach the peak so strong!” Ye Yu said bitterly, thinking that it is no wonder that only the great family can easily become the strong, because ordinary people simply cannot afford the consumption of such cultivation resources.

Of course Ye Yu didn’t know that he was completely different from others. If it were an ordinary person, even if the 30 Spirit Storage Pills could not be ascended to the peak, they could still be close to the peak, but he just took a big step forward.

“I still have to think about any way to improve my strength as soon as possible!” Ye Yu thought for a while and went to the library. As a core disciple, he has even greater authority. He can read many books on practice, and even some practice techniques and combat skills can be watched at will, but the best sets of them are Huang-level inferior.

Ye Yu cried and ringed the bell every day to practice, and then entered the library.

In the Cangshu Pavilion, Ye Yu often encounters Mingyan’s beautiful poetry Jingyi. It’s just that every time Shi Jingyi sees him, she will say: “Please don’t do such boring things in the future!”

In fact, apart from ringing the bell so that everyone in Bi Tao Pavilion knew about Ye Yu these days, there was one more thing that everyone knew.

That is, every day, a love letter must be sent to Shi Jingyi on time and on time. At first, everyone didn’t pay attention, but it only came to light after someone saw Shi Jingyi say “Don’t be so boring” to Ye Yu every time.

“Beast! Actually forced to tease Shi Jingyi!” Wen Jianqing scolded Ye Yu heartily. This guy really wrote a love letter every day.

“Bastard! Shi Jingyi is my goddess. He actually stalks and writes love letters every day, so shameless!” This was the roar of other disciples.

Ye Yu didn’t hear it, and the love letters continued, and many people who read it gritted their teeth.

“It’s okay not to do such a boring thing. Just read my love letter and say that your literary talent is very good and wash away the shame for me. I won’t write it!” Ye Yu replied to Shi Jingyi, thinking of Chi Bu Fat’s disgusting love letter, he felt it was the stain of his life.

“I don’t want to watch such disgusting things anymore. If you don’t get bored, then you will send it away. Anyway, I will throw it in the trash!” Shi Jingyi answered calmly, and stopped paying attention to Ye Yu.

“Don’t you even give me a chance to prove myself?” Ye Yu felt that Shi Jingyi was too cruel, and he must be nailed to the disgusting pillar of shame for literary talent?

Twenty days passed in this way, and suddenly one day everyone did not hear the familiar bell sound. This made many people stunned, they were not used to it, and some even started to look for Ye Yu: “What’s the situation? Ye Yu won’t make a battle today? His posture is not perfect!”

“What’s the situation? He doesn’t ring the bell, how come I feel uncomfortable all over!”

Chapter 63 Geological means

The news of Li Feng’s death in Ye Yu’s hands spread from Bi Tao Pavilion to the outside world, and then to the Sky Fire Sect. In the Skyfire Sect, a killing order was issued.

“Anyone who kills the first level of Ye Yu will enjoy the position of Deputy Sect Master of the Sky Fire Sect, and his direct descendants will receive treatment as a core disciple of the Sky Fire Sect within a hundred years.”

The outside world was in an uproar, and the temptation of the deputy master of the Skyfire Sect and the core disciples made countless great families red their eyes. This is an opportunity to ascend to the sky in one step, and this only needs to kill a Spirit Realm.

The wind was surging outside, but Ye Yu in Bitao Pavilion didn’t know anything. Although he is no longer fighting, he still writes love letters for Shi Jingyi every day, and then goes to the library to read books.

Of course, Ye Yu often asked Xinfeng. Even though the flames burn him is limited in improving his strength, the tempering of the soul is still quite effective.

The most important thing is that sometimes a normal old man will actually give pointers to his practice, even though the pointing process is painful, the old slap crackles on his flaws, feeling that the whole person is going to be cracked.

But what made Ye Yu strange was that although Cao Feiyu’s power hit him was severely painful, he felt that his aura was running much smoother after the hit.

“He really doesn’t ring the bell?” Everyone secretly observed Ye Yu for seven days. During these seven days, Ye Yu spent most of the time in the library. Many people couldn’t understand, “How come you became a nerd?”

“Isn’t it? Ye Yu can also correct evil and return to righteousness?” Many people find it unbelievable.

Sure enough, after seven days of silence, everyone saw that Ye Yu went straight to the Dragon Head Peak again: “I knew that he couldn’t be noisy, hey, the bell is going to ring again, and the ears will be tortured again!”

But to everyone’s surprise, Ye Yu didn’t ring the bell, but ran directly to the pavilion master’s retreat.

“What is he going to do to the Pavilion Master? One month has passed. Do you know that you will die in a life-and-death battle, so ask the Pavilion Master to come forward and make peace?” Many people don’t understand.

But in fact, Ye Yu broke in, before he could stand firm, he said directly: “Pavilion Master, I want to learn geography!”

Ye Yu has read a lot of books recently and knows that there is a way to increase his strength rapidly, that is, to become a landman and gather the power of heaven and earth to bless himself. One of the most common methods of the earth is to gather qi, which can gather aura from all directions.

For Ye Yu to reach the pinnacle of the Spiritual Condensation Realm, what he needs most is aura, don’t even think about the three hundred soul storage pills. But if it can gather the spirit energy of the four directions in the body, the effect is much stronger than that of storing the spirit pill.

Pavilion Master Bi Tao did not expect that Ye Yu would make this request as soon as he came: “Do you know what geography means?”

“Know! It’s a kind of alien technique developed by observing the flow of all things, the changes of feng shui, and the terrain of mountains and rivers, which can borrow the power of heaven and earth!” Ye Yu said.

“You’re right. Both the princes and the celestial beings can borrow the power of the heavens and the earth. Although I am in the holy birth stage, my talent for cultivation can only be regarded as ordinary. Most of the disciples of Bi Tao Pavilion can surpass me, but I To achieve the holy birth stage, it is with the help of the earth to seize the good fortune of the heaven and the earth!” At this point, Pavilion Master Bi Tao paused and continued; “Countless people want to become land sergeants, not because of other things, or because they can win Heaven and earth are good fortune, because this is a shortcut to practice!”

Ye Yu nodded, didn’t he just want to learn because of this?

Imagine someone else practicing step by step. But you can draw the spiritual energy of a mountain and river, and even gather the general momentum of the mountain and river on you. Can your practice speed be slow? Can others be compared?

“But... this shortcut is not something anyone can take!” Pavilion Master Bitao looked at Ye Yu and said, “No matter what kind of cultivation it is, it always intercepts the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth. The face of the earth is also, but the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth intercepted by the face of earth It’s more difficult because he is targeted.”

Seeing that Ye Yu didn’t understand, Pavilion Master Bi Tao continued to explain: “For example, Dragon Head Peak, if you want to use Dragon Head Peak to gather its power for your own use, you need to outline the Dao pattern suitable for Dragon Head Peak, and then you can intercept it. Its potential! The geological method is also called borrowing the momentum. Of course, it can also create momentum. But that level is far from what we can imagine. A terrifying landlord can drive mountains and mountains and establish a peerless battle.

“Do you mean that as long as you have a suitable Dao pattern, you can take advantage of it?” Ye Yu asked.

Pavilion Master Bitao shook his head and said, “Do you think it’s easy? Every mountain, every river, and every feng shui is different. How difficult is it for you to portray the Dao patterns that can take advantage of this situation? Very strong eyesight and understanding.”

“What’s more... the depiction of Dao Marks is not that simple. The Dao Marks of the earth features are generally complicated, and the Spirit Realm cannot be controlled at all!”

Speaking of this, Pavilion Master Bi Tao said to Ye Yu: “In fact, I give you the hope that you can pass those three levels, which means that you will be able to observe Feilongshan in the future. This is a great opportunity, I originally planned you to achieve it. To cleanse the marrow realm, let you learn the geological methods.”

“Can’t you learn Geophysical methods without washing the marrow realm?” Ye Yu asked.

“Basically impossible! Because the Dao patterns of the earth are complex, it is difficult to penetrate the spirit realm, let alone portray it.” Pavilion Master Bi Tao said to Ye Yu.

Ye Yu was silent for a while, and suddenly said to Pavilion Master Bi Tao: “I still want to try, I won’t give up if I don’t try!”

Pavilion Master Bi Tao said: “I know what you want to do. You want to cultivate by the power of heaven and earth, but this road is really not something you can control at this time!”

Speaking of this, Pavilion Master Bi Tao sighed: "You killed Li Feng to avenge your dead wife. I am very grateful to you. In fact, I am also looking for a suitable terrain to nourish you, but you are too decisive. I just want to kill Situ Zhengtian, and even make a three-month vow of life and death. Time is too late! I admire you, but you can't be so insensitive. If you want, I can make peace for you."

"I can't bow to him. Since the battle of life and death has been established, I can only hold on to the end!" Ye Yu said to Pavilion Master Bi Tao, "I know that it is not easy for Pavilion Master to manage such a large sect. Not good. I don't ask the pavilion master to do anything, but as the chief disciple of the Bitao Pavilion, you are not against the principle of teaching me the methods of geography."

"Do you really want to try?" Pavilion Master Bi Tao asked Ye Yu.

"I also Wangge Bishop!" Ye Yu said to the Bi Tao Pavilion Master.

"Good!" Pavilion Master Bi Tao nodded, "Since you want to try, then we will try. I just hope that you will not be discouraged if you fail."

"Pavilion Lord don't worry, if this road fails, I will go down the mountain to find a few big families who are not benevolent, and grab a little more spiritual pill or other practice."

Seeing that Ye Yu said in front of him that he would forcefully grab the spirit pill, Pavilion Master Bi Tao looked ugly. Does this guy have any rules for the chief disciple? Open your mouth to * others, even more robbers than robbers!

...

Chapter 64 Learn

The master of Bitao Pavilion took Ye Yu to a gorge on the Dragon Head Peak. After entering the canyon, the master of Bitao Pavilion took a few hard bluestones. He looked around, his eyes were shining, and his divine consciousness swept everywhere.

After a while, he gathered spiritual energy in his hand and carved a road mark on the bluestone. The speed of his painting was very fast. After a while, the entire bluestone was covered with road marks.

After carving this piece, he sealed the other two pieces again, and within ten breaths, there were Taoist marks all over the three bluestones.

After the seal carving was completed, Pavilion Master Bitao threw the bluestone around Ye Yu, and the bluestone sank into three directions. Ye Yu felt that the space around him suddenly shook, and the aura around him gathered together, which was 10% richer than before.

“This is a small spirit gathering formation. Taking advantage of the terrain of this valley, Dao patterns influence the flow of spiritual energy and gather here. Can you feel the change?” Pavilion Master Bi Tao asked Ye Yu.

“The spiritual energy is ten percent strong!” Ye Yu’s heart was shaken, is this the Earth’s method? No wonder countless people want to become landlords. With this random arrangement, the spiritual energy is 10% rich, which means that the speed of practice will be 10% faster than others.

Pavilion Master Bi Tao nodded and waved his hand, one of the bluestones returned to his hand, Ye Yu found that the rich spiritual energy instantly dissipated.

“The method of the geography is actually taking advantage of the situation, and the Dao pattern laid is a means of taking advantage of the situation. To learn the geography, the most basic is to be able to comprehend the Dao marks and engrave them.” Pavilion Master Bi Tao handed the bluestone to Ye Yu “Don’t say anything else, just see if you can see through this pattern and seal it out. If possible, let’s move on to the next step! If this step doesn’t work, stop here!”

Ye Yu took the bluestone and looked at the dense and dense traces on it, dazzled by the entanglement.

“Earth signs are one way, divine consciousness is very important. Observing the heavens with divine consciousness can get the rhyme of Taoism. The same is true when you look at Dao lines, you have to look at it with divine knowledge. But after all, the spiritual level is too low, and it is not easy to observe Dao lines!” Pavilion Master Bi Tao said to Ye Yu.

Ye Yu took a deep breath, his divine consciousness was covered on the bluestone, and he used good fortune to drive the divine consciousness. At this time, a familiar scene appeared again. The Dao pattern in front of him was decomposed into many Dao marks like a silky cocoon. The Dao pattern that was originally thought to be complicated and cumbersome became clearly visible in front of him.

“Is this the magic of Good Fortune Decision?” Ye Yu was uneasy. Regardless of whether it is Lie Tao Palm or Wushuang Finger, he only learned it by relying on good fortune. It is precisely because it is broken down into the most common runes that Ye Yu can learn it without difficulty.

It can turn the profound and tedious into ordinary, and...Zhaohuajue still has ancient characters that can slash people’s memory. No wonder it is said to be the supreme book by Xueyan. Ye Yu felt that Good Fortune Jue had an extraordinary secret, but he didn’t know it.

After seeing Ye Yu staring at the bluestone for a while, he put down the bluestone. He smiled and said, “It’s normal if you can’t break it. It won’t be difficult to break it when you reach the marrow-cleansing state. You don't feel embarrassed to retreat in the face of difficulties, you speed Upgrading to the marrow-cleansing state is the right way, and learning the earth will have opportunities in the future."

"I want to try how to seal it!" Ye Yu said to Pavilion Master Bi Tao.

"What?" Pavilion Master Bi Tao was startled, never expecting Ye Yu to make this request.

Ye Yu picked up a piece of bluestone next to him, his hand flashed with spiritual energy, condensed on his fingertips, and then carved the mark of his debut on the bluestone.

Seeing Ye Yu's similarly engraved Dao marks, there was a bit of doubt in his eyes. How long does Ye Yu look at now before he can draw Dao marks?

"Bang!" After Ye Yu's seal cut halfway, the bluestone suddenly cracked.

"Failed!" Ye Yu frowned, looked again at the bluestone of Pavilion Master Bitao, and then picked up another bluestone, and began to engrave the road marks according to the gourd painting.

Ye Yu's seal cutting speed is very slow, but even so, the bluestone still keeps cracking.

He can see the Dao patterns on the bluestone clearly through good luck, and the Dao marks are presented in front of him as if they are peeling. What can be seen clearly and doing it yourself are two concepts.

The continuous cracking made Ye Yu's face show helplessness. I thought I could do it overnight, but now it seems that I still overestimated myself.

But Ye Yu didn't know how shocked the Master Bi Tao was at this time, although the bluestones that Ye Yu had carved were constantly cracking. But he could tell that this was because Ye Yu was born in the first place.

This is not a problem, as long as the hand is familiar, the seal will be naturally handy.

What is really difficult is how to understand the Dao marks, how to seal the Dao marks, and how to arrange the first seal cut, but Ye Yu did everything well.

"How is this possible! It takes a few days for the marrow washing realm to understand the Dao Mark, how long will it take him to fully see through?"

Ye Yu didn't know what the Lord Bi Tao was thinking. He was continuously engraving Dao marks, Dao marks intertwined to form bluestone Dao patterns. After twenty consecutive failures, Ye Yu finally succeeded in seal carving. Looking at the piece of bluestone covered with Dao marks, Ye Yu shouted to the master Bi Tao: "Pavilion Master, do you think there is a mistake?"

Pavilion Master Bi Tao stared at Ye Yu scorchingly, the shock in his heart was unimaginable. He started to seal the Dao pattern when he reached the marrow-cleansing state. The first time he seal-cut this Dao pattern, it took him three months to do it successfully. But Ye Yu... didn't have three hours.

"Is this a genius?" Pavilion Master Bi Tao has always felt that he has a strong talent in the field, but he doubted himself for the first time at this time.

"Pavilion Master!" Seeing Pavilion Master Bi Tao staring at him blankly, Ye Yu couldn't help but shouted, "That... Did I make a mistake?"

"Ah...no!" Pavilion Master Bi Tao reacted, looking at Ye Yu with a complex expression, "Very good! If you can seal the Dao pattern, you will succeed 30%!"

Speaking of this, Pavilion Master Bitao picked up the bluestone engraved by Ye Yu, and threw the bluestone Ye Yu to one side to make up the battle. The surrounding heaven and earth became more aura, but it was slightly lighter than Pavilion Master Bitao's. Minute.

Ye Yu didn't expect to be able to compare with Pavilion Master Bi Tao, but he didn't feel much about it. It's just that after he saw his bluestone replace the master bluestone of Bitao Pavilion, cracks appeared on the three bluestones, and his face became unsightly.

"Because of my seal carving, the bluestones in the formation are all cracked?" Ye Yu sighed, still failed?

"It's not your reason! It has something to do with the carrier that carries the Dao pattern. Bluestone is not a good carrier and will naturally be damaged soon. If it is replaced by a spirit stone, it can last a long time." Pavilion Master Bi Tao replied, "The carrier in the earth is very important. For some terrifying formations, you need the best materials as the carrier to carry the Dao pattern!"

Speaking of this, Pavilion Master Bi Tao glanced at Ye Yu and said: "Since you can seal the Dao pattern, then try to see the terrain, look at the geomantic omen, and cut the Dao rhyme. If you can do this, you will become a land sergeant. "

Chapter 65 getting Started

“The earth phases are one and the requirements for divine consciousness are very high! The divine consciousness is strong enough to intercept the Tao Yun, and carry the Tao Yun with the divine consciousness to outline the Dao marks.”

“By borrowing the power of mountains and rivers, the power of geomantic omen, and the power of heaven and earth, you need to be familiar with its context, even if you don’t even know its context, let alone lay the ground to influence him.”

“The strength of the landlord lies in how much power he can borrow. The stronger the landlord, the more able to take advantage of it. Some extraordinary existences can drive mountains, drive mountains, and overwhelm the sea.”

“Becoming a landlord, you can build different powers, use power to bless you, use the heavens and the earth to cultivate and practice, and get twice the result with half the effort. In the ancient times, someone laid the earthly means and borrowed the power of one hundred thousand mountains to bless a child, this child Become a * on the spot.”

“The geography is broad and profound. The more extraordinary the terrain, the more difficult it is to borrow from it, but as long as it can be borrowed, the effect will be stronger!”

“Most of the time, the elements of the earth are expressed in a formation, but the formation does not mean that it is a means of the earth. Many people can deploy the formation, especially the strong. They have a deep understanding of the Tao, and they have evolved a formation based on the Tao The method is not difficult to come by. But... the formation he laid out was made with the power of his own Dao, without the natural feeling of Dao!”

“But the landlords are different. They combine the terrain of the mountains and arrange the formation in the most appropriate way. The formation and the power of the situation are superimposed. The formations laid by the strong of the same level must be far stronger than the opponent.”

“The power is one way, and there is endless change. Between the world and the earth, there is great power everywhere, and the power of the world is everywhere. All the landman has to do is to use the power for his own use!”

“Along the veins, find the nodes, use Dao marks as traction, and gather momentum for use. This is the most basic method.”

“If you want to learn geophysical methods, you have to observe more, try more, and learn more. Practice makes perfect. The most basic rules can only be learned by this method. There is no shortcut.”

Pavilion Master Bi Tao is a good landlord, he kept explaining to Ye Yu. At the same time, he took Ye Yu to walk on other mountains and rivers.

Feilongshan's potential is too strong, not suitable for Ye Yu who just learned. Moreover, Feilong Mountain itself has been laid down with geological means, and the three hurdles for core disciples' assessment are geological means.

Studying in Feilong Mountain is too much interference. Pavilion Master Bi Tao took Ye Yu to the ordinary mountains and rivers, and kept instilling knowledge to Ye Yu along the way. At the same time, he continued to teach Ye Yu to engrave Taoist patterns.

Lecturer by Bi Tao Pavilion, Ye Yuxue.

Pavilion Master Bi Tao kept setting up a battlefield, and at the same time he also asked Ye Yu to set up a battlefield in a gourd style in his own way.

From the beginning of learning, to finally let Ye Yu try his own seal carving.

Ye Yu studies very seriously, he keeps trying, but also keeps failing. He observes the geomantic omen, the mountains and rivers, the flow of the road. Constantly summarizing, constant insight.

Ye Yu spent sleep and food, immersed in it every day, forgetting everything.

Pavilion Master Bi Tao witnessed all this, and his heart was very uneasy: Ye Yu had left in his heart the image of the demon king, unsure of advance and retreat, and young and frivolous.

But I never thought that this young man would have such a side. Seeing Ye Yu sometimes seal-cut Dao tattoos to the point of exhaustion, his face pale as paper, Bitao Pavilion took the initiative, knowing that Ye Yu didn't exhaust all of the three levels.

As a result, Pavilion Master Bi Tao's impression of Ye Yu was greatly changed. This kid was really selfless when he was serious.

"This kid is not only cruel to others, but also cruel to himself!"

Of course, this was not the only thing he was surprised by. What moved him the most was the speed at which Ye Yu learned the earth, which made him a little dizzy.

Ye Yu's divine consciousness was unexpectedly powerful and quite solid, far surpassing his level of divine consciousness in this realm. Such a spiritual mind gave him a very good foundation.

But if this is just a good foundation, then Pavilion Master Ye Yu's understanding will shock him.

He only pointed out many things once, and Ye Yu could quickly understand it. Even if it was difficult, he could find the right entry point and feel it after two or three times.

Ye Yu could soon engrave all the Dao patterns he taught him. The speed of learning made him dumbfounded.

Pavilion Master Bi Tao thought of him back then, only to seal these Dao patterns, it took five years to find out after countless failures.

But what about Ye Yu? At the beginning of the seal carving, there were several failures. But after he found the feeling of the seal carving, he taught him the Tao marks in one go, and the seal was successful easily.

What is this concept? In other words, he had to fail hundreds or even hundreds of Dao lines, he learned in the blink of an eye.

The seal carving of Taoism was originally the most time-consuming thing to learn, because it had to be felt and explored by yourself, but this most difficult item became his easiest item.

Of course, Ye Yu's talent also made Pavilion Master Bi Tao overjoyed. Such talents fall in their Bitao Pavilion, and Bitao Pavilion's revival is expected. It is impossible for Ye Yu to learn about the geography of Feilong Mountain in the future, and get the geography of Feilong Mountain. You must know that the geophysical methods of their Bi Tao Pavilion lineage came from the insight of the Feilong Mountain.

Ye Yu learns the world without sleep and food.

Twenty days passed in a blink of an eye. After these twenty days of study, Ye Yu was finally able to lay down some simple pictures.

"Good, good!" Pavilion Master Bi Tao looked at the various formations under Ye Yubu, his face was full of smiles. It took him three years to successfully set up a battle that year, but Ye Yu only took twenty days.

"Being able to set up the battlefield means that you have already started on the path of the earth phase. After that, you need to keep exploring and enlightenment to deepen the understanding of the earth phase together!" Pavilion Master Bi Tao said to Ye Yu, "I don't need to take it with you. You will study among the mountains and rivers again."

Speaking of this, the Master Bi Tao handed Ye Yu a note: "This is my understanding of the geography in the past few years. There are many things about the geography in it. You can use it as a reference. As for the higher ground. At this time, your strength is not enough to display it. Forcibly portraying such Dao patterns will hurt yourself. You will be taught later when you become stronger in the future."

“Thank you, Pavilion Master!” Ye Yu took the notes given by Pavilion Master Bi Tao and respectfully saluted Pavilion Master Bi Tao.

In these days, Pavilion Master Bi Tao did his best to him. Afraid of delaying my practice, I set up a spirit gathering formation next to me when I was resting.

Although Ye Yu had been immersed in the earth for the past twenty days, with the help of the pavilion master’s spirit gathering formation, his strength had actually improved a lot, not worse than using thirty spirit storage pills.

Ye Yu is very grateful to Pavilion Master Bi Tao, who is a respectable elder of the teacher.

Pavilion Master Bitao saw Ye Yu salute him so respectfully and smiled. After thinking about it, he said to Ye Yu, “You said Cao Feiyu took you as a disciple?”

“Yeah!” Ye Yu nodded and replied. The pavilion master said that when Peak Master Biyun wanted to accept him as a disciple, Ye Yu told him.

The master of Bitao Pavilion was silent for a while and said: “Wen Xinfeng’s position in Bitao Pavilion is detached. Although Wen Xinfeng belongs to Bitao Pavilion, it is in fact independent. I will not bother if it is not necessary. You can become that A disciple of one line is considered good luck.”

Speaking of this, Pavilion Master Bi Tao paused and said: “If you want to make great achievements in the world, you can ask your master for advice. Of course, this is just my guess!”

Ye Yu was startled, thinking of the neuropathy Cao Feiyu, is he a powerful geographer?

Chapter 66 Jealous

Returning to Bi Tao Pavilion again, Ye Yu began to use geography to construct a spiritual gathering formation. In this study, Ye Yu spent the most time in the spirit gathering formation.

He wants to improve his strength as soon as possible, and the spirit gathering formation is undoubtedly the most effective.

The aura of Bitao Pavilion was much stronger than that of the outside world. After Ye Yu gathered the spirit formation, the aura in this place was more than three times thicker again.

Ye Yu sat in the spirit gathering array, good fortune revolving, and the spiritual energy madly entered Ye Yu's body, and the speed of cultivation was more than several times faster than before.

However, the time did not last long, and there were a few cracking sounds, and then the formation broke apart.

Ye Yu looked at the black iron on which the seal had been carved into pieces and couldn't help sighing. He picked up the black iron seal to engrave the Dao pattern again, and set up the battle.

Only half an hour later, the black iron cracked again.

"Although black iron carries the Dao patterns much better than the bluestone, it can only last for half an hour." Ye Yu muttered, "You have to find a suitable carrier. Otherwise, it will only take care of the seal-cut Dao patterns."

Ye Yu murmured, thinking of the spiritual stone he buried when he was admitted to Bitao Pavilion. The dozen or so pieces of spirit stones have not been taken by himself. After so many days, no one should be staring there anymore, and it is time to take them back.

Lingshi is undoubtedly a very good carrier, for Ye Yu at this time, it is completely enough. Using the spirit stone as the bearing mark to lay the spirit gathering formation, not only the speed and range of the spirit gathering formation will be expanded a lot, but the most important thing is that the spiritual energy in the spirit stone will also be extracted by the spirit gathering formation and increase to In the gathering of spirits.

It is necessary to know that although the spiritual stone contains a strong spiritual energy of heaven and earth, it is difficult for practitioners to directly extract the spiritual energy from the spiritual stone. Only by various means can the spiritual energy be extracted.

The aura contained in an ordinary spiritual stone is not weaker than three aura pills. Of course, the price of the spirit stone is less than one-third of the spirit pill. The reason is that it is difficult to extract the aura from the spirit stone, unlike the Yun Ling Pill, which can be used directly.

"A dozen spirit stones are enough for me to set up a spirit gathering formation. It's a pity, there is no suitable seal carving method, otherwise the spirit stones can be combined with the seal carving method to gather the spiritual energy of heaven and earth to the point of horror!"

In addition to the carrier that carries the Dao marks, the method to outline Dao marks is also very important. A good method can greatly increase the rhyme of the Dao Wen, and naturally it can also increase the power of the battle!

Pavilion Master Bi Tao has a set of seal cutting methods, but he bluntly said that Ye Yu cannot learn that method. Although Ye Yu didn't know why, he didn't ask too much.

"Let's look for the seal cutting method later, and first go and fetch the spirit stones. Using the spirit stones to lay the spirit gathering formation, and then cooperate with the good luck decision, it is enough to make my strength soar!"

Ye Yu muttered, standing up just about to go down the mountain to get the spirit stone, but saw Du Qixi come back with a swollen nose and a swollen nose.

"Brother Du, what's wrong with you?" Ye Yu asked curiously looking at Du Qixi's miserable situation.

"Brother Ye, you are finally back!" Du Qixi looked at Ye Yu in surprise, and then stuffed a lot of letters in his arms to Ye Yu, "Brother Ye, you will send the letter by yourself in the future. I won't do it if I kill you. It's hard to live, and being beaten every day, it's almost impossible to live."

Ye Yu stared at the letter Du Qixi came back. In order to prove that he was definitely not the one who wrote the bad mood book of "Yiyi Little Sweetheart", he kept sending love letters to Shi Jingyi to wash away the shame.

He knew that he would go out with the pavilion master because he was studying the law of geography, so Ye Yu wrote dozens of love letters to Du Qixi in one breath, and then gave him an unused phoenix spirit grass, so that he would replace himself on time every day. Send a letter to Shi Jingyi.

Ye Yu felt that since he had to give it to her every day after saying it, he would send it to the end before washing away his shame. Even if the person is not there, the love letter must be there.

He is an honest boy, how could he forget such a big event as sending a love letter?

Du Qixi couldn't stop the temptation of Fenglingcao. Wasn't it just sending a love letter on behalf of Ye Yu, nothing? Anyway, who didn't know that Ye Yu would give Shi Jingyi to Shi Jingyi every day!

But now ... Du Qi is like a matter of sending a book!

"What's the situation?" Ye Yu asked.

"What else? Shi Jingyi is the goddess of all the male disciples of Bi Tao Pavilion. You send a love letter every day, which naturally arouses the anger of the public. In the past, relying on your core disciple status, no one dared to move. But... The core disciples who experienced outside have returned. I naturally..."

“So arrogant, don’t they know that I am the top disciple of the core disciple, the chief disciple of the entire Bi Tao Pavilion?” Ye Yu asked Du Qixi.

“Because of this, I was beaten even worse!” Du Qixi said bitterly, “They are also dissatisfied with you being the chief disciple, thinking you are not qualified.”

“Oh!” Ye Yu said, “If you don’t have the qualifications, you don’t have the qualifications. Leave them alone, Ben Shao is only interested in improving your strength!”

Du Qixi stunned: “The chief disciple, if you don’t show up, they may really take it away. The chief disciple of Bi Tao Pavilion is not static. Even if you pass the assessment but cannot convince the crowd, you may still be deprived!”

“Deprive it!” Ye Yu didn’t care.

Ye Yu’s so indifferent attitude made Du Qixi bitterly said: “Then I was beaten for nothing?”

“If you are so fat, you can be beaten as exercise.” Ye Yu patted Du Qixi on the shoulder and said, “By the way, has today’s letter been sent out?”

“I was beaten before the Dragon Head Peak today, do you think I can still send it out?” Du Qixi replied.

“Damn! Those * still dare to block my letter, go, take me to see, who dares to challenge the majesty of my chief disciple!” Ye Yu was angry and was about to go to Dragon Head Peak.

“Ye Yu, you’re not a * human!” Du Qixi felt that he was angry first, not the one who beat him, but the * Ye Yu.

He didn’t care if he was beaten, he didn’t care if the chief disciple was taken away, but he cares so much before the letter was sent. Du Qixi was furious because he couldn’t compare to a letter.

“Brother Du, I’ll take revenge for you. How can they do this, brother Du is so cute!” Ye Yu was filled with indignation, “You my brother, I can’t tolerate them ups and downs!”

“Go away! Go away!” Du Qixi gritted his teeth, and he believed that Ye Yu was stupid.

Ye Yu dragged Du Qixi straight to the Dragon Head Peak. Along the way, some disciples were taken aback when they saw Ye Yu, and then became excited again.

“There is a good show!”

“The two senior brothers Guo Yin came back, and Ye Yu actually appeared. Hey, the battle between the chief disciples is about to begin!”

“Go! Go to Dragon Head Peak! Ye Yu is just Xiaocheng in the Yunling Realm. How can the two senior brothers Guo Yin convince him? This is to shake Ye Yu’s status!”

“The two senior brothers Guo Yin also like Shi Jingyi, this is also jealous!”

“This time there is a good show!”

“ ... ”

Chapter 67 Pointing

Ye Yu went straight to the Dragon Head Peak, just in time to meet Shi Jingyi who was about to return to the house. Ye Yu ran up quickly and stuffed the love letter in his hand to Shi Jingyi.

“I don’t want it!” Shi Jingyi was handed out a love letter by Ye Yu in front of so many people. Her face was bloody, her pink face was beautiful, and the drunk red on the membrane was as beautiful as she stood there.

“How about I read it to you?” After Ye Yu finished speaking, he picked up the letter and opened it.

“Dare you!” Shi Jing yes Ye Yu with her beautiful eyes horizontally, her eyes are as clear as Yingbo’s big and charming, and the blush on the face of the beautiful beauty is even better, but the show fist she holds reveals her also a little nervous heart.

Ye Yu almost laughed out loud, Shi Jingyi obviously has no experience in facing stalking tricks. This is not as good as the major college flowers on the planet. The college flowers are all harassed. How can this little battle make them nervous? Just kidding, the stalker was used by people like him, and they were used to it a long time ago.

“Then you accept it!” Ye Yu handed the letter to Shi Jingyi, “If you don’t answer it, I’ll read it to you. But I think the love letter is not beautiful to be watched by onlookers, right!”

Shi Jingyi pinched Ye Yu’s love letter to her, bit her lip with her teeth, and pressed out a tooth mark. Her nose was wrinkled, and her long eyelashes quivered from time to time, showing the charming look of a girl.

“Dare to force Junior Poem, you are so courageous!” Suddenly an anger exploded, and a young man galloped between Ye Yu and Shi Jingyi, turning around and showing a gentle smile at Shi Jingyi, "Sister Poem, don't pay attention to this. Flies, I will send you away!"

Du Qixi said in Ye Yu's ear at this time: "Brother Ye, he is Guo Yulin, and he is among the people who hurt me!"

"Oh!" Ye Yu asked Du Qixi cautiously, "Why don't you forget it? You see, you just have a swollen nose and no serious injuries. Do I have to help you find a place?"

"Ye Yu!" Du Qixi's voice shot up a few times, his eyes staring at Ye Yu. After this guy gave the love letter, he didn't want to worry about his own business?

"Good, good!" Ye Yu saw that Du Qixi was about to scratch his appearance, he was also a little embarrassed, so he could only reassure him quickly, "Brother Du, I will find a place for you!"

After speaking, Ye Yu looked at Guo Yulin and yelled: "What to shout? When I saw the chief disciple, I didn't call my brother, but I still yelled here. Do you want to be punished by the door rules?"

Ye Yu's words made Guo Yulin's arrogant expression pause slightly, but he didn't expect Ye Yu to press him as the chief disciple.

"I only recognize Senior Brother Liang Bufan Liang as the chief disciple, you! I don't recognize it!" Guo Yulin hummed at Ye Yu.

"Then you have to go to the pavilion master, the pavilion chief is willing to take off my identity as the chief disciple, and I don't care. But now I am still the chief disciple, you have to respect me a little bit!" Ye Yu smiled and faced me. Guo Yulin said, "The rules said, the chief disciple treats all the disciples and seniors as courtesy. You yelled at me, if I were more serious, I would ask the law enforcement hall to come, you will have to be lashed out."

Ye Yu's words made Guo Yulin's face ugly. This guy was right. His identity was indeed a bit transcendent. The chief disciple was equivalent to half of the disciples' status as a master teacher, which was clearly pointed out by the rules.

Seeing Guo Yulin not speaking, Ye Yu smiled and said, "That's right, be good, let's ask brother to listen!"

Guo Yulin glared at Ye Yu, brother, he never killed him.

"The young people nowadays, the world is getting worse, hey, I don't have the heart to respect the old and love the young. I see the seniors and they are all eyebrows!" Ye Yu sighed, "Forget it, who made me generous, you If you don't call me senior brother, I will treat you as a junior brother, just like parents will not dislike their own son!"

This sentence made Du Qixi smile hard, Ye Yu is too bad, this is not to call Guo Yulin his son.

“You...” Guo Yulin shouted angrily.

“What are you! If you dare to disrespect me, I’ll report it to the Law Enforcement Pavilion!” Ye Yu scolded, “The disobedient bear child, the parents will still have to beat him!”

Guo Yulin was furious, but the identity of the chief disciple made him scrupulous.

“Senior Brother Ye oppressing people as the chief disciple is a bit too embarrassing. The chief disciple of the past generations, who is not the master? All the disciples are convinced. For example, when Brother Liang was the chief disciple, was anyone dissatisfied? “A young man came out and Ye Yu knew that this should be Yin Junxin that Du Qixi said.

“It doesn’t matter if you accept me or not! The problem is that I am now the chief disciple, and your brother Liang’s position is occupied by me? So you are ninjas! Good, obedient!”

Yin Junxin was so panicked by these words that he ridiculed him in this way. Shouldn’t he do something to prove himself?

The other disciples also peeped at each other: Is this too shameless? The chief disciple did you do this? It’s really far worse than Brother Liang!

Yin Junxin took a few deep breaths and calmed down the emotions in his heart. He continued to say to Ye Yu: “It doesn’t matter what Senior Brother Ye thinks. But since Senior Brother Ye talks about gate regulations, let’s discuss gate regulations. The rule says that the position of the chief disciple is transcendent, and he should be treated with the respect of a half-awarded master. But the door rule also said: The chief disciple should be friendly to other disciples and have the responsibility of instructing the disciples to practice. Is this correct?”

Ye Yu nodded, it is precisely because the chief disciple is responsible for guiding his disciples in their cultivation, that’s why he has the status of half a master.

“Since Senior Brother Ye also knows, that would be the best!” At this point, Yin Junxin stepped back and said, “Please! Senior Brother Ye please give me some pointers!”

Du Qixi’s expression changed in an instant. He didn’t expect that Ye Yu’s status as the chief disciple had not suppressed the opponent, but instead let him find an excuse to attack Ye Yu. If Ye Yu was beaten to the ground by the opponent, his face would be lost, and this chief disciple was afraid of changing hands.

“Brother Ye, find an excuse to give instructions another day, you are the chief disciple, and they dare not force you!” Du Qixi whispered in Ye Yu’s ear.

After taking a look at Du Qixi, Ye Yu asked, “I don’t need to avenge you?”

“I was so happy after you just taught them, hehe. Can I still expect to fight back?” Du Qixi said.

Ye Yu glanced at Du Qixi’s blue nose and swollen face, then looked at Yin Junxin and said, “Do you really want me to give pointers?”

“Senior Brother Ye won’t be scared anymore. Don’t worry, we are brothers in the same sect. We won’t be too cruel in any way, but we have no eyes. You can’t blame me for beating you as a pig!” Yin Junxin said.

“Hey! You want me to give pointers. I can’t make any sense if I want to give them some pointers. Well, I’ll give you some pointers, bear kid!” Ye Yu agreed.

“Brother Ye, are you crazy? You’re just Xiaocheng in the Yunling Realm, and he is already at his peak!” Du Qixi was frightened by Ye Yu’s decision and jumped up and shouted at Ye Yu.

“Hahaha! Yunling Realm Xiaocheng also wants to be the chief disciple, even if we pass the battle, we don’t recognize it!” Guo Yulin interrupted at this time.

Chapter 68 Yin Junxin

Everyone moved away from an area and looked at Ye Yu. They had seen Ye Yu’s strength and it was very powerful. The combat skills that passed the three levels all the way made them remember deeply, and it showed the strength of Xiaocheng that surpassed the ordinary Spirit Realm.

But even so, Ye Yu wouldn’t be able to cross the peaks of several realms and war Yun Ling realm. What’s more, the core disciples are the best among all the disciples, and their combat effectiveness is not comparable to that of ordinary practitioners.

“Senior Brother Ye, if you promise not to harass Junior Poem and give up the position of the chief disciple, then you don’t need to point me to me?” Yin Junxin looked at Ye Yu.

“What is harassment!” Ye Yu glared at Yin Junxin, “I’m just discussing the way of literary expression with Junior Poem to prove that I am also a talented person!”

Shi Jingyi listened by the side, her white neck was blushing beautifully. Thinking of the letter she saw for the first time, how could she still have the courage to open it again? Ghosts are willing to discuss literature with you!

She didn't want to read the words "Yiyi Sweetheart" again.

"If you want to send it, continue to send it. Anyway, I throw away the trash can." Shi Jingyi muttered in her heart. This is easier than seeing those disgusting words.

Shi Jingyi also figured it out, anyway, he has to clean the room every day, and multiple letters will be treated as an extra piece of waste paper. At least Ye Yu didn't bother him, just delivered the letter every day!

"As for the position of the chief disciple..." Ye Yu said this, looking at Yin Junxin and said, "It doesn't matter if you let it out, but if you want it so much, I won't let it. I will * you off and make you hate it. Teeth itchy!"

"..." Many people get goosebumps because of Ye Yu's tone, brother, don't use a woman's coquettish tone, okay?

Yin Junxin said: "Senior Brother Ye, you are just a small achievement in the Yun Ling realm, you have to think clearly."

"Who told you that I was only a minor in the Yunling Realm?" Ye Yu rolled his eyes and said, "Is this an old calendar, okay? You all know that I am going to fight Situ Lao Pifu, or should I still wait for the death of the Yunling Realm Xiaocheng? "

As everyone watched, Ye Yu's momentum surged out. The spirit elephant is hanging in front of him, and the raindrops are solid, which is the manifestation of Dacheng.

And... faintly reached the level of Dacheng Middle Grade.

"This..." Many people stared straight. In more than a month, did Ye Yu actually reach the middle rank of the Yunling Realm Great Success?

"Is it true!" Someone even wiped their eyes, which is a bit weird. They usually practice for a month, and it is difficult for them to improve even a small amount of strength. But Ye Yu soared directly!

From small to large, although this is only a realm, some people can't break through after years of accumulation! It is precisely because of this that Ye Yu and Situ Zhengtian's March Battle decided that everyone thought Ye Yu was crazy.

In the battle of March, Ye Yu was completely sent to death.

But now... Ye Yu has reached Dacheng in more than a month, and after completing the road that others haven't walked for several years, he is still Dacheng middle-grade.

"Even if the pavilion master gave Ye Yu the Spirit Storage Pill, he wouldn't be able to increase his strength so quickly, right? Refining the Spirit Storage Pill will take time."

"How did he do it?"

Many people looked at Ye Yu full of admiration. Such a speed of practice is a metamorphosis.

"Is this strength enough to point you?" Ye Yu looked at Yin Junxin with a smile.

Yin Junxin looked at Ye Yu, thinking that it is no wonder that those who pass the three passes can be the chief disciple. This talent is indeed not comparable to them. Maybe... Even Brother Liang is even worse.

"It's a pity...I am the pinnacle of the Yun Ling realm!" Yin Junxin stared at Ye Yu, his aura also rioted, and a powerful pressure directly covered Ye Yu in the shaking of the mighty aura.

Under this coercion, some disciples felt it was difficult to breathe, and their bodies kept backing away. Only after quitting a hundred feet did they feel that the depression disappeared.

"So strong!"

"Senior Brother Yin's strength reached the peak of the Yun Ling realm a year ago, and he has been trying to break through to the marrow washing realm!"

"Compared to the last time I saw Brother Yin, he has accumulated more profound accumulation!"

"Ye Yu's strength is extraordinary, able to pass the three levels. At this time, with the strength of Dacheng Middle Grade, he may not be able to fight the peak of the Yun Ling Realm!"

"If it is the peak of the Yun Ling realm, Ye Yuzhan has no problem. But is Senior Brother Yin an ordinary person? He is a core disciple, he is also a perverted person, Ye Yu wants to leapfrog he is afraid that he can't do it!"

"That's right! Who can become a core disciple has no two brushes? Strong strength is far from the peak of the Yun Ling realm!"

"..."

Everyone talked a lot, but Ye Yu watched Yin Junxin calmly. Ye Yu's strength really surprised Ye Yu, and his strength was far stronger than he had guessed.

"Senior Brother Ye, please!" As Yin Junxin spoke, his arms rolled, and he swept towards Ye Yu directly, sweeping Ye Yu's chest with his palm with the sound of breaking through the air.

This palm brought the wind and whistle, tough and tyrannical, and the aura came in an instant.

Ye Yu was naturally fearless, and directly placed his palm on his chest, blocking the opponent.

Ye Yu also wanted to verify how strong his own strength was, and how much superiority the strength tempered from reincarnation and good fortune in one day was compared to others.

Two palms clashed together, and with a muffled sound, a storm was set off.

Ye Yu was shocked and retreated several steps, but Yin Junxin retreated dozens of steps. This was able to stand firm, his arms trembling fiercely.

"This....."

Du Qixi's eyes widened, many disciples opened their mouths wide, and Yin Junxin's eyes were full of weirdness.

"The peak of Dacheng Battle still occupies an absolute advantage?"

Many people stared at Ye Yu blankly, this scene beyond common sense made them unwilling to believe it.

Only Ye Yu didn't feel surprised. If he claimed to be the strongest practice of Hongchen to enjoy reincarnation in one day and the book of heaven, he would be too useless if there was no such effect.

The depth of his foundation and spiritual energy in his body is far beyond what they can imagine.

"I don't believe it!" Yin Junxin directly pounced on Ye Yu, driven to twelve% of his power, and shot Ye Yu continuously. The shots were tricky and weird, very scary.

Ye Yu is naturally fearless and directly meets the opponent.

Although Yin Junxin's shots were tricky and unpredictable, Ye Yu had experienced three levels after all, and the experience of dozens of fighters besieging him in the second level gave him rich experience. Although Yin Junxin's shot was swift and tricky, he still couldn't help Ye Yu.

Besides... Ye Yu's power is so much stronger than him.

After dozens of consecutive attacks, they were all blocked by Ye Yu. His shocked hands were about to break, and the blood in his body rolled over and felt extremely uncomfortable.

Yin Junxin was unwilling. He gritted his teeth and forcibly suppressed the uncomfortable blood qi in his lower body. Finally used his combat skills, the combat skills surged, and his spirit image moved along with it.

An aura that surpassed the previous riot came out: "Let you * family heirloom combat skills!"

When his words fell, Du Qixi's expression changed, and he shouted to Ye Yu: "This is his family's tactics, dragon and tiger slash, the rank is close to profound grade tactics, Ye Yu quickly avoid it!"

"You can't avoid it!" Yin Junxin roared like a dragon and a tiger.

Many disciples were shocked when they saw it, and Yin Junxin actually displayed all this combat skills, and Ye Yu was in trouble.

...

Chapter 69 Dragon Tiger Slash

"Dragon Tiger Slash!"

Yin Junxin displayed his combat skills, and immediately the dragon and the tiger interlaced, using the dragon as the handle and the tiger as the blade, showing the vast power, and directly slashed towards Ye Yu.

The power was terrifying, and the air burst straight down, making a crackling sound.

Many people swallowed their saliva, and had long heard of Yin Junxin's strong dragon and tiger battle, but they didn't expect it to be so terrifying.

Ye Yu's heart also condensed, and the palm of the fierce waves came out, and his palm was like a wave, directly facing the opponent's Dragon and Tiger Slash with a fiery breath.

"bump....."

With a loud noise, the dragon and tiger slashed Ye Yu's palm prints, and the powerful force shook Ye Yu back again and again. If it weren't for the speed, Lie Tao's palm would even cut Ye Yu's body.

"So strong!" Ye Yu exclaimed.

"Come again!" Yin Junxin drove his combat skills, his entire face was flushed, his spiritual energy surged with crazy evolution, and the dragon and tiger cut intertwined room once again swept towards Ye Yu.

Ye Yu didn't dare to keep it at this time, Lie Tao Palm was driven to the extreme by him. The power in the body kept surging out, and his palm prints were photographed repeatedly to face Dragon Tiger Slash.

"You actually have something to keep before!" Seeing that his Longhuzhan unexpectedly stunned Ye Yu, Yin Junxin was horrified. This guy hadn't used his full force before making a shot on himself.

"But you still have to lose!" Yin Junxin was very confident of his own strength, and Longhuzhan continued to attack Ye Yu.

Ye Yu confronted the opponent with the palm of a fierce Tao, and the more he was surprised by the war. The opponent's combat skills were really extraordinary, and he didn't have much advantage.

But Ye Yu was shocked, and Yin Junxin was even more shocked. His Dragon Tiger Slash was close to the profound grade combat skill, if it weren't because it was a family secret skill, and he had family blood, he couldn't learn such a level at all in his realm. But now... this guy actually blocked his Dragon Tiger Slash. You must know that his realm is still a level lower than his own!

"Senior Brother Ye give some more pointers!" Yin Junxin roared, his aura evolved, and it was actually a dragon and tiger intertwined. Of course, dragons are not divine dragons, and perhaps it is more appropriate to describe them as giant pythons.

The intertwined anomaly of the python and the tiger trembled, directly submerged in the dragon and tiger cut, the power of the dragon and tiger cut skyrocketed by more than three points. During the sweep, Ye Yulietao's palm was directly destroyed, and his clothes were cut off. If it weren't for dodge fast, the knife would have to be cut in his hand.

"What a terrifying combat technique!" Ye Yu was shocked, but he had to cheer up against the opponent.

Yin Junxin repeatedly performed the Dragon and Tiger Slash, and the Dragon Tiger Slash swept across, bringing out ripples, the ripples rolled up the hurricane, and dust storms blew around.

“So strong!” Everyone was shocked. At this time, Ye Yu was completely suppressed, and Lie Tao’s palm was continuously cut off.

Du Qixi watched this scene, just clenching his fists, and Ye Yu would undoubtedly lose.

“Hahaha! Warlike skills!” Ye Yu was laughing, his figure leaped, and once again confronted with the palm of a fierce wave, while avoiding his sharp edge.

“Of course it is a combat skill, a combat skill that can beat you into a pig!” Yin Junxin smiled.

“That’s not okay!” As Ye Yu spoke, he used Wushuang fingers. Wushuang Finger evolved, and after reaching Dacheng, his Wushuang Finger power also skyrocketed.

Between casts, like a sword coming out of its orifice, the sharpness is fully revealed. The fierce sword energy swept straight at Longhuzhan, and ran through Longhuzhan vigorously.

“Xuanpin combat skills?” Yin Junxin couldn’t believe it. This is impossible, how can the Yunling Realm be able to cultivate profound grade combat skills. He relies on his blood to cultivate Dragon Tiger Slash, and Dragon Tiger Slash is not even close to true profound grade combat skills.

However, what Ye Yu displayed was obviously a real profound-grade combat technique, and his dragon and tiger slash was wiped out in the midst of the sword aura. The sharp sword aura blew his ears and directly cut his sideburns.

Wushuang’s fingers came out, Ye Yu suppressed Yin Junxin downside down. Looking at the completely reversed situation, many people peeped at each other.

Ye Yu kicked Yin Junxin fiercely, then hit his face with a fist. Yin Junxin couldn’t stand it anymore, his nose was bleeding, and the person fell backward.

Ye Yu took the opportunity to rush straight up, kneeling on his chest, resisting his resistance, and hitting Yin Junxin with his fists like raindrops.

“You’re right, we are brothers in the same school. Just beat you into a pig’s head, and I won’t do anything else!” Ye Yu laughed, Yin Junxin’s face was already bruised and swollen.

“Du Qixi, what are you doing in a daze. Come and help, you come to punch him in the face, and I will show him how to effectively avoid others from hitting his fists!” Ye Yu said to Yin Junxin.

“Ah!” Du Qixi reacted, and then ran over overjoyed. He knew that this was Ye Yu’s opportunity to avenge him.

“Okay! Then, as Brother Ye, tell Brother Yin some hard work!” As Du Qixi spoke, his fist fell on Yin Junxin’s face like raindrops.

“Junior Brother Yin, hide on the left, oops, on the right, look...you have to react quickly, this time you are hiding in front.” Ye Yu pointed to Yin Junxin to hide his fist there, but obviously he couldn’t hide. He was killed by Du Qixi. Really beaten into a pig’s head.

“Ye Yu! Hit if you want, don’t chirp!” Yin Junxin listened to Ye Yu being a * and set up an archway. He was so angry that the pain on his face was not as angry as this guy brought him.

“I don’t know good people!” Ye Yu sighed, “I’m here to give pointers, you actually...oh, forget it, who made me the chief disciple? I don’t care about you with a big heart!”

“Shut up!” Yin Junxin became more uncomfortable when he heard it, and the pain on his face couldn’t stop his roar.

“This is what you don’t want me to point you. Don’t disagree with me as the chief disciple when the time comes!” Ye Yu looked at Guo Yulin as he spoke, “Would you like to try?”

Guo Yulin stepped back in shock, he had never thought that Ye Yu was so powerful. Especially the Wushuang finger, it was almost... he and Yin Junxin were not much different, and Yin Junxin couldn’t stop him and he was definitely not an opponent.

Seeing Yin Junxin being beaten into a pig’s head, Guo Yulin said quickly: “Senior Brother Ye will give me advice!”

“I don’t mind!” Ye Yu said, “helping others is a virtue and should be carried forward!”

Seeing Ye Yu stand up and walk towards him, Guo Yulin quickly stepped back and waved his hand again and again: “Really no need!”

Du Qixi also stopped, looking at Yin Junxin who was swollen into a pig’s head, he laughed, obviously extremely comfortable and happy.

Ye Yu scolded at this time: “The same brothers, what are you doing so ruthlessly? Du Qixi, I didn’t expect you to be such a fellow, and I am ashamed to be with you!”

Du Qixi is inexplicable, and others are equally inexplicable.

But at this time, I saw Ye Yu grabbing Yin Junxin's shoulder and said: "Junior Brother Yin, Du Qixi is not sensible, so I will beat him into a pig head. We are good brothers, and we will definitely help you!"

Yin Junxin was embarrassed by Ye Yu's shoulders. The pain on his face made his mouth twitch from time to time.

Everyone also looked at Ye Yu in a daze. Why is this guy suddenly so enthusiastic about Yin Junxin? Is it really because of conscience?

Yin Junxin tried to struggle to open the shoulders that Ye Yu was holding, but Ye Yu looked like a good brother, and he couldn't get away at all.

"Junior Brother Yin, I have good healing medicines, and I will give you some later." Ye Yu's enthusiasm made Yin Junxin want to stay away from this guy more and more.

"That's right! Brother Yin, your dragon and tiger cut is very interesting, otherwise you have evolved from start to finish to show me, as a senior, I must give you pointers and find out your fault!" Ye Yu looked at us. It looks like a good brother.

"Get out!" Yin Junxin exploded. This guy beat him and was still thinking about his dragon and tiger cut. Why didn't he go to death?

Chapter 70 Seal cutting

"How about swapping my Lie Tao palm for you?" Ye Yu said enthusiastically to Yin Junxin.

Yin Junxin narrowed his bruised eyes and glanced at Ye Yu, then turned his head to the side, not wanting to care about the bastard.

"Don't do this!" Ye Yu grabbed the opponent's shoulders again, and the more he practiced, the more he felt that his combat skills were lacking. Dragon Tiger Slash is very good, more than a few more powerful than his own Lietao Palm, Ye Yu naturally wants to learn.

"Junior Brother Yin, should I trade Wushuang Finger for you?" Ye Yu said to Yin Junxin.

This time, Yin Junxin glanced at Ye Yu unexpectedly. He didn't expect that Ye Yu could actually exchange profound grade combat skills for his Dragon Tiger Slash.

Seeing Yin Junxin doing this, Ye Yu smiled on his face: "I never make a loss-making business, but who calls us brothers, how about it? Let's change this time!"

"No change!" Yin Junxin refused directly. Although Xuanpin's combat skills are good, he can't learn it by himself. What's more, Dragon Tiger Slash is his own unique knowledge, if it is passed out, he will not be killed by addition.

"Damn!" Ye Yu pushed Yin Junxin away. There was just a good brother there, "Waste, get out, don't let me see you, watch you once!"

Everyone was speechless: brothers and brothers called intimacy at the previous moment, but when it is worthless, the next moment will become waste. Don't you do this?

Yin Junxin was called a waste scum, and his bruised face turned red, and he glared at Ye Yu and said angrily: "Huh! Only for the sake of the same sect brother, I let you hand over the identity of the chief disciple. You have to take it, Then you can take it, you will have your hardship then."

Ye Yu looked at Du Qixi and asked, "What bitterness?"

Du Qixi was also confused and shook his head to indicate that he didn't know.

"Who are you scaring?" Ye Yu said to Yin Junxin with disdain, "Don't walk around in front of me in the future. Although disciples of the same discipline can't fight inwardly, I can point you every time I see you."

Yin Junxin snorted: "I just don't accept you as the chief disciple, but I will admit it if you want to sit down. You will know that you are suffering when you wait!"

Speaking of this, Yin Junxin looked at Shi Jingyi. Thinking of how embarrassed he was in front of this bright and moving goddess, he even gritted Ye Yu's teeth very sharply.

"No matter how you dare to pester Junior Poem, Ye Yu, I will definitely not agree!" Yin Junxin threatened Ye Yu and stopped doing superficial work and called Senior Brother Ye Yu.

"Child! Wake up, you can't beat me again!" Ye Yu said to Yin Junxin.

"You..." Yin Junxin flushed, "Senior Brother Liang will not let you go, who doesn't know that Senior Brother Liang has a deep affection for Sister Poem!"

A word made Shi Jingyi appear intoxicating and flushing as pure as the first snow, and her quiet eyes showed a little bit of shame. Shi Jingyi never stayed here anymore, turned and left, with her round jade buttocks and The slender thighs outline a proud curve, and the long willow hair flying in the wind, leaving a moving back.

Ye Yu didn't bother to pay attention to Yin Junxin. He thought that the Lingshi hadn't been taken yet, so he left here directly.

...

Although the battle was filled by the pavilion owner, it was of no use to Ye Yu. He quickly found the place where the spirit stones were buried and brought them out.

Looking at the new formation of Lingshi, Ye Yu thought for a while and dugged directly, after digging more than a dozen pieces. Feeling that he would be discovered by digging further, Ye Yu hurriedly returned to Wenxin Peak with more than twenty spirit stones.

Asked Xinfeng that no one dared to go up, it was the safest to put the spirit stone on it. When they found out that the spirit stone had been dug up, they couldn't find the stolen goods, so naturally they couldn't find themselves.

When Ye Yu just arrived to ask Xinfeng, Chi Bufaan, who was eating meat, was extremely happy to see him: "Brother, what are you doing these days? I tortured brother to death!"

After finishing talking, Chi Bufaan grabbed a big bone in one hand and gnawed at the meat, grabbed him in the other, and took him to Cao Feiyu's cave.

"Let go!" Ye Yu saw that his body was immediately greasy, and he gritted his teeth with hatred.

How can Chi Bufaan be so crazy that he eats 24 hours a day? Whenever I saw him, he was eating meat and his face was greasy. How could he eat it!

Most importantly, this guy often said that he was hungry and thin!

Seeing Ye Yu staring at his meat, Chi Bufaan immediately stared, "If you dare to beat my meat, I will never end with you!"

Looking at the greasy meat, Ye Yu felt nauseous. He glared at the crazy Chi Bu Fat, and didn't bother to care about him.

"Don't blame brother for not giving you food, I can't eat enough myself, and if I give it to you, I'll starve to death!" Chi Bufaan was aggrieved, and the flesh on his face was squeezed together.

"I understand, I understand! Second Brother, you can eat by yourself, I will never fight with you!" Ye Yu stated his position.

“Good, good! What a good junior!” Chi Bufaan looked at Ye Yu with admiration, and then pushed Ye Yu into the cave. “Then junior do me a favor, crying for mourning and starving me to death. Me!”

Ye Yu knows this. Chi Bu Fat and Painted Beauty are all counting on themselves to bear the mourning task on their behalf.

As usual, Cao Feiyu was already crying heartbreaking when Ye Yu entered. Seeing Ye Yu, naturally grabbed Ye Yu and accompany him.

Ye Yu had already exercised handily, and the crying distressed person was not much worse than Cao Feiyu.

Then he entered the flame consciously.

After completing a set of procedures, Ye Yu noticed that his soul had become firmer, but his strength had not improved at all.

After crying, Cao Feiyu dragged Ye Yu to start singing. Ye Yu played with the neurosis until late, and then Cao Feiyu returned to normal.

Seeing Cao Feiyu sitting there normally, Ye Yu remembered what the Master Bi Tao had said, and couldn't help asking Cao Feiyu: “Master, are you a geologist?”

Cao Feiyu glanced at Ye Yu: “Do you want to learn geography?”

Ye Yu nodded and said, “I don't want to learn, but I've already learned it. I have been following the pavilion master to learn these days, and I have been able to take advantage of the geography!”

Cao Feiyu glanced at Ye Yu unexpectedly: “Let's take a look at the formation!”

Ye Yu nodded, his divine consciousness spread around the cave, feeling the potential and geomantic omen of the cave.

This cave is very simple and not difficult to perceive. Ye Yu picked up the bluestone and engraved Dao marks on it. Dao patterns flashed on the bluestone, and finally he was thrown to several places by Ye Yu.

When the bluestone fell to the ground, in the center of a few bluestones, the momentum gathered together, but the gathering momentum was not much.

Cao Feiyu kept watching Ye Yu's movements, and after Ye Yu did it, he didn't say anything.

“Master, how is it?”

Cao Feiyu glanced at Ye Yu, then took out a piece of paper from his arms. Then he threw it on Ye Yu and said, "Seal cutting method, let's learn it. If you don't learn it, it will depend on your talent!"

Ye Yu took it and looked at the piece of paper in his hand, crumpled. If Cao Feiyu hadn't taken it out of his arms, Ye Yu would have thought it was the paper he wiped his buttocks.

"What kind of shit?" Ye Yu saw the rubbish-like paper, he couldn't laugh or cry, his master really did it well.

But thinking that I didn't have a seal cutting method, I thought that although this is rubbish, it is better than nothing.
