Zhang Ruochen was more decisive than everyone expected. He said, “No need to count. If you want to take me to the Adjudication Division, you have to show sufficient evidence. Otherwise, I can’t do it.”

“That’s too arrogant. My lord, please break into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace now. I’m willing to behead Zhang Ruochen myself,” Yao Qing said.

The other enforcers were also angry.

No cultivator had ever dared to look down on the Adjudication Division like that.

Zhuo Yunong was still calm and collected. He said calmly, “Since you want evidence, I’ll give it to you. Bring the witness up!”

A total of seven cultivators walked up to Zhuo Yunong.

One of the cultivators bowed to Zhuo Yunong, then he said, “I was in the prison of the Rakshasas. In Metaform City, I saw a Dimensional Array with a diameter of hundreds of miles appear. It was the spatial power of the Violet Gourd.”

“That’s right. I was nearby and saw the Violet Gourd take in two figures. One of them looked like Cang Baizi,” said the other cultivator.

Zhuo Yunong looked at Zhang Ruochen again at the gate of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and said, “Zhang Ruochen, you have nothing to say now, do you?”

Zhang Ruochen’s expression did not change. He said, “Yes, I did use the Violet Gourd in Metaform City, but I did not take Xing Qian and Cang Baizi. Besides, with my cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, how could I take them in?”

Zhuo Yunong sensed the divine Destiny Division’s saint guard’s aura. From the corner of his eyes, he saw the saint guards appear on the streets. He knew he couldn’t wait any longer.

“Save your words until you arrive at the Adjudication Division!” said Zhuo Yunong.

Zhuo Yunong pointed to the sky.

Instantly, a spiral black cloud appeared above the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Dense lightning interweaved within. The destructive power it released made all cultivators in the city tremble.

It was like a god’s punishment.

BOOM!

A bolt of lightning with a diameter of 30 feet shot out from the black cloud vortex and struck above the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Huang Tian was like a lion that had awoken. It let out a long roar, “You dare to attack Wargod Bloodximius’s palace? You are courting death.”

The tiles, pillars, walls, and windows of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace were covered in dense patterns. They shot out blinding rays of light that clashed with the lightning pillar that descended from the sky.

The entire imperial palace shook.

Seven-Armed Elder stood in the hall. His expression changed again and again. "You... You're too bold. How can you fight head-on with the Adjudication Division?"

Zhang Ruochen's expression was grim. "The cultivation of the Divine Judge is very strong. The Sevenstar Imperial Palace won't last long. You should hide first."

"Hide? Where can I hide?" asked Seven-Armed Elder.

Seven-Armed Elder regretted it. If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have hidden in Xing Qian's body. Although he had avoided Bai Qing'er, he had run into Zhang Ruochen, who was courting death.

"The Qiankun Realm," Zhang Ruochen said.

Seven-Armed Elder asked, "What? Where did you say?"

A Dimensional Gate opened in front of Zhang Ruochen.

He urged, "If you don't want to be captured by the Adjudication Division, go in quickly."

Seven-Armed Elder had no other choice but to step into the Dimensional Gate.

The voice of Intergold Tiger came to Zhang Ruochen's mind from somewhere. "It seems that you can't stay in the Divine Domain of Destiny anymore. How about I give you a hand and help you escape from here?"

"Something has happened. Let's wait a little longer," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen also noticed the saint guards of the Destiny Division. Once the Destiny Division intervened, there was still room for maneuver.

Sure enough, the Destiny Division and the Adjudication Division had a dispute, and the two sides quarreled.

"The Destiny Division has to maintain the order of the divine domain. You should hand Zhang Ruochen over to us."

"Zhang Ruochen killed Xing Qian and captured Cang Baizi. It was a crime against the law of the fane. The Adjudication Division should punish him."

Marshal Qi Xin and Marshal Zhen were both Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints. They blocked all the saint guards who came.

Not long after, a conflict broke out between the two sides and a huge fight broke out.

There were no powerhouses in the Destiny Division, so many of them were defeated by Marshal Qi Xin and Marshal Zhen.

Marshal Qi Xin held a battle-ax in his hand and stepped on a Destiny Guard who was in the Supreme Saint Realm. He grinned and said, “Do you think the Destiny Division wants to compete with the Adjudication Division with just you guys? You guys are suitable to stay on the sacred mountain and be the gatekeepers.”

“Haha!”

All the cultivators of the Adjudication Division burst into laughter.

The Adjudication Division and the Destiny Division had been fighting for many years and both of them had deep grudges against each other. When they had the opportunity to suppress and humiliate the other party, they would naturally spare no effort.

“Your Adjudication Division sure has a big mouth.”

A majestic voice exploded from the sky like thunder.

A beam of white light appeared between heaven and earth and blinded all the cultivators for a short while.

BOOM!

Marshal Qi Xin felt a blast of air hit his chest. Instantly, his body flew out like a cannonball and landed under Zhuo Yunong’s body. He was embedded into the ground and his armor was shattered. His entire body was covered in blood.

When everyone regained their vision.

They saw 100,000 saint guards dressed in armor led by Lord Wu Yue and standing in all directions of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The armor was bright and the saint might was overwhelming. Zhuo Yunong stopped attacking and looked at me. He sighed. “Why does the Destiny Division want to get involved in everything? I thought you were in seclusion, Wu Yue.”

“I heard that something big has happened in the divine domain. Of course, I have to come out. Yunong, how about you hand Zhang Ruochen over to me and let the Destiny Division investigate this?” said Lord Wu Yue.

Zhuo Yunong said, “No! Zhang Ruochen has committed a serious crime. He must be punished by the Adjudication Division.”

Lord Wu Yue guessed that Zhuo Yunong would not let him go easily. He said, “It’s not a good idea for our two divisions to fight here. We will only make the cultivators laugh at us. How about this? Zhang Ruochen can choose who he wants to go with.”

Zhuo Yunong shook his head and said sternly, “You’d better not interfere in this matter. I’m doing this for the fane.”

“What a coincidence! I also want to do something for the fane as well.” Lord Wu Yue’s gaze was like lightning as he looked at Zhuo Yunong.

Although the two top powerhouses below divinity didn’t fight, the auras that erupted from their bodies had already collided.

Killing intent and battle intent were brewing. Lightning, wind blades, and flames of death appeared in the air.

The enforcers of the Adjudication Division and the saint guards of the Destiny Division also erupted with saint might. They clashed and made muffled thunder-like sounds.

Neither side backed down. A battle was about to break out.

Whoosh

Pan Ruo flew over from afar on a meandering River Styx. She landed not far from Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue, she said in a clear voice, “The Adjudication Division and the Destiny Division belong to the Fane of Destiny. The two of you are the pillars of the two departments. How long are you going to stand against each other? Why don't I interrogate Zhang Ruochen myself and you two assist me?"

Chapter 2450: Sophistry

If Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue were present alone, with their cultivation and status, they would not give face to this new Scioness.

No matter how powerful the Scioness was, she was only at the Neverwithers Realm. How could she command them?

They were figures who could break through to the divinity at any time.

However, Pan Ruo chose the perfect timing when the two of them were present and they were at loggerheads.

As long as Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue agreed to let her be the main adjudicator this time, the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Destiny, the Destiny Commanders, and Marshals of the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm would definitely treat Pan Ruo differently from now on.

The Scioness would no longer be just a decoration.

Zhang Ruochen raised his voice and said, "If the Scioness can be the main adjudicator, Divine Judge, and Lord Wu Yue as the jury, it should be fair and just. Of course, I'm willing to go with you."

As he spoke, the inscription of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's array disappeared, and the light gradually dimmed.

Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue felt that the Scioness of Destiny was a way of compromise, so they both agreed.

Zhang Ruochen, Lord Wu Yue, Pan Ruo, Zhuo Yunong, and thousands of enforcers and saint guards went straight to the Scioness Hall of Mount Destiny.

Huo Xing said coldly, "Zhang Ruochen is so lucky. The Destiny Division and Scioness Pan Ruo are involved at the same time. It won't be easy for the Adjudication Division to kill him!"

"I don't think it's luck," Ling said with a meaningful look.

Huo Xing was surprised. “What do you mean?”

Ling said, “Let’s not talk about that. Zhang Ruochen’s life can be taken at any time. However, there is only one Fane of Origin. Finding the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is the most important thing.”

“Didn’t Zhang Ruochen steal the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?” asked Huo Xing.

Ling said, “Is Zhang Ruochen that stupid? He stole the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, but returned to Vastsea Manor to wait for everyone to surround him?”

Huo Xing came back to his senses and nodded. “This is indeed strange.”

Ling secretly transmitted his voice. “Send someone to investigate immediately. From the time Tan Fei self-detonated his Sainthood Source to the time the enforcers set out, who visited the Adjudication Division during this period?”

He thought for a moment and added, “During this period, it’s best to investigate all the cultivators who have entered Mount Destiny. Perhaps there will be a surprise.”

“You suspect that someone framed Zhang Ruochen. The person who framed him is the one who stole the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?” said Huo Xing.

Ling patted Huo Xing’s shoulder and said, “Let’s split up! You go to Mount Destiny. I’ll go to the area where the Violet Gourd appeared according to the witnesses.”

Zhang Ruochen had already destroyed Cang Baizi and Xing Qian’s bodies. Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue naturally didn’t get any results.

The witnesses that Zhuo Yunong had found only saw the Dimensional Array burst out from the Violet Gourd. They didn’t see clearly who had been taken into the gourd. Zhang Ruochen claimed that he had taken in two Saint Realm slaves to deal with them.

Was it wrong for the slaves to escape and use the Violet Gourd to suppress them as their masters?

Should he hand over the two Saint Realm slaves?

He can't, he had already killed them.

The interrogation came to an impasse.

Zhuo Yunong laughed. "What a dead man. Zhang Ruochen, do you dare to let me search your soul and search your memory? As long as your memory is fine, you can leave immediately."

As he spoke, Zhuo Yunong released his spiritual power to form a powerful saint might. His body was as tall as a giant god.

Even Zhang Ruochen's divine power could withstand it, let alone his pressure?

"Search my memory? Zhuo Yunong, how dare you? Do you want to pry into the secrets of the Xue Jue Family, or steal the cultivation experience of the Wargod Bloodximius? Do you really think that the disciples of the Xue Jue Family are for you to push around?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen activated the blood-red aura and injected it into the Wargod Belt.

Suddenly, the simple and unadorned belt on his waist glowed with blood. It released divine qi and the Wargod's will. It condensed into a pair of blood-red bat wings behind Zhang Ruochen's back.

"Wargod Belt."

The cultivators in the Scioness fane were all shocked.

No one had expected that Wargod Bloodximius would give such an important relic to Zhang Ruochen.

How was this like treating a grandson who had just come back from the Celestial Court? Even the eldest son might not receive such treatment.

Zhang Ruochen took out the Destiny Token, he said, "My token is condensed from the divine power of the 12 Reverends, representing the will of the 12 Reverends."

Although I'm not a cultivator of the Fane of Destiny, I can be considered the most honorable guest of the Fane of Destiny, right? With the Destiny Token and having my soul searched, who would want this token in the future? Who would be willing to work for the Fane of Destiny? Who would still respect the 12 Reverends?"

"Don't use the Reverends' name to pressure me," said Zhuo Yunong.

Zhuo Yunong slammed the red copper table heavily, his eyes as sharp as swords.

Zhang Ruochen said, "If you want to search my soul, that's fine. But, do you dare to let Lord Wu Yue search your soul too?"

Lord Wu Yue rubbed his fingers and looked eager to try.

Zhuo Yunong was so angry that he laughed. "I did my best to work for the fane, and I didn't do anything illegal. Why should I be searched?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "If that's the case, please tell everyone who gave you the intelligence that I killed Xing Qian and captured Cang Baizi?"

With the Intergold Tiger using the Apex Intergold Qi to cover up his memory, Zhang Ruochen was not afraid of being searched.

However, he was a genius of the Yuanhui level and the Scion of the Xue Jue Family. He valued his reputation very much.

In the world of saints, It was more humiliating for a cultivator's soul to be searched than kneeling down.

"I can't reveal the informer," Zhuo Yunong said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Why not? Bring him up. I can confront him and find out who killed Xing Qian and captured Cang Baizi."

"I think what Zhang Ruochen said makes sense. Yunong, this is a serious matter. You should summon that person and let him confront Zhang Ruochen," Lord Wu Yue said sincerely.

Zhuo Yunong shook his head and said, “What if Zhang Ruochen seeks revenge on him? I will never hand him over.”

Lord Wu Yue really wanted to say, “Why don’t you let me search your soul and find the answer myself?”.

He thought it was unrealistic, so he gave up.

The trial was in a deadlock again.

Zhuo Yunong changed the topic and said, “Did you kill Tan Fei in the House of Enchanters?”

“Tan Fei? Who’s Tan Fei? I’ve never heard of him,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Marshal Zhen, who was standing in the lower-left corner of Zhuo Yunong, said, “Tan Fei was the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint of the Asuras. He self-detonated his Sainthood Source in the House of Enchanters and died. Before he died, he called out your name and claimed that you killed him.”

“Can there be an even worse way to frame someone?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Marshal Zhen was furious. “You’re saying this is a frame-up? Who do you think is willing to sacrifice a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint to frame a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint?”

Zhang Ruochen knew who Tan Fei was, so he thought of a plan. He said, “Marshal, can you describe Tan Fei’s surroundings, the cultivators present, and his expression when he died in detail?”

“Erm...”

Marshal Zhen glanced at Zhuo Yunong.

Zhang Ruochen had learned from Guye Jing that the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin were in Tan Fei’s hands. He was sure that the cultivators participating in the contest for the divine crystals wouldn’t tell the public the truth.

Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue were both thoughtful people. They must have noticed the clues.

Who was hiding it?

Why?

What had happened that forced a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint to self-destruct?

And why were so many Supreme Saints gathered at the House of Enchanters tonight?

As long as Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue's thoughts were attracted to the House of Enchanters, they would not keep their eyes on Zhang Ruochen.

"It seems that the Death Palace's High Priest is hiding something more important. He just treats me as a blade to get rid of Zhang Ruochen," said Zhuo Yunong. He was extremely displeased and his body emitted waves of cold light.

Lord Wu Yue thought, 'The House of Enchanters is most likely the center of the storm today.'

Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue ignored Pan Ruo. They discussed telepathically with each other for a moment. Then, they communicated with Pan Ruo, who was sitting in the center, to convey their will.

Then Pan Ruo announced, "Xing Qian has been killed, Cang Baizi has been captured, and Tan Fei has self-detonated. These three matters threaten the order of the Divine Domain of Destiny. However, there are still many suspicious points. I have decided to send the Destiny Division and the Adjudication Division to investigate. Zhang Ruochen is still the biggest suspect. He will be temporarily detained in the Scioness Hall."

Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue each led a large group of people to Metaform City where the House of Enchanters was located.

Only Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo were left in the Scioness Hall.

The entire world became quiet!

Zhang Ruochen stood below and stared at the new Scioness sitting above him. He chuckled. "What's the point of being a puppet Scioness?"

There was no joy or sadness on Pan Ruo's face. "It's all thanks to you, isn't it?"

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen felt as if he had been pricked by a needle. For some reason, he thought of the Realm Bearer banquet.

If he wasn't the one who helped Huang Yanchen become a Realm Bearer and sent her to Chi Yao's side, the two might not have parted ways.

Perhaps they would have given birth to children now or fought side by side in Kunlun to survive.

Alternatively, they would have taken the Qiankun Realm, the former ministers and people of the Shenming Central Empire, and their good friends to wander the universe and see the starry world prosper.

Or, for the sake of his children, Zhang Ruochen was willing to give up the hatred in his heart and ignore the life and death feuds in the world. He would find a beautiful place in Guanghan and enjoy the peaceful days of having his children together.

However, if that was the case, Zhang Ruochen would not have grown up in the battle, and it would be even more impossible for him to obtain so many opportunities in Kunlun and the Infernal Court. He might be able to become a god in the future, but he definitely would not be able to go far.

Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and withdrew his thoughts. He smiled self-mockingly. "Today, I have to thank you, the puppet Scioness. Otherwise, the Divine Judge would never have allowed me to speak."

"You shouldn't be thanking me, but your fiancée, Princess Luo Sha. Why do you think Lord Wu Yue would interfere in this matter?" said Pan Ruo. Her expression was cold as she looked out the window.

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a moment, then he said in a low voice, "I was wrong. I take back what I said. Lady Scioness wasn't as useless as I thought. Since you knew Luo Sha's actions, you must have had many spies on Mount Destiny. I've underestimated you. Your methods have grown, and you're no longer like before... where everything can be seen through at a glance."

"If a person doesn't learn and grow, what's the difference between living and dying?" Pan Ruo asked.

Chapter 2451: Blood

Empress and Emperor Ming

The Destiny Division and the Adjudication Division were very efficient. They found the results in less than half a day.

Pan Ruo's figure was as slender as a willow, like a crane in the clouds. She was noble and flawless. She stood in front of the Scioness Hall and reached out to grab the Communication talisman flying from the sky. She glanced at it and then returned to the hall.

"I have good news for you. The Destiny Division found the South-Haven Pollen where Tan Fei self-detonated his Sainthood Source. It's almost certain that the killer of Tan Fei is Seven-Armed Elder."

Zhang Ruochen was meditating with his eyes closed. He was shocked when he heard this.

How could this be?

...

When Tan Fei self-detonated, he had already put Seven-Armed Elder into the Violet Gourd.

Could Seven-Armed Elder have used a spiritual avatar or a puppet body?

No.

There were so many powerful figures gathered in the House of Enchanters. How could Seven-Armed Elder achieve anything with only a clone or a puppet body?

Zhang Ruochen said, "So we can conclude it was Seven-Armed Elder who attacked Tan Fei based on the South-Haven Pollen?"

"Three thousand years ago, Seven-Armed Elder was chased by a pseudo god and used the South-Haven Pollen to escape. The South-Haven Flower is extremely rare. Only Seven-Armed Elder used it once in this Yuanhui period,” Pan Ruo said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I don’t believe only Seven-Armed Elder has South-Haven Pollen with him.”

“Indeed, some top forces should have a small amount of the pollen. But the Divine Judge admitted that the cultivator who told him was Seven-Armed Elder, so the truth is out. It was Seven-Armed Elder who killed Xing Qian, captured Cang Baizi, and killed Tan Fei. In the end, he framed you,” Pan Ruo said.

Although Zhang Ruochen already knew that the Destiny Division would help him and that he would most likely be cleared of his crimes, he still felt ridiculous and was stunned when he heard this conclusion.

Then, a strange look appeared on his face. He found it very funny.

The snitch could not be Seven-Armed Elder.

Zhuo Yunong was a clever person. He conveniently blamed Seven-Armed Elder and gave everyone a reasonable explanation.

It was obvious that there must be an unknown dark deal behind this.

The most miserable was Seven-Armed Elder.

In the Qiankun Realm, the frame fell on his shoulder.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, “Why did Seven-Armed Elder kill Xing Qian and Tan Fei, and why did he capture Cang Baizi? Where is he now?”

“That is not your concern. The Destiny Division and the Adjudication Division have issued the highest-level arrest and bounty orders in the entire Infernal Court to hunt down Seven-Armed Elder,” Pan Ruo said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “How much is the reward?”

“You will know the amount,” said Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo glared at him and said, “Now, you can leave!”

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the Scioness Hall and let out a long sigh. He thought as he hurried on.

The Adjudication Division was willing to give up this opportunity to kill him. Then, they must have encountered something more important. Most likely, they already knew about the birth of the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin. However, this couldn't be announced to the public, so they only announced that Seven-Armed Elder had killed Tan Fei.

Why Seven-Armed Elder had killed Tan Fei was vague.

But who had left the South-Haven Pollen at the scene of Tan Fei's self-explosion?

'Is he helping me? No, he's trying to frame Seven-Armed Elder and shift all the blame onto him.' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen realized that he had to leave the Divine Domain of Destiny immediately.

First of all, the powerhouses of the Adjudication Division and the Destiny Division would immediately calculate the whereabouts of Seven-Armed Elder.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well how powerful the Path of Destiny was in terms of calculation. He was not sure if he could hide Seven-Armed Elder in the Qiankun Realm to avoid their calculation.

The further away he was, the lower the probability of the Fane of Destiny calculating the whereabouts of Seven-Armed Elder.

Secondly, Zhang Ruochen was worried that the Adjudication Division had another plan.

If the Adjudication Division came after him after he left the Divine Domain of Destiny, Zhang Ruochen would definitely kill them all instead of being oppressed like this.

Many cultivators guarding the foot of the mountain looked disappointed when they saw Zhang Ruochen leave safely.

"The Divine Judge can't do anything to Zhang Ruochen. Who can threaten him?"

“Zhang Ruochen has completely established a foothold in the Infernal Court. Let’s wait and see. The next hundreds or even thousands of years will be his era. All cultivators will be trampled under his feet.”

“Isn’t that too much? Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation is only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Below the divinity, there are many cultivators stronger than him,” Huo Xing said.

At the top of a sacred tower not far from Mount Destiny, Bai Qing’er watched Zhang Ruochen leave.

General Pillar said, “You’re very clever. If you want to capture Zhang Ruochen, you can use the Adjudication Division to capture him. If you want to let him out, you can use the South-Haven Pollen to frame Seven-Armed Elder and let him out. Zhang Ruochen, the so-called Yuanhui level genius, can not escape from your palm.”

Bai Qing’er’s face was calm and elegant. She said, “Zhang Ruochen is more powerful than I expected. He should have already discovered the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin on Seven-Armed Elder.”

“How do you know?” General Pillar asked in surprise.

Bai Qing’er said, “Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue failed to find Seven-Armed Elder in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. It can be seen that Zhang Ruochen has hidden Seven-Armed Elder in a very secret place. Moreover, both the Adjudication Division and the Destiny Division want to capture Seven-Armed Elder and offer a huge reward. Don’t you think it’s strange that Zhang Ruochen didn’t hand Seven-Armed Elder over?

“The only possibility is that Zhang Ruochen knows that Seven-Armed Elder has extraordinary value. The two of them have likely reached an agreement.”

General Pillar said, “Is there another possibility? Has Seven-Armed Elder already possessed Zhang Ruochen?”

Bai Qing’er didn’t say anything.

General Pillar said, “What do you mean? Seven-Armed Elder’s spiritual power has reached the 69th level. It shouldn’t be difficult for him to possess Zhang Ruochen.”

“Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual will is strong enough to condense the Grade Two Saintwill. How could Seven-Armed Elder possess him? Besides, even if he succeeds, he’ll die. How could Wargod Bloodximius let go of the cultivator who possessed his grandson?” said Bai Qing’er.

She continued, “If I’m not wrong, Zhang Ruochen should immediately leave the Divine Domain of Destiny and return to the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan.”

Lord Turtle stuttered, “Then... then... then... how...”

General Pillar ignored it and said, “Once Zhang Ruochen returns to the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan, he will be like a fish in the sea. No one can stop him. If we want to capture him, we can only intercept him halfway.”

“Who said no one can stop him?” Bai Qing’er said.

General Pillar knew that she had always been bold and often did shocking things. He was a little worried, he advised, “The Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan is the most deeply rooted place of the power of the Xue Jue Family. The Xue Jue Family has three true gods. Please don’t take the risk.”

“The Jadeite Realm is about to open. Most of the gods will go there. The Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan is not a dangerous place. Why can’t I go there? Whether it’s the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin or Seven-Armed Elder, I want to take it back.”

Bai Qing’er extended her five soft and white fingers slowly. She grabbed at Zhang Ruochen’s tiny figure that was already far away. She closed her fingers and clenched them into a fist. It was as if she was holding him in her palm.

No one could take away what belonged to her.

...

The Ashuran Planet was the core territory of the Asuras. Its status was equivalent to the ten Dominions of the Immortal Vampires.

It stood in the starry sky and was hundreds of millions of miles tall, emitting brilliant starlight. Stars floated in the sky like specks of light, as small as dust.

At the top of the Ashuran Planet, the light was the brightest. It was one of the most sacred places of the Asura clan, the Asuran Sea of Warsouls.

The Ashuran Planet's cultivators who had ascended from other worlds had all walked out of the Sea of Warsouls. They had to go through the cleansing of the Sea of Warsouls before being reborn and becoming a true Asura.

The Asuran Sea of Warsouls was boundless. The Asuran Battle Qi condensed into a liquid state and rolled around endlessly, creating thousands of huge waves. In the sea further away, lightning flashed through and gave off terrifying destructive waves that even the Supreme Saint could not approach.

Whoosh

A figure wearing a black robe flew out from the universe and landed by the Sea of Warsouls.

He took off the black cloak on his head and revealed a 30-year-old face. He had a beard and his eyes were sharp and deep. His nose bridge was high and his figure was tall and straight. He had a majestic aura as he strode into the sea.

Just as he reached the sea, he suddenly stopped and asked in a deep voice, "Who is it?"

His voice was even louder than the thunder in the distance.

His flesh, blood, and bones moved. His face instantly changed, turning into the appearance of Ki Tian.

Blood Empress stepped on the waves of the Sea of Warsouls and walked out from the bolts of lightning. Her eyes were burning with divine light as she stared unblinkingly at the black-robed man. Although she had already tried her best to control her emotions, her body still trembled slightly.

The black-robed man had never expected Blood Empress would appear here.

Even though he had imagined countless times that the two of them would meet again and told himself that he absolutely could not let the other party see any flaws, in the end, he could not control the emotions that he had suppressed for 800 years.

He really wanted to turn around and escape, and he also really wanted to avert his gaze. However, his body seemed to have been petrified as he stood rooted to the spot without moving.

“What’s the point of trying to hide it? Should I call you Ki Tian or call you Zhang Ling?”

Blood Empress walked in front of him. Her gaze was as bitter as when they parted 800 years ago.

The difference was that this time, the hatred was even stronger.

The black-robed man smiled bitterly. “Qingyin!”

His face gradually changed back.

“So you’ve cultivated the higher knowledge of Trāyastriṃśa. The black and white dual body can transform between the Asura body and the human body. You must have some other secret treasure on you, right? Otherwise, you can’t hide from the Reverend of the Fane of Destiny with the black and white forms,” said Blood Empress.

The black-robed man said, “No need to ask. I won’t tell you.”

“Just like 800 years ago?” asked Blood Empress.

Blood Empress’ voice became colder and sharper. A sparkling light appeared in her eyes, she said, “Eight hundred years ago, I promised you that I would stay in the Endless Abyss. Before Kunlun was conquered by the Infernal Court, or before I cultivated to become a god, or before you sent news, I would never come out.

“At that time, I asked you why? You told me not to ask and to wait for your news. I didn’t ask because I believed in you.

“I did what I promised you! But you promised me that you would take good care of Chen’er. Did you do it?

“Zhang Ling, you have disappointed me. You are not fit to be a husband or a father.”

Just as the black-robed man was about to speak, Blood Empress interrupted him, "It has been eight hundred years. Have you ever thought about how I have spent my time in the Endless Abyss? Have you ever thought about going to the Endless Abyss to visit me during these eight hundred years?"

"Just to wait for your news, I lost my temper and imprisoned myself in the Endless Abyss for eight hundred years. I thought that one day, you would come to the Endless Abyss to look for me, but that day never came.

"Actually, when I found out about your disappearance and Chen'er's death in the 16th year, I cried for a long time. After staying in the Endless Abyss for 800 years, I sometimes wondered if you had also been killed. There was no point in continuing to wait. But because I trusted you, I chose to continue waiting.

"It would have been great if you were dead. Why did you suddenly appear in front of me?"

The black-robed man did not dare to look her in the eye. He closed his eyes slightly and said, "I'm sorry."

"Just because you apologize doesn't mean it's all okay. There are many people that you've let down. Other than Chen'er and I, there are also the officials and citizens of the Shengming Central Empire who have followed your Zhang family." said Blood Empress.

Although the words of Blood Empress were harsher than the last, her eyes were already filled with tears. She said, "The truth. I only want to know the truth now."

The black-robed man regained his spirit and straightened his back. He walked from behind Blood Empress to the edge of the Sea of Warsouls and looked at the endless sea, he said, "You should know that to become an Asura, to ascend to the Sea of Warsouls, you need to kill. Killing many, many people, making yourself cruel and bloodthirsty. Not only do you have to do this, but you also have to make your heart completely become like that. It's not a good feeling."

“If you killed for me, turned into an Asura, and joined the Infernal Court, I would definitely be touched, and even forgive you for your ruthlessness and coldness for 800 years. But in fact, it’s not. You joined hands with the Avīci Pavilion and killed the new Scioness Fuurei. What exactly are you trying to do by sneaking into the Infernal Court?” Blood Empress questioned.

The black-robed man said, “So there was a mistake there. When Chen’er was targeted by the Adjudication Division, you didn’t make a move. You must be trying to force me to make a move and then find me, right?”

Blood Empress said, “If you can do nothing to save Chen’er, I won’t give you a chance to speak. What you will receive are my palm strike and the Blood Mirror.”

The black-robed man frowned and his eyes were full of sorrow, he said, “Qingyin, I have let you and Chen’er down during these 800 years. But I only did it to survive and to live with more people. You asked me why I let you stay in the Endless Abyss 800 years ago. In fact, I only wanted you to continue living. Kunlun can not accommodate an Immortal Vampire, just like the Adjudication Division can not accommodate Chen’er.

“Among home, country, and the world, I must make a choice. If the world is gone, where will there be home and country?

“The disappearance or death of Emperor Ming in the past, isn’t that a good thing for you? Can Infernal Court accommodate an Immortal Vampire who has fallen in love with the humans of Kunlun? No. In this dangerous and chaotic world, many people are struggling on the edge of death. I would prefer you to be the daughter of Wargod Bloodximius and not Zhang Ling’s wife.

“When a person stands in that position, he must bear the responsibility that he should bear. Even if he has to abandon everything, he will not hesitate to do so. I owe you and Chen’er. After I finish that matter, I can pay you back with my life.

“At that time, I will definitely tell you the truth.”

With a swoosh, the black-robed man turned into a streak of light and rushed into the Asuran Sea of Warsouls, disappearing at the place where the lightning was densest.

Blood Empress stood alone by the sea, gazing at his departing back. She could no longer hold back the tears in her eyes, which flowed down like a spring. She could not do anything to the man she loved all her life.

...

Eight hundred years to become a god. Was Chi Yao's talent in cultivation so good? Her mother's identity had been ignored!

Chapter 2452: The Lady, Peach Blossom, and the Assassin

Even the gods might not be able to tell how vast the Infernal Court was. The cultivators could only look at a vast river of stars that stretched across the universe from afar. It had existed since ancient times and was like a river styx.

It was a river formed from countless stars.

The Infernal Court, of course, had boundaries. There were thousands of planets strewn about. The ten clans' and the Fane of Destiny's forces had dwindled. This place was ruled by dark forces and various large and small clans.

The Royal City of Hundred Clans was a very famous city at the border of the Infernal Court. It was a royal city built by 137 small clans. It was used to fight against the increasingly powerful forces of darkness. It was also used to negotiate with the Fane of Destiny and the ten great clans, it was used to fight for greater benefits.

Only by fighting together would one have the right to speak.

In the Royal City of Hundred Clans, there were cultivators of all shapes and sizes everywhere. They wore different clothes, had different cultures, and even spoke different languages.

The coexistence of many clans created the prosperity of this place, but it also made it very difficult to manage it. It was precisely because of this that the cultivators of the Celestial Court could easily enter the city and inquire about the news of the Infernal Court.

The Ghostplane was built in the eastern city of the Royal City of Hundred Clans. It was a dense forest that covered an area of ten thousand acres. Spectral flames floated in the forest, but there was also endless laughter. It was a gloomy yet exciting place.

Peach Blossom was sitting under a building built from the bones of a giant beast, tasting the blood wine brewed by the Sengens¹ alone.

The wine brewed from fresh blood had a different taste.

The skeleton building was tied with red caltrops and wind chimes.

The cold wind blew, the wind chimes swayed, and the red caltrops fluttered.

It was very pleasant to hear, and also very beautiful!

But Peach Blossom was even more beautiful.

She looked like she was only twenty years old. She was young and beautiful, and her skin was even more delicate than a baby's. Her eyes were bright and big, and there were three pink peach blossoms marking between her eyebrows, making her look very spiritual. She was as enchanting as a flower fairy.

She sat on the greenstone, and the blood wine in her cup was as sparkling as amber.

In the Ghostplane, many cultivators were looking at her from afar, their eyes drooping. After all, it was not every day that a beautiful woman like her could be seen.

No one dared to go up and drink with her, let alone think of holding her in their arms or pressing her under their bodies.

That was because there were already seventeen corpses floating in the pool in front of her.

Their blood dyed the pool red like wine in a cup.

Those corpses were all cultivators who had once dreamed of drinking with her.

Among them, there were extremely handsome men, powerful Saint Realm cultivators, and noble young masters. Without exception, no matter if they wanted to strike up a conversation or had a deeper purpose, they were all killed and fell into the pool.

The owner of the Ghostplane didn't dare to approach her. She only hoped that this beautiful god of death would leave as soon as possible.

At this moment, another man walked towards the pool.

Excited laughter sounded in the Ghostplane as they prepared to watch the show.

They wanted to see how that man would be killed.

Since ancient times, countless men have died because of their beauty. It was like a moth that knew it would burn to death but still continued to plunge into the flames.

From this, it could be seen that their deaths were not unjustified.

That man was dressed in shabby clothes and held a rusty iron sword. He did not look old, and there was no aura of the Path emanating from his body.

He was no different from an ordinary human who had just learned how to cultivate the sword.

The cultivators who were watching from afar were very curious. How did such a poor human with low cultivation enter the Royal City of Hundred Clans? And how did he enter the Ghostplane?

It didn't matter!

He was going to die soon anyway.

Ten steps, nine steps, eight steps...

Under everyone's surprised, shocked, and curious gazes, he walked to the woman with three peach blossom petals between her eyebrows and sat down.

He sat on the same greenstone.

He casually picked up the wine cup on the greenstone and took a sip.

“I found her! I found her! I know who she is! She’s the number one emperor-level assassin of the Emyrean Assassins and her name is Peach Blossom. Legend has it that there isn’t a cultivator under divinity that she can’t kill... How... How is this possible...”

The black-skinned cultivator who had just run over stared in shock at the man and woman sitting close to the pond. He lowered his head and stared at the information he had just found. He wasn’t sure if this woman was the same Peach Blossom!

According to the information, Peach Blossom wouldn’t allow any cultivator to enter within ten meters of her.

She wouldn’t allow a man to sit next to her and drink her wine.

“If you say that she is the Peach Blossom, then who is the man sitting next to her? Is it a peach blossom tree or a peach blossom leaf? Haha!”

“I think it’s a Love Tribulation!”

Many cultivators were laughing at her. They did not believe that the famous Peach Blossom would appear in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Peach Blossom was indeed the number one assassin below the divinity of the Emyrean Assassins. Just like the rumors in the outside world, she believed that there was no cultivator below the divinity that she could not kill.

In fact, she should have transcended the Divine Tribulation long ago and stepped into the divinity.

However, she knew that once she transcended the Divine Tribulation, it would be the time of her death. Therefore, she had been suppressing her realm.

Why?

It was because she had already killed too many people and had a knot in her heart.

The reason why she had a knot in her heart was that she still had good thoughts in her heart. Every time she killed someone, her heart would resist and she would feel uncomfortable.

Every time she killed someone, there would be an additional knot in her heart.

Her inner demons would also become stronger.

However, after killing for thousands of years, she was already used to killing people.

Killing people was the most direct and fastest way to solve problems.

She sat there drinking and waiting for people. She hated it the most when people came over and looked at her with eyes that wanted to possess her.

If she didn't kill them, would she have to waste time and reason with them?

She had never been a person who liked to reason. That would be a more painful thing than killing someone.

She hated everyone in the world. Perhaps if there was no one in the world, she would be free and quiet. She could think about whether she should learn calligraphy or embroidery next.

Of course, that was in the past.

She now had someone in her heart she didn't hate, the only person in the world she didn't hate. Despite the fact that this person had been against her for some time, she was secretly happy in her heart because she thought this was an interesting thing.

It was the man in cloth beside her.

He was also a killer.

His name was Le.

There was once when Peach Blossom was fighting with her inner demon and was injured severely. They were floating in the universe and could not move their bodies. The Saint Qi on their bodies kept spreading out, causing a peach blossom forest to grow around their bodies.

Perhaps she floated for a year, or perhaps for ten years...

Too Long.

Very Long.

She thought that she would die just like that.

She could be free from this.

Le entered the peach blossom forest at that time. He found her naked and motionless in the deepest part of the peach blossom forest.

Peach Blossom had always been very confident. Not only did she kill people, but she was also very confident about her appearance and figure.

More than 90% of the people she killed were men who coveted her beauty.

She knew men too well. Even if those men knew that she was the king of killers, let alone that she could not move now, there would still be countless men who were not afraid of death and would pounce on her.

But this time, she guessed wrong. She thought that Le would assault her, but he did not. Perhaps he was not interested in her, or perhaps the people chasing him were too strong, so he could only suppress his desire.

The cultivator chasing Le was Wu Wang of the Cha Realm, a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint.

Wu Wang chased into the peach blossom forest, and Le hid.

Wu Wang obviously knew that Le was hiding nearby, but he could not ignore such a beautiful woman as Peach Blossom. Moreover, with his cultivation, he did not put Le, who had just broken through to the Supreme Saint Realm, in his eyes.

Wu Wang, who cultivated the evil cultivation method, only wanted to harvest Peach Blossom and let his cultivation base advance by leaps and bounds.

At that time, Peach Blossom's heart was filled with extreme disgust. She wished she could die just like that.

She originally thought that Le would take this opportunity to escape. However, she did not expect that he would suddenly stand out and stand right next to her, facing Wu Wang directly.

That scene brought endless shock to Peach Blossom.

Le's Back was the most straight back she had ever seen since she started cultivating. She could never forget it.

Of course, Le was no match for Wu Wang. However, his sword techniques were almost all moves that would lead to mutual destruction.

In the end, he fought until he was seriously injured and on the verge of death, temporarily scaring Wu Wang away.

Le immediately escaped with Peach Blossom. He hid in the universe and evaded Wu Wang's pursuit for a whole three months.

In fact, the moment she remembered Le, Peach Blossom had already suppressed her inner demon. But she did not immediately kill Wu Wang. Because she wanted to see if Le was faking it and if he had other plans for her.

It was precisely for this reason that she met the most tenacious man on the planet during those three months. No matter how desperate she was forced to become, no matter how many injuries she sustained, no matter how dangerous the situation appeared to be, it did not appear to be able to overwhelm him.

He would always be able to make it through and bring her along to survive.

And he was also the most indifferent man in the world. It was as if he had no interest in her, this peerless beauty.

He saved her only because she was a weak woman who had no way of fighting back.

If it was a rabbit or a cat, perhaps he would have done the same.

In the end, Wu Wang died under Le's sword. She did not have the chance to make a move in the end.

Le's cultivation was improving too quickly.

Before she left, she asked Le, "Are we friends?"

"I only have one friend, but it's not you," he said.

When they met again, it was the day she accepted the mission to kill Zhang Ruochen on the Supreme Saint Bounty List. From that day on, not only could they not be friends, but they also became enemies.

Le had been chasing her for a whole month, from the Celestial Court all the way to the Infernal Court, just to stop her from killing Zhang Ruochen.

During that time, they had also exchanged a few blows.

Actually, it was not really a battle, because every time, Le would be severely injured by her, and he would not be able to fight back at all.

She had thought that Le would definitely retreat in the face of difficulties.

However, every time, Le could catch up again.

Just like this time.

Peach Blossom looked at the wine cup in Le's hand and said, "You're the first person who dares to drink my wine."

"I'm just thirsty. After all, to chase you, I've been flying in the universe for three days without sleep or rest." said the man. After the man drank the wine, his pale face finally regained some color.

Peach blossom said, "You're too slow! With your speed, you still want to stop me from going to the Infernal Court to kill people?"

"Didn't I catch up?" said the man.

"If I don't wait for you, can you catch up? Besides, so what if you could catch up? I can kill you with one strike. You can't stop me," said Peach Blossom.

The man shook his head and said, "You can't kill me."

"You're only in the Neverwithier Realm. How dare you say I can't kill you?" said Peach Blossom furiously.

Peach Blossom was a little angry. She had to kill Zhang Ruochen on this trip to the Infernal Court. It wasn't just because she had accepted the mission on the Supreme Saint Bounty List. It was also because of the leader's will.

However, the man in front of her had repeatedly tried to stop her because he had previously saved her.

Even though she wanted him to stop her, he shouldn't have said that he couldn't kill him.

Did he really think that he was immortal?

A man could do whatever he wanted because a woman liked him. This was something a woman couldn't stand.

Crack

A sword light flashed on the surface of the pool.

Blood splattered everywhere.

Exclamations and jeers rang out in the Ghostplane.

That man still died at the hands of that beautiful killer, and he was no exception.

But soon, their laughter stopped.

They saw that the man was still sitting on the greenstone without moving. Although one of his arms had been cut off, he seemed to be unable to feel pain. He said, "See, I told you, you can't kill me."

CRACK!

The sword light flashed again.

His other arm was also cut off.

Peach Blossom raised her chin slightly and looked down at him. Her whole body was trembling.

Blood kept gushing out of the man's shoulders, she continued, "I think you'd better not be a killer, let alone be my enemy, because your heart has softened. You won't kill me, but I will kill you. Don't go to the Infernal Court again. Don't kill Zhang Ruochen. If you kill him, you will die by my sword in the future. My Heart is colder than yours."

Of course, Peach Blossom knew that she couldn't kill Le now.

However, her stubbornness and pride as a first-class powerhouse under the divinity made it impossible for her to admit defeat, let alone show her weak side.

Peach Blossom turned around and said, "I don't want to take the risk to enter the Infernal Court to kill people, but Shadow Incense failed, so I have no choice but to go."

"No, you have a choice. You can leave the organization and choose another way to live," Le said.

Peach Blossom shook her head with a smile and said, "Leaving the organization, what awaits me is death. Besides, I can't do anything else besides killing people. Can you leave the Fane of Death? Can you do anything else besides killing people?"

"If you're willing to leave the organization and give up on killing Zhang Ruochen, I'll leave the Fane of Death now. The universe is vast. There must be a place that can accommodate us," said Le.

Peach Blossom's heart trembled. "Us?"

"Don't get me wrong. I'm talking about people like us," Le said.

"Humph! Just wait to collect Zhang Ruozhen's corpse!" said Peach Blossom.

Peach Blossom's body turned into a rain of peach blossom petals, breaking through the night sky and flying off in an unknown direction.

In the air, the fragrance of peach blossoms still lingered.

Chapter 2453: A Streak of Sword Qi

In the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan.

On a blood lake not far from the Xue Jue Family's home, the power fluctuation was chaotic. Thunder and lightning shuttled between the sky and the water like pythons. The flames turned into divine dragons that burned the heaven and earth like bronze furnaces, and the strong gales were as sharp as knives, the cuts made the surface of the lake emit a series of deep explosive sounds.

Zhang Ruochen looked relaxed. He stood by the lake and stared at the Ancient Abyssal Sword hovering above the lake.

He was transcending the third King's Calamity.

The four calamities of wind, fire, water and thunder lasted for a whole day. When the dark clouds in the sky dispersed, the 800-mile blood lake had dried up, leaving only black scorched earth at the bottom of the lake.

CLANG!

The body of the Ancient Abyssal Sword still had thunder, fire dragon, water current, and the strong wind blowing on it, making an ear-piercing sword chime.

The sound of the sword echoed for thousands of miles.

Zhang Ruochen reached out his hand and grabbed at nothing. The Ancient Abyssal Sword turned into a shooting star and flew into his hand.

The four marks of calamity on the sword became deeper.

There were very few Regal Artifacts that could absorb the power of the calamity and condense the marks of calamity. These four marks represented the extraordinariness of the Ancient Abyssal Sword. The Godstone embedded in the hilt of the sword emitted pure divine power. It also absorbed the heaven and earth Saint Qi and the precepts of heaven and earth all the time.

Although the Ancient Abyssal Blade was a Class Three Regal Artifact, in Zhang Ruochen's eyes, it was more powerful than any Class Four Regal Artifact.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen waved his sword casually.

A streak of purple-black sword Qi flew out in front of him and tore apart the 800-mile-long dry lake, leaving a 30-meter-wide and 1,000-mile-long sword Qi valley.

The patrolling guards of the Xue Jue family saw Zhang Ruochen easily splitting the 1,000-mile-wide valley with a sword. They all straightened their backs and looked at him with respect and admiration, he was indeed a Yuanhui level hero who had led the Immortal Vampires to win the first place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

"If only I could become the trusted guard of Scion Ruochen. I will definitely rise to great heights in the future."

"In terms of kinship, I am the cousin of Scion Ruochen."

"Come on, you are just a distant relative! Are you from the line of Wargod Bloodximius?"

Almost all the cultivators of the younger generation of the Xue Jue Family had recognized Zhang Ruochen's identity. He seemed to be the pride of the new generation of the Xue Jue Family. There were countless admirers.

Whoosh

Not far from Zhang Ruochen, strands of blood qi gathered and condensed into the figure of Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

Zhang Ruochen sensed something and put away the Ancient Abyssal Sword. He turned around and smiled. "Uncle has come to see me at this time. It seems that you brought good news."

Zhang Ruochen said, “I wanna hear the good news first!”

“The rewards from the Fane of Immortality have come. Three Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pills and one Divine Blood Armor. In addition, three other deities want to take you as a disciple. The Bloodregius Legion has also sent an invitation to you,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said enviously.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and shook his head. “I’m not interested in becoming a disciple for the time being. As for the Bloodregius Legion, it’s interesting, but I’m afraid I can’t go now!”

The Bloodregius Legion was the most powerful army under the Fane of Immortality. It was made up of the elites of the Immortal Vampires.

If he went there, he would definitely meet many powerful Supreme Saints. It would help him hone his battle techniques.

“I’m still interested in the pills and armor the Fane of Immortality rewards,” said Zhang Ruochen.

“I’ll wait for you in the meeting hall,” said Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s clone dispersed.

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift to leave the dry lake.

The Array Master of the Xue Jue family rushed over immediately to restore the ecological environment around the dry lake.

A moment later, Zhang Ruochen returned to the Xue Jue family. In the meeting hall, he saw Supreme Saint Qingsheng. He received three Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pills and a Divine Blood Armor.

The three Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pills were the Pill of Thousand Paths, the Pill of Desire, and the Great Restoration Pill.

The Pill of Thousand Paths was a pill that helped cultivators at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm to cultivate the Precept Domain and breakthrough into the Thousand-Koan Realm.

The Pill of Desire was a pill that helped cultivators at the Hundred-Shackle Realm break through the 100th shackle, the Shackle of Desire.

The Great Restoration Pill was a healing pill used by Supreme Saints above the Thousand-Koan Realm. As long as one was still breathing, they could recover in a short time no matter how serious their injuries were.

The Elixir Spirits of the three Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pills were comparable to the cultivation of a Supreme Saint in the Early-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. From this, it could be seen how magnanimous the Fane of Immortality was.

Of course, they were also Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills. The value of these three pills added together was far from comparable to Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills.

This was because it was extremely difficult for a Saintwill Pill to produce a King Grade Pill. Only the Grand Supreme Master could have the chance to refine a Quasi-Emperor Grade.

“The Fane of Immortality is too kind. It seems that they want to help me breakthrough into the Thousand-Koan Realm as soon as possible,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen put away the three Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pills, studied the Divine blood Armor, and put it into his Ring of Dimensions.

He knew that the Divine Blood Armor was made of divine blood and various divine materials for refining weapons. Putting it on, its defensive power was needless to say. It could also burst out a divine’s power, greatly increasing a cultivator’s combat power.

However, Zhang Ruochen had several unique armors. None of them were weaker than the Divine Blood Armor.

For example, the Armor of the Fire God, and the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light...

Thus, the Divine Blood Armor wasn't too attractive to him.

"The Fane of Destiny and the Fane of Immortality have both given rewards," Zhang Ruochen said. "The leader of the Immortal Vampires doesn't plan to give any rewards? Shouldn't the Bloodysky Clan give something as well?"

Zhang Ruochen continued, "As far as I know, after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, the Bloodysky Clan's ranking has changed from tenth to eighth. The Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan seems to have entered a higher plane. I can feel that the concentration of the blood-red aura in the entire Macroworld has increased significantly.

"Oh, the Xue Jue Family should also give me a reward, right? I heard that Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao have both received a reward."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng had mixed feelings. His face turned dark. He said, "You have more treasures than the gods. Do you really need it? I believe you won't be interested in ordinary rewards, am I right?"

"Uncle, why do you sound so upset? I led the Immortal Vampires to the first place of the ten clans. Shouldn't I get a reward? I improved the ranking of the Bloodysky Clan. I made the Xue Jue Family famous. All of this was done with my life. Don't tell me I don't have a place to reason with?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng felt even worse. He said, "Don't tell me this. I'm just a temporary leader. All my wealth added up isn't even one-tenth of yours. You have to reason with Wargod Bloodixmius and the leader. Ask them to give you a reward."

Zhang Ruochen nodded seriously. "That's right. We should talk to Wargod Bloodximius about this."

"Wargod Bloodximius and the clan leader, and most of the Immortal Vampires' gods have already left for the Jadeite Realm. I'm afraid you'll have to wait a long time for a reward," Supreme Saint Qingsheng said with a smile.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Since uncle is the clan leader, you can decide what the clan should reward me, right? I don't want any other treasures. How about 100,000 Godstones?"

Supreme Saint Qing Sheng's expression was solemn, "Speaking of rewards, I have some bad news for you," he said. "Yesterday, as the head of the family, I announced that I would give you the property of the Xue Jue family on Hoth. After that, Madam Nixuan left the family today. I guess she most likely went to Hoth."

"We discussed the property on Hoth before. How did it become a reward for me?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng pretended not to hear him and continued to lower his voice, "Hoth's benefits are amazing," he said. "Madam Nixuan will definitely not give it away. Now that she's in charge, it's almost impossible for you to take over the properties. I suggest that you stay in the family to cultivate for the next period. First, raise your cultivation to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Then you can make the next step."

Zhang Ruochen could see that his uncle was a very stingy person. If he continued to ask for rewards, he would most likely pretend not to hear him.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen did not lack Godstones. He just wanted to take this opportunity to make Supreme Saint Qingsheng owe him a favor.

A favor from a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint was more precious than 100,000 Godstones in his eyes.

Zhang Ruochen pretended to be disappointed and said self-deprecatingly. He said, "Both Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao have rewards, but I, as the biggest contributor, have nothing. As the head of the family, you shouldn't be so biased, right?"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng blushed and felt guilty. He felt that he had indeed mistreated Zhang Ruochen. He was about to say something, and Zhang Ruochen said again, "Forget it. I know my uncle's difficulties. He just became the head of the family. He wants to work hard and make the family grow. Every Godstone must be used on the blades. Giving me 100,000

Godstones is equivalent to training 100,000 fewer saints and Saint Kings.”

“Ruochen, it’s rare for you to understand my situation. I’m really touched,” said Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

Although he said this, Supreme Saint Qingsheng was thinking in his heart. What was Zhang Ruochen planning?

100,000 Godstones was something even he, a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, dreamed of. Would Zhang Ruochen not want it? He definitely had other intentions.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Actually, I have something I want to ask my uncle for help with.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng secretly guessed that Zhang Ruochen wanted him to deal with Madam Nixuan, so he did not agree immediately. He said, “Just ask. As long as uncle can do it, I will help you.”

Another meaning of this sentence was...

If it’s beyond one’s ability, then there’s nothing one can do!

To go to Hoth to deal with Madam Nixuan, could be dangerous even for a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. If she was really cornered, she would do anything.

Zhang Ruochen saw Supreme Saint Qing Sheng’s worry and smiled. He said, “Don’t worry, uncle. I’m not asking you to go with me to Hoth. I can handle Hoth myself. You don’t have to do anything.”

Supreme Saint Qing Sheng understood what he meant and said seriously, “You still want to go to Hoth?”

“Uncle has given me the properties of Hoth. If I don’t go, won’t I be laughed at by all the cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng knew that Zhang Ruochen wasn’t a reckless person. Since he dared to go to Hoth, he must have some confidence.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng thought, ‘Why was this kid so confident?’

‘What trump cards did he have?’

“Alright,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said. “Since you’ve made up your mind, of course I’ll support you. Later, I’ll get someone to give you the details of Hoth. How many cultivators do you plan to take with you to Hoth?”

“I have not much faith in our family’s cultivator, so I’m not bringing any,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng looked at Zhang Ruochen with a complicated expression. He was curious, confused, appreciative, and worried. He said, “What did you say you want me to do for you?”

Zhang Ruochen smiled enigmatically. He said, “It’s a big deal! If you could do it, the family’s development would be just around the corner. However, we still have to wait. I’ll send you a message in three months. By then, I should have taken Hoth.”

He was, of course, referring to the search for the Fane of Origin.

After Zhang Ruochen left the meeting hall, Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s old face was still filled with shock, he murmured, “Take Hoth in three months? Nonsense. impossible. Absolutely impossible. Zhang Ruochen was still too young. He didn’t understand how powerful Madam Nixuan was. Furthermore, Hoth is her territory.”

The Progenitor Pond was located above the underground divine vein of the Xue Jue family. It was one of the family’s forbidden areas. Even a Supreme Saint might not be qualified to enter.

The pool was bottomless. During the day, it was blood red.

At night, it was sparkling white. It was like a moon embedded in the ground.

When Zhang Ruochen came to the Progenitor Pond, it was already nighttime. The blood-red sky had turned dark red.

However, the pool water was bright and rosy. There was a layer of white fluorescence on the surface of the water.

In the center of the pool was a square-shaped altar. Mysterious Divine Marks were carved on the altar, shining like earthworms.

Chi Kongyue was lying in the center of the altar. She was wearing white clothes and a jade pendant in the shape of a swallow hung on her neck.

The power of the Progenitor Pond kept flowing into her body through the Divine Marks on the altar. It balanced the powerful Asuran Battle Qi in her body, as well as the divine soul and divine spirits left by Asurendra Samay.

Every time he came to the Progenitor Pond, Zhang Ruochen could only stand by the pond and watch from afar.

Lord Ming appeared by the pond and said, "Before your mother and Wargod Bloodximius went to the Jadeite Realm, they left her in my care."

"How long will it take for her to wake up?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Ming said, "She can't wake up until she has refined the divine soul and divine spirits of Asurendra Samay. You see her lying there. In fact, she is constantly fighting with the divine soul and divine spirits. She is fighting with the battle Qi while cultivating at the same time. Her cultivation has been improving."

Zhang Ruochen tightened his hands and said, "She is still so young. What if she can't bear it?"

Lord Ming said, "You're right. The biggest test for her is her will. The Xue Jue Family has already used the Progenitor Pond to help her. If she still can't survive, this is her destiny."

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and thought, 'Kongyue, I look forward to the day you wake up.'

After a while.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his fists and bowed to Lord Ming. "Thank you for taking care of Kongyue, uncle."

Lord Ming waved his hand. He didn't seem to care. "I'm studying the mysteries of the Progenitor Pond anyway. I just need to send out a divine spirit and pay attention to her."

"I'm going to Hoth in a few days. I want to ask for a streak of sword Qi from you," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Ming asked, "Who are you going to use it against?"

"You should know," Zhang Ruochen said.

As a god, how could he not know what was going on in the Xue Jue Family?

Zhang Ruochen was sure that Lord Ming would help him in dealing with Madam Nixuan.

Lord Ming paced around the pond. After nine steps, he stopped, "Gods can't interfere in the fight between mortals," he said. "Before leaving, Wargod Bloodximius told me that I can't go against the rules of Celestial Court and Infernal Court."

Zhang Ruochen said, "My uncle bestowed on me a streak of sword Qi to help me save my life. To protect me from Madam Nixuan when she tries to kill me."

"Are you sure Madam Nixuan will kill you?" Lord Ming asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I will force her to do it."

"Well, she almost killed me in Kunlun. Of course, I have to pay her back. Give me the Ancient Abyssal Blade!" said Lord Ming.

Zhang Ruochen was overjoyed. He immediately took out the Ancient Abyssal Sword and handed it to Lord Ming.

Lord Ming's fingers formed a sword gesture. In an instant, the entire Progenitor Pond was filled with strong winds and the sound of the sword was deafening. The air was filled with sword shadows of divine light.

Whoosh

Two fingers slashed across the Ancient Abyssal Sword.

Instantly, countless sword shadows of divine light rushed toward the Ancient Abyssal Sword.

A foot-long red sword scar appeared on the sword.

Chapter 2454: On the Same Boat

“You can consider studying Swordsmanship more. With the help of the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, you can cultivate the Swordsmanship Saintwill to Grade Three. The Swordsmanship should be purer, the more extreme the better. It’s not suitable to be combined with other Saintwill.”

This was what Lord Ming said to Zhang Ruochen when he left the Progenitor Pond.

Zhang Ruochen sat in the dimly lit cabin. He held the Ancient Abyssal Sword and thought about what Lord Ming said repeatedly.

Cultivating the Saintwill of a Path to Grade Three was the same as fusing the Grade One Saintwill. No cultivator had done it since ancient times.

Now that he had the only Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill since ancient times, he undoubtedly had a chance to try.

Zhang Ruochen wondered, ‘The Path of Time and the Path of Dimension are both part of the Paths of the Ancients. It’s almost impossible to condense the Grade Three Saintwill alone. On the contrary, it’s possible with Swordsmanship.

‘Is it really possible?’

Zhang Ruochen shook his head slightly. He thought he’d never be able to do it with his current Swordsmanship skills.

There were many skilled sword cultivators in the past. Even ignoring the distant ones, when Xue Hongchen, a peerless Kunlun sword cultivator, was in the Hundred-Shackle Realm 800 years ago, his achievements in Swordsmanship were unquestionably superior to Zhang Ruochen's.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I have to cultivate Sword Eleven to the Great Perfection stage and comprehend the Heaven Sword Soul before I can try it.

"Oh right, there's also the Sword of Time.

"The Wordless Sword Manual is clearly the pure Swordsmanship that Uncle Lord Ming mentioned. The Sword of Time should be considered to be a sword that takes an unconventional path. It's another extreme path."

Zhang Ruochen let out a long breath. He shook his head slightly and put away the Ancient Abyssal Sword.

The most important thing for him now was what Wargod Bloodximus had said to make up for his shortcomings. Saint techniques, spiritual power, shackles, and the Demigod-level physique were the focus of his cultivation.

At this moment, he had arrived at the entrance of the wormhole closest to the Xue Jue family. It was the wormhole leading to Hoth.

Now, he looked like a skinny old man. He was dressed in green and held a wooden staff. His name was Xun Mu. He was a master of spiritual power from the Southern Ridge.

Although Zhang Ruochen had single-handedly caused Lady Wind's death, it made him more careful.

In the Infernal Court, many gods wanted to kill him than Lady Wind.

Lady Wind was the Scioness of Destiny, but she died in the Divine Domain of Destiny.

If Zhang Ruochen dared to go to Hoth, where the dark forces were rampant, it would be no different from courting death.

Thus, before leaving the Xue Jue Family, Zhang Ruochen made many arrangements. First, he sent Xue Tu out to investigate the Southern Sword Realm.

Zhang Ruochen's enemies could not predict Zhang Ruochen's actions, so they would certainly pay attention to the cultivators around him. Xue Tu's trip to the Southern Sword Realm was a wrong signal for them to mistakenly think that Zhang Ruochen had also secretly gone to the Southern Sword Realm.

This was a feint.

Zhang Ruochen then took Moyin, Lian Xi, Zhou Zhen, Shentu Yunkong, and Lord Sinluo into the Qiankun Realm. He changed his appearance and left the Xue Jue Family alone. He announced to the outside world that he was going to seclude himself to break through to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

This was an escape plan.

In this way, Madam Nixuan, the gods and Supreme Saints who wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen would not know his specific whereabouts.

"Master Xun Mu, we have arrived at the wormhole and are about to make a space jump. Every cultivator on the ship has to pay a saint stone for the passage." Ji Chen, the owner of Blood Sprite, said, he knew that Zhang Ruochen was a difficult powerhouse, so he came to the cabin to ask for the saint stone.

Zhang Ruochen picked up the wooden staff and opened the cabin door. He stared at Ji Chen and said in a hoarse and old voice, "It's only a passage through the wormhole. Why is it so expensive?"

Even though one billion saint stones could only be exchanged for one Godstone.

However, one saint stone was a huge fortune for the weaker Demi-Saints.

A cultivator had to pay one saint stone for a wormhole. It was indeed exorbitant and far beyond Zhang Ruochen's expectations.

Ji Chen's neck shrank under Zhang Ruochen's stare. He said in a low voice, "It's not up to me to decide how many saint stones to charge. It's the price set by the Xue Jue family.

“Besides, the distance between Hoth and the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan is endless. Legend has it that even light takes 3,000 years to get there. Even gods can’t cross thousands of billions of miles. Actually, it’s not expensive to charge only one saint stone.

“Do you know how much it costs to sneak from Hoth to the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan?”

“How much?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Ji Chen replied, “Ten times. It’ll cost ten saint stones.”

Zhang Ruochen stood on Blood Sprite in the air and looked behind him. One Blood Sprite after another lined up in a line. He couldn’t see the end. They were all lining up to jump through the wormhole space.

He looked ahead. Ship after ship flew out of the wormhole. There was a steady stream of them.

Zhang Ruochen thought, ‘No wonder Madam Nixuan refused to let go of Hoth’s properties. The passage fee this wormhole collects every day is huge. It’s comparable to a Godstone mine.’

Just as Zhang Ruochen was deep in thought, a clear voice sounded next to him. “Since Master Xun Mu thinks it’s expensive, I’ll pay the passage fee for him!”

A two-meter-tall young man wearing the Hundred-Saint Blood Armor walked over and threw a saint stone to Ji Chen.

Ji Chen held the saint stone in his hands with reverence in his eyes. He kowtowed to the man repeatedly and left quickly.

“I am Ji Wenwu from the governor’s mansion of Ji Feng City in Southern Ridge.”

Ji Wenwu introduced himself and then said, “I see that you have strong spiritual power. It doesn’t seem like you can’t take out a saint stone...”

Before he could finish, Zhang Ruochen said coldly, “Isn’t a saint stone money? The Xue Jue family is too evil. They charge so much.”

Bang

He slammed the door and returned to the cabin.

Ji Wenwu stood outside, stunned.

He had wanted to befriend Zhang Ruochen because of his strong spiritual power, but he hadn't expected him to be so rude. Not only was he stingy, but he also had a weird temper.

A Supreme Saint with three pairs of blood wings on his back walked out of another cabin door. He said telepathically, "Wenwu, the governor wants you. It's important."

Ji Wenwu collected his depressed mood and walked over quickly.

The governor of Ji Feng City, Lord Yue Lin, was a powerhouse whose cultivation had reached the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm. Who would have thought that he would take such an ordinary Blood Sprite to Hoth?

Zhang Ruochen just happened to hear the Supreme Saint's telepathic message. He was both surprised and curious.

To be able to become the governor of a city, whether it was in terms of cultivation or skill, he was definitely not comparable to an ordinary Supreme Saint.

However, he did not have much interaction with Lord Yue Lin, so he was too lazy to investigate. When he came to the wormhole, the Primordial Spatial Worm that had been sleeping all this time began to throb. He had to study it carefully.

...

Ji Wenwu carefully walked into the cabin door and stepped over a layer of the dark barrier wall. His field of vision was widened, and a powerful aura of Path rushed at him, pressing him to the ground in an instant.

He was extremely nervous, but he remained calm. He asked, "May I know why the governor called for me?"

He secretly looked up.

He saw seven cultivators sitting in the cabin.

The governor did not sit in the main seat in the middle. Instead, he sat in the three seats on the left with the deputy governor and the commander.

The three seats on the right were also filled with powerful Supreme Saints. Ji Wenwu only took a glance at them before his eyes started to hurt. It was as if he had been burned by the sun.

On the other hand, the black-veiled cultivator sitting in the middle of the main seat did not have any aura on her. She looked like a mortal.

However, how could someone who could make the governor, deputy governor, and commander accompany him to the Hoth be a mortal?

It could only be said that he could not see through the other party with his Saint King Realm cultivation.

Lord Yue Lin said, "My lady, if you have any questions about Hoth, you can ask Ji Wenwu. He may not be a strong cultivator but he has lived on Hoth for more than a hundred years. As long as it is not too confidential, he knows about it."

The black-veiled cultivator nodded and asked, "I only have one question. Did Lord Xia Yu go to Hoth?"

"Lord Xia Yu?" asked Ji Wenwu.

Ji Wenwu was slightly taken aback as he nodded repeatedly, he said, "Not long after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting ended, Lord Xia Yu went to Hoth. It was said that she was buying ice beasts and blood crystals for the Xia clan. You should probably know that buying blood crystals on Hoth is much cheaper than buying them in the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan."

"Alright, there's no need to say anymore. You may leave." The black-veiled cultivator waved her hand and said coldly.

After Ji Wenwu left, Lord Yue Lin said, "Blood crystals, blood food, and blood medicine are the things that the Immortal Vampires need the most. Lord Xia Yu went to Hoth to buy blood crystals. It's reasonable."

The black-veiled cultivator was silent. She only stretched out her fair and beautiful hand, picked up the teacup, and took a sip.

The three Supreme Saints sitting on the right were Thandee of the Rakshasas, Lord Huanxu of the Demonsky Clan, and Lord Ironclad of the Nether Clan.

They were the three powerful figures who had set up a trap with Bai Qing'er to deal with Seven-Armed Elder. They were all powerful Saint Realm figures who could make the world tremble with a stomp of their feet.

There were ten bone wings on the back of Thandee, he asked curiously, "Have you changed your mind? You don't want to confront the Xue Jue family directly in the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan. Instead, you want to go to Hoth to capture Lord Xia Yu and lure Zhang Ruochen out?"

Lord Huanxu laughed and slammed the table, he said, "Great! Lord Xia Yu is known as the most beautiful woman in this generation of the Bloodysky Clan. She is also Zhang Ruochen's precious lover. If we capture her, we can have a good time and anger that little bastard Zhang Ruochen to death."

Lord Ironclad glanced at the black-veiled cultivator. He seemed to understand something and he asked, "Do you think Lord Xia Yu went to Hoth for another purpose?"

The black-veiled cultivator said, "According to the information I received, Lord Xia Yu didn't return to the Xia clan after she left the Divine Domain of Destiny. She went straight to Hoth. It's obviously an urgent matter. Why would she be in such a hurry to buy blood crystals and ice beasts?"

"The more she disguises it, the more it shows what she's really going to do. It must be very important," Lord Ironclad said.

The black-veiled cultivator said, "The properties of the Xue Jue family on Hoth have always been controlled by Madam Nixuan, the wife of Wargod Bloodximius. But recently, Supreme Saint Qingsheng gave it to Zhang Ruochen."

Lord Huanxu laughed. "Supreme Saint Qingsheng wants to control the power of the Xue Jue family as soon as possible, so he used a trick to sow discord. He wants to use Zhang Ruochen to fight with Madam Nixuan and profit from it."

Lord Ironclad said coldly, "Do you think Supreme Saint Qingsheng is an idiot or Zhang Ruochen is an idiot? If Supreme Saint Qingsheng did this, it would be equivalent to offending both Zhang Ruochen and Madam Nixuan! Can he continue being the acting family leader?"

"Yes, there's only one possibility. Zhang Ruochen requested this from Supreme Saint Qingsheng," said the black-veiled cultivator.

Lord Huan Xu was shocked. He found it hard to understand. "Zhang Ruochen may be talented, but his cultivation is still weak. How dare he fight with Madam Nixuan now?"

The black-veiled cultivator said, "After Blood Empress and Lord Ming returned from Kunlun, Madam Nixuan lost her power in the Xue Jue family. Almost all her power was taken away except for Hoth. Zhang Ruochen has the support of two true gods. How could he be afraid of Madam Nixuan?"

"Actually, I don't think Zhang Ruochen would be impatient to attack Madam Nixuan at this stage. I think he chose Hoth for another reason. Asking Supreme Saint Qingsheng to give him the properties of Hoth is also to conceal his real purpose."

"What is his real purpose then?" Asked Lord Huanxu.

There was a long silence in the cabin.

The black-veiled cultivator said, "Only Lord Xia Yu can give us the answer we need. Perhaps it will be much easier to deal with Zhang Ruochen once we know his real purpose."

Lord Yue Lin, the governor of Ji Feng City, frowned and said, "Actually, any one of us can capture Lord Xia Yu. Why do you need us to do it together under your lead?"

"According to the information I received, Xue Tu went to the Southern Sword Realm secretly. If I'm right, Zhang Ruochen can't hide in the Xue Jue Family for long. His next move will definitely be to the Southern Sword Realm. He said in the House of Enchanteurs that he would take the Southern Sword Realm away from Ling.

“We can go to the Southern Sword Realm and wait for Zhang Ruochen to walk into the trap.”

The black-veiled cultivator said, “If it was before, I might really think so. But I have already met Zhang Ruochen half a time. He is definitely not a simple person. He can easily escape from the assassination set up by Ling, and he can leave the Divine Domain of Destiny alive under the attack of the Adjudication Division. How can he be a person who will easily reveal his flaws?

“Besides, when both Wargod Bloodximius and Blood Empress went to the Jadeite Realm, he must be more careful and won’t easily expose his whereabouts.”

Lord Ironclad was shocked. “Do you suspect that Zhang Ruochen will go to Hoth?”

“Whether he goes or not, as long as we capture Lord Xia Yu, we can seize the opportunity and grab his throat. Begin the wormhole jump. I’m looking forward to the trip to Hoth.” The black-veiled cultivator’s voice was clear, she had always been emotionless and her thoughts were very clear.

The Blood Sprite trembled violently. A massive spatial pressure pressed down from all directions and landed on every single cultivator on the ship.

The distance of 3,000 light-years was close to 6 trillion kilometers in the deep space of the universe. If one traversed through it, they would be infinitely far away from the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan and arrive at a place that even the gods could not sense.

Chapter 2455: Perception

The Blood Sprite entered the wormhole. The sleeping Primordial Spatial Worm suddenly opened its colorful eyes and woke up in Zhang Ruochen's palm.

It rolled around intimately like a silkworm baby. It sent out a stream of spiritual power and said, "Hungry, so hungry. I want to eat. Eat... eat..."

Its voice was child-like.

Zhang Ruochen sighed helplessly. He set up a barrier array in the cabin. Then he mobilized the vast Saint Qi in his body and shot it out from his palm.

The Primordial Spatial Worm greedily absorbed the Saint Qi with the Power of Dimensions.

Zhang Ruochen had used up about 70% of the Saint Qi in his body before it was full.

...

"You're too gluttonous. How can your tiny body withstand so much Saint Qi?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen touched the head of the Primordial Spatial Worm with his finger. Smiling, he said, "Your body is full of colors. I'll call you Little Seven from now on."

"Yay, Yay, Little... Seven..." said Little Seven.

The Primordial Spatial Worm seemed very excited. It circled around Zhang Ruochen's finger and finally turned into a seven-colored ring on his index finger.

In the House of Enchanters, Zhang Ruochen had devalued the value of the Primordial Spatial Worm's larvae to tens of thousands of Godstones. In fact, he knew very well that the Primordial Spatial Worm that had absorbed the Rainbow Viburnum had undergone some kind of transformation. Once it grew into an adult, it would definitely be more powerful than divine beasts.

Moreover, most of the Rainbow Viburnum that Little Seven had absorbed was still stored in its body. It would be released gradually as she grew. Her path of growth would be faster and easier than other Primordial Spatial Worms.

Its value should be the both larvae of the Primordial Spatial Worm and the Rainbow Viburnum.

It was priceless.

Zhang Ruochen took out a Godstone and held it between his hands to quickly recover the Saint Qi he had consumed.

Feeding it once consumed 70% of his Saint Qi, which was even more than the amount he had used in the battle with Yan Wushen. He had to cultivate hard, otherwise, he might not be able to feed Little Seven enough in the future.

The wooden staff next to him was the Staff of the Divine Envoy given to him by Moon Goddess. It was made from a branch of the tree god of Guanghan.

In the ruins of the Dragon Temple, this wooden staff had absorbed the spiritual will of the Mojo and condensed a vague Divine Demonic Mark. It emitted evil dark qi all the time.

The entire cabin was filled with black evil qi except where Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged. It was eerie.

The main body of Mojo was the heart of a god who cultivated the Path of Darkness. It was defeated by the combined attacks of Lord of Sword, Lord of Stone, and the Dragon Phantom Lord. Zhang Ruochen had also used the God-Defiance Stele.

The dark god's heart was sealed at the bottom of the blood sea, inside the Blood Mirror.

The spiritual will of the dark god was suppressed inside the Staff of the Divine Envoy. It had been refined into a Divine Demonic Mark by the spiritual will of Moon Goddess and the tree god.

This time, to disguise himself as an evil master of spiritual power, Zhang Ruochen used the Divine Purification Flame to refine the Staff of the Divine Envoy.

However, the dark god's spiritual will was still strong. He could not fully control the evil power of the wooden staff.

The Blood Sprite shook violently again, making creaking sounds.

Then, the squeezing Power of Dimensions disappeared. Light and cold qi poured in through the gaps in the window.

Zhang Ruochen held the wooden staff and pushed open the door. He stood by the Blood Sprite's wood railing and exhaled. Looking down at the endless ice and snow, he smiled. "We've finally arrived at Hoth."

Whoosh Whoosh

The howling wind blew down snowflakes the size of goose feathers, landing on Zhang Ruochen's head and shoulders.

The sky was no longer a patch of blood light, but a light blue color. Thunder rumbled in the thick clouds. Lightning struck down from the snowy peaks in the distance.

On the vast ice field, a large number of cultivators were gathered. They were preparing to go through the wormhole to the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan.

Some of them were alone. They had come back from an adventure at the edge of the Infernal Court. Some were in groups. They seemed to be disciples of the same clan. Some of them had a fleet of ships filled with humans, savage beasts, and bloody skeletons.

These humans and savage beasts were the blood food that had been brought back from the various worlds.

ROAR!

The sound of hooves and the howl of wolves resounded through heaven and earth.

An army of the Xue Jue Family rode on white wolves and ice beasts as they patrolled the icy plain, approaching from afar.

The leader, a four-winged Nine-Step Saint King, raised his voice and said, "Pay the passage fee in order. Each cultivator will pay ten saint stones and each ship of blood food will pay fifty saint stones. Illegal immigration is strictly prohibited and those who violate the order will be severely punished.”

No cultivator dared to cause trouble here. In the clouds above the ice field, there was a magnificent hall with a Supreme Saint from the Xue Jue family guarding it.

Anyone who caused trouble would die.

According to the information of Supreme Saint Qingsheng, Zhang Ruochen knew that the Supreme Saint guarding the Frostfield Wormhole was originally the son of Madam Nixuan, Xue Tianyi.

He was the seventh son of the Wargod Bloodximius. He was the younger brother of Lord Ming and the elder brother of Blood Empress.

Xue Tianyi was not only gifted, but he was also a true disciple of the Wargod Bloodximius. He defeated Xue Qingsheng, who was at the Paramount Realm three thousand years ago. He also rose to the Eminence Ranking of the Celestial Palace, and the Tome of the Divines of the Fane of Destiny. He was well-known throughout the Immortal Vampires, not to mention the Bloodysky Clan.

Unfortunately, no matter how powerful he was, he could not control his own destiny if he did not become a god.

After Lord Ming and Blood Empress returned, Xue Tianyi was sent to the Battlefield of Merits by Lord Ming.

No one could defy the will of a god.

Even if he was the son of the Wargod Bloodximius.

The Supreme Saint who was overseeing the Frostfield Wormhole was Xue Qing of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng reminded him of the information, “Just Blood Qing alone can not guard a wormhole. Madam Nixuan must have sent top-notch powerhouses from the Fane of Asura to guard in the dark. Be careful.”

“According to the information my uncle gave me, Madam Nixuan has operated on Hoth for tens of thousands of years. She has many powerhouses under them. Some are descendants of the Xue Jue family, some are invited from the Fane of Asura, and some are outsiders hired from small clans at the edge of the Infernal Court. There are six Supreme Saints above the Thousand-Koan Realm. The Xue Jue family is not a first-class force on Hoth. From this, it can be seen that this planet is indeed a land full of strong forces. The number of Saint Realm powerhouses is not weaker than a strong realm in the Celestial Court,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen liked this dark place where there were many powerful people. It was a good opportunity to hone his saint techniques and also to grasp the power of the Demigod-level physique faster.

The door of the cabin next to him opened. A Rakshasa Supreme Saint with ten bone wings on his back walked out. The illusion that he used to hide his identity was useless under Zhang Ruochen’s Eye of Truth.

“How could it be him?”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked and quickly looked away.

It was Thandee of the Paarth Family of the Rakshasas.

Zhang Ruochen had seen him in the House of Enchanteurs.

At that time, Thandee went to the Peacock Palace with Lord Huan Xu and Cang Baizi to visit Bai Qing’er.

“Isn’t the owner of that cabin the governor of Ji Feng City? In other words, the governor of Ji Feng City and Thandee are both in the cabin. These two are the top powerhouses among the Supreme Saints. It’s unusual for them to appear at the same time. Moreover, they deliberately hid their identities and hid in an ordinary Blood Sprite. They must have big plans. Are they targeting me?”

“No, they couldn’t possibly know that I came to Hoth.”

Zhang Ruochen felt uneasy. He felt that it was abnormal for Thandee to appear here.

“Are they here for the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and Seven-Armed Elder? That’s not right. They shouldn’t know that the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and Seven-Armed Elder are with me.”

Zhang Ruochen calmed himself down and pretended to look far away without revealing any flaws.

Thump

Ji Wenwu walked quickly to the side of Thandee and knelt down on one knee. He handed over a Communication talisman and said, “Sir Thandee, the whereabouts of that person have been found.”

Thandee picked up the Communication talisman and looked through it quickly. A cruel smile appeared on his face. He said, “Very good.”

Suddenly, he stopped smiling and looked at Zhang Ruochen, who was not far away. He used the spiritual power of the 62nd level and thought that he had searched Zhang Ruochen’s body silently.

He found that he was only a spiritual power saint king of Level 58. He was not afraid. He withdrew his spiritual power.

Thandee said in a deep voice, “When you come to Hoth, keep everything simple. Don’t shout my identity in front of outsiders.”

“Yes, I understand,” said Ji Wenwu.

Ji Wenwu knelt on the ground with cold sweat on his face.

Thandee ignored him. He turned around and walked into the cabin with the Communication talisman. Then, his aura had been concealed.

Zhang Ruochen knew that the other party must have set up a powerful array in the cabin.

‘Whose whereabouts are they investigating?’ Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He was extremely curious, but he did not dare to act rashly. Who knew how many powerful figures were hiding in that cabin?

He would be walking into a trap if he rushed in recklessly.

Thandee only entered the cabin for a moment. Then, he walked out quickly. He spread his ten bone wings and flew up, disappearing into the thick fog. From the beginning to the end, he used the invisibility saint technique. As a result, Ji Wenwu, who was kneeling at the door of the cabin, had no idea that he had left secretly.

Watching Thandee leave, Zhang Ruochen was even more worried.

He wanted to go after Thandee immediately. No matter what the other party's goal was, he had to take him down first. However, he wanted to break into the cabin and find out who was hiding inside.

When Thandee got the Communication talisman, he entered the cabin first. He must have reported to a cultivator and asked for instructions before he set off.

It was obvious that there was someone more powerful than Thandee in the cabin.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen's eyes caught sight of Ji Wenwu who had just stood up. He suddenly had an idea.

Zhang Ruochen used his dry fingers to stroke his long beard. He walked over and said, "Ji Wenwu from the governor's manor of Ji Feng City?"

Ji Wenwu did not have a good impression of this Master Xun Mu. He snorted and said, "What can I do for you, sir?"

"Nothing. I just remembered that you helped me pay for the passage fee, so I came here to thank you. I Am Xun Mu, a spiritual power cultivator from the Southern Ridge," said Zhang Ruochen.

A smile appeared on Zhang Ruochen's wrinkled face.

It looked like a smile, but because of his appearance, the smile was particularly sinister.

"It's rare that you still remember this," said Ji Wenwu.

Ji Wenwu thought so in his heart and said, "It's nothing. You don't have to take it to heart."

“I’m not a stingy person. How about this? I don’t have the saint stone with me, so I’ll give you this treasure as a return for your favor.” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen took out a jade stone and handed it to Ji Wenwu.

Ji Wenwu hesitated for a moment and reached out to receive it. The moment their palms touched, Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power surged into his body and rushed into his sea of consciousness.

A moment later, Zhang Ruochen withdrew his spiritual power again. His heart was already filled with an overwhelming shock.

He forcefully controlled his emotions and glanced at the cabin door. He did not dare to show any flaws.

Ji Wenwu’s spiritual power was many times weaker than Zhang Ruochen’s. Naturally, he didn’t know that his sea of consciousness had already been explored by his opponent. He only felt a slight tingling in his palm.

“We have arrived at Hoth. We’ll meet again. Take care!” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his fists and saluted. Then he flew off from Blood Sprite and landed on the snow-covered plains. He flew west at a low altitude.

Ji Wenwu carefully played with the jade in his hand. He used his blood-red aura and spiritual power to explore it, but he didn’t find anything strange.

There were only two possibilities.

The first possibility was that the old man named Xun Mu was indeed a stingy person. He had taken a worthless jade to trick him.

The second possibility was that the jade that Master Xun Mu had taken out was too precious. With his cultivation, he couldn’t see through it.

“A cultivator with such strong spiritual power would not take out an ordinary jade as a token of appreciation, right?” said Ji Wenwu as shook his head and put away the jade temporarily.

Of course, that jade was not ordinary.

Zhang Ruochen's Spirit was sealed inside the jade.

As long as the jade was still with Ji Wenwu, Zhang Ruochen would be able to find him and Bai Qing'er.

This mark must not be lost.

He could only fight with Bai Qing'er in the open while he was in the dark. Otherwise, the gap between their cultivation levels was too big. Zhang Ruochen would not be able to fight.

Of course, if the secret of the jade stone was discovered by other cultivators, Zhang Ruochen could destroy the Spirit with a thought and leave no trace.

In Ji Wenwu's sea of consciousness, Zhang Ruochen did not see Bai Qing'er, but he saw Thandee, Lord Huanxu, and Lord Ironclad.

How could Bai Qing'er not be here when the three Supreme Saints were gathered?

However, Bai Qing'er's spiritual power was too strong. Even if Ji Wenwu had seen her, he could not remember her.

Zhang Ruochen was secretly glad that he did not break into the cabin. Otherwise, he would most likely die there under the siege of so many powerful people. Even with the help of the power of the Qiankun Realm and Intergold Tiger, there was no way he could survive.

Although Intergold Tiger was powerful, it was not recognized by the precepts of heaven and earth. Once it used too much power, it would be killed by the precepts of heaven and earth before killing the enemy.

On Hoth, it was not like in the Divine Domain of Destiny.

In the Divine Domain of Destiny, cultivators who wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen were afraid of being avenged by the gods of the Xue Jue family. They were also afraid of alerting the Divine Domain of Destiny, so they were more or less bound.

Here, even if they killed Zhang Ruochen, they had 100 ways to destroy the body and the evidence, so that even the god could not find the result.

Of course, the desperate situation would only appear when they were surrounded.

If they weren't surrounded, Zhang Ruochen was confident that he could escape with the speed of the Intergold Tiger and Zhang Ruochen's Power of Time and Dimension, no matter how strong Bai Qing'er was or how many powerhouses she led.

Being surrounded and not being surrounded were the difference between life and death for all the Supreme Saints.

"Why would Bai Qing'er appear on Hoth just to capture Lord Xia Yu? No, capturing Lord Xia Yu using Thandee is enough. There's no need to bring so many powerful figures here."

Zhang Ruochen didn't have time to think. After flying for about 2,000 kilometers, he immediately changed his direction and flew at full speed to chase after Thandee.

At the same time, he carved a Communication Talisman and sent it to Lord Xia Yu.

"Bai Qing'er, if you want to deal with my people, I will make you pay with one powerful figure first."

Chapter 2456: Lord Xia Yu, Lord of Stone, and Lord of Sword

The Xia clan had an ancient castle in the Eastern District Two of Hoth. It had a long history and occupied an area of several thousand-acre. Outside the castle was a vast forest filled with blood-red trees.

As night fell, Lord Xia Yu stood on the top floor of the tallest building in the castle. She held a foot-long bronze brush in her hand and was writing something seriously on the six-meter-long jade table.

The castle lord, Xia Qiuling, was a Saint King Realm powerhouse. He stood outside the door and bowed respectfully. He said, “My lord, we have a lead on the matter you ordered us to investigate.”

“Come in!” said Lord Xia Yu.

Xia Qiuling pushed open the door and walked in. He didn’t dare to look directly at the beautiful woman in front of him. He took out a butterfly that was emitting a blood-red light from his sleeve.

The body of the butterfly was semi-transparent. It flapped its wings and flew towards Lord Xia Yu.

...

WHOOSH!

The butterfly crashed into Lord Xia Yu’s wrist and turned into specks of light that merged into it.

“I already know. You can leave now!” Lord Xia Yu ordered.

Lord Xia Yu raised the bronze pen in her hand and waved the tip of the pen at Xia Qiuling. Immediately, a powerful spiritual power slashed into his sea of consciousness like a sword and erased part of his memories.

At this moment, the candlelight in the antique room shook violently.

A thick and fierce voice sounded in the castle, "I wonder what Lord Xia Yu is investigating. I am very curious."

"Who is it?" asked Lord Xia Yu.

"Who are you?" Lord Xia Yu asked again.

A fierce wind suddenly rose.

An incomparably powerful saint might suddenly envelop the entire great Xia castle.

All the Saint Realm cultivators were shocked. They were pressed to the ground, their bodies trembling in fear. In the end, their entire bodies lay on the ground, unable to move.

Those who had not entered the Saint Realm, regardless of whether they were Xia clansmen or slaves, were crushed into pieces, turning into a bloody mist.

Miserable screams rose and fell.

A thick bloody smell pervaded the castle.

Even Xia Qiuling, who had reached the Saint King realm, was kneeling on the ground, unable to stand up.

What a terrifying enemy. He is definitely a Supreme Saint above the Thousand-Koan Realm. When did the Xia clan provoke such a powerful enemy?' Xia Qiuling thought as his heart was filled with fear and unease. He could only feel that death was approaching.

Lord Xia Yu remained unperturbed. She continued to hold the brush in her hand as she said, "Thandee, our Xia clan has no enmity with you. What do you intend to do?"

Thandee stood on the grass outside the castle and released a Precept Domain. Countless Precepts flew out and enveloped the area within a radius of a thousand meters. A portion of the precepts condensed into an army with thousands of saint cultivators in the form of Rakshasa.

In his Precept Domain, they could conceal all the ripples of battle.

Thandee let out a deep laugh and took a step in the air. As if passing through a layer of paper, he passed through the Defensive Array of the ancient castle. With a bang, he broke through the wall and entered the room, standing opposite Lord Xia Yu.

Xia Qiuling was sent flying by the evil aura emitted from Thandee's body, turning into a ball of blood and mud.

Thandee looked at Lord Xia Yu's almost perfect body from top to bottom. She had a delicate and cold face, a tall and plump body, and her skin was extraordinarily white. She had the temperament of beauty, but she also had the inherent evil charm of an Immortal Vampire.

"Haha! No wonder you became Zhang Ruochen's lover. You are indeed the number one beauty of the Bloodysky Clan." Thandee laughed.

Lord Xia Yu's eyes were extremely cold. She said, "If you say another word of nonsense, I'll suck your blood dry."

"You're young, but you have a bad temper. Hehe, with your cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, you'd better give up on fighting me. Otherwise, I'll break your face. Then you won't be pretty anymore! Come with me. There's a prominent figure who wants to see you." said Thandee.

Thandee had a teasing smile on his face. He did not think much of Lord Xia Yu.

With his cultivation at the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm, he did have the confidence to do so.

Although Lord Xia Yu had fought with Celestial Captives on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting at the Thousand-Koan Realm, their spiritual power had been sealed and they lacked powerful weapons. Their combat power was drastically reduced.

Thandee was not a frivolous person. Instead, he had carefully analyzed Lord Xia Yu's performance on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Her combat power could only contend with a Supreme Saint in the Middle-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Now that Lord Xia Yu was trapped in his Precept Domain, it could be said that he could suppress her with one hand.

Of course, even if Lord Xia Yu went all out, burning her saint blood and using forbidden techniques to escape, even if Thandee's cultivation base far surpassed Lord Xia Yu's, capturing her would be difficult.

Just like Yan Huangtu back then, it was also quite difficult to deal with Lord Xia Yu who was in a desperate state.

What Thandee was even more afraid of was that Lord Xia Yu was a woman who wasn't afraid of death. If he really forced her into a corner, she would self-detonate her Sainthood Source. If that was the case, it would definitely be the end of both sides.

Therefore, the best outcome was that Lord Xia Yu still didn't know his purpose and was willing to follow him to meet Bai Qing'er.

Who would be willing to risk their lives if they could not risk it?

Lord Xia Yu said, "Prominent figure? Which prominent figure are you talking about? Is she a deity of your Paarth Family?"

"You will know who it is after you come with me," said Thandee.

Lord Xia Yu confronted him and said, "What if I don't go?"

WHISH!

Thandee summoned the Regal Artifact, Aurea Wing Lance, and held it in his hand. His battle Qi transformed into a demonic cloud that hovered above the ancient castle, he said in a threatening tone, "If you are not coming, all the Xia clan cultivators in this castle will die. You, on the other hand, can only watch helplessly. There's no way to stop it."

Rumble

The saint soldiers condensed from Thandee's Precepts rushed into the castle. They held long lances and crushed the Xia clan cultivators beneath their feet, taking their lives at any moment.

All the saint soldiers were a part of Thandee's Precept Domain.

The cold air on Lord Xia Yu's body caused sharp icicles to form in the room. He said, "Aren't you afraid that I will self-detonate my Sainthood Source and perish together with you?"

"I am only here to invite you over as a guest. I didn't want to risk innocent lives. Furthermore, we are less than twelve meters apart. Do you think you have the chance to self-detonate your Sainthood Source?" Thandee said.

"I've long wanted to see just how powerful a Supreme Saint at the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm is? If you can defeat me in one strike, I won't resist. I'll immediately go with you to meet that prominent figure. If you can't do it, you'd better get out of my castle," said Lord Xia Yu.

Whoosh

The eight silver wings on Lord Xia Yu's back unfurled. The silver light was like a blade, tearing apart the top of the castle. The light illuminated the dimly lit world.

Thandee was quite decisive. The Aurea Wing Lance in his hand stabbed out like lightning.

The air was pierced with an explosive sound.

The space followed the trajectory of the spear and tiny rifts appeared.

In an instant, the spear had arrived in front of Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu stood in place and slapped the jade table in front of her. With a bang, the two-foot-long table stood upright like a shield, blocking in front of her.

Using a table to block my spear?' Thandee sneered.

Just as this thought appeared in Thandee's mind, he immediately felt that something was wrong.

Dense blood-red runes suddenly appeared on the plain table and turned into a nullification talisman. As it blocked the Aurea Wing Lance, dense attacking power surged out from the talisman.

‘This is bad, she had prepared for this. She’s purposely lured me to attack,’ Thandee thought.

Thandee’s expression changed drastically. He quickly switched from offense to defense. He held the Aurea Wing Lance horizontally in front of him and formed a light screen to resist the power of the talisman.

Boom

Thandee was sent flying. His body crashed into the ground outside the ancient city, leaving a long ravine.

His entire body was charred black and his flesh was torn apart.

‘Why did Lord Xia Yu prepare an attacking talisman? Could it be that she knew that I would come to capture her? No, it’s impossible for her to know. It must be a coincidence. HMPH! I never expected this little girl to be so cautious.’ Thandee thought.

Thandee’s eyes were ferocious as he slowly stood up.

He was too careless just now. Otherwise, even if Lord Xia Yu had prepared a talisman, he wouldn’t have been able to hurt him.

How could it be so easy to challenge someone of a higher realm with a difference of several realms?

Lord Xia Yu walked to the broken platform of the castle and looked down at Thandee. She said, “You’ve lost!”

Thandee would not possibly give up. He said, “Little girl. How dare you talk about winning and losing with me. Just now, if I hadn’t underestimated you, how would you have had the chance to strike me back?”

Lord Xia Yu shook his head lightly, he said, “Thandee, you really don’t know death. Do you know that intruding into the Xia clan’s castle is already a death sentence? Asking you to scram is giving you a chance to live. Since you insist on courting death, I will grant you your wish.”

Thandee felt as if he had heard the funniest joke in the world. He kept feeling that Lord Xia Yu had stolen his line.

Lord Xia Yu’s two snow-white hands clasped together. Her fingers formed a seal, and powerful spiritual energy was released. Instantly, the castle beneath her and the area a thousand kilometers away from the castle began to surface with countless array inscriptions, they interweaved like a blood-red spider web.

The Xia clan had maintained this castle for more than ten thousand years, and they had set up countless array formations.

How could Thandee have barged into the castle so easily if Lord Xia Yu hadn’t purposefully allowed him in?

After all, Lord Xia Yu herself was a powerful High-Saint Array Master who could set up a ninth-class array.

BOOM!

BOOM!

...

From the ground around the castle, one mountain after another rushed out, turning the place into a cage.

Thandee could no longer smile. His face turned dark. He was certain that Lord Xia Yu had long known that he would come and had intentionally let him into the array.

“How did you know that I would come here?” Thandee asked in a deep voice.

Lord Xia Yu spread out her left hand, and the Pleiades Lotus appeared in her palm.

The Supreme Inscription of the Ghost Lotus was connected to the array inscription between heaven and earth, emitting a dark light.

Thandee’s eyelids twitched again. He realized that it might not be difficult for him to defeat Lord Xia Yu alone, but it would be as difficult as ascending to heaven to capture her alive.

‘Zhang Ruochen actually gave her the Pleiades Lotus, the Supreme Artifact. With the power of the Supreme Artifact and the array, Lord Xia Yu is not to be underestimated.’ Thandee thought.

Thandee suddenly laughed out loud. “The lives of the Saint Realm cultivators of the Xia clan are in my hands. Are you sure you want to fight me?”

Lord Xia Yu shook her head. She said, “Thandee, although your cultivation is strong, your spiritual power is much weaker than mine. You can’t even see through the illusion formation. You disappoint me.”

“Illusory formation?” said Thandee.

Thandee gritted his teeth and stared at the castle.

He saw that the Xia clan cultivators suppressed by the saint soldiers had all turned into sand and disappeared.

“Damn it, I will make you pay a painful price,” said Thandee.

Thandee could not bear the humiliation of being played around by a little girl who was less than a thousand years old. He roared, “Saint Imperial Army.”

The saint soldiers formed from the Precepts erupted with brilliant battle might as they charged toward Lord Xia Yu one after another.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Lord Xia Yu activated the power of the array and struck down bolts of lightning, shattering the army of saint soldiers into pieces and turning them back into precepts.

“Six-direction Slash.”

Thandee raised the Aurea Wing Lance. The golden cloud was dazzling and shone for thousands of miles. It even broke several of the stone pinnacles in the formation and turned them into rubble that fell to the ground.

Thandee spread his ten wings and burst forth with extreme speed. He soared into the sky and swung down the Aurea Wing Lance with overwhelming might.

Before the lance could land, cracks had already appeared in the castle below.

The ground began to sink.

‘A pinnacle Thousand-Koan Realm cultivator is indeed not someone I can contend with right now.’ Lord Xia Yu thought.

Lord Xia Yu knew that no matter what, she would not be able to withstand Thandee’s full-powered attack. Hence, she mobilized all of her strength and poured it into the Pleiades Lotus.

The Pleiades Lotus spun and became as large as a palace, releasing a surge of Supreme Power.

Boom

The Aurea Wing Lance struck the Pleiades Lotus, causing the lance to sway and crackle as if it was about to break.

The castle beneath the Ghost Lotus instantly collapsed.

The difference in cultivation between Lord Xia Yu and Thandee was too great, so they were unable to block this attack. Their bodies exploded like balloons, while the Pleiades Lotus was struck into the ground by the Aurea Wing Lance.

Thandee landed on the ground with the Aurea Wing Lance in his hand, he laughed maniacally, “A mere Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm actually thinks that she can fight against me with just a Supreme Artifact. You deserve to die.”

Although Thandee was unable to return and explain his actions to Bai Qing’er after killing Lord Xia Yu, obtaining a Supreme Artifact was still a great honor for him.

In fact, Thandee even had the thought of keeping the Pleiades Lotus for himself.

Thandee condensed an evil hand and put away the Pleiades Lotus underground. He was smiling just now. Suddenly, his expression changed drastically. It was as if he wasn’t holding a Supreme Artifact, but some kind of poison. He wanted to throw it away.

Lord Xia Yu, who was thought to be dead, suddenly rushed out from the Pleiades Lotus and formed a palm strike. The Grim Soul-devouring Flame surged out of her palm and struck Thandee’s chest.

Thandee was extremely powerful. Purple light erupted from his body as he used his physical body to resist Lord Xia Yu’s palm strike.

Boom

Thandee was sent flying once more. Like a cannonball, he crashed into a stone pinnacle and embedded himself into the array inscription.

The array inscription was twisted into chains and bound his body.

“Break!”

Thandee’s body expanded, breaking the chains one by one as he flew down from the mountain.

Lord Xia Yu’s expression changed. Thandee was simply too powerful. He had only suffered minor injuries after taking her palm head-on.

Thandee forced the Grim Soul-devouring Flame out of his body. His frozen chest gradually melted as he walked towards Lord Xia Yu, his aura growing stronger and stronger. He said, “I regret that I didn’t listen to my master and spend more time cultivating spiritual power,” he said. “I didn’t expect that today, because of the weakness of spiritual power, you had the upper hand everywhere. But you won’t have another chance!”

“Really?” Lord Xia Yu sneered.

Lord Xia Yu glanced into the distance.

Thandee also sensed that a cultivator had broken into his Precept Domain. He glanced sideways.

Zhang Ruochen walked among the array inscriptions. He held a wooden staff in his hand and his cyan robe fluttered in the wind. On his left and right was Lord of Stone, who was three meters tall and had six arms. He held the Azure Terra scared spear in his hand.

There was also Lord of Sword, who was tall, thin, and sharp looking.

“You two can go all out this time. Help Lord Xia Yu to finish this battle quickly and take down Thandee. I want him alive!” Zhang Ruochen said in a hoarse voice.

Chapter 2457: Lingxi's News

Lord of Stone wore the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light he had gotten from Zhang Ruochen. He burst out at 5,000 times the speed of sound and traveled more than 800 miles in an instant. He stabbed out with the Azure Terra sacred spear, aiming for Thandee's back.

Thandee struck out with his lance, colliding with the Azure Terra sacred spear.

BOOM!

Large sparks spread out from the spears.

Energy ripples spread out in all directions.

Lord of Stone's true body was the AzureTerra Stone that even gods couldn't break. The reason why he was able to gain sentience was that he had fused with the spiritual wills of the six fallen gods, he had been nurtured in the Dragon Temple ruins for close to a Yuanhui period.

...

It could be said that he wasn't much weaker than Lan Ying, a Divine Fetus.

Six Divine Marks appeared on Lord of Stone's body, releasing six different streams of divine power. They turned into six divine rivers that were dozens of kilometers long, rushing toward Thandee.

"Who are you? Why are there six divine spirits gathering on your body? No, the six divine spirits seem to be supporting you as well," said Thandee.

Thandee's expression changed drastically. He found it hard to understand. How could he meet such a terrifying Supreme Saint on Hoth?

How big was the background of a person gathering the power of six gods?

“Withdraw!” Thandee shouted.

Thandee quickly gathered his Precept Domain. It originally covered a thousand miles, but now, it has shrunk by a thousand times.

The range of coverage was reduced, but the power of the Precept Domain was even stronger.

All the Precepts condensed into a saint army in the form of Rakshasas. It was like a battle formation formed by thousands of soldiers and horses clashing with the six divine rivers. Thandee could not withstand the divine power of the Divine River. He moved back and kept retreating.

“If I had not completely fused the spiritual wills of the six gods, I would have been able to pierce through you with that spear just now,” said Lord of Stone. His eyes were as wide as fireballs, and the power in his body exploded.

Whoosh

A sword light descended from the sky like a pillar of light.

Thandee felt the threat of death coming from the sky. He bent his legs and shifted his center of gravity downward, stabbing out with the Aurea Wing Lance.

The lance shone brightly and collided with the Saint Sword formed by Lord of Sword’s body.

Rumble

With Thandee, Lord of Sword, and Lord of Stone at the center, a chaotic energy storm spread out and swept up the mud and rocks underground. It was unknown how vast the area would be.

Zhang Ruochen certainly did not want the ripples of the battle here to be known by the outside world. So, he struck the ground with the wooden staff in his hand.

The dark and evil Qi in the wooden staff spread out and covered a radius of 1,000 miles, turning it into an extremely dark world.

At this moment, he was like an evil Master of Darkness.

Lord of Sword was the will of a sword left behind by a powerful sword god in the Middle Ages. It gathered all kinds of vital qi and condensed into a form in the ruins of the Dragon Temple.

The will of a sword could directly cut the Saint Soul of a cultivator.

Thandee was suppressed by Lord of Sword and Lord of Stone. He could not move his body. At this moment, Lord Xia Yu held the Pleiades Lotus and attracted the power of the array. He turned into a pillar of ghost qi and hit him heavily.

Crack

Thandee's crown exploded and his sacred robe was torn. He threw his head back and spat out a mouthful of blood.

The Saint Sword that Lord of Sword had turned into shattered the Aurea Wing Lance. The lance turned into broken iron and pieces of it flew out one by one.

The tip of the sword stabbed into Thandee's chest and Saint Blood gushed out like a fountain.

This sword not only injured Thandee's Neverwither physique but also his Saint Soul. The brilliance in his eyes dissipated a lot.

Whoosh

The Saint Sword flew out and transformed into Lord of Sword's body. It landed on the side.

Lord of Stone's Azure Terra sacred spear struck. It pierced through Thandee's chest to his heart and nailed him to the ground.

Lord Xia Yu rushed over quickly. She mobilized the power of the array and wrapped Thandee's body layer by layer. This was to prevent him from self-detonating his Sainthood Source.

"It doesn't have to be so troublesome. He doesn't dare to self-detonate his Sainthood Source," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen walked over, he said again, "A Supreme Saint at the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm should have a strong spiritual will, but he can't withstand the fear of nightmares. His greed for beautiful dreams has long become weak, humble, and cowardly. He's a loser whose Saint Soul has been corroded!"

Thandee was both angry and shocked. He shouted, "Who are you people?"

The other party knew about nightmares and beautiful dreams, which terrified him.

Lord Xia Yu snorted. "Didn't you sense the powerful spatial fluctuation just now?"

"Spatial fluctuation... Are you Zhang Ruochen?"

Thandee's eyes widened, and his face became extremely pale.

Zhang Ruochen changed into his original appearance. He crouched down and whispered, "Tell me, is Bai Qing'er here on Hoth?"

"Humph! Do you really think my spiritual will is weak? Don't even think about asking me anything," said Thandee.

Thandee's expression was almost crazy. He laughed loudly. He circulated the evil murderous Qi in his body and surged toward the Sainthood Source.

Zhang Ruochen hit his forehead with a finger and shattered his thoughts of self-detonating the Sainthood Source. He said, "You want to self-detonate in front of me?"

Lord Xia Yu said, "Just take his memory!"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly, "The Paarth Family is an ancient family that can contend with the Xue Jue family," he said. "As the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint in the family, he must have divine power to protect his memory. Although this is Hoth, and it is difficult for gods to come here directly, when my power comes into contact with divine power, the Paarth Family gods will definitely be able to see through my identity."

"Then what should we do?" Lord Xia Yu asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Don’t worry! How can a Supreme Saint whose spiritual will has long been defeated keep a secret?”

Zhang Ruochen threw Thandee into the Qiankun Realm and had Zhou Zhen and Shentu Yunkong interrogate him.

Zhang Ruochen asked Lord Xia Yu to clean up the traces on the battlefield. Then he fell into deep thought.

It was indeed beyond Zhang Ruochen’s expectation that Thandee would rather self-detonate his Sainthood Source to keep a secret. However, it also showed how powerful Bai Qing’er was. Thandee must have known that the consequences of betraying Bai Qing’er were worse than death. That was why he made such a choice.

‘She came to Hoth to capture Lord Xia Yu, obviously to deal with me. Bai Qing’er clearly knows the consequences of becoming my enemy, yet she still chose to attack. Then, there’s only one possibility. She must have guessed that Seven-Armed Elder is with me. Her goal is the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen understood even more deeply that he must not let anyone know the secret of his arrival on Hoth. He must not let Madam Nixuan and Bai Qing’er know that he came to Hoth to find Mu Lingxi.

Thandee’s interrogation was quickly concluded.

However, it was not Zhou Zhen and Shentu Yunkong who attacked, but Seven-Armed Elder.

“Bai Qing’er came to Hoth, and she seems to have guessed that you sent Lord Xia Yu to Hoth for another reason. This woman is very shrewd. Her spiritual power and Path cultivation have reached the pinnacle. You must be careful from now on.” Seven-Armed Elder’s voice reached Zhang Ruochen’s ears.

Of course, the old man didn’t care about Zhang Ruochen’s safety.

It was because he was wanted by the Fane of Destiny and hunted by Bai Qing’er. He had to hide in the Qiankun Realm.

If Zhang Ruochen fell into Bai Qing'er's hands, he would be finished.

The old man transmitted his voice again. "Bai Qing'er probably guessed that you would come to Hoth. That's why she brought a group of powerhouses here."

"You seem to know a lot about Bai Qing'er?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Seven-Armed Elder snorted. "I've never lost a bet. How can it be a coincidence that I fell into her hands?"

"Besides, my spiritual power has reached the 69th level. I'm just a step away from becoming a god." "But I can't do anything to her with spiritual power attacks. Think about it, how strong is her spiritual energy?"

"Thandee, Cang Baizi, and the others are all powerful figures in the Supreme Saint Realm, but they've all become her subordinates. Don't you think it's scary to think about it?"

"You've been very careful on Hoth, but she still managed to see through you. If it weren't for your luck that you were on the same Blood Sprite as her, Lord Xia Yu would have already fallen into her hands. Can you bear the consequences? Boy, you'd better not take Bai Qing'er lightly. Otherwise, you won't even know how you died."

As soon as Seven-Armed Elder finished speaking, Zhang Ruochen realized something. He immediately sent a voice transmission to Lord Xia Yu, Lord of Sword, and Lord of Stone. He said, "Let's go. We should leave this place immediately."

Not long after Zhang Ruochen and the others left, a streak of black light flew down from the clouds. It condensed into a tall and thin cultivator in black gauze on the ground.

The black gauze covering her body fell away, revealing a cold and perfect face. Her skin was as white as jade, and her eyes were as lovely as a young girl's and as deep as a god's.

It was a pair of Divine Eyes of Origin.

Inch by inch, she searched for traces on the ground.

Swoosh

The sound of wind breaking could be heard continuously.

Lord Ironclad, Lord Huanxu, and the governor of Ji Feng City flew over one after another and landed on the broken ground.

“There are traces of Thandee’s presence. Where did he go?” Lord Ironclad asked.

Lord Huanxu immediately released his spiritual power to investigate further.

Bai Qing’er said, “There’s no need to look for him. Thandee has already fallen into the hands of the enemy.”

“The enemy? Lord Xia Yu? Lord Xia Yu is only at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. How can she be a match for Thandee?” Lord Huanxu said.

Bai Qing’er said, “The traces here have been cleaned. The enemy is trying to cover something up. Unfortunately, the more they cover it up, the more it proves that my guess is correct.”

“Miss, are you saying that Zhang Ruochen really came to Hoth?” said the governor of Ji Feng City as he was slightly surprised.

Bai Qing’er said, “Who else but Zhang Ruochen could help Lord Xia Yu deal with Thandee and not let others know that he came to Hoth? Xue Qingsheng? He was not interested. He had been staying by the side of a junior like Lord Xia Yu.”

“Since Lord Xia Yu has escaped, it will be extremely difficult to find her again. What should we do next?” asked Lord Huan Xu.

Bai Qing’er said, “Lord Yue Lin, go to Madam Nixuan and inform her that Zhang Ruochen has arrived on Hoth secretly.”

“But we can’t be sure that the cultivator who attacked Thandee is Zhang Ruochen,” the governor of Ji Feng City said with some difficulty.

Bai Qing’er said, “Isn’t that better? We can use Madam Nixuan’s influence in the Xue Jue Family to help us find out if Zhang Ruochen is still cultivating in seclusion in his family's Dominion."

"Okay, I understand!" said Lord Yue Lin.

After Lord Yue Lin left, Bai Qing'er picked up a handful of bloody soil from the ground. She closed her eyes and released her powerful spiritual power.

The blood in the soil belonged to Thandee.

A moment later, Bai Qing'er opened her eyes, "If we can't find anything, then Thandee is dead! Lord Ironclad, send someone to deliver this bloody soil back to the Paarth Family and tell them that Madam Nixuan killed Thandee on Hoth."

Lord Ironclad took out a box and put the soil in Bai Qing'er's hand. He asked curiously, "Why don't you tell the Paarth Family that Zhang Ruochen killed Thandee and use him as a pretext?"

Bai Qing'er said, "Do the Paarth Family dare to kill Zhang Ruochen without absolute evidence? Don't forget the influence of the Emperor of Devala. As an ancient family in Devala, the Paarth Family is afraid of him."

She added, "We do want to deal with Zhang Ruochen, but it can be the Adjudication Division or Madam Nixuan who killed him. But it can't be us."

Lord Ironclad looked enlightened, He said, "You mean to add fire to Zhang Ruochen and Madam Nixuan and let them fight," he said. "In the future, when Zhang Ruochen dies on Hoth, everyone will think that it was Madam Nixuan who killed him. They won't suspect us. The cultivators of the Xue Jue family would have to deliver the bloody soil. Madam Nixuan had to know that Zhang Ruochen was deliberately trying to frame her. Zhang Ruochen made the first move. How could she just be sitting ducks?"

When he said this, Lord Ironclad had already turned into Zhang Ruochen.

Strands of black gauze gathered again, covering Bai Qing'er's graceful and graceful body. She said in a beautiful and gentle voice, "You do it! The rest of you, follow me to the House of Enchanteurs on Hoth. There may be another way to find Zhang Ruochen.”

After Bai Qing'er set Zhang Ruochen as her target, she checked the detailed information about Zhang Ruochen.

One of them caught her attention.

When he was in Kunlun, there was a powerful owl sacred beast beside Zhang Ruochen, who claimed to be the Emperor who slaughtered the Heavens and Earth.

There was also such an owl sacred beast on Hoth. It was also called the Emperor who slaughtered the Heavens and Earth. She had already sent cultivators from the House of Enchanteurs to investigate.

...

Thandee was indeed dead. His Sainthood Source had been absorbed by Moyin. After the Supreme Saint's blood was refined by Lord Xia Yu, it was put into a cup as if it was wine.

His Saint Soul was used to feed Zhang Ruochen the 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords from the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The Infernal Court was such a cruel and bloody place.

The blood of the Supreme Saint in Lord Xia Yu's cup was refined with 17 types of blood medicine. It wasn't bloody at all. Instead, it gave off a fragrant scent, which was irresistible to the Immortal Vampires.

She said, “I have some clues about the human woman you wanted me to investigate! A cultivator has seen her in a sacred mountain under the Avīci Pavilion.”

“The Avīci Pavilion!” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen looked thoughtful and asked, “How many cultivators know that you are investigating her?”

“Don't worry. I will send out a Spirit to attach to any cultivator I send out. The news will not be leaked,” Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where is the sacred mountain?”

“Mount Wutong in the Western District One. Let me remind you that the Avīci Pavilion’s influence on Hoth is greater than that of the Xue Jue family. You’d better not go to Mount Wutong so easily. You must think twice before you act,” Lord Xia Yu said solemnly.

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, “You did well on Hoth. Now, you can go back!”

Lord Xia Yu’s pretty face froze.

Zhang Ruochen continued, “Recently, I’ve offended a powerful figure. She’s ruthless and will stop at nothing. If you get too close to me, you’ll definitely be targeted. I suggest you go to the Fane of Immortality and cultivate in seclusion for a while. It’ll help you avoid trouble and breakthrough to the Thousand-Koan Realm as soon as possible.”

“Putting away the weapons after it was used,” said Lord Xia Yu.

The cup in Lord Xia Yu’s hand fell to the ground and shattered into pieces.

“If you want to chase me away, just say it. Why do you need to find so many reasons? Zhang Ruochen, do you really think that I am willing to work for you? Do you know how many rumors and slanders about me are spread behind my back? I don’t want my reputation. Do the people of the Xia clan not want their faces? Forget it. I will go to the Fane of Immortality. Anyway, if I stay here, I will only get in the way. I will also let your little lover of Kunlun misunderstand me.”

Lord Xia Yu didn’t even turn around. Spreading her silver wings, she flew off angrily.

“Women are so overthinking,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. Staring at Moyin, he said, “Go to the Royal City of Hundred Clans. If Ji Fanxin arrives, send me the news as soon as possible.”

Moyin stood up and stretched. Her curves were seductive. Her breasts, buttocks, and waist were stunningly full, she teased, “Lord Xia Yu is right. We are too beautiful. If we stay by your side, it will cause misunderstanding. Master, I won't trouble you. Hehe."

Chapter 2458: Blackie Has Returned

Hoth was enormous. It was so massive that it didn't resemble a planet. It seemed interminable. Zhang Ruochen never reached the edge of Kunlun. He had no idea how big the Hidden Barrens was or how far the sea stretched.

A snow-covered world like Hoth gave him the same feeling.

Only when he was alone would he think about the size of the world and realize how small he was.

When a man thought about the size of the world and the vastness of the universe, he was obviously lonely.

It was the loneliness sensation from the heart.

Zhang Ruochen had been in the Infernal Court for a long time. He had met many cultivators, but he always felt lonely. It was as if his mouth did not belong to him. Very few words he said were true.

Because there was no one around him whom he could tell the truth to.

Sometimes, his body didn't seem to belong to him either. He felt disgusted by many things he did. He even hated himself now. But he had to do those things.

Living in the Infernal Court seemed glorious, but he felt depressed.

However, the moment he heard the news about Mu Lingxi, Zhang Ruochen's quiet, cold, and lonely heart suddenly became excited. He couldn't wait to see her and hold her in his arms, he described in detail the pain, helplessness, and suffering in his heart. It didn't matter if he exposed his most vulnerable side.

That woman was like the sun in winter, the red plum in snow, and the stars in the darkness. She could heal his heart and mind.

Zhang Ruochen had everything to say in front of her.

He had nothing to hide.

Mu Lingxi must be the person who understood him the most in the world. She would support his decisions without any doubt.

Zhang Ruochen needed someone to confirm his decision when he was plagued by inner demons and couldn't decide whether what he was doing was right or wrong. to reassure him that he was not mistaken.

No one was always strong. They just hid their weakness in an unknown place.

Zhang Ruochen was no longer the sunny, kind, and pure youth he used to be. He had already become complicit and unscrupulous in the disputes between Celestial Court, Infernal Court, and Kunlun, he even killed his former good friend. One day, he might even lose his heart and fall into the evil path, becoming a blood clan demon that devours human blood.

At that time, perhaps only Mu Lingxi could wake him up and remind him of the summer when he was sixteen. They had cultivated martial arts together on the West Campus, and they had been in high spirits.

...

There were seventeen districts on Hoth, four in the east, four in the south, four in the west, and four in the north.

There was also Hothfrost in the center.

The length and width of each district ranged from millions of kilometers to tens of millions of kilometers.

Because he had to hide his identity and conceal his aura, he could not travel at full speed. Zhang Ruochen walked for three days and three nights from Eastern District Two to Western District One.

When he arrived at the foot of Mount Wutong, it was already dusk on the fourth day.

Hoth had a sun, and it had two rings. However, it was too far away and the heat was too low. Moreover, the planet was covered in a cold fog all year round, so it was difficult to see sunlight.

However, the sunset was exceptionally beautiful today. It dyed the sky red.

Zhang Ruochen silently passed through the array of the sacred mountain and sneaked in.

Saint veins flowed beneath the sacred mountain.

The heaven and earth Saint Qi in the mountain were thick. Exotic flowers and plants could be seen everywhere. The petals and leaves were sealed in ice crystals, making them look exceptionally beautiful.

Zhang Ruochen's heart unconsciously became nervous. He was worried that Lord Xia Yu's news was wrong. He was also worried that he was too confident. His actions in the Infernal Court might have made Mu Lingxi loathe him.

Passing through a pine field, an ancient building in Kunlun style appeared in front of him.

In a pavilion, he saw Mu Lingxi's graceful and moving figure. There was a red phoenix mark between her eyebrows. Her skin was as white as porcelain, and a sacred mist lingered around her. She was like a beautiful painting, hanging between the ice and snow.

She was still as beautiful as a phoenix fairy or frost sprite.

She paced back and forth in the pavilion as if she was thinking about something.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen's heart suddenly became calm. It was unprecedentedly calm. It was as if there were no more disputes in the world, and he didn't have to face enemies like Madam Nixuan and Bai Qing'er.

Zhang Ruochen's figure appeared in the air. Standing on the snow, he called out affectionately, "Lingxi!"

In the pavilion, Mu Lingxi looked at him immediately. Her eyes were filled with surprise and joy. Before she could speak, Zhang Ruochen had already appeared in front of her. He spread his wide arms and pulled her into his arms, it was as if he wanted to crush her and merge her into his body.

Feeling the warmth and softness of her body, Zhang Ruochen was greedy for a moment. He felt that there was no need to fight for anything in the future, and there was no need to do anything dangerous. He just wanted to take Mu Lingxi and leave the Infernal Court, he also didn't want to return to the Celestial Court or Kunlun. He wanted to take a saintship and float to the edge of the universe.

They could sit at the bow of the ship and observe the strange things in the universe. Such as the brilliant sea of stars. As if they were immortals living in harmony?

Unfortunately, he still had many things to do. There were still many people he couldn't let go of. He was destined not to leave, much less escape. Otherwise, wouldn't Supreme Saint Manjian have died in vain? He had promised the Empress that he would help her rescue the Lord of Nephilim Island, but he still hadn't done it.

Chi Yao and Pan Ruo also looked down on him even more. They thought that he was a coward who only knew how to run away.

Even if it was just to fight for his life, he had to wait until he defeated Chi Yao before he could withdraw from this disgusting feud.

Mu Lingxi's pretty face was tightly pressed against Zhang Ruochen's chest. At first, she struggled a little, but when she saw that Zhang Ruochen was hugging her too tightly and saying words of longing, she stopped struggling!

However, her snow-white face turned red with embarrassment.

"Zhang Ruochen, you beast, let go of that girl!" a voice came from afar.

A large bird flew over from afar in exasperation. It set off palm-sized snowflakes and rushed toward Zhang Ruochen, who was in the pavilion as if it wanted to tear him into pieces.

"Go away. Don't disturb us," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen held Mu Lingxi with one hand and did not even look at it. He waved his sleeve and shot out a spatial shock wave.

Unexpectedly, the big owl-like bird did not dodge. It tore the spatial shock wave with one claw. The other claw reached for his right shoulder.

Its round eyes were full of anger.

“Hey!” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen did not expect Blackie’s ability to become so powerful. So, he carried Mu Lingxi and used the Great Dimensional Shift to disappear from the pavilion.

The two reappeared in a cave on a snow cliff.

Zhang Ruochen gazed at Mu Lingxi with deep affection. He held her snow-white face with both hands and said with a gentle gaze, “Don’t worry about it. Today, I just want to stay with you. No one can disturb us.”

Zhang Ruochen was about to kiss her, but he suddenly felt that something was wrong when he stared at her sparkling eyes.

These eyes...

“Zhang Ruochen, come out and let go of Xue’er,” said Blackie.

Rumble

In the cave, the earth and the mountains shook violently. Shattered stones rolled down.

Blackie squeezed in. It was relieved when it saw that Zhang Ruochen had let go of Mu Lingxi. It flapped its wings, and a powerful spiritual power rushed over and hit Mu Lingxi.

Suddenly, Mu Lingxi’s figure and appearance changed greatly.

In his eyes, she was still a slim and beautiful woman. She looked very young and had the innocence and beauty of a young girl. She was like the clearest spring in the world, free from worldly dust.

She was Zhang Ruochen’s only disciple, Han Xue.

When Zhang Ruochen wanted to kiss her, he had his suspicions. He was not surprised, but he was embarrassed and a little confused.

“Amazing, Blackie. Your spiritual power is now so strong that it can hide from my perception,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie guarded against Zhang Ruochen like a hen protecting a chick. He stood in front of Han Xue and was very rude and arrogant, he said, “Pervert, you don’t know, do you? I am a first-class powerhouse, capable of slaughtering the world. However, I was hit by the Shenlong Chaos Tower of Sun and Moon, and the remnant power of the Divine Artifact remained in my body. I couldn’t resolve it, so I couldn’t use my power.

“When I came to the Infernal Court, the Empress helped me resolve the remnant power of the Divine Artifact. Now, I can beat anyone under the divinity. Do you want to try?”

Zhang Ruochen said coldly, “Explain to me first. Why did you turn Han Xue into Lingxi? Where is the real Lingxi?”

Blackie opened its eyes wide. It was full of vigor, he said, “You still care about Little Mu? I thought that being a Scion in the Infernal Court was very enjoyable. You had the fairy from the Portrait of the Nine Beauties by your side, and the number one beauty of the Bloodysky Clan accompanying you. You even made the heaven-blessed daughter of the Yanluo Clan pregnant, and you had the Reverend bestow a marriage upon you, marrying the princess of the Rakshasa. You’ve already fallen into a tender state, haven’t you? Scions are truly different. They can do whatever they want. “If I were that Mu gal, I would have forgotten you instead.”

Han Xue pulled its wings.

“Don’t pull me. I haven’t finished,” said Blackie.

Blackie continued, “Look at you now. Are you a human or an Immortal Vampire? If it weren’t for your past aura, I wouldn’t even dare to recognize you standing in front of me. What a heavy stench of blood. You’ve killed many humans in the Infernal Court, haven’t you? Have you devoured any of them?”

Zhang Ruochen didn't defend himself. He just stared at him silently.

If Mu Lingxi was the woman he cared about the most, Blackie must be his closest friend. They had experienced so much that no other cultivator could compare to them.

Blackie knew that their friendship was very deep, which was why it dared to scold him so brazenly.

Perhaps it was waiting for Zhang Ruochen to explain and scold it back to refute it.

Blackie finally stopped after it was out of breath. Finally, it said, "Tell me, have I wronged you?"

Zhang Ruochen did not explain. Instead, he asked, "The Empress is on Hoth? I want to see her."

"You still want to see the Empress? If the Empress sees you, she will definitely slap you to death. Do you think that every cultivator is as easy to talk to as I am? And give you a chance to explain yourself? To tell you the truth, you've already been rated as the number one traitor of this Yuanhui period. Those who want to kill you can line up to one circle of Hoth," Blackie said angrily.

Han Xue finally flew over Blackie's wings and walked forward, "Master, I transformed into Lady Lingxi's appearance because I hope to see you as soon as possible. After all, it's too dangerous for us to go to Bloodysky Clan's Dominion and the Divine Domain of Destiny. We can only wait for you here."

Zhang Ruochen instantly understood what was going on. Whether it was Blackie attacking the property of the Xue Jue family or Han Xue changing into Mu Lingxi's appearance, their goal was to lure him to Hoth.

Otherwise, how could the cultivators sent by Lord Xia Yu find Mu Lingxi so easily in Mount Wutong?

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Where is she?"

Han Xue said, "After Lady Lingxi disappeared in Kunlun, Blackie asserted that she must have gone to the Infernal Court to find you! However, she knows nothing about the Infernal Court. It must be extremely dangerous for her to find you. So, after coming to the Infernal Court, I mobilized the power of the Avīci Pavilion to look for her.”

“Any results?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Han Xue shook her head, and said, “Lady Lingxi must have changed her appearance. It’s even possible that she turned into a Corpusian or a Deathkin. According to various intelligence I gathered, the Avīci Pavilion only found a cultivator who was suspected to be her. The last place she appeared was in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.”

“I am heading over now,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Han Xue quickly added, “It’s useless to go now.”

“Why is that?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“Because the cultivator suspected to be Lady Lingxi has been taken away by a cultivator from the royal family of Devala,” Han Xue explained.

“The royal family of Devala,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Sha’s figure instantly appeared in Zhang Ruochen’s mind.

That’s right!

It must be Luo Sha.

There were very few cultivators who knew that Mu Lingxi had come to the Infernal Court, and Luo Sha happened to be one of them.

With the power of Devala, it would not be difficult to find a cultivator in the Infernal Court.

Even if Mu Lingxi concealed her aura and changed her appearance, some things could not be changed. For example, the place to set off was definitely Kunlun. The aura of the Frost Phoenix could not be completely concealed, and her cultivation realm had not changed since.

As long as Devala said a word, the dark forces would give them face.

Once Mu Lingxi sneaked into the divine kingdom, her tracks would be exposed.

‘Luo Sha, what are you thinking?’ Zhang Ruochen wondered. Zhang Ruochen was worried. After all, Luo Sha was a woman. A narrow-minded woman. How could she tolerate another woman?

A Communication talisman flew from the sky and floated in front of Zhang Ruochen as he was about to rush to Devala.

Someone on Hoth actually sent a message to him.

To accurately send a message to the cultivator’s side, one had to grasp a trace of his aura and fuse it with the talisman if they didn’t have a spatial coordinate.

Opening the talisman, he saw that it was signed by Yan Hanyi.

He was the teacher who had taught Luo Sha and Luo Shengtian the Path of Flowing Light.

He had also come to Hoth.

The content of the talisman said, “On behalf of the princess, she wishes to inform you that Lady Lingxi is safe and sound in the royal palace of Devala. There’s no need to worry, my husband. When you come to Devala to marry me, you can be reunited with her.”

Seeing the content of the Communication talisman, Zhang Ruochen felt extremely complicated and curious. Luo Sha was clearly in Devala and was in seclusion. How could he guess that he had come to Hoth?

He had made many arrangements to secretly come to Hoth.

Now, it seemed that everything he had done was too deliberate in the eyes of some extremely intelligent cultivators. It had exposed his whereabouts.

In the beginning, Zhang Ruochen was only afraid of the gods. He was worried that the gods knew everything.

Now, it seemed that the gods weren’t the most terrifying. After all, no god would spend all their effort studying the movements of a mere Supreme Saint.

Chapter 2459: Farewell, My Empress

“Pervert, are you still with me? I am very powerful now. I can suppress you with one claw.” said Blackie.

Being ignored by Zhang Ruochen made Blackie feel depressed and decided to teach him a lesson.

WHOOSH!

A powerful spiritual power was released from its body and condensed into streaks of thunder and fire. It melted the cave wall and rushed toward Zhang Ruochen.

This thunder and fire were even more terrifying than the Divine Purification Flame that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated. Zhang Ruochen realized that Blackie’s cultivation had really recovered. He had underestimated it before.

Crash

Suddenly, the space shattered and a three-meter-long hole appeared.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t balance himself and fell into the dark void. Then, he was swept away by a strange light beam and disappeared.

Blackie’s eyes changed slightly. He was about to chase into the void, but he was hit by an invisible power wave and rolled back like a top.

The sound of a sword rang out.

The Void Sword flew out and landed in Han Xue’s hand.

Blackie got up from the ground and said, “Don’t chase after him. It’s the Empress. The Empress took Zhang Ruochen away.”

Han Xue was worried. She frowned and said, “We have to go and plead for master. I believe that he must have been forced to do what he did in the Infernal Court. It wasn't his original intention."

Blackie shook his head and said, "If the Empress wanted to kill him, why would she take him away? In her eyes, a mere Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint is just a stronger worm."

Han Xue put away the Void Sword and said, "I understand! Master must have met the Empress long ago. Maybe he also secretly joined the Avīci Pavilion."

Blackie shook his head again, "No," he said. "I think the Empress is fond of talents, so she mercifully spared Zhang Ruochen's life. She wants him to turn over a new leaf. The Empress is too kind, too grand, and too broad-minded. I can't compare to her.

"Oh, there is a bigger possibility. The Empress probably didn't kill him just now because of me. After all, I have a unique position in the Empress's heart. No one can replace me!"

Han Xue said, "Even so, why did the Empress hit you and send you flying back?"

Blackie's smug expression froze. With a face as black as a cat, he snorted and turned to leave. He said angrily, "Just wait to collect Zhang Ruochen's corpse. The Empress won't let him go."

...

Empress of Thousand Bones' Divine Plane was an endless sea.

The surface of the sea was as calm as a mirror, reflecting a clear reflection.

This was Zhang Ruochen's second visit. The Empress of Thousand Bones stood in front of him. Her posture was as straight as a divine sword. She was only wearing a white robe. Her black hair was casually draped behind her back, tied in the middle with a blue ribbon.

She had a gentle temperament, a noble and imposing elegance, a boundless and invisible mystery, and the spirit of a wargod that swept through thousands of soldiers. No woman stood in front of her without feeling ashamed of her inferiority.

Even though Zhang Ruochen had been tempered to be firm enough, he was still impressed.

Zhang Ruochen had met many unique women, but none of them could be like Empress of Thousand Bones, who had all kinds of extreme temperaments condensed into one body. It was like a sacred mountain shrouded in clouds and mist. No matter how hard he tried to investigate, he could not see through it, he could not find it.

Compared to her, Chi Yao was less mysterious and more domineering.

Compared to her, Moon Goddess was less heroic and more gentle.

This was the first time Zhang Ruochen had seen the Empress of Thousand Bones' figure clearly, but he still couldn't see her face clearly. How beautiful was her face that could make men have endless illusions?

The Empress of Thousand Bones stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, "In the past, I always thought that I could see through the essence of the world, including every cultivator I met. But I can't see through you and Pan Ruo."

"Recently, I've been thinking about a problem. Pan Ruo was clearly unwilling to agree to the marriage because of you. She even went against the will of the Reverend and almost died. However, not long ago, I told her that she didn't have to continue being a Scioness. She didn't have to risk staying in the Infernal Court. I told her to leave with you and pursue her own life. Guess what's her answer?"

"I think she refused!" Zhang Ruochen said.

The Empress of Thousand Bones nodded and said, "I asked her why, but she kept silent."

"She is a woman who doesn't like to explain and hides everything in her heart," Zhang Ruochen said.

The Empress of Thousand Bones said, "In that case, let me ask you a question. If I agree to help you save Chi Kunlun and Chi Kongyue, are you willing to leave the Infernal Court with Pan Ruo? I believe that you don't like the deceit of the Infernal Court and the smell of blood that can corrode people's hearts."

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and said, "No."

The Empress of Thousand Bones said, "Why? For her, you used the Avīci token and asked me to kill Lady Wind. Then you fought Yan Wushen to the death. Weren't these two things to stop her from marrying Yan Wushen? Didn't you want to be with her? Did you want her to continue staying in such a dangerous place like the Infernal Court? Or did you like staying in the Infernal Court and don't want to leave?"

"My Empress, I don't have the answers to your question," Zhang Ruochen said.

The Empress of Thousand Bones smiled. She said, "Human nature is indeed complicated. It's funny that I thought I had seen through everything in the world before. It seems that no matter what cultivation I reach, I can't see through the vastness of the universe and the depth of the human heart.

"I've already got Fuurei's Destiny Token. If you lend me the Canon of Destiny for some time, I can forge a brand-new Destiny Token."

The Empress of Thousand Bones stretched out a flawless white hand. Her five fingers were slender and long, looking extremely beautiful.

Zhang Ruochen reached out his palm and touched the sacred and inviolable hand. Instantly, a bright light bloomed between his palms, illuminating the entire Divine Plane.

For some reason, Zhang Ruochen could trust her without reservation even though they had only known each other for a short period.

Perhaps this was her charm!

She was able to establish the Avīci Pavilion in the Infernal Court and was listed as one of the top ten dark forces. She had many powerhouses under her command and countless cultivators surrendered to her. It was definitely not something that could be achieved solely by cultivation.

After the Empress of Thousand Bones took away the Canon of Destiny, she said, “How long will you stay on Hoth?”

“Three months at most,” Zhang Ruochen said.

The Empress of Thousand Bones said, “Three months should be enough! I will return the Canon of Destiny to you within three months. Go. If you run into a problem on Hoth that you can’t solve, you can ask Blackie and Han Xue to summon the power of the Avci Pavilion to assist you.”

SWOOSH!

Numerous Dimensional Inscriptions flew out of her sleeve and hit Zhang Ruochen.

In the next moment, Zhang Ruochen felt as if his body was constantly jumping in space. He could neither breathe nor control his body.

When one of the jumps stopped, he could vaguely see the huge outline of Hoth. It was like a white egg floating in the universe. The surface of the egg was covered in mist.

A moment later, he stepped on the ground and found that he had returned to the cave in Mount Wutong.

Taking a long breath, Zhang Ruochen’s heart gradually calmed down. He thought to himself, “It seems that the Empress is not on Hoth at all. She is in the universe void far away from Hoth.”

At that moment, he estimated that he had traveled at least one billion miles, or even more.

The Empress’s spatial attainments were very high.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen had returned safely, Han Xue’s worried heart finally settled. She said, “Master, the Empress didn’t make things difficult for you, did she?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head slightly and asked, “In the Infernal Court, how many cultivators know that you are from the Avīci Pavilion?”

“Not many! After I came to the Infernal Court with the Grandmaster, the Empress noticed I had the Thousand Bones Physique, cultivated God’s Fall, and received the approval of the Void Sword. Therefore, the Empress thought that we were fated to meet each other and accepted me as her disciple. Only a few of the higher-ups of the Avīci Pavilion know about this,” Han Xue said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What about Blackie?”

“Blackie has only been in the Infernal Court for a short time. Although it has caused a lot of trouble on Hoth, few cultivators know that it is related to the Avīci Pavilion. The cultivators in Mount Wutong have seen it, but they will forget it after seeing it. Blackie’s spiritual power is strong. It will erase their memories,” Han Xue said.

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, “If that’s the case, you can help me a little.”

Although the Empress had requested that Blackie and Han Xue mobilize the power of the Avci Pavilion to assist him, Zhang Ruochen did not dare to approach the Avci Pavilion.

He had to distance himself from the Avīci Pavilion.

“How about this, Han Xue? If you continue to stay in the Avci Pavilion, you should change your appearance and avoid contacting me directly,” Zhang Ruochen advised.

Han Xue asked, “And then?”

“When I need the help of the Avīci Pavilion, I will send you a message,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie snorted coldly in the cave and said, “The Avīci Pavilion is the Empress’s foundation. How can you mobilize it just because you want to?”

“This is the Empress’ idea!” Zhang Ruochen said.

“What?” said Blackie.

Blackie was so shocked that its eyeballs almost fell to the ground. He said, “Impossible. The Empress spared your life because of me. Ahem, maybe because of Xue’er.”

“The Empress also said that from now on, you should listen to my arrangements. If you don’t, she will hit your ears,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Are you kidding me? If the Empress said that, I... I will become a dog in my next rebirth.”

Blackie could not believe that the Empress was so noble and sacred that she would cooperate with scum like Zhang Ruochen.

It also could not believe that with its current cultivation and its previous friendship with the Empress, the Empress would let it listen to Zhang Ruochen?

It should be Zhang Ruochen who obeyed him.

After a while.

Blackie seemed to have communicated with the Empress’s spiritual sense. It came to Zhang Ruochen in a daze. There was an indescribable sadness in its eyes, it said, “It shouldn’t be. The Empress should trust me more. Why? Why? After waiting for 100,000 years, I’m not as good as you.”

Zhang Ruochen patted its head and said, “Have you thought about what you’ll become in the next rebirth? You Don’t have to become a dog. I think you’ll look good as a cat.”

“Really?” said Blackie.

Blackie’s eyes lit up. It felt that it was acceptable to become a cat.

After all, it had been a cat for 100,000 years.

“Let’s see your performance. Come with me to meet someone. There are some things I need to figure out,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Chapter 2460: A Brewing Storm on Hoth

“First of all, I would like to state that I agreed to help you because of the Empress,” said Blackie.

“Everyone on Hoth knows what you look like now. I think it’s better to turn into a cat so that people won’t notice,” said Zhang Ruochen.

“Turn into a cat? Are you trying to humiliate me? I am a noble Phoenix,” said Blackie.

“But you’re just an owl now. Who would believe that you’re a Phoenix?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Hearing this, Blackie was disheartened. He said unwillingly, “Can I not transform into a cat? I think it’s more powerful to transform into a tiger. It’d be best if you were a Divine beast.”

Zhang Ruochen made a strange face and said, “Or a Primeval Divine Beast?”

“Hey! That’s a good idea.” Blackie was delighted.

The voice of Intergold Tiger rang in Zhang Ruochen’s ears. “How do you know such an idiot? If it turns into a tiger, I’ll eat it in one bite. Neither the tigers nor the Primeval Divine Beast can afford to lose face.”

Blackie was pleased with himself and was about to change.

Zhang Ruochen coughed dryly and said, “I think you’re still not suitable to turn into a tiger.”

“Why not?” Blackie was stunned.

Zhang Ruochen said, “A tiger’s butt is too big. It’s fat and round. I’m afraid I can’t help myself.”

Blackie took two steps back with a guarded look. He thought to himself, ‘Zhang Ruochen is a scumbag. After fusing with the Immortal Vampire bloodline, he has become a lot more perverted. He actually had thoughts on my butt.

Without hesitation, Blackie turned into a black hedgehog and stared at Zhang Ruochen with a provocative look.

‘Come on, let’s fight.’ Blackie thought.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and flew away.

He was very confident in Blackie’s Shapeshifting technique.

It had followed the Empress and read a plethora of books. It had even taught Han Xue the God’s Fall, one of Kunlun’s six mysterious books. Blackie had naturally mastered the enigmatic Shapeshifting technique. Without a god, no cultivator could see through its powerful spiritual power.

Zhang Ruochen changed his appearance and entered West One City with Blackie the hedgehog.

There were 17 cities on Hoth, one in each district.

West One City was majestic and built on a vast ice field. The city walls were as tall as mountains, and the whole city was like an ice and snow Divine Beast.

Zhang Ruochen had found West One City based on the aura of the Communication talisman.

Using the Avīci Pavilion’s token, Zhang Ruochen quickly found out where Yan Hanyi lived. To be more precise, he found out that the Divine Prince of Devala had come to Hoth and the location of the Divine Prince’s temporary residence.

It was obvious that Yan Hanyi must have come with the Divine Prince.

“How did Luo Shengtian come to Hoth? It seems that Yan Hanyi didn’t come to Hoth to send a letter to Luo Sha. There must be something else important.”

Zhang Ruochen came to the temporary residence of the Divine Prince and saw the door open. Three figures walked out.

In addition to Luo Shengtian and Yan Hanyi, there was a cold-looking woman. It was Feng Qingli, whom Zhang Ruochen had met at the engagement party. This woman was Luo Sha's best friend and also Amane's disciple.

Luo Shengtian was extraordinary. He walked side by side with Feng Qingli.

He changed from his usual rigid and cold appearance. He smiled as he walked as if he was talking about something. The two of them were very close.

A delicate and elegant carriage was pulled by two white dragons. It drove in front of the three people.

Luo Shengtian came to the carriage and helped Feng Qingli to board it first.

Zhang Ruochen stood far away and saw all this. He smiled and said, "It seems that this Divine Prince is not an unromantic man."

Then, Zhang Ruochen secretly transmitted his voice to Yan Hanyi.

Yan Hanyi's ears twitched. He looked around without leaving any trace. He looked at Luo Shengtian, who was about to board the carriage, he said, "I still have to continue investigating the matter of the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. I won't accompany Your Highness and Miss Qingli to the banquet!"

Luo Shengtian did not expect Yan Hanyi to be so tactful. He was even satisfied, but his expression was very serious, he said, "Devala did not pay much attention to Hoth in the past. There were too few cultivators here. Now, I can only trouble teacher to handle it personally!"

"I don't feel at ease leaving such a secret matter to the cultivators below," Yan Hanyi said.

After the carriage left, Zhang Ruochen walked toward Yan Hanyi and asked, "Where should we talk?"

"In the mansion!" said Yan Hanyi.

Yan Hanyi carefully observed Zhang Ruochen. He was quite surprised. With his cultivation, he couldn't see through the flaws in Zhang Ruochen's Shapeshifting technique. Was this something a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint could do?

After entering the mansion, Yan Hanyi activated the array.

He said, "Actually, you don't have to avoid the Divine Prince. He has no ill intentions towards you. In the Divine Domain of Destiny, when the Adjudication Division surrounded the Vastsea Manor, Divine Prince sent all the cultivators of Devala out to look for Cang Baizi and Xing Qian. He wanted to help you get away with your crime."

Zhang Ruochen sat straight on the chair and changed his appearance, he smiled and said, "In the Fane of Destiny, I promised that I would meet him. Unfortunately, something happened later and I had to leave first. With his temper, how could he not be angry? If he saw me, the first thing he would do would be to fight me. On Hoth, I don't dare to fight easily, and I don't dare to expose my whereabouts."

Yan Hanyi showed an understanding look and said, "The Divine Prince is indeed a little angry about the matters regarding the House of Enchanteurs."

Zhang Ruochen stopped smiling and said, "Elder Yan should understand why I came to see you, right?"

The relaxed atmosphere just now was gone. The space in the room seemed to have frozen.

Yan Hanyi said, "You should know how the Princess feels about you. She won't do anything to disappoint you. Lady Lingxi will definitely not be wronged when she goes to the Royal Palace of Devala.

"Back then, at the engagement banquet, a cultivator wanted to embarrass you, so he deliberately added human flesh and blood into the dishes. It was the Princess who sent people to immediately remove the dishes. From these actions, it can be seen that the Princess cares about your feelings.

"Ever since she was young, the Princess has been doted on by thousands of people. Everyone, including the Emperor, has to take into account her feelings and accommodate her in every way. This is the first time I've seen her take another person's feelings into consideration and accommodate him in every way.

"You may not know this, but when you were arrested by the Adjudication Division, the Princess personally went to the Emperor to save you and got a priceless Emperor Grade Sacred Pill. And she gave the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill to Lord Wu Yue of the Destiny Division."

Zhang Ruochen was stunned. He sighed and said, "I see."

It was not a coincidence that the Destiny Division and Lord Wu Yue had interfered in the matter.

Zhang Ruochen recalled all the things he had done since he had met Luo Sha. He felt a little guilty.

There were a few times when he had been too cruel to her.

She did not seem to hold a grudge.

Everyone thought that Luo Sha was extremely intelligent. However, when she met Zhang Ruochen and treated him, she seems to have lost her intellect.

If it was just because of a prophecy from the "Right Person," how could it be so?

She was so smart. How could she not see that Zhang Ruochen had no feelings for her?

She had sent someone to take Mu Lingxi away. Perhaps she just wanted to see what was so good about this woman that Zhang Ruochen fell in love with that she could not compare to?

Or perhaps she was just feeling a sense of crisis, worried about gains and losses, afraid that Zhang Ruochen would break off the engagement or even leave the Infernal Court.

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen asked, "Is Luo Sha in seclusion?"

The moment he asked this question, Zhang Ruochen's heart trembled. It seemed that this was the first time that he had taken the initiative to care about Luo Sha and ask about her. Before, he did not seem to care about her at all. He did not even have the concept that she was already his fiancée.

Yan Hanyi said, "After the Princess reaches the Supreme Saint Realm, she can break the seal in her body and control the divine power she was born with. She'll need to seclude herself for a long time to understand and integrate."

Zhang Ruochen asked again, "Why did you come to Hoth?"

A strange look flashed in Yan Hanyi's eyes. He wanted to say something but stopped. Then he said, "Actually, many powerful figures came to Hoth for a big matter. However, this is a big matter. I can't reveal it."

Zhang Ruochen's heart moved. He already had a guess.

"I want to go to Devala. Can you help me?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was still worried. He planned to go personally. He wanted to see Mu Lingxi as well as Luo Sha.

Seeing the two women at the same time gave Zhang Ruochen a headache. However, no matter how much it gave him a headache, he had to go. He had to face them sooner or later.

"That's good too. The Princess really wants to see you," Yan Hanyi said.

Zhang Ruochen left the mansion. When he left, Yan Hanyi gave him a token. He could freely pass through the various dimensional teleportation arrays and wormholes of Devala's palace without exposing his identity.

Not long after he left the mansion, Zhang Ruochen sensed something. He looked up at the second floor on the right side of the street with a strange expression.

He saw Guye Jing, dressed in a blue robe, sitting by the window upstairs. She stared at him and moved her lips.

Her voice only rang in Zhang Ruochen's ears. "How about a cup of tea? We have something important to discuss."

Guye Jing had a drop of his blood. Zhang Ruochen was not surprised that she could find him and see through him.

Since he had already met her, how could he hide?

Besides, Zhang Ruochen also had a question in his heart and was about to ask her to solve it.

Blackie snorted. "Another woman, and a very powerful one at that. Zhang Ruochen, you are worse than I thought."

"Cut the crap. Just one question. Can you beat her?" Zhang Ruochen transmitted his voice.

Blackie opened and closed his eyes and looked arrogant. He said, "No matter how powerful she is, she is not as powerful as me. I can beat ten of her once I attack."

"Really? She is the most outstanding genius of the current generation in the Rāhu Mountains. She is only one step away from the divinity," Zhang Ruochen said.

"From the Rāhu Mountains?" said Blackie.

Blackie's eyes showed surprise and he muttered.

"Are you sure you can do it? Are you scared?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was very angry. Blackie liked to brag too much and would drop the ball at the critical moment.

Zhang Ruochen was cautious about Guye Jing.

This woman was unfathomable.

Blackie's tone was not as arrogant as before, he said, "The Rāhu Mountains are no small matter. It is a world formed by the body of the legendary Demon Patriarch, Rahu. This woman is very likely to have received the true inheritance of the Demon Patriarch. She can not be underestimated."

"What is the Demon Patriarch's lineage?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"It will take a while. I can't explain it to you. Let's go and meet her first. Now that my cultivation has recovered, I want to find a top-notch powerhouse to fight with. I want to make the name of the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth resound in Celestial Court and Infernal Court again. I want to make all the living beings who see me tremble in fear,” Blackie said coldly.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He finally felt that Blackie was a little arrogant and a little blindly confident. He said, “You should restrain yourself. Now is not the time to expose your strength.”

He climbed up the tower and came to the opposite side of Guye Jing. Zhang Ruochen suddenly felt that the precepts of heaven and earth around him had changed. It was as if he had stepped into a small independent space.

However, he did not notice anything strange before approaching her.

Of course, it was also because Zhang Ruochen did not use the Heart of Truth to deliberately investigate.

“Why did you come to Hoth?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing held a teacup in her hand and carefully looked into Zhang Ruochen’s eyes. She said, “The five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin that were originally stored in the House of Enchanters were stolen! When they were stolen, the thief even killed Tan Fei.”

“What? How did this happen?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing said, “Do you want to know who stole the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin?”

“Why are you looking at me like that? Do you think I stole the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing continued to stare at him as if she wanted to see through his reality and falsehood, “That’s the truth!” she said! “The five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin had been taken away by someone using spatial means through 17 layers of the barrier. Who else had such high spatial attainments other than you? Moreover, the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin were held in Tan Fei’s hands. When he self-detonated his Sainthood Source, he shouted out that it was you who killed him.”

“Conspiracy, it’s definitely a conspiracy. Someone wants to frame me,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t dare to take the blame. The five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin would implicate more than a dozen big forces. Once this matter was confirmed, countless powerhouses would come looking for him.

For the sake of the Fane of Origin, those people would do anything.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Although I’m a Master of Space, there are countless cultivators with high spatial attainments in the Infernal Court. It’s not strange for a god to personally take action for superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin, right?”

“The god from the Rāhu Mountains went to the House of Enchanters to investigate. It’s confirmed that it wasn’t a god,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I know. It’s Seven-Armed Elder. The Adjudication Division and the Destiny Division found the South-Haven Pollen at the place where Tan Fei self-detonated. That means it must be Seven-Armed Elder.”

“Seven-Armed Elder is missing. Even the Destiny Division hasn’t figured out his location. The Adjudication Division and the Destiny Division mobilized the power of the entire Fane of Destiny, but they couldn’t find any traces of Seven-Armed Elder leaving. Many cultivators guessed that Seven-Armed Elder might have been killed. But someone deliberately used the South-Haven Pollen to divert everyone’s attention to him, a dead man,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen finally realized that Guye Jing did not believe that he had stolen the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin from the beginning. She had asked him that just to test him.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “If Seven-Armed Elder is really dead, won’t the clue be lost?”

Guye Jing nodded and said, “The clue is lost, so we can only start from the source. The first place where the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin appeared was the House of Enchanters on Hoth.”

“Is that why you came to Hoth?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing said, “Yes! Actually, there is another clue.”

“What clue?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

“You!” said Guye Jing.

“Me? Why me?” Zhang Ruochen asked innocently.

Guye Jing said, “Many cultivators think that you couldn’t steal five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin and kill Tan Fei. However, you did use the Violet Gourd in the area near the House of Enchanters. You had something to do with the death of Xing Qian, the disappearance of Cang Baizi, and the disappearance of Seven-Armed Elder. Even if it was a frame-up, why would others frame you instead of another cultivator?”

“Tell me, Master Ruochen, What are you hiding?”

Zhang Ruochen did have a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, so he felt uncomfortable and guilty under the gaze of Guye Jing. However, at this moment, he thought of a plan to kill two birds with one stone.

Perhaps he could use Guye Jing’s power to deal with Bai Qing’er.

A demoness and a wicked woman. He could only escape if they fought with each other.

Chapter 2461: Wuma Jiuxing

Zhang Ruochen rubbed his temples as he was exhausted. He said, "I did find something unusual in the House of Enchanters. How much do you know about Bai Qing'er?"

Hearing the name "Bai Qing'er", Guye Jing's calm and cold face turned solemn, she said, "She is known as the most mysterious woman in the Enchanter Chamber. There are rumors that her father is likely to be Huang Tian. As for her specific age, cultivation realm, saint techniques, secret techniques, and abilities, they are rarely revealed. Therefore, the outside world knows very little about her."

Zhang Ruochen said, "On the night you fought for the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin, Bai Qing'er was in the House of Enchanters. Moreover, she tricked Noqoilpi, the Seven-Armed Elder cleverly."

"A bet on the Rainbow Viburnum?" Guye Jing asked.

Zhang Ruochen nodded.

Guye Jing smiled lightly and said, "The cultivator who made Seven-Armed Elder lose hundreds of thousands of Godstones is called the Heaven and Earth Slaughterer. This news has long spread throughout the Infernal Court. Isn't that you?"

The hedgehog lying on the ground raised its head and glared at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen knew that Guye Jing will investigate him, so he admitted it, he said, "Yes, I am the Heaven and Earth Slaughterer. But I am not the one who set the trap. I just don't like the fact that the woman I love is at a disadvantage. That's why I intervened."

Guye Jing's eyes revealed a mocking look. She said, "The woman you love? You mean Yan Zhexian?"

"Yes," Zhang Ruochen said.

“Master Ruochen, you really are a sentimental person,” said Guye Jing.

The sarcasm in her words was strong!

Zhang Ruochen did not seem to care, he continued, “In the bet, the mysterious black-veiled cultivator is Bai Qing’er. Other than that, Cang Baizi, Lord Ironclad, Lord Huanxu, and Thandee are all her underlings.”

Guye Jing said, “The four you’re talking about are all top-notch Supreme Saints who are well-known. They have support from the Hall of Permanence and the Paarth Family. Why would they listen to a woman from the Enchanter Chamber?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Bai Qing’er is more powerful than you think. I only know that she used the power of the dream to control these Supreme Saints. If you don’t believe me, you can go and find out.”

“Fine! Even if Bai Qing’er has heaven-defying means, why did she set up a trap to deal with the Seven-Armed Elder?” Guye Jing asked.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen could not tell Guye Jing everything. With her intellect, she would be suspicious of him if she talked too much.

Zhang Ruochen shrugged and said, “How would I know? Why did she do that? Just to find out this matter, I have caused myself a great deal of trouble.”

“Continue,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “That night, I followed Cang Baizi and left the House of Enchanters. I didn’t expect to see Bai Qing’er and the Seven-Armed Elder fighting. The Seven-Armed Elder and Xing Qian died at Bai Qing’er’s hands, while the Seven-Armed Elder killed Cang Baizi with one strike.

“Bai Qing’er’s spiritual power was strong. She found me hiding in the dark and wanted to kill me. I had no choice but to take out the Violet Gourd.

“Originally, even if I used the Violet Gourd, I couldn’t stop her. Fortunately, the last attack of the Seven-Armed Elder caused her a lot of trouble, so I was able to escape.

“That’s about it!

“I think the reason why I was targeted by the Adjudication Division must be Bai Qing’er’s doing. She manipulates others to kill me.”

More than 70% of what Zhang Ruochen said was true.

Guye Jing clearly believed him. She fell into deep thought and said, “I went to the area where you used the Violet Gourd to investigate. There were indeed traces of battle there, but the terrain was restored by someone with a brilliant method.”

“Bai Qing’er is too powerful. She should be ranked first below divinity of the Infernal Court,” said Zhang Ruochen as he showed a lingering fear on his face.

Guye Jing snorted, “You’re only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Your understanding of the top echelon below divinity is too shallow! Only a genius of the Yuanhui level who had reached the Paramount Realm would dare to claim to be the best below divinity. Since you know the truth, why didn’t you tell the Adjudication Division when they surrounded the Vastsea Manor?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s obvious that Bai Qing’er and the Adjudication Division, and even the entire Fane of Destiny, have an unspeakable deal to kill me. Even if I tell the truth, it won’t change the situation. It’s better to deny it directly and pretend that I don’t know. They can’t do anything to me.

“By the way, Seven-Armed Elder said something before he died. I think Bai Qing’er killed him because she wanted to silence me.”

Guye Jing asked, “What did he say?”

Zhang Ruochen looked around with fear.

Guye Jing said, “Don’t worry. This is my Precept Domain. Even the gods can’t hear our conversation.”

Zhang Ruochen lowered his voice and said, “The Seven-Armed Elder said that even if he dies, he won’t tell me where he got the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.”

Guye Jing’s expression brightened. Her phoenix eyes opened and closed. She said, “Are you sure you didn’t hear wrong?”

“How could I hear wrongly? After careful analysis, I came up with a shocking guess,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing sneered, “Is there still a need to guess? The superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin appeared in the casino of the House of Enchanteurs because someone had already been to the Fane of Origin. That cultivator was Seven-Armed Elder. Tan Fei’s five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin must be related to the Seven-Armed Elder. Bai Qing’er probably found out that the Seven-Armed Elder is the source of the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin by setting up a trap to deal with the Seven-Armed Elder.

“Everything makes sense now. I didn’t expect a mere Enchanter Chamber to be so ambitious.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “My guess is that The cultivator who stole the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin is most likely Bai Qing’er. Firstly, the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin and Tan Fei have been sealed in the House of Enchanteurs. Only the cultivators inside the House of Enchanteurs can do something.

“Secondly, why did Tan Fei suddenly self-detonate his Sainthood Source and shout that I killed him? I think it was Bai Qing’er who used the power of dreams. Only the power of dreams can alter reality.

“Thirdly, the Destiny Division intervened to save me. It was beyond Bai Qing’er’s expectations. She knew that the truth could not be hidden for long. Therefore, she used the South-Haven pollen to shift everyone’s attention back to the deceased Seven-Armed Elder. In this way, all the clues are broken.

“She wants to monopolize the Fane of Origin.”

Guye Jing was extremely shrewd. She had her own judgment and did not completely trust Zhang Ruochen.

She said, “These are your own words. I don’t believe that you would tell me such an important thing without any reservations. Of course, I believe that some of what you said should be the truth, but there should still be a lot left, right?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I know you have doubts. In fact, I’m telling you all this because I’m forced to.”

“Oh?” said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing showed an interesting look as if she did not believe him.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Bai Qing’er still did not give up on killing me. She chased me from the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan all the way to Hoth. Not long ago, she sent Thandee to capture my other beloved woman, Lord Xia Yu. She wanted to force me to submit and seal my mouth. Fortunately, I arrived in time to save Lord Xia Yu. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

“I know very well that with my cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, even if I were ten times stronger, Bai Qing’er would only need one finger to press me to death. So now, I really hope to form an alliance with a powerhouse who can fight against her. I really can’t think of anyone else but you.”

To make Guye Jing believe in him and despise him, Zhang Ruochen decided to continue portraying his lustful and amorous image.

Guye Jing sneered, “Your last words went against your heart! You chose to form an alliance with me for another purpose, right?”

Zhang Ruochen smiled awkwardly and said, “You’ve seen through me again! Yes, if to form an alliance, I have other options, such as Luo Shengtian. However, the only one who can help me resolve my inner demons is someone from The Rāhu Mountains.”

“You’d better be telling the truth. If you have other intentions, it’s better to give up as soon as possible. Otherwise, even if you’re Luo Sha’s fiancé, I’ll still show no mercy,” said Guye Jing.

Zhang Ruochen was stunned, but he immediately reacted.

Did Guye Jing think that he formed an alliance with her because he wanted to woo her?

Were all the women in the Infernal Court so self-righteous?

Or rather, the image he had created was too deeply rooted in people's hearts. As soon as he approached, all the women of the Infernal Court would immediately be on guard. They instinctively felt that he was plotting against them?

Zhang Ruochen said, "If there's nothing else, I'll take my leave first!"

"Wait," said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing glanced at Zhang Ruochen and said, "I thought you say you wanted to form an alliance?"

"That's right. However, my cultivation is too weak now, so it's not suitable for me to get involved in this mess for the time being. So I've decided to go back to the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan to hide for a while and breakthrough to the Thousand-Koan Realm first," Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing said, "Why do you need to hide when I'm around?"

"Well..." said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was speechless. He didn't expect Guye Jing to act so irrationally.

His original plan was to provoke the conflict between Guye Jing and Bai Qing'er. He would go to Devala immediately. After returning, the two girls should have fought each other to the point where they were both injured. All he needed to do was pick up the bodies after that.

However, Guye Jing was obviously not easy to manipulate. She had no intention of letting him go.

Guye Jing said, "Since you suspect that Bai Qing'er stole five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin and killed Tan Fei, then let's go meet her and see how powerful she is."

"I can't interfere in a fight between powerhouses of your level," Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing shook her head, "Five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin were stolen by someone using Power of Dimension," she said. "So this time, we're going to deal with Bai Qing'er mainly to test whether she's proficient in the Path of Dimension. You're a Master of Space. How can you not interfere?"

Zhang Ruochen was not as crazy as Guye Jing. There were many powerhouses around Bai Qing'er. How could they be dealt with just like that?

He was about to reject her again.

Guye Jing said, "You're not going to use me to deal with Bai Qing'er and reap the benefits, are you? In other words, you've already obtained superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin. Bai Qing'er's purpose in dealing with you is to seize the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin? You want me to deal with Bai Qing'er, and then you secretly went to the Fane of Origin?"

"Of course not. Everything I said earlier is true. We are allies. Our interests are the same," Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing said, "If you want to leave, I won't stop you."

"Since I have already formed an alliance with you, of course I won't leave. Come, let's discuss how to test Bai Qing'er. I have long wanted to teach that wicked woman a lesson." said Zhang Ruochen. He sat back in his chair, his gaze was serious and serious.

At this moment, Guye Jing's gaze suddenly shifted away from Zhang Ruochen. She looked out of the window and asked, "Have you heard of Wuma Jiuxing?"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "Why did you suddenly mention him?"

Guye Jing said, "Wuma Jiuxing is 3,200 years old. He's the young master of the Pneuma Hall. He's a terrifying existence that everyone knows at the edge of the Infernal Court. He's known as the strongest person below divinity in all the dark forces. Although he's just the young master, he's in charge of the Pneuma Hall."

Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but gasp. The Pneuma Hall was one of the top ten dark forces that were on par with the Avīci Pavilion. To be able to control such a huge force, his cultivation and skills must be at the top level.

Guye Jing said, "A thousand years ago, he killed Guo Ling, the Supreme Saint of the Ruiya Realm. Listen carefully, he only slashed once. Not only did he split Guo Ling into two, but Wuma Jiuxing also destroyed all of Guo Ling's life force. He could not escape and he could not re-form his physical body.

"Three hundred years ago, he fought with Yu Qiu, the former Scion of the Fane of Destiny. At that time, Yu Qiu, who had just reached the Paramount Realm, could only fight him to a draw. He could not win.

"Yu Qiu regarded that battle as a disgrace for his entire life. He felt that he had brought shame to the Fane of Destiny. A dignified Scion could not win against a dark force cultivator.

"Therefore, Yu Qiu secluded himself in the Fane of Destiny for a hundred years. When he came out of seclusion a hundred years later, he wanted to avenge himself, but Wuma Jiuxing went missing.

"The draw made Yu Qiu regret it for the rest of his life. Many cultivators thought that Yu Qiu didn't transcend the Divine Tribulation. It was more or less related to Wuma Jiuxing. The biggest taboo in transcending the Divine Tribulation is not having a complete state of mind."

Zhang Ruochen nodded seriously. He started to pay more attention to Wuma Jiuxing.

Every generation of the Scion and Scioness of the Fane of Destiny was a chosen talent. They could be nurtured by the whole fane and enjoy the cultivation resources that other cultivators couldn't.

Under such conditions, it was indeed a stain on one's life that one could only fight to a draw with a cultivator in the dark world of the same realm.

However, from another perspective, Wuma Jiuxing was indeed remarkable.

Guye Jing said, "About 30 years ago, Wuma Jiuxing, who had been missing for 200 years, reappeared in everyone's sight. His cultivation improved tremendously and stepped into a new world. Not long ago, he did something earth-shattering."

"What was it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing said, "He went to Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits. He only struck three times and killed three Paramount Realm Supreme Saints on the Eminence Ranking."

All the Supreme Saints on the Eminence Ranking were top powerhouses below divinity.

"Isn't he invincible below divinity?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing said, "You're right. Even if Yu Qiu is alive, he might not be able to defeat Wuma Jiuxing. No one knows where he has been for more than 100 years and what great opportunities he has obtained."

"Why did you suddenly mention him?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing said, "Because he came to Hoth and has a close relationship with Bai Qing'er. Yesterday, the Divine Judge, Zhuo Yunong led an enforcement team to surround the House of Enchanters and investigate the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. It was said that he interrogated Bai Qing'er."

"This morning, Wuma Jiuxing also announced that he would challenge Zhuo Yunong on behalf of the ten dark forces."

"After Yu Qiu failed to transcend the Divine Tribulation and Lord Ki Tian broke through to divinity, Zhuo Yunong became the number one cultivator below divinity of the Fane of Destiny. The ten great dark forces had never been accepted by the Fane of Destiny. They had been wiped out countless times. If Zhuo Yunong was defeated in this battle, it would be a huge blow to the prestige of the Fane of Destiny."

"Right now, Wuma Jiuxing is like the sun in the sky. He came with the power to kill three Paramount Realm Supreme Saints in a row. No cultivator thinks that Zhuo Yunong can win."

Everyone just wants to know if Zhuo Yunong can take his first strike.

“Since Wuma Jiuxing became famous, he has only taken one attack against almost all cultivators. The only cultivator who can take his first attack is Yu Qiu.

“And now, he’s here!”

Zhang Ruochen noticed the strange look in Guye Jing’s eyes. He finally turned his head and looked out the window.

...

Chapter 2462: The Blade That Shook the World

A 36-meter-tall Creo Dragon pulled a silver chariot and rolled over from afar.

The Creo Dragon was a purebred divine beast and was very close to adulthood. It was only one last transformation away from reaching the pseudo god level and exploding with the destructive power of a star.

This Creo Dragon's destructive aura might not have reached the star level yet, but the divine light emitted from its body could still burn the sky and boil the sea, scaring the saint realm cultivators in the city into fleeing.

The cultivators who were able to enter the city had at least surpassed the Four Realms of Martial Arts and had been reborn.

"It's the Creo Dragon and the Silver Cloud Chariot. Wuma Jiuxing has entered the city!"

"What a terrifying aura. Just a single breath of the dragon's breath can probably destroy the physiques of Neverwilt Realm and Hundred Shackle Realm Supreme Saints. The Creo Dragon has arrived and Hoth will definitely be turned upside down."

"As expected of the number one powerhouse in the dark forces. His mount is already unrivaled."

...

The city was not like other cities. It was strewn with Supreme Saint Inscriptions, Divine Marks, and Path locks. It was the home of Saint-level cultivators.

As a result, when a cultivator entered the city, both their cultivation and combat abilities were suppressed.

This was to prevent the battle between cultivators from destroying the city.

The higher the cultivation, the more severe the suppression.

Even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint could not destroy a city.

However, the aura of the Creo Dragon gave off a feeling that even the Path lock was trembling.

The chariot seemed to be able to crush the city.

Zhang Ruochen held his breath. His eyes were extremely serious.

BOOM!

BOOM!

...

The surrounding space trembled and the precepts of heaven and earth were in chaos.

In Zhang Ruochen's eyes, it wasn't like a Creo Dragon pulling a chariot. Instead, it was like a huge star rolling over. If it wanted to destroy everything in its path, the star could crush it too.

"Is this the invincible power below divinity? No, this is just the aura of his mount. His mount is almost invincible below divinity." said Zhang Ruochen as he was shocked.

Blackie couldn't help but raise its head. The thorns all over its body became sharper.

The Creo Dragon was approaching the pavilion they were in. It was 10 meters away and closing in fast.

All the cultivators in the pavilion had escaped.

Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing could only see less than ten cultivators within a five-mile radius.

Those who dared to stay were all well-known powerhouses in the Infernal Court. They were the overlords of the Saint Realm who could hold their own.

“Let’s go! I’m not interested in this show,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He didn’t want to attract too much attention.

Guye Jing shook her head, “Don’t worry,” she said. “The sturdiness of this city is far beyond your imagination. There were many locks in the middle of West One City. Even if Wuma Jiuxing was the best below divinity, the damage he could cause was still within control. Look, The cultivators of the Hoth Palace have arrived!”

The cultivators in verglas armor descended from the sky and appeared on the roofs of the city’s buildings.

Whoosh

They activated and interweaved the Supreme Saint inscriptions and the Divine Marks in the city with the lock.

The Hoth Palace was the true master of Hoth.

When they came to Hoth, any force, including the ten major forces, the cultivators of the Infernal Court’s ten clans, and even the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny, had to follow the rules of the Hoth Palace.

The appearance of the verglas armored cultivators meant that the Hoth Palace had tacitly acknowledged Wuma Jiuxing and Zhuo Yunong to fight in the West One City.

Other Supreme Saints did not have such qualifications.

Rumble

Creo Dragon’s breathing sound was like thunder.

Wherever the chariot passed, the precepts of heaven and earth were compressed, leaving only the precepts of the Path of Saber within 300 meters.

The buildings on both sides of the street were instantly metalized.

“Is this also the Precept Domain?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing nodded, she said, “Within the domain, there are only your own precepts. No other precepts, including the precepts of heaven and earth exist. Wuma Jiuxing is indeed very strong. Under the suppression of the three layers of Path lock, Supreme Saint inscriptions, and Divine Marks, the Precept Domain can still cover 300 meters. His Path of Saber is already at its pinnacle, able to slash through all the Paths in the world.”

Although the Paths in the world were categorized into Path of the Ancients, Path of Supreme Saint, Major Path, and Minor Path.

However, the strength wasn't from these Paths.

Instead, it depended on the cultivator.

As the cultivator with the steel saber could kill the cultivator with the bronze saber. The cultivator actually only required the wooden saber.

One's self was always the key to victory or defeat.

Although Wuma Jiuxing did not cultivate the Path of the Ancients, he had mastered the Path of Saber to its pinnacle. With a single strike, he could separate light and darkness, and break space and time.

Feeling Wuma Jiuxing's Precept Domain, Zhang Ruochen thought of his Self-Defined Mark of Time. Unfortunately, with his current cultivation, he could only condense a few at a time. Compared to Wuma Jiuxing's Precept Domain, it was like a few drops of water and a vast ocean.

The Creo Dragon and the chariot got closer and closer, stopping precisely 300 meters away.

Below the pavilion, it turned into a forest of sabers.

The air disappeared.

The Qi in the space turned into Saber Qi.

Each Saber Qi could destroy a cultivator's vitality and contain the Power of Death.

The cultivators who had been staying in the area quietly retreated under the pressure of Wuma Jiuxing's aura in the Creo Dragon and the chariot.

Zhang Ruochen also wanted to leave, but it was too late. Wuma Jiuxing's Precepts of Saber were like a peerless divine saber that hung in front of him. As long as he moved, the peerless divine saber would chop down.

With Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, it was almost impossible for him to take on Wuma Jiuxing's strike.

Guye Jing was unexpectedly calm. She still sat across from Zhang Ruochen. She held the teacup between her fingers and looked straight at the Silver Cloud Chariot.

Creak

Zhuo Yunong pushed open the door on the third floor across the street and walked out. His upper body resembled that of a handsome human man. His lower body was shaped like a centipede. His arms were wrapped around two green and red python-like creatures.

The two creatures did not cower in fear in the face of the Creo Dragon's aura. Instead, they raised their hideous heads and opened their mouths, revealing their teeth.

"Zhuo Yunong, take my saber," said Wuma Jiuxing.

Wuma Jiuxing's voice came out of the Silver Cloud Chariot.

All of the Saber Qi and Saber Precepts within 300 meters condensed into a single point above the chariot.

The 300-meter space was sucked into a vacuum.

The point formed by the Saber Qi and Precept of Saber was like a cosmic singularity. Every ray of light released was sharp enough to split heaven and earth, but it also contained the energy of the entire universe.

Zhuo Yunong's aura instantly rose to the pinnacle.

A Gate of Destiny appeared behind him. The light of Destiny was extremely powerful. It shone on him. Because he was so close, Zhang Ruochen believed that his cultivation had been suppressed to the point where he was no more than a mortal.

“As expected of the number one master of the Fane of Destiny. So powerful. Once he opens the Gate of Destiny, all laws will be lost. I’m no different from a mortal. I can’t use the Power of Time and Dimension. I can’t escape even if I want to.”

Zhang Ruochen was deeply aware of the gap between him and the top powerhouses below divinity. He predicted in his heart what realm he needed to cultivate to have the ability to escape from Zhuo Yunong.

Far!

Far from it!

Guye Jing’s expression was no longer as calm as before. She said, “It seems that everyone has underestimated Zhuo Yunong. This Divine Judge is much stronger than everyone imagined. Let’s go. We can’t stay here any longer!”

If it was a one-sided battle, the victor could be decided in one move. Of course, they could stay and watch.

However, if the winner could not be decided in one move, it would be a battle of the same level.

Whether or not they could receive the next move would determine the level of the powerhouses.

BOOM!

Wuma Jiuxing’s world-shaking blade slashed down. At the same time, Zhuo Yunong’s ax of judgment struck out. The two collided and immediately shook the world.

Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing had already retreated. They could not witness the battle between the two peerless powerhouses.

However, Zhang Ruochen used the Heart of Truth to sense. After the first collision, the vibration in the space did not end there. Instead, it evolved into an even more powerful destructive force.

It seems that Zhuo Yunong had blocked Wuma Jiuxing's first strike.

This battle only lasted for half a breath before it stopped.

The cultivators from the Hoth Palace who were in charge of activating the Supreme Saint Inscription and Divine Mark were all sent flying. They fell to the ground in disarray, bleeding from their seven orifices. Their injuries were not light.

The city walls within a radius of several thousand feet were broken. The Supreme Saint Inscription and Divine Mark were destroyed, and all the buildings were reduced to dust.

The pavilion beneath Zhuo Yunong was reduced to ruins.

He held the three-meter-long ax of judgment in his hand, and he still stood upright. His aura and battle prowess did not diminish in the slightest.

Crack

A crack appeared on his chest, and blood gushed out like a fountain.

“Zhuo Yunong, as expected of you.”

Wuma Jiuxing's voice came out of the Silver Cloud Chariot. Then, the Creo Dragon pulled the chariot and soared into the sky, disappearing into the horizon.

Lord Wu Yue was sitting on the street not far from the battlefield. The moment the battle ended, he suddenly stood up. However, when he saw the Gate of Destiny behind Zhuo Yunong dimming, he immediately sat back down.

To get rid of Wuma Jiuxing, he had to work together with Zhuo Yunong to have a chance.

Although there was internal strife in the Fane of Destiny, when faced with external enemies, they naturally had to work together.

Unfortunately, Zhuo Yunong was too heavily injured and lost the ability to fight again. Lord Wu Yue was alone. Even if he attacked, he wouldn't be able to stop Wuma Jiuxing. Naturally, he could only watch him leave.

To the Fane of Destiny, today was already a day of humiliation.

If Lord Wu Yue attacked now, it would be fine if he could kill Wuma Jiuxing. If he could not kill him, it would only make the Fane of Destiny even more humiliated.

"Wuma Jiuxing is already the number one in the world. From today onwards, he will be the ruler of the Infernal Court. Such dissatisfaction!" Lord Wu Yue let out a long sigh.

No one knew better than him how powerful Zhuo Yunong was. Even Zhuo Yunong had been defeated in seven moves. Who else in divinity could beat him in the Infernal Court?

Guye Jing and Zhang Ruochen appeared outside the city and looked at the Silver Cloud Chariot flying away.

"Wuma Jiuxing just left like that?" Zhang Ruochen said as he was slightly surprised.

Guye Jing said, "If we continue to fight, there is at least a 30% chance that we will die together. That is not what Wuma Jiuxing wants to see."

Zhang Ruochen understood what Guye Jing meant. Since Zhuo Yunong could withstand Wuma Jiuxing's first strike, he would have a chance to gain time to self-detonate the Sainthood Source.

If Zhuo Yunong self-detonated the Sainthood Source, no matter how strong Wuma Jiuxing was, he would die without a doubt.

Wuma Jiuxing might be the strongest person below divinity, but it doesn't mean no one could stop him.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Divine Judge, the strongest person below divinity of the Fane of Destiny, could only block Wuma Jiuxing's seven strikes. The Fane of Destiny had fallen hard. I'm afraid they can only avenge the Fane of Destiny when Que grows up."

“How did you know that Zhuo Yunong blocked Wuma Jiuxing’s seven strikes?” Guye Jing was surprised.

In her opinion, even some Paramount Realm Supreme Saints might not be able to see clearly the battle between the two powerhouses.

Zhang Ruochen was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. How could he do it?

“I’m a Yuanhui level genius,” Zhang Ruochen said with a smile. “I have something that ordinary cultivators can’t grasp.”

Guye Jing stared at Zhang Ruochen. She thought to herself that the news of Wuma Jiuxing defeating Zhuo Yunong would cause a huge uproar in the Infernal Court. To deal with the possible crisis in the next thousand years, the major forces would definitely support the chosen ones who could resist Wuma Jiuxing. Zhang Ruochen must be one of them.

The Scion of the Fane of Destiny had just died, and the Scioness had yet to mature. It was time for the new and old leaders to be replaced.

The Fane of Destiny had lost the leadership of the Infernal Court, and Wuma Jiuxing was invincible in the secular world. In the next thousand years, it was the time for the Pneuma Hall to expand. It was unknown how many territories and interests of the forces would be taken away.

Who could stop Wuma Jiuxing from bringing chaos to the Infernal Court?

Zhang Ruochen said, “Bai Qing’er can invite an invincible figure like Wuma Jiuxing. I think we should put the previous plan on hold for now. Provoking that wicked woman will be very disadvantageous to us.”

Guye Jing said, “Are you afraid of Wuma Jiuxing?”

“Can you beat him?” Zhang Ruochen asked back.

Guye Jing thought for a moment and said, “Although Wuma Jiuxing severely injured Zhuo Yunong in the fight just now, he should have been injured himself! He will hide and recuperate in a short time.”

“Why do you think so?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing said, “Because Zhuo Yunong didn’t die, and Wuma Jiuxing didn’t challenge Lord Wu Yue.”

“Perhaps Wuma Jiuxing was just afraid that Zhuo Yunong would self-destruct his Sainthood Source, or that the Fane of Destiny would seek revenge,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing shook her head, “The ten dark forces are often wiped out by the Fane of Destiny. How can they be afraid of revenge? Besides, Wuma Jiuxing and Zhuo Yunong are fighting one-on-one. No matter who dies, it’s not the other’s fault.

“In my opinion, Wuma Jiuxing didn’t challenge Zhuo Yunong just to stand up for Bai Qing’er. He had a deeper purpose. Firstly, he wanted to suppress the prestige of the Fane of Destiny and tell the major forces of the Infernal Court that the Fane of Destiny was not that terrifying and that it was not undefeatable. As long as the idea was planted, many forces in the Infernal Court who did not believe in Destiny would be tempted to take action. For example, the Yanluo Clan, Fengdu, and the Fane of Darkness.

“In that case, wouldn’t it be more influential if he took the risk to kill Zhuo Yunong or defeated Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue at the same time?

“But he didn’t do that.

“From this, it can be seen that he must be injured! For someone like him, once he is injured, he must hide and recuperate, just like you, who can’t see the light. If he sees the light, he will attract countless enemies. Those enemies will pounce on him like a pack of wolves, never giving him the chance to recover.

“And now is the best time for us to test Bai Qing’er.”

Chapter 2463: Yuan Qianmo and Que

The news that Wuma Jiuxing had mastered the saber technique and defeated Zhuo Yunong with seven strikes spread quickly throughout the Celestial Court and Infernal Court under the influence of someone who intended it to. It created a sensation all over the world.

“The Fane of Destiny has been defeated” was said by countless cultivators on the same day.

Wuma Jiuxing’s name resounded throughout the world because of the battle. He was like the top powerhouse below divinity. People looked up to him and were eager to challenge him.

The universe was very big, and there were countless powerhouses. There were still cultivators who wanted to challenge Wuma Jiuxing.

Fane of Death.

One of the most powerful female cultivators of the Deathkin, Yuan Shu, met Yuan Qianmo, who was ranked first in the Tome of the Divines.

Before Wuma Jiuxing defeated Zhuo Yunong, Yuan Qianmo was definitely the most famous Supreme Saint below divinity in Infernal Court. His cultivation was extremely profound. There was once a god who said that he could reach divinity with just a thought. Even the Divine Tribulation could not stop him.

The reason why he remained below divinity was that he wanted to accumulate more.

Only then would he be able to condense more Divine Planets after breaking through to divinity.

Yuan Qianmo was an extremely talented man. He had played the zither with Sword God Feng Chen and painted with Yu Qiu.

At this moment, he was washing the plum blossoms while listening to Yuan Shu's narration.

He twirled his fingers and washed the plum blossoms.

Every petal of the plum blossom was washed extremely red as if it had been soaked in divine blood.

At his level of cultivation, it was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to take another small step forward, and closed-door cultivation was practically useless. It was because of this that he had the leisure to focus on all sorts of things that ordinary people found boring.

And this was actually also to comprehend the Path.

To seek the Great Perfection stage in the state of mind.

There were very few people and things that could interest Yuan Qianmo after reaching his current realm. The battle between Wuma Jiuxing and Zhuo Yunong finally stirred up ripples in his heart, which had been calm for a long time.

"Zhuo Yunong is not a weakling, and he even used the Supreme Artifact, the Axe of Judgement. Hmmm, it seems that Wuma Jiuxing has had a great opportunity in the past two hundred years. His Path of Saber has most likely reached divinity. Even though he hasn't entered divinity, his Path has already entered divinity," Yuan Qianmo said indifferently.

Yuan Shu stood under the plum blossom. Her perfect figure revealed her curvaceous outline under her golden clothes. She wore a crown on her head and had a noble temperament. She said, "As far as I know, many pseudo gods have not cultivated their Path to divinity."

"Aside from pseudo gods, even some true gods who have just broken through to divinity will need quite a long time to cultivate their Path to divinity," Yuan Qianmo explained. "In general, cultivators will first step into divinity and then convert their Path into the divine Path."

"It seems that it's not unreasonable for people to say that Wuma Jiuxing is invincible in the secular world," said Yuan

Shu.

After Yuan Qianmo finished washing the last plum blossom, he took the silk satin from the maid and wiped his wet fingers dry. He said, "There are mountains beyond the mountains and heavens beyond the heavens. Whoever dares to claim that he is invincible in the secular world will become the target of everyone."

Yuan Shu nodded her head lightly, and a smile appeared in her phoenix eyes. She said, "Since Senior Brother has no intention to fight Wuma Jiuxing, then we will just sit back and watch the show. I believe that the Fane of Destiny will definitely take action."

"No!" said Yuan Qianmo.

Yuan Qianmo waved his hand, his eyes solemn, he said, "I can sense that the opportunity for me to become a God has arrived. "It is precisely the time when I need to become the target of everyone. Before I make a breakthrough, I must train myself repeatedly. Wuma Jiuxing is my first furnace flame before I become a god."

Yuan Shu looked surprised and confused.

He was training himself by refining.

Wuma Jiuxing was his furnace. If he was not careful, his furnace would be destroyed.

Was it too risky for a heavenly blessed son who was bound to become a god?

"I must go to Hoth," said Yuan Qianmo.

Yuan Qianmo raised his head and looked at the horizon. He was deep in thought.

Why did Zhuo Yunong and Wuma Jiuxing appear on Hoth at the same time? It was very strange, and he had to go.

It was the last test before becoming a god, and it was also to solve the doubts in his heart.

...

“The person who defeated Wuma Jiuxing in the Fane of Destiny is in the Illusion Palace.”

Xu Rulai, an Overseer of the Divination Division transmitted the message to the new Scioness, Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo walked out of the Scioness Hall and went to the Illusion Palace, one of the Fane of Destiny’s twelve palaces.

The Illusion Palace was one of the most mysterious places in the Fane of Destiny. It was not built on Mount Destiny, but in the void. One had to pass through the teleportation array in the fane to reach it.

Whoosh

Pan Ruo walked out of the teleportation array and arrived outside of the Illusion Palace. She just happened to see a sword light flying out of the towering and ancient palace in front of her.

This sword light was extremely sharp, and it cut a Celestial Captive who was at the Banshi Isshou Realm into two halves.

This Celestial Slave’s spiritual power wasn’t sealed, and he held the Supreme Artifact, Pentastone Sword in his hand. His battle prowess wasn’t something Lord Hornless could compare to.

Unfortunately, his opponent was even stronger.

BOOM!

BOOM!

The two pieces of his body fell to the ground, and it was difficult to reconnect them.

Furthermore, the flesh and blood on the wound were rapidly disappearing.

Pan Ruo glanced at the Celestial Captive who was lying on the ground and she recognized him. He was once a Supreme Saint of the Fane of Destiny. His cultivation level was at the Late-stage of the Banshi Isshou Realm. He was quite powerful.

Unfortunately, he was found to be a spy sent by the Pangu Realm to the Infernal Court. Naturally, he became a Celestial Captive and was tortured.

Who could cut him into two with a Supreme Artifact?

Could he be the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Illusion Palace?

Pan Ruo quickly saw the figure of the swordsman.

That person walked out of the gate of the divine palace. He was holding the sword, Kagamaru, which was as thin as a cicada's wings. He walked down the stairs step by step and came to the side of the Celestial Captive.

It was Que.

This was not the first time Pan Ruo had seen Que. However, the current Que was like a completely different person compared to when he was on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

His aura was so strong that she found it hard to breathe.

The sharpness of his sword intent made it seem like he was the embodiment of the essence of Swordsmanship.

"I said that if you can take three strikes, I will spare your life. It's a pity that you didn't even manage to take the first strike," said Que.

Que's eyes were indifferent. He waved using Kagamaru and instantly, the Neverwithers physique of the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint turned into dust and flew away.

In the end, even the dust dissipated into nothingness. There was nothing left, including the Sainthood Source.

Pan Ruo activated the Nether River and circled her body to resolve the immense pressure Que gave her. She said, "Your current cultivation level doesn't seem to be at the Early-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm."

The Kagamaru in Que's hand disappeared and he picked up the Pentastone Sword on the ground, he said, "My state of mind is flawless and my heart of the Path is firm. There is nothing for me to question. The Thousand-Koan Realm is not a barrier to my cultivation. After breaking through to the Thousand-Koan Realm, I took the fifth step and reached the Middle-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. After taking the fifteenth step, I have reached the Late-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm.”

After taking the fifteenth step, he broke through two realms.

Pan Ruo was amazed. No wonder the Destiny Division had predicted that the person who had defeated Wuma Jiuxing was in the Illusion Palace. Only a talented person like Que could ascend to the top of the mortal world and save the reputation of the Fane of Destiny.

In terms of the state of mind, Que had devoted himself to cultivating the Oblivion Swordsmanship. He had reached a state that no one could compare to.

A swordmaster and his sword. He didn't need anything else.

Other so-called geniuses or God Candidate looked mediocre in front of him.

Que continued, “I thought I could reach the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm in one go, so I continued to move forward. When I reached the 99th step and was about to break through the realm, Zhang Ruochen's figure appeared in my mind, along with two questions.”

“What are the questions?” asked Pan Ruo.

Que said, “Can I defeat a Yuanhui-level genius in the same realm? If I didn't lose the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, can I condense the 10th Saintwill? These two questions are related to Zhang Ruochen.”

“So you must find Zhang Ruochen if you want to break through the realm?” asked Pan Ruo.

Que nodded deeply and said, “Zhang Ruochen is the inheritor of Saint Monk Xumi. He and I are destined to have a fight. I got this Pentastone Sword from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. A gift to you.”

“This is a Supreme Artifact!” said Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo was surprised. She couldn't calm herself down and deal with the situation.

Que said, "So what if it's a Supreme Artifact? It'll only be an obstacle for me. It'll be an inner demon that hinders my cultivation. Besides, Zhang Ruochen can give away a Supreme Artifact. Why can't I?"

"You want to beat him in terms of the state of mind. In fact, his state of mind isn't as good as yours," said Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo took the Pentastone Sword. Two snow-white fingers slid across the sword. Suddenly, the colorful light shone brightly. The sound of the sword shook heaven and earth. It was indeed a peerless sword.

Que shook his head and said, "I wasn't thinking of defeating him every time. I just want to learn from my opponent, do what he did, and understand his mentality," he said. "Only if you know your opponent well enough can you be more confident in defeating him. Zhang Ruochen is my last obstacle in breaking through to the Banshi Isshou Realm. It's also my first challenge."

"An unprecedented challenge? As far as I know, Zhang Ruochen hasn't cultivated to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He's far from being your opponent now," Pan Ruo said.

"No! He's my greatest enemy since I started cultivating. I can look down on anyone, but I won't underestimate him. I know you're here for Wuma Jiuxing's matter, but you don't know that Wuma Jiuxing is far less important to me than Zhang Ruochen.

"For other Supreme Saints, the cultivation of the Thousand-Koan Realm is to perfect the state of mind and challenge the self. But for me, I have long defeated myself. My only goal is to defeat Zhang Ruochen in the same realm."

"What if you are well prepared, but you still can't defeat him?" asked Pan Ruo.

"Even if I can't defeat him, it is still an answer. What I want is an answer. I will do my best to get the answer I desired."

Pan Ruo faintly felt that Zhang Ruochen's greatest enemy in the Thousand-Koan Realm had appeared.

Zhuo Yunong's defeat had indeed dealt a heavy blow to the reputation of the Fane of Destiny.

The Death Palace had initiated and took the lead. The Death Palace's Black Robe High Priest had sent ten powerful figures, the Ten Wraithions, to Hoth to kill Wuma Jiuxing and get rid of the culprit who was about to bring chaos to the secular world.

Wuma Jiuxing might not be a threat to the deities, but he was indeed a rock that could cause a thousand ripples. All the top powerhouses below the divinity in Infernal Court were shocked as they looked at Hoth.

...

The House of Enchanteurs on Hoth was located in Hothfrost, but it was not built in Hoth City.

The House of Enchanteurs was about a thousand miles away from Hoth City. Because of its existence, more and more cultivators gathered around it. In the end, it turned into a city.

Enchanton.

Enchanton could be considered the 18th city on Hoth. It was also covered with Supreme Saint inscriptions, Divine Marks, and Path locks. However, compared to a real city, it was much smaller.

Those who could enter the city were at least in the Fish-dragon Realm.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't go to Devala in the end. He was traveling with Guye Jing like he was her captive.

Before entering the city, Zhang Ruochen told Guye Jing, "With your current appearance and having been to too many places. Bai Qing'er is so smart, how could she not know your identity? Once you enter the city, you will definitely be noticed."

Thus, Guye Jing changed her cyan-robed scholar robe and put on a bright red flowing fairy dress.

She was originally a woman disguised as a man. She untied the hair on her head and her black hair fell down. At the same time, her face became seductive. Her chest was full, and she was very perky. She exuded a seductive aura all the time.

Guye Jing was charming. She raised her snow-white chin and pretended to be flirtatious. She tidied Zhang Ruochen's clothes with her two hands and smiled. She said, "Master Ruochen, is this okay?"

Blackie's eyes were wide open. He couldn't help but say, "Amazing."

Even Zhang Ruochen didn't think that she would change so much, let alone Blackie. Her every frown and smile could seduce a man to the point that he couldn't extricate himself.

In the past, any man wouldn't have any thoughts about her.

But now, even a male hedgehog wouldn't be able to stand her!

Zhang Ruochen remembered that at the engagement party when she was with Luo Sha and her close friends, she looked so seductive and tender.

Zhang Ruochen sniffed the fragrance coming from her body and looked at her white and smooth face up close. He looked down and saw where he should not look. But in his heart, he told himself that he must be rational. This woman was very dangerous.

"Say something. I'm still waiting for your answer. You just keep looking at me. Are you attracted to me? And you're saying you don't have other intentions?" She laughed, her chest heaving.

Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and said, "Do you have two souls in your body? How can one person change so much?"

"Yes, the one you met before was my sister, Guye Jing. My name is Guye Huanhuan." Guye Jing nodded and said seriously.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly understood and said, "I see."

"You believe that? You are so gullible! Little Sha is so smart. How could she find such a stupid fiancé? It's fine if you are stupid. She even treated you as a treasure. Anyway, I didn't see anything good in you. Let's go. What are you waiting for? Are you mad because I called you stupid?"

Guye Jing smiled sweetly at Zhang Ruochen. Then, she put her hands behind her back and smiled charmingly. She walked into Enchanton, jumping up and down.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Blackie and said, "Am I stupid?"

"No, you're not stupid. This woman is too wicked. I almost believed her just now! Fortunately, I'm a little smarter than you, so I didn't believe her completely," Blackie said seriously.

Chapter 2464: Transforming into Blood Emperor

That night, Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing secretly entered the House of Enchanteurs to investigate. Unfortunately, they returned empty-handed. They couldn't even find Bai Qing'er's residence.

"Bai Qing'er is hiding. There's a big possibility that she's not in the House of Enchanteurs anymore." a troubled look appeared on Guye Jing's bewitching face.

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to fight with Bai Qing'er directly. He said deliberately, "She has the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, so she must be looking for Fane of Origin. Maybe she's already left Hoth."

Guye Jing snorted. "Impossible! Although we couldn't find her, Adjudication Division and Destiny Division must be watching her. She wouldn't dare to act rashly. Besides, in order to find Fane of Origin, only supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origins isn't enough. She still needs the participation of Masters of Origin. Infernal Court's Master of Origin are all under the surveillance of The Rāhu Mountains. Bai Qing'er hasn't contacted them yet."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Does that mean that Bai Qing'er is still on Hoth?"

"There's a big possibility that she's in Enchanton," Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "We have two major problems now. First, we can't find Bai Qing'er.

"Second, if Bai Qing'er is still in Enchanton, even if we find her, we won't dare to attack. Enchanton is the territory of the Enchanter Chamber. Not only are there many elites in the city, but there's also a powerful array set up. Unless we can lure her out of the city. However, that's an even more difficult matter."

Guye Jing's eyes darted around as a charming smile appeared on her pretty face, "Bai Qing'er has hidden very well, but the cultivators under her aren't difficult to find. There will always be someone who knows where she's hiding. How about this, leave the first problem to me to solve. I'll leave the second problem to you. As a Master of Time and Space, you should have a way, right?"

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and said, "I can try if you can find Bai Qing'er's hiding place."

"Wait for the good news."

The graceful and graceful body turned into wisps of pink light and flew out of the window. Her voice went away.

The voice of Seven-Armed Elder came from Qiankun Realm. "Bai Qing'er's cultivation is unfathomable, and her wisdom is incomparable. It's not wise to provoke her, not to mention that Enchanton is her territory. Now that the demoness is gone, you should think of a way to escape."

Seven-Armed Elder had fought with Bai Qing'er before. He knew how terrifying she was, and he was afraid of her.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen didn't want to risk his life with Guye Jing. However, if he ran away now, all his efforts would be wasted. The key was that Guye Jing had a drop of his blood. Even if he wanted to run away, he couldn't.

"Since Guye Jing dared to probe Bai Qing'er's strength, she must have some confidence in her ability. Besides, I also want to know did Bai Qing'er stole the five supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin." Zhang Ruochen was deep in thought.

Seven-Armed Elder wanted to tell Zhang Ruochen that the five supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin had been swapped by him and were all in his hands.

However, he had already lied to Zhang Ruochen. If he told the truth now, it was hard to guarantee that Zhang Ruochen would not fly off the handle. Even if he did not become angry out of humiliation, Zhang Ruochen could finish him off and become the only person who has the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

“I’ll hide the truth first. When I leave Hoth and escape from Qiankun Realm, I’ll run away immediately. No matter how powerful Fane of Destiny is, they can’t compare to the vast universe. They might not even be able to catch me after then”

That was what Seven-Armed Elder thought. He also had a vicious thought. Once I leave Hoth, I’d better kill Zhang Ruochen and take everything he has.

He didn’t dare to do that on Hoth.

After all, Adjudication Division, Destiny Division, and many cultivators from big forces were looking for him. He could only hide in Qiankun Realm without being able to be predicted.

...

This place was a stronghold of The Rāhu Mountains in Enchanton.

Zhang Ruochen opened Sundial, took out void silk, the wood of Divine Sky-connecting Tree, Taiyi Primordial Stone powder, and other rare refining materials. He was preparing to refine a Dimensional Scroll.

Multi-Dimensional Scroll.

Secret Tome of Time and Space could be considered multi-dimensional, but it could only be used to trap people. The Multi-Dimensional Scroll that Zhang Ruochen refined not only had 36 layers of dimensions, but each layer of dimension had a different offensive power.

Time passed.

More than half a year had passed within the area covered by Sundial.

When Zhang Ruochen carved the last Dimensional Inscription, a dazzling holy light appeared on the scroll. Layers of spatial illusions unfolded like bubbles.

Whoosh —

All the spatial illusions disappeared and shrank into the scroll.

Zhang Ruochen’s face showed joy. When he reached out and grabbed, Multi-Dimensional Scroll flew into his hand.

A red shadow flashed.

Guye Jing carried a cultivator and entered the door. She appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Her bright eyes stared at the scroll in Zhang Ruochen’s hand. “Is this the dimensional tactic you refined to deal with Bai Qing’er?”

“With my current attainments in dimension, this is the most powerful scroll I can refine. It used a lot of rare materials. It might not be able to deal with Bai Qing’er, but it should be able to trap her for a while. Unfortunately, it’s a single-use scroll. Otherwise, I can let you test its power first.”

Zhang Ruochen looked down and stared at the cultivator in Guye Jing’s hand. He exclaimed, “He is...”

“Demonsky Clan, Lord Huanxu,”

With a bang, Guye Jing threw Lord Huanxu to the ground like a dead dog.

Lord Huanxu had been subdued by Bai Qing’er. Zhang Ruochen had told Guye Jing about this.

However, Zhang Ruochen was somewhat surprised that a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint was easily taken out by Guye Jing.

Guye Jing said, “I’ve already interrogated him. This so-called Lord is a weak-willed weakling who revealed all his secrets. Bai Qing’er is still in Enchanton but not in the House of Enchanteurs, she’s in Ji Feng Manor. I’ve checked this manor. It belongs to Ji Feng City in Dominion of Bloodysky Clan.”

“Since you’ve already interrogated him, why did you bring him back? If it were me, he would have been turned into ashes,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing looked at Zhang Ruochen from top to bottom and said with a smile, "I have a plan that might work like a charm."

Zhang Ruochen was not stupid. He immediately understood and said, "You want me to become Lord Huanxu?"

"Yes, that's why I brought him back. I know that you Immortal Vampires need to suck the blood of a cultivator before you can fully become that cultivator," Guye Jing said.

"I'm not interested in blood,"

Zhang Ruochen frowned and squatted down to observe Lord Huanxu carefully. He took off Lord Huanxu's armor and put it on himself. Then, his body and appearance changed rapidly. His body expanded, and his temperament became much more ostentatious.

Zhang Ruochen imitated Lord Huanxu's tone. His voice was deep and arrogant. He smiled and said, "Do you think I can hide my current appearance from Bai Qing'er?"

"Lord Huanxu wouldn't dare to be so arrogant in front of Bai Qing'er." Guye Jing sat quietly at the table and laughed. Her long, jade-white legs were crossed, making the outline of her snow-white backside faintly visible in the depths of her red dress, she was extremely seductive.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his hands and pretended to be terrified. He bowed and said in a trembling voice, "You're right, miss."

"No matter how well you pretend, Bai Qing'er will soon see through you if you don't have the memories of Lord Huanxu. However, you don't have to pretend for long. It's enough once you've entered Ji Feng Manor and see Bai Qing'er's true form with this identity!"

Guye Jing's slim waist was like a bow. She jumped up from the table and landed on the ground lightly. Her snow-lotus-like arm wrapped around Zhang Ruochen's arm. Her beautiful eyes were filled with love and said softly, "From now on, I'm the new concubine of the Blood Emperor on Hoth. My name is Huanhuan."

“That’s not a good idea! It’s too obvious. How about I put you in Violet Gourd and let you out after I see Bai Qing’er?”

Zhang Ruochen felt that Guye Jing had become very bold, her personality now was comparable to Luo Sha’s.

Guye Jing raised her face and stared at him. “You want to suppress me in Violet Gourd?”

“Of course not. You’ve misunderstood!”

Zhang Ruochen straightened his broad chest and held Guye Jing’s waist. He laughed and walked out. “Haha! Let’s go, Huanhuan. Come with me to meet Miss Bai.”

Just as he was about to step out of the door, Zhang Ruochen suddenly thought of something. He turned around and a ball of Divine Purification Fire flew out of his palm. It landed on Lord Huanxu and burned him into ashes.

He waved his hand, and a Sainthood Source flew into Zhang Ruochen’s hand.

Guye Jing stretched out her small white hand and said mischievously, “Blood Emperor, how about giving this Sainthood Source to me?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that Guye Jing would never give him the Sainthood Source of a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. So, he had to pretend to be heroic and put Sainthood Source in her hand, “Of course. It’s for you, my darling.”

Blackie was a little stunned. He didn’t expect Zhang Ruochen to get into character so quickly. Gritting his teeth, he cursed in a low voice, “Adulterers! A pair of shameless adulterers!”

...

As soon as Zhang Ruochen arrived at Ji Feng Manor, a Saint King came out to greet him.

This Saint King was Ji Wenwu, who had met Zhang Ruochen on the blood spirit ship on Hoth.

Ji Wenwu bowed. “Greetings, Blood Emperor.”

Ji Wenwu looked up slightly. Seeing the beauty in a red dress in Blood Emperor’s arms, his mind went blank. He felt that the beauty was as beautiful as a goddess from the ninth heaven descending to Earth. At the same time, she was like the embodiment of desire, able to seduce any man's soul.

He could not help but swallow his saliva, feeling sorrowful in his heart, "I'm really envious. It's only been a few days since I came to Hoth, but Lord Huanxu had already obtained such a beautiful woman. In the future, I must cultivate to Supreme Saint Realm and become a Blood Emperor."

Thinking of this, Ji Wenwu couldn't help but take a look at Guye Jing. He was instantly mesmerized and couldn't hear clearly what Lord Huanxu had said to him.

Unknowingly, he brought Lord Huanxu into Ji Feng Manor and came to the hinterland of the manor. He stood by Tianxin Lake where Bai Qing'er lived.

Along the way, Zhang Ruochen secretly observed the environment of Ji Feng Manor. He was shocked and doubtful.

A large number of array inscriptions had been carved in Ji Feng Manor recently. If he had not transformed into the appearance of Lord Huanxu, it would have been extremely difficult for him to come to Lake Tianxin without anyone noticing.

"Bai Qing'er is very cautious. This place has been carefully arranged. It's extremely difficult to escape. We'd better be careful." Zhang Ruochen secretly transmitted his voice to Guye Jing.

"Your spiritual power is too weak. It's better if you don't transmit your voice," Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen was speechless. Even with his spiritual power of the 65th level, he had been criticized for having too low spiritual power. However, after thinking about it, even the spiritual power of Seven-Armed Elder at the 69th level could not do anything to Bai Qing'er.

His spiritual power of the 65th level was indeed inferior in front of her.

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and said to Ji Wenwu, "You can leave now. I have a secret matter to report Miss Bai."

He didn't have the courage to fight with Lord Huanxu for a woman.

Between beauty and life, he chose his life with his last bit of reason.

There was a white garden beside Lake Tianxin. It was shrouded in mist. The eaves and horns were faintly discernible, and the exotic flowers and plants were emitting a charming fragrance.

“Why have you come to see me?”

Bai Qing'er's gentle and beautiful voice came from the mist. It was extremely vast and distant.

Zhang Ruochen quickly bowed and said, “Miss, I have found Lord Xia Yu's trace.”

Rustle

A breeze blew.

A three-foot-wide road was separated in the fog, leading to the gate of the garden.

There was no doubt that other than this road, other places must have set up an Offensive Array. One wrong step and he would definitely be in a death situation.

When Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing were about to walk over...

Crack!

A scarlet thunder fire flew out of the white fog and struck Zhang Ruochen like lightning.

The speed of the thunder fire was so fast that Zhang Ruochen could not dodge it at all. In just a moment, he felt a heavy blow to his chest. His internal organs shook violently, and his body was thrown out of control.

This attack was terrible, but it was not enough to hurt Zhang Ruochen.

However, Zhang Ruochen had to pretend that he was seriously injured. He struggled to get up from the ground, clutched his chest, and asked, “M-Miss, w-what was that for?”

“This is what you get for forgetting the rules! Who told you to bring a woman here?”

Bai Qing’er’s voice was still beautiful, but unusually cold.

There was killing intent in the coldness.

Whoosh

Two Immortal Vampires’ Supreme Saints rushed over with dozens of armored soldiers. They surrounded Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing.

When they saw Guye Jing, their hearts surged. Their eyes were burning. Such a beautiful woman was too rare. She was like a god-given beauty.

Bai Qing’er’s voice came out, “Take her away and execute her. Do you have any objections?”

Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing looked at each other.

Guye Jing’s voice came into Zhang Ruochen’s ears, she said, “Don’t worry about me. Go in and see her first. Act according to the situation. No matter what, we must not expose our identities now. Otherwise, once the array in Ji Feng Manor is activated, none of us will be able to escape. After I finish them off, I will meet up with you. I hope you are capable to hold on until I get there.”

Guye Jing was taken away. Zhang Ruochen’s face was dark and his mood was terrible. He walked into the garden with the intention to die.

There was no other way. With Bai Qing’er’s intelligence, Zhang Ruochen suspected that she could see through him the moment she saw him.

However, there was no other way. If he ran now, he would only die faster.

“No, I can’t just sit here and wait for death. I have to think of something.” Zhang Ruochen walked slowly, thinking in every step.

However, he soon arrived at the gate of the garden. He looked back and saw a vast expanse of whiteness behind him. The path he had taken before had disappeared.

There was no way back.

...

Chapter 2465: The bet between Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing'er

“If I want to hide it from Bai Qing'er, I have to distract her first. There are very few things that can distract her. I have to think about it carefully.”

Zhang Ruochen already had an idea when he walked into the gate of the garden.

Bai Qing'er did not use the Heaven-Concealing technique to hide her aura. There was no black gauze on her body. Instead, she wore a pure white dress. Her arms were wrapped in white silk, and her body was surrounded by saint light. She was leisurely fiddling with six pots of orchids.

The six pots of orchids had dark green leaves and rose-red petals.

The fragrance of the flowers was elegant and lasting.

Zhang Ruochen took a quick glance and immediately discovered the strangeness of the six pots of orchids. The petals looked like skulls. They emitted not only the fragrance of the flowers but also the aura of death.

“Omnivore Orchid.”

The word popped up in Zhang Ruochen's mind, and he immediately felt a chill down his spine.

Bai Qing'er was indeed evil. On the outside, she looked pure and innocent like a fairy. However, what she does was even more shocking and evil than Guye Jing.

Bai Qing'er did not turn around. With her back facing him, she held a foot-long bamboo knife and dug the soil in the flower plate.

Beside her were two beautiful 17-or 18-year-old handmaidens. They both looked extremely beautiful, comparable to the saintesses of the ancient sects. Zhang Ruochen could not see through their cultivation. Thus, that was why Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to use his spiritual power and Eye of Truth.

Zhang Ruochen imitated Lord Huanxu's tone and bowed. "Miss, Xia Yu went to Fane of Immortality."

"So Zhang Ruochen really came to Hoth." Bai Qing'er raised her bamboo knife. Her eyes were still looking at the orchids in the purple flower pot. She felt that the more she looked, the more beautiful the orchids were.

Zhang Ruochen was secretly shocked. "How can you be sure that Zhang Ruochen came to Hoth?"

"If Xia Yu hadn't listened to Zhang Ruochen's instructions, how could she suddenly leave? I think she must have gone to Fane of Immortality to avoid trouble!"

Zhang Ruochen said, "You are right, Miss is indeed very smart. Besides that, I have more important news to report."

"What is it?" Bai Qing'er asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Someone found traces of Seven-Armed Elder on Hoth."

"I can't believe it."

Bai Qing'er finally seemed to care. She turned around and looked straight at Zhang Ruochen with her extraordinarily beautiful eyes. Her eyes seemed gentle, but they were penetrating. Zhang Ruochen felt like he was being stabbed by needles.

Zhang Ruochen did not feel this way even when he was talking to a god.

"What an extraordinarily beautiful woman. No wonder a superior like Wu Ma Jiuxing fell in love with her. Her elegant and pure temperament, coupled with her ruthless style that was completely incompatible with her temperament, made men even more curious about her. It made them want to see through her.”

Zhang Ruochen did not dare to look her in the eye. He looked down and said, “A cultivator found him in the gambling city of West One City.”

“Are you sure?” Bai Qing’er asked.

“I’m not sure.”

“How dare you report to me when you’re not sure?” Bai Qing’er’s eyes were as cold as a knife.

A bone-piercing cold Qi poured into Zhang Ruochen’s armor from his collar and sleeves, freezing his Neverwithers physique.

This woman was temperamental.

She had a bad temper.

Zhang Ruochen lowered his head and said, “I’ll go check it out.”

Zhang Ruochen wanted to take this opportunity to slip away. As he took a step back, Bai Qing’er put away the cold Qi and said, “No need! It’s such a small matter. I’ll ask the cultivators of the House of Enchanters to check it out. Don’t go yet. I need your help with another matter.”

Zhang Ruochen was anxious, but he had to show a calm expression. “It’s my honor to serve you.”

Bai Qing’er said to the maid on the left, “Shang Yue, release my new batch of slaves.”

The girl named Shang Yue took out a talisman from her sleeve and pinched it between her two slender fingers. She exhaled Saint Qi from her red lips. Immediately, Saint-level slaves were blown out of the talisman.

Bang Bang.

There were seventy-four slaves wearing handcuffs and leg irons.

At this moment, a chilly wind suddenly blew in the garden, and a weird sound that made people's skin crawl sounded. It sounded like ghosts locking souls, demons eating humans, and demonic beasts coming into being.

The weird sound came from six pots of orchids.

A gentle smile appeared on Bai Qing'er's beautiful and stunning face. "Don't worry. They're all yours."

She raised her right hand slightly, and the seventy-four slaves on the ground twitched. They let out shrill screams, and their shadows of souls flew out of their bodies.

Six ferocious skulls popped out of the six pots of orchids and devoured all their Saint Souls.

The 74 saint-level slaves lost their breath of life and fell limply to the ground.

A look of disgust appeared in Shang Yue's eyes. With a wave of her snow-white palm, she produced a ball of Divine Purification Flame and burned the 74 saint-level slaves to ashes, leaving only 74 Sainthood Sources.

"This woman's cultivation is even higher than Thandee's and Lord Huanxu's." Zhang Ruochen saw some clues and was surprised.

He was surprised that Bai Qing'er had so many elites around her that she could be compared to a macroworld like Guanghai.

Bai Qing'er stared at the flowers in the pot that was even brighter, "My six pots of orchids are all rare species that have lived for more than a Yuanhui period. They only eat the Saint Souls of Saint-level cultivators. Also, you can't use the spiritual spring to water them. You have to use the blood of Supreme Saints. Lord Huanxu, can you use your Supreme Saint blood to water them for me?"

Zhang Ruochen cursed silently. This woman was so insidious and mean.

He secretly sympathized with Thandee and Lord Huanxu. It was too difficult to be Bai Qing'er's subordinate. They wouldn't know when they would be put to death by her.

"Miss," Zhang Ruochen said fearfully, "Blood Qi is very important to us Immortal Vampires. If we lose too much blood, our cultivation will be greatly reduced."

"You don't want to? You just said that it's your honor to work for me." Bai Qing'er frowned with displeasure.

Another maid, Shang Xia said coldly, "In my opinion, why don't we just kill him? Not only can we use his blood to water your beloved orchids, but we can also use his Saint Soul to feed all six pots of orchids."

Not only did Bai Qing'er not object, but she seemed to be moved.

How could the life of a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint be inferior to six pots of orchids in her eyes? Wait, it could only be used as food for six pots of orchids.

Zhang Ruochen was in a difficult situation now. It was impossible for him to use his blood to water the orchids.

Once the blood left his body, his identity would be exposed.

However, if he did not water it, he would die.

It was even more unreliable to pin his hopes on Guye Jing. He had to think of a way himself. Zhang Ruochen's eyes were fixed on Primordial Spatial Worm that had turned into a ring on his finger.

At the same time, he slid the Multi-Dimensional Scroll out of his sleeve and hid it in his left hand.

"It seems that the sword Qi prepared for Madam Nixuan must be used on Bai Qing'er in advance."

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to attack, Bai Qing'er smiled and said, "Forget it. Ruochen is known as a Yuanhui-level genius. Wouldn't it be a pity to kill him just like that?"

The two handmaidens Shang Yue and Shang Xia were surprised.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were stunned, but he quickly recovered. He no longer bowed and groveled. He stood up and sighed. “You’ve already seen through it!”

Swoosh!

Whoosh!

A saint sword flew out of Shang Yue’s and Shang Xia’s bodies.

Two swords, one burning divine flame and the other releasing icy Saint Qi.

The two women changed their identities and appeared on Zhang Ruochen’s left and right sides as if they had teleported. They locked onto him with sword comprehension.

Bai Qing’er said, “Zhang Ruochen is as great as he is. He’s already in a desperate situation, but he’s still so calm.”

Zhang Ruochen looked at her and asked, “How did you see through me?”

“From the first time I saw you, I knew that you weren’t Lord Huanxu. Your way of Shapeshifting is very mysterious. You disguised his temperament perfectly. However, with Lord Huanxu’s personality, when he sees my true face, he’ll definitely be greedy and take a few more glances. You only took one glance and immediately lowered your head,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen laughed self-deprecatingly. “I should have taken a few more looks just now.”

“You’ve been looking for so long. Haven’t you seen enough?” Bai Qing’er asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s just a small detail. I’m afraid just by that you can’t see through that Lord Huanxu is fake or if I transformed into his appearance.”

As he spoke, Zhang Ruochen’s body and appearance changed back to his original appearance.

“So, I tested you from the back! The best evidence is that you don’t dare to use blood to water Omnivore Orchid.”

She continued, “At the beginning, you told me that you had found out the whereabouts of Seven-Armed Elder. You probably wanted to distract me, right? Unfortunately, your move just exposed your identity.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Why?”

“There are no more than ten cultivators who know that I am very interested in Seven-Armed Elder, and every one of them is my servant and subordinate.

“There is only one exception, and that person is you, Zhang Ruochen. In Divine Domain of Destiny, when you used Violet Gourd to collect Cang Baizi, you mistakenly took in Seven-Armed who was hiding in Xing Qian’s corpse.”

Bai Qing’er’s eyes rippled. She smiled and said, “So, it was you who revealed a flaw that allowed me to see through your identity.”

Zhang Ruochen exclaimed “Amazing” three times in his heart. There was nothing wrong with his Shapeshifting technique, but Bai Qing’er had found a flaw in the details. This woman was more powerful than he had expected.

“No! I can’t follow her tempo. She wants to destroy my self-confidence. She wants to control me and make me her slave, just like how she controlled Thandee and Lord Huanxu.”

Zhang Ruochen broke out in cold sweat. He didn’t want to talk to her anymore.

Clang

The sound of a sword rang out.

Ancient Abyssal Blade flew out and appeared in Zhang Ruochen’s hand.

“The so-called Yuanhui-level genius is so impatient? Actually, we may not be enemies.”

Bai Qing’er looked at Shang Yue and Shang Xia, signaling with her eyes.

The two women immediately put away their swords. The two sharp sword wills that locked on Zhang Ruochen disappeared. It was as if two sacred mountains had been removed from Zhang Ruochen’s body. He felt much more relaxed.

“Ruochen, you are an honored guest. Prepare some tea,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You almost killed me with the hands of Adjudication Division. You also framed me for stealing five supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and always tried to kill me. Why aren’t we enemies? I won’t drink the tea of my enemy.”

“Master Ruochen knows about supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin? Who told you that? Seven-Armed Elder?” Bai Qing’er asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I have no comment.”

Bai Qing’er shook her head gently and said, “Ruochen, you’d better not believe Seven-Armed Elder. This old man is very scheming and shrewd. You must be careful.”

“You don’t have to worry about me. I have my own judgment,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Shang Yue walked over gracefully with a green crystal tray.

There was a pot of tea and a set of teacups on the tray.

She put the tray on the stone table in the garden and said with a smile, “Please.”

Zhang Ruochen was a little hesitant. Should he escape immediately or stick to the original plan and stall for time until Guye Jing arrived.

There were many powerful figures hidden in the garden. Several powerful spiritual powers had just probed him. If he escaped, Zhang Ruochen wasn’t completely confident.

Shang Yue said, “The famous Zhang Ruochen — the peerless genius favored by both Wargod Bloodximus and Fukurokuju — is so cowardly? Shang Yue is really disappointed.”

“A maid dared to goad me. I underestimated the Enchanter Chamber,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Shang Yue laughed. “Master Ruochen has such bad judgment. I’m not a maid, I’m master’s first disciple.”

Zhang Ruochen wasn't interested in flirting with his enemy at a life-and-death moment. "There's no need for tea. Miss Bai, if you have anything to say, just say it."

"Okay! I only have one request. Give me the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and Seven-Armed Elder. From now on, we're no longer enemies. You can leave whenever you want. If you are still brooding over the past, I am willing to personally offer you a cup of tea to make amends." Bai Qing'er lowered her stance and said.

The lower her stance, the greater Zhang Ruochen's sense of crisis.

Zhang Ruochen laughed loudly. "Do you think I am a fool, Miss Bai? Does giving you the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and Seven-Armed Elder equivalent to losing my last bargaining chip. How can I survive?"

Bai Qing'er sighed. "If it wasn't the last resort, how would I dare to kill you? If Wargod Bloodximus and Fukurokuju found out, it would be a disaster for me and the Enchanter Chamber."

"The other meaning of this sentence is that you can kill me without any scruples as long as you deal with it cleanly so that Wargod Bloodximus and Fukurokuju can't find out."

Zhang Ruochen didn't fall for her trick at all. He couldn't trust her with just one thought.

Bai Qing'er finally lost her patience and didn't want to pretend anymore and said coldly "I know it's not easy to keep you. And you should also know that it's as difficult as climbing up to the sky if you want to escape. In that case, let's make a bet."

"How?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er waved her finger gently.

Suddenly, the tall figure of Lord Ironclad walked out of the garden and stood behind her. He looked at Zhang Ruochen with a pair of hostile eyes.

Bai Qing'er raised her snow-white neck slightly, she said proudly, "To be honest, I'm very disdainful of the so-called Yuanhui level geniuses. I'm not just talking about you and Yan Wushen, but also Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian.

"However, I also heard that during the battle between you and Yan Wushen, your battle strength was close to a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, which shocked me. However, that's just a rumor. I've never believed rumors."

"Many of the rumors are false," Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing'er pointed at Lord Ironclad, "His cultivation has reached the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm. If you can defeat him, it means that you're worthy of the title of Yuanhui-level genius. I've always cherished talents. Even if he's an enemy, I can spare his life."

"I don't believe you," Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing'er said, "Of course, I won't let you go, but I can let you go today."

"What do you mean?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er said, "If you can defeat Lord Ironclad, and prove your talent. I will let you go today. However, I can promise you that I will capture you twice in three months. If I can do it, you will submit to me from then on. Zhang Ruochen, do you dare to take the risk?"

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, "You are more conceited than I expected to capture me three times. I want to know, what if you can't do it?"

Bai Qing'er saw that Zhang Ruochen had the intention to agree, so she immediately looked relaxed. She smiled sweetly and said, "Wargod Bloodximius has traveled all over Infernal Court to help you with the marriage alliance. The marriage invitation has been sent to the Enchanter Chamber, and he has even specifically asked me to marry you. If I can't capture you three times, it means that you're actually capable. I'll agree to Wargod's marriage request. It won't be a loss. Do you think this bet is fair?"

"Of course, you have to pass through Lord Ironclad first. If you can't even defeat him, it only means that you're not worthy of the title of a Yuanhui-level genius. Thus, there's no value for you to live.”

Chapter 2466: Battling Lord Ironclad

Zhang Ruochen wasn't surprised to hear that Wargod Bloodximus had arranged a marriage for him everywhere.

As for the marriage invitation, Zhang Ruochen also believed when it was sent to the Enchanter Chamber with Bai Qing'er's name. Wargod Bloodximus had always been straightforward. He could name the Palace Guardian of Sevenstar Imperial Palace "Huang Tian". Therefore it seemed to be a great pleasure for him to let the daughter of Huang Tian marry his grandson.

Perhaps, Wargod Bloodximus was looking forward to seeing the furious look of Huang Tian.

Zhang Ruochen would not do such a reckless thing to fight with Lord Ironclad who was at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm.

He had a clear understanding of his own strength. He would not be as arrogant and condescending as Bai Qing'er.

If a person lost his self-awareness, he would often become self-involved.

If they self-indulgent too much, no matter how smart they were, they would die miserably.

Zhang Ruochen had fought against a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint before. Back on Mount Destiny, Commander Cerberus had only used Precept Domain to suppress him. Yet he had to mobilize the power of Qiankun to withstand it.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen knew very well that with his current cultivation, he wouldn't be able to win even if he fought against a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, let alone a Supreme Saint at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm.

Hundred-Shackle Realm and Thousand-Koan Realm is a great span of realm.

Thousand-Koan Realm and Banshi Isshou Realm, is another big realm span.

At that time, when Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen battled, he did burst out the power close to a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. However, that was only possible when he himself was almost killed.

Zhang Ruochen would never want to do it again.

What If luck wasn't on his side this time?

Lord Ironclad was different. He was a Supreme Saint at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm. Every strike could reach the strongest strength below Paramount Realm.

This was a battle he can't win. Zhang Ruochen knew it, and so did Bai Qing'er.

However, Zhang Ruochen agreed to the bet.

Bai Qing'er was surprised. She said, "Master Ruochen is very confident in yourself. You are indeed the descendant of Wargod Bloodximus."

"I'm not confident in myself. I just want to marry Miss Bai as a concubine. This is what Wargod wants me to do. Thus, I have to fight for it," Zhang Ruochen said with a smile.

The real reason why Zhang Ruochen agreed to the bet was that he wanted to stall for time.

As for marrying Bai Qing'er?

Even if she offered to marry him, Zhang Ruochen would stay away from her.

Some women could not be touched.

Bai Qing'er smiled and walked to the stone table. She walked past Lord Ironclad. She waved her jade-like fingers and said,

“You have to give Master Ruochen a chance to win. How about this, you use 10% of your power.”

“I will seal 90% of my cultivation,”

Lord Ironclad formed a fingerprint and pressed the nine acupoints in his body. Instantly, most of the Precepts in his body seemed to freeze. They lost their vitality and dimmed.

Even so, the number of Precepts he could use was more than 10 times Zhang Ruochen’s 13 billion Precepts.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Bai Qing’er. Seeing that she didn’t want to take a blood oath, he was even more sure of his guess.

She didn’t care about the so-called bet at all. There were only two purposes for Lord Ironclad to make a move.

The first was to make Zhang Ruochen lower his guard in the name of battle and look for an opportunity to capture or kill him instantly.

The second was to use Lord Ironclad to find out the secret of Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation.

She knew very well that there were some secrets that even if she captured Zhang Ruochen, she would not be able to get them out. However, when she forced Zhang Ruochen into a life-and-death situation, he would expose himself.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes changed. Suddenly, he said, “No, this place is too narrow. How can I freely display my talents? Why don’t we change the battlefield to the void space outside Hoth?”

Bai Qing’er sat at the stone table and spilled the half-drunk tea.

The water dripped onto the ground.

A drop of water turned into a lake.

There were 50 lakes in the garden, which corresponded to the number of Dayan.

The heaven and earth under Zhang Ruochen's feet unwittingly expanded and turned boundless. The 50 lakes rippled with green waves for thousand miles. The tea was fragrant.

Beans turned into soldiers, and water turned into lakes.

"Miss, you didn't have to go through so much trouble. I only need to activate my Precept Domain to trap him to death."

Lord Ironclad stared at Zhang Ruochen provocatively. Hundred billions of Precepts surged out of his body and condensed into a Precept Domain. In an instant, an ancient, dark, and bloody battlefield appeared.

In this Precept Domain battlefield, there were dilapidated cities, mountains burning with beacon fire, Nether flags fluttering in the wind, and corpses and bones all over the ground.

The moment the Precept Domain battlefield enveloped Zhang Ruochen, Zhang Ruochen sensed that the power was even more terrifying than the suppression of the nine Ghost Cities of Commander Cerberus. There seemed to be countless Precepts between heaven and earth that wanted to invade his body and corrode his flesh and blood.

Even though Lord Ironclad sealed 90% of his cultivation, he was still better than Commander Cerberus.

Almost in an instant, Zhang Ruochen borrowed the power of Qiankun to break the Precept Domain Precepts that were suppressing on his body. A ray of Light of Merit appeared on his body.

Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light was put on his body.

Swoosh!

He retreated rapidly and crossed dozens of miles in an instant.

Boom!

The spot where Zhang Ruochen had been standing just now was shattered by the blast of battle Qi from Lord Ironclad's mouth.

In this area, numerous locks, Supreme Saint inscriptions, and Divine Marks appeared. They resolved the aftermath of the battle and could not affect a wider area.

Shang Yue let out a soft cry. "It's the strongest Meritorious Armor at 10,000 times the speed of sound. Zhang Ruochen has such a strange treasure."

"What's so strange about it? In Kunlun's field, Zhang Ruochen has killed countless elites of Celestial Court. The treasure he obtained is by far more than Million Mach Meritorious Armor." Shang Xia stared at Zhang Ruochen on the battlefield, her eyes flashed as if she was looking at a human-shaped treasure trove.

Shang Yue said, "Master, I'm curious. Zhang Ruochen is only in Hundred-Shackle Realm. Why don't you take him down? With master's cultivation, if you can turn water into a lake, then Zhang Ruochen and Lord Ironclad are just toys in your cup."

Bai Qing'er didn't answer. Her almond-shaped eyes stared at the battlefield where the two fought.

Shang Xia's eyes were cold, he said, "Shang Yue, you underestimate Zhang Ruochen too much! Although he's only in Hundred-Shackle Realm, he has Xue Jue Family backing him up. How could Wargod Bloodximus and Blood Empress not give him life-saving means? Zhang Ruochen dared to break into Ji Feng Manor alone, it means that he has the confidence to leave."

Shang Yue was disdainful and said, "With master's cultivation, even if Zhang Ruochen has life-saving means, it's not worth mentioning. Unless the real forms of Wargod Bloodximus and Blood Empress came. Yet, it's a pity that the two of them have already gone to Jadeite Realm."

Shang Xia said, "If Zhang Ruochen was so easy to capture, he would have died long ago. It's impossible for him to live until now. Lord Ironclad should be able to force out his secret."

Powerful figures walked out of the fog in the garden. Some were old women with white hair, some were spirits with ghostly Qi, and there was a mysterious Supreme Saint whose aura was no weaker than Lord Ironclad.

Without exception, all of them had a high cultivation base. One breath of them could be turned into clouds. Their power was powerful and overbearing.

Who would have thought that there were so many Supreme Saints hidden in such a small manor? Even an ancient race could not compare.

An old woman with a face full of wrinkles, her voice was hoarse. “Miss, what are you trying to test? Why haven’t you made your move yet? Could it be that you believe that Zhang Ruochen had the ability to defeat Lord Ironclad? Even if Lord Ironclad only used 10% of his cultivation, he could not be defeated by a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint.”

Although the old woman’s figure was old and somewhat rotten, her eyes were still bright. There were the sun, moon, and stars revolving in her eyes, forming a mysterious trajectory.

The mysterious Supreme Saint in white said, “Zhang Ruochen has 0.003% of Canon of Destiny. If you kill him and absorb his Canon, your strength will definitely improve.”

“I think Zhang Ruochen has not only Canon of Destiny, but also Canon of Truth.” a sinister voice came from the ghost fire.

Bai Qing’er, who had been silent, finally spoke, “You are all too shallow. What you see is only the surface. What I want to understand is the most fundamental mystery of Zhang Ruochen. It is not normal for him to cultivate Grade Two Saintwill so easily. Even when Wargod Bloodsximius and Huang Tian cultivated Grade Two Saintwill, it is not as easy as he did.

“Besides, I have a few questions. Why is Zhang Ruochen’s recovery so fast?

“If he is not a disciple of Fane of Truth, how can he cultivate Shoreless Star Ocean of the Realm-frame of Truth? What did he gain after crossing the tenth level of Sea of Truth?

“These secrets will only be revealed when he’s forced to the brink of death. We can’t force him to answer by capturing him.”

After saying these words, Bai Qing’er’s voice entered the battlefield, it sounded in the sky above the battlefield. “Zhang Ruochen, if you defeat the 10% Lord Ironclad, our bet will still be valid. If you want to leave, I won’t force you to stay.”

On the battlefield.

Lord Ironclad had struck out 137 times in a row. However, Zhang Ruochen dodged each time with his speed.

Lord Ironclad was extremely angry. He had clearly suppressed Zhang Ruochen in the Precept Domain. If it had been any other Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, they would have been at his mercy and had nowhere to run. However, Zhang Ruochen had Million Mach Meritorious Armor. The Precept Domain couldn’t suppress him.

“You only know how to run. Do you still want to win?” Lord Ironclad asked in a low voice.

Zhang Ruochen landed in the center of a lake. Standing on the water, his body shone with light. “You’re a Supreme Saint at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm. I’m just a minor character in Hundred-Shackle Realm. Why can’t I run?”

Zhang Ruochen hadn’t thought about fighting. He put on the armor to stall for time.

“Good! In that case, I’ll let you have no way to escape.”

Lord Ironclad’s eyes turned cold. In the Precept Domain battlefield, the Precepts emerged and twisted with each other, turning into hundreds of millions of chains.

Crash.

The Precept chains approached from afar, shrinking the range of their coverage.

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand, creating a Dimensional Rift, and struck the Precept chain net.

The Precept chain net broke a huge hole, but the hole was closed in an instant.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. Lord Ironclad didn't use his Precept Domain to suppress him. Instead, he turned Precepts into a cage to imprison him. This would force him to fight head-on.

“Why isn't that demoness here yet?”

Zhang Ruochen was speechless. He didn't want to reveal his strength. He only hoped that his enemy would always look down on him.

There was nothing he could do. He could only fight.

Lord Ironclad summoned a bone spear. Divine Marks interweaved on the bone spear. It was obviously made of divine bone. With a wave of his hand, the bone spear surged with Death Qi. It turned into a cloud of death that covered the entire cage.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the surface of the lake. He remained calm. Borrowing the power of Qiankun, he fused it into Divine Dragonbone Whip.

Crack

The Divine Dragonbone Whip lashed out, and an earth-shattering dragon roar sounded.

On the whip, dense Supreme Inscriptions and Regal Inscription appeared at the same time. They exploded with incomparable power, shattering the cloud of death. It was as if the sky had been torn into two.

Lord Ironclad's expression changed slightly. He waved his bone spear and clashed with Divine Dragonbone Whip. He retreated.

The aftershock of the battle caused waves to rise in the 50 lakes.

The powerful figures in the garden, including Bai Qing'er's two disciples — Shang Yue and Shang Xia — were all shocked.

Zhang Ruochen had defeated Lord Ironclad!

It was unbelievable.

They had never seen the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen. Of course, they did not believe the exaggerated rumors. However, they could not deny the fact that it had happened right in front of their eyes.

“Is a Yuanhui-level genius really so terrifying? A Hundred-Shackle Realm elite can fight against a Banshi Isshou Realm elite?”

A smile appeared on Bai Qing'er's pretty face. She said, “At least it proves that the rumors about Zhang Ruochen carrying a macroworld in his body are true.”

“That's right. As long as he borrows the power of Qiankun, Zhang Ruochen can be so strong.”

“Even if Zhang Ruochen has the Demigod-level physique, he can't carry a macroworld,” Shang Yue said.

Shang Xia shook his head, “You've all forgotten that Zhang Ruochen has another important identity. He's the Scion of Time and Space, the descendant of Saint Monk Xumi. If he has the Canon of Truth, it's possible for him to carry a macroworld.”

Gasps sounded in the garden.

A Supreme Saint could contain the three Path of the Ancients' Canon.

Countless pairs of eyes were burning like fire. They couldn't wait to break into the battlefield and tear Zhang Ruochen into pieces to take the Canons of his body.

Shang Yue's charming face was extremely moved. She said excitedly, “Zhang Ruochen is full of treasure. If he falls, all of us will get the benefits.”

“Kill Zhang Ruochen and take the Canons.”

“Kill Zhang Ruochen and take the Supreme Artifacts.”

“Kill Zhang Ruochen and take the Godstones.”

...

Except for Bai Qing'er who was still calm, all the cultivators in the garden went crazy.

Chapter 2467: Defeated

Divine Dragonbone Whip was a Quasi-Supreme Artifact forged from the backbone of the Divine Dragon. It gave birth to a large number of Supreme Inscriptions.

Zhang Ruochen borrowed the power of Qiankun and fused it into the whip. Nearly a million inscriptions were activated. The dragon's roar was endless. The phantom of the Divine Dragon appeared on the whip. It gave off a terrifying power that only a divine-level creature could have.

Rumble

The whip was lashed out, and it was as if a divine dragon was flying out from the sky. It was drawing in wind, rain, thunder, and lightning.

Sensing how terrifying the divine aura was, Lord Ironclad had no choice but to take it seriously. His expression was solemn, and countless Precepts revolved around his body, forming a whirlwind that clashed with Divine Dragonbone Whip.

With a bang, the protective Precepts were shattered, and Lord Ironclad's burly body was sent flying into the distance.

The armor on his body was extremely mysterious, and it had absorbed most of the power of Divine Dragonbone Whip. He did not suffer too much damage, and he quickly stopped retreating after falling to the ground.

Lord Ironclad was an elite at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm. He was just one step away from transforming his Neverwithers physique into Paramount physique, so his physical defense was naturally extraordinary.

The so-called 'Paramount physique' referred to the Precepts that covered the entire body of a cultivator. They were integrated into every part of the body. Even a strand of hair or a drop of blood contained countless Precepts.

Oneself was the embodiment of the Precepts. One's flesh and blood were also part of the Precepts.

If one could do that, one would be a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

That was why Paramount Realm Supreme Saints were many times stronger than Banshi Isshou Realm's Supreme Saint. Even when Zhang Ruochen risked his life and borrowed the power of Qiankun, he was only evaluated to be close to Paramount Realm.

Compared to a real Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, he was still far away.

“Again.”

Lord Ironclad's eyes were filled with anger. As a member of Nether Hall's Nether Berserker, he had been defeated by a Hundred-Shackle Realm junior. It was a great humiliation.

The bone spear in his hand turned from white to black. The dark light it released turned the entire battlefield into the night.

“The night has fallen. Thousand soldiers for a kill.”

Lord Ironclad's figure suddenly disappeared. In the night, broken palaces, city walls, altars, withered trees, and stone mountains fell from the sky like meteors.

Zhang Ruochen's pupils shrank. He took out Zangshan Demonic Mirror.

Towering ancient demon mountains flew out of the mirror. They were ten thousand meters tall, majestic, and indestructible. They crushed the broken world that fell from the sky into dust.

Lord Ironclad appeared from behind the broken world. He was sucked into the mountains by Supreme Power of Zangshan Demonic Mirror.

Boom!

BOOM!

...

He kept swinging his bone spear, causing the demon mountains to shake. He wanted to break the demonic mirror and rush out.

However, how could a Supreme Artifact be so easy to deal with?

No matter how powerful he was, the demon mountains were ancient. They were like a Neverwithers world created by a demon lord. Even if a large part of it was destroyed, it could recover quickly.

Lord Ironclad flew to the top of a demon mountain and looked into the sky, he said coldly, "So the so-called Yuanhui-level genius only relies on Supreme Artifacts? If I had a Supreme Artifacts, you would have been destroyed."

Zhang Ruochen's voice was indifferent. "Don't be full of big talk when you don't have a Supreme Artifact."

Lord Ironclad gritted his teeth in anger. It was great to have a Supreme Artifact. He shouted "Okay" three times before saying, "A Supreme Artifact might not be able to suppress everything. In front of absolute cultivation, all weapons can be broken.

"Berserker Warsoul."

Lord Ironclad used a Banshi Isshou level saint technique that only Nether Hall's Nether Berserker could cultivate. The battle intent surged out of his body and condensed into a giant in black armor.

The giant grew taller and taller, as if it was about to break through the clouds.

Zhang Ruochen, who was controlling demonic mirror, changed his expression slightly. "Banshi Isshou level saint technique."

Boom!

Zangshan Demonic Mirror shook and the demon mountains collapsed. They couldn't withstand the impact of Berserker Warsoul.

The battlefield that Bai Qing'er had created with half a cup of tea cracked. The 50 lakes seemed to be dried up by the power of the Supreme Artifact and Berserker Warsoul.

She stretched out a finger and pointed across the air.

The battlefield instantly stabilized, and the cracks were repaired automatically.

Zhang Ruochen knew that Lord Ironclad who had used Banshi Isshou level saint technique would break through the demon mountains sooner or later. Once he was free, it would be difficult to trap him within the demonic mirror.

“Okay, as you wish. Let me show you my power.”

All the power in Zhang Ruochen's body rushed to his left leg to activate the Divine Mark of Flame contained in Yanshen's leg.

The 80 million Divine Marks that had been refined showed up and released a dazzling light.

At this moment, the entire battlefield, including the garden outside the battlefield, could not open their eyes because of the Divine Marks' light. It was like a small sun that contained the power to destroy the world.

Zhang Ruochen stepped out and charged into the demon mountains.

Mighty divine power surged out from under his feet as if a God had come into being. He stepped on Berserker Warsoul which was even taller than the demon mountains.

“What is Zhang Ruochen doing? Does he want to fight against a Banshi Isshou level saint technique?” Shang Yue's beautiful face was full of surprise.

“He's courting death. Even the Supreme Artifact can't suppress the Banshi Isshou level saint technique. Yet, he actually wants to fight against it on his own.”

Bai Qing'er shook her head, “You're wrong. Didn't you sense the soul-stirring divine power on the battlefield? Zhang Ruochen's leg was the leg of a god. It contained boundless divine force. He has already grasped the power of the god's leg."

Boom

An earth-shattering sound rang out.

Hot and violent energy surged out of the battlefield and rushed into the garden.

Zhang Ruochen's foot broke through Berserker Warsoul and destroyed the lakes on the battlefield. His posture was like the birth of a True God, making Lord Ironclad cough blood and retreat quickly.

Even though he wore iron blood armor, he couldn't completely defend against the divine force of Yanshen's leg.

The 50 lakes and the battlefield made from the half cup of tea disappeared and were evaporated by the divine flames.

Flames were burning everywhere on the battlefield, burning the ground red.

Crash

Zhang Ruochen held Divine Dragonbone Whip in one hand and Zangshan Demonic Mirror in the other. He seized the initiative and attacked Lord Ironclad repeatedly, forcing him to retreat.

While attacking, Zhang Ruochen used his spiritual power to communicate with Blackie in Qiankun Realm.

"Such a fierce battle between Lord Ironclad and I must have alarmed the entire Ji Feng Manor. However, Guye Jing hasn't shown up yet. It's obvious that we can't trust that demoness. If we want to escape, we have to rely on ourselves. How powerful are you? Can you kill your way out?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie was full of confidence and said, "Don't you know my strength? I only need a glance to kill Lord Ironclad. As for the witch, I can beat ten of her all at once."

"Really?" Zhang Ruochen didn't believe it.

Blackie coughed and changed the topic, “However, I used my powerful spiritual power to investigate and found many Supreme Saints in the garden. As the saying goes, two fists can’t beat four hands. I’m still under a lot of pressure.”

Zhang Ruochen felt like he was choking. His heart sank.

As expected, he couldn’t rely on anyone. In the end, he had to rely on himself.

“Die Lord Ironclad!”

Zhang Ruochen took out a talisman and threw it out.

Lord Ironclad, who was at a disadvantage, changed his expression. He thought that it was a killing talisman given to Zhang Ruochen by either Wargod Bloodximus or Blood Empress. So, he used Berserker Warsoul again. He stabbed the bone spear into the ground and used all his strength to defend.

The talisman fell like night. It enveloped Lord Ironclad in darkness.

This wasn’t a killing talisman. It was a Dark Prison Talisman that Zhang Ruochen had bought with one hundred Godstones in Realm of Star Ocean. It was a type of talisman that could trap people.

It was enough to trap a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint for a moment.

There were many formations in the garden. It was impossible for Zhang Ruochen to escape through dimension.

The only way was to use Primordial Spatial Worm.

If Primordial Spatial Worm wanted to leave, no array or confinement could trap it.

Zhang Ruochen was about to release Primordial Spatial Worm and leave through the wormhole. Suddenly, Guye Jing’s voice rang in his mind. “Give me a chance. I want to test Bai Qing’er.”

Hearing her voice, Zhang Ruochen breathed a sigh of relief. The demoness was finally here. He didn’t have to fight alone anymore.

Although Primordial Spatial Worms could gnaw out wormholes, they were very slow. Zhang Ruochen had a slim chance of escaping before Bai Qing'er attacked.

Now that she had arrived, everything could go according to plan. There was no need to use this trick.

“Shoreless Star Ocean.”

Zhang Ruochen pretended as if nothing had happened and released the Realm-frame of Truth. At the same time, he continued to evolve an advanced Thousand-Koan level saint technique, Incarceration of Divine Demon. A phantom of a divine demon rose behind him.

The phantom of the divine demon and the Realm-frame of Truth quickly merged together.

In the dark area covered by Dark Prison Talisman, Lord Ironclad roared. Then, a ray of light of death broke through the darkness and escaped.

“Break it!”

Lord Ironclad's roar shook away the remaining Power of Darkness in the talisman.

At this moment.

Incarceration of Divine Demon and the Realm-frame of Truth combined into one. It exploded with ten times the attack power. Zhang Ruochen threw it at Lord Ironclad.

Lord Ironclad didn't expect that Zhang Ruochen's ten times attack power would be so terrifying. It was even more shocking than the power of a Supreme Artifact. He didn't have time to remove the seal on his body and stab with all his strength.

Attack as a defense.

Lord Ironclad was indeed a first-class Supreme Saint. His judgments were sharp and accurate. He hit the most vulnerable part of Incarceration of Divine Demon.

However, even though he'd broken Incarceration of Divine Demon, he was still heavily injured. He flew far away and crashed into a dry lake, creating a crater.

Zhang Ruochen was about to attack again, but the battlefield dispersed like a cloud of Qi.

The vast land and sky disappeared. Lord Ironclad and he returned to the garden. The battle just now was like a dream.

Lord Ironclad was badly injured. He moved his fingers and lifted the seal. Instantly, his weakened aura recovered and became stronger.

His eyes were filled with unwillingness and viciousness. He gritted his teeth and said, “Miss, I haven’t lost yet. I want to continue fighting with him.”

“If you lose, you lose,” Bai Qing’er said coldly.

Lord Ironclad said, “I sealed 90% of my cultivation just now.”

“Even if you sealed 90% of your cultivation, you would still be at Banshi Isshou Realm. Your opponent is only at Hundred-Shackle Realm.” A cold light shone in Bai Qing’er’s eyes.

Lord Ironclad didn’t dare to look directly into Bai Qing’er’s eyes. He immediately lowered his head and said, “Yes, I’ve lost!”

Zhang Ruochen saw many figures standing in the fog far away in the garden.

These cultivators were all very powerful. They all looked at him with disbelief.

Especially Bai Qing’er’s eldest disciple, Shang Yue. When she looked at him, her eyes were filled with a burning light. It was as if she wanted to eat him up.

Although Lord Ironclad had sealed 90% of his cultivation, Zhang Ruochen was able to defeat him. This was beyond the cultivators’ expectations. They had to re-evaluate him.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

Bai Qing'er clapped her hands and stood up. She stood beside the stone table and she smiled. "I believe the rumors now. Lord Ironclad failed to test your strength. You are indeed stronger than I expected."

Zhang Ruochen said, "So, can I go now?"

Bai Qing'er shook her head.

Zhang Ruochen's expression didn't change. He seemed to have expected it. "Women's words can't be trusted."

"No! If you want to go, I won't stop you. However, you have to leave your Canon of Destiny. Canon of Truth and Canon of Dimension behind." Bai Qing'er's eyes were clear as water, her voice was also very gentle, but it carried an indomitable command tone.

The elites in the garden took a few steps forward one after another, forming an encirclement.

Streams of powerful Saint Aura invisibly pressed toward Zhang Ruochen, wanting to force him to submit.

Zhang Ruochen was still calm. He said, "I only have Canon of Destiny. Who said that I have Canon of Truth and Canon of Dimension? Besides, even if I have the Canons, why should I give them to you? Does Miss Bai really think of herself as a member of the Zhang Family?"

"How dare you take advantage of my master when you are about to die? If you don't have Canon of Dimension, how can your body bear the weight of a macroworld?" Shang Yue said.

Zhang Ruochen looked thoughtful. At this moment, a divine flame sword light pierced his heart at lightning speed.

It was Shang Yue.

Her cultivation was more powerful than Lord Ironclad. The saint sword in her hand was an ancient divine relic weapon. The sword technique she used was mysterious and peerless. It was integrated with Divine Purification Flame and took into account the strengths of both the Swordsmanship and Path of Fire.

The sword was like a divine sun falling on the Earth.

“Even a disciple is so powerful. How powerful is Bai Qing’er’s cultivation?” This thought flashed through Zhang Ruochen’s mind.

He released his spiritual power to check, but he could only sense the fire and the saint sword. He could not sense Shang Yue’s location. He suddenly realized that this woman was not human, nor was she flesh and blood. She should be a sword spirit or an Innate Fire Spirit.

Chapter 2468: No Chance of Survival

ROAR!

Ten tiger roars sounded at the same time.

Zhang Ruochen struck out with his palm. Ten illusory images of Intergold Tigers appeared and golden light surged out from his palm. It covered the sword's light and divine flame.

Although Shang Yue was strong, Zhang Ruochen, who had borrowed the power of Qiankun Realm, was more robust.

Dragon-Elephant... No, Dragon-Tiger Prajna Strike. The palm power was overbearing and powerful.

The palm force dispersed the Divine Purification Flame. Instantly, Shang Yue's figure appeared and retreated rapidly. Her face turned from red to white, white to green, and no longer was contempt in her eyes. She became much more cautious.

Before a real fight, a cultivator with a high cultivation realm would never look down on a cultivator with a low cultivation realm.

This was because a cultivator's knowledge of hundreds or thousands of years had already solidified. It was common knowledge that a cultivator with a high cultivation realm could suppress a cultivator with a low cultivation realm. It was impossible to change it in a short period. Even if the truth was in front of him, he wouldn't admit it in his heart.

Like mortals, they would never believe that a newborn baby could kill a strong man with one punch.

Even if it happened in front of them, they wouldn't believe it.

They would only believe it when they were killed with one punch.

Shang Yue obviously believed it now. She had to admit that a Yuanhui-level genius was incomparable to ordinary cultivators. She couldn't judge it with common sense. Of course, this also made her more convinced that Zhang Ruochen must have many profound meanings.

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

Shang Yue and Shang Xia attacked at the same time. They held a Saint Sword and attacked Zhang Ruochen from the left and right.

The two women, one was an Innate fire spirit, and the other was an Innate water spirit. They attacked at the same time and developed an incredible sword array. The combination of yin and yang significantly increased their combat power.

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to fight against the two of them alone. He waved his hand and shot out a Multi-Dimensional Scroll.

The scrolls opened. Light burst out, forming spatial Microworlds that covered the entire garden. They separated the array inscriptions in the garden, making all the arrays useless.

Bai Qing'er didn't realize that something was wrong. She raised her voice. "Zhang Ruochen wants to escape. take him down."

Shang Yue, Shang Xia, Lord Ironclad, the white-haired old woman, the mysterious powerhouse in white... All the cultivators in the garden attacked one after another. They cast saint techniques to break through the multiple spatial Microworlds.

"You want to escape with a mere scroll? Watch me break it in one stroke," said Lord Ironclad.

The seal on Lord Ironclad was lifted. The bone spear seemed to have turned into a sharp divine column. It unleashed the full power of the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm, striking the scroll hanging in the air.

Zhang Ruochen looked indifferent. He pressed the tip of his right index finger into the void.

Whoosh

The ground beneath Lord Ironclad's feet and the sky above his head flashed with dense Dimensional Inscriptions. They expanded endlessly, making it so that his ultimate attack couldn't even touch the spatial walls of multiple spaces. It was impossible to destroy the scroll.

Shang Yue and Shang Xia intertwined like water and fire spiritual snakes in another spatial Microworld. They formed a sword formation of Solar-flare and Lunar-frost.

However, Zhang Ruochen had already set up a drop of Dark Space-time Matter in that spatial Microworld. Just as the sword formation was about to take shape, the Dark Space-time Matter suddenly appeared and exploded, releasing a terrifying destructive power.

With Shang Yue and Shang Xia's cultivation, a drop of Dark Space-time Matter couldn't hurt them.

However, when they were fully developing the sword formation, their defenses were weak, so they couldn't escape.

The space where Shang Yue and Shang Xia were turned into the darkness with two screams.

...

This Multi-Dimensional Scroll was Zhang Ruochen's masterpiece. It represented his highest level of dimensional attainment. He had already set up all kinds of attacks and Dimensional Traps. How could they break it?

Of course, these cultivators were not weak. As they became severe and attacked with their strength, Zhang Ruochen's pressure increased.

Zhang Ruochen took out the Secret Tome of Time and Space and opened the pages. Immediately, a diverse-dimensional space appeared. It combined with the multidimensional space formed by the scroll, complementing each other.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen's body split into 36 figures and appeared in 36 spatial Microworlds. His clones used the Dimensional Inscriptions in the scroll to transform into various dimensional attacks. They used the Power of Dimension to perfection.

Bai Qing'er was standing in a spatial Microworld. She was very still and calm. She took her time looking up at the Multi-Dimensional Scroll. She said, "You really surprise me everywhere. You can trap so many powerhouses under me by yourself. You are only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. It seems that you alone are better than tens of millions of people. I'm a bit serious about our bet now!"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Unfortunately, no matter how many cultivators I trap, I can't trap you."

"You know this, but you didn't run away immediately. It seems that you didn't come here alone. Who is the woman with you?" Bai Qing'er said.

"Hehe!"

The soft laughter of Guye Jing and her power of illusion spread into many spatial Microworlds.

The Supreme Saints trapped in the spatial Microworlds were all affected.

Those with weaker cultivation fell into the illusion directly. Some cried loudly, while others waved their weapons crazily.

The Supreme Saints with powerful cultivation immediately sat cross-legged and tried their best to resist the illusionary sound.

Zhang Ruochen was greatly relieved from the pressure. He was shocked. The demoness Guye Jing usually did not show her true strength. When she really attacked, she was so impressive. She could fuse the illusion into sound and make a Supreme Saint at the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm lose his battle strength.

Luckily, the illusionary sound didn't attack him. Otherwise, he wasn't sure if he could block it with his 65th-level spiritual power and the Heart of Truth.

Bai Qing'er, who had always been calm, frowned for the first time. She looked through the layers of spatial Microworlds and looked at the high wall of the garden. She saw a charming woman in a red dress standing quietly on it. With a light step, she flew down like a fairy.

Guye Jing directly entered the spatial Microworld that Bai Qing'er was in. In an instant, the entire Microworld was filled with demonic qi. It was enveloped by the red demonic fog. It revealed the phantom images of gods and demons taller than mountains. They were powerful. It was as if they could swallow the starry sky.

"Bai Qing'er, hand over the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, or you'll die," Guye Jing said.

Bai Qing'er was thinking about the identity of the person who had come. She said lightly, "You're looking at the wrong person! If you want the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, you should ask Zhang Ruochen for it. Many cultivators know that Zhang Ruochen killed Tan Fei and stole the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin."

Guye Jing glanced at Zhang Ruochen with affection and said, "Did you steal the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head.

"See, he said he didn't have it," Guye Jing said with a smile.

Bai Qing'er said, "Is the successor of the current generation of The Rāhu Mountains so easy to fool? Zhang Ruochen lured you here to use you against me so that he could use you to kill me. Because only I know that the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is in his hands. If he kills me, he can monopolize the Fane of Origin."

Obviously, Bai Qing'er had already guessed Guye Jing's identity.

"Compared to Zhang Ruochen, I believe that the possibility of you stealing the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is greater. Besides, even if it's not the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, I've long wanted to meet you. I wish to see what kind of ability you have to subdue so many top-level Supreme Saints. Is it because of your beauty?" Guye Jing said.

Bai Qing'er's expression turned cold. It was as if space itself was frozen.

At this moment, Guye Jing pointed out with her finger, and a beam of light shot out from her fingertip.

It seemed like a simple attack, but the Path locks, Supreme Saint Inscription, and Divine Mark were all shattered wherever the beam of light passed. Even the space itself was filled with cracks.

This was like a beam of light of death. Nothing in the world could withstand it.

"Don't hurt my master," shouted Shang Xia.

Shang Xia struck out with the divine relic sword in her hand. It turned into a ray of light and pierced through the spatial wall of the spatial Microworld, colliding with the beam of light.

Boom

The divine relic sword was instantly smashed into pieces. It turned into works of scrap metal and flew in all directions.

However, the power of the ray of light didn't seem to decrease as it hit Bai Qing'er's heart.

Something strange happened.

A divine light vortex appeared in Bai Qing'er's heart. It absorbed the light beam and disappeared without a trace.

"Divine Light of Origin, so you are a Master of Origin." Guye Jing was surprised. At the same time, she believed Zhang Ruochen's words. The possibility of Bai Qing'er stealing the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was very high.

Bai Qing'er said, "The divine knowledge of The Rāhu Mountains, Finger of Death. It seems that you have not cultivated it to the grand completion."

“If you want to see real divine knowledge, I’ll grant your wish,” said Guye Jing.

“No need. I’m not interested in you. Someone is more interested in you.” said Bai Qing’er.

Bai Qing’er turned around and walked toward Zhang Ruochen. The multiple spaces formed by the scrolls and the Secret Tome of Time and Space were like bubbles. They could not stop her at all.

Seeing Bai Qing’er getting closer and closer, Zhang Ruochen’s expression changed again and again. He looked towards Guye Jing, only to find no smile on her face at all. She was earnest. It was apparent that she had discovered a terrifying enemy.

A voice rang out from the depths of the garden. “The descendant of The Rāhu Mountains only appears once every ten thousand years. She should not be weak. I wonder if she can block my blade?”

It was Wuma Jiuxing’s voice.

Hearing this voice, Zhang Ruochen’s heart sank to the bottom of the valley.

Damn it!

‘Didn’t Wuma Jiuxing go to recuperate? Why was he in the Ji Feng Saint Mansion?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

He had miscalculated. He had seriously miscalculated.

“Run, run immediately,” said Zhang Ruochen

The Primordial Spatial Worm on Zhang Ruochen’s finger flew out. It became as big as a python and was about to devour the space. Bai Qing’er waved her hand. A giant lightning bolt hit the Primordial Spatial Worm. It rolled out and became the size of an earthworm again.

In an instant, there was only one space wall between Bai Qing’er and Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth. He took out a jar of divine blood from his Ring of Dimensions and threw it out.

The divine blood had been refined with Godstone powder.

The power of the Multi-Dimensional Scroll increased significantly. The Dimensional Inscriptions turned blood-red and released a powerful divine luster. The spatial Microworld that Bai Qing'er was on stretched endlessly, compressed rapidly, and collapsed.

Even with Bai Qing'er's cultivation, she was trapped in it temporarily and couldn't get out.

"Lord Turtle, take down his scroll," Bai Qing'er ordered.

Then, a three-foot-tall emerald stone turtle emerged from the ground not far from Zhang Ruochen.

The Dimensional Inscription on the ground was torn apart by it with its bare hands.

"I... I... I... I... I..."

Before Lord Turtle could finish his sentence, he was kicked away by a black hedgehog.

It was Blackie.

Perhaps he felt that this turtle was like a soft persimmon, but this time, Blackie was the one who took the initiative to challenge him.

"You can't even speak clearly, yet you still dare to come out and embarrass yourself," said Blackie. He stood on one leg while his other leg was still in the posture of a kick. His entire body was covered in sharp spikes.

Lord Turtle was furious. He did not expect that he, as Stone Clan's Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, and whose mentor was Huang Tian, would be kicked away by a hedgehog.

After rolling for more than ten rounds, Lord Turtle suddenly stood up. Thousands of ancient divine runes appeared on the turtle shell on his back. An iron staff appeared in his hand, and he struck out with it.

“Short Hand, you are so far away. Do you still want to beat me?” Blacky was very arrogant and laughed at him.

Picking the weakest opponent was indeed easy.

BOOM!

Lord Turtle’s iron staff seemed to swing from afar, but it quickly broke through the space and hit Blackie’s head. Blackie fell to the ground. Its head and legs were gone, leaving only blackthorns.

Zhang Ruochen really wanted to pick Blackie up and beat it. How dare he underestimate his opponent.

He knew very well that the Multi-Dimensional Scroll couldn’t trap Bai Qing’er for long. If he didn’t get out now, he might really die here. After retrieving the injured Primordial Spatial Worm, Zhang Ruochen picked up Blackie, who fainted, and rushed out of the garden.

Unexpectedly, the stone pillar standing at the garden’s gate suddenly came to life. It reached out a stone palm and grabbed Zhang Ruochen.

“Crap, there are still powerhouses hidden,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen only felt that the ground under his feet was sinking when the stone palm reached out, and the sky was spinning.

The stone palm seemed to cover the entire heaven and earth. It was impenetrable. Even if Zhang Ruochen whipped out the Divine Dragonbone Whip, he couldn’t break a crack. He could only watch as the five-fingered “Sky” collapsed.

This was a superior who was more powerful than Lord Ironclad. It was very likely that he had reached the Paramount Realm.

On the other side.

Countless light ley lines rose from the depths of the garden. They condensed into a golden saber and slashed at Guye Jing.

“Death Spirits, come to me!” Guye Jing shouted.

Guye Jing formed a seal with her hands, and a circular altar rose up under her feet. Red Death Spirits and demonic qi spread out, and the voice of the ritual seemed to have been transmitted from ancient times to this world. One after another, the apparitions of gods and demons revived, holding up their divine halberds and striking at the golden saber.

Crack

The indestructible golden saber destroyed the apparitions of gods and demons. It broke through Guye Jing's completed divine knowledge and struck her body.

Guye Jing was thrown down the altar like a kite with a broken string. Her body was covered in blood. Her Paramount physique was heavily wounded by the golden saber, and the Precepts in her body became chaotic. They were cut off by the Precepts of Saber.

Her physique was on the verge of collapse, and her life force was gradually destroyed.

"As expected of Wuma Jiuxing. He is indeed powerful," said Guye Jing.

Her delicate body trembled slightly. She was no longer as charming as before, and the smile on her face was gone. However, her eyes were still full of unyielding will. Her will to fight was not destroyed by the saber.

Even if there was no chance of survival, one must still look for a possible chance of survival. This was a principle that every cultivator who had transcended the Banshi Isshou Realm understood.

Chapter 2469: A Time Loop

General Pillar had the same mentor as Lord Turtle, Huang Tian, and General Pillar's cultivation had reached the Paramount Realm.

As soon as he made his move, the precepts of heaven and earth changed. The sky turned into five fingers, and the earth kept sinking. The structure of space underwent strange changes. Even Zhang Ruochen, the Master of Space, found it difficult to freeze space.

"Compared to the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, the gap is still too big." Zhang Ruochen sighed.

Blackie, who had fainted, recovered at the critical moment. Suddenly, it roared hysterically, "You dare to sneak attack on me? Now die."

It broke free from Zhang Ruochen's hands. A dazzling divine light shot out as it opened and closed its eyes.

It waved its claws in the air, forming three streaks of flame light. It split open the five-fingered sky that fell from the sky.

Boom

Billions of precepts collided. The world disintegrated, the stars shifted, the gods fell... and so on. It was a shocking phenomenon.

General Pillar's eyes widened as if he had been struck by lightning. He withdrew his stone hand and retreated rapidly.

"What a powerful hedgehog. Could it be a Primeval Divine Beast?" said General Pillar as he raised his hand. Three black lines appeared on his palm, and they were an inch deep.

One had to know that its stone body was the essence of divine ore. It could be refined into a divine gold material to refine a Supreme Artifact.

From this, one could see how terrifying Blacky's claw was.

"Ignorant fool, I'm undying... Hedgehog," said Blackie

"An undying hedgehog? Good, very good. Although I have never heard of a Primeval Divine Beast like you, I will definitely remember it from today onwards," General Pillar said seriously.

Blacky was too lazy to explain it. It rubbed the bump on its head, turned around, and looked behind it. A pair of fiery eyes glared angrily at Lord Turtle, who was chasing after it. It roared fiercely, "I will use your blood to wash away the humiliation just now. Today, it's a battle of life and death. Fight! Fight! Fight!"

The mighty battle intent turned into a battle cloud and gathered above Blacky's head.

Lord Turtle was stunned. His two green bean-sized eyes rolled around as he said, "I... I... Am... a... Stone..."

"I don't care who you are. Even if there is a god behind you, you will not be able to escape death. I hate trash like you who can't win and wants to use your background to suppress others. Tremble, turtle," said Blackie. His aura rose again.

Lord Turtle was a bit discouraged. He shut his mouth and thought to himself, 'You misunderstood! I just want to say that I'm a Stone Clan Supreme saint. My main body is a space jade that has been deposited for hundreds of millions of years. I don't have any blood. Even if you want to wash away your shame with my blood, you can't do it!'

Blackie saw Lord Turtle winking at it and thought he was provoking it. He was furious. He wanted to rush up and fight, but Zhang Ruochen grabbed his tail and dragged him back.

"Don't stop me. I want to destroy it." Blackie was angry and scolded Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Ignore them. Break the array and leave. Wuma Jiuxing is in the garden."

"What?" asked Blackie.

Blackie immediately woke up and carefully observed the situation. It indeed sensed Wuma Jiuxing's aura. He said, "This guy's Path of Saber has reached divinity and its pinnacle. He is invincible if a Yuanhui-level genius doesn't reach the Paramount Realm. Run, run now."

Blackie ran faster than anyone else when faced with danger. He ran out of the garden like a wisp of smoke.

General Pillar tried to stop him, but he was sent flying with Blackie's nine claws. He fell to the ground, his body covered in claw marks.

Zhang Ruochen followed closely behind Blackie. He finally felt more confident.

Blackie was unreliable, but he did show extraordinary strength after his cultivation recovered. The two Stone Clan Supreme Saints under Bai Qing'er obviously had the potential to become gods. However, they couldn't last more than ten rounds in front of Blackie.

When Blackie and General Pillar fought, the precepts of heaven and earth were like two oceans colliding. Compared to them, the more than 10 billion Precepts that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated were like a small pond that would be swallowed instantly.

After seeing the difference between him and the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, Zhang Ruochen's motivation increased significantly. He swore to himself that he would hide if he escaped this time. He would never come out unless he cultivated to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Only when he cultivated to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and unleashed his Demigod-level physique could he withstand more world power. Then, he would have the possibility to fight with the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

Of course, a Demigod-level physique was potent and could suppress a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. Unfortunately, with his cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he could not use it ideally.

It's the realm!

Only when he reached the realm could he control even more powerful power.

CRASH!

The earth-shattering sound rang out in the garden.

Zhang Ruochen's expression changed. He looked in the direction of Lord Turtle.

Lord Turtle's spatial attainments were profound. When Blackie and General Pillar were fighting, he broke the wall of the spatial Microworld and shattered the Multi-Dimensional Scroll.

Instantly, half of the spatial Microworlds in the garden collapsed.

All the Supreme Saints, including Bai Qing'er, escaped.

They had been trapped by a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. They were already filled with anger. Killing intent flashed in their eyes as they chased after Zhang Ruochen and Blackie.

"Zhang Ruochen, where do you think you're going? Take this, A Kill of Thousands!"

Lord Ironclad rushed out from the group of influential figures and threw out the bone spear in his hand.

The inscriptions on the bone spear shone, and a shadow of a broken world appeared. It flew with the bone spear and behind Zhang Ruochen at an unparalleled speed.

This was an attack from Lord Ironclad, who was at the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm. He didn't seal his cultivation.

If he was hit, even a Supreme Saint who had just entered the Banshi Isshou Realm would be turned into ashes, let alone Zhang Ruochen.

The more dangerous it was, the calmer Zhang Ruochen became. His thoughts became empty. He didn't turn back, but the trajectory of the bone spear was clearly displayed in his mind.

With the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light that was ten thousand times the speed of sound, Zhang Ruochen was even faster than the bone spear.

Whoosh

He took a step forward and rushed into the garden. He entered the array outside the garden.

As soon as he stepped into it, the array unfolded like a scroll, trapping him in a desert plane.

There was no light in the desert plane. It was pitch black.

The bone spear and the broken world flew into the desert array world and chased after him relentlessly.

Zhang Ruochen had no way to escape. He turned around abruptly and used the Zangshan Demonic Mirror to protect himself. Then he shot out the Violet Gourd and the Myriad Curse Bead.

The three Supreme Artifacts released Supreme Power at the same time. Like three suns rising, the dazzling light pierced through the array of a desert plane and out of Ji Feng Manor, illuminating the entire Enchanton.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The power of the bone spear was unrivaled. It knocked the Violet Gourd and the Myriad Curse Bead away. It pierced through the demon mountains formed by the Zangshan Demonic Mirror and collided with the mirror.

Zhang Ruochen and the Zangshan Demonic Mirror were thrown out together.

He used all his Power of Dimension to resolve the residual force of the bone spear. He was not seriously injured.

"You can withstand my full-strength attack," said Lord Ironclad.

Lord Ironclad chased into the desert plane of the array. His eyes were filled with surprise. Then his eyes turned cold, and his killing intent grew stronger.

He was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he was already challenging to deal with. When Zhang Ruochen broke through to the Thousand-Koan Realm, wouldn't he lose to him?

Lord Ironclad grabbed the end of the bone spear. Dense precepts surged out of his body and turned into a sea of precepts. They merged with the bone spear and crackled towards Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had already used all his strength to block Lord Ironclad's first attack. How could he stop the second attack?

However, Zhang Ruochen didn't accept his Destiny. His body shrank instantly and turned into a speck of light.

"You can't dodge it. You've been locked onto by my sea of precepts. You can't dodge it by shrinking your body," Lord Ironclad sneered.

A shining bracelet flew out of the speck of light.

The bracelet spun rapidly. It grew bigger and bigger until its diameter was 30 feet. It swept Lord Ironclad and the sea of precepts he'd released into the inside of the bracelet.

Lord Ironclad's bone spear lost its direction and hit the ground, sinking into the desert.

The light spots flashed, and Zhang Ruochen reappeared. He looked at Lord Ironclad trapped in the bracelet with surprise.

Lord Ironclad repeated the same action. He raised his bone spear and struck the ground.

It was very strange.

The Supreme Saint powerhouses that caught up from behind were all stunned by this scene. They froze on the spot and did not move forward immediately.

Bai Qing'er recognized the bracelet that trapped Lord Ironclad and said, "Yu Qiu's Universum Bracelet has actually fallen into your hands.”

“It’s actually the Universum Bracelet. Legend has it that Yu Qiu, who had just stepped into the Paramount Realm, used this bracelet to fight Lord Wuma to a draw,” said the mysterious powerhouse in white.

Bai Qing’er nodded. She said, “This is a Destiny Treasure and a Time Treasure. Any cultivator trapped in it will fall into a time loop. It’s a pity that Zhang Ruochen’s attainments in Destiny are not high enough. Otherwise, he could have used the Universum Bracelet’s Power of Destiny to make Lord Ironclad kill himself.

“I’ll take this treasure.”

The mysterious man in white was very tempted. He grabbed out through the air. A large hand condensed from death Qi held onto the Universum Bracelet.

The Universum Bracelet was powerful, but they were only weapons after all.

Under the pressure of the hand of death qi, the bracelet spun slower and slower. Finally, they stopped altogether.

Seeing that the Universum Bracelet was about to be taken away, Guye Jing barged into the array desert plane. She flew out from the clouds and smashed the hand of death qi condensed by the mysterious man in white with one finger. She reached out and grabbed the Universum Bracelet.

The moment the Universum Bracelet fell into her hand, the brilliance of Destiny emitted increased dramatically as if it had turned into a divine wheel.

Guye Jing landed not far from Zhang Ruochen as her jade feet sank into the yellow sand. She ignored Bai Qing’er and the others and looked at the sky fearfully. She said, “Use the Power of Time to help me.”

He did not need to guess that Wuma Jiuxing must have come after her!

“Okay!” Zhang Ruochen said.

Zhang Ruochen knew that the situation was critical, but he was decisive. The Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension between his eyebrows appeared and rotated rapidly to form a Dimensional Gate. The power of the world gushed out endlessly.

In an instant, the aura that burst out from Zhang Ruochen reached the Middle-stage of Banshi Isshou Realm and later to Late-stage.

However, blood-red cracks appeared between his eyebrows. His head seemed to be on the verge of breaking into pieces. Apparently, he had reached the limit of what he could bear.

The Precepts of Time in his body flew out and fused with the energy of Qiankun Realm, pouring into the Universum Bracelet.

Whoosh

In an instant, countless light spots of Marks of Time surged out of the Universum Bracelet. They turned into a rain of light that covered the graceful body of Guye Jing. They spread in all directions and surrounded the entire desert plane.

The desert plane became dreamy and beautiful.

BOOM!

Wuma Jiuxing stepped through the clouds of the array formation and appeared in the sky, walking toward him step by step.

The sky in which he was standing now had a fantastic scene that looked like a crimson sunset. He was tall and handsome, with long, fiery-red hair draped over his head. His entire body was emitting a masculine charm that could make all the women in the world fall in love with him.

He was powerful, handsome, masculine, and domineering, but he also had a unique charm that couldn't be hidden. Shang Yue, Shang Xia, and the other female cultivators couldn't take their eyes off him immediately. It was like how male cultivators couldn't help but be attracted to the fairy in the Portrait of the Nine Beauties.

Wuma Jiuxing had always been mysterious, and it was also the first time Shang Yue and Shang Xia had seen him in person.

Wuma Jiuxing's eyes full of vitality, landed on Guye Jing. He said, "In this world, only the number one powerhouse of the Fane of Destiny, Zhuo Yunong, survived one strike from me. Today, there is one more. The descendent of The Rāhu Mountains didn't disappoint me."

Guye Jing raised her stubborn chin and said, "Since you could not kill me with one strike, it can be seen that your saber is not as powerful as the legends say."

"If I had not suffered some injuries during the battle with Zhuo Yunong, I would not have needed to use a second strike to kill you," said Wuma Jiuxing.

Wuma Jiuxing's gaze was sharp as if nothing could shake his will. He spread out his right hand, and immediately, dense Precepts of Saber condensed in his palm, forming a golden saber.

The saber hadn't been cut out yet.

The cultivators present felt as if their Saint Souls had been cut out. Their eyes became blind, and their heads were aching.

Swoosh

The golden saber flew out and cut down.

Guye Jing seized the opportunity and threw out the Universum Bracelet. It dragged a long tail of flowing light and crashed toward the golden saber that had fallen from the sky.

"Let's go!" said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing grabbed Zhang Ruochen's wrist and flew toward the edge of the array desert plane.

"The bracelet..."

"Are you going to die, or do you want a bracelet? It's not too late to take it back after you've reached the Paramount Realm," said Guye Jing as her face was pale. Her body was dripping with the Supreme Saint's blood. Every time she breathed, her aura would weaken.

Guye Jing was already very impressive to survive a strike from Wuma Jiuxing. She could be ranked among the top powerhouses below divinity.

Zhang Ruochen knew that survival was the most important thing at the moment. He sighed and activated the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light. He grabbed Guye Jing's weak wrist and flew out.

Blackie had already broken more than half of the array in the desert plane. He said, "Give me some more time. I'll break the array soon."

"It's too late. You all have to stay here today," said Bai Qing'er.

Bai Qing'er's voice rang out.

The grains of yellow sand on the ground flew up naturally. They spun like whirlpools and condensed into a graceful white figure. It appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing.

Bai Qing'er stood still. She only glanced at the sky. Then a white river of stars fell. It was thousands of miles long. It slashed toward Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing.

It wasn't an actual river of stars.

However, when the river of stars fell, the vast array of the desert plane was stretched again.

Before Zhang Ruochen's eyes, the white river of stars was no different from an actual river of stars. It was formed by tens of thousands of stars. Each star had a diameter of thousands of miles, and the outlines of mountains, rivers, lakes, and seas appeared on it.

Even though it was a fake river of stars, it still made people feel despair and shock. It was as if the entire universe could be controlled by her.

A sweet smile appeared on Guye Jing’s pale face again. Even though she was at the end of her strength and extremely weak, she was still like a red plum in the winter as she faced the incoming galaxy.

As the successor of The Rāhu Mountains, how could she not have a trump card?

A scroll flew out of her sleeve.

The scroll was made from the skin of a Divine Beast. Under the control of Guye Jing’s demonic Qi, it slowly unfolded in the void.

On the scroll was the painting, the Rising Sun over the Nine Regions.

Whoosh!

Guye Jing placed her hands in the air, and her ten fingers were as transparent as ice crystals.

Immediately, a fiery-red light surged out of the scroll and emitted a dazzling divine glow.

A sun that was as bright as a star rushed out of the glow and slowly rose up.

“Is this the power of a pseudo god?”

“Could it be that the scroll contains the terrifying power of a pseudo god’s full-strength attack?”

...

In the desert, the Supreme Saint elites who were chasing closely widened their eyes in shock.

Only a pseudo god could unleash the power of a planet.

The mysterious elite in white shook his head, "It's not that scary. If it was a real planet, not only the array formation of Ji Feng Manor, even the locks, Supreme Saint inscriptions, and Divine Marks in Enchanton would be instantly melted and destroyed.

"If the pseudo god attacked with all his might, even a saint city would be destroyed. If the pseudo god self-destructs, it would be comparable to the explosion of a planet. It would be able to destroy the entire Hoth."

The planet that flew out from the Rising Sun over the Nine Regions crashed into the galaxy and charged towards Bai Qing 'er.

The Supreme Saint cultivators behind Bai Qing 'er did not dare to go forward. They ran far away to avoid the light from the planet.

Two of them were unable to dodge in time and were hit by the light beam from the planet. One of them had a hole the size of a basin on his back. The other half of his body melted and disappeared.

In front of Guye Jing — a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint — the life of a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint was extremely fragile. One was no different from a mortal.

"Are you even going all out?"

Bai Qing 'er stared at the planet that was flying towards her. Her snow-white face did not show any signs of movement. Just as she was about to attack, she sensed something and retracted half of her power.

Behind her, a golden saber was swung out.

The glow of the saber was like a waterfall that fell from the sky. It hit the planet and split it open. Countless flames fell into the desert-like decomposed meteorites.

Lord Ironclad was hit by a ball of residual flames after the planet was shattered. He was heavily injured in an instant and vomited blood non-stop.

Slash!

The Rising Sun over the Nine Regions scroll was shattered.

Even the Divine Beast skin could not withstand the Sword Qi of Wuma Jiuxing.

The desert below the scroll was torn apart by the Sword Qi into a bottomless canyon. The yellow sand kept sliding down the canyon.

The array formation that made up the desert realm was seriously damaged by the sword strike. Countless inscriptions on the array formation were broken, making the array unstable. The array was showing signs of breaking.

Blackie cracked the best inscription of the formation. His eyes widened with joy. He chuckled. "It's done. The array is broken!"

Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing couldn't laugh. They stared at Wuma Jiuxing who was walking over from afar.

So what if the array was broken?

With Wuma Jiuxing around, they couldn't leave.

Wuma Jiuxing held Universum Bracelet. There was a hint of contemplation and reminiscence in his eyes, "Three hundred years ago, I fought with Scion Yu Qiu on Hoth. At that time, he had just entered Paramount Realm, and I had already reached the peak of Paramount Realm. I could be called a demigod.

"He was full of vigor and hard-edged. He was in charge of Fane of Destiny, and the entire Infernal Court submitted to him. Although my level was higher than his and even more awe-inspiring in the dark world, I was insignificant in front of his supreme radiance.

"Back then, I was full of spirit. I only wanted to defeat the Scion of Fane of Destiny to prove myself and become famous in both Celestial Court and Infernal Court.

“Scion Yu Qiu has just entered Paramount Realm, yet he already has an unrivaled divine ability. Even if I tried my best, I could only fight him to a draw. I knew that in a few more decades, I would definitely lose to him. Thus, I cultivated with all my might. I even went to explore some ancient ruins that even the gods regarded as forbidden grounds.

“Thirty years ago, I succeeded and reached divinity through Path of Saber. I came out of seclusion confidently, intending to defeat all the elites of Celestial Court and Infernal Court. I reached divinity with an invincible attitude to become one of the representatives of this Yuanhui period.

“It’s a pity that my opponent, Scion Yu Qiu, whom I wanted to defeat the most, failed to transcend his tribulation and turned into a speck of dust.”

Wuma Jiuxing didn’t feel happy about Scion Yu Qiu’s death. Instead, he felt endless disappointment and regret.

The reason why he hadn’t transcended divinity in the past thirty years was that he hadn’t met an opponent who could match Scion Yu Qiu. He couldn’t make up for his regret and incomplete heart.

He challenged Zhuo Yunong to make up for the regret in his heart.

Unfortunately, Zhuo Yunong was still lacking. He couldn’t compare to Scion Yu Qiu and Sword God Feng Chen. He wasn’t the opponent he’d been looking for.

“I still remember the snow of the past turned the black clothes white.

“To this day, the snow remains chill in the people’s hearts.”

Wuma Jiuxing collected his complicated emotions and looked at Zhang Ruochen again, “I should give you a chance to grow and show me the strength of a Paramount Realm Yuanhui level genius. Unfortunately, I’m not the kind of person who likes to take risks. If I can kill you now, why wait until the future?”

All the cultivators present looked at each other in dismay. They did not expect that an existence like Lord Wu Ma would want to personally kill Zhang Ruochen, a cultivator in Hundred-Shackle Realm.

But soon, they understood.

Lord Wuma must have done it for Zhang Ruochen's Canons. As long as he took those Canons, his strength would definitely reach a higher peak. He could easily become the representative of this Yuanhui period. From then on, he would be recorded in the history books of the various fanes and be remembered for thousands of generations.

Everyone looked at Zhang Ruochen indifferently. There was no emotion in their eyes.

What kind of emotion did one need to look at a dead person?

Even Guye Jing had the same look, she sighed. "I underestimated Wuma Jiuxing's courage. He dared to stay in such a conspicuous place like Enchanton even though he was injured. This time, I've ruined you. However, you won't be lonely on the road to death. After all, we are with you."

Blackie, who had always been arrogant, couldn't say anything arrogant at this moment.

It couldn't be helped. Wuma Jiuxing was too strong. Perhaps only Empress in Paramount Realm could defeat him. Other Paramount Realm Supreme Saints who could bear one of his sword strikes were all already at the peak of divinity.

If Scion Yu Qiu was still alive and Sword God Feng Chen hadn't reached divinity, they might not be able to defeat him.

To all the cultivators' surprise, Zhang Ruochen didn't give up. Instead, he let out a long laugh. His fighting spirit soared. "You're not the only one who wants to kill me. So what if you're the top elite in the world? Let's fight."

Zhang Ruochen summoned Ancient Abyssal Blade. Stepping into the desert, he strode toward Wuma Jiuxing.

The all-or-nothing aura shocked the Supreme Saints who thought they were stronger than Zhang Ruochen. If they were in his shoes, would they have the courage to fight against Wuma Jiuxing?

No.

The moment Wuma Jiuxing stood in front of them, their fighting spirit, self-confidence, dignity, and determination will all be destroyed.

To be called a Yuanhui-level genius, he sure was extraordinary.

“This guy...”

Guye Jing wanted to stop Zhang Ruochen, but she was too late.

Blackie wanted to take this opportunity to escape, but he eventually gave up the idea. He gritted his teeth and his body burst out like a hedgehog. He released Eternal Fire, revealed the true form of Phoenix, and chased after Zhang Ruochen.

After fighting side by side for so many years, how could he escape alone when the other was in a life-and-death situation?

Wuma Jiuxing's well-defined face showed joy, he said, “Good. You — a Yuanhui-level genius — did not disappoint me. However, you are still too weak. If you want to fight me, you'll only be qualified when you dropped the word ‘genius’. Unfortunately, you won't have a chance.”

Zhang Ruochen stepped within 3,000 meters of Wuma Jiuxing. He instantly sensed danger. The ground beneath his feet turned into a mountain of blades, and the air turned into Sword Qi.

The heavenly and earthly precepts disappeared, leaving only Precepts of Saber.

After all, Enchanton was not a real saint city. The suppression of Saint-level cultivators would be much less. It could not compare to West One City. Therefore, Wuma Jiuxing's Absolute Precept realm could cover 3,000 meters.

Even if Wuma Jiuxing stood still, he could kill ordinary Neverwithers Realm and Hundred-Shackle Realm Saints with his Absolute Precept realm.

Zhang Ruochen summoned Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth. He charged into Wuma Jiuxing's Absolute Precept realm.

The ubiquitous Precept of Saber was like real sabers. They split open the three domains Zhang Ruochen had summoned. They kept slashing at Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light on his body, making loud rumbles.

Even though Zhang Ruochen was very fast and rushed hundreds of meters away in an instant, he was still hacked with tens thousands sword strikes by the power of Precepts.

The saber of Precepts could not break Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light, but a stream of vibration force passed through the armor and hit Zhang Ruochen's body. The power of tens thousands sword strikes landed on Zhang Ruochen's body, directly beating his body into a bloody mess.

Boom!

BOOM!

...

Zhang Ruochen struck out one after another drop of Dark Space-time Matter. With the power of Darkness, Time, and Dimension, he destroyed Precept of Saber and forcefully opened a path.

He pushed forward another 300 feet, and now he was less than 300 feet away from Wuma Jiuxing.

From the moment Zhang Ruochen stepped into Absolute Precept realm to the moment he arrived in front of Wuma Jiuxing, it took him a moment although his speed was extremely fast.

"Zhang Ruochen could pass through Absolute Precept realm, and reached near Wuma Jiuxing. He really is capable." said the white-haired old woman with fear.

Shang Yue snorted, "He's just borrowing external power. It's nothing. He'd only arrived in front of Lord Wuma but was already seriously injured. How can he still have the strength to attack? I think he's overestimating his strength. How stupid."

Clang

An ear-splitting sword clash rang out.

Zhang Ruochen raised his arm and held Ancient Abyssal Blade horizontally. He instantly entered the state of being one with the sword and struck.

A brilliant flower bloomed around him.

The petals were formed by Precepts of Dimension, and there were light spots of Mark of Time flashing on them.

It was the Time and Dimension sword comprehension that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated.

Dimension and Time seemed to freeze at this moment. Only the extremely bright sword light was left. It cut through Wuma Jiuxing's Absolute Precept realm and stabbed toward his chest.

Wuma Jiuxing put his hands behind his back and stared at the foot-long red sword mark on Ancient Abyssal Blade. He said faintly, "A streak of Sword Qi from a TrueGod. Is this the life-saving method given to you by the god of Xue Jue Family?"

Zhang Ruochen didn't expect that Wuma Jiuxing would see through his true purpose and last resort. He couldn't help but feel a little confused.

This person not only had unparalleled cultivation and combat strength, but he also had a top-notch brain.

No one could remain calm while facing an enemy like him.

"A god shouldn't interfere with the secular world. It's really just a dignified statement." Wuma Jiuxing shook his head slightly, he added, "However, it's useless to master a TrueGod's Sword Qi, because you can't stab me at all. The sword Qi of a TrueGod can only be used in the hands of a TrueGod. You're still far from that, you're like a child brandishing a big knife. You can barely lift it, but you can't hit anyone."

Wuma Jiuxing hadn't thought of taking the risk to receive a TrueGod's sword Qi, so he took a step back.

It was only one step, but it was a thousand feet back. All of Zhang Ruochen's previous efforts were instantly reduced to nothing.

Zhang Ruochen had already been severely injured by the saber of Precepts. How could he possibly break through Absolute Precept realm again?

“I am The Scion of Time and Space, the Master of Dimension. Everything in the dimension should be under my control. Is a thousand feet far? No, it’s not far. To me, it’s a matter of time.”

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes. When he opened them again, his eyes shone brightly.

At this moment, his dimensional attainment had reached another level. A strange power surged out from Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension between his eyebrows. It was very similar to Canon of Truth and Canon of Destiny.

It was Canon of Dimension.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen certainly did not have time to think about how Canon of Dimension could be hidden in Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension.

“Zhang Ruochen, come with me. You are no match for Wuma Jiuxing now.”

Blackie — who had caught up with him — reached out a claw and tried to take Zhang Ruochen away by force.

The claw clearly grabbed Zhang Ruochen, but it realized there was nothing in its claw.

“Where is he? How could I fail to catch him?”

Blackie was stunned and looked up.

A bright moon appeared directly in front of Wuma Jiuxing. Zhang Ruochen somehow stood in the center of the full moon and stabbed Wuma Jiuxing’s chest.

“The fifth level of Sword of Time, Moonlight Melody. H-He has reached Great Perfection!” Blackie was surprised and happy.

Bai Qing ‘er and Guye Jing were both first-class elites under divinity. At this moment, their eyes showed a hint of surprise.

To be able to obtain a TrueGod’s Sword Qi was not considered a skill.

Only by being able to hit Wuma Jiuxing with one strike did Zhang Ruochen truly show his ability. He did not humiliate Lord Ming and Lord Ming's swords.

Wuma Jiuxing's face became very serious. He felt that he was locked on by the powerful Power of Dimension and Time. In addition, there was also an unparalleled sword comprehension, it pierced into his body making him unable to move.

"I didn't expect that I would have to receive this strike in the end."

Wuma Jiuxing's eyes became sharp and he pressed his hands out at the same time.

Swish, Swish.

In Absolute Precept realm, countless Precept of Saber turned into endless golden blades. Like an endless river of blades, they rushed toward Zhang Ruochen's strike.

Rumble

No one could see what was happening at the place where the blades clashed.

The light there was so bright that it could blind Supreme Saints.

The dimension collapsed. Countless locks, Supreme Saint inscriptions, and Divine Marks were destroyed.

Bai Qing 'er took action and protected all the Supreme Saints in the garden. Otherwise, they would fall into the void space even if they weren't killed by the chaotic Sword Qi.

When the dimension was restored, Supreme Saints with top cultivation could finally see Zhang Ruochen and Wuma Jiuxing clearly.

The Precept of Saber that Wuma Jiuxing had mobilized was completely destroyed by Sword Qi that Lord Ming had left for Zhang Ruochen. The tip of Ancient Abyssal Blade stabbed directly into his chest and continued to stab deeper.

It seemed that Zhang Ruochen wanted to kill Wuma Jiuxing with one strike.

Wuma Jiuxing pressed his palms on the body of Ancient Abyssal Blade. Suddenly, strands of fiery red hair stood on their ends like steel needles. His aura increased again. He shouted, "The Sword Qi of a True God has been exhausted. You can't kill me."

He retracted his palms. A powerful force exploded from his body. His right hand turned into a knife and slashed toward Zhang Ruochen.

"I'll settle with you."

The little black owl's body was burning with Eternal Fires. Its huge claws suddenly struck out. The Divine Voice of Phoenix came from its body.

The claws collided with the knife in Wuma Jiuxing's right hand. Suddenly, Desert Array realm collapsed completely as if the entire world had been destroyed.

Blackie flew back, but its other claw grabbed Zhang Ruochen and took him away.

Wuma Jiuxing's figure flashed. He took a step back and looked at the owl that was running away. His eyes were filled with surprise.

Wuma Jiuxing had been severely injured by Lord Ming's Sword Qi which had triggered his old injuries. He hadn't used his full strength with the palm strike just now. Yet, that owl had become the only existence that had forced him to take a step back after he accomplish great cultivation. Judging from its energetic escape, it seemed that it had not been injured at all.

"Interesting. It's a Phoenix that has been reborn from nine deaths."

Wuma Jiuxing was about to chase after it when his face suddenly froze. He stopped while blood was flowing out from the sword wound on his chest, and took out an ancient rusty bronze saber.

This was the first time he had used a weapon after he had achieved great success in his cultivation.

As a result, rust appeared on his beloved saber.

It had been a long time since he had used it to kill someone.

“Ten Wraithions of Death Palace have all been mobilized. I don’t know whether I should be happy or have a headache since Fane of Destiny has placed so much importance on me.” Wuma Jiuxing stood there with his saber in hand, his eyes filled with an indescribable coldness and arrogance.

Wherever his gaze swept past, ten shadows of different shapes were approaching from ten different directions.

When Zhang Ruochen activated the three Supreme Artifacts, the battle in Jifeng Manor had already alarmed the entire Enchanton. Furthermore, the news spread across the 17 districts of Hoth at the fastest speed.

“After your battle with Zhuo Yunong, you should have hidden and recovered from your injuries. You shouldn’t have stayed in such a dangerous place like Enchanton. Now, you have been severely injured by a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. It is obvious that your fate is decided. Today, you will die here.” one of the Ten Wraithions said.

He walked out from the shadows. It was an angel with twelve white wings.

Only the god of the angels could have twelve wings.

He was called Wingwraith. He was the reincarnation of an angel’s corpse in Celestial Court. He was a Paramount Realm Corpusian Supreme Saint, but he also retained part of the divine soul of the pseudo god. He even had half of Divinity Source in his body.

“No one has ever made Death Palace deploy Ten Wraithions at the same time. You are the only one.” Goldwraith walked out from the shadows. He was like a Buddha, and his body shone with golden light, 108,000 Buddhist scriptures floated beneath his feet, representing the 108,000 spells that he had cultivated.

Chapter 2471: Annihilate Destiny

Dessert Array realm was destroyed, and the white fog around the lakeside garden in Ji Feng Manor dissipated, revealing many pavilions.

The Ten Wraithions broke through the walls of Ji Feng Manor, stepped on the Supreme Saint inscriptions on the ground, and surrounded Wuma Jiuxing.

Talismans flew around the edge of the Manor, interweaving into spider web-like talismans that sealed the dimension.

The one controlling the talismans was Fogwraith, one of the Ten Wraithions.

She wore a large black robe and had thick black hair. However, she didn't have a body. There was only fog and a pair of blood-red eyes visible in the black robe.

After losing the cover of the Multi-Dimensional Scroll and the array formation, the Saint Aura that erupted from Ji Feng Manor immediately shocked Enchanton. Countless cultivators with lower cultivation couldn't help but tremble and kneel on the ground.

The House of Enchanteurs was located in the center of Enchanton, with palaces and gardens connected together.

It was originally a bustling place, but in an instant, it was completely silent.

Whether it was the honored guests who came to the House of Enchanteurs to have fun or those beautiful women. All of them could feel the soul-shaking death energy emitted by the Ten Wraithions. It was like the cold air of winter that chilled their entire bodies.

The fifth son of Ghost Master, Ling, pushed open the carved purple wooden window and looked in the direction of Ji Feng Manor.

He saw that the area was covered by 800 bright talismans, forming a bowl shape.

Ling's heart was shaking, "The Ten Wraithions of Death Palace are dispatched at the same time. I've never heard of it happen before!"

"Are the Ten Wraithions that powerful? Can they compare to top elites like Yan Huangtu, Wujiang, or Zhang Ruochen?" A Demi-Saint beauty asked curiously.

A hint of mockery appeared in Ling's eyes, "Your knowledge is too shallow. You only know the cultivators on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. What you don't know is that they can only be considered the best representatives for a thousand years. Yet, a thousand years is too short for a Supreme Saint."

Demi-Saints of the human race could only live for two or three hundred years.

Demi-Saints of Immortal Vampires and Rakshasa could live longer, but it was difficult for them to live for more than five hundred years.

With the age and cultivation of a Demi-Saint, the only people they could see and hear about were the people who lived within those thousand years. This Demi-Saint beauty didn't even know Ling's identity and cultivation. She only knew that he was an important figure.

The fungus plant of a morning knows not the alternation of day and night. The cicada knows not the alternation of spring and autumn.

"Yan Huangtu and Wujiang might not be qualified to fight with the Ten Wraithions even if they cultivated for another 500 years. As for Zhang Ruochen, he's a Master of Time. Maybe he'll be faster!"

Even though Ling's cultivation had also reached Paramount Realm, his eyes were still very serious when he mentioned the Ten Wraithions.

The Ten Wraithions were nurtured by Death Palace with countless resources. They were born to kill. On Battlefield of Merits, they were feared by all Supreme Saints in Celestial Court.

Even if one of the Ten Wraithions was below divinity, it would be hard for one to find an opponent.

It was unimaginable for the Ten Wraithions to attack together.

“Wuma Jiuxing can indeed be considered as the representative figure of the dark world. It’s a pity that he made a fatal mistake. How can he provoke the authority of Fane of Destiny? If he wasn’t injured, he might still have a chance to escape.

“Now, he only has one way to go. To break through divinity and transcend Divine Tribulation. However, what are the chances of him succeeding when he’s injured?”

Ling shook his head and sighed for Wuma Jiuxing.

Wuma Jiuxing was an elite who dared to declare war on Fane of Destiny. He had the courage that other Supreme Saints did not and the will to challenge the impossible.

One strike to break through ancient times, one strike to fate.

He was a person who cultivated Path of Saber to the extreme.

Even if he died today, he would definitely be remembered by many cultivators. However, his unyielding heart and unyielding fighting spirit had already made Ling feel inferior.

...

Bai Qing ‘er brought the saints of Ji Feng Manor and escaped at the first possible moment. Thus, she was not trapped by the Ten Wraithions.

Shang Yue’s face was as white as paper as she said, “Master, what should we do now? Why did the Ten Wraithions come to Enchanton? Would they...”

She really wanted to say whether or not will they destroy the House of Enchanteurs on Hoth.

However, she did not say it.

The other Supreme Saints present had the same worry. Their hearts were heavy.

The appearance of the Ten Wraithions was more terrifying than being surrounded by a million army.

Although Death Palace's Black Robe High Priest had a close relationship with the House of Enchanteurs, the high priest was not the only one in charge of Death Palace. It must have been an order from a god of Death Palace to send the Ten Wraithions together.

Bai Qing 'er said, "You don't have to keep your eyes on this place. It's more important to capture Zhang Ruochen. Shang Xia, go to the House of Enchanteurs immediately and get all Array Masters and spiritual-power Saint Masters to activate the array, Supreme Saint inscription, and Divine Marks in Enchanton. No cultivator is allowed to leave the city.

"The rest of the cultivators, search the city for Zhang Ruochen."

"Yes!"

All the cultivators answered in unison.

...

...

Ji Feng Manor.

Wuma Jiuxing held a bronze saber. He merged with his saber, while his saber with heaven, heaven with earth, and earth back with him.

Man, saber, heaven, and earth, all in one.

At this moment, as if he was not injured, his momentum soared. The sun, moon, and stars were revolving around him. He was like a god, the heart of the planet, the heart of heaven and earth.

"Good timing. I can use your blood and souls to refine the edges of Sky Resistor." Wuma Jiuxing's aura rose again.

Sky Resistor was the name of the saber in his hand.

Face the sky, shattering the sun and moon to cut off ancient times.

Path of Saber was not Path of the Ancients. In Wuma Jiuxing's opinion, every cultivator of the saber should have the determination and confidence to cut off ancient times.

If ancient times were not broken, how could new rules be established?

“The Gate of Destiny!

“The Gate of Destiny!

“The Gate of Destiny!”

...

Voices rang out one after another, and the Ten Wraithions attacked at the same time.

Countless Gate of Destiny appeared in Wuma Jiuxing's ten directions, emitting dazzling brilliance.

Each light from the ten Gates of Destiny was a Precept of Destiny.

Countless billions of Precept of Destiny rushed into Wuma Jiuxing's Absolute Precept realm and destroyed the Precepts of Saber. They wanted to destroy his entire Path of Saber.

Ten thousand feet, nine thousand feet, eight thousand feet...

...

Two thousand feet, one thousand feet...

Wuma Jiuxing's Absolute Precept realms of ten thousand feet continuously disintegrated. The Light of Destiny was about to shine and rush into his body.

“Accept the judgment of destiny. Under the illumination of Light of Destiny, all traitors will be punished.” Wingwraith spread his twelve wings. Under the illumination of the Gate of Destiny behind him, the divine feathers became even whiter.

It was as if they were made of silver and washed by the light.

Wuma Jiuxing looked up at the sky and laughed, “Judge me? Have I done anything wrong? How many Supreme Saints of Celestial Court have I killed on Battlefield of Merits? You killed me just to save the face of Fane of Destiny. I admit that the weak are the prey of the strong. However, don't blame me for something that I didn't do. Once I'm angered, I won't hesitate to kill."

The bronze saber shot out a blinding green light, and the rust on the saber instantly fell off.

Under the illumination of the ten Gate of Destiny, any other Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would have become no different from a mortal. They would not be able to put up any resistance.

However, Wuma Jiuxing's fighting spirit was still strong. He shouted, "Kill! I'm annihilating Destiny."

He raised the saber in his hand, and a green light broke through the Light of Destiny and slashed towards Wingwraith.

Wingwraith put his hands together and mobilized the divine force from half of the Divinity Source in his body. A white ocean of divine force surged out from under his feet.

At the same time, The Stellar Soul of God behind him condensed into a gigantic divine shadow. It was as if a TrueGod had come into being and was about to receive Wuma Jiuxing's sword strike.

Puff.

Wuma Jiuxing's saber was omnipotent. It split apart the divine shadow, broke the ocean of divine force, and landed on Wingwraith's head.

Wingwraith's body had been nurtured by pseudo god's divine force for ten thousand years. It was unknown how tough it was.

However, when the sword light landed, he was instantly split into two.

The god's corpse was torn apart.

Even Wingwraith's Stellar Soul of God was destroyed by the strike.

“Divine Aura, a God has arrived in Enchanton!”

“Oh god! I saw the true form of a god. It’s a twelve-winged angel.”

...

All the cultivators in Enchanton saw the divine shadow formed by Wingwraith’s Stellar Soul of God. They felt the majestic divine aura and thought that it was a god descending into the world. They all knelt down and kowtowed.

However, the “God” only appeared for an instant before he was killed with a single slash.

Wingwraith’s death shocked all the factions. The higher the cultivation level, the more shocked the cultivators were.

A Gate of Destiny dimmed!

It was not that Wingwraith was not powerful enough. In fact, with his cultivation, he could run amok in the universe.

Almost no cultivator could kill him without the presence of a god. Unfortunately, he had met the top cultivator in the world, Wuma Jiuxing.

Wuma Jiuxing’s roar sounded again. “Kill! I’m annihilating Destiny.”

A saber light soared into the sky, and the entire Enchanton was shaking.

The sword light broke the talismans that were suppressing Ji Feng Manor. It broke through clouds, penetrated the atmosphere of Hoth, and flew into the universe.

The second Gate of Destiny was dimming!

“Kill! I’m annihilating Destiny.”

He roared with strong momentum.

This roar was to strengthen his momentum. At the same time, it was to strengthen their minds.

Destiny was irreversible, yet I’m annihilating it.

The third Gate of Destiny dimmed, and another Wraithion fell.

The 800 talismans controlled by Fogwraith were all shattered and turned into dust.

Ji Feng Manor was in a terrible state. It was filled with all kinds of chaotic energy while Path of Saber was the most powerful of them all.

Fortunately, the Array Masters and spiritual-power Saint Masters of the House of Enchanters had all been mobilized. They activated the locks, array formations, and inscriptions in the city, and the aftermath of the battle was controlled within a certain range.

“Kill! I’m annihilating Destiny.”

Wuma Jiuxing’s roar shook the buildings near Ji Feng Manor and turned them into ashes.

He waved his saber and broke Goldwraith’s 108,000 Buddhist scriptures, cutting his body into two.

Path of Saber destroyed all of his Core Spirit.

The two halves of his Buddha body became lifeless and cold like iron.

He slashed out four times in a row.

The Supreme Saints, who could see the battle clearly, were all terrified. Their hearts seemed to be about to shatter.

“Other than Zhuo Yunong, are there any other cultivators below divinity who can survive Wuma Jiuxing’s attack?” A Supreme Saint asked in a trembling voice.

“Wuma Jiuxing didn’t use a weapon when he fought Zhuo Yunong, while Zhuo Yunong used a Supreme Artifact. If Wuma Jiuxing had used his saber in that battle, would Zhuo Yunong be able to receive seven of his attacks?”

“It is said that Wuma Jiu Xing’s saber can not be used lightly. Once it is used, it will not stop until it is full of blood and soul.”

“If it is not full of blood and soul, what will happen?”

“It will consume Wuma Jiuxing’s blood and soul! It is said that Wuma Jiuxing abandoned his sword not long ago so that he would not be controlled by this sword.”

“Wuma Jiuxing is unable to control it, so he can only abandon it. This sword is truly terrifying, comparable to Sword of Asura!”

...

While the Supreme Saints were discussing, the fifth Gate of Destiny dimmed.

Yan Yu and Lady Fu Xiang were the two most powerful Supreme Saints below divinity of Yanluo clan. They were ranked at the very top in Fane of Destiny's Tome of the Divines and Celestial Court's Eminence Ranking.

At this moment, they were standing on the tower of the city walls of Enchanton.

Yan Yu held Dark Parasol of Obfuscatory with one hand behind his back. His gaze was deep and dark, he said, “An incredible elite that came from the dark world. Wuma Jiuxing is stronger than I thought. The Ten Wraithions can't kill him. Now, it's our turn!”

“Why do we have to intervene? I think it's good to let the Fane of Destiny and Wuma Jiuxing fight to the death.” Lady Fu Xiang wore a blue crystal veil and held a long crystal bow in her jade-white hand.

Yan Yu said, “The Fane of Destiny has its reason for existence. It's precisely because of it that the ten races of Infernal Court can coexist peacefully. They are the reason that there won't be internal strife. So that Celestial Court won't take advantage of Infernal Court.

“Now that Jadeite Realm has been activated and all the gods have left, the situation is very delicate. The sudden appearance of Wuma Jiuxing, this uncertain factor, seems a little too strange.”

“You suspect that it's a plot of Celestial Court?” Lady Fu Xiang's eyes under the veil revealed a strange expression.

Yan Yu said, “It's not that I suspect it, it's that the gods in the clan suspect it. Wuma Jiuxing did not have the aptitude to become the representative of this Yuanhui period. After disappearing for more than two hundred years, he actually possessed the strength to represent this Yuanhui period. This is a strange thing in itself.”

“Then, he is just a pawn in the light to attract everyone’s attention?” Lady Fu Xiang asked.

Yan Yu nodded, “I can’t be 100% sure. There are already gods who have sensed an unusual aura. It seems that something big is going to happen in Infernal Court. A storm is coming, all unstable factors must be destroyed. No matter what, before the gods return from Jadeite Realm, Infernal Court must not fall into chaos. The authority of the Fane of Destiny must not be shaken.”

“Even if Wuma Jiuxing is not a chess piece of Celestial Court, we have to kill him first. That’s what you mean, right?”

“That’s right! No matter how outstanding a person is, he or she can be sacrificed in front of the big picture. If it were any other time, I would like to have a fair and just battle with an elite like Wuma Jiuxing.” Yan Yu shook his head gently, his emotions did not fluctuate too much.

Fu Xiang lifted the crystal bow and slowly pulled the bowstring with her slender and beautiful fingers.

Creak.

Precepts of the world were like lines that gathered on the bowstring of her bow, condensing into a translucent arrow.

The moment the Arrow of Precepts pointed at Wuma Jiuxing, he immediately sensed it.

Chapter 2472: The People from Hoth Palace

Swoosh!

The crystal-like arrow flew out with a long tail.

The layers of arrays in Enchanton were like paper as it was easily broken in front of it.

It only took less than an instant for the arrow to fly towards Wuma Jiuxing.

Wuma Jiuxing felt chills. He squatted horse stance, and his body turned crimson like a furnace. Holding the saber in both hands, he shouted, “Attack!”

The saber flew in a circle.

The saber then broke through the circle and struck out to receive the arrow.

The saber and the crystal arrow collided. Immediately, an incomparably powerful light surged out and tore apart the locks, inscriptions, and array formations in Enchanton.

In the city, miserable cries could be heard one after another.

There were over a thousand Array Masters and spiritual-power Saint Master in the House of Enchanteurs. However, half of them died in an instant. Those who were still alive were more or less wounded.

Wuma Jiuxing’s eyes were sharp as he stared at the crystal arrow. His long, fiery hair was flying in the wind.

Snapped!

The crystal arrow could not withstand the sword Qi and broke apart. It turned into heavenly and earthly precepts and dissipated into nothingness.

However, in the center of the crystal arrow was a foot-long arrow.

This small arrow was formed from Lady Fu Xiang's Precepts of Archery.

The small arrow collided with the saber. The inscription under Wuma Jiuxing's feet was completely shattered. His feet slid backward, creating two deep ravines.

After retreating 300 feet, the power of the small arrow was finally exhausted. It became transparent and finally disappeared.

Although Wuma Jiuxing had blocked this arrow, the aura that he had accumulated from slashing five strikes consecutively just now was disintegrated. Moreover, his chest and abdomen were in intense pain. He could not help but spurt out a mouthful of blood.

However, the Blood Qi that had reached his throat was forcefully swallowed back by him.

Path of Saber emphasized aura.

If his aura was still present, Wuma Jiuxing was confident that he would be able to kill all the Ten Wraithions before he collapsed.

A sword cultivator cultivates the heart and will, while a saber cultivator cultivates the breath.

Now that his aura was ruined, it would be extremely difficult for him to kill one of the Ten Wraithions in a one-on-one fight, much less kill all ten of them.

"So, Arrow of Deva Path does live up to its reputation."

Wuma Jiuxing boosted his aura, his eyes were burning red.

Lady Fu Xiang was like a beautiful fairy. She landed in the middle of the street under the rain of light, "You blocked my arrow despite being besieged and heavily wounded. Such an achievement does not represent the Yuanhui period, but at least it represents Path of Saber of this Yuanhui period."

For gods and cultivators who wanted to break into divinity, a Yuanhui period was an era.

Gods might not be able to leave their names in history, but the representatives of a Yuanhui period could be recorded in ancient books and be learned and remembered by future cultivators.

Zhang Ruochen could only be called a Yuanhui level genius at the moment.

The word “genius” was glory for other cultivators.

However, to Zhang Ruochen, it was a word that he had to erase.

In today’s world, who would still call Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian Yuanhui level geniuses?

The sound of footsteps could be heard.

Yan Yu held Dark Parasol of Obfuscatory and walked on the street. He walked to Lady Fu Xiang’s side.

Although no one could see him under the parasol, everyone knew the identity of the person holding the parasol.

Wuma Jiuxing’s pupils constricted as he stared at the dark area under the parasol and said, “Demigod Yan Yu, I didn’t expect you to come as well! What a pity! You should have come earlier. If you had come earlier, you might have had the chance to fight me alone.”

To be called a “Demigod”, one could see Yan Yu’s status below divinity.

A god among demigods.

Yan Yu said, “It’s indeed quite a pity.”

“What I didn’t expect was that Yanluo clan would interfere,” Wuma Jiuxing said.

Yan Yu said, “Isn’t it because there are too many accidents and variables in this world that makes it particularly interesting? Your appearance and your strength were not something that I thought of ahead of time too.”

The remaining five shuttles were all supporting the Gate of Destiny.

Five beams of Light of Destiny illuminated Enchanton, making all the cultivators in the city lose their cultivation and turned into mortals.

Whoosh

The sixth Gate of Destiny rose up from behind Wuma Jiuxing.

Wuma Jiuxing did not turn around, but he knew who had come, he smiled and said, “You were nearby during the day I defeated Zhuo Yunong. You wanted to attack, but you didn’t. From then on, I had already defeated you. If you attack me now, you will die without a doubt.”

Lord Wu Yue walked in the middle of the street. the Gate of Destiny behind him was like a square sun rising slowly, and the light was getting stronger and stronger.

He said, “Your aura is destroyed. The one who will die without a doubt should be you.”

Strength and realm always come first.

However, for top cultivators like Wuma Jiuxing, Ten Wraithions, Yan Yu, Lord Wu Yue, Lady Fu Xiang, and so on. It was particularly important to have a strong mindset and aura in the face of battle.

If Wuma Jiuxing didn’t have such an aura just now, he would not have been able to kill five of the Ten Wraithions.

If Zhuo Yunong did not have the faith in protecting the dignity of Fane of Destiny, he would not have been able to take on Wuma Jiuxing’s seven strikes.

If Zhang Ruochen did not have the will to fight to the death, he would not have been able to stab Wuma Jiuxing with his strike.

In this cruel world, everyone was fighting and battling to achieve their vision.

Even though Wuma Jiuxing was surrounded by powerful enemies, he didn’t frown at all. He shouted, “Who else wants to take my life? Let’s see how competent are you.”

Snowflakes fell from the sky.

A chill swept through the entire city.

Everyone looked up and saw a green sacred ship in the sky where snowflakes were flying.

“Hoth Palace has interfered.”

“How could they not interfere?”? How terrifying was the destructive power of so many peak elites below divinity fighting? Previously, it was suppressed by the array formations and inscriptions of Enchanton. Once it couldn’t be suppressed, the ripples of the battle would spread for million meters. Who knows how many cultivators would die because of this.”

...

The current Palace Master of Hoth Palace was Qing Yulou. He was no more than five thousand years old.

Although Qing Yulou rarely fought with others, Hoth Palace that he controlled ruled over the entire Hoth. The ten major forces of darkness, the ten clans of Infernal Court, and even the cultivators of Fane of Destiny had to abide by the rules of Hoth Palace when they came to Hoth.

Qing Yulou walked out of the sacred ship. Its green clothes were like jade waves, and it was as graceful as a jade tree. His long hair was tied behind his back, and his features were clear and beautiful. His voice was gentle as he said, “Can everyone give Hoth Palace some face and go outer star to fight?”

Skullwraith said, “What if Fane of Destiny doesn’t want to?”

The Ten Wraithions didn’t have any emotions. They only knew how to kill, and how to complete their missions.

Everyone knew that once they went outer star, Wuma Jiuxing’s chances of escaping would greatly increase.

Qing Yulou smiled and said, “I’m afraid Fane of Destiny must show some respect to Hoth Palace.”

Skullwraith’s eyes turned cold, and his killing intent surged.

Lord Wu Yue frowned slightly and sent a message to Skullwraith, “The Master of Hoth Palace has announced to the world that the rules of Hoth will be decided by him. If anyone dares to break his rules, he will not hesitate to kill. This is something that the gods of Infernal Court have tacitly agreed to!”

“How could he claim to be king in Infernal Court? How is this possible? Fane of Destiny would never allow such a thing to happen,” Skullwraith said.

Lord Wu Yue said, “He didn’t claim to be the king, he’s just confining himself in Hoth. He swore that he would never step out of Hoth and would imprison himself here.”

“I know what you’re talking about!”

Skullwraith retracted his murderous intent toward Qing Yulou.

“Let’s go to outer star.” Yan Yu sighed softly.

Wuma Jiuxing took the lead and flew into the sky. When he was in the air, a dragon’s roar came from the clouds.

The huge body of Creo Dragon swooped down, and Wuma Jiuxing landed on its back.

The powerhouses, including the green sacred ship in the sky, disappeared one after another.

The Saint Aura that made all the cultivators in Enchanton feel breathless dissipated. The cultivators kneeling on the ground stood up, many of them wiping the cold sweat off their bodies.

It was too terrifying!

Of course, most cultivators didn’t know what happened. They only knew that there were powerful figures fighting in the city. As for how high their level was, they had no idea.

Some cultivators let out shrill screams.

They were shocked to find that they’d lost all their cultivation and become a mortal.

Many cultivators had lost their cultivation because they were too close to Ji Feng Manor and had been hit by Light of Destiny.

Today's battle between Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing had caused heavy losses to the House of Enchanteur and Enchanton.

Bai Qing 'er stood on the highest jade platform of the House of Enchanteur and looked down at the dusty city. Her clear and beautiful eyes emitted Light of Origin as if she was looking for something.

Shang Yue stood behind her and looked up at the sky. "Master, aren't we going to help Lord Wuma? You know, Yan Yu, Lord Wu Yue..."

"There's no need."

Bai Qing 'er said, "You have to remember that the Enchanteur Chamber had never thought of making an enemy out of Fane of Destiny, and could absolutely not make an enemy out of Fane of Destiny either. Fane of Destiny clearly knows where each of House of Enchanteur is. One order and all Houses of Enchanteur will be reduced to ashes. However, does Infernal Court know where Pneuma Hall is?"

"I understand!" Shang Yue said softly.

Bai Qing 'er frowned and said, "They escaped from Ji Feng Manor and disappeared. Even Divine Eye of Origin couldn't find them."

Shang Yue said, "The hedgehog beside Zhang Ruochen is a Phoenix. It must be the Heaven and Earth Slaughterer, who has caused a lot of trouble on Hoth recently. Although Zhang Ruochen and the successor of the Rāhu Mountains were seriously injured, the Heaven and Earth Slaughterer was very powerful. It must have used some secret technique to hide."

"The Phoenix that reborned from the nine deaths, Kunlun's field. Could it be... Could it be that Hoth Palace made a move?"

Just as she said this, Bai Qing 'er shook her head. She had been paying attention to Hoth Palace's ship. No matter how powerful Qing Yulou was, he could not take them away under her sight.

"They must be in the city," Bai Qing 'er said.

Shang Yue smiled and said, "If they are still in the city, it's only a matter of time before we find them. Enchanton is the city of the Enchanteur Chamber. No matter what form they take, no matter where they are hiding, there must be a trace. I will find them."

Bai Qing 'er said, "Alright, I will leave this matter to you. Continue to use the array formation to seal the city. Announce to the outside world that there are cultivators from Celestial Court who have broken into Enchanton. The Enchanteur Chamber will cooperate with Hoth palace and Fane of Destiny to capture them."

There had to be an explanation for today's battle.

Powerful figures knew what had happened, but powerful figures were rare everywhere. Thus, most cultivators didn't know what happened.

Fane of Destiny had suffered a great loss this time. Obviously, they didn't want the truth to leak out. By doing so, Bai Qing 'er could confuse the public and save Fane of Destiny's face.

The fewer people who knew the truth, the better it is.

...

...

Blackie ran with the heavily injured Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing. Just as they were about to leave the city, a beam of light shot out from the city wall and turned into a huge array.

With Blackie's array attainments, it could certainly break into the array by force.

However, once Blackie broke in, it would definitely expose its position and be discovered by Bai Qing 'er.

Bai Qing 'er was already very difficult to deal with, not to mention that there were so many elites in the Enchanteur Chamber. With the power of the array, no matter how powerful Blackie was, it would probably die here.

Therefore, Blackie was very decisive and broke into a saint mansion not far from the city wall.

This saint mansion was very big and had many empty rooms.

Blackie found a random room and threw Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing onto the bed. Then, it took out the array flag and set up an ancient grade nine Cloaking Array in the room.

Blackie opened its claw and saw a deep saber mark. It almost cut off his claws.

A sharp Path of Saber invaded the claw from the saber mark and entered its body.

“What a powerful saber technique. No wonder the little demoness was seriously injured after being struck by the knife. From life to death, Precepts in her body were constantly breaking down. Fortunately, I’m strong enough. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.”

Blackie reached out a claw and hit Zhang Ruochen’s Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light.

Swoosh!

The armor was taken off.

Zhang Ruochen’s skin was completely shattered. It was difficult to find a piece of flesh. Even his bones were broken.

“He’s trying to be brave. He’s only in Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he’s fighting with a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. He really doesn’t know how to spell death. Eh? He’s injured so badly, but his breath of life is still so strong. His injuries are healing quickly. Did he swallow some divine pill or Divine Herb?”

Blackie’s eyes lit up. He moved away from Zhang Ruochen’s injuries and stared at Ring of Dimensions on Zhang Ruochen’s finger.

“This kid must have a lot of good things on him. Does he really have divine pills or Divine Herb? No, no, this is taking advantage of him. I can’t do that.

“Wait, why not?”

“I saved his life. He should thank me.

“That’s right. He has so many Supreme Artifacts. It’s not too much for me to take one or two treasures from him.

“Besides, I was injured in order to save him. I took his treasures to heal my injuries and to increase my strength so that I can deal better with the powerful enemies who will catch up at any time.”

Blackie rubbed his claws and no longer hesitated. He went to take the Ring of Dimensions on Zhang Ruochen’s finger as if to convince himself, “I’ll only take this one. I don’t want anything else. I don’t want to take advantage of others while they’re in danger. I just want to survive better. Wuma Jiuxing and Bai are so powerful. I must become stronger. I have a responsibility. I have no choice. I really have no other choice! I have no other choice.”

Chapter 2473: Demonic Source

Bang!

Just as he was about to take off Ring of Dimensions, a white light flashed in front of him. Blackie was sent flying by the white light.

After three somersaults, Blackie got up in a daze. His eyes darted around the room and asked, “Who was it? Who attacked me?”

After making sure that there was no other cultivator in the room beside Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing, Blackie was slightly relieved. He muttered to himself, “It was a white light... Wait, it looks like a tail. What on earth is that?”

Blackie looked around and walked toward Zhang Ruochen again.

This time, it was much more cautious.

It released Eternal Fire and slowly reached for Ring of Dimensions on Zhang Ruochen’s finger with its claws.

When Blackie was about to grab the ring, it deliberately paused for a moment. When Blackie saw that the white light did not appear again, it heaved a sigh of relief.

“It must have been Zhang Ruochen’s protective treasure just now. That protective treasure is most likely a one-time use and has been consumed. This time... AH!”

Blackie chuckled. Before it could finish laughing, it screamed.

The white light appeared again and slapped its face. Its body flew out diagonally, and its cat face swelled up.

“Who is it? Come out this instant! Stop being a coward and fight me fair and square.”

Blackie covered its big round face with its claws and roared angrily.

An absolute outrage! It had been sneak attacked twice in a row.

As the Heaven and Earth Slaughterer, it had always been the only one who sneak attacks others. Who dared to do the same to it?

“You don’t have the guts to come out? Once I get angry, the whole world will tremble in fear.”

Blackie’s eyes were burning with flames. It clenched its claws tightly, and a powerful Saint Aura burst out from its body. It strode toward Zhang Ruochen, who was lying on the bed.

Blackie suspected that the culprit who attacked it was hiding somewhere on Zhang Ruochen.

It was still three feet away from the bed. The void trembled slightly, and the white light flew out again.

Blackie opened its eyes wide and finally saw that the white light was indeed a tail. It was thick, long, and snow-white.

Whoosh

Like a whip, the tail lashed towards Blackie’s chest.

Blackie was already prepared. It suddenly retreated and avoided this attack. It stood at the edge of Cloaking Array and laughed loudly. “Come on. Come catch me. You missed! You missed me!”

Whoosh

The white tail appeared silently in the space above Blackie’s head and lashed down fiercely.

Blackie’s body shook violently. The feathers on its head were knocked off. Like its soul had been scattered, it fell to the ground weakly.

“Idiot.”

Intergold Tiger walked out of the space. It strode over and stomped on the back of Blackie’s head.

...

After an unknown amount of time, Zhang Ruochen woke up after his injured Saint Soul was reassembled.

The moment he opened his eyes, he sat up from the bed and looked at his hands and body.

The injuries on his body had healed on their own.

Suddenly, he felt a piercing pain in his head.

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and covered his head with his hands. After a while, the twitching muscles on his face relaxed.

After taking a deep breath, he muttered, "There is such a big gap between me and a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. Even though I borrowed a streak of Sword Qi from Uncle Ming, the residual force from the collision of the two forces almost destroyed my demigod body.

"My Saint Soul exists in Divine Light Sea of Qi and is protected by Sainthood Source, but it was almost shattered.

"The gap between realms is not so easy to cross. Wait, my Sea of Qi..."

Zhang Ruochen checked his Sea of Qi and had a surprising discovery.

Cracks appeared on Divine Light Sea of Qi with the marks of gods.

Even the four Sainthood Sources in his Sea of Qi were cracked.

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly. He didn't know whether to be relieved or depressed about his injuries.

At least his Sea of Qi and Sainthood Sources were still there and his cultivation wasn't destroyed.

"You're awake?"

Blackie's big cat head moved closer carefully.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at it with a strange expression.

"What's with the cloth around your head?"

Blackie stared at Zhang Ruochen. Blackie was trying to figure out if he was pretending, or if he really just woke up?

“Eh! It’s nothing. I just got injured in the fight with Wuma. It doesn’t matter.” Blackie waved its claws.

“Oh!”

Zhang Ruochen felt that Blackie was a little strange.

Blackie stared at Zhang Ruochen’s lower body and asked mysteriously, “Is your body different from before?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Yes! What do you want to ask?”

“Does your new body have a long tail?” Blackie asked seriously.

Zhang Ruochen’s face darkened. He looked at his naked body and quickly took out a robe from his Ring of Dimensions to put on. “I’ve been unconscious for so long. Didn’t you see for yourself?”

“Who wants to see your butt?! Wait, tail!”

Blackie had been whipped by the tail several times. How could he dare to get close to Zhang Ruochen?

However, Zhang Ruochen was now awake, and the whitetail did not appear again. So Blackie mustered up its courage and went behind Zhang Ruochen. It stared at the position of his waist and carefully looked at it. “It doesn’t seem to be able to hide on itself!”

As it spoke, it stretched out a claw..

“What are you doing?”

Zhang Ruochen quickly turned around and glared at it.

Friendship was friendship, but one should not act rashly.

Blackie shook its head gently. Suddenly, it thought of something. It stared at Guye Jing who was lying on the bed and said thoughtfully, “Could it be her? Zhang Ruochen, does she have a tail?”

“How should I know?” Zhang Ruochen said.

“I’ll go and check.”

After taking two steps, Blackie suddenly stopped and was a little afraid.

It turned around and said to Zhang Ruochen, “You go.”

Zhang Ruochen was very curious. He asked, “What are you looking for?”

“The tail!”

“What tail?”

Blackie certainly could not tell Zhang Ruochen the truth. It rolled its eyes and said seriously, “Do you believe me?”

Zhang Ruochen certainly knew that it was Blackie who saved him at the critical moment of his duel with Wuma Jiuxing.

With their relationship, they could trust each other.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Guye Jing and said, “She won’t have a tail. You’re the only one who has a tail here.”

“How would you know if you haven’t seen it? This demoness is very cunning. Don’t be fooled by her! I suspect that she hid her strength and deliberately got hurt to achieve some unspeakable purpose.”

Blackie then secretly transmitted his voice to Zhang Ruochen, saying, “She is the successor of The Rāhu Mountains. She must have received the true inheritance of Demon Patriarch. She must have approached you for Demonstone Engraving.”

Zhang Ruochen’s heart was moved. He asked, “How do you know that she has designs on Demonstone Engraving?”

Blackie puffed out his chest and smiled. “Do you know the source of Path of Demons?”

“Path of Demon originates from Path of Darkness?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie shook its head and said, “That’s not what I’m talking about. Although Path of Demon originates from Path of Darkness of the nine Path of the Ancients, it surpasses Path of Darkness itself in martial arts.”

Zhang Ruochen understood what Blackie meant.

It wasn't that Path of Demon was stronger than Path of Darkness, but it surpasses it in a certain way.

Just like how Path of Life originated from Path of Light of the nine Path of the Ancients. However, in terms of healing, Path of Life surpassed Path of Light.

Blackie continued, "The so-called source of Path of Demon actually refers to the three most powerful figures of Path of Demon since ancient times. They brought Path of Demon to glory, established sects, and created all sorts of matchless battle techniques, allowing demonic cultivators to spread throughout the universe.

"Although there are many forces and sects of Path of Demon, big and small, they all originated from these three branches."

"Which three branches?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie said, "Demon Patriarch of The Rāhu Mountains, Celestial Demon of Kunlun's field, and Devil God of Pangu Realm. These three can be called Demonic Sources!"

"Since Guye Jing is from the lineage of Demon Patriarch, how can you be sure that she would have designs on Demonstone Engraving?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie said seriously, "The three great Demonic Sources are focused in different ways. Although they are powerful, they all have their flaws. The Demon Patriarch cultivates the body and heart, Celestial Demon imparts the technique, while the Devil God knows it all."

"What do you mean?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"It means that the lineage of Demon Patriarch cultivates the body till Paramount realm. It uses the demonic power of the body to suppress the world. Cultivating the heart to sense the world and control the power of the body.

"In short, the Demon Patriarch are focused on the demonic body and mind."

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, "I think her demonic body is so-so. Moreover, she seems to mainly use the demonic Saint techniques and hasn't used much physical power."

“This is what I’m most worried about! What does this mean? It means that she has been pretending all along. She must be hiding something.

“The Demon Patriarch lineage cultivates the body, but it doesn’t mean that they don’t cultivate demonic Saint techniques and cultivation techniques. Just like the Celestial Demons lineage, while cultivating cultivation techniques and Saint techniques, they also cultivate the demonic body. It’s just that each has their own strengths.

“This demoness only uses demonic Saint techniques that the Demon Patriarch lineage is not familiar with. Why not use the demonic body strength that she is good at? This is very telling!”

Blackie continued, “So when she fainted, I wanted to check whether she was really cultivating the demonic body. But I was injured by a tail.”

As he spoke, Blackie took off the white cloth wrapped around his head, revealing the red and swollen top of his head.

A large part of his feathers had fallen off, and he was a little bald.

Zhang Ruochen held back his laughter and looked at the jade body lying on the bed. His eyes became serious. “You mean, she cultivated the demonic body and developed a tail? Besides that, she injured you?”

Blackie held a grudge. He was determined to find the owner of the tail.

He would not stop until he took revenge.

Zhang Ruochen knew Blackie too well. No matter if Blackie tell lies or the truth, it was difficult to deceive him.

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had communicated with Intergold Tiger and learned the truth.

The so-called tail was actually Intergold Tiger’s.

However, Blackie's suspicion of Guye Jing made Zhang Ruochen wary.

If this demoness had really received the true inheritances of the Demon Patriarch and cultivated an incredible demonic body, then why didn't she use it when she fought with Wuma Jiuxing?

"You're right. We should check it out," Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing was seriously injured. The saber wound stretched from her right shoulder to her lower abdomen. Her red dress had been soaked in Supreme Saint's blood. She had lost a lot of blood, and her body was almost transparent.

She cultivated Nekromanteia Portrait. The Demonic Qi in her body was filled with the aura of death.

Zhang Ruochen's fingers touched the wound on her chest.

Blackie hid in the distance and growled, "Not the wound. It's the tail, the tail!"

Bzzz

A streak of Saber Qi flowed out of the wound and cut Zhang Ruochen's finger.

Zhang Ruochen quickly stopped and looked at the bloody wound on his hand, "What a powerful sword Qi. It can easily break through the defense of my Demigod-level physique. Guye Jing was struck by the saber. The sword Qi and Precepts of Saber were constantly eroding her body and cutting off her Precepts. It was amazing that she was still alive.

Blackie couldn't wait any longer, "Stop mumbling. Your Demigod-level physique doesn't have the support of Precepts. It's just that your Blood Qi and power are stronger. Other People's Paramount physique is made of trillions of Precept. It's not weaker than yours. The tail. Let's see if she has a tail or not? The tail might have used some secret technique to hide. Search and investigate carefully."

Zhang Ruochen ignored Blackie. He rested his chin on his hand and thought carefully.

It would be too risky to say that Guye Jing was deliberately injured and wanted to cheat him of Demonstone Engravings.

After all, it was very likely that she would lose her life if she took Wuma Jiuxing's strike head-on.

Who would dare to do that?

However, her demonic body was indeed powerful. The sword Qi entered her body, but it could not break her body apart. She was still alive.

What was going on?

"Forget it. I'm not in a hurry to save her. Let's see if she's faking it. If she's faking it, she won't be able to keep it up until her injuries worsen," Zhang Ruochen thought.

Blackie could not take it anymore. He walked over, "What are you waiting for? Didn't I ask you to check her tail? Don't you dare? You're Zhang Ruochen. You did all kinds of bastard acts before, just do it again! Take off her skirt and flip her over. Then everything will be cleared."

"No need. I've already used Eye of Truth. She does have a tail. Uh, a white one," Zhang Ruochen said telepathically.

Blackie was furious. Trembling, it said, "I knew it. I knew it. Zhang Ruochen, let's work together and kill her. She'll be trouble if we keep her."

"No, let's keep her first. I still need to use her."

Zhang Ruochen's original idea was to use Guye Jing to pin down Bai Qing'er so that Bai Qing'er wouldn't have the chance to go to Fane of Origin alone.

However, the battle at Ji Feng Manor made Zhang Ruochen suspicious.

First, since Bai Qing'er was a Master of Origin and had stolen the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, why didn't she go to Fane of Origin immediately?

Second, Zhang Ruochen could understand why Bai Qing'er wanted the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. Why did she insist on having the Seven-Armed Elder?

Third, Bai Qing 'er had no grudges with him. Why did she spare no effort to deal with him at the start of Divine Domain of Destiny? Was it as simple as not wanting to leak the news?

No!

Zhang Ruochen had a guess. It was very likely that Bai Qing' er did not have the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

Then Seven-Armed Elder must be lying!

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen's eyes turned cold. He wanted to open World Gate of Qiankun Realm and have a good talk with Seven-Armed Elder.

However, the Power of Dimension in his Sea of Qi only shook slightly, and the crack in the Sea of Qi wall expanded rapidly.

Zhang Ruochen felt a sharp pain between his eyebrows, which spread to the depths of his brain.

"The injuries to my Sea of Qi and Sainthood Source are too severe. It seems that I can only reopen Qiankun Realm after my injuries have healed."

Zhang Ruochen's face was pale. He slowly sat down on the ground. Suddenly, he thought of something and gently touched the space between his eyebrows with his finger.

When he was fighting with Wuma Jiuxing, he sensed that Canon of Dimension was gushing out from the Shenwu Mark between his eyebrows.

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen quickly closed his eyes and carefully sensed the various powers in his body, looking for the aura of the Canon.

Found it!

In the Sea of Qi, along with Precepts of Dimension, it flowed along surrounding vitality. It was more than Canon of Truth.

"99 out of 10,000."

Zhang Ruochen opened his eyes again. There was wild joy in his eyes.

But soon, he put away the joy and felt puzzled.

“Why is there Canon of Dimension in Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension? And why is it only 99 out of 10,000?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that if he could collect 1% of Path of Truth, there would be a transformation. A cultivator could mobilize the power to fight against the gods with only the Canon.

If the number of Canons did not reach 1%, he could not directly mobilize the power. At most, he could only help to comprehend the Precepts or enhance the power of Saint technique.

Zhang Ruochen was not sure if this was the case with Canon of Dimension.

But one percent of Path of Truth was a watershed.

Zhang Ruochen did not think it was a coincidence that Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension released 99 out of 10,000 of Canon of Dimension.

“Is my Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension not coming from realm of god during the sacrificial ceremony? Did someone gave it to me, such as Saint Monk Xumi?” Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen had known about the Martial Arts of posterity since he started cultivating.

Any living creature who wanted to practice martial arts had to communicate with the so-called realm of god through the sacrificial ceremony on the winter solstice. Only by receiving Shenwu Mark from the gods could they embark on the road of cultivation.

Zhang Ruochen had always had doubts about this.

The Shenwu Mark of a cultivator was obviously not given to him by the gods of Infernal Court and Celestial Court. Where did they come from? Was there really a realm of gods?

The gods probably could not answer his questions.

Those Shenwu Marks might not have come from realm of god at all. Most likely, they were just a sacrificial phenomenon, a way to communicate with the Deva Path and open the path of cultivation.

However, Kunlun's field had encountered a great disaster, and all the gods had fallen. That was why the cultivators had spread false rumors about Martial Arts of posterity.

This was the only reasonable explanation that Zhang Ruochen could think of!

If there really was a realm of god, the gods of Infernal Court and Celestial Court would have crushed it long ago. How could they be allowed to be so high and mighty? Judging who could practice martial arts and who couldn't?

Once they took away Shenwu Mark, wouldn't the gods be beaten back to their original forms and couldn't cultivate anymore.

If they were restricted to such a degree, all living beings, including gods, would probably be reduced to slaves in realm of god, worse than pigs and dogs. What was the point of practicing?

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and shook off this distracting thought.

At the moment, recuperating was the proper thing to do.

...

Chapter 2474: 66th Level

Wuma Jiuxing was too powerful. Even though he didn't hit Zhang Ruochen directly, he had almost killed Zhang Ruochen with his Absolute Precept realm and overflowing aura.

No wonder after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, Wargod Bloodximius told Zhang Ruochen that he had relied too much on the powerful defensive power of his Demigod-level physique. If he met a cultivator who was lower than his realm or the same realm, depending on his Demigod-level physique was indeed simple. Even if Zhang Ruochen stood still, it was not an easy thing for the other party to hurt him.

However, when he met Que, Yan Huangtu, Wujiang, and others whose realms were far higher than his, his Demigod-level physique was injured many times.

Wargod Bloodximius had once asserted that if he met a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, the other party would only need one strike to break his Demigod-level physique into pieces.

It wasn't that Demigod-level physique wasn't strong.

If it wasn't strong, Zhang Ruochen would have been killed by Que, Yan Huangtu, and Wujiang on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

This time, Zhang Ruochen felt a deep sense of danger. The powerful physical body he had been relying on wasn't enough to deal with a superior like Wuma Jiuxing.

Even if he met Lord Ironclad, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't dare to fight him head-on if he couldn't borrow the power of Qiankun. Let alone fighting Wuma Jiuxing, he had to escape immediately.

What troubled Zhang Ruochen was that his Sea of Qi was heavily damaged. He couldn't open Qiankun Realm and couldn't borrow the power of Qiankun at all.

Under such circumstances, it would be very troublesome to meet powerful figures like Shang Yue and Shang Xia, not to mention Lord Ironclad.

Intergold Tiger was obviously a cruel tiger. No matter what kind of enemy Zhang Ruochen met, it had no intention of attacking. Perhaps only if Zhang Ruochen was really helpless and fell into a situation of certain death would it save him.

If it was a step too late...

It would not die if Zhang Ruochen died anyway.

How important was Intergold Tiger to take on the role of the so-called guide to him? Perhaps only it knew.

As for Blackie, Zhang Ruochen still did not know how deep its strength was. To be able to save him and Guye Jing from Wuma Jiuxing's hands, it should not be weak.

However, it was too difficult to hope that Blackie could show its might every time and not fail.

Zhang Ruochen still hoped that his life lays in his own hands.

The more he thought about it.

The more Zhang Ruochen's sense of danger!

"Realm! It is precisely because my realm is too weak that I can not have the power to fight head-on with a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. I must break through to the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm as soon as possible.

"Fortunately, I've refined Pale Blood Soil. My body's recovery ability is amazing. I've already recovered. Thus, it doesn't affect my ability to break the shackles."

Zhang Ruochen took out the copper coffin containing the god's corpse and placed it in the room. He flew into the coffin and landed on the god's corpse's body.

He immediately opened Sundial.

Now, Zhang Ruochen wasn't stingy with Godstone. He let Sundial cover the entire God-eater Bugs on the god's corpse to speed up their awakening.

If he could not mobilize the power of Qiankun, God-eater Bugs would be his biggest reliance.

Under Sundial, Zhang Ruochen took out the Stellar Soul of God that was stored by Wargod Bloodximius in Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The Stellar Soul of God was stored in a divine crystal the size of a human head, like a ball of dark blue flame.

Looking at the divine crystal in front of him, Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and said to himself, "There really is a Stellar Soul of God here. Whose Stellar Soul is this? Did grandpa kill a god?"

The Stellar Soul of God in the divine crystal was not complete. It was only one of a few.

However, it was of great help to Zhang Ruochen at the moment. Refining it would be enough to recover the injured Saint Soul in a short time. Moreover, he would definitely be stronger than before.

Only when the Saint Soul recovered could Zhang Ruochen's damaged Sainthood Source heal faster.

...

Three years later.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the surface of the god's corpse. He then raised Staff of the Divine Envoy.

Suddenly, a powerful Power of Darkness surged out of staff. Like a wave of clouds, it covered thousands of miles in the copper coffin's internal space. Thunder and lightning passed through the darkness from time to time, giving off destructive waves.

"I didn't expect that after refining this Stellar Soul of God, my spiritual power would finally break through the bottleneck and reach the 66th level."

Zhang Ruochen could clearly feel that his spiritual power had greatly improved. It was incomparable to the 65th level. The most obvious performance was that he could combine Saint Technique and Path of Truth with a faster speed to unleash ten times the attack power.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen found that his control over the Staff of the Divine Envoy had become stronger.

His Saint Soul recovered.

The cracks in his Sainthood Source had almost completely disappeared, but Zhang Ruochen still insisted on taking the holy spring every day to recuperate. He did not want to leave any hidden dangers.

The only thing that still gave Zhang Ruochen a headache was his Sea of Qi.

It was too difficult to recover his Sea of Qi. He could only refine sacred medicines and cultivate it slowly.

Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen was rich and generous. He did not lack 100,000-year-old sacred medicine and Yuanhui level sacred medicine. In just three years, his Sea of Qi had recovered a lot. However, it still could not support Zhang Ruochen to fight with the top elites.

Once he used Saint Aspect or a powerful Saint technique, the cracks in his Sea of Qi would worsen.

Zhang Ruochen now somewhat understood why Guye Jing was determined that Wuma Jiuxing — who was injured — would definitely hide to heal his injuries. Just as he is now, he did not dare to fight with any elites at all.

He could not afford to fight.

What was injured was not his body, but the root of Path.

“I wonder what happened after that battle. Blackie said that Wuma Jiuxing seemed to have encountered a strong enemy, so he did not chase us.”

After three years of cultivating, Zhang Ruochen had broken 80 shackles.

Three days had passed outside.

Zhang Ruochen was worried about Guye Jing's injuries. He flew out of the copper coffin and returned to the room.

The room was very quiet. Blackie was nowhere to be found.

Guye Jing was still lying on the bed. Her condition was not good. The saber wound on her chest had worsened. Her breathing was extremely weak, like a candle in the wind that could be extinguished at any time.

Zhang Ruochen was not a cold-blooded person after all. He was worried.

In the end, he had no enmity with Guye Jing.

Although Guye Jing wanted Demonstone Engraving very much, she had never taken it by force. Of course, it was useless to take it by force. It was easy to kill Zhang Ruochen, but it was difficult to find Demonstone Engraving from Zhang Ruochen.

Moreover, the reason why she was injured was that Zhang Ruochen wanted to use her to deal with Bai Qing'er.

If Zhang Ruochen had to watch her die like this, he would have a knot in his heart.

Zhang Ruochen stretched out two fingers and pressed them between her eyebrows.

Her body was extremely cold.

The fluctuation of life in her body was severely weakened.

Even her Precepts had been cut off by more than a trillion times by Wuma Jiuxing's Precepts of Saber. Her cultivation was greatly damaged. Other Supreme Saints needed to cultivate for 10,000 years to obtain trillions of Precepts.

It was equivalent to Guye Jing losing 10,000 years of cultivation.

If Guye Jing really got hurt on purpose, the price she had to pay was too high.

Zhang Ruochen felt a little regretful. Was he being too suspicious this time?

If he had saved her earlier, Guye Jing's cultivation would not have suffered such a serious loss.

"Precept of Saber have spread to her Sea of Qi between her eyebrows. I can't wait any longer. If I don't save her now, her cultivation will be ruined, and her life will be difficult to save."

Zhang Ruochen wanted to save her, but it was not easy to save Guye Jing.

Guye Jing and Wuma Jiuxing's cultivation was too powerful. If he — a cultivator in Hundred-Shackle Realm — was careless, he would hurt himself.

The best way was to wake Guye Jing up.

Let Guye Jing heal herself.

To wake Guye Jing up, Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul had to enter her Sea of Qi through the Shenwu Mark between her eyebrows and communicate with her sleeping Saint Soul.

However, if Guye Jing was deliberately injured and pretended to be asleep, Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul entering her Sea of Qi was equivalent to walking into a trap.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was thinking of a more secure way.

Crash!

A black-light flashed at the edge of Cloacking Array.

Blackie flew in from the outside as a cat. Then it turned back into an owl and grew to the height of a man.

"Where did you go?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie's expression was grave, "To get information and see if we can escape from Enchanton. However, the Enchanteur Chamber seems to be determined to deal with us. The arrays in the city did not shut down, but still strengthening."

Zhang Ruochen was even more certain of his guess. It seemed that Bai Qing'er really did not have a supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

Otherwise, why would she make such a big fuss?

Blackie continued, “Now, Enchanton only allows people to enter not leave. The Saint-level cultivators of the Enchanteur Chamber search every house in the city every day and interrogate them one by one. It won’t be long before they find this place.”

“Your Cloaking Array can’t hide from those Saint-level cultivators?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie shook his head, “I’m not afraid of ordinary Saint-level cultivators. Even if they walk into this room, they won’t find us. Over the past three days, more and more top Supreme Saints have gathered in Enchanton, and they’re all looking for you.”

“They’re all looking for me?”

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes and smiled.

The dozen or so big forces that knew about the birth of the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin weren’t stupid. They must have noticed that the Enchanteur Chamber and Bai Qing’er were searching for Zhang Ruochen with all their might.

For the sake of Fane of Origin, these big forces would find Zhang Ruochen no matter how much the effort.

“Don’t worry. I have a perfect hiding place. I guarantee that no one will find it.”

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen thought of something and asked, “Have you heard about Wuma Jiuxing?”

Blackie said proudly, “There is nothing in the world that I don’t know. It’s said that three days ago, the Ten Wraithions of Fane of Destiny had a fierce battle with Wuma Jiuxing. Ten Gates of Destiny hung above Enchanton. Under the Light of Destiny, tens of thousands of saints became mortals overnight.”

“All the Ten Wraithions were sent out?” Zhang Ruochen was secretly shocked.

Blackie had obviously heard of the Ten Wraithions. His eyes showed deep fear, “That’s right! Any one of the Ten Wraithions could be called a demigod. Zionwraith, the leader of the Ten Wraithions, was said to be the spirit of a macroworld. After the macroworld was destroyed, the spirit of the world was captured by the god of Fane of Destiny and trained to be an invincible god of death.”

“Is Wuma Jiuxing dead?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Wuma Jiuxing must have been seriously injured by Lord Mings’ sword Qi. How could he survive the siege of the Ten Wraithions?

Unless he becomes a god.

Blackie shook his head and was a little excited, “Wuma Jiuxing struck five times and killed five of the Ten Wraithions in a row. His shout of killing echoed for 100,000 miles. Over the past three days, all the cultivators on Hoth had been talking about it. Of course, except for a few cultivators who knew the truth, the other Saint-level cultivators all thought that Celestial Court had attacked Enchanton on a large scale. They even thought that an angel god from Celestial Court had attacked.”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked.

One slash, one kill.

Five slashes, five kills.

How terrifying was his combat power?

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen realized how lucky he was to be able to stab Wuma Jiuxing.

Blackie patted its chest with its claws, it smiled, and said, “Wuma Jiuxing can kill one Wraithion in one strike, but he can’t do anything to me. Now, you know how powerful I am, right? So, you have to suck up to me. With me protecting you, you can do whatever you want on Hoth, or even in the entire Infernal Court.”

“Should we go to Enchanton now and do whatever we want?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie was stunned for a moment. It immediately admitted defeat and coughed dryly. “Enchanton is the territory of the Enchanter Chamber. Others have set up the formation of life and death, which can activate the power of the underground divine veins. It’s better to keep a low profile here.”

“What was the result of that battle?”

Blackie said seriously, “It’s said that Qing Yulou — the Palace master of Hoth Palace — showed up, and then the battle moved out of the stars. As for the result, I’m afraid only a few people know.”

Zhang Ruochen smiled. “The power of Hoth Palace is so great.”

The fact that even Fane of Destiny had to give Hoth Palace face was beyond Zhang Ruochen’s expectations.

He had long heard that the Palace master of Hoth Palace had a close relationship with Fane of Immortality. Now, it seemed that it was more than that.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly remembered that when Empress of Thousand Bones saw him, she had brought him to the starry sky far away from Hoth, but not her real body.

Could it be that even Empress of Thousand Bones was afraid of the master of Hoth Palace and didn’t dare to set foot on Hoth?

“I don’t think so. That Empress even dares to go Divine Domain of Destiny. How could she not dare to set foot on Hoth?” Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly and thought to himself.

Blackie sneered, “That Palace master in Hoth Palace is an incredible existence. If it wasn’t for that incident 100,000 years ago, he would have been the lord of Fane of Immortality by now. Moreover, the youngest lord of all generations.”

Blackie’s eyes revealed a rare look of reminiscence.

There was a touch of bitterness in his expression.

“How do you know?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The information about the Palace master of Hoth Palace was top secret. Even Supreme Saint Qingsheng knew very little about it.

How long had Blackie been in Infernal Court? How could he know the information about the Palace master of Hoth Palace?

The emotion in Blackie's eyes disappeared. He chuckled and said, "Speaking of which, he has some connection with Kunlun's field. I even met him when I was a child. Do you believe it?"

"Yes," Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie said meaningfully, "The reason why he imprisoned himself on Hoth Planet is related to Kunlun's field. He made a crucial mistake in the divine war against Kunlun's Field."

"What mistake?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Chapter 2475: Entering The Mayor's Mansion

Blackie hesitated for a moment and said, "It was a crucial mistake. Even you, the top genius of Xue Jue Family, don't know about it. It's obviously a top-secret. As it's a top-secret, very few people know about it."

"Tell me."

Zhang Ruochen's curiosity was piqued.

Blackie shook his head and said, "I don't know either."

Zhang Ruochen could tell that Blackie knew. Blackie just didn't want to say it, so he didn't ask any more questions.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen didn't press him, Blackie felt a little uncomfortable, it took the initiative and said, "Actually, I really don't know what happened. I've only heard some rumors, but unfortunately, they're all groundless. No one can verify whether they're true or not. It's better to keep quiet about the things you're not sure about. Otherwise, you'll be misled."

"Let's not talk about this for now. Guye Jing is in a bad situation. I mean, help her first," Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie walked to the bed and looked at the beautiful woman in red, "I've expected that you would still save her in the end. As for men, as long as a woman is beautiful enough, they'll jump in even if they know it's a trap,"

"Cut the crap. Hurry up and save her," Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie shook its head and said, "I won't fall for her trick. Her tail is so powerful, so she must be faking an injury. If you want to save her, save her yourself. You're foolish, but I'm sober."

As it spoke, Blackie stepped back and pulled a distance away to prevent its tail from hitting it again.

Zhang Ruochen sighed in his heart. He didn't expect that a casual lie would make Blackie worry so much.

What should he do?

What else could he do? He had to do it himself.

"Help me suppress the array. I'll do it."

Zhang Ruochen stretched out two fingers and pressed on Guye Jing's glabella.

Suddenly, a mysterious and complicated Shenwu Mark appeared between her glabella.

Zhang Ruochen shouted and holy light burst out from his body.

A Soul Shadow left his body and rushed into Guye Jing's Shenwu Mark through his fingers, entering her Sea of Qi.

Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul had been divided into six parts.

Even if one of them was trapped in Guye Jing's Sea of Qi, it would at most be injured. Guye Jing could not control him, let alone devour his Saint Soul and steal his memory.

"Since ancient times, all heroes are lustful! Ah, I miss Xue Lingxian who cuts down all relationships, and was only determined to fight against heaven!"

Blackie exclamation, took out one after another array flag and arranged the killing array.

If the demoness in red were to suck Zhang Ruochen dry, it could still save him in time.

...

...

The Sea of Qi is filled with the crimson aura of the dead spirits.

Only by cultivating the top cultivation technique of The Rāhu Mountains, Nekromanteia Portrait, could such a special Demonic Qi be cultivated. This cultivation technique was no weaker than the Divine Techniques Tomes on Taiyi Divine Techniques Rank.

It was because of this that Zhang Ruochen began to doubt the legend of the Three great Demonic Sources.

Was the lineage of Demon Patriarch really weak in terms of cultivation techniques and Saint Techniques?

...

As soon as he entered Guye Jing's Sea of Qi, Zhang Ruochen was filled with regret and wanted to retreat.

Her Saint Soul was weak, but the Demonic Qi of the dead spirit was terrifying.

Zhang Ruochen estimated that he could only stay in Guye Jing's Sea of Qi only for ten breaths. After ten breaths, the Saint Soul would be corroded by the Demonic Qi of the dead spirit and be injured.

Moreover, every Supreme Saint would heavily protect their Sea of Qi.

It was easy to break it, but it was as difficult to break in.

Why was Guye Jing's Sea of Qi so easy to enter?

The more Zhang Ruochen thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong. Just as he was about to leave her Sea of Qi, Guye Jing's voice suddenly rang in his ear. "Zhang Ruochen, my Saint Soul has been severely injured by Wuma Jiuxing's saber soul. It's difficult to reunite it. Help me reunite my Saint Soul."

"You didn't lose consciousness?"

Zhang Ruochen became even more vigilant. He looked around for Guye Jing.

"Of course, I didn't lose consciousness. Otherwise, how could you enter my Sea of Qi so easily? I let you in." Guye Jing sounded anxious, "Hurry up and help me. I can feel that Wuma Jiuxing's Precept of Saber is about to reach my Sea of Qi. Once my Sea of Qi is ruined, all my cultivation will be wasted."

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a moment.

“What’s wrong? What are you worried about? Do you think I will harm you? We just went through a life-and-death test. Don’t you have any trust in me?” Guye Jing’s voice was even more anxious.

Obviously, the situation was critical.

Zhang Ruochen sighed. “How can I help you?”

“My Saint Soul is very fragile now. It can’t be reassembled. If you let me absorb part of your soul power, my Saint Soul can be formed. Once my Saint Soul is formed, I can naturally mobilize the Demonic Qi of the dead spirits to suppress Wuma Jiuxing’s Precept of Saber” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “You want to absorb my Saint Soul?”

“Don’t worry. I’m only absorbing part of it. When I’m fully recovered, I’ll give you a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saint Soul Pill to help you recover your soul power. I owe you a favor this time. I’ll help you resolve your inner demons,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen had just refined the Stellar Soul of God. The Saint Soul was at its most powerful. Letting Guye Jing absorb some wasn’t a big deal.

However, the Saint Soul wasn’t a small matter for a cultivator. It had to do with joy, anger, sorrow, luck, talent, knowledge, memory, fate, and so on.

Who wouldn’t want the Saint Soul of a Yuanhui level genius?

Zhang Ruochen would be involved very much once Guye Jing absorbed part of his Saint Soul. Even after becoming a god, he would be affected.

Could it be that Guye Jing was not scheming for Demonstone Engraving, but his Saint Soul?

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Can I trust you?”

“Why are you so suspicious? Luo Sha and I are like sisters. If I hurt you, she will never forgive me. Besides, this is my Sea of Qi. If I want to swallow your Saint Soul by force, I don’t need to discuss with you,” Guye Jing said.

It was the time of ten breaths!

Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul withdrew from Guye Jing's Sea of Qi.

He was not stopped.

"How is she? What state is she in now?" Blackie asked, holding a white array flag.

Zhang Ruochen didn't respond. His eyes were unprecedentedly cautious. He used the Heart of Truth to sense carefully, wanting to feel the portent.

He didn't feel any danger.

"If only I still had Canon of Destiny with me. Path of Destiny's premonition of portent would be more accurate."

Zhang Ruochen was conflicted. In the current crisis situation, he should have saved her. However, he didn't want to get too involved with this demoness.

Unfortunately, even if he gave her Saint Soul Pill, she wouldn't be able to refine it. There wasn't enough time.

There seemed to be no other way.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul entered Guye Jing's Sea of Qi again. "I can agree to it! But I have one condition."

"What condition?" Guye Jing asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I don't want your Quasi-Emperor Grade Saint Soul Pill. You've absorbed a few percent of my soul power today. When you recover, I'll also absorb a few percent of your soul power."

This was an unfair deal!

After all, Guye Jing's Saint Soul was far more powerful than Zhang Ruochen's.

"Okay, I promise you." Guye Jing agreed without hesitation.

She had no time to hesitate.

“Please remember your promise. If you break it in the future, I can promise you that even if you are the successor of The Rāhu Mountains, I will make you pay a painful price.” Zhang Ruochen said.

“We cultivators who want to become gods take our promises very seriously. You should rest assured. After today, we will be the closest allies. There will be no more suspicions.” Guye Jing’s voice came from the Demonic Qi of the dead spirits.

After making up his mind, Zhang Ruochen became decisive. He stretched out his arm and opened his palm.

The crimson Demonic Qi gathered like silk. It wrapped around his arm and sucked away his soul power.

Ten breaths later.

Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Soul withdrew from his Sea of Qi and returned to his body.

Blackie asked, “What happened? Why did you come out again? I feel that your Saint Soul has become weaker.”

Without answering it, Zhang Ruochen entered Guye Jing’s Sea of Qi again.

...

After ten breaths, Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Soul came out again.

Blackie was too lazy to ask anymore. He knew that Zhang Ruochen must have been blinded by the beauty. He was tricked by the demoness. He sneered and said, “Can’t you just solve it once? Is it fun to go in and out of her body?”

Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Soul entered the Sea of Qi between Guye Jing’s eyebrows again.

...

After going in and out countless times, Guye Jing — who had been lying on the bed — suddenly opened her eyes. They shone brightly and the room was instantly filled with Demonic Qi.

Blackie, who had been dozing off, suddenly woke up and shouted, “Bold demoness, watch as I suppress you.”

The array flag in its claws showed dense inscriptions.

Zhang Ruochen took three steps back and grabbed the array flag. He shook his head slightly and said, “She has woken up. Leave the healing to her.”

Blackie looked at Zhang Ruochen’s pale face and asked in a low voice, “She didn’t drain all of you, did she?”

“She only absorbed part of my Saint Soul, and it’s only one of my six Saint Souls. It’s not a big deal. Of course, she didn’t know I had six Saint Souls and thought she had absorbed 30% of my soul power.”

Zhang Ruochen’s pale face was completely faked.

Blackie was deep in thought, “If that’s the case, then it’s fine. She didn’t want to devour your Saint Soul or kill you. Hehe, it seems that you’ve made some secret deal with her. Are you planning to take the successor of The Rāhu Mountains as a concubine?”

“Don’t talk nonsense.”

“Let me help her!”

Zhang Ruochen called out Sundial, placed it in the center of the room, and opened it.

“Go out and keep an eye on her. Once a Saint-level cultivator finds out about this saint mansion, we have to leave immediately.”

Zhang Ruochen ordered Blackie, sat down cross-legged, and continued to cultivate.

The most important thing now was to break through to the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

...

Two days later.

The House of Enchanters on Hoth was smaller than the one in Divine Domain of Destiny. However, it was more open and exciting, and the rules were much weaker.

Not only could they see the cultivators of the dark forces swaggering in and out of the house, but they could also see the cultivators of the small clans and the servants from the myriad realms in Celestial Court.

Information was well-circulated here, and the works of art, songs, and clothes of various civilizations gathered together. It gave people the feeling of traveling through thousands realms in one night.

Next to the House of Enchanteurs, there was a castle.

This castle was magnificent. It was made of huge rocks. It had a square, a martial arts practice field, a colosseum, and so on. Its scale was comparable to the House of Enchanteurs.

The difference was that this place was cold, but the House of Enchanteurs was graceful and moving.

This castle could be said to be the mayor's mansion of Enchanton. It was also the property of the Enchanter Chamber. There were 8,000 soldiers stationed inside. They were responsible for guarding Enchanton and protecting the House of Enchanteurs.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen was sitting in the hall of the castle where the VIP guests were received.

Sitting on the seat of Honor was a Supreme Saint of the Enchanter Chamber. His name was Gu Yanzhi. He was a Supreme Saint from a small clan. As he married a woman from the Enchanter Chamber, he then became one of the guardians of the House of Enchanteurs.

In the mayor's mansion, Gu Yanzhi held a high position and was in charge of recruiting talents for the Enchanter Chamber.

Zhang Ruochen's current identity was Master Xun Mu, a master of spiritual-power in Dominion of Bloodysky clan. His spiritual power had reached the 58th level. He looked old and exuded an evil aura.

The person who had invited him to join the Enchanter Chamber was Ji Wenwu of Ji Feng City.

On the blood spirit ship that had come to Hoth, Zhang Ruochen had already known Ji Wenwu as Master Xun Mu and had given him a jade stone.

What Ji Wenwu didn't know was that Zhang Ruochen's Spirit was inside the jade stone.

It was with this Spirit that Zhang Ruochen easily found Ji Wenwu and set up a chance encounter.

In the battle a few days ago, spiritual-power Saint Masters of the Enchanter Chamber had suffered countless casualties in order to control the array in the city. It was a time when there was a shortage of talents.

Ji Wenwu met Master Xunmu, a master of spiritual power. Naturally, he tried his best to introduce him to the mayor's mansion.

Zhang Ruochen's goal was to enter the mayor's mansion. After rejecting them several times, he was half-pushed and half-dragged here by Ji Wenwu.

The most dangerous place was often the safest place.

What other place was safer than the mayor's mansion of Enchanton?

If he wanted to hide, he would hide under Bai Qing'er's nose.

Gu Yanzhi had already tested Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power. At this moment, he was flipping through the information on "Master Xunmu". After reading all the information, he finally raised his head and said, "You don't want to join Enchanton?"

"I'm used to being alone. I don't like to be restricted."

Zhang Ruochen said arrogantly. Even if the other party was a Supreme Saint, he won't buy it. He was still weird and arrogant.

Gu Yanzhi said, "You're 1,400 years old this year, right? If you continued to be a loner, you might not be able to reach the 60th level of spiritual power and become a spiritual-power Supreme Saint. If you don't become a Supreme Saint, how many years do you have left?"

Zhang Ruochen had a serious look on his face. He lowered his head and thought hard.

Gu Yanzhi smiled, “The mayor’s mansion of Enchanton is backed by the Enchanter Chamber. With the Enchanter Chamber as your backer, we can provide you with all kinds of sacred medicine and sacred pills to improve your spiritual power. As long as you work hard enough, you may have a chance to break through to become a spiritual-power Supreme Saint.”

“Is it for free?”

Zhang Ruochen’s old eyes were filled with joy.

Gu Yanzhi had learned from Ji Wenwu that Master Xun Mu was very petty and stingy. As long as there are benefits, Master Xun Mu would obey obediently.

Gu Yanzhi shook his head, he said, “Of course, it’s not free, but it’s no different from free. After you join the mayor’s mansion, you have to help maintain the array inscription in Enchanton every once in a while. Sometimes, you have to enter the House of Enchanters to serve as a guard or perform tasks assigned by the higher-ups.”

Zhang Ruochen showed a hesitant look.

Gu Yanzhi said, “In Infernal Court, there are not many cultivators who dare to offend the Enchanter Chamber, and the Enchanter Chamber doesn’t like to provoke trouble. So, it’s actually very safe to work for them.”

“Okay, I agree,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Chapter 2476: Luo Sha's Arrival

Time flew by. Another half a month had passed.

Fifteen years had passed since the Sundial had been activated.

Zhang Ruochen pushed open the door and walked out of an apricot courtyard northwest of the Governor's Manor of Enchanton. The sunlight fell on his face, making him feel warm and comfortable.

On this ice and snow planet, enjoying the sunlight was a luxury. It could only be seen a dozen days a year.

He had secluded himself for 15 years and broken 99 shackles in him.

He was only one shackle away from reaching the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. At that time, his Demigod-level physique would no longer be restricted. His divine power would be vast, and his blood and Qi would be shocking. His cultivation and strength would definitely enter a brand new world.

The injury to the Sainthood Source had completely recovered.

The only thing left was his sea of Qi. It still hadn't recovered, and it couldn't withstand the impact of Qiankun Realm's power. He had to wait a little longer if he wanted to mobilize the world's power and deal with the Seven-Armed Elder.

The Shackle of Desire was located in the Saint Soul and was connected to consciousness. They often represented a cultivator's obsession or desire.

Zhang Ruochen tried to break the Shackle of Desire, but many distracting thoughts were in his mind. Illusions appeared frequently, and even his inner demons were restless. His father, Emperor Qing, Chi Yao, Chi Kongyue, Chi Kunlun, Supreme Saint Manjian, Huang Yanchen, Fairy Tianchu... All kinds of people appeared one after another, making the seven passions and six desires infinitely magnified. Sometimes, he laughed until he was out of breath. Sometimes, he was in tears. He was showing signs of Qi deviation.

Zhang Ruochen had no choice but to take back his thoughts and temporarily give up on breaking the Shackle of Desire.

Although it was difficult for him to overcome the last obstacle, Zhang Ruochen had received a Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, the Pill of Desire, from the Fane of Immortality. It could help him breakthrough forcefully.

However, the power of the Pill of Desire was too strong, and Zhang Ruochen's injuries had not fully healed, so he did not take it directly.

"Wait a little longer. When my sea of Qi heals a little more, it won't be too late to take the Pill of Desire," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was only one step away from the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Still, his heart became calm and less anxious.

In the 20 years since he started cultivating the Sundial, Zhang Ruochen's cultivation, saint techniques, spiritual power, and understanding of the saintwill have made significant progress. He did not want to ascend to heaven in one step but only wanted to take one step at a time. He tried to take it steadily and not let down his reputation as a Yuanhui-level genius.

"Master Xunmu, what are you so happy about?" Ji Wenwu asked as he walked into the small courtyard.

Master Xunmu was not a Supreme Saint, so he was not qualified to live in the Divine Grotto opened by the Enchanter Chamber. He could only live in this small courtyard with Ji Wenwu.

Zhang Ruochen looked up at the sky and stroked his beard. "After receiving the sacred medicine from the Enchanter Chamber, my spiritual power has broken through to the 59th level. Naturally, I am thrilled. It seems that I can become a Supreme Saint in this life."

Ji Wenwu was shocked. He asked, “You have broken through so quickly?”

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, “Maybe it’s because of the hard cultivation in the past 1,000 years. Now, with the help of the sacred medicine, my spiritual power has improved by leaps and bounds.”

“This is a happy occasion. Why don’t we go to the House of Enchanters to celebrate?” Ji Wenwu asked.

Zhang Ruochen was about to refuse, but he suddenly thought of something. It had been half a month. He didn’t know what was going on in the Enchanton, so he could ask around.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen’s hesitation, Ji Wenwu immediately understood. He smiled and said, “It’s my treat.”

Zhang Ruochen’s old face relaxed, and he readily agreed, “Okay! It’s decided!”

As a cultivator under the Enchanter Chamber and a powerhouse among Saint Kings, there was an excellent discount for entering the House of Enchanters.

That night, Ji Wenwu was familiar with the place. He found 12 young and beautiful women to accompany him. He introduced Zhang Ruochen to several Nine-Step Saint King Realm powerhouses from the legion.

Everyone had a good talk during the dinner.

After the meal, Ji Wenwu and the other powerhouses held two women and went to the room in the back hall.

Zhang Ruochen claimed that he was old and was not interested in women, so he did not join them.

He walked out of the yard and stood by the lakeside, holding the Divine Envoy’s Staff. He faced the bright lights on the other side of the lake, listened to the pleasant singing and dancing, and watched the people coming and going.

How many cultivators knew that there was endless killing intent behind the laughter, wine, and wealth?

Zhang Ruochen secretly released his spiritual power. He carefully probed and sensed the conversations of the pedestrians.

“There are so many Supreme Saints gathered in the House of Enchanters. The major forces are indeed determined to take over the Fane of Origin. They’ve come to Hoth! Eh? How can it be her?”

Zhang Ruochen suddenly opened his eyes and stared at one of the lotus-shaped palaces. He thought for a moment and turned into a shadow that flashed past.

...

Luo Sha was wearing a robe with a green belt around her waist. Her collar and cuffs were soap-colored. She wore a silk scarf, her lips were red, and her teeth were white. She had her hands behind her back. She had the charm of a beautiful young man.

Behind her were two cultivators who were three meters tall. They were wearing thick armor, and their faces couldn’t be seen clearly.

However, as the two iron-armored cultivators walked through the corridor, their aura caused the passing maids to tremble and immediately kneel to the ground.

“Wait outside.” Luo Sha ordered.

After instructing the two iron-armored cultivators, Luo Sha pushed open the door and walked into the palace building.

The lotus-shaped palace building was very spacious, and it could easily accommodate a thousand people. There were eight stunning women of the Saint-level dancing on the round stage. Their dance was beautiful, and their figures were excellent. It was highly pleasing to the eye. Compared to the women Ji Wenwu and the others had taken away, they were much more beautiful.

There was another girl in red whose appearance was ten times more beautiful than the eight dancers.

She held a lute in her hand and was extremely independent. She was like a red lotus on the surface of a lake. Her slender fingers played a moving piece of music.

It was an ancient piece created by a god. It could move people's hearts and make them feel emotional. Only when one's music skills reached an extraordinary level could one play it.

Luo Sha had just entered the palace when a series of berating voices immediately sounded from inside.

However, when the berating saint guards saw the figure walking in clearly, they immediately stopped. They cupped their fists and bowed, not daring to speak anymore.

Luo Shengtian, sitting cross-legged above them, had a surprise flash in his eyes. He quickly waved his hand, signaling the dancing girls to leave.

The sound of the lute stopped.

The red-dressed girl looked at Luo Sha.

Luo Sha stared at her for a long time before looking at Luo Shengtian, who had become calm again. She said, "My Royal Brother, you're in a good mood. You don't look like you're here on Hoth for official business."

Luo Shengtian forced himself to hide his nervousness and said solemnly, "Sha'er, why are you here on Hoth? Aren't you in closed-door cultivation?"

Luo Sha's eyes were cold as she said, "Tell them to leave!"

Luo Shengtian waved his hand.

The eight Saint-level dancers hurriedly walked out of the palace building as if they had been pardoned.

The girl in red with the lute was about to leave when Luo Sha looked at her again. She said, "Miss Shang Xia is a first-class Supreme Saint in the Enchanter Chamber. You are also the flower that my Royal Brother treasured. You are not an outsider. You can stay."

“My name is Poinsettia, and I don’t know any Shang Xia. I’m afraid that Your Highness has mistaken me for someone else.” said the girl in red. She was gentle and refined as she bowed to Luo Sha.

Luo Shengtian said, “Sha’er, don’t mess around.”

Luo Sha smiled lightly and said, “I wonder if Senior Sister Qingli knows that you have a confidante in the Enchanteur Chamber.”

Luo Shengtian’s expression changed slightly. He gestured to the red-dressed girl and said, “You may leave.”

“Please excuse me.” said the girl in red.

The red-dressed girl walked out gracefully and closed the palace door.

Her gaze landed on the armored cultivators standing on the left and right sides of the palace door. She hugged her lute and disappeared into the night.

A moment later.

The red-dressed girl came to Bai Qing’er’s residence. She bowed and said, “Master, Luo Sha came to Hoth and even saw through my identity.”

Bai Qing’er’s voice came from the room. She said, “Devala is very powerful, and Amane used to be the Scioness of Destiny. It’s only a matter of time before your identity is exposed. However, you have to guarantee that the Divine Prince is indeed interested in you.”

“I understand!” The red-dressed girl said, “There’s another thing, Luo Sha came with two Dvarapalas.”

“Oh!” said Bai Qing’er.

Bai Qing’er opened the wooden door and walked into the snow-covered courtyard. She said, “Devala is the number one divine kingdom of the Rakshasas. There are many gods here, so we can’t underestimate them.

“The Dvarapalas¹ are Emperor Luo Yan’s Imperial Guard. Every one of them is bathed in divine aura all year round and can sense the mysteries of the Divine Precepts. They are all top-notch powerhouses below divinity.

“As for Luo Sha, it is said that she has been extremely talented since she was young. She is brilliant. When she was at the Saint-level, she was able to lead tens of millions of sacred soldiers to attack a Macroworld. She is even more brilliant and majestic than her Royal Brother.”

The red-dressed girl said with some worry, “Since Devala has allowed Princess Luo Sha to bring two Dvarapalas here, the other factions will probably send their powerhouses to Hoth soon. If all the major forces work together to pressure us, I’m afraid Master Ye’s side won’t be able to hold on. However, Zhang Ruochen has disappeared without a trace. He has likely escaped from Enchanton. The situation will become more and more disadvantageous for us.”

“No! Zhang Ruochen definitely hasn’t escaped from Enchanton,” said Bai Qing’er

Bai Qing’er thought for a moment and said, “Dang Hu.”

“I’m here,” said Dang Hu.

A white-haired old woman walked out from the darkness. She was thin, and her hair was messy. Her eyes were extremely sharp, and numerous precepts were intertwined in her pupils. She was a formidable Supreme Saint.

Bai Qing’er said, “Your stealth technique is extraordinary. You can hide from a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. If you follow Luo Sha in the dark, you might be able to find Zhang Ruochen.”

Whoosh

The white-haired old woman flew into the air. She transformed into a strange black bird and flew toward the lotus-shaped palace.

The red-clothed girl said, “The Enchanton has been sealed for 20 days. More and more cultivators are in the city, and there are often Supreme Saint-level conflicts and battles. If this continues, the city will be destroyed soon!”

Bai Qing'er said, "Don't worry. The Overseer of the Divination Division is on his way to Hoth with the Divine Artifact, the Tensho Compass. I have a scheme that will force Zhang Ruochen to show himself."

...

About 15 minutes later, Luo Sha walked out of the palace. She left the House of Enchanters with two Dvarapalas and got into a magnificent sacred carriage.

Zhang Ruochen hid his aura and followed her quietly.

The sacred carriage traveled three streets and turned into a mansion.

Luo Sha walked out of the sacred carriage and stood on the white snow. She looked behind her and smiled. Then she walked into the room.

The moment she stepped into the room, a flame shot out from her fingertip and lit the candle hanging on the wall.

She saw an old figure sitting in the room.

It was Zhang Ruochen, who looked like Master Xunmu.

Luo Sha was not surprised at all. He stared at him for a long time and frowned slightly. She said with disdain, "Better change back to your original appearance. This appearance is too ugly!"

"Everyone gets old and ugly. Does the Princess care so much about appearance?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha smiled charmingly and threw herself into Zhang Ruochen's arms boldly. She said, "Of course I care. To tell you the truth, I've always liked your appearance. Don't you like a beautiful woman with a good figure? Or you prefer an old lady?"

Zhang Ruochen's lips twitched as he held the beauty in his arms. He maintained a severe and stern look and said, "Where's Lingxi? Did she come to Hoth too?"

Luo Sha put her arms around Zhang Ruochen's neck and said, "I'll tell you when you return to your original appearance."

Zhang Ruochen had no other option. His body and appearance quickly revert to his original appearance. He was attractive, young, and charming.

Luo Sha stared at Zhang Ruochen's face. She sniffed and said, "I smell the unique fragrance of Jing Jing on you. Are you with her?"

Zhang Ruochen's heart skipped a beat. He was shocked.

What he was worried about was not Luo Sha's misunderstanding.

Since Luo Sha could smell the unique fragrance of Jing Jing, other cultivators would also be able to detect it. It was fortunate that he could walk out of the House of Enchanters alive.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Is there any residual fragrance? I cleaned the smell when I went out."

Luo Sha pressed her palm on Zhang Ruochen's chest. Her soft body flew out like a gust of wind and stood straight in the room again. She snorted, "All men are the same. Once released, he will go around fooling around. I only tested you, and you were exposed!"

Zhang Ruochen let out a sigh of relief. He didn't seem to have exposed his scent. He said calmly, "It's just a partnership."

"Who knows? You're a genius of the Yuanhui level. There must be many beautiful women pouncing on you. I don't care, and I'm open-minded. Why should I be moved if a man doesn't have the charm to attract bees and butterflies? But I'm afraid Miss Lingxi will be very disappointed in you." Luo Sha sighed.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly stood up and asked, "Where is she?"

"I won't tell you unless you tell me first. Where is Jing Jing?" Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "The Governor's Manor of Enchanton."

"You're hiding there. It is a good spot." Luo Sha praised with a smile.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Answer my question."

"I won't unless you answer one more question," said Luo Sha as she raised her snow-white neck and looked like he would fight Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Don't push your luck."

"I like to push my luck. I also like to see you helpless," said Luo Sha. She felt the temperature in the room drop rapidly. He realized that he had made Zhang Ruochen angry, so she stopped. She said, "One last question, really one last question."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Speak."

"Where is the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?" Luo Sha stared into Zhang Ruochen's eyes and asked.

Chapter 2477: Dead with a stomp

Zhang Ruochen felt guilty toward Luo Sha. He knew that she genuinely had feelings for him. She was a woman he could trust.

However, Luo Sha's use of Mu Lingxi to threaten him made Zhang Ruochen unhappy.

Luo Sha saw that Zhang Ruochen was unhappy, and her tone softened. She said, "I heard about what happened in Enchanton and realized that you were in danger. I immediately came out of seclusion and rushed over to help you. Don't you trust me at all?"

"I'm your fiancée and will be a member of the Xue Jue family in the future. Do you think I will harm you and the Xue Jue family because of Devala?"

"I know that you are looking for the Fane of Origin to use the Power of Origin to make the saint will rise to a higher level. This is what I want to see. I hope that my husband is a peerless figure in the world."

Zhang Ruochen ignored her flowery words. His eyes darkened. He said, "How did you know that I was in danger?"

"Devala has influence throughout the Infernal Court. The information I want is naturally within my grasp. Besides, my Royal Brother is on Hoth. How many things can be hidden from him?" Luo Sha said calmly.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, "That's not right! In the battle 20 days ago, the only cultivators who knew I was involved were Wuma Jiuxing, Bai Qing'er's subordinates, and Guye Jing. When the Ji Feng Manor array was broken, Blackie had already left with Guye Jing and me. No one else could know."

After saying this, Zhang Ruochen activated the Precepts of Truth and directed it to his eyes. He stared at Luo Sha.

Whoosh

The radiance of Truth shone.

Instantly, he saw through her disguise.

Luo Sha smiled beautifully. She turned around and changed into the appearance of Guye Jing. She said, “Zhang Ruochen, although you didn’t admit it, I already know that the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is with you.”

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and let out a long sigh. He was really on guard day and night. In the end, he was careless and fell for Guye Jing’s trap.

Fortunately, he didn’t take out the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. Otherwise, the divine crystal wouldn’t be in his hands right now.

‘Even if I didn’t use the Eye of Truth, I should have guessed it. How could it be so coincidental? I went to the House of Enchanters, and Luo Sha just happened to go to the House of Enchanters? Guye Jing went to see Luo Shengtian to confuse me and make me lose my vigilance,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Guye Jing smiled sweetly and sat on Zhang Ruochen’s left leg. Her jade-like arm hung on his neck again, “When I asked you where the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was, you hesitated. That means you are the thief who stole it. Zhang Ruochen, you deliberately used me to deal with Bai Qing’er, right?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I am Luo Sha’s fiancé. Don’t you feel sorry for her for being so close to me?”

“What’s the big deal? Sha Sha and I are like sisters. There’s nothing that we can’t share. Sisters serving one husband may be a good story in the future. If you don’t want to marry me, I can also be your spare. Wouldn’t it be more exciting to be sneaky?” said Guye Jing in a soft voice as she blinked her eyelashes.

Zhang Ruochen’s expression didn’t change. He said, “You’re willing to sacrifice anything for the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.”

“Who said it’s only for the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin? After a Yuanhui-level genius becomes a god, he has the potential to become a king. I’m just a weak girl. It’s normal for me to come to you,” Guye Jing said seriously.

“Fine! I’m Not a gentleman. Having beauty come to me is a joy in life. Tonight, I’ll take you!” said Zhang Ruochen.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen’s hands moved up and down on Guye Jing’s voluptuous body.

BANG!

Guye Jing turned into a red shadow and ran out of the room the next moment. She tidied up her messy clothes and looked back. She stomped her feet and said coldly, “I really don’t know what Luo Sha sees in you. A man like you who can’t resist temptation, I still won’t like you, no matter how good you are.”

Guye Jing turned into an afterimage and rushed out of the manor, disappearing into the snowy night.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the room and laughed, “I thought you were being submissive? Why are you leaving? I don’t want you, but your injuries have healed. Shouldn’t you return the 30% of your Saint Soul that you owe me?”

Guye Jing had long disappeared.

In the snowy night, only the cold wind was left.

Zhang Ruochen smiled. This demoness seemed highly charming, but she was still too immature about matters between men and women. With a few tricks, she revealed her true form and ran away.

Zhang Ruochen would have to collect the 30% Saint Souls that Guye Jing owed sooner or later. He wasn’t in a hurry now.

Zhang Ruochen thought, ‘Guye Jing clearly knows that the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is with me, but she didn’t take it. It seems that she knows my personality. She knows that even if a knife was on my neck, I wouldn’t compromise.

‘And a drop of my blood is in her hands. She can find me at any time. As long as she follows me, she’ll find the Fane of Origin.’

Zhang Ruochen felt a headache. His plan to use Guye Jing to deal with Bai Qing’er had failed!

Women were better at playing tricks.

After Guye Jing left the manor, the two Dvarapalas turned into two statues.

They were puppets refined by Guye Jing using the secret technique of The Rāhu Mountains.

“Eh?”

Zhang Ruochen still hadn’t deactivated the Eye of Truth. He glanced at the tallest tower in the manor, and his expression changed.

“Reveal your true form,” Zhang Ruochen chanted.

Nine-foot-long Dimensional Rifts condensed in his palm. They combined with the Mark of Time and flew toward the top of the tower with unparalleled speed.

A strange bird stopped at the top of the tower.

It was shocked when it saw Guye Jing rushing out of the room.

Then it saw Zhang Ruochen coming out of the room. It was both confused and happy. It thought, ‘That lady was right. I followed Luo Sha and found Zhang Ruochen.’

It wanted to send a message to Bai Qing’er immediately, but it thought that since Guye Jing had left it could take Zhang Ruochen down as he was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Such opportunity was right in front of its eyes. How could it not fight for it?

Just as it was racking its brain, Zhang Ruochen noticed it. Nine Dimensional Rifts flew over like black lightning.

“That was fast,” said the strange bird.

The strange bird spread its black wings and rushed out like an arrow leaving a bow.

Even so, there was still a Dimensional Rift. It cut through its left-wing and cut off three feathers.

“Zhang Ruochen, I’ll come and meet you today to see how strong you are,” said the strange bird.

The strange bird’s body exploded in mid-air and turned into a cloud of black fog.

A white-haired old woman rushed out of the black fog. Her body was as thin as firewood. She bent her back, but her speed was fast. She arrived in front of Zhang Ruochen in an instant. Her five fingers formed the shape of a claw. It turned golden, and countless ley lines of precepts flowed.

The ordinary claw was a Thousand-Koan level Saint technique.

Golden Star Slicer.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were filled with starlight and countless phantoms when the claw struck out.

The claw was sharp like a saint blade.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift to dodge.

However, the claw hit and left a mark on his chest.

His sternum hurt, and his internal organs shook. Four blood-red lines appeared on his skin.

“Your body is so strong. Even a claw attack from a Thousand-Koan level saint technique couldn’t break through your skin,” said Dang Hu as she was slightly dazed. She was in disbelief.

Even with the Paramount physique of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint wouldn’t be able to withstand her claws so easily.

Zhang Ruochen looked down at his chest. He activated the Armor of the Fire God and put it on. He said, “I know you. I’ve seen you in Ji Feng Manor before. You are in the Early-stage of the Banshi Isshou Realm?”

“I’ve joined the Enchanter Chamber for more than 18,000 years. My name is Dang Hu. Junior, if you still have a streak of sword Qi from the god, I’ll immediately retreat as long as you show it. I won’t fight with you,” Dang Hu said in a probing tone.

Zhang Ruochen released the Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth. He pretended to be suspicious and said, “Why do I need to use the sword Qi of God to deal with you?”

“Humph! You must have been seriously injured when you stabbed Lord Wuma in Ji Feng Manor. You haven’t fully recovered yet, right? Who gave you the confidence to say such arrogant words?” said Dang Hu.

Dang Hu was confident that Zhang Ruochen would be seriously injured, so she could take him down.

‘How could he recover in just 20 days?’ Dang Hu thought.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t know if Dang Hu had spread the news, so he didn’t dare to delay here. He took out the Divine Dragonbone Whip and pushed the Class Seven Regal Artifact to the extreme. He lashed out.

Instantly, the sky was filled with dragon shadows. Supreme Power and divine dragon power surged toward Dang Hu.

“What a terrifying attack. Zhang Ruochen is still seriously injured?”

Dang Hu’s expression changed slightly. She immediately released her Precept Domain.

The Precept Domain was home to thousands of birds. Among the thousands of birds, a flaming phoenix soared through the sky. The Divine Dragonbone Whip was deflected by its cloud-sized claws.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen lashed out hundreds of whips, shattering the birds in the sky. Even the light from the flaming phoenix dimmed.

“Divine Slaying Claw.”

Dang Hu rushed into the air and merged with the flaming phoenix, performing a heaven-splitting claw.

This claw contained 60 billion precepts. It was a Banshi Isshou level saint technique.

Because he couldn't borrow the power of Qiankun Realm, the pressure on Zhang Ruochen significantly increased. The other party was a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm, two realms higher than him.

“Zhang Ruochen, use whatever tricks you have. Otherwise, this claw will destroy you both in body and soul.” The flaming phoenix spoke in human language.

Boom

The claw print landed and shattered the Supreme Saint inscription and array inscription in the manor below.

The powerful destructive force shook all the buildings in the manor to collapse. The high temperature from the flaming phoenix burned them into lava.

The ripples of the battle were no longer concealed and spread throughout the Enchanton.

In the House of Enchanters, Bai Qing'er suddenly rushed out of her room and landed on a stargazing platform. She looked into the distance and said, “It's Dang Hu's aura.”

Her body became blurry, and she disappeared from the stargazing platform the next moment.

“Oh no, I didn't hit him. How is this possible? I used a Banshi Isshou level saint technique. 60 billion precepts are locking him down. How can a Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm escape?” said Dang Hu as she was bewildered. She found it hard to understand.

How could she understand the Master of Space who controlled the Canon of Dimension?

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the space above the flaming phoenix. 100 million Divine Marks of Flame appeared on his left leg. He suddenly stomped down, and a terrifying divine power fell.

Boom

The flaming phoenix exploded. Dang Hu screamed and was crushed into a bloody mess by Zhang Ruochen's stomp.

After 20 years of cultivation, Zhang Ruochen could fully utilize the power of Yanshen's leg.

Now, he has a divine left leg. It contained infinite divine power. He only needed one stomp to kill a Supreme Saint in the initial stage of the 10,000 death realm.

When Bai Qing'er arrived, Zhang Ruochen had already left. He changed his appearance several times and blended into the crowd.

Chapter 2478: Shifting to a New Path

Zhang Ruochen returned to the small courtyard in the Governor's Manor after changing into Master Xunmu's appearance.

His blood and Qi were still boiling inside his body.

The cracks in his sea of Qi that were about to heal began to loosen again.

Apparently, he had used all his strength to activate Yanshen's leg. Its power was too strong, causing his sea of Qi to shake violently. His injuries were on the verge of worsening.

'My sea of Qi won't be damaged easily, but it'll be hard to heal once it's damaged. Before reaching a strong enough realm, I can't go head-to-head with someone like Wuma Jiuxing. That's stupid!' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen had a new understanding of the danger he was in. He couldn't be careless.

Be it Guye Jing, Bai Qing'er, or the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny, they were all geniuses.

If he wasn't careful, he would lose the entire game.

Today, he had used Yanshen's leg to stomp down on his enemy. It seemed like he was unstoppable, but in reality, he still couldn't face the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint head-on. He had used the Power of Dimension to catch her off guard and execute a fatal move.

He pushed open the door and walked into the room. Guye Jing had already left, and Blackie was nowhere to be found.

It was cold and quiet.

Sitting alone in the dark room, Zhang Ruochen fell into deep thought.

The birth of the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was known to 17 forces. 19 of them, including the Enchanter Chamber and the Fane of Destiny.

The Supreme Saints of the 19 forces had all gathered in Enchanton, making it the storm's center.

When Zhang Ruochen was fighting with Dang Hu earlier, Zhang Ruochen clearly sensed that dozens of powerful saint might soar into the sky. It was as if gods and buddhas had awakened. He couldn't deal with any of them now.

He didn't know if Bai Qing'er had deliberately leaked the information. Not only had the House of Enchanters come to the fore, but Zhang Ruochen had emerged as a pivotal figure in the eyes of all the vast forces.

What gave Zhang Ruochen a headache was that he did indeed have a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

Zhang Ruochen had no time to think about it. He wanted to seize the Xue Jue Family's business on Hoth. He just wanted to leave Enchanton as soon as possible. He wanted to go to the Royal City of Hundred Clans and meet with Ji Fanxin. He wanted to find the Fane of Origin immediately.

He was well aware that to condense a single Grade Three Saintwill or a Grade One Yin-yang Five Elements Saintwill, he would require the assistance of a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Obviously, the Fane of Origin was the opportunity he had to seize.

Zhang Ruochen looked at it and wore a ring on his finger.

The ring was formed by the Primordial Spatial Worm.

Unfortunately, the Primordial Spatial Worm was too heavily injured. Even though Zhang Ruochen kept using the Saint Qi in his body to help it recuperate, it still showed no signs of waking up.

Whoosh

A brilliant golden light appeared in the room, and the ground rippled.

The Intergold Tiger walked out of the void. Its five-meter-long body filled more than half the room. Even though it had deliberately restrained its aura, it was still highly domineering. The world seemed to be shaking between its breaths.

Zhang Ruochen didn't know where the Intergold Tiger was. He only knew that it had always been by his side. It was very likely that it was in the interlayer of space. Zhang Ruochen still did not know much about gods' means, especially the means of a Primeval Divine Beast.

The Intergold Tiger said, "Zhang Ruochen, it's time to cultivate!"

"Cultivate? Cultivate what?" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen looked around and found that the room's four walls were covered in golden light.

Obviously, the Intergold Tiger had made arrangements so that the aura in the room would not leak out.

The Intergold Tiger said, "You are my guide. Of course, you have to help me cultivate and integrate into this era. In the end, you will be completely recognized by the precepts of heaven and earth."

"How can I help you?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen thought it was ridiculous to help a god cultivate.

The Intergold Tiger said, "Give me half of the Precepts in your body."

"What did you say?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen thought he heard wrong.

"Give me half of the Precepts in your body," the Intergold Tiger repeated.

"Impossible, absolutely impossible," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had cultivated for hundreds of years with the help of the Sundial. He had only cultivated 15 billion Precepts.

Suppose he gave half of the Precepts to the Intergold Tiger. How many years would Zhang Ruochen have to cultivate before he could recover?

The Intergold Tiger thoughtfully said, “The precepts you cultivated have fused with the Apex Intergold Qi. That’s why I can absorb it and turn it into my own precepts. In the future, when I absorb more and more of your precepts, I can be completely recognized by this era and no longer be bound by anything.”

“In other words, you’re going to deprive me of my precepts in the future?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The Intergold Tiger nodded its colossal head and said, “That’s right! In fact, I’m not taking it all, but you’re guiding me to cultivate.”

Zhang Ruochen smiled stiffly. “The so-called guide is the one who is being exploited? How long will I have to be exploited? You will always deprive me of half of the precepts. How long will I have to cultivate before I become a god?”

The Intergold Tiger said, “When the number of precepts in our bodies is the same, we will naturally be equal.”

“What? When will the number of precepts in our bodies reach the same level?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen could not calm down. He felt cheated by Fukurokuju. If he had known that the so-called guide was such hard work, he would not have agreed to it in the first place.

No wonder Fukurokuju was vague when he asked how to help the Intergold Tiger with its cultivation.

The more Zhang Ruochen thought about it, the more he felt cheated. He said, “Can I not be the guide?”

“No,” said the Intergold Tiger.

Then the Intergold Tiger added, “I know all your secrets.”

Zhang Ruochen was being threatened again!

Being threatened by a god, even if Zhang Ruochen was dissatisfied, he could not express it.

What could he do?

Should he fight to the death with the Intergold Tiger?

Zhang Ruochen said, "I can help you with your cultivation, but is there another way? My total number of precepts is only 15 billion. If I share half with you, it will only be 7.5 billion. Does it mean anything to you?"

Lord Ironclad, who was at the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm, had cultivated more than a trillion precepts.

If the precepts of the gods were converted into precept marks, the number would only increase and be imprinted on every body cell.

The Intergold Tiger said, "Of course it means something. The more precepts I absorb, the more I can be recognized by the precepts of heaven and earth, and the more powerful my power will be.

"Without your 7.5 billion precepts and without triggering the divine punishment, the power I can unleash would only be comparable to an ordinary Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

"However, after I absorb it, the power I can wield can be increased several times."

Zhang Ruochen was greatly moved. He asked, "Can I defeat Wuma Jiuxing?"

The Intergold Tiger said, "The cultivator of the Path of Saber that you mentioned is extraordinary. Even in God's Ancient Nidus, no one in the same realm can defeat him. I have been on the Ghost's home planet for 30,000 years and have seen countless geniuses in the Infernal Court. Few cultivators have the potential to reach his level before becoming a god. Moreover, he only has the potential. Whether he can reach it or not depends on cultivating to the extreme in the Thousand-Koan Realm, the Banshi Isshou Realm, and the Paramount Realm."

For a god to give such a high evaluation showed that Wuma Jiuxing's achievements were shocking.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Does that mean that you can’t defeat him even after fusing with my 7.5 billion Precepts?”

“If I want to kill him, I only need a casual attack. But after this attack, I will also be attacked by the precepts of heaven and earth. Even if I don’t die, I will be seriously injured,” the Intergold Tiger said.

Which means he still couldn’t defeat Wuma Jiuxing within the scope of the precepts of heaven and earth.

Zhang Ruochen said, “The situation in Enchanton is complicated and dangerous. I can give you half of the precepts if you want, but can I give it to you after this critical period?”

“The more so, the more precepts you should give me. In fact, I have previously stated that absorbing half of your precepts is not intended to exploit you because you can also reap significant benefits,” the Intergold Tiger stated.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What benefits?”

“You’ll understand when I’ve integrated half of your precepts. Don’t worry. We’re both in the same boat now. You’re the guide I’ve waited 30,000 years for. I don’t want to wait another 30,000 years to find the next guide,” the Intergold Tiger said.

7.5 billion precepts was indeed a significant loss.

However, with the Sundial in hand, he would be able to cultivate again in a few months at most.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Then you have to agree to one condition. If I encounter a strong enemy in the future, you must help me. You can’t just stand by and watch.”

“That’s impossible. At most, when you really can’t deal with it and face the threat of death, I can help you escape,” the Intergold Tiger said with a heavy tone. “If you think there’s a powerhouse around you who can help you anytime. Then you must be overestimating yourself to provoke an enemy that you can’t deal with. This is courting death!

“If I keep helping you, it’s not good for your cultivation.

“A real powerhouse grows through constant training and challenging the impossible. Cultivators who are always under protection are always kept in captivity. No matter how fat they grow, they will always be sitting ducks.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I don’t ask you to help me anytime. Can you just help me once?”

“Okay! I promise I can help you once,” said the Intergold Tiger.

After a long talk, Zhang Ruochen suddenly felt that Blackie was better. He did not need to waste so much time talking.

The Intergold Tiger walked to Zhang Ruochen and opened its mouth to take a breath.

WHOOSH!

The light patterns of the precepts on Zhang Ruochen’s body rushed into the Intergold Tiger’s mouth. His cultivation dropped rapidly, and the precepts in his sea of Qi became fewer and fewer. The Heavenly Stream, which had been strengthened, immediately became thinner.

After absorbing 7.5 billion precepts, the golden light on the Intergold Tiger grew brighter. It closed its tiger eyes as if it was circulating its exercises and absorbing them.

Zhang Ruochen had mixed feelings. He could only take out the Sundial and the Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber to comprehend the precepts. He only wanted to recover his cultivation as soon as possible.

7.5 billion precepts was already a lot. It surpassed many Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

An hour later.

The golden light on the Intergold Tiger’s body disappeared. A look of joy appeared in its eyes. It said, “The precepts of heaven and earth have indeed reduced its rejection of me. I’ve only absorbed 7.5 billion precepts. If I absorb 1 trillion or 10 trillion precepts, I wonder what will happen?”

When Zhang Ruochen, who was meditating, heard this, he became even more distressed. He felt taken advantage of.

The Intergold Tiger said, “Zhang Ruochen, it’s your turn now!”

“My turn what?” Zhang Ruochen asked, puzzled.

The Intergold Tiger said, “Didn’t I just say that you can also get great benefits? I absorbed 7.5 billion precepts from you and assimilated them with my body’s 7.5 billion precept marks. These 7.5 billion precept marks are precepts that your body can accept. Now, take back as much as you can.”

Zhang Ruochen’s mood turned from sad to happy. “Take as many as I can?”

“The key is to bear it,” said the Intergold Tiger.

After reaching his current realm, Zhang Ruochen could barely bear the 100 million Divine Marks of Flame in Yanshen’s leg. He could use them completely in battle.

Although the divine marks were good, it was obvious that it was complicated to control.

It was not easy to bear the divine marks.

“If you had said earlier that we were exchanging precepts, we wouldn’t have had so much trouble!”

Zhang Ruochen smiled and put his hands together. The Shenwu Mark between his eyebrows appeared.

The Intergold Tiger opened its mouth and spat out a mouthful of golden precept marks.

Each of the precept marks was in the shape of a divine tiger. It contained the Apex Intergold Qi and Zhang Ruochen’s aura of the precepts.

These precept marks were different from Yanshen’s Divine Mark of Flame. They were very close to Zhang Ruochen. It was as if he had cultivated them. It was easy for him to absorb and control them.

Zhang Ruochen kept absorbing the precepts into the Shenwu Mark, entering his sea of Qi, and into the Heavenly Stream.

The Intergold Tiger's precept marks were utterly different from the precepts of heaven and earth in this era. It was not the same as the Precepts of Dimension, Time, or Swordsmanship. There was only one precept.

This precept was similar to one of the five elements' precepts, the Precept of Metal, but there were some differences.

This precept contained the aura of death, darkness, and gloom.

The Intergold Tiger said, "What I cultivate is the Path of Intergold. I only cultivate the Precepts of Intergold. What you have obtained is only the Intergold Precept Marks."

In less than 15 minutes, Zhang Ruochen had absorbed 100 million precept marks into his sea of Qi.

The Intergold Tiger's Intergold Precept Marks were more powerful than Yanshen's Divine Mark of Flame. However, after absorbing 100 million of them, Zhang Ruochen did not feel any difficulty.

These precept marks seemed to belong to him naturally.

The Intergold Tiger was shocked when it checked Zhang Ruochen's condition, 'One of my precept marks is more powerful than all 100 of his precepts combined. He can absorb 100 million of them easily. It must be the river of precepts in his sea of Qi that played a key role. However, he can only absorb 200 million precept marks. He should reach his limit.'

After absorbing 500 million precept marks in a row, Zhang Ruochen's absorption speed slowed down.

The Heavenly Stream in his sea of Qi turned golden and showed signs of instability.

This was because the precept marks' energy far exceeded the precepts' energy, breaking the balance.

"The precept marks are a great thing. It's like I've entered the state of the Path of Intergold in the Supreme Saint Realm. It's similar to Wuma Jiuxing's Path of Saber. The more I can absorb, the better."

After absorbing 670 million precept marks, Zhang Ruochen stopped and turned into a solid gold man. He sat cross-legged on the ground and didn't move.

“This is the result of being greedy. Let's see how long it takes for you to transform into your physical body.”

The Intergold Tiger snorted. It raised its claws and struck out the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike gently.

A powerful claw print appeared in the space.

After absorbing Zhang Ruochen's Precepts, it was naturally able to master the various paths Zhang Ruochen cultivated.

With the Intergold Tiger's cultivation and spiritual power, it could understand the saint techniques that Zhang Ruochen cultivated instantly and cultivate them most perfectly.

“It's a wonderful attack. Unfortunately, the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike is a terrible name. I'll call it Dragon-Tiger Prajna Strike from now on. Maybe the Divine-Tiger Prajna Strike is better.” said the Intergold Tiger.

Chapter 2479: A Spirit

Zhang Ruochen's consciousness was comprehending, understanding, and controlling the newly acquired Intergold Precept Marks in his sea of Qi.

This was a rare opportunity to peek into the mysteries of divinity in the Supreme Saint Realm.

Although there were 100 million Divine Marks of Flame in the Yanshen's leg, they were not in his sea of Qi. They could only be used for battle.

Of course, one Yanshen's leg was far more than 100 million divine marks.

Before the leg was chopped off, most of the precept marks had been taken back into his sea of Qi.

Otherwise, one leg would contain at least 100 million precept marks.

If there were 100 million precept marks in Zhang Ruochen's Yanshen's leg, even Wuma Jiuxing would not be able to withstand it, let alone kill Dang Hu in the Early-stage of the Banshi Isshou Realm.

As he became more and more familiar with the control of divine marks, Zhang Ruochen's body dissolved and became flesh and blood again. He could finally move.

Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to walk out of the room. He took out the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and entered it. He couldn't wait to release the precept in his body to form a Precept Domain.

His Precept Domain couldn't compare to a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint's Precept Domain. It was just an invisible domain. It didn't transform into Path or evolve into form.

But this time was different. After the precepts were released, countless golden tigers ran through the Precept Domain.

One golden tiger represented an Intergold Precept Mark.

The shadows of the tigers filled the sky.

Tiger roars were deafening.

Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen's control over the Intergold Precept Marks was weak. The golden tigers ran around wildly in chaos. He couldn't control his Precept Domain like a Thousand-Koan Realm cultivator. If the Precept Domain was suppressed, it could crush a low-level Supreme Saint.

Zhang Ruochen thought, 'Although there are only 670 million Intergold Precept Marks, they're far more powerful than my own 7.5 billion precepts.

'One Intergold Precept Mark contains more than 100 times more powerful than my precepts.

'Does this mean that a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint in the pinnacle who cultivates 70 billion precepts can no longer use his Precept Domain to suppress me?'

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen felt much better.

The number of precepts had always been Zhang Ruochen's weakness. He would be suppressed by the Precept Domain of a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint often. So he had to borrow the power of Qiankun Realm or the domains of the three Major Paths of the Ancients or the Supreme Power of a Supreme Artifact. Only then could he break free and counterattack.

Although his Precept Domain was still inferior to that of the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, it was impossible for a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint in the Early and Middle stages to crush him with just their Precept Domain.

As for the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint...

How many Supreme Saints in the Thousand-Koan Realm could cultivate the number of precepts to more than 70 billion?

Zhang Ruochen's current Precept Domain could fight head-on with any Supreme Saint in the Thousand-Koan Realm.

However, Zhang Ruochen had two terrible problems.

First, the 670 million Intergold Precept Marks were too strong, far more robust than his precepts.

This was not a good thing. The Intergold Precept Marks would affect Zhang Ruochen's path cultivation.

Second, although the Intergold Precept Marks were strong, he could only control about 100 million of them. The remaining 500 million would be in a chaotic state even if he released them. It would be difficult for them to form an effective attack.

Unless his spiritual power could reach the 67th level.

As long as his spiritual power was strong enough, he could control the precept marks.

The second problem was to improve his spiritual power.

The first problem was to improve his precepts.

In addition, Zhang Ruochen thought of the third problem.

How to use the Intergold Precept Marks?

Should he merge it into the Precept Domain and fight with other Supreme Saints?

Then, he could only use it to fight with Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints.

The Intergold Precept Marks were not like the Divine Marks of Flame. The Divine Marks of Flame could be directly transformed into offensive power with Yanshen's leg as a carrier.

Or he needed a saint technique to transform the precepts into combat power.

Zhang Ruochen asked the Intergold Tiger for advice, hoping that it could teach him an ancient saint technique or a higher knowledge.

Since it was a divine mark, it could be used to perform higher knowledge.

Besides, Zhang Ruochen had a Demigod-level physique, so he did not lack the divine Qi.

Even if it was just an immature small amount of higher knowledge, it could still shine in the Saint-level and burst out with unparalleled power.

Unfortunately, the Intergold Tiger said casually, “You are a Yuanhui level genius and the best brush in the world. Instead of copying others’ paintings, why don’t you try painting yourself?”

“Other cultivators have already created many powerful saint techniques in the Supreme Saint Realm. You should be more outstanding than them in the future generations.

“Now, the Intergold Precept Mark is an excellent piece of canvas for you. I’m looking forward to what mysterious paintings you can draw on the canvas with this brush.”

“Why do I feel that you can’t bear to teach me the higher knowledge of the saint technique?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The Intergold Tiger said, “Indeed, the ancient saint technique’s higher knowledge can be used to control the Intergold Precept Mark, but it is difficult to conform to the precepts of heaven and earth in this era. It will be hampered if it does not receive the blessing of the precepts of heaven and earth. No matter how powerful the saint technique’s higher knowledge is, its power will be greatly reduced. Therefore, you should create your own saint technique suitable for the Intergold Precept Marks. I have high hopes for you.”

When had Zhang Ruochen not thought of creating his own saint technique?

It was just too much of a waste of time.

Most of the cultivators who created saint techniques, be it Supreme Saints or Saint Kings, felt that their cultivation could no longer improve, so they put their energy into creating saint techniques.

Of course, some talented people could cultivate while creating their own techniques.

However, how could the saint techniques they created compare to the ones created by their predecessors?

The saint techniques created by the predecessors have been passed down to this day, so they must have been modified and perfected countless times in the future. It was even possible that the ones who created the techniques were the strongest among the gods.

A thousand years ago, the Sword God Feng Chen was a first-class genius. He overshadowed the figures of an era in the Infernal Court. He was proficient in all kinds of things. With the occasional insight, he could create a peerless technique.

With his talent, he could ultimately become one of the representatives of the Yuanhui period.

Unfortunately, he was too distracted and too refined. In the end, he didn't even condense a Grade Two Saintwill.

Que somehow was more focused on cultivating his Sword of Oblivion technique.

It was hard to say who would be more successful in the future, Sword God Feng Chen or Que.

However, at least in the aspect of saintwill, Que was more potent than the Sword God Feng Chen.

Zhang Ruochen had actually created a sword technique.

It was called Blossoming Cadence.

It was a sword technique created by combining the Swordsmanship, the Path of Dimension, and the Path of Time.

As Zhang Ruochen's understanding of the three Paths became deeper and deeper, he continued to perfect this sword technique. Its power was now considerable. Although there was only one move, he could perform it as he pleased.

The advantage of creating a saint technique was that it could perfectly match his mind, body, and saint Qi.

He could perform it smoothly. His mind and sword were in synchronization.

However, Zhang Ruochen had never created a second sword technique because he did not know how to evolve the second move.

Moreover, he had always felt that the sword technique he created seemed to be exquisite, but it lacked one thing.

It lacked a spirit.

It could represent his own spirit.

A sword technique and a saint technique. If there was no spirit, it was equivalent to a person having no soul.

Even if he created it, he would only be a clay figurine. He wouldn't have much success in the future.

From creating the saint technique, Zhang Ruochen thought of his own spirit. And from his own spirit, he thought of his own pursuit.

In the past, his motivation for cultivating was to take revenge on Chi Yao.

Later, he found out part of the truth and was lost for a long time. During that period, he didn't have his own pursuit. He was always led by the nose by various factors, moving forward step by step.

He cultivated every day, but what was the purpose of cultivating?

To save Kunlun?

To find the ultimate truth that had happened 800 years ago?

To surpass Chi Yao, defeat her, or even kill her to open up his mind?

No, neither.

Later, Zhang Ruochen was enlightened by Pan Ruo and Luo Sha. He had his own vision. To reshape the order of heaven and earth, change the entire universe, and let all living things live a different way.

However, that vision was too big and too far away. It was like a dream that required a lifetime to pursue.

Moreover, to reshape the order of heaven and earth, he needed a strong heart and an unparalleled spirit. He needed to transcend first. But what exactly was that spirit?

Zhang Ruochen fell into deep thought.

...

The fragrant wind blew gently.

The door and windows did not move, but a soul-stirring woman in a red dress appeared in the room. There was the gentle beauty of a peerless human woman and the wicked charm of Rakshasi.

Zhang Ruochen sensed Guye Jing's aura. He woke up from his thoughts. Walking out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, he glanced at her. He said, "You're not here to take the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, are you?"

Guye Jing was like a painting of beauty. Standing beside the dark brown wooden wall, she said, "If I attack, can you stop me?"

"I can't, but you won't get anything," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Zhang Ruochen," said Guye Jing, "You underestimate the value of the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and the Fane of Origin. I can't do anything to you, but the gods will take action as long as I capture you and bring you back to The Rāhu Mountains. At that time, all your secrets will not be secrets."

After saying this, she released the deadly demonic Qi from her body.

Every strand of demonic Qi was like a chain.

Zhang Ruochen remained calm and said, "Wargod Bloodximius has bestowed on me the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and the Wargod Belt. He sees me as the future successor of the Xue Jue family. He knows that I have countless powerful enemies in the Infernal Court, but why can he go to the Jadeite Realm without worry?"

"The Wargod Belt can resist the gods, but it can't resist cultivators below divinity," said Guye Jing.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Do you really think I don't have any other trump cards?"

“I want to give it a try!” said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing controlled the deadly demonic Qi and merged it with the precepts. Dozens of blood-red chains condensed and wrapped around Zhang Ruochen with a clattering sound.

The space around Zhang Ruochen was instantly suppressed and became extremely solid.

Before the chains wrapped around his body, Zhang Ruochen felt that the entire world had become lifeless. The space was infinitely compressed, and he could not move.

ROAR!

A deafening tiger roar came from Zhang Ruochen's body.

Zhang Ruochen's body emitted a dazzling golden light. The Intergold Precept Marks turned into shadows of golden tigers and rushed out to fight against the chains that wrapped around his body.

Chapter 2480: Bai Qing'er Showed Her Hand

Seeing the Intergold Precept Marks, Guye Jing's beautiful eyes lit up slightly. She thought to herself, 'Master's words are indeed true. Zhang Ruochen has become the guide of the Primeval Genus Beast, the Intergold Tiger. He has a god with him at all times. Why would he need other guardians?'

She stretched out her hand and gently twisted her fingers. All the deadly demonic Qi was withdrawn into her body.

"Can I pay my respects to Senior Intergold Tiger?" Guye Jing asked.

Zhang Ruochen withdrew the Intergold Precept Marks. He immediately understood that Guye Jing had no intention of really attacking. She was just testing him.

It couldn't be hidden. Many gods in the Infernal Court knew about the birth of the Intergold Tiger and the Swastika Seiryu.

Of course, this didn't include the gods of the ten dark forces and the minor clans.

Fukurokuju had only told Zhang Ruochen about the Primeval Genus Beasts in the Fane of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "Senior Intergold Tiger doesn't like to be disturbed."

Gushi Jing could understand. The other party was a god. How could a Supreme Saint meet it just because he wanted to?

"You have a god to protect you. Bai Qing'er's plan against you is futile," said Guye Jing. She smiled and sat down on the chair, lying lazily on it. The curve of her chest was astonishing.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that not only was the power of the Intergold Tiger Limited, but it had also only agreed to attack once.

Therefore, when he heard Guye Jing's words, his heart tightened. He asked, "What is Bai Qing'er up to now?"

"It's not a conspiracy. It's an open conspiracy," Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What's going on?"

"At least you've infiltrated the Enchanter Chamber. How come you haven't heard of it?" Guye Jing was surprised.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head.

Guye Jing sighed lightly and said, "That's right. With a deity protecting the way, why would you care about the conspiracy of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint? Why don't you ask the Intergold Tiger to attack Enchanton first?"

Zhang Ruochen coughed dryly and said, "The Intergold Tiger is a deity. He's not my fighter."

Guye Jing was brilliant. She understood what he meant.

Although Zhang Ruochen had become the guide of the Intergold Tiger, it wouldn't help him deal with other Saint-level cultivators.

If a god really followed Zhang Ruochen and could attack at any time, how could Zhang Ruochen be trapped in Enchanton?

Even on Hoth, Zhang Ruochen could do whatever he wanted. Only he could beat other cultivators. No cultivator dared to touch him.

It was normal to think about it. Gods couldn't interfere with the secular world.

Once the Intergold Tiger attacked the cultivators of the Infernal Court, the gods wouldn't let it go?

Thinking of this, Guye Jing's fear of Zhang Ruochen lessened.

"If that's the case, you'd better listen," said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing continued, "Just yesterday, the leaders of the 18 forces entered the House of Enchanters together and pressured Bai Qing'er and Ye Manman. Then Bai Qing'er gave in and told the truth."

“What truth?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had a bad premonition.

Guye Jing said, “Bai Qing’er said that the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was originally from the hands of the Seven-Armed Elder to the casino of the House of Enchanteurs.”

“Unfortunately, the Seven-Armed Elder has been killed by her. Who can prove that what she said is true?” Zhang Ruochen laughed.

Guye Jing stared into Zhang Ruochen’s eyes and smiled beautifully. She said, “But Bai Qing’er said that the Seven-Armed Elder didn’t die. You hid him in the Violet Gourd. That’s why he was able to escape from the Divine Domain of Destiny. Even the Divination Division couldn’t predict his whereabouts. Because you, Zhang Ruochen, are one of the few people who are hard to predict.

“I think what she said makes sense.

“Based on what you said to me and what Bai Qing’er said to me. I wonder if what happened that day was like this. You and the Seven-Armed Elder worked together and used spatial means to steal five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin from the 17 layers of the barrier. You also killed Tan Fei, who was holding the divine crystals.

“Bai Qing’er noticed this and went to kill you. In the process, you killed Cang Baizi, while Bai Qing’er killed Xing Qian. In the end, you and the Seven-Armed Elder escaped. Because of Bai Qing’er’s identity, it was not convenient for her to continue hunting you down. Therefore, she used her relationship with the Death Palace’s High Priest to ask the Adjudication Division to deal with you.

“Unfortunately, the Destiny Division intervened and allowed you and the Seven-Armed Elder to escape.

“You know that Bai Qing’er will definitely continue to deal with you and seize the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, so you used me to pin her down. Bai Qing’er knows that the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is in your hands, so she sealed off the Enchanton and forbade you to escape.

“Am I right?”

CLAP! CLAP! CLAP!

Zhang Ruochen clapped and sighed in his heart. Guye Jing was indeed Luo Sha’s best friend and had a strong mind. Although there were many differences, she was on the right track.

Zhang Ruochen was calm and said, “You have a rich imagination. It seems that you don’t believe me at all. You believe in Bai Qing’er.”

“Because what she said is more reasonable than you. Not only do I believe her, but the leaders of the other 17 forces also believe her more,” said Guye Jing. Her eyes were round and big. She stared at Zhang Ruochen’s handsome face and waited for him to argue.

Zhang Ruochen said, “First, I don’t even know Seven-Armed Elder. Why should I cooperate with him?”

“You know him. You met him in a bet,” said Guye Jing.

“Because of me, he lost hundreds of thousands of Godstones. How can this be considered an acquaintance? We are enemies, right?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

“There is a saying, an exchange for blow and friendship grows. For the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, enemies can also cooperate,” said Guye Jing.

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly. He said, “Even so! Bai Qing’er’s attack on the Seven-Armed Elder happened before. How did it become after the divine crystal was stolen?”

Guye Jing said, “How do you know who’s in front and who’s behind these two things? Did you participate in both?”

Zhang Ruochen was a little discouraged. He couldn’t explain it at all. He had to admit that Bai Qing’er’s “showdown” was ruthless.

All the forces knew the whereabouts of the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin. Still, it also forced Zhang Ruochen to the opposite side of the forces. All the forces shifted their focus from the House of Enchanters to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, “There’s a fatal mistake in Bai Qing’er’s story.”

“I’d like to hear more,” said Guye Jing.

“Since five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin were passed out from the Seven-Armed Elder’s hands. Then, the Seven-Armed Elder must still have superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin. Why would he risk stealing the five lost ones from the 17 major forces?”

Guye Jing rested her chin on her hand and stared at Zhang Ruochen at a close distance. She said, “Because you and the Seven-Armed Elder want to escape and take the Fane of Origin for yourself. You don’t want other forces to join in. How are you going to argue?”

Zhang Ruochen was silent.

“Oh, my dear Ruochen, we are already so close. Why can’t you tell me the truth? The Fane of Origin was a world-shaking secret treasure. How could the Xue Jue Family take it all? Wouldn’t it be better to let The Rāhu Mountains share the profits and bear the risks? Wouldn’t it be better to fight against the unknown dangers together?” said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing pursed her lips and shook Zhang Ruochen’s arm gently. She looked like a well-behaved little sister next door.

Zhang Ruochen let out a long sigh. He said, “Let me tell you the truth! The five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin were stolen by Bai Qing’er. It can’t be wrong. Tan Fei was also killed by her using dreams.

“As for the Seven-Armed Elder, I did help him escape from the Divine Domain of Destiny. He gave me a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

“So, the one who really wants to monopolize the superior Fane of Origin is Bai Qing’er, not me and Seven-Armed Elder.

Besides, my relationship with that old man isn't that good. We don't trust each other."

Guye Jing thought for a moment and considered carefully.

Zhang Ruochen's words were more believable than Bai Qing'er's words.

But she didn't believe it completely.

She just felt that the truth was getting closer and closer.

Guye Jing said, "Does that mean that the Seven-Armed Elder has left?"

"The Seven-Armed Elder has strong spiritual power. I can't keep him even if I want to." Zhang Ruochen shrugged and said helplessly.

Guye Jing smiled and said, "So you have a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin now?"

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, "We are close. That's why I told you this secret."

Guye Jing seemed to have forgotten that Zhang Ruochen had used her to deal with Bai Qing'er, and she almost died by Wuma Jiuxing's blade. She also seemed to have forgotten that she had just been taken advantage of by Zhang Ruochen's hands and that she had scolded him.

She smiled and said gently, "Yes, we have experienced life and death together."

"I need your help to find the Fane of Origin," Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing nodded and said, "We are the best allies."

If Luo Sha's best friend saw Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing alone in a room and looking at each other up close, they would curse this adulterous couple.

Suddenly, Guye Jing became serious and said thoughtfully, "Zhang Ruochen, you will be in big trouble!"

"Oh! What do you mean?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

“Do you know why Bai Qing’er told the truth at this time? Actually, the purpose of everything is to force you out. If you don’t show up, all the forces will think that what she said is true. Because you don’t dare to show yourself!” said Guye Jing.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Is this her plot? If I show myself, I will definitely be besieged. The only superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin may be lost. If I don’t show myself, I have tacitly stolen five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin with the Seven-Armed Elder. If I don’t show myself and continue to hide, although I am a bit cowardly, it is the best choice. When My Primordial Spatial Worm is healed, I can leave anytime.”

Guye Jing shook her head. She said, “Unfortunately, you can’t hide anymore! The Overseer of the Divination Division will come to Hoth along with the Divine Artifact, Tensho Compass. Your tricks will be useless in the face of it.”

“Are they that desperate to mobilize the Divine Artifact?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t calm himself down. He wanted to treat Bai Qing’er like a shining light and teach her a lesson. This woman was too vicious. All her tricks were forcing him to the brink.

“They mobilized the Tensho Compass not only to find you but also to find the seriously injured Wuma Jiuxing. The three divisions of the Fane of Destiny had arrived, and their powerhouses were as numerous as clouds. It was said that top-notch Supreme Saints from the twelve divine palaces had also come. They claimed that they had massacred the Avīci Pavilion to avenge the death of Scioness Fuurei. This storm is getting bigger and bigger. I even suspect that a god has come quietly!” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed Guye Jing’s arms and said, “We are the best allies and the closest relationship. You have to help me. How about we go and snatch the Tensho Compass?”

Chapter 2481: Hand of the World

It was obviously impossible to snatch the Tensho Compass.

Although the vessel spirit of the Tensho Compass had not reached divinity, it was definitely a first-class combat strength below divinity. Moreover, the Overseer of the Divination Division was definitely at the level of Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue. Unless it was Wuma Jiuxing, who would dare to attack him?

The Fane of Destiny must have sent countless powerhouses to escort the Overseer and the Tensho Compass. Even if Wuma Jiuxing wasn't injured, he probably wouldn't dare to snatch the Divine Artifact.

Guye Jing suggested that Zhang Ruochen put the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin with her for the time being. Then, he would come out and tell the major forces the truth. With his current status, no one dared to attack him openly. Besides, with the gods' protection, who would dare to attack him before they were absolutely sure?

Zhang Ruochen directly rejected her proposal.

Should he give her the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?

Not a chance, they were not that close.

Besides, she suspected that a god had come to Hoth. How could Zhang Ruochen dare to show his face?

She was still like a bullied little wife when she left, saying that Zhang Ruochen did not trust her.

Zhang Ruochen did not ask her to stay.

Since Guye Jing knew that he had the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, she would certainly help him in secret.

“Is it really a dead end? I can only force my way out if I can’t,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes turned cold. As long as the Intergold Tiger was willing to help and Blackie’s attainments in the array, it would not be difficult to break through the defense array of Enchanton.

As long as he left the city, his chances of escaping would increase significantly with his Power of Dimension and Time.

However, if he did that, not only would he become the target of public criticism, but the Xue Jue family would also be pushed into the limelight.

This was the last resort!

Moreover, as long as the Tensho Compass was still there, the Fane of Destiny would definitely chase him wherever he ran. Thinking of being chased by a group of top Supreme Saints and possibly even gods, Zhang Ruochen’s scalp went numb.

“Xunmu, come to the third meeting hall immediately.” Gu Yanzhi’s voice reached Zhang Ruochen’s ears.

Zhang Ruochen immediately changed into a black robe and transformed into Master Xunmu’s skinny appearance. He picked up the Staff of the Divine Envoy and headed to the meeting hall.

The third meeting hall was built underground and covered with many inscriptions of an array. It was a place for discussing important secret matters and was not usually open to the public.

When Zhang Ruochen arrived, hundreds of spiritual-power Saint Master had gathered outside the stone door of the meeting hall. Many of them were spiritual-power Saint Kings above level 50.

“It’s just a House of Enchanteurs under the Enchanter Chamber. How can it attract so many spiritual-power powerhouses?”

Zhang Ruochen was quite surprised. Of course, he did not believe that the Enchanter Chamber could train so many spiritual-power Saint Masters. Therefore, he secretly observed and found that more than 90% of these spiritual-power Saint Masters didn’t belong to the top ten clans. They came from small clans, and some even came from the mortal world of the Celestial Court.

It was normal. Which force didn’t have defectors?

Some powerful cultivators couldn’t stay in the Celestial Court. They could live comfortably on the edge of the Infernal Court.

“The third meeting hall has been activated. It seems like something big has happened.”

“Recently, many important figures have come to Enchanton. Each and every one of them is extremely powerful. It would be strange if nothing big happened.”

“I hope there won’t be any more top-notch Supreme Saint-level battles. As far as I know, more than 300 spiritual-power Saint Master died tragically in the last battle. Countless people were injured.”

“Stop it. My injuries haven’t fully healed yet. My spirit hasn’t recovered yet.”

“I joined the Enchanter Chamber because it was hard for my cultivation to improve. I just wanted to live happily for the last few decades. I didn’t expect that there would be so many major events these days. I don’t think it will end well.”

...

...

Listening to the discussions of the spiritual-power Saint Master, Zhang Ruochen thought to himself, ‘It seems like a good choice for a cultivator who is greedy for pleasure to join the Enchanter Chamber. He can have a beautiful woman to accompany him, and he can also get cultivation resources without too much danger.'

"Shh! Shut up quickly. A big shot is coming!" someone said.

The group of spiritual-power Saint Master immediately shut up, adjusted their appearance, and straightened their posture.

Footsteps sounded.

A group of cultivators in white robes came underground. They passed through the crowd and walked to the stone door of the third meeting hall.

Zhang Ruochen felt a mighty spiritual power fluctuation from this group of cultivators in white robes. Each of them was extraordinary. They were definitely spiritual-power Saint Masters.

The old man walking in the front had a silver sun, moon, and star mark on his forehead. His face was slightly chubby, and his black hair fell over his shoulders. There was an evil smile in his eyes, and his aura was powerful.

The spiritual-power Saint Master standing on both sides was trembling when he walked past.

One of the spiritual-power Saint Master's legs went weak, and he knelt on the ground, making a fool of himself.

Beside the elder was Bai Qing'er's disciple, Shang Yue.

Shang Yue was respectful toward the elder. It was clear that she was someone even a proud woman like her respected.

As for Gu Yanzhi, he could only follow at the back.

The old man glanced at the spiritual-power Saint Master kneeling on the ground. He grinned and revealed a mouthful of yellow teeth. He said, "Enchanteur Chamber is one of the top ten dark forces. Not everyone should be recruited. I will devour him first!"

The old man stretched out two withered fingers and knocked on the head of the spiritual-power saint.

Suddenly, the spiritual-power saint let out a shrill scream. His whole body twitched. The Saint Soul and spiritual power were all sucked away by the old man and sucked into his mouth.

All the spiritual-power Saint Master present were so scared that their faces turned pale.

“Uncle Duan, if you like it, Yue’er will buy you a batch of soul food right now.” Shang Yue’s voice was sweet and full of flattery. It was completely different from the viciousness when she attacked Zhang Ruochen.

“Let’s talk business first!” said Duan Lingfeng.

He smiled darkly. He waved his wide sleeved-robe and walked into the stone door.

The other Supreme Saints followed closely.

The cultivators who hadn’t reached the Supreme Saint Realm weren’t qualified to participate in the meeting. They could only wait outside.

All the spiritual-power Saint Master let out a long breath as the stone door closed. Many of them were drenched and scared.

Only after a long while did the spiritual-power Saint Masters communicate with each other through voice transmission.

“Did you see that? How powerful is the Supreme Saint Shang Yue’s cultivation? She actually had to accompany him. Just who is that old man?”

A spiritual-power Saint Master whose spiritual power was close to level 60 said, “Since Supreme Saint Shang Yue addressed that old man as Uncle-master and his surname is Duan, he is most likely that old monster who has lived for more than 20,000 years at the Enchanteur Chamber!”

“Are you talking about... Enchanteur Chamber’s Hand of the World? How could it be him? Didn’t you say he was already dead?”

“You can’t talk about such a figure. Don’t talk about him. With Senior Duan’s spiritual power attainments, we can’t hide our spiritual power from his perception.”

...

Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to release his spiritual power, but he still heard their voice transmission with the Heart of Truth.

The more he listened, the more shocked he became.

The Hand of the World?

Zhang Ruochen felt his scalp go numb. He quickly hid all his Spirits in the Heart of Truth, leaving only the 59th level of spiritual power.

The High-Saint Array Masters were divided into three levels: the Lord of Mountains and Rivers, the King of Sea and Land, and the Hand of the World.

Most of the High-Saints stayed at the Lord of Mountains and Rivers level.

Those in the King of Sea and Land level were already very rare.

On the other hand, the Hand of the World was an existence that could become a god's guest. They could turn around the clouds and rain in a major world. They could even use their fingers to draw a ninth-grade formation instantly.

Even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would not be willing to make an enemy of the Hand of the World.

Even an existence that had already become a god with spiritual power might not be able to reach the level of the Hand of the World.

An hour later, Gu Yanzhi and Shang Yue walked out of the stone door.

Gu Yanzhi's face was extremely solemn, and his hands could not help but tremble. He calmed himself down after a long while and swept his gaze over the spiritual-power Saint Master present. He said, "A major event is about to happen on Hoth, and everyone needs to participate in it."

Everyone said in unison, "We are willing to sacrifice for the Enchanter Chamber."

"Everyone, there's no need to be so nervous. It's not a big deal," said Shang Yue.

Shang Yue smiled and gestured to Gu Yanzhi.

Gu Yanzhi waved his sleeve, and balls of black light flew out and floated in front of him and Shang Yue.

In the black light, there were black stones of different sizes.

The stones were covered with strange patterns and emitted a divine aura.

“Every cultivator, come forward and receive a Genbu Pebble,” Gu Yanzhi said.

The spiritual-power Saint Masters were confused, but they also went forward to receive it.

The stronger the spiritual power of one, the bigger the Genbu Pebble one received.

When it was Zhang Ruochen’s turn, Gu Yanzhi chose a Genbu Pebble the size of a washbasin for him. He especially introduced him to Shang Yue. “Lady Yue, this person is called Xun Mu. He is a talented spiritual power cultivator in the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan. He has cultivated to the 58th level by himself. Recently, he’s broken through to the 59th level with the help of the resources of the Enchanter Chamber. His cultivation to Supreme Saint Realm is within reach.”

A spiritual-power Supreme Saint wasn’t a tiny figure in the Enchanter Chamber. He was qualified to enter the core level.

Gu Yanzhi naturally had to mention this talent.

Shang Yue glanced at Zhang Ruochen indifferently. Her gaze seemed to penetrate and see through him. Suddenly, her gaze moved to the wooden staff in Zhang Ruochen’s hand. She exclaimed, “Your wooden staff is interesting.”

Zhang Ruochen said in a hoarse voice, “Miss Yue, you have a sharp eye. My wooden staff was crafted from a divine tree branch and tainted with the water of darkness.”

Zhang Ruochen was not afraid that Shang Yue would covet the Staff of the Divine Envoy. After all, compared to her cultivation, ordinary treasures were already difficult to see.

Shang Yue did not look at it again. Zhang Ruochen tactfully retreated.

Zhang Ruochen carefully observed the Genbu Pebble in his hand and found that it was not a stone at all. It was a shell fragment of a divine beast, Genbu.

The fragment in his hand was engraved with hundreds of thousands of inscriptions of an array. Its level was very high.

‘The shell of a divine beast, Genbu, is one of the hardest materials in the world. The inscriptions on the fragment are even more wonderful than those of ninth-class arrays. What is the Enchanter Chamber plotting?’ Zhang Ruochen was puzzled.

After all the Array Saint Masters had received the Genbu Pebble, Shang Yue announced, “When you go back, familiarize yourselves with the inscriptions on the Genbu Pebble as quickly as possible so that you can activate it.”

A younger Array Saint Master asked, “May I ask what the function of this Genbu Pebble is? If it is for us to be familiar with it, are we going to work together to set up some arrays?”

Gu Yanzhi’s eyes darkened, and he said coldly, “It’s best not to ask questions that shouldn’t be asked.”

The Array Saint Master was stunned by Gu Yanzhi’s gaze, and he trembled for a moment, not daring to speak again.

Shang Yue’s voice was charming to the ear. She said sweetly, “Everyone will stay in the Governor’s Manor for the next two days. It’s best not to go anywhere. Don’t let any cultivator know about this matter, or else... Hehe, I hope to buy less soul food.”

The group of spiritual-power Saint Masters left the underground with fear and trepidation.

“Supreme Saint Shang Yue’s smile is so sweet and charming. Why do I feel so scared?” A spiritual-power saint muttered in a low voice with a pale face.

Zhang Ruochen examined the Governor’s Manor’s defenses and discovered that nearly all of the castle’s internal arrays had been activated.

If the array was set up to protect Enchanton, it would not be so strict that all spiritual-power Saint Masters were not allowed to leave the Governor’s Manor. There must be a secret operation.

Back in the yard, Zhang Ruochen pushed the door open and entered. He saw Blackie standing by the window, looking outside.

Zhang Ruochen did not ask where it had been these days. Instead, he took out the basin-sized Genbu Pebble. He said, “Help me look at the inscription of an array on it. By the way, haven’t you been bragging about how amazing your array is? Now that your cultivation has recovered, have your attainments in the array also recovered?”

Blackie took the Genbu Pebble. He snorted like a peerless master, “My attainments in an array are not bragged. At this moment...Huh? How is that possible? Where did you get this Genbu shell? Who carved the inscription of an array on the turtle shell?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “A High-Saint Array Master in the level of Hand of the World!”

“Duan Lingfeng of the Enchanteur Chamber?” Blackie asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You’ve heard of his name? Why? Are you scared?”

“Scared? My Martial Arts may not be the best below divinity, but the Path of Array is nothing to a mere Hand of the World.” Blackie laughed.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You said before that you can sweep everything under divinity. It turns out that you can’t sweep away an Enchanton.”

Blackie leaned over to Zhang Ruochen’s ear and asked in a low voice, “Is Duan Lingfeng coming to the Governor’s Manor?”

“He’s in the Governor’s Manor,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Goodbye. Forget that you saw me today.”

Blackie rushed out and was ready to leave.

Zhang Ruochen said, “All the arrays in the Governor’s Manor have been activated. From now on, anyone who dares to leave will be killed.”

Blackie stopped and retreated. He closed the door again, “My cultivation has just recovered, and I don’t have the materials to refine arrays, so I can’t refine a few powerful ones to protect myself. Otherwise, I’ll go and fight with Duan Lingfeng now.”

“It doesn’t matter. I have plenty of materials. You can refine a divine array if you want. The key is, do you have enough strength?” Zhang Ruochen said generously.

“Hehe, I will refine arrays. The more materials, the better. Just wait and see!” said Blackie.

Blackie stared at the Genbus shell fragment in his hand and exclaimed, “This is a corner of the inscription of the array of the Heaven-Devouring Genbu Formation. The Enchanter Chamber is really making a big move. No wonder they sent an emissary to contact the Avīci Pavilion.”

“The Heaven-Devouring Genbu Formation? To contact the Avīci Pavilion?” asked Zhang Ruochen as he was surprised.

Blackie pointed at the Genbu shell fragment and said, “The Heaven-Devouring Genbu Formation is meant to kill gods.”

“A divine array?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie shook his head and said, “No matter how powerful Duan Lingfeng is, he can’t set up a divine array. I guess he just borrowed the power of the Heaven-Devouring Genbu Formation. The level of the array is definitely not at the level of a divine array.”

“What does the Enchanter Chamber want to do? To deal with me? Is it to deal with the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny?”

Zhang Ruochen only said this casually. Suddenly, he thought of a shocking possibility. He stared at Blackie and said, “What did the emissaries of the Enchanteur Chamber talk about when they went to the Avīci Pavilion?”

Blackie spread out its claws and said, “I don’t know! I went to meet Han Xue. Before I left, I saw Ye Manman, the master of the House of Enchanters on Hoth.”

Zhang Ruochen covered his forehead and sighed. He said, “The master personally went to visit the disciple of the Master of the Avīci Pavilion. Didn’t you go back to check it out?”

Blackie was stunned for a moment and said, “Yes! You’re right... Well, why don’t I go and ask Han Xue now? No, I can’t go out! What should I do?”

Zhang Ruochen calmed down and said, “You said Han Xue came to Enchanton?”

“Of course. The most important mission of the Avīci Pavilion is to rescue the Nephilim Island’s master. And Hoth is the most important place to set up and manage after the rescue.

“It can be said that on Hoth, apart from the Hoth Palace, the Avīci Pavilion is definitely a top-notch force. They even have their influence in the Enchanter Chamber.

“So, what happened in Enchanton can’t be hidden from the eyes and ears of the Avīci Pavilion.

“I heard that something happened to you. How could Han Xue not come?” Blackie said in a matter-of-fact tone.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I have a bold guess. The actions of the Enchanter Chamber are most likely not aimed at me but at the Tensho Compass!”

Hearing this, Blackie gasped and said, “Is the Enchanter Chamber so bold?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Other cultivators in the Enchanter Chamber may not be so bold, but Bai Qing’er is. What do you think of this woman’s cultivation?”

“Her cultivation is quite high, but she is not as high as Wuma Jiuxing,” Blackie said seriously, which was rare.

Zhang Ruochen said, “But I think there are traces of Wuma Jiuxing’s moves, while Bai Qing’er gives me an unfathomable feeling.”

Blackie was stunned and said, “Do you think Bai Qing’er is stronger than Wuma Jiuxing?”

“It’s just a feeling. My cultivation is not high enough to see through the level of these powerhouses. Also, it makes me wary. The Seven-Armed Elder could escape from the pursuit of a pseudo god, but Bai Qing’er almost killed him,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie patted Zhang Ruochen’s shoulder with its paw and said, “You have suffered too much at the hands of women, so you are too cautious.”

Zhang Ruochen did not dare to underestimate his opponent as Blackie did. He had suffered enough at the hands of Bai Qing’er. He said, “Although Bai Qing’er was born in the Enchanter Chamber, her courage and boldness are the only ones I have ever seen, except for the gods.

“In the Divine Domain of Destiny, she dared to target the strongest side of the Seven-Armed Elder and set up a bet. She almost won the bet.

“The five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin guarded by 17 major forces were most likely stolen by her.

“She even used the Adjudication Division to deal with me.

“Thandee, Lord Huanxu, Cang Baizi, and Lord Ironclad all have a major force backing them. Yet, she dares to enslave these top-notch Supreme Saints.

“Thinking about it, it makes one shudder. It’s as if Bai Qing’er has all the major forces in the entire Infernal Court in her hands. Most importantly, all the major forces are still looking down on her. They don’t even treat her as a top figure. That’s the scariest part.”

Blackie’s sharp beak opened and closed twice, “Now that you mention it, this woman is extremely daring. There’s really nothing she wouldn’t dare to do. But why would she want to take the Tensho Compass? That is a divine artifact. Once it’s lost, the Fane of Destiny will fly into a rage. Although gods can’t interfere with the secular world, the power of those below divinity of the Fane of Destiny is also extraordinary. No force can compare to it.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “As far as I know, the Fane of Destiny has eliminated many dark forces with the guidance of the Tensho Compass. The top ten dark forces have all suffered significant losses because of it. In the past, some of the dark forces listed in the top ten were even completely wiped out.

“Maybe the Enchanter Chamber doesn’t dare to make a move on the Tensho Compass.

“But what if the top 10 dark forces join hands?”

Blackie said, “The Tensho Compass is big trouble for the dark forces. They are in constant fear. The Fane of Destiny’s influence is at its weakest now that all the gods have gone to the Jadeite Realm. They might really make a move.”

Zhang Ruochen smiled. “In Bai Qing’er’s eyes, I’m far from qualified to be her opponent. The only reason she wants to deal with me is the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.”

“Since Whitey has put all her focus into the Tensho Compass, won’t we be able to escape easily?” Blackie laughed.

“Even if Bai Qing’er takes action, she’ll definitely wait until she catches me. If I were her...” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and carefully guessed Bai Qing’er’s thoughts. Suddenly, he opened his eyes and said, “If I were her, I would definitely kill two birds with one stone. At the same time, I would seize the Tensho Compass and frame everything on the Heavenly Realm.”

“Why Heavenly Realm?” Blackie asked curiously.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Isn’t the reason why the Enchanter Chamber sealed off the Enchanton to capture the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm? Perhaps Bai Qing’er had already predicted that the Fane of Destiny would activate the Tensho Compass. If I’m not mistaken, The cultivators of the Heaven Realm who want to kill me must have contacted Bai Qing’er. It’s even possible that they’ve already reached Hoth.”

Blackie paced back and forth in the room. After a long while, he said, “If your guess is correct, then this Whitey is indeed a ruthless character. She’s playing a big game of chess. How can you win against others? There’s no other way. I can’t hide anymore. I’m also laying my cards on the table!”

“What are you talking about?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie pointed at Zhang Ruochen with its paw and said, “Just hear me out! Actually, I’m also a Hand of the World.”

Zhang Ruochen was not surprised at all.

“Give me some response? The Hand of the World was called a half-step Archsaint. The only difference was an Archsaint’s spiritual power was half a level lower. His attainments in array formations were no less than that of an Archsaint. He was not afraid of any enemies under divinity.” said Blackie as he looked at Zhang Ruochen expectantly.

Shouldn’t there be a look of admiration and awe on his face?

Zhang Ruochen thought for a long time and said, “You’ve said so much, but I still don’t understand. What is the difference between the Hand of the World and an Archsaint?”

Blackie really wanted to flap his wings and send Zhang Ruochen flying. He said very quickly, “There is actually no difference between the attainments of the Hand of the World and an Archsaint in array formation. The difference is the word arch of an Archsaint.

“The spiritual power of the Archsaint must reach at least level 69 and a half. After reaching that realm, when you set up the formation, you can break away from objects and directly use the precepts of heaven and earth to set up the formation. Moreover, the formation can mobilize the power of heaven and earth and transform it into the power of the formation. The power is endless.

“Of course, if the spiritual power of the Archsaint reaches level 70, it will naturally be stronger. No one below the true god is invincible. As for the pseudo gods, they will have to retreat when they meet the Archsaint with level 70 spiritual power.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “According to you, the difference between the Hand of the World and the Archsaint is not small!”

“It’s really tiring to talk to someone like you who doesn’t know anything about arrays. The Archsaint can only set up arrays by leaving the carrier and directly mobilizing the precepts of heaven and earth to transform them into inscriptions of arrays. The arrays set up by the two are actually equally powerful. The Hand of the World can also set up arrays that the Archsaint can set up.” said Blackie.

Zhang Ruochen nodded and asked, “What does level 69 and a half of spiritual power mean? The Middle-stage of level 69?”

“The middle-stage of level 69, the pinnacle of level 69, all belong to level 69. Level 69 and a half are above the pinnacle of level 69. It is a realm where you can peek into divinity and the mysteries of heaven and earth. It is the most difficult step for spiritual power to ascend godhood.”

Blackie was very proud. He said, “I’ve been trapped in the Sacred Qiankun Wooden Picture Scroll for 100,000 years by that Old jackass Xumi. My spiritual power has changed a lot. Now that my cultivation has recovered, my spiritual power must have improved by leaps and bounds. I believe that I’ll reach level 69 and a half soon. When that time comes, please call me the Heaven and Earth Archsaint Slaughterer.”

“After all that, can you defeat Duan Lingfeng?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie immediately walked up to Zhang Ruochen and glanced at the Ring of Dimensions in his hand. It said, “Duan Lingfeng is an old Hand of the World. He must have refined many powerful arrays that can be used at any time.

“If I want to deal with him, I must first refine an unparalleled killing array. I already have an idea. Once this array is refined, let alone Duan Lingfeng, even killing my way out of Enchanton will be a piece of cake.

“Isn’t Whitey pressing us step by step? When the time comes, we can just walk out and confront the leaders of the 19 forces. Once this array is refined, they will be scared to behave themselves and not dare to attack.”

Zhang Ruochen did not have much hope. Blackie is full of bluff even if he discounted his bragged by thirty percent.

However, Blackie’s attainments in array formations were not to be underestimated.

So Zhang Ruochen asked, “What array do you want to refine? How many materials do you need?”

“The demigod-level Great Array of Asterisms¹, also known as the Dragon Horse Star Chart². Of course, I also gave this array a more powerful name, the Grand Formation of Armageddon,” said Blackie.

Blackie looked very serious. He continued, “I don’t need many materials either. Just three Supreme Artifacts and 28 Regal Artifacts. It will be best if they are Class Three Regal Artifacts and above. In addition, I need 100,000 Godstones.

“It’s best to refine them into one set. So, we need a divine corpse. Only the divine corpse could bear the demigod array. The Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation refined by Duan Lingfeng uses the shell of a divine beast Genbu to bear it.”

Blackie didn’t even look at Zhang Ruochen’s face. He continued to speak with confidence, “You see, Duan Lingfeng is only the Hand of the World. He can’t directly transform the precepts of heaven and earth into the inscription of an array. It's also difficult to borrow a large amount of heaven and earth power. He can only mobilize a large number of spiritual-power Saint Masters to work together to activate the array.

“But my Grand Formation of Armageddon can be activated by the vessel spirits of three Supreme Artifacts and 28 Regal Artifacts. All you need to do is put many Godstones into the internal space of the sacred artifacts.

“Of course, these are only the main materials. You need thousands of auxiliary materials. You've collected so many treasures in the Dragon Temple ruins. The treasures will definitely be of use. I won't tell you everything. Just give me the Ring of Dimensions, and I'll look for it myself... cough, cough, what's with the look in your eyes?”

Blackie finally realized that something was wrong with Zhang Ruochen's eyes.

“I'm here to help you, not to steal your treasures. Think about it. Once the formation is complete, the gods and demons will fear us. Who dares to make an enemy of us? Celestial Court and Infernal Court will have to make way for us.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I have a few Supreme Artifacts on me. I have many Regal Artifacts. It'll be worth it if I can refine the Great Array of Asterisms and throw them in.”

“Then what are you worried about?” Blackie asked.

Zhang Ruochen really wanted to kick it. He thought, ‘Can't you see what I'm worried about? How many reliable things have you done?’

If Blackie failed to refine the array, the loss would be so significant that even the gods would cry.

Zhang Ruochen took out one Regal Artifact after another as a last resort.

Zhang Ruochen had seized many Regal Artifacts in both Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits and the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. The number of Regal Artifacts he had alone was comparable to the number of Regal Artifacts in a macroworld.

Blackie picked up a dark red spear. The body of the spear was simple and unadorned. Blood patterns interweaved, and it gave off a faint divine power. He couldn't help but be delighted. He said, "It's only a Class Three Regal Artifact. But it's also an ancient relic. It's a good cudgel."

"It's a Flame Sword made from flaming iron divine marrow and a Class Two Regal Artifact... Well, it's barely enough!"

...

Each Regal Artifact that Zhang Ruochen took out was extraordinary enough to make a Supreme Saint jealous.

Blackie, on the other hand, was very picky. It took a long time to select all 28 Regal Artifacts. Of course, not all of them were above Class Three. Many of them were still stuck in Class Two.

However, Blackie was already thrilled.

Its initial idea was to collect 28 Class One Regal Artifacts. It was already delighted. Unexpectedly, Zhang Ruochen was even more decadent than it had imagined.

No wonder many cultivators from Celestial Court and Infernal Court wanted to kill him. It was not without reason.

Although Zhang Ruochen was extremely lucky and had seized many beautiful women's resources, only the human cultivators were jealous of him because of this. He became the public enemy of the universe because he had more treasures than the gods, which was equivalent to a human treasure vault.

If Zhang Ruochen is not worth killing, then who else?

Blackie suppressed his excitement. He tilted his mouth and looked very disappointed. He said, "You want to set up the Grand Formation of Armageddon with these broken pieces of iron? In my opinion, you can only work on the Supreme Artifact. Otherwise, the power of the array will be worrisome."

Zhang Ruochen sneered and said, "I've never seen anyone refine an array that consumes so much as you."

"Your vision is not far enough! Compared to me, your Path of Array hasn't even reached an apprentice level." Blackie urged again, "Hurry up and refine a pseudo god level array. It won't be done in a day. How about this? Give me the Zangshan Demonic Mirror, Violet Gourd, and Sundial, and I'll make sure to make a killing array that can sweep the world."

"You wish," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen touched the Ring of Dimensions and took out a tower.

Blackie snatched it and looked at it for a while, "Shang Ziyang's Tower of Thousand Temperings? Although there was a supreme inscription in the tower, seven Tower of Thousand Temperings had to be added to make a complete Supreme Artifact. This one of yours is only one-seventh of a Supreme Artifact at most. Change it, hurry up and change it."

Zhang Ruochen said, "If you don't want it, give it back to me."

Blackie quickly put away the Tower of a Thousand Temperings and said, "Forget it. After all, it's a Supreme Artifact. Its power is at least stronger than a Regal Artifact. I'll make do with it!"

Zhang Ruochen immediately took out the Golden Crow Ancient Cauldron.

As soon as the cauldron was taken out, it shone brightly. Powerful energy waves rolled like waves in the divine sea.

Blackie's eyes were lit up with fire. It pounced forward and grabbed the Golden Crow Ancient Cauldron with its claws. It trembled with excitement. It said, "Finally, you're willing to take out a great artifact. With this cauldron, the Grand Formation of Armageddon has a base."

The Golden Crow Ancient Cauldron had been taken by Zhang Ruochen from the twin kings of Sunshine civilization in the ruins of the Dragon Temple.

This cauldron was once a powerful Supreme Artifact of the Sunshine Civilization. It was in the hands of the gods.

Later, it was damaged, and the vessel spirit was destroyed.

It wasn't until a new vessel spirit was born that it reached the level of a Supreme Artifact again. The twin kings brought it to Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits. In the end, Zhang Ruochen was the one who reaped the benefit.

The third item was the Divine Book of Light that Zhang Ruochen had taken from Zhou Yu.

Blackie took it, flipped through it, and then threw it away. He said, "It's just a replica of the Divine Book of Light. Although it's a divine imitation with the supreme inscription inside, it's still far from being a genuine Supreme Artifact. Moreover, one must cultivate the Path of Light to be refined and use this book. Change it, change it."

The real Divine Book of Light was a Divine Artifact stored in the Fane of Light. It was the most precious treasure of the Heavenly Realm.

Zhang Ruochen put away the Divine Book of Light and took 12 Swords of Judgment.

Zhang Ruochen took the 12 Swords of Judgment from the 12 Angels of Vengeance of the Heavenly Realm.

Blackie picked up the Swords of Judgment one by one, flicked them, and touched them. He said, “The 12 Swords of Judgment combined into one. It is indeed a Supreme Artifact, but each one is only a Regal Artifact. There are only regal inscriptions inside. The core is the most important part of the the Great Array of Asterisms.”

“The Tower of Thousand Temperings is for trapping, and the Golden Crow Ancient Cauldron is for suppressing. But we still need one for killing. Why don’t you give me the Zangshan Demonic Mirror?”

Zhang Ruochen put away the 12 Swords of Judgment and took out a dark metal cudgel with a strong aura of death.

This cudgel was taken from the Bone clan in the ruins of the Dragon Temple. Its original name was the Ugyen Cudgel.

Blackie’s eyes lit up again when it saw the Ugyen Cudgel. It mobilized the saint Qi in its body and injected it in. The cudgel became bigger and bigger, and the Supreme Power it gave off became stronger and stronger.

Fortunately, it was in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Otherwise, the power of the Supreme Artifact would have shaken the Enchanton.

“Such a fine treasure! Is there anything else?”

Blackie looked at Zhang Ruochen with anticipation.

Zhang Ruochen took out another giant ax. It was 30 meters long and dark. On both sides of the leaf-bladed ax was a sigil of a giant spirit general.

Although he did not use saint Qi to activate it, the murderous aura from the giant ax made Blackie shiver. It was as if countless souls were crying in his ears.

“Astral Titanos, a fine piece, this is it!”

Blackie pressed onto the Astral Titanos like a peerless beauty. It stroked the ax with its claws, “You took the Supreme Artifact of the Fane of Titans. Now I understand why you’re so sure that the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm will come to Hoth to kill you! You've taken so many Supreme Treasures of the Heavenly Realm. I'm afraid that the gods of the Heavenly Realm will go crazy with anger. They can't be at peace if they can't kill you."

The Astral Titanos was something Zhang Ruochen had taken from the six Celestial Titan Generals.

The Fane of Titans was very powerful in the Heavenly Realm.

"What other Supreme Artifacts do you have? Take them all out and let me pick them out again. The Tower of Thousand Temperings is so broken. I have to change it. Otherwise, the power of the array will be worrying."

Blackie wanted to snatch Zhang Ruochen's Ring of Dimensions directly.

Zhang Ruochen said, "The Tower of Thousand Temperings can suppress or trap. I think it's quite suitable."

Zhang Ruochen thought, 'He still wanted it?

'Dream On!'

"Okay, okay. Look at how stingy you are. You don't have the courage of a Yuanhui-level genius," Blackie shook his head and sighed.

How do you consider this stingy?

Even gods didn't have such big plans.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't be bothered with it. He took out thousands of refining materials and piled them into a small mountain. It was colorful and filled with treasure. Each material was worth a lot.

The value of these auxiliary materials was no less than half a Supreme Artifact.

As for the divine corpse Blackie wanted, Zhang Ruochen had considered giving it the Pink Skull's body.

However, the Pink Skull's body was stored in Qiankun Realm. Naturally, he had to give up.

So Zhang Ruochen took out the Divine Python's corpse and gave it to Blackie.

The Divine Python's body had been dug up from Kunlun's Northern Region. It had become one with the evil spirit. Unfortunately, the evil spirit had been severely injured in the battle with the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm in the Central Imperial City. It had been in a half-dead state.

Now that the Divine Python's corpse had been refined into the carrier of the the Great Array of Asterisms, the evil spirit could become the array spirit.

After making the necessary arrangements, Zhang Ruochen left Blackie in the Hall of Artifacts of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and went to the Hall of Cultivation.

There were seven palaces in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. The Hall of Artifact was where Wargod Bloodximius was used to refine artifacts. All kinds of materials needed for refining artifacts, saint furnaces, divine flames... they could satisfy Blackie's needs for refining arrays.

As for the Hall of Cultivation, it was where Wargod Bloodximius used to cultivate saint techniques.

The space in the palace was huge. There were unique arrays and divine marks on the walls and ground. Even if a high-level saint technique was used here, the destructive energy of the saint technique would be sucked away by the array. It wouldn't cause too much of a commotion.

In addition, there were also notes and experiences of Wargod Bloodximius cultivating the saint techniques. Each book was very precious.

Zhang Ruochen knew well that he couldn't put all his hopes on Blackie. He had to become stronger.

He took out the Pill of Desire. The light from the pill illuminated the ancient and luxurious hall.

It was a Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill. The Elixir Spirit was an adorable little girl. She was three or four years old. Her cultivation had reached the Thousand-Koan Realm. She wasn't fierce. Instead, she looked gentle and beautiful. It was hard to swallow.

Inside the pill, the little girl pouted and said pitifully, "Are you going to eat me?"

"As expected of the Pill of Desire's Elixir Spirit. It really hits the heart," Zhang Ruochen said.

The little girl's eyes turned red, "I've been a pill since I was born. I can't control my own life. I'm food for whoever my master gives me to," she said. "But I'm also a life. I want to live. I want to see the world outside. I want to have a happy childhood like a human child. "Can you let me go?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "You want to use my kindness to escape. If it were me in the past, I might really let you go. Stop pretending and show your true form!"

He pointed his finger and hit the Pill of Desire.

Suddenly, the little girl let out a miserable cry. Her face became ferocious and finally dissipated, turning into a white butterfly.

"It's time for me to break the last shackle and break through to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

"Desire, the most difficult level," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's sea of Qi had almost recovered, and his Saint Soul had also recovered to its pinnacle state. He did not want to wait any longer.

However, his desire was too strong. It was difficult for him to break through on his own. He could only break through with the help of pills.

He grabbed the Pill of Desire and swallowed it.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen's body was like a lamp that was lit up. It emitted a dazzling light. His mind instantly became clear. Many distracting thoughts were washed away like dust. His body seemed to become light.

It was a wonderful feeling. All the emotions squeezed out of Zhang Ruochen's heart, fear, guilt, difficulty, pain, and confusion, disappeared instantly.

“This is the time to break the shackles.”

Chapter 2484: Breakthrough Is a Success

The Shackle of Desire was located in the Saint Soul and was connected to consciousness.

Zhang Ruochen had the Heart of Truth and could sense the location of the shackle.

When he tried his best to break the shackle. Suddenly, he felt a sharp pain in his heart. He looked down and saw a blood-red sword tip in his heart.

The power he had accumulated to break the shackles was gone instantly.

Zhang Ruochen looked back in disbelief and saw a young and beautiful face. She had long black hair and intelligent eyes. She was a young version of Chi Yao.

The swallow pendant tied to her waist was blown by the wind and made a pleasant sound of a bell.

CRACK!

She drew the sword away.

Zhang Ruochen's heart and back were bleeding. He lost his strength and half-knelt on the ground.

Looking at the graceful figure who turned around and walked further away, Zhang Ruochen wanted to say something. Still, just as he opened his mouth, blood gushed out of his throat.

Finally, he fell to the ground and watched his most beloved woman walk further away. Her back became blurry.

He could not believe that Chi Yao, who had never killed anyone, and the innocent Princess Chi Yao, who loved to laugh and tease him, could kill him with one sword strike.

“This is all an illusion. Wake Up, wake up!”

The scene in front of Zhang Ruochen disappeared. He returned to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. His body was still tense. He gradually recovered from the suffocation and panted heavily.

That scene had happened countless times in his dreams or in his memories.

Even though he had learned the truth about 800 years ago from Chi Yao and Kong Lanyou, he still didn't seem to have completely let it go. He was lost at the critical moment of breaking the Shackle of Desire.

“Again.”

Zhang Ruochen calmed himself down, closed his eyes, and regained his power.

The saint Qi in his body circulated rapidly according to the ninth layer of the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture. The saint might that erupted from his body grew stronger and stronger, eventually transforming into a light pillar that erupted from the top of his head.

Just then, Chi Yao's voice rang in his ears. “I killed you because the blood of the Immortal Vampires, one of the ten clans of Infernal Court, flows in your body. Your mother was the Blood Empress, one of the three empresses of Kunlun 800 years ago. Is this reason enough?”

“You promised me that you wouldn't tell him this secret,” Kong Lanyou's voice rang out.

...

Zhang Ruochen's body trembled slightly. The light pillar above his head dimmed a little.

Chi Yao continued, “Emperor Ming used his powerful cultivation to seal the Immortal Vampires' blood in your body. This is why you couldn't break through to the Fish-dragon Realm in your previous life.

“The Blood Empress approached Emperor Ming to control him and the entire Shengming Central Empire to further control Kunlun.

“Someone has sent news that Emperor Ming has been controlled by the Blood Empress and has become her puppet.

“Do you think that I still have feelings for you? If that’s the case, I advise you to stop dreaming. In God’s eyes, you are only a useful chess piece.”

Zhang Ruochen’s reaction was fierce at first, but gradually, he calmed down. No matter what sound came from his ears, it could not affect him.

Just when he thought he was fearless and ready to break the shackles in one go.

Suddenly, he felt a chill on his forehead.

He reached out his finger and touched it lightly, and the snowflakes on his forehead melted.

Zhang Ruochen looked around and saw that the sky was full of snow.

A ball of colorful divine light was in the sky, sprinkling down strands of multicolored light. A 30,000-meter-tall deity statue rose from the ground, looking precisely like Chi Yao.

In front of him was a towering palace. The palace door was wide open.

Huang Yanchen, dressed in red, stood in the center of the palace door. She said, “Master told me that she doesn’t want to kill you today. She wants you to leave by yourself. She can spare your life if you behave yourself in the future.”

The scene flashed.

The Primeval Sword in Huang Yanchen’s hand stabbed into his chest.

The physical and mental pain dissipated the power that Zhang Ruochen had accumulated once again.

He failed to break the shackles for the second time.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He covered his chest with his hands, and his face was full of sweat.

The scene just now was exactly what happened when he went to Ziwei Palace on the day Chi Yao became a god. At that time, he and Huang Yanchen were entirely on opposite sides. They were no longer husband and wife.

“One more time. This little obsession won’t stop me,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and sat up straight. His eyes were as sharp as a knife.

After that, whenever he tried to break the shackles, he would be affected by all kinds of old events.

Sometimes, he heard the news of the Yunwu Commandery Prince’s death.

Sometimes, he would return to the day when the heads of his second senior brother, third senior brother, fifth senior sister, and Bai Su hung outside the Yin-yang Hall.

Sometimes, he would recall the moment when he killed Supreme Saint Manjian.

...

Zhang Ruochen used his strong will to forcefully suppress these distracting thoughts. His state of mind remained firm.

The Pill of Desire and the Heart of Truth was also helping him.

The Pill of Desire weakened the obsession in his heart.

The Heart of Truth helped him see through all kinds of falsehood and return to reality.

Breaking the Shackle of Desire was dangerous and difficult. The slightest carelessness could lead to the invasion of inner demons and turn him into an evil demon who had lost his mind. If Zhang Ruochen had not been in a critical situation, he would not have broken through to the realm now.

Who knew how much time had passed.

BANG!

A string-breaking sound came from Zhang Ruochen's body. Circles of saint Qi ripples spread out from his body in the Hall of Cultivation.

Blood flowed from the corner of Zhang Ruochen's mouth.

However, he smiled and said, "I managed to break through the realm by force!"

The Shackle of Desire had been broken.

He still hadn't reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Because, in addition to the 100 main shackles, there were thousands of minor shackles in a cultivator's body.

Of course, those minor shackles were nothing to be afraid of. It just took a long time.

Although Zhang Ruochen had successfully broken through the realm by force, the backlash was not light. Besides the cracks in his sea of Qi, his internal organs were also damaged.

Zhang Ruochen did not care about the injuries to his body. He immediately started meditating.

Because he had broken through the realm, the precepts in his sea of Qi increased rapidly. In less than 15 minutes, the precepts increased by 300 million. Then, they gradually slowed down.

Soon after, the Immortal Vampire's blood in his body couldn't be controlled anymore. It started to boil, and he had a strong urge to kill.

Swoosh

Ten golden wings span from his back, with the ley lines of the Progenitor flowing on them.

His spine became hotter and bulkier. Two bulges grew out of his back, and he felt a tearing pain.

Whoosh

The bulges were torn open, giving off a golden light.

This was a sign that the new golden wings were about to grow.

The Blood Qi in Zhang Ruochen's body quickly dried up, and his body became thin. His thirst for blood became stronger, and sharp teeth grew out of his mouth.

Only drinking blood could make up for the loss of Blood Qi.

He immediately removed a jar of divine blood from his Ring of Dimensions.

Zhang Ruochen opened the wooden jar, but his hand stopped.

His eyes were blood-red. Looking at the blood in the jar, the smell of blood seemed to become highly mellow. His fingers trembled for a long time. He threw the wooden jar out and took out one sacred medicine after another from his Ring of Dimensions. No matter what year it was, he stuffed it into his mouth with all his strength.

He gobbled up the sacred medicines. As he meditated, the precepts in his sea of Qi began to increase again.

On his back, the 11th and 12th Golden Wings gradually grew out, but they were in a half-solid and half-illusory state, like a chaotic light fog.

Zhang Ruochen didn't know how many sacred medicines he had eaten. He couldn't hold on any longer, so he stopped.

The bloodthirsty impulse gradually faded.

...

A month later.

Zhang Ruochen's cultivation had been completely consolidated. His physical injuries had long healed.

Zhang Ruochen thought, 'It's still too risky to break through the Shackle of Desire. Fortunately, I have the Pill of Desire and the Heart of Truth. Otherwise, it would have been more difficult for me to pass this stage than for Lord Xia Yu. I might have been stuck here for a thousand years or even 10,000 years.'

'Now that I've broken through the desire, I'm sure many cultivators who don't think highly of me will be shocked. Will the ranking on the Tome of the Divines improve a little?’

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that although he had cultivated the Grade Two Saintwill and displayed unparalleled talent, he still had a long way to go. However, countless cultivators and even gods in the Infernal Court still didn’t think highly of him. They believed it would be difficult for him to break through the Shackle of Desire, Thousand-Koan Realm, and Banshi Isshou Realm.

And he had to prove to those people that he wasn’t that weak.

Next, Zhang Ruochen began to summarize the gains and losses of this breakthrough.

First of all, the Pill of Desire and a large number of sacred medicines contained rich energy. After he broke through the realm, they transformed into precepts.

The original 7.5 billion precepts had increased to 7.9 billion.

Secondly, in the year since he broke the Shackle of Desire, Zhang Ruochen experienced many things. Although it was only a year, he felt that he had experienced many centuries and had a new view of many things.

His state of mind was changing.

The spirit he had been looking for seemed to have appeared and was buried in his heart. However, he couldn’t accurately grasp it. He still needed an opportunity.

Zhang Ruochen could clearly feel the surging divine power in his blood. The power of the Demigod-level physique was further released. His skin, muscles, bones, and internal organs were constantly cleansed and nourished by divine power. They were strengthening all the time.

After all, his current body had been nourished by the phoenix blood and Blood Empress’s own divine blood. The divine power contained in the depths of his bloodline was incomparable to any Supreme Saint.

His body, cultivation, and state of mind had all significantly improved. However, Zhang Ruochen wasn’t blindly optimistic.

He knew very well that he could break through the realm only because he suppressed his desires. When he reached the Thousand-Koan Realm, these questions would erupt even more strongly.

Zhang Ruochen's state of mind had undergone a great transformation. So, unlike before, he did not frown. Instead, he was pretty calm.

He will think about the Thousand-Koan Realm again when the time comes.

No matter what he was going to face, he had to face the difficulties head-on. He just had to accept them all and break through all the way.

Zhang Ruochen came to the Hall of Artifacts to check on Blackie's progress in refining the array.

In the Hall of Artifacts and implements, more than 100 owls were refining the array. All of them were Blackie's spiritual avatars.

Blackie's original body saw the thin Zhang Ruochen and said, "How come you've lost so much weight? Could it be... That Guye demoness is here again?"

"Don't talk nonsense! How about I find you a female owl and make you lose so much weight?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blackie looked surprised. He raised his head and looked at Zhang Ruochen.

"What are you looking at? I'm not a female owl," said Zhang Ruochen as he touched the tip of his nose. He felt uncomfortable under Blackie's gaze.

Blackie's eyes were complicated. "Why do I feel like you've changed a lot?"

"Have I? How have I changed?" Zhang Ruochen smiled.

Blackie was even more confident of his feelings, "I think you've become more optimistic and righteous," he said.

"You're not as gloomy as before. It's like you have a lot on your mind. It's like... you can do anything bad... Hey, what are you doing? You asked me to say it."

Within the Sundial's coverage, Blackie spent more than a year carving tens of billions of inscriptions of an array on three Supreme Artifacts and twenty-eight Regal Artifacts.

All kinds of auxiliary materials were also refined well.

Zhang Ruochen's heart, which had been hanging in the air, was slightly relieved. He said, "Is there any way to avoid the prediction and perception of other cultivators?"

Blackie thought carefully about Zhang Ruochen's question, thinking he was worried about the Tensho Compass. It said, "You have a god to help you cover up the secrets of heaven. In fact, you don't have to worry about being predicted. However, the Tensho Compass is no small matter. It is a Divine Artifact, after all. If the Divination Division goes to the Xue Jue Family and collects the utensils you used or the sacred robe you wore, it will be useless no matter how you hide within a certain distance."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "Of course, We can't avoid the Divine Artifacts' perception. I'm not talking about the Tensho Compass. I'm talking about Guye Jing. This demoness is hard to distinguish between friend and foe. She has big plans, but she also has a drop of my Supreme Saint's blood. She can find me anytime and anywhere. How can I get rid of this nuisance?"

"A drop of your Supreme Saint's blood? Does it contain your essence, Qi, and spirit?" asked Blackie.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Yes."

"You gave it to her?" Blackie asked again.

"You could say that!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Blackie sneered. "Then there's nothing you can do! The karma you planted can't be resolved."

Generally speaking, the blood of an injured Supreme Saint didn't contain the essence, Qi, and spirit of a cultivator. Even if they collected the blood, it wouldn't be easy to find the owner with the help of the blood.

Zhang Ruochen had divided out a drop of blood by himself. The blood contained his essence, Qi, and spirit.

Guye Jing had it. If she used a secret technique, it would be easy to find Zhang Ruochen.

Blackie said again, "Actually, you don't have to worry too much. Even if she has a drop of your blood, she must be within range to locate you with her spiritual power.

"Besides, she has absorbed a lot of your soul. Why are you still worried about a drop of blood? Unless you can kill her, this demoness might become a great nuisance and give you a fatal blow at the critical moment."

Zhang Ruochen said, "It's better to avoid enemies than make enemies. Before Guye Jing shows her hostility, it's better not to make enemies. I have enough enemies now."

Blackie hissed. It was hard to believe that such words came from Zhang Ruochen's mouth.

Zhang Ruochen was not like this in the past.

Even if it was just a potential enemy, Zhang Ruochen would strike first and kill him.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You don't have to be so surprised. I have my own observations. There is no personal grudge between Guye Jing and me because we only have a mutual interest. Perhaps we can become allies because of Luo Sha.

"Recently, I have been thinking about why I am enemies with everyone. Other than external reasons, perhaps there is a big problem with my previous way of doing things.

“If I treat potential enemies as enemies, they become enemies. But I’ve never thought about resolving the hostile relationship between the two sides.

“Some enemies may not necessarily be sworn enemies, but they can also become friends.”

Zhang Ruochen had such an understanding because when he broke the Shackle of Desire, he had experienced all kinds of things again. He found that some of his previous actions were too extreme. He lacked goodwill toward many people and many things and the patience to resolve conflicts.

For example, when he first met Kong Lanyou 800 years later, he didn’t believe her. He was even hostile toward her.

Another example, he had taken the initiative to assassinate the Maiden of a Thousand Stars because he worried she would take his Canons of Truth.

In fact, the Maiden of a Thousand Stars had never really killed him. In the end, the two of them were in the ruins of the Dragon Temple. They had been through thick and thin by chance. Not only did they resolve their hostility, but they also formed a friendship.

You are full of hostility to the world, so naturally, you are the enemy of the whole world.

No one wanted to be the enemy of the whole world.

Everyone wanted to have more friends.

As Zhang Ruochen thought about it, a flash of inspiration appeared in his mind. He seemed to have grasped a key point.

However, that flash disappeared again.

...

...

House of Enchanters.

Bai Qing’er had always been a very mysterious person. Even the cultivators in the Enchanter Chamber knew very little about her.

Because of this, the palace where she lived was rather cold.

Other than the owner of the House of Enchanters on Hoth, few people knew that she lived here.

Kai Luo had snow-white hair and a long beard. His beard was woven into a whip, and he wore a white jade mask. He stood in the middle of the hall with his hands behind his back, admiring the ancient painting hanging on the wall.

“It is a beautiful painting. Every stroke is a pattern of an array. If this painting is activated, it will become a ninth-class array instantly. It’s enough to suppress a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. The painter should be at least an array cultivator in the King of Sea and Land level,” said Kai Luo.

Bai Qing’er walked in from outside. Her entire body was covered in a black veil, and her face could not be seen clearly. Her voice was hoarse as she said, “This painting is known as Snow-covered Land. It is the work of Master Yun Qi from Hoth Palace. He is known as the top Array Master on Hoth.”

Kai Luo smiled and said, “This Master Yun Qi’s painting skills are not bad. Unfortunately, his Path of Array is very common.”

Very few High-Saint Array Masters could be called the “King of Sea and Land” in the entire Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan. Even some of the most potent worlds in the Celestial Court might not have a High-Saint Array Master at the King of Sea and Land level.

If his words were to be spread out, he would definitely be condemned by all the cultivators on Hoth.

Kai Luo was also straightforward. He picked up the brush on the table and drew a few strokes on the scroll.

Suddenly, the snowy scenery on the scroll changed significantly. Even if it was just hanging on the wall, it seemed like it would engulf the two people in the hall.

The array of the scroll instantly rose to a new level.

Bai Qing'er narrowed her beautiful eyes. This painting could probably be used to suppress a Supreme Saint in the Early-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. The Heavenly Realm had sent an incredible master over.

Kai Luo put down his brush. He thought that he had achieved in creating awareness among his opponents. He said, "All the treasures on Zhang Ruochen belong to the Heavenly Realm, including his life. Other than that, Zhou Zhen, Shentu Yunkong, and Lian Xi, I want them alive."

One of the four world overlords of the Heavenly Realm could be powerful if they were to discuss cooperation with a mere figure such as the Enchanter Chamber.

Moreover, this time, the Enchanter Chamber took the initiative to look for the Heavenly Realm.

Bai Qing'er said, "Everyone knows that Zhang Ruochen has countless treasures and the Canon that even the gods covet. If you take all the benefits, what will we get?"

Kai Luo laughed loudly. "Aren't you thinking about the Tensho Compass? The Heavenly Realm doesn't want to compete with you for this Divine Artifact, but you can push all of this onto the Heavenly Realm. Isn't this a benefit?"

Kai Luo was a brilliant person. He went straight to the point and revealed Bai Qing'er's schemes and plots.

He told her directly that the Heavenly Realm was willing to take the blame, but Zhang Ruochen belongs to the Heavenly Realm.

Bai Qing'er said, "Why do I need the Tensho Compass? Without the Canon of Destiny, I can't use the Tensho Compass. Instead, I'll make the Fane of Destiny furious."

"Zhang Ruochen has the Canon of Destiny. When the time comes, I'll give you 0.0001 of it," Kai Luo said.

Bai Qing'er was silent for a while and said, "Since you've seen through my plans, I won't hide it anymore. Yes, my goal is the Tensho Compass. This time, it will be mine for sure."

“Good. Before we do anything big, we should distribute the benefits first. We’ll carry out the plan according to your plan.”

Kai Luo nodded with satisfaction and said, “This time, apart from discussing the distribution of benefits, I have a gift for you. Perhaps at a critical moment, it can play an important role.”

Kai Luo stretched out a finger and drew in the void.

Space was like a piece of paper, and a rift appeared.

From the rift, a two-meter-tall iron cage flew out.

Nine sacred chains were wrapped around the iron cage. The other end of the sacred chains pierced through the chest and back of the old man in the cage.

The old man wore a broad scholar’s robe. His face was old and wrinkled, and his white hair fell over his face.

Bai Qing’er asked, “Who is he?”

“He was captured from Kunlun. His name is Shangguan Que, a cultivator of the Path of Confucianism. He is Zhang Ruochen’s teacher,” Kai Luo said.

Bai Qing’er said, “I’ll take it!”

“Farewell,” said Kai Luo.

Kai Luo tidied his clothes and walked out of the hall. Looking at the snowflakes flying in the sky, a long smile appeared on his face.

“The little girl is young, but she has a big ambition,” said Kai Luo.

How could the Heavenly Realm not want the Tensho Compass?

However, Kai Luo knew well that the Fane of Destiny was mighty. The price was too high if they wanted to take the Tensho Compass. With just the ten major dark forces, their persistence was futile.

Of course, if the ten major dark forces could inflict heavy damage on the Fane of Destiny, the Heavenly Realm would naturally not mind coming out to take advantage of them.

Bai Qing'er looked at Shangguan Que in the iron cage and was still deep in thought.

Shang Xia stood behind her and said worriedly, "The Heavenly Realm must know about our plan because they have people among the ten major dark forces."

"I'm not surprised! The ten major dark forces were not accepted by the Fane of Destiny because they had the support of the Heavenly Realm in secret. Some of the dark forces were even formed by the Heavenly Realm. In comparison, the Enchanter Chamber is relatively innocent!" Bai Qing'er said.

Shang Xia said, "Forgive me for being blunt, but we shouldn't have led the plan to seize the Tensho Compass, and we shouldn't have allied with the other nine major dark forces. Since the Heavenly Realm knows about it, how could the Fane of Destiny not know?"

"It's only interesting if everyone knows about it. I want to make this pond even more chaotic."

Bai Qing'er pointed at the Snow-covered Land on the wall and said, "Send this painting to the Governor's Manor and let Senior Brother Duan take a good look at it."

Shang Xia rolled up the painting and left.

Bai Qing'er waved her finger like a sword.

SWOOSH!

The nine sacred chains on the iron cage and Shangguan Que were broken, turning into pieces of scrap metal that scattered all over the ground.

Shangguan Que was still very calm. He sat on the ground and looked up at her.

"I heard that Kunlun developed the Path of Confucianism to its pinnacle at its most glorious time. It also gave birth to four great Confucius forefathers, all of whom were like supreme beings in the heavens. I am proficient in all the paths in the world, but I only heard of Confucianism's name yet never cultivated its path. Sir, could you be my teacher for a few days and teach me?" asked Bai Qing'er.

The black gauze on Bai Qing'er's body completely dispersed, revealing her beautiful face. She helped Shangguan Que up, her eyes sincere and modest.

"What about a few days later?" Shangguan Que said lightly.

Bai Qing'er said, "Zhang Ruochen's attitude will determine your future."

Chapter 2486: The Hoth Emperor and the Illuminated the Sea of Blood

Hoth Palace was on a snowy mountain 70,000 miles away from Hoth City. It was snowing all year heavily, freezing heaven and earth. As far as the eye could see, it was a vast expanse of white, frozen ground that had never melted since ancient times.

In front of the palace that was as white as immortal jade, there was an Icecrane standing on one foot.

Although it was carved out of ice, it had always stood there. Even the oldest cultivator in the Hoth Palace had never seen it melt before, let alone know who had created it.

The Supreme Saint core figures of the Hoth Palace were gathered in the main hall.

Qing Yulou sat at the highest position. He wore a pure white fox fur coat, and his face was exceptionally handsome. It looked like a young and gentle scholar. However, even an old cultivator who had cultivated for tens of thousands of years could not help but avoid looking at it.

Qing Yulou said, “Ever since the Hoth Palace was founded, it has abided by the Hoth Emperor’s divine decree and never interfered in the conflicts between any forces. “But now, someone has brought disputes and massacres to Hoth. All the major forces in the Infernal Court have sent their top powerhouses here. A bloody storm is inevitable. “Elder Yun Qi, how do you think the Hoth Palace can stay out of it and ensure the Peace of Hoth?”

Master Yun Qi was the most respected figure in the Hoth Palace. He had cultivated for over 20,000 years and had made extraordinary achievements in the Path of Array.

Before Qing Yulou had grown up, he had been the most incredible powerhouse of the Hoth Palace for nearly 10,000 years. His influence naturally went without saying.

All the Supreme Saints felt it was customary for Qing Yulou to consult Master Yun Qi.

Master Yun Qi sat on a sacred jade bench. He said lightly, “This matter started because of Zhang Ruochen. Naturally, it will end because of Zhang Ruochen. After 100,000 years, the Star-Shield Grand Formation on Hoth had been continuously strengthened. Even gods wouldn’t dare to be presumptuous, let alone a group of cultivators below divinity? I don’t think you need to worry, master. The storm will pass soon.”

Qing Yulou smiled and shook his head. He said, “You did not understand what I said. I am not worried that they will destroy Hoth. I am worried that the Hoth Palace will not be able to stay out of this.”

Master Yun Qi’s eyes narrowed.

Qing Yulou stood up; his robes hung low on the ground, and his gaze became colder and sharper. He said, “I heard the elders are very close to the Enchanter Chamber. This is not a good thing.”

The hall became unprecedentedly quiet.

All the Supreme Saints sensed an unusual atmosphere.

Master Yun Qi was still sitting. He smiled and said, “I only went to buy some resources to refine arrays. I have no personal relationship with the cultivators of the Enchanter Chamber.”

“But your painting, Snow-covered Land, is hanging in the Enchanter Chamber,” Qing Yulou said.

Master Yun Qi could no longer maintain his smile. He did not expect the young master to be able to find out such a secret.

Before Master Yun Qi could speak, Qing Yulou continued, "There is a group of cultivators from the Heavenly Realm who have sneaked into Hoth through the Enchanter Chamber. Hoth has strict control over the Supreme Saints of the Celestial Court. They were able to sneak into Hoth because of your connections, right?"

Although the Supreme Saints in the hall did not dare to comment or criticize, they looked at Master Yun Qi strangely.

Master Yun Qi's expression changed again and again until it turned ashen.

This was too detestable!

This junior had been secretly investigating him.

Furthermore, he did not give him face. If he told all the Supreme Saints in the Hoth Palace about this, what kind of prestige would he have in the Hoth Palace in the future?

Master Yun Qi said in a deep voice, "The reason why Hoth is so prosperous today is that it is a lawless land. It is not under the control of the Fane of Destiny and the Immortal Vampires. It is not the first time cultivators from the Heavenly Court have sneaked into Hoth and even the center of the Infernal Court. Why is master's tone so accusatory?"

Qing Yulou said, "On Hoth, there is no need to abide by the rules of the Fane of Destiny and the Immortal Vampires. However, Hoth has its own rules, which were set by the Hoth Emperor. Whoever dares to break his rules will become the enemy of the entire Hoth Palace."

After saying the last word, Qing Yulou's aura rose to its pinnacle. It was as if he had become ten thousand feet tall as he looked down at Master Yun Qi, sitting on the bench.

The Supreme Saints of the Hoth Palace were silent as they sensed the immense pressure.

"How powerful. Master's cultivation has already reached such a level. No wonder he dared to point the spear at Master Yun Qi.” said a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint who could not move as he looked up at Qing Yulou.

There was nothing he could do. In his sight, Qing Yulou stood in the universe. Its body was enormous, and it exuded boundless power. It was as if it could destroy the starry sky with just a lift of its arm.

This was what he saw, not what he imagined.

Master Yun Qi was the first to bear the brunt of the pressure, and the pressure he was under was a hundred to a thousand times greater than theirs.

Forced into a corner, he had no choice but to make the first move and press out with his palm.

As an array master at the King of Sea and Land level, he had lived for over 20,000 years. It could be said that Master Yun Qi was covered in array formations, and he had countless trump cards.

Three layers of formations appeared on his palm.

The first one was the Array of Five Mountains and Seven Rivers, carved on his skin.

The second one was the Array of Demonic Sea, hidden in his flesh and blood.

The third one was the Array of Nine Ghosts, carved on his bones.

The three arrays were ninth-class arrays. They could withstand a full-powered attack from a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

The three of them combined into one. The power of the combined array increased significantly, and it could kill a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

This was how mighty a well-prepared King of Sea and Land Array Master was.

“I only wanted to exchange the insights I gained from breaking through to become a Hand of the World. What’s wrong with that? You, a junior, want to use this opportunity to get rid of me and take control of the Hoth Palace. How vicious.”

Master Yun Qi’s attack was as fast as a streak of light as he struck Qing Yulou’s chest.

The three arrays stacked together, Five Mountains and Seven Rivers, Demonic Sea, and Nine Ghosts. Countless array inscriptions struck Qing Yulou’s body. Instantly, a blinding light burst forth and sent the other Supreme Saints in the hall flying like scarecrows. They were sent flying out of the hall.

Master Yun Qi’s eyes revealed a look of joy as he thought, ‘This kid’s talent is indeed shocking. Unfortunately, he is still too young. I spent three thousand years creating the Tri-element Array. Even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would not be able to withstand it. Furthermore, he was hit directly. His Paramount physique would probably disintegrate in an instant.’

Amidst the white light, Qing Yulou sighed. He said, “The elder has worked hard for the Hoth Palace all his life. I have never thought of killing you. I just think you should not go against the rules set by the Hoth Emperor. You should be punished.”

“How is that possible?” said Yun Qi.

Master Yun Qi’s expression changed.

Rumble

The Five Mountains and Seven Rivers were shattered, the Demonic Sea vanished, and the Nine Ghosts were dispersed.

The three ninth-class arrays were instantly shattered.

The powerful force erupted from Qing Yulou, broke through Master Yun Qi’s spiritual power defense wall, and sent him flying, his body crashing into the wall.

The bodies of spiritual power cultivators were very fragile.

As his bones shattered into pieces, crackling sounds could be heard coming from Master Yun Qi’s body.

The white light dissipated.

Qing Yulou revealed itself, and its body was utterly spotless.

“No... impossible... impossible... you...” said Master Yun Qi. His eyes were filled with unwillingness, astonishment, doubt, and even a hint of fear.

Several Supreme Saints who had sustained minor injuries in the Hoth Palace rushed in from outside the palace hall.

They could not believe what they had just seen. They felt that they had underestimated this young master.

They bowed simultaneously and asked, “Master, what should we do with elder Yun Qi?”

Qing Yulou waved his hand and said, “Take him away to recuperate. Take good care of him. After he recovers, he can not leave the Hoth Palace for a hundred years.”

Master Yun Qi had a complicated look in his eyes. He mobilized his spiritual energy and shook off the two Supreme Saints trying to help him. His body floated up, and he flew out of the hall.

“From now on, I will only study arrays and painting techniques. I will not leave the Hoth Palace again.”

A hoarse and frustrated voice drifted in from outside the hall.

Qing Yulou smiled and shook his head gently. He said, “He is already over 20,000 years old. He should put aside the matters of the outside world. He should cultivate his body and focus on his hobbies. He can reach a different path and step into the spiritual power realm.”

Whoosh

A Communication talisman flew through the 3,000 snow mountains like a shooting star and into the palace.

Qing Yulou reached out and saw the contents of the Communication talisman. His amber-like eyes narrowed.

“Master, what happened?” A Supreme Saint asked respectfully.

“The Overseer from the Divination Division has arrived on Hoth and is heading straight for Enchanton!” Qing Yulou said worriedly.

A long crane's cry sounded outside the Hoth Palace.

The Icecrane that had not melted for countless years came to life. It spread its crystal clear wings and sprinkled down divine light.

Master Yun Qi, who had flown far away, was greatly shaken when he heard the crane's cry. He widened his eyes and looked back at the peak of the snow mountain. He said tremblingly, "It has been twenty thousand years. Twenty thousand years. The Icecrane has awakened again. It has finally awakened!"

Master Yun Qi's face was filled with tears. He knelt on the one-foot-thick mountain path and kowtowed to the Hoth Palace.

The crane's cry spread throughout Hoth.

The divine light in the Hoth Palace illuminated the entire planet. The clouds in the sky turned blood-red as if they had turned into a sea of blood.

...

In the Governor's Manor of Enchanton.

Blackie pushed open the window and looked up at the sky. His expression was complicated. "The Hoth Emperor has come out. I'm finally relieved!"

Zhang Ruochen also looked at the divine light of the blood sea in the sky. He crossed his arms in front of his chest and said, "There's no divine power, but no one can compare with this power. As expected of the Hoth Emperor, Xia Huangchao."

After Blackie mentioned the Hoth Emperor, Zhang Ruochen became curious and found some information about the Hoth Emperor in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The Hoth Emperor, Xia Huangchao, was once the young master of the Fane of Immortality. 100,000 years ago, its combat strength was no weaker than the old master of the Fane of Immortality.

After the old master died in battle, he should have taken over the position of the new master. However, because he had let an important enemy go in the divine war, he made a big mistake and imprisoned himself on Hoth.

This was a character that even Wargod Bloodximius admired!

Blackie laughed. “Since the Hoth Emperor has come out of seclusion, even if the gods have come to Hoth, they must behave themselves. They don’t dare to make a move. They must have gone to the Hoth Palace to pay their respects! The array has been set up. Zhang Ruochen, let’s go. Today, we will activate the Grand Formation of Armageddon. Anyone who stands in our way will be killed without mercy.”

Chapter 2487: Charged into the House of Enchanteurs

On the highest stargazing platform in the House of Enchanteurs, more than ten leaders of the major forces of the Infernal Court were gathered.

Ling, Luo Shengtian, Guye Jing, Huo Xing, Zhuo Yunong, Yanhuang Tu... they were all among them. Each of them was a famous existence with a robust background.

At this moment, they looked up at the sky, the shining sea of blood.

The Overseer of the Divination Division had brought a Divine Artifact to Hoth, and the Hoth Emperor had come out of seclusion. This wasn't a coincidence. Could it be that activating the Divine Artifact had angered him?

As the top powerhouse of the Fane of Destiny, Zhuo Yunong was extremely calm.

Gods couldn't interfere with the secular world. Even if the Hoth Emperor came out of seclusion, it wouldn't change Zhang Ruochen's Destiny.

Besides, with the Hoth Emperor's cultivation, looking at them was like seeing a group of children fighting. How could he interfere?

The master of the House of Enchanteurs, Ye Manman, was a beautiful woman in her twenties. Her jade back was exposed, and a pair of broad wings of light floated on it. She looked very flirtatious, but her eyes were deep and reserved. Her actual age was more than ten thousand years old.

She arranged a row of maids to put all kinds of precious soul food, sacred fruits, sacred meat, and blood wine on the table.

“Since the Hoth Emperor has come out of seclusion, we should not make a big deal out of today’s matter, and we should not be stained with the smell of blood. I thought that as long as Zhang Ruochen handed over the Seven-Armed Elder and the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, we would let him go,” Ye Manman said softly.

“Let him go? He and the Seven-Armed Elder have disturbed the order of the Divine Domain of Destiny and even killed Xing Qian and Cang Baizi. How can we let him go after causing all that? Lord Judge, do you think we can let him go?” asked Yuan Benji.

After Yuan Benji finished speaking, he cupped his hands slightly and looked at Zhuo Yunong, who had kept his eyes closed.

“If he really did this, the Adjudication Division won’t let him go. When we return to the Fane of Destiny, I’ll go and ask for forgiveness from Fukurokuju,” Zhuo Yunong said.

A smile appeared on Yuan Benji’s face depicting “It should be like this.”.

He knew very well that the Adjudication Division had always regarded Zhang Ruochen as a heretic and wanted to eliminate him. However, Zhang Ruochen had the protection of Wargod Bloodximius, Fukurokuju, and Luo Yan, so he couldn’t kill him at will. He had a good teacher.

Luo Shengtian snorted, “You want to convict the top figure in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting just because of the one-sided words of a woman from the Enchanter Chamber. You have no respect for the Xue Jue Family and Devala.”

Yuan Benji was not afraid of Luo Shengtian’s identity. He sneered and said, “Is the Divine Prince tying Devala and Zhang Ruochen together? Could it be that Devala secretly instigated and supported Zhang Ruochen’s actions? Could it be that the Divine Prince has already obtained a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?”

Luo Shengtian was furious. His eyes shone with divine light. He said, "You'd better be careful with your words. Otherwise, your brother won't be able to save your life."

"Everyone heard that the Divine Prince wants to kill me. If anything happens to me, it will definitely be Devala's doing," Yuan Benji said with a smile.

Luo Shengtian was so angry that he was trembling. He was ready to attack.

Yan Hanyi stopped him. He said in a low voice, "Originally, it was because of his brother that I dared to ignore your identity as Divine Prince. However, his cultivation is extremely powerful. Your Highness has just broken into the Thousand-Koan Realm not long ago. Don't let your emotions get the best of you."

Ling said, "What's the point of arguing now? When the Overseer arrives, activate the Tensho Compass and capture Zhang Ruochen, we'll know everything."

"Yeah, we'll know if the Seven-Armed Elder and the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin are with Zhang Ruochen or not. Haha!"

Yuan Benji raised the ancient bronze cup and gestured to Luo Shengtian to drink a mouthful of the Soul Springwater.

...

Bai Qing'er sat in a palace not far from the stargazing platform and played chess with Shangguan Que. She said, "I admire your chess skills. Have you taught Zhang Ruochen your chess skills?"

The chess platform landed under a giant willow tree.

The snowflakes falling from the sky would melt near the willow tree and turn into wisps of white clouds.

Shangguan Que said, "Ruochen learned everything as fast as you, but he doesn't like to play chess. He said the chess game is too complicated and all kinds of arrangements are tiring. Only a scheming person would study it."

“That’s troublesome! Won’t he be unable to break the dead end today?” Bai Qing’er said.

Shangguan Que twirled the black piece and wanted to place it. Hearing this, his hand suddenly stopped, putting the piece back into the box. He said, “For people who don’t like to play chess, they can actually break the dead end.”

Bai Qing’er smiled faintly. “Teacher, please enlighten me.”

BANG!

Shangguan Que waved his hand and chopped down, splitting the chessboard.

The black and white chess pieces fell to the ground.

“If you don’t like to play chess, then you can break the game,” Shangguan Que said.

Bai Qing’er was very calm. She stood up and outlined the most beautiful scene under the willow tree. She looked at the stargazing platform, suddenly becoming noisy as if something incredible had happened.

Was the Overseer of the Divination Division here?

“That’s... Zhang Ruochen. He actually showed himself.” said Bai Qing’er.

Ye Manman looked at the long white street covered by ice and snow in the distance. Zhang Ruochen and a human-sized bird were walking in the middle of the street towards the House of Enchanters. Wherever they passed, a hurricane suddenly rose and whistled.

All cultivators of the major forces looked over in disbelief.

“This kid is courting death,” said Luo Shengtian. He was worried because he knew very well that everyone was coveting the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. They also knew that the Adjudication Division was determined to kill him.

Guye Jing shook her head gently and frowned.

She had thought that Zhang Ruochen would use the Path of Dimension to break through the array of the Enchanton and escape. Only then would there be a chance of survival. She didn't expect that Zhang Ruochen would be so bold as to come straight to the House of Enchanters.

Did he think that no one would dare to kill him because of his special status?

What should she do now?

She wanted to help him secretly, but now she didn't dare to act rashly. After all, no cultivator dared to risk the world's condemnation and make enemies with more than a dozen top major forces.

Yuan Benji was in disbelief. He stood up excitedly.

Huo Xing of Roopkund Sea said in a gloomy voice, "What is that strange bird beside him? Is it a condor?"

"It's an owl. It's known as the Heaven and Earth Slaughterer. Its cultivation is extraordinary," Ye Manman said.

Huo Xing smiled disdainfully. "It's only interesting if it's high. I can roast it and eat it."

The cultivators in the House of Enchanters weren't the only ones who saw Zhang Ruochen.

In Enchanton, some forces didn't know about the birth of the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin. They were purely here to gather information, but they were also alarmed.

Bai Qing'er was silent for a long time, "Zhang Ruochen's actions are a bit unexpected. His courage isn't something ordinary cultivators can compare to. Unfortunately, his cultivation is too weak. It's far from enough to overturn the chessboard. A strong man can break the chessboard with his power. A weak man can only be a mantis trying to stop a chariot by doing this."

Shangguan Que sighed and closed his eyes.

...

Blackie walked beside Zhang Ruochen. He swayed and dragged his body. The wind power overflowed from his body, giving people a strong and wild attitude.

“Can you stop the wind?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“No. This is my first true battle after I recover my cultivation. I must be high-profile. If the Hoth Emperor didn’t come out of seclusion and make the blood fog cover the sky, I would have to create some heaven and earth phenomena,” Blackie said stubbornly.

Zhang Ruochen found it hard to imagine that Blackie was an old monster who had lived for more than 100,000 years. He was second to none.

How could he be calm?

Blackie said again, “I’m still curious. Why don’t we just fight our way out of the Enchanton? Why go to the House of Enchanteurs to meet those people?”

“For Bai Qing’er,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie shook his head, “Are you going to confront her? It’s no use. Among those forces, most of them have a grudge against you. But few have a grudge against her. Moreover, many of what that Bai lady said were facts and reasonable. But what you said couldn’t be explained in many ways. If it were me, would I believe her?”

“I don’t ask them to believe me. I just want to remind them to be careful of Bai Qing’er. At the same time, I want to set up a trap so that they can’t judge the truth.” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen continued, “If I fight them directly, even if I get away, I’ll be hunted down endlessly. This will confirm that I have the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. However, meeting them will make them suspicious. They won’t ignore Bai Qing’er in the future. With them holding Bai Qing’er back, I would have an easier time. I have to go.”

The journey was smooth. Zhang Ruochen and Blackie entered the House of Enchanteurs and flew up to the stargazing platform.

All the cultivators’ eyes fell on Zhang Ruochen. Some even took out their artifacts and were ready to attack at any time.

Almost every Supreme Saint present had cultivation far higher than Zhang Ruochen's.

However, under the suppression of their saint might, Zhang Ruochen was calm and collected. He picked up a sacred fruit on the table and took a bite. He laughed heartily and said, "I heard that a cultivator from the Enchanter Chamber accused me of stealing a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. I wonder, does that cultivator dare to come out and confront me?"

Blackie saw that Zhang Ruochen was not imposing enough, so he shouted at the side, "Confront me face to face."

Zhang Ruochen said again, "You seem surprised to see me. Don't be surprised. I, Zhang Ruochen, have been through a lot. I've seen all kinds of things. Some clowns can't scare me."

Blackie shouted, "They can't scare me."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Bai Qing'er, I'm here. Why don't you show yourself?"

Blackie shouted, "Why don't you give yourself to me?"

Originally, Yuan Benji snorted and walked out of the crowd. His body was filled with death qi like lines. He said, "Zhang Ruochen, you're like a coward. You've been hiding for so long. Are you finally willing to come out? It seems that you know that the director of the Divination Division has arrived on Hoth."

Zhang Ruochen stared at him and said, "Who are you? Tell me your name."

Blackie roared, "Tell me your name."

"Yuan Benji."

Yuan Benji had his hands behind his back and looked away. He looked at the sky from the corner of his eyes and deliberately showed contempt.

In his opinion, Zhang Ruochen would definitely show fear after he told him his name.

“I am the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius. I represent the face of the Xue Jue family. I am also the owner of the Destiny Token and represent the Fane of Destiny. If you dare to humiliate me, I will kill you today.”

Zhang Ruochen touched the Ring of Dimensions with his finger. He pulled out the Ugyen Cudgel, a Supreme Artifact, and slashed it at Yuan Benji’s head.

“I will kill you.”

Blackie roared. It clenched its claws with both hands and clawed at Yuan Benji’s lower body.

The attacks were coordinated perfectly.

The sudden change not only shocked Yuan Benji but also the other cultivators. They all stepped back in shock.

What was going on?

There were so many influential figures here. How could Zhang Ruochen dare to make the first move?

Yuan Benji had achieved Banshi Isshou Realm in cultivation, and he had survived thousands of battles. Although Yuan Benji hadn't expected Zhang Ruochen to make a decisive move, he was surprised for a moment. But soon, he was overjoyed.

He had been worried that he wouldn't have a chance to teach Zhang Ruochen a lesson, but he hadn't expected him to come to him.

Before finding the Seven-Armed Elder and the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, Yuan Benji couldn't kill Zhang Ruochen. Still, he could teach Zhang Ruochen a lesson and even cripple his cultivation.

Crippling a Yuanhui-level genius was enough to make him famous in the Infernal Court and even leave his name in the history books.

Moreover, it was also to avenge his elder brother and save the face of the Yuan family.

"It was you, Zhang Ruochen, who took the initiative to attack. Then, even if I am crippled, the Xue Jue family won't have the face to trouble me. Hehe!"

Thousands of thoughts flashed through Yuan Benji's mind. Then he let out a long howl. "Since you want to kill me, Zhang Ruochen, I will fight you to the death today."

Hearing this, Luo Shengtian was so angry that he trembled again. He felt that Yuan Benji was shameless to the extreme.

A Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm fought with a Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, yet he shouted, "Fight to the death with you."

'What was he trying to do?'

'Was he trying to take the opportunity to kill Zhang Ruochen?'

"Don't Worry, Your Highness. If Yuan Benji dares to kill the prince consort, I'll intercept and save him." Yan Hanyi transmitted his voice to Luo Shengtian.

Luo Shengtian was very angry. He was not only mad at Yuan Benji but also at Zhang Ruochen.

'I am already in the Thousand-Koan Realm, yet I still have to endure the anger in my heart. You are a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, yet you are so reckless to attack Yuan Benji. Aren't you asking for trouble?'

"What else can I do? He has already attacked. I can only..."

Before Luo Shengtian could finish his words, there was splattered blood on the stargazing platform. With an ear-piercing scream, Yuan Benji was sent flying.

BANG!

Yuan Benji fell to the ground and covered his bleeding lower body with both hands. His entire body was twitching. It was evident that the pain was so great that even a Supreme Saint could not stand up.

Apart from a few Supreme Saints who were aware of Blackie's strength, the rest of the present cultivators retreated again.

Huo Xing, who had previously claimed that he would roast Blackie and eat him, was shocked. 'This owl was actually so powerful and... very sinister.'

Yuan Benji was actually very cautious. He knew that although Zhang Ruochen was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, his combat strength was strong. Moreover, he had a Supreme Artifact in his hand, so he couldn't be underestimated.

That was why he focused all his spiritual power on Zhang Ruochen and struck out a Thousand-Koan level saint technique print.

But who would have thought...

Who would have thought that the parrot-like owl, which he had ignored, could break his protective Precept Domain and Saint Armor with one claw?

‘What are you?’

‘If its cultivation is so high, why do you look like an idiot?’

Yuan Benji realized that this was a conspiracy, a conspiracy against him. The reason why the owl acted like an idiot was to numb him.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Supreme Artifact and launched an attack to distract him.

I was careless! I didn’t expect Zhang Ruochen to be more sinister and cunning than me.’

Yuan Benji gritted his teeth, and his eyes were extremely vicious.

Injuries were minor, but the humiliation was great. Yuan Benji had to get his face back.

Whoosh

The Death Qi between heaven and earth gathered toward his lower body. His injuries recovered quickly.

Yuan Benji stood up and summoned a silver trident. “Today’s humiliation is irreconcilable. If I don’t kill you two, what will I look like in the Infernal Court from now on?”

Hundreds of billions of Precepts surged from Yuan Benji’s body, condensing into a strange Precept Domain world.

In that world, the sky was dark and thousands of miles away. Towering stone pillars stood there, either in the form of gods or Buddhas, like lions roaring in the sky or giant swords growing on the ground.

Zhang Ruochen was pulled into his Precept Domain world. He held the Ugyen Cudgel and said, "I alone am enough to kill you."

The opportunity to become famous was right in front of him. How could he miss it?

'I could not let Zhang Ruochen steal the limelight!'

Blackie's body immediately expanded ten times and turned into a giant owl. He said, "Let me do it! This man has insulted you too much. His crime is unforgivable. Go warm a pot of wine and watch me kill him with one claw."

Blackie flew out with a swoosh and used his wings to cut through the layers of barriers in the Precept Domain.

He flew to the sky above his originally silent head. He spat out a mouthful of Eternal Fire from his mouth, scorching Yuan Benji.

The flame's temperature was so high that it instantly burned through the Precept Domain world and spread to the star observation platform.

"Eternal Fire."

Ye Manman's expression changed. She took out a talisman from her sleeve and threw it out.

Dense runes flew out of the talisman and interwoven into an independent space to prevent the Eternal Flame from burning down the stargazing platform and even the entire House of Enchanteurs.

A few Supreme Saints also attacked. They released a Precept Domain to help Ye Manman.

"So it's not an owl. It's a Phoenix. And that Phoenix seems to have reached the Paramount Realm. Zhang Ruochen has such a powerful figure by his side. Is he the protector left for him by Wargod Bloodximius?" asked Ling.

Luo Shengtian was in a good mood. He activated his Divine Eye to see how Yuan Benji had been burned by the Eternal Flame?

BOOM!

A ghost cultivator in ancient armor turned into a black light column and descended from the sky onto the stargazing platform.

He held a two-meter-long broadsword in his hand. He split open the runes and rushed into the Eternal Flame. He carried Yuan Benji, who had been burned to half a body. To be exact, it carried a black human-shaped piece of charcoal.

“That owl’s Eternal Fire is too terrifying. In just a breath’s time, Yuan Benji lost half of his life. He would have turned into ashes and lost all his vitality if it was any later.”

“Since the eidolon has appeared, Yuan Qianmo should have arrived by now!”

...

Blackie used its wings to cut through the space formed by the talisman and pounced on the eidolon and Yuan Benji. It roared, “Who dares to save the person I want to kill?”

The eidolon’s body was 3.6 meters tall. The broadsword in its hand slashed out like a door.

Five layers of regal inscriptions surged out of the sword, shooting a blinding sword light.

Blackie’s claws collided with the broadsword.

BOOM

The eidolon’s arm exploded, and the broadsword in its hand flew out.

Seeing that Blackie was about to crush its ghost body with one claw, its powerful claws were blocked by two slender fingers.

Yuan Qianmo stood beside the eidolon at some point in time. With one hand behind his back, he formed a sword finger with the other hand and hit the center of Blackie's Claw. He murmured, "Go back."

A circle of energy ripples gushed from his finger and Blackie's claw.

Blackie flew back. When it landed on the ground, its body returned to its original size and staggered back a few steps. Only then did it regain its balance. The madness in its body was significantly reduced, and it looked at Yuan Qianmo with a highly solemn gaze.

"It's him."

Zhang Ruochen stared at Yuan Qianmo.

After the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, Xue Tu warned Zhang Ruochen to be careful of Yuan Qianmo. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen deliberately looked up his information. Naturally, he had a good understanding of the legendary master who ranked first on the Divine Ascension Ranking.

Yuan Qianmo had long, snow-white hair, but there was no sense of vicissitudes. On the contrary, he was cold and elegant. He was a man that could make all the women in the world fall in love with him.

After his appearance, all the female cultivators present were indeed attracted to him.

"The Phoenix of the nine deaths actually appeared in this era. It's interesting. Unfortunately, it's not as strong as the legends say."

Yuan Qianmo said this indifferently. Then, he stretched out his spotless hand and pressed it toward Yuan Benji.

Immediately, the Eternal Flame that had invaded Yuan Benji was extracted entirely. It turned into a flame seed and appeared in Yuan Qianmo's palm.

Yuan Qianmo drew his five fingers back. The Eternal Flame was extinguished with a whoosh.

On the ground, Yuan Benji, reduced to half a piece of charred charcoal, began to emit a thick aura of death. His body quickly recovered and returned to its human form.

The vitality of a Supreme Saint was just that strong.

A Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm had even stronger vitality. As long as he was not completely dead, he could quickly reassemble his body.

Yuan Benji's aura was fragile. He did not dare to raise his head to look at Yuan Qianmo.

"This is a Great Restoration Pill. Take it and consume it."

Yuan Qianmo took out a jade box and handed it to Yuan Qianmo.

"Thank you, Qianmo."

Yuan Benji quickly took the pill. This time, he misjudged his opponent. Not only did he suffer serious injuries, but his cultivation was also significantly damaged. Without a hundred years, he would not be able to recover to his pinnacle condition.

However, with this pill, he could recover very quickly.

The Supreme Saints present were all amazed and envious.

Even Zhang Ruochen was amazed, not to mention them, 'I helped the Immortal Vampires win first place in the ten clans. I was only rewarded with a Great Restoration Pill. I've been reluctant to take it. Yuan Qianmo gave one away so casually. As expected of the top master below divinity. He has a deep foundation.'

The Great Restoration Pill was a Quasi-Emperor Grade healing pill. It couldn't be bought with Godstones.

Blackie sent a voice transmission to Zhang Ruochen. "Be careful. This person is not to be trifled with."

When Zhang Ruochen was examining Yuan Qianmo, Yuan Qianmo finally shifted his gaze from Blackie to him. "Forgive Benji as he was in the wrong first. No one is to be blamed for this disaster."

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, "Finally, a sensible person."

If it had been other shrewd cultivators, they would have pretended not to hear Yuan Benji's words. They would not have made such a big fuss.

Zhang Ruochen had heard all kinds of insults, so he was calm. Of course, he did not take them to heart.

He had attacked because he did not want to appear subservient and make everyone feel guilty.

The more powerful he was, the more people would wonder if he had the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?

The more confident he was, the more people would believe his words.

“I’ve been wronged. I’m a victim. The superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin isn’t with me. Whoever dares to slander me, I’ll fight to the death with him.” Zhang Ruochen had to send this message to everyone.

Yuan Qianmo looked around, “Since you and the Enchanter Chamber have different opinions,” he said, “It means someone must have lied. The person who lied must know where the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is. Then, ask Miss Bai to come out. I’m really looking forward to it. I also want to know who is so capable that he can manipulate everyone. This person must die!”

Bai Qing'er, dressed in a thick, jujube-red robe, stepped onto the stargazing platform and appeared before everyone's eyes in the face of the cold, drifting snow.

Her gentle and charming appearance made her look like a young girl who had read a lot of poetry and books. She was delicate and did not have the domineering aura of a cultivator at all. She also did not have the demeanor of a lady from the Enchanteur Chamber. However, this delicate, quiet, and elegant temperament was full of extreme attraction. Her beauty that could topple a country seemed to be able to seduce a man's soul.

Bai Qing'er had always been very mysterious. This was the first time she revealed her true appearance in front of many cultivators.

Even though Zhang Ruochen, Yuan Qianmo, Zhuo Yunong, Ling, and Yanhuang Tu came from different clans. Each of them had seen countless top beauties and had a profound state of mind, but they were all attracted to her.

The moment she appeared, it was as if this place had become a peaceful place. All the conflicts and disputes disappeared.

"She's Bai Qing'er, the daughter of Empress Bai and Huang Tian? She's too beautiful. Just her looks alone can be considered a weapon to kill." Ling sighed with admiration.

Huo Xing said, "No wonder Wuma Yuanxing challenged Zhuo Yunong to stand up for her. She's indeed a beauty."

“In the past, Empress Bai was a woman who could compete with the Moon Goddess. Many gods had courted her when they were young. As her daughter, it’s not a big deal to look like this,” Yan Huangtu said.

...

Bai Qing’er walked toward Zhang Ruochen with a bamboo slip in her hand. She had a faint scent of books on her. “Master Ruochen, we meet again after we parted in the Divine Domain of Destiny!”

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the bamboo slip in her hand, and his eyes suddenly shrank.

He was very familiar with the handwriting on the bamboo slip.

Zhang Ruochen collected his thoughts. He said, “Didn’t we just meet at Ji Feng Manor not long ago? “I almost died at Lady Bai’s hands. Have you forgotten? Also, in the Divine Domain of Destiny, Lady Bai wanted to kill me to silence me. I was lucky to escape. Therefore, I didn’t really want to see you again.”

Bai Qing’er said calmly, “You and that Seven-Armed Elder stole the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin in the House of Enchanters and made the Enchanter Chamber a target. I just want to get the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin back.”

Zhang Ruochen was very clear. He said, “First of all, I don’t know who the Seven-Armed Elder is. How can I cooperate with him?

“Second, only the House of Enchanters and the 17 forces know where the five supreme-class Divine Crystals of Origin are stored. Even if I wanted to steal them, I wouldn’t have the chance.

“Third, your cultivation is extremely high, and you have a spatial jade turtle at the Paramount Realm with you. It should be easier for you to steal the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

“You’re a beauty, and a beautiful person shouldn’t frame other people?”

The cultivators present were all shrewd people. Hearing Zhang Ruochen's words, doubts arose in their hearts.

“Was there really a turtle proficient in the Path of Dimension beside Bai Qing'er?”

“And it has reached the Paramount Realm?”

Without waiting for Bai Qing'er to speak, Zhang Ruochen said again, “Everyone, please don't be deceived by her beautiful appearance. Her cultivation is very powerful, and there are also many powerhouses in the Enchanteur Chamber. I'm afraid some of the major forces present might not be able to compete with her.”

Bai Qing'er sighed and said, “The Enchanteur Chamber has 180 branches. Every cultivator in the Infernal Court knows where each House of Enchanteur is. How could we dare to be enemies with the major forces?”

“Everyone knows that the Enchanteur Chamber never takes part in any fights. We know better than anyone that we don't have the strength to fight for the Fane of Origin, so we won't do such a thing.

“Besides, when Tan Fei blew up his Sainthood Source, he almost destroyed the entire House of Enchanters. For the sake of the illusory Fane of Origin, which may not even exist, the Enchanteur Chamber wouldn't go that far.

“However, Master Ruochen has done the same crazy thing many times.”

Bai Qing'er had a point there.

None of The cultivators present believed that the Enchanteur Chamber had the guts to make an enemy of the 17 forces. Once the matter was exposed, the 17 forces' anger would explode, and their 180 branches would be wiped out.

In the end, it was because the people didn't care about the Enchanteur Chamber.

How much threat could a group of women who relied on their beauty pose?

Zhuo Yunong sat on the chair and said, “Zhang Ruochen, since you know so much, why didn’t you say it when you were in the Divine Domain of Destiny?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I did see Bai Qing’er and Cang Baizi kill Seven-Armed Elder and Xing Qian. However, my cultivation was low, so I wasn’t sure what I saw was the truth.

“What if a cultivator with strong cultivation changed into their appearance and deliberately misled me?”

“Besides, Lord Judge was obviously targeting me. I was very suspicious that you and Lady Bai had some shady deal. How could the Enchanter Chamber dare to offend the 17 forces if there was no strong backing?”

Hearing this, Zhuo Yunong’s eyes turned into two divine light swords and gazed at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen pressed his palm, and the Destiny Token appeared. It emitted a dazzling Light of Destiny and blocked his two divine light swords.

Although Zhuo Yunong was furious, he didn’t dare to attack the Destiny Token. He quickly withdrew his eyes, “Since you have the Destiny Token, you’d better not do anything to damage the reputation of the Fane of Destiny. Otherwise, the token won’t be able to protect your life,” he said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I did not damage the reputation of the Fane of Destiny. I am simply suspicious of your Adjudication Division.”

Zhang Ruochen’s words were both in response to Zhuo Yunong and Bai Qing’er.

“The Enchanter Chamber claimed that you don’t dare to be enemies with the 17 forces?”

“But with the support of the Adjudication Division, why wouldn’t you dare?”

When the Adjudication Division went to capture Zhang Ruochen, it was indeed a little too fast. The cultivators present must have already suspected it. Zhang Ruochen just gave them more guidance.

Guye Jing looked at Zhang Ruochen with her beautiful eyes. She thought, 'I didn't expect this guy to have such a sharp tongue. He actually has the upper hand.'

Bai Qing'er said, "Someone told me before that you don't like to play chess. You think the chess game is too complicated and the arrangements are too tiring. Only a scheming person would study it. Now it seems that what you said is wrong. I think you are quite scheming."

Zhang Ruochen remembered that he had said this before.

However, very few people knew about it.

How did Bai Qing'er know about it?'

Thinking of the words on the bamboo slip in her hand, Zhang Ruochen had an answer in his heart. He could not help but clench his teeth. This woman was unforgivable.

'I had already killed Supreme Saint Manjian. Am I going to watch my teacher die in the Infernal Court?'

As Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing'er looked at each other, Ling walked out and said, "Just now, Supreme Saint Ruochen said that Cang Baizi and Lady Bai joined hands to kill Xing Qian and the Seven-Armed Elder. I'm curious. Cang Baizi is an elder of the Hall of Permanence. How could he know Lady Bai?"

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Bai Qing'er had deliberately threatened him with Shangguan Que to shut him up.

However, Zhang Ruochen did not like being threatened. He also knew that as long as he still had the Seven-Armed Elder and the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, Bai Qing'er would never kill Shangguan Que.

In that case, what else was there to worry about?

Today, he would tell them all of Bai Qing'er's secrets. It was one thing, whether they believed it or not, as long as they had doubts about her.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It seems you don't know that Cang Baizi has long been reduced to Lady Bai..."

He was halfway through.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly felt goosebumps all over his body. An unprecedented crisis of death arose in the Heart of Truth. So, he used all his strength to activate the Armor of the Fire God, the Wargod Belt, the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light, and the Divine Blood Mail.

In an instant, four layers of defense were formed.

He knew how dangerous this trip was, so he put on all the defensive armor in advance.

BANG!

A crystal arrow flew out of nowhere and hit Zhang Ruochen's chest.

Zhang Ruochen's body flew out like a cannonball. He crashed through the array light wall of the stargazing platform. He flew dozens of miles away, colliding with the array of light walls of every street in Enchanton.

BANG! BANG!

Zhang Ruochen crashed through dozens of layers of array light walls and fell to the ground. His body was submerged in ruins.

None of The cultivators had expected such a turn of events. They were all shocked and held up their Precept Domains and artifacts, afraid of following in Zhang Ruochen's footsteps.

An unnoticeable smile flashed in Bai Qing'er's eyes. Then she exclaimed, "The Arrow of Deva Path. It's Fu Xiang's Arrow of Deva Path."

Yes, it was indeed the Arrow of Deva Path.

All the cultivators turned their eyes to Yan Huangtu.

What are the Yanluo clan plotting?'

How could they kill Zhang Ruochen? Did they want to take the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin for themselves?'

No one believed that Zhang Ruochen could survive the Arrow of Deva Path. After all, not everyone was Wuma Jiuxing.

"Who did it? Who did It? I'll kill you!"

Blackie let out a long, ear-splitting roar. His body exploded with a wave-like saint might. Eternal Flame surged out, forming a vast sea of fire.

The owl-like body underwent a heaven-cleansing change. It grew a crimson tail. It spread its wings. Precept marks flowed on it. Every feather turned into divine fire.

Blackie was furious. It was about to fly toward where Zhang Ruochen had fallen.

Suddenly, someone cried, "Everyone, look at the sky."

Everyone looked up.

They saw a talisman dozens of miles long in the blood-cloud-covered sky. It broke through the clouds and sank down.

The talisman was dark purple. Purple thunder shuttled above it.

At the center of the talisman, thunder and lightning interwoven into a fane, headless Buddhas, world trees, heavenly halberds, primordial chaos hammers, and so on. It was a shocking form.

Yan Zhexian, wearing a talisman robe and disguising her appearance, had already lost all color on her face. She exclaimed, "It's a divine talisman refined by an Archsaint Talisman Master, the Heavenly Retribution Talisman. Once this talisman is used, even the pseudo gods will have to retreat. If everyone makes a move together, we will only have a chance of protecting Enchanton... No, only then will we have a chance of surviving."

They could completely escape if they were in another place with Zhuo Yunong, Yuan Qianmo, and the other cultivation bases.

However, they were in Enchanton now. There were layers of arrays blocking them. No matter how fast they were, they couldn't escape.

“Arrow of Deva Path? How could it be an Arrow of Deva Path? Could it be Lady Fu Xiang?”

Zhang Ruochen felt extreme pain all over his body. Everything before him was dark.

His armor was covered by the precepts formed after the arrow exploded. It was like countless chains that wrapped around him. He couldn't move.

“Huh? It doesn't seem to be serious.”

Zhang Ruochen realized that the initial impact was terrifying. His internal organs were in chaos, and his bones were cracking. His Saint Soul seemed to be scattered, and he almost passed out.

However, after taking a breath, the saint Qi in his body returned to normal. He only felt pain all over his body, but he wasn't injured.

The voice of the Intergold Tiger sounded, “Fortunately, you reacted quickly and activated four layers of strong defense at once. The precepts in the Arrow of Deva Path can't penetrate your armor. Otherwise, even if I activate the Intergold Precept Marks, I'm afraid I can only save your life.”

Zhang Ruochen understood that it was the Intergold Tiger who had neutralized the collision force of the Arrow of Deva Path.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen sensed a suffocating aura coming from the sky. It was as if the sky had collapsed. Even space was condensing, and the earth was sinking.

‘What was going on?’

‘One Arrow of Deva Path was not enough. Was she going to launch a second attack?’

‘The aura of this power was even more terrifying than the Arrow of Deva Path.’

‘No, it’s not aimed at me. It seems that the entire Enchanton is covered by this aura. Who wants to destroy a city?’ Zhang Ruochen’s thoughts were a mess. He could not figure out what had happened.

He’d thought Bai Qing’er would attack, and so did the Heavenly Realm.

But he’d never thought it would be the Yanluo clan who attacked.

He’d also never thought the entire Enchanton would fall into a crisis of destruction.

One thing after another happened, entirely outside of Zhang Ruochen’s expectations.

‘I’ll take this opportunity to leave this place first.’

Zhang Ruochen circulated his saint Qi and Divine Purification Flame. Just as he was about to break free from the Precepts, a faint aura fluctuated from 30 meters away.

The other party had concealed his aura well, but it could not hide from Zhang Ruochen’s Heart of Truth.

Zhang Ruochen quickly put away his Saint Qi and lay on the ground motionlessly, pretending that he had been shot.

SWOOSH!

Shang Xia was dressed in black, wearing a veil and holding a Saint Sword. Her body was semi-transparent. With a wave of her scroll, she lifted all the crushed stones, wooden pillars, and tiles on Zhang Ruochen’s body.

She looked at Zhang Ruochen, who no longer had any breath, and a flash of surprise appeared in her eyes. She said to herself, ‘The Arrow of Deva Path couldn’t break his armor. He does have a lot of treasures. Unfortunately, the vibration of the arrow was enough to turn his body into a bloody mess.”

Shang Xia walked over to Zhang Ruochen and lifted his neck. She was about to hide him in a space treasure, but suddenly, she tried to throw Zhang Ruochen out as if she was avoiding snakes and scorpions.

“You’re very alert, but it’s too late!”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes widened. He struck Shang Xia’s abdomen with his palm.

BANG!

Shang Xia’s slim body bent and flew backward.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes suddenly contracted. He realized that his palm had hit her hard. However, Shang Xia’s cultivation was too high. She released hundreds of billions of Precepts at the first moment and dissolved most of the palm force.

Zhang Ruochen caught up with her in a flash. He planned to make another attack.

Shang Xia was still flying in the air. Her abdomen was in pain, and there was blood on the corner of her mouth. Her face was full of shock. She could not understand why Zhang Ruochen did not die under the Arrow of Deva Path.

He did not even seem to be injured.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen catching up, Shang Xia immediately activated the Saint Sword in his hand. He swung the sword and slashed forward, leaving a brilliant sword ray.

This sword was not only full of sword qi but also integrated with the sword’s soul. It could directly cut Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Soul.

SWOOSH

Zhang Ruochen disappeared in front of her eyes.

“Not good.”

Shang Xia realized the danger.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the space behind her. He swung the Ugyen Cudgel and hit the back of her head heavily.

The Ugyen Cudgel was a Supreme Artifact. It could not only burst out Supreme Power but also hit Shang Xia's spiritual power and Saint Soul. She immediately suffered severe injuries. She closed her eyes and fainted.

Zhang Ruochen picked up the unconscious Shang Xia and thought for a moment. He pulled a strand of hair from her head and threw it on the ground.

Then, he sealed her into the Secret Tome of Time and Space.

...

A moment later, Kai Luo, wearing a white jade mask, and four cultivators from the Heavenly Realm appeared here through dimensional teleportation.

One of the Dwarven Supreme Saints said in a deep voice, "Damn it, we're too late. Who stole Zhang Ruochen's dead body first?"

Kai Luo released his spiritual power to explore the ruins, not letting go of any clues.

Then, he kicked away a three-meter-long boulder. He picked up a strand of hair and put it to the tip of his nose to sniff. "I already know who took Zhang Ruochen's body," his eyes behind the mask became ferocious. Let's go. I'll settle this with her."

One of the Heavenly Realm cultivators immediately drew Dimensional Inscriptions and set up a spatial array.

A voice suddenly sounded. "You cultivators of the Heavenly Realm have entered the Infernal Court. Do you think you can just come and go as you please? "

"Who is it?"

The Supreme Saints of the Heavenly Realm summoned their artifacts and looked in the direction of the voice.

A black umbrella floated in the air and slowly floated over.

Yan Yu's figure appeared under the black umbrella within a hundred meters.

Lady Fu Xiang came from another direction. She said, "The worst thing you Heavenly Realm should do is use my name to shoot Zhang Ruochen. Claflin of the Elves, I had long heard that you were one of the four archery powerhouses of the Celestial Court. Today, I shall see what you can really do."

Yan Yu said, "Hand over Zhang Ruochen's body, and I'll leave you all in one piece."

...

Rumble

The light emitted by the Heavenly Retribution Talisman in the sky was extremely bright.

Purple lightning cut through heaven and earth and fell into the Enchanton, colliding with the city defense formation. The light curtain formed by the formation kept shaking like a layer of fragile paper, ready to break at any time.

The cultivators in the city were frightened by the power of the Divine Talisman.

Once the city defense array was broken, how many people could survive?

On the stargazing platform, all the Supreme Saints activated their weapons.

Some attacked directly to destroy the Divine Talisman, while others collided with the thunder and lightning from the Divine Talisman to help the city defense array resist the attack.

In Enchanton, there was an undercurrent.

Apart from Yan Yu and Lady Fu Xiang, the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm and the Supreme Saints of other forces also rushed to the direction where Zhang Ruochen's body fell.

Even though they didn't know that Zhang Ruochen might have a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, they knew that Zhang Ruochen had several Supreme Artifacts and many treasures.

A prosperous ancient city became chaotic.

No one knew how it had suddenly become like this. Who was the mastermind behind all this?

What was the ultimate purpose of all this chaos?

After Zhang Ruochen left the ruins, he came to the Governor's Manor. Using the Path of Dimension and the Canon of Dimension, he quietly returned to Master Xunmu's small courtyard.

He looked up at the massive talisman in the sky. His heart couldn't help but beat faster.

'How could there be a Divine Talisman? Bai Qing'er has so much power that she can hire an Archsaint Talisman Master? Besides, isn't she afraid of destroying Enchanton?'

Zhang Ruochen had to admire Bai Qing'er's boldness. She was really desperate to achieve her goal.

But he still couldn't figure out why Lady Fu Xiang would attack him.

No matter how powerful Bai Qing'er was, she couldn't control a powerhouse like Lady Fu Xiang.

There were only two possibilities:

First, the Enchanter Chamber knew they couldn't take over the Fane of Origin by themselves, so they cooperated with the Yanluo clan.

Second, it wasn't Lady Fu Xiang who shot the Arrow of Deva Path.

Comparatively, Zhang Ruochen believed that it was the latter.

After all, based on his understanding of Bai Qing'er, she looked gentle and weak. Still, she was braver and more fearless than any cultivator. She often did things that ordinary people wouldn't dare to do.

If she wanted to take the Fane of Origin, she would never share it with the Yanluo clan.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't see through her plan, so he hid in the Governor's Manor and continued to play the role of Master Xunmu. He wanted to see what other plans she had and to find an opportunity to save Shangguan Que.

All the spiritual-power masters came to the arena in the Governor's Manor. Each of them held a Genbu Pebble in their hands.

Duan Lingfeng, Shang Yue, and dozens of Supreme Saint-level powerhouses stood in the center of the arena and looked at the Heavenly Tribulation Talisman in the sky. The governor, deputy governor, and commander of Ji Feng City were among them.

Even Supreme Saint-level powerhouses would rarely see the legendary Divine Talisman in their lifetime.

At this moment, some were fearful, some were crazy, and some were terrified.

As for the spiritual-power master who hadn't reached the Supreme Saint-level, their legs couldn't help but tremble. It wasn't that their state of mind wasn't strong enough, but the power of the Divine Talisman was beyond what their state of mind could bear.

Zhang Ruochen held his breath and tried to calm himself down. Among the Supreme Saints, he saw Lord Ironclad. He found that all the Supreme Saints who had appeared in Ji Feng Manor were here.

'Bai Qing'er really has other plans besides trying to take me down. What is more important than the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin? Is she really after the Tensho Compass?' Zhang Ruochen was shocked.

A sad smile appeared on Duan Lingfeng's bearded and chubby face. He said, "The city defense formation of Enchanton won't last long. It will be destroyed soon."

Gu Yanzhi was a little worried. He said, "If the Divine Talisman appears, will the Hoth Emperor intervene?"

Duan Lingfeng shook his head. He said, "The Hoth Emperor is an extremely great god. How can he intervene in the battles below divinity? Even if the entire Enchanton is destroyed, no matter how many Saint-level cultivators die, in his eyes, it's just a small matter.”

Shang Yue said, “What a pity! The Enchanteur Chamber has been operating on Hoth for many years, before they had the scale of Enchanton today. The losses would be too great if they were destroyed in one day!”

“Yue’er, your view of the big picture is far from your master’s. What is this little loss? Compared to the Fane of Origin, let alone an Enchanton, even if all the 180 branches of the Enchanter Chamber were completely destroyed, it would still be worth it. Besides, Zhang Ruochen should have already fallen into your master’s hands. His wealth is far greater than this Enchanton,” Duan Lingfeng said.

Duan Lingfeng’s spiritual power was strong. Zhang Ruochen didn’t dare activate the Heart of Truth or his spiritual power, so he didn’t know what they were talking about.

BOOM!

Suddenly, a deafening sound rang out.

In Enchanton, countless cultivators’ eardrums burst, and blood flowed out of their ears.

A powerful pressure surged from above and crushed the city’s Path locks, Supreme Saint inscriptions, and divine marks.

The streets and ancient buildings in the city crumbled like they were made of tofu.

The city defense array was destroyed!

The entire Enchanton slowly sank underground.

BOOM!

BOOM!

...

The destructive power of the Heavenly Retribution Talisman condensed into fanes, ancient Buddhas, Warhammer, and many other forms that bombarded the Enchanton. If any of the power fell, a large city area would be turned into ashes.

As if doomsday had arrived, figures flew up everywhere in the city.

Regardless of their cultivation level, all the cultivators were in a mess.

Screams, cries for help, and curses interweave.

The cultivators whose cultivation level was too low were pressed to the ground by the power of the Divine Talisman, unable to move or escape. They could only let out long, mournful howls or cry softly.

“Is this the divine tribulation from the gods?”

“Everyone has to die. There’s no way to escape.”

“Daddy, I’m scared... Ah...”

“Master, help me.”

...

When the Divine Talisman descended, whether it was a creature in the Fish-dragon Realm, a saint, or a Saint King, their lives were extremely fragile. Their bodies and souls were destroyed and turned into fine particles with a flash of lightning.

Only a Supreme Saint could barely survive the aftershock of the Divine Talisman’s attack.

When the Divine Talisman broke through the city defense array, Duan Lingfeng activated the dimensional teleportation array in the Governor’s Manor and left with everyone.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t see the tragic scene in Enchanton with his own eyes, but he could imagine it. This was why his heart was heavy. “If the Divine Talisman really was sent by Bai Qing’er, such ruthless and crazy methods are really creepy.”

After destroying a city and killing tens of thousands of cultivators just to clear the suspicions of the Enchanter

Chamber, Zhang Ruochen knew that he could not do it.

The dimensional teleportation array sent them to a white snowfield, which was far away from the Enchanton.

Duan Lingfeng took out a golden-red staff. The staff was full of ancient charm, and a fist-sized turtle was on the top. After careful observation, Zhang Ruochen found that the so-called staff was shaped like a snake, full of scales.

The snake coiled around the turtle.

This staff was in the form of Genbu.

Duan Lingfeng held the staff and struck the ground heavily.

Qi spread from the ground to the sky. The ice and snow on the ground flew up like white petals.

In the next moment, the spiritual-power masters were shocked to find that the ground shook violently and rose up.

Genbu's divine corpse, which was more than two hundred miles long, broke through the ice and snow and climbed up from the ground. Everyone was on its back.

The madness in Duan Lingfeng's eyes became even stronger. He ordered, "All spiritual-power masters, I will arrange and dispatch you all to activate the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation. You will be responsible for activating the Cloaking Array, Necromancy Marks, and the Great Lightsword on Genbu's divine corpse."

All the Supreme Saints started to move.

The hundreds of spiritual-power masters were still in shock and fear.

Duan Lingfeng's voice rang in their ears, "All spiritual power cultivators, I will give you 15 minutes to find the corresponding formation area for the Genbu Pebble in your hands."

All the spiritual-power masters started to move and were distributed to different parts of Genbu's divine corpse's back.

Duan Lingfeng looked at all of this with a cold smile. He thought, 'Once the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation is activated, it will drain your spiritual power, Saint Soul, and blood. All of you will become dead. You are only worth so much. Anyone below the Supreme Saint is an ant.'

Zhang Ruochen found the gap in the formation corresponding to the Genbu Pebble in his hand. He put the Genbu Pebble in and squatted down to check the inscriptions of the formation around him.

Although he did not spend too much time studying the Path of Array.

However, while refining the Heart of the Divine Tree and inheriting the Divine Sky-connecting Tree's one Yuanhui period's worth of knowledge, he had also read many books related to the array. His understanding of array might not be as good as that of High-saint Masters. Still, it was far better than those spiritual-power masters present.

While Zhang Ruochen was studying, the Cloaking Array and Necromancy Marks on Genbu's divine corpse were activated. The divine corpse stepped into the void and silently headed north at a breakneck speed.

After traveling about 8,000 miles, Zhang Ruochen sensed a strong energy fluctuation in the air.

So he looked north.

He saw many snowy mountains. Some were flattened and scorched black, some were burning, and some were boiling red magma. Some were cut down, and the mountains were nowhere to be found.

The battlefield was extremely shocking. Tens of thousands of miles were destroyed, and the landscape changed significantly. The precepts of heaven and earth were chaotic, and the dust turned into black clouds that covered the sky.

Coming here was like entering a dark battlefield.

Genbu's divine corpse flew into the clouds ten thousand feet above the ground and hid. It stopped.

All the spiritual-power masters were terrified as they discussed amongst themselves.

“This is a battle between the Supreme Saints. Furthermore, there’s more than one Supreme Saint. What happened on Hoth?”

“Enchanton has been destroyed. Tens of thousands of miles of land have been scorched. The sky is going to collapse, and the earth is going to collapse.”

“Are we here to join the battle?”

“What are you afraid of? We can crush even the most powerful enemy with the Hand of the World and the Supreme Saints guarding it.”

...

Zhang Ruochen used his Demigod-level physique’s eyes to look through the clouds. He saw a shocking battle breaking out tens of thousands of miles away. Dozens of top Supreme Saints were divided into two camps and fought fiercely.

The space in that area was shattered, and countless cracks spread out.

More than a dozen Gates of Destiny floated in the air.

A giant that was 21 meters tall had his hands and feet on his head. He had no body. He flew in the air and let out a dragon-like roar. The sound waves shook the Gate of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen identified him. “The leader of the Sect of River God, Pang Hu.”

An 800-mile-long ghost battleship flew in the air. The ship was filled with Ghost soldiers and Ghost generals. There were 360,000 Yin flags. Every Yin flag had an inscription of an array.

A Ghost cultivator with nine eyes stood at the bow of the ghost battleship. He was dressed in white and held a feather fan. His hair hung down for thousands of miles, but he had no face.

“The League of Ourang Celeste leader, Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor.”

A fane made of the corpses of saint-level creatures was 30,000 feet tall and crashed into a Gate of Destiny. This was a real fane controlled by nine divine corpses. Even the Gate of Destiny couldn't block it, and it was shattered instantly.

In the fane sat an old monkey as thin as a stick. Thousands of saint Qi threads flew out of his hands to control the nine divine corpses.

...

Zhang Ruochen felt his scalp go numb. Everyone here was the top Supreme Saint of the ten major dark forces. To many Supreme Saints, these people were legendary.

They were known for their fierce reputation, but none had ever seen their true faces.

Who would have thought that these ruthless figures who had shaken the myriad worlds of the Celestial Court and the ten clans of the Infernal Court would all come to Hoth?

Needless to say, the one who was attacked by the top powerhouses of the ten major dark forces must be the Overseer of the Fane of Destiny. They wanted to take the Tensho Compass.

Zhang Ruochen had guessed it long ago, but he could not believe that Bai Qing'er was so bold. Moreover, she had opened two battlefields, and her opponents on both battlefields were the most powerful in the world.

“This woman is too crazy. She's crazier than any cultivator I've ever seen.”

The only fortunate thing was that, although the cultivators from the Avīci Pavilion had also appeared on the battlefields, Han Xue was nowhere to be seen.

‘It was very likely that Han Xue was still in Enchanton.’

‘Enchanton was also very dangerous, but Blackie would definitely protect her there.’

“Since we’re already here, why didn’t the Enchanteur Chamber take action? Do they want to reap the benefits?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head immediately. He realized something was wrong.

Taking the Tensho Compass was indeed an important matter for the ten major dark forces. It was normal for them to work together.

However, their opponent was the Fane of Destiny.

The Overseer of the Divination Division was definitely someone who had cultivated the Path of Destiny to the pinnacle. He could predict the good and the bad. Under such circumstances, even if the ten major dark forces joined forces, they might not be a match for the Fane of Destiny.

If the number one cultivator in the world, Wuma Jiuxing, was not injured, they might still have a chance.

However, without Wuma Jiuxing, their chances of success were extremely slim.

Why did the prominent evil figure who had lived for more than ten thousand years take such a great risk to gather together and do such a crazy thing?

Where did they get their confidence from?

Below the thick battle clouds, the Overseer, Gong Nanfeng of the Divination Division, was sitting by the fire. He was starting the fire and talking to Pan Ruo, standing opposite him. “Hoth is as cold as the legends say. My body is weak. Without the fire that you brought, I’m afraid that I will freeze to death here,” he said.

Pan Ruo stood straight and looked at the destroyed Gates of Destiny in the sky. She felt the shaking of the earth and said, “It’s better to freeze to death than to be killed.”

Gong Nanfeng smiled and said, “I’ve predicted I won’t die this time. Besides, with me, Lord Wu Yue, and the High Priests of Death Palace, Fortune Palace, Ominous Palace, and the Anger Palace, how could the cultivators of the ten major dark forces hurt me?”

“I have a bad premonition,” Pan Ruo said.

The four high priests and Que, sitting beside the furnace, looked at her with a serious expression.

Even Gong Nanfeng stopped smiling and said, “Don’t scare me.”

As the Scioness of Destiny, she had cultivated the Door of Trueself with the Divine Token from the Twelve Reverends in her hand. Her premonition was not just a feeling. It had to be taken seriously.

Seeing the serious look on Pan Ruo’s face, Gong Nanfeng said, “Let me predict it one more time.”

“In that case, let’s finish this battle quickly. We’ll stop this wave of the net first and catch the other fish.”

After saying that, a bright Gate of Destiny condensed above her head. Her body turned into a beam of light and flew into the sky, crashing into the Deathwraith ship that was 800 miles long.

The four high priests were still sitting by the fire, warming themselves up.

The Death Palace’s High Priest drank the blood wine.

The Fortune Palace’s High Priest squinted his eyes, thinking about something.

The Anger Palace’s High Priest also seemed to want to make a move. Still, when he looked up at the sky, he saw that the Five Wraithions, the four Lords of Destiny, as well as the powerhouses from Fortune Palace, Anger Palace, and Ominous Palace seemed to be able to deal with it, so he continued to sit there quietly.

The fire in the furnace burned even brighter!

BOOM!

A column of flame shot out of Lord Wu Yue's eyes and hit the Deathwraith ship.

The flame's temperature was dozens of times higher than the Emperor-level Divine Purification Flame that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated.

Zhang Ruochen's Divine Purification Flame was only at level 10,000, comparable to a star's surface temperature. The fire from Lord Wu Yue's eyes was above level 300,000.

It could be said that under such a level of fire, a Supreme Saint below the Paramount Realm would be turned into ashes instantly.

It was not that Zhang Ruochen's Divine Purification Flame was not strong enough, but that Lord Wu Yue's cultivation was countless times stronger than his. There were more than 100 billion Precepts of Fire in Lord Wu Yue's body, which was ten times more than all the precepts added by Zhang Ruochen.

The 36 yin flags on the Deathwraith ship shone brightly.

The light of the inscriptions of the array on the flags interweaved and formed a defensive shield with a diameter of 500 kilometers.

Boom

Two pillars of fire hit the defensive shield. The space shook violently and showed signs of distortion.

The Deathwraith ship shook slightly.

The Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor, who stood at the bow, laughed loudly. “This is the famous top Lord of Destiny from the Fane of Destiny. I want your pair of void-devouring fire eyes now!”

Under his thousand-mile-long hair, the two ghost eyes opened, and two columns of flame light surged out.

What was different was that the flame that surged out of Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor’s eyes was the Grim Soul-devouring Flame. Its temperature was extremely low, and it was extremely evil and dark green in color.

Even standing ten thousand miles away, all the spiritual-power masters could feel the yin coldness of the Grim Soul-devouring Flame, and their bodies trembled slightly.

When Lord Xia Yu cultivated the Grim Soul-devouring Flame, compared to the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor, it was like a candle flame compared to a sea of fire.

However, when Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor’s two Grim Soul-devouring Flames collided with the flame light pillar in the eyes of Lord Wu Yue, they were instantly defeated. With no other choice, the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor could only open his third and fourth ghost eyes.

A total of seven ghost eyes were opened. Only then did the energy released by the Grim Soul-devouring Flame finally reach a stalemate with Lord Wu Yue.

Shang Yue’s gaze turned solemn. She exclaimed, “The nine ghost eyes of the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor were cultivated using the Grim Soul-devouring Flame and the nine divine planets. I didn’t expect Lord Wu Yue to be so strong. The Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor needs to use the power of the seven eyes to fight against him.”

The Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor was the leader of the League of Ourang Celeste, and he was one of the top figures in the dark forces. In Shang Yue’s eyes, such a figure could be said to be a lofty mountain.

Duan Lingfeng sneered, “You only know the superficial level of Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor’s strength. The Grim Souldevouring Flame of Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor had long reached the ninth heaven. After he refined the nine divine planets into eyeballs, he could use the divine power contained in the divine planets to unleash the Grim Soul-devouring Flame to the level of higher knowledge.”

“There are not many Saint-level cultivators in Celestial Court and Infernal Court who can catch his nine eyes.”

Shang Yue said, “It’s said that the nine divine planets he refined are the complete star soul planets of a divine?”

Duan Lingfeng nodded and said, “That’s right. It’s precisely because the nine divine planets are of the same origin that the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor is so powerful.”

“Isn’t the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor comparable to a pseudo god?” Shang Yue said, shocked.

Duan Lingfeng shook his head. He said, “The divine power in the nine divine star souls has already been exhausted. Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor only relies on the formation, the Godstones, and his profound cultivation base to activate it. Furthermore, the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor has not refined the divine star souls of the gods that belong to the nine divine planets. Naturally, he is not considered a pseudo god.”

“How big is the gap between a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint and a pseudo god?” Shang Yue asked curiously.

Duan Lingfeng thought carefully and said, “In this world, anyone who can fight against a pseudo god in the Paramount Realm can be considered a representative figure of the Yuanhui period.

“As far as I know, in the entire Celestial Court and Infernal Court, only Wuma Jiuxing barely reached that level. As for Yuan Qianmo and Lord Dong Hua of the Celestial Court, although they are very famous, their achievements are far from Wuma Jiuxing’s glory. It is difficult to judge their actual strength.

“You only need to know that powerhouses at the level of the Ten Wraithions can’t even withstand a single strike from Wuma Jiuxing. Therefore, your current cultivation level is like an ant looking at the sky.”

The nine ghost eyes of the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor opened simultaneously. In the nine eyes, there was the sea of stars and the orbits of the sun and moon. The power that erupted forced back Lord Wu Yue.

“Destiny Halberd.”

Lord Wu Yue summoned the Supreme Artifact of the Destiny Division and activated the Supreme Power in the halberd. Instantly, the energy of heaven and earth within tens of thousands of miles gathered toward him.

Over a thousand lightning bolts revolved around the Destiny Halberd.

The halberd stabbed out, and all the lightning bolts followed.

With a boom, the defensive formation of the Deathwraith ship was broken through. Lord Wu Yue opened up his cloak and charged toward the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor.

Duan Lingfeng frowned and said, “Not good. The Deathwraith ship’s defenses have been broken. Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor is no match for Lord Wu Yue.”

“How is that possible? I see that the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor has always had the upper hand. The power of the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor is only one of his moves. Moreover, the League of Ourang Celeste must have also brought along a Supreme Artifact.” Shang Yue was a little puzzled.

Duan Lingfeng shook his head, “You underestimate Lord Wu Yue. As far as I know, his Paramount physique is formed from 12 trillion precepts. In addition, he is at the Paramount Realm and has been cultivated for many years. His accumulation has reached a level unimaginable by ordinary Paramount Realm Supreme Saints. Otherwise, why would he be number one among the ten great Lords of Destiny?”

Shang Yue’s cultivation reached the Banshi Isshou Realm. She was already beginning to understand the mysteries of the Paramount physique.

According to what she knew, the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint only needed to cultivate one trillion precepts to condense a Paramount physique and break through to the Paramount Realm. She had only read legends and ancient books about cultivators who cultivated twelve trillion precepts and condensed a Paramount physique.

She could not help but tremble when she thought of how Lord Wu Yue was such a legendary existence. It was a form of respect for the strong.

Lord Ironclad stood not far away with a mournful look in his eyes.

He had cultivated over one trillion precepts and was once a member of the Nether Berserkers of the Nether Hall. It was a pity that he suffered an injury that could not be healed on the Battlefield of Merits. As a result, he would never be able to form a Paramount physique and step into the Paramount Realm.

Perhaps, he would only have a chance to recover if he found the Fane of Origin.

As expected, the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor retreated immediately after dozens of rounds of fighting with Lord Wu Yue. He could barely fight against Lord Wu Yue with the array formation on the Deathwraith ship.

...

At the furnace, far from the battlefield

Gong Nanfeng opened his clear eyes and said seriously, "As expected, after another round of prediction, a variable appeared."

"What variable?" Pan Ruo asked.

Gong Nanfeng shook his head and said, "There is a mighty existence that has deceived the heavenly secrets. I can't predict it. I can only vaguely see a trace of destiny. "

"Ordinary gods can't deceive the prediction of the Overseer of Divination Destiny," Pan Ruo said.

Gong Nanfeng let out a long sigh. "I've told you before that I'm too weak. I should have let Xu Rulai do it this time. He's stronger."

Fortune Palace's High Priest, squinting his eyes, suddenly seemed to have woken up. He said, "I've also made some predictions just now and found that something has happened in Enchanton."

He stared at the Death Palace's High Priest and smiled. "Your people don't seem to be reliable."

The Anger Palace's High Priest snorted and had a strong opinion. He said, "It's ridiculous for the Fane of Destiny to cooperate with the Enchanteur Chamber. You should have listened to me from the beginning and sent the army to crush them. Who dares to compete with the Fane of Destiny for the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?"

"This is Hoth. Is the Fane of Destiny sending the army to ignore the presence of the Hoth Emperor?"

The Death Palace's High Priest said coldly and asked again, "What happened?"

"Someone used a talisman and destroyed Enchanton," Fortune Palace's High Priest said.

Death Qi appeared in the Death Palace's High Priest's eyes. He suppressed his anger and asked calmly, "Who did this?"

"It seems to be the Heavenly Realm," Fortune Palace's High Priest said.

"Where's Zhang Ruochen?" asked the Death Palace's High Priest. "Where's the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?"

Fortune Palace's High Priest shook his head slightly. "Zhang Ruochen is a young talent favored by the Lord Reverend," he said. "He's being nurtured as the future pillar of the Infernal Court. He's also the most important link between the Infernal Court and God's Ancient Nidus. If he dies, you can't shirk your responsibility."

Anger Palace's High Priest said again, "It is a big mistake to hand over such a thing as a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin to the Enchanter Chamber.”

The Death Palace’s High Priest said, “Isn’t it enough that Zhuo Yunong is in charge of the Enchanton? Everyone agreed to it when we made the plan.”

“You swore that the Fane of Destiny could capture all the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and the top powerhouses of the ten major dark forces simultaneously. But now? Enchanton was destroyed, and Zhang Ruochen might have already fallen. It’s all because you put too much trust in that woman from the Enchanter Chamber, and you’re too conceited,” said Anger Palace’s High Priest.

When the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin appeared, the higher-ups of the Fane of Destiny held a meeting.

At that time, the Death Palace’s High Priest had offered to take all the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin with the help of the Enchanter Chamber. He had even planned to use the Tensho Compass to lure out the powerhouses of the ten major dark forces and the Celestial Court powerhouse hiding in the Infernal Court and destroy them in one fell swoop.

The Death Palace’s High Priest said, “The Avīci Pavilion killed the last Scioness in the Divine Domain of Destiny. Wuma Jiuxing of the Pneuma Hall defeated Zhuo Yunong, the number one powerhouse of the Celestial Court, and killed five Wraithions in a row. The prestige of the Fane of Destiny has suffered an unprecedented blow.

“If we don’t destroy the ten major dark forces, won’t the Fane of Destiny become the laughingstock of the Celestial Court?

“If we don’t cooperate with the Enchanter Chamber, how can we lure out the powerhouses of the ten major dark forces?”

Pan Ruo said, “Everyone, it’s meaningless to argue now. I think we should do our best to end the battle here and rush to Enchanton. Although we must destroy the ten major dark forces, the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is more important.”

Although Pan Ruo’s cultivation was still very weak, it was a pity that her status was there, so no one could ignore her words.

The Ominous Palace's High Priest, who had been silent all this time, suddenly stood up and looked at one of the directions, saying, "I sensed that someone is spying in the dark. Is he trying to be one step ahead of us?"

The high priests stopped arguing and became vigilant.

They knew that the top powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny and the ten major dark forces were here, but they still dared to approach and spy. They were definitely not weaklings.

"Could it be a cultivator of the Celestial Court hiding in the Infernal Court?" said Fortune Palace's High Priest.

The Ominous Palace's High Priest formed a finger seal with his hands and made a mysterious finger gesture. Instantly, the space in front of him broke open, and a ghost mask flew out. Behind the ghost mask, dense yin qi surged out and condensed into a giant ghost general that was a thousand meters tall.

"The Divine Ghost Mask. Reverend Ominous actually gave this treasure to him."

All the cultivators present looked fearful.

"The Divine Ghost Mask was originally intended to deal with Wuma Jiuxing. Now, we can only test its power in advance."

The Ominous Palace's High Priest smiled and channeled his spiritual energy to the best of his ability. Immediately, the giant ghost general with the ghost mask charged into the sky and pressed its palm against the black clouds.

At this moment, all the top-notch Supreme Saints fighting could feel the terrifying power that the giant Ghost general was exuding. They were all shocked.

Just as all the cultivators thought that the clouds would be pierced through...

The dark clouds suddenly turned into seven colors. They were extremely brilliant, like a divine flower blooming.

A faint fragrance of flowers appeared within tens of thousands of miles.

It was the scent of begonias.

Zhang Ruochen, standing on Genbu's divine corpse, was extremely shocked. He said, "How... how is this possible?"

He wasn't the only one. Countless cultivators were stunned.

Reverend Ominous couldn't believe it. The giant ghost general hadn't been able to break through the clouds. It had been blocked by colorful light.

Who was it?

Who had such strong power?

Whoosh

A dazzling sword light came from the sky like the aurora.

Tens of thousands of miles of clouds were broken by the sword, forming a 100,000-mile-long sword path.

The giant divine general and the Divine Ghost Mask fell from the sky and landed heavily on the ground.

A more than 20,000 meters long red stone sword pierced through its chest and abdomen, suppressing it under the sword.

The land under the sword sank with a rumble.

The top saints who were fighting were shocked and stopped one by one. They were curious about which side's powerhouse had come?

Zhang Ruochen's heart almost jumped out at the mountain-like stone sword. "Wordless Sword Manual."

The Wordless Sword Manual was stored on the seventh level of the Sword Pavilion. It wasn't a book, but a stone sword. It was as big as a mountain.

Who could activate it?

The dust dispersed.

Everyone finally saw clearly. A man with long hair stood at the top of the 20,000-meter-tall stone sword. He had a human head and a snake body. His body glowed with silver light. Evil Qi swirled around him. His gaze seemed to look down on the world.

Zhang Ruochen's throat felt dry. "Xue Lingxian."

The colorful clouds in the sky dispersed. An old woman with white hair stood in the air. She was dressed in red and had a hunched back. Her body exuded a powerful qi and an ancient charm as if she had lived for countless years. She was even older than a god.

With her appearance, begonia petals fell from the sky and turned into a rain of flowers.

"Granny Begonia."

Zhang Ruochen finally understood why Xue Lingxian could use the Wordless Sword Manual as a weapon!

Four gods had come to Hoth.

Among them were true gods and pseudo gods.

At that moment, the four gods had come to the Hoth Palace to pay their respects to the Hoth Emperor. They were gods, and they were very good at concealing their auras. However, they couldn't hide from the Hoth Emperor's senses on Hoth.

Since the Hoth Emperor had come out of seclusion, who dared not come to pay him a visit?

They were nervous and wondered if the Hoth Emperor's coming out of seclusion at this time had something to do with their arrival.

After arriving at the Hoth Palace, they confirmed this because the Hoth Emperor had no intention of inviting them in. Nor did he ask them to leave.

This was not a good sign. It was clearly a warning to them.

The four gods looked at each other and revealed bitter smiles. It wasn't suitable for them to leave now. They could only continue to wait.

...

Within the Hoth Palace

Xia Huangchao, in a white robe, was sitting under a vermillion tree.

The tree was filled with red leaves.

The leaves were stacked together like a red mountain. The leaves fell and floated in the air, facing the red butterfly.

Qing Yulou walked in from outside and bowed respectfully. “Master, the four gods are waiting outside. Should we invite them in?”

“Let them wait.” Xia Huangchao replied.

“Yes.”

Qing Yulou saw a figure sitting opposite Xia Huangchao. However, they didn’t dare take a closer look and couldn’t see his face clearly.

This person could sit opposite their master here, but the four gods of the Infernal Court could only wait outside. This already showed the weight of this person.

Qing Yulou retreated.

Xia Huangchao looked at the blond man sitting opposite him. He raised his clay cup and took a sip. “This disciple of yours is not bad.”

There were a pair of dragon horns on the head of the blond man.

“If this praise of yours were to spread, his name would shake the Celestial Court and the Infernal Court.” Xia Huangchao smiled. “Actually, I didn’t teach him anything. I only trained him for 30,000 years in the dream world.”

30,000 years in the dream world didn’t represent 30,000 years in the real world.

Sometimes, one night of shocking dreams would pass one’s entire life.

The blond man shook his head. “Times have changed. 100,000 years have passed. I’m afraid that only a few cultivators in Celestial Court and Infernal Court still remember me today.”

Xia Huangchao stared at the blond man for a long time before letting out a long sigh; reminiscing, he said, “It’s a pity that we can’t go back to the past. I really miss those days when our youth was like a song. We traveled worldwide, searching for the secret trove, stealing the sacred medicine, and catching the Golden Kun. At that time, our cultivation was obviously shallow, but there was no place in the world to which we didn't dare go. There was nothing we didn't dare to do, and how many times did we escape death? But now, after cultivating to become a god, we have lost the freedom we once had."

The blond man did his best to avoid this name, but when the blond man mentioned it., only then did they say, "That's right, and Jiu. I'll never see Jiu again. She's a Phoenix, but in the end, she couldn't escape death. I saw her being killed with my own eyes. Even her divine soul was refined until it vanished into thin air."

The blond man's gaze became much colder as he said, "You've never told me this before. You actually saw her being killed with your own eyes?"

"She knew that I would definitely make a move, so before she rushed out of the fane, she used an array formation to trap me. At that time, I could only desperately attack the array formation. I wanted to fight my way out, but in the end, I could only watch, unable to do anything!"

"Everyone in the world thinks that the Xia Huangchao is peerless and is the pride of the Immortal Vampires. In reality, he's just a pitiful worm. "I can't forget how she looked at me when she walked out of the fane. Those eyes... those eyes are filled with too many emotions."

Xia Huangchao closed his eyes. At the end of his speech, his voice was filled with disappointment and trembling.

Who would have thought that the famous Hoth Emperor, the most powerful and decisive figure in the world, would shed divine tears at this moment.

The past was unbearable to recall. Every time he thought about it, his heart would break.

The blond man said, "I'm not qualified to blame you. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have been able to escape back to Kunlun when I was seriously injured. When Jiu went to find you, she knew that she would die, so she sent your only child to Nephilim Island. It was the Island Lord who raised him.

“At that time, your relationship with Kunlun was too deep. You were not trusted by the Fane of Destiny, and you didn’t want to take action yourself. Therefore, you declared to the outside world that you would stay and guard the Fane of Immortality. I understand your difficulties. She also knows that your situation is complicated. Hence, after receiving your letter for help, she went to look for you without hesitation.”

“I didn’t write a letter to her,” Xia Huangchao replied.

The blond man nodded and said, “She also guessed that it was very likely that you didn’t write the letter, so she knew she was doomed. However, since it was your letter for help, she had to go no matter what.”

“Where is that child? Is he still alive?” Xia Huangchao’s eyes were filled with joy and fear.

After 100,000 years, a feeling of fear was born again.

Gods also had feelings and desires. To an incomparably powerful god, this was a state of mind where a huge fluctuation appeared.

No enemy could make Xia Huangchao feel fear. What made him feel fear was his own heart.

The blond man said, “Destiny has brought us together. Naturally, we will be able to meet.”

Xia Huangchao stood up and stood among the falling red leaves. His white clothes were as white as snow, and the melancholy and sentimentality on his body dissipated. His aura as a peerless powerhouse gradually returned. He asked, “Did you come to Hoth for the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin or the Tensho Compass?”

“Finding the Fane of Origin is the hope for Kunlun to rise again. If we can seize a divine artifact, it will naturally be a good thing,” the blond man said.

Xia Huangchao said, “That’s not right. Your goal is to obtain the Tensho Compass. That’s because you want to use it to find the exact location where the Island Lord is being held. Your ultimate goal is to rescue the Island Lord.”

“I can’t hide it from you. Then, what’s your choice?” The blond man asked.

Xia Huangchao replied, “I’m a member of the Infernal Court, a member of the Immortal Vampires, and the ancestor of hundreds of millions of people in the Xia dynasty.”

“So, you want to stop me? You should understand that you are no match for me,” the blond man said.

Xia Huangchao said, “A hundred thousand years ago, Kunlun opened the Sundial. Your cultivation has indeed surpassed mine. However, you have been sleeping and recuperating in these hundred thousand years while I have been improving.” If we fight again today, it is unknown who will win. Moreover, have you really recovered from your injuries?”

“Then let’s fight!” the blond man said.

Xia Huangchao said, “We’ll fight again after you’ve rescued the Island Lord.”

The blond man’s eyes revealed a look of disbelief. He knew better than anyone else how stubborn Xia Huangchao was. For the sake of the interests and ideals of the Immortal Vampires and the Infernal Court, he had fought with him countless times.

Their friendship was forged through battle after battle.

But now, he was willing to put down the ideals in his heart and do something that would harm the interests of the Infernal Court. This was too inconceivable.

This meant that Xia Huangchao placed more importance on friendship than on interests and ideals.

“I won’t stop you, and I won’t help you.” Xia Huangchao placed his hands behind his back and turned around. He no longer looked at the blond man and could be considered to have sent him away.

“Farewell!”

The blond man stood up and left.

Suddenly, Xia Huangchao's voice rang out, "Ji Wang."

The blond man stopped in his tracks.

Two extremely handsome men stood under a tree with their backs facing each other.

After a long while, Xia Huangchao spoke, "I promise you that all the gods who attacked back then will die. It has been 100,000 years. I will definitely bring their divine blood to worship Jiu."

"I forgive you!"

The Dragon Lord Ji Wang's figure disappeared without a trace.

...

All the Supreme Saints who had attacked stopped.

Xue Lingxian's sword attack had shocked them.

Pang Hu, the leader of the Sect of River God, laughed loudly, "The powerhouses from the Avīci Pavilion have finally arrived!"

The ten major dark forces dared to snatch the Tensho Compass because the Avīci Pavilion had invited two peerless powerhouses to act. Pang Hu, the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor, and the Corpse-devouring Ape had already seen the power of Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia, so they were very confident.

The Ominous Palace's High Priest said with a ferocious look, "How could the Avīci Pavilion raise two such powerful cultivators without making a sound? Moreover, they can even avoid the prediction of Destiny."

Gong Nanfeng said, "They are from Kunlun."

"What?" Ominous Palace's High Priest asked.

Gong Nanfeng said as if he knew everything, "That sword is called the Wordless Sword Manual. The person standing on the sword is called Xue Lingxian. He was an unparalleled figure in Kunlun 100,000 years ago, second only to the Empress of Thousand Bones. He can be said to be a representative of the Yuanhui period.

“You know little about Kunlun, but I know that he is the first Scion of the Sect of Blood God in Kunlun and the first disciple of the Blood God. His body can be said to be extraordinary. Although he hasn’t become a god yet, he has lived for more than 200,000 years.”

“How is that possible? A god of flesh and blood under divinity can live for 200,000 years?” The Death Palace’s High Priest was also predicting Xue Lingxian just now, but he could only deduce a bit, which was far less detailed than Gong Nanfeng.

Gong Nanfeng said, “Xue Lingxian cultivated to the Supreme Saint Realm three times, and was beaten down to the lower state to cultivate three times again. He cultivated divinity twice and was killed twice. He was revived twice and continued to cultivate. In the end, the Undying Blood Silkworm transformed into a butterfly. It rose from a first-rate genius to a representative figure of the Yuanhui level.”

“It’s funny that the person who beat him down twice and killed him was actually his master, the Blood God. Ultimately, Xue Lingxian was almost driven mad and wanted to defect. In the end, he was again captured and killed by the Blood God.”

Fukurokuju narrowed his eyes and said, “Undying Blood Silkworm, it seems that the Blood God’s experiment has succeeded!”

“Whether it has succeeded or not is not certain. It depends on whether Xue Lingxian’s experiment is strong enough. The immortal blood silkworm is used to nurture Yuanhui-level geniuses. In my opinion, Xue Lingxian is still a little inferior to Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian of the same era,” said Gong Nanfeng.

Only Gong Nanfeng, who was as weak as an ordinary person, could say this calmly.

The four high priests’ faces had long turned ashen. It was obvious that they were feeling immense pressure.

A cultivation technique or a treasure could not nurture people like Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian. They had to reach the pinnacle in all aspects before one could be born.

Que said, "It's already very terrifying. Just one sword strike was enough to suppress the Divine Ghost Mask. Moreover, my Kagemaru is actually trembling at this moment. He will be the opponent that I must defeat in this lifetime."

Pan Ruo asked, "Who is that begonia?"

"I don't quite understand it. It looks like the vessel spirit of the Wordless Sword Manual, but it also doesn't look like it. However, the begonia's age is even older than Xue Lingxian's. How did it survive the Yuanhui Tribulation that occurs every 129,600 years?" asked Gong Nanfeng.

No one could answer him.

After all, in the Fane of Destiny, he knew and could deduce more than the gods.

If he didn't know, who else would it be?

Xue Lingxian's long hair fluttered in the wind, and his voice resounded throughout the world. He said, "100,000 years ago, Kunlun suffered a terrible defeat. Countless living beings died and turned into bones and dirt. Countless cultivators became slaves or prisoners. Today, I have come for vengeance."

The Ominous Palace's High Priest recovered from his shock. After all, he had been in a high position for a long time and had seen many gods. He said, "So you are the remnants of Kunlun from 100,000 years ago, and you still don't know the lesson. Since you didn't die, why don't you hide and live your life? The Fane of Destiny is the best in the world. It is the most supreme. Do you think you alone can shake it?"

"If it were me, I would believe it. But if it were you, I wouldn't believe it," said Xue Lingxian.

The Ominous Palace's High Priest turned into a real flame, causing thousands of miles of land to burn. In the vast expanse of fire, an ancient crimson seal formed and attacked Xue Lingxian.

His cultivation level was naturally very high to become the High Priest of the Ominous Palace. He was an existence that scared the Supreme Saints of the Celestial Court's myriad worlds.

The moment he attacked, he used a Paramount-level saint technique.

Ominous Palm!

The entire heaven and earth were filled with the precepts that surged out of the body of the Ominous Palace's High Priest. Wherever the ancient crimson seal flew, space was torn apart, and thousands of cracks appeared.

Xue Lingxian punched out, and silver light seemed to illuminate the universe.

The deafening sound caused countless cultivators present to lose their hearing. Fortunately, the array formation protected the spiritual-power masters standing on Genbu's divine corpse. Otherwise, even if they were ten thousand miles apart, they would be heavily injured.

The ancient crimson seal shattered, and blocking Xue Lingxian's fist force was difficult.

"A single fist can break my Paramount-level saint technique?" The Ominous Palace's High Priest gritted his teeth.

Xue Lingxian opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of silver lightning. It turned into countless streams of lightning and charged toward the Ominous Palace's High Priest.

"Ominous Blade."

Between the High Priests' eyebrows, the artifact of the Ominous Palace flew out, emitting a blood-red divine light.

This was an ominous artifact that had absorbed countless amounts of saint blood and divine blood. It was an extremely ominous weapon. Its power was no weaker than the Ax of Judgement and the Destiny Halberd.

Even with the Ominous Blade, the Ominous Palace's High Priest was still unable to block Xue Lingxian's silver lightning bolt. His body continuously retreated, and his black robe started to burn and turn into ashes.

“High Priest.”

Two Paramount Realm Supreme Saints wearing sacred armor flew up from the ground. One’s body was burning like a sun, and the other stood in a lifeless black hole.

The two of them were the guardians of the Ominous Palace. They were both old fogeys who had lived for more than ten thousand years.

The two palace guardians appeared on the left and right sides of the Ominous Palace’s High Priest. They each struck out with their palms. Trillions of precepts surged out of their bodies and activated the Ominous Blade together.

Rumble

The Ominous Blade lasted only for three seconds before it flew backward and landed on the ground, sinking thousands of miles into the ground.

After two breaths, the two palace guardians’ Paramount physiques were burned into ashes, and their souls and bodies were destroyed.

The Ominous Palace’s High Priest had a Supreme Treasure to protect himself, which saved his life. However, his body was like charcoal as he fell into the lake of scarlet lava. He did not move at all, and his aura was fragile.

Rumble

Xue Lingxian stomped down and trampled him to death.

Lord Wu Yue wanted to save him, but Xue Lingxian used the stone sword, over 20,000 meters long, and sent him flying.

One High Priest and two Paramount Realm Supreme Saints were killed instantly.

Everyone was shocked.

The cultivators from the ten major dark forces were all excited. The High Priest of the Fane of Destiny was killed just like that? It was unbelievable.

The Ominous Blade fell, and the ground sank for thousands of miles. The world was muddy as if it had turned into a chaotic scene from the beginning of time.

The silver lightning did not die immediately. It continued to travel between heaven and earth, and its energy fluctuations were extremely great.

All the cultivators, including the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, avoided it and did not dare to touch it. One had to know that the Ominous Palace's High Priest and the two guardians had died under Xue Lingxian's lightning bolt.

Lord Wu Yue, sent flying by the stone sword, fell a thousand miles away. His body was still upright as he looked at the interweaving silver lightning bolts in the pitch-black and chaotic space. His expression was solemn as he said, "Grand Destructive Lightning."

On the back of Genbu's divine corpse.

Duan Lingfeng's expression changed as he said, "He's so powerful. I'm afraid that even Wuma Jiuxing might not be his match. This person's strength has exceeded my expectations."

"The Ominous Palace's High Priest died just like that, and the two guardians were turned into ashes. The Paramount Realm Supreme Saint was said to be immortal. If a god did not appear, he would not die. This meant that he was the strongest in the mortal world. Why was his life force not that strong?" Shang Yue was stunned. She was slightly dazed.

Duan Lingfeng said, “If the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint wanted to escape or threatened to self-destruct the Sainthood Source, the god would not appear, and he would not die. However, powerhouses like Wuma Jiuxing and Xue Lingxian are too powerful. They are not much weaker than gods. They can no longer be called Paramount Realm Supreme Saints.”

Pseudo gods were also gods.

There were more than twenty Paramount Realm Supreme Saints from the Destiny Division and the four great divine palaces. At that moment, all of them viewed Xue Lingxian as their greatest enemy.

Swoosh

Swoosh

...

Many bright Gates of Destiny shone towards Xue Lingxian like more than 20 suns.

Countless Precepts of Destiny fell on Xue Lingxian like trillions of shackles.

The territory that had become dilapidated, chaotic, and dark was reshaped by the Light of Destiny.

The turbid ones sank while the clear ones rose.

The sacred mountain rose, and the sacred lake rippled.

The world became a vibrant fairyland, but it was a cage that suppressed Xue Lingxian.

Even a top Supreme Saint would lose his power and cultivation and eventually revert to mortal status when illuminated by the Gate of Destiny of more than 20 Paramount Realm Supreme Saints.

Zhang Ruochen was worried. Although Xue Lingxian was strong, he couldn't fight against more than 20 Paramount Realm Supreme Saints simultaneously.

If they are called supreme, who was weak?

Xue Lingxian had awoken once and used the manifestation of the sacred will to save Zhang Ruochen. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen had a good impression of him.

“Hmph!”

Dense golden characters appeared on the stone sword of the Wordless Sword Manual in Xue Lingxian’s hand.

Each character turned into a small golden person brandishing a sword.

In an instant, a surge of sword Qi exploded and cut off the Precepts of Destiny that enveloped him.

The golden light turned into a path of light that broke through the Light of Destiny and struck a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

BOOM!

The Gate of Destiny behind the Supreme Saint of the Paramount Realm was instantly destroyed. His aura was extinguished as blood splattered everywhere. Only fragments of the sacred armor fell from the sky.

“He actually broke through the Light of Destiny! Is the stone sword in his hand really just a sword manual?” Some cultivators were so shocked that their minds went blank. They felt that the man holding the stone sword was the world’s god. He was invincible.

Who could fight against him below divinity?

“Let’s attack together. We must destroy the prestige of the Fane of Destiny today.”

“Let’s fight and take the Tensho Compass.”

“Haha, Lord Canghai is mine. Let’s settle the score today.”

...

The top powerhouses of the ten major dark forces took out their powerful weapons. They used talismans and saint techniques to attack the more than twenty Gates of Destiny floating in the sky.

The precepts of heaven and earth within tens of thousands of miles were again thrown into chaos.

Space shattered, and the earth sank.

The ten major dark forces didn't care who the Tensho Compass ended up with. As long as it wasn't in the hands of the Fane of Destiny, it was fine. Otherwise, they would still be unable to sleep or eat in peace and terrified every day.

Of course, if the Tensho Compass ended up in their hands, that would be for the best.

Xue Lingxian completely broke free from the Precepts of Destiny and walked toward Gong Nanfeng and the three high priests. The light emitted from her body reflected the sky and earth into a silver color.

The killing intent and viciousness were enough to freeze the Supreme Saint's heart.

The three high priests summoned a treasured artifact from the divine palace and activated it. Instantly, the three Supreme Artifacts exploded with the power of a Supreme Being. The three Gates of Destiny rose, and the three Precept Domains formed the images of three worlds.

Each of the three high priests was an entity that shook the entire world. When they arrived in the world, they were worshiped by millions of cultivators.

At that moment, when the three of them joined forces, their aura was weaker than that of Xue Lingxian.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Xue Lingxian walked into the Precept Domains of the three high priests. Using his own precepts, he clashed with the precepts of the three, creating a series of explosive sounds that sounded like thunder and divine roars.

The three Supreme Artifacts clashed with the stone swords of the Wordless Sword Manual. Chaotic power erupted, causing the mountains 100,000 kilometers away to shake as if they were about to collapse.

The stars in the sky were also shaking as if they were about to fall.

The three Supreme Artifacts and the three Precept Domains could not stop Xue Lingxian's footsteps, and the distance between them was getting closer and closer.

Pan Ruo and Que planned to immediately take Gong Nanfeng away, but Gong Nanfeng insisted on staying. He said, "Cultivators of the Fane of Destiny, how can they retreat in fear?"

"The three high priests can't stop Xue Lingxian. Since you're not going to escape, take out your Divine Artifacts and use them to kill him," Que said coldly.

Gong Nanfeng shook his head and said, "Don't touch the Divine Artifact unless you have no other choice."

"Now is the time," Que said.

Gong Nanfeng shook his head and pointed to the horizon.

On the horizon, the flames started to burn, giving off a dazzling light like the appearance of the sunset.

Lord Wu Yue rushed out from the crimson sunset and shouted, "The Destiny Division protects the Fane of Destiny. Anyone who dares to offend us will be killed without mercy."

He held the Destiny Halberd and pierced through Xue Lingxian's silver Precept Domain. The flames in his eyes burned and exploded with unparalleled destructive power.

The shadow of the Fane of Destiny appeared around the Destiny Halberd.

The power of the fane transcended space and time and buffed him.

"Oh no! Xue Lingxian is already struggling to fight against the three high priests alone. Lord Wu Yue's halberd carries the Qi of the Fane of Destiny. Its power can destroy anything. Xue Lingxian..."

Zhang Ruochen looked at Granny Begonia. He didn't understand why she hadn't made a move at such a critical moment?

Was there another powerful figure hiding in the dark to restrain her?

Lord Wu Yue was second only to Zhuo Yunong in the Fane of Destiny. He was the leader of the ten great Lords of Destiny. His combat strength was at the pinnacle of divinity. He carried a Supreme Artifact and unleashed the power of the fane. Wuma Jiuxing had to use all his strength to block this halberd without using his saber.

The three high priests naturally understood that the halberd of Lord Wu Yue was a sure-kill move that could threaten even pseudo gods to a certain extent.

Therefore, they unleashed an even more brutal attack, preventing Xue Lingxian from being distracted.

Boom

The Destiny Halberd struck a thousand feet away from Xue Lingxian, and a blood-red cocoon net appeared in the void.

It was the defense of the Undying Blood Silkworm.

Lord Wu Yue's unparalleled power broke through the cocoon net with a bang.

The Destiny Halberd stabbed into Xue Lingxian's back, and the sacred robe on his body instantly shattered and turned into dust.

Lord Wu Yue thought he had succeeded and could kill Xue Lingxian with one strike.

Suddenly, he found two patterns on Xue Lingxian's back, which looked like two butterfly wings.

When the Destiny Halberd hit it, Xue Lingxian's body exploded and turned into thousands of blood-red butterflies. The butterflies quickly gathered in the air and condensed into his figure.

At this moment, Xue Lingxian had returned to his human-headed and snake-like appearance, and there was a pair of blood-red butterfly wings on his back.

His face was slightly pale, and it was evident that he had not completely neutralized the attack from Lord Wu Yue. However, his eyes became more and more fierce, and he held the stone sword with both hands.

The sword hacked down like a mountain ridge.

Boom

Lord Wu Yue failed to take on this attack. The skin on his body instantly exploded, and he sank to the ground. Only his skeleton and part of his flesh and blood remained. It was ferocious and terrifying. He had suffered serious injuries.

‘How can he be so strong...’ Lord Wu Yue thought.

Xue Lingxian’s second strike had already hacked down. With a boom, Lord Wu Yue’s arms and spine broke. His skeleton collapsed and turned into a pile of flesh and blood beyond recognition. He had lost his human form.

Xue Lingxian was about to strike down the third strike to destroy Lord Wu Yue’s life force.

Suddenly, he sensed something and stopped holding the stone sword. He raised his head to look at the black clouds and shouted, “The Fane of Destiny is known as the number one and supreme in the world. Why? To deal with me, you actually want to launch a sneak attack?”

If he had struck down that sword strike just now, the person hiding in the clouds would definitely take the opportunity to attack.

The threat from the person in the clouds was even greater than that of Lord Wu Yue.

“What?”

“He’s hiding in the clouds? How is that possible? Why didn’t I sense it?”

...

The Supreme Saints of the ten major dark forces, including Duan Lingfeng and the others on Genbu’s divine corpse, were all covered in cold sweat because they didn’t sense it. How high must the other party's cultivation be to be able to hide from their senses?

Duan Lingfeng's spiritual power was powerful. After sensing it carefully, his expression changed. He muttered to himself, "How could it be him?"

Whoosh

A starry sky appeared in the black clouds.

The starry sky was very close to the ground. Massive planets could be clearly seen, emitting a power as powerful as an actual planet.

A man in a yellow robe stood in the center of the starry sky. His body was thousands of feet tall as if a god had descended into the world. He waved his hand, and the Ominous Blade that had fallen to the ground flew into his hand.

He touched the blade and said calmly, "You have committed an unforgivable crime by killing the Ominous Palace's High Priest."

Fortune Palace's High Priest was both surprised and surprised. He said, "How could it be him? He actually came to Hoth."

The ten Supreme Saints of the Dark Forces saw the man standing in the center of the starry sky, and they were all terrified. They even regretted coming to take the Tensho Compass today.

How could the Fane of Destiny not know someone was coming to take the Tensho Compass?

How could they not set up an inescapable net by deliberately fishing?

But it was too late to regret now. If they didn't take the Tensho Compass, they would have to bear the wrath of the Fane of Destiny. They couldn't escape even if they wanted to.

Nothing could hide under the Tensho Compass.

Xue Lingxian asked, "Who is it?"

"The Fane of Destiny, Xingluo," said the man standing in the starry sky.

Zhang Ruochen was enlightened. No wonder the power was so mighty that all the Supreme Saints were shocked. It turned out that this man was the former Scion of the Fane of Destiny, Xingluo.

Every thousand years, the Fane of Destiny would select a Scion or a Scioness.

Some cultivated to become gods, and some retired behind the scenes and disappeared from the world after a thousand years.

Xing Luo was one of the Scions who had yet to break through to divinity.

He had a divine body and could mobilize divine power. Still, he had yet to reach divinity because he was a Corpusian. A spirit born after the death of a god.

It was not because he was not powerful enough that he had yet to break through to divinity. After all, a person who could become the Scion of the Fane of Destiny must be the top existence of that era. He could also obtain cultivation resources that ordinary people could not get.

Some cultivators were not in a perfect state of mind.

Some wanted to accumulate more knowledge. That way, the number of divine planets would increase after becoming a deity.

Some did not want to become a deity because they were still attached to the mortal realm.

...

The appearance of the Xing Luo made all the cultivators in the Fane of Destiny feel relieved.

Lord Wu Yue, beaten into a pile of minced meat, propped up his body again and returned to his original form. However, he was extremely weak and was led over by the three high priests. Then, he swallowed a sacred pill and began to heal his injuries.

The two strikes from Xue Lingxian had almost destroyed his foundation of becoming a deity.

Pan Ruo stared at Gong Nanfeng and said, “Scion Xingluo, did you invite him?”

Gong Nanfeng smiled apologetically with an apologetic look. “Please don’t blame me, my Lady Scioness. After all, whether it is to encircle the ten major dark forces or search for the Fane of Origin, they are all of great importance. We can not afford to lose them.”

Pan Ruo said, “Who else is coming?”

Gong Nanfeng pointed at the colorful cloud in the distance.

A woman also appeared at some point in time on the colorful cloud, apart from the hunchbacked Granny Begonia. She was extremely mysterious, and her entire body was emitting a dark radiance. No one could see her appearance clearly.

“The former Scioness, Yu Qianchen,” Pan Ruo said.

All the Scions and Scionesses who retired after a thousand years would disappear from the world. From then on, they would focus on cultivating and comprehending the Path. Before becoming gods, they would no longer interfere in the Fane of Destiny and the Infernal Court matters.

If the existence of the former Scions and Scionesses was too great, it would not be a good thing for the Fane of Destiny. It would cause internal strife between the former and the latter. At the same time, it would also damage the prestige of the new Scioness.

This was the reason why Gong Nanfeng expressed his apology to Pan Ruo!

Xing Luo raised his voice. “Now, there is only one Scioness in the Fane of Destiny. All the cultivators have to listen to her. There is no longer a Scion called Xing Luo in the world. I shouldn’t have appeared here, but the cultivators of the ten major dark forces want to seize the Divine Artifact when the Fane of Destiny is in transition, and the Jadeite Realm is opening. It is undoubtedly a capital crime.”

“My Lady Scioness, please give the order. Today, the Fane of Destiny will destroy all heretics present.”

Yu Qianchen, standing in front of Granny Begonia, grabbed the Divine Ghost Mask and put it on her face. Instantly, the power on her delicate body rose as if she was possessed by a god.

Ominous Palace's High Priest could only activate the Divine Ghost Mask, but she dared to put it on her face and make it a part of her battle strength. The difference between the two was self-evident.

She was also waiting for Pan Ruo's order.

"Then let's fight!" Pan Ruo said.

Chapter 2495: Sword Thirteen

The arrival of the former Scion and Scioness had boosted the morale of the Fane of Destiny's Supreme Saints. They propped up the Gates of Destiny and unleashed one shocking saint technique after another.

The Gates of Destiny were like countless suns hanging in the sky, suppressing the combat strength of the powerhouses of the ten major dark forces.

The Precepts of Destiny had almost completely pushed apart the precepts of heaven and earth, turning the ten thousand miles of land into a dominion that was absolutely under the control of Destiny.

Mountains were born, but they were soon shattered.

Lakes turned into inland seas, but they were quickly boiled and dried up by flames.

...

Destiny was both molding the world and destroying it.

Xue Lingxian and Xing Luo confronted each other. One stood on the ground, while the other stood in the ocean of stars. Their auras locked onto each other, and their Precept Domains enveloped each other. Their gazes were like knives and swords, sharp as needles against wheat.

..

One was a Scion that appeared once in a thousand years in the Fane of Destiny. He was born to be a genius and led an era.

The other had experienced many ups and downs, washed away all his glory, and strengthened his will. In the end, he rose to the top of the world.

This battle would definitely go down in history.

It could be a battle that the Fane of Destiny would always win and never lose, or it could be a battle that the Undying Blood Silkworm made a living being rise to fame.

In the colorful clouds.

Granny Begonia and Yu Qianchen stood facing each other. No one knew if it was a battle of spiritual power.

The wind and rain came, and the killing intent drowned the world.

A scream sounded out.

The blood of the Supreme Saint dyed the sky red, and it rained down like rain.

The leader of the Sect of River God, Pang Hu, was a magnate that had been in the dark forces for more than 10,000 years. He was struck by a shuttle-shaped weapon from the leader of the Five Wraithions, Zionwraith, and his head was pierced through. He was severely injured and fell to the ground.

Zionwraith was the World Spirit of a Macroworld. It was said that the Macroworld was inside his body.

It could be said that Zionwraith was the strongest powerhouse below divinity of the Death Palace. He was the master of slaughter in the entire Fane of Destiny. When Death Palace's High Priest faced him, he would always lose more than he won.

The leaders of the ten major dark forces might not necessarily be afraid of Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue. Still, they were terrified of the five Wraithions, who were not scared of death.

After all, not everyone was like Wuma Jiuxing, who had the power to kill with a single slash. Only one person was like him in the dark forces in the past 100,000 years.

They were not afraid of Zhuo Yunong and Lord Wu Yue because they had consciousness, spirit, and a desire for life. They were fearful that they would self-destruct and die together.

The five Wraithions were not afraid of them dying together. If they died together, then so be it.

Not long after Pang Hu was severely injured, a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Pneuma Hall, second only to Wuma Jiuxing, was imprisoned in the eternal night by the Nightwraith, one of the Five Wraithions.

By the time this Paramount Realm Supreme Saint broke through Nightwraith and escaped, he had already turned into a skeleton and a layer of skin. The Supreme Saint's blood in his body was almost completely drained.

BOOM!

A five-fingered world more than 300 miles long was formed by Zionwraith. Before the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint self-detonated his Sainthood Source, he was utterly killed, and his body and soul were destroyed.

The defeat of the Enchanton was the greatest humiliation of the five Wraithions.

Today, they were going to kill all the Paramount Realm Supreme Saints from the ten major dark forces and re-establish the power of the Fane of Death to intimidate the entire universe.

Once they succeeded, everyone would be terrified of the Wraithions within 30,000 years.

After a while, under the control of a Lord of Destiny, the leader of one of the ten major dark forces, Prison Sea, was killed by Sengenwraith and Nightwraith. They used a pot of Divine Chaotic Flame. Even if the leader of the Prison Sea used a Quasi-Supreme Artifact, he could not save his life.

The temperature of the Divine Chaotic Flame was over a million degrees. Even powerhouses like Wuma Jiuxing did not dare to touch it. Once they touched it, they would be in danger of dying.

Sengenwraith had spent a hundred years, but he could only refine one pot.

The fall of the first magnate dealt a heavy blow to the morale of the cultivators from the dark forces.

All the cultivators who were still alive felt a shadow in their hearts. They thought that they might really die here today. The Fane of Destiny was able to overpower the Infernal Court and make the ten great clans submit to it. The depth of its foundation was indeed unimaginable.

If not for the fact that they had no choice but to fight, they would have already started to retreat.

The cultivators on Genbu's divine corpse were all terrified.

Usually, it was tough to even meet a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. But today, they witnessed the death of one Paramount Realm Supreme Saint after another. Who would not be shocked?

Shang Yue wanted to make a living and retreat. She said, "Even the leader of the Prison Sea has fallen. The power of the Fane of Destiny is far beyond our expectations. Should we put a halt on the original plan?"

Duan Lingfeng shook his head and said, "The leader of the Prison Sea died because his cultivation was severely weakened by more than 20 Gates of Destiny. In the Fane of Destiny, the only ones who truly have the power to kill are the five Wraithions."

"Look carefully. Be it the three Lords of Destiny or the other powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny, they are all focused on attacking. They do not dare to force the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the hidden forces into a state of death. The ones who truly attacked were the five Wraithions. Their combat powers have reached the Demigod level. They are superior to other Paramount Realm Supreme Saints. Furthermore, they are not afraid of death."

“Uncle-master, are you saying that if something happens to the five Wraithions, the Fane of Destiny will no longer be frightening?” Shang Yue asked.

Duan Lingfeng said, “That’s right.”

“If that’s the case, why aren’t we making a move? If we don’t make a move now, once the ten major dark forces are defeated, we won’t be able to make a move!” Shang Yue said.

Duan Lingfeng’s gaze landed on Xue Lingxian and said, “Let’s wait a little longer. The time hasn’t come yet.”

...

Xue Lingxian was the first to break the standoff and take the initiative to make a move.

Before he moved, the precepts in his body had already turned into a torrent and rushed out first. They collided with the ocean of stars in the sky, causing them to sink and float and annihilate the planets.

Not only was Xing Luo not afraid, he even smiled.

He knew that Xue Lingxian had no choice but to make a move.

If he did not make a move now, the ten major dark forces would be defeated.

And once he made a move, his perfect aura would become imperfect, and he would be at a disadvantage.

The stone sword of the Wordless Sword Manual sliced through heaven and earth, causing the space to tremble, and tens of millions of sword qi spurted out.

Xing Luo raised the Ominous Blade above his head. The fearsome light and Supreme Power emitted from the blade instantly caused the precepts of heaven and earth within a radius of 100,000 kilometers to become chaotic. All the cultivators within 100,000 kilometers felt like they were in a gravitational divine sea and were struggling.

All the living beings within a radius of millions of kilometers could feel the fluctuations of Supreme Power, and their minds were intimidated.

On a planet as massive as Hoth, the skies of many cities were filled with a ferocious glow. It was like a dark red aurora.

A hurricane rose and swept across the icy plains, Snow Mountains, forests, and grasslands. Snowflakes flew like blades.

Boom

The Ominous Blade clashed with the stone sword. After a loud sound, the world became unprecedentedly quiet. It was as if everyone had become deaf.

Boom

Boom

...

They clashed over a hundred times in a row. Even the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint was pushed back by the ferocious energy waves. He floated far away like a fallen leaf.

The ocean of stars in the sky was destroyed. The robes on Xing Luo's body were torn. The hand that held the Ominous Blade was dripping with blood. There was no trace of a smile on his face.

On the other hand, Xue Lingxian seemed to be getting stronger as they fought.

"So the former Scion of the Fane of Destiny is just so-so."

Xue Lingxian said coldly and left him, flying toward the Deathwraith ship that was eight hundred miles long.

Xing Luo saw through Xue Lingxian's intention and snorted. "You are powerful, but you can't kill people in front of me."

Whoosh

Xing Luo used the Great Dimensional Shift and appeared above the Deathwraith ship before Xue Lingxian.

Below, in the Deathwraith ship, Nightwraith and Sengenwraith were working together to kill the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor. They had already imprisoned him in the eternal night. Once the Nine-Eye Ghost Emperor was dead, it would speed up the defeat of the ten major dark forces.

“The realm of the ominous can intimidate the world. The blade of ominous, strike and befall a god.”

The sea of stars appeared again under Xing Luo’s feet, turning into a sky full of stars.

He had used the Ominous Blade to develop a higher knowledge passed down in the Ominous Palace, God-slayer.

Xing Luo had been born in the Ominous Palace before becoming a Scion. Even after becoming a Scion, he had been very close to the Ominous Palace. Under the guidance of Ominous Reverend, he had learned this unique skill.

Even if he didn’t use the Ominous Blade, he could still threaten a Demigod’s life with this attack with his bare hands.

When the Ominous Blade, a Supreme Artifact most compatible with God Slayer, was pushed to the limit, the power unleashed by this move was unparalleled.

Xue Lingxian’s silver hair fluttered in the wind. He also performed the higher knowledge, Destructive Thunder, which combined with the stone sword of the Wordless Sword Manual to transform the little golden figure on the stone sword into a tiny figure of lightning.

The clash between the higher knowledge represented the clash between the two supreme techniques.

Boom

The sea of stars beneath Xing Luo once again shattered. Like a shooting star, he flew for thousands of kilometers and spat a mouthful of blood. A bolt of lightning pierced through his Precept Domain and his chest.

Xue Lingxian was also sent flying, coughing out a mouthful of crystal-clear blood.

However, he had been injured before, no matter how serious his injuries were. For him, this little injury could not stop him from continuing to fight.

Without pause, Xue Lingxian boarded the Deathwraith ship and broke through the eternal night with a sword.

Nine-eyed Ghost King escaped from the trap. His astral physique was no longer solid and had become much fainter. He gave Xue Lingxian a grateful look and rushed into the depths of the Deathwraith ship. He was prepared to control the array hub of the Deathwraith ship and activate the strongest power.

“Damn it, I was so close to killing him.”

Nightwraith felt regretful and glared at Xue Lingxian. Seeing that he was already injured, he did not run away. Instead, he pressed his palm on the ground. Dense precepts surged out, wanting to transform into the eternal night again.

Whish

From the scales of Xue Lingxian’s snake tail, extreme lightning surged out and rushed toward the darkness coming from all directions.

The darkness was scattered, and the extreme lightning struck Nightwraith’s body like thousands of sharp tentacles.

Xing Luo crossed space and landed on the Deathwraith ship. He widened his eyes and shouted, “How dare you!”

This shout contained extreme spiritual power.

Xue Lingxian was not affected. He formed a chain of mountain seals and struck Nightwraith’s chest. Under the cover of the lightning, Nightwraith instantly turned into ashes and dispersed in the wind.

Nightwraith died.

Xing Luo was so angry that he almost vomited blood. Just now, he had said that Xue Lingxian could not kill anyone in front of him, but in the blink of an eye, he was slapped in the face in front of everyone.

At this moment, Xue Lingxian walked toward Sengenwraith again.

Sengenwraith knew how terrifying the lightning was, so he did not dare to touch it. He used a rapid escape and quickly took out a copper pot. There was only one pot of Divine Chaotic Flame left. If he used it well, he might be able to kill Xue Lingxian.

He was expecting Xue Lingxian to catch up.

Unfortunately, Xue Lingxian had already seen through his intentions.

Xue Lingxian was still standing in place when he was tens of miles away. However, the stone sword of the Wordless Sword Manual slashed down and cut him down from mid-air. It was unknown whether he was still alive or not.

After two consecutive losses, the situation was once again equalized. The ten major dark forces' cultivators let out a sigh of relief.

This Xue Lingxian was indeed a god-like existence. He was able to have such a battle record when he fought against Xing Luo. Even the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint was amazed.

Sengenwraith crawled up from the ground, but it had already injured its source, causing its battle prowess to drop drastically.

If it dared to charge forward again, it would be no different from sending itself to death.

Gong Nanfeng sighed long, "I didn't expect the Undying Blood Silkworm to be so powerful. It created a representative of the Yuanhui period. In addition, Xue Lingxian had once ascended to divinity, so his understanding of higher knowledge is even better than other Supreme Saint cultivators. The extremely fearsome lightning is a sure-kill move."

"Is the time right?" asked Que.

He meant that it was time to use the Divine Artifact.

"There's no other way. We can only use the Divine Artifact now," Gong Nanfeng said.

The grand Fane of Destiny had to use the Divine Artifact to suppress the enemy. If the ten clans of Infernal Court and the Celestial Court knew about it, the respect they had for the Fane of Destiny would be greatly reduced.

Any power or empire overthrew was because they had no respect for it.

Respect and fear.

“I must kill one person first.”

Gong Nanfeng took out the Tensho Compass and looked at Granny Begonia and Xue Lingxian, choosing the first prey.

Although the Divine Artifact was powerful, it still needed a strategy to kill powerhouses like Granny Begonia and Xue Lingxian.

After a moment, Gong Nanfeng’s lips moved slightly as he sent out a stream of spiritual power.

Yu Qianchen, confronting Granny Begonia, turned around and flew down from the colorful cloud, rushing toward the Deathwraith ship.

Granny Begonia pointed out her wooden staff across space, and spatial ripples appeared.

Yu Qianchen twisted her body and pointed out a finger.

There were also spatial ripples on the tip of her finger, spreading out in circles.

The exchange between the two was not as earth-shattering as Xue Lingxian and Xing Luo, but it was more exquisite. One could see the true power in the subtleties, which melted together before finally returning to nothingness.

With the help of this spatial impact, Yu Qianchen landed on the sails of the Deathwraith ship at an even faster speed.

“Go get the Tensho Compass. Leave the two of them to me.”

Xue Lingxian sent a voice transmission to Granny Begonia.

He knew the longer they delayed, the more disadvantageous it would be for them.

After all, this was the territory of the Infernal Court. When the powerhouses of the Infernal Court in Enchanton arrived, they would no longer have the chance to seize the Tensho Compass. Although the Dragon Lord had come to Hoth with them, he had already made it clear that they were the only ones who could seize the Tensho Compass and could not do it himself.

The stone sword in Xue Lingxian's hand shrank and became four feet long, the length of a standard sword.

The power of Swordsmanship had significantly decreased.

However, in Xing Luo's perception, Xue Lingxian's threat had become even more incredible, and he felt a sense of danger that made his heart palpitate.

'How could this be?'

Yu Qianchen also sensed the threat. Her beautiful figure landed gracefully and stood side by side with Xing Luo. The Divine Ghost Mask on her face emitted an even brighter brilliance than the blazing sun.

"Attack."

Xing Luo decided to attack first. She slashed out an Ominous Blade, and countless precepts flew out, turning the buildings on the Deathwraith ship into dust.

Yu Qianchen spun and flew up like a beautiful girl. Thousands of graceful spectrals flew out of her body like a fairy dancing. However, they all used a killing technique simultaneously, which was extremely dangerous.

With the help of the Divine Ghost Mask, the power of the technique increased significantly.

At the same time, a spiritual power attack that was very close to divinity was released from her eyes. It rushed toward Xue Lingxian first.

Her spiritual power had reached level 69 and a half, which was the strongest in the world.

Xue Lingxian closed his eyes and held the sword with both hands. His lips moved slightly, and he said three words that no one could hear clearly.

However, Zhang Ruochen recognized these three words through the shape of his lips. His heart trembled.

Gong Nanfeng and Pan Ruo also recognized it. Their expressions changed drastically.

“Watch Out! It’s Sword Thirteen!” Gong Nanfeng exclaimed.

It was too late!

Xue Lingxian’s Heaven Sword Soul rushed out from the top of his head and merged with the stone sword.

Then, he drew a circle on the ground with the sword.

After he finished drawing a circle, half of Hoth and all the living beings within a range of ten million miles could hear the sound of the sword in the wind. The heaven and earth where Xue Lingxian, Xing Luo, and Yu Qianchen were were already filled with sword qi.

In Xing Luo and Yu Qianchen’s field of vision, Xue Lingxian disappeared, and so did the stone sword.

Crack

The stone sword appeared again. It had already pierced through the spectral in the sky and Yu Qianchen’s body.

Xue Lingxian stood behind Yu Qianchen and suffered a spiritual power attack. His body swayed slightly, and the essence, Qi, and spirit in his body significantly declined. The Ominous Blade pierced through his body, leaving a bloody hole that could not be healed.

However, his gaze was still sharp, and his battle intent was vigorous.

Swish

Yu Qianchen’s body cracked. Countless Sword Qi rushed out from the crack like a blossoming sword flower.

The sword flower took away all the ghostly qi and soul power. It was beautiful and gorgeous. It was the last radiance of Yu Qianchen’s brilliant life.

After that, it vanished into thin air, leaving nothing behind.

The former Scioness fell, and a mournful song resounded in the air.

It didn't matter if it was a beautiful woman or heaven's favorite. However, it was just an instant of brilliance in the world. It would eventually fade away and wouldn't be able to last for eternity.

Chapter 2496: The Divine Artifact Was Taken

Yu Qianchen's death shocked everyone.

This was the Scioness of the Fane of Destiny five thousand years ago.

In that era, Yu Qianchen was the most outstanding and influential prodigy in the world. She had led the Infernal Court for a thousand years and was unrivaled in the same realm. She represented the Fane of Destiny and led the army of the Infernal Court. She had swept through countless Macroworlds and killed many Supreme Saints.

In the eyes of all the cultivators in the myriad worlds of Celestial Court, she was once synonymous with invincibility. The most terrifying female demoness was the supreme ruler of the Infernal Court.

The battle between divinities was too far away from them and would not affect them. On the contrary, it did not have much influence.

Five thousand years ago, when she stepped down from the position of Scioness, she was already a first-class powerhouse below divinity.

5,000 years of accumulation had allowed her cultivation to reach the highest level. It didn't matter if it was the pinnacle of the Paramount Realm or the pseudo god. They would be defeated in less than ten breaths.

In fact, her level 69 and a half spiritual power was enough to dominate the world.

..

However, such a powerhouse, who had once shaken the world, was killed by Xue Lingxian. It was easy to imagine how terrifying Xue Lingxian's reputation would be after this news was spread.

"Sword Thirteen! I didn't expect there to be a cultivator in the world who could cultivate Sword Thirteen to the grand completion in the Supreme Saint Realm. With this sword strike, Xue Lingxian is invincible in the world." Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly.

Zhang Ruochen thought he was a genius in Swordsmanship. However, he still comprehended Sword Eleven and hadn't reached the grand completion.

Only the cultivator knew how difficult it was to cultivate the Wordless Sword Manual.

The further one went, the more difficult it became.

One could not succeed with hard work and time.

Duan Lingfeng felt as if he had been suffocated just now. It took him a long time to recover. He said, "What a terrifying sword! Can the pseudo god withstand this sword?"

"Uncle Master, this Xue Lingxian is invincible under divinity, right? I don't think Lord Wu Ma could withstand that sword just now," Shang Yue said in a trembling voice.

Duan Lingfeng shook his head and said, "Not necessarily! Wuma Jiuxing's blade energy has reached its pinnacle, and he can slash instantly. It can be said that he is always successful. powerhouses at their level have never fought before, so how do we know who is stronger?"

...

...

Yu Qianchen's spectral body dissipated, and Xing Luo heard Gong Nanfeng's shout of "Sword Thirteen".

Xing Luo was not an ordinary person. He was the top presence in the world. He could see that although Xue Lingxian had killed Yu Qianchen, he was also heavily injured. Therefore, he changed his body and struck out like a phantom.

When he struck out, the precepts condensed into the light shadow of the Buddha Tower.

The Paramount-level saint technique, the Great Pagoda Palm.

Xue Lingxian's eyes were calm. He seemed to have expected this and lightly pushed out his palm.

BANG!

Xing Luo retreated seven steps in a row.

Xue Lingxian's palm was not only extremely powerful, but the lightning from his palm also left three scorched black wounds on Xing Luo's right arm. They were ferocious and terrifying.

The wounds were so deep that the bones could be seen. Blood was oozing out from the injuries, and the pain was unbearable.

His entire right arm seemed to have lost consciousness, and he could not circulate his power.

Xue Lingxian was sent flying several miles away, and fresh blood flowed from his mouth.

His chest had been pierced through by the Ominous Blade, and the bloody hole left behind was also spewing out blood. The wounds could not be healed.

The essence, Qi, and spirit in his body became even weaker.

The price he had to pay to kill Yu Qianchen was too great. His spiritual power and physical body had been severely injured, and he was at a disadvantage when fighting against Xing Luo.

Xue Lingxian let out a long cry, and the blood that flowed from his chest flew back and turned into fine silk wrapped around his body.

The wound on his chest slowly healed.

Xing Luo withdrew the Ominous Blade, and his eyes were shocked. "How is this possible? The Ominous Blade's baleful qi and Supreme Power have already invaded his body through the wound. How can the wound heal so easily?"

Silver brilliance was emitting from Xue Lingxian's body, and the butterfly wings on his back radiated bloody brilliance. The world turned into half silver and half blood red.

He was indeed heavily wounded, but his aura did not diminish. The stone sword in his hand hummed again. The voice was sharp, indicating that the will in his heart was unyielding.

Xing Luo let out a long sigh. "I came here for Wuma Jiuxing, but I didn't expect to meet you first. This era is indeed as predicted. It's more exciting than any other era. There will be many evildoers, and the strong will step on their bones and ascend to divinity most gloriously."

Xing Luo grabbed the Divine Ghost Mask floating in the air and put it on his face. The starry sky under his feet unfolded, and a giant shadow of a Ghost God appeared behind him. The power that burst out was significantly increased.

Anyone could see that Xue Lingxian's injuries were severe. Still, Xing Luo had received the help of the Divine Ghost Mask, and his battle strength had significantly increased.

One side was weaker, and the other was stronger.

If they continued to fight, Xue Lingxian would definitely lose, and there was even a risk of dying.

Contrary to everyone's expectations, Xue Lingxian did not run away. Instead, he brandished his stone sword and took the initiative to attack. The monstrous blood qi that surged out of his body turned into a river of blood. Like the nether river in the universe, it collided with the stars under Xing Luo's feet.

On the other side, Granny Begonia attacked the three high priests of the Fane of Destiny, trying to seize the Divine Artifact, the Tensho Compass.

Granny Begonia launched a spiritual attack, making the three high priests tired of fighting. They didn't have any other energy to activate the Supreme Artifact. In the spiritual power confrontation, the three high priests were at a disadvantage. With every step Granny Begonia took, they would take a step back.

Lord Wu Yue, who was recuperating, stood up with Destiny Halberd in his hand. He said, “The spiritual power of the three high priests is not weak, but it’s hard to resist with the combined strength of three people. Is the spiritual power of this colorful begonia really below level 70?”

Sengenwraith also stood up as if he was facing a great enemy. He looked at the old figure walking over from the colorful flower rain in the sky.

Gong Nanfeng’s expression was solemn. The Tensho Compass in his hand emitted circles of divine light and ripples. He said, “Support me.”

Gong Nanfeng threw the Tensho Compass up and patted his chest. He spat out a mouthful of blood.

After the Tensho Compass absorbed his blood, it exploded with a divine might that sounded like a tsunami. Streaks of divine light and Qi broke through the clouds and dyed the sky for thousands of miles.

Lord Wu Yue, Sengenwraith, Que, and Pan Ruo mobilized their powers and turned into light pillars that surged toward the Tensho Compass.

The power of the Tensho Compass increased. The light it emitted made Zhang Ruochen’s eyes hurt from thousands of miles away. On the back of Genbu’s divine corpse, the other spiritual-power Saint Masters screamed. Blood flowed out of their eyes, and they became blind.

They were still tens of thousands of miles away. If they were any closer, their bodies would have exploded from the impact of the Divine Artifact.

Shang Yue, Lord Ironclad, and the others were all shocked.

Although they were Supreme Saints with top cultivation, they had never seen a Divine Artifact before. Who would have thought that a Divine Artifact would be so terrifying?

The light waves emitted by the Divine Artifact could heavily injure a Saint-level cultivator tens of thousands of miles away.

Duan Lingfeng was both excited and fanatical. He roared, "The time has come. Next, it's our turn to go on stage and seize the Divine Artifact. All the Supreme Saints have their own duties. All the spiritual-power Saint Masters, do your best to mobilize your spiritual power and activate the inscription of the array formation."

Under cover of the Cloaking Array formation, Genbu's divine corpse walked towards the core of the battlefield.

The Supreme Saints under Bai Qing'er were both fearful and excited.

What a remarkable feat to snatch the Divine Artifact.

...

The Tensho Compass flew out and drew a path of light, destroying the space around the light path and disrupting time. The Sea of flowers that Granny Begonia had manifested could not stop the Tensho Compass and instantly turned into ashes.

No power could stop the Divine Artifact.

In the eyes of all the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny, Granny Begonia was dead for sure.

"Sword Pavilion!"

Granny Begonia dispersed her body and returned to her original form. She turned into a colorful begonia and bloomed in the void.

The begonia tree was thousands of miles tall and had countless flowers. The colorful light emitted by the petals illuminated the earth and the starry sky.

Under the influence of the Tensho Compass, the petals quickly withered, and the branches and leaves were damaged. The entire begonia tree was about to wither.

An ancient pagoda flew out from the damaged branches and leaves.

The pagoda's body spun rapidly, and wisps of smoke surrounded the pagoda. Tens of thousands of ancient swords flew in the smoke, making ear-piercing sounds of rushing wind.

It was the Sword Pavilion.

Boom

The Sword Pavilion and the Tensho Compass collided, and a powerful energy storm spread out in all directions. The mountains were destroyed, and the earth was torn apart.

Gong Nanfeng looked at the sky, and his hands couldn't help but tighten. He said, "Why did you block the attack of the Divine Artifact? I see, I see, I understand..."

Suddenly, a white light appeared in the sky, and the light became brighter and brighter.

It was a sword.

It was a sword that emitted pure light.

"Everyone, be careful. It's the Great Lightsword," Fortune Palace's High Priest said.

The Great Lightsword was similar to the Divine Book of Light. It was a Divine Artifact of the Fane of Light.

The Great Lightsword in front of them was only a replica, but its grade was extremely high. It was at the level of Class Seven Regal Artifact.

CRACK!

The Great Lightsword split Sengenwraith's body in half.

The sword contained pure light energy that was used to counter the cultivators of the Infernal Court. The two halves of Sengenwraith could not be reassembled. The flesh on the wound turned into specks of light.

The three high priests of the Fane of Destiny were furious. Although they wanted to lure out the Celestial Court's hidden powerhouses from the Infernal Court and kill them all in one fell swoop, there were two variables, Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia.

The Celestial Court's side attacked at this time. They wanted to take advantage of both of them being injured.

Of course, they did not know that the Great Lightsword was activated by the dozens of Supreme Saints on Genbu's divine corpse. These Supreme Saints were Bai Qing'er's subordinates.

Without the support from Sengenwraith, the power of the Tensho Compass would be significantly reduced.

The colorful begonia tree regained vitality in the void and blossomed with flowers. Countless battle swords flew out from the Sword Pavilion Pagoda and formed a sword formation to trap the Tensho Compass. They wanted to force it into the pagoda.

The Sword Pavilion spun, and space and time also revolved, turning into a Space-time Vortex.

Countless Precepts of Dimension, Marks of Time, and Precepts of Swordsmanship wrapped around the Tensho Compass and pulled it. The pulling force was far more robust than the Violet Gourd.

On the back of Genbu's divine corpse, a group of Supreme Saints controlled the Great Lightsword and attacked the three high priests.

Duan Lingfeng stood in the center and released his spiritual power. Instantly, countless inscriptions of an array appeared on the Genbu's back. In the array, the world became dark and intense winds blew.

The spiritual-power Saint Masters who assisted Duan Lingfeng in activating the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation discovered to his horror that the array below them was like a bottomless pit. Not only did it quickly drain their spiritual power, but it also began to devour their Saint Souls and blood. It even began to devour their Saint Souls and blood.

"High-saint master, I can't hold on any longer. Quickly stop the formation!"

"This formation... isn't something we can activate... Ah... help... help..."

“I knew it. When they decided to snatch the Divine Artifact, we were already doomed. “Right now, we’ve only turned into the essence of the formation... we’re just tools of the Enchanter Chamber...”

...

One spiritual-power Saint Master after another was sucked dry by the array.

Their spiritual power, Saint Soul, and blood were all sucked away and turned into dried corpses.

Duan Lingfeng held his staff and laughed crazily. He was laughing at their ignorance and pity, but also because he was excited that he was about to take the Divine Artifact.

Zhang Ruochen’s pretense was also sucked dry. He disguised himself as a dried corpse and fell into the array.

He could roughly guess that Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia must have taken the Tensho Compass to rescue the lord of Nephilim Island. He wanted to destroy Duan Lingfeng’s plan and let Granny Begonia use the Sword Pavilion to take the Tensho Compass away.

However, his reason told him that Duan Lingfeng, who controlled the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation, was at his most potent.

It would be difficult if he attacked now, even if the Intergold Tiger helped him.

The Tensho Compass was about to be sucked into the Sword Pavilion’s Space-time Vortex.

Whoosh

The space shook.

Genbu’s divine corpse rushed out of the clouds and crushed the Space-time Vortex with one claw before swallowing the Tensho Compass.

“How dare you! You dare to take the Divine Artifact? Kill without mercy!”

The Anger Palace's High Priest roared as he and the Death Palace's High Priest charged forward and unleashed their Supreme Artifacts.

Genbu's divine corpse had the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation's buffs, making it extremely powerful. A snake tail flew out from the back of Genbu, knocking the two high priests and the two Supreme Artifacts back.

The snake tail was a part of the divine corpse, but it was shattered by the Supreme Artifact.

Large amounts of divine blood fell to the ground.

Activating the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation consumed much of Duan Lingfeng's spiritual power. He couldn't stand properly, so he didn't dare to continue fighting. He quickly activated the spatial formation he had set up.

Whoosh

A white light flashed, and the space shook violently.

Genbu's divine corpse's huge body disappeared into the sky.

The Tensho Compass was snatched away by the powerhouses of the Heavenly Realm!

This result was out of all the cultivators' expectations.

All the parties fighting, be it the magnates of the ten dark forces or the Supreme Powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny, all stopped.

Fukurokuju kept the great light sword and stared at the sky. He was lost in thought for a long time before he asked, "Have you deduced who took the Tensho Compass?"

All the cultivators shook their heads.

Fukurokuju looked around and asked in surprise, "Where's Gong Nanfeng?"

Everyone shook their heads again. No one noticed where Lord Overseer had gone. Perhaps, in the chaos, he had been hit by the aftermath of the battle and turned into dust.

Death Palace's High Priest was furious and roared, "Seal all the wormholes on Hoth and don't allow any cultivators to leave. Investigate! Find out which Archsaint or Hand of the World came to Hoth."

After the Divine Artifact was stolen, the cultivators of the ten major dark forces immediately fled.

The Fane of Destiny didn't pursue them. At this time, the most important thing was to recover the Divine Artifact.

It could be imagined that the news of the theft of the Tensho Compass would spread like lightning and couldn't be covered up even if they wanted to. If the Divine Artifact wasn't taken back, the Fane of Destiny would become a joke worldwide.

In the future, any faction would dare to secretly attack the Fane of Destiny. This included the ten clans of Infernal Court.

“Should we inform the gods and ask them to make a move...”

A Lord of Destiny had just opened his mouth when he was met with cold gazes. Thus, he shut his mouth.

First of all, the other party had come prepared. Evidently, he had considered alerting the god of the Fane of Destiny. He definitely had a backup plan.

Secondly, they had many powerhouses present, yet they lost the Tensho Compass. This was already a significant loss of face. Not only would they be ridiculed by all living beings, but even the cultivators within the fane would also feel ashamed of them.

In the fane, many seniors were worrying about not having a chance to get a promotion!

Now, they had asked the gods to help them tell everyone how incompetent they were?

Whether for the Fane of Destiny or for themselves, the Divine Artifact had to be taken back by them.

Pan Ruo said, “The Divine Artifact is lost, but we still have to immediately send the news back to the fane and let the gods know. But we also must tell the gods that we will definitely recover the Divine Artifact and make up for our mistakes. As for whether the gods will trust us or not is not an issue for us to consider.”

The Anger Palace’s High Priest nodded and said, “I believe that Lady Scioness is right.”

Death Palace’s High Priest’s face was gloomy as he said, “The saint army of the Destiny Division, the Adjudication Division, and the Divination Division will have to dispatch at least 300,000 soldiers. I think we should sweep through Hoth.”

“What kind of place do you think Hoth is? If you dare to sweep Hoth with blood, the Hoth Emperor will not forgive you,” the Anger Palace’s High Priest said.

He was very angry with Death Palace’s High Priest. He felt that Death Palace’s High Priest should bear at least half the responsibility for the loss of the Divine Artifact. Because the plan to cooperate with the Enchanter Chamber was made by Death Palace’s High Priest.

And the Anger Palace’s High Priest never trusted the Enchanter Chamber.

Pan Ruo said, “To deploy the armies of the three divisions to Hoth, we must first inform the Hoth Palace. Since the Divine Artifact was lost on Hoth, the Hoth Palace will be involved no matter what. I believe the Hoth Emperor will not make things difficult for us.”

Fortune Palace’s High Priest walked over, his face ashen, “I went to check the remaining Dimensional Inscriptions. They are a one-time spatial teleportation array. Based on the intensity of the spatial fluctuations, I estimate that they have teleported at least a hundred million miles away. In other words, they have gone to another planet.”

“Can you predict the specific dimensional coordinates?” Pan Ruo asked.

Fortune Palace’s High Priest said, “According to the divine blood scattered by the divine corpse, I deduced that their current position should be in the northern starry sky.”

“We’ll go after them now.”

A few Lords of Destiny were about to set off immediately.

“Wait.” Pan Ruo asked, “Is there a star map of the starry sky near Hoth?”

A Stone Clan Lord of Destiny looked down on this young Scioness, thinking she was wasting time. He said, “Lady Scioness, Hoth belongs to the desert zone in deep space. The nearest planet above class seven is three light-years away. Even a Supreme Saint wouldn’t be able to reach it in a hundred years by flying!

“If the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm want to escape back to the Heavenly Realm with the Tensho Compass, they have to go through the dimensional wormhole of Hoth.

“I think they went 100 million miles away through the teleportation array to lure us into chasing after them. This is a trick to lure the tiger away from the mountain!

“Therefore, the Destiny Division should go after the Divine Artifact and kill the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm. The other cultivators of the Fane of Destiny must stay on Hoth and watch all the wormholes.”

Pan Ruo shook her head. “We can’t be sure that it’s the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm who took the Tensho Compass. The Great Lightsword isn’t evident enough.”

The Lord of Destiny of the Stone Clan took a Communication talisman and threw it at Pan Ruo. “We’ve found out that the Hand of the World of the Formation Sect, High-Saint Kai Luo, sneaked into Hoth recently. It’s most likely his doing.”

“However, I have received news that High-Saint Kai Luo and the powerful figures of the Heavenly Realm have appeared in Enchanton. They shot and killed Zhang Ruochen,” Pan Ruo said.

The Lord of Destiny of the Stone Clan said, “High-Saint Kai Luo can do it. After killing Zhang Ruochen, he can use the dimensional teleportation array to come here and take away the Tensho Compass.”

Pan Ruo was very emotional. She said coldly, “Was High-Saint Kai Luo that powerful? He can kill Zhang Ruochen and take away his body in front of Yuan Qianmo, Zhuo Yunong, and other powerhouses of the Infernal Court. And he can run thousands of miles and take away the Tensho Compass from us. Is this something he can do alone? There must be a very powerful figure in the scheme. We must not let down our guard.”

“In my opinion, Lady Scioness is just stalling for time. If the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm were to suppress the vessel spirit of the Tensho Compass, it would be challenging for them to find the Divine Artifact. I’m sorry, but I have to chase after them immediately.” said the Stone Clan Lord of Destiny.

The four Lords of Destiny, apart from the heavily injured Lord Wu Yue, led the other three powerhouses of the Destiny Division to chase after the northern starry sky.

Pan Ruo clenched her hands, trying to stop them, but she couldn’t.

Ultimately, she was a Scioness with too little experience and cultivation. Her words had no weight.

“I’ll go talk to the Hoth Palace.”

Lord Wu Yue also left.

Death Palace’s High Priest said, “I’ll mobilize the power of the Fane of Destiny and seal all the wormholes on Hoth.”

Fortune Palace’s High Priest was very worried. He said, “Zhang Ruochen is a junior that the Lord Reverend thinks highly of. I have to go to Enchanton to find out if he has died. If he has died, we must find the real culprit no matter what.”

Fortune Palace's High Priest sighed deeply. He knew that if Zhang Ruochen really died, the impact would not be less than the loss of the Divine Artifact.

Once Wargod Bloodximus returned from the Jadeite Realm, he would demand an explanation from Mount Destiny once he got angry. Who could suppress him?

In the end, there was a big reason why Zhang Ruochen had appeared from hiding. It was because of the Tensho Compass. If the Tensho Compass didn't reach Hoth, who could find Zhang Ruochen? Naturally, he didn't need to prove his innocence.

'I hope the Intergold Tiger can protect him,' Fortune Palace's High Priest thought.

The Anger Palace's High Priest glanced at Pan Ruo. They sympathized with her awkward situation, "Lady Scioness, there's no need to worry. As long as all the wormholes on Hoth are sealed, it's impossible to lose the Divine Artifact even if someone is scheming.

"If there are gods from the Heavenly Realm waiting for them outside the planet, they won't need to use the wormholes.

"This is Hoth. The gods from the Heavenly Realm don't dare to appear in the nearby starry sky."

Que shut his mouth and didn't say anything else.

The Anger Palace's High Priest continued, "The ten major dark forces have been operating on Hoth for many years. They control many wormholes. If we don't kill them, it will be a disaster. I will join forces with the powerhouses from the other forces to kill them all."

In the end, only Que, Xing Luo, and Pan Ruo remained.

Xing Luo had been watching Pan Ruo the entire time, "Actually, I have the same feeling as you. This matter is indeed bizarre. There's a strange feeling that there's an invisible hand controlling everything. However, what they're doing isn't wrong either. They should indeed immediately go after the cultivator who took the Tensho Compass. There's no time to waste."

Xing Luo turned around and was about to leave.

“Where are you going, Xing Luo?” Pan Ruo asked.

The corner of Xing Luo’s mouth curled up. “I am no longer the Scion, so I will not bear the responsibility of losing the Divine Artifact. In that case, of course I am going to do what I want to do.”

Xing Luo planned to go after Xue Lingxian and get rid of him when he was vulnerable.

Once Xue Lingxian’s injuries healed, he did not have the confidence to defeat him.

Pan Ruo said, “I know that in your eyes, the Divine Artifact might not be important.”

“That’s right. So what if we find the Divine Artifact? It’s not under my control anyway.” Xing Luo shrugged.

Pan Ruo said, “But you’re the former Scion of the Fane of Destiny. Don’t you care about the fane’s prestige and reputation? The loss of the Divine Artifact will seriously blow the fane’s prestige.

“Besides, you don’t want to be played in the palm of others, do you?”

Xing Luo’s eyes were restrained. He thought for a moment and said, “Tell me, what do you want me to do, Lady Scioness?”

Although this new Scioness’ cultivation was low, she could cultivate the Door of Trueself. She was not a mediocre person. It was an excellent opportunity to see if this little girl who was about to control the Fane of Destiny had such great ability?

Pan Ruo said, “Investigate the Enchanter Chamber.”

“The Enchanter Chamber? What about them?” Xing Luo was surprised.

Pan Ruo said, “The first place where the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin appeared was the House of Enchanters. The place where the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin disappeared was also the House of Enchanters. The Enchanter Chamber’s cultivators claimed that Zhang Ruochen had taken the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. That's why we came to Hoth with the Tensho Compass.

"The Fane of Destiny cooperated with the Enchanteur Chamber to deal with the ten dark forces and the cultivators of the Celestial Court hiding in the Infernal Court. The Enchanteur Chamber agreed very quickly. Of course, it was because they didn't dare to disobey the Fane of Destiny. However, they were so active in contacting the other nine dark forces. The other nine dark forces didn't have any doubts. I always felt that it was too abnormal.

"Apart from that, the relationship between the Enchanteur Chamber and the Celestial Court is very subtle. As far as I know, there are often cultivators from the Celestial Court who sneak into the Infernal Court through the Enchanteur Chamber.

"It can be said that the Enchanteur Chamber has connections with the Fane of Destiny, the ten dark forces, and the Heavenly Realm, so they can know information about the three of us. If there really is someone who has set up a scheme, the Enchanteur Chamber has the best conditions and is most likely to succeed."

Although Xing Luo did not believe that a mere Enchanteur Chamber would dare to make an enemy of the Fane of Destiny and seize the Divine Artifact, the Tensho Compass. However, what Pan Ruo said made some sense. On second thought, the Enchanteur Chamber was quite suspicious.

However, everyone focused on the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, the Tensho Compass, the ten dark forces, High-Saint Kai Luo, Zhang Ruochen, and the dimensional wormhole. Instead, they ignored the Enchanteur Chamber.

They had been hiding in the blind spots of all cultivators' attention.

The more powerful a cultivator was, the more they would ignore the Enchanteur Chamber. They thought they didn't dare and couldn't participate in this competition.

After Xing Luo left, Pan Ruo stared at Que and said self-mockingly, “As a Scioness, I didn’t even have a powerhouse by my side. I can’t deal with any of the top-notch Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints from the ten dark forces.”

“What do you want to do? I’ll help you! As long as you don’t meet a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, my sword is still sharp enough,” Que said.

From the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting to Hoth, although Que rarely spoke and watched coldly from the side, he could tell that this new Scioness was indeed extremely intelligent. She could remain calm even in the most critical moment.

When everyone was in a state of panic, she could make all kinds of rational decisions.

Such a woman made him feel a sense of admiration and admiration.

It was not easy for someone as arrogant as Que to acknowledge Pan Ruo. With his support, it was only a matter of time before Pan Ruo took control of the Fane of Destiny.

Pan Ruo said, “We need to find a star map of the starry sky around Hoth first.”

Que was also an intelligent person. He immediately understood and said, “You suspect that there are other wormholes around Hoth?”

“Not necessarily,” said Pan Ruo.

In the northern universe 170 million miles away from Hoth, a Space-time Vortex suddenly formed, and Genbu's divine corpse appeared out of thin air. Then, the Space-time Vortex disappeared, and the universe remained silent.

Duan Lingfeng looked behind him at the distant white Hoth that was only the size of a washbasin, and a proud smile appeared on his face. So what if there were so many powerhouses in the Fane of Destiny? The Divine Artifact had still been snatched away by me.

Unfortunately, this matter was crucial, and he could not make it public. Otherwise, with this battle, Duan Lingfeng would be famous worldwide.

Shang Yue, Lord Ironclad, Gu Yanzhi, and the other Supreme Saints gathered joyfully. They were highly excited.

To snatch the Divine Artifact and succeed, such an incredible feat was enough for them to be proud of for the rest of their lives.

Shang Yue said, "Uncle-master, the Great Lightsword has been taken away by Fortune Palace's High Priest!"

Duan Lingfeng waved his hand and smiled, "It's a small matter! With the Tensho Compass, it's better than a thousand Great Lightswords. Moreover, our goal is to let the Fane of Destiny think that the Heavenly Realm took the Tensho Compass."

“You are a great strategist, Duan Linfeng. Even the Fane of Destiny and the nine dark forces have been played around. I admire you, I really admire you.” Lord Ironclad cupped his hands and laughed respectfully.

“I can not take credit for this. It is all junior sister’s plan. She is the one with the pearl of wisdom that led us to a thousand more victories.” Duan Lingfeng’s eyes flashed with a strange look, and the corners of his mouth rose unconsciously.

Gu Yanzhi did not know that the purpose of this trip was to seize the Divine Artifact. Previously, he was so scared that his heart almost jumped out. Even now, he was extremely worried. He said, “The Fane of Destiny will seal all the wormholes on Hoth. We have no way to take the Divine Artifact away.”

“Who said that only Hoth has wormholes?” Duan Lingfeng asked.

Gu Yanzhi said, “The closest Class Seven Planet to Hoth is called Sunyata. It’s located three light-years away and tens of trillion miles away. It would take us less than a thousand years to fly there. Moreover, we must be careful and not get lost in the universe.”

The universe was larger than the ocean, and it was easier to get lost.

Duan Lingfeng took out a star map and laid it on the ground.

In the center of the star map was a big white star with the word “Hoth” written on it.

Around the big white star, there were more than twenty tiny circle and their trajectories.

Each tiny circle represented a planet.

“Class Two Planet, Azuria.”

“Class One Planet, Ghostorb.”

...

Duan Lingfeng pointed to the edge of the star map to the east of Hoth.

There were densely packed black dots named the “Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt”.

“This is where we’re going!” Duan Lingfeng said.

Gu Yanzhi was puzzled. He said, “There’s a wormhole here? The Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt was more than two billion miles away from Hoth. With my cultivation, it would take me half a year to get there even if I tried my best. It’s just a barren gravel area. No cultivator has been there for many years.”

Duan Lingfeng said, “My junior sister once observed the astrological events and saw that densely packed asteroids were not born naturally. Therefore, she flipped through the ancient scrolls and found that in the distant past, there used to be a Class Seven Quarry Planet called Oort.”

A Class Seven Planet had a diameter of at least a million miles.

Moreover, any place with a Class Seven Planet or above would have a spatial wormhole.

Duan Lingfeng continued, “Later, the ores of Oort were completely extracted, and the planet shattered, turning into an asteroid belt. From then on, that place was abandoned, and no cultivators ever went there again.”

Gu Yanzhi’s worried heart finally settled down. It turned out that Lady Bai had already prepared a backup plan, which was a perfect plan.

The Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt was in the east, but they were teleported to the north. Obviously, they planned to attract the powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny to the north to avoid being pursued relentlessly.

Duan Lingfeng said, “The blood of Genbu’s divine corpse spilled on the battlefield, and the coordinates will be predicted by the high priest of the Fane of Destiny. I must immediately suppress the vessel spirit of the Tensho Compass and then abandon Genbu’s divine corpse. All of you retreat far away and use your saint artifacts to freeze space and prevent the Tensho Compass from escaping.”

Whoosh

The Supreme Saints flew out of Genbu's divine corpse and floated into the pitch-black space. They each summoned their Regal Artifacts and used their power to form a circle.

The light from the dozens of Regal Artifacts formed a sphere with a diameter of hundreds of miles.

Duan Lingfeng held the Genbu Warstaff and stood alone on the back of Genbu's divine corpse. He mumbled, and his mighty spiritual power spread out in all directions like dense threads.

The inscriptions of the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation were attached to the shell of Genbu's divine corpse and flew higher and higher.

Without the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation, the Tensho Compass turned into a beam of divine light. It broke through the divine corpse, flying toward the direction of Hoth.

Duan Lingfeng's hair fluttered in the wind. He laughed and said, "Trying to escape? Genbu, devourer of heaven and eater of earth."

The inscription of the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation completely broke away from the Genbu shell and turned into dense light patterns. Like a Genbu made of light patterns, it swallowed the Tensho Compass into its stomach again.

The Tensho Compass rampaged inside the body of the Genbu, making a deafening noise.

The space kept shaking.

"Withdraw!"

Duan Lingfeng gritted his teeth. His eyes were ferocious. His hands were trembling. He controlled the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation to keep shrinking, pressing the array inscription onto the Tensho Compass.

Using the array to suppress the vessel spirit.

Gu Yanzhi sighed. "The array inscription can break away from Genbu's divine corpse. It seems that Duan Lingfeng is only one step away from becoming an Archsaint."

Zhang Ruochen, who lay on the ground like a dried corpse on Genbu's divine corpse's shell, opened his eyes.

Duan Lingfeng was doing his best to suppress the Tensho Compass. He did not notice the "living" dried corpse behind him.

"It's not too late for me to attack after this old man has suppressed the Tensho Compass."

Zhang Ruochen quietly took out the Ugyen Cudgel and hid it under his body.

"Put it away."

Duan Lingfeng roared again. His eyes were bloodshot, and his face was full of bulging meridians. His body's spiritual power was released, like a star blooming in the void.

The spiritual power in his body was significantly consumed, and his state of mind was getting weaker and weaker, but Duan Lingfeng was very excited.

This was a Divine Artifact!

It was initially a Divine Artifact of the Fane of Destiny, and it was about to belong to him.

That's right.

He didn't plan to give the Tensho Compass to Bai Qing'er and planned to keep it for himself.

Where in the world would there be a fool who would give away a Divine Artifact?

When the last inscription of the array landed on the Tensho Compass, the divine light emitted by the Tensho Compass completely dimmed and fell from the sky into the trembling hands of Duan Lingfeng.

The Tensho Compass was a black disc the size of a palm. On the disc, there were countless densely-packed lines, as well as words and patterns that were so small that they could not be recognized by the naked eye.

It was likely that the disc had to be enlarged to the size of a planet to see the lines, words, and patterns clearly.

In the center of the disc, a white needle was embedded.

At this moment, the Tensho Compass was covered by a densely-packed inscription of the array. On the back of the disc, a Genbu formation mark appeared.

Duan Lingfeng's eyes were filled with eagerness. He quickly removed a black cloth belt made of unique material and placed the Tensho Compass inside. This prevented the powerhouses from the Fane of Destiny from predicting its location.

The dozens of Supreme Saints who were floating in mid-air kept their artifacts. All of them were overjoyed.

From their point of view, as the vessel spirit of the Divine Artifact was suppressed, this operation could be said to be a success.

A gloomy look flashed across Duan Lingfeng's eyes. He intended to kill all of them to silence them. However, his spiritual power was severely exhausted, so he couldn't do anything. He thought, 'It's not too late to attack after my spiritual power has recovered a little.'

Duan Lingfeng said, "Everyone, with the cultivation of the top powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny, can reach here in two days at most. We must hurry up and head to the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt..."

BANG!

Halfway through his words, Duan Lingfeng's head was smashed open by a Ugyen Cudgel.

Everyone who was still floating in the air was stunned.

They saw that a dried corpse had appeared behind Duan Lingfeng without them knowing.

While stunned, the dried corpse picked up the black cloth belt containing the Tensho Compass and quickly fled south. In the blink of an eye, it had run dozens of miles away at an extraordinary speed.

Duan Lingfeng thought, 'Damn it, he's hiding among those spiritual-power Saint Masters. Who is he? Could he be a powerhouse of the Corpusians?'

“We covet gains before our eyes in disregard of the troubles ahead. It seems there’s an even greater threat now. Quick, after him,” said Duan Lingfeng.

...

Shang Yue, Lord Ironclad, Lord Yue Lin of the Ji Feng City, and the three Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints struck out their artifacts at the first moment and attacked Zhang Ruochen.

Shang Yue’s Saint Sword, Lord Ironclad’s White Bonespear, and Vampiric Bracelet were powerful Regal Artifacts. They could destroy the world with their cultivation.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t want to expose his identity, so he didn’t use his saint Qi.

He held the Ugyen Cudgel and used his physical strength to send Saint Sword, White Bonespear, and Vampiric Bracelet flying. He used the three forces to escape hundreds of miles away.

As for the energy from the three Regal Artifacts, they couldn’t hurt his skin or flesh.

Shang Yue’s beautiful eyes were filled with shock. “He can parry my sword away with just his physical strength. How powerful is his body?”

She didn’t know that Zhang Ruochen had broken through the 100th shackle. Although he hadn’t reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred Shackle Realm, more than half of the Demigod-level physical strength had been released.

“I’ll shoot him down.”

A mysterious Supreme Saint in white took out a snow-white jade bow and put an arrow emitting bright power on the bowstring.

His name was Tian Mu. His cultivation had reached the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm. He was originally a cultivator in the Heavenly Realm. After being subdued by Bai Qing’er, he became a slave.

He was the one who had offered the Great Lightsword to Bai Qing'er.

The bowstring was pulled open. Numerous Precepts of Light flowed rapidly on the bow and arrow, giving off a brilliant light.

BANG!

The saint arrow dragged out a thousand-meter-long tail and flew like a meteor.

“Bai Qing'er's methods are too incredible. Even a cultivator of the Heavenly Realm was subdued by her.”

Zhang Ruochen quietly released the Null Time realm. After the saint arrow flew into the domain, its speed slowed.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen turned around quickly. He conjured the Ugyen Cudgel and sent the saint arrow flying.

However, Tian Mu's second and third arrows, restricting him, came one after another.

Shang Yue, Lord Ironclad, and Lord Yue Lin, three influential figures in the Banshi Isshou Realm, led several Supreme Saints and surrounded him from three different directions.

Duan Lingfeng's smashed head condensed again under the influence of his spirits on Genbu's divine corpse's back. It had angry eyes and a twisted, ferocious face.

Duan Lingfeng's head condensed again, alerting Zhang Ruochen.

Although the physical quality of a spiritual power cultivator was weak, reaching the 69th level could produce all kinds of mysteries. Even if the physical body was destroyed, he would not die. His vitality was more potent than that of a Supreme Saint.

‘Although Duan Lingfeng’s spiritual power is severely exhausted, he’s still not something I can fight against. I have to leave immediately,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen did not care about the risk of exposing his identity. He mobilized the saint Qi in him and activated the Supreme Inscription of the Ugyen Cudgel to draw out the Supreme Power. Suddenly, the Ugyen Cudgel turned into a divine pillar in the sky. The surrounding space became dim, and countless bolts of lightning flashed.

The terrifying and peerless energy burst out and instantly deflected all Tian Mu’s saint arrows.

The saint light on the saint arrows dissipated, and many cracks appeared.

“Everyone, be careful! It’s a Supreme Artifact!” Tian Mu’s expression changed, and he shouted.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Ugyen Cudgel and swept out with full power. He sent the seven Supreme Saints, including Shang Yue, flying like scarecrows.

Two of the lower-level Supreme Saints couldn't withstand the attack of the Supreme Artifact. Their Neverwithers exploded, and even their bones were shattered into powder.

Other than Shang Yue, the other four Supreme Saints were seriously injured.

Shang Yue could withstand the Supreme Artifact because of her profound cultivation and the many protective treasures she had.

Even so, the appearance of the Supreme Artifact still shocked her.

Since she had the Supreme Artifact, the other party was prepared and had already seen through their plan.

Otherwise, only the high priest of the Fane of Destiny, the first judge, and the first Lord of Destiny could hold the Supreme Artifact under normal circumstances. A Supreme Artifact may be beyond the control of even the leaders of the ten dark forces.

In the three directions, Lord Yue Lin and Lord Ironclad were at the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm. Only Shang Yue's cultivation was at the middle-stage of the Banshi Isshou Realm. Zhang Ruochen naturally chose to break out from her side.

"Take this."

Zhang Ruochen roared. He held the Ugyen Cudgel with both hands and stirred in the universe. Then he hacked down.

Shang Yue had just stopped when she felt the space collapse and sink. Her body fell uncontrollably. She looked up and saw a black gold sky in the universe. A light pillar with boundless battle intent hacked down.

Her body was locked onto by a Supreme Artifact, and she couldn't dodge.

Shang Yue's saint robe and long dress unfolded like a beautiful flower petal under the wind. Her body burned with raging flames. The flower petal turned into a flaming rose, and a hell-like Precept Domain appeared.

At the same time, a Regal Artifact Saint Sword flew out of her body and let out an ear-splitting sword hum.

The sword shot forward like a white rainbow.

BOOM!

The Ugyen Cudgel crushed her Precept Domain layer by layer.

It clashed with the Saint Sword.

The Supreme Power shattered all the sword Qi, and a crack appeared on the Saint Sword. Then, it exploded and turned into countless sword pieces that flew back.

Some of the sword pieces hit Shang Yue's body and left bloody holes.

Although she was an Innate Fire Spirit, she had also cultivated a body of flesh and blood.

PFFT!

Shang Yue spat out blood and fell down.

The injury caused by the sword pieces was secondary. What really hurt her was the Supreme Power of the Ugyen Cudgel. The Supreme Power not only hurt her body but also her Saint Soul.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed Shang Yue's shoulder and wrapped her whole body with the sacred chain, throwing her out.

Shang Yue instinctively wanted to give up her body and revert into a fire spirit to break free from the sacred chain. However, as soon as she thought about it, white lines appeared on the sacred chain. It released a strange power and attacked her Saint Soul.

She couldn't even give up her body, let alone break the sacred chain.

BANG!

Shang Yue fell to the ground. Because her body was bound, she couldn't keep her balance. She rolled on the ground twice before stopping.

She wasn't on the ground but on the Ugyen Cudgel.

However, the Ugyen Cudgel was bigger than a mountain at this moment. It was like a ship flying at high speed. It flew so fast that even Shang Yue, a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm, couldn't catch up.

Lord Ironclad, Lord Yue Lin, and the other Supreme Saints were far behind.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the Ugyen Cudgel. His expression was still serious and nervous. He didn't relax at all.

Rumble

The universe above exploded.

Invisible strands of Death Qi appeared. They were like clouds, fog, dragons, and snakes. They twined quickly and gave off dark red and purple-black light.

A thousand miles away.

Duan Lingfeng's eyes were extremely vicious. He raised the Genbu Warstaff above his head and shouted through gritted teeth, "Death Typhoon."

This was a spiritual power saint technique!

From the cloud of Death Qi came the sounds of metal horses, dragons, and tigers roaring. Then, the doomsday chariot, undead knights, bone dragons, and corpusian tigers rushed out of the cloud toward the Ugyen Cudgel.

Shang Yue fell to the ground and laughed at the scene. "You can't escape. This is an attack launched by my Uncle Master's spiritual power. It's enough to kill you from a thousand miles away."

"What are you laughing at? This attack can kill me, but it can also kill you. Your Uncle Master doesn't seem to care about you at all," Zhang Ruochen said.

Shang Yue's pretty face turned cold. She didn't speak anymore.

Zhang Ruochen took a stack of talismans from his Ring of Dimensions and threw them into the sky.

Boom Boom

The talismans exploded one by one. They turned into a light screen, a shield, or an ancient city. They collided with the chariots, knights, and tigers in the Death Typhoon.

Zhang Ruochen had taken some of these protective talismans from other cultivators. Some were gifts from the major forces when he and Luo Sha were engaged.

Although the quality of the talismans was not top-notch, they were many in quantity.

Shang Yue watched Zhang Ruochen throw out one talisman after another. Her eyelids were twitching, and she was bewildered. Each of these talismans was priceless. How could he take out so many of them?

Could he be the successor of the Talisman Grand Supreme Master?

Standing on Genbu's shell, Duan Lingfeng was so angry that he went crazy. He could not hold on any longer. Blood spurted out of his mouth and nose as he fell to the ground and fainted.

Immediately, the Death Typhoon dissipated.

"Lord Ironclad and I will go after that person. Take care of Duan Lingfeng," said Lord Yue Lin.

Lord Yue Lin and Lord Ironclad burst out with extreme speed. They turned into two beams of light and chased after the Ugyen Cudgel.

The two powerhouses initially used their artifacts to launch long-range attacks.

However, when their artifacts were taken away by the other party using unknown means, they did not dare to make a move anymore.

Of course, as time passed, the distance between them and the Ugyen Cudgel grew further and further. Even if they wanted to launch an attack, they were powerless. They only hoped that they could keep up and not lose them.

Six hours later.

The Ugyen Cudgel was 200,000 miles away from them.

Zhang Ruochen let out a sigh of relief. He said, "They've been chasing me for six hours. Their saint Qi should be almost used up. They won't be able to catch up with me in a short time."

Zhang Ruochen's saint Qi consumption was ten times more than Lord Ironclad and Lord Yue Lin.

However, Zhang Ruochen had been absorbing the Godstone and taking the sacred medicine, so he could last longer.

Lord Ironclad and Lord Yue Lin were both at the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm. Zhang Ruochen believed he was no match for them if he didn't expose his identity.

Besides, it was such a big deal to take the Divine Artifact. Zhang Ruochen didn't believe that Bai Qing'er would give it to Duan Lingfeng.

The temptation of the Divine Artifact was too great. What if Duan Lingfeng took it for himself?

Zhang Ruochen guessed that either Bai Qing'er was on her way or sent another powerhouse.

Therefore, since he had the Divine Artifact, there was no need to continue fighting.

Zhang Ruochen swallowed a 100,000-year-old ancient sacred medicine. He felt that his saint Qi had recovered a lot. He completely got rid of Lord Yue Lin and Lord Ironclad before stopping to rest.

He grabbed the wrapped chain around Shang Yue and reached out to grab the void.

The Ugyen Cudgel turned into a rod and fell into his hand.

The next moment, he activated the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light and flew out at 10,000 times the speed of sound.

Every second, he flew close to 10,000 miles.

The Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light consumed a lot of saint Qi. Zhang Ruochen couldn't continue flying for about 5 million miles. The saint Qi in his body was almost exhausted.

After stopping, Zhang Ruochen looked back. Even with the Eye of Truth, he couldn't see Lord Ironclad or Lord Yue Lin.

He was completely free!

Zhang Ruochen found a mountain-sized cosmic rock and dug a cave. He took Shang Yue and hid in it.

These rocks were the most common in the universe. If he hid in them, he could at least avoid being seen by the Supreme Saint's eyes from thousands of miles away.

Zhang Ruochen released a spiritual avatar of himself and controlled the rocks of the universe to fly toward the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt in the south at a speed of 100 miles per second. Then, he prepared to absorb the Godstone to recover the severely exhausted saint Qi in his body.

Shang Yue sat not far away and snorted. "So the so-called Master Xunmu is you, Zhang Ruochen."

"You recognized me?" Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised.

Of course, he knew that Shang Yue could not confirm it. She was just testing him. But it did not matter. Since Shang Yue had fallen into his hands, she couldn't escape.

Shang Yue said, "You have such low cultivation, but you can have a Supreme Artifact. You can also spread talismans like paper and swallow a 100,000-year-old sacred medicine as if it were an everyday item. Who else can do this besides Zhang Ruochen?"

"Are you trying to say that I'm only borrowing external power, but I don't have any real abilities?" Zhang Ruochen's withered, shriveled, and old body returned to his young and handsome appearance.

Shang Yue was delighted, but her expression didn't change. She said, "That's right! In my opinion, Zhang Ruochen, the so-called Yuanhui-level genius, is nothing more than a person who relies on a pile of Supreme Artifacts and various external objects. If you let me go and fight me with your bare hands, you may not be able to defeat me in ten moves."

Zhang Ruochen walked to her and squatted down. He looked at her carefully, as if he was hesitating.

Shang Yue was very nervous, afraid that Zhang Ruochen would not fall into her trap.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Are you at the middle-stage of the Banshi Isshou Realm?"

"Yes, why? Are you afraid? A Yuanhui level genius can only be qualified to be at the Yuanhui-level if he can defeat his opponent by crossing two realms." Shang Yue continued to provoke him.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Are you an Innate Fire Spirit?"

"My original form is a Spiritus Agni. I have cultivated it for countless years. Later, my master enlightened me and taught me techniques. Finally, I cultivated my own physical body and had my own life. Zhang Ruochen, do you dare to fight me?" Shang Yue asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Oh, a Spiritus Agni. You can help me cultivate the Divine Purification Flame."

Shang Yue's face changed dramatically. She turned pale and said in fear, "You... What kind of Yuanhui-level genius are you? You don't even dare to fight with me."

"Why should I prove my cultivation and strength to you? You are just my captive. No, from now on, you are only the material for me to cultivate the Divine Purification Flame," Zhang Ruochen said lightly.

Shang Yue's body trembled slightly, and she could not calm down.

It was not easy for her to cultivate all her life. Every step was challenging, from the moment she attained spiritual intelligence to the development of the body and then to the cultivation of Banshi Isshou Realm. Now, she was not far from becoming a god. Naturally, she did not want to die.

Zhang Ruochen sighed, “Tsk tsk. My life is almost perfect, without any weaknesses. Unfortunately, there is only one flaw: I can not be ruthless to beautiful women.”

Hearing this, Shang Yue was desperate to escape.

She believed that her beauty was not inferior to those so-called fairies and saintesses.

Zhang Ruochen’s lust for beauty had long been known. Everyone in the Infernal Court knew about it, so Shang Yue naturally had no doubts.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I’ll ask you a few questions. You have to answer me truthfully. “I like obedient girls. No matter how beautiful they are, I can only destroy them if they aren’t obedient enough. In addition, your junior sister apprentice Shang Xia is also in my hands. After I ask you, I will seek confirmation from her. If you lie... I will be furious and do things with no bottom line!”

Shang Yue stared at him coldly and said, “Don’t even think about asking me anything.”

Although she did not want to die and was afraid of death, she was able to cultivate the Banshi Isshou Realm. How could she be intimidated by a few words from Zhang Ruochen?

“Don’t be in a hurry to refuse. My questions are straightforward.”

Zhang Ruochen looked at her from head to toe and asked, “How old are you?”

Shang Yue gritted her teeth and thought carefully. This question could be answered, so she became less stubborn. She said, “It has been 70,000 years since I attained spiritual intelligence. It has been 1,300 years since I cultivated a physical body.”

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, “Why the cultivation of a physical body?”

“Does it have anything to do with you?” Shang Yue asked.

“Answer me!” Zhang Ruochen ordered.

Shang Yue turned her face away, “As long as plants, spiritual monsters, and even stone cultivators have techniques that can cultivate a physical body, who doesn’t want to? Suppose they don’t cultivate the physical body. In that case, the difficulty of becoming a saint and a god will increase by more than ten times.”

Zhang Ruochen knew the Stone Clan cultivators cultivated a physical body.

In the Stone World, one of the myriad worlds of the Celestial Court, the Stone Clan cultivators pursued and explored life. They would cultivate their own bodies.

The Stone Clan cultivators of the Infernal Court were the exact opposite. They didn't cultivate a physical body. They cultivated the Path of Death. If they wanted to destroy everything, they would turn it into stone. Even if they had blood, it was also called stone sap. It was formed from the essence of a stone body and flowed in the stone veins in their bodies.

Because they didn't have a physical body, the Infernal Court's Stone Clan was the same as the Ghosts, Corpusians, and Bone Clan. The vast majority of them couldn't reproduce. Even if they wanted to reproduce, their methods were exceptional.

Of course, cultivating a physical body was too difficult for the Stone Clan cultivators.

In addition, the Stone Clan's past generations of cultivators believed that the Stone Clan who cultivated a physical body was no longer pure. They were heresy. They had lost their origin and were enslaved by flesh and blood creatures. Therefore, most of the divine codex of the Stone Clan was in the hands of the Infernal Court's Stone Clan.

The number and strength of the Infernal Court's Stone Clan far surpassed that of the Celestial Court's Stone World.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "How old is your master, Bai Qing'er? Is she of the Stone Clan? Has she cultivated a physical body?"

"I don't know anything about my master," Shang Yue said.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were filled with regret. He shook his head and said, "If you don't even want to reveal this little information, what's the point of keeping you alive?"

As he spoke, he reached out with his right hand and touched Shang Yue's fragile cheek.

Whoosh

The Divine Purification Flame appeared on his fingertips.

Shang Yue quickly said, "My master rarely tells us her secrets. I only know that she's no older than 3,000 years old. I don't know if she's from the Stone Clan. But she definitely does not have a stone body because she also bleeds. It's not the stone sap of the Stone Clan."

"Very good," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen withdrew his finger and clapped his hands. He smiled and said, "Then let me ask you one last question. Did Bai Qing'er capture a cultivator from Kunlun?"

"If I tell you, will you let me go?" Shang Yue asked.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "If you tell me, I will let you go. Will you believe me?"

"You will never let me go because you will never let anyone know that the Tensho Compass ended up in your hands," Shang Yue said.

She knew from the fact that Zhang Ruochen did not return to Hoth but went to the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt that he could not return the Tensho Compass to the Fane of Destiny and wanted to keep it for himself.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I will not let you go, but I can promise not to kill you."

"Just like my junior sister and the Divine Prince?" Shang Yue asked.

Zhang Ruochen was slightly surprised. He didn't expect to learn such an important piece of information unintentionally.

Zhang Ruochen became interested and asked, "What is the relationship between your junior sister and Luo Shengtian?"

"What do you think is the relationship between a man and a woman?" Shang Yue asked back.

Zhang Ruochen thought back to the past. Luo Shengtian seemed to like secretly going to the House of Enchanters. Was it a mutual love, or was it one of Bai Qing'er's plans?

Both scenarios were possible.

After all, for Shang Xia, the status of becoming the woman of the Divine Prince of Devala was much higher than that of a woman who stayed in the Enchanter Chamber.

Zhang Ruochen could not help but smile. If Luo Shengtian dared to criticize him in the future, he finally had a way to fight back. This was a small harvest!

Zhang Ruochen said, "I said I won't kill you, and I won't. So answer my question first."

Shang Yue smiled slyly and said, "No."

"What?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Shang Yue said, "My master didn't catch any cultivators of Kunlun. At least, not before I entered the Governor's Manor. After entering the Governor's Manor, I didn't go out because I had to prepare the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation. I didn't know any news from the outside world."

Zhang Ruochen stared at her for a long time and said, "Okay! I'll ask you one last question."

"Why is there one last question?" Shang Yue was annoyed. She felt that Zhang Ruochen was playing her.

Zhang Ruochen said in a low voice, "You have to understand one thing. You are now my prisoner. All the rules are made by me. Anyway, you have said so much. Do you still care about the last question?"

Shang Yue was not willing to be fooled. She knew that Zhang Ruochen was trying to lure her step by step to break through her psychological defense.

Zhang Ruochen said, "If you don't answer, you will die. After you die, I can ask your junior sister. After all, we are likely to be a family in the future. She will tell me."

"Think about it carefully! You two were so close. The senior sister died, but her junior sister became the imperial concubine of the Divine Prince. She might even be able to use the cultivation resources of Devala to break into divinity, have a bunch of children, and live freely in heaven and earth. And you, who will remember you after you die? The gap between you two is so big that it's sad and pitiful just thinking about it."

Shang Yue's thoughts were put into Zhang Ruochen's imagination. Her emotions became intense, and she said, "I don't believe that Shang Xia really fell into your hands."

Zhang Ruochen took out the Secret Tome of Time and Space and opened one of the pages.

On the page, there was a beautiful picture exactly like Shang Xia. It was vivid and lively as if she would walk out of the paper at any time.

Zhang Ruochen closed the Secret Tome of Time and Space. He said, "My grandfather is Wargod Bloodximius, and my mother is also a god. Becoming a woman who is a Yuanhui-level genius is no worse than the Divine Prince's woman. You are so smart. You should know how to choose. You are so beautiful and so outstanding. You are a powerhouse in the Banshi Isshou Realm. You are many times more powerful than Lord Xia Yu. To make Lord Xia Yu mine, I gave her a Supreme Artifact. I've always been generous to beauties."

Shang Yue's eyes were filled with doubt, but then she struggled. Finally, she turned to think. The coldness on her face dissipated. She lowered her head and said softly, "Ask away. I can answer anything I know."

"Did Bai Qing'er steal the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

After going through countless circles and breaking through Shang Yue's psychological defense, Zhang Ruochen finally reached the point.

Shang Yue said, "Yes! But the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin have long been replaced. What master stole were only five ordinary Divine Crystal of Origin."

"Who switched them?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Shang Yue said, "My master suspected it was the Seven-Armed Elder."

Zhang Ruochen kept staring at Shang Yue's eyes. He was sure that she was telling the truth.

He paced back and forth in the cave.

After a long while, Zhang Ruochen laughed. "Bai Qing'er is indeed smart. It's a pity that she underestimated the world. It seems that she lost the game with the Seven-Armed Elder."

He thought about it carefully. The reason why Bai Qing'er lost was because of Zhang Ruochen.

Otherwise, the Seven-Armed Elder would have died in her hands, and she would have taken back the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin.

It was not surprising that Bai Qing'er hated him so much that she wanted him dead.

Zhang Ruochen asked again, "Why does the Enchanter Chamber dare to team up with the cultivators of the ten dark forces to snatch the Tensho Compass? Aren't you afraid that the Fane of Destiny will know?"

"Why should they be afraid that the Fane of Destiny will find out? This is the cooperation between the Fane of Destiny and the Enchanter Chambers. It is intended to draw out the powerhouses of the ten dark forces and catch them all in one fell swoop," Shang Yue said.

Zhang Ruochen was not surprised. He had already guessed it. He just wanted to verify it with her.

In this way, Bai Qing'er's methods were brilliant. She played all the forces in her hands. Her courage and wisdom were unyielding.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Last question."

Shang Yue rolled her eyes at him.

Zhang Ruochen said, "The real last question is, who is the powerhouse Bai Qing'er arranged to guard the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt?"

Shang Yue looked surprised. She hesitated momentarily and said, "You can even guess this!"

“It’s not hard to guess! Who wouldn’t be tempted by a Divine Artifact? How could Bai Qing’er not be wary of Duan Lingfeng? If there is a wormhole in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt, there must be a powerhouse guarding it, and it must be someone Bai Qing’er can trust,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Shang Yue said, “It’s Lord Turtle and General Pillar.”

Zhang Ruochen had some impressions of them. He said, “Are they the opponents of Duan Lingfeng?”

“Don’t underestimate them. They have all received guidance from Huang Tian. They are extraordinary existences in the Stone Clan. Of course, my master does everything flawlessly. Perhaps there are other arrangements, but she will never tell us.”

Shang Yue’s eyes were tender. “Master Ruochen, I’ve told you everything I know. Am I obedient?”

A Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm spoke in such a delicate manner. Zhang Ruochen’s heart pounded. He couldn’t take it anymore!

Zhang Ruochen suppressed the evil thoughts in his mind. He walked over and said thoughtfully, “You’re indeed obedient.”

“Then...” said Shang Yue.

Zhang Ruochen said, “But you are too obedient. I don’t like it.”

Shang Yue had a fiery and flamboyant personality. When she heard this, she could no longer pretend. She said coldly, “Zhang Ruochen, have you been humiliating me from the beginning to the end?”

Zhang Ruochen let out a long breath. He sighed and said, “You can betray your master and be obedient to me. In the future, you might betray me and be obedient to others. How could I dare to have such a woman? I like a stubborn woman. You’re too easy to get. At most, you can only be a maid first! Depending on your performance, you might have a chance in the future.”

Shang Yue was furious. She felt that Zhang Ruochen was an unscrupulous liar. She snarled, "I'm a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. You want me to be..."

Zhang Ruochen threw her into the Secret Tome of Time and Space. She turned into a picture of beauty and was sealed inside.

Zhang Ruochen's body was full of absolute Yang Qi. He also had Yanshen's Divine Mark of Flame. He had also condensed the Grade Four Fire Saintwill. He had almost lost control just now.

Before the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill was completed, how could he dare to cultivate the Divine Purification Flame?

Actually, Zhang Ruochen had already regretted condensing the Grade Four Fire Saintwill. Only now did he realize that if the Fire Saintwill condensed at the beginning was only of Grade Six or Seven, it should be easier to integrate it into the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. It would be easier to achieve balance.

Previously, he said he wanted to use Shang Yue to cultivate the Divine Purification Flame to scare her.

Zhang Ruochen did not ask Shang Xia again. This woman was utterly different from Shang Yue. It was evident that she was determined. She would rather die than compromise. It was pointless to ask.

With the Heart of Truth, Zhang Ruochen could tell that Shang Yue was telling the truth.

He activated the Sundial.

Zhang Ruochen swallowed the sacred medicine and sacred pill to quickly recover the saint Qi he had exhausted and the injuries in his sea of Qi.

At the same time, he spent time breaking the thousands of tiny shackles in him.

In three days, Zhang Ruochen activated the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light, which was 10,000 times faster than the speed of sound. He flew several times and traveled nearly 300 million miles. He thought he had lost all the cultivators chasing him.

However, just as he landed on a cosmic rock and was about to dig a cave to rest, a shout came behind him. “Supreme Saint Ruochen, wait, wait for me.”

Zhang Ruochen had already transformed into Master Xunmu’s aged appearance to prevent being recognized. Who could recognize him? And who could catch up with him?

Zhang Ruochen immediately became alert and summoned the Ugyen Cudgel.

A weak young man flew onto the cosmic rock. He couldn’t stand firmly and staggered two steps forward. He almost fell to the ground. He smiled awkwardly. “Don’t be nervous. It’s me. The Overseer, Gong Nanfeng.”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. He was dazed. He couldn’t figure out how Gong Nanfeng had caught up to him.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen had seen Gong Nanfeng before. He was the one who had shot out the Tensho Compass.

Zhang Ruochen used his spiritual power to investigate. He found that Gong Nanfeng didn’t have any power fluctuations. He was no different from a mortal.

Gong Nanfeng smiled and allowed Zhang Ruochen to check. He said, “I didn’t expect that it was Supreme Saint Ruochen who helped the Fane of Destiny to take back the Tensho Compass. He is indeed a talent favored by Fukurokuju and the owner of the Destiny Token. Could you please return the Tensho Compass to me?”

‘Return the Tensho Compass?’

Zhang Ruochen said coldly, “I am not Zhang Ruochen. You have mistaken me for someone else.”

“Supreme Saint Ruochen, we’re on the same side. You don’t have to be so cautious. I’ve already figured out your identity. I have the saint robe You wore. I brought it from the Xue Jue family. As long as I’m close enough, I can make an accurate prediction.” Gong Nanfeng smiled and walked over, pretending to be close to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen stepped back and said, “How do you know I have the Tensho Compass? Did you also predict it?”

“I didn’t predict it! But when you took the Tensho Compass from Duan Lingfeng, I was nearby,” Gong Nanfeng said seriously.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t sense that there were other cultivators nearby. He didn’t believe him and said, “Then why didn’t you do it yourself?”

“I was too weak to beat them. Besides, I also wanted to see who was the mastermind behind taking the Tensho Compass. He had been playing the long game, trying to catch a big fish. That mastermind, even I couldn’t figure it out. He must have an impressive background. However, after waiting for so many days, he still hasn’t shown up. I think taking the Tensho Compass back first is safer,” said Gong Nanfeng.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Are you weak?”

“Yes! Any strong man can knock me over,” said Gong Nanfeng.

Zhang Ruochen said, “But you can catch up with me? And hide from my perception? And walk in the universe. Are you really weak?”

“I’m fragile. Try hitting me. I’ll fall to the ground and can’t even get up.” said Gong Nanfeng.

Gong Nanfeng moved his face closer to Zhang Ruochen and let him hit him.

Zhang Ruochen retreated quickly again. ‘This man could become Overseer of the Fane of Destiny, control Divine Artifacts, and hide from his perception. He could catch up with the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light. How could he be fragile? Was he pretending to be weak? Or did he see that I wanted to take the Tensho Compass for myself and bait me to attack?’

Zhang Ruochen could not see through this person's true intentions. He felt that it was very tricky.

‘Attack him?’

However, Zhang Ruochen suspected that he was far from being his opponent.

‘Should I hand over the Tensho Compass? Not possible.’

The rocks in the universe were huge and were flying rapidly toward the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt.

Gong Nanfeng reached out his hand and stared at Zhang Ruochen with anticipation, “Thank you, Supreme Saint Ruochen, for helping Fane of Destiny to get back Tensho Compass. I will definitely report this to the Lord of Divination Division. I owe this favor to you. But it’s not only me, both Divination Division and the entire Fane of Destiny do too.”

“Overseer, are you using Fane of Destiny to pressure me?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gong Nanfeng was stunned. “No! Supreme Saint Ruochen, how could there be such a misunderstanding?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, “I can’t give you Tensho Compass.”

“Does Supreme Saint Ruochen want to keep Tensho Compass for himself?”

Gong Nanfeng was shocked. He quickly stepped back, afraid that Zhang Ruochen would silence him.

The more he acted like this, the more alarmed Zhang Ruochen became.

Zhang Ruochen’s expression was calm. He said, “You’re too suspicious!”

“How am I suspicious? I’m the Overseer of Divination Division. The real Overseer might I add.” Seeing that Zhang Ruochen had no intention of silencing him, Gong Nanfeng finally breathed a sigh of relief. He wiped the cold sweat off his forehead.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I've never met the Overseer of Divination Division before. I can't believe everything just because you say so. Do you really think that I'm stupid?"

"That makes sense."

Gong Nanfeng touched his chest and took out a token. He smiled and said, "This is the token of Divination Division's Overseer. It has the spiritual imprint of the Lord of Divination Division on it. It can't be forged."

Zhang Ruochen looked at the token and felt sick of it. He threw it back to Gong Nanfeng with a sullen face, "It's just a token. It's not impossible to forge it. You're full of nonsense. You claim that you're weak, but you can burst out with unparalleled speed. How can I believe you?"

Gong Nanfeng looked constipated. He seemed to have something to hide. "I-I..."

Before he could speak, Zhang Ruochen continued, "Third, why didn't you help when Duan Lingfeng and the others took Tensho Compass and suppressed the vessel spirit of Tensho Compass? I almost risked my life to help Fane of Destiny take Tensho Compass back, while you just happened to jump out at the perfect time. Humph! Are you a spy of the Enchanter Chamber?"

"No, I'm the Overseer of Fane of Destiny. How could I be a spy of the Enchanter Chamber? It's a misunderstanding, a big misunderstanding!" Gong Nanfeng was so anxious that his face was red. He explained desperately, "I told you, I'm trying to catch a big fish with a long line."

Zhang Ruochen said righteously, "Do you think I'll believe you? You're so weak, yet you dare to throw a long line to catch the big fish? Aren't you afraid of being eaten by the fish?"

"I can follow up secretly and find an opportunity to send a message to the elites of Fane of Destiny," Gong Nanfeng said.

Zhang Ruochen's heart raced. "You've sent a message back?"

Gong Nanfeng shook his head and sighed. "I'm too weak! My Communication talisman can't reach Hoth."

Zhang Ruochen didn't know if he was speaking the truth or not, but he was secretly relieved.

Gong Nanfeng thought of something and said happily, "Why don't you send a message to the three high priests of Fane of Destiny, as well as Zhuo Yunong, Lord Wu Yue, and Scion Xingluo. They could prove my identity once they're here."

Zhang Ruochen couldn't control himself anymore. He really wanted to kill him.

For a divine weapon, it wasn't a big deal to destroy a planet or the entire realm, let alone one person.

However, Gong Nanfeng's harmless and friendly appearance made Zhang Ruochen unable to kill him.

Of course, the biggest reason was that he was not confident.

Once he attacked, things would get ugly.

If Zhang Ruochen failed to kill Gong Nanfeng, how could he have a foothold in Infernal Court?

Zhang Ruochen asked Intergold Tiger, "What's this weirdo's background? Is he strong or weak?"

Intergold Tiger did not reply.

Gong Nanfeng said, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, hurry up and send a message. The elites of the ten dark forces must be on their way. Without the protection of the elites of Fane of Destiny, how can you and I be their opponents?"

Zhang Ruochen felt like he had been forced to the edge of a cliff. He pretended as if nothing had happened, but he was thinking hard about countermeasures.

After a long while, he said, "We could send a message, but we have to figure out how to send it and who to trust. Not everyone in Fane of Destiny is trustworthy."

"Think about it. The elites of Fane of Destiny are far away from us, at least a few days away. But Duan Lingfeng, Lord Ironclad, and Lord Yue Lin are very close to us."

“What if we send a message to the powerhouses of Fane of Destiny and that powerhouse immediately sends a message to Duan Lingfeng and the rest, revealing our whereabouts? Wouldn’t we be digging our own graves?”

Gong Nanfeng revealed a look of realization and said in admiration, “Supreme Saint Ruochen is indeed meticulous. No wonder... Hehe.”

He really wanted to say, “No wonder you’re still alive”. However, he felt that it wasn’t very nice to say that, so he smiled in an awkward but friendly manner.

Gong Nanfeng asked humbly, “In your opinion, what should we do now?”

“The universe is vast and boundless. That’s the best place for us to hide,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Gong Nanfeng pinched his fingers and said, “Are we going to Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt?”

“Yes.”

“Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt used to be a seventh-level planet. There must be a wormhole nearby.”

“How did you know?”

“I deduced it!”

Gong Nanfeng chuckled and said proudly, “To tell you the truth, except for deities, there’s nothing that I can’t predict.”

Zhang Ruochen stood behind him, his face slightly pale. He was worried that Gong Nanfeng had already deduced all his secrets.

Gong Nanfeng suddenly turned around.

Zhang Ruochen quickly put away his expression and smiled.

Gong Nanfeng stared at him seriously, “You’re very special. I can only deduce your identity from the aura of the clothes you wear. I can’t deduce anything else. Did Wargod Bloodximius, or Fukurokuju help you cover up?”

The smile on Zhang Ruochen's face became more sincere. "Let's not talk about this. I have good wine and food in my Ring of Dimensions. Do you want to try it?"

Gong Nanfeng was moved. "This is not a good time. We never know when the enemies will catch up."

"Don't worry. I have been being hunted since the day I started cultivating. There were times even more dangerous than this, but I still went on my day."

Zhang Ruochen took out two pots of wine, more than 10 kinds of 10,000-year-old saint fruits, and 200 pounds of cooked meat from a Saint King-level beast. He said, "Don't be shy, just eat as much as you want. I'm half a disciple of Fane of Destiny. We're on the same side."

The admiration in Gong Nanfeng's eyes grew stronger. Zhang Ruochen was indeed a Yuanhui-level genius than even Fukurokuju valued. He could remain calm and unaffected even if the situation was critical and he was being chased by countless powerful figures.

How many people in the world could do that?

Amazing!

Truly amazing!

Gong Nanfeng sat on the ground and picked up a 10,000-year-old saint fruit, he smiled and said, "To be honest, I haven't eaten for a few days. I'm really hungry right now. I can't compare to Supreme Saints like you! Brother Ruochen, you're my true brother. Those people in Fane of Destiny have strong cultivation and don't need to eat. But have they even considered that a weakling like me needs to eat?"

"Don't mention it. Words cannot express our tie. Cheers."

Zhang Ruochen had filled Gong Nanfeng's cup. He took the initiative to pick up the cup and drank one shot.

Gong Nanfeng took a sip. His face changed immediately. His body turned red as if he was about to burn. "This wine... This wine is really... strong..."

With that, he fell to the ground.

Of course, it was strong. This was dragon flame wine.

Saint Kings and Supreme Saints would be fine if they drank it. However, if it was really a cultivator with weak cultivation, one would definitely not be able to withstand one sip.

Zhang Ruochen put down the wine cup and called out, “Brother Gong, Brother Gong, are you drunk already?”

Zhang Ruochen had been staring at Gong Nanfeng. Using The Heart of Truth perception, he poured another cup and drank it. His eyes were filled with doubt and hesitation.

“Forget it. It’s too risky to kill him, and I might regret it.”

Zhang Ruochen stood up and activated Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light. It burst out at 10,000 times the speed of sound and disappeared into the dark space of the universe.

Gong Nanfeng was the only one snoring on the rocks of the universe.

Zhang Ruochen deliberately activated Precepts of Truth and The Heart of Truth perception. He flew over a million miles and didn’t notice Gong Nanfeng chasing after him, he thought to himself, “It seems that he is not pretending to be drunk. Who is this? Is Fane of Destiny’s Overseer really a weakling?”

The more Zhang Ruochen thought about it, the more he found it amazing and unbelievable.

Unfortunately, he did not take the risk to check his physical physique just now.

...

Two days later.

Zhang Ruochen was cultivating inside a cosmic rock. Suddenly, he became alert. He rolled up Sundial with his sleeve and his body turned into a light pillar. He broke through the rock layer and flew out.

Boom

The cosmic rock that was dozens of miles long exploded. All the mud and rocks melted and then evaporated.

The powerful energy wave pushed Zhang Ruochen back hundreds of miles.

3,000 miles away, a black Saint Vessel flew out of nowhere, revealing its huge body. There were Nether flags all over the Saint Vessel and the array inscriptions were constantly flickering. The aura that burst out seemed to be able to swallow the world.

In an instant, the Saint Vessel appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen. The Nether Qi it emitted was like a turbulent sea of ink.

Lord Ironclad stood at the bow of Saint Vessel with a bone spear in his hand. He had the aura that could swallow planets. His voice reverberated across the universe, shaking the space, “You’ve been enveloped by the array of my Saint Vessel. Let’s see where you can run to this time.”

Zhang Ruochen saw the extraordinariness of Lord Ironclad’s Saint Vessel. He reached out his hand and pressed it lightly. Countless array inscriptions appeared in front of his palm. They were like spider webs and chains, sealing him in space.

“How could I be afraid when you’re the only one who caught up,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Ironclad sneered. “The reason you could escape that day was that you have Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light and a Supreme Artifact with you. My Saint Vessel was forged with all my wealth. After borrowing Godstones from Duan Lifeng, it is fully activated and in its strongest state. Do you think you can escape today?”

Lord Ironclad said, “You can try.”

Zhang Ruochen summoned Ugyen Cudgel and activated it with Saint Qi. It turned into a sky-reaching divine pillar that was hundreds of miles long. The black gold light could travel tens of thousands of miles. The ripples of Supreme Power exploded and shattered the array inscriptions around it.

Boom!!!

Ugyen Cudgel pressed down. Energy exploded and struck the sky above the black Saint Vessel. It collided with the Saint Vessel's defensive array.

The first line of defensive array was broken instantly. The Saint Vessel sank down.

Lord Ironclad, who was calm, showed a hint of surprise. Seeing the second layer of the defensive array was blocked by Ugyen Cudgel, he let out a sigh of relief.

He was trying to lure Zhang Ruochen to attack. How could he let go of this perfect opportunity?

“How stupid. You actually attack when I told you to. Now, your defense and power must be at your weakest since your best shot was already out. Once I kill you, this Supreme Artifact will be mine!”

Lord Ironclad flew out of the Saint Vessel and stabbed out with the bone spear.

Divine Marks appeared on the bone spear. The light shone brighter and brighter. It was about to pierce through Zhang Ruochen's heart.

However, time slowed down at this moment.

Zhang Ruochen moved away and dodged it.

Lord Ironclad was shocked. “The Power of Time?”

Zhang Ruochen formed a fist with his left hand. The dragon's roar and the sound of water rang out at the same time. It was like a divine dragon's roar. The river of heaven fell to the ground. It was powerful and could intimidate the opponent's spirit.

Lord Ironclad was fearless. Dense Power of Death erupted when he struck out his palm strike.

The fist and palm collided.

Time seemed to slow down.

Boom!!!

Zhang Ruochen flew back like a cannonball. He landed 50 kilometers away. His heart trembled as stood up, he thought, "The power of one palm of a Supreme Saint at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm is much stronger than I imagined."

Zhang Ruochen wasn't discouraged. Instead, his fighting spirit grew stronger.

Back in Enchanton, Lord Ironclad had sealed 90% of his cultivation, forcing Zhang Ruochen into a tight spot. In the end, Zhang Ruochen used all kinds of methods to fight him. Zhang Ruochen used Dark Prison Talisman and Path of Truth to increase his attack power by 10 times. Only by that, he won by pulling a fast one.

Now, he could fight against Lord Ironclad in his peak state.

This progress was more than rapid.

Lord Ironclad only need to slightly shake his body to dissolve Zhang Ruochen's fist power. He looked at the old man in front of him with a strange expression. The old man was hit by his palm and flew so far away, but he was not injured.

Moreover, he felt a familiar aura from the fist power just now.

It was very similar to Zhang Ruochen.

However, he couldn't believe that the person in front of him was Zhang Ruochen. After all, he had only used 10% of his power to force Zhang Ruochen into a dangerous situation not long ago. Zhang Ruochen's strength was far inferior to that of the old man in front of him.

Lord Ironclad lied, "Zhang Ruochen, you took away Tensho Compass and went to Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt instead of returning to Hoth. What are you trying to do? Are you trying to steal the divine weapon?"

Zhang Ruochen knew that Lord Ironclad was trying to trick him.

Now, whether he admitted it or not was secondary.

Since he was already suspicious, he had to die.

Zhang Ruochen took out Sundial and two more Godstones. He placed them in the groove and sighed. "I didn't want to kill you, but you insisted on calling my name. What's more, a person like you doesn't even have the value to capture you alive."

Lord Ironclad was shocked. "You're really Zhang Ruochen? Impossible, impossible."

"I've already revealed my identity, and you don't believe it. Are you playing me on purpose? Do you think I'll let you go?" Zhang Ruochen was in a bad mood. He felt like everyone he'd met recently was playing him.

Sundial hung in the void space like a rough stone.

However, after Godstone was inlaid, it emitted a cyan light and densely-packed light spots of Mark of Time. It surrounded Zhang Ruochen like fireflies.

The sound of rapid flowing water came from somewhere.

Lord Ironclad felt the Power of Time growing stronger. He finally accepted the fact that the old man was Zhang Ruochen.

However, Zhang Ruochen’s claim to kill him was ridiculous in his eyes.

Lord Ironclad felt much more relaxed. He was even pleasantly surprised. “It seems that your injuries have healed. You can mobilize the power of Qiankun!”

If Zhang Ruochen hadn’t borrowed the power of Qiankun, how could he have taken his palm strike?

Zhang Ruochen didn’t explain to him. “If you run now, you might still be able to escape.”

Lord Ironclad said, “Even if you can mobilize the power of Qiankun and have several Supreme Artifacts, it’s still far from enough to kill me. I’ll say the same thing back to you. If you run now, you might still be able to escape.”

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Lord Ironclad must have spread the news the moment he found him. Most of the Supreme Saints under Bai Qing'er, including Duan Lingfeng, were on their way here.

They had to end the battle quickly.

It was a good thing that Lord Ironclad didn't run.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen slapped Sundial, and the sound of water flowing became louder. The light spots of Mark of Time surged toward Lord Ironclad like a huge river.

Lord Ironclad retreated backward. At the same time, a dim light appeared in his eyes. He murmured something.

“Life and Death Curse!”

The power of the curse fell silently on Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen felt chills all over his body. His flesh and blood withered, and his life force was quickly reduced.

However, it only lasted for a moment. Myriad Curse Bead hanging on his body absorbed all the power of the curse that was attacking him. Zhang Ruochen held Ugyen Cudgel, rushed out like a stream of light, and stomped down.

100 million Divine Mark of Flame appeared on his left leg, condensing into a scorching fire cloud. The fire cloud rolled making the divine sea churn.

Lord Ironclad stabbed out with his spear. With all his might he pierced through the fire cloud and collided with Zhang Ruochen's foot.

The bone spear was refined from divine bone.

Zhang Ruochen's leg was also the leg of a TrueGod that had been completely free from the seal.

This clash formed a world-shaking energy wave. The two dimensions seemed to collide, and explosions could be heard in the surrounding void space.

Zhang Ruochen flew back.

Lord Ironclad also retreated. Zhang Ruochen's foot was powerful enough to kill Dang Hu in Banshi Isshou Realm.

Naturally, he wouldn't be able to block it easily.

Even the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm couldn't block it.

After standing still, Lord Ironclad found that he'd lost more than 200 years of his life. He felt weak. He couldn't reach his peak as his fighting spirit had lessened.

He looked over and found that Sundial had been floating behind Zhang Ruochen. It was hidden in space, so it wasn't easy to notice.

Lord Ironclad said angrily, "How can you be so sinister?"

"How can you talk about being sinister in a life-and-death battle? We are not gentlemen. Why do you care so much? Use whatever tricks you have."

Before he could finish his words, the space where Lord Ironclad was was suddenly shattered. Countless cracks appeared like broken mirrors.

Suddenly, the space collapsed inward.

"You want to kill me with your current Dimension attainments?"

Lord Ironclad roared and released 1.4 Trillion Precepts.

Precepts swept out like an ocean of rules. Whether it was Precepts of Dimension, Mark of Time, or other heavenly and earthly precepts, they were all scattered by Lord Ironclad's Precepts.

More than a trillion Precepts turned into a strange and bloody Precept Domain — the Netherland Domain.

In the Precept Domain, there was a broken Nether city, bones everywhere, and burning war flags.

Zhang Ruochen felt as if he had been forcefully pulled into Lord Ironclad's world. Zhang Ruochen stepped on the ground, the air surrounding him had a nauseating smell of blood. There were Nether cities and corpse mountains in front of him while Saint Vessel was floating in the sky.

"Is this your true ability?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Ironclad stood on the saint cruiser and looked down, “When I fought with you in Enchanton, I sealed 90% of my cultivation. I couldn’t use many of my skills back then. Otherwise, do you really think you can fight against a Supreme Saint at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm?”

Most Supreme Saints who could cultivate Banshi Isshou Realm had lived for thousands of years.

After thousands of years of cultivation, they would understand more or less about Dimension and Time. Even if they couldn’t reach the advanced level, it wasn’t difficult to practice some simple defensive techniques.

It wasn’t that Zhang Ruochen’s Dimension attainments weren’t high enough. It was just that he hadn’t comprehended enough Precepts of Dimension.

Zhang Ruochen knew that he was far behind Lord Ironclad in terms of cultivation and Saint Techniques. Thus, he definitely couldn’t compete with him in terms of Precepts and Saint Techniques.

Physical strength was his advantage.

“Your Precept Domain can’t suppress me.”

Zhang Ruochen stabbed Ugyen Cudgel into the ground and put his hands together. Instantly, his body radiated with boundless golden light.

The Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King appeared. The nine heavens above his head grew higher and higher. Finally, it broke through the ground and formed a place that belonged to Zhang Ruochen inside Lord Ironclad’s Precept Domain.

Lord Ironclad was shocked. His cultivation was more than 100 times higher than Zhang Ruochen’s, but why could Zhang Ruochen do things that even a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint couldn’t do?

What was the technique he practiced? Why was his Saint Aspect so powerful?

Lord Ironclad let out a long cry and activated a ninth-class array, Grand Demon Obelisk Array on Saint Vessel. In an instant, vast Demonic Qi spread in Netherland Domain, it devoured the golden light from the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King.

Zhang Ruochen released all his spiritual power and sensed the changes in Netherland Domain.

This was the first time he was fighting a superior like Lord Ironclad. He had to be careful at all costs and make no mistakes.

Whoosh!!!

The Demonic Qi above his head dropped rapidly.

An invisible and powerful force pressed down on Zhang Ruochen. Even in Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light, he couldn't move an inch.

The Demon Obelisk formed by the array fell from the sky.

The Demon Obelisk had a total of 72 levels, but Zhang Ruochen could only see 54. The rest of the Obelisk body was 10,000 miles away. In other words, the tower was more than 10,000 miles tall.

One could imagine that if this attack landed in a macroworld like Kunlun's field, the surrounding 10,000 miles would sink underground, and all living things within ten thousand miles would be turned into ashes. Even places 100,000 miles away would be affected.

Lord Ironclad seemed confident that Zhang Ruochen would be killed on the spot. His blood boiled and said excitedly, "If you didn't have that amazing time treasure, I wouldn't have been willing to use Grand Demon Obelisk Array. That's good too. Once I kill you, all your treasures will belong to me."

Lord Ironclad was a very rational and calm person. However, how could he remain still while thinking about the treasures of Zhang Ruochen?

The Demon Obelisk had already suppressed the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King. It crushed the nine-layered sky and continued to press down, destroying the Saint Aspect.

“Did you really think it’s so easy to kill me?”

Divine light flashed on Zhang Ruochen’s body, and power surrounded him.

Soon, the divine light flash the second time and became even brighter.

The third time.

The fourth time.

...

Gradually, Zhang Ruochen seemed to be the incarnation of a TrueGod. The divine light shone brightly on his skin, and his breath turned into clouds.

100 million Divine Mark of Flame like little fire dragons flowed in his left leg.

He then struck down with his leg.

Boom!

Netherland Domain shook and the ground was cracked open.

Precepts were broken at the crack.

Lord Ironclad’s face changed. He thought, “How can Zhang Ruochen be so powerful? Can he break through my Precept Domain? Impossible, absolutely impossible.”

Boom!!!

With the second step, Netherland Domain shattered. It floated in the void space like pieces of land.

Then the third, fourth...

Lord Ironclad thought of something and said, “I understand! You’ve cultivated to the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm. Your demigod body has completely broken free. Your physical strength has reached Paramount physique.”

Only now did Lord Ironclad understand that Zhang Ruochen’s Power of Time and Dimension or even Supreme Artifacts were not the big deal. He might be fine dealing with a Thousand-Koan Realm, or even a Supreme Saint at the beginning or middle stage of Banshi Isshou Realm.

However, in front of a Supreme Saint at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm, these were all tricks. They weren't much of a threat.

Zhang Ruochen deliberately exposed these tricks to confuse him.

The real trump card of Zhang Ruochen was his demigod body.

In the past few days, when Zhang Ruochen stopped, he would open Sundial to practice. It was equivalent to cultivating for several years. Thus, he had broken all the tiny shackles in his body and reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

"It's too late to understand now!"

Zhang Ruochen struck on the 11th step. The divine force burst out of his body and completely crushed Lord Ironclad's Netherland Domain.

After losing the suppression of Precept Domain, Zhang Ruochen let out a sigh of relief. He could finally use his Dimension Techniques. He took a look at the 72-level Demon Obelisk that was already above his head. He then shouted, "Break it!"

The space within dozens of miles shattered instantly, turning into a chaotic zone where reality and illusion intersected.

Zhang Ruochen's body sank into the chaos and fell into the void space.

Lord Ironclad roared, "Do you think you're fine after escaping into the void space? Either way, you'll die in my hands."

Lord Ironclad had already sensed the threat from Zhang Ruochen. He was eager to kill him. He flew out of Saint Vessel and landed on the top of the 72-level Demon Obelisk. He took a deep breath and dispersed Netherland Domain. Billions of Precepts were now attached to the Demon Obelisk.

The Demon Obelisk shrank and broke through the dimension. It chased after Zhang Ruochen and went into the void space.

Rumble

The Demon Obelisk was swallowed by the power of the void space and turned into a part of the void space.

Lord Ironclad withdrew all the Precepts into his body. Saint Light appeared in his eyes as searched for Zhang Ruochen in the void space.

He wasn't sure if the Demon Obelisk had killed Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen could die, but his treasures should definitely not be lost in the void space.

After all, Lord Ironclad was an elite at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm. Lord Ironclad could stay in the void space for a short time. He could even break through the void space and return to the real world with his own power.

After looking around, Lord Ironclad still couldn't find Zhang Ruochen or any treasures. He immediately realized that something was wrong. He wanted to break through the void space and leave.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly revealed himself. His entire body shone with divine light. Like a god of war, he swung Ugyen Cudgel.

Boom

Ugyen Cudgel exploded with an incomparable power. It hit Lord Ironclad's abdomen, causing him to spit out blood. His body flew out like an iron ball.

"Huh?"

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. This strike didn't break Lord Ironclad's body into two.

"The armor on his body is strong enough to withstand the power of a demigod's body."

Zhang Ruochen's stick was a strike of pure power.

The power of a Supreme Artifact was negligible. At most, it was an indestructible iron stick.

A Supreme Artifact needed Saint Qi to activate. With Zhang Ruochen's cultivation at the Great Perfection in Hundred-Shackle Realm, the quality and quantity of Saint Qi, the power created by a Supreme Artifact were far weaker than his demigod's body.

Unless Zhang Ruochen broke through to Thousand-Koan Realm and activated the Supreme Artifact. Only then it would be easy for him to deal with a Supreme Saint at the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm.

Right now, he still had to rely on the physical body of a demigod.

The armor on Lord Ironclad was called Netherite Armor. Only Supreme Saints who had joined Nether Berserker were qualified to obtain one. Its defensive power was extraordinary.

Back on Battlefield of Merits, Lord Ironclad had relied on Netherite Armor to save his life from a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

Before Lord Ironclad could catch his breath, Zhang Ruochen's second strike landed on his head.

BOOM

Ugyen Cudgel and Netherite Armor collided. Sparks flew and the sound was like a bell.

No matter how strong Netherite Armor's defense was, Lord Ironclad, who was in the armor, could not withstand it. He was dazed by the strike that he almost lost consciousness.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't in a hurry. He flew over with Ugyen Cudgel in his hand, "Actually, with my current cultivation and spiritual power strength, I can't fully make use of my demigod body. I definitely can't kill a Supreme Saint at Banshi Isshou Realm. But you've made a fatal mistake. You shouldn't have chased into the void space.

"The void space restrains dimension, but other than the void cultivators, Dimension cultivators have a huge advantage too. You're constantly being eroded by the void space, your senses are severely weakened. How can you be my opponent in this state?"

Zhang Ruochen pierced through the void space with his cudgel. He carried the dying Lord Ironclad and flew back to the universe space.

“I won’t admit defeat to you... I-I still have many trump cards I haven’t used... ahem...” Lord Ironclad said weakly.

Zhang Ruochen pointed with his finger. The 12 judgment swords turned into a sword path and flew out. They condensed into one in midair. It had reached the level of a Supreme Artifact and gave off an extremely bright light.

The Power of Light from the sword cleansed the Nether Qi and Demonic Qi in the void space.

Swoosh

Sword of Judgment slashed down and finally broke Netherite Armor. It cut Lord Ironclad in half.

The Power of Light seemed to be especially effective against Nether Clan. It caused Lord Ironclad’s body to burn and turn into white spots of light. It was extremely holy.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t take the weapons on Lord Ironclad. He cleaned up his aura, leaving only Power of Light, and quickly flee to the void space.

Not long after, Duan Lingfeng arrived. He grabbed Lord Ironclad’s body, which had been purified to the point where there was almost no flesh and blood left. He landed on the black Saint Vessel, his face twisted, “The power of Supreme Artifact of Light. Celestial Court! It must be Celestial Court! These sons of a b*tch have gone too far. They’ve stolen everything and gone overboard! From today onwards, I, Duan Lingfeng, will fight Celestial Court to the death.”

Duan Lingfeng was even more furious when he learned that High-Saint Kai Luo and the others had stolen Zhang Ruochen’s body.

An 800-mile-long ghost ship sailed through the endless darkness of the universe. It emitted a strong yin qi that was like a river or a sea. It shook the rocks of the universe and flew toward Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt.

When the ghost ship was far away, Zhang Ruochen walked out of his hiding place and said to himself, “How did the leader of League of Ourang Celeste catch up with me? The temptation of a divine weapon is indeed powerful.”

After killing Lord Ironclad, Zhang Ruochen was not in a hurry to go. Instead, he hid his aura.

In less than half a day, Zhang Ruochen had seen four groups of cultivators rushing toward Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt, including the leader of League of Ourang Celeste.

Obviously, the fact that the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt had a space wormhole was no secret. The leaders of the various forces had probably guessed that the cultivators of Celestial Court would escape from there after taking Tensho Compass.

Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light was indeed fast, but the Supreme Saints of Banshi Isshou and Paramount Realm were each creepier than the last. Some of them could burst out at 10,000 times the speed of sound just by relying on their own cultivation.

The key was that these Paramount Realm Supreme Saints could continue to borrow the power of heaven and earth and fly non-stop.

Naturally, Zhang Ruochen was caught up.

“Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt has become a gathering place of big shots. I can’t go there anymore!”

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and noticed something. His eyes lit up. “Since all the powerful ones are going to Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt, isn’t Hoth much safer now?”

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen didn’t hesitate at all to hide and took a detour back to Hoth.

He didn’t need to rush back as time didn’t matter. The key was to not be discovered.

Hoth was in the west, but Zhang Ruochen chose to circle south.

He was hundreds of millions of miles away from Hoth. He could see the outline of a disc-sized star. No matter how he circled, he wouldn’t get lost in the universe.

After a few days of traveling, Zhang Ruochen arrived more than 100 million miles south of Hoth. He was a little proud that he didn’t run into any cultivators.

This proved that his choice was right.

Along the way, Zhang Ruochen summarized his battle with Lord Ironclad. He kept deducing in his mind to think of a better solution and the mistakes he’d made.

“Lord Ironclad suspects me. What should I do if I run into other cultivators? How can I become another cultivator without being suspected?”

“Try not to expose the weapon and the Power of Time and Space. It’s best to hide the characteristics of Immortal Vampires and humans.”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t want to hide that he was a man.

He didn’t want to become a savage beast or a woman.

After performing the 36 transformations, Zhang Ruochen’s bones, muscles, and appearance changed quickly.

Soon, he turned into a tall and ugly Rakshasa Supreme Saint. He had bone wings on his back and armor on his body. He had also changed into Regal Artifact armor that he had taken from a Rakshasa cultivator.

“I’m ugly, but I’ll turn back after I leave Hoth!”

Zhang Ruochen touched his nose, which was the size of a fist. The evil Qi in his body surged. He spread his bone wings and flew out.

On the way, he met a dead, gray planet that was moving in the universe.

Judging from its size, it should be a second-level planet.

“Hey! There’s the energy fluctuation of a Supreme Saint.”

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised. All the Supreme Saints of Hoth were fighting for Tensho Compass and the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. How could a Supreme Saint appear here?

He mobilized his Saint Qi and Precept of Truth to his eyes and looked across the distance.

He saw a crack hundreds of miles long on the planet. Several figures flew on the planet at an incredible speed.

“The aura seems familiar.”

Zhang Ruochen hesitated and thought about whether to check the situation.

The supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and Tensho Compass were on him. He didn’t want to meddle in other people’s business and cause trouble, but he was very curious.

“Forget it. It’s better to have less trouble.”

Zhang Ruochen restrained his aura and prepared to leave quietly.

However, a cultivator on the planet noticed his peeping just now. Wisps of white light appeared around him out of thin air. They condensed into a light hand that was dozens of miles long and slapped toward him.

The other party attacked from thousands of miles away.

“The Power of Light, a Supreme Saint of Celestial Court?”
Zhang Ruochen’s eyes darkened. Killing intent rose in his heart.

He used to be on different sides with Infernal Court in the past, now they just have different visions. However, the hatred between him and Celestial Court was far deeper and real. Any contact with Celestial Court would definitely end badly.

Zhang Ruochen took out a Warhammer at the level of a Regal Artifact. He swung it and shattered the light hand. It turned into a streak of evil light and landed on the gray planet.

This planet was made of a crystal-like material. It was like a spiritual crystal. It was extremely hard and several times stronger than ordinary iron.

This place had once been a mineral planet. Many mines had been left behind.

Zhang Ruochen held the Warhammer and restrained his aura. He rushed toward the direction of the battle. Not long after, he found a bloody corpse in a collapsed crystal mountain.

The Supreme Saint’s blood dyed the mountain red, presenting was a strange color.

The Power of Light enveloped the corpse and purified the remnant soul.

The corpse was almost shattered. Only half of the body was still intact. One could barely see the face.

“Terra Demon, Xuanwu Ji.”

Zhang Ruochen recognized the dead person.

He had seen this person in the House of Enchanters of Divine Domain of Destiny. At that time, he had followed Yan Huangtu along with three other Terra Demon Supreme Saints. He was a Supreme Saint at the peak of Thousand-Koan Realm.

“To be able to kill a Supreme Saint at the peak of Thousand-Koan Realm, one must be at least at the advanced stage or the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm.”

Zhang Ruochen raised his head and looked at the saint light rising like the crimson sunset in the distance. His eyes became solemn. He felt that he had been too rash and should not have set foot on this planet.

With the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and Tensho Compass, he should have suppressed his curiosity and hatred entirely.

He could kill Lord Ironclad because Lord Ironclad had never thought of escaping and had been lured into the void space by him.

If Lord Ironclad wanted to escape, not even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint could effortlessly kill him.

“Forget it, I’m already here!”

Zhang Ruochen quickly regained his composure and continued his chase.

When he caught up, the battleground changed again. There were only two corpses left on the ground.

They were Xuanwu Tian and Xuanwu Ying of Terra Demon.

Xuanwu Tian’s cultivation was in the mid-stage of Thousand-Koan Realm. His body had been shattered into bones. His Saint Soul had long dissipated. One could only identify him by his unique aura.

Xuanwu Ying was left with a headless corpse. He stood on the lava-filled battlefield. His head was nowhere to be found.

From afar, Terra Demon’s Elder, Kun Yunhuang, let out a long howl.

Heaven and earth’s Saint Qi turned into streams and rushed over. The power of the entire mineral planet seemed to have been sucked away.

“Oh no. He’s going to self-detonate his Sainthood Source.”

Zhang Ruochen immediately took out Violet Gourd and flew in. He then controlled the gourd to drill deep into the planet’s core.

Kun Yunhuang's cultivation had reached the early stage of Banshi Isshou Realm. Once he self-detonated his Sainthood Source, the destructive power could threaten the life of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint at certain distances.

To be able to force Kun Yunhuang to self-detonate his Sainthood Source, the cultivator from Celestial Court probably was stronger than the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm.

The power that was supposed to be able to destroy the plants did not explode.

After a while.

Zhang Ruochen flew out of the ground and landed on the surface of the planet again. He was puzzled and said, "What's going on? Did Kun Yunhuang fail to self-detonate his Sainthood Source?"

He released his spiritual power and covered the entire planet. He carefully inspected it. Then, he flew for about 1,000 miles and landed beside Kun Yunhuang, who was sitting in a pool of blood.

He was still alive, but his life force was gone. He was only left with his last breath.

Kun Yunhuang saw a Rakshasa Supreme Saint who had landed on the ground. His gray eyes lit up with a pleading look, he said, "I am Kun Yunhuang, Elder of Terra Demon. I have encountered a powerful enemy of Celestial Court. I beg you to save the two young masters of Yanluo Clan."

Zhang Ruochen had already decided based on the aura around him. He said lightly, "Who are the two young masters? Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian?"

Kun Yunhuang said excitedly, "You know the two young masters?"

"Of course, I know them. They are both born with noble backgrounds. Few in the entire Infernal Court can match them. What happened? Who are the enemies?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Kun Yunhuang's face was bitter. He seemed to have used all his strength, he opened his mouth and said, "The enemy is very powerful. I used an ancient technique and pretended to explode my Sainthood Source. That was how I managed to scare them off and give the two young masters a chance to escape.

"However, my injuries are too severe. With the ancient spell, My Qi of life has been drained. I can't protect them anymore. Please, you must save them. Yanluo Clan will definitely repay you..."

With that, he lowered his head and his life force was gone.

His body was still sitting on the broken ground.

Zhang Ruochen could have saved him just now, but it would cost him too much. Besides that, their relationship hadn't reached that stage yet, so it wasn't worth paying so much.

"There are so many powerful warriors in Yanluo clan. Are you kidding me? You want me to save Yan Huangtu and Yanzhexian?"

Zhang Ruochen knew his capabilities very well now. He didn't think that he was a savior. Not everyone was worth saving. Once his identity was exposed, he would be in mortal danger.

Shaking his head slightly, Zhang Ruochen figured out the direction where Yan Huangyu and Yan Zhexian had escaped. He spread his bone wings and flew in the opposite direction.

After flying for about 10,000 miles, Zhang Ruochen stopped and frowned, he cursed inwardly, "I knew I shouldn't have provoked karma on Battlefield of Merits. I should have killed the child in her stomach. Damn it!"

Zhang Ruochen turned around and chased in the direction where Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian had fled.

Although the Supreme Saint of Celestial Court who had killed the Four elites of Terra Demon was most likely a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, with Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, there were not many cultivators below divinity who could keep him alive if he wanted to escape.

That was why Zhang Ruochen dared to take the risk and chase after him.

The vast and boundless universe was cold and dark.

A scepter that was over a hundred feet long was flying through the air like a shuttle of light. The Supreme Inscription on Scepter of Heaven's Pass flickered, and its speed was extremely fast.

Yan Huangtu stood on the Scepter of Heaven's Pass, continuously releasing Yama Qi to maintain the scepter's high speed. The flesh and blood on his body had long been destroyed. His body was only left with a golden skeleton. The nine dragon Divine Marks on the skeleton flickered, and the divine light emitted was extremely dim.

Yan Zhexian stood at the tail of the Scepter of Heaven's Pass. She cut the rim of a bowl, and crimson Supreme Saint blood flowed out continuously.

She used her blood as ink and drew a defensive talisman that was a hundred feet long. With a wave of the brush, the talisman flew out, turning into a ten-thousand-meter-long shield shadow that blocked Fei Zhong's battle-ax.

Yan Zhexian's face was extremely pale. She turned her head and glanced at Yan Huangtu, her eyes filled with worry.

She knew that Yan Huangtu was already at the end of its tether. If they continued to flee like this, they would be at the end of their ropes before Fei Zhong caught up. However, they have no other choice than to flee as the other party was too powerful.

Right now, they could only hope that Master Dazheng would come to their rescue as soon as possible.

“Hold on for a moment.”

A determined look appeared in Yan Zhexian’s eyes. She raised her brush again and started drawing talismans.

All of a sudden, Yan Huangtu said, “Xian’er, let’s run in separate directions.”

“Why?”

“Although Fei Zhong is strong, he can only chase after one person. If we flee separately, one of us will be able to escape.”

Yan Zhexian shook her head. “Don’t lie to me. You are the leader of the current generation of Yanluo Clan, and you also have a Supreme Artifact. Fei Zhong will definitely chase you. I will not escape alone. We will fight and die together. How can the disciples of Yanluo Clan fear death?”

“Fei Zhong wants to capture us alive and threaten second brother in exchange for the chance of Celestial Court’s cultivators to escape Hoth. Therefore, I will not die,” said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Zhexian said, “That won’t do either. Once we fall into the hands of the cultivators of Celestial Court, the outcome will be unpredictable. Wait a little longer. Master Dazheng might arrive soon.”

“It’s been so long, but Master Dazheng hasn’t appeared. I don’t think he can make it in time!” There was a deep sense of helplessness in Yan Huangtu’s tone.

Even though he had broken through to Thousand-Koan Realm and his cultivation base had risen by a large margin. This allowed him to stand out among the cultivators of his generation, yet he was still far from being able to fight back in front of the top Supreme Saint of the older generation.

In the past, he had always wanted to be invincible to the people of his same realm.

Now, he realized how ridiculous he was back then. So what if he could be invincible? When he met a cultivator whose cultivation base was higher than his, he was nothing.

Cultivation base.

A powerful cultivation base was the foundation of a powerful cultivator.

Boom! Boom! Boom!!!

Fei Zhong wielded Thundercloud Axe, which was a Class Six Regal Artifact. He slashed out with the ax, causing large clouds of light and dense purple lightning to pierce through the defensive talismans that Yan Zhexian had carved.

The huge ax shadow collided with the defensive light formed by Supreme Artifact formed by Scepter of Heaven's Pass from thousands of miles away.

The defensive light ball shattered like a bubble.

Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu were the first to escape from Scepter of Heaven's Pass. Even so, they were still hit by the force from the ax shadow. They flew in two different directions like two ragdolls.

Yan Huangtu stood up and flew. He took Scepter of Heaven's Pass and held it in his hand. He gritted his golden teeth and looked straight at Fei Zhong who was chasing him. He shouted at Yan Zhexian, "Go!"

Yan Zhexian naturally did not want to leave him alone.

"One of us would definitely die. Fei Zhong only needs one alive. Go now!" Yan Huangtu shouted again.

Tears fell from Yan Zhexian's eyes. Even though she was extremely unwilling, she had to escape at this moment.

"Haha! No one could leave today, especially Miss Yan. There's a big shot in Celestial Court who has a deep hatred towards Zhang Ruochen. And guess what? You have Zhang Ruochen's flesh. If I capture and offer you to him, that big gun will definitely remember me."

Fei Zhong was a dwarf. He was only about 1.2 meters tall, but his arms and legs were sturdy and full of power.

He was still hundreds of miles away, but the trillions Precepts that erupted from his body had already evolved into a Precept Domain.

In the space of the universe, black iron mountains that were hundreds of thousands of meters tall appeared. They were all formed from Precepts. Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian were trapped in the mountains.

“Fight!”

Yan Huangtu roared loudly, and waves of dragon roars burst out from his bones. As if a flash of light had returned, his body once again shone with golden light, and his divine force flowed around his body like a tide.

“Xian’er, I will hold him back while you find a chance to break through the Precept Domain. Run as far as you can.”

Yan Huangtu’s voice was heard by Yan Zhexian.

He held Scepter of Heaven’s Pass in his hand and unleashed his power as he charged toward Fei Zhong.

Fei Zhong stood on the top of an iron mountain and looked at Yan Zhexian who was running away and Yan Huangtu who was charging toward him. A mocking smile appeared on his face, “Royal Divine Frame is really a strong body. It has almost reached the level of immortality. Unfortunately, it still needs some spice.

Fei Zhong blew out a breath and a towering black iron mountain condensed in the void and smashed towards Yan Huangtu.

Rumble

Yan Huangtu used his divine force and Supreme Artifact to block the iron mountain.

A look of surprise flashed across Fei Zhong’s eyes but he didn’t think too much of it because Yan Huangtu was already trapped under the iron mountain.

He extended a finger and controlled Precepts to condense into dozens of iron chains to catch up with Yan Zhexian who was escaping. The iron chains were like dozens of poisonous snakes chasing after her. Yan Zhexian couldn't escape from the iron mountains even though she was exhausted from running.

Fei Zhong laughed. He deliberately teased her. He controlled the iron chains to chase after her, but he didn't catch up with her.

In his Precept Domain, everything was under his control.

A beauty like Yan Zhexian, who had a noble status, was toyed with by him. It was both pleasing to the eyes and the pleasure of taking revenge on Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Zhexian saw through Fei Zhong's intentions. She felt ashamed and angry. She stopped running and said, "I'll play along with you since you like to play so much. Hope you'll like destructions."

Her body started to burn.

Fei Zhong was shocked. He did not expect such a delicate lady like Yan Zhexian to be so reckless and dare to self-destruct.

He did not dare to play around anymore.

"In front of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, do you think you can self-destruct just as you wish?"

Fei Zhong channeled his spiritual energy to suppress Yan Zhexian's spiritual will. At the same time, he controlled dozens of metal chains to wrap around her.

Boom

Before the iron chains landed on Yan Zhexian, they were hit by a Warhammer. They broke inch by inch and turned back into Precepts, merging into Precept Domain.

A tall and ugly Rakshasa Supreme Saint stood beside Yan Zhexian with a Warhammer in his hand. He said, "What's the point of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint bullying a silly little girl? Let me fight you instead."

This person was naturally Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had actually arrived a long time ago. The reason why he hadn't made a move was to observe Fei Zhong's cultivation base and strength to ensure that he could deal with him. At the same time, he was happy to see Yan Zhexian being chased to the ends of the earth. She was too arrogant. Taking advantage of her grandfather, great-grandfather, and ancestors, her tail was sticking high up in the air. She was very defiant, she didn't even hesitate to scold Zhang Ruochen.

If it weren't for the child in her stomach, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't have taken this risk.

Yan Zhexian wasn't angry because he called her a "silly little girl". Instead, she was so happy that she was about to cry. This Rakshasa Supreme Saint dared to break into Fei Zhong's Precept Domain. This means he's obviously a powerful elder master.

They're saved today!

"Senior, I am Yan Zhexian of Yanluo Clan. Please save my fifth uncle." Yan Zhexian cupped her snow-white hands and bowed respectfully to Zhang Ruochen.

The other party deserved her bow as he had saved them.

She wasn't injured though. All of Fei Zhong's attacks had been blocked by the Four elites of Terra Demon and Yan Huangtu. Even in a life-and-death situation, she was still the pearl of Yanluo clan and loved by thousands.

Zhang Ruochen was twice as tall as Yan Zhexian. He was more than three meters tall, like an iron tower, he let out a deep laugh. "I know who you two are. You don't have to tell me. You can count on me to save them. You bastards from Celestial Court dare to show off in the territory of Infernal Court. You must really be asking for a death wish."

Fei Zhong didn't expect a Rakshasa Supreme Saint to appear. He felt unlucky, "I'm Fei Zhong from Celestial Court. I want to capture them today. If you don't have a deep relationship with them, you'd better mind your own business. Go now. I won't make things difficult for you."

Yan Zhexian knew how intimidating the name "Fei Zhong" was. She looked at Zhang Ruochen worriedly, afraid that he wouldn't want to cause trouble and leave.

After all, they didn't have any ties. There was no need to fight to the death with Fei Zhong for her and Yan Huangtu.

Fei Zhong could not see through Zhang Ruochen's cultivation.

However, there were only a few famous Rakshasa Supreme Saints. Each of them had a name and was well-known in both Celestial and Infernal Court. One look was enough to know their identity, but this one in front of him doesn't ring a bell at all.

Of course, this person could also be the hidden Rakshasa Supreme Saint in Paramount Realm.

In order to test Zhang Ruochen, Fei Zhong deliberately said his name. If the other party was a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, there was no need to be afraid of him.

However, if the other party was not a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, he would probably leave immediately when he heard the name "Fei Zhong."

Once he wanted to leave, Fei Zhong would definitely attack him like thunder and kill him with one strike of his ax.

Letting him go?

How could that be possible?

Zhang Ruochen was full of heroic spirit. He laughed loudly. "How can we Rakshasa cultivators be cowards? What's wrong with a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint? Who does Fei Zhong think he is? Let's just fight."

With a swoosh, Zhang Ruochen threw out the Warhammer in his hand.

The Warhammer hit the black iron mountain that was suppressing Yan Huangtu and shattered it.

"You are too careless. How dare you throw away your weapon?"

Fei Zhong seized this opportunity. He swung his arm like a windmill and threw out Thundercloud Axe.

The war ax spun rapidly. It flew in front of Zhang Ruochen with lightning and clouds. Countless Precepts in the Precept Domain were also driven by the battle-ax and attacked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen strode forward and punched towards the wind and thunder in the sky. He was not afraid of the giant ax.

Did he encounter Thundercloud Axe with his bare hands?

Fei Zhong was both surprised and happy.

He was surprised because he had never expected one who dared to do so.

Yet he was happy that this Rakshasa Supreme Saint was rash. One had to know that even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint with Paramount physique would not dare to receive his ax bare-handedly.

BOOM

Zhang Ruochen's fist collided with the huge ax, producing a deafening sound like the collision of iron mountains. Thunder and lightning swept out in all directions.

Zhang Ruochen was not shattered by the ax as Fei Zhong had imagined. Instead, he sent Thundercloud Axe flying.

"How is this possible?"

Fei Zhong's jaw was almost dropped. He could see clearly that the Rakshasa Supreme Saint had only used the power of his physical body. He did not use any Precepts or Evil Qi to break his ax.

However, he hadn't used his bare hands either.

He wore a Regal Artifact level gloves on his hands.

"How dare you throw away your weapon? You're so careless!"

Zhang Ruochen returned Fei Zhong's words. He appeared in front of Fei Zhong like a ghost. His five fingers spread out and pressed down heavily.

Fei Zhong didn't dare underestimate his opponent. He absorbed half of the Precepts scattered in the Precept Domain. He gathered them in his palms, and formed a bright ball.

Bang

The palm print shattered the bright ball and pressed against Fei Zhong's chest.

Zhang Ruochen thought that this palm strike could hit Fei Zhong hard and severely injure him. But he was slightly stunned when the palm print landed.

Empty.

The power of the palm landed on the ground and shattered a black iron mountain.

"Your physical body is indeed very strong. Is it a Paramount physique or a Demigod-level physique? No wonder you weren't scared off after hearing my name. You do have some skills."

Fei Zhong appeared behind Zhang Ruochen. He held Thundercloud Axe with both hands. Raising it above his head, he hacked down with great power. The billions of Precepts in the Precept Domain surged toward the ax like a river.

Yan Zhexian's pretty face changed in shock. She hadn't expected Fei Zhong to be so strange and powerful?

She was about to remind the Rakshasa Supreme Saint whose back was facing the battle-ax. Suddenly the Rakshasa Supreme Saint stepped back and crashed into Fei Zhong. She was stunned for a moment, then smiled. This move was indeed smart.

Zhang Ruochen's collision ruined Fei Zhong's strike.

The two collided with each other. They rolled down the mountain and fought close to each other.

They were too close. Every time Fei Zhong wanted to gather power and activate the Regal Inscriptions in Thundercloud Axe, or when he wanted to perform a Saint Technique, he would be interrupted by Zhang Ruochen's palm power and fist strength.

Therefore, the two had to fight with their bodies.

The dwarves were famous for their powerful bodies. The two fought fiercely, shaking the dimension. It was hard to determine the winner in a short time.

Zhang Ruochen became more and more excited as the fight went on. The Blood Qi in his body was boiling.

His physical power should be stronger than Fei Zhong's, but because his cultivation was not high enough, he could not fully activate the Demigod's physical power. This battle with Fei Zhong would give him a better understanding of the Demigod's physical strength and his own weakness.

Yan Huangtu used Scepter of Heaven's Pass to break through Fei Zhong's Precept Domain and escape with Yan Zhexian.

"Uncle, that senior from Rakshasa saved our lives. We can't just leave him like this," Yan Zhexian said.

Yan Huangtu was extremely weak, and his aura rapidly decreased, "Even if I was at my peak condition, I wouldn't be able to be of much help in a fight between elites of their level. You, on the other hand, don't have the strength to do so. Tell me, why should we stay here?"

Yan Zhexian was a woman with extremely strong principles. She didn't want to treat her savior so coldly. Even if she couldn't help, she shouldn't just leave.

She said, "But what if..."

Yan Huangtu knew what she wanted to say, "Have you ever thought about it? Fei Zhong's target is us. As long as we escape, Fei Zhong will naturally stop the fight. Thus, their battle will end very quickly. What should we do if that senior is defeated and we're still here?"

"Okay then, I'll listen to you."

...

Not long after Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian left, Fei Zhong finally seized the opportunity to disperse the Precept Domain. Fei Zhong gathered a trillion Precepts and cast an advanced Saint Technique of Banshi Isshou Realm.

In the universe within a radius of ten thousand miles, Fei Zhong's Saint Qi and the power of heaven and earth condensed into a sea of thunder.

Streaks of purple thunder turned into countless prehistoric electric dragons that continuously attacked Zhang Ruochen.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen summoned the Regal Artifact level Warhammer and used it to protect his body. He spread his wings and flew out of the sea of thunder.

When he was 10,000 miles away from the sea of thunder, the Warhammer in Zhang Ruochen's hand had turned into a drop of liquid and was destroyed. The Regal Artifact armor on his body was also tattered. Many parts of it were showing signs of melting.

The two Regal Artifacts were destroyed.

"There is still a gap between realms." Zhang Ruochen sighed.

The thunder sea contracted and spun.

Fei Zhong stood on the top of the thundering sea with Thundercloud Axe in his hand. He looked at Zhang Ruochen with a complicated gaze and said, "You ruined my plan. You won't get away with this."

Fei Zhong flew away.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a smile. He understood that Fei Zhong had retreated because he had never used Saint Techniques or mobilized Precepts, but only fought with his physical body.

There were too few cultivators who focused on their physical bodies.

Fei Zhong must have thought that if Zhang Ruochen was already so powerful with his physical strength. Once Zhang Ruochen used Precepts and released his Evil Qi, he might not be able to defeat Zhang Ruochen.

After all, Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian had already escaped. It was meaningless for them to continue fighting.

However, Fei Zhong's last words made Zhang Ruochen's heart sink slightly.

Zhang Ruochen did not chase after Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian. He had already done his best to save them. Now, he had to return to Hoth immediately.

"Senior!"

Yan Zhexian pulled open an invisible curtain and walked out of the universe. Her graceful figure appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Behind her, a helpless-looking Yan Huantu with parts of his flesh and blood recovered appeared.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Why didn't you run away?"

"How could we abandon you and run away? The disciples of the Yan family aren't ungrateful," Yan Zexian said matter-of-factly. There was a heroic spirit in her beautiful body.

Of course, Yan Huangtu would not tell Zhang Ruochen that they had gone and returned.

His niece was indeed very smart. Unfortunately, she lacked experience and was too naive and emotional. She was not decisive enough.

Yan Zhexian smiled and said, "Just now, I used my last heaven-concealing talisman to hide nearby. Once you are defeated, we will take you by surprise and attack Fei Zhong to help you escape."

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian were in more danger than him. He did not want to be involved with them.

Zhang Ruochen said, "We have met by chance. Let's part ways here."

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was eager to leave, Yan Huangtu became less guarded.

He wanted to escape with Yan Zhexian because he knew that they couldn't trust each other even if they were both cultivators from Infernal Court.

In this uninhabited place, it was possible that this Rakshasa Supreme Saint would steal Scepter of Heaven's Pass from him, kill him, and frame the Supreme Saint of Celestial Court.

"Wait! Senior, I haven't thanked you yet!"

"It's nothing. You don't have to thank me."

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand, as if he didn't care.

"Could you at least leave your name? The Yan family will definitely thank you in the future," Yan Zhexian said.

Zhang Ruochen refused again and said, "No, there's no need for it."

Yan Huangtu stopped Zhang Ruochen who was about to leave and cupped his hands, "Thank you for your help. This is a great favor. Xian'er was right. The disciples of the Yan family are not ungrateful people. Since you don't want to leave your name, we naturally respect you and appreciate your help. However, I have a request. If you agree, you can ask the Yan family for any help in the future."

"Any help?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yan Huangtu said, "You should have heard of my name, and you should understand the weight of my promise. I may not represent the entire Yan family now, but in the future, the entire Yan family will be in my hands."

He had just broken through Thousand-Koan Realm, yet he was able to escape under Fei Zhong's pursuit for so long with Yan Zhexian, who was a burden.

Yan Huangtu was very arrogant and confident.

However, he had the right to be arrogant and confident.

When he reached Paramount Realm, he might really become the leader of the Yan family.

Yan Zhexian guessed what Yan Huangtu wanted to ask Zhang Ruochen for. Her eyes were filled with expectation.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and smiled. “No! I can’t agree to your request.”

Yan Huangtu frowned and said, “I haven’t mentioned it yet!”

“It’s not hard to guess. You want my protection to deal with Fei Zhong,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Huangtu said, “That’s right. Isn’t this a piece of cake for you, senior? Why not do something so simple that can make the Yan family and I owe you a huge favor.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Yes! Saving you was not difficult, but protecting you from Fei Zhong is as difficult as ascending to heaven.”

Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian were confused.

Didn’t he just beat Fei Zhong away?

How could protecting them be difficult?

Zhang Ruochen saw their confusion and said, “Earlier, I saved you because I saw that it was just a puppet of Fei Zhong. Its combat power is less than 20% of the real body. If it was Fei Zhong’s real body, I wouldn’t even have time to escape!”

“He’s just a puppet of Fei Zhong?” Yan Zhexian was surprised.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Fei Zhong is a big shot among dwarves. How could he only cultivate more than a trillion Precepts? Of course, this puppet is not much different from Paramount Realm cultivator!”

“I understand. Master Dazheng must have been restrained by his real body, so he couldn’t come.” Yan Zhexian’s eyes showed a sudden realization.

Master Dazheng she spoke of was a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

After Yan Yu and Lady Fu Xiang went to chase after High-Saint Kai Luo and the others, Master Dazheng stayed behind on Hoth to protect Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian in secret. Of course, Master Dazheng was not their guard, but one of their masters.

No one would arrange guards for a Supreme Saint.

If one was still being protected after becoming a Supreme Saint, one would never be able to become a powerful individual.

This time, because of the special circumstances, the Yan family planned to train Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian so that they could take over Yan Yu and Lady Fu Xiang's positions in the future. Otherwise, with their cultivations, they didn't even have the right to be involved in Fane of Origin's affair.

Yan Huangtu's expression changed again. He was silent for a while, "I see now. It's understandable that it's impractical for senior to help us. But, please leave a name. If the two of us manage to escape, we will know who to repay the favor to in the future."

Yan Zhexian looked dejected yet she knew that she couldn't force and keep him.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to give a random name, a familiar voice suddenly sounded.

"Brother Ruochen, I've finally caught up with you!" Gong Nanfeng flew over at an incredible speed. He grabbed Zhang Ruochen's shoulder and panted heavily.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes widened. He stared at him in a daze and said, "How did you catch up? You're really..."

He really wanted to say, "You're really haunting me."

However, he thought that Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian were still standing on the side. He quickly changed his words and said, "Did you get the wrong person?"

Zhang Ruochen had transformed into a Rakshasa cultivator and used a secret medicine to conceal his aura solely because he was worried that Gong Nanfeng would catch up with him and deduce his identity.

Logically speaking, even if Gong Nanfeng was a god, he should not have been able to catch up to him, let alone see through his identity.

Oh my god, what was going on?

Gong Nanfeng was very happy to see Zhang Ruochen, he beamed with joy and said, "Of course, I can't have mistaken you for someone else. Brother Ruochen has treated me with sincerity. You lured the enemy away all by yourself. I feel ashamed every time thinking of this. Thus, I've decided not to hide it from you anymore..."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Wait, what did you just say? Lure the enemy away all by myself?"

Gong Nanfeng said, "Yes! When I woke up, I found that Brother Ruochen had disappeared. So I calculated and found that there was Lord Ironclad's aura nearby. Hehe, so I boldly guessed that Lord Ironclad must have caught up with us. Brother Ruochen was worried about my safety, so you lured him away by yourself. Right?"

Zhang Ruochen no longer denied his identity. He accepted his fate and said, "Since you have figured it out, I can't hide it anymore. I just don't know how much you have deduced."

Zhang Ruochen was a little worried.

"Not much. It's hard to figure out everything about you. I can only guess the cause and effect based on your character and behavior," Gong Nanfeng said.

Zhang Ruochen breathed a sigh of relief and said, "How could you know me so well?"

"I've never been wrong about people."

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, "Although we've only known each other for a short time, we've already been well acquainted with each other. It's really rare."

Gong Nanfeng's face was bitter, he said shamefully, "That's exactly why I blame myself so much. Brother Ruochen treats me sincerely, but I've been hiding something from you. No, I'll tell you all my secrets. Then you'll understand how I found you!"

Zhang Ruochen's eyes lit up.

He was really interested in this secret.

Only when he knew Gong Nanfeng's secret would he be able to stop Gong Nanfeng to catch up with him again.

Yan Zhexian, who was standing on the side, looked at the tall Rakshasa with a suspicious look and asked, "What did you call him just now?"

Zhang Ruochen was about to send a voice transmission to stop Gong Nanfeng.

But Gong Nanfeng had already blurted out, "Brother Ruochen, the grandson of Wargod Bloodximus, the fiancé of Princess Luo Sha, and the only remaining Yuanhui level genius in Infernal Court, Zhang Ruochen. How could Miss Zhexian not recognize him? Oh! He seems to have changed his appearance."

“Zhang Ruochen?”

Yan Zhexian clenched her fists. Her beautiful face sank, and her teeth started to grind.

Yan Huangtu was stunned, looking at the Rakshasa Supreme Saint from top to bottom.

Without waiting for them to ask or confirm, Zhang Ruochen pulled Gong Nanfeng and flew far away. He called out, “Please wait. I have something to speak to him in private.”

Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu obviously didn’t know how to face the fact that Zhang Ruochen was their savior, so they didn’t chase after him.

“Brother Ruochen, we have nothing to hide. Why can’t we be straightforward?” Gong Nanfeng asked, confused.

Zhang Ruochen pulled Gong Nanfeng a hundred miles away. He released Profound Spatial Dimension and said thoughtfully, “Lord Ironclad is dead!”

“I know that. I’ve calculated it. Did you kill him?” Gong Nanfeng asked.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. “It was a Celestial Court Supreme Saint.”

“A Celestial Court Supreme Saint came to Infernal Court to take Tensho Compass. There must be someone whose hiding their secrets. There’s no way that you could figure it out.”

Gong Nanfeng said thoughtfully, "As far as I know, the people from Celestial Court came here to kill you."

The corner of Zhang Ruochen's mouth twitched. He felt that chatting with Gong Nanfeng was not a pleasant thing. He said, "Killing me is only secondary. My life is nothing compared to Tensho Compass."

Gong Nanfeng nodded and asked in confusion, "Why did the Celestial Court Supreme Saint kill Lord Ironclad?"

"Celestial Court and the Enchanteur Chamber have been cooperating in the past, but now they are on bad terms. Guess what, Lord Ironclad is from the Enchanteur Chamber. Do you understand now?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Gong Nanfeng was shocked. "Celestial Court and the Enchanteur Chamber are working together? When did Lord Ironclad become a member of the Enchanteur Chamber? How come I, the Overseer, don't know about this? And I didn't figure it out!"

"That's not important. What's important is that Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian can't know about Tensho Compass."

Zhang Ruochen finally got to the point. He looked at Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu in the distance. The two were also discussing something in a low voice.

Gong Nanfeng asked, "Why?"

"First, Yanluo Clan is not on the same side as Fane of Destiny. What if they take this opportunity to take the compass?" Zhang Ruochen said.

He emphasized the words "Fane of Destiny."

Gong Nanfeng said, "They don't seem to be a threat to you."

Zhang Ruochen ignored him, "Second, the situation on Hoth is very chaotic now. Bai Qing'er of the Enchanteur Chamber controls many top Supreme Saints. You should know that they were all involved in stealing Tensho Compass. What if Yan Huangtu or Yan Zhexian were also controlled by Bai Qing'er?"

Gong Nanfeng was shocked. “Impossible! How dare Bai Qing’er control Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian?”

“Why not? To tell you the truth, Bai Qing’er plotted Duan Lingfeng and the others to take Tensho Compass. She even dared to take Tensho Compass. What else could she not do?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Gong Nanfeng’s face turned cold. He said, “Fane of Destiny will definitely investigate this thoroughly. If It’s true, the Enchanter Chamber and Bai Qing’er will have to pay a heavy price.”

Zhang Ruochen nodded in satisfaction. Patting his shoulder, he said, “The current situation is chaotic. No cultivator can be trusted. Protecting our lives is the most important thing we should do.”

Gong Nanfeng sighed bitterly. “I claim to know everything in the world. Yet I couldn’t figure out anything once we stepped foot on Hoth. I’m being used without realizing it.”

Zhang Ruochen’s face darkened. He thought Gong Nanfeng was making an oblique accusation.

He pretended not to care, “Cultivators of Celestial Realm, Kunlun’s field, and even Bai Qing’er aren’t simple. It’s normal that you can’t predict what will happen as big figures are behind them. You’re already very powerful. Look, you did catch up with me again.”

Gong Nanfeng looked at Zhang Ruochen and said in a low voice, “Brother Ruochen, I was just about to tell you about this.”

Zhang Ruochen immediately pricked up his ears and prepared to listen carefully.

Gong Nanfeng said, “Only the most core members of Fane of Destiny know this secret.”

“I’m in charge of Destiny Token, so I’m a core member too,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Gong Nanfeng said, “Actually, I could only catch up with you because Tensho Compass is on you. I’m the vessel spirit of Tensho Compass.”

It was an incredible secret.

Even though Zhang Ruochen was mentally prepared, he was still shocked by his words.

“The vessel spirit of a Divine Artifact? No, I saw that the vessel spirit of Tensho Compass was suppressed by Duan Lingfeng’s Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation.” Zhang Ruochen didn’t believe it. He still thought that Gong Nanfeng was scheming and deliberately setting a trap for him.

Gong Nanfeng couldn’t predict him.

And Zhang Ruochen could only sense a general idea when he used the Heart of Truth to feel Gong Nanfeng.

Gong Nanfeng said, “I am the vessel spirit’s body.”

“What do you mean?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gong Nanfeng said, “Brother Ruochen should know that all the spirits in the world will go through a Yuanhui Tribulation every 129,600 years. Moreover, the difficulty of getting through Yuanhui Tribulations will only get harder. Vessel spirits are also spirits. We go through Yuanhui Tribulations as well.”

Zhang Ruochen was deep in thought.

Gong Nanfeng continued, “Different spirits have different difficulties in going through the tribulation. The closer they are to the hearts of nature, the easier it will be to go through the tribulation. For example, the plant spirits.

“On the other hand, the fiercer the spirit as it goes against the rules of nature, the more difficult it will be to go through the tribulation. It’s the same for humans, Immortal Vampires, and vessel spirits.

“The difficulty of overcoming the tribulation of a Divine Artifact’s vessel spirit is not lower than an Immortal Vampire. However, many Divine Artifact’s vessel spirits can last for ten, dozens, or even longer.

“This is because the Divine Artifact’s vessel spirit can split more than 90% of its spirit and cultivate a physical body to overcome the Yuanhui Tribulation. The other part of the spirit lowers its cultivation below divinity and sleeps inside the Divine Artifact to avoid the perception of Yuanhui Tribulation. After the Yuanhui Tribulation is over, it can cultivate divinity again.”

Zhang Ruochen questioned, “If the Yuanhui Tribulation was so easy to deceive, wouldn’t all the spirits in the world be able to use this method to substitute death and live through one Yuanhui Tribulation after another?”

Gong Nanfeng shook his head. “If I let you split more than 90% of your Saint Soul and cultivate a physical body to become another you, would you be able to accept it?”

Zhang Ruochen thought carefully and shook his head.

No matter how powerful a human cultivator was, after losing more than 90% of the Saint Soul, he would probably become a retard.

Furthermore, the loss of the Saint Soul would severely impact one’s cultivation. It was very likely that his cultivation would drop drastically or that he would never be able to improve in the future. For any God, as long as they had a sliver of confidence in surviving the Yuanhui Tribulation, they would not choose to do so.

Back then, Guye Jing had only absorbed Zhang Ruochen’s soul power, not the Saint Soul itself.

It was terrifying to think that if one had cultivated a person who was the exact lookalike.

Gong Nanfeng continued, “Most gods would not do this. Gods are different from Divine Artifacts. Gods rely on themselves, and their divine souls mustn’t be lost. Divine Artifacts are different. Vessel spirits are important yet also not important. This is because the power of a Divine Artifact comes from its owner.”

Zhang Ruochen believed most of his words, “Has no God ever done this before?”

“There is.”

Gong Nanfeng said, “Buddhism has found a secret technique that can hide from the Yuanhui Tribulation. However, one can’t protect his divinity physiques. One can only protect less than 10% of his soul. The remnant of the soul needs to absorb more than 90% of a new soul. By then, it’s not the same person anymore. Therefore, it’s considered a new life, also called reincarnation.”

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly. “Even if one escapes from the Yuanhui Tribulation, it’s no different from death. He would be a completely new person.”

“Let me tell you a secret. In Fane of Destiny, some gods guessed that you were the reincarnation of Saint Monk Xumi,” Gong Nanfeng said.

“What?”

Zhang Ruochen was stunned. “Nonsense. If I were the reincarnation of Saint Monk Xumi, even if I only had less than 10% of his soul, I’d be a powerful figure in the world.”

“Don’t worry! You’re definitely not the reincarnation of Saint Monk Xumi. Otherwise, you won’t be able to leave Mount Destiny,” Gong Nanfeng said with a smile.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Rather saying that you found me, it’s that you’ve found Tensho Compass?”

Gong Nanfeng crossed his arms and nodded. “That’s right. Just like your Saint Soul, which could fly back to your body even if it’s thousands of miles away. Even the black sack of Duan Lingfeng can’t stop my perception of Tensho Compass.”

Zhang Ruochen had a headache believing in Gong Nanfeng. “How high is your cultivation now?”

“I just cultivated my body. Thus, I’m very weak.”

“You’re lying, right? If you’re really weak, how can you walk through the universe? How can you catch up to me?” Zhang Ruochen probed.

Gong Nanfeng said, “Brother Ruochen, I’m not lying. I’m really weak. It’s just that my body is special and stronger than a mortal's. I can adapt to all kinds of harsh environments. As for my speed, it's entirely because a Divine Artifact's vessel spirit is always attracted to the Divine Artifact. I can't control the power of the Divine Artifact's spirit at will."

Zhang Ruochen stood with his hands behind his back. His emotions were complicated. He didn't know what to do.

Luckily, he hadn't claimed that Tensho Compass had been taken away by the Supreme Saint of Celestial Court. Otherwise, he would have been exposed.

What should he do now?

Kill Gong Nanfeng to get rid of the future trouble?

He felt that he couldn't do it.

Besides, Zhang Ruochen didn't wholly trust Gong Nanfeng. What if Gong Nanfeng was a subservient superior and deliberately made up a story to numb him.

Fane of Destiny needed a good reason to kill Zhang Ruochen.

Gong Nanfeng might have come for this. It was a trap for Zhang Ruochen.

But if he kept Gong Nanfeng alive, how could he hide Tensho Compass?

When Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia appeared on Hoth, Zhang Ruochen realized that the plan to rescue Lord of Nephilim Island had already started. It was very likely that their capture of Tensho Compass had something to do with the rescue plan.

Otherwise, Kunlun's field would not have exposed the secret that Xue Lingxian was still alive.

There must be a reason why they're willing to pay such a high price.

In Zhang Ruochen's subconscious mind, he hoped Kunlun's field could rescue Lord of Nephilim Island. He also hoped that thousands of lives in Kunlun's field could be spared from the flames of war.

This was why he hadn't given Tensho Compass to Gong Nanfeng.

Yet taking a step back, he was Prince of the Eastern Region, Sect of the Blood God's leader, and the Crown Prince of Shengming Central Empire. He was responsible for protecting the lives in the Eastern Region, the disciples of Sect of the Blood God, and the descendants of Shengming Central Empire.

Gong Nanfeng said, "Brother Ruochen, you believe me now, right?"

"Yes!"

Zhang Ruochen answered subconsciously.

Gong Nanfeng said happily, "Then can you return Tensho Compass to me?"

"Hmm?"

Zhang Ruochen laughed dryly and shook his head. "No."

"Why?"

Gong Nanfeng couldn't understand.

"You're too weak. It's safer to keep Tensho Compass with me," Zhang Ruochen said.

Gong Nanfeng was listless. He sighed and said, "Yes, I'm indeed weak. We might easily lose Tensho Compass if it's with me."

"It's okay. I'm still here," Zhang Ruochen said.

...

Yan Zhexian's pretty face was full of frustration and helplessness. Thinking back to all the things she had done with Zhang Ruochen, she felt like they were enemies on a narrow road.

Why was it this annoying guy who saved them?

Looking at her embarrassed face, Yan Huangtu smiled and said, "Actually, Zhang Ruochen's not that bad. Even great-grandfather can't stop praising him."

“Great-grandfather only took a fancy to his talent, but he didn’t see his character clearly,” Yan Zhexian said.

Yan Huangtu said, “I think his character is not bad either! At least he was frank to you. In the House of Enchanters of Divine Domain of Destiny, he transformed into the Heaven and Earth Slaughterer to help you out. Otherwise, how many Godstones would you have lost in that bet?”

Yan Huangtu knew the secret of Yan Zhexian’s fetus in her belly, so he was no longer hostile to Zhang Ruochen.

Fighting to the death on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was only for the benefit of the forces behind them. It was a fair and just competition. It was not a deadly feud, nor was it a personal one.

Yan Huangtu continued, “Zhang Ruochen had already faked his death and hid in the dark. With his character, he wouldn’t meddle in other people’s business in this state. However, he saved us, which would cause trouble and expose his identity. I think he didn’t do it for me.”

There were some changes in Yan Zhexian’s eyes, but she still pursed her lips and said stubbornly, “So what? I won’t accept his favor.”

“He didn’t want you to accept his favor at all. If not for Gong Nanfeng’s sudden appearance, he would have already left without revealing his identity. He also didn’t want you to know his identity when he helped you in the House of Enchanters.” Yan Huangtu said.

Yan Zhexian’s eyes showed a pleading look, “Uncle, why are you speaking up for outsiders? You don’t want me to marry him, do you? He and Princess Luo Sha are engaged. It was the deity who bestowed him the marriage. If I marry him, what will it be? Will I be his concubine?”

“Of course not,” Yan Huangtu said.

Yan Zhexian said, “So, you’re on my side? You won’t listen to great grandfather? I don’t have to marry Zhang Ruochen?”

“I mean, you are the pearl of the Yan family. After you marry him, you have to at least be on equal footing with Luo Sha,”

Yan Huangtu said seriously with a sharp look in his eyes.

“Please don’t joke around. They’re coming. What should I say? Ugh! Why did it have to be Zhang Ruochen? Should I thank or glare at him to make him stop pestering me and give up?” Yan Zhexian asked in a low voice. She didn’t know whether to laugh or cry and felt fate was playing tricks on her.

“I’m seriously injured. I need to heal first.”

With that, Yan Huangtu sat down cross-legged and began to heal.

Zhang Ruochen returned to his original appearance and walked over with Gong Nanfeng.

He glanced at Yan Huangtu, sitting cross-legged with his back to him. Then his gaze shifted to Yan Zhexian. His gaze fell on her slightly hunched lower stomach. “You should have stayed in Yanluo Clan to care for the baby.”

Yan Zhexian wanted to reply arrogantly, “This has nothing to do with you.” However, Zhang Ruochen had just saved her. It was too unreasonable. In the end, Zhang Ruochen was not evil nor not unforgivable.

She said lightly, “I came out to experience life. I didn’t expect to encounter danger.”

“There’s always danger when you experience life. I know you don’t like me. It doesn’t matter. I don’t like you either. But for the child in your belly, I can escort you back to Hoth. You should return to Yanluo Clan as soon as possible. With your cultivation, you’d better not get involved in this matter,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Zhexian wanted to talk to Zhang Ruochen properly, but Zhang Ruochen’s words made her very unhappy. She became angry and laughed coldly.

“If you don’t need my escort, just say it. I don’t want to get into trouble,” Zhang Ruochen said directly.

Gong Nanfeng said, “I’m afraid you can’t.”

“Why are you interrupting?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gong Nanfeng looked serious and said, "I mean, Fei Zhong is on his way here. He'll be here in 15 minutes at most."

"Did you calculate it?" Zhang Ruochen's face changed slightly.

"Yes!"

"The real body, or the puppet."

Gong Nanfeng smiled bitterly. "I'm afraid it's... the real body."

Zhang Ruochen immediately activated Precepts of Truth and flowed it into his eyes. He looked in the direction Gong Nanfeng was pointing.

Yan Huangtu wasn't in the mood to heal. He stood up abruptly.

Gong Nanfeng wasn't nervous or flustered at all. He even comforted Yan Huangtu and Yanzhexian. "Don't worry. Master Ruochen is here. Don't panic."

"Fei Zhong's real body is here. Let's split up. We might still have a chance to escape." Yan Huangtu looked at Zhang Ruochen, hoping to entrust Yan Zhexian to him.

Gong Nanfeng said, "You really don't need to panic. Master Ruochen is so righteous. He'll definitely lure Fei Zhong away alone. He did the same when we met Lord Ironclad earlier. I'm so touched by his righteousness.."

Yan Zhexian was surprised. If the Divination Division's Overseer hadn't said this, she wouldn't believe that Zhang Ruochen was such a righteous man.

Did she really misunderstand him?

Zhang Ruochen almost spat out blood. He wanted to punch Gong Nanfeng to death.

Gong Nanfeng said, "Let's go first. Brother Ruochen will definitely stay here to block Fei Zhong and buy time for us to escape."

"Why should we leave? We all know Fei Zhong's character. He's only a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. It's too dangerous to leave him here alone. If we want to go, we'll go together. If we want to fight, we'll fight together."

Zhang Ruochen turned his head. He hadn't expected Yan Zhexian to say such things.

"What are you looking at? I don't like you, but when disaster strikes, I won't leave you alone and run away!" Yan Zhexian glared at him and snorted.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, "Nonetheless, I have a plan that might work."

Fei Zhong's puppet was created using his true form's blood, Spirits, and soul power, as well as the bones of a Paramount Realm dwarf. It took countless resources to create it.

This puppet was Fei Zhong's greatest reliance before he broke through to Paramount Realm.

At this moment, the puppet followed his aura and walked closely behind him.

Fei Zhong's true form saw two black dots in the vast universe from a great distance away. As they flew closer, he could see that the two black dots were Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian.

The two of them stayed where they were and did not escape.

Fei Zhong's two thick eyebrows contracted slightly as he asked, "Didn't you say that the two of them had already escaped?"

The puppet was shocked and a little lost, "I'm not sure! The two of them had indeed escaped after the Rakshasa Supreme Saint appeared! It might be a trap seeing that they're here now, while the Rakshasa Supreme Saint is nowhere to be found. Master, you'd better be careful."

"What cultivation level of that Rakshasa Supreme Saint?" Fei Zhong became wary.

The puppet said, "At that time, he only used his physical strength. His cultivation level was never exposed."

“There must be something fishy going on. We have to be careful. Stay where you are. If anything happens, help me immediately,” Fei Zhong instructed.

The puppet said, “Master’s cultivation level is capable of dealing with any variables. Even if they are scheming, it’s useless in the face of absolute power.”

Fei Zhong flew towards Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian and activated his Precept Domain.

When he was still ten thousand miles away from the two Yans, the Precept Domain had already spread to their surroundings. Dense black iron appeared in the void. Some turned into iron flowers, some formed rows of iron thorns, and some turned into a forest of iron trees.

Compared to the puppet’s Precept Domain, Fei Zhong’s Precept Domain was extremely mysterious. It displayed all sorts of forms in the world, like a metal world that underwent endless changes.

Yan Huangtu sat cross-legged, leisurely recuperating from his injuries.

Yan Zhexian wore a pure white robe. She stood casually mid-air, and flowers bloomed beneath her feet. She was like a peerless heavenly maiden, indifferently looking at the steel jungle that submerged.

Seeing their peaceful state, even Fei Zhong, who had a profound cultivation base, felt a little weak in his heart.

Thus, he stopped several dozen miles away from them.

“My Spiritual power and Precept Domain didn’t sense any other elites nearby, so there shouldn’t be an ambush. But, why are the two of them so calm?” Fei Zhong thought.

Yan Zhexian’s lips curled into a smile as he said, “Uncle, I was right. Fei Zhong came to seek his death.”

Yan Huangtu opened his eyes and shook his head with a smile.

Fei Zhong held his battle ax in his hand, he said in a clear voice, “You two don’t have to be so mystifying. Old man Dazheng has been severely injured, he’s not coming to save you! If the two of you are sensible, you'll surrender. Once I make a move, who knows if I'll break Fifth Master Yan or hurt the fetus in Miss Zhexian's stomach?"

Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian's hearts were in a funk.

Their greatest hope was that Master Dazheng would come to rescue them.

Since Fei Zhong's true body had appeared here, it meant that Master Dazheng might have met with an accident.

Yan Zhexian's expression could no longer hold it in.

Yan Huangtu stood up and used his tall and sturdy body to block Yan Zhexian so that Fei Zhong could not see the change in Yan Zhexian's expression.

He spread out his hands and said, "The legendary Fei Zhong. Your name could be heard throughout the entire Celestial Court. With your cultivation level, why are you wasting your time on us? Come and capture us!"

Fei Zhong was an experienced person. He circulated his Saint Qi to his eyes and observed his surroundings.

He still did not find anything.

Fei Zhong smiled and said, "You know that you can not escape, so you set up a maze to scare me?"

Yan Huangtu said, "Senior is a first-class existence below divinity. Even your puppet is comparable to a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. I am just a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. I'm a child in front of you, how would I dare to scheme you?"

"It's useless even if you set up a maze or an ambush."

Fei Zhong raised his left hand across the void. Instantly, the wind and clouds in the Precept Domain changed. Countless Precepts turned into a torrent and surged towards Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian.

The torrent of Precepts was like a river in the heavens and earth, and also billions of light swords.

Even before it landed on their body, it had already caused their Saint Souls to palpitate. A mystical scene appeared before their eyes, as if the gods had appeared, making them kneel on the ground in fear.

The difference in cultivation was too great. Just a thought from Fei Zhong could cause them to sink into the Saint Aura and lose the ability to resist.

“Fei Zhong’s cultivation base is so terrifying.”

Yan Huangtu activated Nine Dragons Divine Mark. A streak of divine light rushed out of his body. However, under the attack of the torrent of Precepts, the Divine Marks were instantly destroyed and disappeared from his bones.

It was directly erased by Fei Zhong.

Yan Huangtu no longer resisted. He placed all his hope on Zhang Ruochen.

BOOM

A ball of dark energy exploded out of thin air. Space and time were thrown into chaos.

The dense dark energy turned into a cloud and blocked the torrents of Precepts.

“Such dense dark energy. Who Is It?”

Fei Zhong’s expression changed slightly as his eyes narrowed.

In the dark cloud, space and time became chaotic as a remarkable figure appeared. It was a young man with a handsome face and noble temperament. His eyes seemed to contain billions of stars and were unfathomable.

Seeing this young man, Fei Zhong was scared out of his wits. His eyes were wide open and he flew backward rapidly, pulling away the distances between them.

Whoosh

Precepts surged out of Fei Zhong’s body and he entered his peak fighting state.

The Precept Domain became more unpredictable and the Saint Aura was stronger. Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian were under tremendous pressure. Their bodies felt as if they were being pricked by needles and their shoulders felt as if they were bearing a hundred thousand mountains. However, they still had to appear calm and relaxed.

“Fei Zhong, you dare to lay your hands on me?” The young man coldly berated.

Fei Zhong motivated his battle ax to the limit. His eyes were like lightning, but his palms were covered in cold sweat, “Not at all! Second Lord Yan is known as the god of Demigods and the number one person below divinity of Yanluo Clan. I still have some self-awareness. I won’t do such a suicidal thing.”

Lord Yan was referring to Yan Yu, the second brother of Yan Huangtu.

Fei Zhong called Yan Huangtu, Fifth Master Yan but Second Lord Yan to Yan Yu. His respect for him was self-evident.

Fei Zhong was secretly glad that he had been careful and didn’t approach him. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have had a chance to escape today.

Yan Yu was naturally Zhang Ruochen’s transformation.

The pure dark energy under Zhang Ruochen’s feet was condensed from the last two drops of Dark Space-time Matter.

Yan Yu focuses mainly on Path of Darkness.

Zhang Ruochen seemed to be at ease, but in fact, his situation was similar to Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian. His demigod body was squeezed tightly by Fei Zhong’s Precept Domain. It was difficult for him to breathe.

However, he couldn’t show any flaws.

Zhang Ruochen snorted. “You hurt my brother and wanted to capture my niece. If I don’t kill you today, where will the Yan family’s dignity be?”

Fei Zhong felt even more pressure. His hair was soaked with sweat. “With Lord Yan’s cultivation, I know I’m no match for you. But Lord Yan might not be able to stop me if I try to escape, right?”

Fei Zhong naturally wouldn't doubt Yan Yu's identity.

First, he had used his spiritual power and Precept Domain to investigate earlier. He hadn't sensed anyone hiding. Who else could but Yan Yu, who had the highest cultivation could hide from him?

Second, Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian had already escaped. Why did they suddenly come back here?

It was obvious that Yan Yu had used them as bait to lure him here.

Third, Zhang Ruochen's Shapeshifting technique had reached its peak. Almost no one under divinity could see through it.

Zhang Ruochen smiled mockingly and said indifferently, “Oh you can try to escape. Yet I bet on my surname that you can't escape from me.”

Yan Zhexian glanced at Zhang Ruochen and was speechless. He felt that Zhang Ruochen was too good at bragging and taking his place. If Fei Zhong turned around and ran, wouldn't he be exposed?

Did he think that he was the demigod's God?

Fei Zhong knew how powerful Yan Yu was. If he really turned around to run, his Precept Domain and aura would collapse and he wouldn't be able to fight anymore.

At that time, he might lose his life here.

Fei Zhong thought about it and became more aggressive. “Yan Yu, you've made a serious mistake. You shouldn't have used the two of them to lure me here.”

“Oh! Really?”

“With our current distance, you can't stop me from self-detonating my Sainthood Source.”

“I can't, but I can escape,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Fei Zhong said, "You can save your life, but Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian will definitely die with me. Well, I think you've made a crucial mistake."

Zhang Ruochen's face turned cold.

Fei Zhong thought he had caught Yan Yu's weakness, "Lord Yan, I came to Infernal Court to kill Zhang Ruochen. I've never thought of making an enemy of Yanluo Clan, let alone you. I only wanted to capture Fifth Master Yan and Miss Zhexian in exchange for the chance to leave Hoth. I've never thought of hurting them."

Yan Zhexian didn't expect Fei Zhong to be so scared of her second uncle. She blinked and said, "You're talking nonsense. You wanted to capture me to curry favor with some big shot in Celestial Court."

Fei Zhong said, "Fei Zhong had no such intention."

"Your puppet said it himself," Yan Zhexian said.

Fei Zhong said, "Miss Zhexian, you don't know. That bastard has developed an independent personality. He probably acted on his own."

Zhang Ruochen said, "If that's the case, you kill him."

"What?"

Fei Zhong gritted his teeth and glared at "Yan Yu".

Refining this puppet had cost him countless resources, including his blood and soul power. It was impossible to destroy him with his own hands.

This was a superior who was close to a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I'll spare your life today if you kill him."

Fei Zhong clenched his fingers tightly. Blood was almost seeping out of his teeth.

Zhang Ruochen said lightly, "I'll give you three seconds to consider. One!"

“Two!”

...

“Wait a minute.”

Fei Zhong was sweating profusely. His entire body was trembling. “Will you keep your word?”

Zhang Ruochen said disdainfully, “I, Yan Yu, am called the demigod’s God not only because of my profound cultivation but also because I never go back on my words.”

Fei Zhong said, “Good! I’ll trust Second Lord Yan’s words in Infernal Court.”

Fei Zhong gritted his teeth. His heart was bleeding, but he still took out a soul token and pressed it with his finger.

With a crack, the soul token shattered.

In the distance, the puppet screamed in pain. Its soul was destroyed and fell into the void space.

Yan Zhexian felt relieved and secretly happy about this. Zhang Ruochen’s move was too vicious. If Fei Zhong knew the truth, he would definitely lose his cool.

Zhang Ruochen reached out his hand and grabbed the puppet. He inspected it, “I didn’t expect the dwarves would have such an amazing person. You’re tough, decisive, and quick. We can expect you to reach divinity in the future. You can go now. We’ll definitely have another chance to meet.”

Fei Zhong felt less upset and depressed after being evaluated by Yan Yu.

At the same time, he became vigilant. He thought to himself, “I didn’t expect Yan Yu to be so accomplished in Path of Dimension. There’s no such record in the past. I must report this to the higher-ups when I return to Celestial Court.”

Fei Zhong was about to leave when he suddenly thought of something. He cupped his fists, “Lord Yan, there’s a huge misunderstanding between us. Zhang Ruochen’s body wasn’t taken by Celestial Court. You’re a wise man. Don’t fall for that b*tch’s trap.”

“I’ll investigate this thoroughly.”

Zhang Ruochen nodded and laughed in his heart. It was probably because of the strand of Shang Xia’s hair that he had left behind.

He hadn’t expected that not only did he drive a wedge between Celestial Court and Bai Qing’er, but he had also caused the Yanluo clan to fight against Celestial Court.

It was an unexpected harvest.

Now that the important matter had been settled, Zhang Ruochen only hoped that Fei Zhong would leave as soon as possible so that things wouldn’t change before the ink is dry.

Suddenly, dense lead clouds appeared in the entire space of the universe. Acid-like raindrops dropped down.

Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled in the clouds. Heavenly fire appeared faintly. The atmosphere was extremely solemn.

ROARRR

A dragon’s roar echoed in the Sea of stars.

An enormous dragon shadow flew through the clouds. Even the scales and claws that were revealed were enough to cover the sky and earth. It was extremely shocking.

Yan Huangtu opened his palm and caught a drop of rain. The palm of his hand was burning from the corrosion.

“Acid Rain, black dragon, it’s him!”

Fei Zhong guessed who the newcomer was and became nervous again.

Facing this person was more stressful than facing Yan Yu.

It was not because the newcomer was stronger than Yan Yu, but because the newcomer was born to kill. At least Yan Yu still talked about principles and rules and was afraid that he would self-destruct his Sainthood Source.

A half-dragon and half-human figure appeared in the dark clouds. Looking down at Fei Zhong, he asked, “Who is that b*tch you're talking about?"

His voice boomed like a waterfall of sound waves.

Fei Zhong confronted the half-dragon-half-human figure. Saint Aura on his body rose, but it was still suppressed by layers of lead clouds. His momentum was much weaker.

Yan Huangtu murmured to himself, "I didn't expect the people of Fane of Destiny to come!"

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He didn't expect Blackwraith, one of the Ten Wraithions, to appear here.

The arrival of Blackwraith could indeed suppress Fei Zhong and completely resolve their crisis.

However, Tensho Compass was with him. Once Blackwraith finished Fei Zhong off, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't have an excuse to keep Tensho Compass.

"Let's go! We must leave before Blackwraith finds out."

Zhang Ruochen immediately transmitted his voice to Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu, telling them that this was the best time to escape.

Gong Nanfeng, who had been hiding, immediately jumped out when he saw Blackwraith. He was overjoyed and held Zhang Ruochen's hand, he said excitedly, "Brother Ruochen, the elites of Fane of Destiny are here. We're saved. There's no need to act anymore! This is great. We can finally return to Hoth safely."

Fei Zhong and Blackwraith, who had been confronting each other, looked over at the same time.

The difference was that Blackwraith was looking at Overseer, Gong Nanfeng. Fei Zhong, on the other hand, stared at Zhang Ruochen. He seemed to have guessed something. His arm twitched. He couldn't help but look at the crushed soul token. His expression was very interesting.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Gong Nanfeng, who was holding his arm tightly. His expression was even more interesting than Fei Zhong's.

Fei Zhong had become a top-tier elite one class below divinity, so he was able to see through the heavenly secrets and understand the truths of the world. He was intimidated only because of Yan Yu's great fame.

When Gong Nanfeng exposed Yan Yu's fake identity, Fei Zhong was naturally fuming with anger.

He was a grand authority in the Dwarves and regarded as a "deity-like figure". However, he had been played by a few Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle and Thousand-Koan Realm. They destroyed the puppet clone that he had painstakingly cultivated. That was a great humiliation to him.

It is known that Fei Zhong's cultivation, strength, and status in the Celestial Court were far superior even compared to the likes of Wu Zu from Guanghan and Emperor Ji Mie.

Fei Zhong shouted angrily, "Who are you?"

"I am Yan Yu, the god of Demigods." Zhang Ruochen waved Gong Nanfeng away and tried to pretend still.

Unfortunately, the dark clouds formed by the explosion of dark matter dispersed a lot and became thinner. If it was Yan Yu, the dark energy would be as eternal as a black hole, devouring all the light and heat of time.

"I killed you."

Fei Zhong spat out a sound wave, and the four words transformed into four forms: Green Moon Divine Disciple, Golden Armored Horseman, Godly Cauldron King, and the Heavenly Ghost Grinder.

Each word was a high-level Thousand-Koan Saint technique.

The Divine Disciple was ten thousand feet tall, and the green moon above his head shone for ten thousand miles.

The Golden Armored Horseman was full of killing intent. Behind him, the phantom shadow of thousands of soldiers and horses burst out with unstoppable momentum.

...

The light of the Green Moon surged out like a huge wave. It pushed Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu backward, with both of them unable to contend with it.

Zhang Ruochen sighed lightly and activated the divine force in his body. An enormous divine shadow of a blood phoenix appeared behind him.

This was the manifestation of divine force.

Zhang Ruochen's current body was the Blood Empress. He had used the divine blood of a Divine Blood Phoenix. After 800 years of cultivation, he had reached the level of a demigod's body. This was because the power of Zhang Ruochen's demigod body was closely related to the Blood Phoenix.

Zhang Ruochen had been analyzing its secrets recently, trying to display the strongest power of the demigod body.

BOOM

Zhang Ruochen attacked with all his strength. With the power of his palm, he shattered the Green Moon Divine Disciple. Then, he cut through the Golden Armored Horseman, sweeping away the Godly Cauldron King and the Heavenly Ghost Grinder.

He struck out four times in a row, breaking all four Saint Techniques of Fei Zhong.

It seemed to be done in one go, but anyone could see that "Yan Yu" was barely damaged. A strand of his hair had been cut off by the Golden Armored Horseman's blade, and his head had nearly flown off.

It must be known that this was just an attack formed by Fei Zhong's casual words.

Fei Zhong had completely seen through "Yan Yu" and his eyes were burning with anger. If he didn't kill this person today, he definitely could not live this through.

"Enough! With me here, how can I let you show off as a Heavenly Realm Supreme Saint?"

Blackwraith's arm stretched out and turned into a black dragon claw hundreds of miles long, stopping Fei Zhong who wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen.

The Dragon Qi and Corpse Qi were both extremely dense and contained countless precepts.

Fei Zhong looked up and felt the scale-shaped sky pressing down. It crushed the Precept Domain that he was holding up. Finally, it landed heavily on his body.

Fei Zhong was hit by the claw and fell rapidly. The Saint Qi in his body became chaotic.

"The Ten Wraithions are truly terrifying. I'm no match for them."

Just as this thought flashed through Fei Zhong's mind, Blackwraith's second claw came slashing horizontally.

Tens of thousands of dragon shadows surged out of the Dragon Claw, and the roar of a thousand dragons surged out.

Sky Splitter!

Fei Zhong raised the battle-ax above his head and performed an advanced Saint technique. Countless bolts of lightning surged out of the battle ax. Each bolt of lightning was like a river of lightning that spanned tens of thousands of miles.

Zhang Ruochen, Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, and Gong Nanfeng were all fleeing rapidly. This was a battle at the peak of the Divine Plane. Even if they were just hit by a bolt of lightning, it wouldn't be a laughing matter.

Zhang Ruochen looked back and saw the shadow of a huge ax that was thousands of miles long. As if breaking through the chaos, it hacked at the black figure of the half-dragon and half-human facing the sky.

“You, Fei Zhong, still have a big difference.”

Blackwraith shouted and turned into the black dragon’s body.

Endless divine power was released from the huge dragon’s body. With a swipe of its claw, the shadow of the huge ax shattered and turned into a rain of light that covered thousands of miles away.

Fei Zhong spat out blood and flew away quickly.

The Black Divine Dragon was much faster than Fei Zhong. It caught up with him in an instant and spat out a multicolor seal that was thousands of meters long. Four ancient divine texts of the Dragon Clan flew out from the seal. They struck and injured Fei Zhong again while trapping him simultaneously.

Fei Zhong knew that Blackwraith was the weakest among the Ten Wraithions, but was among one of the fastest. He knew that he wouldn’t be able to escape easily today.

“If we continue fighting, we’ll die together,” Fei Zhong said in a heavy voice.

The Black Divine Dragon wasn’t afraid and spoke. “Before you self-detonate your Sainthood Source, answer my question. What happened to Zhang Ruochen death? Did you take away the Tensho Compass with him?”

Obviously, Gong Nanfeng’s previous “Brother Ruochen” didn’t make them think of Zhang Ruochen.

After all, no one believed that Zhang Ruochen could survive the Arrow of Deva Path.

Even if it was Blackwraith and Fei Zhong that were hit by the Arrow of Deva Path, they would most likely die.

Gong Nanfeng, Yan Zhexian, and Yan Huangtu couldn’t help but look at fake Yan Yu.

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s said that the Blackwraith is from the Fane of Destiny. It was cultivated by a pure-blood black dragon’s divine corpse and lives only for killing without fear of death. His combat strength is indeed extraordinary. It easily defeated Fei Zhong.”

Yan Zhexian knew that Zhang Ruochen was deliberately changing the topic. He didn’t want to tell them the truth, so he rolled his eyes and said, “Fei Zhong is no match for Blackwraith. Should we stop running instead?”

“No, the more that’s the case, the more we have to run. The farther the better,” Zhang Ruochen replied.

Yan Huangtu said, “That’s right! If Fei Zhong is forced to near death, he’ll self-detonate his Sainthood Source and burn together with Blackwraith. The destructive power of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint’s self-detonation isn’t something we can withstand.”

Zhang Ruochen released Saint Qi and enveloped the three of them. Just as he turned around, his gaze was frozen. He didn’t know when it happened, but there was a figure sitting behind them.

He hadn’t noticed it before.

Bai Qing’er was sitting in the void space. There was a stone bench beneath her, a stone table beside, and a stone pavilion.

The stone bench, stone table, and stone pavilion appeared from nothingness in front of the four of them. She seemed to be able to create things from nothing. It was strange and magical.

On the stone table, a teapot and a teacup appeared.

Within the teapot, boiling tea appeared.

The fragrance of the tea floated in the space of the universe, turning into many misty bridges.

Outside the stone pavilion, rockery and ponds appeared. The ground condensed into plain dirt, and colorful spirit flowers and divine trees grew. The trees were full of vermilion-colored fruits.

Very quickly, a fairyland-like island was born from nothing, bit by bit.

Even with what Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian had seen, they were both dumbfounded and immensely shocked.

Zhang Ruochen knew better than them how terrifying Bai Qing'er was. He stared at her sitting in the pavilion, but his spiritual power was communicating with the Intergold Tiger. "This time, I'm afraid I have to borrow your power!" he asked.

"I think you'd better not waste this only chance, because using brute force is really for the lower class. This woman is extremely intelligent and conceited, so she might not kill you. If you can deal with her with your own strength, you won't think of me the first time you meet a stronger enemy in the future. Of course, if you can't deal with it, I won't sit idly by. But I'll be disappointed in your ability," said the Intergold Tiger.

Zhang Ruochen calmed down quickly. He walked up the stairs and entered the stone pavilion.

He sat directly opposite Bai Qing'er, picked up the teapot, and poured himself a cup.

Bai Qing'er was surprised. She smiled and said, "Master Ruochen, are you not afraid of me at all?"

"Why should I be afraid? In any case, from now on, I'm either yours or you're mine. Can't we be casual as friends?" Zhang Ruochen replied.

Bai Qing'er smiled brightly like the rising sun. "Aren't you curious about how I found this place?"

"I think the problem is either Shang Yue or Shang Xia." Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and said, "It should be Shang Xia! Or did you already guess that the Arrow of Deva Path can't kill me?"

Bai Qing'er said, "As the guide of the Intergold Tiger, how could an Arrow of Deva Path kill you?"

"So you knew about it!" Zhang Ruochen exclaimed.

Bai Qing'er said, "I only found out by chance after I came to Hoth. Congratulations, Supreme Saint Ruochen. With the protection of the gods, you will soar to the sky in the future."

"You know that I have the protection of the gods, but you still dare to be my enemy?" Zhang Ruochen's eyes became fierce.

Bai Qing'er said lightly, "The Intergold Tiger appearing in this era is just like a sick cat. It's destined to not be able to dominate under the heavens. At least for now, I'm not afraid of it at all. If it appears and becomes my enemy, it will die."

The Intergold Tiger's voice sounded in Zhang Ruochen's ears. "I take back what I just said. When I fight with this woman, I will do my best to help you without a limit to the number of times. However, you must have full confidence in winning. You cannot lose."

Bai Qing'er wasn't completely lying.

If she was strong enough to force the Intergold Tiger to use more power than the heavenly and earthly precepts allowed, then the Intergold Tiger would be punished by heaven. It may even be in danger of dying.

She saw through the Intergold Tiger and Zhang Ruochen very clearly.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You knew that the Arrow of Deva Path couldn't kill me, but you still purposefully sent Shang Xia to take my body. Did you expect that I would capture her and not kill her?"

Bai Qing'er said, "With Shangguan Que in my hands, you won't kill Shang Xia for sure. You must have the bargaining chip to negotiate with me."

"So, in the House of Enchanters, you deliberately hinted to me that my teacher is in your hands?" Zhang Ruochen stared into her eyes, trying to see through her heart with the Path of Truth.

However, what he saw were two abysses. Countless illusions appeared in front of his eyes while his consciousness became blurry and he felt drowsy.

Bai Qing'er smiled slightly.

"Chi Yao, I have treated you like my true love. Why do you want to kill me?"

Zhang Ruochen roared and jumped forward. He sat up from the bed.

He realized that he had just fallen into a dream.

It was a nightmare!

In the dream, he was surrounded by many cultivators, including Blackie, Chi Yao, Kong Lanyou, Le, Feng Yan, Xiang Chunan, the Blood Empress... and finally, Chi Yao who pierced his forehead with her sword.

When he woke up, he appeared on the golden bed. The room was magnificent with an ancient painting hanging on the wall.

"Oh Chen, did you have a nightmare again?"

Concubine Lin Lan, the Princess to Yunwu Commandery's King, came in wearing a palace dress. Her eyes were full of concern.

"Mother?"

Zhang Ruochen looked at the familiar but strange figure in front of him. He felt that his current situation was a little strange, but everything in front of him was so real.

Lin Lan gently stroked Zhang Ruochen's forehead to comfort his emotions.

Zhang Ruochen was immersed in the warmth of his mother's love, and his body gently leaned forward. Suddenly, his head was in severe pain. Lin Lan's face suddenly became ferocious and terrifying. She crushed Zhang Ruochen's skull with her fingers.

Zhang Ruochen's soul flew out of his body and looked at his body on the bed. His head was completely crushed with blood flowing out.

Lin Lan, on the other hand, was like a lunatic. She let out a creepy laugh.

...

“Mother, why did you kill me?”

Zhang Ruochen roared loudly. He sat up from the bed and panted heavily.

Mu Lingxi, who was sleeping next to him, also sat up in her close-fitting clean white pajamas. Her clear eyes showed confusion. “What’s wrong?” she asked.

Zhang Ruochen touched his forehead and looked at Mu Lingxi. He then pulled her into his arms, closed his eyes, and let out a long breath. “It was just a dream!”

Stab

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen felt a sharp pain in his chest. He pushed Mu Lingxi away and stared at the heart in her hands. He looked down at the bloody hole in his chest and coughed out dryly, “Why... why did you do this?”

Mu Lingxi tilted her head and sneered. “I’m also from the Immortal Vampires, so I want to drink blood too. Your heart must taste delicious!”

...

The nightmare continued. Each time, it felt like a new beginning.

Yan Zhexian and the Yan Huangtu couldn’t hear the conversation in the stone pavilion, but they knew Bai Qing’er and her identity. They also knew that she and Zhang Ruochen had different opinions about the finest Divine Crystal of Origin. Both of them could be described as incompatible like fire and water.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen lay on the stone table and fell into a deep sleep. His body trembled and he cried out in fear. Both of his feet thrashed wildly while his hands twitched constantly.

Gong Nanfeng calculated with his fingers. His face changed in shock. He looked at Bai Qing’er in shock and said, “Oh no! Bai Qing’er is a Master of Origin. She has practiced the thirteen volumes of the Cloud Dream! It seems that Zhang Ruochen has fallen into her Nightmare of the Seven Souls .”

“That witch... she is indeed a problem.”

Yan Zhexian called out a runic pen and drew a rune pattern.

Gong Nanfeng stopped her and said bitterly, “Her cultivation is so strong that even the three of us combined would be killed by a single finger of hers.”

Yan Zhexian stared at Zhang Ruochen who was in extreme pain and said, “Then what should we do? Quick, go and ask Blackwraith to help. Only he can save Zhang Ruochen now.”

Because he was very close to Bai Qing’er, Gong Nanfeng had deduced many things about her. However, the more he knew, the paler his face became. So, when Yan Zhexian asked him to call Blackwraith for help, he did not say a word and just shook his head gently.

Bai Qing’er heard what Gong Nanfeng said just now and her gaze fell on him. She instantly saw through everything about him and smiled, “No wonder you were able to deduce my secret. The path I cultivate is exceedingly divine, it is actually the vessel spirit of the Tensho Compass.”

Gong Nanfeng smiled at her, and his smile was uglier than crying.

Blackwraith and Fei Zhong had already sensed Bai Qing’er’s aura and did not continue to fight. However, they enveloped their spiritual power together because they wanted to probe Bai Qing’er’s cultivation level.

“Both of you dare to probe me. Such bravery indeed.”

Bai Qing’er’s voice was clear and gentle. Sitting on the stone bench, she stretched out her empty hand, and an illusory universe appeared in her palm. It was unknown how many trillions of precepts flowed in the universe and sucked away Blackwraith and Fei Zhong’s spiritual power.

Fei Zhong was extremely frightened. He realized that his spiritual power was not under his control and was diminishing continually.

Such a terrifying thing had never happened before.

This should not be possible even for a deity.

“This woman is too strange. We can’t just sit here and wait for her death. Should we attack together?” Blackwraith asked.

“Alright!”

Fei Zhong was very decisive. He responded with a single word and slashed out with his battle ax. A giant ax shadow stretching for a thousand miles fell straight towards the stone pavilion.

Blackwraith controlled the seal and turned it into the size of a city. He crushed layers of space and followed closely behind the giant ax shadow to attack Bai Qing’er.

The huge ax shadow that could split the heavens and earth faded before it touched the stone pavilion. It was as if its energy had been sucked away and dissipated into nothingness.

Fei Zhong had never seen such a strange thing. He was stricken with terror.

As for the seal that Blackwraith had struck out, for some unknown reason, turned into a speck of light and fell into Bai Qing'er's hand.

A pure white and flawless flame appeared in her palm. In an instant, she refined the seal and suppressed the vessel spirit.

Fei Zhong and the Blackwraith were both influential figures. However, the combined attack of the two was quickly neutralized by Bai Qing'er. Both Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian standing outside the stone pavilion were shocked. Their faces were filled with disbelief.

Bai Qing'er looked at the seal in her hand and said, "It's a pretty good divine relic ancient artifact, but it's a pity that it hasn't reached the level of a Supreme Artifact. Also, its previous owner wasn't powerful enough as his power is limited."

Fei Zhong and Blackwraith's spiritual power had already been completely drained.

Without thinking, they immediately activated their secret arts and burst out with unprecedented speed, fleeing in two different directions.

Their speed was over 10,000 times the speed of sound.

Although the Blackwraith was not afraid of death, Bai Qing'er was too powerful. If they continued to attack, it would be useless, so they could only flee.

“You have discovered my secret and still wanted to escape?”

Bai Qing'er stood up and walked to the edge of the stone pavilion. Then she stared at the Blackwraith who had escaped tens of thousands of miles away and stretched out her snow-white hand.

Instantly, the shadow of a giant hand that was tens of thousands of miles long appeared in the space of the universe.

Five finger-like pillars of multicolored light imprisoned Blackwraith, who had transformed into the Black Dragon's true form. The Black Dragon's body burst out with earth-shattering divine force, stirring the space and disturbing the precepts of heaven and earth. Its power waves shattered pieces of the universe's rocks.

Bai Qing'er retracted back her five fingers, and the colossal shadow hand grabbed the Black Dragon as if it was catching a loach.

Bang

The Black Dragon's divine body exploded, and its scales, bones, head, and claws flew away. They rained down in the bloody and foul-smelling air. However, divine light still flickered from the broken corpse.

Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, and Gong Nanfeng held their breaths till their hearts seemed to stop beating.

Was Blackwraith of the Ten Wraithions killed so easily by a claw?

Even a pseudo god might not be able to do it.

Was she really Bai Qing'er?

She was just a cultivator below divinity.

Fei Zhong, who was running away, was horrified to find that the stone pavilion, which should have been thousands of miles behind him, had appeared in front of him.

He stopped and said with a bitter expression, “What kind of power is this... dimensions or illusions? Could this be a maze?”

Bai Qing'er stood on the steps beside the stone pavilion. Her black hair swayed in the wind, and her beauty was comparable to a painting. “I have completely absorbed your spiritual power. Undoubtedly you won't be able to sense what's happening. There's no harm in telling you that this is just a spiritual power attack. Your mind and thoughts have been affected to let you think that you were fleeing forward. In reality, you've run a circle and came back,” she said.

Fei Zhong was able to become one of the strongest among the Supreme Saint elites of the Paramount Realm. Even though his spiritual power had been sucked away, his Saint Soul and five senses were still powerful. Being toyed with by Bai Qing'er in the palm of her hand could only mean that her methods were too brilliant. No matter how much he resisted, it was futile.

Fei Zhong gave up on the idea of escaping and self-destructing his Sainthood Source. He bowed and said, “Lady Bai, you are indeed unparalleled in the world. I, Fei Zhong, surrender to you.”

“You didn't call me that before,” Bai Qing'er said.

Fei Zhong's expression changed again and again. He braced himself and said, “I am so stupid that I don't understand what you mean.”

“Although Zhang Ruochen tricked me into destroying my puppet clone, you are still smart. At least you know what's good for you. So do not play dumb in front of me,” Bai Qing'er said.

Fei Zhong was sweating profusely. His legs couldn't help but tremble.

“Don't be so scared. You're quite powerful and valuable, so that I won't kill you,” Bai Qing'er said.

Fei Zhong breathed a sigh of relief. He bowed even lower and said, “When I said those words to Yan Yu... No, to Zhang Ruochen, I wasn't referring to Lady Bai."

Those words were, of course, "Sl*t."

Bai Qing'er said, "I'll give you two choices. First, cut off your tongue, kneel and call me master."

"Second, die."

Fei Zhong was trembling all over and was thinking hard while struggling within. In the end, his eyes became stern. A divine light appeared in his palm, and he activated the battle-ax in his hand.

Bai Qing'er's voice came again, saying, "No one is born strong. There will always be times when they will be humiliated. Why must you choose the path of death? Why can't you bear to live in shame and seek revenge in the future? You must believe your heart is unyielding to keep fighting despite the setbacks. Even if you submit to me, your heart will not yield. But if you die now, there will be nothing left even in the future."

Like a demonic voice, Bai Qing'er's every word was forced into Fei Zhong's ears.

Gradually, the saint light in Fei Zhong's palm dissipated. He closed his eyes. Although he was still standing, he swayed about and fell into a deep sleep.

Bai Qing'er nodded in satisfaction. Suddenly, she sensed something and looked at Zhang Ruochen lying on the stone table in surprise.

She saw that Zhang Ruochen's body was shining like a star. He raised his head, and his eyes became clear again. A starry ocean appeared in each of his eyes.

Bai Qing'er walked over with a fragrant wind, "I didn't expect that with your attainments in the Path of Truth, you could break through my Nightmare of the Seven Souls. It seems you didn't only get the Canon of Truth after crossing the tenth level of the Sea of Truth."

"You're too suspicious! Who said that only the Path of Truth could break through the dreamland? My heart has been tempered countless times. A mere dreamland can do nothing to Lord Ironclad. Even Cang Baizi and the others can't do anything to me," Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing'er said, "Is that so? Why don't we try again?"

Zhang Ruochen avoided Bai Qing'er's gaze and said, "Fine! I admit that your Nightmare of the Seven Souls is very powerful. If you hadn't been distracted in killing Blackwraith and Fei Zhong, I might not have been able to break out of the dream with my current spiritual power."

Bai Qing'er looked straight at Zhang Ruochen and said, "You're hiding it."

"I'm not hiding it," Zhang Ruochen replied.

Bai Qing'er said, "You can't hide it from me."

"Forget it! There's no harm in telling you. I do have the Canon of Truth, and I have quite a lot. If you want them, you just have to kill me to take them away," Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing'er replied, "Do you think I won't kill you?"

"I think even the Canon of Truth can't touch your heart. You are too arrogant and like to challenge the impossible to enjoy extreme excitement. The challenge of subduing a Yuanhui level genius is more exciting than getting the easily obtained Canon of Truth. I have already been captured by you twice, so I'm only one step away from losing to you. Don't you want to try?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing'er said, "You think you know me, now that's arrogance!"

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were sharp. He was always true to himself.

Bai Qing'er continued, "What the strong say to the weak, no matter how arrogant and ridiculous, is confidence. But what the weak say to the strong will be seen as arrogance even if they're right."

"What you said just now wasn't wrong, but you shouldn't have said it."

“Now, I’ll have to change my mind. In fact, I can get a lot of benefits by killing you. Why should I gamble on an uncertain future?”

In an instant, killing intent surged from Bai Qing’er’s body.

The killing intent turned into a bloody mist and condensed into blood swords that flew toward Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen shouted, “You wouldn’t kill me.”

The blood swords stopped in front of him. The tip of the nearest blade was already pressing between Zhang Ruochen’s eyebrows.

The three people outside the stone pavilion could not hear the conversation between the two people in the stone pavilion, but they could feel the sudden burst of murderous intent from Bai Qing’er.

That murderous intent was directed at the hearts and Core Spirits. The three were terrified and thought that Zhang Ruochen would surely die.

However, the blood swords were frozen in front of Zhang Ruochen, which puzzled them immensely.

The intention to kill and murderous intent could not be fake.

What was going on with Bai Qing’er?

“I can’t believe you guessed it. Now, this isn’t interesting anymore!”

Bai Qing’er waved her hand, and the blood swords dispersed.

Zhang Ruochen regained his composure and smiled, saying. “It’s not hard to guess! Your goal has always been the Fane of Origin, not me or the Canon of Truth. You will never kill me before you have found the Seven-Armed Elder and get the Divine Crystal of Origin of the highest grade.”

“You pretended to kill me just to scare me off. Once the psychological defense is broken, you can use the dream world to control me, just like Fei Zhong.”

“Fei Zhong is not a coward. He has a strong will. There is no way you can subdue him with just a few words, so you used the power of the dream world in the end.”

Bai Qing'er eased her slim and lithe figure on the stone bench opposite Zhang Ruochen. She looked over at the sleeping Fei Zhong, “The Supreme Saint of a Paramount Realm won't yield to me,” she said. “I can only try, but I could succeed... Actually, I'm not discouraged that you can hold your psychological defense. Instead, I'm pleased after all because there are fewer challenges for me below divinity. If a person lacks the will to challenge, he will inevitably return to mediocrity.”

“Then why don't you directly break through to divinity? Do you challenge the deities?”

Zhang Ruochen lifted the teapot and poured a cup of tea for her.

Bai Qing'er said, “Do you know how powerful Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian were in the Paramount Realm?”

Zhang Ruochen began to nod but shook his head afterward.

Zhang Ruochen had read many books and seen many legends and achievements of Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian during the Supreme Saint period. However, they were only recorded in books after all. He wouldn't know their true mysteries if he did not see them with his own eyes.

Bai Qing'er said, “The two of them lived in a world of chaos that rarely comes by. It was the most tragic and chaotic and where the most talents appeared in history. It wasn't easy for them to stand out in that era. They also reached a level that future generations find hard to surpass.”

Looking through the history of the eternal heavens, one would find a strange phenomenon. Geniuses would always appear concentrated in a certain period. And that period was primarily a world in chaos.

As the saying goes, the trend of events brings forth the hero.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You wanted to surpass the heights of Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian, but you found that the difference was too high. So, you placed your hopes on the Fane of Origin.”

“You’re half right,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “What about the other half?”

“You can try guessing. I’ll spare your life today if you’re right... I guess you also have a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin with you that I can obtain just by killing you,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen hesitated for a moment.

At this moment, a smile appeared on Bai Qing’er’s face.

She knew that she was right. Zhang Ruochen did have a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

Naturally, Zhang Ruochen also knew he shouldn’t hesitate, but it was too late to regret his mistake.

Bai Qing’er grabbed Zhang Ruochen’s wrist. Her five fingers felt as soft as spring onions, but Zhang Ruochen’s Demigod-level physique couldn’t resist. He could only watch her take the Ring of Dimensions from him.

Bai Qing’er found the only supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin in the Ring of Dimensions. Holding it in her hand, she threw the Ring of Dimensions on the stone table without any interest in the ring that was a Supreme Artifact.

She said, “Now, you have lost the only thing you can rely on; you must guess well to keep your life. If you guess wrong, you will die.”

Time passed by in seconds and minutes.

Bai Qing’er was not a normal person. Whatever she did was outside the understanding scope of ordinary people.

It was not easy to guess what she was thinking.

“Okay! My time is precious, and I can’t waste it on you anymore. It seems that you will still die in the end.”

Bai Qing’er did not emit any killing intent. She was very calm. However, when she stretched out her finger, Zhang Ruochen did not doubt that she would kill him.

“A Chaotic world,” Zhang Ruochen shouted out.

Bai Qing'er's finger stopped. She looked at him for a long time while a strange light appeared in her eyes. She smiled and said, "Continue."

Zhang Ruochen let out a long sigh of relief. He said, "You said earlier that the reason why Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian could grow to such heights was because of the chaotic world around them in the last Yuanhui Period."

"Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian did not have a stable cultivation environment in the chaotic era. They were threatened by their peers, gods, and by thousands of soldiers. Both of them could die in battle at any moment."

"Moreover, there were countless geniuses around them. They fought and killed every day while improving through practice and upgrading themselves."

"All of these things you didn't have."

"You've been hiding your strength in the dark and never fully displayed it. How can you surpass them under these circumstances?"

"I'm guessing that you want to create a chaotic world by yourself without chaotic times. One that can attract countless Saint-level experts and even reveal the chaotic side of the gods."

"Are you purposefully letting the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin come into being?"

Bai Qing'er drank Zhang Ruochen's tea with a smile, "Otherwise, do you think the Enchanter Chamber couldn't even recognize the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and let it simply show up at the Citadel Casino? It also happened to be conveniently seen by more than a dozen top elites of the Infernal Court while during such a sensitive time when the Jadeite Realm opened as well."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Then, what about the Seven-Armed Elder? Is he also one of your people?"

"No! This old man is more cunning than I thought. He almost made me lose control of the overall situation," Bai Qing'er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “So, you don’t know much about the Seven-Armed Elder, and that bet was just to test him? So why did you kill him?”

“If I wanted to kill him, he would have died long ago! My goal is to capture him and let him take me to the Fane of Origin personally,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “So after the Seven-Armed Elder escaped, you could only settle for the next best thing and stole the five supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin that was meant to be distributed to the various powers of the Infernal Court. But unfortunately, you found that the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin had been replaced, so you must find the Seven-Armed Elder or the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. Otherwise, you will lose control of the overall situation.”

“I understand now! The Fane of Origin is your bait to create a small chaotic world and attract the powerful elites from the major forces to hone yourselves.”

“Moreover, all of this can only be carried out after the opening of the Jadeite Realm. Otherwise, the appearance of the Fane of Origin will alarm countless deities.”

Bai Qing’er said, “You’re wrong about one thing. I never planned to give the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin to the big forces of the Infernal Court. Even if they don’t have the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, they’ll automatically catch up to me. I want them to catch up to me. Look, the current situation on Hoth is so chaotic.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Did you deliberately let us escape in Ji Feng Manor?”

Bai Qing’er shook her head and said, “I just didn’t want to expose myself.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “There are two things I don’t understand. First, why must the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin be sent to the Fane of Destiny? Is it to let the Fane of Destiny join your game?”

“No, not just the Fane of Destiny, but the entire Infernal Court and perhaps some forces from the Celestial Court.”

Bai Qing'er laughed. “The 17 powers traveled from the Fane of Destiny to Hoth, and there was such a big commotion. Don't you think the various forces of the Infernal Court and Celestial Court can sit still?”

“Are you crazy? You know that if you suffer a backlash, you will die, and the entire Enchanter Chamber will be reduced to ashes,” Zhang Ruochen warned.

Bai Qing'er didn't care. “What's your second question?”

Zhang Ruochen calmed down and said, “You made such a big commotion, but no one predicted what you would do. How did you do it? What is the divine protection covering your tracks behind you.”

“I can't answer that,” Bai Qing'er said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Hoth Emperor?”

Bai Qing'er looked in the direction of Hoth, “You'd better not slander him. This place is very close to Hoth. You correctly guessed half of my thoughts, meaning you are as mad as me.”

“Zhang Ruochen, it's a pity that you are too young to be my opponent. Otherwise, I wouldn't be in such a dangerous situation.” She continued, saying. “Your fiancée is quite good. She inherited the inheritance of some great figures in Kunlun. It's a pity that she's too eager to achieve divinity. Otherwise, I would go to Kunlun to kill her. Now, it seems that I can only kill her as practice after achieving divinity. Will you be grateful to me for that?”

“Hah.” Zhang Ruochen sneered.

Bai Qing'er stood up and said, “Let's go. It's time to leave!”

“Where to?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“The Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt... No, the Fane of Origin.”

Bai Qing'er looked at him with a smile, and she said, “Come with me. I'll show you what it means to kill. “I've been hiding my strength for so many years. I need endless battles and pressure to master what I've learned all my life. When I kill my way to the Fane of Origin, I may be able to transcend and reach the state I want to reach."

Chapter 2510: Testing the Bottom Line

Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian looked at Bai Qing'er, who was walking out of the stone pavilion with fear showing in their eyes.

Bai Qing'er glanced over and asked, "Did you guys see what happened just now?"

"I didn't expect Miss Bai not only to be gorgeous but also to have such a terrifying cultivation ability. Yan Huangtu's gaze was sharp and cold. Although he was afraid inside, he did not show it at all.

Bai Qing'er smiled and shook her head. "Are the two of you going to move first, or should I do it myself?"

"Demoness, you are too arrogant. There will definitely be experts from the Yanluo clan that will take your life," Yan Zhexian said.

Bai Qing'er said, "Is it Yan Yu? I hope to meet him soon! Now, you still have the chance to kill yourselves. If I do it, I fear that your corpse might not remain whole."

Yan Huangtu gritted his teeth and started to self-destruct his Sainthood Source.

However, as soon as he thought about it, he was interfered with by a mighty spiritual power. The Saint Qi in his body could not operate, and his mental state tethered on the verge of collapse.

Yan Zhexian was not much better than him. His eyes had become empty as if he had become a clay figurine.

They wanted to resist, but they could not at all.

“Forget it. I’ll send you on your way myself!” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen stood before Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian and shielded them both. He released the “Shoreless Star Ocean” of the Realm-frame of Truth to remove Bai Qing’er’s spiritual power suppression.

In an instant, Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian recovered.

The two panted heavily for breath as if they had come back from the verge of death.

They looked at Zhang Ruochen with strange eyes.

Bai Qing’er asked, “What do you hope to accomplish?”

“I want to protect their lives,” Zhang Ruochen replied.

Bai Qing’er said, “You can’t even protect yourself. How could you hope to protect their lives?”

“Do you think I can’t fight?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing’er stared at him and smiled. “At last, you can’t endure it anymore. Do you want to ask the Intergold Tiger to help you?”

“If it really comes to that, we’ll die together,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing’er looked at Yan Huangtu, then at Yan Zhexian. She looked carefully at the favored daughter of the Yanluo clan, “You want to protect the child in her womb, so you don’t hesitate to threaten me? If you succeed in threatening me this time, won’t I be severely restricted by you every time in the future?”

“Only this once, I’ll only protect both of their lives,” Zhang Ruochen said firmly.

Yan Zhexian stared at Zhang Ruochen’s back and was slightly moved.

She knew very well how powerful Bai Qing’er was. She also knew that with Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation, he would most likely pay with his life if he went against Bai Qing'er's commands.

However, it was precisely because Zhang Ruochen's cultivation was far inferior to his enemy's, and he could still stand against them without hesitation that moved the people's hearts. This caused Yan Zhexian's heart, which had always been prejudiced against him, to change subtly.

Perhaps she didn't know Zhang Ruochen that well before.

Bai Qing'er looked at Yan Zhexian again for a long time. She smiled and said, "Miss Zhexian, I'm very curious. You're obviously a virgin, but why are you pregnant?"

Yan Zhexian was shocked. She didn't expect that the secret she had been hiding would be exposed by Bai Qing'er so casually.

Zhang Ruochen's expression didn't change, but he still turned around in the end and looked at Yan Zhexian.

Seeing Yan Zhexian's eyes, he immediately understood it was not Bai Qing'er's trick this time. It seemed that there was indeed something strange about the child in Yan Zhexian's womb.

Bai Qing'er looked at Zhang Ruochen and said, "She lied to you. Do you think she deserves to die now?"

"Yes, the baby in my womb has nothing to do with him." Yan Zhexian suddenly tilted her head upwards and bared her chin. There was no longer any fear in her eyes.

She did not want to implicate Zhang Ruochen and wanted to draw a clear line between them.

Zhang Ruochen could not die.

With Zhang Ruochen alive, there was a better chance that he could control Bai Qing'er to a certain extent at a more appropriate moment.

Otherwise, she suspected that even if it were her uncle Yan Yu, he would also find it hard to win against Bai Qing'er.

“Did you hear that? I’ll give you a chance and let you kill her yourself.”

Bai Qing’er stood aside with her hands clasped behind her back.

Zhang Ruochen carefully recalled what had happened when he and Yan Zhexian were in the sarcophagus. Gradually, he figured out what had happened and roughly understood some of it.

It was most likely related to Madre Bloody Shadow.

“What are you hesitating for? Has Zhang Ruochen become so slow-witted that he can’t kill?” Yan Zhexian asked.

Yan Huangtu stood aside without saying a word. He knew that whatever he said would be useless.

If Zhang Ruochen insisted on keeping them alive, he might still have a chance. However, the situation has changed. There was no longer any chance of survival because Zhang Ruochen would not risk his life to clash with Bai Qing’er.

Now was not the time to clash with Bai Qing’er.

Zhang Ruochen ignored Yan Zhexian and walked toward Bai Qing’er. He spread his hands and raised his voice, saying, “Everyone knows that Yan Zhexian is my woman and is pregnant with my child. If I kill her now, there will be two lives will be taken at once. Once this news gets out, how will everyone see me? I won’t bear this reputation.”

“Don’t worry. No one will spread it,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I don’t believe it. If I achieve divinity and become the Immortal Vampire Wargod in the future, and you threaten me with this, won’t I be very passive?”

“Fine! If you won’t do it, I will,” Bai Qing’er said.

“No.”

Zhang Ruochen blocked Bai Qing’er again.

“Are you challenging my limits?” Bai Qing’er asked.

“No, he just wants to save Yan Zhexian’s life. The fetus in Yan Zhexian’s stomach carries his bloodline. She can be considered as his biological daughter,” Gong Nanfeng walked over and said firmly.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What did you say?”

Gong Nanfeng said, “The baby in her womb is of your blood, Yan Zhexian’s blood, and the divine force with essence qi of the Madre Bloody Shadow combined. Therefore, you are the child’s biological father.”

Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and stared at Bai Qing’er. He said, “I’ve heard enough. I guarantee her life!”

“The reincarnation of the Madre Bloody Shadow has some meaning to it.”

Bai Qing’er shook her head gently, “Unfortunately, they have to die. Although I want to train myself, I don’t want to provoke the ancient god of the Yanluo clan. Killing them now is the best solution,” she sighed. “Zhang Ruochen, why don’t you talk to the Intergold Tiger first and see if it’s willing to die with me?”

“I’ve made it very clear that I guarantee her life!” Zhang Ruochen declared.

“You’ve disappointed me so much! Since you want to die, I can only fulfill your wish.”

Bai Qing’er lightly pushed out her palm. Following that, a flurry of flying snowflakes appeared.

Zhang Ruochen only felt that the dimension had collapsed, the universe destroyed, and the world turned upside down. Every snowflake that flew over was like a snowy ice planet. Not only could it crush him easily, but it could also crush all living things in the world.

“Blizzard.”

Beside him, Gong Nanfeng cried out in surprise.

Bai Qing’er could capture and kill Blackwraith across space. Every time she attacked, it would definitely be earth-shattering.

Whoosh

A golden light suddenly shone from Zhang Ruochen's body, and his body turned into gold. Golden divine light flowed through his hair, and his battle intent soared to the sky.

With a tiger's roar, the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill merged with his right arm and evolved into an extraordinary palm print.

He struck out with his palm.

With the release of the palm print, the illusory image of the Intergold Tiger appeared on his body, bursting with kingly power that could tear the heavens apart.

Boom

Their two palms collided.

Zhang Ruochen's golden tiger eyes and Bai Qing'er's unsettling starry eyes looked at each other closely.

Separate!

Bai Qing'er stood in the same spot without moving at all. Only her long hair fluttered in the wind like a fairy in the flying snow. Zhang Ruochen, on the other hand, was sent flying dozens of miles away. He was still standing upright, but golden blood flowed out of his mouth.

"It seems you survived my palm strike, which means you are stronger than Blackwraith. Now let's see you receive another palm print!"

Bai Qing'er put one hand behind her back and drew a circle with her right hand. A great scene of five elements appeared circulating in her palm. Vaguely, it had the charm of Zhang Ruochen's Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill.

Gong Nanfeng rushed over and appeared between Bai Qing'er and Zhang Ruochen. "Stop! There's still a way to erase their memories."

Bai Qing'er withdrew her palm print and stared at Gong Nanfeng, indicating for him to continue.

Gong Nanfeng said, “They’re too weak. Miss Bai doesn’t need to kill them at all. I know that Miss Bai wanted to kill them to silence them forever. But it’s fine just to erase their memories.”

“As far as I know, the Path of Destiny can restore memories,” Bai Qing’er said.

Gong Nanfeng smiled. “Even the Path of Destiny can only restore the cultivator’s erased memories within a certain period of time. Besides, if you use the power of the Tensho Compass to erase their memories, even a Reverend won’t be able to restore them.”

“The vessel spirit is here, so the Tensho Compass must be nearby. Could you be carrying it?” Bai Qing’er asked.

“Miss Bai is so smart. How could you not know that the Tensho Compass is with brother Ruochen?”

Gong Nanfeng pointed at Zhang Ruochen naturally.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Gong Nanfeng and said, “The Tensho Compass is indeed with me. But Miss Bai, you have checked my Ring of Dimensions recently, and I don’t think you found it, right?”

“If I wanted to find it, naturally I can find it,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I have billions of treasures with me, many of which have vessel spirits and internal storage space. How long will it take you to find the Tensho Compass? Besides, I may not have hidden the Tensho Compass between these treasures.”

“Give me the Tensho Compass, and I’ll spare both of their lives,” Bai Qing’er said.

Gong Nanfeng said impatiently, “Brother Ruochen, please give it to her. There is no chance for you to keep it. I’ve calculated that your sea of Qi hasn’t fully recovered yet. If you continue fighting, your sea of Qi might shatter, and your cultivation will be lost. Do you want to die with her? I understand that you want to protect the Divine Artifact for the Fane of Destiny, but we’re too weak now to fight right now!”

“Shut up.” Zhang Ruochen glared at him.

Gong Nanfeng felt rather wronged. He shut his mouth but muttered within his heart, “It is for your own good, so why are you glaring at me?”

Zhang Ruochen took out the Tensho Compass that the Heaven-devouring Genbu Formation sealed from the sea of Qi between his eyebrows. He hesitated for a moment and smiled bitterly, then handed it to Bai Qing’er.

Bai Qing’er’s palm brushed over it. Suddenly, the inscription of the array that Zhang Ruochen could not do anything about broke one by one. Within a moment, it had disappeared.

The vessel spirit within resisted fiercely. Suddenly, the Tensho Compass gave off a dazzling divine light, trying to break free from Bai Qing’er’s palm.

Bai Qing’er didn’t suppress the vessel spirit on purpose. Instead, she looked over at Gong Nanfeng.

Gong Nanfeng smiled bitterly and nodded. He whispered something to the Tensho Compass caused it to calm down, and the divine light was restrained. It lay quietly on Bai Qing’er’s palm.

Bai Qing’er used the power of the needle to erase the memories of Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian. She waved her sleeve and the cold wind swept away. They turned into two beams of light and flew towards Hoth.

Bai Qing’er stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, “I’m still keeping my promise, right?”

“If you don’t keep your promise, I’ll fight to the death,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing’er said, “Actually, I’m very curious about your real purpose in saving them. Their memories have been already erased, so they certainly won’t be grateful to you.”

The golden light on Zhang Ruochen’s body disappeared. He wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and said, “Why? Didn’t you say so earlier?”

“I have said it earlier?”

Even though Bai Qing'er was extremely intelligent, she still looked confused at that moment.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, "I was testing your bottom line!"

Bai Qing'er's expression suddenly turned cold.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You're powerful and smart and can be said to be my current number one enemy. But I don't know much about you and need to know you more. After this test, I know you're not completely unafraid of me. This fear is probably the biggest reason why you didn't kill me!"

"What if I had killed Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu without hesitation just now?" Bai Qing'er asked.

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a moment and said, "That means that your state of mind is flawless, and you are not afraid of life and death. There will be nothing that can stop your will."

"You think that I am afraid of death?" Bai Qing'er asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It's human nature to fear death. However, you haven't experienced life and death, so you don't know what it's like to die, which makes you even more afraid of death. Also, you had not achieved the Great Perfection in the Banshi Isshou Realm. Didn't you stir up the storm because you knew your weakness and wanted to make up for it?"

After a long while, Bai Qing'er laughed and said, "While you were testing me, didn't you notice that I've also measured the power that the Intergold Tiger can currently unleash?"

"How is it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er said, "It is far from being a threat to me within the heavenly and earthly precepts boundaries. Zhang Ruochen, you should go!"

"Where do I go?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er said, "I have already obtained the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and the Tensho Compass. You are now worthless! Just go wherever you want to go away from me."

“I’m not leaving or going anywhere. I’ll follow you,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing’er said, “I’m afraid of the Intergold Tiger, but if you follow me, I’ll have plenty of chances to kill you with a single strike even before the Intergold Tiger could react. Aren’t you afraid of death?”

“Of course, I’m afraid of death. But I also know that you won’t let me go.”

Zhang Ruochen continued, “You only took back a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, so how could you let me go? You do not want to expose your identity as well. If you let me go, the Enchanter Chamber will be burned to ashes instantly.”

“The reason why you had let me go was to capture me again. To reach the target and capture me three times to make me completely submit to you.”

“In order not to be captured by you for the third time, I have decided to follow you by your side from now on.”

“You want to find a chance and kill me?” Bai Qing’er asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “There is no irreconcilable hostility between us. Why would I want to kill you? In fact, I had the idea of marrying you myself.”

“You have this idea...”

Bai Qing’er stopped speaking halfway. She moved by stepping on the void space and walked towards Fei Zhong, saying, “Since you’re already awake, don’t pretend to be asleep.”

Gong Nanfeng walked to Zhang Ruochen’s side and asked lowly, “Do you really want to marry her?”

Zhang Ruochen looked at him and pushed him away because he didn’t want to talk.

In front of Gong Nanfeng and Zhang Ruochen. Fei Zhong, Supreme Saint of the Paramount Realm who once possessed a monstrous cultivation, cut off his own tongue and knelt humbly in front of Bai Qing’er.

Bai Qing'er walked back over, and Fei Zhong followed her while bent over like a servant.

Bai Qing'er said, "Zhang Ruochen, I know you are very smart. Now tell me, how can I kill my way to the Fane of Origin without anyone knowing my true identity?"

"You will need a new identity," Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing'er asked, "What kind of identity?"

"Haven't you already made up your mind? If you don't kill Fei Zhong and let him follow you, aren't you trying to tell everyone that you are a cultivator of the Celestial Court?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er asked, "Who are the Masters of Origin in the numerous realms of the Celestial Court?"

Before Zhang Ruochen could answer, Bai Qing'er's body and appearance had changed considerably. She changed into the appearance of Ji Fanxin, the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers, and said, "The Lotus of Divine Reflection will have more persuasiveness. Besides, if the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers were traveling with Zhang Ruochen, no one would feel suspicious. Even if they do, they will only doubt whether Zhang Ruochen has betrayed the Infernal Court. If you want to follow me, you must pay the price."

After Bai Qing ‘er threw Blackwraith’s body into the void, she transformed into Ji Fanxin. She took Zhang Ruochen, Fei Zhong, and Gong Nanfeng to the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt in a high-profile manner using the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The appearance of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace meant that Zhang Ruochen had appeared and attracted an endless stream of powerful figures.

Of course, this was not what Zhang Ruochen wanted. It was all Bai Qing ‘er baiting.

Bai Qing ‘er’s courage was astonishing. She became a fisherman and used Zhang Ruochen as bait to lure all the powerful figures in the world.

...

...

Soon, a fish took the bait.

“Zhang Ruochen, you were shot by the Arrow of Deva Path. Why aren’t you dead? Since you’re not dead, please hand over the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and our clan’s Supreme Artifact, the Myriad Curse Bead.”

A Supreme Saint of the Nether Clan with three black horns stood in the void. His Precept Domain spread out, and an endless mountain appeared. The Power of Death spread out for 100,000 miles.

From Afar, it looked like the Nether Realm. It floated in the universe, stopping space and preventing Zhang Ruochen from escaping.

His name was Lord Hillfog. He was from Nether Clan's Hollow Chasm, one of the 17 forces that knew about the birth of the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. His cultivation had reached the Paramount Realm. He was an old monster that had been cultivated for more than 10,000 years.

Behind Lord Hillfog were the seven Supreme Saints of the Hollow Chasm. They were mighty, and their cultivation was above the Thousand-Koan Realm.

It was obvious that all the powerhouses of Hollow Chasm were here for the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

Zhang Ruochen stood in front of the gate of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and stroked the long hair of Huang Tian. There was a deep sense of helplessness in his eyes. He was about to persuade them to leave as soon as possible.

Unfortunately, Bai Qing 'er was not a woman who liked to talk nonsense. She had already made her move.

The Blizzard.

In an instant, in the dark universe, the snow-covered 100,000 miles. All the dark mountains in Lord Hillfog's Precept Domain were dyed white. Apart from Lord Hillfog himself, the other seven top-notch Supreme Saints of Hollow Chasm were frozen.

"Who are you? How dare you make an enemy out of Hollow Chasm?"

Lord Hillfog was terrified. He did not expect Zhang Ruochen to have such a peerless powerhouse by his side. He could penetrate his Precept Domain and kill the Seven Supreme Saints silently?

The strongest of the seven Supreme Saints had reached the Banshi Isshou Realm. Unfortunately, they all lost their breath and the fluctuations of the path.

What made Lord Hillfog even more terrified was that the precepts he'd released were frozen. It was difficult to control them, and he couldn't do as he pleased.

“Run!”

Lord Hillfog sped away.

Crack

Fei Zhong jumped out of the void and chopped off his head with his ax.

Although Lord Hillfog wasn't as powerful as Fei Zhong, it wasn't to the extent that he couldn't even block a single ax. It was mainly because he'd been suppressed by the Blizzard, and his combat power had significantly decreased.

Whoosh

His corpse and head were quickly wrapped in ice and snow.

Bai Qing 'er pointed across space. The space within dozens of miles collapsed and swallowed the eight top-notch Supreme Saints of Hollow Chasm.

When the space closed, Zhang Ruochen saw all the frozen corpses turn into oblivion without leaving a trace.

In the next half a month, the Sevenstar Imperial Palace flew at an unhurried pace.

On the way, they met seven or eight waves of cultivators, including the Fane of Destiny's Lord of Destiny, the leaders of the ten dark forces, and the top-notch Supreme Saints of the ten clans of Infernal Court.

Without exception, anyone who tried to block their way was killed.

Zhang Ruochen saw with his own eyes that dozens of powerful Supreme Saints had their Neverwithers shattered and turned into blood mist.

Lord Zhu Ling, one of the ten Lords of Destiny of the Destiny Division, was refined into ashes by the divine flame.

The abbot of the Nilakantha Temple, the head of one of the ten dark forces, Grandmaster Karuna, meditated with Bai Qing ‘er. In the end, his inner demon exploded, and he killed himself with a palm strike.

...

Most of the time, Bai Qing ‘er did not make a move. The one who made a move was Fei Zhong.

As for Zhang Ruochen and Gong Nanfeng, they could only stand aside and watch.

Although they did not leave any survivors along the way, many Paramount Realm Supreme Saints had sent out Communication talismans and spread the news before they died.

With so many top Supreme Saints disappearing without a sound, one could imagine it must have caused a huge uproar.

The Sevenstar Imperial Palace was fully shown. It was breathtaking and constantly emanated glorious light. It could be seen from thousands of kilometers away.

Another massacre had ended. The one blocking the way was a force of the Yanluo clan. Because there were no Paramount Realm Supreme Saints, Fei Zhong was the one who attacked.

All the corpses were thrown into the void.

Fei Zhong held the bloody battle ax and turned it into a lightning bolt. He flew onto the stairs of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. When he saw Zhang Ruochen and Gong Nanfeng, he hesitated momentarily and walked over.

“Master Ruochen.”

Fei Zhong’s tongue had been cut off. He could only communicate with Zhang Ruochen with spiritual power.

His spiritual power had indeed been completely absorbed by Bai Qing ‘Er. However, his cultivation realm had cultivated his spiritual power from nothing to the 45th level in just half a month.

Fei Zhong hated Zhang Ruochen deeply.

However, Fei Zhong could not avenge himself because Zhang Ruochen was highly valued by Bai Qing 'er, and he was just a servant of Bai Qing 'Er.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What can I do for you, Master Fei?"

Fei Zhong hid all his hatred and smiled. "I have something that I don't understand. I have always wanted to ask you for your advice."

"Feel free to tell me," Zhang Ruochen said.

Fei Zhong glanced at the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He said, "Tell me, after killing those Supreme Saints, why didn't Lady Bai take their weapons and treasures? I can't figure it out. Some of them are close to the level of a Supreme Artifact."

"Why don't you ask her instead of me?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Fei Zhong shook his head. "I don't dare to ask about Lady Bai. But Master Ruochen is smart enough to know what she's thinking."

Gong Nanfeng came over, "I don't understand this either. Logically speaking, other cultivators didn't dare to take the spoils because they feared the fallens' elders would predict the aura on the spoils and that they would be hunted down and avenged. However, Bai Qing 'er's goal is to draw out all the forces for her to kill. She doesn't have any worries or concerns."

"Can't you predict?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gong Nanfeng looked embarrassed, "It's hard to predict the human heart, especially for a woman like her. It's impossible to predict what she's thinking. But, Brother Ruochen, you can chat with her every time. You should understand the reason, right?"

"She doesn't like it," Zhang Ruochen said.

"She doesn't like it?"

Fei Zhong said, "How can that be? The value of all the treasures added together tempts even the gods. Besides, people have been killed, so the treasures can be taken easily. If she can take them, why not?"

"There were many Supreme Artifacts in front of her, but she didn't take them," Zhang Ruochen said.

Fei Zhong was speechless.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen didn't know Bai Qing 'er, but he understood one thing.

The top-notch cultivators all had their own ways.

The ultimate genius also had ultimate restraint.

Like Que, he never used a weapon. Even if he used a sword, the sword was formed by his own precepts. Even if a Supreme Artifact was in front of him, he could take it or not.

Another example was Zhang Ruochen. If he chose to suck blood, his cultivation would rise faster, and his Demigod-level physique would become stronger.

However, he had been restraining himself. He didn't dare to try sucking blood for the first time.

Just like Que, he didn't dare to try using a Supreme Artifact. Once he tasted the sweetness, his path's heart would collapse instantly. His future achievements would be minimal.

Zhang Ruochen didn't understand Bai Qing 'er, so he could only guess that she must have her own reason and restraint.

If she hadn't restrained herself, she would have died long ago with her crazy mentality and way of doing things. She wouldn't have lived until now.

Fei Zhong said, "Lady Bai doesn't like it. Will she mind if I take it?"

"The next time you kill someone, take their treasure. Why don't you give it a try?"

After saying this, Zhang Ruochen walked into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Fei Zhong's eyes lit up with joy. However, after looking at Zhang Ruochen's back, he quickly shook his head. He felt that Zhang Ruochen had tricked him.

‘Lady Bai was temperamental. It was better to be careful and not do anything against her wishes.’

Bai Qing ‘er, who had transformed into Ji Fanxin, sat cross-legged in the center of the palace. Her long dress spread out like petals. Not only her appearance but her temperament was also very similar to that of Fairy of a Hundred Flowers. She was ethereal and pure.

Zhang Ruochen stopped when he was 30 meters away from her.

He felt Bai Qing ‘er’s cultivation had made significant progress in the past half a month.

It was not that he could see through Bai Qing ‘er, but it was a wonderful feeling, a sense of threat.

A greater sense of threat than before.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised that this woman was evolving the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. Above her head, the Taiji Diagram became clearer and more apparent, with one yin and one yang revolving.

It should be known that Zhang Ruochen had only used the saintwill in front of her once. It was shocking that she could analyze it to such an extent through her own comprehension.

Bai Qing ‘er put the Taiji Diagram back into her body and opened her eyes. She said, “Your saintwill is very strong. It is more helpful than most Grade Two Saintwill in history.”

“I never wanted to help you,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing ‘er said, “Do you want to walk the path of Grade One Saintwill?”

Zhang Ruochen did not say anything.

“Since ancient times, many amazing people have thought of condensing Grade One Saintwill. Unfortunately, no one has succeeded without exception. On the contrary, many died,” Bai Qing ‘er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I'm surprised that such an arrogant woman like you didn't walk the path of condensing the Grade One Saintwill."

"Because I know how to restrain myself and my unrealistic desires," Bai Qing 'er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You even dared to snatch the Tensho Compass. Do you think you know how to restrain your desires?"

"It's not unrealistic to snatch the Tensho Compass. Besides, I took it to protect the Enchanter Chamber. Otherwise, the Fane of Destiny would know the true identity of Fairy of a Hundred Flowers. Without the Tensho Compass, they would become a group of blind people, and I would take the most initiative," Bai Qing 'er said.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment. He said, "Why are you so obsessed with surpassing Wargod Bloodximus and Magnogod Huang Tian of the same era? Since you have the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, wouldn't it be better to find the Fane of Origin alone and take it yourself?"

"You must have caused a great commotion by making such a big fuss. By then, there will be countless cultivators who will follow you to the Fane of Origin. There may even be gods. Can you really get the treasures in the Fane of Origin? Perhaps, it will be a futile effort."

Bai Qing 'er stared at Zhang Ruochen for a long time and shook her head gently, "I thought we were the same kind of people, but I didn't expect your state of mind to be so different. You are still a step behind, even compared to Que of the Fane of Destiny."

"Have you seen Que?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing 'er said, "I've met him once on Hoth. He's a peerless genius among men. He'll likely surpass you in the future and become the leader of your generation. Because of your state of mind, you'll lose and die on the way to the Grade One Saintwill."

“Who can say for sure what will happen in the future?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing ‘er said, “I know you are not convinced, so I’ll tell you where you are lacking. The Fane of Origin is indeed a place I want to go. Still, I care more about the experience of going to the Fane of Origin than taking the treasures in the Fane of Origin.”

“Treasures can be taken at any time, and they can be lost at any time. Only the unforgettable experience can not be taken away, and it will always belong to you.”

“Of course, it’s not that I don’t care about anything. At least the Canon of Origin that might exist in the Fane of Origin is something I must take.”

“Why must I win against Wargod Bloodximius and Magnogod Huang Tian? Actually, you’re wrong. I just want to win against Magnogod Huang Tian. Just like you want to win against Chi Yao, defeat her, stomp all her glory and dignity under your feet, and make her pay for what she has done.”

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and said, “You’ve investigated me thoroughly.”

“You should be happy to be taken so seriously by me.”

Bai Qing ‘er stood up and walked out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. She stood on the white jade stairs and looked at the universe. She raised her voice and said, “Scion Xing Luo has been following us all the way. He has sent all the powerhouses from the Fane of Destiny, right? Why hasn’t he shown himself yet?”

In the distance, the stars trembled, and the space shook violently.

The universe became brighter and brighter. A brilliant sea of stars appeared in front of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. The starry mist was faint, and the galaxy hung in the sky, creating miraculous changes in the starry sky.

Xing Luo stood in the center of the starry sea, wearing the Divine Ghost Mask and holding the Ominous Blade. He smiled and said, “I’m just waiting to see who can force you to reveal your true form. Unfortunately, all of them are dead, which makes me very disappointed.”

Bai Qing ‘er said, “It seems that you don’t believe in the strength of Ji Fanxin. How can you mortals be able to see through the mysteries of the Lotus of Divine Reflection?”

A look of suspicion appeared in Xing Luo’s eyes. He said, “Whether you believe it or not, you have already stirred up a reign of terror in the Infernal Court. Today, after I kill you, I will naturally be able to understand the truth.”

Bai Qing ‘er said, “With just you?”

“Of course not,” Xing Luo said.

Whoosh

A meteor streaked across the starry sky and landed to the right of Xing Luo, forming the figure of Lord Wu Yue. He held the Destiny Halberd in his hand, giving off a domineering and powerful aura.

The leader of the Ten Wraithions, Zionwraith, flew over from a galaxy and landed to the left of Lord Wu Yue with a spiral-shaped weapon in his hand. An ancient and vast continent appeared under his feet and floated in the sea of stars.

At the same time, Ten Gates of Destiny appeared in ten different directions of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. In each Gate of Destiny stood a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

“Is it enough to kill you now?” Xing Luo asked coldly.

Bai Qing ‘er replied, “Not enough.”

The ten Gates of Destiny were like ten blazing suns, shining for thousands of miles. Countless Precepts of Destiny were like invisible chains, imprisoning the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Space seemed to freeze, and time seemed to stop.

When the Fane of Destiny fought with the powerhouses of the ten dark forces, dozens of Gates of Destiny were suspended in the air. But Zhang Ruochen was thousands of miles away, so he didn't feel much and didn't know how terrifying it was.

But now, at the center of the ten Gates of Destiny, he finally understood how terrifying the suppression was. It was extremely oppressive to the spirit, cultivation, will, and state of mind.

If one didn't have great spirit and great cultivation, they couldn't break through the suppression and would be defeated instantly.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but admire Xue Lingxian. Under such a powerful suppression, she could still take the lives of many powerhouses.

Not far away, Fei Zhong's eyes were filled with fear.

It wasn't that he hadn't seen such a big scene before. On the Supreme Saint Battlefield of Merits, there had been scenes of the Celestial Court and Infernal Court where many top-notch Supreme Saints fought.

But he had never experienced a situation where he was surrounded and killed by more than a dozen Supreme Saints. This included the former Scion of the Fane of Destiny, the first Lord of Destiny, and the powerful top figure in the Death Palace.

If it were any other Supreme Saint, they would have no choice but to self-detonate their Sainthood Source.

Fei Zhong secretly looked at Bai Qing'er but saw that she was still calm. He guessed in his heart, 'She probably wants to use Zhang Ruochen and the Overseer of the Divination Division to threaten the powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny in exchange for a chance to escape. This is the only way!'

"Cut the crap. Fight!"

Bai Qing'er was full of heroism. She didn't want to exchange hostages for life. Her body's pure Light of Origin was brighter than the ten floating Gates of Destiny combined. It broke the Precepts of Destiny that covered the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

"How dare she... Fight..."

Fei Zhong's eyes almost popped out. He couldn't believe it.

Swoosh

Bai Qing'er charged out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and entered Xing Luo's Precept Domain. Wherever she passed, the stars would be destroyed, and the Precept Domain would be shattered.

Xing Luo's expression was extremely solemn as it burst out faster than ten thousand times the speed of sound. The Supreme Power of the Ominous Blade instantly rose to its peak as it stabbed toward Bai Qing'er, who was flying over.

Bai Qing'er pressed out with her palm, and a scroll appeared in her palm.

The white words were all divine words. They floated in the void.

As the words rippled, an ancient voice sounded in the starry sky. It explained the truth of the mortal world, the joys, and the sorrows of the mortal world.

‘The Confucian Tome of Prayers. How did she master the Path of Confucianism’s techniques? Furthermore, it’s from Kunlun.’ Zhang Ruochen frowned.

Boom

The Ominous Blade pierced through the sacred text. It cut through Bai Qing’er’s jade-white fingers, making a metallic sound.

Dense words appeared on her finger. They were as small as dust and slithered around like tadpoles. Even a Supreme Artifact could not break them.

Xing Luo’s eyes were filled with shock. He had never thought there would be a cultivator below the divinity who could fight against a Supreme Artifact with his bare hands. Furthermore, the Supreme Artifact was in his hands.

The two passed, and their Precept Domains collided, producing endless thunder and lightning sounds.

Xing Luo immediately realized that something was wrong and turned around to give chase.

However, Bai Qing’er had already stepped into the world of the continent under Zionwraith’s feet. She pointed out with her finger, and as if Buddha had enlightened all living things, Boundless Buddhist light appeared behind her, making her aura incomparably divine.

The spiral weapon in Zionwraith’s hand carried boundless divine power and accurately struck her fingertip.

BANG!

The fingertip struck the divine weapon, and energy ripples spread out.

Bai Qing’er retracted her finger and turned it into a palm print. A three-inch Golden Buddha with a smiling face appeared on her palm.

BANG!

The palm print struck down.

Bai Qing'er turned her palm into a fist again, and 108 phantoms of Golden Bodhisattvas appeared behind her. All the phantoms merged into the Fist Force, and 108 layers of tremor force erupted as she chanted the Buddhist mantra.

In a flash, she struck out three times in a row.

Boom

The world under Zionwraith collapsed and turned into pieces of floating islands. His body flew backward as if it had been hit hard.

The Power of Death on Zionwraith's body has grown much lighter after being purged by the Buddhist light.

'Buddha Fingerstrike, Maitreya Palm, and the Divine Punch of Intervention. These are the ultimate arts of Buddhism!' Zhang Ruochen's eyes darkened.

Xing Luo caught up with Bai Qing'er and mobilized the power of the Divine Ghost Mask.

A huge divine ghost figure rose behind him and exploded with an earth-shaking strike. The void was pressured and arched.

Bai Qing'er drew a circle with her right hand and developed a three-thousand-meter-wide Taiji Diagram, which dissolved the divine ghost figure's attack. At the same time, she formed a lotus print with her left hand to block Lord Wu Yue's Ax of Judgement.

The four figures fought faster and faster. In the end, they turned into thousands of afterimages. No one could see their moves and techniques clearly other than Supreme Saints.

Fei Zhong was flabbergasted by this battle.

The ten Supreme Saints of the Fane of Destiny held up ten Gates of Destiny and tried their best to suppress Bai Qing'er. However, even under such circumstances, Bai Qing'er still fought against three people by herself. She fought Xing Luo, Lord Wu Yue, and Zionwraith alone and was not at a disadvantage.

Gong Nanfeng quietly moved to Zhang Ruochen's side with a strange look on his face.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at him with disdain and gestured for him to stay away from him.

Gong Nanfeng said telepathically, "Brother Ruochen, the time has come. Aren't you going to make your move?"

Zhang Ruochen did not send a telepathic message. He said directly, "What are you talking about? I don't understand."

Gong Nanfeng showed an anxious look. He said, "Can't we be honest to each other? Now is the best time. The powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny have suppressed Bai Qing'er. If you attack, she will definitely die."

"I'm only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm," Zhang Ruochen said.

Gong Nanfeng said, "You are the only cultivator Bai Qing'er is afraid of, so she doesn't dare to kill you. If you merge with the Intergold Tiger, it will be a fatal threat to her."

"My sea of Qi hasn't recovered yet. If I fight with force, my cultivation will be ruined." Zhang Ruochen shrugged helplessly and said.

Gong Nanfeng looked at the battlefield in the sea of stars. His expression became more anxious. He said, "It's now or never. Don't you want to kill that woman and leave?"

"If I want to leave, I can do it any time," Zhang Ruochen said.

Gong Nanfeng felt that Zhang Ruochen was too disappointing. He didn't even grasp the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Gritting his teeth, he said, "Okay, let's run now. Fei Zhong shouldn't be able to stop you."

"Run? Why should I run? I want to marry her. I have to stay by her side to have a chance. The closer I am to her, the better benefit I could enjoy." Zhang Ruochen looked at Gong Nanfeng with a puzzled look.

Gong Nanfeng felt so angry that he was about to die. He despised Zhang Ruochen deeply.

"That woman is so scary. You really want to marry her. Are you lucky enough to enjoy it?"

When Fei Zhong heard Zhang Ruochen's words, he could guess that Gong Nanfeng must have bewitched Zhang Ruochen to become enemies with Lady Bai.

How outrageous.

This Overseer of the Divination Division didn't have high cultivation, but he was pretty bold.

Fei Zhong walked over and lifted Gong Nanfeng from behind like a chicken. He slammed him to the ground and stepped on him. He was about to chop down with his battle ax.

"Wait!"

Zhang Ruochen stopped Fei Zhong.

Gong Nanfeng was so scared that he curled up into a ball. His face was as pale as paper. In a low voice, "Brother Ruochen, save me."

"This thief has bad intentions. I must kill him. Why did Master Ruochen stop me?" Fei Zhong asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "He is the vessel spirit of the Tensho Compass. He is very useful to Lady Bai. You can't kill him."

After some persuasion, Fei Zhong was finally persuaded.

However, he could avoid the death penalty, but he could not escape the punishment.

Fei Zhong kneaded Gong Nanfeng into a dough the size of a fist and tossed it in his hand. From time to time, some screams were worse than a pig being slaughtered.

Fei Zhong was a sensible person. He knew that although Bai Qing'er was fighting with the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny, she could still hear the conversation between Zhang Ruochen and Gong Nanfeng. Even the sound transmission could not hide from her perception.

That was why he needed to show his loyalty.

Zhang Ruochen said that because he knew that Bai Qing'er would hear him even if he used his spiritual power.

It was indeed a good time for the powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny to attack, but it was not a good time for Zhang Ruochen.

Because Zhang Ruochen could see that Bai Qing'er was only using the powerhouses of the Fane of Destiny to cultivate. From the beginning to the end, the initiative was in her hands.

Secondly, this opportunity was just what Gong Nanfeng was waiting for, not what Zhang Ruochen wanted to wait for.

The two people that Zhang Ruochen wanted to wait for had not arrived yet!

Those who want to achieve great things must know how to endure and what was the best time.

Especially when their strength was inferior to their opponents.

Zhang Ruochen no longer watched the battle outside. When he returned to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, he had to take this opportunity to do something secretly. Only when he was fully prepared and when the time came could he accurately seize it and give Bai Qing'er a fatal blow.

...

Xing Luo had been through hundreds of battles. She could see Bai Qing'er's intentions and knew that this woman's cultivation was unfathomable. She was using them to hone herself. The aura on her body became more and more intense.

"Use the Scroll of Four Taboos!" Xing Luo shouted.

The ten Supreme Saints standing in the ten Gates of Destiny each took out a corner of the ancient map and used all their strength to activate it.

The ten-corner ancient map formed one.

The map was 100,000 feet long. White mist dripped down like rain and waterfall, enveloping Bai Qing'er.

The Scroll of Four Taboos was the most precious treasure of the Destiny Division and could be used to deal with deities.

The so-called Scroll of Four Taboos referred to the forbidden space, spirit, soul, and precepts. They were refined by the cultivators of the four great divine palaces of the Fane of Destiny.

Under the Scroll of Four Taboos, no matter how powerful the enemy was, they could only surrender.

As expected, Bai Qing'er was trapped under the Scroll of Four Taboos, as if she had turned into a stone statue, unable to move.

Even the soul fluctuations and spiritual fluctuations on her body had disappeared.

“What a powerful woman! She’s finally suppressed! I’ll go and cut her down.”

Zionwraith rushed into the white mist and mobilized the world power in his body. His strength and aura rose steadily. His aura was comparable to that of a pseudo god, reaching the first-class level below the divinity.

Fei Zhong realized that something was wrong and wanted to make a move.

Once Bai Qing'er was killed, how could he survive?

However, after sensing the fluctuations in Zionwraith's body, he had no choice but to give up. Charging up with his cultivation was no different from sending himself to death.

Just as Bai Qing'er was about to be pierced through the space between her eyebrows by Zionwraith, suddenly, the Scroll of Four Taboos shook violently. At the bottom of the scroll, boundless chaotic Qi appeared. With Bai Qing'er as the center, it evolved into an ethereal and chaotic strange scene.

“Not good. It’s the Primeval Chaos.”

Xing Luo's expression changed drastically. He wanted to call back Zionwraith, but it was too late.

The so-called First Dawn referred to the Grade Two Saintwill, the Primeval Chaos Saintwill.

The Scroll of Four Taboos could control everything in the world, but it couldn't control the chaos.

THUMP!

An extremely melodious bell chime came from the deepest part of the chaos.

Zionwraith's body exploded.

At the spot where his body exploded, space started to expand. Through the Dimensional Rifts, one could see a vast world is nurtured.

'The legend is true. Zionwraith is indeed the spirit of a Macroworld. The Macroworld is within his body. Once Zionwraith dies, the Macroworld will appear and land in the starry sky where Hoth is,' Fei Zhong thought.

"I am the spirit of the world. You can't kill me."

Zionwraith's body quickly condensed, and the expanding space shrank. The Dimensional Rifts disappeared.

THUMP!

Zionwraith retreated quickly, but the second bell rang, and his body exploded again.

In the center of the chaos, two rows of bronze chimes appeared. There were sixty-five of them, and they contained endless ancient charm. It was as if they had existed since the beginning of the world.

"The beginning of chaos, the birth of all living creatures, and the beginning of heaven and Earth's creation."

Bai Qing'er stood next to the chimes and tapped them with her fingers.

THUMP!

THUMP!

...

The chimes rang out repeatedly. Every time the chimes rang out, Zionwraith's body would explode.

After exploding 27 times a row, Zionwraith's life force was extinguished. In the end, he was unable to escape the chaos. A Macroworld that spanned hundreds of millions of miles gradually appeared in space.

Everyone initially thought Zionwraith could use the world to suppress Bai Qing'er by releasing a Macroworld before it died.

However, the Macroworld was absorbed by the chaos and merged with Bai Qing'er's saintwill.

The world that spanned 10,000 miles was devoured by 10,000 miles.

The world that spanned 100,000 miles was devoured by 100,000 miles.

Xing Luo said with great difficulty, "It's the complete Grade Two Saintwill. I didn't expect that there would be a Paramount Realm Yuanhui-level genius in our era, invincible under the divinity. Let's go. With our strength, we can't kill her. There's no need to make unnecessary sacrifices."

"If we want to leave, others might not let us go." With a resolute expression, Lord Wu Yue smiled bitterly and said, "You bring them away, and I'll cover the rear. If this woman is a cultivator from the Celestial Court, then we must get rid of her no matter what."

Xing Luo stared deeply at Lord Wu Yue and knew his intentions. He said, "Actually, we haven't reached that stage yet. Although she has reached the Yuanhui level, I can still feel that there are flaws in her body. Her strength isn't as powerful as the legends say. Otherwise, she would only need one strike to kill Zionwraith. She wouldn't need to use 27 strikes."

"Let's go. Don't hesitate anymore. Go and invite Yuan Qianmo and Yan Yu. Only when the three of you work together can we subdue her. Find out her purpose, kill her, and avenge me. Of course, if I can kill her, that would be for the best."

Lord Wu Yue had made up his mind. He rushed into the chaos, his body burning, and his figure made one feel sad.

"The cultivators under the Destiny Division will protect the Fane of Destiny with their lives until death."

Bai Qing'er had completely absorbed the Primeval Chaos Saintwill into the Macroworld that had appeared after Zionwraith had fallen. It had become a continent within the primordial chaos, and her aura had significantly increased.

She was slightly disappointed. "So it's just a corner of the Macroworld. No wonder Zionwraith could use its body to carry it. Huh? What is that?"

Her beautiful eyes looked through the chaos.

The ten Gates of Destiny in the sky had all retreated. Only a blinding ball of flame flew toward her at an unparalleled speed, giving her an unprecedented sense of danger.

Lord Wu Yue's body was burnt to a golden color in flames. His hair turned into sparks and scattered. His skin shattered into pieces. The Sainthood Source in his sea of Qi released destructive ripples that shook the entire starry sky.

This was the last shimmering light of his life!

He had no choice but to die together with Bai Qing'er because her strength was far beyond their expectations. If no one made a sacrifice, all of them would die here.

And it had to be Lord Wu Yue.

Even if other Paramount Realm Supreme Saints wanted to die together and self-destruct their Sainthood Source, Bai Qing'er would not give them a chance.

As for Xing Luo, he was the former Scion of the Fane of Destiny. He was the only pillar of support for the Fane of Destiny. Under the circumstances where Wuma Jiuxing, Xue Lingxian, and Ji Fanxin appeared one after another, Xing Luo could not die. Only he could support the final dignity of the Fane of Destiny.

At this moment, Lord Wu Yue's speed was not weaker than that of a god. Bai Qing'er naturally could not avoid it.

Flying within a thousand miles of Bai Qing'er, Lord Wu Yue's heart calmed down. He said with a carefree smile, "If Scion Yu Qiu hadn't died, why would the Fane of Destiny be so aggrieved? Forget it. Today, I'll take your life and destroy you."

"You do have some integrity. Unfortunately, even if you die today, you won't be able to stop me. No one can escape."

Bai Qing'er did not escape. Instead, she turned into a beam of white light and charged toward Lord Wu Yue.

Sixty-five bronze chimes surrounded her delicate body. The chaotic Qi turned into a cocoon of light, making her seem like an embryonic universe.

Six hundred miles away, Bai Qing'er struck out with her palm.

Lord Wu Yue also struck out with her palm. The power of her palm print was no weaker than Bai Qing'er's. In fact, it was even slightly stronger.

BOOM!

The two palms collided, forming a bright and dazzling light wave.

Xing Luo held the Destiny Halberd in one hand and the Ominous Blade in the other. He turned his head and looked back. His eyes revealed a complicated expression. There was grief, humiliation, ruthlessness, and admiration.

BOOM!

Following that, a light wave that was ten times more terrifying than the previous two palm strikes exploded. Its power was brilliant. Wherever it spread, space collapsed like it was made of paper.

The ten Supreme Saints stood in the void and looked solemn.

Before they came, no one would have thought that the enemy would be so terrifying that they could force Lord Wu Yue to self-destruct.

After a long silence, a four-eyed Paramount Realm Supreme Saint said, “The aura of Ji Fanxin has disappeared! She must have perished together with Lord Wu Yue.”

“Lord Wu Yue is the strongest Lord of Destiny of the Destiny Division. He is the most powerful existence below the divinity. His self-destruction of his Sainthood Source is enough to threaten the life of a pseudo god. Even if Ji Fanxin was a Yuanhui-level genius, she would have been annihilated at a close distance.”

Cang Sheng, who had the Nether Moonwheel behind him, said, “Actually, Lord Wu Yue doesn’t need to self-destruct his Sainthood Source. If we use all of our secret techniques and burn our lifespan in battle, we might have a chance of winning.”

Several Supreme Saints nodded. They also felt that Lord Wu Yue should not be in such a hurry to decide.

After all, with Lord Wu Yue’s talent and cultivation, he had a high chance of breaking through to godhood.

If he self-detonated, the Fane of Destiny would lose half a true God.

Xing Luo wasn’t as optimistic as they were. He knew that even if there was only a 10% chance of escaping, Lord Wu Yue wouldn’t choose to self-detonate.

If Xing Luo hadn’t seen Zhang Ruochen and Gong Nanfeng in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and realized that the Tensho Compass might have fallen into Ji Fanxin’s hands, he wouldn’t have stayed. Instead, he would have fled with the ten Supreme Saints.

Xing Luo gave an order to the ten Supreme Saints. “You guys go first. I’ll go investigate.”

“Your Highness, you don’t have to be so careful, do you? Such terrifying destructive energy can’t kill her?” Cang Sheng said.

Cang Sheng knew why Xing Luo had let them leave first because he was worried that Ji Fanxin wasn’t dead.

“The Tensho Compass must be in Ji Fanxin’s hands. It probably fell into the void after Ji Fanxin died. We have to rush over and find it.”

“That’s right. Once it is lost into the void, it will be tough to find it.”

...

Xing Luo looked at the space destroyed by Lord Wu Yue’s self-destruction and hesitated.

It was challenging for him to find the Tensho Compass in the void alone. If he had the help of the other ten Supreme Saints, the chances of finding the divine artifact would increase greatly.

However, he was worried that Ji Fanxin was not dead. He hid in the void and waited for them to take the bait.

Cang Sheng saw through Xing Luo’s worries. He said, “If Your Highness has any concerns, you can stay here with everyone else. I will go to that void to investigate. If I am certain that Ji Fanxin is dead, it will not be too late for everyone to enter together. If Ji Fanxin is not dead, Hehe. Then, I will self-detonate my Sainthood Source and see if she can continue to hold on.”

Everyone agreed and felt that this was the best way.

Suddenly, Xing Luo’s body tensed up as he looked up.

Above their heads, a Dimensional Rift that was hundreds of feet long appeared. A white-robed Ji Fanxin flew out from within. The sixty-five bronze chimes around her spun slowly and automatically played an ear-splitting battle tune.

The ten Supreme Saints were all shocked.

She said, “There’s no need to go through so much trouble. There’s no need for any tricks to kill you all.”

Bai Qing’er spread her arms and urged all the bronze chimes to fly out. With a 300-mile boundary, they formed a circle.

Initially, there were 65 chimes, but 4,225 bell-shaped light figures appeared. As all the chimes spun, the number of bell-shaped light figures increased. They turned into 17,850,000.

Including Xing Luo, all the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny were enveloped by the bell-shaped light figures.

The bells ringing entered their ears and rushed straight into their minds, shaking their Saint Souls.

Even though the Saint Soul of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint was extremely powerful, under the attack of the chimes, it still gave them a splitting headache. It was difficult for them to gather their soul power, not to mention use their powers.

“So, she is an Archsaint Array Master.”

Under the Divine Ghost Mask, Xing Luo revealed a bitter smile.

Lord Wu Yue had managed to obtain a chance for them to escape by self-detonating his Sainthood Source. However, because of his wishful thinking, he did not choose to escape with the ten Paramount Realm Supreme Saints. He deserved his fate.

How could there be so many flukes in the world?

The 65 bronze chimes were engraved with inscriptions of formations.

Bai Qing’er used her 69.5-level spiritual power and the endless power of heaven and earth to activate it.

“This ancient formation is called the Echoes of Heaven Formation. Are you convinced if I use it to kill you, Xing Luo?” Bai Qing’er looked down at Xing Luo, who was wearing a mask in the center of the formation. However, her tone was extremely calm.

“Take this!”

Xing Luo gritted his teeth. Starlight burst out from his body and immediately activated his secret technique to burn his lifespan.

Only by doing so could Xing Luo break through the formation.

“It’s useless! If you weren’t in the formation, you might still have the strength to fight. As for now, you only have one way to break through and become a deity. Otherwise, you will die without a doubt.”

A sea of flowers appeared beneath Bai Qing’er’s feet. Her tone seemed as if victory was within her grasp. Yet, it also seemed like she was intentionally trying to strike Xing Luo’s confidence.

Xing Luo’s state of mind was not affected. He brandished his Ominous Blade and attacked.

Breaking through to become a god?

This was Bai Qing’er’s psychological tactic!

Breaking through to become a god required a quiet, stable environment that was not disturbed by anything. Even under such circumstances, the probability of Xing Luo successfully breaking through to become a god did not exceed 50%.

Under such circumstances, if one chose to break through, they would definitely fail and die.

They might as well fight to the death. There might still be a chance.

A bronze chime flew out from the formation and clashed with the Ominous Blade.

THUMP!

Powerful sound waves reverberated within the formation.

The ten Supreme Saints were shaken until their internal organs were shattered. They spat out large mouthfuls of blood.

As they were trapped in the Echoes of Heaven Formation, the Supreme Saints seemed to have turned into mortals. They had no way of retaliating. At this moment, they were filled with regret. If they had known earlier, they would have fled as fast as they could when Lord Wu Yue ordered them to stop Ji Fanxin.

The Supreme Saints could only blame themselves. They had never seen a Paramount Realm Yuanhui-level genius and did not understand how powerful the enemy was.

It was too late to regret.

...

The Sevenstar Imperial Palace flew not far away.

Fei Zhong stood on the stairs and looked at the battlefield. He was stunned.

When Lord Wu Yue self-destructed with his Sainthood Source, Fei Zhong immediately ran into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He used the palace's defensive array to block the aftermath of the destruction. He thought that Bai Qing'er had been killed. He was still considering whether he should attack Zhang Ruochen immediately.

Who would have thought that the situation would be like this?

'He's too powerful. He must be invincible below divinity. Once he breaks through to divinity, he'll be a powerhouse in divinity.' Fei Zhong was extremely shocked. He had a new understanding of the strongest power below the divine realm.

Gong Nanfeng's eyes were dazed. Like a puppet, he chanted, "It's over, it's over. The Fane of Destiny will suffer an unprecedented blow. This era is too monstrous. I can't predict it. I can't at all."

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the palace straight. He carefully observed the formation made of 65 bronze bells. Deep thought appeared in his eyes.

Previously, he had actually been paying attention to the battlefield. He was very emotional.

Lord Wu Yue's determined self-detonation of the Sainthood Source profoundly affected his heart.

How could other cultivators choose to self-detonate if they had a choice?

‘Is this the belief in destiny that allows them to disregard life and death?’ Zhang Ruochen shook his head gently and sighed.

Bai Qing’er could endure Lord Wu Yue’s self-destruction not because she had reached a place where she could disregard Lord Wu Yue, but because when she hit the first palm, she tore the gap, hiding in the emptiness, leaving only a fake body in the outer world.

Of course, even if she had hidden in the void, she could not avoid being killed.

She had relied on the world where she had absorbed the Primeval Chaos Saintwill to block the destructive energy. The world that belonged to Zionwraith had been destroyed by her self-destruction. It turned into continents that floated in the void.

Bai Qing’er used at least five defensive methods to block her self-destruction. This allowed Zhang Ruochen to see her many trump cards clearly.

...

Three Supreme Saints had already been killed in the formation.

Their Paramount physique had been shattered. All the precepts had been refined by the formation. Even their saint souls had been destroyed by the sound waves. Only the Sainthood Source remained in the void. It was still indestructible.

The remaining seven Paramount Realm Supreme Saints gradually adapted to the environment of the formation. They secretly activated the power in their bodies.

The seven stood in seven mysterious positions and formed a combined attack formation. More than ten trillion precepts circulated around them and turned into a Nether River of Precepts that crashed into the southeast corner of the formation.

They deduced that that was the weakest point of the Echoes of Heaven Formation.

Bai Qing'er's finger moved slightly, and immediately, thirteen bronze chimes rushed out of the formation and crashed into the Nether River of Precepts.

BOOM! BOOM!

When the 10th bronze chime struck, the Nether River of Precepts was shattered, and the seven Supreme Saints were sent flying.

The remaining three bronze chimes hit the three Supreme Saints and turned them into three clouds of blood mist. Both their bodies and souls were destroyed.

No one knew what grade of treasure the bronze chimes were. Even if they had a Supreme Saint's life force, they would die instantly once they touched it. They would not be able to form a new body.

The remaining four Paramount Realm Supreme Saints were extremely desperate. Their eyes were red, and their anger soared to the sky.

Xing Luo alone could withstand most of the Echoes of Heaven Formation attacks. His Paramount physique had already been damaged several times. However, his body was powerful, and his physique was extraordinary. He was still able to withstand the attacks head-on.

Fei Zhong was both excited and emotional. He said, "Every Paramount Realm Supreme Saint is peerless. They can decide the outcome of a small-scale battle. However, in front of Lady Bai, they are like puny ants. They can be killed with a raise of her hand."

Gong Nanfeng was so angry that he was trembling. He argued, "If I were Bai Qing'er, I would never force them into a hopeless situation. In this way, they only have one way to self-detonate their Sainthood Source. Scion Xing Luo and the four Supreme Saints self-detonate. No powerful array can stop them. Bai Qing'er will die for sure."

Zhang Ruochen's voice came from behind Gong Nanfeng. "No, Bai Qing'er will not die. Didn't you predict that Bai Qing'er's real body isn't near the formation? It's just a fake body condensed by the Power of Origin to paralyze the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny. In fact, Bai Qing'er is thousands of miles away in space."

Gong Nanfeng didn't like Zhang Ruochen. He felt that the Fane of Destiny's defeat today was all because of him.

How could the Fane of Destiny have lost so miserably if he hadn't stood by and watched?

The Scion and Lord Wu Yue had fallen, and the ten Supreme Saints had all been wiped out. Today was destined to shake heaven and Hell. Who knew how big a shock it would cause.

Zhang Ruochen ignored Gong Nanfeng's gaze. He summoned the Ugyen Cudgel. Golden light burst out from his body, and divine power surged outward.

"Zhang Ruochen, what do you want?" Fei Zhong shouted coldly.

"Move aside. Get out of my way."

Zhang Ruochen swung and broke through Fei Zhong's protective Precept Domain and struck his abdomen. He was flying and crashed into a sacred pillar of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Then, 12 blood wings grew out of Zhang Ruochen's back. A tiger shadow followed behind him. His battle intent surged as he flew toward the Echoes of Heaven Formation.

At this time, he had to act.

No matter what, Xing Luo could not die.

Fei Zhong was struck dumb by Zhang Ruochen and slid down from the pillar. His eyes were blank and shocked.

How could Zhang Ruochen, who was in Hundred-Shackle Realm, be so assertive?

No.

Even if he was a Yuanhui-level genius, he couldn't be able to quickly send a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint flying. What was that tiger shadow behind Zhang Ruochen?

Although it was just a shadow, it made his Saint Soul palpitate.

Gong Nanfeng's heart trembled with excitement when he looked at Zhang Ruochen's flying. "Brother Ruochen finally took action! We're saved, we're saved!"

...

Inside Echoes of Heaven Formation.

The remaining four Supreme Saints looked at each other, their eyes filled with anger and helplessness.

"Your Highness, you should enter the inner space of Ominous Blade and hide for now. Leave the rest to us!" Cang Sheng — one of the four Paramount Realm Supreme Saints — said coldly.

How could Xing Luo not know about their desire to die together? He smiled bitterly and said, "It's useless! Ji Fanxin's spiritual power is strong. You cannot self-detonate your Sainthood Source right under her nose like Lord Wu Yue, “Only I, with the power of Divine Ghost Mask, can block her spiritual power. Only then will you have a chance to escape. So, it could only be me who’ll die together with her.

“You all need to hide in the inner space of Ominous Blade. I will fight with her one last time.”

The Supreme Saint with four eyes shook his head, “No. No matter what, Scion should not be the one who self-destructs. If you die, Fane of Destiny will no longer have control over this era.”

Xing Luo said, “I am no longer the Scion. If I die, it’ll hardly affect Fane of Destiny. Everyone, don’t worry. Fane of Destiny has a deep foundation and won’t easily collapse. When the new Scioness and Que matured, it nighs impossible for others to stir up trouble.”

If there was another choice, how could Xing Luo be willing to die with the enemy?

However, if he doesn’t, all of them would be exhausted to death by the formation.

The four Supreme Saints felt sorrowful and powerless.

Once upon a time, they would receive the highest treatment wherever they went. They could kill all Celestial Court’s Supreme Saints when they’re in the Battlefield of Merits.

But now, they could not even self-detonate their Sainthood Source.

“Is there no other way?”

The four-eyed Supreme Saint gritted his teeth and glared at Ji Fanxin in the sea of flowers.

Xing Luo said, “If I wasn’t trapped in Echoes of Heaven Formation, I would have some confidence in escaping this place.”

“In other words, as long as we break the formation, our chances of escaping will increase greatly?” Cang Sheng took out an Inscription-Suppressing Stone and said, “This Inscription-Suppressing Stone was created by an Archsaint Array Master from Fane of Destiny. It might be able to break the formation.”

Xing Luo shook his head and said, “Once we are trapped in the formation, even the Archsaint Array Master would be helpless, let alone a mere Inscription-Suppressing Stone. Unless a top-notch expert exists outside the formation, we will only have a chance to break Ji Fanxin’s formation.”

The four Supreme Saints looked dejected. They all knew that one should be at least the same level as Xing Luo, who was a top-notch elite, to be able to save them.

There were very few people like Xing Luo in Infernal Court.

Where could they find one like him easily?

“Look, an Immortal Vampire is flying over.” The four-eyed Paramount Realm Supreme Saint exclaimed.

Xing Luo was already prepared to self-detonate his Sainthood Source. He was a little surprised when he heard this. He thought that maybe the previous battle caught the Immortal Vampire who passed by’s attention?

However, there didn’t seem to be any Paramount Realm Yuanhui level figures below divinity in Immortal Vampire.

An ordinary Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would only be courting death.

Xing Luo looked over. His expression changed, and he asked in surprise, “How can it be him?”

A dense blood cloud flew over from the dark void space.

Zhang Ruochen had 12 wings on his back. Standing in the blood cloud, his aura was unparalleled. He had the divine aura of a Demigod-level physique and the power of Intergold Tiger. It was as if a TrueGod had descended.

Bai Qing’er glanced over and said, “Seems like you finally turning against me?”

“You’ve won. Why can’t you let them go?” Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were filled with Precepts of Truth and Intergold Precept Marks. He looked at Bai Qing’er without fear.

Bai Qing'er said, "No one can stop the people I want to kill!"

"I stopped you from killing Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian, and I can do it again."

The Ugyen Cudgel flew out of Zhang Ruochen's hand. Driven by Divine Qi, the cudgel expanded and became thicker than a mountain peak. Golden light spread in all directions and turned into a golden sea.

In the Golden Sea, Battle Qi rolled like clouds.

The Ugyen Cudgel was activated to the extreme. It burst with unparalleled supreme power, shattered the sea of flowers in Bai Qing'er's void space, and hacked down at her.

Bai Qing'er's eyes were cold and sharp. "Is this the power that Intergold Tiger lent you? It's powerful, but it's a pity you can't understand its mysteries. You only have brute force."

Bai Qing'er didn't choose to fight head-on with the Ugyen Cudgel. Instead, she took a step to the left.

She crossed a hundred miles with just one step and easily avoided Zhang Ruochen's earth-shaking attack.

The Ugyen Cudgel swept over and struck out again.

Countless Supreme Inscriptions on the cudgel were like the veins of heaven and earth. They wanted to freeze Bai Qing'er in space and force her to take Zhang Ruochen's attack head-on.

"Your attack is too lightweight. No matter how strong the weapon is, it can't hurt me."

Bai Qing'er turned into a wisp of green smoke and circled around the Ugyen Cudgel. She dodged again.

When she fought with Zhang Ruochen, her spiritual power was still in control of Echoes of Heaven Formation. She was able to easily suppress the five elites of Fane of Destiny, including Xing Luo.

Zhang Ruochen struck out dozens of times in a row. The power was so strong that almost no one under divinity dared to take it head-on. However, Bai Qing'er avoided each strike like a stone sinking into the sea.

The battle ripples here had spread out long ago, and other cultivators must have noticed it.

If Bai Qing'er did not want to be besieged by other cultivators, she needed to end the battle as soon as possible to escape. Zhang Ruochen's attack had caused her a lot of trouble.

"You've been attacking for so long. Are you tired? Take this!

"Palm of Yin-yang Five Elements!"

Bai Qing'er struck out with her palm. A Taiji Diagram, which looked very much like Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, appeared. It combined with the palm power and burst out an overwhelming force.

Zhang Ruochen didn't know how Bai Qing'er could simulate Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, but he knew this so-called Saintwill was just a mere manifestation.

Of course, when Bai Qing'er attacked, even if it only had a physical form, it was no small matter.

Back then, Bai Qing'er hadn't been so serious. She could crush the demigod-level Blackwraith from thousands of miles away with a simple grab.

This attack was much stronger than the one that crushed Blackwraith.

"This palm is specially made for you," Bai Qing'er said.

"Zangshan Demonic Mirror."

An ancient mirror burst out a thousand miles of Demonic Qi.

Majestic mountains emerged from the Demonic Qi to resist Bai Qing'er's palm print.

Rumble

The demonic mountains were shattered one by one. Finally, the palm print collided with the surface of Zangshan Demonic Mirror. The surface of the mirror was like a water curtain. It sank down and swallowed the palm print.

Bai Qing'er gasped. Suddenly, her eyes darkened.

She found that Zhang Ruochen had disappeared where the Zangshan Demonic Mirror was at.

“Oh no!”

Bai Qing'er turned around and saw Zhang Ruochen walking out of the space. He appeared in the sky above Echoes of Heaven Formation.

He held the Ugyen Cudgel in his hands. Dense Intergold Precept Marks appeared on his arms. The phantom of a white tiger as tall as 1,000 miles appeared on the surface of his body, bursting with the power that could swallow a river.

The Ugyen Cudgel struck out, causing one corner of Echoes of Heaven Formation to collapse.

A bronze chime was sent flying. The rich sound reverberated throughout the world.

Xing Luo used the sea of stars to surround the four Fane of Destiny's Supreme Saint. He took this opportunity to escape from the gap in the formation. He burst out faster than 10,000 times the speed of sound and ran into the sky.

“Thank you for saving my life. I will repay you generously in the future.” Xing Luo's voice transmission rang in Zhang Ruochen's mind.

Bai Qing'er's true form walked out of the broken space and merged with the fake body in the sea of flowers. Her eyes were unprecedentedly cold. She walked toward Zhang Ruochen with one hundred miles in one step, “Zhang Ruochen, you dare to ruin my plan? I won't let you get away with this!”

Bai Qing'er didn't use the bronze chime. Instead, she pointed.

They were hundreds of miles apart, but after her finger pointed, she appeared directly in front of Zhang Ruochen. She seemed to have penetrated space in an instant. However, Zhang Ruochen didn't feel any space fluctuation at all.

In a moment of desperation, Zhang Ruochen pressed out with his palm.

The tiger shadow behind him raised its massive claws. Like the track marks that Zhang Ruochen had made with his palm, it also pressed forward.

The palm hit Bai Qing'er's fingertip.

Zhang Ruochen had a Regal Artifact level glove and countless Intergold Precept Marks.

His palm turned golden under the glove.

Crack!

There was a cracking sound.

The Regal Artifact glove could not withstand Bai Qing'er's power, and three cracks appeared. Then, with a bang, it broke into pieces of scrap metal.

Some pieces cut Zhang Ruochen's face, leaving a bloody mark.

Zhang Ruochen quickly retreated. His palm was in so much pain that it was about to crack. He quickly put it behind his back. Blood flowed out of the cracks between his fingers.

Even the Divine Marks could not withstand Bai Qing'er's attack.

Zhang Ruochen looked closely and saw that Bai Qing'er was already more than 100 feet away from him. Light of Origin from her skin overshadowed his divine aura.

She was furious. She wasn't angry that Zhang Ruochen had let Xing Luo and the others go.

She was angry because she had decided to kill her way to Fane of Origin. She wanted to temper herself and accumulate her power through killing on the way there.

Once she reached Fane of Origin, her power would be at its peak.

She could break through the realm with this power and become a god.

However, Zhang Ruochen blocked her and muddled her power, making her state of mind extremely at the edge.

“Die!”

“Ten days of Heaven Seal.”

Bai Qing'er's long hair flew up. Her five fingers formed a magical seal and struck out.

The space around her five fingers caved in, forming layers of space shock waves.

In the center of the space shock waves, ten bright spots appeared. They were like ten hot suns spinning rapidly, releasing terrifying heat that burned the sky and boiled the sea.

“Roar!”

A tiger's roar was heard.

“Zhang Ruochen, today I will teach you a prehistoric higher knowledge, Eight Techniques of Genesis.

“The first technique of Eight Techniques of Genesis, Taiqing Cloud-Pushing Palm.”

When Intergold Tiger's voice sounded, Zhang Ruochen only felt that 670 million Intergold Precept Marks in his Sea of Qi automatically flowed out and circulated in his body in a magical trajectory.

Along with the Intergold Precept Marks, there was Divine Qi that Intergold Tiger kept infusing into Zhang Ruochen's body.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen's body was slightly out of control. His hands and feet automatically evolved into a strange posture. He pushed out his hands and struck Bai Qing'er's fingerprint.

BOOM

Bai Qing'er's body trembled, and she flew backward. Her eyes showed surprise.

She knew that the source of the power came from Intergold Tiger. However, Zhang Ruochen was still the only cultivator who could beat her back since she entered Paramount Realm.

Zhang Ruochen spat out blood and was thrown dozens of miles away. Three bloody holes appeared on his body.

Each bloody hole was the size of a fist,

Intergold Tiger sighed. “I have no choice. You still can’t beat her. Your demigod body is too inferior to her Paramount physique! Moreover, only 670 million Intergold Precept Marks are in your body.”

“It doesn’t matter. I’ve achieved my goal.”

Zhang Ruochen pretended to be seriously injured. He used the hidden force to hurt himself again. He spat out several mouthfuls of blood and finally stood up with his last breath. He smiled at Bai Qing’er. “You can’t kill me.”

...

After running for tens of millions of miles and reaching another starry sky, Xing Luo finally couldn’t hold on any longer and fell on a hundred-mile-long cosmic rock.

“Your Highness.”

Cang Sheng quickly squatted down and tried to help him up.

“No, I’m fine.”

Xing Luo gritted his teeth and slowly sat up. He took a Healing Sacred Pill to control the serious injuries in his body.

The four-eyed Supreme Saint said with lingering fear, “I didn’t expect Zhang Ruochen to save us in the end. I owe him a huge favor this time.”

“Originally, I was hostile to him when he cultivated a Grade Two Saintwill and caused a bad omen. The phenomena of Destiny’s Creek flow backward, flooding the fane. Now it seems that this is most likely a coincidence. Fukurokuju didn’t misjudge him,” said a Supreme Saint from Adjudication Division.

Cang Sheng looked suspicious, “Have you thought about something? Zhang Ruochen and Intergold Tiger attack, but why didn’t they join hands with us to deal with the witch in the beginning? We might not have lost if they had joined hands at the beginning. Maybe Lord Wu Yue, Zionwraith, and the others won’t have to die!”

“What do you mean? Do you suspect that Zhang Ruochen did this to weaken the power of Fane of Destiny? If that’s the case, why did he save us?” The four-eyed Supreme Saint snarled.

Cang Sheng said, “I’ve checked Zhang Ruochen’s information. He has a close relationship with Ji Fanxin.”

“It’s not certain if that woman is Ji Fanxin!” The four-eyed Supreme Saint said.

“Stop arguing! It’s an indisputable fact that Zhang Ruochen saved us. Besides, I can roughly guess why he didn’t do anything in the first place,” Xing Luo said.

Cang Sheng asked, “Why?”

Xing Luo said, “First, you must understand one thing. Zhang Ruochen and that woman must be enemies. Even if she really is Ji Fanxin, do you think she will still regard Zhang Ruochen as her best friend based on what he did in Infernal Court?”

“I’m afraid she hated Zhang Ruochen to the bones,” the four-eyed Supreme Saint said.

Xing Luo nodded and said, “That’s right! So, Zhang Ruochen and Gong Nanfeng are her hostages in Infernal Court. Once she provokes a god, she can protect herself.”

“Why didn’t Zhang Ruochen attack in the beginning?”

“There are only a few reasons. First, Zhang Ruochen was hit by Arrow of Deva Path. His injuries are severe. He wanted to attack, but he couldn’t.

“Second, he knows how powerful Ji Fanxin is. Even if he attacks with us, he knows that he has no chance of winning.

“Even if Intergold Tiger attacks, we have no chance of winning?” Cang Sheng was shocked.

Xing Luo sighed. “Although I don’t want to admit it, it’s indisputable. Intergold Tiger is a god, but he’s a prehistoric god. He’s suppressed by heavenly and earthly precepts. He can’t attack. If it used too much power, it would be punished by Heaven.

“Didn’t you see that it passed its power to Zhang Ruochen before? Zhang Ruochen could only fight against Ji Fanxin if he attacked.

“If Zhang Ruochen didn’t attack, Ji Fanxin might not kill him yet. If he attacked, how could Ji Fanxin let him go? Zhang Ruochen understood this, but he still attacked decisively to save us. At this moment, he is probably facing a life-and-death crisis.”

The four Supreme Saints were silent.

Cang Sheng was moved and looked guilty.

Xing Luo continued, “Actually, there is a third reason. Zhang Ruochen doesn’t have any ties with us. Why should he fight with us? He doesn’t trust us at all. You should know that Adjudication Division was calling out to kill him not long ago. It was good enough that he didn’t hold a grudge against us!”

“Then why did he make a move later?” Cang Sheng asked.

Xing Luo said, “I think there are only two reasons. First, Zhang Ruochen wants to show us that he didn’t betray Infernal Court. He hopes that he can get our support when he’s misunderstood in the future.

“Second, only when we escape can we join forces with other forces and make more detailed arrangements to deal with Ji Fanxin. Otherwise, no one will ever know Ji Fanxin’s true strength. No matter how many the number of cultivators who rush forwards.”

Cang Sheng nodded and said, “I’ve thought about it carefully. Ji Fanxin won’t dare to kill Zhang Ruochen easily. Zhang Ruochen might have deliberately stayed by her side. Only this way can we restrain her better.”

“Yes, I think so too. Zhang Ruochen alone is worth thousands of soldiers and horses. He can endure humiliation. If there’s a chance in the future, we can be friendly to him.”

Xing Luo added, “Now we have three things to do. We must do it immediately.

“Cang Sheng, you investigate Ji Fanxin, Fairy of a Hundred Flowers. Find out if she is in Qianrui Realm or Celestial Court? If she’s not here, this Ji Fanxin will likely be confirmed.

“Lord Four-eyed, you go find out what Ji Fanxin’s real purpose is? Why did she go on a killing spree in Infernal Court?

“Yaoyun Jisi, head to Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt as fast as possible. Inform the factions on good terms with Fane of Destiny in advance and tell them not to act rashly. The enemy is often stronger than they imagined, perhaps even tens of times stronger.”

...

After making all sorts of arrangements, Xing Luo sent out two more Communication talismans to contact Yan Yu and Yuan Qianmo.

“You don’t dare to kill me.”

Zhang Ruochen’s voice reverberated with a smile and confidence.

“Is that so?”

Dense Precepts gushed out from Bai Qing’er’s fingertips and twisted into a thin, long thread.

This thread was a sharp weapon that could kill all spirits.

ROAR!

A dazzling golden light emerged behind Zhang Ruochen’s back and turned into a cloud of light like silk.

The true form of Intergold Tiger appeared. Standing in the golden cloud, the word “Inter” between its eyebrows released a mighty divine power. Even with Bai Qing’er’s cultivation, she was shocked and stopped immediately.

Her eyes were full of solemnity.

The cultivation gap between Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er was huge.

However, the cultivation gap between Bai Qing’er and Intergold Tiger was even more significant.

If not for fear of Heaven’s punishment, one breath of Intergold Tiger would have blown Bai Qing’er into a pile of bones. Even her bones might not be left behind.

Bai Qing’er put away her thread and said, “The legendary Intergold Tiger has finally revealed its true form.”

Intergold Tiger walked to Zhang Ruochen's left and raised its huge head. It said, "If you kill him, I will kill you at all costs."

"Aren't you afraid of Heavenly Punishment?" Bai Qing'er asked.

Intergold Tiger said, "Heavenly Punishment may not be able to kill me, but you will definitely die if I attacked."

Zhang Ruochen admired the beautiful woman opposite him. She could withstand the powerful divine aura of Intergold Tiger and still able to remain calm. She was indeed an Archsaint Array Master and the best cultivator under divinity.

Bai Qing'er thought for a moment and said, "What do you think of me?"

"Your talent is unparalleled in the world," said Intergold Tiger.

Bai Qing'er said, "Then, how about I be your guide? Zhang Ruochen's cultivation and ranking in Tome of the Divines are low. He's not your best candidate when there's a disaster in the future"

"No," said Intergold Tiger.

Bai Qing'er said, "Why? Do you think Zhang Ruochen has more potential in the future?"

"No, it's just because you offended me and I'm furious." Intergold Tiger's eyes stared straight at Bai Qing'er. It looked like it was holding a grudge.

Bai Qing'er had once called it a "sick cat" and spoke exceptionally arrogantly.

Intergold Tiger was very narrow-minded and always held a grudge towards her.

For this reason, Intergold Tiger promised Zhang Ruochen that as long as he fought with Bai Qing'er, he could borrow its power without limit.

There's no tiger who doesn't take revenge.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly realized that the tiger was still very temperamental. He could not help but want to stroke its back. However, he stopped just as his hand was about to fall. He realized the other party was not Blackie but a powerful god, so he quickly withdrew his hand.

Zhang Ruochen's face was ashen because of his injury. He said, "Even if Intergold Tiger doesn't interfere, you won't be able to keep me if I wanted to leave with our current distance in strength. Let alone kill me."

"So confident?" Bai Qing'er said.

Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing'er were 30 miles apart.

For a top-tier Supreme Saint, this distance was almost negligible.

They could cross it in a blink of an eye.

Zhang Ruochen calmly extended a hand and made a gesture of invitation. "You could try if you don't believe me."

Bai Qing'er stared at Intergold Tiger and said, "He's the one who wants to try. You won't have any objections if I kill him, right?"

"If you can kill him, he could only blame himself for seeking death." Intergold Tiger seemed to be very confident in Zhang Ruochen.

They were 30 miles away. Not to mention Zhang Ruochen, even a superior like Lord Wu Yue would not be able to escape within this range.

Bai Qing'er really did not believe that Zhang Ruochen could escape from her with only the cultivation of Hundred-Shackle Realm and without the power of Intergold Tiger.

Swoosh!

A spirit rushed out of Bai Qing'er's body, turned into a white shadow, and flew out quickly.

With her status and cultivation, she didn't need to use her true form to kill a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint.

One spirit was enough.

Just like how Zhang Ruochen killed a Saint King, if he used his true form, he would overestimate the Saint King.

Whoosh

Although it was a spirit, its speed was faster than 10,000 times the speed of sound. It crossed 30 miles at lightning speed and clawed at Zhang Ruochen's neck.

Zhang Ruochen's neck was crushed.

But it was only an afterimage of Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's real body had already crossed dimensions and moved out. He appeared 800 miles away and said, "You underestimate the Scion of Time and Space by attacking with just one spirit!"

"If one isn't enough, just a few more will do."

Bai Qing'er thought. 800 miles away, a spirit of Bai Qing'er automatically appeared behind Zhang Ruochen and hit his back.

Zhang Ruochen immediately activated Null Time realm and did a Great Dimensional Shift again.

The purpose of activating Null Time realm was not to block Bai Qing'er's attack but to buy time for himself to perform Great Dimensional Shift. In a fight with a superior of Bai Qing'er's level, the winner and loser could be determined instantly.

Null Time realm could help Zhang Ruochen buy that instant time.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!!!

More and more spirits emerged from Bai Qing'er. There were dozens of them, and each was much more powerful than Zhang Ruochen. They had the power to kill Zhang Ruochen in one strike.

The sky was filled with flying figures. It was as if thousands of fairies in white surrounded and killed Zhang Ruochen.

However, they could not hurt Zhang Ruochen at all.

Zhang Ruochen had reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm. The divine force in his body was powerful, and he had obtained 0.99% of Canon of Dimension. In terms of escaping ability, few cultivators below divinity could surpass him.

“Withdraw!”

All the spirits flew back and overlapped on Bai Qing’er.

Bai Qing’er said, “I really underestimated the Scion of Time and Space’s ability to escape.”

How could Zhang Ruochen not understand Bai Qing’er’s belittlement? He did not take it to heart. He smiled and said, “If you are hunted, assassinated, and besieged all year round, you can also practice this ability. All cultivators practice immortality, but only when you live to the end can you have the last laugh.”

“Then I should be more serious!”

Bai Qing’er closed her eyes.

Zhang Ruochen had a bad premonition. He knew that Bai Qing’er was going to launch a spiritual power attack. He quickly mobilized the murderous Blood Qi in his body and injected it into Wargod Belt. Suddenly, the blood light on the belt grew stronger. It released the Divine Qi and the Wargod’s will, which condensed into a pair of enormous blood wings on Zhang Ruochen’s back.

Wargod Belt could only obtain the divine force of Wargod Bloodximus when Zhang Ruochen was attacked by the gods, thus saving his life.

However, Wargod Belt itself was also a supreme treasure, which could be used to resist spiritual power attacks.

Zhang Ruochen feared Bai Qing’er launching spiritual power attacks because spiritual power could travel thousands of miles instantly. Even if he used dimensional means, it would be difficult to escape.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Armor of the Fire God to cover his entire body and secretly activated the Heart of Truth.

Sure enough, Bai Qing’er closed her eyes, and a powerful spiritual power storm came.

The spiritual power storm was silent, but when it was used by a Supreme Saint with a spiritual power of level 69 and a half, no one under divinity would dare to take it head-on. Even the gods with weaker spiritual power would be afraid of it.

Zhang Ruochen had all kinds of defensive methods but still used Great Dimensional Shift to avoid the spiritual power storm.

“The dimension has been closed by me. How can you escape?”

Bai Qing'er opened her palm, and a shadow of a palm print 90,000 miles long appeared. It floated in the universe and was extremely shocking.

Zhang Ruochen seemed to be standing in her palm. His body was as small as dust.

The dimension was indeed frozen. It was more stable than on the dark star. Even the top Dimensional cultivators below divinity couldn't perform Great Dimensional Shift.

But Zhang Ruochen was different now.

“Oh, but you didn't!”

Zhang Ruochen stomped down. Dense Dimensional Inscriptions rushed out from his feet and interweaved into a dimensional teleportation array.

It was not a real dimensional teleportation array but a combination of Canon and Precept of Dimension.

Swoosh!

The dimensional teleportation array spun once, and Zhang Ruochen disappeared instantly. He was teleported 300,000 miles away.

Bai Qing'er's eyes showed a strange look. Then she thought of something. She smiled and put away the 90,000-mile-long illusory palm print.

She then looked at Zhang Ruochen, who had flown back from the sky, “How much Canon of Dimension have you mastered?”

Zhang Ruochen knew he could not hide it from her, so he asked with a smile, “How much Canon of Origin have you mastered?”

“Well, I admit it is difficult to kill you from 30 miles away. So you better don’t get too close to me. I could kill you easily in a short distance,” Bai Qing’er said.

30 miles was a safe distance between Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er.

With this distance, Zhang Ruochen had enough time to react and avoid any of Bai Qing’er’s onslaughts.

“Are you asking me to leave?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing’er said, “I don’t care what your purpose is for following me, but it’s time for you to leave. There’s no sense for you to continue shadowing me.”

“Are you afraid of me?”

Zhang Ruochen walked over and entered a distance of 30 miles.

Then, he entered a distance of 10 miles.

...

He came to the opposite side of Bai Qing’er and looked at the magnificent woman up close. He said, “I said I wanted to marry you. How could I leave just like that?”

Intergold Tiger came to Zhang Ruochen’s side.

Bai Qing’er said, “You want to take back the supreme grade Divine Crystal of Origin and Tensho Compass.”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. He said, “Why do I need Tensho Compass? What if the god of Fane of Destiny discovers it in the future? Wouldn’t that be digging my own grave? Having a divine weapon is good, but with my current cultivation, I won’t be able to use it at all. Instead, it would be a disaster.

“Fane of Destiny’s Overseer is still here. If he reports that I’m eyeing the divine weapon for myself, I won’t have a place in Infernal Court anymore.

“It’s useless even if I have the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. I’m not a Master of Origin, so I can’t find Fane of Origin. Why don’t I follow you? It’ll save time and effort. Moreover, you want Canon of Origin when you go to Fane of Origin. Canon of Origin doesn’t mean much to me. I just want to find the chance to cultivate Grade one Saintwill.

“Other than that, the other treasures in Fane of Origin are not attractive to you and me.

“So our interests don’t conflict. I’m sincere about wanting to marry you. Why don’t you believe me?”

Bai Qing’er knew very well that Zhang Ruochen’s words were trying to numb her, but she couldn’t find any flaws in his words.

Zhang Ruochen was speaking facts.

Zhang Ruochen continued, “It’s a good thing if you don’t believe me and think I have bad intentions.”

“How is this good?” Bai Qing’er asked.

“Of course.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “You went to Fane of Origin in a high-profile way, not to kill, but to train yourself. Isn’t this also a kind of training if a treacherous person who would attack you at any time followed you?”

“What you said does make sense,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “So do you want to believe the former or the latter?”

“It doesn’t matter.”

Bai Qing’er turned into a white light and flew away.

Intergold Tiger snorted and spat out two tubes of golden mist from its nostrils. “Why did you ask her that last question? You might as well ask her where Shangguan Que is.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “You don’t understand.”

“I understand! The question you asked was a test of your weight in her heart. Whether she answered the former or the latter, at least it proved that she valued you. Whether you became lovers or sworn enemies in the future, at least Zhang Ruochen was now her number one. However, a casual response meant she did not care about your thoughts. You were still insignificant. Your self-esteem must have suffered a blow, right?” said Intergold Tiger.

Zhang Ruochen coughed twice and coughed up blood. He said, “Your thoughts are too petty!”

“Men always want to conquer excellent women to prove their excellence and strength, especially those women who have defeated them,” said Intergold Tiger.

“This idea is even more narrow-minded.”

Zhang Ruochen flew in the direction of Sevenstar Imperial Palace. His eyes became more and more serious.

Bai Qing'er was indeed a complex woman to see through. She seemed to have endless secrets. No one knew how many trump cards she had yet to use.

More importantly, no matter how Zhang Ruochen tried, it was difficult to find her weakness.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen had never planned to attack the battle between the Supreme Saints of Fane of Destiny and Bai Qing'er.

The reason why he attacked last minute was that there were only a few powerful figures below divinity who could restrain Bai Qing'er. If Xing Luo died, then one less would be left.

Besides that, there were two more essential purposes.

First, Zhang Ruochen wanted to test whether Bai Qing'er was injured by the self-detonation of Lord Wu Yue.

The facts proved that Bai Qing'er was indeed injured!

Otherwise, she would not have been repelled by Intergold Tiger and Zhang Ruochen's attack. Moreover, she did not go after Xing Luo and the others and could not hurt Zhang Ruochen from 30 miles away.

The second purpose was to hide the fact that his injury had healed.

His injury could not be healed forever.

How could he hide it?

He could only be more seriously injured.

Zhang Ruochen's Sea of Qi had already healed. When Bai Qing'er was fighting with the elites of Fane of Destiny, he entered Sevenstar Imperial Palace. With his control of Qiankun Realm and the help of Divine Sky-connecting Tree, he forced Seven-Armed Elder to submit temporarily, and they fought together against Bai Qing'er.

It seemed that he was more seriously injured, but it was only a physical injury. With the recovery ability of Pale Blood Soil, this injury was nothing.

Bai Qing'er was too bright. She could only be sure that Zhang Ruochen was still injured if she injured him with her own hands. Even with the help of Intergold Tiger, he would not be able to display much combat power.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen was happy to fool Bai Qing'er. It was even better if she thought he would only run for his life.

Before the time came, he had to show his weakness to the enemy.

It was a very helpless thing!

To Zhang Ruochen's surprise, Bai Qing'er did not choose to go into stealth. Instead, she let him ride to Sevenstar Imperial Palace and fly toward Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt.

It was very high-profile!

Zhang Ruochen could not help but feel a little suspicious. Was she really injured?

Zhang Ruochen sat in front of the Imperial Palace, next to Huang Tian. He held a pot of holy spring and looked at the brilliant sea of stars in the distance. He used his spiritual power to communicate with Intergold Tiger.

"Why did you teach me Eight Techniques of Genesis when you asked me to create my own higher knowledge of Saint Technique? What are the Eight Techniques of Genesis? They seem to be very profound and powerful. Could you demonstrate them a few more times?"

Intergold Tiger's voice rang out. "I thought about it carefully. After all, Intergold Precept Marks come from prehistoric times. They are completely different from the path you once practiced. They have essences that you can not understand. Therefore, the Eight Techniques of Genesis is to let you have a certain understanding of the prehistoric era's higher knowledge. It will also allow you to understand how to use Intergold Precept Marks well."

"It is said that the Eight Techniques of Genesis were highly famous in the prehistoric era. They are known as the origins of all higher knowledge. They are both profound and unfathomable, but they are also simple and easy to understand. Ordinary people can cultivate them and quickly enter the rudiments. After that, they will undergo various changes.

“Every cultivator who practiced the Eight Techniques of Genesis would eventually cultivate them differently.”

“Of course, the Eight Techniques of Genesis were easy to learn but difficult to master. Most cultivators could only learn the basics and couldn’t really display the power of the Saint Techniques and higher knowledge. So practicing the Eight Techniques of Genesis wouldn’t disturb your thoughts. Instead, it might give you some inspiration for creations.”

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and recalled for a moment. He suddenly stood up and practiced the first technique of the Eight Techniques of Genesis on the stairs.

The Taiqing Cloud-pushing Palm!

Zhang Ruochen did not feel anything after practicing it ten times. He did not feel the same mysterious feeling when Intergold Tiger used his body to practice. The feeling as if the entire universe was under control.

He could only cultivate the vague form of Taiqing Cloud-pushing Palm. He could not even activate Intergold Precept Marks in his Sea of Qi.

Zhang Ruochen asked Intergold Tiger for advice again, hoping that it could demonstrate it again.

Unfortunately, Intergold Tiger only responded, “Practice makes perfect. Slowly, you learn by yourself.

“You’ve only practiced it ten times, and already said that it’s easy to learn but difficult to master.”

Intergold Tiger muttered in its heart, thinking that Zhang Ruochen was too impatient.

It must be known that even Intergold Tiger had repeatedly practiced Eight Techniques of Genesis before it had a preliminary understanding of its mysteries. After Intergold Tiger practiced over a hundred million times, could it master and burst out the power of higher knowledge.

Even now, it continues to practice and understand more profound mysteries of it.

Intergold Tiger didn't know that Zhang Ruochen practiced all kinds of Saint techniques and could master them instantly each time.

Now that he had reached the Supreme Saint realm, his experience had significantly increased, and his spiritual power had reached the 66th level. He thought he could learn any technique after meditating and practicing it a few times.

Now, there was a psychological difference.

...

Bai Qing'er, who was in Sevenstar Imperial Palace, had the same thoughts as Zhang Ruochen.

Her spiritual power far surpassed Zhang Ruochen's, and she had once practiced the higher knowledge successfully. Therefore, she was more confident that she could learn any spell in the world at a glance and could comprehend 20-30% after practicing it once.

However, after practicing ten times, she still failed to cultivate Taiqing Cloud-pushing Palm in Sevenstar Imperial Palace. She could not help but fall into deep self-doubt.

She had personally witnessed the power of Taiqing Cloud-pushing Palm.

Intergold Tiger used Zhang Ruochen's body to perform this move. It broke her 'Ten days of Heaven Seal' and forced her to retreat.

Such higher knowledge naturally needed to be studied carefully.

..

Zhang Ruochen practice Taiqing Cloud-pushing Palm hundreds of times in a row. Sometimes, he stopped to meditate.

Sometimes, he would split his body and practice in another way. Or, he would use the Saint Qi in his body to explore a different way of luck.

In Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Bai Qing'er also seemed to practice Taiqing Cloud-pushing Palm.

Gong Nanfeng walked out of Sevenstar Imperial Palace and stopped beside Huang Tian. He did not disturb Zhang Ruochen, who was practicing Taiqing Cloud-pushing Palm. When Zhang Ruochen stopped again, he walked over with a smile.

"Brother Ruochen, I misunderstood you. After thinking about it, I must apologize to you."

Zhang Ruochen didn't have a good impression of Gong Nanfeng. He didn't know if he was playing dumb or if he really lacked a string. He said coldly, "There's no misunderstanding between us."

"No, there's a misunderstanding."

Gong Nanfeng's expression was serious. He bowed deeply to Zhang Ruochen. He looked up and saw Zhang Ruochen's back. He quickly chased after him, "Brother Ruochen is worthy of being valued by Saint Monk Xumi, Moon Goddess, Wargod Bloidximus, and Fukurokuju. Not only are you humble, but you're also a noble person. It's rare to see a cultivator like you in Infernal Court."

"Why are you praising me like this?"

Zhang Ruochen walked through the palace door.

Sevenstar Imperial Palace was divided into seven separate palaces. There was a lot of space inside.

Gong Nanfeng said, "I'm not complimenting you. What I said is the truth. Initially, I thought you hated the Fane of Destiny because of what happened in Adjudication Division. That's why you stood aside and didn't want to attack Bai Qing'er. You just watched as Zionwraith and Lord Wu Yue die.

"But I was wrong! I've figured out why brother Ruochen didn't attack in the beginning."

Zhang Ruochen ignored him.

He continued, "Because you know very well that even if you make a move, you can't do anything to Bai Qing'er, a Yuanhui-level genius who has reached Paramount Realm. She is invincible under divinity. Moreover, she is an Archsaint Array Master.

"You have been watching coldly and looking for a suitable opportunity to make a move, aren't you?

"Thank God you're wise and didn't make a move at the beginning. Otherwise, you would have been trapped in Echoes of Heaven Formation. In that case, Xing Luo and the others would surely have been dead.

"It's a great strategy for you to stay by Bai Qing'er's side. Not only can you secretly spy on her trump cards and find her flaws and weaknesses, but you can subtly restrain her and make her unable to do whatever she wants. That was indeed a smart move!"

Zhang Ruochen stopped and said, "She can hear you. Can you not expose my purpose just like that?"

Gong Nanfeng's expression changed. He looked around, calmed down, and said in a low voice, "It's my fault, but it doesn't matter. She's so smart. She probably already guess your intentions. You don't really want to marry her, do you?"

"Have you been subdued by her?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gong Nanfeng quickly shook his head, "No, absolutely not. In the name of the venerable, you must believe me. However, she is refining the vessel spirit inside Tensho Compass. If she succeeds, even I can't stop her from using the divine weapon. She will be even more powerful with the divine weapon in hand."

Zhang Ruochen's expression changed slightly, and he sighed in his heart. This was not good news!

Gong Nanfeng was the vessel spirit of Tensho Compass, which had divided more than 90% of its spirit. He had cultivated his physical body. Logically speaking, any cultivator who wanted to control Tensho Compass would be influenced by his will.

As long as Gong Nanfeng rejects, Bai Qing'er couldn't control Tensho Compass.

However, once Bai Qing'er refined Tensho Compass, Gong Nanfeng's control over Tensho Compass's vessel spirit would be significantly reduced.

"It's not easy for a cultivator below divinity to refine a divine weapon," Zhang Ruochen said.

Gong Nanfeng said, "If she has grasped Canon of Origin, she might succeed. Of course, refining a divine weapon is not a matter of a day or two. I actually have another matter to discuss with brother Ruochen."

Zhang Ruochen was not interested in Gong Nanfeng's matter. He walked toward the Star Palace and reached the bottom of a row of bookshelves.

The books on the entire row of bookshelves were all related to Origin.

Most of them were the legends and wild histories of the Masters of Origin, the basics of Origin, the Path of Origin observation diagram... There were not many genuinely profound things.

Gong Nanfeng said, "These days, I will carefully observe every battle of Bai Qing'er. I will try my best to calculate and discover her secrets. After all, she can't hide them during a battle."

"Oh!"

Zhang Ruochen pulled out a book and read it. When he heard this, he showed interest.

Gong Nanfeng said, "Her physical quality is the same as yours. You both have a Five-element Chaotic Body. The difference is that you have cultivated it after birth while she was born with it."

"I see."

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What else have you observed? Can you calculate how many Canon of Origin she has mastered? Or how many Precepts she has practiced?”

Gong Nanfeng scratched his head, slightly embarrassed, “She must have mastered some Canon of Origin. As for how much, it’s hard to infer. I have seen some clues about the Precept she has practiced. There must be more than 30 trillion Precepts.”

Zhang Ruochen thought Gong Nanfeng was talking nonsense. When Lord Wu Yue had self-detonated his Sainthood Source, the Precepts released from his body had reached 20 trillion.

Bai Qing’er was naturally much better than Lord Wu Yue.

She could kill ordinary Supreme Saints quickly because the number of Precepts she had was more than ten times that of ordinary Supreme Saints. Cultivators with Precepts lesser than 10 trillion weren’t qualified to fight with her.

Among Paramount Realm Supreme Saints, if the number of Precepts was 10 trillion, one could be called a “Demigod.”

If there were more than twenty trillion Precepts, one could be called a Demigod at peak state.

The peak of Demigod and Demigod were just synonyms for strength. In fact, they’re both Supreme Saints in Paramount Realm. If one could defeat a demigod without cultivating a hundred thousand Precepts, this cultivator could also be called a Demigod.

In fact, Bai Qing’er, Wuma Jiuxing, Xue Lingxian, and others were also at the peak of Demigod state. However, they were stronger than Lord Wu Yue.

It was worth mentioning that Lord Wu Yue had cultivated 12 trillion Precepts when he condensed Paramount physique in Banshi Isshou Realm. Therefore, he could be called a demigod as soon as he broke through to Paramount Realm.

After reaching Paramount Realm, he naturally improved considerably, which was why he had his current achievements.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Bai Qing’er should be ranked very high on Tome of the Divines. Did Fane of Destiny not notice her before?”

Gong Nanfeng shook his head and said, “No. She is ranked outside the top 100 of the second class on Tome of the Divines. She is not outstanding.”

“How can this be? I think, with her cultivation realm, she can break through and become a god with just a thought,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“I have thought and calculated this question repeatedly. There are only two reasons.”

As the vessel spirit of Tensho Compass, Gong Nanfeng knew everything in the world like the back of his hand. He said, “The first reason should be that she has a knot in her heart. The knot has troubled her. It may even have become a demon, making her afraid of the Divine Tribulation.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes lit up. “What knot does she have in her heart?”

Could this be Bai Qing’er’s weakness?

“Let’s sit down and talk.”

Gong Nanfeng took out an ancient divine wood paper book, Light of origin. He placed it on his butt and sat on the ground. Leaning against the bookshelf, he said, “This has to start with Bai Qing’er’s background. This woman is quite pitiful.”

“Wait a minute.”

Zhang Ruochen took out Zangshan Demonic Mirror and activated the Supreme Inscription. It formed a sphere of light and covered the two of them.

“Go on! Is Bai Qing’er’s father really Magnogod Huang Tian?”

Gong Nanfeng said, “Most likely. But Magnogod Huang Tian has never admitted it. He hasn’t even been to the Enchanter Chamber for many years.”

“How do you know he hasn’t been there?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gong Nanfeng looked serious. He was sure that no one would eavesdrop since this place was covered by Supreme Artifact, “To be honest, the Reverend of Divination Division has never trusted Magnogod Huang Tian. Once Magnogod Huang Tian leaves Infernal Court, he’ll activate Tensho Compass and predict his whereabouts. Brother Ruochen, you’re one of us. That’s why I can tell you this secret.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were strange. He smiled. “You know the secrets of Infernal Court in the back of your hand.”

Gong Nanfeng was overjoyed. He smiled proudly and continued, “Think about it. It’s cruel for a little girl to be abandoned by her father. Moreover, she has a mother with a bad reputation. It’s easy to imagine that she’s been mocked since she was a child.”

“The ruler of the Enchanteur Chamber, Empress Bai? What do you mean by bad reputation?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gong Nanfeng said, “It’s said that this Empress Bai is as beautiful as a fairy, comparable to Moon Goddess. However, Moon Goddess is pure and clear. She has many admirers among the gods in Infernal Court. However, Empress Bai is very depraved and has been involved with many gods.”

Zhang Ruochen could not help but laugh when he heard such big gossip. He shook his head and said, “No wonder Magnogod Huang Tian has never been to the Enchanteur Chamber again. I’m afraid it’s unknown whether Bai Qing’er is his daughter or not. But does Empress Bai really have such great charm?”

“Legend has it that no man can refuse Empress Bai, including male gods,” said Gong Nanfeng.

Zhang Ruochen thought about his resentment toward Blood Empress.

If what Gong Nanfeng said was true, he could understand why Bai Qing’er was so determined to defeat Magnogod Huang Tian and even looked down on him.

Compared with Magnogod Huang Tian and Queen Bai, Blood Empress was a thousand or ten thousand times better.

One wasn't there to raise the kid, and the other didn't deserve to be a mother.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What's the second reason you mentioned?"

Gong Nanfeng said, "Bai Qing'er was able to cross Thousand-Koan Realm and breakthrough Banshi Isshou Realm. This means that she has a strong will, and the knot in her heart may not be able to do anything to her. There is only one other possibility. Someone with strong spiritual power completely covered up the secrets of heaven on her body. Even Tome of the Divines couldn't sense the real her."

"Tome of the Divines is one of the six volumes of Heavenly Tome of Destiny. It represents the supreme law of the entire Fane of Destiny. Who can compete with destiny?" Zhang Ruochen asked curiously.

Gong Nanfeng said meaningfully, "An existence with spiritual power over level 90."

Zhang Ruochen was stunned for a moment. He couldn't help but gasp and shake his head. "That's impossible!"

Once one's spiritual power reaches the 70th level, one could become a god.

Those who reached the 80th level were already giants among gods.

The 90th level?

Was there really such a powerful spiritual power elite in the universe?

Gong Nanfeng said, "I didn't say it for no reason. Bai Qing'er's current achievements without the help of Magnogod Huang Tian and Empress Bai are impossible without the guidance of a big figure.

"Just like you, Brother Ruochen, you also inherited the mantle of Saint Monk Xumi, Divine Sky-connecting Tree, and the Immovable Wisdom King. You also received the inheritance of many important figures in Kunlun's field. You also received the support and guidance of Fane of Truth, Moon Goddess, Wargod Bloodximius, Intergold Tiger, and other important figures. That's how you achieved your current achievements.

"Yan Wusheng, who passed away, was also at the top level in terms of opportunities and inheritance. Que was even nurtured by Fane of Destiny.

"I don't believe she can reach her current level with her own efforts."

"What you said makes sense." Zhang Ruochen looked at Gong Nanfeng with a strange look. "Didn't you say that it was difficult to predict me? How come you know me so well?"

Gong Nanfeng was afraid that Zhang Ruochen would misunderstand him again. He hurriedly said, "The information about you has already been investigated by Fane of Origin."

"Get out," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Brother Ruochen, how can you change your mood just like that?"

"No matter how much you know about me, you must never reveal it to anyone."

"I understand. I treat you as my own brother. I won't do anything to let you down. In the future, if you want to take revenge on Empress Chi Yao, ask the Moon goddess for her debt, or steal the fairies from Thousand-Star Civilization or Tianchu Civilization to be your wife, Count me in. I still have some connections in the Fane of Destiny. It won't be a problem for me to mobilize a holy army to help you."

"You know too much!"

"There's nothing I can do. It's my fault that I'm the vessel spirit of Tensho Compass."

"Get out."

Chapter 2517: The Person They Waited For Finally Arrived

For several days, no cultivators came to block their path.

It was unusually quiet.

Zhang Ruochen knew that the more it continued like this, the higher the possibility that there was a storm brewing ahead. It was very likely that the Fane of Destiny had set up an inescapable net in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt.

If it were him, he would definitely not continue forward in such a high-profile manner. He would turn around, return to Hoth and leave from there.

No one knew how terrifying the inside information that the Fane of Destiny possesses was.

If the Fane of Destiny wanted to kill someone, even if that person was truly invincible to anything below divinity, it would still be difficult for them to escape death.

Bai Qing’er was clearly injured but did not hesitate. She headed towards the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt, which was equivalent to declaring war on the Fane of Destiny and all the significant forces in the Infernal Court on her own.

She wanted to make up for her defects in the Banshi Isshou Realm and reach the heights of Xue Jue and Huang Tian. This was the only path for her.

She could only advance and not retreat.

Zhang Ruochen stepped into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, one of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace halls. He saw that Bai Qing'er was not practicing her cultivation or tending to her wounds. Instead, she used a bamboo knife to turn the soil for six pots of orchids.

The six pots of orchids were planted in purple clay pots. They were carefully cared for, and the flowers had bloomed brightly.

However, Zhang Ruochen knew that they fed on the Saint Souls of Saint-level cultivators and needed the blood of Supreme Saint and deities to irrigate them. They were six extremely vicious plants.

They would probably be more terrifying if they attacked than if Shang Yue and Shang Xia did.

Bai Qing'er said, "I heard you have a Saint Devourer?"

Zhang Ruochen stopped five steps behind her and said, "My Saint Devourer can't compare to your six rare species that have lived for more than a Yuanhui period. However, it is growing quite good."

"Do you know how to tend to flowers?" Bai Qing'er asked.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a smile.

What a joke. He had raised the Saint Devourer wholly to strengthen his combat power and was not in the mood to tend to flowers.

The Saint Devourer was also a plant that was evil and fierce. However, Zhang Ruochen had firmly controlled its ferocity. It could not do evil and harm innocent creatures.

Bai Qing'er said to herself, "It's good to raise flowers but better not cultivate a physical body. It's at the purest when it's still a flower. You can tell them anything; they'll always listen to you silently. They won't ask questions, laugh at, refute, betray, or abandon you."

"What's the difference between this and talking to yourself?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er turned around and said, "See, you're refuting me now!"

"Why can't you accept refutation from others? A person who decides and acts alone will never be happy, no matter how powerful he is," Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing'er asked, "Are you happy?"

Zhang Ruochen was struck speechless.

"The world is a sea of bitterness. No one can be truly happy. The more unwilling an ordinary person is, the more painful it is. Rather than saying that the reason for cultivation is to live forever, it is better to say that it is to cross the sea of bitterness and find a paradise of joy that might exist on the other side," Bai Qing'er said.

Zhang Ruochen found that Bai Qing'er was very different from usual today. She was very relaxed and peaceful, without a trace of hostility. Her temper was so sweet that people could not help but feel adoration for her.

It was like a warm breeze in winter or a cool shade in summer.

No wonder Gong Nanfeng had said that no man in the world could refuse Empress Bai.

As the daughter of Empress Bai, Bai Qing'er seemed to have inherited her mother's unique temperament and charm.

It was terrible for a woman who could kill as she pleased. She was insidious and decisive, so for her to be able to control her hostility completely was frightening indeed.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I'm not here to discuss the Path with you. Now tell me, where is my teacher? I want to see him."

"Why should I let you see him?"

Bai Qing'er was cold and detached. She continued to stir up the soil of the orchids.

"Shang Xia and Shang Yue are both in my hands. They are both Supreme Saints of the Banshi Isshou Realm. It wouldn't be too much to exchange them for a spiritual-power Saint King, would it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er said, "You've made a mistake!"

"Have I?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er said, "First of all, Teacher Shangguan is no longer a Saint King, but a spiritual power Supreme Saint."

"Second, if I want to take Shang Xia and Shang Yue back from you, you won't be able to resist. With our current difference, even if the Intergold Tiger helps you, it won't be of any use."

"Thirdly, I didn't ask you to let Shang Yue and Shang Xia go because I was waiting for you to offer to exchange hostages with me. Since you offered, it means that Shangguan is much more important to you than Shang Xia and Shang Yue are to me. So, you have to pay a higher price before I can let him go."

...

"Since you already call him teacher, you should respect your elders."

Zhang Ruochen had already guessed that Bai Qing'er's mastery of the Path of Confucianism was most likely due to professor Shangguan Que's instructions.

There was a saying in Path of Confucianism that said, "Education is for everyone."

A true great Confucian would not refuse to teach Confucianism just because the other party was rich, poor, wise, foolish, good, or evil. He will not discriminate against monsters, land creatures, or even those that fly.

Their natures were similar, but their habits were far apart.

All living beings had good natures within them.

Bai Qing'er said, "Where did you see that I disrespect my teacher? Besides, you had called me a witch. Why should I show respect to my teacher? Can't I just disobey the rules?"

Zhang Ruochen knew that Bai Qing'er's words were sharp. He stopped arguing with her and said, "What price do you want me to pay?"

“I haven’t thought about it yet. How about you promise to do something for me?” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “What is it?”

“I haven’t thought about it yet either. I will tell you when I finish thinking about it,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen refused decisively. “No.”

“Then there’s no need to discuss anymore. Shang Yue and Shang Xia are both beauties. You can do whatever you want with them. Just don’t kill them,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen knew how difficult it was to nurture two Supreme Saints into the Banshi Isshou Realm. They weren’t comparable to the Supreme Saint slaves that she had controlled with her dream world.

He had never thought Bai Qing’er would abandon them like they were nothing.

Or...

Was she faking it?

Bai Qing’er seemed to have seen through Zhang Ruochen’s thoughts and said, “The children I raised have grown wings. Sooner or later, they will fly away from me. Besides that, Shang Xia’s heart is no longer with me. She has long fallen in love with men. As for Shang Yue... Her temperament is a little poorer. Since you captured her, she most likely failed to beat you in a fight. Has she submitted to you yet?”

“Teacher Shangguan said that the hardest thing in the world is not to fight with people but to educate them.”

“I agree with that.”

“There are times when even a god can be killed. But it’s harder to carve out a person’s temperament or influence people’s nature than to kill gods. There is no answer to what is good or evil, nor right and wrong.”

“Zhang Ruochen, it is good that they are with you. I have started to understand a lot about you, and I think that your heart is softer than mine, so you will probably treat them well.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “You have said too much today.”

“Because too few people are qualified to talk to me face to face! There are some things that I want to say to others, but there are none qualified to listen. In the end, I can only tell it to them.” Bai Qing’er looked over at the six pots of orchids.

It was evident that Bai Qing’er had recognized Zhang Ruochen’s strength and no longer looked down on him like before.

The strength here did not only refer to cultivation and talent but also included temperament, spirit, and wisdom.

Zhang Ruochen said, “But why do I feel like you are telling me your last words?”

“The road to the Fane of Origin is a dead end, and I must walk through it to survive. Is there anyone that can see the future clearly? What if I don’t survive through this.”

A hint of sadness appeared in Bai Qing’er’s startling eyes, but it quickly disappeared.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Aren’t you always very confident?”

“Only those with less confidence can appear confident to others. To tell you the truth, I don’t have any confidence in reaching the heights of Xue Jue and Huang Tian,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes had a peculiar expression in them. He hadn’t expected Bai Qing’er to say such a thing.

Was this the real her?

As expected, only through closer acquaintance could one understand a person. Otherwise, what one sees might only be the surface.

“Creating this chaotic situation is like dancing on the tip of a knife. If I’m not careful, I’ll be crushed into pieces. But I have to be confident and keep telling myself that I have to be confident. There’s a saying that says a man can conquer nature, right? Compared to dying, I am even more unwilling to be a submissive and mediocre person. As if to be controlled by someone, I would rather control their life and death. Even if a deity stands before me, I must move forward without turning back.”

Gradually, the sadness and melancholy on Bai Qing'er's body disappeared. Instead, her spirits rose like a rusty sword piercing through the heavens, and she said coldly, “Since you are already here, please come in!”

Her voice traveled out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and into the vast universe.

Bai Qing'er walked out of the Hall of Cultivation and went to the main hall of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Zhang Ruochen's Heart of Truth also sensed it. With a puzzled look in his eyes, he quickly followed her out.

“What happened, brother Ruochen? has the army of the Fane of Destiny finally come?” Gong Nanfeng asked happily.

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to pay attention to him, but he thought of something and quickly stopped him. He said with concern, “It's not the army of the Fane of Destiny, but the person who came is no weak being. Once a battle breaks out, the aftermath of the battle will make you die without anything left for burial.”

“Then what should we do?” Gong Nanfeng was shocked.

“Don't panic. I'll take care of everything.”

Zhang Ruochen took out the Violet Gourd and said, “This is the Supreme Artifact, and you'll go in first. I'll protect you.”

“Good! Brother Ruochen, you are indeed very honorable and righteous. I could never repay your kindness!” Gong Nanfeng's eyes were red, and he was almost moved to tears.

After putting Gong Nanfeng into the Violet Gourd, Zhang Ruochen entered the main hall.

He saw Fei Zhong standing on the right side of Bai Qing'er with a battle ax in his hand. His eyes were shining brightly as he looked straight in the direction of the palace gate.

Outside the palace gate, it was pitch-black and deep like an endless void.

Thud!

A deep sound rang out, and the Sevenstar Imperial Palace shook slightly.

Thud!

Thud!

...

The Sevenstar Imperial Palace shook continuously as the sound became clearer and louder.

Outside the palace gate, an ancient figure walked up the stairs with a wooden staff in her hand. She staggered towards the main hall with her hunched over and bent body all dressed in red.

Every time the wooden staff touched the ground, spherical spatial ripples would appear, causing the hall to shake.

Zhang Ruochen called out softly, "Granny," he said.

It was Granny Begonia.

She was a seven-colored Begonia and also the guardian of the Sword Pavilion.

When Zhang Ruochen had entered the Sword Pavilion to learn the sword and comprehend the Wordless Sword Manual, Granny Begonia had taught him for nine days and nine nights. She was an important guide for Zhang Ruochen in his cultivation process.

In the main hall, the fragrance of flowers floated and formed the shadows of petals.

Granny Begonia smiled at Zhang Ruochen with a kind and wrinkled face.

Bai Qing'er can see that Granny Begonia was not someone ordinary and said, "You dare to break into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace as a lone Begonia?"

“The Sevenstar Imperial Palace is the palace of the younger generation in my family. Why would I not dare to enter it?”
Granny Begonia coughed twice.

Bai Qing'er said, “Then, are you here as a guest?”

“I guess so!”

“Since you're here as a guest, why do you need to bring a helper?”

Bai Qing'er's gaze was fixed on something outside the palace.

She saw a tall and straight man in white standing there with a stone sword in his hand. His long hair fluttered around even without wind. He was a Xue Lingxian in the form of a human, not of a human head with a snake body.

He was just standing there, with an ancient aura pouring from his body.

Both of his silver eyes were like two piercing divine swords. Fei Zhong only had to exchange a glance with him, and he felt a piercing pain in his eyes as if his head was about to be torn apart.

“Why are there so many terrifying elites suddenly appearing? Each one of them defies the laws of nature under the sky.” Fei Zhong felt helpless inside. He only thought that this trip to the Infernal Court had been a great blow to him.

As the most influential figure of the Dwarfs, he was like a king descended from heaven wherever he went and was worshiped by all living beings. He rarely met a cultivator who could defeat him.

However, he could not defeat any of the cultivators he had met in the past few days. All of his arrogance had been completely wiped out.

Xue Lingxian's gaze fell on Zhang Ruochen, and he said.

Now that the person he was waiting for had arrived, Zhang Ruochen could not be bothered to pretend anymore and replied, “She's my enemy, a very powerful enemy.”

The reason why he emphasized the word “powerful” was to remind Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia so that they would not underestimate Bai Qing’er’s strength.

Fei Zhong was surprised. Apparently, he did not expect that Zhang Ruochen, who had always said he would marry Bai Qing’er, would suddenly reveal his true colors.

However, Bai Qing’er was calm and collected, “It’s good that you could admit this. I like you more when you’re open and honest. You seem fake when you pretend to be humble. It is so fake that I can see through it with just a glance, so it’s very annoying.”

“Really? In the future... If there’s a future, I’ll try to be more real in front of you. Otherwise, you might look down on me!” Zhang Ruochen laughed.

Bai Qing’er said, “Since we are enemies, there is no need to say anything more. The two elders of Kunlun are here. Finally, it seems that someone has stood up for you. How about we end this today?”

Her words were sarcastic and mocking. It was in the usual style of that woman.

However, Zhang Ruochen did not seem to understand it and said, “Although you have tried to kill me many times, in the end, I was the one who ruined your work first. It’s a win-win situation for both of us. I’m still alive and well, so I don’t want to have a deeper enmity with you. If possible, I would hope to turn our hostility into friendship.”

No one wanted to be enemies with a Yuanhui level genius, especially when the hatred was not deep yet.

For example, many forces who had a deep enmity with Zhang Ruochen intended to resolve their hatred after Zhang Ruochen integrated with sixth-grade Saintwill.

At that time, Zhang Ruochen had not yet reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He was even ranked very low on the Divine Ascension Ranking. The Zhang Ruochen at that time could not be compared to the Bai Qing’er now.

No one wanted to be her enemy.

Bai Qing'er said, "I'm afraid it won't be that easy to turn hostility into friendship. Don't you want to take back the Tensho Compass and the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?"

"Of course, I want to take them back. Moreover, you have to let my teacher go," Zhang Ruochen said.

Bai Qing'er said, "You caused me to lose hundreds of thousands of Godstones in the Divine Domain of Destiny and killed many of my subordinates. How should I settle this score? Also, shouldn't you tell me where the Seven-Armed Elder is?"

"Why are you haggling over every little thing?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Bai Qing'er said, "Give me the Tensho Compass and the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. Also, help me keep my secret and promise to do one thing for me. Then, I won't haggle over every little matter, and I can forgive everything."

Hearing the words "Tensho Compass," Granny Begonia and Xue Lingxian were emotionally moved and looked at each other.

Xue Lingxian walked into the hall. Holding the stone sword with both hands, he tapped the ground and said, “We can discuss all the conditions, but I need to take the Tensho Compass with me.”

The people in the hall remained calm, but the atmosphere became tense.

With Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er as the leaders, they formed two sides facing the other.

Bai Qing'er stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, “Can he decide for you?”

Zhang Ruochen shrugged, smiled, and said, “The elders in the sect are strong. In addition, they are quite elderly. It's inevitable for their temper to be bad. After sleeping for 100,000 years, their hostility is also naturally stronger. However, since the senior has spoken, wouldn't I be disrespecting him if I don't support him?”

Xue Lingxian looked very young.

However, Zhang Ruochen was the current leader of the Sect of the Blood God, while Xue Lingxian was the top disciple of the Blood God and the first divine son of the Blood God sect. Naturally, he could be considered a senior in the sect.

Looking at Xue Lingxian's attitude, Zhang Ruochen confirmed his guess.

He and Granny Begonia had come to the Infernal Court to seize the Tensho Compass. It was likely that it had something to do with rescuing the Lord of Nephilim Island. Otherwise, Xue Lingxian would not show such a need to take the Tensho Compass.

Whoever takes ownership of the Tensho Compass would become the most challenging part of the negotiation.

Fei Zhong felt uneasy, and he quietly retreated to a spot in the corner.

...

Bai Qing'er weighed the pros and cons in her heart, "I can give you the Tensho Compass, but it's still a Divine Artifact. What will you exchange with me? I heard that Kunlun has ten Divine Artifacts. You can exchange either one of them with me."

Granny Begonia said, "How can the Divine Artifacts of Kunlun be lost to the outside world? Besides, we don't control the ten Divine Artifacts. You can choose another condition!"

"Divine Artifacts are priceless. We can only exchange them for the same. This is the biggest concession I've made! If we can't negotiate, then let's fight. To be honest, the both of you can't do anything to me."

Bai Qing'er had never been a weak person.

Moreover, she doesn't exclude using fighting as a method to solve problems. It was the most effective and direct method.

Whoever had the more considerable might would be in charge.

Xue Lingxian didn't want to say anything more and was the most direct. He slashed out with the stone sword in his hand.

This sword was as fast as lightning and pierced through space and time.

Whoosh

The sword cut through the air.

Bai Qing'er appeared behind the Xue Lingxian at the palace gate.

Due to her speed, Fei Zhong could not see what had happened with his cultivation. He only knew that the Xue Lingxian seemed to have attacked. He did not see how Bai Qing'er managed to avoid it.

Fei Zhong was extremely shocked. As a Supreme Saint of the Paramount Realm, was he worthy of the word "Paramount"?

However, after thinking about it, he realized that he was already one of the strongest among the Supreme Saints of the Paramount Realm.

Xue Lingxian certainly knew that Bai Qing'er was standing behind him. His gaze was very calm as he said, "You are the strongest cultivator I have seen who has cultivated the Path of Flowing Light under divinity, including the Middle Ages period."

"Is that so? That sword of yours still had some tricks up its sleeve. Kunlun is indeed worthy of being the eternal world that will never perish. It is also worthy of being the starting fuse of war between the Celestial and Infernal Court at the end of the Middle Ages. Even though it is dead, it is still not yet vanquished," Bai Qing'er said.

Zhang Ruochen's face was a little hard to look at. Before this, Bai Qing'er had never revealed the Path of Flowing Light.

If she had used the Path of Flowing Light, it would have been extremely difficult for Zhang Ruochen to escape from her even if he was 30 miles away.

It was not unusual for Bai Qing'er to avoid using the Path of Flowing Light.

First of all, with her cultivation and strength, she did not need to go all out to kill Zhang Ruochen.

Second, with the presence of the Intergold Tiger, even if she caught up with Zhang Ruochen, could she really kill him?

Since she knew that Zhang Ruochen had another purpose for staying by her side and she could not kill him, there was no need for her to reveal her trump card.

This was a woman that Zhang Ruochen could not see through even though how hard he tried!

Xue Lingxian asked, “Who are you?”

To be asked this question by Xue Lingxian, it was obvious that Bai Qing’er had become of utmost importance in his heart.

“Bai Qing’er, the daughter of Empress Bai and ruler of the Enchanter Chamber,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“The Enchanter Chamber can’t raise such a proud and arrogant daughter. She must have a deeper background.”

When Granny Begonia said this, she had already activated her spiritual power. Stalks of Begonia flowers formed into an endless sea of flowers, filling the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and the vast space outside.

The fragrance of the flowers assailed her nose, but it carried a hidden killing intent underneath.

Every cultivator would be under Granny Begonia’s control in this sea of flowers.

Activating her spiritual power was to suppress Bai Qing’er’s Path of Flowing Light.

Bai Qing’er looked at Granny Begonia in surprise, and her body was not affected at all. She strolled leisurely in the sea of flowers and said, “I found something very interesting. Now, there are three cultivators from Kunlun in front of me. However, you all come from three different eras. Your ages are at least 100,000 years different from each other, right?”

“Why is it so strange? Could it be that the previous superiors of Kunlun knew that there was a catastrophe in the Middle Ages, so they hid the top talents of each era and let them wake up in this era? Oh, I remember now. Saint Monk Xumi is the Master of Time and Space and is also known as the Buddha of Future. How could he not see the future?”

It was no wonder that Bai Qing’er had such doubts.

It must be known that very few cultivators in the world could withstand a single blow from Bai Qing’er without dying.

Even fewer cultivators could catch her attention.

However, the three cultivators from Kunlun in front of her had reached a level that she had to take seriously. How could a macroworld on the verge of destruction have such power?

It was impossible.

Even by selecting one out of the four major worlds of the Celestial Court, it could not muster such a grand lineup by itself.

However, it would make sense if this macroworld were once the most powerful in the universe and had preserved the best talents of each era.

Saint Monk Xumi, known as the Buddha of Future, could not have been unaware of the calamity that would befall Kunlun. Even if there were only a chance of it happening, he would have made some preparations in advance to leave a seed for the rise of Kunlun in the future.

People like Xue Lingxian were the seeds for the rise of Kunlun again.

Zhang Ruochen knew that many monks in Kunlun had fallen into various deep periods of sleep that could resist the passage of time and the catastrophe of the Yuanhui Tribulations. However, he did not expect Bai Qing'er to be so intelligent that she could see the big picture with a little clue and work it out herself.

As expected, geniuses who could reach the Yuanhui level must be at the peak of intelligence and martial arts.

Bai Qing'er didn't seem to see the expression in the eyes of Zhang Ruochen, Granny Begonia, and Xue Lingxian. She was still pondering something and said, "As far as I know, the gods of Kunlun didn't die completely in the war of gods that happened at the end of the Middle Ages."

"The daughter of Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations, Princess Shenba, married to TrueGod Xuanyi of the Heavenly Realm."

“The Lord of Nephilim Island, known as the Grand Supreme Master of Arrays, was imprisoned in the Fane of Destiny.”

“There are rumors that the Hoth Emperor once let go of a powerful figure in Kunlun. That powerful figure is most likely still alive.”

“The eldest disciple of Saint Monk Xumi was named Master Fangcun, who was pursued by Asurendra Barasingha 100,000 years ago and fled to the Searock Bastion. He might not have died over there.”

“It is said that Chi Xingtian, the lord of Bluelynx from the Fane of Ninelynx, was beheaded but did not die. His head was refined into the Xingtian Pot by the Nether Hall, and his body turned into a giant demon without reason and thought. Later, he was subdued by the Master of The Rāhu Mountains and became a general demon guardian.”

“It is said that the master of the Avīci Pavilion was once an unmatched figure in Kunlun.”

...

“If these gods who once shook the world could return to Kunlun, then it would instantly become a powerful world. Those geniuses left behind from various eras would definitely break through and achieve divinity with their protection. By then, even if Kunlun’s strength is not in the top 10 of the Celestial Court ten thousand, it would still be very easy to enter the top 100 and top 50.”

Bai Qing’er smiled and said, “Compared to deities, our scheme is on a far smaller scale! Even if Kunlun was already beyond redemption, it is still like a skinny camel with an unimaginable heritage and knowledge.”

“Let me think about it carefully. The purpose of you taking the Tensho Compass is to find the Fane of Origin and pave the way for the rise of Kunlun? Could it be to find the Xingtian Pot and awaken Chi Xingtian’s memory? Or... wait, I know I have understood your goal. You must be doing it for a certain person. Only when he escapes can he hold up the entire Kunlun like a stabilizing force. When that happens, the gods of the Infernal Court will be terrified.”

Xue Lingxian’s palm wrapped around the stone sword. Killing intent surged from his body.

In the hall, Swordwill condensed into a solid form and turned into thousands of shadow swords.

“She must die today,” he said.

Zhang Ruochen understood that they had an irreconcilable conflict with Bai Qing’er.

Bai Qing’er will never give away a Divine Artifact, but they had to take the Tensho Compass.

Moreover, Bai Qing’er seemed to have seen through some of the secrets of Kunlun, so there’s even less chance they would spare her life. There was no right or wrong in the world, just different viewpoints from everyone.

Zhang Ruochen had been prepared to advance and retreat together with Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia. He held the Ugyen Cudgel in one hand and the Zangshan Demonic Mirror in the other. Dense Intergold Precept Marks appeared all over his body, and a divine shadow of a tiger could be seen behind him.

Xue Lingxian said, “It’s hard for me to find an opponent. I want a fair fight with her.”

“Will our victory determine whoever owns the Tensho Compass?” Bai Qing’er asked.

Zhang Ruochen was afraid that Xue Lingxian would agree, and he hurriedly said, “Elderly senior, how can there be fairness in this world? When Miss Bai took the Tensho Compass from me with her cultivation of the Paramount Realm, she didn’t think about whether it was fair. So you can’t represent our will.”

“Kunlun must obtain the Tensho Compass by all means.” Granny Begonia also expressed her stance.

Xue Lingxian was displeased that Zhang Ruochen kept referring to him as “Elderly senior.” However, a big battle was imminent, so he didn't react and said, "I only represent myself."

"That's fine," Bai Qing'er said.

She turned around, flew out of the hall, and pointed to the void.

Whoosh

A 30-meter-long Dimensional Rift appeared, splitting apart with a violent suction force.

"This place is not far from the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt. Let's enter the void space and fight."

She flew in first.

Xue Lingxian turned into a streak of silver light and followed closely.

Only Zhang Ruochen, Fei Zhong, and Granny Begonia were left in the hall.

Fei Zhong saw that both Zhang Ruochen and Granny Begonia were staring at him. His heart tightened, and he immediately knelt on one knee, saying, "From now on, I am a cultivator of Kunlun."

After experiencing Bai Qing'er's dream world, Fei Zhong's spiritual will was destroyed. There was no possibility of him achieving divinity in this lifetime.

Granny Begonia snorted lightly. Dense begonia petals flew over and wrapped all around Fei Zhong.

"You guys... you guys... AHH"

Boom

With Fei Zhong's blood-curdling scream, the flower petals exploded.

Bloody mist flew from the petals.

Fei Zhong's body was nowhere to be found.

This was a spiritual power attack launched by Granny Begonia. Even an elite like Fei Zhong could not resist her spiritual power world.

“Ruochen, the empress must have told you about rescuing the Grand Supreme Master. The Tensho Compass is a treasure we must use. Only with it can we find the exact location of the Grand Supreme Master,” Granny Begonia said.

Zhang Ruochen looked outside the palace gate. He was worried about the battle between Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er. “I understand,” he said.

“You can't blame your father for what happened in the past. Even if your mother had told you about some things, don't believe it completely. There are some things that she doesn't know the truth about. In this era, everyone has their own difficulties. They can't help themselves,” said Granny Begonia.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes flashed with surprise. “Granny, do you know what happened back then?”

“Retrieve the Tensho Compass first. Now that you've grown up, you can take care of yourself. I'll tell you everything I know,” said Granny Begonia meaningfully.

Granny Begonia thought that Zhang Ruochen had joined the Infernal Court because of the influence of the Blood Empress. In order to win back Zhang Ruochen's heart and bring him back to Kunlun, she planned to tell him the truth.

Just as Zhang Ruochen and Granny Begonia walked out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, a cloud of fire flew over from the horizon.

In the cloud of fire, a giant owl flew. It roared from afar, “Who are you, mysterious cultivator? Where is Zhang Ruochen's corpse?”

Zhang Ruochen was stunned. Has Blackie been blinded?

Did he not recognize him?

Flying closer, Blackie slowed down and said softly, “Hey! It looks like a dog from afar, but it's actually Zhang Ruochen up close.”

Zhang Ruochen's forehead was covered in black lines.

There is no need to curse someone like that, right?

Not far away, Huang Tian, who was initially lying on the ground, stood up and distanced himself from Zhang Ruochen. He didn't want to block Blackie's line of sight.

Blackie didn't put away the Eternal Fire on his body after he saw Zhang Ruochen. Instead, he became even more aggressive. He summoned the Grand Formation of Armageddon, which caused multiple weapons to swirl around him.

"Don't think that you can hide from me by changing into Zhang Ruochen's appearance. Hand over Zhang Ruochen's body now,"

Zhang Ruochen did not want to mess with it. He was eager to enter the void space, so he released the Precepts of Dimension and used the dimensional method to tear open a Dimensional Gate.

"You want to prove that you are Zhang Ruochen by practicing the Path of Dimension? Haha, I've never seen such a ridiculous thing. Do you take me for an idiot?" Blackie sneered.

After constant persuasions and with Granny Begonia's testimony, Blackie's doubts were finally dispelled. He confirmed that Zhang Ruochen was not someone else.

The Arrow of Deva Path did not manage to kill him.

Blackie laughed and confessed that he was overjoyed to see Zhang Ruochen still alive. He had forgotten entirely about what he had said earlier: "It looks like a dog from afar, but it's actually Zhang Ruochen up close" and the self-proclaimed "Idiot."

Hearing that the Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er had entered the void space for a decisive battle, Blackie was delighted. It was the first to break through the space and enter, prepared to watch the show.

Zhang Ruochen held up the Spatial Domain to resist the erosion of the power in the void space.

Back then, he had entered the void space when he had just attained Saint Kinghood. With the Spatial Domain, he could barely resist it for a moment. Now, his cultivation is more than 100 times that of back then. Even in the void space, he could now move with ease.

Of course, he couldn't stay for too long. Half a day was his limit, and he could only do it without encountering any storms in the void.

There were endless dangers in the void space. Even deities would not dare to stay for too long. If they were careless, they would be swallowed by the void space.

Zhang Ruochen pushed the Path of Truth to the limit. Only then could he clearly see the battle between Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er.

It was a shocking battle. Although there were only two of them, the impact was comparable to the battle between the top ten forces of Darkness and dozens of Paramount Realm Supreme Saints from the Fane of Destiny previously on Hoth.

Bai Qing'er was forced to reveal her true strength by Xue Lingxian. She couldn't maintain her "Ji Fanxin" appearance and had to revert to her original appearance.

Her alluring appearance, which could cause chaos among all living things, was enough to make any man who fought with her feel unbearable, and he would not be able to display his full strength. However, Xue Lingxian was not affected at all. The stone sword in his hand, the 'Wordless Sword Manual,' was bristling with power as if it was ready to tear Bai Qing'er into pieces.

Xue Lingxian stood in the center of the void. Countless Sword Qi flew together like tens of thousands of swords, transforming into a vortex-shaped sword nest.

Bai Qing'er ignored the Sword Qi in the sky. Using the Path of Flowing Light, she turned into streaks of shooting stars and flew quickly through the sword nest while firing off earth-shattering attacks.

Even the power of Oblivion couldn't dispel the aftermath of their battle. It spread nearby to Zhang Ruochen and was blocked by Granny Begonia's spiritual power.

Blackie kept muttering, "I knew that demoness Bai was powerful. But I didn't expect her to be so powerful. Unfortunately, there's still a big gap between her and the former Empress."

"Back then, Xue Lingxian wanted to challenge the Empress by practicing the Neverwither physique of the Undying Blood Silkworm. Instead, he was beaten to the ground by the Empress in seven moves."

“However, the Xue Lingxian now seems to be a little stronger than before.”

...

Although Zhang Ruochen had help from the Path of Truth, his cultivation was still too low. He couldn't see how many Precepts Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er had practiced. He could only see that the Precepts had turned into a sea of Precepts which forcefully opened up a small world in the void.

The battle continued for an hour but didn't end and became more intense. The two in the Sea of Precepts have nearly used all of their skills.

What higher knowledge that other Supreme Saints of the Paramount Realm wouldn't be able to cultivate successfully in their entire lives was used with ease by them both. As for how far they had cultivated their skills, it was unknown.

Xue Lingxian had once entered divinity and peered into the mysteries contained within. It was understandable that he could cultivate the higher knowledge.

As for Bai Qing'er, she was young but proficient in all kinds of divine abilities and higher knowledge. It had to be said that she was indeed overwhelmingly talented. Perhaps there was still a gap between her and a genius of a Yuanhui Tribulation. Still, compared with this Yuanhui-level figure, she would definitely be at the forefront in the future.

In the beginning, Blackie could still comment jokingly, but the two of them used all kinds of trump cards and tricks and fully displayed the world's mysteries. Both could use Swordsmanship, the Path of Flowing Light, and the Path of Origin to perfection and beyond, and Blackie's expression became increasingly unsightly.

After Bai Qing'er summoned the bronze chime and formed the “Echoes of Heaven Formation,” Blackie was even more struck speechless.

Blackie had always boasted that it was invincible in the world, that it could sweep everything under divinity, and that it couldn't be surpassed in the Path of Array. But now, it was being outdone everywhere.

It only felt that the heavens were unfair and only loved the Bai family's daughter.

Zhang Ruochen could not help but look at Blackie.

“What's there to look at? The Grand Formation of Armageddon I refined may not even be weaker than her Array. But...” Blackie seemed to speak without confidence, “Her set of bronze chimes is a little strange. It doesn't seem like an ordinary item. That thing is similar to a legendary world-destroying artifact.”

Granny Begonia said, “The moment the bell rings, the world will fall into chaos. If the bell rings nine times, then the gods will fall. At ninety-nine chimes from the bell, the world will be destroyed. During the Hadean period, there was an elite who had the power to suppress the heavens. He held a set of bronze chimes and played a world-destroying composition that destroyed a long-standing eternal macroworld. Although I don't know if that is true, the legend of the Doomsday bell has been passed down to this day.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Her set of bronze chimes should not be the doomsday weapon in the legend.”

To be able to destroy an eternal macroworld, the set of bronze chimes was definitely a Divine Artifact. It should be one of the top Divine Artifacts on the Record of Taibai Divine Artifact.

However, Zhang Ruochen was able to break a corner of the Array formed by the bronze chime and save Xing Luo and the others. From this, could it be inferred that Bai Qing'er's set could not be a Divine Artifact?

Blackie clenched its claws and grinned, saying, “Xue Lingxian was too careless. He was trapped in the Array by Witch Bai and is doomed to lose. Now, it's our turn to act. After we suppress Witch Bai, the bronze chime will be returned to me. Let them take the Tensho Compass, and the person belongs to you, Zhang Ruochen, since you'll like it.”

Before they even began to fight, they had already started to divide the spoils.

“There’s no need to rush! Xue Lingxian took the initiative to fight with Bai Qing’er. If we attack halfway, he will blame us for being meddlesome,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie snorted and said, “Xue Lingxian’s character is indeed like this. When he was beaten down by the Empress, someone went to help him but was punched by him while he claimed that he could stand up by himself. He was just pretending to be strong. Instead of getting up, I don’t know how long he had lied on the ground for.”

After looking at it for a while, Blackie stared at the sixty-five bronze chimes. His eyes were rolling rapidly, and he was highly anxious. “Witch Bai is already an Archsaint Array Master. Once you are trapped in her array, it is impossible to break out of it. Only attacks from the outside can we break the array. If we don’t act now, Xue Lingxian will be refined to death in the array. What should we do?”

“Wait a little longer,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Her array is indeed powerful. Almost no one under divinity can break it from the inside,” said Granny Begonia. “However, to control such a big array on your own consumes a lot of spiritual power and Saint Qi. Once she is weakened by Xue Lingxian’s constant resistance, it’s time to counterattack.”

“In other words, let’s see if Bai Qing’er can kill Xue Lingxian in the array before her spiritual power and Saint Qi runs out,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Granny Begonia said, “She doesn’t need to be exhausted. As long as she is weakened to a certain extent, she won’t be able to control the operation of the array anymore—”

Granny Begonia unconsciously looked in a specific direction of the void space as if she had sensed something.

...

Surrounded by sixty-five bronze chimes, Xue Lingxian was greatly suppressed in the array.

Deafening earth-shaking sounds continuously bombarded his body.

The stone sword in his hand, the Wordless Sword Manual, rapidly transformed into the size of a mountain's peak. Dense golden characters appeared all over it. Following that, the golden characters fell off and turned into small golden swords, forming an impregnable Sword Domain that resisted against the array.

The Wordless Sword Manual wasn't a Divine Artifact, but it had some mysteries to which even a Divine Artifact couldn't compare.

It was both a book and a sword.

It was the origin of Swordsmanship in Kunlun and had influenced countless macroworlds.

...

Zhang Ruochen sighed inwardly, "Even if Xue Lingxian has never entered divinity, he can still be called a figure at the Yuanhui Tribulation. After achieving divinity, his experience and comprehension are enough to make him stronger than any Yuanhui-level figure. No wonder he was able to kill the former Scioness of the Fane of Destiny with one strike."

After falling into the Echoes of Heaven Formation, Xing Luo had no way to fight back. He could only choose to self-detonate his Sainthood Source and hope for mutual destruction.

However, Xue Lingxian, who wielded the Wordless Sword Manual, was able to use it against the Echoes of Heaven Formation.

The difference between the two was evident.

Of course, the Wordless Sword Manual was also stronger than the Ominous Blade and the Divine Ghost Mask.

Granny Begonia said, "Ruochen, come to my side. If anything happens later, you must not stand out. Leave everything to Granny."

"Why does Granny look so grave?"

Zhang Ruochen had been attracted by the skills shown in the battle between Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er. At this moment, he followed Granny Begonia's gaze and looked into the endless void.

But he didn't notice anything. The void was entirely calm.

Something was wrong.

Zhang Ruochen's Heart of Truth had a bad feeling. There was great danger lurking in the empty void. It was like staring into the abyss and being stared back at without any way to escape.

Zhang Ruochen's back was wet with cold sweat. He quickly looked away and transmitted his voice to Granny Begonia. "Someone is hiding in the dark. I don't know if it's an enemy or a friend."

"It must be an enemy! A friend would have already shown themselves," Granny Begonia replied.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It must be a top elite. Otherwise, there is no way it can hide from my senses."

"No need to guess; it is a deity. There is a rotten and cold aura around it, so it must be a deity from the Infernal Court."

Granny Begonia's spiritual power was much stronger than Zhang Ruochen's, so her perception was naturally stronger.

"This is bad. Things are not looking so good."

Zhang Ruochen's heart sank.

If the deities from the Infernal Court discovered that he was close to Kunlun's cultivators. It will be like he had been caught red-handed.

Who would have thought that Bai Qing'er had caused so much trouble that even the deities had been provoked?

Granny Begonia said, "Since I could sense it, that means that it's not a True God, but a pseudo god instead. He didn't attack immediately, which means that he's waiting for Bai Qing'er and Xue Lingxian to exhaust each other. It would be best if both sides were heavily injured and then killed in one fell swoop."

Zhang Ruochen had seen a pseudo god attack. It was exceptionally strong and not something a Saint-level cultivator could fight against.

Not every cultivator was the Empress of Thousand Bones, who could kill saint-level gods. The ones she killed were, of course, pseudo gods.

It was impossible for any cultivator to kill a saint-level TrueGod. Even the weakest TrueGod was at least ten times when stronger compared to a pseudo god.

At the saint level, only representatives of the Yuanhui Tribulation could fight hand to hand with pseudo gods. Of course, they could only spar and exchange blows. They would have to run for their lives if they really met them in battle.

This was because even representatives of the Yuanhui Tribulation who had power comparable to a star couldn't continuously burst out that power. Their Paramount physiques couldn't withstand such a powerful force.

If they fought for a long time, they would definitely die.

Only the divine physiques of pseudo gods could withstand it.

Moreover, there were also differences in strength between the pseudo gods.

If they encountered the strong among the pseudo god, even Xue Jue, Huang Tian, and the Empress of Thousand Bones would choose to retreat.

The elites among the pseudo gods could fight against several pseudo gods.

It was like how mortals with similar strength could fight against several or even ten others after they mastered combat techniques.

"Once the pseudo god makes his move, Ruochen, leave the void space immediately. Run as far as you can and leave it to us," Granny Begonia said with concern.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Is there a way to kill the pseudo god?"

Granny Begonia was shocked. She didn't expect Zhang Ruochen to have such a crazy idea and said, "The pseudo god is not worth comparing to a TrueGod. But to us, it's as unshakable as Mount Gushen. Perhaps only Xue Lingxian could fight against it. It's impossible to kill a pseudo god."

"Didn't the Empress once kill a pseudo god?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Granny Begonia said, "The Empress's grandfather is the Supreme Array Master. He has so many trump cards. Who in the world can compete with him? Even so, the Empress killed the pseudo god but lost her Void Sword. Besides, the Empress was able to defeat Xue Lingxian in seven moves. Her combat strength is exceedingly powerful. Which of us here can compare to that?"

Zhang Ruochen was silent and thought hard about countermeasures to deal with the situation.

The Wargod Belt obviously couldn't be used, so must he just be resigned to his fate?

No!

There must be a way.

Although the Empress was strong, she was only one person. It was difficult for her to fight alone.

Bai Qing'er and the Xue Lingxian, who were still fighting, obviously noticed something was amiss. They didn't fight as fiercely as before. Instead, they took out Godstones to recover a large amount of their lost Saint Qi.

"Haha!"

A peal of gloomy laughter came from within the void space.

The laughter seemed to come from directly inside their minds.

A divine cloud of death Qi appeared in the void space and flew in the direction of the sixty-five bronze chimes.

Within the cloud stood a gaunt figure with a white bone crown on top of his head and two big flags on his back. His face was malevolent and terrible, and he smiled, "I'm only here to take the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. I didn't expect to find it by accident. Who would have thought that a little girl from the Enchanter Chamber could have such cultivation and combat strength? Also, who would have guessed the grandson of Wargod Bloodximus was still so close to the cultivators of Kunlun?"

Granny Begonia signaled Zhang Ruochen to run away immediately.

Zhang Ruochen did not run away. Instead, he showed incredible courage and flew toward the pseudo god, saying, "The pseudo god of the Fane of Death, Mo Yunduan. As a deity, aren't you afraid of getting yourself killed if you interfere with the secular world?"

He wanted to buy time for the Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er to recover their Saint Qi.

After all, they were now all in the same boat. Bai Qing'er should know how serious the consequences would be if her identity was exposed. Only by joining hands with Bai Qing'er could they possibly have a chance to slay the god.

"Zhang Ruochen, you're the one who should be worried about getting killed."

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen dared to take the initiative to go ahead, Mo Yunduan was slightly shocked. He thought secretly about whatever trump card the enemy might have. Suddenly, he thought of the Intergold Tiger and felt uneasy.

How mighty could the Intergold Tiger be that it could let a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint like Zhang Ruochen dare to challenge a god?

Mo Yunduan's divine power was magnificent, like a shining star.

Even if the star only flashed for a moment, it had the power to destroy the world and turn everything into ashes.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Armor of the Fire God to resist the impact of the divine power from Mo Yunduan's body.

Under the immense pressure, he pretended to be calm and did not retreat.

Mo Yunduan was shocked and confused. His tone softened, and he said, "Zhang Ruochen, you are the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius. You will likely be the successor of the Xue Jue family in the future. You are also favored by Fukurokuju. You have a bright future ahead of you. Why do you want to tangle with the remnants of Kunlun? Listen to my advice and leave immediately. Draw a clear line with them. I will pretend that I did not see anything."

Zhang Ruochen knew that humans were greedy. He also knew that he had a grudge against the Fane of Death. They would never let him leave.

It was obvious that Mo Yunduan was afraid of the Intergold Tiger and was testing him.

If he really left immediately, it would prove that he was guilty. The Intergold Tiger wouldn't be able to use much power. At that time, Mo Yunduan would definitely attack and kill him.

After all, everyone knew that Zhang Ruochen had countless treasures.

Killing Zhang Ruochen was more rewarding than killing a true God.

Even if Mo Yunduan wanted to let Zhang Ruochen leave because he was afraid of the Intergold Tiger, he would report today's matter to the Fane of Destiny, making it impossible for Zhang Ruochen to survive in the Infernal Court.

After thinking through all this, a smile appeared on Zhang Ruochen's face. He said, "I was born in Kunlun and just happened to meet two elders. Can't I catch up with them? I'm open and honest. Even if you spread this matter, what can you do to me? To be honest, I don't think much of you, a mere pseudo god."

Boom

Mo Yunduan's eyes darkened, and he released his divine spirits.

The divine clouds around his body let out an earth-shaking explosion, and his divine power swept out.

How dare he!

A mere Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint dared to speak like this in front of a god.

Disrespecting a god was to die.

In Zhang Ruochen's vision, the divine power containing the aura of death came like a massive wave in the divine sea. In front of this huge wave, he was like duckweed on the water's surface. In an instant, he was about to be crushed into pieces.

"Flowers bloom."

Granny Begonia silently appeared beside Zhang Ruochen.

A seven-colored begonia flower bloomed in her body. It was brilliant and crimson, blocking the surging divine power.

However, cracks appeared on Granny Begonia's old face. Her body was like glass and was about to shatter.

Mo Yunduan didn't really use his absolute power. It was just a tentative attack.

After the divine power hit, the wounds on Granny Begonia's face gradually healed and returned to normal. She was as calm as a rock and withered as pine from the beginning to the end.

ROAR!

A tiger's roar sounded.

Zhang Ruochen's body shone with golden light. Dense Intergold Precept Marks rushed out.

Within the patterns, the shadow of a tiger was faintly discernible. It released an incredible divine power. With one breath, it could turn into a golden river of divine qi.

Mo Yunduan's eyelids twitched slightly. His expression became extremely grave. "Great Intergold Tiger, Zhang Ruochen is suspected of betraying the Infernal Court. Are you going to stand on his side and harm the interests of the Infernal Court?"

"I'm not a cultivator from the Infernal Court. What do the interests of the Infernal Court have to do with me? But Zhang Ruochen is my guide. Don't even think about touching him." The Intergold Tiger was mighty. His voice echoed in the void.

Mo Yunduan's face was unpredictable. He thought carefully about the stakes in hand.

Any pseudo god would feel tremendous pressure when facing a true God.

Once he made a wrong decision, the result could be deadly.

After a while, Mo Yunduan smiled. "The Great Intergold Tiger has a deep relationship with Great Emperor Fengdu and Fukurokuju. How can you not be a cultivator from the Infernal Court? With your guarantee, it seems that Zhang Ruochen and the cultivators of Kunlun are just catching up."

Intergold Tiger sneered. "This Mo Yunduan didn't dare to take any risks. He was cautious and shameless. He was so well-versed in the ways of the world. No wonder he could obtain a

Divinity Source from the Fane of Death and become a pseudo god.'

Mo Yunduan's gaze turned to Bai Qing'er. He said coldly, "Xing Luo, the Scion of the Fane of Destiny, has spread the news that a mysterious woman suspected of Ji Fanxin kidnapped Zhang Ruochen and started a massacre in the Infernal Court. That so-called Ji Fanxin was you, right?"

Bai Qing'er's saint Qi had recovered a lot. She looked at Mo Yunduan calmly and said, "So what if it was me?"

"How dare you! A lowly woman from the Enchanter Chamber dares to stir up trouble in the Infernal Court. Today, I will take your life and report to the Fane of Destiny to destroy all 180 branches of the Enchanter Chamber. Your dark forces should have been eradicated long ago," Mo Yunduan said.

Zhang Ruochen despised Mo Yunduan for bullying the weak and fearing the strong.

However, Zhang Ruochen thought about the reason and soon realized it.

Many cultivators knew that Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing'er had different opinions on the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. No matter who was lying, the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin must be on one of them.

Mo Yunduan was not stupid. How could he not deduce that the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was on Bai Qing'er?

His plan was to stabilize Zhang Ruochen and the others, kill Bai Qing'er, and take the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. That was the most important thing.

"Who are you calling lowly?" said Bai Qing'er.

Bai Qing'er's eyes turned cold. She opened her fingers, formed a giant Palm of Origin, and pressed it toward Mo Yunduan.

Countless Precepts of Origin formed the handprint. It gave off bright light and broke through the divine cloud. It was obvious that she had activated her Canon of Origin. The power was strong enough to shake the space where the god was.

BOOM!

Mo Yunduan laughed sinisterly as he smashed the giant Palm of Origin with one punch.

The fist shadow the size of a mountain smashed through Bai Qing'er's Light of Origin and made her cough up blood. She was sent flying dozens of miles away like a fallen leaf in the autumn wind.

To be able to block a punch from a god and not die was a great honor for a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

However, Bai Qing'er did not think so. She wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth, and her eyes were filled with determination. She spread her arms, and 65 bronze chimes flew around her body, giving off the sound of waves crashing against the shore.

On the bronze chimes, another formation inscription completely different from the 10,000 sounds of the Echoes of Heaven Formation appeared.

Following the sound of a cry, a 10,000 feet long green divine bird flew out from the formation. Its entire body was burning with green flames as it flew around Bai Qing'er's graceful body.

It was a divine bird, the Blue Phoenix.

"It's another subdivine array. The divine bird Blue Phoenix is derived from the array. It can explode with the attack power of a pseudo god level," Blackie growled.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Why are you so angry?"

"My attainments in the array must be above that of Lady Bai. Unfortunately, my spiritual power is weaker, and I'm not prepared enough for her. She stole the limelight!" Blackie said.

'At a time like this, it still cared about this?'

Bai Qing'er stepped on the Blue Phoenix, her heroic bearing bursting forth as she attacked again.

Although it was a Blue Phoenix derived from an array formation, the aura and energy undulations of a pseudo god level were not fake. It caused Mo Yunduan to put away his smile, and his expression was solemn.

“You know nothing about divinity. Even if you can burst out the power of a pseudo god level through an array formation, in my view, it is only a superficial brute force.”

Mo Yunduan took a war flag down from his back. The war flag expanded with the wind, and gray lightning appeared on the flag’s surface.

The war flag was waved, and lightning surged crazily, pouring out toward the 65 bronze chimes.

Rumble

The terrifying divine power enveloped Bai Qing’er, the Blue Phoenix, and the bronze chimes.

Tens of thousands of gray lightning continuously attacked the array formation, wanting to break it and refine Bai Qing’er to death.

Granny Begonia said, “This is the void. Although Bai Qing’er is an Archsaint Array Master, she can’t mobilize the power of heaven and earth to maintain the operation of the formation. I’m afraid she’ll be defeated soon. Ruochen, what’s your plan?”

If Zhang Ruochen couldn’t stay in the Infernal Court, he could only follow her back to Kunlun. This was what Granny Begonia hoped very much.

However, she cared more about Zhang Ruochen’s thoughts and decisions.

Zhang Ruochen said, “This place is very close to Hoth. Mo Yunduan can only attack in the void without alerting the gods on Hoth. As a pseudo god, Mo Yunduan can’t use the power of the Stellar Soul Constellation in the void. Its combat strength will be greatly reduced.”

After refining the Divinity Source and reaching the divinity, a pseudo god could cultivate a Divine Planet.

“You still want to kill a god and don’t want to return to Kunlun.” Granny Begonia sighed.

Zhang Ruochen laughed self-mockingly. “Kunlun doesn’t lack a Supreme Saint like me.”

Blackie was extremely excited. “Kill a god? That’s great! It’s time for me to make a name for myself. I’ll kill a god and clear the name of the Heaven and Earth Slaughterer. When do I start?”

“We’ll wait a little longer,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie chuckled. “That’s true. We’ll let Lady Bai and Yunduan fight until both are injured. Then we’ll clean up the mess.”

It was unknown when Blackie had the habit of giving people nicknames.

Granny Begonia used her spiritual power to communicate with Xue Lingxian. She clearly hoped to convince him to help Zhang Ruochen.

If Mo Yunduan couldn’t mobilize the power of the Stellar Soul Constellation, they really had a chance to kill the god.

BOOM!

BOOM!

...

The war flag in Mo Yunduan’s hand struck down again and again. Finally, the bronze chimes arranged in a circle were scattered.

The array was broken.

The phantom of the Blue Phoenix let out a sad cry and turned into wisps of green smoke, disappearing into the void.

Bai Qing’er used the Path of Flowing Light and retreated quickly. Even so, she was still hit by a corner of the war flag. A long wound was cut on her waist.

She was almost cut in half.

She was exhausted. Her face was ashen. She pressed her hand to the wound on her waist.

The wound healed quickly.

“Zhang Ruochen, do you think Mo Yunduan will let you go? If he doesn’t die today, you won’t have a place in the Infernal Court.” Bai Qing’er transmitted her voice to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen appeared very calm. He said, “It doesn’t matter. If worst comes to worst, I can become the prince consort of Devala. Even the Fane of Destiny can’t force Luo Yan to hand me over, right? From now on, I can still live happily. Isn’t it good to live off a woman? Of course, suppose you are willing to hand over the Tensho Compass. In that case, I can persuade the two seniors of Kunlun to help you kill Mo Yunduan together.”

“Are you taking advantage of me?” Bai Qing’er was quite angry.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You are a petty woman here! In fact, they are prepared to see you killed by Mo Yunduan before they take the Tensho Compass. If Lady Bai doesn’t hand over the Tensho Compass, how can I persuade them to take action in advance?”

“If I want to leave, Mo Yunduan can’t stop me,” Bai Qing’er said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “If you want to leave, we can help Mo Yunduan stop you.”

“Can you be more shameless?”

Bai Qing’er knew that Zhang Ruochen was not joking.

This guy was more scheming than she had imagined. She had underestimated him in the past.

Zhang Ruochen had no choice. Bai Qing’er was too strong. Suppose he wanted to take the Tensho Compass from her. Even if he, Granny Begonia, Blackie, and Xue Lingxian attacked together, they might fail.

Even the pseudo god couldn’t stop her if she wanted to leave.

So, he could only force her to hand over the Tensho Compass.

Mo Yunduan saw that Bai Qing'er was communicating with Zhang Ruochen, so he became alert. He transmitted his voice, "Master Ruochen, help me take this woman down. I only want her superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, and all the other treasures will belong to you. If you are interested, I can let you play with her for three days before I kill her."

He changed his address from "Zhang Ruochen" to "Master Ruochen."

Mo Yunduan was not confident in keeping Bai Qing'er, so he had to use Zhang Ruochen.

Moreover, this pseudo god seemed to know that Zhang Ruochen was lusting after the reputation of beauty, so he gave him the right medicine.

Zhang Ruochen would not believe him. He directly transmitted his message to Bai Qing'er and added, "Mo Yunduan is indeed well-versed in the world's ways. His suggestion has even moved me!"

Hearing this, Bai Qing'er's calm state of mind almost exploded with anger.

Zhang Ruochen did not immediately reject Mo Yunduan. After all, whether he cooperated with Bai Qing'er to kill Mo Yunduan or with Mo Yunduan to kill Bai Qing'er, they were both seeking a tiger's skin. The risk was significant, and each had its own advantages and disadvantages.

Cooperating with Bai Qing'er was more beneficial to Zhang Ruochen.

However, the risk was greater.

The risk was that even if they worked together, it would be difficult to kill a pseudo god. Once Mo Yunduan escaped, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Bai Qing'er obviously knew what Zhang Ruochen was thinking. She also knew that Zhang Ruochen told her this because he was negotiating with her. She had to prove herself to have a greater advantage in the negotiation.

She had to prove they had the power to kill a pseudo god.

“Pagoda of Origin.”

Bai Qing'er floated in the void with her hands in the air. As the Light of Origin emerged on her skin, billions of Precepts of Origin flew out of her body. They intertwined like a storm, turning into a tall and unclimbable mountain.

The outline of the mountain gradually appeared in the shape of a pagoda.

The 3,296,700-meters-tall Pagoda of Origin appeared. Each floor was 3.33 meters tall, with a total of 990,000 floors.

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. It must be known that some Paramount Realm Supreme Saints only had a trillion precepts. In contrast, Bai Qing'er had more than a trillion Precepts of Origin.

Yan Wushen, who also cultivated the Path of Origin, developed a Pagoda of Origin that was only 33,300 meters tall. It was far from Bai Qing'er's attainments in Origin.

“One more layer of her Pagoda of Origin, and she will be able to enter the Origin's state of mind,” Granny Begonia said in amazement.

Xue Lingxian lifted his sword and flew over, gathering with them, “It's even harder to reach that step than ascending to the heavens,” he said. “But once she succeeds, she can be considered a Yuanhui-level genius. At that time, even if she's not as good as the Empress of Thousand Bones of the past, she won't be far off."

Blackie, who had always worshiped the Empress of Thousand Bones, didn't refute Xue Lingxian.

"How can the Pagoda of Origin she condensed be so powerful? Could it be... could it be that she has mastered the Canon of Origin?"

Mo Yunduan was both happy and stressed.

The happy thing was that if he could seize her Canon of Origin and go to the Fane of Origin to harvest the fortune, he could become a pseudo god that could challenge a true god for the first time.

However, Bai Qing'er, who had mastered the Canon of Origin, was much more challenging.

Mo Yunduan activated the divine power of death in his body with all his strength. He took out two war flags simultaneously and formed two defensive lines in front of him. Then, he made a strange hand seal and shouted, "Soul-suppressing Bones."

A massive skeleton phantom emerged from the thick divine cloud. It struck at the Pagoda of Origin, which was 3,296,700 meters tall.

BANG!

The two collided violently, creating ripples of divine qi.

BANG!

Bai Qing'er controlled the Pagoda of Origin and attacked again. The skeleton phantom also struck out with a palm.

BANG! BANG!

After 13 consecutive strikes, even Mo Yunduan was forced back three steps, and shock appeared in its eyes.

Bai Qing'er's Paramount physique could not withstand such a powerful collision. It was like a piece of ceramic with dense cracks.

Her battle intent and determination caused everyone present to be moved.

BOOM!

The fourteenth clash.

Bai Qing'er finally could not hold on any longer. With a crack, her body shattered and turned into specks of light that dissipated in the void.

The Pagoda of Origins collapsed and became a mess of Precepts of Origin.

“You think you have grasped the power of a pseudo-god, yet you dare to clash head-on with a pseudo god. How can your Paramount physique withstand that?” Mo Yunduan retrieved the skeletal apparition, and a cold smile appeared on his face.

A Supreme Saint could not withstand so many blows from him, no matter how powerful his conjured physique was.

She should be dead.

However, Mo Yunduan also had some doubts. He could not understand why Bai Qing'er did not choose to run away but to fight him to the death.

Could it be that women were so impulsive?

Mo Yunduan used his spiritual sense to check the surroundings, but he did not sense Bai Qing'er's life fluctuation. The doubts in his heart disappeared immediately, and he glanced at Zhang Ruochen from the corner of his eye.

Zhang Ruochen noticed Mo Yunduan's gaze and realized he was starting to plot on him. He could not help but laugh in his heart. Mo Yunduan had underestimated the power of a Master of Origin.

“No, why did I kill her? I didn't get the Canon of Origin? Could it be...”

Mo Yunduan suddenly felt a great sense of danger. Sensing danger, he immediately urged the two war flags to rotate rapidly around his body to form two layers of gray lightning defense.

However, at this moment, he felt a piercing pain in his head as if his soul had been cut open. His vision could not help but darken.

Spiritual Attack!

Mo Yunduan's spiritual strength was only at level 67. However, the Saint Soul had already formed a divine soul. It neutralized Bai Qing'er's spiritual attack in just an instant, and the piercing pain in his head disappeared.

At this moment, the two war flags slowed down, and the two layers of defense became useless.

Bai Qing'er, who had turned into particles of Origin, condensed her body again and turned into a rapid stream of light, rushing through the gap between the two war flags. A crescent-shaped flying knife flew out of her right palm and slashed across Mo Yunduan's neck.

The crescent-shaped flying knife was a Supreme Artifact. When it slashed on the divine body, it made an ear-piercing sound like the friction between metal and stone, and flames shot in all directions.

WHOOSH!

The head of Mo Yunduan was chopped off and flew out.

She succeeded!

At the cost of being reduced to a state of particles of Origin, Mo Yunduan was finally heavily injured.

Bai Qing'er knew Mo Yunduan had already cultivated a divine body and wouldn't be killed so easily. Therefore, she turned around and formed a beautiful curve of light. She struck out a crescent-shaped flying knife towards the head that was sent flying.

Seeing that the flying knife was about to pierce the glabella of Mo Yunduan's head, Bai Qing'er let out a miserable cry. All the power in her body was drained. Her back was pierced through by the flagpole of a war flag. Her body flew out like an arrow. Blood splattered all over the void.

The war flag was thrown out by the headless corpse in Mo Yunduan.

Mo Yunduan's head flew back and connected to the neck. He glared at Bai Qing'er with an icy gaze and cried long. "I will kill you today."

"No!"

A voice sounded.

Mo Yunduan looked in the direction of the voice. He saw Zhang Ruochen and Xue Lingxian flying over. The Owl and the old woman in red appeared in the other two directions and surrounded him.

Mo Yunduan's expression was unfriendly. "Why did you stop me, Ruochen?"

Zhang Ruochen smiled. "You promised me that you would capture her and let me play with her for three days. Why did you go back on your words? Isn't it a pity to kill such a beauty?"

Mo Yunduan was an experienced person. Naturally, he could see that Zhang Ruochen was teasing him. In fact, judging from the situation, he and the survivors of Kunlun were ready to kill him.

Mo Yunduan sneered. "What did she promise you? How could she make you lose your mind and dare to attack a god?"

"She said..."

Zhang Ruochen deliberately provoked Mo Yunduan to make him lose his mind. He said, "She said that after I kill you, your divine body will belong to me. The Divine Blood, divine heart, divine kidney, and divine whip in your body can all be sold at a high price. The whole body of a god is a treasure."

Mo Yunduan's eyes were as red as blood. Two streams of divine mist rushed out of his nostrils. He gnashed his teeth and said, "Zhang Ruochen, you are too impudent. I will destroy your bones, scatter your ashes, and extract your soul to eat."

He stretched out his five fingers and grabbed them out across the air. Dense precept marks appeared in front of Zhang

Ruochen in an instant.

Xue Lingxian waved his sword and scattered all the precept marks.

“What’s the point of attacking a Hundred-Shackle Realm junior? I’ll fight you.” Xue Lingxian’s figure was as straight as a spear. He had an unspeakable arrogance.

In his hand, the stone sword, Wordless Sword Manual, felt the power of a divine-level enemy. It let out a clanging sound as if it was asking for a battle.

The spiritual thought in Mo Yunduan moved. It wanted to take back the war flag, but it was shocking to find that the war flag had been sealed by Bai Qing’er using her own blood.

Bai Qing’er’s back and chest were still dripping with blood.

Because the war flag contained the Divine Qi of death, it invaded her body, making it difficult for her wounds to heal in a short time.

Today, she has suffered an unprecedented serious injury. However, at this moment, not only was she not depressed, her fighting spirit was high, and her mood was boiling. She casually waved her hand and threw the Tensho Compass to Zhang Ruochen.

“Zhang Ruochen, don’t forget your promise to me.” Bai Qing’er’s eyes were fixed on Mo Yunduan from the beginning to the end.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the Tensho Compass and sighed in his heart. After many twists and turns, the Divine Artifact finally returned to his hand. He said, “Don’t worry. I swore on my mother’s reputation. How can I break my promise?”

Previously, Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er had reached a cooperation agreement through spiritual power communication.

To ask Bai Qing’er to hand over the Tensho Compass, Zhang Ruochen had to compensate her for the divine stone she lost in the House of Enchanters.

Secondly, Zhang Ruochen had to do one more thing for her.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen had also made several requests. He would not help her with everything. For this, Zhang Ruochen had to swear on the Blood Empress's honor to get Bai Qing'er to agree.

For her, this was a compromise she had no choice but to make.

Since she was young, she had never compromised with anyone, including gods. However, after meeting Zhang Ruochen, she compromised several times.

It was not that Zhang Ruochen was stronger than gods, but it was his personality that seemed to be able to restrain her.

His personality was hard but gentle and evil but good simultaneously.

When she was tough, Zhang Ruochen chose to lower his head so that she could not use all her power. It was like a knife hitting the surface of the water. You could take whatever treasure you wanted.

When she showed a slight weakness, she was chased by Zhang Ruochen.

When she thought that Zhang Ruochen would join hands with the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny, Zhang Ruochen did not attack. He just stood aside and watched coldly.

When she thought that Zhang Ruochen would not save her, he attacked again.

When she thought this guy was very principled, he was unexpectedly sinister.

When she thought that this guy was sinister, he made a concession. With the greatest sincerity, he cooperated with her and showed his open and aboveboard side.

As the number one person below the divinity, she could not control the absolute initiative when she fought with a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

"Then let's join hands to kill the god today," Bai Qing'er said.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were sharp. He made up his mind to die without regret. "If we don't succeed, we'll die."

If he didn't have such determination, he would definitely lose if he fought against the god.

Only by throwing away the fear of life and death could she defy the god. Otherwise, under the pressure of the god, her state of mind would collapse instantly.

...

Bai Qing'er ignored the injuries on her body and took the lead in attacking Mo Yunduan.

Chapter 2522: Yuan Qianmo's Heart

Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt

On an irregular-shaped rocky asteroid with a diameter of 300 miles, there was an artifact palace over 210 meters tall. It had red walls, golden tiles, and dragons and phoenixes were carved.

The palace was shrouded by the aura of death, and ordinary cultivators could not get close to it.

Yuan Qianmo stood outside the artifact palace with his hands behind his back, his hair as white as snow. He looked at the wormhole in the void in the distance as if he was comprehending the mysteries of space, but also seemed to be thinking about something.

The ghost servant, who had survived nine Ghost Tribulations, stood not too far away with a bone-chilling broadsword in his hand.

Yuan Benji had come to Yuan Qianmo's back, and he cupped his fists slightly. He said, "Qianmo, we've discovered that there are only three wormholes in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt. They lead to the Bloodysky Clan's Dominion, the starry sky near the Royal City of Hundred Clans at the edge of the Infernal Court, and the Ashuran Planet. The closest one to us leads to the starry skies near the Royal City of Hundred Clans. This is the place where Ji Fanxin is most likely to choose."

Yuan Qianmo did not say a word.

Yuan Benji's lips moved, but he still said it in the end. He said, "Including the cultivators from the ten major forces and the Heavenly Realm, dozens of powerhouses from the major forces have arrived at the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt. With such a force, even pseudo gods would have to retreat. Does Ji Fanxin really dare to come? I guess it's likely that she has already turned back to Hoth."

Yuan Qianmo said, "That's not something you should be concerned about! I've heard that something strange has happened in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Every night, the Light of the origins will appear in the sky, turning the night into day. This has happened three times, and each time it lasts fifteen minutes."

Yuan Benji said, "That's true. All the major forces have speculated that the Fane of Origin will likely appear near the Royal City of Hundred Clans. They have all sent cultivators to investigate. However, I feel someone deliberately tries to create a diversion to interfere with our judgment."

"Go to the Royal City of Hundred Clans and investigate this matter on behalf of the Fane of Death," Yuan Qianmo said.

"Understood."

Yuan Benji didn't ask any further questions. He rode a cloud of death qi and flew out of the small asteroids towards the spatial wormhole suspended in the void.

Yuan Shu was dressed in a golden imperial robe. Her long sleeves dragged across the ground, and she wore a golden crown on her head. She walked out gracefully from the gray death qi. She said, "The Royal City of Hundred Clans is guarded by a god. It is the largest city at the edge of the Infernal Court. It can even be compared to the divine cities of the ten clans. If the Fane of Origin is born there, it will stir up the clouds in all directions."

"Are you saying someone is deliberately stirring up a storm upon us?" asked Yuan Qianmo.

"We can not rule out the possibility that the Fane of Origin will be born in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. To support such a huge city like the Royal City of Hundred Clans, the space is already extraordinary. It is where the ley lines of heaven and earth converge,” said Yuan Shu.

Yuan Qianmo’s gaze was deep as he said, “This is the reason why I sent Benji over! No matter what, as long as we obtain superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin, we will naturally be able to lock onto the position of the Fane of Origin.”

Yuan Shu said, “That Ji Fanxin was an imposter.”

“Not necessarily.” Yuan Qianmo shook his head gently.

Yuan Shu said, “Ji Fanxin is likely to be in the Saint King Realm. She can’t be so powerful that she could injure more than a dozen Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Destiny.”

Yuan Qianmo said, “If it were any other cultivator, they would not believe that she could be so powerful. They would only think she was a god who intentionally transformed himself.”

“That’s right. Other than a god who intentionally suppressed her cultivation base, who else could be so powerful?” Yuan Shu sighed.

Yuan Qianmo said, “But, why would a god transform into a Saint King like Ji Fanxin, who couldn’t be so powerful? Wouldn’t no one suspect her if she transformed into Wuma Jiuxing or an unfamiliar figure?”

Yuan Shu nodded slightly, feeling that Yuan Qianmo’s analysis was not without reason.

“I’ve already checked. Ji Fanxin is not in Kunlun, the Qianrui Realm, or the Celestial Court,” Yuan Qianmo said.

Yuan Shu asked, “How did Ji Fanxin suddenly become so powerful?”

Yuan Qianmo said, “I don’t think it was sudden, but she was already so powerful. How many Yuanhui Tribulations have a living creature survived from ancient times until now?”

Yuan Shu shook her head gently.

Yuan Qianmo said, “It’s hard to predict how far back the ancient times were, but at least over a hundred of them have passed. She has passed over a hundred Yuanhui Tribulations. It’s not that the Yuanhui Tribulations couldn’t kill her, but that heaven and earth are unwilling to kill and love her. Do you really believe that she was only taught by the Mandala Goddess in the last few hundred years and cultivated her physical body?”

Yuan Shu shook her head again and said, “Even if she only cultivated her corporeal body in the last few hundred years, the time it takes for her to gain sentience is far longer. She can cultivate for a hundred thousand years, a million years, or even tens of millions of years.”

Yuan Qianmo said, “Plant-like creatures are fragile in the Saint Realm and the divinity. They are often picked as medicinal herbs and used as ingredients for pill refinement. Even if they cultivate the divinity of other powerful deities, they are just divine herbs.

“Plant-type creatures want to become powerhouses who are good at fighting. They have to immerse themselves in the mortal world to train their mind, train their will, train their battle tactics, and train their spirit. Ji Fanxin’s master is the Mandala Goddess. She can support the plant-type creatures alone and not be bullied by other cultivators. How can she not understand this principle?”

Yuan Shu said, “So, you suspect that Ji Fanxin’s cultivation level has long reached the Supreme Saint’s Paramount Realm. However, the Mandala Goddess has sealed her cultivation level. She is experiencing the tribulations step by step in the mortal world? Tempering her mind, will, battle tactics, and Spirit?”

“I heard that when the Stone Master was young, he cultivated the Supreme Saint’s Paramount Realm. However, he did not enter the Divine Ascension Ranking and was believed to be unable to become a god. The Stone Master did not believe in destiny. Hence, he made a decision that was completely opposite to what he believed in. He cultivated his physical body just like the Stone Terra’s cultivators.”

“Every time he cultivated his physical body, he had to undergo tribulations in the mortal world. He had to cultivate from the weak to the Paramount Realm. When he reached the Paramount Realm, he would first kill his relatives and friends, and then suicide.”

“Just like that, after nine times of cultivation and nine times of killing himself, he finally honed his will to a level stronger than even gods. He defied the heavens and became a god.”

Yuan Qianmo said, “I suspect her cultivation level is not as simple as the Supreme Saint’s Paramount Realm. She may have already gone far in the divinity.”

“How is that possible?” Yuan Shu asked.

Yuan Qianmo said, “Don’t forget that she is a creature loved by the heavens and earth. For her, she can easily break through the barrier of the divinity.”

“Of course, no matter how high the cultivation level of a plant creature is, it does not mean that its combat strength is strong. Just like how the Divine Sky-connecting Tree of Kunlun had a long lifespan. However, it was still beheaded by the Magnogod Huang Tian.”

“A martial artist is very normal for a sage with a profound state of mind to be chopped to death. He is well-versed in the laws of nature, the laws of nature, astronomy, and geography. “Unless this sage also cultivates martial arts, he can become a martial arts grandmaster and be invincible in the world.”

Yuan Shu was deep in thought. She said, “If Ji Fanxin really has reached divinity long ago, wouldn’t it be very dangerous for him to go?”

Him, means Mo Yuanduan.

After Xing Luo contacted Yuan Qianmo, he formulated a strategy of waiting for the enemy to ambush them in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt.

Yuan Qianmo was well aware of the value of Zhang Ruochen and the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origins, so he secretly asked Mo Yunduan to intercept them in advance.

Yuan Qianmo took out a book and handed it to Yuan Shu.

Yuan Shu opened the book and looked at it. It contained detailed information about Ji Fanxin.

Yuan Qianmo said, “Ji Fanxin appeared on Hoth, but she didn’t alert the Hoth Emperor. Clearly, her cultivation level is sealed below the deity level. This is one of the reasons.”

“Secondly, based on Ji Fanxin’s past battle records, it can be seen that her temperament, battle tactics, and spirit are still at the level of a Saint King. She is at most at the level of a Supreme Saint. Suppose you can seize the right opportunity and launch a surprise attack. In that case, you will definitely be able to heavily injure her. Once heavily injured, it will be impossible for her to escape!”

Yuan Shu began to doubt the information in her hands.

“However, Xing Luo was defeated by her.”

“I don’t need to guess to know that Xing Luo was careless and underestimated her opponent! I wouldn’t know Ji Fanxin’s true strength if it were me. This is the first time I’ve faced her, and I might have made this mistake.” Yuan Qianmo believed in his own judgment.

Yuan Shu thought for a while and couldn’t think of a cultivator below the divinity who could defeat a god. Besides, the god was still in the dark, ready to launch a sneak attack.

This was absolutely foolproof.

No!

It was absolutely impossible to fail.

Yuan Shu said, “I still think it’s quite risky. Don’t forget that Ji Fanxin has Zhang Ruochen by her side.”

“Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation is too low. If not for the protection of the Intergold Tiger, he would have been killed by Ji Fanxin!” Yuan Qianmo shook his head and smiled. Then, his eyes turned cold, and he said, “The Intergold Tiger won’t be able to exert much power,” he said. “It won’t be able to stop Mo Yuanduan.”

Yuan Shu said, “Why are you so sure?”

Yuan Qianmo said, “Have you ever thought about why Ji Fanxin let Zhang Ruochen control the Sevenstar Imperial Palace to attract cultivators from the Infernal Court to stop him and start a massacre?”

Yuan Shu said, “She wanted to force Zhang Ruochen to the opposite side of the Infernal Court. At that time, Zhang Ruochen had nowhere else to go, so he could only return to heaven with her.”

Yuan Qianmo nodded and said, “Zhang Ruochen was ostracized in the Celestial Court. He even had a deep-seated hatred for the Heavenly Realm. After the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, he became a traitor everyone in the Celestial Court wanted to beat. What’s he going back for? To be judged?”

“He doesn’t want to return to the Celestial Court, but he can’t resist Ji Fanxin. Doesn’t this prove that the power of the Intergold Tiger is no match for Ji Fanxin?”

Yuan Shu had to admit that Yuan Qianmo’s analysis was very reasonable.

He could see the truth in every detail.

Yuan Qianmo sighed softly. “It’s a pity that the Intergold Tiger can’t use much power, but it’s a prehistoric superior after all. I’m sure Mo Yunduan will be afraid of it. Otherwise, it’s a good opportunity to get rid of Zhang Ruochen. Yuan Shu, I’m afraid I can’t avenge your seventh brother!”

Yuan Shu said, “Father has already told me to let go of my hatred. Don’t make an enemy of Zhang Ruochen.”

“How can I understand if I keep my hatred in my heart?” Yuan Qianmo said.

Yuan Shu stared into Yuan Qianmo’s eyes and said, “So, you must kill Zhang Ruochen, right?”

“If you want to kill Zhang Ruochen, you must first get rid of the Intergold Tiger. If you want to get rid of the Intergold Tiger, you must force it to release more power than the rules of Heaven and earth allow and let heaven punish it for killing it.”

Yuan Qianmo wanted to say something, but he stopped himself. Ultimately, he did not tell Yuan Shu the secrets he had hidden in his heart. He said, "Let's wait for Mo Yunduan's good news. Maybe the Fane of Death will not only get the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, but also a Lotus of Divine Reflection."

"It seems that Mo Yunduan is carrying a heavy weapon with him. He definitely won't let Ji Fanxin escape," Yuan Shu said.

Yuan Qianmo merely smiled. His smile was filled with confidence and anticipation.

The void space was filled with chaotic energy. Every wave it created had the power to destroy an entire world.

Three figures were fighting at close range in the center of the chaotic energy. They were all fighting extremely fast.

BOOM BOOM!

Sword Qi, saber beams, and Death Qi were all intertwined. The area within hundreds of miles became a forbidden zone. Even Granny Begonia did not dare to approach.

Zhang Ruochen did not want to hurt his Sea of Qi again, so he naturally retreated. He did not try to force himself into a divine-level battle.

On the other hand, Blackie was eager to try but was stopped by Zhang Ruochen.

“I’m going to kill this god.”

Blackie was full of vigor and wanted to break free from Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen knew how timid Blackie was. However, seeing that Bai Qing’er and Xue Lingxian were the main attackers, he decided to intervene. Otherwise, he would have already run away if he had met the pseudo god!

“Yes, we all want to kill the god. Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing’er can’t stop him from escaping. Only you can,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Blackie calmed down and realized his importance. He nodded cautiously.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the battlefield again. He saw that even if Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er joined hands, they could only fight evenly with Mo Yunduan. Moreover, it was because Granny Begonia kept attacking Mo Yunduan with her spiritual power to disturb him.

Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing'er were very strong but could not sustain a battle of the divine level for a long time. Their Paramount physique could not bear it.

Mo Yunduan obviously also had the intention of dragging them to death. Although they fought fiercely, he did not use any forbidden technique of burning his lifespan or soul.

“Now, it's my turn!”

Zhang Ruochen took out Myriad Curse Bead and held it between his hands. He activated it, and murderous qi spread out from his palms.

Myriad Curse Bead gave off a bright light. Faint incantations could be heard.

With Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power and cultivation, even if he activated Myriad Curse Bead, a Supreme Artifact, he wouldn't be able to affect the pseudo god. However, there was a top spiritual power Supreme Saint in Qiankun Realm.

Seven-Armed Elder.

Seven-Armed Elder was the only person in Infernal Court who was not a god but could become a god. He was known as the “God of gambling”. He had escaped from a pseudo god and Bai Qing'er one after another. The strength of his spiritual power was evident.

The spiritual power of Seven-Armed Elder surged out from the Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension between Zhang Ruochen's eyebrows and fused into Myriad Curse Bead.

“Curse of Light and Dark,” Zhang Ruochen murmured.

In the distance, Mo Yunduan slapped Xue Lingxian away and waved the war flag. The flying flag looked like a divine blade that could cut Bai Qing'er's neck.

SWOOSH

A layer of dark green light emerged and blocked the war flag.

The dark green light formed a sphere with a diameter of 100 feet, trapping Mo Yunduan inside.

Bai Qing'er was still in shock. She glanced at Zhang Ruochen in the distance.

Mo Yunduan knew that Zhang Ruochen had ruined his plan. Otherwise, he would have been able to revenge Bai Qing'er for beheading him.

Xue Lingxian seized the opportunity. She became one with her sword and turned into a sword light with extreme speed. It passed through the dark light and stabbed toward Mo Yunduan's glabella.

The sword's tip only penetrated half an inch before Mo Yunduan punched out.

Bang!

The pseudo god's punch could destroy even the stars. Naturally, Xue Lingxian could not withstand it. Her chest caved in, and her internal organs turned into blood and mud. Her body flew out like a cannonball.

Bai Qing'er grasped the opportunity more accurately and slashed down from the back of Mo Yunduan like a stream of light.

PFFT!

The divine body in the cloud was split into two halves.

A large amount of divine blood flowed out from between the two halves.

The left half of the divine body waved the war flag again. The flagpole swept across Bai Qing'er, sending her flying in a completely different direction from Xue Lingxian.

Bai Qing'er's injuries worsened. Her white clothes had long been dyed in blood.

“Blood-devouring Curse,” Zhang Ruochen chanted.

The divine cloud churned, and the two halves of the divine body at Mo Yunduan merged into one.

However, because of the attack of Zhang Ruochen’s Blood-devouring Curse, a lot of divine blood had been lost in his body. In addition, Bai Qing’er’s crescent-shaped flying knife contained pure Power of Origin. Even if his divine body merged, there was still a line of blood left where he had been cut.

Whether it was the cut on his head or on his doppelganger, he had suffered a lot of damage.

“Damn it! Didn’t they say that the life force of the pseudo god is fragile? Why does he look fine when a Supreme Artificat hit his vital parts twice?” Zhang Ruochen knew that Xue Lingxian and Bai Qing’er were severely injured. Naturally, he was a little anxious.

“Life force is weak? Who did you hear this from? Wargod Bloodximus or Blood Empress? That was because they were weaker than him. After all, the pseudo god had cultivated a divine body. He was no longer on the same level as the Supreme Saint. His vitality was worlds apart. It’s possible to fight against the pseudo god or escape from one. However, we must be willing to die to defeat the pseudo god or even kill the god.”

Blackie said thoughtfully, “Now you know how much you owe Granny Begonia and Xue Lingxian for staying behind to help you! They are helping you at the cost of their own lives. They are helping you to remain in Infernal Court. They respect your choice because you have helped Kunlun’s field before.”

RUMBLE

Mo Yunduan broke the Curse of Light and Dark. With a fierce look, it threw out the war flag in its hand.

The war flag released a dazzling divine light that shot toward Xue Lingxian like an arrow.

Xue Lingxian forcefully supported her wounded body. The blood on her body flowed upward like a stream and gathered toward the stone sword. She gritted his teeth and chanted, “Sword Thirteen...”

Before the sword intent could take shape, the war flag pierced through her sword domain.

Granny Begonia appeared in front of Xue Lingxian. She pointed her wooden staff forward and used her spiritual power to form a crystal clear shield that looked like the outer wall of the world.

BOOM

The battle flag shattered the shield, and Granny Begonia and Xue Lingxian were both sent flying simultaneously.

The wooden staff in Granny Begonia’s hand was shattered into powder.

Not everyone could block the strike of the pseudo god. For example, not everyone could block Wuma Jiuxing’s strike. Granny Begonia was clearly far from the Yuanhui-level figure.

“I don’t mind killing the survivors of Kunlun’s field since you’re in my way.”

Mo Yunduan performed a higher knowledge. He stepped forward and arrived in front of Granny Begonia and Xue Lingxian. He stomped down. Countless precept marks appeared on his legs. A thunder sea condensed from gray lightning appeared under his feet.

A god’s foot could destroy all living things.

“Aprameya Curse.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were bloodshot. He roared.

Mo Yunduan withstood Aprameya Curse with his divine soul. His feet became as big as the lake and sea, and he stomped down with undiminished power.

Rumble

Granny Begonia’s eyes were deep. She looked up at the sky and regarded life and death as nothing. She spread her hands and formed a fingerprint. She said hoarsely, “Vicissitudes of life and death.”

The sound of water waves rang out.

With Granny Begonia as the center, an ocean was born out of thin air. The waves rose for thousands of feet.

Above her head, a gorgeous flower bloomed. The light it emitted reflected the ocean into a blood-red color, and the flower's fragrance filled the void space.

The bright red flower blocked the god's foot and the gray thunder crabapple pressing down.

"You're just like an ant, yet you dare to defy God?"

The God's body at Mo Yunduan kept expanding, and the power that exploded from the god's foot became stronger and stronger. It crushed the bright red flower and suppressed the ocean below until it was calm.

Bloody marks appeared on Granny Begonia's head and spread to her face, neck, hands, and feet. It was as if they were going to shatter along with the flower above her head.

Xue Lingxian's chest was bleeding non-stop. She gripped the hilt of her sword tightly with both hands, and tens of millions of Sword Qi rushed out of her body and went into the stone sword.

"Sword... Thirteen..."

BOOM!

Xue Lingxian disappeared on the spot. She turned into an earth-shaking sword light and pierced through the gray sea of thunder.

No one could stop this sword.

Puff

The sea of thunder dissipated. Mo Yunduan was pierced by a sword, and his divine body was torn into pieces.

Divine blood rained down on the sea under Granny Begonia's feet.

"Great!"

Blackie shouted excitedly.

Zhang Ruochen smiled knowingly. It must be known that Xue Lingxian's Sword Thirteen could not only cut off the body but also the soul and spiritual power. The Scioness of Fane of Destiny was killed instantly by the sword.

No matter how strong the life force of the pseudo god was, it should be dead by now, right?

The smile on Zhang Ruochen's face quickly disappeared.

The broken divine body floating in the void condensed again, and even the divine blood flew back.

Mo Yunduan's body appeared before everyone's eyes again.

Mo Yunduan became much weaker and said coldly, "What a powerful sword. If your sword had accurately hit my Divine Sea and Divinity Source, I might have died by now. Unfortunately, I avoided my vital points."

Xue Lingxian was even weaker, but she was indifferent. "So what? This sword has already heavily injured you. Your divine soul is on the verge of shattering."

"Can you still fight?" Mo Yunduan asked.

Xue Lingxian looked at her tattered body and shook her head. "I'll die today if I fight you alone. However, they're here to kill you too."

Mo Yunduan glanced at Bai Qing'er, Zhang Ruochen, Blackie, and Granny Begonia. Knowing this was a hopeless situation, he couldn't help but laugh. "Good. This couldn't be any way better. You're all first-class figures of this Yuanhui period. No matter how strong you are, you can't stop me from leaving. Just you wait, especially the two of you. You will be judged by Fane of Destiny. Because of you, Xue Jue Family and the Enchanter Chamber will be buried beneath the waves."

Mo Yunduan pointed at Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing'er. Then he waved his hand and tore open the dimension, wanting to return to the real world.

"Have you asked me for permission to leave?"

Blackie let out a long cry. "Grand Formation of Armageddon!"

31 beams of light appeared in the void, shining like 31 stars.

Three big stars were in the center, and 28 small stars revolved around them. Three Supreme Artifacts and 28 Regal Artifacts were refined to become the Great Array of Asterisms.

While Mo Yunduan was fighting Bai Qing'er and Xue Lingxian, Blacky had quietly set everyone up in the formation.

Just as Mo Yunduan was in shock, a golden crow flew toward him.

The divine fire on the golden crow's feathers burned fiercely and crashed into his body.

Boom!

The golden crow's body exploded, and inside was the Supreme Artifact, the Golden Crow Ancient Cauldron.

After suffering this sudden blow, the old wounds on Mo Yunduan's body receded, and a half-palm-wide gash appeared on his neck, between his eyebrows, legs, and chest. His blood gushed out uncontrollably.

“Soul-Dissipating Curse!”

Seven-Armed Elder was entangled by the branches of Divine Sky-connecting Tree and hung upside down in the air. His body swayed like old cured meat in the wind. He gnashed his teeth in anger and had to release his spiritual power to help Zhang Ruochen activate Myriad Curse Bead.

It was impossible to kill a TrueGod.

However, it's possible to kill a pseudo god.

Destroying the pseudo god's divine soul would significantly damage his vitality.

Though it would just damage his vitality and not kill him.

The pseudo god's divine soul, divine spirit, and spirit were integrated into every drop of blood and every tissue in his body. With the Supreme Saint's methods, it was impossible to kill a god completely.

The divine soul in Mo Yunduan was already on the verge of being destroyed by Sword Thirteen. Under the attack of the Soul-Dissipating Curse, his divine soul felt like it was being torn apart. He let out a piercing scream.

This was the cry of a god!

If it was heard in Kunlun's field, countless living beings would die.

Zhang Ruochen's eardrums were instantly shattered, and blood flowed out. It was as if his mind had been pierced by thousands of needles.

He also let out a long cry. He used all his strength to mobilize endless murderous Qi. He activated Myriad Curse Bead to ensure that the Soul-Dissipating Curse could continue to apply to Mo Yunduan.

Whoosh

Astral Titanos flew out from the Great Array of Asterisms

The Supreme Artifact of Fane of Titans, Celestial Court.

Astral Titanos was pitch-black and deep. The ax handle was a hundred feet long and contained a murderous aura that could not be dispersed throughout the ages. It broke through the clouds like it had split heaven and earth and ruthlessly struck Mo Yunduan's body.

Mo Yunduan's divine body had already been cracked by the Golden Crow Ancient Cauldron. After being struck by Astral Titanos, his body and divine soul were instantly shattered simultaneously.

BOOM

The divine soul shattered, forming a violent soul power attack.

The true form of Intergold Tiger rushed out and appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen. Golden light shot from its body to block the invisible soul power attack.

It cursed in a low voice, "Don't you know your strength? How dare you participate in a divine level battle? Do you know that if I hadn't helped you block the attack of the divine soul, your Saint Soul would have been shattered by now?"

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly and said, "Well, didn't you block it!"

"After this battle, don't expect me to help you again. The next one you provoke might be a True God if you keep courting death!" Intergold Tiger cursed and disappeared again.

It wasn't that Intergold Tiger didn't want to help Zhang Ruochen, but it was worried that Zhang Ruochen would rely on its power.

Zhang Ruochen also did not want to make an enemy of the pseudo god, but his situation was better than the others. He had no choice but to help out.

Bai Qing'er, Granny Begonia, Xue Lingxian, and Blackie withstood the impact of the broken soul with their powerful spiritual power. However, each was severely injured, and their spirits were slightly low.

Xue Lingxian was a person who reached divinity before, so she knew the gods best. She said, "Immediately refine or collect the scattered divine soul of Mo Yunduan. You can't let his soul reunite."

Granny Begonia struck out Sword Pavilion, turning it into a holy tower.

The tower doors opened one after another, absorbing the scattered divine souls into the void space and sealing them in the tower.

Bzz Bzz

Blackie spat out Eternal Fire, turning it into a sea of fire to refine the divine souls.

Zhang Ruochen took out Violet Gourd, but he remembered that Gong Nanfeng was still inside. He put it away and took out Zangshan Demonic Mirror to suck the divine souls into the mirror.

Bai Qing'er was seriously injured, and she had to be careful because the cultivators of Kunlun's field would attack her after she killed the god. Therefore, she had been healing. Instead of attacking herself, she let out six pots of Omnivore Orchids.

The six pots of Omnivore Orchids released an icy aura.

They sensed that their surroundings were filled with souls and laughed joyfully. Their leaves grew rapidly and soon turned into six enormous orchids.

The leaves of the orchids were like dark clouds.

The leaves devoured a large number of divine souls in a breath.

Everyone tried their best, but divine souls were still gathering at Mo Yunduan's broken corpse. The broken corpse gave off a dazzling divine light and showed signs of reassembling.

Zhang Ruochen could see that since Mo Yunduan was severely injured, Bai Qing'er was no longer so eager to attack.

This could not go on!

Once Mo Yunduan reassembled his divine body, he would be tough to deal with.

"Don't refine the divine soul first. Continue to activate the formation to prevent Mo Yunduan from reassembling its divine body," Zhang Ruochen said.

Granny Begonia held Sword Pavilion with both hands.

Sword Pavilion spun slowly, carrying countless battle swords. It attacked the densest place where the divine corpse and the divine soul were gathered.

Roar!

The divine voice was even more terrifying than before. It came from the depths of the divine soul fog, making Zhang Ruochen's vision go black. He almost fell into the void space.

By the time he regained his vision, Mo Yunduan's divine body had formed. He stood above everyone like a god. His aura was like a hundred thousand mountains and rivers pressing down on them.

Divine fire was burning on his body, emitting a dazzling brilliance.

He struck out with his palm to push back Sword Pavillion.

Sword Pavillion tilted.

RUMBLE

The ocean under Granny Begonia's feet was smashed into pieces by Sword Pavillion.

Her old body was ignited by the divine fire from Mo Yunduan. Her flesh and blood instantly turned into ashes, leaving only a seven-colored skeleton that was not destroyed. She stood in the center of the seven-colored whirlpool in the void.

“This is a real divine fire. Its temperature is over a million levels. It can be compared to the temperature inside a star and could destroy the world. Any living creature that touches it will die.” Blackie was terrified. After all, its Eternal Fire only had a temperature of 500,000 degrees.

Zhang Ruochen stood thousands of miles away and could still feel the heatwave.

Divine Purification Flame he had practiced only had a temperature of 10,000 degrees. It was more than 100 times weaker than Mo Yunduan’s fire. One ball of Mo Yunduan’s flame would instantly turn his body into ashes.

This was the true power of a god.

Mo Yunduan had lost more than half of his soul. At the critical moment, he used the self-destructive forbidden technique to burn his lifespan and divine blood to forcefully re-form his divine body.

His face was ferocious, and he was outraged. He roared, “A bunch of saints trying to kill a god. Today, let’s see if you really can withstand the wrath of a god.”

Mo Yunduan became even stronger than before. Divine fire spewed out from his mouth and turned into a scorching wave of fire.

It was as if a stellar flare had exploded. The divine fire surged, and the two Omnivore Orchids, comparable to Paramount Supreme Saints, started to burn. They let out ear-piercing screams.

In just a blink of an eye, they turned into ashes.

Bai Qing’er quickly put away the remaining four pots of Omnivore Orchids and used Path of Flowing Light to avoid the spreading of divine fire.

This divine fire was formed by burning Mo Yunduan’s lifespan and divine blood. Even she did not dare to touch it.

Didn't you see that Granny Begonia was burned to the point where only her bones were left?

The six pots of Omnivore Orchids were a rare species that had lived for more than one Yuanhui period. Under Bai Qing'er's meticulous nurturing, they had reached their current realm. Hence, they were more important than Shang Yue and Shang Xia. There was hope for them to enter divinity in the future. For they to turn into six divine level plants.

Losing two of them was like cutting her twice.

Her heart was filled with killing intent. She said, "Mo Yunduan is starting to fight desperately. Now is the time to test us. Everyone, don't hold back anymore. Use all your trump cards!"

Zhang Ruochen said, "This is what I want to say to Miss Bai. We must do our best and trust each other. If we can't work together, we might as well run for our lives now."

Blackie wanted to say that they should run for their lives from the beginning. He could ask Bai Qing'er to take Tensho Compass if worst came to worst. Why fight a God for her?

But he thought that Zhang Ruochen didn't want to return to Kunlun's field, and he wanted to try and kill the god. So he didn't say it out loud.

After Xue Lingxian used Sword Thirteen, she lost the ability to fight again.

Granny Begonia was burned by the divine fire until only her bones were left. She was severely injured. At most, she could only mobilize her spiritual power to help them.

This was what Bai Qing'er hoped to see. Only in this way could she put aside all her worries and go all out to kill the god. And she didn't have to worry that she would die at the hands of the cultivators of Kunlun's field after killing the god.

The cultivators of Kunlun's field might not act so, but she had to be on guard.

"You're only running now? Too late!"

A scroll with divine light flew out from between his eyebrows.

The material of the scroll was the skin of a god, which could carry everything in the world. The divine thoughts of a God were suppressed in the skin, and they screamed in pain all the time.

On the scroll, a stone pillar stood on the surface of the sea and facing the sky.

On the pillar, there were countless chains.

On the chains, there was a golden-haired god. He roared at the sky with a pained expression, as if he was in unspeakable pain.

“Fane of Death’s Scroll of Imprisoned Gods.” Zhang Ruochen’s expression changed slightly.

The other party had come prepared.

Bai Qing’er was moved. She had made the right decision to join hands with Zhang Ruochen to kill the god, instead of running away. Otherwise, even if she practiced Path of Flowing Light, it would be difficult for her to run away if Mo Yunduan took out Scroll of Imprisoned Gods.

CLING CLANK

The sound of the chains dragging echoed through the void space.

Divine ropes that looked like giant steel dragons flew out of Scroll of Imprisoned Gods and wrapped around three Supreme Artifacts and 28 Regal Artifacts in the Great Array of Asterisms.

BOOM

...

The sounds of explosions rang out one after another.

One Regal Artifact after another was crushed by the divine ropes and turned into scrap metal. Their vessel spirits were scattered.

The array was collapsing. It could no longer suppress Mo Yunduan.

Xue Lingxian sighed. She knew that killing the god was a delusion. She flew to Zhang Ruochen's left and said, "Go, run now."

"Don't wait anymore. Once Mo Yunduan breaks out of the array, we can't escape even if we want to. Since you can't stay with Xue Jue Family any longer, come back to Kunlun's field with us. If you save Grand Supreme Master, he'll protect you and help you grow."

Granny Begonia, who had turned into a rainbow bone, flew to Zhang Ruochen's right and said this.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen's unwillingness, Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia looked at each other. They were ready to take him away by force.

"Wait, look, what is she doing?"

Zhang Ruochen pointed at Bai Qing'er.

Chapter 2525: Martyrdom

Translator: EndlessFantasy

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Every time a Regal Artifact exploded, Blackie's body would tremble. It wished it could peck Mo Yunduan to death with its beak.

However, there was nothing it could do. The strength of a pseudo god was too powerful. The power of Scroll of Imprisoned Gods was unparalleled. Class One or Two Regal Artifacts couldn't withstand it at all.

Just as it was about to grab the three Supreme Artifacts and run away, a strange fluctuation was emitted from the void space.

The source of fluctuation came from Bai Qing'er.

Under her blood-red clothes, her skin emitted a dazzling pure white Light of Origin. She was as holy as the first ray of light at the beginning of heaven and earth, creating all things and all living beings.

At this moment, she seemed to have combined all the wonders and beauty of the world into one. All the cultivators present were stunned for a moment.

"What a pure Light of Origin. Could it be that her Path of Origin has entered a state of mind?" Granny Begonia said.

Xue Lingxian shook her head and said, "It's the Origin's state of mind, but she hasn't cultivated to that level yet. She used a forbidden technique to forcibly raise it to that level. The price she paid should be heavy."

Light of Origin could create and destroy all things.

Under the illumination of Light of Origin, the void space didn't seem empty but filled with matter. Moreover, the matters were getting more concentrated. There were loess, bluestones, mountains, and valleys.

“Is she going to create a world from the void space and become the god of creation herself?”

Zhang Ruochen found that he had stepped on solid ground.

The void power around him was dispersed by Origin.

Mo Yunduan sensed something was wrong with Bai Qing'er and accelerated his attack on the Great Array of Asterisms.

“Martyr... with my body...”

Bai Qing'er uttered four words from her red lips.

Light of Origin was even more dazzling. Zhang Ruochen could not open his eyes. He was led by Granny Begonia and Xue Lingxian to retreat into the distance.

The last thing he saw was that the material created by Light of Origin had all been destroyed. It was like the end of the world. Bai Qing'er turned into a beam of white light and flew toward Mo Yunduan.

...

When Zhang Ruochen regained his vision, he had already appeared in the real world.

The world suddenly became calm. There was no terrifying Light of Origin or divine power fluctuation. A white Hoth, only the size of a bowl, floated more than one billion miles away.

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen came back to his senses. He looked around and asked, “Where's Blackie?”

“I was scared to death. Luckily, I escaped quickly. I've saved the three Supreme Artifacts!”

Blackie's feathers turned to ashes, and his body was charred black.

The three Supreme Artifacts flew in three different directions. They spun and glowed.

Zhang Ruochen glared at him. “Do you want to die?”

“These are Supreme Artifacts. If I hadn’t reacted quickly and suffered such a powerful attack, I would have lost them in the void space,” Blackie argued.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Isn’t it good to be alive?”

“Don’t worry. I’m a Phoenix,” Blackie said thoughtlessly, waving his charred wings.

Xue Lingxian asked Granny Begonia, “Do you know the forbidden technique of martyrdom?”

Granny Begonia was older than Xue Lingxian.

Granny Begonia was left with her seven-colored bones and white hair. Her voice was dry and hoarse, “This is a forbidden technique that only the Masters of Origin can use. Legend has it that cultivators below divinity will lose 10,000 years of their life, and Gods will lose 100,000 years if they use it.”

“This witch is ruthless. She’s willing to pay such a high price to not reveal her identity and implicate the Enchanter Chamber,” Blackie said with a grin.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a while and said, “She didn’t use this technique just to kill gods.”

“What else could it be?” Blackie asked curiously.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Since it’s a forbidden technique, she must push Path of Origin to the extreme and its state of mind. With this experience and her talent, she might be able to comprehend and enter Origin’s state of mind.”

“So what if she enters Origin’s state of mind?” Blackie continued to ask.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t want to talk to it anymore. He said, “How about Wuma Jiuxing, who entered Saber’s state of mind?”

Blackie took a deep breath. Its eyes became serious. “Path of Origin is one of nine Path of the Ancients. Once you enter it…”

Xue Lingxian broke through the dimension and entered the void space again.

Zhang Ruochen and Granny Begonia followed.

“Why are you in such a hurry to go back? What if Mo Yunduan isn’t dead? Should we discuss how to deal with the witch first?”

No one paid any attention to Blackie. Blackie suddenly thought of something and exclaimed, “Oh no, they must be going to snatch Scroll of Imprisoned Gods, bronze chime, Divinity Source... How did I just react?”

Blackie rushed into the void space. There was still a faint trace of Power of Origin and divine power fluctuation inside.

The power of the void space was too mighty. In such a short time, everything seemed to be eroded and assimilated. It was difficult to preserve anything here.

Zhang Ruochen picked up a palm-sized corpse. It belonged to Mo Yunduan, but the divine blood inside had lost its divinity. The divine soul, spiritual power, and divine spirit had all been destroyed by Origin.

Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia also found some body parts.

Xue Lingxian threw the body parts out and sighed. “She succeeded. The god has fallen. She’s an extraordinary woman.”

“Where’s the Divinity Source? Divinity Source doesn’t shatter, right?”

Blackie asked with concern. Then, he asked again, “What about Scroll of Imprisoned Gods?”

Granny Begonia said, “In that situation just now, Mo Yunduan didn’t have the time to self-detonate his Divinity Source. He can’t make such a big decision in a short time. The woman from the Enchanter Chamber should still be alive and has taken away his Divinity Source and Scroll of Imprisoned Gods.”

“What? Should we go after her now? She just used a forbidden technique. She must be frail now.” Blackie was unwilling to accept this suggestion.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, “She left from the void space without leaving any trace. How can we chase her?”

“This witch is too meticulous. She deliberately used us to heavily injure Mo Yunduan. Moreover, she only used a forbidden technique after we were down. She took all the benefits and successfully escaped. Zhang Ruochen, you must go all out when you fight with her in the future. Don’t go soft on her or be seduced by her beauty,” Blackie said earnestly.

Blackie wanted to collect the god’s corpse fragments but was stopped by Zhang Ruochen.

A god had fallen, and the Scroll of Imprisoned Gods was lost. It was obvious that Fane of Death would be furious and investigate the matter thoroughly.

Carrying the broken god corpse fragment would lend them to him.

At that time, the gains would not make up for the losses.

Returning to the real world, Zhang Ruochen took out a Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, the Great Restoration Pill that Fane of Immortality had given him, and handed it to Granny Begonia.

Granny Begonia took the Sacred Pill and looked at it. She returned it to Zhang Ruochen and said decisively, “Cultivators of Kunlun’s field do not eat the healing pills of Infernal Court.”

She wasn’t targeting Zhang Ruochen. She deeply hated Infernal Court after experiencing the dark days of the end of the Middle Ages period.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t understand her mentality, but he respected her wishes.

Blood vessels grew on Granny Begonia’s seven-colored bones. Her body recovered quickly as her muscles and skin grew out. Her injuries didn’t improve, but she looked fine on the outside.

“Give it to me!”

Xue Lingxian didn’t treat herself as an outsider and spread her hands.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to say that he wasn't close to her, but she was a first-class existence below divinity. How embarrassed would she be if Zhang Ruochen didn't give the pills to her even when she asked for it.

Zhang Ruochen handed her the only pill he had with a smile. It was a Quasi Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, a Great Restoration Pill that he didn't bear to eat.

Xue Lingxian took it and swallowed it directly.

After taking it, the effect was immediate. Xue Lingxian's injuries healed quickly, her Qi and blood kept increasing, and her mental state improved.

Zhang Ruochen's face suddenly changed when he was about to take out Tensho Compass and give it to Granny Begonia. He saw a figure walking hundreds of feet silently away.

It was like a human walking in the air.

That was why it was so strange.

How could a mortal walk in the air?

What was even stranger was that Zhang Ruochen could only see two dragon horns on his head and not his face clearly. It was as if he was walking in another time and space.

Xin Lingxian and Granny Begonia bowed at the same time and said in unison, "Dragon Lord!"

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's mind was ringing, and his body shook.

Dragon Lord...

It was said that the matchless figure of Kunlun's field in the Middle Ages period was as influential as Saint Monk Xumi. Even after 100,000 years, his reputation was still intact. It was enough to make a god's expression change.

Was it really the Dragon Lord?

A mythical figure appeared in front of him.

Blackie swung its legs, trying to escape. However, its legs seemed to be fixed there. Why couldn't it step out?

There was no divine aura that could overwhelm all living things, no footsteps that could shake the space. There was only a figure that couldn't be seen clearly. It was tall and ordinary, mysterious and simple.

Zhang Ruochen understood many things. His heart was still beating violently, but his expression was the same. He bowed and asked, "Since the Dragon Lord is nearby, why didn't you kill the pseudo god?"

Everyone could hear the questioning in his tone.

"That's right."

The Dragon Lord looked at Zhang Ruochen with admiration. "Asurendra Samay came!"

Zhang Ruochen was stunned. "Asurendra Samay?"

"I used a divine spirit to scare him away. He probably thought that Hoth Emperor was warning him to dash. Unfortunately, I can't act before I save the Lord of Nephilim Island. Otherwise, he'd already be dead!"

The dragon lord continued, "His target is you. More accurately, it's Intergold Tiger. He didn't need to come personally if he wanted to kill you."

All the gods in Infernal Court knew that if they wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen, they had to get rid of Intergold Tiger first. It was best to force Intergold Tiger to use more power than the heavenly and earthly precepts allowed and die in the heavenly punishment. That way, no traces would be left behind.

Zhang Ruochen certainly knew the deep hatred between him and Asurendra Samay. The influence of Wargod Bloodximius, Fukurokuju, and Luo Yan could make other gods put down their enmity and stop targeting Zhang Ruochen.

But Asurendra Samay and Ghost Master were not among them.

The hatred was too deep!

If the Dragon Lord hadn't happened to be here, Zhang Ruochen doubted that he would have survived this disaster. Was Wargod Belt enough to stop Asurendra Samay's true form?

Zhang Ruochen realized that his situation was more dangerous than he had imagined.

"You are the descendant of a grandmaster and Saint Monk's successor. Your identity is too delicate. The better you perform, the more uneasy some gods in Infernal Court will be. Your situation will only get more dangerous," Dragon Lord said.

Zhang Ruochen understood that Dragon Lord wanted him to return to Kunlun's field.

"If you return to Kunlun, I can take you as my disciple and announce your identity to the myriad realms' gods. You don't have to tell me your decision now. Everything can wait until you save Lord of Nephilim Island. You will naturally not be criticized if the rescue is successful. You will return in triumph as the hero," Dragon Lord said.

Obviously, Dragon Lord intended to put all the credit for rescuing Lord of Nephilim Island on him to shut everyone up.

Zhang Ruochen thought profoundly and nodded. He took out Tensho Compass and handed it to the Dragon Lord.

Dragon Lord took Tensho Compass and looked at the Divine Artifact carefully. After a while, he took out a seven-inch-tall five-colored exquisite tower and threw it to Zhang Ruochen.

He said, "Asurendra Samay won't stop here. His body and Divinity Source have been shattered and he's not as powerful as he was in the Middle Ages. But, he's still a TrueGod in the Great Void Realm. Ordinary methods won't be able to stop him. This tower contains my power. Use it carefully."

"One of the ten great Divine Artifacts, Shenlong Chaos Tower of Sun and Moon," Blackie screamed while his eyes were about to pop out of his sockets.

“After saving Lord of Nephilim Island, I’ll take this tower back and return Tensho Compass to you.”

Dragon Lord grabbed Blackie and twisted him away.

“H-help! Someone save me...”

Blackie called for help, but it was useless. Who dared to attack Dragon Lord?

Zhang Ruochen could see that Dragon Lord wasn’t hostile to Blackie, so he didn’t stop him. Besides, it was useless to stop him.

In front of a big shot like Dragon Lord, even a god might not be qualified to speak to him.

Dragon Lord talked so much to Zhang Ruochen because of his identity as the descendant of Saint Monk Xumi and the Immovable Wisdom King. Besides that, Zhang Ruochen proved his talent and temperament.

Zhang Ruochen looked down at the five-colored tower in his hand. Thinking of what Blackie had just shouted, his scalp went numb, and his heart thundered.

The legendary Divine Artifact was just given to him like that?

What if he lost it?

How mighty was Dragon Lord’s power contained in the tower? Could he kill Asurendra Samay?

Zhang Ruochen didn’t feel excited. Instead, he felt a heavy pressure that made it hard for him to breathe. He thought, “Don’t be like this. I’m only a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. Why would you give such a world-suppressing Divine Artifact to me? I can’t afford to lose it.”

With great power comes great responsibility.

How could a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint bear such a huge responsibility?

The tower contained a portion of Dragon Lord’s power, but could it really be used?

Definitely not!

Before rescuing Lord of Nephilim Island, Dragon Lord couldn't make a move. His power couldn't be sensed by the gods of Infernal Court.

Zhang Ruochen could only use it if he really reencountered Asurendra Samay and was forced into a life-and-death situation.

Zhang Ruochen was holding an egg instead of a Divine Artifact. He carefully put it away, afraid it would fall to the ground.

When a Divine Artifact fell to the ground, it was said to be able to smash through a realm.

Why did Tensho Compass and Dragon God's Shenlong Chaos Tower of Sun and Moon didn't seem to hold such powerful energy?

...

Granny Begonia and Zhang Ruochen were on a cosmic rock.

"Granny, you don't have to persuade me. Actually, my mother hasn't told me anything. I'm staying in Infernal Court of my own will," Zhang Ruochen said.

Granny Begonia looked bitter. "Because of those two children?"

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a long time, "That may be one of the reasons, but... I don't know either. I just feel that it's the same everywhere. It's full of killing, darkness, and deceit. What's the difference between Kunlun and Infernal Court?"

"The world is like this. It's always been like this."

Granny Begonia said, "You're running away, aren't you? You don't dare to face Chi Yao..."

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to talk about this anymore, "Granny, can you tell me what happened 800 years ago? Where did father go? Why did he let mother wait in Endless Abyss alone for 800 years without showing up? Was he killed?"

"Chi Yao said that father was controlled by mother and became her puppet to control Shengming Central Empire and Kunlun. I don't believe her. I believe you must know what happened that year. Don't lie to me and tell me the truth, okay?"

Granny Begonia sighed. Her old eyes were full of sorrow, "You have grown up. There are some things that you should know! In fact, no one was wrong. It's all the fault of the era. It's all the fault of this world."

Granny Begonia was a little tired. She sat down and said, "All of this started 100,000 years ago. No, it should have been even earlier. It was 300,000 years ago."

"Do you know what Celestial Court was called before?"

"Saint Realm," Zhang Ruochen said.

Granny Begonia nodded, "The heaven and earth Saint Qi in Saint Realm is dozens of times richer than Celestial Court now. There are saint veins and divine veins everywhere. Cultivators from all over the world can ascend to Saint Realm to cultivate as long as they become Demi-Saint."

"God knows how many influential people have been born in Saint Realm due to its excellent cultivation environment. Among them, the 20 most powerful ones are called the Twenty Devas."

"The Twenty Devas maintain the order of the universe and intimidate all the races in Infernal Court. The world is peaceful and prosperous. The landscapes were like a painting. There were so many heroes in the same era. It was the most beautiful time for all the cultivators who experienced that period."

"However, 300,000 years ago, a vast change occurred."

"The Twenty Devas went to accomplish something big. Logically speaking, any one of them could sweep across the galaxy and shake the universe with their cultivation bases. If the 20 of them worked together, what else could they not accomplish?"

"However, they failed. Only three people came back alive."

"This severely impacted the entire Saint Realm, and even myriad heavens. It represented the end of an era, the end of the ancient era, and the arrival of the Middle Ages period.

“Perhaps it was because of the fall of the Twenty Devas, or perhaps there were other reasons. The various races of Infernal Court began to stir. They were no longer willing to stay in the milky way of styx. In the end, they started a war to destroy the world.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “The war between Celestial Court and Infernal Court began 300,000 years ago?”

“To be precise, there was no Celestial Court at that time. It was the war between Saint Realm and myriad heavens with Infernal Court. The outbreak of the war represented the beginning of the Middle Ages period.”

Granny Begonia continued, “At the beginning of the war, Infernal Court was actively engaged in the war. Fane of Darkness, Nether Clan, Ghosts, Bone Clan, Stone Clan, and Asura were there. They all wanted to grow in the slaughter and become more robust in the face of death. At that time, Fane of Destiny was still a neutral faction.

“Although Twenty Devas had fallen at that time, Saint Realm and the myriad heavens were still very powerful without a leader. It was difficult for Fane of Darkness and the five clans to gain an advantage in the war. The battle between the two sides also happened locally. It didn’t reach the stage of an all-out war.

“Until the change happened 100,000 years ago.”

Zhang Ruochen was entirely focused. He realized that what she was about to say would probably affect an era. It wasn’t any weaker than the fall of the Twenty Devas.

After all, the Middle Ages period ended 100,000 years ago.

“The great change 100,000 years ago nearly destroyed all the macroworlds in the vast universe. All living things almost died. I still remember that Kunlun turned into a fireball. The sky was filled with divine fire. It burned for three months. If it wasn’t for the Heavenly Lord, Saint Monk, Lord of Nephilim Island, and Dragon Lord fighting with all their might, Kunlun might have been destroyed and turned into dead scorched earth.”

Granny Begonia thought back to the three months of fear and anxiety. The days where her heart was heavy worrying about the world’s destruction every day.

Zhang Ruochen felt shocked and depressed. He asked, “Who did it?”

Granny Begonia shook her head.

“What about three months later?” Zhang Ruochen asked again.

Granny Begonia stared at him. She said heavily, “Saint Realm, the heart of all realms was destroyed! A large number of gods have fallen. Countless saint-level cultivators have died. Fanes have collapsed, sacred mountains and divine veins have been destroyed. Divinity Bestowment Altar in Celestial Domain of Truth is one of the few ruins that has been preserved.”

Zhang Ruochen felt something stuck in his throat. His heart seemed to have shrunk into a ball.

After a long time, he exhaled and said, “Did Infernal Court destroy Saint Realm?”

Granny Begonia shook her head and said, “I don’t know. Maybe Dragon Lord and the others knew the truth, but they didn’t tell anyone. How could Infernal Court destroy Saint Realm, which was so powerful then?”

“Some people guessed this catastrophe was a continuation 300,000 years ago. It was caused by the Twenty Devas.”

“If it had something to do with the Twenty Devas, why did they take revenge 200,000 years later?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Granny Begonia shook her head again and said, “Even the top gods might not know such a secret.”

She continued, “After the catastrophe, the myriad realms of Celestial Court became weaker. They had to work together to resist Infernal Court and deal with the possible unknown strong enemies. Everyone realized they could no longer be like a pile of loose sand. They had to work together to tide over the crisis.

“Driven by the internal and external troubles, Celestial Court was established! Haotian, one of the Twenty Devas that survived in the past, became the Lord of the Celestial Court.

“After the catastrophe, all realms were terrified and tried to increase their strength at all costs.

“Saint Monk, the Heavenly Lord, and Dragon Lord might have known some secrets and were all awakened. They activated Sundial and helped all the cultivators of Kunlun to cultivate together in case they could not fight back when the next catastrophe came.

“It was during this period that a revolution occurred in Infernal Court.

“The chief of Yanluo Clan, who had always been the peacemaker, disappeared in the Abyss of Darkness.

“In Fane of Destiny, Life Reverend and Auspicious Reverend, who had always opposed the war, died mysteriously. Death Reverend and Ominous Reverend, who were in charge of the war, were in power. They also accused Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations and Saint Monk Xumi of Kunlun of killing the two deities.

“Therefore, to lead the ten races to take revenge on the myriad realms of Celestial Court, Fane of Destiny used the excuse that Kunlun wanted to rule the universe and destroy Infernal Court and used the death of the two deities to start the war. The fuse was lit, and an all-out war broke out between the myriad realms of Celestial Court and Infernal Court!”

Zhang Ruochen had heard the rumors about the leader of the Yanluo clan, the Life Reverend and Auspicious Reverend from Luo Sha. At that time, he had only thought of it as an internal conflict in the Infernal Court. He hadn't thought much about it.

However, he remembered the Saint Realm catastrophe and the scenario during that period when the conflict almost destroyed various myriad worlds.

The changes in the Infernal Court seemed very strange.

As far as he knew, although the Saint Realm had rejected the Infernal Court because of their different beliefs, they could only stay in the milky way of styx. However, some of the races in the Infernal Court still had a good relationship with the macroworld cultivators. They were not completely hostile to each other.

After such a big thing happened, the entire universe was in a state of panic. Was the Infernal Court not afraid at all? The first thing that came to their minds was actually declaring war against the Celestial Court.

Yan Huangtu once said that the Twenty Devas were likely to be the Twenty-four Devas, and the other four heavens were from the Infernal Court.

In other words, it was very likely that the Twenty-four Devas had gone and done that major event 300,000 years ago.

If the Saint Realm had been destroyed, it would have been a disaster caused by what they had done back then.

Wasn't the Infernal Court afraid of revenge from others?

Why hasn't anyone taken revenge against the Infernal Court yet?

The more Zhang Ruochen thought about it, the more he felt that it was strange. However, too much time had passed, and there were no clues. It wasn't reliable to guess anything based on the legends.

He continued listening to Granny Begonia.

Kunlun has been the most powerful world since ancient times, and it has been indestructible since forever. The third Confucius forefathers of the Path of Confucianism, was one of the Twenty Devas that participated in that event 300,000 years ago. Even Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations had once been his student.”

Hearing this secret news, Zhang Ruochen felt honored. He suppressed a smile, “There are three Paths of martial arts in the world,” he said. “The nine schools of thoughts all over the world, and with the Path of Confucianism being one of the three Paths of Kunlun, I think there must have been heaven-level figures in Confucianism.”

Granny Begonia said, “Before the third Confucius forefathers, about 10 Yuanhui periods ago, your Zhang family’s ancestor, the Immovable Wisdom King, was also one of the Twenty Devas of that era. He was even a Heavenlord.”

A Heavenlord? Zhang Ruochen asked.

Granny Begonia said, “The number one person within the Twenty Devas can be called a Heavenlord. There can be twenty Devas in every era, but only one Heavenlord.”

Zhang Ruochen gulped nervously. He hadn’t expected the Zhang family’s ancestor to be so terrifying. No wonder that a jade pendant he left behind could stop the possession of a god-like Asurendra Samay.

He was a Heavenlord and an honorable god.

Thinking about himself now, Zhang Ruochen suddenly felt like an unworthy descendant.

If the Immovable Wisdom King had his divine spirit remaining in the world and saw the Zhang family’s decline, then not even the coffin could contain him!

Even though Granny Begonia had never met the Immovable Wisdom King before, she had heard many legends about him. Kunlun was incredibly glorious in ancient times when the Immovable Wisdom King was around. Many macroworlds followed the lead of Kunlun.

She continued, “In every era, Kunlun occupied a place in the Twenty Devas. I’m telling you this because I want to tell you that even in the late Middle Ages, Kunlun was still mighty and had a strong foundation. It has all sorts of protective measures set up by heaven-grade characters in history. If it weren’t for the traitors and the dirty tricks from the Celestial Court, Kunlun might not have ended up in such a miserable state.

Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations, Bi Luozi, Saint Monk Xumi, Dragon Lord Jiwang... many gods of Kunlun had their whereabouts revealed in that battle. Many plots were against them, and they were either besieged or ambushed, so most died. Only a few managed to escape.

Zhang Ruochen knew about the traitors and the dirty tricks. He had heard the Moon Goddess talking about it.

Granny Begonia obviously didn’t know much about the dirty tricks. She only saw the surface of things.

Granny Begonia said, “The battle between Celestial and Infernal Court lasted for a thousand years. It started in Kunlun and ended in Kunlun. The passing of Saint Monk Xumi ended it, and the two sides signed a truce. The Middle Age is over!”

A universe-grade battle would last for a long time. It would not end in a few days.

The heaven-level figures in the history of Kunlun had left many defensive and offensive means in the starry sky outside the world, as well as countless Dimensional Trap and Array fortresses.

If the Infernal Court dared invade and managed to destroy Kunlun, they would suffer heavy casualties.

Who could pay such a price?

The Battle of Ten Thousand Realms had only been fought for a thousand years, which was quite a short period of time. The wars between secular countries could easily last for decades. (The Songmeng War and the Qingming War had been fought for decades.)

A truce agreement? Why did they sign a truce agreement? Zhang Ruochen asked.

Granny Begonia said, “Because both the Celestial and Infernal Courts suffered heavy losses in this war as more than half of the deities on both sides died. The Celestial Court’s subordinate worlds have been destroyed by over a thousand, and the war halted even the flow of the milky way of styx. Billions of planets with cultivators gathered on them were laid to waste. More than 10 trillion souls and creatures of the Infernal Court have died.”

It was hard for Zhang Ruochen to imagine how terrible the war of gods had been.

At least one macro world was destroyed in the Celestial Court every year.

Every year, millions of planets fall in the Infernal Court.

What kind of blood feud had been formed?

After thousands of years of war, the entire Celestial Court had suffered heavy losses and grew tired of war. Because there were so many worlds and so many forces, the internal conflicts of the Celestial Court multiplied quickly, and the Celestial Palace had no choice but to propose a truce to the Infernal Court.

Zhang Ruochen said, “The Infernal Court just agreed like that?”

Many of the clans in the Infernal Court believe in death, war, and slaughter. However, there are also limits to everything because the dead souls will die too. They are also afraid of true death.

Granny Begonia continued, “During the battle against Saint Monk Xumi, many deities died in the Infernal Court. There were also big internal conflicts happening within. The conflicts intensified to the extent that the Fane of Destiny and the Fane of Darkness could not suppress them. If they continued to fight, there was a high chance that chaos would break out within the Infernal Court.”

The Fane of Destiny and the Fane of Darkness could only sign an agreement with the Celestial Court.

Because it was the Celestial Court that first proposed a truce. Furthermore, the Infernal Court's might was stronger. There were still a large number of gods who wanted to continue fighting. The Celestial Court was at a disadvantage when the truce was signed.

Zhang Ruochen said, "But the war is not over. The Celestial Court and the Infernal Court were still fighting on the Battlefield of Merits. The Infernal Court has not given up on the idea of exterminating all living things in the world."

Granny Begonia said, "When Saint Monk Xumi passed away, he used the last of his divine force to protect Kunlun. From then on, Kunlun was almost isolated from the Celestial Court and the Infernal Court. Therefore, everything about the armistice agreement was only known to me when I went to the Celestial Court and read the records. Only the elites who experienced that period would understand what exactly happened.

However, in the past 100,000 years, there have been few large-scale battles between the Celestial and Infernal Court. Even on the Battlefield of Merits, only cultivators below Supreme Saint were allowed to enter the realm to fight. The conflict was restricted only to those below the divinity level.

An armistice agreement could not restrain the dead spirits who thirsted for death and destruction, and some cultivators in the myriad of worlds in the Celestial Court could not possibly put down the blood feud in their hearts.

The two sides would definitely fight again, but the scale of the battle would be significantly reduced.

A hundred thousand years had passed, forming the current pattern of the War of Merit.

Only the deities knew the complete details of the armistice agreement.

Granny Begonia continued, “In the thousand years of war, nearly all the gods of Kunlun fell from above the clouds into the abyss. The world was riddled with holes from the battle, and Saint Monk Xumi used his last divine force to seal the holes in the world so that he could protect the few lucky survivors left in the world.”

Zhang Ruochen had many questions, so he asked. “After the Saint Monk died, the Celestial and Infernal Court signed a truce. Is that why the attacks on Kunlun by the various deities of the Infernal Court stopped?”

“Kunlun is the biggest world between the Celestial and Infernal Court. If Kunlun is destroyed, it’s the same as the gate being broken. Therefore, the Celestial Court naturally has to protect Kunlun,” Granny Begonia said.

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly and suddenly understood.

Saint Monk Xumi was very powerful, but there were also many powerful figures in the Infernal Court. They could break through the divine force protecting the realm if they wanted to attack Kunlun.

The only explanation was that the condition that deities of the Infernal Court must not continue to attack Kunlun was in the truce agreement.

The deities of Kunlun had nearly died out completely. They were no longer a threat to the underworld or Infernal Court.

It was like...

A dead world!

The only things left were the Divine Artifacts, cultivation techniques, and ancient artifacts of Kunlun... all these treasures.

Therefore, the Kunlun during that time was a treasury in the eyes of the Celestial and Infernal Court and not a world.

A treasury that could not be opened for the time being!

Once the treasury was opened, the battle between the Celestial and Infernal Court would continue. The war was something neither side wanted to happen.

It was Saint Monk Xumi who had placed a lock on the treasury, preventing cultivators from various places from entering easily.

One hundred thousand years later, that said lock had rusted and lost its functions.

Both the Celestial and Infernal Court had rested and recovered some of their vitality. Thus, they began to enter the treasury to raid the treasures within. Of course, some cultivators from the Celestial Court treated Kunlun as a fortress against the Infernal Court. They went to Kunlun as explorers, not as bandits.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What was the situation in Kunlun then?"

Granny Begonia said, "Nearly all deities have perished, and the Realm Root was cut off. The precepts of heaven and earth were damaged heavily in the battle of the gods, with the divine and holy veins exhausted and the Saint Qi of heaven and earth dispersed. All the divine and holy land were hidden by Saint Monk Xumi, who used the Power of Dimensions before he died. During that time, Kunlun welcomed the dark and chaotic era that lasted for tens of thousands of years.

"In the dark and chaotic era, the few remaining Supreme Saint elites died out completely."

"Because of the lack of the Realm Root and the deterioration of the cultivation environment, it was extremely difficult to reach the Saint Realm. One must be a talented genius among thousands to reach the Supreme Saint realm. For example, that being the Destiny Emperor 70,000 years ago.”

“Or the ninth Emperor and the third Empress 800 years ago.”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a bitter smile. He felt that the world was ridiculous beyond belief.

The gods of Kunlun had fallen. But the cultivators who survived didn’t seek unity to overcome the difficulties. Instead, they killed each other and fought without ceasing.

This was human nature!

It was like a country where all the leaders had died. There would definitely be chaos.

This was human nature!

Without the restriction of Precepts, all the greed and darkness of human nature would be released unbridled.

There was a limit to good.

There was no bottom line for evil.

Desire was like a sea of sin and like a bottomless abyss. It was monstrous and difficult to fill.

Who’s wrong was this?

No one was in the wrong. It was the wrong era and the fault of this generation.

To be born in such a great era, one could either cultivate to achieve divinity and use the power to suppress all living things to change everything while setting new Precepts. Or else one could only go with the flow and be pushed forward by the currents of the era.

However, without Precepts and the Realm Root severed, It meant that Kunlun could no longer produce gods.

Granny Begonia said, “The chaos in Kunlun and internal strife between the major forces and races lasted until 800 years ago. In the end, Empress Chi Yao used her absolute might to unite the human race and suppress the Hidden Barrens, which ushered in hundreds of years of prosperity. These past hundreds of years are still not complete peace, but compared to before, they are much smaller conflicts.”

Zhang Ruochen looked at the starry sky and said emotionlessly, “I understand that only unification can bring stability. But is there no other peaceful way? Do you know how many massacres Chi Yao caused when she established the first central empire? How many innocent people who died tragically were displaced?”

“Unless deities come into being, there is no peaceful way to unify them,” said Granny Begonia.

Zhang Ruochen said, “At least the Shengming Central Empire and Central Chiqing Empire should not go to war. Father and Emperor Qing are best friends.”

“The emperor is only the leader of these two countries. He doesn’t represent the ministers and the people. It’s not easy to unify the thoughts of just two people. How can the thoughts of 10 thousand or 100 million people be unified? In history, there have never been two countries that have unified without war,” said Granny Begonia.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Is this the real reason Chi Yao killed me? She was only 14 years old at that time. Does she know about this?”

“That is certainly not the truth!”

Granny Begonia saw that Zhang Ruochen was very emotional, so she did not rush to continue.

Zhang Ruochen calmed down and said, “Have all the gods of Kunlun really fallen and not a single one survived? Why is the Dragon Lord still alive then? Why didn’t he come out to take charge of the situation?”

Granny Begonia said, “No one knows that the Dragon Lord is still alive. Moreover, the Dragon Lord is only half a cultivator of Kunlun. Even if he is still alive, everyone thinks he has returned to the Celestial Dragon Realm. How could he stay in the dilapidated Kunlun? In fact, the Dragon Lord was severely injured in the war of gods 100,000 years ago. His divine force was almost exhausted, and he has slept ever since.”

“Perhaps there are other gods in Kunlun who are still alive but can’t show themselves.”

“Why?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Granny Begonia stared at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Because of the Infernal Court, the underworld, and the traitors?”

“That’s right! You should also know that cultivators in the underworld can still enter Kunlun through the hole in the world. However, there will be a big restriction to their cultivation,” Granny Begonia said.

Zhang Ruochen naturally knew this.

Lord Ming and the Blood Empress of the Immortal Vampire had entered Kunlun through the hole in the world.

He had also met the Deathkin cultivators on Xianji Mountain.

There was even the Soul-Devouring Lamp, the Divine Artifact of the Infernal Court. The legends of Kunlun told that its presence forced all the vessel spirits of Supreme Artifact and Divine Artifact to hide away.

The battle between Kunlun and the Infernal Court never stopped.

Zhang Ruochen suspected that the reason for Kunlun’s dark and chaotic era was closely related to the cultivators of the Infernal Court.

Granny Begonia said, “If the news of the existence of deities in Kunlun spreads to the Infernal Court and Celestial Court, will they still treat Kunlun as a dead world or a treasure trove? They will think that Kunlun is dead, but not completely. They will take revenge in the future without giving Kunlun any time.”

“The Infernal Court can sit still, but so can the underworld.”

“There’s no need to wait for 100,000 years. Kunlun might have been destroyed 90,000 years before that.”

“In 100,000 years, we’ll get to see a new Realm Root to achieve divinity and for the Dragon Lord to wake up. Those deities who might have survived will also need 100,000 years to recuperate and recover their divine force.”

“If we save the Island Lord, then the future of Kunlun can be much anticipated by us.”

Zhang Ruochen laughed self-mockingly and said, “So, in order to steal 100,000 years of time, you only started planning 800 years ago to unify Kunlun? And the chosen one is Chi Yao, right?”

Granny Begonia said, “You are our first choice.”

“What did you say?” Zhang Ruochen was slightly shocked.

Granny Begonia said, “There are many people in Kunlun in deep sleep who have been left behind from the Middle Ages. A few already woke up thousands of years ago—for example, your father’s master, Master Yuanfa of the Liangyi Sect.

“Almost all of these awakened people are elites in the Supreme Saint category. They haven’t shown up yet, but they have started to take charge of the overall situation and cultivate scions who can appear in the open.

“You know of the Immortal Vampire Secrets, right? They developed it to deal with the Immortal Vampires specifically. Of course, it could also be developed by the deities of the Middle Age and coincidentally happen to be in their hands.”

Zhang Ruochen suddenly realized something.

The Immortal Vampire Secrets recorded things like the “Blood Suppressant Talisman.”

The Blood Suppressant Talisman at a Supreme Saint level could suppress the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires.

Back then, Emperor Ming had announced that the Immortal Vampire Secrets had been developed by Shangguan Que and a group of saints from the Central Shengming Empire. Zhang Ruochen had always been suspicious of that.

Now, he was relieved!

Granny Begonia said, “Back then, you were more gifted than Chi Yao, so they chose you to unify Kunlun. But... the fact that you have half of the Immortal Vampire's bloodline was exposed by that."

The atmosphere instantly became tense.

Granny Begonia didn't continue, but Zhang Ruochen could already imagine what had happened.

Kunlun and the Infernal Court had a deep hatred mutually, especially for those that had awakened from the Middle Ages. The two sides were like fire and water, and their hatred was as deep as the sea.

The person they had chosen came from the bloodline of the Immortal Vampire. What was that supposed to mean?

The grand emperor of the Central Shengming Empire could come in contact with the mysterious figures of Kunlun, but the person next to him was the Blood Empress of the Immortal Vampires. Kunlun was about to face destruction at any moment.

The Blood Empress was doomed to die.

The vile spawn of the Immortal Vampires had to die too.

Granny Begonia said, "Now you understand your father's situation, right? He had no choice but to kill your mother. If he didn't do anything, then Master Yuanfa and the others would act. In the end, your father pushed your mother into the Endless Abyss."

"You should have died too. Your father pleaded for your life, but it was useless. The hatred between the cultivators of Kunlun and the Immortal Vampires is too deep!"

Zhang Ruochen fell into a deep silence. After a long time, he asked, "Why am I alive then?"

"It was Saint Monk Xumi who had arrived in the future who saved you. He said that the youngest son didn't know evil and couldn't be condemned because of his bloodline. Those who were good to him were buddhas, and those who were evil were devils. True hell is in the heart, not in the Infernal Court."

"After that, I didn't know what happened clearly. When I got the news again, it was already during the fall of the Central Shengming Empire. I was furious at that time because I had promised a deity of the Zhang family during the Middle Ages to protect the Zhang family.”

Granny Begonia said, "I have been to the sacred Shengming City and met with Emperor Qing. I also met with some of the survivors of the Central Shengming Empire. After talking with the poor and cultivators of the various forces, the more I learned, the more frustrated I felt. In the end, I silently returned to the Sword Pavilion."

Next, Granny Begonia recounted what happened at that time. It was similar to what Chi Yao had said at Mount Yueshen.

Emperor Ming didn't know the identity of the Blood Empress at first.

After the Blood Empress became the Empress, she controlled more than half of the imperial court of the Central Shengming Empire through Kong Lanyou's grandfather, Kong Shangling. Some councilors had their blood sucked dry by the Immortal Vampires and transformed. The Blood Empress herself directly controlled a few through the mind.

The entire Central Shengming Empire, from the imperial court to the bottom, had been completely eroded by the Immortal Vampires. It was impossible to tell who was an Immortal Vampires, who listened to the Immortal Vampires, and who was loyal to Shengming.

When he heard this, Zhang Ruochen was calm from the beginning to the end.

He knew that most of what Granny Begonia said was true.

Because the Blood Empress had her own standpoint. She was an Immortal Vampire. She came to Kunlun to represent the Infernal Court and the interests of the Immortal Vampires.

Moreover, the Blood Empress must have that kind of skill and capability.

The disciple of the Blood Empress, Qiu Yichi, was good at the "Path of the Mind" and the "Soul Bewitching Blood Art."

Qiu Yichi, who was merely a saint, was able to control the Sect of the Blood God and the Black Dragon Ruins Realm right under Yan Liren's eyes.

After breaking through and becoming a Saint King, she became the number one target on the Saint King murderer bounty list. She was known as the “Beguiler Demon” and controlled many elites with the Path of the Mind.

As for her, she was only the disciple of the Blood Empress.

As a first-class figure among the Supreme Saint, how profound was the Path of the Mind and the Soul Bewitching Blood Art mastery of the Blood Empress?

Even the crown prince’s tutor, Shangguan Que, was under her control. Zhang Ruochen naturally didn’t find it strange that she controlled other people in the imperial court.

In all aspects, Zhang Ruochen felt that the Blood Empress had surpassed Emperor Ming.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen also believed that the Blood Empress might have approached Emperor Ming in the beginning to control him, the Central Shengming Empire, and even start a war to control the entirety of Kunlun.

But later, they must have had a deep relationship.

If they had no feelings for the other, the Blood Empress would never have born a child for Emperor Ming with her personality. She would only treat him as a puppet like a Blood Captive.

Granny Begonia said, “After Emperor Ming disappeared, Kong Shangling allied with a large number of councilors and took over the government at a speed that no one had time to respond to, and entered the imperial palace of Emperor Ming.”

“At that time, the head of the Murong Family, Murong Chengde, was one of the three chancellors. He was an official of the Grand Tutor, and he led a group of councilors to cursed Kong Shangling for his rebellious actions and usurping the throne. He argued that a member of the Zhang family should be the new Emperor Ming. Unfortunately, he was suppressed and persecuted by Kong Shangling. No one knows how many people died.

“Later, when the great army of the Central Chiqing Empire invaded the Shengming Imperial City, the Murong Family and councilors fought until the last moment. Unfortunately, there was no turning back. In the end, they had no choice but to retreat. Some hid in the demonic plains of the Eastern Region, while others fled into the Hidden Barrens or went far away to the primitive world in the outer realms.

“Maybe Chi Yao and Emperor Qing just wanted to exterminate the Immortal Vampires and the people controlled by the Blood Empress. However, war has always been uncontrollable. Once it breaks out, it will inevitably hurt the innocent and create infinite hatred. With hatred, more evil, darkness, and slaughter will spread. No one can stop it.”

“The Emperor can’t stop that, and neither can gods!”

“The emperor is just like the trunk of a tree. No matter how the trunk shakes, it can’t shake off the dust on every leaf.”

“In war, more innocent people die than those who deserve to die.”

“You tell me, who is right and wrong?”

“I still don’t understand this question even till now. Maybe the root of the problem is the incident 300,000 years ago. It’s the fault of the era, the fault of the entire world.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were neither sad nor happy. He said, “Where are the Zhang family’s disciples? Since Granny is the guardian of the Zhang family, you can’t just watch them be killed indifferently, right?”

“Do you know why I silently went back to the Sword Pavilion at the end?” asked Granny Begonia.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Could it be the Zhang family’s disciples...”

Granny Begonia nodded and said, “Most of the Zhang family’s disciples have already left Kunlun. They went to the Zhuque Ruins Realm under the lead of the eldest princess, your aunt.”

“I see.”

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes. His heart was full of mixed feelings. He felt empty, confused, and troubled.

Whose fault was it?

The fault of the Blood Empress?

Emperor Ming's fault?

The fault of those that had awakened in Kunlun?

The fault of Chi Yao and Emperor Qing?

...

However, in the context of that era, everyone had no choice but to do what they should do the most. Looking from their respective standpoints, they are both right and wrong.

These emotions only lasted for a moment before he drove them away.

When he opened his eyes again, Zhang Ruochen's expression had sharpened, and he said, "Everyone knows the major principles. But who can feel at ease when certain things occur to them? I can't be like that for sure."

Granny Begonia didn't say much because she understood that what happened back then was unfair to Zhang Ruochen. He had suffered far too much.

His father was indecisive and incompetent, while his mother was a disaster for Shengming. Both of them had been heavily criticized by the public, where he learned of the truth.

His heart must be in more pain than before.

Somebody having half of the bloodline from Kunlun with the other half from the Infernal Court were sins in themselves. They were neither accepted by Kunlun nor the Infernal Court.

It wasn't easy for him to change his fate and live his second life as an actual human. He was about to become the supporting force of Kunlun and the hero that saved the world; at that time where most cultivators would accept him.

However, he was forced to merge with his body from his previous life and become half-human and half-Immortal Vampire again.

It was as if he was being played with by fate while tortured and could never escape from the palm of fate.

He was like a chess piece on a chessboard. Some wanted him to go east, while others wanted him to go west. Even if he changed his fate, he still had to return to the trajectory of fate in the end.

Zhang Ruochen pointed to the sky, “Even if the destruction of the Central Shengming Empire was inevitable, and even if Saint Monk Xumi changed my fate and turned me into a real human, why was it Chi Yao who killed me in the past?”

“I don’t know.”

Granny Begonia shook her head and said, “You can only ask her about this question.”

Zhang Ruochen had already asked Chi Yao this question, but there was no answer.

Compared to Chi Yao, his cultivation was too low!

Unless his cultivation surpassed hers, then he might be able to force out a result if it was like that.

...

On the cosmic rock, Zhang Ruochen sat quietly all by himself. He did not move as if he had become one with the stone.

Three days later.

Blackie flew onto the rock with a mournful expression and sat next to Zhang Ruochen. He said, “There are some truths that I would rather not know. After knowing, it makes people so miserable.”

Zhang Ruochen felt he had found someone in the same boat. He asked with concern, “What truth have you known?”

“My past history.” Blackie’s tone was sorrowful.

Indeed, they were in the same boat together.

Zhang Ruochen patted its wings and said, “Don’t be sad. No matter how painful it is, we can overcome anything. These sufferings only temper our hearts to be stronger. Now you might as well tell me what is troubling you. It may be better if you speak it out loud.”

“Really?”

Blackie looked at Zhang Ruochen with eager eyes.

Zhang Ruochen suppressed the pain in his heart and tried to squeeze out a bright smile. He nodded at Blackie with an encouraging look.

Blackie sighed, “The Dragon Lord said he is my mother’s best friend and asked me to call him uncle in the future. If I meet a deity against me, I can directly report that name to him.”

Pffft!

Zhang Ruochen felt like he had been stabbed.

How many cultivators dreamed of having a figure like the Dragon Lord as an uncle? Why were you so sad about it?

Were you showing off?

Blackie said again, “The Dragon Lord said that the Hoth Emperor is my father. I can go to him directly if there’s trouble in the Infernal Court. Do you think I can endure this?”

Pfffft!

Zhang Ruochen felt like he had been stabbed again.

The Hoth Emperor was such an influential figure. Even though he had been imprisoned, he was still powerful and influential.

Not only did he find his father, but he also had such a powerful father. Why couldn’t he endure it?

Blackie continued, “The Dragon Lord said that the Lord of Nephilim Island is my mother’s master, and she is the disciple that he is most proud of. She was once one of the most powerful divine Array Masters and hoped to become the Grand Supreme Array Master.”

Pfffffft!

The third stab.

I’m just trying to comfort you. Why are you doing this to me?

Zhang Ruochen felt that Blackie was deliberately trying to anger him. Finally, he couldn't help it and wanted to fight.

Let's fight to our heart's content.

"The Dragon Lord said that my mother is dead!" Blackie said weakly at his shoulder.

Zhang Ruochen put his hand down. He didn't know how to comfort it, so he patted its wings lightly and said, "I'm sorry for your loss!"

Blackie hated the Immortal Vampires as much as he did. It couldn't be delighted to know that its father was a deity of the Immortal Vampires.

"Sorry for what? I was still young when she died, so I don't remember her at all. What's there to be sorry for?" Blackie cried loudly and patted its chest.

Zhang Ruochen understood that feeling well. It wasn't acting.

It said this either because it was stubborn or trying to make Zhang Ruochen understand that everything could be taken lightly.

The past was not something they could decide.

However, the future was uncertain.

Zhang Ruochen looked up and saw the Dragon Lord, Xue Lingxian, and Granny Begonia walking over.

He stood up, cupped his fists, and said, "Dragon Lord!"

"How do you feel now that you know the truth?" The Dragon Lord asked.

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly. "It's okay."

"I see that you can still smile. It seems like it's okay."

The Dragon Lord put his hands behind his back and asked, "Kunlun or the Immortal Vampires, you will have to make a choice. Stand firmly on one side, or you'll suffer more in the future. People who want to have it both ways often don't have it both ways."

"I will consider this seriously," Zhang Ruochen said.

The Dragon Lord laughed and said, “No matter what choice you make in the future, at least for now, you have helped Kunlun greatly in saving the Island Lord. I will lend you my hand too!”

“What do you mean by that, Dragon Lord?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The Dragon Lord said, “Show me your Saintwill.”

Zhang Ruochen had already fused six of the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. They represented the Palm Saintwill of Yang, the Fist Saintwill of Yin, and the five elements of gold, wood, water, and earth.

Only the fire Saintwill had not been fused.

Zhang Ruochen knew that the Dragon Lord would teach him how to cultivate the Saintwill. Naturally, he was delighted. After all, even deities were eager to receive guidance from the top elites in the universe.

The Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill manifested itself. A five-hued light appeared on Zhang Ruochen's body. The chaotic energy spread in all directions, and the surrounding space seemed to become a part of the chaos. The Yin-yang of heaven and earth split into two.

Whoosh

A faint yin-yang Taiji Mark appeared and rotated slowly. Inside, it contained the most wonderful truth in the world.

Granny Begonia, Xue Lingxian, and Blackie were all in Kunlun. Through the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms projection, they had seen Zhang Ruochen use this type of Saintwill on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

However, watching from the side, they felt completely different.

"This is a combination of six Saintwills!" Xue Lingxian's eyes showed a hint of surprise.

Blackie stepped back and said, "Why do I feel that he is absorbing everything in the world? The Precepts of Dimension and Time have become a little strange. That is quite strange indeed. However, his Saintwill doesn't combine the Dimension and Time Saintwill!"

Granny Begonia looked happy and said, "After combining six types of Saintwill, he must have reached the Grade Two level. Maybe the Zhang family could be able to become glorious again under his leadership in the future."

After practicing once, Zhang Ruochen stopped and looked at the Dragon Lord.

The Dragon Lord said, "Practice it again."

Zhang Ruochen immediately practiced again. This time, he merged the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill and the Dragon-Tiger Prajna Strike into one and lashed out as an attack.

Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia were surprised.

By combining these types of Saintwill, the attack was too strong. With this, Zhang Ruochen's cultivation at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm could win against a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint.

The Dragon Lord said, "Let's do it again."

Zhang Ruochen continued to practice it again and again.

After practicing it seven times, the Dragon Lord said meaningfully, "Do you want to walk the path of the Grade One Saintwill?"

"Does the Dragon Lord also think that this is a dead end?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

The Dragon Lord didn't answer him. Instead, he stood dozens of feet away and reached out a hand. His hand pierced through space and touched Zhang Ruochen's forehead.

Boom

Instantly, Zhang Ruochen lost his balance and fell into a sea of Chaos. He arrived at the beginning of time and space before everything was born. The scene before him was undefined, boundless, and in eternal silence.

The next moment.

Zhang Ruochen trembled, then he was pulled back and found himself standing on the cosmic rock.

Everything just now was so real.

But after returning, he felt like he was in a dream.

The Dragon Lord had already withdrawn his hand, "As expected, you are the Master of Time and Space. Old Monk Xumi passed down his Path to you,” he continued. “You, on the other hand, practice the Immovable Wisdom King’s Trāyastriṃśa. From a useless body, you have cultivated it to the innate Acquired Five-Element Chaotic Body. Why did that happen?”

The Dragon Lord seemed to be asking questions but also looked like he was talking to himself.

“Time and space, five elements, chaos, Yin and Yang...”

After a long while, the Dragon Lord suddenly seemed to understand something. He lost his composure somewhat and laughed, then he asked, “Zhang Ruochen, you’ve reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Have you made up your mind about the future?”

“This chaotic and cruel universe needs a new order!” Zhang Ruochen replied.

With this sentence, the Dragon Lord understood everything and said. “If you have such a vision, then it doesn’t matter whether you choose Kunlun or the Immortal Vampires!”

After saying that, he laughed again. “Old Monk Xumi is still the best.”

Zhang Ruochen knew that his achievements were closely related to Saint Monk Xumi, but he didn’t understand the Dragon Lord’s words.

“Dragon Lord, could you give me some advice on how to break through the perfection of the Yin Yang Five-Element?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“Advice?”

The Dragon Lord shook his head and said, “Human follows land, land follows sky, and sky follows Daoism. Man, Earth, Heaven, and Dao. You already have the first three. All you need is the last Dao!”

“When you understand your Dao, you won’t be far from success! I can see that your state of mind is changing, and you are not far from comprehending the Dao. I hope that you won’t disappoint Old Monk Xumi. Even I am looking forward to that day.”

Blackie muttered, “Is there a need to be so exaggerated? I have already comprehended the Dao long ago!”

The Dragon Lord glanced at it and said, “Come with me later.”

Blackie was stunned. “Huh?”

“You have to face what you have to face eventually,” the Dragon Lord said.

Blackie shook his head hard.

Zhang Ruochen fell into deep thought. The person the Dragon Lord was talking about should be his heart, which was his vision of the future.

The earth should be the body, the Five-element Chaos.

The sky should be referring to his identity as the Master of Time and Space. Space would be the sky.

But what was Dao?

Could it be the Path or Deva Path?

“I can’t help you with the cultivation of Saintwill, but I can help you improve your spiritual power.”

The Dragon Lord opened his palm. A shimmering ball of dark blue flame floated up.

“This is a wisp of origin divine Dragonfire from my heart. It can help you refine the distracting thoughts in your spiritual power, allowing you to make your spiritual power purer and advance faster.”

“Thank you, Dragon Lord.”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t refuse. He held the origin divine Dragonfire.

Along the way, Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power could quickly rise to the 66th class mainly because he had refined sacred pills and absorbed the Heart of the Divine Tree. There were many corrupted practices he had done.

The Dragon Lord probably saw this, so he gave him a wisp of the origin divine Dragonfire.

With this wisp of origin divine Dragonfire, Zhang Ruochen was more confident that he could raise his spiritual power to the 69th level in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. This would lay a solid foundation for him to cultivate Grade One Saintwill.

“If you want to walk the path of the Grade One Saintwill, you must not forget about time and space. Go!”

The Dragon Lord finished his last sentence and turned to leave. He seemed very free and at ease.

Surprisingly, Blackie took the initiative to catch up.

Blackie caught up to the Dragon Lord and smiled, “Uncle, I’ve been locked in the Sacred Qiankun Wooden Picture Scroll for 100,000 years by that old donkey Xumi, and my spirit has been improved till its very strong. I’m only one step away from my spiritual power achieving divinity, and it only lacks some of the origin divine Dragonfire. How do you see it?”

“Uncle, do you think our relationship is much closer than that of Zhang Ruochen? Is there anything better besides the divine Dragonfire?”

...

Both the figures of the Dragon Lord and Blackie gradually disappeared into the distance.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia in surprise. “Aren’t the both of you going with the Dragon Lord?”

“We can’t intervene in such a big matter like rescuing the Island Lord, and we can only help from the side. In any case, you’re the leader of the Sect of the Blood God. You’re my junior, and you also gave me a Great Restoration Pill. If there is any trouble in the Fane of Origin, just send me a message,” said the Xue Lingxian.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You’re going to the Fane of Origin too? I understand it now!”

The moment he asked this question, Zhang Ruochen instantly understood. The so-called helping from the side might be a diversion to draw the attention of the Infernal Court to the Fane of Origin.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, "There's no need to wait. I have something to ask of you now."

What a joke. How could he eat the Great Restoration Pill for free?

Xue Lingxian did not expect Zhang Ruochen to be so rude.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the stone sword in his hand and said, "I would like to comprehend the Wordless Sword Manual for a while."

"I can't make that decision!"

Xue Lingxian stared at Granny Begonia and threw the stone sword toward her.

Granny Begonia caught the stone sword with a hint of hesitation in her eyes. It wasn't that she didn't trust Zhang Ruochen, but the Wordless Sword Manual was of great importance. If she lost it, she would be the greatest sinner of the entire Kunlun.

"Forget it. I'm just joking. I wouldn't dare to take such an important thing." Zhang Ruochen didn't want to make things difficult for Granny Begonia.

Granny Begonia placed the stone sword in front of him and said, "This sword is the source of Swordsmanship in the world. It is one of the most important inheritances of Kunlun. You mustn't lose it."

"Don't worry, Granny. I will take good care of it."

Zhang Ruochen held the stone sword carefully.

Zhang Ruochen knew that it would be challenging for him to cultivate Grade One Saintwill. It was almost impossible to succeed in a short time.

However, he had the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Perhaps he could try to practice Swordsmanship Saintwill first.

Of course, his goal was not the Grade Four Swordsmanship Saintwill but the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill that no one had ever successfully cultivated since ancient times. That is why the Wordless Sword Manual was very important to him.

Fortunately, the Wordless Sword Manual was guarded by Granny Begonia. Otherwise, he would not be able to be in his current position. If it were someone else, who would lend it to him?

Granny Begonia shook her head and sighed softly. Then she took out five more scrolls and handed them to him, saying, "Some legendary figures in Kunlun left behind these scrolls. Perhaps they could assist you."

"I will remember your kindness in my heart," Zhang Ruochen said.

Granny Begonia snorted lightly and said, "Who asked you to be the descendant of that person? I owe the Zhang family."

Zhang Ruochen was a little interested and asked, "Who is Granny referring to?"

"A dead person."

There was a hint of anger in Granny Begonia's tone.

Seeing that Granny Begonia did not seem to elaborate, Zhang Ruochen asked another question in his heart. He asked, "How many years have Granny lived exactly? Ruochen does not mean to be disrespectful. I'm just curious about it."

Granny Begonia said, "Counting since I was born, I've lived for four Yuanhui periods! From that time, I was tricked by that dead b*stard of the Zhang Family and became the vessel spirit of the Sword Pavilion. Two Yuanhui periods had already passed. However, I've only cultivated my physical body for 20,000 years."

Zhang Ruochen was stunned. He did not expect Granny Begonia could have such a complicated life as a begonia flower.

She was a plant, a vessel spirit, and had cultivated her own body.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Did you cultivate the body to avoid the Yuanhui Tribulation?”

“For plants, the Yuanhui Tribulation is not so difficult to overcome,” replied Granny Begonia.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Then why?”

“It’s fine to tell you because the Sword Pavilion is only one step away from becoming the eleventh Divine Artifact of Kunlun. The last step is the vessel spirit achieving divinity,” said Granny Begonia.

...

The disastrous defeat of the Fane of Destiny had caused the reputation of Fairy of a Hundred Flowers, Ji Fanxin, to spread far and wide.

The powerhouses of the various major powers of the Infernal Court obeyed the orders of the Fane of Destiny and gathered in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt. They set up an inescapable net and quietly waited for Ji Fanxin to come and accept her death.

Lu Baitou of the Fane Barasingha was a human-shaped creature. He looked to be in his thirties or forties, but his hair was white. His pair of crimson eyes were like two pools of blood. They were deep and ferocious.

Above his head, there was a talisman.

A Heaven-concealing Talisman.

Only the Divination Division could create such a talisman. By activating it, it could cover up all the aura and secrets of the heavens on the Supreme Saint's body and hide it without a trace.

Standing beside Lu Baitou was Shan Qiu of the Fane of Death. Above his head, there was also a Heaven-concealing Talisman.

Both Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu were famous figures. They had slain more than ten Supreme Saints of the Celestial Court.

It was precisely because they fought in the Battlefield of Merits all year round that not only were their cultivations powerful, but they were also extremely cautious. That was why they became two outposts and hid here.

They had been waiting for almost half a month, but there was no sign of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace or Ji Fanxin.

Lu Baitou's patience had been completely worn out. He snorted. "Ji Fanxin isn't stupid. She knows that the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt has gathered many powerhouses who want to kill her. Why would she come? If I were her, I would return to Hoth or hide."

Shan Qiu's eyes revealed a smile. He said, "We are wasting our time by staying here. However, Scion Xing Luo firmly believes that Ji Fanxin will come and throw her life away. He has already spoken, so we naturally can only continue to wait.”

Lu Baitou said, “Ji Fanxin is just a minor figure. There’s no need to mobilize so many people. In my opinion, the deaths of the Fane of Destiny’s powerhouses, such as Lord Wu Yue and the Zionwraith, are most likely due to another reason. It’s said that the internal strife within the Fane of Destiny is quite intense.”

“When has the old and new been replaced by a bloody storm within the Fane of Destiny? If the new Scioness wants to take power, she must kill her enemies. Scion Xing Luo was born in a Nether Clan, so it’s normal for him to lend her a helping hand. After all, gods don’t care about the fights in the secular world. As long as their methods are powerful enough, maybe the gods will like them more,” Shan Qiu said.

Lu Baitou said in a low voice, “It’s said that Zhang Ruochen is also involved.”

Shan Qiu sneered. “Zhang Ruochen thinks that he can do whatever he wants in the Infernal Court because he has the support of Wargod Xue Jue and Fukurokuju. It’s a pity he’s so close to the cultivators of the Celestial Court. He’s courting death. Just wait and see. There’s no place for him in the Infernal Court.”

“There’s no point in staying here. Why don’t we report this to the higher-ups and go to the Royal City of Hundred Clans? Suppose the Fane of Origin really appears in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. In that case, we’ll be able to take advantage of it immediately,” Lu Baitou said.

Shan Qiu was a disciple of a god of the Fane of Death, and he was a Divine Envoy. A very noble individual.

But now, he had been reduced to an outpost to deal with Ji Fanxin. He had been furious for a long time. When he heard Lu Baitou’s suggestion, he naturally agreed to it several times.

Just as the two were about to leave, they sensed a powerful Path ripple approaching from afar.

“What speed. It’s at ten thousand times the speed of sound.”
Lu Baitou’s face changed.

“Is Ji Fanxin here?”

The two immediately hid carefully. They took out their Communication talismans and were ready to spread the news anytime.

...

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen activated the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light. With every passing moment, he could fly 10,000 miles. Like a meteor, he streaked across the dark and empty universe.

He held Gong Nanfeng, the size of a bean, in his palm.

It had been ten days since Zhang Ruochen separated from Xue Lingxian and Granny Begonia. He rushed with all his might and finally entered the starfield where the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt was located.

He slowed down and stopped. He said to Gong Nanfeng in his palm, “It’s very calm. Bai Qing’er shouldn’t have reached here yet. Otherwise, once the battle breaks out, this space will already be filled with the chaotic aura of the Path.”

“Do you think she died at the hands of the pseudo god?” Gong Nanfeng’s tone was cold.

Zhang Ruochen told Gong Nanfeng that the pseudo god of the Fane of Death had come to take the Tensho Compass and the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. He had fought with Bai Qing’er and escaped in the chaos.

Gong Nanfeng could predict everything in the world. It wasn’t easy to lie to him.

However, the Dragon Lord had covered up everything about Granny Begonia and Xue Lingxian. No matter his divination’s power, he could only predict that Mo Yunduan had reached that area.

Therefore, he believed Zhang Ruochen’s words without a doubt.

“Who in the world can defy the heavens and kill a God? Bai Qing’er may be strong, but when she was attacked by a god...”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly.

“If a god interferes with the mortal world with his true form, he is trampling on the rules of the Fane of Destiny. Mo Yunduan must be punished,” said Gong Nanfeng.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Bai Qing’er is too strong. She killed wantonly in the Infernal Court. Understandably, a god would attack her.

“This is one thing, and that is another. Since the rules have been made, no one can break them.”

Gong Nanfeng cut straight to the point and said, “Brother Ruochen, have you thought about it? The purpose of the Fane of Death might not be to kill Bai Qing’er but to take the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and steal the Fane of Origin for themselves.

“It’s possible he wants to kill you and me together and take all treasures and the Tensho Compass from you. However, he underestimated your and Bai Qing’er’s strength.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s impossible, isn’t it?”

“How is it impossible?”

Gong Nanfeng said with certainty, “Xing Luo and the others have already set up a killing scheme in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt. No matter how strong Bai Qing’er was, she would die if she went. Under such circumstances, why did the god of the Fane of Death disregard the rules set by the Fane of Destiny and attack before everyone else?

“The god of Fane of Death took such a big risk. How could they just avenge the Fane of Destiny and kill Bai Qing’er? Besides, the god of Fane of Destiny didn’t even attack. Why would the god of Fane of Death be so radical?”

Zhang Ruochen nodded, “I think your analysis makes sense. At that time, Mo Yunduan was indeed aggressive and hostile toward me. Fortunately, Bai Qing’er was strong enough, so I found a chance to escape. Even the gods didn't care about their dignity. I'm in more and more danger now!

"There's something even more serious. My connection to the Tensho Compass has disappeared!" "It seems that either Bai Qing'er or Mo Yunduan have refined the vessel spirit of the Tensho Compass." "I am the sinner of the Fane of Destiny for losing the Divine Artifact." Gong Nanfeng was frustrated and blamed himself.

Zhang Ruochen comforted him. "At least we know that the Divine Artifact must be with them. We still have a chance to get it back."

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen sensed something. He used the Great Dimensional Shift and disappeared from where he was.

BOOM!

A spiral-shaped artifact flew past where he had been standing just now. It pierced the space and made a series of explosive sounds.

"Who is it? Show yourself!"

Zhang Ruochen revealed himself dozens of miles away. He threw Gong Nanfeng over with his left hand and spread out his right fingers. He pushed them out gently in one direction.

The space in front of his palm broke apart automatically, forming dozens of cracks.

WHOOSH! WHOOSH!

Dozens of Dimensional Rifts flew out like knives.

The rifts grew bigger and bigger.

"The Dimensional Rifts are flying so fast!"

"How did he find us?"

Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu looked at each other. They rushed to the left and right to avoid the Dimensional Rifts.

With their cultivation, they could naturally deal with ordinary Dimensional Rifts. However, the Dimensional Rifts Zhang Ruochen had created had Marks of Time. Their speed increased dramatically, and their power could cut through everything in the world.

Gong Nanfeng had already turned into the size of a normal person. He shouted, “Lu Baitou, Shan Qiu, what are you two trying to do?”

Since their identities had been discovered, there was no need for them to hide.

Putting away the Heaven-concealing Talisman, Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu appeared dozens of miles away in two different positions.

Lu Baitou put away the spiral-shaped artifact and cupped his hands slightly. “So it’s the Lord Overseer.”

Shan Qiu’s eyes were cold. “Lord Overseer, do you know that Zhang Ruochen has betrayed the Infernal Court?”

“Betrayed the Infernal Court?” Gong Nanfeng asked.

Shan Qiu said, “Yes. He and Ji Fanxin, the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers of the Celestial Court, created a massacre. Even the Fane of Destiny suffered a great loss at their hands. Lord Wu Yue has already fallen!”

“How could Lord Wu Yue not be a match for Ji Fanxin? It’s most likely Zhang Ruochen. He did it when he was unprepared,” Lu Baitou said.

The various forces had very little information from Xing Luo and the others. They only knew that several Supreme Saints of the Fane of Destiny had fallen, including Lord Wu Yue. The enemy was very powerful.

The cultivators of the Fane of Destiny didn’t mention anything else.

After all, the Fane of Destiny also wanted face. So many powerhouses had gone together but were beaten up by a woman. If they said it out loud, they would only invite ridicule.

It was better to wait until Ji Fanxin appeared and let them see how powerful she was.

At that time, they wouldn't be able to laugh.

That was why the major forces could only guess and speculate about what might have happened and how powerful the enemy was. They didn't know what exactly had happened.

Gong Nanfeng said, "It's a misunderstanding, a huge misunderstanding. I swear as the Overseer that Zhang Ruochen has never betrayed the Infernal Court. Moreover, the one who caused the massacre in the Infernal Court wasn't Ji Fanxin. It was Bai Qing'er."

"Bai Qing'er?"

Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu were both stunned.

Gong Nanfeng said, "Bai Qing'er of the Enchanter Chamber. She disguised herself as Ji Fanxin."

"Disguised?"

Hearing this, Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu's expressions became strange. They immediately activated the Precept Domain defense and slowly retreated.

They had been fighting on the Battlefield of Merits for many years, so they had developed suspicious and cautious personalities.

Gong Nanfeng's words reminded them.

They suspected that this Gong Nanfeng was most likely transformed by Ji Fanxin.

That's right!

That must be it.

Ji Fanxin didn't dare to break through the barrier forcefully. She could be disguised as Gong Nanfeng and make up a story. With Zhang Ruochen's cooperation, she could really fool him.

Gong Nanfeng felt caution, and fear in their eyes. They looked like they were going to escape at any moment. He panicked and said, "What is the meaning of this? You don't believe me?"

Shan Qiu said in a deep voice, “Don’t come over! I’ve already sent a message to Master Yuan Qianmo. He’ll be here immediately.”

Gong Nanfeng was furious. “You’re suspecting me? Fine, fine, fine. With your cultivation, you can’t see through the truth. I don’t blame you. When Yuan Qianmo comes, I’ll tell him.”

Zhang Ruochen watched coldly. With Gong Nanfeng as a perfect witness, the cultivators of the Infernal Court couldn’t suspect him.

The Enchanter Chamber was going to suffer!

Just as he thought of this, his expression suddenly changed.

To cover up the truth, Bai Qing’er had to hand over the Tensho Compass and join hands with him to kill the god. With her shrewdness, how could she allow Gong Nanfeng to expose her identity?

‘I hope I’m overthinking. Perhaps Bai Qing’er’s too heavily injured after using the martyr move. Even if I want to get rid of Gong Nanfeng, I can’t,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Three streaks of light flew quickly from the depths of the dark universe.

Apart from Yuan Qianmo, the other two were Yuan Shu and Lan Ying.

Shan Qiu sighed in relief and said, “Lord Yuan Qianmo will be here soon. Lord Overseer’s identity will be revealed soon. If I've offended you in any way, please... Ah..."

Shan Qiu Let out a miserable cry. Numerous Dimensional Rifts flew out of his body, and his Neverwithers physique exploded.

BANG!

On the other hand, Lu Baitou died the same way.

Zhang Ruochen's face darkened. He immediately looked at Gong Nanfeng, but there was no sign of Gong Nanfeng?

Bai Qing'er's voice rang in Zhang Ruochen's mind. "Keep it a secret for me. Otherwise, you'll be exposed when you cooperate with the cultivators of Kunlun to seize the Tensho Compass. I know you're not afraid of being exposed, but you don't want the Fane of Destiny to know that Kunlun wants to save the Lord of Nephilim Island, do you?"

Zhang Ruochen activated the power perception of the Heart of Truth but found nothing. It only meant that Bai Qing'er was at least 100,000 miles away.

Yuan Qianmo's voice came from afar like a giant wave. "You dare to kill the Supreme Saint of a fane in front of me. Zhang Ruochen, aren't you too arrogant?"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and smiled bitterly. He knew that he had been tricked by Bai Qing'er.

This woman must be taking revenge on him. She must be avenging herself on him for taking the Tensho Compass.

A woman's desire for revenge was indeed powerful.

In a moment, Yuan Qianmo, Yuan Shu, and Lan Ying crossed tens of thousands of miles and appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen. Each of them released powerful saintly might and locked onto Zhang Ruochen with their spiritual power as if they feared he would escape.

Lan Ying giggled like a child. "I admire you, I admire you. As expected of the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius, Supreme Saint Ruochen can kill people and leave no traces behind. Lu Baitou is, after all, the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Barasingha. Even deities can not be killed casually. I'll give you a compliment!"

As he spoke, he gave a thumbs up. The smile on his face was not pure but evil.

Yuan Shu said, "Zhang Ruochen, do you know that Lu Baitou is the Divine Envoy of Mo Yunduan of the Fane of Death? If you don't give a reasonable explanation, no one can save your life today."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Mo Yunduan's Divine Envoy?"

"You can't call the gods by their names," Yuan Shu said.

Zhang Ruochen sighed. "I didn't kill them."

"There are still spatial fluctuations in the space. Is there a second Cultivator of Dimensions here beside you?" Yuan Qianmo said faintly.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Someone used the Power of Dimensions to kill them from afar and frame me. Didn't you see Overseer from the Fane of Destiny just now? He was captured by the other party with Power of Dimensions."

"I didn't see anyone except you," Yuan Qianmo said.

"Supreme Saint Ruochen is so quick-witted. He made up a story in an instant. Let's cut to the chase. The Fane of Barasingha isn't easy to bully. Our Supreme Saints shan't die in vain. You have to pay with your life."

The heavenly divine light and blood-red killing intent radiated from Lan Ying's body.

The killing intent and divine light condensed into a blood-red Bloody Slaughter above his head. It turned into a strong streak of light and flew out.

Wherever the Bloody Slaughter flew past, the space was like a piece of paper. Countless lines cracked open.

Clang

The Ancient Abyssal Blade flew out by itself. Under Zhang Ruochen's control, it flew out, leaving a sword technique afterimage that was hundreds of feet long.

Rumble

The two sword tips collided accurately.

The tip of a needle met the tip of wheat.

The Bloody Slaughter wasn't a real sword after all. It exploded instantly and turned into thousands of sword qi.

Most of the Sword Qi was blocked by Zhang Ruochen's space domain, but a streak of coldness still passed through the space domain and flew past his neck.

Zhang Ruochen did not move. He narrowed his eyes and said, "Thousand-Koan Realm!"

"It's the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm," said Lan Ying with a grin.

Lan Ying was a cultivator who was purer than Que. That purity was because he knew what he wanted and his path. He would not be influenced by the outside world and always adhere to his thoughts.

In his eyes, everyone was no different from prey.

Que, on the other hand, valued victory and defeat. He was determined to win and lose.

That was why Lan Ying was better than Que. After reaching the Thousand-Koan Realm, he directly entered the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. No distracting thoughts could stop him.

Lan Ying said, "I didn't expect you to cultivate Swordsmanship. It seems pretty good."

The Ancient Abyssal Blade flew back and fell into Zhang Ruochen's hand.

Zhang Ruochen waved the sword gently and said, "I haven't used a sword for a long time to cultivate the saintwill. Why don't you give me some pointers?"

"Sure! But if your attainments in Swordsmanship are too poor, you will die. I'm not joking!"

Lan Ying smiled sinisterly. A mighty sword will burst out of his body and condense into a physical form. It looked like a horrifying Asura's shadow.

This was his Slaughter Swordwill!

"Come to me, my sword."

A cyan broadsword floated in front of him.

"This sword is called Clearsky."

Lan Ying did not hold the sword. Using his thought, the cyan broadsword slashed down from the sky, and Asura's shadow swooped down.

The sword enlarged to 33 miles long.

A shocking cold qi was released from the sword's edge, freezing the space.

It really froze the space, trying to stop Zhang Ruochen from escaping.

"Blossoming Cadence!"

Zhang Ruochen was not affected by the freezing of space. He raised the Ancient Abyssal Blade above his head, and the Time-Space Swordwill manifested. It condensed into a strange white flower, wrapping his body inside.

He swung the sword and collided with Clearsky.

The Time-Space Swordwill and the Slaughter Swordwill also collided fiercely.

Zhang Ruochen's body flashed with divine light. He dissolved all the power and disappeared in an instant.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the space behind Lan Ying and slowly struck out with his sword.

It seemed slow, but there were Marks of Time that merged with the sword and intersected with the sword moves.

This strike was swift.

At least in Lan Ying's senses, it was speedy. He didn't even have time to react.

BOOM!

Lan Ying did not turn around. A second sword flew out of Lan Ying's body. It slashed out behind him to break Zhang Ruochen's Sword of Time.

Then, the third sword flew out and turned into a sword dragon.

The sword dragon was formed from many Precepts of Swordsmanship and Sword Qi. It spun and flew, baring its fangs and brandishing its claws. Tens of thousands of sword chimes sounded simultaneously, like a dragon's roar.

Seeing that the sword dragon was about to hit Zhang Ruochen's chest, Zhang Ruochen blocked it with his sword. Four mysterious imprints appeared on the Ancient Abyssal Blade's body. They exploded with four powers: Wind, fire, water, and thunder.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen flew backward like a fallen leaf.

Swoosh

Lan Ying and Zhang Ruochen rushed out at the same time and collided fiercely. Their figures were in disorder, and the sword Qi was everywhere. The intense and dense collision sound was heard like pearls falling onto a jade plate.

...

With the royal robe of Yuan Shu and her high crown and hair tied up, she looked beautiful and peerless. She looked at the fierce confrontation between the two and said, "Zhang Ruochen is not a reckless person. There is no reason for him to kill here. The deaths of Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu are quite strange."

"Does it matter?" Yuan Qianmo asked.

It didn't matter at all.

What was important was that there was already a reason for Zhang Ruochen's death.

Some cultivators sensed the ripples of the battle and flew nearby. They looked at the two fighting and discussed animatedly.

“I heard that Lan Ying’s cultivation has reached the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. He challenged several powerful Supreme Saints in the Banshi Isshou Realm, but none of them could block his sword. Zhang Ruochen is only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. How can he compete with him?”

“I guess Lan Ying didn’t use his full strength. He was just playing with Zhang Ruochen. After all, he was still in the Hundred-Shackle Realm on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, and he could cut off Zhang Ruochen’s head.”

“In the last 1,000 years, Lan Ying has finally come to the front of everyone. He is worthy of being the Divine Fetus, a figure recognized by the Sword of Asura.”

A Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint said coldly, “What do you know? Can’t you see that Zhang Ruochen has already reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?”

“So what if he’s at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm? He’s a whole realm lower than Lan Ying!”

“In the same realm, Lan Ying is not much weaker than Zhang Ruochen. Now, the two are not on the same level at all. The gap has been widened.”

The Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint said, “There is a gap between Zhang Ruochen’s realm and Lan Ying’s. However, he has a Demigod-level physique. Once he reaches the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, the power of the Demigod-level physique can be fully unleashed. With the Demigod-level physique, he can make up the power gap. He can’t do anything to him unless Lan Ying can beat him in Swordsmanship.”

Yuan Shu communicated with Yuan Qianmo telepathically. She said, “Who do you think will win this battle?”

Yuan Qianmo said, “Although Zhang Ruochen’s Demigod-level physique is strong, Lan Ying is the Divine Fetus and the sword spirit of the Asura sword.”

“Do you mean that no matter how powerful Zhang Ruochen’s physical strength is, he won’t be able to benefit from Lan Ying, who has no physical body?” Yuan Shu asked.

Yuan Qianmo said, “In terms of strength, Lan Ying is no weaker than Zhang Ruochen.”

“So, you think Lan Ying will win?”

“Not win, but he can kill Zhang Ruochen. Besides, he is the only person who can kill Zhang Ruochen. No one else can do it, including you and me.”

Yuan Shu understood what he meant.

Because the Intergold Tiger was protecting Zhang Ruochen. If the two of them attacked, the Intergold Tiger would likely appear to stop them.

But Lan Ying was different. If he killed Zhang Ruochen, the Intergold Tiger wouldn’t stop him. Just like how the Swastika Seiryu didn’t stop Zhang Ruochen when he killed Yan Wushen.

Luo Shengtian and the powerhouses from Devala arrived. Seeing the two in the fierce battle, they asked the spectators. They discovered that Zhang Ruochen had killed the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death and the Fane of Barasingha.

Feng Qingli was surprised. She sneered. “Zhang Ruochen really doesn’t know how to restrain himself. Doesn’t he know that he’s in the limelight? It would be strange if the Fane of Death and the Fane of Barasingha let him off lightly for such a thing.”

“The Prince Consort shouldn’t have done such a thing. Maybe the Fane of Barasingha and the Fane of Death framed him,” Yan Hanyi said.

Luo Shengtian said, “Then teacher, please separate them first.”

“Okay!”

Yan Hanyi responded and turned into a light shuttle and flew out.

Yuan Qianmo glanced at him and shook his head with a smile. He stretched out his right hand and drew a vortex. His sleeve floated in the vortex.

Yan Hanyi, flying hundreds of miles away, suddenly felt his body spin and fly out of his control. When the spinning force disappeared, Yan Hanyi discovered that he was standing in front of Yuan Qianmo.

Yan Hanyi smiled bitterly. He was also a powerhouse in the Paramount Realm and could be called a Demigod. However, he didn’t expect Yuan Qianmo to capture him in front of him with just a raise of his hand. Yuan Qianmo’s method was so brilliant that it was frightening.

This was the first-class figure in the Tome of the Divines. It was far beyond anyone’s reach.

Yuan Qianmo smiled politely. “Zhang Ruochen killed Shan Qiu of the Fane of Death and Lu Baitou of the Fane of Barasingha. Our two fanes will definitely take revenge. Please don’t interfere, Mr. Yan.”

Yan Hanyi was about to speak when he felt massive pressure on his body. He couldn’t move.

Yuan Qianmo was still smiling, “So many eyes are watching. If we can’t kill Zhang Ruochen, how can our two fanes salvage our reputation? If we kill him, we’ll pay with our lives. Even if Luo Yan finds out, justice is on our side.”

His tone was low, and his smile was warm. It was as if he was discussing with Yan Hanyi.

However, Yan Hanyi felt the pressure on his body increase. He could only force out a smile. He was furious, but the difference in cultivation was too big. He couldn’t explode.

Luo Shengtian saw something was off. He couldn’t help but clench his fists and wanted to rush out personally.

Feng Qingli pulled him back and said, “What are you doing?”

“Lan Ying has reached the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. Zhang Ruochen is no match for him. They’re going to kill someone. We must stop them before we find out what happened,” Luo Shengtian said.

Feng Qingli said, “Who can you stop? Yuan Qianmo or Lan Ying? You can’t stop either of them!”

The veins on Luo Shengtian’s face bulged. He finally understood what Luo Yan had said when he took the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill from him. There was indeed a massive flaw in his personality.

Otherwise, he would not lag behind Lan Ying and Que in the Thousand-Koan Realm.

He was at the Early-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm, while Lan Ying was at the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

There was a huge gap in both cultivation and combat strength.

“No matter what, Zhang Ruochen is still the Prince Consort of Devala. We can’t just stand by and watch, can we? Today, I still want to fight,” Luo Shengtian said.

Feng Qingli used her spiritual power to envelop him, “Zhang Ruochen brought this upon himself,” she said. “He doesn’t deserve sympathy. Have you ever thought about why no one is willing to stand up for him except for you? He’s all enemies in the Infernal Court. Everyone wants to see him killed!”

Yuan Qianmo glanced in the direction of Luo Shengtian from afar. His voice rose and spread across the starry sky. He said, “Zhang Ruochen killed Shan Qiu, the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death, and Lu Baitou, the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Barasingha. It is a personal grudge. Cultivators from all forces, please give me face and don’t interfere. Otherwise, you will become the enemy of both Fane of Death and the Fane of Barasingha.”

His last sentence was particularly cold and harsh. It contained a powerful saint’s might, shocking all the cultivators present to silence. They didn’t dare to speak.

Feng Qingli said in a low voice, “See? Yuan Qianmo is warning you and everyone else. Master Yan was suppressed by his saint's might. With him standing there, no one can save Zhang Ruochen."

Just then, a cold voice came from afar. "The Fane of Death and the Fane of Barasingha are so intimidating. Since it's a personal grudge, can I intervene?"

Did someone dare to challenge Yuan Qianmo and disregarded the Fane of Death and the Fane of Barasingha?

A white deer emitting divine light pulled a magnificent carriage and drove over from the empty universe. The carriage was engraved with the unique patterns of the Xue Jue family. The surging and incredible power was released like a tide.

"What a powerful saint might. Who Is It?"

"Don't tell me you can't recognize that pure-blooded Divine Beast?"

"What? That's a Divine Beast?"

"That's the engagement gift that Wargod Bloodximius gave to Madam Nixuan, the Scioness of the Fane of Asura."

"The first lady of the Xue Jue Family has arrived. This is going to be a good show!"

Chapter 2533: The Fearsome Madam Nixuan

To be able to become the wife of Wargod Bloodximus, she was naturally not an ordinary woman.

Madam Nixuan was the first woman that Wargod Bloodximus married after he transcended the Yuanhui Tribulation. At that time, she was the most talented person in the new generation of the Fane of Asura and was conferred the title of Scioness.

From the time she married Wargod Bloodximus, 20,000 years had passed.

20,000 years ago, Madam Nixuan was the first-class powerhouse under divinity in the Infernal Court. After marrying Wargod Bloodximus, she no longer traveled the world and rarely showed her face in public. She hardly stepped out of the territory of the Xue Jue Family and became mysterious and low-key.

The world only knew that other than cultivating, Wargod Bloodximus did not care about secular affairs. All the matters in the family were handled by Madam Nixuan.

This not only represented the trust of Wargod Bloodximus but also represented his affirmation of her ability.

They also knew that she was the Scioness of Asura. The cultivators who knew her past glory had either died of old age or become gods.

Most cultivators only knew that Wargod Bloodximus's wife was called Madam Nixuan. Other than that, she did not have any sense of existence. Not many people even knew her real name.

Logically speaking, with her talent and her godly husband, Wargod Bloodximus, she should have become a god 20,000 years ago.

However, she still remained below divinity until now.

The white deer carriage drove over. The sound of the explosion shattered the peaceful heaven and earth.

All the cultivators were rushing over and ready to watch the show.

Not to mention other things, the identity of Wargod Bloodximus's wife was enough to scare people. Although Madam Nixuan had not become a god, ordinary gods would be afraid of her when they saw her.

Yuan Qianmo knew Madam Nixuan quite well. A strange light flashed in his eyes. He cupped his fists and saluted politely, "Greetings, Madam Nixuan."

...

"It's a little strange," Feng Qingli said in a low voice.

Luo Shengtian asked, "What's strange about it?"

"Yuan Qianmo is the number one in the Tome of the Divines. He can break through to become a god at any time. Although he is not a god yet, he is no different from a god. Why is he bowing to Madam Nixuan?"

"Madam Nixuan's age is obvious. Yuan Qianmo cupped his fists out of respect. It's very normal."

"Mr. Yan's age is also obvious. Why is he being treated differently?"

Luo Shengtian thought for a moment and said, "After all, Madam Nixuan is the wife of Wargod Bloodximus. Even if Yuan Qianmo broke the realm and became a god, he would have to bow his head before Wargod Bloodximus."

"You said that only Wargod Bloodximus has such a deterrent power. Now, it's just his wife. Yuan Qianmo is such a proud man. How could he show such an attitude so easily?”

Luo Shengtian nodded slightly. He said, “You’re right! Zhang Ruochen was the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius, and he was highly regarded by him. However, Yuan Qianmo still dared to kill him. It meant that no matter how noble a cultivator’s identity was, he would not be afraid of him. Then there’s only one possibility... Does Madam Nixuan have the power that even he is afraid of?”

Only the strong would be respected.

“It seems that Madam Nixuan is not simple! Unfortunately, as far as I know, Zhang Ruochen does not have a good relationship with her. They even have a grudge against each other. For Zhang Ruochen, this is undoubtedly adding insult to injury.”

Feng Qingli had never liked Zhang Ruochen. She felt that the person Luo Sha had married the wrong person. She even felt that their marriage was a combination of the interests of the two forces. Therefore, her tone was somewhat gloating.

In any case, Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha had not been officially married. If anything happened to Zhang Ruochen...

Luo Sha could also be freed.

...

The white deer carriage stopped in the void. The divine light emitted from the deer’s body made a surface-like plane of light appear under the carriage.

Madam Nixuan did not get out of the carriage. He said, “Yuan Qianmo, do you have evidence that Zhang Ruochen killed Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu?”

“I saw it with my own eyes,” Yuan Qianmo said.

A voice came from the carriage. “You mean your words are proof?”

“I don’t dare to lie.”

“Many times, people unconsciously become the kind of people they despise the most.”

What a sharp tongue,' Yuan Shu thought. She said, "Zhang Ruochen used the Power of Dimension to kill Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu. The three of us saw it with our own eyes."

"Why did Zhang Ruochen Kill Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu?" The voice in the carriage asked.

Yuan Shu shook her head and said, "I don't know."

"Well, it's obvious. Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu saw that Zhang Ruochen was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Seeing no one around, they wanted to kill him and steal his treasure. They didn't expect to be killed instead. The disciples of the Xue Jue family aren't easy to bully. These two deserve to die."

Even Yuan Qianmo and Yuan Shu, who were deep-hearted figures, couldn't help but look surprised.

'This person was the former Scioness of the Fane of Asura and now Wargod Bloodximius's wife. How could she be so unreasonable?'

Yuan Shu said, "I'm afraid it's not appropriate for you, Madam Nixuan, to make such a conclusion."

"What's wrong? Can you give a more reasonable explanation?"

Yuan Qianmo withheld his pride and reputation, so he did not argue.

In the case of death without a witness, any argument was futile. It would only make a fool of the cultivators watching the battle. Now, it was only a matter of strength. Whoever's fist was harder would be the truth.

Madam Nixuan's arrival didn't make him give up on killing Zhang Ruochen. It just made things a lot more troublesome.

Madam Nixuan could see that strength is everything in the Infernal Court, so she shouted, "Stop!"

Her voice was infused with mighty spiritual power. It turned into an invisible palm print and flew toward Zhang Ruochen and Lan Ying, who were fighting.

The sound waves reached the ears of all the Supreme Saints present. Their minds buzzed, their vision went black, and their internal organs were on the verge of cracking.

Those Supreme Saints who had never heard Madam Nixuan before were shocked.

Yuan Qianmo snorted and shattered Madam Nixuan's sound wave. His tone was not as respectful as before. He said, "Lan Ying is avenging for the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Barasingha. Please don't interfere, Madam Nixuan."

"You have already angered me by calling me senior. Today, I will see what the number one figure in the Tome of the Divines can do."

The white deer moved forward, and the carriage followed closely behind.

Rumble

Wherever the carriage passed, it crushed space and formed a chaotic region. A large area of the void appeared.

As it traveled through the broken space, the carriage was stable. Behind the carriage, a bloody Asura Divine Mountain appeared. At times, it was the stars twinkling. At other times, there were thousands of soldiers and horses... all sorts of different realms appeared.

Yuan Qianmo flew out in a flash and blocked the carriage's path. He stopped Madam Nixuan from approaching Zhang Ruochen and Lan Ying's battlefield.

Countless precepts extended from his feet. There were innumerable trillions of them. They formed 100,000 bare mountains and 100,000 evil rivers.

The two didn't fight with their true bodies. Instead, they were fighting with techniques.

Most of the Supreme Saints were retreating.

"Madam Nixuan is so powerful. She can actually challenge Yuan Qianmo."

“Yuan Qianmo only respects Wargod Bloodximius. He didn’t use his full strength to stop Madam Nixuan. He just needed to create an opportunity for Lan Ying to kill Zhang Ruochen.”

“I have to say, Madam Nixuan is still very powerful. The power they release is so strong that ordinary Supreme Saints can’t compare to them.”

...

Zhang Ruochen naturally noticed Madam Nixuan’s arrival. Seeing her fight with Yuan Qianmo, he was still a little surprised.

To be honest, Zhang Ruochen had many trump cards. Fighting with Lan Ying wasn’t too stressful.

But Zhang Ruochen was terrified of Yuan Qianmo.

The Deathkin’s Will of Death was as strange as the Nether Clan’s curse.

Yuan Qianmo was definitely a master of this. If he used the Will of Death to trick Zhang Ruochen, no one would be able to tell. With Madam Nixuan holding Yuan Qianmo back, the pressure on Zhang Ruochen was significantly reduced. He could finally devote himself to fighting with Lan Ying.

Lan Ying saw that the situation had changed. He retreated suddenly and formed a strange sword gesture with his hands. He smiled wickedly. “Your Swordsmanship is still a little tricky. But I don’t want to play anymore. I’ll kill you with one strike... No, two strikes with two swords.”

Something strange happened.

The precepts of heaven and earth in the universe quickly gathered above Lan Ying’s head and formed another Lan Ying.

The purest Precepts of Swordsmanship in the precepts of heaven and earth formed Lan Ying.

The roaring sound of swords echoed in heaven and earth. It was not the real swords vibrating, but the Precepts of Swordsmanship in the world.

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes and said, “Heaven Sword Soul!”

A sword cultivator’s Sword Soul was divided into three levels: Man, Earth, and Heaven.

Zhang Ruochen’s Sword Soul was still at the level of the Earth Sword Soul.

All corners were already exclaiming in surprise.

“It’s the Heaven Sword Soul!”

“In the last 100,000 years, only a handful of sword cultivators in the Celestial and Infernal Court have cultivated the Heaven Sword Soul below the divinity. The only one who has cultivated the Heaven Sword Soul in the Thousand-Koan Realm is probably Lan Ying. Even Sword God Feng Chen from 1,000 years ago might not have cultivated it so early.”

“After cultivating the Heaven Sword Soul, the next step is to enter the divinity of Swordsmanship.”

“The sword soul not only cuts the physical body but also the saint soul of the cultivator. As for the Heaven Sword Soul, every sword technique is compatible with the Deva Path, and it also cuts the precepts of the cultivator. All defensive means are useless in front of the Heaven Sword Soul.”

“If the Heaven Sword Soul has appeared, then the winner has been decided.”

...

The two swords, Clearsky and Lustocean, flew around the Heaven Sword Soul of Lan Ying and merged with the Precepts of Swordsmanship between heaven and earth.

“Asura Cross-slash!”

Lan Ying directly performed the ancient sword technique of Asura and pointed at Zhang Ruochen.

The swords, Clearsky and Lustocean, slashed out at the same time, forming a cross sword print.

At the cross intersection, it was like an endless space in the universe. It absorbed all the matter in the world and trapped

Zhang Ruochen so much that he could not move even half a step.

Back then, the Lan Ying, who had not yet cultivated the Heaven Sword Soul, had caused a lot of trouble for Que with the Asura Sword Technique.

Zhang Ruochen looked up. The cross-shaped sword print covered thousands of miles of space. He could not see the end of it. It was as if four walls of light divided the world.

The divine light on Zhang Ruochen's body surged. Then, a sea of stars spread out, forming a scene of the Shoreless Star Ocean.

In the sea of stars, a bright moon rose.

The Mark of Time gathered berserkly toward the Ancient Abyssal Blade.

The fifth level of the Sword of Time, Moonlight Melody.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen thrust out his blade. The sea of stars and the bright moon gathered in the blade's body, drawing a sword mark of Truth and Time.

The attack was ten times more powerful.

BOOM!

The blade's tip hit the center of the cross-shaped sword mark, and the violent sword Qi exploded.

The Sword Qi hit Zhang Ruochen's Armor of the Fire God like Raindrops, but the power was not strong enough to hurt the body in the armor.

The sword ray broke through the cross-shaped sword mark, through the Precept Domain of Lan Ying, and extended to his body.

His power was exhausted. Only a few Marks of Time landed on his body. They could hardly shorten his lifespan.

All the Infernal Court Supreme Saints watching the battle were shocked.

The Sword of Asura that Lan Ying used the Heaven Sword Soul to strike was broken by Zhang Ruochen just like that?

It must be known that when he fought with the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, Lan Ying did not use the Heaven Sword Soul. He was far less serious than he was today.

“How did Zhang Ruochen become so strong? I remember he struggled to fight Lord Hornless on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. It’s only been a few months!” Feng Qingli was very surprised and found it hard to understand.

The strength of a Demigod-level physique could not break the Sword of Asura under the Heaven Sword Soul.

Lan Ying’s eyes were full of surprise. He smiled and said, “In an instant, you can activate ten times the offensive power of the Path of Truth and integrate the Path of Time into the Path of Sword. Zhang Ruochen, I’m more interested in you than Que.”

“Let’s continue. I’d like to see if your Demigod-level physique can withstand the explosion of ten times the attack power.”

Zhang Ruochen could see that although Lan Ying had cultivated the Heaven Sword Soul, he hadn’t reached the stage where the Heaven Sword Soul and the way of Sword were one. There was a big gap between him and Xue Lingxian in using the Heaven Sword Soul. Therefore, he didn’t have much fear.

“Okay! Let’s fight!” Zhang Ruochen agreed.

“Stop!”

Xing Luo and the powerful figures of the Fane of Destiny flew over, and he shouted from afar.

“How troublesome. It’s the Fane of Destiny again.”

Lan Ying was a little depressed. He put the two swords, Clearsky and Lustocean, back into his body. He smiled darkly at Zhang Ruochen. “I have six swords. Today, you have only seen three. I haven’t released my saintwill, and I haven’t used the Universal Precept Domain to bully you. Let’s meet another day again. We'll fight again. I'll do my best to kill you. How about it?"

Zhang Ruochen put away the Ancient Abyssal Blade and said, "I can't say I'll be able to beat you. But if it's a life-and-death battle, you're dead!"

This wasn't contradictory.

Zhang Ruochen wouldn't use external forces, such as the Qiankun Realm.

It was indeed not easy to defeat Lan Ying.

If it was a life-and-death battle, Zhang Ruochen would have many tricks up his sleeve!

The arrival of the Fane of Destiny made Yuan Qianmo and Madam Nixuan stop fighting and retreat far away.

Some cultivators had already informed Xing Luo of the whole incident.

Xing Luo glanced at Zhang Ruochen, then took a few steps back and said, "Since it's a dispute mediation, it's still up to the Scioness to decide."

Xing Luo was very clear about his position. Under internal and external troubles, he could not let the outside world think of internal conflict in the Fane of Destiny.

The power should be in the hands of the person in charge.

He had to make an example to support the new Scioness to the throne first.

However, when Yuan Qianmo heard Xing Luo say "Dispute mediation," he showed a hint of surprise. There was a deep meaning in his words.

Did the Fane of Destiny intend to turn a significant event into a minor one?

Chapter 2534: Zhang Ruochen Owed the Fane of Destiny a Favor

“Now that things are clear, Ji Fanxin killed Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu. The Fane of Death and the Fane of Barasingha should stop investigating!”

Pan Ruo announced the result on behalf of the Fane of Destiny.

Before that, Zhang Ruochen told the whole story in detail. However, he changed Bai Qing'er to Ji Fanxin.

He had no choice. Bai Qing'er and he knew each other's secrets, so he could only let Ji Fanxin take the blame first.

The various forces were holding each other back. This was a major issue. The best course of action was to reduce it to a small one.

Yuan Qianmo obviously couldn't accept this result. He was about to speak.

Pan Ruo stared at him first. “Why did the god of Fane of Death stop Ji Fanxin? Does Master Qianmo know about this?”

Hearing this, Yuan Qianmo finally understood why the Fane of Destiny had sided with Zhang Ruochen. They were dissatisfied with the Fane of Death's actions.

Zhang Ruochen deliberately put this matter on the table. He was clearly slapping the Fane of Death's face.

He found Zhang Ruochen even more displeasing!

Yuan Qianmo still smiled elegantly and shook his head gently. “How would a saint realm cultivator like me know about the matter of the gods? I will immediately send a message back to the fane to confirm whether Mo Yunduan had really come to this star field on his own.”

“On his own” sounded quite serious.

Everyone present wasn’t stupid. They all knew what the Fane of Death’s intentions were.

Despite their dissatisfaction with Yuan Qianmo’s current cultivation level, none of them exploded.

Yuan Qianmo took the initiative to change the topic and said, “Zhang Ruochen, since you didn’t die under the Arrow of Deva Path, can you continue saying what you didn’t finish the other day at the House of Enchanters?”

At the House of Enchanters, Zhang Ruochen was about to tell Bai Qing’er’s secret and fight to the death with her when he was shot by an Arrow of Deva Path. Then, the entire Enchanton was destroyed by the Heavenly Retribution Talisman.

It was completely different from the current situation.

Now, Zhang Ruochen had something on Bai Qing’er, and he wanted to help her cover up the truth.

Ling, the fifth son of the Ghost Master, the Lord of the Dishastan, said, “Can you give us a precise explanation about the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?”

When they heard the words superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, the powerhouses of the major forces became enraged and locked their gaze on Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was calm and collected. He spread his hands and said, “What is there to explain? I saw Bai Qing’er kill the Seven-Armed Elder and Xing Qian in the Divine Domain of Destiny. Moreover, my cultivation is low, so I can’t be sure if Bai Qing’er is a disguise of another cultivator. Other than that, I don’t know anything else.”

Of course, no one believed his words.

Immediately, several Supreme Saints released their Saint might to threaten Zhang Ruochen.

“What are you doing? Do you want to fight?”

Madam Nixuan sat in the hazy saint light. Only Supreme Saints and people with spiritual power over level 67 could see her face clearly.

Her words stunned the Supreme Saints and forced them to withdraw their Saint might.

Madam Nixuan continued, “Zhang Ruochen has already said that he doesn’t know. Do you want to suppress him and forcibly search his soul for his memory? Are the disciples of the Xue Jue family that easy to bully?”

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Madam Nixuan, feeling even more strange.

A Supreme Saint from the Nether Clan apologetically laughed. “The superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is precious. We just hope you can explain things more clearly.”

“Zhang Ruochen is only a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. What makes you think that he has the power to steal the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin? If you want to frame and kill him, don’t use such underhanded methods,” Madam Nixuan said.

Beside Lan Ying, a powerhouse of the Paramount Realm from the Fane of Barasingha sneered. “Zhang Ruochen is traveling with Ji Fanxin and killing the cultivators of the Infernal Court. This should be true, right?”

“Didn’t he explain just now? He was controlled by Ji Fanxin and had to travel with her,” Madam Nixuan said.

Ling said, “That’s too much to say. But as far as I know, Zhang Ruochen and Ji Fanxin had a good relationship in the Celestial Court. They were close friends.”

As everyone was arguing, a voice rang out, “Enough!” The voice roared. “There’s no harm in telling you. It was Zhang Ruochen who saved us from the battle between the Fane of Destiny and Ji Fanxin. Otherwise, the Fane of Destiny might have been wiped out.”

The person who spoke was the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Destiny, Lord Four-eyed.

He was one of the four Supreme Saints who had escaped from Bai Qing'er with Xing Luo.

The hall was completely silent.

Lord Four-eyed continued, “It is indeed embarrassing. I don't want to say it, but this is the truth. Ji Fanxin is stronger than you think. This harmless Fairy of a Hundred Flowers could already be called a Paramount Realm Yuanhui-level genius. Zhang Ruochen is indebted to the Fane of Destiny!”

No one questioned Zhang Ruochen anymore.

It was not that they believed him, but the Xue Jue Family had Madam Nixuan and the Fane of Destiny supporting Zhang Ruochen. No matter how much they questioned him, they could not hurt him.

Then, the main hall began to discuss how to deal with Ji Fanxin.

What was Ji Fanxin's next move?

How to rescue the Overseer and take back the Tensho Compass?

...

...

Half a day later.

Zhang Ruochen stood on a small asteroid and looked at the wormhole in the void in the distance. He was also thinking about Bai Qing'er's next move.

She must have been seriously injured in the battle with Mo Yunduan.

She would have charged her way here and forced her way through if she hadn't already.

The one who killed Lu Baitou and Shan Qiu and took Gong Nanfeng away must have been the spatial jade turtle beside her.

Someone was approaching Zhang Ruochen. "Is there any doubt that your Highness has come to find me alone?" he asked, quickly gathering his thoughts.

Xing Luo put his hands behind his back and walked to Zhang Ruochen's left. He looked at the wormhole and smiled. "I'm here to thank you. And don't call me Scion. I'm no longer one."

Xing Luo wasn't as arrogant as Yuan Qianmo, nor was he as cold and unreasonable as Zhuo Yunong. He was different from the top powerhouses of the Infernal Court.

Zhang Ruochen didn't dislike him. "It's rare for someone like you to say thank you. I thought the Infernal Court respected strength. The strong don't look at weaklings like us."

"In any place, strength is the most important thing. There is no equality in the world. There is a natural gap between the weak and the strong," Xing Luo said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Is that so?"

"If you didn't have great talent and your identity as the guide of the Intergold Tiger, I wouldn't be standing here and talking to you. This is the reality!" Xing Luo said.

Zhang Ruochen accepted all of this silently and said, "Well, at least you're telling the truth."

Suddenly, Xing Luo said, "I went to investigate Bai Qing'er and found some interesting things. Do you want to know?"

"I don't want to know."

Zhang Ruochen turned around and left.

Xing Luo looked surprised. He chased after him and asked, "Why?"

"My attainment in cultivation is still too low. I don't want to know the secrets between powerful people at your level. Even if I knew, it wouldn't do me any good," Zhang Ruochen said.

“Kai Luo and Claflin, who shot you with the Arrow of Deva Path, sneaked into Hoth through the Enchanteur Chamber,” Xing Luo said. “Bai Qing’er is missing! I ran into you, Gong Nanfeng, and Ji Fanxin in the starry sky because I was chasing after her.”

Xing Luo had suspected that Ji Fanxin was Bai Qing’er.

However, he later refuted this conjecture.

Firstly, Zhang Ruochen grieved against Bai Qing’er and was close to Ji Fanxin. If Ji Fanxin was Bai Qing’er, how could Zhang Ruochen not see through her? How could he not reveal her true identity?

Secondly, Bai Qing’er had no reason to kill openly in the Infernal Court.

Thirdly, he did not believe that a woman from the House of Enchanters would dare to do such a crazy and bold thing.

“High-Saint Kai Luo came to Hoth?” Zhang Ruochen asked with a cold expression.

The last doubt in Xing Luo’s heart disappeared. If Bai Qing’er was Ji Fanxin, Zhang Ruochen’s first reaction would more or less expose some flaws.

Xing Luo smiled. “Why do you care about him?”

“I have an irreconcilable feud with the Heavenly Realm,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Xing Luo had obviously checked Zhang Ruochen’s information. He nodded in understanding, “It’s the Demigod Yan Yu. He saw a group of Heavenly Realm cultivators led by Kai Luo and Claflin appear in the Enchanton on Hoth,” he said. “Whether it’s the theft of the Tensho Compass or the loss of the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, the Enchanteur Chamber is suspicious. That’s why, between you and Bai Qing’er, I suspect that she’s lying.”

Zhang Ruochen did not expect that Xing Luo would be so vigilant and take the initiative to investigate Bai Qing’er. He said, “Why are you so suspicious? With the power of the Fane of Destiny, we can just destroy the Enchanteur Chamber.”

Xing Luo shook his head and smiled. “The forces behind the Enchanter Chamber are complicated. They even have a backer in the Fane of Destiny. How can we destroy them just because High-Saint Kai Luo and the others sneaked into Hoth? Unless we can prove that the Heavenly Realm controlled the Enchanter Chamber and used their power to steal the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and the Tensho Compass.”

Zhang Ruochen sighed in his heart. ‘Xing Luo was smart enough, but his imagination was still not bold enough. He still did not understand how powerful Bai Qing’er was.

‘Controlled by the Heavenly Realm?

‘Perhaps all the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm were played by Bai Qing’er.’

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen could not help but feel sad. He was also controlled by Bai Qing’er and had to help her cover up the truth.

After learning more about Bai Qing’er, Zhang Ruochen did not particularly want to kill her. However, his desire to defeat her grew stronger and stronger.

One day, if he could defeat her with his true strength, she would say, “Supreme Saint Ruochen, I have lost. I am completely convinced by my defeat. You are the number one person in the Yuanhui period. You are the superior that I admire the most. Neither Wargod Bloodximus nor Magnogod Huang Tian can make me admire you so much.”

This was the true joy of life!

Apart from Chi Yao, very few people could arouse Zhang Ruochen’s strong desire to win.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where are High-Saint Kai Luo and the others now?”

Xing Luo pointed to the wormhole in the distance and said, “They escaped to the Royal City of Hundred Clans through this wormhole. Yan Yu and Zhuo Yunong have already gone after them.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes became more profound.

High-Saint Kai Luo was Zhou Zhen’s Uncle Master, the Hand of the World that destroyed the Celestial Court’s Formation Sect.

Zhou Zhen had told Zhang Ruochen that the cultivator who planned to destroy the Ziwei Palace and collude with the Infernal Court to cut off the new heaven and earth spiritual root peach tree of Kunlun was High-Saint Kai Luo.

Of course, High-Saint Kai Luo could not be the planner. However, Zhou Zhen could only know this level with his cultivation.

If he wanted to find out the giant behind it and dig out the secret, he had to capture High-Saint Kai Luo.

This was a massive breakthrough for him to take revenge on the Heavenly Realm.

The crime of colluding with the Infernal Court was too big. It was enough to bring down the gods behind High-Saint Kai Luo. It might even bring down many gods. Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen’s blood boiled.

...

Zhang Ruochen came to the bottom of the white deer carriage and bathed in the gentle sacred light.

Madam Nixuan’s voice in the carriage was quite young and very pleasant. She said, “You are only at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but you can fight with Lan Ying at the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. Wargod Bloodximus did not misjudge you.”

“Why are you helping me?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Madam Nixuan smiled and said, “Because you are a disciple of the Xue Jue family.”

“I don’t want to hear such lies,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Madam Nixuan's tone became serious, "Because you are valued by Wargod Bloodximius. He sees you as the future of the Xue Jue Family. If the world changes and something happens to him, you, your mother, and Lord Ming can still support the Xue Jue Family."

"If we lose you, we will also lose your mother. The Xue Jue Family can not bear such a blow."

"Moreover, Wargod Bloodximius really likes you. He dotes on you more than any of his sons. He has great expectations for your future. He thinks you can make up for the lack in his heart and do what he didn't do back then."

"In the Xue Jue Family, Wargod Bloodximius is the heaven and the only belief. If I go against his will, do you think I have a place in the Xue Jue Family?"

Zhang Ruochen believed Madam Nixuan's words and smiled. "So, you are doing this to resolve the conflict with my mother?"

Zhang Ruochen and Madam Nixuan did not have a direct conflict or hatred. The conflict originated between the Blood Empress and Madam Nixuan.

Madam Nixuan said, "You are brilliant. I won't beat around the bush. You are the best person to resolve the conflict between us. I did let your mother down in the past. I have apologized to your mother and Lord Ming in front of Wargod Bloodximius. I willingly gave up all my rights. My son also went to the Battlefield of Merits."

"Have you really given up all your rights?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Madam Nixuan signed. "You mean Hoth?"

"The head of the family has announced that all the properties of Hoth now belong to me. If you hand over the properties of Hoth, I can consider persuading my mother," Zhang Ruochen said.

Madam Nixuan said, "I can not hand them over to you."

"Why?"

Zhang Ruochen didn't understand. With Madam Nixuan's attainments in cultivation, she was only one step away from divinity. Why did she have to take the little wealth on Hoth?

Madam Nixuan said, "Qingsheng can't see your purpose in wanting the property of Hoth, but you can't hide it from me. You're leaving a way out for yourself to escape the Infernal Court and return to Kunlun, right? I'm sorry, Wargod Bloodximus doesn't want you to leave. So, I can't give you the property. Instead, I will keep an eye on you and cut off all your ties with Kunlun."

Zhang Ruochen desired Hoth's properties. Zhang Ruochen wanted to use this place as a way out and an excuse to look for Mu Lingxi.

Zhang Ruochen had no choice. His identity was too sensitive, and he had too many enemies in the Infernal Court. The Adjudication Division saw him as a potential threat that would overturn the Fane of Destiny in the future. They wanted to get rid of him as soon as possible.

With the protection of Wargod Bloodximius, Zhang Ruochen was still full of killing intent.

If it was like what Madam Nixuan said, there would be great changes in heaven and earth. If anything happened to Wargod Bloodximius, who could protect Zhang Ruochen?

At that time, if Zhang Ruochen had not become a god, he would still be a Supreme Saint. He would not be able to hold his own. If he stayed with the Xue Jue Family, he would be harming the Xue Jue Family.

Even A crafty rabbit has three burrows. If Zhang Ruochen did not leave a way out for himself, wouldn't he be worse than a crafty rabbit?

As for the two big shots, Fukurokuju and Luo Yan, Zhang Ruochen had never placed his hopes on them.

Just like Zhang Ruochen himself, what he really valued was at least someone with the cultivation and talent of Lord Xia Yu. At the very least, he could not be lower than Xue Tu.

Even ordinary gods like Fukurokuju and Luo Yan might not be able to catch their eyes.

Who does Zhang Ruochen think he is?

Like a talented half-saint in front of Zhang Ruochen, Zhang Ruochen only admired him and helped him when they met.

Therefore, in Zhang Ruochen's opinion, the reason why Fukurokuju bestowed him with the marriage was more to win over Wargod Bloodximus than Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Yan agreed to the marriage because the identity and strength of the great chief, Wargod Bloodximus of the Bloodysky Clan, was a big part of it.

Zhang Ruochen's talent and the identity of the Intergold Tiger's guide were also bargaining chips.

However, if Zhang Ruochen was not the grandson of Wargod Bloodximus, he suspected he could not be the Intergold Tiger's guide.

How could the prominent figures of the Infernal Court give such an opportunity to Zhang Ruochen?

Everything Zhang Ruochen had in the Infernal Court was based on the full support of Wargod Bloodximus. If something really happened to Wargod Bloodximus, who else could Zhang Ruochen rely on?

"I can only rely on myself."

Zhang Ruochen sat in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace with 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords carrying him and swaggering into the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Before this, Zhang Ruochen had negotiated with Madam Nixuan and finally reached a consensus.

The properties of the Xue Jue family on Hoth still belonged to Zhang Ruochen. However, these properties had to be managed by cultivators appointed by Madam Nixuan. Zhang Ruochen could only profit from them.

It was equivalent to calling a truce between the two of them.

Zhang Ruochen thought that because Blackie was the Hoth Emperor's son, if he really wanted to take the back road of Hoth in the future, he could at the very least allow it to acknowledge a father. Wouldn't that be unimpeded?

There was no need to fight to the death with Madam Nixuan.

After parting with Madam Nixuan, Zhang Ruochen immediately went through the wormhole to the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Sitting in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Zhang Ruochen recalled all kinds of things he had experienced after coming to the Infernal Court. He couldn't help but be immersed in the thoughts of all kinds of cultivators he had met.

There was Wargod Bloodximius, who treated him as his closest relative and tried his best to protect him.

There was the devious and ruthless Asurendra Samay.

There was Yan Wushen, who was both a friend and a foe.

Pan Ruo was intertwined with love and hatred and couldn't cut off the entanglement between her past life and this life.

There was the charming and eccentric Luo Sha, who unconventionally did things but fell in love with Zhang Ruochen.

There was the cunning and cruel Lan Ying and the honest and open Xing Luo.

There was Que, who focused on cultivation, and Bai Qing'er, who hid in the shadows and played with all the cultivators in the world.

...

These cultivators could not be judged simply by "Good" or "Bad".

Everyone had their own stand and thoughts. Some became Zhang Ruochen's enemies, some became his friends, and some became his family.

Some were just passersby in life.

Zhang Ruochen had always fought against the things he despised.

For example, the Immortal Vampires sucked blood, the Rakshasas devoured humans, the Asuras massacred all life, and the dead spirits destroyed the world.

Zhang Ruochen had been dissatisfied with the Blood Empress and was hostile to Kong Lanyou. He had cut off his ties with Huang Yanchen and was at odds with Chi Yao.

What was the line between right and wrong?

When he broke through the Shackle of Desire and reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, Zhang Ruochen repeatedly experienced the things that had happened in the past. He had seen many things he could not let go of before. His mind had changed quite a bit, and he was on the verge of epiphany.

After changing paths with the Intergold Tiger, he realized he lacked a spirit when he wanted to create his own technique.

In Bai Qing'er's Nightmare of the Seven Souls, Zhang Ruochen's heart was tempered and improved again.

Talking to the Dragon Lord let Zhang Ruochen know that what he lacked was the Path.

The Path that belonged to him.

What was a Path?

To Que, Path was himself. Only he was in the world, and all external things were oblivion.

It was Que who had found his own Path. That was why Bai Qing'er had evaluated that Zhang Ruochen's state of mind was inferior to Que's. She even believed that Zhang Ruochen would die on this road if he could not condense the Grade One Saintwill.

Wuma Jiuxing's Path was the saber in his hand, so he could enter the divinity of the Path of Saber.

Lan Ying's Path was to transform into a vessel spirit and become one with the Sword of Asura. In the future, it would become a supreme Divine Artifact that could cut down everything in the world. He was the sword, and the sword was him. Therefore, he could reach the peak and cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul when he broke through the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Zhang Ruochen had too many obstacles in his life. The biggest obstacle was hatred.

Hatred was the root of all suffering.

The word hatred gave birth to Zhang Ruochen's inner demon. It made him live in pain. Sometimes, he was extreme in his actions. Sometimes, he was even at a loss. He didn't know where the road ahead was and where the future was.

Because of the word 'hate', he had made too many enemies.

Sometimes, he would even treat those with potential as enemies. In the end, they became a nemesis.

Enemies might have a reason to die, but why did they have to make enemies for him?

Was there really a conflict in the world that couldn't be resolved?

Who didn't want to have one less enemy and one more friend?

After meeting Madam Nixuan, Zhang Ruochen was deeply touched.

Before he went to Hoth, he regarded Madam Nixuan as an enemy. He even thought of fighting them to the death. First, it was a conflict of interests. Second, it was revenge for his mother and Lord Ming.

However, he had never thought that Madam Nixuan was the wife of Wargod Bloodximius.

Did Wargod Bloodximius want his wife's relationship with his daughter and grandson to deteriorate further?

At that time, what should he do?

Was Madam Nixuan really so hateful that they had to die?

Sending Lord Ming and the Blood Empress to Kunlun was indeed dangerous. However, in the eyes of the cultivators of the Infernal Court, Kunlun was a broken world, no different from a dead world.

Wargod Bloodximius's intention was to keep them away from the family and pave the way for her son to become the heir, not to send them to their deaths.

She had her own selfish motives and mistakes, but she also paid the price.

As a disciple of the Xue Jue family, should Zhang Ruochen really sow discord between them? Why had he not thought about resolving the hatred between Madam Nixuan and the Blood Empress and realizing the common prosperity and harmony of the family?

Perhaps this was what Wargod Bloodximius wanted to see the most.

Now that the Blood Empress had become a god, she might not hate Madam Nixuan so much. She probably didn't want to make things difficult for Wargod Bloodximius, so she let Madam Nixuan go.

Suppose Zhang Ruochen was willing to show up, and Madam Nixuan was willing to pay the price and apologize sincerely. In that case, this conflict could be easily resolved.

Zhang Ruochen, who was sitting cross-legged, read out a sentence:

"The sea can contain all rivers and everything. This is my Path, and this is my spirit! To restore the world's order, there must be a heart vast enough to accommodate everything.

"My body can not accommodate this universe, but my heart can.

"The good and the bad are all in the world.

"Pure and evil are all in the world of mortals."

“Who said that being a pure cultivator like Que and Lan Ying is the right Path? No, that’s just a small Path. Encompassing all is the true Major Path.”

“Dragon Lord, I understand what you’re saying!”

Zhang Ruochen laughed, and all his doubts disappeared.

Man, Earth, Heaven, and Path.

For I am abstracted from the world, nature from the Path, and the Path from what lies beneath abstraction.

What was nature?

Nature was everything in the world.

The key to the Grade One Saintwill was the word “one”.

“One” didn’t mean “single”; it meant “everything”.

To condense the Grade One Saintwill, Zhang Ruochen had to include everything in the world.

Zhang Ruochen already had the foundation to include everything in the world. The Five-element Chaotic Body, the Master of Time and Space identity, the vision to reshape the order of heaven and earth, and the heart encompassing everything.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen stood on the top of the mountain. They wanted to ascend to the sky, but no road was under their feet.

Yan Wushen chose to give up everything to make it easier to ascend to the sky.

The path Zhang Ruochen had found now was to step on everything in the world and reach the sky.

Yan Wushen was destined to be unable to cultivate the true Grade One Saintwill. At most, he would be able to grasp the true meaning of the Grade One Saintwill. The path Zhang Ruochen was walking on was the correct path.

However, this path was challenging.

“The sea embraces all rivers and everything.” How could it be easy?

The former needed an infinite mind to accommodate everything in the world.

The latter needed an infinite mind to have everything in Zhang Ruochen's heart.

Even the saints with the highest moral character might be unable to do it.

How could Zhang Ruochen be allowed to accept all in life when he was on the edge of life and death?

Zhang Ruochen would accept everything he protected, not evildoers who destroyed everything. He would view the world with the greatest kindness and change the world.

Perhaps one day, Zhang Ruochen would be invincible in the world and could live according to his own wishes. Then, he would truly be able to encompass all.

Of course, at this moment, Zhang Ruochen's heart of Path had been set, and he had achieved an unprecedented breakthrough.

The strength of Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power instantly broke through to the 67th level.

Then it rose to the 68th level.

Zhang Ruochen broke through two levels in a row.

Of course, it wasn't because Zhang Ruochen had improved his state of mind that he could make such a significant breakthrough.

It was because Zhang Ruochen had refined the Heart of the Divine Tree long ago and obtained the knowledge of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree's first Yuanhui period. This knowledge had never been completely transformed and integrated.

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power suddenly soared after his state of mind was integrated after enduring the trial of the Shackle of Desire and the tempering of the Nightmare of the Seven Souls.

Zhang Ruochen sensed it and manifested the Realm-frame of Truth.

Suddenly, the Royal City of Hundred Clans cultivators looked up at the sky.

In the daytime, the stars were shining in the sky.

Some gods sensed that the stars in the starry sky had been affected by something. Suddenly, the light surged, and even the trajectory of the stars changed slightly.

...

Celestial Court, the Celestial Domain of Truth.

The divine light of the Fane of Truth suddenly shone brightly. It exuded a brilliant radiance like a sea of stars, covering thousands of miles.

The Supreme Saints in the fane were all alarmed. They all rushed to where the fane's lord was in seclusion. They kowtowed and asked, wanting to know what had happened.

The Lord of Fane of Truth did not go to the Jadeite Realm. Instead, he stayed in the Celestial Court.

The Lord of Fane of Truth came out from his closed-door cultivation. He waved his sleeve and berated, "It's just a little anomaly. It's nothing serious. Attend to your duties."

After the Supreme Saints left, the Lord of Fane of Truth looked out into the sky. It was as if he could see what was happening billions of miles away. He muttered to himself, "This little traitor cultivated the Realm-frame of Truth—Boundless Universe in the Supreme Saint realm. It caused the Fane of Truth to manifest an anomaly. He's the only one since ancient times. Is it because he possesses the Heart of Truth, or does this kid have unprecedented abilities?"

The Lord of Fane of Truth was a little angry. The more he thought about it, the angrier he became.

Following that, he pulled out Xiang Chunan, who was in closed-door cultivation, and gave him a fierce beating.

The poor Xiang Chunan did not even know why he was being beaten. He was beaten until he could not even get up from the ground. His eyes were blank as he collapsed to the ground. He grabbed the soil on the ground with both hands and looked at the sky. His seven apertures were bleeding.

...

The Six Heavenly Tomes of the Fane of Destiny were stored in the Destiny Tower of the Divination Division.

The Head Overseer of the Divination Division, Xu Rulai, shuttled between the bookshelves in the tower and sorted out all kinds of tomes.

Suddenly, Xu Rulai sensed something. He looked at the area where the Six Heavenly Tomes were located in the center of the Destiny Tower and let out a soft gasp.

With just a thought, he stood next to one of the Six Heavenly Tomes, the Tome of the Divines. He observed the changes in the rankings and said, "It changed again. And it increased so much in one go."

His gaze fell on the name "Zhang Ruochen."

Zhang Ruochen's ranking on the Tome of the Divines had changed twice.

Last time, when Zhang Ruochen had broken through the Shackle of Desire, he had changed from 87th place to 21st place.

This time, he directly rose to the second-class area.

Entering the second-class area meant that the probability of Zhang Ruochen becoming a god had exceeded 40%.

The probability of a cultivator becoming a god was between 10% and 20%.

No wonder Xu Rulai was alarmed. A Yuanhui-level genius ranked third-class in the Tome of the Divines was enough to make all the cultivators laugh. Even the gods didn't think highly of Zhang Ruochen.

If the changes in the Tome of the Divines were to spread, it would definitely cause a massive disturbance.

Some people would definitely be happy.

However, those gods who had once looked down on Zhang Ruochen and did not take a liking to him would probably take action immediately and kill him.

“So you’ve entered the second-class. Zhang Ruochen, Zhang Ruochen, what changes have happened to you?”

Xu Rulai touched his chin and thought of something. He turned to look at the other two Heavenly Tomes, the Deva Path Tome and the Tome of God-Defying. He found Zhang Ruochen’s name on the Tome of God-Defying.

“His name didn’t appear in the Deva Path Tome, but the Tome of God-Defying. This is troublesome!”

Eighteen Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords carried the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. They swaggered down the magnificent streets of the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Ghost Qi filled the sky, and their momentum soared to the sky. Wherever they passed, countless cultivators surrounded and watched.

“Zhang Ruochen has entered the city!”

Zhang Ruochen entered the city in a high-profile manner.

Communication talismans spread out like a meteor shower.

After the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen was already a famous figure worldwide. Born in the Infernal Court, one could not know who the twelve Reverends of the Fane of Destiny were. However, no one did not know who Zhang Ruochen was.

This was not bragging!

In terms of fame, in terms of recognition among the ordinary cultivators, who could be compared to Zhang Ruochen, who had to perform a massacre on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?

Zhang Ruochen went to Hoth to keep a low profile because he knew that Hoth was a chaotic place. If he died there, it would be difficult for the Xue Jue Family to find out who did it.

He came to the Royal City of Hundred Clans to be high-profile because he knew clearly that there were three gods in the city before he reached.

The three gods were from the Yakshas, the Wulvers, and the Pyroghost Clan.

These three clans were small compared to the ten great clans, but they were the three most powerful clans out of the 137 small clans that made up the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Zhang Ruochen's identity was exceptional. He was the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius, Luo Yan's son-in-law, and the Shadow of Fukurokuju. It would be very troublesome if a God killed him in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

After returning from the Jadeite Realm, it would be strange if Wargod Bloodximius didn't turn the Royal City of Hundred Clans upside down.

So, knowing that Asurendra Samay wanted to kill him, Zhang Ruochen entered the Royal City of Hundred Clans in a high-profile manner and let all cultivators see that he was in the city. If Asurendra Samay wanted to kill him, the gods in the Royal City of Hundred Clans would protect him.

On the other hand, if Zhang Ruochen sneaked into the city, even if he was killed, the gods in the Royal City of Hundred Clans could turn a blind eye and pretend that they didn't know anything.

Zhang Ruochen was using the power of the three gods to protect himself.

It couldn't be helped. It's a pity they were from a small clan, and Zhang Ruochen had a powerful background and an unreasonable grandfather. No one could afford to offend him, so they could only treat him as a lord.

Wherever Zhang Ruochen went, chaos would always lead to bloodshed. Even cultivators at the edge of the Infernal Court knew about it.

Because of Zhang Ruochen's arrival, all the Royal City of Hundred Clans clans had headaches.

In fact, when the Light of Origin appeared in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, they had already begun to have headaches. However, Zhang Ruochen's arrival made them even more troubled!

A peerless woman, followed by a group of veiled saintesses, gracefully arrived in front of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The woman in the lead could be said to be peerless in appearance and figure. She also had an extraordinary immortal charm.

She bowed slightly to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. She said pleasantly, "Xue Lai of the Sengens has come to escort Young Master Ruochen to the Sengens' sacred ground on our Emperor's order."

There was no response from the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords seemed unable to see them as they walked forward.

They had no choice but to retreat to the sides.

The veiled saintesses all had looks of disgust in their eyes. They felt that this Ruochen Supreme Saint was too cold and arrogant. He actually treated the Sengens as nothing. Furthermore, his actions were equivalent to humiliating Princess Xue Lai.

A handsome man in a black robe descended from the sky and appeared in front of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. 108 rays of evil light on his body, and he had a great bearing. He raised his voice and said, "I'm Han Ailian from the Yakshas. Our goddess Jadea is my master. She would like to invite Young Master Ruochen to the Yaksha sacred ground."

The Sevenstar Imperial Palace still ignored him and continued forward.

There was an uproar on the long street.

"Han Ailian is a famous figure in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. He's one of the seven lords of the Yaksha. How can Zhang Ruochen ignore him? How can he be so arrogant?"

"This Yuanhui level genius really knows how to put on airs. Does he want the clan leader or god to personally invite him?"

"He's indeed arrogant. He's only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

...

Five days after Zhang Ruochen entered the city, cultivators from all forces went to invite or pay their respects. However, there was no response from the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. They all ended awkwardly.

Those who were well-mannered just smiled helplessly.

Those with bad tempers cursed directly. They even had the urge to overturn the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords acted as if they had no feelings or thoughts. They followed Zhang Ruochen's instructions and walked forward step by step. They ignored the cultivators who invited and paid their respects.

Their master didn't say anything. How could they dare to speak?

Five days, 1000 miles, through half of the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Such madness!

Madness to the extreme!

This was the unanimous evaluation of Zhang Ruochen from the Royal City of Hundred Clans cultivators.

Yuan Benji and a group of Fane of Death Supreme Saints stood on the top of a seven-story pavilion. They looked at the 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords swaggering down the street with mocking smiles.

"What do you think Zhang Ruochen is doing? He has been walking in the Royal City of Hundred Clans for five days and has offended all the major forces. His style... Hehe, is quite similar to that of Wargod Bloodximius."

Yuan Benji was Yuan Qianmo's younger brother, the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. He was almost burned to ashes by Blackie's Eternal Fire in the House of Enchanters of Hoth.

Yuan Fei, who had also participated in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting and was the number one powerhouse of the Deathkin, had already broken into the Thousand-Koan Realm.

He was very calm. “Is Zhang Ruochen really in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace? Could it be that he’s using this as a trick? In fact, his real body has already gone to find the Fane of Origin?”

Hearing this, the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death were all moved.

Yuan Benji had received a message from Yuan Qianmo five days ago, asking him to keep an eye on Zhang Ruochen and monitor his every move.

Obviously, Yuan Qianmo didn’t believe Zhang Ruochen at all. He still felt that the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was very likely with him. Not only Yuan Qianmo but other forces also sent people to follow Zhang Ruochen to the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Why didn’t Yuan Qianmo personally go?

There was no other way. All the Supreme Saints had answered the call of the Fane of Destiny. They gathered in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt and Hoth to deal with Ji Fanxin, an unprecedented enemy from the Celestial Court.

The Supreme Saints from all the Royal City of Hundred Clans had been deployed.

The Paramount Realm Yuanhui-level genius had to be killed. Otherwise, it would be a future disaster for the Infernal Court.

Yuan Benji had firmly rejected Supreme Saint Yuanfei’s guess. He said, “Impossible! More than one group of cultivators have been watching Zhang Ruochen since he passed through the wormhole. No matter how powerful he is, he can’t leave.”

“He’s the descendant of Saint Monk Xumi. He might have grasped the Canon of Dimension and be able to escape without anyone knowing,” Supreme Saint Yuanfei reminded him.

Yuan Benji’s expression changed slightly, but he quickly calmed down. He sneered and said, “If that’s the case, send the White Reapers to attack directly. Let’s give him a try.”

“Okay, I’ll do it.”

A man with a red mole, the size of a thumb, walked out from among the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death. His eyes were gray and silver, and his aura was rather strange.

The Death Palace of the Fane of Destiny could nurture the Ten Wraithions, who were not afraid of death.

Of course, the Fane of Death also specialized in cultivating powerhouses born to kill. Some of these powerhouses were cultivated by living beings. As soon as they were born, their emotions and desires were erased. They only knew how to cultivate and kill. They did not know about emotions and fear.

Some were cultivated by dead spirits. Just like the Fane of Death, they used the corpses and saint souls of top powerhouses. They even used the corpses and saint souls of gods to cultivate them.

This man with a huge red mole between his brows had a strong background. Even Yuan Benji, who had his older brother Yuan Qianmo backing him, was afraid of that man.

Yuan Benji smiled. “Que Shenzi, you didn’t come just to test the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, right?”

The Man with the red mole named Que Shenzi said in a deep voice, “Zhang Ruochen killed Shan Qiu, but he’s still free. The Death Palace has lost so much face. How can they let him go so easily? Don’t worry, everyone. The White Reapers I’ve dispatched will be chosen from the living beings. No one will suspect the Fane of Death.”

“So what if they suspect the Fane of Death? Why are they afraid of the Xue Jue Family?” A Supreme Saint from the Fane of Death said.

Yuan Benji laughed. “That’s tough! Didn’t Zhang Ruochen like to be high-profile? We let him enter the city in a high-profile manner, but he was thrown out of the city like a dead dog. However, it must be noted that the Sevenstar Imperial Palace was a sacred palace refined by Wargod Bloodximius. It was close to being a fane, and even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint could not break through it. Once we attack, we must be well prepared to break through the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's defense."

Yuan Benji knew very well that his elder brother was an exquisite person who cherished his reputation. Because of Yan Zhexian's incident, although he hated Zhang Ruochen to the bone, he could not bear to face him.

Yuan Benji had wanted to teach Zhang Ruochen a lesson in front of all the cultivators, but he did not know what to do.

Zhang Ruochen blamed Ji Fanxin for Shan Qiu's death, but only those who believed him would believe him. Those who did not believe him at all.

He could make use of this opportunity to test whether Zhang Ruochen was in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and take the opportunity to teach him a lesson to find out if he had superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origins on him. It would be best if he took away all his Supreme Artifacts.

As long as he didn't kill Zhang Ruochen, even if the god behind Zhang Ruochen knew about this, he wouldn't stand up for him. He would only feel embarrassed.

Moreover, once he found a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origins on Zhang Ruochen, he wouldn't be able to explain it even if he had a mouth all over his body! The Fane of Destiny wouldn't let him off the hook.

...

Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian were confused. After returning to Hoth, they heard that the Light of Origin had appeared in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, so they came here.

It was also because one of the minor clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, the Night Demons, was affiliated with the Yanluo clan.

Therefore, after they came to the Royal City of Hundred Clans, they were received by the two most outstanding figures under the Emperor of the Night Demon clan, Xuan Zehai, and Xuan Qingying.

In the Royal City of Hundred Clans, and even at the borders of the Infernal Court, Xuan Zehai was considered a top-notch powerhouse. Although he had yet to break through to the ultimate realm, he had already cultivated four trillion precepts. Once he condensed his Paramount physique, he would become a powerhouse among the Paramount Realm Supreme Saints, the overlord of the mortal world.

Like Lord Ironclad, who had cultivated over one trillion precepts and was at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm, would be defeated in just a few moves in front of him. As for the others, who had cultivated less than one trillion precepts, he could quickly suppress them.

Of course, they were still far from the likes of Lord Wu Yue, who had cultivated twelve Trillion precepts and formed a Paramount physique.

But who was Lord Wu Yue?

How many of the top five existences in the Fane of Destiny were in a single era?

Even the ancestors of small clans had to bow their heads when they saw such an important figure.

Xuan Qingying was slightly inferior to her elder brother. Still, the number of precepts she had cultivated had also reached three trillion. She also had a lovely name, one of the ten beauties at the edge of the Infernal Court, and was known as the “Qing the Beauty”.

Her name was actually a little more famous than her brother’s.

Xuan Zehai told Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu the results of the three investigations into the Light of Origins. Then he sighed, “When the Light of Origins appeared three times, I always thought that it was someone with ill intentions who wanted to bring the disaster to the Royal City of Hundred Clans. But you’ve all seen it too. Strange things have been happening recently. During the day, the stars shine, and the stars shift. This isn’t something that a human can do!”

Then, he used a voice transmission to inform Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian. He said, “It’s said that the gods of the three great clans haven't figured out why this phenomenon. That's why they've issued an order that the various clans activate all the Divine Marks and Supreme Saint inscriptions in the city."

"The stars are shining, and the stars are shifting."

Yan Zhexian murmured softly. Her beautiful face looked out of the window at the vast sky.

The strange phenomenon had not disappeared yet.

Was the Fane of Origin really going to be born here?

Yan Huangtu said, "The major event on Hoth and the appearance of the Light of Origin in the Royal City of Hundred Clans three times must have been detected by the Celestial Court. Are there any powerhouses from the Celestial Court on the Eminence Ranking who have come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans?"

Xuan Zehai looked helpless. He said, "The Royal City of Hundred Clans stretches for thousands of miles. With all kinds of clans gathering together, it's too easy for the cultivators from the Celestial Court to sneak into the city! Of course, we can investigate it, but we can't find a powerhouse on the Eminence Ranking."

Xuan Qingying, sitting at the side, had a strange look in her eyes that was as clear as water.

Yan Huangtu noticed it and said with a smile, "Beauty Qing, you seem to know something."

Xuan Qingying quickly said, "There is someone in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, and that person has been here for a long time."

"Who is it?" Yan Huangtu asked.

"One of the three great assassin organizations in the Celestial Court, the number one assassin of the Empyrean Assassins, Peach Blossom," Xuan Qingying said.

Xuan Zehai slammed the table. His eyes were filled with awe. "Yes, how could I have forgotten about her? She is a superior who has entered the Eminence Ranking and is a top-notch powerhouse."

There was a commotion outside.

They all looked out of the window. Wherever they looked, a black fog filled the air. Eighteen Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords were carrying the Sevenstar Imperial Palace far away.

Their actions and stance were like a royal family on a trip.

Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying had long known that Zhang Ruochen had come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans. However, even Han Ailian of the Yakshas had been humiliated by Zhang Ruochen. They knew their place, so they didn't go to see him or invite him.

However, when they saw the Sevenstar Imperial Palace Pass by, they couldn't help but look at Yan Zhexian.

Who didn't know that Yuan Qianmo and Yan Zhexian were the perfect couples before the Battle of Celestial-Hunting?

One was the first class of the Tome of the Divines. He was pure and handsome and would definitely become a god in the future. He was the best choice in the minds of all women.

The other was the most beautiful girl of the Yanluo clan. She was talented in cultivation. She was deeply loved by the supreme leader and had a terrifying background.

But Yan Zhexian was pregnant with Zhang Ruochen's child on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Who was Zhang Ruochen?

He was famous for being a playboy. He was the dust among the scumbags. From Kunlun to the Celestial Court and then to the Infernal Court, he had tangled with countless women. He loved everyone he saw. If others didn't love him, he would capture them and force them to love him.

In the story of Zhang Ruochen and the fairies in the Portrait of the Nine Beauties and the legend of a female deity in Kunlun, he supported Lady Wind ascending to the position of Scioness. He gave a Supreme Artifact to Lord Xia Yu. He was engaged to Princess Luo Sha.

These countless romantic affairs had been widely spread in the Infernal Court and spread countless versions because he had become the number one person in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

Among them, how he had become the Divine Envoy of the pure Moon Goddess had been rated as one of the biggest secrets of this Yuanhui period. Countless cultivators and even gods in the Celestial and Infernal Court wanted to solve this mystery.

Moon Goddess? Zhang Ruochen?

One was in the sky, and the other was underground.

One was a goddess of extreme beauty, and the other was a filthy traitor.

All cultivators couldn't figure it out. How could the sacred and pure Moon Goddess have a Divine Envoy like Zhang Ruochen?

Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying couldn't figure out why Yan Zhexian would abandon Yuan Qianmo and choose Zhang Ruochen.

If Yan Zhexian hadn't volunteered, Zhang Ruochen would have been killed long ago if he dared to humiliate her with the strength of the Yanluo clan and his love for Yan Zhexian.

What confused Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying was that Yan Zhexian looked out of the window at the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Her fair face was clearly filled with disgust and disdain.

"This scum doesn't know how to restrain himself. He's only reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he's so high-profile that he doesn't even know his surname. Just wait and see. There will definitely be cultivators who can't help but attack. When the time comes, let's see how he'll embarrass himself," Yan Zhexian snorted.

Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu had their memories erased and did not remember that Zhang Ruochen had saved them.

Although Xuan Zehai was confused and could not figure out the relationship between Yan Zhexian and Zhang Ruochen, he still said, "It is said that Zhang Ruochen had a fight with Lan Ying not long ago, and they were equally matched. In his current realm, he is already quite abnormal.”

Yan Huangtu said, “Both Lan Ying and Que have come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans. They’ll definitely attack. This is a continuous battle of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. I’m looking forward to it. But I’m looking forward to the reaction of the cultivators of the Fane of Death and the Celestial Court. Can Zhang Ruochen really deal with them?”

Five days into the city, Zhang Ruochen had offended all the major forces in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. It was really not what he wanted.

Zhang Ruochen encompassed everything in his heart. It seemed that he had comprehended everything in an instant. In fact, Zhang Ruochen had opened the sundial in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He had comprehended it for five years before he had a clear mind and realized the spiritual transformation.

In other words, Zhang Ruochen had been in a mysterious state of enlightenment for the past five days. He had no idea what was happening outside.

The palace guardian, Huang Tian, and the 18 Ghost Lords had no opinions. They only followed Zhang Ruochen's instructions when he entered the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. "We shall enter the city in a high-profile manner."

God knew why Zhang Ruochen had been mute after entering the city.

When Zhang Ruochen's epiphany ended, he made some predictions and realized that so much time had passed. So, he quickly asked Huang Tian about the recent events.

Huang Tian was just a sleeping lion dog. As long as there were no enemies to attack, it didn't even bother to open its eyes.

Being asked by Zhang Ruochen, it replied arrogantly, "The Sevenstar Imperial Palace is the Palace of Wargod Bloodximius. No enemies would dare to attack."

Well, it was useless to ask.

Zhang Ruochen had mixed feelings. He decided that the next time he cultivated, he must bring out one or two reliable cultivators from the Qiankun Realm to be the manager of his external affairs.

BOOM!

Suddenly, a heavy blow landed on the top of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The palace, which looked more than 30 meters tall, shook violently. Then, countless inscriptions of the array appeared and automatically formed a square-shaped defensive array.

Huang Tian could not understand why there would be someone who did not know what was good for him. He was angry and angry at the same time.

With a leap, he stood before the palace door and roared towards the sky.

The Sevenstar Imperial Palace's stairs, walls, tiles, and pillars all shone with divine light. Large amounts of Supreme Saint inscriptions and Divine Marks appeared, forming a second and third defensive array.

At the same time, an attack array was formed. Blood-colored lightning flowed around the palace like a stream.

Wargod Bloodximius had given the Sevenstar Imperial Palace to Zhang Ruochen to keep him safe. The higher Zhang Ruochen's cultivation was, the stronger his control over the Sevenstar Imperial Palace would be. The defense and attack power would also increase.

The sudden change shocked the cultivators surrounding the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. They all retreated.

How could anyone dare to attack Zhang Ruochen?

Four human-like figures in white rushed toward the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. They were all flesh and blood creatures, but they exude an aura of death.

The stone slabs on the long street and the buildings on both sides were instantly covered in a layer of black ice.

The cultivators surrounding the Sevenstar Imperial Palace knew that these four powerful figures in white were compelling, but they didn't retreat.

The reason was that this was the Royal City of Hundred Clans, a great sacred city. It even had the tendency to transform into a divine city.

The so-called sacred city was where the Saint Realm cultivators gathered.

To become a sacred city, the best cultivation conditions were only one of them. More importantly, one had to ensure that the Battle of the Saint Realm cultivators couldn't cause any ripples of damage and couldn't destroy the city.

As for the divine city, it had to be a city that could not be destroyed by a battle between gods.

There was only one sacred city for each of the ten great clans, and they were all built around the fane.

Since the Royal City of Hundred Clans could be considered a sacred city close to being a divine city, the materials used to build the city must be at the saint level. Every building had at least Supreme Saint inscriptions engraved on them.

There were countless Path Locks and Divine Marks in the city.

The moment the four white-robed powerhouses released their saint might, the Supreme Saint inscriptions, Path Locks, and Divine Marks appeared on the nearby streets and ancient buildings. Even a light pillar of array formation shot up into the sky.

Rumble

After the four white-robed powerhouses appeared, they didn't say a word and directly attacked the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The four of them were all wielding swords. They were artifacts that surpassed Class Three Regal Artifacts.

One strike after another. Although they did not break through the defense of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, cracks appeared on the green stone street that had been immortal for tens of thousands of years. Many of the Path Locks between heaven and earth were cut off.

Xuan Zehai looked at them from the railing. His expression was grim as he said, "Which faction is this? They actually mobilized four Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints at once."

To mobilize four Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints, a Macroworld like Guanghan needed to mobilize the entire world's power. Naturally, it was a big move.

"These Supreme Saints are all living beings but full of killing intent. Could they be from the Asuras' Fane of Barasingha?" Xuan Qingying asked.

Yan Huangtu stared at the booming street for a moment. He seemed to have seen something. He just grinned and looked around.

Yan Zhexian frowned slightly. "The allied enforcers of the Royal City of Hundred Clans don't care about the fight between the Supreme Saints in the city?"

She wasn't worried about Zhang Ruochen's safety. She was just curious.

A battle between the Supreme Saint level powerhouses in the saint city would definitely cause damage.

Xuan Zehai smiled bitterly, "The Royal City of Hundred Clans isn't like those saint cities in the center of the Infernal Court. The rules and order here are very loose. All 137 clans have built a sacred ground in the city. Their core interests and wealth are all on sacred ground. Although we will take care of the chaos outside the sacred grounds, we still must divide the people, time, and power."

Yan Zhexian finally understood. The Royal City of Hundred Clans' allied enforcers would undoubtedly punish the Supreme Saint fighting in the city.

However, the four white-clothed powerful figures dared to attack Zhang Ruochen. They clearly had a strong background.

The Royal City of Hundred Clans didn't want to get involved. Neither side wanted to offend Zhang Ruochen.

More importantly, Zhang Ruochen was too arrogant after entering the city. All the Royal City of Hundred Clans clans would be happy to see someone teach him a lesson.

"I'm quite curious. How will this Yuanhui-level genius deal with them?" Xuan Qingying's eyes were filled with anticipation.

Although Xuan Qingying had cultivated for thousands of years and even met gods, Yuanhui-level geniuses were rarer than gods. Naturally, she was a little curious. However, her anticipation was significantly reduced when she thought about Zhang Ruochen's cultivation, which was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The Sevenstar Imperial Palace's defense was solid. If Zhang Ruochen hid inside and didn't come out, the four Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints might not be able to break in.

However, Zhang Ruochen had arrogantly entered the city and treated the cultivators of the clans as nothing. If he acted like a coward, wouldn't he be laughed at by all the cultivators in the city? Wargod Bloodximus and Fukurokuju would probably be humiliated because of him.

Zhang Ruochen's only choice was to strike back forcefully.

However, these were four Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints. Their auras were very similar. They obviously had combined attacks. With such a formation, even Lan Ying, known for defeating Banshi Isshou Realm cultivators with a single sword, would probably choose to break out of the encirclement and not fight.

One-on-one and one-on-four were different.

More and more cultivators came after hearing the news.

Except for a big lion dog howling in front of the gate of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Zhang Ruochen had not come out. Cultivators from some forces were already sneering softly.

Especially those cultivators from various clans who had been humiliated by Zhang Ruochen in the past few days. They had been holding back their anger and shouted directly, “The dog raised by the Wargod Bloodximus is imposing!”

“Supreme Saint Ruochen, come out and accept the challenge. Let us see the splendor of a Yuanhui-level genius.”

“Supreme Saint Ruochen, don’t be afraid. This is the Royal City of Hundred Clans. We, Yakshas, will protect your life.”

...

They were all telling the truth, but even Yan Zhexian felt it was ear-piercing when she heard them. She hated Zhang Ruochen for not having the courage to show off on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

If Yan Zhexian had known earlier, she would have announced the secret of the Madre Bloody Shadow to the world. She would not have carried the reputation of Zhang Ruochen’s child.

During that period, Zhang Ruochen took Lian Xi out of the Qiankun Realm. He burned the incense, bathed in the harem, and then changed into a spotless white robe. He only walked out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace at a moderate pace.

After comprehending the Path, Zhang Ruochen’s state of mind became unprecedentedly calm and natural. No matter how strong the enemy was, the laughter would not stop. He did not panic at all. It was difficult for him to even be angry.

In a word, he was like a Buddha!

He summoned Lian Xi not to show off to the Royal City of Hundred Clans cultivators but to prepare to let her go.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t know if it was because he was too compassionate, but when he thought about Lian Xi, he felt he was wrong. He was terrible not to deal with her, but not in that way.

Since she wanted to leave, he would send her on her way.

Seeing the extraordinarily handsome Zhang Ruochen and the immortal-like Fairy Shadowless walking out of the palace gate one after another, countless pairs of eyes were attracted to them.

They did not want to attract hatred but pushed it to another peak.

Who would not be envious of taking in a famous fairy as a maid?

The sacred light on Zhang Ruochen's body blossomed like a divine lamp. All the cultivators' hearts became calm and strange wherever the light shone.

The four white-robed Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints stopped.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't angry at all. Smiling, he said, "I'm here. I wonder which force I had offended. Can someone come out and tell me?"

When Que Shenzi of the Fane of Death saw Zhang Ruochen, he did not hide anymore. He walked out and said, "I thought the Supreme Saint Ruochen was not in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, or he planned to hide there for the rest of his life!"

The four White Reapers were just testing him.

How could they break the Sevenstar Imperial Palace?

After thinking for a while, Que Shenzi thought there was no need for the Fane of Death to hide when dealing with Zhang Ruochen. He just had to reveal his identity. That was why he had come out with his actual body. At the same time, the other Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death also appeared nearby. They seemed to be echoing each other.

Zhang Ruochen smiled politely. "So you're the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death. What are you doing? Honestly, I have a good relationship with your brother Yuan Qianmo. Can you give him some face and leave? I'm a generous person. I will overlook what happened today."

Hearing this, the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death turned pale and pale. Yuan Benji almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

'Did he just say he has a good relationship with Yuan Qianmo? And he called him Brother Yuan? Did he call himself a generous person?

‘Zhang Ruochen, you are courting death for saying such shameless things.’

Who didn't know that Yuan Qianmo wanted to marry Yan Zhexian to pave the way for him to take control of the Fane of Death after becoming a God?

The Yanluo clan was also very satisfied with Yuan Qianmo, who couldn't find any flaws.

Yan Zhexian and Yuan Qianmo had met several times under the deliberate matchmaking of the two gods. They might not have any feelings, but they definitely appreciated each other.

The news of their engagement spread throughout the Infernal Court.

It was a foregone conclusion, but Zhang Ruochen came out of nowhere and impregnated Yan Zhexian. Yuan Qianmo, who ranked first in the Tome of the Divines, lost a lot of faces and became a laughingstock.

'Zhang Ruochen, you have the nerve to claim that you had a relationship with Yuan Qianmo? And called him brother Yuan?

'Yuan Qianmo was too kind to you for not chopping you into pieces.'

Everyone thought about it and suddenly understood.

A large group of Supreme Saint realm powerhouses from the Fane of Death had gathered here. Their power was so terrifying that even an ordinary Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would have to bow his head, let alone Zhang Ruochen.

Obviously, Zhang Ruochen was afraid!

More and more people mocked and ridiculed him.

Zhang Ruochen didn't care and said, "Everyone, leave. That's all for today."

How could Que Shenzi be fooled by Zhang Ruochen? He said in a deep voice, "Zhang Ruochen, you killed the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death. Such arrogance! Where will the Fane of Death's face be if I don't skin you alive?"

Zhang Ruochen frowned and said, "Brother Yuan and I have already made it clear that Ji Fanxin killed Shan Qiu. Why are you still holding a grudge? How can the Fane of Death be so petty? Where's your big heart?"

Que Shenzi said, "It's useless to push it to anyone. Today, I'll give you two choices. Either you walk out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and fight with me to end the grudge between the Fane of Death and you.

"Or I break into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and skin you alive to avenge the Supreme Saint Shan Qiu."

As Que Shenzi spoke, he took out a human head-sized Inscription-Suppressing Stone.

This Inscription-Suppressing Stone was refined by an Archsaint Array Master of the Fane of Death. Before it could be activated, the inscriptions of the array, the lines of the Supreme Saint, and the Divine Marks around it began to become unstable.

There were powerful figures from various forces gathered here. There was no lack of discerning people.

Que Shenzi might not be able to break into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Still, with the help of the Archsaint Array Master's Inscription-Suppressing Stone, Zhang Ruochen might not be able to defend it.

Xuan Zehai sighed. "The Fane of Death is too ruthless! Many powerhouses had gathered, which was equivalent to blocking Zhang Ruochen's escape route. If Que Shenzi came out again with the Archsaint Array Master's Inscription-Suppressing Stone, no matter what Zhang Ruochen chose, he would be humiliated today. It might even be possible...”

Yan Zhexian instinctively felt that Zhang Ruochen deserved it, but she thought that no matter what, he was still the child’s father. If Zhang Ruochen humiliated her, wouldn’t he be humiliated as well?

Nothing can be done now. The Fane of Death was pressuring him. Zhang Ruochen couldn’t escape or fight, but no one came to help him. There wasn’t even a cultivator to stop the fight.

Who was he to blame?

It was all his fault. He was arrogant and didn’t know how to control himself.

Yan Huangtu saw that Yan Zhexian had a strange expression. He smiled. “If Xian ‘er can’t bear it, I can mobilize the power of the Yanluo clan to help him resolve this crisis. We might not be able to suppress the Fane of Death, but with our help, the Fane of Death won’t go too far.”

In the royal city, the only people that the Fane of Death could worry about seemed to be the Yanluo clan.

Yan Zhexian asked, “What do you mean by not going too far?”

Yan Huangtu saw that Yan Zhexian was soft-hearted after all. He said, “I think we can still save Zhang Ruochen’s life and cultivation.”

First, Yuan Qianmo was humiliated, and now a Supreme Saint had died. How could the Fane of Death let Zhang Ruochen go so easily?

Protecting Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation and life was the limit of what Yan Huangtu could do.

As for whether the Fane of Death wanted Zhang Ruochen to kneel down and admit his mistake, skin him alive, or take away the Supreme Artifact, it wasn’t something the Yanluo clan could control!

Even the Fane of Destiny couldn’t control it!

They didn't see that the mediation of the Fane of Destiny had just ended in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt, and the action against Zhang Ruochen had started again.

While Yan Zhexian was deep in thought, Zhang Ruochen agreed without hesitation on the street. He said, "Good! A battle to resolve the enmity. That's a good suggestion."

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's defensive array as he spoke.

All the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death were overjoyed.
Great!

Zhang Ruochen was so stupid. He actually dared to walk out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Without the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, it would be easy to deal with him.

The four White Reapers deliberately moved and released the precepts to condense a Precept Domain to prevent Zhang Ruochen from escaping back to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Many cultivators watching the battle shook their heads. They all felt that Zhang Ruochen had become a fish in a barrel in the Fane of Death.

Since Que Shenzi dared to challenge him, he was undoubtedly confident of winning.

Once he defeated Zhang Ruochen, it would not be as simple as losing. He could be humiliated or even lose his cultivation.

Que Shenzi did not waste time with Zhang Ruochen. Divine light burst out from his body. The Evil Death Qi, containing divine power, surged out and rushed toward Zhang Ruochen like a huge wave.

The peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm!

And...

He had pure divine power.

Que Shenzi didn't have a Demigod-level physique, nor did he evolve from a divine corpse.

It was because his mother was a god. He had been nourished by the purest divine Qi in her womb. There were precept marks all over his body.

Luo Shengtian and Luo Sha also had a mother in godhood. They were born with the same trait. However, their divine power had been sealed since they were young, and the seal hadn't been completely broken.

Que Shenzi was the first person Zhang Ruochen had met who had a divine mother and had ultimately released the divine power in his body.

They were both in the Banshi Isshou Realm, but Que Shenzi was much stronger than Lord Ironclad.

WHOOSH!

100 million Divine Marks of Fire appeared on Zhang Ruochen's left leg. They turned into blazing divine fire and blocked the evil death qi.

"You dare to show 100,000,000 precept marks?"

Que Shenzi roared gloomily. He rushed out of the black evil death qi and pressed out with his palm.

There were tens of millions of precept marks on his palm alone.

There were 300,000,000,000 precept marks on his entire arm. The precept marks on his shoulders, chest, abdomen, and head gradually became bright and released terrifying divine power.

Zhang Ruochen sighed lightly. He used Yanshen's leg to stabilize his body. In his right arm, a tiger's roar shook the sky. He struck out with the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike.

The palm power was powerful and fierce.

BOOM!

They fought with strength.

The two retreated at the same time.

Que Shenzi was shocked. He couldn't help but raise his hand to look.

Zhang Ruochen's palm power was originally extreme with absolute Yang Qi, like a burning star. However, Que Shenzi felt a vortex force that swallowed all his power when they clashed. Some of his power was even counter-acted.

“Again.”

Que Shenzi's eyes revealed seriousness. He let out a long cry, and the precept marks on his body appeared densely. The power waves he released turned the green stone street into dust.

It must be known that since ancient times, countless gods had passed through the green stone street in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

A single footprint of a god was more powerful than a hundred Divine Marks.

Because of this, the green stone on the street wouldn't be destroyed for ten thousand years.

Que Shenzi's palms struck out together. Before the palm print strike, the precept marks surged out first, bursting out with the power of sky-shattering and cloud-dispersing.

The cultivators watching the battle were shocked and retreated. They were afraid that the defensive inscriptions here wouldn't be able to withstand such a powerful force.

It was strange that Zhang Ruochen didn't use the Power of Dimension to escape or dodge. He also struck out one palm after another.

Each palm print was like a tiger's roar and a dragon's roar. It was powerful and domineering.

But when their palms collided, all the power disappeared without much spillover. It was as if... They were faking it.

All the cultivators watching the battle frowned.

Xuan Qingying said, “Que Shenzi doesn't seem as strong as we thought.”

“No, Que Shenzi is still very strong. His body's 3.6 billion precept marks can continuously erupt with infinite divine power. I have to be careful. It should be said that Zhang Ruochen is not as weak as everyone thought,” Xuan Zehai said.

Yan Huangtu had been watching intently. He sighed. “Zhang Ruochen’s Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill has most likely been integrated and achieved the great success of doing as he pleases! It’s too terrifying. He did it so quickly. I underestimated him.”

Yan Huangtu could see that every time Zhang Ruochen struck out, a faint yin-yang five elements mark would appear on his palm concisely, dissolving Que Shenzi’s palm power into oblivion.

‘The palm technique and the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill could be combined at will. Wasn’t that the grand completion of the realm?’

However, Yan Huangtu didn’t know that after Zhang Ruochen’s enlightenment and his spiritual power surged, he could use the saintwill at will. However, he was still far from the grand completion of the realm.

Now, he had only fused six types of saintwill.

If nothing unexpected happened, Zhang Ruochen knew that he still had to fuse three types of saintwill to truly reach the level of Grade One Saintwill. At that time, he wouldn’t be able to call it the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill anymore!

That will be the merging of Yin, Yang, the five elements, time, and space.

Zhang Ruochen only understood this after the Dragon Lord pointed it out.

If Zhang Ruochen only fused the Yin, Yang, and the five elements, he would most likely end up like Bai Qing’er had predicted and die on the path of fusing the Grade One Saintwill. Even if he succeeded by luck, he could only reach the level of the Six Paths of Reincarnation, cultivated by Yan Wushen, which was considered a pseudo Grade One Saintwill.

However, Saint Monk Xumi paved the way for Zhang Ruochen 800 years ago and passed on the mantle of time and space to him.

Only with time and space as carriers could he withstand the five elements, Yin and Yang.

The combination of the nine paths truly encompassed everything. Yin, yang, the five elements, time, and space could change, evolve, and contain everything indefinitely. They became one with the entire universe.

Putting that aside, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power had reached the 68th level. His control over the Demigod's physical power had reached an unprecedented level. With the saintwill in his palm technique, it would be easily resolved no matter how powerful Que Shenzi's attack was. Zhang Ruochen's power had reached the 68th level.

The more they fought, the more they felt that Zhang Ruochen was terrifying. He was simply unfathomable.

Those cultivators who wanted to see Zhang Ruochen make a fool of himself were already dumbfounded.

Chapter 2539: Kindness Had Been Disregarded

The battle between the two world-famous Supreme Saints did not cause the sky to collapse and the earth to crumble. However, it shocked many important figures in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

The sacred grounds of the various races were all shocked.

The sacred tower that Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, and the Terra Demons were in was called the Kun Tower. It was a famous ancient scenic spot in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Legend has it that in the Middle Ages, after the Infernal Court declared war on the Celestial Court, there were supreme-level powerful figures who invited the gods to this tower.

Therefore, whenever cultivators came to the Royal City of Hundred Clans, most would go to the Kun Tower to admire the places of interest and reminisce about the supreme-level powerful figures.

In addition, the protective array of the Kun Tower was powerful, and it was very close to the place where Zhang Ruochen and Que Shenzi were fighting. Therefore, more and more Supreme Saints poured in. Each had a huge background and looked like a Supreme Saint meeting.

In the eyes of ordinary cultivators, the Supreme Saint was the king of the Saint Realm.

However, among the Supreme Saints, there was nobility and inferiority.

Yan Huangtu sensed something and looked toward the corridor.

The footsteps became louder.

A moment later, a man and a woman came up the stairs, surrounded by a group of Supreme Saints.

They were the new Scioness of the Fane of Destiny, Pan Ruo, and Que, who had already entered the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Que seemed to be standing in oblivion. Few people could see his face clearly.

Pan Ruo was like a pearl in the sky. She was beautiful but cold as ice. All the Saints who came to visit felt like they couldn't get close.

Yan Huangtu's gaze fell on Que. He laughed loudly. "You're just in time. I don't think that Que Shenzi is a match for Zhang Ruochen. Do you want to fight in the next round?"

Que walked to the window and stood straight like a sword. He looked at the long street with chaotic precepts and surging qi. "Today is the Fane of Death is the show's main character."

Yan Huangtu said, "Aren't you afraid that Zhang Ruochen won't make it through?"

Que didn't say a word. He was like a sword hidden in a sheath.

Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying were top figures at the edge of the Infernal Court. Their cultivation far surpassed Que's. However, with the arrival of Que, the two of them were more or less nervous and felt a little pressure.

Pan Ruo's gaze swept over Yan Zhexian without leaving any trace, especially the position of her belly.

Everyone in the building had their own oddities and was observing each other.

After a moment of silence, Que said, "If it were anywhere else, I would be a little worried that he would fall at the hands of the Fane of Death. However, I should be more worried that he would start a massacre and chop the Supreme Saint like firewood in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. But..."

“Do you think it’s strange?” Yan Huangtu laughed.

“Yes.”

Que and Yan Huangtu had fought with Zhang Ruochen more than once. They knew him very well, so they naturally found some clues.

Que turned to look at Pan Ruo and asked, “What do you think, Scioness?”

“Zhang Ruochen can almost fully mobilize the power of the Demigod-level physique. His palm can flip the sky, his fist can overturn the earth, and he can’t use the Paramount physique. He’s invincible in close combat.” Pan Ruo wasn’t stingy with her exaggerations. Her evaluation was extremely high.

Yan Huangtu’s eyes were as wide as copper bells. He smiled slightly. “Does the Scioness not understand what we mean, or is she pretending not to understand?”

It was no wonder that Yan Huangtu had such doubts. After all, almost all the Supreme Saints present could see that Zhang Ruochen was able to fight against Que Shenzi by relying on the Demigod-level physique and the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill.

With these two things, Zhang Ruochen was indeed invincible in close combat. He had the advantage in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Since everyone could see it, why did he need to ask a Scioness with extraordinary wisdom?

Pan Ruo walked to Yan Zhexian’s side and looked out the window. Her figure was as exquisite as the picture of a fairy on the wall. She said, “Zhang Ruochen’s style today is different from usual.”

“Yes! This is the most confusing part!”

Yan Huangtu continued, “In Kunlun, Zhang Ruochen kills wherever he goes. No matter who the Scion or Scioness was, he would kill anyone who provoked him. He killed all the cultivators of the ten clans of the Infernal Court.

“In the Battlefield of Merits, he also killed many people. Whether it was the Ghost Master’s son or his former brother, they were all dead.

“Back then, in the House of Enchanters of Hoth, Yuan Benji had casually said ‘you’re like a coward’ to anger Zhang Ruochen. He claimed that he was humiliated and that he had to kill him.

“Although Zhang Ruochen may have other motives, it also means that he can’t be bothered. Any cultivator who provokes him must be mentally prepared to bear his boundless anger.

“But now...”

Although the battle on the street was fierce, Zhang Ruochen’s voice could repeatedly be heard urging Que Shenzi to stop.

Was this still Zhang Ruochen?

“Peace is the most important thing. Fighting won’t solve the problem.”

“Your Highness, please stop. We don’t have to fight to the death. Why don’t we go into the building and drink the sacred wine to forget our past grudges?”

...

Hearing Zhang Ruochen’s nagging and Que Shenzi’s inability to defeat him, he suddenly became impatient. He gnashed his teeth and shouted, “Shut up!”

“Are you sure you don’t want to consider it? It’s better to end enmities than to end them. I swear I didn’t kill Shan Qiu in the name of Wargod Bloodximius.” Zhang Ruochen’s words were firm and sonorous.

The cultivators were shocked. They realized that it was possible that Zhang Ruochen didn’t kill Shan Qiu.

But did the Fane of Death really care if Zhang Ruochen killed Shan Qiu?

The answer was obviously no.

The Fane of Death's goal was to use this as an excuse to humiliate Zhang Ruochen. They could even kill Zhang Ruochen and take everything from him. Of course, finding the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was also an important purpose.

The major forces did nothing because they wanted the Fane of Death to stand out and see if the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was with Zhang Ruochen.

Pan Ruo had never been so confused about Zhang Ruochen. Her beautiful eyes were full of doubt.

SWOOSH!

Que Shenzi retreated far away and stared at Zhang Ruochen coldly.

Zhang Ruochen looked happy and gentle. He smiled warmly and said, "That's right. I said it was a misunderstanding. We should shake hands and have a good time."

Then he looked at Yuan Benji on the tower in the distance and said, "Brother Yuan Benji, I won't argue with you about the House of Enchanters!"

Yuan Benji's face was livid. He wanted to curse out loud. He hated it in his heart. "In the House of Enchanters, I was almost burned to death by that Phoenix beside you, okay? If you don't argue with me, I will make you die a horrible death."

Yuan Benji said in a deep voice, "Que Shenzi, Zhang Ruochen can only fight with you by relying on his strong body. Don't fight him in close combat. You can kill him with a flip of your hand with your cultivation."

Que Shenzi wasn't stupid. How could he not see Zhang Ruochen's strength clearly?

But this was the Royal City of Hundred Clans. All cultivators' cultivation was severely suppressed. They could only fight in close combat. It wasn't like in the starry sky, where they could instantly pull hundreds of miles apart and release trillions of precepts to crush Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Brother Yuan, why are you so cruel? Have I offended you in some way? Hurry up and explain in detail. Maybe we won’t have any conflicts!”

Yuan Benji sneered and said, “Ruochen, no matter how much you admit defeat, you won’t escape today.”

In everyone’s eyes, Zhang Ruochen’s actions showed weakness due to the situation.

The more so, the greater the smiles on the faces of the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death. They wished they could press Zhang Ruochen’s head to the ground and stomp on it. Only then would they feel happier.

“Let’s fight. Stop talking nonsense. It won’t be useful even if you kneel and beg for mercy today.”

Que Shenzi released all 1.7 billion precepts in his body. They filled the space within dozens of feet. They destroyed all the Path Locks, Supreme Saint inscriptions, and Divine Marks in the area, and a deadly Precept Domain was formed.

3.6 billion Divine Marks were like 3.6 billion divine rivers flowing in the Sea of precepts.

1.7 billion precepts were like 1.7 trillion boulders. 3,600 million Divine Marks were like 3,600 million mountains. Both of them were pressing on Zhang Ruochen.

Why did Yuan Benji think that Que Shenzi could suppress Zhang Ruochen with a flip of his hand as long as he pulled away?

It was precise because of the difference in the precepts.

Many cultivators felt that Zhang Ruochen was doomed. After all, a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint could cultivate more than 10 billion precepts.

The 100-fold difference couldn’t be made up.

However, Zhang Ruochen wasn’t as simple as they thought. A strange spatial structure appeared around his body. The 1700 billion precepts couldn’t directly press down on him.

Compared to when he fought with Lord Ironclad, Zhang Ruochen had more methods to deal with a superior at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm.

Zhang Ruochen looked dejected and sighed dejectedly. “Fine. Since I can’t persuade you to change your resentment, I can only find another way to solve this problem. Come on, Brother Que, I’ll fight with you.”

Hearing the word “Brother Que,” the corner of Que Shenzi’s mouth twitched.

He couldn’t take it anymore. Que Shenzi shouted, “Abyssal Palm.”

He formed a palm print with both hands and mobilized his divine power and precepts. Instantly, the phantom of the abyssal river appeared around him, producing deafening waves.

This kind of saint technique was one of the Fane of Death’s 72 Paramount Techniques.

Que Shenzi had already cultivated Abyssal Palm to the ninth level, reaching the level of Banshi Isshou saint technique.

The power of the palm print was overwhelming.

3.6 billion precept marks turned into 36 divine rivers, complementing the palm print.

SWOOSH!

The space trembled, and Zhang Ruochen disappeared.

“Great Dimensional Shift! How is this possible? He can still use the dimensional move in the Royal City of Hundred Clans under the suppression of my Precept Domain?”

Que Shenzi was shocked. He hadn’t expected Zhang Ruochen to be so strange. However, this palm had no return. He couldn’t withdraw his power and attack elsewhere.

Zhang Ruochen reappeared beside Que Shenzi.

If he attacked now, even if Que Shenzi could save his life, he wouldn’t be able to escape the fate of being heavily injured.

But what shocked everyone was that Zhang Ruochen didn't attack.

That's right.

He didn't attack.

Instead, Zhang Ruochen asked again, "Is there really no room for discussion?"

Rumble

Que Shenzi's palm power hit the position where Zhang Ruochen's previous battle strength had been. It destroyed an ancient building protected by the Supreme Saint inscription and array formation and turned it into ruins.

SWOOSH!

Que Shenzi turned his head to look at Zhang Ruochen, who was close to him. Like a rabbit whose tail had been stepped on, he immediately fled and distanced himself from Zhang Ruochen again. He was both shocked and angry.

What was shocking was that Zhang Ruochen had just posed a great threat to his life.

He was angry because he felt that Zhang Ruochen was teasing and humiliating him.

"Golden Flare."

Que Shenzi turned into a golden man. Golden Streams of divine flame gushed out of his pores, turning this area into a fire domain.

It was another one of the 72 Paramount saint techniques.

The difference was that Que Shenzi had cultivated the Golden Flare to the tenth level, which had reached the level of the supreme high-level saint technique.

It was not an ability for a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint to cultivate a Banshi Isshou Realm high-level saint technique. However, it was an amazing thing to cultivate a supreme high-level saint technique.

The Golden Flare could be used to attack or defend.

Que Shenzi immediately calmed down, and his fear disappeared.

He was sure that the legend was true. Zhang Ruochen must have grasped the Canon of Dimension. Without the Canon of Dimension, how could he use the dimensional move in that situation?

Zhang Ruochen was too stupid. He hadn't attacked just now.

Now that he was on guard, how could he give him another chance?

Very good!

As long as he killed Zhang Ruochen, the Canon of Dimension and the Canon of Destiny belonged to him!

"Zhang Ruochen, you will be the first dead spirit under the tenth level of the Golden Flare. Let me send you on your way."

Que Shenzi was very confident in this saint technique. After Summoning 3.6 billion precept marks to defend himself, he immediately mobilized the Golden Flare and condensed a firebird.

It was indeed very powerful. The temperature of the Golden Flare cultivated by Que Shenzi was close to 100,000 levels. Even Zhang Ruochen's Demigod-level physique could not withstand it.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't scared at all. He shook his head and extremely disappointedly said, "Why are you so stubborn?"

"I'll kill you!"

Que Shenzi gritted his teeth and shouted. The strange flaming bird spread its wings and rushed toward Zhang Ruochen with a burning aura.

"Curse of Light and Dark."

The Myriad Curse Bead flew to Zhang Ruochen's head. It floated there and didn't move. A supreme inscription appeared.

All the flaming birds crashed into a ball of purple light, turning into balls of fire.

It was the dark light.

The ball of dark light enveloped Que Shenzi.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed it with five fingers and said, "Retract!"

The ball of dark light quickly shrank to only two meters in diameter, trapping Que Shenzi.

Que Shenzi roared in the dark light, bursting with shocking divine power. He stretched out his arms, trying to break them.

"Retract!" Zhang Ruochen said.

The dark light pressed down on Que Shenzi's body until it kept shrinking.

There was a commotion all around. All the cultivators were shocked and in disbelief.

How could Zhang Ruochen be so assertive?

A single ray of dark light could suppress the top battle strength of a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint.

Some Supreme Saints saw through it and knew that Zhang Ruochen was using spiritual power to activate the Myriad Curse Bead. Seeing this, they were even more shocked.

How powerful was Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power?

The Curse of Dark and Light finally broke through Que Shenzi's defense. It turned into a purple curse mark and suppressed his body. Que Shenzi felt as if he was bound by thousands of shackles. It was difficult for him to move a finger, let alone continue fighting.

Que Shenzi saw Zhang Ruochen walking over. He opened his mouth with difficulty and said, "This... is the power of... A Supreme Artifact?"

"Yes, you don't know? Don't you even have a Supreme Artifact?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Que Shenzi's eyes were filled with sorrow. He cursed in his heart. If I had a Supreme Artifact, how could I be suppressed by your Curse of Dark and Light?

Zhang Ruochen had already walked up to him.

Que Shenzi's heart tightened. He quickly said, "Enemies... are easy to form... not easy to resolve. How about... how about we first remove the curse... We enter the tower and smile... drink..."

Before he could finish, Zhang Ruochen said thoughtfully, "No! You have resentment toward me. If you want to kill me, I can't let you go like this. Unless I can first remove the resentment in your heart and resolve the root of the conflict."

Que Shenzi shook his head slightly, indicating that he had no grudge.

Zhang Ruochen patted his shoulder and shook his head. He said, "I can see that you don't have a grudge. You're just afraid that I'll kill you," he said. "Don't worry. How can I, Zhang Ruochen, be a bloodthirsty person? In my opinion, you should stay by my side and let me educate you for a while. When your resentment has calmed down, your hostility has dissipated, and you've completely believed me, I'll let you go."

Que Shenzi felt the greatest humiliation in his life. Zhang Ruochen clearly wanted to take him in as a slave, but he said it so grandly. It was highly hypocritical.

"Actually, there's a faster way. I just need to cut off some of your memories and emotions. Your resentment will naturally disappear, just like the four of them!"

Zhang Ruochen pointed at the four expressionless White Reapers.

Que Shenzi's face changed. If his emotions and desires were cut off, wouldn't he be able to enter the divinity?

Zhang Ruochen was actually so ruthless that he wanted to destroy his Path.

Que Shenzi's body couldn't help but tremble. He looked at Yuan Benji and the other Supreme Saints in the distance with a pleading look.

Zhang Ruochen changed the topic. He said sincerely, "But that's just a temporary solution. I, Zhang Ruochen, don't care about it. It's better to change a person's mind and let him cultivate Buddhism, Path, or Confucianism. Are you willing to be a cultivator, a Taoist, or a scholar who reads thousands of books?"

Que Shenzi opened his mouth and said tremblingly, "Zhang Ruochen is evil. Save... Save Me!"

It was unknown whether Zhang Ruochen had offended the clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans too much these days. Even though Zhang Ruochen was on the weaker side, he still attracted criticism even though he had defeated the aggressive Que Shenzi.

No one thought that Zhang Ruochen wanted to resolve the conflict with the Fane of Death.

No one thought that what Zhang Ruochen said to Que Shenzi was from the bottom of his heart.

Instead, they thought that Zhang Ruochen was deliberately humiliating Que Shenzi. Every word contained ridicule, threats, ridicule, and sarcasm. He made the dignified deity, who was at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm, lose all dignity.

“Zhang Ruochen is too hateful. He won. He’s mighty, but he doesn’t have the grace of a Yuanhui-level genius to tease Que Shenzi like this.”

“Yeah, I can’t stand that sentence. You don’t even have a Supreme Artifact? Listen to how arrogant you are. Do you think you are great and powerful, owning a few Supreme Artifacts?”

Many cultivators nodded in agreement.

“A first-class Supreme Saint of the Deathkin has become Zhang Ruochen’s prisoner. He might really be forced to learn Buddhism and Paths. That’s terrible!”

“What’s the difference between this and forcing a human to feed on human blood like the Immortal Vampires?”

“I’m afraid Que Shenzi would rather die than be humiliated like this.”

One of the Supreme Saints shouted, “Why does the Supreme Saint Ruochen have to humiliate Que Shenzi like this? It’s better to give him a quick death.”

“That’s right! The winner is the king, and the loser is the bandit. The Supreme Saint can be killed but not humiliated.”

“If Supreme Saint Ruochen doesn’t dare to kill Que Shenzi, please let him go immediately. If you want to kill him, be straightforward. If you continue to put on airs, it will only make us cultivators feel disgusted.”

...

More and more cultivators supported Que Shenzi.

However, everyone knew Zhang Ruochen couldn’t let Que Shenzi go. Therefore, most of them encouraged Zhang Ruochen to kill Que Shenzi directly to prevent him from being humiliated again.

Que Shenzi was so scared that his back felt cold, and his scalp went numb. He cursed all the observing cultivators’ families in his heart.

How could he not be afraid?

The person in front of him was Zhang Ruochen.

There was no cultivator in the world that Zhang Ruochen didn’t dare to kill.

So what if he was humiliated? As long as he could escape, there would always be a time for him to regain his face.

If Zhang Ruochen suddenly became angry out of humiliation and killed him, he wouldn’t have a chance to come back. How unjust was his death?

SWOOSH! SWOOSH!

The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death flew down from the tower and occupied the entire street.

They were all emitting evil death light. They approached Zhang Ruochen from the front and back of the long street.

The cultivators watching the battle made way.

“Let go of Que Shenzi. Otherwise, this street will be your burial ground.” Yuan Benji, full of imposing manners and pointed at Zhang Ruochen.

The hostage was in Zhang Ruochen’s hands. Although the Fane of Death had many powerful figures, they didn’t dare to act rashly.

Zhang Ruochen frowned deeply, “Que Shenzi and I had an agreement,” he said. “Let’s settle this once and for all. Now, the victor has been decided. No matter how big the grudge between the Fane of Death and me is, it’s time to settle it! Everyone, please leave. I don’t want to fight again today.”

“Let go of Que Shenzi first,” Supreme Saing Yuan Fei said. “Then we can talk about other things.”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. “The grudge between Que Shenzi and me hasn’t been resolved yet. I can’t let him go yet.”

Que Shenzi quickly said, “There’s... There’s no grudge anymore. I... I admit defeat. The victor has been decided. Let’s fight to resolve it.”

Suppressed by the Curse of Dark and Light, his mouth couldn’t open. He couldn’t speak clearly.

Zhang Ruochen patted his shoulder. His eyes were sincere. “No,” he said. “You’re not convinced. You still hate me. You want to kill me. Hatred is the root of all evil. Que Shenzi, you are still too stubborn.”

Que Shenzi couldn’t pretend anymore. He gritted his teeth. His face was twisted and cold.

Another humiliation!

Yuan Benji's eyes widened with rage. "So what if you have a hostage, Zhang Ruochen? Do you think we won't attack?"

Que Shenzi's expression changed. He shook his head at the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death.

Yuan Benji stared at Que Shenzi. "Don't worry, Que Shenzi. I don't believe Zhang Ruochen would dare to kill you. Today, the powerhouses of the Fane of Death won't stop until we kill him."

Que Shenzi's expression became even worse. He hated Yuan Benji.

Yuan Benji had already stated that he wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen. Under such circumstances, how could Zhang Ruochen not dare to kill him? Yuan Benji had clearly given up on him.

Que Shenzi decided that if he was lucky enough to survive today, he would find a way to kill Yuan Benji after returning to the Fane of Death.

SLAP!

Zhang Ruochen patted Que Shenzi's shoulder again and said, "How can I kill you, Que Shenzi? There should be someone with a big heart in the world. How can the world tolerate an enemy that can't even tolerate one?"

Many cultivators, including Yan Zhexian and Lian Xi, scoffed.

...

The Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death agreed to let Que Shenzi fight alone for two reasons. First, he was so powerful that he was certain of victory.

Secondly, behind Zhang Ruochen stood the powerful figures who had shocked the world, such as the Wargod Bloodximius, Fukurokuju, and Luo Yan. If the Fane of Death attacked and killed Zhang Ruochen together, the Wargod Bloodximius would definitely be angry.

However, if Que Shenzi attacked alone, what if he killed Zhang Ruochen?

If the Wargod Bloodximus took revenge on the Fane of Death, he would only be laughed at by the gods of the Fane of Death.

Third, Que Shenzi had an extraordinary position in the Fane of Death. Everyone was giving in humbly. They wanted him to defeat Zhang Ruochen and become famous by stepping on the geniuses of the Yuanhui level.

But who knew that Que Shenzi was such a good-for-nothing, which made the Fane of Death lose a lot of faces.

To save face, the Fane of Death had to take down Zhang Ruochen even if they had to fight one more time.

Yuan Benji ignored Que Shenzi's murderous gaze and ordered, "Attack."

The four White Reapers surrounding Zhang Ruochen attacked first.

The precepts and evil death qi surged out from their bodies at the same time. Then the overwhelming sword qi slashed toward Zhang Ruochen.

Que Shenzi's face was ashen. He knew that he wouldn't be able to escape today. He closed his eyes.

Whoosh

Ignoring the sword qi, Zhang Ruochen pressed his palm on Que Shenzi's chest. Spatial ripples burst out from his palm. Que Shenzi's body disappeared. The next moment, he entered the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's defensive array and fell under Lian Xi's feet.

Que Shenzi was stunned. He looked at Zhang Ruochen in disbelief.

The four White Reapers were all cultivators in the mid and late stages of the Banshi Isshou Realm. They had cultivated at least 30 million precepts.

Crack Crack

Zhang Ruochen had already activated the Armor of the Fire God and released the Zangshan Demonic Mirror.

Even if the sword qi pierced through the Supreme Power's defensive layer formed by Zangshan Demonic Mirror, its power had been greatly reduced. It only created sparks when it landed on the Armor of the Fire God.

Yuan Benji gritted his teeth and said, "Zhang Ruochen has the Supreme Artifact protecting him. He has to be attacked at a very close distance to break through his defense."

The four White Reapers instantly formed a killing array of swords. Four death phantoms appeared behind them.

The power of the four seemed to be one. The strength of their Qi was even stronger than Que Shenzi.

WHOOSH!

A white shadow flew above Zhang Ruochen's head. Raising the sword with both hands, it slashed out a river of swords.

A second white shadow rushed out from behind Zhang Ruochen and slashed horizontally.

The space around the edge of the sword shook.

A third white shadow came from the front. The sword light was brighter than the light from a star. All the cultivators below the Supreme Saint level were bleeding from their eyes.

The fourth white shadow stood still. However, the Class Three Regal Artifact in his hand flew out. It turned into a bone dragon and circled to Zhang Ruochen's right.

The four White Reapers attacked almost at the same time. Each attack seemed to be a joint effort of four people.

"What a terrifying sword formation. The four White Reapers seem to be one but can attack separately."

"The Fane of Death really wants to kill Zhang Ruochen!"

Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, Pan Ruo, Xuan Zehai, and Xuan Qingying all held their breaths and stared at the brilliant battle circle.

Que, who had been calm all this time, looked solemn. He said, "It's a class four sword formation."

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen's figure disappeared.

The four fatal moves performed by the four White Reapers all struck the air.

Among them, the two who attacked from the front and the back were the most dangerous. They almost killed each other. Fortunately, they both had strong cultivation and amazing reaction ability. They returned their swords in time to defend.

The two swords collided, and the two White Reapers were thrown in the opposite direction.

The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death were all dumbfounded. They could not believe that Zhang Ruochen could still use the Great Dimensional Shift to escape under such circumstances.

Being suppressed by the Precept Domain of the four Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints and trapped in the killing array of swords, Zhang Ruochen naturally could not use the Great Dimensional Shift.

So, he hid in the Violet Gourd.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen rushed out of the Violet Gourd and whispered, "Curse of Dark and Light!"

A White Reaper, who was three steps away, was cursed before he could react. Like Que Shenzi, he could not move.

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and sent him into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

"Curse of Dark and Light!"

The second White Reaper was cursed. He froze there as if he had been petrified.

Zhang Ruochen kicked him and sent him into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

"Curse of Dark and Light!"

The third White Reaper was imprisoned. Zhang Ruochen struck him with his palm and sent him into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Because Zhang Ruochen had released the Null Time realm and was fast enough, he shouted three Curse of Dark and Lights almost simultaneously. The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death couldn't stop him in time.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to shout the fourth Curse of Light and Dark, Yuan Benji shouted, "Silence!"

The sound of rushing wind came. A palm-sized jade sword flew toward his heart like a spiritual snake.

The Zangshan Demonic Mirror flew back by itself and turned into a heart protection mirror.

BANG!

The jade sword hit the mirror's surface, ringing loudly. Zhang Ruochen was thrown out directly.

Yuan Benji's attack had succeeded. He was delighted and pushed out his right hand. He mobilized even more power and added it to the jade sword, a Class Six Regal Artifact.

The Zangshan Demonic Mirror flashed and swallowed the jade sword.

Zhang Ruochen landed on the ground and steadied himself. He turned his head and found that he had returned to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's defensive array and was stepping on the stairs.

Yuan Benji was stunned. He realized that the connection with the jade sword had disappeared!

It wasn't an ordinary item. It was a Class Six Regal Artifact with the potential to advance to a Supreme Artifact. It was worth tens of thousands of Godstones.

Yuan Benji recovered quickly and surrounded the Sevenstar Imperial Palace with the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death.

This time, they didn't dare to act rashly. After all, Zhang Ruochen had already captured four Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints. If they forced Zhang Ruochen and killed them all, the consequences would be serious!

All the cultivators watching the battle were stunned. They had never expected that the previously cowardly and weak Zhang Ruochen would be able to make the Fane of Death suffer so much.

Was It all an act?

Deliberately showing weakness to the enemy?

Despicable!

Many cultivators cursed Zhang Ruochen in low voices, thinking he was sinister and shameless.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the steps of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He was sick of it. What's wrong with them? Why do they have such a prejudice against me?

I'm the weak one. I'm being targeted by a large group of elites from the Fane of Death .

I'm treating people with the most extraordinary kindness. I'm willing to make peace with the Fane of Death. Why can't you see that?

Ah, forget it. Why care about other people's misunderstandings? As long as I have a clear conscience, it's okay.

The emperor of the Terra Demons, Xuan Disha, came nearby accompanied by a group of elders. Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying immediately went to pay their respects.

Xuan Disha's face was old, and his hair was white. He wore a purple jade brocade robe and a holy crown, but he was still full of energy. He looked at Zhang Ruochen, standing on the steps of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He said, "A young hero. I'm afraid Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power has reached the 68th level."

Xuan Qingying couldn't believe it. She said in surprise, "How is this possible? Very few Supreme Saints can cultivate their spiritual power to the 68th level."

Xuan Disha narrowed his eyes and smiled. “If he didn’t have such spiritual power, how could Zhang Ruochen easily curse four Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints? Besides, he must have relied on his powerful spiritual power to be able to use the Supreme Artifact and the mysterious saintwill at his will. At the same time, he should be able to use the power of the Demigod-level physique more rationally.”

The emperor of the Terra Demons had lived for almost 30,000 years. His spiritual power was mighty.

Naturally, everyone believed his judgment.

Looking at Zhang Ruochen again, Xuan Qingying’s eyes became much more complicated. However, they quickly became disdainful and disdainful. If he was so powerful, why did he pretend to be timid?

He didn’t have the demeanor of a superior at all.

Xuan Zehai asked, “My lord, why did you leave the sacred ground and come here?”

“Someone asked me to resolve the conflict here and help Zhang Ruochen get out,” Xuan Disha said.

Xuan Zehai’s heart moved, and he heard something profound.

He heard the word “asked” and not “invite”.

Didn’t that mean that the cultivator who helped Zhang Ruochen was at least on the same level as the emperor? It was even possible that his cultivation or status was higher than the emperor’s.

Moreover, the Terra Demons would have to pay a heavy price to take Zhang Ruochen away from the Fane of Death.

Xuan Disha smiled and said, “Since the cultivators of all clans can’t get Zhang Ruochen to help, I will help him personally. I hope he will give me some face!”

Xuan Disha wasn't in a hurry to show up. He planned to take a look.

Since he was known as a Yuanhui-level genius and was valued by many important figures, his behavior and methods shouldn't be as simple as they seemed. He could take a look.

At least for now, the old emperor, who had lived for nearly 30,000 years, hadn't seen through Zhang Ruochen.

...

Among the ten clans in Infernal Court, the Immortal Vampires had ten great clans, the Rakshasas had seven kingdoms, and the Asuras had 24 fanes.

Although countless forces within the Deathkins had established kingdoms, ancient clans, sacred cities, fanes... none of them could reach the level of the ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires.

Because of this, the Deathkins were instead unified. The Fane of Death had absolute authority and dominance.

As for the Immortal Vampires, their clans could fight against the Fane of Death. They didn't have to obey everything and listen to orders everywhere.

The Fane of Death was filled with powerhouses. Just the Supreme Saints they sent to the Royal City of Hundred Clans alone was enough to shake the heavens and earth.

Tian Shuzi was one of them.

Tian Shuzi was originally a guest in the Sengens' sacred ground. When he heard the news of Que Shenzi's defeat, his killing intent soared to the heavens as he threw his cup down.

Princess Xue Lai of the Sengens personally drove the carriage for him. The nine silver foxes pulled him. The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death retreated to the sides. They let the saint carriage rush to the front of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Tian Shuzi was handsome and had an extraordinary bearing.

Princess Xue Lai, known as one of the ten beauties at the edge of the Infernal Court, was gentle and beautiful. She had an extraordinary temperament. A few days ago, she had invited Zhang Ruochen to the Sengens' sacred ground on behalf of the Sengens. However, he ignored her. She was somewhat annoyed.

Today, she personally brought Tian Shuzi here. Naturally, she wanted revenge.

Tian Shuzi stood on the carriage and said, "Your highness was humiliated in front of Zhang Ruochen's Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Today, I'll teach him a lesson. Let him know not to be too arrogant."

Princess Xue Lai's face was flawless white. No emotions could be seen. She said lightly, "You can't blame the Supreme Saint Ruochen. The Sengens were too presumptuous. Since they invited such a distinguished guest, it's only right for the emperor to come personally."

Tian Shuzi smiled coldly and got off the carriage.

In a low voice, Yuan Benji walked over immediately and told him what had happened.

Tian Shuzi nodded and said, "There's no need to worry. Since I'm here, I can't let Zhang Ruochen continue to show off."

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power was extreme. Naturally, he heard their conversation and understood. No wonder many cultivators in the Royal City of Hundred Clans didn't like him. It turned out that he had offended all the cultivators who had come to visit him during his enlightenment!

He really shouldn't have!

If he had time, he must go to all the clans and give them a gift of apology.

Tian Shuzi was obviously an incredible person. Even though the four Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints had been captured, he was still calm. He shouted confidently, “Zhang Ruochen, do you dare to fight again? A real fight to resolve our enmity.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Can you represent the Fane of Death?”

“Of course! If you beat me, all the enmity between you and the Fane of Death will be written off,” Tian Shuzi said.

Zhang Ruochen sighed softly. “To be honest, Que Shenzi said the same thing. But the Fane of Death likes to go back on their words. How can I trust you?”

The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death weren’t embarrassed by this. Instead, their eyes became even colder.

If Zhang Ruochen didn’t have a hostage, they would have attacked together and destroyed the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Why would they waste so much time talking to him?

Tian Shuzi said, “I, Tian Shuzi, am a disciple of King Vipralopa. For the sake of my master’s reputation, I won’t go back on my words.”

Lian Xi transmitted her voice to Zhang Ruochen. “Don’t believe him. He’s trying to lure you out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace’s defense array.”

Most cultivators present could see Tian Shuzi’s intentions. They all guessed that Zhang Ruochen wouldn’t fall for it.

He had four hostages in the Banshi Isshou Realm. He was already invincible. Why take the risk to fight Tian Shuzi?

Besides, Tian Shuzi was an influential figure. He was one of the cultivators with the greatest potential in the Fane of Death. He had entered the fifth floor of the Death God Pavilion. Zhang Ruochen would have no chance of winning if he fought with him.

“Hatred is the root of all evil. If I have a chance to resolve it, I will do my best to resolve it.”

Zhang Ruochen said something that shocked everyone. Then, he looked at Tian Shuzi and said, "Okay, I'll trust you this time."

Lian Xi felt that Zhang Ruochen had become different after coming out of the Qiankun Realm. How could he be so stupid? Also, how could he say something like "Hatred is the root of all evil"?

Lian Xi glanced at the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death and said loudly, "If anything happens to Zhang Ruochen, I'll kill the four of them immediately."

She had no choice. Zhang Ruochen was courting death, but she had to stay rational.

If Zhang Ruochen got himself killed, then what about her?

Zhang Ruochen, who had just walked out of the defense array, immediately stopped. He shook his head at Lian Xi and said, "Killing will only deepen the hatred. Don't do it! Don't worry. I'm confident in this battle."

Pan Ruo, who was standing on the balcony, frowned deeply.

She could see that Zhang Ruochen was sincere and wanted to resolve the hatred and conflict with the Fane of Death.

That was the strangest thing!

"What happened to him?" Pan Ruo was deeply worried. She was afraid that something had happened to Zhang Ruochen's cultivation and that he would fall into the inner demon without realizing it.

She was also afraid that Zhang Ruochen had been possessed by a god, which was why his temperament had significantly changed.

The more Pan Ruo thought about it, the more uneasy she became.

However, no matter how uneasy and worried she was, she could not show up at this moment. Pan Ruo could only wait until this was over before she could test him and understand the situation.

‘Calm down, don’t panic.’ Pan Ruo thought.

Que sensed Pan Ruo’s emotional fluctuation. He looked sideways and then moved away without deliberately asking.

The battle between Zhang Ruochen and Tian Shuzi broke out in an instant.

The Myriad Curse Bead shone brightly. Under the control of Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power, it casts the Curse of Dark and Light.

“Break it.”

Tian Shuzi stood still. Five trillion precepts surged out of his body. They turned into a Precept Domain filled with a corrosive, broken, and destructive aura. Green tombstones rose up in the Precept Domain. The tombstones were engraved with Divine Marks. It was as if a living god was suppressed under the tombstones. Their momentum was robust.

Boom

The Curse of Dark and Light, which had always been peerless, was broken by the Precept Domain.

The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death all cheered.

A ripple of light appeared in Princess Xue Lai’s beautiful eyes. Since Zhang Ruochen’s most powerful trump card had been broken, there should be no suspense in this battle.

Tian Shuzi waved his right hand lightly.

Countless precepts transformed into the extremely scorching Golden Flare. Three layers of fire waves formed in a row and swept toward Zhang Ruochen.

The Golden Flare that he had cultivated had also reached the tenth level. It was a Paramount-level saint technique.

However, the temperature was over 100,000 levels. It was used more subtly than Que Shenzi. It filled up all the space and didn’t give Zhang Ruochen any chance to escape.

“Suck it all in!”

Zhang Ruochen removed the Violet Gourd and kept the surging Golden Flare into the calabash.

Tian Shuzi's eyes turned cold. He allowed Zhang Ruochen to take the divine flame away. His body flew toward Zhang Ruochen like a leaf in the wind. He controlled the fire with one hand and put the other behind his back. He formed a Death Sigil.

The power and light of the divine flame were enough to cover his aura and body.

When he was only 30 feet away from Zhang Ruochen, he waved his hand and made a print.

His movements were graceful and smooth like flowing water.

As soon as the sigil was formed, it was like Death reaching out his giant rotten hand. The sigil's killing intent was sharper than that of a Regal Artifact.

"It's over!" Tianshuzi thought to himself.

However, contrary to Tianshuzi's expectations, the sigil, which could shatter the stars, fell into a distorted space after it was unleashed. His arm felt like it was about to be broken, and he felt intense pain.

Tian Shuzi's face changed. He couldn't figure out how Zhang Ruochen could still distort space under the suppression of his five trillion precepts.

Logically speaking, he should be the ruler of this space.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen wore the Armor of the Fire God in the surging divine flames. He struck out a palm print with 30 times the attack power, colliding with Tian Shuzi's Death Sigil.

Obviously, Zhang Ruochen had seen through Tian Shuzi's strategy. While collecting the Golden Flare, he put his other hand behind his back and formed the Dragon-Tiger Prajna Strike.

Around the palm print, a dazzling Light of Truth appeared. A universe appeared in the light, with countless stars floating in it.

It flashed and then disappeared.

Tian Shuzi flew back and landed on the ground, leaving big footprints. Finally, he crashed into Princess Xue Lai's carriage and stopped.

The saint carriage almost fell over. Princess Xue Lai, who was sitting on it, almost fell down. She looked terrible.

Blood was dripping from Tian Shuzi's left hand. He looked at Zhang Ruochen with a complicated and vigilant expression.

All the cultivators present were shocked.

Was the Demigod-level physique so powerful that even Tian Shuzi, who had cultivated five trillion precepts, couldn't block it?

Tian Shuzi's body wasn't weak either!

They didn't know that Zhang Ruochen's palm wasn't just the power of the Demigod-level physique. It also had 30 times the attack power of a high-level saint technique at the Thousand Koan level like the Dragon-Tiger Prajna Strike.

Why was it 30 times the attack power?

God knew how Zhang Ruochen could reach such a terrifying level after cultivating the Realm-frame of Truth—Boundless universe. This was beyond Zhang Ruochen's understanding.

However, the 30 times didn't increase his physical power. It was the power of the Dragon-Tiger Prajna Strike.

The saint technique was activated by saint Qi and the precepts.

Therefore, even if the saint technique had 30-fold attack power, its power was still not as powerful as the full-strength palm of a Demigod-level physique. It was all thanks to the combination of the saint technique and the physical body that Zhang Ruochen was able to defeat Tian Shuzi.

Moreover, it was only after Tian Shuzi was affected by the Power of Dimension that Zhang Ruochen was able to succeed.

Through this clash, Zhang Ruochen realized that there was still a gap between him and those Supreme Saints at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm realm who had accumulated much experience.

Few cultivators watching the battle could see the mystery. They only saw that Tian Shuzi was bleeding from Zhang Ruochen's attack. They were all frightened.

"Zhang Ruochen is only at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Does he have the battle strength of the Paramount Realm?"

"It's all because of his Demigod-level physique. Tian Shuzi could easily win from a thousand miles away without a chance to display his physical strength. However, I admit that Zhang Ruochen is invincible in close combat. His physical strength is terrifying."

...

Tian Shuzi stopped looking down on him. The blood stains on his arm disappeared. "Zhang Ruochen, is this your strongest attack?"

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to lie to him. He nodded and said, "Yes, this is my strongest attack. I've almost used up all the saint Qi in my body."

Tian Shuzi wanted to regain his face. He chuckled. "That attack was just a casual attack. It wasn't even 60% of my power. Since your skills are limited, I'll end this quickly. I'll defeat you in three moves."

"Saber of Vipralopa."

Tian Shuzi took out the saint blade that King Vipralopa had used before. He strode forward. With each step, the Precepts of Saber that condensed toward the saber increased. His aura kept rising.

His blade intent locked onto Zhang Ruochen. He didn't give Zhang Ruochen the chance to use the Power of Dimension.

Let alone the cultivators watching the battle nearby, even the cultivators in the distant city felt the terrifying saber intent.

Their saint souls were affected. It was as if they were about to be torn apart. It was extremely uncomfortable.

Xuan Qingying said, “This is bad. Tian Shuzi used the Saber of Vipralopa. Why hasn’t the emperor stopped him?”

Xuan Disha’s gaze fell on Zhang Ruochen. “Zhang Ruochen’s expression is calm. There’s no need to fear. Hmm, let’s wait and see.”

Tian Shuzi raised his saber above his head, and the sky darkened.

Strong winds rose up, and killing intent soared to the sky.

Whoosh

This shocking strike destroyed many Path Locks, Supreme Saint inscriptions, and Divine Marks around the street. Countless cultivators were suffocated.

Rumble

The sound of metal and stone colliding could be heard.

A figure flew back and crashed into Princess Xue Lai’s saint carriage.

The carriage was shattered. Princess Xue Lai flew out with a whoosh and escaped to the side.

Tian Shuzi picked himself up from the ground with a battle saber. There was a streak of blood at the side of his mouth. He could no longer maintain his calm expression. He glared at Zhang Ruochen with fierce eyes. He roared, “Didn’t you say that the previous attack was your strongest power and that the saint Qi in your body had been used up?”

Zhang Ruochen wore the Armor of the Fire God and had a divine flame burning on his body. He looked like a young divine general. He said sincerely, “That’s right!”

“You...”

How could he say such shameless words? Tian Shuzi hated Zhang Ruochen to death.

The people around him cursed endlessly. They felt that Zhang Ruochen was too cheap.

Yan Zhexian, standing on the Kun Tower, didn't know what to say to describe his current mood. Logically speaking, the Fane of Death should be looked down upon for bullying the weak with numbers.

Logically speaking, Zhang Ruochen, who was in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, should be looked down upon by Tian Shuzi because of his powerful cultivation.

However, she had some sympathy for the Fane of Death. Zhang Ruochen's actions couldn't be said to be sinister or despicable. They were just angry and funny.

More accurately, they were childish.

It felt like he was teasing Tian Shuzi on purpose.

But Zhang Ruochen knew he wasn't fooling anyone, so he said solemnly, "Don't get me wrong, brother Tian Shuzi. My previous attack was, in fact, my most powerful. Although it hurt you, it borrowed external power. I won unfairly."

His tone was humble. He didn't want others to think he was too arrogant.

Zhang Ruochen had indeed mobilized the world power of the Qiankun Realm.

"Stop talking. Today, I'm humiliated by you. It's a shame in my life. I won't rest until you die." Tianshu wiped the blood from his mouth. His eyes were icy.

If what had happened today was spread, he would definitely be laughed at by the entire Infernal Court.

Even if he had to burn his blood and lifespan, he had to suppress Zhang Ruochen's arrogance and wash away his shame.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, “The victor has been decided. Why do we still have to fight?”

Tian Shuzi was speechless.

Zhang Ruochen said, “We agreed on this. Why do we have to fight to the death now? Is it true that all of you from the Fane of Death are people who go back on their words?”

Seeing the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death staring at him with fierce eyes, Zhang Ruochen comforted them. He said, “Everyone, I don’t mean to attack the Fane of Death with words. I just think it’s not good for you to do this, and it will hurt the face of the Fane of Death. Where can you put the faces of the gods of the Fane of Death?”

As soon as he said this, the spectators who initially didn’t like Zhang Ruochen looked at the powerful figures of the Fane of Death with strange eyes.

The cultivators of the Fane of Death had made many jokes today.

Although the cultivators of the various clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans didn’t say it, they despised it in their hearts. The three upper clans, the Fane of Death and the Supreme Saint, who walked out were just so-so.

In the end, the Fane of Death still had faces.

Tian Shuzi suppressed his anger and snorted. “I haven’t lost yet. How can you say that the winner has been decided?”

Yuan Benji and the other powerful figures of the Fane of Death had intended to advise Tian Shuzi not to fight Zhang

Ruochen alone and to fight together.

Tian Shuzi saw through their thoughts. He secretly transmitted his voice. “You can’t fight. There are cultivators from the ten great clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. The Scioness of the Fane of Destiny is also nearby. The Fane of Death can not lose face again! I will take down Zhang Ruochen even if I have to die in this battle.”

The cultivators of the Fane of Death sensed Tian Shuzi’s determination. Their expressions froze. They realized how serious the situation was.

At the critical moment, Tian Shuzi might self-detonate his Sainthood Source and die together with Zhang Ruochen.

Tian Shuzi transmitted his voice again, “All of you, stay far away. If I can’t suppress Zhang Ruochen and lose to him, don’t attack again. Zhang Ruochen does have a huge advantage in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. It’s not too late for him to attack after he leaves the city.”

Yan Huangtu, standing on the tower, looked at the Fane of Death Supreme Saint, who was retreating. His expression changed slightly. “Tian Shuzi is really going to fight to the death. Xian ‘er, go to the Terra Demons’ emperor’s side.”

“Fifth uncle, Why are you so nervous? With the Kun Tower’s defense, unless Tian Shuzi self-detonates his Sainthood Source... impossible. It’s just a battle. Does he really have the determination to self-detonate his Sainthood Source?” Yanzhe Xian exclaimed.

Yan Huangtu sneered. “Tian Shuzi is indeed very talented, but he’s too arrogant. He can’t accept defeat or humiliation.”

How could Zhang Ruochen not see through the situation that even Yan Huangtu could see?

Thus, when Tian Shuzi approached with his saber, he removed Fei Zhong’s puppet body.

This puppet body was refined by Fei Zhong using the bones of a Paramount Realm dwarf and adding all kinds of precious materials. It looked and looked precisely like Fei Zhong.

The Saint Soul of the puppet body had long been wiped away by Fei Zhong.

However, when Zhang Ruochen and Gong Nanfeng rushed to the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt, Zhang Ruochen refined it again. It was ready to be used.

“What trick is Zhang Ruochen playing now?”

“It seems to be a puppet.”

“He’s proficient in the Puppeteer saint technique?”

“Maybe it’s the technique, Raise Dead! There are ancient gods in Kunlun. To fight against the Corpusians, they developed Raise Dead. It was once prosperous. Zhang Ruochen was born in Kunlun. It’s not strange that he’s proficient in the technique.”

...

Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu’s memories were erased, so they didn’t show any emotion when they saw Fei Zhong’s puppet body.

On the other hand, the emperor of the Terra Demons was slightly surprised. He nodded and smiled.

After the four Terra Demons Supreme Saints responsible for protecting Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu died on Hoth, the emperor of the Terra Demons personally went to investigate. He found the enemy’s aura at the place where the four Supreme Saints died.

That Aura was exactly the same as the aura of Fei Zhong’s puppet body.

Zhang Ruochen sent out 100,000 Spirits and flew into the puppet body.

The eyes of the puppet’s body suddenly opened and shot out a dazzling sacred light. Billions of precepts surged out of its body. Holding a battle ax, it drew dense lightning and slashed toward Tian Shuzi.

Rumble

The battle was about to start. The battle caused the long street to collapse. The blade light and the shadow of the ax crisscrossed.

Although Tian Shuzi had cultivated five trillion precepts, it was more than the precepts of some Paramount Realm Supreme Saints. However, he was still in the Banshi Isshou Realm. He did not form a Paramount physique.

Fei Zhong's puppet body had once formed an independent thought and a Paramount physique. Although its battle prowess was still a little inferior to a true Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, it could fight equally with Tian Shuzi.

In the blink of an eye, the two figures on the long street had exchanged hundreds of blows.

Tian Shuzi was very depressed. If he fought with Zhang Ruochen's real body, he would do whatever it took, even if it meant burning his lifespan and saint blood.

But now, he was blocked by Zhang Ruochen's puppet body and could not move forward.

Was he going to burn thousands of years of his lifespan to destroy Zhang Ruochen's puppet body?

The Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death, who had been waiting in silence, couldn't do anything when he saw Tian Shuzi's awkward situation.

He was silent for a moment. He transmitted his voice, "We made a mistake from the beginning. We shouldn't have challenged Zhang Ruochen alone. In the end, we underestimated him. It's too late to fix it now. Since Tian Shuzi asked us not to fight, I think we should listen to him for the reputation of the Fane of Death."

Another Supreme Saint nodded in agreement. "If Tian Shuzi wants to fight to the death, a mere puppet won't be able to stop him."

A Supreme Saint was pessimistic. He sighed and said, "Let's find another chance to deal with Zhang Ruochen. In the Royal City of Hundred Clans, we are too restrained. On the other hand, Zhang Ruochen has many trump cards."

“Why don’t we persuade Tian Shuzi to stop... Okay, forget it.”

The Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death finished his discussion quickly and reached a consensus. No matter what Tianshuzi’s outcome was, they couldn’t attack. If they wanted to attack, they could only wait until they left the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

However, if they came with great fanfare and left with their tails between their legs, it would definitely damage the reputation of the Fane of Death.

They all hoped that Tianshuzi would use his divine power to suppress Zhang Ruochen. If Tian Shuzi self-detonated his Sainthood Source and died together with Zhang Ruochen, it would be a good ending.

The Terra Demons Emperor twirled his beard and smiled. “The Fane of Death and Tian Shuzi are in a dilemma. It’s time for me to show up and give them a way out.”

Whoosh

The Terra Demons Emperor appeared above the battle between the puppet and Tian Shuzi. He released his powerful spiritual power. With a wave of his sleeves, a powerful invisible power tore them apart like two leaves. He forced them apart.

The puppet retreated to Zhang Ruochen’s side, and Tian Shuzi retreated 30 meters.

The Terra Demons Emperor landed on the ground and smiled. “This is the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Fights between Supreme Saints are forbidden. You two are the best of the best in the Infernal Court. Can you give me some face and bring peace to the Royal City of Hundred Clans?”

Zhang Ruochen had already sensed the Terra Demons Emperor’s aura. He quickly cupped his hands, “It wasn’t my intent to disturb the order of the Royal City of Hundred Clans either,” he said. “The cultivators of the Fane of Death are too unreasonable. We agreed to settle our debts with one battle, but they can’t afford to lose. We’ve fought one battle after another.”

“Who can’t afford to lose? We haven’t settled anything yet!”
Tian Shuzi said.

Zhang Ruochen argued. “Should we... continue?”

“Fight then. No one’s afraid of you?”

Tian Shuzi’s eyes were cold. He raised his saber and was about to step forward, but he didn’t step forward. After all, he wasn’t stupid. When the clan leader of the Terra Demons appeared, he realized that this was his chance to retreat.

The Terra Demons’ Emperor was an experienced person. How could he not understand Tian Shuzi’s mentality?

He quickly walked over and grabbed Tian Shuzi’s hands. Like a good person, he tried to persuade him. First, he praised Tian Shuzi for having the chance to become a Yuanhui-level figure in the future. Then he praised Tian Shuzi’s broad mind. He even praised the Fane of Death.

In short, he had given Tian Shuzi enough space!

Tian Shuzi stared at Zhang Ruochen. He seemed to have been persuaded. His expression softened slightly. “If the emperor hadn’t pleaded for you, I would have fought you to the death today.”

The Terra Demons’ emperor’s heart trembled. He wanted to shut Tian Shuzi’s mouth. He had already given him space, so why didn’t he stop provoking Zhang Ruochen?

Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen had a big heart. He also wanted to resolve the hatred. He didn’t do anything too extreme. This made the Terra Demons Emperor sigh in relief. At the same time, he looked up to Zhang Ruochen even more.

It seemed that Zhang Ruochen didn’t intentionally kill the cultivators of the Fane of Death. He really had good intentions. He wanted to resolve the conflict between the two sides.

This was an attitude of requiting resentment with kindness!

The successor of Saint Monk Xumi was indeed extraordinary. Even when he came to the Infernal Court, he was still untainted. All the rumors about Zhang Ruochen that he had heard were probably untrue.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was gentle, Tian Shuzi took an inch and a mile. He said, "Release Que Shenzi and the three White Reapers. From now on, the grudge between the Fane of Death and you will be written off."

The powerhouses of the Fane of Death surrounded Zhang Ruochen and released their Saint might pressure him.

The clan leader of the Terra Demons realized that something was wrong. The cultivators of the Fane of Death didn't know how to stop when things were good. They were so aggressive. They really thought that Zhang Ruochen was made of mud.

"Zhang Ruochen, didn't you want to resolve the conflict with the Fane of Death? We're giving you a chance now. You have to cherish it!" Yuan Benji laughed.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to resolve the conflict and hatred, but he wasn't stupid. He knew that even if he let the four Banshi Isshou Realm saints go, he wouldn't be able to resolve their resentment.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and sighed. "Saint Monk Xumi once said that hell isn't in the Infernal Court, but in people's hearts. You all have hell in your hearts. How can you resolve this hatred?"

The two sides started fighting again.

Just as the Terra Demons Emperor was about to persuade them again, a loud Buddhist chant sounded in the crowd.

"Amitabha! Uncle-master, we can help you resolve the hell in their hearts."

"Uncle-master, there's me."

A monk in white and a monk in black squeezed out of the audience.

The white monk was fat, his face was as big as a basin, and his skin was as white as jade.

The black monk was tall and thin. He was as black as the bottom of a pot. Only his eyes and teeth were white.

They were Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger.

Previously, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power had been focused on the top powerhouses who could threaten him. He hadn't noticed them, but he was surprised to see them.

How did they come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans?

Soon, Zhang Ruochen felt relieved.

Because he saw Cang Jie behind Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger. He was the Saint King of the Asuras that Zhang Ruochen met in the House of Enchanters, who sent him to Kunlun to send a letter to Ji Fanxin.

Zhang Ruochen had told him that if Ji Fanxin wasn't in Kunlun, he would go to the Endless Abyss to find Kong Lanyou.

Did Kong Lanyou give this task to Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger again?

No matter what had happened in Kunlun, since Cang Jie, Sikong the Elder, and Sikong the Younger had come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans, it meant that Ji Fanxin had probably arrived as well.

Sikong the Elder had already broken through to the Supreme Saint realm. He could be called a "Bodhisattva" among Buddhist cultivators, but he did not look kindly. His face was full of smiles. He said, "Uncle-master, let them cultivate Buddhism. If they recite and copy the Maha Sutra a hundred times a day, there should be some effect."

Sikong the Younger was like an angry Vajra. He said coldly, "The evildoers in their hearts are extremely deep, and their resentment is intense. Their killing intent has long been deeply rooted. If the Maha Sutra is not enough, they should be allowed to recite and copy the Maitrī Sunyata Sutra.

Furthermore, each should build ten thousand temples and clay sculptures of Ten Thousand Buddhas. After copying the Maitrī Sunyata Sutra 100,000 times, we must teach them the Heart Sutra, the Lotus Sutra, the Shorter Sukhāvativyūha Sutra..."

Sikong the Younger said the names of dozens of scriptures in a row and said, "This is only the first step, to cultivate oneself.

There is still the second step, the third step. The second step is to do good deeds and accumulate merits. The third step..."

Sikong the Younger kept talking while Zhang Ruochen nodded, apparently agreeing with him.

Que Shenzi's face changed several times. If he ended up like that, would he still be considered a Deathkin?

If the Supreme Saint of the Deathkin became a cultivator, he dared to bet that his divine mother would kill him first. He couldn't afford to lose face.

Yuan Benji shouted, "Two Buddhist cultivators dare to swagger in the Infernal Court. Come, suppress them. Nail their golden bodies to the city gate of the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Let them bleed to death."

"Why can't Buddhist cultivators come to the Infernal Court?" Sikong the Elder asked emphatically. "Buddhist cultivators were also present in the Yanluo clan. All Buddhist cultivators belonged to the same group. There was no international border. There was no separation between worlds. There was also no distinction between the Celestial and Infernal Courts. Am I right, Uncle-Master?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "That makes sense! Don't worry, Junior nephews. Since you've come to the Infernal Court, I'll protect you."

"Zhang Ruochen, you can't protect yourself!" Tian Shuzi said.

"Curse of Dark and Light!"

Cursed, Tian Shuzi couldn't move. Zhang Ruochen threw him into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

It was too fast!

In just a moment, Tian Shuzi, who had been full of vigor just a moment ago, fell at the feet of Lian Xi.

Under everyone's stunned gazes, Zhang Ruochen sighed. "Brother Tian Shuzi has too much resentment in his heart. His hatred for me has already seeped deep into his bones. The emperor had personally come to persuade him. We could temporarily put all of this aside and let time dilute the resentment and hatred in his heart.”

“However, my two junior nephews are here. Their method seems to be better. This is the fundamental strategy to turn the conflict into amity.”

As for why the Curse of Dark and Light could instantly curse Tian Shuzi?

Of course, it wasn't Zhang Ruochen's own power. In the Qiankun Realm, the Seven-Armed Elder had used his spiritual power to activate the Myriad Curse Bead.

The cultivators watching the battle didn't know this. They were all shocked again, including the emperor of the Terra Demons.

The spiritual power fluctuation just now was even stronger than his.

As for the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death, they all felt goosebumps when they saw Zhang Ruochen staring at them. They wanted to run away immediately. This Zhang Ruochen couldn't have been transformed by another cultivator, right? He was too evil!

The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death retreated in the end.

What could they do if they didn't retreat? Zhang Ruochen was unfathomable. He could curse Tian Shuzi with a thought. If the Paramount Realm didn't emerge, who could compete with him?

If they continued to challenge him, weren't they afraid of being captured and forced into becoming a monk?

Before they figured out what Zhang Ruochen was relying on, they could only stay put.

"If you want to destroy a person, you must first make him arrogant! Today, I'll let Zhang Ruochen be arrogant. Let's see how long he can be arrogant." Yuan Benji huffed angrily.

A Death god Supreme Saint said, "Based on my judgment, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power should be between the 67th and 68th levels. Logically speaking, Tian Shuzi shouldn't be cursed instantly. Moreover, the Zhang Ruochen we saw today is obviously different from before. Do you think..."

Yuan Benji firmly denied it, "No," he said. "This person must be Zhang Ruochen. As for what he's hiding, we can't find out. Let's not act rashly for the time being. I've already sent a message to my brother. He should have made a decision."

The brother Yuan Benji mentioned was Yuan Qianmo.

Hearing this, the cultivators of the Fane of Death were relieved.

Yuan Qianmo was the peacemaker of Fane of Death. Without him, Zhang Ruochen couldn't solve the problem. He was still in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Even if he could borrow external power, it was just a small trick.

"Let's talk business!" Yuan Benji said seriously. "We've discovered that the Light of Origin appeared three times in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. They all came from the Night Ocean, the sacred ground of the Yakshas."

"800 miles of Night Ocean and 10 trillion graves."

"The Royal City of Hundred Clans is the gathering place of heaven and earth at the border of the Infernal Court. Night Ocean is also the thickest node of the divine veins underground of the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Since the Fane of Origin is about to appear, the Night Ocean should be suspicious."

A Supreme Saint of the Deathkin who was over 10,000 years old was worried. He said, "The Yakshas are not a small clan that can be easily controlled. Below the ten clans, they are considered top-tier clans. It is said that in the ancient past, the Yakshas was one of the ten clans of the Infernal Court."

Another Supreme Saint said, "The Yakshas have a deep foundation. The Night Ocean sacred ground has been under their control for many years. Even gods can not enter easily. The Royal City of Hundred Clans is the territory of the Yaksha. The Fane of Death is still too weak here."

A cold and high voice sounded, "If the Fane of Origin really came into being, how can a mere Yaksha take it all for themselves? None of the ten races are willing to see the Yakshas grow again."

Yuan Benji rested his chin on his finger and said, "It is because the Yakshas were once glorious that I have enough reason to suspect that the Fane of Origin is in their sacred ground."

"How did the Yakshas respond?" A Supreme Saint asked.

Yuan Benji revealed a trace of anger and said, "The emperor of the Yakshas claimed that they have already explained to the heads of the Fane of Destiny and the various major powers that they will give them an explanation after the big event in the Oorts Cloud Asteroid Belt is over.”

The head of the Fane of Death was naturally Yuan Qianmo and not Yuan Benji.

It was evident that the Yakshas’ emperor did not care about Yuan Benji and dismissed him with a casual sentence.

Everyone was silent for a moment.

“If this drags on, more and more powers will make a move upon hearing the news. The Royal City of Hundred Clans will definitely become the eye of a storm. Everyone wants a piece of the pie. Damn that Ji Fanxin. She hasn’t appeared for a long time. She just had to appear at this critical juncture and pin down the leaders of the various powers!” A hot-tempered Supreme Saint of the Deathkin said, he revealed a look of hatred.

A deep look appeared in Yuan Benji’s eyes. He said, “Continue to closely monitor Zhang Ruochen and the Night Ocean. Also, send a message back to the fane. We need a powerful sacred army to obtain the most benefits after the birth of the Fane of Origin.”

...

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen had been invited by the Terra Demons emperor to the sacred ground of the Terra Demons in the Royal City of Hundred Clans with a group of Supreme Saints.

The emperor of the Terra Demons walked side by side with Zhang Ruochen, walking at the front. He introduced, “Among the 137 clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, the Terra Demons is ranked 29th. There are many powerful figures in the clan and many Supreme Saints. The sacred ground in front of you has been valued by the clan’s gods for generations. Not only is there a divine array, but there are also many Divine Marks engraved on it. Once it is fully activated, ordinary gods can not break in. As for the Supreme Saint, we could suppress them in an instant.”

Zhang Ruochen walked on the sacred ground and saw towering saint trees, ink-like black water, guardian beasts of the Supreme Saint level, and strange flowers and plants all over the mountains and plains.

He said, "This is more than a sacred ground. I think it's not too much to call it a divine land."

The emperor of the Terra Demons smiled happily. He said without modesty, "After all, the Royal City of Hundred Clans is a special place. It's better to call it sacred ground."

Zhang Ruochen understood what he was thinking.

The various clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans wanted to gather together to fight against the growing dark forces at the edge of the Infernal Court. They also wanted to fight against the oppression of the ten clans and gain more power. They didn't want to be treated as cannon fodder in the war between Infernal and the Celestial Court. They couldn't fight back.

At the same time, they were worried that the Royal City of Hundred Clans' momentum was too strong. The ten clans would be afraid.

They didn't call it divine land but sacred ground because they wanted to keep a low profile.

In Zhang Ruochen's eyes, this was unnecessary. The Fane of Destiny and the ten clans weren't stupid. If the Royal City of Hundred Clans was strong enough to threaten their ruling position, they would be suppressed no matter how low-key they were.

Although the Terra Demons were ranked 29th in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, they were the biggest clans at the edge of the Infernal Court.

In fact, there were thousands of small clans at the edge of the Infernal Court. However, only 137 clans were qualified to enter the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Each clan had at least one God.

It was the same everywhere. Only with a god could one have a minimum status and enter the circle.

In Zhang Ruochen's opinion, the Terra Demons were much more powerful than Guanghai without the Moon Goddess! Of course, one Moon Goddess was more powerful than a few Terra Demons combined.

In the secular world, the number of Saint Realm cultivators and Supreme Saints represented the competitiveness and strength of a force.

But in the entire universe, the gods were the foundation of a force and determined the status of a force.

"We're here!"

The emperor of the Terra Demons brought Zhang Ruochen to an extremely magnificent demon palace.

The demon palace was 800 meters tall. Groups of ghost servants and corpulent slaves, dressed in gorgeous and charming handmaidens and demonic charms, shuttled between the palace and the square. Some were holding delicious food, some were carrying wine cauldrons, and some were playing classical music. They were actually preparing a sacred banquet.

Zhang Ruochen was not surprised to see such a scene. He said, "I am just a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, not a god. Your majesty doesn't have to be so grand, right?"

Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying were also shocked by the size of the banquet. They didn't understand why the emperor cared so much about Zhang Ruochen.

When Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian came to the sacred ground, they hadn't been treated so well.

How could the grandson of the Bloodysky Clan's chief be more distinguished than them?

The Terra Demons' emperor smiled. "You're not the only distinguished guest of the Terra Demons. There's also a distinguished guest waiting in the palace for a long time. This way, please!"

Zhang Ruochen suddenly realized that the person who had asked the Terra Demons' emperor to stop his fight with the Fane of Death was today's distinguished guest.

What kind of person was he? Why did he help him?

Zhang Ruochen was the first to enter the demon palace. He saw a remarkable figure sitting cross-legged on the ground on the left side of the hall. There was a low couch in front of him, and he drank alone.

Zhang Ruochen was slightly stunned and a little embarrassed.

How could he not be embarrassed? Back then, he had transformed into this person to intimidate Fei Zhong. He had scared Fei Zhong, the famous Supreme Saint, so much that he had crippled his puppet body.

Now that he saw the real person, he realized that he had only changed his appearance. Fortunately, Fei Zhong was unfamiliar with this person and was afraid. That was how he had gotten away with it.

This person was the Demigod, Yan Yu. He was the number one person under the divinity of the Yanluo Clan.

Before Zhang Ruochen could speak, Yan Yu waved at him with a smile. "Ruochen, come here and drink with me. This is the Red Dust Wine that the Terra Demons bought from the Sengens. No matter how many saint stones you have, you can't buy it anywhere else."

Zhang Ruochen walked over quickly. His expression was natural. He cupped his fists and said, "Greetings, Senior Yan Yu."

"This is a bit too distant. If you don't mind, you can call me Uncle Yu. I hope you are not thinking I'm taking advantage of you." Yan Yu stared at him with a smile.

Zhang Ruochen's expression became strange. He didn't answer for a long time.

Logically speaking, Supreme Saints were considered equals.

However, people like Yan Yu couldn't be called Supreme Saint anymore. His cultivation was high, and he was also ranked in the first class of the Tome of the Divines. With a thought, he could enter the divinity.

Once Yan Yu broke into the divinity, he would be like Lord Ming and the Blood Empress.

Even Sword God Feng Chen was on the same level as Yan Yu and Yuan Qianmo. He would not look down on them just because they were still in the Supreme Saint realm.

Yan Yu asked Zhang Ruochen to call him “Uncle”. It doesn’t sound like he’s taking advantage of Zhang Ruochen. Instead, he treated him as one of his own.

“Forget it. I won’t make things difficult for you. Sit down. I’ve been waiting for you for a long time!” Yan Yu said with a smile. He poured himself a cup of wine and moved toward Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen quickly sat down. He said, “It’s not that I don’t understand the situation. I really don’t understand why senior Yan Yu treats me so kindly. I am already very grateful that senior Yan Yu could get the emperor to stop the Fane of Death from being rude to me.”

Yan Yu smiled and said, “You were the one who chased away the cultivators of the Fane of Death. How could I help?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “There are so many powerhouses in the Fane of Death. How can I fight them alone? The Fane of Death naturally knew that the Yanluo clan had interfered when the emperor intervened. This would make them more or less afraid and not dare to attack rashly. In short, I will remember this favor!”

With that, Zhang Ruochen drank his cup with respect.

Outside the demon palace, a charming and cold voice sounded. “The Yanluo Clan might not dare to claim credit for the Fane of Death’s retreat. However, the Empyrean Assassins didn’t make a move because of Uncle Yu’s intimidation.”

Yan Zexian walked in a hurry. His fragrance was elegant, and there was a smug look in his crystal clear eyes.

Yan Huangtu followed closely behind.

Zhang Ruochen said thoughtfully, “The killers of the Empyrean Assassins have entered the Royal City of Hundred Clans?”

“The number one assassin of the Empyrean Assassins is in the city. When you were fighting with the Fane of Death, it was the best time for her to attack, but she didn’t.”

Yan Zhexian raised his snow-white chin and wondered whether Zhang Ruochen was scared.

Zhang Ruochen poured another cup of wine and offered a toast to Yan Yu. “Thank you, Uncle Yu, for saving my life.”

It was enough to call him “Uncle.”

Yan Zhexian frowned and said, “How can you call him Uncle Yu?”

Yan Yu raised a hand to stop Yan Zhexian from continuing. He smiled and said, “It’s my idea.”

“Uncle Yu!”

Yan Zhexian looked like an angry little girl.

How could she not know why Yan Yu was doing this? Obviously, he was standing on the side with his grandfather and great-grandfather, trying to set her up with Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Huangtu stood silently at the side. Looking at Zhang Ruochen, he could not help but smile strangely.

Yan Yu ignored Yan Zhexian and looked at Zhang Ruochen. He said, “The number one assassin of the Empyrean Assassins has indeed come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans. However, she did not make a move, but it was not because I stopped her. Because even I could not find her anywhere.”

“To be called the number one assassin, her hiding skills must also be number one. I’m afraid it will not be easy for the gods to find her,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Yu said, “But she also has to be afraid of the gods. There are three gods in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. That should be why she doesn’t dare to act rashly!”

“There’s another thing I want to explain to you. That Arrow of Deva Path on Hoth wasn’t shot by Lady Fu Xiang, but by Claflin, the elf of the Heavenly Realm.”

Zhang Ruochen quickly said, “Uncle Yu, there’s no need to explain. If the Yanluo Clan wants to kill me, why would they shoot me in the dark? It’s even harder for them to shoot me openly in the dark.”

The Supreme Saints of the Terra Demons, including Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying, Sikong the Elder, Sikong the Younger, and Cang Jie, who had come with Zhang Ruochen, took their seats one after another.

The five Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death could only stand stiffly behind the two cultivators.

Everyone present was important. Only Cang Jie, a Saint King, felt like he was in a dream.

Even the demigod was sitting on it. This was a legendary figure!

Zhang Ruochen still accompanied Yan Yu. They chatted and drank as if they had met again after a long time.

Yan Zhexian sat diagonally across from Zhang Ruochen and stared at them. Whenever Zhang Ruochen looked over, she would open her eyes wide. It was as if she could stop Zhang Ruochen and Yan Yu from talking.

There were two empty seats in front of Yan Zhexian.

Seeing that everyone had taken their seats, Zhang Ruochen could not help but ask, “Are we waiting for someone else?”

“Indeed, two handsome people of your generation are coming to the banquet.”

Yan Yu did not mention who the two people were. Suddenly, he grabbed Zhang Ruochen’s hand and asked in a low voice with a complicated look, “Ruochen, what do you think of Xian’er?”

“Well...”

Zhang Ruochen could not help but stare at Yan Zhexian, who was diagonally opposite him.

Yan Zhexian must have heard Yan Yu's question. She did not glare back in the face of Zhang Ruochen's gaze. Instead, she lowered her head to look at the ground, showing that she was listening.

In front of Yan Yu, she still did not dare to act rashly.

She just did not know how much Zhang Ruochen would belittle her.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was thinking about how he should answer, a hoarse but loud voice suddenly rang out from outside the demon palace. “The Scioness of the Fane of Destiny, Pan Ruo, has arrived!”

Everyone’s eyes turned in the direction of the gate.

The new Scioness had a graceful appearance and an elegant temperament. Although her cultivation was not high, she was shrouded in a mysterious light. Even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint could not see her clearly.

It was the power of the twelve Reverends that turned into a protective divine glow.

She came with a man in black who was almost in a state of oblivion. Only the Supreme Saint could sense his existence, and only the Supreme Saint above the Thousand-Koan Realm could see his figure.

He was the most mysterious figure of this generation in the Fane of Destiny, Que.

Pan Ruo and Que took their seats after paying their respects to Yan Yu and the Emperor of the Terra Demons.

The two of them happened to sit opposite Zhang Ruochen and Yan Yu.

The atmosphere suddenly became quiet and strange.

Yan Yu was calm and composed. He reminded Zhang Ruochen in a low voice, “Ruochen, you still haven’t answered my question.”

Zhang Ruochen looked away and poured a cup of wine. He said, “Lady Zhexian is a great woman.”

“Is that all?” Yan Yu asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I don’t have much contact with Lord Zhexian, so I don’t dare to comment rashly. These are my words from the bottom of my heart!”

Yan Zhexian showed a disapproving look in his eyes. The so-called true nature could be both a strength and a weakness.

Was this a compliment or an insult?

Yan Yu thought for a moment and poured the cup full. He smiled and said, “A true woman may be at a disadvantage when fighting with her enemies, but being a friend and a wife is the best choice.”

Wasn’t that clear enough?

Zhang Ruochen just drank with a smile and didn’t dare to answer.

Yan Yu continued, “Since we haven’t had much contact, we should get to know each other more in the future. We can talk about our experiences in cultivating and go sightseeing.”

“Of course, of course,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Yu was quite satisfied with Zhang Ruochen’s answer.

If Zhang Ruochen answered Yan Zhexian’s beauty and talent, Yan Yu would be displeased.

Other cultivators could praise a woman based on her beauty, but Zhang Ruochen could not because of his reputation. Saying such words was no different from a pervert.

Other cultivators could praise Yan Zhexian’s talent, but Zhang Ruochen could not because Zhang Ruochen’s talent was there. It would be hypocritical for him to say such words.

Zhang Ruochen understood Yan Yu’s intentions, so he didn’t dare to praise Yan Zhexian or insult her. His “sincere” answer fit the answer Yan Yu wanted.

Yan Yu was a little disappointed. “Xian’er’s father is my elder brother. He’s more talented than me and has the chance to be a Yuanhui-level genius. Unfortunately... sigh...”

“Don’t be sad, Uncle Yu. The road of cultivation is full of dangers. We cultivators should be mentally prepared to die at any time.”

Zhang Ruochen had checked Yan Zhexian’s information and knew that Yan Zhexian’s father, Yan Yucheng, the leader of the Yans’ Five Handsomes, had encountered an enemy of the divinity 100 years ago. He was forced to break into the divinity in a battle, but he was defeated. His body and soul were destroyed.

Of course, the divinity was also suppressed by the ancient god of the Yanluo clan, who had rushed over. He was still locked up in the Yanluo clan and tortured in a purgatory.

To intimidate the world, the clansman of the divinity was also killed.

First, there was the Scion Yu Qiu of the Fane of Destiny, and then there was Yan Yucheng. On the path of cultivating divinity, everyone had to tread on thin ice and be careful.

Yan Yu regained his composure and said, “Ruochen, Uncle Yu also has a heartfelt statement. A tree in the forest is full of danger. You are actually in more danger than my elder brother.”

How could Zhang Ruochen not know?

Yan Yucheng had a strong background, but he still died tragically.

Zhang Ruochen was more talented than Yan Yucheng, but his background was not as powerful. One could imagine how dangerous the road ahead would be.

Yan Yu had already hinted that although Yan Yucheng was dead, the god who had forced him to death had paid a heavy price. How could the god who dared to attack the chosen one of the Yanluo clan not be scared?

Yan Zhexian was the only daughter of Yan Yucheng. If Zhang Ruochen married her, this deterrent force would protect Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Uncle Yu, I understand what you mean, but I'm not the only one in charge of this matter."

Yan Yu patted Zhang Ruochen's shoulder and smiled elegantly. "Your words are enough. If you have the heart, take the initiative and cultivate more feelings. Uncle Yu won't force you if you can't get together."

What Zhang Ruochen needed was the support and deterrence of the Yanluo clan,

The Yanluo clan wanted Yan Zhexian to marry Zhang Ruochen. First, everyone knew that Yan Zhexian was pregnant with Zhang Ruochen's child. How would the Yanluo clan face themselves if they couldn't get together? Where was Yan Zhexian's reputation?

Second, Zhang Ruochen had shown his brilliance. His future achievements were limitless.

Third, the Xue Jue Family was on the verge of prosperity. Wargod Bloodximus had already become famous. Lord Ming and the Blood Empress were potential gods rarely seen in the Yuanhui period. Marrying Zhang Ruochen was the same as roping in the entire Xue Jue Family.

This was an investment that was hard to calculate!

However, the internal members of the Yanluo clan clearly valued Yan Zhexian's feelings. Otherwise, they would have already made a decision for her. Yan Yu wouldn't have had to come out personally to tell Zhang Ruochen so much.

Zhang Ruochen knew he didn't have that kind of relationship with Yan Zhexian. At the same time, he also knew that the child in Yan Zhexian's stomach had his bloodline. He didn't hate Yan Zhexian. If they really got together, he could accept it.

But he couldn't take the initiative.

It seemed that he had never taken the initiative to pursue a woman.

It was up to fate!

The banquet began.

Some demonic spirits put on exotic dance clothes and danced.

Saint Realm Maids from various clans played musical instruments from all realms.

...

The unhappiness from the fight with the Fane of Death has been swept away. Zhang Ruochen's mind became empty. He didn't think about anything anymore. He didn't have any impurities. He was immersed in dance music.

After three rounds of drinking, Zhang Ruochen was a little drunk.

This wine was indeed the world-famous saint wine. It had a strong aftertaste. Even the Supreme Saint felt graceful after drinking. He wanted to get up and dance with the beautiful demons.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't lose his composure like this. However, Cang Jie had already rushed in, red-faced and drunk. He stopped a demon with one hand and kept laughing.

No cultivator laughed at him. It was normal for a Saint King to be unable to suppress the alcohol.

However, Sikong the Elder's rush stunned many Supreme Saints.

How could a Buddhist bodhisattva lose his composure like this?

Zhang Ruochen quickly had Sikong the Younger drag him back.

The song ended!

The demonic spirit in the dance dress retreated and helped Cang Jie, drunk and unconscious, away.

Suddenly, Sikong the Elder stood up from his seat and chased after him. “Demon, take me with you if you have the ability.”

Sikong the Younger seemed to feel that his older brother was too embarrassed, so he hit him hard this time with the Palm of Six Desires. It landed on the back of his wrinkled head and knocked him unconscious. Only then did he stop.

Sikong the Younger dragged Sikong the Elder’s fat body back and said, “Uncle-master, senior brother is too greedy. I’m afraid he’s drunk in the secular world. What should we do?”

Zhang Ruochen forced himself to be embarrassed and said, “It doesn’t matter. This wine can improve a cultivator’s spiritual power and Saint Soul. It’s a good thing to let him go to the secular world!”

The Terra Demons’ emperor sat at the top and looked at Yan Yu. His lips moved slightly, and he said something.

Yan Yu glanced at Zhang Ruochen and seemed to have figured something out. He couldn’t help but shake his head and smile.

The emperor of the Terra Demons raised his voice. He said, “Today’s sacred banquet is to invite all distinguished guests and also to discuss a major matter. Second Young Master Yan, please tell us about this matter!”

Yan Yu sat cross-legged on the ground and didn’t get up. He said, “Everyone should know that the Light of Origin has appeared three times in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. The Power of Origin is very pure and dense. It seems that the Fane of Origin is about to appear.”

In the palace, all the Terra Demons Supreme Saints were shocked.

Before this, they did not know that the Fane of Origin was about to appear. Although they guessed that something big was about to happen in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, they did not expect the truth to be so shocking.

The Yanluo Clan wanted to borrow the power of the Terra Demons in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Of course, they had to tell them the truth.

Yan Yu said again, “The place where the Light of Origin is coming from is the sacred ground of the Yakshas, the Night Ocean.”

Pan Ruo said, “Second master, if you have anything to say, just say it. It can’t be that you want to attack the Yakshas, right?”

“Of course not! The Yakshas are not an ordinary small clan that will never be destroyed. Now that the gods have gone to the Jadeite Realm, the Infernal Court can not lightly start a war on such a scale.”

Yan Yu continued, “There are quite a few forces that know that the Divine Crystal of Origin is about to be born, but they are all selfish and have never considered the issue from the perspective of the interests of the Infernal Court. Only the Yanluo Clan and the Fane of Destiny can be above these forces and do some things before the Fane of Origin is born.”

Pan Ruo said, “I understand! Second Master, do you mean to expel the cultivators of the Celestial Court first?”

“Not expel them, kill them all. The ten major dark forces can be eliminated together if the strength is sufficient.” Yan Yu’s eyes became sharp, like a sharp sword unsheathed from its sheath.

The emperor of the Terra Demons said, “After the appearance of the Light of Origin three times, the Celestial Court has indeed sent many cultivators to investigate the situation. If the Fane of Destiny orders all the clans to act together, we can find them.”

“However, the ten dark forces are more troublesome. They are deeply rooted at the edge of the Infernal Court and in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, making all the clans very fearful. Some of them even have the dark forces controlling them from behind.”

Yan Yu said, “In that case, let’s first investigate the cultivators of the Celestial Court. What do you think, Scioness?”

“I have no objections,” said Pan Ruo.

“Alright! Xuan Disha, you draft an imperial edict. Scioness and I will imprint the order representing the Yanluo Clan and the Fane of Destiny on it and pass it to the emperors of the various clans in the city, telling them to act according to the orders.” Yan Yu exuded the aura of a Demigod God; even the emperor of the Terra Demons called him by his name.

Then, Yan Yu asked, “How many sacred armies have the Fane of Destiny sent to the Royal City of Hundred Clans?”

Pan Ruo didn’t want to reveal too much. “Second master, don’t ask. No matter how strong the powerhouses of the Celestial Court are, the Fane of Destiny can crush them.”

The Yanluo Clan and the Fane of Destiny. One was the supreme clan, and the other could command the entire Infernal Court. The leaders of the two forces discussed important matters. Zhang Ruochen naturally didn’t say anything. He just drank.

After their discussion, Zhang Ruochen asked Yan Yu, “Is Claflin Dead?”

Zhang Ruochen wanted to ask about High-Saint Cairo, but he changed his mind.

Yan Yu didn’t overthink. He thought that Zhang Ruochen wanted revenge, “The Heavenly Realm sent five powerhouses to stir up trouble on Hoth. I killed two Demigods but let High-Saint Cairo and Claflin escape.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where did they go?”

“They hid in the Royal City of Hundred Clans and entered the Wolver’s sacred ground. If not for that, they wouldn’t have escaped,” Yan Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Are the Wolver controlled by the Heavenly Realm?”

Yan Yu shook his head, “It! In fact, the Wolver had a deep enmity with the Heavenly Realm. They had almost been exterminated by the Fane of Light. There were many people on the Wolver’s sacred ground. It was normal for a few of them to be controlled by the Heavenly Realm. However, it would be troublesome to investigate “Since Uncle Yu knows this, why did you tell all the Supreme Saints of the Terra Demons about the coming of the Fane of Origin?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yan Yu stared at Zhang Ruochen.

The two looked at each other and then smiled at the same time.

Suddenly, Yan Yu asked, “How did Fei Zhong die?”

The smile on Zhang Ruochen’s face froze slightly.

Yan Yu smiled and said, “Don’t be so nervous. I didn’t suspect anything. I was just curious. Fei Zhong’s puppet appeared on you. You should know how he died.”

“Ji Fanxin killed him,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Hearing this, Sikong the Younger, who was sitting next to him, trembled. His eyes widened. He told himself to stay calm and not let his Uncle-master see through him.

He seemed to have realized that his reaction was too intense. He put his hands together and shouted, “You deserve to die!”

Yan Yu only glanced at Sikong the Younger. He looked away and said, “Did she erase the memories of Yan Huangtu and Xian’er’s memories?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that it would be difficult to hide from someone like Yan Yu, so he nodded and said with difficulty, “If I don’t erase their memories, they will die. That’s all I can do.”

“Ji Fanxin’s cultivation is strong. How could he compromise so easily? Ruochen must have paid a great price to save them, right?” Yan Yu kept staring at Zhang Ruochen’s eyes.

“It’s not worth mentioning. After all, Lady Zhexian is pregnant with my child. How could I watch her be killed?” Zhang Ruochen said.

“I’ll tell Xian’er.”

Yan Yu smiled and didn’t ask any more questions.

As for how much he believed Zhang Ruochen’s words.

Then, Xuan Zehai came to talk to Zhang Ruochen, hoping he could stay in the Terra Demons as a guest. Zhang Ruochen didn't refuse. After all, Peach Blossom was in the city. Who knew when it would come out and give him a fatal blow?

It was relatively safer on the sacred ground of a clan.

After the banquet ended, Zhang Ruochen brought Sikong the Younger, who was carrying Sikong the Elder, and the five powerhouses of the Fane of Death. Que's voice came from behind as they walked out of the demon palace. "Zhang Ruochen, can we talk?"

Zhang Ruochen did not think highly of many cultivators, but Que was one of them.

The two were walking side by side on the enormous white stone square outside the demon palace. Other cultivators, such as Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, Pan Ruo, Xuan Qingying, and Xuan Zehai, consciously did not follow.

This was the conversation between the two most outstanding new generation representatives!

Que said, “After breaking through to the Thousand-Koan Realm, I reached the advanced stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm in a day. With my state of mind and previous accumulation, I could have directly entered the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm and peered into the Banshi Isshou Realm. However, your image appeared in my mind and finally stopped here.”

“Are you still brooding over the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Que said, “Yes, but that’s not the main reason.”

The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was to help him cultivate a single type of saintwill. Que had already cultivated nine types of saintwill. What was lacking was a perfect Grade Two Saintwill. What he needed more was a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

With the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he could try to break the precepts of heaven and earth and combine the tenth type of saintwill.

However, the chances of success were slim.

Therefore, although losing Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill affected his state of mind, it didn't affect him too much.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I understand. You want to fight with me and defeat me."

"Before I came to the Royal City of Hundred Clans, I did have such thoughts. I also want to defeat you in the same realm," Que said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What about now?"

There was no expression on Que's face. He stopped and looked at the vast sky above him. "I already know I'm much weaker than you in the same realm. There's no need to humiliate yourself."

Suddenly, he said, "In the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, you, Yan Wushen, Lan Ying, and Yan Huangtu made me lose the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. But it also gave me immense pressure, which sharpened my state of mind."

"I overcame the pressure and kept my state of mind. Before I broke through the Thousand-Koan Realm, I fused the perfect Grade Two Saintwill."

There was a hint of surprise in Zhang Ruochen's eyes.

Obviously, the deficiency in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was like Bai Qing'er. They were all working hard to break through to the Yuanhui level, constantly polishing themselves.

Que said, "With the perfect Grade Two Saintwill, I can kill Lord Hornless with one sword even if I don't break through the Thousand-Koan Realm. Moreover, I can kill him without any confinement."

Zhang Ruochen said, "With your sword technique, the Path of Oblivion, and the Grade Two Saintwill, you should have such power."

"Are you ready to take my strike?" Que asked.

Zhang Ruochen was fearless. He said, “Just one strike?”

“One strike is enough to determine the winner. However, if you can’t take this strike, you might be able to determine life and death,” Que said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “After this strike, can we write off the grudge between us?”

“No matter what the result is, the grudges will be written off,” Que said.

“Okay!”

A perfect Grade Two Saintwill was rare in the world. Zhang Ruochen was eager to see it.

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

The two turned back, turned into two light shadows, and rushed into the demon palace.

With a bang, the gate of the demon palace closed.

All cultivators knew that they were preparing for a decisive battle. They were so curious that they wanted to watch the battle. However, Que couldn’t reveal the secret of the Great Perfection stage of the Grade Two Saintwill. Naturally, they could only block them out.

Yan Zhexian frowned slightly. “Are we going to fight like we did with Yan Wushen?”

“Why? Are you worried about Zhang Ruochen?” Yan Huangtu teased.

Yan Huangtu had learned from Yan Yu that Zhang Ruochen had saved him and Yan Zhexian. His favorable impression of Zhang Ruochen increased.

Yan Zhexian snorted. “I just think that the top-notch figure of the Infernal Court shouldn’t die in internal strife.”

“Don’t worry. Que has already broken through to the Thousand-Koan Realm. With his proud nature, how could he have the nerve to propose a life-and-death battle with Zhang Ruochen?” Yan Huangtu said.

Yan Zhexian said, “Uncle Huangtu, who do you think will win this battle?”

There was a thoughtful look in Yan Huangtu’s eyes. He said, “Before I saw Zhang Ruochen fighting with the cultivators of the Fane of Death, I was definitely lacking in standing. But now, it’s hard to say! The Zhang Ruochen we’re seeing now is a bit demonic. No cultivator has ever been as strong as him in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Just as grandfather said, perhaps Zhang Ruochen might surpass all the geniuses of the Yuanhui level in the past and reach the level that all the geniuses of the Yuanhui level look up to.”

Yan Huangtu was a little disappointed. The Innate Imperial Path Marrow was born. It was supposed to be invincible for an era, but now, it was being overshadowed by one monster after another. He felt terrible.

...

In the palace.

Que summoned the Imperial Artifact of Precept, Kagemaru, and slowly raised it. More than 50 billion precepts were released from his body and filled the entire palace.

Zhang Ruochen tried to use spiritual power to attack. Still, he found that the spiritual power of level 68 could not get close to Que’s body.

He did not know whether it was shattered by the sword’s intent or erased by oblivion.

Zhang Ruochen understood that there was no flaw in Que at this moment. It was as if he was standing in a layer of eggshell and could not be attacked. The spiritual power of level 68 could only hurt him when he had a flaw, or only after Zhang Ruochen had truly cultivated spiritual power techniques could he break it.

Similarly, the spiritual power of the 69th and a half level was much stronger than the other 69th and a half levels. This was because she could use spiritual power well and had many ancient techniques.

SWOOSH!

The Ancient Abyssal Blade appeared in Zhang Ruochen's hand.

Que was surprised. He hadn't expected Zhang Ruochen to use the sword to take his powerful attack. According to his understanding of Zhang Ruochen, Zhang Ruochen's palm technique, leg technique, and all kinds of Supreme Artifacts were what he relied on.

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and sensed carefully. He said, "What a powerful sword comprehension. You should be able to cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul, right? Actually, I have also created a sword technique. I only have one move at the moment, which combines the Swordsmanship, Time, and Dimension."

The sword comprehension that broke out from Que's body increased significantly. It suppressed Zhang Ruochen's sword comprehension like a candle in the wind, about to be extinguished at any time.

In terms of sword comprehension and Swordsmanship, Zhang Ruochen lacked a lot.

"You'd better show your true ability. Otherwise, you won't be able to take this sword attack, and you'll die." Que's voice came from all directions as if there were thousands of him talking.

Zhang Ruochen fell into a mysterious state of self-enlightenment. Holding the Abyss in his hand, he didn't say a word.

Que didn't say anything more. He thought, "Saint will be one with the Swordsmanship. I am free from this world."

In the demon palace, everything scattered like sand and then disappeared, turning into a square void.

Only Zhang Ruochen and Que were still floating in the void.

Que's sword stabbed out like lightning. His body gradually faded and finally merged with oblivion.

Both man and sword merged with the void.

How could such a sword technique block it?

Even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would be afraid of this sword attack. He didn't dare to break it easily.

Zhang Ruochen felt a great danger. Death was approaching quickly. At this critical moment, an idea flashed through his mind.

The sword in his hand drew a circle under his feet.

The 670 million Intergold Precept Marks he obtained from the Intergold Tiger naturally surged out. They merged with the Precepts of Swordsmanship, the Precepts of Time, the Precepts of Dimension, and even the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. They melded perfectly together.

Previously, Zhang Ruochen could only control 100 million Intergold Precept Marks. He could only fully control them after his spiritual power reached the 68th level.

"Thank you for helping me create the second sword."

The circle that Zhang Ruochen drew on the ground turned golden. A layer of divine golden light rushed out and protected him in the center. Marks of Time and Precepts of Dimension flowed on the divine golden light. There were also yin-yang Taiji marks rotating under his feet.

When Que's sword touched the divine golden light, it appeared from oblivion.

It was at this moment that Zhang Ruochen struck out first. Whether it was the divine golden light, Marks of Time, Precepts of Dimension, or yin-yang Taiji mark, they all disappeared and merged into the sword.

The tips of the two swords collided.

An overwhelming power passed through the Ancient Abyssal Blade to Zhang Ruochen and sent him flying backward.

Half of his body emerged from the oblivion and said, "It's not that simple."

Kagemaru, which was supposed to collide with the Ancient Abyssal Blade, had nine strands of precepts on its body. They condensed into nine swords and stabbed at Zhang Ruochen simultaneously.

At such a close distance and such a fast speed, even Bai Qing'er could not avoid it. Of course, Bai Qing'er did not have to avoid it.

Seeing that the nine swords were about to stab Zhang Ruochen, a dazzling Light of Truth suddenly emerged in the silent and empty demon palace. The sound of the swords suddenly increased.

...

Everyone waited anxiously outside the palace.

Suddenly, the palace door opened. Zhang Ruochen walked out from inside. His face was quite pale, his feet were weak, and he walked unsteadily.

"It's over so quickly?"

Yan Zhexian was surprised. He didn't know if he was talking to himself or asking Zhang Ruochen.

"It's a little fast."

Zhang Ruochen smiled and left in a hurry with Sikong the Younger and the others.

Que followed closely behind. His face was pale, and his feet were unsteady. He looked in the direction Zhang Ruochen had left and asked, "What's the name of your sword?"

"Burial flower!"

Zhang Ruochen also asked, "Is your saintwill called the World Without Me?"

"Yes."

Que thought for a moment and said, "If you want to use the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill to attack the unprecedented

Grade Three Saintwill, you can choose the Swordsmanship.”

Zhang Ruochen did not answer him. He disappeared at the edge of the square. Under the guidance of the maid, he entered a beautiful courtyard. The blood apricot holy tree was planted in the courtyard with red leaves. Its blood qi flowed around the tree trunk like a dragon.

After entering the room, Zhang Ruochen’s Armor of the Fire God spread out, revealing his translucent body. He sighed lightly. “It’s worthy of the perfect Grade Two Saintwill. It’s worthy of the Dao of nihility. Even with armor, it can’t defend against it.”

Zhang Ruochen took out two Godstones and began to recover the saint Qi that had been used up while refining the Power of Oblivion that had invaded his body.

...

Que was still standing outside the demon palace. He didn’t move.

“How did it go?” Pan Ruo walked over and asked.

PFFT!

Que spat out a mouthful of blood. Just as he was about to fall to the ground, Kagamaru flew out. Holding the hilt with one hand, he forced a smile. “He won in the end!”

Zhang Ruochen had been struck nine times by him. He could still leave with his injuries.

But he could only force himself to walk to the door of the fane. He could not take another step.

The winner had been decided.

In the final confrontation, Que’s sword movements changed. He split into ten, and all nine swords hit Zhang Ruochen.

However, Zhang Ruochen’s sword also changed. It merged with the Path of Truth and instantly exploded with 30 times the attack power. Not only did it shatter the body of Kagamaru, but it also pierced through his body.

When it pierced through his body, the Power of Time, Dimension, Swordsmanship, and the mysterious power of the Absolute Intergold exploded in his body at the same time.

Even though he had the saintwill of World Without Me and his body was almost completely void, he was seriously injured.

In fact, he didn't know that Zhang Ruochen had won by luck.

The Path of Truth suddenly merged with the Swordsmanship because Zhang Ruochen was controlled, but because the Swordsmanship and the Path of Truth seemed to have been stimulated by something and automatically merged together.

Like the 670 million Intergold Precept Marks, Zhang Ruochen had never used them to combine with the Swordsmanship. Instead, they were naturally combined together.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged under the sundial. It took him half a month to expel all the Power of Oblivion that had invaded his body and restore his body to its original state.

During this half a month, he had also figured out why the Path of Truth and the Intergold Precept Marks would naturally combine with the Swordsmanship.

It must have something to do with his Path of All-encompassing.

The sword followed the heart. The Swordsmanship was what the heart thought.

Lord Ming had taught him that Swordsmanship had to be pure.

However, Saint Monk Xumi combined Swordsmanship with Time and created the Sword of Time.

Que's master had combined the Swordsmanship with Oblivion and created the Oblivion Sword.

Why couldn't Zhang Ruochen combine the Swordsmanship with the Intergold Precept Marks to create the Intergold Sword? Or could he combine the Swordsmanship with the Path of Truth to create the Truth Sword?

Or could he combine all the Paths he cultivated with the Swordsmanship to create an unprecedented Myriad-Path Sword?

However, he couldn't be distracted at this stage if he wanted to cultivate the saintwill of the Swordsmanship to Grade Three. He had to completely immerse himself in Swordsmanship and be a pure sword cultivator.

The more he thought about it, the more confused Zhang Ruochen became.

He had never been so eager to have a supreme Swordsmanship teacher by his side to tell him what was the right thing to do.

It was easy to walk on the wrong path if he only relied on his own exploration.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen thought of something. He immediately took out the Wordless Sword Manual in the form of a stone sword and the five volumes lent to him by Granny Begonia.

These five scrolls had been left by the five swordsmen of Kunlun since ancient times. They had always been kept in the sword pavilion, and ordinary cultivators were not qualified to read them.

Zhang Ruochen picked up the first book and saw the ancient and familiar words on the cover. He was secretly shocked. "Bi Luo's Scribbles!"

In Kunlun, only one person dared to call himself "Bi Luo."

Bi Luozi was as famous as the Dragon Lord and Saint Monk Xumi.

Whoosh

The four words on the cover suddenly turned into four figures in Taoist robes, cultivating a mysterious sword technique one after another. Zhang Ruochen blinked, and the four figures disappeared, turning back into four ancient characters.

Chapter 2546: No Longer a Young Man

Seven days passed.

Zhang Ruochen sat under Sundial. He had immersed himself in studying the sword technique for seven years.

Sikong the Younger turned away all the visitors, standing guard in the yard.

In seven years, the number of Precepts in Zhang Ruochen's body had broken through another ten billion. The Precepts of Swordsmanship accounted for a large proportion. He had read the five volumes countless times and understood many of their mysteries. Of course, he was still far from fully comprehending them.

Zhang Ruochen's understanding of Swordsmanship had reached a new level.

On this day, Zhang Ruochen saw the sunlight pouring in from outside the window. According to the carvings on the window, it projected faint patterns on the ground.

The pattern was like a flying dragon.

After a long time, a smile appeared in his eyes. He was no longer confused. He finally figured out the path he should take next.

His Swordsmanship should be the purest light.

It should be fast and merciless.

Whether Path of Truth, Intergold Precept Marks, or all kinds of Paths in the world were like the decorations on the window.

They were all different, yet the nature of the sword wouldn't change. The light remained the same. But after it shone, different patterns could appear on the ground.

What he needed to do now wasn't to think about how to make the patterns on the ground look better but to light up this beam of light. The light had to be absolutely hot and eternal.

Creak

Zhang Ruochen pushed open the wooden door. His masculinity shone on his face.

In the yard.

Sikong the Elder had woken up three days ago. He held a bowl-thick staff and a stack of white paper. Sikong the Elder roared at Tian Shuzi, "Zhen Nu! You're a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. Can't you copy a single volume of Maitrī Sunyata Sutra? Did you do it on purpose?"

Tian Shuzi's hair had been shaved clean. He wore a gray monk robe that only the lowest level Buddhist disciples wore.

Being scolded like this by a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint, Tian Shuzi's anger was about to flare up.

Boom

Sikong the Elder struck and pressed down on Tian Shuzi's right shoulder with his staff. Tian Shuzi bent his legs and knelt on the ground.

Leaves flew around him.

"What are you staring at? Master reprimanded you for your own good. It's to help you cultivate your inner peace. Do you still have any objections? I gave you this Dharma name in the hope that you can restrain the anger and develop a calm heart that won't be disturbed by anything."

Sikong the Elder took back his staff, squatted down, and unfolded the stack of paper. He said earnestly, "Look at this, look what you have copied? Your second master has taught you nothing these past few days. You haven't listened at all. Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, and Zhen Wang. The three of them have been very obedient. They copied everything without missing a single word. Plus, they had neat handwriting.”

There was no Buddhist scripture on the white paper on the ground. All that was written was the word “Kill.”

Tian Shuzi gritted his teeth, and his entire body trembled. If he was not imprisoned by Curse of Light and Dark, he would definitely slap this monk to death. He would not be able to wait for even a moment! Absolutely no way!

Sikong the Elder patted Tian Shuzi’s head and sighed. “I know you still won’t listen to me, but you must understand that I’m hitting you for your own good. I’m teaching you to be a good person. A wrongdoer may become a man of virtue once he does good.”

Que Shenzi, who was also wearing a monk’s robe and had his hair shaved, could not help but laugh.

Sikong the Elder’s bell-like eyes stared at him and roared, “Zhen Se, what are you laughing at? Do you think you’ve copied well? Your handwriting is sloppy. Copy a hundred times more!”

Que Shenzi’s eyes darkened. When he saw Sikong the Elder pick up his staff again, he smiled and said, “You’re right, master. I’ll copy it now.”

“Good boy. I’ll check it later.”

Just as Sikong the Elder was about to continue to guide Tian Shuzi, the sound of the wooden door rang out. Zhang Ruochen walked out.

Sikong the Elder was delighted. He rushed over and smiled. “Senior Uncle, you’ve finally come out. Have you recovered? I have something important to tell you!”

Zhang Ruochen nodded in understanding.

Tian Shuzi got up from the ground. He rushed to Zhang Ruochen and said, “Zhang Ruochen, name your conditions. As long as you let me go...”

Bang!

Before Tian Shuzi could finish his words, Sikong the Elder had already struck his head with his staff. It made a loud sound and crashed Tian Shuzi to the ground.

He knelt before Zhang Ruochen and bent his knees to the ground.

Sikong the Elder cursed in exasperation, "Bastard, this is your Ancestral Master. How can you call him by his name? Kneel down and reflect on yourself."

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the seven monks in the courtyard. He was a little absent-minded. Finally, he looked down at the monk kneeling in front of him. Who else could it be but Tian Shuzi of Fane of Death?

Tian Shuzi clenched his fists and stood up from the ground again. He glanced at Sikong the Elder who was glaring at him like a tiger. In the end, he chose to compromise. He said in a low voice, "Name your conditions. How can you let me go?"

"Call him Ancestral Master," Sikong the Elder said.

Zhang Ruochen reached out a hand to stop Sikong the Elder, who was about to swing his staff at Tian Shuzi. He said, "As long as the hatred between us is completely resolved, you can leave anytime."

Tian Shuzi said, "There is no hatred between us anymore."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head.

Tian Shuzi said, "I swear to god that as long as you let me go, I will never take revenge on you."

"Me too, I can swear too." Que Shenzi rushed up.

Zhang Ruochen still shook his head, "You just want to escape. You haven't really put down your hatred. Even if I believe you will keep your oath, you might take revenge on me using other people's hands. Moreover, you may turn your target from me and deal with my friends, relatives, clansmen, or anyone related to me."

Tian Shuzi and Que Shenzi promised, "No, absolutely not."

“You don’t have to say anymore. I can sense whether you have put down your hatred or not. When that day comes, you can stay or go as you wish,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Sikong the Elder looked at Zhang Ruochen with admiration and respect. He nodded in agreement, “Once they enter the Door of Sunyata, they will no longer have anything to do with the secular world. They will represent the new generation. That’s why I gave them Dharma names. They’re the Zhen generation.”

“His name is Zhen Nu.”

“His name is Zhen Se.”

Que Shenzi’s face twitched.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the three former White Reapers and asked, “What about the three of them?”

“Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, and Zhen Wang,” Sikong the Elder said.

Zhang Ruochen nodded, “Anger, lust, kill, greed, and delusion. The five precepts of Buddhism. Very good! Next, I’ll leave the five of them to you and Sikong the Younger. You must teach them well and resolve their killing intent and resentment.”

Sikong the Younger walked over, “Zhen Nu and Zhen Se are easy to deal with. One is stubborn and hard to teach, while the other pretends to be obedient, but he has a lot of resentment. Yet I believe that under the influence of Maitrī Sunyata Mantra, they will be wholeheartedly devoted to Buddha and become a Saint Buddha who saves the sick one day.”

“If that’s the case, it will definitely go down in history. The five top saints of Deathkin will enter the Door of Sunyata together. It will be a legend! Not bad, not bad at all,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Sikong the Younger said, “But Zhen Sha, Zhen Wang, and Zhen Tan had all trained to cut off emotions by Fane of Death from a young age. They only have killing intent in their hearts. What should we do?”

“It doesn’t matter. When I have the chance, I’ll buy some Desires Pills to help them recover,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Sikong the Younger chanted the name of Buddha and said, “If that’s the case, Senior uncle will be doing immeasurable good.”

After thinking for a while, Zhang Ruochen walked up to Zhen Sha, Zhen Wang, and Zhen Tan. He thought for a while and slapped Zhen Sha’s forehead.

Brilliant Light of Truth flew out of his palm and poured into Zhen Sha’s body.

Zhen Sha’s body was like a holy lamp shining. Countless starlight spots circulated in his body. Wisps of Death Qi and killing intent were squeezed out of his body and dissipated.

When Zhang Ruochen withdrew his palm, Death Qi on Zhen Sha’s body faded a lot. The hostility in his eyes almost completely disappeared.

Then, Zhang Ruochen used the same method to help Zhen Wang and Zhen Tan.

Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi stood to the side and watched with fear. They didn’t think that Zhang Ruochen was helping the three White Reapers. Instead, they thought that Zhang Ruochen was going to fight to the death with Fane of Death.

Fane of Death had spent countless resources and eliminated numerous failures to cultivate a White Reaper in Banshi Isshou Realm.

Zhang Ruochen had destroyed three in an instant.

How could Fane of Death let this go?

This was a notable feud!

Zhang Ruochen turned his gaze to Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi.

Their expressions changed. They were afraid that Zhang Ruochen would also destroy their Paths in this way.

“I’ll go and copy Maitrī Sunyata Mantra first.”

Que Shenzi took out a pen from the collar of his monk robe and walked toward the stone table. He squatted on the ground and began to copy.

Tian Shuzi's expression changed several times. "I'll copy too."

Zhang Ruochen asked Sikong the Younger to supervise them to copy the scriptures and chant. He brought Sikong the Elder into the room and released the Spatial Domain to prevent one from eavesdropping on their conversation.

Sikong the Elder quickly said, "Did Senior Uncle ask Cang Jie to go to Kunlun to find Fairy of a Hundred Flowers?"

Zhang Ruochen nodded.

Sikong the Elder sighed. "You might not know this, but after you went to Infernal Court, Fairy of a Hundred Flowers went back to Qianrui Realm. She wasn't in Kunlun at all. He went to Endless Abyss and found Miss Kong there. But something seemed to have happened to her in Endless Abyss. Miss Kong couldn't leave, so she sent a message to the Sikong Zen Temple, asking us to look for Fairy of a Hundred Flowers."

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What was the result?"

Sikong the Elder said proudly, "It's not like you don't know my abilities. Everything will be safe in my hands. My junior brother and I went to Qianrui Realm and claimed to be the bodhisattva of the western Buddhist world. Fairy of a Hundred Flowers didn't suspect anything when we sent your letter. She followed us to Royal City of Hundred Clans."

Zhang Ruochen was slightly relieved.

"But..."

Sikong the Elder's expression became complicated, "Before we entered Royal City of Hundred Clans, we met Saint Devourer. She told us that something big happened in Infernal Court that involved Fairy of a Hundred Flowers. We told her to hide her face and better not enter the city."

Zhang Ruochen said, "So, they're outside the city now?"

"They've already entered the city," Sikong the Elder said.

Zhang Ruochen frowned slightly and said, “Do you have something to say? Can you finish it all at once?”

Sikong the Elder smiled embarrassedly. “It’s like this. Fairy of a Hundred Flowers seems anxious to see you, so she must’ve entered the city. Moreover, there is a secret hideout in Qianrui Realm in Royal City of Hundred Clans. She can hide there.”

Qianrui Realm was a vital realm. Having a hideout in a place like Royal City of Hundred Clans was not strange.

Sikong the Elder told Zhang Ruochen about the secret stronghold. He winked and smiled. “Senior uncle, you are indeed a Yuanhui-level genius. You are very charming. In my opinion, that fairy must have fallen in love with you a long time ago. She misses you very much. Senior uncle, you’d better meet her quickly. Don’t make her wait so long.”

“Can you be like your junior brother and be an undesirous monk?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“Senior uncle’s words have enlightened me.”

Sikong the Elder quickly stopped smiling and closed his mouth. He put his hands together and nodded cautiously.

Zhang Ruochen knew that he was pretending. He sighed helplessly. Suddenly, he sensed something and stared out of the yard through the wall. Then he pushed the door open and said, “Your Highness, what can I do for you?”

Wearing plain clothes, Pan Ruo walked into the courtyard. She looked at the five masters of Fane of Death in monk robes.

Que Shenzi was overjoyed. He felt that his savior had finally arrived. He threw the pen on the ground and said loudly, “Your Highness, I have a question. I want to ask you.”

Pan Ruo said, “Please do.”

Que Shenzi said, “Fane of Destiny often tells us that the ten races of Infernal Court should unite and fight against the myriad realm of Celestial Court together. As a cultivator of Immortal Vampires, Zhang Ruochen captured us and forced us to be slaves. Is this against the will of Fane of Destiny?”

Snap!

Tian Shuzi broke the pen and stood up abruptly. He said in a low voice, “Zhang Ruochen is not a pure cultivator of Infernal Court. I suspect he is trying to create internal strife in Infernal Court and stir up disputes among the clans.”

Que Shenzi said, “How ambitious! Scioness, I dare say that Zhang Ruochen is the spy sent by Celestial Court to Infernal Court.”

Pan Ruo stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, “They are top Supreme Saints of Fane of Death after all. Isn’t it too humiliating to make them slaves?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I didn’t make them slaves. I just wanted to dissolve the hatred and resentment in their hearts and let them practice Buddhism. My two martial nephews even took them as disciples. How can they be called slaves?”

Que Shenzi sneered. “Practice Buddhism? Buddhism is crap.”

“We kill Buddhas,” said Tian Shuzi.

Pan Ruo’s eyes turned cold. She put her hands together and holy Buddhist light radiated from her body.

A Class 72 lotus platform grew out of the ground. It lifted her up from the ground.

Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi’s faces froze.

“I cultivate Buddhism too,” said Pan Ruo.

Boom

Sikong the Elder raised his monk staff and slammed it to the ground. He roared, “You two bastards, how dare you insult Buddha. Let’s see how I’ll deal with you. Kneel down and repent!”

The two staff landed instantly, knocking Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi to the ground.

“Where’s the pen? Copy Maitrī Sunyata Mantra 200 times. No, 1,000 times. Unacceptable!” Sikong the Elder cursed as he retrieved the pen from the fallen leaves and threw it to the two.

Pan Ruo put away the Buddhist light on her body and ignored them. Her beautiful eyes fell on Zhang Ruochen, trying to see through him.

If Zhang Ruochen had been possessed, he could fool others, but he could never fool her.

There was a beautiful road in the sacred land of Terra Demon. It was said that it was carved out by a god. Along the stone steps up the mountain, the cliffs were covered with purple-red flowers, and human-shaped butterflies were dancing on them.

Pan Ruo and Zhang Ruochen walked side by side. The mountains were silent.

Pan Ruo said, “During the seven days you were recovering, Fane of Destiny and Yanluo Clan led the city’s hundred clans to purge the Celestial Court cultivators. Countless people died. The corpses were nailed to the city wall. Some Supreme Saints are still alive and struggling on the wall.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Fane of Origin going out of secularity is a shocking event. Fane of Destiny and Yanluo Clan naturally don’t want Celestial Court to get involved.”

“Where’s Fairy of a Hundred Flowers?” Pan Ruo asked.

Zhang Ruochen stopped at the precipitous cliff and looked at the clouds in the mountains. He asked calmly, “What do you mean?”

Pan Ruo said, “Not long ago, there was news that Fairy of a Hundred Flowers did not hide or run away. Instead, she took the initiative to attack the warriors of Infernal Court stationed in Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt.

“She killed four Paramount Realm Supreme Saints in a row by herself and successfully escaped.”

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a moment and said lightly, "There are so many masters gathered in Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt. Even Xing Luo and Yuan Qianmo are guarding it. How could she escape?"

"It is said that she was seriously injured when she retreated and did not break into the wormhole," Pan Ruo said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "She is quite capable!"

"In fact, her appearance has cleared your suspicion," Pan Ruo said.

"Oh?"

"Many cultivators suspect that she hid on you and escaped from Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt to Royal City of Hundred Clans. Now, such suspicions naturally cease to exist."

Zhang Ruochen did not say a word. He stepped on the stone steps and continued to walk up.

Not long after, he arrived at the top of the sacred mountain.

Zhang Ruochen stood in bright sunlight and looked at the distant city and the beautiful scenery nearby. His mind gradually opened up. He thought to himself, what kind of mentality did the god of the past have when he was standing here?

Swoosh!

Ancient Abyssal Blade flew out naturally and floated in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the sword hilt when the sword soul rushed out of his body after he thought about it. Around his real body, he performed one exquisite sword technique after another.

The most basic Tianxin Sword Technique, Sword of Time, the sword technique from Wordless Sword Manual, his self-created sword technique, and Swordsmanship that he had comprehended from the five volumes of Azure Brush.

Pan Ruo stood in the distance and looked at Zhang Ruochen's real body, which was motionless, as well as the elegant sword soul dance. She could not help but show a complicated emotion in her eyes. There was sadness, touch, appreciation, disappointment...

All the doubts in her heart disappeared.

How could someone possess him?

How she longed that Zhang Ruochen was performing this sword dance for her.

However, she knew that Zhang Ruochen was only comprehending the sword. He had been immersed in his own world. Even when she was conversing with him, he had probably been comprehending the Swordsmanship in his heart.

She had never had the feeling of giving up the persistence in her heart so strong like this. Scioness, Pan Ruo, her future? How could it be better than a moment of beauty?

So what if the scene in Destiny Pool happened? At least it wasn't so painful now. They couldn't say a word even when standing in front of each other.

Death didn't seem so terrible.

The future might not be death.

Just as she thought of this, the scene she saw when Chi Yao brought her to Destiny Pool when she had just become Realm Bearer appeared in her mind again.

Zhang Ruochen was the same even in the boundless universe. He looked into the dark void space holding Ancient Abyssal Blade. An enormous palm flew out of the darkness. Instantly, many macroworlds were destroyed. Stars burned like sand, and billions of lives were reduced to ashes.

Zhang Ruochen struck out with his sword but only managed to block the hand for a moment. Ancient Abyssal Blade exploded and turned into pieces. He also turned into dust.

Some memories could not be cut off or forgotten.

She had told Zhang Ruochen that she had cut off her past memories. But in fact, it was all a lie. If she wanted to cut off her memories, she would have to forget everything in her previous life. If so, how could she still remember him?

She could not bear to break off those memories.

Pan Ruo covered her heart slightly, and her body trembled slightly. She closed her eyes, “No, I can’t regret my decision once I’ve taken this path. All living things in this world can die, but he has to live. He has to live well.”

Zhang Ruochen’s sword dance ended. His sword soul flew back into his body. He sighed, “It’s not that easy to practice Heaven Sword Soul. I still have to accumulate more.”

He had sensed something just now and tried to break through Heaven Sword Soul.

Unfortunately, he failed.

He looked back and found that Pan Ruo had left long ago. He was the only one left on the top of the mountain.

After a while, all the cultivators of Terra Demon saw lightning and thunder on the top of the mountain. There was also a hurricane, and the sky was dark.

Ancient Abyssal Blade had passed the fourth King’s Calamity and become a Class Four Regal Artifact.

Zhang Ruochen returned to the yard and met Xuan Zehai, Yan Huangtu, and the others. Then he locked himself in his room alone.

He took out Sevenstar Imperial Palace in his room and left Terra Demon’s sacred land with a dimensional teleportation array.

It was hard to enter Terra Demon’s sacred land through a dimensional teleportation array, but it was easy to get out.

Zhang Ruochen changed his appearance and went to the secret stronghold of Qianrui Realm according to the address given by Sikong the Elder.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen was tall and straight. He had silver hair, a pair of dragon horns on his head, and a mask on his face. His entire body exuded a rotten and dark aura of death.

When other cultivators saw him, they would only think that he was a Corpusian cultivator.

However, his appearance was the same as when he had entered Yin Yang Hall with Ji Fanxin to rescue her senior sister in the Celestial Domain of Truth.

“Ghostwood Manor.”

Zhang Ruochen looked up at the signboard above. There were three ghostly words written on them.

This was a huge manor. Behind the cyan-gray walls, there was black Ghostly Qi. Even if Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power had reached the 68th level, he couldn’t sense it.

“I wonder if Divine Domain of Destiny, Yanluo Clan, and Royal City of Hundred Clans have found this place.”

Zhang Ruochen wasn’t worried about his own safety. He was worried that he had harmed Ji Fanxin by letting her come to Royal City of Hundred Clans.

He stopped thinking. He was about to knock on the door when he heard a rumbling sound from the street on his right.

The sound of saint beasts running and the sound of metal armor colliding were intertwined.

Soon, a group of guards made up of hundreds of Saint-level cultivators appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen.

The saint-level guards lined up and surrounded Ghostwood Manor.

Two giant snow-white beasts walked out of the guards. They were two Supreme Saint-level beasts.

On the back of the giant beasts sat two Supreme Saints in armor. They were Princess Xue Lai of the Sengens and Han Ailian of the Yakshas.

Han Ailian’s eyes fell on Zhang Ruochen. Seeing that he was standing outside Ghostwood Manor and trying to enter. She ordered, “Take him down.”

A team of Saint-level warriors rushed out and surrounded Zhang Ruochen.

It was obvious that the secret stronghold of Qianrui Realm had been exposed. That was why Royal City of Hundred Clans' joint law enforcement team surrounded this place.

The cultivators in front of him were not to be feared.

However, the city had three gods and influential figures like the Clan Emperors. Once Ji Fanxin was captured, it would be difficult to save her.

Zhang Ruochen thought quickly and had a countermeasure.

Crash.

The two saints of the enforcement team had sharp eyes. They took out their chains and walked toward Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen sighed in his heart. Then, he stepped on the ground. Powerful Death Qi surged out, sending the two saints of the enforcement team flying. They fell heavily to the ground.

"You cultivators of Royal City of Hundred Clans are so impressive. Do you really think you can capture anyone as you like? Aren't you afraid of offending people you can't afford to offend?" Zhang Ruochen sneered.

"How dare you obstruct the enforcement team? You're guilty of death."

All the Saint-level cultivators of the enforcement team summoned their weapons. Their killing intent surged.

Han Ailian's gaze fell on the two saints who had been sent flying and found that they weren't injured at all. He quickly said, "Wait, put away your weapons."

He and Princess Xue Li jumped down from the beast and walked to Zhang Ruochen.

Han Ailian introduced himself first. "I'm Han Ailian of the Yakshas, my master is Jadea. May I know your name? Are you a Corpusian?"

Zhang Ruochen pretended to be profound. “Tell me first. Why are you arresting me? Have I done anything wrong? Or have I disturbed the order of Royal City of Hundred Clans?”

Princess Xue Lai had used her spiritual power to investigate him but discovered that she couldn’t see through him. She couldn’t help but be shocked. She didn’t dare to be too presumptuous.

She carefully said, “You may not know this, but we have discovered that the master behind this Ghostwood Manor is likely to be a cultivator of Celestial Court. Therefore, we have been ordered to come and surround the cultivator. You stood outside the door and looked like you wanted to go in. Naturally, we suspected you.”

Han Ailian nodded and said, “That’s right! If you can prove your innocence or tell us your name and background, we will immediately apologize to you.”

They had no choice. The other party’s cultivation was unfathomable, so they had to be cautious.

“Okay, I understand.”

Zhang Ruochen’s hand reached into his sleeve, trying to take something out.

There was another universe in his sleeve.

Zhang Ruochen took out an iron token and handed it to Han Ailian.

Han Ailian took the iron token and looked at it. His face suddenly changed. He immediately cupped his hands and bowed. “So you are the emissary of Fane of Destiny. Greetings, Emissary.”

“Greetings, Emissary!”

All the Saint-level Sergeants, including Princess Xue Lai, quickly bowed.

They were all cultivators from small clans. They couldn’t afford to offend Fane of Destiny.

The iron token had the mark of Destiny Token. It contained Destiny's aura.

Zhang Ruochen took the iron token back. "I'm the secret emissary of the Scioness. I came here because I had found something. I want to go in and investigate. Now that you're here, let's go in together."

Chapter 2548: The Sword of the Fairy

Han Ailian and Princess Xue Lai worked together and broke the array inscription on the door of the Ghostwood Manor without wasting much time.

As the representatives of the Sengens and the Yakshas, they naturally had strong cultivations since they were both cultivators at the Banshi Isshou Realm.

Zhang Ruochen entered the door first and emerged in the dimly lit manor.

It was a creepy scene before him. The vast garden was full of weeds and dead soil. There were also ancient gravestones with a sinister feel. It looked eerily like a place where the Ghost cultivators lived.

The gravestones were mottled and covered with vines. There were also rotten flowers growing on them.

It seemed that no one had lived here for many years. The gravestones were covered with cobwebs, with blood spiders the size of a human head crawling on the web. Sensing Zhang Ruochen's powerful aura, they crept toward the depths of the manor in fear.

In the distance, there were three or five dilapidated pitch-black and gloomy buildings.

Zhang Ruochen released his spiritual power and instantly enveloped the entire manor. Unfortunately, he emerged empty-handed. Finally, his gaze fell on a 20-foot-tall stone tablet.

The vines on the stone tablet were like water dragons. There were trails of blood veins on the leaves.

Zhang Ruochen walked over to the stone tablet, stepping on weeds and withered leaves. He raised his hand to lift the leaves. Seeing the ancient words carved on the tablet, he immediately withdrew his hand and didn't dare to touch it casually.

Han Ailian, Princess Xue Lai, and hundreds of law enforcement soldiers in divine armor entered from the outside.

Han Ailian led the soldiers to search the manor. They did not miss out on a single corner.

Princess Xue Lai saw Zhang Ruochen's strange behavior. Her eyes were as bright as the moon as she thought about it carefully. Following that, she strolled to Zhang Ruochen's side.

Zhang Ruochen knew that she had arrived, but he still stared at the stone tablet and didn't turn around.

Princess Xue Lai's voice was as clear as a spring. It was very pleasant. "What are you looking at, Envoy?" she asked.

"Do you recognize the words on the stone tablet?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Princess Xue Lai looked at the stone tablet. She frowned and shook her head, "There are many clans at the edge of the Infernal Court," she said. "Adding in the Celestial Court's numerous realms, there are at least 8,000 languages. The words on this stone tablet are bizarre. Even using spiritual power, I am unable to decipher them!"

"These are characters carved by deities. Your spiritual power is too weak, so there is no doubt that you cannot decipher them!" Zhang Ruochen said.

Speaking to Princess Xue Lai so rudely was enough to provoke public anger.

Princess Xue Lai didn't look unhappy at all. "If that's the case," she said, "Let's dig this stone tablet away and bring it back to the clan to study it."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, “How dare you touch the gravestone carved by the gods? Be careful that you could turn into ashes in an instant.”

After saying this, Zhang Ruochen turned around and left. He had never looked Princess Xue Lai in the eye, which made her feel a little disappointed.

After all, the person in front of her was the Envoy of Destiny from the Fane of Destiny. His cultivation was unfathomable, and he was a person worth befriending.

Since the other party was so cold to her, it was obvious that he did not care about her beauty and looked down on her cultivation.

Princess Xue Lai glanced at the tombstone again fearfully. In this ancient tomb, there were all kinds of traps left behind by the deities. She could not act rashly.

Of course, she did not think there was anything extraordinary in the tomb.

How could something extraordinary be buried here?

Han Ailian and hundreds of saint-level soldiers turned the manor upside down. They searched everywhere but found nothing.

Walking out of the Ghostwood Manor, Han Ailian smiled awkwardly at Zhang Ruochen. “It seems that we’ve all received the wrong information. No one has come to this place for thousands of years.”

“It must be the cultivators of the Celestial Court who deliberately led us to the wrong place. Otherwise, we wouldn’t have found this place at the same time.”

After saying this, Zhang Ruochen left directly.

Han Ailian wanted to invite him to the Yakshas as a guest, but just as she spoke, Zhang Ruochen’s figure had turned into a mere shadow and disappeared at the end of the street.

“He’s an elite of the Fane of Destiny. How could he be interested in small clans like us?” Princess Xue Lai sighed.

Her voice was calm and emotionless, but her heart had a faint resentment. She was dissatisfied with Zhang Ruochen's cold arrogance.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't being cold at all. In fact, he had discovered the traces left by Ji Fanxin. He wanted to cover it up as much as possible. How could he have time to care about the feelings of a woman he didn't even know?

After Han Ailian and Princess Xue Lai left with the law enforcement soldiers, Zhang Ruochen sneaked back to the Ghostwood Manor and came to the 20-foot-tall stone tablet again.

The words on the stone tablet were indeed carved by a deity.

These words were very ancient. However, Zhang Ruochen had seen them in an ancient book stored in the book paradise of the Yaojue King in the Qianrui Realm. Therefore, he was sure that he had found the right place.

Zhang Ruochen pressed his palm on the stone tablet and injected Saint Qi into it.

Crash

The divine inscriptions on the stone tablet glowed with a faint light. Then, a vast force started to suck inwards.

Zhang Ruochen did not resist the suction force, and his body was pulled inside.

It was as if he had passed through an invisible door and arrived in a world of darkness. His surroundings were unusually quiet. It was as if he had left the Royal City of Hundred Clans and arrived in another space.

Zhang Ruochen was calm and collected. He opened his palm, and a ball of fire appeared in it.

In front of him was the passage of Youshen. It kept going down.

Zhang Ruochen walked down the passage. Not long after, a light appeared in front of him. His field of vision gradually widened, and a seven-story ancient tower that was built into a stone wall appeared,

The ancient tower was hundreds of feet tall. It was extremely imposing and gave off a faint divine might.

Below the ancient tower, where Zhang Ruochen was standing, was a 300-foot-long and 300-foot-wide platform. In the southwest corner of the platform was a strange tree as thick as a water bucket. Its trunk was pitch-black, but its leaves were crimson like blood. The tree was covered with shiny fruits.

The light that illuminated this place came from the leaves and fruits of the tree.

There were colorful flowers on the stone wall where the ancient tower was located. Each of them was very old, and the pollen scattered down like a rain of light.

Zhang Ruochen sniffed slightly, and a smile appeared on his face. He looked at the ancient tower and declared, “Zhang Ruochen has arrived. Why hasn’t the fairy shown herself yet?”

He and Ji Fanxin could be considered close friends. They had gone through many hardships together and were no longer mere allies. It wasn’t an exaggeration to call them confidants to each other.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen was still quite happy to see her.

He was happy not because he could find the Fane of Origin with her Path of Origin but because he had met an old friend in a foreign land.

However, there was no response from the ancient tower, so it was somewhat awkward.

Zhang Ruochen came back to his senses and wiped his smile away. He said carefully, “I have smelled the fragrance of flowers from the fairy. Are you in the ancient tower? There is indeed some misunderstanding between us. I will explain everything if you open the door for me.”

There was still no response from the tower.

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly. He walked along the long stairs to the tower door embedded in the stone wall and said, “Ruochen, had come to see the fairy in person.”

After walking half of the flight of stairs, there was a sudden strong fluctuation of the Path from above. A pink ball of light the size of a fist formed out of nowhere and flew toward Zhang Ruochen.

Boom

The pink ball of light exploded and turned into flower petals that flashed out like lightning.

Zhang Ruochen was secretly surprised. He quickly shot out his hands and froze the space in front of him, turning it into an invisible shield.

Rumble

The flower petals contained power far beyond Zhang Ruochen's estimation. They quickly broke through the frozen space.

"Such power?"

Zhang Ruochen cast the Divine Purification Flame. At the same time, he flew backward and landed on the platform at the bottom of the stairs.

Most of the petals were burned into ashes by the divine fire.

A few pieces continued to fly through the flames. Zhang Ruochen dodged and avoided the crucial parts.

Even so, a strand of hair was still cut off. The petals flew inches by his neck.

"Is the cultivator in the ancient tower really Ji Fanxin? She can't be so powerful. Could there be an elite of the Qianrui Realm with her? There shouldn't be!"

Even though Zhang Ruochen trusted Ji Fanxin, he was now on guard.

A familiar and beautiful voice rang out from the ancient tower. "Isn't Ruochen, the son of a deity known as the genius of the Yuanhui period? He killed everyone on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. How impressive is that, so how can he be so weak?"

Zhang Ruochen could hear the sarcasm in Ji Fanxin's words. He smiled bitterly and said, "Other cultivators couldn't understand me. Is the fairy the same as the others too?"

Ji Fanxin didn't show up. Her voice floated out of the ancient tower again, "You killed dozens of cultivators from the Qianrui Realm on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. How do you expect me to understand you? You know, countless cultivators from the Qianrui Realm are petitioning to kill you."

"If the fairy thinks such of me, why would she risk her life to come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans?" Zhang Ruochen still didn't believe that Ji Fanxin would look at him like the other cultivators did.

"I'm here to kill you, to avenge the dead cultivators of the Qianrui Realm, and to avenge all the cultivators of the Celestial Court who you killed. I'll personally chop off your head and bring it back to wash away the stain of my friendship with you."

Ji Fanxin, who was all dressed in white, appeared on the third floor of the ancient tower while wearing a veil.

Swoosh

She was strikingly beautiful and flew down like a Saintess of Brahma. Her fine black hair fanned out behind her like a waterfall. However, the pair of moist eyes above the veil was more than ten times more beautiful than Princess Xue Lai's. Any man in the world would be mesmerized by her.

Accompanied by a shower of flowers, she descended from the sky and stabbed at Zhang Ruochen between his eyebrows.

Zhang Ruochen retreated quickly. However, Ji Fanxin's sword suddenly increased in speed. In an instant, she was already right in front of him. Her eyes were reflecting light from the sword.

He waved his right arm and collided with the sword while his body dodged to the left.

"Fairy, there's no need for swords and knives between us, right? Can you give me a chance to explain?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Ji Fanxin was unwilling to let him go. “If you win, I’ll give you a chance to explain. Otherwise, you’ll be dead by my sword,” she declared.

With a swoosh, she changed her sword maneuver. A divine lotus of Sword Qi swirled up and hit Zhang Ruochen’s chest, and he was sent flying hundreds of feet away. Unexpectedly his Demigod-level physique couldn’t deflect it.

Zhang Ruochen rubbed his aching chest. He could see that Ji Fanxin’s sword had no killing intent. She didn’t really want to kill him, so he said rather seriously, “Then I will entertain you with a good fight.”

Chapter 2549: The Boundary of Trust

Ji Fanxin's strength was beyond Zhang Ruochen's expectations. Each sword was stronger than the last. Its power could destroy the moon and stars. Even if Zhang Ruochen mobilized the power of Qiankun and drove the demigod's body to its full power, it was still not enough.

There seemed to be an abyss filled with Saint Qi in her body. The Qi power was endless and could topple mountains and overturn seas.

However, the moves she displayed were very shallow and had many flaws, as she stuck at the level of Saint King.

This was why Zhang Ruochen could use his marvelous Saint Technique and body movements to fight for a chance to survive from her continuous and uninterrupted sword moves.

She was too powerful!

Logically speaking, Ji Fanxin had broken through the Supreme Sainthood almost the same time as him. How could her cultivation have surpassed his without a time treasure like sundial?

The only explanation was that Ji Fanxin's cultivation had been stronger than his since the beginning.

"It's over. Your head doesn't belong to you anymore!"

Ji Fanxin stopped where she was and radiated a dazzling light of Origin as if a huge moon hovering near the ground.

Her stunning body stood at the center of the moon. Her shapely curves were set off to perfection. With a twist of her wrist, she swung out a powerful sword and slashed horizontally.

The Sword Qi gushed out and filled the entire space. Zhang Ruochen had no way to retreat.

Zhang Ruochen only felt the Precepts of heaven and earth in this space were pushed aside by her precepts of Swordsmanship. The Sword Light in front of him was like the Ganges in the vast universe, giving him an irresistible and terrifying power.

He was like a paper man, about to be torn apart instantly.

Swoosh!

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the hilt of the Ancient Abyssal Blade with both hands, and the sea of stars rushed out of his body.

The light emitted by the sea of stars was not weaker than the light of Origin on Ji Fanxin.

The sword hacked down.

The ear-piercing and dense sound of the sword rang out, interweaving into a somber war song.

This sword strike was perfect. It struck precisely at the weakest point of Ji Fanxin's Sword Qi.

With a bang, the majestic river of Sword Qi, like the Ganges, was cut in half by Zhang Ruochen's sword strike.

A hint of surprise appeared in Ji Fanxin's beautiful eyes. Then, she rushed in front of Zhang Ruochen with incomparable speed.

The bright and slender sword pressed against Zhang Ruochen's neck.

Zhang Ruochen used all his strength to break her previous sword strike. How could he still have the strength to dodge this sword strike?

He looked down at the tip of the sword that was right in front of him. He was neither nervous nor flustered. After this confrontation, Zhang Ruochen understood Ji Fanxin did not use all her strength. Her cultivation was beyond imagination.

There was no point in fighting continuously.

He looked at Ji Fanxin sincerely and full of emotion.

Ji Fanxin's veil fluttered gently, and her celestial beauty was faintly discernible. She said, "Do you think you deserve to die?"

"Yes," Zhang Ruochen replied.

Ji Fanxin asked, "Why should you die?"

"The hatred between Celestial Court and Infernal Court is as deep as the sea. I was originally a cultivator from Celestial Court, but I joined Infernal Court. It's an unpardonable crime. On the battlefield of Celestial Hunting, I killed countless cultivators from Celestial Court. I deserve to die," Zhang Ruochen said.

Ji Fanxin's beautiful eyes showed disapproval. She snorted and said, "That's not why I want to kill you! If you, Zhang Ruochen, can stick to your heart, what's the difference between Celestial Court and Infernal Court?"

"My heart hasn't changed," Zhang Ruochen said.

Ji Fanxin asked, "What were you thinking when you killed those celestial captives?"

"I want to be alive. I can't die," Zhang Ruochen said calmly.

"You're afraid of death?"

"I'm afraid of death, but it depends on why I die. If the meaning of death is greater than alive, I'm not afraid of death."

Ji Fanxin carefully looked into Zhang Ruochen's eyes and asked one last question, "Why did you frame me?"

Zhang Ruochen knew what she was asking. He said, "I had no choice but to use your name. I thought you won't be angry since we were friends."

It was Bai Qing'er who used Ji Fanxin's name to start a massacre in the Infernal Court. It had nothing to do with Zhang Ruochen.

However, Bai Qing'er knew Kunlun cultivators' plan to save the Lord of Nephilim Island, so she threatened Zhang Ruochen with it to keep her secret and continuously blamed everything on Ji Fanxin.

Ji Fanxin said, "You're wrong. I'm very angry. Tell me, who is she?"

Zhang Ruochen did not hide anything. He told her everything about Bai Qing'er.

Even though Zhang Ruochen trusted Ji Fanxin, he still hid Kunlun cultivators' plan to save the Lord of Nephilim Island.

Thus, he failed to explain many things.

For example, Zhang Ruochen had already escaped from Bai Qing'er. Why did he still point out Ji Fanxin killed Dan Qiu of the Fane of Death and Lu Baitou of the Fane of Barasingha?

Another example was that Zhang Ruochen had already come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Why didn't he reveal the true identity of Bai Qing'er? Why did he let Ji Fanxin continue to be wronged? Why did he continue to let Bai Qing'er use Ji Fanxin's name to offend the entire Infernal Court?

Ji Fanxin said faintly, "You're in love with Ms. Bai. You want to help her cover everything up and even falsely accuse me, your so-called best friend?"

"No, there's something else."

Zhang Ruochen felt helpless. He thought Ji Fanxin was different from other women and that she was a reasonable person. He did not expect that women were all the same. She would not forgive him unless he explained the reason. Moreover, she was too picky.

The tip of the sword was closer to Zhang Ruochen's neck.

Ji Fanxin said, "Every man says there is a hidden reason when he can't argue. You told me to come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans to reminisce about old times. But in reality, you want to help her exploit me, right?"

"That's a false accusation, a pure false accusation. I'm here for a serious matter, and it's a big one," Zhang Ruochen reached out to move the sword by his neck.

However, the tip had already pierced the skin on his neck before his fingers touched the sword.

A terrifying chill froze Zhang Ruochen's neck.

Ji Fanxin said coldly, "Don't tell me anything big. I can't trust you anymore."

"It's not the first time you met me. Why can't you trust me?"

Ji Fanxin said, "People change. After you go to the Infernal Court, who knows if you are still the same Zhang Ruochen? Unless you can bring me to meet Ms. Bai and confront her. I'll believe you if you're telling the truth."

"She is a very dangerous and temperamental woman. You'd better not see her," Zhang Ruochen advised.

With Bai Qing'er's ambition, she would be very interested in the Lotus of Divine Reflection in order to practice the path of Origin. Ji Fanxin meeting her was like offering herself to her. What was the difference between that and a sheep entering a tiger's mouth?

Ji Fanxin said, "You have told me all her abilities. If I still dare to meet her, it means I have the confidence to escape.

"Besides, if I don't meet her, how can I know whether you're telling me the truth?"

"Well, I'll take you to meet her when the time is right." Zhang Ruochen agreed and said, "You have no intention to kill me. You trust me in your heart. So there's no point pointing your sword at me, right?"

A cold light flashed in Ji Fanxin's eyes. She seemed to want to force out some killing intent, but she failed. She had no choice but to put the sword back.

“I didn’t make up my mind to kill you. It’s not because I trust you, but because I want to trust you.”

“Trust” and “Want to Trust” were clearly different.

Wanting to trust meant that her rationality told her to not trust him, but her emotions forced herself to trust him.

Zhang Ruochen knew clearly that his relationship with Ji Fanxin was like this. When they seemed close, they were very distant. When they seemed distant, they were close enough to trust each other.

However, there was a limit to this trust. It couldn’t be unreserved.

There was a mountain between the two of them.

It was a boundary.

After crossing this mountain, true love would emerge in each other’s hearts. Then, they could only trust each other without reservation. Their relationship will be sublimated. They would never forget each other and would give everything to each other from then on.

If they did not cross this mountain, they would always be friends. There would always be a distance between them.

Zhang Ruochen and Ji Fanxin were both cultivators who knew how to restrain their feelings. They wouldn’t easily cross that boundary.

They knew there was no such thing as “friendship” between men and women. Once they climbed it, their relationship could improve, but it also became a hindrance on their path of cultivation.

After a long time, Ji Fanxin broke the silence and said, “Your sword technique was exquisite. What’s the name?”

“The Song of Azure.”

Zhang Ruochen also questions, “How can your cultivation be so high?”

Ji Fanxin just stared at him without answering him immediately. She turned and walked up the stairs to the tower gate. Her back was indescribably beautiful.

She had not been wary of Zhang Ruochen's sneak attack. She trusted him.

Zhang Ruochen followed closely.

"How much do you know about the Lotus of Divine Reflection?" she suddenly asked.

Zhang Ruochen straightforwardly said, "The Lotus of Divine Reflection was born in the void space of the universe. It has no roots or leaves. It's a lotus flower formed by the power of the Origin of the universe."

"Now, I'll take you to the place I was born."

Ji Fanxin came to the gate of the ancient tower and paused for a moment.

Zhang Ruochen walked to her side and stared at the pattern on the stone gate. He found it was made of interwoven dimensional inscriptions. Some of the dimensional inscriptions were so profound that even he couldn't understand them.

Swoosh—

Ji Fanxin pushed the gate of the ancient tower open. The surging Qi of Origin gushed out of the gate instantly. The strong brilliance made Zhang Ruochen squint his eyes.

In the door, he saw a glittering ocean and a beautiful starry sky above the ocean.

The scene on the other side of the door was extremely beautiful and soul-stirring.

Chapter 2550: Sea of Origin

Two of them crossed the half-foot-high threshold of the stone door together.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen sensed a strong dimensional fluctuation around him.

In the next moment, he and Ji Fanxin were floating in the void of the universe.

In front of them was the sea formed by the liquefied Qi of Origin. The seawater was sparkling and connected to the edge of the starry sky. It was pretty magnificent.

Under Zhang Ruochen's feet, the liquified and gaseous power of Origin flowed together. It was illusive and strange.

A stone door suspended in the air was behind him.

It was the passage they had just passed.

Ji Fanxin walked into the sea. The seawater soaked her long dress and stuck to her fair legs. The ends of her long black hair flitted across the water and gradually became moist.

The scene reminded Zhang Ruochen of the night he was in Royal Mountain in the Eastern Region of Kunlun. Ji Fanxin had suffered from a mysterious old scoundrel's evil medicine. She had bathed in the Holy Lake and refined the evil medicine.

The sky was also filled with stars.

At that time, Ji Fanxin was also in the water. He was also on the shore.

The difference was that Ji Fanxin's clothes were off, and his back faced the water then.

Looking at this scene and thinking back to that time, it felt like years had passed.

Ji Fanxin didn't seem to care about Zhang Ruochen's gaze. She looked far off and suddenly spoke, "I don't remember how long has it been since I grew up in this ocean. Oh, no. It has to be the Qi of Origin between heaven and earth gathered and condensed into this ocean because of me."

Master used the Power of Dimensions to remain this ocean here after I left with my Master.

Zhang Ruochen sighed slightly and said, "A Lotus of Divine Reflection can condense such a vast amount of liquified origin energy like the ocean. How powerful is this Lotus of Divine Reflection? Divinity?"

Ji Fanxin shook her head slightly and said, "I don't know how powerful my cultivation is. Master sealed my cultivation and power after I cultivated the flesh-and-blood body."

Zhang Ruochen could understand what Mandala Goddess was doing. Ji Fanxin was like a baby girl who didn't know anything since she had just cultivated the flesh-and-blood body.

It wouldn't be good if a baby girl could master the power to smash the stars with a hand wave. Instead, it would be a disaster and might even hurt her.

She had to be like other baby girls. She had to learn the language, movements, knowledge, martial techniques, and exercises from a young age. She had to train and develop a strong cognition and spiritual step by step. Only then could she gradually unseal the power in her body.

Ji Fanxin said, "Originally, I had five seals in my body in the Supreme Sainthood. They corresponded to the Neverwilt Realm, the Hundred-Shackle Realm, the Thousand-Koan Realm, the Banshi Isshou Realm, and the Paramount Realm. I had to unseal them step by step."

However, I refined the Heart of the Divine Tree you gave me and gained the knowledge of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree. So, I unsealed all five seals at once.

You have the cultivation of the Paramount Realm now? What is the Saintwill you practice? Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but ask.

Ji Fanxin said, "I am the incarnation of the Origin. The Saintwill is naturally the Origin Saintwill."

How can there be a Saintwill named after the Origin...

Zhang Ruochen suddenly thought of something just as he said this. He looked at Ji Fanxin with shock and surprise.

Would Ji Fanxin's relationship with the Path of Origin be the same as the Heart of Truth and the Path of Truth?

Zhang Ruochen could infinitely withstand the Canon of Truth between heaven and earth as he had the Heart of Truth. Therefore, he didn't need to practice the Saintwill of the Path of Truth deliberately.

Ji Fanxin had been alive since the Hadean, which was an unusual thing in itself.

Perhaps she could really be addressed as the "Heart of Origin."

Even Zhang Ruochen wondered if the appearance of the Fane of Origin at this time had something to do with her breaking through to the Paramount Realm of the Supreme Sainthood.

Zhang Ruochen used the Eye of Truth to observe the surroundings.

He found that the ocean formed by the Power of Origin was surrounded by dense Dimensional Inscription. In addition, there was a very profound Cloaking Array Inscription.

Ji Fanxin turned around and looked at him. She said, "Actually, I would still come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans even if you didn't ask me to meet you."

Because of this ocean? Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yes!

Ji Fanxin nodded and said, “Can you lend me the Violet Gourd for a while?”

Zhang Ruochen was slightly stunned. He didn’t expect that Ji Fanxin, who had deliberately distanced herself from him, would suddenly become rude.

Splash!

Splash!

...

Ji Fanxin walked out of the water and sighed, “Since you could directly give Lord Xia Yu a Supreme Artifact. I thought you wouldn’t hesitate to lend me a Supreme Artifact based on our relationship. Our relationship should be closer than hers, right?”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. He took out the Violet Gourd and handed it over. “How can I, Zhang Ruochen, be a stingy person? The Heart of the Divine Tree I gave you isn’t much less than a Supreme Artifact, right?”

Ji Fanxin stretched out her soft-sleek hand and took the Violet Gourd. “Don’t worry. I won’t take advantage of you for anything. I’ll give you something very precious as a token of my appreciation when the time is right.”

Zhang Ruochen was slightly startled and said, “Can you tell me what you will give me in advance? I’ll look forward to it.”

In short, it’s very precious. I think its value is even higher than the Heart of the Divine Tree, Ji Fanxin said.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, “Since it’s so precious, I don’t want it.”

Are you sure?

Zhang Ruochen nodded thoughtfully and said, “I lent the Violet Gourd to you because of our friendship, not because I want your reward.”

Forget it if you don’t want it!

Ji Fanxin shook her head gently. She felt Zhang Ruochen was even more pretentious than before.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I will be very grateful if you can change the reward to help me practice the Saintwill."

Ji Fanxin, who held the gourd and planned to collect the ocean before her, became prudent. She seriously said, "Is this why you invited me to the Royal City of Hundred Clans? You are so talented. Do you need my help to practice the Saintwill?"

She didn't continue to address Zhang Ruochen as "Scion," which made Zhang Ruochen feel good. He smiled and said, "Of course. I asked you to come here because the Saintwill you practice is extraordinary."

Don't say it yet. Let's talk more after I take this ocean of Qi of Origin.

Ji Fanxin was disturbed by Zhang Ruochen's words. She calmed herself down and continued to operate the gourd.

Rumble.

A massive pillar of water rushed out of the ocean and poured into the Violet Gourd.

Zhang Ruochen stood at the side and sniffed the alluring fragrance from her body. He asked, "Why not Mandala Goddess take away this ocean with her profound cultivation?"

The precepts of heaven and earth here are special. Many places are similar to the Hadean. Master worried it would be difficult for me to survive if I left here. She can immediately send me back to this place if anything happens. "I naturally don't have such worries now. So, I will take it away and use it to raise my cultivation base."

It took her half a day to put the entire ocean into the gourd.

Two of them returned to the ancient tower along the same path. They sat under the ancient tree with blood-red leaves.

Ji Fanxin was as calm as water. She took off the white veil on her face and revealed her mesmerizing face. She had eyebrows as beautiful as painting, almond-shaped eyes, pretty nose, and light-colored lips. She seemed even more beautiful than when she was a Saint Kinghood. Her temperament was much better than before.

Even Zhang Ruochen, who had seen all the beauties, was stunned for a moment. It was as if his soul had left his body.

You have seen it before. Do you have to stare intently? Ji Fanxin glanced over. Her eyes contained endless charm, like the beauty of all the flowers in the world.

A very sexy long-legged witch sat on the third stone platform of the ancient tower. She chuckled and said, “You don’t understand the absence makes his heart grow fonder. I’m afraid he has forgotten about his lovely wife, Princess Luo Sha.”

Zhang Ruochen knew where Moyin was sitting. “You’ve become more beautiful. Everyone loves beauty. So what if I admire you?”

Moyin said extremely gently, “Master, I have to be fair. You already have children and a wife who’s officially engaged, but you’re secretly meeting other women in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. “You don’t want your reputation, but how about the fairy? “You know Princess Luo Sha well. She is intelligent and resourceful. She will do whatever it takes to destroy the reputation of fairy in the Celestial Court once she knows it.”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t think much of it at first, but he started to worried after hearing what Moyin said.

After all, Luo Sha had taken Mu Lingxi away without anyone knowing.

If Luo Sha had been monitoring Zhang Ruochen, it was very likely that she would have also paid attention to the Moyin’s every move and discovered that Ji Fanxin had come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Luo Sha would definitely do something like destroying Ji Fanxin’s reputation.

Ji Fanxin was calm and collected. She said, “Didn’t you destroy more than half of my reputation when you were with Miss Bai? Everyone addressed you as a crafty old scoundrel in the Celestial Court.”

Zhang Ruochen looked apologetic. "I feel guilty. I'll give you the Violet Gourd..."

No, don't give me the Violet Gourd. I won't dare to use it even if you give it to me.

Ji Fanxin asked, "What about the Blossoms Brew?"

Huh? Zhang Ruochen asked.

Ji Fanxin said, "You said in the letter that you wanted me to come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans and drink a cup of Blossoms Brew with you. Have you forgotten about this?"

It's just an excuse. I have something important to discuss with you, Zhang Ruochen said seriously.

Ji Fanxin leaned forward and moved closer to Zhang Ruochen. She shook her head slightly and stubbornly said, "I'm not interested in anything important if I can't drink the Blossoms Brew."

Okay, I'll buy it now.

Zhang Ruochen had no choice. He had a favor to ask, so he had to give in.

He had just walked a few steps out when Ji Fanxin's beautiful voice came from behind him. "Buy? How can you buy the Blossoms Brew? How can it be titled Blossoms Brew if the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers does not brew it?"

The intoxicating fragrance of wine wafted out.

The smell of wine turned into petals in the air. They were colorful and extraordinary.

Zhang Ruochen was touched. He smiled and shook his head. He turned around and sat back down. Looked at the three-foot-tall bronze flagon in Ji Fanxin's hand and said, "Did you brew this yourself?"

Chapter 2551: Location of the Fane of Origin

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The Blossoms Brew was brewed by the first drop of dew on the petals of hundreds of saint flowers that Ji Fanxin collected every morning.

It was not strong, but it was incredibly fragrant and mellow.

After drinking three bottles in a row, Zhang Ruochen took out a supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and moved it in front of Ji Fanxin.

Ji Fanxin sensed the pure power of Origin from the Divine Crystal and picked it up with a soft exclamation, “It’s a supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. It seems that my perception is correct. The Fane of Origin is really about to come into being after disappearing for countless years.”

“You sensed it long ago?”

“I sensed it, but it’s feeble. The Fane of Origin should be very far from me,” she said.

Zhang Ruochen frowned slightly. Very far?

The Fane of Origin wasn’t in the Royal City of Hundred Clans?

What happened with the Light of Origin coming from Night Ocean, the sacred land of the Yakshas?

Zhang Ruochen said, “Can you sense the location of the Fane of Origin with the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?”

“I can try.”

Ji Fanxin held the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin with both hands and closed her beautiful eyes. Her body emitted an increasingly bright white light, making her skin as sparkling as jade and adding to her unworldly charm.

Zhang Ruochen had already questioned the Seven-Armed Elder, but the elder was very stubborn. He claimed he had won all the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and had never been to the Fane of Origin.

Taking this opportunity, Zhang Ruochen sent a Spirit into the Qiankun Realm.

The Seven-Armed Elder sat cross-legged under the Divine Sky-connecting Tree like an old monk meditating. He practiced an ancient spiritual power technique. He mobilized all the saint Qi from heaven and earth around him to form a unique domain.

The energy contained in the domain was so strong that ordinary Supreme Saint couldn't get close.

The Seven-Armed Elder immediately sensed it when Zhang Ruochen appeared at the edge of his spiritual power domain. He put away the spell and opened his old eyes. He sighed, "Ruochen, you've imprisoned me for so long. I've agreed to all your conditions. Why can't you let me go?"

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to argue with him, "I've found a powerful Master of Origin," he said. "She's sensing the direction of the Fane of Origin. It's not too late for you to tell me the truth. If you wait a little longer, you'll be worthless!"

The Seven-Armed Elder's eyes narrowed. He smiled and said, "Everything I've said to you is the truth."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. He waved his sleeve and opened the door between the Qiankun Realm and the World Gate. He let the Seven-Armed Elder see Ji Fanxin was carefully sensing the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin in her hand.

The smile on the Seven-Armed Elder's face couldn't hold back anymore. He quickly realized that his value was minimal.

A cultivator with no value had no meaning to be alive.

He looked slightly anxious and said, "Your Highness, the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers is just a little girl. How could she sense the exact location of the Fane of Origin?"

"Actually, I've been to the Fane of Origin long ago. All the treasures in Fane of Origin will belong to Xue Jue Family as long as I lead the way.”

Zhang Ruochen ignored him. He looked at the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers through the World Gate.

The Seven-Armed Elder was even more anxious. He said, “Your Highness, are you blaming me for deceiving you? “Your Highness, I’ve no choice. I’m just trying to save my life. “If I had told you everything, would you have let me be alive?”

“Where is the Fane of Origin?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The Seven-Armed Elder wanted to fight for some benefits. “Your Highness, you have to promise to spare my life. Besides, I have admired the Wargod Bloodximus for many years. I have nothing else to ask for. I just want to ask for your recommendation to let me be his apprentice, Your Highness,” he said.

“You won’t have a chance to talk anymore if you continue to talk nonsense!” Zhang Ruochen said.

The Seven-Armed Elder said, “The Fane of Origin is in a hidden macroworld. That world used to be very glorious. However, a terrible disaster happened for unknown reasons at a certain time in history. Almost all lives were wiped out. “There were more living things born millions of years later, but the inheritance was cut off. Now, it’s in decline. It had become an inferior and weak world.”

“Where exactly?”

“The Southern Sword Realm.”

Zhang Ruochen was stunned. He thought he had misheard. He asked again, “Where did you say?”

“The Southern Sword Realm! It was a macroworld hidden in the universe calculated by the Fane of Destiny Divination Division. Then, the Death Palace sent a Deathwraith Legion to attack it. “It’s a vast macroworld. Unfortunately, there aren’t many Saint Kings-level creatures. The Death Palace is disappointed,” said the Seven-Armed Elder.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “How do you know so much?”

“I...”

The Seven-Armed Elder smiled awkwardly and said, "I have some ability, and at least I'm well-informed. I received the news that the Southern Sword Realm was discovered, so I secretly followed the Deathwraith Legion of Death Palace. I plan to be the first to go there and get some benefits."

"I was as disappointed as the Deathwraith Legion after I went there. But such a vast macroworld is comparable to some eternal and indestructible Macroworld. How could it be so barren?"

"I wasn't willing to give up, so I used my powerful spiritual power to carefully explore that macroworld for months. Finally, I found the Fane of Origin in the ocean's depths when I was about to give up."

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Have you been inside?"

"Your Highness, don't worry. Listen to me."

He said suddenly, "Can you promise to spare my life now?"

"I won't kill you as long as you're telling the truth," Zhang Ruochen said with a friendly smile.

The Seven-Armed Elder was delighted and asked, "What about being the apprentice of Wargod Bloodximius?"

"Don't even think about it," Zhang Ruochen said.

The Seven-Armed Elder was disappointed and a little unwilling. He said, "What about becoming the apprentice of Blood Empress?"

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment. The Seven-Armed Elder was a top master with 69th-level spiritual power, and his gambling skills were unparalleled. He could accept it if the elder really wanted to join the Xue Jue family.

The three gods of the Xue Jue family lived side by side. They were not afraid of his betrayal.

Zhang Ruochen said, "We can discuss with Blood Empress."

A superior like the Seven-Armed Elder could get high status and treatment by joining any force.

There are a few reasons why he chose to join the Xue Jue family. First, he had become Zhang Ruochen's prisoner. He had no choice but to do it to save his life.

The second reason was he didn't have much time left, but there were many Springs of Life beneath the Divine Sky-connecting Tree.

He had joined Zhang Ruochen if he joined the Blood Empress.

How could Zhang Ruochen not extend his life?

Third, everyone knew the Xue Jue family was rising. He would not suffer if he joined the Xue Jue family. Perhaps he could gain more benefits and success like others in the Xue Jue family.

Previously, the Seven-Armed Elder didn't tell Zhang Ruochen the truth because he felt Zhang Ruochen's cultivation was too low and his status was not high enough.

If one of the gods of the Xue Jue family asked him personally, he would have told him the position of the Fane of Origin long ago to exchange for his lofty status in the Xue Jue family.

Of course, there was also a part of the reason because he still had a fantasy that Zhang Ruochen was easy to deceive and he should have a chance to escape.

Such a fantasy was naturally shattered.

The Seven-Armed Elder began to tell the story. He said, "Actually, I'm still unsure it's the Fane of Origin. I saw many ancient ruins after I dived into the ocean's depths. Indeed, there was an extremely magnificent fane at the densest part of the ruins."

"That fane was extremely dilapidated. It was filled with countless strange flowers and plants I had never heard of or seen before. Some stars in that space were floating in the ocean, giving off a strange brilliance."

Zhang Ruochen interrupted him and said, "Are you saying that stars are floating in the ocean? And there are more than one?"

"Yes! They are real stars, and they are really floating in the ocean. The biggest one is probably 30,000 miles in diameter," the Seven-Armed Elder said with conviction.

Zhang Ruochen said, “How deep and wide is the ocean? Isn’t the ocean’s density the same as the stars’ density? How high is the water pressure at the bottom of the ocean?”

“Your Highness, you’re right. The bottom of the ocean is not a place ordinary cultivators can go. “That’s why the cultivators of the Southern Sword Realm entitle it as the Ocean of Demon. It’s difficult to enter and see the secrets inside.”

The Seven-Armed Elder continued, “The stars floating in the water should be an array. “I spent a lot of effort to break in. I triggered the array and almost died inside before I found the fane entrance. “So, I quickly went back the way I came. I didn’t dare to go any deeper.”

“Where did you get the five supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin since you haven’t entered the fane?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“I found a Stone Fane when I passed by one of the stars. Not only did I find the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, but I also found a treasure.”

The Seven-Armed Elder pointed to his left eye.

Suddenly, a circle of Light of Origin appeared in the eyeball of his left eye, and it emitted pure life power.

“I found a pearl in the Stone Fane and refined it into my eyeball. So, my eye can see through the Origin of Life,” The Seven-Armed Elder smiled proudly.

Zhang Ruochen said, “That’s why you were so sure the Rainbow Viburnum was alive at the Citadel Casino of the House of Enchanteurs?”

The Seven-Armed Elder smiled shamefully. “Unfortunately, I still made a mistake and lost to you.”

“You didn’t lose to me but Bai Qing’er. It was a trap she set up for you.”

Then Zhang Ruochen said, “You wouldn’t have suffered so much, and I wouldn’t have suffered so many setbacks if you had been so honest earlier.”

“It isn’t too late to know now. Your Highness, you should rush back to Xue Jue Family and ask the gods to take the treasures from the Fane of Origin in advance. Things will change if you delay!” The Seven-Armed Elder reminded him carefully.

The Seven-Armed Elder had such powerful spiritual power, but he almost died before entering the fane.

It seemed like he really needed help from the gods if he wanted to break into the Fane of Origin and take the treasures.

However, it was an extraordinary period now. Every single God in the Infernal Court was closely monitored. Lord Ming was definitely the main target of the monitor.

Lord Ming would definitely leak the news once he rushed to the Southern Sword Realm.

He needed to consider carefully what to do for the next.

If he could not get help from the deities, he could only seek out an Array Master on par with the Hand of the World or an Archsaint Array Master.

Blackie was ultimately the best choice.

Unfortunately, it was taken away by the Dragon Lord.

‘Someone with the ability of the Hands of the World and an Archsaint Array Master is a rare existence.. I can’t possibly cooperate with Bai Qing’er.’ Just as he thought of this, Zhang Ruochen shook his head.

Bai Qing’er was an Archsaint Array Master, and Duan Lingfeng of the Enchanter Chamber was also the Hand of the World. However, they were too powerful and ambitious. If he worked with them, not only would he have to worry about being eliminated by them, but he would also have to worry about attracting the wrath of the entire Infernal Court.

After thinking for a long time, Zhang Ruochen came up with a few strategies, but they were all quite inappropriate for the situation.

Ji Fanxin opened her eyes again and said, “I felt some responses, but it will take a long time to find the exact location of the Fane of Origin. Should we set off now?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head slightly and said, “All the major forces are watching me now. I can’t get away from them.”

Ji Fanxin pointed to the stone door of the ancient tower and said, "You can leave from here."

"Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger are still in the sacred land of Terra Demons," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Just take them with you."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head again, "Once they leave the eyes of the watchers, my escape will be exposed instantly. If I slip away now, anyone with sense will know that I'm going to find the Fane of Origin!

"At that time, not only will the Saints of the major forces search for me, but even the deities will take action. Do you think we can reach the Fane of Origin without anyone knowing?"

Ji Fanxin said, "I thought you should have all-powerful might in the Infernal Court. How can such a small predicament affect you?"

Zhang Ruochen smiled. "It's not impossible to escape by force, but that is the worst plan."

"What's the best plan?" Ji Fanxin asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Plan before you act and be fully prepared. After that, it's still not too late to go to the Fane of Origin."

Ji Fanxin's eyes lit up. "Do you actually know where the Fane of Origin is?"

Zhang Ruochen said frankly, "I do know something about it, but I haven't had the chance to confirm yet. I don't know whether it's true or not. I trust the Fairy's perception more."

"What do you need to prepare?" Ji Fanxin asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I need an expert in arrays."

"How high should that array master's level be?"

"At least on par with the level of the Hand of the World."

Ji Fanxin fell silent and shook her head gently.

Typically, it was usual that some inferior macroworlds did not even have a High-Saint Master.

Qianrui Realm was one of the top 100 powerful macroworlds in the Southern Universe, but it still did not have an array master who reached the level of the Hand of the World. Of course, there was once a Divine Array Master in the Qianrui Realm, but he had left for the Jadeite Realm.

After a moment of silence, Zhang Ruochen suddenly thought of something and said, "I do have someone like that in my mind."

"From the Xue Jue Family?" Ji Fanxin became alert.

After all, if that someone was from the Infernal Court, it would be the same as kicking her out. But the Fane of Origin was where she had to go.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Someone from the Heavenly Realm."

"Heavenly Realm?"

Ji Fanxin had an incredulous look on her face.

Zhang Ruochen smiled meaningfully and told her the news about Kai Luo in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

"Are you crazy? The feud between you and the Heavenly Realm in Kunlun is too deep. How dare you go and find Kai Luo? I bet the reason Kai Luo came to the Infernal Court to kill you." Ji Fanxin said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It's true that he came to kill me, but there is no hatred that can not be resolved. What if Kai Luo is willing to help us?"

"You want to convert a cultivator of the Heavenly Realm and dupe him into helping you?" said Ji Fanxin.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Since Kai Luo dared to enter the Infernal Court and escaped from Yan Yu, he must be a brilliant person. He would be suspicious if someone transformed into a cultivator he was unfamiliar with. Similarly, how could someone trick him by transforming into a cultivator he was familiar with?"

Ji Fanxin couldn't figure out what Zhang Ruochen was up to. She picked up the wine bottle and took a sip. "If you weren't so generous to me, I would have left you alone and brought the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin to find the Fane of Origin," she said

Zhang Ruochen said, "I knew you'd never do that. By the way, I want to condense Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill. Could you help me with that?"

"What did you say? The Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill? A single Saintwill reaching Grade Three?" Ji Fanxin asked.

Zhang Ruochen drank the entire bottle of Blossoms Brew and said, "I have the only Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill since ancient times. If I add your Lotus of Divine Reflection, why can't I try to break through to Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill?"

"You want to eat me?" Ji Fanxin suddenly said.

Zhang Ruochen quickly waved his hand and said, "I don't need to eat you. As long as you can lend me a hand, it'll be fine."

Ji Fanxin's mind became heavy. She put the veil back on her face.

The more she pondered, the more confused Zhang Ruochen became. He said, "There's no need to overthink. Just turn into your true form and let me sit to cultivate for a while."

Unexpectedly, Ji Fanxin rejected him and said, "No way."

Zhang Ruochen was slightly stunned. After a while, he asked in confusion, "What happened to our friendship? Are you not willing to help me with such a small favor?"

Ji Fanxin stood up with her back to Zhang Ruochen. She seemed to be thinking carefully.

After a long time, she waved her hand, "Go away," she said. "How can you condense a single Grade Three Saintwill? Even if I can help you, your current attainments in Swordsmanship are far from being adequate for it. It won't be too late to wait till after you cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul."

'Are all women so fickle?'

Since Ji Fanxin had already made it clear she did not want to do it, Zhang Ruochen was tactful. He waved his hand at Moyin and left.

He looked back and saw Ji Fanxin's beautiful figure under the blood-red tree. She looked like an ethereal fairy in a painting.

Among the women Zhang Ruochen had seen with that ethereal quality, the Moon Goddess ranked first, and Ji Fanxin ranked second. Moreover, Ji Fanxin was even more delicate.

He walked out of the gravestones and went to the Ghostwood Manor.

Moyin said, "Master, do you really get it, or are you trying to pretend?"

"What are you talking about?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Moyin said, "After a flower attains a human form, everything will be different! Yet, you want to enter her body in her true form to cultivate? Fortunately, Ji Fanxin valued you as a friend and believed you were clueless. Otherwise, she'd have beaten you up on the spot. Have you seen me launching attack in flower form ever since I attained a human form?"

"Can you explain it more clearly?" Zhang Ruochen did not understand.

Moyin's bright red lips curled up, and she smiled charmingly. "When we are at a more secluded area, I'll let Master into my true form for cultivation. You will then understand!"

Zhang Ruochen nodded and suddenly asked, "Have your fourth flower bloomed already?"

"It's still a flower bud!" Moyin spoke softly and sweetly while hiding a smile.

When Moyin bloomed for the first time, the fruit she produced had an "illusory body," similar to a human soul.

When she bloomed for the second time, the fruit she bore had a “physical body” like a body of an actual human, but it had fused with the Saint Soul and Sainthood Source of Princess Moran¹.

At the third blooming, the fruit she produced had a “Dharmakāya body.” Once she fused with the Dharmakāya body, it was equivalent to cultivating a Paramount physique.

When Moyin left him to aid Ji Fanxin, the Dharmakāya Fruit had already matured and was in the fusing stage.

Inside, Zhang Ruochen had already discovered that her Dharmakāya body had fused successfully.

In other words, Moyin now had the strength of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

The fruit she bloomed for the fourth time was called “Ten Thousand Reincarnations.” Once she fused with Ten Thousand Reincarnations, she could achieve divinity. However, the Saint Devourer was a ferocious plant. Before achieving divinity, there were almost no obstructions in the realm, but it was still perilous for it to survive a Divine Tribulation.

In the past history, there were very few Saint Devourers that could survive the Divine Tribulation and become a God Devourer.

Zhang Ruochen did not immediately return to the Terra Demons’ sacred land. Instead, he went to the stronghold of the Xue Jue Family in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. He sent a cultivator with his seal back to the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan to invite Supreme Saint Qingsheng over.

No matter what, he had to inform Lord Ming about the significant events at the Fane of Origin.

He couldn’t send ordinary cultivators to relay the message. He had to invite Supreme Saint Qingsheng over first.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to return to the Terra Demons’ sacred land, a black-robed man walked into the middle of the street and blocked his way.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. He stared at the opposite side.

The black-robed man said, “When you went to the Xue Jue Family’s stronghold, you exposed your tracks. Now, there are at least ten groups of cultivators who are watching your every move.”

“Who are you?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The black-robed man was silent for a moment. “Follow me.”

Zhang Ruochen followed quickly.

They walked on the street with one at the front.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen could sense that many cultivators were watching in the dark. But strangely, the black-robed man seemed to have extraordinary powers. All the stalkers disappeared not long after.

The black-robed man led Zhang Ruochen into a sacred land.

“This is... the sacred land of the Wolveres! Why are we here?”

Zhang Ruochen had never been to the sacred land of the Wolveres, but he saw a lot Wolveres along the way. They were very respectful to the black-robed man. When they passed by, they would bow and even kneel sometimes.

The black-robed man said, “The Wolveres¹ originated from Kunlun. Later, they formed their own macroworld and established Wolverom. Unfortunately, during the the battle in the Middle Ages, the Wolveres were framed by the Heavenly Realm and branded as traitors to Kunlun. As a matter of fact, the one who betrayed Kunlun was the Blackdemon Realm,

“100,000 years ago, the Wolveres were almost exterminated by the Heavenly Realm. Wolverom was also destroyed. The remaining Wolveres had no home to return to. They had to flee to the edge of the Infernal Court.”

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen suddenly stopped. His eyes turned red, and he said in a trembling voice, “Who are you?”

In the Ancient Ruins of Mount Destiny, when this black-robed man named Ki Tian suddenly had appeared and said many strange things to him, Zhang Ruochen already had doubts in his heart.

At this moment, the doubts in his heart had reached their peak and were about to burst out.

The Wulvers were as famous as the Yakshas in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. They were one of the three strongest clans.

The sacred land of the Wulvers was also known as the “Seven Mountain Chain.” Between the mountains, the demonic Qi turned into a sea of clouds. It was dark and dense, and lightning flowed within. The sound of thunder constantly rumbled within, sometimes far and other times near.

On the top of the first mountain, there stood two figures.

Ki Tian, standing in front, lifted the black hood on his head and revealed a face around 30 years of age. He had a beard and was full of energy. His gaze was as sharp as lightning.

His face, including his body, and aura were changing rapidly.

In a moment, he had changed into another appearance.

Zhang Ruochen saw this familiar middle-aged man before him and could no longer hold back his emotions. The emotions, questions, and confusion he had experienced over the years rushed from his heart to his head. They turned into two warm streams that welled out from his eyes.

“So... you’ve been in the Fane of Destiny for so many years. I thought you were dead, killed by Emperor Qing and the others, or went and became a monk in the Western Buddha Realm. How could you... how could you still be alive?”

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth. He sounded like blaming the person.

Ki Tian was actually Emperor Ming, who had disappeared around 800 years ago.

His name was Zhang Ling.

Emperor Ming's gaze was profound and focused. He stared at the sea of demonic Qi beneath his feet, "I know you have hatred and resentment," he said. "But no matter how tough and tired it is for a man, and no matter how much hatred and resentment he has, he shouldn't cry. You're more like your mother in the end."

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly and said, "How can I not cry when I'm so overwhelmed with such emotions? You're mistaken. I don't hate you, nor am I resentful. I just want answers."

The atmosphere was freezing at the peak.

Emperor Ming didn't answer him immediately. After a long silence, he said, "I'm sorry."

Zhang Ruochen straightened his back and said, "This apology should not be directed to me. You should have said it to my mother. Also, at those serving Central Shengming Empire who were loyal to you and died or were forced to exile."

"You are wrong! This apology doesn't mean that I think what I did was wrong. I just feel guilty that I'm not strong enough. If I were strong enough, I wouldn't have to struggle helplessly and could protect our home, country, civilization, and Kunlun with my strength."

Emperor Ming turned around and finally faced Zhang Ruochen. "I know you already knew a lot. I also know the doubts you have and your dissatisfaction with me as your father."

Zhang Ruochen stood at the side and listened quietly.

"Your personality is indeed more like your mother's. She may seem ruthless, but she couldn't see the bigger picture. She places family above everything else. But I'm different. I had been the Crown Prince of the Central Shengming Empire since I was young. Later, when I ascended to the throne, I had to do what I had been taught since I was young. They were my duties and obligations.

Emperor Ming laughed self-deprecatingly and said, “Without a world, how would there be a country? And without a country, how could there be a home?”

“If you weren’t born in the imperial household, you wouldn’t have to bear these responsibilities. To not bear these responsibilities while holding that position is a disgrace to a world and means that you are not worthy of living in it.

“If you are just an ordinary person, you don’t have to do anything. For a world or a country and civilizations, the mediocre person only needs to reproduce to carry on generations. But those exceptionally talented have to shoulder the responsibility to write history, create the future, or save the world from crisis.”

It was unclear whether he was talking to himself or Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen did learn about what had happened 800 years ago from Murong Yefeng, King Mingjiang, Kong Lanyou, Chi Yao, and Granny Begonia.

Sometimes, Zhang Ruochen could understand Emperor Ming’s difficulties and the reasons he had to acknowledge. After all, Zhang Ruochen had grown up with his father around and knew him quite well.

But Zhang Ruochen did not understand why hadn’t his father told him everything 800 years ago.

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s been so many years since we last met. Are we going to just talk about this only? I’m no longer a child and know what’s the right thing to do.”

“I know you’ve grown up. You have a strong heart and can bear the responsibilities you should shoulder. That was why I came to see you,” Emperor Ming replied.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Did you know that Chi Yao killed me 800 years ago?”

Emperor Ming stared deep into his eyes and nodded.

“Why?”

Emperor Ming walked to the cliff's edge with his hands behind his back and looked up at the sky.

Zhang Ruochen pressed forward, “Why did you let her kill me? Why didn't you tell me the truth? If I knew the truth, you should know that I would give everything, even my own life, for the sake of our family, our empire, and our macroworld, Kunlun. Was it the awakened ones in Kunlun who forced you? Did they make Chi Yao kill me?”

Emperor Ming shook his head gently, “One day, you will understand. Our generation is working hard to live and to let more people live. Chen'er, it's been so many years. Are we going to only talk about this in reunion? Don't we have anything else to talk about?”

Zhang Ruochen knew Emperor Ming too well. That was why it was hard to hate him.

He knew that his father would never do anything to hurt him. Maybe his father had a different idea or kept him in the dark, but his father's intention could not be bad.

Emperor Ming and Zhang Ruochen sat on the cliff edge, enjoying the cold wind.

The father did not look old. The son was already a grown-up. They were both tall and strong men who could shoulder responsibilities.

“Do you still remember that time when I had beaten you up when you were seven years old?” Emperor Ming suddenly laughed as if he was reminiscing about the past.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and shook his head. “That was probably the most humiliating time in my life. My behind was beaten until it was about to crack open, and they were so swollen that I couldn't even pull up my pants. But I had forgotten why you had beaten me.”

“Because you said you didn't want to be called Zhang Ruochen,” Emperor Ming said.

“Really?”

“Yes, you said I had named you after Xue Hongchen because I wanted you to be like him. You said you would only be yourself, so you wanted to change your name,” Emperor Ming said.

Emperor Ming often mentioned the phrase “an ideal son should be someone one like Xue Hongchen.” He had named Zhang Ruochen after Xue Hongchen.

Zhang Ruochen was curious.”I still wondered even till now. In any case, I’m still the Crown Prince of the Central Shengming Empire. Is it okay for you to give me a name like this? The Sword Emperor is excellent, but you’re also an emperor. You shouldn’t admire him so much that you practically worshipped him, right?”

Zhang Ruochen wasn’t afraid of being spanked again. He couldn’t help but be more outspoken to his father.

Emperor Ming’s eyes were filled with deep emotion, and he sighed. “It’s not just his talent that I admire and appreciate. Did you know that he was the first person in Kunlun to give up everything he had and sneak into the Infernal Court without hesitation? He did that to help Kunlun find a chance to survive and set foot on the path of darkness that was likely to lead to his death.

“From then on, there would be no Sword Emperor in Kunlun, leaving behind thousands of beautiful women who were heartbroken with sorrow.

“However, did you know that Xue Hongchen was the most distinguished and emotional man? He couldn’t bear to see women crying, and he also couldn’t bear to part with the splendid sights in the human world. If he heard that a woman was wronged, even if he didn’t know her, he would’ve traveled thousands of miles with a sword to uphold justice for her.

“I thought that with his character, age, and talent, he would never agree to give up everything he had. I thought he would not be willing to leave the thousands of beauties heartbroken and head to the Infernal Court to become a living dead.

However, he agreed without hesitation and was the first to leave Kunlun.

“At that time, I said my child should be like Xue Hongchen. I named you Ruochen because I was stunned by the sight of him leaving.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “How many Kunlun cultivators actually hide in the Infernal Court? All of that to save the Lord of Nephilim Island?”

“The myriad macroworlds of the Celestial Court and the Ten Clans of Infernal Court regard Kunlun as a treasure trove. They want to loot it and exterminate its various species. It was as if a group of wolves had come, and the living beings in Kunlun were like two-legged sheep. On the contrary, those weak realms found survival easier than us. The Lord of Nephilim Island can block the milky way of Styx for 100,000 years with arrays. Only by saving him can there be hope for Kunlun.”

Emperor Ming stood up and said, “Chen’er... No, Zhang Ruochen, promise me that no matter what happens this time, you must take good care of your mother. Tell her that I never regret knowing her. If you wish to rebuild Shengming Empire, then do it. You are now a Supreme Saint, so you should walk your own path.”

Emperor Ming patted Zhang Ruochen’s shoulder. Then he jumped into the sea of clouds surging with demonic Qi.

Zhang Ruochen felt 30 per cent of the Canon of Destiny return to his body. His expression was stunned because he realized that his father’s words were meant to be his last words. He let out a shout and jumped into the pitch-black sea of clouds.

Unfortunately, Emperor Ming had disappeared without a trace. No matter how Zhang Ruochen shouted, there was no response.

The Canon of Destiny had returned to his body. It meant that the Empress of Thousand Bones had refined the Destiny Token.

The plan to rescue the Lord of Nephilim Island had officially begun!

Emperor Ming had come to see him at this time because he had prepared for the worst scenario regarding this plan. That was why he had come to see Zhang Ruochen one last time.

After thinking this through, Zhang Ruochen rushed out of the Wulvers' sacred land. Even if he couldn't catch up with Emperor Ming, he had to return to Mount Destiny as soon as possible.

Rescuing the Lord of Nephilim Island was such a big matter. It would definitely be earth-shaking, so it was normal that even deities could die in the fight.

Was this a farewell for eternity after a short reunion?

Someone blocked Zhang Ruochen right before he could leave the Seven Mountain Chain.

“Le!”

Le was dressed in plain clothes. He still carried his iron sword and said stiffly, “He has left the Royal City of Hundred Clans. He is also a deity. You can't hope to catch up with him. Besides, it's useless even if you can chase up to him.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Do you know who he is?”

“Your father,” Le said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Did he ask you to stop me?”

Le thought for a moment and stepped to the left. An old and senile cultivator walked out from behind him. He was withered with age, and his body was covered in wolf skin. There was a tail hanging between his legs.

“If you want to help them, you don't have to go to Mount Destiny. There are many things you can do right now,” the old man said in a hoarse voice.

Zhang Ruochen used his spiritual power to check and found no active signs of energy on the old man's body. He was shocked and realized that the old man was probably a deity.

He must be one of the three deities staying in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

“He’s the grandson of the Wulvers’ lord ancestor. He’s a deity,” Le said.

The old man laughed dryly. “I am just a deity who is about to die.”

Zhang Ruochen suppressed his chaotic emotions. After that, he bowed and said, “Greetings, God Hendaë.”

The name of the Wulvers’ lord ancestor was Fenrir. He had submitted to Skywrath of the Fane of Destiny and become his mount. Thus, he found a place for the Wulvers to live at the edge of the Infernal Court.

Without Skywrath’s backing, how could the Wulvers have developed to such a powerful state in 100,000 years?

Zhang Ruochen had heard about Hendaë, the grandson of Fenrir.

Hendaë said, “Rescuing the Lord of Nephilim Island doesn’t depend on how many cultivators go to Mount Destiny. After all, most of the deities of Mount Destiny have gone to the Jadeite Realm.”

“What we need to do is to lure the remaining deities of Mount Destiny to the Royal City of Hundred Clans by as much as possible so that Mount Destiny will become even more empty.”

“Why the Royal City of Hundred Clans?” Zhang Ruochen had calmed down completely.

Hendaë said, “Because the Royal City of Hundred Clans is at the edge of the Infernal Court, and the deities of the Celestial Court can quietly come to the nearby field of stars. Only when the deities of the Celestial Court take action could the deities of the Fane of Destiny be restrained.”

“There are actually many macroworlds in the Celestial Court that don’t want the Lord of Nephilim Island to escape, so it’s impossible for them to help directly. We can only use surprising benefits to lure them here.”

Zhang Ruochen wasn't stupid. He instantly understood something. "Wouldn't it be better if we added the Yakshas?"

Hendae smiled, "You're smart," he said. "You've already thought of this. It is true that we did create the Light of Origin in the sacred land of the Yakshas. The Yakshas were the biggest clan in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. They had a deep foundation, and if they were involved, they could trap the deities of the Celestial Court and Fane of Destiny."

"Unfortunately, the Fane of Origin isn't in the sacred land of the Yakshas. The Celestial and Infernal Court deities might not fall for it."

Zhang Ruochen asked, "How long before the Empress and the others plan to take action?"

"It shouldn't be that fast. They'll only take action when the Light of Origin erupts again and draws out the deities in Mount Destiny," said Hendae.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, "The deities are very smart," he said. "And the Yakshas aren't stupid. The Light of Origin can only attract them for a while. Without the birth of the true Fane of Origin, they'll quickly realize the trap and return to Mount Destiny. When that happens, the Empress and the others won't be able to escape. Not only will they be unable to save the Lord of Nephilim Island, but they'll also all have to go in."

"It's impossible to have a foolproof plan, and the plan also carries a huge risk. If we can lure the deities of Mount Destiny out for a while, it's a chance we must take, even if it's very slim." Hendae sighed.

Zhang Ruochen said, "What if the true Fane of Origin comes into being?"

"What did you say?" Hendae's eyes lit up.

Jesse, the Emperor of the Wulvers, was an elite in Paramount Realm. He was over 20,000 years old, but he was still strong, and his legs were thick. Standing in front of Zhang Ruochen, he was like a steel mountain.

Zhang Ruochen, who disguised as Yan Huangtu, was discussing a private matter with Jesse.

Apart from the two, only three Supreme Saints from the Wulvers were present in the stone chamber.

The three Supreme Saints from the Wulvers were:

Jesse’s younger brother, Supreme Saint Kuntong.

The commander of the guards of the Wulvers’ sacred land, Mu Huang.

The general manager of the Wulvers’ sacred land, Jiushou Bailang.

Jesse laughed loudly. “This place is protected by Divine Marks carved by the gods. The cultivators present in this secret chamber are all trustworthy. Yan Huangtu, you can speak freely if you have any secret matters to discuss.”

Zhang Ruochen imitated Yan Huangtu’s gaze and glanced at the people present. He said in a deep voice, “This time, I’m representing Yanluo Clan to discuss cooperation with the Wulvers. I want to do something big.”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t waste any more time. He took out the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and placed it on the table.

The four Supreme Saints were all first-class figures with rich experience. They released their spiritual power to probe for a bit before letting out cries of surprise.

“Is that a supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?”

“Goodness, only the god-level Masters of Origin can condense supreme-grade Divine Crystals of Origin. Could it really be that the Fane of Origin is about appear?”

...

After they calmed down, Zhang Ruochen said thoughtfully, “It’s not a coincidence that the Light of Origin appeared in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. In fact, the Fane of Origin is about to appear. Yanluo Clan has already investigated this matter clearly.

“Everyone knows that the Fane of Origin is in Night Ocean, the sacred land of the Yakshas, but no one can enter. To obtain the Fane of Origin, we can only do it by force.”

Supreme Saint Kuntong and Mu Huang were both moved. Their eyes were burning as they stared at Jesse sitting above them.

This was the Fane of Origin. Even if the Wolveres got ten to twenty percent of the benefits, it would increase the strength of their force. Some of them could even take this chance to ascend.

A deep look flashed through Jiushou Bailang’s eyes. He shook his head and said, “The Yakshas are the number one clan in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. They’re several times stronger than the Wolveres. It’s easier said than done to seize them.”

Zhang Ruochen looked over and said, “With Yanluo Clan’s support, do you not even have this bit of courage?”

Jiushou Bailang said, “If Yanluo Clan can dispatch a large army of saints to the Royal City of Hundred Clan and easily take down the Yakshas, why would you ally with the Wolveres?”

In the end, Yanluo Clan only wants us to be cannon fodder and take the lead for you.”

Zhang Ruochen snorted coldly. “Yanluo Clan is so powerful. It’s no problem for us to take down the Yakshas. It just because we want to be perfectly justifiable, or else why would we cooperate with the Wolveres?”

Jesse, the Wolveres’ emperor quickly calmed down “Yan Huangtu,” “Cool down, man. It’s the Wolveres’ honor to be able to cooperate with Yanluo Clan.”

Supreme Saint Kuntong added, “Yan Huangtu, to be honest, Yanluo Clan is indeed powerful. Even the nine great clans like Ghosts and Immortal Vampires wouldn’t dare to make enemies with you, let alone small clans like us. However, the clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans are united. You should know how powerful this united force is.”

“That’s right. The clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans are united. They fight together. If Yanluo Clan wants to attack one of them, the other clans won’t just sit idly by,” Mu Huang said.

Zhang Ruochen tapped his finger on the table, “This is why Yanluo Clan is going to give benefits and cooperate with the Wolveres. As long as the Wolveres and the smaller clans that follow the Wolveres are on our side, you will be the number one clan in the Royal City of Hundred Clans after the Yakshas are exterminated. Moreover, you can get ten percent of the benefits from the Fane of Origin.”

Ten percent might seem like a small amount, but it was the Fane of Origin. Even ten percent was something that gods would go crazy over.

It would be unrealistic if Yanluo Clan promised them thirty to fifty percent.

While Jesse, Supreme Saint Kuntong, Mu Huang, and Jiushou Bailang were discussing telepathically, Zhang Ruochen spoke again, “The Yakshas actually knows that the secret of the Fane of Origin can’t be hidden. They also know that with their strength, it’s difficult for them to take over the entire Fane of Origin. Thus, they've secretly contacted all small and large clans that follow them and even contacted the Fane of Darkness.

"If the Wulvers don't take action, you won't be able to gain any benefits from the Fane of Origin."

After a while, they came to a conclusion.

"We can't agree to you immediately," Jesse said. "We have to report this to our gods and let them decide."

"Alright, I'll give you time to think. However, you'd better give me an answer soon. Yanluo Clan can choose the Wulvers, but we can also choose the Pyroghosts, which are stronger than the Wulvers."

Zhang Ruochen put the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin into his sleeve. Sensing a pair of eyes staring at his every move, he couldn't help but smile and walked out of the stone chamber.

...

Zhang Ruochen sat in a chariot, left the Wulvers' sacred land, and waited quietly.

Just now was a staged scene he had planned after discussing with Handae and Jesse.

The first goal was to drag Yanluo Clan into the game and stir up more trouble.

The second goal was to draw out Kai Luo and Claflin, who were hiding among the Wulvers.

In fact, when Yan Yu previously sought meeting with the Wulvers' Emperor, the Wulvers had already secretly investigated and been watching the three cultivators who might have defected to the Celestial Realm.

Today, the same three cultivators participated in the secret talks.

Zhang Ruochen's chariot driver was an old man in a long black robe. He wore a bamboo hat on his head, covering more than half of his face. He was Handae, one of the three gods who stayed behind to guard the Royal City of Hundred Clan.

Zhang Ruochen's safety was very important, so much so that a deity had to personally escort him.

The Royal City of Hundred Clans was vast. Some of the places were very quiet and uninhabited.

At this moment, the carriage arrived at the lakeside of dark lake. Strange trees were planted along the road. They were luxuriant. The place was quiet. Only the sound of the wheels rolling could be heard.

Handae, who was wearing a bamboo hat, suddenly had a slight change in expression. He sensed that a highly skilled cultivator used a formation to set up a barrier covering the area where they were.

He informed Zhang Ruochen, who was in the carriage, telepathically, "He's here!"

Swoosh!

An Arrow of Deva flew out from the forest on the left side of the road.

The arrow was as fast as a streak of light. Wherever it flew, precepts of heaven and earth seemed to be attracted by it. They all flowed into the arrow, boosting the power of the arrow.

With a bang, the arrow broke the defensive array of the chariot.

The carriage turned into dozens of pieces and exploded.

"Yan Huangtu" sitting in the carriage was pierced by the Arrow of Deva. With a plop, he fell into the lake next to it.

A graceful shadow as fast as lightning flew out of the forest. Like a dragonfly skimming, it reached into the water and lifted the ragged body of "Yan Haungtu" from its sleeve.

Claflin¹ took out the top-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. She didn't check if "Yan Haungtu" was the real deal. Instead, she studied the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin's authenticity. Then, she exclaimed, "It's not a trap. It's a genuine supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. Looks like the Fane of Origin is really about to appear!”

A heaven-shaking roar sounded by the lakeside.

“How dare you hurt my master! You’re courting death!”

Handae pressed his claws into the ground. Instantly, the lake boiled. Water columns that looked like dragons rolled up and attacked Claflin, who was floating on the water’s surface.

Claflin’s face turned pale, and she immediately used the elves’ unique technique to dodge the attack. The remnant of “Yan Haungtu” had already been thrown into the water.

Kai Luo, with snow-white hair and a white jade mask, appeared in the sky above the demonic lake. He shouted, “The birth of the Fane of Origin is a world-shaking event. Run. I’ll hold him back. No matter what, we need to bring the news back to the Celestial Realm and inform our gods.”

Kai Luo raised his hand and pressed down. He activated the array’s power and condensed a giant palm of lightning to suppress Handae.

At the same time, he opened a corner of the array.

Claflin also knew that a demigod in his prime was very difficult to deal with. If they dragged it out for too long and alarmed the gods in the Wulvers’ sacred land not far away, the two of them would probably die here.

It was still a small matter if they died. However, the news that the Fane of Origin was about to appear in the Royal City of Hundred Clans had to be sent back to the Celestial Realm.

Claflin no longer thought about it. She held the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and rushed out of the array formation. She thought, “Kai Luo’s attainments in array formations are profound. Even a top demigod wouldn’t be able to cause much trouble once he is trapped in his array formation. It shouldn’t be difficult for him to escape.”

However, not long after Claflin escaped, Kai Luo was suppressed by Handae.

Kai Luo lay on the ground, unable to move. He had an ominous premonition and was shocked and panicked. He asked, "Who are you?"

Handae ignored him and pulled "Yan Huangtu" out of the water.

His old palm pressed down on that body's chest, which had been pierced by the Arrow of Deva. He used his divine force to force out the Precepts of Arrow from the wound.

Flesh and blood gradually grew on the chest of "Yan Huangtu." It was soon intact.

Zhang Ruochen stood up from the ground and rubbed his chest, which was still in pain. He said, "Thank you for using your divine force to protect my Saint Soul and Sea of Qi. Otherwise, this arrow from Claflin would have shattered my soul."

"Ruochen, your courage is unparalleled. When I was in Hundred-Shackle Realm, I wouldn't dare to take in the Arrow of Deva shoot me."

Handae looked at Zhang Ruochen's chest and was astonished.

It was said that the Wulvers had a solid physical recovery ability, but Zhang Ruochen's physical recovery ability surprised even him, who was a god of Wulvers.

"It's important to put on an act. Otherwise, how can we fool them?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Handae said cautiously, "Are you sure it's okay to let Claflin take the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?"

"Don't worry, sir. It will still take some time for Claflin to return to the Celestial Realm. In addition, the sects of the Celestial Realm don't have a Master of origin. Even if they got the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, they wouldn't be able to find the position of the Fane of Origin. They'll still have to come to the Royal City of Hundred Clan first. Once we lure them to the Royal City of Hundred Clan, my next plan can be carried out," Zhang Ruochen said.

Kai Luo, lying on the ground, could not move. His face changed again, and he could not help but feel sad. He had never thought that this trip to Infernal Court would suffocate him so much.

He was good at planning in the past, but in Infernal Court, he was repeatedly used and schemed against.

Last time, it was Bai Qing'er. This time, it was Zhang Ruochen.

It could not be helped. The bait they threw out was too attractive.

The spiritual power of Kai Luo was so strong that even gods could hardly make him yield.

Therefore, Handae brought him back to the Wulvers' sacred land and prepared to use ancient higher knowledge to slowly destroy his will. As long as his will collapsed, it would be much easier to control or force him to spill out information during interrogation.

Kai Luo and Claflin making the move meant the traitor was one among Supreme Saint Kuntong, Mu Huang, and Jiushou Bailang. It was not difficult to find out who it was.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen did not need to worry about this.

Zhang Ruochen rushed back to Terra Demons' sacred land as soon as possible. There was another urgent matter that needed to be done immediately.

...

Ever since he had seen Zhang Ruochen fighting against so many Banshi Isshou Supreme Saints from the Fane of Death, Yan Huangtu was emotionally disturbed. Therefore, he had been secluding himself in a cultivation cave in Terra Demons' sacred land.

There was a powerful Time Array in that cultivation cave.

He had cultivated inside for two months, while only eight days had passed outside.

Such an array would consume saint stones, Godstones, and some time-related materials.

On this day, Yan Huangtu had successfully broken through to the mid-stage of Thousand-Koan Realm. His strength had significantly increased, and his confidence — severely damaged by Zhang Ruochen and Que — had recovered a little.

“Yan Huangtu, come out and fight.” A voice came from outside the cave.

It was Zhang Ruochen’s voice.

“What is Zhang Ruochen doing? Why is he asking me to fight him... Could I have offended him somehow, so he wants to humiliate me?” Yan Huangtu, sitting cross-legged in the cave, was bewildered and hesitant.

He did not want to acknowledge the distances between their combat strength, but at the same time, he had to admit that there was a big gap between them. Zhang Ruochen challenging a weakling did not seem to be his style. There must be something fishy about it.

‘Wait... Who is the weakling?’ Yan Huangtu immediately cleared his weak state of mind. A burning light appeared in his eyes, and his domineering aura gushed out.

Zhang Ruochen stood with his sword in his hand and shouted again, “Yan Huangtu, come out and fight me if you want your dignity intact!”

Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying were nearby. When they heard the commotion, they rushed over immediately.

Xuan Zehai was worried. He asked nervously, “Did Supreme Saint Ruochen encounter any trouble?”

“No.”

“Did a cultivator from Yanluo Clan offend you?”

“No.”

Zhang Ruochen said lightly, “You don’t have to be so nervous. I just want a fair fight with Yan Huangtu. There were too many external factors in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. It's a pity that we didn't have a good fight."

The more he said so, the more worried Xuan Zehai and Xuan Qingying became. They thought, 'Something must have happened. Otherwise, why would Zhang Ruochen take it out on Yan Huangtu?'

They didn't know that the fake Yan Huangtu had been seriously "injured" by Claflin. So it would be a flaw in Zhang Ruochen's scheme if the real Yan Huangtu was safe and sound.

"Master Yan Yu isn't in the sacred land. Hurry and inform our lord," Xuan Zehai said to Xuan Qingying, telepathically.

Xuan Qingying was full of worry. She immediately sent the news to the lord. At the same time, she immediately went to investigate who in the scared land had offended Zhang Ruochen.

The stone door of the cultivation cave opened. Yan Huangtu walked out with a dignified appearance. He smiled and said, "Bro, what happened?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Answer me. Did you go tell people around that I was your 'nephew'¹?"

"That's not true. Who told you that? I've been cultivating in seclusion these days. How could I say such things? Who was the one who spread rumors?" Yan Huangtu's face turned serious while denying it.

Zhang Ruochen had recognized Yan Yu as his "Uncle." Yan Huangtu had too thought of himself as Zhang Ruochen's "Uncle." He was secretly pleased, but he did not say this to anyone.

If Zhang Ruochen wanted to find trouble, he naturally needed a reason.

He needed a reason.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Forget it. Whether you have said it or not, we should have a good fight today. Do you dare to accept the challenge?"

Yan Huangtu disagreed immediately. He said, "I think we have to investigate this matter clearly. I'm afraid someone is scheming to destroy the relationship between brother Ruochen and Yanluo Clan. Well, the Fane of Death is a bit suspicious!"

Zhang Ruochen pretended to be angry, "I'm asking if you dare to accept the challenge. You're in Thousand-Koan Realm, and I'm only in Hundred-Shackle Realm. Does the so-called Royal Divine Frame not even have this bit of courage? If you're terrified, I won't use my spiritual power. Let's have a battle of physical strength and cultivation. If you don't accept the challenge, I'm afraid I'll look down on you!"

Yan Huangtu's eyes darkened, and a dragon's roar sounded from his body, "Okay, I'll fight you. But let me justify myself, I will admit the things I've done only if I did it. I said that this wasn't my doing, so it's really not me."

Zhang Ruochen's eyes softened a bit. "At least you still a dignified man. Let's go inside the cave and fight. Otherwise, everyone will look bad when things get ugly."

The two entered the cultivation cave and closed the stone door. Immediately, there was a loud bang, and the ground shook slightly.

The spatial structure in a cultivation cave of a Supreme Saint was stable and would not be easily destroyed.

The Terra Demon Emperor and Yan Zhexian rushed over quickly.

Yan Zhexian growled, "What happened? What's wrong with Zhang Ruochen? Why did he challenge Uncle Huangtu?"

Xuan Zehai laughed bitterly. "I'm afraid Zhang Ruochen can't be blamed for this. It seems that Zhang Ruochen caught Yan Huangtu calling Zhang Ruochen nephew!"

Yan Zhexian was stunned.

Terra Demon Emperor was worried. "Yan Huangtu is a steady man. How could he say such things so casually? Zhang Ruochen and Master Yan Yu address each other as uncle and nephew because of the huge difference in cultivation. Thus, Master Yan Yu has the right to talk about seniority."

Seniority in the cultivation world was not only based on age but also on strength.

Almost all cultivators in the world, as long as they hadn't broken through to divinity, called Yan Yu "Master Yan Yu." On the contrary, everyone mostly called Yan Huangtu "the fifth Young Master."

Xuan Zehai said, "It's also possible Yan Huangtu didn't say that at all. Someone is trying to sow discord."

"Who has the guts?" Yan Zhexian glared angrily.

Xuan Zehai said in a low voice, "Master Yan Yu and Zhang Ruochen address each other as uncle and nephew because he wants to promote the marriage between the two races. Who doesn't want to see you and Zhang Ruochen get together?"

The Terra Demon Emperor said, "Yuan Qianmo."

"I don't think Yuan Qianmo would use such a dirty trick." Yan Zhexian frowned. She was speechless. 'Did I just bring trouble to Uncle Huangtu?'

The Terra Demon Emperorsaid, "It might not be Yuan Qianmo but his younger brother, Yuan Benji. He is an unscrupulous person."

Yan Zhexian believed him a little. She stared at the stone door in front of him worriedly and heard the increasingly deafening collision sounds, "Is this a battle of life and death?"

Xuan Zehai was a little uncertain. He said, "I don't think so! After all, Zhang Ruochen's cultivation is much higher than Yan Huangtu's..."

At this point, he suddenly realized that something was wrong.

Yan Huangtu's cultivation was obviously much higher than Zhang Ruochen's.

Bang!

After a long while, the stone door opened with a bang.

Zhang Ruochen's entire body was burning with divine fire. His long hair was as red as blood. He walked out like a Wargod of flames. He let out a long breath. Then, he rubbed his hands and gradually withdrew his power.

Yan Zhexian approached. Feeling guilty, she said in a soft voice, “Uncle Huangtu is not the kind of person who doesn’t know what is the right thing to say. I believe that what you heard was most likely a rumor.”

Zhang Ruochen felt even more guilty. His eyes softened, “I’ve calmed down. I suddenly realized that I might have fallen into the Fane of Death’s plot to sow discord. Brother Huang Tu is definitely not the kind of cultivator who doesn’t dare to admit the things he does. Sigh, I was too impulsive!”

Zhang Ruochen took out a wooden jar and handed it to Yan Zhexian. “This is the Spring of Life. Take it and feed it to Huangtu. Tell him I’m sorry. I feel ashamed to see him.”

Yan Zhexian was stunned. He looked into the cultivation cave. ‘How badly has Zhang Ruochen injured Uncle Huangtu? Why did he need Spring of Life?’

She took the divine wooden jar and walked quickly into the stone door.

Zhang Ruochen walked toward Terra Demon Emperor, Xuan Zehai, and Xuan Qingying. He sighed again. “Guys, I’ve been too reckless. Please keep it a secret. Otherwise, I’ll be laughed at by all the cultivators. The mastermind of the Fane of Death is so abominable. If I find out that they’re really behind this, I won’t let them off easily.”

The three understood that this matter could go one of two ways, so they agreed to keep their mouths shut.

Staring at Zhang Ruochen’s back, the Terra Demon Emperor said, “I didn’t expect this guy to swallow his pride and admit his mistakes.”

Xuan Zehai nodded and sighed. “Everyone thinks that Zhang Ruochen is strong, full of killing intent, and will eventually break one day. However, who had seen this side of Zhang Ruochen?”

“One should give birth to a son like Zhang Ruochen.” The Terra Demon Emperor agreed.

In the cultivation cave, Yan Zhexian stared blankly at Yan Huangtu, which had almost turned into a golden skeleton. Fortunately, he had the Royal Divine Frame. Otherwise, his body would have exploded many times. Yan Zhexian thought, 'Zhang Ruochen hit Uncle Huangtu too hard.'

Yan Zhexian quickly opened the divine wooden jar and sprinkled Spring of Life on the golden skeleton, "Uncle, Zhang Ruochen said he might have misunderstood you. Maybe the Fane of Death is trying to sow discord behind your back. This is the Spring of Life that he gave you!"

After absorbing Spring of Life, some flesh and blood gradually grew on the skeleton of Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu trembled and struggled to hold up half of his body. He said intermittently, "X-Xian'er, I have figured it out. N-No matter what... you have to... you have to marry Zhang Ruochen. You have to make him my 'nephew'!"

Yan Zhexian saw how pitiful Yan Huangtu was at the moment. She didn't refute but comfort him to recuperate.

"Investigate... you have to find out. If the Fane of Death is behind my back... I will make them pay a painful price... Hack...Hack..."

At the Blood Apricot Trees courtyard of the Terra Demons' sacred ground.

Sikong the Younger concentrated on imparting Buddhist Dharma and narrating the classics to Zhen Nu, Zhen Se, Zhen Sha, Zhen Wang, and Zhen Tan. These five cultivators were sitting below and listening attentively.

How could they not listen attentively?

They could see Sikong the Younger walking behind them with his staff in his hand like an angry vajra. Anyone who dared to be distracted would get a hit from the staff!

They weren't afraid of being beaten. They were afraid of being humiliated. They were even more afraid of being mocked by the Terra Demons who came to watch from time to time.

'Endure...! We have got to endure! Endure, and we will get through this.'

BANG!

Suddenly, the wooden door was pushed open. A handsome figure rushed into the yard. It was Zhang Ruochen, whose robe was a bit messy.

All the seven monks looked over curiously.

Zhang Ruochen was a little flustered at first. Then he thought of something and had a realization. Finally, he fell into a deep embarrassment.

He looked up at the sky. His expression was thought-provoking. Then he laughed and said to himself, “So that’s it. So that’s it.”

Sikong the Elder was about to ask what had happened.

The soft voice of an alluring woman came from the room. “Master, why are you so flustered? It’s just entering my true form. Although I’m a Saint Devourer, I won’t eat you no matter what.”

Moyin’s curvaceous and graceful body swayed like a willow in the wind as she walked out of the door. Her jade-like fingers were tied to the buttons of her towering chest. Her pretty face had a touch of moving blush. She bashfully smiled.

It was like a spring breeze blowing into the yard.

Although Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi were not lascivious, they were still attracted by Moyin’s beauty, figure, and charm. Their minds were filled with thoughts.

Such a peerless beauty and temperament that could tempt people to death was a rare existence in the entire Infernal Court.

They stared at Zhang Ruochen with extreme jealousy and cursed in their hearts, ‘Such a pervert and a scum. How can a person like Zhang Ruochen be so close to the Buddhist Sect? He’s a hypocrite with a sanctimonious appearance and a fake monk.’

BANG!

BANG!

Sikong the Elder struck the heads of Que Shenzi and Tianshu with two strokes of his staff. The sound of Buddha’s chant was ear-splitting as he roared, “Calm your mind and subdue your inner demon. Don’t be distracted. All the beauties in the world don’t last long.”

Zhang Ruochen’s heart was in a mess. He already understood why Ji Fanxin had rejected him when he had asked to cultivate in Ji Fanxin’s true form.

‘How embarrassing! It was indescribably awkward.’

Zhang Ruochen wanted to go to the Ghostwood Manor and explain it to her. However, he remembered Ji Fanxin’s last words before he left. “Come find me if you can cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul at the Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

‘This means she didn’t turn me down completely. There is still room for discussion. That’s right. Cultivating the Heaven Sword Soul is the most urgent matter.

‘If I can’t cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul, I can’t condense the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill.’

Time was of the essence. He had to do his best to improve his attainments in Swordsmanship and condense the Heaven Sword Soul before Bai Qing’er broke through the blockade of the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt and the deities of the Heavenly Realm rushed to the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

In the following days, Zhang Ruochen activated the Sundial. While cultivating the Swordsmanship, he used the Dragonic Flame of Origin given by the Dragon Lord to refine his spiritual power and the Saint Qi in his body.

The Sundial covered the entire courtyard. Suddenly, Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi truly experienced the feeling of time passing like years. Their attainments in Buddhism grew higher and higher under their extreme resistance.

It couldn’t be helped. The Supreme Saint’s learning ability was that strong.

In reality, three days passed.

In the courtyard, three years had passed.

The acting head of the Xue Jue family, Supreme Saint Qingsheng, came to the sacred ground of the Terra Demons and was received ceremoniously.

After the banquet, Zhang Ruochen and Supreme Saint Qingsheng gathered and discussed in secret.

Zhang Ruochen was relatively straightforward. He took out a superior grade Divine Crystal of Origin. Under Supreme Saint Qingsheng's shocked gaze, he said, "The Fane of Origin is about to be born!"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's hair stood on end. He couldn't suppress his excitement, "I also heard about the Light of Origin appearing in the Yakshas' sacred ground. I always thought that the Celestial Court played tricks to blow up the conflict between the Royal City of Hundred Clans and the Infernal Court. I didn't expect it to be true."

"I must return to our family immediately and tell Lord Ming about this. It's best if I inform the Fane of Immortality."

Zhang Ruochen grabbed his wrist. He looked puzzled. "Wait a minute. What's the point of telling the Fane of Immortality about such a big matter?"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was slightly startled. He asked, "The Yakshas are powerful, and the Royal City of Hundred Clans is in a state of chaos. If we don't ally with the Fane of Immortality, can the Xue Jue family take over the Fane of Origin? We can't cooperate with the Yanluo clan, right? If the Fane of Immortality finds out later, they'll definitely have an opinion."

In the end, their forces were united in the face of significant events.

The Fane of Immortality wasn't just the center of power for the Immortal Vampires. It also represented the interests of all the Immortal Vampires.

Zhang Ruochen said, "If the Fane of Immortality finds out, even if they take over the Fane of Origin, how much will the Xue Jue family get?"

"Naturally, the deities will discuss the division of interests," Supreme Saint Qingsheng said.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "I mean, even if we join forces, we can only refine the forces within the Bloodysky Clan. After all, the entire Bloodysky Clan is following the lead of the Xue Jue family."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng still felt this matter was too severe, and Zhang Ruochen was too naive.

Zhang Ruochen continued, "Think about it. Suppose the Qitian Clan and the Azuresky Clan knew about the Fane of Origin. Why would they tell the Fane of Immortality?"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was moved by Zhang Ruochen's words. He asked cautiously, "Now, how many forces know about the coming of the Fane of Origin?"

"About twenty."

Zhang Ruochen continued, "However, only three forces have superior grade Divine Crystals of Origin. The only force that knows the exact location of the Fane of Origin should be our Xue Jue family."

BANG!

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was so excited that he smashed the table with one palm. He said with a red face, "Why didn't you say so earlier? Yes, of course. I don't think we need to join forces with the forces of the Bloodysky Clan. Since we are the only ones who know the exact location of the Fane of Origin, let Lord Ming lead a team and go in to collect some good things first. Ruochen, you've made a great contribution to the Xue Jue family this time!"

'So, you're also a greedy person!' Zhang Ruochen coughed dryly and said seriously, "As far as I know, the deities of the Celestial Court are closely monitoring the deities of the Infernal Court. Can Uncle Ming escape easily?"

"Don't worry. Lord Ming likes to take risks. He might not be willing to do anything without challenges. If he knew about the birth of the Fane of Origin, he would try to escape. You have to believe that he has the ability," Supreme Saint Qingsheng said.

Zhang Ruochen then told Supreme Saint Qingsheng the exact location of the Fane of Origin.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng couldn't wait. That night, he left the Royal City of Hundred Clans and rushed back to the Xue Jue family. His heart was boiling again, which had been calm for many years.

Zhang Ruochen certainly couldn't bear to share the wealth and treasures of the Fane of Origin with the Celestial Court.

Zhang Ruochen told Lord Ming to go in quietly and loot the place for the Xue Jue family. Hence, even if Zhang Ruochen didn't enter the Fane of Origin, he could still get some benefits.

'Uncle Ming will have to open a way to enter the Fane of Origin when he is the first to go, right? That will save me a lot of troubles if I follow his route. I don't even need Kai Luo to break the array.'

It was up to Lord Ming, whether he was capable enough. After all, he was only a new god. Zhang Ruochen still had some doubts about his uncle's ability.

"What am I thinking? I'm only a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. How can I doubt the ability of a deity?"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and did not think anymore. He continued to comprehend Swordsmanship.

Zhang Ruochen's attainments in the precepts and Swordsmanship increased steadily. However, every time he condensed the Heaven Sword Soul, he failed.

Gradually, Zhang Ruochen came to a conclusion about the problem.

First, condensing the Heaven Sword Soul had a high requirement for the number of Precepts of Swordsmanship.

The more Precepts of Swordsmanship he cultivated, the easier it would be to condense the Heaven Sword Soul.

However, Zhang Ruochen was only in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. After cultivating two hundred million Precepts of Swordsmanship in his body, he had clearly felt a bottleneck. It was extremely difficult to increase it.

Second, condensing the Heaven Sword Soul had a high requirement for the strength of a cultivator's own Saint Soul.

When Blood Empress gave birth to Zhang Ruochen, she was not a deity. Therefore, although Zhang Ruochen was the son of a deity, his soul power was not strong. He could not be compared with cultivators like Luo Shengtian, Que Shenzi, and Luo Sha. Their souls were nurtured by the deity in their infancy.

How did Lan Ying become the only cultivator in the Thousand-Koan Realm who had cultivated the Heaven Sword Soul since the Yuanhui period?

Other than his profound attainments in Swordsmanship, his soul power was powerful.

He was the Divine Fetus, the body of a spirit soul nurtured by the divine power and Qi of slaughter on the battlefield of gods. It was nurtured for three Yuanhui periods, close to 400,000 years.

His Core Spirit was likely to be a divine soul, but it was sealed at the level of a Saint Soul and had not been fully released. It was even more powerful than Luo Shengtian, Que Shenzi, and Luo Sha.

This level of soul power was something ordinary cultivators, Scion, and Scionesses, could only dream of.

Even with such powerful soul power, Lan Ying had only cultivated the Heaven Sword Soul after breaking through to the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm. The last time Zhang Ruochen fought with him, he sensed that Lan Ying had more than one billion Precepts of Swordsmanship.

Zhang Ruochen's soul power was inferior to his, and he only had 200 million Precepts of Swordsmanship. Condensing the Heaven Sword Soul was even harder than ascending to heaven.

"No matter how difficult it is, I have to try."

Zhang Ruochen decided to do both.

First, since increasing the number of Precepts of Swordsmanship was challenging, he could only improve the quality of the Precepts of Swordsmanship.

Like when he cultivated the Earth Sword Soul, Zhang Ruochen had swallowed a large amount of Meritorious Sword-cleansing Essence and refined the Precepts of Swordsmanship in his body to the extreme. Therefore, he succeeded in one go.

Treasures like Meritorious Sword-cleansing Essence could be found in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Second, to improve the Saint Soul.

There were many ways to improve the Saint Soul. For example, to absorb the Saint Soul of other cultivators and refine the stellar soul of a deity.

Guye Jing owed Zhang Ruochen soul power debt. Obviously, he was looking for an opportunity to get it back.

However, compared to absorbing the Saint Soul of other cultivators, refining the stellar soul of a deity would improve the Saint Soul faster. Last time, Zhang Ruochen refined a small amount of the stellar soul of a deity left in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace by Wargod Bloodximius, which improved the Saint Souls significantly.

The stellar soul of a deity...

Zhang Ruochen sighed, "My mother once killed a pseudo god. I don't know if the stellar soul of a deity is still there. If I can refine the complete pseudo god's stellar soul... Sigh! Forget it. My mother has gone to the Jadeite Realm. I'll think of a way in the Royal City of Hundred Clans!"

Zhang Ruochen went to the top shops, chambers of commerce, and even the House of Enchanters in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. He had some gains.

He bought half a bottle of Divine Sword-Lacquer to cleanse the Precepts of Swordsmanship, and three King Grade Sacred Pills, Pill of Nether-Soul, to improve the Saint Soul.

The Divine Sword-Lacquer was a liquid born from the inside of a divine weapon-level sword. It was extremely precious and could only be encountered by sword cultivators.

The Pill of Nether-Soul was a pill refined by the Nether Hall to improve a cultivator's Saint Soul. It was expensive and rare.

It didn't take long for Zhang Ruochen to refine the Divine Sword-Lacquer and the Pill of Nether-Soul. He had indeed refined the Precepts of Swordsmanship and improved his Saint Soul by ten to twenty percent. However, it was far from Zhang Ruochen's goal.

Zhang Ruochen finally knew that some things couldn't be bought with Godstones.

Just like the Pill of Nether-Soul, Zhang Ruochen wanted to buy more. However, people told him that the Nether Hall only released limited pills. There were only three in the entire Royal City of Hundred Clans. A Supreme Saint from the Nether Hall could buy up to ten Pills of Nether-Soul at a lower price.

If it was a descendant of a deity of the Nether Hall, he would get a bigger share.

As for the Divine Sword-Lacquer, Zhang Ruochen first thought of Lord Ming's Stellar Sword. However, Lord Ming was probably already on his way to the Southern Sword Realm.

Moreover, the Stellar Sword was a divine sword of fire nature. It was unlikely to produce the Divine Sword-Lacquer.

And the more precious Stellar Soul of God was not sold at all.

One must know that the Royal City of Hundred Clans was an supercity. If an item could not be bought in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, the outcome would be the same when you tried to find it in a divine city.

Zhang Ruochen had his eyes set on the Intergold Tiger, but the tiger did not care about him.

Just when Zhang Ruochen was at a loss, his mind moved. He sensed the aura of Terra Demon Emperor. There was another important figure with him.

"It's him. That's great. I don't have to worry anymore!"

Zhang Ruochen was overjoyed. He waved his sleeve, and the wind kicked up. The door opened, and he walked out quickly to welcome him.

The important figure who had come with Terra Demon Emperor was the Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his fists and said, "Greetings, Your Highness, Your Eminence."

The High Priest was concerned about Zhang Ruochen's safety. After hearing the news about Zhang Ruochen, he immediately rushed to the Royal City of Hundred Clans from Hoth.

After all, Zhang Ruochen was a new generation hero that Fukurokuju valued. He also had the background of the Xue Jue family and God's Ancient Nidus. Nothing could go wrong.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was fine, Fortune Palace's High Priest was in a good mood. Then, he noticed the seven cultivators in the yard and recognized Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi. His expression was both shocking and strange.

Fortune Palace's High Priest spoke like Zhang Ruochen's elder in his family, "Ruochen, it's good for young people to be sharp," he said earnestly. "But the Fane of Death is full of powerful people. They're also fierce. It's best not to offend them too harshly or hurt their faces."

Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi had long been disheartened. They did not have any hope for the Fane of Destiny. They knew that the Xue Jue family was a force of Fortune Palace's High Priest. They would not place their hope on the High Priest. They would rather wish Buddha would show some miracle to let them break the curse and escape.

Zhang Ruochen said, "The high priest is right. I don't want to become enemies with the Fane of Death. So, I think it's effective to let the two Martial-Nephews use Buddhist dharma to resolve their resentment and killing intent.

"After the three White Reapers refined the Pill of Feelings and Desires, their buddhist hearts have grown. Their killing intent has almost disappeared.

"Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi have also become calmer. They can now recite the Maitrī Sunyata Sutra."

Sikong the Elder held his head high and puffed out his chest. "They can also recite the Shorter Sukhāvatīvyūha Sutra and the Lotus Sutra."

Zhang Ruochen was pleasantly surprised. He nodded to Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi with certainty.

Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi were so ashamed that they wished they could find a hole to hide in.

"These people have gone too far. They have humiliated us in front of Terra Demon Emperor and Fortune Palace's High Priest. This is intolerable.

"Sigh. Forget it. We'll just endure it!"

Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi gritted their teeth and chanted a Buddhist chant to suppress their anger. After they chanted the name of Buddha, they realized something was wrong. It was too late to regret it!

Fortune Palace's High Priest and the Terra Demon Emperor were stunned. 'The five Isshou Realm Supreme Saints from the Fane of Death are going to convert to Buddhism?

'Anything is indeed possible!'

After Fortune Palace's High Priest and Zhang Ruochen asked each other some questions, he planned to leave and return to Hoth. After all, the most important thing for the Fane of Destiny was to deal with Ji Fanxin, a Yuanhui-level genius, and to get the Tensho Compass back.

Her escape route through Hoth had to be sealed off.

"High Priest, please wait. I want to buy something," Zhang Ruochen said.

Fortune Palace's High Priest wasn't surprised at all. Instead, he smiled and said, "Zhang Ruochen, how rich are you? You want to buy it through me. It seems that you want to buy something extraordinary."

The Fortune Palace wasn't famous for its combat power. Its combat power was far inferior to the Death Palace and the Ominous Palace.

However, the Fortune Palace was ranked first in the Fane of Destiny regarding wealth and cultivation resources.

This was because the Fortune Palace's job wasn't to fight but to manage most of the Fane of Destiny's businesses. It was the biggest source of the fortune of the Fane of Destiny.

The Realm of Star Ocean was the biggest business empire in the Infernal Court. It was powerful and known as the Infernal Court's eleventh clan. It controlled hundreds of millions of shops and had countless planets, primitive worlds, and secret universe realms under its banner.

And behind the Realm of Star Ocean was the Fortune Palace.

Of course, in a sense, the Fortune Palace was just the manager. The wealth and benefits produced by the Realm of Star Ocean actually belonged to the entire Fane of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen told Fortune Palace's High Priest that he wanted to condense the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill and then told him what he wanted.

"Condense the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill?" Even Terra Demon Emperor was shocked.

Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi were shocked when they heard Zhang Ruochen's story. But soon, they sneered and thought that Zhang Ruochen was delusional.

On the other hand, Fortune Palace's High Priest was touched because Zhang Ruochen had told him the secret openly, which meant that he trusted him.

It was almost impossible to condense the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill, but what if Zhang Ruochen succeeded?

Once he succeeded, it would be of great significance.

It would greatly impact the Infernal Court and the millions of cultivators in the Myriad Realms of Celestial Court.

It could even rewrite the entire history of cultivation in the universe.

Since it could be recorded in the history books and spread throughout the ages, even if Zhang Ruochen was delusional, he had to try his best to help.

Fortune Palace's High Priest said, "The cultivation resources you need are of a very high level. Only the Realm of Star Ocean's headquarter in the Divine Domain of Destiny has them. Moreover, you need a lot of them. It will be difficult to gather them in a short time. Are you in a hurry?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Yes."

Beside him, Terra Demon Emperor lowered his head and pondered. It was unknown what he was thinking. Suddenly, he said, "We do have some Stellar Souls of God."

"Your Highness, can you sell them all to me at any price?"

Zhang Ruochen knew that Stellar Souls of God were expensive. He didn't have many Godstones now, but he had a lot of treasures and resources. He could sell some of them.

To cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul and condense the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill, Zhang Ruochen could bear any price.

Terra Demon Emperor smiled and said, “Supreme Saint Ruochen, you don’t know that the Stellar Soul of God is never for sale.”

“It’s not for sale. Why did you say that?” Sikong the Elder glared at the old man.

“It’s only for gifting,” Terra Demon Emperor added.

Zhang Ruochen understood the more profound meaning. He quickly thanked the emperor. “Thank you, Your Highness. I will definitely remember your kindness.”

Terra Demon Emperor grabbed Zhang Ruochen’s hand and patted it lightly. “You’re being too polite, Supreme Saint Ruochen. It’s just a bit of the Stellar Soul of God.”

“Just call me Ruochen,” Zhang Ruochen said.

In recent days, Yan Yu had taken the initiative to befriend Zhang Ruochen, and the new Scioness of Destiny had taken the initiative to visit him. Now, even Fortune Palace’s High Priest had come. All the forces were trying to curry favor with him. Terra Demon Emperor was an experienced person. How could he not see Zhang Ruochen’s potential in the future?

Now, Zhang Ruochen, the prodigy, lived in the sacred ground of the Terra Demons. He should try to win Zhang Ruochen over now. Or else, it would be too late to do so when Zhang Ruochen reached the level of the Wargod Bloodximius.

Terra Demon Emperor was waiting for the perfect opportunity to give him a helping hand today. Naturally, he had to grasp it firmly.

It would be best if Zhang Ruochen could condense the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill. Even if he couldn’t, it would be good for him to give away some Stellar Souls of God and form a good relationship.

Giving away the Stellar Souls of God was just a small favor for Zhang Ruochen.

He should take this opportunity to tie the relationship more tightly.

The Terra Demon Emperor said with a smile, “Ruochen, what do you think of Qingying of our clan? I wonder if she is lucky enough to marry into the Xue Jue Family?”

“Well...”

Zhang Ruochen had just received a considerable favor from the Terra Demons, so he could not refuse directly. Otherwise, the Terra Demon royal family would lose face.

Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi were already burning with jealousy. They gritted their teeth as they watched from the side. Their eyes were about to spit fire.

‘This emperor gave Zhang Ruochen the Stellar Soul of God to befriend the Xue Jue family.

‘Not to mention Xuan Qingying is one of the prettiest women at the edge of the Infernal Court. Her cultivation is also very strong. In the future, when she reaches the Paramount Realm, her name will most likely enter the Tome of the Divines. There are countless suitors for such a talented girl. She is a girl that even the gods will set their eyes on them.

‘Now, the emperor lowered his pride and asked Zhang Ruochen to accept the proposal, but this pretentious brat dares to show hesitation. This is unbearable.’

Terra Demon Emperor didn’t overthink. After all, Master Yan Yu wanted Zhang Ruochen to take the eldest young lady of Yanluo Clan as bride.

Although Xuan Qingying was outstanding, she was nothing compared to the eldest young lady of Yanluo Clan.

Chapter 2558: Sightseeing with a Beauty

Seeing Zhang Ruochen was in a difficult position, the emperor of Terra Demons was sensible and did not continue to ask.

After all, it was good to have a marriage, but it did not matter if it did not work out. When Xuan Qingying broke through to the Paramount Realm, she had a chance to become a god's concubine. It was also a way to rise.

Zhang Ruochen was in a difficult position not because he was honest nor uninterested in beauty. It was just that he did not want to leave too many flaws for himself.

Think about it. Once he agreed with the emperor of Terra Demons, he would be responsible for Xuan Qingying, a woman he had no feelings for.

Zhang Ruochen had so many enemies in Celestial Court and Infernal Court. If those enemies caught this flaw and took Xuan Qingying away, they would threaten him. Should he save her or not?

Conversely, Luo Sha and Yan Zhexian would not have him worried so much.

Even if the gods caught them, they would risk the extinction of their clans.

Shortly after Fortune Palace's High Priest left, Xuan Qingying was ordered by the emperor to deliver the Stellar Soul of God that was stored in the divine crystal to Zhang Ruochen.

Xuan Qingying left after Zhang Ruochen exchanged some pleasantries and thanked her.

She didn't seem to know that the emperor had sent her here for another reason.

The Terra Demons had sent more Stellar Soul of God than the Wargod Bloodximius had left in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. After Zhang Ruochen refined them, his saint soul and spiritual power improved significantly.

However, it was still far from enough.

He had to elevate his saint soul to a level stronger than Lan Ying. It required a vast amount of resources.

This was not only practicing the Heaven Sword Soul and the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill but also paving the way for Zhang Ruochen to become a god faster and easier.

It would be best if he could elevate his saint soul to a level comparable to the divine soul.

However, it would take a long time for Fortune Palace's High Priest to mobilize resources, and Zhang Ruochen's time was extremely precious. He could not just wait.

He had to act.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen was shocked. 'I got it. I have a misunderstanding idea. How could the Royal City of Hundred Clans not have cultivation resources like Divine Sword-Lacquer and Pill of Nether-Soul? However, the shops or Chambers of Commerce did not sell these cultivation resources. They were stored in the sacred ground of the various clans.

'However, these small clans could not sell their precious cultivation resources to me. What should I do?'

Not long after, Zhang Ruochen had an idea. He then went to look for Yan Zhexian.

Yan Zhexian did not expect Zhang Ruochen to take the initiative to look for her. Moreover, he had invited her to visit the places of interest in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. She had wanted to refuse, but she was conflicted when she remembered that Zhang Ruochen had saved her.

Yan Yu had been whispering many nice things about Zhang Ruochen in her ear lately.

She had looked up Zhang Ruochen's detailed information and knew that Zhang Ruochen had joined the Infernal Court to save his son and daughter. He had been forced to do so and was not the kind of betrayer or cold-blooded and ruthless killer she had thought he was.

Yan Yu had analyzed the subtleties of Zhang Ruochen's situation for her. He had come to the Infernal Court to do many extreme things. In fact, he had done so because he wanted the warlords. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to survive in the Infernal Court.

Yan Zhexian couldn't trust any cultivators, but she trusted her uncle very much.

Thinking about it carefully, she felt Zhang Ruochen was quite pitiful. He didn't look as annoying as before, so she agreed.

After returning to the Terra Demon's sacred land, Yan Yu first went to see Yan Huangtu, who was recuperating, and asked him carefully if he had really said anything to humiliate Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Huangtu wanted to cry yet tearless. 'Why didn't even my brother believe me? Do I look like someone with a running mouth?'

After a while, Yan Yu walked out of Yan Huangtu's recuperating courtyard. His eyes became cold.

If the cultivators of Fane of Death really dared to plot against his own brother, he had to give them a solemn warning.

A Yanluo clan's cultivator walked over quickly. He knelt on one knee and reported that Zhang Ruochen had taken Yan Zhexian away.

Yan Yu was slightly surprised when he heard it. He asked, "Zhang Ruochen took the initiative?"

"Yes. I heard that Zhang Ruochen wanted to show her the places of interest in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. She agreed after a moment of hesitation!"

Yan Yu smiled and said, "That's good news! But..."

Yan Yu thought of a person. She was Peach Blossom, the top-ranked killer of Empyrean Assassins.

'That woman is in the city, but she has not shown up. What if she attacks Zhang Ruochen?

'Zhang Ruochen is a smart person. He should have thought of this. But why did he still plan to do it? Is he trying to lure the Peach Blossom out on purpose?'

Yan Yu was not worried about Yan Zhexian's safety. The Ancient God of Knowledge had been furious ever since the assassination attempt took place at Hoth. He sent someone to deliver a Divine Talisman Robe immediately.

Yes, there was only one.

And he gave it to Yan Zhexian instead of Yan Huangtu, who had also experienced death.

It was not that Yan Huangtu was not valued, but the gods of the Yanluo clan believed the truly powerful should endure more trials. However, Yan Zhexian was a woman, and she was on a different path. Her talent was reflected more in Talisman.

Zhang Ruochen was also afraid of Peach Blossom, so his first stop was straight to the Wulvers.

"The Seven Mountain Chain of the Wulvers' sacred ground was one of the top ten great sceneries in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. It was magnificent and spectacular. Standing on the first peak, you can see the majestic Demonic Sea of Clouds. The lord ancestor of the Wulvers, Fenrir, once captured a shining star from the sky and fixed it in the sky above the sacred ground, turning it into a bright moon that never falls."

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Zhexian walked into the Wulvers' sacred ground. They talked as they walked in the mountains, which had the charm of an immortal couple.

Seven monks followed behind them.

Zhen Nu, Zhen Se, Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, and Zhen Wang each held a box.

Yan Zhexian asked, “Zhang Ruochen, you always cultivate in seclusion. How can you have the mood for sightseeing? Just say it. What is your purpose in coming to the Wulvers’ sacred ground?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s true for sightseeing since I promised your uncle. I also wanted to take this opportunity to visit and apologize to all the clans personally. Miss Zhexian, you should know that I offended all the clans in the Royal City of Hundred Clans because I was cultivating in seclusion in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace during the few days I entered the city. This hatred will be formed if I don’t apologize. I don’t want a group of enemies for no reason.”

Yan Zhexian snorted and gave him a look that said, ‘I knew your intentions weren’t simple.’ She said, “You want to make amends and apologize? What do you mean by bringing me along?”

“Everyone shows their respect to the young lady of the Yanluo clan. Those small clans might not accept my apology, but they might accept for your sake when they see you coming along,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Zhang Ruochen’s words were so lovely that even Yan Zhexian didn’t know how to refute him!

The emperor of the Wulvers received Zhang Ruochen and Yan Zhexian.

With the relationship between Zhang Ruochen and the Wulvers, the apology was just a formality. Both sides laughed off their grudges immediately and began to brag to each other.

Yan Zhexian couldn’t stand their looks. So, she left and visited the places of interest in the sacred ground alone.

Zhang Ruochen and the emperor of the Wulvers started to talk business after she left.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Have you found out who the traitor is?”

“It’s Jiushou Bailang. He had personally executed by Handae.”

The emperor of the Wulvers' face was cold, and he stared at Zhang Ruochen. He suddenly smiled, "The five apology gifts from Ruochen are all priceless. I think you came to the Wulvers' sacred ground for another purpose."

Zhang Ruochen straightforwardly said his purpose was to practice the Heaven Sword Soul.

It means these five treasures were not gifts of apology but things to buy the resources to improve the Saint Soul and refine the Precepts of Swordsmanship.

The relationship between the Wulvers and Kunlun's field had never been broken. Of course, they would help Zhang Ruochen.

The Wulvers was worthy of being the third prominent clan in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. The resources they offered were not comparable to the Terra Demon. Zhang Ruochen had gained a lot.

Initially, Zhang Ruochen had another purpose. He wanted to ask Handae, Fenrir's grandson, to protect him from the assassination of the Peach Blossom. However, to his surprise, Le showed up and claimed he had a way to balance the Peach Blossom and didn't need the protection of the god.

Although Zhang Ruochen didn't know where Le's confidence came from, he still chose to trust him. He didn't continue to ask for the protection of the god. After all, the gods were of noble status. They couldn't protect him forever.

At the mountain gate of the Wulvers' sacred ground, Zhang Ruochen spoke to Le telepathically.

"Do you know Peach Blossom?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Le stood with his sword in his hand silently.

Zhang Ruochen understood. He patted his shoulder and said, "You must be careful. It's dangerous to fall in love with a woman who is a killer and stronger than you. You volunteered because you worried the gods would ambush her if she tried to assassinate me, right? Do you care about her a lot?"

“Actually, it’s her who has been pestering me. But I don’t want her to die in the hands of the gods. Don’t worry. If she wants to kill you, she must kill me first,” Le said.

Zhang Ruochen was stunned for a while. Then, he showed a look of admiration.

A top-ranked killer emperor was pestering Le. Zhang Ruochen was less afraid. Instead, he looked forward to meeting this girl.

“Where are the cultivators of the Fane of Death Now?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“The Rotkins’ sacred ground. The Rotkins are dependent on the Fane of Death,” Le said.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment. “Next stop, we will go to the Rotkins’ sacred ground.”

Yan Zhexian returned from her mountain excursion. She looked at Zhang Ruochen coldly and was highly displeased.

Zhang Ruochen looked apologetic. He walked over and said, “I’m sorry. The emperor of the Wulvers is too warm. I really couldn’t get away. I shouldn’t have left you alone.”

“Don’t talk so much nonsense. Continue apologizing to the other tribes by yourself. Forgive me for not accompanying you!”

How could Yan Zhexian not know that Zhang Ruochen was using her? She wouldn’t mind helping Zhang Ruochen if Zhang Ruochen was sincere enough. It was to return his favor.

However, Zhang Ruochen was entirely perfunctory for her. The so-called visiting the places of interest meant she was enjoying the cool breeze alone on the peak.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen couldn’t let Yan Zhexian go. The most crucial step was going to the Rotkins’ sacred ground.

Many masters of the Fane of Death gathered in the Rotkins’ sacred ground. If Yan Zhexian did not go with him, Zhang Ruochen would be torn to pieces no matter how many trump cards he had. There was no way to execute the following plan.

Zhang Ruochen quickly caught up and said, “Miss Zhexian, let me tell you the truth. I really want to ask you for help this time.”

Then, Zhang Ruochen told her his plan in detail.

It turned out that the apology was also fake. Zhang Ruochen’s purpose was to buy the cultivated resources from the other clans.

“You want to condense the Heaven Sword Soul in the Hundred-Shackle Realm? And you want to practice the Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill?” Yan Zhexian stared at Zhang Ruochen in disbelief. She felt that what he said was impossible.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I’m just trying. What if I succeed? Miss Zhexian, can you help me?”

Yan Zhexian didn't know if she wanted to return Zhang Ruochen's favor or if she felt Zhang Ruochen was honest enough, but she agreed.

However, she had a condition.

Since Zhang Ruochen claimed he was taking her out to visit places of interest, he had to keep his word.

Hearing this condition, Zhang Ruochen was very surprised. He thought she would take the opportunity to extort. He couldn't help but think. Did Yan Zhexian have other motives?

"Are you going to agree or not?" Yan Zhexian pouted and urged.

"Sure! I've been in seclusion for many days. I'd be very active physically after a forced quiet. It's a good thing to take this opportunity to walk around and broaden my horizons." Zhang Ruochen agreed.

Both of them entered the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords carried the colossal palace and rolled up a thick, cold ghost fog. They swaggered toward the Rotkins scared ground.

Le sat on the stone steps outside the palace, holding his iron sword diagonally. He was thinking alone and coldly. No one knew what he was thinking.

The seven monks, led by Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger, followed behind.

“Walk faster. You are dilly-dallying.”

Sikong the Elder knocked Zhen Sha’s butt. Zhen Sha wasn’t angry. He took more giant steps.

Zhen Se “Que Shenzi” and Zhen Nu “Tian Shuzi” were ecstatic when they heard Zhang Ruochen was going to the Rotkins scared ground. Then they began to feel anxious.

They were ecstatic because almost all the great Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death were gathered in the Rotkins scared ground. Zhang Ruochen’s trip would definitely be disastrous. They could also regain their freedom.

They felt anxious because how could Zhang Ruochen go to the Rotkins scared ground if he didn’t have a certain amount of confidence?

What was Zhang Ruochen’s purpose for going to the Rotkins scared ground?

Moreover, wouldn’t they be laughed at for the rest of their lives if they went to the Rotkins scared ground and let the great Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death see them with their current appearance?

In the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Yan Zhexian asked, “The Heaven and Earth Slaughterer who helped me win the bet in the House of Enchanters of the Divine Domain of Destiny was transformed by you, right?”

“Yes.”

Zhang Ruochen answered while counting the boxes he got from the Wulvers.

“Why?”

“No reason. It’s nothing.”

Yan Zhexian was not satisfied with this answer. She said, “It’s because of the child in my belly, right?”

Zhang Ruochen counted everything and put them all into his Ring of Dimensions. Then he stared at her thoughtfully and answered, “Actually, I already know that there is no intimate relationship between us.”

A touch of embarrassment appeared on Yan Zhexian's fair face after she heard this.

It turned out that...

He already knew!

Zhang Ruochen continued, "But outsiders don't know it. We should get closer and display affection so the Yanluo clan won't be embarrassed. This is what you think, right?"

Yan Zhexian's embarrassment disappeared. Her expression turned cold. She said, "It's good that you know. So you'd better don't have improper thoughts about me. Our relationship can only stay at the level of cooperation."

"I understand. That's what I need too," Zhang Ruochen said straightforwardly.

"HMPH!"

Yan Zhexian snorted and walked out of the palace in a hurry.

Zhang Ruochen didn't chase after her. Instead, he took out the Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, "Saint Soul Pill," which he had just obtained. He was going to swallow and refine it.

Yan Zhexian, who had walked to the door, suddenly stopped. She turned around and said rudely, "The Fane of Death is the greatness in the Deathkin. It has a deep foundation and many masters. You'd better be careful."

"Thank you for your concern, Miss Zhexian." Zhang Ruochen sat on the ground and bowed to her.

Yan Zhexian waved her sleeve and left. She felt inexplicable resentment in her heart. She thought to herself, "It's just a deal. I'll just treat it as an act for all the cultivators in the world to see. Otherwise, those guys will secretly laugh at me or criticize the Yanluo clan. It's really annoying."

The Royal City of Hundred Clans, which constantly gathered the talented and able, was again in an uproar today.

After many days, Zhang Ruochen swaggered on the streets again. He was still riding the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, which was incredibly high-profile. What surprised everyone was the seven monks following behind the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

“What do I see? Is that Que Shenzi?”

“There are Tian Shuzi and three White Reaper.”

“My god! Why are they all shaved and wearing monk robes? Are they really going to convert to Buddhist Sect?”

“Five Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death had become monks. This is a rare occurrence even in the Yuanhui period.”

“Zhang Ruochen is too bold. We’re going to see some fun. Just wait and see. The Fane of Death will definitely take action.”

...

Everyone spread the news one after another. More and more cultivators followed behind the Sevenstar Imperial Palace to watch.

The scared ground of the Rotkins was called the Devourer Swamp.

It was a black swamp that covered a hundred miles. There were many ghost mountains and shade peaks around it. It was like a basin, so it was called the Devourer Swamp.

The Devourer Swamp was barren. It was filled with Yin all year round. Its corruption power was strong.

Two important figures from the Fane of Death came to the Devourer Swamp today. One was called Hai Ke, and the other was called Nan Sheng.

Two of them were in the Banshi Isshou Realm but had already entered the Tome of the Divines. They were even more famous than Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi in the Deathkin. Yuan Qianmo had personally written a letter to invite them over.

The Rotkins scared ground held a grand saint feast to welcome the two of them.

A group of beautiful Rakshasi placed a jade plate with a human head on top of their heads. They formed a long line and presented it to Nan Sheng one by one.

“Nan Sheng likes to eat human heads” was a well-known fact in the entire Infernal Court.

On the other side, a group of Immortal Vampire maidservants with wings held jade bowls filled with babies and presented them to the Hai Ke.

“Hai Ke likes to eat baby. He eats 800 babies every day” was also famous.

Nan Sheng and Hai Ke sat at the top. The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death and Yuan Benji sat on the left and right sides.

As for the cultivators of the Rotkins, including the emperor, all stood and waited on them carefully.

“I ate 1,000 babies today. I’m full. Keep the rest and give them to me tomorrow.”

After Hai Ke had eaten the 1,000th baby, he grabbed two Immortal Vampire maidservants with each hand and held them in his arms. He pinched them so hard that they cried out in pain.

Just like how the Immortal Vampire could capture the Six-Tribulation Ghost Lord to carry the palace, it was usual for other clans to take the Immortal Vampire as their slaves. However, doing so in a formal situation was humiliating to some extent.

The 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords who had helped Zhang Ruochen carry the Sevenstar Imperial Palace were deliberately done by Wargod Bloodximius to disgust the Ghost Master.

After Nan Sheng ate 1,000 human heads, he waved his hand to signal the Rakshasi to leave.

He was different from Hai Ke. He was a very refined man who looked similar to humans. He had two strands of white hair on his temples.

Nan Sheng said, “I was practicing in the south. If I didn’t show respect to Yuan Qianmo, I wouldn’t have come. Who can tell me why the Fane of Death, strong like a school of silver carp moving down a stream, was humiliated by a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint?”

Hai Ke revealed his sharp fangs and laughed sinisterly, “A bunch of losers. Even if Zhang Ruochen has superhuman powers, he’s only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He captured five Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints. How can you still sit here? Losers. All of you are losers.”

The Fane of Death’s Supreme Saints were all embarrassed and nervous. No one dared to argue.

After all, both of them had terrifying backgrounds. If nothing went wrong, they would take over Yuan Qianmo’s position and become the pillar of the Fane of Death.

They had eaten the head of a Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death in their rage. They only would be reprimanded by the gods at most.

Yuan Benji laughed dryly, “Zhang Ruochen’s demigod body is powerful. He has a huge advantage in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.”

Another Supreme Saint quickly added, “That’s right. The environment is too favorable for him. If it were anywhere else, Tian Shuzi and Que Shenzi wouldn’t have lost to him.”

“He has a demigod body? So what? He only has brute force. Haha, I also have brute force.” Hai Ke’s arms were as thick as an elephant’s leg. The two Immortal Vampire maidservants in his arms were crushed into two balls of blood mist with two explosions.

The other Immortal Vampire maidservants were so scared that they knelt on the ground and trembled.

Nan Sheng smiled calmly and said, “Who can compare to Hai Ke in terms of physical strength? His physical body is divine and has been tempered in the Apeiron Sea for thousands of years. Let alone a demigod’s physical body, even some weaker Paramount physique can be shattered with one punch.”

Hai Ke was from Deathkin, but he had been transformed from a god’s corpse.

“Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power is also extreme,” Yuan Benji said.

Nan Sheng’s eyes flashed with contempt. He chanted the word “Xing”.

“Swoosh!”

Countless figures appeared in heaven and earth.

Nan Sheng’s spiritual power formed each figure.

“Zhe!”

Another word rang out.

The figures in the sky rushed into Nan Sheng’s body like a hummingbird returning to its nest.

Nan Sheng said, “Who do you think has stronger spiritual power? Zhang Ruochen or me?”

Yuan Benji laughed out loud. “Nan Sheng is under the Seven Elders of South-Haven. Zhang Ruochen naturally can’t compare with him in terms of the strength and the use of spiritual power.”

Legend had four legendary figures in the Infernal Court with spiritual power at the 90th level.

Yama Grand Supreme, Void Disaster Palace.

Starry Ocean Fisherman, South-Haven Life-Death Ruins.

The Seven Elders Yuan Benji mentioned were the seventh disciple of the South-Haven Life-Death Ruins. Every disciple of that person was named after a number.

Seven was his last disciple.

Many gods had to address him as the Seven Elders even though he was only the seventh disciple.

Of course, these four spiritual power legends were all proverbs left behind 100,000 years ago. They were famous throughout the world during the Divine Wars.

No one knew whether any of them had died in the past 100,000 years.

It was also unknown whether a new 90th level of spiritual power had been born.

Hai Ke couldn't wait any longer. He said, "Let's go and capture that kid now. I'll definitely let him understand what it means can neither live nor die. A demigod's body, right? I'll tear him apart with my own hands."

Suddenly, a cultivator of the Rotkins rushed to the bottom of the steps of the saint feast with a terrified expression. He said anxiously, "Z-Zhang Ruochen is here. Zhang Ruochen i-is in the scared ground..."

“Zhang Ruochen of the Xue Jue Family pays a visit to the sacred ground of the Rotkins.”

Zhang Ruochen’s voice was like a divine thunderclap, surging into the Devonian layer by layer, causing the clouds to roll and boil over.

The Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death was both surprised and shocked.

Hai Ke was stunned for a moment, and then he laughed loudly. “Since he came to us of his own accord, it saves us a lot of trouble. Old Man Sigui, go and bring him in. I want to see what this brat is capable of since he could capture a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm.”

With a brief acknowledgment, Sigui, the leader of the Rotkins, immediately led a group of cultivators and flew toward the mountain gate of the sacred ground.

Outside of Devonian, there was already a mass of people, with cultivators from all clans gathering to watch the spectacle.

This was too shocking!

The Fane of Death didn’t seek trouble from Zhang Ruochen. Was Zhang Ruochen going to take the initiative and attack them first?

Zhang Ruochen brought five Supreme Saints from the Fane of Death who have turned into monks with him. This was definitely a provocation and humiliation. It was like stepping on the Fane of Death’s face and slapping it.

“Zhang Ruochen and the Fane of Death are already at each other’s throats. I wonder what will happen next?”

“Zhang Ruochen is too stupid to try to challenge the entire Fane of Death on his own. If I were him, I would have to join forces with the top ten clans of the Immortal Vampires first. Only by using the power of the entire Immortal Vampires can one fight against the Fane of Death.”

“The other cultivators of the Immortal Vampires don’t have a deep hatred for the Fane of Death. Why should they listen to his call? Besides, with Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation, he’s far from being able to command the entire Immortal Vampires.”

...

...

Yan Zhexian stood in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and didn’t reveal herself for the time being. However, she was shocked by the surrounding atmosphere. She didn’t expect this matter to develop to such an extent. It practically blew up the entire Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Suddenly, she regretted promising Zhang Ruochen.

Even if she, the eldest daughter of the Yanluo clan, went with him, she probably wouldn’t be able to suppress the anger of the cultivators of the Fane of Death.

Whoosh

The array of inscriptions lit up at the Mountain Gate of the Rotkins sacred ground. From the center, a 30-foot-wide door appeared.

A dozen Supreme Saints walked out with the Rotkins Emperor leading the group.

Their bodies were all wrapped in black robes with faces that couldn’t be seen clearly, and they all radiated a cold, rotten power.

There weren’t many pleasantries to exchange. The Rotkins Emperor said, “Supreme Saint Ruochen, please come in.”

Zhang Ruochen stood outside the palace gate of Sevenstar Imperial Palace and looked down. He shook his head and said, "The Emperor hasn't even asked me why I want to visit the Rotkins. Why did he invite me in then? Is there an ambush inside?"

The Rotkins Emperor is aware of his bitterness. He knew that once Zhang Ruochen entered Devonian, he would definitely die.

If Zhang Ruochen died in Devonian, it would be strange if the Xue Jue Family didn't destroy the Rotkins.

But what could he do?

The Rotkins were attached to the Fane of Death after all. They could only do as they were told.

"Why have you come, Supreme Saint Ruochen?" The Rotkins Emperor asked patiently.

"To apologize, of course."

Zhang Ruochen snapped his fingers. Zhen Nu, Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, Zhen Wang, and Zhen Se walked out one after another. Each of them carried two big gleaming copper chests and placed them on the ground under Sikong the Elder's command.

The ten chests were opened, and dazzling divine light poured out.

They were ten chests filled to the brim with Godstones. There were 3,000 of them in total.

As royalty, he wasn't scared by 3,000 Godstones.

The Rotkins Emperor only glanced at them. His gaze fell on the five monks opposite him. He sneered in his heart, "You're here to apologize? No matter how I look at it, you're here to stir up trouble."

After seeing the five Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints from the Fane of Death become cultivators, the Fane of Death's Supreme Saints were filled with righteous anger. They couldn't sit still in the sacred ground anymore and flew out.

Ji originally roared, “Zhang Ruochen, if you want to apologize, hand over all your Supreme Artifacts first and then kowtow step by step into the Rotkins sacred ground. Maybe the Fane of Death will spare your life.”

The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death assume poses surrounding the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. They released their Saint Aura and wanted to tear Zhang Ruochen into pieces.

The atmosphere instantly became tense and murderous.

With just a single fuse, an unstoppable massacre would burst forth.

The powerful Saint Aura suffocated the onlooking cultivators of the various races. They were even more nervous than Zhang Ruochen, who was in the storm’s center.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, “Brother Yuan, you misunderstood. I’m not here to apologize to the Fane of Death but to the Rotkins.”

While everyone was confused, Zhang Ruochen continued, “I heard that when I entered the Royal City of Hundred Clans, all the clans in the city sent cultivators to invite me and pay me a visit. However, I was at a critical moment of cultivation during that time, so I couldn’t help but neglect the emissaries of the clans. I felt guilty for that, so I planned to apologize to them individually.”

“As for you from the Fane of Death, didn’t we agree last time that we would settle our feud with one battle? Aren’t you all a little forgetful?”

The Emperor of the Rotkins said, “I’m afraid you’ve misunderstood. No monk from the Rotkins has come to visit you, and no cultivator has invited you.”

Hearing this, the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death revealed mocking smiles.

“Is that so?”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t feel embarrassed at all, and he said, “Well, in that case, let’s talk about another thing, I want to cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but I know it's difficult. The main reason is that I lack cultivation resources. I wonder whether the Rotkins have any treasures to help cultivators improve their Saint Souls or Precepts of Swordsmanship? If so, I would like to buy some."

"No."

The Rotkins Emperor directly refused him.

What joke is he making? The Rotkins are attached to the Fane of Death. You, Zhang Ruochen trying to buy cultivation resources, and you came to the Rotkins. Aren't you asking for trouble?

You are simply asking to be humiliated.

The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death were happy to see Zhang Ruochen's idiotic look, so they were not in a hurry to make a move.

Zhang Ruochen asked again, "Is there really none? For example, such as the Stellar Soul of God, the Pill of Nether-Soul, the Pill of the Saint Soul, and the Divine Sword-Lacquer..."

"No, there is nothing. The Rotkins has none of anything that you might have wanted." The Rotkins Emperor gradually became more confident and said arrogantly, "However, the Rotkins doesn't mind taking the ten boxes of Godstones that Supreme Saint Ruochen has brought over."

Laughter broke out.

Zhang Ruochen nodded thoughtfully and said, "Well, I haven't really thought about taking the ten boxes of Godstones back. Now, let's talk about the third thing!"

Suddenly, a bloody light burst out of Zhang Ruochen's body.

A divine cloud of bloody sea appeared around him, and a pair of huge blood-red wings burst out of his back.

"It's... It's the Wargod Belt."

"That's right; it's indeed the Wargod Belt of the Immortal Vampires. Only the thirteen Wargods of the Immortal Vampires are qualified to wear it, which symbolizes supreme honor.”

“Wearing the Wargod Belt is like a Wargod personally arriving. When those from the Immortal Vampires see it, they should kneel and worship it. They should listen to given orders, and none of them could dare to disobey.”

...

All the Immortal Vampires present hesitated, not knowing whether they should kneel and worship it or not.

If one of the thirteen Wargods had come, they wouldn't hesitate. But the one wearing the Wargod Belt was Zhang Ruochen. He was only a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint.

Yuan Benji sneered when he saw the Immortal Vampires' reactions. It was ridiculous for Zhang Ruochen to think he could command the Immortal Vampires with just the Wargod Belt.

He was far inferior in both prestige and strength.

Zhang Ruochen summoned the Ancient Abyssal Blade and pointed it at the Rotkins Emperor, saying, “Today, I challenge the Rotkins in the name of the future Wargod of the Immortal Vampires. I want to be invincible in the current realm and the next. Whom under the sky can defeat me? Is there any in the strongest Hundred-Shackle Realm or Thousand-Koan Realm belonging to the Rotkins that dare to accept this challenge from me? If there is no one with the guts to fight me, any cultivator from the Rotkins that saw me from now on will have to retreat 30,000 miles away.”

Not a sound came from the surroundings.

None of the cultivators knew what Zhang Ruochen was trying to do! Some even thought that he might have met a problem with his cultivation and went insane.

“Why does his words sound so familiar?” A cultivator of the Immortal Vampires muttered to himself.

An older Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint beside him exclaimed, “I remember now. This is what Wargod Bloodximius said when he challenged all the cultivators of the Celestial Court.”

“The original words are: Today, I challenge the Celestial Court in the name of the future Wargod of the Immortal Vampires. I want to be invincible in the same realm and also in the next realm. Is there anyone in the Celestial Court who can defeat me?”

“This sentence has been carved on the divine column of the Fane of War in the Fane of Immortality. It is called the oath to conquer the world.”

The clamors became louder and louder.

Even after more than 100,000 years, there were still cultivators who remembered the heroic deeds of the Wargod Bloodximius. He challenged all the cultivators in the world by himself.

“It is said that the lord of the Fane of Death and an extremely old Wargod personally led Wargod Bloodximius, who was in the Hundred-Shackle Realm during that time, to the most famous battlefield of the fallen deities, at the edge of the Apeiron Sea. He shouted these words at the allied army of the Celestial Court across the divine sea.”

“On the first day, the Celestial Court sent 57 Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm to battle, but they were all defeated and killed by Wargod Bloodximius.”

“On the second day, the Celestial Court finally accepted the fact that no one in the same realm as the Wargod Bloodximius was a match for him. Hence, they sent cultivators of a higher realm than Wargod Bloodximius to battle. The top elites of the Celestial Court in the Thousand-Koan Realm attacked one after another.”

“Unfortunately, all of them were defeated three days in a row.”

“Even among the Thousand-Koan Realm, no one could fight against Wargod Bloodximius. In fact, none of them managed to escape alive.”

“You must know that these unrivaled talents at the Hundred-Shackle Realm and Thousand-Koan Realm are all seeds of deities in the Celestial Court. After Wargod Bloodximius killed so many of them, the Celestial Court suffered heavy losses.”

“The moral of the Heavenly Court’s myriad worlds has been dealt a terrible blow.” Many of the Heavenly Court’s deities were furious. They offered bounties to the myriad worlds. Anyone in the Thousand-Koan Realm who could defeat Wargod Bloodximius would be rewarded by the gods.”

“Finally, on the fifth day, Huang Tian appeared. His cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was on par with Wargod Bloodximius. After nine battles in nine days, it was still difficult to determine the victor, which helped the Celestial Court’s army regain their morale.”

“However, what the Wargod Bloodximius did in the past, still became a legend. It became the dream of the young cultivators in the Infernal Court.”

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen had shouted similar words. Could it be that he wanted to walk the same path that the Wargod Bloodximius had walked before?

Using the warring oath, he forced the Rotkins to accept the battle.

Zhang Ruochen said grandly, “You can have these ten boxes of Godstones if you want them. Let the strongest Rotkins in the Hundred-Shackle Realm or the Thousand-Koan Realm collect them. If they can defeat me, they can take them all.”

Yan Zhexian stood in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and looked at Zhang Ruochen’s domineering back. He felt a little absent-minded.

This guy had been gentle and meek before, but how had he become so fierce and aggressive within a short span of time? Who in the world didn’t know Zhang Ruochen’s strength?

Had he become schizophrenic?

Both Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi, who had planned to escape to the Fane of Death camp, were also shocked. At this moment, Zhang Ruochen’s killing intent had soared to the sky as if he had changed into a different person. They couldn’t decide at that moment.

The Rotkins Emperor was stunned for a moment. Then he laughed out loud. “What a great title for a future Wargod. The warring oath is also declared out loud enough. But why should the Rotkins accept the challenge?”

The Rotkins Emperor’s move may seem weak, but it was very effective.

If they sent out the strongest of the Rotkins’s Hundred-Shackle Realm and Thousand-Koan Realm, and Zhang Ruochen then killed those, it would be a considerable loss. After all, there were only dozens of Supreme Saints in the entire Rotkins.

Zhang Ruochen patted the Wargod Belt, “I brought the Immortal Vampires’ Wargod Belt here,” he said. “I now represent the entire Immortal Vampires, and I challenge you in the name of Wargods. Do the Rotkins want to look down on the Immortal Vampires, the Fane of Immortality or do they care not even about the 13 Immortal Vampires’ Wargods?”

Zhang Ruochen’s every word was like a sharp sword, piercing the weakest part of the Rotkins Emperor’s heart.

He finally understood that if the Rotkins didn’t accept the challenge today, they would offend the entire Immortal Vampires. The other 12 successors of the Wargods might even harbor evil thoughts towards the Rotkins.

Although the Immortal Vampires present felt that Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation wasn’t enough to command the entire Immortal Vampires, they respected the Wargod Belt and regarded it with extreme conviction.

Therefore, they all had unpleasant looks in their eyes.

The Rotkins are just a small clan. You dare to reject my challenge with a Wargod’s Belt to you and disrespect me?

A broad-shouldered and burly figure charged out of the crowd with a bloody murderous aura around him and roared, “Those who wear the Wargod Belt are like the Wargod himself. It is your greatest honor for a Wargod of the Immortal Vampires to challenge you. If you don’t accept the challenge, you are humiliating the Wargod. For those who humiliate the Wargod, we Immortal Vampires would attack together as one.”

“Those who humiliate the Wargod, we will attack together as one.”

“Those who humiliate the Wargod, we will attack together as one.”

...

All the Immortal Vampires present roared in unison.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the burly Immortal Vampire cultivator. He was slightly surprised that it was Xue Tu.

Xue Tu turned around and bowed to Zhang Ruochen, who was standing on the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, “How dare the Rotkins be disrespectful to the Wargod?” he continued. “Your junior can’t take it anymore. Senior, why don’t you take out the Destiny Token and challenge them in the name of the twelve Reverends of the Fane of Destiny. I’d like to see if the Rotkins do not even care about the Fane of Destiny.”

The Rotkins Emperor was shocked. He didn’t expect the Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint to be even more ruthless than Zhang Ruochen. Was he trying to wipe out the Rotkins?

A loud voice came from the mountain gate of the Rotkins sacred ground. “You’re the Scion of the Immortal Vampires. How can you bully a small clan? How about I challenge the Supreme Saint Ruochen instead? I wonder if you would accept my challenge.”

Nan Sheng and Hai Ke walked out from the array gate of light.

It was Nan Sheng who had spoken.

The Rotkins Emperor let out a long sigh of relief and retreated to the side.

Xue Tu’s expression changed drastically when he saw these two. He was filled with regret. He wouldn’t have shown himself if he had known they would come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

Not only would he not be able to gain anything from Zhang Ruochen, but he might also have to die here today.

But it was too late to have regrets!

Now, he had to persevere even if he had to bite the bullet.

Boom

All the cultivators in the surroundings burst into chaos.

“Nan Sheng actually came to the Royal City of Hundred Clans. He is the direct disciple of the Seven Elders, a figure from the South-Haven.”

“Hai Ke has a divine body. When he was in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he could defeat a Supreme Saint at the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. After so many years, his cultivation has surely reached a terrifying level.”

“Zhang Ruochen has messed up this time. There is a big chance that he might die today.”

“Even if Nan Sheng and Hai Ke kill Zhang Ruochen, no one will dare to say anything. Don’t tell me that the deities of the Xue Jue Family dare to attack Apeiron Sea and South-Haven?”

...

All the Immortal Vampires present sighed. There are even some that blamed Zhang Ruochen.

If Zhang Ruochen were killed by Nan Sheng and Hai Ke while wearing the Wargod Belt, it would be a disgrace to the entire Immortal Vampires.

The cultivators of the Fane of Death and the Rotkins all smiled mockingly.

“Let’s see how Zhang Ruochen ends up.”

“It is best for him to run. In any case, he’s still a Master of Time and Space and should be very good at running for his life.”

“We’re surrounded by the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death. How can we run?”

“If I were Zhang Ruochen, I would immediately self-detonate my Sainthood Source since I’ve made a fatal mistake and could at least die a heroic death. Otherwise, there is a chance of being humiliated after one has been captured by Nan Sheng and Hai Ke. Not only would he be disrespected, but the entire Immortal Vampires would also be affected.”

...

Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi were overjoyed. They looked at each other and rushed toward Nan Sheng and Hai Ke.

They could finally escape!

Swoosh

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen made a decisive move and slashed twice.

The razor-sharp sword flew out and chopped off their legs.

Their legs stayed where they were, but the upper bodies flew forward and fell to the ground. The torsos thrashed around and bled profusely.

Half of Que Shenzi and Tian Shuzi's bodies lay on the ground, staring at Zhang Ruochen in a daze. You've changed, Zhang Ruochen! You've changed! You've really changed!

You used to say that you wanted to resolve your grudges and were extremely kind and friendly. How could you suddenly become so cold-blooded and heartless?

All these years of referring to you as "Ancestral Master" had been in vain!

Zhang Ruochen's tone was cold. "Xue Tu, their legs are yours. If they dare to run again, kill them! They're really stubborn."

Xue Tu was delighted. He stared at the four legs on the ground with fevered eyes.

The legs were filled with the fresh blood of Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints. It was an irresistible temptation for the Immortal Vampires. Their cultivation could increase by a large margin by consuming the blood.

"You're courting death."

Hai Ke roared. Blinding divine light surged out of his body. He flew up like a blazing sun.

Dense Precepts surged out of the divine light. There were nine trillion Precepts, more than 90% of all Paramount Realm Supreme Saints. Only Demigods had more Precepts than him.

But he was still in the Banshi Isshou Realm. He hadn't formed a Paramount physique.

In other words, he could be called a Demigod once he broke through.

Hai Ke's fist was as big as a water tank. It was earth-shattering. The force it emitted sent Tian Shuzi, Que Shenzi, and Xue Tu flying like falling leaves.

Fei Zhong's puppet rushed out behind Zhang Ruochen. It wielded a battle ax and swung it at Hai Ke.

Boom

Fei Zhong's puppet's battle strength was close to that of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. Even Tian Shuzi, who had cultivated five trillion Precepts, could only fight with it to a draw.

However, before Fei Zhong's puppet's battle ax could get close to Hai Ke's fist, its arm exploded with a crackling sound.

Bang

Fei Zhong's broken puppet body and the ax flew back and smashed heavily on the steps of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Hai Ke laughed loudly. The power of his fist did not decrease as it struck Zhang Ruochen, who was standing upright.

Zhang Ruochen's hair and clothes were blown back by the wind of the fist. Suddenly, purple vines alight with thunderflame unfurled out from his back.

Hundreds and thousands of purple vines twisted together to form a palm print that was bigger than Zhang Ruochen's body.

Boom

The fist and palm collided.

The palm print of the vines exploded and turned into broken branches and leaves.

Hai Ke flew back. After landing on the ground, he took three steps back to stabilize himself. He stared at Zhang Ruochen, who was still standing in front of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace in surprise, and asked, "Has your Saint Devourer reached the Paramount Realm?"

Hai Ke was arrogant, but he wasn't blind and arrogant. He had checked Zhang Ruochen's background information beforehand.

The Saint Devourer's voice rang in Zhang Ruochen's ears. "Master, this person is powerful. I'm no match for him."

Zhang Ruochen didn't change his expression. He nodded slightly.

The corner of Xue Tu's mouth had bloody scars. Seeing that Hai Ke had been pushed back, he was overjoyed. He rushed to the bottom of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace again and laughed. "It seems that one look is worth a thousand words. The famous Hai Ke can't even defeat a plant my senior had raised."

Killing intent surged in Hai Ke's eyes, and he was so angry that he laughed out loud. "Haha! So what if it was a Saint Devourer of the Paramount Realm? I was just testing it out with a punch. Now, I officially challenge you. Zhang Ruochen, do you dare to accept? It doesn't matter who wins or loses; there's only life and death."

Xue Tu laughed again. "I've never heard of cultivators with low cultivation challenging cultivators with high cultivation. For cultivators at two realms higher challenging cultivators with lower realms. "Hai Ke, you've lost all the respect of the Apeiron Sea !"

Hai Ke glared at him coldly.

"Senior, save me," Xue Tu said.

Zhang Ruochen swiped his finger and opened the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's Defensive Array to let him in.

Xue Tu stood on the steps of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He felt much safer and called out to Hai Ke again, "What would the lord guarding the Apeiron Sea think if he knew that his disciple was so weak? If I were you, I would challenge the top figures of the Paramount Realm and fight them to the death, such as Wuma Jiuxing, Yuan Qianmo, and Ji Fanxin."

Hai Ke was so angry that his entire body was trembling. He bared his sharp fangs and ordered with a hideous smile, "Let's attack together and break through the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's defensive formation. Kill that talkative Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint first, and then kill Zhang Ruochen."

The Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death all summoned their sacred artifact and unleashed waves of destructive power.

The cultivators who were watching the battle nearby retreated farther away.

If this wave of attacks landed, all the cultivators in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace would be scared out of their wits, let alone it breaking through the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Zhang Ruochen had finally caused his own demise.

Xue Tu looked at the sacred artifacts rising one by one. His back felt cold, and he turned to look at Zhang Ruochen. He wanted to ask, "Senior, should we run?"

However, he could not open his mouth. He did not say a word.

Zhang Ruochen did not seem to have prepared any trump cards. He just stood there as if he was waiting to die.

Just as Xue Tu was severely regretting his decision, a beautiful figure walked out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Her white robe fluttered in the wind. She was gorgeous and spoke to all the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death, "The legendary Hai Ke and Nan Sheng disappointed us immeasurably. Does the Fane of Death not even have a decent cultivator to send?"

Nan Sheng saw Yan Zhexian standing beside Zhang Ruochen and was slightly shocked. He immediately sent a voice transmission to stop the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death who were preparing to attack.

What a joke. Zhang Ruochen could kill as he liked, but if Yan Zhexian also died in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, the matter would be blown up! Even if he escaped back to the South-Haven, he would not be able to avoid trouble.

Xue Tu, who was initially feeling numb and even a little desperate, saw Yan Zhexian, and the worry in his heart was swept away. He quickly cupped his fists together and smiled, "So you are here too, my sister-in-law. What you said is true; the Fane of Death has indeed done a disgrace. A Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint challenging a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, the Immortal Vampires, and the Yanluo clan has never been such a joke."

“Aiya, you are pregnant. What if these Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death acted too heavily and caused you to be sick? What should we do then? Who can shoulder this responsibility?”

Xue Tu kept calling her “Sister-in-law,” which made Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger standing not far away to stare at each other. When Scion Xue Tu led the army to attack the Sword Vault in Kunlun... why didn't they see that he was such an intelligent guy?

“Amitabha!”

“Amitabha!”

The two monks closed their eyes and chanted the name of Buddha.

Hai Ke and Nan Sheng's faces turned grave. The cultivators of the Rotkins, including the other Supreme Saints of the Death God Hall, could ignore their reputation, but the two of them couldn't.

Yan Zhexian's appearance caught them off guard.

It seemed impossible to kill Zhang Ruochen with lightning speed!

Yan Zhexian said, “Zhang Ruochen is challenging the Rotkins. I absolutely have no objection if the Fane of Death wants to stand up for the Rotkins and send out the Hundred-Shackle Realm and the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints.

“However, if Nan Sheng and Hai Ke make a move, can I go and find a second uncle to challenge you?”

“Yes!”

Xue Tu roared and said with a smile.

He had never dreamed that his senior would be so powerful. He had even taken down the eldest daughter of the Yanluo clan. What was there to be afraid of? It might be more beneficial to curry favor with the eldest daughter of the Yanluo clan than to curry favor with his seniors.

Nan Sheng and Hai Ke communicated with each other telepathically. Ultimately, they decided not to fight head-on with the Yanluo clan. It wasn't too late to find a chance to kill Zhang Ruochen after they left the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

“It seems that the young lady of the Yanluo clan has changed her mind. She has completely fallen into Zhang Ruochen’s arms. Yuan Qianmo is indeed miserable.”

“He already has a child. What’s done cannot be undone. Humph, Zhang Ruochen’s luck with women is so good that it makes people envious. Now, he has the support of both Devala and the Yanluo clan.”

“Don’t worry. The more you get, the more people will hate you. Such a person won’t be able to live for long. Marriage is just an unorthodox method. The path itself depends on one’s own strength.”

Nan Sheng and Hai Ke exchanged a few words of pleasantries. Then they turned around and entered Devonian. They left this place to the leader of the Rotkins.

What could the Rotkins clan leader do? Did he have to wait for Zhang Ruochen to take out the Destiny Token before surrendering?

Zhang Ruochen’s challenge was fake. His real motive was to kill to vent out his anger.

The Rotkins Clan Emperor found an old Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint who didn’t have much time left to live and asked him to accept Zhang Ruochen’s challenge. If he died at Zhang Ruochen’s hands, his clan members would receive all kinds of benefits.

The old Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint said, “Clan Emperor, you don’t have to say anything. Zhang Ruochen has gone too far. I will accept his challenge even if you don’t come to me. Otherwise, the cultivators all over the world will think that the Rotkins are cowards. I don’t have more than a hundred years left anyway. If worst comes to worst, I’ll just self-detonate my Sainthood Source and die with him.”

Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power was strong. He heard their discussion clearly, “Xu Ze Supreme Saint is undoubtedly an elder,” he said. “He should stay in the clan to rest and die at an old age. The Clan Emperor had sent him to fight. He wasn’t afraid of turning the cultivators’ hearts cold. I heard that there’s a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint in the Rotkins. His name is Huo Li, and he can be considered a powerful figure. Let him come out and fight with me.”

“Zhang Ruochen, don’t even think about it!”

The Rotkins Emperor roared and suddenly stepped out. His corrosive killing intent turned into a fierce hurricane.

Huo Li had fused with Grade Five Saintwill. He was a hero who would be qualified to become a TrueGod in the future. There was only one God Candidate like this in the entire Rotkins. It represented the Rotkins’ hope for the future.

If anything happened to him, the Rotkins would have to wait many years before they could give birth to another God Candidate.

Zhang Ruochen wasn’t afraid of the Emperor’s Saint Aura at all. He used the sound wave Saint Techniques, saying. “Huo Li, come out and fight with me. Don’t let an elder about to die sacrifice himself in your place. You should know that if you’re too weak to fight with me today, you won’t dare to face the Divine Tribulation even if you’ve reached the Paramount Realm in the future. What’s the difference between living like this and dying?”

Swoosh

A streak of blinding fire flew out of the Rotkins sacred ground and landed below the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Huo Li wasn't a human-shaped cultivator. His body was like a giant lizard, and he said in a deep voice, "Zhang Ruochen, you don't have to provoke me with words. Based on your previous humiliation and belittlement of the Rotkins, I will fight to the death with you today."

The Rotkins emperor advised, "Don't be fooled by him."

"Clan Emperor, although Zhang Ruochen is hateful, he is right about one thing. If I don't fight today, it will be difficult for me to break through the mental barrier and reach the Banshi Isshou Realm, let alone achieve divinity."

"Fight! Fight for the dignity of the Rotkins."

"Fight! Fight to avenge the shame."

"Fight! Fight for yourself!"

He shouted three words in a row.

After shouting the first battle cry, Huo Li ignited the Saint Blood in his body.

After shouting the second battle cry, Huo Li burned his lifespan crazily.

After shouting the battle cry, the Sainthood Source in Huo Li's body burst into flames.

Every time he shouted a battle cry, the energy fluctuation within his body would double. After shouting the third battle cry, Huo Li's condition had reached an unprecedented peak. He could even self-destruct his Sainthood Source with just a thought.

"As expected of Huo Li. He is indeed the pride of the Rotkins. To be able to fuse with Grade Five Saintwill as a God Candidate is extraordinary."

"Zhang Ruochen has gone too far this time. He might fail miserably."

...

As everyone was discussing, Zhang Ruochen, who had flown out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, slashed down with his sword. He clashed with Huo Li, who had used the divine flame Saint Technique.

Puff

Huo Li's Neverwithers physique was split into two.

His corpse fell to the ground.

Zhang Ruochen had returned to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace without anyone noticing. He wiped the blood off the Ancient Abyssal Blade and said, "Let's Go! Next stop, we'll challenge the Sengens. No, we'll go to the Sengens instead to apologize."

The 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords lifted the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and left.

Xue Tu stared at the two halves of Huo Li's corpse and licked his lips. But when he saw the Rotkins Emperor rush over to it with murderous intent, he suppressed his agitation and could only sigh. "What a waste! There's so much good blood."

Outside Devonian, countless spectators were still stunned.

One sword blow!

With just one blow from his sword, Zhang Ruochen had killed the only God Candidate of the Rotkins. Huo Li didn't even have the chance to self-detonate his Sainthood Source.

The young man was still too impulsive!

It wasn't wrong to admit defeat in front of absolute power.

Some people were amazed by Zhang Ruochen's Swordsmanship, some sympathized with the Rotkins, and some envied Zhang Ruochen for being favored by the eldest daughter of the Yanluo clan. In short, they had many mixed feelings, and even their thoughts of discussion had faded away.

"Did you hear what Zhang Ruochen said just now? Challenging the Sengens?"

"No, he said he was going to the Sengens to apologize."

"Let's go. No matter what Zhang Ruochen will do, we can't miss this show."

...

A group of cultivators followed behind Sevenstar Imperial Palace and swarmed toward the Sengens.

The Sengens cultivators hurriedly rushed back to their sacred ground and reported the terrible bad news to the clan Emperor.

The Sengens's sacred ground wasn't far from the Rotkins sacred ground. So Zhang Ruochen arrived in an instant.

The Sengens's Emperor, Princess Xue Lai, and the Supreme Saints were already waiting outside the mountain gate.

Their expressions were grave and anxious, especially Princess Xue Lai's. She wondered if Zhang Ruochen was jealous of her when she drove Tian Shuzi to deal with Zhang Ruochen. Maybe that was why he chose the Sengens as his second target.

In Ghostwood Manor, she felt that Zhang Ruochen was very much prejudiced against her.

If she had known that Zhang Ruochen was a vengeful person, she wouldn't have gotten involved in the first place.

It was a fight between immortals and mere mortals that suffered the most.

The Sevenstar Imperial Palace arrived at the Sengens sacred ground. It stopped slowly. Ten boxes of Godstones were lifted up again. They opened one by one, and divine light shone for thousands of feet.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the palace and said, "I pay my respects to the Clan Emperor. There are three things that I came for to pay a visit to the Sengens."

"The first is the day I entered the city. Princess Xue Lai once invited me to visit the Sengens, but I was at a critical moment of cultivation and couldn't respond immediately. I heard that Princess Xue Lai and the Sengens held a grudge against me because of this. That should not have happened, so this visit is to resolve the conflict and misunderstanding between the two sides."

“As expected, I have offended Zhang Ruochen. He is targeting me.” Princess Xue Lai looked at the Clan Emperor’s mother. She wanted to take the blame by herself without implicating the entire Sengens.

The Sengens clan emperor stopped her. He took a dozen steps forward, “Saint Ruochen, you don’t have to be so polite. Actually, the Sengens and Xue Lai have never held a grudge against you. On the contrary, Xue Lai has mentioned you many times in front of me. She claims that you’re a genius and admires you exceedingly.”

Xue Tu said, “If that’s the case, let Princess Xue Lai marry my senior. I won’t argue with you over that matter anymore!”

Zhang Ruochen glared at him, scaring Xue Tu into silence.

Zhang Ruochen bowed to the Sengens Emperor and said humbly, “So it’s really a misunderstanding. I feel much better now! The Emperor must accept these ten boxes of Godstones as my apology.”

The Emperor shook his head quickly and said gently, “Since it’s a misunderstanding, how can there be compensation as an apology?”

Zhang Ruochen laughed. “The Emperor is right. In that case, let’s talk about the second thing. I want to cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul at the Hundred-Shackle Realm...”

Then Zhang Ruochen told him about the cultivation resources he wanted to buy.

Although the Emperor had been mentally prepared, his noble and elegant face still turned cold.

The cultivation resources Zhang Ruochen wanted were treasures of the clan. They were used to cultivate the God Candidates. How could he sell them so easily?

They were said to be for sale, but who dares to accept Zhang Ruochen’s Godstones?

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Do the Sengens have none at all?”

Just as the Sengens emperor was struck speechless, he heard a voice transmission from the Wulvers Emperor. “Sell the resources to Zhang Ruochen. You can keep the God Candidate alive that way.”

The Sengens Emperor’s thoughts became clear. He suddenly understood everything.

So this was the reason why Zhang Ruochen had made such a big show of apologizing to the other races and showing off his power in the Rotkins.

If he could use some cultivation resources in exchange for the life of the God Candidates in the clan, it would be acceptable.

“The Sengens still has some of the cultivation resources that Supreme Saint Ruochen wants.”

The Emperor immediately sent someone to bring three bottles of Divine Sword-Lacquer.

Zhang Ruochen was overjoyed and said, “Three bottles of the Divine Sword-Lacquer are worth 900 Godstones.”

“These three bottles of the Divine Sword-Lacquer are a gift to Supreme Saint Ruochen. I won’t accept a single divine stone.” The Emperor of the Sengens quickly rejected the offer, afraid that the Godstones would be related to him.

Zhang Ruochen’s expression became serious. “I am truly here to buy cultivation resources. If the Emperor doesn’t accept the Godstones, won’t everyone think that I’m bullying others?”

The voice of the Wulvers Emperor rang out again, “It’s best to accept Zhang Ruochen’s Godstones. You have to accept all of them in order to protect the God Candidate of the clan. Three bottles of Divine Sword-Lacquer can only save your life, but not your cultivation.”

The Sengens didn’t know where the Wulvers Emperor was, but he guessed that Zhang Ruochen must have gone to the Wulvers before he went to the Rotkins.

The Wulvers were very rich. They had sold Zhang Ruochen 3,000 Godstones of cultivation resources, so they had kept the God Candidate of their clan alive.

That should be it!

If Zhang Ruochen was willing to pay 3,000 Godstones to take out those cultivation resources, it seemed that the Sengens didn't have much to lose.

The Sengens emperor thanked the Wulvers Emperor and said quickly, "Actually, the Sengens still has some Divine Sword-Lacquer. I'll send someone to get them all."

"Thank you, Clan Emperor." Zhang Ruochen bowed again.

Just like that, Zhang Ruochen spent 3,000 Godstones buying ten bottles of Divine Sword-Lacquer from the Sengens.

Back then, he had searched all the saint shops and chambers of commerce in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, but he could only buy half a bottle.

The third thing was to challenge the most powerful Hundred-Shackle Realm and Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints of the Sengens.

Zhang Ruochen used one move each to defeat them. He left ten boxes of Godstones and returned to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace to apologize to the next small clan. Before he left, he didn't forget to ask Princess Xue Lai if she hated him.

Princess Xue Lai naturally smiled sweetly back. She proclaimed that Scion Ruochen was the one she admired the most and was also the best friend of the Sengens.

Zhang Ruochen visited the Rotkins and the Sengens one after another. His way of doing things was completely different. Suddenly, the fearful clans finally understood his intentions.

Zhang Ruochen was here only to buy cultivation resources. Why did he have to make it so scary?

In the next few days, whenever Zhang Ruochen visited a clan, the Clan Emperor would already prepare 3,000 Godstones worth of cultivation resources in advance. The two sides completed the challenge in a friendly and happy atmosphere.

In addition, Scion Ruochen and the eldest daughter of Yanluo clan also visited one place after another under the envious gazes of various clans' cultivators. It could be said that everyone was jealous of the lovebirds, not of immortality.

Later, some most powerful Thousand-Koan Realm elites in some small clans took the initiative to bring cultivation resources and came to visit Zhang Ruochen, which saved Zhang Ruochen a lot of time.

The storm that shook the Royal City of Hundreds Clan gradually subsided.

Zhang Ruochen spent his Godstones like running water. In the end, he sold the imitation of The Divine Book of Light to Yan Yu. Only after he received many Godstones did he fill the hole.

Although the Divine Book of Light was an imitation, there was a Supreme Inscription inside. It was of great research value. Yan Yu bought it for 400,000 Godstones in his own name.

Its value was even higher than the Wheel of the Nether Sun, a Class Seven Regal Artifact.

Zhang Ruochen naturally did not ask why Yan Yu bought the Divine Book of Light when he cultivated Path of Darkness.

After collecting the resources, Zhang Ruochen no longer paid attention to the messy secular affairs. He opened Sundial and went into seclusion to practice.

For some reason, the news that Zhang Ruochen wanted to condense Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill spread like wildfire in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Ultimately, it became a huge sensation, and everyone knew about it.

It wasn't that someone had leaked the news. In the beginning, it was just speculation.

After all, Zhang Ruochen had spent so many Godstones to turn Royal City of Hundred Clan upside down just to cultivate Heaven Sword Soul in Hundred-Shackle Realm. It was too much of a fuss.

Couldn't he cultivate Heaven Sword Soul after reaching Thousand-Koan Realm and Banshi Isshou Realm?

Why did he have to pay such a high price to cultivate it in Hundred-Shackle Realm?

When one thought of Zhang Ruochen's Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, the news that Zhang Ruochen wanted to rewrite the universe's history and condense a Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill spread with the help of some cultivators!

"Zhang Ruochen is known as a Yuanhui level genius and the third Master of Time and Space since ancient times. There are high possibilities for him to break the limits of heavenly and earthly precepts and become the first cultivator to cultivate a single Path of Saintwill to Grade Three."

"Zhang Ruochen is blessed with exceptional conditions. It is already certain that he can condense a Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill.”

“Zhang Ruochen is the main character of this Yuanhui period. Other so-called geniuses are not even worthy to carry his shoes.”

...

More and more cultivators added fuel to the fire.

Of course, they did not believe that Zhang Ruochen could condense Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill. They just wanted to hold him up high.

The higher they held him up, the harder he would fall.

In the Rotkins’ sacred ground, Yuan Benji had been sneering. “That’s right. Continue to spread the news. Let the cultivators of myriad realms of Celestial Court and the ten clans of Infernal Court know that Zhang Ruochen swore in the name of Wargod Bloodximius to condense Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill in Hundred-Shackle Realm.

“If he can’t condense it in 100 years, he’ll cultivate in Hundred-Shackle Realm for an extra 100 years. If he can’t condense it in 10,000 years, he’ll cultivate in Hundred-Shackle Realm for another 10,000 years.”

“Isn’t it bad to mention the name of Wargod?” the Rotkins’ cultivator said worriedly while kneeling on one knee.

“What’s there to be afraid of? Wargod Bloodximius is a proud and arrogant person. How could he find trouble with a nobody like you?”

After the Rotkins’ cultivator left, a smirk appeared on his face. Even if it was just a rumor, as long as it spread widely enough, everyone would believe it was true.

At that time, if Zhang Ruochen couldn’t condense Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill, how could he have the nerve to break through to Thousand-Koan Realm?

Hai Ke swallowed 800 infants and wiped the blood from his mouth. He laughed ferociously. “Your move is malicious!

Under divinity, there were only a few cultivators who could condense Heaven Sword Soul.

“Zhang Ruochen probably just wanted to try cultivating Heaven Sword Soul. He didn’t have much hope at all. If he couldn’t cultivate Heaven Sword Soul after being forced by you, how could he appear in Infernal Court again?”

Nan Sheng said, “It’s hazardous to break through Heaven Sword Soul. If anything goes wrong, he’ll lose his cultivation or his soul. Are you trying to force Zhang Ruochen to death?”

“Don’t you think it’s interesting?” Yuan Benji laughed.

“Haha!”

The Supreme Saint of Fane of Death laughed loudly.

All this time, they had never mentioned whether Zhang Ruochen could condense Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill.

That was because there was no need to mention it.

It was absolutely impossible.

After all, cultivators who cultivated Heaven Sword Soul in Hundred-Shackle Realm only existed in legends.

Zhang Ruochen focused on Time and Dimension. It was impossible for him to cultivate Heaven Sword Soul and become a legend of Swordsmanship.

...

Ten days passed.

Because of Light of Origin, more cultivators came to the Royal City of Hundred Clan.

Zhang Ruochen paid no attention to the outside world. He focused on practicing and improving every day.

The strength of his Saint Soul was increasing day by day.

The number of Precepts of Swordsmanship rose to 240 million with difficulty, and it underwent an earth-shaking change.

If the Precepts of Swordsmanship were compared to a thread that could be broken at a single pull. Now, each Precept was like an indestructible golden needle.

During this time, Fukurokuju came once and sent many cultivation resources.

In the room, Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged. His temperament became more and more fierce. His state of mind was entirely covered by the powerful will of Swordsmanship.

Every strand of hair that floated up was like a peerless sword. It could break through dimensions and create ripples.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen stopped and opened his eyes.

In his eyes, numerous sword shadows shuttled back and forth. They flew out with his gaze.

Bang Bang

A gaze from him was a sword.

The sword flew out and shook the protective array in the room.

This was a sign that he couldn't control the power of Swordsmanship in his body!

Zhang Ruochen quickly used his mighty spiritual power and Saint Soul to control his body's Precepts of Swordsmanship and comprehension. The sword light in his eyes gradually disappeared and returned to clarity.

"The strength of my Precepts of Swordsmanship has already surpassed Lan Yin. However, my Saint Soul is still a little weaker than him. Although I'd refined a lot of Stellar Soul of God and various Saint Soul Pills, ten years of cultivation is still no match for his three Yuanhui period.

"The following step might be even difficult to improve."

Zhang Ruochen thought of Dragon Lord's Dragonic Flame of Origin.

This fire could refine spiritual power, perhaps it could also refine and strengthen the Precepts of Swordsmanship.

Zhang Ruochen understood the principle of gradual progress. He did not continue practicing. Instead, he took out Wordless Sword Manual in the form of a stone sword, the five volumes of Azure Brush, and read them many times.

Time passed day by day. Zhang Ruochen was utterly immersed in the world of Swordsmanship until Le appeared again.

...

Le was waiting in the yard.

Under the service of Lian Xi, Zhang Ruochen took a bath and put on his makeup. He changed into a spotless white robe. From the beginning to the end, he held Ancient Abyssal Blade in his hand and felt the special connection between man and sword.

Lian Xi helped Zhang Ruochen comb his hair while she stared at the highly handsome face of the man in the mirror.

It must be said that at this moment, Zhang Ruochen was like a white-clothed sword god. He matched the image of every woman's dream lover. He could strike a chord in every lady's heart and was full of charm.

After finishing dressing, Zhang Ruochen suddenly said, "Haven't you always wanted to go back? Today, I will send you away."

Lian Xi was slightly startled. She raised her head and stared at Zhang Ruochen closely.

"If you don't want to go, you can stay," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lian Xi said, "How am I leaving?"

"I have my ways."

Zhang Ruochen took out 12 Sword of Judgment from his Ring of Dimensions and suspended them in the room.

"Merge!"

The 12 swords combined into one, and the sword light was extremely bright.

Zhang Ruochen handed the sword to her, "It doesn't matter if you go back to Celestial Court or Soul Realm. You might not be able to get the glory that you once had. When combined, this set of Sword of Judgment is a Supreme Artifact that belongs to Fane of Light.

“If you have no other choice, you can take this set of Sword of Judgment and go to Fane of Light. Just say that you stole it from me. If you get the Supreme Artifact back, Fane of Light will take you in and treat you as a hero. After all, no one will believe that I gave you a Supreme Artifact.

“Before you go to Fane of Light, remember to cut off this memory.”

Lian Xi stared at Zhang Ruochen for a long time with her beautiful almond eyes. Then she took the Sword of Judgment and put it away. She bit her lips and felt a subtle feeling in her heart.

What was this feeling?

Was she touched... No, this was what he should have done. He owed it to her.

But why couldn't she feel any hatred when she was about to leave after suffering so many grievances from him?

Zhang Ruochen ignored her and pushed the door open.

Lian Xi suddenly said, “Do you think I will be grateful to you?”

“You still have a little time. You can think about it carefully. If you don't want to leave, you can stay. I, Zhang Ruochen, will never mistreat you.”

Zhang Ruochen didn't turn his head back. He went to the yard and talked with Le in the Spatial Domain.

“The god of the Wulvers told me to tell you that the god of Celestial Realm has come!” Le said.

Zhang Ruochen had expected that something big would happen since Le had come. He was not surprised. “Where are the Gods of Infernal Court? Have they heard the news?”

“Only two gods of Celestial Court have come. They are new gods who have avoided the surveillance of Infernal Court's gods,” Le said.

It was typical for the gods of Celestial Court to avoid surveillance of the Infernal Court and Kunlun gods.

After all, the gods of Kunlun knew that Celestial Court was about to make a move.

It was very likely that Dragon Lord or Empress of Thousand Bones had personally followed Claflin to Celestial Court and watched his every move.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, “It’s impossible for Celestial Court to only send two new gods.”

“Empress thinks so too, so these two new gods should be here to investigate the exact location of Fane of Origin. Once the location is confirmed, the gods of Celestial Court will definitely descend in large numbers. Right now, the gods of Celestial Court don’t dare to make a big fuss.”

Then, Le continued, “This matter is dangerous and of great importance. Dragon Lord said it would be difficult for you to accomplish it yourself. Therefore, a new god of Kunlun will come and help you in secret.”

Underground of Ghostwood Manor.

Zhang Ruochen sent Lian Xi into the stone door of the seven-story ancient tower.

The door was a dimensional teleportation array. It could reach the dimension of the universe ten billion miles away from the Royal City of Hundred Clans. The Cloaking Array set up by Mandala Goddess was still there, but the Origin Sea of Qi there had been put into Violet Gourd by Ji Fanxin.

This secret passage connected the inside and outside of the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Only a God at the level of Mandala Goddess could set up such a powerful dimensional teleportation array.

It would be pretty safe to leave from here.

Returning from the stone door of the ancient tower, Zhang Ruochen saw Ji Fanxin sitting under the old tree covered with crimson leaves.

“You’re harming her by letting her go,” Ji Fanxin said.

“I’m done with her. Just let her go on her way.”

Zhang Ruochen stood with his sword in his hand. His gaze was indifferent, and his temperament was as cold as an ice mountain that hadn’t melted for thousands of years. “We’re leaving!”

“Are we following your way or mine?” Ji Fanxin knew where to go.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Come with me."

"You really do know the exact location of Fane of Origin."

"I only know one possible location. The exact location depends on you."

Ji Fanxin always felt that the Zhang Ruochen she saw this time was not the same person as the one she saw last time. If it were not for the fact that he and Lian Xi came together with Ancient Abyssal Blade in his hands, she would have thought that the Zhang Ruochen in front of her was an imposter transformed by another cultivator.

"Alright, I'll go with you. Do I need to hide inside your macroworld?" Ji Fanxin asked.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. "You must transform into someone and travel with me with her identity."

"Who?"

"Bai Qing'er."

Ji Fanxin was puzzled. "Why?"

"Two reasons."

"First, even if you hide in my macroworld and go to Fane of Origin, you still need to show yourself. By then, you'll need an identity that you can use in Infernal Court.

"Second, I won't lie to you. My main purpose for this operation is not Fane of Origin but another important matter. If you transform into Bai Qing'er and come with me, I'll owe you a huge favor. In the future, as long as you say a word, I, Zhang Ruochen, will definitely overcome all difficulties, whether it's a mountain of knives, a sea of fire, or 100,000 gods and demons to help you."

Ji Fanxin shook her head, and she sighed. "I didn't realize until now that your biggest change isn't your temperament but your ability to please girls! No wonder the princess of Devala and the eldest daughter of Yanluo Clan fell in love with you."

"So you agreed?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Ji Fanxin smiled and said, “You have to take responsibility for what you said today. I accept your great favor!”

Swoosh!

Zhang Ruochen pointed his finger gently in the air.

Wisps of air gathered and condensed into Bai Qing'er's appearance. It was vivid and lifelike, just like a natural person. Then, the Bai Qing'er formed from the air opened her mouth and spoke with a charming voice.

This fake body wasn't brilliant. It could only fool cultivators in Saint Kingdom.

To fool a Supreme Saint or even a god, Ji Fanxin should be the one who transforms herself. Ji Fanxin's spiritual power was extremely high. Ordinary gods would find it hard to see if it was a real or fake body unless they looked closely.

Ji Fanxin's learning ability was powerful. Soon, she transformed into Bai Qing'er, learning Bai Qing'er's tone and habits.

...

At noon, Zhang Ruochen and the veiled Bai Qing'er appeared in the Royal City of Hundred Clans and headed towards the Yakshas.

The cultivators who had been watching Zhang Ruochen immediately spread the shocking news and reported it to the leaders of the major forces in the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

In the sacred ground of Terra Demon.

Xuan Qingying told the news to the clan emperor.

The clan emperor knew this was unusual and immediately visited Yan Yu.

Yan Yu was a little surprised when he heard it. He said, “When did Bai Qing'er enter the city? Why is there no news at all?”

“I'm not sure! After the House of Enchanters of Hoth was destroyed, this woman disappeared without a trace. All the major forces thought she had been killed by the Heavenly Retribution Talisman! No one thought she would suddenly appear again and be together with Zhang Ruochen. These two should be incompatible,” Terra Demon’s Emperor said.

Yan Yu put his hands behind his back and slowly walked forward. “At that time, when Heavenly Retribution Talisman was suppressed, Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er disappeared simultaneously. Now, they appear together. What does this mean?”

“Could it be that they’ve been together all this time? Or could it be that the disappearance of the five supreme-quality Divine Crystals of Origin in the House of Enchanters of Divine Domain of Destiny and the deaths of Xing Qian and Tan Fei were all planned by them? They’ve been blaming each other all this time. But in fact, they’re just trying to confuse us.”

Yan Yu smiled. “No matter what the truth is, one thing is certain. The five supreme-quality Divine Crystals of Origin must be on one of them. The two appeared together and even went to the Yakshas’ sacred ground. The answer is already undeniable.”

“I’ll gather the cultivators and head to the Yakshas’ sacred ground.”

Before Terra Demon’s emperor could finish his last word, he found that Yan Yu had already disappeared before his eyes.

...

The Yakshas’ sacred ground.

After hearing the news, the originally silent man let out a long laugh and said, “It turns out that this pair of adulterers have already gotten together. Good, very good. They finally couldn’t hold it in anymore. Let’s go to the Yakshas’ sacred ground.”

“They want to take Fane of Origin for themselves. Let’s see if they can do it,” Nan Sheng said.

He had agreed to come to the Royal City of Hundred Clans with Yuan Qianmo because of Fane of Origin.

...

In the sacred ground of a small clan in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, Luo Shengtian said in surprise, “Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er showed up at the same time and went to the Yakshas’ sacred ground? When did this happen?”

“It just happened.”

Feng Qingli said coldly, “Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er really played us all. I don’t know when they got together. I really feel bad for my junior sister. Zhang Ruochen has been flirting with women everywhere. He has never thought about junior sister’s feelings.”

Shang Xia’s figure appeared in Luo Shengtian’s mind. He felt a little guilty and didn’t dare to answer. He said quickly, “Let’s go. We should go to the Yakshas’ sacred ground first.”

...

Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er deliberately hid their tracks so fewer cultivators could stalk them. However, the news was still quickly spread.

More than a dozen forces that knew about the birth of the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin received the news and rushed to the Yakshas’ sacred ground.

The forces who were only attracted by the Light of Origin but that didn’t know about the birth of the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin sensed the unusual atmosphere and rushed to the vicinity of the Yakshas’ sacred ground.

The news was immediately spread through the wormhole to the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt, alerting the Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the various major powers stationed there.

The major forces elites such as Xing Luo, Yuan Qianmo, Madam Nixuan, Guye Jing, Dishastan, Roopkund Sea, Hollow Chasm, Fane of Barasingha, and other major powers gathered together.

Yuan Qianmo, who had always been calm, was the first to speak. He said aggressively, “I want to go to the Royal City of Hundreds Clan immediately, but Fane of Death will leave ten Paramount Realm Supreme Saints to help Fane of Destiny to deal with Ji Fanxin.”

“You are the main force to deal with Ji Fanxin. If you leave, we will fall from grace!” Madam Nixuan clan said.

A superior of Paramount Realm from Fane of Barasingha sneered. “Of course, Madam Nixuan is not in a hurry. I’m afraid you already know that the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is with Zhang Ruochen, right? Does your Xue Jue Family want to unite with the Enchanter Chamber and take over Fane of Origin ?”

Madam Nixuan said coldly, “Even if the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is in Zhang Ruochen’s hands, it is still his skill to obtain it. If Wargod knows, I’m afraid he’ll praise him.

“Actually, I don’t think you need to be so impatient. We don’t know what happened. If the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was in Zhang Ruochen’s hands, he would have gone to Fane of Origin long ago. Why did he went to Hoth?

“I think Bai Qing’er must have kidnapped Zhang Ruochen. It’s also possible that the Celestial Court’s cultivators transformed into Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er to create a diversion and save Ji Fanxin, who is trapped here. There are many possibilities. Everyone, please stay calm.”

Madam Nixuan was unable to convince everyone. Cultivators from all the major forces had left, and Fane of Destiny was no exception.

After all, Fane of Origin was too important!

It was even more critical than Tensho Compass and the Yuanhui-level genius Ji Fanxin.

...

Bai Qing’er stood in the empty, dark, and cold universe in Ji Fanxin’s appearance. She used her Divine Eye of Origin to look in the direction of the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt.

Beside her stood Lord Turtle, General Pillar, Wuma Jiuxing, and Hand of the World, Duan Lingfeng. All of them were full of energy, their auras were powerful, and their energy waves were like rivers and seas.

She said, "Half of the elites have suddenly left. It seems like something big has happened."

"What could be more important than killing a Yuanhui-level genius from the Celestial Court?" Duan Lingfeng said.

Bai Qing'er said, "Fane of Origin is coming into being."

Wuma Jiuxing's eyes lit up. It was evident that he had great expectations for Fane of Origin.

"If I'm not wrong, Zhang Ruochen must have met the real Ji Fanxin! Based on Ji Fanxin's perception of the supreme-quality Divine Crystal of Origin, they must have been on their way to find Fane of Origin. That's why we have to make a move," Bai Qing'er said.

Duan Lingfeng asked, "Junior Sister, why are you so sure that the real Ji Fanxin has come to Infernal Court?"

"There aren't many Masters of Origin in the world. Who else can Zhang Ruochen find if not Ji Fanxin? Besides, Zhang Ruochen is in Hundred-Shackle Realm now. He needs to practice Saintwill diligently. Ji Fanxin can help him."

Bai Qing'er continued, "Now is the time I've been telling you. When Zhang Ruochen goes to Fane of Origin, it's time I break through the inescapable trap of Fane of Destiny in Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt."

Lord Turtle, General Pillar, Wuma Jiuxing, and Duan Lingfeng's bodies quickly faded and disappeared.

Only Bai Qing'er was left. She turned into a shooting star and flew toward Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt.

The Yakshas could be said to be one of the top clans below the ten major clans of the Infernal Realm. They had a powerful inheritance that was similar to eternal and indestructible Macroworld. Their cultivation methods were profound. They had many Saint Techniques and even Divine Artifacts. Their foundations were unfathomable.

The sacred ground of the Yakshas in Royal City of Hundred Clan, Night Ocean, occupied an area of eight hundred miles. It was the gathering place in this star area of the universe. The cultivation environment was excellent, and it wasn't weaker than the top divine land of the ten clans of the Infernal Realm.

Various forces gathered in Night Ocean in large numbers. It was as if they were making a big move. The already tense Yakshas immediately activated their defensive formation.

A holy army of the Yakshas lined up at the mountain gate. All of them wore armor and held a set of weapons.

A genuine holy army comprised 100,000 Demi-Saints, 3,000 Saints, 100 Supreme Saints, and three Paramount realm Supreme Saints.

The armor they wore was precisely the same. It was engraved with the inscription of a formation. After activation, it could be combined into a defensive formation.

The weapons in their hands were engraved with the same inscription of an attack formation.

The weak realms in Celestial Court could even empty a macroworld if they wanted to refine the equipment of a holy army, let alone assemble the number of people they needed.

If the enemies they met were not strong, they could be split into three legions. Each legion would be led by a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, and a Thousand-Koan Supreme Saints as the general.

Or, they could be split into a hundred and form a hundred holy war camps. Each holy war camp would be led by a Supreme Saint.

Or, they could be split into three thousand and form three thousand small squads.

Suppose they encountered powerful enemies, such as Demigods, pseudo gods, or even ordinary gods. In that case, even if these holy army soldiers were spread over 100,000 kilometers, they could instantly combine their powers to resist and kill the powerful enemies.

It could be said that cultivating such a holy army was enough to make a force invincible under divinity and sweep everything.

The Yakshas had deployed their army. It was obvious that they had long been prepared.

The imperial emperor of the Yakshas was already in his twilight years. He wore sacred armor and stood among the army soldiers. His voice was sonorous and ear-splitting. “I have said long ago that when the leaders of the major forces return from Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt, I will definitely give them an explanation. Step on our corpses if you can’t wait and want to attack the Yakshas’ sacred ground.”

“Fight! Fight! Fight!”

The 100,000 soldiers of the Yakshas’ army shouted in unison, their killing intent soaring to the sky.

Although the major forces had countless experts, they were all scattered soldiers. Facing the might of an army, they couldn’t help but feel apprehensive and troubled.

It wasn’t until Scioness of Destiny, Pan Ruo, arrived that stopped the war from breaking out.

Lan Ying went up to meet her. His body was filled with killing intent. “Your Highness, please send the holy army of Fane of Destiny stationed outside into the city and destroy the Yakshas.”

“Why destroy the Yakshas?” Pan Ruo asked.

“Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing’er entered the Yakshas, but the Yakshas stopped us from entering. Xue Jue Family, the Enchanter Chamber, and the Yakshas plan to split Fane of Origin. Only by sending the holy army of Fane of Origin into the city can we break this situation.”

“Everyone, control yourselves first. I don’t think the Yakshas have the guts to make enemies with so many forces. I’ll go talk to the clan emperor.”

Pan Ruo entered the Yakshas and communicated with the clan emperor.

A moment later, she returned.

Cultivators from all the forces immediately surrounded her and asked for the results.

Pan Ruo had a strange look on her face. “The clan emperor said that Zhang Ruochen and Yan Zhexian went to the sacred ground of the Yakshas. They used a dimensional teleportation array and the spatial wormhole to go to their Ancestral Domain. They wanted to see the beautiful scenery of the Yakshas’ Ancestral Domain.”

“They went to the Yakshas’ Ancestral Domain? How is that possible?”

Hearing this result, all the Supreme Saints present were stunned. They didn’t believe it at all.

“That’s not right. Zhang Ruochen entered the Yakshas’ sacred ground with Bai Qing’er. Why is it Yan Zhexian now? There’s a problem, a big problem,” Yuan Benji said.

“The eldest daughter hasn’t left and has been in the sacred ground of Terra Demon.” a Supreme Saint of Yanluo Clan said.

Nan Sheng's gaze was sharp. "Could it be that Fane of Origin isn't in the Yakshas' sacred ground but in the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain?"

"That's entirely possible."

"The Light of Origin that appeared in the Yakshas' sacred ground is most likely just a pretense. It wants to pin us all down here. Bai Qing'er transformed into Yan Zhexian's appearance and fooled the cultivators of the Yakshas. She successfully escaped with Zhang Ruochen."

"These two b*stards are so ambitious."

"Let's go. We have to rush to the Yaksha's Ancestral Domain immediately. If we're too late, I'm afraid we won't get any benefits from Fane of Origin."

...

After learning the truth, the Yakshas' emperor immediately called for a high-level meeting.

After the meeting, they all thought that Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing'er had used the Yakshas! They had used them to block the cultivators from the big forces.

Fane of Origin was very likely in the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain.

After all, the Yakshas had once been glorious and had shaken Infernal Court. But then, it had suddenly fallen. Perhaps that was the reason why Fane of Origin had disappeared.

"It's possible that our Yaksha has a forgotten history."

"The Light of Origin can't appear in the Yakshas' sacred ground for no reason. Maybe this is a sign."

The higher-ups of the Yakshas were all excited.

They saw the hope of the Yakshas' revival. They could use Fane of Origin to stand at the top of the universe again.

After the Light of Origin appeared in Night Ocean, some big forces living in the center of Infernal Court came to them one after another. At that time, the higher-ups of the Yakshas became vigilant.

After many inquiries and spending a lot of Godstones, they finally knew the secret of the coming of Fane of Origin.

The emperor of the Yakshas had a deep look in his eyes. He said, "If Fane of Origin is in the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain, it can only mean that it was left by our ancestors. As descendants, we must protect it with our lives. We must never let it fall into the hands of outsiders."

"That's right! We will protect it with our lives. No one can touch it."

"But Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing'er have already gone to the Ancestral Domain."

The Yakshas emperor laughed coldly. "The Ancestral Domain is the territory of the Yakshas. Let alone the two of them, even if two gods went, they wouldn't be able to take Fane of Origin away. However, let's not alarm them for now. It's not too late to stop them after they found Fane of Origin."

"Supreme Saint Han Li, Supreme Saint Feng Yun, and Supreme Saint Qi will continue to be in charge of the army and protect Night Ocean. No cultivators are allowed to enter. The rest of the Supreme Saints will follow me back to the Ancestral Domain."

Royal City of Hundred Clans was only a city built by 137 small clans at the border of Infernal Court. It was like a "small Celestial Court."

As the number one clan in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, the Yakshas controlled 38 Macroworlds at the border of Infernal Court. There was countless Planet of Life.

The Yakshas' Ancestral Domain had been passed down through the ages.

Legend had it that in the ancient past when the Yakshas were at their most glorious, they ruled over 300 macroworlds. But now, they had declined and became effete. They couldn't even compare to a single clan of Immortal Vampires.

To go from the Royal City of Hundred Clans to the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain, one had to go through a wormhole.

Zhang Ruochen and Ji Fanxin chose the fastest way. They used a dimensional teleportation array from the sacred ground of the Yakshas to teleport directly to the wormhole billions of miles away from the Royal City of Hundred Clans.

When the cultivators of the major forces gathered outside the sacred ground of the Yakshas, they had already arrived at the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain.

When the emperor of the Yakshas rushed back to the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain, he received news that Zhang Ruochen and the so-called Yan Zhexian had borrowed a dimensional teleportation array from the Ancestral Domain and left.

At this moment, more and more Supreme Saints of the Yakshas gathered near the dimensional teleportation array.

The cultivators guarding the dimensional teleportation array had never seen so many significant figures of the clan gathered. They all knelt on the ground in fear, not daring to move.

The Yakshas emperor said in exasperation, "Why did you let them in without asking?"

The person in charge of the transfer array said in fear, "One of them is the famous Zhang Ruochen, and the other is the eldest daughter of Yanluo Clan. How could we dare to ask? Besides, they have the token given by the Clan Emperor."

The Yakshas emperor sighed with regret.

When Zhang Ruochen and Yan Zhexian visited, they only said they admired the culture, places of interest, and gods of the Yakshas and wanted to travel there. The Yakshas emperor wanted to make friends with them, so he didn't think much and directly lent his token to Zhang Ruochen.

Who would have thought that Zhang Ruochen would go to the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain to find Fane of Origin?

It was too late to regret now.

A cultivator with profound cultivation of Path of Dimension studied the dimensional teleportation array for a long time, but he could not find anything. He could not help but shake his head and sigh.

He walked to the front of the Yakshas' emperor. He bowed and said, "Zhang Ruochen's Path of Dimension is exquisite. When he left through the dimensional teleportation array, he erased part of the Dimensional Inscription on the dimensional teleportation array. Now, tracking the coordinates of the space he teleported away from is difficult. It will take a long time to repair this dimensional teleportation array."

The Yakshas' emperor asked, "Can you tell if he teleported inside or outside the domain?"

The Path of Dimension cultivator shook his head with a bitter look.

Although his cultivation was far higher than Zhang Ruochen's, his attainments in Path of Dimension were far from his level.

The disciple of the ancient god of the Yakshas, Jadea, Han Ailian said, "We can't delay for too long. The major forces of Infernal Court will arrive at the Ancestral Domain soon. Will they believe us if we say we don't know where Zhang Ruochen is?"

"Obviously, Zhang Ruochen has already planned to use the Yakshas to deal with the cultivators following closely behind him. I even suspect that Fane of Origin isn't in the sacred ground of the Yakshas. Likely, Zhang Ruochen has left the Ancestral Domain through dimensional teleportation array and went to the real place where Fane of Origin was born."

"What do you think we should do?" the Yakshas' emperor asked.

Han Aileen said, "Three steps. First, I'll wake up my master, who is sleeping. Only when she wakes up can she sense if Zhang Ruochen is still in the Ancestral Domain. Moreover, with such a big thing happening, there should be a god to take charge of the situation.

"Second, I will send people to patrol the secret places in the Ancestral Domain and the planets in the outer universe. Since Zhang Ruochen has chosen to come to the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain, he can't just beat around the bush. Maybe Fane of Origin is really close to our Ancestral Domain.

"Third, the Clan Emperor must immediately meet the Scioness of Fane of Origin and tell her about the situation. It would be best if she could ask the elites of Fane of Origin to come here and use Path of Destiny to calculate the coordinates of Zhang Ruochen.

"In short, no matter what, we can't let the Yakshas become the target of public criticism. If that happens, we will fall into Zhang Ruochen's trap."

"Alright, as you say. It seems that our clan also has some outstanding talents. I, the Clan Emperor, was the one who lost my head." The Clan Emperor felt that he would be formidable in the future.

The dimensional teleportation array in the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain was of very high quality. He could not set it up even with Zhang Ruochen's current dimensional attainments.

Whoosh

A powerful spatial fluctuation appeared in the dark and boundless universe. Zhang Ruochen and Yan Zhexian appeared at the center of the spatial fluctuation.

Zhang Ruochen looked around and found the spot of light representing the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain in the starry sky. He had a rough idea of the distance.

He said, "This is the limit of the dimensional teleportation array. Is the location correct?"

Ji Fanxin, who looked like Yan Zhexian, turned into Bai Qing'er. She nodded slightly and pointed in the opposite direction of the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain. She said, "Look over there."

Zhang Ruochen looked over.

The direction Ji Fanxin was pointing at was pitch-black. It was empty and eerie. No stars could be seen. But in other directions, starlight shone.

In this comparison, the scene before Zhang Ruochen was bizarre.

Zhang Ruochen said, “That’s right. This is the legendary Triangular Starfield of Darkness, the most terrifying forbidden zone at the edge of the Infernal Court.”

According to Seven-Armed Elder’s description, the Qiankun Realm was located in the Triangular Starfield of Darkness.

The north of the Triangular Starfield of Darkness was close to the Yakshas’ Ancestral Domain. According to the star map at the edge of the Infernal Court, the starfield with the Royal City of Hundred Clans as its center was north of the Triangular Starfield of Darkness.

To the southwest of the Triangular Starfield of Darkness was the Ashuran Planet.

Of course, the Ashuran Planet was not close to it. Instead, it was a few light years away, hundreds of billions of miles away.

To the southeast of the Triangular Starfield of Darkness was the star field where the Tianchu Civilization, the Thousand-Star Civilization, and dozens of other ancient civilizations were located. The distance between them was also very far.

No one knew how vast the Triangular Starfield of Darkness was. However, there was an extremely curious Supreme Saint who flew along one of the boundary lines for more than a thousand years. However, he could not reach the end of the boundary line. Eventually, he encountered a wormhole and returned to the Infernal Court.

Perhaps only some powerful gods knew about the situation in the Great Triangle of darkness.

The reason why the Great Triangle of darkness was called a forbidden zone was not that there was any danger in this galaxy. In fact, all the cultivators who entered claimed that it was extremely safe.

However, only one or two of the 100 cultivators who had entered could return.

The other cultivators were all lost in it.

If a mortal drove a ship into the sea, he could at least tell the sun's and stars' locations. However, once a cultivator entered the Triangular Starfield of Darkness, he would completely lose his sense of direction.

Even a Supreme Saint could get lost in it if he went too deep.

“When the Death Palace of the Fane of Destiny went to the Southern Sword Realm, did they set up a dimensional teleportation array at the edge of the Triangular Starfield of Darkness?” Zhang Ruochen asked Seven-Armed Elder.

The Seven-Armed Elder replied, “As far as I know, no. After they found the Southern Sword Realm, they decided it was a barren Macroworld. Its value was minimal, so there was no need to build a large-scale dimensional teleportation array.”

Zhang Ruochen summoned Xue Tu out of the Qiankun Realm to ask about his gathered information.

Before Zhang Ruochen went to Hoth, he had sent Xue Tu to the Southern Sword Realm. Because he did not have much hope for him, he had not asked about it.

Xue Tu said proudly, “I followed your instructions, and I have been to the Southern Sword Realm once.”

“Have you been to the Southern Sword Realm?” Zhang Ruochen was quite surprised.

Xue Tu laughed. “I’m alone. Naturally, I don’t dare to break into the Triangular Starfield of Darkness. I followed the cultivators of the Corpusians secretly. You must believe that I can go there. Otherwise, why would the Blood Empress take me as her disciple?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that the Southern Sword Realm had been sold by the Death Palace to the Ghost’s Dishatan, the Bone Clan’s Roopkund Sea, and the Corpusians’ Hall of Permanence.

Xue Tu said, “The Southern Sword Realm is only at the edge of the Triangular Starfield of Darkness. It’s only 300 million to 400 million miles away from the outside world. If you take a fast sacred ship, you can reach it in three or four days.

“Of course, if you don’t know the exact location of the Southern Sword Realm, a cultivator wouldn’t be able to find it even if he traveled in the Triangular Starfield of Darkness for 10,000 years.”

Suddenly, Xue Tu thought of something. He said seriously, “Dishastan, Roopkund Sea, and the Hall of Permanence are building a dimensional teleportation array connecting the Southern Sword Realm to the outside world. I’m afraid they’re treating that place as a farm for the Ghosts.”

Zhang Ruochen was deep in thought. He asked, “How many masters do these three forces have in the Triangular Starfield of Darkness and the Southern Sword Realm? Do they have a sacred army?”

Xue Tu shook his head and said, “How can they send a sacred army to manage a barren world? Usually, they only send three or five Supreme Saints to manage the Ghosts’ farm.

“However, because of you, the three forces have focused on the Southern Sword Realm. On the surface, there are dozens of Supreme Saints. However, there must be other masters hiding in the dark, but I can’t detect them with my cultivation.

“According to my analysis, even if the three forces send masters to the Southern Sword Realm, they won’t be that powerful. After all, your cultivation wasn’t as amazing as it was now when the House of Enchanters said that they would seize the Southern Sword Realm by force.”

Zhang Ruochen stared at Xue Tu with a new look in his eyes.

‘With his cultivation at the Neverwilt Realm, he could do such a difficult thing well. It showed his extraordinary ability. No wonder Wargod Bloodximius had sent him to the Sword Vault to rescue Lord Ming.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Xue Tu hesitated and said, “Senior brother, I have a question, but I’m not sure if I should tell you about it.”

“Speak out!”

Xue Tu was puzzled and said, “Many cultivators know that the Fane of Origin will most likely appear in the Royal City of Hundred Clans. Why are we sacrificing the big to take the small, such as the Southern Sword Realm, at such an important time?”

In Xue Tu's eyes, the Fane of Origin was much more important than the Southern Sword Realm. Even if he could only follow behind and pick up the crumbs, it was still better than a barren Macroworld.

Zhang Ruochen didn't answer his question. He said, “How far is this place from where the Dishastan, Roopkund Sea, and the Hall of Permanence are stationed?”

Xue Tu was very anxious. He felt that Zhang Ruochen didn't know what was essential and what wasn't. He wanted to persuade him again, but when he saw Zhang Ruochen's cold eyes, he held back.

Xue Tu observed the arrangement of the stars in all directions. After predicting silently for a while, he pointed in a direction and said, “This direction. It's about three billion kilometers.”

“That far?” Zhang Ruochen frowned.

Xue Tu said, “Senior brother, compared to the entire Triangular Starfield of Darkness, this is very close!”

Zhang Ruochen looked at Ji Fanxin.

Ji Fanxin nodded and said, “The direction is right.”

“It seems that the Seven-Armed Elder is telling the truth. The Fane of Origin might really be in the Southern Sword Realm,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu's ears perked up. His eyes rolled around. “Senior brother, what did you say?”

“Don't ask questions you shouldn't ask. Do you know what kind of people die the fastest?” Zhang Ruochen said.

“I understand. I won't ask anymore. From now on, I'll follow you and Ji Fanxin to the Fane of Origin. If you find any treasures, take them first. Leave me some crumbs will do.”

Xue Tu's face was red. He was so excited that his heart was about to explode.

He had clearly heard Zhang Ruochen say, “The Fane of Origin is in the Southern Sword Realm.”.

‘Oh my goodness! If that was true, even if I followed Zhang Ruochen and picked up the crumbs, he could make the Supreme Realm and demigods envious to death.’

As for why the Fane of Origin was in the Southern Sword Realm, Xue Tu didn’t want to think about it. After all, Zhang Ruochen was a Yuanhui-level genius and had great luck. What Zhang Ruochen said couldn’t be false.

‘What was the use of having a deity as a father?’

‘It was better to have a Yuanhui-level genius senior brother.

‘I could soar into the sky just by following his luck.’

Xue Tu thought of his father. His father’s talent wasn’t exceptional when he was young, but he couldn’t help it. He was good friends with the young Wargod Bloodximius.

Now, not only had his father reached divinity, but he had also survived the first Yuanhui Tribulation and become the overlord of the Bloodysky Clan.

Xue Tu couldn’t wait. He wanted to grow a few more pairs of blood wings and fly to the Southern Sword Realm immediately.

Zhang Ruochen strategized silently. With his current attainments in cultivation, even if he used the Meritorious Armor of Flowing Light and traveled at full speed, it would still take nearly 20 days to reach the three forces’ encampment.

“I have a demigod-level ship. It can fly three billion miles in a day. It’s a failed product that my master once refined.”

Ji Fanxin took a palm-sized flower boat from her sleeve and threw it out.

Driven by Saint Qi, the flower boat expanded rapidly and turned into a 300-meter-long ship. The ship was made of wood. The deck was planted with all kinds of strange flowers and plants. They were colorful and beautiful.

Xue Tu was stunned for a moment. “This... was a demigod-level ship?”

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and observed carefully. He was perplexed. The ship before him looked ordinary and small compared to some saint ships refined by Supreme Saints. How could it be called a demigod-level ship?

The key was the wood structure.

Could it be made of divine wood?

“The bigger the ship, the stronger it is.”

Ji Fanxin was floating. Like a fairy, she flew onto the ship.

Zhang Ruochen and Xue Tu flew up one after another. They climbed onto the deck and walked among the colorful flowers. Only then did they truly feel the extraordinariness of this place.

The surrounding Saint Qi of the wood element was highly dense. The aura of life was boundless. In some areas, the Saint Qi of the wood element even spread out from the soil.

“There are at least three Immortal Cacti that have grown.”

“Wow, could this be the legendary Immortal Flower? Even a drop of dew on its petals could extend the life of an old and soon-to-die Supreme Saint for a hundred years. This can be considered half a divine herb. In the future, it might even be a chance to become a true divine herb.”

Xue Tu stood in the center of the ship. He could not help but extend his finger under a giant crimson flower more than 20 meters tall.

BOOM!

Xue Tu’s action triggered the restriction.

Xue Tu flew out like a rubber ball. His body was charred black, and he passed out in the flowers.

The ship was activated, and it flew out at an unparalleled speed.

Being called a demigod-level ship took more than just flying fast.

Zhang Ruochen walked around the ship and found a lot of powerful Divine Marks and some impenetrable inscriptions of arrays. It was hard to predict how strong the defense and attack power would be when these Divine Marks and inscriptions of arrays were activated.

Perhaps this ship was why Ji Fanxin dared to meet Bai Qing'er.

...

The starry sky seemed to have been frozen since ancient times. There were bright meteors occasionally flying past. The Triangular Starfield of Darkness, which looked like a dead pool, quickly disappeared, and its light dimmed.

The demigod-level ship flew along the edge of the dark starfield. It could travel over 100,000 miles in one breath's time.

About a day later, they arrived at the nearby starfield where the three forces were stationed.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the ship and looked into the distance.

He saw a black corpse mountain, a metal Ghost pagoda that was more than 10,000 meters tall, and a giant white bone Supreme Saint grade beast floating at the edge of the dark starfield.

The corpse mountain had palaces, caves, stone bridges, and waterfalls formed by the River Styx.

Eight floating bridges were built on the eight sides of the metal Ghost pagoda. The Ghosts' soldiers escorted groups of souls into the pagoda.

The white bone Supreme Saint Beast was even bigger than the mountain of corpses and the Ghost pagoda. There were roads built on the bones of the legs. There were abodes on the ribs.

On the head and mouth, there was a massive pool of blood. There were Bone Clan cultivators pushing creatures into the pool of blood. The bodies of the creatures melted, and their flesh was stripped off. They turned into white bones and became the Bone soldiers.

In the center of the corpse mountain, Ghost pagoda, and the white bone Supreme Saint beast, there was a floating island connected by iron chains and an air bridge.

On the floating island, more than ten black-robed cultivators were building a large-scale dimensional teleportation array. Corpse soldiers, ghost generals, and bone soldiers carried an endless stream of materials.

Ji Fanxin sighed. "Did you see that? To the cultivators of the Infernal Court, as long as they discover a Macroworld, they will treat the cultivators, mortals, beasts, and demons of that Macroworld as food, prey, and source of manpower.

"But they never thought that if all the living beings of the Macroworlds died, what's left for them to eat? They would probably have to kill each other, and the entire universe would perish in the end.

"This happens when you only know destruction and don't know creation. You only know death and don't know life.

"Do you know why the Asuras, Rakshasas, and Immortal Vampires can only be the three lower clans? It's not that these three clans aren't strong enough, but it's because most of these three clans were living creatures."

Zhang Ruochen knew that Ji Fanxin was saying this to tell him that the Infernal Court wasn't a place to live for long. If the Infernal Court completely destroyed the Celestial Court, the creatures of the Infernal Court would be the first to die.

In the Infernal Court, death was the most fundamental ideology.

The living helped the dead to kill the living. Sooner or later, the living would be killed by the dead.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Only knowing life, not knowing death. What’s the result?”

Ji Fanxin was slightly stunned.

She cultivated the Path of Life, so she didn’t think about it the other way around.

“Life and death must coexist. There needs to be a balance between the two. 300,000 years ago, the 20 heavens could grasp this balance, so the entire universe was thriving. 300,000 years ago, this balance was broken. Someone or a group had to rebuild the balance and establish a new order.” Zhang Ruochen looked at the starry sky. He said this.

Ji Fanxin looked at Zhang Ruochen. She felt that at this moment, he had a unique charm and a fatal allure, like the nectar to a bee and the candle to a moth.

She was like a greedy bee and an irrational moth at this moment.

“Of course, with our current attainments in cultivation, there is no need to think about this. We are in this era of imbalance. How can we control the world and the universe if we can’t control ourselves?”

Zhang Ruochen took out the Ancient Abyssal Sword. The sword was as cold as frost. He looked sideways at Ji Fanxin and said, “With your spiritual power, can you stop them from sending the message?”

“I think so,” Ji Fanxin said softly, wearing a veil.

Xue Tu, who had woken up long ago and had been playing dead, suddenly got up and said, “Senior Brother, I want to fight with you.”

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen ignored him and used the Great Dimensional Shift. Every step he took was thousands of miles away.

In an instant, he came close to the three forces' encampment. He hovered in the void, and his body burst out with the brilliance of divine fire as bright as the sun.

On the floating island in the center, more than a dozen black-robed dead souls setting up the dimensional teleportation array sensed his power first and looked over.

"Why did the sun suddenly appear?"

"No, it's a Supreme Saint, a mighty Supreme Saint."

"Who is it? What a powerful aura. Are you the cultivator from the Hall of Permanence?"

While the low-level dead spirit cultivators were still discussing.

Above their heads, a huge black sword that was hundreds of thousands of meters long suddenly appeared. It seemed like it would cut the world in half as it slashed down.

"Not good. Quick, activate the defensive formation."

...

BOOM!

In its gigantic form, the Ancient Abyssal Sword split the black corpse mountain into two. The palace collapsed, the stone bridge broke, and waterfalls fell. Countless corpse cultivators scattered into the void.

The giant sword slashed out again and shattered the white bone Supreme Saint beast.

Large pieces of the bone flew into the distant starry sky.

Only the powerful saint Bone cultivators flew out of the bones like light spots. They let out angry howls and cold curses.

Zhang Ruochen struck out a third time and landed on the 10,000-meter-tall metal Ghost pagoda.

In the metal Ghost pagoda, there were important figures of the Ghosts guarding it. They activated the defense array. Strange lines appeared on the surface of the Ghost pagoda. They shone with black light.

BANG!

The giant sword was still dozens of feet away from the Ghost pagoda. It met with obstacles and failed to cut through the dark brilliance.

A deep voice came from the Ghost pagoda, shaking the universe. “Zhang Ruochen, you really came to me. Do you know that I have been waiting for you for a long time?”

“So it’s Zhang Ruochen.”

More than a dozen black-robed dead souls on the floating island in the center worked together to display the Power of Dimension. The densely packed Dimensional Rifts turned into a storm and rushed toward Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed at the void, and the Ancient Abyssal Sword returned to its original size and fell into his hand.

Then, he became one with the sword and ignored the Dimensional Storm. He turned into a rapid sword light and flew toward the metal Ghost pagoda.

The sword light passed through the Dimensional Storm, and the light became brighter and brighter.

The light condensed into a giant flower.

“Blossoming Cadence!”

The huge flower hit the metal Ghost pagoda’s surface, making the array’s black light shake violently. The sword light flew out of the flower like a needle, broke through the array, and entered the tower.

All the dead souls in this starfield looked at the metal Ghost pagoda in horror.

How could Zhang Ruochen be so powerful?

The defensive array of the Ghost pagoda couldn’t stop him.

After a moment of silence, the metal Ghost pagoda broke into pieces from top to bottom.

One black and one white figure flew out from the bottom of the tower and fought fiercely.

The white figure was naturally Zhang Ruochen.

The black figure was wearing ghost armor. His black hair was flowing in the air. His cultivation reached the Banshi Isshou Realm. He was a powerful figure who had shaken both Celestial Court and Infernal Court, Yu.

He was also known as the sixth son of the Ghost Master.

He was the elder brother of Xu and the younger brother of Ling.

Seeing this, the dead soul cultivators all over the starfield realized that things weren't good. Zhang Ruochen was stronger than they'd expected.

Thus, some cultivators carved Communication talismans and sent them out.

The Communication talismans stopped not far away. They exploded and turned into jade dust.

"The spiritual-power Supreme Saint is hiding in the dark."

More cultivators shot out Communication talismans to spread the news and call for reinforcements.

Unfortunately, even though the Communication talismans flew out like raindrops, they exploded after reaching a certain area. They were all destroyed.

The atmosphere of fear spread.

Zhang Ruochen must have brought a powerful helper. He was planning to kill them all, leaving no one alive.

Yu screamed in pain as they were planning to break out of the encirclement in different directions.

The winner was decided.

Zhang Ruochen performed a strange and peerless sword technique and activated the Marks of Time between heaven and earth.

The Marks of Time gathered into a bright moon. Under the light of the Moon, time seemed to have stopped. Yu stood still and could not move. Zhang Ruochen's sword pierced through Yu's chest.

Yu's Ghost body was shattered by the sword qi.

The Ghost's soul was cut into pieces by Zhang Ruochen's sword soul.

It dissipated completely. There was no chance for it to reunite with Yu's Ghost body.

Heaven and earth went silent. All the cultivators present were shocked.

That was Yu, the sixth son of the Ghost Master. He was a master in the Banshi Isshou Realm. He had the potential to become a god. How could he be killed by Zhang Ruochen?

It was too surreal. No cultivator wanted to believe it was real.

It must be an illusion.

It was not until Zhang Ruochen took out Yu's Sainthood Source from the Ghost mist that they woke up and fled in all directions like crazy.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen refined Yu's remnant soul in the Sainthood Source. Dense purple vines flew out from his back.

The purple vines flowed with the light of thunder and fire. From one vine divided into 100, 100 to 10,000, 10,000 to 100,000, 100,000 to 1,000,000... Soon, the vines covered an area of 500 kilometers and turned into a sea of thunder and fire vines, binding and imprisoning one dead spirit after another.

Zhang Ruochen walked forward. Moyin's enchanting figure behind him appeared. Her eyes were wild and excited. All the vines flew out of her hair.

She used the dead soul cultivators as nutrients. She kept absorbing them and transforming them into the precepts in her body. Her cultivation increased rapidly.

The Saint Devourer's cultivation method was completely different from other cultivators. After fusing with the dharma body, it reached the Paramount Realm. However, there were only a trillion precepts in her body.

However, as long as it was given enough nutrients, it could continuously increase its cultivation.

Other cultivators were different. They needed to accumulate the precepts for an extended period in the Banshi Isshou Realm. The more precepts they gathered, the stronger their initial Paramount physique formed. After reaching the Paramount Realm, the upper limit would be higher.

Generally speaking, the upper limit was two to three times that of the initial Paramount physique.

For example, a Supreme Saint had accumulated three trillion precepts at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm. He used these precepts to form a Paramount physique.

In that case, the total number of precepts in his body at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm could only be within the range of six trillion precepts to nine trillion precepts.

He couldn't reach ten trillion precepts and become a Demigod.

If he could not become a Demigod, it was naturally impossible for him to become a deity.

Therefore, Supreme Saints who had the ambition to become deities would need to accumulate four trillion precepts before they could seek a breakthrough. However, most of the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints could not do so.

Whoosh —

The Ancient Abyssal Blade shuttled through the dense vines like a streak of black light. With the sound of metal colliding, the weapon in the hands of the struggling Saint-level dead souls was devoured and refined.

When Xue Tu arrived, he found that the battle had ended. Looking at the sea of thunder and fire vines, he couldn't help but feel a rush of heat rising from his heart to his head.

That's right!

Following Zhang Ruochen would indeed bring him luck.

The Saint Devourer's combat strength was only in the Thousand-Koan Realm during the Celestial-Hunting battle. How long had it been? Now, its combat strength was even more terrifying than a Supreme Saint at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm! He didn't know if it had reached the Paramount Realm.

Ji Fanxin put away the divine-level ship and flew to the floating island with a dimensional teleportation array.

The corpses and bones of black-robed dead souls were strewn around the teleportation array. They had all been killed by Zhang Ruochen. Only a black-robed ghost was frozen by the Curse of Light and Dark. He didn't move.

Zhang Ruochen took out the sundial and slowed down the flow of time on the floating island. Then he studied the dimensional teleportation array in detail and nodded, “Brilliant, really brilliant. Even I can’t compare with your study on the dimensional teleportation array.”

To set up a dimensional teleportation array that spanned hundreds of millions of miles was more complicated than a ninth-class array.

His attainments in array formations were at least at the level of High-Saint.

His attainments in dimensional could not be weak.

His spiritual power had to be above the 69th level.

He had to meet all three conditions. In addition, plenty of precious dimensional materials were needed to set up a teleportation array at this level.

One had to admit that the Ghost Supreme Saint was an incredible talent.

Xue Tu flew onto the floating island and laughed loudly, “Senior, you may not know. This Master Ye You is a figure on par with the Noqoilpi, Seven-Armed Elder. Both are one of the twelve wandering cultivators in the Infernal Court. It is only because he has met you, who is highly skilled in dimensional. It is difficult for other cultivators to keep him. Dishastan must have paid a high price to invite him to set up the array.”

In fact, Xue Tu was very surprised. To his knowledge, Master Ye You’s spiritual power had reached the 69th level, and his cultivation seemed to be at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm.

Even if Zhang Ruochen’s dimensional attainments were better than Master Ye You’s and could stop him from escaping.

But how could he use a curse to stop him?

Zhang Ruochen is indeed unfathomable. I don’t know what kind of trump card he has. Master Ye You has the experience of escaping from the pseudo god, but he can’t escape from Zhang Ruochen.’ Xue Tu was deeply shocked. A sense of awe rose from the bottom of his heart.

It was both awe and fear.

Of course, Xue Tu didn't know that Zhang Ruochen and Seven-Armed Elder had worked together to restrain Master Ye You.

It was the Seven-Armed Elder who had activated the Myriad Curse Bead and performed the Curse of Light and Dark.

Master Ye You could never have imagined there was a master in Zhang Ruochen's inner world whose spiritual power was not weaker than his. He was caught off guard and fell.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen's dimensional attainments were higher than Master Ye You's. However, he practiced and studied more offensive methods than teleportation array.

"Zhang Ruochen, give me a quick death. I won't give in. Kill me. Refine and scatter my soul." Master Ye You's voice was hoarse, but his will was firm.

Ji Fanxin had a look of admiration. She said, "Master Ye You is as strong as the legends say. He's not afraid of death. Such a figure can be considered a hero even in the Infernal Court. If there's no hatred in the past, let him go!"

Apparently, Ji Fanxin was different from other cultivators in Heavenly Realm. She did not have to kill every cultivator in Infernal Court she met.

This was why she still treated Zhang Ruochen as a friend rather than turning against him.

Master Ye You's eyes were sharp. He said, "I don't need any mercy from any cultivators. I agreed to help the Dishastan build a teleportation array for them because of Divine Stone. But I died in the hands of the enemies of the Dishastan. This is my fate. Life or death is not something to be afraid of. It's not like I haven't died before."

Xue Tu's heart was shocked again. He hadn't expected to see a genuinely fearless person who didn't care about life or death.

There were no other words to describe his feelings at this moment except admiration.

The Seven-Armed Elder smiled and transmitted to Zhang Ruochen, "Trust me. If you really kill him, he'll be more cowardly than anyone else. He claimed he had escaped from pseudo god at that time. But, he was actually kneeling on the ground, begging for mercy, crying, and acknowledging the pseudo god as godfather. He even gave away all the Divine Stones he had before the pseudo god let him go. In fact, his pseudo god godfather was not as old as he was.”

Zhang Ruochen walked toward Master Ye You expressionlessly. The Ancient Abyssal Blade flew into his hand and said, “Okay, I’ll fulfill your wish. I can take your soul power and feed it to my eighteen Six-Tribulation Ghost Lord.”

“Zhang Ruochen!”

Master Ye You suddenly shouted and burst into tears. He said sincerely, “I’ve heard that humans are most compassionate. Since you have human blood, I only beg you to protect a planet for me after you kill me.”

“I’ve secretly saved all the humans on that planet. Their world has been destroyed, their country has been destroyed, and their families have been separated. Sigh. If I die, all the humans on this planet will be killed by the cultivators of the Ghost, and their souls will be devoured. Please, protect this planet for me. Please!”

“Okay, I promise you.” Zhang Ruochen held the hilt of his sword with both hands and activated the Earth Sword Soul to adjust his chopping posture.

“Zhang Ruochen!”

Master Ye You shouted again and said, “Y-You haven’t asked me where the planet is.”

Zhang Ruochen adjusted his chopping posture again.

Ji Fanxin couldn’t bear it. She stopped Zhang Ruochen and said, “Zhang Ruochen, can you spare his life for me?”

“No. Every cultivator will hold a grudge. If you spare his life, there will be endless trouble.” Zhang Ruochen was tough.

Ji Fanxin said, “I’ll trade with the favor you owe me.”

“The favor is great,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Ji Fanxin said, “I know.”

Zhang Ruochen sighed in his heart. No wonder the Mandala Goddess wanted to seal her cultivation and spiritual power so she could slowly practice from the lowest realm.

As expected, there was still a lack of bone.

Even Xue Tu might be able to scheme against someone like her. Let alone those old and cunning people in divinity.

Of course, Ji Fanxin was very intelligent and wise among her peers. It could only be said that Master Ye You was too smart and knew the weakness of human nature.

He knew Zhang Ruochen would not kill him from the moment Zhang Ruochen suppressed and did not kill him.

In that case, deliberately pretending to be fearless of life or death would make Zhang Ruochen think highly of him, and he can have a greater chance of survival.

When Zhang Ruochen wanted to kill him, he immediately changed his attitude and began to appeal to pathos. He tried to win Zhang Ruochen’s sympathy and make Zhang Ruochen refrain from taking action.

After all, all the humans on a planet would die after killing him.

If without the reminder from the Seven-Armed Elder, who was familiar with Master Ye You. Zhang Ruochen, a cultivator with The Heart of Truth, might have been deceived by him and let him go. Not to mention Ji Fanxin, who had refused death.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen seemed to hesitate, Master Ye You said righteously, “Miss, no need to plead for me. I was able to escape from the pseudo god, but I fell into the hands of a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. I’m already content to see such a peerless genius in my life. I am honored to be killed by an unparalleled Yuanhui level genius.”

Then he said with a choked voice, “Zhang Ruochen, you must go to that planet immediately after you kill me. You must do it immediately. The humans on that planet can't leave me for even a moment. Please, please! Kill me, kill me now!"

"As you can see, he is the one who wants to die."

Zhang Ruochen said to Ji Fanxin and swung his sword downward.

Before the sword fell, Master Ye You had already knelt down. He stretched out a hand and shouted, "Godfather, wait."

Ji Fanxin and Xue Tu were stunned. They looked at Master Ye You in disbelief.

What was going on?

Zhang Ruochen was also stunned. He wasn't surprised that Master Ye You would suddenly kneel down. After all, he had expected that he would surrender soon.

He was surprised that Master Ye You had dissolved much of the Curse of Light and Dark in such a short time. He could move freely, but his spiritual power and cultivation were still cursed and could not be used.

He was indeed a strong cultivator.

Master Ye You pressed his hands on the ground and kowtowed three times. Then, he raised his head and stared at Zhang Ruochen with tears. He said, "I thought about it carefully. In the end, I still worried about the humans on that planet. I have to be alive for them. I have to stay strong even if I have to kneel down or have to acknowledge someone as my father."

"Godfather, can you take me in? I will be at your disposal from now on."

How could Ji Fanxin and Xue Tu not understand? The legendary cultivator, Master Ye You, was not a strong person at all. His level of cowardice was even worse than a mortal.

Ji Fanxin was embarrassed and angry. A cold look appeared in her eyes.

She had thought that she had experienced enough, had seen all kinds of things in the world, and had long been able to understand people's hearts. But now, it seemed that she had not experienced enough.

She regained her calmness and indifference soon. She convinced herself that this would only allow her to grow and that she would not make the same mistake in the future.

Master Ye You was at least 20,000 years old. Zhang Ruochen wanted to chop him down with his sword when he called him godfather.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Master Ye You was indeed a talent. Like the Seven-Armed Elder, he was valuable in specific fields that even gods could not replace.

More importantly, he was a wandering cultivator.

It would be advantageous if he could take such a talent for his use.

Zhang Ruochen squatted down and looked at Master Ye You. He said, "Actually, I never thought of killing you from the beginning to the end."

Master Ye You's eyes shone brightly.

Zhang Ruochen patted his shoulder and said, "I don't want an old foster son like you, but I can make an exception to take an in-name disciple."

After Master Ye You knew that he had been schemed against, he seemed to have come to terms with it. He stopped pretending and smiled coldly.

He could kneel down and call others as a father to save his life.

He could do extraordinary things in times of emergency.

What was more important than saving his life?

However, he looked down on a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint in his heart.

Zhang Ruochen said, "My cultivation is indeed shallow. "I don't seem to be worthy of being your master. However, have you thought about another problem? Being my disciple is known as Saint Monk Xumi's grand disciple. Not every cultivator in this world is qualified to be his grand disciple. Think about it if you want to improve your dimensional attainments or become a god. You don't have much time left, do you?"

With that, Zhang Ruochen continued to study the unfinished dimensional teleportation array.

“Can you teach me the Path of Dimension?”

“Yes.”

“Can you help me become a god?”

“I can only help you. Whether you can become a god depends on your ability.”

“How long can you extend my life?”

Zhang Ruochen took out a Divine Tree Wooden Jar and threw it to him.

Master Ye You opened the wooden jar and saw the Spring of Life inside. His eyes became fiery. He raised his head and drank wildly.

Xue Tu stopped him and said, “Senior hasn’t agreed yet. How dare you start drinking?”

Master Ye You had finished drinking. He patted the empty wooden jar and sighed with a smile, “This is a very high-quality Spring of Life. It has extended my life for at least ten years. Ah! This wooden jar is also good. I’ll take it!”

“It means you agree to be my in-name disciple since you drank the Spring of Life. You know what will happen to you if you betray the sect, right?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Master Ye You said, “I know, I know. My soul and body will be destroyed. How could I be afraid of this... Ahem, Master, I didn’t mean that. What I mean is this Spring of Life is too little.”

“You will have enough Spring of Life as long as you are obedient,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Master Ye You spread his wrinkled hands and said, “T-This is empty talk...”

A stream of the Spring of Life flew out from Zhang Ruochen’s glabella and flowed around his body, making a pleasant sound of flowing water.

Master Ye You unconsciously knelt down and said, “Master, please accept my bow.”

Ji Fanxin felt that her understanding had collapsed entirely. An old monster who had lived for more than 20,000 years had taken Zhang Ruochen as his Master and called him “Master” straightforwardly.

However, thinking that he could even call Zhang Ruochen “Godfather”, she felt relieved.

Master Ye You did not have as many thoughts as Ji Fanxin. So what if he took Zhang Ruochen as his Master? Taking Zhang Ruochen as his Master would not shorten his life, nor would he break his bones or lose his soul. Instead, he would get free benefits.

How could such a good thing happen in the world?

Only Zhang Ruochen, the second generation of the Xue Jue Family, was so wasteful.

However, to Master Ye You’s disappointment, the Spring of Life turned into a stream and flew back to Zhang Ruochen’s glabella.

Although the Spring of Life could prolong his life, the effect would be reduced quickly if he drank too much. Zhang Ruochen intended to use the Spring of Life as bait to string him along.

Master Ye You rolled his eyes and said, “I heard that Master has received the inheritance of Grand Master and has a Secret Tome of Time and Space. May I have a look at it?”

“No rush. Come and finish setting up the dimensional teleportation array with me.”

Zhang Ruochen took out the Myriad Curse Bead and undid the Curse of Light and Dark on Master Ye You.

Master Ye You relaxed and was stunned. He thought to himself, 'Zhang Ruochen is so careless. How could he let me recover my cultivation easily? Isn't he afraid that I will kill him and steal the treasure? No, I can't act rashly. He must be testing me. I will definitely be killed if I attack.'

Master Ye You kept feeling that Zhang Ruochen couldn't curse him with his spiritual power, even if he had the Supreme Artifact, the Myriad Curse Bead. There must be some undisclosed power hidden in him.

'Forget it. I won't take the risk. There are too many essential figures behind Zhang Ruochen. I can't afford to offend them. I'd better leave immediately!'

Suddenly, Master Ye You fell into hesitation again. He couldn't take a step forward.

He believed that he could escape if he wanted to.

But did not he want the Spring of Life on Zhang Ruochen?

Did he not want to learn the Dimensional Inscription, Dimensional Saint Technique, and Dimensional Array on the Secret Tome of Time and Space?

Was Zhang Ruochen bragging that he could help him become a god, or did he really have the ability?

With Master Ye You's age and his fear of death, what he desired most now was to break through to the divinity. Once he reached divinity, he would have a lifespan of 129,600 years.

If he didn't want to become a god, he wouldn't have to keep his realm at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm after practicing three trillion rules of precept.

In the end, Master Ye You didn't leave. He continued to build the dimensional teleportation array with Zhang Ruochen.

It took them three months to carve all the inscriptions needed for the dimensional teleportation array.

Of course, with the sundial, only six hours had passed in the outside world.

Ji Fanxin, Xue Tu, and Moyin, which had significantly improved her cultivation, entered the array one after another.

The dimensional teleportation array began to operate with violent dimensional fluctuations and dazzling brilliance. In an instant, they disappeared from the array. They crossed a few hundred million miles and arrived in a pitch-black, cold, vast universe space.

Zhang Ruochen had thought he would be teleported directly to the Southern Sword Realm. But he was clearly in the Triangular Starfield of Darkness now.

Ji Fanxin immediately became alert. Beautiful Saint Flowers bloomed in the void space beneath her feet.

“Geezer, how dare you play tricks?” Xue Tu asked.

Master Ye You said, “What are you nervous about? The Southern Sword Realm is ahead. It’s just that the teleportation array can’t teleport directly into the realm. Master, come with me. We’ll know at a glance.”

Zhang Ruochen saw a chaotic zone in the distance after flying for hundreds of miles. It was like a chaotic wall. He couldn’t see the end of it from up and down or from left and right.

The so-called chaotic zone was a broken zone filled with Dimensional Rifts, Dimensional Vortexes, and Dimensional Storms.

He couldn’t see this chaotic zone because cultivators’ vision and perception would be severely affected by the Power of Darkness in the Triangular Starfield of Darkness. Even a Supreme Saint could only see hundreds of miles away.

Master Ye You said, “The entire Southern Sword Realm is covered by the chaotic zone. The thickest part is more than 300 miles. Even the thinnest part is more than 100 miles.”

“It won’t be so difficult to pass through with the dimensional teleportation array even if there is a chaotic zone that covers the Southern Sword Realm,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Master Ye You said, “Master, you don’t know this. This chaotic zone is filled with a special power. It’s hazardous to teleport by force. Master, you can use the Great Dimensional Shift if you don’t believe me. Let’s see if you can teleport directly to the Southern Sword Realm.”

Whoosh—

Zhang Ruochen released Saint Qi wrapped around Master Ye You, Ji Fanxin, Xue Tu, and Moyin. Ripples appeared around him.

Everyone disappeared in the center of the ripples.

When they reappeared, they were already above the clouds in the Southern Sword Realm.

Xue Tu stared at Master Ye You and couldn’t help but laugh. “Senior’s Great Dimensional Shift can pass through directly. Why can’t the dimensional teleportation array?”

Master Ye You didn’t feel embarrassed at all. He unconsciously knelt down and said, “Master’s Great Dimensional Shift is marvelous. Teach me.”

Master Ye You had always been proud of his dimensional attainments.

But now, he realized the gap between his and Zhang Ruochen’s practice of Great Dimensional Shift was like heaven and earth.

He might really have the ability to escape from the pseudo god once he learned this move.

Saint Monk Xumi’s technique was indeed extraordinary.

Xue Tu was also tempted, but he had some bottom line. He was not as shameless as Master Ye You, who kneeled like tofu.

“I’ll pass it on to you after this trip.”

Zhang Ruochen turned into a streak of flowing light and dived into the sea of clouds.

He landed on the ground and stood on the top of a protruding ring-shaped mountain range a moment later.

In the center of the mountain range was a massive pit with a diameter of nearly 1,000 meters. The soil in the pit was charred black, and the chaotic energy emitted from it was extremely shocking. It could affect an area hundreds of miles away.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

...

Master Ye You, Moyin, Ji Fanxin, and Xue Tu flew down one after another and stood not far from Zhang Ruochen.

Master Ye You sucked in a breath of cold air. He said in disbelief, "This place is the encampment of Dishastan, Hall of Permanence, and Roopkund Sea in the Southern Sword Realm. There are dozens of Supreme Saints gathered here. How could this place be razed to the ground? And they didn't even have time to send out the Communication talisman."

Apart from Zhang Ruochen, everyone else looked nervous.

Some powerful figures had arrived at Southern Sword Realm before them.

Although Lord Ming's attack didn't use divine force and hid his aura completely, Zhang Ruochen's Heart of Truth could still feel the faint aura. He was sure that it was him.

The aura grew fainter and fainter.

This was normal. Once Lord Ming broke into the Fane of Origin, there might be some anomalies. He had to clear the cultivators from the three dead souls forces to prevent the news from leaking.

The environment in the Southern Sword Realm wasn't as dark and lightless as Zhang Ruochen had imagined.

In reality, the plants in this great world would emit light for a certain amount of time, illuminating the world. It was very dreamy.

It was daytime in the Southern Sword Realm!

The world was pitch-black when the plants all went to sleep.

It was nighttime in the Southern Sword Realm!

Xue Tu looked at Zhang Ruochen with anticipation. He couldn't wait any longer. But seeing Master Ye You beside him, he didn't ask immediately when they would go to the Fane of Origin.

Master Ye You flew to the massive pit and studied it carefully.

After a moment, he returned with a solemn expression. He said, "Master, I think we have to leave the Southern Sword Realm immediately. The strong who killed all the cultivators of the three forces must be extraordinary. Moreover, the three forces will never let it go. We can't defend the Southern Sword Realm alone."

Xue Tu said, "Leave quickly if you're afraid."

"Master, can I really leave?" Master Ye You asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I won't stop you if you want to leave. But you're no longer my disciple."

"Survival is more important. No one wants to be your disciple. At worst, I won't learn your Great Dimensional Shift."

Master Ye You laughed inwardly. His heart skipped a beat just as he was about to fly away.

That's not right. Why is Zhang Ruochen so calm? Does he know who killed the cultivators of the three forces?

Moreover, all the cultivators in the world were attracted to the Royal City of Hundred Clans because of the Light of Origin. Why did Zhang Ruochen suddenly come to the Southern Sword Realm while staying in the Royal City of Hundred Clans?

Could he have another purpose?

Master Ye You felt something was wrong when he thought of the eager look on Xue Tu's face when he wanted him to leave. Perhaps, there was something extraordinary about the Southern Sword Realm, just as he had guessed.

As one of the top strong among the wandering cultivators, they were all brilliant figures. After knowing a great world had appeared in the Triangular Starfield of Darkness, they felt that this great world must be extraordinary.

Master Ye You had agreed to the Dishastan and help them set up the dimensional teleportation array because he had the intention to investigate. However, his luck was not as good as the Seven-Armed Elder's, so he did not discover anything.

In an instant, Master Ye You had a hundred thoughts running through his mind. He laughed and said, "Master, you need me now. How can I leave? Master, tell me. Just tell me if you have any tough work."

"There is one thing I need you to do."

Zhang Ruochen released Zhou Zhen, Shentu Yunkong, and Lord Sinluo from the Qiankun Realm. He gave each of them an Exquisite Dimensional Orb. Inside each sphere of Exquisite Dimensional Orb was a planet suitable for human survival.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Take the three of them to take as many cultivators from the Southern Sword Realm as possible. You should have a Spatial Treasure, right?"

Master Ye You thought for a while and asked, "Why did you do that?"

"Don't ask so many questions. Just do as you're told," Xue Tu said to Master Ye You in such a tone.

Perhaps he really thought he was a junior of his Master.

"Remember to watch out for them. Don't let them escape!"

Zhang Ruochen pointed at Zhou Zhen and Shentu Yunkong.

"Don't worry. I'll keep an eye on them."

The one who said this wasn't Master Ye You but Lord Sinluo.

After Master Ye You, Lord Sinluo, Zhou Zhen, and Shentu Yunkong flew away. Ji Fanxin said, "The Southern Sword Realm is extremely vast. With just four of them, I'm afraid they won't be able to save even one in ten thousand before many strong figures arrive."

"How can we save a realm with our current cultivation? Let's do our best. They still have plenty of time," Zhang Ruochen said.

It would definitely take a long time for the cultivators of Infernal Court to find out that Zhang Ruochen had come to the Southern Sword Realm.

The only worry was that Bai Qing'er would swiftly break out the encirclement and draw all the masters of the Infernal Court here. She had the Supreme Grade Divine Crystal of Origin and was the Master of Origin. She could sense the location of the Fane of Origin.

No matter the situation, the cultivators from all the significant forces of the Infernal Court, would arrive in this great world sooner or later.

The gods of the Heavenly Realm and Infernal Court would also arrive if nothing unexpected happened.

When that time came, Zhang Ruochen was unsure whether the Southern Sword Realm would be destroyed. The only thing he could do now was to save more native creatures and preserve the flame for them.

"My perception is even stronger!" Ji Fanxin dragged the Supreme Grade Divine Crystal of Origin and looked in one direction.

"Wait a minute."

Zhang Ruochen suddenly sensed something and took out the Wordless Sword Manual in the form of a stone sword. He was surprised to find that golden characters flashed and appeared on the surface of the stone sword.

The sword's body trembled. It would have flown out if Zhang Ruochen had not suppressed it.

"What's going on? Is the Wordless Sword Manual related to the Southern Sword Realm? Or is it related to the Fane of Origin?"

Zhang Ruochen found that the direction the Wordless Sword Manual was about to fly was exactly where Ji Fanxin was looking.

“Zhang Ruochen asked us to take away the creatures of the Southern Sword Realm. Why didn’t he do it himself?”

Master Ye You pondered as he flew.

“Is he worried that the three forces will take revenge and cannot defend the Southern Sword Realm alone?”

“But, even if the three forces send a large number of elites, they can’t destroy the Southern Sword Realm. Why would they take those creatures into the Exquisite Dimensional Orb?”

“Could it be...”

Master Ye You could only think of one possibility: that the Southern Sword Realm is facing the risk of being destroyed.

Thinking of this, he suddenly stopped and looked excited, and he said to himself, “Yes, Zhang Ruochen must have something important to do in the Southern Sword Realm. Moreover, this important matter might cause the Southern Sword Realm to suffer a disaster.”

“Why did you stop?” Lord Sinluo urged him on.

“Hehe, let’s go. We’ll go to the city before us and take all the creatures there.”

After saying this, Master Ye You continued flying with Lord Sinluo.

After a while, another Master Ye You appeared from the void and flew back. He planned to secretly follow Zhang Ruochen and the others to see what they were up to.

This was his real body!

What flew away with Lord Sinluo was only a spiritual avatar of his.

...

The Southern Sword Realm was incredibly vast. Zhang Ruochen and the others flew tens of millions of miles before they flew out of the continent and into the sea. Following Ji Fanxin's perception, they flew hundreds of millions of miles in the sea and finally arrived at the Ocean of Demon.

Whoosh

The sea wind was freezing cold and piercing like a razor.

Sometimes, the billowing waves could reach 200 to 300 meters high, as if they were going to sweep the sky down.

The stone sword in Zhang Ruochen's hand trembled even more violently. It shone brightly like a golden torch.

Xue Tu said, "I feel that this sea is incredible. The sea water is as dense as lead and mercury. Therefore, to generate such a high wave, some powerful energy must drive it. Could it be that the Fane of Origin is at the bottom of the sea?"

"This place is strange. The effect on vision and spiritual power is worse than in the Triangular Starfield of Darkness. After entering the sea, follow me closely. Don't get separated!"

Plop

Zhang Ruochen followed the stone sword's response and rushed into the sea. He quickly dived to the bottom of the sea.

Moyin turned into the Saint Devourer and hid behind his back.

It became deeper and deeper. He couldn't even see his fingers in the water.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen activated the Armor of the Fire deity and released divine fire, illuminating a vast area of water.

Xue Tu and Ji Fanxin followed closely behind him.

After diving for tens of thousands of meters, they landed on a planet floating while submerged in the water.

This planet was only 700 to 800 kilometers in diameter and had a rocky structure. On the planet's surface were mountains, valleys, and some ancient ruins.

“What a terrifying water pressure. Even with my Supreme Saint cultivation, I can feel my body being squeezed,” said Xue Tu, using his spiritual power to project a voice.

After saying this, he used his speed to rush toward an ancient ruin to search.

Ji Fanxin sensed something strange and stared at Zhang Ruochen, “This planet used to be filled with Divine Marks and inscriptions of arrays,” he continued. “There is murderous intent everywhere. But that was broken not long ago by someone. Someone came here before us, and that person should be a deity. Could it be a deity of Kunlun?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that he could not hide it from her. He shook his head slightly.

“Then it must be the deity of the Xue Jue Family!”

Ji Fanxin's eyes were calm, but her tone was displeased, “So, you didn't go to the Fane of Origin immediately,” she said. “You said you needed to be well-prepared, but that was just an excuse. The real goal was to let the deity of the Xue Jue Family take the treasures in the Fane of Origin first.”

“I didn't mean to deceive you,” Zhang Ruochen said. “As I've always said, finding treasures is secondary in this trip to the Fane of Origin. I have another more important thing to do.”

“Besides, if this really is the Fane of Origin, only a Reverend-level deity can take the entire temple. Other deities can only take a small part of the treasures when they come.”

In fact, Zhang Ruochen did not expect to land on the planet where Lord Ming had come before.

No...

Maybe it was not a coincidence.

When he came to the Southern Sword Realm, the Wordless Sword Manual had sensed him. Lord Ming's Stellar Sword was closely related to the Wordless Sword Manual. Could it have also perceived him?

Legend had it that the Stellar Sword and the Wordless Sword Manual originated from the Ancestral Swordmaster.

Therefore, by following the sense of the Wordless Sword Manual, there is a chance that he might overlap with Lord Ming's path.

It didn't take long for Zhang Ruochen to find the special mark left by Lord Ming on a 30-meter-long boulder in the ruins.

In the distance, Xue Tu laughed wildly as if he had found some incredible treasure.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the boulder and transmitted his voice to him, "There are still many immortal indestructible Divine Marks and inscriptions of arrays on this planet. If you touch them, your soul and body might be destroyed by it."

Apparently, Xue Tu was scared by that, and he quickly returned.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "You're so excited. What treasure did you find exactly?"

"Actually... it was nothing."

Xue Tu wanted to slap himself. Why couldn't he get over his arrogance? He could have secretly put the treasure away if he had found it. Instead, he had laughed so loudly that it would be strange if Zhang Ruochen didn't notice him.

Under Zhang Ruochen's gaze, Xue Tu took out a two-foot-long golden blade and half of a broken alms bowl and placed them on the boulder.

He was nervous and said painfully, "I should share the treasure found in the Fane of Origin with my senior. Senior brother, pick either one of these!"

Zhang Ruochen picked up the golden blade and said in surprise, "It's a fragment of a Supreme Artifact. Unfortunately, the supreme inscription inside has faded with the endless passing of time. After re-refining it, it could be refined into a powerful Regal Artifact.”

“The patterns inside this alms bowl are very mysterious. It should be an ancient tool nurtured by the deities with divine Qi all year round. Unfortunately, thousands of years have passed, and the divine force has dissipated. Its value is limited.”

Zhang Ruochen found that there were some ancient words carved on the inside of the alms bowl. He used his spiritual power to decode it. It seemed to record a kind of cultivation method of higher knowledge.

The words carved by the deities were not indecipherable.

What was indecipherable were the words that the deities did not want to be deciphered.

Unfortunately, the alms bowl was incomplete, and the cultivation method was also excessively vague. There was no way to cultivate it.

Both items were of high value. They would fetch a high price if they were up for auction. However, with Zhang Ruochen’s current goals, how could he be interested in them?

Unless the fragment of the Divine Artifact was more or less completed.

“All the treasures you found in the Fane of Origin can be yours. I don’t want any of them.” Zhang Ruochen waved his hand.

Xue Tu was ecstatic. As he took the golden blade and alms bowl away, he said, “Senior, with all the things you have given me, what more can I ask for?”

“But you’ll have to pay me back when we leave the Fane of Origin!” Zhang Ruochen said.

The joy on Xue Tu’s face disappeared instantly. He became pale as paper as if a sharp sword had pierced his heart. It turned out... it turned out that Zhang Ruochen wanted to take it all at the end...

“Senior!”

Xue Tu couldn't help but kneel and beg like Master Ye You.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You don't have to say anything! We are among the first cultivators to enter the Fane of Origin.

Suppose you have such an advantage and cannot get more than a Supreme Artifact. It can only mean that your ability is too weak."

Xue Tu thought about it, and it seemed to make sense.

The first cultivators to enter the Fane of Origin would get many benefits. Even deities would go crazy over it. It was possible to encounter any chance that might happen.

Even cultivators who didn't have the potential to achieve divinity might be able to defy the heavens and become deities.

For cultivators who were nearing the end of their lives, they might be able to find Divine Herbs.

That's right. It wasn't strange to find Divine Artifacts and Divine Herbs in the Fane of Origin, let alone a Supreme Artifact.

Ji Fanxin returned, holding a stone the size of a human head.

"This is..."

Zhang Ruochen's eyes lit up.

Ji Fanxin said, "I found this by passing through the dense Divine Marks in the depths of a ruin."

"It's just a stone."

Thinking of the two treasures he had found, Xue Tu couldn't help but look disdainful.

Ji Fanxin exerted some force from her five fingers. With a crack, the surface of the stone cracked.

Dazzling divine light shone out from the crack.

After the stone's surface was completely shattered, blinding divine light burst out from within the inside of the rock. The surrounding seawater was utterly blown away by it, forming a spherical bubble with a diameter of dozens of kilometers.

Xue Tu was so excited that he was trembling. He said, "Divine... Divinity Source..."

"It's indeed a Divinity Source," said Ji Fanxin.

A Divinity Source could create a pseudo god. One could imagine how valuable it was.

Xue Tu said, "Let's go look for the ruins you visited. If my guess is correct, there must have been a deity who died there a long time ago. There must have been other treasures."

Ji Fanxin did not care about the word "Sister-in-law" at all. she said, "Countless years have passed. Many things have turned into dust. I've already looked into it. Other than this Divinity Source, there's nothing else left."

"There's no Divine Bone?" Xue Tu asked.

Ji Fanxin shook her head and put away the Divinity Source.

"If it were a Ghost deity, there wouldn't be any Divine Bones left," Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu sat down on the boulder and sighed.

"This isn't the Fane of Origin yet. It's just a planet on the periphery. The better things are all in the Fane. This planet should be the array's base to protect the Fane of Origin." Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu said, "If that's the case, what are we waiting for? Let's go on."

"We have to wait a little longer. Someone is tailing us."

Zhang Ruochen looked in one direction and said, "Come out. Your aura has been exposed."

Master Ye You hid in a pile of rubble. His eyes showed hesitation.

Although he did not know what this place was, it must be a precious land of treasures to be able to pick up a Divinity Source easily like that.

He was very excited. He wanted to kill and silence them so he could occupy this place alone.

But... he did not dare to do so.

He had many concerns and was afraid that Zhang Ruochen had other cards up his sleeve.

He was also afraid that if Zhang Ruochen escaped, he would be hunted down by the Xue Jue Family.

He was also afraid of the woman next to Zhang Ruochen. He always felt that the woman was not like a pretty delicate vase as she looked. Perhaps she had extraordinarily powerful cultivation.

“Do we do this job or not?”

Master Ye You was extremely conflicted. He could not help but pull his hair.

Zhang Ruochen and Ji Fanxin appeared not far behind him silently. Zhang Ruochen said, “It really is you. I told you to collect the creatures of the Southern Sword Realm. Why did you follow me here?”

Master Ye You turned around and said righteously, “After I left, I thought about it carefully and realized that master had something important to do and might need me, so I immediately chased after him. As for a small matter like taking in living beings, I can do it with a mere clone.”

“After coming here, I finally understand that master needs me. Putting everything else aside, I can contribute if there is a need to break the arrays here.”

“I am a High-Saint Array Master at the level of King of Sea and Land.”

In the end, Master Ye You was still cowardly and did not dare to take the risk. However, when it came to his attainments in array mastery, he was full of confidence and incredibly proud.

“I have invited a Hand of the World. Why would I require a King of Sea and Land?”

Saying this, Zhang Ruochen summoned Le and High-Saint Kai Luo from the Qiankun Realm.

Master Ye You's expression changed drastically. Then, he let out a long sigh of relief and thought, "I see, Zhang Ruochen has invited a Hand of the World. Fortunately, my reason just now overcame my greed. Otherwise, I would have been reduced into a Sainthood Source. There is nothing wrong with being cautious."

After thinking for a while, Zhang Ruochen called out the Seven-Armed Elder again.

Seeing the Seven-Armed Elder, Master Ye You's face changed again. He suddenly thought of many things. Then, he gritted his teeth and became angry. No wonder he could not deceive Zhang Ruochen. It must be that old b*stard who had betrayed him.

Master Ye You's heart filled with hatred as he questioned the Seven-Armed Elder.

How could the Seven-Armed Elder admit to such a thing? He swore on the spot that whoever revealed his secret would be his grandson.

Master Ye You was suspicious and certainly didn't believe him. However, he couldn't bring out any evidence. After arguing for a while, he gave up.

Kai Luo was indeed an extraordinary figure. However, The same thing happened when he fell into the hands of deities and became just like an ant without a trace of spirit or pride on its body. He looked like an ancient walking corpse.

Most of his spirit and willpower had been wiped out.

He had also been hit by the "Blood Wolf Curse" that Handae had cast. Once he had the heart to try and resist, he would suffer the pain of a pack of wolves devouring his soul.

At this moment, Le was sitting on the back of a giant wolf covered in long blood-red fur. Beside him was the Kai Luo. The two followed closely behind Zhang Ruochen and Ji Fanxin, who was walking at the front.

They had already left the planet and were walking at the bottom of the sea on top of metallic-feeling sand, and their feet left footprints on the sand.

Of course, Xue Tu would meticulously clean up these footprints as he was walking at the back.

Xue Tu was afraid that other cultivators would easily follow their path and enter the Fane of Origin. Therefore, he was very diligent at work in cleaning up the footprints.

Although Lord Ming had opened up a path, he didn't seem interested in the treasures along the way. Instead, he headed straight for the Fane of Origin in the center.

Because of this, many Divine Marks and array inscriptions hadn't been thoroughly cleaned up.

They couldn't threaten gods, but they could threaten Saint-level cultivators like them.

Thus, Kai Luo came in handy.

Walking at the front, Zhang Ruochen and Ji Fanxin used the Heart of Truth and the Divine Eye of Origin to check their path. When they found the inscriptions of arrays, they immediately pushed Kai Luo to the front.

Kai Luo also thought about resisting, but the Blood Wolf under Le let out a long howl. He immediately trembled like a mouse meeting a cat or a baby chick meeting an eagle.

Obviously, Handae had scared him out of his wits.

Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You walked side by side and secretly communicated with each other using spiritual power.

Master Ye You asked, "What is this place exactly? Zhang Ruochen and the others have cracked the array of several ruins along the way, and they seem to have gained a lot."

The Seven-Armed Elder narrowed his eyes and smiled. "Before I answer your question, I want to discuss something with you first."

"Go ahead."

"Do you think we can defeat Zhang Ruochen and the others if we work together?"

Master Ye You had thought of this more than once. However, the initiative of the Seven-Armed Elder had made him cautious, "This old bastard obviously joined the Xue Jue Family a long time ago. At this moment, he must have listened to Zhang Ruochen's secret command to test my loyalty."

Master Ye You smiled and said, "I have accepted Zhang Ruochen as my master. Once a master, always a master. How could I dare to think of killing my master?"

The Seven-Armed Elder rolled his eyes. He realized the old man didn't trust him, so he had to suppress his thoughts.

Without Master Ye You's help, he wasn't confident enough to rely on himself.

"What kind of sacred treasure land is this? Why are there more and more ruins that are exceedingly old? The materials used in the buildings here were extraordinary." Master Ye You couldn't help but ask again.

The Seven-Armed Elder still pretended to be mysterious and didn't tell him.

The ruins and remnants became even more densely packed as they moved forward.

There were broken columns dozens of meters high with mysterious ancient beasts carved on them.

There was a broken stone statue with only half of its body, but it was as big as a mountain. The statue was in the act of killing and subduing demons. Under the dim light, it was extremely shocking.

They looked as small as ants when they walked past the statue.

Xue Tu saw a purple gem the size of a pond between the stone statue's eyebrows. The light it emitted was enough to affect the Precepts in his body.

It was evident that it was a treasure.

He wanted to take it, but Zhang Ruochen stopped him.

The Seven-Armed Elder sneered. "The stone statue is surrounded by powerful Divine Marks that can't be described with words. Normal gods might not even dare to approach it. You can die if you want, but don't drag us down with you."

Everyone felt regret but continued to move forward.

Four days later, they finally arrived at the core of the Fane of Origin. Everyone was shocked and petrified by the scene before them.

It was no longer pitch black. The place was filled with all kinds of strange flowers and plants that could emit radiant light. Many of them had reached the level of Yuanhui Tribulation sacred herbs. There were also some extremely rare ones that could only be seen in ancient handwritten notes.

“Oh my God, how can there be such a huge dragon heart plant? Every leaf is like a dragon. It has already grown five leaves. Doesn’t that mean that it has already lived for five Yuanhui periods? Once such a sacred medicine is born, the gods will appear and buy it.”

Master Ye You looked at the dragon heart grass in the distance. He was so excited that his entire body was emitting spectral flame.

It must be known that any sacred medicine that had lived for three Yuanhui periods could already be used as the primary medicine for refining Emperor Grade Sacred Pill and Subdivine Elixir. It could even be used as an accompanying medicine for divine pills.

Once he picked the dragon heart grass that had survived for five Yuanhui periods and consumed it, his spiritual power would reach level 69 and a half. He might even reach level 70 and directly achieve divinity.

No wonder Zhang Ruochen claimed that he could help him achieve divinity. It turned out that he wasn’t merely talking about it.

“Is this the legendary Purple Tears Sky Bamboo? It actually grew into a purple bamboo forest. Most of them have lived for one Yuanhui period. Some even have lived for three or four Yuanhui periods.” The Seven-Armed Elder kept gulping his saliva that came in such quantities that his eyes were about to turn purple.

Last time, he did not barge into such proximity when he came alone.

Xue Tu's cultivation was too low. Naturally, he did not dare to expect to pick the sacred medicinal herbs that had lived for three or four Yuanhui periods. This was because these medicinal herbs usually had mighty offensive power. The more powerful the herbs, the more powerful the Arrays and Divine Marks would be.

Therefore, he specifically targeted those medicinal herbs that had only lived for one Yuanhui period and quickly gathered them.

Zhang Ruochen was also interested in some of the medicinal herbs, but he was more interested in what the Wordless Sword Manual was sensing. So, he looked at the vast ruins of the Fane.

He couldn't see the outline of the Fane of Origin. He could only see a hillside filled with soil and strange flowers with weird plants.

The hillside was endless. It extended up to the end of the horizon.

Zhang Ruochen had seen the Fane of Truth before. It was thousands of miles tall. If the Fane of Origin had not been destroyed, it would probably have been on such a scale. After the destruction, the ruins could spread for tens of thousands of miles.

"The Fane of Origin nurtured the sacred medicine here. It has been growing for tens of thousands of years. No one has ever picked it. The quantity of sacred medicine here is probably unequaled in quantity to the Fane of Truth in the Celestial Court and the Fane of Destiny in the Infernal Court. It is the most precious treasure here. You should try to pick as much as possible with the time we've got."

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and released the Lord of Sword, the Lord of Stone, Sikong the Elder, Sikong the Younger, Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, and Zhen Wang from the Qiankun Realm. He allowed them to go and collect as an opportunity.

As for the Que Shenzi “Zhen Se” and Tian Shuzi “Zhen Nu,” Zhang Ruochen only let them out to take a look at the sacred medicine. He stored them back in the Qiankun Realm when they were stirred up and excited.

The disobedient cultivators could only watch but not eat.

The Fane of Origin had sunk to the bottom of the sea for a long time. Most of the valuable treasures must have turned to dust. Although the treasures that could be preserved were rare ones, they were few and far between.

The countless number of medicinal herbs were the most incredible wealth.

Zhang Ruochen sent a voice transmission to Ji Fanxin. “Help me keep an eye on Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You.”

“There’s no need to keep an eye on them. They may be rebellious, but at this moment... look, you look at them. They’re all so anxious to pick the medicinal herbs. How can they have the mood to do anything else?” Ji Fanxin said.

“That seems to be the case... Eh?”

When Zhang Ruochen looked at Ji Fanxin, he was surprised to find that the sacred medicine that even the Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You couldn’t pick easily flew out of the Divine Marks by themselves to Ji Fanxin’s side.

In a moment, she was surrounded by hundreds of flowers. She stood amidst the sea of flowers. Her figure was graceful and beautiful, and her black hair flowed like a waterfall.

The light from the petals reflected her skin like jade, and she was transformed into a real Fairy of a Hundred Flowers.

Zhang Ruochen was mesmerized by this scene for a moment. This extreme beauty almost intoxicated him.

This intoxication did not contain any impurities. It was the purest kind of appreciation.

Of course, it was only for a moment.

The other cultivators stared blankly for a long time before recovering their emotions.

Under the contrast of the hundred flowers, her beauty was even more powerful than illusions and spiritual power spells. It was as if she could seduce a Supreme Saint's soul and shake his will.

Only the sacred medicine of the flower category would take the initiative to approach and get close to her.

On the other hand, they were so envious that they cried out in admiration.

“As expected of the Lotus of Divine Reflection, named as the emperor of all flowers. Moreover, the sacred medicine here has absorbed the power of Origin, and she is also a Master of Origin. The flower types of the sacred medicine must treat her like a mother. It also includes the Saint Devourer, which became very close to her after coming into contact with her,” Zhang Ruochen thought.

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen released the Saint Devourer and asked her to stay here to care for everyone and collect the sacred medicine.

If she encountered other ferocious plants, she could resist them with her cultivation of the Paramount Realm.

After making proper arrangements, Zhang Ruochen, Le, and Kai Luo followed the path opened by Lord Ming and used the sensing capabilities of the Wordless Sword Manual to set off towards the Fane of Origin.

After walking for about a day, they saw a vast sword-shaped stone mountain in the distance.

This Stone Mountain looked similar to the Wordless Sword Manual but more majestic.

Countless swords flew around the sword-shaped stone mountain like schools of fish.

Zhang Ruochen saw the silhouette of Lord Ming on the cliff of the sword-shaped Stone Mountain.

After traveling for another day, Zhang Ruochen and the others finally approached Mount Sword after passing through many obstacles.

At the foot of Mount Sword was a vast undersea plain with numerous tombstones. In front of each tombstone was a scabbard standing upright. There were words on the tombstones, but they had long been washed away by the seawater.

It was a very desolate scene!

It seemed to tell the future generations that the brilliant civilization of the Swordsmanship had been destroyed here.

Lord Ming walked out of the forest of tombs and greeted Zhang Ruochen. “These are the tombstones that the Ancestral Swordmaster built for them. There are no bones in the tomb, only a sword inside. When the owner of the sword died, there was nothing left.”

“The Ancestral Swordmaster came before to the Fane of Origin? Why are their swords buried in the Fane of Origin? Why did the Ancestral Swordmaster build the tombstones for them?” Zhang Ruochen had many questions in his heart.

Lord Ming pointed at Mount Sword in the distance, “If you can pass their test and reach the foot of Mount Sword, you will understand everything and get more benefits than you can imagine. The chances here are immeasurable for sword cultivators. Even if you get just a little, the trip to the Fane of Origin will be counted as the Great Perfection!”

If even Lord Ming could give such an evaluation, the opportunities available here must be extraordinary.

Zhang Ruochen said, “With uncle’s cultivation, how could he not take the opportunities here?”

“It’s not that I can’t take them, but the truth is I can’t take them all. The opportunities here are too weighty, and I can only bear some of them. Well, go and try it. If you get something, you can go far in Swordsmanship.”

After saying this, Lord Ming’s body dispersed and disappeared without a trace.

It turned out to be just a divine projection. His actual body had already left a long time ago.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Le and said, “Do you want to try it together?”

“Yes!”

Le jumped down from the back of the Blood Wolf and whispered to it. Then he walked into the forest of tombs with Zhang Ruochen.

As they had just stepped into the forest of tombs...

Swoosh

A bright and sharp beam of light flew out from the tomb. It was a sword that flew into the air and paused for a moment before slashing down at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s Swordwill reacted, and the Ancient Abyssal Blade flew out, cutting upwards diagonally.

With a bang, the two swords collided.

The purplish green sword seemed to be grasped in an invisible hand. It immediately changed its move, and the blade tip pierced down toward Zhang Ruochen’s head.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the tombstone that the sword flew out of and grabbed the sheath in front of the tombstone.

The purplish green sword returned to its scabbard when it stabbed straight down.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the hilt and suppressed it. After a while, the purplish green sword stopped struggling and returned to its calm state.

“Let’s go back!”

Zhang Ruochen buried it back into the tombstone.

On the other side, Le was also attacked by a sword that had flown out of the tombstone. After ten consecutive strikes, the sword let out a high-pitched piercing sound. Then it turned into a ray of rainbow and flew toward Mount Sword in the distance.

The two continued to move forward.

Swish

More and more swords flew out of the graves and attacked them.

They either attacked head-on, stabbed from behind, or slashed their souls across space.

Similarly, each sword only attacked for ten moves. After ten moves, they flew toward Mount Sword automatically and converged with the rain of swords that flew around Mount Sword.

The power of each sword attacking Zhang Ruochen was roughly similar to his. However, each sword’s moves were not only different, but some were exquisite beyond comparison while others were weak.

Zhang Ruochen and Le were both injured after only one-tenth of the way through the forest of tombs.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to activate the Armor of the Fire God to protect his body, but it seemed that no weapons other than swords were allowed in the forest of tombs. The Armor of the Fire God did not respond to Saint Qi or the stimulation of the Canon.

Zhang Ruochen's physical recovery was remarkable. Although there were traces of blood on his body, his wounds had already healed.

Le practiced the Nine Transformations Life and Death Mantra. The power of life and death circulated in his body continuously. These injuries were nothing to him.

After they had walked one-tenth of the way...

Zhang Ruochen was surprised to find a strange power gushing out from the tomb where the sword had flown out to attack him. All of it gathered in his body.

It was the Canon!

The Canon of Swordsmanship!

Although it was only one in 10,000, it could make a sword cultivator's Swordsmanship undergo the most exquisite transformation.

It should be known that for the gods who cultivated Swordsmanship, no matter how high their attainments in Swordsmanship were, they were not qualified to be called Sword Gods if they did not master the Canon of Swordsmanship.

Only those who grasped the Canon of Swordsmanship could glimpse the ultimate Swordsmanship.

For those lazy and greedy who practiced Swordsmanship, if someone sold them one-thousandth of the Canon of Swordsmanship, they would definitely be willing to give everything they had to buy it.

Le also got one-thousandth of the Canon of Swordsmanship.

Zhang Ruochen finally understood what Lord Ming had said. He said to himself, "So that's how it is. No matter how many treasures there are in the Fane of Origin, how can they compare to a one-thousandth of the Canon of Swordsmanship?"

The two looked at each other. Their eyes showed determination and resolve, and they continued to move forward.

The road ahead became more difficult.

The swords that attacked them no longer only contained sword moves but also powerful Swordwill. Occasionally, two swords would attack one person at the same time.

After the second one-tenth of the road, Zhang Ruochen and Le obtained another one-thousandth of the Canon of Swordsmanship.

There were more blood stains on their bodies, but after a short rest, their injuries would be healed.

They continued to move forward.

At a third of the way, the swords that attack them not only possess exquisite sword moves and the sharp Swordwill but there are also sword souls controlling the swords. Of course, these sword souls stayed at the level of the Earth Sword Soul, which was about as strong as Zhang Ruochen's sword soul.

The rest of the way became more and more difficult. Fortunately, after walking a tenth of the way, they had a short rest to heal their injuries.

Moreover, each sword could only attack in ten moves.

Otherwise, with Le and Zhang Ruochen's willpower, they would not have been able to withstand it.

On this day, Zhang Ruochen and Le walked through the seventh tenth of the way with blood all over their bodies. They sat down exhausted and recuperated.

Comparatively, Zhang Ruochen's wounds were much fewer.

There was not a single piece of intact flesh and blood on Le's body. He was a human-shaped creature sliced into a bloody mess. Some of the sword wounds had pierced through his body. His internal organs had long been shattered, and his Saint Soul had even been damaged.

In the end, it was mainly because he cultivated Swordsmanship to focus on attacking and killing. He did not know how to defend at all.

Attacking was defense.

This was somewhat similar to Lan Ying but even more extreme than Lan Ying.

Such a way of the sword was indeed compelling. It could often kill enemies that were stronger than him.

However, it could only be considered to be unconventional Swordsmanship. It was not orthodox Swordsmanship.

Zhang Ruochen's Swordsmanship was all-encompassing. It could be integrated with all kinds of Tao techniques in the world. With one thought, the sword technique would have been completed. It could be used to attack or defend. His mastery was flawless.

Along the way, Zhang Ruochen discovered the results of practicing in seclusion under the Sundial for many years. He was comprehending and mastering all kinds of moves with ease. His understanding of Swordsmanship had reached a higher level.

With the Canon of Swordsmanship, Zhang Ruochen was confident that he could cultivate the Heaven Sword Soul at the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

"You have already obtained 7% of the Canon of Swordsmanship, and your future achievements will certainly be out of the ordinary. Please don't go any further!" Zhang Ruochen said worriedly.

Le was seriously injured. Zhang Ruochen worried he would die if he continued to hold on.

The road ahead would be more dangerous. Zhang Ruochen was not confident that he could save himself, let alone Le if they faced danger.

Le's injuries were mostly healed. He looked at Mount Sword from a distance and said, "I have walked more dangerous roads before. I must continue on this road for sure, and how far I can go depends on luck! Now, we have to make an oath."

"What oath?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Le said, "For the road later on, no matter which one of us is in a life-or-death situation, the other can't be distracted from saving him. If we break the oath, all the swords here will kill us and cut us into 100,000 pieces.”

Le took the lead in making the oath. Then, from the tombs in all directions, there were multiple sounds of swords ringing as if in response to his oath.

Le said, “It’s your turn!”

Of course, Zhang Ruochen understood why Le proposed to take the oath.

He knew that he was doing what he wanted and that doing so might harm Zhang Ruochen. Because once he was in danger, Zhang Ruochen would definitely save him.

At that time, both of them would definitely die.

Zhang Ruochen pointed to the sky with one hand and took the oath.

Swish

The road ahead was challenging. With each step forward, new wounds would appear on their bodies.

It was no longer just one or two swords attacking them but several or even dozens of swords attacking simultaneously. No matter how powerful Zhang Ruochen’s defense was, he was still pierced through, which caused fresh blood to be splattered everywhere.

The Swordwill, sword soul, and some force of Swordsmanship that Zhang Ruochen had never seen before also attacked his body.

Zhang Ruochen had refined countless pills to strengthen the Saint Soul and the Stellar Soul of God. Even if another sword soul hit him, he could still withstand it. However, Le did not have such a powerful sword soul.

After walking through the ninth-tenth and entering the last section, Le finally encountered an unprecedented life-and-death danger. Dozens of swords pierced through his body at the same time.

In addition, dozens of sword souls slashed at his Saint Soul.

Once they hit, it was obvious that his soul would be scattered.

Le looked at the dozens of sword souls slashing at him. His eyes were calm and fearless. This was his choice. Naturally, he had to admit that this was the end. He gathered his remaining strength and raised his sword with difficulty.

“Le!”

Zhang Ruochen’s figure flickered and appeared in front of him. He stabbed out with his sword and shouted. “Burial flower!”

This powerful sword attack did not destroy the sword souls entirely.

There were still several sword souls that slashed at them. The pain was as if their souls had been torn apart. It was excruciating. Both of them could not help but let out long howls.

Le half-knelt on the ground. His eyes were cold as he glared at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen wiped the blood on his face and said, “How can a mere oath restrain me? Even if the 10,000 clones of swords attack me, what’s the big deal about that?”

Before he finished his words, a dense and ear-piercing sound of swords came from the entire graveyard.

Swoosh

Swoosh

...

Countless swords flew out of the tomb and hung in the air. Each of the Swordwills all locked on Zhang Ruochen.

If one swore on 10,000 swords, he would be punished by 10,000 swords.

Zhang Ruochen's hair was disheveled. He grabbed Ancient Abyssal Blade and stood up unsteadily. He looked down at the tombstones and swords in the air and said, "Come on, kill me. I don't fear you."

Swish Swish

The swords turned into a rain of light and flew toward Zhang Ruochen.

From afar, it seemed as if a massive vortex of sword rain had appeared.

At the center of the vortex was Zhang Ruochen.

"Charge!"

Zhang Ruochen kept swinging Ancient Abyssal Blade and hacking away the swords.

However, there were too many swords, and he could not block them.

In an instant, his chest and abdomen exploded. His skin, flesh, bones, and internal organs turned into blood mist. No matter how strong his physical recovery ability was, it could not be reversed.

No matter how strong his physical defense was, he could not withstand it.

His legs, arms, and head exploded...

Zhang Ruochen's physical body was completely destroyed and turned into a bloody mist. Compared to the last time he was attacked by the million weapons of Infernal Court's army in Kunlun, he died even more thoroughly.

Last time, there was at least one skeleton left.

This time, there were no bones left.

After killing Zhang Ruochen, all the swords flew back to the tomb.

Le half-knelt on the ground, holding the iron sword with his hand, so he didn't fall. Blood-red tears flowed from his initially cold and resolute eyes. The pain in his heart was far worse than when his Saint Soul was killed.

In the distance, High-Saint Kai Luo, who saw this laughed excitedly.

How could there be such a strange thing in the world?

Countless cultivators from Celestial Court and Infernal Court, who couldn't kill Zhang Ruochen with all their efforts, had actually died in this tomb forest under his oath.

Good, very good.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen die with his eyes, he had completed his mission.

Suddenly, Le keenly sensed a faint life force in the condensed blood mist not far away.

Whoosh!

The blood mist shook and turned into a giant spinning blood cocoon.

The life force became more and more vigorous.

The blood cocoon quickly shrank and condensed into a heroic figure. Zhang Ruochen's flesh and blood body were intact. His eyes contained the starry universe. His eyebrows were like the tip of a divine sword. His arms were as smooth as jade, but there were muscle lines.

Clang!

The sound of a sword rang out.

Ancient Abyssal Blade flew into his hand.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were a little confused. He looked at the sword in his hand, examined it, and finally understood.

The myriad swords didn't seem to have any intention of killing him. Sword Qi seemed to be everywhere, but it only cut off his body. It didn't hurt his Sea of Qi, saint soul, or spiritual power.

Otherwise, even if he'd refined Pale Blood Soil, he wouldn't be able to recover.

Besides that, the myriad swords seemed to be helping him practice after he'd been cut. It had cut off some harmful substances in his body and left some mysteries Precepts of Swordsmanship that he'd never come into contact with before.

For example, the myriad swords cut off most of Yanshen's substances that belonged to Yanshen's Leg that Moon Goddess had helped him fuse with. Only 100 million Divine Mark of Flame and some divine substances remained.

Zhang Ruochen's Demigod physique had been mighty before, but now he was like a fat man with a heavy body. He couldn't use his body to fight against Paramount Realm's Supreme Saints Paramount physique, let alone Demigods.

However, the power of the myriad swords helped him cut off the bad things in his Demigod physique, making it stronger and more refined.

In addition, the impurities in his Saint Soul and spiritual power were also removed.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen felt like he had walked out of a swamp. He felt unspeakably relaxed, refreshed, and like he could fly away.

"Thank you for your help, seniors."

Zhang Ruochen bowed in all directions.

He didn't know why the myriad swords — buried in the tomb — helped him. However, it benefited him, who wanted to condense Heaven Sword Soul and practice Grade Three Swordsmanship Saintwill.

It was like the saints of Precepts of Swordsmanship in ancient times helped him to build his foundation.

Standing at the edge of the tomb forest of Precepts of Swordsmanship, High-Saint Kai Luo's smile disappeared completely. He was dumbfounded and his state of mind almost collapsed. How could this be?

Zhang Ruochen had been shattered into a bloody mist, but he could still come back to life.

Zhang Ruochen and Le did not say much. They just looked at each other and smiled.

Then, Le picked up the iron sword and started on the way back.

Zhang Ruochen raised his sword and continued to move toward sword mountain.

"Sword out."

Zhang Ruochen raised his hand and drew out more than 200 Precepts of Swordsmanship in his body.

The Precepts of Swordsmanship had significantly changed. Before, they were just golden needles. But now, the golden needles had been cast out and turned into small swords.

Each Precept of Swordsmanship was a sword.

This was the strongest state of Precepts of Swordsmanship!

With such Precepts of Swordsmanship, Zhang Ruochen was like a sword cultivator who had cultivated Heaven Sword Soul. He could directly cut off the Precepts of his opponent.

Destroy his cultivation and cut off his Path.

If he had not experienced the dismembering of myriad swords, it would have been difficult for him to finish this path with his cultivation of Swordsmanship.

But now, Zhang Ruochen's Swordsmanship had significantly increased. He charged all the way, and in less than half a day, he passed through the tomb forest of Swordsmanship and arrived at the foot of sword mountain.

Looking back, tombstones were standing there, as if there were thousands of soldiers and horses that could not see the end. It was also like the ancient white-clothed sword saints with swords standing in front of them.

That sword mountain was their commander.

Each tombstone and each sword should have a story!

It could be melodious, touching, or sorrowful. It could be a world of swords or grudges of the world...

It could be that the sword's owner was still alive and telling them about their past. Or it could be that the previous myriad swords had given him their spirit of Swordsmanship.

Zhang Ruochen could not help but feel highly sorrowful. It was as if he could feel it. Tears flowed from his eyes, and his heart was broken.

This inexplicable feeling lasted for a long time before Zhang Ruochen walked out. He said, "Seniors, don't be sad. Swordsmanship has never declined or died. The heart of Swordsmanship will always exist between heaven and earth."

Zhang Ruochen bowed to them again. Then he turned around and looked at the towering sword mountain.

He saw a few lines of ancient words on the pitch-black cliff wall.

They were words that Zhang Ruochen had never seen before.

The strokes of each word were like exquisite sword moves, explaining the truth of Swordsmanship.

Zhang Ruochen did not know why, but he actually understood the words on it:

"I am the Master of Swordsphere, the ancestor of Swordsmanship. During the peak of the universe, I had three thousand sword gods and hundreds of millions of sword cultivators with me. All things were annihilated where the sword tip pointed. We dominated the world, and the world bowed to us.

“However, when darkness fell, all swords were destroyed. Even 3,000 sword gods and a hundred million Sword Saints were no match. They were all destroyed, body and soul.

“I am the Ancestral Swordmaster, but I am also the end of the sword. The power of darkness is far more potent than the sword in my hand.

“Pathetic, the eternal night of Swordsmanship.

“Tears, the fall of Swordsmanship.”

Zhang Ruochen was extremely shocked. There had been such a powerful civilization of Swordsmanship in the world.

3,000 sword gods and hundreds of millions of sword saints ran rampant in the universe. Who could stop them?

How influential was the Ancestral Swordmaster, who commanded 3,000 sword gods?

What was the relationship between this “Master of Swordsphere, the ancestor of Swordsmanship” and the Ancestral Swordmaster in the ancient Kunlun?

Was Swordsphere the present Southern Sword Realm?

What did the “darkness” in the passage refer to? The ‘darkness’ that even the Ancestral Swordmaster could not defeat, resulted in all the 3,000 sword gods dying.

Zhang Ruochen was full of questions. He searched the cliff wall, trying to find more clues.

As he continued walking, he saw words on another cliff wall:

“I am the Ancestral Swordmaster. I have the eight absolutes in my body. sword valor, Sword Spirit, Sword Soul, Sword Heart, Sword Manual, Sword Bone, Sword Source, and Canon of Swordsmanship.

“Today, Swordsphere was shattered, and all the living beings died. All the swords were buried here. I wanted to fight with the darkness, but I knew that I would die trying.

“If I died, Swordsmanship would wither.

“I thought hard for three days. In the end, I left my sword spirit here and fled to the ends of the earth. Hoping to save my humiliating body and find a macroworld to pass down Swordsmanship.

“When the darkness descends again, Swordsmanship will be at the forefront. It will tear open the dark curtain for the living beings in the universe and seek the final chance of survival.”

Zhang Ruochen was almost suffocated by these words. His eyes were bloodshot.

There was no doubt that the Ancestral Swordmaster of Kunlun was not a local cultivator of Kunlun. He had fled after the destruction of Swordsphere.

the Ancestral Swordmaster was a significant figure. There were endless legends about him in Kunlun, and he had passed down Swordsmanship. Not only did he influence the generations of Kunlun, but he also greatly influenced the Swordsmanship of the myriad realms of Celestial Court and the ten clans of Infernal Court.

It was just Wordless Sword Manual that no cultivator had reached the end of it.

There was probably no sword cultivator in the world who did not respect the Ancestral Swordmaster.

However, how could a figure like the Ancestral Swordmaster have such a powerless, helpless, sad, and humiliating moment? He was so scared by the darkness that he abandoned his sword spirit and fled to Kunlun.

How powerful was the enemy he called “darkness”? Was there really no chance of winning?

Zhang Ruochen firmly believed that even if the Ancestral Swordmaster had only a slim chance of winning, he would never run away.

Swoosh!

Wordless Sword Manual suddenly struggled violently and flew out of Zhang Ruochen’s hand toward the top of sword mountain.

Zhang Ruochen immediately chased after it. Just as he was about to fly, he fell back to where he was.

He had no choice but to follow a stone path and climb to the top of the mountain with difficulty.

After climbing up the cliff for half a day, he saw a cavern.

Above the cavern, there were five ancient words engraved
“Here lies the sword valor.”

Next to the cavern was a new line of words that contained the aura of Lord Ming. “Today, I obtained the sword valor of Sword Ancestor. From now on, I have nothing to fear.

“I will hold the sword in my hand and carry the will of Sword Ancestor. I will be the one at the front when the darkness descends again.”

The sword valor had been taken away by Lord Ming!

Zhang Ruochen entered the cavern. Sure enough, it was empty inside.

So, he continued to climb up the stone path.

When he reached the top of sword mountain, a stone tablet and an ancient well appeared.

On the stone tablet, there was an inscription: “Here lies the sword spirit.”

the Ancestral Swordmaster had abandoned his sword spirit to escape.

If his sword spirit was with him, he could not escape.

In other words, the Ancestral Swordmaster who went to Kunlun wasn't the complete Sword Ancestor. The Swordsmanship he had passed down was not complete either.

Just like the Swordsmanship in Kunlun, they only knew how to cultivate the sword soul. Which cultivator knew that they still had to develop the sword soul?

The soul was the essence.

The spirit was the vitality.

The sword spirit was the vitality of Swordsmanship.

“The Ancestral Swordmaster’s sword soul is in this ancient well?”

The vast and ancient tomb forest in the dark undersea world.

The towering and huge sword mountain stood in the center of the tomb forest. Some of the swords were rusty and had lost their Spiritual Qi, but they still flew around it.

Perhaps swords too, had obsessions.

The swords wouldn't return to their sheaths if the obsessions didn't go away.

Le, Kai Luo, and Blood Wolf watched Zhang Ruochen kill his way through the tomb forest of Swordsmanship and climb to the top of Mount Sword. Finally, Zhang Ruochen jumped down from the ancient well at the top of the mountain.

At this moment, Le vaguely saw a woman in white standing under a towering tombstone in the distance.

The tombstone was very close to where Zhang Ruochen was dismembered by the myriad swords.

She was holding a blood-red sword in her hand. She wore a veil on her face, so her actual appearance could not be seen.

Le blinked his eyes and looked again. The white-clothed woman had disappeared as if he had just been hallucinating.

Oh, that's right. It must be an illusion.

How could a cultivator silently pass through the tomb forest of Swordsmanship and arrive at the one-tenth of the 10th road?

It couldn't be the ghost in the tomb, right?

After so many years, even the ghost had been annihilated.

Suddenly, Le's eyes focused again and saw the white-clothed, black-haired woman. She appeared at the foot of Mount Sword and touched the cliff wall with her fingers. She looked up and read something as she walked.

In just an instant, she disappeared again.

"Do you see a woman at the foot of Mount Sword?" Le asked.

Kai Luo was stunned. He looked at the sword mountain in the distance and shook his head.

Blood Wolf standing at the side also shook its huge head.

Le said, "From the moment we came to the bottom of the sea, I always felt that someone was following us. However, I didn't find anything when I used my spiritual power to investigate. Your spiritual power is extreme. Don't tell me you didn't notice anything at all?"

Kai Luo sneered. "As an assassin, you are different from other cultivators. That's because you always wonder if other assassins who want to kill you are hiding in the dark."

"Are you saying that I am too vigilant and paranoid?" Le asked.

Kai Luo said, "As a Hand of the World with spiritual power at level 69, my perception of the surrounding world is even better than some gods. How could you notice it with your cultivation if I didn't?"

"I hope I'm really hallucinating."

Le thought of something. Dragon Lord had said that a new god of Kunlun would secretly help Zhang Ruochen, but this new God had never appeared.

Perhaps his perception was not wrong, and what he saw was not an illusion.

...

Humans had three souls and seven spirits.

The soul was divided into Celestial Soul, Earth Soul, and Human Soul.

Celestial Soul and Earth Soul were not in the human body.

Earth Soul was the shadow under the feet.

Celestial Soul was a part of Deva Path, and ordinary cultivators could not sense it.

A cultivator's saint soul was formed by the battle soul, which was developed by Human Soul.

As for seven spirits, few cultivators practiced it. At least Zhang Ruochen had never come into contact with the cultivation path of seven spirits nor the practice of seven spirits.

It was the first time he had heard of the sword spirit.

Jumping into the ancient well, Zhang Ruochen felt like he had suddenly jumped into a pitch-black divine sea. The ice-cold, bone-chilling sea water surged from all directions, freezing his body to the point that it was almost frozen.

Images appeared before his eyes one after another. There was the glorious and magnificent scenery of the Swordsmanship civilization, the graceful scene of thousands of swords flying out of the spiritual mountain. The beauty of a man and a woman practicing sword moves under the sunset by the sea.

Suddenly, fireballs flew across the sky.

Each fireball was a destructive star that fell into the world of Swordsmanship civilization. The earth shook, volcanoes erupted, and tsunamis rose into the sky.

Even the sun hanging high in the sky was shattered.

Black clouds rolled and covered the sky.

Among the mountains, in the Sword Palace, in the deep mountains and valleys, divine swords flew out and hit the sky. Each had a majestic and holy figure standing on the sacred swords and charging toward the rolling black clouds.

In the black clouds, an incomparably colossal hand stretched out.

Instantly, those divine figures exploded and shattered in the air like they were made of sand. Only the swords fell back to the ground. The bodies of the swords were stained with blood.

...

The scene in front of them was filled with a destructive aura. All the beautiful things in the world had been destroyed, causing people to feel sad and sorrowful.

The giant palm in the sky gave people a sense of suffocation. It made people feel hopeless and powerless as if it were God's hand. It felt like the people it wanted to destroy would definitely die.

Zhang Ruochen knew that most of the scenes in front of him were things that had happened before.

A blurry shadow appeared in the water. It was an old man with a white beard and white hair. His tone was distant and sad, "Swordshpere is destroyed! There is an invisible hand in the universe making its own rules. Once a powerful civilization appears, it will be destroyed by it."

"Is it because that Swordsphere was a threat to it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

The figure did not answer his question, "You came with Wordless Sword Manual. This means that we are fated to meet. You have a sword cultivator, which means that you are the guardian of the new civilization generation in Swordsphere.

"You have a fearless spirit and a sense of loyalty. You are not afraid of death but want to save your friend. You have been recognized by the heroic spirits of the entire Swordsphere. Therefore, you are qualified to inherit my sword soul.

"The sword spirit is the vitality of the sword.

"The sword has two sides. One side is to kill all the evil in the world, and the other is to save and protect the goodness in the world. The sword's tip represents an indomitable spirit, unceasing self-improvement while it pierces through the clouds. Even if there are layers of pressure on top of the head, it will never yield. The sword should be equal, free, and the most beautiful...”

Swoosh—

The light and shadow shattered and turned into a rain of light.

The rain of light revolved around Zhang Ruochen and rushed into his body.

Zhang Ruochen felt that his body was expanding infinitely. The sword spirit that surged into his body was somewhat similar to the power left in his body by the myriad swords, but it was purer and more powerful.

It was so powerful that Zhang Ruochen could not bear it.

His Sea of Qi, internal organs, meridians, bones, blood, and every part of his body absorbed the power, including his Saint Soul. His saint soul was growing rapidly.

Soul! Spirit!

The soul was inseparable from the spirit. The spirit was inseparable from the soul.

“ARGH!”

Zhang Ruochen let out a long cry and flew toward the well.

At the top of Mount Sword, an extremely bright light column rushed out of the ancient well.

Zhang Ruochen’s body was suspended in the light column. The swords initially flying around Mount Sword rushed towards the light column and flew around him. At this moment, he was like the Master of the Swordsphere, the young Sword God.

“What a powerful power of Swordsmanship. What kind of encounter did Zhang Ruochen get?” Kai Luo’s eyes were full of jealousy. He wanted to kill Le and Blood Wolf and rush to Mount Sword to seize the opportunity.

Le felt the killing intent from him and stared at him.

Howl!

Blood Wolf let out a long howl. Kai Luo hugs his head with his hands. His saint soul was gnawed by a pack of wolves. He rolled on the ground in pain and begged. Finally, he knelt in front of Blood Wolf.

“Precepts of Swordsmanship between heaven and earth are flowing. Did he succeed?”

Le looked at the top of Mount Sword again.

Precepts of Swordsmanship between heaven and earth gathered above Zhang Ruochen’s head and condensed into a faint shadow of a soul.

“He successfully condensed Heaven Sword Soul in Hundred-Shackle Realm.” A smile appeared on Le’s lips.

As Heaven Sword Soul was formed, the swords initially buried in the tomb broke out of the ground and rushed into the sky. They turned into thousands of sword rivers and flew around Zhang Ruochen.

The power of the Ancestral Swordmaster’s sword soul was too strong. Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation could not bear it.

His skin began to explode and turn into wisps of blood mist.

Just when Zhang Ruochen thought that his body was about to be crushed by the power of the sword spirit, Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension between his eyebrows began to mobilize quickly and absorbed the boundless energy of the sword spirit.

Zhang Ruochen felt light all over and landed on the top of Mount Sword.

His body was emitting a bright white light. Each light strand was a strand of Sword Qi with an unbreakable power.

“What a powerful sword soul! Only a few of it was absorbed by my seven spirits, but most of it was stored in my Sea of Qi, organs, meridians, bones, and blood. And some of them were absorbed by Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension.”

Zhang Ruochen touched the space between his eyebrows. He ignored the part of the sword spirit that had been absorbed into Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension for the time being. It was more important to control the part of the sword spirit in his body.

Otherwise, he would be no different from a hedgehog if he walked out in his current state.

Whether an enemy or a friend, they would be injured if exposed to the light from his body. No one could get close to him.

“But how can I control the sword spirit?”

Just as Zhang Ruochen was puzzled, Wordless Sword Manual in the form of a stone sword flew out of the ancient well and stuck in front of him. Golden characters appeared on the stone sword.

The golden characters turned into little golden people and assumed different postures.

“I see.”

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged and followed the characters and postures in Wordless Sword Manual. He formed sword gestures with his hands.

As for why Wordless Sword Manual showed how to cultivate and control the sword soul, it might have something to do with flying into the ancient well.

Time flew by.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged on the top of Mount Sword for half a month. The light on his body gradually dimmed and returned to his body. He refined it into the seven spirits.

The seven spirits all materialized and turned into seven extremely bright swords floating above the sky-reaching river in the Sea of Qi.

“It’s done!”

Zhang Ruochen stood up. His figure was clear as jade, and his long hair swayed in the water. Suddenly, he thought of something and summoned Ancient Abyssal Blade, swimming with the myriad swords, back into his hand.

Swoosh! Swoosh!

He carved a few lines on the stone tablet beside the ancient well:

“Now that I have the sword spirit of Ancestral Swordmaster, I will definitely reach the top of Swordsmanship in the future. I will bring Swordsmanship to greater heights, and the spirit of Swordsmanship will be eternal.

“If darkness falls again, I will definitely be the one at the forefront.”

Zhang Ruochen put away his sword and stood proudly.

Countless swords flying in the water seemed to feel his will. They flew over and stabbed into Mount Sword. Some of the swords shone with divine light. After countless years, the divinity on the swords hadn't been erased.

Zhang Ruochen looked down at the tombstones. He couldn't help but think that the incomplete Swordsmanship could be listed as one of the 72 Paths of Supreme Saint. If the complete Swordsmanship was born, would it be qualified to be on par with the nine Path of the Ancients?

At least the battle techniques could be on par.

Zhang Ruochen stood at the top of Mount Sword, high-spirited and full of energy. He raised his voice and said, “A swordsman should show his sharpness, break the clouds, and split the Moon. One shall not sleep here and turn into rust. Seniors, are you willing to leave with me? I will pick the fated ones among the new civilization in Swordsphere to inherit your Swordsmanship.”

Clang!

Thousands of swords chimed in unison, their voices lasting for a long time.

“Okay!”

Zhang Ruochen pressed his hands on his temples and activated Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension between his eyebrows. He collected all the thousands of swords on Mount Sword and placed them in Qiankun Realm.

Then, a sword domain enveloped by a strong sword comprehension appeared in Qiankun Realm.

Most of these swords had lost their spirituality and were like scrap metal. However, there were still some famous swords that would last forever. They were genuinely divine weapons.

Zhang Ruochen’s words weren’t nonsense. He truly wanted to revive Swordsphere.

On Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen had promised Southern Sword Realm’s Supreme Lord to protect Southern Sword Realm for ten thousand years and pass down his teachings to Southern Sword Realm. At the time, he had only treated this as a deal.

Later, he competed with Dishastan, Hall of Permanence, and Roopkund Sea. That was only because he had wanted to fulfill his promise.

However, when he came to the tomb forest of the Swordsmanship, he had obtained 0.01% of Canon of Swordsmanship, received the purification of myriad swords, and the sword soul of Ancestral Swordmaster. He had also seen the glory and destruction of Swordsphere. He was deeply moved. It was as if he had become a part of Swordsphere.

Therefore, reviving Swordsphere and promoting Swordsmanship was neither a deal nor a promise. It was something he wanted to do from the bottom of his heart.

Zhang Ruochen walked in the desolate tomb forest. His footprints were deep. He looked at the mottled tombstones and the scabbard in front of the gravestones.

There was a tomb, but no one was there.

There was a scabbard, but the sword did not return.

He could not help but feel emotional. He chanted,

“The 3,000 divine swords left the scabbard, but no one returned to the hundred-mile sky tomb.

“The people who buried the swords lost their courage, but we will win in the future generations.”

...

Zhang Ruochen and Le set out on their way back.

Zhang Ruochen had obtained the Canon of the Swordsmanship, the sword spirit, and condensed Heaven Sword Soul in Hundred-Shackle Realm. The trip to Fane of Origin had been completed.

Two more things needed to be done.

First, he had to see if Bai Qing'er had lured cultivators from the major forces to Fane of Origin.

For her, this was the final test to steel herself before she became a god. Thus, she would definitely come. Moreover, the bigger the matter, the better it is. The more chaotic it was, the more she could retreat successfully.

This was precisely what Zhang Ruochen wanted too.

Second, Zhang Ruochen had to think of a way to protect Southern Sword Realm as much as possible.

This was a change of attitude after going to the tomb forest of Swordsmanship.

Before this, he just wanted to save more creatures of the Southern Sword Realm. He did not have such a strong sense of responsibility.

The more he got, the heavier the responsibility.

There were only two ways to save Southern Sword Realm.

Either he kept Southern Sword Realm away or lure the gods elsewhere.

Southern Sword Realm was vast. With Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, he could barely bear the growing Qiankun Realm. Obviously, he could not take it into his Sea of Qi.

Ordinary gods wouldn't be able to carry a macroworld like Southern Sword Realm. Only Gods that had to survive the Yuanhui tribulation could.

However, since Fane of Origin was also in Southern Sword Realm, it was likely that only a deity would be able to keep Southern Sword Realm in his own Divine Plane.

If Zhang Ruochen wanted to protect Southern Sword Realm, he could only think of ways to lure the gods elsewhere.

However, he was only a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. Let alone lure the gods away. One strike from the gods, and he'll be dead.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was thinking hard, Intergold Tiger's voice rang out. "My Intergold Divine Plane could hold it for a short time if Fane of Origin is taken away, and only Southern Sword Realm is left."

“You can release divine power and take over Southern Sword Realm?” Zhang Ruochen asked in surprise.

Intergold Tiger said, “Of course, I can’t release too much divine power. I can only release the Divine Plane. Moreover, you will have to bear the Divine Plane. Only then can we hide from the heavenly’s perception. Otherwise, when the heavenly punishment comes, we will all die.”

“Okay, that’s decided for now.”

With Intergold Tiger’s help, Zhang Ruochen felt the burden on his shoulders lighten. He also felt more confident.

...

Fane of Origin had long been reduced to ruins. There were broken walls everywhere.

There were broken walls that were hundreds of feet high. Colossal Kylin stone carvings were standing in the rubble. There were sword tablets that fell under the ravine. They were so broken yet so magnificent.

There were also broken arrays and ancient Divine Marks of slaughter scattered everywhere.

Even if a Supreme Saint barges in, one could trigger the formation and invite death.

However, Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger could not care less. Their robes were tattered, and their mouths were full of blood as they fled through the ruins.

Every time they triggered the formation, Sword Qi would fly out and strike them, causing the two monks to scream in pain.

Yet, they did not dare to stop. Behind them, the sound of water breaking could be heard. There were dozens of Supreme Saints chasing after them.

“Master, you should go first. We will stop them.”

Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, and Zhen Wang’s bodies released powerful Death Qi and Precept Domain. They turned into three bright light beams and charged toward the pursuers behind them.

The three of them were all in Banshi Isshou stage.

With the power of the three of them, they were able to defeat dozens of Supreme Saints without using any weapons. If they weren't merciful and didn't have any killing intent, a Supreme Saint might have already died.

A loud shout came from afar, "You are the White Reapers from Fane of Death, not a Buddhist cultivator. Get it straight."

The voice contained a mighty spiritual power and death telekinesis.

Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, Zhen Wang's spiritual power, and saint soul were stunned and stood rooted to the ground.

Nan Sheng and the four Supreme Saints of Fane of Death flew over quickly. Their bodies cut through the thick water, leaving behind five streaks of white water ripples.

When they saw Nan Sheng, the dozens of Supreme Saints around them looked at each other in dismay. They revealed fear and frightened expressions as they retreated quickly.

They all knew that Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger had a lot of origin sacred medicine on them, so they were unwilling to give up. They continued to wander far away, waiting for an opportunity to fish in troubled waters.

Nan Sheng stood on the shoulder of a broken stone sculpture more than 30 meters tall. He glanced at Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger, who was running away. He laughed mockingly. "Two mere Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints want to escape after seeing me."

"Nan Sheng, don't kill them. Since they call Zhang Ruochen senior uncle, they might be useful to capture him," said a Fane of Death Supreme Saint with a crocodile head.

Nan Sheng nodded. He released his spiritual power and formed two gray chains.

The gray chains were formed by heavenly and earthly precepts. Like two spiritual snakes, they wrapped around Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger.

"Don't hurt my two masters."

Zhen Sha neutralized Nan Sheng's spiritual power. Buddhist light appeared in his eyes. He pressed his palms together, and a giant sword a hundred feet long appeared above his head.

He slashed down with his hands, and the huge sword followed suit.

Boom!

The two spiritual power chains broke.

"Well done, Zhen Sha." Sikong the Elder turned around and could not help but praise.

Nan Sheng was at a loss at first. Then, he turned furious. He could faintly hear the laughter of the Supreme Saints from afar.

It was unknown whether they were mocking him or Fane of Death.

Fane of Death's White Reaper had turned into a Buddhist cultivator. In turn, they became the enemy of Fane of Death. Was there anything funnier than this?

Zhen Tan and Zhen Wang also neutralized Nan Sheng's mental suppression. They each formed a Buddha seal. A sword of slaughter condensed above their heads and attacked Nan Sheng.

"You two go and capture those two monks. I'll suppress these three detestable things."

Nan Sheng's expression was dark. He took out a green rune fan and fanned it forward. Dense runes flew out and turned into hundreds and thousands of lightning bolts. They struck Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, and Zhen Wang and sent them flying.

The four Supreme Saints of Fane of Death went around and chased after Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger.

"Nan Sheng is too terrifying. He is also at Banshi Isshou Realm but can fight against three of them."

"He is fighting against three of them? With a wave of his hand, he can defeat three of them. His battle prowess is comparable to that of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint."

“The disciples of the Seven Elders are legendary figures of Deathkin. Do you think they are ordinary people? Let’s go. With Nan Sheng here, we can forget about taking advantage of them.”

...

The weakest of the four Supreme Saints of Fane of Death was in Hundred-Shackle Realm.

However, this was Fane of Origin. They were worried that they would trigger the array formation and the Divine Marks of slaughter. Hence, they chased them for a long time but failed to capture Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger.

They had launched long-range attacks and spiritual attacks before and managed to hit the two monks.

Strangely, Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger seemed to have an indestructible body. They would spit out two mouthfuls of blood every hit and immediately get up to continue fleeing.

“The Golden Body of the Buddhist Bodhisattva is actually so powerful?” The Deathkin Supreme Saint with the head of a crocodile asked in astonishment.

His attack from across space could have killed a peak stage Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint. However, after the fat monk was hit, he only rolled around on the ground like a rubber ball, immediately got up, and continued to flee.

“Perhaps they are not only at Neverwilt Realm,” a Deathkin Supreme Saint guessed.

“Don’t worry about it. Let’s suppress them first. They entered Fane of Origin before us. They must have picked a lot of sacred medicines.”

The crocodile-headed Deathkin Supreme Saint was speedy. In an instant, he had caught up to Sikong the Elder. The hammer-shaped weapon in his hand glowed with the Light of Death. He suddenly raised it and smashed it at Sikong the Elder’s head.

The power of this hammer was not weaker than a full-powered strike from a Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. He did not believe that the fat monk could still withstand it.

“Senior Uncle, you are finally here. Save me.” Sikong the Elder looked ahead and was overjoyed.

The crocodile-headed Deathkin Supreme Saint smiled coldly. He was not moved at all.

This fat monk had already used this move twice. Does he actually want to use it a third time?

Just as the war hammer was about to land on Sikong the Elder’s head, the sound of a sword rang out.

Whoosh!

Ancient Abyssal Blade turned into a streak of black sword radiance and slashed at the crocodile-headed Deathkin Supreme Saint’s body. His hand’s war hammer and body were broken into two as he was thrown backward.

The blood of the Deathkin Supreme Saint dyed this area of water red.

POW!

POW!

...

After the Ancient Abyssal Sword cut off the crocodile-headed Deathkin Supreme Saint's body, it flew towards the three other Deathkin Supreme Saints.

The first Deathkin Supreme Saint was pierced through the center of his brows.

The second Deathkin Supreme Saint's head was separated from his body.

The third Deathkin Supreme Saint's chest was shattered.

The three Deathkin Supreme Saints were prepared and used their ultimate defensive powers.

However, it was useless.

The first Deathkin Supreme Saint used his Precept Domain, but it was broken by the Ancient Abyssal Sword. The second Deathkin Supreme Saint used his battle weapon to defend, but his battle weapon was broken by the Ancient Abyssal Sword.

With the sharpness of the Ancient Abyssal Sword, how could an ordinary Regal Artifact be able to defend against it?

The three corpses fell to the bottom of the sea, and the water became even redder.

The life force of the Supreme Saints was strong. Even if their bodies were shattered, they had a chance to regenerate. However, the four Supreme Saints, including the crocodile-headed Deathkin Supreme Saint, died instantly after being struck by the Ancient Abyssal Sword.

The reason why it was so terrifying was that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated the Heaven Sword Soul.

The sword didn't just slash at their bodies. It also slashed at their Saint Souls.

Since their souls were destroyed, they could not regenerate their bodies.

The Ancient Abyssal Sword flew around in the water and refined and absorbed all the Saint Weapons of the four Deathkin Supreme Saints before returning to Zhang Ruochen's hands. In addition, Zhang Ruochen also took away the Sainthood Source of the four Deathkin Supreme Saints.

The whole process ended in an instant.

In the distance, the Supreme Saints who were about to leave sensed the mighty power of the Swordsmanship. They all stopped and looked over.

"Zhang Ruochen has finally shown himself!"

"He killed a Supreme Saint with one strike, leaving no chance of survival. The Swordsmanship is comparable to the Deathkin's Deathly Swordsmanship and the Asura's Sword of Slaughter."

"Now, Zhang Ruochen and the Fane of Death have become enemies. He can't deny it even if he wants to."

"Nan Sheng is nearby. Zhang Ruochen will probably run away soon."

...

Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger were exhausted. They were covered in wounds, but their faces were full of anxiety, "Senior Uncle Master," they urged. "Let's run quickly. There's someone even more powerful behind us. Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, and Zhen Wang are blocking them, but they won't be able to hold them off for long."

"Zhen Sha, Zhen Tan, and Zhen Wang have joined the Buddhist sect and called me Senior Uncle Master. How can I abandon them?"

Zhang Ruochen's eyes glared at Nan Sheng.

Nan Sheng stood on the shoulder of the stone sculpture, more than 30 meters tall. In his hand, a green talisman flew out from the fan of green talismans. The talisman turned into a 30-meter-long palace, suppressing Zhen Sha, Zhen Wang, and Zhen Tan below.

Feeling Zhang Ruochen's gaze, the corners of Nan Sheng's mouth curled slightly. His body flew up and landed only 30 meters away from Zhang Ruochen.

Nan Sheng wasn't angry at Zhang Ruochen for killing the four Fane of Death Supreme Saints. Instead, he was happy. Waving his fan, he smiled. "I didn't expect you to show up so quickly. That's good."

Zhang Ruochen was dressed in white. He had a heroic aura. "I didn't expect you to arrive at the Southern Sword Realm quickly. You even broke into the Fane of Origin."

"Your methods are beyond my expectations. If we hadn't followed Ji Fanxin to the Southern Sword Realm, we would have thought you were in the Yakshas' Ancestral Domain." The two strands of long white hair on Nan Sheng's temples fluttered in the water.

Nan Sheng was surprised that Zhang Ruochen didn't run away when he saw him. Nan Sheng was careful. He used his spiritual power to secretly check his surroundings to ensure no other superior was hiding. Only then did he relax.

'It seemed that Zhang Ruochen didn't have any tricks up his sleeve. He was just being arrogant.

'Good. Today, Zhang Ruochen would know how painful the price of arrogance was.' Nan Sheng thought.

Nan Sheng smiled. “This isn’t the Royal City of Hundred Clans. You can’t fight me with your physical strength alone. Are you sure you don’t want to run?”

“If I want to leave, can you stay?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Nan Sheng narrowed his eyes. His body turned into a bolt of lightning. In an instant, he was in front of Zhang Ruochen. His right sleeve fluttered, forming a powerful print.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t use the Power of Dimension to dodge. The sword in his hand came first. He swung it.

BOOM!

Nan Sheng’s palm condensed the extreme Death Qi. It formed a circular print plate and collided with the Ancient Abyssal Sword.

The Sword Qi and Death Qi shot out in all directions, with the two at the center.

Nan Sheng’s cultivation was at the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm. He cultivated a technique comparable to the divine power treasured book on the Taiyi Divine Power Board. The Death Qi in his body was naturally of a higher level than Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Qi and Blood Qi of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. The power he unleashed was even more robust.

This was the difference between realms!

Zhang Ruochen retreated backward. With every step he took, a large area of debris would be crushed.

“Is this all the power of the so-called Demigod-level physique?” Nan Sheng laughed coldly.

Sikong the Elder hid in a corner. He laughed even more coldly. “My uncle-master’s cultivation is only at the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but you’re at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm. How can you say such things? Be careful, or you’ll lose to my uncle-master later. You’ll lose all face.”

Nan Sheng thought to himself. ‘The bald donkey was right. As a direct descendant of Tiannan, he was two realms higher than his opponent. If he could not win quickly, it would be a disgrace.'

He snorted, and 36 pictures of Saint Beasts appeared on his body.

Each picture of Saint Beasts was refined by a Supreme Saint-level Saint Beast.

The power burst out from his palm print technique increased significantly. With a world-shaking beast roar, the power wave that distorted space sent Zhang Ruochen flying.

Zhang Ruochen flew hundreds of feet and landed lightly on the ground.

This famous Nan Sheng was indeed worthy of his name. He didn't disgrace Tian Nan's reputation. Once he broke through to the Paramount Realm, he would definitely become one of the top existences in the secular world.

Nan Sheng was shocked. He wasn't as calm as Zhang Ruochen.

One had to know that Nan Sheng had the power of 36 Supreme Saint beasts. With his extreme physical quality, he wasn't afraid of Zhang Ruochen's Demigod-level physique regarding physical strength.

Since his physical body was not at a disadvantage and was two realms higher, how could Zhang Ruochen resolve his power so easily?' Nan Sheng thought.

"Again."

ROAR!

ROAR!

...

The sound of beasts came from inside Nan Sheng's body. Huge Beast Shadows appeared in his body. He changed his palm into a claw and clawed it across the air. The claw was as big as a cloud cover, and its power was like a thousand mountains.

Zhang Ruochen still didn't use the Power of Dimension to dodge. Instead, he activated 12 pairs of golden wings. The chaotic Saint Qi in his body turned into the Blood Qi. He activated the ancestral ley lines on the golden wings.

“Fight!”

Zhang Ruochen swung his sword.

Regal Inscriptions appeared on the Ancient Abyssal Sword. They exploded with black light.

Boom Boom

The sword and claw kept clashing. In an instant, Zhang Ruochen and Nan Sheng exchanged more than 100 blows.

This was the purest power attack. The divine light from Zhang Ruochen's Demigod-level physique became brighter and brighter. His use of the Demigod-level physique's power became more and more flexible. He could use some of his hidden power.

Nan Sheng became increasingly impatient, unable to take the attack for a long time. He grunted.

Golden Flare appeared on Nan Sheng's claws. The divine flames instantly boiled the seawater around him. At the same time, the 36 Supreme Saint Beasts Claws reached out and pressed down on Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen raised the Ancient Abyssal Sword above his head. The purple divine stone embedded in the sword was activated and released mighty divine power. At the same time, the purple divine stone absorbed the precepts of heaven and earth.

Swoosh

The sword hacked down and cut off the 36 Supreme Saint Beasts' claws.

The purple divine stone was condensed from a planet beside the black hole. After it was activated, its weight burst out, making the Ancient Abyssal Sword as heavy as a planet.

The sword tip collided with the golden claws of Nan Sheng.

BOOM!

The golden divine flames scattered.

Zhang Ruochen and Nan Sheng separated and opened up a long distance.

A blood line appeared on Nan Sheng's arms, and the blood of a Supreme Saint flowed out.

The Supreme Saints who were wandering in the distance were all shocked. They witnessed Zhang Ruochen had injured Nan Sheng first.

Zhang Ruochen had taken advantage of the weapons, but that was Nan Sheng, a direct descendant of Tian Nan. How could he be injured by a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint? Even if he was a Yuanhui-level genius, he shouldn't be so powerful.

The light of death flashed on Nan Sheng's arms. The wounds disappeared instantly. He looked at the Ancient Abyssal Sword, "The sword made of natural iron is extraordinary. The purple divine stone embedded in the sword seems like a treasure."

Zhang Ruochen said, "The so-called direct descendant of Tian Nan is just so-so."

"Don't be so smug. I was just playing with you!"

Nan Sheng was angry. He spread his arms, and countless precepts flew out from his glabella, filling the entire underwater space. There were seven trillion precepts. The Precept Domain appeared and wrapped Zhang Ruochen inside.

The precepts were like chains, locking Zhang Ruochen up and not giving him any space to move.

"Zhang Ruochen, I've said it before. This is not the Royal City of Hundred Clans. You can't show off just by having a strong body. In front of me, you're as weak as an ant. I don't even have to fight. I can suppress you with my Precept Domain," Nan Sheng said.

Zhang Ruochen's arm, which was holding the sword, was lowered by hundreds of billions of precepts. He wanted to lift the Ancient Abyssal Sword with all his strength, but he couldn't move his arm even if he used all his power.

"As expected, the gap between realms is too big. If I don't use the power of Canon, I won't be able to fight back against a superior of this level."

Zhang Ruochen sighed. Then, subtle spatial fluctuations appeared around him, and his body disappeared.

"The Great Dimensional Shift! How is this possible?"

Nan Sheng narrowed his eyes. He couldn't believe that Zhang Ruochen could still use the Great Dimensional Shift under the absolute suppression of the Precept Domain. He thought, 'Was I wrong about the ability of the Master of Space?'

No, Zhang Ruochen must have grasped some kind of spatial treasure. It might even be the Canon of Dimension.

It was better this way. After killing him, the rewards would be even greater.

Suddenly, Nan Sheng sensed something, and Zhang Ruochen appeared behind him.

He didn't even need to turn around. Nan Sheng used his Saint Soul to control the precepts in the Precept Domain. It turned into a massive wave of precepts and attacked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift again and appeared above his head. He said silently, "Moonlight Melody."

The dense light spots of Marks of Time appeared in Nan Sheng's Precept Domain. Where the light spots of Marks of Time were the thickest, they condensed into a bright moon that hung above Zhang Ruochen's head.

Nan Sheng wanted to activate the precepts, but he found that the flow of time slowed down. The precepts surged toward Zhang Ruochen at a very slow speed. He knew something was wrong.

Zhang Ruochen was not only a Master of Space but also a Master of Time.

“Unextinguishable Mo Yang.”

Nan Sheng let out a soft cry as he released his powerful spiritual power and condensed a pitch-black Mo Yang.

The Mo Yang and his head merged into one.

The Bright Moon carried by the Ancient Abyssal Blade collided with Mo Yang, forming two arcs of light, one white and one black. Following that, extremely violent energy surged out from the moon and sun.

The tip of the sword could not touch Nan Sheng’s scalp.

CRASH

The ruins under Nan Sheng’s feet shattered, and his body sank downwards.

The energy gushed out from the ground and sent the surrounding ruins flying, clearing the vast and flat piece of land. Not far away, an ancient and broken array was triggered by it, and dense and sharp Sword Qi flew out from the array.

Before the Sword Qi got close to Zhang Ruochen and Nan Sheng, it was shattered by the powerful force from their bodies.

Not long after, the light spots from the Mark of Time faded away.

Nan Sheng took this opportunity to mobilize the 300 billion Precepts in the Precept Domain. They turned into destructive power and surrounded Zhang Ruochen from all directions.

Zhang Ruochen had only practiced more than 10 billion Precepts. How could he withstand the attack of 300 billion Precepts?

Whoosh

He used the Great Dimensional Shift again and escaped.

Nan Sheng seized the moment of weakness when he used the Great Dimensional Shift. The fan in his hand flew out and spun quickly, cutting the afterimage of Zhang Ruochen as he left.

At 300 meters away, Zhang Ruochen appeared again.

A three-inch-long gap had appeared on his white robe.

It was dangerous for him a moment ago. The difference in cultivation was too big. Zhang Ruochen cannot be hit by Nan Sheng. If the attack hit him, he would be seriously injured.

This was someone who had practiced seven trillion Precepts. He couldn't be compared to Lord Ironclad, who had practiced more than one trillion Precepts and was at the peak of the Banshi Isshou Realm.

"His reaction speed is so fast. The Sword of Time and Canon of Dimension can't even do anything to him," Zhang Ruochen thought.

Nan Sheng had long stopped underestimating him, and he thought to himself, "Zhang Ruochen is so powerful. I had almost lost to him, and he's only in the cultivation of Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he's already more of a threat to me than some Paramount Realm Supreme Saints.

The figures in the distance didn't expect the battle between Nan Sheng and Zhang Ruochen to be so intense. It wasn't one-sided at all.

In particular, Zhang Ruochen could advance and retreat freely in Nan Sheng's Precept Domain. It overthrew their previous understanding. At the same time, they had a deeper understanding of the power of the Path of Dimension.

Nan Sheng mobilized three trillion Precepts to form a giant black bell that spun rapidly and enveloped his body.

Then, he mobilized the remaining four trillion Precepts in the Precept Domain to form 40 light sabers that attacked Zhang Ruochen from all different directions.

No matter how mysterious the Path of Dimension was, with the protection of the giant bell, one could still stand in an invincible position.

No matter how fast you ran, there would be a flaw in the instant you performed the Great Dimensional Shift. Any of the 40 light sabers that caught the flaw and slashed at you would be able to injure you severely.

Zhang Ruochen activated 670 million Intergold Precept Marks and merged them with the Ancient Abyssal Blade. It shone with a boundless golden light and hacked away the light sabers one by one.

Nan Sheng chuckled and rode the giant black bell. He rushed out from behind the light sabers and fiercely crashed towards Zhang Ruochen.

“Eleven Sword.”

Zhang Ruochen had long been ahead of him. He calmly swung his sword horizontally, leaving a straight sword light behind. This sword merged with the Path of Truth and exploded with 30 times the attack power to land on the black bell.

This was Sword Eleven of the Great Perfection!

Thud

The bell rang with a cracking sound.

The Precepts were shattered where the black bell was hit, leaving a long gash.

Nan Sheng’s expression changed slightly. Zhang Ruochen had inherited the precept marks of the Intergold Tiger. He was extremely powerful, with all his power gathered in one thread. His attack with a heaven-defying sword had actually broken through his array defense.

Nan Sheng immediately mobilized the Golden Flare and formed a golden shield print to hit the Ancient Abyssal Blade.

Boom

After breaking the giant black bell, the Ancient Abyssal Blade's power was exhausted. After being hit by the golden shield print again, a tremendous amount of power surged back, forcing Zhang Ruochen to be knocked flying again.

Zhang Ruochen retreated to the bottom of a broken wall. He stopped and stared fixedly at Nan Sheng.

He had to admit that Nan Sheng was also a flawlessly superior elite. They were all at the top level, whether it was his attack, defense, or reaction speed in actual combat.

In the same realm, Zhang Ruochen could certainly crush him with power.

However, in the current situation, finding Nan Sheng's weaknesses and a chance to win was difficult.

If the long battle went on, Zhang Ruochen would be the one to lose because Nan Sheng was also looking for his weakness.

His lower realm was Zhang Ruochen's biggest weakness.

The huge black bell reformed again, and Nan Sheng stood inside; then, he said, "I've long heard that your Path of Truth is very powerful. It lives up to its reputation. However, that sword blow just now should have exhausted the Blood Qi in your body, right?"

"Do you think that I can't break your defense?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Nan Sheng said, "I heard that you have a macroworld in your body and that you can mobilize the world's power and make your power close to that of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. Aren't you going to use that power?"

Many spectators were watching the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen.

It was no secret that Zhang Ruochen had a macroworld among the high-level cultivators in the Infernal Court.

However, Nan Sheng also knew that when Zhang Ruochen mobilized the power of the world close to the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, he almost couldn't bear the power of the world and nearly died. Therefore, he wasn't that afraid of Zhang Ruochen's trump card. He just wanted to know how much power Zhang Ruochen could be forced to use at his full strength.

He was always curious about those geniuses of a Yuanhui period.

Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger looked worried. This Nan Sheng was too powerful. Their master had already used all his trump cards but couldn't do anything to him. Instead, he was almost in danger.

Zhang Ruochen calculated in his heart that he had to reach the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm at least to defeat a powerful person like Nan Sheng.

After all, for Zhang Ruochen, his current cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm could only account for less than 10% of his combat power. The power of the Demigod-level physique and the Canon took up the other 90%.

Even if he broke through to the Thousand-Koan Realm, the improvement in his combat power would be minimal.

As long as he reached the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm and accumulated enough Precepts, the Saint Qi and the Blood Qi in his body would be sufficient to form his combat power.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It is indeed meaningless to fight like this. It seems that I can only defeat you with external force."

"Try to take another sword blow from me."

Swish Swish

Zhang Ruochen performed seven Great Dimensional Shifts in a row to avoid the precept light sabers. In an instant, he reached the top of Nan Sheng's head and raised his sword with both hands before hacking downwards.

The Violet Godstone on the sword shone as bright as the stars.

At the same time, the worldly power of the Qiankun Realm surged through Zhang Ruochen's arms like a roaring river. It caused the four heavenly tribulation imprints, "Wind," "Fire," “Water,” and “Thunder,” to appear on the Ancient Abyssal Blade.

Nan Sheng looked up at the incoming war sword and felt an invisible pressure.

Swish

The forty light sabers dispersed and turned into four trillion Precepts. They surged toward the giant black bell, making it bigger, thicker, and more solid.

BANG

The Ancient Abyssal Blade struck the giant black bell, and an earth-shattering peal of sound spread out. It sent both Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger standing nearby, flying like scarecrows.

Nan Sheng’s legs trembled slightly. He gritted his teeth and supported himself with all his strength.

“This is... power close to the Paramount Realm... and it had exceeded some of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saints might...”

CRASH

The Ancient Abyssal Blade broke through the black bell and struck Nan Sheng’s right shoulder.

Half of Nan Sheng’s body was slammed into the ground. Blood poured out of his shoulder, and he spat out a large mouthful of blood.

However, Zhang Ruochen was slightly stunned by this.

The sword could split apart the black bell, but it couldn’t split Nan Sheng’s body.

Zhang Ruochen saw that apart from the thirty-six beast engravings, there were also blood-red inscriptions on Nan Sheng’s skin.

He carved the runes on his body.

Nan Sheng, who only had a small part of his body sticking out of the ground, slowly raised his head and revealed a sinister smile. “You actually forced me to use the Possession Blood Talisman. I’m definitely going to take the macroworld inside of you!”

Whoosh

The blood-red runes on Nan Sheng’s body shone brightly. They condensed into a bloody runic hand and slapped towards Zhang Ruochen.

The bloody runic hand was three meters long. It exploded with powerful divine force.

Zhang Ruochen quickly sheathed his sword to block. He then slapped out with his palm, shattering the bloody runic hand into strands of Blood Qi.

Taking this opportunity, Nan Sheng flew straight up from the ground and retreated far away. He opened his mouth and inhaled. He swallowed all the Blood Qi from the broken bloody runic hand into his stomach.

Nan Sheng said, “If I continue to fight with you like this, I’ll lose South Haven’s reputation.”

“It looks like you’ll have to use your true ability now!” Zhang Ruochen said lightly without a bit of fear.

Nan Sheng said, “You should know that the most powerful and mysterious method for the Deathkin is the Will of Death. South-Haven doesn’t teach the Path, but the spiritual power cultivation method and the cultivation of the Will of Death. The Path and the physical body are just supplementary ways of cultivation for me.”

“South-Haven’s power has always been rumored to be magical and bizarre. I’ve wanted to see it for a long time,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“As you wish.”

Nan Sheng’s eyes turned a dark maroon. Strange dark clouds of death gathered in the water and covered the ruins of the Fane. Then they suddenly surged crazily towards Zhang Ruochen.

These were dark clouds formed by the Will of Death!

The Supreme Saints in the distance had only just touched a wisp of the deathly dark cloud, and their bodies withered quickly, with their life force dissipating swiftly. They were all frightened by it and promptly retreated further away.

“The Will of Death is the natural power of the Deathkin. If Nan Sheng used it with the strength of his spiritual power, he could instantly wipe out all life on a planet. Fortunately, the arrays and Divine Marks in the Fane of Origin had blocked the Will of Death from overflowing to the outside.”

“I don’t know how powerful Nan Sheng’s spiritual power is. I’ve never seen the Will of Death so strong before.”

“As the disciple of the Seven Elders, Nan Sheng must have practiced an exquisite controlling method for the Will of Death in the South-Haven.”

...

Nan Sheng’s eyes were overcast as his body floated up involuntarily while he said, “Zhang Ruochen, I heard that your spiritual power is powerful. But can you block my Will of Death?”

...

Zhang Ruochen had already seen that the strength of Nan Sheng's spiritual power had reached the 68th class. With his age, this was an outstanding achievement.

Although Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power was also in the 68th class, a Supreme Saint who specialized in the Path of spiritual power and a Supreme Saint who used spiritual power as support were not in the same category. Moreover, Nan Sheng comes from South Haven as well.

Even ten Zhang Ruochens combined would not be a match for the Nan Sheng if it were a spiritual power battle.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen had no intention of competing with Nan Sheng's spiritual power.

Zhang Ruochen was extremely cautious. First, he took out the Myriad Curse Bead and channeled his spiritual power into it. Then he formed a spiritual power defense with the Supreme Artifact and activated the Armor of the Fire God. Afterward, he spread out the 12 wings on his back and rushed into the dark clouds of the Will of Death, approaching Nan Sheng.

Only in close combat could Zhang Ruochen have a chance to win.

"This is unexpected! His spiritual power has also reached class 68."

Nan Sheng smiled. He closed his eyes and waved his arms. The Will of Death gathered around his body and formed a group of deathly demonic butterflies.

The butterflies were only the size of a palm. They were gorgeous and had wings colored in three vibrant colors.

Swoosh

The butterflies flew out like flying knives, leaving behind streaks of triple-colored lights. They kept hitting the Armor of the Fire God, making sounds that resembled metal and stone colliding.

Each butterfly hit Zhang Ruochen like a heavy punch.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was getting closer, Nan Sheng frowned. The most important part of his “Deathly Demonic Butterflies Dance” was not the impact force of the butterfly but the vigorous Will of Death contained in the butterfly.

Once a butterfly hit his body, the Will of Death would instantly invade into the body. It corrupts flesh and blood and also devours vitality. Even a Regal Artifact class saint armor could not block his Will of Death.

However, the armor on Zhang Ruochen seemed to restrain the Will of Death and could not be penetrated at all.

In an instant, Zhang Ruochen was already 300 feet away.

“Butterfly Emperor, break out of the cocoon.”

With the sound of Nan Sheng’s voice, a large group of three-colored deathly demonic butterflies gathered in front of him and formed a cocoon ball with a diameter of three meters.

When Zhang Ruochen slashed down with his sword, the Butterfly Emperor formed itself in the cocoon ball. A slender five-colored light arm stretched out to block the edge of the Ancient Abyssal Blade.

Crash

The sword that could break the stars and moons has been blocked!

WHOOSH

The cocoon ball shattered, and a huge butterfly empress appeared. Its entire body emitted light in five colors. Besides three pairs of long, pointed, five-colored light arms, she had a surprisingly completely naked and stunning feminine body.

The vast butterfly wings spread out and flapped gently. They released five-colored light dots and wrapped them around Zhang Ruochen.

The five-colored light dots contained powerful spiritual power and could hypnotize cultivators.

In Zhang Ruochen's eyes, the feminine beauty with giant butterfly wings became more and more attractive.

Of course, these illusions could not charm Zhang Ruochen's mind.

He sensed vigilantly that Nan Sheng had once again mobilized the Precepts, which condensed into light sabers and flew toward him from behind.

The situation was extremely dangerous with the butterfly empress in front and the rain of sabers behind.

"It's over!"

Nan Sheng thought that victory was within his grasp, and the smile in his eyes grew wider.

Suddenly, he felt a sharp pain in his heart. The smile in his eyes disappeared, and he shouted, "Chant of Death!"

The saint's heart was where the spiritual power was stored. Being attacked right there by the power of Zhang Ruochen's curse, Nan Sheng's spiritual power was undoubtedly greatly affected. Even the five-colored lights on the deathly butterfly empress, controlled by spiritual power, quickly dimmed.

Zhang Ruochen knew that his only chance to win had appeared!

Without hesitation, he activated one of the Seven Shaft Spirit Swords hanging in his sea of Qi.

"Wrath Sword!"

A bright sword light flew out from between Zhang Ruochen's eyebrows and pierced through the butterfly empress's body. Following that, it then struck Nan Sheng's chest.

Swoosh

The thirty-six beast engravings and blood-red inscriptions simultaneously appeared on Nan Sheng's body. However, the sword light still penetrated his body, causing him to shoot out like a cannonball and crash heavily into the ruins.

The Seven Shaft Spirit Swords corresponded to Zhang Ruochen's seven emotions: Sorrow, Love, Desire, Wrath, Joy, Hate, and Fear.

Among them, the Sorrow Sword was the strongest, and the Fear Sword was the weakest.

However, the strength of the seven swords was related to the cultivator's emotions. They could burst out with unparalleled power if any feelings were extreme enough.

As long as Zhang Ruochen was terrified, even the Sword of Fear could be stronger than the Sorrow Sword.

The power of the sword spirit was very destructive to a cultivator's spiritual power, Saint Soul, and emotions, but it was less damaging to the physical body.

"The power of the sword spirit is so powerful that it can even break through the physical defense of Nan Sheng." Zhang Ruochen was shocked. After all, he knew very well that because he was not angry enough, the power of the Wrath Sword he used just now was quite subpar.

It was like how he had 100 million saint stones, but he could only take out 10,000 saint stones to show off. Other saint stones were on him, but he could not take them out.

Zhang Ruochen immediately struck out with the Ancient Abyssal Blade and flew straight toward the place where the Nan Sheng had fallen.

BOOM

However, the Ancient Abyssal Blade was hit by a seal, and it flew back.

With a swoosh, the Nan Sheng rushed out of the ruins. He stuck a talisman on his body and threw another talisman at Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger. Then, he retreated far away at a breakneck speed.

He thought he could withstand the injuries to his body.

However, the injuries to his spiritual power and Saint Soul were severe. He also couldn't figure out the origin of Zhang Ruochen's sword attack, so he ran away decisively.

Zhang Ruochen moved in front of Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger. He shoved his palm forward and used Dimensional Freeze.

Boom

The talisman exploded. Its power was comparable to a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint exploding his Sainthood Source, and the frozen space was instantly torn apart.

Zhang Ruochen carried one in each hand and brought Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger to a distance of roughly five kilometers away. When he turned around, the talisman's destructive power was weakened and dissolved by the ancient Divine Marks, but it still flattened a large area.

The vicious voice of Nan Sheng came from somewhere. "Zhang Ruochen, I will remember today's sword blow and repay it twice in the future!"

Zhang Ruochen could roughly sense his location, but he did not chase after him.

A figure like Nan Sheng must have many life-saving treasures. In addition, his cultivation was powerful. The probability of being left behind was very small if he chased after him. Instead, he might be ambushed and suffer a significant loss.

"If you see me again, you will fear me like a deity," Zhang Ruochen said.

The Supreme Saints who had stayed nearby were all frightened and fled.

It was too terrifying!

Nan Sheng had lost to Zhang Ruochen. If this news were to spread, it would definitely alarm the Infernal Court's Ten Clans.

None of them believed that Zhang Ruochen was still in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. They all thought that Zhang Ruochen must have gotten a great opportunity in the Fane of Origin and had broken through to the Thousand-Koan Realm.

“Master, you’re so handsome. I also want to cultivate Swordsmanship now,” Sikong the Elder said excitedly.

Zhang Ruochen put away the Ancient Abyssal Blade and took out two Godstones. “You’re not suitable for Swordsmanship! But I see that you and Sikong the Younger have very impressive physiques. What race are you exactly?”

“What race?” Sikong the Elder was stunned. “Aren’t we the same? Oh, no. Master is a half-human and half-Immortal Vampire. Sikong the Younger and I must be pure-blooded humans.”

“Is that so?”

A sword-shaped Sword Qi flew out of Zhang Ruochen’s eyes.

The Sword Qi flew past Sikong the Elder’s round face. When the blade touched his skin, it made an ear-piercing scraping sound, and sparks also flew out.

The sword didn’t cut his skin.

Sikong the Elder fell to the ground. He covered his face and screamed. “Master, can we talk? Cultivators don’t lie, and I am really a human.”

“Do you have any guesses?” Sikong the Younger pressed his palms together and asked calmly.

Zhang Ruochen nodded. “Forget it. When I ask you, you probably don’t know too. When I have the chance, I’ll ask your Master myself.”

Sikong the Elder got up from the ground. Rubbing his fat face, he muttered, “Luckily, I didn’t get a scar from that.”

Zhang Ruochen sat on a huge rock, “Now,” he said, “Tell me what happened. Why were you chased by the cultivators of the Fane of Death? Where is Moyin, Fairy, the Lord of Stone, and the Lord of Sword?”

Denouncement from All Sides

Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger narrated the situation as they hurried on.

It wasn't too different from what Zhang Ruochen had guessed. Bai Qing'er led the cultivators of the major forces to Fane of Origin. Sikong the Elder and Sikong the Younger had taken many sacred medicines. How could the cultivators not be jealous?

In a moment of desperation, they had to run away separately.

...

There were still some sacred medicines left in the area that was once full of sacred medicines. They were all growing in a powerful formation. A large number of powerful cultivators had gathered here, trying to find a way to break the formation.

Numerous Terra Demon cultivators had occupied a ruin.

In the ruin, there was an ancient saint tree growing. On the tree, more than ten saint fruits were flowing with lightning. The Emperor of Terra Demon, Xuan Zehai, and the Array Master of Yanluo Clan broke the formation around the ancient Saint Tree.

Yan Zhexian and Xuan Qingying were standing in the outer area, on guard against the sneak attacks of the cultivators from other forces.

Not many cultivators dared to provoke Yanluo Clan, but this was Fane of Origin. For the sake of treasures, there's nothing those bold cultivators wouldn't do.

Xuan Qingying said, "Fane of Origin has come into being. The deities from the major forces in Infernal Court should have arrived by now, right?"

"The gods care more about Fane of Origin than we do. I guess some of them have already arrived in Southern Sword Realm. They might even have entered the Fane," Yan Zhexian said.

Xuan Qingying rolled her eyes. Suddenly, she said, "Zhang Ruochen is standing at the storm's peak again. He has fooled all the forces. Many leaders of the forces have already said they will teach him a lesson."

Yan Zhexian's eyes were cold. "Don't mention him. I'll teach him a lesson myself if I meet him. I have to show him how terrifying Yanluo Clan's eldest daughter's anger is."

Yan Zhexian's anger burned thinking about how Zhang Ruochen and Bai Qing'er had used her name to sneak into Fane of Origin in advance. She wanted to be like the other cultivators and call them adulterous couples.

There was a commotion in the distance. Many cultivators flew over.

A cultivator from Terra Demon rushed over. He said anxiously, "Reporting to the two Supreme Saints, Zhang Ruochen has appeared!"

"Hmph!"

Yan Zhexian waved her long sleeve and turned into a streak of light. She trails along the water.

Xuan Qingying followed closely.

Zhang Ruochen came to this area with five cultivators. He didn't panic when he saw the cultivators from all the forces rushing over, "Most of the sacred medicines in this area have been picked. Why are there still so many cultivators here? Everyone, there must be treasures in other areas of Fane of Origin as well."

A group of people from Fane of Asura walked out with murderous intent.

The leader was a three-tailed Supreme Saint who had reached Paramount Realm. “Zhang Ruochen, did you kill Supreme Saint Xing Qian of Fane of Asuran?”

His name was Shan Haijun, and he had been cultivating for over 10,000 years.

With Pan Ruo as the leader, a group of Supreme Saints rushed out of Fane of Destiny and surrounded Zhang Ruochen.

Pan Ruo asked, “Supreme Saint Ruochen, can you explain where Ji Fanxin got the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin from?”

...

“Zhang Ruochen, did you kill Supreme Saint Fei’er Tianding of The Paarth Family?”

...

“Five supreme-quality Divine Crystal of Origins were stolen from the House of Enchanters of Divine Domain of Destiny. By self-detonating his Sainthood Source, Tan Fei almost killed all the cultivators of the major forces. Did you plan this?”

...

The cultivators of the various forces were holding back their anger. Some had resentments, and some had grudges. They all wanted to punish Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Zhexian was extremely angry and thought Zhang Ruochen was hateful. However, seeing Zhang Ruochen in such a dangerous situation, she held back from rushing out. She didn’t want to kick a man when he was down.

She even started to worry.

What if that guy angered everyone, was surrounded and killed?

“Do I need to explain how I killed a few saints in Infernal Court? Even if you attack now, and I kill all of you. I don’t need to explain to anyone.”

Zhang Ruochen scanned the surroundings. Powerful Qi surged out of his body. He held Ancient Abyssal Blade in his hand and shouted, “Get out of the way!”

“You’re too arrogant. What realm are you in? How can you be so arrogant?” The Supreme Saint of Fane of Asuran, Shan Haijun, roared.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Arrogant? You’re obviously making accusations. You want to kill me and split the treasures on me. How can I reason with you? Is there any logic?”

The cultivators of the major forces couldn’t take it anymore. They all took out their weapons and prepared to kill Zhang Ruochen together.

“Wait.”

Pan Ruo walked out from the cultivators of Fane of Destiny and came to Zhang Ruochen. She said, “You can settle other matters in private. However, Supreme Saint Ruochen better explain the source of the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin in Ji Fanxin’s hands now.”

Zhang Ruochen could see that Pan Ruo had come up to him because she wanted him to capture her as a hostage and escape.

Zhang Ruochen was unmoved. “Of course, she stole the supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin from me. Does Scioness think I’m colluding with the cultivators of Celestial Court?”

Suddenly, a child’s voice sounded from the crowd. “Zhang Ruochen is right. There’s no such thing as logic in the world. There’s no need to talk so much to kill someone.”

A child with nine-colored divine light walked out from the crowd of cultivators.

Whoosh

He flew up, and the six swords on his back flew out.

Two of them released Supreme Power. They were two Supreme Artifacts. The six swords flew together and turned the water upside down.

Apart from some Paramount Realm Supreme Saints, the other Supreme Saints couldn't stand properly. They were almost swept away by the Supreme Power.

This child was naturally Lan Ying.

Lan Ying laughed coldly, "I heard that you defeated Que. This time, I will go all out."

"Heaven Sword Soul."

Precepts of Swordsmanship in the sea flew towards him. Above his head, a shadow of a soul appeared. In an instant, the power of Lan Ying's sword increased significantly.

"Asura Heaven's Kill"

The six swords lined up and turned into a sword light, slashing down.

Zhang Ruochen's body turned golden, and a shadow of a soul appeared above his head. He rushed up and slashed out with his sword, Sword Eleven.

The two powerful forces of Swordsmanship collided, shooting out tens of thousands of Sword Qi.

The Sword Qi contained the power of the sword soul. Some cultivators were hit, and their saint souls were severely injured. They let out shrill screams.

"Heaven Sword Soul... Zhang Ruochen has also cultivated Heaven Sword Soul..."

"It is indeed Heaven Sword Soul. Zhang Ruochen has cultivated Heaven Sword Soul in Hundred-Shackle Realm. How can his attainments in Swordsmanship be so high?"

Amidst the exclamations of the crowd, Lan Ying and Zhang Ruochen had already exchanged dozens of sword strikes.

Suddenly, Lan Ying fell from above and fell heavily into the mud and rocks, making a large area of water extremely muddy. Six battle swords also fell from the sky and stabbed into the bottom of the sea.

A long sword cut was cut through Lan Ying's abdomen, and it could not be healed for a long time.

Lan Ying somersaulted from the ground, his face ferocious. He shouted, “Zhang Ruochen, don’t go. Let’s fight again.”

It was then that everyone realized that Zhang Ruochen had long disappeared. Even the five cultivators had been taken away by him.

The elders of Paramount Realm looked at each other in shock. Had Zhang Ruochen grown to such an extent?

So many cultivators had gathered to denounce him, but he had escaped easily.

Pan Ruo looked in the direction where Zhang Ruochen had escaped. An unnoticeable smile appeared in her eyes.

Soon after, there was news that Zhang Ruochen had defeated Nan Sheng.

Everyone was shocked again. Some cultivators who had denounced Zhang Ruochen earlier felt fear and regret. They were afraid that Zhang Ruochen would take revenge in secret. This trip to Fane of Origin seemed to be even more dangerous!

Xuan Qingying looked at Lan Ying, surrounded by a group of cultivators from Fane of Barasingha. She was still a little absent-minded. She muttered to herself, “No one can stop Zhang Ruochen’s rise. The secular world of Infernal Court will soon belong to him.”

Fane of Origin was full of dangers. Other than cultivators from Fane of Barasingha, no other forces continued to pursue Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had returned to this place because he wanted to find the aura left behind by Saint Devourer.

Compared to Ji Fanxin, who had no way to find her, Zhang Ruochen thought that he should find Saint Devourer, Lord of Stone, Lord of Sword, and Xue Tu first. There was a subtle connection between him and Saint Devourer. He could sense where she was going.

Not long after, Zhang Ruochen found a vine of Saint Devourer in a shabby stone hall.

Picking up the vine, Zhang Ruochen sensed it and said, “The aura of Hai Ke. This is great. It’s a good opportunity to kill him in Fane of Origin.”

When he first met Hai Ke in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, Zhang Ruochen’s Heart of Truth sensed that Hai Ke had Canon of Truth. Thus, Zhang Ruochen put him on the must-kill list.

As for why Hai Ke, a Supreme Saint of Infernal Court, had Canon of Truth, Zhang Ruochen had some guesses. It was most likely because he killed a Celestial Court cultivator who had Canon of Truth and taken it.

Zhang Ruochen burst out with an even faster speed to catch up. He soon sensed a familiar power fluctuation coming from the water.

Splash

The water in front of him was very muddy. There were ripples of Death Qi and deafening sounds of battle.

Although Hai Ke was a member of Deathkin, his body was a god’s corpse.

At this moment, Hai Ke’s divine body was more than 3000 meters tall. He grabbed Lord of Stone and held him in his palm. He smiled. “An Azure Terra Stone can be cultivated to such a high realm. This is a precious material to refine a Supreme Artifact.”

“Azure Terra sacred spear!”

Lord of Stone roared. A long spear covered in dragon scales flew out from his body toward Hai Ke’s glabella.

BOOM

Hai Ke ignored it. The Azure Terra sacred spear hit his glabella. A layer of divine light automatically appeared on his skin and sent Supreme Artifact flying.

“Haha! My body is stronger than Zhang Ruochen’s Demigod physique. How can you hurt me?”

Hai Ke stuffed Lord of Stone into his mouth and swallowed him. He planned to use the divine fire in his body to refine and tame Lord of Stone's spirit and will.

Moyin stood on the head of a female deity statue, her face extremely pale.

Around her delicate body was a Precept Domain condensed from 1500 billion Precepts. Her hair turned into purple vines that floated in the water, releasing wisps of Divine Purification Flames.

Lord of Sword stood in the palm of the deity statue, his body gathering and dispersing at times. He was in a terrible state.

After Lord of Stone was swallowed by Hai Ke, both felt sorry for him. Their morale dropped to rock bottom.

“Do you still want to struggle? In Infernal Court, following me is more promising than following Zhang Ruochen.” Hai Ke stretched out a giant hand with divine chains. He slapped down and smashed the statue into pieces.

Moyin moved nimbly and flew out from between his fingers. The moment she was stuck in the water, five fingers grabbed out through the air. They tore open five Dimensional Rifts hundreds of feet long and flew toward Hai Ke’s face.

Before the five Dimensional Rifts could reach Hai Ke, they were closed by Hai Ke’s Precept Domain.

“In my Precept Domain, dimensional attacks are useless.”

Hai Ke grabbed Lord of Stone from the rubble.

BOOM!

His five fingers exerted some force, and Lord of Stone's body exploded, turning into a ball of light cloud.

Hai Ke exclaimed in surprise. He looked at the light cloud in his palm and said in shock, "It's actually a strand of sword intent. It gave birth to consciousness and condensed into a spirit body. This is the core sword intent left behind by a Sword God after he died, right?"

Hai Ke felt like he had obtained a treasure. A sword comprehension cultivated to the Supreme Saint realm was enough to sell for a sky-high price.

Moyin sensed that Zhang Ruochen was nearby, so she released all the remaining Saint Qi in her body and turned it into the divine fire. She stretched out her arms and turned them into thousands of vines wrapped around Hai Ke's divine body.

The divine fire burned on the vines, turning Hai Ke into a vast fireball.

Hai Ke roared, "You're courting death."

Two Divine Qi light pillars with a diameter of dozens of feet surged out of his eyes and shot toward Moyin.

At this moment, Hai Ke's expression changed. He sensed an extremely explosive power appearing above him. He roared, "Zhang Ruochen!"

"It's me."

Zhang Ruochen escaped from the dimension and slashed down with his sword.

Ancient Abyssal Blade was as heavy as a planet. It became 300 meters long, like a black waterfall.

Zhang Ruochen had chosen to attack at this time. Thus, he would not give Hai Ke any chance to dodge. Sneak attack and direct confrontation were two completely different concepts.

Hai Ke did not have time to think about how Zhang Ruochen could use Great Dimensional Shift in his Precept Domain. In a hurry, he had to mobilize as many Precepts in the Precept Domain as possible to form a defensive light wall.

Puff

Ancient Abyssal Blade broke through the defensive light wall and stuck to Hai Ke's scalp. It dragged from the back of his head to the bottom of his back, forming a sword cut thousands of feet long.

The wound was shocking.

Large amounts of divine blood surged out of the sword cut, instantly dyeing the water red.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't happy about it. Instead, his face turned ugly. He hadn't been able to kill Hai Ke with one strike.

Hai Ke's divine body was too strong. With the advantage of Ancient Abyssal Blade and the power of Qiankun Realm that Zhang Ruochen had mobilized, he had only hacked a few feet deep.

In fact, he hadn't even hurt Hai Ke's bones, let alone split his divine body.

Two beams of Divine Qi shot out of Hai Ke's eyes. They had already severely injured Moyin. It flew out like charcoal and fell into the depths of the sea.

BANG! BANG!

Hai Ke broke the vines that wrapped around his body. His body shrank rapidly and became only two meters tall. He took the opportunity to dodge the sword that Zhang Ruochen had slashed toward his neck.

His Precept Domain couldn't restrain Zhang Ruochen's Power of Dimension. His huge divine body would become his weakness, giving Zhang Ruochen more opportunities to take advantage of it.

The smaller the divine body, the more advantageous it would be for him.

The second sword missed, and Zhang Ruochen decisively retreated far away. He had a deeper understanding of Hai Ke's strength.

Although this person looked overbearing, impulsive, and bloodthirsty on the surface, he had a lot of battle experience. Zhang Ruochen would be at a significant disadvantage if he underestimated him.

The disciple of that important figure in Apeiron Sea was not an ordinary person.

Sword Qi had invaded Hai Ke's back, making it difficult for the wound to heal. Divine blood kept flowing out.

Thinking that he'd been injured by a weak cultivator like Zhang Ruochen, anger surged in Hai Ke's heart. He summoned Catastrophic Ax and said in a deep voice, "Since you dared to show up, I naturally can't let you escape today."

Whoosh

More than nine trillion Precepts enveloped the wider underwater water area.

The temperature of this water area dropped rapidly, condensing into strange-shaped ice crystals. The cold slowed Zhang Ruochen's blood flow and Saint Qi.

The space seemed to be frozen.

Hai Ke strode over, "I know you are the Master of Time and Space. Your ability to escape is great. However, the Divine Marks and arrays in Fane of Origin will greatly limit your power. What chance do you think you have to escape?"

"When did I say I would escape?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"You couldn't break my physical defense even when I was defenseless. Do you think you have a chance in a head-on confrontation? I've been practicing in Apeiron Sea for many years. The environment here can make my combat power stronger." said Hai Ke

"Our strengths are not based on words," Zhang Ruochen said.

The distance between the two closed to 30 meters.

Swoosh!

Hai Ke raised Catastrophic Ax and hacked down.

Catastrophic Ax instantly became 30 meters long, as big as a house, releasing purple-black lightning brilliance.

Zhang Ruochen turned sideways and dodged quickly.

BOOM!

Catastrophic Ax hacked a crack hundreds of meters long at the bottom of the sea. Countless Divine Marks were triggered. Beams of destructive light surged out from the bottom of the crack.

Although Zhang Ruochen dodged the axe, he could not avoid the ubiquitous lightning.

In the water, the power of lightning could not be avoided.

Dozens of lightning struck the Armor of the Fire God, penetrated the armor, and attacked Zhang Ruochen's body. Each bolt of lightning pierced his body like a sword.

Hai Ke laughed and swung his axe.

BAM!

This time, Zhang Ruochen took out Zangshan Demonic Mirror. The mirror became as tall as a person and reflected the lightning in the water.

BOOM!

BOOM!!!

...

Hai Ke was confident and calm. He said, "If you keep dodging like this, you won't be able to hide for long."

Zhang Ruochen looked around and noticed that the edge of Hai Ke's Precept Domain had completely frozen into white ice. It was shrinking rapidly.

Zhang Ruochen's space to move would become smaller.

More importantly, the white ice and Hai Ke's Precepts combined utterly. Even if Zhang Ruochen used Canon of Dimension and Great Dimensional Shift, he wouldn't be able to pass through.

“It seems like there’s no other way!”

Zhang Ruochen murmured. Then he turned to Hai Ke and said, “Do you really think no one can break your divine body?”

“Only a Demigod can break my divine body’s defense,” Hai Ke said.

Zhang Ruochen took out a copper coffin from his Ring of Dimension. With a bang, he slapped the lid away.

Faint divine light surged out of the coffin.

It was the coffin that held half of the god’s corpse.

Hai Ke was slightly surprised. He smiled. “You’ve even prepared a coffin for yourself?”

Rustle

A strange sound came from the coffin.

Numerous God-Eater Bugs flew out of the coffin. Their bodies were blue and green. Blue flames radiated from their bodies as they flew toward Hai Ke.

“God-Eater Bugs!”

Hai Ke’s expression finally changed. He stopped immediately and released his Divine Qi. It formed a substantial spherical shield. Then he swung his axe.

God’s corpse was most afraid of God-Eater Bugs.

There were so many of them. The bugs ate everything and chewed on the Divine Qi shield.

Hai Ke’s attacks were strong, but the God-Eater Bugs weren’t weak. He could only kill a few with his axe.

Zhang Ruochen took out Sevenstar Imperial Palace and found Saint Devourer, which had been beaten back to its original form. He brought it into the palace and put it into Spring of Life to recuperate.

Palace Guardian Huang Tian knew that Hai Ke was a powerful existence. He immediately activated the array, Divine Marks, and Supreme Saint Inscriptions.

At Sevenstar Imperial Palace's entrance, Zhang Ruochen looked at Hai Ke surrounded by the God-Eater Bugs. He then released the Realm-frame of Truth in Boundless Universe.

At the same time, a crystal-clear diamond-shaped gem flew out of his body. It had 129,600 facets and was brighter than the thousands of stars in the realms.

Hai Ke, who was trying to stop the God-Eater Bugs from getting close was shocked to find that Canon of Truth in his body flew toward Sevenstar Imperial Palace uncontrollably.

“Zhang Ruochen, you really have a rare treasure of Truth. But don't you even think about taking away my Canon.”

Hai Ke jumped out of the swarm of insects. He grabbed Catastrophic Ax with both hands and struck it down with lightning speed.

The ax became 300 meters long, and the lightning turned into an ocean.

Boom

The layers of defensive array light screen of Sevenstar Imperial Palace were broken by him. The colossal battle axe slowly fell down.

Zhang Ruochen had already absorbed two-tenths of Canon of Truth in Hai Ke's body into Heart of Truth. He looked up and said, “Desire Blade!”

A bright sword light flew out from between his eyebrows and hit Hai Ke's body.

Bang!

Hai Ke was thrown back and fell back into the swarm of insects.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. “He doesn't seem to be hurt. My desire is still not strong enough.”

Desire Blade did not hurt Hai Ke's divine body, but it hurt Hai Ke's spirit and saint soul to a certain extent.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged and held Myriad Curse Bead in his palm. He mobilized his mighty spiritual power and fused it into his body. He chanted, “Chant of Death.”

This curse directly attacked Hai Ke’s heart.

Hai Ke’s spiritual power was not as strong as Nan Sheng’s. When attacked by the Chant of Death, he was immediately severely affected. His defense was broken, and a God-Eater Bug took the opportunity to drill into the wound on his back.

“Curse of Abandon.”

“Aprameya Curse.”

“Blood-devouring Curse.”

...

One curse after another came out of Zhang Ruochen’s mouth.

Hai Ke roared again and again. He ignored the God-Eater Bugs and rushed toward Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Zhang Ruochen knew that Hai Ke was powerful. Of course, he couldn’t clash head-on with him. With a thought, Sevenstar Imperial Palace became the size of a fist and disappeared into space. In the next moment, he appeared behind Hai Ke.

...

The God-eater Bug had absorbed the poison from the divine corpse in the copper coffin. After many years of cultivation by Zhang Ruochen, it had morphed and evolved. It could be considered the second generation of the God-eater Bug.

At first, Hai Ke didn't care about being bitten by the God-eater Bug.

But as time passed, poisonous green lines appeared on his body. Even though he was a corpse and more of a dead spirit, he still felt the terror of the poison.

His body became numb, and his reflexes slowed down. His power also decreased significantly.

One could imagine that if the creatures at the Banshi Isshou Realm were bitten, they would be poisoned to death.

Hai Ke finally realized the danger and sensed the threat of death.

'I didn't expect Zhang Ruochen to raise such a large group of God-eater Bugs that contain divine poison. I've miscalculated. I can't continue this stalemate. I have to leave immediately.'

Hai Ke withdrew the nine trillion precepts that had condensed into a Precept Domain into his body. He grabbed the Catastrophic Ax with both hands and struck the ground.

BOOM!

The space shook.

A thick, powerful thunderlight shuttle surged out of the Catastrophic Ax and sent the God-eater Bugs flying.

Even the impact hit the fist-sized Sevenstar Imperial Palace in the distance and crashed into the thick ice wall.

Zhang Ruochen stood at the palace gate and shook his body. He thought to himself, 'As expected from the divine corpse physique. The divine poison has entered its body, but it can still launch such a powerful attack.'

However, Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Hai Ke was already at the end of his rope. He was probably going to escape.

"Zhang Ruochen, you're good. Next time, I'll definitely take the treasure that can restrain the God-eater Bug and take your head."

Hai Ke turned into a streak of divine light and flew into the distance.

"Do you think there will be a next time?"

Zhang Ruochen's voice was still behind him. However, Hai Ke was surprised to find that the Sevenstar Imperial Palace had appeared before him. It was as big as a real palace, and Zhang Ruochen stood in the center of the palace gate.

Zhang Ruochen was in a bow drawing position and held the Ancient Abyssal Sword with both hands. The sword was like an arrow on the bowstring.

BANG!

The bowstring sounded.

Zhang Ruochen and the Ancient Abyssal Sword seemed to have become one. They turned into a fast-flying beam of light, dragging a tail that was dozens of meters long, and hit Hai Ke.

Hai Ke gritted his teeth. His arm that held the ax spun like a windmill, and a mighty aura surged out of his body.

He struck out with the ax.

BOOM!

The Ancient Abyssal Sword broke through Hai Ke's protective Precept Domain and hit his chest hard. The entire sword pierced through, and the tip of the sword emerged from his back.

Hai Ke's ax struck Zhang Ruochen, causing sparks to fly from the Armor of the Fire God.

Zhang Ruochen flew out diagonally, smashing a long string of ruined buildings and creating a deep ravine on the seabed.

The Catastrophic Ax didn't break the Armor of the Fire God, but the impact made Zhang Ruochen's bones fall apart. Cracks appeared on his internal organs, and blood flowed out of his mouth.

If Hai Ke had struck at his peak, Zhang Ruochen didn't know if his Demigod-level physique could withstand it.

Zhang Ruochen's sword had merged with the Heaven Sword Soul, causing Hai Ke's Saint Soul to suffer an unprecedented serious injury. Because his Saint Soul was injured, it was tough for him to mobilize the Divine Qi in his body and gather enough power.

To deal with a dead spirit like Hai Ke. Only by attacking his spirit could Zhang Ruochen kill him completely.

The cultivators of the Fane of Barasingha had been chasing after Zhang Ruochen. At this moment, they were hiding in a corner far away. They were standing on a huge ancient map to hide their aura.

"It seems to be true. Zhang Ruochen can seriously injure Hai Ke, and the news about defeating Nan Sheng. It's not so hard to believe anymore!" Bai Fang said.

Bai Fang was a Supreme Saint of the Fane of Barasingha. He didn't go with the other Supreme Saints to explore the depths of the Fane of Origin. Instead, he stayed behind to protect Lan Ying. He was in charge of preserving the Fane of Barasingha's interests outside the Fane of Origin.

A Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint said disdainfully, "Zhang Ruochen can only restrain Hai Ke with the help of the God-eater Bug."

“But Zhang Ruochen is the master of the God-eater Bug.”

Bai Fang glanced at Lan Ying and said, “Let’s go. Zhang Ruochen has already reached the pinnacle. Hai Ke has suffered a great loss. Even if we attack, we won’t be able to win.”

Although Bai Fang’s cultivation was in the Paramount Realm, he had only cultivated more than two trillion precepts. His battle strength was weaker than Hai Ke at the Banshi Isshou Realm.

“Zhang Ruochen was hit by HAI Ke’s ax. Even if he didn’t die, he must have been seriously injured. Isn’t now the best time for us to attack?” asked Lan Ying.

He couldn’t forget about Zhang Ruochen, a Yuanhui-level genius. He had always wanted to devour him.

Then, Lan Ying looked at Hai Ke, whose body was on the verge of collapse. He smiled and said, “Why don’t we devour them together?”

Bai Fang was shocked and stopped him immediately. He said, “The Fane of Barasingha has always insisted that we should never provoke powerful enemies of the Infernal Court. We should keep a low profile and progress steadily. Killing Zhang Ruochen is to completely rope in Asurendra Samay. But Hai Ke is the disciple of that important figure in the Apeiron Sea. He is also the top-notch powerhouse of the mortal world who will take over Yuan Qianmo from the Deathkin in the future. He must not be touched.”

“If Zhang Ruochen can be touched, why can’t I?”

Lan Ying did not listen at all. He felt that Bai Fang was too cautious and had too many restrictions. Lan Ying thought, ‘No wonder he could only cultivate and reach the Paramount Realm in his life. At most, he would be given a Divinity Source in the future to cultivate into a pseudo god.

Lan Ying was a peerless genius. He couldn’t let himself listen to the words of such a mediocre person.

If he listened to the words of a mediocre person, he would only become a mediocre person.

People don't become average because they were born average. It was because he didn't dare to do extraordinary things. Walking down the extraordinary path was the path of extraordinary changes.

Lan Ying summoned six swords. Just as he was about to make his move, dazzling divine light surged out of Hai Ke's body and turned into a mighty divine cloud. Countless precepts wrapped around his body.

Thunder and lightning shuttled through the divine cloud.

There were also Hai Ke's deafening roars.

Bai Fang's eyes focused. "Hai Ke is condensing a supreme body. He's about to break through."

"He just cultivated more than 9 trillion precepts, and he's already broken through? Hai Ke was crippled by Zhang Ruochen!" Lan Ying shook his head and sneered.

When Bai Fang thought about how he had only cultivated more than 1 trillion precepts when he had formed his Paramount physique, he felt like he had been stabbed in the heart.

With Hai Ke's cultivation, once he broke the realm, the number of precepts would definitely exceed 10 trillion. Although he was still in the Paramount Realm, such a Paramount Realm was called a "Demigod".

Bai Fang recovered after a long time. "Let's go. Hai Ke is well prepared. He has already swallowed the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill that helped him form his Paramount physique. Breaking the realm is inevitable."

The aura from Hai Ke grew stronger and stronger. It swept to the hiding places of the cultivators of the Fane of Barasingha.

Some Supreme Saints with lower cultivation felt the terrifying aura and faint divine power. Their faces turned pale. They felt Hai Ke was no longer a Supreme Saint but a god.

"After Hai Ke breaks through the realm, if he finds us hiding in the dark, he might kill us all with his ferocity."

“Zhang Ruochen might have already escaped. I’m afraid we won’t have a chance if we don’t escape now.”

...

The cultivators of the Fane of Barasingha said anxiously. They all looked at Lan Ying.

Lan Ying wasn’t satisfied. He said, “Let’s go! After breaking through, Hai Ke isn’t someone we can afford to provoke.”

Just as Lan Ying said, Hai Ke breaking through at this time was equivalent to self-destruction.

For cultivators who wanted to break through to the representative level of the Yuanhui-level, accumulating ten trillion precepts at the pinnacle of the Banshi Isshou Realm was an indispensable threshold.

Breaking through before crossing the threshold was equivalent to cutting off the qualification to enter the ranks of the top-notch powerhouse in the secular world.

This represented not only reputation but also a great influence.

As the number one powerhouse of the Fane of Death and the Deathkin, Yuan Qianmo had more than ten times the power and resources as the number two powerhouse of the Deathkin.

This was because the Deathkin had to nurture a peerless master at all costs in the secular world, protecting and expanding the interests of the Deathkin in the secular world.

Yuan Qianmo was the representative of the Deathkins.

With so many resources, Yuan Qianmo could accumulate to an extreme level under the Neverwilt Realm. Once he broke through to the Neverwilt Realm, he could become a powerhouse among the gods.

As for Hai Ke, he had lost the qualification to be the face of the new generation of the Deathkin, so he could break through to divinity quickly. However, he needed to cultivate for tens of thousands of years in the divinity to reach Yuan Qianmo’s strength when he had just broken through to the divinity.

The accumulation under the divinity could greatly shorten the cultivation time in the divinity.

Therefore, many peerless figures would choose to accumulate more time under the divinity if they were not in a hurry to get things done.

Hai Ke was forced to make a breakthrough.

Zhang Ruochen was seriously injured, but he was sitting cross-legged in the ruins. He used the Myriad Curse Bead to curse him, making it impossible for him to escape. The God-eater Bugs came again. If he didn't choose to break through, he might die today at Zhang Ruochen's hands.

Hai Ke's breakthrough was coming to an end.

There were more than ten trillion precepts around him. The precepts were twice as thick. The power of each precept was ten times stronger.

If the God-eater Bugs got close, they would instantly be swept away by his aura.

Zhang Ruochen knew that he couldn't stop Hai Ke. He stopped cursing. A grim expression appeared between his brows.

He stood up slowly. Most of his injuries had recovered.

He didn't choose to run away. After all, the Heart of Truth had been exposed. Even if he had a chance, he had to kill Hai Ke. "You two have been watching for so long. Aren't you going to show yourself?"

There was no response.

Zhang Ruochen said again, "If you kill Hai Ke, all his treasures will be yours. I won't take them."

The Seven-Armed Elder popped a head out of the ground and said, "Are you serious?"

"I, Zhang Ruochen, am not short of treasures," Zhang Ruochen said.

A bright Dimensional Array suddenly appeared and spun in the water.

Master Ye You stood in the center of the array and said, “Hai Ke’s divine body belongs to me, and so does the Sainthood Source. I think the Catastrophic Ax should still belong to me. If you don’t agree to my condition, then this matter can not be discussed.”

“Is this a condition?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Unexpectedly, the Seven-Armed Elder agreed readily and said, “These three things belong to you, but the other treasures on him all belong to me.”

Anyone with a discerning eye could see that the most valuable things on Hai Ke were his divine body, Sainthood Source, and the Catastrophic Ax. Seeing how the Seven-Armed Elder agreed readily, Master Ye You was somewhat hesitant.

The Seven-Armed Elder said, “Old man, could it be that you are insatiable and want more?”

Master Ye You could not figure out the reason. Still, he thought about how he could obtain a divine corpse, a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint’s Sainthood Source, and a top-tier Regal Artifact. He seemed to have made a lot of money, so he did not think much about it.

He snorted and looked around. “I’m just worried. Hai Ke’s background is incredible. With the Apeiron Sea supporting him if things were to be exposed, where would you and I have a place to stay in the Infernal Court?”

“Below the divinity, there are very few cultivators who can hide from our senses. The only cultivator hiding in the nearby Fane of Barasingha has already escaped. What do you have to worry about? “Are you afraid of Hai Ke and afraid to attack?” The Seven-Armed Elder asked.

Seeing that the two were about to argue, the power waves from Hai Ke’s body gradually stabilized. It was a sign that his cultivation had stabilized. Zhang Ruochen quickly said, “Hai Ke heard your conversation. He won’t let you off if you don’t attack today.”

Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You both looked at the chaotic divine cloud.

“I’ll set up an array to suppress his Precept Domain.”

Master Ye You took out a two-meter-long bone staff and stabbed it into the ground.

BOOM!

Dense Dimensional Inscriptions appeared on the staff and flew into the water, covering an area of dozens of miles.

Master Ye You then took out a bunch of black beans from a beast skin bag and threw them out.

The black beans floated in the water, turning into little people in black armor. The Dimensional Inscriptions gathered on the little people and interwoven into a huge Dimensional Array.

Zhang Ruochen walked around the edge of the array and observed it secretly. At the same time, he put the God-eater Bug back into the coffin.

Master Ye You, who cultivated the Path of Dimension, was quite capable. The Dimensional Array he set up suppressed the violent divine qi that fluctuated on Hai Ke’s body.

SWOOSH!

Hai Ke’s Paramount physique was successfully condensed. His physical strength rose to an unprecedented level. He roared, “I have broken through the realm. No one can stop me now.”

Hai Ke punched out. His fist shone brilliantly. Divine power surged out like a river.

Boom

The array Master Ye You had set up shook violently. A large part of the Dimensional Inscription shattered.

Then, Hai Ke performed a superior-level saint spell. Dense precepts gathered toward the Catastrophic Ax. The ax hadn’t been slashed out yet, and the power it released already made the sea water boil.

“He’d only just broken through and was already so powerful.” Zhang Ruochen retreated to a distance. He was initially very confident in Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You, but now he began to worry.

“Old Man, can you do it or not?” Seven-Armed Elder asked anxiously.

Suppose Master Ye You couldn’t use the Power of Dimension to suppress Hai Ke’s Precept Domain. In that case, it won’t be easy to kill a demigod.

Master Ye You was calm and collected. He took a handful of beans from his bag and threw them out, turning them into more black minions. The minions surrounded the gigantic Hai Ke.

“Seven-tier Worldly Pagoda.”

Master Ye You grabbed the bone staff on the ground with one hand and poured all his level 69 spiritual power into it.

WHOOSH!

A bright pillar of light shot out from the top of the bone staff. Seven circles of array patterns appeared around the light pillar.

These seven circles of array patterns were connected to the Array of Dimension formed by small black figures. In the blink of an eye, a faintly discernible giant light tower enveloped Hai Ke.

Hai Ke’s ax struck the edge of the light tower.

The light of the tower shook violently, but it did not shatter.

On the contrary, Hai Ke suffered the rebound force and retreated dozens of steps. His eyes revealed a look of surprise.

“The Worldly Pagoda that I can set up only has seven floors. It won’t be able to suppress a demigod for long. Let’s attack together and end this quickly.”

Master Ye You grabbed the white bone staff and flew to the top of the Worldly Pagoda. He raised his right hand above his head and used his mighty spiritual power to catch hundreds of thousands of black lightning bolts. They entered the Worldly Pagoda and roared, "Refine them for me."

A 69th-level spiritual-power Supreme Saint was equivalent to a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

'This old sly has finally revealed his ferocious side,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen didn't take this opportunity to leave. After all, Lord of Sword and Lord of Stone were still within Hai Ke. He had to save them.

Although the Lord of Sword's body had been crushed, as long as its core swordwill wasn't destroyed, he could reassemble his body.

Although Lord of Stone had been swallowed by Hai Ke, he had fused with the spiritual wills of the six gods. It was not easy for Hai Ke to refine him.

The Seven-Armed Elder revealed his true form and turned into a monster that was a thousand feet long.

The monster had a huge head the size of a palace and seven long furry flaming palms. From the palms of each of the Seven-Armed Elder, a scorching pillar of fire surged into the Worldly Pagoda and landed on Hai Ke's body.

Lightning and flames filled the tower.

Hai Ke let out furious roars and attacked the Worldly Pagoda, causing the surrounding waters to tremble. The energy released could even injure a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint.

Although some cultivators could sense the ripples of the battle, none of them dared to approach and investigate.

"Seven-Armed Elder, Ye You, how dare you attack me? Aren't you afraid of the retaliation of the Apeiron Sea?" Hai Ke's divine body was charred black by the lightning and flames.

His physical injuries were secondary. What terrified Hai Ke was that the spiritual power of the Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You was too strong. They constantly attacked his Saint Soul with spiritual power.

His Saint Soul had already been heavily injured by Zhang Ruochen's Heaven Sword Soul. It hadn't fully recovered even after taking the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill. How could it withstand the attacks of two 69th-level spiritual power saints?

Master Ye You was the timidest. He was scared to death of the Apeiron Sea.

However, when he heard Hai Ke's threatening words, the killing intent in his eyes became stronger, colder, and more determined.

Hai Ke's spiritual power was at level 67. It could be considered quite strong, but his enemy's spiritual power was more potent. Even Zhang Ruochen could suppress him to self-detonate his Sainthood Source, let alone Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You.

After struggling desperately in the Worldly Pagoda for about an hour, Hai Ke broke the six-tier Worldly Pagoda in a row. His divine body finally collapsed heavily when he was about to rush out.

His Saint Soul was destroyed entirely.

The spiritual power of the Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You was significantly consumed. With lingering fear, they flew to the side of Hai Ke's giant divine corpse.

If Hai Ke had held on longer and escaped from the Seven-tier Worldly Pagoda, it would have been their turn to run for their lives. However, how could there be so many ifs in this world?

The truth was that the two of them had killed a demigod together. Even though this demigod had just broken through and his realm wasn't stable enough, he still hadn't fully grasped the power of a demigod.

Master Ye You was afraid that the seven-handed old man would go back on his words, so he immediately took the Catastrophic Ax and dug out the Sainthood Source in Hai Ke's body.

"You can take the other treasures. Just leave the divine corpse to me," Master Ye You said generously.

There weren't any valuable treasures anyway. Only Hai Ke's broken regal-grade armor could be sold for many Godstones.

BOOM!

An explosion sounded from the abdomen of the ten-thousand-meter-long divine corpse.

An AzureTerra Stone flew out.

Then, it transformed into a human figure. It was 13 meters tall and had six arms. It was Lord of Stone, whose breath was a little weak.

"This AzureTerra Stone..."

The Seven-Armed Elder was about to speak when Zhang Ruochen walked over and said, "I can't give you this AzureTerra Stone."

A cloud of light flew out from the divine corpse's left sleeve and condensed into the figure of the Lord of Sword.

The Seven-Armed Elder released his spiritual power to check the surroundings and found that there were no other cultivators nearby. He looked at Master Ye You and expressed his intention to cooperate again.

This time, there was no Ji Fanxin by Zhang Ruochen's side. Master Ye You didn't have much fear in his heart.

Since Master Ye You had already killed Hai Ke, wouldn't he be able to get more treasures if he killed Zhang Ruochen without anyone knowing?

Zhang Ruochen could read their minds. Just as they were about to take out the Shenlong Chaos Tower of Sun and Moon as a warning, a terrifying aura came from above.

Zhang Ruochen, the Seven-Armed Elder, Master Ye You, Lord of Stone, and Lord of Sword were suppressed by an invisible pressure. They almost knelt on the ground.

Even the Saint Soul seemed to be crushed into pieces.

A man in the red armor of the angels appeared above their heads. He had white hair and was extremely handsome. His eyes and lips were more delicate than a woman's.

On his back, there were 14 flawless white wings. They were thin and almost overlapped. It was as if there was only one pair.

“The... deity of the angels...” The Seven-Armed Elder’s heart was filled with fear, and his whole body trembled.

In front of a deity, no one could stay calm and collected.

The deity’s power directly hit the cultivator’s soul.

Zhang Ruochen tried hard to resist the suppression of the deity’s power. He gritted his teeth and looked into the eyes emitting light energy. He had no intention of yielding.

“Lord Father!”

Master Ye You kneeled down habitually and kowtowed heavily to the ground. He was frank. He said with tears, “I didn’t expect to see the greatest deity of the angels in the universe in my lifetime. It’s just like the legend. No, it’s more majestic, beautiful, and sacred than the legend. I don’t know why, but I’m deeply convinced.”

“Lord deity, can you accept me as your foster son? I’m willing to be a spy for the Heavenly Realm in the Infernal Court. I’m only willing to contribute the rest of my life for the admiration in my heart.”

When the deity of the angels landed a hundred feet away from the bottom of the sea, revealing his handsome figure.

Because of the appearance of a deity, the seawater seemed to have turned white and contained a mighty Power of Light.

Even though he did not launch an attack on purpose, Master Ye You's Ghost body seemed to have been placed in a sea of fire. It made a cracking sound and emitted green smoke.

The Seven-Armed Elder's body was also purified by the Power of Light. His hair fell off.

The angels' deity gazed at Zhang Ruochen, "You're the Zhang Ruochen who killed countless elites of the Heavenly Realm?" He asked. "You're not bad, but you're a half-human, half-immortal vampire bastard."

His voice was beautiful, but it was filled with nobility and arrogance.

"As expected, an angel does curse." Zhang Ruochen lifted the Ancient Abyssal Sword and sneered.

The Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You looked at each other. They didn't expect Zhang Ruochen to have the guts to speak to a deity like this.

The angels' deity seemed to want to show his self-restraint. He wasn't angry and said, "You should know what will happen to you if you meet me," he said coldly. "So you'd better answer every question I ask. Maybe I can give you a way out."

Zhang Ruochen smiled but didn't say anything.

“Who is the woman who transformed into Ji Fanxin?” The angels’ deity asked.

The cultivators of the Infernal Court might have guessed that Ji Fanxin had the battle strength of a Yuanhui-level genius. But as a deity of the Celestial Court, he only needed to investigate a little to know that it was unreasonable.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t hide it from them.

“If you want to kill me, just do it,” Zhang Ruochen said. “Why are you talking so much nonsense?”

The angels’ deity’s eyes darkened. “Do you think I won’t know if you don’t tell me? It’s easy for the deity to search your soul. However, your Saint Soul and spirit will be seriously affected after your soul is searched.”

“If that’s the case, why haven’t you done anything yet?”

Zhang Ruochen communicated with the vessel spirit of the Shenlong Chaos Tower of Sun and Moon and was ready to strike any time.

‘It was just a new deity in the Heavenly Realm. Could he withstand the Dragon Lord’s power?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

The Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You were already full of admiration for Zhang Ruochen. He’s fearless and courageous. A Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint challenging a deity seemed like an egg hitting a rock. He overestimated himself, but it awakened the boiling blood and pride that had been dormant in their bodies for a long time.

“It’s a pity that there is an ancient god in the Heavenly Realm who wants you, a living Yuanhui-level genius. Otherwise, your soul would have been shattered the first time you talked back to me.”

The angels’ deity said no more. With a thought, a vast light hand condensed in the water and grabbed Zhang Ruochen between his fingers.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to call out the Shenlong Chaos Tower of Sun and Moon. Not only could he not move his body, but his spiritual thoughts were also restricted. He could not even communicate with the vessel spirit.

‘Was he really just becoming the new deity lately?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen felt something was different when the angels’ deity had participated in the attack on Mo Yunduan, he wasn’t this powerless. They were both gods, but there was a huge difference between a pseudo god and a true god.

“The soul search will only hurt your Saint Soul and spirit. I’m sure the ancient god from the Heavenly Realm won’t have any objections.”

The angels’ deity floated in the water. He didn’t move at all. Light tentacles flew out between his brows and surged toward Zhang Ruochen’s sea of Qi.

“There are many deities covering up your secrets. You must have many secrets in your mind.” The angels’ deity’s beautiful eyes were filled with anticipation.

Master Ye You and the Seven-Armed Elder chose to look down and pretend that they couldn’t see anything. However, in their hearts, they cursed that angels’ deity.

Lord of Sword and Lord of Stone wanted to attack, but they were suppressed by the two beams of light power and fell to the ground.

Just as the light tentacles were about to pierce Zhang Ruochen’s forehead, an ear-piercing sound of a sword rang out in the space. All the cultivators present, including Zhang Ruochen, Master Ye You, and the Seven-Armed Elder, temporarily lost their hearing, and everything became dark.

BANG!

Zhang Ruochen fell to the bottom of the sea. He was dazed for a long time before he gradually regained his sight.

He was still in a daze and could not hear anything.

The bottom of the sea became dark again. The angels’ deity disappeared without a trace. For some reason, the Ancient Abyssal Sword in his hand trembled slightly.

After an unknown amount of time, Zhang Ruochen finally recovered completely. He looked at the Ancient Abyssal

Sword again and asked, “Is it her?”

The vessel spirit of the Ancient Abyssal Sword was silent. There was no response.

No response meant an affirmative answer.

The Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You rushed over with strange looks in their eyes.

“What are you trying to say?” Zhang Ruochen activated the Eye of Truth and looked around as if he was looking for something. He just asked casually.

The Seven-Armed Elder said carefully, “Is the deity who attacked just now the one from your Xue Jue family?”

“Yes, you should have heard the chime of the sword just now,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Master, please accept my bow.” Master Ye You unconsciously slipped to his knees and knelt down.

‘Why did he kneel?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Of course, it was because of the lingering fear.

The deity of the Xue Jue family had been nearby. Had he been so careless, he would have become a Sainthood Source by now.

As Zhang Ruochen’s disciple, Master Ye You could drink the Spring of Life and learn the Dimensional techniques. He wouldn’t want to die.

The Seven-Armed Elder’s eyes flickered. He thought to himself, ‘What a close call. Since Zhang Ruochen knows the location of the Fane of Origin, how could he not inform the deity of the Xue Jue family? No wonder Zhang Ruochen dared to release me from the Qiankun Realm. It turns out that he was testing me along the way. It was too dangerous! This sly Zhang Ruochen is too scheming and terrifying, truly terrifying. Death was so close to me.’

The Seven-Armed Elder felt a cold in his spine. He cupped his fists, bowing, he said, “Senior Brother, Ye You and I have picked a lot of sacred medicine. After Lord Ming repels the angels' deity, will you introduce us to him? We can offer the sacred medicine to him as a token of our appreciation."

"Why did you call my Master, Senior Brother?" Master Ye You looked over with his neck straight.

The Seven-Armed Elder stuck out his chest proudly and said, "To tell you the truth, Senior Brother has promised to recommend me to Blood Empress. I will be the Blood Empress's latest disciple in a few days."

Master Ye You's eyes widened, saying, "Master, this is not fair. I wished to be the Blood Empress's disciple."

"Didn't you just take the angels' deity as your foster father?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"It's all a temporary measure. To be honest, what I hate the most in my life are the angels and the Heavenly Realm. Any cultivator of the Ghosts is at odds with them." Master Ye You answered.

"You can't take anyone as your master as you wished. So far, you haven't done anything for the Xue Jue family. How can you take the deity as your master?" said Zhang Ruochen. He withdrew the Light of Truth from his eyes and sighed in his heart. 'The deity's divinity was indeed mysterious. I couldn't even sense them with the Heart of Truth and the Canon of Dimension.'

Master Ye You pointed at the Seven-Armed Elder and said, "Did he do anything?"

The Seven-Armed Elder stroked his beard.

"He's the one who told the Xue Jue family the location of the Fane of Origin," Zhang Ruochen said.

Master Ye You's face turned pale. Then he looked at the Seven-Armed Elder with admiration. He thought, 'This old fox has given up such a big secret. He must have been determined to submit to the Xue Jue family. He even knows that Lord Ming is nearby. He has hinted to me many times about killing Zhang Ruochen together. He is definitely setting me up and trying to kill me. What a dangerous man!'

Zhang Ruochen patted Master Ye You's shoulder and said, "Can you release Xue Tu now?"

Master Ye You's face changed again. He really could not figure out what kind of power Zhang Ruochen had to know that Xue Tu had been suppressed into a Spatial Treasure by him.

Zhang Ruochen was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he was already heaven-defying. He had endless potential in the future. He would definitely be able to set off a shocking wave in the Infernal Court. It might even be an opportunity to take him as a teacher.

Thinking of this, Master Ye You's thoughts suddenly became clear. He let Xue Tu out.

...

A chime from the sword rang out. The angels' deity was also greatly affected. He felt the blood light in front of him fill the sky. Sword Qi was everywhere. Just as he was about to defend, the world suddenly spun.

When he could stabilize himself in the void, he found that he had been pulled into a Divine Plane.

A woman in white stood in the center of the Divine Plane with a blood-red sword in her hand. She looked very young and beautiful. Her skin was as if it was carved out of divine jade and immortal crystals. Her long black hair was as soft as a waterfall. She had an elegant and heroic temperament, like a peerless swordsman who had experienced many vicissitudes of life. She was like a pure maiden who had not stepped out of her house before.

When the angels' deity saw her true appearance, he couldn't help but smile in surprise. "I didn't expect Empress Chi Yao, who supported the entire Kunlun with her own strength, to have such a delicate and pure side. Even more unexpected was that you didn't stay in Kunlun to guard the Battlefield of Merits but secretly came to the Fane of Origin."

"There are many things you didn't expect," said Chi Yao.

Chi Yao waved the sword in her hand, her jade-like fingers wiping the blade, and the corners of her mouth curled into a slight smile.

After she smiled, she became even more beautiful. Even the angels' deity standing opposite her could not help but admire her. They revealed an intoxicated look.

He said, "Among the female gods of the Celestial Court, in terms of beauty and temperament, other than the Moon Goddess, Chi Yao is the only one! Unfortunately, you are a god of Kunlun. Moreover, you chose an ant-like man and gave birth to his child. What a pity."

"You mean, if I choose you, I won't be a pity?" Chi Yao was quite serious, and her eyelashes were straightened.

The angels' deity smiled like a spring breeze and said, "Of course, Kunlun will be protected by the Heavenly Realm, so it won't be destroyed. It's not too late for you to choose again. At least I don't mind."

"My dear Uriel, have you ever thought about why I'm in the Fane of Origin?" Chi Yao smiled, revealing her red lips and white teeth.

The angels' deity's eyes rolled. He suddenly understood, "You've been in contact with Zhang Ruochen for a long time. The hostility between you two is all for the gods of the myriad Macroworlds and Microworlds of Celestial Court and the ten clans of Infernal Court to see. Now I understand. Zhang Ruochen joined the Infernal Court because you ordered him to, right?"

Chi Yao rubbed her fair forehead. She shook her head and sighed. "You're even dumber than I thought. I asked you why I appeared in the Fane of Origin, but you guessed many useless things. Do you think you can still be my man? To tell you the truth, I came to the Fane of Origin to protect my man and kill all enemies against him. You are the first!"

Uriel, the god of the angels, had become an ascended divinity three thousand years ago. He was an extraordinarily talented and proud figure. Still, his anger soared after being ridiculed by Chi Yao, no matter how good his state of mind was.

Many light wheels appeared on his body, breaking free from the suppression of Chi Yao's Divine Plane. He said, "I've long heard you killed a deity from the Infernal Court. With that, you shook the Celestial Court and even made the Celestial Palace look up to you. However, you're too ignorant to dream of killing me."

The two powerful divine auras were already fighting each other.

Chi Yao held the Blood Dropper and used it as a mirror. Looking at her own eyes and face on the sword, she said, "Uriel, you came to the Southern Sword Realm with Sarathiel, right?"

"How did you know?" Uriel's eyes narrowed.

Uriel and Sarathiel had sneaked into the Infernal Court. Almost no one knew about it, and they even managed to hide it from the deities of the Infernal Court. Chi Yao was only a new deity who ascended a few years ago. How could she know their whereabouts like the back of her hand?

There was a conspiracy!

There must be a conspiracy!

Chi Yao smiled, then she said, “If it was Sarathiel, I really can’t guarantee that I would be able to keep him. After all, he has cultivated in the Fane of Dimension for many years and has profound attainments in the Path of Dimension. As for you, I really don’t think much of you.”

Uriel was filled with doubts. He had a faint feeling that something was wrong. He was anxious to escape and stop Sarathiel from bringing the deities from the Heavenly Realm to the Southern Sword Realm.

WHOOSH!

The seven pairs of wings on his back spread open and emitted an extremely bright radiance. They turned into a white divine pillar and flew out of the Divine Plane.

“Do you think that you can still escape?”

In an instant, Chi Yao blocked his path. A seven-colored divine light appeared on her snow-white skin. She was indifferent and otherworldly, like a banished immortal that did not exist in the mortal world.

“Get out of the way.”

Uriel didn’t show any mercy to her. His eyes were filled with awe. Between his hands, a materialized light wheel appeared.

The light wheel turned three thousand meters long. Countless Precepts of Light interweaved within. They spun and collided with the beautiful figure in front of him.

The power of the light wheel caused Chi Yao’s Divine Plane to shake violently. It shook as if it was about to shatter.

WHOOSH!

Chi Yao casually slashed out with her sword, creating a sword light that shot toward the horizon.

The sword light broke the light wheel and hit Uriel’s body. Although it didn’t break through Uriel’s Divine Plane’s defense, it sent him flying back.

“I told you you couldn’t do it. Why don’t you believe me?”

Chi Yao raised the Blood Dropper above her head. Countless Precepts of Swordsmanship gathered on the sword.

The vast Divine Plane turned blood-red in an instant.

“The Canon of Swordsmanship!”

Uriel was shocked. He looked up at the sky. Dense silver light patterns appeared on his forehead, forming an ancient and mysterious pattern.

A lightning streak containing endless divine power flew out from the silver pattern. It was like dozens of silver dragons entangled together, baring their fangs and brandishing their claws at Chi Yao.

“Slash!”

Chi Yao and the Blood Dropper merged into one and turned into a streak of blood light that flew out, destroying the silver flash.

The sword’s tip ruthlessly struck between Uriel’s brows, piercing half an inch deep.

The blood in Uriel’s body surged out by itself and was sucked in by the blood-red sword.

Uriel’s extremely handsome face became distorted. He uttered a long cry and spat out a purple-gold shield from his mouth. It was like a sharp blade as it slashed toward Chi Yao.

Chi Yao raised her wrist slightly and flicked her sword, sending Uriel flying.

Then, she swung her sword back and sent the purple-gold shield flying into the sky. While it was flying in the air, the shield was split into two.

Uriel retreated rapidly. Divine blood flowed continuously from the bloody hole between his eyebrows, and his divine aura dissipated.

WHOOSH!

WHOOSH!

...

Without giving him the chance to stabilize his injuries, Chi Yao slashed out one sword after another like a divine light.

Uriel didn't have the strength to fight back. Even with his true god's physique, he couldn't block it. The sword wounds on his body kept increasing. His white divine feathers were dyed red, and he released angry roars.

Suddenly, Chi Yao stopped attacking and quietly stood to the side. She even put the Blood Dripper back into the sheath.

Uriel steadied himself. Divine Power of Light flashed, and all the wounds on his body disappeared instantly. His eyes were cold as he said, "You still can't kill me."

"You think just because I can't kill you, and that's why you're not dead?" Chi Yao was a little surprised.

Uriel said with certainty, "I admit that you're very powerful. I'm not your opponent. However, it is not that easy to kill a true god. Even if you have grasped some Canons of Swordsmanship with your current cultivation base, it is still far from enough to kill me. And the price of not being able to kill me is too high. You can't afford it."

Chi Yao sighed, "If all the gods in the Heavenly Realm were as self-righteous as you, it would be great."

Uriel said, "Am I wrong?"

"You may not know this, but I'm a petty woman with a strong desire for revenge. I killed you with my sword because I didn't want you to die too easily. I'll use my sword to return every word you said to humiliate Zhang Ruochen to you. Do you still remember how many words you said and how many swords you took?" Chi Yao asked.

Uriel's eyes darkened. He clenched his fists but didn't act rashly. He knew that the woman in front of him was indeed competent. Now that he was trapped in her Divine Plane, it was as difficult as climbing up to the sky to escape.

Suddenly, he looked through the Divine Plane and saw Zhang Ruochen standing beside the three thousand-meter-long divine corpses at the bottom of the sea. He had a plan.

“Since you think highly of that weak ant, I’ll kill him first.”

Uriel grabbed a white halberd from the void.

On the halberd, numerous Supreme Inscriptions appeared. They exploded with Supreme Power.

They were both Supreme Saint weapons. In the hands of a god, the power burst out was thousands or tens of thousands of times more potent than in the hands of a Supreme Saint.

BOOM!

The white halberd seemed to have turned into a pillar supporting the sky. Each Supreme Inscription was like a river flowing, suddenly piercing Zhang Ruochen.

Cracks appeared on Chi Yao’s Divine Plane. It was about to be pierced.

“You’re really courting death.”

Chi Yao’s eyes suddenly became extremely sharp, and her speed was as fast as light. Before Uriel could react, a palm landed on his chest and dented his red armor.

Uriel spat out divine blood and flew backward.

“Come back.”

Chi Yao grabbed Uriel’s wrist and dragged him back.

She changed her palm into a fist and struck him in the chest again.

WHAM!

A crack appeared on the red armor.

Bang Bang

Another 12 consecutive strikes pierced through the red armor. Blood flew out of Uriel’s chest, and he felt extremely depressed. He couldn’t even escape, much less use his strength to counterattack. He was completely crushed.

“Burn, my divine blood!”

Uriel’s eyes were cold and vicious as he shouted in his heart.

Whoosh

Countless sword Qi flew out from Chi Yao's forehead, piercing Uriel's godly physique into a sieve. Then, it exploded and turned into a ball of blood mist and fragments of divine bones.

Without giving Uriel a chance to reassemble his godly physique, a lotus flower that emitted chaotic light flew out from her snow-white palm and absorbed all the blood mist.

This lotus was the supreme treasure left behind by Saint Monk Xumi, the Chaotic Space-time Lotus.

Uriel was in the lotus and re-formed his godly physique. However, many Dimensional Rifts and Marks of Time kept attacking him, destroying his life force bit by bit.

"Chi Yao, you'd better let me go. Otherwise, Kunlun will be doomed forever. Billions of lives will die because of you," Uriel's voice roared in the lotus.

The Chaotic Space-time Lotus floated in Chi Yao's palm. She said calmly, "Is that so? Can you decide the life and death of Kunlun? I only know that I can decide your life and death now."

"You will regret it," said Uriel.

"I want to erase you as soon as possible so that my ears can be clean," said Chi Yao.

After thinking for a while, she took out a clay bottle, poured out a kind of golden flame from the bottle, and dropped it into the lotus.

This clay bottle was formed by the third Confucius forefather when he perfected the Major Path. Legend has it that after the clay bottle was formed, all the characters within a hundred thousand kilometers fell from the book's pages and flew into it.

Billions of characters cast its soul.

Hence, this Supreme Treasure of Confucius was also known as the Bottle of Writings.

The flame in the bottle was collected by Chi Yao from the place where Huoshen had fallen. It was called the Refined Divine Flame. Legend had it that Huoshen had burned himself to death by the Refined Divine Flame he had cultivated, leaving behind only the Armor of the Fire God.

The Refined Divine Flame could burn Huoshen, so it was easy to refine a new god.

After Uriel finally stopped screaming, Chi Yao put away the Chaotic Space-Time Lotus and the Divine Plane. She descended to the bottom of the sea again and silently appeared less than 30 feet away from Zhang Ruochen.

She sat on broken rock and rested her chin on her finger. She looked at Zhang Ruochen quietly. She couldn't help but laugh when she saw him threatening Master Ye You and the Seven-Armed Elder with Lord Ming.

She had been like this for a long time. Standing close to them, she felt like she had returned 800 years ago.

At that time, she and Zhang Ruochen were still at their youngest and most beautiful age. They had the purest love and the kindest heart. They hadn't even killed anyone. They weren't stained with the blood of any living creature. They were inseparable. They were filled with endless hope for the future.

Everything in the world at that time was good, beautiful, and pure. It was as if there was no evil or filth. There was no separation between life and death and no grief or sorrow.

She had never thought of parting with Zhang Ruochen. It was the same 800 years ago and is the same now.

But she knew that she could still be inseparable from him. It was only temporary. Eventually, they would be separated. One day, the Ancient Abyssal Blade and the Blood Dripper would clash.

However...

So what?

At least that day had not come yet.

Chi Yao cleared her mind and took out a wooden comb. She combed her black hair and felt that she had never felt so relaxed and at ease in the past 800 years. She could unload all the burdens and responsibilities on her body.

To Chi Yao, her title, incredible power, and virtue can all be discarded. After she had left Kunlun. She just wanted to be a simple woman.

She would only be known as a simple woman, Yaoyao.

A young girl who seemed to have stopped at the age of sixteen!

Youth will never cease. It stays in the heart always.

Master Ye You pointed his finger at the sky, “Master, I dare to swear to the heavens that I only suppressed him because I don’t like him. I never thought of snatching the sacred medicine from him, let alone killing him. “Just think about it. Given my age and cultivation, shouldn’t I teach him a lesson for being disrespectful to me?”

“In fact, you’ve taken all my sacred medicine!” Xue Tu said resentfully.

Master Ye You glared at him. “Taken? How can you call that taking sacred medicine from your own people? I was keeping it for you. Just think about it. With your cultivation base, if I hadn’t kept it for you, other cultivators would have taken it away!”

“Then return it to me now!” Xue Tu said.

Master Ye You put on a kind face and said, “Child, it’s not safe in the Fane of Origin. How can I be at ease if I leave it to you? I’ll give it back to you when I leave this place.”

Xue Tu couldn’t bear it anymore. This old man actually treated him like a child and fooled him. He had lived more than 20,000 years longer than him, and he was even taking advantage of his age.

“You don’t want to give it to me? I’ll take it myself.”

Xue Tu was caught off guard. He pounced forward and pushed Master Ye You to the ground. He started searching under his clothes.

“Kid... Where are you touching? Stop it. If you don’t stop, I won’t hold back...”

...

Zhang Ruochen ignored the argument behind him. He found the sacred medicine Lord of Sword and Lord of Stone had taken from the giant divine corpse.

“Take it. These belong to you.” Zhang Ruochen returned it to them.

Lord of Sword and Lord of Stone knew that Zhang Ruochen did not lack sacred medicine, so they just took it from him. However, they secretly remembered today’s favor.

BANG!

A figure flew over the three of them.

It was Xue Tu, who had been kicked away by Master Ye You like a rubber ball.

Master Ye You’s black robe was in a mess. He got up from the ground, tied his belt, and cursed, “How dare you disrespect me like this. I would have kicked you to death if you weren’t my master’s Junior Brother.”

Xue Tu ran back. He didn’t know if he had learned it from Master Ye You, but he shamelessly sat down at Zhang Ruochen’s feet. He hugged his thigh and said, “Senior Brother, please stand by me.”

Xue Tu wanted to kneel, but he couldn’t. He couldn’t kneel as naturally and sincerely as Master Ye You.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Master Ye You and was about to speak.

Master Ye You suddenly burst into tears. He sat on the ground in a daze. The half-fastened belt was torn open again, “How many years has it been?” He said. “My old body was humiliated by a junior. My last bit of dignity was lost.”

Then he cried and roared, “Master, I will never return the sacred medicine. He should compensate me. He should because he touched me!”

“You are an old fool. What’s there to touch? Now that you have said it, I feel a little disgusted!”

Xue Tu felt a chill. He had put on his bottom line. He never thought that a Supreme Saint could be so shameless to such an extent.

Master Ye You glared at him with hidden bitterness. With tears in his eyes, he said, “Why didn’t you feel disgusted when you touched them?”

Xue Tu was so disgusted that he wanted to chop off the hands that had touched him just now. This old man could pretend that nothing had happened if word got out. But how could Xue Tu raise his head in the Infernal Court?

Suddenly.

Xue Tu thought of something and laughed.

Master Ye You narrowed his eyes secretly. He felt that something was wrong.

“To tell you the truth, those sacred medicines are all Senior Brother’s.” As he said this, Xue Tu cupped his hands and bowed to Zhang Ruochen. He glanced at Master Ye You with a sneer, saying, “If I cannot keep it, so will you.”

“Damn it, this little bastard is so ruthless in using the move of mutual destruction. Well, in that case, I can only be more ruthless than you.”

Master Ye You wiped away the tears in his eyes. He took a storage bag from somewhere and handed it to Zhang Ruochen. “Master, this bag is full of my compliments. You must accept it.”

Xue Tu’s face changed drastically. He had painstakingly picked the sacred medicine in this bag. He had planned to find an opportunity to slip away and hide on an uninhabited planet in the universe. He would cultivate for hundreds of years, swallow all the sacred medicine, and then return to the Bloodysky Clan.

After being robbed by Master Ye You, he knew it would be difficult for him to get the sacred medicines back with his cultivation. So he gritted his teeth and made up his mind. He decided to give the sacred medicines to Zhang Ruochen to pay off his debts.

But now, Master Ye You was even more ruthless than him. He directly gave the sacred medicines to Zhang Ruochen.

In this way, not only did he not get the sacred medicines back, but he also had to continue paying off the debts he owed Zhang Ruochen.

Xue Tu grabbed Zhang Ruochen's wrist and said, "Senior brother... I picked these sacred medicines with great effort. I even suffered serious injuries when I fought with them."

Zhang Ruochen took the storage bag from Master Ye You and opened it. There were indeed a lot of sacred medicines in it. Each of them contained pure Power of Origin. Their value was immeasurable.

If Xue Tu had gotten these sacred medicines, he would have spent hundreds of years cultivating to reach the Paramount Realm. He would definitely be a top-notch powerhouse in the Paramount Realm.

They were all treasures that could change fate.

Zhang Ruochen took out a most inconspicuous three-leaf Yuanhui level sacred medicine and stuffed it into Xue Tu's hand. "Take it to heal your injuries."

Xue Tu stared at the storage bag and asked, "Senior brother, what about the debt I owed you?"

"There's no rush. You can pay it back later." Zhang Ruochen patted his shoulder.

PFFT!

Xue Tu spat out a mouthful of blood. It was unclear whether he was seriously injured or angry.

Xue Tu didn't hate Zhang Ruochen. He only half-knelt on the ground and stared at Master Ye You, who was smiling. Xue Tu swore in his heart, 'I'll pay you back tenfold in the future.'

On the other side, the Seven-Armed Elder took out a simple brass dagger. He dug open the divine corpse's heart and carefully cut open the palace-sized heart.

Master Ye You rushed over immediately and growled, "We had an agreement before. The heart will naturally belong to me if the divine corpse belongs to me."

"I know, I know. Look at how nervous you are."

The Seven-Armed Elder jumped into the huge heart filled with divine light and searched for a long time. Suddenly, his eyes lit up, and he saw a "Big umbrella" growing in the broken heart sea.

Zhang Ruochen, standing in the sea, smelled a strong fragrance. He looked over.

"It smells so good. What is it?"

Master Ye You became nervous. Just as he was about to jump into the heart of the god, he saw the Seven-Armed Elder flying out with a big umbrella.

The fragrance was even stronger!

"Haha! That Hai Ke was full of death, but I could see a majestic aura of life in his heart. "Think about it. How thick is the death aura of the divine corpse? How high is Hai Ke's attainment in cultivation? A lifeform that can grow out of his body must be a magical treasure. I admit that killing Hai Ke was part of the gamble, but I made the right bet. It was worth it."

Seven-Armed Elder's other five hands grew out of his body unconsciously.

The Seven-Armed Elder was stroking the fragrant umbrella. His intoxicated look was as if he was hugging a naked beauty.

"Do you know what kind of treasure this is?" Seven-Armed Elder asked proudly.

Master Ye You's eyes were wide open. He walked forward and said, "It's the Aromatic Fungus. How can it be?"

The Seven-Armed Elder old man quickly retreated and distanced himself from him. He said, "We've already agreed that you only want the Sainthood Source, the Catastrophic Ax, and the divine corpse. It's too late to regret now!"

Master Ye You was indeed extremely regretful. He should have guessed it long ago. Without an absolutely tempting treasure, how could the Seven-Armed Elder dare to take such a huge risk to kill Hai Ke?

What was the most crucial thing for Master Ye You and the Seven-Armed Elder?

Of course, it was to break through and become a god.

The Seven-Armed Elder old man had already picked a lot of sacred medicines. It was not too difficult for him to cultivate his spiritual power to level 70 and become a spiritual power god.

Now that he had obtained the Aromatic Fungus, it was certain that his spiritual power would break through the level 70 barrier within a hundred years.

The Seven-Armed Elder was a little too pleased with himself. He continued to anger Master Ye You. He smiled and said, "It hasn't been long since Hai Ke gained sentience. However, this divine corpse has probably existed for more than ten periods of time. The Aromatic Fungus must have been nurtured in its heart for hundreds of thousands of years, or even millions of years."

"I suspect that Hai Ke and his master did not pick and refine the Aromatic Fungus because he wanted to continue to nurture it. He treated it as a parasite and great medicine to break through to the Yuanhui level. "Unfortunately, it has fallen into my hands now."

"The mushroom is extremely beneficial to the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, especially to the Demon cultivators. It's a Supreme Treasure."

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen sensed something. He wanted to warn the Seven-Armed Elder who was taunting Master Ye You.

However, he saw that the water was covered in red demonic fog.

A silver bell-like laughter rang out. “I didn’t expect to have such an unexpected harvest. The Aromatic Fungus is indeed a Supreme Treasure to me.”

Boom Boom

A slim red figure appeared beside the Seven-Armed Elder. The two of them exchanged seven blows in a row. When the eighth blow came, the Seven-Armed Elder couldn’t withstand it. He flew out diagonally and fell into the mud.

The red-veiled woman grabbed the “Big umbrella” that had a fragrant smell. Her beautiful eyes revealed a strange glow as she exclaimed, “It is indeed the legendary Path of Demon’s Supreme Treasure. Thank you, I will accept it!”

Master Ye You was ecstatic. Previously, the Aromatic Fungus was in Seven-Armed Elder’s hands, and he had no reason to forcefully snatch it. Now, the opportunity has arrived!

“You demoness, how dare you steal my best friend’s treasure? I will get you for this.”

Master Ye You grabbed the white bone staff and pointed at it. He was about to release his mighty spiritual power, but he was first swept away by the red demonic fog in the water.

The demonic fog was like an unbreakable gauze but also like a lock. It wrapped Master Ye You tightly.

Master Ye You’s expression finally changed. He realized that this demoness was not an ordinary person.

The Demon techniques and beautiful appearance of this woman made him think of a terrifying place.

The most dangerous place of the Rakshasas was the Rāhu Mountains.

Could it be that she was the descendant of the Rāhu Mountains?

Lightning shot out from Master Ye You’s body as he broke through the layers of demon fog. His feet landed on the ground as he said with a cold expression, “May I know your name? Are you from the Rāhu Mountains?”

“At least you have some eyesight. My surname is Guye.”

Guye Jing put away the Aromatic Fungus and crossed her arms in front of her entire chest. She stared at Master Ye You. She said, “Didn’t you want to deal with me? Make your move. Although your strength is ordinary, you have a lot of guts. You are even willing to stand up for your friend. Because of this, I will definitely give you a quick death.”

Master Ye You complained bitterly in his heart. How did he offend the successor of the Rāhu Mountains?

To be called the most dangerous place of the Rakshasas, the demoness who walked out from there was definitely an extremely vicious existence. Even if all of them were added together, it was probably not enough for her to kill.

Rakshasi loved to eat people, but would she eat Ghosts?

It was over for Master Ye You as he had suffered a considerable setback today.

Master Ye You felt his legs go weak again, but he steadied himself this time. He didn’t slip down because he had already thought of a way to escape.

“Demoness, do you know who is standing next to me? He is a famous genius of the Yuanhui level, Zhang Ruochen.” Master Ye You pointed at Zhang Ruochen and smiled.

In Master Ye You’s eyes, he was just an old ghost who didn’t have much time left. This Rakshasi was definitely not interested in him. However, if Zhang Ruochen’s identity was exposed, it would be completely different!

No Rakshasi in the world would not want to take a bite of the body of a Yuanhui-level genius.

Moreover, all cultivators in the Infernal Court knew that Zhang Ruochen had countless treasures in him. Even if the descendant of the Rāhu Mountains attacked, he would definitely be the first to attack Zhang Ruochen.

Taking this opportunity, he would naturally be able to escape.

Thinking of this, Master Ye You couldn't help but admire his quick wit. He smiled to himself and said, "Master, I'm sorry. I also want to live. I can only sacrifice you to feed the Rakshasi."

As Master Ye You had expected, Guye Jing's attention fell on Zhang Ruochen.

Just as Master Ye You was secretly mobilizing his spiritual power and preparing to escape, he heard the Crone from the Rāhu Mountains say, "Zhang Ruochen, didn't you say that we have the closest relationship? Why didn't you tell me that you came to the Fane of Origin alone? You know, this hurts the hearts of others a lot."

Master Ye You was stunned. What was going on?

Why was the Crone's tone so resentful?

Zhang Ruochen said, "We were indeed allies. But when I was targeted by the major forces in the House of Enchanters and the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt on Hoth, why didn't I see your aunt Guye Jing coming to help me?"

Guye Jing could hear the coldness in Zhang Ruochen's tone. It was completely different from before. At least he would pretend to be affectionate friends with her before.

The Seven-Armed Elder crawled out from the depths of the sand. His eyes were thickly bloodshot, and he glared at Guye Jing fiercely, but he didn't dare to act rashly because he was afraid.

He looked at Zhang Ruochen and said, "Senior, this Crone has stolen my treasure. You can't just ignore her. You have to ask the deities to help and suppress her."

Guye Jing was slightly shocked. She released her spiritual power and sensed carefully. As expected, she felt the raw power left by a deity in the nearby sea area.

Could it be that Zhang Ruochen had already invited the god of the Xue Jue Family to the Fane of Origin?

Master Ye You slapped his forehead heavily. How could he forget that the god of the Xue Jue Family was nearby? Why was he afraid of a little Crone?

Master Ye You walked over with a righteous face and said, “Master, if you want to start a war, just tell us. Are we afraid of the Rāhu Mountains now?”

On the other side, Guye Jing burst into laughter with her slender waist trembling slightly, with the beauty to topple all living things. She said, “What kind of nonsense are they calling you? Why did you take two old weirdos as your followers and disciples?”

“Since I took him as my disciple, his business is my business. Guye Jing, if you don’t want us to become enemies, you must return the Aromatic Fungus to me,” Zhang Ruochen said.

The Seven-Armed Elder was not too touched. Zhang Ruochen wanted the Aromatic Fungus, most likely for himself. How could he offend Guye Jing and the Rāhu Mountains for him?

The Seven-Armed Elder knew that Zhang Ruochen and Guye Jing had an ambiguous relationship that was impossible to unravel.

Guye Jing looked even more resentful. She snorted. “You’re going to turn against me for an old monster and an Aromatic Fungus? Are you really so heartless?”

Zhang Ruochen stood with his sword in hand. He looked calm as if Lord Ming was actually nearby.

“It’s just a broken mushroom. What’s so rare about it? With my cultivation, I don’t need it anymore. I’ll return it to you as it is.”

Gu Shizhen was extremely angry. She took out the Aromatic Fungus and threw it over.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the Aromatic Fungus from the air and threw it to the Seven-Armed Elder.

The Seven-Armed Elder's wrinkled face froze. He took the Aromatic Fungus without thinking, and there was a complicated expression on his face as he said, "This..."

As someone who had always been shrewd, he was struck speechless.

This was the Aromatic Fungus. It was a precious treasure. If Zhang Ruochen wanted it for himself, who would dare to refute him? Even if the Seven-Armed Elder was not convinced, he could only accept this loss.

However, Zhang Ruochen did not hesitate to offend Guye Jing and the Rāhu Mountains. He took it back for him and even handed it to him personally.

This touched the Seven-Armed Elder, who had always been unfaithful.

"It's impossible for Zhang Ruochen not to see through my unfaithfulness, but he still can tolerate me. He must know the Aromatic Fungus's true value, but he can still get it back for me. Perhaps joining the Xue Jue Family is not a bad choice."

As he had been a wandering cultivator for over 20,000 years, he had never been willing to join any major forces. He had even refused the invitation of the deities because the Seven-Armed Elder did not believe in any major force, let alone the deities.

In his opinion, every cultivator in the world was selfish.

Zhang Ruochen might be selfish, but the Seven-Armed Elder had followed him for so long, and he could see that Zhang Ruochen was not stingy with the cultivators who followed him.

The Seven-Armed Elder could see that Zhang Ruochen differed from the Infernal Court cultivators. This youngster was a man with feelings and grand ambitions.

As long as such a person didn't die, he would undoubtedly have extraordinary achievements in the future.

“Thank you, senior.”

After a long time, the Seven-Armed Elder put away the Aromatic Fungus and bowed deeply to Zhang Ruochen.

This voluntary bow represented everything.

Master Ye You didn't know that the Seven-Armed Elder's state of mind had significantly changed, but he was shocked by Guye Jing's behavior. Was Zhang Ruochen so charming that the successor of the Rāhu Mountains would take the initiative and return the Aromatic Fungus to him?

Moreover, Zhang Ruochen had actually returned the Aromatic Fungus to the Seven-Armed Elder.

“It seems good to follow Zhang Ruochen. At least I don't have to worry about the treasures I found being taken away by him. Moreover, I can use the power of the Xue Jue Family to deter enemies,” Master Ye You thought to himself.

“Let's go!”

Zhang Ruochen stared at Guye Jing deeply. He then turned around and prepared to leave.

The most important thing now was to meet Ji Fanxin as soon as possible. It was good to find the Canon of Origin. If he couldn't, he also needed to leave the Fane of Origin as quickly as possible.

After all, the deities of the Heavenly Realm and Infernal Court could arrive at any time.

Master Ye You hurriedly put away the Divine Corpse.

Swoosh

A red shadow flashed past them, and Guye Jing appeared beside Zhang Ruochen to explain to him, “You were the one who came out to confront Bai Qing'er in the House of Enchanters of Hoth. How can you blame me for not helping you? Besides, you were hit by the Arrow of Deva Path shortly after you appeared. I didn't have time to respond.”

“And the one who attacked you during the small operation of Oort was just a Lan Ying. You can deal with him without a problem. Is there a need for others to attack?”

“You, Zhang Ruochen, are a genius of the Yuanhui period. It would be best if you had the generosity of the Yuanhui class. I have already returned the Aromatic Fungus. Don’t you understand how important you are? Why are you still angry now?”

Guye Jing pouted and gently punched Zhang Ruochen’s chest with her tender fist.

If it had been the indifferent and cold Guye Jing, perhaps Zhang Ruochen would have fallen out with her and never crossed paths with her again.

However, this delicate and playful Guye Jing appeared, making it difficult for Zhang Ruochen to be angry with her.

The original grudge had dissipated by a lot.

Zhang Ruochen stopped walking and said, “You owe me more than one stalk of Aromatic Fungus.”

“You mean the soul power?”

Zhang Ruochen nodded.

Guye Jing smiled beautifully and said, “You have saved my life. I will definitely return the soul power I owe you. But this shouldn’t be done in the Fane of Origin. If I give you my soul power now, my cultivation and combat power will drop drastically. How can I do what we need to do together?”

Zhang Ruochen had already guessed that Guye Jing must have something important to tell him.

Now, she had finally said it!

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What do you mean by the thing that we need to accomplish together?”

Guye Jing’s expression became serious. She said, “Before I came to the Fane of Origin, a deity from the Rāhu Mountains told me a secret.”

Seven-Armed Elder, Master Ye You, and Xue Tu pretended to be vigilant of the surroundings, but they had all pricked up their ears. They didn't dare to miss a single word Guye Jing said.

Guye Jing said, "The gods found records about the Fane of Origin in an ancient iron book found within the Rāhu Mountains."

"The iron book said that the Fane of Origin was once glorious, respected by all the worlds and worshipped by hundreds of millions of races. In short, it was very powerful, and its influence was as strong as the Celestial Palace and Fane of Destiny now."

"It also mentions that the Fane of Origin had three temple-guarding Divine Artifacts, the Heaven Flute, the Earth Sparrow, and the Star Sword. Each of them was extremely powerful and could pierce through a world or even destroy a galaxy."

"With the disappearance of the Fane of Origin, the whereabouts of the three Divine Artifacts had become unknown."

"Therefore, the deities speculate that the three Divine Artifacts are most likely in the ruins of the Fane of Origin."

"Now, the top elites of the major forces have gone to the center of the Fane of Origin to search for the Canon of Origin. We do not need to join in the fun, but if by chance we can find a Divine Artifact, then wouldn't it be a great harvest?"

Seven-Armed Elder, Master Ye You, and Xue Tu were all excited. Their blood was boiling. A Divine Artifact, and also one which was mentioned in the legends. Wouldn't the vast universe allow them to roam as they like if they could find one?

Zhang Ruochen, on the other hand, was much calmer, "Why did you feel the need to share this secret with me?" he continued. "Also, even if there are really three exceptional Divine Artifacts buried in the ruins of the Fane of Origin, it would be challenging for us to find them with our cultivation."

"Actually, before I came to find you, I had already locked onto an area. It's very likely that the Earth Sparrow, one of the three Divine Artifacts, is hidden there,” Guye Jing said. “But there are a lot of powerful Dimensional Array remnants in that area. I had tried to break through twice but had failed each time.”

“That’s why you thought of me?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing complained, “You came to the Fane of Origin alone. How could you have thought about others?”

Because of the news of the Divine Artifact, Xue Tu’s previous depression had disappeared completely. He walked over and tried to persuade them. “My seniors, please don’t fight among yourselves at such a critical time.”

Guye Jing did not reject the word “Senior.” Instead, she gave Xue Tu an appreciating smile.

However, Blood Butcher felt a chill on his neck as if someone had held a sword there. He thought Guye Jing was hiding a knife in her smile. He quickly restrained himself and said, “You two have important matters to attend to.”

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and said, “I have more important matters to attend to.”

Of course, Zhang Ruochen was tempted by the Divine Artifact.

However, he knew that time was of the essence. He had to find Ji Fanxin first. Since he had invited her to the Infernal Court, he had to send her back unharmed.

Master Ye You hurried over and said, “Master, what is more important than finding the Divine Artifact?”

“Finding the source of the flute sound,” Zhang Ruochen said.

The Seven-Armed Elder suddenly realized that he was going to find the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers.

The Fairy of a Hundred Flowers seemed much more important to Zhang Ruochen than the little Crone of the Rāhu Mountains.

There was no other solution!

Although Ji Fanxin had changed into Bai Qing’er’s appearance, they had all traveled for a considerable distance.

With the Seven-Armed Elder's shrewdness, how could he not see through her true identity?

Guye Jing looked thoughtful and said, "I seem to have heard the sound of a flute in the area where the Earth Sparrow might be hidden. The sound of the flute is delightful but fleeting because it sometimes sounds near but other times far away."

"Are you serious?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing put her hands behind her back and said, "Our Saint Souls are connected. You should be able to sense whether I'm telling the truth or not."

...

Outside the Southern Sword Realm, at the edge of the chaotic area.

In the pitch-black space of the universe, there was a dazzling mass of light floating in the air.

A deity of the angels, Sarathiel, stood in the center of the mass of light. He mobilized his divine force and activated the array towers that were located in eight different directions.

Whoosh

Whoosh

...

The array towers were as tall as mountains. They lighted up layer by layer, releasing countless Dimensional Inscriptions interweaving into an incomparably large dimensional teleportation array.

The dimensional ripples released by the arrays caused even the space thousands of miles away to quiver slightly.

"Once the dimensional teleportation array is activated, the deities of the Infernal Court hiding nearby will definitely sense it. Time is of the essence, so I have to bring the deities of the Heavenly Realm here as soon as possible."

The Divinity Source of Sarathiel flew out of the sea of Qi and shone with a brilliance that was as bright and scorching as a star.

He used the Divinity Source to activate the Dimensional Array. Instantly, the eight array towers began to rotate slowly.

The Ancestral Domain of the Yakshas was very close to the Triangular Starfield of Darkness, at least to the deities.

Bai Qing'er and the cultivators from the various major forces of the Infernal Court fought their way to the Southern Sword Realm, causing a huge commotion. They flew directly above the Ancestral Domain of the Yakshas.

At sunset, Han Ailian had finally woken up Jadea, the ancient deity of the Yakshas, who had fallen into a deep sleep. She told her in detail about what had happened recently.

Jadea had woken up from an ancient area of the sea. On the surface of the sea, she had condensed a body that seemed both real and unreal simultaneously.

She looked at the sky where the Triangular Starfield of Darkness was located and said, "Is the Fane of Origin about to come into being after such a long time?"

"Master, how can you be sure that the Fane of Origin is about to come into being?" Han Ailian asked in surprise.

Han Ailian had always thought that the so-called Fane of Origin was a myth. He thought it was just someone trying to use the Fane of Origin to stir up trouble and achieve an unknown goal.

Jadea said, "There are some things that you shouldn't know yet. "Actually, that vast Triangular Starfield of Darkness used to have many brilliant stars. It had a mighty civilization, and the Yakshas had a deep relationship with it."

“You better tell the clan emperor to activate the Realm Defense Array to deal with the dangers we might face later.”

Yu Lingshen turned into a streak of divine light and flew at an unparalleled speed toward the Triangular Starfield of Darkness.

Not long after, she stopped at the edge of the Triangular Starfield of Darkness and looked at an asteroid in front of her with a strange look.

There were two figures on the asteroid.

One of them was Asurendra Samay.

Asurendra Samay’s figure was covered by a ball of divine light and was quite blurry to the naked eye. However, his Asuran Divine Warsoul, the Eight-armed Asuran, was like a vast mountain standing on the asteroid.

The other figure was only the height of a normal human. He wore a long robe embroidered with a fiery sun wheel imprint. His face was handsome and divine, and he looked only about thirty years old.

“Where is Jadea going?” He asked with a smile.

Jadea knew that since this person had appeared here, she herself definitely wouldn’t have the chance to find the Fane of Origin. She could only fly onto the asteroid and said, “I heard that a large number of Infernal Court youngsters have entered the Triangular Starfield of Darkness, and was curious, so I decided to rush over and investigate. I didn’t expect that the Divine Master and Asurendra Samay would also come over.”

Asurendra Samay snorted, feeling uneasy. If it weren’t for Divine Onmyoji stopping him, he would have entered the Fane of Origin long ago.

Divine Onmyoji belonged to the Fane of Destiny. He was the second most influential figure in the Divination Division, one of the three divisions, and was second only to the Divination Reverend.

Divine Onmyoji smiled like a spring breeze. “Jadea, there’s no need to be curious. We’re all deities from the Infernal Court, so there's nothing to hide. The Fane of Origin has been born, and it's located in the Southern Sword Realm of the Triangular Starfield of Darkness."

Jadea didn't expect the other party to tell her the truth so directly, so she pretended to be surprised, saying, "Legend has it that the Fane of Origin, which has been gone for more than a hundred million years, is actually going to be born! Why are the two of you staying here and not going to the Southern Sword Realm?"

Divine Onmyoji smiled but didn't say anything.

Asurendra Samay said in a gloomy voice, "The Ancestral Domain of the Yakshas is only a short distance away from the Triangular Starfield of Darkness. It's impossible that you, Jadea, haven't gone in to investigate, right?"

"I did investigate, but unfortunately, I didn't find anything," Jadea answered truthfully.

Asurendra Samay laughed loudly. "The Southern Sword Realm is only a few hundred million kilometers from the Triangular Starfield of Darkness border. Given your cultivation level, how could you have missed discovering it?"

Jadea's face turned cold, saying, "The Triangular Starfield of Darkness has existed for countless years. Countless cultivators have gone in to investigate, but who could discover the Southern Sword Realm? What exactly is the meaning of this, Asurendra Samay?"

Asurendra Samay said, "Do you know why we stayed here and didn't go to the Southern Sword Realm? Because the Divine Master suspects that someone had deliberately used the Fane of Origin as bait and set a trap to lure the deities of the Infernal Court to their deaths."

Jadea was enraged. "Could it be that you all suspect that I am setting up a trap?"

"The Yakshas have always been ambitious. They want to become the eleventh clan of the Infernal Court and enjoy the same status and authority as the ten great clans. The deities of the Infernal Court have fallen, and the Yakshas have seized the opportunity to rise up. That is not impossible,” Asurendra Samay replied.

“Asurendra Samay, if you continue to spout nonsense and slander the Yakshas and me, don’t blame me for being impolite to you.”

Jadea released a mighty divine might, and a sea of divine Qi that spanned tens of thousands of miles appeared beneath her feet, causing even the stars in the sky to tremble.

All the living beings in the Ancestral Domain of the Yakshas could see a ball of divine clouds and light spots appearing in the distant starry sky.

Even though they were tens of billions of miles away, they could still sense a faint pressure.

However, Asurendra Samay wasn’t afraid of Jadea, and he continued, “Are you confident that you will be able to survive the fourth Yuanhui Tribulation? I remember that you barely managed to survive the third Yuanhui Tribulation. Even so, why didn’t you go to the Jadeite Realm to look for opportunities? Isn’t that suspicious?”

Jadea said, “I wanted to ask you the same question. Why didn’t you go to the Jadeite Realm? Could it be that you are confident that you can survive the next Yuanhui Tribulation?”

Asurendra Samay sneered and said, “It’s none of your business.”

“If that’s the case, then it’s none of your business if I didn’t go to the Jadeite Realm,” Jadea said.

Asurendra Samay didn’t go to the Jadeite Realm, of course, because he knew that his injuries were too severe. Even if he found something in the Jadeite Realm that could help him survive the Yuanhui Tribulation, it wouldn’t be helpful.

On the contrary, if he could take advantage of the absence of Wardeity Bloodximius to capture Zhang Ruochen, he would have a bright future.

Asurendra Samay said, “How do you explain the Light of Origin that appeared at the Yakshas’ sacred ground in the Royal City of Hundred Clans?”

“I’ve heard about that, but I haven’t had the chance to go to the Royal City of Hundred Clans to investigate,” Jadea replied.

Asurendra Samay replied, “I’m afraid this is a scheme of the Yakshas. They want to use this to startle the entire Infernal Court and attract all the major powers here.”

Jadea glanced at Divine Onmyoji. Seeing that he didn’t say anything, she was worried that the Fane of Destiny would think so too. Hence, she stretched out her divine hand and grabbed at Asurendra Samay.

“Asurendra Samay, the Yakshas have no enmity with you. But since you are slandering them like this, I must seek justice for the Yakshas.”

Jadea’s attack was extremely fast, but when it was about to land on Asurendra Samay, it became slower and slower.

The flow of time around Asurendra Samay’s body was almost at a standstill. No matter how Jadea’s attack could break the sky or shatter the ground, it still couldn’t hurt him, and was quickly neutralized by his power.

At this moment, although Asurendra Samay’s injuries were severe, he was in peak condition. He wasn’t like when he fought with Lord Ming, the Blood Empress, and Wardeity Bloodximus. At that time, he was restrained by Chi Kongyue’s weakening bindings and couldn’t use his divine force. His Saint Soul was also affected by Jade Swallow Pendant. As a result, he couldn’t even use one-tenth of his combat power. Thus, he suffered a great humiliation at that time.

“Again.”

Jadea turned serious, and her body emitted an extremely dazzling light, but the aura she emitted was extremely cold.

The small rock planet under her feet instantly turned into an ice planet.

Swoosh

Divine Onmyoji placed itself between the two deities. Without using any magical technique, a vast Yin Yang imprint appeared under his feet, separating Jadea and Asurendra Samay, who were both about to fight. He also moved them to two different directions.

Jadea and Asurendra Samay felt that their bodies were out of their control. The two deities were already several hundred miles apart when they regained their balance.

They looked at Divine Onmyoji at the same time and were both extremely shocked.

This junior, who had just survived the calamity of the two Yuanhui Tribulations, had already reached such a terrifying level of cultivation.

Divine Onmyoji smiled and said, “Both of you, please calm down. Jadea, you can not blame Asurendra Samay for being so suspicious. After all, the appearance of the Fane of Origin is indeed suspicious.”

“Firstly, the appearance of a supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin in the hands of a wild Saint-level cultivator is most suspicious.”

“Secondly, regarding the appearance of the Light of Origin in the Royal City of Hundred Clans, which is most definitely man-made.”

“Thirdly, the appearance of the Fane of Origin happened right after the opening of the Jadeite Realm. It was the time when the Infernal Court was at its most empty. Isn’t that too much of a coincidence?”

“Fourthly, the Divination Division’s Divine Artifact, the Tensho Compass, has gone missing. Even I can’t sense its location. It can only mean that the cultivator who suppressed it has higher cultivation and spiritual power than me. Now, who can that person be? With the Celestial and Infernal Court’s current empty state, We can count such exceptional figures on one hand.”

“These signs of human intervention scares me. I have to be more careful from now on.”

Jadea was silent for a moment before saying, "Hence, the Divine Master is worried that the Fane of Origin is a trap specially designed to kill the deities of the Infernal Court. Once you enter, you will never be able to return."

Divine Onmyoji nodded.

"However, other than me, all the deities of the Yakshas have gone to the Jadeite Realm. It's impossible for them, and they don't have the strength to set up all of this." Jadea said.

"The one who set up the trap must be from the Celestial Court, and the Yakshas could be involved," Asurendra Samay said coldly.

Jadea glared at him angrily.

Divine Onmyoji immediately stopped Asurendra Samay; he smiled and said, "I naturally believe in the Yakshas and Jadea. However, please cooperate with the Fane of Destiny and don't go to the Southern Sword Realm for the time being. Otherwise, the whole situation may go out of control."

Jadea naturally understood the severity of the situation. She nodded and said, "Therefore, should we let those juniors seize the opportunities in the Fane of Origin?"

"This is the safest way!" Divine Onmyoji said.

Jadea said, "They are just a group of Saint-level juniors. Even if they were all killed in the Fane of Origin, a group of them could grow up again after a thousand years. The losses and risks can indeed be minimized through this way."

"However, that deity from the Xue Jue Family had gone in. If it wasn't a trap, wouldn't all the benefits go to the Xue Jue Family?" Asurendra Samay said with extreme jealousy and hatred.

Divine Onmyoji smiled and said, "Both of you have underestimated the abilities of this group of Saint-level juniors. Once they find an opportunity to break through and achieve divinity in the Fane of Origin, they will be able to restrain that deity from the Xue Jue Family..."

Divine Onmyoji's expression suddenly froze as he looked toward the Triangular Starfield of Darkness.

In the next moment, Asurendra Samay and Jadea also sensed something, and there was shock in their eyes.

Divine Onmyoji turned around and faced Asurendra Samay and Jadea with the other side of his body. However, it wasn't his back that they expected, but a beautiful and dignified woman with a moon imprint embroidered on her front.

Her slender snow-white hands formed a lotus shape and said, "I've already calculated that it's a dimensional fluctuation and a divine force fluctuation with a light aura."

"However, the Triangular Starfield of Darkness is quite special. A mysterious force interferes with the calculation, so I can't calculate which deity had released the fluctuation."

Asurendra Samay's spirit was immediately roused. He smiled and said, "The deities of the Celestial Court are stirring up a lot of trouble. Since they have come to the Infernal Court, how can we let them go back?"

Asurendra Samay was interested in Zhang Ruochen in the Fane of Origin and the Fane of Origin itself. However, he could not find an opportunity to go to the Southern Sword Realm for a long time. Now that the situation was gradually getting more evident and if he did not make a move now, when would he do it?

Divine Onmyoji thought about it and didn't say anything. He still felt that there was something fishy about this.

Asurendra Samay said, "The deities of the Celestial Court have all taken the initiative to release their auras. They're clearly provoking us."

"Divine Master, this is the territory of the Infernal Court. Even if the Fane of Origin has a deity-killing trap, we just need to gather enough deities to flatten it," Jadea said.

Divine Onmyoji decided and said, "Alright, let's meet the Celestial Court deities first and see whether our old friends are there!"

He made this decision mainly because there were quite a few Saint-level juniors in the Infernal Court who had great potential among the youngsters who entered the Fane of Origin this time. If all of them died, the losses would be significant.

Secondly, it was very likely that the Tensho Compass was taken away by the deities of the Celestial Court.

The Divination Division's Divine Artifact must not be lost.

Bang

Divine Onmyoji, Asurendra Samay, and Jadea broke through the air and flew away. They did not take long to arrive at the space outside the Southern Sword Realm.

They saw a bright dimensional teleportation array floating in the center of the eight array towers.

There were a total of nine figures in the array.

One of them was Sarathiel. As he had expended a lot of energy, he was sitting cross-legged and recovering the divine Qi in his body.

Jiatianxia was clad in scarlet divine armor. His aura was like an imposing mountain, and the eight blood wings on his back were emitting crimson light. He looked into the distance and smiled. "Asurendra Samay and Divine Onmyoji are here, as well as Jadea of the Yakshas."

"Just the three of them? If the Fane of Origin is really a trap set up by the Infernal Court and wants to kill us, there should at least be a deity guarding it, right?" The Lord of the Soul Realm snorted.

Sarathiel said, "Uriel and I went in before to investigate, but there was no trace of anything being set up. On the contrary, a large number of saint-level cultivators from the Infernal Court had entered, including Yan Yu of the Yanluo clan, Yuan Qianmo of the Fane of Death, Xing Luo of the Fane of Destiny, and Zhang Ruochen of the Immortal Vampires. If it's really a trap, the people of the Infernal Court would be too cruel to sacrifice them."

Jiatianxia said, “Whether it was a trap or not, as long as one of these three before us is suppressed, the deities of the Infernal Court will not be able to sit still. Any trap by them has to be exposed.”

On the other side, Divine Onmyoji saw Jiatianxia, the Lord of the Soul Realm, and the others in the dimensional teleportation array. His expression changed, and he immediately projected this image with his eyes.

In the next instant, this image appeared in the mind of Divine Onmyoji’s avatar in the Fane of Destiny, which was billions of miles away.

“This is not good. The deities of the Celestial Court have appeared in the Southern Sword Realm on such a large scale. Something big is about to happen. We must immediately invite the Reverend to take charge of the situation.”

Divine Onmyoji’s avatar immediately rushed over to the Death Palace.

In the Fane of Destiny, only two Reverends did not went to the Jadeite Realm. One was Skywrath, who was in charge of the Battlefield of Merits, and the other was Death Reverend, who was in charge of the Divine Domain of Destiny.

The ruins of Fane of Origin were incredibly vast. Secret areas were everywhere, and every step was filled with killing intent. Even though Zhang Ruochen and the others had high cultivation, they still took a long time to reach the area that Guye Jing had mentioned.

The seawater here was as black as ink and extremely cold.

Zhang Ruochen's vision and perception were greatly affected. He couldn't help but be on guard.

Xue Tu couldn't help but shiver. Looking at the endless darkness ahead, he said, "This place is so cold and can even affect a Supreme Saint. But why isn't the seawater frozen? This is definitely a place of murder."

Seven-Armed Elder released his spiritual power and formed a small world that enveloped Zhang Ruochen, "There seems to be a strange power in the seawater. It's eroding my body all the time. If a cultivator below the Supreme Saint came here, he'd probably be instantly corroded into a monster by that power."

Zhang Ruochen said, "It's Demonic Qi."

"How could it be Demonic Qi? I've seen many demonic cultivators. Their auras are similar to this power, but they're different," said Seven-Armed Elder.

"It's indeed Demonic Qi."

Guye Jing said, "This area has existed for ten thousand years. There must be something different between the Path of Demon in the past and present. According to the iron book, the Earth Sparrow, also known as Demon Geospiza, is the earliest record of Path of Demon in the world.

“It is precisely because there is such a dense ancient Demonic Qi here that I guessed the Demon Geospiza might be hiding here.”

Xue Tu said carefully, “I don’t know what kind of Divine Artifact the Demon Geospiza is. What if the vessel spirit is still in it and has a strong demonic nature? Wouldn’t it be suicide for us to barge in like this?”

“The vessel spirit of Divine Artifact will also have to go through the Yuanhui Tribulation. After so many years, the vessel spirit has long disappeared,” Master Ye You said.

Xue Tu said, “Since it has been so many years, what if a new vessel spirit is born?”

“This...”

Master Ye You was speechless. His eyes couldn’t help but turn cold. He felt that Xue Tu liked to argue with him too much. He secretly decided to find an opportunity to teach him a good lesson.

Guye Jing said, “The materials used to refine a Divine Artifact are all the ultimate materials in the universe. Even if they go through the ages, they will not decay. It is indeed possible for Divine Artifact to give birth to a new vessel spirit. However, if the vessel spirit wants to cultivate on its own and reach divinity, it is as difficult as ascending to the heavens. Therefore, we don’t have to worry too much.”

Seven-Armed Elder said, “There is one thing that I think we should clarify in advance.”

“What is it?” said Guye Jing.

Seven-Armed Elder said, “If we find Demon Geospiza and subdue it, who should this Divine Artifact belong to? It can’t all belong to you, right?”

“This is indeed something we should discuss in advance!” Master Ye You said.

Guye Jing seemed to have expected that they would raise this question. She said with a smile, “The place where the Divine Artifact resides must be extraordinary. There are probably other rare treasures.

“Our biggest problem now is that it’s difficult to enter this area. Why don’t we join hands and break in? We can divide the rare treasures we encounter equally. And if Demon Geospiza is really inside, we can subdue it with our abilities. The Divine Artifact will belong to whoever can subdue it. What do you think?”

“In this way, doesn’t everyone have a chance?” Xue Tu’s expression was significantly boosted.

Guye Jing said, “Yes! Legend has it that many Divine Artifacts choose their owners. There was even a case where a Divine Artifact submitted to a saint.”

This suggestion made Seven-Armed Elder and Master Ye You’s eyes light up. They didn’t have any objections.

As for Guye Jing, if she wanted to take the Divine Artifact for herself, it wouldn’t be so easy for them. After all, if they worked together with Zhang Ruochen, she might not be able to gain any advantage in this place filled with the remnants of a Dimensional Array.

Zhang Ruochen was calm from the start. He mobilized Heart of Truth, activated Eye of Truth, and carefully sensed and observed.

Unfortunately, this area was too strange. The Heart of Truth was greatly affected and could only detect a tiny area.

“Let’s go in and talk about it. Ye You, and Guye Jing, go ahead and open a path,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Master Ye You’s attainments in Path of Dimension weren’t low. Guye Jing had broken in twice, so they advanced slowly. They didn’t encounter too much danger for now.

Xue Tu was still at the back, cleaning up the tracks.

Zhang Ruochen had been studying and observing along the way. Suddenly, he said, “There are a lot of dimensional bubbles and folded dimensions here. You better follow closely, so you don't get separated or lost in the layers of space."

"There's a shadow!" Xue Tu exclaimed.

Everyone stopped in unison and looked at the sky on the right.

About 10 miles away from them, 300 to 400 feet above the ground, there was a road made of giant stones. It connected from the ground up to the end of their line of sight.

Although it was in the water, it was like a road to the sky, leading to an unknown place.

A long line of human figures appeared on the road.

"Why is there a floating road, and it's slanting upwards?"

"It's too far. I can't see who it is. It can't be an image left from ancient times, right?"

"Why don't we go over and take a look?"

Zhang Ruochen stopped Master Ye You, who wanted to go over, "The space here is very complicated. Although it looks like it's only ten miles away from us, it might be thousands of miles away. That road looks like it's slanting upwards, but it's very likely to be a flat road.

"And the figures walking on that road. I've seen them clearly. They're not ancient images but cultivators from Fane of Death. The one walking in front is Yuan Qianmo."

"Master, you can see that clearly?" Master Ye You didn't believe it.

How could a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint's eyesight be so assertive?

Guye Jing walked over and asked, "Is it really Yuan Qianmo?"

Zhang Ruochen nodded.

Seven-Armed Elder's expression became solemn. "Didn't Yuan Qianmo and the Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of Fane of Death go to the hinterland of Fane of Origin? Have we already reached the hinterland?"

Yuan Qianmo was too famous. Who in the secular world wasn't afraid of him?

They'd just killed Deathkin's Hai Ke, so they felt weak.

Guye Jing said, "Your Dimensional attainments are profound. Can you roughly estimate how far they are from us?"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. "It's too far. It's hard to tell."

"Why don't we go closer and take a look?" Guye Jing suggested.

Master Ye You was a little scared. He said, "Let's not do that. Yuan Qianmo alone is enough to destroy all of us. Besides, he has many Neverwilt Realm warriors of Fane of Death. If we go closer, the consequences will be unimaginable."

Guye Jing said, "Yuan Qianmo is such a character. He didn't fight for Canon of Origin, but he appeared here. He must have an important purpose. Besides, the book collection of Fane of Death is above The Rāhu Mountains. It may contain more information about Fane of Origin and Demon Geospiza."

"If that's the case, why don't we follow them? We can wait for them to wear themselves out."

"It's too risky!"

Master Ye You was very timid. He didn't dare to provoke the powerful Fane of Death.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a while and said, "It is not a good idea for us to search aimlessly. Since the cultivators of Fane of Death gave up fighting for Canon of Origin and appeared here, they must have some useful information. It is indeed our best choice to follow them."

Guye Jing was happy. She knew that Zhang Ruochen had enough courage and boldness.

Zhang Ruochen was worried that Ji Fanxin might be in extreme danger if she fell into this area and was found by the cultivators of Fane of Death.

Zhang Ruochen ordered, "I'll lead the way next."

“Ye You, set up a formation to hide our aura. Don’t let Fane of Death sense our presence.

“Seven-Armed Elder, be alert. Deal with the unknown dangers that may appear.

“Xue Tu, clean up the traces.”

Zhang Ruochen looked to the far right and saw that the road that extended from the ground to the top was rapidly fading and was about to disappear.

“Open!”

Zhang Ruochen secretly mobilized Canon of Dimension and pointed forward.

Crack! Crack!

The invisible Dimensional Inscriptions were broken one by one. Where there was no road, Zhang Ruochen forcefully paved the way.

Then, Zhang Ruochen worked out every difficulty, like when they encountered the broken cliff of space, the primitive realm of Dimensional Array, the chaotic Dimensional Array...

The broken cliff of space was like a natural cliff. There was no road there.

Zhang Ruochen only pointed forward with his finger, and a road of space automatically extended to the horizon.

The primitive realm of Dimensional Array was even stranger. It was only a few hundred feet wide, but after Guye Jing fell in, she found herself in a Ruins Realm that was hundreds of thousands of miles wide. She could not get out, no matter how hard she tried.

In the end, Zhang Ruochen broke in and brought her out.

...

Gradually, they caught up with the cultivators of Fane of Death.

They were still more than ten miles apart, but even with Xue Tu’s cultivation, he could clearly see Yuan Qianmo’s face.

This meant that the distance of more than ten miles was accurate and not separated by layers of space.

Just as Zhang Ruochen had speculated, the cultivators of Fane of Death did not walk up the giant stone path diagonally but straight forward.

It had been an illusion caused by Dimensional Warp.

“They seem to have stopped. What are they doing?” Xue Tu asked.

The cultivators of Fane of Death had indeed stopped. They used crystals emitting divine light to build a simple altar.

Guye Jing stood to Zhang Ruochen’s right. She used her slender arm to gently bump into him. Smiling sweetly, she said, “Do you know who is the young cultivator standing next to Yuan Qianmo?”

Zhang Ruochen observed carefully and said, “Strange! Why is a Demi-Saint youth following a group of top elites of Fane of Death? Is he Huan Zhen?”

“Yes, he’s one of the only six Masters of Origin in Celestial and Infernal Court that I’ve mentioned to you before, Huan Zhen. Yuan Qianmo must be up to no good if he brought Huan Zhen here.” Guye Jing smiled. She seemed to be very interested in this situation.

Master Ye You and Seven-Armed Elder were trembling with fear. They were highly cautious, afraid that Yuan Qianmo would notice them. Guye Jing was the only one who could still smile at this moment.

Guye Jing said, “Why are you so afraid? The god of Xue Jue Family is nearby. Why are you afraid of Yuan Qianmo?”

“The deity must also look for fortuitous encounters. They can’t stay by my side all the time,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing smiled in her heart. This was normal.

How could a deity enter Fane of Origin without going to the hinterland to investigate?

On the way, Zhang Ruochen didn't sense any cultivators following him, so he determined that Chi Yao was most likely restrained by angles' deity!

Zhang Ruochen wasn't too shaken. In his opinion, Chi Yao had come to Fane of Origin mainly because of Dragon Lord. Dragon Lord probably wanted to use this opportunity to resolve the hatred and conflict between the two.

Unfortunately, Dragon Lord was just an outsider. He didn't understand the love-hate relationship between Zhang Ruochen and Chi Yao.

How many subjects of Shengming Central Empire had Chi Yao's soldiers killed?

How many disciples of the Chi family had Zhang Ruochen killed when he led Shengming Central Empire's old subjects to break into Lingxiao Heavenly Palace?

The hatred didn't belong to just the two of them.

Besides, the conflict between them wasn't as simple as hatred.

Without Chi Yao, Zhang Ruochen felt much more relaxed. He didn't want to owe her too much today. He didn't want to be too soft-hearted when they fought in the future.

The two people on opposite sides shouldn't get too close.

Chi Yao should understand this.

Chapter 2589: Giant Stone Altar

The road made of giant stones was 300 feet wide. Ten carriages could run side by side.

However, there were many forks on this road.

At this moment, Fane of Death cultivators led by Yuan Qianmo stopped at a fork. They used Divine Crystal of Origins to build a small three-foot-tall altar.

It was an ordinary Divine Crystal of Origin, not a supreme-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

Yuan Qianmo, whose hair was as white as snow, put his hands behind his back and said casually, "Huan Zhen, go."

Huan Zhen nodded and walked forward. He cut his wrist and dripped the blood from his body onto the divine crystal altar.

He was a Master of Origin. Even though he was only a Demi-Saint, his blood still contained pure Power of Origin.

Swoosh

A blood pillar rushed out of the divine crystal altar.

The surface of the blood pillar was covered with a faint Light of Origin.

Yuan Qianmo looked in the direction of the blood pillar. He pointed forward and said, "Go this way."

He took the lead and said, "Benji, put away the altar and clean up the traces."

Benji didn't complain. Instead, he answered positively, "Don't worry, Fourth Brother. There won't be any traces left. Other cultivators can't follow the path we opened."

There were a total of fourteen cultivators present. Except for Yuan Benji and Huan Zhen, they were all in Paramount Realm.

These weren't all the experts from Fane of Death. They were just the direct descendants of Yuan Qianmo.

The reason why Yuan Benji was able to become one of them was because of his blood relationship with Yuan Qianmo. Otherwise, he wouldn't have had the right to participate and share the benefits.

Thus, he had to do the dirty work.

Huan Zhen followed Yuan Qianmo with an apologetic face. "Master, it's all my fault that my cultivation base is too low. If I could reach Paramount Realm, I wouldn't need to build an altar. I could sense the Canon of Origin with just my saint soul."

Yuan Qianmo patted his shoulder and smiled warmly. "You've done well. If it weren't for your sense, we would have gone to the hinterland of Fane of Origin and fought with the big forces. It's hard to say how many Canon of Origin we could get and many cultivators would have died there. We wouldn't be able to get a Canon alone like now."

"What if I'm wrong?" Huan Zhen was a little worried.

They had come here because Huan Zhen had sensed a strong aura of origin besides the hinterland of Fane of Origin.

Such a strong and pure aura of origin must be caused by Canon of Origin.

At first, Huan Zhen didn't dare to be sure. However, his master seemed to have some information. He was convinced that there must be a lot of Canon of Origin here. Thus, they changed their route and came here.

Yuan Qianmo smiled calmly, "Even if it's wrong, it's because I made a wrong judgment. I will take all the responsibility."

What are you worried about?”

Huan Zhen felt relieved when he heard this. He laughed.

The Paramount Realm Supreme Saints who followed Yuan Qianmo also laughed.

The reason why they followed Yuan Qianmo was not only because he was ranked first in the “Tome of the Divines” and had a bright future. It was because Yuan Qianmo had a strong personality that made people willing to work for him.

Yuan Qianmo was such a perfect person. He had no flaws and was full of advantages.

Zhang Ruochen and the others followed them from a distance, passing through one fork after another.

Xue Tu asked curiously, “Where do you think these fork roads lead to?”

Master Ye You said, “Often, the places where the most valuable treasures are hidden will design some paths of life and death. If you make the wrong choice and end up at a dead end, I’m afraid that ordinary gods will die.”

Xue Tu said, “It can’t be! Fane of Origin had sunk to the bottom of the sea for many years. Even if those dead ends used to have a god-killing array or the god-killing Divine Marks carved by gods, their power would definitely be greatly reduced now. They might even lose their power.”

Why were they arguing again?

Master Ye You narrowed his eyes, and a cold light flashed in his eyes. He said, “Why don’t you go and try to walk a dead end?”

“Stop arguing. Look ahead,” Seven-Armed Elder said.

Xue Tu and Master Ye You both looked over and showed an ecstatic look.

At the road’s end was an altar made of huge rocks.

The altar was extremely magnificent. It extended for dozens of miles.

It was about 30,000 feet high. At the top of the altar, a strange building could be seen. However, the seawater was too dark. Even with the Eye of Truth, Zhang Ruochen could not see the structure of the building clearly.

The cultivators of Fane of Death had already climbed up the giant stone altar.

“Let’s follow them, or they will take all the good stuff!”
Master Ye You was so excited that he could not speak clearly. He kept pursing his lips.

At this moment, he had forgotten the word “Fear” entirely.

They felt even more shocked when they reached the bottom of the giant stone altar. The altar was like a divine wall that divided heaven and earth. It could last forever and would be hard to corrode even after billions of years.

Each huge stone was 120 feet long and 120 feet tall.

There were wind, rain, thunder, and lightning carvings on the vast stone. There were also all sorts of ancient beast carvings and human figures that were already blurry. Even now, there were still Divine Marks flowing on the patterns. One could imagine how terrifying the cultivation of the person who left the Divine Marks was.

Each level of the giant rock altar was 120 feet tall, like a straight and neat cliff wall.

Zhang Ruochen and the others broke through the Divine Marks between the giant rocks and climbed dozens of levels in a row.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen felt something. He looked up, and his face changed slightly. He saw a ghost cloud pressing down from above.

From the ghost cloud, a 3.6-meter-tall Nine-Tribulation Ghost Emperor rushed out. He held a broadsword and slashed down.

BOOM

The invisible array enveloped Zhang Ruochen, and the others were broken like a bubble.

Seven-Armed Elder quickly mobilized his spiritual power. He pointed out with his finger. A Fire Pillar shot out from his fingertip and hit the Nine-Tribulation Ghost Emperor but Nine-Tribulation Ghost Emperor blocked with his sword. The broadsword turned into a shield and flew out diagonally. He landed on the giant stone platform on the right side of Zhang Ruochen and the others.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the Nine-Tribulation Ghost Emperor and muttered to himself, “It’s the ghost servant. It seems that we’ve been discovered!”

He had seen Yuan Qianmo’s ghost servant on Hoth.

A ghost who had survived Nine-Tribulation Ghost was in Paramount Realm.

Yuan Qianmo’s slightly smiling voice came from above. “I was wondering who was following behind. It’s you, Zhang Ruochen. You’ve got guts.”

Yuan Benji laughed loudly. “He saved us a lot of trouble by seeking death on his own.”

Yuan Qianmo was in the center. More than a dozen influential figures of Fane of Death lined up. They appeared on the giant stone steps 120 feet above Zhang Ruochen and the others, looking down at them.

...

Chapter 2590: Saber of Light From the Altar

Above them, beams of Saint Aura that could suppress the heavens and earth descended. All sorts of miraculous scenes of the Precept Domain appeared.

Three Black Islands appeared above the head of the Supreme Saints of Fane of Death and floated in space.

There was an Amphisbaena same as Paramount Realm. A five-colored river appeared around him, and the sound of the water was deafening.

The clouds of Qi of Death enveloped the entire Altar of Megalithic. The thunders and lightning that were as thick as buckets shuttled through them.

Master Ye You, Seven-Armed Elder, and Xue Tu were all shocked.

It wasn't that they hadn't seen a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint before. But it was shocking, with more than ten Paramount Realm cultivators in the array simultaneously. Besides strong figures like Wuma Jiuxing and Bai Qing'er, who wouldn't be scared in the secular world?

Zhang Ruochen knew that once he started to step on the Altar of Megalithic, he wouldn't be able to hide his tracks. So he didn't panic too much.

Everyone only felt a flash of light in front of them, and their bodies lost a little weight. Then they appeared in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. The Palace Defense Array, Supreme Saint Inscriptions, and Divine Mark all appeared and formed layers of defense.

Everyone calmed down a little. After all, the Sevenstar Imperial Palace had been refined by the Wargod Bloodximus, and he had personally carved the Supreme Saint Inscriptions and Divine Marks. Besides, they weren't weak. So they could use this palace to fight against the Fane of Death.

Whoosh!

The Seven-Armed Elder sat in the center of the palace and pressed his palm on the ground. His spiritual power at the 69th level was released.

The patterns on the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's surface became even brighter instantly. Wisps of divine fog surged out of the seven palaces and turned into a river, protecting the Imperial Palace.

The stronger the cultivator was, the stronger the defense of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace would be.

Zhang Ruochen could see the Seven-Armed Elder was genuinely loyal to the Xue Jue family. His eyes were filled with relief.

Yuan Benji snorted coldly, "I'm afraid a Sevenstar Imperial Palace won't be able to protect you."

Zhang Ruochen stood outside the palace and looked up. He said, "I know the Fane of Death has many masters. But I'm afraid it won't be easy for you to break through the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and even suppress us."

"It might not be easy."

Yuan Qianmo took out a black metal pen. Huan Zhen, who was standing beside him, immediately took out a purple ink block and an inkstone, grinding out purple ink.

Yuan Qianmo stained with the ink and started drawing in the air.

Master Ye You stared at Yuan Qianmo. His eyelids twitched, and he said, "Oh no, it's the Stygian Pen and the Ten Myriad Corpse Fluid."

“Divine Artifact?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“It’s not a Divine Artifact, but the Stygian Pen is very famous. It’s one of the special artifacts of the Fane of Death. Every owner has been honored as a king in the divinity. It’s a pen nurtured by successive kings and venerable of the Fane of Death. The power of it is beyond our imagination.”

“The Ten Myriad Corpse Fluid is the ninth corrosive substance refined from the decomposed corpse. It’s also the strongest corrosive substance. It’s said that it takes 100,000 decomposed corpses to refine a grain the size of a green bean. This corrosive substance specializes in breaking the Supreme Saint Inscriptions and Divine Marks.”

“Use the Power of Dimensions to escape from here.”

Master Ye You had just finished speaking.

Yuan Qianmo smiled and said, “You can’t escape.”

The arcane runes he drew were strange and ferocious. They danced like ghosts as they flew toward the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and suppressed it.

The strong corrosive power spread into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace through the Supreme Saint Inscriptions, Divine Marks, and Defense Array. Zhang Ruochen’s skin turned gray-black instantly.

It was so terrifying even though it hadn’t landed yet. The corrosive power would rush in once the Supreme Saint Inscriptions and Divine Marks were corroded. Wouldn’t they all die inside?

A circular array rose from the Sevenstar Imperial Palace just as Master Ye You’s knees were trembling. Countless heavenly flames flew out from the array and clashed with the arcane runes that Yuan Qianmo had drawn.

Rumble.

After an intense clash, the arcane runes filled with corrosive energy were wholly burned away by the heavenly flames.

“What array is this? It’s so powerful!”

The Supreme Saints of Fane of Death were all surprised.

Yuan Qianmo narrowed his eyes and stared at the array above the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He said, “No wonder you’re so calm. There’s a Hand of the World in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.”

Le, High-Saint Kai Luo, and Blood Wolf walked out of the palace and appeared beside Zhang Ruochen.

Their identities were unique. They couldn’t show up, so they stayed in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Yuan Benji shouted, “Zhang Ruochen, how dare you collude with the Heavenly Realm?”

“Yuan Benji, are you stupid? My senior is colluding with the Heavenly Realm? Tell the Fane of Destiny and see if they believe you,” said Xue Tu.

Yuan Benji thought about it carefully and was speechless.

Zhang Ruochen colluded with the cultivators of the Heavenly Realm. Yes, if this was told, not only the Fane of Destiny wouldn’t believe it, but even the Heavenly Realm cultivators wouldn’t.

What was Zhang Ruochen capable of? How could he subdue the High-Saint Kai Luo, Master Ye You, and the Seven-Armed Elder, who were much stronger than him?

Guye Jing giggled and said, “Qianmo, think carefully. If we really fight, the Fane of Death might lose.”

Yuan Qianmo said, “Why do you have to be so close to Zhang Ruochen, Miss Guye Jing? Why don’t you be friends with the Fane of Death and kill Zhang Ruochen together? You can take the treasures from him first. What do you think?”

“This proposal is quite tempting.” Guye Jing smiled like a crescent moon.

Xue Tu’s expression changed. “Sister-in-law, don’t fall for his trick. He wants to drive a wedge between us.”

“Only you’re the smart one?”

Guye Jing said coldly. Then she looked at Yuan Qianmo and said, "I'm indeed interested in the treasures from Zhang Ruochen. But if I can get them by killing him, I'll have many chances to kill him."

Yuan Qianmo nodded and said, "That's true! Does it mean that even if I kill Zhang Ruochen, I won't be able to get his treasure?"

"Yes, so I have been thinking of a way to see if he will give it to me voluntarily." Guye Jing looked at Zhang Ruochen.

The situation became delicate.

Guye Jing seemed to have rejected Yuan Qianmo's offer but also seemed to be threatening Zhang Ruochen. There was a hint of ambiguity in her threat.

No one could guess what she was really thinking.

The Seven-Armed Elder transmitted his voice to Zhang Ruochen, "Guye Jing definitely wouldn't dare to cooperate with the Fane of Death to eliminate us. Give her whatever treasure she wants temporarily. By stabilizing her, we can only have the strength to fight against the Fane of Death."

Zhang Ruochen knew that Guye Jing wanted the "Demonstone Engraving," but he didn't intend to compromise and give it to her. He said, "Yuan Qianmo, I'm afraid other cultivators will benefit if we continue fighting here. Are you sure killing me is more important than taking the supreme treasure in the Fane of Origin?"

A puzzled look flashed across Yuan Qianmo's face.

Yuan Benji looked around and said gloomily, "Zhang Ruochen, don't set up a trap. Where are the other cultivators?"

"But someone did get to the Altar of Megalithic before us."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Can't you see there were Dimensional Inscriptions between these megaliths? But the ones at the bottom have been broken."

"The Master of Origin of the Fane of Death can sense it even though he's only a Demi-Saint. Can't the Master of Origin of the Supreme Saint sense it?"

The cultivators of the Fane of Death looked at each other and released their spiritual power to check.

Yuan Qianmo's expression changed slightly. He turned to look up and pointed the Stygian Pen in his hand across the air like a short spear.

A half-meter-wide beam of Qi of Death surged out of the pen's tip and pierced through layers of Divine Mark.

Roar!

When Yuan Qianmo moved, a high-pitched dragon's roar sounded from the right.

A chariot rushed out from the silver mist as a blinding silver light shone. The one pulling the chariot was a 120-foot-tall Creo Dragon. Its entire body was exuding a dense divine might like a blazing sun rolling over.

"Silver Cloud Chariot! Everyone, be careful. It's Wuma Jiuxing."

"Why is Wuma Jiuxing hiding here?"

...

Three Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death charged forward to intercept the Creo Dragon. However, they were all blown by the Creo Dragon's claws and fell to the bottom of the Altar of Megalithic.

This Creo Dragon was a pure-blooded divine beast and Wuma Jiuxing's mount. It was only one step away from becoming a pseudo god. So it was naturally not something ordinary Paramount Realm could block.

Yuan Shu moved quickly and blocked in front of the Creo Dragon. Then, she pushed out a palm.

The Shadow of Death which was more than a hundred feet tall rose up behind her. This shadow also pushed out a palm and hit the Creo Dragon's head, suppressing and stopping the Silver Cloud Chariot.

Suddenly, Yuan Shu sensed dense Precepts of Saber appearing around her. Her hair and her crown were cut off. Her saint armor was cut open.

She raised her head and looked over.

She saw a saber of light condensed from the Precepts of Saber hovering above her.

The terrifying aura of the saber suppressed her body so much that she couldn't move. It was as if the eyes of death had locked onto her.

“Wuma Jiuxing is so powerful.”

Yuan Shu knew she would never be able to block the saber attack, and she didn't have the time to use the forbidden technique that could save her life. She could only close her eyes slowly.

Boom.

Just when she thought she would surely die, a loud noise came from above her head, like a godly thunder had exploded.

The Stygian Pen shattered the saber of light.

In the next moment, she felt her delicate body become lighter. She opened her eyes and saw Yuan Qianmo's handsome face. When her feet landed on the ground, she had already put a long distance between her and the Silver Cloud Chariot.

Yuan Qianmo's arm loosened from her waist. He grabbed the Stygian Pen that flew back and said, “Wuma Jiuxing, your opponent is me.”

A deep voice came from the Silver Cloud Chariot, “It's a pity. If she hadn't blocked my attack for a moment and caught me off guard, my first strike would have injured you.”

Yuan Qianmo said, “I thought that you, Wuma Jiuxing, were one of the few qualified to fight me head-on in the world. I didn't expect that you would be so weak. My saber was already fragile before I attacked when I attacked from behind.”

“I wanted to fight you fairly too. However, other than Yu Qiu, I've been surrounded and killed by many cultivators after so many years. It's like defeating Zhuo Yunong on Hoth but attracting the attention of the entire Fane of Destiny. “There are so many experts in the Fane of Death, but you want me to attack you head-on. Isn't that too much?"

Wuma Jiuxing walked out of the chariot with his fiery red hair and landed on Creo Dragon's head. He exuded a masculine and domineering aura.

Xue Tu shouted, "You can fight Yuan Qianmo. We will deal with the other Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death."

"One is the first in the Tome of the Divines, and the other is the first in the dark forces. Who is the real number one? Today, the battle between you will be spectacular," Master Ye You said.

Xue Tu said, "Perhaps, we will witness a historic moment today. The battle for the number one position in the Infernal Court is exciting!"

"Fight! Fight to the death. Who is the supreme being below the divinity?" Master Ye You said.

...

The two spoke one after another. Their fighting spirit and momentum seemed stronger than Yuan Qianmo and Wuma Jiuxing.

Zhang Ruochen understood that Xue Tu and Master Ye You wanted to attack Yuan Qianmo and Wuma Jiuxing. Only when the two fought would they have a chance to take advantage of it. However, Yuan Qianmo and Wuma Jiuxing were not ordinary people. It would probably backfire if they did this. He was about to stop them.

However, Yuan Qianmo's voice rang out. He said, "Why don't we kill them first and then have a showdown?"

Xue Tu and Master Ye You's expressions changed drastically. They were filled with regret and immediately shut up.

“Good. That’s a good idea,” said Wuma Jiuxing.

The cultivators of the Fane of Death stared at Zhang Ruochen and the others and sneered.

Xue Tu and Master Ye You were pale. Even Guye Jing, who had been smiling, became serious at this moment.

Wuma Jiuxing and Yuan Qianmo were absolutely invincible when they joined hands. No one under divinity could stop them.

Zhang Ruochen remained calm and said, “Yuan Qianmo, aren’t you curious why Wuma Jiuxing ambushed you here and didn’t go to the top of the altar?”

Yuan Qianmo’s eyebrows moved slightly as he thought deeply.

Wuma Jiuxing stood on the top of Creo Dragon’s head. He raised his arm above his head and used his hand as a knife to cut across the air.

SWOOSH!

A crescent-shaped blade light that was hundreds of feet long flew toward the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

It was a blade light formed purely from the Precepts of Saber. Just the ear-piercing sound of the blade could tear apart the eardrums of all creatures below the Supreme Saint Realm. It was as fast as light and shadow.

Boom Boom

The blade broke the layers of defensive arrays and inscriptions of the Supreme Saint in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The blade light reached 3 meters in front of Zhang Ruochen before it was blocked by the divine inscriptions carved on the stairs by Wargod Bloodximius. However, the impact of the saber's Qi still knocked the entire Sevenstar Imperial Palace off the giant stone altar.

From the beginning to the end, the people in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace didn't even have time to use a saint technique or a sacred artifact to block the saber's light.

"What a terrifying Saber technique. One more attack and the defense of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace will be broken." The Seven-Armed Elder's face suddenly changed, and his forehead was full of sweat.

Wuma Jiuxing did not strike a second time. Instead, he drove the Silver Cloud Chariot and rushed to the top of the altar.

That was because Yuan Qianmo and the cultivators of the Fane of Death had already reached the top when he attacked.

"It's not a coincidence that Wuma Jiuxing is here. You guys go first. I'll stop him."

Yuan Qianmo gave the order and soared up like a white crane spreading its wings. Then, he dived toward the Silver Cloud Chariot that was coming toward him.

SPLASH!

The sound of the river was heard.

A gray river of death qi appeared under Yuan Qianmo's feet. The Death Qi was so strong that it condensed into a liquid state. Golden blades were flying in the river of death qi.

Boom

The river of death qi and the Silver Cloud Chariot collided. The shockwave from the collision vaporized all the water in the nearby sea, creating a space without any water.

The precepts that surged out of their bodies were extremely chaotic, covering all directions. Even the Sevenstar Imperial Palace under the altar was spinning like a top.

The array that Master Ye You and High-Saint Kai Luo had set up rumbled when it was hit by Yuan Qianmo and Wuma Jiuxing's power as if it would be broken at any moment.

"Are these two still in the Saint Realm?" Xue Tu felt that his Saint Soul was trembling, and his eardrums were about to be shattered by the loud noise.

"Freeze!"

Guye Jing spread her arms. Immediately, the red demonic qi, which contained a strong aura of death, wrapped around the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and stabilized the shaking palace.

She said, "Great. Now that Wuma Jiuxing and Yuan Qianmo are fighting, let's go around the left side of the altar."

"There's no need to go through so much trouble," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen released the Profound Spatial Dimension to envelop the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. he shouted, "Great Dimensional Shift!"

The massive Sevenstar Imperial Palace suddenly flew out of the ground and shrank rapidly. Finally, it turned into a speck of light and vanished into thin air.

Whoosh

When the Sevenstar Imperial Palace appeared again, it was already in the middle of the altar, thousands of feet above the sea.

Zhang Ruochen had planned to move directly to the top of the giant stone altar, but he bumped into a space barrier.

A meter-tall emerald turtle stood behind the space barrier with an iron staff in its hand. It snorted and said, "If you want to... w-w-want to go up, y-you have to... g-go through... first..."

Xue Tu listened carefully for a long time and shouted, "Go through what first? What do you mean?"

"Go through me first." It was rare for Lord Turtle to speak fluently, so he felt very comfortable.

Seeing Lord Turtle, Zhang Ruochen confirmed his guess. As expected, Bai Qing'er had reached the altar first. It wasn't surprising that Wuma Jiuxing had appeared here.

In another direction, the cultivators of the Fane of Death were stopped by the Enchanter Chamber's Hand of the World, Duan Lingfeng.

Zhang Ruochen looked up and said, "We have to get through as soon as possible. Ye You, work with me to break its space barrier and Array of Dimension. This turtle isn't simple. Be careful."

Zhang Ruochen flew out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and pushed his palms forward. He created a Dimensional Storm formed by thousands of Dimensional Rift and kept hitting the space barrier.

Hearing Zhang Ruochen's words, "Be careful." Master Ye You's eyes were a little strange. It has been ages since someone took the initiative to care about him.

Even if it was just a simple reminder from Zhang Ruochen.

However, Zhang Ruochen's casual reminder showed that he was sincere.

Before this, whether Zhang Ruochen had given him the Spring of Life or promised to teach him the Path of Dimension, he had seen that all these tricks were just for his strength. They wanted to rope him in and entice him.

Master Ye You had seen so many of these tricks and actions. He only pretended to be subservient, but he was disdainful of them.

Instead, this casual concern touched the heart of this lonely person who had lived for more than 20,000 years.

"Master, I'm Coming!"

Master Ye You stepped on a cloud of ghosts and flew out. The white bone staff in his hand struck out heavily.

A burst of space penetrating power condensed by tens of billions of Precepts of Dimension on the white bone staff broke the thin space barrier into a hole.

Zhang Ruochen's Dimensional Storm followed the hole and ultimately broke the barrier.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen moved in a flash.

He appeared above Lord Turtle and flew straight to the top of the altar.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen's vision darkened. A stone handprint the size of a house pressed down. Zhang Ruochen sensed the terrifying power of the handprint. He immediately mobilized the Power of Qiankun Realm and struck out the Dragon-Tiger Prajna Strike.

As soon as the two palms collided, Zhang Ruochen heard his bones crackling all over his body. His body fell heavily out of control.

"As expected, I still can't contend with a true Paramount Realm Supreme Saint."

Zhang Ruochen's entire body was in pain and numbness. He stared at the stone handprint pressing down rapidly above him. His body shot out and landed on another boulder, avoiding the heavy blow.

The one who had just attacked was another powerhouse under Bai Qing'er, General Pillar.

General Pillar's body was tall and made of stone. When his attack failed, he immediately struck out a second handprint. His arm stretched out for hundreds of feet. There were hundreds of millions of precepts. He struck out with the stone arm.

Before the stone arm arrived, the wind force that burst out almost blew Zhang Ruochen away.

Suddenly, a figure appeared in front of him. He struck out seven hands in a row to neutralize General Pillar's attack. It was the Seven-Armed Elder.

The Seven-Armed Elder turned around and stared at Zhang Ruochen. He said, "Leave it to me."

Before he finished his words, the Seven-Armed Elder had already transformed into his original form and flew out.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the Seven-Armed Elder, who was fighting with General Pillar, and then at Master Ye You, who was fighting with Lord Tortoise in the space array. He could not help but smile gently.

Sevenstar Imperial Palace flew into Zhang Ruochen's hands. Le, Blood Wolf, and High-Saint Kai Luo stood beside him.

Xue Tu and Guye Jing were not inside.

Guye Jing was easy to find because she had already turned into a red shadow of demonic qi and flew to the top of the giant stone altar. As for Xue Tu, Guye Jing could crush him into dust.

“Follow me.”

Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to use the Great Dimensional Shift easily because if Lord Turtle could set up a spatial barrier, he could set up more spatial techniques above.

If Zhang Ruochen fell into its spatial trap, he would be in big trouble!

Zhang Ruochen, Le, High-Saint Kai Luo, and Blood Wolf jumped on giant rocks and climbed up quickly.

On the other side of the altar, Xue Tu's body had shrunk to the size of a mosquito. He flew up carefully, afraid that he would make too much noise and be discovered by the influential figures in the fierce battle.

He was too weak. Any cultivator could kill him.

He had to be more careful and avoid the central area of the battle.

The cultivators of the Fane of Death bypassed the array set up by Duan Lingfeng and rushed in through the gap that Zhang Ruochen and the others had broken.

Yuan Shu was the fastest. She took the lead and chased after Guye Jing. A red phoenix mark appeared between her white eyebrows.

SWOOSH!

The phoenix mark disappeared and turned into a phoenix tail feather. It flew toward Guye Jing.

This was a Class Seven Regal Artifact. Seven layers of firepower surged out of the phoenix tail feather. It burned more and more fiercely. It broke through the demonic qi of the dead spirit that guarded Guye Jing and rushed toward her back.

Guye Jing was about to be pierced by the phoenix tail feather. Suddenly, Guye Jing turned around and reached out to grab it. Her slender hands formed layers of illusions.

This Class Seven Regal Artifact appeared in her hands the next instant and was sandwiched between two fingers.

“How is this possible?” Yuan Shu’s expression changed drastically. She couldn’t believe her eyes.

Yuan Shu’s strongest weapon had actually been snatched away by Guye Jing with her bare hands.

Even a top-tier powerhouse like Yuan Qianmo might not be able to grasp the phoenix tail feather with his bare hands.

Zhang Ruochen saw this and his eyelids twitched. He thought to himself, ‘Did she really hide her strength? Or is she not... Guye...Jing...’

“It’s a priceless treasure,” Guye Jing muttered to herself as she landed on the edge of a giant rock.

At this moment, Guye Jing stood straight, and her clothes fluttered in the wind. Her aura was powerful, and the demonic clouds above her head were billowing. Her eyes were heroic and cold.

Compared to before, she seemed to have become a completely different person. Her entire body was emitting an overwhelming battle intent and demonic qi. In her pupils, demonic patterns are interwoven into a sea of blood-red stars.

She held the phoenix tail feather in her hand. The phoenix tailfeather’s vessel spirit, which was trembling non-stop, was quickly suppressed by her.

She twirled her long black hair with both hands and inserted the phoenix tail feather into it as if it was a hairpin.

Immediately, the mischievous woman, full of smiles earlier, became a cold-faced man.

The phoenix tail feather was called the Fluttering Phoenix Pin. It was a Class Seven Regal Artifact made of rare materials and had the potential to become a Supreme Artifact. It was naturally mighty.

However, such an artifact was worth hundreds of thousands of Godstones, yet it was used as a hairpin in her hair.

All the cultivators looked at her. Some were afraid, some were shocked, and some were confused.

“The successor from the most dangerous place of the Rakshasas is indeed terrifying. Let’s attack together and help Yuan Shu retrieve the Fluttering Phoenix Pin.”

The Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death chased after Yuan Shu and joined up with her.

They all released their Precept Domains and summoned their sacred artifacts.

A bright Gate of Destiny rose from behind one of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint’s backs. It floated above her head and tried to suppress the demonic aura on Guye Jing’s body.

“With just you guys?”

Guye Jing stood against the wind, and her eyes were disdainful.

Guye Jing faced the Precept Domains of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death with her disdainful eyes.

“Arrogant! Although your Rāhu Mountains is infamous, it’s nothing in front of the Fane of Death.” A Paramount Realm Supreme Saint with three black islands floating above his head snorted coldly.

Then, he controlled the three islands and shot them down.

The Fane of Death, the entire Deathkins, had such confidence.

Each of the three black islands was thousands of miles long. If they were placed in the ocean of a planet, they could be called three continents.

This Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death had cultivated the Path of Dimension. The three black islands were in his Spatial Domain. At this moment, the space was compressed. The three islands appeared above the giant stone altar. They were only the size of mountains.

However, the weight of the three islands overlapped with the precepts of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death. Their power was terrifying. The space distorted and caved in.

Zhang Ruochen and Le, who were far away, found it difficult to breathe.

Xue Tu, which had turned the size of a mosquito, fell heavily on the giant rock. His body’s bones were almost crushed, and he screamed in pain.

Then, a gust of wind blew on his body and blew him into the cracks of the giant rock. He fell into a dark and unknown place.

There were no cracks between the giant rocks, but there were strange divine patterns carved on the place where he fell. The power of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death activated the divine patterns and was revived.

The power of the three islands was boundless. However, when they were hundreds of feet away from Guye Jing’s head, they could no longer fall. The red demonic aura of the dead converted into the shape of a demonic tree. It opened up its branches and leaves and supported the three islands.

Guye Jing's slender fingers formed a finger technique.

Streaks of divine patterns flowed on her fingers like blood worms.

WHOOSH!

She pointed out.

A beam of light containing divine power flew out from her finger and hit the chest of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death.

A scream sounded.

A bloody hole the size of a basin appeared on the chest of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. A large amount of blood mist exploded and fell onto the colossal rock below.

“Ji Yun.”

Another Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death flew over and checked on his injuries. He was shocked that the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint had died a horrible death. His flesh and blood had turned into dust, and even his Sainthood Source had been corroded by the demonic aura.

This Paramount Realm Supreme Saint hurriedly retreated and said in trembling, “What a terrifying Power of Death. Even the aura of death in the bodies of the dead can not compare to it.”

Logically speaking, the life force of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint was powerful, and it was tough to kill him.

But now, he had just been hit by a finger force, and a living Paramount Realm Supreme Saint had been reduced to dust. To any cultivator, the impact of this was too significant!

Following the tragic death of their master, the three islands floating above Guye Jing's head disintegrated by themselves.

“This demoness is too overbearing. Let's attack together and avenge Supreme Saint Ji Yun.”

The Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, holding the Gate of Destiny, shouted as he threw out a Class Five Regal Artifact in the shape of a conch.

The conch-shaped artifact released dense lightning bolts and turned into an electric dragon.

Boom

Guye Jing pointed her finger and hit the electric dragon.

The electric dragon exploded, and the conch-shaped Regal Artifact was thrown out.

The light beam did not disappear. Its power did not decrease as it landed on the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint's body. It broke through layers of defensive light and turned him into a cloud of blood mist.

All the defensive measures, talismans, and artifacts he threw out were useless and could not escape death.

The Gate of Destiny dispersed.

The second Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death had fallen. The blood mist sprinkled on the faces of Yuan Shu and the other supreme saints of the Fane of Death. They were stunned and couldn't speak. They could only hear their own rapid heartbeats.

Master Nightwanderer, Lord Turtle, Seven-Armed Elder, and General Pillar, who were fighting, all stopped.

Two Supreme Saints had fallen in a row. They were terrified.

"The higher knowledge of the Rāhu Mountains, Finger of Death. I didn't expect Zhang Ruochen's lover to be so powerful. No wonder she dared to follow Yuan Qianmo here."

Master Nightwanderer smiled. He stared at Lord Turtle and said, "See? This is a master on my side. Little Turtle, run for your life!"

Hearing "Little Turtle" makes Lord Turtle grit his teeth in anger.

He was a cultivator who had cultivated with Magnogod Huang Tian and could be considered a disciple of the magnogod. How could this crooked-looking old Ghost humiliate him?

Lord Turtle said disdainfully, "Expert... My *ss. O-Our...L-Lady... G-Guye..."

“You are a turtle and still want to be a lady?” Master Nightwanderer was slightly stunned.

Lord Turtle was so angry that it turned from emerald to red.

The Ghost and the turtle immediately started fighting again.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Guye Jing and said, “Something’s wrong! She didn’t have much power when she attacked Bai Qing’er on Hoth. What’s going on?”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t believe Guye Jing deliberately hid her cultivation when she fought with Bai Qing’er and Wuma Jiuxing.

After all, Wuma Jiuxing’s saber wasn’t a joke.

Even demigods couldn’t survive a strike.

The time after leaving Hoth was too short, so Guye Jing couldn’t make a significant breakthrough.

The only explanation was that Guye Jing might have two personalities or even two souls. Guye Jing, who had fought with Wuma Jiuxing, was cheerful and lively, but her cultivation was weaker.

Guye Jing, who was serious and full of demonic qi, was much stronger.

Even Zhang Ruochen feared Guye Jing, the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Death. He always felt that she had no feelings as if she was possessed by a demon. Even if Zhang Ruochen approached her, he could be killed by her with one finger.

“Those who stand in my way will be killed without mercy.”

Guye Jing shot a cold glance at the cultivator of the Fane of Death. Then, she turned into a red stream of light and rushed to the top of the altar.

“Demoness, where are you going?”

Duan Lingfeng roared and pointed at Guye Jing with the scarlet golden staff in his hand.

In front of the staff, inscriptions of the array appeared and interweaved into a circular array with a diameter of 10 meters.

Swoosh

A rain of swords flew out from the formation.

They were not sword qi, but metal swords.

These swords were formed by forging the wind and using the formation to absorb one of the five elements' precepts, the Precepts of Metal.

The densely packed swords turned into a 30-meters-wide torrent and charged toward Guye Jing.

“The Hand of the World’s power is indeed extraordinary. Even with Guye Jing’s ability, she was forced to stop.”

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the saint Qi in the bodies of the eight Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death surged like a river, forming eight clouds of death above their heads.

Eight Paramount-level saint techniques were formed in the clouds of Death Qi.

Guye Jing did stop. She turned around to face the oncoming torrent of swords and said coldly, “I’ve already said that anyone who stands in my way will die. How dare you offend me?”

She did not use any protective techniques as she charged straight at the torrent of swords.

BOOM!

BOOM!

...

She punched out one punch after another, shattering thousands upon thousands of swords.

Metal shards flew all over the sky.

As for the eight Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death, all eight Paramount-level saint techniques landed on her body. However, they were unable to harm her demonic body.

The cultivators of the Fane of Death felt as if they had seen a ghost. They felt a chill run down their spines.

“Even if she is a pseudo god, her godly physique won’t be able to withstand the attacks of the eight Paramount-level saint techniques. She will definitely be injured. Could it be that her demonic body is stronger than a pseudo god’s godly physique?”

Yuan Shu said, “Although her physical body is strong, it isn’t that strong. She is using a peerless higher knowledge from the secret manual of The Rāhu Mountains, the Nekromanteia Portrait. It is called the Rāhu Physique.”

“The precepts she has cultivated are combined with her physical body in the form of higher knowledge. This way, her physical body will not be damaged or defeated. Only by cultivating the Rāhu Physique to the fifth level can she do it.”

“From ancient times until now, less than ten cultivators can cultivate this higher knowledge to the fourth level or above. She is considered the number one person in the Rāhu Mountains!”

A Paramount Realm powerhouse of the Deathkin said, “The Rāhu Physique is powerful, but her saint soul and spiritual energy might be her weakness. Let’s use our Will of Death to attack her saint soul and spiritual energy.”

Just as the eight Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death released their Will of Death simultaneously, Guye Jing had pierced through the flood of swords and arrived before Duan Lingfeng.

Duan Lingfeng’s expression changed drastically. The Array Masters hated close combat the most. Furthermore, the opponent was someone who had cultivated the Rāhu Physique. He could clearly sense the monstrous killing intent and boundless demonic might emitted from the beautiful woman’s body.

The staff in Duan Lingfeng’s hand was a treasure even more precious than the Class Seven Regal Artifact. It was called the Genbu Warstaff.

The staff was shaped like a snake and had many sharp scales. At the top was a turtle the size of a fist.

It was similar to Genbu.

At this critical moment of life and death, Duan Lingfeng grabbed the staff tightly and swiped it downwards.

The sharp scales cut through his palm, and a large amount of holy blood flowed.

The Genbu Warstaff absorbed Duan Lingfeng's blood, and instantly, the light increased significantly. The eyes of the turtle on top of the staff lit up.

Duan Lingfeng slammed the staff heavily onto the ground.

WHOOSH!

A defensive array lit up under his feet.

Then, the second one, the third one.

Eight formations stacked up one after another and connected, forming a Genbu that was 33 meters long.

Guye Jing punched Genbu. The eight formations revolved at the same time and bounced her back. A large amount of lightning surged from the formation and struck her body.

Duan Lingfeng stood at the center of the Genbu and let out a sigh of relief. He smiled and said, "My class eight Genbu Array can even withstand a pseudo god for a while. Don't waste your energy!"

Just as Guye Jing was about to attack, the Will of Death of the eight Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death landed on her body.

The Will of Death was like a curse. It was formless and attacked her Saint Soul and spirit directly.

"You really don't know what you're talking about. The bodies and minds of The Rāhu Mountains cultivators are advancing at the same time. You think you can attack me with your Will of Death?"

Guye Jing turned around and stared at them. She chanted, "The demons above the sky and below the ground grant me strength. The stronger my inner demons are, the stronger I am."

"Inner Devourer!"

In the next instant, the eight Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death who were using their Will of Death, apart from Yuan Shu, let out shrill screams.

One of them went crazy and scratched his skull. His face was covered in blood, and he was extremely ferocious. He charged towards the bottom of the altar, and no one knew where he was going.

Yuan Qianmo and Wuma Jiuxing, engaged in the fierce battle, were finally alarmed.

The two of them immediately stopped.

One of them let out a long whistle, while the other let out an ear-piercing sound of blades to intimidate Guye Jing.

Guye Jing looked at the two shadows flying at high speed from below and pointed at the calcining wind. "I hope that you can hide in the array formation. Otherwise, I, Guye Jing, will keep my word and let you die without a burial place."

SWOOSH!

Guye Jing flew through the air and was the first to reach the top of the giant stone altar.

Then, she seemed to have seen something incredible. Her eyes were filled with shock.

Duan Lingfeng let out a long breath. His sacred robe was soaked with sweat.

Zhang Ruochen looked up and felt that Guye Jing had become extremely unfamiliar. He said solemnly, "Before you go up, set up the array first. You both are Hands of the World. Kai Luo, your skills should not be weaker than Duan Lingfeng's, right?"

“I am the Hand of the World in the Formation Sect, the best Array Master amongst the Celestial Court. How can Duan Lingfeng compare to me?”

Although Kai Luo said so, he was shocked by Guye Jing’s battle strength. He immediately set up a defensive array.

Once the array was set up, it immediately turned into a camel-like divine beast that was hundreds of feet long.

The three of them and the Blood Wolf stood inside the camel.

The camel ran wildly, climbed onto the huge stone altar, and reached the top.

...

“I didn’t expect that this successor of the Rāhu Mountains had cultivated the Rāhu Physique and the Inner Devourer. This caused the Fane of Death to lose three Supreme Saints in a row,” Yuan Qianmo said.

He had already helped the seven Paramount Realm Supreme Saints of the Fane of Death to resolve the inner demon phenomenon that had invaded their bodies.

Apart from Yuan Shu, the other six Supreme Saints’ Saint Souls were all injured to varying degrees. It would be difficult for them to recover in a short time.

Yuan Qianmo and the cultivators of the Fane of Death almost climbed to the top of the giant stone altar along with the array-formed camel.

After reaching the top, even Zhang Ruochen, Le, and Yuan Qianmo held their breaths in shock at the scene before them.

After reaching the top, even Zhang Ruochen, Le, and Yuan Qianmo held their breaths in shock at the scene before them.

Chapter 2593: At the Top of the Altar

The top of the giant stone altar was beyond the reach of the sea.

The giant stone, which even Wuma Jiuxing's saber couldn't damage, was riddled with cracks. A massive pit with a diameter of hundreds of meters was formed. In the huge pit, there was extremely red blood. It looked like a small blood lake.

It was as if a ball of blood had fallen from the sky long ago and smashed the giant stone altar into this state.

The blood lake was not shocking.

What was shocking was the sword island at the center of the blood lake.

The small island was filled with all kinds of swords. Six of them were emitting bright divine light and gave off a terrifying power comparable to that of a god. Any cultivator in the Supreme Saint Realm knew these were six swords of the Divine Artifact grade.

There were also thirteen swords. On the body of the swords, the Supreme Inscription flowed and released Supreme Qi.

There were another thirteen swords at the supreme-being holy weapon level.

Even more shocking were densely packed stars in the sky above the blood lake and in the pitch-black seawater. It was like a starry sky that contained endless mysteries.

Everyone knew that many planets were floating in this sea area.

However, those planets didn't emit light at all. They couldn't be seen anywhere else in the Fane of Origin, yet they all appeared here.

The starry sky, the blood lake, and the sword island.

In the distance, there were strange buildings hidden in the blood fog.

One cannot possibly be unmoved by this sight.

After suppressing the shock in her heart, Guye Jing spread her Rakshasa wings on her back and flew toward the sword island.

She had just reached the top of the blood lake.

She lost control of her body and fell down abruptly.

The blood lake below gave Guye Jing an unprecedented sense of fear. Her eyes were filled with blood, and her mind was under a considerable impact. It was as if thousands of invisible hands were pulling her.

She hit the lake's surface with her palm at a critical moment. Her body flew backward and landed on the shore.

RUSTLE!

Her beautiful palm, which had touched the blood, turned into sand and fell to the ground.

Guye Jing retreated backward in horror as if avoiding snakes and scorpions, leaving a long distance between her and the blood lake. Then, she cut off her entire arm at the fastest speed.

RUSTLE!

Her arm, which had fallen to the ground, also turned into sand and dust.

No one present could breathe, and that even the cultivators. They were as stunned as could be.

Guye Jing's Rāhu Physique was so powerful that it could be said to be indestructible. However, it was broken with just a little bit of blood. She had no choice but to cut off one of her arms to save her life.

The cultivators attracted by the Divine Artifacts and Supreme Artifacts and wanted to rush forward were all scared and retreated.

It was too terrifying!

“Is this blood so corrosive? Is it comparable to the corrosive substances on the bodies of the Corpusians’ god?” Master Ye You was terrified. Looking at the blood lake made him want to turn around and run away.

Everyone retreated. Only Yuan Qianmo suddenly walked forward and came to the side of the blood lake. He said confidently, “Let me try.”

WHOOSH!

He activated the Stygian Pen. Instantly, white brush hairs flew out like ten thousand feet of white hair and rushed toward the sword island.

Seeing that he was about to succeed, Yuan Qianmo was delighted when he took back a Divine Artifact with the brush hairs.

Suddenly, the brush hair was cut off and sank into the blood lake.

Yuan Qianmo looked at the bald Stygian Pen in confusion.

‘The brush hair of the Stygian Pen was made by an ancient god using his own hair and was nurtured by the gods of the Fane of Death. How could it be cut off just like that?’

Just as Yuan Qianmo was in a daze, a faint blood-colored mist spread out from the blood lake.

The blood-colored mist spread to his body, and Yuan Qianmo discovered to his horror that the precepts in his body were uncontrollably absorbed by the blood mist.

He hurriedly retreated, but he still lost hundreds of billions of precepts.

One had to know that it had only been an instant.

Moreover, it had only been touched by the blood mist and not directly touched by the blood water.

Yuan Qianmo's heart was shrouded in fear. He wanted to escape from this place, but even when he met an enemy at divinity, he could not affect his state of mind like this.

Guye Jing endured the immense pain and pressed her left hand on her right shoulder.

A new slender jade arm grew out of her bloody right shoulder, still as smooth as jade. Her eyes were fixed on the blood lake and sword island, thinking about something.

Master Ye You and Seven-Armed Elder entered the array-formed camel. Their faces were as pale as paper.

Seven-Armed Elder opened his mouth with difficulty and said, "I've lived for over 20,000 years. I've been to countless forbidden areas and dead lands. I've never seen such a strange and terrifying thing. This must be an extremely vicious place. My intuition tells me that we must leave immediately."

Master Ye You rarely agreed with the Seven-Armed Elder. He said, "Although the swords on the sword island are extremely rare, enough to make gods fight to the death. However, we must not touch them. Otherwise, I'm afraid we won't be as capable as Guye Jing and Yuan Qianmo of saving our lives."

Zhang Ruochen was also shocked, but his eyes were fixated on the six divine swords on the sword island.

The seven sword souls in his sea of Qi had a subtle sense.

They even felt a little familiar with the six divine swords. The aura was similar to the Stellar Sword in Lord Ming's hand, but the divine power it emitted was slightly weaker.

Were the six divine swords left behind by the Ancestral Swordmaster? Were they from the same origin as the Stellar Sword?

But why didn't the Ancestral Swordmaster bring them with him when he went to Kunlun?

Zhang Ruochen was confused and didn't want to leave.

The dead silence was broken, and a beautiful and graceful voice came from afar, “The liquid in this lake may or may not be blood, but it doesn’t belong to our world. It contains strange energy that can destroy everything in this world. Anyone who touches it will die.”

Ji Fanxin, dressed in white, walked along the blood lake from afar.

Bathed in starlight, she looked like a goddess. Her entire body was fragrant.

When Zhang Ruochen saw her, he knew she wasn’t the real Ji Fanxin. She was Bai Qing’er. The current Bai Qing’er seemed to have completed some transformation. She was out of tune with the secular world and was about to fly away.

She was like the clouds in the sky, like the pearls of the primordial.

Yuan Qianmo and Guye Jing looked strange when Bai Qing’er walked into the room.

After all, from the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt to the Royal City of Hundred Clans and then to the Southern Sword Realm, Ji Fanxin had fought against heaven and the earth. She had single-handedly fought against all the cultivators of the Infernal Court.

It was unknown how many famous experts of the Infernal Court had died at her hands. The starry skies had once been dyed red.

Bai Qing’er continued, “If we want to obtain a Divine Artifact, we can not do so with our current cultivation. We must first break through to the divinity. Yuan Qianmo, you are the first in the Tome of the Divines. Everyone says that you can become a deity with just a thought.”

“Guye Jing, you are the most outstanding successor of the Rāhu Mountains in this Yuanhui period. You have cultivated the Rāhu Physique to the strongest realm below divinity.”

“The two of you are only one step away from the divinity. Why don’t we have a life-and-death battle today to see if we can break through that step?”

There were only four cultivators present who could understand what Bai Qing'er meant by that step.

Guye Jing's demonic might overflowed into the sky as she said, "Alright, let's have a life-and-death battle."

"Forget it. Only powerhouses like you have given me absolute pressure and motivation in this era. Perhaps I can break through the barrier, subdue the divine gate, and suppress the gods with my thoughts. Let's fight!" Yuan Qianmo said.

Bai Qing'er stood proudly and looked at the stars. She said, "In a one-on-one fight, no one here is my match. You guys go together. I also want to break through the barrier, subdue the divine gate, and suppress the gods with my thoughts."

Guye Jing and Yuan Qianmo knew Bai Qing'er's strength, so they didn't just stand idly and prepared to join forces.

"Wait a minute," Bai Qing'er said.

Yuan Qianmo said, "Why? Do you regret it?"

Bai Qing'er shook her head and said, "Just the two of you are still not enough to be my opponent. I know there are three of you."

Guye Jing and Yuan Qianmo looked at Wuma Jiuxing.

Wuma Jiuxing stood on the top of the Ying Dragon's head, Unmoved.

"She is talking about me."

A melodious and cold voice sounded, and a silver stream of light flew to the top of the altar.

The silver light stopped, and Xue Lingxian's straight figure appeared.

Then, Granny Begonia's old figure also walked up slowly.

"Granny, why are you here?" Zhang Ruochen immediately went up to greet her. He didn't hide the fact that he knew the cultivators of Kunlun.

Granny Begonia smiled kindly. "The Sword Pavilion sensed a special aura, so we came here. I didn't expect to be in such a big battle. We're right on time rather than early."

Rumble

On the top of the altar, a violent wind suddenly blew, and the precepts were in disorder. Powerful and peerless auras shuttled back and forth like divine dragons.

Guye Jing was mighty and cold, like a peerless devil.

Yuan Qianmo's white hair fluttered in the wind, and he held a brush in his hand. His elegant movements carried an extreme charm of death.

Xue Lingxian had a snake's head and a human's body. He used the Precepts of Swordsmanship to condense a blood sword. The sharpness on his body was exposed, and his aura shot into the starry sky.

Bai Qing'er, standing by the blood lake, was very relaxed. She had a feeling of returning to her natural state. She was neither sad nor happy, neither angry nor proud. Her thin and delicate body was calm and collected under the power of the three influential figures. It was as if she was in an ethereal state.

Granny Begonia sighed and said, "This woman is really talented. She has some of the demeanor of the former empress. Today, if she doesn't die at the hands of Xue Lingxian and the others, she will be able to break through the barrier, subdue the divine gate, and suppress the gods."

Zhang Ruochen had heard this many times. He asked curiously, "What do you mean by breaking through the barriers, subduing the divine gate, and suppressing the gods?"

"The so-called barriers are the marks the gods have placed on them. Only by breaking through the barriers and suppressing the gods with their spiritual thoughts will they have a chance to become kings and gods in the future."

Granny Begonia said, "The so-called marks of the gods are the marks formed when a cultivator reaches the Paramount Realm of the four Martial Arts' Realms, and the gods resonate with him."

“To obtain the Mark of the Gods, every one of them is a genius. It means that they have received the recognition and protection of the gods.”

“For cultivators below divinity, the Mark of the Gods has endless benefits. For example, the blessing of the gods. All kinds of opportunities you have encountered since you started cultivating, or the choices you made in a moment of inspiration, or the sense of danger, are all guided and warned by the gods.”

“However, after you become a god, the Mark of the Gods will become a barrier, limiting the heights you can reach. Before you become a god, you can suppress the gods with your thoughts, and you will have unlimited possibilities in the future.”

Zhang Ruochen was thousands of miles away from Bai Qing'er and the others' current attainments in cultivation. He didn't quite understand what they were saying. He asked, “If you can't become a god, how can you suppress the gods with your thoughts? Where are the gods that gave you the Mark?”

Granny Begonia looked up at the starry sky and said faintly, “The gods are dead.”

On the other side, Guye Jing attacked Bai Qing'er first.

Chapter 2594: The Gods Are Immortal but Dead

The crimson demonic cloud surged together with Guye Jing and flew around Bai Qing'er like a swimming dragon.

An instant, a blood-colored demonic hand seal the size of a millstone struck Bai Qing'er's back.

Bai Qing'er did not turn around. Instead, she clasped her hands together as if she was meditating.

WHOOSH!

The eight hundred Golden Bodhisattvas phantoms appeared and emitted a golden light that was hundreds of thousands of meters tall. The sound of Buddha's voice was vast and mighty. The next instant, all the Golden Bodhisattvas merged into one and turned into a Vajra Buddha.

The Vajra Buddha punched out, colliding with the blood-colored devilish palm print, exploding with eight hundred ripples of Buddhist light.

The demon palm print shattered with a bang, and Guye Jing's true form appeared. Her boundless demon-energy eyes seemed to be astonished.

She was about to retreat when Bai Qing'er suddenly turned around and pushed out her palm lightly.

Clouds filled the sky, and the wisps of Qi flowed like silk.

Guye Jing was shocked once again. Bai Qing'er's palm was extremely mysterious. It seemed to be pushing toward her, but it was actually pulling her like countless strands of silk, making it impossible for her to retreat or escape. Her body leaned forward.

Guye Jing was also mighty. At this critical moment of life and death, she used all her strength to mobilize the divine patterns in her body, forming a higher knowledge, the Finger of Death.

A dazzling divine light illuminated the entire altar when the finger force was released.

BOOM!

Guye Jing flew backward. Her two fingers were bleeding and trembling.

Not only had the Rāhu Physique been broken, but even the Finger of Death had also been broken.

“Taiqing Cloud-Pushing Palm!” Zhang Ruochen chanted with a complicated expression.

Taiqing Cloud-Pushing Palm was the first move of the Eight techniques of Genesis taught to Zhang Ruochen by the Intergold Tiger. He did not expect Bai Qing’er, who had secretly learned it from the side, to understand its profound mysteries and reach such an amazing level.

Bai Qing’er said, “If your Rāhu Physique had not been damaged earlier, it would not be so easy to break. As for the Finger of Death, it’s just so so. You must show your true ability if you want to fight with me.”

Guye Jing snorted softly. The blood stains on her two fingers disappeared and turned into a state of glazed jade.

On the other side, a fully materialized Hand of the Death God condensed above Yuan Qianmo’s head. It was hundreds of feet long and fell from the sky, pressing down on Bai Qing’er.

Even in the distance in the array-formed camel, Zhang Ruochen and Le felt their bodies sink as if the “Sky” was pressing down on them.

Yuan Qianmo’s Hand of the Death God had the terrifying power to smash a planet.

Bai Qing'er rolled up her sleeve, and the hundreds of feet long Hand of the Death God was directly taken away by her and put into her sleeve.

Then, the Hand of the Death God flew toward Xue Lingxian, who was attacking with a sword.

BANG!

Xue Lingxian merged his sword into one, and his speed was as fast as a flowing light as he crashed into the Hand of the Death God.

The Hand of the Death God exploded and turned into a ball of death qi. Xue Lingxian's sword momentum was blocked, and his body retreated to the original place.

Yuan Qianmo's face changed again and again. The higher knowledge, Hand of the Death God, was taken away easily by his opponent, and it was even turned into her own power to attack. She had become even more potent than in the Oort Cloud Asteroid Belt!

'Was she doing all this on purpose?' Yuan Qianmo thought.

Was she using the powers of the top-notch powerhouses of the significant forces in the Infernal Court to hone her Path?

"I've already said that you are no match for me if you attack alone."

Bai Qing'er's eyes were filled with contempt for all living things. She released her Precept Domain and the Primeval Chaos Saintwill, pulling Guye Jing, Yuan Qianmo, and Xue Lingxian into the primal chaos.

The space within the chaos was boundless. It was as if they were still on the altar but as if they had entered another space.

Master Ye You stared at the chaotic cloud churning violently, his eyes filled with admiration and fanaticism. He said, "This Fairy of a Hundred Flowers is so powerful. She's arrogant and domineering, pulling the three great powerhouses into her Precept Domain. Could it be that she's not afraid of her Precept Domain being penetrated?"

“What she has cultivated is the perfect Grade Two Saintwill. When the Grade Two Saintwill is combined with the Precept Domain, who can break through it if the gods don’t appear?” The Seven-Armed Elder said.

“She’s not Ji Fanxin. Ji Fanxin can’t be this powerful,” the Kai Luo said coldly.

No one paid attention to him.

Zhang Ruochen asked Granny Begonia, “What do you mean by the gods are dead?”

Granny Begonia didn’t seem to care about Xue Lingxian’s safety. She explained patiently to Zhang Ruochen, “How many gods have been born in Kunlun since ancient times?”

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and then shook his head.

“How many gods have been born in the myriad Macroworlds and Microworlds of Celestial Court and the ten clans of Infernal Court since ancient times?” Granny Begonia asked.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head again.

Granny Begonia said, “Do you know that once you become a true God, in a sense, it means that you are immortal?”

Zhang Ruochen knew this and nodded.

The soul of a true god was powerful. Not only did it have a soul in the body, but part of it was in the world outside the body. There were also divine thoughts wandering in the vast universe.

That was why even if the body died and the soul in the body was refined, a true God was still not completely dead.

This was because mortals could communicate with the true God’s remaining soul or divine thoughts in the world through sacrificial rituals.

Back then, Chi Linyuan, the Lord of the Sect of the Blood God, had used sacrificial rituals to communicate with the soul of the dead Blood God.

Granny Begonia said, “After the true God died, the remaining thin soul in the world went to another space dimension. Only by using a similar sacrificial ritual can one break through the dimension’s wall, communicate with them, and even obtain their power.”

“That space dimension is what we call the Divine Realm?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Granny Begonia said, “Perhaps some ignorant mortals call it the Divine Realm, but all the worlds call it Trayastrimsa.”

Zhang Ruochen was familiar with Trayastrimsa, so he did not think much about it. He asked, “Did Trayastrimsa bestow the Shenwu Mark on cultivators?”

Granny Begonia shook her head, “No, the gods are dead. Even if remnant souls are left in Trayastrimsa, they can’t do anything. They’re like a ball of Qi and a wisp of smoke. How can they affect the secular world so much? But Trayastrimsa is huge. Otherwise, the Celestial Court and Infernal Court gods would have entered and absorbed all the souls!”

Zhang Ruochen thought it was normal. The true gods’ souls wandering outside his body were probably not even one in ten thousand. Even with his current cultivation, he could defeat them.

Granny Begonia said, “The Shenwu Mark is one of the ultimate secrets of the universe that I don’t know about either.”

Zhang Ruochen thought carefully, and he said, “I understand now. After reaching the Paramount Realm in the four realms of Martial Arts, the gods’ resonance was breaking some precepts between heaven and earth and connecting to the remnant souls of the gods in Trayastrimsa.”

“The Shenwu Marks that merged with my sea of Qi were given by these remnant souls, right?”

Granny Begonia nodded and said gently, “You are brilliant. That’s true.”

“But why did these remnant souls of the gods do this?” Zhang Ruochen asked curiously.

Granny Begonia's eyes became sad. She said bitterly, "Because the marks were given to you by the past fallen gods of Kunlun."

"They are already dead, but they are still selecting talents in the future to protect you and guide you. In the future, when you reach the height of Xue Lingxian and the others, you will suppress them with your own spirit and destroy their remaining consciousness. When you break into the divinity, the remnant souls of their gods in Trayastrimsa will fly into your body and strengthen your divine soul. They will die completely and disappear from the world."

"What if my spirit can't suppress them? Will I never be able to be a king in the future?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Granny Begonia shook her head and said, "I don't know! But... It is said that to be a king, one must reach the Avacaniya Realm. To reach the Avacaniya Realm, one must go to Trayastrimsa. Maybe it has something to do with this."

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a long time. After a long time, he sighed and said, "The gods are dead, but their heroic souls are still alive."

In the distant chaotic cloud, the deafening sounds of battle rang out like thunder.

The cloud sometimes grew bigger and sometimes shrank.

Although Bai Qing'er was strong, the battle seemed very difficult.

Zhang Ruochen hated himself for his attainment in cultivation was too low. Otherwise, he would have charged in and turned the world upside down. He would not be like now, where he could not see the battle clearly.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen's gaze fell on the sword island in the center of the blood lake. He had an idea. He said to Kai Luo, "Control the array. Let's go and take a look."

"Are you crazy?" Kai Luo said in fear.

Master Ye You and the Seven-Armed Elder's faces changed significantly. They quickly tried to dissuade him.

“Why are you so nervous? I just want to go to the lakeside to take a look,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Kai Luo had no choice but to do as he was told.

Master Ye You did not dare to go near the blood lake. He wanted to leave the array-formed camel, but when he saw the cultivators of the Fane of Death and Wuma Jiuxing standing on top of Creo Dragon’s head, he had no choice but to follow them.

When the Fane of Death cultivators saw Zhang Ruochen and the others going to the blood lake, they did not stop them. Instead, they all sneered.

“Lord Qianmo has suffered a great loss. How dare they approach the blood lake?”

“Zhang Ruochen is audacious. He probably wants to die!”

...

Wuma Jiuxing looked over and showed a hint of interest.

The closer they got to the blood lake, the more the people in the array-formed camel felt invisible pressure and fear. It was as if there was a giant beast with its mouth wide open waiting to devour them.

Kai Luo, Master Ye You, and the Seven-Armed Elder were sweating profusely. They tried to dissuade Zhang Ruochen several times.

The array-formed camel stopped 30 meters away from the blood lake. It could no longer move forward. If it continued to move forward, the strange power of the blood lake would be able to break down the array of inscriptions.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the array-formed camel and came to the bank of the blood lake, accompanied by Granny Begonia.

Zhang Ruochen did not believe that the blood lake’s water could destroy everything. So he took out a piece of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree’s wooden pillar and threw it at the blood lake.

The wooden pillar floated on the surface of the blood lake for only half a breath's time before it turned into dust and disappeared into the water.

Then, Zhang Ruochen took out the Regal Artifact, Godstone, Divine Bone, Sainthood Source... all kinds of treasures and tried them out. Without exception, once it touched the water of the blood lake, it would turn into dust.

Only the Divine Bone could last longer.

The cultivators of the Fane of Death were stunned by this display of wealth. They began to plan secretly. They felt that snatching Zhang Ruochen was more reliable than grabbing the Divine Artifact on the sword island.

Zhang Ruochen calculated the success rate and risk he would get the Divine Artifact on the sword island using the bridge form from Divine Bones.
