

Chapter 2201: Deva Path of Yama

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Zhang Ruochen stood on the Altar of Saints and looked at Bookworm and Moha, who were struggling. Both of them were severely injured. The fact that they were able to hold on until now was all thanks to their strong willpower to live.

Even with a body as strong as Moha was now full of cracks, and his Saint blood was almost drained. Bookworm's injuries were heavier. He only had one arm left, and there was a big hole in his chest where his beating heart was exposed

If an ordinary Nine-Step Saint King suffered such a heavy injury, they would be likely dead, let alone continue fighting.

"Isn't it great to have 'friends' who come from afar visit us? Hahaha!"

Although Bookworm's body was already swaying, he burst out laughing loudly.

Even if he and Moha died to protect the dimensional teleportation array, it was still worth it.

Moha didn't say a word. He withdrew the last amount of Saint blood in his body and fused it into Sacred Confucian Tome.

Even though he saw the arrival of reinforcements, he still could not relax. Instead, he felt a stronger sense of urgency.

The dimensional teleportation array leading to Saturn Peach Tree was in the peach forest behind them. One could almost see the outline of the array through the peach blossoms.

Under the attack of Infernal Court, they had no way to retreat.

"Kunlun is at its crucial moment at stake. All cultivators, attack with all your might!" Zhang Ruochen said.

Immediately, the Altar of Saints released a towering Saint Aura and crashed forward at high speed.

Members of Guardian Dragon Pavilion and many Rogue Saints activated the Altar of Saints together. Its power was unimaginable. Even if a Realm was blocked in front, it would be smashed into pieces.

At the same time, many powerful figures who were standing on the Altar of Saints started to attack. They used all kinds of Saint Techniques and war weapons. None of them held back.

Zhang Ruochen took out Zangshan Demonic Mirror and activated countless Supreme Power. They condensed into a myriad of demonic mountains and were suppressed from the sky.

“Jadesky Bone Emperor, Nether Fiend, Juexin, you guys continue to attack. Those two scholars are exhausted, and they can’t hold on for long. The rest block Zhang Ruochen and the others,”

Yan Wushen immediately gave the order.

As he spoke, he handed Saint Jade that contained the Nine-heavens Maiden’s Saint blood to Shi Juexin, the leader of Stone Clan.

Shi Juexin who was 300 meters tall was emitting a thick aura. He had an indestructible body of stone that was stronger than Neverwithier physique. There was only a handful of people who dared to fight him head-on.

Shi Juexin chuckled, “Don’t worry. I’ll get rid of them soon. Once I lock onto Saturn Peach Tree’s dimensional coordinates, I’ll immediately inform our lord ancestor, Huang Tian.”

With a wave of his hand, Yan Wushen took out an ancient mottled stone bridge. It was very similar to the illusory Bridge of Vaitarna that he had used a secret technique to condense.

This bridge was indeed called “The Bridge of Vaitarna”. It was naturally formed after ten million years. Countless profound arcane runes were imprinted on it, and it possessed boundless power. It was the most precious asset of Yanluo clan.

Considering the importance of this mission, the deities of Yanluo clan had specially allowed Yan Wushen to bring the Bridge of Vaitarna as contingency measure.

There were four elites of Yanluo clan behind Yan Wushen. At this moment, the four of them cooperated with Yan Wushen to activate The Bridge of Vaitarna.

To cultivators of Celestial Court, Yanluo clan had always been very mysterious. This was because—besides Yan Wushen who was an exceptional case—the cultivators of Yanluo clan rarely went to Battlefield of Merit.

The four elites sent out this time were also unknown to others. However, each of them was extremely powerful. The weakest one had about 70 percent of the cultivation base of Evil Yan Wushen's strength. Moreover, the strongest one was a tad weaker than good Yan Wushen's strength.

As the supreme clan of Infernal Court, Yanluo clan had a deeply rooted heritage.

Under the urging of Infernal Yama Qi, The Bridge of Vaitarna was quickly recovered. It was emitting an extremely ancient aura. Faintly, it sounded as if someone was sighing.

An extremely mysterious power was released from the Bridge of Vaitarna, seemingly capable of nullifying all attacks in the world.

The powerful figures of the other six clans from Infernal Court had made their moves. Every single of them got the skills powerful enough to destroy heavens and earth. The intense fight made Rainbow Pavilion the Microworld tremble.

Boom

The Altar of Saints and Bridge of Vaitarna collided violently, creating terrifying ripples of power. A large area of space was shattered, and countless spatial fragments flew about.

However, this impact didn't spread too wide. Instead, it quickly dissipated.

“Zhang Ruochen, you can't go any further with me here. No matter how you struggle, you can't stop Saturn Peach Tree from being chopped off.

“This time, Kunlun will have no hope and fall into darkness forever.” Yan Wushen stood at the Bridge of Vaitarna with his hands behind his back, exuding an invincible aura.

Zhang Ruochen calmly said, "The fate of Kunlun is not something you can decide. No matter how many tricks you have up your sleeves, I will take on them all."

At this point, they had no way out. Their only choice was to fight this life-or-death battle.

"I'm looking forward to swallowing all these delicious Saint Souls. When I do, not only will I recover to my prime, I can advance my cultivation even further. Since you dare to come, then none of you can escape." Lan Xuezi said with fierce eyes.

Rainbow Pavilion had long been isolated by Realm-sealing Talisman. The fact that Zhang Ruochen was able to break in proved that he was indeed very capable. However, it's going to be a hard way out. It was as if he had walked right into a trap.

"The fairies from Portrait of the Nine Beauties are as beautiful as I have expected. Fairy Ci Hang, Fairy of a Hundred Flowers, Fairy Tianchu, and Fairy Linglong, fighting and killing is no game for you ladies. It's best to surrender early so that you won't get hurt by accident," Great Prince Bloodwing of Rakshasa said with a deviant look in his eyes.

No matter where they were, beautiful women were always the focus of attention.

At this moment, many powerful figures of Infernal Court were sizing up Fairy Ci Hang, Fairy of a Hundred Flowers, Fairy Tianchu, and Fairy Linglong with unscrupulous eyes.

It was very rare for four fairies to appear at the same time. Usually only half of them showed up.

Including Fairy Shadowless who was suppressed by Zhang Ruochen in Jungle Microworld, more than half of them showed up.

Ao Xukong took a step forward and released his Supreme Dragon Qi. He pointed at Great Prince Bloodwing and said, "How dare you hold filthy intention against my sister. Tell me, how do you want to die?"

“How brazen! I’ve always wanted to taste the flesh of Pentaclaw Golden Dragon, but I didn’t expect you to come to me of your own accord.” Great Prince Bloodwing sneered.

Ao Xukong snorted. “I’m afraid you don’t have teeth good enough for it. Die!”

As he spoke, Ao Xukong had already made his move. His right hand turned into a dragon claw and directly grabbed Great Prince Bloodwing.

Whoosh

His Dragon Claw was extremely sharp. It tore apart several pitch-black cracks in the space in front of him.

Without hesitation, Great Prince Bloodwing slashed out his blood wings like a sharp blade to fight back.

Seeing that the two of them had made their move, the others did not hesitate either. Zhen Yuan, Murong Yefeng, Jiang Yunchong, and the rest immediately rushed down from the Altar of Saints. They pounced towards the group of powerful figures from Infernal Court.

Nie Xiangzi went to find Lord Xue Chen. Apparently, he wanted to fight with Lord Xue Chen again. However, this time it was not merely a fight to find out who was the winner; it was a fight of life and death.

The battle had started, and only one side would walk out of Rainbow Pavilion alive.

Zhang Ruochen’s side had far fewer elites than Infernal Court’s, but they had the advantage of having more people. That meant they could gang up on the Infernal Court elites .

As long as they could kill a few powerful elites of Infernal Court first, the situation would be greatly changed.

Zhang Ruochen released his spiritual power and said to Maiden of a Thousand Stars beside him, “Try to locate the High-Saint Talisman Master who controls Realm-sealing Talisman.”

Maiden of a Thousand Stars immediately understood his intention upon hearing him. The reason why the situation at Rainbow Pavilion did not attract the attention of the army of Celestial Court was mainly because of the presence of Realm-sealing Talisman.

If she could kill the High-Saint Talisman Master from Infernal Court and completely break Realm-sealing Talisman, she could draw Celestial Court's army here. By that time, the crisis would be naturally resolved.

"Leave it to me," Maiden of a Thousand Stars replied.

She was an all-rounded Saint Master. Very similar to Moha, she was proficient in all kinds of techniques, including talismans.

However, the High-Saint Talisman Master from Infernal Court had completely concealed his aura using the power of Realm-sealing Talisman. It was not an easy task to locate him.

The bodies of Moha and Bookworm were in tatters. If it wasn't for Saturn Peach Tree's divine force constantly seeping into their bodies through dimensional teleportation array, they would have not been able to hold on until now.

Or else, the cultivators of Internal Court could have crushed them into ashes and destroyed their souls and bodies. It would have been impossible to hang on till now.

But now, even with Saturn Peach Tree's divine power, they could not hang in there anymore. Saint blood in their bodies was almost drained.

Zhang Ruochen knew that the situation was critical. He turned into a beam of Saint light, broke through the formation set up by a High-Saint Array Master from Infernal Court with his body, and rushed straight towards Moha and Bookworm.

He could not afford to lose dimensional teleportation array. So, he had to guard it personally.

"Zhang Ruochen, you can't get through!"

Two immortal level zombie kings of Corpusian, Jiang Lin and Tian Xuan flew up and struck out a palm at the same time.

Zhang Ruochen attacked with all his might. He too launched a palm strike. The roaring of dragons and elephants erupted from his palms. Nine dragons and nine elephants flew out at once and collided with the palm strikes of Jiang Lin and Tian Xuan.

Boom

The powerful shockwaves from his palm strike shook the ground in this space violently.

“We Corpusian have endless power. Zhang Ruochen, no matter how strong you are, you can’t fight against two alone,” Tian Xuan said.

Zhang Ruochen snorted at them. The power of Path of Truth burst out, and the power of his palm strike kept increasing.

Jiang Lin and Tianxuan flew backward. Their bodies similar to Neverwithers physique were torn apart and turned into pieces.

“Jiang Lin and Tianxuan can’t defeat Zhang Ruochen for one round even when they team up,”

All the powerful figures in Infernal Court couldn’t keep calm. They all thought, ‘Zhang Ruochen is formidable.’

Jiang Lin and Tianxuan had both reached the immortal level. Although their bodies were shattered, they didn’t die. Before pieces fell to the ground, they condensed into human forms and turned into complete corpses.

Looking up, Zhang Ruochen had already passed them and rushed toward the two Confucianism scholars.

Jiang Lin and Tianxuan looked at each other and said, “There is always someone better than you. Zhang Ruochen is indeed Yan Wushen’s greatest rival. Other cultivators of their generation would serve as their foil.”

There were many powerful figures present, but only Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen worthy enough to be each other’s opponent.

Jiang Lin and Tian Xuan surmised that they would need to at least double their combat strength to team up against Zhang Ruochen.

Boom

Yan Wushen attacked and stopped Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen looked in the direction of Moha and Bookworm again. He found that they had retreated to the edge of the dimensional teleportation array.

There was no way back.

“You’re distracted! If I had attacked just now, you would have been injured. You would have fallen into an irreversible disadvantage and died at my hands,” Yan Wushen said.

Zhang Ruochen knew that this was Yan Wushen’s psychological warfare, but he also knew that he was telling the truth. It was fatal to be distracted when facing a superior like Yan Wushen, even if it was only for a moment.

“Then why didn’t you attack?” Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and suppressed his worry about dimensional teleportation array. He fixed his eyes on Yan Wushen completely.

Yan Wushen said, “It could take a long period to have someone like you born. The probability of us meeting in this era is a ghost of a chance.

“Therefore, I care more about our fight than destroying Kunlun.

“If I kill you before you reach your prime, it will be my greatest regret of my life.”

Zhang Ruochen had completely adjusted his state of mind. He shook his head and said, “No, you have been defeated by me. Therefore, you have planted a demon within you.

“If you can’t defeat me in my prime, that demon will always exist.

“It may not affect your cultivation to become a Supreme Saint, but it will be a big obstacle for you to become a god.

“It will also be a big variable to overcome the calamity of Yuanhui Tribulation in the future.”

When they said the first sentence to each other, they had already started war.

War of the mind.

Both of them had attained the Great Perfection of Saint Kinghood, so there was no big gap between their strengths. Whoever could gain the upper hand psychologically, or make the other's psychological flaws appear, would have a 70 to 80 percent chance of winning.

Zhang Ruochen was in distress, so he was at an absolute disadvantage.

The battle had not started yet, but Yan Wushen tipped the scale.

Yan Wushen naturally understood this, so he spoke no more words. He just looked at Zhang Ruochen quietly. He had already warned Zhang Ruochen. If Zhang Ruochen repeated the same mistake, he would kill Zhang Ruochen, and there would be no "demon".

Zhang Ruochen was trying to adjust his state of mind so that he could be as calm as possible.

Time continued to pass.

The area where the two were in might seem peaceful. It was actually the most dangerous.

Their willpower spread out and collided fiercely.

Their willpower was invisible and extremely terrifying. Even a Nine-Step Saint King would be annihilated in an instant if he barged into this area.

After Zhang Ruochen underwent self-cultivation training at Imperial Ruler, his spiritual will had become unimaginably strong. No one with ranks below Supreme Sainthood could rival him.

His state of mind was completely restored.

Boom

At a certain moment, terrifying killing intent burst out from Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen simultaneously.

For a moment, the sky and earth changed color.

Endless murderous aura emerged and evolved into an illusory Realm of Slaughter.

Every strand of murderous aura took a form. Whether they were fierce spiritual beasts or powerful spiritual soldiers, just the aura they emitted was enough to make people shudder.

Roar

Billions of fierce spirits roared and charged together crazily.

Even though they were far away, the rest of the people in Rainbow Pavilion felt pins and needles.

Jadesky Bone Emperor's heart sank. He had originally wanted to challenge Zhang Ruochen for the redemptive glory of Bone Clan. But now, he suppressed this thought after analyzing the situation.

He was a genius nurtured by Fane of Bone. He practiced Deva Path of Jade, one of the three major paths by Bone Clan. Every bone of his was as clear as jade, immortal and indestructible. There were no flaws in his Saint Soul.

Although he didn't have a great reputation, his strength was far more superior than Dark Skeletal Lord and the Three Emperors of Bone Clan.

The Bone clan elites had been killed by Zhang Ruochen outside the Imperial city brutally. They had suffered a crushing defeat. Jadesky Bone Emperor had no choice but to come to Kunlun personally.

'With Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, Yan Wushen might not even be able to do any harm to him. It seems that I have to find a way to create some trouble for Zhang Ruochen,' Jadesky Bone Emperor thought to himself.

He wasn't the only one with that thought as many powerful figures in Infernal Court were having the same idea in mind.

The more powerful Zhang Ruochen was, the more others wanted him dead. Otherwise, he would become a huge threat to Infernal Court.

Boom

After several collisions, the illusory Realm of Slaughter collapsed. All the killing intent died away.

With a thought, Zhang Ruochen mobilized millions of Precepts of Dimension in his body and instantly condensed a Profound Spatial Dimension.

Without any suppression, his Profound Spatial Dimension covered a radius of 30,000 feet. It was colossal.

Even if other dimension cultivators condensed a Profound Spatial Dimension, it usually won't cover more than 1000 feet.

Almost at the same time, Yan Wushen also condensed a Profound Spatial Dimension. Their Profound Spatial Dimensions overlapped and crushed towards each other.

Rumble

A large area of space shook violently, revealing countless pitch-black cracks.

Profound Spatial Dimension Yan Wushen condensed was of the same quality as Zhang Ruochen's. So, no one could gain any upper hand.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't too surprised.

It wasn't surprising that Yan Wushen could cultivate the Great Perfection of Saint Kinghood and Path of Dimension. So it was foreseeable that he'd condensed a Grade One Profound Spatial Dimension.

Whoosh

With a thought, Zhang Ruochen pointed in a direction, and a vast River of Time appeared.

Different from the illusory image of River of Time he'd summoned before, this River of Time was extremely solid as if it existed.

The trip to Celestial Domain of Truth had finally allowed Zhang Ruochen to understand the mysteries of Path of Time and successfully condensed the River of Time.

"A 2 long River of Time. Zhang Ruochen has broken barriers. What a monster," Wan Xin revealed a look of shock.

A River of Time condensed by a Saint King was all different. The worst was 2 miles long, 6 miles would be for someone more powerful. It's rare when it is over 10 miles while the best was 18 miles long.

It was a legend that someone could condense it 20 miles long.

“Wan Xin was very talented and specialized in Path of Time. He once condensed a 16 miles long River of Time. Hardly anyone could match up to him.”

But it was nothing compared to Zhang Ruochen.

Even with a minor difference in length of River of Time, the contrast was still like heaven and earth.

“Master has really good taste. No wonder Master didn't care about his appearance and chose Zhang Ruochen as the target for possession,” Wan Xin thought.

In his mind, Asurendra Samay must have already seen it all and made such an arrangement.

Asurendra Samay was very special. This deity wasn't a flesh and blood lifeform. Instead, it was born a spiritual intelligence from a piece of Jade of Time and cultivated to his current form.

Therefore, Asurendra Samay is genderless.

However, Asurendra Samay was extremely beautiful, and it was more inclined towards femininity.

When choosing a body to possess, Asurendra Samay actually intended to find a female body.

Unfortunately, it hadn't been able to find a suitable one.

Since its true form was Jade of Time, not any ordinary people could be Asurendra Samay's target of possession.

Two basic conditions had to be met first. First, the target had to be a Master of Time. Besides that, he or she had to acquire Five-element Chaotic Body.

Asurendra Samay attained its Godhood through Path of time. Naturally, it had to possess a physical body of a Master of Time.

As for Five-element Chaotic Body, it was because of Asurendra Samay's special body. Ordinary physiques could not contain its origin.

Five-element Chaotic Body was like a chaotic universe. It was the most inclusive, and Time was no exception.

Although Master of Time and Five-element Chaotic Body were very rare, they could still be found in Celestial Court and Infernal Court.

However, it was like finding a needle in a haystack to look for someone who met both two conditions.

Coincidentally, Zhang Ruochen appeared right at the moment. His bone structure, physical quality, and the identity of Saint Monk Xumi's successor were all valued by Asurendra Samay. Therefore, it changed its mind.

Asurendra Samay had been hurt by Saint Monk Xumi. If it could possess Zhang Ruochen, it could take revenge for the past.

At the same time, it could also get a glimpse of the inheritance of Saint Monk Xumi's legacy and cultivate Path of Dimension. In the future, he would be able to improve even further.

Wan Xin was looking forward more and more to Yan Wushen being able to suppress Zhang Ruochen. If his master could possess such a perfect body, he could not imagine how powerful his master could be.

"Pagoda of Origin, suppress."

Yan Wushen shouted. Millions of Precepts of Origin surged out of his body.

In the blink of an eye, all Precepts of Origin intertwined and turned into a 10,000-foot-tall Origin Pagoda. It had 10,000 stories.

Origin Pagoda wanted to suppress River of Time, but River of Time was like a divine dragon that coiled around Pagoda of Origin.

All of a sudden, time and origin in a large area became chaotic. Everything the two forces touched turned into ashes.

The others in Rainbow Pavilion couldn't help but step back, afraid of being affected.

Path of the Ancients was a terrifying power. Many people couldn't help but be afraid.

It was especially terrifying when the power was manifested by Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen. Many Supreme Sainthood elites choose to stay away from them.

“How could a Saint King cultivate Path of the Ancients to such a terrifying extent. What kind of monsters are they?”

Many people couldn't help but have this thought.

At this time, everyone clearly realized the gap between them and the two— Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen.

‘I can't drag this fight any longer. I have to end this quickly,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Immediately, Zhang Ruochen formed a seal with both hands. Boundless Five-element Chaotic Qi surged out of his body and combined with a million Precepts of Truth.

In an instant, a huge and special Realm-frame of Truth was formed. It hung above Zhang Ruochen's head and gave off a terrifying power that could suppress heaven and earth.

Zhang Ruochen had cultivated a total of 11 Paths to Great Perfection. This was his huge advantage as it included three Paths of the Ancients .

Yan Wushen had one less Path than him, which was exactly one Path of the Ancients.

Now that he used to Realm-frame of Truth, he wanted to see how Yan Wushen would deal with it.

Path of the Ancients transcended everything. After reaching Great perfection, the power it possessed was far from a Great Perfection Path of Supreme Saint. There was a fundamental difference.

“The third type of Path of the Ancients to Great Perfection, Zhang Ruochen. You surprised me. Fine, I'll let you have a little taste of Deva Path of Yama from Yanluo clan,”

Yan Wushen's eyes shone with a brilliant light, and Primordial Infernal Yama Qi surged out continuously.

Yanluo clan was the supreme clan in Infernal Court; their status was most revered. Fane of Yama had inherited ten powerful Paths. It was the top of ten Fanes.

While, Deva Path of Yama was said to be able to control the cycle of life and death of all living things, compared to the void and fate in Path of the Ancients.

However, cultivating Deva Path of Yama was extremely difficult. Since ancient times, very few people in Yanluo clan had cultivated it. Those who could cultivate it to become a god were as rare as hen's teeth.

Yan Wushen was the only peerless genius who had cultivated Deva Path of Yama to Saint Kinghood in the past ten thousand years.

Behind the figure, all sorts of incredible phenomena appeared. From the creation of the universe, to the birth of thousands of spirits, to the death of the galaxy, to the creation of chaos... the cycle repeated itself, shocking everyone.

A mysterious and overbearing power blasted out and collided with Zhang Ruochen's Realm-frame of Truth.

Boom

The Realm-frame of Truth shook violently, and a large number of stars shattered immediately.

However, part of Yan Wushen's power was also wiped out. Thus, he didn't gain any advantage.

"Such great Deva Path of Yama. Yan Wushen, you didn't let me down either," Zhang Ruochen said.

This was the third time he had fought with Yan Wushen. His tricks were endless and out of his expectations.

He was certain that Yan Wushen had only recently mastered Deva Path of Yama.. Otherwise, he would have suppressed the Four Heavenly Kings of the Celestial Palace using this technique.

Chapter 2202: Battle of Gods

Outside Kunlun, in the vast nothingness of the void.

The place was supposed to be dark, but it was currently illuminated by a dazzling divine light. Powerful divine power flowed like the tide.

Many deities from both Celestial Court and Infernal Court made their move, and an intense divine battle broke out.

BANG!

Heavenly Mugwort Bell containing boundless divine power flew out, cutting through the vast swath of darkness and sending a Rakshasa deity flying. As a result, a large amount of diving blood was spewed.

Even a deity could not withstand the blow. Numerous cracks appeared on the deity's body as if it was about to be shattered into pieces.

Roar!

The Rakshasa deity let out an earth-shaking roar and released the divine power within his body, forming a huge Sphere of Chaos about the size of a planet. His divine body rapidly grew larger, with the cracks on his body disappearing simultaneously.

In the blink of an eye, the body of the Rakshasa deity grew even taller. It was half the size of the Sphere of Chaos, releasing endless majestic divine power.

When one attained Godhood, they would undergo huge changes in their physical lifeforms. Not only their blood Qi would increase rapidly, but it could also break through suppression on a space. When this happened, yet they could not make it to the legendary realm of god, they would at least turn into a divine giant.

A deity would use divine power to suppress its body to maintain its normal form under normal circumstances.

Usually, only when a life-and-death battle was going on would a deity reveal true form and unleash strength without holding back.

Apparently, this Rakshasa deity had sensed a great threat and thus lifted all restraints he had imposed to his strength.

“How dare you puny scum roar in front of me?” Wargod Bian Zhuang said in a deep voice.

As he spoke, his Heavenly Mugwort Bell rapidly grew in size. Like a spinning macroworld, it pressed down on the Sphere of Chaos where the Rakshasa deity stood.

At this moment, another Rakshasa deity rushed over. He was thousands of feet tall, which was the size that of mountains. He was wearing a dark ruby red armor, displaying an imposing aura. He emitted copious amounts of divine power, and unleashed a Divine Seal barreling towards Heavenly Mugwort Bell.

“You can’t stop me even if I want to kill him, Rayan!”

Wargod Bian Zhuang’s spoke overbearingly as he looked down on Rayan.

The Celestial River flowing under his feet surged rapidly and instantly grew a hundred thousand miles in length. It pulsed with unparalleled divine power as it surged towards the divine seal and Rayan.

Taking advantage of this gap, Heavenly Mugwort Bell instantly pressed down and broke through the Sphere of Chaos. It crushed the divine body of the Rakshasa deity until it exploded apart.

However, deities were not beings that could be killed this easily.

They possessed astonishing divine vitality. Even if their divine bodies were shattered, they could quickly reassemble. Every inch of their body contained divine spirits and the essence of their willpower, and it would be possible to reconstruct their divine bodies with merely a drop of divine blood.

To kill a deity, one had to break the deity's Divinity Source and destroy the divine soul. By doing so, simultaneously, the divine spirit and the essence of their willpower had to be eliminated as well.

However, it was unlikely to wipe out all traces of a deity in the world.

The reason was that a deity would fuse a small amount of their Divine Soul into the precepts of heaven and earth. He would wander between the space and coexist with the world.

A deity could still be destroyed, but whoever tried would have to expend a lot of energy and pay a great price.

Under normal circumstances, very few people would do such an arduous and unrewarding thing.

The few divine souls wandering would have too little hope of being reborn.

The Rakshasa deity quickly reconstructed his body. However, being trapped inside Heavenly Mugwort Bell, he could not break free.

Purple and green divine light surged from Heavenly Mugwort Bell, dissipating the lifeforce and spirit of the Rakshasa deity.

There was also a terrifying power that seeped into the body of the Rakshasa deity, which directly attacked his divine soul through the Divinity Source.

It was obvious that it was going to kill him by force.

To other deities, killing a deity was tough. However, Wargod Bian Zhuang had done it many times, and his weapon—Heavenly Mugwort Bell—was basically a deity slayer.

Rayan looked grim because he was restrained by Bian Zhuang Wargod's Celestial River. He could only watch as that deity of his clan became weaker and weaker.

'This madman Bian Zhuang had not made a scene for a hundred thousand years but his strength has increased so much. He's a great trouble indeed,' Rayan thought to himself.

During the War of Gods in the Middle Ages, Rayan had fought Wargod Bian Zhuang. At that time, Wargod Bian Zhuang was already very strong. However, compared to his past self, the current Bian Zhuang was even stronger.

As time passed, the Rakshasa deity had become weaker and weaker. His life force, divine spirit, and essence of willpower in his body were gradually obliterated.

In the end, even his divine soul was shattered by Heavenly Mugwort Bell, leaving behind was only his physical body.

In the vast starry sky of Infernal Court, the three Divine Planets representing this deity dimmed and stopped emitting any light.

At this moment, all the cultivators below the starry sky couldn't help but raise their heads to look, with fear clutching at their hearts.

The light of any Divine Planets going out would mean that a deity had fallen.

This battle was destined to shake Celestial Court and Infernal Court.

In the void, the deities of Infernal Court roared in anger, and their roars shook the sky and earth.

Rayan's expression became even more grave. Wargod Bian Zhuang had slaughtered a Rakshasa deity of his clan in front of him. 'This wargod was going too far!'

"Bian Zhuang, you have gone too far! You better watch out!"

Wargod Bian Zhuang laughed and said, "Rayan, you are the one who should watch out. I can kill you anytime!"

As he spoke, Wargod Bian Zhuang put away the dead body of the Rakshasa deity and used Heavenly Mugwort Bell to launch a fierce attack on Rayan.

Wargod Bian Zhuang did not say it for fun. He meant what he said.

On the other side, Moon Goddess was fighting with a charming deity from Infernal Court.

This deity was none other than Asurendra Samay.

Its body was emitting a strong demonic battle Qi, and there was also an incomparably condensed River of Time coiled around his body, with countless Marks of Time dancing around him.

Even though in battle, this deity from Infernal Court appeared incomparably elegant. Every single one of its actions was filled with a sense of beauty, as though it was dancing gracefully.

Asurendra Samay's appearance was exactly the same as that of humans, and its striking temperament could move even the hearts of the gods.

On the surface, Asurendra Samay wasn't much different from the other deities.

But in reality, its current state was very special. It had neither a divine body nor a Divinity Source. The only part of him left was his divine soul.

Asurendra Samay's true form was a jade—the Divine Jade of Time. During the battle in the Middle Ages, Asurendra Samay had suffered severe injuries to besiege Saint Monk Xumi. As a result, it was reduced to dust, and its divine soul was beaten until it was on the verge of collapse. Its soul escaped narrowly by scattering in the world.

Asurendra Samay was the same as Moon Goddess. Both of them had been asleep for a hundred thousand years and only recently woke up.

Its divine soul had already become concentrated once more.

Not long later, Asurendra Samay would face another Yuanhui Tribulation.

After being dormant for a hundred thousand years and losing its divine body and Divinity Source, no matter how strong its divine soul was, it would still be very difficult for it to survive.

Hence, Asurendra Samay thought of possession.

With its powerful divine soul, as long as it found a suitable body, no matter how weak it was, it could quickly nurture the flesh body into a divine body.

It would need about 1,000 years to recover to its prime.

The reason it came to Kunlun in a hurry was to obtain a body for possession as soon as possible.

After all, Asurendra Samay was a peerless elite who could fight against Saint Monk Xumi. Even though he only had one divine soul left, his combat strength was still extremely strong, with the River of Time attacking in all directions.

Moon Goddess could only match Asurenda Samay in battle by relying on the Kaiyuan Deer Cauldron that she borrowed from Zhang Ruochen. From this, it could be seen how terrifying Asurenda Samay was at his peak. Only someone with his strength was qualified to battle with Saint Monk Xumi.

Boom!

A strong burst of divine power swept through the void.

Huang Tian stood 30,000 feet tall, and in his hand was a stone battle-axe with Chaotic Qi flowing around him. He was like a giant god that could split open the sky with unparalleled divine might, standing while looking down disdainfully.

Bang!

The four deities from the Fane of Truth attacking Huang Tian were sent flying because they were unable to withstand the attack.

Some of the deities went furious, and divine blood spew from their mouths.

Upon seeing this scene, many of the deities present could not help but reveal their shock.

“How long has Huang Tian attained godhood? His strength had actually reached such levels that the four divine lords from the Celestial Domain of Truth together were unable to withstand a blow from his axe.”

“He is indeed worthy of being known as one of the legendary two deities with Wargod Bloodximus during the past 129,600 years in Infernal Court. His combat strength is so strong that it rivals ancient gods which have survived numerous Yuanhui Tribulations.”

“Both Huang Tian and Wargod Bloodximus have become the new wardens of Infernal Court. Wargod Bloodximus ruled Bloodysky Clan, while Huang Tian built his force.”

“A thousand years ago, Huang Tian set up a trap to lure out Ancient Buddha Yuan Xu from the Western Buddha Realm. He killed him single handedly, infuriating the entire Western Buddha Realm. However, they could only watch and do nothing.”

The deities were buzzing about the past events of Huang Tian. They could even spare time to look at him even when they were engaged in battle.

The lord of the Fane of Truth in charge of the Fane of Truth walked out and appeared in front of the four deities from the Fane of Truth, and she looked squarely towards Huang Tian.

“I never expected that The lord of the Fane of Truth would come personally... this comes as a surprise to me,” Huang Tian said loudly.

The lord of the Fane of Truth gazed at Huang Tian briefly, and she spoke with eyes full of disappointment, “Huang Tian, you have really disappointed me. I have never expected that you would murder your own Master.”

“You were once someone ordinary. But after listening to the Ancient Buddha Yuan Xu recite the scriptures and preach for so long, you have gained sentience. Since then, Ancient Buddha Yuan Xu devoted all his efforts in nurturing you and even sending you to the Stone World to pursue the ultimate secret of the Path of Life.”

“It was precisely because of Ancient Buddha Yuan Xu that the Fane of Truth did its best to nurture you, allowing you to gradually become the Envoy of Truth.”

“But I never expected that you would be led astray by the Stone Master and join the enemies of the Celestial Court. You went from pursuing the Path of Life to pursuing the path of death and destruction, and even killed your benefactor in cold blood. How could I tolerate this behaviour?”

Towards the end, The Lord of the Fane of Truth could barely conceal her rage.

Huang Tian had originally a cultivator from Celestial Court. He was born to Western Buddha Realm and had cultivated in Stone World before rising up in the Fane of Truth.

The Stone Clan was one of the larger clans, and it was not an exclusive race to Infernal Court. After all, there were rocks everywhere in the world, and these rocks could gain sentience by chance.

In the Celestial Court, there was a Stone World where countless Stone Clan cultivators lived.

The difference was that the Stone Clan in Infernal Court cultivated the Path of Death in order to destroy all living creatures, but the Stone Clan in the Stone World cultivates the Path of Life, exploring the true essence of living. The two of them couldn't be more different.

This was a difference between their fundamental way of thinking.

The Stone Clan in Stone World believed that they had received the gift of life from having none. Therefore, they yearned and cherished the idea of living.

However, the Stone Clan of Infernal Court wanted to destroy all living beings, so that the entire universe would become a member of the Stone Clan. This was because that all living things would turn back into dust on they had perished.

Huang Tian and Wargod Bloodximius were the most talented cultivators representing each side. They were also each other's opponents, just like Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen in the current era.

Both of them were the most talented geniuses of their time and had fought each other for many years.

Unfortunately, Huang Tian was bewitched by the Stone Master, which caused him to change his beliefs and Path, thus joining Infernal Court.

The Stone Master was the head of the Stone Clan, one of the three clans in Infernal Court. He was an extremely ancient overlord with terrifying combat strength and an immeasurably long lifespan.

During the catastrophe in the Middle Ages, many deities in the Celestial Court fell at the hands of the Stone Master.

The lord of the Fane of Truth had once thought highly of Huang Tian and had once even considered letting him succeed as temple master..

However, she did not expect that Huang Tian would betray the Fane of Truth, Celestial Court, and even cut off the Divine Sky-connecting Tree of Kunlun in the end, which really put them into shame.

Even now, The lord of the Fane of Truth still felt heartbroken.

“You simply don’t understand. What the Stone Master insisted on was right. The entire universe should come under the stone race.” Huang Tian said indifferently, “The cultivators of the Stone World were led astray by the Celestial Court. They were born as stones, yet they wanted to pursue the true meaning of life. How laughable.”

“Yuan Xu has indeed treated me kindly and I did not want to kill him originally, but he had too much of an influence over me. My consciousness and thoughts all have his brand. If I don’t kill him, my cultivation will forever be restrained under him.

“When I wanted to kill him, Yuan Xu still wanted me to turn a new leaf and even willing to died for me. Little did he know that my heart was stonecold?”

Huang Tian spoke calmly as if he was talking about something trivial.

He didn’t feel any guilt or regret for killing his master.

His heart, was as cold as a rock without any emotion within.

To be more precise, it was like a stone.

“You are so stubborn. Today, I am going to purge the traitor and take back that portion of Canon of Truth.” The lord of the Fane of Truth deepened her gaze and radiated a terrifying murderous intent.

BOOM!

As she spoke, a Black Divine Mountain appeared behind her. It was very similar to the Mountain of Truth that lies in the Sea of Truth.

Billions of intricate Divine Marks appeared on the surface of the Black Divine Mountain. The divine power was vast like the ocean, and it even caused the emptiness of the void to ripple violently.

“If the mountain obstructs me, I will split it.”

Not a glimmer of fear was showed in Huang Tian’s eyes. The stone ax in his hand started to awaken, revealing a large amount of chaotic energy conduits.

This ax was born with him. It was an innate mystical item that contained infinite mysteries. After many years of painstaking refinement, it had become incomparably powerful and unstoppable.

The stone ax was shot out, becoming as huge as the Black Divine Mountain.

Bang!

The two collided, creating terrifying ripples of power.

The lord of the Fane of Truth remained unmoved, but Huang Tian’s arm spasmed, and he nearly lost his grip on the stone ax. He was pushed back hundreds of miles as the divine light on his body dimmed.

Huang Tian’s expression could not help but turn grave.

To be able to a lord to an ancient Fane, the lord of the Fane of Truth had unfathomable strength.

Even someone as powerful as him could not see through it...

The lord of the Fane of Truth was even more shocked. She did not expect Huang Tian's combat strength to attain such a high level in the span of 129,600 years. Even she would find it extremely difficult to destroy him completely.

Chapter 2203: Critical Situation

In Rainbow Pavilion of Kunlun—

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen appeared in every corner of the microworld. They used all kinds of methods to fight without holding back.

If this microworld wasn't established by Master Fangcun and was unstable, it would have been destroyed into pieces.

Zhang Ruochen's was at an advantage with the number of people on his side. However, they were at an absolute disadvantage when it came to the battle with Infernal Court.

Moreover, they were only fighting against the powerhouses of the seven clans of Infernal Court. The other three clans did not have time to spare as they were attacking Bookworm and Moha.

Bookworm and Moha stood in front of the dimensional teleportation array. Their bodies were tattered, but they were still standing upright.

They did not take a step back despite the attacks. They couldn't and they wouldn't.

If they could not defend the dimensional teleportation array, they would become sinners of the Path of Confucianism and the entire Kunlun.

"Are you two scholars still not willing to step aside?" Jadesky Bone Emperor said in a cold tone.

Bookworm smiled bitterly and said, "Sacrificing my life for righteousness is what I want. There are no cowards in the Path of Confucianism, and we will not humiliate our teacher."

As the disciples of the Confucius forefathers, they had lofty integrity and pride. They would never give in, even if death was awaiting.

Shi Juexin sneered and said, "There's no need for words. Those who don't join me in Infernal Court will be killed.

Those who follow me will prosper, and those who defy me will die!”

Swoosh

Shi Juexin swung his huge axe with all his strength.

He had always worshipped Huang Tian and desired to become a peerless powerhouse like him. Therefore, the war weapon he used was similar to Huang Tian.

While fighting Yan Wushen, Zhang Ruochen was also paying attention to Bookworm and Moha’s situation. He wanted to rush over and help them, but Yan Wushen blocked him from doing so.

“Zhang Ruochen, the Saturn Peach Tree will definitely be cut down. You can’t stop it. Join me,” Yan Wushen said.

Behind him, the figure of Yama became clearer. He wielded the Book of Death to evolve a kingdom of death, wanting to envelop Zhang Ruochen in it.

Zhang Ruochen took out the Zangshan Demonic Mirror and merged it with the Realm-frame of Truth to block the invasion from the Power of death.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen had already used the Secret Tome of Time and Space to strengthen the Profound Spatial Dimension and the River of Time, pushing both powers to their max.

However, Yan Wushen was already prepared. He took out the treasure of Dimension and the treasure of Origin. He was not at a disadvantage at all.

As a peerless genius nurtured by the Yanluo clan, Yan Wushen could have anything he wanted. With all the opportunities he had, he had more treasures than Zhang Ruochen.

Bang

The Realm-frame of Truth was pierced. Zhang Ruochen took a few steps back. His body shook as he was almost hurt.

He had been distracted just now!

The battle with Yan Wushen was extremely dangerous. Even the slightest distraction could put his life in danger.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes darkened. Yan Wushen was indeed a great enemy. It was too difficult to defeat him.

He really wanted to use the Yinyang Sword Formation to deal with Yan Wushen. However, the Blood Dripper was in an intense battle with a Deathkin powerhouse. It was hard to tell who was stronger.

Crash

A bone saber suddenly appeared and slashed Zhang Ruochen's waist.

The timing of this attack was good. Zhang Ruochen could not avoid it.

"Die!"

Jadesky Bone Emperor roared.

He had been waiting for an opportunity to make a sneaky attack against Zhang Ruochen. He might be able to help Yan Wusheng secure the victory as soon as possible by creating some trouble.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's left leg was burning with divine fire which released a towering divine power in an instant.

Clang

The bone saber that had just cut into Zhang Ruochen's waist was forced out by the divine power.

A huge pit appeared in a radius of 100 miles around Zhang Ruochen. The earth melted, and boiling lava flowed.

The ground beneath Jadesky Bone Emperor suddenly cracked open. A terrifying divine fire gushed out like an erupting volcano and drowned him in an instant.

Crack

Jadesky Bone Emperor's tough bone body cracked.

'So powerful.'

Jadesky Bone Emperor was secretly shocked. He rushed out of the divine fire in embarrassment.

If he hadn't practiced the Deva Path of Jade to turn his bone body and Saint Soul into jade, he would have been severely injured even if he didn't die.

Yan Wushen snorted. "Jadesky Bone Emperor, do your own thing. No one is allowed to interfere in my battle with Zhang Ruochen."

After personally experiencing Zhang Ruochen's terror, Jadesky Bone Emperor didn't dare to attack anymore. He might not be able to resist the fury of Zhang Ruochen if he provoked him.

In the end, he had underestimated Zhang Ruochen's strength. It was difficult for others to interfere in the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen.

On the Altar of Saints, Feng Yan and Xiang Chunan stood beside Maiden of a Thousand Stars.

They obeyed Zhang Ruochen's arrangement and were in charge of guarding Maiden of a Thousand Stars.

Feng Yan frowned at their situation and asked, "Haven't we found the High-Saint Talisman Master?"

He knew very well that the key to turning the battle around was to completely break the Realm-sealing Talisman. Otherwise, they might be killed by the powerhouses of the ten clans of Infernal Court.

"The Realm-sealing Talisman has completely sealed the secrets and concealed the aura of that High-Saint Talisman Master. I still need some time," said Maiden of a Thousand Stars.

She was actually very anxious, but this matter couldn't be rushed.

Unfortunately, she was still a Saint Talisman Master, not a High-Saint Talisman Master. Otherwise, it would be much easier to do this.

It was difficult to make up for the gap between the realms with other methods.

Upon hearing this, Feng Yan did not push Maiden of a Thousand Stars any further and let her focus her attention on this matter.

“There are not many powerhouses from Infernal Court, but every single one of them is incomparably powerful. I can’t deal with any of them. All I can do is to stand here and watch. It is really frustrating,” Xiang Chunan said in an indignant manner.

Feng Yan sighed. He and Xiang Chunan were only Precept Domain cultivators. Although their strength was comparable to powerhouses who attained Path’s Anterior, they were worlds apart compared to these powerhouses from Infernal Court.

With their current strength, they were still far from being able to fight side by side with Zhang Ruochen.

Although he was almost hurt by Yan Wushen, Zhang Ruochen still paid close attention to Bookworm and Moha. This matter was too important. How could he not take it to heart?

No, I must rush over. I must not let anything happen to the dimensional teleportation array.’

With that thought, Zhang Ruochen quickly flapped the Secret Tome of Time and Space. He released a Dimensional Talisman from it and attacked Yan Wushen.

This Dimensional Talisman was used by Shentu Yunkong to break the multi-dimensional spaces. Unfortunately, before its power could be fully activated, it was restrained by the Secret Tome of Time and Space.

The Dimensional Talisman was refined by Fane of Dimension’s powerhouses. It was extremely powerful.

Break

Zhang Ruochen used the Secret Tome of Time and Space with all his strength which complemented the Dimensional Talisman.

Boom

A terrifying Dimensional Storm appeared and swept towards Yan Wushen.

Zhang Ruochen took advantage of this gap and rushed towards the peach forest.

“Stop him!”

A powerhouse from Infernal Court shouted.

Shi Juexin and Nether Fiend turned around in an instant. One wielded a huge axe, while the other used the Deva Path of Vile Nether.

Shi Juexin didn't hold back at all. He used the unparalleled power of Stone Clan and swung his axe with all his strength, splitting a long crack in the confined space.

Nether Fiend, on the other hand, released a vast amount of Vile Nether Qi which condensed into one and shot outwards.

Zhang Ruochen waved the Ancient Abyssal Blade to capture Marks of Time and evolved the Time Domain which caused the space and time around him to freeze for a short while.

Bang

Two silver swords slashed out, hitting Shi Juexin and Nether Fiend respectively.

Nether Fiend's body was slightly weaker. A deep wound appeared on his chest, and dark red blood gushed out.

Shi Juexin and Nether Fiend felt an inexplicable sense of weakness after enduring Zhang Ruochen's power.

“Power of Time.”

Shi Juexin and Nether Fiend reacted instantly.

After a short delay, Yan Wushen had caught up with them again.

Zhang Ruochen knew that he couldn't break through. He made a prompt decision. He raised his hand and shot two Springs of Life into the bodies of Bookworm and Moha.

Since he couldn't help them at the moment, he could only hope that they could hold on for a while longer.

“Yama Naraka.”

Yan Wushen pounced forward and evolved into an enormous hell. It was as if Infernal Court was about to descend into this world.

During the battle with Luoshui, Yan Wushen's evil counterpart had used this secret technique of the Yanluo clan and Zhang Ruochen had relied on the Sundial to fight against it.

Now, Yan Wushen had combined his two counterparts and used this secret technique again. Its power had doubled.

Zhang Ruochen's expression was serious. His hands formed seals with incredible speed. A vast amount of Precepts surged out of his body. They interweaved and formed a Divine Demon.

This time, he used the Saint Aspect of the Immovable King as a foundation and combined the Path of Five Elements and the Path of Truth to use the Incarceration of Divine Demon.

One was hell descending, while the other side was the Incarceration of Divine Demon. It was a tit for tat.

Boom

The Divine Demon figure condensed by Zhang Ruochen released unparalleled strength and blocked the Yama Naraka.

Then, the Divine Demon figure tore Yama Naraka apart with supreme power.

Nine layers of heaven appeared above the Divine Demon's head which resembled nine boundless universes.

The eight-layer heaven was extremely solid, as if it was real, summoned by a mysterious power and was about to descend from an unknown place into this world.

The top layer of the heavens was hazy and couldn't be seen clearly.

The ninth layer was extremely thick and contained boundless power.

At this moment, some strange colourful power flew out from the eighth layer of heavens. It added to the Divine Demon figure and turned into an eight-colored halo.

Suddenly, the Divine Demon's power increased explosively. It was as if it had been given a soul. It was vivid and lifelike.

Bang

The Divine Demon stepped on the torn Yama Naraka.

Even Zhang Ruochen was surprised by this. After all, he had never experienced such a situation when he used the Incarceration of Divine Demon in Ziwei Palace.

He could clearly feel that the root of all this was Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture.

At this moment, Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture finally revealed an extraordinary side. It combined perfectly with the Incarceration of Divine Demon and changed it fundamentally.

However, Zhang Ruochen still could not understand the mysteries behind it. If it were any other time, he could have studied it.

But now was not the time to think about these things. He could only put them aside.

Zhang Ruochen seized the opportunity as he had successfully stopped Yan Wushen. He immediately changed directions and rushed towards the dimensional teleportation array.

Nothing was more important than guarding the dimensional teleportation array.

Chapter 2204: The Final Moment

Shi Juexin, Nether Fiend, and Jadesky Bone Emperor did not hesitate and they immediately gathered more than a dozen elites from the three clans and attacked together to intercept Zhang Ruochen who was rushing over again.

Shi Juexin's body burst out with a sharp and overbearing saber will and merged his Qi and the saber on his hands. He transformed into a saber and slashed toward Zhang Ruochen like a stream of light.

The peerless saber light burst out and it was destroying everything on sight. No matter how strong the space was, it was cut open.

Nether Fiend used the Deva Path of Vile Nether to activate an ancient and powerful Nether Artifact filled with Evil Qi. It was a huge eyeball with the terrifying ability to steal and strip souls.

The entire world became gray the moment the eyeball appeared. A strong aura of death spread out as if Hell had descended.

“Die, Zhang Ruochen!”

Jadesky Bone Emperor shouted and threw the Bone Tower in his hand with all his strength.

The Bone Tower grew with the wind. It was three thousand meters tall and covered in mysterious arcane runes. Rays of jade light shot out and enveloped Zhang Ruochen.

The jade light looked beautiful, but it was terrifying. It could corrode bones and melt away souls, turning everything into nothingness.

At the same time, the other elites of the Stone Clan, the Nether Clan, and the Bone Clan also attacked with their strongest attacks. Some were high-level saint techniques, some were each of the clan's own Deva Path, and some were powerful weapons.

“Who dares to stop me?” Zhang Ruochen roared. He had the power that no one could overthrow him. He spread his hands and mobilized his saint qi like moving the clouds. He deployed the two Supreme Artifacts, the Zangshan Demonic Mirror and the Golden Sun of Destruction.

The Zangshan Demonic Mirror had the power to suppress all things. Ancient sacred mountains began to appear one after another and crashed into the three Bone cultivators led by Jadesky Bone Emperor.

The Golden Sun of Destruction released a powerful Yang Qi to counter yin and evil. It clashed with the five Nether cultivators led by Nether Fiend.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen fought against the eight top-notch Saint King elites of the two clans alone.

The majestic illusory mountain and the divine sun-like Golden Sun of Destruction forced the eight elites to retreat. They could barely resist the impact.

The Illusory Tower deployed by Jadesky Bone Emperor and the Divine Eye of Devour deployed by Nether Fiend were both weapons comparable to Supreme Artifacts. However, they were on the verge of collapse at this moment.

“This is too terrifying!”

“The power of the Golden Sun of Destruction is too hot. I can feel that my body is being scorched and refined. I can’t hold on much longer!”

...

Ever since Zhang Ruochen obtained the Golden Sun of Destruction, he rarely used it in battle. He stashed it in the Divine Light Sea of Qi to adjust his Yang Qi. It was hundreds of thousands of times stronger than an ordinary person’s. At the same time, it helped refine his Saint Qi, Soul, and Physique.

Of course, it could also store Saint Qi for emergencies.

This is why the Golden Sun of Destruction was now compatible with Zhang Ruochen. As if it was meant for him.

The Golden Sun of Destruction could unleash incredible power in Zhang Ruochen's hand even though it was refined into Supreme Artifact recently. Its power could be on par with the Zangshan Demonic Mirror.

Rumble

Eight Saint King elites from the Infernal Court were forced back by the Zangshan Demonic Mirror and the Golden Sun of Destruction.

The two Supreme Artifacts hovered above Zhang Ruochen to protect him. He opened the Secret Tome of Time and Space and turned to the page that recorded the Dimensional Tide. He mobilized all the Precepts of Dimension in him and used this dimensional technique with all his might.

With the help of the Secret Tome of Time and Space, the power of the Dimensional Tide doubled.

The power of the tide surged forward.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen swam like a fish in the Dimensional Tide, as he moved forward at full speed. Although it was life-threatening, he had to take the chance because Yan WuShen could catch up with him any time now.

He could not afford to be entangled by Yan Wushen.

“Zhang Ruochen, I'm still here! Do you think you can fight against the top-notch Saint King elites of the three clans all by yourself?” said Shi Juexin.

The attacks of the Stone Clan elites led by Shi Juexin temporarily stopped the Dimensional Tide.

The cultivators of the Bone clan and the Nether Clan gathered their strength and attacked again.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's Profound Spatial Dimension was pierced through. The Power of Curse fell on him, and the sacred artifact of the Stone Clan cultivators pierced through his chest.

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and forced his way through. He appeared in front of Shi Juexin and the Ancient Abyssal Blade flew out and stabbed Shi Juexin in an instant.

“You... you ...” said Shi Juexin.

Shi Juexin’s pupils were constricted. He wanted to dodge immediately, but it was too late.

He had to mobilize his power and defend with all his strength. Countless natural and profound arcane runes appeared on his body.

Crack

A clear cracking sound rang out and clear cracks appeared on Shi Juexin’s chest.

The next moment, Zhang Ruochen passed through. Shi Juexin’s huge body shattered into thousands of pieces of gravel.

“How is this possible?” Shi Juexin asked.

Shi Juexin’s head was the last to shatter. His eyes were wide open. He couldn’t believe it.

The bodies of the Stone Clan were the hardest. The Stone Clan was known for their indestructible body, and Shi Juexin was one of the best clansmen. Only a few under the Supreme Sainthood could break through his defenses.

As for breaking his stone body, it shouldn’t have happened.

This was the first time in his life that his stone body was shattered.

Shi Juexin’s shattered body was pieced back together in the blink of an eye as if nothing happened before.

However, Shi Juexin’s breath has weakened a lot and he was badly injured.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen had already broken through the seal. He appeared in front of the dimensional teleportation array and protected Bookworm and Moha behind him.

Zhang Ruochen's breath fluctuated greatly. The Blood Qi in his body surged violently like waves. It was almost breaking out of him.

There was a trace of blood at the corner of his mouth. He had made a great sacrifice for forcing his way in.

"You guys heal quickly. I'll hold them off for a while," Zhang Ruochen said.

Moha nodded. "Okay."

"I have never shown admiration to anyone before, but I have to admire you, Zhang Ruochen. You are a real hero," Bookworm said.

The two immediately calmed down and seized the time to heal their wounds.

They had absorbed a large amount of the Spring of Life in them, but they had no time to make good use of it.

After enduring for so long, they can finally relax a bit.

With The Book of Death hovered above Yan Wushen, he stepped forward and locked his eyes on Zhang Ruochen and he said in a deep voice, "Zhang Ruochen, since you care so much about the Saturn Peach Tree, I will lock its spatial coordinates first and then fight you to the death."

Yan Wushen's body surged with the Primordial Infernal Yama Qi as he spoke. He poured it into the Book of Death and controlled the divine force of Yama contained within.

Suddenly, a majestic phantom god of the Yanluo clan appeared. It was vivid and lifelike as if it wanted to cross the River of Time and descend to the present world.

Yan Wushen had once again displayed the Deva Path of the Yanluo clan by borrowing the power of the Book of Death. The power that could swirl up everything enveloped Zhang Ruochen and even covered the entire Microworld.

Yan Wushen and the phantom god were completely in sync, and their actions were identical.

As Yan Wushen pressed down with one hand, the phantom god's palm also pressed down. A huge whirlpool appeared in his palm. The arcane light of life and death swirled within.

Seeing this, Shi Juexin and the others didn't hesitate. They joined hands with Yan Wushen.

Shi Juexin, in particular, looked like he was going all out. He used a large amount of his Qi to summon a gray mountain.

This mountain was enormous. It was 30,000 meters tall and contained boundless Power of Death. As soon as it appeared, a stifling deathly stillness spread quickly.

Zhang Ruochen was facing more than a dozen Saint King elites from the Infernal Court by himself. He looked up at the phantom god and the 30,000 meters tall mountain. His heart was calm, his eyes were filled with determination to face death with ease.

Crash

He summoned the Zangshan Demonic Mirror and the Golden Sun of Destruction. At the same time, he condensed the Profound Spatial Dimension, the River of Time, and the REalm-frame of Truth. He tried his best to defend using all his might.

"I must hold up the defense," Zhang Ruochen murmured.

He had no way to retreat now. What's behind him was the hope of Kunlun. It represented the fate of the billions of lives in Kunlun. It was worth risking his life to protect it.

Bookworm and Moha pulled themselves together again. They didn't care how badly they were injured. They activated the array formations of Rainbow Pavilion and the Sacred Confucian Tome with all their strength.

At this moment, they couldn't let Zhang Ruochen take it on alone.

Boom

The extremely violent power drowned Zhang Ruochen and the others.

Yan Wushen and the others weren't worried about the dimensional teleportation array being damaged. After all, with Master Fangcun's dimensional attainments, even a top-notch Supreme Saint wouldn't be able to destroy this dimensional teleportation array easily.

In an instant, all the defenses of Zhang Ruochen and the other two were destroyed. However, they still managed to block this round of attacks.

Zhang Ruochen stood at the front and defended Bookworm and Moha from most of the attacks.

As a result, Zhang Ruochen's injuries worsened, and he spat out a mouthful of Saint Blood.

"Hurry up and find that High-Saing Talisman Master. Brother Ruochen can't hold on much longer!" Xiang Chunan was extremely anxious. He wished to rush up and fight alongside Zhang Ruochen.

Unfortunately, Xiang Chunan was being held back by Feng Yan.

Feng Yan was also extremely anxious. No matter how strong Zhang Ruochen was, he was just standing there as a target. How many rounds of attacks could he block?

Once Zhang Ruochen fell, their side would not be so far from annihilation.

Maiden of a Thousand Stars frowned. She was frustrated that she couldn't locate the High-Saint Talisman Master because he had hidden too well. She had already used up all her tricks in her sleeves, but there was still no clue.

"You're struggling on the verge of death. Since you dare to obstruct the affair of Infernal Court, then you must have the will to die. All of you should obediently hand over your Saint Soul and I shall devour them," Lan Xuezi said with a cruel smile.

Great Prince Bloodwing snorted coldly and said, "No matter how you struggle, you won't be able to escape the fate of becoming my food."

Xiang Chunan and Feng Yan were both enraged by Great Prince Bloodwing's words. If it wasn't for Maiden of a Thousand Stars, who was still searching for the High-Saint Talisman Master, they would have already rushed over and joined the encirclement of Lan Xuezi and the Great Prince Bloodwing.

Boom

Suddenly, a divine light flashed across the sky above the Rainbow Pavilion. A powerful force crashed down, shaking the whole world.

Feng Yan revealed a joyful face and said, "They are all attacking from the outside and trying to break the Realm-sealing Talisman. That force just now was incredible."

Just when that force crashed into the Rainbow Pavilion's barrier, Maiden of a Thousand Stars finally found the trail of the High-Saint Talisman Master. Instantly, her confidence skyrocketed.

Maiden of a Thousand Stars hoped that if there's a few attacks, she would be able to find the High-Saint Talisman Master.

Outside the Rainbow Pavilion.

Both the sky and the ground were full of cultivators.

Zhang Ruochen's arrival on the Altar of Saints had caused too much of a ruckus. In addition, the accident in the Ziwei Palace had made all the cultivators in the imperial city realize that something big had happened.

At the same time, there was news from the Celestial Court. It seemed to be the matter of life and death of Kunlun.

Although they were unsure of the exact situation in the Rainbow Pavilion, many cultivators still rushed over as fast as they could.

The most active ones were naturally the cultivators of Kunlun.

Since the Central Imperial City was surrounded by tens of millions of Saint soldiers from the Infernal Court, the Saint cultivators of Kunlun had come from all over.

Kunlun's cultivators had lived in the imperial city and were bullied everywhere by the cultivators of the Celestial Court before this.

It was Zhang Ruochen who had issued the decree and allowed them to stand tall. Thus, most of the cultivators of Kunlun respected Zhang Ruochen.

That was why they had rushed to the Rainbow Pavilion at this time.

Even though most of them had low cultivation, they had come without hesitation. They wanted to do their part to protect Kunlun.

This included the owner of Welkin Lounge, Chu Xiangyun.

Back then, he seemed to cower in fear when he faced the leader of the Saber Empyrean. He was afraid of death and lived without dignity.

But now, he walked with his head held high. His eyes were firm and fearless.

It had to be said that everything Zhang Ruochen did had a huge impact on him. It had almost changed his life.

Unfortunately, the Rainbow Pavilion was enveloped by the Realm-sealing Talisman. No matter how many cultivators gathered here, they couldn't break it. They were all blocked outside.

Whoosh

A dazzling jade divine light tore through the sky and descended outside the Rainbow Pavilion.

All the cultivators present were attracted by the jade divine light.

The jade divine light's true form was a jadeite ruler. It was 3 meters long. There were many fine scales on it. As soon as it appeared, it crazily absorbed Saint Qi of heaven and earth.

Under the jadeite ruler, there stood a graceful figure. Her body was shrouded in nine-colored saint light, and she stepped on the void like an immortal.

She was none other than the Nine-heavens Maiden who had left earlier.

“This aura... is the Imperial Ruler.”

A Saint King of Kunlun couldn't help but exclaim.

The Inscription Guild was completely open to the public. Any Saint King cultivator of Kunlun could go to the Imperial Ruler to comprehend the Path. Therefore, there were quite a few people who had come into contact with the Imperial Ruler.

However, no one had expected that the Nine-heavens Maiden could bring the Imperial Ruler out of the Inscription Guild.

This was truly a Divine Artifact, which usually only existed in legends. As an eternal and indestructible Macroworld like Kunlun, only ten artifacts appeared in hundreds of millions of years.

“Milady, what exactly happened?” A saint of the imperial court asked.

At this point, the Nine-heavens Maiden would not hide it anymore and she said seriously, “An elite from the Infernal Court entered the Rainbow Pavilion through the Voidbridge of Chaos. He intended to destroy the spiritual roots of Kunlun.”

Hearing this, all the cultivators of Kunlun were shocked and then furious.

“Such a thing happened. We must not let the scheme of the Infernal Court succeed.”

“Yes, even if I have to die, I will stop Hell.”

“Kunlun has finally produced a new spiritual root of heaven and earth, which is the hope of our Kunlun, more important than our lives.”

“Although I am weak, I am not afraid of a battle with the Infernal Court. Milady, please lead us into the Rainbow Pavilion to protect the spiritual roots of the world and Kunlun.”

...

All the cultivators of Kunlun were in high spirits and their blood was boiling.

In the face of righteousness, they did not care about their own lives.

“Then let us fight together for Kunlun, live for Kunlun, and die for Kunlun,” the Nine-heavens Maiden said with a determined look in her eyes.

As she spoke, she mobilized her Saint Qi and spiritual power to activate the Imperial Ruler to its fullest.

Billions of complicated Divine Marks appeared on the surface of the Imperial Ruler, and majestic divine force surged out.

BOOM!

A resplendent ruler’s light burst forth and ruthlessly struck the barrier.

The barrier trembled violently, but it wasn’t broken.

The Nine-heaven Maiden’s current strength was not strong enough to unleash the power of the Imperial Ruler.

Of course, there was another important fact. There wasn’t a vessel spirit within the Imperial Ruler. Otherwise, a casual attack would have the means to destroy the world.

Even without a vessel spirit, not everyone could use it.

There was a vessel spirit mark in the Imperial Ruler. Only when it was recognized could it have temporary control.

“Milady, we will aid you.”

The Kunlun cultivators all attacked and gathered their power on the Nine-heavens Maiden.

The Saint Light and divine light on the Nine-heavens Maiden became more and more dazzling, like a sun hanging in the sky. She activated the Imperial Ruler again and launched an even more powerful attack.

With the Imperial Ruler and the power of tens of thousands of cultivators of Kunlun, she believes that she could break the seal of the Realm-sealing Talisman.

In the Rainbow Pavilion.

After the Realm-sealing Talisman was attacked many times, Maiden of a Thousand Stars finally caught the aura of the High-Saint Talisman Master.

Maiden of a Thousand Stars used her sleeve to wipe the sweat off her forehead. The pressure on her shoulder was lifted instantly. Then, a cold glint appeared in her bright and beautiful eyes, she said, “Detestable fellow, you’ve made me spend so much time on locating you. Let’s see just how capable you are.”

“Divine Crusher of Origin.”

She released all of her spiritual energy without holding back and turning it into a spinning spiritual energy crusher. Combining both of her spiritual energy and the Power of Origin.

The High-Saint Talisman Master who was in charge of controlling the Realm-sealing Talisman was a skinny Deathkin elite.

He was sitting cross-legged in the middle of a pile of rocks. As he was covered in talismans, the space around him turned into half-empty space. Because of this, even Maiden of a Thousand Stars’ Divine Eye of Origin couldn’t reveal him.

It was almost impossible for anyone below the Supreme Sainthood to find his tracks.

Suddenly, he opened his eyes and revealed a strange expression. He said, “Oh? What a powerful spiritual energy attack, and... It’s the Power of Origin.”

This Deathkin High-Saint Talisman Master didn’t dare to underestimate his opponent. He hurriedly released his spiritual energy and formed an illusory defensive barrier. There were thirty-six shields appeared on the barrier.

Although Maiden of a Thousand Stars wasn’t a High-Saint Talisman Master yet, her spiritual energy was astonishing. It wasn’t much weaker than that Deathkin High-Saint Talisman Master.

With the Power of Origin, the might of the Divine Crusher of Origin was not ordinary.

Therefore, although it was only defense, it consumed almost 90% of the Deathkin High-Saint Talisman Master's spiritual power and was completely restrained.

As a result, his control over the Realm-sealing Talisman was greatly weakened.

Boom

With the joint efforts of the Nine-heavens Maiden and many Kunlun cultivators, the Imperial Ruler was finally able to break the barrier and tear a hole that was hundreds of meters wide.

“It is undoubtedly the aura of the Infernal Court's cultivators. Let's attack together and end them once and for all. Charge!”

“Charge!”

Accompanied by earth-shaking shouts, the cultivators gathered here rushed into the Rainbow Pavilion through the gap like a tide.

Chapter 2205: Imperial Ruler on Hand, Peerless One Shall Be Without the Deathkin High-Saint Talisman Master's control, the barrier formed by the Realm-sealing Talisman was damaged. Its recovery speed was much slower and it couldn't repair itself immediately.

Whoosh

Many elites hiding in the dark appeared one after another and rushed toward the gap.

Since they had already confirmed that there were elites from the Infernal Court in the Rainbow Pavilion, they naturally had no reason to stand by and watch. Besides, many people had already received the order from the Celestial Palace, but they were all blocked by the Realm-sealing Talisman and couldn't get in.

In the Rainbow Pavilion.

The cultivators from the Celestial and Infernal Courts all looked at the gap of the barrier.

The morale of the Celestial Court was naturally high. The arrival of countless reinforcements was enough to turn the situation around and tilt the balance of victory in their direction.

The cultivators of the Infernal Court looked grave. They hadn't expected that someone else would barge in from the outside after Zhang Ruochen.

"Kill Zhang Ruochen immediately and take down the dimensional teleportation array. We don't have much time left."

An elite of the Infernal Court roared.

As he spoke, he waved his hand and struck out many talismans at the cultivators who had entered the Rainbow Pavilion.

The other elites from the Infernal Court also attacked after they saw the elite make a move. Countless talismans were cast from all directions. The power they released was enough to destroy a primitive world.

The Infernal Court was well prepared to complete this mission and they had considered all possible situations.

The gap between the dimensional teleportation array was over a thousand miles away. Due to the obstruction of the elites from the Infernal Court and the large number of talismans they had thrown out, it was not an easy task for the reinforcements from the Celestial Court to rush over.

Yan Wushen calculated that the Infernal Court could only delay for 15 minutes at most.

If they could not take down the dimensional teleportation array and lock onto the spatial coordinates of the Saturn Peach Tree during this time, the mission would fail and they could only choose to retreat.

All the elites of the Infernal Court felt a strong sense of urgency. They were the elites of the ten clans of the Infernal Court. If they could not complete the mission, how would they save their face?

The elites might face some punishment if they returned to the Infernal Court empty-handed.

Yan Wushen said, "Zhang Ruochen, I wish to have a good fight with you. Unfortunately, Now is not the right time. Since you want to sacrifice yourself for Kunlun, I'll fulfill your wish."

He wanted to fight Zhang Ruochen fair and square.

Sadly, it was hard for him to get what he wanted today.

The Book of Death was revived and brought on a kingdom of death. It made the surrounding space become dead silent and destroyed all life in the world.

"Death is the eternal destination of all living things."

An ancient and obscure voice sounded. It contained unspeakable and terrible magic power. It wanted to guide all living things toward death without hesitation.

Even Zhang Ruochen, Bookworm, and Moha's spiritual wills were affected. Their Saint Souls trembled and were extremely uncomfortable.

Zhang Ruochen felt a great threat. He probably won't be able to resist Yan Wushen's attack in his current state.

'Looks like I'll have to use them,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen opened up his inner Qiankun Realm. A streak of divine light flew out and transformed into a ferocious beast. The beast is shaped like a demonic wolf, but with a huge dragon head, wings on its ribs, black scales-covered body, and four tails of different colors behind it.

ROAR!

The beast roared and it gave off a terrifying aura. It had reached the Hundred Shackle Realm and was much stronger than average Hundred Shackle Realm Saints.

It was Dragon Phantom Lord that Zhang Ruochen had tamed on True Dragon Island. A combination of four divine forces and his strength shouldn't be underestimated.

As soon as the Dragon Phantom Lord came out, he opened his mouth and shot a streak of divine light toward Yan Wushen.

This divine light was formed from four kinds of divine force interwoven together, fusing and possessing a terrifying power that could destroy and melt everything.

Boom

The four-colored divine light was unparalleled, and it instantly destroyed the kingdom of death brought forth from the Book of Death.

However, just as the four-colored divine light was about to touch Yan Wushen, a dark divine light suddenly burst out from Yan Wushen and perfectly protected him.

In the next moment, the dark divine light annihilated the four-colored divine light and shot into Dragon Phantom Lord.

Boom

Dragon Phantom Lord shattered like glass and its Saint Soul met the same fate.

With just one hit, the immortal Dragon Phantom Lord died and dissipated.

Only a huge four-colored divine force crystal was left. The sight of it was magnificent.

A Supreme Saint in the Hundred Shackle Realm had died just like that!

Zhang Ruochen was not surprised by it, as if he had already expected the result.

At this stage, Kunlun wouldn't allow any elite above the Saint Kinghood to appear. Once the Emissaries Vigilant found out, they would be killed with no mercy.

However, the Realm-sealing Talisman was sealing the Rainbow Pavilion recently and cut off from the outside world. No one knew what was going on inside.

Under such circumstances, Zhang Ruochen hadn't let Dragon Phantom Lord out because he had thought that there was a Divine Envoy from the Infernal Court. If Dragon Phantom Lord was attacked by an elite above the Saint Kinghood, then he would counterattack passively.

After all, everyone here was a top-notch Saint Kings. Zhang Ruochen couldn't be the only Divine Envoy. The god of the Infernal Court would give Yan Wushen and the others the protection they deserved.

The truth was just as Zhang Ruochen had expected. Letting the Dragon Phantom Lord out was simply courting death.

However, at this point, he had no other choice. To protect the dimensional teleportation array, he had to sacrifice Dragon Phantom Lord.

It was worthy to sacrifice a Hundred Shackle Realm Supreme Saint to buy some time.

Zhang Ruochen thought that the leaders of the ten clans of the Infernal Court should all have the status of Divine Envoys. Which can be regarded as a kind of trump card.

In other parts of Kunlun, the identity of Divine Envoys might not be of much use. Just like on True Dragon Island, the moment Dragon Phantom Lord appeared, he killed the Army of the Infernal Court and forced them to flee.

However, it was different in the Rainbow Pavilion. With the hole in the Voidbridge of Chaos, the gods of the Infernal Court could use some treasures to transmit their divine force.

On the other hand, if the Infernal Court sent an elite beyond the Saint Kingdom to attack Zhang Ruochen, the Staff of the Divine Envoy given by Moon Goddess would also be activated.

A dark golden token floated in front of Yan Wushen. Countless Divine Mark interweaved on it, faintly emitting a terrifying divine might. It was this token that had released a terrifying divine light and killed the Dragon Phantom Lord.

“This is the monster you subdued on the True Dragon Island, right? I heard Son of Darkness was swallowed by this monster in one bite. If you didn’t break through the void, you might have succeeded. But now, you no longer have the chance.” Yan Wushen’s eyes were sharp, his body exuded a Primordial Infernal Yama Qi.

Zhang Ruochen said calmly, “The Celestial Court’s army has entered the Rainbow Pavilion. You won’t be able to resist it and your chances are out. If this drags on, all the elites of the Infernal Court, including you, Yan Wushen, will die here.”

“Zhang Ruochen, why are you talking nonsense? You will die before the Celestial Court’s army arrives. The spatial coordinates of the Saturn Peach Tree will be locked. Charge!” Shi Juexin roared with an impressive aura.

Once again, he summoned the gray mountain and poured in half of the purest power into the mountain. He pushed the mountain’s power to the limit at all costs.

They didn’t have much time left. They had to complete the mission no matter what price they had to pay.

Jadesky Bone Emperor and the Nether Fiend had the same idea, and they both used their strongest techniques to kill

Zhang Ruochen.

If they could kill Zhang Ruochen and complete the mission, they would have two great contributions.

The other elites of the three clans didn't hesitate either. They attacked Zhang Ruochen one by one.

Zhang Ruochen's heart sank. In his current state, even if he could survive this round of attacks, he would be heavily injured and lose all his combat power.

"Lord of Stone and Lord of Sword, come forth and fight for Kunlun!" Zhang Ruochen's voice sounded in the Qiankun Realm.

Zhang Ruochen valued both Lord of Stone and Lord of Sword very much. They both have great growth potential, far surpassing Dragon Phantom Lord. They could become his right-hand men in the future.

If he had a choice, he would not sacrifice them for anything.

On the other side, the Nine-heavens Maiden cast her eyes to where Zhang Ruochen was. She could not help but look anxious.

She immediately released her spiritual power and Saint Qi and infused them into the Imperial Ruler.

The Imperial Ruler was a mysterious item with infinite possibilities. It made the space under Nine-heavens Maiden shrink. The distance of thousands of meters became one 33 centimeters long. She took a step forward and appeared beside Zhang Ruochen.

Nine-heavens Maiden didn't say anything. She activated the Imperial Ruler and smashed it at Yan Wushen and the others to fight against their attack.

Even without the vessel spirit, the Divine Artifact still had a terrifying power.

Of course, to activate it, one needed to use a huge amount of Saint Qi or spiritual energy. Ordinary Saint King cultivators wouldn't be able to withstand it at all.

Billions of complicated Divine Mark appeared on the surface of the Imperial Ruler. Endless divine force surged out and suppressed the world.

Boom

The Imperial Ruler neutralized all the attacks of Yan Wushen and the cultivators of the three races from Infernal Court in an instant.

However, the divine light of the Imperial Ruler dimmed, and the power of the attack was exhausted.

Nine-heavens Maiden's face became very pale.

She was already injured, and now that she forcefully activated the Divine Artifact, her body clearly couldn't take it.

"Zhang Ruochen, I'll leave the Imperial Ruler to you."

Nine-heavens Maiden's voice rang in Zhang Ruochen's ears.

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen reached out his right hand and held the Imperial Ruler, which was 3 meters long.

Without a doubt, Nine-heaven Maiden had communicated with the vessel spirit mark of the Imperial Ruler beforehand, so it could be controlled by Zhang Ruochen immediately.

"Imperial Ruler, one of the ten great Divine Artifacts of Kunlun."

A strange light flashed in Yan Wushen's eyes, and then his eyes became serious.

In the Middle Ages, the ten great Divine Artifacts of Kunlun could be said to be well-known. Their names shook the Celestial Court and the Infernal Court. Almost everyone knew about them.

Many cultivators entered Kunlun intending to collect the Divine Artifacts.

Not to mention a complete Divine Artifact, even a damaged one was invaluable.

Except for Zhang Ruochen, no one thought that the treasure that the Nine-heavens Maiden borrowed was a Divine Artifact.

With the Imperial Ruler in hand, Zhang Ruochen let out a long cry. All his gloom was swept away. There was no need to sacrifice the Lord of Stone and Lord of Sword to protect the dimensional teleportation array.

The next moment, Zhang Ruochen operated the Empyrean Emperor Ming’s Scripture and poured all his Saint Qi into the Imperial Ruler.

Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Qi was far more powerful and of a higher quality compared to Nine-heavens Maiden.

To use the Imperial Ruler’s power to the best of his ability, Zhang Ruochen deliberately used the Canon of Truth to further activate the divine force contained in the Imperial Ruler.

Zhang Ruochen raised the Imperial Ruler with both hands and said with a fierce look, “Yan Wushen, take this.”

Among all the elites present, Yan Wushen was the biggest threat. As long as he was eliminated, the danger would be more than half solved.

Crash

The Imperial Ruler emitted dazzling divine light and condensed a solid blade that was thousands of meters long. It chopped down in the air.

At this moment, Yan Wushen’s expression finally changed.

Even someone as strong as him couldn’t help but feel a great threat.

As for the others, they were even more shocked. The Imperial Ruler in Zhang Ruochen’s hand was very different from the Nine-Heavens Maiden’s.

Being locked on by the Divine Artifact, Yan Wushen couldn’t dodge. He knew that normal methods couldn’t block this ruler.

Immediately, Yan Wushen activated the powerful Divine Marks engraved on his body, and all of them appeared clearly.

Creak

The ruler's blade landed solidly on Yan Wushen's shoulder, instantly shattering the Divine Marks.

However, taking advantage of this gap, Yan Wushen's golden body rapidly shrank, from 30 meters to 30 centimeters. His body transformed into a stream of light, narrowly avoiding the ruler's blade and retreating far away.

The most powerful golden body technique of Buddhism had two forms. When it became 30 meters, it could double its power and its combat strength was unparalleled.

When it became 30 centimeters, it could increase its speed and use it to escape.

Yan Wushen did not expect that he would use his golden body to escape.

The two Saint Kings of Infernal Court nearest to Yan Wushen were sent flying by the aftershock of the Imperial Ruler before they could react.

In front of Zhang Ruochen, a deep ravine hundred meters long appeared on the ground. The entire Rainbow Pavilion was almost split into two.

"Die!" Zhang Ruochen shouted coldly and waved the Imperial Ruler again.

Boom

The Imperial Ruler struck the Bone Clan Saint King who had been sent flying. Even though he had a Supreme Saint-level Bone physique, it shattered in an instant.

The Bone Physique couldn't resist the Imperial Ruler, and the Saint Soul was destroyed.

Zhang Ruochen didn't stop. He struck again and killed another Netherkin elite who had been sent flying.

Then, Zhang Ruochen held the Imperial Ruler. Like a god of death, he charged toward the other elites of the three clans.

"No!" A Stone Clan elite roared unwillingly. He tried his best to resist.

Unfortunately, it was all in vain. All his defenses were like paper in front of the Imperial Ruler and they were easily broken through.

The ruler landed an attack and he followed in the footsteps of the Bone Clan and Nether Clan elites. His bones were shattered and his Saint Soul was destroyed.

Boom

Boom

...

Zhang Ruochen waved the Imperial Ruler continuously. Every time he waved, an elite of the Infernal Court would be destroyed.

No weaklings were killed in the process. They were all top-notch elites first-tier below the Supreme Sainthood. They were extremely powerful and had many treasures, but no one could resist the Imperial Ruler's attack.

As the saying goes, the situation will never stay the same. No one had expected the situation to change so quickly. It was so sudden that no one was prepared for it.

A moment ago, they had been trying to kill Zhang Ruochen. In the blink of an eye, their lives were in Zhang Ruochen's hands.

"Hiss."

Seeing this scene, both the cultivators of the Celestial Court and the Infernal Court couldn't help but gasp.

The power of a Divine Artifact was so terrifying.

All of a sudden, the elites of the Infernal Court thought of retreating. Without waiting for the army of the Celestial Court to attack, Zhang Ruochen alone was probably not something they could fight.

They had planned everything, but they hadn't expected that a perfect Divine Artifact would appear. This became the biggest variable.

Wan Xin was shocked and thought to himself, "The Imperial Ruler is in Zhang Ruochen's hands. He is invincible below the Supreme Sainthood. Even Yan Wushen chose to retreat. It's almost impossible to get Zhang Ruochen's body.

Wan Xin's master had ordered him to bring Zhang Ruochen's body back. If he failed, he wouldn't be able to answer Asurendra Samay.

As he thought, Wan Xin's gaze suddenly locked onto Chi Kongyue, who was standing on the Altar of Saints.

A Master of Time with a Five-element Chaotic Body. Although it can't be compared to Zhang Ruochen, it will have to do.' Wan Xin thought of an idea.

Immediately, Wan Xin controlled the long River of Time, forcing back all the elites who were attacking him.

Then, he ignored all obstacles and rushed to the Altar of Saints.

The Altar of Saints was extraordinary, but it was restricted by the Bridge of Vaitarna, so its power was greatly reduced. The powerful force contained in it couldn't be activated at all.

Wan Xin moved in a flash and he performed a ghost-like movement technique and arrived in front of the Altar of Saints in an instant.

Splash

The River of Time broke through the layers of obstacles and entered the Altar of Saints, enveloping Chi Kongyue in an instant.

“Put down the Little Princess KongYue.”

The Mastodon-Devouring Rabbit and the Demon Ape roared and attacked with all their strength, trying to shatter the River of Time.

Bang

The River of Time trembled and released an extremely terrifying power, which easily sent the Mastodon-Devouring Rabbit and Demon Ape flying.

The Mark of Time entered their bodies and cut off their hundreds of years of life, temporarily making them weak.

The Mastodon-Devouring Rabbit turned its head and shouted at Zhang Ruochen anxiously.

At this time, Zhang Ruochen had killed seven elites in a row. Two were from the Bone Clan, two were from the Nether Clan, and three were from the Stone Clan. He had killed so many elites of the three clans that they were terrified.

Zhang Ruochen was about to take advantage of this opportunity to kill Yan Wushen and the remaining elites of the three clans. When he heard this, he froze.

In an instant, Zhang Ruochen’s gaze locked onto Chi Kongyue, who was wrapped in the River of Time.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was distracted, Yan Wushen and the elites of the three clans immediately used their extreme speed and rushed toward the spatial hole where the Voidbridge of Chaos was.

This was the best chance to retreat. If they missed it and were surrounded by the cultivators of the Celestial Court, they would probably die.

As for taking down the dimensional teleportation array, they knew from the moment Zhang Ruochen got the Imperial Ruler that it was impossible.

At the same time, the other elites of the Infernal Court were also retreating. No one wanted to face Zhang Ruochen with the Imperial Ruler.

“Let go of Kongyue! Do You Want to Die?”

Zhang Ruochen shouted angrily and chased after Wan Xin.

Chi Kunlun hadn’t been rescued yet. He wouldn’t watch Chi Kongyue be taken away by the elites of the Infernal Court.

Wan Xin carried Chi Kongyue and said coldly to Zhang Ruochen, “You ruined the plan of the Infernal Court. You’ll have to pay a heavy price for it. Come to the Infernal Court and kill me if you dare.”

With that, Wan Xin jumped into the spatial hole and entered the void. He landed on the Voidbridge of Chaos and ran quickly on it.

Chapter 2206: Charging All The Way Towards Death

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Outside Kunlun, the space became extremely unstable and shook incessantly. The power of nothingness seeped out and was gradually eroding this starry sky.

The cause of it was due to the large-scale divine war between the Celestial Court and the Infernal Court.

After fighting in the void for a long time, even powerful gods would feel overwhelmed. The slightest carelessness would cause the harmful energy to corrode them.

This time, Wargod Bian Zhuang and Lord of Fane of Truth were leading the Celestial Court. Their formation was extremely powerful. From the very beginning, they had a considerable advantage.

Furthermore, they had killed the gods of the Infernal Court.

As a result, the gods of the Infernal Court began to retreat after a series of fierce battles.

With the gods of Celestial Court obstructing them, even if they locked onto the spatial coordinates of the Saturn Peach Tree, it would be very difficult for Infernal Court to succeed.

Lord of Fane of Truth was very angry and released all of its suppression. Her Divine Physique became larger than a planet as its vast divine force turned into a nebula that surrounded her.

Billions of Precepts of Truth flew out from the Lord of Fane of Truth and interweaved with each other. They quickly turned into an incomparably large chaosverse with countless galaxies flowing within.

Huang Tian's eyes froze at the sight of it. He hurriedly released his Precept of Truth and condensed his Realm-frame of Truth.

Like the Lord of Fane of Truth, he was a peerless genius who cultivated the Path of Truth. He condensed the rarely seen—

Boundless Universe, a form of Realm-frame of Truth.

BOOM!

The two vast Realm-frames of Truth like chaosverses collided head-on.

On the surface, the two Realm-frames of Truth did not seem to be very different.

However, when they collided, the Realm-frame of Truth that Huang Tian condensed immediately revealed a flaw as massive cracks appeared.

BANG!

Countless stars exploded within Huang Tian's Realm-frame of Truth. The entire chaosverse was rapidly collapsing, and the situation was irreversible.

"Not good."

Huang Tian's heart sank, and the pressure doubled.

Immediately, Huang Tian raised his stone ax and released his majestic divine force to block in front of him.

Boom

Huang Tian's Realm-frame of Truth completely exploded, and the terrifying power drowned his divine body.

Although he was the Envoy of Truth and had 1% of the Canon of Truth, the Realm-frame of Truth he condensed was also the best. However, compared to the Lord of Fane of Truth, his achievements in the Path of Truth were undoubtedly far inferior.

Under the suppression of the Lord of Fane of Truth's Realm-frame of Truth, Huang Tian was still severely injured even when he blocked the attack with the stone ax. Half of his extremely hard stone body was shattered, and the outcome had already been decided.

"You betrayed your master, your ancestor, the Fane of Truth, and the Celestial Court. Huang Tian, you must pay the price for this." The Lord of Fane of Truth looked down at the suppressed Huang Tian and her eyes were cold and resolute.

The Lord of Fane of Truth stretched out a hand as she spoke. It was enormous and contained a galaxy within it. As the galaxy revolved, it released a terrifying power that pressed down on Huang Tian.

Huang Tian's pupils constricted as he felt an extremely great threat.

"Merge my shattered physique." Huang Tian let out a roar.

Immediately, his damaged stone body merged with the stone ax.

The stone ax was originally one with Huang Tian. The two were born from the same source. When they merged, they could unleash their might to the fullest.

However, very few people could force the tyrant Huang Tian to fuse with the stone ax.

Right now, he chose to do this not for a bloody battle but to escape. The Lord of Fane of Truth was ridiculously strong, and she was not someone he could fight against currently.

Boom

The stone ax released a monstrous divine force, breaking free from the suppression of the Realm-frame of Truth in one move.

At the same time, the stone ax shattered the void, pierced through the galaxy, and flew out of the void.

"You won't get away from me."

The Lord of Fane of Truth shouted and grabbed the stone ax with her outstretched palm.

However, the stone ax's speed was shockingly fast, and in an instant, he escaped beyond the vast starry sky.

BOOM! BOOM!

In the starry sky, the planets exploded one after another, unable to withstand the impact of the soaring stone ax. Ever since Huang Tian was born, he has rarely been chased after in such a pathetic manner.

The Lord of Fane of Truth took a step forward and followed closely behind a stone ax. She did not intend to let Huang Tian off so easily.

And seeing Huang Tian escape, the gods of the Infernal Court lost their fighting spirit and retreated.

At this point, the divine war had come to an end.

Some of the gods of Infernal Court had fallen. Thus, the Celestial Court had claimed triumph.

...

In the Rainbow Pavilion.

Zhang Ruochen was furious. Holding the Imperial Ruler, he shrunk the ground into an inch. He took a step forward and arrived at the spatial hole.

However, the elites of the ten clans of Infernal Court were falling back to the Voidbridge of Chaos and rushed to the spatial hole on the other side.

Wan Xin was the fastest. In the blink of an eye, he was nowhere to be seen.

Yan Wushen stood on the Voidbridge of Chaos and blocked Zhang Ruochen's way.

"Yan Wushen, you dare to block me? Do you think I can't kill you? Those who stand in my way today shall die," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were cold. He waved the Imperial Ruler and hacked at Yan Wushen.

"Then let's Fight!" said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen's eyes were serious. With a wave of his hand, more than a dozen powerful weapons flew out to meet the Imperial Ruler.

These weapons belonged to the three clans that Zhang Ruochen had killed. Yan Wushen kept them. Each weapon was incredibly powerful. At the very least, they were comparable to a Regal Artifact. There were even several that were comparable to a Supreme Artifact.

No matter what, he had to buy time for the cultivators of the Infernal Court to retreat.

Even if Zhang Ruochen was in control of the Divine Artifact, he had nothing to fear.

Crack

The moment Zhang Ruochen swung the Imperial Ruler, there was a cracking sound. Then, it turned into bright fragments and flew out.

In front of a Divine Artifact, even a Regal Artifact was no different from a piece of scrap metal.

After Zhang Ruochen destroyed seven weapons in a row, his attack was blocked.

Rumble

At this moment, the Voidbridge of Chaos beneath them shook violently. It quickly crumbled and turned into nothingness.

That was because the gods of the Infernal Court had retreated. The Voidbridge of Chaos had lost the god's control.

However, when Yan Wushen was blocking Zhang Ruochen, the top-notch Saint Kings of the ten clans of Infernal Court had all retreated from the void. There were no more casualties.

Yan Wushen used the dimension treasure to protect himself. He controlled the remaining soldiers and retreated quickly.

The erosive power of the void was terrifying. Even the dimension treasure had cracked after holding on for a few breaths.

Yan Wushen's thick brows furrowed. He knew he couldn't stay in the void anymore and said, "According to my agreement with Asurendra Samay, I should have defeated you completely and brought your body back to the Infernal Court for it to possess. Unfortunately, you have the Imperial Ruler and I can't do anything to you."

"Since Wan Xin took Chi Kongyue away, it means that he has decided to replace you with Chi Kongyue."

Leaving these words, Yan Wushen took out a shuttle-shaped dimension treasure and shattered the space behind him. He leaped and left the void.

Yan Wushen told the secret of Asurendra Samay because he wanted to lure Zhang Ruochen to the Infernal Court. He felt that the fight between him and Zhang Ruochen could only be decided when he reached the Supreme Sainthood.

If Zhang Ruochen went to the Infernal Court, they would have more chances to fight.

“Zhang Ruochen, you are my sharpening stone. With you, I can become stronger.” Yan Wushen’s voice drifted over and echoed in the void.

...

“Asurendra Samay... possession...” Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were filled with blood capillaries as if he was about to be possessed.

It turned out that Wan Xin had captured Chi Kongyue to give him to a god in the Infernal Court for possession.

The result of possession meant that Chi Kongyue’s Saint Soul would be devoured, leaving only a soulless vessel.

Thinking of all this, no matter how steady his state of mind was, it became chaotic.

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and said repeatedly, “No, no... it’s impossible. Nothing must happen to Kongyue. Nothing must happen to him.”

Boom

Zhang Ruochen waved the Imperial Ruler and forcefully broke open the space. He rushed out of the void and appeared in the air outside the Central Imperial City. He suddenly fell to the ground, sinking a large area of the ground around him.

Even though Wan Xin had escaped far away, Zhang Ruochen still locked onto his Qi at the first moment.

“Wan Xin!” Zhang Ruochen let out an angry roar. The space shook and the ground shook. He chased after him quickly.

Outside the Central Imperial City, the cultivators of the Infernal Court had made all sorts of arrangements. There were hundreds and thousands of arrays to defend and seal the space. They couldn't use the Great Dimensional Shift.

"Zhang Ruochen is a daredevil, he managed to chase us until we were out of the city!"

"Damn it. Does he think he's invincible? Outside the city is the camp of the Sainthood Army of the Infernal Court. There are many powerhouses. How can we let him be so presumptuous?"

"Humph, he's courting death. So what if he has the Divine Artifact? He'll still die today."

The powerhouses of the Infernal Court who had just escaped from the Rainbow Pavilion all looked at Zhang Ruochen with murderous intent.

In the Rainbow Pavilion, many of the Infernal Court elites were killed by Zhang Ruochen and some had to run away, leading to the failure of the mission. Everyone had been holding their anger, and now they could vent it out.

"Let's kill Zhang Ruochen."

The leaders ordered at the same time.

All of a sudden, the cultivators of the Infernal Court attacked Zhang Ruochen with weapons, saint techniques, talismans, and so on.

The Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth within a radius of 10,000 meters became restless, and a terrifying storm formed.

A Supreme Saint would be beaten to death, let alone a Saint King.

Zhang Ruochen flew in the air, and his body emitted monstrous killing intent. He poured all his Saint Qi into the Imperial Ruler and hacked forward one foot with all his strength.

He only wanted to save Chi Kongyue now. No matter who stood in front of him, he had to split them open.

The Imperial Ruler released a dazzling jade divine light. Billions of Divine Mark appeared clearly, releasing a vast and mighty divine force like the ocean.

Boom

The Imperial Ruler's divine force disintegrated all the cultivators of Infernal Court's attacks.

However, Zhang Ruochen still suffered a big impact. His body couldn't help but fall back. The Blood Qi in him surged violently, and he spat out a mouthful of Saint Blood.

It was said that two fists couldn't beat four hands. What's more, Zhang Ruochen was facing tens of millions of Sainthood soldiers from the Infernal Court. He was no different from a moth flying to a flame.

"All Array Masters, set up a killing formation and block the way forward."

A Heavenly Lord of the Asura gave the order.

He knew why Zhang Ruochen had killed his way out of the city, so he wouldn't let Zhang Ruochen catch up no matter what.

The elites of the Infernal Court who had participated in the Battle of the Rainbow Pavilion also understood Zhang Ruochen's intention. So they rushed to his front, blocked his way, and kept attacking. Now was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to kill Zhang Ruochen, the great enemy of the Infernal Court.

With Zhang Ruochen's attainments, no one could hold him back if he chose to retreat. No matter how many cultivators of the Infernal Court there were.

However, if he continued to move forward, he would only die.

A large group of Array Masters rushed out of the camp of the Infernal Court and set up the formation at the speed of light.

The Infernal Court did send ten High-Saint Array Masters, but in reality, it was far more than that. As for the Array Saint Master, there were even more.

The killing formation that hundreds of Array Masters could set up must be extremely powerful. Even a Supreme Saint could easily get killed.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were full of determination. He had no fear at all. He stepped on the air and moved forward.

In the blink of an eye, Zhang Ruochen was surrounded by a large Saint army of the Infernal Court. There were shadow clones everywhere. They were impenetrable. The sound of killing filled the whole world.

With the leaders of the various clans as prominent figures, they formed powerful battle formations. They could attack and defend.

Everyone was afraid of the Imperial Ruler. They didn't dare to fight it alone.

After all, when they were in the Rainbow Pavilion, the top-notch elites of the ten clans had seen Zhang Ruochen kill seven elites with the Imperial Ruler. Even Yan Wushen had almost been killed.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen sent hundreds of Saints of the Infernal Court flying with a swing. Their bodies were still in the air and they turned into ashes and were all destroyed.

However, Zhang Ruochen also paid the price.

Jiang Lin and Tian Xuan combined with the ten thousand Saint Realm Army of the Corpusian to form a grayish-brown blade. They broke through Zhang Ruochen's defense and slashed at his waist. Blood gushed out like a fountain.

This slash almost cut Zhang Ruochen in half.

Zhang Ruochen didn't fall. He stood up again and sent Jiang Lin, Tian Xuan, and the ten thousand Corpusian armies flying. Thousands of them turned into corpses and fell from the sky to the ground and broke into pieces.

But soon, more saints of the Infernal Court rushed up and blocked Zhang Ruochen's path.

The path of retreat was completely sealed.

Shink!

Zhang Ruochen charged 300 meters forward, leaving behind a trail of corpses and blood.

More wounds appeared on Zhang Ruochen's body. His chest was pierced, his ribs almost shattered, and his organs were torn.

His eyes were still fixed on the direction where Wan Xin had escaped.

“Kongyue...”

Zhang Ruochen shouted. There was a trace of sadness in his voice.

There was blood flowing in his hair because his skull had been shattered. However, he did not look dispirited at all. Instead, his fighting spirit burned. His killing intent soared to the sky as he continued to swing the Imperial Ruler forward.

The commotion outside the city was so big that it naturally attracted the attention of many elites.

Tens of millions of Saint soldiers of the Celestial Court had gathered in the imperial city. Only a small portion of them had rushed to the Rainbow Pavilion. The top-notch elites were only limited to those who were friends with Zhang Ruochen.

At this moment, many leaders of the Macroworld had rushed to the city wall to look from afar.

“What happened? Why is Zhang Ruochen frenzied?”

“It's divine force! Is Zhang Ruochen holding the legendary Imperial Ruler that can measure the cultivation of Saint Kings, Supreme Saints, and gods?”

“Does Zhang Ruochen think that he can fight against tens of millions of Saint soldiers of the Infernal Court with just a Divine Artifact? If that's the case, why would the Celestial Court send armies from all over the world?”

“Zhang Ruochen has been surrounded by the army of the Infernal Court. It's too late for him to retreat now.”

...

The outside world wasn't clear about what had happened in the Rainbow Pavilion.

Prince Tianpeng, the leader of the Demon God Realm, frowned and whispered, "If Zhang Ruochen dies, it will have a great impact on the morale of the Celestial Court."

He was considering whether he should help at this time.

With Zhang Ruochen's means, if someone helped him, he would still have a chance to retreat.

However, to do this, he needed to rely on the cooperation of many elites. Even if Prince Tianpeng wanted to, others might not be willing.

If he wanted to save Zhang Ruochen, it was not a small matter. Many people would die. The leaders of any world had to consider.

Zhou Yu was standing on the city wall at the moment, with a fierce gleam in his eyes, "Zhang Ruochen, you're asking for death. You can't blame anyone. You killed many geniuses of the sect of Heavenly Realm. Even if you don't die at the hands of the elites of the Infernal Court, the sect of Heavenly Realm will never let you go."

No matter what other people thought, Zhou Yu was hoping that Zhang Ruochen would be killed soon.

As long as Zhang Ruochen was alive, he would be a great threat to him.

After knowing that the plan to kill Zhang Ruochen had failed, Zhou Yu began to worry that Zhang Ruochen would come to settle the score with him.

Zhou Yu was undoubtedly happy to see the current situation.

Chapter 2207: The Physique Transcending to Supreme Sainthood

Outside the imperial city, killing intent soared into the sky. The Saint army of the Infernal Court launched fierce attacks again and again. Those who wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen were extremely determined.

Zhang Ruochen walked step by step with bloody footprints. Each step he took would aggravate his injury. He's like a lonely boat in the sea, it could capsize at any time.

The leaders of the various clans were all very aggressive. They wanted nothing more than to kill Zhang Ruochen with their own hands.

"Brother, are we just going to watch Zhang Ruochen be killed?" Xue Ningxiao frowned.

Lord Xue Chen shook his head and said, "Killing Zhang Ruochen is the main objective of the Infernal Court. At this time, no one can stop it."

Unlike the other leaders, Lord Xue Chen did not participate in the encirclement of Zhang Ruochen. Instead, he led the cultivators of the Bloodsky Clan to defend their position against the attack of the Celestial Court Army.

In this way, he did not contribute to killing Zhang Ruochen and no one could say anything about him.

Zhang Ruochen's identity was too special. It didn't matter what others did. Only the members of the Xue Jue Family could not participate.

"I admire this cousin. He can disregard his own life and death for the people he cares about. Unfortunately, he is fighting against the entire Infernal Court. He is doomed to fail," Xue Ningxiao sighed.

"People who have feelings will have weaknesses," Lord Xue Chen said, "But how many people can completely sever their feelings?"

Even the gods had people or things they cared about.

On the other side, Luo Sha was also looking at Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Sha always had mixed feelings for Zhang Ruochen. Even though some prominent figures had told her about the prophecy of the one she was destined to meet.

However, she did not develop any deep feelings for Zhang Ruochen in her contact with him. Instead, she felt that Zhang Ruochen was her nemesis.

In the past, she had always been successful in everything she did.

Yet, ever since she met Zhang Ruochen, she had suffered losses one after another. She was really annoyed and felt that Zhang Ruochen was extremely repulsive.

But now, she saw that Zhang Ruochen was willing to sacrifice his life to save his daughter and advance fearlessly against the Army of Infernal Court alone.

This was a great shock to Luo Sha. She was deeply touched and had a subtle feeling in her heart.

Perhaps only a person like Zhang Ruochen could be called a true hero. Any woman would yearn to meet a man who could treat her like this.

Luo Sha clenched her fists and bit her red lips. She wished to stop Zhang Ruochen from moving forward.

Somehow, when she saw how badly Zhang Ruochen was injured, she felt sorry for him.

On the city walls of the imperial city, Prince Tianpeng finally expressed his thoughts and discussed them with the leaders of the Celestial Court.

“If we do nothing and just let Zhang Ruochen fight alone outside the city, others might think that we’re afraid of the Infernal Court. We will all become a laughing stock for them,” Prince Tianpeng said.

Saint Lord Wan Zhan nodded. “First, Yan Wushen sneaked into the imperial city, and then the elites of the Infernal Court attacked the Rainbow Pavilion. The Celestial Court has lost face, and we can not continue to be passive. Brother Gongsun, what do you think?”

The leaders all turned their faces and looked at a scholarly young man.

He was 1.8 meters tall and had an outstanding appearance. He exuded an elegant and free temperament, like an immortal.

His name was Gongsun Yuanhao. He was the leader of a Macroworld—Pangu Realm. He kept a low profile but gave off an unfathomable feeling.

“The Celestial Court and the Infernal Court have been confronting each other for a long time. It’s time to put up a good fight. Otherwise, what’s the point of us coming to Kunlun?” Gongsun Yuanhao said meaningfully.

“Now, Zhang Ruochen has single-handedly destroyed tens of millions of Saint soldiers of the Infernal Court. This is a great opportunity for us to make a move. Perhaps we can achieve great results, or even severely injure the Infernal Court and boost the prestige of the Celestial Court.”

Prince Tianpeng and Saint Lord Wan Zhan agreed to what Gongsun Yuanhao had said and nodded slightly.

The Celestial Court had been losing in the Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun. They desperately needed a great victory to boost their morale and reverse the overall decline.

Zhou Yu was feeling anxious after seeing that the leaders of the three worlds had reached an agreement.

‘If Zhang Ruochen was really rescued, would the sect of the Heavenly Realm be peaceful?’ thought Zhou Yu.

However, it was useless for Zhou Yu to be anxious. The elites of the sect of Heavenly Realm had all died in Ziwei Palace. His strength was not enough to change the decision of the Celestial Court.

Although he was also the leader of the Celestial Court on the surface, he was far inferior to Gongsun Yuanhao and the others.

After Gongsun Yuanhao and the other two gave the order, the army of the Celestial Court quickly gathered.

Outside the imperial city, Zhang Ruochen fought and pushed forward.

No matter how powerful the formation of the Infernal Court was, it could not stop him from advancing.

With every step forward, many cultivators of the Infernal Court would fall.

Correspondingly, Zhang Ruochen's injuries would worsen.

Even if Zhang Ruochen kept drinking the Spring of Life, he couldn't completely heal his injuries.

The Infernal Court had changed its strategy. It wanted to pin Zhang Ruochen down with minimal casualties.

Tens of thousands of Stone Clan elites, led by Shi Juexin, condensed a towering gray mountain. Like a planet, it pressed down on Zhang Ruochen.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen waved the Imperial Ruler and slashed out a 30,000-meter-long ray of light, splitting the gray mountain in half.

The bodies of a large number of Stone Clan cultivators exploded. The Saint Soul disappeared in ripples and they turned into granites on the ground.

But at this moment, a large number of Bone Clan cultivators attacked. They condensed into a pitch-black skeletal hand. A vast amount of Power of Darkness and Power of Death surrounded it. The surrounding space was eroded as soon as it was condensed.

The black skeletal hand hit Zhang Ruochen and sent him flying.

Even though Zhang Ruochen was wearing the Armor of the Fire God and had the Divine Mark carved by Moon Goddess, he couldn't resist the power of the black skeletal hand. His wounds were all turned black.

Pfft

Zhang Ruochen used the Imperial Ruler to support himself on the ground. Saint Blood gushed out of his mouth, and his body swayed.

"Zhang Ruochen, you're at the end of your rope. This day next year will be your death anniversary. But by then, I'm afraid no one will remember you," Nether Fiend sneered.

Zhang Ruochen's gaze was as sharp as a knife. He looked at Nether Fiend and didn't say anything. He just waved the Imperial Ruler in his hand silently.

As long as there was one breath left, he would never give up.

Boom

The city gates of the Central Imperial City opened wide. The vast army of the Celestial Court rushed out with great vigor.

Prince Tianpeng, Saint Lord Wan Zhan, Gongsun Yuanhao, and the other leaders all rushed to the front. They showed an invincible momentum.

"Stop them. Kill Zhang Ruochen as soon as possible," an elite of the Infernal Court ordered.

Immediately, the army of the Infernal Court changed direction and faced the army of the Celestial Court.

The army of the Infernal Court that had been mobilized to the imperial city were all experienced in battle, so they were able to remain calm.

Therefore, when the army of the Celestial Court had moved out suddenly, the Army of the Infernal Court did not seem to be too flustered. They quickly adjusted their formation and went to meet the battle.

At this time, there was no doubt that Xue Chen had shown his foresight. He held his ground and seemed to have predicted that the Saint army in the Central Imperial City would come to attack. He was very wise.

However, the power to deal with Zhang Ruochen was greatly weakened.

For a moment, Zhang Ruochen sped up and swept forward.

“Formation up.”

With a loud shout, a magnificent killing formation was suddenly activated.

The killing formation covered a radius of 500 kilometers and wrapped around Zhang Ruochen.

One after another, huge formation prints appeared like mountains, blasting Zhang Ruochen down from the sky.

BANG!

This killing formation was set up by hundreds of Array Saint Masters in the Infernal Court. It was made up of hundreds of small killing formations. They were all linked and intricate.

It could be said that this formation represented the most powerful formation power that the ten clans of the Infernal Court could unleash when they were below the Supreme Saint. If someone below the Supreme Saint could break this formation, it meant that he might be able to destroy the ten clans of the Infernal Court by himself.

How could one person fight against the entire Infernal Court?

Even all the gods of Celestial Court combined couldn't do it.

If one was trapped in the formation, not to mention a Saint King, even a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackled Realm would only be killed.

Zhang Ruochen was ready to kill.

His eyes were cold. He waved the Imperial Ruler and activated the powerful divine force within.

The Imperial Ruler had always been invincible, but this time, it encountered an obstacle.

As soon as the divine force was released, it was quickly dissipated by the killing array. Only slight ripples were created.

Whoosh

Countless array patterns interweaved. Earth, wind, water, fire, and all kinds of power were activated. They became extremely violent.

Strange and terrifying powers twined around Zhang Ruochen. Even if they wanted to stop him from breaking free, they had to refine him step by step.

Zhang Ruochen waved the Imperial Ruler again and again, but he couldn't break the killing formation. He couldn't break free. Instead, he was attacked by the power of the killing formation, and his vitality was greatly reduced.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen trapped in the formation, many cultivators of the Infernal Court couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief. Then they laughed loudly.

In their eyes, Zhang Ruochen was already a trapped beast. He could only be slaughtered at will. He couldn't stir up any more waves.

"Zhang Ruochen, no matter how you struggle, it's futile. Today, you're destined to be destroyed," Shi Juexin said cruelly.

Lan Xuezi sneered, "Invincible below the Supreme Saint? You're just a joke. Whoever dares to ruin the plans of the Infernal Court must pay a heavy price. The former Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations was known as the Ace in Kunlun. Didn't he end up dead as well?"

In the army of the Celestial Court, Zhou Yu was aware of Zhang Ruochen's situation instantly. He couldn't control his emotions, and his eyes were filled with joy.

"Zhang Ruochen, you're going to die in the end. Everything is destined. No matter how amazing you are, you can't defy your destiny."

Zhou Yu was extremely happy and no longer worried.

At this moment, he really wanted to rush over and personally stab Zhang Ruochen to avenge his humiliation at the Sect of the Blood God and for the loss of his arm.

Luo Sha looked from afar. Seeing Zhang Ruochen trapped in the killing array formation and being quickly refined, her eyes couldn't help but turn gloomy. A look of pity appeared in her eyes.

But as a member of the Infernal Court, she couldn't do anything at this time.

"Has fate been broken?" Luo Sha whispered.

After all, if Zhang Ruochen died, how could he be her destined person?

In the killing array formation, Zhang Ruochen activated the Imperial Ruler and tried to resist the refining power of the array.

"Kongyue, I won't let anything happen to you. I haven't taken you to Kongyue Mountain to see the Myriad Lights."

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen was furious, but his eyes were sad and miserable.

He had never thought that he would be so weak that tears would fall.

To be more precise, he was not weak, but he was blaming himself. He blamed himself for being useless. He couldn't even protect his children. First, Chi Kunlun was taken away, and he couldn't be saved. Now, even Chi Kongyue was taken away.

He failed as their father.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but think of every detail he had spent time with Chi Kongyue. Every image was so clear.

He couldn't imagine what he would look like if Chi Kongyue was taken over.

He might never recover.

He might feel guilty for the rest of his life.

He hadn't really been spending much time with Chi Kongyue. He hadn't fulfilled his responsibility as a father. How could everything end like this?

He couldn't even protect the person he cared about the most. What was the point of it, if his cultivation was very high?

"No, I can't fall yet. Kongyue is still waiting for me!" Zhang Ruochen shouted in his heart. His eyes suddenly became sharp.

Whoosh

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen's aura suddenly soared.

144 beams of bright saint light shot out from his wounded body and covered his entire body. They were his 144 acupoints. Each of them was huge and contained a lake of Saint Qi.

At this point, Zhang Ruochen no longer had any worries. Since the power of the Saint Kinghood wasn't enough for him to break through the obstacles and save Chi Kongyue, he would breakthrough to become a Supreme Saint.

His body had been refined to the extreme. Thus, a breakthrough was inevitable.

Boom

A vast pressure of a Supreme Saint radiated from Zhang Ruochen.

The 144 acupoints expanded further. The internal space could accommodate a planet. The Saint Qi of heaven and earth poured in crazily.

"This is the physique of... becoming a Supreme Saint."

Seeing Zhang Ruochen's change, many elites in the Infernal Court changed their expressions.

No one had expected that Zhang Ruochen would cultivate his physique to the level of a Supreme Saint at this time.

Every Martial Art Saint King wanted to become a Supreme Saint with his physique. He could fight against a Supreme Saint with his physique alone, which meant that he had an advantage in nature.

However, it was too difficult to reach this step. One in a hundred cultivators who had become a Saint with their physique could hardly become a Supreme Saint with their physique.

Even someone as powerful as Yan Liren failed to reach the level of a Supreme Saint with his physique back then and he almost died. It wasn't until not long ago that he broke his shackles and reached the Supreme Sainthood with his physique as he wished. He also cultivated the powerful Immortal Blood Silkworm Physique.

Zhang Ruochen's opportunities far surpassed Yan Liren's. He had finally reached this step.

Chapter 2208: The Neverwither Realm and Death

Zhang Ruochen's breakthrough may seem easy, but it was gravely dangerous.

If anything went wrong, he would either be half-crippled or dead. Zhang Ruochen wasn't in a good condition currently. As he was severely injured, it was more difficult for him to break through.

Regardless of what had happened, he had succeeded!

Putting everything on the line and making the impossible possible.

And this was only the beginning. Zhang Ruochen gathered a powerful force and charged it into his heart.

Instantly, his heart emitted an immortal brilliance, which grew stronger and stronger.

Zhang Ruochen had already cultivated his Saint Kinghood to completion. His accumulation was vigorous. He could break through to the Neverwither Supreme Sainthood at almost any time, as long as he wanted to.

And now, he was going to do it.

In the blink of an eye, Zhang Ruochen had transcended his physique into Five-element Chaotic Neverwither Physique.

"Zhang Ruochen has broken through to the Supreme Saint realm. The Path-melding Tribulation is about to happen. Hurry up and withdraw the killing array. Otherwise, you'll be drawn into it," an elite of the Infernal Court said anxiously.

The so-called Path-melding Tribulation was a tribulation that all cultivators had to go through to break through to the Supreme Saint realm.

The reason why the Son of Darkness didn't have a Path-melding Tribulation when he broke through was that True Dragon Island was unique and concealed the secrets of heaven.

It was also because he hadn't experienced the cleansing of the Path-melding Tribulation. Thus, Son of Darkness's strength hadn't reached its peak.

The Path-melding Tribulation was very special. If there was an external force interfering, it would also be implicated. The consequences would be extremely severe.

With Zhang Ruochen as the center, the precepts of heaven and earth within a radius of hundreds of thousands of miles quickly gathered.

Whoosh

Countless precepts of heaven and earth gathered and turned into millions of bright and sharp golden lights. They entered Zhang Ruochen's body through his pores.

As its name implied, the Path-melding Tribulation was to blend with the Precepts from heaven and earth.

In this way, one could better use the precepts of heaven and earth as if they are one.

Under normal circumstances, the more powerful one's accumulation in the Saint Kinghood was, the more difficult it would be to overcome the Path-melding Tribulation. On the other hand, those with average cultivation could easily overcome the Path-melding Tribulation and become a Neverwithier Supreme Saint.

Most Saint Kings only cultivated one Path of Supreme Saint. When they became a Supreme Saint, they only needed to fuse with one precept of heaven and earth.

On the other hand, Zhang Ruochen was different. His cultivation on Time, Dimension, Truth, Swordsmanship, Palm, Fist, and Path of Five-Element had all reached completion. This means that he needed to fuse with these eleven precepts of heaven and earth.

Moreover, because he had completed his cultivation, the process of melding with the precepts of heaven and earth would be extremely dangerous.

The Precepts of Metals from heaven and earth were extremely sharp. They continuously attacked Zhang Ruochen's body and Saint Soul. Words could not describe the pain he had.

Zhang Ruochen's gaze was resolute, but he didn't even make a sound.

Not long after, Zhang Ruochen had melded with the Precepts of Metals from heaven and earth. His body was filled with a layer of faint golden light.

Without stopping, a large number of Precepts of Woods from heaven and earth poured into Zhang Ruochen.

Then, the Precepts of Water, Fire, Earth, and Swordsmanship from heaven and earth...

...

Just as Zhang Ruochen had predicted, this Path-melding Tribulation needed to meld with at least eleven powerful precepts of heaven and earth.

Hiss

Many cultivators of the Infernal Court were shocked by what they witnessed and gasped.

Such a terrifying Path-melding Tribulation was unheard of, let alone seen.

Not many people would be able to withstand melding with one precept of heaven and earth. They would be obliterated by it.

After that, countless Precepts of Time and Dimension appeared at the same time. They evolved into a special Profound Spatial Dimension with a River of Time flowing in it, enveloping Zhang Ruochen.

The trial of time and dimension was the most crucial part of the tribulation.

Zhang Ruochen immediately condensed his Profound Spatial Dimension and River of Time, which was compatible with the Profound Spatial Dimension and River of Time evolved from the precepts of heaven and earth.

His Profound Spatial Dimension and the River of Time were both top-notch, and the precepts of heaven and earth could do nothing to them.

It didn't take long for the two precepts of heaven and earth to disperse, and they didn't cause any harm to Zhang Ruochen.

At this point, Zhang Ruochen had experienced a total of eleven trials from the precepts of heaven and earth, and he had a deeper understanding of these eleven Paths.

Just when Zhang Ruochen thought that the Path-melding Tribulation was over, the pressure on his body suddenly doubled.

Above him, nine layers of the magnificent sky appeared. Each layer was extremely solid and countless precepts of heaven and earth were intertwined.

'Is it because I cultivated the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture?' Zhang Ruochen guessed the reason instantly.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture with all his strength, operating the nine levels of techniques in him at the same time.

The equally magnificent nine-layered sky appeared and overlapped with the nine-layered sky formed by the precepts of heaven and earth.

Zhang Ruochen could feel that there were many strange marks imprinted on the nine-layered sky that he had condensed.

At the same time, he had many epiphanies in his heart. He had a very thorough understanding of the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture.

When the Path-melding Tribulation ended, the nine-layered sky was still hovering above Zhang Ruochen. It gathered the power of heaven and earth and blessed Zhang Ruochen.

An incomparably vast pressure of a Supreme Saint emanated from Zhang Ruochen. It was as if he wanted to rule the world.

After passing the Path-melding Tribulation, Zhang Ruochen's cultivation reached the Neverwithers Supreme Sainthood. The Precepts in him had doubled to 200 million.

Feeling the Supreme Saint's pressure, the hearts of many cultivators in the Infernal Court sank.

Without a doubt, Zhang Ruochen had broken through the realm. His physique had become a Supreme Saint. At the same time, he had forged the Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique and became a genuine Supreme Saint powerhouse.

The wounds on Zhang Ruochen's body had almost all healed.

"How dare you break the rules of the Battlefield of Merits? Die!"

At this moment, an extremely tall figure appeared in the sky, emitting a powerful saint's might.

Outside Kunlun, there were always Emissaries Vigilant from the Celestial and Infernal Court patrolling the Central Imperial City.

They couldn't interfere with the battle in Kunlun before. Now that Zhang Ruochen had become a Supreme Saint, it was undoubtedly a chance for the Emissaries Vigilant from the Infernal Court to intervene.

Suddenly, dark clouds shrouded in the sky. A strong aura of the Infernal Court spread out. Hundreds of pitch-black thunderbolts like demonic snakes fell from the sky and struck directly at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen raised his head. There was no fear in his eyes and he calmly waved the Imperial Ruler.

Using the power of the Supreme Saint to activate the Imperial Ruler, its might was very different from before.

No matter how terrifying the thunderbolts were, they disappeared in an instant when it clashed with the Imperial Ruler.

The Emissaries Vigilant in the sky wasn't very strong.

Back then, Zhang Ruochen had defeated an Emissaries Vigilant before his cultivation had reached the pinnacle of the Saint Kinghood. With his current cultivation, it wasn't difficult for him to resist their attacks.

The next moment, the figures of five Emissaries Vigilant of the Infernal Court appeared in the sky. They joined hands and sent down heavenly punishment to kill Zhang Ruochen.

“Get lost!”

Zhang Ruochen roared in a deep voice. He hacked out a ruler’s ray tens of thousands of miles long into the sky.

The heavenly punishment was scattered again before it could land a hit on Zhang Ruochen.

On the contrary, the five Emissaries Vigilant of the Infernal Court flew backward. If it were not for the barrier of the world membrane, they might have been seriously injured.

With Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation, he could hurt them even though they were thousands of meters away from the void.

“Hurry up and invite the Emissaries Vigilant of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and the Thousand-Koan Realm. We can’t let Zhang Ruochen continue to act recklessly.”

Immediately, an Emissaries Vigilant set out to invite the more powerful Emissaries Vigilant.

Zhang Ruochen ignored the Emissaries Vigilant and looked in the direction where Wan Xin had escaped.

“Wan Xin, leave Kongyue behind.”

With a roar, Zhang Ruochen swung the Imperial Ruler and hacked forward. The majestic power of the Supreme Saint, along with 200 million Precepts, poured into the Imperial Ruler.

The moment a cultivator broke through to Supreme Sainthood, the Precepts in his body would double.

Therefore, the stronger one’s accumulation of the Saint Kinghood, the greater one’s advantage after breaking through to the Supreme Sainthood.

For those cultivators who broke through to the Supreme Sainthood with 30 to 40 million Precepts, even if they managed to cultivate to the advanced stage of the Neverwith Supreme Sainthood, they might not have 200 million Precepts in them.

BOOM!

The ground sank under one foot.

Thousands of Saint cultivators of the Infernal Court were directly turned into ashes and died.

The blockade in front of the Saint cultivators was forcibly broken through and a huge hole was torn open.

Zhang Ruochen didn't hesitate at all. He immediately burst out with extreme speed and streaked across the sky like a meteor.

“Stop him!”

An elite from the Infernal Court shouted.

Instantly, the elite army of the ten clans of Infernal Court moved together and chased after Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had just broken through to the Supreme Sainthood. His cultivation has yet to consolidate, and his strength was far from reaching its peak. Moreover, his injuries seemed to have healed, but some hidden injuries still required some time to heal.

There was no lack of geniuses in the Infernal Court. They thought that Zhang Ruochen was probably at the end of his rope and was just holding on.

Besides, there were tens of millions of Saint soldiers in the Infernal Court. How could they be afraid of a Neverwithers Supreme Saint?

Zhang Ruochen couldn't change his dooming fate even now that he became a Neverwithers Supreme Saint.

From Afar, Zhang Ruochen saw a huge Dimensional Rift that was tens of thousands of miles long. It hung in the air.

With this Dimensional Rift as the center, everything within thousands of miles was dead, the sky was dark and hell-like.

From the Dimensional Rift, the power and aura of the Infernal Court flowed out continuously. Even the precepts of heaven and earth that belonged to the Infernal Court surged over and eroded Kunlun.

The Dimensional Rift connected heaven and earth. Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled around. The surrounding was covered by gray fog. It gave off an extremely dangerous aura.

Seven huge cities hung around the Dimensional Rift and released powerful divine force. As they stabilized the Dimensional Rift, they tore it apart.

Wan Xin turned to look at Zhang Ruochen, who was chasing after him. A cold light appeared in his eyes, “Zhang Ruochen,” he said. “Your body is the most suitable for my master. But since Yan Wushen can’t do anything to you, I can only settle for second-best. It’s Chi Kongyue’s honor to be my master’s body.

“I know you’re angry and want to kill me. If you have the guts to barge into the Infernal Court, I’ll give you a chance.”

Wan Xin naturally didn’t think that Zhang Ruochen dared to barge into the Infernal Court. His words were a bit provocative.

Wan Xin made a move and he flashed into the Dimensional Rift with Chi Kongyue.

Zhang Ruochen had broken through to the Supreme Sainthood and his battle strength was too terrifying. Wan Xin didn’t dare to challenge him. If he was careless, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Now that he had found a suitable body, he should hurry back and report to Asurendra Samay.

“Wan Xin.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were red. He turned into a streak of light and rushed straight into the Dimensional Rift.

Bang

Zhang Ruochen’s body collided with the gray fog of light outside the Dimensional Rift. Instantly, a large amount of lightning surged out and struck him. He was sent flying and fell heavily to the ground.

While flying in the air, Zhang Ruochen's eyes were still fixed on the Dimensional Rift. He could only watch as Wan Xin took Chi Kongyue away and disappeared into the depths of the rift.

His heart was in pain.

It was as if someone had stabbed thousands of knives into his heart. He was in so much pain that he wished he was dead.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen fell to the ground. His Neverwither Physique crashed into the ground and created a canyon that was dozens of miles long.

This Dimensional Rift was specially created by the Infernal Court to transport the army. Only cultivators from the Infernal Court were allowed to pass through. Even cultivators from the Celestial Court were blocked outside.

“Break.”

Zhang Ruochen's hair was disheveled. He crawled up with blood all over his body. He flew up, lifted the Imperial Ruler, and hacked forward.

The Imperial Ruler released vast divine power. Like a divine sword, it crashed into the gray fog of light around the Dimensional Rift.

The seven cities seemed to last forever, indestructible, immortal, and were all glowing. They were delivering unimaginable power.

With a boom, the Dimensional Rift didn't move at all. Instead, more violent lightning and light fog surged out and hit Zhang Ruochen.

Pfft

Zhang Ruochen spat out Saint Blood and flew back again.

His powerful Neverwither Physique was damaged and some of his flesh and blood exploded. More importantly, Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul was being corroded and showed signs of crumbling.

The power formed by the seven cities far surpassed that of an ordinary Supreme Saint.

“Kongyue, Kongyue, Kongyue...”

Zhang Ruochen kept shouting and getting up again. He struck out the Imperial Ruler again and again.

BOOM!

BOOM!

...

Zhang Ruochen’s Neverwithers Physique would crack more severely with each strike, and his Saint Soul would be further dispersed.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen could not think of anything else. There was only one desire in his heart—he had to save Kongyue.

If Kongyue could not be saved, Zhang Ruochen would suffer a fate worse than death.

“Kill.”

“Whoever can kill Zhang Ruochen will become famous among the ten clans of Infernal Court.”

The army of the Infernal Court chased after Zhang Ruochen and attacked him again. More than a million Saint Artifacts like weapons flew out, including Supreme Artifacts and Regal Artifacts.

“Die!” Zhang Ruochen roared. He didn’t turn around to defend. He just attacked the Dimensional Rift in front of him with all his strength.

The gray light fog caved in. A tiny crack appeared as if it was about to break.

BANG!BANG!BANG!

But at this moment, millions of Saint Artifact-level weapons landed on Zhang Ruochen and swallowed him. Even with the protection of the Armor of the Fire God, Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Physique still collapsed on a large scale. His flesh and blood turned into powder.

This was because there was no more blood left in his body.

“Kongyue...”

With a murmur, Zhang Ruochen’s body fell from the sky.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen’s body had almost become a half-broken skeleton. He was not human anymore. He was dead. Even the fluctuations of his Saint Soul had disappeared completely. His soul was scattered.

Sensing that Zhang Ruochen’s life pulses had disappeared, Luo Sha couldn’t help but fall into a daze.

Lord Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao looked at each other. They sighed as their hearts sank to the bottom.

“Hahaha, you’re dead, Zhang Ruochen. No matter how magnificent you are, you’re destined to become enemies with the Infernal Court.” Shi Juexin couldn’t help but laugh. He was in a good mood and had a clear mind.

He wasn’t the only one. Many elites of the Infernal Court were laughing wildly.

No matter how dazzling and invincible Zhang Ruochen was, he still died at their hands.

All the price paid for this was worth it.

...

Chapter 2209: Fusion

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Below the Dimensional Rift, Zhang Ruochen's body lay quietly on the broken ground. It had almost been reduced to a skeleton. Zhang Ruochen was no longer breathing.

However, despite being dead, Zhang Ruochen still held onto Imperial Ruler tightly. He did not give up before his last breath.

He finally fell and was no longer able to fight.

His dimmed, vacant eyes were filled with unwillingness and sorrow. In the end, he still could not save Chi Kongyue.

Zhang Ruochen was considered the most legendary figure of this era. He had brilliant battle achievements and fame that spread across a myriad of Macroworlds. He died not long after he had just become a Supreme Saint.

Once the news spread, it would drop a bomb among many deities.

At this moment, many powerful figures of Infernal Court had come forward and surrounded Zhang Ruochen's body. Their eyes brightened with greed.

Everybody knew Zhang Ruochen had many rare items in his hand, such as Armor of the Fire God, Zangshan Demonic Mirror, the Golden Sun of Destruction, and so on. Each of them was very precious.

Among all, There was even one extraordinary divine weapon that was listed on The Record of Taibai Divine Artifact.

Moreover, Zhang Ruochen had a microworld within his body. Its value was immeasurable.

Even a deity would be tempted by so many treasures and would not be able to resist snatching them.

CRASH!

Imperial Ruler suddenly bloomed with a bright luster and broke free from Zhang Ruochen's grip.

It flew away before the powerhouses from Infernal Court could stop it.

Although Imperial Ruler had no vessel spirit, there was a vessel spirit imprint inside. Ordinary people could not control it, let alone take it by force.

Seeing this, all the elites could not help but feel regretful. They could not do anything with it.

Everyone knew that only a deity could take over a divine artifact.

Fortunately, it was only Imperial Ruler that flew away. The other treasures were still with Zhang Ruochen.

"Zhang Ruochen has many rare items. It's not too late to think about how to distribute them after we find all of them," Nether Fiend suggested.

Hearing this, all the powerful figures could not help but nod slightly. They obviously agreed with Nether Fiend's suggestion. They did not want to have a conflict over the treasures.

Nether Fiend immediately stepped forward and prepared to search Zhang Ruochen's body so he could identify and count the items.

Whoosh!

At this moment, there was a slight distortion in the space. A tall figure appeared out of thin air and stood in front of Zhang Ruochen's body.

It was none other than Yan Wushen, who had disappeared without a trace after coming out of the void.

Yan Wushen glanced at Zhang Ruochen, who no longer showed any signs of life. He reached out a hand and lifted the body.

"Yan Wushen, what do you want to do?" Nether Fiend asked in a deep voice.

Yan Wushen turned around and looked at Nether Fiend. He said indifferently, "I want to take Zhang Ruochen's body. Do you have any objections?"

Yan Wushen did not care about the reactions of Nether Fiend and the others. He took Zhang Ruochen with him and disappeared from the spot.

"You..."

Nether Fiend was angry. He wanted to say something, but he swallowed his words.

The other powerful figures all frowned. They had not expected Yan Wushen to show up at this time and take Zhang Ruochen's body away at will.

If it had been anyone else, they would have been enraged. But this person was Yan Wushen. They could not do anything about it.

After all, if they offended Yan Wushen, he would beat them up with no hesitation.

However, many cultivators could not understand why Yan Wushen would take Zhang Ruochen's body?

"Let's go and kill our way back. We'll teach Celestial Court a painful lesson," Nether Fiend said in a low voice.

He was filled with anger. He had to find someone to vent it out.

Celestial Court did not know Zhang Ruochen had died. The war still went on, and it was getting more and more intense.

Of course, even if the news spread, the war would not end easily.

The war between Celestial Court and Infernal Court had been brewing for a long time. It was inevitable. Zhang Ruochen charging into the camp of Infernal Court was the war's trigger.

However, it did not matter what the war would turn out to be.

Yan Wushen stopped on a low mountain peak thousands of miles away from the Dimensional Rift.

In front of him stood two people: a man and a woman. They were Xuemo and Qiu Yichi.

Strangely, Yan Wushen did not attack Xuemo and Qiu Yichi. Instead, he handed Zhang Ruochen's body to them.

After handing Zhang Ruochen over, Yan Wushen suddenly emitted a demonic red light. He turned into a small statue that was only three inches tall. It was carved out of an unknown blood-colored crystal, the surface was covered with complicated divine patterns.

Qiu Yichi waved her hand and put the statue away. At the same time, she carefully checked the condition of Zhang Ruochen's body.

"Master predicted that his highness would be in trouble. She specially made a fake Yan Wushen and brought his highness out of danger. However, I don't know if his highness can still be saved in such state." Qiu Yichi's eyes were solemn.

Blood Empress was extraordinarily skillful. She had once created a fake Chi Kunlun to deceive Zhang Ruochen.

Now, she had created a "Yan Wushen". It was so lifelike that even the powerhouses of Infernal Court could not tell it was a fake. After all, their eyesight was not any better than Zhang Ruochen's.

Of course, it was mainly because the real Yan Wushen wasn't there. Otherwise, no matter how perfect the fake was, it would be pointless.

Xuemo's eyes glowed. "Not only it is a Supreme Saint's physique, it is a "Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique" that has Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension. And the owner of this body had attained Great Perfection in his Saint Kingdom. It's truly a perfect body."

He had always been envious of Zhang Ruochen's former body, but now he was more interested in Zhang Ruochen's current body.

After all, no matter how well Zhang Ruochen's former body was nourished by Blood Empress, Zhang Ruochen had never embarked on an immortal cultivation journey in that body. It was strong simply due to its nature.

On the other hand, Zhang Ruochen's current body was perfect in every aspect. Even the deities would yearn to have it.

Xuemo suppressed his thoughts and did not dare to act rashly.

Blood Empress was now a deity. She could kill him with a snap of her fingers.

Qiu Yichi took out a blood-colored jade coffin and carefully put Zhang Ruochen's body in it.

Blood Empress had personally made this jade coffin. It contained wondrous powers.

Inside the jade coffin, there was an amber-colored Jade Nectar. It gave off a refreshing fragrance. It was refined from many precious materials.

Just taking a breath of the fragrance could make one feel refreshed.

By relying on the jade coffin and the jade nectar inside, the condition of Zhang Ruochen's body would not continue to worsen. It could even turn better.

"Hurry back to Endless Abyss."

Qiu Yichi put away the jade coffin and left immediately without any delay.

The sooner she returned to Endless Abyss, the greater the chance Zhang Ruochen could be saved.

Although Zhang Ruochen's soul had dissipated, theoretically, he could not be revived. However, with the means of the deities, there might still be a chance to revive the dead.

Otherwise, Blood Empress would not have made so many preparations.

At the entrance to the second level of Endless Abyss, Blood Empress was already waiting.

"Master, I have brought his highness back, but his condition is very bad."

Qiu Yichi waved her hand and took out the blood-red jade coffin.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen, who was almost a skeleton in the jade coffin, Blood Empress could not help but tremble even though she was mentally prepared.

Blood Empress opened the Jade Coffin and reached out to caress Zhang Ruochen's pale face. At the same time, she sent a stream of divine energy into Zhang Ruochen's body.

Only his left leg remained intact.

This was because it was a divine leg. It contained boundless divine power and could not be easily damaged.

The attack that Zhang Ruochen had suffered in front of the dimensional rift was too terrifying. The divine patterns carved on his body by Moon Goddess had all been wiped out. Not a single trace was left.

Without the protection of Armor of the Fire God, his body might have been completely destroyed except for his left leg.

“How did Chen'er end up like this?”

Blood Empress was angry and heartbroken.

Her eyes had become moist, and tears were about to fall.

Although she was a deity, she also had feelings. How could she not feel heartbroken when she saw her son's current condition?

Blood Empress had indeed predicted that Zhang Ruochen would be in trouble, but it was impossible for her to predict everything in advance.

Qiu Yichi said, “His highness wanted to save Chi Kongyue so he tried to break into Infernal Court through the Dimensional Rift but eventually ended up this way.”

“What happened to Chi Kongyue?” Blood Empress asked.

Qiu Yichi hesitated for a moment and said, “Chi Kongyue was taken away by a disciple of a deity in Infernal Court. It seems that that deity wants her body as its vessel. His highness risked everything to save her as soon as he found out about it.”

As soon as Blood Empress heard this, a terrifying cold light flashed in her eyes.

‘Those scums, not only did they take my granddaughter away, they were responsible for my son’s condition. They deserve death!’

However, in the next moment, Blood Empress regained her calmness. ‘Now it is not the time to think about these things. The most important thing is to save Chen’er first.’

“Chen’er’s iNeverwithers physique is collapsing. His 144 acupoints are also in a half-broken state. His current body can no longer bear his sea of Qi and the inner world.” Blood Empress’s brows were knitted into a deep frown.

Zhang Ruochen’s Divine Light Sea of Qi was vast. It contained six Saint Aspects, Heavenly Stream, and Qiankun Realm were all in it. Once his physical body was severely injured, his Divine Light Sea of Qi would not last long and would soon shatter.

At that time, his six Saint Aspects and Heavenly Stream would disappear, and Qiankun Realm would appear in the outside world.

In this way, Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation foundation would be completely destroyed.

Everything, including his Mark of the Gods, God’s Destiny, six Saint Aspects would cease to exist. The same went to his Shenwu Mark of Time and Dimension.

Qiu Yichi asked, “Is there any way to save his highness?”

“On the surface, Chen’er’s soul has been completely destroyed. However, there are still a few of his Saint Souls left in his inner world. They are the key to turning life and death around,” Blood Empress said.

Qiankun Realm could be considered a part of Zhang Ruochen. He had been able to completely hide his Saint Souls into Qiankun Realm a long time ago.

Even if he did not do it on purpose, there were still a few of his Saint Souls left within Qiankun Realm.

However, even if she gathered these souls and stuffed them back into his body, they would not be enough to bring Zhang Ruochen back to life. She had to condense a more powerful Saint Soul.

“Chen’er, I won’t let anything happen to you.”

Blood Empress whispered. She took the jade coffin and disappeared.

The next moment, Blood Empress appeared in front of a vast dark red mountain. It burned with red flames and had terrifying thunder.

This was where Blood Empress had been nourishing Zhang Ruochen’s former body. The Blood Phoenix’s huge body was still on the mountain.

At the mountainside, Zhang Ruochen’s former body was enveloped in red blood. Its vitality was getting stronger and stronger as if he would wake up at any moment.

If Blood Empress did not take some measures on such a powerful body, a new soul could have been born.

Looking at the body enveloped in red blood, Blood Empress whispered, “Chen’er, I know that you don’t want this body back, but now, I have no choice. This is the only way to preserve your cultivation base.”

Zhang Ruochen’s former body was full of vitality and had a strong nature. With it, Zhang Ruochen could solve all problems he was facing at the moment.

Moreover, by merging the two bodies, Blood Empress was more confident that she could bring Zhang Ruochen back to life.

Time was tight, so Blood Empress did not hesitate. She waved her hand gently, and Zhang Ruochen’s half-crippled body flew out of the Jade Coffin and flew toward the red blood.

After entering the red blood, Blood Empress released her divine energy and began to fuse the two bodies.

This was not difficult for deities.

It was just like how Moon Goddess had fused the Yanshen's leg into Zhang Ruochen's body.

Both his former and current bodies were with the nature of Chaotic Elements. Theoretically, they should not reject each other and could easily fuse into one.

However, when Blood Empress tried to make this work, she ran into trouble.

Perhaps out of instinct, Zhang Ruochen's current body rejected his previous body.

If they forcefully merged, it would cause Zhang Ruochen's current body to collapse.

"Chen'er, as long as you don't reject the fusion, I promise I will save Kongyue," Blood Empress said seriously, her eyes filled with anxiety.

As if he had heard what Blood Empress said, after a short stalemate, the rejection force gradually diminished and completely disappeared.

Without any obstacles, it did not take long for Blood Empress to successfully fuse Zhang Ruochen's two bodies together.

In this way, Zhang Ruochen's condition became stable, and his cultivation foundation was preserved.

However, this was only the first step to save Zhang Ruochen. She still had to condense his saint soul again. That was the most difficult step.

The Saint Souls stored in Qiankun Realm were very few. They could not even wake Zhang Ruochen up.

It wasn't realistic to rely on this bit of Saint Soul to help Zhang Ruochen recover.

There were two ways to save Zhang Ruochen.

The first way was to use spiritual power to summon his other souls and condense them again.

The second method was to use secret techniques to communicate with his Celestial Soul that was faintly discernible.

Theoretically speaking, a spiritual-power Supreme Saint had the ability to summon souls.

However, during the process of summoning souls, the summoner would suffer a terrible backlash from the laws of Heaven and earth. There was a 90 percent chance the process would cost the summoner's life.

Even if the summoner was a deity, they would also pay a huge price, and accidents could happen.

Because of this, those top elites of the Heavenly Realm faction who died in Zhang Ruochen's hands were unlikely to be revived. Even if their bodies were still intact, the Heavenly Realm would not sacrifice their spiritual power Supreme Saints to summon their souls, let alone the deities.

As for the second method, it required a secret technique that the ancient Qi Practitioners had mastered. It had long been lost.

Sword Saint Xuanji had been saved by Divine Sky-connecting Tree, mainly thanks to the tree's crystal.

The crystal was extraordinary. It contained a boundless life force. Even a dying god could recover from it.

Blood Empress gazed at Zhang Ruochen, who was in the red blood. Her eyes were full of tenderness. She said, "Chen' er, no matter the price, I will save you."

All parents in the world were the same. They could sacrifice everything, including their lives, for their children.

Zhang Ruochen treated Chi Kongyue the same way, and so did Blood Empress. There was no difference in their love.

Blood Empress was only a new deity. She had just attained her godhood not long ago. If she performed the secret technique of summoning souls, it would be much more dangerous. But she still did it without hesitation because Zhang Ruochen was her son.

Chapter 2210: The Emergence of Lord Ming

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Soul summoning was a very complicated process. It had to be done as soon as possible. The longer the person was dead, the more difficult the process would be. It might not even work.

Once a Saint Soul dissipated, the fragments would gradually be assimilated with nature. In the end, they could not be gathered.

Zhang Ruochen was still in good condition. He had kept at least one percent of his Saint Soul. With this as a foundation, it would be relatively easy to condense the dissipated Saint Soul again.

CRASH!

Blood Empress cut her wrist and released a large amount of divine blood.

Using her divine blood, she quickly carved profound runes to set up an unusual Soul-summoning Array.

It was unnecessary to use divine blood to set up a Soul-summoning Array. There were many alternatives, and they could be made in advance.

However, the clock was ticking; Blood Empress did not want to waste more time.

For Zhang Ruochen's sake, she did not mind losing some divine blood.

Moreover, Blood Empress and Zhang Ruochen were mother and son, so they were the closest. Zhang Ruochen's soul was nurtured in her body. With her divine blood as a booster for the array, she could fully summon all the soul fragments that had dissipated.

Not only did Blood Empress want to save Zhang Ruochen, but she also wanted to restore him to his prime, hoping that nothing would affect his future cultivation.

As parents, they always wanted to give their children the best.

“Search heaven and earth, gather the soul fragments.”

Blood Empress looked grim. She slowly formed strange hand seals with both hands.

Buzz

The Soul-summoning Array carved on the ground suddenly burst out a dazzling red light soaring into the sky.

For a moment, the void shook, and a realistic-looking strange passageway emerged. It was extremely dark inside, and no one knew where it led.

However, this passageway's condition seemed to be very unstable, as if it would collapse at any moment.

Blood Empress immediately released a large amount of divine blood and poured it into the Soul-summoning Array, causing the passageway to stabilize and widen further.

With a thought, Blood Empress released her boundless divine spirit and sent it into the passageway.

The process of soul summoning involved the use of spiritual power or divine spirit to capture and bring back the strands of souls that wandered between heaven and earth and then put them together again.

Of course, it was not that easy because reversing life and death was against the laws of heaven and earth. Therefore, there would be a backlash from the laws of heaven and earth.

The stronger the target of resurrection, the stronger the backlash of the soul summoning.

Before Zhang Ruochen died, he had become a Neverwithers Supreme Saint. His cultivation was extremely powerful. Hence, if the summoner was a top spiritual power Supreme Saint, the summoner could still fail even after paying the cost with their lives.

In fact, it was extremely difficult to summon the souls of Saints. After all, Saints had already begun to comprehend the laws of heaven and earth. Their connection with heaven and earth had become very close.

Blood Empress did not think about this at all. She just wanted to bring Zhang Ruochen back to life as soon as possible. No matter how heavy the backlash of the laws of heaven and earth would be, she did not care.

Outside the cave, heaven and earth suddenly changed color. The lightning that covered the blood-red mountain became even more violent. Countless giant Dimensional Rifts appeared. It was as if the entire world was about to shatter.

The surrounding Precepts at the second level of Endless Abyss became completely chaotic and aggressive. They took solid forms, flying like life-like dragons.

Xuemo and Qiu Yichi stood outside the blood-red mountain. Their expressions were as grave undertakers'.

Several more figures showed up near the blood-red mountain. They were all Zhang Ruochen's acquaintances: Chi Linyuan, Qi Sheng, Ying Huo, and Xue Tu.

"What's going on?" Chi Linyuan asked.

He was not the only one. Qi Sheng, Ying Huo, and Xue Tu were also confused. They did not know what caused such turbulence.

Qiu Yichi said, "His highness was killed. Master is using a heaven-defying method to bring him back to life. The surrounding precepts will become more and more chaotic. We..."

Before she could finish her words, the region where they stood was suddenly hit by turbulence.

BOOM!

Bolts of thunder appeared in the sky and shattered the void.

A vast divine aura spread out from the blood-colored mountain peak to all directions.

BANG!!!

Everyone present, including Xuemo, knelt under the pressure of the divine aura and could not move.

For a moment, all the Bloodbeasts living in the second level of Endless Abyss also knelt, trembling.

Deities were aloof and superior. They were totally in a different league from Saints'. The divine auras they possessed were something that even a Supreme Saint could not resist.

In the past, Blood Empress had deliberately restrained her divine aura so that Xuemo and the others were not greatly affected.

But now, to perform the soul-summoning technique, Blood Empress had to unleash her power without reservation. Hence, there was no restriction put on her aura.

Chi Linyuan, Qi Sheng, Ying Huo, and Xue Tu were all shocked. They had not expected that the invincible Zhang Ruochen would also die. They wondered what on earth had happened outside Endless Abyss?

Especially Xue Tu. Ever since he had entered Endless Abyss, he had never left. He had been in seclusion for self-cultivation. He had no idea what the current situation of Kunlun was like.

After a period of time, Xue Tu's cultivation had clearly become more profound. It was difficult to see through his strength, and he was far better than before in all aspects.

Now, when he returned to Bloodysky Clan, he would no longer be just top five known by outsiders.

"In order to save her son, Blood Empress has really gone all out. Although she has become a deity, she still has to pay huge price to resurrect Zhang Ruochen. I did not expect that family ties would have such a heavy weight in her heart," Xuemo said.

Xuemo was a cultivation maniac. He had fully devoted himself to the path of cultivation.

If something bad happened to his children, he would never be able to go to lengths greater than Blood Empress.

It was not easy to summon souls. No one knew how long it would take. None of them liked to kneel, yet there was nothing they could do but wait quietly.

They secretly prayed that everything would go smoothly.

Otherwise, if Zhang Ruochen did not come back to life, God knew what would happen with Blood Empress's personality.

...

At the same time, a graceful and elegant figure appeared at the periphery of Zhenyu Clan's territory.

If Zhang Ruochen was here, he would be shocked because it was his current biological mother, Lin Lan1.

Lin Lan was supposed to stay with Mu Lingxi in Lake Phoenix.

Why did she come to Zhenyu Clan's territory?

In front of Lin Lan were the ancient wards protecting Zhenyu Clan and Sword Vault. They were densely packed, covering the sky and earth, forming a powerful defense.

All of this was thanks to Awesome, the Little Taoist.

Ever since the hundreds of thousands of immortal vampires had been defeated, Little Taoist had stayed in Zhenyu Clan's territory, busy studying The Big Dipper Portrait while repairing the ancient wards at the same time.

With Little Taoist's attainments in formations, it could control the ancient wards that had been repaired. Even an ordinary Supreme Saint would not be able to break through them.

In addition, Zhenyu Clan had a High-Saint Talisman Master with them: Shi Mingyuan. As long as Infernal Court did not deploy force as massive as the one attacking Central Imperial City, Sword Vault would be able to defend itself.

A faint divine light appeared in Lin Lan's eyes. In an instant, she had seen through all ancient wards.

Swoosh—

With just a slight movement, she passed through the ancient wards without any obstruction, entering Sword Vault.

“Eh? Did someone enter just now.? Or it is just my imagination?” The Little Taoist was surprised.

The ancient wards were under its control after all. Even the slightest movement wouldn't be able to go under its radar.

The Little Taoist had vaguely sensed it earlier, but it did not manage to catch any traces.

"It seems like it's really just my imagination."

It did not bother to think too much and continued to study The Big Dipper Portrait.

With his mastery of formations, he did not believe that anyone could pass through the ancient wards without him noticing. Even a Supreme Saint would not be able to do so.

Not long after, Lin Lan arrived at the depths of Sword Vault, in front of a pitch-black turtle-shaped stone mountain.

In the next moment, Lin Lan took a step forward and passed through the stone mountain. She then disappeared without a trace.

There was an invisible door on the stone mountain that could lead to the Nether Dungeon.

After Lin Lan entered the Nether Dungeon, a bald old man walked out from the stone wall. It was Elder Kong, who claimed to be the only jailer.

The four wardens also appeared.

"It hasn't been long? Why is she here again? Hasn't she given up on the idea of saving that Lord Ming?" said Warden Goldleaf.

Obviously, this was not Lin Lan's first visit. Elder Kong and the four wardens had already encountered her.

Warden Thundergourd snorted. "Everyone has underestimated the Nether Dungeon. Without Elder Kong's permission, even if a deity came, the deity wouldn't be able to release the prisoner suppressed in here. Not to mention she was just an avatar of a deity.

"It's only because Elder Kong is amiable that he let her meet Lord Ming."

Elder Kong smiled. “Lord Ming is a very interesting fellow. As an immortal vampire, he wants to subdue the six Saint Swords that are suppressing him. So I gave him a chance.”

“As long as he can get the recognition of the spirit of Ancestral Swordmaster and subdue the sword spirits of the six Saint Swords before he becomes a deity, I won’t stop him from leaving the dungeon.”

The six Saint Swords were the six fragments of Stellar Sword, one of the ten greatest divine artifacts of Kunlun. Stellar Sword was forged by Ancestral Swordmaster. Theoretically, it was impossible for it to be subjugated by the creatures of Infernal Court.

After all, Wordless Sword Manual was passed down by Ancestral Swordmaster from Kunlun.

Ancestral Swordmaster’s spiritual will was so strong that even a deity would find it hard to defeat it, and Lord Ming was just a being below the rank of deity?

The reason why Elder Kong had a bet with Lord Ming was that this prisoner was very different from other immortal vampires. Elder Kong was willing to give him a chance to get out alive.

Elder Kong had been guarding the Nether Dungeon for many years. It was a very boring job, so there were times he needed to have some fun.

After entering the Nether Dungeon, without any obstacles, Lin Lan successfully entered the fifteenth level of the dungeon.

Compared to the previous fourteen levels of the dungeon, the Dismemberment Prison Realm could be considered a great place for self-cultivation. There were colorful crystals, spiritual crystals, and holy stones everywhere.

However, there was a very special place in the Dismemberment Prison Realm. The surrounding precepts were scarce, and there was no spiritual energy of heaven and earth. Not to mention the Saint Qi of heaven and earth, it was basically a place with all power sealed.

This was the place where Lord Ming was imprisoned. Six Saint Swords that were hundreds of thousands of feet tall were arranged into a sword mountain. They stood on the horizon and emitted dazzling light, illuminating a corner in the dark.

Under the six Saint Swords was a blood cocoon with a diameter of 30 feet. It was formed by countless blood-colored patterns. The area within hundreds of miles had been dyed a strange blood-colored.

“Blood Empress, what brings you here again?”

An indifferent voice sounded as if it came from the sky.

At this time, Lin Lan’s figure and appearance transformed rapidly, even her temperament changed. She became Blood Empress.

No one would have thought that Lin Lan, who was brought to Lake Phoenix by Mu Lingxi, was actually an avatar of Blood Empress.

Qiu Yichi had shown up at Lake Phoenix to meet Blood Empress’ avatar, but Zhang Ruochen had discovered Qiu Yichi by accident.

Since Kunlun had become a Battlefield of Merits, it had been monitored closely by the deities. Hence, Blood Empress could not show her true form.

In order to save Lord Ming and see Zhang Ruochen earlier, she had to make an avatar to travel within Kunlun.

In fact, the avatar of Blood Empress had come to Sword Vault and met Elder Kong even earlier.

Elder Kong looked like a jailer, but his cultivation was unfathomable. Blood Empress’ avatar could not see through him at all. What puzzled her was that Elder Kong knew her identity, yet he did not stop her from entering the Nether Dungeon.

Was it because he was confident in his cultivation?

Or was there another reason?

Blood Empress stopped thinking and looked at the blood cocoon. "Brother, I'm going back to Infernal Court. I came here to say goodbye to you."

"It seems that your deeds in Kunlun has finally come to an end." Lord Ming's emotionless voice sounded again.

Blood Empress said, "All disputes and infightings within Xue Jue Family should come to an end."

"It seems that I should get out of here as soon as possible to settle the score," Lord Ming said.

Blood Empress said, "Are you confident to get out of here?"

"If all I wanted was to escape, I could have done so easily 7,000 years ago. However, if I did so at that time, I would have ended up being merely a Supreme Saint."

"I have been suppressed here at my own will for 7,000 years because I know that this is the place where I can attain godhood."

"The six swords are suppressing me, but aren't they also tempering me?"

"No, since 3,000 years ago, I have already worn them down. Even if I become a deity, I still want to become an elite amongst deities. Controlling the six swords is the first step."

Rumble

The blood cocoon shook and released an incomparably majestic power.

The land within a radius of tens of thousands of kilometers instantly shattered and then melted, turning into scorching magma.

Blood-colored patterns extended from the blood cocoon and wrapped the six Saint Swords.

The six Saint Swords immediately shook and released terrifying lightning, fire, and wind... They all attacked the blood cocoon below.

At the same time, each Saint Sword released a beam of sword light. Each could tear apart the sky and even obliterate a starry sky.

Each Saint Sword was a Supreme Artifact. When they were combined together, they were extremely powerful.

A set of such powerful Supreme Artifacts was precious and rare. Even deities could rarely get their hands on it.

Logically speaking, after being suppressed by the six Saint Swords for ten thousand years, a Supreme Saint at the rank of Paramount Realm should have turned into a skeleton.

However, Lord Ming managed to hold on. Not only he did not get refined by the Saint Swords, but his mental will had also become even stronger. He had even managed to grasp the arcanum of attaining godhood.

Although the six Saint Swords were doing their best to resist, their resistance became weaker and weaker under the entanglement of the blood-colored patterns.

As time passed, the six Saint Swords gradually shrank until they returned to their normal size.

At this time, the blood cocoon disappeared and a charming man emerged. He was wearing crystal-clear blood armor and his body gave off an elegant celestial-like aura.

Lord Ming looked very young, around twenty years old. He was handsome, his eyes filled with charm. No woman could resist such a hunk.

Looking at the six Saint Swords in front of him, Lord Ming stretched out a hand and released a dense power of evil blood, drowning them all.

After being refined by his power of evil blood, the six Saint Swords slowly merged together and formed one.

However, it was only the blade of the sword. Its hilt was missing.

The blade of the sword was covered with complicated inscriptions, and there was a powerful divine power that was released faintly.

“Where the hell is the hilt of Stellar Sword?” Lord Ming asked. However, he sounded like talking to himself.

The moment Lord Ming took the six Saint Swords, Elder Kong sensed it, and his expression revealed mixed feelings. He sighed and said, “Why would Stellar Sword submit to a creature from Infernal Court? Ancestral Swordmaster, is this your will?”

He did not expect Lord Ming to be the winner of the jokester bet.

He could not figure it out. But since it was what Ancestral Swordmaster wanted, he would not go against it.

Chapter 2211: Bring Him Back at All Cost

Lord Ming reached out a hand and grabbed the blade, wanting to pick it up.

“Eh?”

What surprised Lord Ming was that the blade looked thin but was very heavy. He had already exerted a lot of strength but was unable to shake it.

“Legend has it that Stellar Sword was made from a star. It is indeed as heavy as a star,” Lord Ming muttered. His eyes brightened up with eagerness to lift it.

A star in a universe was very huge and heavy. Its weight was equivalent to millions of planets.

Even a deity would need to expend a lot of strength to be able to shake a star.

A cultivator would condense a Divine Planet once they attained Godhood. When a Divine Planet grew to its prime, its size was equivalent to the size of a star. Only when the deity fell, the Divine Planet would be reduced to the size of a planet.

Possessing the power of a star was the most basic condition to attain Godhood.

Lord Ming stretched out his other hand and hold the sword with both hands.

Then, Lord Ming did not hold back anymore and released his own power to wrap around the sword.

Boom!

Extremely powerful energy burst out from the sword, and the entire Dismemberment Prison Realm was instantly shattered.

A large number of scarlet divine patterns appeared on the sword, releasing a scorching force that could melt everything.

In the blink of an eye, Dismemberment Prison Realm had turned into a sea of lava, and the temperature was extremely high.

Even a Saint would turn into ashes if they entered.

Obviously, Lord Ming wanted to raise Stellar Sword and activate the violent power contained within it.

Swoosh!

Finally, Lord Ming pulled Stellar Sword out of the lava.

In an instant, Stellar Sword released an even more scorching power, emitting a dazzling light. It was like a sun, making people unable to open their eyes.

Rumble—

At the same time, the ground around Sword Vault began to crack. It was as if an earthquake had occurred, causing countless creatures to panic.

The tremors spread to 3,000 miles away, 30,000 miles away, 300,000 miles away, 3,000,000 miles away...

Finally, the entire Central Region, the land of myriad miles, began to tremble. It was as if there was a star rolling on the vast ground of Central Region.

If the Nether Dungeon did not act as a barrier, the energy that erupted the moment Stellar Sword was born would have been even more terrifying.

After a long time, Stellar Sword finally calmed down. It retracted its light and heat and returned to its original form.

After subduing Stellar Sword, Lord Ming found that its weight turned light that he could hold it in one hand.

A satisfied smile appeared on Lord Ming's expression. Although he had been imprisoned in the Nether Dungeon for ten thousand years, to be able to gain such a divine sword was worth the time and effort.

More importantly, Stellar Sword contained the Canon of Swordsmanship that Ancestral Swordmaster had comprehended. Now that Lord Ming gained it, he would be greatly benefited.

Although he had not become a deity yet, he already had the power comparable to a deity.

Otherwise, he would not be able to lift Stellar Sword.

Lord Ming waved Stellar Sword and slashed upwards.

Clang!

Instantly, a crack appeared in the dark sky.

Holding Stellar Sword, Lord Ming soared into the sky.

Seeing this, Blood Empress hurriedly followed him.

In the blink of an eye, Lord Ming had already rushed out of the Nether Dungeon and appeared in Sword Vault.

At this moment, a shocking phenomenon occurred in the originally peaceful Sword Vault. Tens of thousands of swords sounded simultaneously, tilting towards Stellar Sword as if they were bowing to salute it.

Swoosh—

Stellar Sword's fragments scattered all over Sword Vault quickly gathered and fused with the sword.

Sword Vault was a very special place that could repair and nurture swords.

As a result, after so many years, not only did the fragments of Stellar Sword not decay, but their divinity had grown greater.

As more and more fragments fused with Stellar sword, the sword became heavier. At the same time, it naturally emitted a blazing light and heat that lit up Sword Vault.

Central Imperial City, Rainbow Pavilion.

The Nine-heavens Maiden's expression suddenly changed. The Heaven's Sear Blade that she kept started to move and flew out uncontrollably.

Warrior Saint Canglan was the bearer of the Heaven's Sear Blade. Although the quality or grade of this secondary sword was not high, it was significant. It was a trump card to protect the Nether Dungeon.

"Come back!"

The Nine-heavens Maiden made a move, wanting to retrieve the Heaven's Sear Blade.

However, the Heaven's Sear Blade trembled violently. It was completely out of her control. Even Sacred Confucian Tome could not suppress it.

Swoosh—

The Heaven's Sear Blade transformed into a sword light and shot through the sky.

“Could it be that something has happened at Sword Vault?” the Nine-heavens Maiden was in contemplation, figuring things out.

If it weren't for the urgency of the situation, she really wanted to leave immediately and head to Sword Vault to investigate it.

Demonic Sect of the Moon

Ling Feiyu secluded herself. She was in the midst of self-cultivation, but she was alarmed.

Heaven's Fall Blade hanging in front of her chest suddenly released a resplendent sword light, turning into a three-foot-long blade, circling her several times.

When Ling Feiyu wanted to reach out to grab it, Heaven's Fall Blade suddenly soared into the sky and flew into the distance.

Ling Feiyu frowned in puzzlement.

Ever since she became the bearer of Heaven's Fall Blade, she had never encountered such phenomena before.

At the same time, the other swordbearers also encountered the same situation. All of them felt puzzled and uneasy.

Not long after, five secondary swords, including the Heaven's Sear Blade and Heaven's Fall Blade, flew over from different regions in Kunlun.

The five swords were closely connected to Sword Vault, so they could fly directly into Sword Vault without being hindered by divine patterns.

The only secondary sword missing was Toten Sword.

Five relatively large fragments were separated from the five Saint Swords and merged with Stellar Sword's blade.

"What happened? Why is there such a strange phenomenon in Sword Vault?"

"Such a strong power. My Saint Soul is almost melting."

"Why did my connection with Heaven's Fall Blade suddenly break? What's going on?"

...

All of a sudden, the Saint Souls of the grandmasters in Sword Vault were alarmed.

They could sense the changes in Sword Vault, but they could not leave their place to investigate the situation.

The problems with the five secondary swords would put Kunlun at a disadvantage because the five swordbearers would not be able to borrow the power of the late grandmasters in Sword Vault.

Such a change was definitely not a good thing.

Not long after, Stellar Sword's blade was mostly repaired, only a small part was missing.

"The location of the hilt seems to be unique place. I can't even summon it over. That remaining secondary sword was also at the same location with the hilt." Lord Ming closed his eyes and sensed carefully.

Swoosh!

Elder Kong emerged.

As soon as he saw Stellar Sword in Lord Ming's hand, his eyes filled with mixed feelings. Obviously, he did not want Ancestral Swordmaster's sword to be controlled by a cultivator from Infernal Court.

Shaking his head slightly, Elder Kong sighed and said, "Subduing Stellar Sword will bring you endless benefits and also a huge restriction. When Ancestral Swordmaster created Stellar Sword, the aim was to protect Kunlun.

“This is the mission of this sword!

“Therefore, Stellar Sword will not kill any living beings in Kunlun.”

Hearing this, Lord Ming stared at Stellar Sword. He was surprised. “Is that so? I don’t believe it.”

With that, Lord Ming suddenly took a step forward, waved Stellar Sword, and slashed at Elder Kong.

Elder Kong appeared to be very calm. He stood quietly with his hands behind his back. He did not dodge or block the attack. He let the Stellar Sword fall on him.

However, Stellar Sword emitting a bright divine light suddenly stopped in mid-air. It could not slash down.

Clang!

The blade of the sword shook violently. It was not under Lord Ming’s control.

Nevertheless, Lord Ming would not give up just like that. He immediately released even more power and injected it into the sword.

BANG!!!

The sword released an extremely powerful force and shook Lord Ming’s hand away.

Lord Ming spread his aching hands and stared at Stellar Sword floating in the air. His eyes narrowed. He felt a strong sense of defeat.

The facts proved that Elder Kong’s words were true.

He could attack anyone, even deities, with Stellar Sword.

However, he could not wield it against the living beings of Kunlun.

The will of Ancestral Swordmaster to protect Kunlun had long been imprinted in Stellar Sword.

Lord Ming had never thought that a sword could control his will. This was not something that made him happy.

Taking over Kunlun had been Lord Ming's ambition. Even after 10,000 years, it had not changed.

Now that he was free, of course he would want to resume his journey to achieve the goal.

But now, he was restricted by Stellar Sword. How could he carry on his ambition?

Lord Ming's emotions and expressions kept changing. No one knew what he was thinking.

Not long after, Lord Ming regained his senses, and a determined look appeared in his eyes.

'It's true that this sword was imprinted with the will of Ancestral Swordmaster. So what? In the future, I can be become even more powerful. By the time comes, I will completely subdue Stellar Sword. There's no way a sword can restrain me.'

To him, fighting against the will of Ancestral Swordmaster was also a form of tempering his cultivation. It could help him ascend the peak.

Lord Ming restrained his killing intent and held Stellar Sword again. He swung it backward. Stellar Sword burst out with an incomparably sharp sword light. It was invincible and unstoppable.

For a moment, Sword Vault was filled with dense divine inscriptions. They were like chains, interweaving with each other, sealing this space.

It was precisely because of these divine inscriptions that Infernal Court's deities were unable to directly open the Dimensional Rift connected to Sword Vault. They could only deploy forces to attack Sword Vault from outside.

However, Stellar Sword was invincible. These divine inscriptions were also unable to block it.

In an instant, the divine patterns interweaved in space were all cut off, and the region could no longer be sealed.

CRASH!

Immediately, a 30,000-meter-long Dimensional Rift appeared on the stable space, piercing through sky and land.

This Dimensional Rift was a passage opened by Lord Ming, connecting to a distant place in Kunlun.

He had already sensed that the hilt of Stellar Sword and the secondary sword of Toten Sword were on the other side of the Dimensional Rift.

Inside of the Dimensional Rift was very dark. The force of Nothingness surged and eroded everything.

On the other side of the Dimensional Rift was a bottomless abyss. From a distance, it looked like the mouth of a demon that could swallow everything in the world.

“Endless Abyss.”

No wonder he could not summon the hilt and the secondary sword of Toten Sword. It turned out that they were at the mysterious and unfathomable Endless Abyss.

The precepts of heaven and earth in Endless Abyss were completely different from those in Kunlun. It was like another world.

Looking at Endless Abyss at the end of the Dimensional Rift, Blood Empress suddenly thought of something.

With a step, Lord Ming entered the Dimensional Rift, crossed the void, and walked toward Endless Abyss step by step.

Blood Empress glanced at Elder Kong and followed.

Seeing the two of them leave, Elder Kong shook his head and disappeared into the black mountain.

Guarding the Nether Dungeon was his mission. No matter what, he could not leave.

Lord Ming's cultivation was close to a deity's, but he was only imprisoned on the fifteenth floor of the dungeon. Hence, one could imagine how powerful the prisoners who were kept at the bottom three floors.

However, other than Elder Kong, no one knew who they were.

After coming out of the Dimensional Rift, Lord Ming and Bloody Empress landed. They stood at the edge of Endless Abyss, and the sharp cold wind kept blowing against them.

“The hilt of Stellar Sword and Toten Sword’s secondary sword are indeed below us,” Lord Ming said.

After coming here, the connection between Stellar Sword’s blade and its hilt became stronger. The light of the blade kept flickering.

Led by Blood Empress, the two of them came to the second level of Endless Abyss.

“This is indeed a very special realm!”

Lord Ming observed his surroundings as he moved forward.

Suddenly, he stopped and looked at the blood-red mountain in the distance. He could notice the phenomena happening in that direction.

“So the hilt and Toten Sword are with Zhang Ruochen. That kid... Eh, what happened to him? Why are you summoning soul?”

As he spoke, Lord Ming reached out his hand. The ancient hilt and Toten Sword flew out immediately.

A fragment separated from Toten Sword and merged with Stellar Sword.

The ancient hilt flew around the sword. Inscriptions rushed out from the two. They intertwined, connected, and finally combined.

At this point, Stellar Sword was finally intact.

Buzz.

Stellar Sword shook violently and emitted an extremely sharp aura of sword. Hundreds of pitch-black rifts immediately formed in the surrounding space.

Fiery red flames rose. The temperature of the entire second level of Endless Abyss instantly increased by more than a hundred times.

With Stellar Sword as the center, the surrounding space within a hundred miles was instantly burned into nothingness, forming a huge black hole.

This was the result even after Lord Ming had deliberately suppressed the sword aura. Otherwise, who knew how much damage it would cause.

“Stellar Sword is a peerless divine weapon of Kunlun. The sword blade is your gain, while its hilt was Chen’er’s. Brother, you are Chen’er’s uncle. Yet, you take what belongs to your nephew. Do you really want to do this to him?” Blood Empress said.

Hearing this, Lord Ming could not help but laugh. He felt that his sister was really overprotective.

The hilt that Zhang Ruochen had obtained did not have the spiritual will of Ancestral Swordmaster. It was just an object.

He had spent 10,000 years and risked being refined. He had wandered on the edge of life and death countless times before taming Stellar Sword. No matter how he looked at it, he was the master of Stellar Sword.

However, the way Blood Empress put it, it made it sound like he and Zhang Ruochen had each gotten half of Stellar Sword.

No one would see it that way!

However, Lord Ming was a free man now and had obtained a complete Stellar Sword. He was in a good mood and did not want to argue with his only sister, “If the one holding the hilt wasn’t your son, I would just snatch it with no hesitation,” he said. “I don’t want to be a laughing stock in Infernal Court for myriad of years for taking my own nephew’s belonging away. I—your brother—have a reputation to maintain, so don’t worry.”

After saying this, Lord Ming reached out a hand and pressed in the air.

A powerful spiritual power was released and poured into the blood-colored mountain to help Blood Empress summon Zhang Ruochen’s soul.

His cultivation was close to a deity's, and his mental will was completely comparable to a deity's. Hence, he had the ability to help Blood Empress at this time.

Moreover, Lord Ming knew the dangers of soul summoning. He did not want anything bad to happen to Blood Empress.

In the cave of a blood-colored mountain, Blood Empress stood in the Soul-summoning Array. She kept releasing divine blood to stabilize the illusory passageway.

As time passed, Blood Empress' divine spirit had taken Zhang Ruochen's scattered soul fragments back one after another.

These soul fragments were all attached to the surviving weak part of Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul, making it stronger.

In the process, the divine spirit of Blood Empress suffered the backlash of the laws of heaven and earth.

Even a deity could not fight against the will of heaven and earth.

Not only her divine spirit, but the spiritual will branded in every inch of her flesh and blood was also being destroyed by the will of heaven and earth.

Even someone as powerful as Blood Empress, who was a deity, had turned pale at that moment, and her aura was gradually weakening.

A cracking sound rang out from Blood Empress' body.

A clear rift appeared on her Divinity Source.

Blood Empress' body trembled, and divine blood flowed out from the corner of her mouth. Her body also cracked, and like a piece of ceramic, it was on the verge of falling apart.

Divinity Source was extremely important to the deities. It was the foundation of cultivation, and the divine soul was wrapped within it.

This was the terrifying part of the backlash from the laws of heaven and earth. It would directly affect a deity's Divinity Source and soul, and it was impossible to defend against it.

Although the deities were powerful, they could not fight against nature.

If it was a spiritual power Supreme Saint who did this, the final result would very likely be that both the spiritual power and the divine soul would be annihilated.

As time passed, a series of cracking sounds came from Blood Empress from time to time. The cracks on her Divinity Source increased, and her body's condition was even worse. Her blood gushed out from the cracked wounds.

However, even so, the determination in Blood Empress' eyes was unwavered. She was doing her best to maintain the Soul-summoning Array without the slightest intention of giving up.

Even if this cost her life, she would save Zhang Ruochen.

In the end, the backlash from heaven and earth became heavier, that even the Soul-summoning Array could not be maintained. It was gradually destroyed.

If this continued, the soul summoning would end in failure. Even the soul fragments that had been summoned would dissipate again.

“Chen ‘er will be fine!”

As Blood Empress looked at her son, who was covered in red blood, her eyes were filled with gentleness.

Immediately, Blood Empress released her own soul to suppress the Soul-summoning Array. At the same time, she used it to guide Zhang Ruochen's dissipating soul fragments.

Zhang Ruochen was her descendant. His soul was nurtured in her body. They were of the same origin and had a special connection with each other.

However, doing so would undoubtedly put Blood Empress in greater danger.

The backlash of the laws of heaven and earth completely affected Blood Empress' divine soul.

Even though Blood Empress' soul was strong, it could not withstand the backlash. Cracks appeared on it. And it collapsed bit by bit.

Ptui

Blood Empress spat out a large mouthful of divine blood. Her aura became more and more dispirited.

Finally, Zhang Ruochen's last wisp of soul flew out of the passage and combined with the main part of his Saint Soul.

Above Zhang Ruochen's body, there was a very solid-looking saint soul. It looked exactly like Zhang Ruochen. Although it had not woken up yet, it was already giving off a mighty Saint aura.

Perhaps it was because Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul had dissipated before it was condensed again. There was an indescribable, strange aura on it.

"Saint Soul returns, life and death reversed!"

Blood Empress shouted as she changed her hand seals.

Now, it was the most critical moment. Whether the soul summoning would succeed or fail, depending on this moment.

KABOOM!

The passage collapsed, releasing a terrifying destructive force.

This force charged straight at Zhang Ruochen. It did not allow him to go against the laws of heaven and earth and come back to life.

Blood Empress did not hesitate. With her majestic body, she completely blocked the destructive force and did not let Zhang Ruochen suffer a single bit.

As a result, Blood Empress' injuries were even worse. Her divine body was almost shattered, becoming a bloody mess.

Her Divinity Source and soul were also severely damaged. Countless cracks formed on them interweaved like a spider web. They were on the verge of collapse.

If this continued, even if Blood Empress did not die, it was very likely that her foundation in her divine path would be destroyed. It was indeed a great price.

Although Lord Ming could clearly sense Blood Empress' state, he did not say anything to stop her. How could the will of a deity waver so easily?

However, he was surprised that his only sister would value her family so much. It was considered very unusual in Xue Jue Family.

Chapter 2212: Zhang Ruochen's Return

Zhang Ruochen's solid Saint Soul was divided into six parts. Each occupied one direction[1] and began to rotate slowly then faster.

Whoosh!

A vortex existing between reality and illusion appeared, establishing a connection with an unknown dimension.

A barely discernable silhouette appeared in the vortex. He had the same appearance as Zhang Ruochen's. He was trying to break free, but he could not because of a big obstacle.

Countless illusory chains intertwined in the vortex. They wrapped around the faint silhouette, binding him like a prison chain, moving like fiery dragons.

The faint silhouette was Zhang Ruochen's Core Spirit. It was where all his spirituality was. If Blood Empress could not summon it, the Saint Soul she had condensed would become an empty shell. Even if the soul merged with Zhang Ruochen's body, it would not bring him back.

At the most critical moment, Blood Empress did not hesitate. Her spirit, which was on the verge of collapse, charged into the vortex with the remaining divine spirit.

Rumble

Lightning appeared in the void and struck fiercely at Blood Empress' soul and spirit.

Instantly, Blood Empress' spirit was damaged. The cracks on her soul increased, worsening its condition.

At this moment, Lord Ming mobilized his spiritual power to protect Zhang Ruochen's body and Saint Soul to avoid being affected.

Even if Zhang Ruochen had a Demigod-level physique, he would not be able to stand against the laws of heaven and earth.

Lord Ming would not have interfered if Blood Empress had not insisted on saving him because he could get implicated when things go south.

At the same time, in front of a Dimensional Rift opened by Infernal Court at thousands of miles away from Central Imperial City, the surrounding precepts and Saint Qi became chaotic. Cracks formed in the sky, and the ground collapsed. It was an apocalyptic scene, a terrifying sight to see.

Under the impact of such destructive force, the Dimensional Rift became unstable.

Buzz

The seven majestic cities shook. The Dimensional Rift's condition remained even though there was enormous energy channeled in the attempt to stabilize it.

Of course, all this was due to Blood Empress summoning Zhang Ruochen's soul.

The reason was that Zhang Ruochen had died in front of the Dimensional Rift. Hence, most of his soul fragments were scattered here.

Sensing the unusual phenomenon around the Dimensional Rift, many Infernal Court cultivators were alarmed. They were in puzzlement.

Lightning, wind, fire... all kinds of forces at a threatening manner emerged. They pierced through the sky and formed a vast pitch-black hole. It was like an opening bloody mouth of an ancient beast that would swallow everything.

The Dimensional Rift was affected the most. It became increasingly unstable and began to collapse.

Crack!

The seven cities were the first to break apart.

Within each city was a large number of Infernal Court cultivators guarding it. At this moment, they all flew off into the distance.

Rumble

The seven cities were all shattered, falling from the sky.

Without the suppression of the cities, the Dimensional Rift could no longer hold on. It collapsed and released a destructive force that spread in all directions at a shocking speed.

The destructive force swept across the sky and dispersed the clouds. The blue sky became dark in an instant.

Sensing this power, the cultivators from Celestial Court and Infernal Court, who were fighting outside the imperial city, were all shocked.

“How could such an unusual phenomenon happen?”

A Heavenly Realm cultivator whose spiritual power was close to that of the Supreme Saint said with a serious face, “I sensed a slight fluctuation of the soul fragments. Could it be that a spiritual-power Supreme Saint is summoning soul?”

“Zhang Ruochen died in front of the Dimensional Rift between Infernal Court and Kunlun. He might have something to do with this phenomenon.”

“Yan Wushen took Zhang Ruochen’s body away not long ago. Even if he wants to resurrect Zhang Ruochen, where can he find someone to help him in Kunlun?”

“That’s impossible. Yan Wushen can’t be this crazy.”

“I’m afraid it’s impossible for a spiritual-power Supreme Saint to summon a Supreme Saint’s soul. Only a deity can have a chance. Is there a deity hiding in Kunlun? Or did Moon Goddess come here personally?”

“Maybe it is just the backlash of laws of heaven and earth in Kunlun that caused the Dimensional Rift to collapse. It’s not as complicated as we thought.”

...

Although they suspected that a deity was summoning Zhang Ruochen’s soul, the possibility was very low.

On the other side, in the second level of Endless Abyss.

The precepts of heaven and earth were chaotic. The sky was dyed bloody red. Meteor shower fell upon lands and waters. It was a terrifying sight as if Kunlun was hit by an apocalypse.

In the face of the power of heaven and earth, Xuemo, Qiu Yichi, and the others were shocked. No matter how tough they were, they could not remain calm.

“The soul summoning is so terrifying. No wonder only few people were willing to do it since ancient times,” said Xue Tu in shock.

In history, many outstanding cultivators from Celestial Court and Infernal Court had died. However, those who got resurrected in the end were very few, and the children of deities were no exception.

Xue Tu was certain that if he died in Kunlun, his father would definitely not summon his soul.

Xue Mo’s eyes turned grim. “The backlash from the laws of heaven and earth is brutal. I don’t know if Blood Empress can withstand it. After all, Zhang Ruochen isn’t any ordinary Neverwithers Supreme Saint. Not only he’s the Master of Time and Space, he’s also cultivated his Saint Kinghood to Great Perfection. He was a rare talent. Hence, it’ll be even harder to change his fate.”

“Master will definitely succeed,” Qiu Yichi said.

However, even though she said so, she was filled with worry. She was afraid that not only would Blood Empress fail to resurrect Zhang Ruochen, something bad could happen on Blood Empress.

Inside the blood-colored mountain, Blood Empress used all her strength to break the chains that bound Zhang Ruochen’s soul. She withstood all the backlash from the laws of heaven and earth.

As a result, Blood Empress’ soul and spirit were greatly damaged.

The longer the time passed, the stronger the backlash from the laws of heaven and earth would be. The will of heaven and earth seemed to be pressing down on Blood Empress.

Finally, Zhang Ruochen's Core Spirit was able to break free from the vortex between reality and illusion. Under Blood Empress' guidance, it merged with the Saint Soul.

In other words, Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul had finally gained spirituality.

The soul summoning was successful!

"Return to the body and revive."

Blood Empress' expression became solemn than ever.

She released powerful divine energy enveloping Zhang Ruochen's body and Saint Soul. The two slowly merged.

The six parts of his Saint Soul entered his Divine Light Sea of Qi. They went into the six Saint Aspects at the same time.

Boom

Outside the blood-colored mountain, the colors of the sky changed. Lightning flashed, and thunder rumbled. Billions of thunderbolts appeared at the same time. It was as if nature was furious.

The entire second level of Endless Abyss became dark. The atmosphere turned oppressive.

"Heaven and Earth are angry. This is a sign. Fate has been changed against the will of heaven and earth!" Xue Tu said in a trembling voice.

Changing fate meant going against the laws of heaven and earth. Once the attempt succeeded, it would naturally trigger the wrath of heaven and earth.

Hearing this, Qiu Yichi and the others could not help but let out a long sigh of relief. They could finally relax.

Not long after, the destructive storm slowly dissipated, and the second level of Endless Abyss returned to its peaceful state.

The wrath of heaven and earth was only an unusual phenomenon. It would not really cause any further damage. After all, during the process of soul summoning, the summoner had already paid a huge price for it.

BANG!!!

Blood Empress was exhausted. Her graceful and beautiful face was as pale as a sheet. It was almost like she had turned into a jade. However, she still stood straight. Her divine might did not decrease. She had a transcendent aura that could fight against heaven and earth.

However, this was just the surface. This summoning had taken a great toll on Blood Empress. Her divine source had been broken, and her soul had shattered. Without help, she would not be able to recover in a short amount of time.

Although Blood Empress was heavily injured, there was a gratified smile on her face.

That smile was the same as when Zhang Ruochen was born. It was filled with happiness and motherly love.

At this moment, she was not an immortal vampire, not a deity, but a mother, a mother who would do anything for her child.

Whoosh!

The Saint Qi of heaven and earth gathered from all directions and merged with Blood Empress' body. Her wounded body recovered quickly. Soon, not a single scar was left.

However, her beautiful face was still as pale as a piece of divine jade. She was exhausted.

Zhang Ruochen's will had never disappeared. Despite being trapped in a world of endless darkness, he had struggled hard to fight against the will of heaven and earth. Because his will wasn't destroyed, the soul summoning was successful.

If it were a cultivator with weak willpower, they would have given up the moment they died.

Hence, even if a deity summoned their souls, it would be futile.

When Zhang Ruochen was trapped in the endless dark and cold world, Blood Empress had guided him with a beam of light. Step by step, he moved toward the bright world.

Zhang Ruochen's consciousness gradually recovered, but he was at loss. He did not wake up immediately.

Slowly, Zhang Ruochen's thoughts began to recover. Images began to appear in his mind. In the end, Kongyue's image appeared clearly, but it gradually disappeared into the distance.

In Zhang Ruochen's mind, only the memory of Wan Xin's contemptuous and provocative laughter echoed.

BOOM!

An extremely powerful force with traces of divine power exploded from Zhang Ruochen's body. He shouted, "Kongyue!"

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen finally opened his eyes and woke up from his deep sleep.

BANG!

Because he was too excited, Zhang Ruochen could not control the powerful strength in his body. He struggled out of the red blood and fell heavily to the ground.

He supported his body with his hands so that he did not hit the ground.

Zhang Ruochen lowered his head and gritted his teeth. His body was trembling, and his eyes were full of pain. He blamed himself for not being able to protect Chi Kongyue.

Blood Empress walked over and hugged Zhang Ruochen tightly. She felt sorry for him and comforted him, "Kongyue will be fine. Chen'er, she will be fine. I promise you that she will be fine."

When Blood Empress said this, she could not hold back her tears.

The tears of deities were more precious than their blood.

It wasn't because Blood Empress liked to cry, but because she cared too much.

Being hugged by Blood Empress, Zhang Ruochen gradually calmed down. He let out a long breath. His tense muscles and bones softened, and his body no longer trembled.

At this moment, he felt like he had returned to his childhood.

The warmth of Blood Empress made Zhang Ruochen feel heartwarming and comfortable. He could completely relax, like a baby in an infant's cradle or a mother's womb.

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen tried hard to calm his emotions and regain his senses. His eyes were deep as ocean.

His pupils moved as he observed his surroundings.

When he saw the Soul-summoning Array carved by Blood Empress and the ground stained with divine blood, Zhang Ruochen immediately understood everything. He was deeply struck, his heart throbbing.

Blood Empress had deliberately restrained her aura, but it was still very powerful.

However, Zhang Ruochen could clearly sense she was weakened despite her powerful aura. The current Blood Empress was completely different from the impression she had given off during their last encounter.

With no doubt, he could tell that Blood Empress must have paid a huge price to save him.

With Zhang Ruochen's current knowledge, he certainly knew how difficult it was to summon a soul, especially for a soul of a Supreme Saint.

When he met Blood Empress in the past, it was not just Blood Empress who was suffering. Zhang Ruochen's heart was also filled with conflict and pain. Now, the conflict and pain had disappeared. A knot in his heart was finally untied.

Zhang Ruochen became much more relaxed.

After he calmed down, Zhang Ruochen regained his composure. He reached out and wiped the tears from Blood Empress' face. He reminded her, "I'm already a Supreme Saint. The emperor among Saints is not a child. Even if I had a nightmare in the endless darkness just now, it wouldn't scare me."

Seeing Zhang Ruochen wiping away her tears, Blood Empress was stunned. Then, a beautiful smile appeared on her face. She was very happy.

Zhang Ruochen stood up and moved his arms that were emitting divine light. He felt that his hands were filled with endless power. It was as if he could pluck the stars in the sky with just a raise of his hand.

Zhang Ruochen from 800 years ago and Zhang Ruochen from 800 years later had become one person.

The familiar yet strange feeling came to his mind.

“Let’s pay Infernal Court a visit!”

Zhang Ruochen made a huge decision. His eyes filled with determination. It was obvious that he had thought it over carefully before saying this.

At this moment, he had regained his rationality and was not acting impulsively.

In fact, only his loved ones and family could make Zhang Ruochen act impulsively and recklessly.

It was precisely because of this impulsiveness and recklessness that he was Zhang Ruochen. In order to help his master find the divine medicine that could bring him back to life, he had entered the netherworld, risking his life. Because of Chi Yao and Huang Yanchen’s deception, he had confronted them at Ziwei Palace despite knowing he was not strong enough. For Mu Lingxi, he had brought legions to attack Demonic Sect of the Moon. For Kunlun, he had suppressed cultivators from myriad macroworlds just to win a bit of dignity.

If other cultivators were deceived by a god, would they dare to confront the god? No. They would just submit to that god.

If it were other cultivators, would they dare to declare war against the Demonic Sect of the Moon and the Fire clan to fulfill their promise to a woman?

...

Blood Empress stared at Zhang Ruochen. Of course, she knew why Zhang Ruochen wanted to visit Infernal Court. She did not ask any questions and agreed.

“Okay, I will accompany you.”

No matter what Zhang Ruochen wanted to do, Blood Empress would support him.

She believed in Zhang Ruochen’s ability and wisdom.

Since he had chosen the future path, he would be responsible for his own choices.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment. He flipped his hand and took out a Heart of the Divine Tree. After handing it to Blood Empress, he said, “It should be of great help to a deity’s injuries.”

A Heart of the Divine Tree was formed by Divine Sky-connecting Tree. It took a long time to form one. It contained boundless life power and could heal almost all injuries.

Even if a deity was seriously injured and dying, they could quickly recover by refining a Heart of the Divine Tree.

Blood Empress did not refuse and took it.

Blood Empress would like it even if it was just an ordinary object, let alone a precious Heart of the Divine Tree.

It was because Zhang Ruochen was the one who gave it to her.

Crack!

Zhang Ruochen took a step forward and stepped into the ground. Then half of his body sank into the ground.

‘What’s going on?’

His body was extremely heavy, as if it was being pressed down by an ancient mountain.

Blood Empress quickly reached out a hand and pulled Zhang Ruochen out of the ground. She said, “You have just merged with your body from your previous life. You still can’t control the physical strength of this body. It will take some time for you to get used to it.”

Zhang Ruochen understood. The heaviness he felt was because the power contained in his body was so great that he could not control it carefully.

Just like a mortal, he could leave a shallow footprint on the ground.

Zhang Ruochen's current power was many times stronger than a mortal's. If he could not control his power well, he wouldn't just leave a footprint on the ground.

He could even flatten a mountain.

Now that his body had been nurtured into a Demigod-level physique by Blood Empress, it wasn't easy to control it.

After the two bodies merged, Zhang Ruochen could sense that the strength of his physique alone was at least ten times that of his past physique—the combo of Five-element Chaotic Body and Neverwither physique.

In other words, the strength of this body could even beat a Supreme Saint at the peak of Hundred-Shackle Realm. The prerequisite was that Zhang Ruochen could control his Demigod-level physique meticulously.

Like now, he had to walk carefully not to be trapped underground. How could he compete with a Supreme Saint at Hundred-Shackle Realm in such a state?

Even if he owned a Demigod-level physique, he would need to attain Demigod-level cultivation realm to unleash Demigod-level combat strength. However, it was still early to reach that phase. For now, it could only be said that Zhang Ruochen would make faster progress in his cultivation within his Supreme Sainthood, and his combat strength would far surpass that of cultivators in the same rank.

Chapter 2213: Departing Kunlun

The Blood Empress was severely injured when she summoned Zhang Ruochen's soul.

At the moment, she was holding the shining Heart of the Divine Tree with her fair hands to absorb the power inside it.

There was exuberant vitality within the Heart of the Divine Tree comparable to the life force belonging to the billions of plants in Kunlun together.

After absorbing only one-thousandth of it, the cracks on the Divinity Source of the Blood Empress healed at a noticeable speed.

What filled in the cracks was the Path of Life.

“One Yuanhui period equals to 129,600 years. The Divine Sky-connecting Tree is indeed powerful, and it is undoubtedly a deity that could cultivate the Path of Life to its limits. The insights on cultivational Paths in which I have received by absorbing 100 years of its cultivation have greatly benefited me.”

Moreover, the Heart of the Divine Tree contained not only the power of Life.

It was actually the Path of Life, knowledge, and wisdom belonging to the Divine Sky-connecting Tree.

Absorbing one-thousandth of the total 129,600 years would mean 100 years that the Divine Sky-connecting Tree had comprehended the Path of Life. A Saint could not attain the same level as the divine tree even if they spent 10,000 years comprehending it.

If the Blood Empress completely absorbed the Heart of the Divine Tree, her state of mind would be on par with that of a deity who had survived one or few Yuanhui Tribulations, even though she had just attained Godhood recently.

Moreover, her severely damaged soul would grow several times, reaching a level that many deities would only dream of.

One could say that the Heart of the Divine Tree was so rare and precious that it could trigger a war among deities.

Whoosh!

The instant her Divinity Source was completely restored, a ray of light shot out from the Blood Empress' body, as if a divine lamp had been lit.

Where the divine light shone, tender green shoots grew out from the ground.

They took root, sprouted, and grew rapidly.

In the end, they turned into three hundred million towering trees, which were lush and full of vitality.

These 300 million towering trees were generated by just the life force contained within the divine light Blood Empress had emitted.

Lord Ming clicked his tongue in annoyance. Turning around, he squinted his eyes and looked Zhang Ruochen, who stood beside him. "The Heart of Divine Tree is a divine treasure. It would be a waste on you, why don't you give one to your uncle instead?"

Zhang Ruochen retorted, "Didn't you snatch the hilt of the Stellar Sword and the Toten Sword away from me?"

Lord Ming shook his head and said, "How can that be called snatching? That sounds too unpleasant! The merging of the Stellar Sword together is a fate that nobody can change it."

"A fate?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Ming said, "That's right, the moment I got the Stellar Sword under control, its fate had already been decided. It's time for the sword to be reborn and suppress all worlds with its unparalleled sharpness."

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He suddenly felt that the legendary ferocious Lord Ming had the potential to be a trickster, because he had a smooth way of talking.

If he had stolen something, he even could shift the blame away to the heavens.

“Did fate also arrange for me to give you a Heart of the Divine Tree?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Ming stared maliciously at Zhang Ruochen. He nodded slightly and gave him an affirmative look.

“Hahaha.”

Zhang Ruochen laughed in disbelief.

Lord Ming shook his head slightly. He was disappointed by Zhang Ruochen’s attitude. “I’ll attain Godhood soon,” he said. “When the time comes, I’ll become an elite among deities. Now is a good chance for you to ask a favour from me.”

“What do I need to ask you for?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Ming said patiently, “You will go to Infernal Court to rescue your daughter. With another deity helping you, your chance of success will be greater. Give me one Heart of the Divine Tree and I’ll help you.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I have been thinking...”

“What is it?” Lord Ming asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “If I ask my mother to help me take back the sword hilt and the Toten Sword, I think my mother will agree. Since you have not become a deity yet, are you sure you’re a match for my mother?”

Lord Ming’s forehead knitted into a tight frown.

He realized that it wouldn’t be easy to trick Zhang Ruochen.

Standing at the top of the Blood Mountain, the Blood Empress naturally heard the conversation between Zhang Ruochen and Lord Ming.

She was extremely moved by hearing Zhang Ruochen referring to her as his mother, and tenderness surfaced in her dazzling eyes.

However, she understood that Zhang Ruochen had said the word “Mother” because he wanted to use his identity to negotiate with Lord Ming.

Perhaps the gap between mother and son might have been mended.

However, Zhang Ruochen's hatred for the Immortal Vampires was still there.

"Tell me your conditions. How can I get you to give me a Heart of the Divine Tree?" said Lord Ming.

"Help me save someone first. If you succeed, the hilt and the Toten Sword will be my gift to you as my uncle," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Ming's expression became solemn. "It's not against the rules to save someone, but you have to understand one thing. When you go to Infernal Court, it's best to do things according to the rules there. If you have any intentions of breaching the rules, I will have to kill you despite that you are my nephew."

Although Lord Ming said it calmly, Zhang Ruochen felt his heart skip a beat. Lord Ming would certainly kill him.

Zhang Ruochen's gaze met Lord Ming's eyes calmly.

Lord Ming had not expected Zhang Ruochen to remain composed and not show any fear despite being intimidated by his murderous intent. He was impressed by Zhang Ruochen.

"The Xue Jue Family needs more elites like you. If your actions are outstanding enough, you could far exceed your current self after obtaining resources and glory in Infernal Court."

Lord Ming continued, "You'd better maintain your current temperament and determination. Only then can you get the approval of Wargod Bloodximius. He'll help you with all the grudges between you and the big shots in Infernal Court."

"Your identity is controversial. If you want to survive in Infernal Court, gaining Wargod Bloodximius' approval would be the first step. Remember this in your heart."

Zhang Ruochen was deep in thought for a while. Suddenly, he took out a Heart of the Divine Tree and handed it to Lord Ming. "Uncle's words of advice are worth more far more than this."

Lord Ming was stunned for a moment, and he laughed afterward. "Interesting, very interesting. A smart person like you will definitely survive in Infernal Court unharmed, it seems that what I have said was unnecessary."

Taking the Heart of the Divine Tree, Lord Ming pressed it between his brows and turned it into a glowing green speck. It was like a tiny gemstone embedded on his forehead.

Zhang Ruochen and Lord Ming were both extremely intelligent people, so some words need not be spoken aloud.

If he had given the Heart of the Divine Tree to Lord Ming earlier, he would only help Zhang Ruochen save others.

However, giving the Heart of the Divine Tree to Lord Ming now meant that he had to protect Zhang Ruochen's life with his might in the Infernal Court.

If Zhang Ruochen didn't give Lord Ming a Heart of the Divine Tree, Lord Ming wouldn't do his best to save Chi Kongyue even if he agreed to do so.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen might have to take out a Heart of the Divine Tree to persuade him. But even if he did, Zhang Ruochen would still owe him a favor.

Zhang Ruochen could give away a treasure, but it must be at the right time.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen sensed something and looked toward the horizon.

On the horizon, a rainbow ray of light emerged.

In the center of the rainbow, a beautiful divine silhouette walked over slowly. She had long snow-white hair and a graceful figure. With every step, a lotus flower grew under her feet.

Lotus flowers grew in the wake of her footsteps.

A pair of peacock wings adorned her back.

The light from the rainbow was coming the peacock wings. It was beautiful and overflowing with Saint Qi which accentuated her perfect appearance and temperament with an ethereal and mysterious aura.

Zhang Ruochen was overjoyed. “Lanyou, you’ve finally rebuilt an immortal body and returned to Supreme Sainthood.”

Recently, Zhang Ruochen had been struggling in adversity and experienced much sorrow. Now that he had something good happened to him, he was naturally excited.

He leaped up, wanting to fly in front of Kong Lanyou.

However, just as he jumped, his body sank into the ground, leaving only his head exposed.

Kong lanyou walked to Zhang Ruochen’s side. Her beautiful eyes were filled with confusion. She couldn’t help but laugh. “Cousin, what are you doing?”

Zhang Ruochen was a Supreme Saint and also the high-ranking Prince of the Eastern Region. He was also the ruler of Central Shengming Empire. He would certainly care about his face.

After losing so much face, his expression was a little unnatural. He coughed dryly and said, “Help me up first. I’m afraid that the higher I climb, the deeper I’ll fall.”

Kong Lanyou leaned over and reached out a jade-white hand. She caressed Zhang Ruochen’s face, which was the only part visible on the surface and smiled sweetly at him. “I think you’re fine now, why don’t you stay underground for a while?”

When Kong Lanyou leaned over, a snow-white ravine could be clearly between her bosom. It was rounded beautifully as a couple of jade bowls, giving off an alluring attractiveness.

Zhang Ruochen was a little embarrassed and purposefully closed his eyes, “Lanyou,” he said. “I’m going to the Infernal Court immediately. We don’t have much time left to spend together, and I don’t know how long it would be till we can meet again. Goodbye, I don’t know if we would be friends or foe in the future...”

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen felt his body lighten and returned to above ground.

Kong Lanyou frowned slightly. She looked bewildered and seemed worried that he would leave immediately, so she grabbed his hands tightly.

It would take some time for the Blood Empress to fully recover to her peak state. Thus, Zhang Ruochen and Kong Lanyou walked together and talked about things that had happened recently.

They had both attained Supreme Sainthood and were at the top of the Paths. However, they were like teenagers with their fingers tightly interlocked and standing close together.

Perhaps it was because they had merged their previous flesh bodies, Zhang Ruochen's feelings for Kong Lanyou had become closer. It was as if everything was the same as it was 800 years ago.

Kong Lanyou stopped and looked at him closely. "Cousin, it'll be hard to turn back after going to the Infernal Court. There won't be any place for you in the Celestial Court, Kunlun, and the Guanghan."

"I understand," Zhang Ruochen said.

Kong Lanyou's had a captivating smile on her exquisite face that could make anyone swoon over, and she said. "If there really is a day when there's no place for you in the Celestial and Infernal Courts, I would be willing to stay by your side. The universe is vast with boundless swathes of land. There's always a place to call home."

With that, Kong Lanyou gently tiptoed and planted a kiss on Zhang Ruochen's face with her ruby red lips unexpectedly.

Then she hugged Zhang Ruochen tightly and whispered in his ear, "Cousin, you've suffered too much. It's a pity that I wasn't by your side when you were at your most challenging time."

Kong Lanyou's actions were really out of ordinary.

Zhang Ruochen didn't react for a long time as he was taken aback. Then he gathered up his feelings and placed one hand on her head and the other around her slim waist, and looked gravely at her, saying, "Help me take care of my mother, and wait for me. I will definitely be back."

Lin Lan had long been sent to the Endless Abyss by the Blood Empress, and Zhang Ruochen had gone to see her not long ago.

When the War of Merit broke out in Kunlun, it was actually the clone of the Blood Empress who had found Lin Lan first. She wanted to meet the woman whom Zhang Ruochen had called his mother, in order to learn from her how to become a mother and win back Zhang Ruochen's trust.

It was for this reason that when Zhang Ruochen first came to the Endless Abyss, the Blood Empress cooked a big table of delicacies for him like a hospitable woman welcoming guests.

And that's the reason she did not force Zhang Ruochen against his will to acknowledge her as his mother as a deity herself.

Later, when Mu Lingxi went to pick up Lin Lan, she had already been sent to the Endless Abyss by Qiu Yichi. The clone of the Blood Empress transformed into Lin Lan as she wanted to get close to Zhang Ruochen and understand his personality as well as his temperament.

"Stop flirting. We should go now!"

In the distance, Lord Ming called out in a rather unpleasant way, ruining the moment between Zhang Ruochen and Kong Lanyou.

Zhang Ruochen and Kong Lanyou, who were hugging each other tightly, immediately separated.

Blood Empress had her hands clasped behind her back, and her eyes looked disdainfully at the sky, displaying the peerless might of a deity. Her cultivation had completely recovered, and so she spoke, "It's been 800 years which means the time to leave has come. Lanyou, remember what you promised your aunt. You'll take care of everything in the second level for now."

After saying this, Blood Empress extended a snow-white slender finger and pointed.

Crash

A hidden passage appeared above the second level.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the other end of the passage and saw a starry sky, and he did not know where in the universe it was connected to.

“What did mother mean by what she said to Lanyou just now? What does the second level of the Endless Abyss has that need to take care of, those Bloodbeasts?”

Zhang Ruochen always felt that there must be some unknown secrets hidden here.

However, Kong Lanyou was very principled and stubborn. Since she had promised the Blood Empress, it must not be a bad thing.

Wrapped in the divine light of the Blood Empress, Zhang Ruochen, Xue Tu, Xuemo, Qi Tian, and Ying Huo passed through the hidden passage. After spinning around briefly, they came to a dark and cold space.

Zhang Ruochen looked back and saw Kunlun in the distance.

The distance between them and Kunlun was very far, and all that he could see was a glowing atmospheric mass ten times bigger than the moon.

Although he was still in the nearby starry sky, he was already thousands of miles away from Kunlun.

“I can’t continue to suppress it. I have been sensed by the heavenly and earthly precepts and I have to undergo the divine Tribulation immediately. My Divine Tribulation is the Heart tribulation.”

Lord Ming landed on a yellowish-brown planet with a diameter of 30,000 miles, he landed heavily on the planet and shook it violently. And then he sat cross-legged and assumed the “lotus” position.

The next moment, divine light emitted from his body enveloped the entire planet. Following that, it spread to the surrounding starry sky and turned into a sea of blood-colored divine light.

“What strength Lord Ming possesses, he’s only a demigod but his divine light can illuminate a starry sky and dye thousands of planets blood-colored. I also have the body of a demigod but why can’t I do it?” Zhang Ruochen thought to himself.

Chapter 2214: God Slayer

Whoosh

Countless precepts of heaven and earth appeared and interweaved with one another, completely enveloping the planet where Lord Ming was.

Even though they were distant, they could feel the awe-inspiring pressure of heaven and earth.

Under normal circumstances, when a lifeform ascended to godhood, they would need to undergo divine tribulation.

A tribulation a deity must undergo varies across individuals. It could be related to love, lust, unresolved feelings, lingering feelings. It could be in the form of lightning, unnatural death, and so on. Different lifeforms had different cultivation experiences, therefore the tribulations would be different.

The difficulty of the tribulations was naturally different.

In general, the tribulations correspond with what one fears most.

The more they feared, the stronger the tribulations.

Empress Chi Yao, for instance, had experienced the love tribulations some time past. She had relied on Zhang Ruochen to perfect herself and become a deity.

But now, Lord Ming needed to experience the Heart Tribulation. The test was his.

Because after cultivating for more than a myriad years, his heart wasn't fair. There was anger and hatred brewing in his heart.

"I can even overcome the will of the Ancestral Swordmaster. I'm destined to become an unparalleled elite that will shake all realms. What can a mere heart tribulation do to me?"

Lord Ming was determined.

His divine heart was as firm as a rock and couldn't be shaken.

After cultivating in The Nether Dungeon for a myriad years, Lord Ming's mind and will had reached an unimaginable level. The heart tribulation wasn't a challenge for him in the least.

It was sort of a threshold that would be crossed with only one step.

Whoosh

Not long after, the divine light that shone from Lord Ming became even more dazzling. It was like a divine sun that wanted to illuminate the dim starry sky completely.

At the same time, an imposing divine force spread from Lord Ming. It covered the sky and earth and spread in all directions. Ripples appeared within the surrounding starry sea.

A vast amount of heaven and earth power fused into his body and urged the transformation of divine force.

"He has passed the Heart Tribulation," Blood Empress said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Was it that easy to become a god?"

"That's because few external objects can affect him since he started cultivating. As for the anger and resentment in his heart, he had already overcome them in The Nether Dungeon. They couldn't affect his spiritual will. He had the confidence to become a god thousands of years ago. After thousands of years of training, the Heart Tribulation won't be able to do anything to him." Blood Empress said.

Zhang Ruochen had no idea about the Divine Tribulation.

Lord Ming may look calm on the surface, but no one knew what he had experienced at that moment.

Boom

A surge of Blood Qi soared into the sky and shook the nine heavens.

Lord Ming stood up and stepped on the planet. His body expanded rapidly.

Ascending to godhood was a great leap in life for any lifeforms. It would be in the form of a divine giant with no deliberate suppression.

The stronger the blood qi, the larger the divine physique they might create once they became a god.

Lord Ming's body was constantly bursting with vigorous blood qi, which guided the divine physique to ascend as if there was no limit.

In the end, it reached a total of 90,000 miles before it stabilized.

Boom

The yellowish-brown planet with a diameter of 30,000 miles couldn't bear Lord Ming's divine physique and divine force. It shattered and became tiny asteroids.

Hiss

Xue Tu, Xuemo, Qi Sheng, and Ying Huo all looked up at Lord Ming's divine physique and gasped at the sight of it.

Even Zhang Ruochen's mind was affected by the size of it.

Even though he had become a Supreme Saint elite and possessed the body of a demigod, he was still very different from a real God.

'I wonder how powerful will the 90,000-mile true vessel be and how many Divine Planets can Lord Ming condense?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

The number of Divine Planets was connected with the buildup of cultivators.

The more powerful the buildup, the more Divine Planets could be condensed.

To become a god, one needed at least the power of a star, which was to condense a Divine Planet.

The power of a star was terrifying. Even the slightest fluctuation would kill all lifeforms on the nearby planets.

The encompassing starry sky would be destroyed if a star exploded.

Because of this, in the eyes of the gods, if one did not become a god, they would eventually become an ant.

Under normal circumstances, cultivators would do their best to strengthen their accumulation and would not rush to ascend to godhood. Therefore, there will be at least two Divine Planets condensed.

Only those gods who relied on refining Divinity Source to reach godhood would only have one Divine Planet.

They were also a god, but they weren't recognized. They could only be considered pseudo gods.

Pseudo gods could not survive the calamity of the Yuanhui Tribulation. They could only live for one Yuanhui Tribulation.

A god's future achievements depend on the number of Divine Planets he or she condensed. The more the better.

When Empress Chi Yao became a deity, she condensed a total of thirty-three Divine Planets. In other words, she also possessed the terrifying power contained in thirty-three stars. It was almost comparable to a god who had survived the calamity of the Yuanhui Tribulation.

Above Lord Ming's head, an incomparably vast starry sky appeared, faintly discernible.

This starry sky was extremely demonic. Hundreds of millions of stars converged into a long river that stretched across the universe. It was very long and no one could tell where it begins or where it ends. It made people feel that it was unreal.

The starry sky emitted yellow light. It was like a river of styx that flowed through the universe.

"Is that starry sky Infernal Court?" Zhang Ruochen muttered.

He was familiar with this milky way of styx. He had seen it twice when he had been to the Death's Door.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that the milky way of styx was very far away from this starry sky. Under normal circumstances, he couldn't see it at all.

It was because Lord Ming had become a god. He illuminated heaven and earth, making them appear across space.

It was a miracle.

Now Lord Ming has created his divine physique, and the next step is to create the Stellar Soul Constellation.

There were two methods to condense a Divine Planet.

One was to directly absorb the planet from the universe and merge one's Precepts and divine soul into it.

Another way was to completely condense the Precepts and combine one's Precepts with the precept of heaven and earth.

In comparison, the Divine Planet created by the second method was more compatible with the gods and could store more divine force in the future.

However, it was too difficult to condense the Divine Planet completely by Precepts and only a few people could achieve it.

Naturally, with Lord Ming's pride and strength, he wanted to condense the Divine Planet that was most compatible with himself.

Countless thick and solid Divine Precepts rushed out of Lord Ming and entered the milky way of styx. They triggered the precepts of heaven and earth in the Infernal Court and interweaved with each other.

Lord Ming's ascension was a huge commotion and trembled many planets in the nearby starry sky.

In a starry sky far away, there was a dead Divine Planet. On the top of the highest mountain on the planet, there was a tall and sturdy golden-armored god sitting cross-legged.

This Divine Planet belonged to the Great God Jinque of Kunlun.

Great God Jinque died in the divine war during the Middle Ages. Saint Monk Xumi used space-time techniques and hid the Divine Planet. However, the golden-armored god found it in the universe.

At this moment, the golden-armored god was refining the remnant Stellar Soul of God on the Divine Planet to increase his strength.

Suddenly, the golden-armored god felt a powerful divine force fluctuating and looked at the distant starry sky.

‘What a powerful divine force fluctuation. It doesn’t belong to the Celestial Court. Perhaps a god from the Infernal Court?’ he thought.

The golden-armored god stood up and waved his arm. His fingers grabbed at the void and he was taking away the huge Divine Planet like taking a glass ball.

No matter how much a planet weighed, it was as light as a feather to the gods.

Swoosh

A starry path condensed by his divine force appeared under the feet of the golden-armored god. It was illusory and connected to the other side of the starry sky.

Only gods could see the starry path.

Walking on the starry path, every step he took was 129,600 miles.

It didn’t take long for the golden-armored god to appear near the place where Lord Ming was transcending his tribulation.

His gaze locked onto Lord Ming and was shocked when he saw the 90,000-mile divine physique.

‘The aura of the Swordsmanship on him is so strong. It has the same origin as the Divine Artifact that appeared in Kunlun not long ago. Could it be that the Divine Artifact is on him?’ The golden-armored god thought.

Previously, the birth of the Stellar Sword had shaken the entire Central Region and it couldn’t escape the gods’ perception.

Many gods in the Celestial and Infernal Court were alarmed back then. They had sensed the aura of the Stellar Sword. Unfortunately, as Lord Ming entered the Endless Abyss, the aura disappeared.

The golden-armored god saw Blood Empress and his eyes froze.

The reason was that as a god, he couldn't see through that woman at all. She gave him an unfathomable feeling. He could only tell that she was an Immortal Vampire.

The golden-armored god frowned slightly, he thought, 'Who is she? Why have I never heard of such a god in the Immortal Vampires? No matter what, I have to stop that Immortal Vampire man from condensing the Divine Planet. There can't be any new god in the Infernal Court.'

Immediately, the golden-armored god activated his powerful divine force and swung the sky spear at Lord Ming.

The attack from the sky spear cut through the starry sky and shot out a golden light like a comet.

There will be no stopping once the condensing of a Divine Planet has begun. If the process is interrupted, one could not continue to condense at least. At worst, the Divine Planet condensed would be destroyed.

In this way, it was equivalent to falling from the divinity right after one became a god. Moreover, one would suffer a terrifying backlash.

Therefore, when one broke through to become a god, they would usually ask someone to protect them or make all sorts of arrangements in advance to prevent all sorts of unexpected situations from happening.

Blood Empress had long sensed the aura of the golden-armored god. Seeing that he had launched an attack, she snorted coldly, raised a divine jade-like hand, and pressed it forward.

Immediately, an enormous phantom divine monument appeared in the starry sky, tens of thousands of miles tall.

Rumble

Just as it came into contact with the phantom divine monument, the golden light from the sky spear slashed out was like an egg hitting a rock. It shattered and dissipated into nothingness.

Blood Empress twisted her wrist and pressed her hand into the void.

Following that, the phantom divine monument directly pressed toward the golden-armored god.

“This is bad, she’s a true God.”

The golden-armored god’s face changed dramatically, and he retreated while he used all his strength to resist.

In an instant, the golden-armored god revealed his true form. He had a ninety thousand meters tall body, but he still looked small in front of the divine monument that was tens of thousands of miles tall.

Boom

The golden-armored god was unable to resist it in the end, and his divine physique exploded from the impact.

The divine monument shone with a brilliant blood-red light, completely enveloping the golden-armored god. Then, it shook and released a power that could destroy all things.

“No!”

The golden-armored god let out an unwilling and despairing roar, desperately trying to break free.

At this moment, he truly felt the death threat.

“A mere one-star pseudo god dares to come and throw his life away?” Blood Empress said indifferently.

Blood Empress didn’t care much of a being ascended to godhood by refining the Divinity Source.

Most of the gods sent by the Celestial Court and Infernal Court to patrol the Battlefield of Merits were one-star pseudo gods. As they did not have the potential to grow, it would not be a great loss even if they died.

Suddenly, Blood Empress raised her head and looked into the distance. She muttered, “Another god is approaching.”

Before she finished her words, a five-colored ribbon cut through the starry sky and extended over.

A ball of fire hundreds of miles in size appeared above the five-colored ribbon.

Crash

The fire exploded and formed a huge circle of fire.

A mighty god wearing three-colored armor walked out of the circle of fire. His body emitted a terrifying heat that distorted the surrounding starry sky.

When Zhang Ruochen saw who it was, his heart skipped a beat.

He was very familiar with this god and he had once wanted to kill him. It was Yanshen of the Fane of Merit.

Yanshen had been injured on Mount Yueshen, causing the Fane of Merit to lose face. When he returned, he was punished and sent to collect the Power of Merits from the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun.

The Fane of Merit had a high status in the Celestial Court, and many gods were in charge of it. However, they were either cultivating in seclusion or overseeing the Battlefield of Merits.

Yanshen used to be in charge of the matters of the Fane of Merit. He was equivalent to a butler arranged by the Lord of the Fane of Merit.

“Save... Save Me.”

The golden-armored god who was suppressed by the divine monument cried out weakly for help.

As a one-star pseudo god, his mental power and life force were far from being comparable to a true God.

“Stop!”

Yanshen roared and put his hands together. Divine flames surged out of his body.

The divine flames were too intense and completely enveloped the Yanshen, making him look like a sun. He gave off extreme light and heat as if he wanted to meet the starry sky.

The three-colored flames interweaved and condensed into a torrent of flames. Like a giant flame dragon, it shot across the sky toward the divine monument that was tens of thousands of miles tall.

Although Yanshen hadn't grasped any Canon, and he wasn't an ancient god who had passed the Yuan Hui Tribulation. He cultivated the Way of the Three Corpses from the Taiyi Divine Techniques Rank. His strength was extremely strong, far from what an ordinary god could compare to.

Blood Empress appeared extremely calm. She formed a seal and released even more Divine Precepts and divine force. She condensed another divine monument and slapped it at Yanshen.

Boom

The divine monument was unparalleled. It shattered the torrent of flames and turned it into a rain of fire that filled the sky, incomparably dazzling.

Yanshen's heart sank. He didn't hesitate and immediately activated the Power of Merits. It was unfathomable. With its boost on Yanshen, his strength increased greatly.

Yanshen pushed forward with both hands. The Power of Merits condensed into a five-colored divine seal that was as large as a star.

Bang

However, the five-colored divine seal was unable to block the divine monument. It was pierced through the moment it came into contact and turned into a cloud of smoke.

The next moment, the divine monument hit Yanshen.

Pfft

Yanshen was sent flying four thousand miles away. There was blood hanging at the corner of his mouth, and his chest was heaving up and down violently.

"It's another Canon."

Yanshen's eyes were wide open, and he was both shocked and angry.

In the battle on Mount Yueshen, he had suffered the loss of the Canon. Half of his body had been cut off by the Moon Goddess, and his injuries hadn't recovered yet. It was truly a great humiliation.

There were very few gods who had mastered the Canon in this world. Each of them had a famous existence.

But Yanshen didn't have any impression of Blood Empress. It was really strange.

Encountering a true God who had mastered the Canon, Yanshen didn't dare to rescue the golden-armored god. He was afraid that he would be implicated. One had to know that this wasn't the Celestial Court, and the other wasn't a god of the Celestial Court.

In the Celestial Court, even the Moon Goddess didn't dare to kill him.

But the god of the Infernal Court didn't have any scruples.

"That's... Zhang Ruochen. He's still alive."

Yanshen sensed a familiar divine force fluctuation. He stared at it and saw Zhang Ruochen standing beside Blood Empress.

Finally, his gaze locked onto Zhang Ruochen's leg.

He knew that the Moon Goddess had given his leg to a weakling of Saint Kingdom. Yanshen had become the laughing stock of the gods. Now that he saw Zhang Ruochen, Yanshen's eyes burned. He gritted his teeth in hatred.

"How is this bast*rd still alive?"

The news of Zhang Ruochen's death in Kunlun had long spread throughout the world. Yanshen had also heard about it.

On the other side, the screams gradually disappeared. The divine monument had destroyed the golden-armored god's spiritual will and Qi of life, leaving only a soulless shell.

Besides the mother world of the golden-armored god, his only Divine Planet dimmed and lost its luster.

Another god has fallen.

Blood Empress reached out a large hand and took away the pseudo god's body. She held it in her palm and glanced at Yanshen. "I can feel the anger in your heart. Show me your true ability. I want to slay a true God to show my power."

Slaying a pseudo god was not enough for Blood Empress.

After the battle on Mount Yueshen, Yanshen had learned his lesson. He knew that he was not the kind of war god who guarded the Battlefield of Merits all year round. There was no need to fight with the true gods of the Infernal Court.

His eyelids drooped and he said lightly, "He's just a new god. Don't be too arrogant. The gods of Celestial Court will come soon. There will be a price to pay for killing a god of Celestial Court."

Xue Tu whispered in Zhang Ruochen's ear and laughed. "Did you see how hypocritical the gods of the Celestial Court are? If he had tried his best just now, he might have been able to save that pseudo god. But he chose to retreat."

Xuemo, Qi Sheng, and Ying Huo all laughed contemptuously.

There was nothing to be afraid of with Blood Empress on their side, even if the other party was a god.

Yanshen's eyes grew colder. He would have killed all the Immortal Vampires if he had also cultivated the Canon. Those who humiliated gods had to die.

On the other side, one after another Divine Planets were created in the River Styx.

Before he became a god, Lord Ming already had the power of a star. He crossed the gulf and was comparable to a one-star pseudo god.

With such a powerful accumulation, he was naturally not comparable to ordinary gods after he broke through.

Lord Ming did not hold back at all. He released his Precepts and divine force to successfully create his Stellar Soul Constellations in an extremely short period.

Twenty-eight dazzling stars appeared in the milky way of styx. They were connected and formed Lord Ming's figure.

At a glance, these twenty-eight stars were particularly prominent. The light they emitted made the entire milky way of styx even brighter.

To the gods, the brighter the Divine Planet was, the better. It represented a state of the gods themselves. Many times, cultivators judged the state of the gods by the light of the Divine Planet.

Back then, when Moon Goddess was severely injured and on the verge of death, her Divine Planets had completely dimmed. As a result, it misled Wargod Bian Zhuang that she was dead. In a fit of anger, he had abandoned the Celestial River and charged into the Infernal Court alone.

"Twenty-eight Divine Planets. Sixth Brother's fortuitous encounter in The Nether Dungeon is not small." Blood Empress's eyes flashed with a strange light.

The Divine Planets represent not only the power that the gods now possess but also the potential as well.

The number of Divine Planets formed by the gods who could grasp the Canon was not small.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the twenty-eight Divine Planets floating in the milky way of styx. Lord Ming was not bragging. Once he became a god, he was indeed extraordinary.

'The Stellar Soul Constellation is so powerful, and with the Stellar Sword, Lord Ming's strength may be comparable to the ancient God who survived the Yuan Hui Tribulation,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

He had just become a god, but he was already so powerful. He didn't know how powerful he would be if he practiced for another Yuan Hui.

Qi Sheng was excited and he idolizes Lord Ming. He had heard all kinds of legends about Lord Ming since he was born.

He had tried hard to rescue Lord Ming from The Nether Dungeon.

He had never thought that he would be able to witness the great moment when Lord Ming became a god.

Rumble

At this moment, the starry sky shook violently and beams of divine light appeared one after another. The commotion of the divine war was too big, and it attracted the gods from the Celestial and Infernal Court to descend.

Chapter 2215: Wargod Bloodximius Xue Jue

In the starry sky, there were colorful lights and divine clouds. Everywhere was filled with powerful divine might.

If it weren't for the protection of the Blood Empress, Xuemo and the others would have already knelt.

Even Zhang Ruochen, a Supreme Saint whose spiritual will was far beyond ordinary people, couldn't breathe under the pressure of the divine might. He could barely hold on.

Whoosh

The starry sky trembled, and a bright moon appeared out of thin air. It bloomed with a cold brilliance, covering the entire starry sky with a layer of silver gauze. It was beautiful.

Under the bright moon, there was a beautiful figure walking slowly through the starry sky.

From afar, the beautiful figure gave off a fresh and refined aura. She was elegant, ethereal, and nimble as if she was detached from the mortal world.

She had peerless beauty and flawless skin. Even a true god admires her.

Zhang Ruochen was very familiar with this goddess. She was the most beautiful goddess in the Celestial Court, Moon Goddess.

Zhang Ruochen knew that Moon Goddess had rushed here because she sensed his presence.

The news that he had died in front of the Dimensional Rift must have spread throughout the realms. But now, his aura had suddenly appeared. It would be strange if she didn't care.

Four true gods had descended from Celestial Court. With Moon Goddess as the leader, they all emitted powerful divine might.

Four true gods had also come from the Infernal Court. Two were Immortal Vampires and the other two were Rakshasa.

Yanshen was confident after seeing the gods of Celestial Court descend, including powerful ancient gods like Moon Goddess. His body emitted a mighty divine might and he said proudly, “Everyone, the Infernal Court wants to start a divine war, and some of the gods of the Celestial Court have already fallen. Unfortunately, I was a step too late and was unable to save him.”

His words could be said to be dignified, and he completely pushed aside the responsibility of the god of Celestial Court dying. At the same time, he did not mention the fact that he had suffered a loss just now.

Yanshen’s purpose was very clear. He wanted to incite the four true gods, including the Moon Goddess, to fight against the gods of the Infernal Court.

Seeing Yanshen putting on an act, Lord Ming laughed and said, “Yanshen of the Fane of Merit, right? Come, and have a taste of my sword. Let me test your strength.”

Although he had just ascended to godhood, he was not afraid of fighting with Yanshen.

Yanshen was angry, but he didn’t attack rashly.

No one dared to underestimate a new god who could condense twenty-eight Divine Planets. Moreover, Lord Ming seemed to have obtained a Divine Artifact from Kunlun. His strength was immeasurable.

Yanshen snorted and said, “Even if you become a god, you should be in awe. The one who stands out will rot first.”

Lord Ming didn’t bother to waste time with him. He summoned the Stellar Sword to his hands and slashed out.

Whoosh

Billions of Divine Marks appeared on the surface of the Stellar Sword. They are interwoven and condensed into a sharp and indestructible sword ray.

“Is that... The Stellar Sword?”

Yanshen's pupils constricted and he felt a great threat.

Legend had it that the Stellar Sword was lost forever, but its awe-inspiring reputation was still well-known by the gods throughout various worlds. Back then, when Ancestral Swordmaster controlled it, no one knew how many gods were killed.

Without hesitating, Yanshen took out a Five-colored Merit Stele and struck out with all his strength.

The Five-colored Merit Stele rapidly expanded, instantly transformed into a hundred thousand feet tall. It blossomed with an incomparably dazzling five-colored divine light, illuminating the entire starry sky with five-colored brilliance.

Bang

The sword ray slashed onto the Five-colored Merit Stele and sent it flying.

The Five-colored Merit Stele dimmed and lost its luster. The Power of Merits contained within it was greatly consumed.

Yanshen was apprehensive. He withdrew the Five-colored Merit Stele and immediately retreated to the side of the gods of the Celestial Court.

'He just became a god and already has such terrifying offensive power. How detestable.' Yanshen thought with annoyance.

Regardless, Yanshen was still a god of the Fane of Merits. He's been a god for more than a myriad of years. He never thought that he would be suppressed by two new gods. The main reason was that his injuries from the battle on Mount Yueshen had not recovered yet, so Yanshen's strength was not to his fullest.

In that battle, his injuries were too severe. It would be impossible for him to recover without a hundred years.

"So the gods of the Fane of Merits are only so-so."

Lord Ming glanced at Yanshen with contempt. He put away the Stellar Sword and didn't attack again.

From the moment he arrived, the Moon Goddess had been staring at Zhang Ruochen,

She could see the changes in Zhang Ruochen.

Chi Yao had told Moon Goddess about the relationship between Zhang Ruochen and the Immortal Vampires on Mount Yueshen. Now that she saw him standing beside Blood Empress, it all makes sense.

“Moon Goddess, Zhang Ruochen is your Divine Envoy. Now that he’s colluding with the Immortal Vampires, what do you have to say?” asked Yanshen.

Moon Goddess ignored Yanshen and said, “Have you thought thoroughly? If you regret it now, there’s still a chance.”

Although Moon Goddess knew why Zhang Ruochen had joined the Infernal Court, she still hoped that Zhang Ruochen could be saved.

“Thank you for what you have done for me all these years, Moon Goddess. I’ve thought it through. No matter what happens in the end, I won’t regret it,” Zhang Ruochen said calmly with a firm look in his eyes.

It was a good thing that Zhang Ruochen met Moon Goddess before he departed to Infernal Court. It was also a good opportunity to clear things up and he did not want to implicate anyone.

Moon Goddess shook her head slightly and said, “Once you continue this path, everyone in the Celestial Court world will see you as an enemy. There will be no place for you in Celestial Court. Is it worth it?”

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a moment. “It’s worth it.”

He had thought about all the consequences and was prepared to bear them.

Moon Goddess looked at Zhang Ruochen deeply. She knew that she couldn’t change his mind. She retracted her bright divine gaze and said in a clear voice that spread through the starry sky, “From now on...”

After a pause, she continued, “Zhang Ruochen is no longer my Divine Envoy and he has nothing to do with Guanghai.”

There was a deep sense of helplessness in the Moon Goddess’s voice. In the end, she could not bear to part with a rare genius like Zhang Ruochen.

However, she could not stop Zhang Ruochen from choosing this path.

This meant that Zhang Ruochen would no longer be able to draw the divine force from Moon Goddess. If he encountered any trouble, she would no longer be his backer.

Zhang Ruochen’s mind trembled slightly. From now on, he was no longer part of Celestial Court.

Once he entered the battlefield, he might have to fight against his old friends.

He didn’t want this to happen.

But no matter what, he wouldn’t regret his decision.

“Why should my descendent be someone else’s Divine Envoy?”

At this moment, an extremely domineering voice suddenly sounded.

A vast and boundless sea of blood appeared, sweeping in all directions as if it wanted to drown the entire starry sky. The divine might it emitted caused all the gods present to feel extremely stifled.

Only Moon Goddess was able to maintain her composure.

Whoosh

A huge whirlpool appeared in the sea of blood, and an extremely tall figure walked out of it.

Every step the tall figure took caused the starry sky to tremble. Billions of precepts of heaven and earth were trampled under his feet.

The figure who walked out of the whirlpool was a blood-haired man who was extraordinary. He was 270 centimeters tall and handsome. He also exuded an irresistible majestic aura.

The blood-haired man had sword-like eyebrows and starry eyes. His gaze was as sharp as lightning, and his nose bridge was high. He breathed like a dragon, and he was wearing armor that was dripping with blood. His murderous intent towered into the sky. Behind him was a terrifying scene of corpses and a sea of blood and there were gods laid dead on the ground.

“Wargod Bloodximus.”

Other than Moon Goddess, the other gods of Celestial Court froze for a moment.

Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian were known as the top two prodigies of the Yuanhui Tribulation in Infernal Court. They had not cultivated for a long time, but they were already among the prominent figures, and many were afraid of them.

At this moment, the appearance of Wargod Bloodximus undoubtedly made the gods of the Celestial Court feel immense pressure.

If not for the presence of Moon Goddess, they might have chosen to retreat.

Blood Empress looked at Wargod Bloodximus with a complicated expression.

In her eyes, Wargod Bloodximus seemed both familiar and yet a stranger.

A thousand years ago, Blood Empress was sent to Kunlun to fight for the Immortal Vampires when she was only fourteen years old.

During that time, Wargod Bloodximus entered a hundred years of isolated cultivation. Therefore, from the moment Blood Empress was born to the moment she left the Xue Jue Family, she had never seen him.

Wargod Bloodximus was the pillar of the Xue Jue Family. For the sake of the family's prosperity, he had been working hard to improve his strength.

The reason why Wargod Bloodximius was able to achieve what he had today was because of the countless hardships and efforts he had put in.

Wargod Bloodximius had supreme influence in the Xue Jue Family. He was like a kind of spirit and a kind of faith.

From the time Blood Empress remembered, she had heard her mother talk about the various deeds of Wargod Bloodximius. She had seen the portrait of him countless times. After a while, she had started to admire Wargod Bloodximius since she was young.

To Blood Empress, the figure of Wargod Bloodximius had practically been imprinted in her heart.

However, Blood Empress had always suspected that she only remembered that painting and not Wargod Bloodximius or her father.

Blood Empress stared at Wargod Bloodximius, his eyes, nose, mouth, arms... and slowly overlapped with the picture in her mind.

The father who had only existed in her imagination had finally appeared in front of her.

It was still familiar and unfamiliar to her.

Blood Empress sighed in her heart, 'Does Wargod Bloodximius remembers, or does he know, that her daughter exists?'

In the blink of an eye, Wargod Bloodximius came closer. His first gaze didn't fall on the Moon Goddess or Lord Ming but Blood Empress.

His eyes were deep and bright. A guilty look flashed in his eyes, finally, it turned into a plain greeting. "Little fourteen? You're Qingyin, right? I thought so. I gave you that name. How have you been in Kunlun all these years?"

"Not too good," said Blood Empress.

Wargod Bloodximius did not speak anymore. He stared at her for a long time and said, "Forget it. It's good that you're back."

Perhaps it was an illusion, but the gods present realized that the legendary Wargod Bloodximus, who was infamous for his ferocity, did not seem to be that terrifying. At least, in front of Blood Empress, he showed a hesitant, gentle, and reserved side.

Xue Qingyin was Blood Empress's true name and only a handful of people knew it. It had been too long since anyone had called her that.

Wargod Bloodximus thought Blood Empress had already died. After all, the gods couldn't sense anything in the Endless Abyss.

He hadn't expected that after 800 years, that Blood Empress hadn't only walked out of the Endless Abyss alive, but had also ascended to godhood. Even his ever calmed divine heart was beating fast.

It was a beat of joy and surprise.

Wargod Bloodximus's gaze fell on Zhang Ruochen, who was standing beside Blood Empress.

Since Kunlun had become the Battlefield of Merits, Zhang Ruochen had made a name for himself and spread throughout the realms. Even Wargod Bloodximus himself had also heard of him.

However, Wargod Bloodximus had never thought that this peerless genius, who was on par with Yan Wushen, would be a descendant of the Xue Jue Family.

Although Zhang Ruochen was not a pure Immortal Vampire, he was born from the Blood Empress and a human cultivator.

However, since he was the descendant of the Blood Empress, he had to be a member of the Xue Jue Family.

The two Immortal Vampire gods who had just arrived were surprised. With two new gods, the Xue Jue Family, which was already at its peak, would undoubtedly become even more prosperous.

Not to mention Blood Empress, just the potential that Lord Ming showed already made the two gods of Immortal

Vampires feel pressure.

It was extremely rare for one to have the power of twenty-eight stars after becoming a god.

It seemed that the situation of the ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires was about to change.

Lord Ming retracted all the precepts and divine force he released.

Then, his 90,000-mile-long divine physique shrank rapidly.

In the blink of an eye, he returned to his usual appearance.

After becoming a god, Lord Ming's temperament became more and more elegant and there was no evil aura on his body. Instead, he seemed extremely divine, like an immortal descending to the mortal world.

Faced with Lord Ming like this, Xue Tu, Qi Sheng, and the others unconsciously felt inferior.

Zhang Ruochen hesitated for a moment and coughed dryly, then he said, "Moon Goddess, I'm no longer your Divine Envoy, and I'm no longer a member of the Guanghan. I must have back the Kaiyuan Deer Cauldron, the Divine Herb you owe me, and the one million Sainthood Source."

Moon Goddess raised her eyelids and looked askance. She waved her sleeves as if she was ready to leave and said lightly, "The Celestial Court and Infernal Court are irreconcilable. Those things belong to me now. If you want it, come and take it then."

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but be stunned.

He had never thought that a high and mighty deity like Moon Goddess would be so shameless.

Not only did she promise him the Divine Herb, but she also didn't want to return the Kaiyuan Deer Cauldron and one million Sainthood Source that she had taken from him.

Wargod Bloodximus looked at Moon Goddess with his furious eyes and said, "Moon Goddess, Zhang Ruochen is my grandson. His treasures belong to the Xue Jue Family. I'm afraid you won't be able to take it away so easily."

As he spoke, Wargod Bloodximus released a terrifying aura. He locked onto Moon Goddess with terrifying killing intent. His divine force shook the space.

Sensing his killing intent, the gods, including Yanshen, couldn't help but feel their hearts palpitate.

There was a saying, "people have names, and trees have shadows."

Wargod Bloodximus's power shook the heavens. Even gods feared him.

"No one can keep what I'm taking. If Zhang Ruochen hadn't made his choice, I would've taken him too."

Moon Goddess knew that the Wargod Bloodximus was very powerful, but she didn't care at all. Her immortal body emitted cold divine light, reflecting a bright moon in the dim starry sky.

Then, Moon Goddess took out the Kaiyuan Deer Cauldron and held it in her hand. She activated it with divine force.

Yanshen's pupils constricted after he saw the Kaiyuan Deer Cauldron. He had been suppressed by the cauldron last time and had almost been refined.

"Xue Jue, do you wish to die? I shall be your opponent!"

At this moment, an angry shout sounded.

In the distant starry sky, outside of Celestial Court, a vast and mighty Celestial River was surging endlessly.

Wargod Bian Zhuang stood on the Celestial River and faced Wargod Bloodximus from afar. Wargod Bloodximus and Wargod Bian Zhuang were separated by an infinite distance, but it was just right in front of each other.

Although his true vessel did not move, the Heavenly Mugwort Bell flew through the air and hovered in the starry sky where Moon Goddess and the Wargod Bloodximus were. It let out a deafening chime.

It was the duty of the Wargod Bian Zhuang to guard the Celestial River. He could not leave his post without permission.

However, Wargod Bian Zhuang had been paying attention to the Moon Goddess's movements. He did not allow anyone to pose a threat to the Moon Goddess.

"He is a meddlesome fellow," Moon Goddess said softly.

Wargod Bloodximius said, "Bian Zhuang, don't be too arrogant. It's not like the Nine Great Wargods of the Celestial Palace has never died before. You might be next."

"So what if I'm arrogant? If you can't take it, then come and fight me," said Wargod Bian Zhuang with his head held high.

As he spoke, Wargod Bian Zhuang released a powerful battle intent. The Celestial River surged, and a majestic divine force was transmitted through the air.

The Heavenly Mugwort Bell vibrated and expanded rapidly. It was like a world, emitting an incomparably resplendent golden light.

A terrifying divine might be emitted from the Heavenly Mugwort Bell, sealing the entire starry sky.

Wargod Bloodximius summoned a blood-red halberd. The cloak on his back fluttered, and the battle intent on him rose steadily. The stars in the starry sky trembled.

Even though his opponent was the leader of the Nine Great Wargods of the Celestial Palace, Wargod Bloodximius was not afraid to fight him. On the contrary, he was looking forward to it. If they defeated the leader of the Nine Great Wargods of the Celestial Palace, it would be a huge blow to the entire Celestial Court.

Blood Empress protected Zhang Ruochen and the others behind her. She took out the Blood Mirror and was ready to attack.

The gods of the Celestial Court and the Infernal Court were also on alert. A divine war was about to break out.

Zhang Ruochen frowned slightly. He turned to Blood Empress and said, "Forget it, mother. I will take back what belongs to me personally from now on. We have more important things to do. We can't delay here."

Hearing this, Blood Empress understood what he meant. Nothing was more important than saving Chi Kongyue.

She had to go to the Ashuran planet as soon as possible to stop Asurendra Samay from possessing Chi Kongyue.

"Uncle, it's time to go. Don't forget what you promised me," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Ming put away the Stellar Sword and said, "Well, it's more important over there."

Naturally, he wouldn't shirk what he had promised.

Immediately, Blood Empress and Zhang Ruochen turned into a streak of blood light and traveled through the starry sky at an unimaginable speed. Lord Ming followed closely behind.

"Huh?"

The Gods of the Infernal Court were all surprised by the Blood Empress and Lord Ming's actions.

Wargod Bloodximius's eyes revealed a thoughtful look. He used his spiritual sense to predict the future. Soon, he had an answer. His brows furrowed.

...

Chapter 2216: Kill Wan Xin

At the edge of the Milky Way of Styx, near Tianchu Civilization was an enormous Macroworld called Ashuran Planet. It was the main base of the Asuras.

Ashuran Planet had existed for thousands of years. Cultivators who wanted to walk the Ashuran path, regardless of their races and origins, could move to this Macroworld to the members of the Asuras.

The Asuras were never a specific type of race or species. Even a cultivator from a different clan in Infernal Court could transform into Asura.

In Ashuran Planet, there was a water region called Sea of Time. It was a terrifying forbidden land that even deities did not dare to casually step into.

In Sea of Time, there were countless Marks of Time in the form of light spots dancing in the air. They looked beautiful, but they were actually dangerous. They could turn a Saint into withered bones in an instant.

At the center of Sea of Time, there was an incomparably tall and majestic mountain of bones. It was formed from the bones of hundreds of millions of lifeforms. There were even bones of deities there.

At the top of the mountain of bones, there were five gigantic skulls of deities. Each one of them was comparable to a star. They jointly supported a majestic dark red building of a fane. There were mottled bloodstains all over the building. It was as though the building had been soaked in a large amount of divine blood. It was a terrifying sight to behold.

This was the residence of Asurendra Samay, which has already existed for long years, and no one had ever dared to trespass it.

After the war of Gods ended, Asurendra Samay returned to 'Sea of Time' region.

At this moment, Asurendra Samay was sitting on a skeletal chair covered in divine inscriptions. This skeletal chair had a great origin, it was forged from the bones of a deity.

At a certain moment, a ball of illuminating divine light was separated from Asurendra Samay's soul. It was enveloped by divine force and could not dissipate.

Asurendra Samay opened its eyes. Its eyes narrowed as he stared at the divine light.

During its battle with Moon Goddess, Asurendra Samay had suffered an enormous loss. During its repeated clashes with Kaiyuan Deer Cauldron, strands of illuminating divine light invaded its divine soul. It seemed dim, but it was difficult to destroy.

The illuminating divine light was terrifying, especially against the divine soul.

Even for someone as strong as Asurendra Samay, its soul showed signs of being dissolved.

"That cauldron can dissolve divine soul for refinement. It is very similar to the legendary divine cauldron. However, that divine cauldron has already disappeared for many eras. How could it suddenly appear in the hands of Moon Goddess?" Asurendra Samay thought.

It now hoped he could obtain a vessel and source as soon as possible. Or else, its existence as a divine soul, would face many limitations.

Immediately, Asurendra Samay started to predict the future using its divine spirit.

"He failed to bring Zhang Ruochen's body back? Hmm, Chi Kongyue does at least meet the basic requirements," Asurendra Samay uttered softly to itself.

He desperately needed a body and divine source. Only then could he have hope of surviving the upcoming Yuanhui Tribulation. If he could not get the best, he could settle for the second best.

Not long after, Wan Xin rushed back to Sea of Time.

"Greetings, master. Things did not go as expected. I failed to bring Zhang Ruochen back. Please punish me, Master." Wan Xin knelt on the ground, feeling uneasy.

After all, Asurendra Samay was determined to get Zhang Ruochen's body. For this reason, it even gave Yan Wushen Yin-Yang Equinox Flower.

Asurendra Samay said indifferently, "I already know what happened in Kunlun. You did a good job bringing Chi Kongyue back. Get Up."

Wan Xin could not help but sigh in relief. He was really afraid that Asurendra Samay would get angry.

At the same time, he was secretly glad that he had made a wise decision at the last moment.

Wan Xin stood up and waved his hand, releasing Chi Kongyue, who had been subdued.

Asurendra Samay stood up and walked over to her, carefully sizing up Chi Kongyue.

In terms of cultivation and strength, Chi Kongyue was incomparable to Zhang Ruochen. However, she was born with Five-element Chaotic Body, and there was deity blood ran in her veins. In addition, she was also the Master of Time. In fact, she was more compatible with Asurendra Samay, and her body was easier to be transformed into a divine vessel.

Asurendra Samay estimated that Chi Kongyue's divine bloodline would allow it to take three hundred years at most to successfully transform the body. When the time came, it could regain its prime.

Asurendra Samay was a deity cultivating the Path of Time. It could set up a Time Array skillfully to greatly shorten the time needed for recovery.

Chi Kongyue's heart could not help but tremble when she saw Asurendra Samay.

In the end, she was only a Four-Step Saint King. The difference in strength between her and Asurendra Samay was too great. The feeling of reverence came from the depths of her soul.

After sizing up Chi Kongyue for a moment, Asurendra Samay tols Wan Xin, “You can leave first.”

“Yes, Master.”

Wan Xin bowed and left.

He knew that Asurendra Samay was going to possess Chi Kongyue’s body.

When Asurendra Samay came out of seclusion, it would return to its prime. By then, their position in the Asuras would also rise.

Thinking of this, Wan Xin could not help but feel very excited. As the only personal disciple of Asurendra Samay, he would definitely receive unimaginable benefits.

“Although your body isn’t as perfect as Zhang Ruochen’s, it’s still pretty good. Be a good girl and become one with me,” Asurendra Samay said.

Chi Kongyue was originally scared, but now she felt relieved.

Her sacrifice was worth it for Zhang Ruochen to be safe and sound.

Asurendra Samay released divine light that spread toward Chi Kongyue. It enveloped her and carried out the initial integration.

Swoosh!

On Chi Kongyue’s neck, Jade Swallow Pendant in between the five Buddhist beads suddenly moved. A large number of tiny blood-colored inscriptions appeared on its surface. It flapped its wings and flew like a living bird.

An ancient and enormous aura erupted from the pendant. It was as if an ancient god had been revived and forcefully scattered all the divine light.

After that, a terrifying divine force was released from Jade Swallow Pendant. A faint towering figure then appeared.

Asurendra Samay’s expression changed. It hurriedly formed a hand seal and condensed its divine force of Time to block the attack.

BANG!

The divine force released by Jade Swallow Pendant was too terrifying. Even when Asurendra Samay tried to block it, he wasn't able to block it completely. The attack forced him back a dozen of steps.

Asurendra Sama stabilized its posture, its eyes brightened. It stared at Jade Swallow Pendant floating in front of Chi Kongyue.

With its cultivation, how could a power from a jade pendant force him back a dozen of steps?

How could this happen?

Chi Kongyue was also surprised. Although she had worn Jade Swallow Pendant since she was young, she did not know much about it. Zhang Ruochen had only taught her how to use it, he did not tell her about the origin of Jade Swallow Pendant.

When Zhang Ruochen and Chi Yao were in love, Chi Yao gave Zhang Ruochen a Sword of Creation, Ancient Abyssal Blade.

Zhang Ruochen gave her the ancestral treasure of the Zhang family, Jade Swallow Pendant.

Then, Asurendra Samay looked thoughtful and said, "I seem to have felt this power a long time ago."

Asurendra Samay was a very special existence. Its true form was a Divine Jade of Time. Before it gained sentience and embarked on the path of cultivation, it had already existed for very long period of time.

Just like Ji Fanxin whose true form was a Lotus of Divine Reflection that survived since Age of Hadean.

During that ancient era, Asurendra Samay had had some consciousness. It was able to sense everything in the world. This could be considered as laying a foundation for his future cultivation.

At least a dozen Yuanhui periods ago, Asurendra Samay had once felt the same aura in a desolate starry sky.

Until now, there was still a blurry image imprinted in Asurendra Samay's divine soul.

An incomparably majestic figure stood in the starry sky. Above his head, there were twenty-seven layers of heavens. An incomparably huge divine cauldron floated around him, dissolving the starry skies and the deities for refinement.

Even though Asurendra Samay had long become a prominent figure among the deities, every time it thought of that scene, its heart would still tremble uncontrollably.

"Is this the artifact left behind by that person?" Asurendra Samay thought.

After such a long period of time, he believed that that unrivalled deity should already be long gone.

Time was the most ruthless. Even if one was mighty and unrivalled, there would still be a day where one would die. There had never been a legend who did not die.

Swoosh!

Just as Asurendra Samay was about to probe the pendant once more, it suddenly retracted its divine light. After that, it melted into a drop of liquid that fused into Chi Kongyue's forehead.

Everything happened too quickly. It was too late for Asurendra Samay wanted to stop it,.

In the next instant, the mark of a flying swallow appeared on Chi Kongyue's forehead.

"Eh?"

A strange look appeared in the eyes of Asurendra Samay. It originally wanted to study Jade Swallow Pendant, but it did not expect such a change to occur.

Asurendra Samay released its divine spirit to probe into Chi Kongyue's forehead.

However, it did not discover anything after a long time. The swallow mark on Chi Kongyue's forehead seemed to be just an ordinary mark. There was nothing special about it.

“Could it be that it is out of power?” Asurendra Samay made a guess.

Since Asurendra Samay could not find anything strange, it released his divine light again and continued to merge with Chi Kongyue.

Asurendra Samay was very confident that Jade Swallow Pendant would not be able to stop it even if the pendant was related that deity.

It was just an object left behind by that unrivalled deity instead of the true body of that deity. Moreover, even if that deity was still alive, with its current cultivation rank, it wasn't afraid of him.

There were very few existences among the myriad of Macroworlds of Celestial Court and ten clans of Infernal Court that Asurendra Samay feared.

Not long after, Asurendra Samay completed its initial fusion with Chi Kongyue's body. There was no abnormality during the process.

Finally, Asurendra Samay's soul entered Chi Kongyue's body and truly began to possess her.

As an ancient god, Asurendra Samay could possess a weak Four-Step Saint King easily.

...

Under the lead of Blood Empress and Lord Ming, Zhang Ruochen arrived at Milky Way of Styx where Infernal Court was located in a very short time.

The feeling of seeing Milky Way of Styx up close was completely different from other times.

Infernal Court did not set up any defenses. It seemed that anyone could enter.

However, if there really were living beings from Celestial Court who dared to intrude Infernal Court's territory, they would probably die without a burial place.

Zhang Ruochen could feel that Milky Way of Styx was expanding and was full of aggression.

The sight reminded Zhang Ruochen of Death's Door, where he could see Milky Way of Styx from there too.

Did It mean that if it wasn't for Death's Door, Milky Way of Styx would have extended to the starry sky where Kunlun was located?

Once Milky Way of Styx got near a Macroworld, the Macroworld would undoubtedly be more vulnerable to the invasion of Infernal Court.

Without stopping, Zhang Ruochen, Blood Empress, and Lord Ming entered Milky Way of Styx and landed on Ashuran Planet.

Without Asurendra Samay's control, Sea of Time was still very dangerous, but it could not stop Blood Empress and Lord Ming.

After passing through Sea of Time, the trio appeared on the mountain of bones.

“Which insolent bast*ard trespass Fane of Samay?”

Some elites from Fane of Samay became wary instantly.

Swoosh—

Figures flashed out from Fane of Samay and appeared on the square.

Although Asurendra Samay liked peace and quiet, there were still some Asura cultivators in Fane of Samay. There weren't many of them, but they were all Saints.

At this moment, dozens of cultivators flashed out, including the five Supreme Saints. They were all on guard.

They had to come to counter the trio. After all, Blood Empress and Lord Ming both exuded a powerful and reverent divine aura.

If Fane of Samay did not release a divine light to resist most of the divine aura, other than the five Supreme Saints, everyone else would have knelt on the ground.

“Greetings. May I know what bring two Truegods here?” a Supreme Saint bowed and asked.

In the face of a TrueGod, even a Supreme Saint had to remain humble.

Lord Ming said indifferently, “You are just a Supreme Saint. Get out of my way and ask Asurendra Samay to come out.”

The Supreme Saint’s expression changed as soon as he heard Lord Ming’s words.

It was obvious that this Truegod had come with ill intentions.

At this moment, another figure walked out of the Fane building. It was Wan Xin, the one who had abducted Chi Kongyue.

Unlike the other Asuran cultivators, Wan Xin could not get his eyes off Zhang Ruochen from the beginning as soon as he saw him. His eyes were filled with disbelief.

“Impossible. How did he come here?”

He had seen Zhang Ruochen die in front of the Dimensional Rift with his own eyes. Zhang Ruochen’s body had almost turned into a skeleton. How could Zhang Ruochen still be alive?

Moreover, even if Zhang Ruochen had survived under those circumstances, how did he come to Infernal Court? How did he land on Ashuran Planet?

Wan Xin could not help but feel uneasy.

Zhang Ruochen also saw Wan Xin, and his eyes became icy cold.

Even though he had regained his rationality and calmness, he still could not control his killing intent toward Wan Xin.

Zhang Ruochen sensed Chi Kongyue’s aura. He was certain that she was inside the Fane building.

“Wan Xin, as you wish, I’ve come to Infernal Court. Have you thought about the way you want to die?” Zhang Ruochen said coldly as he walked forward.

Hearing this, Wan Xin could not help but take a step back.

He could feel that not only had Zhang Ruochen come back to life, but he had also become an Immortal Vampire who had attained Supreme Sainthood.

Looking at the two Immortal Vampire deities behind Zhang Ruochen, it wasn't hard to guess that this had something to do with the Immortal Vampires.

But why would the Immortal Vampires do this?

Wan Xin could tell from the aura Zhang Ruochen exuded that Zhang Ruochen wasn't just an ordinary Neverwithir Supreme Saint. His power had increased many times over.

He did not know what had happened to Zhang Ruochen. But apparently, this was a bad news for him.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen approaching, Wan Xin could not keep calm anymore. He stepped back into the Fane building.

"This is Fane of Samay. No one is allowed to enter."

A silver-haired Supreme Saint appeared and blocked Zhang Ruochen's way.

Even though two Immortal Vampires had come with Zhang Ruochen, this was Asurendra Samay's territory. No one had dared to act atrociously in the past few Yuanhui periods, and the deities were no exception.

BANG!

Zhang Ruochen stomped his foot and released an extremely powerful divine power, causing the entire white mountain to tremble.

The white mountain was engraved with a large number of divine patterns. It was extremely sturdy and difficult to destroy.

"Anyone who stands in my way will die," Zhang Ruochen said.

Sensing Zhang Ruochen's killing intent and pressure, all Asuran cultivators were trembled. The weaker Saint Kings almost fell to the ground.

Only the five Supreme Saints were still calm.

If they got scared and allowed Zhang Ruochen to barge into the Fane building, they would definitely become a laughing stock.

Wan Xin had seen Zhang Ruochen's killing spree outside Kunlun's Central Imperial City and knew what kind of person Zhang Ruochen was. Immediately, Wan Xin rushed into the depths of the Fane building as fast as he could, wanting to seek help from Asurendra Samay.

It wasn't just Zhang Ruochen. There were two Immortal Vampire deities with him. Only Asurendra Samay could deal with them.

Even though Asurendra Samay was in the process of possessing a vessel and did not want anybody to disturb it, he could not care too much now.

Seeing that Wan Xin wanted to escape, Zhang Ruochen immediately made his move and rushed over.

"Stop your impudence!"

The silver-haired Supreme Saint shouted. His five fingers grabbed a 12-foot-long silver blood-patterned spear that appeared out of thin air.

As the silver-haired Supreme Saint waved the silver blood-patterned spear, the Precepts of heaven and earth and the surrounding energy force within myriad miles of radius were activated. They revolved according to his will.

An extremely terrifying Saint Will of spearmanship erupted. It was extremely sharp and seemed to be able to pierce through everything in heaven and earth.

The silver blood-patterned spear vibrated. The spear moved like a dragon in an unpredictable trajectory. Countless shadows of spear appeared at the same time. Each spear shadow was infused with many different types of Precepts, and the number of each Precept was a few millions.

Zhang Ruochen did not dodge. His eyes were cold. He grabbed back and released the powerful power of the demigod body without any hesitation.

The white mountain was extremely sturdy. It could withstand his power. He did not have to worry about crushing the ground or accidentally using too much force.

Crack!

All the spear shadows shattered and disappeared.

When the silver-haired Supreme Saint regained his senses, he found that Zhang Ruochen was holding the tip of the silver blood-patterned spear.

‘Zhang Ruochen caught it with his bare hands?’

“Break free!”

The silver-haired Supreme Saint roared and 17 beams of Saint light burst out from his body. They were the 17 shackles that he had broken free. Each shackle contained terrifying power.

The silver blood-patterned spear shook violently and burst out an extremely sharp beam. The Saint will of spearmanship was completely condensed in it.

Zhang Ruochen’s demigod physique was strong enough to fight head-on with a Supreme Artifact. Hence, the spear could not cut him.

However, the power contained in the beam was so strong that it shook Zhang Ruochen’s palm until it went numb.

Taking this opportunity, the silver-haired Supreme Saint pulled out the silver blood-patterned spear and used an even powerful spear technique.

‘No matter how extraordinary Zhang Ruochen is, he is only a Neverwithers Supreme Saint. My cultivation has already entered Hundred-Shackle Realm, and I hold a powerful Saint Will. There’s no way I can’t defeat Zhang Ruochen.’

“Rise the demon dragon!”

The silver-haired Supreme Saint suddenly thrust out the silver blood-patterned spear.

Hundreds of millions of Precepts were injected into it.

At the same time, countless Precepts of heaven and earth gathered on the tip of the spear.

The vast power of heaven and earth interweaved into an illusory demon dragon that was as long as the spear. It was lifelike, looking ferocious. It furiously pounced at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen moved forward without fear in his eyes.

A streak of demonic red light appeared on his palm. The meridian points on his arm unleashed massive blood-colored divine energy.

This divine power was so powerful that the surrounding space was distorted.

At the same time, the surrounding Precepts and energy force were also affected and became chaotic.

A demigod physique was certainly highly compatible with the Precepts and energy force of heaven and earth.

If Zhang Ruochen could perfectly control the power of this body, almost all the Precepts and energy force of Heaven and earth within a radius of 100,000 miles could be mobilized by him. Contrary, it would mean that his opponent would have hard time mobilizing more Precepts and energy force of Heaven and earth.

A huge blood-red palm seal was condensed. It struck down at the demon dragon.

BOOM!

The huge demon dragon exploded in an instant.

Zhang Ruochen moved forward and grabbed the body of the spear, approaching the silver-haired Supreme Saint.

A powerful divine power was released from Zhang Ruochen's fist. It turned into a cloud of fire, charging at the silver-haired Supreme Saint.

With his silver spear being caught by Zhang Ruochen, the silver-haired Supreme Saint could not dodge the attack a close distance. He had to mobilize all the power of his Neverwither physique and shoot a palm strike with all his might.

The majestic Asuran murderous aura gathered and transformed into a giant millstone that met Zhang Ruochen's fist.

BOOM!

The cloud of fire incinerated everything. The millstone immediately exploded and turned into dust.

Then, Zhang Ruochen's fist hit the silver-haired Supreme Saint's chest.

CRACK!

The armor the silver-haired Supreme Saint wore shattered into pieces and flew in all directions.

The silver-haired Supreme Saint was sent flying and crashed heavily into the Fane building.

Ptui!

The silver-haired Supreme Saint spat out a mouthful of blood. He felt a burning pain in his chest, and his internal organs were all injured.

Seeing that the silver-haired Supreme Saint was injured, another Supreme Saint with a single horn on his head immediately attacked and shouted, "Taste my weapon!"

A platinum pagoda flew out from the single-horned Supreme Saint's body. It was only a foot tall and there were many Asuran inscriptions on its surface. It was an Asuran weapon and was not inferior to a regal weapon.

Under the control of the single-horned Supreme Saint, the pagoda was instantly revived. The Asuran killing intent within it was released without reservation.

Bang!

The pagoda hit Zhang Ruochen's back.

Zhang Ruochen's body shook. His shoulders felt intense pain, but that was all. They weren't wounded.

Of course, if the one who got hit were other Supreme Saint of Neverwilt Realm or Hundred-Shackle Realm, their spine would have been broken by this sudden attack.

“He is only a Neverwithier Supreme Saint. How can his Neverwithier physique be so powerful?” The single-horned Supreme Saint was shocked.

He knew very well how powerful his attack was. If he himself had gotten hit, he would have been seriously injured.

Zhang Ruochen turned and kicked.

Violent divine power of Fire surged out crazily, causing the temperature of the region to rise.

The single-horned Supreme Saint’s expression changed slightly. He immediately summoned the pagoda again.

Hundreds of millions of Precepts surged out of the single-horned Supreme Saint’s body and poured into the pagoda. All Asuran inscriptions inside the pagoda appeared clearly.

The pagoda grew rapidly and instantly became three thousand feet tall. Its power faintly combined with the white mountain.

For a moment, the white mountain trembled slightly. It released rays of divine light and poured into the pagoda.

BOOM!

The pagoda shook, and the Divine Power of fire released by Zhang Ruochen dissipated.

Then, the pagoda spun and pressed down on Zhang Ruochen.

The surrounding Precepts and Saint Qi were triggered and drilled into the pagoda crazily. The pagoda became bigger and bigger, emitting a destructive qi dynamic.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes become grim. All 144 meridian points in his body released bright Saint light at the same time. The power contained in it was released without reservation at this moment.

He punched upward.

RAWWWRR!

The unparalleled energy force condensed into an illusory giant blood-red dragon. It rose into the sky like a trapped dragon soaring into the sky. It was unstoppable.

BANG!!!

The giant blood-red dragon held the pagoda, stopping it from pressing down on Zhang Ruochen.

Then, the giant blood-red dragon unleashed its power and devoured all the surrounding Precepts and the energy force of heaven and earth that gathered.

The pagoda was unable to suppress the giant blood-red dragon. It was sent flying in an instant.

Crack!

The pagoda cracked, and clear rifts appeared on its surface.

The single-horned Supreme Saint grunted. Blood trickled out of the corner of his mouth. He could not help but step back.

It was true that Zhang Ruochen could not control the strength of his demigod physique well. However, that did not stop him from crushing the Supreme Saints who had reached Neverwilt Realm and initial stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Seeing this, the remaining Asuran cultivators were all terrified. They all stepped back. No one dared to come forward.

Zhang Ruochen could not be bothered with them. He charged into the Fane building and chased after Wan Xin.

The only person he really wanted to kill was Wan Xin.

Wan Xin thought that the five Supreme Saints of the Fane could stop Zhang Ruochen for a moment. Unexpectedly, two of them were injured in the blink of an eye. They could not stop him at all.

Sensing that Zhang Ruochen was getting closer and closer to him, Wan Xin panicked.

As Wan Xin approached the Fane building where Asurendra Samay was in seclusion, Zhang Ruochen blocked his way.

Wan Xin was terrified but pretended to be calm and said, “Zhang Ruochen, you’d better not act recklessly. Chi Kongyue’s body has been possessed by my Master. No matter what you do, you can’t change it.”

“Leave now. Otherwise, you’ll only end up dead when my master is alarmed. Not even the Immortal Vampire deities can keep you alive.”

At this point, Wan Xin could only mention the name of Asurendra Samay. He hoped that he could at least intimidate Zhang Ruochen. Only then would he have a way to live.

His combat strength was not powerful enough to counter Zhang Ruochen who was currently furious and violent. Even if there were ten of him, he would not be a match for Zhang Ruochen.

It would have been better if he did not say this. After saying this, Zhang Ruochen could no longer suppress the killing intent in his heart. He reached out a hand, grabbed Wan Xin’s neck, and lifted him up.

“You deserve death for your sin!”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were red as he said pronounced every single word.

At this moment, Wan Xin felt death approaching. He could not help but shout, “Master, save—”

Unfortunately, before he could finish, his neck was crushed by Zhang Ruochen. A terrifying power entered his body and destroyed all his life force and Saint Soul in an instant.

Back then, before the Dimensional Rift, he had provoked Zhang Ruochen to come to Infernal Court to kill him. He had not expected that his words would come true.

Chapter 2217: Sundial's Revival

Zhang Ruochen was not happy at all after killing Wan Xin. Instead, he was nervous, afraid that Wan Xin's last words would be true.

SNAP!

Zhang Ruochen threw Wan Xin's body on the ground and looked at the tightly shut door of the Fane building in front of him.

He had already sensed Chi Kongyue's presence in the Fane building before him.

With Demigod-level eyes, Zhang Ruochen could vaguely see that there were divine inscriptions on the door. They would be activated once he touched them. Obviously, he could not just barge in.

“Kongyue...”

Zhang Ruochen did not care much. He used all energy in his body and focused it on his fist and hit the door of the Fane building.

A majestic power burst out. His fist was covered with a layer of red demonic light. It transformed into the shape that looked like a ferocious dragon or snake.

BANG!!!

Before Zhang Ruochen's fist touched the door, dense divine inscriptions emerged.

An extremely terrifying power surged and passed to Zhang Ruochen.

Before he could react, his powerful Demigod-level body bulged. His joints collided and crackled. It was as if he had been hit by a star, the impact sent him flying backward.

BOOM!

Zhang Ruochen flew out of white mountain and fell into Sea of Time. His fall triggered a hundred-mile-long wave.

“How dare you!”

A deity’s voice that spread through heaven and earth came. In front of the door of the mighty Fane building, a large amount of divine spirit fragments gathered. They intertwined and formed a graceful figure. The deity’s beauty was breathtaking.

It was the shadow of Asurendra Samay.

The commotion outside the Fane building was too big. Asurendra Samay was alarmed and formed an avatar with its spirit.

Its avatar glared at Zhang Ruochen, who was standing on Sea of Time. With just a glance, a powerful force sent Zhang Ruochen flying backwards 70 miles away. His body hit an island.

The island was shattered.

The moment Asurendra Samay saw Wan Xin’s corpse, its eyes turned cold. It said angrily, “The gods of the Immortal Vampires, how dare you allow your Supreme Saint to raise a ruckus in my Fane? You even killed my disciple and disturbed my self-cultivation. You should be punished for this!”

Killing his disciple in his Fane was a provocation.

This had never happened since it established its territory at Sea of Time. If this news spread, it would become a laughing stock.

It would demand for explanation even if the two Immortal Vampire deities before it were ancient gods, let alone two young gods.

Just now, Blood Empress had used her divine power to dissolve the power that Asurendra Samay had used on Zhang Ruochen. Otherwise, Zhang Ruochen wouldn’t have just been sent flying 100 or 200 miles away. His Demigod-level body would have been reduced to ashes.

The divine light on Blood Empress shone brightly. Her tone was calm, “Asurendra Samay,” she said. “We came to Sea of Time this time for the girl that your disciple abducted. “She is someone closely related to me. Return her to me. I can promise you that I will do everything in my power to find a vessel for you.”

Asurendra Samay was a notorious ancient Asuran god. It had a great reputation. Blood Empress thought it would be best if they could solve the problem peacefully.

Previously, Blood Empress did not stop Zhang Ruochen from killing Wan Xin because she knew the hatred within Zhang Ruochen. If he did not kill Wan Xin, it would become an obstacle for him to attain a perfect mind.

Wan Xin was just a Saint King. How important was it to Asurendra Samay?

Blood Empress said Chi Kongyue was closely related to her instead of Kongyue being her grand daughter because they did not share a blood tie.

In other words, Chi Kongyue was only Zhang Ruochen’s daughter, not Blood Empress’ granddaughter.

Asurendra Samay sneered. “You’ve been a deity for less than 1,000 years, haven’t you? Aren’t you too ignorant? Haven’t you heard of Asurendra Samay’s name before? You are just a young god. You intruded my territory, killed my disciple, and injured my followers, and yet you dare to bargain with me.

“Fine. Give Me Zhang Ruochen’s body, and I’ll let that girl go.”

Blood Empress’ eyes darkened. Hundreds of millions of Precepts surged in her eyes, “I’ll find you a vessel, but it is not up to you to decide whom. Also, I advise you to give up on Zhang Ruochen. Otherwise, you will face heavy consequences.”

At this moment, Blood Empress’ eyes seemed to have turned into two stars. The light they emitted made the Supreme Saints and Saint Kings unable to open their eyes.

Asurendra Samay’s avatar expanded a hundred times in an instant, its divine might shook the heavens. “I can possess anyone that I like. It’s not up to you, a young Immortal Vampire god, to decide.

“Let me tell you the truth. The girl is dead. Her body has already fused with mine. You’re too late.”

“Zhang Ruochen killed my disciple. He must pay with his life.”

“As for you, get out of Sea of Time before I get angry. Otherwise, I will suppress you at the bottom of Sea of Time for 10,000 years.”

From the beginning to the end, Asurendra Samay did not care about Blood Empress and Lord Ming.

If it was 100,000 years ago, before his body was broken, Asurendra Samay would not have talked so much nonsense with them. It would have suppressed the two deities long ago. If the ruler of the Immortal Vampires did not apologize in person, he would not let them off easily.

As soon as Lord Ming heard this, a cold light flashed in his eyes. He snorted, “Asurendra Samay, I’ve heard your name since I was young. I know that you’re very powerful and have lived for countless years. You’re the famous overlord among the Asuras.

“However, you’re already crippled. Now, you as a mere avatar, still dare to be so brazen. Do you really think that the Immortal Vampire’ gods would afraid of You?

“Other gods might be, but definitely not the Immortal Vampire gods.”

With that, Lord Ming summoned Stellar Sword with a spell. He grabbed the hilt with both hands, and his aura rose steadily. It became more and more fierce, as if Ancestral Swordmaster had returned to the world.

A powerful sword intent burst out from Lord Ming’s body and combined with Stellar Sword.

Lord Ming had inherited Ancestral Swordmaster’s sword intent. Although he had never studied Wordless Sword Manual, his comprehension of Wordless Sword Manual was rare.

Especially when Lord Ming had obtained the sword dao profound left behind by Ancestral Swordmaster, he could already be called the sword God.

At this moment, Lord Ming released the fifteen layers of sword intent he had comprehended from Stellar Sword without holding back. With the help of the sword dao profound, he slashed out with an incomparably fierce and overbearing sword.

“Senior Asurendra Samay, please appraise it. How is this Junior’s Sword?”

Yama king never had a good temper. Since he dared to say the word ‘scram’ to him, no matter who the other party was or how strong his cultivation base was, he would still dare to use his sword.

“Hua LA.”

A beam of sword light that could connect the heavens and earth slashed out, causing the skies above Sea of Timeto change color. The sky was directly sliced apart.

If this was in the starry space, it was unknown how many stars would be shattered by this sword strike.

Suddenly, a dark divine light rose from the Divine Hall. Countless divine inscriptions appeared and overlapped, forming a web.

These divine inscriptions were personally carved by Asurendra Samay. They were extremely tough and could not be destroyed easily.

Even so, the sword light from Yama cut through tens of millions of divine inscriptions and almost arrived in front of Asurendra Samay’s divine avatar.

Outside the Divine Hall, it turned into a sea of fire.

The Flames released by Stellar Sword were extremely blazing, burning everything and making it difficult to extinguish.

HISS

The group of Saint Realm cultivators who had retreated to the side could not help but suck in a breath of cold air. They could not keep standing and knelt on the ground.

They had never thought that the immortal blood clan's God would actually dare to attack the Divine Hall and Asurendra Samay here.

Without a doubt, the situation had become very serious. It would be very difficult for them to calm down.

Heavenly Asurendra Samay's face was as cold as ice. He said coldly, "Your sword can't even break the Divine Hall's defense. However, the moment you attack, it's already a capital offense."

Because he was trying to possess Chi Kongyue, Heavenly Asurendra Samay had originally planned to let Blood Empress and Yama off the hook. However, he did not expect Yama to attack him.

This was truly outrageous.

BANG!!!

The tightly shut palace door opened and a beautiful figure walked out.

She looked to be around fifteen or sixteen years old and was extremely beautiful. Every inch of her skin was emitting a divine light, making her seem extremely sacred.

She was none other than Chi Kongyue.

Right now, perhaps she should be called Asurendra Samay.

Blood Empress' eyes narrowed. They were indeed a step too late. She did not expect that the possession of Asurendra Samay would be so urgent.

At this moment, the avatar of Asurendra Samay dissipated as his divine sense returned to his original body.

"Ever since I became a deity, no one has ever dared to bully me like this. Today, I shall use your divine blood to forge this divine body." Chi Kongyue's killing intent surged as his voice echoed throughout Sea of Time.

As he spoke, Chi Kongyue extended his hand and pointed to the sky. Instantly, his star Soul Divine Throne appeared in the sky. It was formed from 27 divine thrones. Each of the divine thrones was extremely bright and contained boundless divine power.

Under Chi Kongyue's control, the 27 divine thrones released a beam of light from each of them. They flew over from outer space and attacked Blood Empress and Lord Ming.

The beam of light looked beautiful, but it contained destructive power. Wherever it passed, space and time became distorted.

Blood Empress raised her head, and 24 beams of blood-colored divine light flew out from her glabella, turning into 24 huge divine steles, arranged in a special formation.

The 24 divine steles were solid, emitting immortal divine light. It was unknown what material they were made of.

At the same time, Lord Ming entered the state of being one with the sword, combining his essence, energy, and spirit with Stellar Sword.

Endless Divine Flames surged out of Stellar Sword, sweeping toward the sky with the momentum of a prairie fire.

Stellar Sword seemed to have turned into a blazing star. At this moment, it exploded in full force, releasing all the power it contained, as if it wanted to destroy a large part of the starry sky.

Boom

The terrifying divine power collided, causing Blood Empress and Lord Ming to retreat involuntarily.

However, the beams of light that came from beyond the heavens also disappeared one after another. They weren't able to truly strike Lord Ming and Blood Empress.

Seeing this result, Chi Kongyue's eyes could not help but squint slightly.

He had originally wanted to cripple Blood Empress and Lord Ming's battle strength with one strike and suppress them. He did not expect that he would only be able to push them back.

The two new deities had such powerful combat strength, which was beyond Asurendra Samay's expectation.

Chi Kongyue looked at the 24 divine steles that Blood Empress had taken out, and his eyes showed that he was thinking about something.

"You turned the Divine Throne Planet into a war weapon. You are following the path of the strange man of the demonic path in Kunlun, and you have even stepped into the god realm. You have some ability," Chi Kongyue said.

He had lived long enough and had extraordinary knowledge, which was far from what ordinary people could compare to.

Few people knew that the 36 "Heavenly demon stone carvings" in Kunlun were refined by the strange man of the demonic path from his own Divine Planet.

Doing so was extremely dangerous. Even if one mastered the corresponding secret method, it would be difficult to succeed.

At least, after the strange man of the demonic path, it seemed that no one had succeeded.

Blood Empress had obviously received the true inheritance of the demon path expert and thus embarked on this special path.

Chi Kongyue's eyes shone with a strange light as he looked at Blood Empress and Lord Ming. One received the inheritance of the demon path expert, while the other received the inheritance of Ancestral Swordmaster. It was very inconceivable.

After all, the Immortal Vampires were one of the ten races of Hell and were the mortal enemies of Kunlun. How could these two legendary magnates of Kunlun let the inheritance fall into the hands of the Immortal Vampires?

The attainments of these two new deities of the Immortal Vampires before they became deities were almost on par with his.

As for how far one could go after becoming a deity, it depended on one's comprehension, potential, and opportunities. The more god-seat planets that might not be formed, the stronger one would become among the deities in the future.

BANG!!!

Chi Kongyue stomped on the ground.

The entire sea of time was instantly overturned. Countless Marks of Time flew up into the air, transforming into a time array formation.

At the same time, the astral soul divine thrones in the sky trembled as boundless divine power cascaded down, pouring into the time array formation.

Back then, Asurendra Samay expended a large amount of divine power to create Sea of Time. He did not do it for the sake of looking good. He used it as a trump card, able to be of great use at critical moments.

The main reason was that at his current stage, Asurendra Samay could not use his own power at will. If not, he wouldn't have to go through so much trouble.

The main reason was that Chi Kongyue's body was too weak. Before he completed the transformation, he simply could not withstand too much power. If he wasn't careful, he would be destroyed.

Other than that, there was another reason. There was a special power residing within Chi Kongyue's sacred soul.

In the beginning, Heavenly Asurendra Samay did not even notice it. It was only after he merged his divine soul into it that the power appeared.

That power wasn't very strong, but it had restricted Heavenly Asurendra Samay's divine soul, making it unable to control its own power.

Trapped in the time formation, Lord Ming did not panic. Instead, he smiled.

He could already tell that Asurendra Samay's condition wasn't right. Right now, he shouldn't be able to make a move. Hence, he activated the Astral Soul Divine Throne and activated the time formation.

In addition, Lord Ming could sense that battle god Xue Jue had already dared to come. Although he did not appear for the time being, he was certain that if they weren't a match for Asurendra Samay, battle god Xue Jue wouldn't stand idly by.

Moreover, he wouldn't know who was stronger or weaker until he fought him.

He had just become a deity, so he could use Asurendra Samay to test his strength and temper his divine body and divine power.

Under the power of divine power, the time formation was fully activated, giving birth to a massive amount of Marks of Time. They condensed into an extremely huge river of time, surrounding the white mountain.

Lord Ming's battle intent was high, and he attacked without any scruples.

Stellar Sword released an increasingly bright light. The terrifying high temperature spread out, as if it wanted to evaporate the river of time.

The Marks of Time's light spots quickly melted as soon as they got close.

Blood Empress activated the twenty-four divine steles and surrounded her body to protect herself. At the same time, she released a majestic Blood Qi, forming a blood phoenix that was even bigger than a star. The surface of her body was burning with blood flames.

The Blood Phoenix flapped its wings and let out a high-pitched cry. It crashed into the river of time.

At the second level of Endless Abyss, Blood Empress refined the divine soul left behind by the Blood Phoenix. This allowed her to grasp the blood Phoenix clan's wonderful divine power.

As an Immortal Vampire, she was famous for her vigorous blood qi. Practicing the Blood Phoenix divine power could be said to complement each other.

..

When Sea of Time became the battlefield of Gods, Zhang Ruochen and the Five Supreme Saints of the Asuras had already retreated far away. They were all looking into the distance.

As for the Asuran cultivators who had not reached the Supreme Sainthood, they did not have the strength to escape. They were most likely crushed into pieces by the aftermath of the battle between the deities.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were red. He was in extreme pain.

He had rushed to Infernal Court at all costs, but he was too late. He could not save Chi Kongyue.

“Asurendra Samay, you deserve to die.”

Zhang Ruochen really wanted to kill Asurendra Samay and avenge Chi Kongyue.

But he knew that even if he had Demigod-level body, as long as he got close to war of Gods zone, he would die without a burial place.

So, Zhang Ruochen could only pin his hopes on Blood Empress and Lord Ming.

However, Asurendra Samay was too powerful. His divine power was not much weaker than Moon Goddess. Blood Empress and Lord Ming were both young deities that had not even been deities for a thousand years. It would be difficult to deal with them.

“If I control the power of time, mother and Lord Ming might have a chance of winning.”

Gazing at the massive time array, Zhang Ruochen was deep in thought.

“Time...”

Zhang Ruochen muttered. His heart suddenly moved.

He flipped his hand and took out something. It was a round, rough stone. It was like a giant millstone. It gave off an ancient aura, like a primitive stone.

It was Sundial.

“Sundial is a treasure of Time. It should be able to restrain techniques of Time” Zhang Ruochen thought.

When he was in Ziwei Palace, the monks of the time Fane had used time means to restrain Sundial. Correspondingly, as long as Sundial was powerful enough, it could also restrain time means.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was thinking about how to use Sundial to deal with Asurendra Samay.

Sundial suddenly moved. The 12 time zones on the surface of Sundial shone with a dazzling light. At four o’ clock, the Dimensional Rift was formed and a door appeared, forcefully pulling Zhang Ruochen into it.

Then, Sundial flew up, emitting a thick blue light. It spun like a millstone and flew directly toward the time array.

The Time Array isolated heaven and earth, and its lockdown power was extremely strong.

However, when Sundial flew over, it did not encounter any obstruction and easily penetrated through.

Wherever Sundial passed, the light spots of time imprinted in the formation were all absorbed, and they even wanted to devour Sea of Time.

It gave people the feeling that Sundial was like a black hole of time, wanting to end the time of this world.

“Sundial.”

Chi Kongyue’s expression changed. Her eyes became deep and angry. She could not help but clench her fingers tightly.

Asurendra Samay had an extremely deep memory of Sundial. Even after a hundred thousand years, it still could not forget it.

..

At the edge of Sea of Time, on a mountain that towered into the clouds, Wargod Bloodximius stood with his hands behind his back. He looked at the white mountain from afar.

After figuring out what had happened, Wargod Bloodximius did not fight with Bian Zhuang. Instead, he followed.

Although Chi Kongyue had nothing to do with the Immortal Vampires.

However, Blood Empress, Lord Ming, and Zhang Ruochen were all members of the Xue Jue family. It was impossible for Wargod Bloodximius to stay out of it.

Seeing Sundial, Wargod Bloodximius' eyes showed a strange look, he said, "In the battle 100,000 years ago, Asurendra Samay participated in the siege against Saint Monk Xumi. However, he was injured by Saint Monk Xumi with Sundial. Even the jade of time itself was completely shattered. Its essence was absorbed by Sundial."

"For Asurendra Samay, Sundial can be said to be its nemesis."

100,000 years ago, Wargod Bloodximius also participated in the battle. He saw the deities of Hell from afar attacking Saint Monk Xumi. He also saw the process of Asurendra Samay's near death.

The battle was too fierce. Saint Monk Xumi had fallen. Sundial was also heavily damaged and almost destroyed. Although it was preserved, the weapon spirit fell into a deep sleep.

Now, it had taken the initiative to pull Zhang Ruochen into the internal space and then pounced on Asurendra Samay. It must have been an instinct. It was the continuation of the Battle of deities 100,000 years ago.

Wargod Bloodximius guessed that the weapon spirit of Sundial had sensed the aura of Asurendra Samay and showed signs of recovery. That was why the series of changes had occurred.

As a treasure of Time, Sundial was undoubtedly the best way to control time.

In its current state, once it was entangled by Sundial, it would be in great trouble.

Of course, if it could think of a way to control Sundial, it might be able to turn the situation around and take Sundial for its own use.

Now, it was time to see how far Wargod Bloodximius' son and daughter and Zhang Ruochen could drive Asurendra Samay to the corner.

“This is getting more and more interesting!”

A smile appeared on Wargod Bloodximius' face. He was looking forward to it even more.

Chapter 2218: Wargod Bloodximius Made a Move

Being pulled by the power of Sundial, Zhang Ruochen entered a special inner space.

This space was not too big. It was like a cave without an entrance, surrounded by rough stone walls.

Zhang Ruochen had obtained Sundial for a long time. He often cultivated with it, but he didn't know there was a space inside it. Let alone the possibility to enter it.

Looking around, Zhang Ruochen found that everything in this space seemed very primitive and ancient. Several rough stone tools in the corner, such as stone jars, stone knives, and stone axes. They were all only roughly shaped, and the edges weren't neat.

In the center, there was a long-extinguished fire. Many animal bones were scattered around, with most of them rotten.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but feel like he had traveled through time and entered a cave where primitive people lived.

"Sundial appeared at the beginning of human civilization. It has been passed down since ancient times. Everything here should be the most realistic portrayal of that era," Zhang Ruochen guessed.

However, he didn't understand why Sundial absorbed him into its inner space at this time?

Zhang Ruochen had sensed it carefully before. Without power, Sundial was extremely silent. There wasn't any power fluctuation inside it, and it didn't seem to have a vessel spirit.

According to Moon Goddess, if Sundial was intact, it would be in a different form. It could explode a terrifying power that would disrupt time in a Macroworld.

Logically speaking, a Time treasure like this should have a vessel spirit.

The reason why he couldn't sense it was either because its vessel spirit had left its true form, or it had fallen into a deep sleep and sealed itself.

in Middle Ages and had fallen into a slumber.

Whoosh

Just as Zhang Ruochen was at loss, the rough stone wall suddenly moved.

Countless Mark of Time light spots flew out like fireflies. The surrounding stone walls suddenly became as smooth as jade, reflecting the scene outside.

At this moment, Sundial was crazily devouring River of Time that Asurendra Samay had condensed.

Even with Stellar Soul Constellation pouring in divine force, Time Array was still greatly suppressed and showed signs of disintegrating.

With the help of Sundial, the pressure on Blood Empress and Lord Ming was greatly reduced. So, they gradually turned to attack from defending.

Through the crystalline stone wall, Zhang Ruochen's gaze was locked on Chi Kongyue. His heart was in crushing grief, and his eyes were full of pain.

"Asurendra Samay, you must die."

Zhang Ruochen's body emitted terrifying killing intent.

Immediately, Zhang Ruochen did his best to release his power. At the same time, he activated all Precepts of Time and fused them into the crystalline stone wall.

He didn't know how to activate Sundial from the inside, but he had to try.

It wasn't easy to get a chance to deal with Asurendra Samay himself. Therefore, he wouldn't miss this opportunity.

The crystalline stone wall absorbed Zhang Ruochen's power and released even more powerful energy. It swallowed River of Time even faster.

Perhaps because it had absorbed enough Power of Time, Sundial started having some strange changes.

Zhang Ruochen could clearly feel that the space where he stood now was becoming brighter and brighter. The long-extinguished fire was showing signs of rekindling.

Mysterious patterns appeared on the stone wall. They flowed like a stream and gave off a special rhythm.

Seeing Sundial unleash its powers, the eyes of “Chi Kongyue” became gloomy. It was nothing like the cute and innocent girl before but like an evil demon.

“Saint Monk Xumi has already fallen. Yet a damaged weapon wants to deal with me? Back then, you destroyed my divine body. Today, I’m going to completely refine you,”

Her eyes were filled with killing intent.

If Sundial hadn’t destroyed her divine body back then, would she have fallen to a point of possessing someone else’s body?

No matter how good other bodies were, how could it be compared to her original one?

“She formed a seal and changed the trajectory of the array.”

Swoosh

A crack appeared in Time Array, and a powerful force gushed out, forcing Blood Empress and Lord Ming to back out.

Her goal was clear. She wanted to concentrate her power and refine Sundial with all her strength.

Blood Empress’ eyes darkened. Without hesitation, she activated 24 divine steles and attacked Time Array. She knew that Zhang Ruochen was inside Sundial. If Chi Kongyue successfully refined Sundial, the consequences would be unimaginable.

“Break it.”

Lord Ming was also determined. His body transformed into a 90,000-mile-tall, and he slashed down a sword strike.

Driven by divine power, Stellar Sword turned tens of thousand miles long. As it swung, a beam of sword light pierced through sky and earth, illuminating all directions.

Boom

Time Array shook violently, but it wasn't broken.

In the end, Time Array was built with the enormous "Sea of time" as its foundation. It was powered by a vast divine power from Asurendra Samay's Stellar Soul Constellation. Its power was boundless that even ancient gods couldn't destroy it.

Blood Empress' forehead glowed, and a mirror wrapped in a huge amount of Blood Qi flew out. It was Blood Mirror that was as famous as Zangshan Demonic Mirror.

Of course, the current Zangshan Demonic Mirror cannot compare to Blood Mirror.

Blood Mirror was an extremely ancient and powerful Supreme Artifact that had once killed gods.

In the second level of Endless Abyss, Blood Empress refined a large amount of divine blood and all sorts of precious divine materials into Blood Mirror. This caused its grade to increase greatly.

The 24 divine steles formed a special formation. It was like 24 stars floating in the sky, all emitting an incomparably vast aura.

Divine Power released by divine steles stacked on top of each other and was fused into Blood Mirror.

Instantly, over a million Supreme Inscriptions appeared on the surface of Blood Mirror. Boundless Blood Qi surged out of the mirror and transformed into a vast sea of blood that blotted out the sky and covered the sun, enveloping the entire Sea of Time.

Rumble

For a moment, Precepts of heaven and earth trembled as if the entire universe was about to collapse.

Within the Time Array, Sundial was completely restrained by it. Its devouring speed slowed down. Instead, the River of Time enveloped it.

Because of this, Sundial's revival made further progress. It emitted an ancient aura.

A River of Time's mark clearly appeared on Sundial. In the void, it reflected the image of an incomparably magnificent River of Time.

It was incredible that this shadow of the River of Time cut the other River of Time condensed by Time Array into several sections.

At the same time, an artifact flew out of the Dimensional treasure on Zhang Ruochen to the outside world.

It was a stone platform, 30 feet high and 330 feet long. Judging from the material, it was almost the same as Sundial.

This stone platform was the one used to carry Sundial when they found it in Phoenix Nest.

Although he knew that the stone platform was extraordinary, Zhang Ruochen had never used it since he couldn't solve the mystery in it.

As soon as it assembled with Sundial, a strange phenomenon appeared on the stone platform. Bright Buddhist light shined and illuminated the surroundings.

For a moment, golden lotuses surged out from the ground and flowers bloomed in the void. It was a peaceful scene as if Buddha had descended into the world.

There was indeed a silhouette of a Buddha walking out from the stone platform. Although its appearance could not be seen clearly, it gave off a solemn feeling.

As soon as the figure appeared, an ethereal chanting rang out in Heaven and Earth. It was like a tidal wave that directly seeped into one's soul and was difficult to resist.

Upon seeing the Buddha, the gaze of "Chi Kongyue" instantly turned cold. She then spoke, "Xumi, you are truly a haunting soul. Since you are dead, you should have died completely. Don't leave behind any shadows.”

“Chi Kongyue” already recognized that the silhouette was none other than the image of Saint Monk Xumi. Due to some special reasons, his image was imprinted onto the stone platform and was activated at this moment.

Whoosh!

Inside Fane of Samay, intense Asuran Battle Qi gushed out. It was like a surging tide — vast and mighty — connecting heaven and earth.

In the next instant, a dark orb flew out from the Fane and floated above Chi Kongyue's head.

The moment the orb appeared, it released a terrifying pressure, causing boundless space in Sea of Time to freeze.

Outside Sea of time, Wargod Bloodximus was surprised. “Unexpectedly, he's able to force Asurendra Samay to use Asuran Supreme Sphere.”

A few Yuanhui periods ago, Asurendra Samay discovered a primordial realm. It used a great divine ability to absorb and refine it.

After that, Asurendra Samay put massive rare treasures and spent a lot of effort to refine this realm. Gradually, the realm became Asuran Supreme Sphere.

Asuran Supreme Sphere contained boundless Asuran Battle Qi and Asuran Divine Warsoul specially nurtured by Asurendra Samay. It was one of Asurendra Samay's trump cards.

Throughout his life, Asurendra Samay had killed many gods. A small portion of what he obtained was used to manage Sea of Time, while the majority was used in Asuran Supreme Sphere.

During the Divine War 100,000 years ago, Asurendra Samay's divine body and Divinity Source were destroyed. Even his divine soul was shattered.

It was because of Asuran Supreme Sphere that Asurendra Samay was able to escape.

His divine soul had slept in Asuran Supreme Sphere for 100,000 years. Only then it was able to coherence and recover.

As it had just possessed Chi Kongyue, its power has been greatly limited. Or else, just Lord Ming, Blood Empress, and Zhang Ruochen wouldn't have been able to force it to use this trump card.

Roar!

With a terrifying roar, an eight-armed Asuran warrior in armor walked out of Asuran Supreme Sphere.

The eight-armed Asuran warrior was 30,000 feet tall. Its body was surrounded by boundless Asuran Battle Qi. It exuded a monstrous killing intent and was extremely fierce as if it was born to slaughter.

It was an Asuran Divine Warsoul. The soul that had been cultivated with Divine souls and divine thoughts of many gods by Asurendra Samay. It was extremely powerful and was said to be indestructible.

Back then, the battle had been extremely tragic. The galaxy had been destroyed, and Asuran Divine Warsoul had also suffered heavy damage. However, it had not been destroyed.

Six of the Asuran warrior's arms had battle weapons in various forms. They were all extraordinary. They were either Supreme artifacts or divine ancient artifacts.

Under the command of Asurendra Samay, the eight-armed Asuran warrior pounced directly at the illusory image of Saint Monk Xumi.

At the same time, Asuran Supreme Sphere rapidly expanded. It released an incomparably vast power that charged in all directions.

Bang!

Sea of blood that enveloped the sky bore the brunt of the impact. It quickly collapsed amidst the tremors.

Blood Queen's body trembled. Traces of blood seeped out from the corner of her mouth as she involuntarily retreated.

Lord Ming was also affected by the impact. Even though he used Stellar Sword to block it, he was still injured and retreated thousands of miles.

“Since you don’t want to leave, then stay,”

The icy cold voice from “Chi Kongyue” came.

Immediately, the Time Array extended rapidly and covered Blood Empress and Lord Ming.

Since Asuran Supreme Sphere had already been used, there was no need to let anyone who provoked her go. If she could kill Blood Empress and Lord Ming, she could restore his eight-armed Asuran warrior to its peak state.

After being trapped in the Time Array again, the expressions on Blood Empress and Lord Ming changed.

Ancient gods like Asurendra Samay who had once fought with Saint Monk Xumi were indeed a very difficult opponent to deal with. No one knew how many trump cards she had.

On the other side, Saint Monk Xumi’s Buddhist shadow kept retreating when countering the wild attacks from the eight-armed Asuran warrior. Buddhist light on his body quickly dimmed.

After all, this was still only an image of Saint Monk Xumi. It was not his true body, so the power contained in it was limited.

After encountering hundreds of attacks, Saint Monk Xumi’s shadow finally sank into the stone platform and turned into a faint mark again.

The eight-armed Asuran warrior was about to reach out to grab Sundial and the stone platform, but its movements suddenly stopped.

The reason was that the Swallows mark on the forehead of Chi Kongyue was glowing. A huge Swallows shadow emerged from Chi Kongyue’s body and enveloped her.

At the back of the Swallows stood a very faint shadow. The figure looked exactly like Chi Kongyue, but her face was full of pain.

As soon as Zhang Ruochen saw Kongyue's shadow, his eyes froze.

"Kongyue hasn't been completely possessed. Jade Swallow Pendant has been protecting Kongyue. Yes, it must be," Zhang Ruochen became excited.

Jade Swallow Pendant was the heirloom of Shengming's Zhang clan. It was suspected to have been left behind by Zhang family's ancestor, the Immovable Wisdom King. It was mysterious, so there might a chance that it had been protecting Kongyue temporarily.

However, the shadows of Swallows and Chi Kongyue disappeared after a short while, It entered back into Chi Kongle's body again.

"Chi Kongyue" frowned slightly. She didn't like the feeling of being restricted by that strange power. After she finished dealing with this matter, the first thing she's going to do was to refine that strange power and take full control of this body.

The ancient being was indeed powerful, but it was only a remnant of power. How could it be her match?

Asuran Supreme Sphere spun rapidly. It absorbed the power of heaven and earth and pressed down on Blood Empress and Lord Ming.

At the same time, the Asuran warrior reached out again and grabbed Sundial and the stone platform.

Although Zhang Ruochen mobilized all the power in his body, he still couldn't resist it. He could only watch as the eight-armed Asuran warrior get its hands on them.

He finally saw a turning point knowing that Chi Kongyue hadn't been completely possessed yet, but he couldn't change anything.

In the end, his cultivation level wasn't enough. He couldn't even defeat Asurendra Samay by relying on external objects.

'Why hasn't the old man make a move yet? With his temper, he wouldn't stay still!' Lord Ming thought.

As he thought, a blood-red halberd flew over. Carrying unparalleled divine power, it descended from the sky. The halberd emitted a monstrous blood-red aura. It was like a peerless beast that had just woken up. It was unstoppable.

Boom!

The Time Array was able to block the attacks of Blood Empress and Lord Ming, but it was unable to block the blood-red halberd. In an instant, a hole was torn open.

Crack!

No matter how sturdy white mountain was, it was still pierced through by the blood-red halberd.

The tip of blood-red halberd sank into the white mountain. It released a vast divine power of Blood as it charged towards Asuran Supreme Sphere and the eight-armed Asuran warrior.

RAWRRRRR!

The eight-armed Asuran warrior let out an earth-shaking roar, but it was still pushed back by the divine power of Blood. It couldn't resist at all.

Asuran Supreme Sphere was also blocked and suspended in the air. It couldn't suppress them.

Seeing this scene, Lord Ming couldn't help but smile. Just as he expected Wargod Bloodximius wouldn't stand idly by at the critical moment.

When the old man was young, he wasn't afraid of anything. He was only afraid that there wouldn't be any opponents for him to fight.

He must have been longing for an opponent like Asurendra Samay for a very long time.

However, Lord Ming didn't know if this old man of his would be interested in Asurendra Samay who was in current state.

"Chi Kongyue" raised her head and gazed into the distance. She stared at a mountain peak outside Sea of Time as her gaze locked onto a towering figure.

"Wargod Bloodximius! "

She had already sensed the aura of Wargod Bloodximius for quite a while.

She originally thought that with his identity, it was unlikely for him to make a move.

However, the final result was beyond her expectations. Wargod Bloodximius didn't allow her to suppress the two young gods of Immortal Vampires.

Chapter 2219: Crushed

Wargod Bloodximius traveled through the air, leaving divine energy of Blood behind him, which transformed into a vast ocean of blood. He was not afraid to display his divine power to the fullest.

BOOM!

BOOOOM!

..

With each step he took, the surrounding precepts would violently shake rhythmically.

Precepts of a myriad of Cultivational Paths combined, and the world resonated.

As if all the precepts of heaven and earth were under the control of Wargod Bloodximius. It was hard to imagine what kind of world it was.

Blood Empress and Lord Ming did not hesitate. They took Sundial along with the stone platform and left the Time Array.

Since Wargod Bloodximius had appeared, they did not need to attack anymore.

Both of their strength combined were still far from being enough when they fight against an ancient monster like Asurendra Samay.

Crash!

The blood-red halberd in the distance flew out from the white mountain and returned into Wargod Bloodximius' outstretched hand.

With the halberd in hand, he gave off an even more imposing aura.

“Chi Kongyue” summoned Asuran Supreme Sphere to float above her. She stared directly at Wargod Bloodximius as she said, “Xue Jue, do you intend to start a war?”

Wargod Bloodximius hovered in the air. He wasn't angry, but he displayed an imposing aura. "Samay, hand over that girl. She is closely related to me. I promise you that I will find you another vessel," he sounded calm.

Although Wargod Bloodximius's tone was calm, there was an underlying threat in his words.

Every word sounded intimidating like a clap of divine thunder.

"Chi Kongyue" frowned.

She had heard the same proposal from Blood Empress.

Hearing the same words twice, she felt provoked.

Most importantly, both the two young deities from the Immortal Vampires and Wargod Bloodximius had come for a mere human from Kunlun.

What possibly could that girl have done?

Asurendra Samay deduced the cause and effect using its divine spiritual power.

After a moment, he knew the reason.

It turned out that Wargod Bloodximius was the father of the two young deities from the Immortal Vampires. That explained his presence here.

At the same time, Asurendra Samay was very surprised. Two descendants of the Wargod Bloodximius had attained Godhood. Even during the most glorious era of the Xue Jue Family, such occurrence was rare.

What was even more amazing was that Lord Ming and Blood Empress were not ordinary deities. They would definitely be able to survive a Yuanhui Tribulation.

'Why are there so many powerful and ruthless members within the Xue Jue Family?

In a few more Yuanhui Tribulations, wouldn't they be able to sweep away the Immortal Vampires and rule the Infernal Court?

“That b*stard Bloodximius is famous for being unreasonable. He is famous for defending own people despite knowing they are wrong. How troublesome.” Asurendra Samay thought angrily to himself.

Although Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian were deities who had survived a Yuanhui Tribulation once, There was not a single deity in the Infernal Court who dared to look down on them.

With their startling growth, every once in a while, their cultivation would undergo explosive changes. Following that, they would lash out at their surroundings, creating a huge disturbance.

Suppressing her anger, Chi Kongyue said, “I don’t mind switching possession to another body, but you are too late. She has already been possessed. That is a fact that cannot be changed.”

Unlike Blood Empress and Lord Ming, Wargod Bloodximius had attained Godhood more than 100,000 years ago. His battle achievements were outstanding, and given Asurendra Samay’s current state, he did not intended to start a conflict with Bloodximius.

Sending him away would be the best course of action.

Wargod Bloodximius shook his head disappointedly and said, “Asurendra, for someone as strong as you, why can’t you face you inner self truthfully but continue to lie instead? Did you began to fear me after the war in the Middle Ages because your fighting spirit got broken by that old bald Monk Xumi, and became cowardly instead? If you had lost your confidence as an elite, I can only say that you are no longer a worthy opponent for me.”

Chi Kongyue’s eyes darken as his anger was set ablaze.

If he hadn’t been injured during the battle with the Moon Goddess, and recently possessed Chi Kongyue’s body without cultivating the body into Godhood, he would be able to unleash his full might. With his identity as Asurendra Samay, how could he be afraid of Wargod Bloodximius?

If he refrained from fighting today, all the deities in the Infernal Court would probably think that he was truly afraid of Wargod Bloodximius.

Wargod Bloodximius continued by saying, “Just now, I had already seen her Saint Soul. Its obvious that you had not manage to completely possess her. Asurendra, I advise you to hand her over immediately for the sake of everyone around.”

Chi Kongyue spoke in a deep voice, “There has been no one who dares to order me around. This body is already mine, and no one can take it away. I also advise you to leave the Sea of Time along with the Immortal Vampires. Otherwise, you will have to bear the full consequences.”

“I have given you good advice, but yet you insist on doing things your way. Do we have to resort to force?” Wargod Bloodximius sighed.

These words greatly angered Asurendra Samay, and he could not help but reply angrily, “Xue Jue, you are getting too full of yourself. This is the Sea of Time and the territory of the Asuran, it is not part of the Immortal Vampires.”

“At the end of the day, you are just a youngster to me, without the right to act in such an impudent manner.”

Upon hearing these words, a cold glint appeared in Wargod Bloodximius’s eyes.

It seemed that in recent years that Bloodximius had been busy cultivating in seclusion. Huang Tian had been in the limelight, which had caused the cultivators of the Infernal Court to forget about him.

With his current strength and status, who would dare to treat him as a youngster?

In the Bloodysky Clan, the elites from the past generations had already been subdued by him.

“You think I’m young and weak right? Come on, and let me see what you can do.”

Battle intent burst out from Wargod Bloodximius, and the halberd in his hand emitted a blood-red light that dyed the entire sky red.

Just as Lord Ming had said, Wargod Bloodximius was an absolute battle maniac. He was not afraid that his opponent would be too strong, and he was only afraid nobody would be a match for him.

If he could have been born a Yuanhui Tribulation earlier, he might have fought with Saint Monk Xumi, Kong Chengzi, and the others during the battle in the Middle Ages.

Crash!

The Divine Planet in the sky released a dazzling divine light that enveloped Chi Kongyue, making her shine with absolute divinity.

“A junior who dares to act arrogantly in front of me and leave undisciplined would make people think the Asurendra is lenient. Today would be the day that I let you know what an exaggeration of your own abilities you have, as you are far from being able to disregard everything.” Chi Kongyue said with murderous intent.

Given Asurendra Samay’s temper, how could he endure being humiliated to such a degree?

Right now, he was indeed not in his peak condition, but he was not so weak that anyone could push him around.

Even if the leader of the Immortal Vampires came personally, he might not be able to make him retreat, let alone a young upstart like Wargod Bloodximius.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Do you think this is still 100,000 years ago? It seems that it is necessary for you to understand reality. This is no longer the era of your generation.”

“From now on, I would like to declare that whether in the Celestial or the Infernal Court, if any person or being dares to kill my children, I will make sure they meet a tragic end.”

The reason why Wargod Bloodximius chose to attack was to make up for it.

He knew the reason that he was sent to Kunlun was because that Lord Ming and Blood Empress both had a very deep prejudice against him. He had never even seen Blood Empress Qingyin because he was sent away during his childhood. It was tragic that Lord Ming had his six sons suppressed in Kunlun for ten thousand years.

Despite that he did a lot of hard work afterwards and tried various means to break the defense of Kunlun to bring them home. He could not reverse the damage that had been caused.

The sea of blood behind Wargod Bloodximius churned violently, and huge waves emerged from its surface.

Roar

The eight-armed Asuran roared toward the heavens, and boundless Asuran battle Qi surged out from his body.

With a roar, the surrounding mountains and rivers separated, with the heavenly and earthly precepts being forced back.

Two of the eight-armed Asuran's arms moved simultaneously, and the two giant axes in their hands slashed towards Wargod Bloodximius from either side.

The two axes were both ancient artifacts left behind by a deity who cultivated the Path of the Wind. When they were activated, they would immediately released destructive squalls that could pierced through the heavens and earth, splitting through a wide area of space.

Even a divine body belonging to a deity might not be able to withstand such power.

Wargod Bloodximius did not retreat, but instead increased the battle intent rising from his body.

He waved his blood-red halberd, and caused a billion scarlet light rays to burst out. The lights interweaved into a net and faced the raging gusts of wind unleashed by the two axes. Each of the scarlet rays of light was extremely sharp. They may seem slender and brittle, but were all indestructible in reality.

At the same time, the sea of blood behind Wargod Bloodximius concentrated innumerable amounts of heavenly and earthly precepts, forming together a giant hand which covered the sky. The giant hand headed directly towards the white mountain.

Buzz

The Time Array rotated, and countless Mark of Time light points flew out. They gathered together and distorted space-time, turning into a giant Space-time Vortex.

For a moment, the passing of time in the Sea of time speeded up and became chaotic, with space and time both showing signs of collapsing.

Bang!

The violent squalls that the eight-armed Asuran had summoned was unable to block the rays of scarlet light and was quickly destroyed.

With that, the rays of the scarlet light broke through the obstacles and landed on the eight-armed Asuran.

The eight-armed Asuran was knocked back as if struck by many stars. It travelled backwards until it reached the front of the temple before it could stabilize its body.

After receiving this attack, a large amount of Asuran Battle Qi on the eight-armed Asuran's body dissipated.

The Space-time Vortex was unable to resist the sky-covering hand and was torn apart brutally.

After passing through the Space-time Vortex, the sky-covering hand continued towards Chi Kongyue.

Before the hand reached, space and time had already frozen.

Chi Kongyue frowned slightly and hurriedly casted the Asuran Supreme Sphere towards the giant hand. However, the Asuran Supreme Sphere failed to shatter the hand and was grabbed firmly instead.

Swish

The Asuran Supreme Sphere spun rapidly and released an extremely powerful force, tearing the surrounding space-time into pieces.

Even so, it still couldn't break free from the sky-covering hand.

Roar

The eight-armed Asuran's eyes turned scarlet with rage as it roared furiously, and the aura emitted from its body became even more ferocious. With a shake of its hand, it threw out many powerful warriors, and revealed its true form.

A dark golden ancient cauldron flew across the sky and became as large as a planet, releasing a mighty divine might.

And a pitch-black mountain demon released a demonic Qi which was as black as ink which enveloped heaven and earth.

...

The eight-armed Asuran did not hold back and used all of its powerful warriors to launch an all-out attack.

It possessed an undying and indestructible body, so it was not afraid of fighting head-on with Wargod Bloodximius.

"Good timing."

Wargod Bloodximius did not fall back and advanced instead. The blood-red halberd that he held transformed into a ferocious Blood Dragon which pounced directly towards the eight-armed Asuran.

This halberd was personally forged by Wargod Bloodximius himself, and the demon dragon used as its foundation was infused with a large number of divine treasures. He had nourished it with heart blood till it became an undefeatable warrior. The halberd accompanied Wargod Bloodximius in countless battles, which allowed it to absorb the blood of numerous deities.

Back then, Wargod Bloodximius didn't kill the demon dragon, and instead refined its body into a halberd and divine soul into the vessel spirit.

As a result, the moment it was fully refined, it was full of spirituality with earth-splitting power.

Apart from Wargod Bloodximius, no one could control it.

Bang!

All the soldiers were sent flying by the unstoppable Blood Dragon which had transformed from the halberd.

Thud!

One of the Blood Dragon's claws pierced through the eight-armed Asuran's chest, leaving a gaping hole through his body.

However, the eight-armed Asuran was not made of flesh-and-blood. It was only a divine Warsoul without divine blood from its wound.

In the blink of an eye, the eight-armed Asuran was torn apart by the Blood Dragon, and majestic Asuran Battle Qi poured out.

On the other side, the sea of blood churned even more violently as a tall and lofty figure walked out from it. It was a part of the sky-covering giant hand.

The figure was an identical copy of Wargod Bloodximius. However, it was more than ten thousand times taller and gave off sizeable quantities of killing intent.

“That is... the Immortal Blood God!” Asurendra Samay thought to himself in surprise. “Xue Jue has actually recovered the lost technique and even cultivated it to an even higher level.”.

The Immortal Blood God was a tightly guarded secret of the Xue Jue family. If one cultivated it to its limits, they would be able to condense an avatar that was as strong as their own body.

The Xue Jue clan had once declined. Due to certain reasons, the cultivation method of the Immortal Blood God had become incompleated.

Since then, no one had been able to cultivate it successfully.

In fact, even when during the past where cultivation methods had not been lacking, very few people had cultivated the Immortal Blood God. The fact that the Wargod Bloodximius was able to complete the incomplete technique and cultivate it to the highest level was worthy of his reputation as an unrivalled genius.

Seeing the Immortal Blood God appear, Chi Kongyue quickly pointed his finger towards the sky.

Instantly, the Stellar Soul Constellation in the sky released a resplendent divine light, and transformed into a long River of Time that crashed down from the sky like a Celestial River falling into the mortal world.

Asurendra Samay had attained Godhood for multiple Yuanhui Tribulations, and the divine power accumulated by the Stellar Soul Constellation was inexhaustible. There was no need to worry about it being consumed.

The Immortal Blood God stretched out his other hand forming a tight fist, and it swung out in a tight arc.

Boom!

The River of Time was unable to withstand a single strike, and immediately broke apart, turning into countless glowing Mark of Times before dissipating.

The Asuran Supreme Sphere that the Immortal Blood God was holding on to produced loud cracking sounds, as its inner world became extremely unstable. At the same time, the Immortal Blood God released an extremely terrifying energy by stomping its foot.

Boom

The Sea of Time shook and shattered into pieces, and the array patterns engraved on it were almost destroyed.

Even the white mountain was affected by the terrifying impact. Countless white bones were turned into powder and it sank into the sea as a whole.

“Is this all you have Asurendra? Hurry up and use any other method you have. Try not to disappoint me too much,” said Wargod Bloodximus.

Chi Kongyue’s eyes turned solemn as he waved his hand, and summoned out an ancient jade amulet.

The jade amulet shone with a dazzling divine light and released countless time laws Precepts of Time. The light transformed into countless shapeless time chains that wrapped themselves around Wargod Bloodximus.

This jade amulet was created through great effort by Asurendra Samay. It concentrated his deep understanding of the Path of Time, and possessed even the power to slain a deity.

However, Wargod Bloodximus didn't even spare it a glance as he casually stretched his finger forwards.

A ray of highly concentrated blood-red light flew out from the tip of Wargod Bloodximus' finger.

Hah

In the blink of an eye, the jade amulet was instantly pierced through by the blood-red light before shattering into pieces.

The blood-red light landed on the temple and penetrated through the Divine Marks easily.

The blood-red light seemed to be very small, but its destructive power was shocking. It left a huge hole more than a hundred miles wide in the divine hall. Countless treasures within were turned into ashes.

“You...”

Chi Kongyue gnashed his teeth in anger.

“Humph!”

Wargod Bloodximus snorted derisively and moved into action. With a blink of an eye, he appeared before Chi Kongyue and spoke, “These skills are nothing out of ordinary.”

Chi Kongyue wanted to retreat, but his movement felt sluggish. There was a strange power in his body that was affecting his divine soul.

Boom

Wargod Bloodximus' palm landed a blow on Chi Kongyue.

Immediately, a series of soul shadows flew out of Chi Kongyue's body. Those soul shadows gathered together and entered into her back before fusing together again.

"I command you to come out."

In the next instant, Wargod Bloodximius's hand pressed onto Chi Kongyu Le's head at a speed of light. Two fingers pressed down on her temples simultaneously and discharged a boundless amount of divine power from his fingertips.

Following a deep shout from Wargod Bloodximius, a beam of divine light entered Chi Kong Le's sea of Qi.

Chi Kongyue struggled with a pained expression on her face, but she was unable to break free from Wargod Bloodximius' clutches.

When Wargod Bloodximius' hand left Chi Kongyue's head, a beam of divine light wrapped around her divine soul and forcefully tore it out of her body.

Boom

Chi Kongyue's eyes lost their luster as she collapsed.

"The older the ginger, the spicier it is. I can't believe this old man is so strong. It won't be an easy task to catch up to him," Lord Ming murmured.

Blood Empress and Lord Ming appeared on the white mountain with Sundial and the stone platform.

Sundial glowed with a faint green light and opened a door at precisely four in the afternoon.

Zhang Ruochen hastily came out of the door and arrived beside Chi Kongyue to help her up.

After checking, he found that there was nothing wrong with Chi Kongyue's bodily functions. Her life force was still very strong, but she lacked the Saint Soul.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but look up at the divine soul in the hands of Wargod Bloodximius.

There was no doubt that Chi Kongyue's Saint Soul was in the divine soul of Asurendra Samay. The two of them had fully fused together.

Wargod Bloodximus attacked once more, releasing a blood-colored divine light that enveloped Asurendra Samay's divine soul.

Not long afterward, a weak Saint Soul was separated from his divine soul.

Asurendra Samay's divine soul had a pained expression. What Wargod Bloodximus had separated was not only Chi Kongyue's Saint Soul, but also a portion of his divine soul and divine spirit, and it caused her great harm.

Asurendra Samay glared at Wargod Bloodximus with hatred. If he hadn't been injured in the battle with the Moon Goddess, there was no way that he have been defeated.

If he hadn't been restricted by that strange power, he would be able to retaliate when Wargod Bloodximus approached him.

He had roamed both the Celestial Court and Infernal Court for several Yuanhui Tribulations, and had never imagined that he would be in such a state one day.

At this moment, the sky above the fragmented Sea of Time was already filled with the divine spirit of many deities.

It couldn't be helped. There was so much activity that it would be difficult not to alarm the Asuran deities.

"What strength does Xue Jue possess. His power has already reached such a level that he could summon an Immortal Blood God of such cultivation."

"Xue Jue's two children have attained Godhood. It seems that the Xue Jue family must be happy and celebrating."

"Asurendra is doomed. With the Asuran Supreme Sphere half destroyed and the Asuran Divine Warsoul beaten up, and with himself beaten near death. He might not be able to survive the next Yuanhui Tribulation even if he recovers."

"He could have provoked anyone but Xue Jue who is fiercely protective of his own family. Even if Asurendra is at his peak state, it is not likely for him to defeat the current Xue Jue. Xue Jue has already obtained great power, so it would be difficult for anyone to subdue him.”

“I wonder who is stronger, Xue Jue or Huang Tian?”

..

The deities discussed animatedly among themselves. They sighed at the sight of Wargod Bloodximius’ strength and also sighed in pity for Asurendra Samay.

Chapter 2220: Celestial-Hunting Festival

Xue Jue Family's territory.

Zhang Ruochen sat in front of a jade table with a letter in his hand. He was reading it carefully.

In the letter:

"I am not very happy to hear that you have come to the Infernal Court. I regret that I have not been able to enjoy the three battles on the Battlefield of Merits.

"For Kongyue, you are willing to sacrifice your life and go against Heaven's will. You have even flattened the Sea of Time in anger. I am deeply impressed.

"However, for Kunlun, can you disregard everything and come to the Forest of No Return?

"On the seventh day of May, the Fane of Destiny held a once-in-a-thousand-year Celestial-Hunting Festival. The heroes of the ten clans gathered, hoping to see you.

"At that time, you and I will drink and talk about the past and the present. We will have a more enjoyable battle. Wushen, from Kunlun."

After reading the letter, Zhang Ruochen fell into deep thought.

It was sent by Yan Wushen.

Just for Chi Kunlun, he could not refuse Yan Wushen's invitation.

Zhang Ruochen lived in a very quiet and elegant pavilion. Very few people came to disturb him.

As of today, he has been in the Xue Jue Family for half a month. He had spent almost all his time in this pavilion. He did not go out much, let alone contact the Xue Jue Family.

One of the important reasons why Zhang Ruochen came here was that Chi Kongyue was in danger. He needed to enter a secret place of the Xue Jue Family to recuperate.

Although Chi Kongyue's Saint Soul was still intact, it had been heavily assimilated by Asurendra Samay's divine soul. It will be extremely difficult to recover.

Chi Kongyue's body had also been eroded by the Ashuran Battle Qi. He was showing signs of mutation and was transforming into an Asura body. It will be easy for him to be tainted with evil qi.

Fortunately, Blood Empress had mastered all kinds of mysterious techniques. She was confident that she could reverse all of this, but it would take some time.

For Chi Kongyue, it was not a bad thing. As long as she could endure it, refining the part of the divine soul and divine spirit of Asurendra Samay would be of great benefit to her future cultivation. It might even help her build a divine foundation.

In half a month, what happened on the Ashuran planet had already spread throughout the entire Infernal Court, causing a great commotion.

Because of that, Yan Wushen knew that Zhang Ruochen had come to the Infernal Court, so he sent someone to deliver the invitation letter.

In a sense, this was also a letter of challenge from Yan Wushen to Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Wushen dictated and Chi Kunlun had written this invitation letter on his behalf. It was to force Zhang Ruochen to go to the Celestial-Hunting Festival. It was hard to imagine how Chi Kunlun felt when he wrote this letter.

“Seventh-day of May, the Fane of Destiny. The Forest of No Return, a battle at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

Zhang Ruochen wrote a reply letter, stood up, and walked out of the pavilion.

Although he had not completely controlled the Demigod-level physique, he could walk normally and not accidentally collapse the ground.

Zhang Ruochen raised his head and looked up at the sky.

Unlike Kunlun, the sky here was blood-red, as if it was soaked in blood.

The Saint Qi of heaven and earth was extremely dense, and the precepts of heaven and earth were extremely active. It was far more powerful than Kunlun.

However, whether it was the Saint Qi of heaven and earth or the precepts of heaven and earth, they were very different from Kunlun. It was much more difficult to mobilize them.

Therefore, if one was not familiar with the Saint Qi and precepts of heaven and earth in the Infernal Court, their strength would be greatly affected if they entered.

The world where the Xue Jue Family was located was quite huge. Its diameter was over hundreds of millions of miles. Even a Supreme Saint would find it difficult to step into every place.

There were a total of ten Immortal Vampires clans in this realm. Each of the ten great clans occupied one territory. They were connected and hung above the milky way of styx. From Afar, they looked like five pairs of giant blood-red wings.

At the intersection of the five pairs of blood-red wings, there was a grand and tall fane that looked like a giant bat.

It gave people the feeling that it was like a bat with five pairs of giant blood-red wings. As if it could roam the galaxy at any time.

This fane was the supreme Fane of Immortality of the Immortal Vampires. It held the core inheritance of the Immortal Vampires.

The leader of the Immortal Vampires and the ten masters of the ten clans are all appointed by the Fane of Immortality.

It's only half a year before the Celestial-Hunting Festival. If I can't fully control this body and adapt to the Saint Qi and precepts of heaven and earth in the Infernal Court, how can I fight with Yan Wushen?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Under normal circumstances, he wouldn't be able to accomplish these two things in half a year. He needed external help by using the Sundial.

The problem now was that he had run out of Godstones, so he couldn't use the Sundial.

Zhang Ruochen could ask for the Godstone from Blood Empress. She would give it to him, but he couldn't ask for it.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was fretting over this, a blood light suddenly descended from the sky. It turned into a thin young man. His cultivation wasn't very high and he was merely a Three-Step Saint King.

The young man was quite reserved. He bowed and said, "Greetings, Your Highness."

"What is it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

The young man quickly replied, "Your Highness, please go to the meeting hall."

Zhang Ruochen was struck by his words. Xue Jue Family's meeting hall wouldn't open easily, and ordinary people weren't qualified to enter.

Since he was asked to go to the meeting hall, it was most likely something important.

Speaking of which, this was the first time he had been summoned since he came to the Xue Jue Family.

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift without hesitation and disappeared without a trace.

After Zhang Ruochen left, the Saint King wiped off his cold sweat. To him, the pressure facing Zhang Ruochen wasn't small.

The Xue Jue Family was very big. They occupied a majestic mountain with a radius of a million miles range. There was also a divine vein and fifty-four saint veins underground. It was a unique cultivation location.

The meeting hall was on the highest peak. When he first came to the Xue Jue Family, Zhang Ruochen had entered once. When he rushed here, he was already familiar with the place.

There were already many figures standing in the meeting hall when Zhang Ruochen arrived. They were either top-notch Saint Kings or Supreme Saints. All of them looked extraordinary and they were all geniuses nurtured by the Xue Jue Family.

What surprised Zhang Ruochen was that he saw Xue Chen among the crowd.

He had left the Kunlun Battlefield of Merits?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen's arrival, all the geniuses of the Xue Jue Family, including Xue Chen, could not help but look over.

Zhang Ruochen appeared very calm and walked into the hall step by step.

The person who summoned him this time was not Wargod Bloodximius.

It was normal to think about it. With the Wargod Bloodximius's status, how could he summon the disciples of his family? He couldn't do everything himself.

In front of the group of geniuses stood a handsome middle-aged man with long blood-red hair and a black robe. He looked similar to Wargod Bloodximius, and even his temperament was similar.

The middle-aged man had ten blood wings on his back, which looked like ten blood clouds spreading out.

Although he had restrained his aura, there was still an extremely terrifying saint power exuding from him. He was really powerful even when he was calm.

At this moment, the middle-aged man looked at Zhang Ruochen. His eyes were extremely deep, and he could vaguely see the starry sky being destroyed.

Just looking at each other, Zhang Ruochen was shocked. 'So powerful. He's no weaker than Emperor Ji Mie,' he thought.

Emperor Ji Mie was one of the three strongest Supreme Saints in Guanghan. He had the potential of becoming a god and his existence among the Supreme Saints was most prominent.

Anyone who could be compared to Emperor Ji Mie could imagine his position in the Xue Jue Family.

This person was called Xue Qingsheng and was titled the—Supreme Saint Qingsheng. He was the third son of Wargod Bloodximius and the acting head of the Xue Jue Family currently.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng had lived for almost 16,000 years. Due to the Immortal Vampires having a long lifespan, although they had not become gods, they were still at their peak and had not shown any signs of weakening.

The fact that Supreme Saint Qingsheng could become the acting family head had a lot to do with the return of Blood Empress and Lord Ming.

Originally, the Xue Jue Family was managed by Wargod Bloodximius's wife, the mistress of the Xue Jue Family.

She was the one who had ordered Blood Empress and Lord Ming to be sent to Kunlun without Wargod Bloodximius's knowledge.

Now, Blood Empress and Lord Ming had both become gods. Since they had returned forcefully, there was naturally a reckoning to be settled. Anyone who participated in this matter would be punished. All of them were sent to the Battlefield of Merits regardless of their status.

Even though the mistress did not share the same fate, she had lost all her power.

That was why Supreme Saint Qingsheng had the chance to become the new acting head.

Zhang Ruochen stood straight and cupped his hands.

“Supreme Saint Qingsheng, why have you summoned me?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was expressionless. He said with a sonorous, “On the seventh day of May, the Fane of Destiny will hold the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Lord Father has selected you to lead the descendants of the Xue Jue Family to attend.”

Zhang Ruochen was surprised by what he just heard.

He didn't expect that Supreme Saint Qingsheng had summoned him for this matter.

He had just read about the Celestial-Hunting Festival from Yan Wushen's invitation letter. Now that Wargod Bloodximius had asked him to attend, it seemed like he had not much of a choice.

However, Zhang Ruochen was quite surprised. What was so special about the Celestial-Hunting Festival? It was surprising that Wargod Bloodximius had paid so much attention to it and made the arrangements himself.

"What exactly is the Celestial-Hunting Festival?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, "You will know when you attend to it. You only need to know that the Celestial-Hunting Festival is very crucial to us and you must do your best. It's best if you can lead the Bloodsky Clan to defeat the other nine clans and bring honor to the Xue Jue Family."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's face looked quite serious.

As long as it was something that Wargod Bloodximius had ordered, he had to do his best.

"Why does Zhang Ruochen get to lead such an important thing?"

A questioning voice suddenly sounded.

The person who spoke was a feminine-looking man. He sat on a golden chair. He had a pair of phoenix eyes and his face was very pale. He doesn't look so good and gives people a sick feeling.

His cultivation was powerful and his blood qi was boundless. He had the power of a Supreme Saint surging in him. He had already reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Furthermore, he hadn't cultivated for more than a thousand years. He was a famous young elite among the disciples and was titled—Supreme Saint Xueqi.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng turned his gaze to Xueqi and said, "Xueqi, are you questioning the decision of Wargod Bloodximius?”

Only a powerhouse like Supreme Saint Qingsheng dared to call Supreme Saint Xueqi by his name.

“I wouldn’t dare, but Zhang Ruochen has only just reached the Neverwilt Realm. How can he represent the Xue Jue Family?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said calmly, “This matter is decided by Wargod Bloodximius. We only need to obey.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi snorted coldly and did not say anything else after that. In the Xue Jue Family, Wargod Bloodximius was the absolute ruler and no one dared to challenge his authority.

However, Supreme Saint Xueqi was very displeased. An outsider had stepped on his head so quickly. Moreover, the outsider who only had half of the Xue Jue Family’s bloodline had just reached Supreme Sainthood.

“Go and make preparations. Do not let Wargod Bloodximius down,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said.

“Yes.”

Immediately, everyone in the hall responded in unison and left the meeting hall.

“Humph.”

Blood-red light flashed in the eyes of the Supreme Saint Xueqi as he brushed past Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen did not mind at all. He thought to himself, Is this a test from Wargod Bloodximius?

After all, he came from the Celestial Court. Even if it was because of Blood Empress, Wargod Bloodximius would not trust him immediately. He needed to prove himself through some matters.

Whether it was to save Chi Kunlun or to deal with Wargod Bloodximius, Zhang Ruochen had to go all out at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Zhang Ruochen understood what the Supreme Saint Qingsheng meant. He wanted to defeat the other nine clans of the Immortal Vampires.

After the divine war in the Middle Ages, the Bloodsky Clan had been declining. Their ranking among the top ten clans had been dropping. Now, they were at the bottom.

The ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires cooperated, but they also competed with each other.

The stronger the clan was, the higher their position in the clan world would be. They would receive more cultivation resources from the Fane of Immortality and also have a greater say.

The Bloodsky Clan had once been glorious, and their clan world was at the top.

Unfortunately, the Bloodsky Clan had suffered heavy losses during the Middle Ages War. Even their great clan ruler had fallen in the starry sky.

Disregarding the might of the Wargod Bloodximius, it was difficult to change the situation.

With the pride of Wargod Bloodximius, he could no longer tolerate such a situation to continue.

After all, the Xue Jue Family was one of the oldest and most powerful clans in the Bloodsky Clan. It had produced more than one clan leader.

Therefore, Wargod Bloodximius had always placed great importance on the clan and its honor.

After walking out of the meeting hall, Zhang Ruochen was not in a hurry to leave. He crossed his arms and stood beside a dragon pillar carved from blood jade. It seemed that he was waiting for someone.

A man and a woman walked out of the hall. They were Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao, who had just returned from the Battlefield of Merits.

“Let’s have a chat,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Just as Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao were about to leave, Zhang Ruochen’s calm voice suddenly sounded.

Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao stopped and looked at Zhang Ruochen. They were both surprised. They didn't expect Zhang Ruochen to wait for them outside the hall and talk to them.

Before this, they had never interacted with each other.

Even Xue Chen had only interacted with Zhang Ruochen in the Rainbow Pavilion, and they were on opposite sides.

The siblings looked at each other. After that, Xue Chen said, "Okay, I'll look for a place."

Zhang Ruochen didn't have any objections to this.

The three of them left the Xue Jue Family immediately.

Soon, they arrived at the closest city to the Xue Jue Family.

This city was called the Ancient City Skylin. It was in the territory of the Xue Jue Family. It was very old and had existed for millions of years.

Legend has it that a Sky-Flare Qilin died here. The sky flares burnt for tens of thousands of years and never died out. It attracted many alchemists and weapon refiners to refine pills and weapons with the help of the sky flares.

Over time, it formed a city. After a long period of development, it had reached its current size.

The Ancient City Skylin occupied a radius of 10,000 kilometers. It was even more magnificent and prosperous than the Central Imperial City of Kunlun.

Following Xue Chen's lead, Zhang Ruochen entered a very special restaurant called the Voidsky Lounge.

The Voidsky Lounge was floating in mid-air. It was decorated using many spatial techniques. It was like a mirage. One could see it, but not touch it. One had to go through a special way to enter it.

Without a certain identity, one could not enter the Voidsky Lounge.

Inside the Voidsky Lounge, one could see the milky way of styx in the sky and the entire ancient city from below. All the scenery could be seen.

“What do you think? The civilization of the Immortal Vampires is not inferior to that of the human race, right? Perhaps you humans still think that we only know how to kill, blood-thirsty, and live in stone caves in the mountains?” Xue Chen said with a smile while he pointed outside the window.

Zhang Ruochen was silent. The civilization of the Immortal Vampires was indeed different from what he had imagined. It was very close to the civilization of the human race.

It was completely different from the Nether Realm that he had been to.

After a long while, Zhang Ruochen asked, “How is the situation in the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun?”

Xue Chen sighed in his heart after hearing Zhang Ruochen’s question. His heart was still with Kunlun. Even though he had joined the Immortal Vampires, he still missed Kunlun.

Perhaps this was why Zhang Ruochen had come to find him.

It didn’t matter. After staying in the Immortal Vampires for a long time, Zhang Ruochen would naturally understand that the Immortal Vampires were hundreds of times better than Kunlun. Here, they were far more carefree than in the Celestial Court. There weren’t so many restrictions.

Chapter 2221: Zhang Ruochen's Blood Wings

Xue Chen had a thought and he picked up the wine jar on the table. As he poured the wine, he said, "When you come to the Voidsky Lounge, you must try the Bloody Wine. This wine is limited in supply, but most people don't have the chance to taste it. Would you like a drink?"

Xue Chen poured the Bloody Wine into the cup. It was bright red, like blood. It emitted a strong wine fragrance, which is refreshing.

Just smelling it made one feel intoxicated.

Zhang Ruochen looked into the cup. A strange light flashed in his eyes.

He noticed there's the blood of a lifeform added into the Bloody Wine.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head involuntarily.

Xue Ningxiao laughed. "The wine is indeed brewed with blood, but it's not human blood. My father was born to my grandfather and a human woman. My brother and I also have part of the human bloodline flow in our bodies. That's why we never drink human blood, nor are we addicted to any human blood products."

Zhang Ruochen could not help but feel surprised. He did not expect that there were humans among the wives of the Wargod Bloodximius who had married.

Perhaps it was because Xue Ningxiao and Xue Chen had lived in the Infernal Court since they were young and had been assimilated by the great power of the Macroworld. If one didn't look carefully, one could hardly sense the human aura in them.

"There's no need to be surprised. Our family is very ancient. It's one of the oldest families in the Bloodsky Clan and even the entire Immortal Vampire clan. There was a precedent of combining with humans a long time ago. The Xue Jue Family is far more inclusive than the other clans.”

“Even the Blood God of Kunlun has a special relationship with our family.” Xue Ningxiao raised her head, intoxicated by the Bloody Wine. She took a sip as if her mouth was filled with amber.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised after hearing that.

He was the Sect of the Blood God’s leader, but he had never known that the Grandmaster Blood God had a relationship with the Xue Jue Family.

“What’s the matter with the Blood God?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Chen drank a cup of wine and said, “There are too many things involved. If you want to know, you can ask Aunt Fourteen. She should know the most about Blood God.”

Zhang Ruochen thought of many things and fell into deep thought.

Since Xue Chen mentioned Blood Empress, perhaps it had something to do with the 800 years that Blood Empress had stayed in the Endless Abyss. It might even include the secret of the Bloodbeast. Also, the secret of Qiu Yichi, Chi Linyuan, and the others turning from humans into Immortal Vampires.

‘Could there be a causal connection?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

“Let’s not talk about this. You should try it first. This wine is brewed with Phoenix blood and it tastes very good.” Xue Ningxiao licked her lips lightly. Her eyes sparkled as she encouraged Zhang Ruochen.

“Phoenix?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Mu Lingxi’s figure appeared in Zhang Ruochen’s mind. He couldn’t help shaking his head again.

Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao didn’t say anything after that. They just felt that Zhang Ruochen was strange. He had the Immortal Vampire bloodline in his vein, yet he did not seem to have any desire for blood.

They would become very excited when they saw blood and they couldn't control themselves.

This was the nature of the race, and it is almost impossible to change.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but ask, "Please tell me about the situation of the Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun, especially the battle in the Central Imperial City. How did it become and are there any results?"

Xue Chen Thought for a moment, then he said, "When you came out of Rainbow Pavilion, the Heavenly Realm seized the opportunity and attacked. The army of the Infernal Court suffered a great loss. After that, it was probably because Aunt Fourteen summoned your soul that the Dimensional Rift collapsed. It had a great impact on the Infernal Court and it was unable to send more Saint cultivators to Kunlun.

"Because of the outbreak of the divine war, the Heavenly Realm strengthened its inspection of Kunlun. It was difficult for them to reopen the Dimensional Rift. On the contrary, Pangu Realm, Demon God Realm, and Wanxu Realm joined the war, which led Heavenly Realm to gain more power.

"The plan to besiege the imperial court can not continue for the time being. After that, Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits will probably be a long battle that will not end in a hundred years. That is why Xiaoxiao and I have returned to the Infernal Court at this time."

Xue Chen could not help but sigh. He had wanted to go to Kunlun to make a contribution and seek opportunities, but unexpectedly, everything was far from what he had expected.

The key to the great change in Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits was Zhang Ruochen.

If Zhang Ruochen had not turned the tide in Rainbow Pavilion, most of the Saturn Peach Trees would have been cut off. Kunlun would not be able to struggle anymore. It would probably only take ten years for the Battle of Merits in the Infernal Court to end.

Zhang Ruochen felt a lot more relaxed after hearing that. His efforts had not been in vain. The longer this war dragged on, the more advantageous it would be for Kunlun.

Perhaps, at some point, there would be a huge turn of events.

However, at this stage, he could not get involved in the matter of Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits.

The most important thing now was for Zhang Ruochen to control the power of his body and improve his cultivation. He needed to attend the Celestial-Hunting Festival and save Chi Kunlun from Yan Wushen.

Besides, he wanted to see what kind of place the Fane of Destiny was and could it decide the fate of everyone.

Zhang Ruochen did not believe it.

Both Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao had human blood in their bodies, and they didn't dislike him as an outsider. Zhang Ruochen was less resistant to them.

The three of them continued chatting about the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun and the Infernal Court.

Not only was Xue Chen talented, but he was also calm. He had his unique views on everything. In terms of talent, ability, and knowledge, he could stand out in the Heavenly Realm if he was placed there.

Xue Ningxiao still had some fear of Zhang Ruochen in the beginning. Her understanding of him remained in Kunlun when he had killed everyone. At that time, Zhang Ruochen was like a god of death. Countless famous powerhouses in the Infernal Court became souls under his sword.

However, it didn't take long for her to reveal her true nature. She was no longer reserved.

Xue Ningxiao had a lively personality. She looked like she was 16 or 17 years old and her maiden-like appearance was particularly seductive. She often smiled like a little witch.

After asking what he wanted to know, Zhang Ruochen asked another question, "Is there a place in the Ancient City Skylin that sells Godstones?"

Zhang Ruochen said, “I do need some.”

“If you need Godstones, you can exchange them directly with the family. It’s also much cheaper than outside. Also, with your status, as long as you ask for it, you can get it easily.” Xue Ningxiao looked confused.

With the Xue Jue Family’s heritage, they naturally had a lot of Godstones.

As if seeing through Zhang Ruochen’s thoughts, Xue Chen stopped Xue Ningxiao from continuing. “If you want to buy Godstones, you can go to the Ancient Saint Pavilion. It’s the biggest Saint shop in the world of the ten Immortal Vampire clans, which is all over the world.”

“There are gods behind the Ancient Saint Pavilion. There’s even the shadow of the Fane of Immortality. As long as you have enough Godstones, you can buy anything.”

Without much delay, Zhang Ruochen, Xue Chen, and Xue Ningxiao left the Voidsy Lounge and headed straight for the Ancient Saint Pavilion.

The Ancient Saint Pavilion occupied a large area in the most prosperous area of the Ancient City Skylin. There were many pavilions and pavilions, and it was extremely luxurious.

When they entered the Ancient Saint Pavilion, they caused quite a commotion. A maid immediately entered the back hall to pass on the message.

A moment later, a clone of a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint came up to welcome them. He was full of smiles and was extremely enthusiastic. “Your Highness has graced the Ancient Saint Pavilion with your presence.”

Then, he led Zhang Ruochen and the other two into a private room. He asked someone to bring him saint fruits, heavenly spring, and blood wine. They were treated to the highest standard.

Blood Empress and Lord Ming had made a commotion in the Sea of Time after becoming gods. It had long been spread throughout the Infernal Court. Zhang Ruochen's identity as the Scion was also known to everyone.

His mother was a god and so was his uncle. His grandfather was the world-famous Wargod Bloodximius.

Besides, Zhang Ruochen was also a Supreme Saint.

With such a background and cultivation, no one dared to neglect him.

No matter who it was, they had to be careful and respectful when they came into contact with Zhang Ruochen.

It couldn't be helped. His current status was much more honorable than when he was Moon Goddess's Divine Envoy.

No one had expected that he, who had fought to the death with the Infernal Court, would suddenly become the Infernal Court's Scion.

Even if many people hated Zhang Ruochen to the bone, they couldn't do anything now.

If they wanted to touch him, they had to think about whether they could withstand the wrath of the three gods. Asurendra Samay was a good example.

How many people in the Infernal Court were more powerful than Asurendra Samay?

The Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint who welcomed Zhang Ruochen was a middle-aged man in his early 40s. His cultivation was very high, and his blood qi was vigorous. He was in his prime.

"I am Qi Yong, the master of the Ancient Saint Pavilion in the Ancient City Skylin. What do you need, Your Highness?" The middle-aged man smiled politely.

Zhang Ruochen did not beat around the bush. He went straight to the point and said, "Godstones."

“How many do you need, Your Highness?” Qi Yong asked.

Qi Yong was very confused. The Xue Jue Family should have Godstones. Why did Zhang Ruochen come to the Ancient Saint Pavilion to buy them?

Of course, he could not ask this question at a time like this.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and said, “A hundred.”

It would take a long time for him to fully control the Demigod-level physique. In addition, he had to improve his cultivation and strength. Naturally, he had to prepare more Godstones.

The more Godstones, the better.

Qi Yong’s eyes flashed with surprise. The number Zhang Ruochen had given was beyond his expectations.

Godstones weren’t ordinary. They were extremely expensive. A Saint King cultivator might not even be able to exchange one for all his wealth.

Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao were also surprised. They hadn’t expected Zhang Ruochen to buy so many Godstones either. Even a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint might not be able to do this.

“Your Highness should know the price of Godstones. One Godstone is worth a billion saint stones. If you need a hundred Godstones, which is 100 billion saint stones,” Qi Yong said.

The value of Godstones was the same in Infernal Court and Heavenly Realm. The price was constant.

It was Fairy of a Hundred Flowers who made the decision, the last time Zhang Ruochen bought Godstones from the Qianrui Realm. Because of their relationship, she had discounted 100 million saint stones.

The Immortal Vampires did not need saint stones to cultivate. They mainly relied on blood to improve their strength.

However, the blood that they took from killing was only a small part.

Most of the blood of the Immortal Vampires came from the Immortal Blood Spring and the Blood Tree of Longevity. Both could provide a large amount of blood.

However, the blood produced by the Immortal Blood Spring and the Blood Tree of Longevity was only pure. It contained very little energy and could not meet the needs of cultivation.

Hence, the Immortal Blood Spring needed to be added with saint stones to nurture the Blood Tree of Longevity. Only in this way could the blood produced by the Immortal Blood Spring and the Blood Tree of Longevity have the same effect as the blood in a cultivator's body.

Because of this, the saint stones could also be circulated in the world of the Immortal Vampires.

Zhang Ruochen flipped his hand and took out a storage ring. He handed it to Qi Yong and said, "Calculate how many saint stones the treasures inside are worth."

Qi Yong quickly took it and checked it with his spiritual power.

When he checked it, his eyes suddenly changed.

There were a lot of treasures in the storage ring. Saint weapons, talismans, pills, and so on. There was no lack of treasures.

Zhang Ruochen had obtained these treasures from the Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun. They were huge amount and complicated. He had everything. It was useless for him to keep them.

Zhang Ruochen had gained a lot from each battle. The Battle of Sword Vault, the Battle of Xianji Mountain, the Battle of True Dragon Island, the Battle of the Blood God sect, the Battle of Ziwei Palace, and so on.

Especially at the Battle of Ziwei Palace, he had killed nearly a thousand top-notch powerhouses of the sects of Heavenly Realm, including many leaders. The gains were even more shocking.

What he had taken out now was only a part of it. Most of it was ordinary. The truly good things wouldn't be sold casually.

Saint weapons, for example, had been kept by Zhang Ruochen for the Ancient Abyssal Blade to refine.

Qi Yong used his powerful spiritual power to calculate the value of all the treasures in a short time.

"These treasures are worth 134 billion saint stones in total," Qi Yong said.

Zhang Ruochen took out another Ring of Dimensions and said, "The treasures in here should be worth 6 billion saint stones. Exchange them all for Godstones."

"Please wait for a moment, your highness. I'll go get Godstones now," Qi Yong said.

Although he was the master of this Ancient Saint Pavilion, he couldn't carry a large number of Godstones with him. He needed to go to the treasury to get them.

Not long after, Qi Yong returned and handed a Ring of Dimensions to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen scanned it with his spiritual power and confirmed that there were 140 Godstones inside. He immediately put them away. After getting what he wanted, he left straight away and returned to the Xue Jue Family.

In the following period, he had to put all his energy into cultivating. He wanted to control the Demigod-level physique as soon as possible so that he could reach his pinnacle state.

Whether it was Yan Wushen's invitation or the divine will be given by Wargod Bloodximius, Zhang Ruochen felt that the Celestial-Hunting Festival was not simple.

He had to be powerful enough to deal with it calmly.

Xue Ningxiao was still very curious. She asked, "Why is he doing this?"

Xue Chen knew what she was talking about. He smiled, "How can Zhang Ruochen be an ordinary person?" he said, "He has his way of thinking. With his status in the Xue Jue Family, he can easily get the Godstone. But the prerequisite is that he is willing to.”

“Why isn’t he willing?” Xue Ningxiao asked.

Xue Chen stared in the direction Zhang Ruochen had left and said, “He doesn’t have a sense of belonging to the Xue Jue Family. I think that’s why Wargod Bloodximus asked him to lead the team to attend the Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

...

After returning to the Xue Jue Family and making the appropriate arrangements, Zhang Ruochen immediately began to seclude himself for cultivation.

With the Godstone inlaid, the Sundial began to operate. It released the power of time, covering a radius of 1200 meters.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged under the Sundial. He took out a small amount of The Sun-Moon Dragon Spring from the Mercury Gourd and swallowed it directly.

The Sun-Moon Dragon Spring was obtained from True Dragon Island. It had all kinds of incredible uses, especially to nourish the body and Saint Soul. It could allow him to control his power faster.

The Re-Awakeners in the Ying Yang Sea used The Sun-Moon Dragon Spring to recover their strength to the peak in a short time.

What they used was only the most ordinary holy spring. What Zhang Ruochen swallowed now was the essence of the holy spring.

Zhang Ruochen had collected more than 2,000 drops of the holy spring’s essence when he was on the True Dragon Island, but he hadn’t used them yet. Now, they could be put to good use.

Rumble

The majestic blood qi surged in Zhang Ruochen and it’s making a loud sound like a rushing river.

At a certain moment, a powerful blood qi rushed out of Zhang Ruochen's back.

"It hurts... What's going on? This power... This..."

Zhang Ruochen's back seemed to be burning. The pain was so great that his body seemed to be melting.

Even with his cultivation and willpower, he couldn't bear the pain.

Gradually, golden light appeared on Zhang Ruochen's back. It was as if something was about to break out of his body.

Whoosh

The pain lasted for about two days. Eight Golden Wings grew out of Zhang Ruochen's back and they were covered in mysterious patterns.

Zhang Ruochen supported himself on the ground with both hands. He panted heavily and his forehead was covered in sweat.

Wings of flesh were an important symbol of the Immortal Vampires. They were almost all born with it.

Logically speaking, Zhang Ruochen should have grown wings of flesh long ago. However, after he was born, Emperor Ming had sealed the Immortal Vampire bloodline in him, making him no different from an ordinary person.

After that, even though Blood Empress had nurtured this body to be extremely powerful, it had never grown wings of flesh because there was no Saint Soul in it.

Now, Zhang Ruochen had started to control the power of the Demigod-level physique and fully activated the Immortal Vampires' bloodline. Finally, the wings grew out.

'Golden Wings?' he thought.

He took out an ancient bronze mirror and looked at the wings on his back. Zhang Ruochen was stunned. He couldn't accept it for a long time. He felt as if the world had collapsed.

What was supposed to come had finally come!

“Am I a human or an Immortal Vampire?”

Chapter 2222: A Hundred Years of Cultivation

This was not the end of the transformation. The blood flow in Zhang Ruochen became faster and faster. The sound he made was like a great bell.

Gradually, Zhang Ruochen's skin became like white jade. His hair and pupils turned blood red, and the nails on his hands grew longer.

More importantly, two sharp teeth grew out of his mouth.

With the eight golden wings on his back, Zhang Ruochen's current appearance was no different from that of an Immortal Vampire. Although he was still handsome, he had become extremely evil.

It was almost ironic. Zhang Ruochen used to hate the Immortal Vampires the most, but now, he has become one of them.

The only good thing was that Zhang Ruochen did not have a desire for blood. It proved that what Blood Empress said was true. She had solved this big problem for him.

Otherwise, he would not be able to accept himself. He would rather die than become a blood-sucking monster.

'Gradually, Zhang Ruochen adjusted his emotions. A determined look appeared in his eyes. 'Whether I am a human or an Immortal Vampire, I am still Zhang Ruochen.' he thought.

No matter what changes happened to him, as long as his heart did not change, everything would be the same as before.

Zhang Ruochen did not care about what others thought of him. He had never wanted to live the way others wanted him to.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged again. He circulated his techniques and restrained his blood qi. Before long, his skin and nails returned to normal, and his fangs disappeared.

Just as he was about to put away his golden wings, he suddenly had a strange feeling.

The arcane runes on the golden wings stimulated by the power of the Supreme Saint appeared and began to absorb the Saint Qi of heaven and earth. Even the Precepts of Heaven and earth gathered.

For a moment, the repulsion of the Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth on Zhang Ruochen was greatly weakened. They even became friendly.

‘It seems that with these eight golden wings, I can harmonize with the Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth in the Infernal Court Faster,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

It wasn’t a bad thing to grow wings from this point alone. They would be of great help to him at this stage.

The flesh wings of the Immortal Vampires weren’t just for show. They could greatly increase speed, mobilize the Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth, used for direct attacks and many other uses.

The more flesh wings there were, the more useful they would be.

Under normal circumstances, the Immortal Vampires were born with only a pair of flesh wings. After reaching the Saint Realm, their blood qi would increase. Only then would they be able to grow more flesh wings.

Most of the Immortal Vampires’ flesh wings were blood-red. A small number were silver. All the Immortal Vampires with silver wings had extraordinary physiques. They were far stronger than ordinary human Saint physiques.

Zhang Ruochen had come into contact with many Immortal Vampires, and there was no lack of geniuses with silver wings. The earliest one was the fourth disciple of elder Xuanji — Feng Han. He hadn’t become a Saint yet, but he had four silver wings. His physique was extremely powerful.

There were also Lord Ming and Qi Sheng. They were born with six wings and could be considered prominent figures.

However, none of the Immortal Vampires Zhang Ruochen had come into contact with had the same golden flesh wings like him.

He believed that the golden wings should be special among the Immortal Vampires, at least not compared to the blood wings.

“If I can fully control the power of this body and stimulate the bloodline power of the Demigod-level physique to the extreme, the number of wings should increase,” Zhang Ruochen said.

His physical quality was extremely strong, especially stronger than that of Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

When Zhang Ruochen reached the same cultivation realm as Supreme Saint Qingsheng, the number of fleshy wings could at least be compared to or even surpass Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

Since the fleshy wings could help Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation, he did not put them away. He continued to circulate his techniques, absorbing the Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth into his body to temper himself.

The process of Zhang Ruochen controlling the power of his body was accelerated with the help of the Sun-Moon Dragon Spring.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen was also trying to mobilize the Precepts.

Restricted by his Demigod-level physique, Zhang Ruochen could not use most of the 200 million Precepts even though he had them. He could barely mobilize part of the Precepts of Time, Dimension, and Truth.

In comparison, the Path of the Ancients was undoubtedly much less restricted.

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen had preliminary control of the power of his physical body. Most of the Precepts could also be mobilized from his body.

In this way, he could cultivate normally.

“It’s time to use this treasure!” he said.

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and took out something.

It was a stone house carved out of a giant stone. There was a stone dragon on it. Each scale of the dragon was very clear and vivid.

There were a lot of ancient and complicated arcane runes engraved on the surface of the stone house. It seemed to contain the principles of heaven and earth and emitted a very obscure Path connotation.

“Legend has it that the Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber can double the efficiency of a cultivator in comprehending the Path. Invisibly, the body and the Saint Soul can also be nourished. Even the spiritual will can become tougher. I wonder if it has a miraculous effect.” Zhang Ruochen said with his eyes filled with anticipation.

The Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber was one of the most famous treasures in the Dragon Temple. Anyone would want to obtain it.

Although Zhang Ruochen had killed Mojo, Lord of Elixir, and subdued Dragon Phantom Lord and Lord of Stone, he didn't get a Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber. Otherwise, he would have used it long ago.

The Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber originated from Lord of Sword. It was something Lord of Sword had given away. Now, it could be put to good use.

Zhang Ruochen entered the Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber and began to comprehend the Path.

The Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber's interior was as smooth as jade. It was covered with dragon patterns. There were also streaks of dragon Qi that transformed into dragon shapes. They danced in it and passed through Zhang Ruochen from time to time. It gave him a wonderful feeling.

When Zhang Ruochen had been on True Dragon Island, he had obtained a lot of treasures. Although he had taken some out to nurture the old cadre of the Shengming Empire, he had still left many. They were all treasures.

Now that he had broken through to the Supreme Sainthood, he could use these treasures better.

The cultivation of the Supreme Sainthood was different from that of the Saint Kinghood. It took a long time for each small realm to improve. It also required a large number of treasures.

Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen didn't lack anything. Now that he had a large number of Godstones, and he had enough treasures. He could improve his cultivation and strength greatly in a short amount of time.

After twenty years of seclusion, Zhang Ruochen controlled the power of his physical body. His Saint Soul was completely compatible with his physical body. At the same time, he was familiar with the Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth in the Infernal Court. He could mobilize them as he pleased without any hindrance.

Zhang Ruochen did not come out of seclusion. Instead, he chose to continue cultivating and immerse himself in comprehending the Precepts.

He had a foundation that was far superior to ordinary people. He had just become a Supreme Saint and already had 200 million Precepts. In this world, only Yan Wushen could compare.

With this foundation, he could double the total number of Precepts and reach the mid-stage of the Neverwilt Realm. After that, he could double it and condense the Saintwill. Then he could reach the late-stage of the Neverwilt Realm.

In a sense, the more powerful he was, the harder it was to breakthrough in the Supreme Saint realm.

However, he would be even stronger after that.

In other words, Zhang Ruochen would need at least 400 million Precepts to break through to the mid-stage of the Neverwilt Realm. Most of the late-stage Neverwilt Realm powerhouses didn't have that many Precepts.

Even though the Supreme Saint's speed of comprehending Precepts was very fast, far surpassing that of a Saint King's, it would take a long time to accumulate 200 million Precepts.

Under normal circumstances, it would take at least hundreds of years, and he would not sleep or rest.

However, in just ninety-five years, Zhang Ruochen's cultivation had reached the critical point of breakthrough.

Zhang Ruochen had comprehended nearly 200 million Precepts in less than a hundred years.

All of this was due to the treasures from True Dragon Island, especially the Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber, which had tripled his efficiency of comprehending Paths.

It was no wonder that there were only ten Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chambers in the Dragon Temple.

The Divine Dragon race could not create too many of such heaven-defying treasures.

Zhang Ruochen opened his eyes and stopped cultivating.

In his hand was a huge crystal that emitted dazzling divine light.

This crystal was left behind by Dragon Phantom Lord after it was killed. It contained the secrets of the four Ancient Paths of Time, Dimension, Origin, and Darkness.

After refining and comprehending it for many years, Zhang Ruochen had used up all the Power of Time and Dimension contained in the crystal. As a result, his Time and Dimension attainments had greatly improved.

I'm still a little short. I Can't break through to the mid-stage of the Neverwilt Realm. Maybe I need more time to settle down,' Zhang Ruochen had a glimmer of understanding in his heart.

He had tried several times but failed. There was no doubt that he had encountered a bottleneck.

Zhang Ruochen no longer forced himself to relax. Perhaps at some point, the opportunity to break through would appear.

Anyway, he still had dozens of Godstones. He had plenty of time, so there was no need to be too anxious.

Since he no longer focused on improving his cultivation, Zhang Ruochen shifted his attention to other aspects.

To increase his strength, improving his cultivation was only one aspect. He could also cultivate saint techniques and refine battle weapons.

Zhang Ruochen was now a Supreme Saint. He could completely cultivate the saint techniques he had mastered to a higher level.

For example, he could try to cultivate the thirteenth Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike. He could continue to deduce the 12th level of the Luoshui Fist Technique. He could also cultivate the fourth level of the Incarceration of Divine Demon.

The Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike was the first saint technique that Zhang Ruochen cultivated. It had always been highly valued by him. He had invested a lot of resources and suffered a lot.

“The thirteenth Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike is called the Dragon-Elephant Destruction. It is the most overbearing. It requires a high level of physical strength and spiritual will. The slightest carelessness can destroy the body or cause Qi deviation.

“When this particular palm strike is cultivated to the initial phase, it can be comparable to a high-level saint technique of the Hundred-Shackled level. When it is cultivated to the final phase, it can be comparable to a high-level saint technique of the Thousand-Koan level. When it is cultivated to completion, it can be comparable to a high-level saint technique of the Banshi Isshou level.

“According to the legends, if one can break the limit and cultivate the Dragon-Elephant Destruction to the Paramount Realm, they will be able to become a high-level Paramount saint technique. However, after the Middle Ages, no one in the Myriad Buddha Sect has been able to cultivate to that level.”

The common high-level saint techniques were mostly at the Neverwilt and Hundred-Shackle Realm. There were very few at the Thousand-Koan level, and the Banshi Isshou level saint technique was even rarer. As for the Paramount level, it was probably only found in the inheritances left behind by the gods.

Even the Paramount Realm powerhouses didn't cultivate the Paramount level high-level saint techniques. It was good enough to cultivate one or two high-level saint techniques.

At this stage, Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to expect too much. All he needed now was just to cultivate the thirteenth Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike to the initial phase.

To reach this step was very simple. He just needed to refine two dragon souls and two elephant souls in the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Of course, he also needed a large amount of Yang Qi, at least a million times more than an ordinary person.

The advantage Zhang Ruochen had was that he now had the Demigod-level physique. He didn't have to worry that he wouldn't be able to withstand the power of the dragon soul and elephant soul of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

"I'll go buy the dragon soul and elephant soul first."

Zhang Ruochen decided to come out of seclusion immediately.

Although dragon souls and elephant souls of the Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saint were rare, the Infernal Court had fought with creatures of the Celestial Dragon Realm and the Demon God Realm all year round. Naturally, they had killed the Supreme Saints of the dragon and elephant clans.

Through the Ancient Saint Pavilion, Zhang Ruochen bought the dragon and elephant souls.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to return and continue his seclusion, he met Blood Empress.

"How is Kongyue now?" Zhang Ruochen asked with concern.

Chi Kongyue was recuperating in a special secret place of the Xue Jue Family. Zhang Ruochen could not casually step into it. He had been there a few times, but he could only wait outside.

Blood Empress said, "Don't worry. I will do my best for Kongyue. Her condition is getting better."

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen could not help but feel relieved. He asked, "You are waiting for me here with your true vessel. It must be something important, right?"

Blood Empress led Zhang Ruochen into the garden of the Blood Sorghum in the Xue Jue Family household.

The Blood Sorghum was comparable to a sacred medicine. Each of them contained the blood qi of a human Saint. The cultivators who could enter the garden to watch and cultivate were all genius disciples or top-notch powerhouses of the Xue Jue Family.

As they walked past, the servants in the garden knelt one after another. The genius cultivators and top-notch powerhouses all knelt on one knee, not daring to raise their heads.

"You've been in the Infernal Court for a while. Are you used to it?" Blood Empress's temperament was dignified and saintly. Her extraordinary power naturally spread out.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I'm fine."

"Do you regret it?" Blood Empress asked.

"No," said Zhang Ruochen

Blood Empress asked again, "Your immortal blood wings have grown, right? Can you show them to me?"

"Okay," he replied.

A layer of bright golden light appeared on Zhang Ruochen's back. The next moment, eight golden wings appeared. At the same time, the Saint's power erupted and swept through the entire Minghua Garden.

All the cultivators in the garden were trembling.

Some of the cultivators with powerful cultivations raised their heads to take a look. They saw that Zhang Ruochen had become extremely tall and mighty. The eight golden wings on his back were like eight golden clouds that covered the sky and earth.

Blood Empress did not hide her emotions. Her face was full of praise and joy.

Zhang Ruochen put away the golden wings again, and the Saint power dissipated.

“In a month, the family will hold the God-ascension Ceremony. All the gods of the Bloodsky Clan who are in the Infernal Court and don’t have important matters to attend will be present. In addition, the elites of the Bloodsky Clan who are going to attend the Celestial-Hunting Festival will also gather at the Xue Jue Family. You will also need to appear at that time,” said Blood Empress.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes flashed with surprise. Although the God-ascension Ceremony was very grand, gathering all the deities of the Bloodsky Clan was undoubtedly a bit exaggerated.

In his opinion, it was probably not that simple.

Even if the Wargod Bloodximius was famous, it was unlikely that all the gods of the Bloodsky Clan would give him face.

As if she knew what Zhang Ruochen was thinking, Blood Empress explained, “Wargod Bloodximius is about to become the new clan leader of the Bloodsky Clan.”

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen suddenly realized that the clan leader was the most powerful person in the tribe. Who would dare to neglect him?

If they wanted to get any benefits from the Fane of Immortality, they had to rely on the clan leader to fight for them.

The stronger the clan leader was, the more prosperous the clan was.

In the past, the Bloodsky Clan also had a powerful clan leader. Unfortunately, he died in the fierce divine war that took place ten myriad years ago.

After that, although the Fane of Immortality had appointed a new leader, his strength was much weaker.

Now, Wargod Bloodixmius was finally going to become the clan leader. Most of the gods of the Bloodsky Clan were very supportive. They felt that this was a chance for the Bloodsky Clan to rise again.

The gods of the Bloodsky Clan seemed to be here to congratulate the Blood Empress and Lord Ming on becoming gods, but they were here for Wargod Bloodximius.

“I’ll be there then,” Zhang Ruochen said with a nod.

As Blood Empress’s only son, he couldn’t miss such an important time.

After a moment of silence, Blood Empress said, “My son, you’ve activated the Immortal Vampires’ bloodline and grown wings. You can receive the blessings of the Blood Spring. It’ll be easier for you to control the power of the wings.”

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a moment. “Mother, just make the arrangements.”

The wings had already grown. This was a fact that could not be changed. Instead of caring about this, it was better to think about how to become stronger.

“The Xue Jue Family has had the Blood Spring since ancient times. It can allow you to receive the most thorough blessings and activate the primitive power of the bloodline,” Blood Empress said.

What she had prepared for Zhang Ruochen was naturally the best.

Chapter 2223: The Ten Wings

After passing through a special dimensional barrier, the space in front of him suddenly became clear. It was a world of difference from the outside world.

Zhang Ruochen could feel that the Saint Qi of heaven and earth in this space were extremely dense. It almost turned into a liquid state. The Precepts of heaven and earth were also very active and gave out a strange rhythm.

Zhang Ruochen saw many tall trees. Each of them was more than 1,000 meters tall. Their branches were luxuriant and they gave off an extremely dense blood qi. They turned into blood clouds and filled the entire world.

Under each towering tree, there was a pool with a diameter of about 100 meters. It was filled with bright red liquid and as thick as blood, but it gave off a strange fragrance. It was refreshing and intoxicating.

“Longevity Blood Tree,” Zhang Ruochen said softly.

The Xue Jue Family was huge. There were hundreds of millions of members in the family. It was normal to plant a large number of Longevity Blood Trees.

With the methods of the Xue Jue Family, the quality of the blood produced by the Longevity Blood Tree must be extraordinary.

Zhang Ruochen could tell at a glance that the energy contained in the blood pools before him could reach the level of human blood in the Fish-dragon Realm.

Some of the blood pools could even reach the level of half-saint and Saint Blood.

Zhang Ruochen knew that if he wanted to get high-quality blood, he had to invest a lot of saint stones to cultivate the Longevity Blood Tree with a special secret method so that it could grow for a very long time.

Although the Longevity Blood Tree had strong vitality, it could only survive for a myriad of years under normal circumstances. Only by cultivating it with secret methods could it survive for one or even more periods.

The older the Longevity Blood Tree was, the better the quality of the blood it produced.

Of course, although the amount of blood here was huge, the blood could not be used directly. Secret techniques had to be used to extract and condense the blood. It was far less convenient than absorbing the blood from a cultivator.

Blood Empress said, “This is the most important forest of Longevity Blood Tree of the Xue Jue Family. It is a core resource. Each Longevity Blood Tree has been growing for at least a myriad of years. The quality of the blood it produces is high enough to be used by most of the elite members of the family.”

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly. Perhaps only a big family like the Xue Jue Family with a long history and a deep foundation could cultivate such a large-scale forest of Longevity Blood Tree.

This should also be an important foundation for the Xue Jue Family to produce many powerful figures.

The deeper he went, the taller the Longevity Blood Tree he saw. The quality of the blood it produced was also higher. There was even a blood pool comparable to the quality of a Supreme Saint’s blood.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen stopped and locked his gaze on an exceptionally huge Longevity Blood Tree in the distance.

This Longevity Blood Tree was covered in layers of blood clouds. Its trunk was dozens of miles in diameter. Its bark glowed with golden light, and there was a strong divine force emanating from it.

Even the blood in the blood pool below it was different from the others. It was golden in color, and there was a thick divine aura spreading out.

“That’s the mother tree. All the Longevity Blood Trees here are derived from it. It has grown for more than ten Yuanhui Tribulations. If nurtured with Godstones, it can produce blood comparable to divine blood. There were no more than fifty trees within the entire Immortal Vampires,” Blood Empress explained.

Just this ancient Longevity Blood Tree was enough to show how powerful the Xue Jue Family was.

Zhang Ruochen’s heart skipped a beat. He hadn’t expected a tree to be as old as Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations.

Perhaps it was because it was a tree that could live for so long.

Even though gods were powerful, they would almost always die in the face of a Yuanhui Tribulation. It was rare for gods to live for ten Yuanhui Tribulations.

‘This mother tree must be a god-level lifeform to be able to give birth to Divine Blood.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

He looked in another direction. Not far from the mother tree, there was a huge statue that was tens of thousands of miles tall. It looked like a divine giant overlooking the entire Bloodsky Clan world.

Even in the distant starry sky, one could see the outline of the statue.

The statue was an Immortal Vampire. It wore golden armor and looked extraordinary. It has twenty-four pairs of golden wings on its back and it looked very lifelike. There was even an obscure divine aura emanating from it.

Below the statue, there was a deep spring and viscous blood flowed out. It gave off an ancient aura. It seemed to have existed for countless years.

With just a glance, Zhang Ruochen knew that it was the Immortal Blood Spring from the ancient times that Blood Empress had mentioned.

It was incredible that a single blood spring could span so many eras and never dry up.

“Huh? That’s...”

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen made a discovery.

There was a figure sitting cross-legged by the ancient Immortal Blood Spring, absorbing its ancient blood qi.

That person had long, blood-red hair, a slender body, and an extremely strong murderous aura. There was also a terrifying flame burning fiercely.

More importantly, there was a phantom standing behind that person. It was extremely majestic and seemed to have a life of its own. It was overflowing with fighting spirit.

“Xue Tu.”

Zhang Ruochen was slightly surprised.

This was an extremely important secret land of the Xue Jue Family. Xue Tu should not be cultivating here.

Zhang Ruochen could sense that Xue Tu was very different from before, but he did not know why.

Xue Tu was also a Supreme Saint now. Although he had just broken through, the Saint power he exuded was terrifying. It wasn't something an ordinary Neverwilt Supreme Saint could compare to.

A divine light flashed. Blood Empress appeared in front of the ancient Immortal Blood Spring with Zhang Ruochen.

“I have asked someone to take Xue Tu away because his birth chart is very special. Wargod Bloodflame of Immortal Vampire died in the second gradient of the Endless Abyss, leaving the Mark of Wargod Bloodflame. Xue Tu can inherit it,” Blood Empress said with a smile.

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen suddenly realized that the majestic phantom standing behind Xue Tu must have been formed by the Mark of Wargod.

For Blood Empress to pay so much attention to it, the Mark of Wargod Bloodflame must be very unusual.

It had to be said that Xue Tu's qi was very strong. He was recognized by the Seamless Purgatory Tower and had a special birth chart that inherited the Mark of Wargod Bloodflame.

Blood Empress continued, “I have taken him as a disciple and specially brought him to the Xue Jue Family. With the help of the blessings of the ancient Immortal Blood Spring, he can activate the Mark of Wargod Bloodflame. He can be reborn and successfully forged the Neverwilt Saint physique here.”

It turned out that Xue Tu had become the disciple of the Blood Empress. It was no wonder that he could come here to cultivate.

“Mother, what should I do?” Zhang Ruochen asked as he collected his thoughts.

He came here to receive the blessings of the Immortal Blood Spring. What happened to Xue Tu had nothing to do with him.

Blood Empress said, “This Immortal Blood Spring was discovered by the ancestor of the Xue Jue Family. That’s why the Xue Jue Family was established here. Only the most outstanding disciples of the family are qualified to be blessed here, and this is the true vessel of the ancestor.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes couldn’t help but change slightly after hearing that. He thought it was a statue, but it turned out to be the true vessel of the ancestor of the Xue Jue Family. No wonder it gave him a special feeling.

Different races had different sizes of divine bodies.

For example, the human god’s physique was measured in meters. The dragon god’s physique was measured in miles. The ant god’s physique was measured in centimeters and the Immortal Vampire god’s physique was measured in myriads of miles.

Whether it was the height of this ancestor’s godly physique or the number of wings he had, they were all too terrifying. No one knew how strong his blood qi was when he was alive.

“If you want to receive the most thorough blessing, you need to enter the Immortal Blood Spring with your true body. However, you will have to endure great pain,” said Blood Empress

Pausing for a moment..., then Blood Empress continued, “There is one thing that I need to remind you of first. The blessing of the Immortal Blood Spring will make the blood of the Immortal Vampires purer. Chen ‘er, you have the blood of the human race. If you don’t know your limits, you may be assimilated.

“If you choose to be assimilated, the process won’t be dangerous.”

“If you want to keep the human bloodline... I hope that you can do what you can. If you can’t, you can leave the Immortal Blood Spring. It’s just a blessing. It’s nothing.”

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment. He took off his shirt and jumped into the Immortal Blood Spring.

Blood Empress didn’t leave and she stood guard.

The blessing of the Immortal Blood Spring wouldn’t take too long. It could take as long as one day or three days. The key was the strength and endurance of one’s bloodline.

As soon as he dived into the Immortal Blood Spring, Zhang Ruochen immediately felt great pressure. Waves of cold power seeped into his body through his pores, almost freezing his blood.

At the same time, an extremely ancient aura entered his body and slowly combined with his bloodline.

Instantly, Zhang Ruochen’s Immortal Vampire bloodline was fully awakened. He couldn’t help but turn into an Immortal Vampire. Eight huge golden wings spread open. The arcane runes on them all appeared clearly, they shone with dazzling golden light.

Boundless blood qi gathered toward the eight golden wings, forming a thick blood cloud that enveloped Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were blood-red. Despite his strong mental will, he still showed pain.

Zhang Ruochen stabilized his mind and he activated the Emyrean Emperor Ming’s Scripture with all his strength and took the initiative to mobilize the power of the Immortal Blood Spring to refine his body.

At a certain moment, Zhang Ruochen had an epiphany. A method to circulate the blood qi appeared in his blood. His blood qi couldn't help but circulate according to this method.

All of a sudden, the circulation of the blood qi in Zhang Ruochen sped up. He transferred a large amount of blood qi from the Immortal Blood Spring into himself.

In this way, Zhang Ruochen's blood qi increased rapidly. There seemed to be no limit.

In the blink of an eye, a day passed.

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and endured the pain. At the same time, he tried his best to control the Immortal Vampire bloodline so that his human bloodline wouldn't be devoured.

He did not want to become an Immortal Vampire completely no matter what.

'I've reached my limit. If the Immortal Vampire bloodline continues to awaken, I won't be able to control it,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

He wanted to continue cultivating in the Immortal Blood Spring to refine his physical body and spiritual will. The situation would be completely out of his control if he continues.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to leave the Immortal Blood Spring, his body suddenly shook.

Half of the human bloodline throbbed at this moment. It released an extremely ancient aura that went against the Immortal Vampire bloodline.

Boom

A terrifying will was awakened from Zhang Ruochen's human bloodline.

The Immortal Vampire's bloodline was suppressed and started to retreat. Its characteristics in Zhang Ruochen started to disappear.

Next, an extremely tall figure appeared outside Zhang Ruochen's body.

Bang

The phantom of the Wargod Bloodflame behind Xue Tu was hit and couldn't help but take a step back.

Because of this, Xue Tu retreated from his state of cultivation. Surprise appeared in his eyes.

"Greetings, Master," said Xue Tu.

Xue Tu stood up and bowed respectfully to Blood Empress.

Blood Empress's gaze was locked on the tall figure outside Zhang Ruochen's body. Her eyes shone with a strange light. "The revival of the Immortal Vampire bloodline has activated the will of the Immovable Wisdom King in Chen 'er's human bloodline."

The Immovable Wisdom King was a legendary figure in Kunlun. He was so ancient that many people didn't believe that he existed.

Now that Zhang Ruochen's bloodline had revealed the will of the Immovable Wisdom King, it was undoubted proof of all this.

At this moment, a change occurred again. The flesh wings on Xue Jue Family's ancestor's true vessel suddenly trembled. They released a streak of blood light and entered Zhang Ruochen's body.

Instantly, the Immortal Vampire bloodline that had been suppressed began to boil again. Powerful bloodline power burst forth.

Another tall figure appeared outside Zhang Ruochen's body. It was the same as the Xue Jue Family's ancestor.

The two tall figures stood side by side. Their formless wills clashed, but neither could do anything to the other.

For a moment, the Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth in this space became chaotic. There were signs of a storm of Saint Qi.

Under such circumstances, Blood Empress could not just stand by and watch. She waved her hand and released a streak of divine force, quickly calming the Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth.

However, Blood Empress didn't interfere with what happened in the Immortal Blood Spring to prevent it from affecting Zhang Ruochen.

Xue Tu's eyes were serious. Even though it was only the will of the Immovable Wisdom King and the ancestor of the Xue Jue Family, it still had a strong impact on his mind.

If he hadn't activated the Wargod Bloodflame's Mark and reached the Supreme Saint Realm, he would probably be prostrating on the ground now.

'How powerful is Zhang Ruochen's bloodline power?' Xue Tu thought.

Even though he was no longer the same as before, there was still a big gap between him and Zhang Ruochen.

The fierce collision between the human bloodline and the Immortal Vampire bloodline caused Zhang Ruochen great pain. He felt like his body was about to explode, and his spirit and will were about to split apart.

Roar

Zhang Ruochen suddenly raised his head and let out a deafening roar.

CRASH!

A majestic blood qi rushed out from Zhang Ruochen's back.

In the next moment, another pair of golden wings grew out.

It was also at this time that the figure of the Immovable Wisdom King and the figure of the ancestor of the Xue Jue Family entered Zhang Ruochen's body at the same time. All the pressure disappeared without a trace as if it had never appeared.

Boom

The ten golden wings on Zhang Ruochen's back fluttered. He flew out of the Immortal Blood Spring immediately.

Floating in the air, the ten golden wings fully unfolded. Golden light flashed as they crazily absorbed the rich Saint Qi of heaven and earth.

A vast amount of the Precepts of heaven and earth were activated and revolved around Zhang Ruochen. Everything was under his control.

Just as Blood Empress had said, after the blessings of the Immortal Blood Spring, Zhang Ruochen could better control his wings and every strand of his power.

He felt better than ever.

The two types of bloodline power in his body were in balance. It was like yin-yang tai chi, allowing him to transform between the human form and the Immortal Vampire form at will.

Xue Tu stared at Zhang Ruochen, his eyes full of surprise. He wasn't surprised that Zhang Ruochen had golden wings, but he was surprised by the number of golden wings.

It was hard to imagine that someone who had just reached the Neverwilt Realm could have ten golden wings.

Different from when he first saw golden wings, Zhang Ruochen smiled now.

He could feel that his body and the Precepts of Heaven and Earth of the Infernal Court were now perfectly compatible.

Previously, he had spent decades using the Sundial to comprehend nearly two hundred million Precepts. It was mainly because he hadn't fully integrated with the Precepts of heaven and earth of the Infernal Court yet. There was always repulsion and his comprehension speed was greatly affected, this was also an important reason why it was difficult for him to break through to the mid-stage of the Neverwilt Realm.

Zhang Ruochen had four pairs of golden wings before. If that time came, he could perfectly integrate with the Precepts of heaven and earth of the Infernal Court and put them to good use. How could he comprehend two hundred million Precepts for such a long time?

Even without the help of the Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber, he only needed thirty years to comprehend two hundred million Precepts.

The help of golden wings to comprehend the Precepts was very obvious. Now, with an additional pair of golden wings, Zhang Ruochen's comprehension speed could double.

In other words, he only needed fifteen years to comprehend two hundred million Precepts.

If he continued using the Divine Dragon Enlightenment Chamber, the speed of comprehension would be even faster.

Zhang Ruochen roughly calculated that the speed of comprehending the Precepts was about ten times faster than before the blessing.

Chapter 2224: Spiritual Power Supreme Saint

Zhang Ruochen put away his ten golden wings and slowly landed beside Blood Empress. The unusual Blood Qi from the ancient Blood Spring continued to flow into his body, nourishing his body and strengthening his acupoints.

Compared to before, Zhang Ruochen's temperament had obviously changed. There was an indescribable nobility in him that made people feel themselves inferior.

The reason was that Zhang Ruochen had activated the bloodline of both the Immovable Wisdom King and Progenitor Bloodximius. He had fused a wisp of their wills into his body.

"Congratulations, senior. Your cultivation has greatly improved. Your bloodline has evolved. You've attained ten wings. This is truly rare." Xue Tu laughed.

He had already become Blood Empress' disciple, so he was no longer hostile to Zhang Ruochen like he did. It was proper for him to call Zhang Ruochen Senior.

Furthermore, with Zhang Ruochen's achievements, Xue Tu was indeed impressed. Even though he had inherited the mark of Wargod Bloodflame, he was not on par with Zhang Ruochen.

Under normal circumstances, when an Immortal Vampire attained Supreme Sainthood, they would grow three pairs of wings. Usually, they needed to reach Paramount Realm to grow five pairs of wings.

Of course, there were a few powerful Supreme Saints would grow more than five pairs of wings.

Zhang Ruochen had just reached Neverwilt Realm, and his number of wings was already comparable to that of a Supreme Saint at Paramount Realm. When his cultivation reached Paramount Realm, who knew how many more pairs of wings he would have?

Zhang Ruochen said, “Only ten wings.”

The Progenitor Bloodximus was right in front of him. Who could be proud?

Then, Zhang Ruochen said to Blood Empress, “Mother, the baptism has been completed. I should go back and continue to cultivate in seclusion. I will appear at God-ascension Ceremony.”

“Alright. I should also make some preparations,” said Blood Empress.

As one of the main attention in God-ascension Ceremony, Blood Empress would be busy since the deities of Bloodysky Clan would be there.

Without stopping, Zhang Ruochen left the ancient secret territory.

“Senior, please wait.”

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to return to his residence, Xue Tu’s voice suddenly sounded.

Zhang Ruochen turned around and looked at Xue Tu. “What do you want?”

Zhang Ruochen really had nothing to say about Xue Tu. After all, there had been a great feud between them, and Zhang Ruochen had almost died at his hands.

Even though Zhang Ruochen could let it go because of Blood Empress, their relationship was not close to that of between senior and junior.

Xue Tu looked like he wanted to say something but hesitated. After a while, he said, “Senior, could you return Seamless Purgatory Tower to me?”

Xue Tu knew how Zhang Ruochen treated him, but he could not do anything about it. Seamless Purgatory Tower was too important that he had to take it back.

“You want Seamless Purgatory Tower back? Why do you think I’ll return it to you? It is mine since it has fallen in my hands.

“You’re already a Supreme Saint. I shouldn’t be teaching you this.”

Moon Goddess’ image with her shameless attitude appeared in Zhang Ruochen’s mind, and he learned from her.

Of course, he wasn’t shameless.

What he took from his enemy was what he deserved.

Seamless Purgatory Tower was a Supreme Artifact that had killed deities. Even if it was damaged, its value was still immeasurable.

Xue Tu said, “Senior, you can name your conditions. I will do it if it’s within my ability.”

As a Supreme Saint, Xue Tu had no choice but to compromise.

He did not own Seamless Purgatory Tower. Its true owner was his father, Bloodlucius.

Bloodlucius had given Xue Tu Seamless Purgatory Tower for the time being in the hope that he could make a contribution in Kunlun and seize the treasures left behind by Kunlun deities.

Unexpectedly, Xue Tu had been defeated by Zhang Ruochen in his first battle in Kunlun. He had escaped with serious injuries.

He had finally recovered from his injuries and wanted to seize the treasures left behind by Blood God, but he was suppressed by Xue Lingxian. Seamless Purgatory Tower had also fallen into Zhang Ruochen’s hands.

Thinking of this, Xue Tu felt depressed and aggrieved.

He was a son of deity with a noble status. His combat strength was strong wielding a Supreme Artifact. He should have dominated all the battlefields participated by cultivators of ranks below Supreme Sainthood.

He had never thought that things would turn out like this.

No matter what, Xue Tu could not let his father know that Seamless Purgatory Tower had been taken away.

Therefore, before his father came to God-ascension Ceremony, he had to get Seamless Purgatory Tower back.

Zhang Ruochen guessed that the reason Xue Tu wanted Seamless Purgatory Tower back was likely related to Xue Tu's father.

Other than the cultivators of Kunlun, how could cultivators of other Macroworlds below Supreme Sainthood have a Supreme Artifact?

The number of Supreme Artifacts in Kunlun far exceeded the number of Supreme Saints and deities. That was why it was possible for Saint Kings and Saints in Kunlun to have Supreme Artifacts.

The number of Supreme Saints and deities in other Macroworlds, including Infernal Court, far exceeded the number of Supreme Artifacts. It was normal for Supreme Saints to not have Supreme Artifacts.

The Supreme Artifacts used by Saint Kings on Battlefields of Merits in Kunlun were all temporarily given to them by deities or Supreme Saints. After completing the task, they had to be returned.

"The power of deities is omnipotent. It's possible that Xue Tu's father has already predicted that Seamless Purgatory Tower has fallen into my hands."

Zhang Ruochen thought carefully about all the possibilities. He stared at Xue Tu, who had a bitter look on his face. "It's not impossible to give you Seamless Purgatory Tower."

"Really?" Xue Tu was delighted.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Don't be so happy yet. This is a Supreme Artifact. Do you think I'll just give it back to you? Help me do something. Once it's done, we'll talk."

"What do you need me to do?" Xue Tu asked quickly.

It was a good thing to have room for discussion. He was really afraid that Zhang Ruochen wouldn't give him a chance.

Zhang Ruochen said in a low voice, "I'm going to find someone. It's him."

As he spoke, Zhang Ruochen released a stream of power and condensed a lifelike projection of a figure. It was Sword Saint Xuanji, who had not been heard since entering Netherworld.

Since Zhang Ruochen was now in Infernal Court, he wanted to look for Xuanji.

Zhang Ruochen's relationship with his master Xuanji was close that he had been missing Xuanji since Xuanji's departure to Netherworld.

He wondered what the old man was doing there.

"Who is he? Where should I find him?" Xue Tu asked.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes darkened. After a long while, he sighed. "He is my master. He died in Netherworld behind Godfall Cryptwoods in Kunlun's Eastern Region. It is very likely that he has become a Corpusian."

Zhang Ruochen certainly could not tell Xue Tu realm circumstances about Sword Saint Xuanji.

Hearing this, Xue Tu frowned, "The Netherworld of Kunlun is derived from Infernal Court's Sanzu River. When a cultivator enter Infernal Court through it, it is hard to say which region they will reach. It won't be easy to look for him."

Sanzu River was vast. It flowed in the starry sky and was the origin of Corpusian, Bone clan, and Ghost. It was shrouded in darkness and the aura of death. It was a forbidden land for living beings.

The Immortal Vampires, Asura, and Rakshasa rarely set foot in Sanzu River region.

"If it were easy, I wouldn't ask you to do it," Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu smiled bitterly, "Senior, you only suspect that your master has become a Corpusian. You are not certain.

"If his body is still in Sanzu River, how can I find it?

"It's like finding a needle in a haystack. You are making things difficult for me

“If you really wanted to find your master, you could have asked Master to help you. With God’s means, you can easily find out your master’s situation.”

The task was with too little hope, so Xue Tu did not want to do it.

If a deity could deduce Sword Saint Xuanji’s whereabouts, Sword Saint Xuanji would have died in Infernal Court long ago.

There must be a powerful cultivator who covered up all everything about Sword Saint Xuanji. Zhang Ruochen guessed that there must be a very powerful Kunlun deity who was still alive and stayed hidden in Infernal Court.

“You are a Supreme Saint, yet it’s hard for you to look for someone. I’m disappointed. I wonder if my mother has made the right decision to take you as her disciple.

“Anyway, I’ve given you the chance. Since you don’t want to take it, give up the idea of recovering Seamless Purgatory Tower,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Hearing this, Xue Tu became anxious. He gritted his teeth and said, “Okay, I’ll go find him. I’ll do my best.”

He could not care less about the dignity of a Supreme Saint.

If he could not get Seamless Purgatory Tower back, his father might be able to do it himself. But his father would definitely be disappointed. by him

“This must be done in secret. No one should know about it,” Zhang Ruochen said seriously.

Then, Zhang Ruochen opened the gate of Qiankun Realm and released someone. It was Lord of Stone whom he had subdued on True Dragon Island.

“Lord of Stone will join you.”

Lord of Stone’s eyes were indifferent. Without saying a word, he walked to Xue Tu’s side and patted him on the shoulder.

Xue Tu did not expect such a powerful figure to exist beside Zhang Ruochen.

He was already a Supreme Saint of Neverwilt Realm and had the mark of Wargod Bloodflame. However, he still felt a lot of pressure when facing Lord of Stone.

‘The number of Supreme Saints, whose cultivation rank is below godhood, was very few. Zhang Ruochen has just become a Supreme Saint. How can he command a Supreme Saint from Stone Clan? We are both Scions, we are both talented, yet the gap between us is big. Why?’ Xue Tu felt very upset.

“Please rest assured, Senior. I will do my best.”

Immediately, Xue Tu took Lord of Stone with him, wanting to complete this mission as soon as possible.

“Master, Where are you? What are you doing?” Zhang Ruochen was full of questions.

In order to ensure elder Xuanji’s safety, Zhang Ruochen had secretly ordered Lord of Stone to kill Xue Tu if Xue Tu had any intention of leaking the news.

If he had not thought about it, why would Zhang Ruochen specially arrange for Lord of Stone to follow Xue Tu?

After watching Xue Tu and Lord of Stone leave the Xue Jue family’s territory, Zhang Ruochen wasted no more time. He directly returned to his residence, restarted Sundial, and continued to cultivate in seclusion.

However, Zhang Ruochen wasn’t in a hurry to refine the dragon and elephant souls he’d bought. Instead, he focused all his attention on practicing his spiritual power.

His powerful spiritual power was completely absorbed into his Saint heart and refined over and over again.

The cultivation of spiritual power was far more difficult than the cultivation of martial arts. A spiritual power Supreme Saint was a rare existence.

Even though his spiritual power had reached the peak of level 59 and was infinitely close to level 60, it was as very difficult to achieve it.

For example, Grand Chamberlain Wang Shiqi, was known as the saint of Confucianism. He was extremely talented, but after practicing for more than 1,000 years, he still could not cultivate his spiritual power to level 60.

With Imperial Ruler, Zhang Ruochen had condensed his spiritual power to the extreme. His quality and quantity had reached the limits of the spiritual power Saint King. Few could compare.

After experiencing the death tribulation, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual will became even stronger.

The revival of the will of the Immovable Wisdom King king and the ancestor of the Xue Jue family had finally given Zhang Ruochen a chance to break through.

The profound of truth in his body was mobilized to help him break through the 60th level.

Zhang Ruochen had accumulated enough. With the help of the profound of truth, the 60th level naturally could not stop him.

BOOM!

Zhang Ruochen's saint heart trembled. Countless lightning power flowed over it like spiritual snakes, as if they had life.

After breaking through the level, Zhang Ruochen's vigorous spiritual power immediately began to compress rapidly, turning into spiritual power thoughts.

Each spiritual power thought was condensed from thousands of spiritual power, and had a qualitative change. In a moment, all of Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power condensed into 500 thoughts.

These thoughts condensed into a human shape and flew in Zhang Ruochen's Saint Heart.

In front of all the thoughts stood two extremely tall and mighty figures. They were the spiritual wills of Acalanātha sage king and the ancestor of the Xue Jue family, who had entered Zhang Ruochen's body previously.

Compared to these two spiritual wills, the 500 spiritual power thoughts that Zhang Ruochen had condensed appeared extremely small. They were like 500 ants looking up at two divine dragons.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen could have condensed more spiritual power thoughts, but because of the influence of these two wills, his spiritual power was highly condensed. It was stronger in nature, and the number decreased.

With a thought, Zhang Ruochen released all 500 spiritual power thoughts and turned them into 500 spiritual power clones.

Each spiritual power clone was comparable to a spiritual power saint.

As long as Zhang Ruochen was willing, he could do 500 things at once and let the spiritual power clones do different things.

Of course, he could also let 500 spiritual power clones learn something at the same time. Although the efficiency was only comparable to that of a saint and was far from the learning speed of a Supreme Saint like Zhang Ruochen, it was still quite amazing when stacked together.

There was another great benefit of becoming a spiritual power Supreme Saint and condensing spiritual power thoughts. As long as it was within the range of his spiritual power, he could instantly place his spiritual power clones anywhere, he could also retrieve it in an instant.

“There really is a world of difference between a spiritual power saint and a spiritual power Saint King. Spiritual Power Thoughts can permeate the heaven and earth and communicate with the surrounding Precepts in a deep level. No wonder he can summon souls for people.” Zhang Ruochen was enlightened.

However, with just 500 spiritual power thoughts, he obviously could not summon souls for people. He would probably die from the backlash of the surrounding Precepts before he could recall a few souls.

Soon, Zhang Ruochen calmed down again, sorted out and familiarized himself with the condensed thoughts of spiritual power, and consolidated his cultivation of spiritual power.

His previous accumulation was very strong, so after his breakthrough, his cultivation of spiritual power rose steadily and did not stop growing.

After practicing for 18 years, Zhang Ruochen condensed 3,000 thoughts of spiritual power, which increased six times from the original foundation. Therefore, his cultivation of spiritual power was raised to the mid stage of the 60th level.

Not only that, his cultivation of martial arts had also broken through smoothly and reached the mid stage of Neverwilt Realm.

There were still about 10 days before God-ascension Ceremony, so Zhang Ruochen was not in a hurry to come out of seclusion.

Zhang Ruochen released the space saint phase, time saint phase, sword saint phase, fist saint phase, and acalanātha saintly phase, he comprehended space, time, wordless sword manual, Luo Water Fist technique, and demon suppression respectively.

The three thousand mental energy thoughts turned into three thousand mental energy clones. They cultivated swords, practiced fist techniques, and drew spatial inscriptions. They assisted him in comprehending various techniques.

As for the Palm Dao sacred form, it was left in his body. He wanted to focus on cultivating the thirteenth palm of the Dragon Elephant Prajna palm.

The Dragon and elephant souls of the hundred-flail realm had been bought back. Naturally, he had to use them.

If he could practice a high-level hundred-flail realm saint spell as soon as possible, it would undoubtedly greatly increase his strength.

For Zhang Ruochen, it was not difficult for him to accommodate two dragon souls and two elephant souls of the hundred-flail realm with his Demigod-level body. It would not hurt his body.

The real difficulty was to control the majestic Yang energy. A slight mistake could lead to Qi deviation.

Practicing the dragon and elephant destruction required a huge amount of yang qi.

Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen had the divine Yang formed by the seven star divine tuber leaves in his body, which could solve the problem of yang qi.

As he absorbed more and more Yang Qi, Zhang Ruochen's body became hotter and hotter. His skin became red like red-hot gold and iron.

The Divine Dragon Enlightenment Room was extraordinary. It could contain this kind of heat without being damaged and without being detected by the outside world.

When Zhang Ruochen refined the first dragon soul, the Yang energy in his body had reached 700,000 times that of an ordinary person. Every pore in his body was spewing flames, and the Blood Qi in his body was boiling.

After the second dragon soul fused into his arm, the Yang energy was 800,000 times that of an ordinary person. His Qi and blood were as violent as a dragon, almost bursting his body.

The heart-burning flames directly affected Zhang Ruochen's spiritual will. The pain was indescribable.

RAWWRRRR

After refining the two elephant souls into his arm, Zhang Ruochen could not help but let out a dragon's Roar and an elephant's roar. A terrifying Yang fire rose from his body, as if it wanted to burn the heavens.

Along with the Supreme Saint Dragon Soul and the Supreme Saint elephant soul that he had refined in the Saint King Realm, three Dragon Souls and three elephant souls appeared on both sides of Zhang Ruochen. They were extremely solid, as if they had real bodies. They released a powerful aura that could suppress the heavens,

The dragon and elephant souls that he had refined had not been devoured. Zhang Ruochen planned to continue cultivating them and let them grow step by step. This would pave the way for the next step of cultivation.

With the powerful Blood Qi he had now, it wouldn't take him too long to raise the dragon and elephant souls to the hundred-flail realm.

The second stage of Dragon-Elephant Destruction required refining of five dragon souls and five elephant souls of Thousand-Koan Realm.

With Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation and strength, he did not dare to think about this.

'Just by practicing Dragon-Elephant Destruction to minor completion, the Yang energy in my body has reached a million times that of an ordinary person. If I practice to Great Perfection, how strong will it be?' Zhang Ruochen guessed.

Practicing Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike seemed to be a breeze, but in fact, it was extremely dangerous. With his current spiritual will, he almost could not bear it.

If he released all his Yang Qi, it could melt the stars in an instant. Nothing would grow within tens of thousands of miles.

No matter what, Zhang Ruochen had finally practiced Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike into advanced Saint Technique at Hundred-Shackle level. It was the first Hundred-Shackle level technique he had mastered.

Even many Supreme Saints at Hundred-Shackle Realm found it hard to practice one successfully.

Chapter 2225: Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan

The day before God-ascension Ceremony, Xue Tu and Lord of Stone rushed back to Xue Jue family. Zhang Ruochen also came out of seclusion and ended his cultivation.

“Have you found anything about my master?” Zhang Ruochen asked directly.

He may look calm on the outside, but his heart was full of expectation. He was hoping for good news.

Xue Tu said, “I’ve used all the connections in Fane of Bloodlucius to secretly investigate this matter. I’ve found 13 Corpusian cultivators who might be your master. Please take a look, senior.”

As he spoke, Xue Tu took out a special crystal and handed it to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen took it and released his spiritual power. He probed into the crystal and immediately gained a lot of information from it.

The crystal recorded the general information of the 13 Corpusian cultivators, including their identity, background, cultivation level, and strength. Each of them looked very similar to Sword Saint Xuanji.

The weakest among the 13 Corpusian cultivators was only a Demi-Saint, while the strongest was a Supreme Saint. They were from different Corpusian power.

It took less than a month for Xue Tu to get this information. He was rather quite capable.

The territory of Corpusian was vast. They occupied countless stars, and there were trillions of them. It wasn’t easy to find 13 cultivators who looked like Sword Saint Xuanji.

Zhang Ruochen memorized the information of the 13 Corpusian cultivators. Therefore, he could check them one by one.

If he was lucky, one of them might really be Sword Saint Xuanji.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen also understood that the possibility was low. Sword Saint Xuanji must have been extremely cautious in Infernal Court. He would not want to be easily found.

In fact, Sword Saint Xuanji might have changed his appearance in Infernal Court and turned into a completely different person.

Sword Saint Xuanji had taught Zhang Ruochen “Thirty-six Formless Transmogrification”. Hence, Sword Saint Xuanji had higher attainments in this aspect.

‘Even if there is only a slight possibility, I will try my best to find him. Master, oh Master, why did you stay in Infernal Court?’ Zhang Ruochen thought to himself.

“Senior, is your master among them?” Xue Tu asked.

Zhang Ruochen turned to look at Xue Tu. He shook his head slightly and said, ” How would I know if you ask me? In Infernal Court, I can find a lot of Immortal Vampires who look like you,”

“Sanzu River basin is vast. It will take a long time to investigate all Corpusian. I’ll continue after Master’s God-ascension Ceremony,” Xue Tu said quickly.

“Do you think my master will stay in Sanzu River region? Every clan in Infernal Court must be investigated,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Yes, Senior. You’re right.”

After a pause, Xue tu asked tentatively, “Senior, could you give me Seamless Purgatory Tower first? I need it for my recent cultivation.”

When Zheng Ruo Chen heard this, his heart skipped a beat. Xue Tu’s eagerness to return to Seamless Purgatory Tower was definitely not for cultivation. It was most likely because Bloodlucius was coming to attend God-ascension Ceremony. Hence, he wanted to prepare in advance.

Bloodlucius was an ancient god of Bloodysky Clan. He was quite powerful as he had survived a Yuanhui Tribulation. He also had a good relationship with Wargod Bloodximius because they had grown up in the same era.

The majority of deities wouldn't rush to Xue Jue family until God-ascension Ceremony was held. However, Bloodlucius might already be in Xue Jue family.

Just now, Zhang Ruochen vaguely sensed an obscure divine thought sweeping over his body. Although it disappeared in an instant after.

It wasn't a good thing to be noticed by a powerful ancient god.

Those who had broken the limits of a God's life as one survived Yuanhui Tribulation — even only once— would be one of the top gods.

This kind of God was very terrifying in the entire universe.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Since you're so serious, I can lend you Seamless Purgatory Tower for a day. But you have to return it by this time tomorrow."

"Thank you, senior,"

Xue Tu smiled in surprise.

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and took out a semi-sealed Seamless Purgatory Tower.

He had thought about refining Seamless Purgatory Tower, but he found that a mark left by a deity in the tower not erasable. Therefore, he just sealed it.

It wasn't just Seamless Purgatory Tower. Almost all the other Supreme Artifact and divine relics Zhang Ruochen had obtained were the same.

Only the Golden Sun of Destruction belonged to Sunshine Civilization's Scions. It had been refined by elder Tianzhu.

Therefore, after killing Sunshine tianzi, Zhang Ruochen could successfully refine the Golden Sun of Destruction.

There was also Zangshan Demonic Mirror, which was accidentally obtained by Nine-Eye Heavenly Lord in Kunlun's field. When he got it, it lacked a core item and had no vessel spirit in it. Thus, it was easy to refine it.

Xue Tu stared at Seamless Purgatory Tower with excitement in his eyes. This treasure was finally returned to him.

“Remember, I’m only lending you Seamless Purgatory Tower, not giving it to you. If you don’t return it to me tomorrow, you’ll have to bear the consequences,” Zhang Ruochen said seriously.

Xue Tu smiled sheepishly, “I understand, I understand. Don’t worry, senior.”

After taking Seamless Purgatory Tower from Zhang Ruochen, Xue Tu’s heart finally settled.

“Tomorrow is God-ascension Ceremony. senior, you should have a lot of things to do, so I won’t disturb you anymore!” Xue Tu said quickly and left Zhang Ruochen’s residence.

Seeing Xue Tu leave, Zhang Ruochen said in a low voice, “God-ascension Ceremony is a good chance to see how many heaven-blessed figures there are in Bloodysky Clan.”

Celestial-Hunting Festival held by Fane of Destiny was of a very high standard. The ten clans of Infernal Court all attached great importance to it. Naturally, Bloodsky clan was no exception. Therefore, they would definitely send all their elites to attend.

Although Zhang Ruochen didn’t know much about the specifics of Celestial-Hunting Festival. But he knew that only Saint Kings and Supreme Saints who weren’t more than 1,000 years old were qualified to participate.

To be more precise, the participants were of Nine-Step Saint King, Supreme Saints from Neverwilt Realm, and Hundred-Shackle Realm.

It wasn’t that no one could reach Thousand-Koan Realm within 1,000 years.

But once their cultivation reached Thousand-Koan Realm, they would truly come into contact with Universe’s Principles and pry into the mysteries of becoming gods. They stood at different heights, and the focus of their cultivation was no longer to pursue power. Therefore, Celestial-Hunting Festival was meaningless to them.

Under normal circumstances, those who were able to take the top spots in Celestial-Hunting Festival were all top-notch experts in Hundred-Shackle Realm. Besides that, they were all nurtured by the ten clans of Infernal Court.

Even if Bloodsky Clan was at the bottom of the top ten clans of Immortal Vampires, their foundations were not weak.

Moreover, it was hard to say if they were still at the bottom.

Even though Zhang Ruochen had completely grasped the power of his physical body and made his cultivation improve greatly, he didn't dare to underestimate others.

God-ascension Ceremony held as scheduled.

It was a lively scene everywhere around Xue Jue family. It was rare to see a Saint king or a Supreme Saint in the family, but today they all showed up. Even those Saint-level cultivators who were outside had rushed back recently.

Some had returned after battling in more than a dozen Battlefield of Merits in Celestial Court, and some had rushed back from the borders of Infernal Court. Even the elites who were in charge of major planets, primitive worlds, and Cosmic Secret Realms had deployed others to send gifts.

God-ascension Ceremony prepared for the two new gods was extremely grand. They must not neglect it or make a fool out of Xue Jue family.

From the morning onwards, the gods brought their disciples, children, and subordinates to Xue Jue Family one after another.

Every once in a while, divine light would appear in the sky above Xue Jue Family. Some rode to the Fane, some stepped on clouds made of Blood Qi, and some rode on thousands of miles-long divine beasts. All of them were awe-inspiring.

The sight of it was like a scene of returning myriad demons.

The arriving gods were all led directly to Fane of Xue Jue in the divine land instead of mortal land.

As for Saint-level cultivators who came with gods, they were led into Vastsea Garden. This was a place that was specially held for grand occasions. It would only be open for the most important events.

Vastsea Garden was very spacious. There were mountains, lakes, and many Blood Sorghums planted there. The fragrance of flowers filled the air.

For this God-ascension Ceremony, Xue Jue family had renovated Vastsea Garden and made it even more magnificent. They had even specially opened a floating island to receive the elites who were going to attend Celestial-Hunting Festival.

There were too many cultivators attending God-ascension Ceremony. Other than the ones brought by the gods, there were also many Supreme Saints who had rushed over. Among them, there were quite many top elites. Therefore, even the acting head, Supreme Saint Qingsheng had to go greet the guests.

Even though all the Saint-level disciples of Xue Jue family were deployed, they were still very busy.

Zhang Ruochen also arrived at Vastsea Garden early in the morning, but he stayed on the floating island and did not receive any guests.

He didn't know any of Saints in Bloodsky clan, and he didn't like to socialize either. He only attended this feast because of Blood Empress.

Although some people were unhappy with Zhang Ruochen, they couldn't do anything about it.

As Zhang Ruochen's mother was a god.

Even if he only had half of Immortal Vampires' bloodline, no one would dare to discriminate against him. They couldn't treat him like other clan members from non-ruling branch.

As time passed, more and more Saint Kings and Supreme Saints were led to the floating island. They sat down, either alone or in groups.

Rumble

A huge Fane building tore through the sky and appeared above Xue Jue family's territory. Following this, a streak of bright divine light descended.

After the divine light dissipated, more than ten figures appeared. All of them had extraordinary auras as they exuded a powerful Saint aura.

The person in the lead was tall and sturdy. He was close to ten feet tall and had long silver hair. His muscles were like dragons, and he was filled with power.

“Supreme Saint Xueqi, taste my palm strike,”

The speaker charged towards Supreme Saint Xueqi like a human-shaped Tyrannosaurus the moment he appeared and struck out his palm strike.

As he raised his hand, terrifying Ice energy gathered, and the temperature of the surroundings dropped.

Supreme Saint Xueqi frowned but he did not retreat. He drew his bow and countered with his palm strike, releasing a vast amount of Blood force.

The two of them did not use Precepts of heaven and earth or Saint Qi. They only used their own powers and had restrained themselves to minimize their destructive power.

Boom

Their palm strikes collided violently.

Supreme Saint Xueqi's body trembled and he retreated involuntarily. However, he managed to bear the palm strike.

“Hahaha, Supreme Saint Xueqi, you have improved a lot in the past ten years. I have cultivated Frozen Universe Palm for fifty years and reached Great perfection. Unexpectedly, even after using 30 percent of my power, you were still able to take it.

“In a thousand years of Xue Jue family, you are indeed the top elite.” The silver-haired man laughed out loud.

Supreme Saint Xueqi was shocked as he dissipated the ice energy. He cupped his hands and said, "Congratulations, brother Yi Xuan for attainment of Great Perfection in Frozen Universe Palm. No one in Hundred-Shackle Realm can be your opponent now,"

Supreme Saint Xueqi was a prideful person. However, he had no choice but to be humble in front of Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Although both of them were in Hundred-Shackle Realm, there was a huge gap between Xueqi and Yi Xuan.

Just like Saint Kingdom, once they reached Supreme Sainthood, cultivators of the same realm would have vastly different powers.

Honk

Just as Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was about to speak, an ancient war chariot that covered with damages drove over from afar. It reflected a battlefield filled with corpses where the sun and moon had fallen and gods were drenched in blood. It made one's heart tremble.

The one pulling the war chariot was a Silver Dragon Beast Emperor. It was 100 kilometers long and gave off an extremely ferocious aura. Just a sneeze of it, the world would shake, bolts of lightning would flash and thunders would rumble.

Roar

The Silver Dragon Beast Emperor let out low roars and walked in the air.

In an instant, everyone around Vastsea Garden was startled. They turned their gazes to see the ancient war chariot. Even Zhang Ruochen was no exception.

When the war chariot stopped, a tall and handsome man walked down. His body shone with seven-colored divine light and he had eight silver wings on his back.

Just from the number of silver wings, it could be seen that this person's Blood Qi was extremely vigorous.

The moment Supreme Saint Yi Xuan saw him, his expression changed. He said, “Isn’t this guy comprehending Blood Nethertouch in Fane of Immortality? There hasn’t been any news of him for 30 years. I thought that he wouldn’t participate in this Celestial-Hunting Festival.

“Since he has come out of seclusion, doesn’t that mean that he has successfully cultivated Blood Nethertouch?”

“That’s good too. If he doesn’t come, the current Celestial-Hunting Festival will be too boring. We haven’t fought for many years, but we can exchange a few moves today. Let’s see if he has really cultivated Blood Nethertouch. Better don’t disappoint me.”

Hearing this, Supreme Saint Xueqi’s eyes revealed a look of surprise.

Blood Nethertouch was a top-class Hundred-Shackle Realm Saint Technique. It was a secret technique from Fane of Immortality and was extremely difficult to cultivate. Even many supreme saints from Thousand-Koan Realm couldn’t cultivate it successfully.

Xue Ningxiao appeared beside Zhang Ruochen and sat down. Her eyes displayed a look of surprise, “Did you see that? The cultivator who fought with Supreme Saint Xuanqi was Supreme Saint Yi Xuan. He’s the famous young Supreme Saint from Yi family. Plus, he’s only 500 years old and has already broken 80 shackles.”

“Cousin Ruochen, you’re over 800 years old. You have to work hard!”

“The cultivator who got off the chariot is Gu Chenzi. He’s about the same age as Supreme Saint Yi Xuan. He has six wings and is extremely talented. He also cultivated the two Deva Paths of Immortal Vampires. He’s highly regarded by Fane of Immortality. Many people say that he might become a god before he’s 3,000 years old.”

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen glanced at Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi. It was not easy for them to reach such a level of cultivation in only 500 years.

However, just because they practiced fast did not mean that they could become a god.

Many cultivators spent their time during Demi-Sainthood, Sainthood, and Saint Kinghood. They accumulated experience and laid a solid foundation. This way, they could go further and were more powerful than those in the same realm.

Xue Ningxiao's eyes were filled with longing, she continued, "In the past thousand years, we had three extremely talented people in Bloodsky clan. They are Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and Lord Yu. They are all geniuses of the same generation and their cultivations have always been at the same level. They are known as the Three Masters of Bloodsky. Of course, they have now become the overlords of a region with some conferred the title of Supreme Saint and Lord."

In the world of Bloodsky clan, there was no living being who did not know the names of the Three Masters of Bloodsky. They were known as the future hope of Bloodsky Clan and had a great chance of becoming gods. Supreme saint Xueqi was inferior when compared to them.

Chapter 2226: God-ascension Ceremony

Just as Supreme Saint Xueqi was about to lead Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi onto the floating island, a massive figure suddenly appeared on the distant horizon, blotting out the sun and sky.

It was a Beast Emperor level Blue Phoenix. Its body was extremely huge, and its wings extended for more than 500 miles. As it flapped, it formed a terrifying gust of wind that swept away all the clouds in the sky.

Above Blue Phoenix stood a beautiful figure. Her hair was like a waterfall, and she had a violet-gold Phoenix hairpin. She wore a blue feather robe, and she held a green-blood jade flute in her hand. Her temperament was elegant as if she were an immortal descending to the mortal world.

Whether it was her appearance or her temperament, she wasn't inferior to the nine fairies in Portrait of the Nine Beauties. In fact, she was even better than them.

"Lord Xia Yu is here!"

All of a sudden, all Immortal Vampires in and out of Vastsea Garden fixed their eyes on the graceful and beautiful figure. Many cultivators could not help but show admiration in their eyes.

Lord Xia Yu was not only one of the the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan, she was also known as the number one beauty of Bloodsky Clan. She had many suitors and even Supreme Saints admired her.

Zhang Ruochen had come into contact with many fairies on Portrait of the Nine Beauties, but Lord Xia Yu still caught his attention when he saw her.

They all said that Immortal Vampires were evil, so he did not expect such an extraordinary woman among them. The word "peerless beauty" was perfect to describe her.

"Lord Xia Yu is so beautiful. I finally have the chance to see her with my bare eyes. I'm going to greet her," Xue Ningxiao was very excited. She ignored Zhang Ruochen and left the floating island immediately.

Zhang Ruochen's gaze swept over Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and Lord Xia Yu. He thought to himself, "The three of them are not simple. Even in Celestial Court and Infernal Court, there are only a few who can be compared to them. Just Bloodsky Clan alone can produce three top elites. The foundation of Infernal Court is indeed unfathomable," Zhang Ruochen could not help but look forward to Celestial-Hunting Festival.

At the same time, he felt a faint pressure in his heart. Celestial-Hunting Festival was probably more unusual than he had imagined.

As time passed, it was nearing noon. The Festival was about to officially begin, and the guests had arrived one after another. Vastsea Garden became extremely lively.

Only a small number of Immortal Vampires had boarded the floating island. They were all heroes born within a thousand years and had come for Celestial-Hunting Festival.

As for most Immortal Vampires, they were scattered in other areas of Vastsea Garden. They were personally received by Supreme Saint Qingsheng. Some of them had been famous for tens thousands years.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen finally stepped out of the corner and walked to the main guest seat.

Qingsheng had met him once with his clone. Qingsheng told him that he would be in charge of reception of the floating island. It was unknown whether it was Supreme Saint Qingsheng's own idea or the arrangement of Xue Jue Family.

This small matter had an unusual meaning.

After all, Zhang Ruochen's identity was too sensitive. He didn't fit in with the entire Xue Jue Family, or even Bloodsky clan.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen walk out, all Immortal Vampires on the floating island looked at him.

Zhang Ruochen's name was not only famous in Celestial Court, but also Infernal Court.

Especially when he held Imperial Ruler outside Kunlun's Central Imperial City and was responsible for the massacre. His reputation was greatly boosted then.

In terms of fame, Zhang Ruochen was not inferior to the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan at all.

Zhang Ruochen swept his eyes across the whole place and tried his best to blend into God-ascension Ceremony. He didn't want Blood Empress to be isolated by the big forces of Bloodsky Clan because of him. He said, "Today is the ceremony for my mother and uncle. Thank you for coming. Please forgive us if there's anything wrong with hospitality,"

Many Immortal Vampires knew that Blood Empress and Lord Ming were siblings of the same mother. They were closer than the other children of Wargod Bloodximius.

With two true gods as his support and Wargod Bloodximius behind him, Zhang Ruochen could do whatever he wanted in Infernal Court.

"Let me drink a toast to everyone first,"

Zhang Ruochen raised the wine cup in front of him and gestured to all Immortal Vampires present.

Even though many Immortal Vampires didn't like Zhang Ruochen, it wasn't right to dishonor him at this moment.

As in a sense, Zhang Ruochen represented Blood Empress and Lord Ming. Therefore, he represented the entire Xue Jue family. Who dared to neglect him?

All Immortal Vampires present raised their cups and drank with Zhang Ruochen.

"If you need anything, just ask the attendants," Zhang Ruochen said.

Zhang Ruochen sat down and began to drink.

There were hundreds of Immortal Vampires present, but he couldn't toast them all.

With his personality, it was rare for him to sit here and host God-ascension Ceremony.

However, in order not to be rude, Zhang Ruochen asked Xue Tu to come out and meet with the elites of each big family. After all, Xue Tu was Blood Empress' personal disciple and a Supreme Saint. His status and strength were impeccable.

After walking around the hall, Xue Tu returned to Zhang Ruochen's side and said seriously, "Senior, I just heard some news that might interest you."

"What news?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu said, "It's about Yan Wushen."

"Tell me about it." Zhang Ruochen's interest was piqued.

Xue Tu said, "I heard that before Yan Wushen entered Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun's field, he had already cultivated his spiritual power to Supreme Sainthood. He left most of his Spirits in Fane of Yama, so no one knows about it."

Zhang Ruochen was struck by his words. This was indeed unexpected, but with Yan Wushen's exceptional talent, it wasn't difficult for him to become a spiritual-power Supreme Saint.

Yan Wushen could suppress his martial cultivation for hundreds of years due to some reasons, but there was no need for his spiritual power.

In Zhang Ruochen's opinion, Yan Wushen's good and evil counterparts had both become spiritual-power Supreme Saint. The number of Spirits he had was probably shocking.

He didn't know if Yan Wushen's spiritual power now had reached the mid or late-stage of the 60th level, or the 61st level, or even higher.

Xue Tu paused and continued, "Yan Wushen stayed in Saint Kingdom for hundreds of years and explored his potential to the extreme. His accumulation was as vast as the sea. After breaking through to Supreme Saint realm, he accumulated a lot of experience. He secluded himself in Fane of Yama for a few months. When he came out, he was already at the peak of Neverwilt Realm.”

“How is that possible?”

Hearing this news, even Zhang Ruochen who was calm and steady, couldn’t help but be shocked.

In Saint Kingdom, Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were indeed the same. However, in terms of accumulation, Zhang Ruochen wasn’t even close to Yan Wushen.

It wasn’t that Zhang Ruochen didn’t want to accumulate more, but he didn’t have that much time. He had to make himself stronger as fast as possible.

‘Peak of Neverwilt Realm. Good one Yan Wushen. It seems that Yanluo clan also has a great Time treasure,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Without the help of a top Time treasure, no matter how powerful Yan Wushen was, he could not reach the peak of Neverwilt Realm in just a few months.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen did feel a lot of pressure. It was much more difficult than expected to beat Yan Wushen.

Actually beating Yan Wushen was secondary.

But if he couldn’t beat Yan Wushen, how could he save Chi Kunlun from him?

The peak of Neverwilt Realm not only meant that Yan Wushen had more Precepts than he did, but it also meant that Yan Wushen had condensed a Saintwill.

It was just that he didn’t know how many kinds of Saintwill Yan Wushen had condensed and what level he had reached.

As he was thinking, the sky suddenly shone with a bright blood-red divine light. Many divine spirits interweaved and condensed into two towering figures that were thousands of miles tall. They looked down at the world majestically.

“Greetings, Truegods,”

All Immortal Vampires in Vastsea Garden stood up and bowed.

Those Saints and Saint Kings all knelt down while Supreme Saints bowed respectfully.

Splash

The rain that contained divine light poured down and enveloped Vastsea Garden along with Xue Jue family.

This was a divine rain. It contained incredible divine power and could cleanse the body, strengthen the bones, and raise one's cultivation level. There were countless benefits in the rain.

At God-ascension Ceremony, the new God had to give blessings.

The divine rain baptism was a blessing.

All the cultivators who were bathed in divine rain had their physiques and cultivation levels increase. Some even broke through to the next realm. Besides that, Supreme Saints also received a lot of benefits from it. A Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint managed to break one of the shackles in his body.

It was not something an ordinary God could do to be able to rain such an extraordinary divine rain.

The divine rain lasted for a long time before it stopped.

Spiritual flowers were growing everywhere in Xue Jue family's territory. It was beautiful like a fairyland.

"Thank you, Truegods for the generous gift."

All the cultivators thanked them respectfully.

The avatars of Blood Empress and Lord Ming soon disappeared without a trace, as if they had never appeared. However, the entire Xue Jue Family's territory was filled with a dense divine aura, and Saint Qi of Heaven and Earth became even denser.

All the cultivators kneeling on the ground stood up and digested what they had just learned.

Zhang Ruochen silently operated Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture to refine the divine rain that entered his body. He too received some benefits as his spiritual power and Precepts had increased.

After learning about Yan Wushen, Zhang Ruochen was even more unwilling to let go of any opportunity to become stronger.

On the other side, an emissary from Fane of Immortality arrived at Fane of Xue Jue and passed on the decree of Fane of Immortality. He officially anointed Wargod Bloodximius as the new chief of Bloodsky Clan.

The former chief of Bloodsky Clan also arrived. He personally handed the divine staff that represented the identity of the chief to Wargod Bloodximius.

The former chief of Bloodsky Clan had only been the chief of Bloodsky Clan for 100,000 years. He could be said to be the one who had been in power for the shortest time. However, there was nothing he could do. His strength was inferior to Wargod Bloodximius, and there was a official decree from Fane of Immortality. He had no choice but to abdicate.

From then on, Bloodsky Clan entered the era of Wargod Bloodximius.

Bloodsky Clan had been silent for many years. They might have a chance to rise in the future.

Vastsea Garden, floating island.

Zhang Ruochen was suddenly pulled into a blood-red divine realm by an invisible force.

Blood clouds floated in the sky, and sea of blood beneath his feet surged.

Blood Empress stood in the center of Heaven and Earth with her hands behind her back while looking up at the sky.

Zhang Ruochen walked behind her and said calmly, “Mother, do you have something to tell me after you pulled me into the spiritual realm?”

Blood empress sighed softly, “Mother knows that you don’t feel a sense of belonging to Xue Jue family and Infernal Court.

However, this Celestial-Hunting Festival is of great importance. You must do your best.”

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a long time, “Okay mother, I promise.”

A gentle smile appeared on Blood Empress’ face that shone with divine light. She caressed Zhang Ruochen’s cheek with motherly love and said, “You are no longer a child. You are an indomitable Supreme Saint. You must try your best to do what you say. You must believe that everything Mother asks you to do is for your own good.”

“You can only gain a foothold in Infernal Court if you go all out and win Celestial-Hunting Festival. At that time, both Mother and Xue Jue family will do everything we can to protect you. No one will dare to say anything against you,”

The more Blood Empress talked about this, the more Zhang Ruochen felt that Celestial-Hunting Festival was not as simple as a “Festival”.

After a long while, Zhang Ruochen withdrew from the spiritual realm with a serious look in his eyes.

He took a long breath, stood up, and merged his Saint power into his voice. He said in a clear voice, “All of you have the ambition to attend Celestial-Hunting Festival and win glory for Bloodsky Clan. Now according to the tradition, we will first determine the leader of the team, and then decide who will attend Celestial-Hunting Festival,”

Not all the elites born in the past thousand years could participate in Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Celestial-Hunting Festival had a limit on the number of people from the ten clans of Infernal Court. Each clan had a thousand people, each 500 Saint King and 500 Supreme Saints.

Immortal Vampires had ten great clans, which meant that there were only 100 spots allocated to each clan. Hence, there were spots for only 50 Saint Kings and 50 Supreme Saints.

If there weren’t enough Supreme Saints, they would use Saint Kings. The total wouldn’t change.

The number of Supreme Saints in both Celestial Court and Infernal Court was very little. It was even rarer for them to be born within a thousand years.

When Zhang Ruochen first went to Celestial Court, there were less than 100 Supreme Saints in Guanghai. Besides, that was only after tens thousands years later. On average, there were only a few Supreme Saints in a thousand years.

Usually, Supreme Saints had at least 3,000 years of life. As their cultivation increased, their life expectancy would increase correspondingly. If they could reach Paramount Realm, they had hope of living for 10,000 years.

Savage Beasts, Plant Spirits, and others had even longer life spans. It was even more common for them to live for more than 10,000 years.

However, most of the long-lived clans cultivated slower and could not compare to the human race. Hence, there was a balance.

For example, Immortal vampires could live longer than the human race. Even a Demi-Saint could live for a thousand years. After becoming a Supreme Saint, they could live up to 30,000 years. However, Immortal vampires were restricted by blood lust. The higher their cultivation, the higher the requirement for the quality of the blood they consumed. Immortal Blood Spring and Longevity Blood Tree could not satisfy their needs.

That was why Immortal Vampires were eager to start a war and collect the blood of living beings.

In comparison, the cultivation of the blood of living beings was the most effective.

That was why it was extremely rare for cultivators to achieve level that attained by Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and Lord Xia Yu within five hundred years.

In the past thousand years, Bloodsky Clan had produced more than fifty Supreme Saints. Hence, the weaker Supreme Saints would lose their qualifications.

As for the number of Nine-Step Saint King, there were more so the competition was even more intense.

It was hard to say how many of the nearly 20 elites selected by Xue Jue clan could get a spot.

According to the tradition, the leaders would be decided first, and then the leaders would decide the candidates among Supreme Saints and Saint Kings.

Therefore, as long as one became a leader, it would bring great benefits to the family forces behind them.

Zhang Ruochen promised Blood Empress that he would try his best to become the leader of Bloodsky clan so that Xue Jue Family could have more elites and get a place to participate in Celestial-Hunting Festival.

The reason why Blood Empress paid so much attention to this matter was that Celestial-Hunting Festival had too many benefits. It was a great opportunity to strengthen Xue Jue family.

This was not only Blood Empress' idea but also represented the will of Wargod Bloodximius.

Fane of Destiny held Celestial-Hunting Festival once every thousand years. As long as one could attend it, they would receive great gains and endless benefits.

For example, Supreme Saints could eat the legendary Ampliofruits during Celestial-Hunting Festival. They could increase Precept by at least 100 million, extend their lifespan by 3,000 years, and assist in the cultivation of high-level sacred spells. The benefits were hard to describe.

On the other hand, Saint Kinghood cultivators could eat Altofruits. They could at least advance one path to Great perfection and increase their innate talent. There was hope for them to reach Great Prefection, form a top-tier Neverwither physique, and lay a solid foundation.

Not only that, Celestial-Hunting Festival would also provide Divine Jade Dew specially brewed by Fane of Wine. The essence of the Divine Jade was mixed with divine blood. There were also many kinds of rare treasures. It would take hundreds of years to brew and drink a cup, it could let people enter a state of epiphany.

Every kind of food in Celestial-Hunting Festival was made from the rare treasures of the Heaven and earth. It was a rare chance for any cultivators — no matter how abundant wealth they owned — to get to enjoy these treasures in other occasions. They were very delicious, and they could also be of great benefit for cultivation.

As long as one could participate in Celestial-Hunting Festival, regardless of the cultivation realm, one's strength would be greatly improved and have a far-reaching impact on their cultivation in the future.

And this was only the most basic benefit for the participants. If a participant could perform well and stand out among their clans and even the ten clans, the benefits the participant gained would be immeasurable.

Xue Jue family and Bloodsky clan might be very concerned about these benefits, but Zhang Ruochen was indifferent.

He wanted to know more about the meaning of “Celestial-Hunting” in Celestial-Hunting Festival. Why did he have to go all out to fight for this Festival to gain a foothold in Infernal Court?

‘Celestial-Hunting, Celestial-Hunting, what exactly we are expected to hunt?’

Chapter 2227: The Fight for Leadership

As soon as Zhang Ruochen finished speaking, all the Immortal Vampire cultivators turned to look at Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and Lord Xia Yu. Obviously, they thought that the leader of the Bloodysky Clan could only be one of them.

The Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan were well-known. Not only the elites born in the last thousand years but even those masters of the old could also hardly be their opponents.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan laughed and said, “Gu Chenzi, Lord Xia Yu, it seems that our fight is inevitable. Which of you will be my opponent first?”

Amongst the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan loved to battle the most. He was famous for being a battle maniac. Other than cultivation, he loved to challenge the elites.

“You guys can go and fight amongst yourselves. I have no interest in being a leader,” Lord Xia Yu said calmly.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi did not find it strange upon hearing this. Lord Xia Yu had never liked to fight, especially during the past hundred years. No one knew how powerful she had become.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said, “It’s good that Lord Xia Yu chose not to participate. I would prefer others not to think that I do not have manners to treat the nobles. Gu Chenzi, let’s spar to see if you have mastered Blood Nethertouch.”

Gu Chenzi stood up and said calmly, “It’s been decades since we last fought. I want to see how much you’ve improved.”

“Then, what are we waiting for?”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan moved, and he flew straight out of Vastsea Garden.

Vastsea Garden was crowded with cultivators, so it could not be their battleground. Moreover, the land outside was wide with many Divine Marks engraved on it. So they were not afraid of the surroundings being damaged and could unleash their full might.

Gu Chenzi did not hesitate and immediately followed.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi faced off midair. Before they could make a move, the wind and clouds had already begun to stir and their surroundings changed color, the precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth gathered from all directions around them.

The immense pressure emanated from Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi. It made many cultivators with weaker cultivation tremble with fear and could not help but kneel before them.

“Gu Chenzi, have a taste of my palm strike.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan took the initiative to attack. An immense amount of precepts was absorbed into his palm, and it seemed like a world was about to be created.

This palm contained a terrifying amount of precepts, which seemed like it could suppress everything with unstoppable force.

Gu Chenzi was unperturbed, and the eight huge silver wings on his back unfolded as he absorbed the Saint Qi from his surroundings at an unimaginable speed. Tens of thousands of streaks of silver lightning formed. They were like spiritual snakes countering the palm strike of Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Boom

The lightning and the palm strike collided, the impact releasing a terrifying amount of energy. The surrounding precepts instantly turned chaotic.

Fortunately, with the existence of the Divine Marks, no matter how powerful the force was, it did not cause much damage.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi did not stop. Instead, they used even more powerful techniques and fought with more ferocity.

Anyone could see that the two were evenly matched. It would be difficult to determine the victor quickly.

At this moment, all the cultivators in Vastsea Garden were paying close attention to this battle. Such a battle between elites was not something that frequently occurred.

Zhang Ruochen was also paying close attention. Since he wanted to be the leader of the Bloodysky Clan, his fight with one of them was unavoidable.

There was a saying that “if you know yourself and know your enemy, and you will never be defeated”.

Observing the techniques of Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi would make it much easier for him to deal with them later.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi fought fiercely, and they exchanged more than 1,000 moves within a brief period, but neither had the upper hand.

Suddenly, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi stopped simultaneously and retreated away from each other.

Gu Chenzi folded the silver wings on his back and said, “It’s hard to tell who’s stronger between us unless it’s a life-and-death battle. Fine, I won’t fight with you this time and let you be the leader of the Bloodysky Clan instead.”

“If that’s the case, I couldn’t accept...” Supreme Saint Yi Xuan did not decline immediately and pondered for a moment.

However, at this moment, an evenly measured and calm voice sounded, “I also want to fight Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan immediately turned around and locked his gaze on the person who spoke.

Not only him, but all the other cultivators from the Immortal Vampires that were present also turned towards the sound.

When they saw the person who spoke, many of the cultivators couldn’t help but look puzzled.

“Cousin Ruochen wants to challenge Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, this...” Xue Ningxiao was stunned.

The person who spoke was Zhang Ruochen. It was also the reason why everyone was surprised.

Zhang Ruochen was indeed extraordinary because he had defeated Yan Wushen and also possessed an astonishing battle record in Kunlun. However, he had just entered the Neverwilt Realm. How could he compete with Supreme Saint Yi Xuan?

However, Zhang Ruochen still dared to challenge Supreme Saint Yi Xuan after watching the fierce battle between them. Maybe he was confident that he could defeat Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

However, was this possible?

Under the eyes of the gathered cultivators, Zhang Ruochen walked out of Vastsea Garden step by step and stopped in front of Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Supreme Saint Xueqi stared at Zhang Ruochen with a puzzled look in his eyes.

He had always valued the honor of his family. This time, he wanted to make a name for the Xue Jue Family, especially at such a special moment when Wargod Bloodximius became the chief of the Bloodysky Clan as he believes the chief should come from the Xue Jue Family.

However, he wasn't strong enough. The gap between him and the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan was too big to be compared.

Now, Zhang Ruochen had stepped forward. His courage alone had slightly changed Supreme Saint Xueqi's highly personal impression of him.

'Zhang Ruochen, if you can defeat Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and become the leader of the Bloodysky Clan, you'll have a firm foothold in the Xue Jue Family. From then on, no one within the family will dare to criticize you,' Supreme Saint Xueqi thought to himself.

Supreme Saint Xueqi had heard all kinds of legends about Zhang Ruochen, and he was still quite curious about Zhang Ruochen's strength.

Yan Wushen could not be simply defeated by just anyone.

Of course, if Zhang Ruochen lost in this battle, then Xueqi could take this opportunity to challenge Zhang Ruochen and seize the position as clan leader.

The weak were not worthy of leading the Xue Jue Family.

Xue Tu stared at Zhang Ruochen with anticipation in his eyes.

He knew Zhang Ruochen better than all the cultivators present, and he knew more than half of Zhang Ruochen's past. For example, he knew that Zhang Ruochen had a demigod-level physique and the legendary ten golden vampire wings. With countless trump cards, this battle would be surely wonderful.

In the air, Zhang Ruochen and Grand Saint Yi Xuan stood midair facing each other. Both of them were only 330 meters apart.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan looked at Zhang Ruochen deeply. He thought for a moment and released an extremely powerful Saint Aura, which flew directly towards Zhang Ruochen.

With his cultivation and strength, even an ordinary Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint wouldn't be able to withstand his Saint Aura.

Zhang Ruochen remained calmly in place and easily dissipated Supreme Saint Yi Xuan's Saint Aura.

When Supreme Saint Yi Xuan saw this, his interest was piqued, and he said, "Zhang Ruochen, I've heard of your achievements in Kunlun. I also want to see what tricks you have that defeated Yan Wushen. Do not disappoint me."

"Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, please enlighten me," Zhang Ruochen said and cupped his hands submissively.

He had to treat the strong with due respect.

The fingernail on one of Saint Yi Xuan's hands rapidly elongated and turned into a sharp claw. A vast amount of murderous blood power surged out, filling the entire space with the metallic smell of blood.

Whoosh!

As Supreme Saint Yi Xuan waved his sharp claw, a Blood Claw tens of thousands of feet long materialized and clawed directly at Zhang Ruochen.

If it wasn't for the Divine Marks which stabilize the area, the space would have been torn apart.

Zhang Ruochen pointed with his finger and caused Precepts of Dimension to appear by millions and merge into the space around him.

Creak!

Streaks of silver light flashed, with thin and long cracks appearing in the space.

The huge Blood Claw that Supreme Saint Yi Xuan used was broken into more than ten pieces. It was a clean-cut that left a nice finish.

In the next moment, the cracked Blood Claw exploded and turned back into blood power. However, it did not dissipate and continued to surge towards Zhang Ruochen.

In the process, the blood power surged violently. In the blink of an eye, it turned into a viscous sea of blood and tried to absorb surrounding precepts as well as the Saint Qi of heaven and earth. It expanded rapidly as if it wanted to flood the entire land.

Zhang Ruochen gathered powerful dimensional power at the tip of his finger and condensed it into silver light. It displayed unrivaled sharpness as if it could cut through everything.

Puff

The silver light flew out and cut the sea of blood apart. It could no longer fuse together afterward.

Then, Zhang Ruochen took the initiative to attack. He rushed out of the blood sea and stretched out his hand. The seven orifices in his palm all opened, releasing a huge amount of Blood Qi.

Instantly, an extremely solid illusory image of Lord Ming appeared. It held up the heavens and earth with its majesty and swung its hand toward Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

In the dark, a powerful divine might was added to the illusory image of Lord Ming. It became even more majestic and spiritual. It was like the actual avatar of Lord Ming.

The Seven-Orifice Netherblood Palm was created by Lord Ming. It was extremely mysterious and was not as simple as an ordinary Saint Technique.

As long as one's Blood Qi was strong enough, the power of the Seven-Orifice Netherblood Palm could increase infinitely.

In this aspect, Zhang Ruochen had a lot of advantages.

He had the ability to grow ten golden wings. In terms of Blood Qi, even a Supreme Saint from the Hundred-Shackle Realm couldn't compare to him.

That was why Zhang Ruochen had spent a lot of time studying the Seven-Orifice Netherblood Palm when he was in seclusion. He wanted to perform it at a higher level.

The moment the illusory image of Lord Ming appeared, the vast sea of blood shattered as it could no longer be maintained.

The Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth gathered towards the illusory image of Lord Ming. They seemed to be completely controlled by the illusory image.

"Interesting."

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan chuckled and did not retreat. Instead, he went up to meet it.

As he waved his hands, sharp claw shadows filled the sky. The resulting powerful force caused a large area of space to become distorted.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan fighting, many Immortal Vampire's cultivators couldn't help but be surprised. They didn't expect that Zhang Ruochen possessed the ability to fight against Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Even at the same level, only a few people could fight with Supreme Saint Yi Xuan. Someone fighting Supreme Saint Yi Xuan across realms was something that shouldn't have happened within logic.

“Such strong Blood Qi, such a strong body, and such keen battle awareness,” Gu Chenzi said.

He was strong enough, so his vision was naturally incomparable. He quickly saw through Zhang Ruochen illusions and couldn't help but to praise him.

Among the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan, Gu Chenzi's Blood Qi was the strongest, but Zhang Ruochen seemed stronger than him.

It was hard to imagine what had happened to Zhang Ruochen after he had died in front of the Dimensional Rift that made him change so much.

Lord Xia Yu's eyes also showed traces of surprise. Her gaze became deep as if he wanted to see through Zhang Ruochen completely.

“Cousin Ruochen is too powerful. Even Supreme Saint Yi Xuan can't do anything to him so would he become the leader of the Bloodsky Clan?”

Xue Ningxiao's eyes widened. She couldn't believe what she was seeing.

Xue Chen muttered, “Zhang Ruochen isn't an impulsive person. Since he dares to attack, he is surely confident.”

To be honest, Zhang Ruochen's strength had increased at speed beyond Xue Chen's expectation.

When Kunlun had just become the Battlefield of Merits, Zhang Ruochen was still very weak. If they had met at that time, Xue Chen would certainly have ignored him.

However, he did not expect that in a short time, Zhang Ruochen had first become a top elite in the Saint Kingdom, and now he could even fight against the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan. Such a speed of improvement in strength was terrifying.

Xue Chen wasn't surprised by Zhang Ruochen's battle strength.

What he was more curious about was why Zhang Ruochen would fight to become the leader.

Zhang Ruochen had no sense of belonging in the Xue Jue Family. He couldn't have fought for the honor of the family. Besides, based on Xue Chen's understanding of Zhang Ruochen, he might not be interested in the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Could it be the will of a God?

Only a god could influence Zhang Ruochen.

Not only the cultivators in Vastsea Garden were paying attention to this battle, but the deities of the Bloodysky Clan in the divine blood temple were also paying attention. Most of them were paying more attention to Zhang Ruochen.

It couldn't be helped. Zhang Ruochen's identity was too special. If it wasn't for the Wargod Bloodximus, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't have a foothold after entering the world of the Bloodysky Clan.

If he wanted to survive in Infernal Court, he needed the approval of the deities of the Bloodysky Clan first, and the best way was to prove his worth with his strength.

This was also one of the reasons why the Blood Empress asked Zhang Ruochen to join the race.

Bang

Zhang Ruochen and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan exchanged a palm strike that caused the Blood Qi around to surge.

The more Supreme Saint Yi Xuan fought, the more shocked he became. He had already mobilized the power of the Shackles in his body, but he couldn't gain the upper hand. Instead, he was being slowly suppressed.

"Zhang Ruochen, if you can withstand this blow of mine, then you will win this battle," Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said.

As he spoke, he had already fully mobilized the Precepts that he had cultivated himself. At the same time, he released the 80 Shackles, and the immense power that he had obtained was all gathered in one hand.

In an instant, the temperature within tens of thousands of miles suddenly dropped. Each of the divine lakes around froze. The grass and trees were frozen. Large amounts of ice crystals floated down from the sky, and the entire world seemed to be frozen.

With a gesture, the entire world was frozen. Everything was still.

With Supreme Saint Yi Xuan's power, he was able to unleash an advanced Saint technique at Hundred-Shackle Realm entirely. One could imagine the power of this technique.

The first thing Supreme Saint Qingsheng did was to activate the Divine Marks in Vastsea Garden to isolate it from the outside world so that it would not be affected.

After all, the weaker cultivators in Vastsea Garden could not resist the terrifying power of Frost.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes narrowed. He reached out both hands simultaneously and formed a mysterious and overbearing Palm Seal. There was a terrifying Yang energy that surged out of his body.

In an instant, Zhang Ruochen turned into a huge furnace. Every inch of his skin turned red hot as if it was going to melt.

In the Divine Light Sea of Qi, the Golden Sun of Destruction and the Divine Sun formed by Sacred Seven-star Lingzhi's Sun Leaf spun rapidly. They released majestic Yang energy which combined with Zhang Ruochen's own Yang energy.

In the next moment, the Yang energy released by Zhang Ruochen was millions of times more than that of an ordinary person. It exuded a terrifying destructive qi.

“Dragon-Elephant Destruction.”

Zhang Ruochen shouted to himself.

Roar

Along with the earth-shaking dragon's roar and elephant's roar, three divine dragons and three divine elephants flew out of Zhang Ruochen's palms at the same time. They were all enormous, with solid bodies that exuded a vast and mighty pressure that suppressed the heavens.

The divine dragons and divine elephants were burning with raging flames. They melted everything in their path, as if they wanted to burn the world.

Boom

The two opposing forces clashed violently and unleashed an even more terrifying destructive force.

Even though the space within the Xue Jue Family was extremely stable, it was still rippling intensely. A small area suddenly shattered, and countless pitch-black cracks extended in all directions. It was a terrifying scene.

The heat waves in the heavens and earth churned and melted all the ice. And the land that had experienced the ice age was once again illuminated by the sunlight.

Under the impact of the violent might, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan could not help but take a step back with his bodily qi and blood surging violently.

However, Zhang Ruochen stood tall and upright. No matter how the destructive power battered him, he did not budge even in the slightest.

For Zhang Ruochen, who had the body of a demigod, this attack was nothing.

Phew

Exhaling lightly, Zhang Ruochen activated the Golden Sun of Destruction and regulated the violent Yang energy in his body to gradually calm it down.

It was also because his body was strong enough now. Otherwise, if he released this vast Yang energy, he would have been severely injured before he could hurt the enemy. Even his Saint Soul might have been damaged.

In Vastsea Garden, many cultivators of the Immortal Vampires opened their eyes wide with reverence.

The Immortal Vampires worshiped the strong, and only displays of strength would convince them.

Now that Zhang Ruochen was undoubtedly strong in their eyes. No one cared about his background anymore. Strength was everything.

Chapter 2228: Lord Xia Yu

In the Vastsea Garden, the Saint realm disciples of the Xue Jue Family were all excited. It was a great honor to have a superior of their family as the leader of the Bloodsky Clan.

Even if that person was Zhang Ruochen.

The ordinary Saint realm disciples of the Xue Jue Family did not care whether Zhang Ruochen was once a cultivator from Celestial Court. They only cared that Zhang Ruochen was the Scion and a member of the Xue Jue Family.

There were two new gods before this. Then, Wargod Bloodximius has conferred the title of clan leader of the Bloodsky Clan. Now, Zhang Ruochen had defeated Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and would become the leader of the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

The Xue Jue Family was full of good news and its reputation has greatly increased.

The Xue Jue Family had been silent for too long. Finally, they were about to return to their former glory.

After a long time, the aftermath of the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan disappeared completely. With the protection of the Divine Marks, their battle did not cause any damage to the Xue Jue Family despite being intense.

The surging Qi in Supreme Saint Yi Xuan quickly calmed down. He was not injured even though he was defeated. To be more precise, he had only lost half a move.

“Zhang Ruochen, your strength is indeed beyond my expectations. According to our agreement, I won’t fight for the leadership position with you,” said Supreme Saint Yi Xuan. He was not angered by his defeat.

He just felt a little regretful. Due to the agreement, he could not truly determine a victor with Zhang Ruochen.

As one of the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan had many extraordinary techniques. He had many trump cards. His strength was not limited to this.

Unfortunately, he had already said it. With so many cultivators as witnesses, he could not go back on his words.

“Thank you,” Zhang Ruochen said calmly.

In fact, it would not have been easy for Zhang Ruochen to resist Supreme Saint Yi Xuan’s Frozen Universe Palm if he had not cultivated the Thirteenth Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike to the initial phase.

The two saint techniques could be said to counter each other. Zhang Ruochen had taken advantage of the exuberant Yang Qi.

If it were anyone else, even a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, few would be able to control such a strong yang qi. This was something Supreme Saint Yi Xuan had never expected.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan returned to the floating island. He still had a smile on his face and he looked very free and easy.

All the cultivators present turned their gaze to Zhang Ruochen.

Since Supreme Saint Yi Xuan had withdrawn from the competition, Zhang Ruochen could undoubtedly become the leader of the Bloodsky Clan.

Then, it was time to decide who would participate in the Celestial-Hunting Festival. The Supreme Saints and Saint Kings with weaker cultivations could not help but feel nervous.

The Celestial-Hunting Festival had many benefits. Anyone would want to participate, but many of them were destined to lose the opportunity.

Only the twenty elites selected by the Xue Jue Family were in a good mood and felt less pressure.

Just when some cultivators were about to congratulate Zhang Ruochen, Lord Xia Yu, who had been the most indifferent to the leadership contest, suddenly stood up.

At that moment, Lord Xia Yu’s temperament suddenly changed. She was no longer elegant and otherworldly. Instead, she became extremely cold and an intangible chill spread out.

Some weaker cultivators felt the chill and could not help but shiver as if they had fallen into an ice cave.

“Zhang Ruochen, just because Yi Xuan doesn’t want to fight with you doesn’t mean you can be the leader of the Bloodsky Clan. You still have to go through at the least,” Lord Xia Yu said in a cold voice.

Gu Chenzi also stood up and said indifferently, “Just because you beat Yi Xuan doesn’t mean you can beat me. I suddenly want to fight for the position of leader again.”

Many cultivators heard them and could not help but look surprised. They did not know what was going on.

Lord Xia Yu had already stated at the beginning that she had no interest in becoming a leader. Gu Chenzi had also given up on the competition. He wanted to give the position of leader to Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

But now, both of them have changed their mind. It was unexpected that they wanted to stop Zhang Ruochen from becoming the leader of the Bloodsky Clan.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan smiled and drank alone. He seemed to have expected this to happen and he was enjoying the show.

The cultivators present were not fools. They all understood that anyone could be the leader, but not Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi were targeting him obviously.

Simply because Zhang Ruochen was an outsider and he was not a pure Immortal Vampire. He even had a huge grudge with the Immortal Vampires on the Battlefield of Merits.

Of course, there might be a deeper reason.

How could it be easy for a creature of the Celestial Court to gain a foothold in the Infernal Court and not be ostracized?

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi without any fear, and said calmly, “I wasn’t interested in becoming the leader. However, since I’ve already fought for it, I will have to take it. Since you two had objections, there was no need to go through so much trouble. We will decide the winner with our battle strength. How about it?”

“At least you have some courage. I’ll go first and see what else you could do,” Gu Chenzi snorted.

“Gu Chenzi, your battle strength and Yi Xuan’s are about the same. I’m afraid it won’t be easy to defeat him. Why don’t I do it?” Lord Xia Yu said.

Gu Chenzi said, “That might not be the case! Previously, my battle with Yi Xuan and the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yi Xuan was just a test. We didn’t fully display our skills. “If we fight, do you think a Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm will lose to a Supreme Saint who has just broken through the Neverwilt Realm?”

...

Zhang Ruochen shook his head slightly and said, “Both of you can stop arguing. Why not both of you do it together?”

As soon as he said that, the entire Vastsea Garden fell silent. Even a pin drop could be heard.

All the cultivators looked at Zhang Ruochen as if they were looking at a monster.

How crazy was it to challenge Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi at the same time?

Saying such words was a provocation. It was easy to annoy Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi. Zhang Ruochen was asking for trouble.

Not to mention the Bloodsky Clan, even among the entire Immortal Vampires, few dared to challenge Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi at the same time.

“Zhang Ruochen is too arrogant. He dares to challenge Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi at the same time. Does he think he’s invincible?”

“If Supreme Saint Yi Xuan attacked with all his strength, Zhang Ruochen wouldn’t have the chance to be arrogant.”

“Don’t worry. Zhang Ruochen will soon pay the price for his arrogance.”

...

Zhang Ruochen was calm and he did not seem arrogant at all.

He had his reasons for asking Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi to attack together. He had a very special identity. No matter what he did in the Infernal Court, there would be voices of doubt. He would be ostracized and isolated everywhere.

If he wanted to change all of this, he had to show his absolute strength.

In the end, strength was the foundation of standing.

Since he had come to Infernal Court, Zhang Ruochen naturally had all kinds of plans and many things to do. So, he had to stand firm first.

A battle to establish his power.

In the future, no matter where he went in Infernal Court, no one dared to look down on him. Others had to respect him as much as they respected Yan Wushen.

It was one of Blood Empress’s ideas to fight for the leadership of the Bloodsky Clan. But it was also Zhang Ruochen’s idea. He did not want to be under Blood Empress’s protection all the time, and he did not want Blood Empress to be isolated because of him.

As long as Zhang Ruochen became the leader of the Bloodsky Clan with his own strength and defeated the elites of the other tribes at the Celestial-Hunting Festival, no one would dare to say anything in the future.

It would be much easier for him to do whatever he wanted to do when that time came.

Zhang Ruochen’s original intention in joining Infernal Court was to save Chi Kongyue and Chi Kunlun.

But now, he had more ideas.

He found that the Celestial Court cultivators’ understanding of the Infernal Court was too narrow. Very few people knew what the Infernal Court looked like, including himself.

When Zhang Ruochen joined the Infernal Court, he found that it was very different from what he had imagined. There was an ancient and brilliant civilization here, and there were also warm and welcoming people.

Because of this, Zhang Ruochen wanted to explore the Infernal Court and solve his doubts.

“If you can defeat Yan Wushen, then you must be extraordinary. There’s no need to join hands. I shall see it for myself, the so-called rare genius of the Yuanhui period.”

Lord Xia Yu walked out of the floating island. As if she was so close to Zhang Ruochen, and she reached him in one step.

Gu Chenzi remained on the floating island and he did not show up with Lord Xia Yu. He had his pride because he did not want to fight Zhang Ruochen with Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu’s eyes were cold, and she exuded cold murderous intent.

It seemed that Lord Xia Yu not only wanted to fight Zhang Ruochen, but she intended to kill him.

“Cousin Ruochen, you have to be careful. Lord Xia Yu hates the cultivators from Celestial Court. She would not show you any mercy if she gets the chance.”

Xue Ningxiao’s voice rang in Zhang Ruochen’s ears.

“Really?” Zhang Ruochen asked

“Lord Xia Yu is also a pitiful person. When she was young, her parents died on the Battlefield of Merits. Later, her only elder brother was killed by the Celestial Court’s cultivators to save her. That’s the reason why Lord Xia Yu cultivated so hard to avenge them,” Xue Ningxiao replied.

Xue Ningxiao continued after a pause, “The family that Lord Xia Yu was once in was also one of the great god families of the Bloodsky Clan. They were very powerful. Unfortunately, that god was later killed by the Celestial Court god in the starry sky. Lord Xia Yu’s family gradually declined.

“Lord Xia Yu’s heart is full of hatred. She wants to kill all the cultivators of the Celestial Court and end the war forever.”

Zhang Ruochen’s heart skipped a beat after hearing that and thought, ‘What was the cause of cultivators from Celestial Court and Infernal Court being hostile to each other and wanting to destroy each other?’

‘Why did two different starry skies break out into a long-lasting war?’

‘Why did they have to fight to the death?’

‘What caused all this?’ he thought.

Zhang Ruochen could understand Lord Xia Yu’s thoughts. He had once wanted to kill all the cultivators of Infernal Court.

In the eyes of the cultivators of Celestial Court, Infernal Court was evil, and they only knew destruction. To survive, they had to resist.

Similarly, in the eyes of the cultivators of Infernal Court, Celestial Court was a huge threat to them. If Infernal Court did not initiate the attack first, Celestial Court would grow stronger and surpass them.

In the future, perhaps the Celestial Court would destroy them.

After so many years, the conflict between the two was almost irreconcilable.

Once there was hatred, it became very difficult to let it go.

Zhang Ruochen could not help but think of the realms that Kunlun had attacked. The cultivators of Kunlun were probably as evil as the cultivators of Infernal Court in the eyes of those realms’ lifeforms.

There were many times when the line between good and evil could not be too clear.

‘Since I set foot on the Battlefield of Merits, I have killed countless cultivators of Infernal Court. Their relatives and friends must hate me to the bone,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

However, he did not do anything wrong. Everything he did was to protect his hometown.

Zhang Ruochen had never felt that what he had done represented justice, but at least he had a clear conscience.

“Please enlighten me,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu did not speak. Her body shook and eight huge silver wings appeared, absorbing the Saint Qi of heaven and earth crazily.

As Lord Xia Yu flapped her wings, a fierce wind swept up and enveloped Zhang Ruochen. There were countless intangible wind blades mixed in the wind. Each of them was extremely sharp and could cut through everything.

Zhang Ruochen immediately used his dimension technique to condense the Profound Spatial Dimension and isolated all the wind blades.

However, the wind grew stronger. The Precepts of Wind from heaven and earth gathered and evolved into a terrifying storm. It seemed to sweep through heaven and earth.

Whoosh

A large area of Dimensional Rifted open. Dark cracks covered the area like a spider web.

Anyone could see that Lord Xia Yu did not show any mercy. She went all out as soon as she attacked. It was as if she wanted to heavily injure Zhang Ruochen or even kill him.

At the same time, Lord Xia Yu’s hands formed seals with incredible speed. She released a turquoise flame and poured it into the storm.

As the saying went, wind-aided the fire.

The moment it combined with the storm, the turquoise flame expanded explosively and formed a sky-burning force—the Grim Soul-devouring Flame.

Many cultivators could not help but fear the sight of the turquoise flame.

There was nothing they could do. The reputation of the Grim Soul-devouring Flame was too great, and not many people could not be unafraid.

This flame was not a natural existence but was condensed by a secret technique.

To condense the Grim Soul-devouring Flame, one had to go to the extreme yin region, gather all kinds of evil yin energy, and fuse them.

In the process of refining, one had to endure extreme pain. Moreover, there was an extremely high risk that one could lose their life if they were not careful.

Therefore, many cultivators knew the method of condensing the Grim Soul-devouring Flame, yet only a few dared to try it and succeeded.

“Lord Xia Yu has been so quiet for the past hundred years. So she’s trying to condense the Grim Soul-devouring Flame. To be able to condense the Grim Soul-devouring Flame to this extent, just how much effort did she put in?”

Many of the cultivators present were extremely shocked.

They also understood that Lord Xia Yu was desperately trying to make herself stronger because she wanted to revive her family’s name and avenge the deceased.

Sometimes, the power of hatred was so terrible that people would go crazy.

“Zhang Ruochen is in trouble!”

Many cultivators could not help but think this.

Lord Xia Yu was invincible when she combined wind and fire. It was a question of whether Zhang Ruochen would be able to escape unscathed, let alone win.

Once the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan became serious, who could resist it?

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen was completely enveloped by the firestorm. It was as if he was trapped in a huge furnace. His body and mind were being tempered.

The invisible wind blades were too sharp. They cut open many cracks in the Profound Spatial Dimension, allowing the Grim Soul-devouring Flame to penetrate.

The Grim Soul-devouring Flame was different from ordinary flames. It was not hot. Instead, it was extremely cold. It could freeze everything.

Most importantly, the Grim Soul-devouring Flame targets the Saint Soul. Once it touched it, it was like a maggot in one's bones. It was hard to remove.

Zhang Ruochen did not panic. He raised his hand and the Emperor-level Divine Purification Flame surged out of him.

His Divine Purification Flame was originally pure white. Now, it was faintly dyed with a golden color.

With the improvement of his cultivation and the integration of the Precepts of heaven and earth during the Path-melding Tribulation, the Divine Purification Flame had undergone a great transformation and became even more powerful.

Zhang Ruochen mobilized his Precepts of Wood and Fire and unleashed the Power of Supreme Saint to the maximum.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to see whether Lord Xia Yu's Grim Soul-devouring Flame or his Divine Purification Flame was stronger?

Chapter 2229: Taking on Two Elites

The Divine Purification Flame's Yang energies were thunderous and overbearing. It was completely different from the Grim Soul-devouring Flame. It surged out of Zhang Ruochen crazily, as if it wanted to engulf the heavens and burn everything in the world.

Boom

The two flames made an ear-piercing sound when they came into contact.

The Divine Purification Flame transformed into a phoenix under Zhang Ruochen's control. It broke through all the obstacles and flew high with its fluttering wings.

The large space became distorted under the high temperature.

Even the Grim Soul-devouring Flame couldn't withstand the refining of the Divine Purification Flame and it dissipated into nothingness.

Zhang Ruochen stomped with his left foot. Millions of scarlet Divine Precepts appeared and a majestic fire divine force was unleashed.

Boom

The power of the Divine Purification Flame skyrocketed and the condensed phoenix became bigger and more solid. Its every feather could be seen clearly.

The Divine Purification Flame was one of the three divine flames that the Yanshen cultivated in the Path of Fire.

Therefore, using the power of the Yanshen's leg could amplify the Divine Purification Flame. It could display the terrifying power of the Divine Purification Flame.

Whoosh

The phoenix soared into the sky and forcefully tore apart Lord Xia Yu's firestorm. Countless wind blades and the Grim Souldevouring Flame shot out in all directions like a goddess scattering flowers. It looked beautiful.

Zhang Ruochen stood on top of the phoenix with his hands behind his back. He looked down from above the world as if a true god had descended.

In the Vastsea Garden, many Immortal Vampires were stunned.

“How is this possible? Even if it’s the Emperor-level Divine Purification Flame, how can Zhang Ruochen be so powerful with his current cultivation?”

“Zhang Ruochen’s Divine Purification Flame contains true divine force. It’s extraordinary.”

“It’s rumored that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated the Divine Purification Flame to the Emperor level when he was in the Saint King Realm. When he broke through to the Supreme Saint realm, the Path-melding Tribulation that he went through contained the integration of the Precepts of Fire from heaven and earth. He had been tempered and cleansed by the precepts of heaven and earth. This is an innate advantage.”

“It has been extremely rare for a Saint King to master the Divine Purification Flame at the Emperor-level since ancient times. No wonder Zhang Ruochen is called a peerless genius that only appears once every Yuanhui period.”

...

Zhang Ruochen had achieved the impossible. He suppressed Lord Xia Yu’s Grim Soul-devouring Flame with his flame. It was admirable.

Under normal circumstances, cultivators who had the Divine Purification Flame could rarely transform it into the Emperor-level flame, even in the Neverwilt Realm.

Lord Xia Yu was calm and she did not show any signs of panic. It was just a test and it was not a big deal that Zhang Ruochen had broken her technique.

Lord Xia Yu flipped her hand and she put the blood jade flute into her mouth and began to play it at a leisurely pace.

Suddenly, a very soothing and pleasant sound from the flute was heard clearly by all the cultivators present.

When they heard the sound of the flute, some of the weaker cultivators could not help but become fascinated.

Zhang Ruochen had a different feeling about it.

He felt uneasy as soon as he heard the sound of the flute. The Qi and blood in him began to surge. He could not control it.

The scariest thing was that Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul was throbbing. It seemed to be separating from his body.

Zhang Ruochen did not know why, but he felt drowsy and tired.

The next moment, Zhang Ruochen felt like he was pulled into a special world. It was dark and distorted. Everything inside was like a dream bubble and it burst continuously.

Even with his spiritual will, he could not tell whether this world was real or illusory.

Whoosh

A dark vortex appeared. As it spun, it swallowed everything and became bigger and bigger.

A strange power seeped into Zhang Ruochen and sucked in his Saint Soul and will. It wanted to suck all of it into the dark vortex as well.

“The Soul-siphoning Flute and the Hymn of Soul-sacrification. Life and death are full of helplessness.”

At the same time, this sentence appeared in the minds of many cultivators.

Lord Xia Yu's blood jade flute was known as the Soul-siphoning Flute. It was a special treasure with an extraordinary origin. It belonged to a deceased ancient god.

Long ago, Lord Xia Yu had accidentally entered a dangerous place. Not only did she survive, but she also happened to obtain the Soul-siphoning Flute and the inheritance of the Hymn of Soul-sacrification.

Legend had it that when the ancient god used the Soul-siphoning Flute to play the Hymn of Soul-sacrification, all lives in a Macroworld would lose their souls. Even the gods would be affected.

Lord Xia Yu's attainments in this aspect were far inferior to that of the ancient god. However, once she played the tune, no ordinary person would be able to resist it. Even a Thousand-Koan Realm elite would not be able to guarantee that he would not be affected.

Lord Xia Yu had recognized Zhang Ruochen's strength through the previous test. Therefore, she no longer held back and demonstrated a truly terrifying technique.

Fortunately, Lord Xia Yu only targeted Zhang Ruochen. Otherwise, many cultivators in the Vastsea Garden would have been affected. All their lives were in Lord Xia Yu's hand.

Zhang Ruochen was slightly shocked and thought, 'What a strange flute sound. It can numb the five senses and erode the spiritual will.'

The power to make one lose one's soul was strange and unpredictable. It was pervasive and difficult to resist. If one's spiritual will was slightly lowered, one would fall into endless darkness.

Even though Zhang Ruochen's spiritual will was extremely strong, he was in a momentary trance. He lost control of his phoenix, it quickly disintegrated and turned back into a raging Divine Purification Flame.

All of a sudden, the flute sound transformed into a phantom skeleton. It held a demonic saber and slashed directly at Zhang Ruochen.

At the same time, the scattered Grim Soul-devouring Flame condensed again. It was different from before. It was as if it had been given life and turned into orchid flowers in a special formation and it circled Zhang Ruochen.

"Does Lord Xia Yu intend to kill Zhang Ruochen?"

Some cultivators thought so.

It was the Hymn of Soul-sacrification and the Soul-devouring Orchid Formation. No matter how they looked at it, it was meant for destroying Zhang Ruochen.

Even if Zhang Ruochen did not die, he would suffer unimaginable injuries and damage his cultivation foundation.

Only Lord Xia Yu was that bold and unrestrained in the Xue Jue Family.

At this point, only a few people believed that Zhang Ruochen could resist Lord Xia Yu's killing move. This battle could end.

Zhang Ruochen stood quietly in the air as if he had been completely controlled by the Hymn of Soul-sacrification.

"Calm and unmoving like the Earth, and the angered Wisdom King will split the Nine Heavens."

Just as the skeleton swung the knife down, Zhang Ruochen shouted in his heart.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual will burst out with extreme sharpness. Nothing could stop it.

Crack

The demonic saber and the skeleton shattered.

The thousand-mile-tall Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect surfaced. It was filled with majesty and all the demons were stunned.

The Divine Purification Flame circled the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect. It shattered the Soul-devouring Orchid Formation with a single move.

Roar

The Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect roared into the sky. The world shook, suppressing all sounds and everything went silent.

Bang

Lord Xia Yu's body trembled and let out a muffled groan. She could not help but take a step back.

Staring at the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect, Lord Xia Yu's eyes could not help but reveal a trace of shock. That long howl not only destroyed the Hymn of Soul-sacrificaton, it also caused her body to suffer some backlash, causing her mind and will to tremble.

She would never have thought that a Saint Aspect would have such power.

"It's because of that will," said Xue Tu as he suddenly understood.

Previously, when Zhang Ruochen was cleansed in the ancient blood spring, his bloodline power had awakened. A majestic figure had appeared, which had alarmed the original body of Progenitor Bloodximius.

Although a Saint Aspect had appeared, Xue Tu could vaguely sense the Qi dynamic of that will.

With the power of the will, it was not difficult to break the Hymn of Soul-sacrificaton.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were calm and unmoved. He activated the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect and formed a mysterious palm print. He struck directly at Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu quickly blew the Soul-siphoning Flute. Precepts and the power of a Supreme Saint were released. They condensed into a huge dark demon mountain and blocked the way.

The Soul-siphoning Flute was an extraordinary secret treasure. It had countless uses.

Boom

The dark demon mountain exploded, and it could not block the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect.

Lord Xia Yu could not help but retreat quickly to avoid the attack of the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect.

Zhang Ruochen did not stop. He continued to attack Lord Xia Yu. He did not give her any chance to catch her breath.

After cultivating to the ninth level of the technique, especially awakening the will of the Immovable Wisdom King in the ancient blood spring, Zhang Ruochen finally grasped the essence of the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture and had more wonderful uses.

And just now, when the Saint Aspect and the will of the Immovable Wisdom King combined, something inexplicably appeared in Zhang Ruochen's mind. It was extremely obscure as if it was some kind of special inheritance.

However, he did not have the time to comprehend it at the moment.

Even without the Immovable Wisdom King's will, Zhang Ruochen could still resist the Hymn of Soul-sacrificion with his own tenacious will.

However, it was impossible to break the Hymn of Soul-sacrificion with such ease.

After all, this was Lord Xia Yu's killing move. It could make even a powerful warrior in the Thousand-Koan Realm fear it. It was not easy to break it.

Seeing Lord Xia Yu's killing move being countered and falling into a disadvantageous position, many cultivators could not help but reveal looks of astonishment. They could not believe their eyes.

Right at that moment, Gu Chenzi flashed out from the floating island and appeared on the battlefield.

"Let me see what you can do."

Gu Chenzi's body trembled as he spoke. Boundless blood Qi surged out. Billions of Precepts interweaved and condensed into a towering figure that was a thousand-mile tall. It had eight silver wings on its back and was the same as Gu Chenzi.

This was the Saint Aspect Gu Chenzi had cultivated. It was extremely solid, almost like his true body.

Boom

Gu Chenzi's Saint Aspect and Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect clashed. They unleashed terrifying power and shook the surroundings.

At the same time, the two Saint Aspects each took a few steps back and pulled away.

The Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan each had their strengths. Supreme Saint Yi Xuan's physique was the strongest. Like Zhang Ruochen, his physique had become a Supreme Saint. No one dared to clash head-on with him.

Lord Xia Yu was known for her mysterious and unpredictable methods. She could kill without being noticed.

As for Gu Chenzi, his strongest move was the Saint Aspect. He had obtained the secret technique of the Fane of Immortality and condensed an extremely powerful Saint Aspect of Immortality. He could cultivate the secret techniques of the Fane of Immortality.

Whoosh

Gu Chenzi's Saint Aspect of Immortality formed a strange seal. Immediately, a large amount of blood-colored chains flew out and wrapped around the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect.

The Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect waved his hand and the Divine Purification Flame turned into fire dragons and charged out.

The Divine Purification Flame burned everything. No matter how strange the blood-red chains were, they could not resist and were refined.

On the other side, a sea of blood appeared. It raised huge waves and slapped toward the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect.

“Wise King's Heaven Suppression.”

Zhang Ruochen shouted. The seal formed with his hands changed instantly.

The sky above the Immovable Wisdom King changed color. Vast amounts of precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth converged. Nine layers of condensed and vast heavens were formed at an extremely fast speed.

An unspeakable power supplemented the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect and suppressed heaven and earth.

No matter how the blood waves rolled, they couldn't get close to the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect. Instead, they gradually calmed down.

Gu Chenzi narrowed his eyes. He hadn't expected Zhang Ruochen's Saint Aspect of Immovable Wisdom King to be so powerful. It was far beyond his expectations.

It was hard to imagine that Zhang Ruochen was still in the Neverwilt Realm.

ROAR!

The Saint Aspect of Immortality let out a low roar. Gathering countless Precepts, he drew strange and unpredictable power from heaven and earth and attacked with a finger.

An extremely terrifying fingerprint appeared. A large number of strange arcane runes interweaved on it. As soon as it appeared, it pierced through space, and all the Fragments of Space melted.

“Blood Nethertouch.”

The high-level saint technique of the Fane of Immortality was the most powerful when used by the Saint Aspect. However, the prerequisite was that the Saint Aspect had to be able to withstand the power of this technique.

Once the Blood Nethertouch was used, all souls would turn into a pool of pus and blood. It was extremely vicious. Even if the victim did not die, he would still suffer great pain.

“Incarceration of Divine Demon.”

The Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect instantly turned into a peerless demon. It had nine heavens above its head and Infernal Court under its feet. It was extremely majestic.

After cultivating the Thirteenth Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike, Zhang Ruochen spent some time cultivating the fourth level of the Incarceration of Divine Demon. He had also reached the level of the high-level Hundred-shackle saint technique.

Just like the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike, the Incarceration of Divine Demon had a clear cultivation method. As long as one could understand its essence and have the foundation of cultivation, he could successfully cultivate it.

Zhang Ruochen's the Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect was extremely powerful and when he cultivated the fourth level of the Incarceration of Divine Demon was naturally easy.

Boom

The Blood Nethertouch exploded with a bang. The strange power contained in it flew in all directions.

Several layers of the nine-layered heavens above the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect were pierced through and a large amount of the Precepts dispersed.

The Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect retreated continuously. He was hit so hard that he couldn't stabilize his body.

Gu Chenzi's Saint Aspect of Immortality was sent flying. He has almost been torn apart.

Under the impact, Gu Chenzi was also hit. His mind trembled. The Qi and blood in him surged even more. He could not help but spit out a mouthful of Saint Blood.

Although Zhang Ruochen was also affected, he stood tall and unmoving. It was clear who was superior.

"Another high-level Hundred-Shackle saint technique. Has Zhang Ruochen just broken through to the Neverwilt Realm?"

"The Neverwilt Realm can cultivate two high-level Hundred-Shackle level saint techniques, and a Saint Aspect can beat Gu Chenzi. What a monster."

"It seems that Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi can not stop Zhang Ruochen from becoming the leader of the Bloodsky Clan. I wonder how strong He would be when he breaks through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

"His physique is stronger than Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, his spiritual will is stronger than Lord Xia Yu, and his Saint Aspect is stronger than Gu Chenzi. No wonder Zhang Ruochen is called a peerless genius of a Yuanhui period.”

...

No one could remain calm after witnessing an intense battle.

The Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan had been defeated by the same person on the same day. Before this, no one had ever thought about it, and no one dared to think about it.

But it happened. So many cultivators had witnessed it with their own eyes. Even the gods were paying attention.

If the news spread, it would cause a huge commotion in the Bloodsky Clan and the entire Immortal Vampires.

Everyone knew that it was not that Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi were not strong, but that Zhang Ruochen was too strong. He was too strong to be judged by common sense.

...

Chapter 2230: The So-called Celestial Hunting

Gu Chenzi's eyes darkened. He formed an extraordinary palm seal. Immediately, bright Saint light bloomed from his body, covering his limbs and bones. They were connected like a Saint river flowing. It released terrifying energy.

At this point, Gu Chenzi no longer held back. He released all the power of the shackles in his body and poured it into the Saint Aspect.

He had broken 80 shackles in total. The power contained in his body was eight times that of Neverwithers physique, not just any Neverwithers physique but a powerful one.

The Saint Aspect of Immortality condensed a blood-colored demonic blade hundreds of miles long in the blink of an eye. It was full of evil and murderous intent.

It was Blade of Bloodslay, a secret technique of Fane of Immortality. To practice it successfully, one needed to collect the blood and resentment of ten thousand life beings. It could destroy the opponent's cultivation foundation and Saint Soul. It was a very sinister blade technique.

At the same time, Lord Xia Yu appeared on the other side of Zhang Ruochen. Using a flute as a pen, she drew in the air. She drew hundreds of profound runes that glowed with red light in an instant. The power of each rune combined. Together, they formed a terrifying Runic Array that exuded a destructive aura.

Lord Xia Yu's spiritual power was very powerful. She studied runes and array techniques. She had reached the level of High-Saint Master for both skills. She could also combine runes and array techniques skillfully, doubling their power.

With a shake of her hand, Lord Xia Yu placed an extremely ancient jade amulet into the Runic Array.

The jade amulet released a soft and faint divine light that seeped into the runes that formed the Runic Array. Instantly, all the runes combined even more closely, as if they had become a single entity. They looked l

Following that, ninety-nine streaks of Saint light shot out from Lord Xia Yu's body. They penetrated through her entire body and released a boundless power that seeped into the Runic Array.

"Lord Xia Yu is only one step away from reaching the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. After a hundred years of cultivation, she is finally ahead of Gu Chenzi and me." A look of shock appeared in the eyes of Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Perhaps, it would not be long before Lord Xia Yu could take the final step and reach the Great Perfection stage. No one at Hundred-Shackle Realm could be her match. She might even be able to contend against a Thousand-Koan Realm elite.

Breaking 99 shackles meant that Lord Xia Yu had nearly 10 times the power of Neverwithers physique. Now, she had completely unleashed her energy and used the profound Runic Array. It was hard to imagine how powerful such a method would be.

Gu Chenzi and Lord Xia Yu finally chose to join hands and did as Zhang Ruochen wished.

In the end, they did not want Zhang Ruochen to be the leader.

There was no doubt that this attack would determine the victor. If Zhang Ruochen could not withstand it, not only would he not be the leader, he might even suffer a great loss.

Zhang Ruochen took back the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King and exhaled lightly. The Blood Qi in his body surged violently, making the sound of a river rushing.

CRASH!

Vigorous Blood Qi gushed out from Zhang Ruochen's back. Ten huge golden wings appeared. They were fully unfolded, trying to absorb the surrounding energy.

Seeing Gu Chenzi and Lord Xia Yu attacking from both sides, Zhang Ruochen stretched out his hands and released the power of Demigod-level physique to his heart's content.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's palms burst with extremely powerful power. Divine clouds rose, and Qi of Chaos filled the air. It was as if heaven and earth were being split apart.

Crack

Gu Chenzi's Blade of Bloodslay and Lord Xia Yu's runic array exploded at the same time.

This time, Gu Chenzi's Saint Aspect of Immortality finally exploded. It could not withstand the power of Zhang Ruochen's palm strike.

The jade amulet that Lord Xia Yu had placed in the Runic Array already had cracks. Now, it had several more cracks. Large amounts of divine power spilled out.

Ptui

Gu Chenzi and Lord Xia Yu spat out large mouthfuls of blood at the same time. They fell back.

If they had not been strong enough to withstand the attack, their Neverwithers physique might have been broken. Yes, the power Zhang Ruochen released was strong enough to destroy Neverwithers physique.

Gu Chenzi and Lord Xia Yu stared at Zhang Ruochen with cold eyes. Even if they did not want to admit it, they had been defeated by Zhang Ruochen.

They had not used any techniques from Path of Destiny. Zhang Ruochen had not used technique of Path of Truth either.

Seeing this, the entire Vastsea Garden fell silent. Many cultivators stared at Zhang Ruochen with their eyes wide open.

They weren't only surprised by the result. What made them even more shocked was the ten golden wings on Zhang Ruochen's back. They were all feeling unbelievable.

Among the Immortal Vampires, golden wings were rarely seen in a thousand years.

No one had expected that Zhang Ruochen would have them. Moreover, he was only at Neverwilt Realm, but he had already grown ten. So one could tell how powerful was his Blood Qi.

There were reverence in their eyes.

The cultivators of the Xue Jue family were very excited. The result was clear. Bloodsky Clan would be led by elite from Xue Jue family after all.

Zhang Ruochen stood proudly in the air and looked at Vastsea Garden. "I'll be the leader of Celestial-Hunting Festival this time! Does anyone else have any objections?" His tone was indifferent.

Even the Three Top Elites of Bloodskly Clan had been defeated. Who dared to ask for trouble?

If Zhang Ruochen was offended, the offender could lost the chance to attend Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Hence, none of them spoke. The silence lasted for a while.

Zhang Ruochen moved and appeared directly on the floating island,

At this moment, the cultivators on the island looked at Zhang Ruochen differently than before. Some were in awe; some were eager; and some were excited..

'Zhang Ruochen has just arrived in Infernal Court. He is unfamiliar with other cultivators, and is even ostracized and isolated.

"If I take this opportunity to make friends with him, take the initiative to express my goodwill, and even get him some gifts, I might be able to get a spot in Celestial-Hunting Festival.

'With my own strength, the chance of getting a spot is not high,' some cultivators with relatively weaker cultivation thought in their hearts.

The benefits of Celestial-Hunting Festival were too great for anyone to resist. Even if they had to pay the price, it was totally worth it.

Looking at Zhang Ruochen's outstanding figure, Xue Ningxiao could not calm down for a long time. Those three were the top elites, the most talented monsters of Bloodsky Clan. Yet, all of them had been defeated by him.

Although she knew that Zhang Ruochen was extraordinary, she did not expect him to be so powerful.

"If I can eat Altofruits and drink Divine Jade Dew at Celestial-Hunting Festival, I might be able to cultivate several Paths to the Great Perfection stage.

"It's worth it even if I sell all my treasures in exchange for a spot for such great benefits."

"Since cousin has become a leader, maybe I can take a shortcut."

"Oh right, cousin needs Godstones. I'll sell all my treasures and exchange them for Godstones."

The more Xue Ningxiao thought about it, the more she felt her strategy was feasible. She stared at Zhang Ruochen with shining eyes. She could not wait to do this right away.

Looking at everyone's eyes, how could Zhang Ruochen not guess what they were thinking?

Every spot for Celestial-Hunting Festival was extremely precious and represented huge benefits. Moreover, it was only once in a lifetime.

Who wouldn't be tempted?

Zhang Ruochen had just arrived. He had yet to get familiar with the cultivators of Bloodsky Clan. It was a headache to let him decide on the candidates...

...even though elites should be considered first.

However, the Supreme Saints gathered here did not have a big cultivation gap. The gap between Saint Kings was even smaller.

It was hard to determine who was stronger and who was weaker just by cultivation alone.

However, if they had to go through the battle selection one by one, it would take a long time to decide on the candidates.

Zhang Ruochen walked to Xue Ningxiao's side and sat down.

Xue Ningxiao looked very reserved and nervous, just like the first time she met Zhang Ruochen. Her lips moved, and she wanted to say something but stopped.

"If you were to decide the candidates, what would you do?" Zhang Ruochen suddenly asked.

Xue Ningxiao was stunned and did not respond for a long time. She said, "Y-Y-You're asking me?"

"Yes." Zhang Ruochen nodded.

After thinking for a long time, she said in a low voice, "If it were me... it's actually very simple. Our Xue Jue family has collected information about these cultivators."

"For example, there are 78 Supreme Saint elites. 15 have reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm, and 23 have reached the peak of Neverwilt Realm. Their strength is unquestionable. They can be directly selected.

"The remaining 12 spots will be contested by other Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints."

"What about the 50 spots for the Saint Kings?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Ningxiao said, "Of course, it's the same screening method."

"Okay, I'll leave this to you!" Zhang Ruochen said.

"Ah?"

Xue Ningxiao was stunned. She thought it was her imagination.

How important was the selection of the candidates for Celestial-Hunting Festival? How could she do it?

In fact, Zhang Ruochen was very relieved to leave this matter to Xue Ningxiao. That was because Xue Ningxiao's father was Supreme Saint Qingsheng, the acting head of the Xue Jue family.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng would certainly intervene in such an important matter. He would not let Xue Ningxiao do whatever she wanted.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen seemed to be handing it over to Xue Ningxiao, but in fact, he was handing it over to Supreme Saint Qingsheng. Presumably, the other cultivators could understand what he meant.

After a moment, Xue Ningxiao came back to her senses. She asked quietly, “Cousin, are you really handing this over to me?”

“Do I look like I’m joking with You?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Ningxiao nodded quickly and smiled with joy. “Don’t worry, cousin. I won’t let you down!”

Immediately, Xue Ningxiao started her mission. She carefully sorted out all the cultivators’ information and even went to visit Supreme Saint Qingsheng in person. She was very serious.

Not long after, Xue Ningxiao stood up, she said nervously, “Next, we will determine who will be participating in Celestial-Hunting Festival. We go through Supreme Saints first. The names I have read out are selected.

“Cough cough, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Lord Xia Yu, Gu Chenzi... Supreme Saint Mo Xun.”

Xue Ningxiao read out thirty-eight names in one go. All of them were with cultivation rank at least at the peak of Neverwilt Realm.

“There are 12 spots left. Whoever thinks they can participate can take the initiative to come forward. Whoever comes forward first will get the spots.”

“However, if anyone doesn’t agree, they can challenge the person, and the spot will be the victor’s.”

As soon as she finished speaking.

“I want to participate.”

“I want to participate too.”

...

The rules had been set. The battles among the Supreme Saints soon began.

With Xue Ningxiao doing this, Zhang Ruochen felt at ease. He sat in his seat and drank alone.

Seeing that the battle selection had already begun, Zhang Ruochen could not help but sigh in his heart. It turned out that it was the same for the creatures of Infernal Court and the Celestial Court. No one would be modest for the sake of benefits. Even if they were from the same clan, they still had to fight.

In order to participate in Celestial-Hunting Festival, no one would show mercy. They would do everything they could.

“Seven days later, we have to go to the forest of no return. If you let a little girl do this, will she be able to do it well?” At this moment, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan suddenly walked over.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and said, “Those with strong cultivation might not be able to carry out the task well. One can not judge a book by its cover. There are some things that she might be able to do better than us.”

“That makes sense. Maybe one day, she will become stronger than us.”

After a pause, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan continued, “By the way, I almost forgot the important matter. There are a few lucky fellows who want to meet you.”

“Lucky fellows?” Zhang Ruochen was surprised.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said, “Yes, they are just a few lucky fellows. They are also known as the most talented elites born in the last thousand years of Bloodysky Clan.”

Zhang Ruochen was struck by his words. He thought the top elites were the most talented monsters of Bloodysky Clan? Was there anyone stronger than them?

What realm were those few in? were they already in Thousand-Koan Realm?

Undoubtedly, the few monsters that Saint Yi Xuan mentioned piqued Zhang Ruochen's curiosity. He could not help but be interested.

"Where are they?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yi Xuan said, "They are in the Vastsea Garden. I'll take you there."

Immediately, the two left the floating island and entered a courtyard in the Vastsea Garden.

Compared to other places, this courtyard was particularly quiet. The environment was also very elegant. A large number of blood plum blossoms were planted. The fragrance of the flowers permeated the air.

Passing through the beautiful garden, Zhang Ruochen saw an ancient pavilion in the distance. There were five figures in the pavilion. Four men and a woman were sitting together. Four men were drinking, and the woman was playing the zither, the zither music was slow and melodious, making it easy to relax.

Zhang Ruochen's gaze swept over the four men and a woman. A strange light flashed in his eyes. With his current cultivation, he could not see through them. He only felt that they were covered in a layer of fog. It was unfathomable.

"Since you're here, come and have a few drinks," a refined man said with a smile.

There was no power fluctuation coming from this person. He was like an ordinary scholar.

The most special thing about the refined man was that he had double pupils. Each eye had two pupils. They were deep and seemed to contain a strange magic power.

Zhang Ruochen did not hesitate. He walked towards the pavilion with Saint Yi Xuan.

Saint Yi Xuan extended a hand and said impolitely, "I invited you here. Where's my good wine?"

The scholarly man with double pupils flipped his hand and took out an exquisite wine gourd. He threw it to Saint Yi Xuan.

The scholarly man smiled and said, “Yi Xuan, this is Zhang Ruochen’s first time in Infernal Court. He definitely doesn’t know us old men who have lived for almost a thousand years. Why are you only drinking? Why Don’t you introduce us to Him?”

“Old Man? You Old Men, don’t connect me,” said the beautiful woman playing the zither.

The woman was extremely beautiful. She exuded an invisible power of charm. Even a Supreme Saint would be affected.

Yi Xuan glared. “Introduce you to what? How Amazing Are You? You’ve reached Thousand-Koan Realm before the age of 1,000? And you, Heavenly Lord Mu Yang, have reached the realm of life and death? It’s all luck.”

“If I was that Lucky, I would have reached the Paramount Realm long ago. There’s no need for me to look at you guys.”

Seeing the reaction of Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, the scholarly man shook his head, he said helplessly, “Forget it, let me introduce them. The four of them are the Zhiyuan blood emperor, the Tu Yun Supreme Saint, the Spear Emperor and the Xi Yuan empress. As for me, my name is Mu Yang.”

Blood Emperor Zhiyuan was tall and sturdy. He wore blood-red armor and gave off an extremely cold aura.

Supreme Saint Tu Yun was extremely handsome. He had long silver hair and a red dot between his brows. It seemed to have been placed in cinnabar, adding a different kind of beauty to him.

As for the spear emperor, he gave off a fierce and domineering aura. He sat at the side and quietly wiped a silver saint spear that wasn’t filled with blood-red runes.

Empress Yuyan was naturally the beautiful woman playing the zither.

Zhang Ruochen's gaze swept past the five powerful figures one by one. He was slightly shocked. Four thousand query realm experts and one thousand death and one life realm expert had been born within a thousand years. The foundation of Bloodysky Clan wasn't simple.

From this, one could guess how powerful the foundation of the entire Immortal Vampires was.

"We came here to talk to you about the sky hunting banquet. "You should know that the sky hunting banquet isn't just a banquet. The most important thing is the hunt. Our cultivation bases have already surpassed the Hundred-Shackle Realm, so we can't participate in the Hunt."

"No matter what kind of trouble or provocation there is, we can accept it for you. However, we can only rely on you to fight for Bloodysky Clan," heavenly Lord Mu Yang said.

In fact, he felt quite regretful that he could not attend Celestial-Hunting Festival.

The once-in-a-thousand-years banquet was an opportunity to fight for the glory of Bloodysky Clan. No one was willing to miss it.

"Zhang Ruochen, since you are the son of true God Qing Yin, then it doesn't matter if you were a cultivator from Kunlun or the wide cold world. "You are now a member of our Bloodysky Clan. I hope you can perform well at Celestial-Hunting Festival. Don't lose the prestige of Bloodysky Clan," Supreme Saint Tu Yun said gently.

Before he could finish his sentence..., blood Emperor Zhiyuan snorted. "Zhang Ruochen, since you are the leader, you have to go all out and suppress the ghost clan, the Bone clan... Those bastards.". "You have put so much effort on the merit battlefield and so much effort on Celestial-Hunting Festival. "If anyone is not convinced, just beat them. "What is the most important? The glory of Bloodysky Clan is the most important."

"I agree with you. During Celestial-Hunting Festival, don't show any mercy to the other clans. Let them know how powerful our Bloodysky Clan is. Of course, first, you have to beat those powerful Immortal Vampires to the ground. Lord Bladehell of Qitian Clan, Supreme Saint Jin Kun from Azuresky Clan, and Lady Wind from Yellowsky Clan. “All three of them are in the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. If we can defeat them, our Bloodsky Clan will have a chance to defeat the other nine clans.” Supreme Saint Yi Xuan agreed.

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen could not help but think. The Bloodsky Clan had powerful warriors in Thousand-Koan Realm and Banshi Isshou Realm. It was normal for other clans to have powerful warriors in the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The other nine clans in Infernal Court would definitely have warriors at the completion of the 100th shackle realm as well. They might even have more than the Immortal Vampires.

Breaking 99 shackles and the completion of the 100th shackle seemed to be only one shackle apart, but the difference was huge. There was an insurmountable gap between them.

Therefore, if Lord Xia Yu really went up against Saber Hell Emperor, Jinkun Supreme Saint, and Feng Hou, even if her methods were strange and unpredictable, she probably wouldn't be able to win.

‘But what did they mean by hunting?’

‘It was a good feast, but they said it was extremely dangerous.’

“Zhang Ruochen, when hunting, don't be soft-hearted just because the prey is a captive from Celestial Court. You have to remember that you are now the leader of our Bloodysky Clan. You have to fight for the honor of the Clan.”

“What?”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. So the so-called Celestial Hunting was actually hunting a cultivator of Celestial Court.

Before this, Zhang Ruochen had never expected such an outcome. It was ridiculous that he was still competing for the leader's position.

No wonder Blood Empress said that he could only gain a foothold in Infernal Court by winning Celestial-Hunting Festival with all his strength.

This test was really cruel. It was clear that he wanted Zhang Ruochen to be Celestial Court's enemy and could never return to there.

Although Celestial-Hunting Festival was held in Infernal Court, such an extraordinary event would definitely spread to the myriad of macroworlds. It was impossible to hide it.

"I really want to know what your plan is. How do you plan to let our Bloodysky Clan take the lead in the hunt?" Empress Xi Yan asked with a faint smile.

Chapter 2231: Master and Disciple Meet

Zhang Ruochen's emotions became very complicated and heavy. He did not know what to do. Could he kill a cultivator from Celestial Court?

Among the cultivators from Celestial Court, there might be cultivators from Kunlun and Guanghan. They had fought together as comrades before, but now they had to kill each other.

"You haven't thought about it yet? Do you want me to help you plan a strategy?" Empress Xiyan asked.

Lord Zhiyuan drank a cup of wine, and he said domineeringly, "Why is it so complicated? In my opinion, as long as there's a chance, we can attack them in secret and snatch all their spoils of war. As long as we don't kill them, it's not against the rules."

"That makes sense. We should do it this way. In the previous few Celestial-Hunting Festivals, the other clans have attacked us many times, especially the Ghosts. They have repeatedly targeted our Bloodysky Clan. Otherwise, why would we end up at bottom of the list in a row?" said Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Lord Zhiyuan snorted coldly, "It's all because Ghost Master suffered a loss at the hands of our Wargod. It could not do anything to our Wargod, so it could only target us at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. This time, the seventh son of Ghost Master, Xue, will probably participate too."

"You lot are useless. Bloodysky Clan finally found an extraordinary unexplored region in the universe and sent you guys in to explore it. Yet, in the end, not only did Xue get there first and snatched away the most valuable item, Bloodysky Clan suffered heavy losses in his hand."

Speaking of the seventh son of Ghost Master, Lord Zhiyuan was furious. He wanted to teach him a lesson personally.

“Don’t mention that scum in front of me. He schemed behind my back and stole what I deserved. It was an insult to Bloodysky Clan. If I have a chance, I will smash him with all my might!” said Supreme Saint Yi Xuan angrily.

Ten years ago, he was schemed against in the unexplored region. It was a humiliation to Yi Xuan and the other Bloodysky Clan cultivators.

Although Bloodysky Clan had been the one who discovered that unexplored region, yet Xue got all the benefits, and Yi Xuan ended up being the one who suffered great losses.

This incident became a laughing stock among the other nine Immortal Vampires clans.

Supreme Saint Tu Yun shook his head. “If you want to smash him, I’m afraid it won’t be that easy. Not long ago, outside the Kunlun, Xu displayed his cultivation strength. He attained he stage of Great Perfection stage at Hundred-Shackle Realm and severely injured a Supreme Saint elite who was also at Hundred-Shackle Realm. He crushed that elite’s Saint source and captured him. Now, he’s in the limelight.”

“Back then, his cultivation level was not even as high as mine, but he reached the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm so quickly. It must be because of the treasure he obtained in that unexplored region. How despicable.” Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was getting angrier.

If he could secure that treasure in that unexplored region, he would have reached the Great Perfection stage at Hundred-Shackle Realm by now. It would be easy for him to break through to Thousand-Koan Realm.

Zhang Ruochen was still thinking about Celestial-Hunting Festival. When he heard what the Supreme Saint Tu Yun said, he was slightly shocked.

He did not expect to hear news related to Guanghai in Infernal Court so quickly.

Unfortunately, it was bad news.

Guanghai was the weakest among the ten thousand Microworlds of Celestial Court. There were less than a hundred Supreme Saints. Now that Infernal Court had captured a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, it would be a huge blow. for Guanghan.

This was war. No one could predict what would happen next?

Zhang Ruochen wanted to change everything, but he could not. He was already a Supreme Saint, but he still felt his strength was very limited. There were too few things he could do.

Soon, Zhang Ruochen's thoughts were pulled back to Celestial-Hunting Festival.

It was a once-in-a-thousand-years festival, but he felt that Infernal Court was testing him on purpose. It was as if fate had arranged everything.

When Zhang Ruochen knew the truth of Celestial-Hunting Festival, his heart sank. He did not want to hear what Lord Mu Yang and the others were talking about.

"Everyone, I have something important to do. I'll take my leave first."

Zhang Ruochen's expression was grave. He stood up from his seat and walked out.

"Huh?"

Seeing this, Lord Mu Yang and the others could not help but look surprised. They did not understand Zhang Ruochen's actions.

Lord Zhiyuan frowned slightly. He looked displeased. They had invited Zhang Ruochen over with good intentions, but he left without saying anything. It was too arrogant.

"Zhang—"

Lord Zhiyuan wanted to call Zhang Ruochen, but was stopped by Lord Mu Yang.

Lord Mu Yang could see that there was a weight on Zhang Ruochen's mind. Zhang Ruochen did not want to talk to them, so it was meaningless for them to keep him here. This was not out of expectation. After all, Zhang Ruochen had once been a cultivator in Celestial Court. It was likely that he was still thinking about his friendship with his ex-comrades

Before this, he probably did not know that the preys in Celestial-Hunting Festival were the captives from different Macroworlds of Celestial Court.

It must have had a huge psychological impact on him.

Whether Zhang Ruochen could face all of this bravely depended on his courage.

Walking out of the courtyard, Zhang Ruochen stood under a tree that was emitting an unusual fragrance.

It was a Sanguis Tree. It was grown with a large amount of blood. It was very fragrant, and it emitted a terrifying murderous aura. Hence, cultivators with cultivation rank below Saint-level did not dare to approach it.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the tree. After a long silence, he asked in a low voice, “Mother, do I have to join Celestial-Hunting Festival?”

As soon as he finished speaking, a leaf fell from the Sanguis Tree and landed on his hand.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the leaf in his palm. There was a blood-red word on the leaf: “Yes.”

It was the simplest answer.

Blood Empress did not even want to meet him via an avatar.

Because of that, Zhang Ruochen knew how important this matter was.

“Understood! ”

Zhang Ruochen nodded silently. The leaf in his palm turned into blood mist and dissipated.

Just as he was about to leave, strands of red light fell from the Sanguis Tree, condensing into a heroic figure.

It was Lord Ming.

Lord Ming looked at Zhang Ruochen with his hands behind his back, “If you think you cannot do it, you can choose not to go,” he said. “But if you do so, from now on, you would face difficulty in Infernal Court.

“Perhaps your mother can protect you in Xue Jue Family. but you will never be able to leave Xue Jue Family.

“Do you understand what I mean?”

Zhang Ruochen fell into deep thought.

He had already thought about what Lord Ming had said, and he knew what kind of situation he was in.

Whether he was willing to admit it or not, from the moment he had decided to enter Infernal Court, he could not go back to Celestial Court. If he could not gain a foothold in Infernal Court, perhaps there would be no place for him in the world.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen had already made up his mind before he asked that question.

No matter what, he would go to Celestial-Hunting Festival.

However, although he had made up his mind, Zhang Ruochen still felt very depressed. It was so depressing that he almost could not breathe.

Entering Infernal Court and becoming a member of Infernal Court were two completely different things.

“I know what to do,” Zhang Ruochen replied calmly.

Hearing this answer, Lord Ming could not help but come forward. He patted Zhang Ruochen’s shoulder and said with a smile, “You are a smart man. Don’t let me down. You have made swordsmanship your main cultivation path, right?”

Zhang Ruochen did not know why Lord Ming suddenly asked such a question, but he still answered it seriously, “It’s one of my main cultivation paths.”

“Okay! Look at this. What do you think of my sword technique?”

Lord Ming condensed a bloody-red sword with his divine force of Blood. He held the sword with one hand. The sword was level with the ground and slowly moved sideways. It was very slow, but the sword momentum was getting stronger and stronger. It was as if it could flatten mountains and slash across the galaxy.

There was only one sword technique. It seemed very simple, but it contained infinite changes. Its profoundness could not be described with words.

Lord Ming did not mobilize any Precepts or divine power. He simply showcased the sword technique. It seemed slow, but it was actually fast. Zhang Ruochen's gaze was completely attracted.

“This is the sword technique on Wordless Sword Manual.”

Zhang Ruochen had practiced Wordless Sword Manual to Sword Ten. He was very familiar with the sword techniques on the manual.

Zhang Ruochen could see that the move Lord Ming had performed was more profound than Sword Ten, but there was some connection.

It should be a sword move that extended from Sword Ten.

If he wasn't mistaken, it should be... Sword Eleven.

Wordless Sword Manual was deep and profound. It had been left behind by Ancestral Swordmaster. No one else had fully comprehended it, so no one knew what realm Ancestral Swordmaster had reached.

After the Middle Ages, in the eyes of the cultivators of Kunlun, Sword Ten was almost the pinnacle of practicing Wordless Sword Manual. The lack of records show very few swordsmen had made further progress, let alone achieving another level.

Lord Ming put away his sword and asked, “Have you seen it clearly?”

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly.

The sword move was very simple. It was a horizontal slash. Any cultivator should be able to see it clearly.

“Out of 10 points, how much have you comprehended?” Lord Ming asked again.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Half a point."

"Great! You can comprehend half a point after just one practice. You are talented. With this half a point, you've entered the threshold. You should have a rough idea about the direction you should take. Next, it depends on your own comprehension ability."

"After you've mastered this move, you can come to me again."

Lord Ming's figure disappeared as if he had never appeared after he finished talking.

Zhang Ruochen stood there for a long time. He took a deep breath and then turned around to leave.

He did not return to Vastsea Garden. He wasn't in the mood to ask about what happened there.

Zhang Ruochen arrived at his villa. When he was about to enter, he suddenly found a strange mark on the ground in front of the door.

It was a Sword Seal.

It was four feet long and three inches wide. The body of the sword was irregular and rectangular.

"Who left the Sword Seal of Toten Sword here?"

Zhang Ruochen's eyes showed a hint of surprise.

In Infernal Court, only cultivators of Kunlun could draw Toten Sword.

Zhang Ruochen knew that there were very few cultivators of Kunlun in Infernal Court. It was Pan Ruo? Sword Saint Xuanji? Or someone else?

What did the person mean by leaving the Sword Seal of Toten Sword?

"Toten Sword.."

Zhang Ruochen carefully observed the Sword Seal on the ground and soon found that the tip of the sword was neither vertical nor parallel to the gate of the villa. Instead, it was angled, as if it was intentional.

After thinking for a while, Zhang Ruochen released his spirit. It turned into a spiritual power avatar, flying toward the direction pointed by the sword tip.

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power avatar was very fast. It flew out of the Xue Jue family and arrived at Ancient City Skylin.

The next moment, Zhang Ruochen appeared on a very wide street.

This street was level with the direction pointed by the sword tip.

There were many pavilions on both sides of the street. It was very prosperous. There was an endless stream of cultivators from Infernal Court coming and going.

Zhang Ruochen walked along the street. He had a subtle feeling that he was being watched.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen raised his head. He saw a charming woman standing in the middle of the street. She was walking slowly against the crowd.

Before this, he had not noticed the charming woman. It was as if she had appeared out of thin air.

In the blink of an eye, the charming woman walked in front of Zhang Ruochen. She did not say anything, but she showed a charming smile. She flipped her hand and took out a pearl with a faint divine light. She twirled it between her fingers and put it into his hand.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen felt that the entire world had changed. All the cultivators on the street had disappeared, leaving him alone.

He was still standing on the street, but he felt like he was in a void where he could not sense the existence of Precepts and Saint Qi of heaven and earth. This location was completely isolated. Everything there was sealed off, kept under wraps.

Under such circumstances, the connection between Zhang Ruochen's spirit and his true body was cut off.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen felt someone reach out and pat his shoulder.

The street where Zhang Ruochen stood suddenly disappeared and a pitch-black abyss appeared. He lost control and plunged.

He was able to regain his footing after a long time.

However, he was no longer on the street, but in a simple and elegant room.

When he looked up, Zhang Ruochen saw an outstanding figure with his hands behind his back and a gentle smile on his face.

“Master!”

Zhang Ruochen was stunned. His heart seemed to have stopped beating. Then, he looked excited.

Not long ago, Zhang Ruochen had asked Xue Tu to find Sword Saint Xuanji. Who would have thought that he would see Sword Saint Xuanji in the territory of Bloodysky Clan so soon?

Sword Saint Xuanji smiled. “Ruochen, it’s not easy to meet you in Infernal Court. There is a total of three truegods in Xue Jue Family. I wouldn’t have come if I were not bold enough.”

“Master is bold. Or else, you would not have gone against the world to save me from Wan Zhaoyi.”

Zhang Ruochen quickly walked forward and bowed to Sword Saint Xuanji. “Greetings, Master.”

No matter what realm his cultivation had reached, Zhang Ruochen dared not forget his teacher’s kindness.

“There’s no need for such formalities between us.” Sword Saint Xuanji reached out and helped Zhang Ruochen up.

Zhang Ruochen straightened his body and asked, “Did you come to Bloodysky Clan’s territory to meet me?”

Sword Saint Xuanji nodded. “When I heard that you had come to Infernal Court, I immediately rushed over. I wanted to meet you, but I could not find the right opportunity.

“Today, the Bloodsky Clan held a God-ascension Ceremony. I transformed into an Immortal Vampire to infiltrated Bloodsky clan. I left a Sword Seal of Toten outside your residence

“Your identity is special now, so I don’t dare to make contact with you in Bloodsky clan rashly. I can only lure you to Ancient City Skylin to avoid detection from other deities.”

Zhang Ruochen understood that if Sword Saint Xuanji did not act cautious, Xuanji would have been exposed long ago.

After all, Sword Saint Xuanji was different from him. He had the identity of an Immortal Vampire and could live openly in Infernal Court.

On the other hand, if Sword Saint Xuanji got busted, he would be in a very dangerous situation. Infernal Court would never allow Kunlun cultivators to lurk their territory.

“Master, how have you been in Infernal Court all these years?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Sword Saint Xuanji was silent for a moment. He shook his head and smiled, “Well, what to expect?” he said.

“It’s good to be still alive. Forget it, let’s not talk about this. You, on the other hand, must have had a hard time these years. I already know about it. It’s been hard on you!”

Although he was in Infernal Court, Sword Saint Xuanji had been paying attention to the news about Zhang Ruochen. From the start of the merit battlefield in the ancestral spirit world, Sword Saint Xuanji knew almost everything that had happened to Zhang Ruochen.

“Master, I’m sorry. I could not save second Senior, third Senior, and fifth senior sister apprentice. I watched them die tragically in front of me.”

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen lowered his head. His eyes were filled with endless guilt. He had put this matter behind him a long time ago, but when he saw Sword Saint Xuanji, he could not help but think of it again.

The scenes from before seemed to be right in front of him.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen's heart became bitter and bitter.

The deaths of Zhu Hongtao, Wan Ke, and the others were an eternal pain to him.

Sword Saint Xuanji sighed lightly and patted his shoulder. "It's not your fault. You Don't have to blame yourself. I've never blamed you, and no one will blame you. Haven't you already avenged them?"

Including Huang Yanchen, Sword Saint Xuanji had only taken in seven disciples in his life.

But now..

It was impossible not to be sad.

Sword Saint Xuanji's eyes were red, but he forced a smile and looked at him carefully, he smiled and said, "After so many years, you've become a Supreme Saint. Things have changed. Back then, I thought the best of all disciples was you. You did not disappoint me."

Sword Saint Xuanji did not have any children. In his eyes, Zhang Ruochen was like his child.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen's achievements, he could only be filled with joy.

"Master took such a big risk to contact me. Is there something important?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Sword Saint Xuanji stayed in Infernal Court and did not return to Kunlun with Han Xue. This was something Zhang Ruochen could not understand. Why did he stay in such a dangerous place for so long?

Chapter 2232: Grand Supreme Array Master

Sword Saint Xuanji's expression suddenly became serious, and his eyes revealed a contemplative look.

After a moment, Sword Saint Xuanji said, "There is indeed a very important matter, a major matter that can change the current situation of Kunlun."

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen became even more curious.

Kunlun had already become a battlefield of Merit. Both Celestial Court and Infernal Court wanted to fight for the treasures within. What could change all of this?

But if that was the case, it would be for the best.

At least Kunlun cultivators wouldn't have to sacrifice themselves.

After a pause, Sword Saint Xuanji continued, "You should already know that 100,000 years ago, nearly half of the deities of Celestial Court and Infernal Court perished or were severely wounded in a tragic battle. It greatly affected the entire Celestial Court.

"Kunlun was completely crippled and severely damaged in that war. It was Saint Monk Xumi who sacrificed himself to temporarily seal those rifts and isolate Kunlun from the outside world. Otherwise, Kunlun would have long become the territory of Infernal Court."

Zhang Ruochen nodded.

By now, he was aware of these past events.

The catastrophe in the middle ages was more than just tragic. Kunlun was at its most glorious moment. Yet, it was almost destroyed. Its Divine Sky-connecting Tree was cut off, and the deities died. After 100,000 years, it entered the age of no deities.

It fell from the peak into the abyss.

“Everyone thinks that Kunlun deities have all died in that battle. But that’s not the case. At least, there’s still a prominent god, a magnate, living in the Infernal Court,” Sword Saint Xuanji said seriously.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “A magnate from Kunlun lives in Infernal Court? Why is that?”

“Infernal Court deities suppressed him. However, they can only imprison him in the Fane of Destiny because he is too tough to kill. Therefore, they want to ground him down with the power of Destiny until he’s destroyed,” Sword Saint Xuanji said in a low voice.

Zhang Ruochen stared into Sword Saint Xuanji’s eyes. He already had an answer. “Master, so you staying in Infernal Court is related to that prominent god? Is he the one who covered up your whereabouts?”

Infernal Court could not kill that magnate. In other words, that deity must have reached a level beyond the laws of heaven and earth.

He must be very powerful since he could even execute many things with just the remnant of his Consciousness in heaven and earth.

Sword Saint Xuanji nodded and said, “Yes, they are all related to him. What I want to do is to rescue him from the Fane of Destiny.”

“Rescue the magnate?”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked.

In his opinion, this was an unimaginable mission. The Fane of Destiny had spent a lot of efforts to imprison that magnate. Who could save him?

Even deities could not do it.

“In fact, the rescue plan started 100,000 years ago. It began with Empress of Thousand Bones. Back then, Empress of Thousand Bones sensed the magnate’s remnant Consciousness, so she went deep into the Netherworld and made arrangements in secret

“However, this is not a small matter. It is not something that can be accomplished in a short period of time, nor can it be done by just one person. Over the past 100,000 years, many Kunlun cultivators have infiltrated Infernal Court and joined the rescue plan.”

“Back then, I followed her footsteps, ventured deep into the Netherworld, and crossed the second Corpse River. I was lucky enough to learn of all of this and play a role in the rescue plan,” Xuanji said with a solemn expression.

It was difficult to rescue people from Infernal Court, especially from the Fane of Destiny. One had to have a thorough plan and enough manpower to ensure no single mistake in every step.

Zhang Ruochen could not help but think of the magnificent figure he saw before Death’s Door. Blackie had called out her name.

‘Could it be... that was really Empress of Thousand Bones?’

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen thought of something. With a complicated look in his eyes, he asked, “Is she part of the plan?”

Since the magnate was imprisoned in the Fane of Destiny, Zhang Ruochen naturally thought of Huang Yanchen, who had become Pan Ru.

In his opinion, the most crucial part of the rescue plan was to infiltrate the Fane of Destiny so they could work from the inside.

Therefore, Huang Yanchen was probably not the only Kunlun cultivator who had entered the Fane of Destiny.

Although Huang Yanchen had just joined the Fane of Destiny, she was already a Scioness candidate. Without the help of the Kunlun cultivators, it was impossible.

Did Chi Yao know about this since the beginning?’

For a moment, Zhang Ruochen thought of many things. His mind was no longer calm.

Sword Saint Xuanji became silent as if he was thinking about something. After a long while, he said, “Sh-She has more important things to do.”

Hearing this answer, Zhang Ruochen instantly knew that Sword Saint Xuanji and Pan Ruo must have met each other in Infernal Court.

“Ruochen, do you know why many Kunlun cultivators like me want to save that magnate?” Sword Saint Xuanji suddenly asked.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly. He could not figure out the meaning behind it.

According to Sword Saint Xuanji, saving that magnate could change turn the tide in Kunlun. It was equivalent to turning the tables.

Who had such great ability?

Even ten Chi Yaos could not do it.

Even deities like Wargod Bloodximus and Moon Goddess could not do it.

It was almost impossible...unless Saint Monk Xumi was resurrected.

Sword Saint Xuanji was a little excited, his eyes were brightened. “Everything is for the future of Kunlun. With the power of that magnate, the situation of Kunlun will be completely changed once he gets out of here.”

Then, he started to narrate,

“100,000 years ago, Milky Way of Styx from Infernal Court flew towards Kunlun and tried to engulf it. However, it was discovered by that magnate.”

“That magnate was Grand Supreme Array Master. He used the stars in the sky as the points for an array and activated it from where Death’s Door was. He set up an incomparably magnificent array that isolated Kunlun with myriad miles of starry skies and blocked Milky Way of Styx.

“Even after 100,000 years, Infernal Court was still unable to break through that array.”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked and said, “He single-handedly blocked the entire Infernal Court?”

Milky Way of Styx was, in a sense, Infernal Court.

That magnate could block it with an array. That was a powerful skill.

“This is something that only a Grand Supreme Array Master can do,” Sword Saint Xuanji said with a sigh.

What was Grand Supreme Master?

It was a title, a rank that one could only earn when they reached the highest level in a certain skill set.

For example, Grand Supreme Array Master, Grand Supreme Talisman Master, Grand Supreme Illusion Master... and so on.

Throughout the ages, very few cultivators were conferred the title of ‘Grand Supreme Master’ specializing in certain areas. It rarely happened within a Yuanhui period.

For that magnate to be able to become the Grand Supreme Array Master, his attainments in array and formation techniques must be beyond imagination. Everything in the world could be used as a formation, an array. Who wouldn’t be afraid?

It was easy to imagine that if the Grand Supreme Master was rescued, both Celestial Court and Infernal would be afraid and wouldn’t dare to plot against Kunlun.

How strong could the Grand Supreme Master’s spiritual power be?

Level 70? Level 80? Or level 90? Or was he already at the Great Perfection stage, which was level 100?

“Death’s Door is actually the work of the magnate who was imprisoned in the Fane of Destiny.” Zhang Ruochen sighed.

That magnate meant a lot to Kunlun. The things he did would decide the fate of Kunlun.

Sword Saint Xuanji spoke with confidence, “100,000 years ago when that magnate was setting up the array, he killed a large number of Infernal Court elites. The divine blood dyed the starry sky red, making Infernal Court fearful. In the end, they deployed a great number of top deities and paid a great price to suppress that magnate finally.”

“If he can escape and return to Kunlun, Infernal Court will retreat. Otherwise, no matter how many deities and Supreme Saints they sent, many will die.

“Unless, Infernal Court want to trigger another War of Gods, like the one 100,000 years ago.

“Huh, there’s no way Infernal Court can withstand another War of Gods. Even deities fear death.”

Zhang Ruochen felt his breathing stop, and his heart skipped a beat. He looked at Sword Saint Xuanji and asked, “Master, what’s my role?”

Zhang Ruochen believed that Sword Saint Xuanji had risked his life to meet his disciple at this time because of the rescue plan. Zhang Ruochen wanted to help if there was anything he could do.

He was duty-bound to help.

Kunlun was where Zhang Ruochen was born and grew up. It carried too many of his memories. It was his homeland.

No matter what, he did not want to see it gradually collapse. He also did not want to see its heritage plundered by Infernal Court and Celestial Court.

As long as there was hope, he was willing to do everything to stop it.

“I came to find you in the hope that you could help save that magnate. This Celestial-hunting Festival is the key. I hope you can join it,” Sword Saint Xuanji said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Why?”

Zhang Ruochen believed that Sword Saint Xuanji must have known the truth about Celestial-Hunting Festival, but he still wanted Zhang Ruochen to join it. There must be a significance behind this.

Sword Saint Xuanji said seriously, “Celestial-Hunting Festival originated from 100,000 years ago. This time, it happens to be the 100th. the Fane of Destiny attaches great importance to it, and the rewards it gives are far greater than before

“As long as you can be the top winner among the ten clans, the Fane of Destiny will grant you 0.3 percent of the Canon of Destiny. It will also grant you a Destiny Token. With it, you can enter some secret places of the Fane of Destiny to practice cultivation.”

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen could not help but be stunned. The Fane of Destiny was really generous that they were willing to give away 0.3 percent Canon of Destiny to the winner. It was the Canon of an Ancient Path. Even if it was just 0.01 percent of it, it was precious, that even a deity would desire it.

Zhang Ruochen himself had 0.58 percent of the Canon of Truth. If someone knew about it, he would be in great trouble.

“Does the Canon of Destiny have anything to do with saving that magnate?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Sword Saint Xuanji nodded. “The Canon of Destiny and Destiny Token are the keys to save that magnate.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes narrowed. How could it be easy to win first place among the ten clans?

There were many powerful figures in Infernal Court. Since this Celestial-hunting Festival was so important, the ten clans of Infernal Court would certainly send out their strongest troops. There were too many powerful enemies to face.

There were many powerful opponents in the Immortal Vampires alone.

“I will do my best in this matter,” said Zhang Ruochen a solemn expression,

He could not promise Sword Saint Xuanji anything at the moment. He could only try his best to fight at Celestial-Hunting Festival. As for the result, he would only know when the time came.

At this point, he had to join Celestial-Hunting Festival no matter what, and he could not relax at all.

It was expected that this would be a tough battle against the elites of the ten clans of Infernal Court.

Sword Saint Xuanji stared at Zhang Ruochen for a long time and said, "Do your best. No matter what the result is, I will always be proud of you."

Although this was an important matter, Sword Saint Xuanji did not want to put too much pressure on Zhang Ruochen.

After chatting with Sword Saint Xuanji again, Zhang Ruochen left and reappeared on the streets of Ancient City Skylin.

Zhang Ruochen did not stay any longer. He immediately rushed to the Xue Jue Family.

After entering the area covered by spiritual power, Zhang Ruochen put the avatar away.

"Celestial-hunting Festival. It seems that I have to make more preparations. Maybe I should start refining the Mercury Gourd!" Zhang Ruochen thought.

It wasn't easy to win the top place among the ten clans. The more trump cards one had, the more confident one would be.

Most of the time, treasures had a great impact on one's strength.

Previously, Zhang Ruochen had only wanted to refine Mercury Gourd into a Timespace treasure. But now, he had a better idea.

His main cultivation paths include palm and fist. One was with extreme Yang energy, while the other was with extreme Yin. When Yin and Yang became a combo, they rotated and displayed both hard and soft attributes. The most important thing was, the combo would be a perfect balance.

In order to ensure that there were no mistakes when practicing the combo, the best way was to refine a treasure that could support the process.

Zhang Ruochen thought refining the Golden Sun of Destruction and Mercury Gourd into a single weapon could be the perfect solution.

More importantly, when water and fire elements were combined, they would definitely undergo amazing changes and become a great killing weapon.

Of course, it was not easy to refine the Golden Sun of Destruction and Mercury Gourd together. It required very high attainments in refining skill.

In this regard, Zhang Ruochen had made preparations in advance. A long time ago, he had sought advice from Sword Sanctum on refining weapons. He had also read the transcript of The Record of Heavenly Work. Although he was not proficient in refining weapons, he had a deep understanding of refining artifacts.

With his present cultivation strength, he had some confidence in doing this.

However, refining such a supreme treasure could not be done in a short time. It would require an unusual environment to execute the process.

“There must be a place in Xue Jue Family specially made for artifact refinement,” Zhang Ruochen thought to himself.

Zhang Ruochen immediately returned to Vastsea Garden to visit Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was the acting head of Xue Jue Family. Naturally, Zhang Ruochen had to go through him.

Zhang Ruochen did not beat around the bush. He explained his intentions to Supreme Saint Qingsheng directly.

“You want to refine an artifact?” Supreme Saint Qingsheng asked.

He had never heard that Zhang Ruochen knew how to refine artifacts. Moreover, Zhang Ruochen had specially borrowed Xue Jue Family’s artifact refinement premise. It seemed that he wanted to refine some extraordinary artifact?

Zhang Ruochen nodded. “Yes.”

Suddenly, Supreme Saint Qingsheng's gaze was fixed in a certain direction beyond the sky. He was listening to someone attentively.

After a long while, he looked at Zhang Ruochen and said, "Wargod knows that you want to refine weapons. He has just ordered me to take you to Furnace of Heaven and Earth. Follow Me!"

With that, Supreme Saint Qingsheng flew out of Vastsea Garden.

Zhang Ruochen did not hesitate and immediately followed.

Zhang Ruochen did not expect that this matter would alarm Wargod Bloodximus. It seemed that in the territory of the Xue Jue Family, there were very few things that could be hidden from him.

As for Zhang Ruochen's meeting with Sword Saint Xuanji, Wargod Bloodximus should not have noticed it. After all, everything that happened in that space was sealed off and covered up.

'Wargod Bloodximus must have guessed that my purpose of refining artifacts at this time is to prepare for Celestial-Hunting Festival. He thought that's why I pay so much attention to it.'

Following Supreme Saint Qingsheng, Zhang Ruochen entered a special space after passing through layers of barriers set up with divine inscriptions. A wave of heat hit him. Even with his Demigod-level physique, he felt a little hot.

This space was boundless. There was a sky and land. It was like an enormous furnace.

The land was the body of the furnace, and the sky was the lid.

There were only pure Precepts of flame between the sky and the land, and they were abnormally active. He could not sense the existence of other Precepts of heaven and earth at all.

The flames in the cauldron were pure gold in color, and they were dazzling.

There were fire dragons, fire phoenixes, Fire Kilrins and other divine beasts of fire flew out from the cauldron to the sky. They were not real divine beasts. They were formed from the condensation of flames. They had already developed their intelligence. The ripples of energy they emitted were not inferior to that of ordinary Supreme Saints.

If any of them fell to the ground, they would be able to ignite a star and burn it into lava for tens of thousands of miles.

The face of the Qingsheng Supreme Saint was dyed golden when he was illuminated by the flames. “This place is called Furnace of Heaven and Earth. It contains countless profound and unimaginable energies. It is filled with divine flames. If you forge an artifact here, you can achieve twice the result with half the effort.”

“In the past, our Wargod refined his Blood Dragon Halberd here. Without our Wargod’s permission, ordinary people can’t enter.”

In fact, even without Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s words, Zhang Ruochen had already sensed the extraordinariness of Furnace of Heaven and Earth. It was no wonder that he could refine Blood Dragon Halberd, such an unrivaled divine weapon.

When he was at Sea of Time, Zhang Ruochen had personally witnessed how powerful was Blood Dragon Halberd. When it was in the hands of Wargod Bloodximius, it could slaughter deities and demons.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his hands and said, “Thank you for leading the way.”

“Don’t forget, we will leave for the Forest of no return in seven days with no delay.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng did not leave. He stood in the air near Furnace of Heaven and Earth. He was really curious. Why did our Wargod ask him to bring Zhang Ruochen here to refine artifacts?

What did Zhang Ruochen want to refine? Did he need to use Furnace of Heaven and Earth?

Even if he wanted to refine a Regal Artifact, there was no need for that.

Chapter 2233: Great and Powerful

Zhang Ruochen stood about 1,000 miles above the Furnace of Heaven and Earth. Even at this position, the temperature of the divine fire was comparable to the Mortal-level Divine Purification Flame.

Creatures below the Demi-Saint level would be burned to death in an instant if they stood at his position.

Zhang Ruochen released a spiritual power to sense the temperature change from the Furnace of Heaven and Earth.

Soon, Zhang Ruochen divided the temperature of the Furnace of Heaven and Earth into five levels.

The temperature and residual fire from 300 to 1,000 miles away from the Furnace of Heaven and Earth were comparable to the Mortal-level Divine Purification Flame

The area within 300 miles of the Furnace of Heaven and Earth was comparable to the Envoy-level Divine Purification Flame

The temperature of the flames at the inner edge of the Furnace of Heaven and Earth was on par with the Emperor-level Divine Purification Flame that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated.

To Zhang Ruochen, the fourth level of the divine fire was no weaker than the Divine Purification Flame cultivated by Yanshen.

The fifth level was denser and filled with a destructive aura. Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power didn't dare to probe into it. It was far more terrifying than the divine fire used by Yanshen.

In other words, the Furnace of Heaven and Earth could kill deities.

"The Xue Jue Family has dominated the Bloodysky Clan for tens of thousands of years. Their foundation is indeed extraordinary. They're more powerful than many macroworlds in Celestial Court. One family could go against an entire world."

Zhang Ruochen did not overthink. He took out the Mercury Gourd.

The gourd was yellowish-brown in colour and the size of a palm. It looked very ordinary.

The Mercury Gourd grew bigger and bigger as Saint Qi was poured in it. It became 300 meters long and released white water vapor. The high temperature around it cooled down which gave off a cooling feeling.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng squinted his eyes and looked carefully in a distance. Suddenly, his spirit jolted. “This should be a god-level plant. The size of the gourd is comparable to a star. It’s a natural dimensional divine treasure,” he said.

Even gods could only come across such a treasure by chance.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng looked envious. Kunlun is filled with rare treasures and the one that Zhang Ruochen had casually taken out made a Paramount Supreme Saint like him, envious.

‘What a pity! Such treasures could be regarded as divine materials to refine weapons. If they fell into the hands of a Archsaint Refiner, they would definitely be refined into a powerful Regal Artifact. After one or two Yuanhui Tribulations of nurturing, it might turn into a Supreme Artifact.’

Supreme Saint Qingsheng didn’t know how good Zhang Ruochen was at refining weapons. He was young and spent most of his time cultivating. His attainments in weapon refinery definitely couldn’t reach the level of a Master.

As for an Archsaint Refiner..

Impossible.

The Immortal Vampires had a Archsaint Refiner. Supreme Saint Qingsheng had been friends with him for thousands of years. It wasn’t too difficult to get him to help.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was worried that Zhang Ruochen would waste this divine material that had the potential of a Supreme Artifact, so he couldn’t help but say, “Ruochen, refining weapons isn't something that can be done in a day. Once you obtain the peerless material, you can't rush it. This gourd of yours is very extraordinary. You can only maximize its value by asking the Archsaint Refiner to help you."

Zhang Ruochen knew that Supreme Saint Qingsheng had doubts about his weapon refining attainments.

He was kind to remind him.

"The weapon refining attainments of the Archsaint Refiner are indeed unattainable. I am far from it. However, the Mercury Gourd must be refined by me personally in order to maximize its value," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Huh?"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng frowned. He didn't understand what Zhang Ruochen was saying.

Zhang Ruochen didn't explain further. He took the Mercury Gourd and flew closer to the Furnace of Heaven and Earth. He entered a range of 300 kilometers and stopped.

"The temperature and residual fire here can meet the needs of the initial refining."

Zhang Ruochen took out the sundial and put in two Godstones to turn it on.

Power of Time burst out from the sundial and enveloped the Mercury Gourd completely.

Zhang Ruochen spent six days walking around the Mercury Gourd more than 300 times. He carefully studied every inch of the gourd's structure. After analyzing everything properly, he sat cross-legged in the void space.

Whoosh—

3,000 spirits flew out of his body and turned into 3,000 light-particle-sized Zhang Ruochens. Some landed on the surface of the Mercury Gourd, and some flew into the interior of the gourd.

One of the miniature Zhang Ruochens flew to the surface of the Mercury Gourd. It was as if he had landed on a vast planet.

Beneath his feet was a yellowish-brown land covered with yellowish-brown plants that were harder than black iron. Some were like thorns, some were like mushrooms, and some represented flowers.

It was hard to imagine that the surface of the Mercury Gourd in a microscopic perspective was such a strange world.

As Zhang Ruochen officially began refining, the microscopic world of the Mercury Gourd's surface underwent a huge change. Thick clouds and mist appeared in the sky. Water vapor filled the air and turned into a drizzle.

Thunder and lightning flashed and the earth trembled.

3,000 Zhang Ruochens had gathered Marks of Time and carved Dimensional Inscriptions on the vast earth of the planet.

Time passed day by day..

It took three years.

Zhang Ruochen's spirits condensed 999,990,000 Marks of Time on the surface of the gourd planet, covering the inside and outside of the gourd.

"Finally, it's done."

Zhang Ruochen's original body opened his eyes and withdrew all the spirits inside and outside of the gourd.

However, there were not only 3,000 of them, but 4,200.

Over the past three years, Zhang Ruochen had taken a large number of sacred pills to improve his spiritual power. That was why it had improved so much.

Whoosh

A large number of crystals flew out of Qiankun Realm and flew around Zhang Ruochen like shooting stars. There were 3,720 of them.

They were extremely precious Space-Time Crystals.

The inside of the Space-Time Crystals was a miniature space. It had three to four times the speed of time. It could be said that each of them was an incredible cultivation treasure.

Zhang Ruochen had obtained these 3,720 Space-Time Crystals from the Dragon Temple. He had always regarded them as priceless treasures and kept them just to refine his first artifact of Time and Dimension.

It took Zhang Ruochen half a year to embed all the Space-Time Crystals into the Mercury Gourd and combine them with the 999,990,000 Marks of Time.

The Mercury Gourd now shone brightly.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's face darkened as he saw this. As expected, Zhang Ruochen was wasting precious treasures. What was the Mercury Gourd now?

It was sparkling and colorful.

One word could describe it: vulgar.

The biggest problem of young people refining weapons is that they like to refine beautiful things. What's the point? It's a waste of the Mercury Gourd and Space-Time Crystals,' Supreme Saint Qingsheng sighed, but he couldn't blame him.

If it were Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao, they would have been beaten up by Supreme Saint Qingsheng long ago to the point that their mother wouldn't even recognize them for squandering like Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen put the Mercury Gourd inside the Furnace of Heaven and Earth and refined it with divine fire.

Half a year passed by. The Brand of Time, Dimensional Inscription, and Space-Time Crystals all merged with the Mercury Gourd. They were no longer separate.

After it cooled down, Zhang Ruochen was delighted. He flew to a place thousands of miles away from the Furnace of Heaven and Earth with the Mercury Gourd.

He looked at Supreme Saint Qingsheng in surprise and asked, "Why are you still here, Supreme Saint?"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng stared at the gourd in Zhang Ruochen's hand with a constipated look. After a long while, he sighed and asked, “Did you succeed?”

“The first stage is considered successful! Since you are here, why don’t you help me test the power of the gourd?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng asked, “How?”

“Just stay where you are.”

Zhang Ruochen turned the Mercury Gourd into half the size of a human. He aimed the gourd at Supreme Saint Qingsheng, who was hundreds of feet away. Then, he poured his Saint Qi into the gourd.

Immediately, millions of Dimensional Inscriptions appeared inside and outside the gourd which emitted a white light.

Especially at the mouth of the gourd, Zhang Ruochen had carved 36 million Dimensional Inscriptions, forming a Dimensional Array. This Dimensional Array combined with the inscriptions inside and outside the gourd.

Boom

36 million Dimensional Inscriptions appeared at the mouth of the gourd. They turned into a circular Dimensional Array that covered hundreds of miles and began to operate.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng stood opposite the Dimensional Array with his hands behind his back as he faced a huge circle of light.

The Dimensional Array suddenly exploded with power.

At the same time, the array formation shrank rapidly from a diameter of hundreds of miles to the size of a fist in the blink of an eye.

Instantly, a terrifying and boundless dimensional pulling force exploded out and acted on the Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s body.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s body swayed slightly from the force.

After the pulling force disappeared, Zhang Ruochen looked at the mouth of the gourd and then at Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

He was extremely disappointed as he sighed, “It seems that with my current dimensional attainments, the collapsing and pulling force of the Dimensional Array I refined is still not strong enough.”

He had failed!

The most crucial point in refining the Mercury Gourd was the Dimensional Collapse Array at the mouth of the gourd.

If its power was not strong enough, the Mercury Gourd would almost be useless.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s heart was racing with anger as he saw Zhang Ruochen muttering to himself. ‘What are you trying to do? You’ve just become a Neverwithers Supreme Saint, and you want to suppress a Paramount Supreme Saint?’

‘Can you be any more ill-hearted?’

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was shocked when the power of the Mercury Gourd burst out.

Even with his cultivation of the Paramount Supreme Saint, he was slightly held back by that power.

What was a Paramount Supreme Saint?

It meant that he had already reached the end of the Saint road. Standing in the Saint Realm, he could sit and watch the divine realm.

Comparing a Neverwithers Supreme Saint and a Paramount Supreme Saint was like comparing a speck of dust to a magnificent ancient mountain.

Supreme Saint QingSheng felt that Zhang Ruochen was faking his disappointment and that his actual intention was to show off. However, as an elder and the head of a family, he had to have a proper demeanor.

Supreme Saint QingSheng tried his best to sound calm. He said, “If the dimensional pulling force of the Mercury Gourd was within 300 meters, no living creature below the Thousand-Koan Realm would be able to resist it.”

“Oh! Really?”

Zhang Ruochen startled. He realized that it was normal for the Mercury Gourd to not be able to take him in since the other party was a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

Then, Zhang Ruochen asked, “Can’t I take in a Supreme Saint from the Thousand-Koan Realm?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng thought for a moment and said, “It’s not impossible. It depends on the other party’s condition. A sneak attack at close range might succeed.”

Zhang Ruochen gave a sigh of relief and said, “That doesn’t sound bad. When my spiritual power improves, I can make the dimensional array at the mouth of the gourd stronger. Why don’t you help me test the Power of Time of the Mercury Gourd?”

“How do we do that?” Supreme Saint Qingsheng asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You just need to enter the gourd.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng turned into a speck of light and flew into the Mercury Gourd.

Zhang Ruochen made the Mercury Gourd fly up and float above his hands. He poured Saint Qi into the gourd. Instantly, the 999,990,000 Marks of Time on the surface of the gourd turned into nine long Rivers of Time and wrapped around the gourd.

Zhang Ruochen turned the Mercury Gourd ten times to the left, then to the right.

He had planned to turn ten times as well, but after three turns, Supreme Saint Qingsheng forced open the mouth of the gourd and rushed out. He stared at Zhang Ruochen coldly.

Boom!

The Saint Aura of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint could not be controlled and it burst out.

Zhang Ruochen was already a Supreme Saint, so he could barely resist the Saint Aura. He vaguely guessed what was going on. He was a little nervous. He coughed dryly and asked, “What’s wrong, Supreme Saint?”

“Are you trying to kill me? Zhang Ruochen, I’m your mother’s elder brother. I’m your uncle. Do you really want to kill me like this?” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said.

Zhang Ruochen asked tentatively, “Does time flow very fast?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was speechless. In the end, he put away his Saint Aura.

He had no choice. He could only blame himself. If he hadn’t been so curious and hadn’t stayed here, this wouldn’t have happened.

“When the gourd turns left, the ratio of time flow inside and out should be nine to one. However, there is an incredible place for self-cultivation that can accommodate hundreds of millions of cultivators cultivating inside.”

“When the gourd turns right, the flow of time inside becomes extremely fast. You only turned three times just now, and my lifespan was reduced by three hundred years.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng really wanted to cry but there were no tears. He was already more than 10,000 years old, and every year of his lifespan was very precious.

Losing 300 years in an instant was even more painful than cutting off a piece of his flesh.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng stared at the Mercury Gourd with a complex gaze, he said, “Although this treasure of yours is not a Supreme Artifact, its value and potential, as well as its role in the increase of your battle strength, are far from being comparable to a Supreme Artifact.”

“Even a Hundred-Shackle Realm powerhouse that has attained the stage of Great Perfection will be refined by the Power of Time and turn into a pile of bones. There would be no time to break the gourd and escape.”

“However, a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint that has reached Great Perfection is vigilant and much more powerful than Emperor Yu and the others. It is still too difficult to take them in.”

Zhang Ruochen touched his chin while he looked at the gourd with thought and said, “Is that so? Actually, the refining is not over yet. There’s still the second stage. After the refining is successful, I will try to suppress a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint that has achieved the stage of Great Perfection easily. It would be best if I can suppress a Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Koan Realm.”

Chapter 2234: Fane of Barasingha

The second stage of refining the Mercury Gourd was mainly to combine it with the Golden Sun of Destruction.

The Golden Sun of Destruction was a Supreme Artifact of the Sunshine Civilization. It was refined from the core essence of a star. If combined with the Mercury Gourd, it would definitely become more powerful.

Zhang Ruochen took out the Golden Sun of Destruction and poured Saint Qi into it. The Golden Sun sometimes grew bigger and sometimes it shrank. He could feel the changes in its power.

“Before I refine it, I must subdue the vessel spirit of the Golden Sun of Destruction.”

The vessel spirit of the Golden Sun of Destruction had reached the level of a Supreme Saint.

When the Sunshine tianzi brought it to the Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun, the vessel spirit inside had been sealed by the Sunshine tianzi with a layer of divine force.

Both the tianzi and Zhang Ruochen had refined the blood and soul of the Ancient Golden Crow, so they could communicate with the Golden Sun of Destruction and unleash part of the Supreme Artifact’s power.

Zhang Ruochen released the Divine Purification Flame and condensed it into nine fire dragons while continuously refining the layer of divine force in the Golden Sun of Destruction. However, after half a month, the layer of divine force was still as solid as gold. There was no change at all.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

“What?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng became alert, afraid of being cheated again.

Zhang Ruochen said thoughtfully, "I'm curious. How big is the gap between a Paramount Supreme Saint and a Divine Supreme Saint?"

This question hit Supreme Saint Qingsheng right in the heart.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's eyes showed confusion. He sighed and said, "It can be said that there is a gap of one step, or that there is a gap like heaven and earth. Why are you asking this?"

"I just want to know if a Paramount Supreme Saint can refine the divine force barrier that a god placed in a Supreme Artifact." Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng stared at the Golden Sun of Destruction. How could he not understand Zhang Ruochen's thoughts?

He was beating around the bush because Zhang Ruochen wanted him to help refine it.

"Give it to me. It's just a divine force barrier. I don't care." Saint Qingsheng knew Zhang Ruochen's talent, and he also knew how much the three gods of Bloodximus valued him.

What he cared about more was Zhang Ruochen's sense of belonging to the Bloodximus family.

So it wasn't a big deal to help a little.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng held the Golden Sun of Destruction between his arms and released streaks of Blood Qi that surged into its interior.

"It's actually a divine force seal personally put up by the Sunshine tianzi. Refining it is indeed not easy." There was a strong smile on his face as he said that.

After spending more than half a day refining it, the divine force barrier became weaker and weaker. The Golden Sun of Destruction shook violently, and a loud cry came from within.

The sound was deafening, and it made the air tremble.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, "The power fluctuation from the vessel spirit of the Golden

Sun of destruction has reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm.
Can you subdue it yourself?”

“It shouldn’t be a problem,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Okay.”

Boom

The divine force barrier was completely shattered.

At the same time, Supreme Saint Qingsheng withdrew his hands and retreated quickly. In the blink of an eye, his figure had already gone a thousand miles away.

The Golden Sun of Destruction emitted a blinding light. Every single ray of light was like a golden arrow. Even a single glance at it would cause the eyes of any living being below the level of Saint Kings to burn, turning them into blind men.

Quack!

A deafening cry sounded out as a Golden Crow flew out from the Golden Sun of destruction.

The Golden Crow had three legs and a pair of golden wings that were hundreds of thousands of feet long. Its eyes were fierce and it spoke in human language, “I am the Supreme Artifact of the Sunshine tianzi. You have to quickly untie the Divine Marks on the outside of this dimension and let me go back to Sunshine Civilization. Otherwise, all of you will die when the tianzi comes.”

“It seems that you are sealed in divine force and don’t know what this place is.”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t want to waste his breath. The Armor of the Fire God on his body burned. He raised his right hand, and it grew bigger and bigger. In the end, his palm became several times bigger than the Golden Crow’s body.

He slapped down his hand and—

Boom

The light on the Golden Crow’s body dimmed slightly.

It realized that this human was a Supreme Saint and wasn't easy to deal with. It quickly flew back to the Golden Sun of Destruction and activated the power of the Supreme Artifact.

Boom

Rays of light that contained inscriptions appeared above the Golden Sun of Destruction.

Its size grew larger and larger. From one mile to ten, and from ten, to hundreds in diameter.

It was not as large as a star, but it was the size of a planet. It was shining with golden light. The Supreme Power and flames it released slightly distorted the space around it.

"This is the true power of the Golden Sun of Destruction. Even if it's just an vessel spirit controlling it, it can crush the stars and destroy a realm with one casual strike."

"Any one of the Three Top Elites of Bloodskly Clan will have to run for their lives if they encounter the Golden Sun of Destruction alone."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was a little worried. He felt that Zhang Ruochen might not be able to subdue it with his current cultivation level.

But Zhang Ruochen was not afraid. In fact, he was happy. He understood that the Golden Sun of Destruction would only be considered a Supreme Artifact after the vessel spirit was fully released. If it was in his hands, , he would be able to turn the world upside down even if he encountered a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint that has reached the stage of perfection

"The Realm-frame of Truth."

Zhang Ruochen spread out his hands. Immediately, specks of starlight appeared around him and turned into a vast starry sky.

The starry sky spread thousands of miles away, giving Supreme Saint Qingsheng a subtle feeling. It was as if he had found the truth and solved some cultivation mysteries that he could not solve before.

It was the power of the Heart of Truth.

Rumble

From afar, it is seen that Zhang Ruochen's Realm-frame of Truth turned into a starry sky that covered thousands of miles. As it collided violently with a golden thousand-mile fireball, an earth-shattering energy fluctuation burst out.

Above the Furnace of Heaven and Earth, the fire spirits let out huge roars. They wanted to rush over and join the battle, but were stopped by Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Precepts of Truth. He struck out with his palms at the same time, displaying the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike.

Ten times the attack power merged with the power of the palm.

Boom

His palms collided with the Golden Sun of Destruction. It shook violently and flew backwards.

The light on the Golden Sun of Destruction dimmed again.

Although the Supreme Artifact controlled by the vessel spirit could burst out magnificent power, it couldn't last long. When the energy contained in the Supreme Artifact was exhausted, it would lose its offense.

Zhang Ruochen struck out dozens of palm prints in a row. Each strike was ten times the original offense. The Golden Sun of Destruction kept shrinking until it became the size of a house. It flew out quickly, trying to escape.

"Where are you going?"

Zhang Ruochen pointed out.

The space in front of the Golden Sun of Destruction twisted and turned into a huge vortex.

After rushing into the whirlpool, the Golden Sun of Destruction appeared above Zhang Ruochen's palm while it shook rapidly and spun violently.

"Since you're so loyal to the Sunshine tianzi, I can only destroy your consciousness," Zhang Ruochen said.

The Golden Crow's voice came from the Golden Sun of destruction as it begged, "Don't! Master, master! Please let me go! I... I am only the vessel spirit of a Supreme Artifact. I have followed countless masters. Whoever can suppress me with absolute power, I will submit to them. Master, master, did you hear that?"

"..." Zhang Ruochen was speechless. He was stunned for a long time.

The vessel spirit was at least on a Supreme Saint level. How could it be such a coward?

Was there any such thing as integrity?

Zhang Ruochen didn't completely believe in the vessel spirit, the Golden Crow, so he took half of its saint soul and stored it in the Divine Light Sea of Qi.

Then, he flew to the edge of the Furnace of Heaven and Earth. He held the Mercury Gourd in one hand and the Golden Sun of Destruction in the other. He planned to officially refine them together.

"After the Golden Sun of Destruction vessel spirit is released, it will be much stronger than before. The water nature power of the Mercury Gourd might not be able to resist it."

"I need to prepare some treasures of the water nature and the dark-cold nature to balance the two."

Zhang Ruochen had no shortage of materials.

Soon, he pulled out a purple crystal more than 70 meters long from his Ring of Dimensions.

The purple light emitted by the purple crystal was as dazzling as the golden light of Golden Sun of Destruction. The difference was that the aura released by the former was bone-chilling.

Even Zhang Ruochen, who was sitting next to the Furnace of Heaven and Earth, felt his skin hurting from the cold air.

In the distance, Supreme Saint Qingsheng could not stay calm. He was trembling with excitement as he said, "That's the Cosmic Glazier Stone... Wait, the Cosmic Glazier Stone is a divine material to refine a Supreme Artifact. Even a small piece of it is priceless. How can there be such a huge one?”

The purple crystal beside Zhang Ruochen was no different from a small stone mountain.

The Cosmic Glazier Stone was a weapon refining material that could only be produced in the coldest place in the universe. It was one of the ten god-level substances—the ultimate substance of the five elements.

It could also be bought in Infernal Court.

However, it was all bought in grams.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng felt more and more unbalanced. He wanted to hug the Cosmic Glazier Stone and smash his head into it. He was a Supreme Saint, standing at the top of the Path. However, he was bullied by Zhang Ruochen, a Neverwithers Supreme Saint.

Compared to Zhang Ruochen, he was no different from a pauper.

Zhang Ruochen had casually taken out Mercury Gourd, Golden Sun of Destruction, and Cosmic Glazier Stone. All of them were treasures that Supreme Saint Qingsheng needed to work hard for his entire life to obtain.

Kunlun is indeed full of treasures. Why didn't Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao get anything? Did they hide them secretly?’

I can't. I've worked for the family for more than 10,000 years, but the wealth I have can't compare to that of an Neverwithers Supreme Saint. I have to report to the Wargod and get a better treatment as the head of the family. Otherwise, I'll go to the Battlefield of Merits and get what I deserve. Whoever wants to be the head of this family can be the head of this family.’

I just helped Zhang Ruochen test the power of the gourd and lost 300 years of my life. Should I ask him to compensate me? Even if it's a small piece of the Cosmic Glazier Stone.’

I helped him to refine the divine force barrier of the Sunshine tianzi. It is not a small favor. I should get a compensation.’

Many thoughts flashed through Supreme Saint Qingsheng's mind.

However, as a Paramount Supreme Saint and the head of the family, he couldn't bring himself to lose face. He couldn't decide whether he should do it or not.

..

While Zhang Ruochen devoted himself to refining weapons, the forces of the ten clans in Infernal Court were preparing for the Celestial-Hunting Festival. The cultivators on the Battlefield of Merits had also returned one after another after receiving the invitations to the festival.

Asura had twenty-four fanes, each representing the most powerful forces of the twenty-four parties. In addition to the peripheral clans, countries, and planets of the various fanes, there were almost more than seventy percent of Asura cultivators.

Among them, Fane of Barasingha was ranked second among the twenty-four fanes, behind Fane of Asura.

Fane of Asura represented the oldest inheritance of Asura, as well as the soul and flag of Asura. It was understandable that it was ranked first.

However, since the middle times, there were seven times when Fane of Barasingha surpassed Fane of Asura and became the first of the twenty four fanes in Asura.

Fane of Barasingha only had a history of four Yuanhui Tribulation. It was able to have such a strong reputation because of their founder, Asurendra Barasingha.

At this moment, Asurendra Barasingha and Asurendra Samay were sitting side by side above the fane.

The body of Asurendra Barasingha was in a state of chaos. He only took the form of a Barasingha as he spoke in a distant voice, "Samay, if you had thought things through earlier and joined our Fane of Barasingha, would you have suffered the humiliation of the Wargod Bloodximius?"

The face of Asurendra Samay turned malevolent and twisted as he spoke in a cold tone, "If I hadn't been injured by the Moon Goddess' Divine Artifact during the critical period of possessing my body, how could a child like Bloodximius bully me?"

Asurendra Samay didn't belong to any of the twenty-four fanes of Asura. In the previous Yuanhui Tribulation, when his cultivation base was at its peak, he had practically transformed Fane of Samay into the twenty-fifth fane of Asura.

Unfortunately, because he had suffered heavy injuries in the Divine War, Fane of Samay had fallen as well.

Asurendra Barasingha had once invited Asurendra Samay to join Fane of Barasingha, but he had been politely rejected.

One had to know that in the previous Yuanhui Tribulation, Asurendra Samay's combat power was slightly stronger than Asurendra Barasingha's power. How could he be willing to be inferior to him?

During the battle with Wargod Bloodximius, Asurendra Samay had suffered an unprecedented humiliation. He instantly came to a realization. The times were different now. He was no longer the Asurendra Samay who could fight against Saint Monk Xumi.

Therefore, with a strong hatred, Asurendra Samay planned to join Fane of Barasingha.

"I have no other conditions but one. During this Celestial-Hunting Festival, Fane of Barasingha must humiliate the Bloodsky Clan at all costs. All the members of the Xue Jue family must die. Among them is Zhang Ruochen. I want his soul to be destroyed and he will be reduced to ashes."

Asurendra Samay's tone was as cold as ice. His Divine Aura burst out unconsciously, causing lightning and thunder to flash above Fane of Barasingha.

"All the gods are watching the Celestial-Hunting Festival. How can we kill as we please? This is something forbidden by Fane of Destiny and Fane of Yama," said Asurendra Barasingha.

“Which Celestial-Hunting Festival didn’t have a monk die unexpectedly?” Asurendra Samay asked.

Asurendra Barasingha was silent for a long time. He was calculating the pros and cons. Finally, he said, “Killing all the most outstanding Saint Kings and Supreme Saints in the thousand-year-old Xue Jue family is unrealistic. It’s impossible. However, we have a chance if we only kill Zhang Ruochen.”

Then, Asurendra Barasingha released two divine spirits and summoned the two top Supreme Saints who had been trained by Fane of Barasingha for less than 1,000 years.

One of them was four meters tall and in human form. He was bald and had no skin. His blood-red muscles were exposed, and there was a pagoda-shaped antenna on his head.

His name was Hong Futu, and he had broken 98 shackles.

The other was a child who carried six saint swords on his back. He looked like he was eight or nine years old, but his entire body was emitting silver light, as if it was made of silver.

His name was Lan Ying, and he was only three hundred years old. He had already reached Great Perfection in Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Chapter 2235: Divine Fetus

“Lan Ying greets the gods.”

“Hong Futu greets the gods.”

The two bowed at the same time. They had deep respect for the two giant gods who awed Infernal Court for hundreds of thousands of years.

Asurendra Samay’s divine gaze swept over Lan Ying and Hong Futu. He showed a hint of disappointment and said, “These two are the most powerful Celestial-Hunting Festival representatives for Fane of Barasingha?”

“Why? Do you think they can’t kill Zhang Ruochen?” asked Asurendra Barasingha.

“As far as I know, Zhang Ruochen has defeated three top Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saints of Bloodysky Clan at the God-ascension Ceremony. Although their cultivation is weak, their battle strength has probably reached great perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm,” Asurendra Samay said.

Asurendra Barasingha smiled, “It’s not strange for a peerless foe to be on par with Yan Wushen to fight against a Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saint in Neverwilt Realm. However, does every Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saint have the same Hundred-Shackle level battle strength?”

“What do you mean?” Asurendra Samay asked.

“Take a closer look,” Asurendra Barasingha replied.

Asurendra Samay’s gaze landed on Lan Ying and Hong Futu once again. A look of astonishment appeared on his face as he exclaimed, “Divine beast—Bloodborne, Spirit of Slaughter.”

“That’s right. Hong Futu is a pure-blooded divine beast called Bloodborne. He is extremely talented and has immense strength. When he was at the Neverwilt Realm, he once heavily injured a Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saint. His combat strength can be said to be boundless,” Asurendra Barasingha replied.

The bloodline of pure-blooded divine beasts were passed down from generation to generation. Even in Demon God Realm, one of the four dominant worlds of Celestial Court, divine beasts were rare. Once they reached adulthood and transcended Divine Beast Tribulation, they would at least possess the combat strength of a god.

Pure-blooded divine beasts that ascended to Ashuran Planet were even rarer. It was likely to never meet one in ten thousand years.

Following that, Asurendra Barasingha said, “Lan Ying is even more extraordinary. Not only is it a Spirit of Slaughter, it is also a Divine Fetus of the Universe.

“Three hundred years ago, I passed by the ruins of a divine battlefield in the Universe and discovered a thick divine cloud. The cloud was condensed from divine force and Qi of Slaughter. It was shaped like a fetus and emitted light of different colors. Each light was divided into two colors, light and dark. It had been nurtured for at least three Yuanhui Tribulations.”

“Perhaps it was fate. At this moment, the fetus egg broke open and an infant walked out. Its body was still emitting colors. It opened its mouth and inhaled with greed. It swallowed all the Qi of Slaughter in the ruins and instantly achieved Saint level.

“At that time, I took him in as my disciple and named him Saint Baby. Unexpectedly, the little guy was extremely greedy. When I held him in my arms, he wanted to swallow my divine force. So I changed his name to Lan Ying, which meant greedy baby.”

Asurendra Samay looked carefully at Lan Ying and said to himself, ‘So there really is a Divine Fetus in this world. Although he only achieved Great Perfection in Hundred-Shackle Realm, there is a lot of divine force in his body. His divine fetus body should be no weaker than Zhang Ruochen’s demigod body.’

When he thought of this, Samay had another thought. ‘Perhaps the Divine Fetus is more suitable for me.’

“Samay, do you think the two of them can kill Zhang Ruochen?” Asurendra Barasingha asked.

“The two of them are strong enough. But to be sure, I’ll help them.”

Asurendra Samay took out a black pill the size of a dragon’s eye. He waved his hand and tossed it to Hong Futu, “Take it. I will help you raise your cultivation skills to the stage of Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

Hong Futu held the black pill in his hands. He could clearly sense the immense intent for battle contained within it. His heart was filled with joy as he hurriedly consumed it.

Blast

Two rays of divine light shot out from Asurendra Samay’s divine eyes and converged onto Hong Futu’s body.

The densely packed light spots of Time enveloped Hong Futu. The flow of time there was extremely slow.

He had been cultivating in there for ten years, but only one day had passed in the outside world.

Such an extraordinary Time Technique, even with Asurendra Samay’s cultivation level, it consumed a considerable amount of divine force. Moreover, it could only be maintained within an extremely small area of space. It wasn’t like the Sundial, which had the power to encompass a million miles of land.

Lan Ying walked to Hong Futu’s side and entered the Light of Time to practice the Sword of Asura.

Asurendra Barasingha glanced at Asurendra Samay and said, “Actually, you don’t need to use your divine force to do this. You should know that in Infernal Court, there are countless forces that want to kill Zhang Ruochen.”

“Nether Clan, Ghost, Bone Clan, Rakshasa, Immortal Vampires... Countless forces have deep hatred towards him. How would they not attack him at the Celestial-Hunting Festival? I doubt that Zhang Ruochen will be able to make it to the Celestial-Hunting Festival alive.”

“Wargod Bloodximius is ambitious. He has always wanted to improve himself. Bloodysky Clan has made many arrangements regarding their ranking and status among Immortal Vampires.”

“However, it would be the worst decision he ever made if he let Zhang Ruochen be the leader of Bloodysky Clan. His plans for the past thousand years would be destroyed in an instant. It might even cause the thousand-year-old talents of Bloodysky Clan to wither away. He could only continue to plan for the next thousand years.”

..

After two years of refining in the divine furnace, the Mercury Gourd, the Golden Sun of Destruction, and the Cosmic Glazier Stone had fused together and turned into a dazzling Violet Gourd.

When Zhang Ruochen took it back from the Furnace of Heaven and Earth, a scorching destructive power hit him, which caused the Armor of the Fire God on his body to release flames.

He used his spiritual power to sense it carefully.

“Good! The Golden Sun of Destruction inscriptions have merged with the Mercury Gourd. Inside the gourd, Golden Sun of Destruction and Cosmic Glazier Stone have turned into Yinyang Vortexes. One is cold and the other is hot. Both of them are swirling on and on.”

The internal world of the Mercury Gourd had reached Zhang Ruochen’s prediction before refining. It was very helpful for cultivating Fist and Palm.

However, he could not call it the Mercury Gourd now.

He had to change its name.

What should he call it?

Zhang Ruochen thought of many names, such as “Heaven Swallowing and Earth Refining Gourd”, “Time and Dimension Chaos Gourd”, and “Cosmic Destruction Gourd”.

However, he felt that these names were similar to “the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth hundreds” that Blackie had given him. They were all silly.

What if he became famous in Infernal Court with this gourd. It was very likely that he would be called “the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth hundreds”, “Master of Time and Space Chaos”, and “Blood Emperor of Cosmic Destruction” by the cultivators of Infernal Court.

It sounded domineering but...

It did not suit his temperament.

“Forget it. Why overthink it? Let’s call it the Violet Gourd. It’s simple. It’s good.”

After cooling down the Violet Gourd, Zhang Ruochen held it in his hand and flew toward Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

“Supreme Saint, my gourd has been refined. Help me test its power.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was very curious about the gourd that Zhang Ruochen had fused with the Mercury Gourd, Golden Sun of Destruction, and Cosmic Glazier Stone. However, with the previous experience, how would he dare test it for him?

“All the cultivators from Bloodysky Clan who participated in the Celestial-Hunting Festival have arrived at the Xue Jue Family. Let’s not test it yet. Let’s go,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng urged.

Zhang Ruochen said, “It won’t take long to test. Don’t be afraid, Supreme Saint. This time, you don’t have to enter the gourd. You just stand there.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng didn’t like the word “afraid.” When he heard it, he looked unhappy. “Afraid? I’ve reached the Paramount Realm. I’m not afraid of anything below the level of gods.”

“Okay, Supreme Saint, stand firm!”

Zhang Ruochen did not care whether Supreme Saint Qingsheng agreed or not. He poured Saint Qi into the Violet Gourd. The Dimensional Array at the mouth of the gourd appeared again, covering a radius of hundreds of miles.

This time, it was different from the last time. The Golden Sun of Destruction and the Cosmic Glazier Stone inside the gourd spun rapidly and turned into a violet Yinyang Vortex that combined with the Dimensional Array. A massive suction force that far surpassed the previous one burst forth.

Boom

Supreme Saint Qingsheng, who was initially unperturbed by the dimensional collapse and pulling force of the Yinyang Vortex, was actually unable to stand steadily as he was caught off guard. He took a small step forward and appeared slightly disheveled.

However, he just stood there casually and did not use his power.

No matter how strong the Violet Gourd was, Supreme Saint Qingsheng wouldn't have move at all.

"How is it?" Zhang Ruochen quickly asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's had a bad look on his face. He stared at the Violet Gourd with a serious expression, "The suction power of the gourd is more than twice as strong as before," he said. "An ordinary Thousand-Koan Supreme Saint would definitely be sucked in if he got too close."

At this moment, Supreme Saint Qingsheng finally understood why Wargod Bloodximius had taken such a huge risk to let Zhang Ruochen lead the team.

This gourd alone was enough for Zhang Ruochen to shine at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Zhang Ruochen frowned and said, "It seems that the suction power is still not enough. However, I still have a way to improve. Supreme Saint, does Xue Jue Family have a Star Nucleus?"

This so-called Star Nucleus was the core of a star. It was a material that must be used to refine heavy weapons.

Just like the Golden Sun of Destruction, it was refined from the core essence of a star.

If the Golden Sun of Destruction was a complete star, its gravitational force alone could suck all living beings below the level of gods. They would not be able to resist at all.

Zhang Ruochen needed the Star Nucleus increase the gravitational force of the Golden Sun of Destruction.

If it could be raised to the level of a complete star, who below the god level would not be afraid of his Violet Gourd?

Supreme Saint Qingsheng guessed what Zhang Ruochen was trying to do. He sneered in his heart. ‘He is richer than me, the acting head of the family, and he actually wants to take advantage of the family?’

So he waved his hand and said, “Xue Jue Family doesn’t have it. If you want a Star Nucleus, go to Forest of No Return and buy it yourself.”

Zhang Ruochen stared into Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s eyes and said thoughtfully, “I won’t take the family’s things for free. I can use treasures in exchange for them.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was slightly tempted. However, he couldn’t just go back on his words. “What do you mean? Do you think I’m lying to you? The Xue Jue family really doesn’t have a Star Nucleus,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said angrily.

The Xue Jue Family was a big family. How could they not have a Star Nucleus?

Zhang Ruochen wanted to take out a few treasures and see if he could convince Supreme Saint Qingsheng to change his words.

However, before he could take them out, Supreme Saint Qingsheng waved his sleeves. The world spun around him and he flew out of the Furnace of Heaven and Earth.

If you had said earlier that you could exchange treasures, I would have gone to the Universe to refine some Star Nuclei. How hard would that be?’

Supreme Saint Qingsheng thought to himself. Then, he sighed in disappointment.

As the head of the family and a Paramount Supreme Saint, he had to keep his word. How could he take it back so easily?

After leaving, Zhang Ruochen first went to the Progenitor Pond, Xue Jue Family's secret place. Unfortunately, he still could not see Chi Kongyue, who was recuperating inside. He had to put away his emotions and prepare to embark on the journey to the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

A five-thousand-meter-long blood-red crystal saint ship floated in the sky above the mountain range where the Xue Jue Family was located. On both sides of the saint ship, there were five huge crystal wings that looked like ten bloody clouds.

Almost all the Saint King cultivators who represented the Bloodysky clan to participate in the Celestial-Hunting Festival boarded this saint ship.

Around the Ten-winged Saint Ship, there were hundreds of saint ships of different sizes. Some were six-winged, some were eight-winged, and Supreme Saint powers were emitted from the ships.

Many of the Immortal Vampire cultivators went to the Forest of No Return to join in the fun.

This was a once-in-a-thousand-years event. It would definitely be very lively. Even if they didn't attend the Celestial-Hunting Festival, they still had the chance to become famous in Infernal. No one wanted to miss it.

Zhang Ruochen's heart was shaking violently when he saw such a magnificent fleet and such powerful strength.

Zhang Ruochen also saw some cultivators riding on their mounts among the hundreds of Supreme Saint Saint Ships.

Lord Xia Yu stood proudly on top of the Blue Phoenix's head. He looked magnificent. He stared at Zhang Ruochen coldly and said, "Leader, we've been waiting for you for more than half a day. How long will it take for us to set off?"

"Let's set off now."

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift and boarded the Ten-winged Saint Ship.

In the Bloodysky Clan, there were very few Supreme Saints who could use the Ten-winged Saint Ship. Most of them belonged to Supreme Saint Qingsheng. Zhang Ruochen had too many enemies in Infernal Court. It was safest to stay on Supreme Saint Qingsheng's saint ship.

With the Ten-winged Saint Ship in the lead, the Bloodysky Clan's Supreme Saint flew out quickly. They rushed toward the wormhole near Ancient City Skylin. They went through the wormhole and headed to the faraway Forest of No Return.

There were only 100 cultivators participating in the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

However, Zhang Ruochen could sense the aura of more than 10,000 Saint-level cultivators just from the Ten-winged Saint Ship. Almost every cultivator who attended the festival had a group of relatives, maids, and servants. It was as if they were competing in family wealth and status.

Zhang Ruochen heard three Saint King cultivators discussing not far away.

"As expected of the grandson of a god. The armor on his body is a Regal Artifact. The four handmaidens beside him are all of the Saint-level. They're all young and beautiful."

"Blood Saint Liu Ji is really going all out for the Celestial-Hunting Festival. He actually spent a sky-high price to buy ten Supreme Saint slaves. With ten Supreme Saint slaves carrying the sedan chair, he'll definitely be awe-inspiring at the festival."

..

The more Zhang Ruochen listened, the more amused he became. He muttered to himself, "The cultivators of Infernal Court actually have the heart to compete with each other. It's just a festival, and they are competing with each other on every aspect."

"Haha! Zhang Ruochen, you may not know this, but the Celestial-Hunting Festival is actually a festival where cultivators from all clans compete for fame and fortune.”

“All the major fanes, clans, families, and kingdoms want to show off their most extravagant side.”

“Humility? Restraint? Keeping it low-key? Hehe, it’s best not to do that. The more you do, the more everyone thinks that your entire clan is failing. They would think that the fane has lost its fighting spirit and become weak. The entire clan has fallen behind,” Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said as he walked over.

Chapter 2236: Sevenstar Imperial Palace

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan with silver hair was nearly three meters tall. His presence gave off a domineering aura.

“He stood beside Zhang Ruochen and looked into the sky full of blood Qi and said, ” Celestial Court and Infernal Court have been fighting for so many years, and Infernal Court has always been at an absolute advantage. That’s why the mentality of the creatures on both sides was very different.”

“The various Macroworlds of Celestial Court always keep low profiles and place their hopes on slowly surpassing Infernal Court. It is precisely the attitude of concealing one’s talents that allowed them —from gods to mortals — to keep a low profile and stay hidden deliberately.

“But Infernal Court has always been the most powerful one. So, why should we keep a low profile? Why should we conceal our strength? By displaying absolute strength to opponents, we could psychologically crush their fighting spirit, ”

At this point, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan revealed a profound smile and said, “On Battlefield of Merit, you rarely see cultivators of Celestial Court initiate large-scale battles against Infernal Court, right?

“They either passively defend their territory or achieve certain results on small-scale battles. Over the past 100,000 years, the mortal worlds under them have either been destroyed or turned into the territories of Infernal Court. These territories are to provide the ten clans’ blood, mounts, women, slaves, and mineral resources... How sad.”

Zhang Ruochen had to admit that what Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said made sense.

In the so-called Battles of Merit, Celestial Court had lost psychologically to Infernal Court.

Just like what they felt when the next Battlefield of Merits had been decided back then following Zuling as the battlefield, the cultivators of Guanghai, Tianmu Realm, Greater Demonic Realm felt that once their Macroworlds were chosen, their homelands would definitely be destroyed.

This was a mentality of certain defeat.

They had lost for 100,000 years.

How many cultivators in the various realms of Celestial Court still had the belief of victory in their hearts?

Every cultivator in Infernal Court had it.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan laughed loudly, “Of course, you are an exception. You caused Infernal Court to suffer several great losses on Battlefield of Merit in Kunlun. Do you know how badly your massacres destroyed the belief of cultivators in Infernal Court?”

Zhang Ruochen smiled but did not say anything.

“If you continue to stay in Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun, I suspect that many cultivators of Infernal Court will think of escaping from that battlefield,” said Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that the true purpose of Supreme Saint Yi Xuan’s words was to tell him that it was a wise decision to come to Infernal Court and that there was no future for Celestial Court.

However, Zhang Ruochen was determined. How could he get influenced with just a few words?

No matter how strong and good Infernal Court was, it still represented destruction and death. If all the Macroworlds of Celestial Court were destroyed, how long would Infernal Court last?

The next step would probably be the war of extermination between the ten clans of Infernal Court.

In the end, Celestial Court and Infernal Court would definitely be over and done with. There would be no more living beings or dead souls.

Without life, how could there be Death?

Zhang Ruochen did not continue to think about these grand issues. He stood at the edge of the deck of a Ten-winged Saint Ship and stared at Saint Vessels around him. "I see that Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi are very high-profile. One rides Blue Phoenix at Beast Emperor level and the other drives the Silver Dragon Beast Emperor to pull the carriage. As one of the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan, why did you travel with a group of Saint Kings without a mount or a chariot?"

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan scratched his silver hair and felt a headache coming on. He said, "It was all because of the seventh son of Ghost Master, Xu," Ghost Master and Wargod Bloodximius had a deep grudge. In this Celestial-Hunting Festival, they would definitely target Bloodsky clan.

Since he had promised Blood Empress and Sword Saint Xuanji to win Celestial-Hunting Festival, Zhang Ruochen wanted to know more about the matter of Ghost Master.

Thus, he asked, "What happened? I remember that Lord Zhiyuan said that Xu seemed to have robbed a unexplored region discovered by Bloodsky clan before?"

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan's state of mind was completely destroyed, he said angrily, "Spring of Chaos that was born in that unexplored region should have been mine. However, at the most critical moment, he ambushed me and severely injured me. Not only did he take away Spring of Chaos, but he also took away all the treasures on me.

"If I didn't have a treasure to protect me, I would have died under his ambush. I will never forget this hatred, this humiliation.

"However, that bastard has obtained Spring of Chaos. Hence, his cultivation has far surpassed mine. He would be a great enemy of Bloodsky Clan this Celestial-Hunting Festival,"

After Supreme Saint Yi Xuan left, Zhang Ruochen heard Supreme Saint Qingsheng's message. He quickly walked into Saint Vessel and came to a brightly lit hall.

Not only Supreme Saint Qingsheng, but Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao were also there.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's expression was solemn. "I just received news that Asurendra Samay has joined Asura's second-ranked Fane of Barasingha. We gained another powerful enemy in this Celestial-Hunting Festival,"

"Is that why you asked me to come here?"

Zhang Ruochen had long considered everything and was not afraid of any challenge. He was a sworn enemy with Asurendra Samay.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was unperturbed, Supreme Saint Qingsheng nodded with satisfaction. "There's another thing. You are the leader of this Celestial-Hunting Festival. So, you don't just represent yourself, but the entire Bloodsky clan. Therefore, you must be highbrow and aggressive.

"Before leaving, Wargod Bloodximus gave me a treasure and asked me to give it to you."

Xue Ningxiao's eyes lit up. She was envious. The treasure Wargod Bloodximus gave was definitely not ordinary.

An exquisite palace the size of a palm appeared in Supreme Saint Qingsheng's palm. He handed it to Zhang Ruochen.

"This is?"

Zhang Ruochen took the exquisite palace. Suddenly, a force heavier than a mountain pressed down on his palm and made his arm shake slightly.

"Sevenstar Imperial Palace," Supreme Saint Qingsheng said.

Xue Ningxiao cried out, "What? It's Sevenstar Imperial Palace!"

Zhang Ruochen didn't know what was special about Sevenstar Imperial Palace, but he could clearly feel that it contained the aura of Wargod Bloodximus. Moreover, the aura was very strong.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng gave Xue Ningxiao a look.

Xue Ningxiao understood and explained to Zhang Ruochen, “Sevenstar Imperial Palace is a palace that Wargod Bloodximius refined for himself when he was a Supreme Saint. It’s like a huge treasure that he poured his meticulous care into. After so many years of nurturing, Sevenstar Imperial Palace is probably not far from becoming a Fane.”

Xue Chen’s eyes were filled with deep envy. He thought to himself, “Wargod Bloodximius bestowed Sevenstar Imperial Palace to Zhang Ruochen. Has he decided to nurture him as the future master?”

The significance of Sevenstar Imperial Palace was too extraordinary.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “Sevenstar Imperial Palace was where Wargod Bloodximius once lived and cultivated. Every object inside has been nurtured into a Supreme Saint ancient weapon or a god-relic.

“It has an excellent cultivation environment and some cultivation experience left behind by Wargod Bloodximius.

“Of course, the most practical benefit for you right now is the defense of Sevenstar Imperial Palace. With your current cultivation and the power of Palace Guardian, you can fully activate the Palace. Even a Supreme Saint with cultivation rank of Banshi Isshou Realm cannot break the defense in a short time,”

Zhang Ruochen stared at Sevenstar Imperial Palace in his hand with a look of surprise.

Such a treasure was what he needed more than a Divine Artifact.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said again, “During Celestial-Hunting Festival, you will enter Sevenstar Imperial Palace and be carried by 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords. The momentum of Bloodsky clan must not be weak.”

Xue Chen was shocked. He finally understood why Wargod Bloodximius had given Sevenstar Imperial Palace to Zhang Ruochen.

This was to announce to the entire Infernal Court that Zhang Ruochen was his successor. If one wanted harm Zhang Ruochen, he had to consider whether he could withstand Wargod Bloodximius' anger or not.

Of course, the most important thing was Zhang Ruochen's performance at Celestial-Hunting Festival.

If Zhang Ruochen couldn't pass this test — he could not kill the captives from Celestial Court's Macroworld or failed to heighten Bloodsky clan's might—he would pay price as heavy as what Wargod Bloodximius had given him.

Wargod Bloodximius was making a big gamble and forcing Zhang Ruochen to make a decision.

With Sevenstar Imperial Palace in his hands, Zhang Ruochen walked out with a heavy heart.

A situation where Xue Chen could get the picture. Wouldn't Zhang Ruochen, who was ten times smarter than him, understand the case clearly as well?

Zhang Ruochen thought of many things at once. The images of Blood Empress, Sword Saint Xuanji, Wargod Bloodximius, and Chi Kunlun kept appearing in his mind. There were even Chi Yao's shadows.

It was as if Chi Yao was staring at him with a mocking face saying, "Didn't you hate Infernal Court the most? How did you become a member of Infernal Court? Zhang Ruochen, your power is insignificant in front of the big picture,"

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen let out a long sigh. "If I don't go to Infernal Court, who will?"

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen saw a figure flash past in front of him. He immediately stopped thinking and used Great Dimensional Shift to block it.

"Why do you want to hide when you see me?"

Xue Tu, who was blocked by Zhang Ruochen, looked a little upset. He said, "Greetings, Senior."

"Shouldn't you return Seamless Purgatory Tower that I lent you?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

“Well...”

Xue Tu smiled awkwardly and said, “Father has taken Seamless Purgatory Tower back. It is no longer in my hands.”

Zhang Ruochen released a huge wave of energy throughout the entire Ten-winged Saint Ship. Countless Saint-level cultivators trembled in fear and knelt on the ground.

Although Xue Tu had become a Supreme Saint, he felt suffocated by Zhang Ruochen’s Saint power. Blood force in his body seemed to have solidified.

“I lent you my Supreme Artifact out of kindness, but you took it to honor your father. How dare you attend Celestial-Hunting Festival? How dare you appear in front of me? How dare you laugh?”

Zhang Ruochen’s right hand pressed on Xue Tu’s left shoulder.

Suddenly, a series of bone explosions sounded in Xue Tu’s body. Neverwithir Supreme Saint bones in his body seemed to be broken.

‘It was my Supreme Artifact, but you took it away,’ ...

...Xue Tu didn’t dare to say this.

Zhang Ruochen’s power was too strong. He only put his hand on Xue Tu’s shoulder, but Xue Tu couldn’t move at all. His Neverwithir physique seemed to be on the verge of shattering.

“Father wanted to take it away, I-I-I can’t do anything about it,” Xue Tu said.

In fact, it wasn’t Bloodlucius who took Seamless Purgatory Tower. It was Xue Tu who took the initiative to return it.

What a joke. How could he return a Supreme Artifact if he’d tricked Zhang Ruochen into returning it?

No matter how powerful Zhang Ruochen was, would he dare to ask for Seamless Purgatory Tower from Bloodlucius? Would he dare to kill Bloodlucius?

Crack

One of Xue Tu's shoulder bones shattered, and a large amount of saint blood gushed out of his body.

Crack Crack

Then, another five Neverwithers Supreme Saint bones were broken, and half of his body collapsed.

Xue Tu was finally afraid.

Did Zhang Ruochen really not dare to kill him?

Even if he didn't dare to kill him, he would probably dare to break his Neverwithers body and turn him into a Descender who could never ascend to Godhood.

"Senior, I was wrong! Please forgive me this time. Don't worry, I'll compensate you. Killing me won't do you any good," Xue Tu said in a pleading tone.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Can you afford a Supreme Artifact?"

"I have fiefdoms. I can produce a lot of wealth every year," Xue Tu said miserably.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "How many fiefdoms?"

"Five planets, three first-class Planets of Life, one second-class ore planet, and one fourth-class Planet of Life," said Xue Tu.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "It's not enough. It's not worth a Supreme Artifact."

"I don't have any other treasures except fiefdoms. Even if I did, you wouldn't like it."

When Xue Tu saw Zhang Ruochen, whose expression changed, mobilize more saint power, Xue Tu quickly said, "But-But I will do everything I can to make up for your loss until I pay you back."

Bang

Zhang Ruochen threw Xue Tu to the ground, his eyes still cold and sharp.

Snap Snap

Xue Tu's broken Neverwith Supreme Saint bone was quickly reconnected. His body recovered in an instant.

Seeing this, Zhang Ruochen looked thoughtful. "Will you die if I cut out your heart?"

"Of course not. I'm a Supreme Saint now. My life force is much stronger than when I was in Saint Kingdom. Even if my heart was cut out, it would grow back very quickly. Senior, why are you asking this?" Xue Tu asked curiously.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Why don't you sell your heart, kidneys, and lungs? The Supreme Saint's organs should be very valuable and popular. At the very least, you could sell your blood. Saint-level cultivators and Saint Kings from Immortal Vampires must still be eager to drink the saint blood of a Supreme Saint,"

Xue Tu's face became paler and paler as he listened. He kept stepping back.

Suddenly, he realized that offending Zhang Ruochen was not something that could be easily fooled.

The consequences...

...were very serious.

Zhang Ruochen did not seem to be joking. His expression was serious. He patted Xue Tu's shoulder seriously, "After we're back from Forest of No Return, we can discuss the plan to make money. Don't worry about your saint blood running dry. I will think of a way to keep you alive. At least, I can guarantee that you won't die."

"Senior, don't you think it's a bad idea? I'm the disciple of Truegod Xue Qingyin. Doing this will damage her reputation." Xue Tu held onto his last hope.

"I'll protect mother's reputation alone."

With that, Zhang Ruochen left. Before he did, he reminded Xue Tu again, "I'm warning you. Don't even think about escaping. If you're captured by me, I'll make you wish you were dead."

Xue Tu was desperate. He suddenly felt that he was the most hopeless Supreme Saint in the history of Immortal Vampires. Out of anyone he could offend, why did he offend Zhang Ruochen?

Chapter 2237: The Divine Domain of Destiny

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Zhang Ruochen had frightened Xue Tu badly. He was uneasy and full of fear for this trip to the Forest of No Return.

It was difficult for even a god to frighten a Supreme Saint to such an extent.

Zhang Ruochen only had hatred for Xue Tu. He had no good impression of him.

In the Sword Vault Palace battle, his senior brother Bao Lie had almost died at his hands. Even Zhang Ruochen himself had almost lost his life. It could be said that there was a great hatred. If Blood Empress had not taken Xue Tu as her disciple, Zhang Ruochen would not have let him off so easily.

However, Zhang Ruochen had just said those words to scare him.

A Supreme Saint could be killed, but not humiliated.

If Zhang Ruochen forced Xue Tu to such an extent, even if he had to die, he would never submit.

After Zhang Ruochen became a Supreme Saint, his mentality had changed even more. He wanted to try The Ways Of An Emperor Rules that Shangguan Que had once taught him.

“Where do you think you are going?”

Zhang Ruochen sensed that Xue Tu had quietly jumped off the Ten-winged Saint Ship. He smirked and disappeared from where he was and reappeared 100 kilometers away. Then, he grabbed the invisible Xue Tu and pulled him out.

The moment Xue Tu saw Zhang Ruochen, his Neverwithers Supreme Saint physique trembled. He said desperately, “Senior Brother, letting a genius Supreme Saint sell his saint blood and organs in the Forest of No Return is a disgrace to the entire Bloodysky Clan. You have to think twice.”

Zhang Ruochen ignored him. His face was cold and dignified. He said, “What did I tell you? How dare you run away? You didn't listen to me. Moyin, suck up half of his saint blood."

The roots of Saint Devourer spread out from Zhang Ruochen's back and wrapped around Xue Tu's arms.

"I hope his Supreme Saint blood can help you breakthrough," Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu wanted to resist, but Zhang Ruochen pressed him down with one finger. He could not move and was trapped in space.

When Zhang Ruochen almost died, the Saint Devourer was also severely injured. It only woke up recently. After being nurtured by Zhang Ruochen's demigod blood for decades, it finally recovered to its pinnacle state.

With Xue Tu as a new source of blood, Zhang Ruochen did not need to use his demigod blood anymore.

...

Wargod Bloodximius and Bloodlucius sat opposite each other in a mysterious bloody space.

The two gods were playing chess.

The chess pieces in their hands were not round black and white pieces, but human-shaped puppets. Some of the human-shaped puppets gave off the aura of a saint, while others gave off the aura of a powerful Supreme Saint.

Wargod Bloodximius said, "It looks like you didn't place your pieces well. Be careful that you might destroy him."

Bloodlucius said thoughtfully, "Since Xue Tu has the mark of Wargod Bloodflame, he has the potential to become a god. However, his state of mind has not reached the level of a god. It might not be a bad thing to let him follow Zhang Ruochen and refine his state of mind."

Back then, Bloodlucius sent Xue Tu to Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits because he had high hopes for him and used it to refine his state of mind.

Slam

Bloodlucious placed a chess piece and said, "It's your turn!"

“The mind of a true god must be unyielding even after a hundred setbacks. But, if it were to be broken, wouldn’t your heartache?” Wargod Bloodximius said as he made a move.

“Being broken means that he doesn’t have the potential to become a god. What’s wrong with knowing the result earlier?”

Bloodlucius continued, “The cultivators of Infernal Court are becoming more and more arrogant and conceited. It’s not a good sign.”

“In the past myriad years, the number of new gods born in Infernal Court is no longer superior to the various worlds in Celestial Court. Perhaps, it’s because the state of mind of the younger generation is lacking in setbacks and tempering. Who knows how many peerless Supreme Saints with exceptional talent are unable to break through to become gods no matter what.

“The environment they grew up in was too peaceful!

“I think that we should speak up at this Celestial-Hunting Festival and suppress the younger generation in Infernal Court and rectify the unhealthy atmosphere. We should have the determination to win. We should never be arrogant and conceited.

...

After absorbing half of Xue Tu’s Supreme Saint blood, the Saint Devourer successfully transcended the Path-melding Tribulation and formed its Neverwithers Saint physique. It broke through and became a Supreme Saint.

It transformed into Moyin’s figure. It was beautiful and had many halos of Saint Qi around it. Its powerful saint might fill the vast space.

“Thank you for the blood, master. It helped me breakthrough to become a Supreme Saint.” Moyin’s voice was soft and beautiful. Its eyes shone with blood.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You can thank junior brother Xue Tu.”

Xue Tu wanted to cry after hearing the phrase, junior brother.

‘How could he bully his junior brother like this?’ Xue Tu thought.

“Senior brother, we did have hatred in the past. Can’t we turn hostility into amity now that we are on the same side?” Xue Tu said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You were born in Infernal Court, so you should know better than me that the strong prey on the weak. Only the weak would have hoped the strong would turn hostility into amity. If my cultivation is not as good as yours today, and I fall into your hands. How much of my Saint blood would you allow me to keep?”

Xue Tu had a thought after hearing that.

Yes, I have the mark of Wargod Bloodflame. As long as I cultivate hard, I might be able to surpass Zhang Ruochen. As long as I can endure until the day when I am stronger than him, will he still not be at my mercy?’

Xue Tu regained his strong confidence. He looked at Zhang Ruochen’s departing figure and revealed a vicious and cold smile.

Now, he could only bear the humiliation. When the Celestial-hunting festival came, his cultivation would have a big breakthrough.

“Moyin, keep an eye on junior brother Xue Tu. If he dares to run again, suck up the remaining half of his saint blood.”

Zhang Ruochen returned to the Ten-winged Saint Ship. He took out the Sundial and entered the state of cultivation.

The starry sky where Infernal Court was located was very vast. To reach the Forest of No Return, one needed to go through many wormholes, and the time spent on the road would be long.

At present, what Zhang Ruochen wanted to improve the most urgently was the Precepts.

Yan Wushen had already cultivated to the pinnacle of the Neverwilt realm, so he absolutely could not lag too far behind.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Sundial and cultivated it for four years.

Zhang Ruochen had 100 million more Precepts in his body. In total, there are more than 500 million.

“It seems that it’s not difficult to increase the number of Precepts to 800 million. But it doesn’t seem so easy to comprehend the Saintwill.”

So far, Zhang Ruochen had not even touched the threshold of the Saintwill.

If he wanted to break through to the advanced stage of the Neverwilt realm, he needs 800 million Precepts and Saintwill. Once he cultivated the Saintwill, Zhang Ruochen’s battle strength would improve greatly.

‘Since Yan Wushen has reached the pinnacle of the Neverwilt realm, he must have cultivated at least one billion Precepts. More importantly, how strong is the Saintwill he comprehended?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen could ignore any cultivator in the same realm, but Yan Wushen was an exception.

After spending on things with the 140 Godstones, there were five left. Zhang Ruochen was about to take out the Sevenstar Imperial Palace to study them.

There was a commotion outside.

“We’re here! Look, it’s the six-colored divine nebula in the Forest of No Return. It’s so spectacular!”

“I see three World Trees. The one in the middle is the World Tree of Destiny, right?”

...

Zhang Ruochen was curious about the Forest of No Return, which was the core of Infernal Court. He put away the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and walked out.

A large number of saint realm cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan gathered on the deck of the Saint Ship.

Zhang Ruochen looked over and saw a six-colored forest in the boundless starry sky.

The forest was not real. It was made of star fog and dust and it was about one-tenth of a light-year wide. It was more than a trillion miles long. Even a Supreme Saint could not fly through it.

There were also a large number of life stars floating in the six-colored forest. From Afar, they looked as small as marbles.

The most eye-catching ones were the three World Trees in the six-colored forest.

They were not real trees. Instead, they were similar to the Ashuran Planet. They had a rock structure and looked like three broad-leaved ancient trees.

Every leaf on the World Trees was a world. Each world was a country where countless cultivators lived.

Some of the countries had already evolved into divine kingdoms.

There was a huge leaf that had built three divine cities on the top of the three World Trees. They were known as the Divine Domain of Destiny, Fengdu, and Yama Boundless Realm.

The Ten-winged Saint Ship was flying towards the top of the World Tree of Destiny in the middle—the Divine Domain of Destiny.

The Ten-winged Saint Ship was flying on a special star path. Under the influence of divine power, it kept making space jumps. Each jump could cover billions of miles.

As he got closer to the World Tree of Destiny, Zhang Ruochen felt more and more pressure. The precepts of heaven and earth became more active. The ten golden wings hidden in his body seemed to be out of control and were about to rush out from his back.

After the fleet arrived at the Divine Domain of Destiny, everyone moved into an independent city area under the leadership of Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

“The area we are in now is called the Winterpage City. It was built 100,000 years ago by the Fane of Destiny and the Yanluo clan for the Celestial-hunting Festival. It is divided into hundreds of districts. The district where our Bloodysky Clan is stationed is called the Bingsi District.

“All the cultivators from the ten clans of Infernal Courts who participate in the Celestial-hunting Festival will enter the Winterpage City.”

“Everyone must remember that private fights are forbidden in the city district. Here, there are gods and Supreme Saint enforcers. Those who engage in private fights will be severely punished.”

“If there are personal grudges that you want to resolve, you can head to the Battle District.”

“If you want to buy cultivation items, you can go to the city of River Market District. There are saint shops set up by various prominent figures on both sides of the Saint River. Large-scale auctions are held every day. As long as you have enough Saint Stones, you can buy everything you want.”

“In addition, there is the Debate District, the Sword District...”

“There is still some time before the Celestial-hunting Festival. If you have time, you can walk around and broaden your horizons.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng had talked a lot, but Zhang Ruochen’s mind had already drifted elsewhere.

‘The legendary Fane of Destiny should be in the Divine Domain of Destiny. Is the Power of Destiny so terrifying that it determines everything in the world?’ Zhang Ruochen thought. He closed his eyes and Huang Yanchen’s figure appeared in his mind unconsciously.

She turned around and turned into Pan Ruo’s face again.

It was hard not to think of her here.

Zhang Ruochen’s place of residence was arranged in the central area of the Bingsi District. It was called the Vastsea

Manor. As soon as he walked into the manor, a large group of figures knelt on the ground. "Greetings, Supreme Saint Ruochen."

Apart from the 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords mentioned by Supreme Saint Qingsheng, there were also eight Saint King Realm Blood guards, hundreds of maids, butlers, and servants.

They were only staying for a month or two, yet they made such a big fuss.

"Get Up!"

After a pause, Zhang Ruochen pointed to Moyin who was standing next to him, and he said, "In the coming period, just tell Supreme Saint Moyin directly if you have anything to do. She will help me arrange everything. By the way, send a cultivator to find Xue Tu for me."

Zhang Ruochen activated the Sundial by a lake in the Vastsea Manor and started cultivating again.

Xue Tu walked over and entered the Sundial's range. His heart suddenly ached. He thought to himself, 'Zhang Ruochen has a treasure of time like the Sundial. Do I have a chance to surpass him in my life?'

Zhang Ruochen stopped his cultivation and stood up. He walked to the pavilion and poured two cups of holy spring. He picked up one and handed it over.

Xue Tu was stunned. His eyes were filled with confusion. He took the holy spring in a daze and drank it slowly. After drinking it, he found that the Precepts in him had automatically increased by hundreds.

"This... This holy spring..."

Xue Tu only felt that he could not see through Zhang Ruochen at all. He did not know what he was trying to do.

Before coming to the Vastsea Manor, he had already prepared to run for his life again. He was afraid that Zhang Ruochen would take him to sell his blood and organs. For a Supreme Saint, it was more difficult to accept than death.

However, he drank a cup of the precious holy spring after he came along.

The psychological difference made him feel flattered.

Zhang Ruochen picked up another cup of holy spring and drank it slowly. He said, "How many Godstones can your five planets of fiefdom sell in the auction house?"

Xue Tu knew that he could not keep the fiefdom, so he did not feel so bad. He said, "100 Godstones probably."

"So Little?" Zhang Ruochen frowned.

Xue Tu was speechless.

'So Little?' he thought.

100 Godstones were equivalent to 100 billion saint stones.

If he had not gotten the mark of the Wargod Bloodflame, broken through to the Supreme Saint realm, and received a fourth-level Planet of Life from his family, he would not have so much wealth.

"Fine! Place your fiefdom in the auction. It's best if you sell it in two days and exchange it all for Godstones."

Seeing that Xue Tu was not moving, Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and said, "Why are you still here?"

Xue Tu still could not believe that Zhang Ruochen would let him go so easily. He asked in a low voice, "Senior brother, don't you have any other orders?"

Zhang Ruochen looked over and said, "Don't worry about working for me. If you do well enough, I can consider giving you more time to pay off the huge debt you owe me."

"Okay, I'll do it right away. I'll make sure it's done properly."

Xue Tu was overjoyed. Like a knife hanging above his head, he has temporarily moved away and left happily.

Zhang Ruochen held the jade cup and watched Xue Tu leave. He thought to himself, 'This is the first time I've challenged a Supreme Saint. It seems to be working. However, it's still far from convincing him to obey me.'

Suddenly, a cold voice came from the pavilion behind him.
“I’ve never seen a Supreme Saint so excited after being forced to auction off his fiefdom. Zhang Ruochen, your methods are brilliant!”

There was a strong sense of irony in her tone.

Zhang Ruochen turned around and saw Lord Xia Yu’s beautiful figure sitting inside.

She made herself at home. She lifted the jade pot, raised her snow-white chin, and poured the holy spring into her red lips. Such a bold thing was done by her. It was full of beauty.

Zhang Ruochen had an idea. Suddenly, he felt that he might be able to challenge a higher difficulty.

If he could make Lord Xia Yu obedient, he would have no issue controlling others.

“I thought that our relationship should be like fire and water, with no possibility of detente. I did not expect that you would come to visit me. It just so happens that I have something important to discuss with you.”

Zhang Ruochen was indifferent. He did not mention that Lord Xia Yu drank the holy spring without permission.

Lord Xia Yu raised her wrist and put the jade pot back on the table. She glared at Zhang Ruochen and snorted, “I’m not here to repair our relationship. Someone sent an invitation to you.”

With that, an invitation flew out of her sleeve.

Chapter 2238: Mu Lingxi's Jade Bracelet

The leader of the Qitian Clan, Lord Bladehell, had sent an invitation.

Zhang Ruochen opened the invitation and took a look.

The invitation was for the leader of the Bloodsky Clan. He invited the leader and the Supreme Saints of the clan to a banquet for the ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires tomorrow night.

Lord Xia Yu refined the holy spring and found that the Precepts in her had increased by a few thousand in an instant.

'This spring was not ordinary,' she thought.

She was about to drink again but found that the jade pot was empty.

Lord Xia Yu put the jade pot back on the table and said, "Do you know why the invitation was sent to me?"

Zhang Ruochen lowered his eyes and stared at the fish in the lake. Then he said lightly, "The Qitian Clan is ranked first among the top ten Immortal Vampires. It was reasonable for them to lead the gathering. However, it's impossible for Lord Bladehell to not know that I'm the leader of the Bloodsky Clan. If he sent the invitation to you on purpose. It's obvious that he's trying to sow discord between us."

"It's best that you understand this."

Lord Xia Yu's body was a tall and beautiful saintly being. She stood up and prepared to leave.

"Wait."

Zhang Ruochen stopped her and said, "I can't go to this banquet."

"Why?" Lord Xia Yu asked in confusion.

Zhang Ruochen sighed and said, "Lord Bladehell's invitation was sent to you, so you should attend on behalf of the Bloodsky Clan."

“But I’m not the leader.” Lord Xia Yu snorted.

Zhang Ruochen said, “If I go in this situation, the Qitian Clan and the other eight clans will take this opportunity to attack me. They will say that I went without an invitation. I will be humiliated, but that’s secondary. The most important thing is that the Bloodsky Clan must not lose face.”

Lord Xia Yu suddenly turned around and said, “Are you afraid?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, and he said, “I’m afraid that I can’t control myself and will teach them a harsh lesson. In this way, there will be divisions and huge conflicts within the Immortal Vampires. Won’t it be a joke to the other clans in the Infernal Court?”

Whether it was the Celestial-hunting Festival or the environment of the Infernal Court, the ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires competed with each other and allied with each other.

At the Celestial-hunting Festival, the ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires had to unite first to fight against the Ghost, Rakshasa, Stone Clan, and the other nine clans.

This was a battle between the ten clans, and it was related to the honor of the Immortal Vampires.

Next was the internal competition among the ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires.

If the Celestial-hunting Festival hadn’t started yet, the ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires would already be fighting among themselves. Not only would they be ridiculed, but they might even be at the bottom of the festival.

Lord Xia Yu stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, “Then tell me, what should I do? Do you want me to represent the Bloodsky Clan to attend the banquet of the ten great clans? Aren’t you afraid...”

She stopped at this point.

Zhang Ruochen understood what she meant. She should have said, “Aren’t you afraid that I will take away your power and you will become a puppet leader?”

He didn't seem to care, “I went to compete for the leader because of the honor of the Xue Jue Family. However, I'm not familiar with the cultivators of the Bloodsky Clan attending the banquet. If I were to be the leader, I would make a mess. I believe you don't want to see such a situation, right?”

“At least you know yourself. Do you know that because you are the leader, the Bloodsky Clan has become the target of everyone? Many of your enemies on Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits have said that they want to humiliate the Bloodsky Clan at the Celestial-hunting Festival,” Lord Xia Yu said bluntly.

Her tone was full of resentment toward Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Therefore, the Bloodsky Clan needs you to stand out and lead everyone. As for me, the lower my sense of existence, the better. This way, the chances of Bloodsky Clan being targeted will be less.”

Lord Xia Yu did not expect Zhang Ruochen to take the initiative to bring this up. She was a little surprised.

Zhang Ruochen handed her the invitation and said, “For the sake of the Bloodsky Clan, please take care of the Celestial-hunting Festival.”

Lord Xia Yu didn't believe that Zhang Ruochen didn't care about the identity of the leader, nor did she believe that he would be so easy to talk to. However, she couldn't find any reason to refuse.

Unconsciously, she took the invitation.

Zhang Ruochen said, “There's another thing. The Qitian Clan, Azuresky Clan, and Yellowsky Clan all have elites who had completed their cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. If the Bloodsky Clan wants to make a difference at the Celestial-hunting Festival, we must have elites of the same as well.”

Lord Xia Yu snorted and said, “It's not that easy to reach the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

“Didn’t you break the ninety-nine shackles already?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Xia Yu put away the invitation and put her arms behind her back. She said, “You have just reached the Neverwilt Realm. How could you understand the mystery of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?”

“Please enlighten me, Lord Xia Yu.” Zhang Ruochen said modestly.

Lord Xia Yu was even more surprised to see him like this.

‘Was he the Zhang Ruochen who had killed the Saint King Realm cultivators in the Infernal Court?’ she thought.

Logically, with his talent, strength, and background, he must have been extremely arrogant and conceited, just like Yan Wushen.

What is he up to?’ Lord Xia Yu was puzzled.

He was modest, but she couldn’t be arrogant. Or else she would be looked down upon by Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Xia Yu said, “After reaching the Hundred-Shackle Realm if you want to continue to become stronger, you have to not only comprehend the Precepts but also break the shackles in your body.

“The shackles were easier to break in the early stages.

“After breaking ninety shackles, the difficulty will increase several times for each shackle. It can be said that the last ten shackles are more difficult than the previous ninety combined.

“Among them, the most difficult one is called the Shackle of Desire. It is invisible and intangible. It is the most difficult to find and break. Many Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm would save the Shackle of Desire for the last to be broken. I have spent five years, but I haven’t found a trace of the Shackle of Desire.”

She was quite disappointed and said, “It seems to be only one shackle away from the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but the difference in combat power is like heaven and earth.”

Zhang Ruochen said, "I have cultivated in the Path of Truth. Perhaps I can use the Power of Truth to help you see through the illusion and find the Shackle of Desire."

"You?"

Lord Xia Yu did not have a good impression of Zhang Ruochen from the Celestial Court. She said, "You are not a Master of Truth. With your little attainments in the Path of Truth, you want to help me? Besides, even if you can help me, breaking the hundredth shackle is not something that can be done in a month or two."

"I am the Master of Time. It is not difficult for me to help you break through the realm in a few years or decades," Zhang Ruochen said confidently.

Lord Xia Yu said, "One who is unaccountably solicitous is hiding evil intentions. Zhang Ruochen, what are you plotting?"

"I just want the Bloodsky Clan to perform better at the Celestial-hunting Festival," Zhang Ruochen said.

"You'd better not have any other thoughts. No matter how you try to please me, it's useless."

Lord Xia Yu's graceful figure flew out of the Vastsea Manor like a fairy butterfly.

Zhang Ruochen raised his voice and asked, "Lord Xia Yu, can you tell me your name?"

There was no response.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head slightly. He had to take things one step at a time with a peerless beauty like Lord Xia Yu.

Returning to the Sundial, Zhang Ruochen continued to cultivate.

At present, his primary goal was to advance his cultivation to the advanced stage of the Neverwilt Realm.

'It's time to spend more time and comprehend my own Saintwill,' he thought.

Cultivating the Saintwill was something he had to do to break through to the advanced stage of the Neverwilt Realm.

‘A Supreme Saint can cultivate not only just one Saintwill. If I cultivate the Time Saintwill and the Dimension Saintwill directly, my level might be very low because I don’t have enough experience.’ Zhang Ruochen thought to himself.

Time, Dimension, and Swordsmanship were the three Paths that Zhang Ruochen valued the most.

He could not be careless at all.

‘I should cultivate the Fist Saintwill first,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Most Supreme Saints could only cultivate one type of Saintwill. There were very few Supreme Saints who could cultivate two types of Saintwill at the same time.

There were even fewer Supreme Saints who could cultivate more than three types of Saintwill.

Even if Zhang Ruochen was very confident in himself, he did not dare to act rashly. The Path of Fist that he chose was one that he had cultivated to completion in the Saint King Realm. It was also the first and most important one.

First of all, Zhang Ruochen separated 4.6 million Precepts of Fist from his sea of Qi and gathered them together, condensing them over and over again.

4.6 million Precepts of Fist twined and turned into 2.3 million thicker Precepts.

Then, they twined again.

In this way, Zhang Ruochen spent three months condensing 4.6 million Precepts of Fist into 460 Precepts. Each of them was as thick as a saint pillar and contained profound and mysterious energy.

At this point, no matter how Zhang Ruochen mobilized his power, he could not make the Precepts of Fist fuse again.

“It seems that I need some external support.”

Zhang Ruochen took out the Violet Gourd, shrunk his body, and flew into the gourd.

With the power of the gourd, the 460 Precepts of Fist in his sea of Qi seemed to have melted. They gathered together and turned into a chaotic light ball above the Heavenly Stream.

The Fist Saintwill was about to be condensed in the light ball.

Suddenly, there was a loud explosion. The chaotic light ball dispersed and turned into 4.6 million Precepts of Fist again, flying back to the Heavenly Stream.

It was all for naught.

“I was so close. What a pity!” said Zhang Ruochen as he felt regretful.

After months of hard work, he was back to his original state in an instant.

“It seems that the cultivation environment of the Violet Gourd is not good enough. I have to buy some stellar cores. In addition, I have to buy some high-level treasures to help me cultivate the Saintwill.”

After flying out of the Violet Gourd, Zhang Ruochen left the Vastsea Manor and headed toward the River Market District.

A blood-red river flowed through the center of the district.

Saint boats were shuttling across the river. The big ones carried palaces and released the terrifying power of a Supreme Saint. The small ones were only dozens of feet long. Only two or three cultivators were sitting on them.

The so-called River Market was located on both sides of the blood-red river.

An Asura elder rolled a piece of animal skin on the ground and placed the blood, bones, and hearts of various Saint Realm creatures on it. He shouted and sold them as goods.

There were also cultivators of the Nether Clan selling all kinds of curse talismans.

There was also a Ghost Lord leading a group of human slaves and walking by the river like they were selling livestock. The human slaves crawled on the ground. There were beautiful women and powerful Saint cultivators.

In Infernal Court, they were being sold all year round. They did all kinds of lowly things and had long lost their dignity as a human.

Zhang Ruochen walked by the river and watched all of this calmly.

As he was surrounded by Saint Qi, only a few cultivators could see his true face. Even if he didn't hide his face.

He walked and watched all the way.

Some of the stalls also had good-quality treasures. However, it did not catch Zhang Ruochen's eyes anymore.

A Rakshasa woman in a black veil appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen. She bowed respectfully and said, "May I ask if you are the Supreme Saint Ruochen?"

Zhang Ruochen naturally didn't think that this woman could see his face.

There must be a Supreme Saint Realm elite nearby who recognized him.

"You are?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"I am Yao Li, Princess Luo Sha's Saint maidservant."

Then, she continued, "The princess wants to invite Supreme Saint Ruochen for a chat."

Luo Sha was one of the few cultivators in Infernal Court that Zhang Ruochen did not hate so much. Perhaps it was because she was too beautiful to make a man hate her.

Or perhaps it was because they had once cultivated both spiritual powers and had a beautiful past.

However, it was not a relationship. Rather, they were more of enemies.

"Sorry, I have something to do. I don't have time." Zhang Ruochen turned her down and prepared to leave.

“Supreme Saint Ruochen, please wait. The princess has guessed that the Supreme Saint doesn’t want to see her, so she would like to ask you to see something first.” Saint maidservant Yao Li said.

She took out a jade bracelet and handed it to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes suddenly shrank after he saw the jade bracelet. His aura became extremely cold. He reached out, grabbed her neck, and lifted her from the ground.

“Where did this jade bracelet come from?” Zhang Ruochen asked coldly.

Saint maidservant Yao Li couldn’t speak. Her pretty face was pale and she was terrified. She used her spiritual power to transmit her voice. “The princess gave it to me.”

Bang

Zhang Ruochen threw Yao Li to the ground. He picked up the jade bracelet and held it gently in his hand. His eyes were filled with tenderness. He said, “Take me to Luo Sha.”

Under the guidance of Yao Li, Zhang Ruochen left the River Market District and headed toward the Battle District.

Zhang Ruochen personally refined the jade bracelet and gave it to Mu Lingxi.

Although the jade bracelet was of a very low grade and the storage space inside was very small, Mu Lingxi always wore it. ‘How could it appear in the Infernal Court? How could it be in Luo Sha’s hands?’ he thought.

Yao Li brought Zhang Ruochen to a square that was emitting black brilliance in the Battle District.

Whoosh

Her figure flashed and disappeared from the spot.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the empty black square and calmly watched the scene. He said, “Great Dimensional Shift Talisman! Who was it that lured me here?”

Whoosh

At the edge of the black square, four black saint light screens rose and sealed the entire square.

A burly Rakshasa Supreme Saint, wearing saint armor and holding a battle-ax, walked out from the blacklight screen behind Zhang Ruochen, he said furiously, “Zhang Ruochen, you brutally killed my brother Great Prince Mara on Kunlun’s Battlefield of Merits. It’s time for us to settle this!”

...

Chapter 2239: Warlord Mara

The length and width of the black plaza were over 10,000 meters long.

The black lightscreen around the plaza was filled with countless divine inscriptions. Once activated, not only could it keep the energy inside from leaking out, it could also prevent living beings inside from escaping.

In the Battle District, this plaza was known as the Arena of Life and Death.

Upon stepping into the Arena of Life and Death, it was equivalent to signing a life and death contract. No one, including deities, could interfere.

They could not blame others if they were dead or severely injured.

Warlord Mara was about four meters tall. His legs were as thick as iron pillars, and he was clad in black armor. There were eight skeletal wings on his back, and his nose was caved in. His eyes were even bigger than the mouth of a bowl. He was ugly, just like the other Rakshasa males.

He emitted powerful waves of energy.

Whoosh!

The evil energy was like seawater. It filled the space where the Arena of Life and Death was. It was so strong that it made the lightscreen filled with divine inscriptions tremble slightly.

The evil energy was storming towards Zhang Ruochen. However, it was split into two ways; It could not touch his snow-white robe.

“Even if I did slaughter Great Prince Mara with no mercy, he deserved it. He deserved to die.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were as cold as ice. “Say, where did you get that Bracelet of Dimension? Tell me everything, and perhaps I can spare your life.”

Warlord Mara laughed angrily. “What a joke. Zhang Ruochen, don’t think that you can be arrogant just because you’ve defeated three pieces of trash from the Bloodsky Clan.”

“I’m the one who led you to the Arena of Life and Death. Hence, I have no intention of letting you out alive. Yet, you dare to say you would spare my life? Perhaps you should kneel down and beg for mercy now, then I’ll consider leaving your corpse intact and sending your dead body to the Xue Jue family.”

The Mara family was an existence as ancient as the Xue Jue family. They were very powerful in Rakshasa clan, and there were two Truegods in their family.

Being conferred the title “Mara” was a supreme honor for the members of the Mara family.

There was only one prince, Duke, Marquis, Count, and Viscount, who could receive the title of “Mara.”

Due to his unique constitution and the fact that he had comprehended a Grade Four Saintwill, he had the potential to attain godhood, which was why he got conferred the title of Mara.

When they heard that a Supreme Saint elite had activated the Arena of Life and Death, all the cultivators in the martial battle city area were in an uproar and immediately gathered in this direction.

The majority of them were the guests of the Celestial-Hunting Festival with high status in Infernal Court.

“The one who ascended the Arena of Life and Death is actually Warlord Mara. He’s a leader from Dhisn, one of the seven great kingdoms of the Rakshasa. He’s also the Mara family’s top elite since 10,000 years ago. He has the potential to become a deity.”

“Is that... a human Supreme Saint opposite Warlord Mara? Or is he an Asura?”

“Haha, a Supreme Saint of Neverwilt Realm dares to ascend the Arena of Life and Death to challenge Warlord Mara. He must have death wish!” a cultivator laughed.

...

Warlord Mara hated Zhang Ruochen so much that he attacked Zhang Ruochen rapidly. His battle-ax — Parashu — emitted a dazzling light under the control of the evil energy.

The ax struck out with earth-shattering power, heading straight for Zhang Ruochen's head.

Zhang Ruochen remained calm. He extended one hand and formed a palm seal with his five fingers, holding up a 30-foot-wide spatial sphere. The moment Parashu struck the spatial sphere, the sphere absorbed all the power in an instant.

BOOM!

The next moment, the spatial sphere exploded with a surge of power. It bounced Parashu back.

“So this is the Dimesional power?”

There was a change of expression in Warlord Mara's eyes. He immediately used all his strength to activate Parashu. 270,000 regal-level inscriptions appeared on Parashu. Their power increased dramatically.

The rebounding force was instantly suppressed by him. Parashu slashed down with even more power, shattering Zhang Ruochen's spatial sphere.

With a boom, Parashu hit the ground.

The defensive divine inscriptions on the Arena of Life and Death were instantly activated by Parashu's power.

“Has the human Supreme Saint been killed by the axe?”

“How powerful is Warlord Mara? Parashu in his hand is a divine weapon that has survived two counts of regal level tribulations. Many masters in the completion of Hundred-Shackle Realm don't dare to take his battle axe head-on.”

“The human Supreme Saint at Neverwilt Realm has most likely been hacked into ashes... how... how is that possible... He is still alive after being hit by Warlord Mara.”

At the edge of the Arena of Life and Death, a speck of light was flashing.

The light spot expanded rapidly and turned into Zhang Ruochen's figure. He fell to the ground unscathed.

Zhang Ruochen had already known Warlord Mara's strength through the battle just now. Warlord Mara had broken 99 shackles and was at the same realm as Lord Xia Yu.

But his attack power was stronger than Lord Xia Yu's.

Lord Xia Yu was more proficient in spiritual power, talisman and rune techniques, and array formations. However, her attack power was her weakness.

'No wonder he dared to call the Three Top Elites of Bloodskly Clan useless. He's indeed powerful. He's not an ordinary person.'

Zhang Ruochen was very concerned about Mu Lingxi's safety. He didn't want to tangle with Warlord Mara. He wanted to end the battle quickly. Thus, he activated the Fire God armor and covered his entire body.

Crackle—

The white robe on his body was instantly burned to ashes by the fire from the Armor of the Fire God.

"The Dimensional technique is quite profound. I never expected you could escape from my battle axe. Unfortunately, this is the Arena of Life and Death. There is no way to run."

Warlord Mara's eight skeletal wings spread out. They grew bigger and bigger, completely enveloping the Arena of Life and Death.

Between the bones, streaks of lightning flowed. Some condensed into Saint Dragons, some into Taotie, and some actually condensed into human forms... There were 100 Thunder Warsouls.

Each Thunder Warsoul released an aura that surpassed a Nine-Step Saint King of Path's Anterior and was close to a Supreme Saint of Neverwilt Realm.

100 such powerful Warsouls were attached to Warlord Mara's body at the same time, allowing his Saint Might to reach its peak.

Zhang Ruochen had a serious look on his face. He didn't expect Warlord Mara to have such a method.

"It's Hundred Beast Combat Body Art. Warlord Mara has to get support from a hundred beasts even though his opponent is just a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint."

"Warlord Mara had once used Hundred Beast Combat Body Art to fight a Supreme Saint, who was at the initial stage of Thousand-Koan Realm, to a draw. Did he really need it to counter a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint?"

All the cultivators present were puzzled. They felt that using Hundred Beast Combat Body Art to counter Zhang Ruochen was like breaking a butterfly on a wheel.

Anyone who could attain the rank of Supreme Saint within the age of 1,000 years old was not an ordinary Supreme Saint.

Especially someone like Warlord Mara, who could become the leader of one of the seven great kingdoms of the Rakshasa, was not an ordinary cultivator. It was very normal for him to be able to fight across realms.

When Warlord Mara was still a Saint King, he was even stronger than Great Prince Mara. He was an elite who had achieved first tier below Supreme Sainthood.

If Warlord Mara could improve his Hundred Beast Combat Body Art a little more, his hundred beasts would reach the power of Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints. His combat power would be even more terrifying. He could injure a Supreme Saint, whose attainment was comparable that of Lord Xia Yu, with just a strike.

However, Zhang Ruochen was not afraid. He strode forward and attacked.

He had a Demigod-level physique, so why would he be afraid of an Hundred Beast Combat Body that was yet to reach its best state?

He simply shot out a palm strike. It turned into a flaming Mount Wuzhi. Powerful Yang energy surged out and burned Warlord Mara's black armor until it was red, as if it was about to melt.

Warlord Mara was shocked. He quickly mobilized the power of all beasts, gathered it with his own power, and swung Parashu with brute force.

The battle axe collided with his palm and released a blinding holy light.

Boom!

The power was evenly matched. No one had the upper hand.

Zhang Ruochen snorted. He unleashed the Realm-frame of Truth and triggered the phenomena of Shoreless Star Ocean. Dense starlight filled the space where the Arena of Life and Death was.

Although it was Shoreless Star Ocean, Zhang Ruochen's Realm-frame of Truth wasn't far from the highest level: the Boundless Universe.

Sensing Zhang Ruochen's 10 times power, Warlord Mara quickly released the Gate of Destiny. It floated behind him to weaken the attack force aiming at him.

Obviously, Zhang Ruochen's attainments in the Path of Truth were far superior to Warlord Mara's way of fate.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Warlord Mara could not withstand Zhang Ruochen's power and kept retreating. With every step he took, the Arena of Life and Death would shake violently.

The Saint-level cultivators around the Arena of Life and Death were all dumbfounded.

That human was merely a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint yet his pure strength had suppressed that of Warlord Mara.

At this moment, something even more unbelievable happened.

Zhang Ruochen released a Spatial Domain and virtual time domain at the Null Time realm at Warlord Mara. In this way, Warlord Mara was suppressed by the forces of three ancient Paths: Path of Truth, Path of Time, and Path of Dimension.

...

On the east side of the Arena of Life and Death, at the top of the stands, there was a Ghost Lotus the size of a basin.

The Ghost Lotus had seven petals. On two of them, there were silhouettes of ghosts.

They were the Ghost Master's eighth son, Ming, and seventh son, Xu

Ming was once the top elite below Supreme Sainthood among Ghosts. Now, he was a Ghost Emperor who had survived seven Ghost Tribulations.

Xu was even more amazing. After ambushing Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, he used the Spring of Chaos to refine Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt physique with the Spring of Chaos. He broke all 100 shackles and formed a Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt physique. He had attained the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Xu said, "It looks like Warlord Mara is going to lose. His Hundred Beast Combat Body Art hasn't reached the grand completion yet, so it can't suppress Zhang Ruochen, who is the Scion of Time and Space with a Demigod-level body."

"Warlord Mara is only at a disadvantage for now. I think the outcome is still unknown," said Ming.

Xu shook his head, "Zhang Ruochen might not be able to defeat Warlord Mara with pure strength," said Xu

"Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen's greatest combat ability has never been pure strength, but the techniques of Time and Space. Moreover, he has countless treasures."

"No... Although Warlord Mara is a little stupid, his combat strength is still extraordinary. At least he forced Zhang Ruochen to go all out and show the level of the Path of Truth."

Ming said, "Warlord Mara hasn't used the Class Four extreme way of heaven-opening holy will. Will he have a chance to turn the tables?"

Fu said, "When Warlord Mara first attacked, he used his Saintwill. Maybe he could win. But now, he is suppressed by the three levels of the Path of Truth, time, and space. He has no chance to use the holy will. Even with my current cultivation, I might not be able to escape unscathed.”

“So Powerful?”

He was secretly surprised and said, “Seventh brother, if you fight with Zhang Ruochen, what are your chances of winning?”

“If I hadn’t seen Zhang Ruochen fight before and didn’t know anything about his power of Time, Space, and Truth, I might only have a 90 percent chance of winning. But now, I’m 100 percent sure that I can defeat him.”

He smiled and said in a teasing tone, “Zhang Ruochen is only at the mid stage of Neverwilt Realm. He hasn’t even cultivated a Saintwill. If I can’t even defeat him now, wouldn’t I have to kill myself?”

“However, killing Zhang Ruochen is as difficult as ascending to heaven. Unless there are two or three elites as powerful as me attacking him together, I won’t have a chance.”

Around the Arena of Life and Death, there were four or five Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators who attained the Great Perfection level and were as powerful as Xu. They were all studying Zhang Ruochen’s methods and thinking of countermeasures.

On the Arena of Life and Death, Warlord Mara roared angrily. With his deeper cultivation, he tried to break the three layers of suppression from the Realm-frame of Truth, Spatial Domain, and Null Time Domain.

Bang

The Gate of Destiny behind him was crushed and turned into specks of light.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen stepped on a cloud of Divine Purification Flame with his Yanshen’s Leg. He descended on top of Warlord Mara’s head.

“Look at my hundred Divine Weapons Cloud.”

Warlord Mara spat out a cloud of divine Qi. There were 100 sacred artifacts wrapped in the cloud. He was trying to block

Yanshen's Leg.

Boom! Boom!

In an instant, 63 sacred artifacts were crushed and turned into scrap metal. The other 37 sacred artifacts flew out and scattered around the Arena of Life and Death.

Warlord Mar, who was under the suppression from three Ancient Paths, couldn't hold on any longer after being hit by Yanshen's Leg. His scalp split open, and he spat out Saint Blood. He fell heavily to the ground.

Zhang Ruochen stepped on his back. "Tell me, where is she?"

Warlord Mara gritted his teeth and didn't speak. He felt humiliated. The Warlord of the Mara family, the leader of the Dhisan, had been trampled by a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint.

The Mara family and Dhisan had lost all face.

More importantly, it was him who had purposely lured Zhang Ruochen here to scheme against Zhang Ruochen. But now, it seemed like he was courting death.

Now, only by killing Zhang Ruochen on the Arena of Life and Death could he save his reputation.

"I'll burn my blood to fight you to the death!"

Warlord Mara roared and activated a secret skill. The blood in his body burned. His bones cracked, and his veins grew thicker. His Hundred Beast Warsouls seemed to be evolving toward Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint. It exploded with more and more powerful aura.

Yanshen's Leg was shaken by his power. His bones were numb and couldn't be suppressed.

Cracks appeared on his Realm-frame of Truth, Spatial Domain, and Null Time Domain. It seemed like they were going to be torn apart at any moment.

"Your blood belongs to me. It worth a lot of saint stones in the market. I won't allow you to burn it just like that."

Zhang Ruochen took out Violet Gourd and grabbed its outlet. He swung the gourd and smashed it at Warlord Mara's head.

Mercury Gourd, Destruction Golden Sun, and Cosmic Glazier Stone were all made of extremely heavy materials. They were heavier than many planets.

This attack broke the hardest bone on Warlord Mara's head. His head caved in slightly. His spiritual thoughts scattered. His consciousness disappeared and he fainted.

Chapter 2240: Public Enemy of Infernal Court

The Infernal Court cultivators who surrounded the Arena of Life and Death were all dumbfounded. They were so shocked that their eyeballs almost popped out. They thought that they were hallucinating.

The warlord of the Mara Family, the leader of Dhisán, was crushed to the ground by a Neverwithér Supreme Saint. He was knocked out by a gourd.

“No, this can’t be true. How could Warlord Mara lose?”

“Who is he? Even Yan Wusheng, who is also a Neverwithér Supreme Saint, would find it difficult to defeat Warlord Mara.”

A woman wearing a golden mask and colourful clothes came to the Arena of Life and Death under the escort of two teams of Saint-level guards. She smiled as she said, “What Yan Wusheng can’t do, doesn’t mean Zhang Ruochen can’t. After all, he once defeated Yan Wusheng at the same level.”

The woman’s skin was like Divine Jade. Her entire body was shrouded in mist and her graceful figure was faintly discernible. The mask on her face was made of golden threads that covered her face. Under the golden mask were tassel pendants that clanged.

The woman displayed elegance. Even a Saint King with the highest cultivation level could not help but feel inferior when standing in front of her.

“How could he defeat Yan Wushen at the same level?” a Nether Clan Supreme Saint in a black robe didn’t believe her at all.

Everyone in Kunlun’s Battlefield of Merits knew that Zhang Ruochen had defeated Yan Wushen.

However, Infernal Court was too vast. Many cultivators were in seclusion all year round. They didn’t care about the outside world and had never heard of it.

Many of them didn't even know that Zhang Ruochen existed.

"His name is Zhang Ruochen," the woman in colorful clothes said. "Supreme Saint Han Xi, if you don't believe me, you can send someone to investigate. We should have a result soon."

Nether Clan Supreme Saint Han Xi waved his hand and sent a subordinate to investigate.

Not long after, a document appeared in Supreme Saint Han Xi's hands. It contained all of Zhang Ruochen's information.

"Huh?"

When Supreme Saint Han Xi saw one of the contents, a chill appeared behind his eyes. "There's so many peerless foes of our clan who died at his hands. Even the Son of Darkness was killed by him."

Like Supreme Saint Han Xi, many cultivators who did not know Zhang Ruochen's identity went to investigate.

However, after seeing the results of the investigation, they were filled with anger. They felt that Zhang Ruochen was the public enemy of Infernal Court and should be killed as soon as possible.

"His hands are stained with the blood of Infernal Court's cultivators. How dare he come to the Divine Domain of Destiny?"

"Although Warlord Mara has lost, there are many powerful people in Infernal Court. There must be an unparalleled Supreme Saint who can kill him."

..

Zhang Ruochen ignored the cultivators of Infernal Court under the Arena of Life and Death. He reached out his palm, pressed it on Warlord Mara's head and poured his spiritual power in, trying to search his memories.

However, as soon as his spiritual power entered Warlord Mara's skull, it was crushed by a divine force.

An even stronger spiritual power counterattacked, forcing Zhang Ruochen to retreat dozens of steps as divine blood flowed from the corner of his mouth.

Zhang Ruochen wiped the divine blood from the corner of his mouth and calmly thought of a way to make Warlord Mara speak. After a while, he muttered, “The Arena of Life and Death is a wonderful place.”

Below the Arena of Life and Death, Zhang Ruochen saw the figure of Xue Tu. He pointed to him and said, “Come up.”

“Senior brother, the Arena of Life and Death can not be stepped onto casually,” Xue Tu shook his head, afraid that he would be tricked by Zhang Ruochen.

Once on the Arena of Life and Death, one’s life and death would be out of their control.

Xue Tu was a person who cherished his life. How could he not be careful?

Zhang Ruochen stared at him and said, “Are you sure you won’t come up?”

Xue Tu was shocked by Zhang Ruochen’s stare. He licked his lips and finally, he braced himself and walked step by step to the edge of the Arena of Life and Death. He didn’t dare to step in.

“Senior brother, is there anything I can help you with?” he said.

“Take off his armor and tie him up for me,” Zhang Ruochen said, pointing to Warlord Mara on the ground.

Xue Tu swallowed and reminded him, “He’s Warlord Mara. He’s extraordinary. If you tie him up, you’ll offend the entire Mara Family.”

“Why are you still standing outside? Do you want me to bring you in personally?” Zhang Ruochen asked coldly.

Xue Tu was really afraid of Zhang Ruochen. Finally, he walked into the Arena of Life and Death with his stiff legs.

At this moment, Xue Tu could feel countless eyes staring at him from all directions. He felt bitter and sad. 'I was just passing by to watch the show. How did I get pushed into the limelight? If I had known, I wouldn't have come. If I acted recklessly with Zhang Ruochen, I would definitely be labeled as the public enemy of Infernal Court.'

Xue Tu knew Warlord Mara's reputation well. He hesitated and said, "Do we really have to do this? A Supreme Saint can't be tied up just like that. Once he wakes up, even ten binding saint locks can be broken easily."

Zhang Ruochen threw a skeletal whip to Xue Tu and said, "Use this."

"This... This is a Quasi-Supreme Artifact that Dark Skeletal Lord used before..."

Xue Tu held the skeletal whip with both hands and sighed. 'Zhang Ruochen was even richer than gods. The things he took out were all supreme treasures.'

Unfortunately, being rich was not benevolent.'

With so many treasures at hand, he still wanted him to sell his fiefdom, his saint blood and saint body.'

Xue Tu thought, but his hands didn't stop. He peeled off the black armor from Warlord Mara body and Warlord Mara turned into a naked burly man with a strong body.

That scene... was really eye-piercing.

Xue Tu held the black armor in his hands and examined it. It was a Regal Artifact which made Xue Tu felt even more unbalanced.

They were both Supreme Saints and divine sons. Why was Zhang Ruochen covered in Supreme Artifacts but Warlord Mara was covered in Regal Artifacts? Xue Tu was in such a miserable state. He had nothing. He didn't even have a decent saint weapon, he didn't even have a fief. He didn't even have freedom.

“I’m the most miserable Supreme Saint.”

Xue Tu stared at Warlord Mara, who was naked and lying on the Arena of Life and Death. He shook his head again and said, “No, there’s someone worse than me. At least I still have my dignity.”

When Warlord Mara woke up, he was relieved to find that he wasn’t dead.

After all, being defeated on the Arena of Life and Death meant that he would die for sure.

But soon, he felt that life was worse than death, because he found that he was still on the Arena of Life and Death, stripped naked, and stared at by countless eyes.

Warlord Mara was a person of high status. He cared about his face very much. After suffering such a great humiliation, the anger in his body seemed to burn the entire Infernal Court.

“Zhang Ruochen, I will never live under the same sky as you.”

Warlord Mara exerted strength in his arms and blinding saint light burst out. He wanted to break the skeletal whip that was tied to his body.

However, just as he exerted his strength, a large number of Supreme Inscriptions appeared on the skeletal whip. The supreme power burst out and acted on his body, dispersing all his strength.

Zhang Ruochen sat on a golden saint chair in the center of the Arena of Life and Death. He held the skeletal whip in his hand and said, “Don’t waste your strength. You can’t break a Quasi-Supreme Artifact.”

The skeletal whip was made from the backbone of a divine dragon. It had passed seven King’s Calamities and had many Supreme Inscriptions inside.

Therefore, it could be called both a Seven Element Regal Artifact and a Quasi-Supreme Artifact.

Warlord Mara wasn’t convinced. He continued to struggle, but Zhang Ruochen tossed him away. Every time, he was tossed till he was half-dead.

“Kill me!” Warlord Mara roared.

He felt that he had no face to continue living.

Zhang Ruochen mocked him, “You can’t take it anymore? I heard that you have the potential to become a god. You’re an important figure in the Mara Family and Dhisan. Now, it seems that the so-called god potential is a joke.”

Warlord Mara’s face was ferocious. “Do not continue to humiliate me,” he said.

Zhang Ruochen spoke with confidence and continued, “The heart of a god is unyielding. You’ve only been humiliated a little, and you’re already seeking death. How can you have the heart of a god?”

Warlord Mara was completely stunned after hearing those words, as if he had been hit in the head.

He calmed down gradually and said, “You’re right. Those with the heart of god should be unyielding. What’s this humiliation? As long as I don’t die, I’ll trample you one day.”

“Since you don’t want to die, tell me now. Where did you get this bracelet?” Zhang Ruochen held the Bracelet of Dimension and walked up to Warlord Mara. His eyes were cold.

Warlord Mara laughed loudly as he said, “Haha! If you want to know, let me go immediately. Kneel down and beg me. That is the only way.”

Zhang Ruochen punched Warlord Mara in the face. His face was covered in blood.

“It’s useless. Even if you kill me, don’t expect me to say anything. You should know how strong a Supreme Saint’s will is.” Warlord Mara didn’t give in and continued to laugh wildly.

Zhang Ruochen stood up and threw the Parashu to Xue Tu. “Do you know what to do?”

Xue Tu was stunned, “What?”

“A Supreme Saint’s body is precious. Cut him up to sell. Start by selling the Supreme Saint’s blood, then his legs. The Supreme Saint’s heart... The Supreme Saint’s regenerative and self-healing abilities are very strong. You have to be careful not to kill him. The Supreme Saint's heart could be sold for at least ten times. Right?" Zhang Ruochen said calmly, from the beginning to the end.

However, when Warlord Mara heard those words, it was as if he had been struck by lightning. He was scared.

He wished that he could die immediately.

I can not die so easily. I want to live a strong life. I have the potential of becoming a god, but I must also have the heart to become a god. I must be unyielding, unyielding...' Warlord Mara thought to himself.

Xue Tu's arm that held the Parashu felt a little weak because he had heard the same words before.

"Why should I do something like this? Can't you do it yourself?"

Xue Tu was depressed. He regretted coming to watch the show even more.

When Zhang Ruochen had fought with Warlord Mara, he was secretly happy. He thought that Warlord Mara could kill Zhang Ruochen, the devil.

Unfortunately..

"Senior brother, are you... Are You Serious?" Xue Tu asked.

"Do you think I'm joking? If you can't do it, why don't you go over there and I'll sell you as well?" Zhang Ruochen said coldly.

"How can I not do it? I, Xue Tu, am a mass murderer. I am not merciful."

Xue Tu walked towards Warlord Mara with the Parashu.

Warlord Mara was not afraid of death, but at this moment, every inch of his body was trembling.

The cultivators around the Arena of Life and Death were stunned. They didn't expect Zhang Ruochen and Xue Tu to do this.

Some of the Saints and Saint Kings present were tempted.

If they could really get Warlord Mara's Supreme Saint blood, Supreme Saint Bones, Supreme Saint heart, and Supreme Saint lungs, it would definitely help them improve their cultivation and achieve the level of a Supreme Saint.

"Zhang Ruochen, how dare you humiliate the warlord of the Mara Family? Come out and face your death!"

The five Supreme Saints of the Mara Family rushed over. One was in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, while the other four were in the Neverwilt Realm. They were no more than 1,000 years old. Obviously, they were all guests at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

"Warlord Mara led me into the Arena of Life and Death and wants to kill me. Can't I fight back? If you want to save him, then step up to the Arena of Life and Death and fight with me. What's the use of shouting in the audience?" said Zhang Ruochen.

Twarita Mara was the only one below the Hundred-Shackle Realm among the five Supreme Saints. She had broken seven shackles and said coldly, "You defeated Warlord Mara. Just kill him. Why humiliate him?"

"Why are you encouraging me to kill him? Is it because after he dies, you can become the new warlord of the Mara Family?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Twarita Mara was at a loss for words. She was furious and didn't know how to answer.

A Neverwithier Supreme Saint from the Mara Family said, "You humiliate the Mara Family by humiliating Warlord Mara. From now on, we are enemies."

"Supreme Saint of the Mara Family, do you only know how to use your mouth? If you have the ability, come fight in the Arena of Life and Death," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Let's fight then. I'm not afraid of you."

Another Neverwithier Supreme Saint of the Mara Family was fuming with anger because of Zhang Ruochen. He held a Saint Spear in his hand and was about to charge onto the Arena of Life and Death.

Twarita Mara quickly stopped him and said telepathically, ‘Zhang Ruochen is no trifling matter. Even the Warlord lost to him. Are you seeking death?’

Zhang Ruochen opened his mouth again, “The Supreme Saints of the Mara Family is a bunch of cowards. Imagine that those below the level of Supreme Saints, they must be even worse. If you are afraid of death, you can attack together. I’ll take on all of you.”

The Neverwithers Supreme Saint who held the Saint Spear couldn’t take it anymore. He felt that Zhang Ruochen deserved death. “Even if we die, we can’t let others think that the Supreme Saints of the Mara Family are cowards just because we’ll lose a life!” he shouted.

“Fight!”

Breaking free from the suppression of Twarita Mara, he charged onto the Arena of Life and Death.

The Supreme Saint’s powerful aura swept through heaven and earth. The Saint Spear in his hand turned into a silver dragon that charged toward Zhang Ruochen.

“Kneel.”

Zhang Ruochen stood still. He unleashed the power of three Paths of Ancients—the Realm-frame of Truth, the Spatial Domain, and the Null Time Realm—at the same time.

Instantly, the Neverwithers Supreme Saint stopped under the pressure. His bones cracked. He stood still and couldn’t move. His legs trembled.

He gritted his teeth and didn’t kneel.

“The Supreme Saint’s will and power are indeed extraordinary.”

Zhang Ruochen flicked his finger. A Mark of Time flew out and hit his chest.

The Neverwith Supreme Saint lost a hundred years of his life. His body became weak. He couldn't resist the three Paths of Ancients anymore. He knelt down with a thud.

“Zhang Ruochen... You... You deserve death...”

The Neverwith Supreme Saint roared unwillingly. His eyes were filled with humiliation.

The moment he knelt down, a large amount of lightning was released from his body. The entire Arena of Life and Death turned into a space of lightning.

Below the Arena of Life and Death—

The other four Supreme Saints of the Mara Family were all furious. They rushed to the Arena of Life and Death without a care about anything else. “Attack! Suppress Zhang Ruochen and fight for the honor of the Mara Family!” they roared.

“Kill!”

“Suppress Zhang Ruochen and kill Xue Tu.”

..

Xue Tu, who was about to draw blood for Warlord Mara, felt extremely depressed. He felt that he was innocent. “Your enemy is obviously Zhang Ruochen. Why do you want to kill me? I was forced to do what he wanted.”

The reason behind Zhang Ruochen dealing with Warlord Mara and angering the five Supreme Saints of the Mara Family was that he wanted to ask for Mu Lingxi's whereabouts. Moreover, he wanted to crush the Mara Family, establish his power in Infernal Court, and intimidate the enemies of other big forces.

He wanted them to understand that becoming his enemy would be worse than death.

Otherwise, it would be a headache for him if they keep trying to find him.

Chapter 2241: Six Supreme Saints

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Four Supreme Saints stepped onto the Arena of Life and Death at the same time. Four powerful waves of evil-sha Qi surged toward Zhang Ruochen, and showed four different phenomena.

One of them was a Rakshasa Supreme Saint. He was hundreds of feet tall, and he held a Shyam Rod that was as thick as a pillar. He looked like a wargod.

The other one was wrapped in dark divine runes. He used the dark divine runes to resist the suppression of the three Ancient Paths. He rushed toward the Neverwithers Supreme Saint who was kneeling on the ground.

The other one was a Rakshasi Supreme Saint. She had a good figure and was extremely beautiful. She rushed toward Warlord Mara in the speed of light as she tried to save him.

Twarita Mara, who had the strongest cultivation and had reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm, held a Regal Artifact that shone with silver light as she attacked Zhang Ruochen from the front.

The four Supreme Saints of the Mara Family had a detailed plan and a clear division of labor.

Some were in charge of restraining Zhang Ruochen.

Some were in charge of saving their people.

If they could save Warlord Mara and the Neverwithers Supreme Saint, wouldn't they be able to suppress Zhang Ruochen and kill Xue Tu with the joined forces of six Supreme Saints?

"With so many Supreme Saints attacking together, the Arena of Life and Death is too small to be used. Why don't I expand the space here?"

Zhang Ruochen was still sitting on the chair in the center of the Arena of Life and Death. He stomped on the ground with his right foot. Immediately, many Precepts of Dimension flew out of his body and changed the Arena of Life and Death into a vast space.

The dimension of the Arena of Life and Death was rapidly stretching and expanding. It became larger and larger.

The Rakshasi Supreme Saint was clearly about to get close to Warlord Mara. However, the distance between her and Warlord Mara became farther and farther in an instant. Finally, she was forcefully pulled to a distance of over a hundred miles.

She was very surprised. She looked up and stared in all directions.

The Arena of Life and Death was originally only 10,000 meters long and wide.

But now, it was thousands of miles long and 100 times wider.

The cultivators of Infernal Court below the Arena of Life and Death all cried out in surprise.

“How come Zhang Ruochen, Twarita Mara, and the others suddenly become as small as a grain of sand? I can’t even see their figures without using my Saint Eyes.”

The elegant beauty wearing the golden mask said, “It’s not that they had become small. It’s that the space inside the Arena of Life and Death has become large and it turned into a microworld.”

“What? It’s turned into a world?”

“The size of the Arena of Life and Death hasn’t changed. How did it suddenly turn into a microworld?”

Many Saint-level cultivators of Infernal Court were stunned by Zhang Ruochen’s marvelous dimensional technique. They cried out in surprise.

The elegant beauty with the golden mask said again, “Now, we are like opening a map and seeing the world. But this map is a real world.”

“Zhang Ruochen is right. The Arena of Life and Death is too small. Even a Saint King powerhouse would be restrained in fighting inside, let alone Supreme Saint cultivators.”

“It seems that we have to report to Fane of Destiny and refine all the battle rings in the Arena of Life and Death and Battle District into a microworld with more space by using the Dimensional Inscriptions.”

The surrounding Saint Realm cultivators all stared at her in surprise.

She was able to speak to Fane of Destiny directly. Who was she?

..

In the Arena of Life and Death,

Zhang Ruochen’s three Paths of Ancient— the Realm-frame of Truth, the Spatial Domain, and the Null Time Realm— covered a radius of 500 kilometers. The four Supreme Saints of the Mara Family were severely suppressed once they entered.

Crash

Zhang Ruochen held the skeletal whip in his left hand to suppress Warlord Mara. He extended his right hand to the top of his head. He mobilized the Heaven and Earth Precipets of Dimension to form Chains of Dimension that wrapped around the four Supreme Saints.

Crash

Sometimes, the Chains of Dimension were like white chains that formed a net.

At other times, they merged with the space and became invisible.

The three Neverwithers Supreme Saints mobilized all their power to fight against the Chains of Dimension. Although they blocked them, they couldn’t advance any further.

Twarita Mara stared at Zhang Ruochen, who was sitting on the chair, with cold killing intent in her eyes.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t even get up to face the four Supreme Saints’ attacks. It was as if he was toying with them. What would the other Saint-level cultivators in Infernal Court think of the Mara Family?

“Fight!”

“Let’s go all out and use our strongest power to break the suppression of Zhang Ruochen’s three Paths of Ancients!”

After Twarita Mara shouted those words, she grabbed a Regal Artifact, the Cunning Blade with both hands and activated all 160,000 King-level inscriptions in the Blade.

Crackle crackle

Thousands of silver lightning bolts burst through heaven and earth from the blade.

“Dimensional Split.”

Twarita Mara slashed down toward Zhang Ruochen, who was in the center of the Arena of Life and Death.

Twarita Mara’s Dimensional Split was not a Power of Dimensions, but a Saintwill of Blade, the Saintwill of Dimensional Split.

If one practiced Blade to a certain level, they could also break through space and dimensions.

Twarita Mara combined the blade technique and Saintwill into one and unleashed her strongest attack. Instantly, the Chains of Dimension broke like a piece of paper, inch by inch.

The other three Neverwithers Supreme Saints attacked with all their might. They created some pressure for Zhang Ruochen from three different directions to help Twarita Mara break Zhang Ruochen’s three Paths of Ancients

“After combining the blade technique and the Saintwill, it’s so powerful.”

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised. He sensed that Twarita Mara’s blade attack had broken his Realm-frame of Truth, Spatial Domain, and Null Time Realm. It was rapidly spreading toward him.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen finally looked at Twarita Mara. This was his first time looking at her.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen waved his sleeve.

Countless light spots flew out of his sleeve.

These light spots gathered into a river flow and flew toward Twarita Mara.

Only Saint's Eyes could clearly see that these light spots were Marks of Time. The Marks of Time gathered into a River of Time.

Under the impact of the River of Time, the speed of Twarita Mara's Blade was reduced. It was so slow that it was like a snail crawling. No one knew how long it would take for it to land on Zhang Ruochen.

However, the flow of the River of Time became faster and arrived in front of Twarita Mara.

"Be careful. Don't get your body stuck in the River of Time. Otherwise, your longevity will be greatly reduced and your immortal saint body will become weak."

A Neverwithers Supreme Saint who had comprehended the Path of Time rushed to Twarita Mara. He threw out dozens of jade talismans that flew toward the River of Time.

The talismans gave off a strange power and stopped the River of Time in space.

Zhang Ruochen waved his arm and the River of Time flew back. In midair, it condensed into a clock that was more than 10 meters tall.

"Oh no, it's the Bell of Time."

The Neverwithers Supreme Saint who had comprehended the Path of Time had a change of expression. He pulled Twarita Mara and prepared to escape. However, just as he turned around, he found a black screen with Divine Marks on it.

"Oh no, this is the Arena of Life and Death."

The Neverwithers Supreme Saint's expression changed again. He quickly used all his strength to mobilize the evil-sha Qi in his body and shoot it into the dozens of jade talismans floating in the air.

If they couldn't defeat Zhang Ruochen in the outside world, they could at least escape with their Supreme Saint cultivation.

But there was no escape on the Arena of Life and Death.

It was easy to get up onto it, but difficult to get down.

Zhang Ruochen flicked his finger across the air and rang the Bell of Time.

The Bell of Time vibrated. It didn't make a loud sound, but there were Time Ripples that surged in all directions.

Boom! Boom!

Dozens of jade talismans floating in the air exploded and turned into dust.

Twarita Mara and the Neverwithier Supreme Saint who had comprehended the Path of Time were the first to be hit by the Time Ripples. Their bodies shook and they lost a large number of their lives.

They wanted to use their power to resist the Time Ripples.

However, their speed became extremely slow. It would take them a long time, even to raise their arms.

"Dxmnm it. Is the time flow becoming faster or slower? What is Zhang Ruochen doing?" Twarita Mara felt extremely uncomfortable.

It was too difficult to deal with a controller of Time and Space.

It was as if only attack Zhang Ruochen could attack them, but they would never be able to attack Zhang Ruochen.

Twarita Mara looked up and saw that her previous strike infused with the Saintwill of Dimensional Split was originally extremely powerful. However, it was still more than 10 meters away from Zhang Ruochen. Nobody knew when it would be able to hit Zhang Ruochen.

Whoosh

The skeletal whip in Zhang Ruochen's hand swept out. It wrapped around Twarita Mara and the Neverwither Supreme Saint who had comprehended the Path of Time, forming a chain with Warlord Mara.

As if he didn't want to play with them anymore, Zhang Ruochen stood up from his chair and summoned the Ancient Abyssal Blade. He held it in his hand and walked toward the Rakshasi Supreme Saint and the Neverwither Supreme Saint who was holding the Shyam Rod.

As soon as he stood up, time in the surrounding space recovered.

Twarita Mara's attack flew out quickly. Blade Qi rushed toward the Neverwither Supreme Saint who was kneeling on the ground.

The Supreme Saint was shocked when he saw Blade Qi with the Saintwill of Dimensional Split flying toward him. "No..." he said.

Pssh

The powerful Blade Qi cut through his Neverwither Saint body and sent half of it flying.

Seeing this, the three Supreme Saints tied to the skeletal whip gritted their teeth and roared furiously.

They were burning their saint blood in attempt to break free from the skeletal whip and fight Zhang Ruochen to death.

However, burning their saint blood was useless. The Supreme Power of the skeletal whip surged out and turned into blood-red lightning. It hit each of them and almost knocked them unconscious.

The Ancient Abyssal Blade had refined a large number of saint weapons. The body of the blade contained 250,000 King-level inscriptions.

It was only one step away from transcending to the second King's Calamity.

However, the vessel spirit of the Ancient Abyssal Blade still needed some time before it was confident in transcending the calamity. Otherwise, the Ancient Abyssal Blade would have already turned into a Six Element Regal Artifact.

The two Neverwithers Supreme Saints of the Mara Family had ugly expressions on their faces as they saw Zhang Ruochen walk toward them with a blade in his hand. They instantly regretted stepping onto the Arena of Life and Death.

Now that they were in a corner, they could only fight to the death.

“Burn my Supreme Saint blood.”

The Neverwithers Supreme Saint, who was hundreds of feet tall, burned his blood and turned into a flame giant. He became even taller. He held the Shyam Rod with both hands and hacked it at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen reached out a hand, turned it into a big handprint and easily caught the rod.

“The power of burning Supreme Saint’s blood has risen to the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Unfortunately, it is still far from enough.”

With a backhand grab, the Shyam Rod in the Neverwithers Supreme Saint’s hand turned into a black needle that laid in Zhang Ruochen’s palm.

While the Neverwithers Supreme Saint was still in a daze, Zhang Ruochen struck out with his blade.

The blade passed through the void space, appeared above the Neverwithers Supreme Saint’s head and fell heavily.

Boom

A large amount of saint blood gushed out of the Neverwithers Supreme Saint’s head. His huge saint body leaned forward and fell to the ground.

In the next moment, he was bound by the skeletal whip and imprisoned.

Finally, Zhang Ruochen’s gaze was fixed on the Rakshasi Supreme Saint.

The Rakshasi Supreme Saint snorted coldly. “Even if I die, I won’t fall into your hands and be humiliated by you. Zhang Ruochen, let’s perish together!”

The Rakshasi Supreme Saint mobilized the evil-sha Qi in her body and surged toward the Sainthood source in the sea of Qi.

All the saint realm cultivators around the Arena of Life and Death looked fearful and retreated quickly after they witnessed this. They could see that the Rakshasi Supreme Saint was preparing to self-detonate the Sainthood source.

Even a Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Ko Realm might not be able to withstand the self-detonation of a Neverwithers Supreme Saint.

Even if there were divine inscriptions on all sides of the Arena of Life and Death, they still felt uneasy.

Zhang Ruochen’s voice rang in the ears of the Rakshasi Supreme Saint.

The Rakshasi Supreme Saint’s face turned pale. She turned her head and stared. She saw Zhang Ruochen’s face at a close distance. Zhang Ruochen had appeared beside her without her noticing. He was very close to her.

Crack

Zhang Ruochen’s palm struck between her brows, dispersing the Supreme Saint’s evil-sha Qi in her body.

She failed to self-detonate the Sainthood source.

A moment later, Zhang Ruochen sat back on the chair and used the skeletal whip to imprison the six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family. He mobilized the power of the three Paths of Ancients and suppressed the Supreme Saints to kneel on the ground.

“Warlord Mara, if you don’t answer my question, I will let all six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family die right here, on the Arena of Life and Death,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Warlord Mara's eyes were filled with killing intent. "Supreme Saints can be killed but not humiliated. This is the rule of Infernal Court. If you break the rule, you will be punished by the entire Rakshasa clan. How many people could you defeat?"

"What rule of Infernal Court? I only believe in the law of the jungle," Zhang Ruochen said lightly.

Twarita Mara knelt on the ground and said painfully, "If you want to kill the Supreme Saint of the Mara Family, just kill him. I believe that you will experience a worse death soon."

"Really?"

Zhang Ruochen looked around at the cultivators of Infernal Court who were watching and said, "Whoever wants to kill me, just step onto the Arena of Life and Death. I'll give you a chance."

There were countless cultivators of Infernal Court who wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen below the arena.

However, Zhang Ruochen was too powerful. Not only did he defeat Warlord Mara, but he also easily suppressed the five Supreme Saints of the Mara Family. Even powerhouses who reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm did not dare to go on the stage.

"There is limited space on the Arena of Life and Death. For Zhang Ruochen, the advantage is too great. Even ordinary people who achieved Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm are not sure if they can win," said Xu.

"Seventh brother, Zhang Ruochen is so arrogant and unbridled. Why don't you go up and take care of him?" Ming said.

Xu smiled and said, "Zhang Ruochen publicly humiliated the six Supreme Saints of Rakshasa, which will definitely arouse the dissatisfaction of all the cultivators of Rakshasa. How can the few in Rakshasa who reached the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm sit back and do nothing?"

Ming suddenly understood and said, "I got it! At this time, there is no need for us to force our way out. We can just sit back and watch the fight.”

He crossed his arms in front of his chest and said, “I’m very interested in the strength of those guys from Rakshasa. Maybe Zhang Ruochen can help me find out their strength and trump cards.”

As he saw no cultivators on the Arena of Life and Death, Zhang Ruochen said again, “Who is interested in the blood of the six Supreme Saints? Not to mention the heart of the Supreme Saint, the bones of the Supreme Saint, the flesh of the Supreme Saint... All can be bought at a price. I’ll give a cut of whatever you want. I’ll cut as much as you want.”

Some cultivators were tempted, but none dared to speak.

Suddenly, a familiar laugh sounded, “Zhang Ruochen, your business is doing well. The Arena of Life and Death has become your slaughterhouse. Since no one dares to buy it, I’ll help your business.. I, Xuemo, will take all the blood of the six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family!”

Chapter 2242: The Divine Prince

Xuemo had returned to Infernal Court with Blood Empress, Zhang Ruochen, and the others from Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits.

However, he belonged to the Demonsky Clan.

Xuemo was not well-known in Infernal Court, so not many cultivators knew him. However, he was well-known in Kunlun and cultivated nine Demonstone Engravings at the same time. His combat strength did not lose to Blood Empress when they were in the same realm.

He was also able to challenge Yan Wushen's good side when he was in the Saint King realm.

Now, he had broken through to the Supreme Saint Realm. He walked majestically under the Arena of Life and Death. His saint aura erupted and shocked the surrounding cultivators. They all backed off.

"He dared to buy the blood of six Supreme Saints. Isn't he afraid of offending the Mara Family?"

"Who is this guy anyway?"

"Xuemo? Who's Xuemo? I've never heard of him."

...

The cultivators of Infernal Court were all discussing.

Xuemo waved his hand, then ten crystals with divine light flew into the Arena of Life and Death and floated in front of Zhang Ruochen.

"Ten Godstones should be enough to buy those Supreme Saints' blood, right?" Xuemo asked.

"Yes, of course."

Zhang Ruochen put the ten Godstones into his Ring of Dimensions. He stared at Xue Tu and said, "Release ninety percent of their blood of the Supreme Saint, store it carefully and give it to Xuemo."

The blood of Supreme Saint was sold more than once. Ten Godstones were already a good price.

As long as the six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family still live, they could have an endless supply and produce new blood of Supreme Saint.

It was much more cost-effective than a one-time deal like selling fiefdoms.

Xue Tu licked his lips and his eyes lit up. He regarded Zhang Ruochen as a genius. For one to think of such a deal, there’s no wonder Zhang Ruochen was filthy rich.

“Fresh blood of Supreme Saint is very useful to the Immortal Vampires. Drinking the blood of the six Supreme Saints is like absorbing their cultivation. Xuemo’s cultivation will rise rapidly in a short period.”

“He dares to sell the blood of the Supreme Saints. Is there no powerhouse to take care of him?”

“It’s really strange. During the Celestial-hunting Festival, Dhisan sent powerhouses at the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm to the Winterpage City. Why didn’t they take action?”

...

All the cultivators of the Infernal Court felt that this was very strange.

Logically speaking, Dhisan and the Mara Family couldn’t bear the humiliation of the Supreme Saint. Even the cultivators below the Thousand-Koan Realm couldn’t defeat Zhang Ruochen.

But why did all the Supreme Saints above the Thousand-Koan Realm disappear?

“Stop.”

Just as Xue Tu was about to attack, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi rushed over. They turned into two beams of saint light and rushed into the Arena of Life and Death.

They both felt a headache coming on after seeing the six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family kneeling on the ground. They thought that Zhang Ruochen and Xue Tu were extremely bold. They were truly fearless and dared to do anything.

Did they feel that they had too few enemies?

Gu Chenzi said, "Let's stop here. There's no need to continue humiliating them. After all, they're Supreme Saints and they deserved to have some face."

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan nodded. He advised, "I already know about this. It was indeed Warlord Mara's fault. However, he and the Supreme Saint of the Mara Family have already paid the price. Calm down and let them off this time."

The Bloodysky Clan had become everyone's target at the Celestial-hunting Festival because of Zhang Ruochen. Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi were under a lot of pressure.

If Zhang Ruochen continued to be so high-profile and impudent, treating the unspoken rules of Infernal Court as nothing, he would incur the wrath of everyone.

Zhang Ruochen understood their concerns, but he had his thoughts.

If he was schemed against by his enemies and easily let them go, there would be more to come in the future.

"Do you know what Warlord Mara said about the two of you?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan asked curiously, "What do you mean?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Warlord Mara said that the Three Top Elites of Bloodysky Clan are just three pieces of trash."

"Yes, I can prove that he did say that," Xue Tu quickly agreed.

Since they were already involved with Zhang Ruochen, he would certainly pull two more in when he got the chance.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi had come to mediate the fight. However, their expressions became extremely ugly and their eyes turned cold when they heard that.

The two of them were the ace of the ace. They were also the overlords of the Supreme Sainthood and had the potential to become gods. If they were called trash by Warlord Mara and went to save him, how would the cultivators treat them in the future?

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi would prefer to stay out of trouble, but it does not mean that they were afraid of it.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan coughed dryly and said, “How much does the Supreme Saint heart of Warlord Mara cost? If I dig out his Supreme Saint Heart and refine it into a pill, perhaps it can help me break through ten shackles.”

Gu Chenzi said, “Sell me a portion of Warlord Mara’s Supreme Saint blood and heart.”

Xue Tu licked his lips as he was also tempted.

‘The body parts of the six Supreme Saints were treasures. If I drank their blood every day, I would reach the peak of the Neverwilt Realm very quickly,’ he thought.

Xue Tu walked up to Warlord Mara with his battle-ax.

Even though the Warlord Mara was strong-willed, his eyes showed a hint of fear. He wanted to die on the spot. He didn’t want to suffer such humiliation.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Are you still unwilling to speak? If you tell me where the owner of the Bracelet of Dimension is, I can give you a decent way to die.”

“I have the heart of God. I will never give in to you,” Warlord Mara said.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He regretted telling him that he had the heart of God and would never give in. At that time, he was completely worried that he would die.

Now, it was his reason to be stubborn.

“Senior brother, let’s not waste time with him. Let him bleed a few times and he’ll behave.”

Xue Tu's battle-ax was about to cut open Warlord Mara's blood vein. However, he couldn't move when he lifted the ax. It was as if his body was frozen.

Zhang Ruochen noticed something strange. He looked at the edge of the Arena of Life and Death.

He saw a tall Rakshasa man walk over the blacklight screen.

Rakshasa men were known for their ugliness. However, the man in front of him looked tough and handsome. He might not be a big deal in other races, but he was one of the most good-looking Rakshasa men.

It was the power from this man that restrained Xue Tu.

The five Supreme Saints of the Mara Family were all delighted when they saw the man. Only Warlord Mara's eyes were filled with humiliation. He lowered his head and did not look at him.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi's faces turned solemn when they saw the Rakshasa man. Their eyes were filled with fear.

The Rakshasa man said, "Zhang Ruochen, you're almost done venting your anger. Give me some face. That's all for today. Let the six of them go. How about it?"

Zhang Ruochen felt an extremely dangerous aura from this man. He said, "If you want me to let them go, it depends on your face whether it is big enough?"

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan transmitted his voice to Zhang Ruochen, he said, "He's the prince of the Tianluo, the number one divine kingdom of Rakshasa. Luo Shengtian is known as the Divine Prince. He's also known as the number one elite under the Thousand-Koan Realm of Rakshasa. Since he's come forward, I'll do him a favor."

Gu Chenzi said, "Luo Shengtian isn't comparable to Warlord Mara. It's better If we can avoid making an enemy out of him."

The cultivators of Infernal Court below the Arena of Life and Death were already boiling.

“Luo Tiansheng is in the same realm and has always been invincible. With his cultivation of the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, if Zhang Ruochen still doesn’t know what’s good for him, he will suffer a great loss.”

“The six Supreme Saints of Dhisana have lost the face of the Raksha clan. I didn’t expect that it would be the divine prince who came out in the end to restore the dignity of the Raksha clan.”

...

Luo Tiansheng and Zhang Ruochen looked at each other for a long time. Luo Tiansheng smiled and said, “Well, if you want to see how many faces I have, I’ll give you this chance.”

Whoosh

Ten bone wings suddenly spread out on Luo Tiansheng’s back. Instantly, ten overwhelming powers surged out of the wings and flew around his body.

The bone wings of the Rakshasa were the same as the blood wings of the Immortal Vampires. An ordinary Supreme Saint only had six.

He must be extraordinary since he was able to cultivate ten bone wings in the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Zhang Ruochen felt the Realm-frame of Truth, Spatial Domain, and Null Time realm shook violently. He quickly mobilized even more powerful forces to stabilize the three ancient paths.

Whoosh

Wisps of flame appeared in Luo Shengtian’s eyes.

Zhang Ruochen was looking at him, he felt that the world had changed and that he was pulled into the endless dark universe. Luo Shengtian’s eyes were like two stars, and they emitted a domineering and heavy power.

Zhang Ruochen was as small as dust in front of the two stars.

“Break.”

Zhang Ruochen activated the power of The Heart of Truth to break the illusion in front of him and return to the Arena of Life and Death.

At that moment, two light beams flew out from Luo Tiansheng's eyes. They tore apart the Realm-frame of Truth, Spatial Domain, and Null Time realm into pieces.

Zhang Ruochen summoned the Zangshan Demonic Mirror and collided with the light beams that surged out from Luo Tiansheng's eyes.

Rumble

The space shook violently. Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi flew backward and crashed heavily into the black light screen.

The Arena of Life and Death, which had originally been a thousand miles in size, collapsed and became a coliseum that was more than 10,000 meters long and wide again.

Zhang Ruochen took seven steps back and stood still again.

Luo Tiantian's eyes returned to normal and he became calm again.

"My eyes are born of divinity. Later, they were refined into two shining Divine Planets. It was as if two stars were born with tremendous power. "Do you think their face is enough?" Luo Tiansheng pointed to his eyes and said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Once a deity dies, their Divine Planet will become dead. Only when a god is alive, the Divine Planet will be shining. How could you possibly refine two shining Divine Planets into your eyes?"

A pleasant female voice sounded in the Arena of Life and Death.

"Isn't it simple? Because the master of the two Divine Planets is still alive, and he became a prisoner of Tianluo. His connection with the Divine Planets has been severed."

Zhang Ruochen looked for the voice and saw a beautiful Rakshasa woman walking over gracefully.

She was 1.8 meters tall and wore a divine crystal crown. Her hair was long and silky. She wore a light green Holy Cambrian Robe. Her face was devastatingly beautiful.

Luo Sha's immortal eyes blinked when she saw Zhang Ruochen look at her. They were full of seductive charm.

Saint maidservant Yao Li followed behind Luo Sha. Her face was pale, and she walked with a trembling face.

Luo Shengtian stood with his hands behind his back, he said, "Zhang Ruochen, you may be invincible in the Neverwilt Realm. Even Yan Wushen may not be your match. However, there are many powerhouses in Infernal Court. There are many hidden dragons and crouching tigers. There are still some who can defeat you in the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

"This is the Arena of Life and Death. If you want to kill the six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family, I won't interfere. Even if you capture them and force them to kneel.

"However, there's a bottom line. If you cross that line, I won't sit idly by letting you humiliate the entire Rakshasa."

Zhang Ruochen was not afraid of Luo Shengtian's powerful strength. He said, "That would be a problem! I would give a face to you, but Warlord Mara did also cross my bottom line. He was too despicable. Not only did he lure me into the Arena of Life and Death, he even wanted to kill me. He even used my woman to threaten me. How could I let him off?"

He continued, "Furthermore, I've already taken the deposit and I have to take the blood of the Supreme Saint from them."

Luo Shengtian was furious and the flames reappeared in his eyes.

No one dared to not give him face in Infernal Court.

"Royal brother, why don't you leave this matter to me?" Luo Sha stroked her chin and smiled.

Luo Shengtian knew the grudge between Luo Sha and Zhang Ruochen. His extremely intelligent sister had already formed a life-and-death grudge with Zhang Ruochen from the Zuling Realm to the Celestial Domain of Truth, and then to the battlefield of Kunlun.

When enemies met, their eyes were especially red.

She probably wanted to use this opportunity to kill Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Shengtian sent a telepathic message to Luo Sha, he said, “This time, don’t blame me for not helping you. Lord Father sent us some information. Zhang Ruochen can’t be killed now. The gods intend to forge him into a weapon to deal with the new generation of Supreme Saints in Infernal Court. “All the Supreme Saints above the Thousand-Koan Realm have been warned not to attack Zhang Ruochen.”

Luo Sha was extremely intelligent and she immediately understood the message. “Doesn’t that mean that Zhang Ruochen is immortal?”

“Not really. The key is whether he has what it takes to be that weapon. If a Supreme Saint below the Thousand-Koan Realm can kill him, it means that he is useless to Infernal Court and doesn’t deserve to be the gods’ weapon. In addition, I have to test his loyalty to Infernal Court.”

Luo Sha asked, “Royal brother, can you kill him?”

“It’s not difficult to defeat him. However, no one can compare to the ability of a Master of Time and Space to escape. It’s not easy to kill him by myself.”

After Luo Shengtian answered, he added, “If you want him to die, I can go to the other two elites of the Rakshasa who are in the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. They can make Zhang Ruochen’s soul scattered and you can eat his flesh and drink his blood.”

Luo Sha was slightly shocked and stopped him immediately. She said, “Don’t... There’s no need for you to stand up for me with force. Zhang Ruochen has enemies all over Infernal Court. Naturally, there will be elites to deal with him.”

“You’ve been humiliated by Zhang Ruochen many times, yet you can calmly suppress the hatred in your heart and think rationally. You're indeed the brains of the royal family." Luo Shengtian praised.

Zhang Ruochen had long known that Luo Sha had a noble status in Infernal Court. He did not expect that she was the sister of the Divine Prince Luo Shengtian.

Luo Sha walked toward Zhang Ruochen and circled him. She widened her beautiful eyes and said with a smile, "I thought you hated the cultivators of Infernal Court the most, yet how did you become one of Infernal Court?"

Zhang Ruochen's face was solemn. He did not answer her question and said, "Luo Sha, that Saint maidservant who lured me to the Arena of Life and Death is your subordinate, right? If you want to kill me, have you thought about the price you will pay?"

Luo Sha did not answer him either. "You said that Warlord Mara threatened you with your woman. Who's the woman you're talking about?"

Zhang Ruochen's patience had run out. A small Dimensional Vortex condensed between his five fingers on his right hand.

Not far away, Luo Shengtian was also mobilizing his power.

Luo Sha saw that the battle was about to start. She immediately felt bored and thought, 'I have to think of a way to lure Zhang Ruochen off the Arena of Life and Death.'

Luo Sha stopped teasing Zhang Ruochen. She waved her sleeves and walked off the Arena of Life and Death, "This is not the place to talk!" She said, "If you want to know where Mu Lingxi is, then come with me. Let Warlord Mara and the others live. You should have a good judgment about which is more important. Killing them will do more harm than good to you."

'It has something to do with her,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

His eyes darkened.

However, there were a lot of things in this matter that he couldn't figure out. It did not look as simple as it seemed.

Chapter 2243: The Angered Princess

The seal on the Arena of Life and Death was lifted, and the surrounding black light screen disappeared.

Luo Sha was very confident that Zhang Ruochen would follow him. Therefore, he left the Arena of Life and Death with Yao Li without looking back.

Luo Shengtian was still standing on the platform like a stabilizing needle. He did not move at all, but his eyes were locked on Zhang Ruochen.

After Xue Tu regained his freedom, he was very decisive and immediately retreated from the Arena of Life and Death.

Compared to those gods that he might not see even once in hundreds of years, the Divine Prince Luo Shengtian made him even more fearful even though he's the overlord of the same generation. At least, with his current cultivation, Xue Tu could only lower his head and become a Supreme Saint in front of Luo Shengtian.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi were elites in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. They were slightly better than Xue Tu. They were still standing on the Arena of Life and Death. Without the Divine Entrapment, they could escape from the Arena of Life and Death with their cultivation. Even if they were no match for Luo Shengtian.

Xue Tu's cultivation was too low. He could retreat, but the two of them could not.

If they chose to leave the Arena of Life and Death and leave Zhang Ruochen alone to face Luo Shengtian, how would the other cultivators view them? How would they view the Bloodysky Clan?

They had to hold on.

They had to let the other cultivators know that the Bloodysky Clan was in unison.

The auras of Luo Shengtian, Zhang Ruochen, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi intertwined. It encouraged each other to fight. The black light screen around the Arena of Life and Death seemed to rise again.

Below the arena.

Many cultivators smiled.

Especially those who had a grudge against Zhang Ruochen. They hoped that Zhang Ruochen would be more impudent. This would force Luo Shengtian to kill him.

After a long stalemate, Zhang Ruochen suddenly withdrew his Qi. He laughed and said, "Just now, your highness said that you wouldn't interfere if I killed the six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family on the Arena of Life and Death, right?"

Luo Shengtian had a strange look on his face.

He did not believe that Zhang Ruochen would dare to start a massacre deep in his heart.

"I'll give face to your highness and would not humiliate them. I'll... kill them."

Zhang Ruochen swung his arm. The six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family flew up on the skeletal whip and floated in the air.

His other hand pressed out across the air.

The vigorous Power of Dimensions pressed down on the six Supreme Saints and made their bodies crackle. Then the Supreme Saint blood in their bodies turned into six long streams of blood. They flowed into Zhang Ruochen's palm and condensed into a blood-red ball.

The Neverwithers physique of the six Supreme Saints quickly withered.

The blood ball in Zhang Ruochen's hand grew bigger and brighter. It contained a huge amount of energy. Once it fell to the ground, it could pierce through the ground.

"How dare you!"

Luo Shengtian's eyes flashed with divine light. His anger condensed into a pillar of Qi and shot into the sky.

Boom Boom

Zhang Ruochen put away the skeletal whip. The six Supreme Saints turned into six dried corpses and fell to the ground.

“The Divine Prince has a high status. You must keep your word. Don't be a man of your word.”

Zhang Ruochen held the huge blood ball with one hand and disappeared from the Arena of Life and Death. He appeared beside Xuemo and handed the blood ball to him.

The transaction was completed.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi let out a long sigh of relief after they noticed Luo Shengtian did not make a move. They did not dare to stay on the Arena of Life and Death any longer and ran away.

When they retreated to the bottom of the arena, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan realized that he was covered in cold sweat. He quickly asked Xue Tu, “Where did Zhang Ruochen go?”

Xue Tu was scared out of his wits. His eyes were a little dull. He stared at where Xuemo was and said, “Just now, he was still trading with Xuemo. Where is he? Why did he suddenly disappear?”

“Did he run away after killing someone? Does he want to leave the mess here to us?” Supreme Saint Yi Xuan smacked his head. He felt that he had been unlucky for eight lifetimes for having such a leader.

Gu Chenzi was worried, “Killing the six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family is no small matter. It might trigger a war between the Mara Family and the Xue Jue family. Zhang Ruochen is too extreme. He doesn't care about the consequences. Something big is going to happen.”

Suddenly, there were cries of surprise.

“Alive, not dead... still alive...”

Gu Chenzi, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Xue Tu all looked at the Arena of Life and Death.

They saw the Divine Prince Luo Shengtian mobilize the Qi of Malice and split it into six. After injecting it into the six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family, they slowly stood up.

Although their bodies were still shriveled and the Saint Light was dim, they were still alive.

Gu Chenzi, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Xue Tu were all delighted after they saw what happened. They finally understood why Luo Shengtian had not attacked just now. It turned out that Zhang Ruochen had only taken their Supreme Saint blood and he had not killed them.

Xue Tu laughed and said, “Now you know what kind of person Zhang Ruochen is, don’t you? He had taken the Saint blood of the six Supreme Saints with a few tricks, and he had even prevented Luo Shengtian from interfering. If you think that he is brave and foolhardy, you are very wrong.”

Many cultivators around the Arena of Life and Death looked disappointed.

Zhang Ruochen always did things beyond their expectations. He did not play by the rules, which made them a little confused.

They thought that Zhang Ruochen would not dare to humiliate the six Supreme Saints of Mara, but he did!

They thought that Zhang Ruochen would kill the six Supreme Saints of Mara, yet he did not.

...

Zhang Ruochen came to the bank of the blood river and stared at a saintship in the water.

The saintship was 300 meters long and was made of white jade crystals. It was inlaid with all kinds of saint stones and jades, making it look exquisite and magnificent. There were three-story pavilions on the ship. They were carved with jade and had golden pillars and dragons. They were exquisite and magnificent.

There was a big flag on the bow of the ship with the word “Sha” embroidered on it.

On the bow of the saintship, there was a Rakshasa who was in the Saint King Realm. She wore a red saint robe and looked at the shore, she smiled and said, “Supreme Saint Ruochen, the princess has been waiting for you for a long time. She wants to invite you to the River of Present and see the beautiful scenery of the Winterpage City.”

She waved her sleeve and the light barrier of the saintship opened a hole that was more than 10 meters long.

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen passed through the hole in the light barrier and appeared on the ship. He released his spiritual power to investigate and asked, “Where’s Luo Sha?”

The red-clothed Rakshasa girl placed her hands on her waist and bowed to Zhang Ruochen. She smiled and said, “The princess is bathing and changing. Please wait for a moment, Supreme Saint. There’s some tea from Kunlun being boiled and prepared on the ship.”

“Supreme Saint, this way, please.”

A large number of Divine Marks were carved on the saintship.

Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power was blocked, so he could not detect Luo Sha’s aura.

The red-clothed Rakshasa was called Han Ying, and she’s a Nine-Step Saint King.

She could be an overlord in Kunlun and Guanghai with her cultivation. However, she was only a Lady-in-waiting by Luo Sha’s side, managing all the maidservants in the Princess’s mansion.

On the third floor of the saintship, there was a low bed made of red jade and agate, and the floor was covered with saint beast’s skin as white as snow.

A group of beautiful Rakshasa maidservants walked in an orderly manner on the third floor. Some of them held silver jugs of fine wine, some held fragrant saint fruits, and some wore seductive dancing clothes.

Zhang Ruochen felt as if he had walked into a seducing cave. They were all enchanting vixens.

He walked to the low couch and sat down cross-legged.

On the low couch, a pot of tea was boiling in a purple clay pot.

Gulp

The pure fragrance of the tea turned into wisps of spiritual mist that surrounded the entire saintship. Zhang Ruochen's anxious mood calmed down after taking a sip.

The saintship drove down the river toward the River Market District.

Sixteen Saint maidservants in dancing clothes walked up slowly. Their bodies emitted a faint fragrance as they danced in front of Zhang Ruochen.

They were all one-in-a-million beauties and were also saints. They were not ordinary and were extremely attractive to any man.

Zhang Ruochen gradually lost his patience. "If Luo Sha doesn't come out soon, I'll break in even if she's bathing!"

Zhang Ruochen could not calm down when it came to Mu Lingxi's safety.

Tap Tap

Zhang Ruochen heard footsteps behind the screen as he stood up.

The next moment, a woman in cyan walked out from behind the screen.

Zhang Ruochen was stunned when he saw her. His eyes were locked on her beautiful face. He held his breath and could not look away.

There was a red phoenix mark between the woman's eyebrows. It released the power of ice.

Her crystal-clear body was wrapped in saint fog. It was a mysterious and hazy aura. She was like a fairy under the moon.

“Lingxi.”

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. He was about to welcome her and hug her.

It was a surprise for him to see Mu Lingxi in Infernal Court.

However, Zhang Ruochen stopped as soon as he took a step forward. He looked at the woman in front of him carefully. His eyes became cold. He shook his head and said, “You’re not Lingxi! Luo Sha, how dare you change into her appearance?”

The woman in front of him was almost the same as Mu Lingxi. Even the clothes and accessories on her body belonged to Mu Lingxi and contained her aura.

Luo Sha’s Thousand-illusions was indeed very powerful. If she had changed into another appearance, Zhang Ruochen might not have been able to see through her.

But Zhang Ruochen was too familiar with Mu Lingxi.

He could see through her in person.

“It’s not fun to be seen through so quickly. I even spent so much effort to disguise myself.” Mu Lingxi shook her head. Her slender body sat on the snow-white saint beast’s skin, her hands supporting her cheeks, she looked very discouraged.

Han Ying waved her hand. The sixteen dancing saint maidservants retreated.

Zhang Ruochen’s aura was like a sword. His gaze was sharp and said, “Aren’t you going to change back?”

“I like this look and I won’t change back. What can you do to me?” Mu Lingxi raised her snow-white chin. Her big eyes were smiling as she stared at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where did you get Lingxi’s clothes and accessories?”

“I can get anything I want.” Mu Lingxi blinked. Her eyelashes were curved and long.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You’d better tell me what I want to know now, or else...”

“Or else what? I’m so scared of you now!” Mu Lingxi’s voice was delicate. She pretended to be soft and weak. She crossed her arms gently in front of her chest.

Zhang Ruochen did not want to waste time with Luo Sha. He made his move decisively. His five fingers formed claws and grabbed her neck like lightning.

Mu Lingxi snorted. She pressed her hands on the table. The space in front of her suddenly cracked. A deep and dark spatial hole appeared. It was about a meter long.

Zhang Ruochen’s hand hit the hole, but he could not catch her.

“You’re still a long way off from playing dimensional technique with me.” A large number of Precepts of Dimension surged out of Zhang Ruochen’s arm, and he sealed the portal.

Mu Lingxi smiled playfully. She spread out her snow-white right hand, and a black lotus appeared in her palm. Her left index finger gently tapped on the black lotus.

Rip

A pair of big black hands tore open the portal in front of her again, turning it bigger with a diameter of more than 30 meters.

The owner of the hands was a huge corpse of a Supreme Saint with a heavy sword on its back.

The Supreme Saint corpse stood in the portal with flames burning in its eyes. A powerful aura emanated from its body. When it was alive, it must have been a peerless elite.

Mu Lingxi said fearlessly, “Zhang Ruochen, this isn’t the Zuling Realm, the Celestial Domain of Truth, or Kunlun. There aren’t so many rules binding me. I have many tricks up my sleeve!

“When this war corpse was alive, it was a Demon God Realm’s Supreme Saint in the Paramount Realm. Even now, its battle strength isn’t below that of a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

“With the power of the Dark Divinity Lotus, I’m afraid you’re no match for it with your current cultivation.”

“Is that so?” Zhang Ruochen’s voice sounded behind Mu Lingxi.

Mu Lingxi’s expression changed. Just as she was about to use the Dark Divinity Lotus to control the war corpse, Zhang Ruochen grabbed her white wrist and she lost consciousness.

“It hurts... It hurts...”

“Let go of me, Zhang Ruochen. Or I’ll let my brother beat you to death.”

Zhang Ruochen hit her so hard that Mu Lingxi’s delicate body twitched in pain and tears began to flow from her eyes.

Looking at Mu Lingxi’s face up close and the pain on her face, Zhang Ruochen forgot that she was Luo Sha. His heart softened and he withdrew the power in his hand.

Swoosh

Mu Lingxi turned into wisps of smoke and dispersed in front of Zhang Ruochen.

“Huh?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that he had fallen into her trap. He immediately released the Spatial Domain. He pressed his hands out at the same time and caught the wisps of smoke that had slipped away from him.

“Ugh!”

The smoke turned into a curvy body. It was tall and slender.

She was no longer Mu Lingxi. Instead, she was Luo Sha, the princess of Rakshasa. She was as beautiful as before, but she had a different temperament. She was seductive, noble, and charming at the same time.

Zhang Ruochen coincidentally grabbed Luo Sha’s chest with both hands and almost pulled out her corset.

Luo Sha’s body was half-slanted. She stared at Zhang Ruochen. She did not show anger or coldness. Instead, she looked pitiful. “Zhang Ruochen, why do you always bully me?” She cried, “In the Zuling Realm, you not only injured me but also took the Sundial.

“In the Celestial Domain of Truth, you had to expose my identity so that I couldn’t continue entering the Fane of Truth to comprehend the Path of Truth.

“In Kunlun, you not only captured me but also took away the hilt of my divine sword.

“Think about it. When have I ever harmed you? You are an enemy. Once you put on your clothes, you turn against me mercilessly. I’m afraid you have already forgotten that we had a chance to cultivate both spiritual power and spiritual power together. However, I have always remembered it.”

The more Zhang Ruochen listened, the more he frowned.

If a cultivator who did not know the truth heard her words, he would have thought that Zhang Ruochen was a heartless man who had abandoned her. Especially her Royal Brother. If he was beside her, he would probably kill Zhang Ruochen with his sword.

However, when Zhang Ruochen took off her Holy Cambric Robe, it was a complete accident.

Later, they cultivated both spiritual powers and were forced to do so.

Zhang Ruochen released his hands from her chest and turned around, he said, “Tell me immediately, where is Mu Lingxi? You should know how important she is to me. You’re smart enough to know that I won’t listen to you. However, if Mu Lingxi makes a mistake, I’ll make you pay a painful price.”

The tears in Luo Sha’s eyes disappeared completely. She tidied up her clothes and touched her aching breasts with both hands. Anger flashed in her eyes.

She sat back on the saint beast’s skin and she said, “I don’t like your attitude. I’m angry and... I’m jealous! If you want to know where Mu Lingxi is, you’d better find a way to please me first.”

Luo Sha knew very well that Zhang Ruochen did not dare to kill her.

Mu Lingxi was one of Zhang Ruochen's biggest weaknesses. She would have absolute control over him by grasping this. She had suffered in his hand many times. Now, it was about time for him to pay the price.

Chapter 2244: The Antecedents and Aftermath

The corpse of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint walked out of the portal and stood beside Princess Luo Sha. The power that erupted from him was vigorous. Any living being below the level of a Supreme Saint would be scared to the point of kneeling.

“Pour me a cup of tea first,” said Luo Sha while she ran her fingers through her hair. She was calm and elegant as if she had Zhang Ruochen in her pocket.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the boiling purple pot on the low couch. He walked over and picked it up with his bare hands.

Splash

He filled the cup.

Zhang Ruochen waved his finger and the purple cup moved across the low couch and appeared in front of Luo Sha.

Luo Sha pursed her lips and said unhappily, “Is this how you are trying to please me?”

“I never thought of trying to please you,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Then why should I tell you about Mu Lingxi? You should know that I never owe you an answer. If you are asking for help, you should act like it.” said Luo Sha.

Zhang Ruochen stared into her eyes.

Luo Sha stared back at him.

“Well then, how may I serve you, Princess?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha was secretly happy when she saw Zhang Ruochen was compromising, but she pretended to be angry. She said, “This tea, it’s too hot. How do you expect me to drink it?”

Zhang Ruochen picked up the teacup again, put it to his lips, and blew it gently.

Luo Sha finally showed a satisfied smile. She waved her hand and said, "Come here."

Zhang Ruochen had been restraining himself. He hesitated for a moment and walked to Luo Sha's side. He immediately smelled a charming fragrance. He said calmly, "Your Highness, please have some tea. I hope you can drink this cup and forget about our past grudges."

"Forget about it? Aren't you overthinking it? The Sundial, the hilt of the divine sword, and the Saint Ancient Tea Tree. Which one of them isn't a rare treasure that even God would be interested in? The debt you owe me isn't so easy to repay."

Luo Sha raised his snow-white chin and said arrogantly, "Feed Me."

Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and didn't listen to her anymore. He stood straight and said, "Are you going to tell me her news or not?"

"Serve me happily first and I'll tell you naturally," said Luo Sha.

"I'm not your servant," said Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Sha shrugged and said indifferently, "If you can't stand it, you can leave. No one here will stop you."

Zhang Ruochen nodded and threw the teacup out. He then said, "Your Saint maidservant led me to the Arena of Life and Death and wanted to kill me. If it were in Kunlun, you would have died under my sword. I can still talk to you nicely because I think you won't use this method against me. So, I want to hear your explanation.

"If you can tell me the news about Mu Lingxi, I won't pursue this matter anymore. However, you've used this matter again and again to threaten me. If you want me to listen to you, don't blame me for not being polite to you."

Zhang Ruochen moved as fast as the wind and sealed Luo Sha's sea of Qi and spiritual power.

"Zhang Ruochen, what are you doing? This is Infernal Court and also the Divine Domain of Destiny. Gods and Supreme Saints are enforcing the law. If you dare to hurt me, you'll be severely punished."

Luo Sha could not control the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint war coprse. She was anxious. She realized that no matter how strong the external force was, she still could not fight back against a truly powerful person.

She had to break through to the Supreme Saint Realm as soon as possible.

"Don't worry. I won't kill you," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's right hand formed a claw and grabbed Luo Sha's shoulder. He exerted force with his fingertips and used a method to separate the tendons and bones.

"Uh... Zhang Ruochen... you... you are so cruel to me. You don't show any mercy to the fairer sex. Even if I die in your hands, I will never speak," said Luo Sha.

She gritted her teeth and looked sad. Tears of grievance and pain flowed from her eyes.

Zhang Ruochen could not stand the woman's tears. He withdrew his fingers from her shoulder. In the next moment, he tapped between her eyebrows. A strong spiritual power entered her body.

Luo Sha felt a strange change in her body. Even though she was sitting on the ground, her senses became heightened.

"What did you do to me?" Luo Sha asked in annoyance.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Didn't you say that I was too ruthless just now? I planned to use a gentle method to force you to speak. Just now, I used spiritual power to increase your body's perception by a hundred times. Especially your senses.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed Luo Qian's wrist as he spoke and dragged her delicate and beautiful hand in front of him.

Slap

He gently hit her palm.

An intense pain spread from Luo Sha's palm to her entire body. Her delicate body trembled slightly. It was even more painful than the claw marks that had separated her tendons and bones.

That time, Luo Sha cried out. “Zhang Ruochen, you’ve gone too far. You dare to treat me like this? Even if you beat me to death, you won’t get an answer.”

Zhang Ruochen hit Luo Sha’s palm more than ten times.

Luo Sha gritted her teeth. Although tears were streaming down her face, she glared at him fiercely. She did not give in.

“Since you’re so tolerant, I’ll have to hit you harder,” said Zhang Ruochen.

He picked Luo Sha up and placed her slender body on his knees.

“Supreme Saint Ruochen, please have some self-respect. Let go of the Princess,” said Han Ying.

She wanted to save Luo Sha, but Zhang Ruochen used the Power of Dimensions to stop her and she could not move.

“Zhang Ruochen, you bast*rd. What are you doing? I can’t stand you.” Luo Sha lay on Zhang Ruochen’s legs. Her chest and sexy lower abdomen were pressed against his knees.

Slap

Zhang Ruochen pressed one hand on Luo Sha’s back and the other heavily hit Luo Sha’s perky buttocks.

The pain increased a hundredfold and Luo Sha cried out in pain.

“Are you going to tell me?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

“No, go ahead. Beat me to death if you can,” said Luo Sha.

Slap

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand again and hit Luo Sha.

He did not hit her hard, but Luo Sha cried and her body twitched.

Zhang Ruochen did not know how many times he hit her, but he gradually found that something was wrong with her scream. It was a painful thing, but her voice was soft and long.

He did not know how many times he hit her, but her slender waist suddenly twisted rapidly. Her soft belly rubbed against Zhang Ruochen's knee heavily, and then her body shook violently. Her voice was trembling.

After a long time, she recovered. She buried her head and panted.

Zhang Ruochen knew what was going on. He was stunned for a moment and he could not hit her anymore.

Her senses were a hundred times heightened, and her pain was a hundred times intense. Did she just reach the peak of comfort in extreme pain?

Did she have a fetish on getting abused?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Luo Sha was red in the face. She was embarrassed and angry. She said in a low voice, "Let go of me. I'll tell you everything, okay?"

Zhang Ruochen was embarrassed too. He withdrew his spiritual power and unsealed her body. He put her delicate body on the ground and said, "If you had told me earlier, you wouldn't have suffered so much... pain."

'Was it even pain? Earlier, she seemed to enjoy it,' he thought.

"Let me change my clothes first. I'll talk to you later," said Luo Sha.

Luo Sha was extremely shy. She did not dare to look Zhang Ruochen in the eye. She ran to the back of the screen as if she was running away. Perhaps it was because the pain had not subsided, but her walking posture was quite strange.

Zhang Ruochen felt strange. He sat alone by the low couch, poured a cup of tea, and drank it all in one gulp.

Han Ying stood aside and stared at him coldly.

No cultivator had ever dared to be so impudent and disrespectful to the princess.

If the princess had not sent a telepathic message and given the order to keep quiet, she would have reported this to the Divine

Prince immediately. With the Divine Prince's cultivation and the power of the Tianluo, he could get rid of Zhang Ruochen.

After a long while, Luo Sha walked out with a noble and saintly look. She was wearing a light green Holy Cambric Robe, a divine crystal crown, and seven green-feathered hairpins in her hair. She was no longer in a sorry state.

She was not much shorter than Zhang Ruochen. In terms of temperament, few human women could compare with her.

Luo Sha sat across from Zhang Ruochen and seemed to have forgotten everything. She said, "I can tell you everything about Mu Lingxi, but you have to promise me one thing first."

"What is it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, "I want to borrow the Sundial to cultivate for a hundred years."

Zhang Ruochen did not dare to lend the treasure to Luo Sha after the experience of the Xue Tu 'borrowing' the Seamless Purgatory Tower. He was about to refuse.

Luo Sha said again, "I just want to use the power of the Sundial to cultivate for a hundred years and breakthrough to the Supreme Saint Realm as soon as possible. I can provide you with the Godstones to use the Sundial."

"Okay, I promise you. If you want to enter the Sundial to cultivate before the Celestial-hunting Festival, you can come to Vastsea Manor and look for me at any time. I won't lend you the Sundial, but I can open it to you," Zhang Ruochen said.

Having achieved his goal, Luo Sha did not talk about conditions anymore after she had achieved her goal. She tapped the table lightly with her jade-like fingers.

Suddenly, Yao Li was escorted over. She knelt on the ground, kowtowing and crying, "Your Highness, it's all my fault. I deserve to die. Please spare my family and let them live."

Luo Sha did not even look at her. She just stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, "I found Mu Lingxi's Bracelet of Dimension outside Kunlun's Central Imperial City."

“Outside the Central Imperial City?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, “The exact location should be the area dyed red by your Saint blood. In Kunlun, that area has been called the Blood Plain of Fallen Dust. All cultivators thought you had died. Of course, the news that you’re still alive may have already been sent back.”

Zhang Ruochen had been looking into Luo Sha’s eyes. He could tell that she was not lying.

Mu Lingxi must have heard the news of his death, so she rushed to the Central Imperial City.

‘What had happened? Why had the Bracelet of Dimension been left on the ground?’

‘At that time, outside the Central Imperial City was full of danger with the invasion of the Saint Realm Army of Infernal Court. Had something happened to her?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Luo Sha saw the worry in Zhang Ruochen’s eyes. She felt jealous. She said, “You don’t have to be so sad. I think she’s still alive.”

“Why do you say that?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, “First of all, cultivators in Infernal Court are not that stupid. If they killed her or captured her, how could they not take away the most precious Bracelet of Dimension?”

“Second, I’ve checked the Bracelet of Dimension. It contains all of Mu Lingxi’s items, including clothes, accessories, and even various sacred artifacts and sacred pills.

“In other words, she has put everything she has into it. What do you think this means?”

Zhang Ruochen looked distressed, worried that Mu Lingxi would do something stupid.

With Mu Lingxi’s personality, she would do anything if she knew that Zhang Ruochen was dead. It was very likely that she would end her life if he died.

Luo Sha saw through Zhang Ruochen's thoughts. She chuckled and said, "If she died for love, she must be extremely sad. How could she have the mood to put all her belongings into the Bracelet of Dimension?"

"What do you mean?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Zhang Ruochen felt that he was too stupid and had lost the ability to think.

Luo Sha said, "Mu Lingxi is a disciple of Moon Goddess. If she wants to die, she won't be able to hide it from Moon Goddess? In addition, Moon Goddess was one of the few gods who knew that you were still alive. Is it possible that the Moon Goddess told her the truth that you were still alive when she was begging for death?"

"What do you think she would do if she knew that you went to Infernal Court?"

Zhang Ruochen gradually calmed down, he thought to himself, 'If what Luo Sha predicted is true, Lingxi will come to Infernal Court. She put all the items into the Bracelet of Dimension to cut off everything from the past and leave no traces behind. I should have guessed that she was such a reckless woman.'

'But what kind of method and identity would she use to come to the Infernal Court?'

'It seems that I can only wait for her to find me.' Zhang Ruochen sighed deeply and thought to himself.

Luo Sha glanced at Yao Li with a cold light in her eyes. She said, "When I picked up the Bracelet of Dimension, this b*tch happened to follow me and learned a lot of things."

"Why did she lead me to the Arena of Life and Death?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, "Before I talk about her, I have to talk about Warlord Mara First. Warlord Mara has always been courting me, but unfortunately, he's not my cup of tea. I don't like him at all and have never paid attention to him. Thus, Warlord Mara bribed Yao Li and she became his spy to watch my every move."

“She had stolen Mu Lingxi’s Bracelet of Dimension and used it to sway Warlord Mara to kill you.”

Zhang Ruochen finally understood the whole situation. As he had guessed, the person who wanted to kill him was not Luo Sha.

Luo Sha waved her hand and said faintly, “Off with her head and throw it into the River of Present.”

Pfft

Yao Li was dragged to the edge of the deck of the saintship. She did not even have the chance to beg for mercy before her head was cut off by a Saint maidservant and fell into the river.

Her Saint blood and the water of the Blood River merged.

Although killing and private fights were prohibited in the Winterpagecity, Yao Li was only Luo Sha’s maidservant. Naturally, Luo Sha could decide her fate.

Zhang Ruochen did not want to stay any longer after he found out what he wanted to know. He stood up and said, “Your Highness, sorry for offending you earlier. I’ll take my leave.”

Luo Sha thought of what had happened earlier and her face blushed. She said, “Why are you in such a hurry to leave? Can’t you accompany me for a bit longer?”

“I’m going to the River Market District to buy some important things. I don’t have time to play,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha’s eyes lit up. “Then you have to sit down. My saintship is heading to the River Market District to attend the auction hosted by the Realm of Star Ocean. You’ll be able to buy what you want there.”

“Forget it. It’s more convenient for me to go by myself,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha always mentioned ‘the fated one’ in front of Zhang Ruochen. Zhang Ruochen did not believe her at first, but after hearing so much from her, he started to doubt it.

The main reason was that their interactions were getting deeper and deeper. They could always bump into each other in the chaos. It was as if there was a thread of fate guiding them.

It was because Zhang Ruochen had concerns and that he did not want to get too close to Luo Sha. He was afraid that what she said would become true.

Luo Sha said, “Don’t you want to know why it was my Royal Brother who showed up on the Arena of Life and Death and not the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint of the Dhisan? Don’t you want to know which powerful enemies want to kill you at this Celestial-hunting Festival? And which powerful cultivators can be your allies? Hehe, I know all these things.”

Chapter 2245: A Treacherous Storm

The Celestial-hunting Festival was of great importance. Zhang Ruochen had to treat it seriously, so he stayed behind. Perhaps he could learn some important information from Luo Sha.

Only by knowing yourself and your enemy could you win every battle.

Zhang Ruochen was carelessly led to the Arena of Life and Death by Warlord Mara mainly because he knew too little about his enemies in Infernal Court.

Luo Sha seemed to be deliberately keeping him in suspense. She did not get down to business right away. Instead, she poured a cup of tea and pushed it toward Zhang Ruochen. She started to make conversation with him, “Although you took off my Holy Cambric Robe and became the one in the prophecy. But you belong to the Celestial Court and I belong to Infernal Court. Deep in my heart, I have never believed this prophecy.

“Until you followed True God Qingyin to Infernal Court, then I was finally convinced.”

Luo Sha gazed at the horizon and spread out her hands. She said with a devout expression, “Fate has already been written. Nothing can go wrong. Zhang Ruochen, do you believe in fate?”

She looked in the direction of the Fane of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen recalled the scene he saw in the Destiny Pool. His handsome face became bitter and did not speak for a long time.

‘If fate has decided everything, what’s the point of us living? What’s the point of cultivating? What’s the point of war and killing?’ he thought.

Zhang Ruochen picked up the teacup and took a sip. It was fragrant. When it entered his stomach, a cool air current rushed to the top of his head, making his mind clear.

Luo Sha said, "I believe in fate. I believe that everything in the world is destined. Just like how we met and knew each other, there are too many coincidences and karma. If fate had not arranged everything, why would you come to the Infernal Court? How can we sit here and have tea together?"

"As for the meaning of life, no one can be certain of it. We only need to follow the arrangement of the God of Destiny and constantly become stronger. Naturally, we can understand the ultimate mysteries of the universe."

Zhang Ruochen stared at Luo Sha. He thought to himself that there must be countless devotees like Luo Sha in Infernal Court. That was why the Fane of Destiny was so prosperous.

The power of faith was too terrifying. It was enough for the Fane of Destiny to surpass the center power of the ten clans and become the decision-maker of Infernal Court.

In Celestial Court, only the Fane of Truth, the Fane of Merit, and the Fane of Light had the chance to achieve such terrifying influence.

Among them, the Fane of Truth had the greatest chance. However, they did not publicize and promote their faith. Instead, they allowed cultivating the Path of Truth to the cultivators of all clans in the world according to the most reasonable method they thought. They even gave away the Canons of Truth.

If not for that, the cultivators of Truth would spread throughout the world.

The influence of the Fane of Truth would even surpass that of the Celestial Palace.

As for the Fane of Merit, it was dragged down by the endless Battle of Merits. It did not have any forces left to spread its faith.

The Fane of Light was also spreading its faith. However, only the major worlds in the sects of the Heavenly Realm were affected. Taoist Clan, Buddhist Sect, Confucianists, Demon gods, Demons, and Evilists... many orthodoxies were fighting back and would not allow the Fane of Light to expand.

Luo Sha smiled and said, “I can tell from your impatient look that you don’t agree with my beliefs. I’m telling you about fate because I also want to tell you about the factions in the Infernal Court.”

Zhang Ruochen looked interested and asked, “There are other factions besides the ten great clans?”

“The ten great clans have their center of power and rule independently. However, if the ten clans are completely independent and have no other power to restrain them, then the war between the ten clans will break out in an instant.”

Luo Sha added, “The conflicts between the clans have been pent up for a long time. Fortunately, Celestial Court is a huge threat, so the ten clans in Infernal Court can maintain their outward friendliness and unity.”

Zhang Ruochen had always thought that the ten clans of Infernal Court were a whole. He had never thought that there would be conflicts between the clans. Moreover, they had reached the point where they would start a war.

“Celestial Court and the myriad realms have been struggling to survive. How did they become a great threat to Infernal Court instead?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, “Zhang Ruochen, how many battles have you experienced since you first cultivated until now? How many enemies have you encountered? Do you know the saying, never underestimate your opponent, even if he is much weaker than you?”

“Celestial Court is Infernal Court’s opponent, and it is not a weak opponent.

“If it was weak, it would have been destroyed long ago. How could it exist until now?”

Zhang Ruochen thought about it silently and digested what Luo Sha had just said.

Luo Sha stood up and looked at the scenery on both sides of the river. She asked, “Did you know that 100,000 years ago, Infernal Court was divided into War Hawk and Neutral?”

“There are even Neutrals?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

He had always thought Infernal Court’s motto was destruction, war, and slaughter. Naturally, he was surprised.

Luo Sha nodded and said, “100,000 years ago, the War Hawk was led by the Fane of Darkness. The Nether Clan, Ghost, Bone Clan, Stone Clan, and Asura were all strong supporters. They were front liners in the earlier stages of the war. They were at a stalemate with the various worlds of the Celestial Court.

“The Neutral was led by the Fane of Destiny. They did not want to participate in the war nor did they stop it.

“It wasn’t until the two of the Twelve Reverends of the Fane of Destiny, Life Reverend and Auspicious Reverend suddenly died. After that, Death Reverend and Ferocious Reverend took charge of the Fane.

“Not long after, the Fane of Destiny announced to the outside world that an all-out war was going to break out with Celestial Court and all living beings in the realm would be exterminated.

“You should know that the Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasa are also living beings. The order given by the Fane of Destiny made us feel a great crisis.

“If all the living beings in the realm were exterminated, how long would the Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasa survive?

“Just as the Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasa were hesitating, the Fane of Destiny made an announcement to the outside world again. It was Saint Monk Xumi and Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations of Kunlun who had crossed space-time and sneaked into the Fane of Destiny to kill Life Reverend and the Auspicious Reverend.

“It was also revealed that Kunlun had used the Power of Time to attract the Marks of Time of the entire galaxy. The River of Time had become extremely unstable. The strength of Kunlun was rising rapidly. It wanted to destroy Infernal Court and become the overlord of the universe. The ten clans of Infernal Court were on the verge of destruction.

“Forced into a corner, an all-out war broke out between Celestial Court World and Infernal Court. The Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasa had no choice but to participate in the war. Kunlun became the center of the Yuanhui tribulation-level war. You should know the outcome of Kunlun better than I do.”

Zhang Ruochen did not expect that there would be such a secret behind the war. It could be said that the situation was treacherous.

Zhang Ruochen said, “How can you believe the one-sided story of the Fane of Destiny?”

“This matter is peculiar indeed. Quite a mystery as well. Life Reverend and Auspicious Reverend were both among the most powerful deities in the realm. No matter how powerful Saint Monk Xumi and Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations were, they couldn’t kill them silently and they might not even be able to kill the two deities. But 100,000 years have passed. Everything has been set. Who would investigate what happened then?”

Luo Sha continued, “In fact, it’s said that there was a Peacemonger in addition to the War Hawk and the Neutral.”

“How is that possible? There’s a Peacemonger in Infernal Court?”

Zhang Ruochen was stunned for a moment. Then he shook his head with a smile. He did not believe it at all.

Luo Sha said, “Actually, I don’t believe it either. But since there’s such a legend, it can’t be groundless.”

“Who’s the Peacemonger?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“The previous leader of the Yanluo clan.”

Luo Sha continued, “Someone claimed that on the day of the great change in the Fane of Destiny, the leader of the Yanluo clan went into seclusion in the Abyss of Darkness. He hasn’t come out since then.”

“In Infernal Court, there are some conspiracy-like legends. Legend has it that the leader of the Yanluo clan was imprisoned by the gods of the Fane of Darkness and they sealed him in the depths of the Abyss of Darkness.”

“There are also legends that he did not enter seclusion in the Abyss of Darkness but was killed by the new leader of the Yanluo clan.”

“In short, in the eyes of the conspirators, all the gods who prevented Infernal Court from attacking Celestial Court 100,000 years ago died in internal strife. However, who can tell the truth? Just like the previous leader of the Yanluo clan, his cultivation was so high that he couldn’t be imprisoned. How could he be imprisoned? Could he be killed just because he said so?”

“Although few cultivators would believe the words of the Peacemonger. However, the Yanluo clan really didn’t care about the war with Celestial Court. Until now, they have been neutral. They put more power into the Abyss of Darkness. They’ve always wanted to push to the end of the Abyss of Darkness and find the last Yanluo clan leader.”

Zhang Ruochen sighed and said, “Infernal Court isn’t as simple as it seems. There are all kinds of hidden conflicts.”

Luo Sha smiled and said, “The internal conflicts in Infernal Court aren’t that simple. There are conflicts between the legitimate and illegitimate children, between living beings and dead souls, and countless conflicts between the clans.”

“There is also the conflict between superiority and inferiority. The strength of Rakshasa, Immortal Vampires and Asura are no weaker than any clan in Infernal Court. How can they be called the lower three clans? The population of the Yanluo clan is less than one millionth of Asura. How can they become the Supreme Clan?”

“So, Zhang Ruochen, although you have countless enemies in Infernal Court, as long as you understand these conflicts, you can find your own allies.”

“As the saying goes, the enemy of the enemy is a friend.”

Zhang Ruochen felt that staying was the right choice after he heard what Luo Sha had said.

At this moment, a golden saintship spread its eight golden wings and broke through the blood-colored waves. It quickly caught up with Luo Sha's saintship.

The two ships were less than 30 meters apart.

At Zhang Ruochen's seat, he could clearly see the various decorations and figures on the opposite ship.

A Nine-Step Saint King Immortal Vampires with six blood wings on his back stood on the ship. He bowed and said, "Greetings, Princess Luo Sha. Is the Supreme Saint Ruochen on your saintship?"

Luo Sha stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, "He's looking for you."

"I don't know him." Zhang Ruochen answered and shook his head. A look of confusion appeared in his eyes.

Han Ying took Luo Sha's place and sent a message to the other side. "The Supreme Saint Ruochen is indeed on the princess's ship. Who are you?"

"I am Yan Beijun of the Yellowsky Clan. My senior sister has admired Supreme Saint Ruochen for a long time. She wants to invite him on the ship for a chat," the Nine-Step Saint King of the Immortal Vampires said loudly.

Luo Sha smiled at Zhang Ruochen, "Hehe, Yan Beijun is quite famous below the Supreme Saint. His senior sister apprentice, Lady Wind, had only cultivated for more than 400 years. She was already a powerhouse at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. She was also one of the candidates for the three goddesses of the Fane of Destiny. Her identity, status, and talent were top-notch in Infernal Court. Very few cultivators can be invited by her. I didn't expect you to be so lucky to come to Infernal Court."

Zhang Ruochen stared at Han Ying and said, "Tell him that I want to accompany your princess and enjoy the beautiful scenery on both sides of the River of Present. I can't get away."

Although Luo Sha knew that Zhang Ruochen was just using her as a shield, she was inexplicably happy.

However, Luo Sha did not understand and said, “Lady Wind must be looking for you to be a supporter of her ascension. You should know that this Celestial-hunting Festival is likely to officially confer the title of a goddess.

“Lady Wind needs you, and you need her. She can be your important ally at the Celestial-hunting Festival. You should know this. Why did you choose to refuse?”

Zhang Ruochen played with the teacup in his hand and he said, “There are many powerhouses at the Celestial-hunting Festival. There are also a large number of powerhouses at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. I have just reached the Neverwilt Realm. My status is too little. I don’t think Lady Wind will think much of me.”

Luo Sha covered his mouth and smiled, she said, “I didn’t expect the arrogant Zhang Ruochen to be so humble. However, what you said is the truth. As far as I know, Lady Wind values three supporters the most. Lord Bladehell of Qitian Clan, Yin Wei of the Fane of Destiny, and Mad Whitejade Lion of Stone clan. Each of them is a powerhouse at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

“This time, there are forty-seven powerhouses at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm participating in the Celestial-hunting Festival. All three of them can be ranked in the top twenty. Among the participants, Lord Bladehell is known as the number one powerhouse below the Thousand-Koan Realm of Immortal Vampires and he is ranked ninth.

“Of course, these are only superficial figures. There will also be some powerhouses that hide their cultivation. The number of powerhouses at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm is definitely more than this number.”

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. “There’s a ranking? What’s Warlord Mara’s rank?”

“This ranking is compiled by the Realm of Star Ocean based on the participants’ past achievements and their own abilities. Moreover, Warlord Mara hasn’t reached the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, so he’s not in the ranking.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where is your Royal Brother?”

“My Royal Brother is in fourth place,” said Luo Sha.

Zhang Ruochen could not calm down.

Although Luo Shengtian did not show his real combat power on the Arena of Life and Death, Zhang Ruochen had an assessment in his mind.

If Luo Shengtian was only in fourth place, then the Celestial-hunting Festival would be more difficult than imagined.

Luo Sha said, “The top 10 powerhouses of the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm have all defeated or killed the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. Yan Wushen was known as a genius that only appeared once in the Yuanhui period. However, before he reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he could only retreat when he encountered the top ten powerhouses. Yan Wushen hasn’t shown up. Maybe he’s in seclusion to breakthrough.”

Zhang Ruochen felt even more pressure in his heart. He had to condense the saintwill before the Celestial-hunting Festival.

He even had to try his best to break through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

After Han Ying passed the message on behalf of Zhang Ruochen, the eight-winged saintship still sailed not far away.

The two ships entered the River Market District almost side by side.

Chapter 2246: The Realm of Star Ocean

“Do you know why all the forces in Infernal Court place so much importance on the Celestial-hunting Festival? To gain something from the festival, they even summoned the elites on the battlefield?” Luo Sha asked with a smile.

Zhang Ruochen did think that the importance of the Celestial-hunting Festival was extraordinary. Even the gods had come out to make arrangements.

This festival seemed to be more important than a Battle of Merits.

However, although the Ampliofruit and Altofruit in the banquet were rare, they were limited in number and did not have much significance.

Even if one was the first place among the ten clans and obtained thirty percent of the Canons of Destiny and the Destiny Tokens, it was still far from reaching the level of the strategic significance of a clan.

Zhang Ruochen had some guesses, but he had not personally asked Supreme Saint Qingsheng and Blood Empress to confirm his guess.

Now that Luo Sha had asked, he pretended not to know and shook his head gently.

Luo Sha said, “As the leader of the Bloodysky Clan, you don’t even know this. However, it is also within my expectations that you are unwilling to be the leader. In addition, you would also not waste your energy to understand the deeper meaning behind the Celestial-hunting Festival.”

Just as Luo Sha said, Zhang Ruochen was in a passive state on whether to attend the Celestial-hunting Festival or to become the leader.

He accepted the arrangement passively.

Zhang Ruochen would not have attended the Celestial-hunting Festival at all if he had not been forced by Infernal Court's rising forces and also he knew about Sword Saint Xuanji's scheme.

Until now, he still felt conflicted. He even rejected the Celestial-hunting Festival. He did not have the mentality of fighting for supremacy at the festival.

After all, he had to kill the captives from all the realms in Celestial Court.

Luo Sha said, "Infernal Court is too vast. The ten clans are independent, and they defend against the other nine clans. Everyone is always hiding. Even the gods find it difficult to accurately analyze the true strength of the ten clans."

"Holding the Celestial-hunting Festival once every thousand years is an opportunity for the gods to understand the strength and development of each clan. The rewards at the festival are the least important things."

Zhang Ruochen asked, "If you want to understand the strength of each clan, why do you choose cultivators under a thousand years old?"

Luo Sha said, "Because cultivators under a thousand years old are the most representative. You can see the future development of the clan through them."

"Just like you, when the gods heard about a genius like you at the Celestial-hunting Festival, they could roughly predict whether you have the chance to become a god."

"What are the chances of you becoming a god?"

"How long will it take for you to become a god?"

"What are your potentials in the future?"

"Is there any way to increase your chance of becoming a god? How to polish you? How to guard against you?"

Zhang Ruochen smiled. "If we want to know the wealth of the ten clans through this method, then the reward must be attractive enough for all the gods of the clans to fight for it. Only in this way can the Celestial-hunting Festival be meaningful. Otherwise, the clans will still keep their secret hidden.”

Luo Sha nodded and said, “That’s right! So, behind the Celestial-hunting Festival, there is a huge division of interests.”

“Division of interests?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, “I don’t know the specifics. Only gods can come into contact with it. I only know that the Celestial-hunting Festival may involve the distribution of resources among the clans, as well as the status of the big forces in the clans.

“Of course, the status is also closely related to the distribution of resources. The higher the status, the more resources will be distributed.

“The strong become stronger and the weak become weaker.

“For example, your Bloodysky Clan is ranked last among the Immortal Vampires, and the clan’s world ranking is at the bottom. The concentration of the blood-red aura in the world is the worst among the top ten clans.

“However, if you lead the Bloodysky Clan and get a good ranking at the Celestial-hunting Festival, it will be a great help to the clan’s ranking even if you couldn’t get first place.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “If I can help Bloodysky Clan to get a first place among the ten clans at the Celestial-hunting Festival, will Bloodysky Clan be able to get first place?”

Luo Sha shook her head and said, “Of course not. The ranking and resource distribution of the ten great clans need to refer to many things. The Celestial-hunting Festival only takes a certain proportion.

“If you can lead the Bloodysky Clan to become the number one among the Immortal Vampires, you might have a chance to rank number ninth, eighth or seventh. Even though the Bloodysky Clan can’t rank number one among the ten great tribes and enjoy the most resources.

“The key to what rank we could reach is to see if your clan’s master has made sufficient arrangements in other aspects. For example, the achievements of the Battlefield of Merits, the number of new gods ascended, the number of newborn Supreme Saints, the development of barren territory, and so on.”

Zhang Ruochen had a sudden realization. He said, “I understand! The distribution of resources and the internal ranking of each clan need to be evaluated in many aspects. The Celestial-hunting Festival takes up a large proportion.”

“Exactly,” Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Then, how did the ranking of the ten clans in Infernal Court come about? Why are they divided into the Supreme clan, upper three clans, middle three clans, and lower three clans?”

“I’m not sure how to answer that. However, the hierarchy of the ten clans had not changed since ancient times. Perhaps only the gods knew the reason. However, the distribution of resources in Infernal Court had always been given to those who were capable. It had nothing to do with the hierarchy. Moreover, the so-called hierarchy has never been taken seriously by the lower three clans,” said Luo Sha.

Zhang Ruochen thought, ‘It was reasonable for Infernal Court to let the Celestial-hunting Festival decide the distribution of benefits.’

In a thousand years, the more geniuses and elites nurtured by a clan, the more resources they would receive. In the end, the nurtured geniuses and elites would benefit themselves.

“In this thousand years, only the Xue Jue Family has added two new gods. This is already a huge bargaining chip for the Bloodysky Clan. If we get another good result at the Celestial-hunting Festival, the ranking of the Bloodysky Clan will rise.”

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen finally understood how much Wargod Bloodximius had bet on him.

It was a huge gamble.

He was betting on the future of the entire Bloodysky Clan for the next thousand years.

Luo Sha changed the topic and said, "It's a pity that the Bloodysky Clan won't be able to get a good result at the Celestial-hunting Festival. Who knows, they might be thrown into the mud and be trampled on."

Zhang Ruochen smiled noncommittally and said, "Bloodysky Clan might not be outstanding, but they won't be at the bottom of the Immortal Vampires even without me."

Luo Sha said, "Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi are first-class Supreme Saints. With them, the strength of the Bloodysky Clan is enough to rank sixth or seventh among the top ten Immortal Vampires. However, the Bloodysky Clan is at the bottom because of you."

Zhang Ruochen understood what she meant. He said seriously, "Are my enemies in Infernal Court that strong?"

"Not only strong, but many," Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen already understood the importance of the Celestial-hunting Festival. Naturally, he paid more attention to it. He said, "Your Highness, you are a brilliant princess. You must have analyzed it thoroughly. Can you tell me what kind of enemies they are?"

"On the list of the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, there are at least three people in the top ten. They will do anything to kill you. There are also many elites at the pinnacle of the Hundred-Shackle Realm who want to teach you a lesson or suppress the Bloodysky Clan. With your current cultivation, it's almost impossible for you to make a difference at the Celestial-hunting Festival."

Luo Sha continued, "What you should be thinking about now is how to save yourself at the Celestial-hunting Festival. This is already a big challenge for you."

"You should give your promise to Lady Wind.

"If you ally with her, your chances of staying alive at the Celestial-hunting Festival will greatly increase."

Zhang Ruochen was silent for a long time. He asked, "Do you think I'm that easy to kill? The three completed the Hundred-Shackle Realm in the top ten, what kind of monsters are they?”

“Pink Skull in eighth place, Wu Jiang in fifth place, and Lan Ying in second place,” said Luo Sha.

She continued, “Pink Skull from the Bone Clan. Rumor has it that she is immortal. She was once killed three times by a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint and came back to life three times. It can be said that she is the strangest of all those cultivators in the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

“You have offended the Bone Clan too often on the Battlefield of Merits. Pink Skull has announced that she will cut off your flesh and turn you into a white skeleton during the Celestial-hunting Festival.

“Wu Jiang is also known as Myriad Hands Taoist, or Myriad Hands Wu Jiang. He is the disciple of the most ancient god in the Fane of Darkness and also the youngest Uncle-Master of Son of Darkness. Although he is only a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, his seniority is higher than many gods.

“Of course, the most terrifying one is Lan Ying. Even my Royal Brother is extremely solemn when he is mentioned, treating him as a great enemy. He comes from the Asura’s Fane of Barasingha and is known as the Divine Fetus.

“If you meet any of them, you must immediately run for your life. Once you are close to them, you may not be able to escape. Even if you are a Master of Time and Space.

“The three of them are only the strongest and the three who want to kill you the most. You have more enemies than you thought.

“Within the Immortal Vampires, the clans that have a competitive relationship with the Bloodysky Clan are the enemies among the enemies.”

Zhang Ruochen touched his chin and said, “As far as I know, you can’t kill each other during the Celestial-hunting Festival.”

Luo Sha giggled and asked, “Why? Are you afraid?”

“I’m not afraid. No matter how strong they are, it’s not easy for them to kill me. But, will the gods let them do as they like? My grandfather has a very bad temper. What if he turns the Celestial-hunting Festival upside down?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha said, “Zhang Ruochen, I’ve said so much. Yet you still don’t get it. In the eyes of the gods, you are different from the other guests at the Celestial-hunting Festival.

“Do you know why the Thousand-Koan Realm elites of Dhisn didn’t come to the Arena of Life and Death to deal with you?

“Why didn’t the gods of the Bloodysky Clan oppose you becoming the leader?

“Why did you have to go to the Celestial-hunting Festival instead of other cultivators?

“Haven’t you thought about the deeper reason?

Luo Sha sighed and mumbled to herself, “Those who have the heart to become gods will never give up. However, many of the Supreme Saints in Infernal Court have a smooth path of cultivation!”

This seemingly insignificant sigh shocked Zhang Ruochen. He understood many things in an instant.

“Do you want me to show you a clear path? Maybe I can help you to go against the trend and get a good ranking at the Celestial-hunting Festival,” Luo Sha said and smiled charmingly. Her beautiful eyes rippled like a vixen who could charm all living things.

Zhang Ruochen thought carefully and said, “I will pass! If I’m serious, how can a mere Celestial-hunting Festival stop me?”

“Tsk, arrogant fool. I’ll wait to see you suffer.” Luo Sha pursed her red lips and snorted.

Although she said it with disdain, seeing Zhang Ruochen’s serious and confident look, she could not help but think of his heroic appearance on the Battlefield of Merits. Where he fought the entire army of the Infernal Court alone, and her heart suddenly jumped.

A man should stand tall. Even if there were 10,000 enemies in front of him, he would face them head-on.

He was not afraid.

“Your Highness, we have arrived at the gate to the Realm of Star Ocean,” Han Ying reported.

The channel of the blood riverfront was opened, and it was like a long river entering a flat lake.

An arch bridge made of light-spot connected the east and west banks, spanning 800 meters. Each light-spot was a bird shining with starlight.

Luo Sha pointed to the light dot arch bridge as if he was testing Zhang Ruochen. She asked, “Do you know what it is?”

Zhang Ruochen looked up, he said, “Galactic Starrow! It was said that one Starrow could hold up an independent space. The Realm of Star Ocean is so well-to-do to raise so many of them. There must be a unique world behind this gate.”

Luo Sha said, “The Realm of Star Ocean is the biggest business empire in Infernal Court. It’s so powerful that it has the title of the 11th Clan in the Infernal Court. Your Immortal Vampires’ biggest saint shop, the Ancient Saint Pavilion, can’t even reach one-tenth of the size of the Realm of Star Ocean.”

“Why is the Realm of Star Ocean called the 11th Clan in the Infernal Court?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, “Because the center of power of any one of the ten clans of Infernal Court can not control the Realm of Star Ocean. Under the banner of the Realm of Star Ocean, there are a large number of planets, primitive worlds, secret realms of the universe... the territory is extremely vast.”

“Who exactly is behind the Realm of Star Ocean?” Zhang Ruochen asked, his curiosity greatly increased.

Luo Sha smiled mysteriously. “To be able to open up an independent world space in the Divine Domain of Destiny and to build the headquarters here. Who do you think is behind the Realm of Star Ocean?”

“The Fane of Destiny has good methods.”

Zhang Ruochen praised it. Then he was a little surprised and asked. “Is this the headquarters of the Realm of Star Ocean?”

“So many questions. Why don’t we just go in and take a look?” Luo Sha said.

Whoosh

The 300-meter-long saintship continued to sail forward. When it passed through the arch bridge held up by the Galactic Starrow, it seemed to have hit a water curtain.. The water curtain kept swallowing the ship, and eventually, it disappeared on the river of blood.

Chapter 2247: Supreme Saint Sanjin

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

After passing through the Realm of Star Ocean's gate, the scene in front of him changed drastically.

The blood-red river below became clear and bright while the surface of the water became wider. At first glance, it looked like a boundless lake or ocean. The edges were nowhere to be seen. Up in the sky, there were dozens of Planet of Life and the planets were not huge. They were less than 1,500 kilometers in diameter.

There were all kinds of buildings on the planet. It includes Saint boats, Savage Beasts, and cultivators flying in and out of the atmospheric layer at all times. Everything appeared to be extremely busy, yet orderly.

Zhang Ruochen stood up and looked around, "The heavenly and earthly precepts here are completely different. They have caused extreme oppression to the cultivators."

Luo Sha laughed, "This is the Realm of Star Ocean's headquarters. Of course, it changes the heavenly and earthly precepts and suppresses the cultivators' power. Otherwise, won't this place be easily destroyed when a Supreme Saint suddenly goes mad?"

Zhang Ruochen nodded lightly. A Supreme Saint's destructive power was too strong. One punch could probably destroy one Planet of Life in the sky.

But now, even with Zhang Ruochen's battle strength, one mighty punch would not be able to destroy a mountain on those Planets of Life.

The Saint boats left the water and flew towards one of the planets in the sky.

As soon as it passed through the atmospheric layer, a Supreme Saint from the Planet of Life came to welcome it.

It was not the Supreme Saint himself, but a spiritual avatar.

Of course, with Luo Sha's Saint Kinghood cultivation level, being capable of alarming a Supreme Saint was enough to tell of her extraordinary status in the Infernal Court.

"Is Your Highness Luo Sha here to participate in the auction? Or do you wish to purchase items on your own?" asked Supreme Saint Sanjin.

The other party was, after all, a Supreme Saint. Therefore, Luo Sha's attitude was rather humble, "I want to buy treasures that can help me comprehend the Path of Dimension and condense a precious Neverwithers Physique. I want the best of the best. The royal family of Devala has an incalculable amount of it, so don't waste your time."

"Don't worry. The treasures that can be sent to the Realm of Star Ocean's headquarters are definitely the best," answered Supreme Saint Sanjin with a smile.

For a very long time, Luo Sha had the ability to break through Supreme Saints. However, with her willpower and talent, she was naturally unwilling to become an ordinary Supreme Saint. Even if she could not reach the completion like Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen in Saint Kinghood, she still had to become one of the best.

And the fact is that she had that kind of talent.

Even when she was at Saint-level, she could defeat the genius ranked 12th place on the Saint Merit List of the Celestial Court.

In addition to her identity as the Master of Space, she had enough confidence to become the most powerful one at the Saint King level.

After finishing his discussion with Supreme Saint Sanjin, Luo Sha looked at Zhang Ruochen and said, "Let me introduce you. This is Supreme Saint Ruochen, the grandson of the Bloodsky clan's leader and the Immortal Vampires. His mother is also a god."

Supreme Saint Sanjin was moved. He quickly stepped forward and cupped his hands on the chest, "Although I work in the headquarters of the Realm of Star Ocean, how could I not know of the great Supreme Saint Ruochen? I didn't expect to have this fate to meet you in person today.

"There are too many things going on at the headquarters. I have to split my time into small pockets to deal with them. Please forgive me for not being able to welcome you in person."

Supreme Saint Sanjin was more cautious with Zhang Ruochen's attitude than Luo Sha's.

No matter how noble Luo Sha's identity was, she was still a Saint King. On the other hand, Zhang Ruochen was a Supreme Saint, and a practical Supreme Saint at that. He had already made a name for himself.

A Supreme Saint like Supreme Saint Sanjin, who rarely participated in life-and-death killings, would die even if his level was higher than Zhang Ruochen's.

"This is Supreme Saint Sanjin, one of the many merchants in the Realm of Star Ocean. He holds a high position in the headquarters." Luo Sha introduced him to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't arrogant. He said calmly, "Greetings, Supreme Saint Sanjin. I came to the Realm of Star Ocean to buy something."

Supreme Saint Sanjin laughed. "It's my pleasure to have someone as great as you come all the way to the Realm of Star Ocean. It looks like I'll have a big business deal."

"This isn't a good place to talk. Please follow me."

Under the Supreme Saint Sanjin's lead, Zhang Ruochen, Luo Sha, Han Ying, and the two Saint maidservants came to a shining lake and sat beside a jade stone.

The other Saint maidservants took their Saint boats and moored to a port on the planet.

A maidservant immediately brought over a drink from the holy spring and a ten-thousand-year-old treasure, a medicine known as the Emerald Fruit.

Zhang Ruochen's eyelids twitched slightly. He spoke to Luo Sha, "The Realm of Star Ocean is indeed extraordinary. Saint-level creatures is served as a casual snack here, and those are rare treasures that can only be sought after.”

Luo Sha rolled his eyes, “This lake is where the Realm of Star Ocean serves distinguished guests. Only Scion and their grandsons, or Supreme Saints can enter. If the snacks are not presentable enough, how can they eat them with reverence?”

Zhang Ruochen released his spiritual power to sense. Indeed, he found many powerful auras surrounding all corners of the lake.

Because it was a place to serve distinguished guests, the space where the lake was placed had been engraved with a huge amount of Divine Marks. It prohibited the spiritual powers from exploring. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen could not identify their identities and cultivation levels.

Luo Sha sensed the fluctuation of Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power and quickly stopped it, he said, “There’s still about four hours left until the auction begins. So, many distinguished guests are resting here. Not only elites attending the Celestial-Hunting Festival will be present, but also Paramount Realm’s Supreme Saints, Semigods, and Gods. Using spiritual power here to explore is considered as a disrespectful act and could easily cause unnecessary trouble.”

Zhang Ruochen quickly withdrew his spiritual power and asked in surprise, “Will there really be Gods coming?”

“What’s so strange about that? The auction in the Realm of Star Ocean is held once a month. There will be a lot of rare treasures in each session. Some of the gods will be tempted to get them.”

Then Luo Sha whispered mysteriously, “Rumour has it that today’s auction will include the corpse of a God who has just died. There must be a lot of powerful individuals coming to fight for it.”

“Another God died?”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t care about the God’s corpse, but more about the God’s death.

After all, there were only three scenarios that could make a God die.

First, dying in the Yuanhui Tribulation.

Second, an accidental death in battle.

Third, one felt that there was not much time left and chose to die in meditation. Or one would choose to sleep forever and die in his sleep to ensure the integrity of his godly body.

Out of all the cases, more than half of the Gods who died in the Yuanhui Tribulation were destroyed in both body and spirit. It was difficult for them to leave a complete godly figure.

Many of the Gods who had died in the tribulation had also been obliterated into ashes or dissipated into nothingness. It was extremely rare for Gods to leave their corpses behind.

In the third scenario, there were relatively more corpses that had been preserved.

However, since gods chose to sit down or sleep to death, they would usually choose a very secret place or have a younger generation guarding them. After they died, they could hardly be brought out for sale.

Therefore, when Zhang Ruochen learned that a god's corpse was involved at the auction, the first thing that came to mind was that a god from the Celestial Court had fallen.

Luo Sha said, "I don't know the origin of the God's corpse yet. Anyway, my royal brother will represent Devala to participate in the auction for the God's corpse. He has mobilized a lot of Godstones for it. If it was just the body of a false god or a half-damaged God's corpse, he wouldn't have made such a big move."

A God corpse was divided into three, six, and nine levels. And their values would have a vast difference.

If the God was one who had just been killed, the corpse would still be kept intact. Therefore, its value would be very high. It could even be equivalent to a divine treasure and of great strategic significance.

Just like the case when Empress Chi Yao had killed Jueshen of Asura. Kunlun's strength had soared in a short period of time with the Divine Blood, Divine Bone, Divine Soul and other God-level treasures contained in Jueshen's corpse,

It increased the overall strength of a realm.

If the God's corpse auctioned in the Realm of Star Ocean reached the same level as Jueshen's corpse, then all the forces of Infernal Court's ten clans would fight for it at all costs.

Supreme Saint Sanjin appeared in person. He personally rushed over and asked Zhang Ruochen what he needed to buy.

Zhang Ruochen thought carefully and asked, "Does the Realm of Star Ocean own a stellar core?"

Supreme Saint Sanjin answered back with another question, "What level of stellar core do you have in mind?"

Zhang Ruochen's knowledge about stellar cores was limited, so he asked, "What are the levels of a stellar core?"

"In Infernal Court, planets are divided into nine levels, from level one to level nine. Naturally, stellar cores are divided into nine levels too.

"Level one stellar cores are the cheapest. One could buy them with tens of millions of saint stones. In the Realm of Star Ocean headquarters, the highest existing level belongs to three pieces of level six stellar cores. They are all sky-high prices," explained Supreme Saint Sanjin.

Zhang Ruochen was interested in buying stellar cores to refine them into the Violet Gourd and increase its suction power.

However, how much or what levels of stellar cores were within the Violet Gourd's capability was still unknown.

"Are you planning to buy Violet Gourd for the purpose of refining weapons?" asked Luo Sha out of curiosity.

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said to Supreme Saint Sanjin, "How many Saint Stones for a level six stellar core?"

'This is indeed a big business.'

This thought flashed across Supreme Saint Sanjin's mind. The corner of his lips lifted as he said, "A level six stellar core can't be traded with Saint Stones. It has to be bought with Godstones. It costs around 50 to 200 Godstones. The weight and attributes of a stellar core is different, so there is a huge difference in its price."

Even with Luo Sha's status and knowledge, he was still shocked by the answer. He said, "Isn't it too expensive for just a stellar core? A level one Regal Artifact can't even be sold at this price."

Supreme Saint Sanjin replied, "A level six stellar core needs at least a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint to refine it from a level six planet. It takes a lot of time, so the price is naturally high."

Zhang Ruochen said, "I will definitely buy the stellar core, but I don't have that many Godstones at the moment. How about this? I'll send a batch of Regal Artifact to the Realm of Star Ocean for auction. But I'm not sure if I can make it in time for the auction."

"Of course, you'll be in time, but..."

Supreme Saint Sanjin was stunned. He couldn't believe what he had just heard, so he asked, "Do you really have a batch of Regal Artifact?"

Even by putting together most of the Neverwilt Realm's Supreme Saints, they only owned one Regal Artifact in total.

How could Supreme Saint Sanjin not be shocked when Zhang Ruochen could casually take out a batch of it?

"I just received this batch of Regal Artifact. I can sell them to fulfil this urgent need."

As he was speaking, Zhang Ruochen took out eight Regal Artifacts, including the Parashu. All of them were taken from six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family.

Seeing this, the two Saint maidservants and Han Ying who were standing behind Luo Sha were stunned.

If six of those Supreme Saints from the Mara Family knew that Zhang Ruochen was going to auction off their most powerful weapon, they would definitely be furious. The value of these Regal Artifacts were even more expensive than their Supreme Saint's blood.

After all, a Supreme Saint's blood was only sold once.

"Level two Regal Artifact, Parashu? Isn't this Warlord Mara's weapon?" Supreme Saint Sanjin said in surprise.

Obviously, he didn't know what had happened at the Arena of Life and Death.

Zhang Ruochen nodded, "Don't worry, Supreme Saint Sanjin. All six of the Supreme Saints from the Mara Family lost to me in a fair and just manner. Countless cultivators witnessed it. Every single one of them was brought back transparently."

At the Arena of Life and Death, Zhang Ruochen had the right to kill six Supreme Saints from the Mara Family. Naturally, he also had the right to decide what to do with their weapons.

Even Luo Sha rolled his eyes when he heard Zhang Ruochen's words.

When this batch of Regal Artifact went up for auction, the humiliation he caused upon Mara Family's six Supreme Saints would spread further. It would be strange if they did not come and fight with Zhang Ruochen.

However, Zhang Ruochen was a ruthless bastard. He had almost sucked out all the blood of those six Supreme Saints. It would be difficult for them to recover back to their peak combat strength in a short time.

Even if their internal organs were about to explode, they could only endure it.

Zhang Ruochen had seized hundreds of Regal Artifact. Yet, he did not feel any emotion when he put up a batch for auction. Instead, he was thinking whether he could get enough Godstone after selling those items.

After all, he did not only intend to buy stellar cores, but also treasures that cultivate the Saintwill as well as treasures that help the Ancient Abyssal Blade practice. Moreover, he also intended to buy a batch of top-level talismans and arrays.

There were so many enemies. If he could not win, at least he could crush them to death with talismans and arrays.

Sometimes, money could really kill people.

But would the Celestial-Hunting Festival allow the use of talismans and arrays at a large-scale?

If it was allowed, then this battle would be about money. It would depend on the one who had more wealth.

No matter what, there was no harm in preparing more Godstone. If possible, Zhang Ruochen even wanted to buy the God's corpse and feed it to the God-eater Bug. Then, he wanted to nurture them into a God-eater General that could sweep through everything alone.

After these thoughts flashed through his mind, Zhang Ruochen took out a treasure from the bottom of the box.

"This divine ancient artifact, a level seven Regal Artifact should also be auctioned!"

Zhang Ruochen took out the Wheel of the Nether Sun and handed it to Supreme Saint Sanjin.

"Level seven Regal Artifact?"

Supreme Saint Sanjin was shocked. Both of his hands trembled and he almost dropped the Wheel of the Nether Sun to the ground.

This was too ridiculous. Who would sell a Level seven Regal Artifact?

On top of it, that was a divine ancient artifact.

One had to know that more than half of the Supreme Saints from Paramount Realm who managed the army did not even reach level seven. Even for an ancient clan like the Xue Jue Family, a level seven Regal Artifact could be considered as a family treasure. It could not be leaked to the outside world.

Did Wargod Bloodximius know that his grandson was such a spendthrift?

Luo Sha suddenly stood up, grabbed one corner of the Wheel of the Nether Sun and said, “Zhang Ruochen, we have such a deep relationship. Why don’t you sell it to me? I’ll pay you one hundred thousand Godstones.”

Supreme Saint Sanjin was indeed worthy of being the Realm of Star Ocean’s merchant. He held the Wheel of the Nether Sun tightly in his hands to prevent Luo Sha from taking it away. He said, “Just now, I’ve done a preliminary investigation. This level seven Regal Artifact is a weapon used by Nether Clan’s former God, Nether Lord Lingyang. It’s only one step away from being a Supreme Artifact. Its value is much higher than one hundred thousand Godstones.”

“Two hundred thousand Godstones, it’s a deal!”

Luo Sha stared at Zhang Ruochen and said telepathically, “It’s better to sell it to me instead of any random outsider.”

Supreme Saint Sanjin shook his head and said, “If we put the Wheel of the Nether Sun in the Realm of Star Ocean’s auction, it will definitely attract the attention of the top Supreme Saints from the Nether Clan. The price is much higher than what you’re proposing now.”

Zhang Ruochen found it hard to understand. Wasn’t it just the Wheel of the Nether Sun? A Divine Kingdom’s princess, and a merchant, both of them were of high statuses. Was there a need to fight this hard?

In Zhang Ruochen’s hands, the Wheel of the Nether Sun was really a dispensable thing to him. It couldn’t even compare to the skeletal whip, which was an actual Supreme Artifact.

Supreme Saint Sanjin had a different thought in his head, ‘No wonder all the big forces in the Infernal Court wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen. How many treasures did this guy steal from the Infernal Court? Killing him would be a lot more profitable than killing a god.’

This time, Supreme Saint Sanjin had wronged Zhang Ruochen.

The Wheel of the Nether Sun was taken from the Blackdemon Realm’s Mosheng.. It wasn’t taken from any of the Infernal Court's cultivators.

In the end, Zhang Ruochen still chose to hand over the Wheel of the Nether Sun to Supreme Saint Sanjin to be placed up for auction Realm of Star Ocean.

Apart from that, he asked about the great treasure that could help to condense Saintwill. It was called the Lotus of Divine Reflection. The older Lotus of Divine Reflection was, the more effective it was in condensing the Saintwill.

The Lotus of Divine Reflection was born within the void of the universe without any roots or leaves. It was a lotus formed from the surrounding power of the Origin.

The Saintwill of a Supreme Saint was a manifestation of Path of Origin.

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised to find out that the Lotus of Divine Reflection could do such wonders.

Luo Sha was very angry that Zhang Ruochen had not sold the Wheel of the Nether Sun to her. Nevertheless, when she saw Zhang Ruochen's surprised look, she immediately laughed. "You didn't expect it, did you? The treasure you're looking for happens to be the Lotus of Divine Reflection. Do you regret not bringing your confidante, the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers, to the Infernal Court?"

The true form of the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers was a Lotus of Divine Reflection that had been born in ancient times. Its effect in cultivating a Saintwill was self-evident.

Supreme Saint Sanjin said, "The Fairy of a Hundred Flowers under the Mandala Goddess in the Qianrui Realm is the oldest known Lotus of Divine Reflection in the known universe."

"With her help, it won't be difficult for a Supreme Saint like you to cultivate Saintwill Grade Five and above. With her, even the deities could find it easier to comprehend the Canons of cultivation paths."

Zhang Ruochen's face darkened. He muttered to himself, "Since the Lotus of Divine Reflection was born from the power of the Origin of Heaven and Earth, it should be very sensitive to the Path of Origin. Why have I never seen her use the power of origin?"

"What?"

Luo Sha was shocked. She fluttered her eyes in confusion and said, "Don't you know that the Lotus of Divine Reflection is a natural Master of the Origin?" She could not help but chuckle. "And here I thought that you and the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers were very close. Or is it that she kept the fact that she is a master of the Origin as a secret?" Luo Sha continued after a pause, "My dear Ruochen, now only you realize how hard it is to figure out a woman, right?"

"Everyone has their secrets. What's so strange about that?"

Although Zhang Ruochen said so, he was still slightly unhappy.

After all, he regarded the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers as his best friend and confidante. He even gave her a Heart of the Divine Tree to help her build insights on the Path of Life.

'Perhaps she has reasons that she could not tell me.'

Luo Sha said, "I'm worried about you. Not only do you attract women, you aren't even aware when they are using you."

Zhang Ruochen did not argue with her. He asked Supreme Saint Sanjin, "What are the grades of the other Lotus of Divine Reflection in Realm of Star Ocean?"

"They are more than 10,000 years old. Those younger than a Yuanhui can be obtained now. As for the Lotus of Divine Reflection that has survived the Yuanhui Tribulation, there's only one, which will be sent to the auction stage," said Supreme Saint Sanjin.

Zhang Ruochen frowned and said, "So there's only one Lotus of Divine Reflection of Yuanhui grade."

"Lotuses of Divine Reflection are rare treasures to begin with. In addition to the vast space of the universe, even a 10,000-year-old one is rarely seen. As for those of Yuanhui grade, I reckon that it can only be bought at Realm of Star Ocean within the entire Infernal Court. This is something that Supreme Saints, demigods, and even gods will want to buy,” said Supreme Saint Sanjin.

“The Lotus of Divine Reflection of Yuanhui grade is so precious. It will be too difficult to get it at the auction.”

Zhang Ruochen thought to himself and said, “Give me a 100,000-year-old Lotus of Divine Reflection first. Let me look at its quality. I also need ten Earth Grade Implement Nurturing Pills and ten Heaven Grade Implement Nurturing Pills. And get me fifty Heaven Grade Sacred Pills as well to assist in cultivating my spiritual power.”

The vessel spirits of Heaven Grade Sacred Pills were comparable to living beings of the Saint Kingdom. Each and every one of them was priceless.

Almost all Supreme Saints of the Neverwilt Realm and Hundred-Shackle Realm used Heaven Grade Sacred Pills to support and strengthen their cultivation.

Luo Sha was also secretly surprised by Zhang Ruochen’s purchase of 50 Heaven Grade Sacred Pills that supported cultivation of spiritual power. She spat coldly, “No one has ever dared to show off their wealth in front of me. You are the first one.”

‘Did I flaunt my wealth?’

In the Dragon Temple, Zhang Ruochen had obtained a King Grade Sacred Pill from the Lord of Stone that supported the cultivation of spiritual power.

However, he had just broken through to become a spiritual power Supreme Saint, so he did not dare to simply take it.

After he digested all 50 Heaven Grade Sacred Pills and King Grade Sacred Pill, he would have the chance to directly raise the strength of his spiritual power to the 61st level.

Just as Supreme Saint Sanjin walked out of the pavilion, a group of noble cultivators came to the lakeside. Among them, there were ten Supreme Saints. There was also a group of Deathsworn Guards in armor.

Those Deathsworn Guards were trained by the Fane of Destiny. They were all elites among the Saint Kings.

Such a mighty lineup naturally attracted the attention of Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha.

Supreme Saint Sanjin walked up quickly and said, “Wu Jiang, Lord Sinluo, and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, why didn’t any escorts report your arrival? I could be impudent for not welcoming you from afar.”

The three Supreme Saints in the lead all emitted extraordinary auras. Despite the suppression from surrounding precepts, their auras remained intimidating.

Luo Sha said to Zhang Ruochen in a low voice, “You’re lucky. Wu Jiang is here! That’s the guy known as the Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint.”

“Wu Jiang? Wu Jiang from the Fane of Darkness?”

Zhang Ruochen’s gaze was fixed on Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint.

Not long ago, Luo Sha had said that he was ranked as the fifth elite of Hundred-Shackle Realm’s Great Perfection stage. He was also one of his three strongest enemies.

The Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint Wu Jiang looked like a human. He was handsome and tall. There was a black lightning streak mark between his brows. He possessed a prideful personality and looked down on all living things.

However, there was a sincere and gentle divine light in his eyes. No one would be able to hate him.

In short, he was a Supreme Saint elite that possessed great charisma. It was difficult to see through him.

If he was an enemy, he would be a terrifying foe indeed.

Zhang Ruochen had just looked at Wu Jiang for a moment for him to get noticed. He looked over and met Zhang Ruochen’s eyes.

In an instant, Wu Jiang figured out Zhang Ruochen's identity. He narrowed his eyes and he said to the elite Supreme Saints beside him, "We came early, but it turned out to be the right time. Lord Sinluo, the enemy who killed your brother is right there."

All of a sudden, more eyes were cast on Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Sha giggled and explained to Zhang Ruochen, "Lord Sinluo is the son of Lord Chi Hun from the Deathkin. His cultivation has reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Of course, more importantly, he is the elder brother of the Chixing Shenzi who died at your hands. who was one of your other great foes."

"Chixing Shenzi?"

Zhang Ruochen had killed too many Scions, Scioness, and descendants of deities. He couldn't remember every single one of them clearly, so he had to rummage through his memories.

Lord Sinluo's eyes were cold. He wanted to walk over, but he was stopped by Supreme Saint Sanjin, who used spiritual power to communicate with him to dissuade him.

Zhang Ruochen didn't seem to care. He sat calmly in the pavilion and watched them.

Suddenly, the group of cultivators quieted down and moved away.

A tall figure in a white robe walked out. She was dressed as a man, but no one would take her as a man. Her facial features were exquisitely formed, with ruby lips and pearly teeth. She had eyes as clear as spring, spiritual brilliance flowing her snow-white skin.

She was wearing a man's outfit, which was already very surprising to those gathered.

The moment Zhang Ruochen saw her, his eyes were no longer calm. His heart began to pound harder and his hands on the table were trembling slightly.

Supreme Saint Sanjin cupped their hands again and greeted the figure. They showed their signature smile and said, "Your Holiness is here. Supreme Saints, please come this way. I have already asked the servants to prepare the best seats...”

“Wait.”

Pan Ruo raised a slender hand and stopped Supreme Saint Sanjin from continuing.

Her beautiful eyes stared at Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha, who was not far away. Her gaze was filled with a deep radiance. After a long pause, she said, “There’s no need to arrange other seats. I want to sit next to them.”

“This...”

Supreme Saint Sanjin looked troubled.

It was impossible for him to not see the hatred between this group of people and Zhang Ruochen. What if a sudden fight broke out and ruined the auction?

Scion Yuan Mo followed closely behind Pan Ruo. His eyes were cold. “Zhang Ruochen, you didn’t expect to see me again, did you?”

Zhang Ruochen still had some vague memories of Yuan Mo.

He was practically the only leader in the Battlefield of Merits within the Northern Region of Kunlun, where he led a large army of divine Deathkin. His cultivation was exceedingly strong, and he was an extremely talented person.

Zhang Ruochen knew that Scion Yuan Mo had been pursuing Pan Ruo. Now that he was still there by Pan Ruo’s side, an unknown coldness naturally rose within his heart, “I am indeed a little surprised,” he said. “I thought you died on Xianji Mountain! Since you’re alive, cherish it. Don’t joke at the expense of your life anymore, because luck does not hold forever.”

Luo Sha looked at Zhang Ruochen with surprise.

She had never seen Zhang Ruochen make such vicious remarks. He seemed to be trying to provoke Yuan Mo to anger him. Or did he want to kill Yuan Mo instead?

‘I wonder what kind of feud between them?’

As expected, Scion Yuan Mo was enraged. He roared, “You would not have defeated me on the Xianji Mountain without external help!”

“So you’ve broken through and attained Supreme Sainthood. Very good, since you’re not convinced, do you dare to fight me in the Arena of Life and Death?” Zhang Ruochen said.

“You...”

Scion Yuan Mo was at loss of words.

Not long ago, he had heard the news that the Six Supreme Saints of the Mara family had lost to Zhang Ruochen in the Arena of Life and Death.

Although Scion Yuan Mo was confident, he knew that there was still a huge gap between him and Warlord Mara. Naturally, he could not be Zhang Ruochen’s opponent.

Going to the Arena of Life and Death was no different from throwing one’s life away.

Lord Sinluo pushed Supreme Saint Sanjin away and walked out with great strides. “Zhang Ruochen, don’t be so arrogant. Do you dare to go to the Arena of Life and Death with me?

“Why not?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Sinluo said, “You have guts. Since that’s the case, there’s no need to participate in the auction. Let’s go to the Arena of Life and Death right now to decide who will live.”

At this moment, a burst of melodious laughter rang out from afar. “The great Lord Sinluo of the Deathkin, an elite of the Great Perfection in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, is making things difficult for a Supreme Saint of the Neverwilt Realm. Do you think that Immortal Vampires don’t have any elites?”

Another group of cultivators arrived by the lakeside.

The leader was a woman in colorful robes. She wore a golden mask and her body was shrouded in mist, and she possessed a mysterious and alluring aura.

Behind her was a large group of powerful figures. There were nearly ten Supreme Saints, with saint level guards in golden armor which opened the path ahead.

Supreme Saint Sanjin had a headache when he saw who was coming. He was afraid that the two groups of people would clash, so he immediately went forward to greet the woman in colorful robes and separated the groups.

Luo Sha grabbed Zhang Ruochen's wrist and pulled him back to his seat, and whispered, "Don't you want to participate in the auction? Just remain calm and don't resort to your fists to solve problems all the time. The Lady Wind has arrived, which means that two Scioness candidates have bumped into each other. So why don't you sit down and have a good time watching whatever happens next."

Some things remained even when Zhang Ruochen let go.

Pan Ruo's presence could still stir Zhang Ruochen's feelings. After all, she had been his only wife.

To be more precise, she was now his ex-wife.

How could they get married if there was no love?

How could he forget her just like that if he had loved her?

The two groups of people clashed, and the tension instantly became intense. Those gathered were at daggers drawn. If a fight was triggered, they would turn the world upside down.

Scion Yuan Mo, Lord Sinluo, and the others pushed Zhang Ruochen aside and confronted the Supreme Saints beside Lady Wind.

It was obvious that this was not the first time the two groups of people had met. They had fought many times before. That was why they were so hostile towards each other.

However, Pan Ruo's attention was already on the pavilion. Seeing Luo Sha's intimate actions toward Zhang Ruochen, her slender eyebrows furrowed slightly.

Lord Sinluo spoke rudely, "Lady Wind is indeed unreasonable. It was Zhang Ruochen who provoked him first. How did it become me who was making things difficult for him? Besides, the Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint you mentioned was the one who defeated Warlord Mara. I'm afraid that only the stupidest person would think of him as a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint.”

Luo Sha was sly. She pretended to be shocked. “Lord Sinluo, are you taking a roundabout way to call sister Lady Wind stupid?”

Suddenly, three figures walked out from behind Lady Wind. All of them were in the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, and they wanted to teach Lord Sinluo a lesson.

The atmosphere of the two sides became even tenser.

Zhang Ruochen had calmed down completely. He knew Luo Sha were trying to incite that group to harm Lord Sinluo and, at the same time, help him out.

In her opinion, with Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation, he was no match for a Great Perfection elite in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He definitely couldn’t go fight such an opponent in the Arena of Life and Death as well.

“You should be curious as to why Pan Ruo who hasn’t reached the Supreme Sainthood can make the elites of the Great Perfection in the Hundred Shackle-Realm like Wu Jiang and the Lord Sinluo follow her lead, right?” Luo Sha used another alternative and diverted Zhang Ruochen’s attention.

“Indeed, I am a little curious.”

Zhang Ruochen said lightly. “What’s so great about the Scioness from the Fane of Destiny?”

“Before I talk about the Scioness, I have to tell you that the three Scioness candidates are different. Pan Ruo represents the interests of the upper three clans, and Lady Wind represents the interests of the lower three clans..”

Chapter 2249: The Auction

“The Scions and Scionesses of the Fane of Destiny must be selected alternately.

“For example, if this generation chooses Scionesses, the next generation must choose the Scions.

“When this generation of Scionesses attain Godhood or die, or maybe they fail to attain Godhood after one thousand years, they will begin to prepare the plan to choose the next generation of Scions,” Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen was moved and asked, “Do you mean that the Fane of Destiny will choose a Scion or Scioness in a thousand years at most?”

“Yes.”

“In one Yuanhui period, the total number of Scion and Scioness will add up to 129. How many of them can become gods?” Zhang Ruochen wanted to try, by using the probability of Scion and Scioness attaining Godhood to estimate the approximate number of deities in the Fane of Destiny.

Luo Sha replied, “When the Scion and Scioness of the Fane of Destiny are selected, it is already clear that they have the best talent among the cultivators of the same generation. In addition, they are entitled to the best cultivation resources in Infernal Court, so the probability of attaining Godhood is very high.

“Ten to twenty percent of them could attain Godhood within a thousand years after being selected as the Scion and Scioness.

“For those who haven’t attained godhood within a thousand years, even if they step down from their positions, most of them are already elites among Supreme Saints. With their long lifespans, many of them can still attain Godhood afterward.

“As for whoever attains Godhood, dies or exists in other states, that is a tightly guarded secret of the Fane of Destiny. Only those at the highest level know about it.

“The most important reason why everyone is fighting for the position of the Scioness is because of the power and influence that they wield.

“Unless an extremely important event happens, the gods of the Fane of Destiny won’t ask about anything in Infernal Court. Everything was handled by the Scioness and the twelve black-robed high priests. The power of the Scioness is above that of the twelve black-robed high priests. She represents the will of the gods.”

Zhang Ruochen sighed to himself. These Scion and Scioness were the seeds of god selected by the Fane of Destiny. They possessed the most outstanding talents. After thousands of years of training, any one of them could be the lord of the Fane of Destiny.

There were many unfathomable secrets concealed by the Fane of Destiny

The more he thought about it, the more fearful he felt.

Zhang Ruochen was curious and asked, “Your talent is the best among your peers, and you believe in fate and destiny. So why didn’t you become a candidate for the Scioness?”

“You finally praised me once. Not bad.”

Luo Sha smiled charmingly and pursed her red lips slightly, and said, “My talents, beauty, and my ability to comprehend are not inferior to the other three candidates competing for the position of Scioness. I could have been a candidate.

Unfortunately, I heard that in the thousand years after becoming a Scioness, one must give up on love and lust, so I gave up on competing with them.”

Zhang Ruochen looked into her eyes, trying to figure whether she was telling the truth or not.

Luo Sha smiled cunningly at Zhang Ruochen and added, “In fact, the most important thing that I want to see is who is my destined one in the prophecy. How will he enter into my life? What if he suddenly appears when I become the Scioness of Destiny?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that Luo Sha was teasing him again, so he looked away and said with a straight face, “Boring.”

A Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint from the Realm of Star Ocean arrived and stopped the two groups of people led by Pan Ruo and Lady Wind. He led them to two pavilions by the lake to rest.

There was only one pavilion between the two pavilions.

It was the one Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha were resting in.

Pan Ruo, and the Deathkin and Nether Clan cultivators were on the left.

The cultivators under Lady Wind were on the right side.

Even though they were separated, the two groups of people were still facing each other. It was as if they were fighting with their thoughts as the surrounding air trembled.

Occasionally, murderous intent would fall on Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Sha was very calm. She introduced Zhang Ruochen to the Hundred-Shackle Realm elites in Lady Wind's camp, saying, "That guy with golden hair is the strongest warrior below the Thousand-Koan Realm of the Immortal Vampires. He is Lord Bladehell, and you must be wary of him."

"Why?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, "Although he is exceptionally gifted, he is very narrow-minded and has an overly high opinion of himself. He can not tolerate heroes who are more outstanding than him. Your appearance will steal his limelight among the Immortal Vampires. If there is a chance, he will give you trouble or humiliate you in public. There is no doubt that he will suppress you, who is known as the genius that appears once per Yuanhui period."

Zhang Ruochen stared at her deeply. Luo Sha was certainly right about Lord Bladehell.

Not long ago, Lord Bladehell had deliberately sent the invitation to Lord Xia Yu by mistake, which let Zhang Ruochen see through his character.

Luo Fu continued, "Do you see that burly man shining with divine light and a mane of hair like a lion? He is of a different breed because he doesn't belong to the lower three clans, but belongs to the Stone Clan instead. Yet, he stands firmly on Lady Wind's side."

"The Mad Whitejade Lion?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"It's that mad lion."

Luo Sha smiled, and continued, "Other cultivators only assist the candidate of the Scioness for the benefit of their clans. But he only went up to Lady Wind for her sake, and even said publicly that he was willing to be Lady Wind's bearer for the rest of his life."

Zhang Ruochen was stunned for a moment. He shook his head slightly and said, "No wonder he's known as 'the mad lion.'"

"If you think he's crazy, you're wrong. How crazy can a creature that can achieve Supreme Sainthood be?" Luo Sha replied.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You mean Lady Wind plays her cards well?"

"To be able to have a Supreme Saint — who has achieved Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm — as a willing mount, Lady Wind plays her cards very skilfully.

"If Lady Wind becomes a true Scioness, she will immediately hold great authority. Her mount would be her most trusted aide with much influence over the Fane of Destiny."

Luo Sha then threw out a question. "In your opinion, between Pan Ruo — who is yet a Supreme Saint — and Lady Wind — who has already achieved the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, whose chance of becoming a Scioness is greater?"

Zhang Ruochen remained silent.

Luo Sha smiled and continued, "It's impossible for the Stone Clan to bet all their chips on Pan Ruo. My guess is that the Mad Whitejade Lion is most likely a chess piece that they've planted on Lady Wind's side. Lady Wind might let down her guard as she thought she had fully controlled the Mad Whitejade Lion. Hence, no one can tell for sure who will end up being the 'mount'!"

The interests involved in the Celestial-Hunting Festival and the selection of the Scioness were complicated. Any force and any cultivators who participated in them would pay full attention to them.

Lady Wind's junior brother, Yan Beijun, came to the pavilion. He cupped his hands and said, "Lord Ruochen, Princess Luo Sha, my senior sister sincerely invites you two to have a chat."

Luo Sha glanced towards Zhang Ruochen to see his response.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I came to the Realm of Star Ocean to buy items for cultivation. I also want to see the various treasures at the auction. If Lady Wind wants to become friends with me, we can arrange another time and place for the both of us, just not today."

Yan Beijun listened attentively to her reply via spiritual power and replied, "My sister said that she could pay for all the items that Supreme Saint Ruochen bought at the Realm of Star Ocean."

"Is that so... What if I bid for the divine corpse?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yan Beijun's face froze and immediately relaxed again, saying, "You must be joking, Supreme Saint Ruochen. Please believe my sister's sincerity. She really wants to make friends with you."

"I'm not joking. I'm really interested in the divine corpse," Zhang Ruochen said.

Laughter could be heard from the pavilions on both sides.

Lord Sinluo said, "What a coincidence, I have orders from my father too, which is that I have to buy the divine corpse no matter what. Zhang Ruochen, how many Godstones do you have to bid for the divine corpse?"

Wu Jiang said, "As far as I know, the Xue Jue family has recently obtained the body of a false deity. There is probably no need to buy the divine corpse for the time being."

Zhang Ruochen said calmly, "My purchase of the divine corpse has nothing to do with the Xue Jue family."

The laughter in the pavilion where the Deathkin and the Nether Clan were located grew louder.

No one believed that Zhang Ruochen could buy the divine corpse with his financial resources without relying on his family and deities.

At this moment, Supreme Saint Sanjin and three attendants walked over and entered the pavilion.

“Great Saint Ruochen, the ten Earth Grade Implement Nurturing Pills, ten Heaven Grade Implement Nurturing Pills, and 50 Heaven Grade damaging pills that you want are all here. They are worth a total of seven Godstones.”

Following that, Sanjin Supreme Saint spread out his right hand.

A speck of light appeared in the center of his palm.

The speck of light grew larger and larger. Finally, it turned into a lotus about ten feet in diameter. There were a total of 12 petals. Each petal was crystal clear, emitting a pungent fragrance.

Upon seeing this Lotus of Divine Reflection, all the cultivators present turned their gazes over.

Lord Sinluo’s eyes shone with excitement, and he blurted abruptly, “That’s a 100,000-year-old Lotus of Divine Reflection.”

With that, Sanjin Supreme Saints handed the Lotus of Divine Reflection to Zhang Ruochen and took out a spherical, translucent spatial treasure. There were a total of 12 stellar cores in the spatial treasure.

One level-six stellar core, five level-five stellar cores, and six level-four stellar cores.

“Supreme Saint Ruochen, all the treasures you asked for add up to a total of 353 Godstones,” Supreme Saint Sanjin announced.

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, "Put them down. I want all of them."

Then, Supreme Saint Sanjin took out the cultivation resources that Luo Sha wanted to buy one by one and put them on the table. They were worth 24 Godstones in total.

Luo Sha took a cursory glance and said, "I want all of them too. Put them all on him."

Supreme Saint Sanjin smiled awkwardly and looked at Zhang Ruochen.

24 Godstones wasn't a small amount. A Supreme Saint like Xue Tu had to sell his fiefdom to get it.

"Your Wheel of the Nether Sun is so valuable, but you can't even bear to give up 24 Godstones? If I make a scene at the auction, will the auction price of the Wheel of the Nether Sun get lower?" Luo Sha secretly transmitted her thoughts to Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Sha was very angry that he hadn't sold the Wheel of the Nether Sun to her.

If she wanted to make a scene at the auction, she could simply spread the news that the auctioneer of the Wheel of the Nether Sun was Zhang Ruochen. This would greatly affect the price it fetched.

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, "Her purchase is on me."

There was an uproar in the pavilions on both sides.

Buying treasures that cost hundreds of Godstones in a single time was already a big deal for Supreme Saints in the Neverwilt Realm and Hundred-Shackle Realm. It was even more unthinkable for the monks in the Saint Kingdom Realm.

Of course, what made them more concerned was the relationship between Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha.

The fact that he could buy cultivation resources that cost 24 Godstones for Luo Sha without hesitation could mean that Zhang Ruochen was pursuing Luo Sha to ally with Devala.

No one could overlook the power of the Divine Prince, Luo Shengtian.

This was bad news for Zhang Ruochen's enemies.

Pan Ruo looked at Luo Sha again. She was calm and indifferent, but her eyes lingered on Luo Sha's face for a long time as she sized her up carefully.

Lady Wind fell silent.

At the same time, Yan Beijun retreated.

After a long while.. Scion Yuan Mo said indifferently, "Zhang Ruochen plundered a lot of treasures on the Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun. What's a few hundred Godstones? If you kill Zhang Ruochen and take all his treasures, you will find that his wealth is comparable to those of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint."

Ding!

Ding!

...

The bell rang seven times.

The auction was about to begin.

A group of cultivators by the lake hurriedly flew, rushing to the auction house.

The auction house in the Realm of Star Ocean was immense. It was an Annulus World hovering in midair. It was a spiral-shaped ring. The diameter of the circle was about 40 miles, and it was divided into three levels.

Each level was built with green mountains, lush pools, stairs, and jade towers. There were also flower beds and seats for distinguished guests.

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha flew to the top level of the Annulus World.

The moment they landed, there came an angry roar from afar. "Zhang Ruochen, stay away from my sister. Are you looking to die?"

Divine Prince Luo Shengtian possessed a towering frame. His footsteps were hurried, and his face was full of anger. Even though he was suppressed by the precepts of heaven and earth, power erupted constantly from his body. His right fist glowed with a scorching evil blaze.

Behind Luo Shengtian, there were more than a dozen elites of the Luo Sha clan brimming with murderous intent.

Zhang Ruochen frowned deeply. He looked at Luo Sha beside him and said, "Go and explain to your royal brother. I didn't do anything to you."

Zhang Ruochen took the opportunity to leave. He didn't want to be blackmailed by Luo Sha again. In the blink of an eye, he vanished into the endless stream of people.

Luo Sha had no other option but to face Luo Shengtian and she sighed to herself.

"Where's that b*stard Zhang Ruochen. Little sister, did he make things difficult for you? Is it because of what happened in the Arena of Life and Death that he has a grudge against you and wants revenge?"

Luo Shengtian wanted to chase after Zhang Ruochen, but he was stopped by Luo Sha.

"Even if he has the courage, Zhang Ruochen would not dare to do anything to me... Royal brother, restrain your power first. This is an auction house. Do not draw out the order keepers of the Realm of the Star Ocean and delay the proper business," Luo Sha said.

Luo Shengtian snorted. "Although Zhang Ruochen doesn't dare to do anything to you in the Divine Domain of Destiny, he is undoubtedly a cocky b*stard who ignores rules. You have old grudges with him, so you must be careful in the future. After the auction, I will find an opportunity to give him a warning."

"In the past, on the Battlefield of Merits, it's fine. But after coming to Infernal Court, if he dares to humiliate you again, I will make sure he dies without a burial place."

Chapter 2250: Fugue Pill

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Not long after leaving with Luo Sha, Zhang Ruochen saw Xue Tu and the six Supreme Saints of Mara from afar. They seemed to be arguing.

The six Supreme Saints led by Warlord Mara had taken some sacred medicine. Their bodies recovered and were no longer shriveled. However, the aura emanating from their bodies was still very weak.

“More than 90 percent of their Saint blood has been taken away. How can they recover so quickly? As expected of being Supreme Saints.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes flickered, and he walked over.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen, Xue Tu was overjoyed. He walked over quickly as if he had found support. “Senior, the Supreme Saints of Mara Family refused to admit defeat. They are picking on me. Good to see you here. Do you want to teach them a lesson?”

Enemies see red the moment they meet.

The six Supreme Saints of the Mara family were all furious. They released their Saint Aura and surrounded Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen stared at them indifferently. “I advise you to restrain yourselves. You’re no match for me even in your best state, let alone now. It is not easy to cultivate your blood back. If I drain you of blood again, it’ll be hard for you to regain your combat strength before Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

His words sent shivers to the six Supreme Saints, and they stopped in their track.

Warlord Mara gritted his teeth and stomped his feet. “Zhang Ruochen, sooner or later, I’ll eat you alive. We’ll see.”

Staring at Zhang Ruochen for a long time, he waved his hand. “Let’s go.”

“Senior, you’re still so intimidating. You scared the six Supreme Saints away with just one sentence,” Xue Tu said with a smile.

Zhang Ruochen looked confused. “Why are you here? Don’t tell me that you have a lot of Saint Stones and Divine Stones?”

Xue Tu’s expression changed. “No, I can’t even take out a single Divine Stone. I’m just here to see how much I can sell my fiefdom if I auctioned it,”

“I see. Good. Come with me,”

Zhang Ruochen brought Xue Tu to a VIP seat on the top floor of Annulus World.

The seat was built on the edge of a cliff and took up a 30-meter-wide area.

Standing on the edge of the cliff, one could see the auction stage floating in the center of Annulus World.

The auction stage was square-shaped, like a white stone plaza. There was a palace on it, and a large number of attendants were walking around.

“I’ve bought a few things in Realm of Star Ocean. I’m going to examine them. Later, if any rare items appear in the auction, you can help me buy them first.”

Zhang Ruochen took out Violet Gourd and branched out another avatar.

He placed Violet Gourd on the ground. The avatar sat cross-legged next to the Gourd to protect it. His true body turned into a speck of light and flew into the Gourd.

Violet Gourd looked very ordinary, so Xue Tu didn’t pay much attention to it.

When his original body entered the gourd, Zhang Ruochen took out a 100,000-year-old Lotus of Divine Reflection.

The 12 petals were 10 meters in diameter. They gave off bright light and contained powerful vitality. The light enveloped the surrounding space.

Sitting cross-legged on Lotus of Divine Reflection, Zhang Ruochen tried to condensed a Fist Saintwill again.

...

The auction officially began. A Supreme Saint Ghost, who was hundreds of feet tall, walked out from the auction platform floating in the air.

"I am Qiluo, the seventh auction merchant of Realm of Star Ocean. Welcome to the monthly auction in Realm of Star Ocean.

"The items in this auction are all top-tier treasures. Even the lowest value item is worth a one billion Saint stones, which is one Divine Stone."

The Supreme Saint Ghost named Qiluo introduced the rules of the auction. Then he announced, "The auction officially begins. I hereby present you the first item of today's auction, a Second-grade Regal Artifact, Parashu."

Xue Tu, who was sitting on a White skeleton chair spat a mouthful of Blood Spring after he just drunk it a second ago.

"What's going on? How did Parashu appear on the auction stage in Realm of Star Ocean?" Xue Tu was stunned. He turned his head and stared at Zhang Ruochen's avatar.

How ruthless.

He wondered how Warlord Mara felt when he saw his battle weapon being sent onto the auction stage.

Xue Tu gloated and looked around for Warlord Mara.

There was no need to look.

Warlord Mara roared in the auction hall, "Zhang Ruochen, I will fight you to death!"

Countless eyes looked toward the VIP seats where Warlord Mara was. Some were confused, some mocked, and some sympathized.

Amidst the discussions, those cultivators who did not understand the full situation only then knew what had happened on Arena of Life and Death.

“Silence,” Supreme Saint Qiluo released his ghostly aura and shouted.

The auction house quieted down.

At the same time, two Saint-King level Ghost Lords with great strength carried Parashu to the center of the auction stage.

Supreme Saint Qiluo said, “I believe that everyone knows the value of a Second-grade Regal Artifact without my introduction. What’s worth mentioning is that Parashu was a weapon that Majya used before. It was then passed on to his son, Warlord Mara.”

Hearing the name of Majya, Warlord Mara was completely furious. He almost could not control himself and charge onto the auction stage.

It was fine if he embarrassed himself.

If he said his father’s name, wouldn’t Majya be humiliated as well?

Pan Ruo, Wu Jiang, Lord Sinluo, Scion Yuan Mo, and a large group of cultivators gathered in the same VIP seats. Many of them sniggered.

Wu Jiang said, “I suddenly feel that making so many enemies isn’t necessarily a bad thing for Zhang Ruochen. At least, there will always be an opponent offering treasures. Zhang Ruochen can be this wealthy thanks to the spoils he earns from every battle he fights.”

“One would easily die tragically if they make many enemies all over the world. It’s a miracle that Zhang Ruochen can survive until now,” Lord Sinluo said.

Scion Yuan Mo said, “Zhang Ruochen’s action is stupid. He has greatly offended the Mara family just for a small profit.”

Pan Ruo listened to their comments quietly. After a long time, she said, “The deities need a cultivator like Zhang Ruochen to hone the Supreme Saints of Infernal Court. Isn’t it going according to their expectations now?”

Wu Jiang said, “Whether Zhang Ruochen is qualified to be the gods’ saber depends on whether he can live until Celestial-Hunting Festival ends. Right now, he is not even a knife.”

On the auction stage.

Supreme Saint Qiluo said, “The starting price for Parashu is 80 Divine Stones. Each increment must not be less than one Divine Stone.

“Let the bidding begin.”

“80 Divine Stones,” Warlord Mara was the first to bid.

“85 Divine Stones.”

...

“90 Divine Stones.”

“100 Divine Stones.”

...

In an instant, the price of Parashu soared to more than 100 Divine Stones.

It was obvious that not all the cultivators present were going to let go of the chance to buy Parashu for the Mara family’s sake. There were still many Supreme Saints who wanted to buy a Second-grade Regal Artifact to increase their battle powers.

Xue Tu was enjoying himself. He shouted from time to time and raised the price of Parashu.

In the end, Parashu was bought back by Warlord Mara at the price of 162 Divine Stones.

“I can’t believe how profitable it is to snatch a weapon. One Parashu is worth more than all my fiefdoms combined,” Xue Tu thought to himself.

Following that, the other seven Regal Artifacts of the Mara family were presented on the auction stage one by one. They were all Grade one Regal Artifacts. Adding them up, they only sold for 240 Divine Stones.

Supreme Saint Qiluo walked to the center of the auction stage once again. Behind him were ten attendants dressed in white. Each of them was holding a small red copper cauldron.

“Next, we will be auctioning ten cauldrons of Fugue Pills. Each cauldron contains 100 pills.

“Fugue Pills are half-King Grade Sacred Pills. They can support a Supreme Saint in Hundred-Shackle Realm in breaking the shackles in his body. Consuming one pill can at least help a Supreme Saint break one shackle.”

The enthusiasm of the auction house was aroused.

Celestial-Hunting Festival was about to begin. All the cultivators who attended the Festival tried their best to increase their cultivation.

Among them, Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint was the main force of Celestial-Hunting Festival. They played a decisive role. Those who were stronger would have a greater advantage.

The use and significance of Fugue Pill were extraordinary.

Lord Bladehell said, “No matter what, I must buy one cauldron of Fugue Pills on behalf of Qitian Clan. If we succeed, the overall strength of Qitian Clan will increase by a large margin.”

“There’s still a month before Celestial-Hunting Festival. If I can get a cauldron of Fugue Pills and let the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints of Yellowsky Clan take it, their strength will definitely increase,” Lady Wind thought.

In the end, Yellowsky Clan was her clan.

On the other side, the cultivators of the upper three tribes were also discussing this matter.

Pan Ruo said, “Fugue Pills will play a decisive role in Celestial-Hunting Festival. It’s precisely why Realm of Star Ocean is taking them out to auction.

“It’s only a half-King Grade Sacred Pill. But in the end, its price will definitely surpass the price of a King Grade Sacred Pill due to the high number of bidders.

“The lower three clans and the middle three clans will definitely fight for it. Among them, Lady Wind and Pink Skull will be the main force. We need to buy at least four cauldrons of Fugue Pills to gain an advantage.”

Scion Yuan Mo was full of confidence, “Pan Ruo, don’t worry. No matter how high the price is, I will definitely get one cauldron.”

Wu Jiang crossed his arms in front of his chest and smiled. He said indifferently, “Not long ago, my eldest senior gave me a Godstone quarry. Every year, it can produce at least ten Divine Stones. To me, Divine Stones are just a number. If it’s possible, I want to get half of the Fugue Pills and give it to Pan Ruo. No, give it to her highness Scioness.”

The cultivators of the upper three clans all laughed with great confidence.

If you had money, you could be willful.

Wu Jiang’s status was noble. His master was the oldest deity in Fane of Darkness. Few of his seniors were deities. The things they simply give him were enough to make a top Supreme Saint jealous.

The forces of the ten clans of Infernal Court were all eager to obtain Fugue Pill.

Zhang Ruochen’s avatar opened his eyes and said to Xue Tu, “Bid for Fugue Pills.”

Xue Tu asked, “Fugue Pills are treasures that all the forces are fighting for. Their prices must be sky-high. Can we beat them?”

“The Divine Stones are not a problem. You can name the price,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu’s expression became strange. He said warily, “Senior, are you trying to trick me? I can’t even afford a Fugue Pill, let alone a cauldron. If you don’t give me the Divine Stone after bidding, what if Realm of Star Ocean locks me up?”

Zhang Ruochen was speechless. “Don’t worry. I won’t trick you. This amount of Divine Stones is nothing to me.”

“Wait a minute. I want to reflect your words as evidence,”

Xue Tu took out a scroll and said to Zhang Ruochen, “Senior, I have to treat this matter seriously. Please say it again to the rolled-up sleeve. Bidding for Fugue Pills has nothing to do with Xue Tu. I, Zhang Ruochen, want to buy it.”

Zhang Ruochen’s energy was almost completely focused on condensing the Saintwill. He was too lazy to talk to him, so he just casually replied.

Then, Xue Tu asked, “Senior, how many cauldrons do you want to buy?”

“The more the better,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu carefully rolled up the scroll and kept it close to his body. Then, he secretly glanced at Zhang Ruochen and found that his avatar had closed its eyes again.

“Zhang Ruochen, you asked me to bid as much as I want. If that’s the case, I won’t hold back!”

Xue Tu was in high spirits. He rolled up his sleeves and prepared to go all out.

It wasn’t his Divine Stones anyway. Hence, he could bid as much as he wanted with no pressure. It was best to buy all ten cauldrons of Fugue Pills at a high price and throw them into Zhang Ruochen’s hands. He would screw him over.

Thinking of this, Xue Tu almost laughed out loud.

“The first cauldron of Fugue Pills has a total of 100. The starting price is 100 Divine Stones.”

“Each increment must be no less than 10 Divine Stones.”

“Let the bidding begin.”

...

“300 Divine Stones.”

Lord Bladehell was the first to raise the price three times. He wanted to make the final decision and also tell all bidders his determination.

Many bidders were indeed stunned.

The bidders from the lower three clans chose to give up and make way for him.

However, the cultivators from the middle three clans and upper three clans didn't buy it.

Scion Yuan Mo said, "350 Divine Stones."

"400 Divine Stones."

"420 Divine Stones."

...

The price of the first cauldron of Fugue Pills quickly exceeded 500 Divine Stones in this intense competition. The price of a single pill was comparable to an ordinary King Grade Sacred Pill.

"600 Divine Stones."

"630 Divine Stones."

"700 Divine Stones."

...

These bidders didn't represent themselves, but the power behind them. Naturally, the price shot up.

Only when the price exceeded 1,000 Divine Stones did the noise of the bidding begin to decrease.

After all, a cauldron of Fugue Pills for a thousand Divine Stones was already twice the price of an ordinary King Grade Sacred Pill. No matter how rich the various powers were, they did not want to be taken advantage of by Realm of Star Ocean.

Fugue Pill was only the most suitable pill for a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint to increase his cultivation level. It was not the only one.

Pan Ruo placed her hands behind her back and a deep look appeared in her eyes. She said, "Fugue Pill's price can at most reach three times the price of a King Grade Sacred Pill. With that, it will scare everyone away."

Hearing this, Scion Yuan Mo immediately shouted, "I bid 1,500 Divine Stones."

The entire auction house quieted down.

The gazes of all cultivators were fixed on Scion Yuan Mo.

“For a cauldron of Fugue Pills, they actually bid 1,500 Divine Stones. Fane of Yuan Tian is really rich.

“1,500 Divine Stones is too high. Fugue Pills aren’t worth this price. Fane of Yuan Tian would be in the red, they can only use the wealth of other properties to make up for it.”

Lord Bladehell’s brows were tightly knitted together. The price that Scion Yuan Mo had shouted out had already exceeded the price he was willing to pay.

Lady Wind shook her head at him. She said, “It’s just the first cauldron of Fugue Pills. There’s no need to continue fighting. 1,500 Divine Stones are enough to bankrupt a Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. From now on, it will be very difficult for them to win against us.”

While Lord Bladehell was still hesitating, a loud voice came.

“2,000 Divine Stones.”

Pan Ruo, Scion Yuan Mo, and the other cultivators from the upper three clans thought that the cauldron was in their bag. Who would have thought that there would be another troublemaker along the way?

Xue Tu saw that all the cultivators were looking at him, he laughed, “2,000 Divine Stones. Is there anyone with a higher price? Everyone, hurry up and bid. Fugue Pill, the half-King Grade Sacred Pill. It’s a pill that can allow a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint to break through at the fastest speed. Hurry up and raise the price.”

Scion Yuan Mo was so angry that his face turned red. He gritted his teeth and wanted to slap Xue Tu.

You have already raised the price to 2,000 Divine Stones, yet you still want others to raise the price. Did Realm of Star Ocean make you a fake bidder? Or are you here to trick people on purpose?

Chapter 2251: Setting up the mood

“2,000 Godstones, sold.”

Supreme Saint Qiluo smiled. The first cauldron of the Fugue Pills was sold at a price that far exceeded his expectations.

As the number of the Fugue Pills decreased, a higher price might appear.

Next, the second cauldron of the Fugue Pills was auctioned.

The auction had just begun, then Yuan Mo shouted, “1,500 Godstones.”

Instantly, the entire place went silent.

What was he trying to do?

The starting price of 100 Godstones skyrocketed the first time it was called out. He did not give anyone the chance to call out the price.

Yuan Mo’s expression was cold, and he said, “I am determined to obtain this batch of Fugue Pills. I hope that everyone can give me some face. Otherwise, even if the price is higher than 2,000 Godstones, I will fight it out with you all to the end.”

1,500 Godstones exceeded the minimum price of most cultivators present.

Yuan Mo wanted to please Pan Ruoyao, so he paid a sky-high price to buy a cauldron of Fugue Pills. The number of cultivators who dared to raise the price is just a handful.

“Yuan Mo has used up his financial resources to buy this cauldron of Fugue Pills.”

“The Divine Hall of Yuan Tian will give him a budget of 1,000 Godstones at most. He will have to pay for the remaining 500 Godstones. I think he will have to empty all his gains in the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun.”

“I don’t know whether to call him stupid or infatuated. He will pay any price for the sake of Pan Ruoyao.”

...

The main bidders of the three middle and lower clans all gave up. They did not want to clash directly with the Yuan Mo. If they bid above 2,000 Godstones, they would lose more than they gained.

Yuan Mo heaved a sigh of relief after he saw all the cultivators did not raise their bids.

If a fellow came out and argued with him and bid above 2,000 Godstones, Yuan Mo would still owe a huge debt even if he was able to bid the Fugue Pills.

Paying off the debt would take him decades or even a hundred years.

Following that, his cultivation speed at the Neverwilt Realm would be rather slow.

If one wished to hasten their cultivation in the Supreme Saint Realm, they would need a large number of Godstones to support it.

“2,000 Godstones.”

Another domineering voice resounded throughout the auction hall.

Yuan Mo’s eyes were bloodshot, and his hair stood on end. He glared at Xue Tu as if he wanted to eat him up. He said, “You still dare to bid? Do you even have 2,000 Godstones?”

Xue Tu sat on the chair and calmly stared at him. He then said, “Since I dare to bid, that means I have the Godstones. Yuan Mo, didn’t you say that you want to fight to the end? Continue to bid, and I’ll fight with you.”

“You...”

Yuan Mo pointed at Xue Tu as he grinds his teeth until almost breaking.

“Are you going to fight or not? You’re a Scion after all, and one of the top geniuses of our generation. Was 2,000 Godstones too much for you?” Xue Tu said.

In the Saint King Realm, Xue Tu was also a top-notch figure. However, he was slightly inferior to Yuan Mo...

Being looked down upon by a cultivator who was once inferior to him, Yuan Mo was furious. He only felt that he had suffered great humiliation.

Xue Tu frowned and urged him in an encouraging tone, “Come on, try adding a little more. You might be able to buy this cauldron of Fugue Pills. Just add a little more.”

Yuan Mo was fighting fiercely in his heart. He glanced at Pan Ruo and finally mustered up his courage. He had to take this cauldron of Fugue Pills no matter what.

“2,010 Godstones.” Yuan Mo shouted as he clenched his fists tightly and his entire body was trembling.

He owed a huge debt to buy this cauldron of Fugue Pills.

However, as long as he could win Pan Ruo’s smile, everything was worth it.

“2,500 Godstones,” Xue Tu shouted leisurely.

Yuan Mo felt as if he had been struck by lightning. He almost spat out a mouthful of Saint blood and roared angrily, “Are you kidding me?”

Xue Tu was puzzled and said, “What do you mean? I only asked you to add a little more, but I didn’t say that I would give this cauldron of Fugue Pills to you. If you aren’t satisfied, why don’t you... add a little more?”

The hatred in Yuan Mo’s heart had reached an extreme level. He felt that Xue Tu was deliberately toying with him. Furthermore, Xue Tu was deliberately making him lose face in front of all the cultivators.

“Well then, I shall remember what happened today. Don’t let yourself fall into my hands someday.” Yuan Mo said.

After a moment of silence, Supreme Saint Qiluo announced, “The second cauldron of the Fugue Pill is sold for 2,500 Godstones.”

After bidding for two cauldrons of Fugue Pills at a sky-high price, Xue Tu’s name and background quickly spread throughout the auction hall. Everyone was talking about it.

“Xue Tu was probably representing the Bloodysky Clan.”

“It seems that the Bloodysky Clan has invested a lot this time. They were determined to win the Celestial-hunting Festival.”

“There shouldn’t be many Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints of the Bloodysky Clan participating in the Celestial-hunting Festival. One cauldron of Fugue Pills can not be used up. Why would they buy two cauldrons?”

“Who knows? Maybe Xue Tu made a fortune on the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun and he’s prepared to buy one cauldron and use it when he’s in the Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

...

There were all kinds of speculations in the auction.

The six Supreme Saints of the Mara Family had seen Zhang Ruochen leave with Xue Tu. They guessed that it was Zhang Ruochen who had bought the Fugue Pills.

Warlord Mara said, “Zhang Ruochen swept Kunlun’s Battlefield of Merits clean and got a lot of treasures and wealth. He must be the one who bought the Fugue Pill.”

“I knew it. If not, why did Xue Tu suddenly become so rich? He must be spending the Godstones on behalf.”

Twarita Mara had her doubts and said, “Have you noticed that Xue Tu is unusual? He seems to want everyone to increase the price. If he didn’t provoke Yuan Mo just now, he would be able to get the second cauldron of Fugue Pill with 2,000 Godstones. When Yuan Mo added 10 Godstones, he suddenly increased the price to 2,500 Godstones. No matter how many Godstones there are, he shouldn’t waste them like this.”

Warlord Mara thought he had figured out the reason. He smiled and said, “If Zhang Ruochen is the one who bought the Fugue Pill, why didn’t he bid personally?”

“You mean Zhang Ruochen isn’t at the auction?” A Supreme Saint guessed.

Warlord Mara said, “That’s the only explanation. Zhang Ruochen had something important to do. He left the auction and left the bidding to Xue Tu.”

“But Xue Tu and Zhang Ruochen have a huge conflict as far as I know.”

A Supreme Saint of the Mara Family patted the table and said, “I’ve got it! Xue Tu wants to take advantage of the auction to trick Zhang Ruochen. It’s equivalent to seeking revenge.”

Warlord Mara nodded with a smile. He stared at the VIP seats where Xue Tu was sitting and said, “We’ll know whether it’s the truth if we keep watching.”

The bid for the third cauldron of Fugue Pills was about to begin.

That time, Xue Tu seemed to have lost his patience. He was the first to bid and shouted, “2,000 Godstones.”

Countless cultivators had the urge to curse after hearing that.

He was too greedy. Was he trying to buy all the Fugue Pills?

Even Supreme Saint Qiluo, who was in charge of the auction, suspected that Xue Tu was here to cause trouble. How could a Supreme Saint who had just entered the Neverwilt Realm take out thousands of Godstones?

Even those cultivators who had entered the Supreme Saint Realm for thousands of years might not be able to take out that much.

It was not until Supreme Saint Qiluo heard Supreme Saint Sanjin’s voice transmission did he heave a sigh of relief.

The third cauldron of the Fugue Pills was finally bought by Xue Tu with 2,000 Godstones.

When the fourth cauldron was auctioned off, Xue Tu was the first to bid for 2,000 Godstones. However, this time, Wu Jiang tried to raise the price twice. In the end, Xue Tu spent 2,500 Godstones to bid for it.

For the fifth cauldron, Wu Jiang placed another bid. He even raised the price to 2,700 Godstones.

However, Xue Tu bid for it once again at the price of 3,000 Godstones.

Not only did Wu Jiang not give up, he even laughed and said, “As expected, the person bidding for the Fugue Pill isn’t Xue Tu, but someone else.”

Yuan Mo said, “What do you mean it’s not Xue Tu?”

“No matter how stupid Xue Tu is, he would not bid like this,” Wu Jiang said.

Yuan Mo agreed and said, “There is indeed a problem. However, even if you are bidding for someone else, you would not bid so recklessly.”

“Just now, everyone could see that you were deliberately raising the price to trick him. However, he did not seem to care at all and suddenly raised the price to 3,000 Godstones.”

Lord Sinluo said, “Why do you care so much? Since Xue Tu is so arrogant, why don’t we raise the price to see how many Godstones he can’t spend.”

The cultivators of the upper three clans were so angry that they were about to explode. They were holding back their anger.

Since Xue Tu did not care about Godstones, they could only let him spend more.

On the other side, Warlord Mara laughed loudly. “As expected, Xue Tu wants to trick Zhang Ruochen. If that’s the case, how can I not cooperate?”

The other five Supreme Saints of the Mara Family laughed mockingly.

The sixth cauldron of Fugue Pill began to bid.

“2,000 Godstones.” Xue Tu was the first to bid again.

Wu Jiang called out, “2,500 Godstones.”

“3,000 Godstones,” Warlord Mara said.

Xue Tu was a little surprised. Why did everyone suddenly bid so generously?

It was completely different from the cautious tone before.

However, this was exactly what he wanted. He was secretly happy. “You should have done this a long time ago. If you didn't bid too high, how could you hurt Zhang Ruochen?"

"3,500 Godstones," Xue Tu shouted excitedly.

"4,000 Godstones," Wu Jiang said.

Warlord Mara said, "4,500 Godstones."

"5,000 Godstones," Xue Tu said.

The cultivators in the auction house were all shocked.

Was this bidding for a cauldron of Fugue Pills?

Was this cauldron of Fugue Pills only a Half-King Grade Saint Pill?

"6,000."

"7,000."

"8,000."

...

The bidding price shot up like a straight line.

Xue Tu, Wu Jiang, and Warlord Mara seemed to have forgotten that the units behind the numbers were Godstones. They directly called out the numbers and shouted happily.

"10,000."

The moment he shouted out that price, Xue Tu suddenly woke up and his body shook violently.

What did he just do?

10,000 what? Godstones?

Xue Tu cursed inwardly. Whether it was 2,000 Godstones for a cauldron or 3,000 Godstones for a cauldron, it was still within the range that he could explain to Zhang Ruochen.

10,000 Godstones were far more valuable than the Fugue Pills. How could Zhang Ruochen not know that he was deliberately setting him up?

When Xue Tu thought of Zhang Ruochen's terrifying methods, his pleasant feeling just now was swept away. He began to feel worried and fearful. He regretted that he had acted so recklessly and he should have stopped.

Just as Xue Tu was in extreme pain and was about to despair, Warlord Mara's voice rang out. "11,000 pills."

That voice was like heavenly music. It was extremely moving.

Xue Tu's eyes lit up. He stood up like lightning and said, "This cauldron of Fugue Pills belongs to you. I don't want it anymore. Congratulations to you. The Mara Family is worthy of being an ancient family. Their heroism is admirable."

At that moment, Warlord Mara was jolted awake. He asked the Mara Family's Supreme Saints beside him, "How much did I shout out just now?"

The Mara Family Supreme Saints were all in a daze. Their bodies felt numb and they could not open their mouths.

The muscles on Twarita Mara's stiff face twitched twice and she said, "11,000 Godstones."

Warlord Mara felt as if his soul was about to dissipate. He stared at Wu Jiang as if he was trying to grab hold of the last life-saving straw, he said, "You... you can add a little more. You can try adding a little more. Even if it's 10 Godstones, I will give this cauldron of Fugue Pills to you."

Wu Jiang did not say a word. He only gave him a look that said, "Do you think I'm an idiot?"

Just now, Wu Jiang had also been brought into the mood by Xue Tu and Warlord Mara. He almost blurted out 12,000 Godstones. Fortunately, Xue Tu opened his mouth first and announced that he would not bid again, which woke him up.

Although Wu Jiang had a Godstone Quarry, it would still take a thousand years to produce 10,000 Godstones.

Yuan Mo's forehead was covered in a cold sweat. He said, "Xue Tu is indeed deceiving us. He was completely misleading us."

"Do you think Xue Tu was scheming with the Realm of Star Ocean? The price of the sixth cauldron of Fugue Pills is already worth ten cauldrons of Fugue Pills.” Someone was skeptical.

“Fortunately, I didn’t fall for it. If I were to be cheated out of more than 10,000 Godstones, I’m afraid I’ll have to pay my debts for the next thousand years.”

“11,000 Godstones is equivalent to eleven trillion saint stones. It was more than enough for the Mara Family to nurture many saint cultivators. This is a fatal mistake.”

“Warlord Mara is too pitiful. Spending 11,000 Godstones to buy a cauldron of Fugue Pills will become a joke in the entire Infernal Court.”

“After making such a huge mistake, Warlord Mara’s future is at stake. The Mara Family will not focus on nurturing him. They will likely take back his title, Mara.”

Warlord Mara realized the severity of the consequences. He looked at Supreme Saint Qiluo with a pleading gaze.

Supreme Saint Qiluo shook his head. There was no reason for him to regret his bid at the auction. How could the Realm of Star Ocean be a place for him to cause trouble?

Warlord Mara stared at Xue Tu and said, “Aren’t you determined to obtain the Fugue Pills? Add a little more and I’ll let you win.”

Xue Tu shrugged and said, “When did I say that I was determined to obtain the Fugue Pills? Since I can’t win against you, I can only give it to you.”

Warlord Mara could not control the anger in his body. A vast evil aura burst out from his body and directly rushed toward Xue Tu. “You want to destroy me, then I will perish together with you.”

The cultivators at the auction saw what happened and immediately felt a great sense of satisfaction.

All the cultivators were cheering for Warlord Mara, hoping that he could kill Xue Tu, preferably by torture. This bast*rd was too hateful. He had the support of the Realm of Star Ocean.

Unfortunately, before Warlord Mara could reach Xue Tu, he was captured by the order masters of the Realm of Star Ocean.

Xue Tu heaved a long sigh of relief. He tidied up the saint robe on him and quietly stared at the cultivators at the auction. Only then did he realize that the atmosphere was not right. Why did so many cultivators suddenly want him dead? Moreover, they hated him to the bone.

It was just an auction. Was it necessary?

Could it be that they hated the rich?

It seemed that he had to keep a low profile next.

Chapter 2252: The Nine-tremors Saintwill

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The seventh cauldron of the Fugue Pills started to be auctioned. All the cultivators became cautious, afraid that they would be tricked by Xue Tu.

“500 Godstones,” Lord Bladehell said.

Wu Jiang shouted, “600 Godstones.”

...

Only four cauldrons of the Fugue Pills were left. All the forces did not hold their horses any longer and started to make their moves.

The Fugue Pills could increase the cultivation of a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. It was of great help to the Celestial-hunting Festival. Even if they had to pay a higher price, they had to take one or two cauldrons.

When Xue Tu saw that they were increasing the price too slowly, he could not help but shout, “1,500 Godstones.”

The faces of all the cultivators who participated in the bidding turned black after they heard his voice.

The act of killing was a common occurrence for the cultivators of Infernal Court. At that moment, many of the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints were exuding killing intent. They hated Xue Tu to the bone and wanted to grind him to the ground.

The price of the Fugue Pills had reached the sky-high price of 2,000, 3,000, and even 11,000. In fact, 1,500 Godstones was its highest value.

Lord Bladehell suddenly stood up and glared at Xue Tu with a threatening look. He shouted, “1,600 Godstones.”

Lord Bladehell was an Immortal Vampires powerhouse below the Thousand-Koan Realm. Xue Tu was naturally afraid. He knew very well that if he continued to bid, he would definitely offend Lord Bladehell.

However, Xue Tu could not back down now.

If Lord Bladehell could buy a cauldron of Fugue Pills with 1,600 Godstones, how would he explain to Zhang Ruochen that he had spent 3,000 Godstones to buy a cauldron of Fugue Pills?

Compared to Lord Bladehell, Xue Tu was more afraid of Zhang Ruochen.

‘Oh no, I’m in big trouble now. I shouldn’t have bid for Zhang Ruochen. If I offended Lord Bladehell, how could he let me go easily at the Celestial-hunting Festival?’ Xue Tu thought.

He choked and said, “2,000 Godstones!”

Then he immediately added, “That is my final price. If anyone can offer a higher price, the cauldron of Fugue Pills will belong to him.”

‘If I raise the price of the single cauldron to above 2,000 Godstones, even if Zhang Ruochen knows the truth, he should have nothing to say,’ Xue Tu thought to himself.

All the cultivators in the auction hall looked at each other.

Was Xue Tu Crazy?

Raising the price to 2,000 Godstones on purpose to challenge Lord Bladehell?

No one believed Xue Tu’s words. Yuan Mo had summoned up his courage to offer a price of 2,010 Godstones just because he believed him. However, he was humiliated.

How could Lord Bladehell follow in the footsteps of Yuan Mo?

“Lord Bladehell is famous for taking revenge for the smallest grievance. Xue Tu challenged him in front of so many cultivators. It will be a challenge towards his reputation for being the number one Immortal Vampires’ powerhouse under the Thousand-Koan Realm. He will definitely seek his vengeance.”

...

Lord Bladehell's face was darkened, and his eyes were blood-red. He said, "Xue Tu, you shouldn't have gone so far. I will settle the score with you slowly after the Celestial-hunting Festival."

Lord Bladehell sat back and gave up on fighting for the Fugue Pills.

The seventh cauldron of Fugue Pill was bought by Xue Tu with 2,000 Godstones.

Xue Tu did not feel any joy. Instead, he looked sad. The more he thought about it, the more he felt that Zhang Ruochen was tricking him by letting him bid on his behalf. The auction was not over yet. He had already offended a lot of cultivators.

Now, he could only brace himself and continue bidding.

The eighth cauldron of the Fugue Pills was bought by Xue Tu with another 2,000 Godstones.

The ninth cauldron of the Fugue Pills was bought by Xue Tu with a price of 2,000 Godstones. Finally, Wu Jiang could not help but bid for 2,100 Godstones.

Xue Tu felt a sense of relief as he said, "Congratulations, Myriad Hands Supreme Saint. This cauldron of the Fugue Pills belongs to you."

When Supreme Saint Qiluo announced "2,100 Godstones, sold", Wu Jiang was still in a daze. He could not believe that he had really bought it.

This was unexpected!

Why was it so sudden?

Why was Xue Tu acting so out of the ordinary that no one could see through him?

"Xue Tu was scheming with the Realm of Star Ocean. It must be it."

"In my opinion, the starting price of the Realm of Star Ocean for Xue Tu is 2,000 Godstones."

“Originally, one could buy the Fugue Pill within 1,500 Godstones. However, Xue Tu forcefully raised it to 2,000 Godstones or more. Those commissioners should die a horrible death.”

“I wonder how many benefits the Realm of Star Ocean has given to Xue Tu.”

“No matter how many benefits he gets, what’s the point? Xue Tu has offended all the cultivators this time, and he will suffer in the future.”

...

The upper three clans had bought a cauldron of Fugue Pills, and the representatives of the lower three clans and the middle three clans all felt the pressure.

No matter how much they paid for the last cauldron, they still had to fight for it.

Therefore, when they were bidding for the tenth cauldron of Fugue Pills, even though Xue Tu did not call out the price, they still raised the price to 2,800 and were won by the seventh son of Ghost Lord, Xu.

The auction continued.

Many cultivators came to participate in the auction, and many treasures were auctioned off. All sorts of treasures were auctioned off, and there was no end to them. An entire day had passed, but it still had not ended.

The weakest among the cultivators present was a Saint, and none of them felt tired. On the contrary, because the treasures that were being auctioned off were getting more and more valuable, all the cultivators were in a state of extreme excitement.

On the first day of the auction, the final item that was being auctioned was the Wheel of the Nether Sun.

It was a Seven Element Regal Artifact, a weapon that had been used by the gods of the Nether Clan. It contained powerful divine power. The moment the Wheel of the Nether Sun was auctioned, it caused a huge commotion. All the forces competed to bid for it.

Twelve Paramount Realm Supreme Saints, six demigods, and two god-like elders joined the auction because of this.

Originally, they had come for the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection and the divine corpse. However, they were the first to compete for the Wheel of the Nether Sun.

Even the acting head of the Xue Jue family, Supreme Saint Qingsheng, made a bid. However, the price exceeded 200,000 Godstones because the competition was too intense. Supreme Saint Qingsheng had no choice but to give up.

“A vessel that can survive seven King’s Calamity without being destroyed must be made from one of the top ten substances in the universe. It has also been tempered seven times by the power of heaven and earth. It is almost certain that it will be able to become a Supreme Artifact.” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said.

He continued, “If I can get it, I can ask the Archsaint Refiner to help me refine it. In a few years, it will become a Supreme Artifact. When that time comes, my combat power will increase by a lot with a Supreme Artifact in my hands. It’s a shame.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s gaze was fixed on the Wheel of the Nether Sun on the auction stage. His heart was like it was being twisted by a knife as he lamented.

After cultivating for a myriad year, Supreme Saint Qingsheng accumulated a wealth of Godstones that was still less than 200,000.

‘It seems that the matter of increasing the clan leader’s treatment must be brought up to Wargod Bloodximius, and it cannot be delayed,’ Supreme Saint Qingsheng thought to himself.

Xue Chen said, “A treasure like the Wheel of the Nether Sun can be used as a powerful weapon in the clan. Who would be so unappreciative as to take it out for auction?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng immediately glared at Xue Chen. He said seriously and cautiously, “Xue Chen, be careful with what you say. An existence that can put the Wheel of the Nether Sun up for auction is most likely a supreme god. Only a god would be able to do such a thing.

“If I’m not wrong, this god is probably trying to buy the divine corpse and is collecting Godstones on a large scale.”

Xue Tu was in a daze as he watched the powerhouses push the Wheel of the Nether Sun to a sky-high price.

“It’s already 250,000 Godstones... No wonder Zhang Ruochen asked me to bid as much as I wanted. Damn it. If I knew this, I would have attacked the Scions and Scionesses of the Celestial Court on the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun. Why would I fight Zhang Ruochen to the death? If I had robbed Mosheng, wouldn’t the Wheel of the Nether Sun have been mine? These Godstones are mine, too.”

Xue Tu slapped his face. He regretted his past actions and he wished he could do it all over again.

If he had to do it all over again, he would never have gone to the Sword Vault. He would never have gone to the Sect of the Blood God. He would only focus on robbing the Scions, Scionesses, and leaders of the Celestial Court.

No.

He would only rob the Mosheng.

As long as he got the Wheel of the Nether Sun, what else would he need?

Unfortunately, there was no turning back in time. If he missed it, then that’s it.

“What are you thinking about?”

Zhang Ruochen’s voice suddenly rang out behind Xue Tu.

Xue Tu suddenly stood up, and he said, “Senior Brother, you’re finally out. I’ve completed my task perfectly. I only spent 16,000 Godstones to buy seven cauldrons of the Fugue Pills and Warlord Mara spent 11,000 Godstones to buy one cauldron.”

Zhang Ruochen did not care too much about the price. He muttered to himself, "Seven cauldrons. That's a lot. But since it's the most suitable pill for a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, it doesn't matter."

Xue Tu observed Zhang Ruochen carefully. He was surprised. "Senior brother, you seem to have changed!"

"Really?"

Zhang Ruochen raised his right hand and clenched his fingers into a fist. He did not use much strength.

However, nine layers of energy waves appeared on his fist and spread out in all directions. Every wave hit Xue Tu's body, and his Neverwilt Physique trembled.

When the ninth wave hit, Xue Tu could not help but take a step back.

Although he was secretly shocked, he did not think it was anything special. However, just as he was about to speak, his internal organs and even bone marrow felt a sharp pain. He knelt down on one knee.

"Senior Brother, what did you do to me?" Xue Tu asked in pain.

Zhang Ruochen loosened his fist and said, "I just condensed the Fist Saintwill. Seeing that you were beside me, I couldn't help but test its power. I didn't use much force though. Are you okay?"

Xue Tu wanted to pretend to be seriously injured. He spat out blood and fell to the ground. He wanted to see if he could get some Godstones from Zhang Ruochen. At the very least, he could get his fiefdom back.

But he gave up after thinking a while.

How could Zhang Ruochen be so easily fooled?

If he was seen through and fell to the ground, Zhang Ruochen would dare to kick him again.

"Senior Brother, I'm fine."

Xue Tu stood up slowly with a smile on his face. He said in admiration, "Senior Brother, you are indeed a genius. In just one day, you have condensed the Saintwill."

"Not one day, but nine days. The Violet Gourd is a time and space treasure that turns time nine times faster than usual," Zhang Ruochen said.

Last time, it took Zhang Ruochen three months to condense the Fist Saintwill. In the end, he failed.

This time, Zhang Ruochen successfully condensed the Fist Saintwill in only nine days with the help of the Lotus of Divine Reflection.

The effect of the Lotus of Divine Reflection was evident.

The Saintwill condensed was called the Nine-tremors Saintwill. It was a fifth-grade Saintwill.

If the Saintwill was integrated into the Fist technique, it would burst out nine layers of tremors when the fist force was exerted. It would penetrate the armor or Divine Marks on the surface of the body and directly attack the enemy's internal organs, bone marrow, and even the Saint Soul and sea of Qi.

Zhang Ruochen had only lightly clenched his fist during the test just now.

If he used all his strength to unleash a punch, Xue Tu's internal organs would be shattered into muddy blood, his saint soul and sea of Qi would also be shattered. Even if he was protected by Divine Marks and wore armor at the level of a Regal Artifact.

The power of the Saintwill was so terrifying.

The Saintwill was divided into the first to the ninth grade. The ninth grade was the lowest, and the first grade was the highest.

To be able to condense a fifth-grade Saintwill was the dream of countless Supreme Saints of the Neverwilt Realm. This meant that one had the potential to become a god. It could be called the God Candidate.

However, Zhang Ruochen was not willing to give up. He could only have a fifth-grade Saintwill.

According to Moon Goddess, to become a god, one had to become a god who mastered the Canons.

One had to cultivate the Saintwill above the third grade and become a god in the future to turn the Saintwill into the Canon.

The fifth-grade Saintwill only represented the potential to become a god.

On the other hand, the third-grade Saintwill represented the chance to become an elite among gods.

Becoming an ordinary god was not Zhang Ruochen's goal.

'It's too difficult to condense the Saintwill. I've tried my best, but I can only condense the fifth-grade Fist Saintwill. How can I condense a higher-grade Saintwill?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

He looked at the auction stage. He had to fight for the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection.

The bidding for the Wheel of the Nether Sun came to an end. A demigod of the Nether Clan bought it for 300,000 Godstones.

At this moment, a smile finally appeared on Zhang Ruochen's face. "It looks like I don't have to worry about Godstones anymore."

The first day of the auction ended and there was a short break. The next day was the main event.

The first treasure of the second day was the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection.

The diameter of the Lotus of Divine Reflection was 30 feet. It was extremely bright and lit up the three-layered circular world. When the light shone on it, all cultivators had a feeling that they were about to enter a state of epiphany and it was very magical.

The 100,000-year-old Lotus of Divine Reflection that Zhang Ruochen had bought was dozens of times smaller than it.

Supreme Saint Qiluo explained, "According to the assessment of the Realm of Star Ocean, this Lotus of Divine Reflection has been growing for about 180,000 years. It has already developed a tiny bit of spiritual intelligence. Using it, whether it's cultivating the Saintwill or comprehending the Canons, you can achieve twice the result with half the effort.

“Everyone should know that the Lotus of Divine Reflection floats in the universe and is very fragile. Any slight accident can destroy it. There is very few Lotus of Divine Reflections that can survive the Yuanhui Tribulations. The price difference is naturally huge.”

“The starting price of the Lotus of Divine Reflection is 20,000 Godstones. Each increment must not be less than 1,000 Godstones.”

“Let the bidding begin.”

It had been over 10,000 years since the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection had appeared in Infernal Court. Upon hearing Supreme Saint Qiluo's bid, many cultivators who were interested in buying the lotus began to curse.

This was too underhanded!

A 100,000-year-old Lotus of Divine Reflection could be bought with just 100 to 200 Godstones.

The Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection was a hundred times more expensive.

As such, the Neverwilt Realm and the Hundred-Shackled Realm Supreme Saints were kicked out of the bidding.. Obviously, this was the price that the Realm of Star Ocean was aiming for demigods and even gods to pay.

Chapter 2253: A Desolate God

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

To demigods and gods, money was nothing. As long as they could increase their cultivation, it was worth it no matter how many Godstones they spent.

The Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection was a treasure worth selling.

“30,000 Godstones.”

“31,000 Godstones.”

“35,000 Godstones.”

...

Dozens of cultivators participated in the auction.

There were more than a dozen Supreme Saint cultivators below the Thousand-Koan Realm. Xu, Luo Shengtian, Wu Jiang, and Lady Wind were all bidding. However, they represented the gods behind them. They could not bring out such a huge amount of wealth on their own.

A god that shook the Infernal Court appeared in the auction with his divine spirit and shouted, “50,000 Godstones.”

Many cultivators recognized him and tactfully withdrew from the auction.

However, there were still eight cultivators with deep pockets who were bidding with him. Five of them were the divine spirit of true gods. 50,000 Godstones would not scare them away.

“51,000 Godstones.”

“53,000 Godstones.”

...

Zhang Ruochen carefully observed the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection and said, “Help me bid.”

Xue Tu was stunned and said, “The lotus is too expensive. Only gods can use it. A 10,000-year-old Lotus is enough for a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint. The price is thousands of times cheaper.”

“Other Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints use the 10,000-year-old Lotus of Divine Reflection because they can’t afford to use a higher-level one. If there is a Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection, don’t you want to use it?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu’s spirits rose. His eyes burned like fire. He said, “Senior Brother, are you implying that I’ll have the chance to use them in the future if I win?”

“You’re naive, but it’s not like you don’t have a chance. Go and bid them for me first,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu was overjoyed, but he quickly thought of something. He said with a bitter face, “Why don’t you bid for them yourself? I’ve already offended a lot of cultivators by helping you bidding the Fugue Pills.”

Zhang Ruochen patted Xue Tu’s shoulder and said, “Maybe you won’t have the chance to use the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection. But I still have a 100,000-year-old Lotus of Divine Reflection. I have been storing it away. If there’s no better candidate, I plan to give it to the Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint of the Xue Jue family.”

“I’m the best candidate. Don’t worry, Senior Brother. Leave the bidding to me.”

Xue Tu stood straight and walked to the edge of the ring-shaped world. He asked, “How should I bid?”

Zhang Ruochen used spiritual power to tell him a price.

When Xue Tu heard it, he was so scared that his body shook. He licked his lips and said with a raised voice, “100,000 Godstones.”

The ring-shaped world auction house became silent again after Xue Tu spoke out.

The price of the Lotus of Divine Reflection was still below 60,000 Godstones. Even a god would only raise the price by 1,000 Godstones. Suddenly, such a sky-high price was shouted out. The few gods participating in the auction were shocked indeed.

After a short period of silence, a huge uproar broke out.

“Could it be that the Realm of Star Ocean asked him to be their scapegoat again for this auction?”

“Xue Tu is too bold. He actually dares to challenge the gods.”

“If he really is the scapegoat of the Realm of Star Ocean, then it’s obvious that he’s tricking the gods here. He definitely won’t have a good ending.”

“The price of 100,000 Godstones is too high. No god will be fooled. No matter how many Godstones there are, we can’t give them to the Realm of Star Ocean for free.”

...

Xue Tu’s face turned ugly after he heard the Infernal Court’s cultivators’ discussions. He hurriedly explained, “The bidding for treasures depends on one’s financial capability. There was no commissioning involved. I feel that the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection is priceless. Not to mention 100,000 Godstones, even paying 200,000 Godstones is worth it.”

There was a god who was very eager to obtain the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection and was tempted to increase the price.

However, when he heard Xue Tu say 200,000 Godstones, he immediately gave up on the idea. If he continued to fight, it would be fine if he won, but if he lost, he would definitely become a joke among the gods.

In addition, Xue Tu’s fearsome bidding for the Fugue Pills was still lingering. Even the gods were somewhat afraid of him.

“He bid 100,000 Godstones without even blinking. Are the juniors nowadays so rich?”

“He is the son of Bloodlucius.”

“Bloodlucius had overcome the first Yuanhui Tribulation. The Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection is of little use to him. How could he spend 100,000 Godstones here?”

“Could it really be arranged by the Realm of Star Ocean?”

The few gods present communicated secretly. They all agreed that the Realm of Star Ocean wanted to treat them as fat sheep to be slaughtered. That was why they had deliberately arranged such a disruptive junior.

No one raised the price and Zhang Ruochen bought the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection for 100,000 Godstones.

The treasures on the auction stage were all extremely rare. They all cost more than 1,000 Godstones.

There were Emperor Grade pills, Supreme Saint-level puppet slaves, primitive worlds...

Zhang Ruochen did not place his bid. He either had the treasures or did not need them for the time being.

The auction was nearing its end. Amidst everyone’s anticipation, the last item was brought up for auction.

The divine corpse.

Supreme Saint Sanjin and Supreme Saint Qiluo brought the two bronze coffins up to the auction stage personally.

The instant the two coffins were placed down, the floating island where the auction stage was located shook violently. It was pushed down by a large amount of pressure.

Divine Marks and arrays were drawn on the bronze coffins to seal the divine power inside and prevent it from leaking out.

Even so, there were still strange waves coming out of the coffins, making the precepts of heaven and earth in this space slightly chaotic. The Saint Kings and some Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints felt uneasy.

The divine corpse of a recently deceased was indeed different from the one that has been dead for many years,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen had seen many divine corpses.

The one that had been taken away by Elder Patriarch Death Zen in the Nether Realm.

The remains of Blood God in the Sect of the Blood God.

The Divine Python's corpse had been dug out of the ground in the Northern Region.

And the Blood Phoenix's divine corpse in the second gradient of the Endless Abyss.

...

However, they had all fallen for more than 100,000 years. God knew how much of the divine power in the divine corpse had been lost. Its value and divine powers were only one-tenth or even one-hundredth of what they had been when they had just died.

"Why are there two bronze coffins? Are there two divine corpses? And the divine corpse should be huge. Can these two coffins fit?" Xue Tu whispered.

"Those two coffins are dimensional treasures. There are universes within," Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu muttered, "I see."

All the cultivators' curiosity was piqued.

Supreme Saint Qiluo raised his voice and said, "This divine corpse is the Desolate God. It was killed by Sword God Feng Chen of Asura at the frontier of the Nether Realm's starry sky. He cut its body in half with one cut. The upper and lower halves of the bodies are in the two coffins respectively."

Supreme Saint Sanjin took the lead and opened the bronze coffin on the left.

Whoosh

Dazzling divine light burst out from the coffin, illuminating the entire ring-shaped world and the headquarters of the entire Realm of Star Ocean with a greenish-purple color.

Blue and purple divine clouds appeared above the group of cultivators, and it's rolling endlessly.

The powerful divine power intimidated many cultivators, and they trembled.

Zhang Ruochen stared into the coffin. Through layers of spatial fog, he saw half a corpse covered in purple carapace. It had sharp claws and looked like a giant scorpion.

Even though it only had the upper body, the divine corpse was more than 3,000 miles long. It was heavier and bigger than the planet they were on.

“This god's carapace must have a strong defense, but such a huge body was still cut by a sword. To be able to kill it means that the sword contains Canons.”

Zhang Ruochen carefully observed the flat cut on the divine corpse's waist and abdomen. A strange feeling arose in his mind.

This feeling flashed and disappeared.

It was indescribable and impossible to capture.

He continued to observe the cut on the divine corpse, but he could no longer find the strange feeling.

For cultivators at the level of a Supreme Saint, any perception could not be produced for no reason. There must be a reason.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes turned serious. He asked Xue Tu, “What's going on in the Desolate Starry Sky? which force does the Desolate God belongs to?”

Xue Tu said, “I've never been to the Desolate Starry Sky. I've only heard that it's very far from Infernal Court. It's a place that only gods can reach. Sword God Feng Chen was indeed worthy of being the hero of the Asura for a thousand years. He had ascended to the Ashuran Planet less than a thousand years ago, and he already possessed god-killing powers.

A flash of inspiration appeared in Zhang Ruochen's mind. A peerless sword light appeared. He saw a giant scorpion that was thousands of miles long was being cut off in the universe.

‘Could it be that the strange feeling just now did not originate from the divine corpse, but from the opening of the sword on the divine corpse?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

His pupils suddenly contracted. He stared at the divine corpse in the bronze coffin. He thought to himself, ‘maybe if I bid for the divine corpse and studied it closely, then I would be much closer to the truth.’

Supreme Saint Qiluo said, “When this divine corpse was alive, it wasn’t a false god. It was a true god. However, the Divinity Source and most of its divine soul were taken away.”

Although they knew that Sword God Feng Chen would definitely take the Divinity Source and the divine soul, everyone still sighed when they heard the news.

Without the Divinity Source and the divine soul, the value of the divine corpse was greatly reduced.

This was especially so for a god. It was no longer very attractive.

However, the divine corpse contained a huge amount of divine blood, divine bones, divine marrow, carapace, and so on. It could be used to nurture a large number of Saint Realm cultivators. It was a strategic resource that all the major powers had to fight for.

Supreme Saint Qiluo said, “The divine corpse has been cut into two pieces, so it was divided into two auctions. Now, the auction for the upper body will begin. The starting price is 100,000 Godstones. Each increment must be at least 1,000 Godstones.”

“110,000 Godstones.”

“120,000.”

..

“150,000.”

The value of the Wheel of the Nether Sun was that it could greatly increase the strength of an individual unit.

However, the divine corpse could increase the overall strength of an entire faction. It could nurture a large number of outstanding young talents. They could be used for thousands or even tens of thousands of years.

They were all treasures of the profound level.

Luo Shengtian shouted, “200,000 Godstones.”

“210,000 Godstones,” Lord Bladehell said.

A Supreme Saint of Asura at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm said, “220,000 Godstones.”

...

The divine corpse was the most valuable to the Immortal Vampires, Rakshasa, and Asura. It was worth more than 200,000 Godstones. The bidders from the three middle and upper clans automatically gave up.

Hundreds of elites from the three lower clans who had gods backing them competed fiercely. Soon, the divine corpse was worth more than 300,000 Godstones.

At that point, most of the bidders had given up.

Only a few cultivators, such as Luo Shengtian and Lord Bladehell, were left. They were still bidding. However, they all looked thoughtful. Every time they bid, they were being very careful.

After the price exceeded 300,000 Godstones, Zhang Ruochen gave up on bidding.

The reason why they could raise the price to such a high level was mainly that they needed a lot of resources. There were many cultivators under their banner.

In other words, they had to buy.

Zhang Ruochen’s Qiankun Realm had a large number of cultivators.

However, their numbers were less than one-myriadth of these forces. There were very few cultivators who had the potential to reach the Saint realm. There was no need to buy a divine corpse.

Besides, the divine corpse was far less important to human cultivators than Rakshasa and Immortal Vampires.

‘The price of half a divine corpse is more than the Wheel of the Nether Sun, and it doesn’t have the Divinity Source or most of the divine soul. A god that just died should be worth as much as a Supreme Artifact,’ Zhang Ruochen thought this was his assessment.

In the intense competition, the upper body of the divine corpse was bought by Luo Shengtian for 400,000 Godstones.

Tianluo was the leader of the seven divine kingdoms of the Rakshasa. In terms of wealth, no Immortal Vampires could compare to it.

“Damn it. He actually offered 400,000 Godstones for a half-divine corpse.”

Lord Bladehell was extremely unwilling to lose the bid. He wanted to raise the price, but he received a telepathic message from a god in his clan, so he had to give up.

“There’s no need to be so angry. There’s still half a divine corpse,” a cultivator from Immortal Vampires said.

Lord Bladehell snorted. “Everyone knows that the most precious and mysterious treasures of the divine corpse are gathered in the brain and abdomen. They’re all in the upper body. Even if you buy the lower body of the divine corpse, it’s only equivalent to buying a batch of divine blood and divine bones. There are lots of divine blood and divine bones for sale in other places. There is no reason to bid it from here.”

Although Lord Bladehell said this, he still decided to continue bidding for the lower half of the divine corpse. After all, it was the corpse of a god that had just died. If he auctioned it back, there might be some pleasant surprise.

The second bronze coffin was opened.

The lower half of the divine corpse was more than two thousand miles long, and it was covered with huge spikes that were emitting green light.

“The starting price is 100,000 Godstones. Each increment must be no less than one thousand Godstones.”

“Let the bidding begin.”

This time, the intensity of the bidding was far less than when the upper half of the divine corpse was being auctioned.

All the cultivators could see that this was not the lower half of the giant scorpion divine corpse, but rather its tail. The value could not be compared.

“110,000 Godstones.”

“120,000 Godstones.”

“125,000 Godstones.”

..

When the price was raised to 150,000 Godstones, most of the cultivators who wanted to bid had already chosen to withdraw.

“160,000 Godstones.”

After Lord Bladehell raised the price, all the other bidders became hesitant. They were considering whether to withdraw or not.

Zhang Ruochen said to Xue Tu, “The bid of 180,000 Godstones could completely destroy their hope so that they wouldn’t continue to hesitate.”

Xue Tu was shocked and said, “Senior Brother, why are you buying the divine corpse?”

“Why do you ask so many questions?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu had a bitter face and he said sadly, “Lord Bladehell is determined to get the divine corpse. I’ve already offended him when bidding for the Fugue Pills. If I steal his divine corpse again, he’ll kill me.”

“You’re a Scion. Why are you afraid of him?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu shook his head vigorously. In a pleading tone, he said, “He’s at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, and I've just reached the Neverwilt Realm. Also, you don't know that Lord Bladehell is vengeful. A cultivator that offended him always ends up in a terrible state."

"The divine corpse is more than 2,000 miles long. The fresh divine blood inside is like a river or a sea. Do you want to drink it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"Yes, of course."

Xue Tu kept thinking. He changed the topic and said, "Don't worry, Senior Brother. Leave the bidding to me. It's just Lord Bladehell. Why should I fear him?"

“180,000 divine stones.”

Just as Xue Tu shouted out his bidding price, a wave of curses erupted in the auction hall.

“This fake bidder has jumped out to star troubles again.”

“Realm of Star Ocean is too greedy. Aren’t they afraid that no one would bid for the god corpse?”

“What’s there to be afraid of? It’s just a half-god corpse. Realm of Star Ocean has plenty of ways to deal with it.”

A Corpusian Supreme Saint said, “Xue Tu might not be a fake bidder. I think he just wants to embarrass Lord Bladehell. After obtaining Wargod Bloodflame’s Mark, he probably wants to step on Lord Bladehell’s position and fight for the title — No.1 elite in a thousand years.”

Most cultivators present could tell that the Corpusian Supreme Saint was deliberately trying to sow discord.

However, Lord Bladehell was so angry that he was about to lose his mind. The more he listened, the more he felt that those words were very reasonable.

He believed that Xue Tu wanted to go against him on purpose.

A Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint from a Qitian Clan said, “He has just become a Supreme Saint, yet he is already so arrogant. Xue Tu has belittled you. When the auction is over, I will challenge him to battle and crush his pride.” His voice was deep.

Lord Bladehell’s emotions changed. He clenched his fists and slowly opened them. Then, he let out a long breath and stood up. “Let’s go.”

“Big Brother, are you not going to continue the bidding? Are you really going to give it up to Xue Tu? I’m not willing,” said the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint.

“So what if I’m not willing? The starting price is 170,000 divine stones. If I continue to raise the price, how much will it be? Who will make up the extra divine stones?” Lord Bladehell asked.

How could he let go willingly?

However, he could not even afford 1,000 divine stones, let alone 10,000 divine stones to fight with Xue Tu.

Even if he was angry and resentful, he could only keep it and pay back double what Xue Tu did to him when the time came.

All the forces had a precise evaluation of the lower half of the god corpse’s value, which was about 160,000 divine stones.

Not everyone would be like Zhang Ruochen, who could spend divine stones at will.

Supreme Saint Qiluo’s announcement rang out. The auction in Realm of Star Ocean World had officially ended.

Xue Tu smiled and said to Zhang Ruochen, “Next, we should go to Starry Ocean Palace on this planet to pay for the divine stones and collect the auction items.”

“Okay, you go first,” Zhang Ruochen nodded and said.

Xue Tu was stunned and said, “Senior brother, aren’t we going together?”

“I can go alone,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu’s heart thumped and he said, “Senior brother, you can’t do this. I’ve offended many cultivators in this auction. What if they find and harm me?”

“I’m also afraid that they’ll find me,” Zhang Ruochen said as if he could not help it.

How could Xue Tu not understand? Zhang Ruochen completely despised him and did not want to travel with him. Zhang Ruochen also did not want outsiders to know that he was the one behind this auction.

It was equivalent to letting Xue Tu take the blame alone.

Xue Tu was certain that there must be a large group of cultivators waiting for him outside Annulus World at that moment.

Once he walked out, even if he did not die, he would be severely injured.

Xue Tu acted like he was not troubled by it. “If they find me, I won’t take the blame alone. I might spill the beans.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “You owe me a Supreme Saint Weapon, but you haven’t returned it yet. Now you dare to threaten me. Do you really think I’m an easy bully target?”

‘You are the bully,’ Xue Tu muttered to himself.

He had become the public enemy of many cultivators in Infernal Court. If he fell out with Zhang Ruochen again, it would only make things worse. Moreover, falling out with Zhang Ruochen meant losing the chance to drink divine blood and borrow Lotus of Divine Reflection from Zhang Ruochen.

“As a Supreme Saint, I should know when to yield and when not; I should admit defeat when it’s time to do so.”

Xue Tu sighed in his mind. He didn’t dare to fight Zhang Ruochen head-on so he quickly begged, “Senior brother, you have to save me this time. From now on, I will follow your order strictly.

“Don’t leave me alone. If I go out alone, I’ll die a horrible death.”

Zhang Ruochen frowned. “You are a Supreme Saint too. How can you be so timid? Those who want to become gods should be unyielding.”

Xue Tu shook his head, looking pitiful. “I can train my state of mind slowly later. But survival comes before the goal to attain godhood.”

Zhang Ruochen sighed and took out an Exquisite Dimensional Orb. “You are my junior. Of course, I won’t let you die. In that case, no matter how dangerous it is, I will bear it alone. You should hide inside first.”

“Senior Brother...”

Xue Tu was struck by his words for a second. He didn't expect Zhang Ruochen, the devil, to have a conscience.

"Don't be so wishy-washy. Go in. By the way, don't tell outsiders what happened at the auction," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Don't worry. Senior Brother treats me as a comrade. How can I betray you? I swear to God, if I tell anyone, I'll die a horrible death."

After Xue Tu entered the Dimensional Orb, Zhang Ruochen transformed into Xue Tu with Thirty-six Formless Transmogrification.

"Xue Tu, Xue Tu, you started the troubles, so you must end it yourselves."

Zhang Ruochen muttered to himself. He pushed open the door of the VIP seats and walked out.

Previously, although Zhang Ruochen was condensing the Saintwill, he was not completely unaware of what had happened. How could he not know that Xue Tu was deliberately trying to trick him?

Thousands of divine stones were spent for the Seven Cauldrons of Fugue Pills. However, Xue Tu had hit the nail on the head.

When he was bidding for Lotus of Divine Reflection, everyone thought that he was a fake bidder and did not dare to compete with him. Eventually, Zhang Ruochen spent only 100,000 divine stones for it, saving a large amount of divine stones.

Otherwise, if he were to compete with a deity, he estimated that he would need more than 150,000 divine stones to have a chance to successfully bid Lotus of Divine Reflection.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the VIP seat with the appearance of Xue Tu. People immediately looked at him with murderous intent in their eyes.

"Are you thinking to fight in the auction house? You'd better restrain yourself. I'm a big customer for Realm of Star Ocean World. They'll protect me before I make payment."

Zhang Ruochen imitated Xue Tu's expression and sneered. He flew out of Annulus World and rushed to Starry Ocean Palace.

"That's too arrogant. He's only just become an immortal realm Supreme Saint, and he's already this insolent."

"He's just a fake bidder. Does he really think he's a big shot?"

"Lord Bladehell said that he wants to chop off one of Xue Tu's arms. So how can he possibly walk out of Realm of Star Ocean World unscathed? Just wait and see."

...

After arriving at Realm of Star Ocean Palace, Zhang Ruochen and Qiluo's avatar interacted.

Although the Wheel of the Nether Sun had fetched 300,000 divine stones, Zhang Ruochen had to pay 3 percent as the bidding fee for Realm of Star Ocean. In the end, he only earned 291,000 divine stones.

Eight Regal Artifacts had fetched 302 divine stones.

Xue Tu's planet fiefdom was auctioned for 96 divine stones.

According to Supreme Saint Qiluo, because he was a big client, they did not charge commission on the amount fetched by the eight Regal Artifacts and the planet fiefdom.

Zhang Ruochen spent a total of 290,377 divine stones for Lotuses of Divine Reflection, Spiritual Power sacred pills, Implement Nurturing Pills, Fugue Pills, God corpse, and so on.

Therefore, after making payment, Zhang Ruochen only had 1,021 divine stones left.

Zhang Ruochen had decided to let Xue Tu bid 180,000 divine stones for the god's corpse after doing some calculations. That was why he didn't need to sell other treasures to make up for the difference.

Zhang Ruochen put away the god's corpse, the Fugue Pills, and Lotuses of Divine Reflection. He asked, "Realm of Star Ocean World should be able to guarantee the customer's private information, right?"

“Of course, Supreme Saint Ruochen is now our Purple-Gold class customer. We will never reveal your information to any force.”

As he spoke, Supreme Saint Qiluo handed a purple gold token to Zhang Ruochen and said, “Next time, if Supreme Saint Ruochen has any more items, you could appoint Realm of Star Ocean World as representative. You only need to pay one percent of the fee. Furthermore, Supreme Saint Ruochen can buy all kinds of items at a discount in Realm of Star Ocean World.”

Zhang Ruochen took the purple gold token and said, “Don’t wait for the next time. Bring me to see the top-grade talismans.”

In Realm of Star Ocean World, Zhang Ruochen spent another 300 divine stones to buy three Dark Prison Talismans before leaving Realm of Star Ocean palace.

Although they were expensive, they were very powerful.

According to Supreme Saint Qiluo, each Dark Prison Talisman could be used to trap a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. Even a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint would find it difficult to break the Dark Prison formed by a talisman with only one strike.

One thing Xue Tu was right about. “Survival comes before the goal to attain godhood.”

Zhang Ruochen had wanted to buy a talisman that was more powerful, preferably one that could kill a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. However, the price was too expensive.

Moreover, the power of a talisman at that level was difficult for him to control with his cultivation at Neverwilt Realm. He could get himself hurt.

Therefore, he had to give up.

Zhang Ruochen was still disguised as Xue Tu. He took a Saint Ship arranged by Realm of Star Ocean World and sailed on the lake. He was ready to return to Winterpage City to study the god’s corpse carefully.

A Saint Ship with 10 blood-red wings broke through the waves. It was like a mountain, exuding an intimidating Saint Aura. It blocked the way of Zhang Ruochen's Saint Ship.

Lord Bladehell stood on the deck. He wore shining blood armor. Above his head, blood clouds rolled. Behind him, a 30-foot-tall phantom appeared.

An overwhelming aura swept toward Zhang Ruochen.

Supreme Saint Cangye had broken 99 shackles. He was the second most powerful Supreme Saint after the elite from Hellblade Realm. "Xue Tu," he said in a deep voice, "You were in the limelight at the auction. You went against my brother everywhere. Who gave you the guts?"

Zhang Ruochen ignored him. He looked directly at Lord Bladehell and said, "The competition in the auction relies on one's wealth. If you lose, you can only blame yourself for being too poor. How can you blame the winner?"

Many cultivators participating in the auction hadn't left Realm of Star Ocean yet. They stood on different Saint Ships and looked over at them.

"Despite facing against Lord Bladehell, Xue Tu doesn't flinch. Instead, he's calm and composed. He certainly has a good state of mind."

"The gap of strength is too far. No matter how calm he is, it's pointless. Lord Bladehell is famous for being narrow-minded. He won't let Xue Tu go."

...

On one of the Saint Ships, Luo Sha and Luo Tiansheng stood side by side, looking forward.

Luo Tiansheng smiled and said, "Xue Tu turns out to be more unswerving than I thought. He dares to challenge Lord Bladehell and Qitian Clan alone. He got balls."

Luo Sha's expression changed.

She and Zhang Ruochen had practiced spiritual power together. There was a strange connection between them. Appearances could not deceive her.

“So it’s him. No wonder he’s so high-profile in the auction.” Luo Sha smiled.

Soon, she was worried again.

Lord Bladehell was a top elite at Hundred-Shackle Realm. Since he said he would cut off Xue Tu’s arm, he would definitely do it.

“Brother, how strong is Lord Bladehell? What are your chances of winning if you fight him?” Luo Sha asked.

Luo Shengtian said, “When Lord Bladehell was a Saint King, he practiced the precepts of Blade to the perfection level. After he became a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint, he was even more amazing. He practiced two Grade-Six Saintwills and one Grade-Four Blade Saintwill, which makes a total three.”

“Most Supreme Saints can’t even form two Saintwills. How could he cultivate three?” Luo Sha’s heart sank. She was even more worried for Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Shengtian laughed, “If that’s all, Lord Bladehell isn’t qualified to be 10 Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints.” His most powerful ability was to combine Grade Six Sigillum Saintwills and Grade Four Blade Saintwill to form a Grade Three Bladehell Saintwill.”

“He can combine the Saintwills?” Luo Sha was even more shocked.

Luo Shengtian said, “That’s right! In Infernal Court, in this one thousand years, only less than a hundred Supreme Saints can fuse their Saintwills. He is one of them. So one could imagine how terrifying his strength is. If it wasn’t for his temperament, he would definitely be ranked higher than ninth place among those Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints who have attained the Great Perfection stage.”

Condensing the Grade Three Saintwill meant that the probability of becoming a god had increased greatly.

Furthermore, he would have the chance to grasp the Canon and become an elite amongst the gods in the future.

Luo Sha was quite confused. She said, “Lord Bladehell can integrate the Saintwills, so he is definitely not an ordinary person. His temperament can’t be so bad. Brother, could he be deliberately pretending to be narrow-minded so that all the cultivators will look down on him?”

Luo Shengtian thought carefully and then said, “If Lord Bladehell really has such a deep mind and shrewdness, he will definitely be a great opponent at Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

...

Zhang Ruochen seemed to be quite impatient. He said again, “You blocked my Saint Ship. Are you angry because you were offended want to snatch my items shamelessly? So many cultivators are staring at you. Lord Bladehell, don’t you feel ashamed? You are a total loser.”

Supreme Saint Cangye, who stood beside Lord Bladehell, said coldly, “Xue Tu, do you dare to have a ring fight with me? If I lose, I’ll cut off one of my arms. If you lose, you cut off yours. What do you think?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I never bet my arm. Besides, with your cultivation, you are not qualified to challenge me.”

“What did you say?”

Supreme Saint Cangye had long disliked Xue Tu. At that moment, Xue Tu, a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint, dared to make such insolent remarks. If Cangye did not teach Xue Tu a lesson, who knew how many Supreme Saints would laugh at Cangye over Xue Tu’s words, “you are not qualified to challenge me.”

Boom

Supreme Saint Cangye shot up from the deck of the Saint Ship. His body emitted a boundless bloody light. The vast and mighty Blood Qi condensed into a palm print the size of a palace building and pressed down on Zhang Ruochen.

Even with the suppression of surrounding Precepts, the palm power that Supreme Saint Cangye had unleashed still pressed down on the water under Zhang Ruochen's feet, causing it to sink and turn into a huge liquid basin.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the ship and looked at it indifferently.

Lord of Stone flew out and its huge body appeared behind him. It waved a stone palm that was as big as Mount Wuzhi. It shattered the Blood Qi palm print and hit Supreme Saint Cangye.

Ptui!

Supreme Saint Cangye spat out blood. Like a fly, he was thrown out and flew out of the space where Realm of Star Ocean World was.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the parabola of Blood light in the sky and said, "As weak as a bug."

What he didn't know was that many cultivators were petrified when they saw this.

A Supreme Saint who broke 99 shackles was sent flying just like that? And Xue Tu called him a bug?

The cultivators of Qitian Clan were all furious.

"So you have a Supreme Saint of the stone clan protecting you. That's why you're so insolent. I wonder if this Supreme Saint of the stone clan can block my blade."

Before Lord Bladehell could make a move, Zhang Ruochen had already thrown out a Dark Prison Talisman.

Crash!

A dark prison enveloped Lord Bladehell's ten-winged Saint Ship. All the Supreme Saints of Qitian Clan were trapped inside. Even if they attacked continuously, they couldn't break the power of the talisman.

"I don't want to argue with you today, but I have to warn you. Don't mess with me again. You can't bear the consequences."

Zhang Ruochen left these words in their curses. Then he drove the Saint Ship around the ten-winged Saint Ship and left Realm of Star Ocean World leisurely.

Watching him leave, the spectating cultivators of Infernal Court looked at each other in bewilderment.

“An incredible young Supreme Saint was born in Bloodysky Clan,” a passing demigod exclaimed.

On this day, Xue Tu’s fame shook the Divine Domain of Destiny..

Chapter 2255: Take You To Infernal Court

There was still a month before Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Infernal Court's most outstanding elites in a thousand years had all gathered at Winterpage City in the Divine Domain of Destiny.

During the auction held in Realm of Star Ocean, the new rising star, Supreme Saint Xue Tu had successfully bid seven cauldrons of Fugue Pills, one-Yuanhui old Lotus of Divine Reflection, and the God corpse with hundreds of thousands of divine stones. This news spread like wildfire, sending everyone shockwaves.

Then, Xue Tu challenged Lord Bladehell and taught Supreme Saint Cang Ye a lesson. His showy and tough means made all beings of different clans wide-eyed. They had to reevaluate him.

"We used to focus our attention on Zhang Ruochen, Lord Xia Yu, Gu Chenzi, and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan. Now, we have to add Xue Tu to the list."

All Immortal Vampire clans added Xue Tu to their watch list of cultivators posing a treat. Only a Supreme Saint who had at least broken 70 shackles would make it to the list.

Among the ten Immortal Vampire clans, Xue Tu was the second exception following Zhang Ruochen.

Hearing the cultivators around talking about Xue Tu, Scion Yuan Mo was rather disdainful, he said, "Xue Tu"? He was only relying on external forces. If not for the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint and Dark Prison Talismans, forget about Lord Bladehell, even Supreme Saint Cangye would have been able to beat him to his knees. And there will be no external support he can get at Celestial-Hunting Festival."

Scion Yuan Mo's elder brother, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, who had reached the peak of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, immediately lectured him. "Don't judge a book based on its cover. Have you ever given a second thought? Where did he get so many divine stones? How did he get a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint from Stone Clan to be his bodyguard?”

“Furthermore, there’s no way you can trap three Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints from the Qitian Clan, including Lord Bladehell if I give you a Dark Prison Talisman. Things are not always what they seem. Xue Tu must have read the thoughts of Lord Bladehell and his men so well that he knew the precise right time to trap them.

“Before the Dark Prison Talisman was activated, he used Dimensional power. The talisman appeared instantly and did not give the three Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints any chance to dodge it.”

“When you and Xue Tu were Saint Kings, you might be stronger than him. But now, if you underestimate him, he can become a threat for u.”

Scion Yuan Mo was terrified. Xue Tu’s threat had reached a point that even his elder brother had to pay attention to.

“Is Xue Tu really that brilliant?” Scion Yuan Mo asked.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei nodded solemnly, he said, “Xue Tu must have obtained something else other than the Mark of Wargod Bloodflame in Kunlun. It is hard to tell how big of a threat he posed.

“Even Wu Jiang and Lord Sinluo can’t see through him. No matter what, it’s better to be wary against him than underestimating him.”

Bloodysky Clan cultivators were all excited.

Xue Tu’s actions in Realm of Star Ocean made them feel so proud that they called him a “Hero of the Clan.”

From now on, who would dare to mock Bloodsky Clan’s position among the ten major clans?

So what if the Qitian Clan was ranked first?

They couldn’t even get a cauldron of Fugue Pills in the face of Supreme Saint Xue Tu.

Even a powerful existence like Supreme Saint Cangye was like a puny bug in the eyes of Supreme Saint Xue Tu. Xue Tu did not even treat him as a worthy opponent and taught him a lesson.

Lord Bladehell's cultivation had reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. However, he didn't have any upper hand when facing Xue Tu. He could only watch him leave nonchalantly.

At this moment, at Vastsea Manor in Bingsi District, Xue Tu, whose name had shaken the Divine Domain of Destiny, was released by Zhang Ruochen from an Exquisite Dimensional Orb. He was still worried. He felt that this auction was a huge trap. He had offended a bunch of cultivators for no reason.

In the future, he wouldn't be able to move even an inch in the Divine Domain of Destiny.

As soon as Xue Tu walked out of Vastsea Manor, he bumped into Lord Xue Chen.

Lord Xue Chen cupped his fists and said in a serious tone, "Supreme Saint Xue Tu, Father has asked me to invite you, hoping to meet you."

"Brother Xue Chen, there's no need to be so polite. Just call me Xue Tu. Since it's Supreme Saint Qingsheng's invitation, I must go meet him."

Xue Tu was very surprised. He felt that Xue Chen was being overly polite to him.

One had to know that when he was a Saint King, his cultivation was slightly weaker than Xue Chen.

In terms of family background, how could Xue Tu's family compare to the Xue Jue Family?

Although Xue Chen was still a Saint King for now, he could attain Supreme Sainthood anytime he wanted. However, he planned to consume an Altofruit during Celestial-Hunting Festival to cultivate his Path to Perfection before breaking through.

All the Saint Kings who attended Celestial-Hunting Festival had the same plan.

Hence, Xue Tu did not have any advantages in front of Xue Chen. And of course, he did not dare to act like a Supreme Saint.

“Supreme Saint Xue Tu, Lady Wind would like to meet you.”

“Supreme Saint Xue Tu, Supreme Saint Yanhong has sent an invitation. She hopes that you can attend tonight’s banquet.”

...

Xue Tu received a large stack of invitations, including the Scioness candidates, Lady Wind and Supreme Saint Yanhong. For a moment, he was at a loss.

He was even more worried. He paced back and forth, trying to figure out their intentions and whether the invitations were traps.

If they were traps...

Once he went to the banquet, he might not be able to come back unscathed.

“Most of them are coming for the Fugue Pills, the God Corpse, and Lotuses of Divine Reflection. But I have none. Forget it. I can’t take this risk. It’s safer to stay in Zhang Ruochen’s Vastsea Manor.”

Xue Tu felt that he was in danger now. He had made many enemies; the number could surpass Zhang Ruochen’s. He felt aggrieved.

He had thought that after breaking through to become a Supreme Saint, he was supposed to enjoy boundless glory in Infernal Court. How did he end up in such a state without realizing it?

Zhang Ruochen returned to Vastsea Manor and opened Sundial.

Now, he had many Godstones. He wasn’t afraid of shortage.

Zhang Ruochen took out Ancient Abyssal Blade and summoned its sword spirit. Zhang Ruochen gave him ten Earth-Grade and ten Heaven-Grade Implement Nurturing Pills.

“Give me five years to refine these Implement Nurturing Pills. My cultivation should be able to withstand the second King’s Calamity.” The Sword Spirit swallowed an Implement Nurturing Pill and sat cross-legged under Sundial. He started cultivation training.

The sword spirit’s cultivation was still weak. Not only did he have to refine pills, but he also had to comprehend the cultivation Paths and refine his physique. Therefore, it would take a long time.

However, with the help of Sundial, five years was only five days.

Zhang Ruochen took a Heaven Grade Sacred Pill named Firmament Pills to improve his spiritual power. As he refined and absorbed it, he let out five Saint Aspects. They sat under Sundial to comprehend the Paths.

Although Zhang Ruochen had cultivated Saintwill, there were only 510 million Precepts within him.

He had to practice 800 million Precepts to reach the advanced stage of Neverwilt Realm.

“With my current enlightenment speed, I should be able to reach the advanced stage of Neverwilt Realm in 15 years.

“I can achieve the peak of Neverwilt Realm in 20 years.

“The number of Precepts can no longer hinder my cultivation. The key lies in the cultivation of Saintwills.”

Zhang Ruochen was not satisfied with condensing the fifth-class “Nine-tremors Saintwill.”

He had to do his best to condense every kind of Saintwill.

Zhang Ruochen took out a semi-transparent sphere with 12 stellar cores inside.

One was sixth-level, five were of fifth-level, and six were fourth-level.

Zhang Ruochen chose Qiankun Realm to be the location to refine the stellar cores.

A fourth-level stellar core expanded to the size bigger than a mountain once it was taken out. It was pitch-black and kept sinking the ground. Perhaps more than half the weight of the fourth-level planet had been refined into the stellar core.

Zhang Ruochen had been worried that Violet Gourd could not refine a sixth-level stellar core. However, the devouring power of the Golden Sun of Destruction and Cosmic Glazier Stone had exceeded his expectations.

In less than two hours, all 12 stellar cores had been integrated into Violet Gourd.

“I wonder how much the suction of Violet Gourd has increased. I have to test it out on a cultivator.”

When Zhang Ruochen thought of the four cultivators of Heavenly Realm suppressed in the microworld of woodlands, he released them.

The four of them were:

Lian Xi, Fairy Shadowless from Soul Realm, a beauty in Portrait of the Nine Beauties. who was also known as King Daxi.

Gaunt, a top Colossion Saint King from Heavenly Realm.

Zhou Zhen, Celestial Court’s Formation Sect leader who was a High-Saint Array Master.

Shentu Yunkong, the leader of the Fane of Dimension. He had been the most outstanding cultivator of the Fane since 10,000 years ago.

The four of them had been imprisoned and were unaware of what was happening outside the microworld. As soon as they landed in Qiankun, they immediately spread out and surrounded Zhang Ruochen.

They released Saint Qi and spiritual power. It was as if they wanted to join forces to suppress Zhang Ruochen.

“Zhang Ruochen, no matter how powerful you are, you can’t fight against the entire Heavenly Realm alone.” Shentu Yunkong raised his right arm. His muscles bulged, and waves of destructive thunder and lightning power surged out of his body.

Shentu Yunkong spread his hands and formed a Spatial Domain, emitting Saint light. “Kunlun will meet its end. You can’t stop it!” he shouted.

Zhang Ruochen stared at them quietly. He felt as if he had returned to Kunlun.

Lian Xi was much calmer. She had been observing Zhang Ruochen. After a while, she was surprised. “You have become a Supreme Saint? And th-this isn’t Kunlun!”

Shentu Yunkong, Zhou Zhen, and the rest were shocked. They quickly look at their surroundings.

“It’s indeed not Kunlun. The Precepts of Heaven and Earth in this world are quite special. It seems to revolve around Zhang Ruochen,” Gaunt said.

Shentu Yunkong said, “It should be a world formed after Zhang Ruochen used the Precepts of Dimension to merge with some Dimensional item. However, this world... is very vast that my spiritual power can’t see the ends.”

Zhou Zhen’s expression became very ugly. When Zhang Ruochen was still a Saint King, he could easily suppress him. Now that he had become a Supreme Saint, how could he fight?

Shentu Yunkong was still calm. He said, “Don’t panic. Let’s break through to the Supreme Saint realm together. I don’t believe that with four Supreme Saints working together, we can’t kill Zhang Ruochen? As long as we kill him, we can naturally break through this world.”

The four of them had all reached Path’s Anterior. However, they had been suppressing their realms because they wanted to obtain opportunities and treasures on the Battlefields of Merits in Kunlun.

If they had wanted to break through, they could have quickly condensed Neverwither physique and become Supreme Saints.

Among them, Lian Xi, Shentu Yunkong, and Zhou Zhen were all extraordinary spiritual power masters. They had long reached the peak of the 59th level. They could become spiritual power Supreme Saints anytime.

If Zhang Ruochen had wanted to stop them, no matter how powerful they were, they would not have become Supreme Saints while they were in Qiankun.

However, Zhang Ruochen didn't stop them. Instead, he sat on a huge rock he found and looked at them as if he was waiting for them to break through.

Zhang Ruochen's actions made Lian Xi, who knew him well, feel slightly bitter. She thought, 'Zhang Ruochen is calm, and his eyes are deep and unfathomable. He didn't stop us from breaking through. He's obviously very confident in himself. That's right. Even if we break through and become a Supreme Saint, we could not defeat him.

'However, Shentu Yunkong is the Master of Space, and Zhou Zhen is the High-Saint Array Master. Once they attain Supreme Sainthood, their combat power will definitely increase. Not only Zhang Ruochen is arrogant, but he also underestimates us. This could be our chance.'

Lian Xi did not think any further and went all out to break through to Supreme Sainthood.

Not long after, Lian Xi, Shentu Yunkong, and Zhou Zhen made it one after another and became spiritual power Supreme Saints.

Gaunt, on the other hand, condensed a Neverwithier physique in the distance. He was at a critical point of breaking through to Supreme Sainthood.

Lian Xi took out a crystal staff from a spatial necklace. It was activated by the spiritual power of the 60th level. The staff immediately released thousands of black Ghost marks, causing the sky within a radius of 500 kilometers to turn dark.

Her beautiful hair flew in the air. With the twinkling of light, her exquisite facial features appeared and disappeared at times.

"She is indeed a beauty. After becoming a spiritual power Supreme Saint, her demeanor is more graceful than before,"

Zhang Ruochen commented while sitting on the rock with a serious expression.

Lian Xi's perfect outer appearance and shapely body were not the only reasons that made her one of the beauties in Portrait of the Nine Beauties standing next to Fairy of a Hundred Flowers, Fairy Ci Hang, and other beauties. Her temperament was also her strength. Despite being evil and spooky, she did not evoke fear among people. On the contrary, she was pleasing to the eye. The more people looked at her, the more they wanted to see her.

She was the representative figure among the dark beauties in macroworlds of Celestial Court.

Zappp!

Zhou Zhen pressed his right hand on the ground. Suddenly, a huge array appeared and trapped Zhang Ruochen inside.

Shentu Yunkong reached out his hands above his head as if he was holding something in the air.

“The Realm in Clouds.”

A red continent condensed from the dimensional power appeared in the clouds. It was hundreds of miles long, and it pressed down on Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You guys are still too weak. You are not worthy to be my opponent for now. These attack moves are only mediocre. Disperse!”

He stood up and gently stamped his foot.

Rumble.

The array formed by Zhou Zhen shattered. The crimson continent formed by Shentu Yunkong turned into specks of dust. The black Ghost marks released by the Lian Xi all returned.

The three spat out blood at the same time and were sent flying dozens of miles away. After a long while, they struggled to get up from the ground.

“Impossible... no matter how strong you are, you can't be this strong...”

Shentu Yunkong had been the top elite among cultivators of the Fane of Dimension since 10,000 years ago. The Fane of Dimension had sent him to counter Zhang Ruochen in Kunlun. How could he withstand such a blow? His state of mind almost collapsed.

Zhang Ruochen stared at them and shook his head gently.

“While you are here, even if you are ten times stronger, I can easily subdue you. Sigh!

“I was going to ask you to help me test the power of Violet Gourd, but it seems that even if you break through to the Supreme Saint Realm, your strength is still far from enough.”

Then, Zhang Ruochen urged Gong, who was condensing the Neverwithier physique, “Speed up. When you also break through to the Supreme Saint realm, I'll take you to Infernal Court to check it out. I'll also introduce you to a few Supreme Saints of Infernal Court.”

Just now, Xue Tu had brought Supreme Saint Qingsheng to Vastsea Manor and was talking to Zhang Ruochen.

The Zhang Ruochen in Qiankun was only his avatar.

When Shentu Yunkong, Zhou Zhen, and Xuan Xi heard Zhang Ruochen's words, they were all stunned. They thought they were hearing things.

‘What did Zhang Ruochen just say?’

‘Take us to Infernal Court?’

‘Introduce us to Infernal Court Supreme Saints?’

Chapter 2256: My Senior's Woman

Supreme Saint Qingsheng sat in the pavilion. With a smile on his face, he praised Zhang Ruochen. "Ruochen, Xue Tu told me everything just now. This time, you did well. You bought the seven cauldrons of Fugue Pills. The overall strength of the cultivators attending the Festival in Bloodsky Clan will definitely increase by a lot."

Zhang Ruochen glared at Xue Tu coldly.

Xue Tu felt sullen and helpless. "Senior brother, I can't help it. With Supreme Saint Qingsheng's exceptional insight, how can I hide it from him?"

"You swore to heaven," Zhang Ruochen said.

"In Infernal Court, no cultivator believes in heaven," Supreme Saint Qingsheng said. "What is heaven? In Infernal Court, cultivators believe in destiny, darkness, slaughter, death, or gods."

Xue Tu was shocked. He hadn't expected Supreme Saint Qingsheng to trick him.

'This old man is d*mn sly!

'He's trying to punish me just because I didn't tell him the truth.

'Seriously, did I offend anyone?'

Before Zhang Ruochen got angry, Xue Tu quickly explained, "Senior brother, listen to me. It's not what you think. I didn't tell Supreme Saint Qingsheng anything. He figured it out all by himself."

Zhang Ruochen poured a cup of Saint Spring Water and handed it to Supreme Saint Qingsheng. He said leisurely, "Then swear again. Swear in the name of your father."

"Still need to swear?"

Xue Tu felt bitter. How could a Supreme Saint like him, who was a terrifying, powerful figure to all Celestial Court cultivators, live like a loser.

He had no choice so he could only swear again.

Xue Tu was in deep sh*t now. Hence, if he offended Zhang Ruochen, he would have no place in the Divine Domain of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I'm afraid Uncle Qingsheng has some misunderstanding. I want to keep the Fugue Pills for my own use. Of course, if Bloodsky Clan participants can afford it, I can sell some to them."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng had a certain understanding of Zhang Ruochen's character. He didn't force him. He moved his eyes. "Of course," he said. "You spent a fortune for it. Why would you give it to other cultivators? Even I'm not that generous."

Then, Supreme Saint Qingsheng and Zhang Ruochen fell silent.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Supreme Saint Qingsheng hadn't come to Vastsea Manor to chat with him. He must have other intentions, so Zhang Ruochen continued to wait.

He waited for Supreme Saint Qingsheng to speak first.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng stared at Sundial and exclaimed, "What an amazing Time treasure. With it, one year of practice is actually just one day in reality. Sigh, it's a pity, though."

"What do you mean by 'pity'?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, "It was damaged and lost its former glory. The vessel spirit is gone, and it can only cover an area of 640 meters. In such conditions, it becomes less useful to deities. Hence, its value is greatly affected."

When a deity practiced enlightenment, they would enter a state of selflessness. As a result, they would take their true form.

How could a mere 640-meter coverage accommodate a deity?

"Sundial's attack power is still very strong. I'm afraid that many deities still want to snatch it away from me," Zhang Ruochen said.

“HMPH! Snatch it away from you? Even Asurendra Samay got a heavy lesson from that. Who still dares to snatch it away from you?”

After a short pause, Supreme Saint Qingsheng sighed. “Xue Chen and Xiao Xiao are both top geniuses of the Xue Jue family. Unfortunately, even though I’m the acting leader, I can’t provide them with the best practice environment and resources.

“Ruochen, why don’t you let them practice in the area covered by Sundial before Celestial-Hunting Festival?”

“This... Of course,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was overjoyed. He smiled and said, “With the help of Sundial, they’ll have decades of practice time. Before the Celestial-Hunting Festival, they’ll definitely be able to accumulate the Precepts to a higher level. I’ll express my gratitude to you on their behalf.”

Xue Tu stood at the side and sneered. Xue Tu could see that Supreme Saint Qingsheng, the old fox, was planning to send his children here to get close to Zhang Ruochen because he saw that Zhang Ruochen had a lot of cultivation resources.

Even if it was just a little from Zhang Ruochen, Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao could benefit greatly from it.

‘Even Supreme Saint Qing Sheng is humble to Zhang Ruochen and curries favor with him. Should I take the initiative too?’ Xue Tu thought.

“No need to thank me, Uncle. You can help me test the power of Violet Gourd.” Zhang Ruochen summoned Violet Gourd from Qiankun.

Meanwhile, Lian Xi, Shentu Yunkong, and Zhou Zhen walked out of Qiankun’s world gate one after another and landed on Vastsea Manor.

The four Supreme Saints were shocked and bewildered. They observed their surroundings while keeping an eye on Xue Tu and Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

“They are the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires, and one of them has unfathomable cultivation. What is this place?” Zhou Zhen was shocked and broke out in cold sweat.

‘Is this really Infernal Court?’

To Celestial Court cultivators, Infernal Court meant death and darkness.

Once they fell into the hands of Infernal Court cultivators, they would definitely suffer a fate worse than death. Thus, deep fear rose within them.

Lian Xi recognized this famous ruthless figure on Battlefields of Merits. She couldn’t understand why Xue Tu called Zhang Ruochen senior brother.

‘Is Zhang Ruochen a spy sent by Infernal Court to infiltrate Celestial Court?’

Lian Xi’s heart sank. She looked up at the sky, but she could not see any light. It was as if she had been locked in a dark prison. What kind of torture and abuse would she face next?

Shentu Yunkong, Gaunt, and Zhou Zhen also felt sad.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t be bothered with their feelings. He told Xue Tu, “Keep an eye on them. We’ll be back soon.”

Zhang Ruochen and Supreme Saint Qingsheng entered the microworld of woodlands to test the power of Violet Gourd.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng owed Zhang Ruochen a favor since he wanted to send his children to Zhang Ruochen’s side to practice cultivation. Therefore, he didn’t refuse.

The test results came out quickly.

“Violet Gourd’s suction power has increased by 20 percent,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng concluded.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Is it powerful enough to be a threat to the top 10 Supreme Saints who attained Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?”

“Them? Well, each of them can either defeat or kill a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. Although your gourd has a chance, it’s not easy to suck them in.

“Unless the suction power of the gourd continues to improve,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said.

Zhang Ruochen nodded. Suddenly, he thought of something and asked curiously, “Uncle, what grade is your Saintwill?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was very proud and said, “Grade Four.”

Zhang Ruochen frowned slightly. “Only Grade Four?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s face darkened the moment he heard the contempt in Zhang Ruochen’s tone. “A Grade Four Saintwill is already a top grade Saintwill. It means I have the chance to enter godhood.

“You should ask around. In the entire Bloodsky Clan, very few Supreme Saints who could condense a Saintwill of Grade Five or above.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What grade is the Saintwills practiced by Wargod Bloodximius?”

“Well, as far as I know, Wargod Bloodximius cultivated nine types of Saintwills. After many times of merging, they have turned into two Grade Twos Saintwills.” Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s eyes were full of respect and awe.

In his heart, Wargod Bloodximius was someone no one could surpass, a Wargod who was worth worshipping.

Zhang Ruochen was amazed that Wargod Bloodximius could cultivate nine types of Saintwills.

However, knowing that the Wargod could only cultivate two types of Grade Two Saintwills despite being a prodigy of a Yuanhui period, Zhang Ruochen was somewhat disappointed.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Is there no Supreme Saint who can condense Grade One Saintwill?”

“Grade One Saintwill?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng let out a cough. He said earnestly, “Ruochen, I know that you are very talented, but you can’t set your goal too high.

“You should know that in Infernal Court, sometimes in the entire 129,600 years, a Yuanhui period, there is no Supreme Saint who can condense Grade Two Saintwill.

“Those top 10 Supreme Saints who have attained the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm can be considered the most talented cultivators in Infernal Court in the past thousand years.

“However, among them, only six have cultivated Grade Three Saintwills, while the remaining four have only cultivated Grade Four Saintwills.

“When Wargod cultivated two Grade Two Saintwills at the same time, the news sent the deities shockwaves.

“As for you, if you can condense one Grade Two Saintwill, it will be enough to solidify your status as a Yuanhui level genius.

“If you can condense two Grade Two Saintwills, I’m afraid that the forces of Infernal Court who held grudge against you will have to put down their hatred.

“Hehe. They might even want to offer their favorite daughters of their clan to you as brides to mend ties with you.”

“That serious?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “Of course, it means the Xue Jue family has a new Wargod Bloodximius. Do you still think it’s an exaggeration?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “In history, has there ever been a Supreme Saint who condensed a Grade One Saintwill?”

“I don’t think so.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng thought carefully and said, “Although there are legends about cultivators who condensed a Grade One Saintwill, careful analysis done by the deities showed it’s unlikely to be true.

“You have to know that the cultivation of Saintwill is closely related to the Canons.

“In the universe, every Canon is constant ‘one’, which is 100 percent.

“If you practice Grade One Saintwill, after becoming a god, you can convert 100 percent of the Canon, it means you will become the Absolute Master of that Path. Do you think it is possible?

“In fact, no cultivator can condense Saintwills of Grade Three or above from a single Path. You have to combine a Saintwill with other Saintwills for a chance to advance it.”

Zhang Ruochen was deep in thought. He said, “Can I put it this way? If I condense a Grade One Saintwill from my Path of Time, I can grasp 100 percent of the Time Canon once I attained Godhood and become the Absolute Master of Time in the Universe .”

“That’s right. But that’s impossible. Even Saint Monk Xumi could only grasp less than 50 percent of the Time Canon. It’s the result of countless years of accumulation.”

“If the Time Saintwill I condense is of the second grade, does that mean I can master 50 percent of the Time Canon after I become a god? And if the Time Saintwill I condense is of the third grade, does that mean I can master 25 percent of the Time Canon after becoming a god?” said Zhang Ruochen.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “Theoretically, that’s true. “However, no cultivator can condense third-grade Saintwill from a single Path.

“Therefore, it’s impossible for you to master 25 percent of the Time Canon when you’ve just attained Godhood.”

“Moreover, it’s still unknown whether 25 percent of the Time Canon without holder still exists

“If it doesn’t exist, you still have to wait until the gods who hold the Time Canon die and let the Time Canon return to the world. Only then will you have a chance.

“In addition, the Fane of Time has learned from the Fane of Truth and Fane of Destiny. They are trying their best to collect all portions of Time Canon scattered in the heaven and earth.”

“If they succeed, even if you become a god cultivating the Path of Time, you won’t be able to grasp its Canon entirely. Unless you can kill your way into the Fane of Time and take their portion by force.

“Actually, I don’t know much about the Canons. What I’m telling you is just my own guess and the contents of the books.

“Don’t think too far ahead. At this stage, try to condense Saintwills of higher grades as much as possible. That is the right thing to do.”

After telling Zhang Ruochen all of this, Supreme Saint Qingsheng let out a long sigh.

The word ‘Canons’ gave him a headache.

The Saintwill he cultivated was only at Grade Four. Even if he was lucky enough to become a god, he wouldn’t be able to grasp any Canons.

There were too few deities who could do so.

Among the top 10 Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints who had attained Great Perfection, six of them had cultivated Grade Three Saintwills. Yet, they were considered the strongest in Infernal Court for a thousand years and had been the killing targets of Celestial Court’s Macroworld leaders.

it was considered good enough to have one of them survive and become a deity in the future.

In reality, most Supreme Saints who had condensed the third-grade Saintwills would age and die at Paramount Realm. Some of them would even die at the hands of Celestial Court cultivators.

The final step to ascend to godhood was just too hard.

Zhang Ruochen asked Supreme Saint Qingsheng for some tips on condensing Saintwills. Only then did the two walk out of the microworld of woodlands and return to the Vastsea Manor.

Vastsea Manor was completely destroyed. The soil under their feet became pitch-black. It had once turned into lava, but it was frozen again.

The cultivators of Bloodsky Clan had gathered in Bingsi District. Although there had been top supreme-level Inscriptions set up everywhere, many buildings were destroyed after they were damaged.

Sundial was protected by Moyin and Zhang Ruochen's five Saitn Aspects. It still hovered in the air above Vastsea Manor.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's eyes darkened. "D*mn it."

"Let me handle this."

Of course, Zhang Ruochen knew what had happened.

It would be strange if the four Supreme Saints from Heavenly Realm and its allies stayed in Vastsea Manor. Xue Tu alone would not be able to suppress them.

Zhang Ruochen moved and left the Vastsea Manor.

In Bingxi District, a large number of Supreme Saints from Bloodsky Clan had gathered. Shentu Yunkong, Zhou Zhen, Lian Xi, and Gaunt could not escape.

By the time Zhang Ruochen arrived, the four Supreme Saints had already been suppressed.

Shentu Yunkong's body had been cut in half by a sword.

He did not die.

His two halves were hung up separately. Below them were two large cauldrons that collected his dripping blood.

"Give me a quick death!" Shentu Yunkong shouted in humiliation.

A Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint held his hands in mid-air. He twisted Zhou Zhen's body into a mess with his Blood Qi. Zhou Zhen's skin and flesh split open, his bones cracked. Blood flowed out continuously and fell into the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint's mouth.

Zhou Zhen's cries rose and fell. It was a tragic sight.

Gaunt was also in a tragic state. He was suppressed by another Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. The Supreme Saint used chains to wrap around Gaunt's neck and dragged him on the ground like a dog on a leash.

The surrounding area was filled with mocking laughter.

Of course, Lian Xi attracted most attention.

Lian Xi's hands and waist were tied by three blood-red chains. She could not move her body. She felt as if she was about to be torn apart.

The three chains were formed from three powerful Blood Qi. The other end of the chains was held tightly in the hands of the three Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints.

It was inevitable. The nine beauties in the Portrait of the Nine Beauties were also very famous in Infernal Court. Many Infernal Court cultivators participated in the War of Merits with the goal of capturing one of the beauties.

Now that one of them, who was this stunning, had appeared in Infernal Court, she naturally became the main target of Bloodsky Clan Supreme Saints.

Being able to embrace a beauty was secondary.

The most important thing was their pride.

Taking in one of the beauties in Portrait of the Nine Beauties as a concubine or a slave would definitely make countless cultivators envious.

"Lord Canghu, Lord Bei, I'll give each of you a hundred divine stones for Fairy Shadowless," said Supreme Saint Xueqi.

Lord Canghu laughed, "What a generous offer. It's a pity that I don't lack divine stones. I only lack a woman to give birth to my children. I think the Fairy Shadowless is a suitable candidate."

"Fairy Shadowless has a special physique and is extremely talented. Her children won't be bad. So I want to keep her as my concubine," Supreme Saint Xueqi said.

Lord Bei said, “Canghu, Xueqi, I’ll give each of you 100 divine stones and 10 Saint Realm Beauties. Give Fairy Shadowless to me.”

“No, I want Fairy Shadowless. Whoever fights with me today will be my sworn enemy,” said Lord Canghu.

...

Xue Tu noticed Zhang Ruochen. He rolled his eyes and seized the opportunity to rush out. He acted angrily. “Why are the three of you fighting? The Fairy Shadowless has long been my senior brother’s woman. How dare you touch her? Are you looking for death?”

With Xue Tu’s current reputation, no cultivator dared to ignore him.

“She is Zhang Ruochen’s woman?” Supreme Saint Xueqi’s expression froze.

Xue Tu said, “She already is.”

In Xue Tu’s opinion, since Zhang Ruochen had captured and suppressed her in his Microworld, any normal man would have done what they needed to do.

Lian Xi was furious. She said in a low voice, “Xue Tu, if you talk nonsense again, I’ll drag you along when I die.”

“How is this nonsense? Do you dare to deny that nothing has happened between you and my senior brother?”

Xue Tu sneered and said, “Fairy, you’d better tell the truth. With my senior brother as your backer, your life in Infernal Court will be better. Otherwise, you will fall into the hands of these three. For now, they are still interested in you. But once they lose their interest after a few years, they might pass you around to other Supreme Saints like a gift. Or, they might hand you over to Realm of Star Ocean and auction you off as a slave..”

Chapter 2257: Friends and Foes

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

“Why are you still pretending to be pure and innocent? It turns out that you are not even a virgin.”

“Fairy Shadowless is one of the most beautiful female creatures in Celestial Court. Even if she lost her virginity to Supreme Saint Ruochen, she is still worth it.”

...

Hearing all kinds of scurrilous, sarcastic, and teasing remarks, Lian Xi felt so humiliated that her mind almost collapsed. She wanted nothing more than to self-detonate her Sainthood Source and perish together with this group of Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints.

However, Supreme Saint Xueqi, Lord Canghu, and Lord Bei were all in Hundred-Shackle Realm. While they used the Blood Qi to form chains to bind her, they also suppressed the circulation of the Saint Qi in her body and restrained her spiritual power.

Her desire to die was a wild wish.

She finally understood why they all said that if she fell into the hands of Infernal Court cultivators, she would suffer a fate worse than death. She looked at the Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints in front of her. All of them looked as if they wanted to devour her. Their eyes were blatantly filled with lust.

Although the words that Xue Tu said were unpleasant to hear, perhaps that was the dark and cruel reality that she was about to face.

If she really became a sex slave alternately used by different Infernal Court Supreme Saints. She wouldn't be able to die if she wanted to. She wouldn't be able to escape if she wanted to. She didn't dare to imagine how much of a commotion this news would trigger among Celestial Court cultivators if they knew about this.

If the cultivators of Soul Realm knew, how would they look at her?

‘Wh-Why...’

Lian Xi felt bitter. At the same time, she didn’t understand why so many Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints would gather in a city of Infernal Court?

‘How can the force of Infernal Court be so terrifying?’

‘If I say that I’m Zhang Ruochen’s woman, will they spare me?’

‘However, Zhang Ruochen has just entered Supreme Sainthood not long ago. Even if he is now one of Infernal Court cultivators, he’s only a Supreme Saint with the lowest rank. It is impossible that his words can sway the decision of these three Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints.’

After the fight, Lian Xi clearly realized that no matter how powerful she was when she was a Saint King, after becoming a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint, it was impossible for her to defeat a Hundred-Shackle Realm opponent.

Hence, she perceived that even if she claimed she was Zhang Ruochen’s woman, that could not change the situation.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the periphery. His eyes were indifferent. He watched everything quietly and did not go forward to stop them.

He had long expected that Xue Tu alone could not suppress the four Celestial Court Supreme Saints. The reason why he left Xue Tu alone to guard them was actually intentional.

It was to let them escape from Vastsea Manor.

Zhou Zhen and Shentu Yunkong had secrets that Zhang Ruochen wanted to know. If Zhang Ruochen interrogated them, they would rather die than spill the beans.

Only by letting Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints teach them a lesson could they realize their current situation and the cruel reality.

Then, they would be more obedient.

There were very few Supreme Saints and deities who were not afraid of death.

The key was whether it was worth dying.

If there was still a chance to live, even if there was only a sliver of hope, who would be willing to die?

Besides, the scarier thing than death was being tortured and humiliated in some ways worse than death.

Xue Tu's eyes darkened. "Why are the three of you still imprisoning Fairy Shadowless? Do you really think that my senior brother is kind enough to let this slide? Do you still want to participate in Celestial-Hunting Festival after humiliating his woman?"

Defeating the Three Top Elites of Bloodskly Clan and suppressing the six Supreme Saints of the Mara family had caused Zhang Ruochen's reputation to rise.

In Bloodsky Clan, who would dare to challenge him?

Who wouldn't be afraid of him?

Lord Canghu did not sound tough as before. His tone softened. "These Celestial Court Supreme Saints barged into the Divine Domain of Destiny. They should belong to whoever captured them.

"Of course, if Fairy Shadowless is really the woman of Supreme Saint Ruochen, I will definitely give him face. However, as you can see, Fairy Shadowless has never said so."

Lord Bei said, "That's right! If she is really the woman of Supreme Saint Ruochen, we will definitely give him face. It is only right to let her go.

"However, we have been arguing here for so long. Regardless of whether it is Supreme Saint Ruochen or Fairy Shadowless, neither of them expresses their stance.

"So if we let her go just like that, it will put our reputation at risk."

Lord Canghu and Xueqi Supreme Saint both nodded their heads.

Lian Xi was quite surprised. She didn't expect Zhang Ruochen to have such influence over Infernal Court. Even the three Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints had to give him face.

She could not bring herself to claim she was Zhang Ruochen's woman. Moreover, what if she said so but Zhang Ruochen denied it, wouldn't she become the laughing stock among Infernal Court cultivators?

Zhou Zhen couldn't bear the pain. "I'm... I'm Zhang Ruochen's friend. We have a deep friendship... You can't... You can't do this to me..." His voice was feeble, his tone sad.

The Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, who had twisted Zhou Zhen into the shape of Braided Ribbon Twist¹ to drink Zhou Zhen's blood was called Huo Duan. He was shocked upon hearing that.

'This fellow is actually Zhang Ruochen's friend!'

Zhang Ruochen wasn't someone ordinary cultivators could offend, so the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint withdrew some of his power and asked, "Are you really Supreme Saint Ruochen's friend?"

"Yes, I am," Zhou Zhen said.

Seeing Zhou Zhen yield, Zhang Ruochen smiled and walked out of the crowd.

As soon as the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints saw Zhang Ruochen appear, they were all moved. Their expressions became stiff. They were worried that Zhou Zhen and Lian Xi really had close ties with him.

Huo Duan withdrew all his Blood Qi and put Zhou Zhen back on the ground.

Zhou Zhen's cultivation was high after all. Hence, his tattered body recovered quickly with the help of the 60th level spiritual power. However, he had lost a lot of blood. His face was pale, his breath weak.

The moment Zhou Zhen saw Zhang Ruochen, his eyes were apprehensive. He didn't dare to look directly at Zhang Ruochen.

He had been tortured to the point of breaking down just now, so he had no choice but to shout Zhang Ruochen's name. But now, he was worried that Zhang Ruochen would expose his lies in public.

However, unexpectedly, Zhang Ruochen reached out his hands and help Zhou Zhen up. He said with concern, "Brother Zhou Zhen, are you okay? Are you hurt badly? This is an Earth-Grade healing pill. Take it first."

Zhou Zhen was confused. He didn't know what Zhang Ruochen was up to.

However, he had no other choice now. He took the Earth-Grade healing pill. After a slight hesitation, he swallowed it.

Huo Duan was extremely nervous. He quickly walked up and said carefully, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, I didn't know he was your friend. I just saw him disturbing the order of Bingsi District. That's why I..."

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand, "No need to say more. This time, it's not your fault. Remember, this spiritual power Supreme Saint is the current-gen leader of Formation Sect. His name is Zhou Zhen. He's my bro."

Exclaim came from surrounding cultivators.

"Formation Sect is the pilgrimage place for Celestial Court cultivators practicing arrays and formations. It has produced many powerful High-Saint Array Masters and Archsaint Array Masters. I didn't expect him to be the leader of this generation. No wonder he's so hard to capture."

"Zhou Zhen, I've heard of his name. He's a prodigy."

"How can he be mediocre since he is Supreme Saint Ruochen's bro?"

...

Hearing the discussions of the crowd, Zhou Zhen didn't smile at all. On the contrary, he was about to cry.

He already understood that this was Zhang Ruochen's evil plan.

He believed that this matter would soon be reported back to Celestial Court and Formation Sect.

At that time, no matter how he explained, it would be useless. There was no way things would go back.

Even if he went back, he would probably be locked up and never be able to make it out of the prison alive.

Gaunt, on the other hand, with his neck tied up and dragged along, roared in rage. “Zhou Zhen, you conspired with Zhang Ruochen since a long time ago. No wonder Zhang Ruochen let you go during the battle in Central Imperial City. It was you who leaked our plan to Zhang Ruochen!”

Shentu Yunkong, whose body had been cut in half, fell. “Traitor! Coward!”

Zhou Zhen’s face was bitter. He wanted to deny it, but seeing the ferocious looks of the Immortal Vampires around him, he could not do so.

Lian Xi was shocked. Zhang Ruochen seemed to have a high status in Infernal Court. Even a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint had to bow to him.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were fixed on her.

Lian Xi wanted to lie like Zhou Zhen, telling them she was Zhang Ruochen’s woman. so she could suffer less. However, the dignity and unyielding will within her were resisting her thought.

Some words could not be said, not even over her dead body.

Zhang Ruochen clearly saw this. He glanced at Supreme Saint Xueqi, Lord Bei, and Lord Canghu. A powerful Saint aura burst out from his body. He snorted coldly, “How dare you. Release Lian Xi immediately.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi, Lord Bei, and Lord Canghu all thought that Zhang Ruochen was really angry. They were terrified. They quickly withdrew the chains and retreated to the side.

As soon as the three chains disappeared, Lian Xi immediately mobilized the Saint Qi in her body, wanting to self-destruct.

However, the next moment, Zhang Ruochen held her delicate body tightly in his arms. He put one hand around her slim waist and caressed her face with the other.

His gentle appearance made all the cultivators present think that Fairy Shadowless was really Zhang Ruochen's lover.

However, Lian Xi was in great pain. The Saint Qi that was originally circulating was forcefully suppressed by Zhang Ruochen. At the same time, an even more powerful force surged out of Zhang Ruochen's body and completely sealed her Sea of Qi and Saint Heart.

Gaunt was extremely angry and howled, "I knew it! I knew it!" He said, "You B*tch, you surrendered to Zhang Ruochen's tyranny.

"Otherwise, how could it be that coincidental when we were in Central Imperial City?

"It was you... You and Zhou Zhen who betrayed us."

Lian Xi's beautiful face showed signs of struggle, but she couldn't say a word because of Zhang Ruochen's suppression.

Although she was unwilling to accept Zhang Ruochen's scheme, deep in her heart, she felt relieved.

The reason why she felt so conflicted was that it was better to fall into Zhang Ruochen's hands than those Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints.

Moreover, this was Infernal Court.

She probably couldn't find a safer place than Zhang Ruochen's embrace.

Of course, she was shocked as soon as that thought appeared in her mind. She quickly cleared it out.

She was a noble beauty depicted on Portrait of the Nine Beauties, a talented beauty, the future ruler of Soul Realm. How could she belittle herself like this?

"If you don't want to give up your life and want to survive, come with me. In Infernal Court, only I can save you and allow you to preserve your most basic dignity. You're a smart woman. You should know what to choose."

Zhang Ruochen held Lian Xi's waist and stared at her.

Lian Xi's heart trembled slightly as she met Zhang Ruochen's eyes. She felt a majestic pressure in his eyes that made her unable to breathe.

In the end, she had to close her eyes and lean into Zhang Ruochen's arms.

Zhang Ruochen nodded in satisfaction and walked toward Vastsea Manor. Suddenly, he turned around and stared at Xue Tu, "Gaunt and Shentu Yunkong aren't my friends. Instead, we have a deep grudge against each other. Help me teach them a lesson. Bring them to me only when they are tamed. Remember, I want them alive."

Xue Tu was delighted. "Can I devour their Saint Blood?"

"You have full authority," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Don't worry, Senior Brother. I'll take care of them."

Xue Tu had felt sullen recently. He finally had a chance to vent his anger and display a Supreme Saint's dignity.

Returning to Vastsea Manor, Zhang Ruochen looked at the devastation in front of him. He narrowed his eyes and said, "Zhou Zhen, you're a brilliant High-Saint Array Master. It shouldn't be a problem for you to change and restore the environment, right?"

Zhou Zhen said nothing.

He suppressed his resentment, and his eyes were cold. He wanted to take this opportunity to launch a sneak attack on Zhang Ruochen.

However, he thought that the success rate of the sneak attack was too low. Moreover, even if the sneak attack succeeded and killed Zhang Ruochen, he would not be able to escape.

Even if he escaped, it was unlikely that he could return to Celestial Court.

'What should I do?'

Zhou Zhen hesitated for a long time and smiled. "It's a small matter. Leave it to me."

While Zhou Zhen was restoring the environment and buildings of Vastsea Manor, Zhang Ruochen let go of Lian Xi. With his hands behind his back, he stood tall and firm. He said, "Do you know why I saved you?"

Lian Xi stood in front of him, her eyes as cold as ice. She said, "I didn't ask you to save me."

"No, deep in your heart, you want me to save you," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Why don't you kill me and give me a quick death? I'll be grateful to you."

"Coward," Zhang Ruochen said.

"What did you say?"

"I said that you're too weak and your spiritual will is not firm. When you encounter adversity, you would only want to die. A cultivator like you, no matter how talented, is useless. Your future achievements are limited.

"Whether you live or die, you won't have any impact on the world."

Of course, Lian Xi was not satisfied with Zhang Ruochen's evaluation of her. When she was about to speak, Zhang Ruochen continued.

"Those who have the potential to attain godhood will never give up. Even if you are in Infernal Court and suffer all kinds of torture and humiliation, your heart should never waver. Instead, you should just take this as a test to make you stronger.

"Can you do it? No, you can't take it. In other words, you are a coward. You have no courage to face such adversity."

Lian Xi was even more dissatisfied. She wanted to refute, but could not open her mouth.

Zhang Ruochen continued, "Let's go back to the first question. Do you know why I saved you?"

“Why?”

“Because you’re my captive. Everything about you belongs to me. Even you should live or die, I should be the one who decides.” Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were cold, filled with authority.

Lian Xi was so angry that her delicate body was trembling. But this time, she did not mention that she would rather die.

Perhaps Zhang Ruochen was right. Her state of mind was not strong enough. She should have seen today’s incident as a test, a test that would train her state of mind. As long as she could withstand it, she would have a more promising future.

By then, it would not be too late to seek revenge on Zhang Ruochen.

When the time came, she could even make the entire Infernal Court suffer.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Lian Xi with a satisfied expression. As long as she did not seek death, it would be his first step to success. Next, he would slowly conquer her and control her.

Lian Xi’s ability was not weak, so she was still of some use for the time being.

“Two out of these four Supreme Saints of Heavenly Realm and its allies no longer share the same stand. Their resolution is no longer as firm as before. In other words, it’s the time for interrogation.” Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were deep, his expression darkened.

Chapter 2258: Huang Tian

The surrounding of Vastsea Manor had been completely restored and had become more beautiful than before. There were many pavilions scattered everywhere, lakes were surrounding them, bridges with white mist and the array formation intertwined. It was like sacred ground for the fairies.

It was a piece of cake for a High-Saint Array Master to change the landscape, environment, and rivers of a planet. Let alone a manor.

Zhou Zhen did not feel any sense of accomplishment. Instead, he felt very sullen.

How could the Formation Sect's leader of this generation, a talented High-Saint Array Master, be reduced to Zhang Ruochen's gardener?

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen stood at the edge of the opened bronze coffin within the coverage of the Sundial. He used his spiritual power to carefully observe the half of the divine corpse in the coffin.

The space inside the coffin was huge.

The half of the divine corpse was more than 2,000 miles long. It looked like a scorpion's tail and was covered with huge cyan spikes. Although the divine soul had been taken away, there were still remnants of the divine soul. It condensed into soul fog floating around the divine corpse.

Zhou Zhen, Liao Xi, Moyin, Xue Chen, and Xue Ningxiao stood at the side, and they all focused on the divine corpse.

Xue Chen said, "The lingering divine soul fog is the main ingredient for refining the Divine Soul Elixir. It's extremely precious."

The Divine Soul Elixir was a king-grade elixir that could increase the strength of spiritual power.

From this, one could imagine the value of the divine soul fog.

Above that, there was the Divine Soul Elixir.

However, for the Divine Soul Elixir to reach emperor-grade, it had to be refined using the divine soul itself.

Moyin's graceful body walked to Zhang Ruochen's side and said, "Master, if you give this half of divine corpse to me, I'm confident that I'll reach the Banshi Isshou Realm within a hundred years. I might even reach the Paramount Realm."

She extended her finger. Roots as thin as hair flew out from her fingertip and extended into the coffin.

"Don't blame me for not reminding you," Zhang Ruochen said, "This half of the divine corpse is poisonous. You might not be able to withstand it."

Moyin's expression changed slightly and she quickly retracted her silver roots.

The Saint Devourer was not afraid of any poison. However, no living creature would dare to try the poison in a god. Even a god would have to be careful.

Zhou Zhen, Lian Xi, Xue Chen, and Xue Ningxiao could not help but take a few steps back after hearing what Zhang Ruochen said.

Zhang Ruochen summoned a God-eater Bug the size of a fingernail and threw it into the coffin.

The God-eater Bug was a creature born from the Divine Sky-connecting Tree. It could devour everything in the world. In terms of its resistance to poison, it was even stronger than the Saint Devourer.

However, the God-eater Bug stopped moving after it flew to the divine corpse and it took only a dozen bites. The blue flames on its body extinguished along with its lifeforce.

"What a terrifying poison."

The cultivators' expressions became even more solemn.

Zhang Ruochen frowned deeply. He thought and walked toward the wind pavilion. The divine corpse was left there and he did not care about it anymore.

Xue Ningxiao said, "Cousin, you don't have to be disappointed. Although the divine corpse contains poison, its value has been greatly reduced. However, the poison produced by god has great lethality. If properly refined, it can be used to poison a Supreme Saint. Many cultivators would rush to buy such a poison."

"It's not that simple," said Zhang Ruochen.

He shook his head and continued, "Just because you can poison a Supreme Saint doesn't mean the Supreme Saint is poisoned."

"Huh?"

Xue Ningxiao was stunned. She couldn't understand what Zhang Ruochen had said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Poisoning is the simplest way to kill someone. However, killing a Supreme Saint is as difficult as ascending to heaven."

"A Supreme Saint won't stand still and let you poison him. If he senses something, he'll fly dozens of miles away. Unless the poison you refine can cover hundreds of miles in an instant."

"However, a Supreme Saint must have some means of defense. It will not be difficult for him to withstand the poison for a short while. By then, he will have escaped the range of the poison."

"If you want to poison a Supreme Saint, you have to make him swallow the poison or allow the poison to seep into his body directly. If you can do that, why do you need to use poison? Wouldn't it be better to kill him with a sword?"

These poisons were of great value and had many uses. However, their value was far less than the price of 180,000 Godstones.

Zhang Ruochen was not willing to give up. He walked to the bronze coffin again and summoned more than 100 God-eater Bugs. He put them in at the same time.

Whish

The God-eater Bugs flew to the divine corpse and began to devour it.

Half of the God-eater Bugs died in a breath's time.

After 10 breaths, there were only 25 God-eater Bugs left.

After an hour, there were only nine God-eater Bugs left.

The nine that were still alive suddenly became motionless and stiff. However, the blue flames on their bodies did not go out. Although their life force was weak, they did not disappear.

It was as if... They had fallen into a deep sleep.

A smile appeared on Zhang Ruochen's face, and he said to himself, "This is great! The devouring ability of the God-eater Bugs was indeed very strong. The nine that survived must be consuming the toxins in their bodies and the flesh of the divine corpse. When they wake up, will there be a surprise?"

Zhang Ruochen's greatest desire was to turn the God-eater Bugs into poisonous bugs that could devour everything. Their lethality would become even greater.

Although the flames on the God-eater Bug were powerful, the threat it could pose to a Supreme Saint with a Neverwithers physique would be greatly reduced. However, a Supreme Saint of Thousand-Koan Realm, Banshi Isshou Realm, or even Paramount Realm would suffer if hit by a divine-grade poison.

Only by using the poisoned God-eater Bug could it pose a threat to a Supreme Saint.

When the God-eater Bug woke up and if it worked, then we could expand the scale of cultivating poisonous bugs.

Xue Chen and Xue Ningxiao entered the area covered by the Sundial to cultivate. Zhang Ruochen took out an exquisite palace the size of a palm and waved his hand.

The palace grew bigger and bigger until it was more than 2,100 meters tall. Then it stopped.

It was the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

When Wargod Bloodximus was in the Supreme Saint Realm, he used a lot of treasures to refine the palace. He was just one step away from transforming it into a fane. The doors, walls, pillars, and beams of the palace were all meticulously carved. The lines were filled with beauty.

Every brick and tile consisted of divinity.

There were both breathtakingly detailed patterns and majestic auras. Even the will of the Wargod Bloodximius seemed to be integrated into it. Which makes Zhou Zhen, Lian Xi, and Moyin feel suffocated.

“Every inch of the floor is engraved with Supreme Saint inscriptions. Every pillar is made of divine material. Every picture and text seems to contain some kind of profound path. “Is this... Is this a fane of a god?” Zhou Zhen said in a trembling voice.

It was not that he had not seen the world, but such a fane was comparable to the places where some gods lived. How could it be in Zhang Ruochen’s hands?

“Come with me.”

Zhang Ruochen took the lead to step on the stairs and walk toward the palace gate of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Zhou Zhen did not know what Zhang Ruochen wanted to do, but he did not dare to go against his will. He had no choice but to follow him.

Previously, Supreme Saint Qingsheng had told him that the Sevenstar Imperial Palace had the records of Wargod Bloodximius’s cultivation experience, which might help him comprehend a higher level of saintwill.

When they came to the entrance of the palace, they saw a creature that looked like a lion and a dog lying on the ground. Its body was more than six meters long, and it had long blood-red hair.

It opened its sleepy eyes and saw Zhang Ruochen. Then, it transmitted a telepathic consciousness towards him. It said, “I know you. Zhang Ruochen, the grandson of the Wargod Bloodximius. I am Huang Tian, the spiritual guardian of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. When you defeat me, then you shall be my master.”

‘Why do all the cats and dogs address themselves as “me”? They can be a couple with Blackie. No, wait. What’s his name? Huang Tian?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen was stunned for a moment. He carefully looked at the big dog lying on the ground. He thought to himself that only Wargod Bloodximius would dare to name his pet, Huang Tian.

“May I ask what realm your cultivation has reached?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Huang Tian said, “My cultivation is equivalent to that of a Supreme Saint in the Thousand-Koan Realm. You are just a Supreme Saint in the Neverwilt Realm and you are still far from it.”

The so-called spiritual guardian of the palace was the vessel spirit of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The Blood Dropper had already become a Supreme Artifact, yet the vessel spirit had not reached the Supreme Saint realm. The vessel spirit of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace had reached the Thousand-Koan Realm. This showed the defensive power of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. If it was fully activated, it might be able to withstand the attack of the Supreme Saint of the Banshi Isshou Realm realm, as Supreme Saint Qingsheng had said.

Of course, it was not a big deal that the dog Huang Tian had cultivated for more than 100,000 years to reach the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Zhou Zhen, who was following behind Zhang Ruochen, felt a chill run down his spine.

‘It turned out that Zhang Ruochen was the grandson of the Wargod Bloodximius. No wonder he could make a name for himself in the Infernal Court,’ Zhou Zhen thought.

Wargod Bloodximius’s name also had a great deterrent effect in all realms of Celestial Court.

Zhou Zhen looked at the spiritual guardian lying on the ground. He was terrified. He quickly cupped his hands and bowed deeply. He thought to himself, ‘Zhang Ruochen has many powerful people around him. In Infernal Court, he has a high status. It seems that there's no hope for me to escape.'

Zhang Ruochen did not challenge the spiritual guardian immediately. Instead, he stepped into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The interior of the palace was very big. It was divided into seven isolated halls. A hall that specialized in collecting all kinds of books, a hall that specialized in refining weapons, a hall that was used for cultivating saint techniques...

What surprised Zhang Ruochen was that there was a harem. It used to be a place where women lived and cultivated. The decorations and layout were out of place. It was full of colorful flowers and strange plants. There was also a saint spring that formed a lake.

Zhou Zhen thought to himself, 'This harem is huge! I didn't expect that even the world-famous Wargod Bloodximius couldn't resist the beauties.'

Zhang Ruochen was not surprised. Wargod Bloodximius's identity was special. Even if Wargod Bloodximius did not want to marry, there must be countless forces that wanted to present their favored daughter under their banner to him.

He did not want descendants, but the Xue Jue Family needs.

With Wargod Bloodximius's cultivation and identity, there were times when he could not live his own life.

Of course, after cultivating for more than 100,000 years and having fewer than twenty children, he could already be considered a god of abstinence.

After that, they came to the Hall of Cosmic Words, which collected all kinds of ancient books and scrolls. After using his spiritual power to investigate, he walked to the place where the Wargod Bloodximius had cultivated his experience. He took out a book called The Secrets of Palm Saintwill.

When Zhang Ruochen was about to flip through it, He looked at Zhou Zhen standing next to him. His eyes became serious and he said, "You and Shentu Yunkong were the ones who committed the massacre in Syzygy Mansion, right? How many of the great Confucianists in Kunlun have you killed?”

Although Zhou Zhen had guessed that Zhang Ruochen would ask about this, his expression changed drastically. He shook his head hard and said with his trembling lips, “I... I was only in charge of setting up the array... No, I did not participate in the massacre...”

Zhang Ruochen said, “It was you and Shentu Yunkong who sent the spatial coordinates of the Rainbow Pavilion to Infernal Court, right? Who gave you the order?”

If there was no mole, Infernal Court would not have been able to set up the Voidbridge of Chaos directly to Rainbow Pavilion.

Zhang Ruochen had suppressed Zhou Zhen and Shentu Yunkong outside the Rainbow Pavilion. He had also found the seriously injured Sui Han and Wang Shiqi from the Exquisite Dimensional Orb on them.

Therefore, Zhou Zhen could not deny it.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Don’t be in a hurry to answer. Think carefully before you say anything. I’ll give you enough time to think. After I finish reading this book, I hope to get a satisfactory answer..”

Chapter 2259: A Fourth-grade Saintwill

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Wargod Bloodximus wrote The Secrets of Palm Saintwill personally. The words were heavy, and each word was like a palm, slapping towards Zhang Ruochen.

If Zhang Ruochen's cultivation had not reached the Supreme Saint Realm, he would probably vomit blood and be seriously injured before he could even read a few words.

Zhang Ruochen held the scroll with one hand, his body was solid as a rock and the powerful Yang Qi in him circulated rapidly. No matter how powerful the words were, they could not hurt him at all.

“When Wargod Bloodximus wrote The Secrets of Palm Saintwill, his cultivation should not have reached divinity. Although the words were like the palm, they did not contain the divine force.”

Wargod Bloodximus was known as a genius that only appeared once in a Yuanhui period. Naturally, he had a unique understanding of the saintwill. The contents of The Secrets of Palm Saintwill were complicated and obscure. Zhang Ruochen read very slowly and would occasionally stop to think for a long time. He was completely absorbed.

Zhou Zhen stood on the side. His eyes were flickering, and he was struggling internally.

‘Zhang Ruochen is using all of his mind to comprehend and study. If I sneak attack at such a close distance, the chances of success are very high. As long as I suppress him and control his Saint Soul and spirit, I can order him to take me out of Infernal Court.’ he thought.

Zhou Zhen was eager to attack.

Suddenly, he thought of something. His heart trembled slightly. He thought to himself, ‘Zhang Ruochen isn't testing me on purpose, is he?’

The more Zhou Zhen thought about it, the more he felt that the possibility was very high.

Why did Zhang Ruochen want to comprehend The Secrets of Palm Saintwill in front of him? Did he not expect that Zhou Zhen would launch a sneak attack?

Zhou Zhen cursed in his heart. He felt that Zhang Ruochen was too sinister. Fortunately, he was smart. Otherwise, the consequences of a failed sneak attack would be terrible.

‘What should I do now? I can’t win or escape. Can I rely on Zhang Ruochen and tell him everything?’ Zhou Zhen thought.

Although he had become a Spirit Supreme Saint, he could protect his memories. Moreover, he was confident that Zhang Ruochen’s current spiritual power wouldn’t be able to take his memories.

However, Zhang Ruochen was the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius, and this place was Infernal Court.

As long as Zhang Ruochen was willing, it would not be difficult for him to sway a top-notch Spirit Supreme Saint. By then, would Zhou Zhen still be able to keep the secret in his mind?

Martial Uncle, I can’t help myself in this situation. I can’t be blamed for all this,’ Zhou Zhen sighed in his heart.

It took Zhang Ruochen half a month to comprehend The Secrets of Palm Saintwill. He had gained a lot from it. He also had a deeper understanding of the Palm techniques and the saintwill.

Zhang Ruochen regretted it. He should have asked Supreme Saint Qingsheng for advice earlier. If he had made enough preparations and condensed the Fist Saintwill again, he might be able to surpass the fifth grade.

Cultivating the fifth-grade Saintwill from a single Path was an outstanding achievement for any Supreme Saint.

However, Zhang Ruochen did not seek to be outstanding. Instead, he wanted to be supreme or unparalleled.

To cultivate a Saintwill, it is not simply to combine the Precepts but to deeply understand the Path. If I can comprehend deeper the Canon of one Path, then the stronger the saintwill will be condensed.'

Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a smile. There was only one Canon of Palm in total. How many gods could grasp the Canon of Palm?

It was not easy to obtain the opportunity to comprehend the power of the Canon of Palm.

Zhang Ruochen was about to close the book when he found that there was still one last page. However, this page seemed to be glued to the book cover, which he had neglected before.

Zhang Ruochen turned it over and found that this page weighed thousands of pounds.

When he opened it, there was a faint palm print on the paper.

However, when Zhang Ruochen looked carefully, his spirit and consciousness were sucked in in an instant.

The palm print became infinitely huge as if it had turned into a universe. Every fingerprint was like a milky way.

"This is... This is a mark of the Canon of Palm. That's Great!" Zhang Ruochen said.

He did not need to guess to know that it must have been left for him by Wargod Bloodximius.

Since Wargod Bloodximius had cultivated the Palm Saintwill when he was a Supreme Saint, he must have grasped part of the Canon of Palm after he became a god.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged in the center of the world of the palm and entered the state of comprehending Path with his whole body and mind.

At that moment, Wargod Bloodximius, who was sitting with Lord Ming and Blood Empress, sensed something. He said, "He is going to cultivate the Palm Saintwill as the second saintwill."

Blood Empress said, "Chen 'er had mainly cultivated the Swordsmanship, Path of time, and Path of Dimension. He is the first to cultivate the Fist Saintwill and the Palm Saintwill. He is probably just exercising."

"The later it gets, the more difficult it gets. If it were me, I would first condense Time Saintwill and Dimension Saintwill before condensing the Swordsmanship Saintwill. As for the other saintwills, we can condense as many as we can later. It is not that important anyway," Lord Ming said.

"You're a pure sword cultivator. There's nothing wrong with taking such a path," Wargod Bloodximius said, "But Zhang Ruochen will be fusing those saintwills, so every saintwill he cultivates is very important. In the end, we'll decide whether he can fuse a second-grade saintwill or not."

Blood emperor said, "The first Fist Saintwill that Chen 'er condensed was already fifth-grade. Which is already at the top level."

Wargod Bloodximius shook his head and said, "In the Saint King Realm, he has cultivated the Fist Saintwill to the completion. Condensing a fifth-grade saintwill is only a passing grade."

Blood Empress knew that Wargod Bloodixmius had high expectations of Zhang Ruochen. That was why he graded Zhang Ruochen's performance with passing.

"Fist is not one of the three main paths that Chen 'er cultivates," the Blood Empress said.

For most Supreme Saints, they could only cultivate one type of saintwill. However, they had never considered whether Zhang Ruochen could condense a second, third, or even more.

They felt that it was natural for Zhang Ruochen to condense many types of saintwill.

The key was how many types he could condense?

Lord Ming said, "If Zhang Ruochen can reach the fourth grade for all three of his main Paths. The others are not his main Paths and all of them can reach fifth grade. Then it won't be too difficult for him to condense a second-grade saintwill in the future.”

Wargod Bloodximius nodded slightly and said, “Let’s see if he can give us a surprise.”

Fusing a second-grade saintwill was the three gods’ biggest hope for Zhang Ruochen.

To be exact, many important figures in Infernal Court were paying attention to Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen. They wanted to know who could condense a second-grade saintwill?

Whoever succeeds, would be the representative of this Yuanhui period and be recorded in history.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “The crazy old man from the Yanluo clan sent me a message yesterday. Yan Wushen has condensed three types of saintwills, two fifth-grade, and one fourth-grade.”

Blood Empress said, “Yan Wushen can enter the Fane of Yama to cultivate freely. His spiritual power is strong and will be of great help in condensing the saintwill. It’s only natural for him to be one step ahead. My son has the help of the sundial. It’s only a matter of time before he catches up to him. There’s even a great chance to surpass him.”

Lord Ming said, “I’m looking forward to it. What grade of Palm Saintwill can Zhang Ruochen condense? Is it possible for him to surprise us and condense a fourth-grade saintwill?”

“The probability is very low... hmm...”

Wargod Bloodximius’s expression changed slightly.

“What’s wrong?” Blood Empress asked.

Wargod Bloodximius had a rare smile on his face and said, “Interesting! How interesting! The Canon of Palm’s Mark that I left for Zhang Ruochen was vast and profound. It contained infinite subtlety. Qingsheng had tried to comprehend it before. But even after a hundred years, he could only analyze fifty percent of it. Zhang Ruochen on the other hand...”

“He has just begun to analyze it. Has he already learned it?” Lord Ming asked.

Wargod Bloodximius nodded and said, “Let’s wait. I want to know how fast he can analyze it.”

Two hours later.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “He has analyzed ten percent of it.”

Four hours later.

“He has analyzed twenty percent.”

...

Twelve hours later.

“Fifty percent analyzed.”

Lord Ming and Blood Empress looked at each other. Even with their state of mind, their faces showed strange changes.

Twelve hours was comparable to Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s hundred years of cultivation?

Supreme Saint Qingsheng could reach Paramount Realm and he was not an ordinary person. How could the gap be so huge?

Even if Zhang Ruochen had the help of the Sundial, twelve hours of cultivation equal to half a year had passed.

Lord Ming smiled and said, “Fortunately, Third Brother is not here. Otherwise, It would have hurt his reputation severely. If I were him, I would never be able to hold my head up in front of Zhang Ruochen.”

Twenty hours later.

“Ninety percent of the analysis is done.”

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Almost there. He’s about to finish. For a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint to analyze ninety percent of the Canon’s mark is more than enough. It’s just a waste of time to continue the analysis.”

Just as Wargod Bloodximius was about to take back the Canon of Palm’s mark, he was surprised to find that Zhang Ruochen’s progress had reached ninety-one percent.

“How did he manage to continue?” said Wargod Bloodximius

That time, even Wargod Bloodximius could not remain calm.

The speed of analysis proved that his comprehension was high and was still within the scope of understanding.

However, there was a barrier to the level of analysis. How could he exceed ninety percent?

Wargod Bloodximus was still shocked, but Zhang Ruochen spent another four hours analyzing the Canon of Palm's mark to hundred percent.

Blood Empress smiled happily after hearing the news and said, "After Third Brother analyzed fifty percent of it, he was able to condense the fifth-grade Palm Saintwill. When Chen 'er was in the Saint King Realm, his Precepts of Palm reached completion. Now, he has analyzed the Canon of Palm's mark to hundred percent. It seems that there is a high chance that he will be able to condense the fourth-grade Palm Saintwill."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's Palm Saintwill was only in the fifth grade. He had only managed to cultivate a fourth-grade saintwill after fusing it with another type of saintwill that he had condensed.

"Palm is not his main cultivation path. Whether he can condense a fourth-grade saintwill is still unknown," Lord Ming said.

A fourth-grade saintwill was the limit of a single Path that could be condensed.

It was more than ten times harder than the fifth-grade Saintwill.

...

Zhou Zhen had been staying in the Hall of Cosmic Words. He was on the verge of collapse.

It was just a book. Zhang Ruochen had been reading it for a whole year. In the end, Zhou Zhen knew that Zhang Ruochen must have entered a state of mind whole bodily. He did not know why, but he still did not dare to make a move.

He was always afraid of this and that.

Swoosh

The Canon of Palm's mark flew out of the book and disappeared.

Zhang Ruochen was completely awake. He thought about it carefully for a long time. Then, he closed the book again and put it back on the bookshelf.

Zhou Zhen immediately put away his impatience and went up to him. He said with a smile, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, have you finally finished reading it? I have thought it through. I can tell you everything."

That one whole year had worn down Zhou Zhen's heart.

After countless hesitations and negations, now, even if Zhang Ruochen was seriously injured and dying, he would not dare to attack Zhang Ruochen even if he lay in front of him.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Zhou Zhen and smiled meaningfully. He nodded slightly and said, "Go ahead."

After a year of probing, he still did not dare to attack.

Zhou Zhen's remaining threat was gone.

Although Zhang Ruochen was fully focused on comprehending and analyzing the Canon of Palm's mark, he had secretly informed the Sevenstar Imperial Palace's vessel spirit, Huang Tian, when he came in. If Zhou Zhen attacked, he would be suppressed before he could even attack Zhang Ruochen.

After listening to Zhou Zhen's story, Zhang Ruochen recalled a name. That name was High-Saint Kai Luo.

High-Saint Kai Luo was Zhou Zhen's Martial Uncle and also one of the top High-Saint Array Masters in the Formation Sect. He was one of the cultivators closest to the Archsaint Array Master in all the worlds of the Celestial Court.

It was High-Saint Kai Luo who had allowed Zhou Zhen to participate in the plan.

It was indeed Zhou Zhen and Shentu Yunkong who had told Infernal Court the spatial coordinates of the Rainbow Pavilion. Moreover, they had personally handed over the Nine-heavens Maiden's Saint blood to Yan Wushen.

Of course, Yan Wushen did not know their identities.

‘Zhou Zhen doesn’t know much. Who is the magnate that the Heavenly Realm has come into contact with Infernal Court? That High-Saint Kai Luo should know more.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to clean up those behind-the-scenes people of the Celestial Court, but it was too late. Even if he went back, he would not be a match for High-Saint Kai Luo with his current cultivation.

‘Condense The Secrets of Palm Saintwill first.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

With the help of the Canon of Truth and the Heart of Truth, Zhang Ruochen’s speed of analyzing the Canon of Palm’s mark was far faster than other cultivators.

Now, he had full confidence in condensing the Palm Saintwill.

Zhang Ruochen did not leave the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Instead, he used his spiritual power to take back the five Saint Aspects who were sitting cross-legged under the Sundial and comprehending the Precepts. He merged them with his original body.

Then, he took out the Violet Gourd and flew in.

He then took out the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection and sat cross-legged in the center of it. He quickly adjusted himself to his best condition.

With the help of the Violet Gourd and the Yuanhui-grade Lotus of Divine Reflection, Zhang Ruochen condensed the Palm Saintwill. Everything went smoothly and it only took him six days to succeed.

Blood Sun Saintwill—the fourth-grade saintwill.

His ten wings were spread out fully. His skin turned blood-red. Streams of flames flowed around his body, giving off a temperature as hot as the sun.

“It turns out that condensing the fourth-grade saintwill isn’t too difficult... Oh no, what’s going on...”

Zhang Ruochen had just opened his eyes. Before he could feel happy, something unexpected happened.

A million times more Yang Qi suddenly burst out uncontrollably.. Like a million lava rivers surged from his body, gathered together, along the spine, and rushed to his brain.

Chapter 2260: The Growing Inner Demon

Zhang Ruochen mobilized all the Saint Qi in his body to protect his Lingtai meridian on his brain in case his spiritual will was destroyed by the Yang Qi.

Crackle

His body began to burn with raging flames. His skin was like a soldering iron, and his hair was like golden threads.

Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen's Neverwilt Physique and demigod body were strong enough. If it had been any other Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint, he would have been burned to ashes by the impact of millions of times more Yang Qi.

'All along, I have used the water force contained in the fist technique to counter the fire force of the palm technique. But this time, the level of the saintwill that I condensed is different, breaking the balance between the two.' Zhang Ruochen thought.

He moved in a flash across space and landed on the Cosmic Glacier Stone in the gourd. He sat cross-legged.

He spread his hands and slowly raised them. He immediately activated the power of the Cosmic Glacier Stone and entered the sea of Qi between his eyebrows. Then, he followed his meridians and saintly meridians and surged to all parts of his body to suppress the Yang Qi.

TRUMPET!

ROAR!

There was a dragon's roar and an elephant's trumpet sounded from his left and right arms.

Three dragon and elephant souls in the Hundred-Shackle Realm rushed out of his arms and appeared on his left and right sides. The six souls also burst out with fierce Yang power. Like a wild horse, they rushed from his arms and neck to Zhang Ruochen's head.

At the same time, his blood started to burn and emitted a deafening phoenix cry.

His demigod body was formed from the divine blood of a Blood Phoenix in divinity. Its divine blood had already completely fused with his blood.

But then, there was a change.

Before, Zhang Ruochen had been at his peak all the time. Even if there were unforeseen dangers, he could suppress them with his powerful cultivation. But now, all the unforeseen dangers burst out in an instant.

After a deafening cry of a phoenix sounded, a huge phantom of a Blood Phoenix appeared above Zhang Ruochen's head. It spread its boundless wings.

Compared to it, the three dragons and three elephants were like three earthworms and three ants.

"It's the Blood Phoenix's remnant soul."

Even if a god has fallen, there would still be a remnant soul wandering between heaven and earth. It could not be completely destroyed.

The Blood Phoenix released a powerful divine soul power that attacked Zhang Ruochen's spiritual will. It wanted to crush him and take over his body.

If it was a real divine soul, Zhang Ruochen would not be able to resist it.

However, it was only a remnant soul. It could not take over Zhang Ruochen's body. Of course, the burst of the remnant soul at this time had a great impact on Zhang Ruochen. It made it even more difficult for him to suppress Yang Qi.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was going all out to suppress the Yang Qi, the three dragons, three elephants, and the Blood Phoenix's remnant soul, the fourth power burst out.

The fourth power came from his left leg.

Zhang Ruochen's left leg fused with Yanshen's divine leg. At that moment, dense lines of fire appeared on his leg. It released the divine power of flames that could destroy heaven and earth. It surged from his leg to his abdomen and fused with the million times Yang Qi.

Zhang Ruochen was able to defeat a Supreme Saint at the peak of the Hundred-Shackle Realm with the cultivation of the mid-stage of the Neverwilt Realm because his body contained all kinds of incredible power.

Although these powers made him stronger than other cultivators of the same realm, they also had huge hidden dangers.

The four hidden dangers erupted at the same time, causing Zhang Ruochen's body to be on the verge of breaking apart. His long hair flew in the air. His ten golden wings transformed the Saint Qi in him into a blood-red aura. His mental state was greatly affected and chaotic. Bloodlust, greed, lust, hunger, cruelty, and all sorts of negative emotions appeared in his mind.

Each person had a demon living in their body.

As one's cultivation became stronger, the demon would become more and more powerful. The demon would jump out from time to time and affect one's mind and judgment.

At that moment, the Divine Sky-connecting Tree's voice rang out, "Your crisis stems from the inability to suppress the Yang Qi in you. Other hidden dangers will take the opportunity to erupt. You can try to fuse both the Fist and Palm saintwills, or you can temporarily suppress the Yang Qi."

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and asked with bloodshot eyes, "How Do You fuse them?"

"Follow the way I taught you, step by step."

Then, the Divine Sky-connecting Tree's voice entered Zhang Ruochen's mind, guiding him to fuse the two saintwills in the best way.

Although the Divine Sky-connecting Tree was weak, it was a wise man.

It used to be one of the oldest living beings in the universe. It was knowledgeable, and its understanding of heaven and earth, cultivation, and everything else could not be compared with Zhang Ruochen's.

In Kunlun, countless gods had listened to its sermons and cultivated divinity.

It was not an exaggeration to call it a Godmaker.

Under the guidance of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree, Zhang Ruochen mobilized the Blood Sun Saintwill and the Nine-tremors Saintwill at the same time to let the two merge.

The Blood Sun Saintwill was like a hot star, burning at any time and releasing a shocking destructive force. The Nine-tremors Saintwill was like a wave, layered on top of each other.

When the two saintwills came into contact, they shook violently and resisted each other.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen's body was already being torn apart by Yanshen's leg, Blood Phoenix's remnant soul, and the three dragons and three elephants. With the clash of the two saintwills, even the demigod body became painful and cracked, it was as if it was going to fall apart.

"Fusing the two saintwills is extremely difficult. Not even one out of hundred Supreme Saints succeed. You have to combine your own power with the internal and external power to assist at the same time."

"Internal powers can be provided by the Qiankun Realm."

"External powers can use the Violet Gourd."

According to the Divine Sky-connecting Tree, Zhang Ruochen's ten Golden Wings released ten streaks of blood-red aura to activate the Violet Gourd. Inside the gourd, the Golden Sun of Destruction and the Cosmic Glacier Stone spun quickly and pulled him to the center of the vortex.

At the same time, the Qiankun Realm suppressed both the above Blood Sun and Nine-tremors Saintwills. That way, even if the two Saintwills strongly rejected each other, the collision force would not affect Zhang Ruochen's body.

Merging the saintwills was an extremely slow process., which took a whole month.

After merging the two saintwills, it was not stable. It would still take a long time to get used to each other.

'The Blood Sun and the Nine-tremors have merged and created the tenth tremor. The saintwill should have reached the third grade. Let's call it the Blood Sun Ten-tremors Saintwill,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Each Supreme Saint's saintwill was unique. They could name it themselves.

As both Palm Saintwill and Fist Saintwill combined, the million times more Yang Qi in Zhang Ruochen's body became slightly eased. It was no longer as violent as before.

Although Zhang Ruochen's spiritual will was still affected by the negative emotions, he could still maintain his rationality. Thus, he forcefully suppressed the Yang Qi, the remnant soul of the Blood Phoenix, the three dragons and three elephants, and the divine power of the flame.

The Divine Sky-connecting Tree's voice rang out again, "The Yang Qi in your body is still unbalanced. I suggest that the third type of saintwill you cultivate next is the Water Saintwill of the five elements. Only by fusing the Water Saintwill into the Blood Sun Ten-tremors Saintwill will you be able to achieve balance. Of course, you have to be fully prepared. There is a high possibility that there will be a new crisis."

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, "I understand. Thank you for your guidance."

The Divine Sky-connecting Tree said cautiously, "Zhang Ruochen, you are extremely talented. You also have the demigod body and the Five-element Chaotic Neverwither Physique. Whether it's a million times more Yang Qi, the remnant soul of the Blood Phoenix, the three dragons and three elephants, or the divine flame of the Yanshen's leg, none of them will be able to affect you."

“The main issue is still your own inner demon. It’s getting stronger and stronger.”

“At this stage, its impact isn’t too great. You can suppress it with your spiritual will. But when you reach the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm, it will definitely be a huge obstacle and a fatal threat to you.”

Hall of Cosmic Words.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen flew out of the Violet Gourd. The ten wings on his back were still open. A chaotic, overbearing, and fierce blood-red aura was released from his body.

Zhou Zhen, who was standing guard at the side, was pushed back four steps by the aura released from his body.

“You... What’s wrong with you?”

Zhou Zhen looked at Zhang Ruochen and felt strange.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen’s face was ferocious. His eyes were full of wild and fierce light. Just a glance at Zhou Zhen made him feel terrified.

Zhang Ruochen walked out while ignoring Zhou Zhen.

Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual Qi was changing with each step.

The moment he walked out of the palace gate, he completely recovered and forcefully suppressed all negative emotions. At least, on the surface, there was no difference from before.

Moyin went up to him and said, “Master, during the time you were in seclusion and cultivating, several cultivators came to visit you. Do you want to see them?”

“Who are they?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“Princess Luo Sha of Devala...”

Zhang Ruochen stared at the Sundial and saw a graceful figure sitting cross-legged on the ground. He said, “Needless to say, I’ve already seen her.”

Moyin said, “I’m sorry, Master. I wanted to stop her, but she claimed that she had already made an agreement with you and insisted on cultivating in the area covered by the Sundial. She was traveling with a fierce Supreme Saint's corpse. I couldn't stop her."

"We did have an agreement. Let her cultivate here! But she has to pay for the Godstones to operate the Sundial," Zhang Ruochen said.

Moyin laughed. "Indeed, the Godstones were provided by the Princess."

"How many times? What do you mean?"

"The Godstones on the Sundial has been changed four times."

Zhang Ruochen frowned and asked, "How long have I been cultivating in seclusion in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace?"

"More than a day!" Moyin said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Two Godstones on the Sundial at the same time can run for two days. Why did the Godstone change four times in just a day?"

Moyin said, "I'm not sure either. I don't know the reason, but the consumption of Godstones has increased several times."

Zhang Ruochen thought to himself and muttered to himself, "Is it because I cultivated in the Violet Gourd within Sevenstar Imperial Palace?"

In the past, the Sundial could only cover a radius of 600 meters. However, during the battle with Asurendra Samay in the Sea of Time, the Sundial showed signs of recovery. It was probably from then on that the Sundial's coverage became wider.

Although the Sevenstar Imperial Palace was within 600 meters of the Sundial, its internal space was extremely huge. It must be more than 600 meters. Perhaps it was because it covered the internal space of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and the Violet Gourd that the consumption of the Godstones became even greater.

Moyin said, "Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and Xue Tu have all come to look for you. It seems that they have something important to discuss. By the way, Pan Ruo, one of the three candidates for the goddess of Fane of Destiny, has come three times. She wants to see you.”

Zhang Ruochen stopped thinking about the Sundial and asked, “Where is she?”

“She should still be waiting in the reception hall of the manor,” Moyin said.

Pan Ruo’s arrival was beyond Zhang Ruochen’s expectations.

How could a stubborn, proud, and indifferent woman like her take the initiative to visit him?

Moreover, according to Sword Saint Xuanji, Pan Ruo had a more important mission in the Infernal Court. It was easy to expose her identity if she came to see Zhang Ruochen. How could she do such an irrational thing?

Zhang Ruochen kept thinking about the reason why Pan Ruo came to see him while on the way to the reception hall.

He thought about it a lot.

Did she figure out that I was the one who bought the seven cauldrons of Fugue Pills? is that why she came to see me?

Did she want to ask me to help her become the goddess of fate?

Or did she just want to see me?’

Zhang Ruochen laughed at himself for thinking about it.

He thought that it was very likely that he thought too simply of Pan Ruo.

Since she had decided to step into Death’s door, she would abandon the glory and prosperity of her previous life and become a ghost. If she could withstand the tribulations of the Nether Flame and the Nether Thunder and enter the Infernal Court, her spiritual will was very likely already stronger than him.

She would never do anything irrational.

Perhaps, Zhang Ruochen would still think of that feeling in the lonely night when he was lonely. He would do things that could not be controlled by reason.

But she would never do that.

Finally, Zhang Ruochen saw Pan Ruo again in the reception hall.

She was sitting demurely in a white dress. Her eyebrows were slightly furrowed. She was demure and natural, but she exuded a cold temperament from the inside out that kept people away.

She was no longer the same old Huang Yanchen.

However, the moment Zhang Ruochen saw her, he felt like he saw Senior Sister Huang, one of the Three Demons of the Western Courtyard. The first meeting in life was always unforgettable.

It was also like seeing Princess Yanchen in the palace of Qianshui Commandery. When she got engaged, she had a smile on her face.

It was more like Huang Yanchen in front of Ziwei Palace. She was the disciple of the Empress and a Realm Bearer. They were husband and wife, but she pointed her sword at him.

The past was unbearable to look back on, but it could always evoke feelings and memories buried deep in people's hearts. Some were happy, some were sad, and some were regretful.

This was being a human!

She was no longer a human. She was Pan Ruo, a wandering soul.

Did she still have feelings?

"Supreme Saint Ruochen, you can't escape fate after all. The Infernal Court is where you truly belonged. If you're here, don't think about going back. Of course, I'm glad you came out to see me in person. It's an honor."

Pan Ruo's voice pulled his thoughts back to reality.

Zhang Ruochen walked over and sat across from her calmly.

"It's an honor for me that you grace your presence in the Vastsea Manor.. What do you want to tell me, Your Highness?"

Chapter 2261: Talking To The Empress

Pan Ruo was straightforward. She cut the chase and said, “In Realm of Star Ocean, the one behind the commotion is you. The Fugue Pills, the Yuanhui level Lotus of Divine Reflection, and the half God corpse fell into your hands. Am I right?”

Zhang Ruochen did not admit or deny it.

He kept silent.

She continued, “Xue Tu doesn’t have the courage or ability to challenge Lord Bladehell. He is just a puppet you set up in the public eye.”

“So what?” said Zhang Ruochen. He finally admitted it.

Pan Ruo’s eyes were bright and clear. She stared straight at him and said, “That desolate god was killed by Sword God Feng Chen. This sword strike must have used the power of Swordsmanship Canon. It was earth-shattering and contained the ultimate swordsmanship.

“I want to study the cut of the sword Qi on that god’s corpse. I hope you can grant my wish.”

Zhang Ruochen stared at her and realized that she had practiced 920,000 Precepts of swordsmanship. She was not far from the Great Perfection.

After a long time, he said, “I thought you came for the Fugue Pills.”

Pan Ruo opened her palm. A piece of paper appeared in her white palm, and she handed it to Zhang Ruochen. “I don’t like to owe people favors. I don’t want to be tied down either. If you agree, I’ll give you this as a thank-you gift.”

“There’s no need for a gift. You are going to just study the god’s corpse. I’ll take you there,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Don’t refuse so quickly. Open it and see. It’s not too late to make a decision.”

The paper flew out of Pan Ruo's palm. It was light and floated in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen could not refuse anymore. He reached out and twirled it."

Huh? Could it be..."

It was just a piece of paper, but it weighed a thousand pounds.

Zhang Ruochen had a guess.

He opened it and saw that it was indeed a Canon mark.

This Canon mark was in the shape of a waterdrop."

The Canon mark of one of the five elements: the water."

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised. He looked up at Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo's eyes were calm. "Do you accept this gift, Supreme Saint Ruochen?"

"No wonder you're a Scioness candidate of the Fane of Destiny. You figured I'm going to condense the Saintwill of Water." Zhang Ruochen shook his head. His eyes were deep in thought.

Pan Ruo said, "Everything that you are doing now and in the future, has already been decided. You can't escape. Now, do you know how powerful Destiny is?"

Zhang Ruochen smiled noncommittally. He took the Canon mark of Water and stood up. "Come with me!"

He did not ask where the Canon mark of Water came from.

Pan Ruo did not want to owe him a favor or be bound to him, and Zhang Ruochen felt the same.

When they arrived below Sundial, Zhang Ruochen took out the bronze coffin again.

He had carefully examined the sword Qi cut on the god's corpse, but he couldn't find anything. However, Pan Ruo was right. Sword God Feng Chen must have used the power of the Canon.

Studying the cut was like studying Sword God Feng Chen's peerless sword strike that killed that desolate god. It was no different from analyzing the Canon mark of swordsmanship.

Moreover, there was probably a large number of Precepts of the swordsmanship and Swordwill left in the cut.

However, the god's corpse contained a large amount of poison. Hence, Zhang Ruochen did not enter the bronze coffin to study it closely."

"Do you want to go in and take a look?" asked Pan Ruo suddenly.

"Sure."

Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo flew into the coffin. They passed through layers of Dimensional barriers and arrays and flew into the divine soul fog. It was as if they had passed through an atmosphere and landed on the god's corpse.

From outside the coffin, it was only half a corpse.

However, in Zhang Ruochen's eyes, it was a vast purple land with no boundaries. The ground was as hard as divine iron. There were streaks of lightning in the air and clouds above his head.

There were green lakes and rivers on this land. What flowed inside was not water, but divine level poison.

A God's corpse was like a realm.

Only when one descended on the God's corpse could they feel its vastness and its overwhelming divine might. Of course, with Zhang Ruochen's cultivation as a Supreme Saint, he was no longer afraid of the divine might.

The poison did not spread throughout the god's corpse. It only spread in the areas where the lakes and rivers were. However, there would occasionally be a rain of poison in the sky, so Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo were very careful to avoid contact.

When they came to the area where the cut on that God's corpse was, it was as if they had reached the end of the world. A bottomless cliff appeared in front of them. A large amount of blood fog, poison fog, and divine soul fog surged up from the bottom of the cliff. Green and purple mixed together, and two types of energy clashed fiercely.

Any living being standing at the edge of such a cliff would feel their hearts palpitate.

Pan Ruo stood still and looked at the surging fog in front of her. “Did you know? Every move you make in the Divine Domain of Destiny is within the radar of deities. It’s hard to hide a secret.”

Zhang Ruochen was clueless why she suddenly said that. “No matter how powerful the deities are, they can’t possibly know everything. If I want to, I will have a way to deceive their senses. However, doing this at this stage isn’t good for me.”

The gods paid attention to Zhang Ruochen because they did not trust him.

Since that was the case, Zhang Ruochen was fortunate enough to let them see and not hide anything. Otherwise, with his current cultivation, it would not be difficult for him to get rid of a few divine spirits.

Many Supreme Saints who didn’t want to be spied on would do the same.

Supreme Saints weren’t weaklings. The deities could not control or peep at Supreme Saints just because they wanted to. Supreme Saints already gained a certain level of resistance against deities.

Pan Ruo said, “In the divine soul fog or in the god’s corpse, the deities’ perception and even the abilities to make prediction will be ineffective.”

“Oh?”

Zhang Ruochen looked thoughtful. “You mean it’s hard for the gods to sense what’s happening here? And they can’t predict it?”

“Someone wants to see you. This is a good place. I’m going to comprehend the sword move first. Take your time to talk to her.”

With that, Pan Ruo jumped off the cliff and disappeared into the fog.

Zhang Ruochen thought carefully about what Pan Ruo had said. Suddenly, he understood and took out the paper.

In the center of the paper was a drop of water.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the drop of water. Suddenly, his consciousness and Saint Soul were separated by a strange power and came to a vast sea.

There were no waves or wind on the sea.

The water was clear and calm; its surface was like a huge mirror.

A slender figure appeared silently on the sea.

She was standing in front of Zhang Ruochen, but he could not see her face clearly. She was like a shadow, a flower's reflection in the mirror or the moon's shadow on the water. But she was real.

It was eerie.

"Who are you?"

Zhang Ruochen felt she was familiar. He seemed to have seen her somewhere before.

"Hanakage Keizen."

Her voice sounded on the surface of the sea, sometimes far, sometimes near, and sometimes erratic.

Hanakage was an ancient surname in Kunlun. Zhang Ruochen had seen it in the books of Shengming Central Empire. Many influential figures were born into this clan.

Unfortunately, after the Middle Ages, this surname disappeared in Kunlun.

"Are you an ancient god in Kunlun?"

Zhang Ruochen could see that this person was just a divine spirit from a god.

The divine spirit was hidden in the Canon mark of Water. It came here to meet him."

“Kunlun, what a distant name. I want to go back and take a look.

“It had been 100,000 years!

“Has the water in Da Ming River dried up?

“Has the Confucian Tea Tree of Art Sect grown new tea leaves?

“The mighty Mount Zulong, the vast Northsea, the flourishing Wanxiang City, and my old friends... are they still there?

“Have they woken up?”

The woman named Hanakage Keizen had a misty look in her eyes. Her voice was full of sorrow.

It was as if she was asking Zhang Ruochen or talking to herself.

The voice of Divine Sky-connecting Tree rang in Zhang Ruochen's mind. “She was the Saintess of Nephilim Island and the granddaughter of the Lord of Nephilim Island. 100,000 years ago, she was Kunlun's top elite and peerless beauty.

“In her era, her achievements in cultivation surpassed that of other top elites. It was hard for her to meet an opponent of the same rank as none of them could last till her second move “Xue Lingxian, the eldest disciple of the Blood God, was also considered a top elite. However, when he fought with Hanakage Keizen under the same realm, he could only withstand seven moves. He ended up vomiting blood and fell to the ground.

“It was these seven moves that brought Xue Lingxian fame. He became second only to Hanakage Keizen in that era.

“That famous Blackheart Demonlord in Celestial Court was only her follower.

“It's a pity that she wasn't born in the same era as Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian. They were born three tens of thousands of years too late. Otherwise, they might not have become the top two elites of last Yuanhui.”

Before Divine Sky-connecting Tree finished speaking, Zhang Ruochen had already guessed Hanakage Keizen's identity — Empress of Thousand Bones.

No wonder Zhang Ruochen felt a sense of familiarity. When he was at Death's Door, he had seen Hanakage Keizen through the distant starry sky.

Zhang Ruochen's heart shook violently.

He hadn't expected to be able to talk to a legendary figure face to face one day.

I can sense the aura of my senior, Divine Sky-connecting Tree, from you. Can I go and see her?" Hanakage Keizen asked.

"Of course."

Zhang Ruochen had a sense of respect for Empress of Thousand Bones. He calmly opened the gate of Qiankun.

Hanakage Keizen walked to Divine Sky-connecting Tree and communicated with it. Zhang Ruochen stood far away and did not go closer. He was filled with emotions.

After an unknown amount of time, Hanakage Keizen walked over and looked at Zhang Ruochen carefully, "Saint Monk Xumi chose you to be his successor and let you nurture senior Divine Sky-connecting Tree," she said. "That means you must be extraordinary. Zhang Ruochen, I actually wanted to meet you a long time ago."

"Didn't we already meet once?"

Zhang Ruochen then told them about the encounter at Death's Door.

Hanakage Keizen thought for a moment and said, "When you saw me, we weren't in the same timeline."

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What do you mean?"

"We're in the same dimension, but not at the same timeline. What you saw was an image I left many years ago when I traveled to the future," said Hanakage Keizen.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Are you also a Master of Time? Do you already have the power to travel to the past and the future?"

“It’s not a big deal. The future me will often appear in front of me and teach me a deeper level of Cultivation Paths,” said Hanakage Keizen lightly.

‘Since ancient times, there were only a few living beings who could travel to the past and the future.

‘She actually said that it isn’t a big deal?

‘Moreover, she could actually travel back and forth from the future to the present and preach to herself.

‘In other words, she is her own master in cultivation training. This is unbelievable. What would other cultivators feel if they knew this?’

Zhang Ruochen was even more confused. Since the future self of Empress of Thousand Bones could travel back and forth to the present and preach to her. Why hadn’t his future self appeared?

Did It mean that he had no future at all?

He would die before he reached that realm.

Hanakage Keizen knew what Zhang Ruochen was thinking. She said, “Don’t overthink. Other masters of Time will have to pay a huge price even if they can travel back in time.

“Moreover, unlike me, they can’t change the past, and they can’t meet their past selves directly.

“I can do that because I have a divine artifact that can resist time. I hold about 30 percent of the Canon of Time. Even so, what I can do is very limited.”

Zhang Ruochen was determined. He smiled faintly and stopped thinking about the future.

Hanakage Keizen said, “Do you know why I took the risk to come to Divine Domain of Destiny to meet you in person?”

“Is it related to the Celestial-Hunting Festival?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Hanakage Keizen nodded, “Destiny Token and the Canon of Destiny are things that I must have.

“I know that Xuanji has already told you, but there is a huge risk in this matter. You can completely refuse. There is no need to participate.”

“Are you questioning my resolution or character?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Hanakage Keizen said, “If I were to doubt you, I would never come to see you personally.

“If the deities in Infernal Court knew that I had come to Divine Domain of Destiny, they would definitely find me at all costs and kill me with the most ruthless means.

“The reason I came to see you is to see your resolution. I also want to see what kind of person Saint Monk Xumi’s successor, Xuanji’s disciple, Han Xue’s master is.”

“At the Celestial-Hunting Festival, you will have to face cultivators from Macroworlds of Celestial Court. Will you be able to kill them? What if you meet an old friend from Kunlun? Can you kill them decisively?”

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen didn’t speak for a long time, Hanakage Keizen said again, “If you can’t do it, don’t join the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Pan Ruo will take your place and take Destiny Token and the Canon of Destiny.”

“Do I have to kill them?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Hanakage Keizen said, “You will have to kill as many as you can.”

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He could not answer Empress of Thousand Bones because he did not know who he would meet at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. When the time came, would he be able to kill them without hesitation?

Hanakage Keizen said, “Let me ask you another question. Why do you practice so hard? Why do you attend the Celestial-Hunting Festival? What are you doing now?”

Zhang Ruochen muttered to himself, “Why? Master said that as long as we save that Grand Supreme Array Master, we can turn the tide for Kunlun or make Infernal Court forces retreat.”

“Are you doing this for Kunlun?” Hanakage Keizen asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Maybe... Yes! Aren’t you the same?”

Hanakage Keizen stretched out two slender fingers and pulled up a tender green grass on the ground. There was mud on the grass.

“Like this grass that has left the ground, to me, Kunlun is just a homeland, a place filled with memories. I only want to do what I want to do and what I should do.

“If Kunlun is destroyed, I will feel sad, but it is not all I have

“For 100,000 years, I only want to do one thing: to save my grandfather and reunite with him. To me, Kunlun’s fate is not as important as this.

“Perhaps my grandfather and his generation had lofty aspirations and deep feelings for Kunlun. They also had lofty ideals, dreams of glory, and plans for the universe. But not me.

“Xuanji joined the rescue mission because he has full confidence in my grandfather and deep feelings for Kunlun. Moreover, Xuanji is reluctant to let go of everything about Kunlun.

“But what about you? Are you doing this for Kunlun? Or for yourself? Or is it for your master, Xuanji?

“If you can’t figure this out, don’t get involved. Don’t feel you are obliged to save Kunlun, and don’t get affected by the so-called righteousness. After all, you have nothing to do with my grandfather.

“Whether he is still alive or not, it’s hard for me to judge.

“Even if he’s alive, it’s still unknown whether he can force Infernal Court army to retreat..”

Chapter 2262: Avīci Pavilion

After long contemplation, a bitter smile appeared on Zhang Ruochen's face. He said, "Ever since I was born, I have never been able to make a choice in anything I do.

"Can I choose not to participate in the Celestial-Hunting Festival? No."

"Wargod Bloodximus has pledged the entire Bloodsky Clan to me. If I retreat, he will lose everything.

"Yan Wushen asked Chi Kunlun to write a letter of challenge and invited me to the Celestial-Hunting Banquet. If I cower, I will be a father in vain.

"As for myself, I have enemies all over Celestial Court and Celestial Court. If I lose my value, I will die in an instant.

"Other cultivators participate in the Celestial-Hunting Banquet to fight for benefits. But I am going to prove my value. I am going to fight for a way out, the only way out."

"The deities wanted me to be a blade to 'sharpen' the cultivators of this generation in Infernal Court. The Celestial-Hunting Banquet was to test my loyalty and ability. If I couldn't prove these two points, I would lose my value.

"Mother and Wargod Bloodximus might be able to save my life, but I will have to hide under their wings for the rest of my life. I won't be able to leave the Xue Jue family's territory. This way, I will never be able to become a god in my life. I will be humiliated, I will feel resentful, weak, and decadent. What a cowardly life that is. Millions of years later, the only thing that can still prove that I once lived in this world was just a skeleton buried under the soil.

"Empress, do you think I don't have the resolution to participate in the Celestial-Hunting Festival? Do you think I will be merciful during the hunt? No. It's impossible. I am left with no choice. My fate doesn't give me the right to choose.

“I can either move forward resolutely and kill my way out of the darkness, or I can only give up cowardly and hide in the protection of others. If I choose the latter, I will end up spending my entire life trembling in fear and not achieving anything. Of course, the third way is that I can die today, and that will put an end to this.

“I don’t want to hide, nor do I want to escape. That’s why I choose the former. The deities want me to be a ‘blade’. Then I will work hard to prove myself and become a sharp one.

“However, I will decide who to kill. I must join the Celestial-Hunting Festival, even if I have to die.

“In the future, when this blade is sharp enough, even the deities will perish by it.”

“The gods’ blade” was Luo Sha’s subtle way of describing his role in Infernal Court when they talked previously.

Zhang Ruochen had already seen through everything.

Hanakage Keizen stared at Zhang Ruochen. In his eyes, she saw an unprecedented resolution, as if nothing could shake his will.

Then Zhang Ruochen said, “I have a question. I am puzzled. Can rescuing Grand Supreme Array Master really turn the tide for Kunlun?”

Hanakage Keizen said, “If he is still alive, that outcome is inevitable. My grandfather has deep feelings for Kunlun. They are filled with the most sincere love. Even if he has to sacrifice his life, he will protect everything there.

“With his ability, if he returns to Kunlun, unless Infernal Court launches an all-out War, there is nothing they can do against him.

“However, once Infernal Court launches an all-out War, Celestial Court will certainly take action. A war that is not inferior to the war of Gods at the end of the Middle Ages will break out.”

“Do you think Infernal Court will launch an all-out war for the current Kunlun?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head gently. “No.”

Kunlun could not afford an all-out war. Infernal Court could not afford it either. No one wanted another war of Gods to break out because half of the deities could perish.

100,000 years ago, Infernal Court had tried to destroy Kunlun partly because Infernal Court was forced to. Another reason was that it wanted to get rid of a threat.

100,000 years later, even if Lord of Nephilim Island returned to Kunlun, he would not be a threat to Infernal Court. There was no need to launch an all-out war.

Why didn't Infernal Court destroy Blackdemon Realm, Tianchu Civilization, and Greater Demonic Realm even though it was a piece of cake for them?

It was not they did not want to. These Macroworlds had no value to be destroyed, or the price to destroy them was too high. And of course, the main reason was that these Macroworlds were backed by Celestial Court.

Hanakage Keizen said, “If all-out war breaks out in Infernal Court, Celestial Court will definitely participate. If an all-out war doesn't break out, they won't be able to do anything to grandfather. Think about it. If a Grand Supreme Array Master hides in the starry sky where Kunlun is located, basically all Supreme Saints sent by Infernal Court to the battlefield of merits will end up dead.

“If a God gets close to that starry sky, they might also die silently.”

“Infernal Court will be in a dilemma,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Once a Grand Supreme Array Master returned to Kunlun, it would be 100 times more difficult for Infernal Court to destroy Kunlun. Even if they could destroy Kunlun, the price they had to pay was far less than the spoils of war.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Let's say if I win first place in the Celestial-Hunting Festival and get 0.3 percent of the Canon of Destiny and a Destiny Token, how can I explain it to the Fane of Destiny and Wargod Bloodximius after handing the Canon and token to you?”

“You don’t need to give them to me. I just need to study them for a while, and then I can refine a new Destiny Token.

“The Canon of Destiny is used to help refine the Destiny Token. Other than that, it doesn’t have much value to me,” Hanakage Keizen said.

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly and said, “What benefits can I get from this deal?”

From the beginning, Hanakage Keizen had told Zhang Ruochen directly that she saved Lord of Nephilim Island for herself first, and Kunlun was only her second priority.

In this case, it was a private deal.

Both Hanakage Keizen and Zhang Ruochen had something in mind for Kunlun. However, they prioritized themselves and the people around them.

Kunlun was important, but it could only be second.

Take care of others only when you had the resources.

If Hanakage Keizen had told Zhang Ruochen the idea of saving Kunlun from the very beginning, Zhang Ruochen would have helped her, but if he found out that her words and deeds were not the same, he would be very disappointed.

Hanakage Keizen did not do that. She only told Zhang Ruochen her true thoughts, which made Zhang Ruochen admire her personality.

He was willing to strike this deal with her.

Hanakage Keizen said, “I have thirty percent of the Time Canon because I inherited part of it from the land where Saint Monk Xumi rests in peace.

“If you help me, I’ll help you find that land.

“In addition, I can give you an Avīci token.”

“Avīci token?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Hanakage Keizen asked, “Have you heard of Avīci Pavilion?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head gently.

“You haven’t been to Infernal Court for long. It’s normal that you don’t know about Avīci Pavilion.” Hanakage Keizen continued, “Avīci Pavilion is an organization that I established in Infernal Court in order to save my grandfather.

“After 100,000 years of development, this organization has infiltrated the ten clans of Infernal Court and the Fane of Destiny.

“I am Avīci Pavilion’s leader. I am also one of the top deities on the list that the Fane of Destiny wants to eliminate.

“I’ve only given out two Avīci tokens. I gave them to those whom I owe a huge favor. Your token is the third one.

“Come to see me with the Avīci token. I can promise to do one thing for you to repay the favor.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Anything? What if I want you to kill a God for me?”

“Yes, of course. Anything as long as it’s within my ability.”

There was no doubt that Hanakage Keizen did not like to owe favors, so this deal was obviously more advantageous to Zhang Ruochen.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen was also taking a risk. Once the deities of Infernal Court found out that he was in contact with the leader of Avīci Pavilion, the consequences would be quite serious.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I’d like to know how many Kunlun cultivators have joined Avīci Pavilion in the past 100,000 years and become part of the rescue plan? Is my father one of them?”

Hanakage Keizen was silent and did not say a word.

However, Zhang Ruochen already understood everything. His eyes sharpened and he asked, “Where is he?”

“Both of you will meet if he wants to see you,” Hanakage Keizen said.

Zhang Ruochen’s emotions fluctuated violently. The Yang Qi in his body became hard to suppress. His eyes turned blood red.

Hanakage Keizen stood quietly on the side, “You have to learn to control your emotions,” she said, “I was once as angry as you and filled with hostility toward this world.

“However, after 100,000 years, I have finally seen through everything. There are very few things that can stir up my emotions.”

Zhang Ruochen’s pupils returned to black. “Empress, have you ever been in love?” he asked gloomily.

Hanakage Keizen did not answer him. She did not know how to answer.

Zhang Ruochen seemed to be talking to himself. He continued, “I used to have a beloved father, a woman I loved, and close friends. I loved everything in the world.

“However, there was a force that forcefully erased the love in my heart. It made me lose everything. It wanted me to hate the world.

“However, hatred is a very painful thing. It’s like standing in a dark abyss, unable to see the light.”

Hanakage Keizen could feel the pain in Zhang Ruochen’s heart. She said, “I will tell him your words.”

“Thank you,” Zhang Ruochen said.

After a long time, they returned to the main topic of the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Hanakage Keizen said, “You have many powerful enemies. It’s very difficult to take the first place in the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Avīci Pavilion can help you eliminate the most powerful ones. For example, Lan Yin from the Fane of Barasingha and Wu Jiang from the Fane of Darkness.”

“No need.”

Zhang Ruochen recovered completely and said, “If we do that, it will look suspicious. The deities of Infernal Court will definitely guess that I have a partnership with Avīci Pavilion. I will take down the Celestial-Hunting Festival on my own.”

“That’s right. You have the guts. In that case, I’ll respect your decision. Before I leave, I’ll give you another gift.”

After saying this, Hanakage Keizen’s body dissipated. When it condensed again, it had turned into a sword.

Whoosh

The sword flew out and hit Divine Sky-connecting Tree’s trunk. It turned into a sword-shaped Canon mark.

Zhang Ruochen stood alone at the edge of the cliff formed by the God’s corpse for a long time.

“The Swordwill of Sword God Feng Chen is left here. Other deities might not be able to sense what’s happening here.

“However, Sword God Feng Chen could sense it. Why does the Empress of Thousand Bones dare to meet me here?

“Is Sword God Feng Chen also a member of Avīci Pavilion?”

Zhang Ruochen was in deep thought for a long time.

Suddenly, Pan Ruo flew up from the bottom of the cliff.

“I have already achieved my purpose of meeting you. It’s time to leave,” she said.

Zhang Ruochen stared at her pair of bright and cold eyes and said, “Is there nothing else you want to say to me? The deities of Infernal Court can’t sense it here.”

“What else is there to say between us? We no longer walk the same path. It’s better that we go separate ways.” Pan Ruo avoided Zhang Ruochen’s gaze and said emotionlessly.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I’ve been to Death’s Door and Destiny Pool.”

Pan Ruo’s delicate body trembled slightly. She couldn’t hold it in anymore. Her eyes were sad and tender. “Whose destiny did you see in the pool?”

Zhang Ruochen did not say anything. In his mind, a graceful and majestic figure flashed past.

“It really wasn’t me. Since it wasn’t me, there’s nothing more to talk about between us. Take care of yourself from now on.

Supreme Saint Ruochen, farewell.”

Pan Ruo turned around. She did not want Zhang Ruochen to see her expression. She turned into a beam of light passing through the clouds formed by the Divine Soul Fog. She flew out of the bronze coffin and left Vastsea Manor quickly.

When she left, her heart was still in great pain.

Destiny Pool represented the ultimate Destiny of the person one cared about the most.

If she was the person Zhang Ruochen cared about the most, he would have said it. Since he did not say it, there was no need to ask.

In her mind, she kept asking. If Zhang Ruochen had said that the person he saw in Destiny Pool was her, would she throw herself into his arms and cry to her heart's content, telling him about the pain and sorrow he had been through in the past years?

If Zhang Ruochen could hug her, forgive her for what she did in the past, and gently caress her hair and face, how happy would that be?

Unfortunately, no.

“Destiny Pool, why do you have to reflect people's feelings so clearly?”

When she walked out of Vastsea Manor, Pan Ruo's emotions were completely restrained. She became cold and noble again, without a trace of abnormality.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Scion Yuan Mo, and Lord Sinluo went up to welcome her.

Scion Yuan Mo asked, “Are the Fugue Pills in Zhang Ruochen's hands?”

“Yes,” Pan Ruo answered.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei asked, “Is he willing to sell them?”

Pan Ruo shook her head slightly and said, “No.”

Lord Sinluo snorted. "I've already said that Zhang Ruochen would never sell it. Why waste time on him?"

"I have good news. Wu Jiang has found a Theophany Berry, which can also help to break the shackles. Its medicinal power can reach one-fifth of a Fugue Pill."

...

Zhang Ruochen flew out of the bronze coffin with mixed feelings because he saw something different in Pan Ruo's eyes.

When she left, her disappointed and desperate eyes touched Zhang Ruochen's heart. If it was before, he would have chased after her, pulled her back, and hugged her tightly.

But this time, he seemed to be cold-hearted. He just stood there indifferently.

"Is everything between us really over?"

"Destiny Pool, why do you want people to see the fate of others?"

"What kind of person am I? Amorous or heartless?"

Zhang Ruochen was confused. The Yang Qi in his body was acting up, making it difficult for him to keep his thoughts clear and calm. There was a trace of demonic power in his eyes. He pointed at Lian Xi who was practicing under Sundial. "Follow me." His voice was full of authority.

He walked into Sevenstar Imperial Palace with his hands behind his back. He could not shake the look in Pan Ruo's eyes when she was leaving off his mind. It even gave him the illusion that Lian Xi behind him was Pan Ruo.

He knew that the devil inside him re-emerged, but he did not want to suppress his lust this time.

He walked into the inner chamber with Lian Xi..

Chapter 2263: Zhang Ruochen's Ambition

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

In Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Saint Spring lake lay gleaming, surrounded by blooming flowers.

In one of the chambers with oldworld charm, Zhang Ruochen — whose well-defined body was an archetype of masculinity — walked down from a wooden bed. His muscles were well-proportioned, his chest broad, his eyes piercing and devilish, his facial features perfectly shaped. The masculine beauty was enticing and captivating.

That night, he had fallen into a postcoital slumber after letting off steam.

Zhang Ruochen took the white robe hanging on the bedside and put it on. He turned and stared at the delicate figure that was still lying on the bed. “From now on, this is where you stay. You can come and go as you please.”

Lian Xi had woken up a long time ago. Her long black hair scattered over her shoulders. Her eyes were so beautiful that they could take one's breath away. She looked up, staring into the void. There was no overreaction on her pretty face. Her countenance was calm and serene.

Red marks were left on her fair skin, from her neck to the two snow-white bosoms under the quilt.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to push the door open and leave, she said, “You treated me as someone's substitute last night. Who was that person?”

Zhang Ruochen stopped. His eyes were deep and profound. He said, “You are you, not someone's substitute. From now on, you will be my maidservant. Don't ask questions. You are not qualified to do so.”

Walking out of the inner chamber, Zhang Ruochen stared at the sky, his eyes flashed with fierce killing intent. “You've watched me the whole night. Haven't you seen enough?” His tone was cold.

Whoosh!

Enormous Divine Purification Flame surged out of his body. The mighty flame turned into a flaming tornado soaring into the sky and enveloped the divine spirits.

There were seventeen divine spirits. Each belonged to a deity.

Sensing Zhang Ruochen's killing intent, the seventeen divine spirits wanted to retreat immediately, but they were too late.

KABOOM!

Divine Purification Flame wiped out all seventeen divine spirits and burned them into nothingness.

Zhang Ruochen left Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Standing on the stairs, he pointed to the sky and shouted, "Whoever dares to spy on me again through your divine spirits, I'll destroy each and every divine spirit you send."

His voice spread far and wide, echoing through Winterpage City, alarming countless cultivators.

Inside a manor in the Divine Domain of Destiny, under a peach tree stood an elder with gray hair. Looking in the direction of Winterpage City, he smiled. "You are a man of character who even dare to kill the divine spirits of gods. You surely are uninhibited."

Another deity who was sitting in a palace said to himself, "Zhang Ruochen also has a weakness. At least he can't control his lust. In other words, his control over his spiritual will is far inferior to Yan Wushen's.

"Moreover, there is a great hidden danger in his physical condition. He's on the verge of losing control.

The voice of another deity sounded, "It's easier for us to control him if he has weaknesses. Hidden danger means a flaw. A blade without weakness or flaw will wound its master when it grows sharper in the future. Hence, I feel much more at ease now."

...

In Vastsea Manor, all the cultivators were awakened from their practice. They all stared at Zhang Ruochen.

Everyone could see that Zhang Ruochen was in a bad mood. He had said that he wanted to destroy the divine spirits of deities. Even if other Supreme Saints had such strength, they wouldn't dare to do so.

Moyin went up to him and asked, "Master, what happened?"

"Nothing." Zhang Ruochen waved his hand.

When he was walking into the pavilion, he was deep in thought.

Moyin said, "Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi have come to visit you again. They want to see you."

"Fine, go and— forget it, they're already here!" Zhang Ruochen turned his gaze to the door.

Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and Supreme Saint Xueqi walked over quickly. Each of them had a look of dissatisfaction on their faces, releasing Supreme Saint aura without reservation.

From afar, Lord Xia Yu spoke in a sarcastic tone, "I heard that Supreme Saint Ruochen has taken in Celestial Court's Fairy Shadowless and housed her in Sevenstar Imperial Palace. I'm so envious."

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What exactly has pissed the four of you off?"

Supreme Saint Xueqi's expression was cold. He said rudely, "Zhang Ruochen, do you really not know about it? Or you are pretending?" he sounded rude. "Don't you know that Bloodsky Clan was humiliated at the banquet of the ten major Immortal Vampire clans because of you?"

"And you, as the leader, did not ask about it?"

"Oh? I thought Lord Xia Yu attended the banquet in my place? With her cultivation, who would dare to humiliate her?" After taking out a pot of Saint Spring Water and a set of bronze cups, Zhang Ruochen filled five cups in a row.

He then gestured for them to sit down.

Lord Xia Yu's pretty face was filled with shame and anger. She did not sit down. "I'm responsible for what happened at the banquet," she said. "It's not your fault, but you didn't bother to respond to the provocation Lan Ying and Wujiang had made. How can Bloodsky Clan cultivators hold their heads high in Infernal Court?"

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. "What's wrong? How did they provoke us?"

"Lan Ying raised a big flag at the Arena of Life and Death," said Yi Xuan. "It says 'Lan Ying challenges Zhang Ruochen, Bloodsky Clan leader, to a life and death battle. If Zhang Ruochen doesn't accept his challenge, Zhang Ruochen will be a coward.'"

"His method is way too childish." Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a smile.

"Forget about his method. If you don't respond, you will be a laughing stock, even among Bloodsky Clan cultivators.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "How about Wujiang? What did he do to provoke us?"

"Wujiang once said openly that Bloodsky Clan had no talents left that they appointed a hybrid to be their leader. Even I couldn't bear such a comment, but you endured it." The look in the eyes of Supreme Saint Xueqi was ferocious. He was very dissatisfied with Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen sat up straight. He played with the bronze cup with his fingers and drank the Saint Spring Water in one gulp.

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen said, "Ignore them. There will be a chance to fight them at the Celestial-Hunting Festival."

"Fight?"

Gu Chenzi, who had been silent, suddenly spoke. He continued in a self-deprecating tone, "Lan Ying and Wujiang can defeat more than half of Bloodsky Clan cultivators single-handedly.

“How can we fight?”

“The only way we can survive at the Celestial-Hunting Festival is to avoid a direct confrontation with them.”

Although they didn’t want to admit it, the combat strength of Lan Ying and Wujiang made them feel deeply powerless.

At the same time, they thought they understood why Zhang Ruochen hadn’t responded to the provocation of Lan Ying and Wujiang.

They perceived that he couldn’t beat Lan Ying and Wujiang, so he had to admit defeat. Otherwise, he would be humiliated even more. At this moment, he could only endure.

Zhang Ruochen smiled noncommittally and asked again, “You all went to the banquet of the ten major Immortal Vampire clans. What exactly happened? With your strength, Lord Bladehell shouldn’t have gone too far, right?”

Lord Xia Yu’s face was gloomy, but she didn’t speak.

Supreme Saint Xueqi said, “The banquet of ten major Immortal Vampire clans was supposed to be a gathering for everyone to discuss how to deal with the Celestial-Hunting Festival so that the Immortal Vampires could achieve better results in the competition among clans.

“However, all clans were seated in the hall except for us, Bloodsky Clan, were seated outside the hall. The reason they gave was ‘there were not enough seats.’

“Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi entered the main hall angrily and questioned Lord Bladehell. However, they were ostracized and ridiculed by the other clans.

“Although Lord Bladehell said nothing, the cultivators around him claimed that Bloodsky Clan had become the target of the various powers. Bloodsky Clan participating in Celestial-Hunting Festival would implicate the entire Immortal Vampires.

“Some people also said that Bloodsky Clan is weak and dispensable. If they can take the initiative to withdraw from the Celestial-Hunting Festival, the Immortal Vampires' can get better results."

Hearing Supreme Saint Xueqi's story, the faces of Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi turned grave. They were embarrassed and furious.

Supreme Saint Xueqi continued, "Of course, Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi could not endure it any longer. They started to attack the cultivators who taunted them. However, no one expected that cultivator to actually accept the challenge. He even challenged all three of them to fight him."

Zhang Ruochen finally showed interest. "Challenge the three of them at the same time?"

"That's right," Supreme Saint Xueqi said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Who was that brave person? Lord Bladehell? Lady Wind? Or Supreme Saint Jin Kun?"

In his opinion, only cultivators at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm would dare to do this. Otherwise, if he angered Lord Xia Yu and the other two, he would only bring humiliation upon himself.

Supreme Saint Xueqi said, "That person is not Lord Bladehell, Lady Feng, nor Supreme Saint Jin Kun. He is a nobody in Puresky Clan."

"What happened in the end?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Xueqi stared at Lord Xia Yu and the others without saying a word. It was obvious that he could not bring himself to say it.

"You all lost?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan clenched his fists. His eyes were about to pop out of their sockets, "We lost miserably!" he replied. "No one expected that guy to be an elite who attained Great Perfection at Hundred-Shackle Realm. He had deliberately humiliated Bloodsky Clan to anger us. He defeated the three of us so he could make a name for himself.

Lord Xia Yu, Gu Chenzi, and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan were all top elites. With their leadership, Bloodsky Clan would definitely not be at the bottom of the ten major Immortal Vampire clans. Bloodsky Clan could make it into the top five.

However, the three of them were severely humiliated when facing a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint who had attained Great Perfection.

One could imagine how aggrieved they were.

Lord Xia Yu was obviously greatly agitated. She said, “Zhang Ruochen, you once said that you had a way to help me break through to the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm before the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Does that still count?”

“Of course it does,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chengzi, and Supreme Saint Xueqi all looked at each other with joy in their eyes.

If Lord Xia Yu could break through and reach the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, their strength would definitely soar.

By then, who would dare to underestimate Bloodsky Clan?

Who would dare to say that Bloodsky Clan was dispensable among the other major clans of the Immortal Vampires?

At the Celestial-Hunting Festival, an elite who reached Great Perfection under the Hundred-Shackle Realm could play a vital role. They were like pillars that could support a force. They also represented the dignity and glory of the force.

However, many Supreme Saints were trapped in the 99 shackles and could not make a breakthrough. Even the deities could not help much.

Would Zhang Ruochen be able to do so?

Lord Xia Yu did not have much confidence in Zhang Ruochen. That was why she had rejected him last time.

However, she had suffered too much humiliation at the banquet this time. Even if there was only a glimmer of hope, she wanted to give it a try.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and the others and said, “Don’t leave. Come with us! However, it still depends on you on how far your cultivation can grow.”

Zhang Ruochen’s plan was to let Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi reach the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm before the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

With three people at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and himself, Zhang Ruochen was confident enough to secure top spot among the ten clans of Infernal Court.

Of course, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi didn’t know that Zhang Ruochen was so ambitious. They followed him purely out of curiosity. They wanted to know what kind of power Zhang Ruochen had that could help Lord Xia Yu break through?

When they passed through the palace gate of Sevenstar Imperial Palace, they encountered Lian Xi who was walking out of it.

Seeing the five Supreme Saints, Lian Xi quickly moved to the side and stared at the ground. She had a delicate and alluring demeanor on her that would arouse a man’s protective instinct.

“If a fairy falls into Infernal Court, she can only stay by Zhang Ruochen’s side to live a better life. Otherwise, a deity would take her away to keep her as his exclusive plaything.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi were both amazed. They understood Zhang Ruochen the moment they saw Lian Xi walk out of the inner chamber.

They stared at Zhang Ruochen again with green eyes.

No wonder Zhang Ruochen had been hiding in Sevenstar Imperial Palace to practice. If they had such a fairy-like beauty to serve them in bed, they would have been partying every night and would ignore what was going on outside.

Supreme Saint Xueqi let out a long sigh and completely gave up. He was both envious and jealous of Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Lian Xi and said, “Go to the god’s corpse and take some of the god’s blood that is not contaminated by the poison and send it to Palace of Cosmos.”

“Yes, sir.”

Lian Xi bowed to Zhang Ruochen and walked out.

Palace of Cosmos was the palace used by Wargod Bloodximius when he was practicing. The space inside was vast and 300 meters long. The four walls and the top of the palace were inlaid with a large number of precious crystals. They sparkled like stars in the sky.

It was a place that other cultivators could not pry or probe.

Zhang Ruochen had brought them here to help them improve their cultivation. He wanted them to become the trump cards of Bloodsky Clan. He wanted them to catch the enemy forces off guard at crucial moments.

Whoosh!

Zhang Ruochen took out a cauldron of Fugue Pills and put it on the ground.

“I can give you all 100 Fugue Pills. But I’ll charge you 20 Godstones for each one. Any objections?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Seeing the Fugue Pills, Lord Xia Yu and the others were enlightened.

No wonder Xue Tu would refuse to sell them the Fugue Pills when they wanted to buy them. It turned out he wasn’t the one who had bought the Fugue Pills.

Although twenty Godstones per pill was expensive, it was still acceptable. After all, when they had gone to Xue Tu to buy them, they had bid for 30 Godstones per pill.

Lord Xia Yu said, “Even if you have the Fugue Pill, it’s useless. The most difficult part in process of breaking shackles is to find them. If you can’t identify the shackles in your body, no matter how many Fugue Pills you take, it will be in vain.”

“Finding the shackles is difficult for other Supreme Saints, but it’s a piece of cake for me,” Zhang Ruochen said..

Chapter 2264: Desire

“Piece of cake?”

The four Hundred-Shackled Realm Supreme Saints — Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and Supreme Saint Xueqi — had looks of disbelief on their faces. They felt that Zhang Ruochen was too conceited.

It was normal for them to think that way. How could a mere Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint understand the difficulties of cultivating the Hundred-Shackled Realm?

If Lord Xia Yu was not at her wit's end, she would not have trusted Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was so confident because he had the Canon of Truth and the Heart of Truth.

The most basic to cultivate the Path of Truth was to see through the void and find the truth. With the Heart of Truth and the 0.058 percent of Canon of Truth, Zhang Ruochen's ability to explore the shackles in a Supreme Saint could even surpass that of gods.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Precepts of Truth and gathered them in his eyes. He looked at the Supreme Saint Xueqi and said, “Xueqi, you've only broken fourteen shackles, right?”

“Yes.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi nodded and replied.

“Sit cross-legged. I'll help you find the fifteenth shackle,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Xueqi did not have high expectations of Zhang Ruochen's ability. However, Zhang Ruochen was the leader. Despite Supreme Saint Xueqi's strength and status, he still had to give him face.

Supreme Saint Xueqi hesitated for a moment and sat cross-legged on the ground.

Zhang Ruochen walked over and stood behind Supreme Saint Xueqi. He said, “Close your eyes and adjust your mental state.

Use the most natural way to circulate the blood-red aura in your body.”

The Three Top Elites of Bloodysky Clan looked at each other and retreated.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan sent a telepathic transmission to Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi. “Zhang Ruochen doesn’t seem to be joking. He’s very serious. Could he help a Supreme Saint find the shackles in him?”

Lord Xia Yu sent a telepathic transmission. “How is that possible? If there is a way to help a Supreme Saint find the shackles in him, why are there so many Celestial and Infernal Court Supreme Saints still trapped in the Hundred-Shackled Realm and unable to break through in their entire lives?”

At that point, Lord Xia Yu began to regret. She felt that it was foolish to pin her hopes on Zhang Ruochen.

Crash

Zhang Ruochen released the Realm-frame of Truth. Instantly, the entire Palace of Cosmos was covered by starlight spots. It was as if it had evolved into a miniature starfield.

Supreme Saint Xueqi was sitting cross-legged on the ground and he only felt that the world around him was spinning. It was as if he was sitting cross-legged in the center of the universe. There were countless stars above his head, below his body, and in all directions.

“Let go of any distracting thoughts. Feel the shackles in you carefully,” Zhang Ruochen said.

The so-called shackles were the various invisible powers that bound the Supreme Saint. They existed in every part of one’s body.

Only by finding all of them and breaking them could the power of the Neverwithier physique be fully unleashed. One could achieve greater freedom of power, physically, and spiritually.

Zhang Ruochen quietly mobilized the power of the Heart of Truth. He raised his palm and pressed it on the top of Supreme Saint Xueqi's head.

Supreme Saint Xueqi instinctively resisted, and his body swayed slightly.

"If you trust me, then don't resist," Zhang Ruochen said.

It may be a crisis of his own life and death. Supreme Saint Xueqi did not fully place his trust in Zhang Ruochen yet. His eyelids twitched as if he was about to open his eyes and break free.

Zhang Ruochen said, "The cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan attending the festival are dispensable to the entire Immortal Vampires. And your cultivation is dispensable to the Bloodysky Clan. You've only broken fourteen shackles. You're too weak!"

"If you want to be looked up to and become strong as soon as possible, if you want to help the Xue Jue family win honor and glory, you can only choose to trust me."

Supreme Saint Xueqi gritted his teeth and gradually gave up resisting. He handed himself over to Zhang Ruochen completely.

Swoosh

A patch of starlight appeared in Zhang Ruochen's palm, illuminating the top of the Supreme Saint Xueqi's head with incomparable brightness and clarity.

The light continued to extend downwards and finally illuminated Supreme Saint Xueqi entirely.

The Three Top Elites of Bloodysky Clan had no choice but to close their eyes because the light was too bright. They could not look directly at it and could only use their spiritual power to sense it.

However, as soon as they released their spiritual power, it was destroyed by the power that burst out from Zhang Ruochen's body. They could not detect anything.

It lasted for twelve hours.

The Three Top Elites of Bloodysky Clan heard Supreme Saint Xueqi's excited voice. "I found it! I found the fifteenth shackle. I found it. That's great. Zhang Ruochen, how did you do it?"

Zhang Ruochen withdrew the Realm-frame of Truth and the blinding light in the Palace of Cosmos disappeared.

"What's there to be excited about? It took me twelve hours to find the shackle. With your talent, you have the nerve to call yourself the number one person in a thousand years in the Xue Jue Family?"

Zhang Ruochen was exhausted. Beads of sweat covered his forehead.

Supreme Saint Xueqi was too excited. He did not mind being looked down upon by Zhang Ruochen.

He had no choice because he was completely convinced of Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had defeated the Three Top Elites of Bloodysky Clan and displayed his strength as a superior at the God-ascension Ceremony. Supreme Saint Xueqi could only look up to him. Now, Zhang Ruochen could even help the Hundred-Shackled Realm Supreme Saint of the Bloodysky Clan raise his cultivation. He had the potential to change the situation of the Bloodysky Clan. This was something even gods could not do.

How could they not be convinced?

"I'll call all the Hundred-Shackled Realm Supreme Saints of the Bloodysky Clan over right now. At the Celestial-hunting Festival, we'll be able to shake the world with a single feat." Supreme Saint Xueqi said.

Zhang Ruochen stopped him immediately. "What are you doing? When have I said that I want to help all the Hundred-Shackled Realm Supreme Saints of the Bloodysky Clan improve their cultivation?"

"But if you have such ability, why don't you help?" said Supreme Saint Xueqi.

“If I have the ability and I help everyone, how long will I have to help? When will I have the time to cultivate for myself?”

Zhang Ruochen added, “At the Celestial-hunting Festival, only those at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm can play the greatest role. Even if the other Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints improved a few shackles or dozens of shackles, it would not be of much significance. I’m willing to help you because you’re a disciple of the Xue Jue Family. I have the blood of the Xue Jue family in me.”

The last bit of displeasure and concern in Supreme Saint Xueqi’s heart disappeared after he heard that. He stared at Zhang Ruochen, and the words “That’s because you’re a disciple of the Xue Jue Family” kept echoing in his mind.

Supreme Saint Xueqi’s sense of honor of being a disciple of the Xue Jue family rose to the highest point.

“Zhang Ruochen, I’m completely convinced today! From now on, even if you want to compete for the patriarch of our family, I will support you wholeheartedly,” said the Supreme Saint Xueqi.

Zhang Ruochen flipped his palm and took out a Fugue Pill from the cauldron. He waved it at him and said, “Take this Fugue Pill and break the fifteenth shackle as soon as possible.”

“Thank you.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi took the Fugue Pill and took out twenty Godstones. He handed them to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen took the twenty Godstones and he said with a sigh, “What a loss. My Fugue Pills was sold for more than twenty Godstones. Besides, I spent a lot of effort to find the shackle for you. I think I should take fifty Godstones.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi’s heart skipped a beat. He was afraid that Zhang Ruochen would ask for too much.

After all, even if Zhang Ruochen asked for fifty Godstones, he would continue to ask for Zhang Ruochen’s help.

If the Godstones were gone, he could still earn it.

But if he missed the opportunity to improve his cultivation, who could he go to?

“No, no. Zhang Ruochen, how can you go back to your previous price? Twenty Godstones for a Fugue Pill and you have to promise to help us find a shackle. I don’t care. I’ll give you 200 Godstones now. You have to give me ten Fugue Pills and help me find ten more shackles.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan rushed over instantly and forced a bag of Godstones into Zhang Ruochen’s hand, afraid that he would not accept it.

Gu Chenzi, who had always been calm, also took out a bag of Godstones and said, “I have 280 Godstones for you. Zhang Ruochen, as a Supreme Saint, you must keep your word. You can not deny it.”

Lord Xia Yu stretched out his hands and pushed Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi out. He said, “Zhang Ruochen, you have to help me find the shackle of desire first. Name your conditions. Let alone 50 Godstones, I’ll give you 100.”

They would not have believed it if they had not seen it with their own eyes that Zhang Ruochen had found a shackle for Supreme Saint Xueqi in just twelve hours.

Their hearts were shaken and they had no more doubts.

Zhang Ruochen knew that they would pay no matter how high the price was.

However, Zhang Ruochen valued the potential and future of the four Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saints more compared to the dozens and hundreds of Godstones.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I’m just saying. What are you nervous about? I care more about the ranking of the Bloodysky Clan at the Celestial-hunting Festival than I do about the Godstones from you. I care more about the honor and dignity of the Bloodysky Clan.”

“I’ve been waiting for you to say that for a long time!”
Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said.

Gu Chenzi was still cold-looking. He said, "With your words, I'll listen to you at the Celestial-hunting Festival."

A strange look appeared in Lord Xia Yu's eyes as if she was re-examining Zhang Ruochen. In the past, she had been hostile to Zhang Ruochen. When she fought with him, she had even wanted to kill him.

But now, her impression of him has changed slightly.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes met hers, he said, "Lord Xia Yu, you are right. I also think that I should help you find the Shackle of Desire. The Bloodysky Clan must have a Supreme Saint in completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm to support the situation. We can't let any force look down on us. When the time comes, we'll let the other nine clans of the Immortal Vampires come to us. They won't think that we're dispensable."

"What do you want?" Lord Xia Yu asked.

Zhang Ruochen stretched out two fingers and said, "Twenty Godstones."

Lord Xia Yu's eyes were very beautiful. They were not blood red, but green like jade. Her eyelashes were soft and long. There was a hint of cynicism in her eyes, she said, "I won't fall for your tricks, don't expect me to owe you a favor. I'll give you a hundred Godstones."

As Lord Xia Yu spoke, she threw a bag containing Godstones into Zhang Ruochen's hand.

Zhang Ruochen said, "The Shackle of Desire is the hundredth and final shackle. It must be the most difficult one. I'm not sure that I can help you find it. "Give me the divine stone now... What If I can't find it later? I may not return it to you."

"Just do your best. Even if you can't find it, I won't take back the Godstones."

Lord Xia Yu was a straightforward woman. She sat cross-legged and took off the violet-gold phoenix hairpin. Her long hair fell like a waterfall. She said, "Let's begin! Whether we succeed or fail, it's not your fault."

Supreme Saint Xueqi retreated to the edge of the Palace of Cosmos. She swallowed the Fugue Pill and cultivated it with all her might.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi were even more nervous than Lord Xia Yu.

If Zhang Ruochen could even find the most difficult—Shackle of Desire, then would not it mean that the two of them also had a chance to cultivate to the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm before the Celestial-hunting Festival?

It was unimaginable for a clan to produce three cultivators in completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

“Zhang Ruochen must succeed.”

Gu Chenzi couldn't help but clench his fists.

Crash

The light from the Realm-frame of Truth filled the Palace of Cosmos once again.

As Zhang Ruochen's palm gently pressed on the top of Lord Xia Yu's head, her graceful and delicate body was illuminated like a shining divine jade. Her black eyebrows slightly furrowed and gradually relaxed.

Lord Xia Yu's talent was undoubtedly much higher than Xueqi's.

However, the process of searching for the shackle was not smooth.

She had broken ninety-nine shackles and only one remained. This one was not in her body, but in her Saint Soul, which was connected to her consciousness.

It was called desire.

Lord Xia Yu's consciousness had billions of shackles, and the Shackle of Desire was hidden in one of them.

After twenty hours, both Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu were exhausted, but the Shackle of Desire did not appear after a while. Lord Xia Yu's heart was fluctuating. Her emotions were already out of control.

Zhang Ruochen remained calm and said, “Stay true to your heart. Next, you have to investigate the consciousness that you don’t want others to know.”

“Don’t... Don’t peek into me... My consciousness.”

Lord Xia Yu’s resistance in her heart became stronger and stronger.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Everyone has the most painful wound. It’s not scary to open it. What’s scary is that you don’t dare to face it.

“You have hatred in your heart. It’s very strong. At the same time, it’s your weakest part. You don’t want anyone to see this side of you. If you continue to resist, I can’t help you.

“Do you want to be stuck in this realm forever?”

Zhang Ruochen’s voice was gentle, vast, and long. It kept entering Lord Xia Yu’s mind.

“Zhang Ruochen, please let me go. I don’t want to continue. I don’t want to cultivate until the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm,” said Lord Xia Yu. Her tears flowed out as she pleaded with Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly. As if he was peeling off layers of her clothes, he forced open her hidden consciousness. Finally, he knew her most vulnerable side.

Lord Xia Yu has a tragic past.

When Lord Xia Yu was young, her parents were forcibly sent to the Battlefield of Merits. Both of them died, and only their skeletons were sent back.

After that, her status in the family plummeted. She suffered all kinds of unfair treatment, but she could only silently wipe away her tears. She gritted her teeth and stubbornly cultivated hard.

Later, her only elder brother finally came out of seclusion and took her away from the family to train in the Battlefield of Merits.

Unfortunately, she fell into the trap of the Celestial Court cultivators because she had underestimated the enemy. Her elder brother was pierced through the heart by ten thousand swords and burned to death to save her. In the end, she had no choice but to carry her elder brother's bones and return to Infernal Court.

As her cultivation talent gradually revealed itself, she finally entered the vision of the upper echelons of the clan and was accepted as a disciple by the divine ancestor. Her status in the clan grew higher and higher, and her cultivation base grew stronger and stronger.

However, the divine ancestor, who loved her the most, was soon refined to death in the starry sky by the deity of Celestial Court.

Without the protection of the divine ancestor, Lord Xia Yu's family was in decline. It was constantly being encroached upon by the surrounding forces and was being bullied. Therefore, she yearned to become strong and pretend to be cold and heartless. She wanted all cultivators to be afraid of her and not want to be bullied again.

Zhang Ruochen could see that the part where she did not want to open her mind was the part where her brother died because of her.

This should be her hundredth shackle.

It was also her desire..

Zhang Ruochen withdrew his palm slowly and let out a long breath. Then, he sat down cross-legged with the Godstone in his hand. He absorbed the divine Qi inside the Godstone and recovered the power that had been consumed in his body.

Lord Xia Yu was still sitting in the same place. Her blue feather robe was soaked in sweat. Her delicate and pale face was still wet with tears, and her delicate body was trembling slightly.

Guilt, self-blame, resentment, and all kinds of negative emotions that tortured her still filled her heart.

Zhang Ruochen cruelly tore open the memory that she did not want to recall the most. It was bloody and presented in front of her. Everything seemed to have happened just now.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi were very anxious. They wanted to know whether they had succeeded or failed?

However, they had never seen Lord Xia Yu so weak and sad. They did not dare to ask her.

This silence lasted until the Saint Qi in Zhang Ruochen's body recovered. Then, he stood up again. He stared at the silent Lord Xia Yu and said, "I've already found the Shackle of Desire. Why are you still sitting there?"

Lord Xia Yu raised her pale face and looked at Zhang Ruochen's tall and straight figure. At a certain moment, this figure overlapped with her dead brother.

Zhang Ruochen saw that she was staring at him. He said, "The hatred, self-blame, and guilt in your heart are too strong. It's so difficult to break the desire. It will be very dangerous when you reach the Banshi Isshou Realm in the future. I advise you to put down some things when you should. Don't keep yourself sealed inside..."

His voice came to an abrupt halt, and his eyes were a little misty.

Zhang Ruochen thought of himself in Lord Xia Yu's shoes.

It was so difficult for Lord Xia Yu to find the Shackle of Desire. What about him? Would it be even harder for him? Would not his future path be even more dangerous?

Just like Chi Yao in the past, she was still unable to become a god. Was it the same?

Lord Xia Yu collected her emotions. She stood up and displayed her tall and beautiful figure. She pulled up her long hair and tied it back with the violet-gold phoenix hairpin. Her cold and noble temperament gradually resurfaced.

She stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, "How do you think I should let go? How do I get out of this dilemma?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "There are some problems. You should look at it from another angle. Your parents, elder brother, and the divine ancestor did die tragically at the hands of Celestial Court's cultivators. But how many people died at their hands? How many people lost their families and suffered the same fate as you?"

"It's not your fault. It's not the cultivators of Celestial Court. It's war and killing."

Lord Xia Yu said coldly, "You'd better not say the same thing. If the cultivators in Infernal Court heard you, you'll be in big trouble. I'm grateful that you helped me find the Shackle of Desire. But you've peeked into my heart and know too many of my secrets. You'd better keep your mouth shut. If you say a word, I'll kill you."

Lord Xia Yu took a Fugue Pill and turned to leave.

Zhang Ruochen said with an emotionless face, "After the Celestial-hunting Festival if there's a chance, you can come with me to the Battlefield of Merits. I'll take you to see the other side of the war. Maybe it will help change your stubbornness and also be helpful for your future cultivation."

"Zhang Ruochen, you're too controlling. Stop trying to please me and do something that's not your place. I'm not the Fairy Shadowless. If you wish to take me into the harem of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. I advise you to give up the idea as soon as possible so that you don't get yourself into trouble," said Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu did not turn around. She walked out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and sat under the Sundial to cultivate.

"It seems that she has a misunderstanding about me. If I treat me a little better, does she think that I'm hitting on her?" said Zhang Ruochen as he stared at Supreme Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said, "Most beautiful women have this problem. You're also very good to Xueqi. You can't possibly hit on Xueqi, right?"

Gu Chenzi said, "But women often say the opposite. If I was Lord Xia Yu and wanted to choose a husband, Zhang Ruochen would be one of the best candidates. Marrying Zhang Ruochen will have the backing of the Xue Jue Family in the Bloodysky Clan and her family will be in a much better position."

"So she's hinting at Zhang Ruochen to be more proactive?" Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a smile, but he was on guard.

There was nothing wrong with taking Lord Xia Yu under his wing and being a member of his team in Infernal Court.

However, she must not misunderstand and think that he was trying to hit on her.

After experiencing so many things, Zhang Ruochen could do anything to achieve his goal. He did not mind being a wicked man and a murderer. There was no boundary between good and evil.

There was no absolute good or absolute evil in the world.

However, if he used emotions to achieve his goal, he would be backfired many times. He tried his best not to do so.

After helping Supreme Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi find their shackles, Zhang Ruochen separated the five Saint Souls again to comprehend the Precepts. His original body opened the paper that he had gotten from Pan Ruo to comprehend and analyze the Canon of Water's mark.

A year later, Zhang Ruochen had fully analyzed the Canon of Water's mark and successfully condensed the fourth-grade Heavenly Stream Saintwill of water.

However, he did not immediately merge the Heavenly Stream Saintwill into the Blood Sun Ten-tremors Saintwill.

According to the Divine Sky-connecting Tree, his understanding and application of the Blood Sun Ten-tremors Saintwill were too shallow. If he recklessly merged with the Heavenly Stream Saintwill, not only would it be dangerous, but the success rate would also be very low.

The more you understand the saintwill, the easier it is to merge.

Supreme Saint Xueqi, Supreme Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi's cultivation rose at a terrifying rate. Thanks to Zhang Ruochen's help in finding the shackles and providing the Fugue Pills to allow them to break the shackles. As well as a large amount of divine blood to help increase cultivation and consolidate the Neverwither physique.

It only takes half a year for Supreme Saint Xueqi to break one shackle.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi needed a year to break through one shackle.

This did not mean that Supreme Saint Xueqi's talent was higher than the two of them. It was just that both of them had broken through eighty shackles. The further they went, the more difficult it became, and the longer they took to break.

Three years later, Lord Xia Yu successfully broke through the hundredth shackle. A massive amount of blood-red aura surged out of her. Almost ten billion Precepts traveled through the heavens and earth.

Whoosh

Eight silver wings rushed out from her back.

Lightning flowed on the silver wings. They became extremely huge as if they had turned into eight silver clouds.

A new pair of silver wings grew out of the center of the eight silver wings. However, these silver wings were still half-real, like a chaotic fog of light.

“It broke off so quickly. It’s quite powerful.”

Zhang Ruochen awakened from his cultivation. He walked out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and stood on the steps. He pointed in the direction of Lord Xia Yu with his right hand.

Whoosh

The space around Lord Xia Yu began to stretch and distort.

Her body was pulled into a spatial bubble a hundred miles wide by Zhang Ruochen. Only then did the surrounding of Vastsea Manor calmed down.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the cultivators who were cultivating and said, “Stop looking and continue cultivating.”

Xue Chen, Xue Ningxiao, and the others did not continue cultivating. Instead, they stood up and stared in the direction of the spatial bubble. They were all amazed.

Lord Xia Yu was about to enter the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. It was a big event. No matter how important the cultivation was, they did not want to miss this opportunity to witness it.

Zhang Ruochen ignored them and focused on Lord Xia Yu. He could not help but nod.

“There’s a huge difference between a Supreme Saint with ninety-nine severed shackles and a Supreme Saint with a hundred severed shackles. Lord Xia Yu’s cultivation almost doubled in an instant. It was still rising. The ninth and tenth silver wings on her back were also rapidly forming.

Zhang Ruochen calculated in his heart. If he did not use the Supreme Artifact, would he be able to defeat the current Lord Xia Yu?

Zhang Ruochen had spent a lot of effort to defeat Lord Xia Yu during the God-ascension Ceremony.

Everyone's cultivation was improving, but Lord Xia Yu had taken the most crucial step. It was very likely that she was ahead.

The gods of the Bloodysky Clan sensed this at once and were overjoyed.

Even though Lord Xia Yu had already broken through ninety-nine shackles and was only one step away from reaching the great circle of the Hundred-Shackled Realm, the gods of the Bloodysky Clan knew her situation very well. They felt that she couldn't break through within a hundred years. It was even possible for her to stay where she was for the rest of her life.

Therefore, the gods of the Bloodysky Clan did not have much hope for her.

However, before the Celestial-Hunting Festival, Lord Xia Yu had successfully broken through. This was definitely out of their expectations. It could be described as a surprise.

Wargod Bloodximius transmitted a message to Supreme Saint Qingsheng. "When she reaches the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, send a Supreme Saint in the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm to check out her combat strength."

...

Not long after, Lord Xia Yu temporarily consolidated her cultivation.

Even though she was as cold as a stone, there was a smile on her face at this moment. The joy in her heart could not be suppressed and hidden.

Zhang Ruochen stepped into the spatial bubble and hovered in the air. "Congratulations on breaking through the realm and entering the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

"Completion?"

Lord Xia Yu shook her head and said, "I just broke through the hundredth shackle and I'm still far from the completion. In the Supreme Saint's body, there are thousands of tiny shackles in addition to the hundred main shackles. I can only be considered to have reached the completion after breaking all of them. By then, my cultivation will at least double.

"Although there are many tiny shackles, they can't stop my progress. Give me three more years at most, and I'll be able to break them all. Of course, you have to provide me with enough fresh divine blood in these three years."

Zhang Ruochen frowned and said, "Why should I provide you with divine blood?"

"Don't you like to curry favor? I gave you a chance, but you didn't cherish it?" Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen could see that Lord Xia Yu was really in a good mood. At the same time, her hostility and rejection toward him had disappeared. In the past, she would never have said such words to Zhang Ruochen.

Such words already had a hint.

Lord Xia Yu quickly realized that what she had just said was inappropriate. She immediately put away the smile on her face, she said coldly, "I was just joking with you. Don't look so reluctant. I will buy it with Godstones. I won't take your divine blood for nothing."

"Oh, you are indeed Lord Xia Yu. You are so impressive. I have never seen such a begging attitude from you." said Luo Sha.

Luo Sha walked into the spatial bubble with her stunning figure. She walked to Zhang Ruochen's side with a dissatisfied look, she said again, "Zhang Ruochen, why should I pay for the Sundial when other cultivators don't need to pay Godstones to cultivate? Moreover, you provide them with divine blood for free. Why don't I get such treatment?"

Zhang Ruochen sniffed the charming fragrance coming from her body and said lightly, "They are cultivators of the Bloodsky Clan and you are not."

"You..."

Luo Wei was even more annoyed. She puffed up her cheeks, widened her eyes, and said, “You are bullying me. Also, why does the Sundial consume so many Godstones? It costs at least six Godstones a day. Do you think I am at your mercy?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “If you’re unhappy, you can leave the Vastsea Manor at any time.”

Luo Sha put her hands behind her back and stepped on lotus flowers in the void space. She looked at Lord Xia Yu up and down and said with a smile, “Of course I’m unhappy, but I won’t leave.

“Lord Xia Yu can cultivate here and get divine blood. I want the same treatment as her. Don’t tell me that she’s a cultivator from the Bloodysky Clan. Why don’t cultivators from other Bloodysky Clans get the same treatment? You just like her, Don’t you?”

“Zhang Ruochen, how strong is the Yang Qi in your body? One Fairy Shadowless can’t satisfy you. Do you want me to give you 10 Saint Rakshasis?”

Lord Xia Yu’s body burned with the Grim Soul-devouring Flame. She said coldly, “He’s unruly, but I’m clean. Your Highness, you’d better not talk nonsense or you’ll get into trouble.”

“From now on, I’ll provide the Godstones needed to operate the Sundial.”

Lord Xia Yu had already left the spatial bubble by the time she finished speaking.

Luo Sha narrowed her charming eyes and smiled slyly. “Do you see, Zhang Ruochen? A woman like Lord Xia Yu can be taken down with a little trick.”

“Don’t talk nonsense. I’m helping her because I want to win the Celestial-hunting Festival. It’s not as bad as you think,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha rolled his eyes and said disdainfully, “What about Fairy Shadowless? Don’t tell me that she’s still a pure and flawless fairy? She’s different now that she’s come out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace!”

Zhang Ruochen's eyes darkened. "Mind your own business," he said coldly

After Zhang Ruochen returned to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Luo Sha's red lips curled up devilishly by the corner and said, "You can hide your thoughts from those self-righteous gods who treat all living beings as ants. How can you hide them from me?"

"However, this guy is extremely lucky with women. He's becoming more and more unrestrained. I can't let him live so comfortably.

"If the cultivators of Celestial Court know that two of the nine fairies on the Portrait of the Nine Beauties are no longer pure and innocent and that they were all destroyed by the villainous Zhang Ruochen of Infernal Court, will they come to Infernal Court to kill him? Hehe. Zhang Ruochen, you have been so harsh to me. I have to punish you."

Chapter 2266: Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Another three years passed.

The Sword Spirit of the Ancient Abyssal Blade had reached the Saint King Realm. It had passed the second King's Calamity and successfully turned into a Second-level Regal Artifact.

There were more than 250,000 king-grade inscriptions in the sword.

After that, it only needed to refine and absorb weapons to continue improving.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen refined and absorbed 40 Heaven Grade Firmament Pills he had bought from the Realm of Star Ocean. His spiritual power reached the peak of the 60th level.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen was sitting in an independent palace in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He took out the King Grade Sacred Pill he had obtained from the Dragon Temple and held it in his palm. He carefully felt the pill spirit of the sacred pill.

The pill spirit was in the form of a five-clawed silver dragon. Although it had been sealed, the spiritual power it emitted was still powerful. It was comparable to a spiritual-power Supreme Saint at the initial stage of the 60th level.

Zhang Ruochen did not dare to swallow it before this.

If this sacred pill was placed on a planet...

The spiritual power released by the sacred pill could affect billions of lives on the planet. Becoming the planet's ruler was a piece of cake.

"With my current spiritual power, I should be able to refine it. It won't be difficult for me to break through to the 61st level," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen released a white Divine Purification Flame with his palms and enveloped the King Grade Sacred Pill.

The sealing power on the surface of the sacred pill was gradually refined.

Whoosh

A deafening roar of a dragon sounded from inside the King Grade Sacred Pill as the seal disappeared.

The five-clawed Silver Dragon rushed out of the pill. Its body grew bigger and bigger. It circled in the palace, reaching out its claws at Zhang Ruochen.

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen sat still. 8,000 Spirits flew out of his body.

Each Spirit looked exactly like him. They stood in 8,000 directions of the palace and their hands made a grasping gesture. They pulled out the silver light from the five-clawed silver dragon and inhaled it into their mouths.

Soul-devouring.

The five-clawed silver dragon sensed that something was wrong. This young man was not someone it could provoke. It immediately swung its tail and rushed toward the palace door.

“You’re thinking of escaping now?”

Zhang Ruochen flipped his hand and slapped it down. It was suppressed in a five-colored chaotic space and its soul could not move anymore. Even its spiritual power could not escape.

He stretched out two fingers to pick up the King Grade Sacred Pill and swallowed it.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen’s whole body was illuminated by the King Grade Sacred Pill’s light. It released a pill fragrance. The pill fragrance condensed into clouds and enveloped Zhang Ruochen completely.

Refining a Heaven Grade Sacred Pill to improve spiritual power only took one or two months.

However, refining this King Grade Sacred Pill took Zhang Ruochen half a year to fully absorb.

His spiritual power had successfully broken through to the 61st level.

His Spirits have increased to 12,300.

“Withdraw.”

Zhang Ruochen withdrew the dense Spirits into his saint heart and opened his bright eyes. His pupils were like immortal jade Godstones. He seemed to be able to see through the hearts of all living beings in the world.

Can the 61st level spiritual power fight against a Supreme Saint in the initial stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?’ Zhang Ruochen asked himself in his heart.

Each of the five realms of a Supreme Saint had a huge leap.

Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power had only increased by one level. He thought it was unrealistic to fight against a Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He had never cultivated his spiritual power systematically. When he had time, he had to spend more time studying it.

‘After several years of cultivating the Heavenly Stream Saintwill and the Blood Sun Ten-tremors Saintwill, plus a big breakthrough in my spiritual power, my control of power and saintwills has become more exquisite. I should be able to fuse them.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen took out the Violet Gourd and flew in.

There were some accidents during the process of fusing the saintwill previously.

However, after three failures, with the help of the Qiankun Realm and the Violet Gourd, Zhang Ruochen finally succeeded in fusing the Heavenly Stream Saintwill and the Blood Sun Ten-tremors Saintwill. It evolved into a more powerful third-grade saintwill.

There were also differences for each third-grade saintwill.

Zhang Ruochen determined that the newly condensed saintwill was stronger than the previous saintwill because after merging with the Heavenly Stream Saintwill, the shock force contained in the saintwill reached 11 tremors.

With one more tremor of the shock force, the power increased.

Whether it was a Palm technique, a Fist technique, or a water saint technique, the power would be much stronger when the saintwill was used.

However, after careful study, Zhang Ruochen found that his saintwill was still not in a stable state.

After merging with the Heavenly Stream Saintwill, it did completely suppress the million times more Yang Qi in his body.

Unfortunately, it became too much.

The Palm Saintwill was violent and overbearing. Its path was of the absolute Yang.

The Water Saintwill and the Fist Saintwill were the complete opposite to it. Merging the three types of saintwill, made Zhang Ruochen's saintwill soft and delicate. It had a lot of power, but it lacked explosive power.

"Maybe... I need to merge all five elements of saintwill into it. With the five elements, I can balance the yin-yang nature of Fist and Palm to achieve the perfection of saintwill."

Zhang Ruochen faintly felt that he had found a Path that belonged to his own.

However, the biggest problem was that there were seven saintly ways, including the five elements, Palm, and Fist.

Could the seven saintwills really be combined into one?

There was a second problem.

A Supreme Saint could only cultivate nine saintwills at most. If Zhang Ruochen had cultivated seven, how could he choose between Swordsmanship, Path of Time, Path of Dimension, and the Path of Truth?

Could he really only cultivate nine kinds of saintwills?

Zhang Ruochen entered the Qiankun Realm and asked the Divine Sky-connecting Tree for advice.

After the Divine Sky-connecting Tree finished listening to his story, it said, “A Supreme Saint can only cultivate nine kinds of Saintwills. Generally speaking, it is already the limit to be able to combine five kinds of saintwills into one. No one alive has ever succeeded in combining seven kinds of saintwills into one since ancient times.”

“You’ve only integrated three kinds of saintwills now. When you integrate the fourth kind, you’ll find that it’s extremely difficult.”

Zhang Ruochen stood under the tree and nodded slightly.

Previously, when he integrated the Heavenly Stream Saintwill, he had already felt that the difficulty had increased. That was why he had failed three times.

Moreover, Zhang Ruochen had used the Qiankun Realm and the Violet Gourd.

If it had been any other Supreme Saint, without his conditions, it would have been ten or even a hundred times harder to fuse with the third saintwill.

The Divine Sky-connecting Tree continued, “Of course, nothing is absolute in this world. It was just like how the first Supreme Saint who had cultivated the ninth saintwill and the first Supreme Saint who had fused five saintwills. If they don’t have a heart that surpasses their predecessors and doesn’t dare to challenge them, they won’t be able to succeed.

“You have the Five-element Chaotic Neverwither Physique. Cultivating the five elements of saintwills as one has a huge advantage. It’s much easier than other Supreme Saints. Furthermore, after cultivating it successfully, you’ll be able to unleash even more power.

“In history, the Supreme Saint who combined five types of saintwill walked the path of the five elements as one. The five elements saintwill cultivated is one of the best second-grade saintwill.

“If you can combine the five elements, Palm, and Fist into one saintwill and achieve the completion of the five elements of Yin and Yang, you may be able to break the precepts of heaven and earth and become the first person alive to cultivate the first-grade saintwill since ancient times.

“Zhang Ruochen, it’s not that you can’t take this path, but it’s too difficult and almost impossible to succeed. Once you take this path, there’s no turning back. It will determine your success or failure in your life. The risk is too great, so I don’t suggest you take this risk.”

The Divine Sky-connecting Tree told Zhang Ruochen the pros and cons and let him choose for himself.

Once he succeeded, he would become unparalleled throughout ancient times.

Once he failed, it was very likely that he would destroy his Saint path and his future would become bleak.

It was of great importance.

Facing the big decision in life, Zhang Ruochen did not hesitate and said, “Before I came to ask you, I had already made up my mind. Since you think there is a possibility of success, then... I want to give it a try!

“If I want to do it, I have to be the strongest. Mediocrity can’t change this chaotic world and it can’t satisfy what I want to do in the future.

“From now on, I’ll call this saintwill, Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, whether I succeed or fail in the future, it’s a direction I’ve set. I’ll go on unswervingly.”

Zhang Ruochen sent a telepathic message to Supreme Saint Qingsheng after he left the Qiankun Realm, “I want the marks of the Canon of the five elements: fire, wood, metal, and earth. I hope uncle can help me find them.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng might not have a way to find the four Canons’ mark, but he would definitely report it to Wargod Bloodximus.

It would not be difficult to find the four Canons’ mark.

Zhang Ruochen took out a Firmament Pill and swallowed it. However, the Heaven Grade Sacred Pill seemed to have lost its medicinal effect, and the improvement to his spiritual power was minimal.

He did not even need to spend a month or two to refine and absorb it. After five days, the medicinal effect completely disappeared. He only had two more Spirits.

It was negligible.

“How can this be? Is this a Heaven Grade Sacred Pill?”

“Is it because the Firmament Pill is useless to me after consuming too many of it?”

“Or is it difficult to improve after the spiritual power reaches the 61st level just by taking the Saint Pill?”

Zhang Ruochen was about to ask about the Divine Sky-connecting Tree again, but he heard Lord Xia Yu’s telepathic transmission. So, he had to put this matter aside for now and walk out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

After several years, Lord Xia Yu’s cultivation had made an amazing improvement.

She had broken all the shackles in her body and entered the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. A powerful blood-red aura flowed throughout her body, and the fifth pair of silver wings on her back was completely solidified.

She stood under the Sundial with her ten wings spread out. She stared at Zhang Ruochen who was standing on the steps of the palace and said, “Zhang Ruochen, do you dare to fight with me?”

The wind blew her clothes and she looked like a fairy.

Lord Xia Yu had lost countless times in her life. However, the time she lost to Zhang Ruochen was the one she was most unwilling to accept.

After all, she had defeated her opponent across realms since she was young.

This was the first time she had been defeated by an opponent across realms.

Now that Lord Xia Yu had reached the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, she naturally regarded Zhang Ruochen as her first opponent.

There were hundreds of steps in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Zhang Ruochen stood at the top, his long sleeves swaying in the wind. His eyes were calm as he said, "Well, I also want to see how strong a Supreme Saint at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm is."

Zhang Ruochen's cultivation had also improved greatly in the past few years.

He could use Lord Xia Yu's hands to try out the third-grade saintwill that he had just condensed.

All cultivators in the Vastsea Manor stopped cultivating and looked over curiously.

"Cousin Ruochen, don't you know that Lord Xia Yu has reached the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm? Her combat power has increased several times in a short time. It's incomparable to the time at the God-ascension Ceremony," Xue Ningxiao said in surprise.

Xue Chen said, "Since Zhang Ruochen dares to accept the challenge, he must be confident. Don't forget that he has the Supreme Artifact in his hands."

Xue Ningxiao stuck out her small tongue and said, "That's true. If he uses the Supreme Artifact, it's hard to say who will win this battle."

Lian Xi and Zhou Zhen did not say a word, but they both found it unbelievable.

Zhang Ruochen's cultivation was only at the Neverwilt Realm. Was he worthy of such a serious challenge from a powerhouse at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?

In their opinion, Zhang Ruochen had a grandfather, Wargod Bloodximius. That was why the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint of the Immortal Vampires gave him face.

A Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint was no match for the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint in terms of combat strength.

The five realms of a Supreme Saint were the most difficult to cross.

Luo Sha said to herself, “Lord Xia Yu’s cultivation is not weak. She has condensed a fourth-grade Saintwill with her Deva Path of Blood. Adding her status as a High-Saint Array Master and High-Saint Talisman Master, her combat strength is likely to rank in the top 30 among the Supreme Saints in the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. I wonder how many times Zhang Ruochen can resist her without using the Supreme Artifact?”

In Luo Sha’s opinion, Zhang Ruochen definitely would not activate the Supreme Artifact in this battle.

Once he uses it, there’s no longer a need to battle.

Zhang Ruochen used his right index finger as a brush and drew a circle of saint light in the air.

Whoosh

The circle of saint light spun rapidly and transformed into a circular independent space. It was 100 kilometers in diameter and was suspended 30 meters above the ground. It occupied an area of 300 meters.

It turned into an internal dimension world, like a huge bubble.

Lord Xia Yu glanced at it and said coldly, “Can the dimension you created withstand my power?”

“I have to create a battlefield. What if one of us destroys Vastsea Manor again?”

Zhang Ruochen summoned the Microworld of the jungle. A corner of the Microworld merged with the independent dimension and turned into a desert battlefield.

Lord Xia Yu flew up from the ground. The Grim Soul-devouring Flame surged from her body. The bone-chilling flame revolved around her delicate body and finally gathered at the tip of her finger.

Boom

A round ball of flame appeared in front of her like divine light.

In the center of the light ball, a sharp fire pillar of soul-devouring flame flew out. It was as fast as light and arrived in front of Zhang Ruochen in an instant.

Zhang Ruochen did not retreat. Three dragon souls and three elephant souls surged out of his body and appeared on his left and right sides. Then, a surging long river appeared and surrounded his body.

He clenched his fist with one hand and formed his palm with the other. He struck out at the same time.

Two forces, one yin, and one yang, one cold and one hot erupted from his fist and palm. They quickly intertwined and collided with the light pillar of soul-devouring flame.

Boom

The power wave formed by the shadows of Fist and Palm was instantly pierced and exploded.

Lord Xia Yu's eyes flashed and said with mockery, "Zhang Ruochen, just use your Power of Time and Power of Dimensions. With your Fist and Palm techniques, you can..."

Suddenly, her voice stopped.

After the shadows of the Fist and Palm shattered, they quickly developed a second layer of Qi.

The shadows of the Fist and Palm condensed again, becoming more solid, larger, and closer to her.

Chapter 2267: Defeat of a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The Grim Soul-devouring Flame was extremely evil, and when it was combined with a fingerstrike that Lord Xia Yu had cultivated, its power became even more condensed, and the power it unleashed increased exponentially.

Even the stars could not withstand that piercing force.

BANG!

BANG!

...

The shadows of Fist and Palm continued to shatter, but they continued to evolve. Like waves of water, they pushed forward layer by layer.

One layer, two layers, three layers...

To the eleventh layer of tremor force.

When the last layer of tremor force burst out, even with Lord Xia Yu's cultivation of the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, she was forced to retreat more than 300 meters to block it.

She landed on the ground and asked with confusion in her eyes, "What kind of saintwill did you use just now?"

"Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Nonsense. Where did the five elements saintwill come from? At most, it has the Water Saintwill. In addition, it seems to contain the charm of fist and Palm," said Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu's cultivation was profound, so she can see it through. She had already analyzed more than half of what Zhang Ruochen had just used.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It's just a name. Why do you care so much?"

Lord Xia Yu asked tentatively, “Is this the merged saintwill? Has it reached the third grade?”

The cultivators around were all moved.

“Third-grade saintwill?”

Zhang Ruochen was only in the Neverwilt Realm. How could he merge the saintwills and cultivate it to the third grade?

Luo Sha bit her red lips lightly. She had seen some clues just now, she thought to herself, ‘Those on the list of the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, they successfully merged the saintwill and cultivated the third-grade saintwill after they had reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Zhang Ruochen was indeed a genius of the Yuanhui level. He had reached such a high level in the Neverwilt Realm. I wonder if Yan Wushen can do the same?’

Many Supreme Saints would stay in the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm for a long time.

Firstly, they had to refine their Neverwither physique repeatedly until perfection.

Secondly, they wanted to eliminate some hidden dangers in cultivation. They did not want to encounter difficulties after entering the Thousand-Koan Realm, and they also did not want to enter the Banshi Isshou Realm and encounter death.

Third, and most importantly, they wanted to try their best to polish the saintwill to the strongest level.

This was because after reaching the Thousand-Koan Realm, the saintwill would be solid. It could not be refined or cultivated into a new saintwill.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You saw through it.”

Lord Xia Yu was surprised, but she maintained a cold expression, she snorted. “If it wasn’t for the third-grade saintwill, how could you have blocked my fingerstrike with your cultivation? Unfortunately, you are not too familiar with the use of saintwill. Otherwise, I would have had to use saintwill to resolve the previous battle.”

Zhang Ruochen nodded. “You’re right. It takes a long time to get familiar with it. It’s best if you can fight a hundred or a thousand battles to understand the essence, changes, and mysteries of saintwill.”

The saintwill was the manifestation of the origin of heaven and earth. It was not as simple as the attack just now.

Although Zhang Ruochen had used the saintwill, he could not unleash the power of the saintwill. It felt like he had power but could not use it.

“Then let me show you how I use the saintwill. Let’s see if you can resist it,” said Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu unleashed the Blood Saintwill. In an instant, a vast sea of blood appeared and pulled Zhang Ruochen into the world of the saintwill. It was as if he was in an endless blood sea.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen became infinitely small.

Lord Xia Yu and the blood sea merged into one, and she possessed endless energy.

Zhang Ruochen had used all his strength to dissolve Lord Xia Yu’s power. Now, Lord Xia Yu had displayed the Blood Saintwill, which was much more powerful than before.

“A Supreme Saint at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm is indeed extraordinary. Perhaps only by using the Realm-frame of Truth, The Spatial Domain, Null Time Realm, and Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill can break her Blood Saintwill,” Zhang Ruochen said.

He had the Path of Truth, a trump card that could unleash ten times the attack power in an instant. How could Lord Xia Yu not have the means to unleash several times the attack power in an instant?

Zhang Ruochen knew that this battle would not be so easy. He had to go all out.

Even if it was just a spar, as the leader of the clan, he could not lose.

Swoosh

A blade suddenly tore through the blood sea from the northwest. Like an aurora connecting heaven and earth, it slashed toward Lord Xia Yu.

“Huh?”

Lord Xia Yu and Zhang Ruochen were surprised. They had not expected a third person to enter the battlefield.

The blade had a shocking penetrating power. It was even stronger than Lord Xia Yu’s fingerstrike.

Lord Xia Yu quickly guessed who it was. Her eyes filled with killing intents. She extended her snow-white hand and pointed with the power of the blood sea.

The powerful Grim Soul-devouring Flame merged with the Blood Sea and turned into a blood river, then it collided with the blade.

Boom

The blood river and the blade shattered at the same time.

“Haha, not bad. You’ve made so much progress in just a hundred years. You can even block my full-strength blade attack. You’ve made great progress!”

An old man in plain clothes spoke and flew onto the blood sea with a Divine Marked Broadsword. His white hair was disheveled, and there was a thick layer of dirt on his face, arms, and legs, he looked quite slovenly.

Zhang Ruochen keenly sensed that the slovenly old man’s cultivation had surpassed the Hundred-Shackle Realm and reached the Thousand-Koan Realm.

The Supreme Saint cultivators were mostly in the Neverwilt Realm and the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Those who could enter the Thousand-Koan Realm were considered high-level Supreme Saints.

For example, in Guanghai, which had hundreds of millions of living beings, there were only about ten Supreme Saints above the Thousand-Koan Realm.

There were only a handful of such powerful figures even among the Bloodysky Clan. Each of them had a great say.

Lord Xia Yu completely ignored Zhang Ruochen. She fixed her eyes on the sloppy old man and she said coldly, “Shen Nansheng.”

“Oh, little girl, you haven’t forgotten my name. It seems that you remember the strike from 100 years ago very well,” Shen Nansheng showed his yellow teeth and said with a hideous smile.

Lord Xia Yu’s anger was even stronger. Her crystal-clear face was filled with veins. Two cyan light pillars shot out from her eyes. She seemed to have transformed into a demon and attacked Shen Nansheng.

Zhang Ruochen felt that he was stepping on air and could not control his body. He left the blood sea and appeared in the Vastsea Manor.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was already in the manor. He waved his sleeve and transported Lord Xia Yu and Shen Nansheng, who were fighting, into the desert battlefield that Zhang Ruochen had created earlier.

No doubt, Zhang Ruochen had been forcefully dragged out by him.

“Today, I have witnessed the power of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s move just now seemed simple, but it could easily send a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint and a Supreme Saint at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm into another dimension.

Zhang Ruochen could only marvel at such a method with his current cultivation.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng walked toward Zhang Ruochen with a cold face.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Uncle, this Shen Nansheng is the opponent you arranged for Lord Xia Yu, right? There seems to be a deep hatred between them. They used all kinds of trump cards as soon as they attacked.”

“Shen Nansheng is one of the four most powerful saints of the Fane of Thousand Clearwater. Lord Xia Yu’s clan, the Xias was adjacent to the Fane of Thousand Clearwater. They were both located in the southern ridge of the Bloodysky Clan world. After the ancestor of the Xia died, they lost the protection of the gods. Many of their benefits and territories could not be defended and were annexed by the Fane of Thousand Clearwater.

“About 100 years ago, during the fight between the two sides, Shen Nansheng once slashed toward the Holy City of Corals, one of the seven holy cities of the Xias, from a distance of 30,000 miles.

“At that time, Lord Xia Yu’s Neverwither physique was cut off when she tried to block the blade and she was severely injured. From that day, the grudge was formed between them.”

Zhang Ruochen asked curiously after hearing Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s story, “The fight between the two forces is so fierce. Don’t the leader of the Bloodysky Clan care about it?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “How? We were not powerful enough, yet we occupied a lot of resources. It will inevitably lead to a fight. That was beyond our control. The strong prey on the weak. Survival of the fittest is the rule.”

“If you want to change the situation, you have to cultivate hard to become stronger. You have to have value if you hope others will help you uphold justice.”

“The clan leader can only try to control the situation. It’s impossible to stop all of this by force. If the Xue Jue Family didn’t have Wargod Bloodximius, there would be many forces coveting it.”

“Let’s not talk about this. Let’s talk about you!”

Zhang Ruochen stared at the two people fighting on the desert battlefield. He understood what Supreme Saint Qingsheng was referring to. He asked, “Is it difficult to find the four Canons’ mark?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said coldly, “You understand. That’s not what I’m talking about. Since you are my nephew, I can’t let you go astray.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I have to go this way.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was completely different from before. He said with a very stern face, “You want to combine Palm, Fist, and the five elements. That’s wishful thinking. It’s suicide. What about Swordsmanship, Path of Time, and the Path of Dimension? Are you going to give them up?”

“Of course not,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “Your talent is indeed very high. You might be able to cultivate nine types of saintwills like Wargod Bloodximius. But there are only nine types. Do you think you’re different from other cultivators? Can you cultivate ten types? Eleven types?”

“Since ancient times, there have been many geniuses. Many of them are as confident as you and have the same talent as you, but none of them succeeded. On the contrary, many cultivators with bright futures took risks to try, but in the end, they became mediocre and did nothing.

“Don’t think that you are unique, and don’t think that you can fight against heaven and earth and break the limits of the precepts. Otherwise, you will be punished by heaven and earth, and you will be thrown into the abyss of eternal damnation.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Our path is paved by ourselves. The first living being to cultivate into a Supreme Saint, the first Supreme Saint to comprehend the saintwill, the first cultivator to cultivate into divinity... They don’t know whether they can succeed or not, but they are determined to move forward. That’s why they have opened up many Paths.

“Isn’t stepping on the path of cultivating to fight against heaven and earth? To constantly break the limits of the rules?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “You’re too self-righteous. Cultivating the saintwill is not as simple as you think. Listen to my advice. First cultivate the Path of Time, Path of Dimension, and Swordsmanship. Then, go and comprehend the Path of Five-Element.

“It’s best to choose the Path of Time, the Path of Dimension, and the Swordsmanship. Of the three Paths, choose the one that you’re best at and fuse it into a second-grade saintwill. Then, you will be invincible in the same realm in the future. If you reach divinity, you will have a chance to explore the peak of it.

“Combining the three main Paths into a second-grade saintwill is what you should do with all your strength.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were still firm. He said, “Cultivating the five elements and yin-yang might result in a second-grade saintwill.”

“It’s impossible to cultivate the second-grade saintwill if you don’t cultivate the main Path,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I don’t think so.”

“If you could cultivate the five elements and yin-yang, and cultivate the second-grade saintwill. My name will be written backward from now on,” Supreme Saint Qingsheng said angrily.

Zhang Ruochen did not expect Supreme Saint Qingsheng to take this matter so seriously. He thought for a moment and said, “Uncle, have you asked Wargod Bloodximius?”

“Not only will the Wargod Bloodximius not allow this, but even your mother also won’t let you do such irrational things. You’re trying to destroy yourself,” said Supreme Saint Qingsheng.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You haven’t asked Wargod Bloodximius yet, so how do I know what he thinks? Perhaps only a peerless figure like him can understand my decision at this moment. I want to try what he didn’t do back then, or what he didn’t dare to do.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was stunned. He had not expected Zhang Ruochen to be so determined.

It seemed that Zhang Ruochen's decision could only be changed by reporting it to the Wargod Bloodximius or Blood Empress.

At that moment, the victor had been decided between Lord Xia Yu and Shen Nansheng, who were fighting fiercely in the desert battlefield.

Lord Xia Yu first used a ninth-grade array formation to trap Shen Nansheng into it, then she used the Soul-siphoning Flute to numb Shen Nansheng's five senses with the Hymn of Soul-sacrificance. Finally, she pierced through Shen Nansheng's chest with a fingerstrike.

The hundred-mile desert battlefield was dyed red with saint blood.

"Ninth-grade Myriads Array Formation, Great Kun Tun Fingerstrike, and Divine-piercing. She hid these trump cards. Xia Yu's combat strength has already reached the early stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng naturally muttered these words to himself. He extended his hand into the air, pulled the injured Shen Nansheng out of the battlefield, and he landed beside him.

Shen Nansheng's expression was a little dejected as he said with a sigh, "In the end, I'm beaten by my old age. My blood Qi has greatly decreased and I'm no longer as brave as before. The Xias have given birth to such a powerful young Supreme Saint. The revival of the Xias is just around the corner."

Lord Xia Yu chased after him, still brimming with killing intent. She said, "Supreme Saint Qingsheng, please do not interfere in this matter. This is a personal grudge between me and him."

"It was I who asked him to test your strength. Naturally, I have to bring him away safely."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng secretly transmitted a telepathic message to Lord Xia Yu after that.

Lord Xia Yu asked after she heard the message, "Is that true?"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng nodded with a smile and left the Vastsea Manor with Shen Nansheng.

Lord Xia Yu stared at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen frowned deeply. He looked at Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s back and thought to himself, ‘What did he say to Lord Xia Yu? Why did Lord Xia Yu focus on me? Did he trick me? Did he drag me out to help Shen Nansheng?’

...

When Supreme Saint Qingsheng went to report, Wargod Bloodximus and Bloodlucius were playing chess under a tree. They were playing a chess game that had been going on for a thousand years.

Wargod Bloodximus’s expression froze. He paused for a long time as if he was deep in thought.

Bloodlucius stared at him with a faint smile. He wanted to know what kind of decision Wargod Bloodximus would make in the face of this difficult problem?

After a long while, Wargod Bloodximus asked, “Have you explained the consequences to him clearly?”

Azure splendor Grand Sage said, “I have already explained it very clearly, but he did not listen to me at all. He even said... He even said that you would understand him. He wanted to give it a try for what you failed to do back then or what you did not dare to do.”

Wargod Bloodximus sank into his memories. For some reason, he could not help but laugh, “Good, very good. It seems that I underestimated him in the past. He was trying to cut off all his options of retreat. He was using a desperate action to force himself to move forward.”

“Back then, I thought about this matter for nine years. In the end, I still did not take that step. However, he used less than a day to firm up his thoughts. It seems that sometimes, thinking too much is a bad thing.”

Bloodlucius said, “At that time, you still had the responsibility to revitalize the Xue Jue Family. Countless eyes were watching you. You can’t take the wrong step. When you make a decision, of course, you can’t be as willful as him.”

Wargod Bloodximius stared at Supreme Saint Qingsheng, he said, “Go and tell him that the four Canons’ mark will be sent to him within three days. Also, don’t tell Qingyin about this. I will seal the heavenly secrets and not let her know. If she knows... hehe...”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng left, and he sighed as he walked.

Why did Wargod Bloodximius agree to Zhang Ruochen’s reckless actions? Is it really because my talent is too low to understand them? I’m a Supreme Saint of Paramount Realm and have the potential to become a god,’ Supreme Saint Qingsheng thought.

Chapter 2268: The Nearing Festival

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Peace returned to Vastsea Manor. Apart from Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu, the other cultivators entered the state of cultivating again.

Lord Xia Yu gazed at Zhang Ruochen.

It was very strange.

It was like...

A luna wolf that had been hungry for many days bared its fangs at the sight of delicious food. Its eyes lit up and it readied to pounce on Zhang Ruochen to eat him.

Zhang Ruochen became vigilant and said, "I want to continue polishing the saintwill."

He had just turned around and was stopped by Lord Xia Yu before he could climb the steps of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Lord Xia Yu was surprisingly gentle. She said, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, you are the captain of our Bloodysky Clan. Do you want us to get the best ranking?"

"Of course," said Zhang Ruochen.

"What do you think of my combat strength?" Lord Xia Yu asked.

"Very strong. Among all cultivators attending the festival at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, it's enough to rank in the top 30. Maybe even higher," said Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Xia Yu walked closer and closer, shaking her head, she said, "It's not enough. I want to raise my combat strength to another level. I want to reach the top 10 on the list of the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, or get close to the top 10. Which direction do you think I should improve in?"

She was within three steps of Zhang Ruochen. She was fragrant but not charming enough. Instead, there was a sense of oppression.

Zhang Ruochen said, "What did my uncle tell you? Don't look at me like you want to eat me. I'll think that you have other plans for me."

Lord Xia Yu looked at him coldly and said, "Okay, I'll go straight to the point. I want to borrow your Violet Gourd to help me fuse the saintwill. If I succeed, I'll owe you a big favor. In the future, if you run into any trouble, I won't refuse to go to the Celestial Court to kill for you."

"So he told you the secret of the Violet Gourd," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu said, "Do you agree or not? Be straightforward and give me your word."

"Of course. A favor from you, Lord Xia Yu, is still very valuable. However, the Violet Gourd is my biggest trump card. I plan to use it to deal with the most powerful enemies at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. You must not expose this secret," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Don't worry. Your trump card is the trump card of the Bloodsky Clan as well," said Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu continued, "But you have to think carefully. The Celestial-Hunting Festival is divided into two parts: the festival and the Celestial-Hunting. During the Celestial-Hunting, all the external forces of cultivators, except for the Divine Mark, will be sealed. They can only use their own power."

It was the first time Zhang Ruochen had heard of such strict rules from the Celestial-Hunting. He said, "Can't you even bring weapons, talismans, arrays, and pills?"

"You can't bring talismans, arrays, and pills. However, you can bring the materials you need to refine them. After entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, you can refine talismans, arrays, and pills."

"As for weapons, there are also strict rules applied."

“Every cultivator can only bring one weapon, and that weapon must belong to you. In other words, even if there are gods, and they wanted their Supreme Saint to bring a Supreme Artifact into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, he can’t borrow it, it has to be bestowed upon.”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a smile. “Most gods only have one Supreme Artifact. If you give it to your Supreme Saint, What can you use it for?”

Lord Xia Yu added, “Even if there are gods, you can give your Supreme Saint a Supreme Artifact. However, the Fane of Destiny has another rule. Each of the ten clans of Infernal Court can only bring one Supreme Artifact into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “A complete Supreme Artifact in the hands of the Supreme Saint can be so powerful that it can sweep away everything. If the Fane of Destiny wasn’t in control, the Celestial-Hunting Festival would not be a contest of strength. It will be a contest of the power of the Supreme Artifacts.”

Saint Kings could not exert the power of the Supreme Artifact at all. Only Supreme Saints could do that.

In the Supreme Saint realm, the power of the Supreme Artifact would increase to a terrifying extent.

Zhang Ruochen asked again, “Who will control the Supreme Artifact of the Immortal Vampires? Lord Bladehell or Lady Wind?”

“It hasn’t been decided yet, but it will most likely be one of them,” Lord Xia Yu said.

Blade Hell Emperor was the number one powerhouse of the Immortal Vampires.

Lady Wind was the number two powerhouse of the Immortal Vampires, but she was also a goddess’s candidate. She represented the interests of the entire lower three clans.

Whoever held the Supreme Artifact had the greatest say in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Zhang Ruochen said, “It seems that I have to fight for the right to hold the Supreme Artifact and I have to get it.”

Lord Xia Yu looked surprised. She thought Zhang Ruochen must be crazy.

Even the Immortal Vampires and the gods of the Fane of Immortality would discuss the right to control the Supreme Artifact. It was a very serious matter. Only the powerhouse of the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was qualified to take it.

Zhang Ruochen was a Supreme Saint of the Neverwilt Realm. Even if Zhang Ruochen was powerful, how could he be stronger than Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind?

‘Why did the gods choose you?’ Lord Xia Yu thought.

Zhang Ruochen discussed some details about the Celestial-Hunting Festival with Lord Xia Yu before taking out the Violet Gourd and lending it to her temporarily.

At present, Lord Xia Yu had cultivated two kinds of saintwill. Her main cultivation was the Deva Path of Blood, and her saintwill had reached the fourth grade.

The other kind of saintwill was only of the sixth grade.

If she combined the two kinds of saintwill with the help of Violet Gourd, there was a high chance of condensing them into a third-grade sacred artifact. However, it was very difficult to fuse the saintwill. Otherwise, Lord Xia Yu would not have been unable to cultivate all the way to the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

With the help of Violet Gourd, she only had a little more hope. Success or failure.

It depended on herself.

Zhang Ruochen thought, ‘Since I’m entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, I can’t use external forces. I might not even be able to bring in a Supreme Artifact. If I want to be absolutely safe, I have to make myself stronger. I have to make two preparations.

‘It’s imperative to improve the strength of my spiritual power. Otherwise, my spiritual power can’t even compare to Lord Xia Yu’s. It’ll be hard for me to resist her Hymn of Soul-sacrificion.’

In the past, Zhang Ruochen could resist it. But after Lord Xia Yu broke through to the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, her cultivation and spiritual power increased greatly. When she played the Hymn of Soul-sacrificion, even Shen Nansheng in the Thousand-Koan Realm was affected.

Zhang Ruochen was not absolutely sure that he would not be affected by the Hymn of Soul-sacrificion.

At the Celestial-Hunting Festival, there must be a spiritual-power Supreme Saint who was stronger than Lord Xia Yu, such as the Nether Clan, the Deathkin, and the Rakshasis. All of them had extraordinary spiritual power talents.

He had to guard against them.

In addition, the stronger the spiritual power, the more helpful it was for condensing the saintwill.

Since Zhang Ruochen wanted to cultivate Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, the stronger the spiritual power, the better. It was best if he could surpass all cultivators in the same realm.

One of Zhang Ruochen’s clones entered the Qiankun Realm and asked the Divine Sky-connecting Tree for advice on how to cultivate after reaching the 61st level.

He finally understood one thing. Taking the sacred pill could cultivate spiritual power.

However, the essence of spiritual power was the development of a cultivator’s brain. At the same time, it also represented a cultivator’s accumulation of knowledge. To think about everything in the world, one needed to read thousands of books and travel thousands of miles, to experience the world of mortals.

Of course, there were shortcuts.

Taking the sacred pill was just one of them.

Other than that, one could plunder other cultivators' knowledge and comprehension, comprehend the gods' divine intent or enter the illusory realm to experience... and so on.

Zhang Ruochen said, "So, it's not enough to just take the pill. You have to accumulate enough profound knowledge and experience for yourself. Is it so difficult to improve your spiritual power after reaching the 61st tribulation?"

"Actually, it's not difficult for you," said the Divine Sky-connecting Tree.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his hands and said, "Please give me some advice, senior."

"You have the Heart of the Divine Tree in your hands and it only condensed once every Yuanhui period. It not only had a rich life force but also contained 129,600 years of knowledge of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree. You can cultivate your spiritual power to the 70th level by absorbing all the knowledge contained in the Heart of the Divine Tree. It should be enough to do so," said the Divine Sky-connecting Tree.

Zhang Ruochen looked pleased and said, "I see."

The Divine Sky-connecting Tree said again, "Of course, the knowledge contained in the Divine Sky-connecting Tree is still incomplete. It can only help you a part of it. You still have to read thousands of books and travel thousands of miles."

Zhang Ruochen asked curiously, "What level was your spiritual power at that time?"

The Divine Sky-connecting Tree was silent for a moment. It shook its branch gently and said, "It should be very high, but a high spiritual power does not mean a strong combat power. Every spiritual power cultivator uses it differently.

"Some use spiritual power to kill cruelly, some use it to save lives and heal the wounded, and some use it to predict the past and the future.

"Zhang Ruochen, when you can't improve your spiritual power in the future, you must understand one thing. It is not only used for fighting. It also has wider and better use. You should try everything."

“I will remember this,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Divine Sky-connecting Tree said, “In fact, with your current spiritual power, you can still improve after taking the sacred pill. However, before that, you must cultivate the 12,302 Spirits that have already been condensed.”

“Senior, are you saying that the Spirits that I cultivate by taking pills are not strong enough, so it’s ineffective if I continue to take pills?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“You can think of it this way,” the Divine Sky-connecting Tree said.

The Divine Sky-connecting Tree continued, “When you reach the peak of the 61st level with 12,302 Spirits, you can continue to take the sacred pill.”

After leaving the Qiankun Realm, Zhang Ruochen muttered to himself, “How should I cultivate the Spirits?”

“Come out.”

Zhang Ruochen summoned all the Spirits in his body. Some of them were to study the various ancient books that Wargod Bloodximius had stored in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, some to learn the array formation from Zhou Zhen, and some to ask for help with talisman techniques from Lian Xi, some studied the “Demonstone Engraving”...

Not only did he need to accumulate knowledge, but his Spirits also needed to strengthen themselves.

As for the Heart of the Divine Tree, Zhang Ruochen did not think it would be of any use for the time being. He would think about it when his spiritual power had reached the 62nd level.

Then, Zhang Ruochen sent a telepathic transmission to Xue Tu and called him over. First, he asked about Shentu Yunkong and Gaunt. Then, he took out the purple gold token of the Realm of Star Ocean and gave it to him to buy the stellar core and the Divine Soul Elixir.

After the arrangements were made, Zhang Ruochen continued to think.

If I don't use the Supreme Artifact, it will be difficult for me to deal with Lord Xia Yu with my current combat strength. How should I deal with the Lord Bladehell, Wujiang, and Lan Ying?

I have to cultivate a trump card that belongs to my own combat strength.'

Zhang Ruochen first thought of the Yanshen's leg and the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike.

If he cultivated the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike to the high-level Thousand-Koan Realm saint technique, combined with the saintwill and the Precept of Truth, the power would be so great that even a Supreme Saint at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm wouldn't be able to withstand one palm.

"I will have to refine five Thousand-Koan Realm dragon souls and elephant souls if I want to cultivate the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike to Thousand-Koan Realm's level. I haven't started to break the shackles yet. Can I bear it with only my demigod body?"

After thinking about it, Zhang Ruochen finally made up his mind. He decided to use the Sun-Moon Dragon Spring first to refine the three dragon souls and elephant souls of the Hundred-Shackle Realm that he had already refined.

The Sun-Moon Dragon Spring was precious. He didn't have much in total.

However, if he could refine the three dragon souls and elephant souls into the Thousand-Koan Realm, he would be able to refine the three dragon souls and elephant Souls. If the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike was a Thousand-Koan high-level saint spell, there weren't many Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm who could take a hit.

To succeed, Zhang Ruochen opened the copper coffin and collected a large amount of divine soul fog.

He used the divine soul fog to nurture three dragon souls and elephant souls.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen took the risk of breaking the third seal that Moon Goddess placed in Yanshen's leg.

Instantly, the number of Divine Precepts in his left leg increased from one million to ten million.

Each Divine Precept was scarlet red, like densely-packed strands of flaming light burning. The pain made Zhang Ruochen clench his teeth.

Not only was his leg so heavy that he couldn't move, but it was so hot that he almost fainted.

Yanshen's leg was the only trump card he could think of that could rapidly increase his combat power in a short period. Therefore, no matter how painful it was, he had to endure it.

'Yanshen's leg has already become one with my leg. It can't be considered borrowing external force,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Time passed unconsciously while Zhang Ruochen was cultivating in seclusion with all his strength.

The day of the Celestial-Hunting Festival was getting closer and closer. Winterpage City was bustling with activity. Every day, a new Supreme Saint would rise and amaze everyone. There were also new powerhouses at the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. They appeared out of nowhere and shocked everyone.

Geniuses gathered and heroes competed.

No.

They couldn't be called geniuses. They were already Supreme Saints and each of them was an overlord. Each of them had a lot of power and could decide the fate of countless creatures.

However, they were young and outstanding enough to stun this era.

The outside was very happening. The beauties were rare like jade. There were lakes of wine and forests of meat. Fame and wealth flowed in and out. Zhang Ruochen, who was in the Vastsea Manor, couldn't be bothered. He just cultivated silently.

No matter how he was provoked and insulted, Zhang Ruochen pretended not to hear it. He didn't move like a rock.

More than 30 years had passed in the area covered by the Sundial.

The day of the Celestial-Hunting Festival was approaching.

Chapter 2269: The Late Invitation

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Zhang Ruochen was standing in the Divine Realm. There were meandering rivers of blood flowing under his feet, and thousands of blood-red stars twinkled above his head. The space was vast and with no end in sight.

He was bearing two enormous divine auras, but his stout figure and temperament were outstanding.

“My lord, I want to be the only Immortal Vampire cultivator who wields a Supreme Artifact,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Wargod Bloodximius was still playing chess with Bloodlucius. He said without looking at him, “Do you think you can do it?”

“Yes.”

Zhang Ruochen said firmly.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “The Qitian Clan ranks first in overall strength among the top ten clans. Lord Bladehell ranks first among all cultivators in terms of cultivation. If that’s the case, why didn’t the gods of the Immortal Vampires choose him? Why did they choose you?”

“The Yellowsky Clan ranks in the top three in terms of overall strength among the top ten clans. Lady Wind’s cultivation might not be weaker than the Lord Bladehell and she is also a goddess’s candidate. She holds the Supreme Artifact and can fight for the benefits of the lower three clans. Why didn’t the gods choose her but you?”

Zhang Ruochen answered calmly, he said, “The overall strength of the Qitian Clan might not be number one in this Celestial-Hunting Festival. Lord Bladehell’s strength might not be able to defeat me. If Lady Wind wants to become a goddess, then I can help her.”

Wargod Bloodximius finally looked at Zhang Ruochen and said, “Do you think you can defeat Lord Bladehell?”

His eyes were like ancient stars. They were bright and contained endless mysteries. His eyes seemed calm, but they seemed to be able to penetrate Zhang Ruochen's soul and see through all his secrets.

Zhang Ruochen was calm in the face of Wargod Bloodximus who had shocked the Celestial Court and Infernal Court. He didn't panic at all.

Zhang Ruochen raised his arms slowly and his hands formed a palm print.

Three Dragon Souls and three elephant souls appeared on his left and right sides the moment he raised his arms. The dragon souls were thousands of miles long. The elephant souls were sitting and lying like divine mountains. They all exuded the aura of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

At the same time, the blood river under Zhang Ruochen's feet stopped flowing. Blood trees, blood vines, and blood flowers grew out of the river.

Bloodlucius sensed something. He had an idea and let out a soft exclamation.

Owooooo

Zhang Ruochen struck out with his palm. The three dragons and three elephants immediately jumped up. They either stretched out their claws or stepped with the elephant's legs. They combined with his palm print and struck toward Wargod Bloodximus and Bloodlucius who were playing chess.

Zhang Ruochen was not a god, but he dared to attack gods. It required world-shaking courage.

One needed a god-defying heart.

Unfortunately, before such a shocking palm could reach the two gods, it was shattered by their invisible divine power and disappeared.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't discouraged. His strike was meant to show the two gods his determination and his current strength.

Wargod Bloodximus was satisfied. He said, "Since you have such strength, I have enough confidence to persuade the gods of Immortal Vampires to let you replace Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind. Go!”

Zhang Ruochen cupped his hands and bowed slightly, leaving the divine realm.

Bloodlucius let out a long sigh, he said, “He has integrated Wood of the five elements and has taken the form of the second-grade saintwill. He is just a little bit away from a true second-grade saintwill. To be able to fuse the saintwill to such a high level without cultivating the Path he mainly cultivates is truly a freak.”

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Actually, it can already be considered a second-grade saintwill. However, his saintwill is not perfect enough to maintain a balanced state, so it is just a little bit away.”

“Is there no way to solve it?” Bloodlucius asked.

“Yes.”

Wargod Bloodximius said, “If you combine Palm, Fist, and Path of five elements, you will be able to perfect it, and it will be a perfect match for heaven and earth.”

Bloodlucius shook his head slightly. He did not think that Zhang Ruochen’s path would succeed.

“He has already combined four kinds of saintwill. If he can combine the Swordsmanship at this time, he will be able to cultivate a top second-grade saintwill. Although this path is difficult, there is a chance of success. Why didn’t you tell him to give it a try?” Bloodlucius asked.

Wargod Bloodximius’s eyes turned solemn, “During his seclusion, he did not comprehend the Swordsmanship, nor did he cultivate the Path of Dimension and the Path of Time. He only comprehended the five elements of Canon marks. He’s determined to walk a path of desperation. In that case, why not let him try?”

Bloodlucius didn’t say anything more about this matter. After all, Zhang Ruochen wasn’t his grandson.

“If Zhang Ruochen wants to control the Supreme Artifact, he’ll be opposed by the entire Immortal Vampires and the Fane of Immortality. Are you going to convince those old fogies?”Bloodlucius said.

“I’m not going to convince them. I’m going to force them to submit with my strength. This time, the Bloodysky Clan has three completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and a peerless Supreme Saint who has cultivated the second-grade saintwill. Even if they don’t want to submit, they have to.”

The eyes of the Wargod Bloodximius were sharp. He landed heavily.

Vastsea Manor.

Zhang Ruochen sat with Lord Xia Yu, Gu Chenzi, Grand Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Supreme Saint Xueqi. They were discussing the arrangements for the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Moyin walked over slowly and handed an invitation card to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu had received many invitation cards and greeting cards ever since the news of Lord Xia Yu defeating Shen Nansheng spread. After all, Lord Xia Yu had broken through to the completion of the Hundred-Shackle Realm in the Vastsea Manor.

The Vastsea Manor was already a legend.

Lord Xia Yu had broken through here. Princess Luo Sha was in seclusion here. Fairy Shadowless of Celestial Court lived here. Each of them was stunning and was the subject of discussion by countless cultivators. They gathered together, making it difficult for the Vastsea Manor not to become famous.

After Zhang Ruochen read the card, he said, “It’s Lady Wind’s invitation. She invited me and Lord Xia Yu to attend tonight’s banquet hosted by the Yellowsky Clan.”

“No. Even if they come to beg, we won’t go.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was still angry. He was still brooding over the banquet hosted by the ten clans last time.

Supreme Saint Xueqi snorted and said, “With our current strength, we don’t need to join hands with the nine clans to be able to take control at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

Zhang Ruochen stared at Gu Chenzi and asked, “What do you think?”

Gu Chenzi was the calmest among the crowd.

Gu Chenzi said, “The Celestial-Hunting Festival is imminent. Lady Wind must be planning the final strategy for the banquet by inviting the important figures of the ten clans to attend. At the same time, we should decide who will be in charge of the Supreme Artifact.

“I have a different view on this. I think the Bloodysky Clan should join hands with the other nine clans. This is a battle between clans. It’s too weak to rely on our strength alone. The Celestial-Hunting Festival is important. We can’t let our emotions get the best of us.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I agree with Gu Chenzi. The representatives of the Bloodysky Clan must go to tonight’s banquet. They must be strong enough to intimidate them and we must get our face back. I’ll leave this to Lord Xia Yu. Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi will continue to hide their strength. You two are the two trump cards of the Bloodysky Clan.”

“What do you mean, you’re not going?” said Lord Xia Yu.

A strange look appeared in Lord Xia Yu’s eyes.

Zhang Ruochen raised his head and looked at the vast sky. “Tonight, I have to go to another place to attend an appointment. I have to go.”

His tone was thought-provoking.

...

After nightfall.

Nine dragon souls pulled a golden carriage out of the Vastsea Manor.

It was Zhang Ruochen’s carriage, the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

The one driving the carriage was the Supreme Saint Xueqi.

Supreme Saint Xueqi's cultivation had improved by leaps and bounds during his seclusion in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He had broken 72 shackles and become a top elite in the Hundred-Shackled Realm.

However, he could not afford to buy the Fugue Pills and divine blood with Godstones. He owed Zhang Ruochen a huge debt.

He had no choice but to help Zhang Ruochen and pay it back slowly.

Zhang Ruochen sat on the golden and jade-carved couch in the dragon carriage. He stood tall and straight. He pressed his palm on Lian Xi's snow-white jade-like back and extracted strands of Yang Qi from her.

Lian Xi was as soft as a white civet cat. She sat on his lap and made thrilling gasps.

Half of her dress fell to the ground, revealing her smooth skin. Her white chests were pressed against Zhang Ruochen's chest. Her slender legs were spread out on both sides, swaying gently.

Zhang Ruochen had been in seclusion for decades. Every time he tried to condense the saintwill and try to fuse it, he would transfer part of his Yang Qi into her body first and preserve it with her special physique to avoid being disturbed.

After he regained the Yang Qi back into his body, Zhang Ruochen picked up Lian Xi, whose sweat was as soft as spring mud. He put her on the bed and covered her with a soft quilt to cover her breathtakingly beautiful body.

Lian Xi's long black hair was covered with sweat. She said weakly, "How long do you want to torture me?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Do you not want to endure it anymore?"

Xi's eyes were blank and she said, "I've paid enough for what I've done. But you can't completely blame me for what happened in the past. We each have our masters. You can't control those things, and I can't control them either."

Zhang Ruochen put on his white robe and tied his belt. He said, "I can't completely blame you."

"But you've turned me into a crucible for your cultivation," said Lian Xi as her eyes turned red. Her white shoulders, which were exposed outside the quilt, were trembling slightly.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Fifteen years ago, I told you that if you want to leave, you can leave at any time. Yet, you chose to stay. On the first night in the harem of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, I also gave you a choice. You choose to be my woman."

"In the Infernal Court, I have no other choice. If you let me go, where can I go?" Tears almost flowed from Lian Xi's eyes as she said.

Zhang Ruochen turned his back and didn't look at her. "In the Infernal Court, I have no other choice. You can at least choose to stay by my side. I'm not bad to you, right?"

"Don't think so much. Since you've come to Infernal Court, then you should cultivate harder. The humiliation and grievance now will be your biggest motivation. You've already endured for decades. Why don't you continue to endure? If you have enough cultivation in the future, you can come and kill me."

The Nine-Dragon Carriage entered the heart of the Winterpage City and drove to Jiayin District.

Two cultivators in black robes had been waiting there for a long time.

They led Zhang Ruochen and the Supreme Saint Xueqi into the city. They came to a grand palace and walked up the stairs.

Supreme Saint Xueqi's expression was unnatural. He said telepathically, "Jiayin District is where the cultivators of the Yanluo clan live. Are you sure we're in the right place?"

"Do you have to make such a fuss?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Xueqi said, "Generally speaking, before the Celestial-Hunting Festival, the big forces of the ten clans would frequently hold events and banquets. They would even invite cultivators of other clans to participate and take the opportunity to test their strength.

“However, although the Yanluo clan always comes first in the Celestial-Hunting Festival, they don’t attach much importance to it. They rarely invite cultivators from other clans before the banquet.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “If the Immortal Vampires come first every time, their importance to the Celestial-Hunting Festival would drop by a lot.”

At that moment, Yan Wushen’s laughter rang out in the palace, “Brother Ruochen, you’re wrong. The Yanluo clan doesn’t look down on the Celestial-Hunting Festival because they think they’re powerful. It’s because all kinds of activities and banquets are boring. It’s better to spend more time practicing.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi looked very shocked and he looked at Zhang Ruochen and saw a strange expression on his face.

Just now, the two of them had communicated telepathically through spiritual power, but Yan Wushen had seen through them.

How could he not be shocked?

Zhang Ruochen strode into the palace, he raised his voice and said, “I’ve long heard that brother Wushen was already a spiritual-power Supreme Saint before you entered the Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun. I thought that you were already very powerful when you reached the 61st level. However, I’ve only realized now that I’ve greatly underestimated you.”

After decades of seclusion, Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power had made a huge breakthrough and had reached the peak of the 61st level.

Yan Wushen could hear his telepathic transmission. His spiritual power had reached at least level 62, or even higher.

Supreme Saint Xueqi wanted to follow him into the palace, but he was stopped by a cultivator guarding the palace gate. “His Highness only invited Supreme Saint Ruochen. The rest of the cultivators please wait outside the palace.”

“What do you mean? With my cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, I’m not qualified to enter?” Supreme Saint Xueqi said angrily.

The cultivator from the Yanluo clan said, “The only reason that Supreme Saint Ruochen was able to enter was because of his cultivation. As for you, even if I didn’t stop you, you wouldn’t be able to enter.”

“I refuse to believe this. It’s just a gate.”

After his cultivation advanced by leaps and bounds, Supreme Saint Xueqi’s confidence soared. He took a step forward. However, before his foot landed on the ground, he entered a chaotic space and was lost inside.

This palace was filled with Dimensional Inscriptions.

Every step was filled with Dimensional Traps. It was a huge test for any cultivator who broke in.

After Zhang Ruochen entered the palace, he saw Yan Wushen sitting alone on the ground in the center of the hall. In front of him was a long red copper table with a pot of wine and two wine glasses.

Other than that, there was nothing else.

Simple.

It was so simple that it looked shabby. It didn’t seem like he had invited an important guest.

After stepping through one Dimensional Trap after another, Zhang Ruochen walked steadily to the side of the table and stared at Yan Wushen, he said, “After coming to the Divine Domain of Destiny, I’ve been waiting for you to come out of seclusion. Finally, we met again.. Did you receive my reply to the letter of challenge? This palace is beautifully decorated. It can’t be the battlefield you chose, right?”

Chapter 2270: The Twelve Blossoms

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

“There are plenty of opportunities to exchange blows at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. There’s no hurry today,” said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen extended his hand and made a gesture of invitation.

There were 24 copper pillars in the hall. Each of them was carved with thousands of Dimensional Inscriptions. There were nine million strange beast patterns. They seemed to be only as thick as three people, but their true diameter and height could support the heaven and earth of 24 worlds.

Zhang Ruochen sat opposite Yan Wushen. Zhang Ruochen straightened his back and said, “Since it’s not the final battle today, are you just inviting me to drink?”

“Yes, I am.” Yan Wushen said with a smile. He looked down at the wine pot on the red copper table.

The wine pot was a yellowish-brown pottery pot and the wine cup was made of the same material.

It was no different from the earthenware made by mortals. It was rough and even irregular.

It looked simple, but Zhang Ruochen saw something unusual. Both the wine pot and the wine cup had an ancient charm. The shape and lines were in harmony with the precepts of heaven and earth.

No matter where they were placed, they were in harmony with everything around them.

Zhang Ruochen said, “This wine vessel has been passed down for at least ten Yuanhui Tribulations, or even longer.”

“How do you know?” Yan Wushen asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Everything in the world will leave special traces of time after a certain age. The traces of time on their surface are very deep and very old. I have seen many ancient vessels, but only one or two of them have traces of time that can be compared to them.”

“Only ancient vessels can be used to hold ancient wine.”

Yan Wushen sat still. He used his spiritual power to control the wine pot. It slowly flew up and filled the glass in front of Zhang Ruochen.

The wine was very ordinary and there was nothing unusual about it.

“You may have heard of this wine. It’s called The Twelve Blossoms. It was given to our ancestors by a god of Kunlun three Yuanhui periods ago. I know that Brother Ruochen has deep feelings for Kunlun. You must miss your hometown when you come to the Infernal Court. So, I went to the Fane of Yama and took out one of the jugs.”

Burble

Yan Wushen poured himself some wine as he spoke.

In the distant past before the Celestial Court and Infernal Court were established, although the major worlds had deep conflicts with the ten clans of Infernal Court, they were not incompatible with each other. Some cultivators still had a friendship with each other.

“The Twelve Blossoms,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen remembered something. He looked surprised and thought to himself, ‘This is the second strongest liquor in the history of Kunlun that the drunkard once mentioned.’

It was said that The Twelve Blossoms were brewed by Bi Luozi. There were only 12 jars in total.

In Kunlun, they are so valuable that not a single drop could be found elsewhere.

If these really are The Twelve Blossoms, how can it be so ordinary? Has the wine strength disappeared after three Yuanhui periods?’ Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen had once drunk Flaring-Draco Wine, which was ranked eighth among hard liquors.

Only a saint could withstand the strength of Flaring-Draco Wine.

A half-saint once drank it by mistake and died from spontaneous combustion.

Zhang Ruochen reached out two fingers and touched the wine cup.

SIZZLE!

A shocking burning sensation came from the cup.

Zhang Ruochen's two fingers burned and turned red in an instant. Fortunately, his physique was strong. Otherwise, his entire arm would be turned into ashes with just a slight touch.

Yan Wushen said, "The Twelve Blossoms were the Twelve Deific Flowers of Flames. Only when the wine enters the stomach will it bloom. It is said that only someone of godhood can bear this wine. If a saint cultivator or a Supreme Saint drinks it, he will be burned through from the inside out by the Twelve Deific Flowers of Flames, and his soul will be shattered.

"Since Brother Ruochen has the Demigod-level physique, the Neverwithers physique of an ordinary Supreme Saint can not be compared to it naturally. I wonder if you dare to drink this cup of The Twelve Blossoms?"

Zhang Ruochen's fingers had recovered.

After the test just now, Zhang Ruochen understood that Yan Wushen wasn't exaggerating at all. The Neverwithers physique of a Supreme Saint couldn't withstand The Twelve Blossoms.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the cup in front of Yan Wushen and said, "Since Brother Wushen is so generous, how can I not drink? Let me drink first."

Zhang Ruochen's entire right hand was burning while holding the cup.

He drank the wine in one gulp.

The terrifying burning energy flowed down from his throat, entered his stomach, and seeped into his entire body. Suddenly, the Deific Flowers of Flames bloomed in his body. They were in his internal organs and sea of Qi.

Zhang Ruochen's blood boiled, and the flames burned from internally to externally.

The rich fragrance of wine and flowers spread out with the flames, filling the entire palace and twelve gorgeous illusory flowers appeared.

Zhang Ruochen felt the pain erode his entire body. It was like a purgatory of torture.

A moment later, although the pain was still there, Zhang Ruochen felt an indescribable sense of comfort. More than 10,000 Spirits in his body seemed to have been refined hundreds of times.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power strength had broken through the limit and reached the 62nd level.

"What a fine wine! Brother Wushen, it's your turn!" said Zhang Ruochen as he invited Yan Wushen to try.

At that point, how could Zhang Ruochen not understand that Yan Wushen's invitation to drink was fake? Yan Wushen wanted to use the wine to test the depth of Zhang Ruochen's cultivation.

Zhang Ruochen had the Demigod-level physique. It was already difficult for him to bear The Twelve Blossoms in a cup.

Yan Wushen didn't have the Demigod-level physique, so would he dare to drink it?

"It seems like Brother Ruochen is indeed worthy of drinking The Twelve Blossoms," said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen picked up the cup and drank it all in one gulp.

Sizzle

Yan Wushen's body started to burn, and the 12 illusory deific flowers bloomed around his body. They were lifelike, and the vines coiled and connected the 12 flowers together.

Yan Wushen's body wasn't simple. He was able to withstand The Twelve Blossoms in a cup. His body wasn't weaker than his Demigod-level physique. The key was that Zhang Ruochen couldn't see through it.

Yan Wushen gave Zhang Ruochen an unfathomable feeling.

Yan Wushen's face was red. He smiled brightly and said, "Actually, this is my first time drinking The Twelve Blossoms. It's really good wine. Do you know that its biggest benefit isn't increasing the strength of spiritual power?"

"Brother Wushen, what are you talking about?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yan Wushen said, "Brother Ruochen's cultivation has already reached the pinnacle of the Neverwilt Realm, right? You're only one step away from the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

"That's right," Zhang Ruochen said calmly.

Yan Wushen said, "But you can't break through the first shackle. Thus, you can't enter the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

Zhang Ruochen had a thought and said, "It seems that Brother Wushen has the same problem as me."

Just as Zhang Ruochen had guessed, it wasn't that Yan Wushen had seen through him. It was because both of them were facing the same problem.

Yan Wushen nodded and said, "You have a Demigod-level physique. Your battle strength in the Neverwilt Realm far surpasses that of a Supreme Saint in the same. You can even defeat a powerhouse at the pinnacle of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

"However, even the Demigod-level physique was shackled with 100 shackles. Moreover, these 100 shackles are much stronger than other Supreme Saints, so is the shackling.

"In this way, the Demigod-level physique becomes an obstacle and a problem. It is harder for you to break each shackle than other Supreme Saints. They are the shackles that bind a Demigod-level physique. They have already exceeded the range that your realm can break.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “However, as long as you break these 100 shackles and reach the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, the Demigod-level physique will no longer be bound. With the Demigod-level physique, even if you can’t be invincible in the divine realm, you can still enter the top-tier.”

Yan Wushen said, “Drinking The Twelve Blossoms will make it easier for us to break the shackles. Do you think this is beneficial?”

“I see. It seems that I have to thank Brother Wushen for today’s hospitality. I will treat you to a drink in the future.” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen continued, “Since we have drunk the wine, we should get down to business. Where is Kunlun? Where is he?”

Yan Wushen stared at Zhang Ruochen and asked, “Are you going to take him away?”

“Of course,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Wushen said, “I’ve taken him as my disciple. He won’t be wronged in the Yanluo clan. Don’t worry. I’m different from Asurendra Samay.”

“But he doesn’t belong to the Yanluo clan,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Wushen paused for a moment before speaking in a meaningful tone, “Do you think it’s a good thing to bring him back to your side? All the gods in Infernal Court know that you were forced into Infernal Court for Chi Kongyue and Chi Kunlun.

“Chi Kongyue has been saved. If Chi Kunlun returns to your side, what’s the point of you staying in Infernal Court? What else can restrain you in Infernal Court?

“Should a Yuanhui level genius like you be killed in the cradle or nurtured?

“If I were a god of the Infernal Court, I would definitely support you first. I would kill you now to prevent future trouble.”

Zhang Ruochen was silent. He had guessed everything in his mind.

It seemed like an invitation, but the two were competing everywhere. From spiritual power, physical quality, and mentality.

From the moment Zhang Ruochen stepped into the hall, he was at a disadvantage.

The initiative had always been in Yan Wushen’s hands.

There was nothing he could do. Whether it was the Infernal Court or this hall, it was Yan Wushen’s territory. Moreover, Yan Wushen had the winning card of Chi Kunlun in his hands.

The competition had been unfair From the beginning.

Yan Wushen said, “Chi Kunlun is safer with me than any other place in the Infernal Court. If he stays with the Yanluo clan, he can enjoy the cultivation resources that you won’t be able to provide. Neither will the Xue Jue Family nor Empress Chi Yao of Kunlun! I know you don’t lack Godstones, but there are many cultivation resources that Godstones can’t buy.”

Zhang Ruochen looked up and pointed. “There’s a god three feet above you. Aren’t you afraid that the god of the Infernal Court will hear what you just said?”

“In this Hall of Wushen, all the secrets of heaven have been cut off. The god won’t know anything,” Yan Wushen said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “In that case, I’ll take my leave.”

“Hold on.”

Yan Wushen tapped on the table lightly and stopped him. He pointed at the ceramic wine pot and said, “We’ve only had one drink. Why are you in such a hurry to leave? We should drink to our heart’s content.”

Zhang Ruochen wasn’t willing to admit defeat. He sat back down and said, “Fine! Since Brother Wushen wants to drink to his heart's content, I'll risk my life to accompany you today. I won't miss a drop."

Drinking alone was a battle that could kill people.

The Twelve Blossoms bloomed, and each flower killed people.

Yan Wushen laughed loudly and poured another cup for him and Zhang Ruochen. He said, "As I said before, all the banquets and activities before the Celestial-Hunting Festival are too boring and meaningless. But I still invited you and broke the rule of the Yanluo clan. Do you know why?"

"I'd like to hear about it," Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Wushen said solemnly, "Because my instinct tells me that you, Zhang Ruochen, are the only threat of the Yanluo clan at this Celestial-Hunting Festival. I might as well tell you that the purpose of my banquet is to find out more about you. But up until now, I still can't see through you completely."

"Brother Wushen, are you kidding me? The Yanluo clan shook the Infernal Court. They always came first at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. How could I be a threat to the Yanluo clan? The Nether Clan, Deathkin, Asura, and Ghost. They are the enemies you Yanluo clan should be wary of." Zhang Ruochen said calmly.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen picked up the cup and took a sip.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen couldn't drink all The Twelve Blossoms in one go.. It depended on who could last longer.

Chapter 2271: Scarlet Mist

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

It was no secret that Yan Wushen had invited Zhang Ruochen for a drink. The moment the Nine-Dragon Carriage drove into Jiayin District, the news had spread to all the major forces.

Everyone knew that Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen were the top heroes of this era. There would definitely be a battle between them.

It could be a battle of victory or death.

Their meeting was intriguing.

At the same time, a wonderful battle broke out at the banquet hosted by the Yellow Sky Clan.

Lord Xia Yu fought against Yue Tinghai of Puresky Clan, a powerhouse in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Lord Xia Yu defeated Yue Tinghai forcefully and fiercely broke his right arm to avenge her humiliation.

Some people suspected that not only Lord Xia Yu had attained the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but she had also cultivated the third-class saintwill.

Otherwise, Yue Tinghai would not have been defeated so badly. He wasn't able to fight back.

At that point, the position of the number one powerhouse of the Immortal Vampires had become a battle between Lord Bladehell, Lady Wind, and Lord Xia Yu.

When the news spread, the cultivators of the ten clans were shocked.

The strength of the Immortal Vampires had officially entered the forefront of the ten clans.

However, what puzzled countless cultivators was that the powerful Lord Xia Yu was not the captain of the Bloodysky Clan. Thus, Zhang Ruochen, who had come to the meeting at the Hall of Wushen, attracted even more attention.

The clouds surged in the night sky, showing six different colors.

It was the light from the six-colored star fog in the Forest of No Return.

Rumble

Along with the deafening sound of thunder, six-colored rain fell from the sky. It fell on the roof tiles like a beaded curtain and the tears of the heavens.

Pan Ruo stood in the pavilion. Her white clothes were like snow, and her long black hair swayed in the wind. She reached out her slender hand caught the raindrops and looked in the direction of Jiayin District.

Beside Pan Ruo, there was a slender figure in flames. If one looked closely, one would see that it was a woman.

Her name was Mistress Fireborn of the Deathkin.

“You think too highly of Zhang Ruochen, don’t you?” said Mistress Fireborn who looked confused and disdainful.

Pan Ruo’s gaze was as still as water. She said, “It’s not that I think highly of him. It’s the Yanluo clan who thinks highly of him. Why should we look down on an opponent that the Yanluo clan thinks so highly of? If Lady Wind has his support, we have to be on guard.”

Tic-tac

Wujiang walked over with a green paper umbrella in hand. Under the light, his long shadow appeared on the ground. He said, “It’s still unknown whether Zhang Ruochen can walk out of the Hall of Wushen.”

Mistress Fireborn stared at Wujiang. When she saw his handsome face, a different light flashed in her eyes. She said, “I heard that Yan Wushen walked the path of Buddhism. He used a sarira and a Myriad Buddha Lamp, to refine his body to the extreme. You can say that he had a Half-Buddha Physique. If Zhang Ruochen wants to walk out of the Hall of Wushen alive, it will be harder than ascending to the heavens.

“The rain is too harsh, and the wind is too cold. Let’s go back first! Zhang Ruochen is not a threat until he breaks his first shackle.”

Wujiang walked past Mistress Fireborn and came to Pan Ruo’s side. He held the umbrella over, blocking the wind that drifted in diagonally and the rain that fell into Pan Ruo’s palm. Pan Ruo couldn’t help but frown. A hint of displeasure appeared in the depths of her eyes.

At that moment, a shadow appeared in the rain. Kneeling on one knee, it said, “Your Highness, Zhang Ruochen has walked out of the Hall of Wushen.”

Pan Ruo’s eyes sparkled. A beautiful smile appeared on her pale face and she said, “Yan Wushen couldn’t keep Zhang Ruochen in his territory. Zhang Ruochen has already won this battle. Lord Xia Yu and Zhang Ruochen. The Bloodysky Clan is really intriguing this time. They are full of surprises.”

A cold light flashed in Wujiang’s eyes. “I’ll go and meet him.”

Wujiang had already disappeared from the pavilion before he finished speaking.

Mistress Fireborn was holding the green paper umbrella that Wujiang had held just now. She said, “Fighting is forbidden in Winterpage City. Isn’t Wujiang afraid of breaking the rules?”

“Don’t worry. They all know that fighting is within the rules,” said Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo’s hand was still open in the rain. She felt the coldness of the raindrops. Her palm was colorful like a painting.

The raindrops started in the sky and ended on Pan Ruo’s hand.

This was its fate!

“They?” said Mistress Fireborn as she was surprised.

The word “they” shouldn’t be referring to Wujiang and Zhang Ruochen. Could it be that other forces were preparing to attack Zhang Ruochen as well?

...

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen drank three cups of wine before he got up and left.

After dragging Supreme Saint Xueqi out of the Dimensional Trap, Zhang Ruochen stepped out of the Hall of Wushen first. Zhang Ruochen's entire body was covered in flames, emitting the fragrance of flowers and wine. His hair turned red and golden. There was a cracking sound under his feet as he walked.

As soon as Zhang Ruochen walked out of the hall, strange flowers grew on the ground in the garden. There were even petals floating in the sky.

The cultivators guarding the Hall of Wushen stepped back in shock.

Supreme Saint Xueqi was both depressed and curious. Had Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen fought? Who won? Who lost?

Supreme Saint Xueqi wanted to ask, but he saw that Zhang Ruochen was not in a good condition, so he restrained himself.

"Back to Vastsea Manor." Zhang Ruochen ordered after he entered the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

The nine dragons roared, and the carriage rushed out of Winterpage city and drove on the street.

In the carriage, Lian Xi had already gotten down from the bed. She wore a purple robe and had a slim waist. Her hair was like flowing clouds. She sniffed lightly and looked at Zhang Ruochen, who was in pain. She said, "Were you drunk?"

"The Twelve Blossoms."

Zhang Ruochen crossed his hands and tried his best to circulate the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture. He refined the alcoholic properties contained in The Twelve Blossoms.

Although Yan Wushen was testing his depth, The Twelve Blossoms were indeed rare treasures. They had an extraordinary effect on refining the body and breaking the shackles.

Yan Wushen could take out this wine and taste it with Zhang Ruochen. This meant that he was not a narrow-minded person.

Maybe it's not such a bad thing for Chi Kunlun to stay by Yan Wushen's side.

Lian Xi frowned, and she said, "You know very well that there are huge hidden dangers in your body. Whether it's a million times more Yang Qi, or Yanshen's leg, three dragons, and three elephants, you will be consumed by them. How dare you drink such strong and burning wine?"

"Are you concerned about me?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"I'm just afraid that you will torture me again. Or you will be consumed, and I will lose the best place to stay in the Infernal Court."

Zhang Ruochen stared at her with a strange look and said, "It seems that you have thought it through and understand your situation. This is a good thing."

"I only hope that you can agree to let me go if you go to the Battlefield of Merits in the future," said Lian Xi.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Do you still want to go back to the Celestial Court? Can You?"

"You don't have to worry about that! As long as you promise me, I will promise you that I will listen to you and be your most obedient maid in the Infernal Court from now on," Lian Xi said.

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and said, "Good! It's useless to keep a woman whose heart is not with me. You can leave whenever you wanted to."

Lian Xi was completely relieved after she heard what Zhang Ruochen said. Lian Xi saw Zhang Ruochen's blood seemed to be boiling, then she asked, "How can I help you?"

"How can you help me with your cultivation?" Zhang Ruochen asked back.

Lian Xi showed a hesitant and gentle look. She approached him and was about to make a move, but Zhang Ruochen pushed her away. He said, "I want to use my body to digest the power of The Twelve Blossoms slowly. I want to use its power to refine the shackles in my body. I will remember your kindness!”

Whoosh

Supreme Saint Xueqi sat outside the carriage and looked at the empty street. He had a strong sense of doubt in her heart and he became vigilant.

In the Infernal Court, there was no difference between day and night. It was equally lively. Even if it rained, it should not be so quiet.

Suddenly, the Nine-Dragon Carriage stopped.

Lian Xi lifted the curtain of the carriage and asked, “What’s going on?”

Lian Xi was shocked to find Supreme Saint Xueqi, who had severed 72 shackles, did not sit on the carriage at all. Instead, he disappeared without a sound. A layer of pink fog appeared on the street in front of her.

Lian Xi could feel the space within the pink fog with her powerful spiritual power was stretching.

The fog became thicker and thicker. It surged toward the Nine-Dragon Carriage and swallowed the surrounding buildings and streets.

In the end, Lian Xi’s field of vision became completely pink.

An uneasy feeling rose in her heart.

A mocking laugh sounded in the fog. “The Fairy Shadowless from the Portrait of the Nine Beauties of the Celestial Court has come to the Infernal Court and become Zhang Ruochen’s servant. Is there anything more ridiculous than this?”

A carriage appeared out of thin air in the pink fog. The carriage was only 30 meters away from the Nine-Dragon Carriage and its driver was a human-shaped skeleton. Only his face was covered in flesh.

The laughter earlier was from the carriage.

Lian Xi stared at the skeleton driver and sucked in a breath of cold air.

The driver's intact face was exactly the same as Supreme Saint Xueqi's.

Could it be that the Supreme Saint Xueqi had been killed silently and turned into a skeleton?

Zhang Ruochen opened his eyes and released his spiritual power.

However, the moment Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power came into contact with the pink fog, it was corroded. He could not see through the opponent.

At that moment, a cloud of ghost fog appeared behind the Nine-Dragon Carriage. A black carriage stopped there. A burst of hearty laughter came from the carriage saying, "Don't you feel humiliated to be Zhang Ruochen's servant? Fairy Shadowless, this has nothing to do with you. Leave quickly."

The three carriages stopped in a straight line. The Nine-Dragon Carriage was blocked in the middle.

Lian Xi knew very well that if she left Zhang Ruochen, she would only be a prisoner of the next cultivator of the Infernal Court. When that happened, the situation would be even more difficult than it was now.

"Who are you? Don't you know that fighting and killing are prohibited in the Winterpage City?" Lian Xi asked.

Zhang Ruochen sat in the carriage and said, "Their backgrounds are quite impressive. One of them is one of the three potential goddesses of the Fane of Destiny, Supreme Saint Yanhong. The other is the seventh son of the Ghost Master, Xu. Both of them are ranked in the top 10 among those attained Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

Lian Xi's face turned pale instantly.

She knew that Zhang Ruochen had enemies all over the Infernal Court. However, it was unexpected that two powerful enemies came at the same time.

How should they break the situation now?

Since the other party had killed Supreme Saint Xueqi, it meant that they were not here to test and scare him.

Supreme Saint Yanhong's voice rang out from the carriage in front of them, "You've been covered by my mist and lost your spiritual power perception. You were able to determine my identity at the first moment. Zhang Ruochen, it seems that during this period, you weren't just having affair with the Fairy Shadowless in the Vastsea Manor."

In the carriage behind them, Xu said, "You've never seen me before, but you can recognize me. How did you do it?"

"Because you've always been my enemies. I remember everything about you. Break," said Zhang Ruochen.

The Divine Purification Flame surged out of the Nine-Dragon Carriage and spread out like a white cloud. It burned the pink mist until it disappeared and broke the illusion.

The skeletal carriage driver's appearance was no longer that of Supreme Saint Xueqi. Instead, he wore a bamboo hat. No one could see his face clearly.

"So it was all an illusion. Supreme Saint Yanhong must have done this to scare us," said Lian Xi and she heaved a sigh of relief.

At this moment, the real Supreme Saint Xueqi was wrapped in pink threads that were like silk. It was as if he was wrapped in a blood cocoon and could not break free no matter how hard he tried.

If the Supreme Saint Yanhong dared to kill the Supreme Saint Xueqi in the Winterpage City, she would definitely anger the Wargod Bloodximus and the Fane of Destiny would not be able to protect her.

As the Divine Purification Flame burned, the pink threads of mist dispersed and Supreme Saint Xueqi escaped. He quickly retreated to the side of the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

Supreme Saint Xueqi was extremely depressed.

Supreme Saint Xueqi thought that after breaking through 72 shackles, he would have reached the level of a top powerhouse of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He did not expect to suffer two blows after accompanying Zhang Ruochen to a banquet.

The gap between Zhang Ruochen and a powerhouse who attained the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was so big.

CLANG! CLANG!

The wheels of the two carriages slowly turned and drove toward the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

With every 90 meters forward, the space would be compressed.

The space in the front and back seemed to have turned into two invisible walls that slowly moved over. The Nine-Dragon Carriage was pressed to the ground and couldn't move. The stone slabs on the street were all cracked.

Boom Boom

Nine explosions sounded. The nine dragon souls pulling the carriage could not withstand the pressure of space and explode. They retreated back into the carriage.

However, Supreme Saint Xueqi and Lian Xi could not retreat. They could only rely on their own cultivation to withstand the impact of the pressure of space.

After the Nine-Dragon Carriage was re-forged, it was very close to being a Regal Artifact. However, the carriage creaked when the two carriages reached a distance of 90 meters. Cracks started to appear on the carriage.

Chapter 2272: The Difficult Road Ahead and The Traceless Oblivion

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Lian Xi saw the carriages that were coming from the front and back become bigger and bigger. First, it was like a palace, and then it was like a mountain. Finally, it seemed to have transformed into two planets, releasing an extremely imposing pressure.

The sound of the wheels was even more ear-splitting than the sound of thunder, and ripples appeared in space.

Lian Xi and the Nine-Dragon Carriage beside her appeared extremely small.

Lian Xi was known as the king of Sainthood with her attained Supreme Saint cultivation. However, she felt as if she could not breathe and her body was about to be crushed into pieces.

Supreme Saint Xueqi's cultivation was very high. He was not intimidated by the aura of the two carriages. He did not want to just sit there and wait for death. Hence, He gritted his teeth and spread the blood wings on his back. He pulled out a Regal Artifact from between his brows and activated the Regal Inscriptions on the blade.

“Break it.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi grabbed the handle of the blade with both hands. Blood clouds surged out of his body as he slashed out with all his might.

Crash

A blade ray that was like a river of blood tore apart the scarlet mist. It floated above Supreme Saint Yanhong's red carriage and pressed down rapidly.

The sharp blade shone the entire world in blood-red light.

However, this heaven-splitting blade was blocked by a layer of light fog from the frame of the chariot. It could not hurt the chariot at all.

“Futile attempt,” said Supreme Saint Yanhong.

After that, tens of thousands of bone birds that bared their fangs and brandished their claws flew out from the layer of light fog. They let out a dense and ear-piercing cry as they charged towards the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

Supreme Saint Xueqi sheathed his blade and raised it horizontally. He took a step back and billions of precept ley lines appeared under his feet. They activated the defensive power of the blade.

The power of those bone birds was shocking. Every time one of them charged at Supreme Saint Xueqi, it would cause him to tremble slightly.

In just a few moments, Supreme Saint Xueqi’s defense was broken. His armor was torn apart and his arms were drenched in blood. His body slammed heavily into the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

Supreme Saint Yanhong did not attack with her own hands. Instead, she used the bone birds created by the scarlet mist to heavily injure a Supreme Saint who had severed 72 shackles.

It was not that Supreme Saint Xueqi was not powerful enough. It was just that his opponent was too terrifying.

Supreme Saint Xueqi was severely injured. He knelt on one knee on the ground and looked at the bone birds that were swarming towards him. Even though he knew that Supreme Saint Yanhong did not dare to kill him, he still felt a sense of despair and thought, ‘Today, I will definitely die.’

When Supreme Saint Xueqi encountered other cultivators who were in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he was very confident that he could fight them head-on. No matter how weak Supreme Saint Xueqi was, he still had the power to retreat. However, when he encountered someone at the level of the Supreme Saint Yanhong, he lost all confidence in escaping.

“Such power! This is the eighth-ranked cultivator at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. That is one hell of a Pink Skull.” said Supreme Saint Xueqi as lowered his head and his confidence was completely crushed.

Without a doubt, Supreme Saint Yanhong would be Supreme Saint Xueqi’s inner demon from now on. He would not be able to overcome this obstacle.

Just as the bone birds approached the Nine-Dragon Carriage, a huge dragon soul flew out from the carriage. Its body was as big as a mountain ridge. It opened its mouth like a deep pool and swallowed all the bone birds into its stomach.

ROAR!

The body of the dragon soul coiled around the Nine-Dragon Carriage and let out an earth-shattering roar.

“A Thousand-Koan Realm dragon soul.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi raised his head abruptly and was shocked by what he saw.

ROAR! ROAR!

...

Immediately after, two dragon souls and three elephant souls of the Thousand-Koan Realm rushed out and coiled around the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

They glared ferociously and roared toward the sky. They blocked the two carriages that were crushing toward them and were unable to advance any further.

Zhang Ruochen sat in the Nine-Dragon Carriage and slowly spread out his arms.

Instantly, the power of the three dragons and three elephants erupted. The two carriages in front and behind were pushed back slowly. The Dimensional Inscriptions wall on the two carriages was also broken.

Lian Xi could not believe her eyes.

At that moment, Lian Xi finally understood how powerful Zhang Ruochen was. It was almost impossible for her to kill him with her cultivation and talent.

Now, it was impossible.

In the future... it would be even more impossible.

“What a surprise. That truly is a Demigod-level physique. Zhang Ruochen’s only in the Neverwilt Realm and his body can withstand six Thousand-Koan Realm beast souls. However, he’s still far from it.” said Xu, who was at the back of the carriage.

The next moment, the sound of ten thousand ghosts came from the carriage.

Countless ghosts flew out. Some were humans, some were beasts, and some were birds... There were so many of them. There were more than ten thousand or even more than a hundred thousand.

The ghosts formed six storm vortexes.

In each of the vortexes, a few Thousand-Koan Realm Ghost Emperor’s Souls were formed. A few thousand meters tall giant, a Rakshasa with black wings on its back, and a demon ox that had two horns on its head.

Supreme Saint Xueqi’s face turned bitter and he said, “Xu once seized the Spring of Chaos and formed the Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt Physique. He can absorb ghosts and refine them into his body endlessly with the Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique and his attained Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Earlier, he released at least six million ghosts.”

Six million ghosts formed the Thousand-Koan Realm Ghost Emperor Soul. The power it released was no less than Zhang Ruochen’s three dragons and three elephants.

What was even more disturbing was that six million ghosts were not all of Xu. No one knew how many Thousand-Koan Realm Ghost Emperor’s Souls he could form after he went all out.

The six Ghost Emperor Souls balanced the three dragons and three elephants.

The two carriages drove forward again, crushing the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

“Cultivators who attained the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm within a thousand years are indeed not simple. Those who can enter the top ten are all unfathomable. Even the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint is no match for you.” Zhang Ruochen said this and took out the Zangshan Demonic Mirror.

After Supreme Saint Yanhong sensed the aura of the Supreme Artifact, she said, “The so-called Yuanhui level geniuses only have this much ability? We’ve only used half of our power, and you’re already forced to use the Supreme Artifact?”

“Don’t say I didn’t warn you. If you use the Supreme Artifact in a battle in the Divine Domain of Destiny, you’ll be taken away by the fane,” Xu said.

Even though Supreme Saint Yanhong and Xu were targeting Zhang Ruochen, they didn’t really attack him. They didn’t get out of the carriage. They just drove on the same street as Zhang Ruochen.

This was a loophole in the laws of the Fane of Destiny!

Just like Xu, he had condensed six Ghost Emperor Souls. He didn’t control them to attack. He just walked forward slowly to balance the three dragons and three elephants.

On the contrary, it was against the law for Supreme Saint Xueqi to use his weapons to attack first.

Even if Zhang Ruochen was seriously injured today, they could still say that they had just driven the carriage and accidentally barged into him.

It was a ridiculous excuse, but it was an excuse to avoid the law.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Supreme Saint Yanhong and Xu were here to test his strength. They didn’t dare to do anything to him. They just wanted to use two Regal Artifact level carriages to crush the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

Other techniques, such as the six Ghost Emperor Souls and the illusory scarlet mist, were just to suppress Zhang Ruochen's power.

'They want to force me to act first. That way, they'll have a reason to act as well,' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen put away the Zangshan Demonic Mirror and looked ahead. Supreme Saint Yanhong's carriage was right in front of him.

If Zhang Ruochen was knocked down by Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong's carriage, it would severely damage Zhang Ruochen's prestige in the Bloodsky Clan and the Immortal Vampires.

Even if Zhang Ruochen wasn't injured. It will be a huge loss of face.

After that, Zhang Ruochen will have no chance to represent the Immortal Vampires and wield the Supreme Artifact.

However, if Zhang Ruochen could beat Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong, his reputation would definitely rise to its peak. It would be of great help to Wargod Bloodximius to negotiate with the gods of Immortal Vampires.

No matter how talented you were, you still had to show results in actual combat.

Moreover, this challenge was to test Zhang Ruochen's strength and also his ability to handle a crisis.

'How can I break the suppression of Supreme Saint Yanhong within the scope of the law?' Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment. Then, a large number of Marks of Time light spots flew out of his body. There were tens of millions of them.

Both Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong became alert. They were most afraid of Zhang Ruochen's Time techniques. Although they had prepared for it, they still did not drop their guard.

Whoosh

Dozens of Marks of Time appeared on the front and the back of the carriages.

The Mark of Time light spots released by Zhang Ruochen were bounced back by the power of the talismans as soon as they approached the carriage. They could not enter the carriage.

Zhang Ruochen sat in the Nine-Dragon Carriage and put his hands together.

Tens of millions of light spots flew back and gathered together. They turned into a Bell of Time and enveloped the Nine-Dragon Carriage. Supreme Saint Xueqi and Lian Xi quickly boarded the carriage and hid behind Zhang Ruochen.

Supreme Saint Xueqi and Lian Xi knew that no matter how powerful Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong were, they would not dare to touch the Bell of Time.

The safest place will be the inside of the bell.

Crash

Zhang Ruochen condensed six dimensional chains to connect with the three dragon souls and three elephant souls. He controlled them to pull the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

“Zhang Ruochen, you won’t get away easily.” Xu reached out a hand, pulled open the curtain, and said with a gentle smile.

Rumble

The six Ghost Emperor Souls resisted the three dragons and three elephants. The two sides competed in power and collided fiercely.

“If I want to leave, you can’t hold me back,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen pointed forward. Immediately, the space where the six Ghost Emperor Souls were was shrinking and collapsing rapidly. Even though they tried their best to hold on, the space still shrank smaller and smaller, like a rapidly shrinking ball.

The huge space with a diameter of hundreds of feet quickly became only the size of a fist.

The six Ghost Emperor Souls were all suppressed into the fist-sized spherical space. They could no longer resist the three dragons and three elephants.

Crash

The wheels turned.

The three dragons and three elephants pulled the Nine-Dragon Carriage that was wrapped in the Bell of Time over. The six Ghost Emperor Souls shattered the spherical space and they returned to their original size.

Supreme Saint Yanhong and Xu watched the Nine-Dragon Carriage drive away. They didn't chase after it.

Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong's true bodies were on a floating island not far from this street, standing side by side. They looked down at the city and they looked at each other and could see the shock in each other's eyes.

Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong didn't dare to use their true bodies to deal with Zhang Ruochen, the Scion with a special identity, openly in the Divine Domain of Destiny.

Although the two figures in the carriages were only their shadow clones, their true bodies had been controlling everything. With their cultivation and the means they had prepared to suppress space and time, they still let Zhang Ruochen escape unscathed. How could they not be shocked?

"It is indeed as difficult as ascending to heaven to keep the Master of Time and Space." Supreme Saint Yanhong let out a long sigh, feeling helpless in her heart.

Zhang Ruochen had too many enemies in the Infernal Court. If Supreme Saint Yanhong could kill him, she could gain the support of all the major forces. That way, it would be much easier for her to become the Scioness of the Fane of Destiny.

However, Supreme Saint Yanhong realized at the test earlier. Although her combat strength was stronger than Zhang Ruochen's, Zhang Ruochen could leave at any time if he did not want to fight with her.

If they couldn't keep him, how could they kill him?

Xu's gaze deepened and he said, "We couldn't find out his strength even if we worked together. His strength has been doubled compared to when he fought with Warlord Mara."

"At least we found out that his cultivation has reached the peak of the Neverwilt Realm," said Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Xu said, "Before Zhang Ruochen broke his first shackle, he won't be a threat. But what's troubling is that no one knows when he'll do it."

If Zhang Ruochen broke his first shackle, then he would officially enter the Hundred-Shackle Realm. The power of the Demigod-level physique's body would be fully unleashed.

At that time, even the top 10 cultivators at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm like Xu and Supreme Saint Yan Hong would be wary of him.

This was the situation Xu and Supreme Saint Yan Hong would want to avoid most.

"Don't you have an important trump card in your hand? If you use it in the Celestial-Hunting Festival, Zhang Ruochen won't be able to escape as easily as he did today," said Supreme Saint Yan Hong with cold as frost eyes.

Although Supreme Saint Yan Hong was a pink-colored skull, the surface of the skeleton was beautiful skin. It looked beautiful and was no different from a beauty that could topple a nation.

Supreme Saint Yanhong said again, "Fairy Shadowless beside Zhang Ruochen can be refined as a skin for me for the next 100 years. It's perfect. The more I look at it, the more beautiful it becomes."

...

The Nine-Dragon Carriage was badly damaged and full of cracks. It traveled on the empty street and gradually disappeared into the distance.

Wujiang stood in the darkness of the night. His body and the six-colored rain merged into one. He could clearly see the fight just now.

He didn't attack.

Since Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong couldn't stop Zhang Ruochen when they worked together, if Wujiang attacked again, the result would most likely be the same.

However, just as Wujiang was about to leave, he was surprised to find a figure walking in the middle of the street in front of the Nine-Dragon Carriage.

A black figure.

The black figure was like a bamboo pole. Its body was as thin as firewood, but straight like a pencil.

The black figure walked toward the Nine-Dragon Carriage like a deaf and blind man. He couldn't see that it was Zhang Ruochen's carriage, and he couldn't see that the three dragons and three elephants pulling the carriage were Thousand-Koan Realm beast souls.

But could a cultivator in the Winterpage City really be deaf and blind?

'Who is he? What is he trying to do?' Wujiang wondered.

Wujiang used his spiritual power to investigate. However, as soon as his spiritual power approached, it was swallowed by an invisible force and disappeared without a trace.

Wujiang was ranked fifth on the list of those who attained the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. His strength was above that of Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong.

How could such a strange cultivator appear in Winterpage City? Was his cultivation even stronger than Wujiang?

In the carriage.

Zhang Ruochen did not sense the aura of the black figure. He was still recalling the battle just now. His expression was calm and composed, but his heart was in turmoil.

Although it was only a test battle, Zhang Ruochen deeply felt the power of the top ten powerhouses who attained the Greater Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Whether it was Xu or Supreme Saint Yanhong, they were like two bottomless abysses.

Even the current Lord Xia Yu was still inferior to them.

This difference was very obvious.

Supreme Saint Xueqi mended his injuries and he asked, “Lord Xia Yu is ranked seventh on the list of those at Greater Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, and Supreme Saint Yanhong is ranked eighth. With your current cultivation, are you confident of winning against them?”

Zhang Ruochen did not answer. He only shook his head lightly.

It was unknown whether he was saying “I don’t know,” or “I’m not confident,” or “I’m not their match.”

Supreme Saint Xueqi lowered his head dejectedly and thought to himself, ‘Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong are invincible existences in the same realm. Zhang Ruochen is only in the Neverwilt Realm. No matter how strong he is, he can’t win against them. It’s already amazing that he could escape from their combined attack. It’s enough to shake the ten clans of the Infernal Court.’

“Who are you?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen sensed something. His eyes became as sharp as a sword as he looked straight ahead.

Zhang Ruochen’s reflex was fast. However, he had only raised his arm three inches when a black shadow passed through the three dragons, three elephants, and the wall of the Nine-Dragon Carriage. It entered the carriage, its fingers moving dozens of times faster than Zhang Ruochen, it cut off a strand of long hair from his neck and pinched it in his hand.

When Zhang Ruochen raised his arm again, the black shadow had already passed through the Nine-Dragon Carriage and appeared on the street behind the carriage. He clutched the strand of hair in his hand and walked away from the carriage.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift and he appeared outside the carriage. He stood on the street and stared at the bamboo-like black shadow. His eyes were filled with shock and doubt.

“The so-called Yuanhui level genius was just ordinary.” said the black shadow.

His body disappeared without a trace as he walked.

It was as if nothing had happened. It was just an illusion.

Supreme Saint Xueqi jumped off the Nine-Dragon Carriage. He looked in the direction Zhang Ruochen was looking and asked, “What’s Wrong?”

“Did you see it just now?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Xueqi asked, “See what? What Happened?”

“That’s right. He’s too fast. With your cultivation, how can you see him? Is this the Power of Oblivion?” Zhang Ruochen smoothed the hair behind his ear. One strand had been broken and was only an inch long.

It came and went without a trace.

With Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation, he could only see his opponent’s shadow. He couldn’t stop him from breaking his hair.

If he could cut off Zhang Ruochen’s hair, he could kill him.

With such speed, how could Supreme Saint Xueqi see him?

Perhaps only by being prepared and using the Power of Time and Space could Zhang Ruochen have a chance to compete with him in speed. However, his opponent’s body was no different from oblivion. He couldn’t sense it in advance. How could he be prepared?

“Are you testing my strength or showing off? Who are you?” Zhang Ruochen asked as his pupils constricted.

In the distance, Wujiang, who had witnessed everything, held his breath. He felt numb all over.

With Wujiang's cultivation, he couldn't see how the opponent appeared or disappeared. It was terrifying to the extreme.

“For him to appear here, he must be a cultivator participating in the Celestial-Hunting Festival. I hope he's a Thousand-Koan Realm or Banshi Isshou Realm cultivator. If he's in the Hundred-Shackle Realm... I'm probably not his match.”

Wujiang was calculating and guessing in his heart, but he kept shaking his head.

Even the third-ranked Yan Huangtu, the second-ranked Lan Ying, could not be so strong. Could the black shadow be the first-ranked one?

Chapter 2273: Que

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

When Supreme Saint Xueqi returned to Vastsea Manor, Gu Chenzi, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Lord Xia Yu were already waiting outside the manor.

The moment they saw Zhang Ruochen come down from the carriage, they welcomed him like a hero. Supreme Saint Yi Xuan laughed loudly. “The battle on the street has made your name known all over the world. I’m afraid no one will dare to look down on our Bloodsky Clan at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

Many cultivators were paying attention to the battle between Zhang Ruochen, Xu, and Supreme Saint Yanhong on the street. The news spread like wildfire to all the major forces in Winterpage City.

The cultivators of Bloodsky Clan who gathered around looked at Zhang Ruochen differently.

They became respectful and fearful.

That was the look they had when facing a superior.

Zhang Ruochen’s face did not show a trace of joy. Instead, his expression was solemn. He said with a heavy heart, “Let’s talk inside.”

Gu Chenzi, Lord Xia Yu, and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan saw some clues. They immediately stopped smiling and followed Zhang Ruochen into Vastsea Manor. Then, they entered Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

They did not speak on their way to the palace. The atmosphere was heavy.

When they arrived at the main hall, Zhang Ruochen sat at the top like an emperor. He still did not speak, as if he was thinking about something.

Gu Chenzi asked, “What exactly happened? Is Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong’s cultivation far stronger than it looks?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly and finally spoke, “Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong didn’t use their true bodies or their true powers. It was a somewhat tentative fight, which was hard for us to see through their strength.

“But I can roughly guess that their combat strength is higher than Lord Xia Yu’s.”

“Xu hasn’t even condensed a Grade Three Saintwill. How can he be stronger than me? I’m afraid you didn’t see how I cut off Yue Tinghai’s arm. Do you want to try?”

Lord Xia Yu snorted. She wasn’t convinced.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t seem to see Lord Xia Yu’s battle intent. “Xu has the Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt Physique,” he said. “He can absorb countless ghosts and become one. “Although he only showed the tip of the iceberg of his strength when he was at the street, I can infer from some clues that he has absorbed more than 10 million ghosts into his Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level physique.

“Based on my analysis, I can tell that those ghosts he absorbed aren’t mortals. They were cultivators when they were alive.

“One million ghosts can form a Thousand-Koan Realm Ghost Emperor-Level physique. If the strength of ten Ghost Emperor-Level bodies were combined with a high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique, even your Grade Three Saintwill wouldn’t be able to withstand it, right?”

“I’ve looked through the information on Xu. The Emperor-level Heavenly Sight that he cultivated is a high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique. With this technique, he once heavily injured a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint in the Battlefield of Merits.”

Lord Xia Yu’s eyes flashed with shock. She did not expect the Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt Physique to be so powerful.

Gu Chenzi said, “Lord Xia Yu has just broken through to the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. She did not have the time to cultivate a high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique. In terms of foundation, she is indeed lacking compared to Lord Xia Yu.

“However, if Xu is unable to fuse with the Grade Three Saintwill, it is only a matter of time before Lord Xia Yu overpowers him.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was annoyed. “It’s all my fault. If he didn’t take away the Spring of Chaos, how could he have grown so powerful?”

Gu Chenzi was still confused. Since Zhang Ruochen was able to escape from the combined attacks of Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong, even if they were stronger than Lord Xia Yu, there was a limit to their strength.

With the strength of the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan, they could fight against Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong together.

But why was Zhang Ruochen’s mood so volatile?

Zhang Ruochen said, “After breaking through the encirclement of Xu and Saint Yanhong, I met another cultivator whose cultivation far surpasses the two of them.”

“Who is it? Wu Jiang?” Gu Chenzi asked.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, “No, Wu Jiang is far inferior to him. Even if the three of you join hands with me, we might not be his match.”

Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi were all stunned.

They knew that Zhang Ruochen did not joke. Since he had said it so carefully, it must have been carefully analyzed and calculated.

Gu Chenzi analyzed the situation and said, “How is this possible? Wu Jiang is ranked fifth among cultivators who attained the Great Perfection at Hundred-Shackle Realm. The only ones stronger than him are Luo Shengtian, Yanhuang Tu, and Lan Ying.

“Although Luo Shengtian’s ranking is higher than Wu Jiang’s, the two of them have never fought before. Based on past battle records, even if Luo Shengtian was stronger than Wu Jiang, he wouldn't be much stronger. "Moreover, if he wanted to test you, he had already made his move on Arena of Life and Death. He wouldn't have waited until now.

"Yan Huangtu, who is ranked third, rarely makes a move in public. His latest battle record goes back to 120 years ago. It's impossible to judge his current strength.

"However, since you went to Jianyin District, you must have fought with Yan Wushen before and tested each other's strength. Logically speaking, there is no point for Yan Huangtu to make a move anymore. So he should not be the one.

"So most likely, that cultivator should be Lan Ying, the Divine Fetus.

"There are too many rumors regarding Lan Ying. Any cultivator at the same realm would feel fear towards him. He is an opponent that is almost impossible to defeat.

"I once saw Lan Ying. At that time, we were both Saint Kings and were on the verge of breaking through to the Supreme Saint realm. I was also considered a top elite. I was pretty conceited and never thought that anyone in the same cultivation rank could defeat me.

"However, Lan Ying left a deep impression on me that time. He killed a Supreme Saint, who was on par with me, with a single sword strike. It was clean and neat. It was as if he was the embodiment of slaughter.

"At that time, I thought that even if six of me joined hands, I wouldn't be able to block the six swords on his back.

"If there really was an opponent that even the Three Top Elites of Bloodsky Clan couldn't defeat, then it could only be Yan Huangtu or Lan Ying. Among them, the possibility of Lan Ying is higher."

Lord Xia Yu revealed a cold expression, he said, "At that time, Lan Ying must have borrowed external forces. During the Celestial-Hunting Festival, Lan Ying cannot borrow external forces, and he can only use one weapon, so his advantage will be greatly weakened.

“I don’t believe that with your current cultivation, you would be killed instantly by him.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said, “That’s right. With our current cultivation, no living being below the Thousand-Koan Realm can defeat the three of us by themselves.

“Only Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen might be able to do it in the future.

“I guess Zhang Ruochen met a Thousand-Koan Realm attendee.

Zhang Ruochen had looked through the information of Lan Ying. He was sure that Lan Ying had never practiced the Path of Oblivion, so it was impossible for Lan Ying to be that person.

As for the Thousand-Koan Realm attendee...

Zhang Ruochen had made the same guess, but he ruled it out.

The guests of the Thousand-Koan Realm could not participate in the Celestial Hunting. There was no need for them to test Zhang Ruochen’s strength. Moreover, before the black figure left, he said, “The so-called Yuanhui level genius is nothing more than this.”

From this, one could infer the character of this person:

He was very confident and competitive. He valued fame and fortune. He was jealous, dissatisfied, and disdainful of Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, who were called “Yuanhui level” geniuses.

If he was really a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint, he wouldn’t be proud even if he chopped off a strand of Zhang Ruochen’s hair.

After all, the difference between Hundred-Shackle Realm and Thousand-Koan Realm was too big. Many Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints had such strength.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Have you forgotten that there’s a mysterious existence ranked first among the cultivators with Great Perfection attainment at Hundred-Shackle Realm?”

Gu Chenzi frowned and said, “The ranking of the Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators, who achieved Great Perfection, was compiled by Realm of Star Ocean. At the beginning, it only included 47 Supreme Saints. As some hidden powerful figures were revealed, it has now expanded to 58.”

“However, the ranking of the top ten has never changed. It tells us their strength is definitely far superior to other Supreme Saints who have reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

“Among them, the most puzzling one is the person who is ranked first. There is only one word written on the list, Que.”

“At the beginning, everyone thought that his name was Que.

“However, some deities have tried to probe this person, but they get nothing.

“Therefore, everyone thought that Realm of Star Ocean deliberately left the first place for you or Yan Wushen.

“After all, you two are too powerful. Once you reach the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, you will definitely be the first.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Even the deities couldn’t figure him out?”

“This is absolutely true,” Gu Chenzi said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “If he is a Master of Oblivion, he can already control the power of Oblivion perfectly. Can the deities figure him out?”

“This...” Gu Chenzi didn’t know how to answer.

Any cultivator had a respectful attitude toward the power of Oblivion.

There were too few beings practicing Oblivion; it was too rare. Because of this rare and unknown, all cultivators were in awe and didn’t know how to deal with it.

For example, if there would only be one cultivator practicing the Path of Time existed in one Yuanhui, other cultivators would not know how to deal with the power of Time and didn't have a way to resist such an attack. Then, they would be filled with respect for a Master of Time. But in reality, although few cultivators were cultivating the Path of Time, it wasn't rare. Moreover, one or two Masters of Time could be born in every era. Hence, after studying the Path of Time more, other cultivators would know how to resist and deal with it, so their respect for it also became lesser.

Lord Xia Yu said, "If he is a Master of Oblivion — even the deities can't predict anything about him, then how does Realm of Star Ocean know Him?"

"What if he is a cultivator trained by Realm of Star Ocean or the Fane of Destiny?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"It's not impossible."

Gu Chenzi's expression also became serious. He said again, "The power of Oblivion may not be able to resist the deities' probe all the time. However, if it's the Fane of Destiny who hides everything about a cultivator, no matter how powerful the deities are, they can't predict or probe anything about him."

"Que will be the biggest variable in this Celestial-Hunting Festival," Zhang Ruochen said.

He had a clear feeling that the black figure was hostile to him.

In the following time, Zhang Ruochen turned on Sundial again. He tried his best to refine the wine power of the Twelve Blossoms and break the first Shackle.

He used the Path of Truth and found that the first Shackle was on his right arm.

Before he drank the Twelve Blossoms, Zhang Ruochen had taken a Fugue pill. He tried dozens of times, but failed.

He practiced in Sundial for about a year before completely absorbing the Twelve Blossoms' wine power.

He took another Fugue pill, but he still did not break the first Shackle. What was better than before was that the Shackle that had not reacted previously shook slightly.

It was a good start!

‘Next, I have to grind them slowly. Iron rods can be ground into needles. I don’t believe that I can’t break a shackle,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Under everyone’s expectations, the seventh day of the fifth month finally arrived.

The Celestial-Hunting Festival was a grand ceremony that made all Infernal Court cultivators rejoice no matter where they were. Cultivators of all clans attending the festival became a favorite conversation topic among all Infernal Court cultivators. They placed their hopes on the attendees representing the honor of all the big forces.

The representatives from Bloodsky Clan — 50 Supreme Saints and 50 Saint Kings — had already gathered together and were ready to go. They were full of vigor.

Some rode on Supreme Saint savage beasts, followed by dozens of Saint Slaves. They wore Regal-level armor, and their capes fluttered in the wind.

Some rode on Regal-level war chariots. Beside them were four beautiful female cultivators on their Sainthood.

...

Each of the guests was quite high-profile. They showed their most majestic, wealthy, and powerful side. They were high-spirited and ambitious. They wanted to compete with other forces in terms of imposing manner.

At this moment, Sevenstar Imperial Palace had become the size of a normal palace. It was carried out of Vastsea Manor by 18 Ghost Kings who had survived six tribulations.

All the cultivators of Bloodsky Clan were immediately outclassed.

“Th-That is Sevenstar Imperial Palace. It’s the palace where Wargod Bloodximius once lived. Did you see that figure sitting in the grand hall? It's Zhang Ruochen."

"My God! Wargod Bloodximius actually passed Sevenstar Imperial Palace to Zhang Ruochen. Is he the heir of the Xue Jue Family?"

...

All the cultivators of Bloodsky Clan were in an uproar.

Not many cultivators knew that Zhang Ruochen had become the owner of Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Those who knew did not publicize it. That was why it caused such a huge shock.

The next moment, Shentu Yunkong and Gaunt, who had been subdued, walked out of Sevenstar Imperial Palace one after another. They stood on both sides of the palace gate and wore guard armor.

Zhou Zhen's status was slightly higher than theirs. However, he could only wear plain clothes and stand outside the palace.

In the hall, Lian Xi and Moyin were like two handmaidens. One was as beautiful as a fairy, while the other was as seductive as a demonic concubine.

"It's one thing for 18 ghost kings — who passed six tribulations — to carry them, but they intimidate others with five Supreme Saints. Some are guards, and some are handmaidens. Aren't they afraid of being beaten to death by envious cultivators from other forces?" Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was envious at the same time.

Although Zhang Ruochen was sighted sitting in Sevenstar Imperial Palace, his consciousness entered the deity world of Wargod BloodXimius.

Wargod BloodXimius said, "The Immortal Vampire deities have agreed to let you take control of the Supreme Artifact. However, they have two conditions.

"First, you must make Immortal Vampires one of the top five in Celestial-Hunting Festival.

"Second, you must help Lady Wind get the position of Scioness."

“If you failed to achieve any, then Bloodsky Clan will bear all the responsibility. No matter what the result of the Celestial-Hunting Festival is, they will automatically be ranked last among the major ten clans and get the least resources.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Their two conditions are too harsh.”

“But I have already agreed,” said Wargod BloodXimius.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes became piercing. He held his breath for a moment and then said with a firmer determination, “I will definitely complete these two missions. I will never let Bloodsky Clan bear all of this.”

“You don’t need to achieve both. You only need to complete one mission to reach your goal.. Comparatively, the second condition they put forward is easier to complete,” said Wargod BloodXimius.

Chapter 2274: The Gate of Destiny

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The Celestial-Hunting Festival was held once every thousand years.

A banquet was held before the Celestial Hunt.

According to tradition, the location of the festival was Destiny's Creek, a river located at the foot of Mount Destiny.

If one wanted to reach Destiny's Creek, they had to pass through the Gate of Destiny first.

At this moment, outside the Gate of Destiny, a large group of cultivators from the ten clans had gathered in Tungsten Square. Saint Chariots, Bone Palanquins, Ghost Ships... They were densely parked; moreover, they were all releasing powerful Supreme Saint auras to display their strength.

The ten clans were clearly divided.

When Bloodsky Clan arrived, they attracted the attention of many cultivators.

Among them, Sevenstar Imperial Palace, carried by the eighteen Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords, was the most eye-catching. It caused the various factions to be shocked and exclaim.

Ming, Ghost Master's eighth son, said with a cold expression, "Bloodsky Clan is clearly provoking Ghosts by ordering the Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords to carry the palace. They are not afraid of being suppressed by us."

"In the past Celestial-Hunting Festivals, Bloodsky Clan suffered losses in our hands. This resulted in them being ranked last among the major ten Immortal Vampire clans and receiving the least amount of resources.

"The entire Bloodsky clan, from their deities to the low-level cultivators, has grievances against us.

"It's very normal for Wargod BloodXimius to make such arrangement," Xu smirked.

The grudge between Wargod Bloodximus and Ghost Master was well-known in Infernal Court.

Hence, Dishastan cultivators deliberately targeted Bloodsky Clan at every Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Although Ghost Master's strength was not as strong as that of Wargod Bloodximus, Dishastan's strength was far greater than that of Bloodsky Clan.

It was worth mentioning that Dishastan was ranked third among the nine Ghost Cities of the ghost clan. It was only second to Fengdu¹ and Impermanenton².

Ghost Master was the ruler of Dishastan. He ruled the 72 Netherrealm and 100,000 Ghost Planets.

Xu stared at Sevenstar Imperial Palace, "It seems that the last few Celestial-Hunting Festivals have angered Wargod Bloodximus. He's actually lost his mind and placed all his bets on Zhang Ruochen, who has made countless enemies.

"This year's Celestial-Hunting Festivals will destroy Wargod Bloodximus' reputation. Bloodsky Clan will be thrown into the abyss and continue to sink for thousands of years."

"Don't forget that Bloodsky Clan has Lord Xia Yu with strength that can make her the top ten Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators who achieved Great Perfection. I'm afraid the clan won't be as easy to deal with as before," said Ming.

"But this year, Dishastan has me."

In the past Celestial-Hunting Festivals, the top elite in Ghost Clan was either from Fengdu or Impermanenton. This year was an exception. Xu had become the top elite of Ghost Clan.

It could be said that he represented Dishastan and the entire Ghost Clan. He was the most talented and powerful existence that had stood out from millions of Ghost cultivators in the past thousand years.

...

Sevenstar Imperial Palace landed on Tungsten Square. Zhang Ruochen sat in the palace. The palace door was wide open. He could see the Gate of Destiny in the distance when he looked up.

The gate was made of tens of thousands of stellar cores. There were all kinds of runes carved on it. Some burned like lava, and some flowed with blood-red lines.

The Gate of Destiny emitted white light, forming a light curtain.

The light on the light curtain seemed to be able to travel to the past and the future. It gave people a mysterious, unfathomable feeling.

“This is the legendary Gate of Destiny!”

Lian Xi, Zhou Zhen, Yan, and Shentu Yunkong all felt like they were in a dream. In the past, they did not dare to imagine that they, as Celestial Court cultivators, would one day stand below Mount Destiny and look up at the Gate of Destiny at close range.

“Legend has it that as long as you cross the Gate of Destiny, you will be baptized by Destiny. The Precepts of Destiny will automatically be born in your body, and you will become a cultivator of the Path of Destiny.

“There are very few cultivators who are qualified to enter the gate of fate in Infernal Court. Are we going to be qualified today?”

Not only them, but all the servants, maids, relatives, and friends who came to the festival along with the attendees showed joy on their faces. They could not calm down their excitement.

Screech!

At this time, a golden Saint Chariot arrived next to Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

It emitted an elegant and charming fragrance.

Lady Wind wore a golden silk mask. Her fair skin was faintly discernible. A pair of blood-red eyes as bright as amber peeked out of her veil. She stared at Zhang Ruochen in the palace and said, “Supreme Saint Ruochen, we meet again!”

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly at her in response.

Lady Wind did not show any displeasure because of his indifference. “Supreme Saint Saint Ruochen, you are the leader of Bloodsky Clan in this festival, but you have never participated in the Immortal Vampire council for the festival. You have even rejected my invitations and visits many times. Staying aloof is bad for our cooperation at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

Zhang Ruochen admired Lady Wind’s shrewdness and character.

No matter how he treated Lady Wind, she could maintain a friendly attitude. There was no trace of dissatisfaction or hatred. She simply showed the soft and tender temperament of a woman.

However, the more this was the case, the more wary Zhang Ruochen became of Lady Wind.

A woman’s mind was difficult to read.

The mind of a powerful woman who could perfectly hide her true emotions was even more difficult to read.

Since he had agreed to Wargod Bloodximius to fulfill the two conditions given by Immortal Vampire deities, it was impossible for Zhang Ruochen to ignore Lady Wind like before.

At the very least, the two of them would work closely together at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Countless thoughts flashed through Zhang Ruochen’s mind. “It was my fault before. If you don’t mind, you can come to Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Is it too late for us to discuss now?”

Under the gaze of countless cultivators, Lady Wind walked into Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Whoosh

Dense Supreme Saint inscriptions and divine inscriptions appeared on the walls of the palace, preventing other cultivators from probing.

The cultivators from the other clans of Immortal Vampires looked angry. They felt that Lady Wind had placed too much importance and tolerance on Zhang Ruochen. She should teach someone as impudent and rude as Zhang Ruochen a lesson instead of trying to get close to him and pander to him.

Of course, they were angry because they were jealous.

All Immortal Vampires dreamed of taking the beautiful Lady Wind as their wife. However, no matter how hard they tried, Lady Wind did not spare most of them a glance.

Only the leaders of the major clans knew that Lady Wind had no choice.

They had received news that Zhang Ruochen would become the only cultivator in the Immortal Vampires to wield the Supreme Artifact. In this way, his status in the Immortal Vampires would become very important.

Although Lady Wind represented the interests of the lower three clans, Asura and Rakshasa clans competed with the Immortal Vampires for their own interests. Hence, their support for Lady Wind at the Celestial-Hunting Festival would definitely be limited.

Therefore, Lady Wind had to fight for the biggest support within the Immortal Vampires.

Zhang Ruochen had become the target she had to win over.

Lady Wind was a very attractive woman. Although she was wearing many pieces of jewelry, they didn't make her look unsophisticated. Her classy temperament and elegant demeanor would make men feel a strong desire to conquer her.

Lady Wind was tall. Her skin was as delicate as a water lily. She stood straight in the center of the hall and looked into Zhang Ruochen's eyes.

The limelight in the entire hall gathered on her.

Lian Xi was known as one of the most beautiful women in Celestial Court. She was the dream goddess of countless cultivators. However, at this moment, she felt that her limelight had been snatched away by Lady Wind. She faintly felt a sense of inferiority.

Lady Wind went straight to the point and said, “At the Celestial-Hunting Festival, I need full support from you. Our interests are tied together. No interest among cultivators is more closely related to ours.”

Zhang Ruochen put down the scroll he was reading and said, “Oh? Lady Wind thinks so highly of me, a cultivator with only half of the Immortal Vampire bloodline?”

Lady Wind’s eyes were as bright as the stars, but her tone was a little sad. She said helplessly, “Even Wargod Bloodximus thinks highly of you. How can I Look down on you? Besides, you are my only choice. Whether I’m willing or not, I have to place my hopes on you.”

Zhang Ruochen smiled. “Is that what Lady Wind says to every supporter?”

Lady Wind shook her head and said sadly, “Supporters? Who are you talking about?”

“Doesn’t Lord Bladehell count?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lady Wind said, “Qitian Clan that Lord Bladehell belongs to is ranked first among the major ten Immortal Vampire clans. Yellowsky Clan is ranked second or third. Therefore, Yellowsky Clan that I belong to is a potential competitor to Qitian Clan.”

“Even if Lord Bladehell supports me, he must first ensure that Qitian Clan is ranked above Yellowsky Clan. With this limitation, his support will be greatly reduced.”

“Supreme Saint Jin Kun of Azuresky Clan and Yue Tinghai of Puresky Clan also compete with Yellowsky Clan for the same interests.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were indifferent. He continued, “What about Mad Whitejade Lion of Stone Clan? As far as I know, his love for you has reached madness. It once said that it would be willing to be your mount.”

Lady Wind shook her head with a smile. “Regardless of whether his so-called love is true or not, he is far inferior to Bloodsky Clan in terms of strength alone. Besides, can a cultivator of Stone Clan really be completely trusted?”

“Then why should you trust me, Lady Wind?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lady Wind said, “Bloodsky Clan is ranked the bottom among the major ten clans. Even if Bloodsky Clan wins first place in the Celestial-Hunting Festival, Bloodsky Clan won’t be ranked top three and won’t pose a threat to Yellowsky Clan.

“Therefore, there is no competition between the two clans

“Second, I believe that Wargod Bloodximius, has already told you about the conditions set by the Immortal Vampire deities. Therefore, I have reason to believe that you will do your best to help me.”

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly and smiled. “Then, let me ask a selfish question. If I help you with all my might, what benefits will I get?”

This time, Lady Wind took off her golden mask, revealing her flawless face. Her red lips were moist and crystal clear, and her nose was straight and delicate. In terms of beauty, she was no less beautiful than Lord Xia Yu and Lian Xi.

She gave a stunning smile. “As long as you do your best to help me take the position of Scioness, I can marry you in a thousand years. Even if you fail the mission, and I fail to take the position of Scioness, I can still marry you.”

If other cultivators heard this, they would be ecstatic. They would want to sacrifice their lives for Lady Wind.

However, Zhang Ruochen only raised his eyelids slightly. He seemed indifferent.

He didn’t think that Lady Wind would break her promise.

He thought of what Supreme Saint Qingsheng had said, “If you can condense two Grade Two Saintwills, I’m afraid that the forces of Infernal Court who held grudge against you will have to put down their hatred... They might even want to offer their favorite daughters of their clan to you as brides...”

Zhang Ruochen hadn't broken through to Hundred-Shackle Realm yet, but he had condensed a quasi Grade Two Saintwill.

The deities of Yellowsky Clan and Lady Wind most likely knew about this. If Lady Wind failed to be the Scioness of the Fane of the Destiny, marrying Zhang Ruochen, a Supreme Saint with a Grade Two Saintwill, would be a great option.

If she succeeded in the competition and became the Scioness, she would have to give up her feelings and desires for a thousand years.

And who could say for sure what would happen after a thousand years?

Hence, Lady Wind's promise might seem alluring, but in fact, it was not at all disadvantageous for her and her clan.

It was very likely that the deities of Yellowsky Clan had set up some strategy.

“Lady Wind, are you trying to use a honey trap on me?”
Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lady Wind smiled sweetly and put on the golden mask again, “I just want to tell you, Supreme Saint Ruochen,” she said, “As long as you desire, no matter what the result is, I will be your wife. I will be your closest friend.”

“Among the three Scioness candidates, of course, you will choose your own wife to be the Scioness, right?”

After Lady Wind walked out of Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Moyin snorted coldly. “The candidates for Scioness chosen by the Fane of Destiny are just so-so. She wants to win master's support with her beauty.”

Lian Xi said, “Indeed, she is not fit to be a Scioness.”

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Lian Xi. Suddenly, she thought of something and quickly lowered her head. A sad and painful look appeared in her eyes. As a deity's daughter, she had been reduced to a handmaiden in Zhang Ruochen's harem. How could she judge Lady Wind?

How could she be qualified to be the future ruler of Soul Realm?

Zhang Ruochen had a different feeling at this moment.

As his cultivation became more profound and he proved himself with absolute strength time and time again, his voice among Immortal Vampires became more and more powerful. Now, even a peerless Supreme Saint like Lady Wind had to lower herself and flatter him.

Infernal Court was indeed a very realistic place.

As long as one was powerful, they could get everything they wanted.

Lady Wind returned to her golden Saint Chariot. Yan Beijun immediately went in to pay his respects.

The golden Saint Chariot was spacious. Lady Wind's exquisite figure stood in the center. Her fair left arms were behind her slender waist. She was in deep thought.

Yan Beijun was annoyed, his eyes cold. "Senior, you are ranked 12th on the list of Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection achievers. You are also a Scioness candidate chosen by the Fane of Destiny. Why should someone as powerful and noble as you lower yourselves to pay your respects to Zhang Ruochen, who's only in Neverwilt Realm?"

"How will other cultivators think about you?"

"Pan Ruo and Supreme Saint Yanhong are probably laughing at you in secret."

Lady Wind, standing with her back to him, said, "There are some things that you don't understand."

Yan Beijun sighed and said, "Senior, with the support of Lord Bladehell, Supreme Saint Jin Kun, and Mad Whitejade Lion, you still have a great chance to seize the position of Scioness. Why do you have to put yourself through this?"

"Although Zhang Ruochen was able to escape from the hands of Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong, it only proves that the Scion of Time and Space is skillful in escaping. That's all."

“His battle strength might not even be comparable to an ordinary warrior who achieved Great Perfection at Hundred-Shackle Realm, let alone an elite like you.”

Lady Wind turned around and stared at him with a cold gaze that Yan Beijun had never seen before. She said, “You know nothing about Zhang Ruochen. From now on, he is our closest ally. You’d better not offend him.”

Yan Beijun was frozen by Lady Wind’s gaze. He didn’t dare to speak again.

But his dissatisfaction grew stronger. He felt that Zhang Ruochen didn’t deserve such treatment. Compared to Lord Bladehell, Supreme Saint Jin Kun, and Mad Whitejade Lion, Zhang Ruochen was still far inferior.

He felt that his senior must have been blinded to make the wrong decision.

“Get Out!” said Lady Wind.

After Yan Beijun exited the golden Saint Chariot, Lady Wind sighed. “Zhang Ruochen has a demigod physique, and he has condensed a Grade Two Saintwill. Even if I become a Scioness, I may not be able to compete with him in the future.

“Zhang Ruochen may not be strong now, but he has Lord Xia Yu and a Supreme Artifact by his side. No matter what, I have to make a bet. I should not lose if I follow Wargod Bloodximius.”

Ding-dong!

Ding-dong!

...

A bell rang nine times in succession throughout the Divine Domain of Destiny.

The Gate of Destiny opened, revealing the towering outline of Mount Destiny and the Fane of Destiny. An ancient and mysterious aura surged out at all the cultivators.

The cultivators from the ten clans rode on their mounts and Saint Chariots and entered through the Gate of Destiny one after another.

Sevenstar Imperial Palace was getting closer and closer to the Gate of Destiny with the help of the eighteen Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords. A strange thought emerged in Zhang Ruochen's mind.

Looking at the Gate of Destiny, he felt like he had stood in the void space of the universe and seen Death's Door up close.

Why did he have such a feeling?

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and cleared the thoughts in his mind. He carefully comprehended the energy released by the Gate of Destiny. He wanted to know if the legend was true. Could it be that he could condense the Precepts of Destiny just by walking through the Gate of Destiny?

Was it that simple?

The moment he passed through the Gate of Destiny in Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Zhang Ruochen had yet to experience the Precepts of Destiny. However, a strange image appeared in his mind. It was as if he had seen his own fate and the future.

It was in the most luxurious hall of Xue Jue Residence. It was decorated with red lanterns, red umbrellas, and red curtains. It was a wedding night.

He was wearing a red suit. As the groom, he was standing opposite a woman wearing a veil. It seemed like they were bowing to each other.

...

The joyous scene flashed past.

It was supposed to be a happy thing, but Zhang Ruochen became gloomy. He couldn't help but clench his fingers.

He was sure that the scene he saw wasn't a man-made illusion.

On the contrary, like what he had seen in Destiny Pool, he felt a sense of familiarity from his own experience, as well as a sense of strangeness and terror.

Why would he feel familiar with something he had never experienced?

Was everything in the world really pre-destined? Had fate arranged everything?

“Was it the power of the Gate of Destiny that allowed me to see my future? The location of the marriage was in the Xue Jue Residence. Who was that woman? Lady Wind?”

Zhang Ruochen unconsciously thought of what Lady Wind had just said. The two seemed to have a causal relationship.

If Lady Wind failed to be the Scioness, and the deities of Yellowsky Clan want her to marry Zhang Ruochen, would Wargod Bloodximus agree?

Wargod would definitely agree.

Perhaps the deities of Yellowsky Clan and Bloodsky Clan had already decided everything and arranged his fate.

“In that case, Lady Wind, it’s better for you to be a Scioness.”

Zhang Ruochen hated being controlled, planned, and bound. His eyes were cold. He decided to go against his destiny and break the fate that the Gate of Destiny had shown him.

Chapter 2275: The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Destiny's Creek was located at the foot of Mount Destiny. It flowed along the mountain, and it was several hundred feet wide at its widest point. It was like a great river.

At its narrowest point, it was less than a foot wide.

Its water was crimson like blood, with rising dense mist. There was no smell of blood; instead, there was a faint fragrance like an orchid's scent, enticing people. Needless to say, the water was a drink that was even more precious than the Saint Spring.

They had yet to see the actual feast, but the spring water of Destiny's Creek had already made the eyes of the servants and maidservants who had reached the Saint realm shine. Every one of them was like mortals who had been hungry for three days and three nights, unable to restrain the desire in their hearts.

It was no wonder that Infernal Court cultivators would fight over the seats for the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Since there was a feast, of course, there was a hierarchy of seats.

Destiny's Creek was like a human's blood vessel, flowing from the highest point of the terrain all the way to the foot of Mount Destiny.

In the beginning, there was only one main stream that was hundreds of feet wide.

Not long after, the main stream split into ten, turning into ten great tributaries.

Each of the ten great tributaries was divided into ten small branches, turning into a hundred streams.

...

Just like that, one split into ten; ten split into hundred; hundred split into a thousand...

In the end, when the stream flowed to the foot of the mountain, it was actually divided into ten thousand small tributaries that were less than a foot wide.

The seats for the cultivators attending the festival were located on both sides of the stream. Some sat near the main stream, while others sat near the tributaries. The difference between the two was obvious.

The seats were divided into ten seats of honor, a hundred prime seats, a thousand secondary seats, ten third-tier seats, and a hundred thousand fourth-tier seats.

As soon as they passed through the Gate of Destiny, the cultivators from the ten clans all accelerated their speed using their own methods so they could occupy the best seats.

The ten seats of honor were the most honorable. They had the right to choose the food first. Naturally, they became the primary targets for the top Hundred-Shackle Realm elites who achieved Great Perfection.

The representative of Immortal Vampires for the seats of honor was the most powerful Lord Bladehell.

Lord Xia Yu also joined in.

Zhang Ruochen didn't deliberately fight for the ten seats of honor. The so-called "right to choose the food first" wasn't that attractive to him.

After all, each Supreme Saint attending the festival was entitled an Ampliofruit, the most precious food in the feast. Sitting on the seats of honor would at most allow him to choose the biggest one. It was insignificant.

The top elites of the ten clans would compete for ten seats of honor mainly because they wanted to display and show off their strength for fame and fortune. If a clan did not have a representative sitting on any seats of honor, the clan — from deities gods to ordinary cultivators — would be ridiculed by other clans.

The seat of honor representing the glory of the cultivators of a clan, could boost the morale of a clan's cultivators. Hence, securing it became the top priority.

Above Destiny's Creek was a Spatial Divine Mirror. The entire Infernal Court cultivators could watch everything that happened here.

Zhang Ruochen had read countless books, so he knew the Celestial-Hunting Festival well. Of course, he knew that that Spatial Divine Mirror was called the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms.

It was indeed a Divine Artifact!

Legend had it that by activating the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms, one could project the scene of the Celestial-Hunting Festival to myriad Macroworlds at the same time across layers of dimensions.

Most importantly, the Fane of Destiny would deliberately project the projection to myriad Macroworlds in Celestial Court, jokingly calling it an act of "celebrating with the Celestial Court."

Of course, all Macroworlds in the Celestial Court knew that the Celestial-Hunting Festival held once every thousand years in Infernal Court was both a show of strength and a deliberate provocation and humiliation.

Therefore, the deities of all Celestial Court Macroworlds would destroy the projection.

The common living beings in all Celestial Court Macroworlds couldn't see the grand occasion of the Celestial-Hunting Festival at all. Only a very few high-level cultivators who followed the deities had the chance to witness it.

It could be said that every time the Celestial-Hunting Festival was held in Infernal Court, the cultivators of all Celestial Court Macroworlds would gnash their teeth in hatred.

Of course, the Macroworld, which had become a Battlefield of Merits, could not destroy the projection because its deity was not present. Hence, Infernal Court and Celestial Court cultivators on the Battlefield of Merits could witness all highlights of the festival with their own eyes.

Kunlun was one of such Macroworlds.

At this moment, a huge projection appeared in the sky above the major battlefields, cities, and sects of Kunlun, covering the entire sky. The projection was like an open picture scroll of blood vessels .

Upon closer inspection, they realized that the image projected was a blood-red creek.

The cultivators of Infernal Court were rushing into the two banks of that creek at their fastest speed, fighting for the best seats.

Except for Kunlun cultivators, almost all cultivators of other Macroworlds knew about the Celestial-Hunting Festival. They had long known that the Celestial-Hunting Festival would be held today, so they were not surprised.

On the contrary, they were looking forward to the Celestial-Hunting Festival as they wanted to understand the strength of the new generation of elites in Infernal Court.

After all, the Celestial-Hunting Festival was a grand event in Infernal Court. Although Kunlun cultivators didn't know about it before, they had heard about it recently. The sudden appearance of the projection only scared ordinary people.

Many Kunlun's Eastern Region cultivators gathered at Yunwu Commandery's Royal Mountain. It had become a major force in Kunlun. Therefore, the festival was projected on the sky above there.

Blackie stood on a towering city wall outside Royal Mountain. While looking at the sky with its round and agile eyes, it said coldly, "Two months ago, we caught a Five-Tribulation Ghost Lord who claimed that Zhang Ruochen had defected to Immortal Vampires. Moreover, Zhang Ruochen was going to represent Bloodsky Clan of the Immortal Vampires in the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

"I want to see if Zhang Ruochen, the traitor, is still alive."

BZZZZZZT!

Not far from Blackie, a 30-foot-wide black hole appeared out of thin air.

Han Qiu walked out of the black hole. Her piercing eyes were like lightning. She pointed her sword at Blackie and said coldly, "If you dare to curse again, I'll cut off your cat claws."

Blackie had recovered its Supreme Sainthood, but it was still afraid of Han Qiu, the increasingly powerful Master of Darkness.

The main reason was that this highly ambitious woman had a strong desire to dominate others. She was ruthless and intelligent. She had almost dominated all forces in Royal Mountain. Countless cultivators followed her lead.

When Zhang Ruochen had summoned Han Qiu back and given her a large amount of resources, he had asked her to unite Kunlun's Eastern Region cultivators, who wanted to join him. In fact, he was preparing a way out. He wanted to support a powerful figure who could subdue and dominate all cultivators.

In this way, Kunlun's Eastern Region wouldn't be in chaos and get disunited during his absence.

Behind Han Qiu was Guardian Dragon Pavilion, which was full of talented people and elites. Hence, it wasn't difficult for her to manage Eastern Region with the aid of a scholar like Shangguan Que, who was proficient in education, and a strong and powerful elite like Yan Liren.

However, what Zhang Ruochen didn't expect was that Han Qiu had moved the headquarter of Eastern Region from Eastern Region Holy City to Royal Mountain.

Seeing the dark sword in front of him, Blackie was a little scared. "I didn't curse him," he said. "Why would I curse him?"

"I'm just angry that he didn't bring me along to Infernal Court for such an exciting trip.

"What's more annoying is that he should have told us he was safe and alive. I should be the one who's been sad for a long time.

“B*stard!”

After Blackie had recovered his Supreme Sainthood, it didn’t dare to leave Royal Mountain for fear of being discovered by Emissaries Vigilants.

Otherwise, it would have gone to Infernal Court long ago. Not only to find Zhang Ruochen but also to find Empress of Thousand Bones.

“Although he went Infernal Court, that doesn’t mean he has betrayed Kunlun. Until now, Heavenly Realm still prevaricate about what happened at Central Imperial City. They failed to give Kunlun a satisfactory explanation. However, everyone witnessed what master did in that battle. He had fought to the death for Kunlun. How many Infernal Court cultivators lost their lives to his sword?

“Even if he really joins the forces of Infernal Court, I believe that it’s either that he has no choice or there’s something he must do.”

Han Xue wore a spotless white robe. She was pure, like an immortal with graceful temperament. She stood at the edge of the city wall with Void Sword floating behind her back. Her bright and watery eyes looked at the projection in the sky.

Guardian Dragon Pavilion members, and Jin Yu and Bao Lie — the disciples of Emperor Ming — all showed up nearby.

...

Central Imperial City.

Ziwei Palace had been renovated. Although it was not as magnificent as it used to be, it had regained its majestic grandeur.

Divine Scripture Maiden, Qing Mo, and Warrior Saint Canglan stood side by side. One was elegant and graceful; one was young and tender; the other was heroic. They stood on the balcony above the clouds and looked at the projection of the sky.

“I see it! I see it! That should be Zhang Ruochen. He’s really alive.” Qing Mo clenched her hands tightly and said cheerfully.

Although Zhang Ruochen had merged with his physical body from his previous life, his appearance was still sixty to seventy percent similar to that of this life. He had not completely changed.

Divine Scripture Maiden and Warrior Saint Canglan looked at Zhang Ruochen at the same time and stared at him.

Then, they looked at each other and smiled bitterly.

They were different from Qing Mo. They thought further and deeper. It was a good thing that Zhang Ruochen survived. But now that he had joined Infernal Court, they were life and death enemies.

If Zhang Ruochen didn’t treat them as life and death enemies and just pretended to join Infernal Court, he would be in danger and could die at any time.

In this way, they hoped that Zhang Ruochen had joined Infernal Court for real.

After experiencing so much, Warrior Saint Canglan’s fiery temper had mostly subsided. Her prejudice against Zhang Ruochen had long disappeared. More than that, she admired and understood Zhang Ruochen, and even had a trace of sympathy for him.

Warrior Saint Canglan said, “Do you think that the Empress, who is now in Celestial Court, is also paying attention to the Celestial-Hunting Festival?”

Divine Scripture Maiden smiled and shook her head slightly.

The feud and enmity between the Empress and Zhang Ruochen was no longer a secret after Zhang Ruochen’s identity was completely revealed. It had long been publicized by some forces with ill intention.

Some said that Empress Chi Yao had plotted to take over her fiancé’s territory; some said that Chi Kunlun and Chi Kongyue were the children of Empress Chi Yao and Zhang Ruochen; and some said that Empress Chi Yao and Zhang Ruochen had a close relationship and they had been keeping in touch; they were not as hostile as outsiders had imagined.

There were many different opinions. The news had long spread throughout Macroworlds, as if it was intended to destroy Empress Chi Yao's reputation.

Surprisingly, Empress Chi Yao did not use divine power to block these opinions. Therefore, most cultivators guessed that these opinions were mostly true.

Some people pitied Zhang Ruochen, while others envied him.

After all, Empress Chi Yao was a female deity whose beauty could compete with Moon Goddess'. Zhang Ruochen was just a Supreme Saint, but he could share a bed with her. She was even willing to give birth to a son and a daughter for him. Who wouldn't be envious?

Divine Scripture Maiden suddenly realized something. She gazed at the sky and said, "The one behind Zhang Ruochen... is really Fairy Shadowless of Soul Realm?"

"That person really looks like her."

There was a strong light of hatred in Warrior Saint Canglan's eyes, she smiled and said, "There has long been a rumor that Zhang Ruochen has captured Fairy Shadowless, Lian Xi, and brought her to Infernal Court. She has already submitted to Zhang Ruochen and is willing to be his slave and sleep with him every day.

"Hehe, serve the cultivators of Heavenly Realm and their allies right. Zhang Ruochen has become a real man this time."

Divine Scripture Maiden frowned slightly and said, "The rumors may not be reliable."

Warrior Saint Canglan stared at her and shook his head, he said, "My silly sister, Zhang Ruochen didn't touch you. It isn't that he doesn't want to touch you, but he doesn't want to hurt you.

"However, he's a man after all. Moreover, the Lian Xi he captured is a peerless beauty, how could he let her go?

“If Zhang Ruochen acted so innocently in Infernal Court that he couldn’t even subdue an enemy, I’m afraid no cultivator would be afraid of him. He would definitely be greatly disadvantaged.

“Go ask all the cultivators from all Macroworld. How many believe that Lian Xi was still a virgin?

“Hehe, this is great. It’s really great. When I think of how Soul Realm cultivators, who see Lian Xi as a Scioness, wailing in pain, I feel so great.”

...

Yanshen’s divine plane, the Fane of Merit.

Shang Ziyan saw Lian Xi in the projected image. He was filled with agony. He couldn’t help but let out a long howl to the sky. The howl made the flames in the divine plane burn even more vigorously.

“Ziyan, control your mind. Don’t harbor demons in your heart because of this.

“Yanshen’s voice sounded in the divine plane.

Shang Ziyan couldn’t calm down. His chest rose and fell. The rage within him was so great as if it could burn the heavens. Gritting his teeth, he said, “Zhang Ruochen has been the demon in my heart for a long time.”

In Kunlun, Shang Ziyan hadn’t died at Zhang Ruochen’s hands.

Bloodbairn had kept a large amount of Shang Ziyan’s blood. Five-colored Merit Stele had preserved all of his soul fragments.

Shang Ziyan was a descendant that was highly valued by a big shot in the Heaven Realm. The big shot had sent him to the Fane of Merit to practice, intending to train him to become the future ruler of the Fane of Merit.

Now, with the help of that big shot, Shang Ziyan used his blood as the activator to forge Five-colored Merit Stele into a new body. In other words, he had the Five-colored Merit Physique.

Looking up again at Lian Xi, who was behind Zhang Ruochen, Shang Zitao wanted to cry. It was all his fault for losing to Zhang Ruochen. If he could kill Zhang Ruochen, Lian Xi would not have faced such humiliation.

It was hard to imagine how miserable and desperate she was in Infernal Court.

“Remember the humiliation and pain now. Practice hard. Next time you meet Zhang Ruochen, let him have a taste of pain.

“Today, I want you to see the projection of the Celestial-Hunting Festival so you can understand clearly how powerful the new-gen Infernal Court cultivators have become.

“Even Zhang Ruochen can’t rival them,” said Yanshen.

Chapter 2276: Contesting for Seats

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The ten seats of honor were on the left and right sides of the major stream of Destiny's Creek.

There were ten major tributaries downstream of the major stream. Each major tributary was a hundred feet wide, and there were ten prime seats on the left and right sides. In total, there were 100 seats.

Zhang Ruochen did not fight for the ten seats of honor, but he would not let go of the prime seats.

There were 300 to 400 cultivators fighting for the 100 prime seats. Their cultivation strength was very powerful. They had broken more than ninety shackles or had reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The contest for the prime seats was even more intense than the competition for the seats of honor.

Beside each chair sat several top Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints who were analyzing the restrictive inscriptions surrounding the jade stones used as the seats.

The competition for seats at the Celestial-Hunting Festival was not some combat battles. The one who cracked the restrictive inscriptions on a jade stone first could sit on it.

Once a seat was taken, other cultivators could not snatch it away.

That was why every cultivator had to make an accurate assessment of their own strength. They had to choose the seat that they were most confident of taking down and the one closest to the upstream.

If one made the wrong choice, even if they were Hundred-Shackle Realm elites who had achieved Great Perfection, they might end up sitting at the fourth-tier seats at the festival. Then they would lose their faces even before the festival began.

In this way, the one could analyze the restrictive inscriptions faster, the greater their advantage.

Zhang Ruochen appeared to be in no hurry. He came to a prime seat closest to the primary stream of Destiny's Creek. His eyes covered by Precepts of Truth emitted a dazzling light. He looked over.

He found many restrictive inscriptions in a 30-foot radius around that prime seat.

There was only one Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint of Great Perfection next to the prime seat: the Deathkin's Lord Sinluo. Zhang Ruochen had met him once in Realm of Star Ocean. At that time, Lord Sinluo stood next to Pan Ruo.

According to Luo Sha, Zhang Ruochen had killed Lord Sinluo's younger brother.

Zhang Ruochen had killed too many cultivators in Infernal Court, so he had long forgotten who Lord Sinluo's younger brother was.

Lord Sinluo sensed a cultivator approaching. He sneered in his mind. 'How dare you compete against me for this seat? Don't you know your own strength?'

When Lord Sinluo opened his eyes and saw Zhang Ruochen, he was a little surprised at first, but then he displayed a strong hostility.

"You'd better fight for other prime seats. Don't humiliate yourself," Lord Sinluo said.

Zhang Ruochen didn't leave. He said, "It's just the restrictive inscriptions of one seat. Do you need to spend that much time to analyze it?"

Lord Sinluo stared at Zhang Ruochen as if Zhang Ruochen was an idiot.

'This is one of the best prime seats. Of course, the restrictive inscriptions are powerful that even a Hundred-Shackle Realm elite who achieved Great Perfection will take some time to analyze and crack them?'

‘Zhang Ruochen is really stupid to waste time here instead of looking for another seat that suits him.

Seeing that Lord Sinluo didn’t answer, Zhang Ruochen mobilized the power of Truth to cover the 30-feet-wide space around the seat and decipher it as quickly as possible.

Half an hour later.

“300 Divine inscriptions, 30,000 Supreme-Saint level inscriptions, and 3,000,000 Saint-level inscriptions. There are 30 types of restrictions: Dimension, Darkness, Fire, Ice, Destiny... The restrictive inscriptions are overlapping with each other,” Zhang Ruochen said.

The analysis of the restrictive inscriptions was complete.

Zhang Ruochen strolled to that prime seat. When he reached the edge of 30 feet, he stretched out a hand and pressed it forward. Instantly, the restrictive inscriptions were broken.

When Zhang Ruochen took the seat, Lord Sinluo was still sitting cross-legged on the ground. He was petrified as he stared at Zhang Ruochen’s back.

‘What kind of joke is this? He has completely deciphered the restrictive inscriptions this quick?’

Lord Sinluo was ranked 21st among the Hundred-Shackle Realm elites who had achieved Great Perfection. Although he was qualified to fight for a seat of honor, he thought it would be easy to take a prime seat. Never did he expect that when he had only deciphered a quarter of restrictive inscriptions, Zhang Ruochen, a latecomer, had already secured the seat.

‘With such a speed in analyzing inscriptions, why did he come to take my seat instead of fighting for a seat of honor?’

‘He did it on purpose. Zhang Ruochen must have done it on purpose. He’s deliberately targeting me. D*mn it. I haven’t even made trouble for him, but he provoked me first.’ Lord Sinluo gnashed his teeth in hatred. He felt that Zhang Ruochen was deliberately trying to humiliate him.

This time, Zhang Ruochen had just randomly picked a seat. He really didn’t mean to target Lord Sinluo.

Seeing that Lord Sinluo was unwilling to leave for a long time, Zhang Ruochen frowned and said, “Why are you still here? If you don’t speed up, I’m afraid that all 100 seats will be taken.”

“Zhang Ruochen, don’t be so smug. It won’t be long before I settle new and old scores with you.”

Lord Sinluo grunted heavily. He knew he couldn’t waste any more time, so he quickly left and went for other seats.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t care about Lord Sinluo’s threat. He looked upstream and observed the group of Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators, who were the Great Perfection achievers, fighting for the ten seats.

After carefully identifying each of them, Zhang Ruochen shook his head. He couldn’t find a cultivator who matched the black figure practicing the Path of Oblivion.

‘Is he not a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint? Or is he not a cultivator at all?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Obviously, the higher tier the seats were, the harder it was to analyze and crack the restrictive inscriptions.

There was a total of 110 seats for the seats of honor and the prime seats. Zhang Ruochen was the first to sit. Hence, he attracted a lot of attention. Some were puzzled, some were surprised, and some were envious.

“Zhang Ruochen’s speed of analyzing the restrictive inscriptions is so fast. He could have taken a seat of honor. Why did he choose a prime seat?”

“The restrictive inscriptions for a seat of honor is much more challenging to analyze than a prime seat’s.

“Moreover, even if Zhang Ruochen can analyze the restrictive inscriptions of a seat of honor, he might not be able to break it with his Neverwilt Realm cultivation.

“In my opinion, he’s not confident. That’s why he chose the second-best seat.”

...

All the cultivators watching the Celestial-Hunting Festival were talking about Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power focused on the entire Destiny's Creek.

In order to hide their strength, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi listened to Zhang Ruochen's instructions. They didn't fight for prime seats but went further downstream for secondary seats.

Zhou Zhen, Gaunt, Shentu Yunkong, and the eighteen Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords carrying Sevenstar Imperial Palace could only go to fourth-tier seats further downstream because they were only servants.

Officially, only 10,000 cultivators attended the festival in the entire Infernal Court. There were about 1,000 attendees from each clan.

Zhang Ruochen's main focus was still on upper reaches where Hundred-Shackle Realm elites, who had achieved Great Perfection, were competing for seats of honor. After all, they were the intimidating threats in the Celestial-Hunting battlefield.

"The two cultivators next to the top two of the ten seats of honor should be Lan Ying, who's ranked second, and Yan Huangtu, who's ranked third."

One was on the left side of Destiny's Creek; the other was on the right.

One was a Divine Fetus, and the other was a peerless talent of Yanluo clan.

No cultivator dared to compete for the top two seats of honor at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Below Lan Ying was the fourth-ranked Luo Shengtian. Below Yan Huangtu was Wu Jiang, who was ranked fifth.

No cultivator dared to compete for the two seats.

However, the fight along the further spot became more intense. It was no longer an uncontested situation.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly understood obvious gaps present even among the top ten Great Perfection achievers at Hundred-Shackle Realm. Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu were the strongest. Luo Shengtian and Wu Jiang were close behind.

Behind them were Xue, Supreme Saint Yanhong, and Lord Bladehell. They were far behind the four of them. Because of this gap, no one dared to compete with them.

Three Great Perfection achievers at Hundred-Shackle Realm, including Yan and Lord Xia Yu, were competing for the four seats of honor on the left.

“It seems that Lord Xia Yu is not satisfied with my evaluation and wants to compete against Xu. Women like to take things to their hearts.”

Zhang Ruochen could see that Xu’s analyzing speed was faster than Lord Xia Yu’s.

Lord Xia Yu would most likely lose this seat contest.

“If she loses to Xu, not only will she not be able to sit in a seat of honor, she might not even get a prime seat. As the strongest elite in Bloodsky Clan, if she loses so badly, it will hurt the clan’s morale.”

Zhang Ruochen suddenly felt a little regretful. He felt that he should not have let Lord Xia Yu compete against Xu.

At that moment, the Hundred-Shackle Realm elite, the Great Perfection achiever competing against Lord Xia Yu and Xu for that seat decided to give up. He left and went downstream to get a prime seat.

If he could not win, he had to retreat.

No matter what, he had to secure a seat.

As time passed, the situation became clearer. Cultivators were sighted retreating from upstream for prime seats.

However, Lord Xia Yu was still competing against Xu.

The gap of strength between them was not big. The speed of analysis and cracking was about the same. Even if Lord Xia Yu was ahead, she was still in a narrow lead.

However, Zhang Ruochen gradually realized that Xu was deliberately toying with Lord Xia Yu. He deliberately created the illusion that she would be caught up and kept her there.

Xu was trying to give her false hope and then pushed her into the abyss of despair at the last moment.

Many cultivators saw this, but Lord Xia Yu, who was in the game, could not see through it. In her mind, Zhang Ruochen's evaluation of her being inferior to Xu kept echoing, so she kept insisting, trying to prove herself.

'Zhang Ruochen, I ain't weaker than Xu. This time, you are wrong!' Lord Xia Yu thought. She bit her red lips and took another step forward.

The seat was right in front of her, only ten feet away.

Lord Mu Yang, Lord Zhiyuan, and five other Supreme Saints less than 1,000 years old also attended the Celestial-Hunting Festival. However, their cultivation had exceeded Hundred-Shackle Realm, so their feast was not held at Destiny's Creek but in a Divine Bone Pagoda above it. From the pagoda, they could look over the entire Destiny's Creek.

"Xu's speed of analyzing the restrictive inscriptions is much faster than Lord Xia Yu's. But he deliberately slowed down his speed. It's obvious that he's teasing her." Lord Zhiyuan was very angry as he clenched his fists tightly.

Every time at the Celestial-Hunting Festival, Dishastan would target Bloodsky Clan. The two forces had already formed a deep hatred.

"Lord Xia Yu is the top warrior of Bloodsky Clan. If she is defeated now, not only will her state of mind be affected, but it will also affect the morale of the entire Bloodsky Clan.

"Should I remind her?

"Even if she can't secure a seat of honor, she should at least get herself a prime seat," Empress Xiyan said.

Heavenly Lord MUYANG shook his head gently and said, "Lord Xia Yu is stubborn. As long as she is set on something, no one can change her mind."

“I don’t think so. I think her opinion of Zhang Ruochen has changed significantly,” Lord of Spear said.

Lord Mu Yang was stunned for a moment. Then he smiled. “Then send Zhang Ruochen a message telling him to remind Lord Xia Yu. Maybe he can change Lord Xia Yu’s mind...”

“Look! What is Zhang Ruochen doing?” Lord of Spear exclaimed.

Lord Mu Yang, Lord Zhiyuan, and others stared at Zhang Ruochen.

Chapter 2277: Seats of Honor

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

After entering the Gate of Destiny, Zhang Ruochen had Moyin transform into a Saint Devourer and flew back into his body. Now, he was alone with Lian Xi.

During the festival, the attendees who were Supreme Saints could bring along a maidservant or servant with them to serve them at any time.

The Celestial-Hunting Festival was grand. 5,000 Supreme Saints and 5,000 top-tier Saint Kings were gathered, and they were all no older than 1,000 years old. Such a stunning event was extremely rare in Celestial Court.

There were Ghost Emperors, Supreme Saints from Bone Clan, and Deathkin's powerful figures emitting the death aura. Even though Lian Xi knew that she was in Infernal Court, she was still very shocked.

She didn't dare to imagine what would happen to her without Zhang Ruochen's protection.

'Infernal Court was too powerful. Celestial Court hasn't had so many Supreme Saints in the last 1,000 years. And these are just part of the total in Infernal Court. There more of them.' A deep sense of powerlessness welled up in Bright Xi's heart.

She finally understood why Celestial Court had been at a disadvantage in the Battles of Merits for the past 100,000 years. They could only be under attack.

'I wonder if Celestial Court cultivators who watched the Celestial-Hunting Festival feel the same way? If this continues, the gap between Celestial Court and Infernal Court will grow larger and larger. I'm afraid...'

Lian Xi didn't dare to think further. She felt at loss.

"Lian Xi, stay here. I'll be back soon."

Zhang Ruochen stood up at this moment and walked up Destiny's Creek.

Lian Xi stared at Zhang Ruochen's tall and straight figure. She was puzzled. 'What is he up to?' This question popped up in her mind. Then, her thoughts returned to where they had been. 'The elites among Infernal Court Supreme Saints and the forces they represent are way too many. Can an outsider like Zhang Ruochen really make a difference at the Celestial-Hunting Festival,' she thought.

Although she had already become a spiritual power Supreme Saint, she felt extremely inferior in the face of the elites attending the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

She felt like a weak girl who couldn't fight back. She was surrounded by thousands of burly men. Her heart was filled with despair, helplessness, inferiority, and fear.

However, Zhang Ruochen could stand in front of her by himself. The burly men didn't dare to act rashly.

This planted a subtle seed in her heart.

When Zhang Ruochen was walking upstream, Lord of Spear, Lord Mu Yang, and the others were looking at him. They were all very surprised.

'Did Zhang Ruochen feel regret and is targeting a seat of honor instead?' they guessed.

However, it was too late to go now, no matter how fast his analytic speed was.

The contest for the seats was coming to an end.

Beside the fourth seat of honor on the left, Lord Xia Yu and Xu were less than ten feet away from each other. They were only five or six steps away from each other.

"It's about time. There's no need to continue toying with her."

Xu smirked in triumph. He no longer held back.

One step, two steps, three steps.

He took three consecutive steps and completely widened the distance between him and Lord Xia Yu.

"What? How-How is this possible?"

Lord Xia Yu stared at Xu in disbelief as she took a step forward with all her strength. However, because the restrictive inscriptions within this step had yet to be completely resolved, she was attacked by a Dimensional restrictive inscription the moment she took a step forward; her arm was struck by a Dimensional Rift.

Bright red blood dripped from her arm.

She did not dare to advance any further.

“Xia Yu, your strength is already very strong. However, you shouldn’t have come to compete against me. Why are you bringing shame on yourself?” Xu said.

How could Lord Xia Yu not know that Xu had toyed with her? Intense rage surged out from her pair of bright eyes. She almost could not control her anger and wanted to strike at Xu.

“You can’t take it anymore?”

“You must restrain yourself. You’re the only worthy opponent in Bloodsky Clan. If you’re expelled from the Celestial-Hunting Festival, what’s the point of Dishastan hunting Bloodsky Clan this year?”

Xu laughed.

He liked to watch other cultivators unable to do anything to him even though they hated him to the core.

Lord Xia Yu did not dare to break the rules of the Celestial-Hunting Festival. She had to restrain herself and look down the river.

“Stop looking and go down the river. You can forget seats of honor and prime seats. Perhaps you can try a secondary seat.”

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen came to Lord Xia Yu’s side. He stretched out a hand and said, “Give me your hand.”

“Why are you here?”

Lord Xia Yu was very surprised, but she understood Zhang Ruochen’s terrifying speed of analysis. She decisively reached out a fair hand and held his hand tight.

The next moment, Lord Xia Yu found that there were a lot of Marks of Time around her, and the time flow slowed down.

At the same time, she found that there were Precepts of Truth flowing from Zhang Ruochen's palm into her body and converging into her eyes. Her eyes seemed to have become the eyes of truth, and she could quickly see the distribution of the restrictive inscriptions.

Although Zhang Ruochen's appearance surprised Xu, Xu did not take it to heart.

He was only two steps away from the seat.

It was a foregone conclusion that he would occupy the seat.

He took another step and looked at the seat of honor in front of him with a satisfied smile.

However, his smile soon froze. He looked to the left and saw Lord Xia Yu and Zhang Ruochen standing next to him. They were only one step away from that seat.

‘How can they be this fast?’

The shock in his heart could not be any greater.

At this moment, the Celestial-Hunting Festival attendees as well as the cultivators watching the projection were in an uproar.

Nothing like this had ever happened in the Celestial-Hunting Festival. ‘Zhang Ruochen still has the ability to help other cultivators fight for seats?’

Everyone knew that the closer you reach the seat, the harder it was for you to crack the restrictive inscriptions. Therefore, although there was a huge difference in the cultivation strength among the attendees at the Celestial-Hunting Festival, the difference in the time they sat down was not big.

Hence, it was almost impossible for a cultivator to help another secure a seat.

Zhang Ruochen could help Lord Xia Yu because he had mastered the power of Time and Truth. He had practiced both Paths of cultivation to a very high level simultaneously.

If it were other cultivators, even if they were as powerful as Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu, they could only give limited aid to their fellow cultivators in the contest for seats.

Above Destiny's Creek, in the Divine Bone Pagoda, a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint from Dishastan said, "Cheating. This is cheating. Zhang Ruochen has broken the rules of the Celestial-Hunting Festival. He must be expelled from the venue."

Lord Zhiyuan snorted, "The Celestial-Hunting Festival has never set any rules. None of the rules says you can't help your fellow cultivators secure seats. How can it be considered a violation?"

"The deities are all paying attention to the Celestial-Hunting Festival. They haven't said anything. This means that Zhang Ruochen hasn't breached any rules," Lord of Spear said.

The several Supreme Saints of Bloodsky Clan were overjoyed. If Zhang Ruochen succeeds in helping Lord Xia Yu take a seat of honor, Dishastan will certainly lose face.

This was what Lord of Spear and his peers wanted to see the most!

As expected, Lord Xia Yu took the last step and sat on the fourth seat of honor on the left.

Whoosh!!

The white jade platform emitted a dazzling light and enveloped her. The word "Xia Yu" appeared on the jade platform.

Xu, who was only one step away, was stunned and couldn't accept this result.

He had wanted to tease Lord Xia Yu to lower Bloodsky Clan's morale, but he hadn't expected such an outcome.

Lord Xia Yu let out a long sigh of relief. She quickly withdrew her hand from Zhang Ruochen's grasp and glared at him. However, there was no anger in her eyes. She was just pretending to be angry.

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had done something she couldn't tolerate in front of all the cultivators in Infernal Court. Although he was helping her to get a seat, their action was too intimate and could easily spark gossip.

Just like Pan Ruo and Lady Wind, they would never let other male cultivators hold their hands. They were candidates for Scioness. Such a thing would affect their image.

Xu's state of mind almost collapsed. He gnashed his teeth and glared at Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu, who looked like an affectionate, flirting couple. He cupped his hands, bowed to the Fane of Destiny on the top of Mount Destiny, and raised his voice, "Zhang Ruochen and Xia Yu have violated the rules of the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Please expel them."

During the Celestial-Hunting Festival, the deities of all clans in Infernal Court would gather at the Fane of Destiny and enjoy a feast.

After a long time, the Fane of Destiny did not respond.

Lord Xia Yu sneered. "Stop shouting and go downstream. Forget about seats of honor and prime seats. If you don't hurry up, you won't even secure a secondary seat."

Xu was so angry that his lips trembled. "Don't get cocky too early. We'll see." His tone was harsh.

Xu rushed downstream.

Lord Xia Yu went to see Zhang Ruochen again, but found that he had left without a word and returned downstream.

She muttered to herself, "All I did was just glare at you. Don't tell me you're angry over a glare?"

"There're so many cultivators staring at us. I can't act like I'm cooperating with you. Cultivators who don't know the situation might think that we're related.

"Anyway, thank you!"

Regardless of whether Zhang Ruochen could hear her or not, she still said this.

Thinking of how she had been humiliated and Zhang Ruochen suddenly helped her and turned the tables, Lord Xia Yu couldn't help but smile. Her smile could wrap around others like a warm glove.

At Destiny's Creek, Pan Ruo and Luo Sha looked at Lord Xia Yu unconsciously and saw the smile on her face.

Pan Ruo quickly averted her gaze, lowered her eyes, and remained silent. No one could see through what she was thinking.

Luo Sha, on the other hand, revealed an angry expression and muttered something.

Holding hands in public at the Celestial-Hunting Festival was indeed too intimate an act. Moreover, Lord Xia Yu's beauty was no less than that of the nine immortals. So, the scene would naturally trigger speculations about the relationships between her and Zhang Ruochen.

In Royal Mountain.

"Tsk tsk." Blackie pointed at the projection in the sky with its claws and spoke to Han Xue, "Did you see that b*stard? Did you see that? You even said that maybe he was out of options or there's something he must do. In my opinion, he has already become a traitor. He must've enjoyed a blissful life there and long forgotten about Kunlun.

"He suffered losses from women back then, so he'd definitely seek revenge until he's satisfied at Infernal Court.

"I also want to go to Infernal Court. I can't let him continue to fall."

Central Imperial City, Ziwei Palace.

Warrior Saint Canglan slammed her palm heavily on the stone platform, she snorted coldly. "It seems that I'm overthinking. Zhang Ruochen is a b*stard. He isn't in any danger. He's doing too well in Infernal Court that he still has the mood to flirt."

Divine Scripture Maiden stared at Lord Xia Yu. Her bright eyes showed a hint of envy and gloom. She said in a low voice, “I didn’t expect the Immortal Vampires to have such a beautiful woman. She must be very powerful to be able to sit in the seat of honor.”

All of a sudden, Warrior Saint Canglan became serious. “Do you think Zhang Ruochen has really joined Infernal Court?”

Divine Scripture Maiden shook her head gently and did not answer Warrior Saint Canglan.

Chapter 2278: A Duel

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The battle for the seating ended quickly.

As expected, the ten seats of honor were occupied by the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints who were ranked in the top ten on the list of those who attained the Great Perfection stage. The only variable was that Lord Xia Yu claimed the seat that should have belonged to Xu.

However, that was only with Zhang Ruochen's help.

From this, it could be seen that the ranking created by the Realm of Star Ocean was accurate. The top 10 elites were obviously stronger than the Supreme Saints who attained the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Zhang Ruochen sat at the top of the main seat by Destiny's Creek. In front of him was a jade table.

There was a bony tripod cup and a jade plate on the table.

In front of him was a large tributary of Destiny's Creek which was 30 meters wide. The water current was rapid, and the fog was hazy. Zhang Ruochen was surprised to find that the cultivator sitting across from him was Lord Sinluo across the fog.

At that moment, Lord Sinluo was staring at Zhang Ruochen with extreme coldness.

Zhang Ruochen ignored Lord Sinluo and looked at the flowing Destiny's Creek. He fills up the bony tripod cup from the creek via a portal.

Destiny's Creek flowed from Mount Destiny. It was like blood-red amber and more fragrant than the holy spring. It was one of the most mystical and precious drinks in the entire universe. In the outside world, no amount of saint stones could buy it.

Zhang Ruochen drank it in one cup and felt it carefully.

The creek water was cool and sweet. It was instantly digested when it entered the stomach. It scattered like silk all over the body, fusing with the blood, bones, Saint Soul, and Spirit.

When Zhang Ruochen passed through the Gate of Destiny, 600 Precepts of Destiny appeared in his sea of Qi and Heavenly Stream.

At that moment, 10 more Precepts of Destiny appeared after drinking one cup of the creek.

Of course, the hundreds of Precepts of Destiny were negligible compared to the cultivators who had comprehended the Path of Destiny since they were young, not to mention condensing the Gate of Destiny.

The water of Destiny's Creek can purify the physique, Saint Soul, Spirit and also benefit the cultivators who cultivate the Path of Destiny,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

The Celestial-Hunting Festival was to nurture the most top-notch power for the future of the Infernal Court.

Those highly talented cultivators in the Celestial Court had to cultivate the Path of Truth. Whereas those in the Infernal Court had to cultivate the Path of Destiny.

It could be said that almost every one of the 10,000 cultivators from the ten clans who attended the festival had cultivated the Path of Destiny and reached a very high level.

Otherwise, when cultivators of the same realm in the Celestial Court displayed the Path of Truth, their attack power would instantly increase several times. The cultivators of the Path of Destiny wouldn't be able to withstand it at all.

Of course, mastering the Path of Truth or the Path of Destiny didn't necessarily mean that they were invincible.

This was because it would take a very long time to integrate the Path of Truth and the Path of Destiny into one's own saint techniques.

The power was strong, but the outburst was slow.

Many times, when you meet an evenly matched opponent, you might not have the time to mobilize the Path of Truth or the Path of Destiny. Only by cultivating the Realm-frame of Truth and the Gate of Destiny could you shorten the time to fuse them and gain a greater advantage.

Of course, even if you had the Realm-frame of Truth and the Gate of Destiny, it would still take a long time. As long as the opponent was fast enough, they could suppress you, you wouldn't have time to unleash the power of the Path of Truth and the Path of Destiny.

The other seven Path of the Ancients could restrain them to a certain extent.

Path of Dimension could tear apart the Realm-frame of Truth and the Gate of Destiny.

Path of Time could prevent you from using the Realm-frame of Truth and the Gate of Destiny.

Path of Darkness could devour the Realm-frame of Truth and the Gate of Destiny.

...

Apart from the Path of the Ancients, if the Path of Flowing Light of the 72 Paths of Supreme Saint was cultivated to a profound level, it would be able to suppress them even if it was fast enough.

This was why no path could be absolute.

If one cultivated the Path of Dimension to the infinite level and the Path of Time to the eternal level, even the Path of Destiny and the Path of Oblivion wouldn't be able to shake them. Even the most powerful god wouldn't be able to reach such an extreme level.

Therefore, the strength of a cultivator depended on their realm attained.

As long as a Master of Darkness who cultivated the Path of Darkness to an intermediate level, he could easily slay the cultivators who cultivated the Path of Destiny and the Path of Truth in the same realm.

Whoosh

Along the creek, a Stone Clan cultivator at the Saint King realm drank a large amount of water from the creek. Specks of light appeared behind him and condensed into a gate of light. They turned into a Gate of Destiny gradually.

“I’ve succeeded! I’ve finally condensed the Gate of Destiny. Haha, My battle strength will once again increase by a large margin. As expected of the Destiny’s Creek—the spring of foundation of the Fane of Destiny,” The Stone Clan cultivator laughed loudly.

All the cultivators were agitated after that. They absorbed the water at a faster speed.

The water could only be drunk at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. It couldn’t be taken away.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Lian Xi beside him.

Although Lian Xi’s expression was calm, there was still a hint of interest and curiosity in her eyes. She would look at Destiny’s Creek from time to time. However, she was only a maid and was not qualified to take the initiative to drink from the creek.

Zhang Ruochen waved to her and said, “Come here.”

Lian Xi looked up at the divine mirror in the sky. In the end, she walked over helplessly.

Lian Xi knew that her every move must be watched by countless cultivators of the Celestial Court. However, with her current status, she had to bow to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen threw the bony tripod cup to Lian Xi and said, “Go fill the cup with creek water and feed me.”

Lian Xi took the bony tripod cup and stared at him coldly. She didn’t do as he said.

This was too much.

If it was in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Lian Xi would just obey, but this was the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

At that moment, many cultivators of the Infernal Court at the festival noticed what took place. They smiled playfully and stared at Zhang Ruochen.

“Zhang Ruochen really knows how to enjoy himself. He actually asked Fairy Shadowless to feed him at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Isn’t he afraid of being attacked by the cultivators of the Celestial Court?”

“There are countless admirers of Fairy Shadowless in the Celestial Court. Zhang Ruochen is truly fearless.”

“The god of the Soul Realm must be watching the Celestial-Hunting Festival. I wonder if he’ll be so angry that blood will spurt out of his eyes, ears, nose, and mouth? Haha!”

...

Luo Sha felt that Zhang Ruochen was behaving abnormally. She believed that there was a reason for his action.

Was Zhang Ruochen forcing Lian Xi to completely submit to him and never return to Celestial Court?

Or was Zhang Ruochen trying to tell the gods of the Infernal Court that he had completely regarded himself as a member of the Infernal Court and didn’t care what the Celestial Court thought of him?

Or was it just an act of revenge?

“Is this guy really not planning to return to the Celestial Court?” Luo Sha frowned and wondered. She always felt that Zhang Ruochen was staying in the Infernal Court for another reason and didn’t join them wholeheartedly.

Zhang Ruochen saw Lian Xi did not move and only glared at him angrily. His face turned cold and said calmly, “As a servant girl, you actually disobeyed your master. How dare you, Lian Xi. Kneel!”

“A Supreme Saint must not be humiliated,” Lian Xi said defiantly.

In fact, Lian Xi felt extremely wronged and wanted to die. However, every time she thought of dying, Zhang Ruochen’s words would ring in her mind, ‘Those with a divine heart will never be defeated.’

Sometimes, Lian Xi wondered if Zhang Ruochen had said this to her on purpose to prevent her from committing suicide.

“It seems that I have spoiled you too much in the past. I haven’t taught you enough,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen pointed at Lian Xi. Suddenly, a vigorous Power of Dimension pressed down on her slender body, making her tremble.

Lian Xi resisted for a moment, then her slender legs knelt down.

Lian Xi couldn’t resist at all!

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were cold and emotionless the whole time.

The entire Destiny’s Creek was filled with noise.

“Zhang Ruochen is deliberately provoking the Celestial Court and the Soul Realm. Hehe, who knows how many cultivators will be angered.”

“Who said that Zhang Ruochen is a spy sent by the Celestial Court to the Infernal Court? Based on what he did today, he would definitely die when he returned. Would the god of the Soul Realm let him go? Couldn’t the magnates of the Celestial Court see that he was deliberately humiliating the Celestial Court? Even Moon Goddess couldn’t protect him.”

“In my opinion, Zhang Ruochen is trying to prove himself and telling the gods of the Infernal Court of his determination. Otherwise, he would never be able to enter the core level of the Infernal Court. Back then, the Great God Huang Tian wasn’t as smart as Zhang Ruochen. So, no matter how talented Great God Huang Tian was, even when he ascended to godhood, he was always ostracized and marginalized. It wasn’t until he killed his master, Ancient Buddha Yuan Xu, that he proved himself.”

...

There was no lack of genius present who thought they had seen through Zhang Ruochen’s intentions. They were all speaking with confidence.

Yan Wushen sat in the highest seat of another large branch. He stared at Zhang Ruochen from afar. Yan Wushen smiled, he picked up the tripod cup and took another sip.

Yan Wushen had long guessed that Zhang Ruochen would definitely perform well at the Celestial-Hunting Festival and prove himself to the gods.

However, Yan Wushen did not expect that Zhang Ruochen would destroy his own reputation by doing such a despicable thing.

If Zhang Ruochen bullied a woman, he would definitely be despised by all the cultivators of the Celestial Court, including his former friends.

Although it's despicable, being a despised scum is more reassuring to the gods. A bad move, a really bad move.' Yan Wushen thought. He shook his head slightly, but thinking about it carefully, he felt that there was no other way for Zhang Ruochen other than self-destruction.

It was too difficult to deceive the gods.

But by self-destruction, even if the gods in the Infernal Court knew that Zhang Ruochen did it on purpose, they could still accept him. Because he couldn't go back, there was no place for him in Celestial Court. He could only stay in the Infernal Court from now on.

Lord Sinluo sitting across from Zhang Ruochen sighed and said, "Fairy Shadowless, how come you met such a master who doesn't know how to take care of women? Why don't you join me? I won't make you my slave."

Lian Xi stared at Lord Sinluo sitting across from the creek. She didn't say a word. She just silently endured Zhang Ruochen's suppression.

Zhang Ruochen stared coldly at Lord Sinluo and said, "You want to steal my servant? Do you have a death wish?"

Lord Sinluo's eyes were even colder, but he quickly retracted them. He smiled and said, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, you are so mighty. I wouldn't dare steal from you. However, there is an interesting segment at the Celestial-Hunting Festival called the duel.”

“Duel?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Sinluo said, “To us, the Ampliofruit is the most precious treasure at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

“But the Ampliofruit is too precious. Each Supreme Saint can only get one. What can we do if we want to eat more? We can only duel and win other people’s Ampliofruits.

“If you win, you get the prize. If you lose, you have to give the prize.

“The prize is the Ampliofruit.

“What I knew was, in the previous Celestial-Hunting Festival, there was a Supreme Saint who won eight Ampliofruits and enjoyed nine alone. He instantly increased his Precepts by 900 million and his lifespan by 27,000 years.

“There was also a Saint King cultivator who won four Altofruits and enjoyed five alone. He instantly cultivated five types of Path to the Great Perfection stage.

“This is the joy of the festival. I wonder if Supreme Saint Ruochen is willing to duel with me?”

Be it the Ampliofruit or the Altofruit, they were both the main dishes of the Celestial-Hunting Festival. They were many times more precious than the water from Destiny’s creek.

The Ampliofruit could instantly increase the Precepts by 100 million. It could also increase a cultivator’s lifespan by 3,000 years. It could help a cultivator cultivate high-level saint techniques at the fastest speed.

It was a treasure that all Supreme Saints below the Thousand-Koan Realm dreamed of.

Because it was precious enough, no Supreme Saint dared to take it out for a duel. If they lost, even a Supreme Saint would probably cry.

Lady Wind’s voice rang in Zhang Ruochen’s ears. “Don’t fight with him. Be careful. Normally, the duel at the Celestial-Hunting Festival is between the weak and the strong.

“First, it’s to win the Ampliofruit. Second, it’s to become famous by stepping on the strong.

“Lord Sinluo’s cultivation is far higher than yours, but he’s fighting with you. He’s bullying you because you don’t know the rules of the duel. If you’re impulsive, you’ll play right into his hands.

“You have to know that the rules of duel are proposed by the challenger. It doesn’t have to be a battle. It can be chess, painting, the challenge of speed, or sword moves...

“Once you agree with him, he will definitely use what he is best at to fight with you.

“So, among 10,000 cultivators at the Celestial-Hunting Festival who will agree to duel can be counted with one hand.

“The Supreme Saint who won eight matches is now the world-shaking Sword God Feng Chen. He is a miracle-like existence. He is known as the most perfect cultivator in the last millennium. He has no shortcomings and is the strongest in every aspect. He can learn anything as soon as he learns it.”

As Zhang Ruochen listened to Lady Wind’s voice, Lord Sinluo spoke again. He teased, “Are you afraid, Supreme Saint Ruochen? Don’t worry, I don’t want your Ampliofruit. If you lose, just give me Fairy Shadowless.”

“So you like her,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen lifted Lian Xi’s snow-white chin with his finger. Then he stared at her jade-white face and said, “Okay, I agree to duel with you.”

Lord Sinluo was overjoyed.

But fear appeared in Lian Xi’s eyes.

It was not easy to stay by Zhang Ruochen’s side, but it was obvious that it would be even worse to fall into the hands of Lord Sinluo. Was this her fate?

She was angry and desperate.

She was angry that Zhang Ruochen was too heartless.

She was desperate that if Lord Sinluo really won over her, she felt that she would not be able to hold on and would choose to end her own life. What indomitable spirit? What is the heart of becoming a god? Zhang Ruochen was deliberately scheming against her.

The Celestial-Hunting Festival was heating up once more. All the cultivators were excited and ready to watch a good show.

Zhang Ruochen changed the topic and said, "But what's the point of only betting on one Ampliofruit? If you want to bet, I'll bet three with you."

"If Fairy Shadowless is a virgin, it doesn't matter. But she's already your woman. How can she be worth three Ampliofruits?" Lord Sinluo laughed mockingly.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Of course, she's only worth one Ampliofruit. But I still have one."

"There are only two," Lord Sinluo said.

Zhang Ruochen looked down and locked onto Xue Tu. He pointed and said, "Xue Tu is my junior brother apprentice. He'll help me with one."

Xue Tu had been watching the show. He thought that Zhang Ruochen would definitely suffer at the hands of Lord Sinluo. He laughed inwardly.

He had been tricked by Zhang Ruochen many times. He really wanted to see how Zhang Ruochen would be tricked as well.

Xue Tu felt as if he had been struck by lightning. His face lost all color.. It really was a disaster from heaven.

Chapter 2279: Archery

There were only 5,000 Ampliofruits and Altofruits in the entire universe.

They took root and sprouted in 500 years, and took another 500 years to blossom and mature.

After one consumes the fruit at the Celestial-Hunting Festival, one can replant the seed. Only after 1,000 years could another 5,000 of the fruits grow out.

Whoosh

In the upper reaches of Destiny's Creek, the banquet food was placed among the sacred flowers and floated down along the current.

The first dish was Ampliofruit.

The Ampliofruit looked like a ball-shaped jade bead. It was sparkling and dripping, and the fragrance of the fruit was overflowing. It glittered in the sacred flower, and the precepts of heaven and earth naturally revolved around it, forming a vortex that could not be seen by the naked eye.

"I can finally taste the legendary Ampliofruit. I hope that I can use it to cultivate the star-slaying saber technique to great success."

"Will my vitality add 3,000 years more after I eat it? Then I will have more time than other cultivators to break into the Divine Realm in the future."

"Adding 100 million precepts in an instant will improve my cultivation greatly."

...

All the Supreme Saints looked over. Their eyes were burning like fire, and their hearts were filled with anticipation.

The ten seats of honor at the most upper reaches of the river quickly picked out the ten highest quality Ampliofruits.

Then, the Ampliofruits flowed along with the current and entered the 10 main creeks, then the fruit came to Zhang Ruochen.

“Keep.”

With a wave of his hand, Zhang Ruochen used his Saint Qi to take the two saint flowers containing the Ampliofruit and flew to the jade table.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the pale-faced Xue Tu and said, “Junior Brother, I’ll keep this Ampliofruit for you first. I’ll return it to you after the duel. Any objection?”

Of course, Xue Tu had objections.

Zhang Ruochen agreeing to duel with Lord Sinluo was no different from giving away the Ampliofruit for free.

‘Arrogant, imperious, and blindly confident. Zhang Ruochen, you’re courting death. Why did you bring me along? Who did I offend? I just want to eat an Ampliofruit at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. My 3,000 years of vitality... sigh... ‘

Xue Tu thought of Zhang Ruochen’s peerless cultivation, and his remaining will to resist also disappeared. He could only swallow his anger.

Xue Tu could only regard that he had fed the Ampliofruit to dogs.

Some of the Supreme Saints next to Xue Tu looked at him sympathetically, while others mocked him mercilessly. They all thought that Xue Tu had met with an unexpected disaster. He had been tricked too miserably by Zhang Ruochen this time.

Lord Sinluo was a top-tier superior of the Deathkin. He had great influence. After promising benefits to the two Deathkin Supreme Saints, he had successfully collected three Ampliofruits.

In the eyes of all cultivators, Lord Sinluo was bound to win. Naturally, the two Supreme Saints of the Deathkin also thought so.

That was why they were willing to do Lord Sinluo a favor.

The battle between Lord Sinluo and Zhang Ruochen attracted the attention of all cultivators. Many of them were talking about it, while some were sneering, thinking that Zhang Ruochen would suffer a double loss.

“Zhang Ruochen doesn’t understand the rules of the Celestial-Hunting Festival, does he? How dare he agree to the duel with Lord Sinluo? Does he think that the duel is a competition of combat power?”

“Lord Sinluo is the third strongest among the Deathkin. Even if it’s a competition of combat power, Zhang Ruochen is still far from it.”

“Zhang Ruochen’s talent may be at the top level, but he’s too confident. Only the courage of a boorish man can make a big difference. In comparison, Yan Wushen is brave and resourceful. The gap between the two was tremendous.”

...

Gu Chenzi, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Supreme Saint Xueqi, Lord Xia Yu, and even Luo Sha all secretly transmitted their voices to Zhang Ruochen. They told him the rules of the duel and advised him not to agree. However, Zhang Ruochen ignored them and showed a determined attitude.

Lady Wind was even more confused. After all, she had already told Zhang Ruochen the rules of the duel.

No matter how impulsive Zhang Ruochen was, he shouldn’t have done it knowing that he would lose, right?

Lord Sinluo smiled brightly and said, “I admire your courage, Supreme Saint Ruochen! However, you have to understand that the way of the duel is decided by the challenger.”

Lord Sinluo paused deliberately. He thought that Zhang Ruochen would be shocked and even go back on his words. If that was the case, he would naturally have other means to make Zhang Ruochen lose face, and he would have to continue to compete with him.

Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen’s expression remained unchanged. He just quietly waited for Lord Sinluo to continue.

This made Lord Sinluo tense up. He felt that it was very unusual. Thinking that he would never lose and he calmed himself down again.

“For this duel, let’s compete in Archery.”

Lord Sinluo took out a stringless divine tree bow and it’s shaped like a dragon bone. It was about 27 meters long and emitted cold air. Clearly, it wasn’t an ordinary bow.

Gu Chenzi and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan seemed to have guessed that Lord Sinluo wanted to compete in Archery. They looked at each other and sighed. They knew that Zhang Ruochen would definitely lose.

Lord Sinluo specialized in Archery and he combined a Grade Four Archery Saintwill—Pinpoint Piercing Saintwill.

In the entire Infernal Court, Lord Sinluo could be said to be the top-notch Archery Supreme Saint below the Thousand-Koan Realm.

There were only a handful of Supreme Saints in the Thousand-Koan Realm who could compete with Lord Sinluo in archery.

On the other hand, Zhang Ruochen’s specialization had nothing to do with archery.

Besides that, there had to be a peerless bow to compete in Archery.

Lord Sinluo’s Frostwood Bow was made from the center of the trunk of a divine tree. It was the best material in the world. Moreover, it was a precious Three Element Regal Artifact. When its power was fully unleashed, it could shoot down the stars in the sky from thousands of miles away.

Did Zhang Ruochen have such a bow?

Lord Sinluo thought that victory was within his grasp, he smiled and said, “If Supreme Saint Ruochen doesn’t have a bow, I can lend you one. However, I only have one bow of the Regal Artifact-class. I can only lend you a bow of the Thousand-Inscription Sacred Artifact-class.”

“No need. I have one.”

Countless cultivators were shocked as Zhang Ruochen summoned the Azuresky Bow and the Whitesun Arrow.

Zhang Ruochen was holding the bow in one hand and the arrow in the other, then his temperament changed greatly. He was full of vigor and a strong sense of confidence.

Zhang Ruochen had been cultivating in seclusion for decades. He had read a lot of books with his Spirits, including the detailed information of every cultivator at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Only by knowing yourself and your enemy, you will never be defeated.

Zhang Ruochen even knew the rules of the duel. He had pretended not to know it just to numb Lord Sinluo. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen had expected Lord Sinluo to propose an Archery competition.

If a Supreme Saint who had cultivated Archery to the extreme could not compete with Archery, what could he compete with?

“It seems that Zhang Ruochen is not completely unprepared. The bow and arrows he took out are not ordinary Artifacts. Most of them have reached the class of a Regal Artifact.”

“With a bow and arrows, can he compete with the Lord Sinluo? Archery is not that simple.”

“Archery not only involves shooting an arrow, but also tests a cultivator’s strength, eyesight, judgment, arrow intent, and so on. These skills require long hours of cultivation with the Precepts of Archery and the Archery Saintwill to reach the most perfect level. If Zhang Ruochen has not been immersed in Archery for more than 100 years, competing with Lord Sinluo in Archery is just asking for trouble.”

Lord Sinluo didn’t think that Zhang Ruochen had a chance to win either. He walked toward Supreme Saint Yanhong with more confidence than Zhang Ruochen and said, “To be fair and just, please set a target for us, Supreme Saint Yanhong.”

Supreme Saint Yanhong belonged to the Bone Clan, which was a different clan from Lord Sinluo and Zhang Ruochen.

At the same time, Lord Sinluo supported Pan Ruo, while Zhang Ruochen supported Lady Wind, who was on the opposite side of Supreme Saint Yanhong.

It seemed fair for her to set the target, but it was actually unfair to Zhang Ruochen.

After all, Supreme Saint Yanhong had publicly said that she wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen.

Just as Supreme Saint Yanhong was about to agree, Yan Wushen stood up and laughed. He said, "Since Supreme Saint Yanhong is in such a difficult position, why don't I set a more difficult target for the two of you?"

Supreme Saint Yanhong was actually very willing to help Lord Sinluo. However, Yan Wushen had already taken the initiative to suggest it. If she refused, it would undoubtedly embarrass Yan Wushen.

There was no need to offend Yan Wushen for the sake of Lord Sinluo.

Hence, Supreme Saint Yanhong said, "Since Lord Yan is so interested, Lord Sinluo, why don't you ask him for help?"

Of course, Lord Sinluo could not refuse. He could only smile and nod at Yan Wushen.

Everyone in the Celestial and Infernal Court knew about the fight between Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen, so there was no need to worry that he would side with Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Wushen took out a translucent crystal talisman. It was about an inch long and very delicate, he said, "Both of you are Supreme Saints. A normal Archery contest would not be difficult for you. The more difficult the task, the better. The talisman in my hand is the lowest grade Interstellar Communication Talisman. The furthest distance can be traveled at an infinitely close speed to the speed of light for a day, which is about tens of billions of miles.

"Next, I will activate it and shoot it out."

"Whoever can shoot it with an arrow will be the winner."

Of course, Lord Sinluo hoped that the difficulty would be higher. However, Yan Wushen's task could not be called difficult. No Supreme Saint could do it.

"Lord Yan, once the Communication Talisman passes the acceleration stage, its speed will be completely unleashed. No arrows can catch up to it. Furthermore, no Supreme Saint can shoot an arrow tens of billions of miles away," said Lord Sinluo.

Yan Wushen said unhappily, "If an ordinary Supreme Saint can do it, why would I use it to test you?"

Lord Sinluo did not continue to say anything. After all, he was the one who suggested the duel and he was the one who elected Yan Wushen as the taskmaster. At that moment, if he continued to argue, it would only show that he was not decisive enough and did not have the courage.

Moreover, it was not that he did not have the opportunity.

As long as Lord Sinluo seized the moment when the Communication Talisman was accelerating, there was still a chance to shoot it through.

Yan Wushen said, "Forget it. Seeing that you are so reluctant, I will reduce the difficulty for you. I will shoot this Interstellar Communication Talisman towards a desolate asteroid in the sky above the Divine Domain of Destiny."

"If you can not shoot the Communication Talisman, whoever shoots through that asteroid first will win."

"Remember, shoot through, not hit."

"Besides, I won't tell you which asteroid it is. You have to judge it by your own ability."

Yan Wushen activated the Communication Talisman without any warning and shot it out.

The talisman turned into a light beam and flew to the sky.

Before most cultivators could react, Lord Sinluo and Zhang Ruochen drew their bows almost at the same time and pointed their arrows at the sky.

It could be seen that the two of them were extremely quick to react.

The Communication Talisman was too small and too fast.

Moreover, it became faster after every moment.

Lord Sinluo was indeed the top-notch Archery Supreme Saint in the Infernal Court. Almost at the moment when Yan Wushen shot out the Communication Talisman, a Divine Tree Arrow flew out at its tail.

It was as if Lord Sinluo didn't aim at all. He shot the arrow based on feeling.

After that, a smile appeared on Lord Sinluo's face. The victory was within his grasp.

"I'm far inferior to Lord Sinluo in Archery."

Zhang Ruochen had never aimed at the Communication Talisman. He couldn't do that.

Zhang Ruochen was aiming at the Divine Tree Arrow shot by Lord Sinluo.

The moment Lord Sinluo let go of the arrow, Zhang Ruochen activated The Spatial Domain and felt the space fluctuation of the Divine Tree Arrow as it flew rapidly. He then shot the Whitesun Arrow..

Chapter 2280: Spatial Wormhole Mirror

‘This arrow will definitely pierce through the Communication Talisman. I will definitely win!’ Lord Sinluo thought.

Just as Lord Sinluo thought he was winning, the Divine Tree Arrow was hit by white light and flew out diagonally.

BANG!

A moment later, there was a loud collision sound.

Lord Sinluo’s face changed again and again. He stared at Zhang Ruochen coldly and said, “Are you shooting the talisman or the arrow?”

“It doesn’t matter if you’re shooting a talisman or an arrow. You didn’t hit it, and I didn’t hit it either. So, we’re even now.” Zhang Ruochen said calmly as he summoned the Whitesun Arrow and held it in his hand again.

No matter what, Zhang Ruochen was able to hit Lord Sinluo’s arrow enough to prove that he had high attainment in Archery. He mustn’t be underestimated.

“A tie? That’s impossible.”

Lord Sinluo’s pupil turned golden. He shot out two beams of light that were dozens of feet long, staring in the direction of the Communication Talisman.

The Communication Talisman had completely burst out its speed. If Lord Sinluo shot out another Divine Tree Arrow, he would not be able to catch up.

Even the extension speed of Lord Sinluo’s spiritual power could not keep up with it. He could not detect it or lock onto it. He could only roughly estimate its flight path based on the fluctuations it left behind.

“The difficulty level has increased. Next, we’ll see which asteroid the Communication Talisman will crash into.”

Some of the Supreme Saints present released their spiritual power, some used their extraordinary eyesight, and some relied on their talent in perception to perform all sorts of tricks.

However, how could the Communication Talisman be so easy to detect?

If it was so easy, who would use it to send messages?

After a short while, most cultivators present lost their trail on the Communication Talisman.

“It’s too fast and too far. Even with Supreme Saint’s Saint Eyes, I can only see a faint shadow within a thousand miles.”

“The advantage of Lord Sinluo will be fully displayed. The red-gold mystic eyes he cultivated were not inferior to the eyes of gods. This was the most fundamental reason why he could become the number one Archery Supreme Saint below the Thousand-Koan Realm in the Infernal Court. Even if Zhang Ruochen has the eye of a demigod, he is still far from it.”

...

Zhang Ruochen’s eyesight was not weak. However, he had only tracked for 10,000 miles before the Communication Talisman disappeared from his vision.

Zhang Ruochen did not panic. He immediately snapped his fingers.

Snap!

The space on the right side of his body collapsed and a spatial mirror with a diameter of three meters appeared.

At the same time, a spatial mirror appeared where the Communication Talisman had disappeared thousands of miles away. It was shaped like a hole and flashed away.

After the spatial mirror disappeared, Zhang Ruochen immediately snapped his fingers a second time.

Snap!

The second spatial mirror appeared.

Snap!

Then came the third one.

...

Many cultivators looked puzzled. They didn't know what Zhang Ruochen was doing.

As a Master of Space, Luo Sha could roughly guess Zhang Ruochen's purpose. She said, "This is the Spatial Wormhole Mirror. It can connect two spatial coordinates in an instant. One is beside Zhang Ruochen, and the other must be near the Communication Talisman."

"Zhang Ruochen used the Spatial Wormhole Mirror to sense the trajectory of the Communication Talisman through space."

A Deathkin Supreme Saint who had lent the Ampliofruit to Lord Sinluo sneered and said, "You want to sense the Communication Talisman just by opening the spatial wormhole? Are you kidding me?"

Luo Sha stared at him mockingly and said, "It's not a spatial wormhole, it's a Spatial Wormhole Mirror. The difference between the two is that the former is a stable space passage, while the latter can only exist for a moment."

Zhang Ruochen did not draw the Dimensional Inscription. He simply snapped his fingers and accurately opened a Spatial Wormhole Mirror. This was the embodiment of cultivating the Path of Dimension to its peak.

Other Supreme Saints who cultivated the Path of Dimension might not have such attainments even if their cultivation had reached the Paramount Realm.

Perhaps only the god who cultivated the Path of Dimension could surpass Zhang Ruochen.

Luo Sha was extremely envious!

'Zhang Ruochen's attainments in the Path of Dimension have reached such a high level,' Shentu Yunkong thought. He stared at the Spatial Wormhole Mirror that kept flashing beside Zhang Ruochen and was deeply shocked again.

Shentu Yunkong, the number one genius of the Fane of Dimension in the past 10,000 years was also a Master of Space. However, compared to Zhang Ruochen, his attainments in dimension were still far behind.

Luo Sha continued, “The moment the two Spatial Wormhole Mirrors were formed, they became Zhang Ruochen’s pair of Dimensional Eyes. He could see the Communication Talisman at a close distance. Even if he could not see it, he could still sense its spatial fluctuations flying past. In addition, Zhang Ruochen’s powerful deductive and analytical abilities mean that the Communication Talisman can not escape his perception.”

The two Supreme Saints who had lent the Ampliofruit to Lord Sinluo became nervous after hearing Luo Sha’s explanation.

This duel, which was originally a huge disparity in strength, became unpredictable. Lord Sinluo was no longer certain of victory.

The pressured Lord Sinluo suddenly took out a Divine Tree Arrow and put it on the Frostwood Bow. He mobilized all his strength to pull the bow open.

Hundreds of thousands of Regal Inscriptions appeared on the bow. A terrifying chill that could freeze thousands of miles burst out.

At that moment, Yan Wushen informed the cultivators telepathically, “The Communication Talisman landed on a 70-mile-long asteroid about 300,000 miles away. All of you wait and see who can accurately shoot it and pierce through it.”

No one dared to inform Lord Sinluo or Zhang Ruochen telepathically.

After all, they were not the only ones paying attention to the duel. The Immortal Vampires and the Deathkin’s deities were also paying attention.

Who dared to show off in front of the gods?

The tense atmosphere enveloped the entire Destiny’s Creek, including the divine bone jade tower above, the Fane of Destiny on the mountaintop, and all the cultivators watching the projection of the festival.

The 70-mile-long asteroid looked very big, but it was much more difficult to shoot a sesame seed from 300,000 miles away than standing hundreds of meters away.

More importantly, it had to be shot through.

Even if with the power of a Supreme Saint flew for 300,000 miles, how much could be left?

In the eyes of most cultivators, this was impossible.

Lord Sinluo had accumulated his power to the peak and also infused the Pinpoint Piercing Saintwill into it. He loosened his fingers, and a thunderous sound rang out.

The earth shook violently.

SWOOSH

The Divine Tree Arrow flew through the air, forming a long light path.

In the Fane of Destiny, a god nodded slightly, he said, "Lord Sinluo's arrow is successful! With his talent, he might become the new god of Archery in the Infernal Court in the future. Xue Jue, it seems that your boy hasn't found his way yet?"

Wargod Bloodximus looked at Zhang Ruochen without saying a word.

Lord Sinluo was confident in this shot. At least he was sure that he had found the right target and didn't miss it. The only variable was whether the arrow could pierce through the asteroid?

But even if it couldn't, it wasn't a big deal.

Zhang Ruochen hadn't even drawn his bow. It was very likely that he hadn't found the Communication Talisman at all.

After a while, Zhang Ruochen finally figured out where the Communication Talisman hit through the spatial fluctuation.

He put the Whitesun Arrow on the Azuresky Bow and poured his Saint Qi into it.

Whoosh

Dense inscriptions appeared on the bow and arrow at the same time. They exploded with rippling powerful waves of power.

The light from the Azuresky Bow dyed the sky where Destiny's Creek was. The Whitesun Arrow was like a white sun hanging in the center of the blue sky.

When Zhang Ruochen was in the short period of seclusion, he had completely subdued the vessel spirits of the Azuresky Bow and the Whitesun Arrow. He could fully display their power.

A cultivator exclaimed, "Zhang Ruochen's bow and arrow have reached the level of Class Five Regal Artifact. Its power is far greater than Lord Sinluo's Frostwood Bow."

Supreme Saint Jinkun, a cultivator at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm in the Azuresky Clan, recognized the Azuresky Bow and the Whitesun Arrow, he said, "That was the bow and arrow of Lord Whitesun, the number one Wargod among the Azuresky Clan's Supreme Saint. Back then, with the Azuresky Bow and the Whitesun Arrow, he could shoot down stars thousands of miles away. Compared to him, Lord Sinluo is more than a hundred times weaker."

Lord Sinluo was very jealous of the Azuresky Bow and the Whitesun Arrow in Zhang Ruochen's hands. If he could get them, his combat power would definitely rise again. His ranking on the list of those who attained the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm would also be higher.

"Bows and arrows are treasures. It's a pity that they fell into the hands of someone who doesn't know the way of Archery. What a waste. Zhang Ruochen, even if you shoot your arrows, it's already too late! If you admit defeat now, I won't take your two Ampliofruits. I just want your bow and arrows," Lord Sinluo said.

"Admit defeat?"

Zhang Ruochen chuckled. He pulled the Azuresky Bow and pointed the Whitesun Arrow at Lord Sinluo.

Lord Sinluo's face changed as he was being pointed at by a Class Five Regal Artifact at such a close distance. He couldn't help but take a step back and said, "Zhang Ruochen... What do you want?"

This unexpected turn of events shocked many cultivators.

They all stood up abruptly, and their eyes became serious.

Wujiang snorted and said, "Zhang Ruochen, are you a sore loser? If you dare to shoot Lord Sinluo, I will kill you myself."

"Then I must try," said Zhang Ruochen.

Three dragons and three elephants appeared on Zhang Ruochen's arms as he pulled the Azuresky Bow to the limit. He loosened his fingers and the Whitesun Arrow turned into a white beam of light and flew out. It rushed toward Lord Sinluo's glabella with the thunderous sound.

"Such impudence!"

"Zhang Ruochen, don't be rash."

"How disrespectful!"

...

Angry shouts rang out one after another.

Who would have thought that Zhang Ruochen was so audacious that he would actually dare to kill Lord Sinluo at the Celestial-Hunting Festival?

The cultivators who were watching the projection of the Celestial-Hunting Festival were also shocked. They thought that Zhang Ruochen must have lost his mind because he couldn't afford to lose. Otherwise, how could he dare to do such a crazy thing?

"You..." said Lord Sinluo as his eyes widened. He saw the Whitesun Arrow flying toward him and he had no time to retreat. He was so scared that his legs couldn't help but tremble. He fell back.

No one could remain still when facing death.

No matter how strong one's mind was, if they were suddenly scared and lost their mental defense, they could also do something shameful.

Whoosh

Just as the Whitesun Arrow was about to pierce through Lord Sinluo's head, a Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared in front of him.

The Whitesun Arrow shot into the mirror and disappeared.

Rumble

In the sky above the Divine Domain of Destiny, the Whitesun Arrow flew out from another mirror and struck a 70-mile-long asteroid, piercing through it.

Large cracks appeared on the asteroid as it shattered and turned into rubble.

At that moment, a God controlled the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms to project the scene of the asteroid being pierced through by the Whitesun Arrow. When the Divine Tree Arrow flew over, there was only a gravel belt left.

All the cultivators were stunned by the sight of it.

Zhang Ruochen had won! He had defeated Lord Sinluo, who was known as Lord of Archery.

Even the gods who were paying attention to the Celestial-Hunting Festival found it unbelievable. Not to mention the other cultivators, they all stared at Zhang Ruochen and did not dare to underestimate him anymore.

Lord Sinluo was so scared by the Whitesun Arrow that his legs went weak. He fell to the ground as if he didn't know that he had lost all face. His eyes were fixed on the divine mirror in the sky. He couldn't believe that it was real.

"Impossible, impossible... How could Zhang Ruochen do it? I... How could I lose..."

Lady Wind's beautiful eyes gaze deeply at Zhang Ruochen. Her face under the golden mask also showed a look of shock and doubt, she thought to herself, 'This man has already predicted everything, including the fact that Lord Sinluo will compete with him in Archery. It is most likely within his expectations. Zhang Ruochen, Zhang Ruochen, it seems that I have underestimated you in the past. I only saw your cultivation talent and did not see that you have such a terrifying scheme. Lord Sinluo has suffered a great loss this time.'

Luo Sha looked at Zhang Ruochen, who was standing upright with the Azure Sky Bow in his hand, and then looked at Lord Sinluo, who was so scared that he collapsed on the ground, she secretly laughed in her heart, 'The person I have chosen should be so high-spirited.. Other Supreme Saints are far from him.'

Chapter 2281: Arm-wrestling

He defeated Lord Sinluo and shattered the stars with an arrow.

Such a halberd shocked the cultivators of Mount Destiny, Kunlun, and even Infernal Court.

Many of them were familiar with Zhang Ruochen's ability until half a year ago. At that time, Zhang Ruochen was only in Saint King Realm. No matter how powerful he was, he could only stir up situations without Supreme Saints' presence.

To a Supreme Saint, half a year was just a snap of the fingers. It was difficult for one's strength to increase greatly in such a short time.

However, under the eyes of millions of people, Zhang Ruochen used Archery to win against the famous Lord Sinluo.

Some cultivators were fascinated by Zhang Ruochen's profound methods.

Some felt that Lord Sinluo had lost too unjustly. Zhang Ruochen didn't win by using Archery. Instead, he won through shady means by using tricks from Path of Dimensional.

Others felt that Lord Sinluo had humiliated Deathkin and the entire Infernal Court. They were eager to try and challenge Zhang Ruochen.

"Lord Sinluo has caused me great loss."

The two Deathkin who had lent Ampliofruit to Lord Sinluo were ashen-faced. Even if Lord Sinluo offered something good to compensate them, it wouldn't be as good as Ampliofruit.

If they hadn't seen how miserable Lord Sinluo was, they would have fought him right now.

Zhang Ruochen took three Ampliofruit from the table in front of Lord Sinluo, "As a Supreme Saint, you can't remain calm in the face of danger. Lord Sinluo, have you never encountered a life-and-death crisis before? "With your temperament, if you continue to be invincible, you might have a chance to become a god. However, today's shot will be a nightmare you'll never forget. It will be your biggest mental weakness to become a god."

Lord Sinluo was highly embarrassed when he got up from the ground. He turned shame into anger and said, "Do you dare to fight me again?"

Zhang Ruochen looked at the five Ampliofruits on the table in front of him and said, "You have already lost all your Ampliofruits. What else can you offer to fight me?"

"I can still..."

Lord Sinluo wanted to say, "I can still acquire more." However, when he stared at the Supreme Saints of Deathkins, all of them quickly avoided him.

Zhang Ruochen was obviously a scheming person. How could Lord Sinluo defeat him?

Although Lord Sinluo was powerful, his performance today had disappointed them.

"I will continue to compete you with this Frostwood Bow," Lord Sinluo said while gritting his teeth.

Zhang Ruochen shook Azuresky Bow in his hand and said, "Your bow is too low-level. I'm not interested."

Zhang Ruochen did not really despise Lord Sinluo, he just didn't want to continue competing with him.

He could beat Lord Sinluo because he had expected that Lord Sinluo would compete with him in archery, so he was confident of winning. However, who knew what Lord Sinluo would compete with him in the next round?

Zhang Ruochen was already satisfied with five Ampliofruits. As he could increase 500 million Precepts and 15,000 years of lifespan with it.

'I've only won three from Lord Sinluo. How can there be five?

'Where did this extra one come from?

'Whatever, it's just one extra!'

Downstream.

Xue Tu was finally relieved when he saw that Zhang Ruochen had won. He let out a long sigh and laughed, “My senior is such a peerless genius. How could a mere Lord Sinluo be his match?”

He looked even happier than Zhang Ruochen.

However, when he looked at Zhang Ruochen, he found that Zhang Ruochen did not seem to have any intention of returning Ampliofruit to him. His heart could not help but thump, and he suddenly had a bad premonition.

Could Zhang Ruochen be thinking of keeping Apliofruit to pay off his debt?

Thinking of this, Xue Tu could not laugh anymore. He immediately left his seat and walked towards upstream quickly.

When he came to Zhang Ruochen’s seat, Xue Tu stared at the five Ampliofruits on the table. He swallowed and was about to speak...

A gloomy voice sounded from the other side of Destiny’s Creek, “Supreme Saint Ruochen, why don’t we have a battle? Let’s bet five Ampliofruits this time.”

Xu stood beside Lord Sinluo and lifted five saint flowers with dark Ghost Qi. Each of the saint flowers had an Ampliofruit.

There were five in total.

Because of Zhang Ruochen, Xu missed the seat of honor and could only take up a secondary seat. As someone with high status, Xu had made a fool out of himself.

If Xu wanted to save his reputation and the Ghosts’ morale, he had to severely injure Zhang Ruochen at Celestial-Hunting Festival.

This ritual battle was extremely important.

Zhang Ruochen obviously understood Xu’s intentions, he shook his head and said, “You are Ghost Master’s seventh son who’s ranked top ten in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. Aren't you afraid of being ridiculed for challenging me, a Supreme Saint who has just entered Neverwilt Realm? How about this? I'll challenge you."

During the ritual battle, the one who challenges and the one being challenged were two completely different concepts.

If Zhang Ruochen challenged Xu, then the way of the battle would be decided by Zhang Ruochen.

Xu — of course — would not agree. He chuckled.

Xu sat in Lord Sinluo's seat without asking Lord Sinluo's permission. Xu took out a giant sword from the bone ring on his finger and placed it on the jade table.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes fell on the giant sword. No matter how calm he was, there was a change in his expression.

"Where did you get this sword?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xu picked up Tripod Cup and drank a mouthful of water leisurely, "Half a year ago, I went to the Supreme Saint Battlefield of Merits outside Kunlun and met a Supreme Saint of Hundred-Shackle Realm from Guanghan. This saint sword is his saber."

"Where is he?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xu touched the sword with his fingers and smiled. "If you want to know the answer, you have to agree to fight with me."

Zhang Ruochen had seen that huge sword before.

During the battle on Mount Yueshen, Zhang Ruochen and Supreme Saint Manjian fought against the avatar of Blackheart Demonlord. This was the sword that Supreme Saint Manjian used.

Zhang Ruochen was then forced to leave Kunlun. After he went to Celestial Court with Moon Goddess, he followed Supreme Saint Manjian to cultivate in Red Dragon Domain.

At that time, Zhang Ruochen was only a saint, but Supreme Saint Manjian was all affability and condescension to Zhang Ruochen. Later, when Zhang Ruochen became Moon Goddess' emissary, the two of them even fraternized with each other.

Zhang Ruochen had faced death threats, including attempted assassinations by the cultivators of Soul Realm with Soul Holding Technique. It was Supreme Saint Manjian who had been protecting him.

In a sense, Supreme Saint Manjian was the protector that Moon goddess had arranged for Zhang Ruochen.

Now, Supreme Saint Manjian's sword had appeared in Xu's hand. How could Zhang Ruochen not be worried?

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was silent, Xu said, "You should know what will happen to Celestial Court cultivators who fall into my hands. He will either be sold as a slave, imprisoned in the ghost prison, extracted from his saint soul, or refined into Ghost Emperor soul."

Boom

Zhang Ruochen struck the jade table heavily, creating ripples of Saint Qi. But his expression remained the same.

Xu placed the five Ampliofruits on the table one by one. He smiled and said, "With your relationship with Supreme Saint Manjian, you must hate me very much. You must be very angry and want to avenge him. Unfortunately, you can't do anything at Celestial-Hunting Festival. You can only restrain yourself.

"Fight me and win all five of my Ampliofruits. This is the only way you can vent your anger."

Lord Xia Yu was worried that Zhang Ruochen got provoked and agreed. She said, "Zhang Ruochen, you are a cultivator from Infernal Court. What does the fate of a Supreme Saint from Guanghai have to do with you? You must know your identity."

Xu said, "Lord Xia Yu, what you said is wrong! People have feelings. Whether it's about Celestial Court or Infernal Court, what's the difference between Zhang Ruochen and a rock if he's without feelings?"

Zhang Ruochen had long calmed down. However, he showed anger on his face to trick Xu and said, “You’re right. You’ve really angered me this time.”

Lord Xia Yu showed an anxious look and said, “Zhang Ruochen, keep calm first...”

“Don’t mind my business. I’m calm.”

Zhang Ruochen snorted and looked at Xu again, “If you challenge me in this battle, I’ll definitely lose. Why should I agree to it? Why don’t we do it another way? Tell me what kind of fight you want, and I’ll consider it.”

Xu could see that Zhang Ruochen wasn’t in a good mood. He knew that this was the best time. Naturally, he didn’t want to miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Xu said, “I’m the strongest Ghost in Celestial-Hunting Festival. Even if we fight, I won’t take advantage of you. You have the body of a Demigod, so you must be very powerful. How about we arm wrestle?”

Arm wrestling was a contest between mortals. It was a contest of pure power.

No one had expected that Xu would choose such a simple way of fighting.

However, they soon understood his intent.

Everyone knew that Zhang Ruochen was the most powerful one in Path of Time, Dimension, and Truth. Every kind of Path was mysterious and unpredictable, thus he could often kill enemies across cultivation realms.

But in arm-wrestling, most of Zhang Ruochen’s methods would be useless.

The Demigod-level body was indeed powerful, but Zhang Ruochen hadn’t broken the 100 shackles in his body yet. How much power could he unleash while the power of Demigod was still confined?

Xu, on the other hand, who had attained Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm, had ten times the power of Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt Physique.

Zhang Ruochen's current Demigod-level body was absolutely no match for Xu's.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen knew more than other cultivators about Xu. Xu didn't just have ten times Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt Physique. He had also refined more than ten million ghosts into his body. Once he unleashed the power, even a Supreme saint of Thousand-Koan Realm had to step aside.

If it was a competition of power, Zhang Ruochen would definitely lose.

But was arm-wrestling really a competition of strength?

"Zhang Ruochen has fought Xu before. He knows Xu's strength very well. As long as Zhang Ruochen still has a touch of sanity, he will definitely not agree," Gu Chenzi said.

In his opinion, Zhang Ruochen was not an impulsive person. Therefore, Xu was destined to fail.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan nodded and relaxed. He picked up the tripod cup and drank from the stream. 'Zhang Ruochen wasn't stupid. How could he jump into a trap knowingly he'll lose?'

"Okay, I'll arm-wrestle with you," Zhang Ruochen said.

"PFFT!"

Hearing this, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan spat out a mouthful of water. He stared at Zhang Ruochen, who was upstream.

'Had this guy been provoked into stupidity?'

Gu Chenzi looked puzzled. 'Zhang Ruochen knew that his opponent's power is far greater than his. Why did he agree?'

Xue Tu, who was standing behind Zhang Ruochen, staggered and almost fell to the ground.

'He had just won against Lord Sinluo, and now he was up to no good.

'If you want to play with fire, don't bring me along!'

"Senior... Why don't you bet four? Return mine first," Xue Tu said with an expectant look.

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and said, “You can leave! I’ll take your Ampliofruit first.”

“Senior,”

Xue Tu was unwilling to give up and called out again.

He licked his lips with a fierce look in his eyes. He clenched his hands, wanting to rush up and take the Ampliofruit that belonged to him.

“Go away. You’re disrupting my duel.”

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and flicked his finger. A space bubble condensed on his fingertip flew out. And like a glass ball, it covered Xue Tu in it. Xue Tu then bounced to the lower reaches of Destiny’s Creek.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

Xu felt happy that his plan had succeeded. He clapped his hands and laughed loudly. “Such courage. I admire you.”

Lord Sinluo, who was standing not far away, was dissatisfied with Xu. However, he hated Zhang Ruochen even more. Hence, it would indeed raise his spirit if Xu could make Zhang Ruochen suffer a great loss.

Above Destiny’s Creek, Xu was the first to stretch out his arm and turn it into a 100-foot-long hand.

Besides a bone ring on his palm, he also wore a purple glove emitting divine power. It was a divine artifact.

Arm-wrestling seemed to be a competition of strength, but it was not just a clash of strength.

Zhang Ruochen activated Armor of the Fire God and stretched out his arm. It also turned into a 100-foot-long hand and held it together with Xu’s ghost hand.

“Wait a minute.”

Luo Sha called out and stood up from her seat. She said, “Since it’s a competition, there must be a referee to make the rules and judge the winner. I think I’m competent to do it.”

Luo Sha knew very well that although it was a competition of arm wrestling, the different rules would have a huge impact on the winner.

Like other cultivators, she also thought that Zhang Ruochen could not win.

However, she wanted to help Zhang Ruochen in her own way, so he would have a greater advantage.

“With the relationship between Your Highness and Zhang Ruochen, it’s not suitable for you to be a judge, right?” Xu said.

The news of Luo Sha and Zhang Ruochen appearing together in Realm of Star Ocean and cultivated in Vastsea Manor for more than a month had long spread.

Many cultivators in Infernal Court knew that Luo Sha and Zhang Ruochen were very close.

Xu looked down and said, “Your Highness Pan Ruo, why don’t you be the judge of this battle?”

“It seems interesting for Supreme Saint to arm-wrestle. Well, I’ll make a few rules for you to see who will win.”

With a poker face, Pan Ruo slowly stood up and flew as light as autumn leaves to a place not far from Xu and Zhang Ruochen. She said, “First, since it’s arm wrestling, your elbows must not leave the table. Whoever leaves first will lose the battle.

“Second, whoever dips their hands into the water of Destiny’s Creek first will lose.”

“You have no objections, right?”

Xu frowned and said, “Only these two rules?”

“Does arm wrestling have other rules?” Pan Ruo asked back.

Xu didn’t say anything more. In fact, he felt that the rules could be stricter. At the very least, she could’ve added a few more rules.

For example, no Saint Path power Saint Aspect, sacred artifact, spiritual power could be used; they can’t attack each other; they can't use their second hand... and so on.

The stricter the rules were, the more advantageous it would be for Xu. Zhang Ruochen would have less room to play.

Xu had chosen Pan Ruo as a judge for this purpose.

Although Pan Ruo represented the interests of the upper three clans in Fane of Destiny, she had no connection with Ghosts or Immortal vampires. However, Lord Sinluo had suffered a great loss due to Zhang Ruochen. She must be dissatisfied with him.

Choosing Pan Ruo as a judge was naturally advantageous to him.

However, Pan Ruo did not play by common sense. She set a loose rule, which benefitted Zhang Ruochen.

'It does not matter. Even if the rules are loose, the difference in strength is there. It's impossible for Zhang Ruochen to beat me. I want all his five Ampliofruits!'

When Xu won five Ampliofruits from Zhang Ruochen, he would have a total of six, including his own Ampliofruit.

After taking all six Ampliofruits, his strength would increase again. Perhaps it could help him reach the level of Wu Jiang and Luo Shengtian.

"Begin."

As Pan Ruo shouted, Zhang Ruochen and Xu's power rushed to their right arms while they mobilized their power at the same time.

Whoosh whoosh

Zhang Ruochen's right arm emitted a dazzling blood light.

The Fire God's Gauntlet and armor turned red and connected to the armguard, emitting a scorching power fluctuation. Then, the three elephant souls of Thousand-Koan Realm in his right arm were activated.

Xu's arm hung in the sky above Destiny's Creek. He didn't move at all. He smiled and said, "Zhang Ruochen, is this all you have in your Demigod body? What else do you have?"

Show it as soon as possible. Otherwise, you won't have a chance to show it later."

Clang

An ear-splitting cry of a Phoenix sounded.

A huge phantom of a Phoenix rushed out of Zhang Ruochen's body and floated behind him. It was the remnant of Divine Phoenix's soul from Divine Phoenix's saint blood Blood Empress had used to nurture Zhang Ruochen's Demigod body.

At the same time, the ten golden wings on Zhang Ruochen's back spread out as if they had turned into ten golden clouds.

When all the power burst out, it finally shook Xu's arm and moved it a little to the left. However, he quickly steadied himself and straightened his arm.

"You have some ability. Indeed, I should not underestimate your Demigod body and Five-element Chaotic Neverwither physique.

"If you break the shackles in your body, your strength would definitely be ten times or even dozens of times stronger than now. At that time, my arm would be broken by you in an instant. But now, you are still far from it."

Then, he said, "Do you have any other tricks up your sleeves? Or are you at your limit already?"

Chapter 2282: Battle of Wits and Strength

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Xu was not an ordinary person. He had powerful cultivation and could kill enemies across realms. Zhang Ruochen was mentally prepared. However, Xu was so powerful that he only shook slightly even if Zhang Ruochen tried his best. It was far beyond Zhang Ruochen's expectations.

"As expected of the number one Ghost Emperor. It seems that I have to use the power of Truth."

Zhang Ruochen mobilized Precepts of Truth in his body and flowed them all into his right arm. At the same time, dense starlight spots appeared around his body and turned into a nascent starry ocean.

"Zhang Ruochen is finally going to use Path of Truth. It's said that Zhang Ruochen crossed the tenth level of Sea of truth, just like Magnogod Huang Tian."

"Zhang Ruochen's attainments in Path of Truth are indeed very high. He can amplify the attack power of his Saint Technique ten times stronger in an instant."

"Arm wrestling is a competition of Palm power to a certain extent. Zhang Ruochen has spent a lot of energy cultivating his palm strike. If his palm strike is boosted by Path of Truth, the power will be ten times more impressive. Will Xu be able to withstand it?"

"Why didn't Xu suppress Zhang Ruochen immediately when Zhang Ruochen mobilized Precepts of Truth?"

Many cultivators present were curious. If they were in Xu's shoes, the moment Zhang Ruochen mobilized Path of Truth, they would definitely strike first and counter with unstoppable force.

But Xu did not do that.

Did he think that he could withstand ten times the power of Zhang Ruochen's palm strike?

Supreme Saint Yanhong smiled. “Zhang Ruochen has Path of Truth, but Xu has Path of Destiny. Why should Xu be afraid of him?”

“Besides, this is Mount Destiny. Precepts of Destiny converge here. The power of Destiny is stronger here than any elsewhere.”

Xu was the top elite in Supreme Saint Yanhong’s faction. Thus, she was confident in Xu.

Whoosh—

When Zhang Ruochen activated the Realm-frame of Truth, the Gate of Destiny, which was hundreds of feet tall, appeared behind Xu. The eyes of non-Supreme Saint-level cultivators were dazzled by the bright light.

Boom!

With the addition of Precepts of Truth, Zhang Ruochen displayed Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike. With the power of ten times higher, it charged at the Ghost hand.

At the same time, the power of three elephant souls from Thousand-Koan Realm reached its strongest state in an instant. They let out deafening roars.

Xu’s ghost hand suddenly moved back and was half-pressed down.

The entire ghost arm was twisted.

Seeing this, countless cultivators in Infernal Court gasped. They couldn’t help but hold their breaths.

Could it be that the strongest Ghost, Xu, had lost to Zhang Ruochen in Neverwilt Realm?

Ten times the power came and went quickly.

Xu’s arm slowly turned upward, a mocking smile appeared on his face. “Your attainments in Path of Truth are indeed beyond my expectations. My Path of Destiny cannot completely weaken it. However, ten times the power in an instant is not enough to crush me.”

Seeing that Xu was gradually turning his arm back, now it was the cultivators of Bloodysky Clan's turn to worry.

Among them, Lord Xia Yu, Gu Chenzi, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Supreme Saint Xueqi couldn't help but sigh. They had hoped that Zhang Ruochen could create another miracle.

But now, everyone could see that Zhang Ruochen had gone all out. He had used all his trump cards. However, Xu had taken them one by one without even using the ghosts that had been refined into his body.

In other words, Xu didn't use his full strength.

It was like a cat playing with a mouse. No matter how many tricks you used, you couldn't change your fate. When you get exhausted, you would be eaten in one bite.

Xu was the cat playing with the mouse. He always had victory in his hands.

The cultivators of Infernal Court laughed mockingly.

Most of them didn't think of Zhang Ruochen as a member of Infernal Court. He was an outsider to them. That was why they felt humiliated when Lord Sinluo was defeated by Zhang Ruochen.

Now, Xu had used his absolute advantage to play with Zhang Ruochen. Naturally, they felt a sense of joy as if it saved their reputation.

With victory in hand, Xu said, "Zhang Ruochen, don't be discouraged. You are only in Neverwilt Realm but you have the ability to fight with me. You should feel honored."

Zhang Ruochen was not angry. He said, "Do you really think that Path of Truth is that simple?"

"What do you mean?" Xu said.

"The most powerful part of Path of Truth is not the power of the Realm-frame of Truth."

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes. Suddenly, the starlight spots around his body became more extensive.

The light spots quickly became larger and turned into light orbs.

In Xu's field of vision, the light orbs turned into a boundless sea of stars. Each one was as big as a planet as if they were standing in the boundless universe.

The Realm-frame of Truth was actually a realm form that was constructed using Path of Truth.

However, this realm was constructed by various Precepts between heaven and earth.

The more powerful the Realm-frame of Truth, the wider the Precept Realm was constructed. Hence, the stronger the power it could draw.

Back then, Yu Wenjing — the disciple from Fane of Truth — had only cultivated the Realm-frame of Truth of “Heavens Up Above”. The thunder and lightning that surged out of the Realm-frame of Truth forced Zhang Ruochen to use Secret Tome of Time and Space to resolve it.

Now, Zhang Ruochen's Realm-frame of Truth was “Shoreless Star Ocean,” and it was still evolving into “Boundless Universe.” The power it could unleash was naturally stronger.

In Sea of Stars, the starlight orbs flew rapidly toward Xu as if they had turned into real planets.

For other cultivators, they only saw the starlight orbs fly out one by one. They didn't think it was dangerous. However, in Xu vision, real planets were crushing towards him. They were vast and shocking

Xu gritted his teeth and snorted. “Zhang Ruochen, are you arm-wrestling, or do you want to fight?”

“I'm within the rules. Why can't I use other powers?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The planets were getting closer and closer, releasing destructive pressure.

“Damn it. How could the Realm-frame of Boundless Starry Sea be so powerful? Are they really attacking powers or are they spiritual power illusions?”

Xu was caught off guard.

He had met cultivators who had cultivated the Realm-frame of Truth before. However, Celestial Court cultivators had only cultivated the Realm-frame of Heavens Up Above. Before they could use the power of the Realm-frame, Xu had swallowed and refined it.

There were too few cultivators who had cultivated the Realm-frame of Truth.

Naturally, Xu knew very little about the Realm-frame.

The Gate of Destiny flew in front of him. It was like a shining shield, blocking the incoming stars.

Rumble

With each collision, The Gate of Destiny shook violently.

A power wave passed through the Gate of Destiny and crashed onto Xu's body.

The more powerful the Realm-frame of Truth was, the harder it was to control. Zhang Ruochen had cultivated his spiritual power — to the 62nd level — before he could barely use the Realm-frame to mobilize Heavenly and Earthly Precepts in the realm of Realm-frame of Truth. Only then it could be converted into attack ability for his own use.

“I can't let my guard down anymore. I should first defeat Zhang Ruochen with absolute power and then look for classics to study the Realm-frame of Truth in detail.”

Finally, Xu felt threatened by Zhang Ruochen. Worried that something might happen, Xu stopped playing with him. He opened his mouth and spat out eight million Ghosts.

Ear-piercing Ghost cries spread throughout Destiny's Creek.

The sky was covered by Ghost silhouettes. Black clouds scudded and it was dark and gloomy.

Eight million Ghosts quickly merged and turned into eight Ghost Emperor Souls at Thousand-Koan Realm level. They combined with Xu's power and stood in eight different directions.

“Isn’t it too late to use the power of Ghost souls?”

Zhang Ruochen raised his left hand slowly. A corner from microworld of woodlands appeared in the void space and pressed down on his right hand.

The true form of microworld of woodlands moved gradually as if it was about to be fully revealed. It became heavier and heavier.

Inside the microworld was filled with mountains, rivers, plains, and deserts. At first, it was only a corner that was hundreds of miles long. Now, it had grown more than a thousand miles long.

“My God! Zhang Ruochen actually summoned a microworld to suppress Xu’s arm. Is this still arm wrestling?”

“I knew Zhang Ruochen controlled a microworld long ago. Could it be this one?”

“I suddenly feel that Xu was unwise to fight Zhang Ruochen by arm wrestling. It’s better to fight directly. At least when fighting, even if Zhang Ruochen summoned this microworld, he wouldn’t be able to suppress Xu. Xu could retreat or attack. But now, Xu can only passively take it.”

...

As the microworld of woodlands became wider, it exploded with a weight that even the eight Thousand-Koan Realm Ghost Emperor Soul couldn’t bear.

The contempt on Xu’s face had long disappeared. He let out a long howl and spat out four million more Ghosts, condensing four more Thousand-Koan Realm Ghost Emperor Soul.

The combined power of twelve Ghost Emperor Souls finally resisted the suppression of the microworld of woodlands.

“Watch me shatter your microworld.”

Xu’s entire body tensed up, and his expression was cold as he became completely serious.

He raised his left hand, and a seven-petaled ghost lotus appeared in his palm. Pleiades Lotus gave off a bone-piercing cold air as it rapidly spun toward the microworld of woodlands.

When Pleiades Lotus spun, the power it gave off condensed into a huge vortex.

Many cultivators present were analyzing and they quickly concluded. “With Pleiades Lotus, Xu will shatter Zhang Ruochen’s microworld of woodlands.”

Wu Jiang sat cross-legged beside the jade table. “I didn’t expect that Xu has been hiding his power. With the twelve Thousand-Koan Realm Ghost Emperor Souls and Pleiades Lotus, even if I fought him, I wouldn’t be 100% sure of winning.”

Luo Shengtian, who was sitting opposite Wu Jiang, looked at Zhang Ruochen and said, “Don’t you think Zhang Ruochen is even more impressive?”

Wu Jiang squinted and nodded slightly.

Zhang Ruochen hadn’t even broken his first shackle, but he could force Xu to use all kinds of trump cards. It really made them — who were ranked at the top of the list in Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackled Realm — feel great pressure.

Sitting at the top, Yan Huangtu said, “This battle is no different from a real battle.”

“At least Xu won. Zhang Ruochen is still a step behind,” Wu Jiang said.

Wu Jiang was shocked by Zhang Ruochen’s strength. Not only did he feel a sense of urgency, but he also felt a deep sense of loss. For if they were in the same realm, he doubted that he could even block Zhang Ruochen’s palm strike.

However, when he thought that he could kill Zhang Ruochen and stop him from becoming stronger by entering Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, the pressure and disappointment disappeared.

Boom

Pleiades Lotus hit microworld of woodlands and penetrated the entire world. The ground was torn apart, mountains collapsed, rivers were cut off, and all the plants were corroded by the power of Pleiades Lotus and turned into black pus.

A microworld was destroyed!

Many cultivators felt pitied for Zhang Ruochen because they could see that Zhang Ruochen's microworld of woodlands had already taken shape and could give birth to life.

Such a microworld was worth as much as a high-level Planet of Life above Class seven.

If sold, it could sell for tens thousand Godstones.

Without a doubt, the destruction of the microworld of woodlands meant that Zhang Ruochen was doomed to lose.

The corner of Xu's mouth rose.

However, what puzzled him was that Zhang Ruochen was as steady as a rock in the face of a certain defeat.

"How can he be so calm?"

This thought just emerged in his mind. Suddenly, Xu felt that the ground was spinning and the space around him was turning.

"Oh no, Zhang Ruochen used the microworld to suppress my arm just to attract my attention. His-his- real goal is to distort space."

He looked to the left and saw that Destiny's Creek, which was originally flowing on the ground, had strangely flown upwards towards the sky.

The cultivators of Infernal Court downstream were now sitting in the sky.

The space on his left turned 90 degrees.

"No-no-, I can't lose..."

Xu growled silently in his heart. He exerted all his strength and pressed Zhang Ruochen's arm down.

But it was too late. Destiny's Creek on the left pressed down at an even faster speed. His 100-foot long ghost hand was soon soaked by the water.

It was a foregone conclusion!

According to the rules set by Pan Ruo, whoever hand-dipped into the stream first would be the loser.

Although Zhang Ruochen did not completely crush his arm, he distorted the space where Destiny's Creek was located and defeated him according to the rules of etiquette.

For example:

Zhang Ruochen had to walk from his original position to a pavilion 500 meters away. However, it wasn't necessarily that he had to walk this 500 meters. He only needed to use Power of Dimensions to shrink the ground into an inch and pull the pavilion in front of him. Now, he just has to walk into it in one step.

Pan Ruo floated in the air and looked at the distorted space. She stared at Zhang Ruochen and Xu, "The winner has been decided! The winner is Zhang Ruochen."

At the same time, Yan Huangtu, who was sitting at the top of Destiny's Creek, suddenly pressed his palm on the ground.

Swoosh

The distorted space was pressed back to its original state by his Palm strike.

Xu was not someone who could not afford to lose, but at this moment, he was stunned and could not accept the result.

He knew that he should not lose, but he knew that he can't complain about losing. Although Zhang Ruochen was opportunistic, Power of Dimensions was also a part of his own power.

If Xu could be more careful and did not underestimate his enemy, Zhang Ruochen would not be able to succeed even if he used the Power of Dimensions.

The contest between Supreme Saints was never a simple contest of power.

Zhang Ruochen looked up at the sky and stared at it for a long time, he let out a long sigh. “In order to win you, I actually lost a Microworld. Now I finally understand that in the contest between Supreme Saints, a Microworld is just a chess piece. What about the contest between gods?”

Whoosh!

Zhang Ruochen waved his sleeve. Instantly, microworld of woodlands shattered into pieces of the ground. They flew into the sky and hovered above Divine Domain of Destiny, turning into space meteorites and cosmic dust.

Boom!

It wasn't until then that the cultivators attending the Festival in Destiny's Creek realized that Zhang Ruochen had won. He had won five more Ampliofruits.. Instantly, there was a deafening clamor.

Chapter 2283: The Food from The Fanes

It was a high price to exchange a microworld of woodlands for five Ampliofruits, but Zhang Ruochen thought it was worth it.

He took the five Ampliofruits in front of him and put them on the jade table with the previous five. He smiled with satisfaction.

Looking at the ten shining Saint fruits, all the cultivators at the feast had eyes burning with greed, envy, and jealousy.

‘If only they were mine.’ Many cultivators had this thought in their minds.

Ten Ampliofruits represented one billion rules and 30,000 years of life.

Some thought that Zhang Ruochen had won too easily. It was only two rounds, and he had the most Ampliofruits among attendees in the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

However, more cultivators recognized Zhang Ruochen from these two battles and regarded him as a strong opponent of the Celestial-Hunting battlefield.

It could be said that Zhang Ruochen was lucky and opportunistic to win against Lord Sinluo.

However, who would dare to look down on Zhang Ruochen who had defeated Xu, whose cultivation strength was outstanding?

Lady Wind stared at Zhang Ruochen with her shimmering eyes. She couldn’t help but smile. She finally understood why Wargod Bloodximus had made him the leader of Bloodsky Clan in the festival and supported him fully in taking control of the Supreme Artifact.

After the two battles, Lady Wind had a strange feeling. She felt that Zhang Ruochen’s strength, despite him being at Neverwilt Realm, had become unfathomable.

“Even if I fail to be Scioness and end up marrying him, with his talent and my help, this era will belong to the two of us. We may even overshadow the Scioness of Destiny.

“I hope to see more miracles he can achieve on the Celestial-Hunting ground.” Lady Wind’s recognition of Zhang Ruochen’s strength increased greatly.

When Yellowsky Clan’s deities intended to marry her to Zhang Ruochen, Lady Wind had resisted.

But now, she felt that it might be a good alternative.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen had won again, Xue Tu could not be happy. He was depressed and hesitated. In the end, he gritted his teeth and walked upstream.

“I don’t want anything, but I must eat this Ampliofruit. If Zhang Ruochen doesn’t return it, I’ll fight him to the death.” Xue Tu clenched his hands. His eyes were fierce. He was ready to fight to the death.

Pan Ruo didn’t stay. She didn’t look at Zhang Ruochen or Xu. She turned and left. Her demeanor was as cold as ice.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t look at her either. He looked at Xu on the other side of Destiny’s Creek. More accurately, he looked at the huge sword. “Is he still alive?”

Xu knew who Zhang Ruochen was referring to. He stood up and held the huge sword in his hand. “He’s alive! And you’ll see him soon. He’s on the Celestial-Hunting ground.”

Zhang Ruochen’s expression didn’t change, but his heart was filled with all kinds of negative emotions.

There was killing intent, anger, pain, and helplessness.

Once Supreme Saint Manjian was sent to the Celestial-Hunting ground, he would become the prey of Infernal Court cultivators. He and Zhang Ruochen would become life and death enemies on the battlefield.

Xu’s state of mind was clearly far superior to Lord Sinluo’s. A smile appeared on his face. “I’m very curious. Would you be able to kill him when you meet him on the Celestial-Hunting ground?”

Zhang Ruochen stared at Xu and said nothing.

“The festival has just begun,” Xu said. “And yet I’ve lost two rounds in a row at your hands.

“However, I am not angry.

“Instead, I’m grateful for these two defeats. After all, what I lost is not my life but my face and five Ampliofruits.

“These two losses show me my weakness. They remind me that I shouldn’t underestimate my enemy. Even a lion needs to use all of its strength to kill a rabbit.

“When countering you and Lord Xia Yu, I only thought about how to humiliate you guys, but I forgot that my ultimate goal was to defeat you.

“I used to enjoy the process of crushing my opponents. The lesson you taught me made me realize that I need to change. The outcome is more important than the process

“So, in order to express my gratitude, I have to remind you that if you meet the owner of this sword, it’s best to kill him with one strike.

“If your determination is not strong and you can’t bring yourself to cut ties with Celestial Court cultivators, you won’t be able to integrate into Infernal Court.

“A person who lacks determination won’t achieve greatness.

“Zhang Ruochen, you’re a very powerful opponent. I look forward to a real fight against you on the Celestial-Hunting Battlefield.”

Zhang Ruochen’s fingers tapped lightly on the jade table. He restrained himself and let out a breath. “Okay, I’ll see you at the hunting ground.”

“Take this. It’s yours now!”

Xu threw out the giant sword. The tip of the sword was in front, and the hilt was behind. It turned into a ray of sword light and flew toward Zhang Ruochen.

It was extremely fast.

Apparently, Xu threw it with all his might.

Zhang Ruochen turned, and the giant sword flew close to his face.

Zhang Ruochen's face was reflected on the body of the sword. His eyes were piercing.

Swoosh!

A large number of Marks of Time appeared, slowing down the flow of time in this space. Zhang Ruochen reached out his hand to grab the hilt of the giant sword and pressed his wrist down.

The body of the sword tilted downward and stabbed into the ground with a swoosh.

Even so, the impact force contained in the sword caused the sword to draw a distance of dozens of feet backward, forming a deep sword path.

Fortunately, Mount Destiny here had a strong geological structure and was densely covered with Divine Marks.

Otherwise, the impact force of this sword could have spread thousands of miles away.

Zhang Ruochen pulled the huge sword out of the ground and held it in his hand. He looked at it carefully and couldn't help but recall the days when he practiced in the heaven. He said, "A Regal Artifact class battle sword. It's indeed a big gift."

Xu had already turned around and left. He waved his hand and said, "I've given away all five Ampliofruits. It's not a big deal to give you a sword."

Gu Chenzi transmitted his voice to Zhang Ruochen. "Xu gave you the sword to stir your state of mind."

Zhang Ruochen knew what Xu was thinking. Nevertheless, from the moment he saw the sword, his unwavering resolution was shaken a bit.

He had decided to ignore all subjects and to turn the world upside down.

But now..

Sigh!

“Senior!”

Xue Tu’s voice sounded behind him.

Zhang Ruochen was in a bad mood. If it were not for the rules of the Celestial-Hunting Festival, he would have already attacked Xu. At this moment, he suddenly turned around and said, “What’s the matter? What do you want?”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes emitted a cold light and contained killing intent.

How could Xue Tu know that Zhang Ruochen’s killing intent was directed at Xu?

Being stared at by his eyes, Xue Tu felt a chill all over his body. His throat seemed to be frozen. He stuttered, “Se-Se-Senior, I-I-I con-congratulate you. Congratulations on defeating Xu and winning the second duel.”

Zhang Ruochen completely restrained his emotions. He nodded slightly and said, “Okay. Go!”

Xue Tu’s heart skipped a beat. He turned around and left. However, after taking two steps, he stopped. ‘I came to ask for the Ampliofruit. Why did I leave just like that?’

Mustering his courage, Xue Tu walked over again. He said in a low voice, “Senior, you’ve borrowed my Ampliofruit as a bet. Could you please... Please return it to me now?”

“We must always return what we borrow, right?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu nodded. “That’s right.”

“But why didn’t you return Seamless Purgatory Tower you borrowed from me? So use this Ampliofruit to pay off your debt!” Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu was speechless. He wasn’t willing to accept this, “I can pay off my debt slowly in the future. Could you give me this Ampliofruit first? After I eat it, my cultivation will rise rapidly. It’ll be good for Bloodsky Clan’s performance on the Celestial-Hunting ground.”

Zhang Ruochen stretched out a finger. The Precepts of Dimension started to gather at his fingertip.

Xue Tu's expression changed when he thought about how he'd been flicked away by Zhang Ruochen's finger. He quickly retreated and walked downstream. He muttered, "D*mn Asurendra Samay, why did he capture Zhang Ruochen's daughter. If he didn't capture her, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't have come to Infernal Court.

"If Zhang Ruochen didn't come to Infernal Court, with my talent, I would definitely be famous in this era. How could I be suppressed by him?

"Now I have to live without dignity. No! I can't take this anymore. I must resist."

Zhang Ruochen stared at Xue Tu's back. He thought for a moment and called out, "Xue Tu, I can lend you a Ampliofruit, but..."

Xue Tu was overjoyed. He rushed back and grabbed Zhang Ruochen's arm excitedly. "Senior, if you need anything, just tell me. I, Xue Tu, will definitely do it for you. I won't say no."

"Uh... forget it! Remember, you owe me a huge debt again." Zhang Ruochen handed him a saint flower that contained an Ampliofruit.

Xue Tu held the saint flower tightly. He was so moved that his eyes turned red. He nodded heavily.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't stand Xue Tu's puppy eyes anymore. He waved his hand, asking Xue Tu to leave.

After Xu's defeat, more cultivators came to challenge Zhang Ruochen. However, Zhang Ruochen declined them all. He didn't want to continue.

Winning two duels in a row had raised the morale of Bloodsky Clan to the peak.

Zhang Ruochen didn't have the confidence to win another duel. Secondly, if he lost, the morale he raised with hard efforts would collapse.

5,000 Altofruits flowed down from the upper reaches of Destiny's Creek to the hands of 5,000 top Saint Kings.

The duels became more frequent. They were everywhere.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Lian Xi, who was still kneeling beside him, and said, "Get up!"

Lian Xi's eyes were empty, and she stood up like a puppet.

Seeing her appearance, many cultivators felt heartache. They had wanted to embrace her in their arms and protect her from harm.

At the same time, many cultivators wanted to teach Zhang Ruochen a lesson. They saw him as a b*stard who didn't know how to be gentle with women.

Especially the Celestial Court cultivators who were watching the projection. They shouted on all the Battlefields of Merits, "Charge into Infernal Court, kill Zhang Ruochen with a sword, and save King Daxi."

"Let's gather saint stones to hire the Terrestrial Assassins to cut off Zhang Ruochen's head at Infernal Court."

"Zhang Ruochen is now an Immortal Vampire and a Supreme Saint. He has strong vitality. Even if he is beheaded, he won't die. He has to be cut into pieces."

Zhang Ruochen didn't know that the Celestial Court cultivators had formed an They regarded him as the biggest traitor of this Yuanhui.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

He poured a cup of Divine Jade Dew from the pot and handed it to Lian Xi. "You've helped me win an Ampliofruit. This cup of Divine Jade Dew is for you."

All the Fanes provided the food for the feast.

The Fane of Rakshasa provided "Divine Meat."

The Fane of Asura provided "Dragon Liver and Phoenix Gall."

The immortal Fane provided "Immortal Blood Marrow."

...

Zhang Ruochen's jade table was filled with all kinds of dishes, each of which could tempt even the deities. Some could advance cultivation, some could strengthen the soul, some could increase spiritual power... and so on.

The Divine Jade Dew was provided by the Fane of WineGod. It took 900 years to brew by mixing the essence of the Divine Jade with Divine blood and rare ingredients from all clans. After drinking one cup, one could enter a state of enlightenment.

Each Supreme Saint was only entitled to one pot.

Lian Xi didn't take the three-legged cup. She remained silent and motionless. No one knew what she was thinking. It was as if she was silently resisting.

"You don't know how to appreciate favors."

Zhang Ruochen snorted and drank all the Divine Jade Dew in one gulp.

However, when he raised his head to drink, a deep and sorrowful self-mocking smile appeared in his eyes.

In Infernal Court, free will did not exist for Zhang Ruochen despite him being a goddess' son, let alone a captive like Lian Xi.

Zhang Ruochen did not have any feelings for Lian Xi at the beginning. All he had was hostility and exploitation.

Even now, he remained the same. But something else grew in his heart.

No matter what motive Zhang Ruochen had in the beginning, Lian Xi had become his woman in the end. Zhang Ruochen was very clear that his action would lead to some inevitable consequences. No matter how bad the consequences were, he had to bear them; he had to face them.

Lian Xi had said that she wanted to go back, and Zhang Ruochen did promise to let her go.

However, if she went back like that, she would not end up well.

All the cultivators guessed that Zhang Ruochen deliberately humiliated Lian Xi and forced her to kneel. By doing so, he indirectly insulted Celestial Court and pleaded his loyalty to Infernal Court. However, Zhang Ruochen just wanted to play a villain's role more thoroughly. He wanted to let Celestial Court cultivators know that Lian Xi did not really submit to him. She was just a victim and a poor lady.

This way, there was still a place she could go back.

And when she escaped later, Infernal Court wouldn't think that Zhang Ruochen'd let her go on purpose.

After all, she was just a maidservant.

Lian Xi should be on her own when walking her own path.

“Drinking Divine Jade Dew can help me in the enlightenment of the cultivation Paths. Swallowing an Ampliofruit can help me practice high-level Saint Techniques. I wonder if their effects are really that amazing.”

Zhang Ruochen swallowed an Ampliofruit and prepared to practice a high-level Thousand-Koan level Saint Technique.

It must be known that many people at the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm had practiced high-level Thousand-Koan level Saint Techniques. If someone used it, Zhang Ruochen could not resist it without using the Supreme Artifact.

However, the main purpose for a clan leader to wield a Supreme Saint Artifact was to intimidate others.

In the early stage of Celestial-Hunting, each clan would not expose the Supreme Artifact. In this way, no one knew who had the Supreme Artifact, so they would not simply attack an enemy.

That was why it was very important to practice a high-level Saint Technique of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Without the dragon and elephant souls of Thousand-Koan Realm, Zhang Ruochen could not advance Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike to Thousand-Koan level for the time being. Therefore, he chose to practice the fifth level of Incarceration of Divine Demon.

In his plan, he wanted to achieve the fifth level for his Incarceration of Divine Demon. He also wanted to combine this Saint Technique with the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King as well as the five elements of yin and yang to become a real killer move.. It would become a weapon specifically used to counter Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators at the Great Perfection stage.

Chapter 2284: Release the Celestial Captives, Open the Hunting Ground

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

When Zhang Ruochen was in seclusion in Sevenstar Imperial Palace, he spent a lot of time studying the fifth level technique of Incarceration of Divine Demon. He even took out Demonic Incarceration Portrait to comprehend it.

However, it was a high-level Thousand-Koan Saint Technique that even a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint would need a long time to master.

Probably due to the great difference in cultivation levels, even with the help of the Heart of Truth, Zhang Ruochen still felt that the fifth level technique was abstruse. There were still many aspects that he failed to understand.

Zhang Ruochen had asked Divine Sky-connecting Tree for advice. Divine Sky-connecting Tree had told him that when a cultivator executed a high-level Saint Technique, not only the person's power was activated. The technique would also activate or affect the surrounding energy.

It was like when a mortal was waving his palm, it would bring a slight wind.

The wind was the surrounding energy.

The more advanced a high-level Saint Technique was, the higher its compatibility with Heaven and Earth, and the more surrounding energy would get triggered.

That was why it was difficult for a cultivator to comprehend a high-level Saint Technique if his realm was not high enough.

Theoretical speaking, a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint should not be able to master a high-level Hundred-Shackle Realm Saint Technique; a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint could not master a high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique.

In other words, it was highly unlikely for Zhang Ruochen, a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint, to master a high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique.

Even for Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike, which Zhang Ruochen had practiced since young, he could only fuse three Thousand-Koan Realm dragon souls and elephant souls. His achievement could only be considered as Minor Completion. If he wanted to achieve the Grand Completion, he would need to fuse two more Thousand-Koan Realm dragon souls and elephant souls. He also needed to develop a deeper understanding of Palm techniques.

With the help of rare treasures, including an Ampliofruit and Divine Jade Dew, Zhang Ruochen's head was clear. He closed his eyes and could feel the various Precepts and inscriptions around his body.

The Precepts in his body became clearer.

Demonic Incarceration Portrait automatically appeared in his mind.

The runes of the Incarceration of Divine Demon floated around the portrait. He could finally understand the previously obscure parts quickly. It was as if they were enlightened.

After a long while, Lord Sinluo, who was sitting across from Destiny's Creek, realized that Zhang Ruochen unleashed massive demonic Qi.

The demonic Qi gathering behind Zhang Ruochen turned into a dark cloud. It evolved into different forms. Sometimes it was a demonic ancient mountain; sometimes it turned into a black tree; and sometimes it was an army of demonic ghosts...

"He is practicing a high-level Demonic Saint Technique with the help of the Ampliofruit and Divine Jade Dew."

Lord Sinluo widened his eyes and gritted his teeth. If he hadn't lost the duel against Zhang Ruochen, he could have used an Ampliofruit to advance the Deathkin's Mindspell that he had practiced for a hundred years to Great Perfection.

Lady Wind, who was sitting not far away, fixed her gaze and thought, 'What a powerful demonic aura. It has triggered the surrounding Precepts. Is Zhang Ruochen practicing a high-level Hundred-Shackle Saint Technique?'

There were many Supreme Saints practicing high-level Saint Techniques with the help of the Ampliofruits. However, there were only a few whose power fluctuations were comparable to Zhang Ruochen's.

It was indeed amazing for a Neverwilt Realm cultivator to be able to practice a high-level Hundred-Shackle Realm Saint technique.

The Supreme Saints who were qualified to attend the Celestial-Hunting Festival were all peerless talents. However, when they saw that Zhang Ruochen was about to succeed in practicing a high-level Hundred-Shackle Realm Saint Technique, they all sighed in admiration.

"This energy waves..."

With a thoughtful look on his face, Yan Wushen was staring at Zhang Ruochen, who was sitting cross-legged.

Boom!

All of a sudden, more demonic Qi condensed with Zhang Ruochen as the center. It emerged out of thin air, turning Destiny's Creek Valley into a Demonic Sea of Qi that extends further.

Behind Zhang Ruochen, strands of demonic Qi intertwined with each other and rose up.

Puurple thunderous lightnings accompanied with the demonic Qi.

Demonic Qi and lightning interweaved and condensed into a huge phantom of a God and Demon. To be exact, it was a twin. The phantom's front was a demon's appearance, and its back was a god's appearance. The phantom was like an indomitable statue looking down on the cultivators in Destiny Creek.

"High-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique," Yan Wushen muttered to himself.

The cultivators of Destiny Creek could feel the terrifying pressure of the Phantom of God and Demon. How could they not know that Zhang Ruochen had practiced the high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique?

They were even more shocked. They instinctively felt that it should have been impossible.

If Zhang Ruochen was so heaven-defying, then they, who had become the top elites among Saint Kings and Supreme Saints within a thousand years... No, they did not deserve to be called top elites. They were just a bunch of mediocre people.

How could they accept such an outcome?

“Zhang Ruochen must have hidden his cultivation rank. He must have attained Hundred-Shackle Realm long ago.”

“That’s right. It must be so. No wonder Lord Sinluo and Xu lost to Zhang Ruochen. Zhang Ruochen is so cunning. He has been hiding his real strength too well.”

“It’s said that regardless of one’s cultivation rank, as long as one practices a high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique, one can use it against a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. Does Zhang Ruochen already have the strength to fight against the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint?”

...

Zhang Ruochen had triggered heated discussion. He never failed to surprise others during the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

In the Divine Bone Pagoda hovering above, those Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints couldn’t calm down either. They exclaimed. Among them, there were cultivators who hadn’t practiced the high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique to grand completion.

Zhang Ruochen withdrew the vast demonic Qi into his body. The Phantom of the God and Demon disappeared.

However, the domineering demonic temperament remained on him. His long hair fluttered in the wind, his eyes demonic.

The power of the Immortal Vampire blood in his body surpassed that of human blood.

His Demonic power grew even stronger.

The Kunlun cultivators watching the projection couldn't relate the current Zhang Ruochen with the former him. It was as if he was a gentle and elegant scholar who had completely fallen and turned into an unrivaled demon king who could wield a massive amount of evil power.

Many of them who stood firmly on Zhang Ruochen's side became silent at this moment.

They didn't doubt Zhang Ruochen. However, they perceived that the Infernal Court deities must have forced Zhang Ruochen into such a state, bewitched him, refined his saint soul, or planted an evil seed in him.

On the other hand, Bloodsky Clan cultivators were overjoyed and became more confident in Zhang Ruochen.

With the leadership of Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu, this year's Celestial-Hunting Festival would definitely change their fate. They would not get ranked bottom again.

Bloodsky Clan cultivators only worshipped the powerful ones. It didn't matter whether Zhang Ruochen had changed or not.

So what if he had become a demon?

Good and evil, deity and demon, existed within every living being and dead spirit. No matter what a person had become, it was still the same person.

There was no absolute good or pure evil.

With just a thought, one could become good or evil.

"My Precepts have increased by 100 million, and my lifespan has increased by 3,000 years. No wonder it's a rare fruit that can only be eaten once every 1,000 years." Zhang Ruochen exclaimed after examining his condition carefully.

However, what made Zhang Ruochen most satisfied was the fact that the Ampliofruit had assisted him in practicing high-level Saint Techniques.

Therefore, he did not continue to consume the remaining eight Ampliofruits. He planned to save them for the time he needed them the most. Now, improving his Precepts and lifespan was not an urgent matter.

Zhang Ruochen's number of Precepts — 1.6 billion — had already surpassed many Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints.

“Eh! The first shackle has loosened so much. Could it be the effect of the Ampliofruit?”

Zhang Ruochen found that the first shackle on his right arm was in plain sight. Moreover, he could shake it without consuming a Fugue pill.

If the Ampliofruit could help him break that shackle, then...

He had to reconsider his previous plan.

Nothing was more important than breaking through to Hundred-Shackle Realm.

During the time he was practicing Incarceration of Divine Demon, all duels at the feast had ended.

Most cultivators had eaten all the food, including Ampliofruits and Altofruits.

Altofruit could help a top Saint King practice one of the cultivation Paths to the Great Perfection.

Of course, the Great Perfection here referred to the state of a single Path. In other words, it meant a Saint King could attain one million Precepts of a single Path.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen had reached the Great Perfection in their Saint Kingdom, which was to practice the total Precepts of all Paths to 100 million. It was more than ten times more difficult than practicing a single Path to Great Perfection.

Of course, cultivating a single Path to Great Perfection was not easy either. Without valuable support items like Altofruits, in a thousand years, only a few in the entire Infernal Court could achieve it.

Cultivators like Xue Chen, Luo Sha, and Pan Ruo were waiting for Altofruits. Their cultivation rank stopped at Saint King realm and did not break through to the next realm.

Before entering Supreme Sainthood, cultivating their main Path to the Great Perfection was very important for them to form a higher grade Saintwill in the future.

Almost all of the Saint Kings present were at Path's Anterior. Before they went to the festival, they had prepared some items that could help cultivate Neverwithers physique. As long as they ate the Altofruits, they could immediately enter Supreme Sainthood.

Furthermore, most of the food they ate were ingredients that could help them form a Neverwithers physique and resist tribulations.

That was why there were Saint Kings broke through to the Supreme Saint realm almost every second.

Saint Kings who could reach Path's Anterior had already overcome countless obstacles. They were only one step away from the Supreme Sainthood. Although there were cultivators who failed to break through, the proportion was less than 10 percent.

It was just an event in Infernal Court, but thousands of Supreme Saints were born in an instant.

The morale of Celestial Court cultivators on the Battlefield of Merits was unprecedentedly low. Some were envious; some had lost their combat spirit, and some were secretly in despair.

Especially the cultivators from the inferior worlds, their feelings were even more complicated. Not only did they suffer a great blow, but they also felt unequal strength. Why did Infernal Court have so many top-notch cultivation resources? Didn't Celestial Court have them?

The four dominant Macroworlds definitely had them, and the Celestial Palace definitely had them. Why didn't they share them?

Were they eaten by those pampered Scions and Scionesses, or were they enjoyed by the deities themselves?

What they didn't know was that the cultivators who could participate in the Celestial-Hunting Festival were mostly Scions and Scionesses. Some were descendants of deities, and some had huge backgrounds. It was very difficult for ordinary cultivators of Infernal Court to practice to the Supreme Saint realm within a thousand years.

The strong would always be strong.

In any case, Infernal Court's goal of sending the projection to all the Macroworlds had been achieved.

Zhang Ruochen released his Saint Devourer. A large number of vines reached into Destiny's Creek to absorb the water.

One couldn't drink as much water from Destiny's Creek as one wanted. If one's physique wasn't strong enough, it would soon reach saturation.

When Zhang Ruochen finished eating the food on the jade table, the Saint Devourer had just reached saturation.

"Master, with the help of the water of Destiny's Creek, I should be able to produce a more powerful Dharmakāya Fruit. Once I have cultivated a Dharmakāya, I should be able to fight against an elite like Xu."

The Saint Devourer did not dare to say too much. After all, Xu was not an ordinary cultivator. He had not used his full strength in the few times he fought against Zhang Ruochen.

The Dharmakāya Fruit was the fourth fruit of the Saint Devourer.

Once a Dharmakāya was cultivated, the Saint Devourer's strength would be comparable to a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint who had achieved Great Perfection.

Ever since the Saint Devourer followed Zhang Ruochen, it had absorbed many strong cultivators and treasures. The Dharmakāya it cultivated was, of course, extraordinary. Otherwise, it wouldn't dare to claim that it could fight against Xu.

"How much longer will it take for your Dharmakāya Fruit to ripe?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

“During master’s seclusion, I absorbed a lot of divine blood from the god corpse. My Dharmakāya is close to maturity. If I can absorb two Ampliofruits, I should...” the Saint Devourer said.

Zhang Ruochen interrupted it. “Don’t even think about it.”

In order to cultivate the Saint Devourer, Zhang Ruochen had spent resources enough for 20 Supreme Saints. What was important was that it didn’t have the threshold of the realm. It could break through fast enough and had great potential in the future.

However, the Ampliofruit would never be given to it. That was Zhang Ruochen’s core interest.

“I can give you Godstones for you to cultivate a Dharmakāya as soon as possible,” Zhang Ruochen said.

If the Saint Devourer could cultivate a Dharmakāya, Zhang Ruochen would have four Hundred-Shackle Realm elites of the Great Perfection. It would be of great help to him to take first place in the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

At the peak of Mount Destiny, a figure tens of thousands of feet tall walked out of the towering Fane building. He wore a black robe and looked very old. Although he was huge, he looked as small as a bean before the Fane building.

“Greetings, High Priest.”

At the feast in Destiny’s Creek region, all cultivators sat upright and said in unison with cupped fists.

The feast had ended, and the Celestial-Hunting battlefield was about to open.

The twelve divisions of the Fane of Destiny: Life Palace, Death Palace, Disaster Palace, Fortune Palace, Joy Palace, Anger Palace, Luck Palace, Misfortune Palace, Past Palace, Future Palace, Illusion Palace, and Reality Palace, each controlling different kinds of power and authority.

The Celestial-Hunting Festival was hosted and organized by the Fortune Palace which played the most important role.

The Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest was the manager chosen by Fukurokuju. A high priest was in charge of everything below Divine Realm.

The Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest raised his voice and said, "Release the Celestial Captives and open the hunting ground."

The space at the foot of the Fane of Destiny shook violently. Dimensional Gates appeared, connecting to different places.

Prisoners with their power sealed were chained. They walked out of the Dimensional Gates. They were all above Demi-Sainthood, and many of them had entered Supreme Sainthood.

There were humans, angels, and elves.

There were dragons and great rocs.

There were also plant-type creatures and stone clan cultivators.

There were monks and Daoist priests.

...

...

More and more prisoners walked out of the Dimensional Gates.

Chapter 2285: The Battle of Celestial-Hunting

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

There was a vast field that stretched as far as the eye could see at the foot of Mount Destiny.

At that moment, the field was filled with captives in ragged clothes. They had been through the vicissitudes of life and were covered with whip marks. Some of them had been imprisoned and enslaved for a thousand years.

There were so many prisoners that it was impossible to count. It was like a sea of people.

CRACK!

A whiplash sounded.

“Move it, speed up! You guys are just a bunch of lowly prey. Now is the time for you to act your part.” said a Bone Clan Knight. He’s riding a bone beast and waved a whip that flashed with lightning. The whip struck Supreme Saint Manjian.

The whip was engraved with a special Divine Mark. Even the Neverwithier physique could not withstand it.

Whoosh

Another deep wound appeared on Supreme Saint Manjian’s back. However, he did not say a word. He gritted his teeth and endured it.

Zhang Ruochen, who was looking for Supreme Saint Manjian, saw this scene and his eyes turned cold.

Xu stared at Zhang Ruochen and said with a smug smile, “Even if a Supreme Saint is reduced to a slave, he has to be obedient. Otherwise, he will suffer. It’s a good thing that you are a Scion and half of the Immortal Vampire’s bloodline run in your veins. Otherwise, you would be like them in Infernal Court.”

Zhang Ruochen smiled coldly. He didn’t argue with him.

Lian Xi stood not far away and she saw the captives at the foot of the mountain. Some of them were famous Supreme Saints, but they had been tortured to an inhuman state. Their vitality was in decline. They were like beggars.

Lian Xi knew some of the young talents. They were once peerless and had given pointers to the world. But now, their faces were bitter and skinny, their eyes were cloudy, and their essence, energy, and spirit had all been wiped out.

There were many, many more...

To the Infernal Court, this was a feast.

To the cultivators of the Celestial Court, what they saw was a miserable scene. It was a great blow to the young cultivators who had just embarked on the path of cultivation.

No matter a saint or even Supreme Saint, once they become Infernal Court's captives, their lives are as invaluable as insects. They would be even more miserable than a mortal.

What was the point of cultivating?

Lian Xi stared at Zhang Ruochen in front of her with mixed emotions.

Whoosh

Two balls of white light appeared on the jade table in front of each cultivator.

A book and a diamond-shaped mirror appeared in the light.

Zhang Ruochen picked up the book and opened it.

In the book, there were records of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting's rules, the number of Celestial Captives, and information on their identity.

"There are more than 13 million Celestial Captives."

"There are 2,274 Celestial Captives of the Supreme Saint Realm."

Zhang Ruochen was shocked.

Supreme Saints were top-level fighters in any realm. They were the pillars of strength and kings of the Path.

One had to know that there were only dozens of Supreme Saints in the entire Guanghai.

More than 2,000 Supreme Saints had been captured by the Infernal Court and turned into Celestial Captives. This was something Zhang Ruochen had never dared to imagine before. How many Macroworlds had the Infernal Court destroyed in the past 1,000 years?

Zhang Ruochen finally understood as he continued reading the book.

It turned out that these Celestial Captives were not all prisoners of the Celestial Court. They also included cultivators from the Macroworlds, Primitive Worlds, secret places in the universe, and ancient civilizations that did not belong to the Celestial Court.

There were even some desolate creatures.

Not all the Macroworlds were the subordinate mortal worlds of the Celestial Court.

For example, the Macroworlds that did not give birth to gods were not qualified to become the subordinate mortal worlds of the Celestial Court.

These Macroworlds were discovered by the Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasa. At most, they were enslaved, ruled, and raised in captivity. They were reduced to a food source. However, if they were discovered by the Ghost, the Bone Clan, the Corpusian, and the Asura, they would only end up dead.

Other than that, some Celestial Captives were traitors of the Infernal Court.

Gradually, Zhang Ruochen understood why there were so many Supreme Saint Celestial Captives. In fact, many Supreme Saint Celestial Captives didn't come from the weak world. They belonged to the strong world.

Only a small number of Supreme Saints were captured on the Battlefield of Merits.

The Infernal Court and many worlds of the Celestial Court fought on the Battlefield of Merits. In addition, they also fought for all kinds of cultivation resources in the universe. Both forces would send high-level cultivators, either Saint Kings or Supreme Saints.

That's how many Supreme Saints and Saint Kings were captured.

'Huh! There were five Celestial Captives in the Thousand-Koan Realm and one Celestial Captive in the Banshi Isshou Realm. The Gods of the Infernal Court are too bold. Aren't they afraid that the top cultivators of this generation of the Infernal Court will be killed in large numbers?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

"Captain."

All the cultivators from the Bloodysky Clan gathered around Zhang Ruochen with scrolls in their hands.

The rules of each Celestial-Hunting Festival were different. Before the cultivators received the scrolls, all the previous discussions could only be considered predictions.

Now, they had to reconsider and plan.

Gu Chenzi saw the page Zhang Ruochen had turned to and guessed what he was thinking. He said, "This is a passive hunt. No matter how powerful these Celestial Captives are, they were prey."

"What do you mean?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gu Chenzi said, "The spiritual energy of all Celestial Captives is restricted. They can't use their spiritual energy to search. That is to say, we can use our spiritual energy to find them, but they can only use their eyes and ears to find us.

"To be exact, only the eyes can play a role. As for the ears... any cultivator's speed attending the banquet is many times faster than the speed of sound.

"If they are not a match for us, we can immediately escape and hide. If they are not a match for us and want to escape, how can they escape from the range of our spiritual energy?"

Gu Chenzi continued, “There is another point. We all have weapons and even Supreme Artifacts, but they have none. An elite at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm who wields a Supreme Artifact naturally has the chance to kill an armless Supreme Saint Celestial Captive of the Thousand-Koan Realm.”

“As for the only Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm, it’s recorded in the scroll. His hands and feet were bound by the divine iron chains, and his speed and combat strength were greatly reduced. Even if he wanted to slaughter the cultivators of the Infernal Court, how many could he kill? He’s just a trapped beast. He can only be beaten passively.”

Zhang Ruochen flipped to the last page of the scroll. The entire page was filled with the information of the Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm.

“Points: 10,000,000.”

“Age: 21,000 years.”

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen’s pupils constricted. He saw an eye-catching label—Avīci Pavilion.

This Celestial Captive, whose cultivation had reached the Banshi Isshou Realm, was actually a member of Avīci Pavilion, which was also a subordinate of Empress of Thousand Bones.

‘Empress of Thousand Bones claims to be one of the gods that the Infernal Court wants to get rid of the most. How much power has she built in the Infernal Court over the past 100,000 years? With so many powerful figures, the strength of Avīci Pavilion is probably not inferior to that of the Macroworld,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

The ranking of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was similar to the Battle of Merits. Both were based on points.

The higher the cultivation of the Celestial Captives, the higher the points one would get after killing them.

Xue Chen said, “I have roughly calculated the points. All the Celestial Captives added together are worth about 600 million points. The entire Immortal Vampires only need to accumulate 60 million points to reach the average level of the ten clans.

“Our Bloodsky Clan only needs to accumulate six million points to reach the median.

“According to the ranking of the Immortal Vampires in the Celestial-Hunting Festival, it will be very difficult to accumulate 60 million points. Therefore, we only need to accumulate six million points to be ranked in the top ten clans.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan flexed his wrist and smiled. “As long as we kill Lord Hornless, we will get 10 million points. Six million points is a piece of cake, isn’t it?”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan stared at Lord Xia Yu, Gu Chenzi, and Zhang Ruochen. He was eager to give it a try.

The four of them and a Supreme Artifact might be able to kill the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint.

If they wanted to do it, they had to do something big. Only then would they be able to shake the entire Infernal Court.

Xue Chen did not know that the Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi had already reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he shook his head and said, “Even if a Banshi Isshou Supreme Saint is bound by his hands and feet, his battle prowess is still very terrifying. Just like how I bound your hands and feet, it would be easy for you to kill a Saint King.

“Lord Hornless is a big challenge prepared by the gods for Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, and Wujiang. We don’t need to take it.”

The cultivators of the Bloodsky Clan expressed their opinions and analyzed this year’s Celestial-Hunting Festival in detail.

Zhang Ruochen had been reading the rules in the scroll. After reading it, he said, “The points are not only accumulated but also deducted.”

“First rule, 5,000 points will be deducted if you attack your own teammates maliciously.

“Second rule, 500,000 points will be deducted if you kill your own cultivators on purpose.

“Third rule, one point will be deducted if ten people in the territory die. If all the people in the territory die, half of the total points of the entire tribe will be deducted.”

...

“Therefore, although the offense is important, defense is also essential.”

The Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was located in a vast starry sky in the Forest of No Return. There were huge life planets, asteroids, and meteorite fragments.

According to the scroll’s records, each of the ten clans in the Infernal Court had a home planet.

There were many low-level clan members of the Immortal Vampires living on their home planet. They didn’t have the battle strength of a half-saint. The cultivators of the Infernal Court who participated in the hunt had to protect them from being killed by Celestial Captive.

Zhang Ruochen understood the other meaning of the Celestial-Hunting Festival after he saw this rule.

The gods were clearly telling them not only to attack and kill but also to learn to protect their own race.

Rumble

The Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting opened. A vast six-colored starry forest appeared on the mirror of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms above.

Seeing this six-colored starry forest, Zhang Ruochen immediately frowned and sighed. “The Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting is too big. This will be a very troublesome matter.”

The other cultivators also nodded slightly.

Based on the magnificent starry sky before them, they estimated that there were at least thousands of planets and hundreds of millions of cosmic dust and star fragments on this battlefield.

The so-called cosmic dust was not real dust. The small ones were only the size of a fist, but the big ones were bigger than the mountains.

The cosmic dust could hide their appearances.

And the diameter of the entire battlefield was definitely more than 100 million miles, or even wider. Even if it was a spiritual-power Supreme Saint, he would only be able to detect a small area at a time.

As such, finding the Celestial Captives became the most difficult task. It was completely different from what they had initially thought.

Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest raised his voice and said, "The Celestial-Hunting Festival has officially begun and it will last for 100 days. The Celestial Captives will enter the battlefield two hours earlier. In these 100 days, you only need to kill one cultivator who is attending the festival or 100,000 low-level cultivators from the Infernal Court and live until the end of the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Then, the Fane of Destiny will restore your freedom."

The Celestial captives heard that and those who thought that they would die for sure were fired up. Then, they released a sharp killing intent.

For the sake of freedom and revenge on the Infernal Court, their killing intent was triggered.

Whoosh

The passage opened, and more than ten million Celestial Captives were teleported to different parts of the battlefield.

Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest looked toward the direction of the Destiny's Creek valley and said, "You have two hours to discuss the hunting plan. At the same time, each cultivator will immediately put all their weapons, pills, and talismans into a space container and place them on the jade table in front of you. Each cultivator can only keep one weapon or armor.”

All the cultivators did as they were told. The gods were watching and no one dared to keep it.

Zhang Ruochen put everything into an Exquisite Dimensional Orb. He was only wearing a white robe and holding a Violet Gourd. Suddenly, he felt relaxed.

Lady Wind glanced at Zhang Ruochen without him noticing. She was puzzled after she saw that Zhang Ruochen had only left a gourd.

Lady Wind wondered, ‘What kind of Supreme Artifact was this gourd?’

With Lady Wind’s knowledge and experience, she couldn’t figure out the origin of this gourd. She could only guess that it was the latest treasure refined by Wargod Bloodixmius. However, could a newly-formed Supreme Artifact fight against the Supreme Artifacts of the other nine clans?

‘Please don’t make any mistakes.’ Lady Wind thought as she was a little worried.

Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest pointed with his finger, and a huge palace appeared in the sky above the Destiny’s Creek valley.

He said, “In the palace, there are robes, storage containers, and various materials specially made for cultivators of various clans. Each cultivator can only take 5,000 kilograms of materials at most.”

All cultivators of different clans flew into the palace.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan and said, “Try to take as many materials for refining pills, setting up arrays, and making talismans as you can. Leave the materials for refining weapons as they are too heavy. It’s also difficult to refine powerful weapons in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting in a short time.”

As Zhang Ruochen entered the palace, he took 10 sets of blood-red robes and a storage bracelet.

The blood-red robes were very strange. They were not made for defense against the attack from the outside world, but they could withstand the cultivator's own power. In short, they weren't defensive at all, but they were very resilient.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't interested in all kinds of materials, but he was pleasantly surprised to find a Godstone.

Unfortunately, each cultivator could only take one.

Zhang Ruochen immediately transmitted his voice, asking each cultivator of the Bloodysky Clan to take a Godstone.

Chapter 2286: One Hundred Thousand Sacred Pills

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Other than the Godstones, Zhang Ruochen had only chosen the materials to set up the dimensional teleportation array. The main material for it was the Dimensional Saint Jade.

The Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was too vast. If a cultivator could use the dimensional teleportation array to travel freely in the starry sky and across the planets, then he would have the greatest initiative.

Back in Destiny's Creek Valley, the captains of the ten Immortal Vampires gathered to plan the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, including Lord Bladehell, Lady Wind, Supreme Saint Jinkun, and Zhang Ruochen.

Although the ten great clans were competitors, their interests were closely tied together.

In the end, the captains of the ten great clans decided to go to their home planet first.

They didn't know the situation on their home planet yet. However, the Immortal Vampires on their home planet were the target of Celestial Captives and even the cultivators of other clans who were attending the festival.

If the home planet was destroyed, the total points would be cut in half. The consequences would be unimaginable.

Lord Bladehell stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, you are a Master of Time and Space," he said. "You must be incredibly fast. How about this? We'll take the Immortal Vampires and rush to the home planet as fast as we can to build a base. Then you will attack the home planet of the other nine clans."

Supreme Saint Jinkun was moved and he said, "That's a great idea! It's best to attack the home planets of the most powerful clans, such as the Nether Clan, the Yanluo clan, the Deathkin, and the Ashura."

If they could destroy all the beings living or dead on the planet before the other cultivators arrived, it would be the best for the Immortal Vampires.

Zhang Ruochen, on the other hand, knew that if he did that, he and the Bloodysky Clan would be everyone's target for the next 100 days.

The cultivators who had no enmity with him would also be enraged.

Lord Bladehell had laid a trap for him.

If we destroy the Nether Clan, Yanluo Clan, Deathkin, and Ashura's home planets now, the four clans will definitely see the Immortal Vampires as a thorn in their side, Zhang Ruochen said. "How long can the Immortal Vampires' home planets be preserved?"

Lady Wind shook her head and said, "I think Supreme Saint Ruochen is right. There's no need for the Immortal Vampires to start a war now and make enemies for ourselves for the time being."

Two hours later.

Just as Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest was about to announce the start of the Celestial-Hunting Festival, a demigod from the Yanluo Clan flew over from the sky with a three-foot-tall pill furnace in his hand and landed on the Mount Destiny.

Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest cupped his fists and asked, "Why did elixir attendant rush to the Mount Destiny at this time?"

To celebrate the 100th Celestial Hunting Festival, my master spent 800 years refining a cauldron of Saintwill Pills and was ready to give them to these juniors, the demigod elixir attendant smiled. "Unfortunately, the cauldron's opening was a little late, and it didn't make it in time for the main festival."

When Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest heard the elixir attendant mention about his master, his expression immediately became serious. He glanced at the pill furnace in the hand of the elixir attendant, and his eyes were filled with a trace of surprise and envy.

How could the Saintwill Pill refined by the Grand Supreme Elixir Master of the Yanluo Clan be ordinary?

One had to know that many gods went to seek the pill, but they were unsuccessful.

The cultivators who went to the festival in Destiny's Creek were all excited as if joy had fallen from the sky.

"I was curious earlier. Every time at the Celestial-Hunting Festival, the food provided by the Fane of Yama is the best. However, this year, there isn't any. Apparently, it's just arrived."

"What grade is the Saintwill Pill personally refined by the Grand Supreme? If I can consume one, I might have the chance to condense a fifth-grade Saintwill."

...

The most important thing for the Supreme Saints of the Neverwilt Realm and the Hundred-Shackle Realm was to break the shackles and condense the Saintwill.

Among them, condensing the Saintwill was related to one's future achievements, so naturally, it was the most important thing.

Generally speaking, the pills that aided in condensing the Saintwill were only of King Grade at most, and they were scarce in quantity. However, if a Grand Supreme Elixir Master were to make a move, the grade of the Saintwill Pill that he could refine was probably not as simple as King Grade.

All the cultivators, including Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, Wujiang, and Yan Wushen, had high-hope written all over their faces.

The elixir attendant announced loudly, "You can bring this batch of Saintwill Pills that Grand Supreme Elixir Master has refined into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. There are 100,000 top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills, 10,000 King Grade Saintwill Pills, 10 Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills, and one Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

“The Elixir Spirit of a top-tier Heaven Grade Saintwill Pill is comparable to a Nine-Step Saint King.

The Elixir Spirit of a King Grade Saintwill Pill varies in medicinal effect and combat strength from the Neverwilt Realm to the Hundred-Shackle Realm’s Great Perfection stage.

“Ten Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills are extremely precious and can help to fuse with the Saintwill. However, their Elixir Spirit has the combat strength of an initial stage Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. Those Supreme Saints in Neverwilt Realm, do not try to take or consume it or your life will be in danger.

“The only Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill is the most precious. Even Grand Supreme Elixir Master did not expect it to be able to form a pill. This is because the Saintwill Pill can not reach Emperor Grade level. This is a pleasant surprise.

“The Elixir Spirit of this Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill has the battle strength of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. Grand Supreme Elixir Master knew that you were no match for it, so he sealed its power. The battle strength of this Elixir Spirit is probably at the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm.”

BOOM!

As soon as he finished speaking, the entire place was in an uproar.

In the Divine Bone Pagoda, Supreme Saints of the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm were all envious.

If they had known that the Grand Supreme Elixir Master was refining the Saintwill Pills for the Celestial-Hunting Festival, they would have definitely suppressed their cultivation and not broken through.

With the help of the Saintwill Pill, they would definitely be able to condense a higher level Saintwill.

The cultivators from the Celestial Court, such as Lian Xi and Zhou Zhen, were all in a daze. They had only refined one batch of pills. 100,000 Nine-Step Saint King and 10,000 Supreme Saints.

What kind of existence was Grand Supreme Elixir Master?

One batch of pills was equivalent to the battle strength of a strong world.

Zhang Ruochen could not calm down either. He finally understood what a Grand Supreme Elixir Master represented. He was already an existence beyond the understanding of ordinary cultivators. He had reached a level that even Supreme Saint could not understand.

Of course, the resources required to refine such a cauldron of Saintwill Pills were unquestionably astronomical. He'd have to go through several Macroworlds to gather all of the medicinal herbs.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan quietly walked to Lord Xia Yu's side, he said telepathically, "Lord Xia Yu, you've already fused with a Grade Three Saintwill, but I haven't. Lend me a hand and help me obtain a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. I owe you one. From now on, I can help you with anything you want."

Lord Xia Yu knew very well that she could fuse with a Grade Three Saintwill. It was already her limit. No matter how good the Saintwill Pill was, it wouldn't mean much.

However, she didn't agree immediately. She looked at Zhang Ruochen and asked, "Do you need help?"

Zhang Ruochen knew that Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was asking Lord Xia Yu for help. He said, "It's just collecting pills. It's not that hard. Go help Supreme Saint Yi Xuan!"

"HMPH! Conceited guy. Be careful not to get nothing." said Lord Xia Yu as she was annoyed. She wasn't happy with Zhang Ruochen's ungrateful attitude.

Lady Wind didn't cultivate the Grade Three Saintwill, so she was determined to get the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

However, she didn't go to Zhang Ruochen this time. Instead, she contacted Lord Bladehell and the Mad Whitejade Lion.

Dozens of elites at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm all targeted the ten Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pills. Only Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, and Wujiang were interested in Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

Of course, only they were interested.

Other cultivators were put off by the Elixir Spirit at the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

"Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill is too abnormal. Do you think it's possible to condense a Grade Three Saintwill from a single path after consuming it?" Luo Shengtian asked.

Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, and Wujiang all guessed the same.

It was precise because of this that they wanted to take it down at all costs.

After all, condensing a Grade Three Saintwill from a single path means obtaining 25% of the Canon of that path after becoming a god.

One could completely become the main god of that path.

Lan Ying smiled sinisterly and said, "The battle strength of the Elixir Spirit has reached the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. Can you take it down?"

Wujiang said, "We won't know until we try?"

"It seems that Supreme Artifact of the Nether Clan is in your hands," said Lan Ying.

Wujiang said, "That's right, it's in my hands. I want that Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill!"

Luo Shengtian's gaze turned to the Yan Huangtu and said, "Why didn't Grand Supreme Elixir Master of the Yanluo clan keep the good stuff for you and Yan Wushen?"

Wujiang interrupted, "The Grand Supreme treats everything equally. How could he be biased?"

Wrong,” Yan Wushen exclaimed. “That’s because Grand Supreme Elixir Master knew we’d definitely be able to take Emperor Grade Sacred Pill,” he said as he walked over and stood beside Yan Huangtu. “How could it have gotten into the hands of Outsiders?”

“That’s exactly the reason.” Yan Huangtu laughed.

Wujiang no longer spoke, and his face turned bitter.

The elites of the Yanluo clan were as numerous as the clouds. There were already eleven elites at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, two to three times more than the other clans. More importantly, the Yanluo clan did not have any factions. They were a unified clan, and there was no internal strife.

If they wanted to take that Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, indeed, no one would be able to compete with them.

After Lan Ying heard Yan Wushen and Yanhuang Tu’s words, even she was in her deep thoughts.

Yan wushen said, “You should go and fight for the ten Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pills. Don’t you want to fuse a Grade Two Saintwill? Fighting with the Yanluo clan for Emperor Grade Sacred Pill is just a waste of time.”

Zhang Ruochen had been listening to their conversation because their decision would have a crucial impact on the fight for the pill.

It appears that Lan Ying, Luo Shengtian, and Wujiang will abandon the fight for the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill in favor of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill. Zhang Ruochen exhaled a sigh.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen also wanted to fight for Emperor Grade Sacred Pill and try to cultivate a single Path to Grade Three.

Unfortunately, even if he mobilized the power of the entire Bloodysky Clan to fight with the Yanluo Clan, the chances of getting it were very low.

The Yanluo Clan was too powerful!

“Yan Wushen, I’ll give you the chance to fuse with a single Grade Three Saintwill. I hope you won’t disappoint me.”

Zhang Ruochen lowered his gaze to the Violet Gourd that hung around his waist. The most pressing matter, he believed, was gathering the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and fusing the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill into Grade One.

In fact, the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill had broken the normal level of the Saintwill Pill. It was very likely that the only ten pills in the entire universe were the work of the Grand Supreme Elixir Master.

His Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill had already fused four types of Saintwill. There were still three more.

Zhang Ruochen was still confident about fusing the fifth type.

However, according to the Divine Sky-connecting Tree, no living creature could fuse more than five types of Saintwill. In other words, fusing the sixth and seventh types would be very difficult. With the help of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, the chances of success would be higher.

“I need at least two,” said Zhang Ruochen. He didn’t just want two. He had the Violet Gourd, so he was very ambitious. He looked up at the elixir attendant, his eyes sharp to the extreme.

All the cultivators present were rubbing their fists and rubbing their palms. Powerful auras burst out from their bodies. They were either ghostly qi soaring into the sky, blood qi forming a sea, or death qi forming clouds.

From a certain perspective, this battle will determine their future.

Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest released a wave of ghostly Qi that enveloped the ten thousand cultivators who were attending the festival. He swept them up and flew through a spatial door. They flew out of the Divine Domain of Destiny and arrived above the six-colored Forest of No Return.

The elixir attendant stood shoulder to shoulder with him, standing at the very front.

The ghostly cloud stopped and carried everyone. They floated in the pitch-black, cold, empty, and silent universe.

Below them was the starfield where the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was located.

It looked very close, but in fact, it was still 40,000 to 50,000 miles away.

The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms also flew out of the Divine Domain of Destiny and hovered above the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Whoosh

Under the expectant gazes of the cultivators, the elixir attendant opened the lid of the pill furnace. Instantly, it emitted a strange light that was filled with a myriad of colors. It illuminated this universe that was tens of thousands of miles away in a mystical and resplendent manner, making it seem like a dreamy land.

The fragrance of the pills instantly drifted out for tens of thousands of miles, turning into a vast Qi stream of pill that extended toward the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

In the Qi stream of pill, more than 100,000 Saintwill Pills were floating in the air.

The Elixir Spirits of those Saintwill Pills were all manifested. They were of all colors and shone with dazzling brilliance. What was astonishing was that they actually took on the forms of various Saint Flowers.

The Elixir Spirits of the ten Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills were huge. They were very eye-catching. There were Emperor Sunflowers that were thousands of meters tall, Blood Clovers that were as big as clouds, and Yin-yang Jasmines that were like the Sun and the Moon, there were red Immortal Cactus...

The Elixir Spirit of Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was the biggest. It was like a small planet. It rushed at the front and was already 20,000 miles away.

What surprised Zhang Ruochen was that the Elixir Spirit of Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was actually a Lotus of Divine Reflection.

Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest announced, "The Battle of Celestial-Hunting has officially begun."

The elixir attendant said, "110,011 sacred pills have been released. How much you can collect depends on your abilities. I'm looking forward to your performance this time."

Swish

The 10,000 cultivators from the Infernal Court could no longer contain their excitement and flew forward at top speed along the Qi stream of pill, like a swarm of bees leaving their nest.

The higher the grade of the sacred pill, the further they ran.

Whoever was faster had a greater chance of obtaining a high-grade Saintwill Pill.

Chapter 2287: Pill Snatching

Dozens of Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm had cultivation levels that far surpassed other cultivators, so they were the fastest. They charged at the front and fought fiercely.

“The Yanluo Clan wants the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Whoever wants to fight for it, they should know their limits first!” Yan Huangtu charged at the front and let out a thunderous voice that reverberated throughout the universe.

Beside him, there were four Yanluo Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Each of them had a strong aura.

To subdue Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, the Yanluo clan was clearly well-prepared. With the strength of five Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, they could sweep away anyone who refused to submit.

The other Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm did not go with them. Instead, they went to seize the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and the King Grade Saintwill Pill.

Swoosh

Swoosh

...

Lan Ying, Wujiang, and Luo Shengtian were also very fast. They each rushed toward a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, just as Zhang Ruochen had guessed at the beginning.

Prosperous Black-robe High Priest smiled and said, “The Yanluo clan is indeed supreme. With just one sentence, even a proud figure like Lan Ying would withdraw from the fight. It seems that Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill will be in Yan Wushen’s pocket.”

The elixir attendant said, “Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Wujiang, and Luo Shengtian are all peerless geniuses. Unfortunately, they have cultivated the Saintwill by studying the most profound path. Even if they can get Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, it won’t be of much significance.”

“As for other cultivators, let’s not talk about the fact that they can’t subdue the Elixir Spirit of Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Even if they succeed, the pill alone won’t be able to condense much of Saintwill.”

Prosperous Black-robe High Priest nodded, “Only when Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill falls into the hands of Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen can it arouse some expectations. Now it seems that the challenge has fallen on Yan Wushen.”

The elixir attendant understood that the so-called expectations and challenges referred to condensing a single Grade Three Saintwill and doing things that others couldn’t.

Only Yan Wushen, Zhang Ruochen, and Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill had a chance.

Even if other cultivators got the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, it would be in vain.

The elixir attendant said, “The gods should have the same expectations. However, the possibility of condensing a single Grade Three Saintwill is too slim. I think the gods are more looking forward to whether there are cultivators who can use the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill to fuse a Grade Two Saintwill. It has been many years since a Grade Two Saintwill was born in the Infernal Court.”

Prosperous Black-robe High Priest said, “The ten Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills refined by the Grand Supreme Elixir Master are extremely rare. Only 300,000 years ago, a Grand Supreme Elixir Master in the Celestial Palace refined a few. With its help, perhaps one or two of the four people, Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, and Wujiang, can successfully combine a Grade Two saintwill.”

The elixir attendant looked in the direction of the river of pill qi and said, “I think Zhang Ruochen has a better chance of fusing with the Grade Two saintwill. But... he has to get one Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill first.”

“For him, it will be a huge challenge. The competition for ten Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills is the most intense and cruel. Many Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm have joined hands,” Prosperous Black-robe High Priest said.

The appearance of the Saintwill Pills whetted the appetite of the gods in the Infernal Court. They were very interested in the outcome of the battle.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Dozens of Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm turned into beams of light and quickly caught up to the 100,000 top-tier Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills. However, they didn’t stop or collect them. Instead, they charged forward with all their might.

Top-tier Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills were priceless. Each one could be sold for more than a Godstone.

However, they weren’t of any help to them.

It wasn’t worth it to waste time and lose the chance to take the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift. Every time he disappeared, he would appear hundreds of miles away. A moment later, he surpassed Yan Huangtu, Lan Ying, and the others and charged to the front.

Lan Ying smiled coldly. “You’re a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint. What’s the point of rushing so fast? Collecting more Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills and selling them for Godstones is the right way.”

The Elixir Spirit of a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was comparable to a Supreme Saint in the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

He knew this. Even though Zhang Ruochen was fast, Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm didn't see him as a threat.

Could a Supreme Saint of the Neverwilt Realm take a sacred pill of the Thousand-Koan Realm all by himself?

Yan Wushen was also on par with Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Wushen also used the Great Dimensional Shift. His speed wasn't any slower than Zhang Ruochen's, he raised his voice and laughed. "Zhang Ruochen, if you want to take a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, you should bring Xia Yu with you. As long as you can achieve your goal, it's not shameful to borrow external power."

"What if I want to take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yan Wushen's pupils were constricted. He couldn't figure out whether Zhang Ruochen was telling the truth or not.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen waved his sleeve. A large number of Marks of Time gathered into tidal light spots and flew toward Yan Wushen.

Whoosh

Yan Wushen stretched out a golden finger and drew a space crack that was more than 10 miles long. He put all the Marks of Time light spots in and dissolved them.

Taking this opportunity, Zhang Ruochen was one step ahead and caught up with 10 Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pills.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen still had no intention of stopping, Yan Wushen thought to himself, 'What is Zhang Ruochen up to? Does he really have the ability to take Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills or even Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills? Unless... '

Yan Wushen could only think of one possibility. The Supreme Artifact of the Immortal Vampires was in Zhang Ruochen's hands.

Of course, it was almost impossible.

No one knew Zhang Ruochen's strength better than Yan Wushen. In his opinion, before Zhang Ruochen broke his first shackle, there was still a big gap between him, Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind of the Immortal Vampires.

How could the Immortal Vampires' gods give the Supreme Artifact to him?

Besides, even if Zhang Ruochen had the Supreme Artifact, he couldn't defeat the Elixir Spirit at the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. If he really fought it head-on, he would most likely be killed instantly. It was simply courting death.

Zhang Ruochen found his first target.

It was a Saintwill Pill of Quasi-Emperor Grade. The Elixir Spirit appeared as a Yin-yang Jasmine. Two bloomed flowers, one Yin and one Yang. It was as lovely as the sun and the moon.

It should be very suitable to help me integrate the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill.

An extremely dangerous aura approached just as this thought flashed through Zhang Ruochen's mind. The scorching airwave appeared to melt his Neverwither physique.

It was a flower from the Yin-yang Jasmine. It pressed down on him from above.

The flower was like a divine sun. It was very similar to the heat from Lord Ming's Stellar Sword. It could fuse with everything and destroy the Neverwither physique.

The flames from the flower were Divine Purification Flame of Emperor Flame level.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen had to raise his arm and unleash an absolute Yang Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike in a hurry. It collided with the flower of the Yin-yang Jasmine.

A fierce collision.

A terrifying power crashed down on him and sent him flying more than a hundred miles.

Zhang Ruochen's blood-red robe was riddled with holes from the Divine Purification Flame. Some of his hair was on fire, and his right arm was in great pain. Luckily, he had a powerful Demigod-level physique, so he wasn't injured. He was just in a sorry state.

'This is the power of a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. I'll probably have to cultivate the Hundred-Shackle Realm to fight it head-on,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

The cultivators of the Infernal Court Realm were all laughing behind him.

"What's the point of rushing so fast? You're overestimating yourself. How dare you try to take the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?" Wujiang snorted. His face was full of mockery and ridicule.

"Zhang Ruochen was indeed skillful to block the Elixir Spirit's attack."

Xu shook his head. "A Thousand-Koan Realm Elixir Spirit isn't so easy to deal with. Zhang Ruochen overestimates his own strength. However, that Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill suits me."

Including Xu, four Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm rushed toward the Yin-yang Jasmine.

"You only know how to show off. Aren't you embarrassed?" Lord Xia Yu glanced in the direction of the Yin-yang Jasmine. Then, she and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan rushed toward another Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill.

The four Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm came within a hundred miles of the Yin-yang Jasmine. They sensed the powerful ripples of power from the Quasi-Emperor Grade saint's Pill. They all stopped and took out a Regal Artifact each.

Before they could act, they heard Zhang Ruochen's voice coming from afar.

"Get out of the way, all of you."

The four Supreme Saints looked for the voice and saw Zhang Ruochen standing at the other end of the void space. He was pointing a Violet Gourd at them... No, at the Yin-yang Jasmine.

“You told us to get out of the way, and we should follow? What a joke,” an Ashura Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm said coldly.

Another Corpusian Supreme Saint of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm suggested, “He’s just a clown in the Neverwilt Realm. Why don’t we cripple him first and then use our own abilities to take the Sacred Pill?”

Xu’s eyes were fixed on the Violet Gourd in Zhang Ruochen’s hand. Suddenly, he felt a slight fluctuation in the space. His expression changed, and he retreated quickly like lightning.

Whoosh

36 million Dimensional inscriptions at the mouth of the gourd were activated by Zhang Ruochen. They instantly turned into a circular dimensional array that covered hundreds of miles.

“Not good!”

“Why is there a dimensional array?”

The other three Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm realized that something was wrong. They immediately burst out with their fastest speed, trying to escape from the dimensional array.

Boom

Within a few hundred miles, space collapsed and contracted, forming a powerful suction force that gathered at the gourd’s mouth.

The Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill’s Elixir Spirit, Yin-yang Jasmine, was the first to bear the brunt of the suction force. Its massive body rapidly shrank and was sucked into the gourd.

Apart from that, more than ten King Grade Saintwill Pills within the dimensional array were also sucked in.

Even though Xu had escaped from the dimensional array, he has still been pulled back hundreds of meters by the Violet Gourd's suction force. His body was completely out of his control.

After stabilizing himself, Xu felt his scalp go numb. He stared at the gourd in Zhang Ruochen's hand from afar and immediately fled. He didn't dare to stay there any longer.

"What a terrifying gourd. Although it's not a Supreme Artifact, it's even more terrifying than some Supreme Artifacts. It looks like this is Zhang Ruochen's biggest trump card."

The feeling of weightlessness that was out of his control just now made Xu feel very uncomfortable.

The other three Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm had escaped from the dimensional array. They stabilized themselves and retreated immediately, not daring to get too close to Zhang Ruochen.

Fortunately, the huge body of the Yin-yang Jasmine blocked most of the suction force of the Violet Gourd. Otherwise, the three of them might not have been able to escape.

"Damn it! What kind of gourd was that of Zhang Ruochen? The suction force is too strong. It can't be blocked at all."

"I think it's a top-tier Regal Artifact, and it has the property of dimension. If you meet Zhang Ruochen in the future, you'd better be careful. Don't fail miserably."

"Don't be too nervous. In my opinion, the gourd is only within 300 miles. The suction force is the strongest. Moreover, it will take a long time to activate once. It's nothing to be afraid of. If we launch a long-range attack or don't give him a chance to activate the gourd, he'll have to take a beating."

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had only activated the dimensional array at the mouth of the gourd. He hadn't activated the power of the Golden Sun of Destruction and the stellar core in the gourd, so he hadn't released Supreme Power. The devouring power was also very limited.

"This gourd... is interesting..."

The surprised Lady Wind witnessed that from far away.

A Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill had been taken away so easily. Many cultivators became alert and thought about strategies to deal with the gourd.

Zhang Ruochen didn't stop. He rushed toward another Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

The Elixir Spirit of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was also a flower. It appeared to be a hand. It clenched its four fingers and stretched out its index finger. It emitted a bright red light.

The flower was called the Immortal Cactus.

The cultivator who fought with the Immortal Cactus was Wujiang of the Nether Clan.

The shockwaves from the battle between Wujiang and the Immortal Cactus turned into waves of energy that spread thousands of miles away.

There was no one else besides Wujiang.

No cultivator dared to fight with him.

With Wujiang's powerful cultivation, it was obviously not easy to subdue an Elixir Spirit at the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. One man and one flower. The fierce battle shook the space violently.

Zhang Ruochen had only flown 500 miles away when he was noticed by Wujiang.

When Zhang Ruochen had used the Violet Gourd to collect the Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, it had caused a great fluctuation. Of course, Wujiang had noticed it, so he did not dare to underestimate him.

"This Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill is mine. You'd better not get your hands on it."

Wujiang transmitted his voice in a threatening tone.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't afraid of him. He said coldly, "You've spent so much time, but you still haven't subdued the Elixir Spirit. I don't think you can do it. You'd better step aside and let me do it."

Zhang Ruochen said Wujiang couldn't manage.

How could it be so easy to subdue the Elixir Spirit?

Not only couldn't destroy the Elixir Spirit, but he couldn't damage the pill itself.

It was harder than defeating a Supreme Saint in the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm or even killing a Supreme Saint in the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

"How dare you speak to me that way? Who gave you such courage to do so?"

Wujiang felt that Zhang Ruochen was deliberately provoking him. His eyes turned cold. During the fight with the Immortal Cactus, Wujiang put his hands together in front of his chest. A dark brilliance bloomed behind him, condensing 100 hand shadows in a circular formation.

Swoosh

100 black hand shadows each struck out a palm, turning into 100 palms that attacked Zhang Ruochen across the air.

Each palm grew larger and larger.

Finally, it seemed to turn into 100 Mount Wuzhi, releasing a bone-chilling power that completely enveloped Zhang Ruochen.

Chapter 2288: Myriad Eye Illusion

Zhang Ruochen looked up and saw numerous Palm Prints flying toward him. The space was shaking, and the airflow was surging rapidly. The power fluctuated layer by layer. It was like the waves of the Milky Way.

The Palm Prints carried Dark power and swallowed the Saint Light emitted from Zhang Ruochen's body.

“Such a powerful attack from a mere distraction. Wu Jiang is indeed a powerful enemy that can not be underestimated.”

Zhang Ruochen seemed to be here to take the quasi Emperor Grade Sacred Pill. In fact, he had another purpose. He wanted to test Wu Jiang's strength so that he would not be caught off guard when they met on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield.

The Supreme Saints who could reach the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm within a thousand years were all extraordinary. They all had trump cards. Even a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint would suffer greatly if he underestimated them.

Furthermore, Wu Jiang was ranked at the top of the list of the Great Perfection at Hundred-Shackle Realm. Naturally, Zhang Ruochen paid great attention to Wu Jiang. He didn't dare to underestimate his opponent.

Without confronting Wu Jiang head-on, Zhang Ruochen used Great Dimensional Shift. Before the 100 Palm Prints landed, he crossed space and disappeared.

Wu Jiang noticed this and wasn't surprised. He seemed to have guessed that Zhang Ruochen would use Great Dimensional Shift to dodge the Palm Prints. A cold smile appeared on his face. He said to himself, ‘Masters of Space aren't always successful.’

His lips moved. Instantly, the power of Curse spread out silently from his body. Like fog, like cotton, and like a net, it enveloped the universe within a thousand miles.

For the Nether Clan, the power of Curse was their most basic method.

It was like the sword of a sword cultivator, the devouring power of a Saint Devourer, the knowledge of a Confucian cultivator...

The mysterious and eerie power of Curse could rival the power of Time and Space.

At this moment, Wu Jiang was using the "Blood-devouring Curse" from the power of Curse. It was a curse specifically used to deal with humans, Rakshasa, Immortal Vampires, and other beings of flesh and blood

Once the curse hit a cultivator, the blood in his body would drain rapidly until he turned into a dried corpse.

Even the caster of the curse didn't know where the disappeared blood had gone and who had devoured it.

Whoosh

The space trembled slightly. Zhang Ruochen appeared. He was only a hundred miles away from Wu Jiang and the finger of the immortal. He stood in a triangle.

The Blood-devouring Curse caught Zhang Ruochen's aura and gathered toward him.

"Not good."

The power of Curse invaded Zhang Ruochen's body. His skin caved in, and his body withered quickly. Even if he mobilized Saint Qi and Divine Purification Flame as defense, he couldn't resist it.

The power of the Blood-devouring Curse was everywhere. Any defense was useless.

"Just enjoy the pain of losing blood!" Wu Jiang shook his head. He couldn't be bothered to watch anymore.

Killing Zhang Ruochen was just as difficult as killing an insect.

Zhang Ruochen folded his arms. His body shrank and quickly turned into a small light dot. The light spot jumped and used Great Dimensional Shift to escape thousands of miles away from the space covered by the Blood-devouring Curse.

“What a terrible Curse power. The curse attacks I encountered in Kunlun are far inferior to Wu Jiang’s ones.”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t panic because he knew that there was still a big gap between him and Wu Jiang in terms of pure strength. This time, he fought against Wu Jiang for the quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill to see how big the gap was.

Half of Zhang Ruochen’s body had withered, and he had lost a lot of Saint Blood.

He tried his best to mobilize the Divine Purification Flame and refine the power of the Blood-devouring Curse in his body, but the effect was minimal. He was still losing the blood in his body, and a strong sense of weakness invaded him, making him sleepy.

Logically speaking, the Divine Purification Flame could break the power of Curse, but it depended on the strength of the Divine Purification Flame and the power of Curse. A drop of water could extinguish a candle fire but not a big one.

Divine Purification Flame was Emperor-level flames. But if the users’ cultivations were different, so the number of Fire Precepts they could intergrade was different. And the level of power unleashed was naturally different.

“It seems that I have to reach Hundred-Shackle Realm at least to refine the power of Curse with the Divine Purification Flame. Now... I’m still lacking.” Zhang Ruochen endured the pain of losing blood, he tried other ways to resist the power of Curse.

Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest nodded slightly and praised, “The Blood-devouring Curse is one of the Nether Clan’s six great Curses. Wu Jiang has already practiced to the seventh level at such a young age. “Logically speaking, only a Supreme Saint Netherkin can do it.

“For a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint to practice the Blood-devouring Curse to the fifth level is already considered an outstanding talent.”

The elixir attendant said, “Don’t forget, he’s the disciple of the Fane of Darkness. He has myriad hands and eyes. He’ll definitely reach the heavens in the future. With his strength, he could be invincible in the same realm.”

“Unfortunately, in this era, there’s a Divine Fetus and an elite with Royal Divine Frame. That’s why he’s being suppressed.”

“Zhang Ruochen hasn’t reached Hundred-Shackle Realm yet. It’s not wise to provoke Wu Jiang.”

Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest said, “Zhang Ruochen will die under the Blood-devouring Curse in a moment.”

“Well... right now, they are still in the stage of snatching pills, and they haven’t entered the Celestial-Hunting battlefield yet. It isn’t the official beginning, so I’ll help him. At least, I have to save his life so that it won’t be hard to explain it to Wargod Bloodximius.”

Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest was about to attack, but he noticed something. He stopped and let out a soft exclamation.

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen, who was floating in the space of the universe, let out bright green light from his abdomen. It purified the power of the Blood-devouring Curse.

Even his shriveled body recovered in an instant. His skin became as smooth as jade again.

The green light was the light of the Heart of the Divine Tree. It contained endless life essence and was the nemesis of the Blood-devouring Curse.

In order to improve his spiritual power, Zhang Ruochen had already swallowed the Heart of the Divine Tree and absorbed Divine Sky-connecting Tree’s knowledge. He didn’t expect it to have an effect on the curse at this time.

The Blood-devouring Curse dispersed. Zhang Ruochen's essence, Qi, and spirit were full again. He rushed toward Wu Jiang and the Immortal Cactus' Elixir Spirit.

Wu Jiang's cultivation's level was profound. He had already suppressed the Immortal Cactus' Elixir Spirit. He was at the crucial moment of taking it.

When he found that Zhang Ruochen had dispelled the Blood-devouring Curse and was reapproaching, he couldn't help but look surprised.

“Zhang Ruochen can dispel the Blood-devouring Curse?”

It must be known a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint had suffered a great loss at the hands of Wu Jiang because of Blood-devouring Curse.

‘The power of the Blood-devouring Curse covers an area of a thousand miles. Creatures of flesh and blood can't get close. How did Zhang Ruochen do it? How did he block the power of Curse?’

“Your Blood-devouring Curse is very powerful, but unfortunately, it can't do anything to me. Get out of the way, or I'll take you with me.”

Zhang Ruochen held Violet Gourd with both hands. He stood under the Immortal Cactus and pointed the mouth of the gourd toward Wu Jiang.

Whoosh!

36 million Dimensional inscriptions appeared at the mouth of the gourd. They spread for hundreds of miles.

Wu Jiang knew the power of the gourd very well and dared not to underestimate it. He looked behind him and found an asteroid that was hundreds of miles long in the shape of a giant rock.

He released his spiritual power and condensed it into an invisible hand. He grabbed the asteroid across the air and threw it at Zhang Ruochen.

“Withdraw!”

Zhang Ruochen shouted.

The space collapsed and contracted violently. The asteroid was crushed into pieces in an instant and was put into the gourd.

The swallowing power was not completely blocked. It still fell on the bodies of Wu Jiang and Immortal Cactus's Elixir Spirit and pulled them over quickly.

"What a powerful suction force."

Wu Jiang's face changed slightly and he immediately released the power of darkness.

With his body as the center, the surroundings became dark and swallowed all the power that was close to him. Looking from afar, the area where Wu Jiang's body was formed a huge black hole.

The black hole also emitted a strong suction force. It tugged at the power of the gourd. It was difficult to tell the strong from the weak.

After putting the quasi-emperor-class saint's will pill and the Immortal Cactus Elixir Spirit into the gourd, 36 million inscriptions of space returned to the mouth of the gourd and were restrained.

In the black hole, Wu Jiang walked out and stood more than 10 miles away from Zhang Ruochen. His face was full of killing intent. He said, "Return the quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. I can spare your life for now."

Zhang Ruochen closed the lid of the gourd and stared at him without fear. He said, "I want to see what else you can do. Just show me."

"Okay, you're the one looking for death. Don't blame me."

The black lightning pattern on Wu Jiang's forehead released wisps of electric light. They slowly cracked and turned into an eye. Dense illusory light appeared in his pupils. They formed a myriad eyes lining up in front of him.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen's consciousness became blurry. He didn't know if he was in an illusion or reality.

He only felt that the world he was in was illuminated by myriad rays of light. Myriad eyes hung above his head like stars. Each of them gave off an aura that was as terrifying as a god.

If it were any other cultivator, even a Supreme Saint, being stared at by myriad divine eyes, he would probably be kneeling on the ground.

However, Zhang Ruochen held on with a strong will. His body was as taut as iron, and he didn't yield in the illusory realm of "Myriad Eye Illusion".

"Not bad. Your willpower is so strong. It's a pity that your cultivation and spiritual power are too weak."

Wu Jiang walked toward Zhang Ruochen step by step. His face was handsome but extremely cold. He said again, "Your spiritual power is only at the 62nd level, yet you dare to take the initiative to fight against me. Don't you know that with your poor cultivation, you should run from me as far away as possible?"

Zhang Ruochen could hear Wu Jiang's voice and sense him approaching. However, the myriad divine eyes locked onto him, forcing him to fight with all his strength. Other than that, he couldn't even lift a finger.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen activated the will of the Immovable Wisdom King in his heart. He slowly raised his arms. Nine-storey divine palace appeared above his head to counter the myriad divine eyes.

He thought to himself, everything is an illusion. There was no way Wu Jiang could release myriad divine might. It's all illusion. I must overcome the illusion and seek the truth

...

In Qi Stream of Elixir in the distance, Luo Sha, who had just taken a King Grade Saintwill Pill, saw this scene, she was anxious. 'Zhang Ruochen is such a reckless person. How can he challenge an elite like Wu Jiang now?

‘Wu Jiang’s spiritual power has reached the 66th level. He has once defeated a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint with his spiritual power alone. If he performs Myriad Eye Illusion, even a Thousand-Koan Realm elite will have to retreat.’

Wu Jiang walked to Zhang Ruochen and extended an index finger. He spat the power of Darkness from his fingertip. It turned into a black sharp blade and slowly stabbed toward Zhang Ruochen’s glabella.

Crash.

The space slightly shook.

“Stop!”

Luo Sha used the Great Dimensional Shift and appeared in front of Wu Jiang. Circles of spatial ripples appeared under his feet as if he was standing in the center of a lake.

Wu Jiang did not look at Luo Sha directly. He said casually, “Your Highness, you’d better mind your own business. You can’t stop me. If your brother is here, maybe you have a chance.”

“I’m not here to stop you. I’m here to save you,” Luo Sha said.

A look of confusion appeared in Wu Jiang’s eyes. He stopped the blade in his hand and stared at Luo Sha. “Save me?”

“The Celestial-Hunting battle has officially begun. If you kill Zhang Ruochen, you’ll lose 500,000 points. Do you have 500,000 points now?”

Luo Sha’s beautiful eyes were enchanting. A charming smile appeared on her face. “If you lose points, you’ll be expelled from the Celestial-Hunting battle. Don’t you want to participate in the Celestial-Hunting battle?”

Wu Jiang snorted and said, “Now, everyone is fighting for Saintwill Pills. Moreover, we haven’t entered the Celestial-Hunting battlefield yet. Are you threaten me with the rules of the Celestial-hunting Battlefield? Will that work?”

Luo Sha’s gaze turned to the Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest and asked, “High Priest, if I get the pill, other cultivators still want to snatch it by force. They even want to kill me. Does that count as violating the rules of the Celestial-hunting battlefield?”

Before the Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest could speak, Luo Sha continued, “The high priest had personally announced that the Celestial-hunting battle had officially begun.”

The Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest helplessly smiled bitterly. Immediately, his voice spread across the Qi Stream of Elixir as he said, “Once the medicinal pills are taken, they can not be snatched again. Otherwise, it will be considered as violations in the Celestial-hunting battle and points will be deducted.”

When Wu Jiang heard this, his gentle eyes became ferocious. He stared at Luo Sha and said, “Okay, I’ll remember it! No one can take what belongs to me. Hmph!”

Wu Jiang waved his sleeve and left. His voice then sounded. “It’s not good for Your Highness to get too close to Zhang Ruochen.”

“Thank you for the reminder,” Luo Sha replied.

Myriad Eye Illusion disappeared.

Zhang Ruochen recovered from the illusion. His face was solemn as he thought hard about how to crack Wu Jiang. Just like other cultivators who thought hard about how to crack the Path of Time and the Path of Dimension, there was always a way to resist.

The fragrant wind approached and floated in front of him.

Luo Sha’s long hair fluttered in the wind. She looked alluring. She glanced at Zhang Ruochen and sized him up. She was relieved to see that Zhang Ruochen was not injured and he was still sane.

“I’ve told you not to provoke the top ten Hundred-Shackle Realm elites of the Great Perfection for the time being. How long have you been cultivating? How can you fight against them?”

“They might not look more than a thousand years old, but with the time spent cultivating in the arrays of Time, some of the Hundred-Shackle Realm elites who achieved the Great Perfection have been cultivating for close to ten thousand years.

“You have to at least break through the first shackle in order to start fighting against them.

“Wu Jiang’s Myriad Eye Illusion is very terrifying. Your spiritual power and intelligence are not damaged, right?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head gently and said, “I’m forcing him to use the Myriad Eye Illusion. Seeing it from the info is different from experiencing it personally.”

“Don’t you think you’re courting death?” Luo Sha glared at him with her phoenix eyes.

“I’ve figured out a way to break his Myriad Eye Illusion!” Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha was stunned, “Impossible,” he said. “The difference in the strength of your spiritual power is too great. “Even if he doesn’t use the Myriad Eye Illusion and only uses his spiritual power to perform the illusion, you still won’t be able to resist.

“Only my brother’s innate divine eyes and the power of the two shining planets in his pupils can resolve it. That is why my brother’s ranking is higher than his.”

“Not necessarily. No matter how powerful the illusion is, if it is seen through, it will lose its power,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha instantly understood Zhang Ruochen’s thoughts. She said, “You mean you want to see through the illusion with the power of Truth? But the difference in spiritual power is too big. Unless you have one percent of the Canon of Truth and are the Envoy of Truth, you can do it.”

“I don’t need to be the Envoy of Truth.”

Zhang Ruochen said thoughtfully. Then he turned around and looked at Luo Sha, saying, “Just now... Thank you!”

“Haha, you finally thank me?” Luo Sha narrowed her eyes and smiled like a little fox. She felt that she had gained a lot. Even if she had offended Wu Jiang, it seemed to be worth it.

Soon, Luo Sha stopped smiling and said seriously, “You need to feel the urgency to break the first shackle as soon as possible. Otherwise, you won’t be able to move forward in this Celestial-Hunting battle.”

“Yes, I do need to break the first shackle as soon as possible.”

After Luo Sha left, Zhang Ruochen focused his attention on another quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill.

There were three Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage fighting for the quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill. One of them was Yanhong, one of the three Scioness candidates.

“Perhaps I can try her strength.”

Zhang Ruochen caused a huge sensation and become the focus of attention when snatching two Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills.

“How dare he snatched a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill straight from Wu Jiang’s fingertips!”

“Who would have thought that Zhang Ruochen will be the biggest winner?”

“The gourd in Zhang Ruochen’s hand is really suitable to snatch the pills. He succeed because he had this advantage that others don’t, not because of his cultivation. ”

...

So far, the only cultivators who had successfully taken Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills were Lan Ying, Luo Shengtian, and Zhang Ruochen.

Needless to say, Lan Ying and Luo Shengtian were well-known in Infernal Court. They were the pace-setters of this generation. However, each of them had only taken one Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

Zhang Ruochen, despite being a Neverwilt Realm cultivator, had snatched two pills in a row. Hence, people were jealous.

Even Yan Wusheng — who was as famous as Zhang Ruochen — was still fighting hard. He hadn’t even secured one Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill yet.

Soon, the cultivators realized that Zhang Ruochen didn’t stop there and found a new target. He rushed toward the Blood Clover’s Elixir Spirit and was jumping between Dimensions at an extremely fast speed.

The main force fighting Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover was the beautiful Supreme Saint Yanhong.

“What is he planning to do? After stealing from Xu and Wu Jiang, he wants to go after Supreme Saint Yanhong’s pill now?”

The cultivators watching the pill snatching competition through the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms were all stunned. They thought that Zhang Ruochen was audacious.

Was it really good to make enemies everywhere?

At first, everyone had been speculating how Zhang Ruochen would avoid Wu Jiang, Xu, and Supreme Saint Yanhong on the battlefield of Celestial-hunting. However, they had never thought that Zhang Ruochen would take the initiative to attack.

Thousands of miles away, Lan Ying looked in the direction of the Blood Clover’s Elixir Spirit. He snorted and said, “Zhang Ruochen’s combat strength is far from being first place. Yet there should be no dispute that he should win a prize for his courage.”

Hong Futu, whose muscles bulged, stood beside Lan Ying. With a gravelly voice, he said “We’ve only snatched a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Why don’t we fight for it? Meanwhile, we could teach this arrogant kid a lesson.”

Lan Ying waved his hand, “That Pink Skull is one of the three candidates for Scioness. She’s smart so she won’t make the same mistake as Xu and Wu Jiang. It won’t be easy for Zhang Ruochen to snatch the pill from her. Besides, it’s just a mere Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill.”

Lan Ying turned around. His eyes shone with divine light as he looked at the five elites — in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm — from Yanluo clan who were fighting with the Elixir Spirit of Lotus of Divine Reflection.

The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was his target.

The weapon used by Supreme Saint Yanhong was a Class five Regal Artifact, a Purple Cauldron.

Hundreds of thousands of Regal Inscriptions surged out of Purple Cauldron and turned into a purple cloud that covered an area of hundreds of miles. The purple cloud churned non-stop and summoned 39 streaks of lightning that were as thick as rivers. They wrapped around the three branches of the Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover tightly and suppressed it.

The other two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm who were fighting for Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill did not dare to get close to the purple cloud and retreated to the side.

“It seems that this Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill is going to be snatched by Supreme Saint Yanhong. I can only snatch a few King Grade Saintwill Pills to make up for the loss.”

The two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm sighed, turned into two beams of light, and flew away quickly.

“At least you know your place.

“Oh no, it’s Zhang Ruochen!”

The smile on Supreme Saint Yanhong’s pale face disappeared. She released even more power to activate Purple Cauldron. She wanted to suppress the Blood Clover’s Elixir Spirit as soon as possible.

Zhang Ruochen held Violet Gourd in his hand and came behind Supreme Saint Yanhong. He said, “How could the number one powerhouse of Bone clan, the top-notch elite among the three candidates for Scioness, not use a Supreme Artifact?”

As he said this, Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and created a Dimensional Rift that was dozens of miles long. He slashed toward the spot between Saint Yanhong and the Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover.

Crack!

The dimension was torn apart. The connection between Saint Yanhong and Purple Cauldron was cut off instantly.

Rumble

Without Supreme Saint Yanhong’s control, Purple Cauldron’s power was greatly reduced. The Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover broke through its suppression and turned into a beam of blood light. It pierced through the thick purple fog and quickly headed toward the six-colored Forest of No Return.

“Zhang Ruochen!”

Supreme Saint Yanhong was about to succeed, but Zhang Ruochen had destroyed her chance. No matter how good her state of mind was, she could no longer control her anger. Her long hair fluttered like willow branches and grew longer. She flew through the air like a blade.

Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to underestimate her. He released the Spatial Domain and Null Time realm and was ready to activate the power of Dimension and Time.

“Actually, I'm very curious. Is the true form under your skin really pink?” Zhang Ruochen deliberately provoked Supreme Saint Yanhong.

If he could defeat her state of mind and make her panic, her combat strength would be greatly reduced.

“If you have the ability, you might have a chance to see it. However, I'm afraid it'd scare you.”

Supreme Saint Yanhong's face was exquisite as if it was carved out of a Crystal Divine Jade. Her eyes shone with spiritual light. Every cultivator was mesmerized by her appearance even though they knew her true form was a skeleton.

Just as the battle between the two was about to erupt, Supreme Saint Yanhong and Zhang Ruochen sensed that the two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage in Hundred-Shackle Realm, who had left previously, returned. They bypassed them and chased after the Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover.

“HMPH! Wait till I take Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and condense a Grade Three Saintwill. I'll deal with you slowly after then.”

Supreme Saint Yanhong turned into a beam of pink light and flew onto Purple Cauldron. She activated the Purple Cauldron and chased after Elixir of Blood Clover.

The Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill was very important to her. She couldn't afford to lose it.

Zhang Ruochen activated Precepts of Dimension. Just as he was about to use Great Dimensional Shift, a bright arrow cut through the dark universe and flew toward him.

"Lord Sinluo!"

Sensing the aura of the Divine Tree Arrow, Zhang Ruochen figured out who was attacking him. With a 'whoosh', he disappeared and moved a hundred miles away to avoid the arrow.

8,000 miles away, Lord Sinluo hovered in the air. Holding Frostwood bow, he smiled coldly. "With me here, you can forget about taking a Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Aren't the upper three clans supporting Pan Ruo? Aren't you afraid of being criticized for helping Supreme Saint Yanhong?"

"Do I need to explain my actions to you?"

Lord Sinluo drew Frostwood bow again. Another Divine Tree Arrow was placed on the bowstring condensed from cold air. The bow became crystal clear. He commanded, "All arrows fired at once."

Boom

A loud explosion was heard.

The Divine Tree Arrow flew at more than 5,000 times the speed of sound. It split into two in midair, then four, then four, then eight. Finally, it turned into a rain of arrows and flew toward Zhang Ruochen.

It was so fast that it could reach Zhang Ruochen in an instant even though they were shot out thousands of miles away.

Zhang Ruochen drew circles with his hands. Dense Precepts of Dimension flowed from his fingertips, distorting the Dimension in front of him by 180 degrees.

The rain of arrows that flew toward him suddenly flew back in the opposite direction.

“Instead of wasting time to attack me, why don’t you collect more Saintwill Pills?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly. He didn’t want to fight with Lord Sinluo so he left the space immediately. He jumped three times in a row and caught up with Supreme Saint Yanhong.

“Don’t forget about me!”

A 300-meter-wide ax silhouette hacked down from the sky, carrying a strong wind force.

The fluctuation of power locked onto Zhang Ruochen. It forced Zhang Ruochen to freeze the space above his head and form a Spatial Shield to resist the attack of ax silhouette.

Bang!

When the ax silhouette and Spatial Shield collided, it formed waves of energy ripples.

With a crack, Spatial Shield was shattered by the blood-red ax. Seeing that the ax was about to land on Zhang Ruochen, Zhang Ruochen held the mouth of the gourd in his hand and hit the edge of the ax hard.

The ear-piercing sound of metal colliding echoed through the vast space.

Zhang Ruochen’s body fell rapidly. He spread out his ten golden wings and gradually stabilized himself. He looked up and saw a thousand-foot-tall Rakshasa Warsoul standing in the starry sky, looking down at him.

Below Rakshasa Warsoul, a four-meter-tall burly figure stood on a cloud of evil Qi.

It was Warlord Mara, the most powerful man in Dhisan, one of the seven great kingdoms of the Rakshasa.

Holding a blood ax the size of a millstone, Warlord Mara glared ferociously and said in a low voice, “Zhang Ruochen, we meet again!”

Supreme Saint Yanhong was slightly surprised to find that it was Warlord Mara who had attacked Zhang Ruochen. But after a while, a smile appeared on her lips. She did not stay any longer and continued to chase after the Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover.

Zhang Ruochen glanced in the direction where Saint Yanhong had left. He frowned and felt helpless, “Am I that hateful? I can’t believe that you and Lord Sinluo, the elites of the lower three clans and the upper three clans respectively would rather help Supreme Saint Yanhong just to deal with me?”

“What if Supreme Saint Yanhong gets Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill? If her cultivation improves again, it’ll be your fault if Lady Wind and Pan Ruo fail to become Scioness.”

Warlord Mara hated Zhang Ruochen to the bone. “Don’t you know how hateful you are? Today, I’ll fight you again to wash away the shame on Arena of Life and Death.”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t want to fight with Warlord Mara. He looked in the direction of Fortune Palace Black-robe High Priest and said, “High Priest, Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting has begun. Attacking the cultivators of Infernal Court will cost 5,000 points, right?”

Warlord Mara immediately stopped his ax. He was a bit nervous as he was afraid that he would be expelled from Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Black-robe High Priest said softly, “You’ll only lose 5,000 points if you attack your own cultivators maliciously. Now, you’re fighting for Saintwill Pill. Therefore, it’s not against the rules if you attack each other.”

“You’re right, High Priest.”

Warlord Mara bared his snow-white teeth and smiled coldly. He swung his ax again.

When Zhang Ruochen received Warlord Mara’s ax, Zhang Ruochen had discovered that Warlord Mara’s combat power had increased greatly compared to his strength on Arena of Life and Death. He must have broken through the last shackle and reached the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

It wasn't strange. In Realm of Star Ocean's Auction, Warlord Mara had spent 11,000 Godstones to buy a cauldron of Fugue Pills.

With the power of Fugue Pills, it was entirely possible to help him break through the realm.

The bone wings on Warlord Mara's back grew from eight to ten.

Even the ax in his hand was not Parashu, a Class two Regal Artifact. Instead, it was a divine relic, a Class Four Regal Artifact. The ax contained powerful divine power.

Zhang Ruochen did not clash head-on with Warlord Mara. Instead, he used Great Dimensional Shift to jump through Dimensions and rush toward Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover.

"Where do you think you're going? Zhang Ruochen, I must avenge myself today."

Warlord Mara spread his ten wings. His speed was as fast as Zhang Ruochen's, who had used Great Dimensional Shift. In an instant, he had caught up to Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover.

"Split clouds and break the sky."

The blood-red ax hacked down. With the aura like it could split heaven and earth apart.

"Why are they fighting here?"

"What great power. Warlord Mara has broken through to the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-shackle Realm."

The two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-shackle Realm who were suppressing Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover, immediately dodged. Even they didn't dare to touch Warlord Mara's ax.

One had to know when Warlord Mara broke through his ninety-nine shackles, he had fought a Supreme Saint at the early stage of Thousand-Koan Realm to a draw. Since Warlord Mara had breakthrough his cultivation base, his combat powers had increased dramatically, Luo Shengtian was probably the only Rakshasa who could suppress him.

Even a normal Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm would have to dodge his attack.

Boom!

Warlord Mara's ax fell from the edge of the Elixir of Blood Clover and injured the Elixir Spirit's ontology. Tens of thousands of petals light rain flew out from the wound.

One could imagine how terrifying the power of this ax was.

"How could he be so strong? Warlord Mara is a ruthless person who turns shame into courage. If I had known earlier, I would have dug out his heart of Supreme Saint on Arena of Life and Death and sold it. This way, he wouldn't have recovered to his peak so easily, and it would be impossible for him to break through to the Great Perfection stage before Celestial-Hunting Festival,"

Zhang Ruochen felt a little regretful. However, with a powerful Supreme Saint, Warlord Mara, messing things up. It would be very helpful for him to take Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill if he used Warlord Mara well.

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen flapped his ten golden wings and flew toward Supreme Saint Yanhong.

"If you're capable, stop dodging. Last time, I was careless and lost to you. Now, I have cultivated the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. I can suppress you with just one hand now."

Warlord Mara propped up his thousand-foot-high Rakshasa Warsoul again, and his eyes followed Zhang Ruochen's flight path.

"It seems that you have a bad memory as you still underestimate your enemy. If you really fight with one hand, you will only be suppressed by me and kneel on the ground again," Zhang Ruochen said.

Thinking of the humiliation of being suppressed by Zhang Ruochen on Arena of Life and Death, Warlord Mara's eyes were as red as blood. He roared and swung his ax horizontally.

This ax not only attacked Zhang Ruochen but also locked onto Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Supreme Saint Yanhong frowned. She had no choice but to control Purple Cauldron to defend in front of her.

Whoosh-

Zhang Ruochen took a step back and stepped into the space ripples. His body sank in.

When he appeared again, he was above Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover. He took out Violet Gourd and activated the Dimensional Inscription at the mouth of Groud.

“Be careful of Zhang Ruochen.”

“Let’s attack him together. We can’t let him take Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.”

The two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm who was watching noticed Zhang Ruochen’s actions. One attacked with a Regal Artifact, while the other spat corpse Qi. They turned into thousands of black-armored Corpse Kings and surrounded Zhang Ruochen.

However, they were too late. The Dimensional Inscription at the mouth of Groud was activated.

The Regal Artifact swords, as well as the densely packed black-armored Corpse Kings, fell into Dimensional Array.

Chapter 2290: Battle For the Gourd

“Oh no.”

The two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm were afraid to be sucked into Violet Gourd. Unable to care for the sword and Black-armored Corpse Kings, they quickly shot out two mighty clouds of death. With the rebound force from the clouds, they flew backward like cannonballs.

Boom!

Elixir Spirit of Blood Clover, the Regal Artifact sword, and more than 3,000 Black-armored Corpse Kings within the area covered by Dimensional Array were sucked into Violet Gourd.

“That cauldron...”

In the reflection of Zhang Ruochen’s pupils, Supreme Saint Yanhong’s Purple Cauldron flew over quickly, but it did not shrink in size.

With a ‘bang’, Purple Cauldron crashed heavily into the mouth of Violet Gourd.

At the same time, a large amount of lightning surged out of the cauldron. Like a dragon or a snake, the lightning swam across the surface of the gourd and struck Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s reaction was extremely fast. In an instant, the ten golden wings on his back bent forward and wrapped around his entire body. The wings folded and turned into a Golden Orb.

Violet Gourd and the Golden Orb were sent flying after being struck by dozens of lightning bolts.

Supreme Saint Yanhong’s graceful figure flew out from behind Purple Cauldron like a ghost spirit. Her slender legs landed on the edge of the cauldron. A crisp sound rang out when the red jade bracelets on her ankles collided with each other.

“It’s not that easy to snatch my things.”

The lightning from Purple Cauldron turned the area within a hundred miles into a forbidden zone. It also reflected Supreme Saints Yanhong’s figure, which was both beautiful and demonic.

Suddenly, her eyes shone with a scorching light. She discovered Violet Gourd in the pitch-black dimension and revealed a look of joy. She immediately stretched out her snow-white hand and grabbed at it.

Her silhouette white hand reached over 80 miles in an instant.

Boom!

Just as she was about to retrieve Violet Gourd, Warlord Mara chopped down with his axe and cut off her hand’s silhouette.

Seeing that Warlord Mara had arrived and was rapidly approaching Violet Gourd, Supreme Saint Yanhong let out a cold snort. She kicked Purple Cauldron lightly with her feet, and it immediately flew out to collide with him.

On the other side, two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm were from Corpusian and Stone clan. Their gazes landed on Violet Gourd. They were overjoyed and immediately activated their secret techniques to fly toward the direction of the gourd at their fastest speed.

The gourd itself was a precious asset. Furthermore, there were three Quasi-Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills in it.

Whoever could obtain the gourd would be the biggest winner in this pill snatching competition.

After all, the deities and millions of cultivators from Infernal Court were watching. Whoever performed well would gain higher status and greatest fame in Infernal Court.

“Blood-dripped Corpse Emperor,”

Hundred-Shackle Realm Corpusian in the Great Perfection stage slit his right wrist. Large amounts of corpse blood flowed out and condensed into a Black-armored Corpse Emperor. The aura of a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint erupted from his body.

“Don’t try to fight with me. I, Black-Feathered Corpse Emperor, want Zhang Ruochen’s gourd!”

Black-Feathered Corpse Emperor’s true form moved to the right and blocked the Supreme Saint from Stone clone, Qiang Zun. A palm strike containing corrosive power crashed down.

At the same time, Black-armored Corpse Emperor condensed from corpse blood flew rapidly toward Violet Gourd.

The other cultivators of Infernal Court didn’t expect this to happen. After a moment of shock, they were all in ebullience.

“Quick, go and take Zhang Ruochen’s gourd. That’s the real treasure.”

“Taking the gourd is equivalent to taking three Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills.”

“Zhang Ruochen had thrown the helve after the hatchet this time. So what if he snatched three Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills? He was only paving the way for others.”

Violet Gourd was too valuable. The cultivators that were closer all rushed over.

Meanwhile, the Elixir Spirit of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill that Lord Xia Yu and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan fought for was shaped like a peony, but it was dark green. The flower was more than 3,000 meters long and looked like a flower cloud. It was about to be taken.

However, Wu Jiang stepped in and snatched it.

Wu Jiang held Elixir Spirit of Peony in his palm. He was tall and handsome, he smiled proudly and said, “I know you guys are recalcitrant, but you can’t blame me. You can only blame Zhang Ruochen. Someone has to bear the price for Zhang Ruochen in stealing my Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Lord Xia Yu watched as Wu Jiang disappeared into the darkness of the universe. They were furious, but they restrained themselves due to the Celestial-hunting rules. Therefore, they didn’t attack.

“Wu Jiang is too powerful. Even if the two of us join hands, we might not be his match.” Supreme Saint Yi Xuan sighed.

He was extremely disappointed, "I will keep my promise to you."

Lord Xia Yu stared in the direction where Wu Jiang left and said, "The Dharma Saintwill Wu Jiang unleashed earlier should be a top-tier Grade Three Saintwill. Otherwise, it would be impossible to suppress the Elixir Spirit of Peony with just one attack. Even though we managed to suppress the Elixir Spirit at that time."

"Are you worried that he could fuse a Grade Two Saintwill after obtaining the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?" Supreme Saint Yi Xuan asked.

Lord Xia Yu said, "Forming Grade Two Saintwill is as difficult as ascending to heaven. But Wu Jiang's talent would be considered invincible if he was in another era. Hence, with the help of Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, the chances will greatly increase."

Faced with a figure like Wu Jiang, even if Lord Xia Yu thought highly of herself, she had to admit that there was a big gap between the both of them.

"Don't worry. Zhang Ruochen has already taken two Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills. Once he reaches the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he'll definitely be able to counter Wu Jiang," Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said.

"Not good."

Lord Xia Yu was in the deep space of the universe. Lord Xia Yu had a ghastly expression when she saw Zhang Ruochen and Violet Gourd being hit by Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan followed her gaze and looked over, "Our Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill has been taken away. It's impossible to take it back. Zhang Ruochen's Violet Gourd should have stored the third Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill already. We can't afford to lose that gourd."

"Let's go."

Lord Xia Yu was even more anxious. She knew that Violet Gourd was the only Supreme Artifact in Immortal Vampires. If it was taken away at the start of Celestial-Hunting battle, the entire Immortal Vampires would become the laughing stock of Infernal Court.

“This bastard Zhang Ruochen, doesn’t he know that he should quit while he’s ahead? Why did he steal from Supreme Saint Yanhong? Now we’re in big trouble!” Lord Xia Yu was speechless. She spread the ten wings on her back and flew at full speed.

“Other than Lord Xia Yu, Bloodysky Clan has another Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. When did Supreme Saint Yi Xuan breakthrough his realm?”

“This is incredible! Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Zhang Ruochen. Just one Bloodysky Clan has three powerhouses. Who can compete with the ten major clans of Immortal Vampires?”

“If Dishastan continues to be enemies with Bloodysky Clan this year, I’m afraid they’ll suffer a great loss.”

...

After Supreme Saint Yi Xuan’s cultivation was exposed, everyone was shocked.

The forces that had a conflict of interest with the Bloodysky Clan were under even more pressure.

Xu stared at Lord Xia Yu and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, who was rushing to help Zhang Ruochen. He said to himself, “They’ve hidden their strength so well. It seems that Bloodysky Clan is very ambitious for this year’s Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

He opened his palm and lifted Pleiades Lotus. He attacked Lord Xia Yu and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Even if he didn’t take the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he had to stop Zhang Ruochen’s reinforcements. He had to isolate Zhang Ruochen. At the same time, he was helping Supreme Saint Yanhong take Violet Gourd.

Black-armored Corpse King, formed by Black-Feathered Corpse Emperor using blood, was the first to arrive. It reached out to grab Violet Gourd.

Before the black corpse hand could touch the Gourd, crimson-gold flames that contained destructive heat surged out of the Gourd.

Crack

Even a Corpse Emperor's power couldn't withstand the gourd's power. Its hand was melted by the flames and turned back into a ball of black corpse blood.

The Crimson-gold Flames were the power of Violet Gourd's vessel spirit.

One had to know that a vessel spirit's power was comparable to a Supreme Saint from Hundred-Shackle Realm.

30 miles away, Zhang Ruochen's true form appeared from Golden Orb. He grabbed with his hand and Violet Gourd flew toward him automatically. However, Violet Gourd stopped after flying for a short distance.

Strands of hair wrapped around the Gourd. The strands of hair pulled the gourd tightly and stopped Zhang Ruochen from taking it away.

It was Supreme Saint Yanhong's hair.

Each strand of hair was like a holy chain. It was extremely tough and contained Precepts.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He took a step forward and stepped into the Dimensional Gate. He used Great Dimensional Shift and prepared to descend next to Violet Gourd.

Supreme Saint Yanhong's technique was brilliant as she quickly got rid of Warlord Mara. Her hands emitted a pink fog of light and continued to smash into Purple Cauldron.

The Purple Cauldron flew above Violet Gourd and rotated slowly.

The first circle immediately brought a fierce squall that turned into a huge purple tornado.

The second circle made the squall even more terrifying. It shook the Dimension.

In the third circle...

Purple Cauldron spun faster and faster. It forced Zhang Ruochen — who was using Great Dimensional Shift — to fall out of the Dimension. He was thrown out and his body glided through the void space.

The power of Purple Cauldron was extremely shocking. It swept the sky and earth. Wind blades and lightning shuttled through the tornado. The wind pillar rose to a thousand miles high. The center became a forbidden land of death.

Even a Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm didn't dare to approach it.

"Supreme Saint Yanhong's methods are quite powerful," Having to suffer at the hands of Supreme Saint Yanhong twice, Zhang Ruochen had a new assessment of her.

She was an extremely difficult woman to deal with!

As expected, none of the candidates who could become Fane of Destiny's Scioness were easy to deal with.

The power of Purple Cauldron was fully unleashed. Energy ripples surged out like waves. Everyone knew that Supreme Saint Yanhong was suppressing Violet Gourd.

If she succeeded, they would be forced to follow the rules and stop competing.

Supreme Saint Yanhong stood at the edge of the Purple Lightning Storm. Her hair swayed in the void and her robes fluttered. Occasionally, the lightning that flashed by her side reflected her facial features clearly. She was both as beautiful as a fairy and a flirtatious demon.

Boom!

Warlord Mara was the most powerful one amongst everyone present. He was no weaker than a Supreme Saint who was in the top ten of the Great Perfection stage in Hundred-Shackle Realm. He waved the blood-red ax in his hand and slashed it towards Purple Cauldron.

The ax was once stained with the blood of Immortal Vampires' deity. It contained a powerful divinity.

“Such powerful strength,”

Even Supreme Saint Yanhong felt a sense of fear. She hit her palm strike at Purple Cauldron and summoned dozens of bolts of lightning that were as thick as water buckets. They interweaved into a pillar of lightning and clashed with the blood-red ax.

Boom!

The blood-red ax was a Class four Regal Artifact while Purple Cauldron was a Class five Regal Artifact.

When the two artifacts clashed, the power erupted shook the void within a thousand miles and turned the sky and earth upside down.

Warlord Mara’s attack was blocked.

“Warlord Mara, I can give you one of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills. Only if you help me take the gourd,” Supreme Saint Yanhong said.

She needed time to suppress the gourd.

However, there were enemies all around her and they were eyeing the gourd covetously. At this moment, she could only have a chance of success if she win over her allies.

“I want two,” Warlord Mara said.

“Aren’t you too greedy?”

Supreme Saint Yanhong was furious. If it wasn’t for Warlord Mara’s cultivation base which had reached the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm — making his combat power increase exponentially and becoming a top-tier force — he wouldn’t have even been qualified to be her ally in the past.

“More and more cultivators are rushing over. If you don’t agree to my conditions, you might not even get one.” Warlord Mara smirked. He was confident that Supreme Saint Yanhong would definitely compromise.

“That’s my gourd. When Is it your turn to discuss the distribution rights?”

Zhang Ruochen spread his hands and opened up a vast starry sky. He displayed the Realm-frame of Truth “Shoreless Star Ocean.” He wrapped Purple Cauldron, Violet Gourd, Supreme Saint Yanhong, Warlord Mara, and all the cultivators of Infernal Court in this void dimension.

Without the limitation of dimension, the Realm-frame of Truth was perfectly displayed.

Each planet in the Realm-frame of Truth was enormous. They evolved into the geography of mountains and rivers, bursting out with powerful Qi fluctuations.

Zhang Ruochen spread out his hands and suddenly closed them.

“Incarceration of Divine Demon”

A huge phantom of a demon appeared behind Zhang Ruochen and merged with the Realm-frame of Truth. The aura it emitted was sometimes sacred and majestic, sometimes evil and sinister.

When Zhang Ruochen struck his palm strike, the Phantom of a Divine demon also did the same.

In the Realm-frame of Truth, many Precepts of Truth flew out and merged with the Phantom of Divine Demon. The aura emitted by the Phantom of a Divine Demon rose steadily. When the palm strike hit the Purple Lightning Storm, the explosive power reached ten times.

Rumble

The purple lightning storm was pierced through. The palm strike of the Phantom of Divine Demons collided with Purple Cauldron.

On the other side of Purple Cauldron, Supreme Saint Yanhong also made a hand mark. She activated all the Regal Inscription in Purple Cauldron and unleashed its greatest power.

Unfortunately, she did not have the time to activate the Gate of Destiny. She could only rely on her own strength to resist the explosive power of Incarceration of Divine Demon.

THUMP!

As if a god's bell had rung, Purple Cauldron shook violently and crashed into Supreme Saint Yanhong's body. She and the cauldron were thrown far away.

Without the weakening of the Gate of Destiny, no matter how powerful Supreme Saint Yanhong was, she was still far from being able to withstand the ten times the explosive power of the advanced Saint technique of Thousand-Koan level, 'Incarceration of Divine Demon'.

Supreme Saint Yanhong spat out a large mouthful of blood. Cracks appeared on her flawless body.

Pink light radiated from the cracks. It was as if her body was about to fall apart.

This beautiful skin was almost destroyed.

Even though Supreme Saint Yanhong was sent flying, Zhang Ruochen didn't relax. He only heard a shout from above. "Zhang Ruochen, taste the power of my ax."

An Axe with powerful divine power hacked down.

A blood-red rain of light fell from the edge of the ax and locked onto Zhang Ruochen.

The power of the ax compressed the Dimension, making it extremely stable and difficult to break.

Thus, Zhang Ruochen did not use the Power of Dimensions to escape. He reached out and grabbed Violet Gourd. He flipped his body and his left leg started burning. Ten million Crimson-red Divine Precepts appeared from it.

He stepped forward and turned into a flaming cloud that clashed with the ax.

After unsealing the third seal of Yanshen's Leg, Zhang Ruochen had completely refined the Ten million Divine Precepts.. The power he could unleash was far greater than before.

Chapter 2291: Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill

Translator: EndlessFantasy

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

After breaking through to the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm, Warlord Mara's combat strength was close to that of the top ten on the ranking. The full power of the ax, a Class Four Regal Regal Artifact, was so powerful that even the stars were about to shatter.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen kick the ax with his foot, cultivators watching the projection all over Infernal Court exclaimed.

Even those cultivators who knew that Zhang Ruochen had a divine leg looked solemn. They held their breath, thinking that his action was too risky. What he had was just a divine leg; he was not a real god. If he fought head-on with a Supreme Saint like Warlord Mara, he might be at a great disadvantage.

Just then, the red battle-ax and the flaming cloud emitted from Zhang Ruochen's left leg collided fiercely.

Boom!

The dark void space of the universe became dazzling like a flaming flower blooming.

In the next moment, Zhang Ruochen and Warlord Mara retreated at the same time like lightning. They were evenly matched. Neither of them had the upper hand.

"How could he...

...block it!"

Countless cultivators gasped. They had a deeper understanding of Zhang Ruochen's power. They immediately understood that their worries were unnecessary.

Warlord Mara was in disbelief. He couldn't defeat Zhang Ruochen, who was in Neverwilt Realm, with his cultivation at the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

"Again, try my Hundred Beast Combat Body Art."

Thunder and lightning surged out from behind Warlord Mara. They gathered into a sea of thunder and lightning. The illusory images of beast souls appeared. They all unleashed the aura of a Supreme Saint.

BzzzzzzT

RAWRRRRRRRR!

The sound of the lightning and the roars of the beasts resounded through the heavens and earth.

In the past, before Mara reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm, when he had only attained the minor completion for Hundred Beast Combat Body Art, he fought a Dhisan Supreme Saint, who newly entered Thousand-Koan Realm, to a draw.

Minor completion stage of Hundred Beast Combat Body Art meant that each of the Thunder Beast Emperors had the combat strength of a Nine-Step Saint King.

With the help of the power of the beasts, it was difficult for Warlord Mara to meet an opponent of the same cultivation rank.

Now, not only had he made a breakthrough in cultivation, but he had also made a breakthrough in his Hundred Beast Combat Body Art. His combat power had reached a terrifying level.

The power of each Thunder Beast Soul had reached the level of a Supreme Saint of Neverwilt Realm.

Each of his attacks had 100 Supreme Saints of Neverwilt Realm supporting him. Even an ordinary Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Koan Realm would be injured if he attacked with all his strength.

Before Zhang Ruochen broke through to Hundred-Shackle Realm, he did not plan to fight with a superior like Warlord Mara. He waved Violet Gourd in his hand and said, "If you don't want to be expelled from the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, feel free to attack me."

Warlord Mara thought of something and looked at the black-robed high priest in the distance. He gritted his teeth and said, "Zhang Ruochen, are you a coward? If you have the guts, then fight me openly."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head slightly and ignored Warlord Mara. He used Great Dimensional Shift and left the area.

A fight without benefits was a pure waste of energy.

Warlord Mara was not a brainless person. He was very calculative.

Just like back then, to pursue Luo Sha, he had secretly bribed the handmaidens around Luo Sha. To deal with Zhang Ruochen, he had used Mu Lingxi's Spatial Bracelet to lure Zhang Ruochen to the Arena of Life and Death.

At this moment, he seemed to be challenging Zhang Ruochen, but in fact, he wanted to snatch Violet Gourd.

Warlord Mara's angry roar spread throughout the universe. "When I have accumulated 500,000 points, I will personally tear you into pieces."

Saint Yanhong's skin recovered. Her skin was as smooth as silk, and her face was beautiful. However, there was a stern look in her eyes.

Qiang Zun's sword and more than 3,000 black-armored corpse kings of Black-Feathered Corpse Emperor had been taken away by Violet Gourd. Of course, they wouldn't allow Zhang Ruochen to leave so easily. They immediately chased after him.

Without weapons during the Celestial-Hunting battle, their combat strength would be greatly reduced.

3,000 black-armored corpse kings were one of the most important trump cards of the Black-feathered Corpse Emperor. They couldn't lose them.

Zhang Ruochen teleported himself 17 times until he was 10,000 miles away. When he sensed that the two powerful figures were still chasing him, he stopped.

“You two are so persistent. Do you want to take my gourd?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“Don’t misunderstand us, Supreme Saint Ruochen. The pill snatching competition is over. Of course, we won’t break the rules and continue to attack. But...”

Qiang Zun’s stiff face revealed a troubled expression. “We actually want to discuss something with you, Supreme Saint Ruochen.”

Zhang Ruochen held the gourd in his hand and said, “You want to take back the battle sword and the black-armored Corpse King?”

Black-feathered Corpse Emperor let out a hoarse voice, “We fought because of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. In reality, we don’t have any deep enmity with you, Supreme Saint Ruochen.

“If you are willing to return my black-armored corpse king, I promise that I will not participate in the battle against you.”

Qiang Zun said, “That’s what I mean.”

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen did not respond immediately, Black-feathered Corpse Emperor said, “You have made too many enemies of each clan. If Qiang Zun and I become your enemy too, your situation will be even more difficult.”

Qiang Zun said, “If you don’t return my sword and the black-armored Corpse King, I’m afraid we can only follow you. When that time comes, your movement will be restricted.”

“Are you threatening me?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Black-feathered Corpse Emperor said, “No! I don’t like to beat around the bush. If there’s anything you want, just say it.

“There are no eternal allies or enemies on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. All cultivators only care about their own interest.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “In that case, I won’t beat around the bush.

“If you didn’t have them, your combat strength would definitely fall to the bottom of the list of Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

Qiang Zun and Black-feathered Corpse Emperor didn’t deny it.

Zhang Ruochen said, “To be honest, a Class Four Regal Weapon is nothing to me. As for the black-armored Corpse Kings, even if I had 10,000 of them, I wouldn’t be able to control them. They have no value to me.

Qiang Zun and Black-feathered Corpse Emperor were overjoyed.

Zhang Ruochen changed the topic. “But if you want me to return them to you, you have to agree to two conditions.”

“Go ahead,” Qiang Zun said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “First, during the Celestial-Hunting battle, you are not allowed to participate in anything against Bloodysky Clan and me.”

“Of course.”

Qiang Zun and Black-feathered Corpse Emperor agreed without hesitation.

“Second, during the Celestial-Hunting battle, you have to do something for me,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Qiang Zun and Black-feathered Corpse Emperor looked at each other and hesitated.

Zhang Ruochen knew what they were worried about. He said, “Don’t worry. I won’t let you do anything that will harm the interests of our clans. Both of you are Hundred-Shackle Realm elites at Great Perfection, first-class figures in the Celestial-Hunting battle. What’s there to worry about?”

“Okay,” said Qiang Zun. “As long as it doesn’t harm Stone Clan’s interests, I can help you with something.”

Black-feathered Corpse Emperor nodded and agreed.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Swear first.”

Black-feathered Corpse Emperor frowned. “We’re all Supreme Saints. All the cultivators in Infernal Court are watching us with divine eyes. How can we break the contract?”

Zhang Ruochen insisted, “No, you have to swear in the name of the god of your clan. If you break the contract, the god of Stone Clan and Corpusians will die a horrible death.”

Black-feathered Corpse Emperor and Qiang Zun felt a chill down their spines when they heard this. They stared in the direction of the Divine Domain of Destiny in fear and cursed in their hearts. ‘Zhang Ruochen is a bastard. He dares to say anything and isn’t afraid of being struck to death by divine punishment.’

“If you don’t dare to swear, forget it. Don’t waste my time.”

Zhang Ruochen acted like he was about to leave.

“Wait.”

Black-feathered Corpse Emperor and Qiang Zun made a vow in the end. However, they didn’t dare to say anything like, “The gods of Stone Clan and Corpusians will die a horrible death.” Instead, they asked the gods of the two clans to bear witness. If they broke the contract, they would die a horrible death.

Zhang Ruochen released the sword and the black-armored Corpse Kings from Violet Gourd and returned them to Black-feathered Corpse Emperor and Qiang Zun.

At the same time, he did a rough count. There were three Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills, 37 King Grade Saintwill Pills, and 458 top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills in the gourd.

The King Grade Saintwill Pills and top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills were what Zhang Ruochen took from Violet Gourd when he flew over the Qi Stream of Elixir after taking the first Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

He had also accidentally collected some other pills when he snatched the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills.

After all, once the spatial array at the mouth of the gourd was activated, it covered a vast area.

All the Saintwill Pills in Qi Stream of Elixir had been taken away.

Each of the ten Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills had an owner.

Apart from the three pills Zhang Ruochen had collected, Wu Jiang, Yan Wushen, Lady Wind, Luo Shengtian, and Lan Ying had collected one each.

Zhang Ruochen didn't pay attention to the other two. He didn't know who had snatched them.

At this moment, only the five Hundred-Shackle Realm elites, the Great Perfection stage attainer from Yanluo clan, led by Yan Huangtu, were still fighting with the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection.

Although the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection was sealed, it still had the peak combat strength of Thousand-Koan Realm. With Yan Huangtu's ability and the help of a Supreme Artifact, he could only trap it instead of defeating it.

The other four Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints were all injured.

Yanluo clan's other Supreme Saints rushed to the battlefield as fast as they could. If nothing unexpected happened, it was only a matter of time for Yanluo clan to collect the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill with their strength.

Zhang Ruochen looked from afar and found that the battlefield of the Yan Huangtu and the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection had moved into the Forest of No Return and entered the six-colored starry sky.

Countless cosmic dust and star fragments floated in the starry sky, showing six different colors.

Lord Xia Yu and the Supreme Saint Yi Xuan met up with Zhang Ruochen.

The Supreme Saint Yi Xuan felt rather guilty and said, "I'm sorry. We were stuck and couldn't rush over to help you in time."

"I saw everything!" Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu's pretty face was as cold as frost, and her gaze was sharp, "I and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan could have snatched a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill," she said.

"Unfortunately, it was taken away by Wu Jiang.

"Zhang Ruochen, you must be careful next time you meet him. The Saintwill he practices might be a top Grade Three Saintwill."

Zhang Ruochen nodded as he thought about his previous encounter with Wu Jiang.

When Wu Jiang fought with him, he did not use the Saintwill at all.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan noticed Zhang Ruochen's gaze and kept staring at the battle in the six-colored starry sky. He said, "All Yanluo clan elites have rushed over. The Emperor-Grade Saintwill pill is already in their possession. I'm really envious."

"I don't think so," Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was stunned. "Does anyone still dare to fight against Yanluo Clan?"

"Why not? The Celestial-Hunting battle was a competition between different clans. There was no such thing as not daring? Look, Wu Jiang, Luoshengtian, Xu, Yanhong... the most powerful Hundred-Shackle Realm elites on the ranking did not leave. Instead, they gathered in the direction of the Elixir Spirit of Lotus of Divine Reflection.

"Do you think they are going to watch the show?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan licked his lips and said, "It is indeed interesting. Why don't we go and have a look? Maybe we will have a chance."

Lord Xia Yu was also interested. Her eyes shone with a bright light.

“Since you are interested, let’s go and have a look. But...”

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes. He stretched out his hand and pinched in the void space.

Instantly, the space around the three of them distorted. They disappeared as if they were invisible.

Even though the distorted space was invisible, it couldn’t escape the radar of Spiritual Power Supreme Saints. However, the fight between Yanluo clan and the Elixir Spirit of Lotus of Divine Reflection had affected an area of 10,000 miles.

10,000 miles was too vast. Even if a person wasn’t invisible, standing in the void space of the universe was like a speck of dust. It was very difficult to be discovered.

After turning invisible, unless a Spiritual Power Supreme Saint looked closely, it would be impossible for them to be discovered.

The three of them entered the battlefield silently and landed on a yellowish-brown star fragment.

This star fragment was two hundred and seventy miles long. It was shaped like a giant mountain ridge. It had intersecting canine teeth, and there were many mountains. The rocks were tough, and some of them had already been metalized.

In the center of the battlefield, the 11 top Hundred-Shackle Realm elites and Yan Wushen activated a Supreme Artifact in the form of a ceremonial scepter. They had suppressed the Elixir Spirit of Lotus of Divine Reflection and were refining the Elixir Spirit’s progressively.

They weren’t like Zhang Ruochen, who could use the gourd to take a pill away before refining it.

If they didn’t refine the Elixir Spirit of Lotus of Divine Reflection, they wouldn’t be able to take it away.

The other cultivators of Yanluo clan protected them from sneak attacks. Their cultivations were all very powerful. There were close to 1,000 Supreme Saints, and more than 300 of them were in Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Even if powerful figures like Wu Jiang and Luo Shengtian dared to approach them, they would be turned into dust by 1,000 Supreme Saints in an instant.

After Zhang Ruochen observed, he looked thoughtful and said, “Something is wrong!”

“What’s wrong?” Lord Xia Yu asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Logically speaking, the elite that an Emperor-Grade Saint will Pill will most likely to attract should be Lan Ying.. Wu Jiang, Luo Shengtian, and the others have appeared nearby. But why is Lan Ying nowhere to be found?”

Chapter 2292: Lan Ying Made His Move

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power had reached the 62nd level. He was ranked among the best spiritual power cultivators attending the festival, surpassing many Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints. However, he could not detect even a trace of Lan Ying's aura. He felt a little uneasy.

Lan Ying was an unfathomable enemy!

Even if Lan Ying's target was not Zhang Ruochen, this was enough to send chills down his spines.

Lord Xia Yu was a High-Saint Array and Talisman Master. Her spiritual power was even more powerful than Zhang Ruochen's. Not long ago, she had broken through to the 64th level. She was definitely one of the top 20 spiritual powers in the Celestial-Hunting battle.

However, even she couldn't find any trace of Lan Ying.

"Could he have left? After all, everyone knows that no force can win against Yanluo clan. There's no need to waste time here," Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, "The power of the Elixir Spirit of that lotus is far beyond everyone's expectations," he said. "That's why Yan Huangtu didn't subdue it before the battle for the pill. "Now, all the forces have their hands free. If they attack together, Yanluo clan won't be able to withstand it no matter how strong they are."

"In other words, Yanluo clan has missed the best opportunity to take it. At this moment, all the forces are restraining themselves because that spiritual will of that lotus' Elixir Spirit hasn't been refined yet."

"Yanluo clan is so well-prepared because they know this too."

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan agreed with Zhang Ruochen. "Lan Ying is extremely greedy. He will never give up an Emperor-

Grade Saintwill pill. I'm afraid there will be a good show today."

"If the situation is disrupted, we will have a chance too." Lord Xia Yu smiled and stared at Zhang Ruochen's chiseled profile. Her eyes were deep, and her nose was straight.

She knew how important this Emperor-Grade Saintwill Pill was to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He was thinking about something else.

Since Lan Ying could hide so well, wouldn't it be easy to kill Zhang Ruochen in the future?

With such an enemy, any cultivator would not sleep and eat well.

"I have to break through to Hundred-Shackle Realm as soon as possible."

Zhang Ruochen used the Precepts of Dimension to observe the dimensional structure and distribution of celestial bodies in this starfield. In his mind, he deduced the direction someone would head after snatching the Emperor-Grade Saintwill Pill from Yanluo clan.

"Let's go. Follow me."

Zhang Ruochen took Lord Xia Yu and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan in another direction and came to a boundless galaxy of cosmic dust.

Tens of millions of broken rocks gathered together like a big river, flowing in the starry sky and emitting dark purple light.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Lord Xia Yu, how long will it take you to set up a big array here?"

Lord Xia Yu quickly observed the surroundings and said, "With my spiritual power, I can set up an eighth-class array in an instant. A ninth-class array is too difficult and takes more time."

"I'll use the power of Time to help you set up a ninth-class array as soon as possible," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu frowned, “Is it useful to set up an array here?” She asked. An ordinary ninth-class array could only be used to deal with a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint. It could only cause a certain degree of interference to a Supreme Saint of the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm. It would be meaningless if the array could be broken in a short time.

“A ninth-class array to deal with a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint would take a lot of time to carve the array patterns. It’s not something that can be set up in a short time.”

“It’s just a try. Even if it’s not useful, we won’t lose anything.

“Zhang Ruochen wasn’t sure if there was a cultivator who could take the Emperor-Grade Saintwill Pill from Yanluo clan.

He wasn’t even sure if the pill snatcher would head in this direction.

The array was to prepare one more move ahead.

After spending a long time together, Lord Xia Yu trusted Zhang Ruochen very much. She separated 100,000 spiritual power thoughts into 100,000 spiritual avatars and quickly carved the array patterns in this starfield.

Zhang Ruochen activated many Marks of Time to slow down the flow of time and buy more time for her.

In the distance away, as time passed, the brilliance emitted by the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection became dimmer and dimmer. It was like a star aging and fading away, losing its scorching energy.

The spiritual will of the Elixir Spirit was almost completely refined.

The forces gathered in the periphery began to get restless and slowly approached.

Nearly 1,000 Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan stood in a circle. Their bodies exploded with shocking power, causing the entire starry sky to tremble slightly.

With such power, even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would feel intimidated.

Suddenly, a crimson flame appeared from the southern starry sky.

The cultivators looked over and realized that it was a meteor shower of cosmic dust and star fragments. It was burning with flames, and its speed was getting faster and faster.

Flaming boulders, flaming mountains, flaming star fragments...

The meteor shower covered the sky and the earth.

If it flew at a certain primitive world or a certain planet, it could destroy the world in an instant.

As he shouted this, a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint of Yanluo clan took the lead and shot out a golden shield.

As the inscriptions on the Golden Shield appeared, it became eight thousand feet wide and ten thousand feet tall. It spun and flew, turning pieces of cosmic dust into dust.

Rumble

The Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan also attacked. Some used Saint Techniques, while others used saint weapons. They clashed with the meteor shower.

After setting up the array, Lord Xia Yu returned to Zhang Ruochen’s side. “A meteor shower can’t break through Yanluo clan’s defense. It’s a waste of energy.”

“No! The meteor shower can’t break through Yanluo clan’s defense, but it can use the least amount of manpower to create the biggest disturbance and hold back the most Yanluo clan’s Supreme Saints.”

Zhang Ruochen looked in the direction of the meteor shower. Using the eye of truth, he saw the figure of the top two figures of the Fane of Barasingha, Hong Futu, in the distant starry sky.

Hong Futu transformed into his true form. He was a pure-blood divine beast. His body was more than 300 miles long, turning the starry sky around him into a sea of blood.

Every breath he took could stir up thousands of cosmic dust, sending them endlessly towards Yanluo clan.

“That’s a Bloodborne. It should be Hong Futu. He has also reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm. It seems like the Fane of Barasingha is the biggest enemy of our Bloodysky Clan during this Celestial-Hunting Festival,” said the Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Hong Futu, who had reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm, made even Lord Xia Yu feel that she was in a tough spot.

Once a pure-blood divine beast matured, it would be at least at the Pseudo-God Realm.

Hong Futu’s battle prowess in the same realm was definitely formidable.

“Since Hong Futu has made his move, then your guess is correct. Lan Ying must be nearby too,” Lord Xia Yu said solemnly.

The Supreme Saint Yi Xuan exclaimed, “Look, Wu Jiang and Netherclan’s dozen Hundred-shackle Realm Supreme Saints have made their move. There’s also Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong”

A large number of cultivators attacked Yanluo clan.

The clash of over 1,000 Supreme Saints erupted with earth-shattering energy waves that spread 100,000 miles away, forming a destructive energy tide.

Other than Yanluo clan Supreme Saints who formed a battle array in the central area, the other Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints did not dare to participate in the battle. They were afraid of getting injured. Once they were seriously injured, if they could not recover within 100 days, it would definitely affect the results of the Celestial-hunting battle.

No one, including the Infernal Court deities, expected the situation to develop to such a stage.

The Celestial-Hunting battle had just begun and the top elites of the ten clans were already engaged in a chaotic battle.

The elixir attendant revealed a worried expression. A battle of this scale could easily result in the death of a Supreme Saint.

The Fortune Palace's Black-robed High Priest smiled at him and said, "Just now, milord sent me an oracle, telling us not to interfere forcefully. Let them fight to see who is more capable and who can keep the Emperor-Grade Saintwill pill. Even if 100 Supreme Saints die, it doesn't matter."

The elixir attendant smiled bitterly and said, "In the eyes of a deity like Fukurokuju, a hundred ordinary Supreme Saints are not as powerful as a powerful Supreme Saint. Then, we shall wait and see what they can do. It is not an easy thing to snatch the Emperor-Grade Saintwill pill from the hands of Yanluo clan."

Yanluo Clan's 11 Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators, who had attained the Great Perfection stage, stood at 12 directions facing the lotus' Elixir Spirit together with Yan Wushen. They shot out Infernal Yama Qi and fused it in the Supreme Artifact in the shape of a ceremonial scepter.

The power of the Supreme Artifact turned the area within a thousand miles into a forbidden zone. If Neverwilt Realm and Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints got close, their lives would be in danger, and their Neverwithers physique would be crushed.

Just as the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection was about to be destroyed, a dot of light appeared out of thin air a hundred miles behind a Yanluo clan elite whose attainment was at the Great Perfection. It was nine lights and eighteen colors.

The speck of light grew larger and turned into a ball of colorful clouds.

The twelve elites of Yanluo clan instantly sensed something. Their eyes flashed with killing intent.

"How dare you covet the Emperor-Grade Saintwill pill? Kill him."

Yan Huangtu drew upon the power of the Supreme Artifact. In the ceremonial scepter-shaped artifact, it released a powerful supreme-being power to hundred miles into the sky. The power condensed into a gigantic ceremonial scepter shape and slashed towards the nine-colored clouds.

Even an early-stage Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint would be severely injured if he got hit. He might even die.

The Supreme Power caused the stars to tremble.

Swoosh

The nine-colored clouds were as fast as light. Even the Supreme Power could not stop it. In an instant, it rushed behind a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint and formed a human shape.

It was an eight or nine-year-old child. His body was like a divine stone that shone brilliantly but released a monstrous killing aura.

The killing intent was simply too strong. It condensed into a corporeal form and turned into a bloody sword of slaughter.

Whoosh!

Before that Supreme Saint of the great perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm could even use any defensive techniques, his body was slashed in half by the sword.

However, the sword did not contain any power that could destroy the Saint Soul, life force, or spiritual will. Thus, the Supreme Saint was only severely injured and did not die.

Clearly, Lan Ying didn't want to become enemies with Yanluo clan.

Although he was a Spirit of Slaughter, he didn't only know how to kill. He knew the big picture. He also knew how to plan and create momentum. He knew how to hide his strength and bide his time.

In the distance, Zhang Ruochen, who had been observing, saw this scene clearly. He sighed in his heart.

'The Divine Fetus really lives up to his name. He has the power to kill a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm with one move.

‘What’s more terrifying is that it’s very shrewd.

‘This Celestial-Hunting battle will be the greatest challenge for me.. It will also be a trial that can cost my life.’

Chapter 2293: Revelation of Each's Power

Translator: EndlessFantasy

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Lan Ying had long since hidden himself among the Supreme Saints of the Yanluo Clan. Furthermore, he had concealed himself from the perception of all the cultivators. This was precisely why he was able to injure a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Under Lan Ying's control, the Bloody Slaughter was like a streak of blood. In the blink of an eye, it pierced through the bodies of six Yanluo elites at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Although it was not fatal, it greatly reduced their battle prowess. In a short period, they were unable to refine the killing aura that invaded their bodies and recover to their peak condition.

Of course, Lan Ying's ability to succeed so easily was due solely to his own strength. It was also because the Yanluo's elites at the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage were all controlling Supreme Artifacts and refining the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection. They were caught off guard.

If Yanluo's elites and Lan Ying faced each other head-on, no matter how strong he was, defeating the seven Yanluo elite Supreme Saints at the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage would be a difficult task.

The seven elite Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm were injured in a row, which caused the power of the Supreme Artifact to be greatly reduced. Fortunately, the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection was almost completely refined.

“Quickly collect the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection and Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. I will deal with Lan Ying.”

Yan Huangtu’s eyes were as cold as ice. He turned into a streak of golden light and rushed out to meet Lan Ying’s eighth sword strike.

The Bloody Slaughter was formed from the Qi of Slaughter and Divine Qi in Lan Ying. It contained the murderous intent of billions of ancient creatures. Even if he did not swing his sword down, he would only be suspended in the sky, it was enough to frighten cultivators below the Supreme Saint realm.

Even a Supreme Saint would be greatly affected when faced with the Bloody Slaughter. He would not be able to unleash 70% of his full power.

However, Yan Huangtu’s will was extremely firm. He accurately caught the flight path of the Bloody Slaughter and sent a punch over.

The fist and the tip of the sword clashed.

Slash!

The tip of the sword instantly pierced through Yan Huangtu’s skin and saint blood flowed out.

The sword aura of the Bloody Slaughter cut through the flesh of the right hand of the Yan Huangtu, revealing the golden finger bone and arm bone.

Yan Huangtu seemed to have no sense of pain as he roared loudly.

Instantly, the golden bone was covered in Nine Dragon Divine Marks.

Every single one of the Divine Marks was in the form of nine divine dragons. The number of Divine Marks was inexhaustible, as was the number of dragon shadows. It was as though there were billions of golden dragons flying out of his body domineeringly.

Bang!

The shockwave shattered the Bloody Slaughter, causing it to revert to a gaseous state.

The flesh on Yan Huangtu's arm grew back automatically, returning to its original state. However, the Nine Dragons Divine Marks continued to revolve around his body, emitting a divine light that illuminated the world.

It was a true divine light.

The nine dragon Divine Marks on his bones were not carved by a god. Instead, they grew out from his bones. They were the 'Royal Divine Frame', and their defensive power was unparalleled. Even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would find it difficult to destroy his bones.

One was a Divine Fetus, and the other was a Royal Divine Frame. It could be said that when Yan Huangtu and Lan Ying were born, they already possessed God's Destiny. They had the potential to become the God of the Galactic and King of the Gods.

It was precisely because of this that Yang Huangtu and Lan Ying suppressed the Wujiang of Myriad Hands and Eyes during this period.

A strange smile appeared on Lan Ying's child-like face. He said, "Ever since I broke through to Supreme Saint Realm, I have been looking forward to fighting with you. Today, I finally have the chance to determine the victor."

Yan Huangtu glanced at a spot not too far away. He realized that the Elixir Spirit of the Lotus of Divine Reflection had been completely refined and was hidden in the body of Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

Yan Wushen and the three Supreme Saints at the peak of the Hundred-Shackle Realm were using the Supreme Artifact to collect Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

As long as he could stall Lan Ying for a while, Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill would belong to the Yanluo clan.

As for the outer forces, it was almost impossible for them to break through the Yanluo Clan's Supreme Saint formation in a short period. Naturally, there was nothing to be afraid of.

"Great! I've long had my objections about the ranking of Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm in the Realm of Star Ocean. Why are you ranked second while I'm ranked third? This ranking has to be changed!"

Yan Huangtu floated in the air, and the soles of its feet lightly stepped downwards.

Whoosh

A golden map unfolded beneath his feet. There were rivers and lakes, mountains and peaks, deserts and oceans... all sorts of landforms and structures were delicate, so fine that the outline of every tree's leaves on the mountain peak could be seen.

It was more like a world than a map.

Lan Ying's smile grew even wider as he said, "With the Qi of Yanluo, you've easily developed the world's map. It seems that you're only one step away from the Thousand-Koan Realm."

As he said this, Lan Ying spread out his right hand.

A nine-colored embryonic universe appeared in his palm. In the universe, numerous stars converged into galaxies. Some converged into rivers, some converged into flowers, and some looked like beautiful women...

Lan Ying lifted up the embryonic universe as if he was holding up a lamp. A deep expression appeared on his child-like face, he said, "The path you developed is only a world. I, on the other hand, have developed a universe. In terms of structure, you have already lost!"

Yan Huantu did not change his expression, he said, "The universe is boundless and the ocean of stars is shoreless. You don't know what the universe is, nor do you know where the edge of the universe is. How can you develop the universe? The universe you have developed is definitely not complete. Perhaps it has already walked on the wrong path."

"When the Grand Supreme preached the Path, he once shared an old tale. The ant asked the mole cricket how big the sky was and how thick the earth was. The ant said that the sky was three hundred and thirty meters high and the earth was three hundred and thirty meters thick. You and I are unable to reach it.”

“In the universe, what is the difference between you and the ant? Don’t you find it ridiculous that an ant can change the sky and earth?”

An unnoticeable strange look flashed across Lan Ying’s eyes. Then, he actually directly threw the embryonic universe in his hand. Space trembled and the golden world under Yan Huangtu’s feet shattered.

“Good timing.”

Yan Huangtu sensed the enormous energy contained in the embryonic universe. He wrapped his arms around it, and a large number of Precepts flew to the top of his head. They condensed into the shape of the sun and moon, which resonated with the golden land under his feet.

The Sun and Moon revolved and collided with the embryonic universe.

Rumble

The embryonic universe shattered and turned into a star fog the moment they touched.

“This...”

Yan Huangtu found it hard to understand. How could Lan Ying’s attack be so easily broken?

In almost an instant, Yan Huangtu realized that something was wrong.

The star fog formed after the embryonic universe shattered and enveloped the Yan Huangtu and the golden world that he had developed.

Each wisp of fog had the Precepts and the inscription of the array. It was tougher than the sacred chains and trapped Yan Huangtu like a cage.

“I originally wanted to fight you to see who would win today. However, I care more about Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. This battle can only be decided next time.”

Lan Ying's eyes shone with an evil light as he said this. Then, he used his fastest speed to rush out.

He was very clear that the star fog could only trap Yan Huangtu for a moment.

And he had to snatch away Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill at that moment. Otherwise, he would never have another chance.

"You guys keep taking it. I'll go block Lan Ying."

After saying this, Yan Wushen retreated and charged at Lan Ying decisively. As he flew, his body grew larger, turning into a Golden Giant Mode.

His body shone with golden light, and there were no pores on his skin.

"You won't be able to block me for even a second."

Lan Ying smiled maliciously. As he charged forward, he raised his right arm.

It was just a right arm, but it was like a divine sword that could split the world. It contained an unparalleled sword intent. Sharp Sword Qi shot out from the tips of his five fingers.

"Not good, Lan Ying used the Murderous Bane!"

The expressions of Yanluo Clan's Supreme Saints changed. They immediately rushed over, worried for Yan Wushen.

The Murderous Bane was even more terrifying than the Bloody Slaughter.

One Bloody Slaughter could injure seven Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

How could Yan Wushen, who was only in the Neverwilt Realm, block the Murderous Bane?

Unfortunately, a slow remedy does not address the current emergency. Lan Ying and Yan Wushen had already clashed together.

One stood 31 meters tall, like a colossal Vajra God. The other resembled a child. His body glowed with nine lights and eighteen different colors. He was quick and agile. He waved his sword... no, his arm, slicing toward Yan Wushen's neck.

"I was going to cut off Zhang Ruochen's Demigod-level physique. Since I met you first, I'll break your Half-Buddha Physique. The biggest difference between you and Zhang Ruochen is that you were born in the Yanluo clan, so you won't die."

Lan Ying's arm was about to cut off Yan Wushen's neck.

Suddenly, he lowered his arm and cut at Yan Wushen's left shoulder. As his arm fell, the smile in Lan Ying's eyes became even more intense.

"How can it be so easy to break my Half-Buddha Physique?"

Yan Wushen, who was originally much slower than Lan Ying, snorted and a circle of Rainbow Buddhist light appeared between his brows. In the depths of the circle of Buddhist light, a stone bridge was suspended there. It seemed to exist in Yan Wushen's Sea of Qi, but it also seemed to exist in a certain place in the vast universe.

"Impossible. How could the Yanluo Clan bring two Supreme Artifacts into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?" A look of disbelief appeared in Lan Ying's eyes.

Scepter of Heaven's Pass was here, why did the Bridge of Vaitarna appear as well?

Whoosh

A beam of light of death condensed on The Bridge of Vaitarna. It flew out from between Yan Wushen's brows and landed close to Lan Ying.

Lan Ying had no choice but to retract his arm and hack his way towards the death ray.

Rumble

It was only a stalemate for an instant before the death ray was shattered by Lan Ying.

The difference in cultivation level was too great. Even if Yan Wushen's calculations were deeper than Lan Ying's, it was still impossible for him to defeat him.

However, he managed to seize this moment, giving Yan Wushen the time to neutralize the Murderous Bane. He used the Power of Dimension to distort the space, causing the sword strike from Lan Ying's arm to only slash past him.

Even so, the sword Qi from the Murderous Bane still forced Yan Wushen back more than ten miles, unable to stop Lan Ying anymore.

“To be able to take one strike from me and still be able to escape unscathed. You are indeed worthy of being called a Yuanhui level genius. I look forward to your growth as soon as possible.”

Lan Ying laughed lightly and flew towards the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

‘Yan Wushen knew that he could no longer stop Lan Ying. ‘With my current cultivation level, if I were to face him head-on, I definitely wouldn’t be able to block the five of Lan Ying’s attack,’ he thought to himself as he stared at his back.

Yan Wushen was very clear that facing Lan Ying head-on was actually the easiest.

That was because everyone was in the open. Even if they could not defeat him, they would still have a certain degree of confidence in surviving with the profoundness of the Path of Dimension.

However, the scariest thing was that Lan Ying did not fight him head-on. Instead, he hid in the dark and attempted to assassinate him. In that case, he felt that he could not even survive.

‘I have to break through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm as soon as possible, no matter the cost,’ Yan Wushen thought to himself.

Lan Ying easily neutralized the attack power of the three Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Then, he used the three Bloody Slaughters to send them all flying.

Then, he reached out his hand to retrieve Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

Although the Elixir Spirit of Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill had been refined, its power was still extremely strong. The closer Lan Ying's hand got, the stronger the obstruction.

However, how could the obstruction stop Lan Ying?

The hand got closer and closer.

The Yan Huangtu broke through the star fog, but it was too late. I could only watch this scene.

When the other cultivators vying for Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill saw that it was about to fall into Lan Ying's hands, they all stopped fighting. Their eyes were filled with helplessness and apprehension.

“So many elites of the Yanluo Clan can't stop Lan Ying. The Divine Fetus is too terrifying. If Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen don't succeed, they'll definitely be defeated by him. He'll become the most dazzling genius of this Yuanhui period.”

Lady Wind thought to herself, ‘if I can invite Lan Ying to help me, won't the position of the Scioness of Destiny be easy to get?’

Lan Ying was also a member of the lower-three clans.

However, Lan Ying was even more difficult to invite than Zhang Ruochen. She had been rejected many times, and all the gifts she had sent had been returned. It was as if nothing in the world could move his heart.

Zhang Ruochen also had a weakness of being lustful. So a beauty trap could break through his heart.

But Lan Ying had no weakness. He was someone that no one could invite.

Just as everyone expected Lan Ying to take Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, another hand reached out and grabbed it before him.

Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill's obstruction didn't seem to exist to him.

Whoosh

The owner of that hand appeared out of thin air. No one could see what he looked like. He was just a black figure. He was as skinny as a stick and as tall as a bamboo pole.

Lan Ying, who was close by, was slightly startled. Then, his eyes became extremely cold.

Pursue a narrow gain while neglecting a greater danger.

He assumed he had the upper hand, but he had no idea that another person was lurking around the corner.

No matter who it was, whoever dared to plunder his prize would be punished with death.

“Courting death.”

Lan Ying once again condensed the Murderous Bane.. He raised his arm, which was emitting nine lights and eighteen colors, and slashed at the black figure.

Chapter 2294: Que, Ranked First on the List of Cultivators Achieved Great Perfection Stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm

Swoosh

Lan Ying's arm was cut off and sent flying.

Everyone was too far away, so no one could see clearly what the black figure was doing?

Every cultivator was so shocked that their hearts were trembling.

That... That was Lan Ying. The person who was able to defeat the Yanluo Clan's 12 great elites by himself had his arm severed in just one meeting.

Earlier, Lan Ying had used the Murderous Bane. Since he dared to use his arm as a sword, it meant that he was confident that his arm was tougher and sharper than a Regal Artifact.

'How terrifying.' All the cultivators who saw this thought appeared in their minds.

Lan Ying was sent flying for dozens of kilometers. He couldn't believe his eyes when he saw the tall and thin black figure holding Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. He had never thought that there would be a cultivator who could hurt him in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Whish

The broken arm that was sent flying gave off an intense nine-and-eighteen-colored light. Then, it disintegrated and turned into creeks of air that flew back to the wound on Lan Ying's shoulder.

A new arm grew back.

"Interesting! Tell me, who are you?" Lan Ying asked with an evil grin.

Obviously, he wasn't hurt by the broken arm.

There was no response.

Without a sound, the black figure disappeared.

Everything that happened just now happened in a very short period. The black figure only appeared in the blink of an eye.

Only a few of those in the pinnacle of Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints saw him and felt his presence.

As for the cultivators who were watching the projection through the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms, most of them did not see him. They had no idea what had just happened.

It was too fast!

“Did Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill get taken away by Lan Ying?”

“What happened just now? I think I saw Lan Ying being sent flying.” A Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint from the Infernal Court who could not participate in the Celestial-Hunting Festival stared at the projection in the sky and asked curiously.

“Are you hallucinating? Lan Ying has been standing on the same spot the entire time. Who could hurt him on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?”

“You’re right. It seems like Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill has fallen into Lan Ying’s hands.”

...

At this moment, Lan Ying’s expression was extremely stern. He shouted coldly, “You want to leave? Dream on.”

Whoosh

Nine-colored light burst out from Lan Ying and illuminated the entire universe. It turned into a nine-colored nebula and instantly spread across tens of thousands of miles. Many cultivators watching the projection couldn’t open their eyes.

Countless precepts of heaven and earth became completely active. With him at the center, they trembled slightly.

The ripples spread over 100,000 miles.

At the same time, Lan Ying's eyes turned into nine-colored divine eyes. A large amount of Ashura divine qi turned into dragon-snake form and circulated around his body. A terrifying aura completely burst out.

At this moment, Lan Ying finally became serious.

When all the cultivators present used their own methods to find the black figure, Zhang Ruochen stood in the Ninth Stratum Array set up by Lord Xia Yu and immediately released the Realm-frame of Truth, The Spatial Domain, and Null Time realm.

"It's him. He did participate in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. But who is he?" Zhang Ruochen was very confused.

With such powerful cultivation, it was obvious that he must be ranked first on the list of Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

That black figure was Que. His name means insufficient.

If that's the case, why didn't Que attend the Celestial-Hunting Festival? Why didn't he take the first row?

Was it because he was low-key?

Or did he have other tasks?

After all, the purpose of entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was to hunt Celestial Captives. They wanted to be high-profile and show off their power in front of others. Hiding their identity and keeping a low profile seemed too deliberate.

He would not have appeared if it hadn't been for Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

Lord Xia Yu and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan were still in a daze. Earlier, the other cultivators did not understand what had happened. However, with their cultivation, they saw it clearly.

There were cultivators below the Thousand-Koan Realm who could cut off the arm of the Lan Ying?

Their first thought was, 'Is that black figure a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint among the Celestial Captives?'

“Get ready, he’s here!”

Zhang Ruochen shouted softly. His face was full of joy, but his eyes were full of caution.

He was right. After taking Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he had broken out of the encirclement from this direction.

Even someone as powerful as Que did not dare to fight against so many Supreme Saint powerhouses alone. He had to escape.

At that moment, Lord Xia Yu had already sensed an extremely weak aura intruding into the formation she had set up.

The aura was so weak that it was as if a mosquito had intruded into a planet with a diameter of a thousand miles.

Fortunately, this was the void of the universe, so it was impossible for there to be such fluctuations. Furthermore, the array had been set up beforehand, so Lord Xia Yu was able to sense it. If it was in a certain living Macroworld, Lord Xia Yu might not even be able to sense Que’s presence at all.

Lord Xia Yu released her spiritual power and formed a seal with her hands. Instantly, a Ninth Stratum Array appeared. Dense array inscriptions interweaved and condensed into a sea of fire formed from the Grim Soul-devouring Flame.

After all, Lord Xia Yu was one of the top elites below the Thousand-Koan Realm, and she had set up the array in advance.

Even though Que was extremely powerful, he was forced to reveal himself by the array.

“Haha! Zhang Ruochen, you’re really amazing. This kid actually barged into the formation on his own.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan wasn’t afraid. Instead, he was extremely excited. He formed a palm with his right hand and released crystalized icy ley lines that spread out like an icy spider web.

In his eyes, no matter how powerful you were, you were only in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. How Brilliant could you be?

You might not be a match for him in a one-on-one fight.

But who was easier to annoy, him, Lord Xia Yu, or Zhang Ruochen?

How could the combined power of three powerful figures not take care of you?

Que was still just a black figure. His appearance couldn't be seen clearly. He only spoke in a cold tone, "Zhang Ruochen, you didn't disappoint me too much to be able to set up here in advance and figure out my movements. Unfortunately, this array is far from enough to deal with me."

Boom

Que pointed out with his finger. Instantly, the inscriptions in the array broke one by one and disappeared.

A Ninth Stratum Array that could suppress Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints was like paper in front of him.

Lord Xia Yu controlled the technique formation and condensed the Grim Soul-devouring Flame into a flaming storm. She took the initiative to attack Que.

The Grim Soul-devouring Flame was Lord Xia Yu's trump card. It was the fire of absolute Yin and evil. Under the support of the Ninth Stratum Array, its power was even more terrifying. Even elites like Wujiang and Yan Huangtu would not choose to clash head-on with her, most likely, they would not choose to clash head-on with her.

Lord Xia Yu's battle strength was at the top of the Thousand-Koan Realm. The array had pushed her battle strength up another step.

Zhang Ruochen knew that Que's speed was terrifying. He used all his strength to mobilize the Power of Dimension, Time, and the Realm-frame of Truth to suppress Que's speed and power.

Zhang Ruochen had already distorted many spaces and set up Dimensional Traps in the area where the Ninth Stratum Array was located.

The Power of Time surrounded Que, slowing down the flow of time there.

Zhang Ruochen thought that such a strict arrangement was enough to deal with a powerhouse like Lan Ying. However, Que, who was standing in the array, was unusually calm.

“Zhang Ruochen, with your current Time and Dimension attainments, it seems to me that you are just a piece of cake. Don’t show off in front of me before condensing the Time and Dimension Saintwill. Otherwise, I will look down on you even more. In comparison, Xia Yu’s Grim Soul-devouring Flame plus the array can make me take you more seriously.” said Que.

Que turned into a black creek of light and flew in a straight line in the Ninth Stratum Array, crashing into the Grim Soul-devouring Flame storm.

Bang Bang

The distorted space and Dimensional Traps that Zhang Ruochen had set up in advance did not affect him at all.

Even the Power of Time only reduced his speed by half.

The reduced speed was still far faster than Zhang Ruochen, Lord Xia Yu, and Supreme Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Time Saint Soul and mobilized the dense Precepts of Time. He kept pointing his finger at Que. As long as Que was hit, time in his space would stop for a short while.

Time had stopped, which meant that no matter how fast Que ran, he had to come to a halt.

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

...

Que easily dodged Zhang Ruochen’s Power of Time. He couldn’t lock onto it at all.

Que’s figure collided with the Grim Soul-devouring Flame storm.

He had thought that there would be an earth-shattering impact, but the Grim Soul-devouring Flame seemed to have been swallowed and disappeared without a trace.

“Impossible!” Lord Xia Yu blurted out in shock.

It wasn't easy for even a mid or late-stage Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Koan Realm to take her attack, let alone a Supreme Saint of the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. How could it be resolved without a sound?

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, who was hiding behind the Grim Soul-devouring Flame, couldn't care less. He struck out with the Frozen Universe Palm that he had formed a long time ago.

In front of the palm strike, cold air soared into the sky. Large amounts of ice crystals appeared and formed many icy mountain ridges that extended towards the gap.

These were real icy mountain ridges. There were mountain peaks, an abyss, and a bone-piercing killing intent from the palm.

Lord Xia Yu and the Supreme Saint Yi Xuan did not attack because they owed it to them. Instead, they used a combination of attacks. There was no time lag, and they did not give Que a chance to catch their breath.

Only by using this method would they have a chance to defeat it.

However, no matter how well-prepared they were, they were still a little too optimistic. The mountain ranges of ice and snow shattered as soon as the Supreme Saint Yi Xuan struck out with his palm.

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan's vision blurred. He did not know what kind of attack he had received. It was as if his chest had been hit by a sacred mountain. He was sent flying. His ribs were shattered, his body collapsed, and his internal organs turned into a bloody mess, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Fortunately, he had reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. If he had been in his previous realm, his body would have been blown up by this attack.

The third wave of attack, which had no time gap, was launched by Zhang Ruochen.

Whish

Zhang Ruochen activated the Yanshen's Leg, which turned into a red light column to attack Que in place of Supreme Supreme Saint Yi Xuan.

Que punched out a simple punch and hit the bottom of Zhang Ruochen's foot.

The divine power contained in the Yanshen's Leg was dissolved in an instant. An overwhelming power hit Zhang Ruochen in the opposite direction, and his body flew backward at an even faster speed.

"Not only the Path of Oblivion, but the power is also so terrifying."

Zhang Ruochen cursed in his heart. He immediately folded the ten golden wings on his back and wrapped them into a golden ball.

Sure enough, the golden ball was struck by an extremely bright black light the next moment.

The golden ball spun rapidly, accompanied by a layer of spatial light fog.

When the black light pierced through the spatial light fog, the power was reduced by more than half. When it landed on the Golden Ball, it dissolved part of the power because of the rapid rotation of the ball.

Boom

The golden ball flew out, and drops of golden blood spilled out.

Zhang Ruochen only dissolved the power contained in the black light after flying for 300 miles. The golden ball opened and revealed itself. Its face was extremely pale, and two of its golden wings were badly mutilated.

Although it suffered serious internal injuries, it did not hurt its root.

In fact, in the eyes of many spectators, Zhang Ruochen was already quite impressive. It must be known that even with Lan Ying's cultivation, he would lose an arm if he was caught off guard by an attack from Que. Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, who had reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, was severely injured in an instant.

It could be said that it was already a great achievement to survive an attack from Que.

Zhang Ruochen had his own analysis. Que was indeed powerful, but he was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm after all. If he was so powerful that he couldn't be defeated, why did he run away after taking the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?

It meant that the top elites in the Hundred-Shackle Realm still had the power to threaten him.

Even if he was ranked first, the difference between him and Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, and Wujiang might not be that big. The top ten elites might be able to fight him. After all, they were not simple characters. They represented the ultimate strength below the Thousand-Koan Realm.

However, Zhang Ruochen had underestimated Que's speed and the strangeness of the Path of Oblivion.

He had mistakenly thought that Que's strength would be his weakness.

It turned out that Que's strength was far superior to battle Warlord Mara, who had reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He could easily defeat Zhang Ruochen's Yan Shen leg. It was very likely that he was also number one below the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Warlord Mara was below the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He was the representative of Pure Power Masters. Except for a few cultivators, very few Supreme Saints dared to confront him directly.

Because Zhang Ruochen and the others, Lan Ying, Yanhuang Tu, Wujiang, Luo Shengtian, Supreme Saint Yanhong, Lady Wind, and Lord Bladehell had chased him from eight different directions.

Other cultivators didn't dare to make an enemy out of Que.

Supreme Saint Yan Hong and Xu had already formed an alliance, while Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind were another alliance. They dared to attack and had a certain amount of confidence in taking Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill because they worked together.

Que broke through the Ninth Stratum Array and immediately escaped.

A light appeared in Zhang Ruochen's eyes. He condensed a Spatial Wormhole Mirror and activated a large amount of Mark of Time light spots in the world. He shot them in.

His palm condensed a special Mark of Time from the Precept of Time. He hid it in it and flew out.

He had only recently realized that the Mark of Time light spot wasn't captured from Celestial Court and earth. It was condensed from his own Precept of Time. It was a new time created.

It was his time.

It was called the "Self-Definite Mark of Time".

Whoosh

Behind Que, a Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared.

The dots of light from the Mark of Time flew toward him like a rain of light.

...

“This again? If you only have this bit of power, it means that you, as a Master of Time, have failed quite a bit.”

Que didn’t even look back. He ignored the light spots of Marks of Time coming from behind.

Whoosh

As soon as the dense light spots of Marks of Time approached him, they immediately dimmed and then disappeared. Like the lights being extinguished, they did not cause any damage to him.

Only the “Self-Defined Mark of Time” condensed by Zhang Ruochen using his Precepts of Time silently touched his body.

The Marks of Time existed everywhere in the world, including in Que’s body.

When a special Marks of Time fell on the body, it was almost imperceptible.

The other cultivators were unaware of the “Self-Defined Mark of Time”. Seeing that Zhang Ruochen’s Mark of Time was dissolved without any counter-measures, they all gasped.

What level was he?

Was he really only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm?

Was the Power of Time so weak?

To deal with Zhang Ruochen, many cultivators in the Infernal Court were thinking of ways to suppress the Power of Time. They had indeed thought of some ways, but it required a lot of manpower and material resources, and they needed to make careful arrangements.

It was beyond their understanding that Que easily dissolved the Power of Time.

Only a few cultivators thought of the Path of Oblivion at the first moment, and their faces became more serious.

Lord Xia Yu's eyes showed a deep sense of powerlessness, she sighed and said, "He's the person you're talking about, right? It seemed that everyone was wrong, including the gods. Que of first place on the list of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was a person, a living person. He was too powerful. It was impossible to defeat him. Is there anyone in the Thousand-Koan Realm who can be his match?"

In her opinion, Que was no longer invincible in the same realm. He was invincible even if he crossed a realm.

Even if Zhang Ruochen, a genius of the Yuanhui level, cultivated to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he might not be his match.

Zhang Ruochen said, "He may not be as powerful as you think. What you see is just the tip of an iceberg."

Lord Xia Yu looked sideways, she said, "Just now, the three of us kept unleashing the most powerful combined attacks. Even Lan Ying and Yan Wushen might not be able to withstand it. However, he easily dispelled it. This means he's a lot stronger than us, and he's also a lot stronger than Lan Ying and Yan Wushen. All the cultivators attending the festival are on a completely different level from him."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "You think that the combined attacks of the three of us can fight against Lan Ying and Yan Wushen. That's because you know their strength and their height.

"However, you know nothing about Que.

"There is no information and records of Que's battle achievements. It is precisely because of this that you feel that he is as unfathomable as the abyss and as tall as a mountain, unable to see the top. You feel that he is already undefeatable. Even before the official fight, your heart has already been crushed. In terms of the state of mind, you have already lost.

"You stood at the apex of the Abyss, looking down. There was a white fog 33 meters below. There was no way to see all the way to the bottom. Fear was pounding in your chest. However, if you saw that the abyss was only 33 meters deep when the weather was clear, you'd have a good idea of how deep it was. That fear would be significantly reduced."

Lord Xia Yu couldn't understand why Zhang Ruochen was so optimistic, she said, "You think that Que's strength is not much stronger than Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu? However, the three of us, you, and the Supreme Saint Yi Xuan have worked together and made arrangements in advance. They were all easily defeated by him. Moreover, the Power of Time that you used just now was also silently neutralized by him. His various methods have reached an unimaginable level."

Zhang Ruochen said, "The fog that hides the abyss makes it difficult for people to see its depth. However, the abyss is very clear about its depth. That's why Que chose to run away when he was being chased by the eight powerhouses, instead of staying behind to defeat them all and further expand his battle achievements."

As he said this, Zhang Ruochen pointed in the direction where Que escaped. Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, and the others were chasing after him.

Lord Xia Yu said, "Even if what you said is correct, Que's strength is unquestionably superior to Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu. We can't beat him because he's an absolute superior. He deserved to be ranked first in the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage. His strength will undoubtedly increase with the assistance of Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill."

Lord Xia Yu continued, "You're just jealous and afraid. You're afraid that you won't be his match even if you cultivate the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Your reputation as a Yuanhui level genius will be taken away."

Zhang Ruochen's eyes narrowed and he smiled indifferently when he heard this. "One of these days, I'll defeat him myself. I'll tell you that there isn't an enemy you can't defeat. The only thing you can't beat is yourself. Set aside everything else. Let us travel to the home planet of the Immortal Vampires."

In the pitch-black void.

The elixir attendant and Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest stood side by side.

When Que appeared, their expressions revealed shock, confusion, and astonishment. They both recovered after a long time.

The elixir attendant sighed and said, "I didn't expect so many monsters to be born in the Infernal Court in this thousand years. They can be called the golden generation of this Yuanhui period. What's the origin of the Master of Oblivion?"

Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest, shook his head and smiled bitterly. He said, "I'm not sure! He didn't appear at the festival, but he appeared at the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. This is very strange."

The elixir attendant was surprised. "Isn't he one of the ten thousand cultivators attending the festival of the ten clans?"

Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest, nodded, said, "In the hundred years since the Celestial-Hunting Festival, there has never been such a special case. Since even I don't know about his existence, it can only mean that he must have a deity-level figure behind him. His appearance on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting must also have a special meaning."

"A cultivator who shouldn't have appeared on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting appeared miraculously," said the elixir attendant. "Furthermore, no deity took action to kill him. In other words, he violates the rules?"

Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest said, "The Battle of Celestial-Hunting represents many meanings. The cultivators of the ten clans are fighting for the distribution of their own interests. The three candidates are fighting for the position of Scioness. Including Zhang Ruochen, Yan Wushen, Lan Ying, and Yan Huangtu... Every cultivator has a reason to participate in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. I'm very curious now. What was Que's?"

The elixir attendant said, "Now that Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill has fallen into Que's hands, this pill battle should come to an end. Aren't you going to stop them?"

Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest nodded slightly. Just as he was about to attack, he suddenly heard a voice transmission. He immediately showed a respectful expression and listened attentively.

"I understand. So that's how it is."

After listening to the voice transmission, Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest gave up, he said to the elixir attendant beside him, "I already understand Que's appearance on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. The deity has issued an order. On the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, there's no need to interfere with the matters of Que, Zhang Ruochen, and Yan Wushen. The three of them aren't within the rules of Celestial-Hunting."

The Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was vast and boundless. It was filled with star fog and was six-colored.

The Immortal Vampires' home planet had a diameter of 30,000 miles.

Standing in the starry sky, there were ten continents and a blood-red ocean on the planet. It was like a huge blood-red eyeball that was flying from east to west.

There were a total of 240 million Immortal Vampires on the Immortal Vampires' home planet. They had established cities and civilizations.

Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell went after Que and failed. After returning to the home planet, they immediately contacted the leaders of the ten Clans, including Zhang Ruochen.

After some discussion, they named the ten continents of the home planet after the titles of the Ten Clans: Azureky, Yellowsky, Qitian, Demonsky, Bloodysky...

Each clan was responsible for a continent.

For example, there were 30 million Immortal Vampires on the Bloodysky Continent guarded by the Bloodysky Clan. If the Bloodysky Continent was invaded by Celestial Captives and ten clansmen died, one point would be deducted.

This point would be deducted from the Bloodysky Clan.

If the entire clansmen were killed on the Bloodysky Continent, half of the Bloodysky Clan's total points would be deducted and given to the other nine clans.

Zhang Ruochen led the 98 Supreme Saints of the Bloodysky Clan and the two saint kings who had failed to break through to the Bloodysky Continent. Then, Zhang Ruochen told them the details of the discussion.

In the mansion of the governor of Cloud City, the largest city on the Bloodysky Continent, all the powerful figures of the Bloodysky Clan gathered in the lobby.

Lord Xia Yu's face was cold, she said, "The ten great clans will be in charge of a continent. This will divide the powers between the clans and increase competition and internal conflicts. If they were attacked by the Celestial Captives, the other nine great Clans might stand idly by. Lord Bladehell and Queen Wind are making a huge mistake."

Gu Chenzi said, "There's nothing we can do about it. The ten great clans are in competition with each other."

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said indignantly, "What do you mean there's nothing we can do about it? Why should the Immortal Vampires want Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind to make the decision? There are so many powerful figures in our Bloodysky Clan. Can't we seize power? I support Zhang Ruochen to be the leader of the entire Immortal Vampires!"

Gu Chenzi said, "It's useless for you to support him. If we seize power now, it will be an internal conflict. Even if we succeed, the Immortal Vampires will be greatly weakened, and the internal conflict will increase. Isn't this a joke for the other nine clans?"

...

Just as they were arguing endlessly, Zhang Ruochen finally spoke, he said, "Stop arguing. Everyone listened to my arrangements. Lord Xia Yu, immediately contact the array masters of the ten great clans and set up a Defensive Array, a Cloaking Array, and an Offensive Array in the outer space of our planet. This is something that the leaders of the ten great clans and I have discussed beforehand. There should be no opposition. You are the Immortal Vampires' most powerful Array Master. You'll be in charge of this situation.

"Gu Chenzi, search every secret hideout on the continent carefully. Find all the Celestial Captives hiding on the continent and kill them without mercy.

"Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, you will lead all of the Bloodysky Clan's Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm to the Cosmic Battlefield to kill the Celestial Captives and earn points for our clan. How are your injuries healing?"

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan stood up abruptly. His external injuries had already healed, and he was full of energy. He said, "I am a Supreme Saint of the Immortal Vampires. Sucking more saint blood is more effective than taking healing pills. As long as I don't meet Celestial Captives of the Thousand-Koan Realm, I promise to kill them all."

Zhang Ruochen nodded, and he continued to give orders. "Xueqi, you will lead all the spiritual-power Supreme Saints of the Bloodysky Clan to form an intelligence group to investigate the Celestial Captives' whereabouts. Then, you will send a message to Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and let them finish them off. In addition, we must closely monitor the movements of the other nine clans and find the location of their home planet. Remember, safety first."

"Those cultivators who have just broken through to the Supreme Saint Realm should stay in the Bloodysky Continent for the time being. After their realms have been consolidated, they will hunt the Celestial Captives."

...

The orders were given one after another, and everyone began to take action.

Everyone knew very well that Zhang Ruochen had taken a cautious and steady approach. This way, he might get fewer points, but it was safer.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Supreme Inscription in the gourd and activated the Supreme Power. He subdued 3 Quasi-

Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills, 37 King Grade Saintwill Pills, and 458 top-tier Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills.

Then, he sent the cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan who had just broken through to the Supreme Saint Realm into the Violet Gourd to cultivate.

With the help of the Godstones, the time ratio in the gourd could reach 1:9.

Unfortunately, the Sundial could not be brought into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Otherwise, Zhang Ruochen would have a greater time advantage.

“According to Lady Wind, only Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu are still pursuing Que. With their hindrance, Que should not be able to consume Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill in a short time. I still have a chance. However, before that, I must break through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

Even if Que could get rid of Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu, Zhang Ruochen predicted that he wouldn't be able to take Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill anytime soon.

First of all, Que must have condensed the Saintwill in the Path he was best at. If he wanted to take Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he had to cultivate another Path shortly.

Only by cultivating a single Path to an extremely profound level could it be meaningful to take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

Zhang Ruochen didn't think that Que could cultivate a single path to produce a Grade Three Saintwill. The only worry was that Que had already condensed nine types of saintwill. With Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he had condensed the tenth type.

A Supreme Saint condensing the tenth type of saintwill meant that he had surpassed the Ancients and was of epoch-making significance.

No one knew if condensing the tenth type of saintwill would obtain some special power and change?

After all, a cultivator who broke the limit would definitely be favored by Heaven.

Secondly, Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was essentially equivalent to a Supreme Saint. Even if the spiritual will of the Elixir Spirit had been refined, it would still be difficult to refine it with the cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Even if Zhang Ruochen got Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he didn't dare to take it on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. If he was disturbed, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"I hope the Ampliofruit can help me break the shackles."

Zhang Ruochen took out an Ampliofruit and held it in his hand. His eyes were blurred, and his heart was filled with anticipation.

Zhang Ruochen had consumed a cauldron of Fugue Pills before entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting because he couldn't bring any pills in. They numbered in the hundreds.

The medicinal effect of the Fugue Pills couldn't be digested in a short period, so it was all sealed and suppressed by Zhang Ruochen in his blood vessels and heart. Only when the shackle was broken would part of the seal be broken and the efficacy is released.

Besides the Fugue Pills, Zhang Ruochen also swallowed a lot of substandard soul pills, which could improve Spirit, and King Grade pills with healing effects. All of their efficacy was still sealed.

This was a loophole in the rules of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting!

Any cultivator with a bit of brain would do this.

Of course, not every cultivator had a body as strong as Zhang Ruochen's, who could withstand the effects of so many pills and the impact of the Elixir Spirit on his body.

Chapter 2296: Into the Hundred-Shackle Realm

Zhang Ruochen's first shackle was located in his right arm and embedded in the fascia. It was like an iron chain wrapped around his wrist, restricting the power of his right arm and locking the powerful divine power contained in the demigod body.

Because his physical body was strong, Zhang Ruochen's shackles were also tougher.

It was not until he drank "The Twelve Blossoms" that he showed signs of weakening.

It had been two hours since he swallowed the Ampliofruit. Zhang Ruochen mobilized the Divine Purification Flame to refine it with all his might, and then he performed the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture to absorb it speedily.

At the same time, he unsealed part of the Elixir Qi from the Fugue Pill locked inside his heart.

The Elixir Qi fused with the blood and surged toward his right arm like a tide, constantly battering at the shackle.

"Break!"

Zhang Ruochen shouted.

BANG!

A clap of divine thunder came from his body. His bones shook while the Saint Qi and divine flames transformed into circles of ripples that spread in all directions.

It was not broken.

The shackle remained tough.

"Break!"

Zhang Ruochen attacked again. The power in his body burst out and dispersed like clouds and mist.

The first shackle was like a bowstring stretched to its limits, and it let out a frightening sound.

But he failed again and could not break it.

“Break!”

Zhang Ruochen persevered and continued his onslaught.

“Break!”

“Break!”

...

Even with Zhang Ruochen’s powerful physical body, he could not withstand the tenth attack. Blood trickled from the corner of his mouth.

“I’m almost there. I have to break it no matter the cost and enter into the Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and did not give up. He continued to attack.

“Break!”

“Break!”

...

After attacking consecutively for the 15th time, cracks developed on Zhang Ruochen’s skin. Blood dripped from his pores. Even his Saint Soul was damaged, showing signs of cracking.

Zhang Ruochen’s physique was amazing. He had also taken Divine Herbs before so he recovered at an exceedingly fast rate.

Therefore, he wasn’t afraid of hurting his origin and continued his attacks.

The first shackle had become very fragile. He needed to break it off in one go. If he gave up now, all his previous efforts would be wasted.

“Break it.”

Zhang Ruochen shouted loudly. He gathered all the power in his body and struck hard against the shackle.

He had experienced the process of breaking the shackle countless times, but this time, he felt an unrestrained tide of energy flowing within. His right arm felt like an unstoppable flood that had broken through the bank.

BANG!

Like a bowstring being pulled apart, a deafening sound came from Zhang Ruochen's body.

Then, Zhang Ruochen felt his body becoming lighter. It was as if the chains that had once bound him had broken. His body became relaxed and his Saint Soul was set free.

The first shackle was finally broken.

He had successfully broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm!

From now on, Zhang Ruochen would be considered a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint.

His entire body was covered in blood and sweat. His right arm was in so much pain that it was on the verge of splitting apart. His flesh was badly mangled, but it was still full of power. Rays of divine Qi and multicolored light spread out and shone in the realm space within Violet Gourd.

The demigod's blood boiled over, and the divine force of the demigod body was released.

Zhang Ruochen slowly raised his right hand and gathered it above his head.

The wound on his arm that was emitting the bloody divine light healed quickly. It quickly became as good as new. His skin was crystal clear, and his blood flowed like a river.

"Divine force... I can finally release a portion of my divine force. Before this, I possessed a demigod body, but the divine force I can use is very limited."

He felt that he could unleash a devastating attack with a casual sweep of his palm.

The Thousand-Koan Realm elephant souls in his right arm quieted down. They didn't bring adverse effects to their master like before.

"Now that I've broken the first shackle, the next shackle should be much easier." Zhang Ruochen looked at his right arm with satisfaction. He really wanted to test his might with a Great Perfection elite of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

However, he restrained himself and continued to meditate and practice.

The Ampliofruit was very precious. Its most important function was not to assist in breaking the shackle but to help him comprehend high-level Saint Techniques.

Since he had swallowed one, he naturally could not let it be wasted.

Because Zhang Ruochen wanted to cultivate the "Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill" with all his strength, he mainly focused on practicing the Luoshui Fist technique, Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike, Divine Purification Flame, Incarceration of Divine Demon, and Yanshen's Leg, while his swordsmanship and the paths of space and time were temporarily put aside.

His Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike had reached a bottleneck period.

The practice of Divine Purification Flame needed to be done step by step. It was very difficult to be mastered immediately.

Meanwhile, there were no practicing methods for the Luoshui Fist technique. He could only use his own understanding of the fist technique to further deduce the practice methods.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen ultimately decided to continue practicing Incarceration of Divine Demon with the power of the Ampliofruit.

Instead of being greedy, it was better to practice a Saint Technique to perfection.

One move that he could utilize in every battle.

The Incarceration of Divine Demon had already reached the fifth tier of high-level Thousand-Koan Saint Technique. It was unrealistic to advance it to the sixth level in a short time.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen's idea was to combine the Incarceration of Divine Demon and the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King.

He put his hands together.

Whoosh

Torrential saint light surged out of Zhang Ruochen's body. It was bright and extremely hot, reflecting together with the light emitted by the Golden Sun of Destruction in the gourd's inner realm. It was like a Gemini star.

The thousand-mile-tall Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King appeared. It was formidable and sacred. Above its head, nine heavens formed from the heavenly and earthly precepts in addition to Saint Qi that resembled an imperial palace.

Ever since the power of within his blood vessels was activated, Zhang Ruochen had a Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King in his body. At the same time, the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King had transformed. It was much stronger than before.

'Now that I've reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm, I should be able to use my Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King to fuse with the Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King and make the Saint Aspect stronger.'

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen activated the Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King in the saint's heart.

The Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King was not in the likeness of the Immovable Wisdom King. It was sacred and majestic, like an unrivaled being.

The Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect looked like Zhang Ruochen. He was young, handsome, and had a keen temperament.

From afar, it looked like Zhang Ruochen and the ancient Immovable Wisdom King was facing each other. He seemed like a pile of dirt beside a towering mountain. However, If Zhang Ruochen wasn't afraid of the towering figure, he must have possessed a powerful strength within that could devour heaven and earth.

At the God-ascension Ceremony, when Zhang Ruochen had just achieved Supreme Sainthood, He had defeated Lord Xia Yu and Gu Chenzi together because he had used the combination of the Saint Aspect and the Divine Shadow Will.

However, that combination only lasted for a short moment.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen wanted to completely refine the two and merge them into one.

No matter how powerful the Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King was, it was only a wisp. Zhang Ruochen was confident that he could refine it.

Moreover, Zhang Ruochen was extremely ambitious. He would never allow other wills in his body to affect him. Only by refining it into a part of himself could he feel at ease.

After the Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect and the Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King were recombined, Zhang Ruochen immediately shot out the divine purifying fire. It turned into a sea of fire and enveloped them.

During the refining process, Zhang Ruochen's consciousness entered a mysterious state.

Some obscure and cryptic content kept entering his mind. There were incomplete exercises, Saint Techniques, and even spells, witchcraft, and secret arts.

It was the bloodline inheritance.

Generally speaking, only high-tier savage beasts or divine beasts could inherit their bloodline. When they reached a certain level, the bloodline inheritance would be released, allowing them to naturally learn some innate divine abilities.

Some could release lightning, some could spit fire, and some could travel thousands of miles in a day.

The difficulty for humans to obtain the bloodline inheritance was far greater than that of savage beasts. Only if the ancestor's bloodline was strong enough was it possible for him to pass on some things to his descendants through the memory of the bloodline.

For example, a son who looked like his father was a manifestation of the bloodline inheritance.

However, the bloodline memory would become thinner and thinner, making it harder for the descendants to obtain the inheritance.

Even if they obtained it, it was often incomplete.

The bloodline memory that Zhang Ruochen had obtained by fusing with the Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King was also incomplete. Most of them were scattered fragments, making it difficult to combine them into a complete spell.

However, he had a vague glimpse of the practice exercises contained within Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture.

At present, Zhang Ruochen had practiced the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture to the highest level. The ninth heaven, "Chi Ming and Yang Tian," was enough to support his practice to the Paramount Realm.

However, if he wanted to achieve divinity, he had to practice higher-level techniques.

If Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture only had nine heavens, it meant that if he practiced to the Paramount Realm, he had to change to a divine level exercise. Not only would it take time, but the compatibility would also be much worse.

According to the bloodline inheritance, at least he knew that "Ciming Heyang Heaven" was not the last level of the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture.

There was still the 10th, 11th, 12th heaven..

Zhang Ruochen did not think about where the complete Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture was for the time being. Because at this moment, the Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect and the Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King had completely merged into one.

The Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King disappeared, leaving only Zhang Ruochen's Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect floating in the air.

The Saint Aspect was thousands of miles tall. It gave off a blinding saint light and an explosive aura. It was so powerful that the Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints who were cultivating in the inner realm of the gourd felt great pressure.

It was as if they were facing a Supreme Saint from the Paramount Realm and a demigod. They couldn't help but feel awe and respect.

"There's great difference in Zhang Ruochen's Saint Aspect, compared to the time during God Ascension Ceremony."

"The thousand-mile-tall Saint Aspect contains unimaginable power. It could easily destroy the stars with a swing of its arm."

"Cousin has reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm. How many cultivators left in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting could be his opponents?"

"Zhang Ruochen's aura doesn't look like a Supreme Saint who has just entered the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Even a Thousand Koan Realm Supreme Saint might not have such power."

..

In the gourd world, the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires sighed and discussed amongst themselves.

Some were extremely envious, some were full of respect, and some had eyes that shone excitedly.

At the moment that the Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King merged with Zhang Ruochen's Saint Aspect, the Divine Shadow Will of the Progenitor Bloodximius flew out of the heart and merged with the five pairs of golden wings on Zhang Ruochen's back.

The Divine Shadow Will of the Progenitor Bloodximius was also born during the baptism in the immortal blood pool. At that time, it even competed with the Divine Shadow Will of the Immovable Wisdom King.

The Progenitor Bloodximus had 24 pairs of golden wings. He was a great figure in the history of the Bloodysky Clan and the Immortal Vampires. His cultivation skill was almost at the pinnacle of gods.

The moment it was combined with the five pairs of golden wings, Zhang Ruochen felt that the five pairs of golden wings became extremely heavy as if they had turned into ten mountains of gold.

Whoosh

Strange blood-colored lines appeared on the five pairs of golden wings, emitting a demonic light.

A burning pain came from his back. Half of his body seemed to be melting.

Roar

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were scarlet. Blood-red evil lines appeared on his face and body. Two sharp fangs grew out of his mouth, and he let out a long roar.

The deafening sound spread throughout the gourd world, and the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires all felt a piercing pain in their eardrums.

What was even more terrifying was that the aura from Zhang Ruochen's body caused their blood to gradually solidify and had difficulty in flowing.

Even their spiritual willpower was suppressed.

“What a terrifying aura, has Zhang Ruochen become the reincarnated primogenitor of the Immortal Vampires?”

Two Nine-Step Saint Kings who had not reached the Supreme Sainthood could not withstand the pressure from their blood vessels and consciousness. Their legs trembled and was compelled to kneel before Zhang Ruochen.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen turned into a bloody streak of light and flew out of the gourd world. He shot into the sky like a pillar of blood. The powerful energy in his body instantly swept throughout the entire Bloodysky Continent.

He flew out of the planet's atmosphere and flew thousands of miles away before stopping.

His long hair was blood-red, but his face was as pale as paper and looked extremely handsome and ferocious. The five pairs of golden wings on his back had become extremely large, with multiple blood patterns interweaving on them.

Every time the ten wings flapped, they would form a blood qi storm that would send the space meteorites flying, causing tidal waves to form.

The sky above the entire Bloodysky Continent turned blood-red. Clouds rolled and pressed down on the ground.

On the continent, the 30 million of those from the Immortal Vampires knelt on the ground, trembling in fear.

Gu Chenzi, who was guarding the Bloodysky Continent, stood in the mansion belonging to the lord of the Cloud City. He looked up at the sky with a smile on his face. "He has finally broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Who still dares to make an enemy of the Bloodysky Clan?"

Lord Xia Yu was leading a team of array masters to inscribe array inscriptions in the cloud layer of the clan's planet.

Sensing that the void was shaking and the precepts of heaven and earth were in disorder, she hurriedly raised his head and looked into the distance. Tens of thousands of miles away, on the other side of the planet, a large amount of bloody light emerged over the horizon, forming a frightening storm.

Her eyes narrowed. "It's just breaking through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Why did you cause such a stir? But... now that you've broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm, I can finally have a good fight with you again."

Ever since she had broken through to the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, Lord Xia Yu had always wanted fight with Zhang Ruochen to redeem herself.

However, Zhang Ruochen had only reached the cultivation of the Neverwilt Realm before. Even if she defeated him, she would not be able to regain her face. Therefore, she had been waiting for Zhang Ruochen to break through and reach the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

“Why are his Qi movements so strange? It seems to contain an ancient and powerful divine power. Even the blood within my body has been affected from tens of thousands of miles away. Could it be the aura from the ten great progenitors of the Immortal Vampires?” Lord Xia Yu muttered to herself in confusion.

The ten great progenitors of the Immortal Vampires had established the ten great clans. They were the oldest great divine arts practitioners.

Because the ten great progenitors had existed for too long, their identities had always been in dispute. The great families all said that their progenitors were one of the ten great progenitors who had established their clans.

Therefore, there exist dozens of progenitors.

It was near impossible to find the real ten great progenitors.

However, even if the progenitors' bloodline had awakened, how could it appear in Zhang Ruochen?

He was not a pure Immortal Vampire but a half-human.

Chapter 2297: The Power of Golden Wings

Translator: EndlessFantasy

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Zhang Ruochen had caused such a huge commotion that it shook his entire clan planet.

In the Yellow Sky Continent

Lady Wind wore a golden mask and displayed a noble temperament. Her tall figure stood by the churning bloody sea looking up at the sky.

Although Zhang Ruochen stood thousands of miles up in the sky, the energy waves that erupted from his body caused the sea on his clan's planet to behave erratically. There were tsunamis and hurricanes, and blood-red light beams flying through the sky.

Yan Beijun looked at the rolling blood clouds in the sky with unconcealed terror, "How can he be so powerful if he had just broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm... And how can the ten golden wings on Zhang Ruochen transform? The blood-red lines on the golden wings are very similar to the legendary Divine Marks of the progenitors."

There was a legend among the Immortal Vampires that anyone among the cultivators who could awaken the Divine Marks of the progenitors on their wings was the descendants favored by them. They would be blessed with great luck and an extraordinary future.

Every time such a cultivator appeared, the Fane of Immortality would appear and guide them inside to hone their cultivation.

The appearance of the Divine Marks of the progenitors was not only a symbol of power and talent but also of extraordinary significance.

"Zhang Ruochen must have awakened the bloodline of Progenitor Bloodximus. His aura is very ancient and can exert a great spiritual suppression on the Immortal Vampires." Lady Wind said with a smile in her eyes.

The more outstanding and powerful Zhang Ruochen was, the more advantageous it would be for her.

Only in this way could Zhang Ruochen become the sharpest weapon in her hands against Pan Ru and Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Yan Beijun said, "Throughout history, all the cultivators who could awaken the progenitor's bloodline were born with pure blood. Zhang Ruochen's mother may be a deity, but she is a concubine with an impure bloodline. Furthermore, Zhang Ruochen is only a half Immortal Vampire. How could he be favored by Progenitor Bloodximus?"

"Zhang Ruochen talents are practically unseen before. He's a person who can create miracles," Lady Wind replied.

Not far away, there was a tall and sturdy man who radiated saint light.

His long hair was disheveled, and the muscles on his chest, abdomen, and arms bulged. They shone with a metallic luster. He was the Stone Clan's Supreme Saint that has achieved the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, the Mad Whitejade Lion.

Hearing Lady Wind praise Zhang Ruochen, the Mad Whitejade Lion felt a strong sense of jealousy, and he grunted. "It's still unknown whether he has awakened the progenitor's bloodline or not. Besides, he has just broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm. No matter how strong he is, how strong can he be? I'd like to meet him and measure his strength."

Under the golden mask, Lady Wind's sparkling red lips curled up slightly. She didn't stop the White Jade Mad Lion.

She was also curious about how strong Zhang Ruochen was.

When they were fighting for the Saintwill Pill, Zhang Ruochen had hit Supreme Saint Yanhong so hard that blood flew from her mouth. Although there was an element of surprise in that palm, it was a truly glorious accomplishment in battle.

It was enough to make even the top ten Great Perfection elites of the Hundred-Shackle Realm wary and not underestimate him.

Now that Zhang Ruochen had reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm, how strong was he?

Zhang Ruochen's blood boiled violently. A strong bloodthirsty impulse repeatedly attacked his consciousness. He wished he could drink up all the seawater in the blood-red sea below.

The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms hovered above the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, and it just so happened to reflect Zhang Ruochen's current image. It projected the scene onto the various planets in Infernal Court and also onto the Battlefield of Merits.

Kunlun cultivators were all shocked to see Zhang Ruochen's ferocious and evil appearance.

The cultivators who had been on good terms with Zhang Ruochen felt a tremor in their hearts. They felt that Zhang Ruochen had become unfamiliar and terrifying.

"Something must have happened to my master. How did he become like this?" Han Xue frowned deeply. She was worried for Zhang Ruochen and felt that his current state was extremely abnormal.

Shangguan Que sighed deeply. "He must have fused with his previous body, and the bloodline of the Immortal Vampires has finally fully shown itself."

...

Zhang Ruochen used his strong will to suppress his bloodthirsty impulse. He looked closely. Six figures had appeared in the void not far from him. They all emitted the aura of an elite Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saint.

Roar

The Mad Whitejade Lion let out a lion-like roar that formed into sound waves and spread out towards Zhang Ruochen.

"Zhang Ruochen, let's spar. I really want to know how strong the so-called Yuanhui grade genius is."

Regardless of whether Zhang Ruochen had agreed or not, the Mad Whitejade Lion clenched its claws and pounced forward. Instantly, two claw prints of a few dozens of miles long appeared in the void and flew towards Zhang Ruochen.

The two lion claws instantly surpassed the speed of sound.

The Mad Whitejade Lion wasn't just jealous. He wanted to test Zhang Ruochen's strength. Thus, it used all of his strength to strike out the claw attacks which were high-level Saint Techniques of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Lion King's Heaven Chaos Attack.

The dense precepts interweaved tightly in the two claw prints, and the strong force caused the void to cave inwards.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes darkened as if they had turned into two sharp swords.

Who did you think you were to do as you please?

If it were Lord Xia Yu or Gu Chenzi, Zhang Ruochen would not be angry, and happily spar with them. But who are you to me, the Mad Whitejade Lion. Do I know you very well?

By attacking without permission it could already be judged as a malicious attack on your opponent. As long as Zhang Ruochen was willing, he only needed to send a consciousness signal to the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms, and 5,000 points would be deducted from the Mad Whitejade Lion.

However, Zhang Ruochen did not do that.

Since he had broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he was going to find someone to practice with. Although the Mad Whitejade Lion was only ranked 33rd on the list of Hundred-Shackle Realm Great Perfections, it was still acceptable.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen spread his ten wings flat, emitting a dazzling golden light. He turned into a streak of light and flew directly toward the Mad Whitejade Lion.

Bang! Bang!

The golden wings and the two giant lion claws collided, and the claws were torn apart as if they were bubbles.

The Hundred-Shackle grade high-level Saint Technique, “Lion King’s Heaven Chaos Attack” was easily broken by the golden wings.

Seeing this, all the cultivators present were shocked. Zhang Ruochen’s ten golden wings were too terrifying. They were stronger than the Hundred-Shackle grade high-level Saint Technique, and even seemed to be tougher than the Regal Artifacts.

The ten wings flew toward the Mad Whitejade Lion like knives.

The Mad Whitejade Lion’s expression was extremely grave. He stared at the rapidly approaching Zhang Ruochen and immediately activated a crimson iron ring on its wrist. Instantly, hundreds of thousands of Regal Inscriptions appeared.

It was a Class Four Regal Artifact.

The iron ring spun rapidly and became 330 feet in diameter. It released a powerful aura of death.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen’s body tilted slightly. The five golden wings on his left slashed at the iron ring, and a piercing sound of metal colliding rang out. A large number of sparks flew out.

The iron ring was knocked back.

Zhang Ruochen’s body stopped in mid-air for a moment. Following that, he flapped his ten wings strongly and flew at an extremely fast speed zig-zagging towards the Mad Whitejade Lion.

On the planet, many Supreme Saints of the Neverwilt Realm couldn’t see clearly Zhang Ruochen’s face. They could only see the unpredictable golden light streaks flying rapidly.

Compared to before, Zhang Ruochen’s speed was much faster now.

His speed had increased with his cultivation. More importantly, the Divine Shadow Will of the Progenitor Bloodximius had merged with the golden wings. This allowed Zhang Ruochen's ten golden wings to unleash explosive bursts of unparalleled speed.

It was like the innate higher knowledge power of the beast's bloodline inheritance.

The Mad Whitejade Lion's nerves were stretched to the extreme. It released all of its spiritual power and shrank it to a radius of 10,000 feet to capture Zhang Ruochen's figure while striking out constantly with the iron ring.

It could only passively defend.

Bang

A deafening collision sound resembling a clap of thunder rang in the sky above the planet.

With each collision, the Mad Whitejade Lion would be knocked backward for a long distance. After dozens of collisions, he was flustered and shocked beyond words, and thought to himself, "Are Zhang Ruochen's golden wings harder than the Class Four Regal Artifact?"

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen stopped his attack and stood in the air.

The Mad Whitejade Lion let out a long sigh of relief. No matter what, he managed to block Zhang Ruochen's attacks and had gained a general understanding of Zhang Ruochen's strength.

He couldn't fight anymore.

If he fought again, he would most likely lose.

Zhang Ruochen, who had reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm, was indeed terrifying.

"He has just broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm, and he could already fight equally with me. He is indeed worthy of being a favorite on par with Yan Wushen, and I admire him." Mad Whitejade Lion spoke neutrally.

The cultivators of the Immortal Vampires who were watching the battle nodded slightly, acknowledging Zhang Ruochen's strength.

"To be able to fight equally with the Mad Whitejade Lion, Zhang Ruochen's battle strength is enough to rank within the top five of the Immortal Vampires. It seems that he really has the strength to injure the Supreme Saint Yanhong and it was not merely a lucky blow."

"No matter what, the Bloodysky Clan has another top elite. Together with Lord Xia Yu and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, both of which had achieved the Hundred-Shackle Great Perfection, the Bloodysky Clan's strength makes them the first among the top ten clans."

...

While everyone was discussing animatedly, Zhang Ruochen snorted coldly. "It was not a tie, I was just testing the toughness of the golden wings. Do you think you are qualified to be my opponent?"

"What did you say?" the Mad Whitejade Lion asked.

Zhang Ruochen did not answer him. He turned into a streak of golden light and flew out again with an even faster speed.

Even with the Mad Whitejade Lion's eyesight, it was difficult to track him.

Whoosh

The iron ring flew out. It tried to knock Zhang Ruochen back like before.

However, this time, Zhang Ruochen did not meet it head-on. He only turned his body to the side and flew over the iron ring. Then he flew straight towards the Mad Whitejade Lion.

"Such speed."

The Mad Whitejade Lion's expression changed greatly. He spread his arms and transformed them into a pair of pure white divine lion claws. His human head transformed into a huge lion head.

Zhang Ruochen flew above the Mad Whitejade Lion's head. The five golden wings on his left slashed down like five demonic sabers.

The Mad Whitejade Lion raised its claws above its head and released huge amounts of Saint Light.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

The five wings continuously slashed down, causing the Mad Whitejade Lion's body to plummet from the sky. He felled to the ground from a height of a thousand miles and caused a ridge of mountains to collapse, which revealed a huge pit with a diameter of a hundred miles.

The pit was so deep that the bottom could not be seen.

Following that, Zhang Ruochen suppressed the Class Four Regal Artifact iron ring and flew to the sky above the pit.

The Mad Whitejade Lion climbed up from the rubble at the bottom of the pit. White blood flowed out of its mouth and five deep cuts could be seen on his jade-like arms which were accompanied by multiple cracks.

With his Sacred Imperial Jade's hard physical quality, how could his arms be almost crippled by Zhang Ruochen's golden wings?

"Is he really that strong?"

The Mad Whitejade Lion did not dare to fight anymore. If he continued fighting, his arms would be wasted.

Once his arms were broken, he wouldn't be able to recover for the Celestial-Hunting battle.

He looked up and his face froze. He saw that Zhang Ruochen was using the Divine Purification Flame to refine his Class Four Regal Artifact, the Thousand Dipper Ring.

This Regal Artifact didn't belong to him. It was given to him by a deity from the Stone Clan before he attended the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

The Celestial-Hunting Festival had just begun not long ago, but his weapon had already been taken away. He would become a laughingstock of the Stone Clan. That deity would be very disappointed in him.

“Zhang Ruochen, we’re just sparring. Why did you take my weapon?”

The Mad Whitejade Lion flew out of the pit and glared at Zhang Ruochen with gritted teeth. For the moment, he did not dare to take it directly out of his hands but instead tried to reason with him

If he could not win, the only option was to try and reason with him.

“Since when are we sparring?”

Zhang Ruochen continued to refine the Thousand Dipper Ring.

When he came to the Celestial-Hunting Festival, he only had a Violet Gourd, which was far from enough. This Thousand Dipper Ring could even be used as a defensive weapon. It had to be said that the various clans regarded the Celestial-Hunting Festival with importance as high-grade weapons could be obtained from it.

Taking one was equivalent to taking a large number of Godstones.

A bold idea suddenly appeared in Zhang Ruochen’s mind.

Swoosh! Swoosh!

Two streaks of blood light flew down from the sky.

Lady Wind and Yan Beijun hadn’t expected that the Mad Whitejade Lion, a majestic Great Perfection Hundred-Shackle elite, would be defeated so quickly.

They immediately went back to the ground to witness this scene.

Zhang Ruochen had snatched the Mad Whitejade Lion’s war weapon and was still refining it. He had no intention of returning it. The Mad Whitejade Lion was furious. He pointed at Zhang Ruochen and cursed him loudly, but did not dare to attack him.

Both of them were stunned.

They were shocked that Zhang Ruochen would be so merciless. After all, Mad Whitejade Lion and Lady Wind were allies.. They were surprised that the usually hot-tempered Mad Whitejade Lion could be restrained.

Chapter 2298: Forced Him Away

Mad Whitejade Lion was an elite in the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm after all. Lady Wind did not want to lose this powerful ally. She welcomed Zhang Ruochen. “Mad Whitejade Lion had indeed been disrespectful towards you. However, we are now allies together. Please don’t take this to heart and return the Thousand Dipper Ring to him.”

Yan Beijun was dissatisfied with Zhang Ruochen’s behavior. He snorted and said, “You were just sparring, and Mad Whitejade Lion lost. There’s no need for you to take his weapon right?”

Zhang Ruochen stared at him and replied, “Did I agree to spar with him? If my strength was inferior to his, what do you think the result of this battle will be?”

Yan Beijun said, “At least Mad Whitejade Lion won’t take your weapon. Not to mention, he won’t be so aggressive.”

“Is that so? What if I want to spar with you now?”

Regardless of whether Yan Beijun agreed or not, Zhang Ruochen let out a breath.

Whoosh

The Qi condensed into a sword and turned into a beam of light that flew towards Yan Beijun’s heart.

Although it was a breath of Qi, it contained Zhang Ruochen’s Precepts of Swordsmanship and Swordwill. Its power was no less than a high-level Saint Technique.

This breath of Qi was no different from a real Saint Sword.

Yan Beijun’s face changed in shock and he quickly dodged.

However, he had just broken through to the Supreme Saint Realm. There was a huge gap between his cultivation and Zhang Ruochen. How could he dodge it?

Poof

The Sword Qi hit Yan Beijun's heart. The tip of the sword plunged in, impaling his body and knocking him flying back for more than 10 miles.

The Sword Qi pierced through his heart and passed through his body.

A large amount of Supreme Saint's blood flew out and splattered on the ground, burning the soil and melting it into lava.

Then, Zhang Ruochen's five fingers turned into claws. He reached out and grabbed something across the air, taking away one of Yan Beijun's weapons in the form of a jade pendant.

The vessel spirit of the jade pendant resisted fiercely but was strongly suppressed by Zhang Ruochen. It couldn't escape from his palm.

Lady Wind and Mad Whitejade Lion were both stunned on the spot. Zhang Ruochen was acting too unreasonably and did not play by the rules. All it took was just a disagreement for him to retaliate.

Although Lady Wind thought highly of Zhang Ruochen and hoped for his support, Zhang Ruochen's arrogant behavior and his disregard for her made her feel angry.

Did it mean that he could do whatever he wanted just because he was strong?

Zhang Ruochen refined the Thousand Dipper Ring and put it on his wrist. Then he landed on the ground. The ten wings on his back returned to his body. His pupils returned to black and his temperament was no longer as evil as before. He displayed elegant and handsome looks again.

Yan Beijun was a Supreme Saint with strong vitality. Even if his heart was pierced, he wouldn't die.

However, the heart was one of the most important vital points for Immortal Vampires. Once damaged, its vigor would be hard to recover.

Yan Beijun pressed his palm on his heart and slowly got up from the ground. His face was pale white, and he said. “Zhang Ruochen, you’re so cruel. Aren’t you afraid of being expelled from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting by the vessel spirit of Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms?”

“Why would the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms expel me?” Zhang Ruochen replied while walking towards him step by step.

Yan Beijun had seen how powerful and cold Zhang Ruochen was. He resignedly stepped back, “You...” he said. “You maliciously attacked a cultivator who is on your side. It will lose you 5,000 points, and once the points are negative, the vessel spirit of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms will expel you.”

“Maliciously attacked? You’re wrong. We were sparring just now,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Did I agree to this.....”

Suddenly, Yan Beijun was at a loss for words. He understood Zhang Ruochen’s intention.

Zhang Ruochen said, “If Mad Whitejade Lion had severely injured me and stolen my Violet Gourd, would you still think that we were sparring?”

“He wouldn’t have done that,” Lady Wind said.

Zhang Ruochen turned his face and stared at her. “What if he did? Have you thought about the consequences?”

Lady Wind wanted to argue, but after thinking carefully, she fell silent.

In the end, Mad Whitejade Lion was not from the Immortal Vampires, but instead, he was a Stone Clan cultivator.

For the benefit of the Stone Clan, he could beat Zhang Ruochen so hard until Zhang Ruochen could not continue to participate in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. For the entire hundred days of the battle, Zhang Ruochen could have ended up hiding in his home planet to recuperate.

What was more frightening was that if the Supreme Artifact of the Immortal Vampires was taken away, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Did she have any means to counter Mad Whitejade Lion?

Mad Whitejade Lion spoke with a glum face. “What’s the point of saying so much? Just state your conditions for you to return the Thousand Dipper Ring to me.”

Zhang Ruochen said lightly, “Be my mount.”

“What did you say?”

Mad Whitejade Lion roared furiously.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Be my mount during the Celestial-Hunting battle. I’ll return the Thousand Dipper Ring to you in 100 days.”

“Haha!”

Mad Whitejade Lion was so furious that couldn’t help but laugh.

“You’re too arrogant in thinking everyone is below you. I only restrained myself to save Lady Wind’s face. Do you think you can defeat me? A Hundred-Shackle Realm Great Perfection Supreme Saint isn’t as easy to defeat as you think.”

Roar!

Mad Whitejade Lion roared into the sky. A dazzling white light radiated from its skin.

His body grew bigger and bigger, and it continued to expand until it became its true form.

A Jade Lion with a body large as a mountain appeared on the ground. Nearly all of the divine light emitted from its body condensed into a liquid state, forming a sea of divine liquid.

Rumble

The mountains in this area could not withstand the aura from the Jade Lion and collapsed one by one.

Lady Wind quickly stopped the two and said, “Why aren’t you stopping yet. Are you trying to destroy our home planet?”

“Fighting against him would not destroy this planet.”

Zhang Ruochen raised his right arm and slapped at the huge jade Lion.

Divine light shot out from his palm and three elephant souls of Thousand-Koan Realm fell together. The elephant’s impact sunk the area where the Jade Lion was and formed a huge five-fingered basin.

The ground between the five fingers rose upwards, forming four ridges that were 1,000 meters high.

Mad Whitejade Lion struggled desperately under Zhang Ruochen’s palm print. He roared angrily, but it was useless. He was firmly trapped underneath.

Seeing this, Yan Beijun’s expression underwent several cycles. A deep fear rose in his heart.

Lady Wind also held her breath. She was also shocked.

Zhang Ruochen was too strong, wasn’t he?

Mad Whitejade Lion used to be ranked 18th out of all the Hundred-Shackle Realm Great Perfections. After he transformed into his true form, his combat power would increase greatly. Even she had to be careful.

But Zhang Ruochen had suppressed him with one slap?

Because of the hidden powerful elites that kept popping up, along with the elite Supreme Saints of the Hundred Shackle Realm, many of them had eaten rare food items including festival food that contains the Ampliofruit and the Saintwill Pill at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. As a result, many of them broke through their bottlenecks and reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The number of Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm increased from the original forty-seven to eighty-eight ones.

The ranking of the Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was also reshuffled.

Mad Whitejade Lion, who was once ranked eighteenth, fell to thirty-third.

Lady Wind, who was once ranked twelfth, fell to the fifteenth.

Before entering the Celestial-Hunting Battlefield, the Fane of Destiny gave all the cultivators a scroll and a diamond-shaped mirror.

The diamond-shaped mirror was born from the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms. It was of the same origin as the mirror, and it could occasionally display some information about the Celestial-Hunting Battlefield.

For example, the list of Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Once a new Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was born, the list would be displayed, and the latest rankings would appear.

For example, once a Celestial Captive killed a cultivator from the Infernal Court, his position would be tracked by the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms and transmitted to the diamond-shaped mirrors of every cultivator who attended the festival.

...

Rumble

The geological structure of the clan planet was stable. Even so, a large number of canyons still appeared in the thousands of miles around Zhang Ruochen's palm print.

The entire Bloodysky Continent was shaking.

Fortunately, the 30 million Immortal Vampires living on the Bloodysky Continent had gathered in the three big cities. Otherwise, a large number of them would have been killed by accident.

When Zhang Ruochen raised his arm, Mad Whitejade Lion was already exhausted. More cracks appeared on its body.

Deep fear appeared within his massive eyes. Zhang Ruochen's strength was far beyond its expectations. Even the top 10 on the list of Hundred-Shackle Realm Great Perfection might not be this strong.

“Lady Wind, I wholeheartedly admit my defeat today. I cannot stay on the Immortal Vampires home planet anymore. Farewell.”

A small white cloud appeared beneath Mad Whitejade Lion. He flew into the sky and broke through the layer of clouds.

“Hold on.”

Lady Wind wanted to urge him to stay, so she flew up.

Zhang Ruochen was faster than her, and he stopped her in mid-air, “Let him go!” he said, “An elite of the Stone Clan staying on the Immortal Vampires’ home planet is a danger concealed in plain sight. If we’re not careful, we’ll lose everything.”

Lady Wind said, “But...”

Zhang Ruochen interrupted her abruptly, “You don’t care about the lives of the 240 million Immortal Vampires on this planet,” he said. “But I do, and I also care more about the Immortal Vampires’ points. I don’t want half of their points to be removed.”

Lady Wind said, “So, you forced Mad Whitejade Lion away on purpose?”

“You have to understand that he attacked me first. Besides, didn’t you suspect that the reason that Mad Whitejade Lion was close to you? Since you had, you should get rid of him immediately. Don’t you understand that there is no need to treat suspicious people normally?”

Zhang Ruochen flew back to the ground. He slowly raised his hands and released a large amount of Saint Qi. Instantly, the destroyed land rose again. Lush vegetation grew and became full of vitality.

Lady Wind’s anger gradually abated. She felt that Zhang Ruochen’s words made sense.

More importantly, Zhang Ruochen’s strength was strong enough to play a crucial role in her fight for the position of Scioness.

The Scion and Scioness of the Fane of Destiny might not be the strongest in an era, but they had to have a strong influence in that era.

As long as Zhang Ruochen was the strongest in this era and she could control him, who would dare to disobey her?

She came to Zhang Ruochen's side and said, "All-knowing almighty one, everyone knows that Mad Whitejade Lion is my ally. You should have given me some face and shown mercy just now."

"I did give you face, so I didn't kill him," Zhang Ruochen said.

When she heard the word "Kill," Lady Wind felt a wave of intense murderous intent and suddenly felt cold all over.

It turned out that Zhang Ruochen already had a desire to kill.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Before Mad Whitejade Lion left, he said, 'I admit defeat.' while in fact, he said that to save his life."

"From this, it can be seen that the so-called mad lion is not crazy at all. On the contrary, he is very shrewd."

"He knows very well that if he dares to say anything refusing me or threaten to take revenge, he will not be able to leave the Immortal Vampires' home planet alive today. If I want to kill him, he won't be able to escape."

"Moreover, he attacked me first. Even if I kill him, he deserves it."

Lady Wind trembled with fear. Zhang Ruochen was even more ruthless than she had imagined.

With Zhang Ruochen participating in the Celestial-Hunting Battle, this year's battle would be even bloodier than the previous ones. There would probably be a lot of casualties.

Lady Wind sighed deeply. "It's a good thing that Mad Whitejade Lion left. We don't have to be on guard against him at all times anymore."

Yan Beijun heard the conversation between Zhang Ruochen and Lady Wind and realized that Lady Wind had suspected Mad Whitejade Lion all along. Now that he thought about it, he also felt that something was wrong. An elite of the Stone Clan had disregarded the interests of his own clan and helped the Immortal Vampires. How could the deity of the Stone Clan still bestow him with a Class Four Saint Artifact?

It was indeed suspicious.

Unfortunately, he had realized it too late. For Mad Whitejade Lion, he had offended Zhang Ruochen. Now that he was seriously injured, there was almost no chance of recovery during the Celestial-Hunting Battle period.

A bitter and self-mocking smile appeared on Yan Beijun's face.

It seemed that he deserved to be severely injured and let his weapon be snatched away.

"Take it."

Zhang Ruochen threw the jade pendant-shaped weapon to Yan Beijun.

Yan Beijun was overjoyed at the unexpected good news. He held the jade pendant with both hands with an awkward and grateful smile, replying. "Thank you, Great Saint Ruochen. I was the one who didn't know the situation. Sorry for causing trouble!"

Zhang Ruochen mobilized the life essence in the Heart of the Divine Tree and pressed his palm on Yan Beijun's chest.

With a large injection of life essence, Yan Beijun's injury healed quickly.

Yan Beijun felt even more ashamed inside. He lowered his head and didn't say anything, but only cupped his hands to show respect for Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen patted Yan Beijun's shoulder and stared at Lady Wind. "I remember you took a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Have you refined it yet?"

“Fusing with the Saintwill is a major event. I’m still adjusting the state of affairs,” Lady Wind replied.

“Try to refine it as soon as possible. If you can merge it with a Grade Three Saintwill, you should be able to enter the top 10 among the list of Great Perfections in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. A bloody battle is coming. I have to prepare too.”

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and turned into a bloody streak of light, and departed by flying away.

Yan Beijun frowned and asked, “Senior sister apprentice, how did Zhang Ruochen know that a bloody battle is coming?”

Lady Wind said, “He must be referring to Mad Whitejade Lion.” Since Mad Whitejade Lion had left, he must have spread the news that Ruochen had broken through the Hundred-Shackle Realm back to the Stone Clan or the top elites of the upper three clans. In this way, the forces that want to kill Zhang Ruochen must act immediately to prevent him from becoming stronger.”

“Will Mad Whitejade Lion do this?” Yan Beijun still did not fully believe it.

Lady Wind said, “I don’t know either, but if Zhang Ruochen’s guess is right, I will teach him a lesson personally when I meet that lion next time.”

“Zhang Ruochen is indeed a figure on par with Yan Wushen. Not only is he powerful, but he is also decisive and ruthless. Fortunately, he is our ally.” Yan Beijun sighed.

...

“Zhang Ruochen has broken through the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Come to the home planet of the Stone Clan and discuss the plan to kill him.”

After Mad Whitejade Lion returned to the home planet of the Stone Clan, he immediately sent people to contact Lord Sinluo and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei of the Deathkin, the Ten-Thousand-Hand Wu Jiang Supreme Saint of the Nether Clan, and Pan Ruo from the Fane of Destiny.

After this battle, Zhang Ruochen's strength had left a deep impression on Mad Whitejade Lion. He only wanted to get rid of this troublesome being immediately.. With this person by Lady Wind's side, Pan Ruo would find it much more difficult to become the Scioness herself.

Chapter 2299: Pan Ruo's Plan to Kill Zhang Ruochen

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The home planet of Stone Clan was covered in yellow sand. There was no ocean or vegetation. If you stood mid-air and view it from the starry sky, you would think it was a lifeless planet. It was no different from hundreds of millions of barren planets.

The north pole of the home planet was dark and cold. There were only streaks of aurora that filled the sky.

Beneath the aurora fog, there was a grand building in the shape of a pyramid. It was covered with many Supreme Saint Inscriptions. It emitted white light that could illuminate a thousand miles.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Scion Yuan Mo, and Lord Sinlue of Deathkin were the first to arrive. They stood in the tower and listened to Mad Whitejade Lion's narration of the battle between him and Zhang Ruochen.

Of course, Mad Whitejade Lion was hiding something.

After all, he had been beaten so badly. He would not be proud to tell the whole story.

It was very embarrassing!

After listening to the story, the three Supreme Saints of Deathkin in the tower all looked very serious.

Scion Yuan Mo was very upset. He said, "How long has it been since Zhang Ruochen broke through to the Supreme Saint realm? How can he have the ability to defeat you? How did he attain Hundred-Shackle Realm so easily?"

When he was in Kunlun, Scion Yuan Mo didn't see Zhang Ruochen as a worthy opponent.

Even though Scion Yuan Mo had suffered losses in the battle of Xianji Mountain, he felt that Zhang Ruochen had relied on external forces. Hence, he was unwilling to admit his defeat.

But now, Zhang Ruochen had reached Hundred-Shackle Realm, while Scion Yuan Mo had just entered the advanced stage of Neverwilt Realm. In other words, there was a huge gap in their cultivation strength.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei was the elder brother of Scion Yuan Mo and the top Deathkin elite in the Celestial-Hunting battle. He said calmly, “Zhang Ruochen controls Sundial and has a lot of cultivation training resources. It’s understandable that he can practice so fast.”

“He could defeat Warlord Mara when he was in Neverwilt Realm. Now that he has entered Hundred-Shackle Realm, it isn’t a surprise that he could defeat Mad Whitejade Lion.”

Then, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei stared into Mad Whitejade Lion’s eyes as if he could see through it. He asked seriously, “Did you and Zhang Ruochen really fight dozens of rounds?”

“What do you mean? Would I lie? Zhang Ruochen is indeed very strong, but I’m not much weaker than him,” Mad Whitejade Lion said angrily, his eyes wide.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei quickly tried to calm him down, “That’s not what I mean. I just want to understand Zhang Ruochen’s current strength more clearly so that I don’t make an inaccurate assessment of his strength.

“Based on what you said, I think Zhang Ruochen might have awakened the ancestral bloodline.

“But we have never seen how strong the ancestral bloodline is. Only you know best.”

Mad Whitejade Lion’s expression was solemn. “The ancestral bloodline has greatly increased Zhang Ruochen’s speed. Without using time and space, his speed can even surpass some Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints.”

“When I fight with him, I can only defend passively. It’s hard for me to take the initiative.”

Scion Yuan Mo snorted. “In a battle between Supreme Saints, the speed advantage doesn’t play a crucial role. A single strike from a Supreme Saint can cover an area of a thousand miles. No matter how fast he is, can he escape to a distance of a thousand miles in an instant?

“Furthermore, formations, the Will of Death, curses... there are many methods that one cannot dodge with just high speed.”

“Scion Yuan Mo, you shouldn’t underestimate a Supreme Saint’s speed. Be careful. You might not even know how you die.”

A clear voice sounded in the tower.

It sounded like a young cultivator.

Scion Yuan Mo looked in the voice’s direction and noticed a figure wearing black armor had appeared in the tower.

That person was standing at the edge of the stone tower. His back was facing them, and he was facing a stone window. The light that shone in from the window cast a long shadow on the ground.

Scion Yuan Mo touched his neck and a bloody mark appeared on his fingertip. He thought to himself, “What a terrifying speed! Not only did he walk in from outside in an instant, he even left a bloody mark on my neck. Did he send me a warning?”

Lord Sinluo and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei looked at each other and nodded.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said probingly, “Are you Que Fei from NNether Clan?”

The man in black armor turned around and said, “That’s right.”

Que Fei turned around. However, the black armor on his body was very strange; it appeared to devour the light. Any cultivator who looked at him could only see a black outline, but they could not see his face.

It was like a human-shaped black mirror, which was bizarre.

“So it’s Que Fei, the second strongest person of Nether Clan. No wonder he’s so powerful,” Scion Yuan Mo thought to himself.

Que Fei was a hidden elite of Nether Clan. He had only recently risen to fame. Now, he was ranked 16th on the list of those in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Mad Whitejade Lion said, “Where’s the Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint? Why isn’t he here?”

Que Fei’s tone was distant.”The ten thousand hands Supreme Saint is refining a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill pill to try and condense a second-grade Saintwill.

“Once he succeeds, Nether Clan will definitely take first place in this Celestial-Hunting battle. Even the Yan Huangtu and Lan Ying will be trampled under his feet.

“Even that mysterious Que won’t be able to win against the second-class saint’s will.”

Hearing this, Yuan Fei, Lord Sinluo, Mad Whitejade Lion, and the others didn’t show any displeasure. After all, Deathkin and Stone Clan were indeed weaker in the Celestial-Hunting Festival, they could only follow the lead of the ten thousand hands Saint.

Mad Whitejade Lion said, “If the Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint doesn’t come, it will be difficult for us to kill Zhang Ruochen with our strength.”

Que Fei snorted. “Why would we need Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint to deal with a mere Zhang Ruochen? We have four Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm here. killing him is like slaughtering pigs and dogs.”

Mad Whitejade Lion knew how powerful Zhang Ruochen was. However, when he thought about how Yuan Fei and Que Fei were both unfathomable elites, the weight in his heart lessened.

Tap. tap

Light footsteps sounded.

Pan Ruo, who was dressed like a man, walked in from outside the tower. She was tall and had a mysterious aura. She said faintly, “You underestimate Zhang Ruochen so much. Be careful not to kill him and die in the Celestial-Hunting battlefield.”

Pan Ruo had already broken through to the Supreme Saint realm. The bright Gate of Destiny hovered behind her. Her figure was sometimes clear and sometimes dim as if she was shuttling between light and darkness.

This was a manifestation of the Path of Destiny that would only appear when one cultivated it to an extremely profound level. It was called the Door of Trueself.

The Door of Trueself was also the Gate of Destiny.

However, the Door of Trueself had already completely fused with the cultivator. It was not separated from each other. The power of Destiny would always remain and never disappear.

With the Door of Trueself, Pan Ruo could weaken her opponent at any time and suppress her opponent at all times. Of course, the degree of suppression was proportional to her cultivation level.

Those whose cultivation level was higher than hers, the lesser the effect of suppression on them.

The few people in the tower all went up to greet her. They cupped their hands and said with a smile, “Congratulations, Your Highness. You have cultivated the Door of Trueself. The position of Scioness is already within your reach.”

According to the tradition of the Fane of Destiny, a cultivator who cultivated the Door of Trueself could directly become a Scion or Scioness.

However, Pan Ruo had only cultivated the Door of Trueself after entering the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. Her case was unusual.

Pan Ruo’s cultivation wasn’t as high as the others. However, with her eyes cold and disdainful, she had an aura that surpassed them. She sat at the top, “Don’t let your guard down when dealing with Zhang Ruochen,” she said. “It’s fine if you don't make a move. But once you do, you must send him to a place of eternal damnation."

There were rumors that Pan Ruo was backed by one of the twelve deities of the Fane of Destiny, Skywrath, who was powerful. Hence, although Que Fei and Lord Sinluo were arrogant, they didn't dare to be presumptuous in front of her.

Furthermore, Pan Ruo's talent in the Path of Destiny was shocking. Her potential was limitless.

Scion Yuan Mo was Pan Ruo's unwavering supporter. He quickly asked, "What's your plan, Your Highness?"

Pan Ruo stared at Mad Whitejade Lion. "Did Zhang Ruochen use the power of Time and Space to defeat you?"

Mad Whitejade Lion looked troubled and shook his head.

Pan Ruo asked again, "Did he use any Saintwill?"

Mad Whitejade Lion shook his head again.

Pan Ruo asked again, "Did he use any weapon?"

Mad Whitejade Lion still shook his head.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Lord Sinluo, and Scion Yuan Mo were all shocked. They didn't expect Mad Whitejade Lion to hide so much from them.

He defeated Mad Whitejade Lion without using the power of Time, Space, the Saintwill. Not even a weapon?

They must reassess Zhang Ruochen's strength.

Pan Ruo said, "Zhang Ruochen, who has reached Hundred-Shackle Realm, is definitely more terrifying than you think. What's more terrifying is that we don't even know how powerful he is."

Que Fei said, "He only broke his first shackle. No matter how strong he is, I'm confident that I can defeat him."

"Saint Que Fei, you must know that our goal was not to defeat him but to kill him. Are you confident that you can kill him?"

Pan Ruo said.

Que Fei fell silent.

Killing someone was much harder than defeating someone.

Pan Ruo said, "I think there are three steps to dealing with Zhang Ruochen."

"The first step is make someone kill him."

"Make someone kill him? Your Highness, are you referring to Lan Ying, or are you referring to Supreme Saint Yanhong and Xu?" Supreme Saint Yuanfei asked.

Pan Ruo said, "Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu are still tracking him. They are fighting for the Emperor-Grade Saintwill pill. I'm afraid they have no time to deal with Zhang Ruochen. If we want to chose someone, Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong would be the ones."

Scion Yuan Mo quickly said, "Great idea! Let Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong deal with Zhang Ruochen. First, we can test out Zhang Ruochen's strength. Second, we can let them drain each other's energy. It's best if both sides are wounded."

Pan Ruo said, "Let Mad Whitejade Lion do it. You tell Xu and Yanhong that Zhang Ruochen has broken through to Hundred-Shackle Realm."

"Supreme Saint Yanhong has always wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen to gain the support of all the big forces. She'll definitely be eager to take action."

"Moreover, Supreme Saint Yanhong and Xu suffered a great loss at Zhang Ruochen's hands during the Celestial-Hunting Festival and the fight for the Saintwill Pills. They hate him to his core."

Lord Sinluo said, "Supreme Saint Yanhong and Xu aren't stupid. They could figure we are using them. Why would they allow others to use them?"

Pan Ruo shook her head, "That's why I asked Whitejade Lion to inform them," she said. Everyone knew that Whitejade Lion was Lady Wind's supporter. He had offended the entire stone clan and even us. Now, he had been humiliated by Lady Wind. Even his weapon had been taken away. He had no choice but to leave. Of course, he wanted to take revenge. "However, we definitely wouldn't accept him. He had no choice but to seek refuge with Supreme Saint Yanhong."

Mad Whitejade Lion laughed loudly. "Your Highness is the most thoughtful."

Scion Yuan Mo said, "If Supreme Saint Yanhong and Xu can't kill Zhang Ruochen, the second step will be our turn to attack?"

Lord Sinluo smiled. "Even if Zhang Ruochen can escape from Pink Skull and Xu, he must be seriously injured. At that time, I can kill him alone."

Pan Ruo shook her head. "We will get penalty of 500,000 points for killing Zhang Ruochen. Unless it's a last resort, we don't have to do it ourselves. So the second step is still get someone to kill Zhang Ruochen."

"And that someone will be?" Scion Yuan Mo asked.

Pan Ruo said, "The Celestial Captives."

Everyone immediately looked enlightened.

Celestial Captives were a huge force on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. Although they were prey, many of them were strong cultivators. More importantly, they were hostile to Zhang Ruochen, the traitor. They wanted nothing more than to turn him into ashes.

Pan Ruo said, "I've received news that a large number of Celestial Captives have gathered in the starfield near the third Dark Star. There are even Celestial Captives in the Thousand-Koan Realm guarding it.

"Supreme Saint Que Fei, I heard that your attainments in illusions have reached the level of a High Saint Master. Your task is to inform Celestial Captives and tell them about Zhang Ruochen."

Que Fei let out a long laugh. "Your Highness is amazing. Another brilliant plan to kill two birds with one move. No matter who wins, Zhang Ruochen or Supreme Saint Yanhong will be surrounded and killed by Celestial Captives. We will always be in an invincible position. When Celestial Captives kills them, we can kill Celestial Captives to earn points.

Haha!”

Pan Ruo was calm. “The third step. If Celestial Captives can’t kill Zhang Ruochen, then we have to do it ourselves.”

Scion Yuan Mo laughed. “With these three strategies, no matter how high Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation is, he’ll definitely die this time.”

...

On the Immortal Vampires’ home planet, Zhang Ruochen stood in the sea and practiced Incarceration of Divine Demon repeatedly.

The huge phantom of the fiend appeared. It merged with the Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect at times and separated at other times. It formed a huge whirlpool that swept to the bottom of the sea thousands of meters below.

The combination of Incarceration of Divine Demon and Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect was not too difficult. What was difficult was that Zhang Ruochen wanted to merge the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill into it.

He rehearsed it dozens of times and failed.

“Combining two powers is not an easy thing. I am still too impatient.”

Zhang Ruochen stopped and let out a long breath. He flew to a nearby island and sat on a rock. He quickly fell into a state of thinking and comprehension.

How can I become stronger in a short time?

With the help of the Heart of Truth, Zhang Ruochen had found the second shackle on his left arm.

However, even with the Fugue pill and the Ampliofruit, it would take more than a few days to break it.

Other than that, Zhang Ruochen could only think of using the Saintwill Pill to fuse the fifth type of Saintwill. If he could truly make his Saintwill reach Class Two, he would be able to deal with powerful figures like Wu Jiang and Lan Ying.

Rumble

At this moment, an ear-piercing sound came from the sky.

Zhang Ruochen looked up and saw a streak of fire flying from the sky. It passed through the atmosphere and crashed into the sea where he was like a meteorite.

Boom.

The fire rushed into the sea. The surface of the sea sank under the pressure, raising huge waves that were hundreds of feet high.

A black meteorite the size of a stone mountain appeared there.

Zhang Ruochen sat on the side of the island. His long hair fell on his shoulders. He was elegant and calm. The waves that hit his face automatically split into two sides.

Looking closely, he saw a line of words carved on the meteorite. "Supreme Saint Manjian is in my hands. Within three days, come and fight against me alone on the ghost clan's home planet. It will be a dead or alive fight."

A letter of challenge flew over from the starry sky.

Based on the Saint aura in the words on the meteorite, Zhang Ruochen naturally knew that the person who sent him the letter of challenge was Xu, the strongest of the ghost clan.

Lord Xia Yu, who had carved the formation patterns in the outer area of their home planet, followed the trajectory of the meteorite and landed on the island behind Zhang Ruochen. Her clothes fluttered.

Seeing the inscriptions on the meteorite, her eyes darkened. “It’s a trap. You can’t go.”

Zhang Ruochen sat on the reef calmly. “Whether it’s a trap or not, I have to go.”

“Are you crazy?”? At the festival, Xu had suffered so much at your hands. He must be holding a grudge. “After that, you stole his Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. If I were him, I wouldn’t endure it. I would try every means to kill you.”

Then Lord Xia Yu said, “If you go to the home planet of the Ghost Clan, you’ll be walking into a trap. Whether you can defeat Xu or not, you won’t be able to leave that planet alive in the end.”

Zhang Ruochen stood up and said, “You should have confidence in me.”

Lord Xia Yu’s beautiful and cold face showed a hint of regret. She said, “Zhang Ruochen, you have to understand that this is not only a battle between victory and defeat, but also a test for you by the gods.

“After all, you used to belong to Celestial Court. You have countless connections with Celestial Court. If you can’t sever these connections, how can the Infernal Court deities let you continue to grow? The stronger you are, the more reason they will oppress you.

“For the sake of a Celestial Court Supreme Saint, you fought against the Infernal Court cultivators. So what if you win? What will the deities think of you?

“As long as you go, you will lose.

“If Supreme Saint Manjian really sees you as a good friend, he will understand your difficulty.

“Besides, since he had become a Celestial Captive on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, Supreme Saint Manjian’s fate has already been decided. You can’t change it. Why do you need to give away your future for a result that has already been decided?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Must he die just because he became a Celestial Captive?”

“If I’m captured by Celestial Court and become their prey, do you think the Celestial Court deities will let me survive? Saving me means challenging the deities,” Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen remained silent and avoided the topic. He said, “In this Celestial-Hunting battle, what place do you think the Immortal Vampires will get?”

Lord Xia Yu didn’t know why Zhang Ruochen suddenly asked this question. She thought about it carefully and said seriously, “There are seven Great Perfection elites of Hundred-Shackle Realm among the Immortal Vampires now. The total is eight, including you. It shouldn’t be difficult for us to get sixth place. I can even try to secure the fifth.”

“My goal is to be first,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu was stunned.

“Isn’t Zhang Ruochen overambitious?”

“First place?!”

“He is probably the only one in the entire Immortal Vampires who dares to think about it.”

Zhang Ruochen said again, “Accepting Xu’s invitation to the Ghost Clan’s home planet was indeed very dangerous. I’m likely to face not only the Ghost elites, but also the top Supreme Saints of the Bone clan and Corpusians.

“But, isn’t this also an opportunity?”

Lord Xia Yu figured out Zhang Ruochen's intention. She was moved. "You want to take this opportunity to destroy the Ghost Clan's home planet?"

"If the Immortal Vampires want to take first place, the only way is to destroy the home planets of the other nine clans. At the same time, we have to protect our own home planet. Since Xu has sent me an invitation, I'll go along with his plan."

Zhang Ruochen's expression was cold. He spoke of destroying the home planet of the nine clans and killing billions of living beings and dead souls as calmly as water, without a trace of mercy.

The defensive array of the Immortal Vampires' home planet had been set up. Now, they would go to exterminate the Ghost Clan's home planet. They didn't have to worry about retaliation from the Ghost Clan cultivators.

They had to seize the right time to exterminate the other nine clans' home planets.

Lord Xia Yu sensed Zhang Ruochen's determination. She knew that he wasn't reckless and ignorant, so she didn't try to dissuade him. "I'll go with you."

"You stay at our home planet and continue to set up the array. The stronger the array the better. In the future, we might have to stay here and resist the attacks of the nine clans," said Zhang Ruochen.

"The first defense array has been set up. Even if ten Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints, who have achieved the Great Perfection, attack, the home planet can still resist it. It should be enough for now."

Lord Xia Yu continued, "Since Xu dares to invite you to his clan's home planet, it means that the defense array of the Ghost Clan's home planet has been set up. If you can't break the array, how are you going to destroy that planet?"

Zhang Ruochen finally agreed to take her with him.

Lord Xia Yu also proposed to let Gu Chenzi go with them, but Zhang Ruochen turned down her proposal.

The Bloodysky Continent was the foundation of Bloodysky Clan. They needed a top elite to guard it at all times. If they were attacked by the enemy, they would lose.

The Celestial-Hunting battle was too important to be careless.

...

The Ghost Clan's home planet was located northwest of the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. Thick dark fog covered the planet, which was floating in the starry sky. It looked almost invisible.

It was like a dark fog in the universe.

Xu stood at the peak of the highest mountain on the planet. With one hand behind his back, he looked at the sky.

Beneath his feet was white snow.

A cold wind blew in the air.

Supreme Saint Manjian was nailed to the northern cliff of the mountain by five ice pillars. His long hair was disheveled, and his saint blood was flowing. The aura of his cultivation Path became weaker and weaker.

"It's useless. I... am just a cripple who has lost Saint Source. Using me to threaten Zhang Ruochen is meaningless. He won't come," Supreme Saint Manjian said weakly.

Xu smirked, "Whether he comes or not, he will lose. However, if he comes, he will suffer a greater loss. His journey will end here."

Ming, Ghost Master's eighth son, stood at the foot of the mountain. He smiled and said, "If he doesn't come, he, a so-called genius of current Yuanhui, will be known as a coward and will be laughed at."

He said, "If Zhang Ruochen doesn't come in three days when your blood runs out, I will extract your Saint Soul and refine you into a ghost slave." "This way, my cultivation can be improved." When Zhang Ruochen fights with me, his state of mind will also be fatally affected.

"No matter what, I won't lose."

Supreme Saint Yanhong and Mad Whitejade Lion stood in a concealing array not far from the mountain peak.

In addition, there were three Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Ye Changzai of Impermanenton¹.

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor of Umbramont¹.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor of Bluewindon¹.

Half of the most powerful saints of the nine Ghost Cities were here.

Killing Zhang Ruochen was a unanimous decision of the Ghost Clan.

The other Ghost Clan Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm didn't join because they were hunting Celestial Captives in the starry sky and couldn't come back for the time being.

With such a lineup, it could be seen how much they valued Zhang Ruochen.

Mad Whitejade Lion asked, "Your Highness, have the Bone clan Supreme Saint of the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm really arrived? Why can't I sense their aura at all?"

Supreme Saint Yanhong smiled, "If you can sense it, won't Zhang Ruochen also be able to sense it? Don't worry. The Bone Clan's Moon-Bull Emperor and Lord Sparrow Bone came with me. At the critical moment, they'll definitely give Zhang Ruochen a fatal blow.

"Apart from that, I've also invited Corpusians' top elite, Mauve Pupa, to hide in a secret place outside the Ghost Clan's home planet and cut off Zhang Ruochen's path of retreat."

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor's body was 760 feet tall. His four eyes were like four magic lamps illuminating the world. He laughed. "With such a lineup, even if Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu come, they'll definitely die, let alone Zhang Ruochen."

“If we don’t attack, then so be it. Once we do, we must make him die a horrible death.” A shadow emerged on the ground. His voice was hoarse.

It was Ye Changzai.

He was always around but rarely appeared in plain sight.

He was the most mysterious elite of the Ghost Clan. Even with Xu’s strength, Xu didn’t dare to provoke him.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor was like a bat hanging upside down on a mulberry tree. His voice merged with the wind, “The Supreme Artifact of the Bone clan have been brought here, right? Together with the Supreme Artifact of our Ghost Clan, our side has a total of two Supreme Artifacts. If Zhang Ruochen dares to come, he will be turned into ashes.”

Mad Whitejade Lion was both excited and worried. “This is clearly a killing scheme. Anyone who comes will die. What if Zhang Ruochen doesn’t come?”

Supreme Saint Yanhong said, “It’ll only take three days. If he doesn’t come in three days, we’ll go to the Immortal Vampires’ home planet. With our strength, we can exterminate the Immortal Vampires first.”

Mad Whitejade Lion was secretly happy. If that was the case, it would be even better.

Supreme Saint Yanhong glanced at Mad Whitejade Lion without leaving a trace. Seeing through his thoughts, she sneered in her heart. ‘You want to use me as a knife, but you have no idea I want to take this chance to get rid of Lady Wind. Before I get rid of Lady Wind, I’ll definitely get rid of you first. But now, you still have some value.’

The reason why so many powerful figures responded to Supreme Saint Yanhong’s attack on Zhang Ruochen was not only because Zhang Ruochen had many enemies, but also his many treasures.

Eight Ampliofruits, three Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills, a large number of King Grade Saintwill Pills, and top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills.

These powerful cultivators were all here for benefit.

Supreme Saint Yanhong could use this to complete her plan to counter Lady Wind.

If it were any other time, it would not be easy to assemble the top masters of the three middle clans. After all, the three middle clans were also in competition with each other.

Mad Whitejade Lion added, “We’d better be careful. Zhang Ruochen is proficient in the Path of Time and Space. If he sneaks in quietly, we will be caught unprepared.”

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor laughed and pointed to the top of his head. “Do you see the seven stars? They are the seven nodes of the Star-Shield Grand Formation of the Ghost Clan’s home planet. They are also Pleiades Lotus, the supreme artifact.”

“With Xu in control of the supreme weapon and the combination of the supreme weapon and the Star-Shield Grand Formation, he can sense every single movement on the planet.”

Mad Whitejade Lion looked up, and his pupils contracted, “Why are there eight stars?”

“Eight stars?”

Supreme Saint Yanhong, the four-eyed ghost emperor, and the Winged Ghost Emperor looked up and saw that the eighth star had indeed appeared in the dark ghostly fog. Furthermore, that star was getting bigger and bigger. It became the size of a pan, a dustpan, a stone mill.

In the end, it covered half of the sky. It was grand and magnificent.

A huge planet was crashing towards the Ghost Clan’s home planet. The powerful gravitational force of the planet caused the wind and clouds to surge on the Ghost Clan’s home planet. Mountains collapsed, rivers collapsed, and the sea surged.

Supreme Saint Yanhong was not alarmed. Instead, she was delighted.

Standing at the peak of the mountain, Xu narrowed his eyes and revealed a carefree smile. He raised his palm. The chilly winds of heaven and earth gathered in his palm and condensed into a bone-piercing cold air.

He thrust his palm toward the sky.

This palm contained boundless ghost Qi and hundreds of millions of laws interweaved.

After charging out of the atmosphere of the planet of the Ghost Clan, the size of the palm print was already half the size of the planet of the Ghost Clan. It was like the hand of the heavens.

Rumble

In outer space, the planet that had crashed into them was dented and shattered by the palm print.

The densely packed fragments of the planet continued to fly toward the Ghost Clan's home planet like a meteor shower. They activated the Star-Shield Grand Formation of the home planet and formed a layer of black ghost mist.

Boom Boom

All the meteor showers were annihilated and turned into dust.

The Ghost Clan's home planet shook nonstop. The ghosts on the planet were all scared out of their wits and let out heart-wrenching howls.

When the world calmed down, Zhang Ruochen, dressed in a blood-red robe, appeared above the Ghost Clan's home planet. He was straight and handsome. His long hair swayed. He gave off a majestic aura.

The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms locked onto him again. The projection of the starry sky around the Ghost Clan's home planet spread to all parts of Infernal Court.

At this moment, countless pairs of eyes were staring at the image in the sky — Zhang Ruochen and a star.

Many cultivators didn't know what had happened. They also didn't know why Zhang Ruochen had gone to the Ghost Clan's home planet alone, so they had all sorts of guesses.

No matter what, the projection in the sky had attracted all the cultivators.

They wanted to know what would happen next?

Xu used his spiritual power to explore the surrounding starry sky and said with a smile, “As expected of the Scion of Time and Space. You kept your promise and actually came alone. I wonder if you dare to enter the Ghost Clan’s home planet?”

After saying this, Xu swiped his finger toward the sky.

Whoosh

A crack dozens of miles long appeared in the star-protecting formation. The black clouds were pushed open and appeared in the sky like a Heavenly River.

“There are hundreds of millions of ghosts on the Ghost Clan’s home planet, but I’m alone. If you dare to invite me in, why wouldn’t I dare to go?”

Zhang Ruochen took a step forward. The space distorted and he instantly appeared on the planet.

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had moved a planet thousands of miles in diameter from the universe and crashed into the Ghost Clan’s home planet. He was testing the strength of the planet’s defensive formation. He was certain of it.

That was why he dared to come to the planet without any scruples.

Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power spread out and found that there was not a single ghost on the continent under his feet. It was dead silent for thousands of miles.

It seemed that Xu had cleared the battlefield long ago and left.

When Zhang Ruochen’s gaze fell on Supreme Saint Manjian who was nailed to the cliff by the five icicles, his cold and ruthless eyes became even more murderous.

“You-You shouldn’t have come.”

Supreme Saint Manjian’s turbid eyes revealed a sorrowful and bitter light. His heart was moved beyond words.

Even though Zhang Ruochen had joined Infernal Court, even though he knew there was an inescapable snare here, he still came without hesitation!

Supreme Saint Manjian felt deeply guilty. He felt that he had dragged Zhang Ruochen down.

“Hurry...”

Supreme Saint Manjian was about to speak, but the icicle nailed to his head pierced into it. The cold air numbed his will, and the pain made him scream.

Zhang Ruochen clenched his fists and controlled his emotions. He looked around and said, “Call out all the powerful figures who are lying in ambush on this continent. What’s the point of continuing to hide?”

“Zhang Ruochen, I really want to fight against you and defeat you personally... No, I want to kill you and refine your soul into my slave. So, no outsiders will interfere in this battle,” Xu said.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen wouldn’t believe him. He pointed to the mountaintop and said resolutely, “Fighting against me alone will be the stupidest decision you’ve ever made.”

Chapter 2301: Battling Xu

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation

Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Xu stood proudly on the peak of the mountain, the cold wind in this area became more and more fierce under the influence of his aura. It let out a whistling sound.

The wind force transformed into a wind blade and then condensed into a tornado

Unlike before, at that moment, Xu was completely serious. His aura was as sharp as a Heaven-cleaving sword.

Whoosh

A black ley line condensed in front of him and interwoven into a mysterious pattern

It looked like a talisman, but also like a ghost drawing

“Heaven-Defying Ghost Rune,” Zhang Ruochen read.

When Zhang Ruochen read the information on Xu, he had seen records of Heaven-Defying Ghost Rune.

Heaven-Defying Ghost Rune was a ghost rune created by the Ghost Master. It could communicate with heaven and earth, control thousands of ghosts, and steal the power of the Celestial Court. All of the nine sons of the Ghost Master were extremely talented. However, only the second son, Yuan, had successfully comprehended it.

It was rumored that Xu had also comprehended the Heaven-Defying Ghost Rune, but he had never used it officially. Or perhaps, all the cultivators who had seen him use the Heaven-Defying Ghost Rune had died.

Whoosh

The second one, the third one...

In an instant, 13,500 Heaven-Defying Ghost Runes condensed and floated in the air, emitting dark light.

The air, Ghost Qi, and the precepts of heaven and earth formed a vortex with the Heaven-Defying Ghost Rune as the center.

The wind and clouds both came to a halt.

At that moment, space and time seemed to be frozen. Only Xu's hands were still forming finger seals.

In the Cloaking Array.

Mad Whitejade Lion's eyes suddenly shrank. "He did cultivate the Heaven-Defying Ghost Rune, and he can condense 13.500 at once. His spiritual energy must have reached the 64th level."

The Four-eyed Ghost Emperor laughed coldly. "In terms of spiritual energy, Xu has an overwhelming advantage. Even if Zhang Ruochen's battle strength can compete with Xu, the difference in spiritual energy will be his fatal flaw in failure."

"Haha, Xu revealed his trump card as soon as he attacked. It seems that he's going to defeat Zhang Ruochen easily," Popobawa Ghost Emperor said.

"Defeating a Yuanhui level genius is a glorious deed that will be recorded in the Tome of Ghosts, "Ye Changzai said faintly. "The battle scenes will be preserved in perpetuity. If I were Xu, I would also win the most emphatically."

"Xu and Zhang Ruochen have already had three fights. There's no need to keep testing. The purpose of this battle is to determine the victor and to determine life and death," said Supreme Saint Yanhong,

13.500 Heaven-Defying Ghost Runes flew toward Zhang Ruochen, who was in the center. The space was constantly compressed. Streaks of corrosive power pressed down from all directions

The ground beneath Zhang Ruochen's feet was splintered. His entire body was engulfed and swallowed.

Rumble

The ten wings on his back spread out. Ten streaks of golden light tore through the darkness and rushed in all directions. The five rays of golden light rushed to the ground and broke the earth. They formed five rifts that extended thousands of miles away. The continent that was tens of thousands of miles long shook violently. Thick yellow dust rose from where the five rifts were

The cultivators who were watching the projection were tingled by such a shocking scene.

An average body such as Zhang Ruochen's could actually erupt with such terrifying power.

The 13,500 Heaven-Defying Ghost Runes were shattered, turning into wisps of ghostly fog and dissipating in the air

Xu's eyes turned cold, and he took a step back, he thought to himself, The Heaven-Defying Ghost Runes that could resist a combination of Supreme Saint of the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm were broken just like that. Zhang Ruochen's ten golden wings have indeed changed. They indeed contain the aura of a progenitor.'

Suddenly, Xu caught a streak of golden light in the rolling ghost clouds.

The golden light moved at breakneck speed. It had appeared in front of him in the blink of an eye.

It was Zhang Ruochen.

The brilliance emitted by the ten golden wings on his back was the source of the golden light.

Boom!

The ten golden wings slashed onto Xu's body, creating an earth-shaking collision sound.

At that moment, both of Xu's hands formed a Lotus print. The precepts in his body turned into a black Ghost Lotus. It wrapped around his body and collided with the golden wings on Zhang Ruochen's back.

Xu's reflexes were incredible

Xu remained calm and looked at Zhang Ruochen at a close distance, he said, "You're very fast, and the power unleashed by the golden wings is also very powerful. But I'm not Mad Whitejade Lion. Your power is far from enough to fight against the top ten elites of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realmn.”

“Is that so?

Zhang Ruochen released the Precepts of Dimension in him and it turned into a gravitational space, pressing on Xu’s body.

Boom

Xu’s Astral Form trembled slightly. The pressure increased greatly, and cracks began to appear on the Ghost Lotus.

At that moment, the vines of the Saint Devourer rushed out from Zhang Ruochen’s back. They fell down like thousands of strands, flying toward the north cliff of the mountain.

Supreme Saint Manjian was nailed to the northern cliff by five ice pillars and his saint blood gushed out.

Whoosh

The Saint Devourer’s vines released the Divine Purification Flame. It coiled around the five ice pillars, trying to refine them.

Just as the Divine Purification Flame was released, dense Supreme Saint inscriptions appeared on the surface of the stone layer on the northern cliff. The Supreme Saint Inscriptions gave off a blinding light. They condensed icy Qi and extinguished the Divine Purification Flame.

The Saint Devourer’s vines quickly retracted and left the northern cliff.

“AH..”

Supreme Saint Manjian gritted his teeth, but he still let out a painful cry. He was in pain that even his mental state could not withstand. The Supreme Saint Inscriptions on the northern cliff rushed into the Supreme Saint Manjian’s body and froze it inch by inch.

Standing at the center of the Ghost Lotus on the peak of the mountain, Xu laughed, “Do you think it’s that easy to save someone? Before you came here, there were already tens of thousands of Supreme Saint Inscriptions carved on this mountain.”

The ten-thousand-meter-tall mountain started to radiate with a blinding light.

All of the Supreme Saint Inscriptions were activated.

RAWR!

ROAR!

On Xu’s back, numerous phantoms rushed out. They were in the form of a lion a tiger, a human, and a Rakshasa... There were a total of 12 million phantoms. After they appeared, they turned this world into an extremely sinister ghost world.

The 12 million phantoms condensed into 12 Thousand-Koan Realm Ghost Emperor Souls. Each of them was majestic and filled with saint might. They contained one-tenth of the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint’s power.

The power of the 12 Ghost Emperor Souls combined with Xu’s own power.

Xu slapped out and hit the golden wings on Zhang Ruochen’s back and Zhang Ruochen was sent flying

Since Xu had the upper hand, he naturally had to follow up. Xu immediately struck out a second palm, a third palm... the power of the palm was endless.

Like thunder, a total of 57 palm explosions rang out.

Zhang Ruochen flew 5,000 miles backward. With the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike, three dragon souls in the Thousand-Koan Realm, and three elephant souls in the Thousand-Koan Realm, all of Xu’s palm power was blocked.

The two palms came together. The ground cracked everywhere they went, mountains turned to mud, and rivers turned to ice.

This was a collision of power. It was obnoxious and violent.

At that moment, the entire Infernal Court, including the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, trembled.

Who would have thought that Zhang Ruochen would go to the home planet of the Ghost alone to fight with Xu?

“Is Zhang Ruochen crazy?” Many cultivators had such doubts.

No matter how powerful a cultivator was, he couldn’t go alone to the home planet of the Ghost. Moreover, Zhang Ruochen had enemies everywhere in the Infernal Court. Many cultivators wanted to kill him.

What was the difference between his current behavior and courting death?

Only the cultivators of the Celestial Court on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting saw some clues. That was because they could vaguely see Supreme Saint Manjian nailed to the north cliff in the projection.

“Zhang Ruochen barged into the Ghost’s home planet alone. He must have gone to save Supreme Saint Manjian,” A cultivator from Guanghai said excitedly.

“That has to be it. Zhang Ruochen is very close to Supreme Saint Manjian. Supreme Saint Manjian’s life was threatened by the Ghost’s Supreme Saint. Zhang Ruochen had to go to save him.” said another cultivator.

The cultivators who had a close relationship with Zhang Ruochen saw this scene. Although they were worried about Zhang Ruochen’s safety, they felt inexplicably relieved. At least, Zhang Ruochen’s nature had not changed.

It was the same as before. Friendship came first, life and death came second.

Battle projections appeared all over the Infernal Court. The cultivators from the Bloodysky Clan were the most excited.

Dishastan had targeted the Bloodysky Clan in each of the previous Celestial – Hunting Festivals. This resulted in heavy losses for the Bloodysky Clan each time. They were at the bottom of the list of the ten great clans.

Not only did the Supreme Saint who participated in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting feel humiliated, but the cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan also held back their anger. They hated the cultivators of the Dishastan so much that they gritted their teeth.

Xu of the Dishastan became the number one elite of the Ghost. The cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan thought that the Bloodysky Clan would be humiliated again in this year's Battle of Celestial-Hunting. They were mentally prepared.

What was the use of hating?

What was the use even if they were unwilling?

The difference in strength was obvious. They could only admit it.

However, they didn't expect Zhang Ruochen to single-handedly go to the Ghost's home planet and fight with Xu, the strongest of the Ghost. Suddenly, their blood boiled and their hearts were engulfed with flames. It was as if they had become one with Zhang Ruochen and were fighting with Xu.

Of course, they did not know that Zhang Ruochen had gone to the home planet of the Ghost to save Supreme Saint Manjian.

They only thought that Zhang Ruochen had gone to the home planet of the Ghost to take revenge and avenge the shame of the Bloodysky Clan.

Whether Zhang Ruochen won or lost, at least such a tough act made people want to shout.

In the world where the Bloodysky Clan was located, a teenager pointed to the sky, he said, "If Zhang Ruochen can defeat Xu and make the Bloodysky Clan proud, if anyone dares to say anything against him in the future, I will make his blood spills.

Not far away, a blood-haired girl's beautiful eyes shone with excitement. She said, "If Zhang Ruochen can defeat Xu, I will admit that he can be as famous as my idol, Yan Wushen."

The battle between Zhang Ruochen and Xu completely stirred up the emotions of the cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan.

For the Bloodysky Clan, this battle was no trivial matter.

For Zhang Ruochen, this battle also had far-reaching effects. Once he won, his prestige in the Bloodysky Clan would rise to the peak.

With the support of the entire Bloodysky Clan, he could stand firm in the Infernal Court.

In the Fane of Destiny, the gods were also watching the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Xu.

Compared to the cultivators who only knew how to watch the show, the gods cared more about the outcome.

However, even with the wisdom of the gods, who had a lot of information about Xu and Zhang Ruochen, there was still no definite answer to the outcome.

The Ghost Master's loud voice rang out, "Zhang Ruochen dares to intrude into the Ghost's home planet after breaking only one shackle. He's really young and arrogant. It's a pity, Xue Jue. I'm afraid your grandson will disappoint you." Wargod Bloodixmius remained calm. He sat in his deity world and ignored the Ghost Master

The divine shadow of Asurendra Samay appeared in the temple. He was smiling and said, "Ghost Master, what do you think will be the result of the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Xu?"

No one knew how many gods gathered in the Fane of Destiny because they were all sitting in their deity world. Only when they communicated with each other would the divine shadow appear in the temple.

The Ghost Master said, "Zhang Ruochen is talented. Of course, he can't beat Xu in the same realm. But now, one of them has just broken one shackle, and the other has reached the Great Perfection stage, which is equivalent to 99 realms. The result is self-evident. If Zhang Ruochen breaks another 30 or 40 shackles, he may have a chance to win."

The handsome Lord Ming's divine shadow appeared. He laughed, "What 99 realms? Mad Whitejade Lion's cultivation at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm is still crushed by Zhang Ruochen. Ghost Master, you'd better not be so full of yourself. You might not be able to take it back.”

Asurendra Barasingha’s divine shadow appeared, ‘Why don’t I make a prediction?’ He said. “Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation above the three paths of Time, Dimension, and Truth is commendable. Now, he has awakened the Progenitor Bloodximius’s bloodline and released part of the power of the Demigod-level Physique. He actually has a chance to win this battle, but it won’t be more than 20%.”

Ghost Master’s voice was cold, “I think you all underestimate the top geniuses of the Internal Court. The difference of 99 realms is an absolute difference. To be ranked in the top 10 of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm by both the Realm of Star Ocean and the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms is not just a superficial strength.”

“Zhang Ruochen’s biggest reliance in the past was his countless powerful weapons. He could defeat his opponents with external forces. But now, they are in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen only has a gourd with him.”

“Just a gourd?” Lord Ming smiled.

The Ghost Master said, “Don’t think I don’t know that Zhang Ruochen’s gourd is the Bloodysky Clan’s Supreme Artifact. But what’s the point?”

“The strongest of the Ghost, Bone Clan, and Corpusian, as well as Supreme Artifacts of the three clans, are all near the Ghost’s home planet.”

“Even if Zhang Ruochen defeats Xu with a one-in-a-million chance, he’ll die in the end. Xue Jue, have you prepared the coffin for Zhang Ruochen?”

Seeing that Wargod Bloodximius did not speak, the Ghost Master laughed again. “Actually, Zhang Ruochen has another big weakness. That weakness is Supreme Saint Manjian of Guanghan. Now that Supreme Saint Manjian is in Xu’s hands, Zhang Ruochen’s state of mind must be affected.”

“When two top-level elites fight, their state of mind is bound. You can imagine what the result will be.”

Lord Ming’s heart sank.

The Ghost Master had hit the nail on the head.

No matter what, Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation and spiritual energy were too far apart compared to Xu. Xu also had the advantage of the environment and state of mind.

This battle was very disadvantageous to Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Ming knew Zhang Ruochen’s trump card well. After calculating, even if Zhang Ruochen could overcome the pressure of his state of mind, he only had a 30-40% chance of defeating Xu.

Unless Zhang Ruochen broke 10 shackles and doubled the power of his Neverwithers Physique, he would be able to win easily.

Chapter 2302: Tri-Space Seal

Smoke and dust rose from the five-thousand-mile-wide land, the landscape was destroyed, and the precepts of heaven and earth were in disorder. The clouds above the Ghost's home planet exploded.

The two's energy waves would have spread to the starry sky if it hadn't been for the Star-Shield Grand Formation.

The space outside the Ghost's home planet was six-colored, and the star fog was magnificent. Some of them looked like nine-petaled saint flowers of different colors. Some were like conches with swirling Qi marks. Some were like colorful rivers that connected billions of miles.

Around 50,000 miles from the Ghost's home planet, in a purple, green, and red star fog, there were three Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm's

Great Perfection stage, led by Pan Ruo. They appeared to be four divines.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei sighed and said, "With Xu's strength, he still couldn't take down Zhang Ruochen even after spending so much time.

Zhang Ruochen,

who has broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm, is indeed

extraordinary. He's already a top-tier elite below the Thousand-Koan Realm."

Lord Sinluo had a solemn expression on his face and a heavy heart.

Lord Sinluo had wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen ever since he arrived at the Infernal Court to avenge his brother. Lord Sinluo had never thought highly of Zhang Ruochen, who had only recently broken through to the Supreme Saint Realm with his cultivation at the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage.

However, Zhang Ruochen's combat strength had rendered him powerless.

At least, he did not have the confidence to fight with Xu to such an extent.

But Zhang Ruochen could.

Another Supreme Saint of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle

Realm of the Deathkin, Mistress Fireborn, stood side by side with them. Her slender and graceful body was covered with a layer of scarlet flames. She had a beautiful face and snow-white skin, which gave her a special charm.

Mistress Fireborn said, "Yuan Fei, you fought with Xu before. How strong was he? It took him so long to defeat Zhang Ruochen, who had broken one of his shackles. Does he deserve his reputation?"

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei shook his head with a serious expression. "Xu didn't fuse the Grade Three Saintwill, but he's ranked seventh on the list of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. No one can beat him. Do you really think he's that simple?

"I did have a battle with Xu, but even if I tried my best, I could only end up in a draw with him. I can feel that he still has some strength left.

"The reason why we ended up in a draw may be because he wanted to hide his strength. Or maybe he knew that even if he could defeat me, he would have to pay a price. That's why he chose to stop."

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was the Deathkin's number one elite. All of the other

Supreme Saints present thought he was being modest when he said such conservative words. Only Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was aware of the chasm that existed between him and Xu.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and Xu were just sparring.

While Zhang Ruochen and Xu were fighting to the death.

Being able to fight for so long without losing was already very surprising to Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Zhang Ruochen's combat strength was probably not weaker than his, who was ranked 12th, the Supreme Saint of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Mistress Fireborn had a charming smile on her face, but she was quite disdainful in her heart. No matter how strong Xu was, he was still far inferior to Wujiang

When Wujiang fused the Grade Two Saintwill, the so-called Divine Fetus, Royal Divine Frame, and Yuanhui-level genius would all be trampled under his feet.

Whoever mastered the Grade Two Saintwill would truly stand at the pinnacle of this era.

Pan Ruo stared in the direction of the Ghost's home planet without saying anything from start to finish.

Lord Sinluo smiled and said, "Your Highness Pan Ruo used this trick to kill Zhang Ruochen effortlessly. In my opinion, this is a good opportunity to take care of the Pink Skull."

"This is a great opportunity." Pan Ruo said without showing any emotion.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and Mistress Fireborn smiled.

Zhang Ruochen was like a dead man in their hearts. Their most feared foe had quietly shifted to Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Xu's palm strike was strong. The chaotic light and the chilling Ghost Qi kept bursting out, setting off waves of energy.

Zhang Ruochen's left arm was numb from hundreds of palm strikes. It was difficult to hold on with the power of the Demigod-level physique and the enigmatic Primordial Neverwilt Physique.

Because his right arm had broken the shackles, he could continuously release

Divine Power. He was still capable of dealing with it.

“If only I could break the second shackle on my left arm. Even if I fight against Xu’s thousand palm strikes, I won’t be at a disadvantage.”

Zhang Ruochen knew that he couldn’t continue fighting head-on, so he mobilized his Saint Qi and released the blood-red aura. He injected it into the Thousand Dipper Ring on his left wrist.

Whoosh

on the surface of the ‘Thousand Dipper Ring, Regal Inscriptions appeared. They grew in size and emitted potent Saint Power. They took off in the direction of the approaching palm.

Boom

The Thousand Dipper Ring became 330 meters in diameter. It shattered the Ghost Qi contained in Xu’s palm strike and forced him back.

The power of Class Four Regal Artifact was not something that Xu could catch with bare hands.

Zhang Ruochen stood in the center of the Thousand Dipper Ring. His left hand and left leg both released Divine Qi and injected it into the ring

Suddenly, the Thousand Dipper Ring shone with boundless brilliance. As it spun rapidly, it let out an ear-piercing metallic sound. Dense feathers of light marks flew out from it and exploded with more power than before.

With Divine Power to activate the Regal Artifact, its power was different.

When Mad Whitejade Lion saw this, he became extremely uneasy. In a rage, it stomped its feet. How could he not be depressed when his own weapon fell into the hands of someone else and exploded with even more force.

“Using Divine Power to control a Class Four Regal Artifact, Zhang Ruochen’s every attack will not be weaker than a high-level saint technique of the Thousand-Koan Realm. This kid is much harder to deal with than I thought.”

Supreme Saint Yanhong frowned.

“Even without a weapon, I can still defeat you,” said Xu.

Xu’s battle intent reached a fever pitch and his Supreme Saint’s power swept across the entire planet. He landed on the ground and stomped his feet. A deafening roar erupted from the ground at the same time.

The ground within a hundred miles rose and turned into a magnificent altar. It was as tall as a mountain.

Xu took a seat in the center of the altar. The precepts of heaven and earth from all over the world converged on him. His Ethereal Form rose to 330 meters in height, transforming into a massive ghost. His long black hair fluttered in the breeze, and his eyes glowed like ghosts. His fingers formed complicated finger seals

After Xu was cleansed using the Spring of Chaos, his Primordial Ghost

Emperor-Level Physique that he had cultivated was finally revealed.

SCREECH!

WOOOO!

Tens of thousands of Ghost Qi flew out of the Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level

Physique and gathered on his hands like icy serpents. At the same time, the Ghostly Qi on the Ghost's home planet was also affected. It turned into hundreds of rivers of Ghostly Qi that were thousands of kilometers long and rushed towards him.

The advantage of the land was revealed.

Whoosh

A black mark formed on the palms of his hands.

The black mark became bigger and bigger, like a black hole that could devour everything.

Tri-Space Seal, Spatial-Loch Seal.”

Xu released a loud shout and struck the black mark on his palm.

The Tri-Space Seal was known as Spatial-Loch Seal, Spatial-Sea Seal, and Spatial-Sky Seal.

They were the famous high-level Thousand-Koan Realm saint techniques in Dishastan. Spatial-Loch Seal, Spatial-Sea Seal, and Spatial-Sky Seal, each one was stronger than the last. Legend had it that the power of the Spatial-Loch

Seal was comparable to an all-out attack from an early-stage Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

The Spatial-Sea Seal was comparable to the full-power attack of a mid-stage

Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

The Spatial-Sky Seal was a full-power attack of an advanced-stage

Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

If it was used by a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint, the power of the Tri-Space Seal would be even stronger. With the Spatial-Sky Seal, he could fight against a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint at the pinnacles.

At that moment, Xu unleashed the Spatial-Sky Seal with the power of twelve

Ghost Emperor Souls. Its power was more than twice that of an early-stage

Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

Rumble

The Thousand Dipper Ring spun and flew out, colliding with the Spatial-Loch

Seal. The powerful collision force swept across heaven and earth, causing the earth to collapse layer by layer.

The Regal Inscription on the Thousand Dipper Ring quickly faded with a bang.

It took off and crashed into a patch of land hundreds of miles away, the area turned pitch-black.

“Zhang Ruochen, your weapon is after all an external object. Your strength is the origin. You don’t have a Supreme Artifact to use on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, so your weakness will be exposed. Today, I will kill you.”

said Xu. Then, his Saintwill came out of the mouth of the 330 meters tall

Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique.

The Spatial-Loch Seal continued to fly toward Zhang Ruochen. The black mark absorbed the precepts of heaven and earth, the air, the soil, and the plants. Its power didn’t decrease but increased.

“Wow, what a strong seal technique and power. It’s no surprise that it ranks higher than Lord Xia Yu, who cultivated the Grade Three Saintwill. Lord Xia Yu is far weaker in terms of power than him.”

Zhang Ruochen’s expression did not change. He mobilized the blood-red aura in his body and injected it into his ten golden wings. The blood patterns on the golden wings suddenly became extremely bright.

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen tumbled into a streak of golden and red light. He broke through the Spatial-Loch Seal and flew to the top of Xu's head.

Xu exclaimed in surprise. It was unbelievable.

With the strength of the Spatial-Loch Seal, once it locked on, even the Great

Dimensional Shift would be difficult to perform. However, Zhang Ruochen's golden wings could break through the field lock of the Spatial-Loch Seal.

It had to be said that the power of the Divine Mark of the ancestor was indeed not something that a Supreme Saint could understand.

Yanshen's Leg," said Zhang Ruochen. He had already accumulated enough power. 10 million Divine Precepts appeared on his left leg and released boundless flames. At the same time, the Precepts of Fire and the Divine Purification Flame were released, forming a sea of fire under his feet.

The Divine Purification Flame set the sky on fire, turning the ground into red soil

The altar under Xu's feet showed signs of melting, but he remained calm. His hands released a sea of Precepts. Like billions of threads, he controlled the Spatial-Loch Seal to shoot upwards.

The Spatial-Loch Seal had become more than 100 kilometers long. It spun rapidly and climbed up.

Zhang Ruochen, who had descended from the sky, looked down. The Spatial-Loch Seal was like an endless black eye of a ghost god. It wanted to devour him.

Zhang Ruochen's state of mind was flawless. He still stepped down without hesitation

The more he did this, the more he couldn't be timid.

Once he was timid, he would lose more than half.

Boom

The flame cloud formed by the Yanshen's Leg collided with the Spatial-Sky

Seal. The earth-shaking destructive power swept across this continent that was tens of thousands of miles long. Energy waves spread to the other continents, making all the ghosts on the Ghost's home planet feel terrified and uneasy.

The continent where the two of them were fighting had long lost all its life. It was showing signs of being broken, and large gulies appeared, like a piece of ceramic that was about to be broken.

What was shocking was that pitch-black ghostly qi surged out from under the bottomless gullies.

This ghostly Qi was more than a thousand times thicker than the Ghostly Qi that filled the sky above the Ghosts home planet. Even a Ghost Emperor couldn't produce it.

In the sky, Pan Ruo shook her head lightly. She said,
“Something’s wrong.”

“What’s wrong?” Mistress Fireborn asked curiously.

Pan Ruo said, “Just now, the power of Zhang Ruochen and Xu’s attack had reached the level of the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

The destructive power of the fierce collision was enough to destroy ten Ghost home planets.

But you all saw that the Ghost planet only shook slightly.”

Mistress Fireborn said, “This isn’t strange, is it? The Ghost’s home planet must have Supreme Saint Inscriptions carved on it. Otherwise, Xu wouldn’t have chosen the surface of the planet as the battlefield.”

Pan Ruo nodded lightly and didn’t say anything more.

But Pan Ruo fell into deep thoughts. She was still thinking about it. She felt that this wasn’t normal. Perhaps the home planet of the ten clans wasn’t as simple as they’d imagined.

The gods must have set up the battlefield for another reason.

At that moment, Xu regretted it. Zhang Ruochen was harder to deal with than he’d expected. If this continued, the Ghost’s home planet might be destroyed.

If that happened, Xu would become a sinner of the Ghost.

“Let’s end this battle, Spatial-Sea Seal,” said Xu.

Xu stomped his foot on the altar. The altar shattered into pieces, and all the rocks flew out.

The earth element rocks turned into water elements in an instant.

Splash

A thousand-mile-wide sea appeared under Xu's feet.

The ocean was becoming wider and wider. It was as if this continent, which was tens of thousands of miles long, would become an ocean.

This was a power that could change the world. All the Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm who was hiding on the continent were shocked.

“Xu cultivated the Spatial-Sea Seal.

Supreme Saint Yanhong's beautiful face revealed a surprised expression.

If Zhang Ruochen doesn't have any other trump cards, this attack will decide the outcome. If he can force Xu to use the Spatial-Sea Seal, no one will question his title as a Yuanhui level genius,” Ye Changzai said.

Xu had obviously used all his strength to activate the Spatial-Sea Seal. Even the 330 meters tall Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique had shrunk 1 dozens of feet.

The Spatial-Sea Seal followed the Spatial – Loch seal, which had been shattered by Yanshen's Leg. In an instant, it flew into the sky and engulfed Zhang

Ruochen. It denied Zhang Ruochen the opportunity to use the Great Dimensional Shift to flee. He also did not have the opportunity to use t of Truth's ten times attack power.

Zhang Ruochen was still calm in the face of this attack that could resist the Supreme Saint of the mid-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. The Immovable

Wisdom King's Saint Aspect and the demonic shadow of the Incarceration of Divine Demon appeared at the same time.

"You're not the only one who has cultivated the high-level saint technique of the Thousand-Koan Realm," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen clasped his hands. His fighting spirit was at an all-time high.

The Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King and the demonic shadow merged into one. They grew to be a thousand miles tall and were identical to Zhang Ruochen.

Standing in the starry sky, one could see half of Zhang Ruochen's body, which like a god and demon, floating above his head. The other half of his body was submerged under the black atmosphere.

This scene was like the manifestation of a god.

Zhang Ruochen, whose body was a thousand miles tall, stepped on Xu's

Spatial-Sea Seal.

The Saint Aspect and Divine Shadow of the Immovable Wisdom King had merged. It possessed unrivaled combat power. Incarceration of Divine Demon, a Thousand-Koan Realm high-level saint technique, was now combined with its force. The power was immense, and it was enough to make even a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage tremble.

BANG!

The two powerful forces clashed in the air.

Both of them emitted a chaotic light. What made Zhang Ruochen's body different was that it was engulfed in flames like a fire demon lord, causing the ghost clouds to burn.

The chilling Qi on Xu's body was so powerful that it transformed the ocean beneath his feet into a thousand-mile glacier.

"How can he be so... strong..." said Xu.

Xu gritted his teeth and his arms trembled.

Crack

The hundreds of feet thick glaciers shattered and melted. Then it vanished. The entire continent turned white and turned into a fog-filled world. As a result of the battle's aftermath, some areas became the fire domain, while others became dark and cold valleys.

For cultivators below the saint realm, this continent was a forbidden land. Anyone who entered would die.

Xu's 300 meters tall Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique sank more than 100 meters underground. The Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique had long left the void. It was no different from human flesh and blood. It was very solid, but there were cracks now.

The Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique seemed to be about to be broken.

Zhang Ruochen took advantage of the short time he had to suppress Xu. He immediately released tens of millions of Precepts of Time and Dimension, which evolved into a long River of Time and a Gravity-Spatial Domain to suppress Xu.

If Zhang Ruochen seized the opportunity, he would have to kill Xu with one strike.

"Heaven-Defying Ghost Rune!" Xu roared and spat out a cloud of Ghostly Qi of Origin.

27,000 Heaven-Defying Ghost Runes condensed around the Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique, flying around like talismans.

13,500 Heaven-Defying Ghost Runes were a group.

Xu condensed two groups of Heaven-Defying Ghost Runes using the Ghostly Qi of Origin. 27,000 Ghostly Qi vortexes arranged mysteriously, freezing space and suppressing time.

The River of Time and The Gravity-Spatial Domain were blocked. It didn't work on Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique,

"Zhang Ruochen, I've long thought of a way to deal with your Power of Time and Dimension. You'll definitely lose this battle!" Xu laughed loudly.

Xu's eyes were fierce and crazy. His battle intent had reached its peak. He pulled back his arms that held the Spatial-Sea Seal and said silently, "Frozen Dead Saintwill."

Whoosh

Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique grew to 330 meters tall again. A gust of cold air surged out of his body. Instantly, layers of ice formed.

The planet's Ghost Qi froze. The air appeared to be frozen. The entire Ghost planet became an ice ball.

On other continents, Ghost Supreme Saints defended and resisted ordinary Ghost cultivators.

Zhang Ruochen, who was in the center of the cold air, was covered in a layer of white frost. He felt a strong sense of danger. He quickly released the Realm-frame of Truth to form a strange image of a Shoreless Star Ocean. He tried his best to activate the Power of Truth.

"Quick! Quick! Quick!" Zhang Ruochen said.

Xu could already combine the Saintwill with the high-level saint technique of the Thousand-Koan Realm. If Zhang Ruochen couldn't activate ten times the power before he attacked, the consequences would be unimaginable.

The Supreme Saints who were hiding on the continent were also enveloped by the cold air. They could feel the terrifying power undulations from Xu.

"The Hundred-Shackle Realm high-level saint technique requires a long time to be fused perfectly with the Saintwill and unleash its strongest power," Mad Whitejade Lion said, his body trembling. "He truly is a force to be reckoned with. He can use the Thousand-Koan Realm high-level saint technique and the Saintwill in combat."

Supreme Saint Yanhong was ranked eighth on the ranking of those who achieved the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, a rank below Xu. However, even for her, if she wanted to combine the Thousand-Koan Realm saint technique and Saintwill, she had to try ten times before she could succeed once or twice.

"Xu cleansed himself with the Spring of Chaos. In terms of saint techniques and Saintwill, he has an advantage that ordinary people can't match. With this attack, Xu already has the strength to fight against Wujiang and Luo Shengtian," Supreme Saint Yanhong said.

Although Supreme Saint Yanhong had other tricks up her sleeve, she had to admit that it was very difficult to defeat Xu.

The higher the level of the Saintwill, the more difficult it was to combine with the saint techniques. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen did not try to combine the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill with the Incarceration of Divine Demon. Instead, he activated the ten times attack power of the Path of Truth.

Rumble

After the combination of the Spatial-Sea Seal and the Grade Four Frozen Dead Saintwill, it pierced through the fire cloud above his head, broke The Gravity-Spatial Domain, tore the long River of Time, and collided with Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King.

“Incarceration of Divine Demon,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Thousands of starlight poured out of the Realm-frame of the Shoreless Star Ocean and blessed Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s left hand slapped out. It exploded with ten times the attack power and collided with the Spatial-Sea Seal.

Xu’s hands drew circles beneath the Spatial-Sea Seal. The densely packed Precepts of Destiny condensed into a light door, continually eroding the Path of Truth’s power.

After a short stalemate, the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King and the Spatial-Sea Seal shattered at the same time.

Puff

Zhang Ruochen spat out saint blood. His body flew out like a kite with a broken string. Affected by the cold air, his body was almost completely covered in ice and turned into an ice sculpture.

Bang Bang

The twelve Thousand -Koan Realm Ghost Emperor Souls shattered one after another and turned into twelve ghost clouds.

More than three million of the twelve million ghosts were eliminated by the ghost clouds. It was a devastating setback.

Xu fell to the ground rapidly. The spot on Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique's chest was broken through by Zhang Ruochen's palm power and tured into a mass of Ghost Qi.

Boom

The ground was hit by Xu and it sank, showing a bottomless pit.

Both sides were injured.

The ice that had been covering Zhang Ruochen's body cracked, and his ten golden wings shone brightly once more. He was, however, severely injured, particularly the most delicate organs of the Demigod-level physique and the Saint Soul.

The Spatial-Sea Seal injured Zhang Ruochen's organs, and the chilling Ghost Qi invaded them.

Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul was injured by the Frozen Dead Saintwill, but it was not seriously injured with the protection of the Divine Shadow of the Immovable Wisdom King's will.

'Xu flew out of the pit and landed heavily on the ground. His broken chest slowly solidified, and his face was as cold as water. This was not the result he wanted. Even if he defeated Zhang Ruochen or even killed him, he would still be seriously injured, which would affect the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

He hesitated and fought with the gods in his heart.

If Xu wanted to consider the overall situation, he had to immediately request that Supreme Saint Yanhong and the others attack and kill Zhang Ruochen together.

However, if Xu wanted to leave his name in history and have his name sung throughout the Infernal Court, he had to continue fighting and defeat Zhang Ruochen on his own.

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power, on the other hand, detected an extremely unbelievable scene.

The continent, which was tens of thousands of miles long, had many cracks. The largest one ran through the north and south of the continent. The widest part was more than 40 miles as if it had split the continent into two.

In the beginning, Zhang Ruochen was just wondering why the battle was so intense, but the Ghost's home planet had not been broken. Only some cracks had appeared on the surface?

So he used his spiritual power to explore the underground. Unexpectedly, he found a metal structure 10,000 meters below the largest crack.

The crack was tens of thousands of miles long, and it was filled with metal.

It wasn't any ordinary metal. It was the ultimate material of the five elements, the Siderophiles Substance. It spread all over the world and was hidden deep in the planet's core.

Zhang Ruochen certainly didn't think that it was born from nature.

It must have been refined by gods.

"What is hidden inside the Ghost's home planet? It seems that the ten home planets aren't ordinary planets. The Gods of the Infernal Court must have other intentions." Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen intended to investigate underground, but he was well aware that he would be in grave danger. Once the Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage, who was hiding on this continent, made a move, he would find it difficult to deal with him in his current state.

He may even become unconscious.

Therefore, while Xu was hesitating, Zhang Ruochen withdrew the Thousand Dipper Ring. He spread his ten wings and flew rapidly toward the east.

Zhang Ruochen flew out of the continent and into the sky above the chilly sea in an instant.

Zhang Ruochen used the Healing Sacred Pill and the Heart of the Divine Tree to heal his injuries while flying.

“Not good,” said Xu.

Xu recognized Zhang Ruochen’s intent. He made it clear that he intended to travel to the other eight continents to deal with the common Ghost.

How many points would the Ghost lose if those eight continents were destroyed?

It didn’t take long for Zhang Ruochen to refine the chilling Ghost Qi that had invaded his body. Then, he immediately activated all the Regal Inscriptions in the Thousand Dipper Ring. Tens of millions of light-trace feathers appeared.

Whoosh

The huge Thousand Dipper Ring flew out and hit the continent in the east.

Rumble

The Thousand Dipper Ring shattered a ghost city that had gathered tens of millions of souls. The city was destroyed, as was everything within a thousand miles of it.

The six Supreme Saints guarding the ghost city knew that they couldn’t stop the Thousand Dipper Ring, so they escaped immediately.

However, the Thousand Dipper Ring’s aftershock still hit them.

The six Ghost Supreme Saints were all injured and furious.

One of the Ghost Supreme Saints roared, “Attack the cultivators from the Infernal Court who are participating in the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Please use the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms to expel Zhang Ruochen.”

The Supreme Saint of the Ghost also had a rhombus-shaped mirror. Zhang Ruochen’s points could be seen on it.

Zhang Ruochen’s points were still zero.

In other words, Zhang Ruochen didn't have the right to attack other cultivators. Once he attacked, his points would be negative, and he would be expelled from the battlefield.

However, after waiting for a long time, the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms still didn't expel Zhang Ruochen.

The six Supreme Saints of the Ghost looked at each other, puzzled.

Why did this happen?

Zhang Ruochen's attack was actually a test, a guess in his heart.

Back then, when Que had appeared out of thin air, it had already made him a little confused about the rules of the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Later, he, Lord Xia Yu, and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan worked together to deal with Que and snatch the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. However, they weren't expelled, which made Zhang Ruochen even more confused.

At that time, he was wondering if there were hidden rules in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?

For example, everything about Que was not bound by the rules.

Since the gods of the Infernal Court wanted to train Zhang Ruochen to be a weapon and forced him to kill Celestial Captives, how could they value him less than Que?

Since Que wasn't bound by rules, Zhang Ruochen was likely to be the same.

That attack could severely injure the Ghost and test the hidden rules of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Even if Zhang Ruochen failed and was expelled from the battlefield, it wouldn't be a loss for him. Instead, it would be a relief.

Zhang Ruochen had already obtained nine Ampliofruits and three Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills. He had already gained a lot.

The Bloodysky Clan had Lord Xia Yu, Gu Chenzi, and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, who were all at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Their results wouldn't be bad.

Zhang Ruochen smiled happily when he saw that the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms had not expelled him. Since that was the case, he was free to go all out and begin killing.

“That attack just now destroyed more than 38 million souls of the Ghost. The total points will be deducted by more than 3.8 million points. Continue!” Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen performed the Great Dimensional Shift. He jumped and flew toward the second continent.

Xu's power was strong, but his speed was far inferior to Zhang Ruochen's. He couldn't catch up no matter how hard he tried. Seeing the destroyed Ghost City, anger burned in his heart, he roared, “Zhang Ruochen, I've changed my mind. I don't want to refine you into a Ghost slave. I want to destroy your soul, kill you, and leave your body unburied.”

Supreme Saint Manjian's heart was filled with hatred. He struggled with all his might, trying to break free from Supreme Saint Yanhong's suppression and self-destructing his Saint physique.

Even if he could not die with her, he had to die so that Zhang Ruochen would not have to worry about him.

BOOM!

Supreme Saint Yanhong pushed him back into the cliff wall with a palm across the air. She suppressed Supreme Saint Manjian firmly. Her beautiful face made people feel exceptionally ferocious.

"Just watch carefully. Don't dream of dying."

She smiled and pursed her red lips.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Mistress Fireborn, and Lord Sinluo were all taken aback at the brilliant starry sky. They had not anticipated Zhang Ruochen's power. He had destroyed a Ghost city and forced Xu to use the Supreme Artifact.

"Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen has only broken one shackle. I can't imagine how powerful he would be if he reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm," Lord Sinluo said.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei nodded and said, "We have made up our minds to kill Zhang Ruochen at all costs. It's a very wise decision."

Only Pan Ruo remained silent. Her eyes were locked on the Ghost's home planet.

At that moment, every cultivator in the Infernal Court and the Great Battlefield of Merits looked up. Some people clench their fists. Their hearts were on the verge of bursting out of their bodies. Zhang Ruochen was causing them concern.

Some were ecstatic. They laughed heartily.

“The power of a Supreme Artifact in the hands of a Supreme Saint is so terrifying.”

“In the same realm, a Supreme Saint with a Supreme Artifact can instantly kill other Supreme Saints. There’s no escape. If the Supreme Artifact locks on, even space will be frozen.”

“That time, Zhang Ruochen.... sigh...”

‘When Zhang Ruochen charged into the Ghost’s home planet alone, many cultivators were pessimistic.

When that moment arrived, they still couldn’t accept it. They closed their eyes silently. They couldn’t bear to continue watching.

Caged Zhang Ruochen remained calm in the center of the Supreme Power. He slapped his waist with the Violet Gourd. The gourd swooped down and landed in his palm.

Whoosh

As Saint Qi and Divine Qi poured out of Zhang Ruochen’s palm, the Dimensional Inscription at the mouth of the gourd and the Supreme Inscription inside were activated at the same time. They exploded with a more powerful aura.

Zhang Ruochen’s body shone with golden light. The gourd spun slowly in his hand. It floated like a celestial being.

The Golden Sun of Destruction had merged completely with the gourd. It carried the same Supreme Inscription as the gourd.

‘The difference was that the Supreme Inscription appeared inside and wouldn’t be exposed.

Whoosh

36 million Dimensional Inscriptions interweaved into a circular array hundreds of miles in diameter. It appeared above Zhang Ruochen’s head like a blossoming flower.

“It’s useless. All power will be destroyed in front of the Supreme Artifact.” Zhang Ruochen laughed deeply and activated the Supreme Power he had accumulated for a long time.

suddenly, a stream of black Ghost Qi gushed out from the seven black Ghost Lotuses in the sky. It converged above Zhang Ruochen's head and turned into a black waterfall that poured down.

The aura in the black waterfall was bone-chilling, but there were tens of thousands of thunder and lightning as thick as buckets.

The seawater under Zhang Ruochen's feet evaporated in an instant, revealing the undersea land.

Crash

At that moment, the space within hundreds of miles of the space array suddenly collapsed, absorbing all the black waterfalls created by the Pleiades Lotus.

The world returned to calm as if nothing had happened.

Xu felt an unprecedented sense of accomplishment that he could kill the Yuanhui level genius Zhang Ruochen. As a result, he couldn't keep his cool and burst out laughing.

"Haha! Zhang Ruochen was killed by me. I must have done something great in this era... this... is impossible..." said Xu.

The laughter disappeared quickly as if someone was strangling Xu.

Xu stared thousands of miles away and saw that the sea had been completely evaporated by the Supreme Power. However, Zhang Ruochen was still floating in the air.

"How is it possible? How could the power of the Supreme Artifact disappear without a trace? Was it transferred to another place by his Power of Dimension? No, it's impossible. With his Dimensional attainments, how could he dissolve the power of the Supreme Artifact? Why? Why?"

Xu trembled, his heart full of confusion and doubt.

Zhang Ruochen's strangeness was beyond his understanding.

Whoosh

The Violet Gourd in Zhang Ruochen's hand became extremely heavy. He had to use all his strength to hold it. A large amount of cold lightning surged out of the surface of the gourd. It shuttled back and forth like a dragon and snake.

Inside the gourd, flames and cold qi were circulating. They formed a huge whirlpool that transformed the Supreme Power contained in the Ghost Qi waterfall.

A moment later, Zhang Ruochen shouted coldly, "I'll give it back to you."

The mouth of the gourd faced Xu, who was thousands of miles away.

Boom

A black Ghost Qi light column rushed out of the gourd. Countless bolts of lightning interweaved in the light column and attacked Xu, who was thousands of miles away.

The sea was separated from where the Ghost Qi light pillar passed.

Xu's expression changed drastically. He burst out with his fastest speed and immediately fled.

However, the Ghost Qi light pillar contained a huge amount of energy. It was endless. Under Zhang Ruochen's control, it was like a thousand-mile-long dragon chasing after him.

In the end, there was nowhere for Xu to run. He could only form the Spatial-Sea Seal to resist.

Rumble

The Spatial-Sea Seal blocked for about ten breaths before it shattered and disintegrated.

Taking advantage of the time of ten breaths, Xu successfully activated the Supreme Power of the Pleiades Lotus once again. It clashed with the beam of Ghost Qi and resolved the crisis.

Fear still lingered in Xu's heart. He thought to himself, "That was close... just a little bit..."

The Ghost Qi light pillar was strong, but it traveled for tens of thousands of miles. Xu might be able to block it, but he would definitely be heavily injured.

Once Xu was heavily injured, he would lose to Zhang Ruochen.

Although Xu had been in a sorry state, he had managed to block it.

How can Zhang Ruochen's gourd be so powerful? Can it even absorb the Supreme Power? What in the world can't it absorb?' Xu was extremely depressed. He gnashed his teeth in hatred.

'What a good gourd. Is it also a Supreme Artifact? That's not right. No Supreme Power is emanating from it' Supreme Saint Yanhong wondered.

Supreme Saint Yanhong was very tempted and wanted to take the Violet Gourd for herself.

If Supreme Saint Yanhong had such a treasure, what was there to be afraid of in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?

Even powerful figures like Wujiang and Luo Shengtian would be afraid of Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Therefore, Supreme Saint Yanhong handed over the task of guarding the Supreme Saint Manjian to Ming. She turned into a pink light path and flew toward the sea area where Zhang Ruochen was.

"Let's attack together and see how much power his gourd can take away!" Four-eyed Ghost Emperor's roar sounded in the eastern sky of Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen looked to the east and saw a black mass of Ghost Qi rolling in heaven and earth. A huge ghost shadow was faintly revealed.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor spread his wings in the south, forming thousands of black wind pillars that connected the sky and the sea. A significant amount of seawater was swept into the sky.

'The 330-meter-tall Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique rode the waves and appeared 800 miles away in the west. He appeared to be standing in the sky, looking down on Zhang Ruochen in the basin.

Supreme Saint Yanhong stood on the sea in the north. The sea turned pink as a whole. Brilliant and beautiful bone flowers bloomed on the water's surface, creating a sea of flowers.

They were not even 500 miles away from Zhang Ruochen. They were clearly terrified of the Violet Gourd in his hand.

Surrounded by four Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, Zhang Ruochen was naturally under a lot of pressure. He raised his head slightly to look at the sky. He was puzzled. Why hadn't Lord Xia Yu broken the Star-Shield Grand Formation of the Ghost's home planet?

Just now, Xu had mobilized the power of the Pleiades Lotus to attack Zhang Ruochen. That was when the Star-Shield Grand Formation was at its weakest. With Lord Xia Yu's array attainments, she could definitely find the weak point of the formation and destroy it with one strike.

Zhang Ruochen's strategy included breaking the Ghost's Star-Shield Grand Formation.

As long as the Star-Shield Grand Formation was broken, he could rely on his extreme speed, the Path of Time, and the Path of Dimension. Even if he was besieged by several Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he could still advance and retreat easily.

But now, there was a change in the plan.

Zhang Ruochen was now trapped in that corner of the Ghost's home planet. It would be extremely difficult for him to resist the attacks of several powerhouses of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Lord Xia Yu was in trouble in the void space outside the Ghost's home planet. She was discovered by Mauve Pupa, the Corpusian's number one powerhouse, who was lying in wait on a star fragment. They began a spiritual power struggle.

Lord Xia Yu blew the best opportunity to break the Star-Shield Grand Formation because of Mauve Pupa.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Mistress Fireborn, and Lord Sinluo were still watching the show in the other void space, ready to reap the benefits.

“Who would have thought that the gourd in Zhang Ruochen’s hand could resist the Pleiades Lotus? Where did that gourd come from?” A greedy smile appeared in Mistress Fireborn’s face.

Any cultivator, including gods, would be tempted by such a treasure.

Pan Ruo said, “Maybe it’s also a Supreme Artifact.”

Lord Sinluo was shocked, “A Supreme Artifact? That shouldn’t be possible! The gourd had been activated many times, but it didn’t release any Supreme Power. Besides, the Immortal Vampires’ Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell are both powerful figures. How could they let Zhang Ruochen control a Supreme Artifact?”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei nodded and said, “Every Supreme Artifact has a great reputation. No one in Celestial Court or Infernal Court can match the gourd in Zhang Ruochen’s hand.”

Pan Ruo had a few ideas, but since no one believed her, she didn’t say anything else.

“There are more than five Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm on the Ghost’s home planet,” Pan Ruo said. “Even if Zhang Ruochen can turn the sky upside down, he’ll definitely die now.

“Perfect. While he’s holding back most of the powerhouses, let’s attack now and break the Star-Shield Grand Formation first. Even if we can’t kill Supreme Saint Yanhong, we have to destroy the souls on the Ghost’s home planet first. We’ll completely suppress the Ghosts and they won’t be able to turn the tide.”

Mistress Fireborn smiled sweetly, “I agree with Pan Ruo’s decision,” she said. “Indeed, we should attack immediately. It would be a great loss if all the good things on Zhang Ruochen fell into the hands of the Ghost and the Bone clan. I’ll give you the Ampliofruit and the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

I only want the gourd.”

“With the Mad Whitejade Lion coordinating from the inside and outside, it shouldn’t be difficult to break the Ghost’s Star-Shield Grand Formation,” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said..

Supreme Saint Yuanfei and Mistress Fireborn's figures became translucent and then vanished into thin air.

Formless, shadowless, and devoid of any aura.

The two of them headed towards the Ghost's home planet to break the formation.

Pan Ruo and Lord Sinluo remained where they were.

Whoosh

The space shook slightly, and a handsome man with long silver hair walked out of the star fog.

He was tall and thin, and his facial features were exquisite. His ears were pointed, and his eyes emitted a strange light.

Although he was only wearing tattered clothes, his noble temperament was still hard to hide.

He was one of the elves.

"Who is it?" Lord Sinluo asked. He immediately took out the Frostwood Bow and pulled it open, pointing at the elf.

The elves belonged to the Heavenly Realm, which meant that that person was a Celestial Captive.

Pan Ruo appeared calm and collected. She glanced at the man and waved her hand, signaling Lord Sinluo to put away the bow and arrow. "How is it? What's the situation with the Celestial Captive?"

"Haha, I can fool Lord Sinluo, but I can't fool Your Highness Pan Ruo. It seems that my illusion is still not perfect." The elf laughed. His body tured into specks of light and disappeared.

Then, the specks of light gathered again and tured into a black shadow in armor.

It was the second most powerful figure of the Nether Clan, Que Fei.

Que Fei's mission was to go to the nearby starfield of the third dark star, to contact the Celestial Captives, and use their powers to deal with Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Sinluo put away the Frostwood Bow. He was quite depressed. He was a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he couldn't see through Que Fei's illusion.

However, Pan Ruo was only in the Neverwilt Realm, yet she could see through it.

Pan Ruo's cold face did not contain any emotions. She said, "Your illusion is already perfect. Unfortunately, no matter how perfect your illusion is, it can't change a fact."

"What?" Que Fei asked.

"The precepts of heaven and earth," said Pan Ruo.

Then, Pan Ruo added, "The precepts of heaven and earth in the Infernal Court will repel the elves to a certain extent. However, the precepts of heaven and earth do not repel you."

Que Fei said, "That's right. that is indeed a flaw."

"There must be a cultivator among the Celestial Captives who discovered that," said Lord Sinluo.

However, as soon as he finished speaking, his old face turned red and he felt a little awkward.

Que Fei said, "Don't worry about what I do. I will not leave such a flaw. If you want to discover the traces that the precepts of heaven and earth have left on my body, you must at least be a spiritual-power Supreme Saint. Only then will you be able to detect it.

"After I killed that Saint King Realm elf man, I transformed into his appearance and only came into close contact with Celestial Captives below the Supreme Saint realm. I should be able to deceive the world."

Pan Ruo asked, "How many Celestial Captives have come?"

Although he was trapped, Zhang Ruochen said calmly, “Four-eyed Ghost Emperor, ranked 49th on the list of Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Popobawa Ghost Emperor ranked 54th. Xu and Pink Skull can still fight with me. Are you two here to die? Didn’t the Mad Whitejade Lion tell you how he was defeated by me?”

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor’s huge ghost body was hidden in the black clouds, he said in a majestic voice, “You are indeed powerful. I am not your opponent. However, you have to understand that that is not a one-on-one fight. It is four Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm who want to kill you. Today, you are destined to be destroyed in body and soul.”

Zhang Ruochen’s ten golden wings fluttered in the wind, he said, “Are there really four Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm? There is a fifth one, right? It was said that Ye Changzai of the Impermanenton turned into a ghost. He did not have an ethereal form. There was only one shadow in the world. He was known as the Soul Snatcher and ranked 18th on the list of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Whose shadow are you hiding in?”

Zhang Ruochen stared at the Xu, Supreme Saint Yanhong, Popobawa Ghost Emperor, and Four-eyed Ghost Emperor’s shadow, searching for Ye Changzai.

Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong were both shocked.

Ye Changzai was their secret chess piece. He was the key to killing Zhang Ruochen easily. However, Zhang Ruochen was even more brilliant than they had imagined. He could guess that Ye Changzai was hiding nearby.

A Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was the same as a Nin-Step Saint King. There was a clear difference in strength between them.

However, from the sixth place, Lord Lei of Stone Clan to the 18th place Ye Changzai there wasn't much of a difference in strength between these ten or so Supreme Saints. They all had a chance of defeating each other, it was just that the odds of winning were different.

Therefore, Ye Changzai, Xu, and Supreme Saint Yan Hong were all powerful figures of the same level.

If Ye Changzai suddenly attacked while Zhang Ruochen was fighting with all his strength against four cultivators at the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage, the results would be unpredictable.

With The Heart of Truth, Zhang Ruochen could only vaguely sense that Ye Changzai was nearby, but he could not find him.

"The Ghost of the earth's soul is indeed strange. Fortunately, Ye Changzai's most terrifying part is that he is unpredictable. His strength and talent are not very strong. Otherwise, he would be superior at the level of Wujiang and Luo Shengtian, and would be even more difficult to deal with."

Zhang Ruochen did not want to fight them head-on. He would definitely lose if he fought them head-on. So, he looked up at the sky again, but the Star-Shield Grand Formation still showed no signs of being broken.

suddenly, the image of the underground of the Ghost's home planet appeared in Zhang Ruochen's mind.

If the sky didn't work, then... he could only go underground.

"Maybe the underground of the Ghost's home planet will be another way to survive. The Siderophile Substance can not appear on a large scale inside a planet,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

"Zhang Ruochen, take that move from me first."

Four blood-red eyes appeared in the black cloud where the Four-eyed Ghost Emperor was. Each eye was as big as a mountain and released powerful death power.

Four worlds filled with Ghost Qi flew out of the four ghost eyes and evolved into four ghostly prisons.

The first ghostly prison had an evil mirror hanging high and was covered with Ghost Runes.

The second ghostly prison had copper pillars as thick as a mountain. They gave off shocking heat and were inserted into the sea and connected to the clouds.

The third ghostly prison was made up of 100,000 stone tablets. Each stone tablet weighed 300 million pounds.

The fourth ghostly prison was a scarlet blood pool. Beside the blood pool were endless bones.

Seeing the four ghostly prisons pressing down on him, Zhang Ruochen was surprised, he thought to himself, Ghostly Prison of Vile Mirror, Copper Column, Weighing Stone, and Blood Pool all appeared at the same time. The Four-eyed Ghost Emperor's strength is stronger than recorded in the information. He's only one step away from breaking through to the Thousand-Koan Realm

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to break through the four prisons, Supreme Saint Yanhong and Xu approached him at the same time.

At the same time, Popobawa Ghost Emperor summoned a thousand-mile-long Ghost-headed Whip. It was like holding a long river and lashing at him at any time.

Chapter 2306: Going Underground

Fighting against five Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm at the same time was completely different from fighting one-on-one. There were too many factors to consider. At that moment, even if Zhang Ruochen could break the four ghostly prisons of Four-eyed Ghost Emperor, he did not dare to use his full strength. He also had to be wary of the other powerhouses who could attack at any time.

Zhang Ruochen held the gourd with one hand and activated the Precepts of Dimension in his sea of Qi with the other. He formed a palm and slapped out.

Boom

The palm print landed, and the space shattered layer by layer, revealing dark and empty areas. The four ghostly prisons were torn apart.

The evil mirror shattered, the copper pillar pressed down, the blood pool dissipated, and the 100,000 stone tablets turned to dust.

“He’s that strong?” said the shocked Four-eyed Ghost Emperor. He quickly retreated to avoid the broken space.

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor’s strongest attack was futile in front of Zhang Ruochen. It could be seen that Zhang Ruochen, who had only broken one shackle, already could kill Four-eyed Ghost Emperor.

“Take this!” said Popobawa Ghost Emperor.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor had already pushed the power of the Ghost-headed Whip to the limit. The moment Zhang Ruochen unleashed the Power of Dimension, the thousand-mile-long whip slashed out. The bone-chilling Ghost Qi combined with the sharp whip power.

The Ghost-headed Whip seemed to have turned into a blade. Its power condensed into a single line.

‘Popobawa Ghost Emperor has combined the Ghost-headed Whip, a Regal Artifact, with a strand of Saintwill. It’s soft to the extreme and sharp to the extreme. It’s a bit difficult to deal with.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen threw the Thousand Dipper Ring and collided with the Ghost-headed Whip.

The two collided silently.

The powerful Thousand Dipper Ring seemed to hit the air.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor smiled. The whip bent and continued to attack Zhang Ruochen from another direction.

Zhang Ruochen stepped on the void space with his right foot. The space under his feet distorted. The Ghost-headed Whip slashed past him and headed toward the Four-eyed Ghost Emperor.

The Four-eyed Ghost Emperor roared, “Who are you trying to kill, Popobawa Ghost Emperor?”

Popobawa Ghost Emperor didn’t expect the Power of Dimension to be so mysterious. Zhang Ruochen had used the force to hit him. He quickly withdrew the Ghost-headed Whip.

Whoosh

Taking that opportunity, Zhang Ruochen raised his hands above his head. Under the guidance of the Precept of Time, countless Mark of Time’s light spots and the Saint Aspect of Time appeared at the same time. They formed a Bell of Time that was more than 40 meters tall.

The Saint Aspect of Time was illusory and had no real form.

Simultaneously, the Precept of Dimension and the Saint Aspect of Dimension were released in his sea of Qi. They swirled around his body, transforming a hundred miles into a massive Dimensional Vortex. Countless Dimensional Rifts swooped in.

Supreme Saint Yanhong sensed something was wrong and said, "Attack immediately. Break his Spatial Domain and shatter the Bell of Time."

Xu channeled the Ghost Qi into the sky and into the Pleiades Lotus. He planned to use the power of the Supreme Artifact to suppress Dimension and Time.

Buzz

Abell chimed.

The Mark of Time and the sound fused and turned into waves. They spread in all directions at ten thousand times the speed of sound.

No one dared to touch the Mark of Time. As they retreated, they gathered the Precepts and formed their own domains to defend against the invasion of the Power of Time.

The Saintwill that Popobawa Ghost Emperor had fused was a Grade Five Thread-Slicing Saintwill. The domain was formed by countless sharp lines.

Boom

The Lined Domain blocked most of the Mark of Time, but it was pierced through by the Dimensional Storm that followed closely behind.

"Damn it," Popobawa Ghost Emperor cursed. He spread his wings and flew toward the sky.

"Cut!" Zhang Ruochen Shouted.

Zhang Ruochen, who was hiding in the Dimensional Storm, turned into a streak of golden light and flew out. Ten Golden Wings slashed at Popobawa Ghost Emperor. Popobawa Ghost Emperor used the Ghost-headed Whip to defend, but the golden wings still broke through his defense.

Poot

Popobawa Ghost Emperor's left wing was cut off by Zhang Ruochen's golden wings.

A large amount of Ghost Qi leaked out from the broken wing.

The blood-red aura and the power of the progenitor invaded Popobawa Ghost Emperor's Neverwilt Astral Form and destroyed its mysterious structure. Starting from the broken wing, the Astral Form disintegrated and turned into black fog.

The Popobawa Ghost Emperor was in unbearable pain, he screamed, "Zhang Ruochen's power is strange. He's destroying my Neverwilt Ghost Emperor Physique. I'll leave him to you. I need to find a safe place to refine that power."

With that, the Popobawa Ghost Emperor immediately fled.

"Where are you going?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Zhang Ruochen shot out a divine fire dragon and hit the Popobawa Ghost Emperor's back. Many ley lines appeared on his Neverwilt Astral Form, and his injuries worsened.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor's body fell into the sea thousands of miles away with a thud.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to catch up and finish the Popobawa Ghost Emperor, a terrifying power fluctuation came from above his head.

"The Supreme Artifact has been activated again!" Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen raised his head to take a look. He rushed down into the sea and dived deep underground.

"You can't get away!" Supreme Saint Yanhong's soft and beautiful voice came out from her sandalwood lips.

She was very angry.

So many powerful figures had joined hands to attack, but Zhang Ruochen had still managed to severely injure the Popobawa Ghost Emperor. She wondered if the gods watching the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms were very disappointed with her?

"Phew!"

Supreme Saint Yanhong opened her red lips slightly and spat out a mouthful of pink death-chilling Qi. In an instant, the sea area where Zhang Ruochen was frozen into ice.

Zhang Ruochen's body was sealed in ice.

The ice was extremely hard as if it had turned into black iron.

Rumble

Immediately after, the Supreme Power released by the Pleiades Lotus turned into a waterfall of Ghost Qi. It poured down and hit the pink sea of ice below.

Bang! Bang! Bang

The ice sea was broken through and all the ice crystals were vaporized.

Zhang Ruochen supported the Violet Gourd and stood beneath it at a critical juncture. He used the gourd's defensive power to repel the Supreme Artifact's attack.

However, his body was hit to the bottom of the sea.

Before he could catch his breath, the dried-up sea grew dense red bone flowers.

The bone flowers had thorns and were extremely poisonous.

Hundreds of millions of crystal clear bone flower petals flew toward him, making sharp wind-breaking sounds.

Zhang Ruochen's Spatial Domain was constantly being eaten away by the bone flower petals. Although a large number of petals had withered, more petals were approaching his body.

Just as the Spatial Domain was about to be eaten away, Supreme Saint Yanhong's beautiful figure walked out of the petals. Her delicate hands reached out from her red sleeves.

Ten soft and beautiful fingers formed two orchid fingers.

"Last time, you injured me with ten times the attack power of the Path of Truth. I regard that as a great humiliation. Today, do you have the guts to fight me again?" said Supreme Saing Yanhong.

Crash

Behind Supreme Saint Yanhong, the Gate of Destiny appeared. Countless Precepts of Destiny intertwined together.

Zhang Ruochen really did not want to fight head-on with Supreme Saint Yanhong. He knew very well that if he was entangled by her, he would definitely lose today... No, he would definitely die.

He had to think of a way to escape.

“Alright, let’s have a good fight today,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen released the Realm-frame of Truth. The light shadows of the planets appeared to resist the pink bone flower’s encroachment.

All the light from the planets gathered on his body. Instantly, the ten golden wings shone brightly. Three dragon and elephant souls appeared in his left and right arms. He attacked Supreme Saint Yanhong with both palms.

“Death Kiss.”

The Supreme Saint Yanhong smiled charmingly. A pink bone flower condensed between her hands and attacked Zhang Ruochen.

The Death Kiss was a high-level saint technique of the Thousand-Koan Realm that Saint Yanhong had cultivated. The bone flower condensed contained terrifying poison. Even a Supreme Saint wouldn’t be able to escape death if he touched it.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen had fallen into her trap, the Four-eyed Ghost Emperor and Xu smiled and attacked at the same time.

‘What the Four-eyed Ghost Emperor had shot out was an Immaterial Artifact. It was shaped like an eye and as red as blood.

Xu activated the power of the Supreme Artifact. The Supreme Power condensed into a 300-meters-tall black skeleton. It descended from the sky and stomped on Zhang Ruochen’s head.

If Zhang Ruochen really chose to fight head-on with the Supreme Saint Yanhong, he would definitely be hit by their power. He wouldn't be able to dodge at all. That way, even if he didn't die, he would only have half his life left.

A strange scene happened. Zhang Ruochen had clearly struck out with his palms, but his body suddenly flew backward.

Rumble

Supreme Saint Yanhong, Xu, and Four-eyed Ghost Emperor's power all hit nothing.

After breaking free from their power suppression, Zhang Ruochen was about to use the Great Dimensional Shift to enter the underground of the Ghost's home planet. Suddenly, his back felt cold and all the hair on his body stood up.

A sense of extreme danger assaulted his mind.

"Not good," Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen's expression changed. His spiritual power sensed a scene that made his scalp tingle.

The shadow under his feet split into two.

One of the shadows circled behind him and stabbed out with a sword. The tip of the sword had already reached his back.

The shadow was a real shadow, and the sword was a real sword.

The shadow was Ye Changzai, who was ranked 18th on the list of the Hundred-Shackle Realms Great Perfection stage.

"When did Ye Changzai hide in My Shadow?"

Zhang Ruochen recalled the fight as fast as lightning. He vaguely found the reason for the fight.

Ye Changzai had to have been hiding in the shadow of Supreme Saint Yanhong at first. He hid in his shadow when Zhang Ruochen and the Supreme Saint Yanhong came into close contact.

If Zhang Ruochen had really fought the Supreme Saint Yanhong just now, and Ye Changzai suddenly stabbed out from the shadows, how could Zhang Ruochen still be alive?

At that critical moment of life and death, Zhang Ruochen's thoughts were unprecedentedly clear. The ten wings on his back quickly contracted, and his body wrapped into a golden sphere.

Bang

Ye Changzai's sword hit the golden ball, creating a large number of sparks.

The golden ball wasn't sent flying. Instead, it rolled on the blade and crashed into the shadow on the ground.

Boom

A large crater was created on the dry seabed. Cracks were all around the crater.

Xu, Supreme Saint Yanhong, and Four-eyed Ghost Emperor flew to the edge of the crater.

With a wave of the Supreme Saint Yanhong's red sleeve, the dust in the crater was cleared. It was empty. Where was Zhang Ruochen?

Ye Changzai's shadow appeared beside Supreme Saint Yanhong. He said weakly, "Zhang Ruochen has escaped to the depths of the Ghost's home planet."

"How are your injuries?" Supreme Saint Yanhong asked with concern.

Ye Changzai sighed. "Zhang Ruochen is indeed a powerful figure. When the five Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm joined hands, it was almost a sure-kill situation. He broke it and injured me instead. However, he didn't fully defend against my sword. He must have been seriously injured."

Supreme Saint Yanhong released her spiritual power to investigate. Indeed, she found Zhang Ruochen's aura 10,000 meters underground.

"There are a lot of Siderophile Substances in the underground of the Ghost's home planet. There must be a big secret hidden there. Zhang Ruochen knows that he can't escape, so he took the risk to rush underground to survive."

If Zhang Ruochen could discover the underground, they could, too.

"No matter what's underground, Zhang Ruochen is seriously injured now. We can't miss that perfect opportunity to kill him... Something... is wrong, What's going on?"

Supreme Saint Yanhong raised her snow-white head and looked at the sky.

The sky became overcast with thick black clouds. The seven stars formed by the Pleiades Lotus were covered in layers upon layers. The sky went pitch black in an instant, and one couldn't even see one's fingers.

Cold winds blew in the air.

The entire planet trembled slightly.

"Someone has invaded our planet."

Xu's senses became clearer. He discovered that the Pleiades Lotus, which was the core of the Star-Shield Grand Formation, had been attacked by another Supreme Artifact..

“With the Grade Nine Star-Shield Grand Formation and the Pleiades Lotus at its core, even ten Supreme Saints at the pinnacle of the Hundred-Shackle Realm wouldn’t be able to break through,” Four-eyed Ghost Emperor explained.

Xu’s expression was solemn as he shook his head, “But the situation isn’t looking good.”

“There’s no need to guess. It was Mad Whitejade Lion who destroyed the formation’s inscription on the planet.”

Supreme Saint Yanhong’s expression was dark as she stared at the north of the Ghost’s home planet. She crossed tens of thousands of miles and saw the Mad Whitejade Lion standing above the northern glacier.

“That damned lion. I will deal with it,” Four-eyed Ghost Emperor roared furiously and controlled a cloud of Ghost Qi to fly towards the North.

Xu remained calm and said, ‘It’s not Lady Wind. It’s the aura of the Deathkin. It seems that Pan Ruo is controlling everything, There’s no doubt that the Mad Whitejade Lion belongs to the upper three clans from the beginning. Whether it’s supporting Lady Wind or joining us, it’s all part of Pan Ruo’s trick.’

Supreme Saint Yanhong’s eyes were cold, she smiled and said, “Pan Ruo is still too young, Although we did lose some of our strength when dealing with Zhang Ruochen. However, there are still five Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm at their peak. If they want to take us down, they’ll need Wujiang’s help and the cooperation of ten Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

“As far as I know, Wujiang is refining the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill in seclusion. He couldn’t come out at that time. Besides, Pan Ruo can't mobilize ten Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm at once."

"What I'm concerned about is that once the Star-Shield Grand Formation is broken, one strike with the power of the Supreme Artifact can destroy all the souls on the surface of our planet. The Ghost will suffer significant losses. Pan Ruo's goal should be to achieve this," Xu said.

"To resist external enemies, we must first clear the planet's interior. Brother Changzai, can you temporarily suppress your injuries?" Xu added.

Ye Changzai said, "I can still fight."

"Go and help Four-eyed Ghost Emperor. You must take down the Mad Whitejade Lion," said Xu.

The Ghost shadow on the ground became blurry and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Xu looked at the Supreme Saint Yanhong and said, "I can still use the Pleiades Lotus to hold off for a while. You have to kill Zhang Ruochen as soon as possible and then come back and help me."

Whoosh

Supreme Saint Yanhong's snow-white arm shot out a pink pillar of light into the sky.

A bull's roar and a sparrows cry rang out in the sky.

The Bone Clan's two Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, Moon-Bull Emperor and Lord Sparrow Bone revealed themselves in the void space. The bull's shadow and the bright moon accompanied each other, and the sparrow gave off a brilliant divine light.

"I can take care of Zhang Ruochen alone. Moon-Bull Emperor and Lord Sparrow Bone will help you resist the attack of the cultivators of the three upper races," said Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Supreme Saint Yanhong's body turned into a pink light and disappeared into the ground.

Zhang Ruochen did not completely block Ye Changzai's sword. A bloody hole was pierced through his back.

Fortunately, the Demigod-level physique was strong enough. At the critical moment, the Saint Devourer blocked most of the power on the sword. Otherwise, Ye Changzai's sword would have cut Zhang Ruochen in half.

The bloody hole on Zhang Ruochen's back emitted black mist, corroding Zhang Ruochen's Neverwilt physique and eroding his Origin of Life and the Precepts.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Saint Qi and wrapped the life essence of the Heart of the Divine Tree. He activated it according to the Ninth heaven of the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture. At the same time, he activated the Divine Purification Flame to refine it, but the effect was minimal.

'What is the background of Ye Changzai's sword? How can it be more terrifying than Wujiang's Blood-devouring Curse? It should be an ancient divine relic, and of a very high level,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Only the power of gods could be so difficult to refine.

Once it invaded flesh and blood, it was like maggots in the tarsal bone, difficult to expel.

Zhang Ruochen guessed that Ye Changzai's sword probably contained the Power of Death or the Power of Curse of an evil god in the Infernal Court. It was definitely an ominous evil sword.

Although he had been struck by Ye Changzai's sword, Zhang Ruochen had also injected a large number of Marks of Time into Ye Changzai's Astral physique.

It wasn't easy for Ye Changzai to recover his combat power.

I must refine the evil power that's invading my body as soon as possible. Otherwise, my injuries will worsen if I fight with a powerhouse.

As soon as Zhang Ruochen thought of that, he sensed Supreme Saint Yanhong's presence.

Wisps of pink light fell from the mud. Wherever they passed, the soil and rocks became like lead and iron. Their hardness increased by more than ten times.

Below Zhang Ruochen's feet was the Siderophile Substance.

Unfortunately, there were no gaps in the Siderophile Substance. It was like a huge ball embedded in the planet of the Ghost. There were no so-called opportunities or paths of survival.

Supreme Saint Yanhong's beautiful figure landed on the surface of the Siderophile Substance. Her eyes were as bright as stars. She looked at Zhang Ruochen, who was dozens of feet away and smiled. She asked, 'Why aren't you running?'

Zhang Ruochen put his hands behind his back and straightened his body. He said, "You're the only one chasing me. What can you do to me? Why should I run?"

"Don't pretend to be calm. You were hit by Ye Changzai's Amorite Sword, so the Amorite Curse must have invaded your body. It's fine if you don't fight. You can use the Divine Purification Flame and slowly refine the curse. However, once you fight with me, you won't be able to suppress the corrosion of the curse. Soon, you'll become a mortal with no cultivation. You'll die of old age in an instant," Supreme Saint Yanhong said.

Zhang Ruochen looked enlightened. He said, "So it's the Amorite Curse."

The Amorite Curse and Wujiang's Blood-devouring Curse were part of the six great curses of the Nether Clan.

Zhang Ruochen could use the Heart of the Divine Tree to purify the Blood-devouring Curse easily because it was a spell that Wujiang had cast across space. However, the Amorite Curse entered Zhang Ruochen's body along with the sword and invaded his blood and Neverwilt physique.

Zhang Ruochen felt a bit of pressure, but he still looked relaxed. He said lightly, 'Wujiang's Blood-devouring Curse can't do anything to me and I've already refined the Amorite Curse.'

"Is that so?" said Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Supreme Saint Yanhong looked confused. She couldn't figure out what Zhang Ruochen was up to.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You're the only one who came to kill me. It looks like the Ghost's home planet is in some kind of crisis. If I'm not wrong, it should be the powerhouses of the three upper clans who took the opportunity to attack you, right?"

"How could you possibly know that?" Supreme Saint Yanhong was a little surprised.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Mad Whitejade Lion was a hidden chess piece of the three upper clans. After I chased him away, he came to you. Clearly, he wanted to use your power to kill me. The cultivators of the three upper clans stood aside and watched the show. In the end, they would sit back and reap the benefits."

"Half of the top powerhouses of the three middle clans are gathered on the Ghost's home planet. How can the three upper clans sit back and reap the benefits?" Supreme Saint Yanhong laughed.

Zhang Ruochen said, "What if we add in the three lower clans?"

"What did you say?*" Supreme Saint Yanhong asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Do you really think that I would come to the home planet of the Ghost alone? To tell you the truth, the powerhouses of the three lower clans have already gathered in the nearby starfield, including Luo Shengtian."

If it were any other cultivator, Supreme Saint Yanhong would not believe him at all if he said Luo Shengtian's name.

But Zhang Ruochen was different. The entire Infernal Court knew that Luo Shengtian's sister, Princess Luo Sha, was very close to Zhang Ruochen. It wasn't difficult to get Luo Shengtian to help.

Luo Shengtian, Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, Lord Xia Yu, and the other three lower clans Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. If they added the powerhouses of the three upper clans... How could they fight?

The three lower clans and the three upper clans could join forces and kick the three middle clans out of the competition.

No!

The one they wanted to get rid of the most was Supreme Saint Yanhong.

“I must not let them break the Star-Shield Grand Formation of the Ghost’s home planet. I have to help Xu defend the formation.”

Thinking of that, Supreme Saint Yanhong ignored Zhang Ruochen. She turned into a streak of light and rushed into the sky.

Zhang Ruochen let out a slight sigh of relief. Then, he used the Great Dimensional Shift and escaped immediately.

Whoosh

A moment later, Supreme Saint Yanhong rushed back. She landed on the surface of the Siderophile Substance and released her spiritual power to search.

Where was Zhang Ruochen’s aura?

“Damn it, I knew I was tricked! Zhang Ruochen’s hatred of the three upper clans was as deep as the ocean. Even if the three upper clans wanted to join forces with the lower three clans, they wouldn’t attack first. They would definitely wait until Zhang Ruochen died before attacking. But now, the ones taking the lead are the dead. It’s completely illogical.”

Supreme Saint Yanhong felt a little resentful. How could she have been so flustered just now? How could she have missed the best opportunity to kill Zhang Ruochen?

‘When Supreme Saint Yanhong found Zhang Ruochen’s presence again and caught up to him, Zhang Ruochen had already refined almost half of the power of the Amorite Curse.

Underground, the Pink Smokescreen that Supreme Saint Yanhong cultivated could harden mud and stone, greatly affecting Zhang Ruochen’s speed.

“Zhang Ruochen, you truly are a master of deception. It’s no surprise that you can dupe Lord Xia Yu, Lady Wind, Princess Luo Sha, and the other first-class favored women of the Infernal Court into siding with you,” said Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Supreme Saint Yanhong stretched out his hand and pressed forward. Instantly, all the bones buried in the mud came to life. Pink ley lines appeared on the bones and attacked Zhang Ruochen.

Swoosh! Swoosh!

Zhang Ruochen used ten golden wings to open a path. He moved like the wind in the underground soil. All the bones that blocked his way were chopped into pieces.

“How can you blame me for lying to you? You can only blame yourself for being too stupid,” said Zhang Ruochen. Then he turned around and stared behind him. Countless white skeletons mixed with the soil formed a cylindrical shape. They chased closely behind him.

Behind the bones, Supreme Saint Yanhong flew rapidly with a shower of flowers.

The lifeless underground was completely alive because of Supreme Saint Yanhong’s power.

Zhang Ruochen’s gaze met Supreme Saint Yanhong’s beautiful eyes from afar. Their eyes were emotionless. One was as cold as a stone, while the other was a skeleton from an unknown era.

“Why are you chasing me so closely? Arent you afraid that I’ll take you in?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Zhang Ruochen held the Violet Gourd to his abdomen with both hands. Together with the Saint Devourer, he activated the Dimensional Inscription and Supreme Inscription on the gourd.

Whoosh

36 million Dimensional Inscriptions rushed out from the mouth of the gourd. They covered hundreds of miles underground and enveloped Supreme Saint Yanhong's delicate figure in the Dimensional Array.

'The Power of Dimension and Supreme Power erupted at the same time..

Chapter 2308: Pink Skull

Boom

The space within a radius of hundreds miles collapsed violently. Whether it was the mud and rocks or thousands bones chasing behind, they were all absorbed into the Gourd.

Naturally, Supreme Saint Yanhong was also pulled towards the suction force of the gourd. She flew quickly toward the mouth of the Gourd.

Seeing Supreme Saint Yanhong's cold and calm face, Zhang Ruochen had a bad feeling.

"Supreme Saint Yanhong should definitely know about Violet Gourd's devouring abilities. So why is she still chasing after me?" Zhang Ruochen thought.

"Zhang Ruochen, this Violet Gourd of yours is such a good treasure. It shall be the compensation for destroying my body."

Supreme Saint Yanhong was originally extremely beautiful. Her figure was alluring and her skin was as white as jade. However, her skin and flesh split open at this moment. Her delicate and beautiful face was broken by her bones. Her eyes disappeared, her nose melted and her red lips burned into ashes.

In an instant, the once jade-like beauty disappeared, turning into a hideous and terrifying Pink skeleton.

The Skull gave off an aura of death, corroding the soil in this area and turning it into an evil land of the dead. Its body expanded rapidly, from more than a meter high to dozens of meters, hundreds of meters...

Finally, its Skull rushed out of the thick soil and reached a height of 1,800 meters.

Zhang Ruochen's body was not even one percent of the size of her toe bone.

Spatial Array — which was hundreds of miles in diameter — could only cover a small part of her body.

The thing even more terrifying was that Pink Skull exuded a divine aura. An Immortal arcane rune emerged on each bone, which could stabilize her body in the collapsed dimension.

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. He stared at the giant creature in front of him, and muttered to himself, “So it’s a divine bone that cultivated to the Great Perfection stage in Hundred-Shackle Realm. No wonder Supreme Saint Yanhong could become one of the three Scioness candidates. She was born with an innate advantage.”

Zhang Ruochen had read Supreme Saint Yanhong’s information, but it was only recorded that she had awakened from the depths of Sanzu River. She had existed for a very long time too.

Who would have thought that she was the recovery of the divine bone?

Pink Skull looked like a human, but her body was crystal clear. Apart from her bones, she had vibrant long pink hair. Every strand of hair was hundreds of miles long, like a divine waterfall.

“Die!”

Pink Skull’s huge bone palm was like a cloud of Divine Qi. It smacked towards Zhang Ruochen.

“It seems that Dimensional Array at the mouth of the Gourd is not strong enough.”

The Dimensional Inscription at the mouth of the Gourd was carved not long after Zhang Ruochen broke through to become a spiritual-power Supreme Saint .

But now, Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power had reached the 62nd level, and his Dimensional attainments were better than before. Therefore, he could carve an even more powerful Spatial Array.

Of course, it was too late to say this now.

Zhang Ruochen felt the powerful divine power contained in the bone palm. He had to use all his strength to activate Violet Gourd's Supreme Inscription. Instantly, Violet Gourd burned and a crimson-gold fire light pillar surged out of the Gourd's mouth.

Fire Pillar was formed from Supreme Power. It was full of penetrative and destructive power.

Rumble

Fire Pillar and Pink Skull's palm mark collided. The surrounding soil melted quickly, and a blinding light spread across the entire home planet of Ghosts.

Pink Skull which was 1,800 miles tall melted the ground around her body into a lake of lava while constantly retreating.

The divine bone palm showed signs of melting as it couldn't resist the Supreme Power.

"So it's a Supreme Artifact! The Immortal Vampires' Supreme Artifact is actually in your hands. Haha, good, very good!"

Pink Skull let out a beautiful female voice. On the ring finger of her divine bone palm, there was an ancient Ruby ring.

Wisps of pink mist surged into the ring.

BZZZZZZ

On the surface of the ring, numerous Supreme Inscriptions appeared. Thousands of ancient hieroglyphs flew out of the ring and flew around it. They released an even more powerful Supreme Power and Death Qi.

"How is this possible? I see... I understand now."

Zhang Ruochen was shocked at first. But then he slowly started to understand the situation.

First of all, the Supreme Saint from Bone Clan who wielded the Supreme Artifact had always been Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Secondly, when they were fighting for the Saintwill Pills, Supreme Saint Yanhong had held Class five Regal Artifact, the Purple Cauldron. However, it was only used to confuse her opponent so that she could throw him off guard at the critical moment.

Third, Purple Cauldron was not Supreme Saint Yanhong's weapon so the power released by it was limited. That was why Zhang Ruochen — who was in Neverwilt Realm — could injure her with one palm strike.

“You understood the situation too late, just die.”

The aura from the Ruby Ring was exactly the same as the aura from Pink Skull. It was extremely ancient as if it had been worn on her finger since ancient times.

The two Supreme Artifacts clashed and both powers released were extremely terrifying. The power melted the continent they were on and turned it into a sea of lava instantly.

The spirits on the continent were quickly taken away by the Supreme Saint Ghost. Thus, they were not killed.

Saint blood flowed when the sword wound on Zhang Ruochen's back cracked

Zhang Ruochen had to control Violet Gourd with all his strength, so he didn't have the strength to suppress Amorite Curse that had invaded his body. Amorite Curse immediately flowed wildly through his body. It invaded his blood, bones, internal organs, and even rushed to his head.

“Master, I can't suppress Amorite Curse. Instead, Amorite Curse is breaking the Precepts that I have condensed. What should I do now?” Saint Devourer's anxious voice sounded in Zhang Ruochen's body.

Bang!

In the area between Zhang Ruochen and Pink Skull, the Earth core made of Siderophiles Substance shattered and formed a huge crack.

“What's going on?”

Zhang Ruochen and Pink Skull were both shocked.

Siderophiles Substance was extremely hard. It was the material used to forge Supreme Artifacts and Divine Artifacts.

How could it be shattered by the power of two Supreme Artifacts?

Although the power of Supreme Artifacts was strong, Zhang Ruochen and Pink Skull were Supreme Saints after all, not gods.

The crack went straight to the depths of the Earth's core, and banks of Golden Mist surged out.

Whoosh

Something even strange happened. Wherever the Golden Mist spread, Magma was instantly condensed and turned into solid gold.

Real Gold.

Because of the Supreme Artifact's power, the Golden Mist couldn't get close to Zhang Ruochen and Pink Skull. However, it was unknown if it's able to kill a Supreme Saint and turn one into a golden statue.

"There must be a fortuitous encounter deep underground."

Zhang Ruochen and Supreme Saint Yanhong had the same thought.

Pink Skull could see that Amorite Curse was eroding Zhang Ruochen's body. He couldn't hold on much longer and wanted to kill her faster. So, she activated the ruby ring with one hand and formed a pink flower with the other.

Thousand-Koan level Saint Technique, Death Kiss.

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and looked at the magnificent flower falling from the sky. He immediately held Violet Gourd with one hand and formed Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike with the other to activate Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill.

"You are not the only ones who have practiced Saintwill. Let me give a taste of my Saintwill."

The Dragon's roar sounded.

Millionfold Yang Qi and Precepts of the Palm were struck out at once.

At the same time, Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill combined with Palm Power was causing the power of the Palm technique to increase. With a crushing force, it shattered Pink Skull's Death Kiss.

The continuous Palm Power stuck on Pink Skull's chest had forced its 1,800-mile-tall divine bone body to retreat 17 steps.

These 17 steps were the length of thousands miles.

Ptui

Pink Skull was pushed back, while Zhang Ruochen spat out a mouthful of black blood.

The power of Amorite Curse had invaded every part of his body. Only Heart of the Divine Tree and Sea of Qi were not affected and could temporarily block it.

Without thinking, Zhang Ruochen used Violet Gourd to protect his body. He jumped into the crack of Siderophiles Substance and escaped to the unknown depths of the Earth's core.

"How is this possible? How could Zhang Ruochen's advanced Saint technique of Hundred -Shackle level Palm easily break my Death Kiss? Besides that, the remaining power of the palm technique could even repel me.

"Has his cultivation reached Grade Two Saintwill? Impossible, absolutely impossible. Even if he has the talent to fuse with Grade Two Saintwill, he can't succeed so quickly,"

Pink Skull clearly sensed how terrifying Zhang Ruochen's palm strike was. If it wasn't for Death Kiss, even if she had her body of divine bones she would have been injured.

If it had been Popobawa Ghost Emperor or Four-eyed Ghost Emperor, Zhang Ruochen could have killed them both with one palm strike.

Pink Skull felt a sense of crisis, it made her intent to kill Zhang Ruochen increase even more. The divine bones shrunk to the size of a normal human and rushed into the crack of Siderophiles Substances.

As soon as she entered the crack, she understood why the Siderophiles Substance was shattered.

That was because the real Siderophiles Substance only had a thin layer on the surface like an eggshell.

The inside of the ‘eggshell was still made of gold, but its tensile strength was far from the Siderophiles Substances.

The deeper she went into the Earth’s core, the denser the Golden Mist was. The power it contained was even more tyrannical. Even Pink Skull with the power of a Supreme Artifact found it difficult to resist.

When the Golden Mist touched her divine bone, it immediately glowed with golden light.

“What a powerful Golden Mist. How was it formed? It can even slowly assimilate divine bones. Can Zhang Ruochen resist it with his Demigod-level body that has only broken one shackle?”

Pink Skull activated Immortal arcane rune on her divine bone and continued to go deeper into the Earth’s core.

After revealing Grade two Saintwill, Zhang Ruochen knew that Pink Skull would hunt him down at all costs. So, he desperately rushed deeper into the Earth’s core. The injuries in his body continued to worsen, and his saint Qi was greatly depleted. He could no longer activate the Supreme Power of Violet Gourd.

Gradually, the Golden Mist invaded Zhang Ruochen’s body. His hair and skin turned golden at once, and he lost consciousness.

His muscles also gradually lost consciousness.

“What the hell is this place? Even a Supreme Saint can’t resist this Golden Mist,” Zhang Ruochen used all his strength to mobilize Divine Purification Flame and Millionfold Yang Qi. He recovered by melting his skin and hair that had turned into gold.

He rushed thousands miles toward the center of the Earth. The Golden Mist condensed here were in a liquid state and turned into a golden river.

“I can’t go any further. Otherwise, even Divine Purification Flame and Yang Qi won’t be able to resist it.”

Zhang Ruochen took out Thousand Dipper Ring and found that this Class four Regal Artifact had turned golden. The inscriptions inside couldn’t be activated, so it turned into an ordinary golden iron ring.

Fortunately, Violet Gourd resisted the erosion of the Golden Mist. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen turned into a light spot and hid in the gourd.

Bang!

Violet Gourd fell into the Golden River and flowed deeper with the current into the center of the Earth.

Zhang Ruochen only wanted to hide in the Gourd and refine Amorite’s Curse. He didn’t care where the river current would take him.

Pink Skull chased him to the bank of Golden River. Yet she didn’t dare to go forward as her divine bone body couldn’t resist it anymore.

At the bank of the river, she picked up Thousand Dipper Ring that had turned into a golden iron ring. Holding it in her hand, she stared at the wide Golden River and said to herself, “It seems that Zhang Ruochen doesn’t want to die at my hands and jumped into the Golden River. However, even my divine bone body can’t resist it. How can he?”

Pink Skull searched the Golden Realm again. But she couldn’t find any fortuitous encounters or traces of Zhang Ruochen. Thus, she returned to the ground.

The Fane of Destiny

“Grade two Saintwill! Bloodximus, seem like you have been hiding this secret very well. So this is the key point. No wonder Immortal Vampires agreed to let Zhang Ruochen control the Supreme Artifact.” Ghost Master’s silhouette appeared and snorted.

It had been too many years since a cultivator from Infernal Court could condense a Grade two Saintwill. This was why the deities in Fane of Destiny were shocked.

Without a doubt, Zhang Ruochen had established a solid foundation with Grade two Saintwill to become the leader of this Yuanhui period.

Another Ghost’s deity appeared and said, “It’s a pity that Zhang Ruochen was hit by Amorite Sword. The Amorite Curse has already invaded his body. Plus he was hunted down by Supreme Saint Yanhong, he’ll most likely die on Ghost’s home planet.”

The one who spoke was the city lord of Impermanenton. He was the one who gave Amorite Sword to Ye Changzai.

The city lord of Impermanenton knew a lot about the power of Amorite Sword, so he thought that Zhang Ruochen was doomed this time.

Many deities sighed. It wasn’t easy for a cultivator who could cultivate a Grade two Saintwill to be born in Infernal Court. It would be a huge loss for them if Zhang Ruochen just died like this.

Wargod Bloodximus remained calm, * Our destinies are written in the stars. I believe that Zhang Ruochen’s potential hasn’t been fully unleashed. Xu, Ye Changzai, and Supreme Saint Yanhong are too mediocre. They’re not qualified to kill him.”

The deities supporting Xu, Ye Changzai, and Supreme Saint Yanhong all snorted coldly.

One had to know that Xu, Ye Changzai, and Supreme Saint Yanhong all had a high chance of becoming gods. They were all stunning, Perhaps only a Yuanhui level genius, Wargod Bloodximus, would dare to say that they were mediocre. After all, Wargod Bloodximus stood at a different height from them.

Other deities did not dare to say such things.

This was because when they were Supreme Saint, their performance was similar to Xu, Ye Changzai, and Supreme Saint Yanhong. Some were even worse. To say that the three of them were mediocre, didn't that mean that they were mediocre as well?

Wargod Bloodximius said again, "Don't forget what's inside the Ghost's home planet."

Chapter 2309: Fukurokuju

Translator: EndlessFantasy

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Each of the ten great home planets had different fortuitous encounters.

At the same time, these ten great fortuitous encounters were also the ten tests given by Fane of Destiny to the top elites in the past thousand years. Only by passing the tests could one obtain the fortuitous encounters.

The distribution of the ten great fortuitous encounters corresponded to the physiques of the ten clan's cultivators.

It was easier for Ghosts to obtain the fortuitous encounters inside Ghost's home planet.

It was easier for Immortal Vampires to obtain the fortuitous encounters in the home planet of Immortal Vampires.

Ghost Master had always been at loggerheads with Wargod Bloodximus. He snorted coldly. "Only Ghosts can seize the fortuitous encounters in the home planet of Ghost. It's futile for other cultivators to even try."

"I don't think so. Your Ghost cultivators are useless. Letting Zhang Ruochen and Supreme Saint Yanhong break in first. With their talents, they might have a chance to seize the encounter. If so, this would be fate," said Wargod Bloodximus.

Ghost Master was actually quite worried. He's afraid that Wargod Bloodximus was right.

It would be a great humiliation for every Ghost if the fortuitous encounter that belongs to them be taken away by a cultivator from another clan.

Besides, Xu's talent was extraordinary in Ghost Master's eyes. The only Ghost who had a chance to obtain the fortuitous encounter was Xu. If Zhang Ruochen had gotten ahead of Xu, Wargod Bloodximius would definitely brag about it every time in the future. How could Ghost Master stand It?

The city lord of Impermanenton said, “How could it be so easy to seize the ten great fortuitous encounters? If I remember correctly, only Sword God Feng Chen passed the test and seized one of the ten great fortuitous encounters during the last Celestial-Hunting Festival right?”

Ghost Master said, “In the past ten thousand years, only four young Supreme Saints have successfully seized the fortuitous encounter during the last ten Celestial-Hunting Festival. There were many geniuses in different periods, but none of them succeeded.”

“The fortuitous encounters inside Ghosts’ home planet have already experienced thirty Celestial-Hunting Festival. In the past thirty thousand years, Ghost Clan has produced many outstanding cultivators, but none have succeeded in obtaining them. “Zhang Ruochen is not a Ghost, so the difficulty will only be higher. Wargod Bloodximius, you’ve placed too much hope on him. Be careful that you’ll only be disappointed.”

Wargod Bloodximius said, ” You said so much and tried every means to prove that Zhang Ruochen can’t obtain the fortuitous encounter inside Ghosts’ home planet. But it just shows the anxiety and worries in your heart. You’re afraid that Zhang Ruochen will succeed.”

He continued, “In addition, for 30,000 years the reason why Ghosts couldn’t obtain the fortuitous encounters that should belong to them can only mean that for 30,000 years Ghosts are nothing but trash. Not a single one of them has been cultivating talent.”

“What did you say?”

“How dare you!”

Rumble

Streaks of dark and dense divine power burst out in Fane of Destiny.

The Ghost deities were furious. They felt that Wargod Bloodximius was too arrogant, and was humiliating every Ghost. Wargod Bloodximius had experienced just one Yuanhui Tribulation, yet he was such an outlaw.

No Ghost — including deities from Ghosts — can endure this sentence “for 30,000 years Ghosts are nothing but trash”.

In Wargod Bloodximius’ Divine Realm, countless vast and mighty Ghost Qi and divine smoke poured in. It was like hundreds millions of Ghost soldiers invading, smashing his Divine Realm layer by layer.

Wargod Bloodximius looked at them indifferently. He raised his strong right arm and grabbed at the air. “Halberd, come to me!”

Whoosh

A blood-red halberd appeared in his hand. A divine armor automatically condensed on Wargod Bloodximius’ body. A sharp divine aura burst out, turning into a shocking blood light that destroyed all the Ghost Qi and divine smoke that had invaded his Divine Realm.

“Very good. Compared to talking, I prefer to use my fist. Who wants to fight me?” Wargod Bloodximius shouted. His body was filled with boundless vigor as if he wanted to fight all the Ghosts and Deities.

Rumble

The divine aura of Immortal Vampires’ deities burst out, turning into a bloody mist and colliding with the divine aura of Ghost’s deities.

The three lower clans and the three middle clans had a deep grudge. It was common for them to fight even if they were deities.

The nature of living beings and dead spirits was a contradiction that they could never resolve.

“If dead spritits want to grow stronger, more living beings must die. Not only the living beings of Celestial Court but also the living beings of the lower three clans will be killed.”

This was the root of their hatred!

For example, among the 12 million Ghosts that Xu had refined into Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt Physique, there were also the dead souls of Immortal Vampires and Rakshasa cultivators.

“Alright! Are you going to turn this great festival into a battlefield of gods? This is Fane of Destiny, shouldn’t everyone give me some respect?”

A God statue that was tens thousands miles tall appeared in the void. Its entire body was emitting a dazzling divine light. The Gate of Destiny behind it was three million miles tall and it was as big as a planet.

The silhouettes of the deities stood under the god statue and the Gate of Destiny. They looked extremely small, like mortals standing in front of a god.

“Greetings, Fukurokuju.”

The Ghosts and Immortal Vampire’s deities stopped fighting and returned to their own Divine realm. They sat down quietly.

The god statue spoke again, “It is because everyone here worked together, Infernal Court was able to suppress the myriad realms of Celestial Court for 100,000 years. Do you want to destroy all of the hard work with your own hands?

“I know that there are grudges and conflicts between the various clans, but why must you deities personally take action?

“All of you are existences that shake the world. You are the strongest among the billions of cultivators. You should learn to control your power. If there are grudges, let the juniors of the clans settle them. It will also be a good chance to train them.

“Even gods can not escape death, they will eventually die. The future of Infernal Court lies in the younger generation. Their strength represents the strength of your clan.

The deities were silent. No one dared to be presumptuous in front of Fukurokuju.

The statue looked in the direction of Wargod Bloodximus and said, “Wargod Bloodximus, has Zhang Ruochen really cultivated Grade two Saintwill?”

Hearing Fukurokuju takes the initiative to ask about a young Supreme Saint, the deities were surprised.

After all, Fukurokuju has an unimaginably high status. It was a great honor for any Supreme Saint that Fukurokuju knows his name and asks about it.

Fukurokuju’s attitude could determine Zhang Ruochen’s future position in Infernal Court to a certain extent.

Wargod Bloodximus withdrew his fighting spirit and stood up. He cupped his fists and said, “Thank you for asking, Fukurokuju. Zhang Ruochen has indeed cultivated Grade two Saintwill, but there are still some flaws. It can only be considered as a Quasi Grade two Saintwill.”

Even when facing a Reverend, Wargod Bloodximus had never been so humble.

However, Fukurokuju was different. He had once guided Wargod Bloodximus in his cultivation and was considered half a master of Bloodximus. It was for this reason that he, the unruly war god, respected Fukurokuju so much.

The god statue said, “It seems that your Xue Jue Family is about to usher in the most glorious era. The encounters in Ghosts’ home planet are fortuitous. They originate from God’s Ancient Nidus. If Zhang Ruochen can obtain it, his future achievements may surpass yours.”

Hearing the words “God’s Ancient Nidus”, the deities were shocked again.

The ten fortuitous encounters were all different. Even the deities of the ten clans didn’t know what they were. However, hearing what Fukurokuju said made them realize that the fortuitous encounters inside Ghosts’ home planet were more precious than they had imagined.

The statue said again, “Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting is a test for Zhang Ruochen. If he can pass it, I will give him a blessing that ensures him to cultivate in Infernal Court in peace.”

This was an extraordinary signal as it represented the will of a Reverend.

Zhang Ruochen had killed many Scions and Scionesses. He had formed enmity with many deities. With the power of Wargod Bloodximus and Blood Empress, they could protect his life. However, they couldn’t stop the deities from killing him.

However, Fukurokuju could.

Of course, the prerequisite was that Zhang Ruochen could pass the test. A test that is more than talent and strength.

In Violet Gourd, Zhang Ruochen used the power of the Golden Sun of Destruction, Heart of the Divine Tree, and Divine Purification Flame to refine Amorite’s curse that had invaded his body.

‘When he recovered to his peak state and walked out of the Gourd, he found that the Gourd was floating on an endless golden water region.

With his cultivation and the power of Supreme Artifact, he could not resist the assimilation power of the Golden Mist on the water.

“Oh no, I’ve lost my direction. How can I reach the shore and return to the ground?”

In just a few breaths’ time, Zhang Ruochen’s body turned golden.

His body was as stiff as iron. Zhang Ruochen used his spiritual power to move back into the Gourd and landed on the surface of the Golden Sun of Destruction.

This time, his skin, hair, flesh, and some of his bones turned to gold. It took Zhang Ruochen a long time to recover as flesh and blood again with the life essence of Divine Purification Flame and Heart of the Divine Tree.

“This is terrible. I’m trapped in this golden sea. I can’t get out at all.”

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He suddenly sensed something and looked surprised. He muttered to himself, "How did my spiritual power increase so much suddenly?"

After breaking through the first shackle of Hundred-Shackle Realm, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power had increased a lot, reaching the mid-stage of the 62nd level.

However, the strength of his spiritual power had increased by a large margin just now. It seemed that he was not far away from the last stage of the 62nd level.

After careful investigation, Zhang Ruochen found that the reason for the rapid growth of his spiritual power was that his body had been tured into gold. After refining it with Divine Purification Flame and the Golden Sun of Destruction, a part of the strange power had been integrated into his Spirit. This had caused a great increase of the strength of his Spirit.

Of course, there was an even bigger reason.

After refining his body with Divine Purification Flame and the Golden Sun of Destruction, Zhang Ruochen's body would have been greatly damaged. The reason why he could completely recover was that he had Heart of the Divine Tree constantly replenishing his life essence.

In other words, this process could speed up the refining and absorption of Heart of the Divine Tree.

Naturally, his spiritual power could increase rapidly.

Then, Zhang Ruochen found something even more amazing. The second shackle on his right arm had become much looser during the transformation of gold and flesh.

It was a pleasant surprise.

"With the help of Fugue Pill, I should be able to break the second shackle."

It was difficult to escape from here. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen started cultivating in Violet Gourd.

Bang!

After seven strikes, Zhang Ruochen successfully broke the second shackle on his right arm. Suddenly, his Demigod-level physique released more powerful divine power.

Zhang Ruochen stood above the Golden Sun of Destruction. He raised his arms which were shining with divine light, and smiled, "The process of transforming into gold and flesh is so mysterious. This transformation alone is more effective than breaking through 1,000 shackles."

"Moreover, during the transformation, there seems to be some mysterious power of metal property that has merged with my flesh, spiritual power, and Saint Soul."

Zhang Ruochen's expression changed, and he flew out of the Gourd again.

Standing on the Gourd, Zhang Ruochen searched for the direction of the Ground while taking the initiative to accept the erosion of the Golden Mist.

His skin, his flesh, and his bones all lost consciousness completely.

This time, Zhang Ruochen took a risk. He waited until only his sea of Qi had not been turned into gold before he used spiritual power to move his body and flew back to the Gourd.

In this way, his entire body turned into gold.

It took Zhang Ruochen longer than the last time to recover his body.

The process of transforming from gold to flesh was actually very painful. It was as if every inch of flesh and blood in his body had melted and condensed again.

If it were not for Zhang Ruochen's strong will, he would not have dared to try a second time.

It was simply an act of self-abuse.

Although the process was torturous, the rewards were huge.

After this transformation from gold to flesh, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power had officially reached the last stage of the 62nd level. At the same time, he successfully broke the third shackle on his right leg.

“Continue.”

The pleasure brought by the increase in cultivation and power made Zhang Ruochen forget the pain of the body's transformation process. Instead, he began to enjoy the process.

The third transformation.

In the fourth transformation, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power reached the peak of the 62nd level and broke the fourth shackle.

The fifth transformation.

In the seventh transformation, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power reached the 63rd level and broke the fifth shackle.

In the tenth transformation, his spiritual power reached the mid-stage of the 63rd level and broke the sixth shackle.

The transformation continued.

Zhang Ruochen was completely immersed in it. He thought to himself, “Danger and fortuitous encounter coexist. The Golden Mist can kill a Supreme Saint and turn one into a golden statue. However, it can also quickly raise one's cultivation base. Even cultivating with Sundial isn't this fast.”

Zhang Ruochen didn't know that among Supreme Saints below Thousand-Koan Realm, no one could repeatedly transform their body like him.

First of all, he had Five-element Chaotic Neverwither Physique. He had a strong receptivity to metal properties as it's in one of the five elements.

The Five Elements were a process that could circulate and transform each other.

Metal creates water, water creates wood, wood creates fire, fire creates Earth, and Earth creates metal.

Apart from that, his Demigod-level physique was nurtured from the divine blood of Blood Phoenix. With the Immortal Vampire bloodline, his vitality was far stronger than other Supreme Saints. Even if his body was damaged, he could recover.

Furthermore, he still had the life treasure, Heart of the Divine Tree.

It was because of these advantages that Zhang Ruochen could continuously transform his body between gold and flesh.

Assuming it was a Pink Skull with a divine bone body, even if she recovered after the golden transformation, her divine bone would still be damaged to a certain extent. After multiple transformations, she would gain nothing but harm her origin.

She could not transform the five elements. If she fought with strength, she would only be injured.

Moreover, the power of the metal attribute could not be transformed into water, wood, fire, and Earth properties that could merge with her body. Naturally, she would not be able to absorb the benefits contained in the Golden Mist..

Chapter 2310: Intergold Tiger

After 62 times of turning into gold, Zhang Ruochen had broken the 14th shackle. His spiritual power had reached the late stage of the 64th level, and he now had eighty thousand Spirits.

Zhang Ruochen's body seemed to have absorbed too much mysterious power of metal properties. The Golden Mist was influencing him lesser over time.

Even if he stood in the Golden Mist for an hour, his skin showed no signs of turning into gold.

Later, Zhang Ruochen directly entered the golden water region and immersed himself in it. Finally, he could affect his body again. However, after more than ten times the process of turning into gold, his body was completely immune.

It was amazing. Zhang Ruochen would have died without a doubt if he had touched the golden water a few days ago.

But now, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't even be affected if he swam freely in it.

Sitting on the Gourd, Zhang Ruochen spread his hands. Golden Light appeared on each fingerprint, and every pore turned into golden light spots.

Under his skin, the muscle lines turned golden, and golden threads appeared in his bones.

Even his pupils had a layer of golden edges.

His hair was still black. But when it swayed in the wind, it would shine with golden light.

His Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique had undergone a huge change.

"The Precept of Five-elements, Path of Gold in sea of Qi have greatly increased. It's time to merge the Golden Body Saintwill with Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. In this way, the level of Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill will become real Grade two Saintwill, not an ordinary one.”

Zhang Ruochen had long cultivated Gold Saintwill, Fire Saintwill, and Earth Saintwill with the help of the esoteric mark he had obtained from Wargod Bloodximius.

Together with Fist Saintwill, Palm Saintwill, Water Saintwill, and Wood Saintwill which had been integrated into one, Zhang Ruochen had cultivated seven Saintwills in total.

Entering Violet Gourd and sitting cross-legged on the surface of the Golden Sun of Destruction, Zhang Ruochen mobilized the Precepts of Five-elements, Path of Gold to activate the Golden Body Saintwill.

Whoosh —

The Golden Body Saintwill instantly merged with his body. Zhang Ruochen’s body turned golden and emitted boundless light.

Zhang Ruochen had cultivated Nine-tremors Saintwill, Heavenly Stream Saintwill, and so on, but the Golden Body Saintwill was completely different from them. It was a type of defensive Saintwill that could strengthen one’s power at the same time.

“yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill.”

Zhang Ruochen formed a seal with his hands and slowly lifted them.

The Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, which contained Fist Saintwill, Palm Saintwill, Water Saintwill, and Wood Saintwill appeared. A Heavenly Stream wrapped in a blood-red sun spun above his head.

“All Saintwills unite, Five-elements as one.”

Under Zhang Ruochen’s guidance, the abnormal image of Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill slowly descended and collided with his body.

Boom!

With the current strength of Zhang Ruochen's body, he still felt as if he had been hit hard. It was like all the bones in his body were about to be shattered.

It was not an illusion. His body could really explode and die.

If he had not absorbed a large amount of the metal properties' mysterious power, broken through 14 shackles, and released a large amount of the power of Demigod-level physique, Zhang Ruochen suspected that he would not be able to withstand the first wave of impact.

This was the first time he truly felt how dangerous it was to fuse with Saintwills.

"According to Divine Sky-connecting Tree, fusing five types of Saintwill is the limit of a cultivator. Furthermore, there are very few cultivators who can successfully fuse five types of Saintwill. There was only one person who succeeded in fusing five types of Saintwill.

"What I'm going to do now is to surpass my predecessors. I have to grit my teeth and persevere. If I can't fuse the fifth, how can I fuse the sixth and seventh?"

Zhang Ruochen felt that he could do it with the fortuitous encounter he had obtained here.

Rumble

The process of Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill attacking his body was like Zhang Ruochen attacking himself with the power of Saintwill. It was much more difficult than he had imagined.

After three breaths only, Zhang Ruochen was heavily injured, All Saintwill dispersed and he spat out a mouthful of Saint blood.

"Again."

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were sharp. Without any hesitation, he immediately began the second fusion.

"PFFT."

A moment later, he spat out another mouthful of saint blood.

“Again.”

He failed repeatedly, but he also recovered over and over again.

It was as if Zhang Ruochen was challenging the limits of his body. After 17 tries, the power of Saintwill penetrated his powerful body. Cracks like ceramic appeared on his skin, his muscles showed signs of breaking, and some of his bones began to break.

Hold on, hold on.

Zhang Ruochen could hold on for 15 minutes. As long as he continued to hold on, the Golden Body Saintwill would merge with Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill and become a higher level of Saintwill.

Crack

Some internal organs were broken in his abdomen.

The bones above his head were sunken.

Intense pain came from all parts of his body. Even the transformation process of gold and flesh was far less torturous than this moment.

His life was under an unprecedented threat. If he continued to persevere, he might succeed, but there was also a high possibility that he would die experimenting on himself.

“To fight against long odds is either to succeed or die. The nature of the Five-elements should not be fighting head-on. Instead, they should restrain and generate each other. In the continuous cycle, all the contradictions will be resolved.”

Zhang Ruochen seemed to have thought it through. He suddenly opened his eyes while remaining in the cross-legged position. He used spiritual power to move his broken body and flew out of the Gourd.

Forcing the Golden Body Saintwill to merge with Yin-Yang Five-Element after using the power of the Golden Sun of Destruction was obviously not the best idea.

If he could think another way, he might be able to get an unexpected result.

splash

Zhang Ruochen's body fell into the golden water region.

Soon, his body was covered by the golden liquid. His mouth and nose were sealed, and his pores were closed. He sank deep into the water.

The pain caused by Saintwill gradually disappeared, and the injuries on his body slowly healed.

Zhang Ruochen was overjoyed. He understood that this was a sign that Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill will merge with the Golden Body Saintwill. It was Water Saintwill and Wood Saintwill of Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill that were repairing the golden body.

Zhang Ruochen was completely relieved. He fully understood the mystery of the Saintwills merging process.

Half a day later, the Five Saintwills merged into one. A stronger Grade two Saintwill was born. The golden light on Zhang Ruochen's body became brighter. The golden water around him turned into a chaotic whirlpool and kept spinning.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen had a very mysterious feeling. It was as if he had become the incarnation of Heaven and Earth. He could give birth to everything and change the nature of everything with one thought.

However, this feeling only lasted for a moment before it disappeared.

"Could that feeling just now be the legendary mortal way of communicating with Deva Path? The two paths into one?"

Zhang Ruochen was shocked to find that he resonated with Heaven and Earth in a short instant. The number of Precepts in Heavenly Stream inside his sea of Qi had increased by one billion.

One had to know that cultivating Precepts was something that all Supreme Saints had to do.

In addition, a Supreme Saint from Hundred-Shackle Realm also had to cultivate Precepts to break the shackles on one's body. Only when there were enough Precepts would it be more helpful to break the shackles.

Now, he had 2.8 billion Precepts in his body.

“That state just now was too amazing. In just an instant, it was equivalent to eating Ampliofruit and increasing one billion Precepts. If it could last longer, wouldn't there be more Precepts?”

Zhang Ruochen thought to himself. Maybe after merging the sixth and seventh Saintwills, he would be able to resonate with Heaven and Earth again.

“I didn't expect the first cultivator to merge with Apex Intergold Qi to be an Immortal Vampire. Wait, you have human blood in your body. The descendants of humans and Immortal Vampires, that's interesting.”

A vast and illusory voice suddenly resonated in Zhang Ruochen's ears.

“Who is that? Who's speaking?”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. There was still a living creature at the bottom of the Golden Water region?

He opened his eyes and looked forward. He saw a vast golden world in front of him. In the distance, there was a white sacred mountain.

Even though he was far away, Zhang Ruochen felt a huge pressure on the sacred mountain. His heart pounded violently.

Crash.

The white sacred mountain shook and lifted its huge head.

Only at this moment did Zhang Ruochen realize that it was not a sacred mountain, but a white tiger lying on the ground. The huge white tiger's head filled Zhang Ruochen's field of vision.

A pair of golden eyes like two stars was very penetrating. It was as if it could see through all of Zhang Ruochen's secrets.

Unlike other tigers, it didn't have markings on the tiger's forehead that resembles the Chinese character for "King'."

Instead, it had the Chinese character "Inter".

It was very ancient and had a special character. Zhang Ruochen recalled it for a long time before remembering that he had seen the same font in a book called the Secret Records of God's Ancient Nidus in Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

It seemed to be answering Zhang Ruochen. It said, "The deities of Infernal Court call me Intergold Tiger. I've been sleeping here for 30,000 years."

Zhang Ruochen was shocked and confused. The Intergold Tiger in front of him was obviously not a Supreme saint. It must be a Divine beast and not an ordinary one.

Why was there a Divine beast sleeping inside Ghost's home planet?

If it was a coincidence, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't believe it.

The key was, which clan did it belong to?

It didn't seem to be related to any of the ten clans.

"I'm sorry, senior. I came here by mistake. I didn't mean to disturb your deep sleep. Goodbye!" Zhang Ruochen wanted to leave, but he found that he couldn't move. The surface of his body had turned into gold, restricting his ability to move.

Intergold Tiger said slowly, "Not all cultivators have the ability to come here. You're the first in 30,000 years. You've reached the most basic condition by fusing with Apex Intergold Qi."

"I saw that you have fused five kinds of Saintwills and cultivated a medium Grade two Saintwill. You had a chance to reach the top Grade two Saintwill, but unfortunately, your Saintwill has a big flaw."

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, "I'm grateful for your Apex Intergold Qi. Otherwise, it would have been difficult for me to succeed without such an encounter."

“Do you know why you are here?” Intergold Tiger suddenly asked.

Chapter 2311: A Test

“What’s the reason?” Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen immediately realized that it was not a coincidence that a Divine beast was sleeping inside the home planet of the Ghost.

Intergold Tiger said, “It seems that you didn’t know.”

“Please enlighten me, Senior.” Zhang Ruochen requested.

“You have fused with the Apex Intergold Qi, and you are only qualified to see me,” Intergold Tiger said. “I’ve also got a test for you. If you pass the test and come back here to see me, I’ll tell you everythin Zhang Ruochen frowned. He could not figure out what Intergold Tiger meant.

“Test? What test?” Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen was about to ask what benefits he would get if he passed the test.

However, Intergold Tiger said first, “You should ask what my test is first. Because if you can’t pass my test, you are not qualified to know what you will get.”

Did Intergold Tiger just see through Zhang Ruochen’s thoughts?

Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power had reached the advanced stage of the 64th level. He had a strong mental defense. As long as his thoughts and memories weren’t forcibly taken, even a god couldn’t see through his thoughts.

What secret could he hide if someone saw through his heart?

Zhang Ruochen’s hair stood on end. He would have known what he was thinking if it had been a god from the Infernal Court.

He didn’t dare to think about it anymore.

Intergold Tiger said, “You’re scared. I can sense it. You don’t have to be so scared. Even a god isn’t omnipotent.

“A god can plunder your memories and look into your heart. But it’s not easy to read your thoughts. Only someone with the spiritual power of 80th level can do it.

“After all, your will is very strong, It’s easy to break through the defense of your spiritual power, but it’s difficult to break through the defense of willpower.

“There are very few spiritual power gods whose spiritual power has reached the 70th level. Those who can reach the 80th level are all first-class figures. In their eyes, you are no different from a bug in your eyes. Will you read the thoughts of a bug at any time?”

Zhang Ruochen did not feel any hostility from Intergold Tiger. He immediately calmed down and asked, “So your spiritual power has reached the 80th level and above?”

“No!” Intergold Tiger exclaimed. “Despite being a Divine beast, I am not adept at spiritual power. I can spy on your thoughts because you absorbed my Apex Intergold Qi and integrated it into your body, spiritual power, Saint Soul, and even the Precepts that you have cultivated.”

It then added, “Of course, my spiritual power is not far from the 80th level.”

There were countless gods whose spiritual power was less than the 70th level.

For example, among Supreme Saints, those whose spiritual power was less than the 60th level accounted for a huge majority. As for Supreme Saints like the Wujiang, Lord Xia Yu, and Xu, to be able to cultivate their spiritual power to the 64th level and above in the Hundred-Shackle Realm was already one of the few existences in the entire Infernal Court in the past thousand years. They stood at the pinnacle.

Not only did they have the potential to become gods, but they were also even more outstanding and powerful than many gods of the same age and realm.

Of course, this was only the case at the current stage.

‘Whether or not they could become gods was closely related to their talent, but it was not absolute.

Since ancient times, countless cultivators had outstanding talent but were unable to reach divinity. Some had flaws in their state of mind; some had gone astray. Some had died an unnatural death. Some had been destroyed by inner demons, and some had exhausted their potential and returned to mediocrity.

On the other hand, the more talented cultivators cultivated divinity because they had a larger base.

Intergold Tiger claimed that it wasn’t good at spiritual power, but it also said that its spiritual power wasn’t far from the 80th level. Zhang Ruochen was shocked. He thought to himself that Intergold Tiger wasn’t a simple Divine beast.

Such a powerful Divine beast did not call itself a god... instead, it called itself “I”. There was no condescending contempt, but Zhang Ruochen felt a sense of closeness.

Zhang Ruochen cleared his mind and asked, “What is your test for me, Senior?”

Intergold Tiger said, “Are you participating in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting in the Infernal Court? I want you to defeat the most powerful cultivator on this battlefield and bring at least one of his hands to see me. Then, you will naturally understand what you can get. Go!”

Zhang Ruochen wanted to ask again, but he suddenly felt his body become light. In the next moment, his feet landed on the ground.

‘Where was Intergold Tiger?

At that moment, he stood on the bank of the golden river when he came. He raised his hand and found the Violet Gourd in his palm. The gourd seemed to have absorbed the Apex Intergold Qi. The golden light it emitted became even more intense.

‘To defeat the most powerful cultivator on this battlefield? Que? Or is it the Celestial Captive Lord Hornless of the Banshi Isshou Realm? Or is Intergold Tiger talking about itself?' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head immediately. He didn't think it was that bad.

'Forget it. I'll return to the surface.' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Three days had passed since Zhang Ruochen had entered the underground.

After many battles, the Star-Shield Grand Formation of the Ghost's home planet had been broken. Eight of the nine continents had been destroyed. Some had turned into a sea of lava, while others had turned into thousands of miles of yellow sand. It was dead silent, no living beings or dead souls could be seen.

Regardless of whether it was the cultivators of the three upper clans or the three middle clans, they were all severely injured.

Pan Ruo, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Mistress Fireborn, Lord Sinluo, and Mad Whitejade Lion gathered together and hid in a star fog about 100,000 miles away from the Ghost's home planet.

"The Ghost's Supreme Saints are already returning to protect their home planet. We can not continue to attack. Your Highness Pan Ruo, shouldn't we retreat?" Mad Whitejade Lion asked while panting.

Three days ago, Mad Whitejade Lion was attacked by Ye Changzai and the Four-eyed Ghost Emperor. He was the most severely injured. Luckily, he could escape. Otherwise, he would have died on the home planet of the Ghost.

Mistress Fireborn was injured by Supreme Saint Yanhong. She was no longer as charming and energetic as before. Her beautiful face was stained with blood and her aura was much weaker than when she was at her pinnacle. The injuries in her body could not be healed in a short period.

Mistress Fireborn regretted participating in this operation, she said, "More than half of the souls on the Ghost's home planet have been destroyed. They have lost their ability to compete in this Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Why must we destroy the souls on the last continent? I agree with Mad Whitejade Lion. We should retreat now.”

Pan Ruo’s gaze was cold. She immediately shook her head and said, “No, we haven’t found Zhang Ruochen yet.”

“Supreme Saint Yanhong said that he died in the depths of the Ghost’s home planet. It can’t be fake,” Mistress Fireborn said.

She had fought with Supreme Saint Yanhong before and knew how terrifying she was. Even a cultivator at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm couldn’t last more than a few rounds. Even if Zhang Ruochen could turn the sky upside down, he would probably die.

Pan Ruo said, “Impossible! The Ampliofruit, the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, and the gourd weren’t with Supreme Saint Yanhong. This means that she did not see Zhang Ruochen’s body at all. This is just her own speculation.

“Other than the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill on Que’s hands, what else is more precious than Zhang Ruochen’s corpse in the Battle of Celestial-Huntingfield?

“Are you willing to return empty-handed?”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei’s face turned slightly pale, he advised, “Your Highness, I can understand your feelings. I also want to get Zhang Ruochen’s treasures. I want to find out what’s so great inside the Ghost’s home planet? However, we’re all heavily injured now.

“There are close to 100 Ghost’s Supreme Saints gathered on the last continent of their home planet. There are also two Supreme Artifacts protecting it. Even if we’re at our best, we won’t be able to win if we force our way in.

“This time, we’ve achieved great results. Not only did we get rid of Zhang Ruochen, but we’ve also severely injured the Ghost. We don’t have to waste any more time.”

Pan Ruo’s eyes were fixed on the Ghost’s home planet. She was expressionless, but her hands and fingers were tightly clasped together. Everyone knew that her emotions must be fluctuating greatly.

In the distance, the black planet, which had been filled with Ghostly Qi, had large cracks in many places, emitting golden light.

“I still can’t accept it. The Ampliofruit and the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill on Zhang Ruochen are things that can not be found anywhere again. They are of great use to me.”

Pan Ruo turned around, stared at Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, and bowed.

“Your Highness, what are you doing?”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei quickly helped her up.

Pan Ruo said, “I want to use The Scroll of Truth and Deceit and sneak into the depths of the Ghost’s home planet to find Zhang Ruochen’s corpse.”

“No! Even with my cultivation, I can’t resist the golden mist from the depths of the Earth. Even if you wield a Supreme Artifact, it will be very dangerous,” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said.

Pan Ruo smiled, “As the saying goes, fortune comes from danger. Zhang Ruochen’s Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and Ampliofruit were worth the risk. Besides, I’ve cultivated the Door of Trueself. I can weaken the effect of the golden mist on me. I can give it a try.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Mistress Fireborn, Lord Sinluo, and Mad Whitejade Lion all admired Pan Ruo’s boldness. At the same time, they knew why she did it.

If they were still in the Neverwilt Realm and hadn’t started to condense the Saintwill, they might have risked their lives.

After all, if Pan Ruo in the Neverwilt Realm could find the Ampliofruit and the Saintwill Pill on Zhang Ruochen, she would definitely be able to cultivate a stronger Saintwill. Whether she’s in the Neverwilt Realm or the Hundred-Shackle Realm, there would be endless benefits for her.

Pan Ruo said, “Don’t worry. If my luck is very bad and I die inside the Ghost’s home planet and lose The Scroll of Truth and Deceit, all the treasures I left behind will be yours as compensation.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei sighed and was about to hand The Scroll of Truth and Deceit to Pan Ruo when suddenly, Mad Whitejade Lion beside him roared, “Oh my God! Who did that? Look, the last continent on the Ghost’s home planet has been sunk by a huge golden palm print..”

Chapter 2312: The Event That Shook the World

The giant golden palm print was a thousand miles long, It was like light and fog, sometimes illusory and sometimes real. It continuously emitted soul-stirring energy fluctuations.

Rumble

Below the palm print, there were Supreme Saints of the Ghost fought with all their might. Some used Immaterial Artifacts, while others used high-level saint techniques. However, it was too late. The entire continent continued to sink and the giant home planet shook violently.

A moment later, standing in the starry sky, the dust billowing and chaotic energy can be seen on the distant planet.

A shocking five-finger handprint crater was imprinted on the surface of the planet.

Golden cracks were all around the handprint crater, and the light mist turned into a waterfall.

A bright golden light dot floated above the handprint crater.

Cultivators from the three upper clans flew quickly toward the Ghost's home planet. They finally saw clearly that the golden light dot was a human figure.

“Zhang... Zhang Ruochen, he's not dead...” Mad Whitejade Lion said in a trembling voice. His eyes were filled with shock.

Pan Ruo stood at the front. A flash of undetectable light appeared in her cold eyes.

Whoosh

The ten wings on Zhang Ruochen's back spread. His entire body shone with golden light. Like a god descending from heaven, he slowly landed on the ground.

There was a Ghost city that remained standing in the center of Zhang Ruochen's thousand-mile-wide crater.

The Pleiades Lotus was propped up in the Ghost city by Xu and a few Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm of the Ghost. With the help of the Supreme Power, they were able to block the palm print and save the Ghost City.

Standing on the pitch-black city wall, Supreme Saint Yanhong in Pink Skull form looked at Zhang Ruochen falling from the sky and said in disbelief, "How is this possible? Is that really Zhang Ruochen? Didn't you say that he died underground?"

The two Bone Clan Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, Moon-Bull Emperor and Lord Sparrow Bone, flew to the left and right sides of Pink Skull.

At the same time, Xu, Popobawa Ghost Emperor, Four-eyed Ghost Emperor, and Ye Changzai gathered from all over the city.

"His body was invaded by the power of the Amorite Curse, but it was completely resolved in just three days. and... his cultivation seems to be even higher than before," Ye Changzai said in surprise.

"It's not just higher than before. Compared to three days ago, Zhang Ruochen is much stronger," Xu said with a serious expression as if he was facing a great enemy.

Xu had felt great pressure when fighting with Zhang Ruochen with the Supreme Artifact.

Xu would never have felt this way when fighting with Zhang Ruochen in the past.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the Supreme Saints in the Ghost city and raised his voice. "Xu, we haven't finished yet. Do you dare to fight with me again?"

"Why not?" said Xu.

Xu activated his 300-meters-tall Primordial Ghost Emperor-level Physique and flew out of the Ghost city with the Pleiades

Lotus to confront Zhang Ruochen.

He was the one who invited Zhang Ruochen to fight on the Ghost's home planet. If he didn't show up, wouldn't he be a joke to all the cultivators in the Infernal Court?

Besides, even if Zhang Ruochen became stronger, how strong could he be in just a few days?

Even if Xu was facing elites like Wujiang and Luo Shengtian, he would still dare to fight them head-on. Even if he could not win, he would still have the confidence to escape. Could Zhang Ruochen be stronger than Wujiang and Luo Shengtian?

"Very good," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's speed was as fast as lightning. In an instant, he collided with Xu.

Bang

Zhang Ruochen's fist collided with the black light shield formed by the Pleiades Lotus. Two powerful forces tore the ground under their feet into pieces.

BOOM!

Zhang Ruochen used the Luoshui Fist Technique, and the fist shadows fell like raindrops.

He didn't use the Saintwill, but each fist contained divine force, along with tens of millions of Precepts of Fist and the power of the dragon and elephant soul of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

The sound of the fists was like the waves of the ocean hitting a reef.

"Bare-handed fighting with the Supreme Artifact. Is Zhang Ruochen's body so terrifying?" A Supreme Saint in Ghost City said as he felt his heart tremble.

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor's eyes had extraordinary powers. He could see something was off and he said, "Zhang Ruochen has broken at least 10 shackles. The divine force contained in the Demigod-level physique is being activated. He... He's getting stronger. I'm afraid we'll be in big trouble today.

Everyone, get ready to fight.”

With these words, it was clear that the Four-eyed Ghost Emperor was not as upbeat as he had been.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor was confused. “No, no. Zhang Ruochen can’t break more than 10 shackles in just three days, even with the help of the Fugue Pill and the Power of Time. He must have gotten some kind of opportunity underground.”

Pink Skull lightly stamped her feet and snorted.

A Ghost Supreme Saint who was burning with spectral flame said, “How strange. Why didn’t Xu use the power of the Supreme Artifact to fight back? I don’t believe that Zhang Ruochen’s power is strong enough to suppress the Supreme Artifact.”

“Of course, Zhang Ruochen can’t fight against the Supreme Artifact with his bare hands. But he can use his power and speed to suppress Xu with the Supreme Power of the Supreme Artifact. It takes time for the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint to activate the power of the Supreme Artifact. Zhang Ruochen didn’t give Xu time,” Pink Skull said.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor’s expression was stern. He said coldly, “I think we must attack now and combine all our powers to kill Zhang Ruochen. A one-on-one fight will only give Zhang Ruochen a chance to defeat each of them.”

Pink Skull sent a voice transmission to Ming, the eighth son of the Ghost Lord. She said, “Is Supreme Saint Manjian still alive? Bring him here.”

BOOM!

Xu held the Pleiades Lotus with both hands and used Supreme Power to form a black light shield.

The black light shield was sometimes dimmed and sometimes dented by Zhang Ruochen’s fist power.

Only part of the Supreme Inscriptions could appear on the Pleiades Lotus. It couldn’t recover completely and its power was suppressed.

“Damn it. How did Zhang Ruochen’s power become so strong?”

Xu stepped back one at a time. Gritting his teeth, he tried his best to circulate the Ghost Qi.

Even without the Supreme Artifact, Xu could have suppressed Zhang Ruochen if it had been before. However, the situation had now been completely reversed.

“Banshee Polearm,” Xu called out.

Xu released powerful spiritual power and mobilized the Ghost Qi on the Ghost’s home planet to form a black polearm.

“Now die,” Xu said.

The black polearm took the shape of a snake and released a bone-chilling fog. It drew a serpentine arc and hit Zhang Ruochen’s back.

The 64th level of spiritual power was the biggest reason why Xu could surpass Supreme Saint Yanhong, Lord Bladehell, and the others and rank seventh. Otherwise, he wouldn’t be able to be above Supreme Saint Yanhong and Lord Bladehell just by relying on his Path’s cultivation.

Zhang Ruochen ignored the black polearm approaching from behind. He released his spiritual power and condensed a light shield behind him as he waved his fist.

Rumble

The black polearm and the light shield clashed fiercely.

The light shield didn’t shatter as Xu had expected. Instead, it blocked his Banshee Polearm and formed circles of energy tides.

“Your spiritual power... damn it, you’ve been hiding the strength of your spiritual power.”

Xu had no idea Zhang Ruochen could boost his spiritual power by two levels in just three days.

This improvement was comparable to the hundreds of years of hard cultivation of other Supreme Saints.

Boom

A golden wing on Zhang Ruochen's back slashed out and sent the black polearm flying.

Taking advantage of the time when Xu's emotions were fluctuating violently, Zhang Ruochen released the Realm-frame of Truth and turned the area within 10,000 miles into a dazzling sea of stars. It was brilliant and beautiful.

He formed palm prints with both hands, and a dragon and elephant phantom rushed out from his left and right arms.

Xu knew very well that Zhang Ruochen was going to merge the Path of Truth into his Palm technique and stimulate ten times the attack power. So, Xu spat out a mouthful of Origin of Ghost Qi and poured it into the Pleiades Lotus.

Crash

The Supreme Inscriptions in the Pleiades Lotus were activated quickly and released a huge amount of Supreme Power.

The Supreme Power condensed into seven black lotus flowers. The black lotus flowers burned with a spectral flame that was hotter than normal Emperor-level Divine Purification Flame. The space was distorted.

"Dragon-Elephant Destruction." Zhang Ruochen called out.

Zhang Ruochen unleashed the 13th strike of the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike. With the augmentation of the Precept of Truth, it exploded with ten times the attack power. It clashed fiercely with the seven black lotus flowers.

Boom

The violent destructive power surged in all directions.

In Ghost City, all the Supreme Saints changed their expressions. They quickly attacked together. The Immaterial Artifacts and Regal Artifacts joined together. They finally blocked the impact of the Supreme Power and Palm strike.

The ground under Zhang Ruochen and Xu's feet melted quickly, turning into red lava.

To be precise, the entire continent was melting. It couldn't withstand the aftermath of the battle between the two Supreme Saints.

Xu's Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique began to burn. He kept letting out a long howl as he tried his best to hold on. After a while, he felt that Zhang Ruochen's Palm strike was rapidly weakening.

"Haha! With the Pleiades Lotus, I can kill a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint and threaten a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. Zhang Ruochen actually dares to fight against a Supreme Artifact with his bare hands. Do you really think that the ten times attack power of the Path of Truth can make you invincible in the world?"

Xu spat out a mouthful of Origin of Ghost Qi again on the Pleiades Lotus. "Today, I will refine you to death here."

In the Ghost city.

Seeing Xu gradually gaining the upper hand, the Ghost Supreme Saints who had planned to attack Zhang Ruochen together all breathed a sigh of relief and smiled.

Only two balls of flames appeared in Pink Skull's deep eye sockets. She felt an unusual power fluctuation and said, "Oh no, Zhang Ruochen has activated the power of the Saintwill."

The Ghost Supreme Saints didn't care. So what if he had activated the Saintwill?

Could the Saintwill fight against a Supreme Artifact?

In the same realm, whoever had a Supreme Artifact was invincible.

Boom

Powerful energy burst out of Zhang Ruochen's body and broke through the defensive light shield formed by the Pleiades Lotus.

In an instant, the seven black lotus flowers were all shattered.

Zhang Ruochen struck Xu's chest with his palm, causing Xu's eyes to widen. Layers upon layers of palm power appeared to be capable of toppling mountains and turning seas. It ripped a huge hole through the 300-meter-tall Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique.

‘Xu was like a scarecrow, he flew backward and crashed heavily into the array formation of the Ghost city.

Bang

The light of the array formation dimmed for a moment and was almost shattered by him.

Xu had suffered a severe injury that had never been seen before. Many forces were at work in his body. He collapsed to the ground and was unable to stand. He could only sit back and watch as Zhang Ruochen approached him one step at a time.

Zhang Ruochen’s body emitted a five-colored chaotic light. Above his head, there was a mysterious phenomenon of water and fire mixing together. A heavenly river flowed around a blood sun.

“Your Saintwill... is of the Grade Two?”

Xu’s fingers clenched hard. He really wanted to stand up again.

Zhang Ruochen stepped on his back and pushed Xu down again. He said, “As a loser, you don’t have the right to know.”

The Pleiades Lotus crashed into Zhang Ruochen’s chest under the control of the vessel spirit.

The Violet Gourd hanging from his waist flew up automatically. It instantly became as big as a palace and sucked in the Pleiades Lotus that flew toward Zhang Ruochen.

The world suddenly became very quiet.

The Ghost Supreme Saints were all in awe of what they were witnessing. Xu, the Ghost’s number one elite who holds a Supreme Artifact, had been defeated by Zhang Ruochen. He’d been trampled beneath his feet.

Zhang Ruochen’s long hair was disheveled. He slowly raised his head and stared at Ming, who was standing on the city wall. He said in a commanding tone, “Let him go.”

In the starry sky.

Looking at Zhang Ruochen’s unrivaled heroism, Lord Sinluo, Mistress Fireborn, and the others couldn’t help but feel suffocated.

In their hearts, they compared Zhang Ruochen to Wujiang.

Could Wujiang defeat Xu in such a crushing manner?

“How can his Saintwill be so powerful? Could it be... could it be that he fused a Grade Two Saintwill with the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said in a trembling voice.

Although Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was the number one elite of the Deathkin, the Saintwill he fused was only of Grade Four.

He knew very well how difficult it was to fuse a Grade Three Saintwill.

Fusing a Grade Two Saintwill was an unimaginable achievement. Even the Peerless Sword God, Feng Chen, didn’t succeed a thousand years ago. He was just a little bit away from the Grade Two Saintwill.

“This is even more interesting! Only in this state can Zhang Ruochen compete with the elites of the three middle clans. Both sides will most likely be injured. Our chance is here!” said Pan Ruo with a joyful smile.

The cultivators who saw the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms were all excited.

‘Xu was extremely famous in both the Infernal Court and the Celestial Court. He was a peerless evil spirit. Zhang Ruochen defeated Xu and crushed the faith of countless Ghost cultivators. At the same time, it shocked all the cultivators in the Celestial Court.

No one had thought that Zhang Ruochen could become so powerful in such a short time.

In the Fane of Merit, Shang Ziyan’s eyes were bloodshot. He roared angrily. He was extremely unpleasant.

His heart was filled with hatred.

‘Not only did he hate Zhang Ruochen, but he also hated the prominent figure of the Heavenly Realm who had resurrected him. ‘His death was also a relief. Why did he have to resurrect him? Shang Ziyan thought.

Facing an enemy like Zhang Ruochen, Shang Ziyan felt extremely desperate.

Lian Xi was in the valley of Destiny’s Creek. She fixed her gaze on the projection above her head. In her beautiful pearl-like eyes, a complicated light appeared. There was hatred, but her heart was racing at a breakneck pace. She couldn’t keep her joy under control, no matter how hard she tried.

Why did she feel joy when she saw Zhang Ruochen become stronger?

Shouldn’t she feel afraid and fear?

Of course, the most intense reaction was in the Fane of Destiny. After all, other cultivators only saw the surface, but the gods saw something more profound.

Chapter 2313: God's Ancient Nidus

“What are the opportunities inside the Ghost’s home planet? Why has Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation suddenly increased so much?” A six-horned deity revealed his divine shadow and asked.

The gods couldn’t figure out what was happening inside the Ghost’s home planet, but they could sense that Zhang Ruochen wasn’t the same as before. His strength had increased too quickly.

When Rayan, King of Devala, the Rakshasa’s number one divine kingdom, revealed his divine shadow, he inquired, “Zhang Ruochen has condensed the Grade Two Saintwill, and it’s formed from the Saintwill of five different paths. In this world, he is unbeatable. “Has he already gotten the chance of the God’s Ancient Nidus?”

The gods of the Ghost fell silent. The realm of the divine became deathly silent.

Ghost Lord’s eyes were cold, and his anger soared to the sky.

The Fukurokuju Statue said, “He hasn’t gotten the opportunity yet, but he’s passed the test. He’s qualified to get the opportunity.”

Even with the wisdom of the gods, it was hard to understand what Fukurokuju meant.

Zhang Ruochen had passed the test, but he still couldn’t get the opportunity?

Wargod Bloodximus was in a good mood. He asked, “Reverend, what exactly is the opportunity in God’s Ancient Nidus? Zhang Ruochen has already fused five Paths and cultivated the Grade Two Saintwill, but he still can’t get it.”

The Fukurokuju Statue said, “This story started 30,000 years ago. Back then, Great Emperor Fengdu woke up two Divine beasts that had slept for countless years in God’s Ancient Nidus. The Intergold Tiger and the Swastika Seiryu were both Archaic God’s Candidate.

“Great Emperor Fengdu wanted to suppress them and take them as mounts, but he was stopped by a powerful will deep in God’s Ancient Nidus. That will told Great Emperor Fengdu that tigers are the kings of all beasts, and dragons are the kings of all spirits. If you take them as your mounts and suppress them as your slaves, you will definitely suffer a backlash in the future.”

Hearing this, the gods of the Infernal Court smiled awkwardly.

What kind of joke was this? Someone actually dared to threaten the number one elite of the Ghost, Great Emperor Fengdu? Even if it was the master of the Celestial Palace who threatened, Great Emperor Fengdu might not take it to heart.

“The Great Emperor will definitely not be afraid of this dragon and tiger,” a Ghost God said disdainfully.

The Fukurokuju Statue was silent for a moment before saying, “In fact, Great Emperor Fengdu did not take the Intergold Tiger and the Swastika Seiryu as his mounts in the end. I don’t know what agreement he reached with the will in the depths of God’s Ancient Nidus.

“In the end, Great Emperor Fengdu brought the two beasts back to the Infernal Court and handed them over to me. I was asked to find suitable young talents at the Celestial-Hunting Festival and be the guide of the two beasts to help them integrate into this era. The Intergold Tiger is the opportunity of the Ghost’s home planet.”

The gods were in a daze after hearing this and were shocked.

With Great Emperor Fengdu’s paramount might, he actually had to compromise with a will in the depths of God’s Ancient Nidus?

Of course, most of the gods didn't think that Great Emperor Fengdu was afraid of anything. They only felt that it should be like what Fukurokuju said. Great Emperor Fengdu had reached some unknown agreement with the will in the depths of God's Ancient Nidus.

'What made the gods even more shocked was why two young geniuses had to be the guides of the two Divine beasts?

Wouldn't it be better if Great Emperor Fengdu and Fukurokuju personally guided them?

Besides, with the cultivation and wisdom of the Divine beasts, would it be difficult to integrate into this era? Why did they need guides?

In the deity realm of Wargod Bloodximus, there were Wargod Bloodximus, Lord Ming, Blood Empress, Bloodlucius, and many other deities of the Bloodysky Clan gathered.

They were all congratulating Wargod Bloodximus and Blood Empress. After all, whether Zhang Ruochen had cultivated the Grade Two Saintwill or become the guide of Intergold Tiger, it was a joyous occasion.

Wargod Bloodximus waved his hand, "The deity has already said that Zhang Ruochen has only passed the test and hasn't become the guide yet," he said. "In my opinion, since the Intergold Tiger is an Archaic God's Candidate, it won't easily choose its own guide. It must have set conditions for Zhang Ruochen."

Blood Empress asked, "What kind of place is God's Ancient Nidus? Why does the Great Emperor Fengdu have to be afraid?"

Wargod Bloodximus's expression turned serious as he said, "Everyone has cultivated to become a god. Logically speaking, there is no place in the entire universe that you can not go. However, there are some forbidden places that even gods can not enter."

The gods listened attentively. After all, there were some secrets that even gods could not know. Only a magnate like Wargod Bloodximus could come into contact with them.

“In the universe, there are five prehistoric civilization ruins. Those gods who haven’t survived the Yuanhui Tribulation, don’t go there. God’s Ancient Nidus is one of them. It has been preserved since the prehistoric era, and it is a very dangerous place.” Wargod Bloodximius added.

Prehistoric civilization referred to the civilizations that existed before the birth of the Celestial Court and the ten clans of the Infernal Court. There were no records in the history books, and only some clues could be found from the prehistoric civilization ruins.

Some gods had explored and discovered the ruins of prehistoric civilization. It was generally believed that there had been a great apocalypse in the universe before the 50,000 Yuanhui period.

All prehistoric creatures had been wiped out.

Therefore, traces left behind before the 50,000 Yuanhui period were called prehistoric ruins.

The so-called eternal and indestructible Macroworld was not a prehistoric civilization. It referred to a Macroworld that had survived 10,000 Yuanhui periods but had not been destroyed. Such a Macroworld was already very rare.

The so-called ancient civilizations, such as the Thousand -Star Civilization, the Tianchu Civilization... and so on, were not prehistoric civilizations either. They referred to a Macroworld that had been eternal and indestructible but later encountered a catastrophe like Kunlun, when the world was destroyed, some of them survived and had to move to a secret realm in the universe to hide.

Hence, there were strong and weak ancient civilizations.

The key point was how many inheritances the ancient civilization had left behind? Were they heavily injured? Were there supreme elites who survived?

That was why the prehistoric ruins that survived the great destruction were extremely rare. All of them were extremely special places that even gods could not enter.

“Since the Intergold Tiger was brought back to the Infernal Court by Great Emperor Fengdu, then its guide should be chosen from the Ghost,” said the Ghost Lord in the Fane of Destiny.

Wargod Bloodximius sneered, “The Ghost hasn’t produced a Supreme Saint who can pass the test in 30,000 years. Does Intergold Tiger have to wait for another 30,000 years? Or three Yuanhui periods?”

“You...”

The Ghost Lord wanted to say that Xu had a chance to do it.

But seeing that Xu was being suppressed by Zhang Ruochen, he couldn’t say anything, Asurenda Barasingha said, “Anyone can be the guide of the Intergold Tiger, but not Zhang Ruochen. This child has a deep connection with the gods of Kunlun, Guanghan, and even the Celestial Court. His purpose in entering the Infernal Court is impure. He will most likely rebel in the future.

“In my opinion, we should let Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, and Wujiang give it a try. The great opportunity must be firmly in the hands of the cultivators of the Infernal Court. It can’t be taken away by a cultivator of the Celestial Court.

“Lan Ying is a Divine Fetus. His chances of passing the trial of Intergold Tiger should be very high.”

Although the gods didn’t know what level the Intergold Tiger and the Swastika Seiryu were at, they were able to make Great Emperor Fengdu compromise. There must be something extraordinary about them.

Moreover, controlling them was equivalent to controlling the bridge of communication with God’s Ancient Nidus.

If any force could get the support of God’s Ancient Nidus, their authority in the Infernal Court would be greatly increased.

Some gods of the Nether Clan immediately supported Asurenda Barasingha and said, “Zhang Ruochen’s goal of breaking into the Ghost’s home planet is to save a Celestial Captive of Guanghai. It can be seen that he is still connected to Guanghai and could betray it at any time. If he gets the support of God’s Ancient Nidus, the consequences will be unimaginable.

“Making Wujiang the guide of the Intergold Tiger won’t be such a risk. Besides, Wujiang’s cultivation of the Saintwill is only one step away from reaching Grade Two.

“Since Zhang Ruochen can use the power of the Intergold Tiger to fuse with the Grade Two Saintwill, Wujiang must be able to do it too.

“Reverend, I think we should tell Wujiang and the others the secret of the Ghost’s home planet so that they can compete fairly. Zhang Ruochen is just lucky and has the upper hand. It doesn’t mean that he’s the only choice of the Intergold Tiger.”

Wargod Bloodximus roared, “You guys are crazy. For the sake of the Intergold Tiger and the God’s Ancient Nidus, you’re blaming Zhang Ruochen, a junior.”

Ghost Lord said sternly, “Wargod Bloodximus, you can’t change the fact that Zhang Ruochen went to the Ghost’s home planet to save the Celestial Captive of Guanghai. He killed countless spirits of the Ghost and injured many Ghost Supreme Saints. Isn’t this an act against the Infernal Court?”

“That’s not right, is it? Zhang Ruochen was invited by Xu to the Ghost’s home planet to fight to the death. Then he was attacked by many Ghost and Bone Clan Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He had been fighting back passively, desperately trying to survive.

Since when is it against the Infernal Court?” said Lord Ming.

Lord Ming laughed and added, “Unfortunately, the Ghost is too weak. They gathered so many elites, but their home planet was destroyed. Even their opportunities were taken away. Who’s to blame? Poor weaklings.”

Ghost Lord sneered, his eyes turning cold. "It's pointless to argue. Feel free to be self-assured. No matter how talented Zhang Ruochen is, the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms will not let him leave the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting alive if he turns his heart to Celestial Captive and goes against the Infernal Court. I'll see if you can still laugh then."

Wargod Bloodximus, Lord Ming, and Blood Empress all fell silent.

They were confident in Zhang Ruochen's strength and talent. However, they were not confident in Zhang Ruochen's actions and thoughts.

He had grown up in the human world. Would he really return to the Infernal Court?

"Let him go," said Zhang Ruochen.

Ming, who was standing on the Ghost City's wall, felt a sharp pain all over his body as he looked into Zhang Ruochen's sharp sword-like eyes. It was as if he had been struck by a large sword.

"How is this possible? How could Zhang Ruochen defeat the seventh brother?" Ming thought. He felt extremely depressed and uncomfortable. His confidence and pride had been trampled on by Zhang Ruochen.

He had no other choice but to exchange with Zhang Ruochen.

Xu was the number one elite of the Ghost. If he was defeated, who could stop Zhang Ruochen?

He could only hope that Zhang Ruochen's anger would be quelled as soon as possible.

"You can't give the Supreme Saint Manjian to him," said Pink Skull.

'Ming was stopped by Pink Skull. "Zhang Ruochen, I know you and the Supreme Saint Manjian are very close," said Pink Skull. Her pink skeletal hand grabbed the Supreme Saint Manjian's shoulder and stared at Zhang Ruochen. She added, “You’re not going to stand by and watch him die. If you want him to live, you must first do something for me.”

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes. His gaze was as sharp as a knife. “Can’t you see that Xu’s right under my feet? I’ll kill him like butchering a farm animal.”

Pink Skull laughed. “Do you really think that you can do as you please on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting? Xu was the most outstanding Supreme Saint of the Ghost who had been born for a thousand years. He had a high chance of becoming a god. For a Celestial Captive, you killed a future God of the Infernal Court. Even if the gods could tolerate you, the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms would kill you.”

“You want to kill me, but I can’t kill you?” Zhang Ruochen sneered.

Pink Skull nodded and said, “That’s right. You’re no different from those poor Celestial Captives. You’re our prey.

“If you really want to save the Supreme Saint Manjian, capture all the Supreme Saints of the three upper clans outside the Ghost’s home planet and bring them to me to trade with me.

“This is your only chance.”

Zhang Ruochen looked up at the sky and vaguely sensed the presence of Pan Ruo, Lord Sinluo, and the others.

“I would have let Xu go alive, but you have successfully angered me,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Pink Skull was taken aback when she heard this. Her mind was filled with dreadful thoughts. She was about to put a stop to him.

BANG!

Zhang Ruochen activated the 10 million Divine Marks in his left leg. He stomped down heavily, crushing Xu’s Astral Form into pieces and turning it into a black ghost cloud.

The world shook. All the cultivators were shocked by Zhang Ruochen’s actions.

He... he really dared to kill Xu?

Xu had the Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Neverwilt Physique. Naturally, he wouldn't die so easily. Billions of ghost fog flowed rapidly and gathered in the center, condensing into an Astral Form again.

"Zhang Ruochen, if you dare to kill me, there will be no place for you in the Infernal Court. Even Wargod Bloodximus won't be able to protect you... You... Ah..."

Zhang Ruochen used the Power of Dimension to grab Xu again. He condensed a huge palm print of the Divine Purification Flame and destroyed his Astral Form again.

Xu was obviously not truly immortal. Every time his Astral Form was destroyed, his body would weaken greatly. The speed at which he could regenerate his Astral Form would slow down.

"Saint Devourer swallowed him for me. Use his Ghost Qi to let the Ampliofruit mature as soon as possible."

Countless Saint Devourer vines rushed out of Zhang Ruochen's back. They spread into the ghost fog and absorbed Xu's power crazily.

The Ghost Supreme Saints in the Ghost city were all shocked. Zhang Ruochen was really audacious. He would do anything.

"Zhang Ruochen, do you know what you're doing? Do you believe that I can kill the Supreme Saint Manjian now?" Pink Skull said.

"If you dare to kill him, I'll break every bone in your body and feed it to Huang Tian when I enter the Ghost City," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen left the Saint Devourer behind and flew upon his ten golden wings. He revealed the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King, which was thousands of miles tall, and stomped heavily on the Ghost city below.

Boom

The array's inscriptions of the Ghost city formed a bowl-shaped light shield to block the attack.

However, a lot of the array's inscriptions had been broken. Countless buildings in the Ghost city had collapsed, and all the souls were crying in fear. Even the Supreme Saint was terrified.

Once Zhang Ruochen broke through his defense, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Chapter 2314: Instance of Light

Translator: EndlessFantasy

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Pink Skull remained calm and said,

“Don’t be afraid. Let’s attack together. Even if Zhang Ruochen is a being of formidable powers, he will die with our powers combined.”

In Ghost City, Pink Skull and Four-winged Ghost Emperor were not the only ones in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. Many Ghost Supreme Saints stayed behind to guard their home planet too.

The total number was close to a hundred.

Close to a hundred Ghost Supreme Saints released their Saint Aura and attacked at the same time. Some activated their Immaterial Artifact or Regal Artifact, and some used advanced Saint technique.

Whoosh- Whoosh- Whoosh-

Beams of light like a meteor shower rushed out of the Array Screen and struck Zhang Ruochen.

Such aura and power shook heaven and earth, shocking the cultivators of the three upper races who were near home planet to retreat.

No matter how conceited Zhang Ruochen was, he couldn’t be arrogant enough to take the attacks of nearly a hundred Supreme Saints head-on. However, Zhang Ruochen had been prepared for this. Zhang Ruochen had put away Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King the moment nearly a hundred amount of powers were unleashed in Ghost City. He then used Great Dimensional Shift and dodged far away.

“He escaped pretty quickly. It’s really troublesome to kill a cultivator of Dimensions.”

Pink Skull complained and released spiritual power to find Zhang Ruochen.

suddenly, Zhang Ruochen appeared from a Dimension 300 miles away from Ghost City with Violet Gourd in his arms. He activated Dimensional Inscription at the mouth of Violet Gourd and shouted, “Take them all!”

“Oh no,”

Pink Skull realized that she had been tricked by Zhang Ruochen and quickly shouted, “Put away your weapons.”

Unfortunately, it was too late!

The Ghost Supreme Saints had thrown out dozens of weapons, all of which were covered by Dimensional Array. As the dimension collapsed, Zhang Ruochen took them all into the gourd.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that he was no match with nearly a hundred Ghost Supreme Saints from the very beginning. Even if he attacked forcefully for ten days and ten nights, he would not be able to break through the defense of Ghost City.

On the contrary, he would have to leave in defeat as there are endless powerful Ghost figures in Ghost City.

It could be said that Zhang Ruochen would definitely lose.

If he wanted to break through Ghost City’s defense, he had to use some tricks to have a chance.

Earlier, Zhang Ruochen had deliberately put anger on his face to make Pink Skull think that he had lost his mind and was going to do something reckless and stupid.

After that, Zhang Ruochen intentionally manifested the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King and attacked Ghost City with the strongest means. This action gave Pink Skull the illusion that he wanted to fight head-on.

All of this to lure the enemy.

Otherwise, how could Zhang Ruochen have the chance to take dozens of weapons at once?

“Damn it, Zhang Ruochen is too cunning.”

Pink Skull stomped her feet in anger. She wanted to rush out of Ghost City and tear Zhang Ruochen into pieces.

The Supreme Saints who didn't use weapons but Saint Techniques were secretly glad. The Ghost Supreme Saints who had their Immaterial Artifact taken away felt chills in their hearts. They could only continue to communicate with their artifact's vessel spirit and hope they could take it back.

Zhang Ruochen held Violet Gourd tightly with both hands. He used all his strength to activate the Supreme Inscription inside.

Boom! Boom!

A deafening crash sounded from the gourd. The gourd shook non-stop and almost flew out of his hand.

"Since you want it, take it. I'll give them back to you."

Violet Gourd instantly became bigger than Ghost City below. Beams of light flew out from the mouth of Violet Gourd and crashed into Ghost City.

This included a Supreme Artifact, Pleiades Lotus.

The expressions of all Ghost Supreme Saints changed.

Boom

Under the attack of dozens of weapons, a hole appeared on Array Screen above Ghost City. The power of Array decreased rapidly as the weapons landed in the city and destroyed its Array Inscriptions.

In the end, the Array collapsed completely and the entire Ghost City was reduced to ruins.

Apart from Supreme Saint level cultivators, all the surviving Ghost spirits were scared out of their wits.

Several Supreme Saints had been injured by their own weapons and were covered in dust.

"The Dimension is collapsing."

While Ghost Supreme Saints were panicking, Zhang Ruochen spread out his hands and mobilized Power of Dimensions to tear open the densely packed Dimensional Rift. The Dimension where Ghost City was located became fragmented, it tuned into a chaotic zone where reality and void coexisted.

“Retreat quickly. The further the better. Without the defense of Ghost City, Zhang Ruochen will become even more difficult to deal with.”

“Oh no, I fell into the void space.”

A Supreme Saint’s realm was already very high. The erosion of the void space on Supreme Saints was limited. Therefore, even if Supreme Saints fell into it, one could quickly escape back to the home planet of Ghost.

Only Supreme Saints who had been hit directly by Power of Dimensional were going to be injured.

Some had their Astral Form pierced through, some had their heads cut off, and some had their bodies split apart. However, none of them were fatal to Supreme Saints.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen’s goal wasn’t to kill them. Instead, he wanted to scatter them, Only then would he have a chance to break them apart.

Ming fell into the void space. Just as he came out, he saw Zhang Ruochen standing in front of him.

“Go back.”

Zhang Ruochen reached out his hand and pressed it on top of Ming’s head, pushing him back into the void space.

Ming came out from another Dimensional Rift but was pushed back by Zhang Ruochen again.

“Go to hell Zhang Ruochen,”

‘Ming’s Astral Form was eroded by the power of the void space. He could only struggle desperately. When he saw Zhang Ruochen standing in the Dimensional Rift, his eyes were full of hatred. His body was farther and farther away from the Dimensional Rift, falling into the Endless Dark Abyss.

“Ladmit defeat and withdraw from Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.”

As this voice sounded, Ming was teleported out of the Star region of Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting by the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms’ power.

Giving up the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was a shameful thing. It’s something all cultivators despised. To those who surrender, it’s going to be hard to raise their heads again for the rest of their lives. It was precisely for this reason that most of the Supreme Saints would rather die in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting than withdraw.

“Zhang Ruochen, I’m going to take you to ruins with me.”

Xu’s fierce roar spread throughout the home planet of Ghost.

Xu’s Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique had been shattered countless times. He had been suppressed by Saint Devourer and was constantly getting weaker. He knew that it was difficult for him to turn the tables today.

Xu was the strongest Ghost. It was all his fault that Ghosts’ home planet had ended up like this. Even if Ming admitted defeat and left Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, he would still be severely punished by Ghost Master. Ming would suffer a fate worse than death.

Since that was the case, Xu might as well die together with Zhang Ruochen. It would make his death more spectacular.

Zhang Ruochen had been releasing his spiritual power to look for Pink Skull and Supreme Saint Manjian. He had settled with Ming in an offhand manner. Only now did Zhang Ruochen realize that all Ghost Supreme Saints had escaped from their home planet. Everything within a thousand miles was silent.

“Let’s go!”

Sensing that something was wrong, Zhang Ruochen immediately put away Saint Devourer and prepared to leave this area first.

“You can’t leave! Accept the baptism of Instance of Light. Our souls shall be scattered together.”

After Xu’s Primordial Ghost Emperor-Level Physique split apart, Ghostly Qi covered the entire home planet.

At this moment, all Ghostly Qi was burning, turning into thousands of green spectral flames.

Zhang Ruochen had read about “Instance of Light” in the book. It was an advanced Saint technique for Ghosts to perish together. It was extremely difficult to cultivate, but once you succeeded, you would be invincible against enemies ten times stronger than you.

‘That was because even an enemy that was ten times stronger would not dare to kill you.

Instance of Light could burn all the power in one’s body, including the Sainthood Source. It could kill an enemy that was ten times stronger when its destructive power is released.

It could be said that the art of mutual destruction was the most important method for a Supreme Saint to save his life.

Xiu Xiu Xiu!

The spectral flames, which were like thousands of stars, gathered together and formed into a single point.

Boom!

That point exploded and turned into a blinding light.

The entire starry sky was lit up and layers of star fog were shaken apart.

Pan Ruo, who stood tens thousands of miles away, was also dazzled by the blinding light and squinted her eyes.

‘The powerful energy wave destroyed everything on the surface of Ghosts’ home planet. The nine continents disappeared completely. All the oceans were vaporized.

Those Ghost Supreme Saints who had escaped from Ghosts’ home planet all had different reactions. Some were happy, some sighed, and some were silent.

“I didn’t think that Xu would end up this way. He could have been a powerful Ghost Deity in the future, but he ended it all by himself.”

“There’s nothing Xu can do. If Xu doesn’t use Instance of Light, who can stop Zhang Ruochen? The casualties of Ghosts will be even worse.”

“This is hard to accept.”

“Ghost Master should be the one who feels the most pain on Xu’s death. He has put in a lot of effort and placed high hopes on Xu. He wanted to train him to become the new God of Dishastan.”

Under normal circumstances, Ghosts couldn’t reproduce.

The so-called “Nine sons of Ghost Master” were actually the nine adopted sons of Ghost Master, similar to nine disciples.

However, they were different from disciples as these nine sons had entered Ghost Masters’ Astral Form for some time. Their bodies had the divine power and Paths of Ghost Master.

It was worth mentioning that if an Astral Form cultivated by a Ghost could reproduce, it would soon undergo a greater transformation. It would then leave the category of dead spirits and become a member of Nether Clan or Deathkin.

Corpusians were the same as Ghosts.

Nether Clan and Deathkin were similar. The only difference was that one transformed the Qi of dead spirits into The Power of Curse. The other transformed the Qi of dead spirits into The Will of Death.

The descendants of Nether Clan were born to be proficient in curses.

The descendants of Deathkin were born to be proficient in The Will of Death.

The conflict between the middle three races and the upper three races was because of this reason. This was because Fane of Darkness, which represented the interests of the three upper races, had developed many cultivation methods.

After cultivating these cultivation methods, Ghosts and Corpusian would reach a certain realm. Later, it's very likely that they would cultivate a body that could reproduce and become a member of Nether clan or Deathkin.

Based on the foundation of weakening the three middle races, the three upper races could get stronger over time.

Of course, as Nether clan and Deathkin were able to reproduce, more changes happened to them.

This time, no one thought that Zhang Ruochen could survive.

Mistress Fireborn let out a long breath, "This is the result of being too arrogant. If you force an elite in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm to his death, you will die together with him. Even if we want to kill Supreme Saint Yanhong, we only want her to leave the battlefield."

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei shook his head gently and said, "Zhang Ruochen couldn't stop Xu from using Instance of Light because Xu's spiritual power is strong. If it were a Supreme Saint with weaker spiritual power, he wouldn't have had the chance to do so. So, you'd better not think that you can survive by mastering the technique of mutual destruction."

"In any case, if Zhang Ruochen and Xu die together, we will have two fewer enemies. This operation is perfect." Mad Whitejade Lion laughed.

"I'm afraid you laugh too early."

Pan Ruo pointed forward and said, "Look, what's that?"

Everyone mobilized their power and looked carefully.

"A gourd. It's Zhang Ruochen's gourd." Mistress Fireborn revealed a look of joy while her body burned with flames. She wanted to fly over and take it.

"Don't be rash."

Pan Ruo stopped her.

“Why? That gourd is an incredible treasure. It can take dozens of weapons at Regal Artifact level at once. Furthermore, Zhang Ruochen’s Saintwill Pills and Ampliofruits are probably inside.”

Mistress Fireborn was worried that Violet Gourd would be taken away by Supreme Saints from Ghost and Bone clan.

Pan Ruo said, “Aren’t you afraid that Zhang Ruochen is in there too?”

Mistress Fireborn’s expression changed slightly. She had seen Zhang Ruochen fight with Xu. Subconsciously, she was a little afraid of Zhang Ruochen.

However, she soon laughed and said, “The Instance of Light is a destructive power that explodes in an instant. How could Zhang Ruochen have time to react and escape into the gourd?”

“Others can’t do it, but he’s a Master of Time,” said Pan Ruo.

Mistress Fireborn couldn’t laugh anymore. She stared at Violet Gourd again. She couldn’t help but feel chills on her back. If what Pan Ruo said was true, doesn’t that mean Xu couldn’t kill Zhang Ruochen even after using a mutual destruction technique? Wouldn’t Zhang Ruochen be truly heaven-defying?

Whoosh

Near Ghost’s home planet, Pink Skull appeared out of thin air with Supreme Saint Manjian in her hand.

Previously, with the power of the Supreme Artifact, Pink Skull had concealed herself and avoided Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power detection. It had also successfully distracted Zhang Ruochen and bought time for Xu to use Instance of Light.

“Zhang Ruochen, oh Zhang Ruochen. You are indeed a very powerful opponent. I would have fallen today if Xu didn’t sacrifice himself. However, the stronger you are, the more valuable you will be if I kill you. The deities must have caught sight of it. Haha!”

Pink Skull threw Supreme Saint Manjian to a Ghost Supreme Saint. Then, she turned into a beam of red light and flew toward Violet Gourd.

She was filled with anticipation for Violet Gourd.

Pink Skull reached out to grab Violet Gourd from hundreds of feet away. However, as the silhouette of her hand got closer, she felt uneasy.

“Something’s wrong, this gourd is a Supreme Artifact. Its vessel spirit must be very powerful. Why didn’t it resist?”

Pink Skull was about to retreat, but she felt a Dimensional ripple appear behind her.

Zhang Ruochen’s figure surfaced from the Dimensional ripple. His body was covered in blood. Like a phantom of death, he stood unswervingly behind her while his chest was so close to her back.

Pink Skull’s heart sank to the bottom..

Chapter 2315: Fighting Against All Saints Alone

Boom

A palm print wrapped in Divine Purification Flame hit Pink Skull's head heavily. Even though she had a Divine Bone Physique, her joints were still cracking.

The fire in her two bone eye sockets almost died out.

Divine Bone Physique was naturally hard to shatter, but this palm strike had damaged Pink Skull's Saint Soul and spirit. It made it difficult for her to make an effective counterattack in a short time.

Zhang Ruochen did not give Pink Skull the chance to escape and fix her soul. He used Great Dimensional Shift to appear in front of her again and hit her chest with another palm strike.

The battle between Demigod-level physique and Divine Bone sent divine fire flying all over the sky.

Every time Zhang Ruochen sent Pink Skull flying, he would catch up in an instant and hit her again.

Countless figures of Zhang Ruochen and Pink Skull appeared in the vast void space, constantly changing their positions.

As the palm strikes sounded, Pink Skull was sent flying like a rubber ball.

With Pink Skull's cultivation base and the divine force contained in the Supreme Artifact and Divine Bone, she should not have been so passive. However, she had lost the initiative and could not gather her power from the beginning. Therefore, she did not even have the chance to fight back.

"I don't believe that you really have an immortal body. As long as I scatter your Saint Soul and destroy your spirit, can you still be resurrected?"

Zhang Ruochen had read pieces of information on Pink Skull. She had been killed three times by a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint and had miraculously come back to life three times. She was known as the most difficult Supreme Saint to kill in Infernal Court.

It was because of this that Zhang Ruochen paid special attention to her. Hence, every palm strike was ruthless.

If it were any other Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection Stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm, they would have died dozens of times after being hit by Zhang Ruochen so relentlessly. However, Pink Skull was still shining with divine light. However, her spirit was sometimes concentrated, sometimes dispersed.

Seeing how strong Zhang Ruochen was, the Ghost Supreme Saints looked at each other in fear.

If it weren't for Four-eyed Ghost Emperor, Popobawa Ghost Emperor, and Ye Changzai, they would have run away immediately.

"Zhang Ruochen is still alive, but he didn't completely avoid Instance of Light. He's heavily injured, and his aura isn't as strong as before."

"Don't be afraid. Let's attack together."

The two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection Stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm, Moon-Bull Emperor, and Lord Sparrow Bone attacked first.

"Ebullition of Blood Moon."

In the void above Ghost's home planet, a blood moon appeared quietly. It was bright red and was accompanied by a black Qi of Death. It became bigger and bigger.

Amountain-sized ox-shaped skeleton stood in the center of Blood Moon.

The ox-shaped skeleton released 4.2 billion Precepts from its 1.49 million sparkling bones. They surged into Blood Moon and merged as one.

Rumble

Blood Moon absorbed all Qi of Death in the void space. It condensed into a blazing flame, like a corpse's furnace.

Under the control of Moon-Bull Emperor, Blood Moon spun quickly and flew toward Zhang Ruochen.

Wherever Blood Moon passed, it formed a huge vortex storm.

Sensing the powerful energy fluctuation behind him, Zhang Ruochen's eye narrowed when he saw it. His entire field of vision was a sea of blood-red fire, a hundred or a thousand times hotter than the lava.

The scorching air wave made Zhang Ruochen's skin hurt, especially the wounds.

Earlier, Zhang Ruochen had not completely avoided the attack of Instance of Light. He had been seriously injured, and even his Demigod-level physique had been penetrated. However, there was no wounds on the surface.

'There was no fear in Zhang Ruochen's cold eyes. He shouted, "Sword Ten."

A white soul silhouette flew out of his body and turned into a beam of sharp sword light that charged toward Blood Moon.

The sword light was surrounded by countless Precepts of Swordsmanship.

A Precept of Swordsmanship turned into a sword silhouette.

If one's eyesight was strong enough, one could see that the soul silhouette of the sword light looked exactly like Zhang Ruochen.

It was the sword soul.

The soul of sword intent.

Bang!

The powerful Blood Moon collided with Zhang Ruochen's soul silhouette of the sword light.

Blood Qi was broken and Blood Moon shattered like a mirror. It turned into a cloud of blood and merged with the star fog in the void space.

The sword light didn't lose its momentum and rushed toward Moon-Bull Emperor.

"How is this possible? He doesn't have a sword in his hand, but his sword soul is so powerful. How could it shatter my Hundred-Shackle level advanced Saint technique, Ebullition of Blood Moon in one hit?"

Moon-Bull Emperor was shocked. He had a deeper understanding of Zhang Ruochen's combat strength. Just as he was about to dodge, he found that he couldn't move.

Not only that, six sword silhouettes appeared in each of his six directions. The sword tips were all pointing at him.

How could Moon-Bull Emperor know that Zhang Ruochen's Sword Ten had merged with Power of Dimensions?

When the sword came out, Dimension had already locked on it.

Boom!

The soul silhouette of the sword light and six sword silhouettes hit Moon-Bull Emperor at the same time. Faintly, the sound of bones cracking could be heard.

Moon-Bull Emperor let out a sorrowful roar. The injuries on its bones were nothing. However, the sword soul slashed towards his Saint Soul. Everyone knows that the most vulnerable part of Bone clan's cultivators was the Saint Soul.

His Saint Soul was severely injured and almost scattered. The light on Moon-Bull Emperor dimmed, and he couldn't fight anymore.

"An elite in the Great Perfection Stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm was beaten so badly that he lost his ability to fight?" In the distant starry sky, Mistress Fireborn was shocked.

She used to think that Wu Jiang was invincible among his peers. She admired and worshipped him a lot.

After seeing how terrifying Zhang Ruochen was, she realized that there was always someone better. If Zhang Ruochen reached the Great Perfection Stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm, how many moves could Wu Jiang block?

“Humph!”

Lord Sinluo pulled out his Frostwood Bow. A bone-piercing chill spread out, forming icebergs around him. He wanted to perform Dark Arrow, an advanced Saint technique of Hundred-Shackle Realm, to sneak attack on Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was already injured and had been besieged by many Supreme Saints. With Dark Arrow, Lord Sinluo was more than 70% sure that he could successfully launch a sneak attack on him.

Pan Ruo’s palm blocked the invisible arrow on Frostwood Bow and said, “Don’t attack yet.”

“Why?” Lord Sinluo didn’t understand.

Pan Ruo said, “Four-winged Ghost Emperor, Ye Changzai, and Popobawa Ghost Emperor are all in their prime. The cultivators of the three middle races are still the most powerful force in this starry sky.

“If you attack Zhang Ruochen now and fail, Zhang Ruochen will definitely shift his hatred to us. He might abandon the cultivators of the three middle races and attack us.

“Even if you succeed, the cultivators of the three middle races will benefit from Zhang Ruochen’s death. Do you think we can take all the treasures of Zhang Ruochen from them?”

Lord Sinluo slightly nodded as he thought what Pan Ruo said made sense. At this moment, they should watch from a hilltop while two tigers fight and suffer. Thus, he put away Frostwood Bow.

“It’s better to be careful. Zhang Ruochen is different now. Killing him won’t be easy. It’s the right strategy to let the Supreme Saints of the three middle races waste his energy. Let’s continue to heal!”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei held the Supreme Artifact, The Scroll of Truth and Deceit. He then enveloped everyone and hid them.

He had to be careful while facing a superior like Zhang Ruochen.

Without giving Zhang Ruochen a chance to catch his breath, the pair of Divine Bone Wings of Lord Sparrow Bone slashed in front of him like two pitch-black sky blades.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

The two Divine Bone Wing crossed each other like two giant scissors.

The Divine Bone Wings not only contained Supreme Saint Inscriptions but also Precepts and Regal Inscription. Lord Sparrow Bone had already refined them into a battle weapon and turned them into Regal Artifacts. They could be used as Lord Sparrow Bone pleased.

Moon-Bull Emperor and Lord Sparrow Bone were performing a combined attack and there were no gaps between their attacks. They wouldn't give Zhang Ruochen the chance to use Great Dimensional Shift to dodge.

The two Divine Bone Wings left Lord Sparrow Bone's body and slashed toward Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Sparrow Bone's true form stood more than 400 miles away.

Zhang Ruochen didn't have time to mobilize Precepts and Saint Qi, let alone activate Violet Gourd. If he used his body to fight against the strongest attack of a Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection Stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm, he would definitely be at a disadvantage.

In an instant, he thought of the most appropriate response.

He stepped on lightning and retreated quickly, forming a long circuit. At the same time, the ten wings on Zhang Ruochen's back curled up and wrapped around his body, turning him into a Golden Orb with a diameter of two meters.

The ten golden wings were like ten layers of defense.

Bang Bang!

The two Divine Bone Wings collided fiercely with the Golden Orb. The ball rolled quickly to dissolve the power of Divine Bone Wings.

‘The Golden and black power spread throughout the void space within a thousand miles.

‘When the power contained in the two Divine Bone Wings was exhausted, the Golden Orb crashed into the void space, creating circles of Dimensional ripples. It later disappeared in the center of the ripples.

“Oh no!”

Lord Sparrow Bone immediately realized that something was wrong. It didn’t expect Zhang Ruochen’s defense to be so strong. Zhang Ruochen was already heavily injured, but he could still block the combined attack of them?

Just as Lord Sparrow Bone was about to retreat, a Dimensional fluctuation appeared above its head. The Golden Orb flew out from it.

Crash

The Orb split open and turned into ten golden wings.

Zhang Ruochen, who stood in the center of the Golden Wings, used Yanshen’s Leg to stomp on Lord Sparrow Bone’s back.

Boom

A sea of divine fire appeared the moment the two touched.

Standing in the starry sky, the sea of divine fire was as brilliant as a blooming flower.

The biggest support of Lord Sparrow Bone was the pair of Divine Bone Wings on its back. They didn’t belong to Lord Sparrow Bone but were given to it by a deity of Bone Clan. Its body wasn’t a Divine Bone.

Struck by Zhang Ruochen’s heavy kick, Lord Sparrow Bone’s body fell rapidly. Its back caved in and the hard saint bone broke.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen stepped through Lord Sparrow Bone’s body and flew out from its abdomen. A huge hole was left on Lord Sparrow Bone’s body. The bone was torn and tattered.

‘What was worse was that the broken bone in the hole was ignited by divine fire and was burning fiercely.

Lord Sparrow Bone quickly fled into a distance. At the same time, it used all kinds of techniques to refine the divine fire that had invaded his bone marrow. It could no longer attack Zhang Ruochen.

After severely injuring three Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection Stage of Hundred- Shackle Realm, Zhang Ruochen’s fighting spirit reached its peak. He let out a long howl.

Golden light shone from his back. The thousand-mile-tall Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King appeared. There were nine heavens above his head, and he stepped on the ten thousand corpses from Infernal Court. His long hair danced in the wind, and his aura was majestic.

The Ghost Supreme Saints had cast dozens of advanced Saint techniques. Each move had the power to destroy the world. However, when they entered the Dimension near Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King, they were immediately shattered.

Zhang Ruochen stood between Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King’s brows. He raised his arm and struck out an earth-shaking handprint. It collided with the four Ghostly Prisons cast by Four-eyed Ghost Emperor.

Rumble

The four Ghostly Prisons collapsed. They scattered and spread far away. It was as if four Realms had been destroyed.

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor stumbled and was pushed back hundreds of miles.

Zhang Ruochen’s battle prowess was unparalleled and shocking. However, the Supreme Saints and cultivators who saw the scene through the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms all saw blood flowing from the bottom of Zhang Ruochen’s torn robe. There were many wounds on his body.

Among them, the three wounds on his chest were the most shocking. They pierced through his body and extended to his back.

These were the old wounds that had been hit by Instance of Light. Following the intense battle just now, the wounds cracked and his saint blood endlessly flowed.

Many people couldn't understand why Zhang Ruochen didn't immediately save Supreme Saint Manjian and escape for his life?

If the battle continued, his injuries would worsen and he would be in danger of dying.

Only Zhang Ruochen was persisting. His eyes were resolute. There was an emotion in his heart that others could not understand. An emotion that could only be released through fighting and killing.

Whoosh

Popobawa Ghost Emperor stood 800 miles away. It struck out with Ghost-headed Whip. The whip spread out from behind the four broken Ghostly Prisons.

Ghost-headed Whip had a cold and unpredictable aura. It was like a black steel dragon with Ghostly Qi.

Zhang Ruochen's power was far greater than Popobawa Ghost Emperor. He reached out with one hand and used Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King to grab Ghost-headed Whip. He dragged the whip and pulled Popobawa Ghost Emperor to his side.

"How can he be so powerful?"

Popobawa Ghost Emperor spread its wings and tured into two ghost clouds. It mobilized all its power but still couldn't stabilize its body.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor was getting closer and closer to Zhang Ruochen. From 800 miles, it was within 30 miles in an instant.

Zhang Ruochen held Ghost-headed Whip with one hand and clenched his other hand into a fist. He punched at Popobawa Ghost Emperor who was coming at him. At the same time, the thousand-mile-long Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King also threw a punch like Zhang Ruochen.

If Popobawa Ghost Emperor was hit by a punch, even if it didn't die, its Astral Form would definitely explode.

“Ha, Zhang Ruochen, I'm afraid you've miscalculated this time.” The panic on Popobawa Ghost Emperor's face disappeared, and a dark and cunning smile appeared.

Silently, a black silhouette flew out from Popobawa Ghost Emperor's shadow to meet Zhang Ruochen's fist.

The Black Silhouette held a strange sword. The sword was like a snake. It was pitch-black, sometimes invisible, sometimes visible.

When invisible, it didn't emit any power fluctuations. It couldn't be sensed using Power of Dimensions. It was as if it didn't exist in this Dimension.

When it had a form, it emitted a powerful divine force and cursed aura.

It was none other than Ye Changzai and his Amorite Sword.

Chapter 2316 Hunter and Celestial Captive

Ye Changzai was ranked 18th in the list of the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm. Naturally, no other Supreme Saint could compare to him. Amorite Sword in his hand was an extremely ancient cursed sword. At such a close distance, he was ready to attack. He wanted to take the reins with one sword strike.

“Zhang Ruochen, this sword will pierce through you. The Power of Curse will enter your bone marrow and soak into your blood. Eventually, you will die from the curse.”

Ye Changzai didn't waste time talking. He didn't say it from his mouth. Instead, he used his spiritual power to directly enter Zhang Ruochen's ears.

Chi-Chi

Amorite Sword and Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King collided.

Although Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King was an illusion, it was harder than real metal. However, Amorite Sword was sharper, and it could easily penetrate metal.

The moment the sword broke through the Saint Aspect, Golden Qi burst out all over the sky.

“Do you really think that I will fall for the same trick twice?” Zhang Ruochen said expressionlessly.

Before Amorite Sword reached Zhang Ruochen, Zhang Ruochen's fist suddenly spewed out layers of invisible Dimensional shock waves. “This-this- is impossible.”

Ye Changzai was hit, and his black figure flew backward.

Although he was an “Earth soul turned Ghost” with an invisible body, he still existed in the Dimension. Hence, the Power of Dimension was the best way to deal with him.

One after another the Dimensional shock waves sent Ye Changzai's silhouette flying seven times.

On the eighth time, the silhouette actually shattered.

“This punch has always been prepared for you. Do you know why you are only ranked 18th? Your concealment is meaningless to a Supreme Saint with a spiritual power of level 64,” Zhang Ruochen said. Ye Changzai was born an assassin. Even with Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power of level 64, Zhang Ruochen could only vaguely sense his existence. Only with the Heart of Truth, Zhang Ruochen could clearly sense that he was hiding in the shadow of Popobawa Ghost Emperor.

He said those words to strike Ye Changzai’s confidence.

500 miles away.

Ye Changzai condensed his ghost silhouette again. He glanced at Zhang Ruochen and Popobawa Ghost Emperor, who were already fighting. Without hesitation, he immediately fled.

Zhang Ruochen was too terrifying. He was already heavily injured, but he still had clear thinking despite being attacked by so many Supreme Saints. Zhang Ruochen was extremely calm. There was no way for Ye Changzai to sneak attack on him.

The power was terrifying. What was even more terrifying was that Zhang Ruochen was the one controlling it.

Earth soul Astral Form was the hardest to break. However, it was hard to recover once it was broken. Ye Changzai had lost the power to continue fighting. It could be said that he could not recover to his peak condition during Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Popobawa Ghost Emperor was no match for Zhang Ruochen. After three consecutive blows, its Astral Form began to crack. Then, Popobawa Ghost Emperor used its secret technique of escape and fled into the distance.

“Where are you going?”

Zhang Ruochen used Great Dimensional Shift to catch up with it. He stomped on its Astral Form and broke it into pieces.

Boom

Popobawa Ghost Emperor screamed. Its Astral Form exploded like a balloon and turned into Ghostly Qi.

Zhang Ruochen didn't give Popobawa Ghost Emperor the chance to re-shape its Astral Form. He spread his hands and countless Saint Devourer's vines rushed out from his back. They absorbed crazily and scattered the Ghostly Qi around.

Zhang Ruochen's injuries became more serious, but golden light shone all over his body. He stared sharply at the Ghost Saints and said, "Who wants to fight?"

A large number of Ghost Supreme Saints had gathered in this void space. There were close to a hundred of them.

However, they had lost the will to continue fighting. They stood rooted to the ground. No one dared to attack Zhang Ruochen first.

They had no choice. After Xu died, Ghost Saints had lost their backbone.

Just now, Moon-Bull Emperor and Lord Sparrow Bone had escaped with Pink Skull. It was unknown whether they were alive or dead. In addition, Ye Changzai and Popobawa Ghost Emperor had been defeated one after another. One had escaped while the other had been refined and absorbed. No matter how strong the Ghost Supreme Saints' willpower was, they had to consider the pros and cons.

If they continued to fight, even if Zhang Ruochen used up his energy, many of them would die with him. What was the point of this?

Ghosts still had to participate in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. There couldn't be any more casualties.

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor led Supreme Saint Manjian and stood up on behalf of Ghost Saints. He spoke to Zhang Ruochen, "We Ghosts admit defeat in this battle. We've lost completely! Zhang Ruochen, as long as you let Popobawa Ghost Emperor live, I'll let Supreme Saint Manjian go."

Zhang Ruochen said, "You want to threaten me too?"

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor met Zhang Ruochen's eyes and his heart jumped. Thinking of Pink Skull, his tone softened, "The ones who want to kill you are Xu, Supreme Saint Yanhong, and Mad Whitejade Lion. We were just invited by Xu to help. We don't deserve to die, do we?"

"Besides, if you insist on killing Popobawa Ghost Emperor, we have no choice but to fight you to death for the dignity of Ghost. By then, won't the cultivators of upper three races hiding nearby benefit?"

The voice of Saint Devourer rang in Zhang Ruochen's mind. "Master, my Ampliofruit has matured."

Zhang Ruochen nodded and put the vines back into his body. He said to Four-eyed Ghost Emperor, "For your sake, I'll spare his life today."

Four-eyed Ghost Emperor's face lit up with joy. He glanced at Supreme Saint Manjian. He hadn't expected that a crippled Supreme Saint would be so important to Zhang Ruochen.

However, this was a good thing. Zhang Ruochen had fought with the cultivators of Infernal Court to save a Supreme Saint of Guanghan. What could Zhang Ruochen do even if he saved Supreme Saint Manjian after all this mess?

The deities were watching.

The cultivators of Infernal Court were watching as well.

Zhang Ruochen had indeed won this battle, but he had also lost!

Where could he find a place in Infernal Court?

Whoosh

The remaining Ghostly Qi quickly gathered in the void space and condensed into the figure of Popobawa Ghost Emperor.

Although Popobawa Ghost Emperor wasn't dead, more than half of its Ghostly Qi had been absorbed by Saint Devourer. Popobawa Ghost Emperor couldn't recover in a short time.

"I'll take Ghost-headed Whip. Do you have any objections?"

Zhang Ruochen didn't care whether Popobawa Ghost Emperor agreed or not. He used Divine Purification Flame and started refining Ghost-headed Whip.

The ghost had no choice but to lower its head under the eaves. Popobawa Ghost Emperor let out a long sigh. It had suffered a terrible defeat today.

Why were Ghosts enemies with Zhang Ruochen?

The cultivators of three upper races standing in The Scroll of Truth and Deceit frowned.

"Ghosts has suffered such a great loss. Are they reconciling just like that?" Mad Whitejade Lion was a little disappointed.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said, "What else can they do if they don't reconcile? If they continue to fight Zhang Ruochen to death, Ghosts will have no hope of turning the tide in this year's Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting."

Killing intent appeared in Mad Whitejade Lion's eyes. "Zhang Ruochen is already at the end of his rope. Next, we'll take action and end his life completely."

"Are you sure that Zhang Ruochen is already at the end of his rope? Just now, he defeated Pink Skull, Moon-Bull Emperor, Lord Sparrow Bone, Ye Changzai, and Popobawa Ghost Emperor consecutively. Does he even look exhausted?" Pan Ruo asked.

Mistress Fireborn stared at her with confusion. "Aren't you being too cautious, Your Highness? Today is the best time to kill Zhang Ruochen."

"I didn't say I wouldn't kill him. But we don't have to be as stupid as the Supreme Saints from Ghost and Bone clan to fight Zhang Ruochen head-on. Don't forget that we still have a backup plan. Let Que Fei use Celestial Captive's power to kill Zhang Ruochen. Wouldn't that be foolproof?" said Pan Ruo

Lord Sinluo asked, "Should we use Dark Arrow to kill Zhang Ruochen first?"

"Forget it!"

Pan Ruo sighed regretfully. “We’ve already missed the opportunity. If we use Dark Arrow now, the chances of us attacking Zhang Ruochen are too low. I was wrong earlier.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei shook his head, “It’s not your fault. No one expected that Zhang Ruochen could destroy five Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. The Ghosts were so scared that they didn’t dare to continue fighting.

“Besides, even if Lord Sinluo used Dark Arrow earlier, the chances of success were very low.”

Lord Sinluo looked disapproving. “How is that possible?”

“Even Ye Changzai’s sneak attack failed!” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said.

Lord Sinluo was silent for a moment and could not refute.

In terms of sneak attacks and assassinations, Ye Changzai was obviously much better than him.

Supreme Saint Manjian’s body was covered in wounds, especially where the five icicles had pierced through. Even now, there were ice shards left in his flesh. The aura of dead spirits eroded his body. Even the energy contained in Supreme Saint’s blood could not heal his wounds.

Of course, even though he was riddled with wounds, the body of Supreme Saint Manjian was still tall and straight.

After Zhang Ruochen refined Ghost-headed Whip, he stared at Supreme Saint Manjian who was standing five steps away. Out of the corner of his eye, he saw that all the Ghost Saints had retreated thousands of miles away.

The two of them looked at each other, but neither of them could laugh.

This was because this was Infernal Court, Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

One was a hunter and the other was a Celestial Captive. “Life is so intriguing. When you returned to Mount Yueshen with Moon Goddess, I knew that you were extraordinary. But I didn’t expect that we would have such an encounter.”

Supreme Saint Manjian broke the silence first and squeezed out a smile.

Zhang Ruochen looked straight into his eyes and said, "Maybe this is fate's arrangement."

"You believe in fate?" Supreme Saint Manjian asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I didn't believe in it at first, but I believe in it today! If it wasn't for fate's arrangement, why are we standing here at this time, this place in such a way?"

The two fell into silence again.

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen waved his hand. Dimensions solidified and turned into an invisible table.

From Violet Gourd, Zhang Ruochen took out a wine jug and a Divine Bone tripod cup. He said, "During Celestial-Hunting Festival, I secretly left half a pot of Divine Jade Dew brewed by Fane of Wine for you."

The food at the Festival could be brought into the battlefield.

"Brothers are indeed brothers. I've only heard of such good stuff before. I didn't expect to have the chance to drink it. It seems that I have no regrets!"

Zhang Ruochen was about to fill his cup, but Supreme Saint Manjian snatched the wine pot from his hand and poured it into his mouth.

Zhang Ruochen looked at him quietly and said, "Brother Manjian, do you know why I have come to Ghost's home planet?"

Supreme Saint Manjian continued drinking without stopping.

Zhang Ruochen continued, "Because I know that you are not willing to die in the hands of Ghost cultivators. You are even more unwilling to be refined into a ghost slave. So even though I know that both of us may die here, I still came to accompany you. Either we die together, or I send you on your way.

"I will give you two hours to run. No matter where you run to, I will come and kill you in two hours. If I catch up with you, I'll give you a quick death."

Chapter 2317 This Sword Strike

The two-hour escape time was the last chance for Supreme Saint Manjian to survive. Zhang Ruochen knew that if he did not kill Supreme Saint Manjian, he would be in a very disadvantageous position in Infernal Court. However, he could not forget his feelings, so he decided to give him one last chance.

Supreme Saint Manjian obviously understood Zhang Ruochen's intentions. After drinking the wine in the pot, he walked over and patted Zhang Ruochen's shoulder. He laughed loudly. "I won't run, where can I run to? My Sainthood Source has been dug out. My cultivation base is almost ruined. Any Supreme Saint can kill me now. How can I die happily at the hands of my brothers if I get killed by a group of rascals in Infernal Court?"

Zhang Ruochen stared at him and smiled bitterly. "That's too much! You're happy now but what about me? Where can I find happiness? How about I give you six hours? Maybe you can escape from me."

Supreme Saint Manjian shook his head, "Do you know why you found me so quickly? Because he left a ghost mark on my body. Even Ghost cultivators can track us. So, no matter how I escape, I'll die. If you don't kill me, are you going to force me to commit suicide?" When Supreme Saint Manjian said the word "Suicide", his tone spoke volumes. Zhang Ruochen knew very well that it was not that Supreme Saint Manjian did not want to commit suicide. Rather, he knew that suicide would only make him look more useless and would not help Zhang Ruochen in any way.

If Zhang Ruochen wanted to gain a foothold in Infernal Court, what he needed was Supreme Saint Manjian's life.

Supreme Saint Manjian stared at Zhang Ruochen for a long time. When he saw that Zhang Ruochen did not make a move, he shouted, "I am quite accomplished in Swordsmanship. Try and see if you could handle my sword strike."

Although the Sainthood Source of Supreme Saint Manjian had been dug out, his blood of a Supreme Saint and Neverwithier physique still contained powerful saint power. He formed a sword with his fingers. The sword intent spread out and attracted the star fog in the void space.

Strands of six-colored star fog condensed into thousands of illusory swords. They followed the finger of Supreme Saint Manjian and pierced through the void space toward Zhang Ruochen.

The silhouette of the swords entered 300 meters.

Zhang Ruochen stood still.

They entered 30 meters.

Zhang Ruochen still did not move.

15 meters, 9 meters, 3 meters...

Seeing that the sword silhouette was about to pierce into Zhang Ruochen's forehead while his eyes were filled with sword silhouettes.

He sighed and slowly closed his eyes. Golden Light appeared on the surface of his body. It turned into a golden sword and flew out.

Boom!

All the sword silhouettes in the sky were shattered by the Golden Sword.

The golden sword pierced through Supreme Saint Manjian's body and flew across his back. It only returned to Zhang Ruochen's body after flying for dozens of miles.

Zhang Ruochen stood in the void space and did not turn around.

Boom!

Behind him, Supreme Saint Manjian's body exploded and turned into a cloud of Blood Mist. It fell below Ghost's home planet.

The blood rain fell from the sky. It was beautiful and brilliant.

The deities, including the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms, must have been paying attention. Zhang Ruochen did not play any tricks. This sword strike killed Supreme Saint Manjian completely, including his Saint Soul and spiritual will.

Playing tricks in front of gods was the stupidest thing to do.

He had to either kill or not kill him.

Zhang Ruochen was an intelligent person. However, a look of pain flashed in his eyes at first. Soon, it was covered by determination and ruthlessness. He regained his ruthlessness once again. He walked a thousand miles with one step. He did not even look back as he walked straight away.

The people of the upper three races — who were hiding in The Scroll of Truth and Deceit — were stunned when they saw Zhang Ruochen suddenly attack and kill Supreme Saint Manjian so decisively. Mistress Fireborn sucked in a breath of cold air and said, “Who said that Zhang Ruochen is here to save the Supreme Saint of Guanghan? This guy is a cold-blooded ruthless person. He would kill anyone to achieve his goal.” “Isn’t that what Infernal Court Needs?” Pan Ruo asked.

Lord Sinluo furrowed his thick black brows and said, “Don’t you think that Zhang Ruochen’s actions are too deliberate?”.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said, “Is it so important that he’s deliberate or not? The gods only wanted a result. What Zhang Ruochen did was to give them a result. He had completely chosen his side and expressed his determination. I have to say, he is indeed ruthless. He is a powerful figure.”

Mistress Fireborn smiled coldly. “So what if he is powerful? He will still die today! The truly powerful ones are the ones who will have the last laugh.”

The image of Zhang Ruochen killing Supreme Saint Manjian with a single sword strike froze on the projection in the sky. It only disappeared after a long time.

Many cultivators from Kunlun and Guanghan watched this scene in disbelief.

Everyone thought that Zhang Ruochen was going to save Supreme Saint Manjian. However, Supreme Saint Manjian died under his sword in the end.

This was too unexpected!

In Royal Mountain, Blackie started shouting again, “Did you see that? Did you see that? What did I say? This bastard Zhang Ruochen is no longer the same person you once knew. His heart is cold and his hands are ruthless. As the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth hundreds, I am ashamed to be inferior to him. No-no- I must set off immediately. I have to bring him back even if I have to bundle or tie him up.”

Han Qiu was dressed in a black robe. Her gaze was like a pair of scissors, she smiled and said, “I think that Zhang Ruochen is even more charming now. As a man who wants to achieve great things, he should kill decisively. As a Celestial Captive, Supreme Saint Manjian must die. If he dies at Zhang Ruochen’s hands, at least he will be less tortured.”

“Cold-blooded,”

Blackie stared with his owl’s eyes wide and bared his teeth.

Han Xue was stunned for a long time. She stared at Blackie who had walked out of Royal Mountain and chased after him. “I’ll go to Infernal Court with you. I’m more familiar with that place than you are. It just so happens that I’m going to visit the Empress.” “What? Empress? Are you serious?”

Blackie didn’t want Han Xue to go with him, but this owl happily went crazy when he heard this news. This little girl finally revealed some useful information. It seemed that the Empress was still alive.

His desire to go to Infernal Court became even more urgent.

The cultivators of Guanghai once regarded Zhang Ruochen as a star of hope. Countless young cultivators worshipped him like an idol. But at this moment, those who hated him wanted to skin and eat his flesh. They regarded him as the most hateful traitor.

A large number of cultivators rushed to Mount Yueshen and knelt before Moon Goddess. They hoped that Moon Goddess could kill Zhang Ruochen and avenge Supreme Saint Manjian.

However, Mount Yueshen was unusually calm.

Moon Goddess didn't see any petitioners because she was preparing for her Yuanhui Tribulation.

However, the cultivators in Celestial Court were very active. They were afraid that the world didn't know. The news of Zhang Ruochen killing Supreme Saint Manjian was spread throughout Celestial Court. They mocked Moon Goddess's spiritual sense for not knowing.

This storm was even more violent than the time Huang Tian betrayed Celestial Court.

The cultivators of Infernal Court didn't have much emotional fluctuation. They felt that Zhang Ruochen didn't do anything wrong. It was very normal that he cut all ties with previous cultivators since he had joined Infernal Court.

Zhou Zhen, Shentu Yunkong, and Gaunt, who had been caught by Zhang Ruochen in Infernal Court, were terrified after seeing the image.

Zhang Ruochen could even kill Supreme Saint Manjian as he wished, let alone them?

The three of them looked at each other. They no longer had any desire to resist. They decided to follow Zhang Ruochen obediently from now on.

In Wargod Bloodximus' Divinity Realm.

Wargod Bloodximus, Lord Ming, and Blood Empress all heaved a sigh of relief. The thing they were most worried about did not happen in the end.

Regardless of whether Zhang Ruochen did it to achieve his goal or if he was forced to do so, as long as he killed Supreme Saint Manjian, he could shut others up for the time being. No one could use his identity to argue anymore. Lord Ming nodded and said, "This sword strike didn't only take Supreme Saint Manjian's life, it also means that Zhang Ruochen's state of mind has undergone an unprecedented change. From now on, nothing can stop him."

Blood Empress was a little worried. “He’s doing something he doesn’t want to do. He’ll probably be in even more trouble after he enters Thousand-Koan Realm and Banshi Isshou Realm.”

“Everyone has to go through tribulations. Everyone’s heart has to be thoroughly tempered to be unyielding. As long as he has strong willpower, I believe that no matter how big the trouble is, it won’t be difficult for him.”

After saying this, Lord Ming stared at Wargod Bloodximius, “Zhang Ruochen chose his side decisively and drew a clear line with Celestial Court. He passed the first stage! But if... I mean if Zhang Ruochen enters Infernal Court with other motives, how much could Fane of Bloody War and Fane of Destiny tolerate him?”

The entire Divinity Realm fell silent.

Lord Ming’s question was too sensitive and straightforward.

“No matter what his motives are, he is my grandson. No one can touch his life. This is my limit,” said Wargod Bloodximius.

Then he added, “Of course, even if Zhang Ruochen isn’t my grandson, Fane of Bloody War and Fane of Destiny won’t kill him for his talent.

“Just like how Zhang Ruochen didn’t kill those cultivators of Celestial Court. He knew they had other intentions, but he didn’t care. It’s enough as long as they are useful.

“There are only two reasons a person can die.

“The first is that he has no value. The second is that he has greater value after he dies. “As long as he has value, he won’t die.

“Many old geezers want to train Zhang Ruochen into a knife to sharpen the hearts and create pressure for the Supreme Saints in Infernal Court.

“Now that the knife has become sharper, I believe they’ll be satisfied.

“Since he has such special value, you don’t have to worry about his life. Let him have some suffering. Could he, a Supreme Saint break the sky? Honestly, it will make me look at him in a new light if he really breaks the sky.”

Wargod Bloodximus said every word calmly. However, in his heart, he was looking forward to Zhang Ruochen to show even more brilliant light.

He could hold on even if Zhang Ruochen made a mess.

It was only when Zhang Ruochen became mediocre that he was disappointed.

“Ghost Master is really calm. This old man must be very angry. Ghosts have lost their ability to compete in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. They’ve been eliminated early.” Lord Ming laughed.

Blood Empress couldn’t laugh. She looked in the direction of Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Zhang Ruochen was heavily injured, but the road ahead wasn’t easy. There were death traps along the path waiting for him. Blood Empress was worried that Zhang Ruochen was still immersed in the pain of killing Supreme Saint Manjian and did not know that danger was approaching.

Chapter 2318 The Twelve Celestial Captives

The Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was vast and boundless. The six-colored star fog was brilliantly distributed, causing people to daydream endlessly.

Whoosh

An angel elder stood on a 200-meter-long space rock in the thick red star fog. His eyes were flowing with saint light as he looked into the distance.

He was quite old. His face was riddled with wrinkles, and his body was hunched. His back's feathered wings were frayed. He had clearly suffered greatly in the Infernal Court.

This was the only way back to the Immortal Vampires' home planet.

From afar, a golden light spot appeared in the starry sky.

It was a person.

That was Zhang Ruochen. His entire body radiated golden light. He took a step into the void. He could jump a long distance with each step he took. He had failed to locate Lord Xia Yu and was about to return to the home planet of the Immortal Vampires.

That angel elder was called Ci Haikong. He turned around and rushed into the red star fog. He said to a Supreme Saint Celestial Captive, who was hiding inside, "That traitor, Zhang Ruochen, is here!"

In the red star fog, a Supreme Saint had used his Saint Blood to carve an array inscription, which could conceal their presence.

A total of 12 Celestial Captives from the Hundred-Shackle Realm gathered in the red star fog, including the angel elder, Ci Haikong. There was a lizard-like Devilkin Supreme Saint, a bald man with a beard, and a plant growing in the whirlpool.

When they heard the name Zhang Ruochen, they all felt a strong desire to kill.

The plant growing in the whirlpool released light spots all over its body, turning into a white-haired old woman.

Her eyes were ferocious. She said, “Zhang Ruochen was originally a peerless talent nurtured by the Celestial Court with countless resources, but he took the initiative to join the Infernal Court. Such a traitor must be cut into a thousand pieces.”

“Zhang Ruochen may have escaped from the Ghost’s home planet, but his body is covered in blood. He must have been seriously injured. Now is the best time to eliminate him,” said Ci Haikong

A skinny Dwarf sat on a crystal-clear rock in the star fog, he said, “In the Saint prison, I heard that Zhang Ruochen killed a large number of Heavenly Realm young geniuses in the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun. That’s how he got the right to join the Infernal Court.

“I have been imprisoned in the Infernal Court for 600 years. I must kill a valuable cultivator of the Infernal Court and return to the Heavenly Realm to be valued again. Zhang Ruochen is the best candidate.”

That Dwarf was called Zhi Shang. He was the only Supreme Saint of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm present.

What was surprising was that he had a weapon in his hand.

It was a silver ax. The handle was taller than his body. On one side of the ax was a sun pattern, while on the other side was a moon pattern. Regal Inscriptions flowed on the edge of the ax.

This Class Three Regal Artifact tomahawk was the weapon Zhi Shang had stolen after killing a Stone Clan Supreme Saint.

Ci Haikong sneered. “With so many Supreme Saints gathered together, it would be strange if we can’t kill Zhang Ruochen. Now, let’s...”

Boom

An explosion sounded.

The space covered by the Saint Blood Array trembled violently under an unknown attack.

“I’m already here. What’s the point of hiding?”

Zhang Ruochen’s voice turned into sound waves that passed through the Saint Blood Array and rang in their ears.

The faces of the 12 Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints changed.

Zhi Shang suddenly stood up. Saint Light shot out from his body, and the tomahawk in his hand released a blinding silver light. “Oh no! Zhang Ruochen attacked us on his own initiative. How did he know we were hiding here?” said Zhi Shang.

“He must have noticed when I was observing him just now,” Ci Haikong said, his eyes serious and guilty. “His spiritual power and perception must be terrifying.”

BOOM!

Another attack was launched from outside.

The space trembled once more, and a large portion of the Saint Blood Array dimmed.

The temperature around them rose rapidly as if they had turned into a furnace.

The 12 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives in the Hundred-Shackle Realm were bewildered. One of them noticed that there were balls of white Divine Purification Flame that burned through the array inscriptions and floated into the array. “Emperor-level, Divine Purification Flame.” Zhang Ruochen called out.

A bald man with a full beard was touched by the Divine Purification Flame. His right arm immediately started to burn and his skin, which was thousands of times tougher than black iron, was burnt red as if it was about to melt.

It was also an Emperor-level flame. The higher the cultivator’s realm was, the more Precepts of Fire were integrated into it. The power of the flame was naturally greater.

Today, Zhang Ruochen's Divine Purification Flame had the terrifying power of refining a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint to death.

Zhang Ruochen spread out the ten golden wings on his back and hovered above the red star fog. He released an endless stream of Divine Purification Flame, covering the red star fog, which was 300 miles in diameter, and turning it into a white sea of fire.

The stability of the entire starry sky was rising rapidly.

"Zhang Ruochen wants to refine all of us to death here. Break out immediately and fight with him," the elderly woman with white hair said.

The elderly woman with white hair let out a long sob. Her white hair stood on end and transformed into white jade-like vines. They wriggled and expanded quickly. They passed through the Divine Purification Flame's layer of flames and collided with Zhang Ruochen, who was hovering above.

Although she was a plant and was afraid of flames, her cultivation was high enough to withstand the refining of the Divine Purification Flame in a short time.

"Anemo Vines," said the elderly woman with white hair.

Zhang Ruochen chanted softly and ignored the white vines. However, the Saint Devourer rushed out of his back and turned into purple vines wrapped in lightning. It spread downward.

"Master, this Anemo Vine belongs to me!" said Moyin.

The entrancing figure of Moyin emerged from Zhang Ruochen's back. Her legs were long, her waist soft as willow, her chest black lace, and her snow-white skin was barely visible.

Hundreds of Raiden Wisterias flew out from the five snow-green fingers on her right hand.

Two waves of vines, one up and one down, collided with each other.

The lightning and the hurricane collided.

BOOM! BOOM!

The white Anemo Vine didn't last long before the lightning turned it into black smoke.

The Saint Devourer had eaten too many elites. With Zhang Ruochen's Demigod-level physique, it had accumulated a lot of benefits. Now that the Ampliofruit had matured, its battle strength was enough to fight against a powerhouse at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

How could a mere Anemo Vine be its match?

"It's the Saint Devourer!" said the elderly woman with white hair.

The elderly woman with white hair was injured by the lightning and she let out a muffled voice.

Suddenly, she sensed something and looked up. The Saint Devourer's hundreds of Raiden Wisterias were like rain as they passed through the layer of flames of the Divine Purification Flame and wrapped around her body.

"Not good," said the elderly woman with white hair.

Before the elderly woman with white hair could dodge, the flower bud at the top of the Raiden Wisteria pierced through her Neverwithers physique.

In an instant, thousands of lightning bolts struck her body.

"AH..." the elderly woman with white hair screamed and almost fainted.

The other eleven Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints instinctively retreated when the Raiden Wisteria entered the layer of flames.

They wanted to rescue the elderly woman with white hair, but the Raiden Wisteria dragged the old woman out of the space where the Saint Blood Array was.

"After her!" said Ci Haikong.

Ci Haikong's angel wings spread out and turned into a white light that shot into the sky.

Crack

A one-meter-thick Raiden Wisteria whipped out from above the layer of flames like a whip. It hit Ci Haikong's body, causing him to spit out blood and fall back.

The remaining 10 Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm looked even more unsightly.

Even if Zhang Ruochen was injured, he seemed to be very powerful. Furthermore, he had the Saint Devourer as his helper.

In an instant, he could capture the Anemo Vine of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. The Saint Devourer on Zhang Ruochen's body was at least at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Today's battle might not be as easy as they had imagined.

"The Saint Blood Array can hold on for at most ten breaths. We can't just sit around and wait for death. Let's attack together and fight our way out." said Zhi Shang.

Zhi Shang grabbed the silver tomahawk with both hands. He continuously mobilized the Saint Qi in his body and injected it into the ax.

The silver light emitted by the silver tomahawk was even more dazzling. Each light was like a sharp blade that could kill cultivators below the Saint Realm.

"Break it," said Zhi Shang.

The silver ax hacked upward, forming a huge ax shadow that was a hundred miles long. It split the red star fog in half and tore a crack in the layer of the Divine Purification Flame with a crushing force.

The ax shadow seemed to have the power to split heaven and earth. It hacked toward Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen, who was controlling the Divine Purification Flame, only glanced at the ax shadow and closed his eyes.

Crash

Tens of thousands of Precepts of Dimension flew out from between his eyebrows, freezing the space in front of him and turning it into a thousand-meter-thick Dimensional Shield.

The ax shadow hacked at the Dimensional Shield and shattered the frozen space layer by layer, sinking more than 500 meters deep.

“Your power is too weak. It’s far from enough to hurt me,” Zhang Ruochen said indifferently.

Zhi Shang roared. His two thick arms emitted red light streaks. His power grew stronger. He shattered the thousand-meter-thick Dimensional Shield with a boom.

Just as the ax shadow was about to land on Zhang Ruochen’s head, two Dimensional Rifts flew out of his eyes. They directly cut the ax shadow into three pieces and then disappeared into the void.

With Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation, he could use the Power of Dimension as he wished.

“How can he be so powerful?” said Zhi Shang.

Zhi Shang was in disbelief. Didn’t Zhang Ruochen just break through to the Supreme Saint Realm last year? Even if he could fight across realms, he shouldn’t have reached the level of the Thousand-Koan Realm, right?

The information in Celestial Captive’s hands was lagging behind, but Zhang Ruochen’s progress was too fast. Not only was Zhi Shang injured, but the other Celestial Captives were also stunned.

On the other side, the elderly woman with white hair had transformed into a white Anemo Vine after being dragged out of the layer of flames of the Divine Purification Flame by the Raiden Wisteria.

It didn’t take long for Moyin to use hundreds of Raiden Wisteria to absorb all the Anemo Vines.

“Master, my wounds have healed!” Now I’ll have a good time with them.” Moyin said with a soft and pleasant voice and showed a charming smile.

When Xu had used a flash of light to self-destruct, Moyin had also suffered some serious injuries.

Now that her injuries had healed, her battle prowess had risen to a whole new level.

Whack

Moyin controlled hundreds of Raiden Wisterias, enveloping an area of 150 kilometers. All the Celestial Captives who wanted to rush out of the Divine Purification Flame were sent flying back. None of them could escape.

CIE

All the Celestial Captives who were trapped in the Divine Purification Flame were regretful.

Why had they gathered together before?

They had trapped themselves in a cocoon.

Even if they tried to flee separately now, it would be extremely difficult.

The layer of flames of the Divine Purification Flame shrank rapidly. It squeezed the Celestial Captives' space and allowed the flames to condense even more. Que Fei, who had transformed into an Elven Saint King, revealed himself in a white fog about 500 miles away from Zhang Ruochen, he said in surprise, "Zhang Ruochen is really ruthless. He has no mercy for the Supreme Saints of the Celestial Court. He wants to burn them all to death."

At this moment, no cultivator dared to say that Zhang Ruochen had any connection with the Celestial Court.

It was unknown whether the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms was deliberately targeting Zhang Ruochen. They quickly projected the images here to all parts of the Infernal Court and the Battlefield of Merits, causing another uproar.

More cultivators wanted to attack Zhang Ruochen,

Whoosh

The area covered by the Divine Purification Flame was reduced to about 50 meters in diameter. The 11 Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm tried their best to break out. Even if Moyin's cultivation was strong, she couldn't completely defend against them.

Zhi Shang was the first to rush out. He flew in an arc and appeared 50 kilometers away.

Then, he roared and raised his silver tomahawk with both hands. He hacked at the hundreds of Raiden Wisteria controlled by Moyin. Only by cutting off these vines could Celestial Captive, who was trapped in the Divine Purification Flame, escape. At that time, with the combined power of the 11 Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, they could fight against Zhang Ruochen and the Saint Devourer.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Zhi Shang from the corner of his eyes. He controlled the Divine Purification Flame with one hand and grabbed the Ghost-headed Whip that he had taken from Popobawa Ghost Emperor with the other.

Whoosh

The Ghost-headed Whip flew out like a dark dragon and wrapped around the tomahawk in Zhi Shang's hand.

At the top of the whip, a palace-sized skull poked out. Its eyes were burning with bone fire, and two sharp fangs poked out of its mouth. It bit Zhi Shang.

Zhi Shang held the ax in one hand and the skull's teeth in the other, struggling to hold on.

Although Zhi Shang was a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he had been imprisoned in the Saint Prison for 600 years. He had lost a lot of blood and Qi. After entering the Battle of Celestial-Huntingfield, his spiritual power had been sealed, so his battle strength was greatly reduced.

Even Popobawa Ghost Emperor, ranked 54th on the list of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, was more powerful than him.

Que Fei floated above the white star fog. A disdainful smile appeared on his handsome face, "These Celestial Captives are really useless. More than a dozen of them are in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but Zhang Ruochen managed to capture them all in one go. Tsk, tsk. Looks like I'll have to help them."

His two fingers combined and formed a sword gesture. He drew a circle in front of him.

At the center of the circle, a large amount of heaven and earth Saint Qi gathered together to form a meter-long black sword.

Que Fei strikes out a palm and hits the center of the circle. The black sword flew out like a shuttle of light and hit the skull on the top of the Ghost-headed Whip in an instant, sending the skull flying. Zhi Shang took advantage of the situation to escape. His arm spun like a windmill and swung, throwing the silver tomahawk in his hand out.

The silver tomahawk spun and flew, cutting off a large part of the Raiden Wisteria.

"Damn it! Who's helping them?" Moyin took two steps back. Her charming eyes turned cold. She released her spiritual power to look for the person who had just attacked.

Zhang Ruochen knew exactly what to do. He was much more at ease. He stomped down after activating 10 million Divine Marks on his left leg with a deep breath.

Since he couldn't kill them directly, he had to end the battle another way.

"Yanshen's Leg."

Zhang Ruochen's leg burned with flames. As he stomped down, a huge Yanshen's Leg appeared. The soles of his feet covered a radius of 100 miles.

Rumble

Yanshen's Leg split the cloud of Divine Purification Flame. The vigorous destructive power landed on the 10 Celestial Captives and sent them flying in all directions. Three of the Hundred-Shackle Realm Celestial Captives with lower cultivation could not withstand the power of Yanshen's Leg. Their Neverwithers were shattered, and their spirits were destroyed. They died on the spot.

The other seven Celestial Captives in the Hundred-Shackle Realm had survived, but they were all seriously injured. The divine flame melted their skin and soaked into their blood, flesh, and bone marrow. It kept burning, making them suffer.

“They’re all yours. Don’t let any of them live,” Zhang Ruochen ordered Saint Devourer. The space around him shook and he disappeared.

From the moment he decided to fight for first place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen had hidden all his compassion and made himself ruthless and cold-blooded.

One Word, kill.

Kindness would not only harm him, but it would also not achieve his goal.

‘The 12 Celestial Captives in the Hundred-Shackle Realm represented millions of points.

According to Gu Chenzi’s initial calculations, the Bloodysky Clan only needed six million points in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting to reach the middle level and complete the mission of the Bloodysky Clan’s gods.

Killing all 12 Hundred-Shackle Realm Celestial Captives would almost collect enough points.

If Zhang Ruochen used another method, he could find 12 Hundred- Shackle Realm Celestial Captives hiding in various locations throughout the vast Battle of Celestial-Huntingfield and kill them all while they were attempting to flee.

100 days was not enough.

Therefore, such an opportunity today could only be found by chance.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to kill them for this reason, even if he was seriously injured. He didn’t want to pass up this fantastic opportunity.

“Master, don’t worry. I will eat them all... one by one... hehe...”

aid Moyin.

Moyin’s delicate and charming face lit up with a soul-stirring smile. She didn’t need Zhang Ruochen’s instructions to kill and devour Celestial Captives. She couldn’t have wished for anything better.

Whoosh

The vines that had been cut off by the silver tomahawk absorbed the Saint Qi, blood qi, Sainthood Source, and Saint Soul Fragments of the three dead Celestial Captives. Purple leaves and vines instantly grew back.

There were more than 400 purple vines in total. All of them grew to a thousand miles long.

They not only grew the main branch, but they also grew a lot of vines.

Lightning and Divine Purification Flame surged on the vines and leaves. They turned into a sea of lightning and fire, trapping the seven Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints inside. They couldn’t escape no matter what.

“It’s just a Saint Devourer. How can it be so terrifying? With our Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivation, we can’t beat it,” said one of the seven Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints.

“A plant that’s not afraid of lightning and fire. Instead, it can control it. It must be Zhang Ruochen’s parasitic plant. Whatever Zhang Ruochen is good at, it can get the same ability,” said another one of the seven Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints.

“The seven Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints were angry and desperate at the same time.

They had placed their hopes on Zhi Shang. However, when they looked over, they realized that a streak of blinding golden light had exploded in the distant void.

Zhi Shang was thrown out of the golden light. A bloody hole the size of a bowl had appeared in his chest. The fluctuation of Saint Qi on his body weakened rapidly.

Zhang Ruochen, who stood in the golden light, chased after him. The five golden wings on the left side of his back slashed at Zhi Shang's body one after another. They broke the defense of the Neverwithers physique and cut Zhi Shang into two halves.

Zhi Shang was still alive.

Zhang Ruochen formed a Dimensional Storm with his sleeve, blowing the two halves of Zhi Shang into the sky above the sea of thunder and fire where the Saint Devourer vines intertwined.

"Thank you for the reward, Master," said Moyin.

Moyin smiled charmingly and blinked her bright eyes. She separated two vines and twined around the two halves of Zhi Shang, constantly absorbing his blood qi and Saint Qi.

Pan Ruo, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Mistress Fireborn, Lord Sinluo, and Mad Whitejade Lion rode The Scroll of Truth and Deceit to this starfield. They were all shocked when they saw the Saint Devourer vines that covered a thousand miles.

"Those 12 Celestial Captives in the Hundred-Shackle Realm are so weak. They can't even deal with a seriously injured Zhang Ruochen?" Mad Whitejade Lion said in disappointment.

Lord Sinluo was quite disdainful, he said, "Other than the five Celestial Captives in the Thousand-Koan Realm and Lord Hornless, the other Celestial Captives are just easy prey. It's a pity that Zhang Ruochen has all the benefits. Killing them will earn him a lot of points."

Mistress Fireborn looked at Pan Ruo and said meaningfully, "Zhang Ruochen's points are too easy to earn, aren't they?"

There was blame in her words.

Pan Ruo was not taken aback. “Easy? There are 12 Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, one of whom is at the Hundred-Shackle Realm’s Great Perfection stage. What happens if you fight them both at the same time?”

“I miscalculated, but who would have thought that Zhang Ruochen would be so powerful as soon as he broke through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm?”

“Who would have thought that Zhang Ruochen would be able to obtain a great opportunity in the underground of the Ghost’s home planet, and his cultivation would soar?”

“Just now, we went to the underground of the Ghost’s home planet. You were all terrified by the golden fog. Even the Supreme Artifact couldn’t stop it completely. Zhang Ruochen must have discovered some kind of secret to be given this opportunity.

“Besides, Zhang Ruochen is already seriously injured. Because of the Saint Devourer, he was able to deal with 12 Celestial Captives in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. This is also a variable beyond our expectations.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said, “The battle strength of this Saint Devourer is indeed terrifying. If I don’t have a Supreme Artifact, I might not be able to deal with it.”

The others were all taken aback when they heard this.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was the number one Deathkin powerhouse, ranked 12th on the list of Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Even if he didn’t use a Supreme Artifact, most of the Supreme Saints in the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm weren’t his match.

Did this mean that the Saint Devourer was a Supreme Saint elite in the Thousand-Koan Realm?

Supreme Saing Yuan Fei said, “The seven Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints were suppressed by it. Ordinary Supreme Saints in the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm can’t do it.”

“While the Saint Devourer is still dealing with the Celestial Captive, we will attack immediately and kill Zhang Ruochen first. As long as we kill Zhang Ruochen, as a parasitic plant, the Saint Devourer will naturally die,” said Mistress Fireborn and put on a cold smile.

Pan Ruo said, “Everyone must be on guard against the Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive who hasn’t shown up yet. Be careful not to suffer a great loss.”

“Your Highness Pan Ruo, why are you still so timid even at this moment? The so-called Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive was your guess from the beginning. If he really came, how could he just watch as the Hundred-Shackle Realm Celestial Captives were killed? In my opinion, there is no such person as the Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive,” said Mistress Fireborn.

Mistress Fireborn added, “If you continue to be so conservative, I’m afraid that the plan to kill Zhang Ruochen will fail.”

There was always a battle between women, especially beautiful women.

Pan Ruo didn’t pay attention to Mistress Fireborn. Suddenly, she narrowed her eyes and asked, “Where’s Zhang Ruochen?”

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had disappeared from their sight.

“He must have used the Power of Dimension to move somewhere else. Did he sense that we were hiding nearby?” said Pan Ruo.

Everyone used their own methods to look for Zhang Ruochen.

Que Fei, who was hiding in the white fog, was also surprised. He quickly pressed his hands on his temples and muttered, “Eye of Darkness.”

His pupils dilated and filled the whites of his eyes. His eyes became completely black.

“Power of Darkness. No wonder you can hide so well.”

Zhang Ruochen’s voice sounded behind Que Fei. It seemed to be right beside his ears.

Que Fei's face turned extremely pale. In this critical situation, he pressed his palms together. In an instant, his skin split open.

Pieces of black metal rushed out from under his skin and turned into armor.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's right palm, carrying the power of three elephant souls in the Thousand-Koan Realm, hit Que Fei's back.

"The Ray of Darkness devours everything," Que Fei shouted.

What was surprising was that Zhang Ruochen's palm could pierce through Zhi Shang's Neverwithers physique. However, when it hit Que Fei's back, it felt like it hit the air.

Not only that but there was also a powerful rotating force pulling his palm forward.

Zhang Ruochen's vision was dark as if he had fallen into a dark abyss. The strong sense of weightlessness made him feel very uncomfortable.

'Armor of Darkness.' Zhang Ruochen thought in his mind.

The so-called Armor of Darkness was an armor refined by the Fane of Darkness using one of the top ten substances in the universe, dark matter. It was supported by the Power of Darkness.

'When the Armor of Darkness was worn, it not only had incredible defensive power, but it could also absorb Saint Qi energy from the enemy's body and transform it into its own power. It even had an impact on time and space.

Que Fei did not bring any weapon into the Battle of Celestial-Huntingfield. He only brought the Armor of Darkness.

Zhang Ruochen's palm power and the Divine Purification Flame, including the Precepts of the Palm, were all continuously absorbed by the Armor of Darkness.

The three Thousand-Koan Realm elephant souls in his arms roared. Even they were absorbed by the Dark Power. They escaped from Zhang Ruochen's arms and rushed into the armor.

"Zhang Ruochen, I was prepared to deal with you. The Power of Darkness, it's truly amazing, right?" Que Fei laughed.

"I don't believe that a mere Armor of Darkness can swallow everything."

Zhang Ruochen shouted coldly. He mobilized all the Precepts of Dimension in his sea of Qi and rushed towards his right palm. When the Precepts of Dimension gushed out from his palm, they transformed into Power of Dimension and became layers of dimensional shock waves.

Bang Bang Bang

'When the dimensional shock wave struck Que Fei's back, his expression changed slightly. The Armor of Darkness clearly could not absorb the Power of Dimension completely.

The dimensional shock power passed through the Armor of Darkness and hit Que Fei's Neverwithers physique.

Finally, Que Fei couldn't take it any longer. He spat out three mouthfuls of Saint blood in quick succession. His body was the size of a cannonball. Zhang Ruochen's palm power launched him into the air.

Although Zhang Ruochen had injured Que Fei, he had suffered a smaller but comparable level of damage. Blood flowed out of his mouth. His right hand had been corroded by the power of the Armor of Darkness. The bones of his fingers were exposed.

His entire arm was covered in ley lines of Darkness.

'The Power of Darkness was eroding his body. His right arm became numb. He couldn't muster any strength.

"As expected of the nine Paths of the Ancients. The Power of Darkness has been cultivated to a high level. It's so terrifying."

Zhang Ruochen mobilized the life essence of the Divine Purification Flame and the Heart of the Divine Tree to refine the Power of Darkness. At the same time, he turned into a streak of golden light and used ten golden wings to attack Que Fei.

“The Power of Darkness can’t completely swallow the Power of Dimension. As expected of the nine Paths of the Ancients.”

Que Fei looked back and his expression changed again. He immediately turned into a streak of black light and flew forward.

Que Fei’s speed was faster than Zhang Ruochen had expected. Pink Skull and Xu were ranked higher than Que Fei on the Hundred-Shackle Realm’s Great Perfection stage list. However, they were much slower than Que Fei in terms of speed.

Below the Thousand-Koan Realm, only Que’s speed could beat Que Fei.

Although Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu were also very fast, it was unknown if they could surpass Que Fei.

The black and gold light shuttles chased and flew in the six-colored starry sky. Wherever they passed, the rocks in the universe crumbled and turned into dust.

“Que Fei has been exposed. Hurry up and chase after him,” said Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei controlled The Scroll of Truth and Deceit and activated the Supreme Power. He brought Pan Ruo, Mad Whitejade Lion, Lord Sinluo, and Mistress Fireborn and chased after the black and gold light beams.

Zhang Ruochen chased after them. He took out the Ghost-headed Whip and lashed it at Que Fei.

“Shadow Clones.”

Que Fei’s body split into 100.

100 Que Fei flew at the same time. Their bodies were disordered and had the power of hallucination.

BOOM! BOOM!

The Ghost-headed Whip smashed dozens of Que Fei’s bodies into pieces, but it didn’t hit Que Fei’s real body.

Zhang Ruochen used the Eye of Truth to identify them, but he found that Que Fei's real body kept changing positions in the illusions. Each illusion could turn into his real body in the next moment.

In other words, he did not have a fixed real body.

"Such a clever Shadow clone technique?"

Zhang Ruochen activated the Power of Dimension again. He performed the Great Dimensional Shift and appeared in front of Que Fei during his rapid flight. He turned around and struck out with his palm.

"Zhang Ruochen, you are seriously injured, but you still chase me. Do you really think I am a pushover?" said Que Fei.

Que Fei was determined. He mobilized the Power of Darkness and condensed a dark longsword in his hand.

Que Fei thrust the sword toward Zhang Ruochen's palm.

If Zhang Ruochen was still in his prime, Que Fei might have been a little afraid of him. But now, Zhang Ruochen was just a sick tiger, trying to hold on.

Zhang Ruochen did not want to directly touch Que Fei, who was wearing the Armor of Darkness. Therefore, what he struck out with his palm was not the power of the palm, but the dimensional shock wave.

Que Fei had been at a disadvantage in the dimensional shock wave. Unlike Ye Changzai, who was unprepared, he sensed the dimensional shock wave. He immediately brandished the dark longsword in his hand, breaking the dimensional shock wave.

"Take this. Darkness descends." Que Fei said.

The dark longsword struck down in Que Fei's hand.

Zhang Ruochen's Ghost-headed Whip shrank to only five feet in length. Driven by Saint Qi, it became hard and straight, like a sword filled with Ghostly Qi.

"I'd like to see if your sword is faster than yours."

Zhang Ruochen was never afraid of anyone in a sword fight.

“Sword Ten.”

Zhang Ruochen used the Ghost-headed Whip and drew a circle around his body.

In the circle, sword Qi crisscrossed. Thousands of Sword shadows appeared and merged with Zhang Ruochen's body. The next moment, Zhang Ruochen soared through the sky and stabbed toward Que Fei.

Diagonally above.

Que Fei slashed down with his sword. Instantly, the starry sky became pitch black, as if night had fallen.

No one could see where the sword was. The sword had merged with the darkness..

Chapter 2320: The Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive

Darkness Descends was a high-level saint's sword technique created by combining the Path of Sword and the Path of Darkness.

The sword technique was strange, shapeless, and corrosive.

For other Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, this was an unbreakable killing technique. It was very likely that a life-and-death battle could be decided between one or two sword strikes.

Not being able to see the sword was the greatest danger.

However, Zhang Ruochen had the Heart of Truth and released The Spatial Domain, so he could clearly sense the trajectory of Que Fei's sword.

Boom

The skull on top of the Ghost-headed Whip accurately hit the Sword of Darkness in Que Fei's hand. Layers of dark rays spread out like water ripples.

The Ghost-headed Whip shattered the Sword of Darkness with a crack and went straight for Que Fei's head.

Que Fei's head and hands weren't covered by the Armor of Darkness, which was his biggest weakness.

"Darkness Descends has no effect on him. Right, it must be The Spatial Domain. No matter how my sword changes, it's always in space. It can't hide from Zhang Ruochen's spatial perception.

Que Fei reacted quickly. He leaned back and kicked the Ghost-headed Whip.

At the same time, Que Fei mobilized the Power of Darkness. A Sword of Darkness condensed in his hand again. It was as fast as lightning and stabbed toward Zhang Ruochen's heart.

BOOM! BOOM!

Both of them were extremely fast. Their sword technique attainments were superb. In an instant, they exchanged hundreds of sword strikes. It was difficult to separate.

Que Fei not only used the Power of Darkness, but he also used the illusion technique that he was very good at. Thus, even with the help of the Heart of Truth and The Spatial Domain, Zhang Ruochen still fought with great difficulty. He did not dare to relax even a little.

A battle between top powerhouses could cost one's life if one made a slight mistake.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Pan Ruo, and the others rode The Scroll of Truth and Deceit to catch up. They arrived in the nearby starry sky and watched the intense battle between the two in the distance. They were dazzled by their cultivation and eyesight. They could only see crisscrossing golden and black figures.

Que Fei and Zhang Ruochen were too fast. Pan Ruo and the rest could not get in.

"Their speed is much faster than mine. Only by using a forbidden technique can we compete with them in speed," said Supreme Saint Yuan Fei as he frowned and displayed a solemn face.

Using a forbidden technique required one to pay a price. Either one would lose one's lifespan or one would be weak for a long period after using it.

In short, unless it was absolutely necessary, no cultivator would use a forbidden technique to forcefully increase his speed.

Mad Whitejade Lion said, "Zhang Ruochen's speed has become faster. With my cultivation at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, I can barely see their moves. If I fight them in the same realm, I wonder if I can survive five moves?"

“This is not all of Zhang Ruochen’s speed,” said Pan Ruo.

Everyone’s eyes were fixed on her.

Pan Ruo said slowly, “Don’t forget that Zhang Ruochen is seriously injured. His speed must be greatly reduced. This is one of the reasons.

“Two, do you feel that Zhang Ruochen has not used the Path of Time? If he uses the Power of Time, his speed will be faster than now.”

“Mad Whitejade Lion was puzzled and asked, “Why doesn’t he use the Power of Time?”

“He must have noticed our presence, so he is holding back in case he is ambushed.” Pan Ruo guessed.

The Scroll of Truth and Deceit could indeed hide their aura completely.

“When flying at full speed, however, it would spread out waves and affect the space to some extent.

As the Master of Space, how could Zhang Ruochen not sense it?

They activated The Scroll of Truth and Deceit at full speed to catch up as soon as possible.

“Their bodies are constantly changing, and the Power of Darkness affects my perception. I can’t lock on to them,” said Lord Sinluo, who wanted to use the Dark Arrow, but he couldn’t find the right opportunity to lift the Frostwood Bow for a long time.

“Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, your spiritual power is the strongest,” Pan Ruo said. “Send a message to Que Fei, requesting that he separate from Zhang Ruochen. We’ll use the Supreme Artifact to eliminate Zhang Ruochen.”

“I think it’s not a bad thing for Que Fei and Zhang Ruochen to continue fighting,” said Mistress Fireborn. She put on a smile but she seemed to disagree with Pan Ruo.

“What do you mean?” Mad Whitejade Lion asked curiously.

Mistress Fireborn was very confident in her judgment. She rested her chin on her finger and said, "Zhang Ruochen's injuries are very serious," she said. "We have seen it for ourselves. Although he has defeated several Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, his injuries will definitely worsen.

"As long as Que Fei can hold him for a while, when he loses a lot of Saint blood in his body, he will fall without our help."

'Mad Whitejade Lion said, "What if something unexpected happens? I think Pan Ruo's strategy is more stable."

Mistress Fireborn glanced at the silent Pan Ruo, she pursed her lips and said with a smile, "Since we have been exposed, we can walk out of The Scroll of Truth and Deceit and surround Zhang Ruochen with our true form to create pressure on him. That way, Que Fei will have a better advantage, and Zhang Ruochen doesn't dare to use his full strength."

"Are you trying to grind Zhang Ruochen to death here?" Lord Sinluo sneered.

Lord Sinluo thought that Mistress Fireborn's strategy was brilliant. He couldn't let Zhang Ruochen die too easily. Lord Sinluo wanted to let Zhang Ruochen fall into despair step by step. In the end, Zhang Ruochen will struggle painfully on the edge of death.

Pan Ruo said, "Who will be responsible in case of an accident?"

"What accident could there be?" said Mistress Fireborn.

Although Mistress Fireborn's tone was calm, there was a hint of conflict in her eyes, she said again, "To kill Zhang Ruochen, the Master of Time and Space, we need a powerhouse who is speedy like Que Fei to tie him up. If we rescue Que Fei and Zhang Ruochen uses the Power of Time and Space to escape, we may not be able to keep him."

Pan Ruo shut her mouth and did not say anything more.

Swish Swish

Lord Sinluo, Mistress Fireborn, and Mad Whitejade Lion flew out of The Scroll of Truth and Deceit one after another and appeared in the other three directions of the battle circle between Zhang Ruochen and Que Fei.

Pan Ruo's cultivation was low, so she stayed in The Scroll of Truth and Deceit with Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said, "Your Highness, are you still worried about the Celestial Captive of the Thousand-Koan Realm?"

Pan Ruo nodded her head.

"I think what Mistress Fireborn said makes sense. If a Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive was lurking nearby, he would not have stood by and watched as the 12 Hundred-Shackle Realm Celestial Captives were being slaughtered. He would have made his move long ago," Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said.

suddenly.

Pan Ruo's eyes widened and she said, "Oh no, Mad Whitejade Lion is in danger."

A thousand miles away.

A purple meteorite silently crashed into Mad Whitejade Lion.

The purple meteorite was more than two thousand meters long. It was irregular and contained a metallic luster. Its hardness was not something an ordinary rock asteroid could compare to.

Mad Whitejade Lion was a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. His senses were extremely strong. Of course, when it sensed the purple meteorite flying towards it, it immediately transformed into its original form, the Sacred Imperial Jade Lion.

His lion form was even bigger than the purple meteorite. The saint light on its body lit up the starry sky.

ROAR!

Mad Whitejade Lion released a loud roar and raised a sharp jade claw to attack the purple meteorite.

Logically speaking, with its cultivation level, not to mention a small meteorite that was more than 2,000 meters in diameter, even a planet that was more than 2,000 kilometers in diameter could be shattered.

However, just as it waved its jade claws, it was shattered into pieces of Sacred Imperial Jade and flew out.

BOOM!

BOOM!

BOOM!

Mad Whitejade Lion was hit three times in a row. Each time, a large part of its body would be shattered.

In the end, more than half of its lion form was shattered, leaving only its head and a small part of its body intact as it flew into a nebula.

After suffering such serious injuries, it was very likely that its Saint Soul and consciousness had already been shattered.

The cultivators who saw this through the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms were all shocked. They did not know what had happened?

The original form of Mad Whitejade Lion was the Sacred Imperial Jade. How hard was it? Why was it shattered by a small meteorite?

“Who is it?” said Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei immediately mobilized all his power to activate The Scroll of Truth and Deceit.

Crash

8,000 words flew out of the scroll. Each word contained Supreme Power. Sometimes it was virtual, sometimes it was real. They flew rapidly toward the purple meteorite, trying to suppress it.

A circle of spatial ripples appeared near the purple meteorite and then disappeared.

“Power of Dimension? Could it be Zhang Ruochen’s hidden technique... It can’t be. Zhang Ruochen is fighting with Que Fei. How could he have spare power to ambush Mad Whitejade Lion?”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei released his spiritual power, covering an area of 10,000 miles in search of the disappeared purple meteorite.

The opponent could easily beat Mad Whitejade Lion into pieces. He was definitely a terrifying existence.

Pan Ruo said, “There are only a handful of Masters of Space, but there are many Supreme Saints who cultivate the Path of Dimension. The one who attacked Mad Whitejade Lion was not Zhang Ruochen, but a Celestial Captive, the Celestial Captive of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

“That meteorite is not an ordinary meteorite, but an Armor of Meteorite.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was stunned, he said, “Armor of Meteorite? As far as I know, the Armor of Meteorite was refined by the Fane of Meteorite, one of the 24 Asura fanes, 100,000 years ago. A total of 16 sets were refined. Only seven sets are still preserved.

“No...

“Since he is wearing the Armor of Meteorite, he should be a Supreme Saint of the Fane of Meteorite. How could he be a Celestial Captive?”

The Precepts of Destiny appeared in Pan Ruo’s eyes as she searched for traces of the purple meteorite. “It’s simple. The Fane of Meteorite doesn’t have such a powerful cultivator.

“As far as I know, one of the five Celestial Captives in the Thousand-Koan Realm is a traitor of the Fane of Meteorite. His name is Saint Lord Zuo Mu. His cultivation has reached the mid-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

“That’s why I dare to guess that Saint Lord Zuo Mu killed the Fane of Meteorite’s captain and took away his Armor of Meteorite. He has been hiding nearby.

“Saint Lord Zuo Mu must have seen through Que Fei’s disguise as the Elven Saint King. Our actions have long been seen through by him. However, he has been waiting patiently for us to make a mistake.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei had mixed feelings, he said, “I should have thought of this earlier. Among the Celestial Captives, not only are there Supreme Saints from the Celestial Court. Furthermore, even if they are Celestial Captives from the Celestial Court, they wouldn’t care about the lives of the other Celestial Captives on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, They only care about their own survival. Mad Whitejade Lion was tricked by Mistress Fireborn... This is bad, the purple meteorite has appeared again!”

As a weak space fluctuation appeared, the purple meteorite appeared again and hovered above Mistress Fireborn..

Chapter 2321: Each With Their Own Ulterior Motives

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The 2,000-meter-long purple meteorite crashed heavily on Mistress Fireborn's body. A surging purple murderous aura rushed into her body and destroyed her vitality.

The red flame on Mistress Fireborn's body was extinguished. She screamed and fell rapidly.

Rumble

The purple meteorite hit Mistress Fireborn again, turning her Neverwilt body into a bloody mess as if she was about to explode.

Just as the purple meteorite was about to launch its third attack, the 8,000 words of the Scroll of Truth and Deceit flew over. In an instant, a laugh came from the purple meteorite as it disappeared without a trace.

"Saint Lord Zuo Mu is too cunning. He doesn't even fight head-on with the Supreme Artifact. He would run right after he attacked."

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei's state of mind was usually very calm. But he had lost two Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints of Great Perfection level in an instant. No matter how good one's state of mind was, they would go mad.

He had never suffered such a loss, even when he fought against the three middle clans.

Mistress Fireborn, covered in blood, was floating in the void like a red leaf. There were living signs but no active signs of spiritual power. She entered a state of unconsciousness.

"Hurry back and meet us."

Pan Ruo sent Lord Sinluo a message through voice transmission.

Lord Sinluo was also frightened. He released all of his spiritual power. While he was wary of his surroundings, he flew in the direction of the Scroll of Truth and Deceit.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei split his spiritual power into two and sent them to the side of Mistress Fireborn and Mad Whitejade Lion to check on their condition.

“Luckily, they are still alive,” said Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Pan Ruo sighed and waved her hand. “Ask the vessel spirit of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms to send them out of the battlefield.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was helpless and finally nodded his head.

The injuries of Mistress Fireborn and Mad Whitejade Lion were too severe. There was no way they could recover during Celestial-Hunting Festival. It’d be best to send them out of the battlefield.

After Mistress Fireborn and Mad Whitejade Lion were sent out, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei sighed. “If all of us had followed your proposal to stick together, no matter how strong Saint Lord Zuo Mu was, he would not have succeeded. Losing two Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints was disadvantageous to us.”

Pan Ruo remained calm. She said, “Saint Lord Zuo Mu was an ascendant from Snowman Clan. He was later taken in as a disciple by the leader of the Fane of Meteorite. He was extremely talented and was known as the Supreme Saint with the highest potential to attain divinity. It was a pity that he was too eager for success. In order to break through his cultivation realm at the greatest speed, he had been controlled by his inner demon. Within a few months, he had refined more than ten planets of the Asurans.

“The Supreme Saint from the Fane of Meteorite rushed over to stop him but was killed instead.

“He killed seven Supreme Saints of the Fane of Meteorite in a row when he was on the run to a desolate starry space region. In the end, he was captured by the Destiny Guards.

“Although Saint Lord Zuo Mu was at the mid-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm, with his talent and cultivation in the Path of Dimension, his battle prowess won’t be inferior to a peak-stage Thousand-Koan Realm elite.

“Of course, after entering the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, his spiritual power has been sealed, and he only has one meteorite armor to use. Hence, his attack power should not be so horrifying.

“However, he should still be able to reach the advanced stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm.”

Supreme Saint Yuanfei nodded slightly and said, “It seems that even if we have the Scroll of Truth and Deceit, the two of us may not be a match for Saint Lord Zuo Mu. This battle has become difficult!”

Pan Ruo stared at Zhang Ruochen and Que Fei, who were still in an intense fight. She narrowed her eyes and said, “Ask Que Fei to return. Only with the combined strength of the four of us can we deter Saint Lord Zuo Mu. As for Zhang Ruochen...”

Under the protection of the 8,000 Words of Truth and Deceit, Lord Sinluo returned to the Scroll of Truth and Deceit. With lingering fear, he asked, “What exactly happened to Mad Whitejade Lion and Mistress Fireborn? Is It Lord Homnless? Or is it Luo Shengtian?”

Yuan Fei explained Pan Ruo’s speculation to him.

Lord Sinluo slapped his forehead and showed regret. He said, “Pan Ruo is very thoughtful. If I had listened to her earlier, how could I have lost today?”

“Not yet.”

Pan Ruo said again, “Now that there are three major forces, we still have a chance to kill Zhang Ruochen and take his treasures.

“However, before that, perhaps we can join hands with Zhang Ruochen to get rid of Saint Lord Zuo Mu.”

“Join hands? How could Zhang Ruochen possibly join hands with us?” Lord Sinluo smirked and shook his head.

Pan Ruo’s face remained emotionless. Her eyes were deep.
“Saint Lord Zuo Mu is our common enemy and a great threat to Zhang Ruochen. He might join hands with us. There is no perpetual enemy.”

Moyin, who looked like an evil demonic beauty, swallowed all Hundred-Shackle Realm Celestial Captives. It rushed to the nearby starry region and landed on a cosmic rock. Its aura became stronger.

Zhang Ruochen and Que Fei had already discovered Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s presence. They didn’t dare to continue fighting and separated.

Dark patterns flowed on Zhang Ruochen’s arm. The cold Power of Darkness eroded half of his body.

Que Fei did not gain any advantage either. He was hit in the abdomen by Zhang Ruochen’s last sword strike. The Time Marks entered his body and cut off 300 years of his lifespan. He was weakened.

Moyin walked to Zhang Ruochen’s side and asked with concern, “Master, your injury...”

Zhang Ruochen stood straight, his eyes bright, his temperament outstanding. Although there was no trace of blood on his face, there were three wounds on his chest. Nevertheless, his condition did not affect his fighting spirit at the slightest.

As long as his fighting spirit remained, no one would dare to treat him as a severely injured person.

Creak, creak

Moyin’s snow-white fingers grabbed Zhang Ruochen’s wrist and absorbed the Dark Power that invaded his body bit by bit, transferring it into its own body.

As a Saint Devourer, there were very few powers in the world that it could not absorb.

Pan Ruo stared at Zhang Ruochen and Moyin's intimate scene. But her expression remained the same. She said, "Zhang Ruochen, we are all hunters. Why don't we work together to get rid of the prey who is lurking in the dark?"

Unexpectedly, Zhang Ruochen agreed without hesitation.

"Okay, but I'd like to know. How are we going to split the points after killing him?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Sinluo snorted. "The points for the twelve Hundred-Shackle Realm Celestial Captives are enough for Bloodysky Clan to get a high ranking among the Immortal Vampires. Do you still want the points for a Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive?"

"If you refuse to join hands with us, you will end up dying in the hands of that Thousand-Koan Realm slave."

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were indifferent. He didn't even look at him. Instead, he kept staring at Pan Ruo's beautiful face and said, "If that's your attitude, I won't accompany you. Moyin, let's go."

"Wait."

Pan Ruo glared at Lord Sinluo with her bright eyes. "A Supreme Saint's vitality is very strong," she said. "He is hard to kill. Only if we work together and use our Supreme Artifacts will we have a chance to kill the Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive. After we get rid of him, we'll split the points equally."

"What do you think?"

Mo Yin's delicate body leaned gently to Zhang Ruochen's side. She whispered in his ear, "Master, don't believe her. After killing the Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive, we will become their next target."

Zhang Ruochen ignored Moyin and said, "I have a better suggestion. Why don't the points go to whoever kills him?"

Hearing this, Lord Sinluo, Que Fei, and Yuan Fei all laughed. Zhang Ruochen's suggestion was their wish.

"Alright, it's decided," Pan Ruo said.

Such a powerful Thousand-Koan Realm slave must have more than three million points.

No matter what, Zhang Ruochen had to kill him. He couldn't let him fall into the hands of other Supreme Saints of Infernal Court.

To lead Bloodysky Clan to the first place among the ten great clans, to make Immortal Vampires the first of the ten clans, to accumulate the highest total points, this was something he had to do.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that the reason that the twelve Celestial Captives and that Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive appeared must have something to do with Pan Ruo.

It was hard to get a second chance like this.

"Til force him out first."

Zhang Ruochen grabbed Violet Gourd and poured Saint Qi into it. As he activated the Dimensional Inscriptions and Supreme Inscriptions on the Gourd, he secretly transmitted his voice to the Saint Devourer, "When I attack them, you finish them off as fast as possible."

"Them? Master, are you talking about the cultivators of the three upper clans? Aren't we cooperating with them? Why are we attacking them? Even if we finish them off, how are we going to fight against that Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive?"

Moyin was surprised. She hadn't expected Zhang Ruochen, who had just agreed to team up with Pan Ruo's faction, to plot against them.

Pan Ruo and the others won't see this coming.'

He didn't explain much to Moyin. The Supreme Inscriptions and Dimensional Inscriptions in the Violet Gourd were activated. They shone with a dazzling purple-gold light, illuminating the entire starry sky.

“It’s Supreme Power. Zhang Ruochen’s Gourd is a Supreme Artifact. No wonder it’s so powerful. This should be his greatest trump card.”

Que Fei was shocked. He thought about it carefully, ‘If Zhang Ruochen used the Supreme Power of Violet Gourd in our fight, would I be able to resist his attack’”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei couldn’t open his eyes because of the purple-gold light. He used his hand to block it. When he moved his hand away, he realized that Zhang Ruochen had used the Great Dimensional Shift to appear in front of him. He was only a hundred miles away from them.

“Oh no. Quickly activate the Scroll of Truth and Deceit.”

Supreme Saint Yuanfei reacted the fastest. He stepped on the scroll.

Whoosh!

The scroll, which was only 30 meters long, expanded quickly, revealing more words. It became more than 50 kilometers long, more than 50 kilometers long... and it continued to grow bigger. It released more and more Supreme Power.

Words flew out of the scroll and tightly wrapped around the four of them.

KABOOM!

The Dimensional Array at the mouth of the Gourd covered the scroll.

Immediately after, the dimension within the Array rapidly collapsed, so was the defensive barrier formed by thousands of words.

Whoosh

A streak of scarlet-golden Supreme Power surged out of the mouth of the Gourd and transformed into a pillar of flame that was dozens of meters in diameter. It charged toward the scroll.

The defense of the scroll only lasted for a moment. The four people standing on the scroll were all knocked out of it and sent flying.

“Zhang Ruochen, you b*stard, you broke your words. I want you dead...” The pillar of fire hit Lord Sinluo. Half of his right body melted. He grimaced in pain and couldn’t even curse properly.

Yuan Fei and Que Fei were distinctive powerful elites who had survived hundreds of battles and were highly intelligent. Yet, they were caught off guard by Zhang Ruochen. They were dumbstruck, unable to figure out what was going on.

‘A Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive is still lurking around. Why did Zhang Ruochen attack us?’

‘Didn’t he afraid that the Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive would take advantage at the end of our fight?’

“Zhang Ruochen is too sinister. From the beginning, he planned to get rid of us first. Oh no, that Saint Devourer is here. Everyone, break out of the encirclement and leave this space region first,” Pan Ruo said.

She wasn’t injured. Zhang Ruochen didn’t target her since her cultivation was the lowest.

The Saint Devourer’s lightning vines spread toward them from different directions. Its intention was obvious: it wanted to trap them inside and kill them.

Yuan Fei and Que Fei had both been hit by the Supreme Power. They suffered different degrees of injuries. Hence, they didn’t dare to resume the fight. They used the Scroll of Truth and Deceit to clear a path and killed their way out.

Pan Ruo was one step ahead of them. She flew out of the range of the lightning vines.

Lord Sinluo wasn’t as lucky as them. He was wrapped like a dumpling by the vines. After being struck by lightning thousands of times, he finally stopped struggling and fainted. He became the Saint Devourer’s captive.

“Don’t swallow him yet. I have use of him.”

Zhang Ruochen spread his arms. Boundless power erupted from his body. Like a storm, it swept across thousands of miles of starry sky.

‘Wherever the storm passed, space shattered.

Countless tiny Dimensional Cracks were torn open. The purple meteorite had no place to hide. It had to reveal itself.

The purple meteorite was surrounded by a powerful force. Even Zhang Ruochen’s Dimensional Storm couldn’t tear the space there.

“Zhang Ruochen, you’re quite a ruthless character. You dared to scheme against the cultivators of the upper three clans and fight me alone.

“If you hadn’t been injured and were in your prime, you could be strong enough to fight me.

“But now, you’re simply courting death.”

The deep voice resounded through heaven and earth.

Whoosh

Above the purple meteorite, a light flashed and a 60-foot-tall figure appeared.

It looked like a human.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu emitted a cold aura, turning the starry sky into a sky full of flying snow. It was an eerie scene.

A moment later, the purple meteorite was covered in snow and turned white.

Zhang Ruochen was already at the end of his rope. He had used Violet Gourd and Dimensional Storm. Now, he had no energy left to fight.

His consciousness became blurry. If it wasn’t for his willpower, he would have already fallen.

However, he had no other choice. He could only do that.

If he chose to cooperate with the upper three clans, whether he attacked or not, he would expose himself. All the deities were watching, Pan Ruochen could help him secretly, but she would never do so openly.

If Lord Sinluo and the others knew that he couldn’t attack, how could he leave alive today?

If he left directly and didn't cooperate with the upper three clans, his condition could get exposed and get himself killed.

Of course, what Zhang Ruochen was more afraid of was that the upper three clans would cooperate with the Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive to get rid of him first.

Therefore, the only way to survive was to agree to join hands then get rid of the cultivators of the upper three clans by surprise. That Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive might seem powerful and invincible, but he had a huge weakness.

He was not a threat to Zhang Ruochen at all.

Zhang Ruochen was not afraid of a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint whose spiritual power was sealed..

Moyin noticed Zhang Ruochen was weak. She spoke to him telepathically, “Master, I’ll fight him. You should look for an opportunity to leave first.”

Moyin’s current strength was no weaker than that of Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong. It was strong enough to fight with a Supreme Saint in the mid-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. However, Saint Lord Zuo Mu was not an ordinary cultivator in the mid-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. If Moyin did not use a Supreme Artifact, she would definitely lose to him.

“We will leave together. But before that, I have one more thing to do.”

Zhang Ruochen bit the tip of his tongue to wake himself up a little. He folded his hands and fingers into a ball. The Marks of Time in the form of light spots were condensed between his hands.

One of them was the “Self-Defined Mark of Time.”

“You still have the strength to fight?”

Saint Lord Zuo Mu, who was standing on the purple meteorite, looked surprised. Then, he chuckled, activated the power of Dimension, and disappeared from the spot.

Whoosh—

‘The next moment, the purple meteorite appeared above Zhang Ruochen and Moyin.

The purple meteorite suddenly sank and crashed toward the two people below with overwhelming power.

Before the meteorite landed, the strong wind and evil Qi it emitted had already enveloped Zhang Ruochen and Moyin. Every strand of Qi had the terrifying power to cut through the Neverwithers body of a Supreme Saint.

“No wonder Mistress Fireborn lost consciousness after being hit by the purple meteorite twice. This Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive’s attack power is stronger than I imagined.

“Moreover, it’s not just collision. This attack contains the power of Dimension. As the attack landed, the space in all directions compressed inward, making it impossible for the target to escape.”

This thought flashed through Zhang Ruochen’s mind. He stared at Moyin.

Moyin nodded slightly. She raised her snow-white hands. Dense purple vines surged out of her ten fingers.

Lightning and Divine Purification Flame flowed on the vines and turned into a forest-like sea of lightning and fire.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

More than a thousand purple vines collided with the purple meteorite. In an instant, more than a hundred vines broke and flew into the starry sky.

However, the softness of the vines also quickly dispelled the violent and overbearing impact of the purple meteorite.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu let out a soft exclamation. He didn’t expect that a mere Saint Devourer could resist his attack.

Zhang Ruochen, who was below, raised his hands and shot out the Marks of Time.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu, whose spiritual power was sealed, didn’t know what kind of attack power the Mark of Time was. Hence, he didn’t dare to touch it. He immediately flew up on the purple meteorite.

Seeing the Self-Defined Mark of Time land on the purple meteorite, Zhang Ruochen smiled. He said weakly, “Let’s go. I’ll deal with him next time.”

With Self-Defined Mark of Time, Zhang Ruochen could sense Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s location no matter where he was “Master, lend me Violet Gourd. I can fight him,” said Moyin.

Zhang Ruochen's face grew paler. His aura became weak in a short time. He said with difficulty, "Even if you can fight him, you can't kill him. There's no point in fighting."

Moyin saw that Zhang Ruochen was in a bad situation, so it stopped fighting. It grabbed his wrist and released the space rules to perform the Great Dimensional Shift.

'As Zhang Ruochen's parasitic plant, Moyin also practiced the Path of Dimension.

'The purple meteorite flew up for more than a thousand miles before it stopped.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu, who was standing on the purple meteorite, looked far into the distance. He found that Moyin and Zhang Ruochen had performed Great Dimensional Shift several times and disappeared from his sight.

Without spiritual power, it was impossible to find out which direction Moyin and Zhang Ruochen were heading, let alone their location.

In a Supreme Saint-level battle, a cultivator without spiritual power was like a blind man.

"It's a pity. If I could take Supreme Artifact from Zhang Ruochen, I wouldn't be afraid of any cultivator on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield." Saint Lord Zuo Mu sighed in frustration.

For Celestial Captives, the only way to survive was to kill at least one Infernal Court cultivator who was a participant in the battle.

'This was what the Fane of Destiny had promised!

Saint Lord Zuo Mu's goal was to kill at least 50 Infernal Court Supreme Saints on the Battlefield. He wanted to humiliate the Infernal Court deities and see how far the Fane of Destiny would endure his provocation. He wanted to see if they would break their promise.

'Taking a Supreme Artifact was the most important part of his crazy plan.

Zhang Ruochen retracted the ten golden wings on his back. There were dozens of wounds on his body, three of which pierced through his chest and back. His internal organs were almost completely shattered.

There was also Ghost Qi, Asuran Battle Qi, the Power of Curse, and the Power of Darkness in his body. All kinds of different powers were mixing together, destroying the life force of his Neverwilt level body.

Every time he fought with a cultivator, his opponent's power would enter his body through the wounds.

If his injury hadn't worsened, Zhang Ruochen would have continued fighting with his willpower.

Moyin stared at the wound on his chest. It was a shocking sight.

Zhang Ruochen's body was like broken porcelain as if it could shatter into pieces with a light touch.

"Master, are we going back to the Immortal Vampires' home planet to recuperate?" Moyin asked.

Zhang Ruochen didn't answer her. "Can you set up a dimensional teleportation array?"

"I have never done it before, but it shouldn't be a problem," said Moyin.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Find a hidden planet nearby and set up a dimensional teleportation array first."

The Ghost Clan's home planet was far away from the Immortal Vampires' home planet. It was more than 100 million miles away. Even a Supreme Saint might not be able to reach it in ten days.

"They could only cross over using a dimensional teleportation array."

Four hours later, Moyin and Zhang Ruochen arrived at a reddish-brown planet with a diameter of 5,000 miles. This planet didn't have an atmosphere. It floated in a vast black fog.

‘The fog was formed from all kinds of poisonous gases. cultivators who had yet to attain Saint Kinghood didn’t dare to come close.

Zhang Ruochen used his spiritual power to check the planet. He didn’t find the presence of the cultivators from Infernal Court or Celestial Captives. “This is it!”

Boom!

Moyin threw the unconscious Lord Sinluo on the ground. At the south pole of the planet, it used the jade and divine stone fragments it’d gotten from Zhang Ruochen to set up a dimensional teleportation array.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged on the bank of a lava river. He mobilized the Divine Purification Flame to refine the chaotic energy within his body.

If Zhang Ruochen didn’t refine the power of Xu, Ye Changzai, Que Fei and other opponents, his injuries would only get worse. He would never recover.

Not long after, Moyin finished setting up the dimensional teleportation array. Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was still refining, it didn’t disturb him. Instead, it took out Lord Sinluo’s Frostwood Bow.

She refined the Implement Spirit of Frostwood Bow and prepared it for future use.

A Class Three Regal Artifact was worth nearly 1,000 Godstones. If used well, each arrow could kill a Supreme Saint. It could be considered a great killing weapon.

Apart from the bow, there were six other arrows.

Each arrow was at the level of a Regal Artifact. The material and shape were different.

One of them was translucent, like a crystal. When Moyin injected Saint Qi into it, the arrow disappeared. It became invisible and didn’t emit any fluctuations.

It was a “Soul Arrow” made of Soul Crystals. It was specially used to kill the Saint Souls of cultivators. It was the most lethal to the ghosts who only had souls.

If it was combined with Dark Arrow practiced by Lord Sinluo, it could unleash even a more terrifying power. With it, the user could kill enemies whose cultivation ranks were higher than them.

After Moyin refined Frostwood Bow and the six arrows, it pressed its finger on the head of Lord Sinluo. Tendrils as thin as needles extended out and pierced into his scalp, entering his mind.

Lord Sinluo, who was unconscious, suddenly convulsed, his limbs flailing wildly, and he let out a shrill scream.

Moyin was searching Lord Sinluo's soul, snatching his memories, and searching for an archery technique.

After a long while, tendrils retreated from Lord Sinluo's head and disappeared.

A charming smile appeared on Moyin's snow-white flawless face.

"Eh?"

Sensing a powerful Saint Qi coming from the fog above the planet, Moyin's expression turned cold. She placed a divine wood arrow on Frostwood Bow and pulled it open.

Whoosh!

'Wrapped by a cloud of Blood Qi, a beautiful woman broke through the fog and revealed herself.

She had ten silver wings on her back and was tall. Her long hair was like a waterfall, and her skin was flawless. A jade flute hung on her waist as she flew toward the south pole.

Moyin recognized her. She was Lord Xia Yu of Bloodysky Clan.

"Don't come over."

Moyin pointed the Divine Tree Arrow at Lord Xia Yu. Cold air radiated from the arrowhead, freezing the lava in the south pole into a river of ice.

Lord Xia Yu landed on the top of a crimson mountain. Seeing Zhang Ruochen sitting cross-legged on the ground, she frowned slightly. “What do you mean?”

Moyin pursed her red lips and smiled. “Master is recovering. No one is allowed to come near.”

“Not even me?”

Lord Xia Yu was a little angry. Her phoenix-like eyes shone with a bloody light.

“Of course.”

Zhang Ruochen did not trust anyone in Infernal Court, and Moyin either.

Moreover, Lord Xia Yu had many suspicious things, to begin with. It could not let her get close to Zhang Ruochen at this time.

For example, during the God-ascension Ceremony, when they were fighting for the leader of Bloodysky Clan, Lord Xia Yu was full of killing intent toward Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Xia Yu had promised Zhang Ruochen to break the Array of the Ghost clan’s home planet. But she disappeared at the most critical moment.

Moreover, she returned only after the battle when Zhang Ruochen was seriously injured.

What a coincidence!

Lord Xia Yu was so angry that she gnashed her teeth. It was just a Saint Devourer and Zhang Ruochen’s pet. How dare it point an arrow at her? How outrageous.

“You aren’t strong enough to block my way.”

Lord Xia Yu’s clothes fluttered in the wind. She flew over directly.

Boom!

Moyin shot the Divine Tree Arrow. It flew out of the bow, leaving a light trail dozens of meters long.

In the beginning, Lord Xia Yu did not see Moyin as a worthy opponent. However, the moment the Divine Tree Arrow flew out from Frostwood Bow, cold air swept across the realm.

Whoosh—

The planet's south pole instantly turned into a glacier continent.

The Divine Tree Arrow was astonishingly sharp, forcing Lord Xia Yu to take out her Soul-siphoning Flute to counter it. Her body was sent flying back from the impact, and she landed on the glacier land a hundred kilometers away in a bad state. She was sent flying back another ten kilometers. Only then did she stabilize herself.

Her right hand holding the flute felt pain and numbness.

“How can it be so strong? Even when Frostwood Bow is in the hands of Lord Sinluo, it can't unleash such terrifying power.”

Lord Xia Yu was amazed.

She had cultivated Grade Three Saintwill, and she was ranked eleventh on the Hundred-Shackle Realm Great Perfection cultivator list. In time, if she could acquire a Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique, with her attainments in Array formation and Talisman, she would probably be ranked seventh or even sixth, surpassing Pink Skull and Xu.

Lord Xia Yu was caught off guard because she had underestimated Moyin. She was shocked by Moyin's arrow.

Even Zhang Ruochen's pet had the strength of the top ten Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivator list.

“Come at me again.”

Lord Xia Yu was dominant and stubborn. Moyin had triggered her will to fight Moyin as a worthy opponent.

Moyin puffed up her chest and put on a stance. It smiled and said, “Haha, are you afraid of me?”

“Stop fighting. Save your strength. There is still a tough battle ahead.”

Zhang Ruochen's voice was vast and mighty, spreading across the ice continent in the south pole.

The two looked in the direction of the voice. They saw Zhang Ruochen stand up after refining all kinds of energy invading his body. His external injuries were healed. He was shirtless, revealing his well-defined muscles. He was full of masculinity and charm that attracted female beings.

Lord Xia Yu was very proud and conceited, but at this moment, she could not help but take a few glances.

“Let Lord Xia Yu come here. She can be trusted,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Yes, Master.”

Moyin flew to Zhang Ruochen’s side with a smile. She took out a blood-red robe and draped it over him. “I’m moved by a peerless man like Master. I just want to be with you forever, not a second apart.”

“You’re just a parasitic plant. If I were your master, I would refine you long ago. I wouldn’t allow you to have your own consciousness.”

Lord Xia Yu flew over and landed on the ground. She sized Zhang Ruochen up and said, “Why are you so weak? Are you severely injured?”

Although the external injuries had disappeared, the internal wounds wouldn’t heal in a short time.

“It doesn’t matter. I’ve refined the various energy that invaded my body. I have the Heart of the Divine Tree. Give me a day to recover.” Zhang Ruochen’s tone was indifferent.

Lord Xia Yu asked, “Did you destroy the Ghost Clan’s home planet?”

“Did you go back?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Xia Yu nodded. “There was an accident on my side. I ran into big trouble. When I finally got rid of it. I went back and found that the Ghost clan’s home planet had turned into a golden planet. It was surrounded by golden fog. No cultivator could break-in.

“I thought you had died there, but on the way back to the Immortal Vampires’ home planet, I found the marks you left,

so I tracked you here.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes darkened. “I left those marks for you on purpose. By the way, what big trouble did you run into?”

Lord Xia Yu snorted, “Mauve Pupa, the top Corpusian elite,” she said. “This guy was lying in ambush near the home planet of the Ghost clan. When I was about to break the Array, he suddenly jumped out and attacked me. Fortunately, my spiritual power was strong, so I survived.”

“He was ranked tenth on the list of top Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators, and I was ranked eleventh. Originally, I didn’t need to fear him.

“However, he held Corpusian’s Supreme Artifact. In this way, how could I be a match for him? I could only retreat.

“If [had a supreme-being saint weapon, I would not have feared him.”

Lord Xia Yu clenched her snow-white teeth tightly, and her bright eyes displayed strong killing intent.

Lord Xia Yu, who had been running for three days, had nowhere to vent her anger.

Zhang Ruochen put his hands behind his back. “I have an extra Supreme Artifact,” he said. “I can let you use it for now.

“Of course, I have conditions. You have to fight a few tough battles with me. However, if you’re unlucky, you might die.

“But if you’re lucky and survive, I’ll let you have that Supreme Artifact. You should think carefully before you decide..”

“You have more Supreme Artifacts?”

Lord Xia Yu was stunned and shocked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “What’s there to be surprised about? Xu is dead. His Supreme Artifact naturally falls into my hands.”

“Xu is dead?”

Lord Xia Yu was even more shocked. She instinctively couldn’t accept this fact. She felt that Zhang Ruochen must be joking with her.

‘What kind of person was Xu? If Xu wanted to leave, even a Supreme Saint at the peak of Thousand-Koan Realm might not be able to kill him.

“Has Lord Homless been to Ghost’s home planet?” Lord Xia Yu asked seriously.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. “Xu felt that he’d lost too badly during his fight with me. He couldn’t explain himself to Ghost Master. That’s why he used Instance of Light and wanted to die with me. Unfortunately, he didn’t succeed.”

Lord Xia Yu looked at Zhang Ruochen with a strange look, she said, “How could you win? How could you force him to die with you? And how could you survive after he used Instance of Light? How- how many of your words are true?”

“Every word is true. I’ve broken 14 shackles,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu was even more skeptical. She shot him a look that said, “Do you think I’m an idiot?”.

She knew that just a few days ago that Zhang Ruochen had only broken through his first shackle of Hundred-Shackle Realm. Even if he had eaten a cauldron of Fugue Pills, he could not have broken through 14 shackles so quickly.

Even a Yuanhui tribulation-level genius could not be so heaven-defying.

Zhang Ruochen took out Violet Gourd and opened it.

Swoosh!

A black light flew out of the gourd and tured into a seven-petal lotus.

The seven-petal lotus spun slowly in front of the three of them, releasing a thick and cold Ghostly Qi.

In an instant, the sky and Earth became extremely dark. Hundreds of millions of ghosts roared, wailed, and cried from inside the lotus as if there was hell inside.

“Pleiades Lotus!”

Lord Xia Yu opened her red lips slightly. Her pretty face was full of excitement. She stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, “Did you really force Xu to death? Did you really break 14 shackles? Are you still human?”

At this moment, she finally believed a little. However, her heart was in a mess as she felt humiliated. She felt as if she was being pressed and rubbed to the ground by Zhang Ruochen in all kinds of positions.

They were both outstanding Supreme Saints, but why was there such a big difference.

suddenly, Lord Xia Yu thought of something and asked, “Is it related to the Golden Mist that emanated from Ghost’s home planet?”

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, “There are indeed a lot of fortuitous encounters inside Ghost’s home planet.”

“Isee.”

Lord Xia Yu’s eyes shone with a dazzling light. She looked eager to try.

“The fortuitous encounters in Ghost’s home planet are extremely dangerous. You will die trying to take them,” Zhang Ruochen said rudely.

He made it sound so absolute because he was afraid that Lord Xia Yu would try.

“Humph! Don’t think that you’re invincible. If you can get the encounter, I can too,” Lord Xia Yu said confidently, raising her snow-white chin and eyebrow.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and didn’t say anything more, “I’ve used Violet Gourd to refine Pleiades Lotus. If you agree to my conditions, I’ll give it to you now. You can subdue its vessel spirit.”

Lord Xia Yu knew the significance of a Supreme Artifact for a Supreme Saint. It meant that her road ahead would be smoother and she could crush all her opponents in the same realm.

Even Supreme Saint from Paramount Realm yearned for such an opportunity.

“We have the same interests in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Even without this Supreme Artifact, I will accompany you through any battle. With this Supreme Artifact, I can only say that you know how to win over people’s hearts. You have invested so much in me. Do you really want to Woo Me?” Lord

Xia Yu asked with a faint smile.

Lord Xia Yu was very confident in her beauty and talent. She had won the hearts of countless chosen ones from Infernal Court. However, as her talent for cultivation was revealed, very few cultivators in her generation had a cultivation base that could match her.

Those who had pursued her before knew that they weren’t good enough for her, so they naturally stayed away.

Of course, the most important reason was that Lord Xia Yu had never been interested in romantic relationships. She was extremely cold to all suitors.

Zhang Ruochen hummed and turned to leave, returning to his healing state.

“You can just say it in front of me. There’s no need to beat around the bush. If you’re serious, I’ll definitely consider it,” Lord Xia Yu said.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was as silent as a rock, Lord Xia Yu lost interest and looked at Pleiades Lotus. If she could master a Supreme Artifact, her status in Bloodysky Clan would be completely different.

Moreover, this Supreme Artifact was given to her by Zhang Ruochen.

Who’s Zhang Ruochen?

The man of this Yuanhui Period. Zhang Ruochen is not only a Scion but also the grandson of the clan leader. He was likely to be the successor of Bloodysky Clan’s chief in the future.

With this, who in Bloodysky Clan would dare to target the Xias in the future?

One day later.

Zhang Ruochen’s injuries healed, and his spirit Qi was restored to full condition. The divine force in his body surged, and his spiritual power produced two vague senses.

One of them was relatively close to him, so he could sense it clearly.

The other one was quite far away, so he could only sense a general direction.

These two senses were his perception of Self-Defined Mark of Time on Saint Lord Zuo Mu and Que.

“It’s time to go hunting!”

Zhang Ruochen thought about it carefully but turned his eyes to the still unconscious Lord Sinluo. He said, “Moyin, wake him up.”

Moyin stopped practicing Archery. A Divine Purification Flame shot out from her fingertip and landed on Lord Sinluo.

Chi-Chi-

The next moment, Lord Sinluo let out a scream and jumped up from the ground. He had just extinguished Divine Purification Flame on his body when he was entangled by Zhang Ruochen's Ghost-headed Whip. With a bang, he fell back to the ground.

Lord Sinluo quickly understood his situation. He roared, "Zhang Ruochen if you're really a tough guy, let me go. I want a fair fight with you."

Zhang Ruochen walked over and said, "You are not qualified to fight with me. Tell me, did the upper three races lure the Celestial Captives to ambush me?"

Lord Sinluo snorted and kept silent.

Zhang Ruochen said again, "There are so many Celestial Captives. They can't gather together for no reason. They should have a hiding place, right? Where is the hiding place?"

Lord Sinluo still didn't say a word. He just stared at him and sneered.

Zhang Ruochen frowned and said, "It seems like you haven't learned your lesson. Moyin, you do it."

A look of fear flashed across Lord Sinluo's eyes. He stared at the sky and said, "Masters in the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms, I want to leave..."

Before he could say the words "leave Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting" a vine whip with lightning struck his face and sent him flying.

Crack Crack!

The vine whip struck relentlessly, sending Lord Sinluo flying in the air, sometimes to the east and sometimes to the west. His body kept twitching.

Lord Sinluo let out a series of screams.

Moyin controlled the vine whip and said, "Master, I have checked the memory of Lord Sinluo. I know where the Celestial Captives are gathered."

“You can check the memory of Lord Sinluo?” Zhang Ruochen was surprised.

Everyone knows that cultivators of important status from Celestial Court or Internal Court must have used divine force to seal their memory and protect some secrets. No external force could forcibly take it away.

Just like when Zhang Ruochen wanted to check Warlord Mara’s mind but was injured by the attack of divine force.

Moyin said, “I only found his memories and consciousness after he entered Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.”

Zhang Ruochen was enlightened. He smiled and said, “I see. That’s right. The divine force of gods can’t enter Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.”

“In the memory of Lord Sinluo, there is a large group of Celestial Captives gathered near the third Dark Star. The 12 Supreme Saints of Hundred-Shackle Realm and the Supreme Saint from Thousand-Koan Realm that we killed are there too,” Moyin said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Let’s go to the third Dark Star now.”

Moyin stared at Lord Sinluo and asked, “What about him?”

“He is useless now, kill him!

Zhang Ruochen said lightly.

Lord Sinluo was anxious after hearing this. However, he could not even convey his desire to escape from Battlefield of Celestial- Hunting at this moment.

It was even more impossible for him to self-destruct his Sainthood Source

He was struck by Thunder Whip the moment he condensed his power.

Lord Sinluo was extremely unwilling as he felt that he will die too humiliating. As a Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm, he didn’t even have the chance to die with his enemy.

wait.”

Zhang Ruochen stopped Moyin that wanted to swallow Lord Sinluo. He reached out and grabbed Lord Sinluo's head. Five streaks of blood Qi and spiritual power merged into one. They rushed out of his fingers and entered Lord Sinluo's body.

Divine force surged out of Lord Sinluo's head to fight against Zhang Ruochen.

However, the divine force wasn't too strong. Zhang Ruochen quickly dispelled it.

After a while, Zhang Ruochen withdrew his hand. Lord Sinluo fell to the ground.

"Just as I expected," Zhang Ruochen said with a smile.

Moyin asked, "Master, can I devour him now?"

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and said, "It's better not to kill Supreme Saints of Infernal Court on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting."

"But he wants to kill you," Moyin said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Not from now on!"

"What do you mean?" Moyin asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I broke the guardian divine force in his mind and erased all of his memories outside of cultivations. He will be my helper henceforth."

Moyin looked disappointed and sighed.

Lord Xia Yu held Pleiades Lotus in her hand and descended from the sky. She said, "Lord Sinluo is the son of Lord Chi Hun. With Lord Chi Hun's exceptional cultivation, how did you break his guardian divine force?"
