"No matter how strong Lord Chi Hun is, his divine force can't enter Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. The guardian divine force he left in Lord Sinluo's body can't stop me," Zhang Ruochen said.

Gods couldn't leave large amounts of divine force directly in a cultivator's body.

Back then, Zhang Ruochen had been injured by divine forces when he had probed into Warlord Mara's memories. This was because what Zhang Ruochen did had been sensed by the god behind Warlord Mara. The divine force had passed through Dimensions and entered Warlord Mara's body, exploding at that moment.

It was like Staff of the Divine Envoy that Moon Goddess had given to Zhang Ruochen. As long as Zhang Ruochen was attacked by a Supreme Saint, he could borrow Moon Goddess's divine force through Staff of the Divine Envoy.

The Staff of the Divine Envoy itself did not have much divine force.

After waking up, Lord Sinluo followed Zhang Ruochen, Moyin, together with Lord Xia Yu and flew toward the third Dark Star.

The closer Zhang Ruochen got to the third Dark Star, the clearer his perception of Self-Defined Mark of Time became. He knew that he had come to the right place.

"Little Sinluo, you and Moyin will kill the Celestial Captives in the outer area. Don't let any of them escape.

"Moyin, you have another mission besides killing the Celestial Captives. If the Celestial Captive from Thousand-Koan Realm wants to escape, you have to stop him at all costs until we catch up."

After assigning tasks to Moyin and Lord Sinluo, Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu spread the wings on their backs. They turned into two streaks of light, one gold, one silver, and flew toward the Dark Star.

Different planets have different conditions after their dead.

The Dark Star was one of them.

Under the influence of the Dark Star, millions miles of the starry sky around was pitch-black. In addition, a cultivator's spiritual power and vision would be greatly affected by the power of the Dark Star.

For Celestial Captives, this was the best place to hide.

As soon as they entered the area covered by the power of the Dark Star, Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu felt a huge suction force on their bodies pulling them.

As they got closer to the Dark Star, the suction force was getting stronger and stronger.

“Are you sure that the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint is hiding on the Dark Star’s celestial body?” Lord Xia Yu was afraid of the terrors of the Dark Star.

Once a cultivator below Supreme Saint realm landed on the Dark Star, it was as if one had become a mortal. He could not fly off the ground and would be trapped there.

Cultivators below Saint Kings’ realm would instantly be crushed to death by the terrifying gravity and turned into dust once they landed on the Dark Star.

“Just follow me. This Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint is very powerful. If we can kill him, the points of Bloodysky Clan will definitely exceed 10 million. We will be number one in the top ten tribes,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu used to be skeptical when Zhang Ruochen told her that he wanted to fight for number one in the top ten tribes. But now, in less than 10 days after Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting began, the points of Bloodysky Clan had reached more than 6 million. They were already number one in the top ten tribes.

Qitian clan, which ranked second, had only accumulated more than 1 million points.

After a while, Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu landed on the third Dark Star. This star was only a few thousand miles in diameter and the size of an ordinary planet.

However, the gravity of the star was extremely shocking. Even with their cultivation base, they felt that they were severely suppressed. It was very difficult for them to fly off the ground.

“The material of this planet is very special. It’s 100,000 times denser than ordinary iron. It contains dark matter and is a substance to refine Regal Artifacts and Supreme Artifact,”

Zhang Ruochen squatted down and picked up a palm-sized rock. He weighed it in his hand. Unexpectedly, it weighed more than a million pounds.

Perhaps only a Supreme Saint could walk on such a planet normally.

“Hmm. This planet seems to have changed the flow of time. Does it contain special materials to refine time treasures?”

Zhang Ruochen was delighted.

Chapter 2324 Saint Lord Zuo Mu

No matter how strong Celestial Captives were, they didn't have spiritual power. Hence, they couldn't sense danger approaching. Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu moved quickly on the third Dark Star.

After an hour, Zhang Ruochen suddenly stopped. He crouched down and stroked the ground. "He's nearby. The ground is filled with Supreme Saint Inscriptions. I'll break them all."

"Wait."

Lord Xia Yu grabbed Zhang Ruochen's wrist and stopped him. "You can track the Celestial Captive in Thousand-Koan Realm, but he can't sense that we're here, right?"

Zhang Ruochen looked down and glanced at Lord Xia Yu's delicate hand. "That's right."

Lord Xia Yu said, "If that's the case, why do we have to fight him head-on? It's better to attack him by surprise."

Zhang Ruochen withdrew his hand from her fingers and smiled "There are not only Supreme Saint Inscriptions on the ground but underground and in the sky too. They are crisscrossed and densely distributed. It's almost impossible for other cultivators to sneak in without anyone knowing."

The power of the third Dark Star was special, its power could make Dimensions extremely stable. It was difficult to perform Great Dimensional Shift and Spatial Wormhole Mirror here. Furthermore, it was even more difficult to use Power of Dimensions with the Supreme Saint Inscriptions' hinder.

With Zhang Ruochen's dimensional attainments, he could try.

However, it was easy to make mistakes. If he wasn't careful, he would fall into the void space.

That was why Zhang Ruochen decided to play it safe and attack.

With his and Lord Xia Yu's battle strength together with two Supreme Artifacts, they would at least be invincible.

The other party was a powerful figure Supreme Saint among Thousand-Koan Realm. Even if a Supreme Saint from Banshi Isshou Realm wanted to kill him, it would not be easy. From the beginning, Zhang Ruochen had been prepared for a long battle. With the enemy's weakness of no spiritual power, Zhang Ruochen would slowly exhaust him to death. Lord Xia Yu put her hands behind her blood robe. Her round chest was lifted high. Her red lips and her snow-white chin were raised, she smiled and said, "Don't forget, there's a High-Saint Talisman Master and a High-Saint Array Master here. How can a mere Supreme Saint Inscription stop her?"

Zhang Ruochen glanced at her with a strange expression. "Since when did you, the ice queen, become so narcissistic and proud?"

When he first met Lord Xia Yu, she was as cold as ice. She was distant and hostile toward Zhang Ruochen. But now, Lord Xia Yu was like a different person in front of him. She became shameless and loved to self-praise. Her previous coldness was gone forever. She had completely let down her guard and resistance against Zhang Ruochen. Perhaps this was the real her.

Lord Xia Yu seemed to realize that she was different from before. She quickly put away her smile and said coldly, "After cultivating Talisman and Array formation to the High-Saint Realm, I could dissolve the Supreme Saint Inscriptions with a snap of my fingers. Watch carefully!"

Lord Xia Yu put her slender finger to her lips and bit it.

A drop of Supreme Saint's blood flew out and gave off a seductive light.

Her finger drew a complicated and mysterious blood talisman in the void space.

Whoosh

Blood Talisman fell to the ground more than 30 meters away like a piece of paper. Instantly, Supreme Saint Inscriptions that interweaved between heaven and earth melted quickly.

Lord Xia Yu was quite proud. She stared at Zhang Ruochen with an expression that said, "I'm very powerful, right?"

Then, she continued to draw talismans and led the way.

Zhang Ruochen knew that he was far inferior to Lord Xia Yu in terms of Talisman and Array formation. So, he nodded and praised, "Very powerful. No wonder you dare to call yourself Lord. You do have some tricks up your sleeves."

"I didn't grant myself as Lord Xia Yu. It was bestowed to me by the 340 billion Immortal Vampires of the Xias," Lord Xia Yu said.

Supreme Saint Inscriptions covered an area of more than two hundred kilometers. In the center stood a pitch-black mountain. The mountain was made entirely of rock. The cliffs on all four sides looked as if they had been slashed by a peerless expert.

At the foot of the cliff on the south side of the mountain, two copper cauldrons emitted green and red light.

The two cauldrons were identical. They had six legs and two ears. One was wrapped around a green dragon and the other around a red scaly dragon. They emitted powerful energy fluctuations.

They were known as Hexad Sun and Moon Furnace.

They were two heavy weapons of Fane of Meteorite, one of the 24 Fane of Asura. They have reached as a Class Two Regal Artifacts. When the two cauldrons were combined, they could unleash the power of a Class Three Regal Artifact.

Lord Xia Yu broke the Supreme Saint Inscriptions. Together with Zhang Ruochen, they arrived at the edge where the light of Hexad Sun and Moon Furnace couldn't reach. Standing in Pleiades Lotus, they could perfectly hide their aura.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu stood below the two cauldrons and used Hexad Sun and Moon Furnace Flame to refine one Regal Artifact after another.

Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu did not attack rashly. They were looking for the best opportunity. Lord Xia Yu said in a low voice, “Hexad Sun and Moon Furnace are the weapons of Second Saintess Yan Cuo of Fane of Meteorite. I didn’t expect Saint Lord Zuo Mu to take them.”

“There are 16 of them,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu knew what Zhang Ruochen was referring to. Saint Lord Zuo Mu had taken 16 Regal Artifacts. In other words, Saint Lord Zuo Mu had killed 16 Supreme Saints. Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen’s eyes narrowed. He stared at the dark area at the bottom of the cliff and said, “So there are 17 of them.”

In the Dark Area, a black centipede-like chain bound the 17th figures. The spikes of the black centipede chain pierced into the rocks and their bodies, making them unable to move.

They were not dead. They were still alive.

Lord Xia Yu also found out. She said in surprise, “The leader of Fane of Meteorite Fang Mofeng, Second Saintess Yan Cuo, Yan Hanyu, and Mo Cuo. The other 14 are all Ghost Supreme Saints.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Saint Lord Zuo Mu knows how to take advantage of the situation. The Ghost top elites are either self-destructed or seriously injured. But instead, he had a steal.”

On Ghost’s home planet, Zhang Ruochen had only taken Xu’s Pleiades Lotus and Ghost-headed Whip of Popobawa Ghost Emperor.

It was just two weapons.

But Saint Lord Zuo Mu had taken all 17 Regal Artifacts.

“The hatred between Saint Lord Zuo Mu and Fane of Meteorite is very deep. It’s totally aimed at them,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu said, “It’s said that Fane of Meteorite made a great effort to capture Saint Lord Zuo Mu. Now that the leader and Second Saintess Yan Cuo have been captured, Fane of Meteorite has lost not only its reputation but also its position in Asura for the next thousand years.”

Saint Lord Zuo Mu has cold feet about the Celestial Captives, thus he just seized and didn't dare to kill them.

Once Celestial Captives killed Supreme Saints of Infernal Court, one would be tracked by the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms. Then the location of the Celestial Captive would be sent to every Supreme Saint of Infernal Court in the diamond-shaped mirror.

Therefore, even if Saint Lord Zuo Mu wanted to kill these captives, he would definitely wait until the end of Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Lord Xia Yu was about to make a move, but Zhang Ruochen patted her shoulder and said, "A Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint's reaction is extremely fast. If you want to sneak attack him, you have to wait for a better opportunity."

At this time, Saint Lord Zuo Mu sneered and said, "Ghost's Supreme Saints are so poor. Most of the weapons used in Celestial-Hunting Festival are Class Two Regal Artifacts. They can't even compare to the weapons of my three junior brothers and sisters. How disappointing."

The Ghost Supreme Saints who had their cultivation sealed lowered their heads and did not say a word.

They had no choice as they were already in this situation. There was no point in arguing.

Now, they could only hope that the top-tier elites of Hundred-Shackle Realm would rush here and kill Saint Lord Zuo Mu. Only then would they have a chance to survive.

However, fewer than five Supreme Saints of Infernal Court had the chance to kill Saint Lord Zuo Mu. There was not much hope.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu said, "Do you know why the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms didn't send you off even if you wanted to leave Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?"

After pausing for a moment, he said, "That's because the Dark Star is a planet that Fane of Destiny arranged for Celestial Captives. Everything is decided by Celestial Captive here.

“The purpose of Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting is to train you. The weak will be eliminated, and the strong will survive

“You are all the weak, so you’ll all die. Haha!”

Mo Cuo, who was nailed to the cliff by the centipede-like chains, gritted his teeth and said, “Do you think Fane of Destiny will really let you go if you killed so many Supreme Saints of Infernal Court?”

Mo Cuo looked like a young man in his twenties. Even though he was covered in injuries, one could still tell that he was handsome and had an outstanding aura. He was a peerless beauty.

He was the most outstanding prodigy of Fane of Meteorite after Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu walked over and stared at Mo Cuo closely, he smiled and said, “Do you think your life is so important to Fane of Destiny and the gods? No, you don’t have the qualifications at all. Among the eyes of Fane of Destiny and the gods, at most, only that old guy from Fane of Meteorite will slightly treasure you.”

“You...”

Mo Cuo glared fiercely at Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu held a two-foot-long short sword that he had just refined and placed it on Mo Cuo’s face, “All the heaven’s favored sons in the last thousand years of Infernal Court had gathered at Battle of Celestial-Hunting. However, the gods pay attention to a few or a dozen of them only. You are definitely not one of them.”

“Senior brother Zuo Mu, it was your fault all those years ago. You can not make the same mistake again.” A gentle female voice sounded.

The one who spoke was Yan Hanyu, who was known as Fane of Meteorite’s number one beauty.

This woman’s skin was as smooth as butter. Her lips were red and her teeth were white. Even though she was wearing a white plain robe, she gave off an extremely stunning feeling.

This was especially so for her delicate and moving temperament. She was like a delicate and sentimental woman.

If one only looked at her appearance, who would have thought that she was a Supreme Saint Realm powerhouse?

Saint Lord Zuo Mu's gaze shifted towards her and landed on her breathtakingly beautiful face, "You said that I was wrong, but didn't you also walk further down the wrong path? Have you ever thought of turning back after betraying Tianchu Civilization?"

Yan Hanyu looked bitter, but when her eyes fell on Mo Cuo, they immediately regained their firmness.

In Pleiades Lotus.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Is Yan Hanyu the Supreme Saint of Tianchu Civilization?"

He asked this question because he saw a trace of Luoji in Yan Hanyu.

"Her identity in Tianchu Civilization is not ordinary. She is a direct descendant of Tianzhu, and her mother is a demigod," Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "If her identity is so noble, why did she betray Tianzhu Civilization and become a member of Asura?"

"No one knows the details. However, Tianchu Civilization and Ashuran Planet were very close to each other. The two fought all year round. Yan Hanyu and Mo Cuo might have changed from enemies to lovers. For example, you and Fairy Lian Xi, or you and Rakshasa Princess, or even you and me. Everything is possible!" Lord Xia Yu said.

"Don't compare. The opportunity is coming!"

Zhang Ruochen's eyes narrowed. His gaze was like an eagle's.

Rip

Saint Lord Zuo Mu grabbed Yan Hanyu's chest and tore off her white plainclothes, revealing her flawless and delicate body.

His eyes were smiling as he sized her up greedily. “What a pity. If the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms could reflect the scene here and spread it throughout Infernal Court, that old fellow from Fane of Meteorite would probably die from anger, right?”

Yan Hanyu was a Supreme Saint after all. Her state of mind was much more resolute than an ordinary woman’s. She bit her lower teeth and trembled slightly when she was attacked. She did not appear to be weak.

However, Mo Cuo’s heart was bleeding. He screamed, “Zuo Mu, fight me if you want. How could you humiliate a woman? You dare call yourselves a Supreme Saint?”

Fane of Meteorite’s leader, Fang Mofeng said, “If you humiliate Fane of Meteorite like this, even if you leave Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting alive, master will chase you to the ends of the Earth. Can you escape then?”

“Why can’t I escape? At most, I will take your heads and join Tianzhu Civilization. Can that old fellow still barge into Tianzhu Civilization and kill me?”

Saint Lord Zuo Mu laughed maniacally. He then grabbed the back of Yan Hanyu’s neck and lifted her delicate body slightly. Her snow-white jade-like face was about to touch his lips, “Junior brother Mo Cuo, when you helped Fane of Destiny and chased after me, did you ever think that this day would come? As a member of Asura, you didn’t work hard to cultivate the path of killing but fell in love with a woman. You’re destined to be mediocre in your life.”

Boom

Mo Cuo let out a long roar as rays of blood light burst out from his body. He was burning his saint blood in an attempt to break the seal in his body.

The centipede-like chain was shaking until it made “Ding Ding” sounds.

The centipede’s spikes slowly moved out of his body. Just as he was about to break free, two beams of light shot out from Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s eyes and hit Mo Cuo’s chest.

BOOM!

Mo Cuo's body caved in from the hit and a large amount of blood mist flew out.

"Junior brother Mo Cuo, senior has taught you a lesson today. The weak can only be slaughtered by others and suffer helpless pain."

Saint Lord Zuo Mu's gaze was fixed on Yan Hanyu. He was about to humiliate her in front of Mo Cuo to vent the resentment and endless hatred in his heart.

Suddenly, Saint Lord Zuo Mu felt danger and looked up.

A fire cloud containing divine force descended from the sky and reached his head in an instant.

"Yanshen's Leg."

Zhang Ruochen stood above the fire cloud like a peerless evil god. Divine force surged from his left foot. Dense Divine Marks interweaved. The dazzling flame lit up the Dark Star for a short time.

Boom

Half of Saint Lord Zuo Mu's body was stepped into the ground. Even though his arms blocked Zhang Ruochen's left leg, he still spat out a mouthful of purple blood. He was suppressed and couldn't move.

"Great Kun Tun Fingerstrike,"

Lord Xia Yu's steps were like a flash of lightning. She rushed behind Saint Lord Zuo Mu and stuck him.

This finger strike hit right on his head.

Crack Crack!

Cracks appeared and collapsed inward on Saint Lord Zuo Mu's skull around Lord Xia Yu's finger strike.

No matter how hard a Supreme Saint's bone was, it would still crack under such a sharp blow.

Chapter 2325 The First Form

BOOM!

Saint Lord Zuo Mu's head exploded. The purple blood mist in his head gushed out like a waterfall. Dozens of broken bones of Supreme Saints were mixed in and smashed into the ground.

Such a sudden change shocked the 17 Supreme Saints present.

A powerful Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint was killed just like that?

The attackers were not Yan Huangtu and Lan Ying, who had taken the Infernal Court by surprise. Instead, it was Zhang Ruochen, who had recently joined the Infernal Court, and Lord Xia Yu, who had previously gone unnamed.

“Saint Lord Zuo Mu, the strongest among the five Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captives, was killed by them. The Battle of Celestial-Hunting of the Bloodysky Clan this year is going to be heaven-defying!”

The Ghost Supreme Saints looked at each other with mixed feelings.

They were relieved that Saint Lord Zuo Mu had been assassinated, but Zhang Ruochen remained a source of concern for them. Now that Zhang Ruochen had recovered and was coming with great momentum, it was still unknown whether he would let them go.

Fang Mofeng, the captain of the Fane of Meteorite, shouted, “You two be careful. Zuo Mu's first form is an aqueous devil. He's almost immortal. He won't be killed so easily.”

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power had been locked onto Saint Lord Zuo Mu's corpse without Fang Mofeng's reminder.

Zhang Ruochen discovered that Saint Lord Zuo Mu's Qi of Life, which had been rapidly depleting, was recovering quickly. It was even more vigorous than before.

The shattered head of a corpse on the ground emitted a brilliant purple light.

The flesh and bones melted like ice and turned into purple water.

Splash

The purple water gushed out of the Armor of Meteorite and turned into sword-shaped spikes. They quickly flowed toward Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu.

It was more like a stab than a flow.

The speed of the flow was faster than lightning.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen used the Power of Time to activate the divine force in his left leg. He moved quickly and grabbed Lord Xia Yu's wrist, dragging her away.

"I didn't come to find you, but you came to me. Today, none of you can escape."

An angry spiritual thought sounded.

The sword-shaped spike condensed by purple water was like 15 sharp purple lights. It chased after Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu, piercing their hearts. Even with the weakening of the Power of Time, the purple water was still incredibly fast.

"HMPH!"

Lord Xia Yu rotated her five fingers and extended her right hand. In her snow-white palm, the Pleiades Lotus appeared.

Under the urging of her dense blood-red aura, the Pleiades Lotus' Supreme Inscription was activated. Tens of thousands of ghostly mist spread out, and countless spectral flames floated in the air, flickering.

An explosion sounded. The Supreme Power that the Pleiades Lotus unleashed shattered the purple sword-shaped spikes, turning them into dense drops of aqueous that splattered out.

The drops of aqueous dripped onto the ground like purple rain.

Splash

The aqueous purple drops quickly shrank and condensed into a ball again, turning into a seven-meter-tall aqueous giant. It was sparkling and translucent, and it had two arms that looked like the legs of a mantis. The purple light between its eyebrows was especially bright, it was like a purple sun.

Under its feet, the purple mist churned, accompanied by loud thunder.

‘Is he a living creature or a dead spirit? Or is he both a living creature and a dead spirit, just like the Nether Clan and the Deathkin?’ Lord Xia Yu thought as she was shocked.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s information didn’t mention anything about his other forms.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t panic because of Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s change. Instead, Zhang Ruochen looked interested and he said, “He has strong spatial fluctuations. He’s definitely not from an ordinary clan.”

Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s gaze moved back and forth between the Pleiades Lotus in Lord Xia Yu’s hand and the Violet Gourd on Zhang Ruochen’s waist, he laughed loudly, “You may have ruined my plans, but compared to the two Supreme Artifacts, it’s just a small matter.

“The Supreme Artifacts are here, but you have to be able to get them.”

Zhang Ruochen stomped his feet, and layers of flames gushed out from under his feet. There were white Divine Purification Flames and Yanshen’s Mark of scarlet flames.

nan instant, the white and red flames covered dozens of miles of heaven and earth, turning it into a blazing inferno.

o matter what clan Saint Lord Zuo Mu belongs to, he was still in aqueous form.

Both water and fire were able to destroy each other.

erhaps Zhang Ruochen could use the flames to refine Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

“Zhang Ruochen, although you destroyed my second form, you still have a long way to go before you can compete with me with your current cultivation.”

Saint Lord Zuo Mu let out a long cry. Large amounts of purple water gushed out of his aqueous body.

The purple water was like a flash flood. It set off waves that were hundreds of feet high. It broke the inferno and spread hundreds of miles away.

Swoosh

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu did not dare to touch the purple water. They spread out their ten wings and flew into the air. Looking down, they saw that the ground below was completely covered by the purple water. It turned into a purple ocean.

The number of Precepts cultivated by the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint was more than ten billion. He could use his own Precepts to develop his own Path.

The Path form was a manifestation of the Path.

The powerful Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint could use the Precepts he cultivated to evolve a world. If the world was perfect enough, it could become one with heaven and earth and burst out with unparalleled combat strength.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s body merged with the purple ocean and disappeared without a trace.

With a laugh, dense purple sword rain rushed out of the ocean below and shot toward Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu who were floating in the air.

The dark and lifeless planet was illuminated purple at this moment.

Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu looked at each other and poured Saint Qi into the Pleiades Lotus at the same time.

The Ghost lotus quickly became huge. The seven-petal lotus turned into seven ghost clouds and condensed into thousands of Ghost shadows. They clashed with the purple sword rain like ghost soldiers from the sky.

Rumble

Powerful destructive energy filled the world.

“Be careful. Saint Lord Zuo Mu has activated 14 Regal Artifacts. He’s launching a second wave of even more powerful attacks.”

Just as he warned, Zhang Ruochen sensed a weak spatial fluctuation. He became alert and glanced behind him. Wisps of purple killing qi spread out from the space and condensed into Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s figure.

‘This is... Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s Murderous Shadow!’ Zhang Ruochen thought to himself.

The Murderous Shadow reached out its mantis-like arm silently and slashed at the back of Zhang Ruochen’s neck with a sharp purple light.

Zhang Ruochen yanked the Ghost-headed Whip from his waist, activating the bone-chilling ghost qi. He whipped it behind him.

Bang Bang

The Ghost-headed Whip and the Murderous Shadow collided fiercely. The Ghost Qi and the murderous intent formed ripples.

“Break it.”

Behind Zhang Ruochen appeared the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King. It towered hundreds of miles above the ground. The majestic sky above his head emitted a dazzling golden light through its nine layers.

Because it was suppressed by the power of the Dark Star, the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King could reach more than 1,000 miles tall. Its power would be even more shocking.

The Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King slapped down with his palm, causing the Murderous Shadow to fall rapidly to the ground.

Zhang Ruochen was about to chase after it and completely destroy the Murderous Shadow to severely break Saint Lord Zuo Mu's murderous will. Not far away, Lord Xia Yu let out a miserable cry. She was sent flying by 14 Regal Artifacts. She could only rely on the Pleiades Lotus to hold on.

Against a powerhouse like Saint Lord Zuo Mu, even if Lord Xia Yu had the Supreme Artifact, it would still be difficult for him to face him head-on.

Of course, the more important reason was that Saint Lord Zuo Mu had taken more than 10 Regal Artifacts. He was not fighting with the Supreme Artifact with his bare hands.

Zhang Ruochen's gaze fell on the 17 Supreme Saints who were trapped on the cliff by the centipede-shaped chains. Then, he whipped out the Ghost-headed Whip and tied on the centipede-shaped chains. Then, he suddenly pulled.

Whoosh

The centipede-shaped chains were dragged away by Zhang Ruochen like a real centipede.

"If you want to take back your weapons, show me what you can do," Zhang Ruochen said loudly. Then, he turned into a streak of golden light and chased after Lord Xia Yu.

The 17 Supreme Saints escaped, but their cultivation didn't recover. They were still sealed by Saint Lord Zuo Mu's Asuran Battle Qi.

"Burn the Saint Blood and break the seal. Help Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu kill Saint Lord Zuo Mu." Mo Cuo, Fang Mofeng, and Yan Hanyu, the three Supreme Saints of the Fane of Meteorite, were decisive.

They performed a secret technique and burned the Saint Blood in their bodies to refine Saint Lord Zuo Mu's Asuran Battle Qi.

Even though burning the Saint Blood would have terrible side effects and even greatly reduce their lifespan, they had no other choice but to fight to the death.

If Saint Lord Zuo Mu defeated Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu, he would still deal with them.

This was an irreconcilable feud. There was no way they could escape.

The 14 Ghost Supreme Saints wanted to take the opportunity to escape, but they couldn't bear to part with their weapons. So they used a forbidden technique. The spectral flames ignited from them. Their Astral Form lit up like lanterns and refined the seals in them.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Lord Xia Yu's Pleiades Lotus collided with Saint Lord Zuo Mu's 14 Regal Artifacts more than 100 times in the blink of an eye.

When Zhang Ruochen caught up, Lord Xia Yu's mouth was full of blood. She was severely injured. She held up the Pleiades Lotus's arms and became a bloody mess.

Zhang Ruochen slapped the Violet Gourd. He was about to activate the power of the gourd and take away all the Regal Artifacts.

Swoosh! Swoosh!

Saint Lord Zuo Mu clearly knew the power of the Violet Gourd. The 14 Regal Artifacts broke into pieces and flew in 14 different directions, surrounding Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu in the center.

Once the power of the gourd was activated, the 14 Regal Artifacts could fly hundreds of miles away in an instant.

“Zhang Ruochen, it’s useless. Your gourd uses the Power of Dimension collapse. However, the third Dark Star’s space is very stable. Even if the Dimensional Array appears, it won’t collapse. It can’t take away my weapons.”

Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s voice came from all directions.

Every word came from a different direction.

Zhang Ruochen’s gaze was as sharp as a knife. “If that’s the case, what are you afraid of?”

Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s Murderous Shadow appeared on the purple sea below. He laughed loudly. “I’m not afraid. I just feel that we don’t have to be enemies.

“You’ve killed so many cultivators from the Infernal Court, including many Scions and Scionesses. Do you really think you have a chance to integrate into the Infernal Court and become one of them? Don’t dream about it. The gods of the Infernal Court will always guard against you.

“Back then, Huangtian had the full support of the Stone Ancestor and had been fighting with the Celestial Court for many years. There were hundreds of millions of corpses and great military achievements, but they still couldn’t enter the core level of the Infernal Court. In the end, they killed their master and finally got recognition.

“Zhang Ruochen, I can see that your idea is not compatible with the Infernal Court. You will never be together with them. You will only be an enemy, not one of them.

“The enemy of an enemy is a friend. Why don’t you cooperate with me?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “How?”

“You killed Xia Yu and offered her Pleiades Lotus to me. I can help you win first place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Isn’t it a good thing that we win together?” said Saint Lord Zuo Mo.

Then Saint Lord Zuo Mu added, “You don’t have to worry about the gods knowing what happened on the Dark Star. Even the gods can’t sense it.”

Lord Xia Yu knew that Zhang Ruochen would never cooperate with Saint Lord Zuo Mu, but he still couldn’t help but feel nervous.

As for the 17 Supreme Saints of the Infernal Court who were trying to break the seal, their expressions changed. They all stared at Zhang Ruochen, afraid that he would really cooperate with Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

If that happened, they would definitely die.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu saw that Zhang Ruochen seemed to be hesitating, “You’ve seen my combat strength just now. With your and Lord Xia Yu’s cultivation, even if you have a Supreme Artifact, you’ll definitely lose. It’s not wise to be my enemy.”

no one had expected Saint Lord Zuo Mu to have another form.

In his current form, his combat strength was even stronger than that of the advanced stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. He even had the power to fight against a Supreme Saint at the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan realm. This was far beyond Zhang Ruochen’s initial estimation.

It should be noted that the Yanluo Clan, led by Yan Huangtu and Yan Wushen, had gathered more than a dozen Supreme Saints at the Hundred-Shackle Realm’s Great Perfection stage. Together with the Supreme Artifact, they were able to suppress and refine the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill at the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

In other words, if they did not create a perfect opportunity to kill Saint Lord Zuo Mu, Zhang Ruochen would probably have to mobilize the same number of powerful people to do so.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes met with Saint Lord Zuo Mu's, he sighed and said, "Your threats and antecedents have indeed scared me and moved me. But how can I bear to kill such a peerless beauty like Lord Xia Yu of our Bloodysky Clan?

"Besides, I've already given her the Pleiades Lotus. I'm too embarrassed to take it back. Unfortunately, I'm too soft-hearted toward women. For her sake, I can only continue fighting today."

Even though she knew that Zhang Ruochen was lying and trying to anger Saint Lord Zuo Mu, Lord Xia Yu couldn't help but smile from the bottom of her heart.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu's Murderous Shadow snorted and said sinisterly, "Another fool who fell stupidly for women. If that's the case, you can die too!"

Saint Lord Zuo Mu was about to activate the 14 Regal Artifacts to continue attacking, but he felt something was wrong. The vessel spirits of the 14 Regal Artifacts were not under his control and could not do as he pleased.

"The reason I talked so much with you just now was to stall you and let them break the seal." Zhang Ruochen said coldly as he stared at the 17 Supreme Saints of the Infernal Court.

The seals in the 17 Supreme Saints had all been broken. 17 waves of powerful saints might burst out from them. Asura Battle Qi and Ghost Qi turned into light pillars and Qi bridges. They were connected to the 17 Regal Artifacts that had once belonged to them, they were connected..

Chapter 2326 Spatial Purple Rain

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The captain of the Fane of Meteorite, Fang Mofeng, had broken through 99 shackles and was a top-notch powerhouse in the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

There were two towering bulges on Fang Mofeng's back that looked like a camel's hump. He hugged his abdomen with both hands and spat out a ray of light that was as bright as the stars, scattering on the vast purple sea.

The starlight was like red, silver, and white threads that intertwined and merged with the sea.

Fang Mofeng was using his Qi of Origin to locate the Armor of Meteorite.

Only by finding the Armor of Meteorite could he find Saint Lord Zuo Mu's real body. Otherwise, not to mention Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu, even a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm would not be able to do anything to him.

The Murderous Shadow was formed by Saint Lord Zuo Mu's murderous intent and Qi combined with the Asura Warsoul. Although the Murderous Shadow had half the battle strength of a half-god, it was not his true body.

Rumble

The starlight resonated with the Armor of Meteorite and quickly gathered toward one point in the purple sea.

“That's where Saint Lord Zuo Mu's body is.”

Fang Mofeng used his spiritual power to communicate with Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu.

Almost in an instant, dense and mysterious Divine Marks appeared on Zhang Ruochen's right foot. Scarlet divine flames surged out from the bottom of his foot and pressed down toward where the starlight gathered.

Before Zhang Ruochen's foot landed, the purple sea had already sunk.

Whoosh

A purple meteorite more than 2,000 meters long broke through the surface of the sea and flew out. It fiercely collided with Zhang Ruochen's left foot.

One was purple and the other was red. The two opposing forces made the air arch and turned into two arcs.

The purple meteorite and Zhang Ruochen were in a stalemate in the air for a breath's time before they separated again. One flew up and the other fell down.

On the side of the purple sea, the Supreme Saints of the Fane of Meteorite and the Ghost were shocked.

"Zhang Ruochen actually has the battle strength to fight with Saint Lord Zuo Mu?"

"Legend has it that Zhang Ruochen's leg was from a god whose leg was cut by Moon Goddess of the Celestial Court. It was refined together with his leg and is a divine leg."

"Moon Goddess is so noble and pure. She is so beautiful that countless gods from the Celestial Court and Infernal Court fell for her. However, no man can win her heart. How can she be so devoted to a junior like Zhang Ruochen?"

Rumors circulated that Moon Goddess was defeated in the battle of the gods at the end of the Middle Ages. As a result, when she vanished, all the cultivators in Celestial and Infernal Courts assumed she had died.

However, the Moon Goddess returned to the Celestial Court alive 100,000 years later.

Because of this, all kinds of speculations were aroused.

Some people speculated that this might be related to a prominent figure in the Infernal Court. However, that prominent figure's strength was too terrifying, so no one dared to criticize him openly.

Zhang Ruochen flew up for more than 50 kilometers before he managed to neutralize the impact of the purple meteorite. His left leg was numb from the pain.

“Just now, my top-down attack, coupled with the pull of the Dark Star on me, could strengthen my strength and give me a huge advantage. However, I could only fight him to a draw. This battle is not easy.”

Even if it was not easy, he had to fight.

Zhang Ruochen circulated Saint Qi through him, and the numbness in his left leg vanished.

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen's body turned into a streak of golden light and flew down.

After the two-thousand-meter-long purple meteorite fell down, it turned into Saint Lord Zuo Mu's body. The meteorite turned into armor.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu landed on the sea and quickly stabilized his body. He glanced at Fang Mofeng, Yan Hanyu, Mo Cuo, and other Supreme Saints by the sea, he snorted angrily, “All the Regal Artifacts have already been refined by me. Do you think you can take them back?”

With a wave of his sleeve, the Purple Sea stirred up a huge wave that was thousands of feet tall.

The Precepts formed a wave that carried Saint Lord Zuo Mu's terrifying murderous Qi.

Rumble

The seventeen Supreme Saints were already injured. Furthermore, they had burned their Saint blood when they tried to break the seal. None of them could unleash their full power. They were all thrown out by the waves.

Three of the Neverwilt Realm Ghost Supreme Saints were crushed by the palm print formed by the waves. They turned into three black ghost clouds. Although they weren't dead, it would take years to recover.

The other Supreme Saints were also injured.

Fang Mofeng was the only one who could still stand against the waves.

When Zhang Ruochen attacked earlier, Lord Xia Yu had split herself into 100,000 Spirits and condensed them into 100,000 shadow clones. They stood in the air and formed a horizontal circle, covering a radius of 50

The 100,000 Spirits clones did the same thing as the original body and drew the same inscription of the array.

After the inscription of the array was finished, 100,001 dazzling lights bloomed in the air. The 100,001 array inscriptions resonated and connected with each other, forming a huge circular Grade Nine array.

“Nine Stratum Array of Myriad Spirits.”

Lord Xia Yu used the Pleiades Lotus as the core of the array and merged it with the Nine Stratum Array of Myriad Spirits. Her beautiful figure stood in the center of the Ghost Lotus, and the array with a diameter of 50 kilometers began to move and descend rapidly.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu felt the pressure of the array and the Supreme Artifact, and he had to re-examine Lord Xia Yu. His expression became serious, and he jumped forward three times in a row.

With each leap, his body would grow several times larger.

After the third leap, Saint Lord Zuo Mu's body became the size of a mountain. He raised his mantis-like arms and shot out two Asuran Battle Qi pillars that shot into the sky.

Rumble

As the array formation spun rapidly, the two Asuran Battle Qi pillars were crushed. The Pleiades Lotus, which was the size of a palace, pressed down on Saint Lord Zuo Mu's body. Supreme Power poured down like a waterfall.

Above the Pleiades Lotus, the Grim Soul-devouring Flame gushed out from under Lord Xia Yu's feet. It combined with Supreme Power to refine Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

"Life and death are full of helplessness."

Lord Xia Yu took out the Soul-siphoning Flute. Her clothes fluttered as she played a melodious tune.

Under the light of the spectral flame, Lord Xia Yu's figure was soft and slender. Her curves were graceful, and her hair fluttered. She was like a fairy of music, immersed in the wonderful tune.

The sound of the flute was like the sound of nature. It was pleasant to the ear and beautiful, intoxicating.

However, Zhang Ruochen knew that the tune was the terrifying Hymn of Soul-sacrificion. It specialized in attacking a cultivator's five senses, Saint Soul, and spiritual will.

Back then, before Lord Xia Yu's spiritual power had advanced to the 64th level, the tune from the flute could affect Zhang Ruochen and Shen Nansheng, the Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Now that Lord Xia Yu's spiritual power had greatly improved, the tune from the flute was even more terrifying.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu, whose spiritual power had been sealed, would definitely be severely affected.

ROAR!

Saint Lord Zuo Mu's Murderous Shadow let out a long roar and turned into a phantom. It rushed into the Nine Stratum Array of Myriad Spirits and wanted to attack Lord Xia Yu, who was standing in the center of the Ghost Lotus.

Crash

A whip flew down from the sky and hit the Murderous Shadow, making a thunderous explosion.

It was the Ghost-headed Whip from Zhang Ruochen, who had rushed back quickly.

The Murderous Shadow was hit by the Ghost-headed Whip and rolled away. He waved his arm and a series of killing flying swords flew out of his palm.

There were seven of them, one after the other, swallowing and spitting out the terrifying sword.

Zhang Ruochen flipped himself in the void space. His ten golden wings were like invincible golden sabers, cutting off all seven of the flying murderous swords and turning them into a gas again.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen turned into a golden light and rushed to the Murderous Shadow. He formed palm prints with his hands.

Bang Bang

The sound of dragon and elephant chiming burst out with the power of his palms.

In the time of one breath, Zhang Ruochen struck out 13 Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike in a row. Each palm was stronger than the last. When he struck out the 13th strike, Dragon-Elephant Destruction, his power accumulated to the pinnacle. His body burned like a burning copper furnace.

With a boom, the Murderous Shadow was crushed like a balloon by Zhang Ruochen.

Although the Murderous Shadow had nearly half the power of the original body, it needed the original body to control it. At that time, Lord Xia Yu's Nine Stratum Array of Myriad Spirits was firmly suppressing Saint Lord Zuo Mu's original body. His spiritual will was also corroded by the Hymn of Soul-sacrificaton, so the power of the Murderous Shadow naturally decreased.

After the Murderous Shadow was destroyed, Saint Lord Zuo Mu's murderous intent was damaged.

The true body that was suppressed beneath the Pleiades Lotus trembled violently and let out an earth-shattering roar, "All of you... Die... Die... Die..."

After calling out "die" three times in a row, the Purple Sea stirred up three layers of waves.

The seawater rolled up and rushed into the sky from the edge of the Nine Stratum Array of Myriad Spirits. The waves became 30-meters-tall, 300-meters-tall, and 3000-meters-tall.

Rumble

The Nine Stratum Array of Myriad Spirits was crushed by the purple seawater. The seawater turned into tens of thousands of ferocious beasts and rushed toward Lord Xia Yu in the center, letting out waves of whistling sounds.

Some turned into winged dragons, some into three-headed ferocious tigers, and some turned into crimson-eyed demon wolves.

Crack

The formation shattered, and Lord Xia Yu spat out a mouthful of blood.

Lord Xia Yu had already been severely injured. Now, her injuries had worsened, and her spiritual power had been severely damaged. Her face was as pale as death.

Although the sea beasts rushed from all directions, Lord Xia Yu still used the Pleiades Lotus with all her strength to suppress Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

The sea beasts were getting closer and closer. Their shadows blotted out the sky and covered the sun. They looked like they were about to be dismembered.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen had finally arrived at this critical juncture in time. He flew above the Pleiades Lotus constellation. His body was on fire, and a million times more absolute Yang Qi erupted from his body.

He struck out with both palms. Instantly, thousands of dragon and elephant shadows flew out from his palms. They let out a deafening dragon and elephant roars.

The sea monsters that came from all directions were crushed. They turned into tides and retreated quickly.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu, who was suppressed under the Pleiades Lotus, took this opportunity to transform into a slender stream of water. He broke free from the Supreme Power's control and flew up from the east side of the Ghost Lotus.

The stream of water was like a meandering heavenly blade. It let out an ear-piercing sound as it heavily slashed toward Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu waved his Soul-siphoning Flute and collided with the stream of water. His body couldn't withstand the powerful force and spat out another mouthful of Saint blood. Like a scarecrow, he was sent flying backward.

Lord Xia Yu was not among the top powerhouses in terms of power.

Lord Xia Yu was ranked 11th because of her Grade Three Saintwill and her status as a High-Saint Array and Talisman Master. Even if Xu and Supreme Saint Yan Hong fought against her, they would be at a significant disadvantage if she was given enough time to set up an array formation or draw a talisman.

Splash

The stream water quickly merged together to form Saint Lord Zuo Mu's figure. He wore purple armor and he flew toward Saint Lord Yu. He wanted to get rid of her first and then deal with Zhang Ruochen slowly.

Just now, Saint Lord Zuo Mu had been troubled by Lord Xia Yu's Nine Stratum Array of Myriad Spirits and the Hymn of Soul-sacrificaton. He had suffered some internal injuries.

Zhang Ruochen took the risk to use the Great Dimensional Shift. He appeared in front of Saint Lord Zuo Mu and stopped him.

"Take this!"

Zhang Ruochen threw a punch. A rolling Celestial River appeared around his body. The fist power and the Precept of Truth combined together and exploded with ten times the attack power.

"Infinite Dimensional Seal."

Saint Lord Zuo Mu sensed that something was wrong. He put his hands together.

At this moment, the vast purple ocean shrank to the palms of his hands and formed a circular seal. It collided with Zhang Ruochen's Luoshui Fist Technique.

Boom

Even Saint Lord Zuo Mu couldn't withstand the ten times attack power once it was activated.

The Infinite Dimensional Seal was shattered by one punch. The fist power collided with Saint Lord Zuo Mu's hands. The two aqueous palms and the aqueous saint physique exploded with a bang.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu turned into a purple rain and shattered into tens of billions of raindrops. Each raindrop contained a Precept.

Lord Xia Yu, who had landed on the ground, let out a breath and said, "Is it finally over?"

Fang Mofeng used his spiritual power, he transmitted his voice to the two, "Don't be careless. Saint Lord Zuo Mu is definitely not dead. He was born in the sea region of the stone star, the origin of the universe. He was born in a Spatial Purpura Rain and stepped on the path of cultivation. He can merge with space, and his saint soul can merge with each drop of purple rain.

“If the purple water doesn’t vaporize, so does he.

“If space wasn’t destroyed, so does he.

“It took the Fane of Destiny a lot of effort to capture him.”

“So it’s the Spatial Purple Rain recorded in the Secret Tome of Time and Space.” Zhang Ruochen was enlightened.

Chapter 2327: Wujiang's Heart

Translator: EndlessFantasy

Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The third Dark Star contained the Power of Darkness, enveloping the entire universe within a million miles. Standing at the edge of the darkness, the scenery resembled an abyss of death, inspiring even Supreme Saints with awe.

Pan Ruo's figure was graceful beyond comparison. Under her slender legs, she stepped on a Nether River that was thousands of miles long. The waves were full of light, and the Nether Qi was vast. It made her temperament elegant and mysterious.

Wujiang was also a peerless figure with great wisdom and perseverance. He was not obsessed with women at all. However, the first time he saw Pan Ruo, he found that he was no different from others. He could feel the location of his heart, he found that his heart was beating.

Pan Ruo seemed to always be covered with a layer of mysterious gauze, which made Wujiang unable to figure it out.

The more it was like this, the more it tugged at Wujiang's heartstrings.

Splash

The water of the Nether River quickly contracted and turned into dozens of flowing water ribbons that twined around Pan Ruo's body, flowing like a stream.

"This is the place. Let's go," said Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo's speed increased dramatically with the help of the Nether River. She was the first to rush into the void region, which was densely populated with Power of Darkness. She was as cold as ice from start to finish, like a snow mountain that hadn't melted in ten thousand years.

"Be careful, I'll lead the way. Saint Lord Zuo Mu is the strongest of all the Celestial Captives in the Thousand-Koan Realm, he's not so easy to deal with," said Wujiang.

Wujiang's voice was gentle and full of heroism, and Spider Lilies appeared under his feet as he walked.

With one step, he was a hundred miles away.

Not long after, Pan Ruo and Wujiang discovered the many corpses of Celestial Captives floating near an asteroid that was two hundred miles in diameter.

Some of the corpses were only half a meter long and looked like butterflies.

Some of the corpses were as big as mountains and had lion heads.

There were all kinds of corpses.

What was stranger was that all of the corpses had turned dry and dim, and their Saint aura had vanished.

"There's a power fluctuation ahead. Interesting, someone actually arrived before us," said Wujiang.

Wujiang's lips curled up, and he was interested to find out who it was.

His spiritual power had reached the 66th level, and there were very few cultivators from the Infernal Court who could compare to him in this Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Even though he was suppressed by the power of the Dark Star, Wujiang's senses were still extremely sharp.

"To be able to kill so many Celestial Captives, he must not be an ordinary person," Wujiang added.

"There's a power fluctuation ahead. Interesting, someone actually arrived before us," said Wujiang.

Wujiang's lips curled up, and he was interested to find out who it was.

His spiritual power had reached the 66th level, and there were very few cultivators from the Infernal Court who could compare to him in this Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Even though he was suppressed by the power of the Dark Star, Wujiang's senses were still extremely sharp.

“To be able to kill so many Celestial Captives, he must not be an ordinary person,” Wujiang added.

Wujiang was determined to kill Zhang Ruochen not only because Wujiang was the Son of Darkness’s youngest uncle, but also because Zhang Ruochen was a Yuanhui-level genius.

With the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, Wujiang had fused the fourth Saintwill, the Flutter Cloud Saintwill. However, the Flutter Cloud Saintwill was only a Grade Seven Saintwill, he hadn’t cultivated a Grade Two Saintwill.

A Grade Two Saintwill was ten times harder than Wujiang had expected.

The Saintwill Wujiang had fused was still a top Grade Three Saintwill. It only had a hint of a Grade Two Saintwill.

Even if Wujiang took another Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, his chance of fusing a Grade Two Saintwill was still very slim. The bottleneck in his aptitude couldn’t be made up by taking pills.

The only way now was to use the Path of Darkness to devour Zhang Ruochen.

Only then could Wujiang rise to a higher level.

Pan Ruo sighed slightly as she looked at Wujiang, who was hurrying away. Her eyes reflected a thoughtful expression.

The Power of Dimension would be greatly weakened on the Dark Star.

The Power of Darkness, on the other hand, may benefit from the environment. A Path of Darkness cultivator could use 120 percent of his combat power on the Dark Star.

As such, even if Zhang Ruochen’s combat power was no longer the same as before, Wujiang would still be in danger.

‘I hope there really is Dark Space-time Matter inside the Dark Star,’ Pan Ruo thought.

Moyin and Lord Sinluo, who were hunting Celestial Captives, sensed Wujiang’s presence. They stopped their killing and stood on a black space rock, staring in the direction where Wujiang was coming.

“Who is he?” Lord Sinluo stood behind Moyin and asked.

Moyin’s expression was solemn as she said seriously, “An enemy, a very powerful enemy. ”

“I’ll go and kill him,” Lord Sinluo said.

Lord Sinluo held a Star Slayer that he had just seized, and his body surged with intense battle intent.

“Very good. That’s it. No matter how strong the enemy is, there shouldn’t be a trace of fear,” said Moyin.

Moyin’s red lips were like scarlet pills, and she revealed a smile. She took out the Frostwood Bow and placed a Whitejade Divine Arrow on it, aiming in the direction that Wujiang was flying towards.

The cold air emitted by the Frostwood Bow condensed into a massive ice crystal dragon snake in the surrounding void space as Moyin pulled the bow with her finger.

Boom

The Whitejade Divine Arrow turned into a beam of light that was hundreds of meters long and flew out.

The darkness was cut by the white light, and an ear-piercing sharp sound shook the space,

“You actually dare to initiate an attack,” Wujiang snorted coldly. He did not stop moving, and the black electric mark between his eyebrows slowly split open, turning into a vertical eye.

There appeared to be an endless sea of darkness in the vertical eye, releasing surging energy fluctuations.

A beam of light condensed from the Power of Darkness flew out from the vertical eye.

Rumble

The black and white beams of light collided in the void. Soon, the white beams of light dimmed and turned back into Whitejade Divine Arrows that fell into the darkness.

The black beams of light continued to shoot out toward Moyin.

‘It has such a strong impact.’ Moyin thought.

Moyin was very confident in her current strength, but she still did not dare to clash head-on with Wujiang. She used the Great Dimensional Shift to avoid the attack.

Lord Sinluo wasn’t afraid at all. He raised a 20-meter long blade with both hands and slashed out.

Boom

The blade split the light pillar.

The black light pillar melted the Star Slayer in his hand and turned it into black liquid.

Lord Sinluo’s tall and sturdy body was sent flying like a rolling watermelon and the space rock under his feet turned into dust with a bang.

‘HMM? What’s going on? Lord Sinluo doesn’t seem to be in a good state,’ Wujiang thought.

The vertical eye of the lightning mark between Wujiang’s brows closed, revealing a puzzled expression.

Moyin teleported to another location and outshot out a second arrow.

Wujiang turned his head and stared at it. He looked at the arrow with his eagle-like eyes and extended his right hand. Although it was only one hand, dozens of hand shadows appeared and revolved around the incoming arrow, continuously neutralizing the power of the arrow.

By the time the arrow landed in Wujiang’s right hand, it had completely lost its power.

Wujiang picked up the nearly two-meter-long arrow and looked carefully. It was made of Divine Bone. There were 27 million inscriptions on the arrowhead, among which were divine.

“Divine Bone Arrow.”

Wujiang spat out these three words, and his eyes became colder. He stared at Moyin and said, “I can sense that you and Zhang Ruochen have an extremely close relationship. Of course, this is not important. I just want to know how Lord Sinluo’s Frostwood Bow ended up in your hands.”

Moyin played with the bone bow that was constantly emitting cold air. She smiled and said, “Lord Sinluo is a tactful person. He has submitted to the Immortal Vampires and become my master’s battle slave.”

Wujiang laughed and didn’t ask any more questions.

Wujiang gently extended his arm. A dark handprint flew out and enveloped Moyin.

It was just a handprint, but in Moyin’s vision, it was like five-fingered heaven and earth. It was boundless. Even if she used the Great Dimensional Shift, she couldn’t step out of the palm print.

‘How can it be that strong?’ Moyin wondered.

The smile on Moyin’s face disappeared, and the feeling of suffocation became more and more intense.

Whoosh

Moyin’s hands turned into dense Raiden Wisteria, and white Divine Purification Flame surged out of the leaves, quickly turning into a sea of lightning and fire.

She retreated toward the Darkstar while resisting the five-fingered hand seal.

Rumble

The Sea of thunder and fire was sunk by the palm print. The Raiden Wisterias were all broken. Broken vines scattered in the void space within a thousand miles. There were still flashes of lightning and fire on the vine leaves, but the Moyin was nowhere to be found.

‘He could escape unscathed under my full-strength attack. Zhang Ruochen has so many talents. He can’t be underestimated.’ Wujiang thought.

Wujiang used his spiritual power to lock onto the Moyin. He was going to chase after her and kill her before she met up with Zhang Ruochen. However, a roar came from behind.

“Take this, Myriad Glacier!” Lord Sinluo called out.

Lord Sinluo activated his Saintwill and performed a high-level Hundred-Shackle Grade saint technique. He struck out with his palm.

A vast and boundless glacier surged out from Lord Sinluo’s palm and hit Wujiang’s back.

“What are you doing? Stop! It’s me Wujiang! ‘I said Wujiang.

Wujiang thought that Lord Sinluo’s consciousness had been controlled by the Soul Manipulation. Therefore, his voice was infused with spiritual energy, trying to wake him up from his daze.

“No matter who you are, no matter how strong you are, no matter what you are, I’m not afraid of you. If you want to fight, then fight until the world has turned upside down. We won’t rest until one of us dies,” said Lord Sinluo.

Lord Sinluo’s aura was vigorous, and his battle intent surged.

Wujiang furrowed his brow, puzzled as to how Lord Sinluo could have been so arrogant in front of him in the past.

Every time, before the battle even started, Lord Sinluo had already admitted defeat.

“Break it, Wujiang shouted.

Wujiang faced the Myriad Glacier and took large strides forward. His fists and palms struck out, causing the glacier to shatter and the void to tremble.

BANG!

After breaking the Myriad Glacier, Wujiang was like a divine eagle. He leaped down from above and struck Lord Sinluo’s head with his palm, suppressing him firmly.

Lord Sinluo roared, "I want to trade my life force for greater strength. You can't suppress me."

Whoosh

Lord Sinluo's body burned with a brilliant Flame of Death. He had really used a forbidden technique. As his life force continued to burn away, more and more vigorous waves of power erupted from his body.

Wujiang's palm was being attacked all the time. He was almost unable to suppress it.

'Is Zhang Ruochen really so ruthless that he turned him into a war slave?' Wujiang thought.

Wujiang was convinced. Zhang Ruochen dared to turn a Scion into such a state at the Celestial-Hunting Festival. Wasn't that the same as publicly slapping Lord Sinluo's divine father, Lord Chi Hun?

How could Lord Chi Hun endure this?

Wujiang was powerful, but he wasn't without worries.

Lord Sinluo would die if he self-detonated his Sainthood Source at such a close range, no matter how powerful Wujiang was.

Just as Wujiang was in a dilemma, Pan Ruo caught up and said, "Lord Sinluo wasn't refined into a war slave, but a part of his memory was erased."

Pan Ruo pointed at Lord Sinluo's glabella with her slender finger.

Swoosh

The Precepts of Destiny surged out of Pan Ruo's fingers like white threads of light and rushed into the head of Lord Sinluo.

She used the Path of Destiny to construct new memories.

Not just any cultivator of the Path of Destiny could construct the memories of a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Pan Ruo also relied on the Door of Trueself to barely succeed.

After a long while, Lord Sinluo calmed down. He collapsed and fell into a coma.

Wujiang took back his hand and stared at Pan Ruo in surprise, “Your Highness is only in the Neverwilt Realm, but you brought me along with you. I’m really looking forward to your breakthrough to the Hundred-Shackle Realm. I’ll leave Lord Sinluo to you. I’ll go to the Dark Star and meet Zhang Ruochen and Saint Lord Zuo Mtl.”

Pan Ruo said, “Wait. There’s something I need to remind you of first. Zhang Ruochen did not arrive by himself. He appeared to have prepared himself for this. He had more than one assistant. You might not be able to win by yourself. Why don’t you kill Saint Zuo Mu First and take the points?”

“Are you concerned about me?” Wujiang turned around and asked with a smile.

Pan Ruo’s eyes were deep. She said coldly, “I’m just afraid that your emotions will affect your rationality. At this stage, getting points is more important to us than killing Zhang Ruochen.”

“But to me, killing Zhang Ruochen is more important than getting points,” said Wujiang.

Wujiang’s figure blurred and disappeared in front of Pan Ruo’s eyes. When he reappeared, he was hundreds of miles away.

“His will is too strong. He won’t be controlled by anyone,” Pan Ruo said to herself.

After thinking for a while, Pan Ruo’s palm lit up. She patted Lord Sinluo’s head to wake him up.

“Come with me to the Dark Star,” said Pan Ruo.

Although Lord Sinluo had recovered most of his memories, he was still in a daze. For some reason, he thought Pan Ruo’s voice was very friendly. He couldn’t resist it at all, so he agreed and followed her, they flew toward the Dark Star in the center.

Zhang Ruochen unleashed The Spatial Domain and the Realm-frame of Truth on the Dark Star, revealing a vast star ocean.

The starlight was dazzling and beautiful.

“Dimensional Tide,” Zhang Ruochen called out.

This was a technique Saint Monk Xumi had recorded in the Secret Tome of Time and Space. Zhang Ruochen had only grasped it when he reached the pinnacle of the Saint King Realm.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't tear open the space on the Dark Star, but he could make the space shake violently like water waves.

Rumble

Under the impact of the shaking, Saint Lord Zuo Mu could no longer hide and was forced out.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu had just revealed his aqueous form when he was discovered by Zhang Ruochen's Eye of Truth.

Zhang Ruochen said, “As a ball of Spatial Purple Rain, you were born to be the prey of a Master of Dimension. You are the material used to refine dimensional treasures. Do you still want to escape? Can you escape?”

In a sense, the Masters of Space were Saint Lord Zuo Mil's natural enemies, like falcons and snakes, cormorants and fish.

Only when there was a huge difference in cultivation could he change his disadvantage.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu had noticed this just now, so he rushed toward the three Supreme Saints of the Fane of Meteorite. He had to possess one of them as soon as possible and transform into a new second form to change his situation.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu had a significant advantage as the Spatial Purple Rain. He could constantly possess new hosts and become a creature of another clan. Furthermore, he could hide it without any flaws.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu had once used his identity as a cultivator of the Snowman Clan to hide it from the leader of the Fane of Meteorite for hundreds of years. No other race could do such a thing..

Chapter 2328 Three-way Competition

“You can’t escape. Space is frozen.”

Zhang Ruochen stepped forward with his right foot. The Precepts of Dimension in his Sea of Qi were released and merged with the Spatial Domain. Then, they surged toward Saint Lord Zuo Mu, who was rushing forward.

Creak

The space around Saint Lord Zuo Mu seemed to turn into liquid. It shook slightly.

Then, like a frozen river, it solidified inch by inch.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s body was originally merged with the space and could not be seen with the naked eye. However, as the space froze, a faint shadow of him appeared.

Lord Xia Yu’s face lit up. “Did you suppress him?”

“Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s cultivation is very strong. I can only suppress him for a while. Quickly use Soul-siphoning Flute to wear his five senses and spiritual will out.”

The Saint Qi and Blood Qi in Zhang Ruochen’s body surged from under his feet. They rushed in all directions to support the Spatial Domain.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s cultivation had reached the mid-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm. His combat strength was close to that of a superior at the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. Even if Zhang Ruochen tried his best, he could only restrain him for a moment.

Lord Xia Yu obviously knew that it was a critical moment to decide on victory or defeat. With the tip of her left hand’s finger, she cut her skin and blood vessels on her right wrist.

Her scorching red blood dripped onto Soul-siphoning Flute.

Soul-siphoning Flute seemed to have come to life as it absorbed the Supreme Saint Blood. Dense blood-red patterns appeared on its surface. The previous owner of Soul-siphoning Flute carved these patterns. Every single one of them was a divine pattern.

Swoosh—

More and more divine power surged out from Soul-siphoning Flute.

It was unknown if it was because of the surge of divine power, but the flute sound could already be heard on Dark Star.

Mo Cuo and Yan Hanyu of the Fane of Meteorite were weaker than others. They could only feel a sharp pain in their heads due to the influence of the flute sound. They had to use their Spiritual Power to resist it.

“Soul-siphoning Flute is an ancient divine artifact. With the help of Lord Xia Yu’s Supreme Saint blood, it finally possesses divine power,” Fang Mofeng said.

Lord Xia Yu held the flute with both hands. From her red lips, she exhaled a long breath of energy.

Instantly, a soul-stirring melody reverberated through the heavens and earth.

The sound waves took all sort of forms, including blood-red warriors, soul reavers, headless Asuras, surged toward Saint Lord Zuo Mu, who was sealed in space.

The lingering sound also contained a powerful force. Including Fang Mofeng, the three Supreme Saints of the Fane of Meteorite all had a headache. They retreated quickly and didn’t dare to get too close. “Lord Xia Yu’s flute sound is so terrifying. If you’re not a spiritual power Supreme Saint, you’ll definitely lose your mind and become insane if you took all of it.”

Mo Cuo, Yan Hanyu, and Fang Mofeng were only affected by the sound, but they were greatly weakened.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu was attacked directly by the flute sound. And because his spiritual power was sealed, he couldn’t use it to defend himself. Soon, screams came from the frozen space.

Seeing this, Fang Mofeng let out a long sigh. “Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu are too powerful. Saint Lord Zuo Mu won’t be able to hold on for long. He’s doomed.”

Boom

A purple lightning beam cut through the darkness, connecting the ground and sky.

The ground, which was many times harder than black iron, was hit by the lightning beam. It exploded, and a large amount of gravel flew out. Electrical plasma patterns appeared on the ground.

Moyin’s face was pale as she stood in the center of the lightning; she rushed to Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu. She informed Zhang Ruochen telepathically, “Master, Wu Jiang is here!”

“Noted,”

Zhang Ruochen remained calm when he responded.

Moyin was his parasitic plant. He could sense what Moyin saw, heard, and experienced no matter how far away they were.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen had already known the moment Moyin and Wu Jiang fought in the sky.

Zhang Ruochen sighed and looked up.

The Death Qi turned into spiraling clouds in the sky. Beautiful petals of Spider Lilies floated in the clouds.

Wu Jiang stood in the center of the spiraling clouds, emitting a wicked and dazzling light.

“Zhang Ruochen, you really surprised me. I haven’t seen you for a few days, but you already have the power to suppress Saint Lord Zuo Mu. It seems that I can’t let you live today.” Wu Jiang’s voice was melodious and resounded throughout the third Dark Star.

Although he had heard from Pan Ruo and Que Fei about Zhang Ruochen's power, Wu Jiang did not think that Zhang Ruochen could be a match for Saint Lord Zuo Mu until he arrived at the third Dark Star.

The scene of Saint Lord Zuo Mu being suppressed and screaming struck Wu Jiang hard.

'Zhang Ruochen's cultivation speed is too fast. If I don't kill him today, I probably won't have another chance in the future.'

If Zhang Ruochen broke dozens of more shackles, Wu Jiang would probably have to flee the next time they met.

Today was Wu Jiang's last chance.

Wu Jiang's gaze quickly landed on Lord Xia Yu and Moyin. With his powerful spiritual power, he could clearly sense that they had become very powerful as well. At least, he could not kill with three or five moves.

If Zhang Ruochen, Lord Xia Yu, and Moyin were at their peak, the three of them could do whatever they wanted on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield.

With the rise of the trio, together with Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind, the overall strength of the Immortal Vampires was not much weaker than that of Yanluo Clan. They could be considered one of the strongest forces in the Celestial-Hunting battle.

"It seems that this is the only way!"

Wu Jiang's index and middle fingers joined. His arms crossed and formed a cross-shaped hand seal.

The black electric pattern on his forehead reopened.

This time was different from the last time. Wu Jiang fully activated the Dark Power in his body. His long hair fluttered, and his robe swelled. Under the influence of the Dark Power, his body turned into darkness, like a black hole spinning in the sky.

Crash.

A thick black light beam with a diameter of three meters flew out of the black hole and headed straight for Zhang Ruochen, who was trying his best to control the power of Dimension. The power of the black light beam resonated with the power of the Dark Star. The closer it was to the ground, the more powerful it was.

“Moyin, take Violet Gourd and block him for a moment.”

Violet Gourd on Zhang Ruochen’s waist flew out and landed in Moyin’s hand.

With Supreme Artifact in hand, Moyin’s confidence increased greatly. It held the Gourd with one hand, and a large amount of lightning power spread out from its five snow-white jade fingers and poured into the bottom of the Gourd.

All of the Supreme Inscriptions within Violet Gourd were activated.

The Gourd shook violently as it grew larger. In the end, it expanded to the size of a mountain. A golden pillar of flame surged out of the mouth of the massive Gourd, colliding with the dark beam of light that descended from the sky.

Rumble

The power of the Supreme Power and Dark Power collided. They were like two great rivers clashing, releasing a power wave that could topple everything. Moyin had just swallowed a large number of Celestial Captives and was at the peak of its power. With the power of a Supreme Artifact, it could block the black beam of light that fell from the sky.

The three Supreme Saints of the Fane of Meteorite all gasped.

“Why is there another top elite? And it even calls Zhang Ruochen its master. This... The force of Bloodysky Clan is too strong!” Yan Hanyu’s voice was trembling. Fang Mofeng’s expression was solemn. “Wu Jiang wants to attack Zhang Ruochen, break the frozen space, and release Saint Lord Zuo Mu.” “We can’t let him succeed. No matter what, Saint Lord Zuo Mu must die,” said Mo Cuo. “If he doesn’t die, who knows how many Supreme Saints of Infernal Court will die if he takes revenge? “We’re his first target. We’ll definitely die,” Mo Cuo added.

The three Supreme Saints looked at each other and released a beam of Asuran Battle Qi. They injected it into Violet Gourd to help Moyin resist Wu Jiang

Wu Jiang snorted, “You think you can stop me?”

Spider Lily petals gathered behind Wu Jiang and formed a hundred palm prints.

All the palm prints were in a circular formation.

“How is this possible? Wu Jiang is using the Dark Destructive Light while executing a hundred Life-and-Death Palm Prints?” Fang Mofeng’s expression turned grave.

Both the Dark Destructive Light and Life-and-Death Palm were the ultimate skills of Wu Jiang. They were even more powerful than the normal high-level Thousand-Koan Realm Saint Technique.

Wu Jiang was able to use two ultimate skills at the same time because his spiritual power was strong enough.

It was equivalent to the strength of two cultivators at the same time.

The hundred Life-and-Death Palm Prints landed, creating a powerful pressure that landed on the people below.

Every cultivator on the Dark Star could feel a mountain’s weight on their back. Furthermore, the weight became bigger and heavier. The three Supreme Saints of the Fane of Meteorite trembled. They had no choice but to withdraw the Asuran Battle Qi to protect themselves immediately.

“Does Wu Jiang want to... want to kill all of us on Dark Star?”

Yan Hanyu was the first to collapse. Her protective battle Qi was crushed, and she lay on the ground. Blood dripped from her snow-white skin, and her body trembled.

Boom

Mo Cuo was the second to fall.

The hundred Life-and-Death Palm Prints were less than 100 meters away from the ground. The Death Qi contained in the palm prints hit every cultivator on the ground.

Zhang Ruochen sighed and had to change the direction of the Dimension power. All the Precepts of Dimension rushed to the sky. Above everyone's head, the space froze and turned into a huge space shield. At the same time, the dragon and elephant souls in Zhang Ruochen's arms appeared. He lightly pressed his palm toward the sky.

Crack

The shield formed with Dimensional Power, which was dozens of meters thick, was shattered by the hundred Life-and-Death Palm Prints in an instant. The space returned to its previous state.

The next moment.

Zhang Ruochen's palm print exploded with ten times the attack power under the amplification of Truth Precepts. It turned into a huge golden hand that was tens of thousands of meters long and collided with the hundred Life-and-Death Palm Prints.

Rumble—

The Dark Star, which was thousands of miles in diameter, was slightly shaken by this power.

The hundred Palm Prints in the sky were all shattered and turned into a rain of Spider Lily petals falling down. At the same time, the light pillar of Supreme Power disappeared. Wu Jiang, who was floating in the sky, and Moyin, who was standing on the ground, took a few steps back. Obviously, Wu Jiang didn't gain any advantage in this round.

Wu Jiang seemed to be thinking. After a while, he said, "I underestimated you! I missed the best chance to kill you when we fought for the Saintwill Pill. Now, you and your Saint Devourer have the power to fight against me."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Even without the Saint Devourer, you might not be my match." Hearing this, Wu Jiang smiled again. "Your cultivation in the Path of Truth is indeed very strong.

You can unleash ten times the attack power. However, your physical endurance is limited. Even if you have a Demigod-level physique, how many times can you continuously unleash ten times the attack power?

“Can you break my hundred Life-and-Death Palm Prints once? Can you break it with ten times the attack power?”

“Besides, have you forgotten that I’m more powerful in spiritual power and illusion? If it wasn’t for Princess Luo Sha, you would have died under my Myriad Eye Illusion when fighting for the Saintwill Pill.”

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Saint Lord Zuo Mu, who was trapped in the space.

Without Zhang Ruochen’s support, more than half of the frozen space had been broken by Saint Lord Zuo Mu. Lord Xia Yu’s flute music could no longer suppress him.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Wu Jiang, the purpose of the Celestial-Hunting battle is to kill Celestial Captives. Why don’t we kill Saint Lord Zuo Mu first and then fight?”

“Once Saint Lord Zuo Mu is dead, the three top elites of Bloodsky Clan will join hands. Moreover, you have two Supreme Artifacts. How can I be a match for you after that?” Wu Jiang’s eyes were filled with mockery as he let out a cold smirk.

Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu had once been nothing in Wu Jiang’s eyes. Now, they had grown into powerful figures that he couldn’t ignore.

Zhang Ruochen said, “So, you plan to rescue Saint Lord Zuo Mu and work with him to deal with me first?”

Wu Jiang said this without any hesitation.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, “Working with Celestial Captive to kill a Supreme Saint of Infernal Court,” he said. “If the deities see this, I’m afraid it will affect your future in Infernal Court. Do you really think that the power of the Dark Star can shield everything from the deities’ Perception?”

“So what if the deities see it? In the end, you and Saint Lord Zuo Mu will both die at my hands.” Wu Jiang was full of confidence and didn’t care that Saint Lord Zuo Mu had heard him.

Now, it was a three-way battle. They all wanted to kill the other two sides.

Enemies and friends were not perpetual.

The strongest would be the first target.

Zhang Ruochen had to be on full alert against a great enemy like Wu Jiang. He couldn’t be distracted. Seeing that Saint Lord Zuo Mu was about to escape, he shouted coldly, “Moyin, go help Lord Xia Yu. You must kill Saint Lord Zuo Mu. Leave Wu Jiang to me.”

Zhang Ruochen grabbed Violet Gourd and put it back. He spread his wings and flew into the sky, attacking Wu Jiang.

He retrieved Violet Gourd because he knew that the Supreme Artifact of Nether Clan must be in Wu Jiang’s hands. Only Supreme Artifact could resist the attack of another Supreme Artifact. “Good! I’ll defeat you in a one-on-one fight and take your life.”

Wu Jiang laughed and the black electric pattern on his forehead opened. This time, there was no dark light beam. Instead, ten thousand eyes appeared. It was the Myriad Eye Illusion that had once made Zhang Ruochen lose himself.

With his 66th level Spiritual Power and his status as a High-Saint Illusionist, even Lan Ying and Yan Huangtu would be afraid of him.

Because once a target fell into the illusion, the target could end up dead even when he was lost for a moment.

Chapter 2329 Forming Marriage Alliance with Devala

“Do you think that you can threaten me with the same move?”

Zhang Ruochen stood in the vast starlight of the Realm-frame of Truth. His eyes shone dazzlingly. He raised his arms and activated the power of each star. They turned into hundreds of thousands of beams of light and attacked the ten thousand divine eyes.

Ever since the last time he had been attacked by Myriad Eye Illusion, Zhang Ruochen had been thinking hard of a countermeasure.

In the end, he still felt that only the Power of Truth could break the illusion.

Zhang Ruochen’s Spiritual Power had reached the 64th level, which gave him the confidence to break Myriad Eye Illusion.

The starlight beams targetted Wu Jiang like thousands of arrows aiming to pierce through him.

“He’s not affected by Myriad Eye Illusion at all? Is the Path of Truth that scary? It shouldn’t be!”

Wu Jiang quickly regained his composure after he was stunned for a moment. A hundred Palm Prints appeared behind him again. He smashed the incoming light beams with Life-and-Death Palm.

KABOOM!

The sky above the Dark Star became bright with light and mist.

In the vast starlight, a dozens-of-miles-tall Saint Aspect of Immovable Wisdom King appeared. It was covered in golden light. It was so mighty that its height reached the heavens. Then, a phantom of Divine Demon appeared on the other side of Zhang Ruochen, stepping on ten thousand corpses.

Against a powerful figure like Wu Jiang, Zhang Ruochen used the most powerful Saint Technique.

“Incarceration of Divine Demon, Immovable Wisdom King, merge!”

Zhang Ruochen put his hands together and raised them above his head. In an instant, his long hair flew in the wind, and his aura raised to its peak.

Whoosh! Whoosh

Cold air currents surged around Fang Mofeng, Yan Hanyu, and Mo Cuo on the ground. The trio was like three-leaf boats on the vast sea. They floated up and down and were almost swept away by the air currents.

“I thought that only a few people like Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, and Luo Shengtian would be able to compete against Wu Jiang. I didn’t expect Zhang Ruochen to be one of them.”

Mo Cuo was shocked and ashamed. His reputation as a genius was nothing compared to Zhang Ruochen and Wu Jiang.

Fang Mofeng said, “Let’s leave the third Dark Star quickly. We play no role in this level of battle.”

Yan Hanyu nodded and said, “No matter what, we owe Zhang Ruochen a big favor.” If Zhang Ruochen hadn’t shown up in time, she would have suffered the biggest humiliation in her life. Hence, she was grateful. Mo Cuo nodded in agreement. “I owe him a favor.”

When attacking Saint Lord Zuo Mu, Zhang Ruochen could have waited for a better chance to strike.

But Zhang Ruochen had made a move before Saint Lord Zuo Mu assaulted Yan Hanyu. Hence, he had the intention to save her.

Wu Jiang looked at the Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect and the phantom of Divine Demon. Finally, he felt intimidated. Facing his opponent Zhang Ruochen, he said in a deep voice, “Nether Domain.”

The surroundings changed greatly. The vast and mighty Nether Qi spread for thousands of miles. An illusory kingdom of the nether realm appeared. Black palace buildings, bloody red stone walls, white skeletal mountains... all sorts of eerie scenes appeared around Wu Jiang. "Netherdeus," Wu Jiang spoke in a deep voice.

Nether Qi surged behind him.

In the illusory kingdom, a massive ancient divine phantom condensed. The divine phantom absorbed the Qi of heaven and earth and breathed in Dark Light. It was majestic as it faced the Immovable Wisdom King.

"Fight!"

Zhang Ruochen roared. Together with the Immovable Wisdom King Saint Aspect, they charged into the illusory underworld kingdom. They trampled on the skeletal mountain and destroyed the bloody red stone walls with their fists. Wherever they passed, mountains and rivers within the illusory kingdom were shattered and cities were destroyed.

Finally, the Immovable Wisdom King and Netherdeus clashed. At this moment, it didn't seem like Zhang Ruochen and Wu Jiang were the ones fighting. It was more like a great, ancient battle between Immovable Wisdom King and Netherdeus. They fought until the starry sky was destroyed.

The power of the Dark Star could resist the probe from Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms. Most deities couldn't even sense what was happening there.

However, the state was not absolute.

For an existence like Fukurokuju who had unfathomable Spiritual Power, the power of the Dark Star could not resist his perception.

Fukurokuju's statue was as big as a star and was as tall as three million miles.

The Gate of Destiny behind him was interwoven with countless Precepts of Destiny. Divine light shone, containing an unfathomable mysterious power.

The light of the Gate of Destiny suddenly dimmed.

Then, the scene on the third Dark Star appeared inside the Gate of Destiny.

Many deities opened their eyes in their respective divine worlds and looked toward the Gate of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen, Wu Jiang, and Pan Ruo were all outstanding elites of this generation. They represented the future of Infernal Court. Even the deities were interested in them.

“Bloodysky Clan is amazing. Three powerful elites appeared at the same time. Each of them has the strength of the top ten on the list of Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators,” A God said enviously.

“The overall strength of Immortal Vampires is no weaker than Asuras. They are qualify to challenge Yanluo clan.”

“How can the Immortal Vampires challenge the Yanluo clan without a top elites? Although Zhang Ruochen has practiced the Grade Two Saintwill, his cultivation rank is still far from the Yanluo clan’s elites.”

“I don’t think so! Zhang Ruochen has the ability to fight Wu Jiang. He’s already considered a top-tier elite.”

“In fight against Wu Jiang, Zhang Ruochen most likely will lose.”

In a divine demiplane filled with endless white fog, there was a floating island in the depths of thick white fog.

The island was more like a continent filled with greenery.

On the floating island, Luo Yan, the emperor of Devala — the number one Rakshasa kingdom – and Wargod Bloodximius of Bloodysky Clan, sat facing each other. Both of them radiated boundless divine power. Their auras were vigorous, and the Blood Qi within them surged like a raging river.

Luo Yan wore a dark red imperial crown, a thousand-word divine talisman robe, and a jade belt around his waist. He played with his divine whip and said, “Bloodximius, you’ve hidden too many things from all. It seems that you have big plans for this Celestial-Hunting battle.”

“I didn’t set my expectation that high. I was hoping that Immortal Vampires could at least make it into the top five among the ten major clans, while Bloodysky Clan could make it into the top three of the ten clans of Immortal Vampires.

“The current situation is far better than my expectation. I can only say that the younger generations are performing good enough.”

Wargod Bloodximus said calmly, but his face was full of pride.

Luo Yan said, “So, you came to my demiplane to show off?”

Wargod Bloodximus shook his head, and his tone became more formal. He said, “Actually, I have something important to discuss with you.”

“What is it?” Luo Yan asked.

Wargod Bloodximus said, “What do you think about Zhang Ruochen?”

Luo Yan’s eyes showed a thoughtful look. He said, “He is a genius. If he doesn’t die prematurely, he will definitely be one of the thirteen Wargods of the Fane of Immortality in the future.”

In Infernal Court, only deities with strong combat strength and outstanding battle achievements were qualified to be called “Wargod.”

There were many deities of Immortal Vampires with strong combat strength. However, only thirteen of them could earn the title. The number was constant.

Wargod Bloodximus was the youngest among the thirteen Wargods of Immortal Vampires.

Rumors said the oldest Wargod of Immortal Vampires had lived for nearly a million years. He was an ancient existence and the leader of the thirteen Wargods. He was known as “Immortal Wargod.”

In terms of combat strength, even the Immortal Vampires' clan leader and the Lord of the Fane of Immortality feared him.

However, Immortal Wargod had not appeared for more than 100,000 years. No one knew where he had gone, and he had not even participated in the War of Gods during the late Middle Ages.

The only proof that he was still alive was the divine fire he had placed in the Fane of Immortality which had not been extinguished. Luo Yan perceived that Zhang Ruochen could become one of the thirteen Wargods of the Immortal Vampires. It was considered a high opinion of Zhang Ruochen as he was seen as someone who could be on equal footing with Immortal Wargod and Wargod Bloodximius.

Wargod Bloodximius said, "You're right. I also think that Zhang Ruochen's future achievements are limitless.

"However, his path is destined to be difficult. It's full of death and danger.

"I tried to probe his future, but I saw blank."

"Are you worried that he doesn't have a future and will fall before he enters Godhood?" Luo Yan asked.

Wargod Bloodximius nodded. But he then shook his head. "I can't predict his future. Perhaps Saint Monk Xumi shielded it from us, or maybe Zhang Ruochen did so himself."

"Himself... Oh, I understand! It's either he doesn't have a future, or his future achievement is brighter than ours, so we can't predict or probe it," Luo Yan said.

A smile appeared on the face of Wargod Bloodximius, and he said, "The future is full of variables. Even fate can't completely decide it. As long as a cultivator is powerful enough, they can control their own future."

"So, you came for him?" Luo Yan said. Wargod Bloodximius nodded. "His future needs him to fight and strive for it. Since he is the most outstanding elite among my descendants, I should pave the way for his future and make his path slightly easier."

“He is already the grandson of the mighty Wargod Bloodximus. With that identity, his path is broad enough. What else you want to pave?” Luo Yan teased Wargod Bloodximus.

Wargod Bloodximus said, “But I also have to cultivate. I can’t protect him forever. And he has too many enemies; they are too powerful. So, I still need to get some forces to back him, the ones that can intimidate the entire Infernal Court.”

“Don’t tell me you’re referring to my kingdom Devala?”

Luo Yan was on guard. He felt that Wargod Bloodximus was scheming against him. This fellow wanted to drag him along.

Wargod Bloodximus nodded. “A marriage alliance! If Zhang Ruochen is married to Devala’s lady, those enemies will stop targetting him.”

Luo Yan was slightly relieved. As long as Wargod Bloodximus was not asking him to take Zhang Ruochen to be his disciple, he was fine. Too many variables would come along if he took Zhang Ruochen as a disciple. His future would become unpredictable too.

Luo Yan smiled lightly. “A marriage is not a big deal. Among the daughters of Devalan deities, there are a few suitable candidates. They are all Supreme Saints who are definitely worthy of your grandson. Do you have anyone in your mind?”

Wargod Bloodximus’ eyes expressed disdain. He snorted coldly. “My grandson is a genius and has the potential to become a Wargod. Not any deity’s daughters are worthy of him. I think Princess Luo Sha...”

“Stop, what did you say?”

Luo Yan’s expression turned grave, his eyes piercing

Wargod Bloodximus said, “Princess Luo Sha’s talent and intelligence can be considered the top in this generation in Infernal Court. Only she is worthy of my grandson.”

“Bloodximus, you are too greedy. Luo Sha is my daughter. In the future, she might succeed the throne of Devala. Do you really want to form a marriage alliance or you just want to snatch her away from me?!”

Luo Yan slammed the table in anger. He said firmly, “Don’t even think about it. There’s no chance at all.”

Wargod Bloodximius said, “My grandson, Zhang Ruochen, is a genius. As long as I spread the word, believe it or not, the deities of Asuras, Nether Clan, Deathkins, and even Yanluo Clan will bring their daughters to discuss a marriage alliance with me.

“So why did I come to you first?

“In Infernal Court, Immortal Vampires and Rakshasa should stay united because we are all living beings.

“The rise of top elites among our clans will ensure that our interests, status, and voice will be better protected.” Luo Yan shook his head, “Even you Bloodximius can’t predict Zhang Ruochen’s future,” he said. “Why should I gamble on my daughter’s future? What’s worse, if your grandson marries my daughter, won’t I be a generation younger than you? What are you thinking?!”

“You should blame yourself for living for hundreds of thousands of years and taking concubines every year.”

“Nonsense. Since when did I take concubines a year? Even if I agree, I’m the only daughter of Amane and I. Even if I agree, Amane won’t agree, and my Sha’er won’t agree either,” Luo Yan said.

“Not really. I think they’re destined.”

One was the ruler of a divine kingdom, and the other was the ruler of a large clan. At this moment, their faces were flushed red as they were quarreling intensely. Gradually, the two bigshots’ battle intent rose, and they were almost about to fight.

“Although you have cultivated a few more Yuanhui periods than me, it doesn’t mean that the longer you cultivate, the stronger you become. Many old geezers’ strength will continue to decline as they age.”

Wargod Bloodximius summoned his halberd and pointed it at Luo Yan.

Luo Yan spat out a monstrous evil aura. His divine light illuminated the entire divine demiplane. He said angrily, "I'm at my prime. Even if all thirteen Immortal Vampire Wargods can't defeat me, let alone you. I'll destroy all of you with one hand."

Whoosh!

A divine light appeared in the demiplane and condensed into the figure of a lady wearing green gown.

"Amane, don't meddle in this matter. Bloodximius has gone too far. I must teach him a lesson today!" Luo Yan said.

The woman donned in a green gown was Amane. More than 100,000 years ago, she had been the Scioness of the Fane of Destiny. She was one of Fukurokuju's disciples and also the empress of Devala.

Amane gently shook her head. "The two of you are elites among TrueGods who can intimidate the world. Why do you have to hurt the harmony because of a small matter? In my opinion, the two of you do not have the right to interfere. You should let the young people make their own decision."

Luo Yan was puzzled as he could not understand Amane's intention. "Amane, why do you think that there is still room for negotiation? You should stand by my side and resolutely oppose the so-called marriage alliance."

"I saw a trace of the trajectory of Destiny. Neither of us can go against it!"

Amane sighed, her tone full of resignation.

Chapter 2330 Combined

“The trajectory of destiny?”

Luo Yan’s eyes became deep and reserved.

As the former Scioness of the Fane of Destiny, Amane’s understanding of the Path of Destiny was incomparable to many people in heaven and earth.

Wargod Bloodximus could not predict Zhang Ruochen’s future, but Amane could see a trace of Zhang Ruochen’s and Luo Sha’s trajectory of destiny. This was a very impressive method and ability, worthy of the title of Divine Empress.

Destiny was not a deity or any living creature. It was the way of the universe, representing the will of heaven and karma in the universe.

Destiny was fixed.

But fate was a variable.

The combination of fate and destiny determined everything in the world.

The stronger a cultivator’s cultivation was and the more understanding he had about destiny, the more he would respect it.

But those who do not know lack fear for it.

Amane walked elegantly in the deity world. Her divine dress fluttered in the wind. She was elegant and beautiful, accompanied by the sounds of divine and ethereal music. She came to Luo Yan’s side and said, “Let this matter be decided by Sha’er. Fortune and misfortune are two of the biggest variables in destiny. Who can say for sure?”

Wargod Bloodximus laughed, saying straightforwardly, “Amane is clearly more sensible. As expected of the past Scioness. Back then, the two of us trained under Fukurokuju. If I had even the slightest thought of marrying you, how could Luo Yan have the chance?”

He added, “Luo Yan, you have will be returning the favor by giving your daughter in marriage to my grandson.”

What did he mean by returning the favor?

It sounded as if Wargod Bloodximius had deliberately given Amane to him.

Luo Yan had just calmed down, but he was suddenly provoked again, “If it weren’t for the fact that you and Amane are taught by the same master, I would have kicked you out of the deity world long ago.” he said angrily, “If Zhang Ruochen wishes to marry Shaler, he has to walk out of the Battlefield of Celestial Hunting alive. However, I don’t think he has the chance.”

Luo Yan looked at the Gate of Destiny with the divine image of Fukurokuju and saw the battle scene on the third dark star. The battle between Zhang Ruochen and Wu Jiang had reached a climax.

Zhang Ruochen had only broken 14 shackles, but he was able to fight with Wujiang, who had achieved the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Both of them were almost fighting equally. Luo Yan was more or less quite surprised at this.

After all, it was Wu Jiang, the most ancient deity of the Fane of Darkness, and the leader of this generation.

Of course, Wu Jiang’s cultivation was much higher than Zhang Ruochen’s. In the battle between the two, the former always had the upper hand. He moved without haste and used all kinds of Saint Techniques combined with the Nether Domain to attack continuously, Zhang Ruochen was suppressed and couldn’t use the ten multiple attacking power from the Path of Truth at all.

On the other side, Lord Xia Yu and Moyin couldn’t completely suppress Saint Lord Zuo Mu. Instead, Saint Lord Zuo Mu showed signs of breaking free from the Dimensional Lockdown.

The battle situation was very unfavorable for Zhang Ruochen and the Bloodsky Clan. If the balance of victory and defeat continued to tilt, Zhang Ruochen might not have the chance to leave the third dark star alive, and the Bloodsky Clan would lose everything as well.

The look on Wargod Bloodximus's face was slightly solemn and he said, "At this stage, Wu Jiang is indeed a strong opponent for Zhang Ruochen. If Zhang Ruochen can overcome this, he will undergo a new transformation."

Wargod Bloodximus had said "overcome this", not "defeat Wu Jiang." From this, it could be seen that even he did not have much hope for Zhang Ruochen.

It was not because Zhang Ruochen was not strong enough, but because Wu Jiang was too strong.

Luo Yan said, "Why don't we make a bet?"

"What bet?" Wargod Bloodximus asked.

Luo Yan said, "A bet with a Supreme Artifact."

Luo Yan knew very well that it was impossible for him and Wargod Bloodximus to battle because the impact on their surroundings would be too great. However, Wargod Bloodximus had greatly angered him today. How could he swallow his anger if he did not let him bleed?

"How do you want to bet?" asked Wargod Bloodximus

Luo Yan said, "Let's bet on how far the level of the fight between Zhang Ruochen and Wu Jiang would reach. If they can fight to level 7 or more, I will admit my defeat."

Deities had their own assessment of a battle.

For example...

If Zhang Ruochen and Wu Jiang were both evenly matched then it would be a level 10 battle.

If Wu Jiang could defeat Zhang Ruochen easily then it would be a level 0 battle.

Luo Yan wanted to use Wu Jiang as a test to challenge Zhang Ruochen and see what level he could reach.

After thinking for a moment, Wargod Bloodximus said, "Okay, I'll bet with you. If you lose, I don't want your Supreme Artifact. I just want you to agree to the marriage." "Okay, then it's decided."

Luo Yan laughed in his heart. So what if I had agreed? If Sha'er didn't agree, the marriage wouldn't work.

Amane stared at the two of them and shook her head gently.

There was a legend about Netherdeus that was summoned by Wu Jiang.

It was said that in the ancient past, the first person who transformed from Ghost to the Nether Clan was the founding father of the Nether Clan. The name "Progenitor Ming" refers to him.

Of course, the era of the ancestor of the underworld god had passed for tens of thousands of years. Even the gods didn't know what kind of person he was. They didn't even know if he was the first cultivator who transformed into the underworld clan.

The only evidence that could prove the existence of Netherdeus was contained within the eight Nether Scrolls. Some said that Netherdeus wrote it in his later years as a summary of his lifetime cultivation. Others said that the eight volumes of the Nether Scrolls were compiled by an ancient sage of the Nether Clan tens of millions of years ago. They were the cultivation scrolls of the Nether Clan that were gathered extensively for a long time. Of course, in all the legends told, the eight volumes of the Nether Scrolls couldn't remove Netherdeus. They must all have a significant connection with him.

Any one of the eight volumes of the Nether Scrolls could be compared to the cultivation techniques on the Taiyi Divine Techniques Rank.

The Nether Clan had a prophecy since ancient times that if someone could combine the eight volumes of the Nether Scrolls into one and cultivate it to the limits, they would have a chance to find the secret of eternal life.

Eternal life was the thought that could move the hearts of the gods the most.

To find the secret of eternal life, they would give up everything.

Unfortunately, since ancient times, no one had succeeded.

Now, there were only six volumes of the Nether Scrolls in the Infernal Court, and the Fane of Darkness had four volumes. The other two volumes had been lost many years ago. The eight volumes of the Nether Scrolls never had the chance to be combined into one again.

Wu Jiang was cultivating two volumes of the Nether Scrolls, which was the “Nether Domain” volume and the “Nether Ancestor” volume simultaneously. It was equivalent to cultivating two cultivation techniques on the Taiyi Divine Techniques Rank.

At this moment, the Nether Domain and image of Netherdeus that he had displayed were the most concrete manifestations of these two techniques.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen held up the Spatial Domain, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth. He fought against the Nether Domain with the three ancient ways. The Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King was fighting against the apparition of Netherdeus. Divine power surged sky high.

The huge difference in realms revealed Zhang Ruochen’s disadvantages.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t gain the upper hand in this battle.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen was confident that he wouldn’t lose if he maintained the current situation. However, his current state consumed too much Saint Qi. If he continued fighting, he would be at a disadvantage.

“I can’t continue like this or I’ll definitely lose”

Just as this thought flashed through Zhang Ruochen’s mind, he felt a sharp pain all over his body. It was as if every inch of his flesh was being pricked by needles.

The Supreme Saint’s blood in his body was quickly flowing out. “Oh no, it’s the Blood-devouring curse!”

The advantage that Wu Jiang had with his spiritual power was fully displayed. He could still use the curse while maintaining his peak battle strength. This was something Zhang Ruochen still couldn't do at this stage.

In an instant, one-tenth of the Supreme Saint's blood in Zhang Ruochen's body was lost.

"The Path of Truth has ten times the attack power."

Zhang Ruochen's Realm-frame of Truth shone. Each of the stars shone and released powerful energy waves.

However, before the power of truth could reach him, it was swallowed by the dark power emitted by the Nether Domain and vanished without a trace.

The power in Zhang Ruochen's body quickly weakened, and two-tenths of the Supreme Saint's blood in his body was lost.

"Wu Jiang is so smart. Since he released the Nether Domain, he definitely won't give me the chance to activate the Precepts of Truth and unleash my attacking power multiplied by ten times. In that case, I can only fight to the death."

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that if he lost too much Supreme Saint's blood, his body would quickly become weak. He might not even have the chance to escape alive. Of course, he could choose to run away now. With his mastery of time and dimension, Wu Jiang would never be able to keep him.

But if he ran away, it would be the same as giving the seriously injured Saint Lord Zuo Mu to Wu Jiang, and letting him take millions of points for nothing.

Zhang Ruochen's chance of leading the Bloodysky Clan and the Immortal Vampires to the first place would be very slim. Secondly, if he could escape, what about Lord Xia Yu and the Moyin?

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen sensed Pan Ruo's aura on the dark star. He was doubtful, but at the same time, he became more determined.

He didn't know what he was thinking. The thought of losing to Wu Jiang in front of Pan Ruo made him feel terrible.

"Fight! I can't lose no matter what. As long as I can fuse the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill with Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King and unleash the combined power through the Incarceration of Divine Demon, I can break through the Nether Domain.”

Zhang Ruochen had lost three-tenths of the Supreme Saint blood in his body and he was already feeling weak.

However, by banishing the weakness with his strong battle intent, Zhang Ruochen acted as if nothing had happened. He activated the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill and forcefully combined it with the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King along with the Incarceration of Divine Demon.

Failure!

Failure!

He had tried ten times in a row, but could not succeed.

Although Zhang Ruochen had practiced cultivating the Saintwill and also high-grade Thousand-Koan Saint Techniques, he lacked time to polish and fully master both. It was insanely difficult to combine the two.

Wu Jiang felt powerful Saintwill emanating from Zhang Ruochen.

The fluctuating waves of Saintwill thrown off by were far stronger than the Saintwill he had cultivated.

“Could it be that Pan Ruo has guessed correctly that Zhang Ruochen has cultivated Grade Two Saint Will? How... how is this possible...”

Wu Jiang knew how terrifying the Saintwill was. If Zhang Ruochen had cultivated Grade Two Saint Will, it would pose a great threat to him. Thus, he increased the power of his attacks on Zhang Ruochen.

Four-tenths of the Supreme Saint’s blood had been lost in Zhang Ruochen’s body. He had tried 27 times to activate the Saint Will, but he still could not do it.

At this moment, he was on the verge of life and death trying to activate his full potential.

In the world of the deities, Luo Yan said, “Blood and qi are very important to both humans and the Immortal Vampires. If half of the blood of the Supreme Saint is drained, no matter how strong Zhang Ruochen’s will is, he won’t be able to continue.”

Luo Yan did not rejoice at the misfortune of others. Instead, he sighed deeply.

It was one thing to oppose the marriage between Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha, but Luo Sha was eager to see that among those living in the Infernal Court, there could be a role model such as Zhang Ruochen being produced, who wanted to establish a flag for all the living beings in the hell and suppress the Necromancers at the same time.

If Zhang Ruochen died in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, it would not be good for all the living beings in the Infernal Court.

In the battle between the living and the dead, even the deities cared a lot about the differences between the three lower clans, the three middle clans, three upper clans, and the highest supreme clan.

If Zhang Ruochen rose up, it would have an extraordinary significance for all the living beings in the Infernal Court.

The eyes of Wargod Bloodximius were fixed on the Gate of Destiny behind the Fukurokuju. He could not help but release pulses of spiritual power from his hands.

Luo Yan glanced sideways in surprise. Was Xue Jue going to fight his way into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting to save Zhang Ruochen’s life?

No one could break the rules of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

It was for this reason that even the Ghost Master could only watch and not interfere on the deaths before him.

Even if Wargod Bloodximius wanted to fight his way into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, would the Ghost Master and the others let him have his way?

“Zhang Ruochen, it’s time to end everything. Let me be the one to send you off. Your destiny and your many years of cultivation will become the attire for my wedding and they will allow me to become the most dazzling star in this Yuanhui Period.”

Wu Jiang sensed that half of the Supreme Saint’s blood had already been lost in Zhang Ruochen’s body. Thus, he controlled the apparition of Netherdeus to launch his strongest attack.

“Wrath of the Nether Gods.”

Netherdeus apparition let out a long cry as its mouth opened wider and wider, turning into a black hole with a diameter of 100 miles. It flew toward the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King and Zhang Ruochen.

Wherever the black hole passed, the Realm-frame of Truth, the Spatial Domain, and the Null Time realm were all shattered. All the power was swallowed.

At this moment, the powerful deities in the world of deities did not even blink. They were clearly paying special attention to the result of this battle. Some of them even smiled.

Only Supreme Saints of this caliber like Zhang Ruochen and Wu Jiang were qualified to capture the attention of the deities. They didn’t just have the potential to achieve Godhood. If they survived, they would become powerful figures in the world of deities.

“For the 39th time, merge together for me, Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. I want to destroy everything in front of me.”

Zhang Ruochen had long transformed into the likeliness of an immortal vampire. He gritted his teeth and revealed his two fangs. His eyes shone with crimson light, and strange bloody lines appeared on his pale white face.

The huge black hole was approaching.

Zhang Ruochen was like a grain of rice standing at the edge of the black hole. Suddenly, the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King which was about to be destroyed shone blindingly again. A Taiji Mark materialized before Zhang Ruochen, it spun slowly and was several times larger than the black hole.

“Finally... I’ve succeeded!”

Chapter 2331 Dark Catacombs

“What... What is this?”

Wu Jiang stared at the Taiji Mark. He could feel Zhang Ruochen’s previously weakening aura was getting stronger. It was like a dying fire that had begun burning again.

Rumble

The Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill and the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King combined into one. Using the Saint Techniques of the Incarceration of Divine Demon, it crushed the huge black hole with a diameter of 100 miles before rushing into the Nether Domain and crushing the land into pieces.

There seemed to be no power in the world that could block this attack.

“Netherdeus.”

“Life-and-Death Palm.”

Wu Jiang was shocked. The destructive power of the combination of the Grade Two Saintwill and the high level Thousand-Koan Saint Technique was beyond his imagination. He tried his best to activate his Precepts and Ming Qi.

Boom

All of Wu Jiang’s attacks were shattered by Zhang Ruochen.

The huge palm print from the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King landed heavily on Wu Jiang’s body. He flew off like a shooting star and disappeared into the darkness.

The Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King and the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill didn’t last long. They quickly disappeared.

Zhang Ruochen’s figure reappeared and swayed briefly in the void space. Blood flowed from the corner of his mouth. He trembled weakly which made him feel like he was about to faint.

“Half of the Supreme Saint’s blood has been lost.”

Zhang Ruochen’s expression remained resolute. He used the sharp fingernail of his right index finger to pierce his chest, stimulating himself with the intense pain. No matter what, he had to continue.

The battle was not over yet.

He mobilized the Divine Purification Flame and the Heart of the Divine Tree to refine the curse power that had invaded his body.

Whoosh!

Zhang Ruochen spread the ten wings on his back and turned into a streak of golden light. He flew out in search of Wu Jiang’s aura.

The power from that attack must have severely injured Wu Jiang

Moreover, the Qi of Divine Demon and the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill had invaded Wu Jiang’s body.

Now must be Wu Jiang’s weakest moment. It was the best chance to kill him.

Zhang Ruochen searched for Wu Jiang’s aura that was left behind and flew across thousands of miles.

The aura trail suddenly stopped.

“It disappeared?”

Zhang Ruochen immediately released his spiritual power and the Spatial Domain. He searched near and far, not missing any of the traces.

But he found nothing.

Wu Jiang seemed to have vanished from the world.

“There are remnants of dark power. It seems that Wu Jiang used some means of the Path of Darkness to merge with the darkness of heaven and earth to hide.” Zhang Ruochen frowned and sighed softly.

The existence of the Dark Star was compatible with the Path of Darkness that Wu Jiang practiced, giving him a geographical advantage.

He could attack easily and retreat stealthily.

Of course, the main reason was also that Wu Jiang’s cultivation and spiritual power were much higher than Zhang Ruochen’s, so Zhang Ruochen could not find him.

The total number of precepts that Zhang Ruochen practiced was 2.8 billion.

The number of precepts in Wu Jiang, who had reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, was close to 10 billion, three times more than Zhang Ruochen.

Of the 2.8 billion precepts that Zhang Ruochen had practiced, only 20 million were Precepts of Dimension.

However, Wu Jiang had practiced more than 70 million from the Path of Darkness.

They were both using ancient paths. If the number of precepts differed too much, then it would be extremely difficult for Zhang Ruochen to use dimension precepts to search for Wu Jiang who was hiding in the darkness.

“It seems that Wu Jiang is seriously injured. He can only hide to avoid my pursuit.”

Zhang Ruochen thought to himself.

His body felt weak again. Even worse, Zhang Ruochen’s rationality was being constantly attacked by a strong bloodthirsty impulse.

The weakness caused by the loss of Blood Qi was not something the Heart of the Divine Tree could heal.

He had to make up for the loss of Blood Qi.

Zhang Ruochen did not only have the blood of a Supreme Saint in his body, but he also had the blood of a demigod.

Every drop of blood contained powerful energy. If it landed on the ground, it could melt the ground within a radius of hundreds of miles and turn it into a field of fire. Every drop of such blood had been tempered over and over repeatedly. It was not easy to recover from its loss.

The fastest way to make up for the loss of Blood Qi was, of course, to suck blood.

If he relied on his body to recover slowly, it would take him at least three years to fully recover.

In the past, Zhang Ruochen had used the Saint blood and the Supreme Saint blood to practice. But at that time, he thought of himself as a human. He had no patience and no impulse to drink blood.

The situation now was completely different from before.

For some things, it would be impossible to stop after the first try... In the end, they would get lost and change so much that they would not even recognize themselves.

Zhang Ruochen didn't care about sucking the blood of enemies and evil people. He was afraid that in the future, in order to suck blood and become stronger, he could suck anyone's blood.

The inner demons of humans were like this, they are magnified step by step.

Now, Zhang Ruochen's inner demons were already deeply planted, how dare he continue being a demon?

However, Zhang Ruochen faced another dilemma. If he couldn't recover his Blood Qi as soon as possible and instead let Wu Jiang recover first, the situation would become even worse.

On the third dark star, Pan Ruo and the Lord Sinluo stood at the North Pole of the planet.

In front of them was an entrance of a dark catacomb that went down vertically. It was so deep that it seemed bottomless.

The catacombs released a powerful pulling force. With the cultivation of the Pan Ruo Neverwilt Realm, he had to go all out to resist it and not fall inside.

Here, the precepts of heaven and earth became distorted. The Precepts of Darkness took up more than 50 percent of all the precepts. They were even more terrifying than the Nether Domain practiced by a Supreme Saint.

The Lord Sinluo looked down at the dark and cold catacombs. He felt a chill run down his spine and said, "This is the entrance to the interior of the Dark Star, right? Once you jump inside, will you be able to get out?" The gravitational force on the surface of the dark star could severely affect even the Supreme Saints.

The pressure on the Supreme Saints on the inside of the star body was naturally stronger. Pan Ruo's expression was calm and she said, "According to the records from the Fane of Destiny, the gravitational force and dark power of the dark star are extremely powerful. This is especially true for the interior of the star body, which can devour even time and space. As the darkness, time, and space accumulated more and more, the formerly shapeless energy will be converted into tangible matter and become Dark Space-time Matter."

Lord Sinluo said in surprise, "How terrifying is the energy contained in the physical form of darkness, time, and space?"

"If the energy of Dark Space-time Matter the size of a speck of dust is drawn out, it can pose a deadly threat to a Supreme Saint from the Neverwilt Realm. Of course, it is unlikely that this dark star will produce a solid Dark Space-time Matter. The possibility of it being liquid is very high," said Pan Ruo.

The Dark Space-time Matter was so powerful that even a sacred artifact would find it difficult to ward it off. Lord Sinluo's desires were instantly aroused.

If he could obtain some, wouldn't he be invincible on the Battlefield of Celestial Hunting?

However, although Lord Sinluo had studied the three Paths of Darkness, Time, and Space, he was still at a relatively superficial level. He could only be considered a layman. Even if he obtained Dark Space-time Matter, would he be able to use its power effectively?

If he wasn't careful, even his life would be at risk.

Pan Ruo said, "Entering the interior of the dark star is indeed very dangerous. The danger doesn't only come from the dark star itself, but there is also the threat of three powers to cultivators, those being darkness, time, and space."

"Have you noticed that time is distorted on the surface of the Dark Star? We've stayed here for twenty hours, but only two hours should have passed outside."

"In addition, the space has also changed and become unyielding. Even a Master of Space like Zhang Ruochen will find it difficult to make big waves here."

"The power of darkness has been greatly strengthened. The proportion of the precepts of darkness in the precepts of heaven and earth is a hundred times or a thousand times higher than elsewhere."

"After these transformed precepts enter the interior of the dark star, it is very likely that they will be further strengthened to the point that even a Supreme Saint will find it hard to withstand them."

"For example, the flow of time may be a thousand times faster or a thousand times slower. Space may compress cultivators into dust, or it may pull them into an endlessly long thin line. The darkness will devour a cultivator's body, soul, and consciousness." The biggest changes in the flow of time were not the treasures of time refined by the time Gods, but some secret places that were nurtured by the universe.

However, most of these secret places were not suitable for cultivation and were filled with endless dangers.

Some of them even pose a threat to the gods and deities that venture inside.

Lord Sinluo's hands and feet turn cold from Pan Ruo's words and he took two steps back, and said, "Your Highness Pan Ruo, it's better to forget about it. The risk of taking Dark Space-time Matter is too great. Moreover, it's very dangerous to use it and it's not easy to control even if we obtain it."

Pan Ruo nodded slightly. It seemed like she knew she had to retreat.

BOOM!

A golden streak of light descended from the sky and landed not far from Lord Sinluo and Pan Ruo, stirring up layers of dust.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the dust and said, "Lord Sinluo, it seems that your memory has been restored by Pan Ruo through the Path of Destiny. I wonder if she can restore it if I erase it again?"

Lord Sinluo was shocked and angry at the sight of Zhang Ruochen.

"Why are you here, and where is Wu Jiang?"

The Lord Sinluo stepped in front of Pan Ruo and secretly transmitted his voice to her, saying. "Your Highness, you go first. I will hold him off."

Pan Ruo did not leave.

Zhang Ruochen walked forward step by step and said, "After I defeated Wu Jiang, he escaped." "Impossible. How could you possibly defeat Wu Jiang?"

The Lord Sinluo did not want to accept this fact. However, after using his spiritual power to search the area and not finding Wu Jiang's aura. It seemed that he had escaped.

Zhang Ruochen had only broken through 14 shackles, but he was already strong enough to defeat Wu Jiang?

Pan Ruo looked at Zhang Ruochen in front of her calmly, and said, "You and Wujiang should have both suffered heavy losses, right? I can feel that your aura is very weak. The strength that you are displaying is merely a facade."

Zhang Ruochen said, "No matter how weak you are, it's still easy for me to kill you both. I can absorb the blood in your bodies after your death to make up for my lost Blood Qi.”

There was blood in the bodies of the Deathkin and Nether Clan.

However, their blood was different from the blood of living beings. It contained a strong Qi of Death.

Zhang Ruochen rushed over with a swoosh.

Lord Sinluo’s face changed. He released a strong icy Qi and formed a palm print with his hands.

Before he could strike, his body was frozen in space. With his cultivation at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, Zhang Ruochen could only freeze him for a moment.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen grabbed Lord Sinluo’s neck, lifted his body, and slammed him to the ground, creating a huge crater on the ground.

Boom

Lord Sinluo’s Qi of Death was scattered by this blow, and blood spurted out of his mouth.

Seeing the blood, Zhang Ruochen’s eyes blurred, and he felt ecstatic. Then he was filled with pain and started to struggle, and his body trembled slightly.

“Die.”

Taking this opportunity, Lord Sinluo hit Zhang Ruochen’s chest with his palm, sending him flying.

The cold Qi contained in this palm froze more than half of Zhang Ruochen’s body.

The cold Qi woke Zhang Ruochen up. He shook his arms and all the ice on his body shattered. The ice shards gathered between his hands and melted, forming an ice sword.

Holding the ice sword, Zhang Ruochen caught up with Lord Sinluo and slashed down.

Crash

With just one slash, Lord Sinluo was knocked to the ground. A bloody scar a foot-long was cut on his right arm.

Crash Crash Crash

Blow after blow, Lord Sinluo was beaten until he was covered in bloody sword wounds. He couldn't resist at all.

Pan Ruo didn't run away. Instead, she stared at Zhang Ruochen.

She could see that Zhang Ruochen had lost a lot of the Supreme Saint's blood in his body. Something was wrong. He wanted to suck blood, but he was restraining himself. Every time he swung the ice sword, he would hesitate for a moment.

It was because of his hesitation that he could not kill Lord Sinluo.

"Door of Trueself."

Pan Ruo stepped on the Nether River. Her body slowly flew up and floated more than 30 feet above the ground. Her ten jade fingers formed fingerprints and controlled the Door of Trueself to fly towards Zhang Ruochen. The Door of Trueself shone brightly and the light rays landed on Zhang Ruochen's body.

Affected by the power of Destiny, Zhang Ruochen's combat power was further weakened.

Lord Sinluo gave a long roar and immediately counterattacked. The Death Qi in his body surged out like a raging river. He struck out with hundreds of palm prints in a row, forcing Zhang Ruochen to retreat.

Whoosh!

At the same time, in the dark void space about a thousand miles away from the third dark star, Wu Jiang's body appeared. It was covered in cracks, like a paper figurine that had been torn apart and reattached.

"Lord Sinluo and Pan Ruo had done well. Now is the best chance to kill Zhang Ruochen."

Wu Jiang's eyes were filled with killing intent and he took out a Supreme Artifact of the Nether Clan, Myriad Curse Bead, and held it in his palm. He sat down cross-legged, put his palms together, and chanted an incantation.

Zhang Ruochen, who was fighting against Lord Sinluo and Pan Ruo, suddenly felt that he was attacked by the curse again. The blood in his body was rapidly decreasing, and he felt extremely uncomfortable.

“Oh no, to think that Wu Jiang still has enough power to cast the Blood – Devouring Curse. Even at this distance, the power of the curse is still astonishingly powerful.”

Zhang Ruochen realized that something was wrong. The power of the curse was too strange to guard against.

Was today such a bad day for him?

Suddenly, an idea flashed through his mind. He remembered what Pan Ruo had said to Lord Sinluo, so he gazed at the dark catacombs in the distance.

Since there was distorted time, space, and darkness inside the dark star, the power of curses should not be able to enter.

Thinking of this, Zhang Ruochen rushed to the catacombs.

“Zhang Ruochen, where do you think you’re going? Let us settle the old scores today.” Lord Sinluo chased after him from behind. An ice dragon hundreds of meters long emerged from his palm. The ice dragon came to life and spiraled above the sky while letting out a deafening roar.

As the head of the ice dragon was about to hit Zhang Ruochen’s back. Zhang Ruochen suddenly turned around. He flew backward while lashing out with the Ghost-headed Whip.

The Ghost head and the ice dragon’s heads collided together.

Crack!

The Ghost-headed Whip sliced through the ice dragon’s body like a hot knife through butter. It emerged out from the dragon’s tail and landed on Lord Sinluo’s chest heavily, penetrating through his body. With a puff, the Ghost-headed Whip flew out from Lord Sinluo’s back.

“I told you, no matter how weak I am, killing you is as easy as a flick of a wrist.”

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth as he spoke. Following that, he jumped into the catacombs with the Ghost-headed Whip still dragging Lord Sinluo's bloody body.

When he landed, Zhang Ruochen turned around and looked up. His pupils constricted fiercely as he saw Pan Ruo had followed him down as well. Both of them lock eyes together.

Chapter 2332 Right or Wrong

A terrible pulling force existed deep within the planet's core. It had the effect of thousands of ropes wrapping around Zhang Ruochen. He was falling at an alarming rate, completely out of control.

He lost his vision, and he couldn't see anything

He couldn't hear anything either.

Zhang Ruochen could only feel a strong sense of weightlessness. He was like a mortal falling off a cliff in the dark.

Whoosh

The Divine Purification Flame surged out of his palm. It gave off a dazzling white light and illuminated the darkness.

As Zhang Ruochen descended, he looked around. The scene in his eyes wasn't a dark catacomb at all. It was a vast expanse with brilliant colors but no end.

'Has the space been pulled out of shape and become infinitely vast? Or has my body become infinitely small under the pressure of space?' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen sensed that the precepts of heaven and earth around him, especially the Precepts of Dimension, had become completely different from the outside world.

Lord Sinluo's body had been penetrated by the Ghost-headed Whip, but he did not die.

The Ghost Rune on the whip gave off a faint light, nibbling away at his spirit and entering an unconscious state.

Above Zhang Ruochen, Pan Ruo's graceful and delicate body was wrapped by the Nether River and caught up with Zhang Ruochen. Her figure merged with the surrounding environment. It was quiet and beautiful.

The Gate of Destiny behind the statue of Fukurokuju became dark. Nothing could be seen anymore. "The interior of the Dark Star is filled with the three Precepts of Darkness, Time, and Dimension. The three powers have evolved to the extreme. It's hard for Destiny to predict what's going on inside." said the statue of Fukurokuju.

The so-called difficult to predict was not impossible to predict. The Fane of Destiny was too far away from the Battlefield of Celestial- Hunting, so it was difficult for the gods to investigate. In addition to the influence of the Dark Star's power, it was already amazing that Fukurokuju could show the images on the surface of the Dark Star.

If they were closer, it would be another case.

This was the influence of Dimension on the Power of Destiny!

The farther away it was, the harder it was to touch the Power of Destiny.

"Reverend, the structure of the Dark Star is strong. How could there be a catacomb that leads to the depths of the planet's core? This kind of catacomb can't be formed naturally, right?" The Divine Shadow of Blood Empress appeared in the fane and asked.

Fukurokuju said, "To cultivators below divinity, although the Dark Star is dangerous, it is a precious place for bitter cultivation. It can temper oneself, breakthrough bottlenecks, and achieve great breakthroughs. "However, there are too many uncertain factors in the power of the Dark Star. Even if they are well prepared and bring a large number of resources into the star, most of them will end up dead.

"The Battle of Celestial-Hunting is not just a game of hunting Celestial Captives, nor is it just a battle between the ten races. On the battlefield, countless opportunities have been prepared for the most outstanding talents in the Infernal Court. I hope they can use this opportunity to grow quickly.

"Our home planet has great opportunities, and the Dark Star also has infinite possibilities.

"Of course, opportunities and dangers coexist. Whether they live or die, whether they are trapped in the shallow shoals, or whether they are dancing in the sky, depends on their own fates.

"Those with strong destinies can live. Otherwise, they will die.

“Those with strong destinies can break through the barriers and go against the trend. Otherwise, they will be in danger. “Apart from destiny, the will and choices of the cultivator are sometimes more important.

“Immortal Blue Marrow, a Supreme Saint of the Stone Clan, existed three thousand years ago. To overcome the tribulation of Banshi Isshou Realm, he broke through the Gate of the Paramount Realm and came to the third Dark Star. He spent two hundred years opening a path to the interior of the star, which is the dark catacombs that you see now.

‘A Supreme Saint of the Banshi Isshou Realm couldn’t even come out of the Dark Star, but Zhang Ruochen had just entered the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Wasn’t it even more dangerous for Zhang Ruochen?’ Blood Empress thought.

Blood Empress was not in despair. Zhang Ruochen was the Master of Time and Space and she believed that he might have a chance of survival.

Ghost Lord’s laughter sounded in the Fane of Destiny, “I have to say, Wargod Bloodximus, your grandson is indeed very powerful. Although the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill is lacking, he was able to severely injure Wujiang. It can be said that he has walked out of his own unique path. If he doesn’t die, his future achievements will be limitless. Pity.”

The gods present could obviously hear Ghost Lord was gloating

Wargod Bloodximus didn’t waste any more words with Ghost Lord. He remained silent.

There was no way to enter the third Dark Star to save people during the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

However, the Battle of Celestial-Hunting only lasted for 100 days. It wouldn’t be too late to bring Zhang Ruochen back after all this was over.

The most frightening thing was that time flowed too fast inside the Dark Star. Before the Battle of Celestial-Hunting was over, Zhang Ruochen would have already died of old age.

Amane and Luo Yan stood in the Divine Realm and pondered for a long time.

After a while, Luo Yan said, “Zhang Ruochen is indeed a rare talent in this Yuanhui period. He demonstrated not only a powerful and unique Grade Two Saintwill but also his extraordinary will in the battle with Wujiang. With such a will, he should be able to overcome the bumpy road to divinity.”

“If he can come out of the Dark Star alive, Wujiang will no longer be his opponent,” said Amane.

Amane seemed to have a lot of faith in Zhang Ruochen. She was full of hope. Her tone was neither repulsive nor hostile. There was only a vague sense of anticipation and vision.

Inside the Dark Star.

The distance between Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo was getting closer and closer. They kept looking at each other.

There was no emotion or hostility in their eyes, but it was very complicated. It was full of things that even gods could not understand.

“Why did you come down?”

Zhang Ruochen used his spiritual power to transmit his voice to her.

Pan Ruo said, “The inside of the Dark Star is more mysterious than God’s body. Even a Reverend could not find out what happened inside. I came in to tell you that you are not in a good condition.”

“You don’t have to tell me. I know my condition very well,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Pan Ruo said, “Your progenitor’s bloodline has been awakened. The natural instinct of the Immortal Vampires will become stronger and stronger.

“For example, blood consumption.

“You don’t want to drink blood. You’re using your own will to fight against the instinct of the progenitor’s bloodline. It’s very dangerous. You might lose yourself or have a mental breakdown. I can help you.”

Zhang Ruochen stared at her for a long time and said, “I’ve experienced too many ups and downs. People are different. My will isn’t that weak. You shouldn’t be here. You should return to the surface!”

Confusion and bitterness flashed in Pan Ruo’s eyes. She sighed and then said, “I’ve already come down. How can I return so easily?”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t say anything more. He closed his eyes and mobilized his spiritual power to try to suppress the bloodthirsty thoughts in his heart. He saw all of this as a test of his own will.

If he could not resist the instinct of the progenitor’s bloodline and chose to obey, then he would never be able to surpass the Progenitor.

After an unknown period, the pulling power in his body gradually disappeared. Zhang Ruochen, Pan Ruo, and Lord Sinluo stopped falling. Their bodies floated in the void space.

‘How can this be? The pulling power has disappeared?’ Zhang Ruochen was puzzled.

Pan Ruo said, “We must have reached the center of the Dark Star. Cherish the peace now. I believe that danger will come soon.” “It is indeed very peaceful. This seems to be the most peaceful place in the world,” said Zhang Ruochen. He did not panic or feel uneasy. On the contrary, he enjoyed the feeling now.

The bloodthirsty thought slowly disappeared.

Pan Ruo stared at him, “You’re in denial. You should understand that there will always be fights as long as there are people. What we need to do is to face and fight, not to seek a moment of peace.”

Zhang Ruochen did not want to argue with her, so he chose to remain silent.

The two had been together before, and there were times when they had feelings for each other. However, their idealism was different, so they eventually parted ways. Zhang Ruochen thought a lot about her after he calmed down.

Perhaps there was no right or wrong between them.

They just made different choices.

At that time, they were too weak. They could only choose and couldn't create their own results.

They didn't have many options. They had the option of going left or right. They would perish if they turned left or right. However, they would die in different ways. "If you want to defeat Wujiang, or even the Lan Ying and Que, you have to find the Dark Space-Time Matter. Since we're at the center of the Dark Star, we shouldn't be far from the Dark Space-Time Matter," Pan Ruo said.

Zhang Ruochen put away his thoughts and released his spiritual power and The Spatial Domain to explore the surroundings. "Hey! That's..." said Zhang Ruochen. Zhang Ruochen showed a strange expression and looked in one direction.

Here, his spiritual power was severely suppressed.

However, Zhang Ruochen's perception of space became extremely sharp. In this boundless world, he found strange substances.

He threw Lord Sinluo into the Violet Gourd and flew over on his ten wings.

There seemed to be no concept of time and space here. Zhang Ruochen did not know how long he flew and how far he flew. Finally, he arrived near a sapphire that was more than 10 meters tall.

The surface of the sapphire was smooth, crystal clear, and had an ancient aura.

Inside the sapphire, there were wisps of floccule-like substances.

Some of these substances resembled human hair, others arms, and still others eyeballs... all were distorted and deformed. They appeared to be particularly terrifying. Pan Ruo flew nearby and saw the huge sapphire. Her eyes became more and more unsightly. "This shouldn't be a Dark Time-Space Matter, right?" said Pan Ruo.

Zhang Ruochen walked to the sapphire and pressed his palm on it. Instantly, a bone-chilling aura spread out. His hand was stuck to the sapphire and couldn't be separated.

Zhang Ruochen quickly activated the Precept of Dimension and shot it out from his palm. It turned into a spatial shock wave and separated from the sapphire.

Pan Ruo said, "It's not a Dark Space-time Matter, but a Blue Marrow Star."

"Blue Marrow Star?" Zhang Ruochen asked curiously.

Zhang Ruochen knew that blue marrow was a rare material to refine a Regal Artifact.

However, it was only a refining material. How could it have the powerful power to attract him?

Moreover, it was only such a big piece. How could it be called a Blue Marrow Star?

Pan Ruo said, "It is indeed a Blue Marrow Star. Its main body is more than 10,000 miles long. It also gave birth to spiritual wisdom and embarked on the path of cultivation. It cultivated the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Sainthood. In the Stone Clan, it was called the Immortal Blue Marrow. However, Immortal Blue Marrow vanished in the Infernal Court three thousand years ago. I didn't expect him to die here.

"However, the aura emitted by this stone is quite ancient. It's more than three Yuanhui periods. It couldn't possibly be the Immortal Blue Marrow from three thousand years ago? Unless... "

Zhang Ruochen thought of a possibility, and his face changed again and again.

3,000 years in the outside world. It might have been 300,000 or 3,000,000 years here.

What was the change in the flow of time? Zhang Ruochen immediately released the Saint Phase of Time and adjusted the Precepts of Time to make a detailed calculation. “This isn’t right. Why is the flow of time calculated like this?” Zhang Ruochen felt incredible.

Therefore, he found that the time flow here was very slow. Even if 1,000 years had passed, it would only be one year in the outside world. If that was the case, the interior of the Dark Star was an excellent place for cultivating. Cultivating here could quickly increase one’s cultivation, which was even more powerful than using the Sundial, as long as one brought enough Godstones, pills, and meditation diagrams.

But it didn’t make any sense.

If it were really that simple, the gods of the Infernal Court would have long used the Dark Star to nurture their juniors.

“There must be a big problem with the space. If it really is the Immortal Blue Marrow, its original body is more than 10,000 miles long, but now it’s more than 10 meters tall. Then it must have been severely compressed by the space. Even with his cultivation of the Banshi Isshou Realm, he couldn’t resist it. In the end, he was crushed into a stone.”

Zhang Ruochen whipped out the Ghost-headed Whip and wrapped the sapphire seven times to confirm his guess.

“Rise!”

Zhang Ruochen mobilized all his strength but could not shake the sapphire. He calculated in his heart that its weight was more than a thousand times heavier than an ordinary star.

It was very likely that it was really a Blue Marrow Star.

Pan Ruo said, “It’s very dangerous here. We have to leave immediately. If we also suffer from space compression, we may turn into a speck of dust. If the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint can’t resist it, we certainly can’t resist it.”

Zhang Ruochen's eyes stared down.

He saw the dense Precepts of Dimension turn into a tidal storm and surge up from the bottom.

The invisible and colorless Precepts of Dimension turned into seven colors here.

“Get in the gourd!” Zhang Ruochen shouted.

Zhang Ruochen flew into the Violet Gourd first. Pan Ruo followed closely behind and rushed in.

The seven-colored tidal storm of Precepts of Dimension swept the Violet Gourd inside. In an instant, the one-foot-tall gourd was compressed by the space and became smaller. It was the size of a fist, then the size of a green bean.

Finally, it turned into a purple-gold speck of dust that sparkled.

Entering the gourd, Zhang Ruochen landed on the Golden Sun of Destruction. He used all his Saint Qi to activate the Supreme Inscriptions.

He looked up and saw that the internal space of the gourd, which was the size of a planet, was constantly compressed. The sky was getting shorter and the world was getting smaller.

“What do you need me to do?” asked Pan Ruo.

“Don't do anything. You have nothing to do here,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Just as he finished speaking, Zhang Ruochen suddenly thought of something. He pointed at the purple icy rock that was rotating with the Golden Sun of Destruction and said, “Go and activate the power of the Cosmic Glazier Stone.”

Pan Ruo flew onto the Cosmic Glazier Stone and sat down cross-legged. The Nether River that had been circling her body swooped down and wrapped around the giant purple rock.

The internal space of the gourd continued to shrink.

Even the Golden Sun of Destruction and the Cosmic Glazier Stone were compressed and shrunk more than ten times.

Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo felt a huge pressure. Their lives were threatened. They might follow in the footsteps of Immortal Blue Marrow.

Swoosh

As the Supreme Inscription and rays of golden light and purple light soared into the sky, they supported the internal space. Gradually, they resisted the pressure from all directions.

The internal space of the Violet Gourd was stabilized at about 50 meters in diameter.

It was very narrow.

Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo were both relieved. They could not help but look at each other. When their eyes met, time seemed to freeze.

Zhang Ruochen took the lead to look away with an indifferent expression, he said, "The Power of Dimension is not the most terrifying. With the Violet Gourd, we can resist it. However, once the Power of Time and Darkness burst out, it is likely to swallow us."

With that, the narrow space of the gourd became quiet.

After a while, Zhang Ruochen said again, "I have always wanted to ask you a question."

"You want to ask me what I saw in the Destiny Pool? Last time, at the Vastsea Manor, you wanted to ask!" said Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo's eyes were gloomy. Finally, she closed her eyes and smiled bitterly, she said, "You should know that for someone like me, even my memory is a flaw since I came to the Infernal Court. Many of my memories have been erased by myself. I remember you because I can't erase them.

"Maybe you're asking the wrong person.

"You're no longer the Ninth Prince of Yunwu Commandery, and I'm no longer the Princess of Qianshui Commandery. In fact, Princess Yanchen really liked the Ninth Prince, not the Crown Prince of Shengming, nor the Scion of the Xue Jue Family. The Crown Prince of Shengming had brought her nothing but pain. He had personally sent her to Chi Yao's side.

It was he who had forcibly transferred their grudges onto her. Maybe he didn't mean it and didn't want to hurt her, but he couldn't change the final result.

"The people in the past are gone, but the water is still cold today.

"Let bygones be bygones! If you don't want to remember, then I don't want to remember too. You didn't do anything wrong, and I don't think I did anything wrong. I only have the will and unwillingness to choose and not to choose. Right or wrong, it's not important anymore!"

Chapter 2333 10 Years

Zhang Ruochen was not a heartless person. He was the same with everyone around him.

After hearing Pan Ruo's words, the coldness in Zhang Ruochen's eyes melted a little, and he said calmly, "I don't remember how I met Princess Yanchen. I only remember that when we first met, the word 'Chen' seemed to have violated her taboo and accidentally entered her dorm room. From then on, we had a relationship.

"Too many things happened after that. There were disputes, warmth, separation, sadness, and joy. Do you still remember how they went from not liking each other to loving each other?"

Pan Ruo was sitting on the Cosmic Glazier Stone. She lowered her gaze and listened carefully. She didn't say anything.

Zhang Ruochen continued, "They got together because they progressed from knowing each other to appreciating each other, then from appreciating each other to loving each other, and finally from loving each other to being together. Regrettably, they did not complete that final step.

"If they hadn't met in the West Campus. If Empress Chi Yao hadn't sent Wan Zhaoyi to the Eastern Region Saint King Manor to capture Zhang Ruochen on the eve of their marriage. If Zhang Ruochen hadn't helped Huang Yanchen to become a Realm Bearer. If Zhang Ruochen and Empress Chi Yao hadn't had a grudge for 800 years. Would the result have been better?"

Zhang Ruochen spoke slowly as if he were speaking to himself, but he was also thinking about his past and present.

The longer a person lived, the more they would see things differently.

The high spirits Zhang Ruochen had when he was young made him feel at ease. He was hot-blooded and could fight against any strong enemy without thinking twice. Even if he died, he wouldn't hesitate.

But now, Zhang Ruochen would never do that again.

Just as Zhang Ruochen dared to go to Ziwei Palace by himself and question Chi Yao. He couldn't go to Dishastan by himself and challenge Ghost Lord now.

It was not because he was afraid of fighting, but because he did not want to court death.

No matter how difficult it was, there was a better way to solve it than to die generously.

Pan Ruo finally opened her mouth again and said, "There aren't so many ifs. What's in the past is already a foregone conclusion. The only thing that can be decided is the future."

The two sat facing each other. Every word they said seemed to be filled with emotion, but it also sounded like words exchanged between strangers.

Zhang Ruochen was calm. He didn't say anything more. He displayed his fierce look and said, "You don't necessarily need Dark Space-time Matter to defeat Wujiang. As long as my blood and Qi can recover, he'll definitely lose the next fight."

"But your goal has never been to defeat Wujiang. It's to be number one in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting," Pan Ruo said.

Zhang Ruochen thought carefully and said, "The first thing is that we have to survive."

As soon as Zhang Ruochen said that, the space shook slightly.

Countless Marks of Time light spots passed through the purple-gold light membrane formed by the Supreme Power and entered the gourd, enveloping Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo.

Time changed even more.

"Why are there so many Marks of Time all of a sudden? No, the Power of Time is rapidly depleting our lifespan," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen found that the flow of time slowed down by a thousand times, almost to the point of time stopping. Even if a million years had passed here, only a year had passed outside.

However, it was different from cultivating in the area covered by the Sundial. Staying here for a year did not consume a year's lifespan, but a thousand years.

In other words, Zhang Ruochen's life would consume a billion years if he stayed here for a million years, while only a year had passed outside.

Staying here for a year would only take a few breaths outside, but a cultivator's lifespan would be consumed in a thousand years.

"As expected, the Dark Star is not a precious place for cultivating. I must find the Dark Space-time Matter as soon as possible and leave."

Zhang Ruochen's expression was solemn. He realized that the Immortal Blue Marrow was not only killed by the space compression. The extreme change of time should be one of the reasons why he was killed.

About a month later, the space compression force from all directions gradually disappeared.

Zhang Ruochen's tensed nerves relaxed. Fortunately, when they entered the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen asked the cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan to each take a Godstone. These Godstones were now in his hands.

The power in Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo was not exhausted because he could constantly absorb the Divine Qi contained in the Godstones. They could continue to encourage the Violet Gourd and the Supreme Power.

Swoosh

The Violet Gourd grew once more. It grew from a purple-gold light spot into a hundreds-meter-long gourd ship floating in the infinite void space.

The two flew out of the gourd and stood on the surface of the gourd, ready to move forward.

Pan Ruo looked at the sapphire floating in the void space, she said, "Although the Blue Marrow Star has become so big, it contains a huge amount of energy. If the Godstone is exhausted, it should be able to support us to continue living here.”

Then she said, “I found that your Violet Gourd has refined a lot of stellar cores. Can you take the sapphire in and refine it?”

Zhang Ruochen was not sure. He said, “Its weight is 1,000 times heavier than a normal stellar core. Refining it is equivalent to refining 1,000 stellar cores.”

Zhang Ruochen was naturally interested in the Blue Marrow Star.

Once the refinement was successful, the Violet Gourd’s absorption ability would increase greatly. At that time, it would also pose a threat to Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Que, and others. Under Zhang Ruochen’s control, the Violet Gourd became even bigger, like a gourd the size of a mountain. The mouth of the gourd aimed at the sapphire and placed it inside.

Then, the weight of the Violet Gourd increased greatly. Zhang Ruochen could only use all his strength to drive the gourd to fly quickly.

While flying, Zhang Ruochen used Supreme Power to refine the Blue Marrow Star. This was a long and boring journey. Searching for Dark Space-time Matter was like finding a needle in a haystack. It was hard to find.

At the same time, there was great danger.

Every month, the Precepts of Dimension would erupt like a tidal wave. Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo would hide inside the gourd at the time. They would only come out once the storm had passed.

Three years passed quickly in this dangerous world.

Zhang Ruochen had used the Godstones and the Heart of the Divine Tree to recover the Supreme Saint’s blood. His injuries had also healed.

The Violet Gourd had flown hundreds of millions of miles, but there wasn’t even a trace of Dark Space-time Matter.

In the past three years, Zhang Ruochen had eaten the remaining seven Ampliofruits. His lifespan had increased by 21,000 years, and the number of Precepts in him had increased by 700 million. The total number had reached 3.5 billion.

With the special environment here, Zhang Ruochen's enlightenment on Time and Dimension had greatly improved.

The number of Precepts of Time and Dimension had increased rapidly. There were more than 40 million of them. If he revealed The Spatial Domain and Null Time realm now, Zhang Ruochen was confident that he could fight against Wujiang's Nether Domain.

However, Zhang Ruochen's enlightenment on Time and Dimension had already made him feel that this trip was worth it. This experience would definitely lay a solid foundation for him to condense the Saintwill of Time and Dimension in the future.

The biggest reason why Zhang Ruochen ate all the Ampliofruits was that he was forced to.

First, he ate up far too much of his life. Zhang Ruochen had lost 2,000 years of his life in just three years. Furthermore, this situation would persist.

Zhang Ruochen lacked confidence and couldn't afford to consume it because he didn't have enough lifespan to support him.

Second, only by eating the Ampliofruits could Zhang Ruochen's cultivation increase rapidly in a short time to deal with the complicated, extreme, and dangerous environment inside the Dark Star.

After eating seven Ampliofruits, Zhang Ruochen spent three years breaking 13 shackles in a row.

Now, the total number of shackles broken had reached 27. The Demigod-level physique had become more powerful, and the divine force that could burst out had become more.

Eating a large number of Ampliofruits also had an even greater benefit. It could help him cultivate high-level saint techniques.

Zhang Ruochen had studied the Time and Dimension saint techniques in the Secret Tome of Time and Space, as well as the manuals collected by Wargod Bloodximius, in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, over the previous three years. Besides the Incarceration of Divine Demon, Zhang Ruochen also cultivated three kinds of high-level saint techniques at the Thousand-Koan level, all of which had reached the minor completion stage. He was only a step away from the grand completion stage. All he needed was time to polish and master them.

The three kinds of high-level Thousand-Koan level saint techniques were:

The leg saint technique could complement Yanshen's leg.

The fire saint technique could perfectly use the power of the Divine Purification Flame.

The other one belonged to the category of dimension. Zhang Ruochen didn't know if he should classify it as a high-level Thousand-Koan level saint technique, but it was more difficult to cultivate than a high-level Thousand-Koan level saint technique. The Ampliofruit had played a big role in achieving such an achievement.

Otherwise, mastering even one of the three high-level Thousand-Koan level saint techniques in just three years, let alone three, would have been extremely difficult. To be more specific, he may not even be able to master one in 30 years.

Zhang Ruochen devoted the majority of his time and effort to Swordsmanship. Both Sword Eleven and Moonlight Melody, the fifth level of the Time Sword technique, had a breakthrough.

The only regret was that he could not integrate the sixth type of Saintwill into the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen stood alone on the top of the Violet Gourd. With his hands behind his back, he looked ahead.

After three years of fruitless searching for Dark Time-Space Matter, he was more or less suspicious and restless.

Dark Time-Space Matter was just Pan Ruo's guess. It might not really exist. If he continued to be wasting time here, it would be a waste of his life.

“With my current strength, it shouldn't be difficult for me to defeat Wujiang at his pinnacle. In the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, only Que and Lord Hornless can pose a threat to me. As for Lan Ying, Yanhuang Tu, and Luo Shengtian, although they are ranked higher than Wujiang, their combat strength should be limited.”

Zhang Ruochen was thinking about whether he should leave the Dark Star now.

However, he thought of another problem. Just as Pan Ruo had said, his goal was to be first in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, not to defeat an opponent in a one-on-one battle. In the final battle, it was likely that he would face more than one strong opponent.

At that time, Dark Space-time Matter could be his biggest trump card.

Whether he could use it or not, it was better to have it in his hands than not. For the past two years, Pan Ruo had been staying inside the Violet Gourd. Her lifespan was far less than Zhang Ruochen's. She could not afford to consume it.

Zhang Ruochen, fortunately, had set up a Time Array on the Violet Gourd two years ago. It might be able to withstand the ravages of time in her lifespan to some extent.

As long as one stayed inside the gourd, one-tenth of one's lifespan would be consumed outside.

Because of the Time Array, even though Zhang Ruochen had spent a long time outside the gourd, controlling it and searching for Dark Space-time Matter, his lifespan was only 2,000 years, not 3,000.

“I can't be impatient. My mind should be calm. I can take this opportunity to comprehend the Path of Darkness. Only by knowing myself and my enemy can I be undefeated.” Zhang

Ruochen took a deep breath and sat down cross-legged to adjust his emotions.

The interior of the Dark Star was filled with a large number of Precepts of Darkness. It was the best place to comprehend the Path of Darkness.

In the Infernal Court, many cultivators had cultivated the Path of Darkness, including the Deva Path of each clan. Many of them were derived from the Path of Darkness. The deeper one's enlightenment on the Path of Darkness, the easier it would be to deal with the Supreme Saints of the Infernal Court in the future.

Time always passed quickly when he cultivated.

Another seven years passed.

Zhang Ruochen not only completed the three new high-level saint techniques of the Thousand-Koan level, but he also made greater breakthroughs in his Swordsmanship, the Path of Dimension, Time, and Darkness.

After ten years of cultivation and the consumption of the Supreme Artifact, Zhang Ruochen had used up all his Godstones.

He couldn't waste any more time. It was time to decide whether to stay or go.

Swoosh

A meandering Nether River flew out from the mouth of the gourd.

Pan Ruo stepped on the Nether River and landed on the surface of the gourd. She looked at Zhang Ruochen, who was standing straight. After a moment of hesitation, she walked over, "It's been ten years!" She said, "It seems that I was wrong. This Dark Star didn't give birth to Dark Space-time Matter."

Over the past ten years, Pan Ruo had been using the Precepts of Destiny to analyze the Blue Marrow Star and obtain a large number of Immortal Blue Marrow's inheritances.

Her cultivation had improved greatly. Zhang Ruochen said, “In ten years, your Path of Darkness, Dimension, and Time have all improved greatly. You didn’t come to the Dark Star to look for Dark Space-time Matter, but to cultivate and breakthrough. Take a shortcut and catch up with the other two Scioness candidates, Lady Wind and Supreme Saint Yanhong.”

Cultivating many Paths of the Ancients at the same time was not a good thing.

If one was greedy, he would achieve nothing.

However, Zhang Ruochen did not find Pan Ruo greedy. Instead, all kinds of Paths of the Ancients could complement each other and gather at the Door of Trueself.

The gaze of her Door of Trueself was more than twice as much as before she entered the Dark Star.

Pan Ruo stared at Zhang Ruochen for a long time and said, “If you are thinking that I’m using your power to help me achieve a big breakthrough in my cultivation? Then yes, I am using you.”

Zhang Ruochen carefully observed her eyes, shook his head, and said, “You never like to explain. You insist that I find the truth and answer myself. Do you know how tired I am?” Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen sensed something. His pupils contracted rapidly as he looked at the distant void space behind Pan Ruo. “Perhaps I have found the answer. Dark Space-time Matter has appeared!”

About 700 miles away from the Violet Gourd, a black fog appeared. There was rain in the fog. Raindrops spun and flew, forming a huge vortex.

In the center of the Vortex, a yellow copper cauldron could be vaguely seen.

Chapter 2334 Dark Space-time Matter

Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo flew 300 miles away from the black vortex. They didn't dare to move forward. The strong pulling force made them lose their balance and their bodies sway.

What was more terrifying was that the density of Marks of Time increased greatly in the black fog storm. Sharp Dimensional Rifts flew past quickly, and black lightning flashed through.

Time, Dimension, and Darkness. These three powers had evolved to the point where they could easily kill a Supreme Saint.

'The Dimensional Rifts can move so fast. I understand. It's the result of dimension and time merging,' Zhang Ruochen thought. His heart moved, and a dazzling light appeared in his eyes.

Actually, in Zhang Ruochen's understanding, the Dimensional Rifts had always been the simplest and most vicious attack of the Power of Dimension.

It was like the stab and slash in sword techniques.

There was not much fancy, just to kill with one strike at the fastest speed.

But this was not the case. When confronted with a cultivator of a higher realm, Zhang Ruochen could always use his speed to avoid the Dimensional Rift, or he could use arrays, talismans, weapons, and so on to suppress the space and cause the Dimensional Rift to close again, losing its power.

In truth, it was just that they weren't fast enough.

In the world of martial arts, speed was the only thing that couldn't be broken.

The Dimensional Rift wasn't about its size, but its speed.

If the Dimensional Rift flew out quickly enough, the other party would not be able to avoid it at all, let alone cast a defensive technique to counter it. Perhaps, combining the Mark of Time with the Dimensional Rift was a good path.

‘As the Master of Time and Space, I should take one path. Other Time and Dimension cultivators can’t. Time and Dimension become one,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Whoosh

An inch-long Dimensional Rift appeared between the five fingers of Zhang Ruochen’s right hand.

Around Zhang Ruochen, Mark of Time light spots were captured by him and gathered toward the Dimensional Rift. The two merged into one.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen motioned with his arm. The one-inch-long Dimensional Rift flew out and into the massive black vortex. It was ten times faster than it had previously been.

This was just his first attempt. There was a limit to the Marks of Time he could integrate.

Obviously, the more Marks of Time he could integrate, the faster the Dimensional Rift would be.

Of course, the more Marks of Time he could integrate, the more time he would need to activate them.

There were pros and cons to everything. It was hard to get the best of both worlds.

‘Fighting a top elite head-on may only have a limited effect. However, if I use this move to launch a sneak attack, it should pose a great threat to a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen thought about how to make the Dimensional Rift contain more attributes.

For example, combining with the Precepts of Fire and Swordsmanship.

The most successful Path was the first thing that came to mind. Although the Paths of Darkness and Destiny were both Paths of Ancients, Zhang Ruochen was neither the Master of Darkness nor the Master of Destiny, nor was he a cultivator of Darkness or a cultivator of Destiny. He was only a passing observer.

It was worth mentioning that the Path of Darkness was the easiest to cultivate and would have the highest achievements in the future.

However, there were very few Masters of Darkness.

Next were the elites of the Fane of Darkness. They were all cultivators of Darkness. Before they entered the Saint Realm, they had used the Precept of Darkness as a seed of Darkness and fused it into their Saint Souls.

Finally, there was another group of cultivators who, like Zhang Ruochen, had not integrated the Precept of Darkness into their Saint Souls before they had cultivated it. It would be very difficult to comprehend the Precept of Darkness. Moreover, even if they had comprehended the Precept of Darkness, they could not integrate it into their Saint Souls.

Therefore, the Path of Darkness and the Path of Destiny, which Zhang Ruochen wanted to study and understand, could not integrate with the Saint Souls, so he could not achieve much.

Zhang Ruochen had meditated here for ten years, but he had only comprehended tens of thousands of Precepts of Darkness.

With Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, he could certainly use the Path of Darkness to deal with the Saint Kings. However, if he fought with someone like Wujiang, the Path of Darkness was almost useless. Including the Path of Truth, Zhang Ruochen had not fused with the Saint Soul, so he couldn't have very high achievements. However, the Fane of Truth was selfless and rewarded the geniuses with the Canon of Truth, which gave Zhang Ruochen a chance to peek at the Major Path of Truth.

It could be said that without the Canon of Truth, Zhang Ruochen could not cultivate the Realm-frame of Truth, let alone the Heart of Truth. It was impossible to cultivate the Path of Truth to Perfection in the Saint King realm.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to achieve great success in the Path of Darkness and the Path of Destiny unless he could get the Canon of Darkness and the Canon of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen's Dimensional Rift was flying so fast that Pan Ruo, who was standing on the side, could not see it at all. She said, "Those black lightning bolts are not real lightning bolts, but highly condensed Power of Darkness."

As if to confirm her guess, she shot out a Divine Bone Arrow.

Boom

A black lightning bolt hit the Divine Bone Arrow.

The Divine Bone Arrow broke in half and flew out diagonally.

Zhang Ruochen reached out and grabbed at the air. He retrieved one of the broken arrows and brought it before his eyes. Where the arrow had broken, it was as black as ink and as charred as sand.

"What terrifying Power of Darkness. Even the Divine Bone can't withstand a single blow," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were solemn. He released the Realm-frame of Truth, Spatial Domain, and Null Time realm to cover his body.

"The raindrops in the black fog vortex should be Dark Space-time Matter," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen took out the Ghost-headed Whip and injected Saint Qi into it.

Crash

Dense Regal Inscriptions appeared on the Ghost-headed Whip. It released strong Ghostly Qi and turned into a black whip snake that flew out. The skull at the top of the whip opened its mouth wide and swallowed a raindrop.

The black raindrop pierced through the skull and flew out.

Zhang Ruochen quickly put away the Ghost-headed Whip. He noticed that the whip had been harmed by the Power of Dimension, and the Regal Inscription had been corroded by the Power of Darkness.

‘The Ghost-headed Whip is a treasure among the Regal Artifacts. It can’t even take a drop of Dark Space-time Matter! Do I have to use a Supreme Artifact?’ Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen held the Violet Gourd in his hand and hesitated.

If the Violet Gourd was swept away by the black fog vortex, it would be a great loss!

Pan Ruo said, “In this world, there are very few vessels that can hold Dark Space-time Matter. Even a Supreme Artifact might not be able to do it. However, some methods can fuse with Dark Space-time Matter and take it.

“The Door of Trueself.”

The bright and shining Gate of Destiny flew out from behind Pan Ruo and continued on its way to the black fog vortex.

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes and looked carefully. He saw a drop of Dark Space-time Matter spinning and flying. When it hit the Gate of Destiny, it was immediately blocked by many Precepts of Destiny, Precepts of Dimension, Precepts of Darkness, and Marks of Time; it was like a spider web wrapping around it.

Pan Ruo waved her arm and the Gate of Destiny flew back.

A black droplet flowed on the door of light.

Her Gate of Destiny was mainly formed by the Precepts of Destiny. The number of Precepts of Dimension and Marks of Time did not exceed 50,000. There were more Precepts of Darkness, but it was not half of the Precepts of Destiny.

Pan Ruo stopped collecting Dark Space-time Matter. She closed her eyes and studied it carefully.

‘She only took one drop, but why are there fewer raindrops in the black fog vortex? Even the speed of the black fog vortex has slowed down.’ Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t spend too much time thinking. He prepared to take one drop first.

‘She has the Gate of Destiny. I have the Saint Aspect of Time and Dimension.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen first released the Saint Aspect of Dimension and flew toward the black fog vortex. The Saint Aspect of Dimension was shapeless and immaterial, but Zhang Ruochen could feel that it was like a vortex, similar to the black fog vortex in front of him.

Not long after, the Saint Aspect of Dimension caught a drop of Dark Space-time Matter, assimilated it, and collected it in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Even if it was just a drop of Dark Space-time Matter, it contained a huge energy fluctuation and was extremely heavy.

Zhang Ruochen finally understood why Pan Ruo stopped taking action after taking a drop. It was not that she did not want to continue collecting, but that she was too weak to do so.

With her cultivation, it was already her limit to take a drop.

“Continue,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Zhang Ruochen used the Precept of Dimension to seal this drop of Dark Space-time Matter. Then, he urged the Saint Aspect of Dimension to continue collecting.

The Saint Aspect of Dimension collected 13 drops of Dark Space-time Matter in a row before it reached its limit and could no longer carry it.

Zhang Ruochen switched to the Saint Aspect of Time and continued to collect.

Pan Ruo studied the drop of Dark Space-time Matter thoroughly. After sealing it, she began to collect the second drop.

It took about seven days for Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Aspect of Time and Dimension to collect 13 drops of Dark Space-time Matter each. Pan Ruo’s Door of Trueself collected three drops.

The raindrops in the black fog vortex disappeared without a trace.

The Dimensional Rifts and black lightning in the vortex also decreased. They were not as terrifying as before.

“We have collected all the Dark Space-time Matter,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Pan Ruo frowned slightly, she asked doubtfully, “Were we hallucinating in the beginning? The Dark Space-time Matter that I saw turned into a raindrop. The amount was almost endless. How come we only took 29 drops and the Dark Space-time Matter was gone?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I thought you had read all the books in the Fane of Destiny and cultivated the Door of Trueself. You know everything. I didn’t expect that you couldn’t see through it too.”

“Do you know what’s going on?” Pan Ruo asked.

Pan Ruo’s starry eyes finally looked straight into Zhang Ruochen’s eyes again, wanting to know the reason.

“I don’t know,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen knew what was going on. It was a visual illusion created by multiple spaces. 29 drops of Dark Space-time Matter were like 290,000 drops, 2.9 billion drops. The more chaotic the space, the more Dark Space-time Matter one could see.

Pan Ruo snorted coldly.

Of course, she knew that Zhang Ruochen knew the reason. He just didn’t say it on purpose. Zhang Ruochen was dissatisfied with her. He was giving her a taste of her own medicine by doing so. If she continued to ask, it would be exactly what Zhang Ruochen wanted. Fortunately, Pan Ruo didn’t mention it anymore. She stared at the yellow light spot in the black vortex, she said, “A small brass cauldron appeared in the center of the black vortex. It’s too strange. The black lightning can destroy the Divine Bone Arrow, and the Dark Space-time Matter raindrops can damage the Regal Artifact, but they can’t hurt it. Take a guess. What is it?”

Chapter 2335 Back on the Ground

“Why do you have to guess? Just go and take a look.”

Before he finished his sentence, Zhang Ruochen turned into a golden light and rushed into the huge black fog vortex.

29 drops of Dark Space-time Matter were taken away, and the danger of the fog vortex was greatly reduced. A moment later, Zhang Ruochen passed through the dense lightning and the storm within a Dimensional Rift and reached the front of the small bronze cauldron.

The bronze cauldron looked small from afar. In fact, its body was taller than Zhang Ruochen and appeared rather ancient.

It had six legs; each had carvings of strange beast patterns. It was a beast clan that Zhang Ruochen had never seen before.

The body of the cauldron was flat and round, with hollow patterns.

The interior of the hollow patterns was emitting pitch-black brilliance and gas. The gas flowed and revealed a series of strange patterns, which looked like inscriptions and ancient characters.

Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to be careless. He wrapped his palm with Divine Purification Flame and slowly reached forward.

Whoosh

The patterns in the form of black gas formed a wizardry barrier that blocked Zhang Ruochen's palm.

A Dark Power that corroded flesh and blood made contact with the Divine Purification Flame in his palm, making a sizzling sound.

Zhang Ruochen quickly withdrew his palm. His eyes became serious, and he thought, ‘Just the gaseous patterns that spread out can block me and even corrode my Divine Purification Flame. What is the origin of this cauldron? What's in it?’

Pan Ruo did not go into the black vortex. Instead, she moved her fingers, making predictions using Destiny Precepts.

The Destiny Precepts interweaved on the five snow-white fingers on her right hand. It was as if her palm had turned into a universe.

One of the powers of the Path of Fate was to peer into the secrets of heaven. It allowed the users to predict the past, future, life, death, and fortune.

Pan Ruo opened her eyes, and there was a look of surprise in them. She said, "It's Hexadirection Cauldron. Strange, why is it here?"

"What's the origin of this cauldron?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Pan Ruo said, "Hexadirection Cauldron is a treasure of Lancern Ocean at a divine planet called Saxum."

Saxum was one of the ten great ninth-grade planets of Stone Clan. Legend had it that it was a planet formed from the divine body of a famous figure in the history of Stone Clan after his death.

Although it was only a level-eight lifeform planet, it was very large. It was ten billion times larger than an ordinary lifeform planet. It could house at least ten trillion living beings. The number of planets of this size was very few in the entire universe.

A level-nine lifeform planet was even rarer. Its size was like a macroworld.

Lancern Ocean was one of the few major forces on Saxum. It was equivalent to the Xue Jue family's position in Bloodysky Clan and Mount Zulong's in Kunlun.

Pan Ruo thought carefully and said, "The appearance of Hexadirection Cauldron probably has something to do with Immortal Blue Marrow. He was once the overlord of Lancern Ocean."

"Hexadirection Cauldron is not as simple as a Regal Artifact. With Immortal Blue Marrow's cultivation. Can he control such an artifact?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Pan Ruo said, “You were once a Saint King, but you have several Supreme Artifacts. How do you explain that?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly and asked no further questions. His gaze fell on Hexadirection Cauldron again, and he extended his hands at the same time.

As he mobilized Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, a Yin Yang Five-Element seal condensed between his hands. It rotated slowly and pressed toward the black gaseous patterns on the outer layer of Hexadirection Cauldron.

The power of Darkness wanted to swallow the Yin Yang Five-Element seal, but it was swept into the seal instead and transformed into Yin Yang energy and five-elemental Qi. “What a powerful Saintwill. It can transform the power of Darkness. Doesn’t that mean that all types of power in the world are transformable? “The Grade Two Saintwill is so powerful. No matter what price I have to pay, I must cultivate it.” Pan Ruo took a deep breath, her eyes piercing with strong resolution.

Zhang Ruochen arrived in front of Hexadirection Cauldron and slapped the lid.

Bang!

The lid shifted, and a finger-wide crack appeared.

A dark blue light gushed out of the crack, accompanied by a strong power fluctuation. The light was like a divine sword. It slashed at Zhang Ruochen and sent him flying.

The Yin Yang Five-Element seal blocked the dark blue light. Zhang Ruochen was not hurt.

“The smell... It’s the smell of elixir. Could it be... that Immortal Blue Marrow is refining pills with the power of Darkness, Dimension, and Time?” Zhang Ruochen looked confused.

He quickly denied this guess because he sensed the fragrance contained the aura of Blue Marrow Star.

“It’s not Immortal Blue Marrow refining pills, but someone has refined him! No wonder there is no Saint Source inside Blue Marrow Star. Even his Saint Soul and the second human form were dismembered.”

The thought sent Zhang Ruochen cold shivers from his head to his feet.

Was there another creature in the Dark Star that was more powerful than Immortal Blue Marrow?

Zhang Ruochen looked around in the darkness, trying to keep calm.

Now, the best way was to leave quietly without touching Hexadirection Cauldron.

However, thinking of Hexadirection Cauldron in front of him, wouldn’t it be a waste if he didn’t take it? Zhang Ruochen was in a dilemma in making the right decision.

Pan Ruo stood outside the black vortex and waited quietly.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen put Hexadirection Cauldron into Violet Gourd. He spread ten golden wings and flew out of the vortex, approaching Pan Ruo quickly. “What’s in the cauldron? I thought I smelled a pill fragrance,” Pan Ruo asked.

“Don’t ask questions. Let’s get out of here first.”

Zhang Ruochen did not explain much to her. He fully activated Violet Gourd’s Supreme Inscriptions, used his Supreme Power to resist the pulling power of the Dark Star, and flew up.

The world Inside the Dark Star wasn’t really vast. It was an illusion of space expansion. After staying here for ten years, Zhang Ruochen had analyzed the dimensional structure inside the Dark Star. No matter how vast the space was, it couldn’t trap him.

Ten years had passed inside the Dark Star, but only a short while had passed outside.

“Why did Pan Ruo jump in? Is she trying to kill Zhang Ruochen while he’s heavily injured?”

Wu Jiang flew to the edge of the dark catacombs. His tattered body was reassembled. At least no obvious wounds were visible on him.

The Dark Star was very dangerous inside.

He was hesitating whether or not to chase after them.

“Forget it. I’ll wait until my injuries are healed before I go in and search for Pan Ruo.”

Wu Jiang’s Spiritual Power spread to the direction where Lord Xia Yu, the Saint Devourer, and Saint Lord Zuo Mu were fighting, and a cold smile appeared on his face. He muttered to himself, “I can take care of them first. The Pleiades Lotus is very powerful, so I have to get it. Eh? The catacombs are emitting a purple-gold light...”

Whoosh

Violet Gourd flew out of the ground and into the sky.

Wu Jiang’s sharp eyes could clearly see Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo standing on the Gourd. He had all kinds of questions in his heart.

Why did they fly up right after jumping down?

Where was Lord Sinluo?

Why was Pan Ruo on Violet Gourd? Violet Gourd flew 10,000 meters above the ground and stopped.

Pan Ruo left the Gourd and flew into the distance. She said coldly, “Zhang Ruochen, sooner or later, I will take revenge for today’s humiliation.”

Zhang Ruochen frowned slightly. He immediately understood why she had said such strange words.

Ignoring her, Zhang Ruochen had a strong foreboding in his heart. He used his Spiritual Power to send a voice transmission to Lord Xia Yu and the Saint Devourer. “Forget about Saint Lord Zuo Mu. Let’s go.”

Lord Xia Yu and the Saint Devourer turned into two beautiful streaks and flew to Zhang Ruochen.

“Master, you have recovered. Why don’t you take this opportunity to kill Saint Lord Zuo Mu?” The Saint Devourer asked.

Lord Xia Yu glanced in the direction where Pan Ruo had flown, “Zhang Ruochen, no matter how talented you are or how strong you are, women will always be your biggest weakness,” she said sarcastically. “Sooner or later, you will die from women.”

Hearing what Pan Ruo said, Lord Xia Yu naturally thought that Zhang Ruochen did not kill her because he liked her beauty.

She thought of Zhang Ruochen’s past misdeeds and was very angry. She thought that Zhang Ruochen had neglected the important mission. If she had killed Pan Ruo just now, Lady Wind would have been able to secure the Scioness position. It would be of great benefit to Immortal Vampires.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Lord Xia Yu as he said this.

His gaze was calm, but it was intimidating.

Lord Xia Yu felt as if her entire body was being pricked by needles when she met Zhang Ruochen’s gaze. She swallowed the words that she was about to blurt.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen made her feel a trace of awe. She did not dare to take the risk.

“One look from him can make me feel great pressure. This guy must have made a huge breakthrough in his cultivation.” Lord Xia Yu was very depressed; she felt that it would be difficult for her to maintain her royal bearing in front of Zhang Ruochen in the future.

At the same time, she was also very curious about how powerful Zhang Ruochen was now?

Wu Jiang flew into the sky in anger and confronted Zhang Ruochen. He said in a deep voice, “Zhang Ruochen, what did you do to Her Highness?”

Zhang Ruochen had always disliked Wu Jiang. He was in a hurry to leave, so he said coldly, “What happened between me and Her Highness has nothing to do with you?”

“You are looking for death!”

Wu Jiang was full of killing intent. He took out Myriad Curse Bead and chanted incantations.

Myriad Curse Bead was like a talisman engraved with all kinds of curses. One only needed to use the incantations to trigger the curses.

With Myriad Curse Bead, the power of the curses would become even stronger.

In an instant, the bead gave off a boundless evil light. Countless curses flew out: Bloodsucking curses, dark light curses, heart-breaking curses, boundless curses, forgetting curses, and many more. Dozens of types of curses flew toward Zhang Ruochen, Lord Xia Yu, and the Saint Devourer at the same time.

The Saint Devourer was Zhang Ruochen’s parasitic plant, so it knew that Zhang Ruochen’s injuries had recovered. However, Wu Jiang didn’t know that.

The Saint Devourer and Lord Xia Yu were about to attack, but Zhang Ruochen stopped them. “Step back. I’ll do it.”

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen’s hands spun. White flame radiated from his ten fingers. The flame interweaved into a huge millstone. It grew bigger and bigger. Dense flaming font characters appeared on the millstone.

It was the Thousand-Koan Saint Technique he had practiced in the Dark Star: Blood Grind Ember.

This move was what Zhang Ruochen had seen in Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Before becoming a god, Wargod Bloodximus had practiced to the tenth level. Zhang Ruochen had only successfully practiced to the seventh level. In the next moment, the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill was also activated by Zhang Ruochen. It merged with the huge flaming millstone. The monstrous flames lit up the darkness within a thousand miles, releasing hot energy.

Chapter 2336 Invincible

The flaming millstone was like a bright sun, spinning across the sky and crushing the power of the curse. “This power... how is it possible?”

Wu Jiang’s face was as pale as paper under the light of the divine fire. His robe was burning, and he couldn’t believe it.

This move was obviously a high-level Saint Technique of the thousand query level, and it was combined with Zhang Ruochen’s Grade Two Saintwill.

Zhang Ruochen had lost more than half of his saint blood. How could he still have the power to perform such a powerful move?

Wu Jiang gritted his teeth and refused to give in. He used all his strength to activate Myriad Curse Bead to fight against the flaming millstone.

Crack! Crack

The wound that had already healed opened again. Blood dripped, and the pain was bone-piercing

Boom

The flaming millstone exploded and turned into a rain of fire.

Wu Jiang was hit by this power and flew backward like a cannonball. A third of his flesh and blood were shattered, leaving his bones and flying out. He was extremely miserable.

This scene shocked Lord Xia Yu, Moyin, and Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

How did Zhang Ruochen become so powerful all of a sudden? Even if Wu Jiang had a Supreme Artifact, he wouldn’t be able to block his attack?

Pan Ruo, who had fled far away, sent a voice transmission to Wu Jiang. “Zhang Ruochen has recovered from his injuries. Run quickly. You are no match for him now.”

A large amount of dark Qi was released from Wu Jiang’s body and turned into a Qi bridge. He fled quickly away from the third Dark Star and said, “Zhang Ruochen, when my injuries are healed, we will decide the winner.”

“Bring the bow.”

Zhang Ruochen spread out his right hand.

Moyin took out Frostwood Bow and put it in Zhang Ruochen’s hand.

The moment Zhang Ruochen grabbed the bow bone, all the inscriptions on the bow bone appeared and released a shocking cold Qi. Snowflakes danced for thousands of miles.

Whizz

Zhang Ruochen mobilized tens of millions of Precepts of Water element and condensed them into an ice arrow. He pulled Frostwood Bow back.

The ice arrow contained his will to kill. It flew out of the bow and turned into a streak dozens of miles long.

Thud!

The ice arrow hit Wu Jiang, who had fled thousands of miles away. It hit his back and penetrated his body.

A tragic scream echoed through the void space.

Zhang Ruochen was about to shoot the second arrow when Pan Ruo appeared beside Wu Jiang and dragged him into the darkness. The two disappeared without a trace. Zhang Ruochen’s eyelids shrank. He had to shoot the second arrow at Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

When Saint Lord Zuo Mu saw that Zhang Ruochen had defeated Wu Jiang in one move, he knew that things were bad. So he bypassed Zhang Ruochen and escaped from another direction.

Cold air came from behind.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu looked back and found that the ice arrow was close at hand.

“Damn it. How did Zhang Ruochen become so powerful all of a sudden? Even if I’m not injured and in my peak condition, I might not be able to win against him.”

Saint Lord Zuo Mu turned around and struck out with his palm, shattering the ice arrow.

However, his liquid palm was hit by a large amount of broken ice. The broken ice contained Zhang Ruochen’s killing intent. Not only did it attack his saint soul, but it also froze his entire right arm. Zhang Ruochen shot a second arrow, a third arrow..

After the seventh arrow, half of Saint Lord Zuo Mu’s body was frozen.

“He’s still running. Did he really think he could escape today?”

Zhang Ruochen returned Frostwood Bow to Moyin. He spread out his ten wings. The divine patterns of the ancestor on the Golden Wings emitted a demonic blood-red light. He turned into a streak of golden light and flew out.

He was so fast that he was thousands of miles away in an instant.

Lord Xia Yu was a little stunned. Zhang Ruochen was too powerful. He seemed to have changed after coming out of the catacombs. He was completely invincible.

Moyin stared at her with a smile and said, “Don’t be in a daze. Even if you want to worship master, you should wait until the battle is over. Master just sent a voice message to us, telling us to follow him immediately and stay away from the third Dark Star.” Saint Lord Zuo Mu was born in the origin of the universe, the “Sea Stone Star Dock.” He had ruled the universe for a lifetime, making enemies with the Fane of Meteorite and challenging the Fane of Destiny. Even if he was captured in the end., it was also because the Fane of Destiny’s divine guard’s cultivation was much higher than his. He had reached the realm of life and death.

He had never thought that one day, he would be chased by a cultivator whose cultivation was far lower than his.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen getting closer and closer, Saint Lord Zuo Mu felt like he was at the end of his path. He flew out of the darkness. In front of him was the colorful starry sky. His pupils were printed in six colors.

He suddenly didn't want to run anymore. He decided to fight Zhang Ruochen to death.

Zhang Ruochen caught up with him and slowed down. White divine fire appeared under his feet. It quickly turned into a sea of fire and enveloped Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu turned around and stared at Zhang Ruochen's young and handsome face, he smiled and said, "This universe has a long history. Countless gods with great achievements were born. It was the space that gave birth to them. However, they were killed by time and returned to dust. They can't last forever."

"Many cultivators say that the Void is the scariest. No matter if it's a living creature, dead spirit, or spirit, as long as they fall into the void world, they'll die."

"But I think time and space are the scariest."

"No matter how powerful a god is, they're born in space. They grow in space and are killed by time." "Time and space are like playing with them. If they're alive, they'll live. If they're dead, they'll have to die."

"Zhang Ruochen, you're the third cultivator to control time and space. If you have time, you must go to the sea stone star dock. Only there can you understand the true meaning of time and space."

"I'll remember what you said today," Zhang Ruochen said.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu's liquid body quickly solidified and returned to human form. He wore purple meteorite armor and said, "Do you dare to fight me without using the power of Dimension?"

Zhang Ruochen didn't say anything. He obviously felt that there was no need to agree to Saint Lord Zuo Mu's condition.

Lord Xia Yu and Moyin caught up. They stood in two other directions and surrounded Saint Lord Zuo Mu in a triangular formation with Zhang Ruochen.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu didn't look at them. He continued to stare at Zhang Ruochen, "Actually, if other cultivators were chasing after me, no matter who he was or how many cultivators he brought, I would be able to use the power of Dimension to escape," he said. "But you, Zhang Ruochen, are the only one who controls time and space. I know that I can't escape today no matter what."

"Before I die, I only have this small request. I just want to know how big the gap is between me and the top genius in the world." Zhang Ruochen stared at him coldly and said, "I'm about to die. There's no need to talk so much nonsense."

He slapped Violet Gourd. It flew up and hung above his head.

Whoosh

72 million inscriptions of space Array were activated at the mouth of the Gourd. They turned into a space Array that covered an area of 800 miles.

Lord Xia Yu and Moyin received Zhang Ruochen's voice transmission. They retreated as far as 800 miles away. Saint Lord Zuo Mu wanted to escape too, but he couldn't.

Boom

As the area covered by the Array collapsed, Saint Lord Zuo Mu was sucked into the Gourd. His vicious curses and angry roars echoed in the void space. Zhang Ruochen took back Violet Gourd and held it in his palm. There was no emotion in his eyes.

er

In the past, Zhang Ruochen might have really agreed to the dying man's last request.

But after so many things, he was not so naive and kind-hearted.

Saint Lord Zuo Mu was not a weakling. He was a first-class superior. Even though he was seriously injured, if Zhang Ruochen did not use the power of Dimension to restrain him, it was hard to say whether he would win or lose.

For a figure like Saint Lord Zuo Mu to hide in the Fane of Meteorite for hundreds of years and escape the arrest of the Fane of Meteorite and the Fane of Destiny many times, he was definitely a sinister and cunning person.

In the beginning, Saint Lord Zuo Mu was infatuated with Zhang Ruochen and praised time and space to the sky. He looked like a man who would speak kindly even when he was about to die.

In fact, he was thinking about how to kill Zhang Ruochen and turn the tables.

His only chance to turn the tables was to enter Zhang Ruochen's body and take over Zhang Ruochen's body.

If Zhang Ruochen did not use the power of Dimension to fight with him, he actually had a chance of success, and it was not small.

"Your original body is the purple rain of space. Refining you into one with Violet Gourd should increase the internal space of the Gourd a lot," Zhang Ruochen looked at Violet Gourd and said.

Inside the Gourd, Saint Lord Zuo Mu's resentful voice rang out. "Zhang Ruochen, there are many gods in Infernal Court. They will not let a time and space controller grow. "When you grow to a certain realm, they'll be afraid. "Once they're afraid, they'll definitely kill you. "Don't be too proud. You'll come with me soon."

Zhang Ruochen was unmoved. He mobilized his Saint Qi and injected it into the Gourd. He activated the power to destroy the golden sun and refined Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

Moyin descended from the sky and appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen. bowing, it said, "Congratulations, master. You've suppressed Saint Lord Zuo Mu."

Lord Xia Yu flew above the Sea of fire. Her soul-stirring eyes were filled with amazement. She said, "Your Violet Gourd seems to have become more powerful."

Saint Lord Zuo Mu, who had reached the mid-stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm, had been taken in. How could she remain calm?

This was too shocking!

“It’s no big deal. It’s just that Saint Lord Zuo Mu was seriously injured and restrained by space. That’s why he couldn’t resist Violet Gourd,” Zhang Ruochen said lightly.

Inside the Blackstar, Zhang Ruochen’s Spiritual Power had risen to the 65th level. Thus, he modified the spatial inscription at the mouth of the Gourd from 36 million to 72 million.

Moreover, Violet Gourd had refined the blue marrow planet.

The Gourd’s ability to swallow and absorb was naturally different from before.

Moyin said, “It’s a pity that Wu Jiang escaped!”

“It doesn’t matter if he escaped. From today onwards, Wu Jiang will no longer be my opponent. If he continues to be my enemy, the next time we fight, his body and soul will be destroyed. The Dark Fane won’t be able to stop my will to kill him.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes stared at the boundless darkness behind him again. Worry appeared between his brows.

If something terrifying really escaped from the Dark Star and entered the sky-hunter battlefield, would the gods continue to follow the rules and not interfere with the internal affairs of the battlefield?

“Master, what are your plans next? Do you want to continue to hunt down Celestial Captive from the galaxy near the third Dark Star?” Asked Moyin.

Zhang Ruochen said, “No need. A bunch of puny bugs doesn’t have many points. Hunting them down is just a waste of time. Let’s go back to our home planet first. I have more important things to do.” Three figures flew over from the distance.

“Greetings, Supreme Saint Ruochen. I’m Fang Mofeng of the Fane of Meteorite.”

Chapter 2337 A Chess Piece

Fang Mofeng, Mo Cuo, and Yan Hanyu came together.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen, Fang Mofeng cupped his fists and said, "Thank you, Supreme Saint Ruochen, for killing the traitor of the Fane of Meteorite."

"He was captured by the Fane of Destiny and died the moment he became a Celestial Captive, so you don't have to thank me. Just tell me what you want. I'm in a hurry," Zhang Ruochen said.

Fang Mofeng saw that Zhang Ruochen was a straightforward person, so he didn't beat around the bush. "The meteorite armor is a treasure of the Fane of Meteorite. It's of great use to me in the Celestial-Hunting battle. I want to buy it back."

"Since you said you want to buy it, it seems that you know that any treasure that falls into my hands can't be taken back easily." Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, "What are you going to offer?"

"10,000 Godstones," Fang Mofeng said.

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly and said, "It is comparable to the price of a Class Five Regal Artifact. You are sincere. But can you afford that many Godstones?"

"I am still very young, less than 1,000 years old. In the future, I can attain the Thousand-Koan Realm, Banshi Isshou Realm, and even Paramount Realm. I can clear my debt sooner or later." Fang Mofeng's face was full of confidence.

Zhang Ruochen said, "If you die in the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, where should I get the Godstones?"

Fang Mofeng was stunned and didn't know how to answer.

He could take responsibility for what he said, but he couldn't take responsibility for his own life and death.

"I'll repay on his behalf," Mo Cuo said.

Yan Hanyu said, "I'll do so too."

Zhang Ruochen glanced at them with his piercing eyes and raised his voice, "The last person who owed me a debt and wanted to renege on it was my mother's disciple," he said. "Half of his Saint Blood was absorbed by the Saint Devourer, and he sold all his fiefdoms to pay his debts. He still owes me. "If you're trying to copy his methods, I'll make you suffer ten times what he is going through."

"Don't worry, Supreme Saint Ruochen. I will clear my debt as long as I don't die within a hundred years," Fang Mofeng said.

"You'd better not die. You don't want your juniors to suffer."

Zhang Ruochen opened the lid of Violet Gourd. A ball of purple light flew out. It turned into a two-thousand-meter-long purple meteorite and floated in front of Fang Mofeng.

Fang Mofeng's eyes lit up with joy. He immediately activated his secret technique and hit the purple meteorite everywhere.

Swoosh

The purple meteorite turned into armor on him.

"Thank you, Supreme Saint Ruochen." Fang Mofeng touched the armor that he had recovered. He was overjoyed. He cupped his fists and saluted Zhang Ruochen once again.

Streaks of the brilliance of Truth appeared in Zhang Ruochen's eyes. He stared at him and said, "You have broken 99 shackles, right?"

"Yes," Fang Mofeng said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "If you are willing to owe me a favor, I can help you break through to the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm during the Celestial-Hunting battle."

Fang Mofeng was stunned. He thought he had heard it wrongly.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly changed his words. He waved his hand and said, "Forget it. You can go!"

Fang Mofeng didn't leave.

Fang Mofeng wouldn't believe that someone else dared to boast like that. But Zhang Ruochen was the one who said it. A person who had just gained Supreme Sainthood had grown to be able to suppress Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

He must have some big secrets. Perhaps he could do something even deities couldn't.

Fang Mofeng asked, "Can the Supreme Saint Ruochen really help me make it into the Great Perfection Stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?"

"I suddenly realized that it doesn't mean much. Even if you broke the 100th shackle, it would take a long time to break all kinds of tiny shackles in your body to reach the Great Perfection Stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

"In that case, I don't want to waste time," Zhang Ruochen said.

Fang Mofeng said, "No, even if I only broke the 100th shackle, my strength will be greatly improved. I can become the strongest person among cultivators who have yet to break the 100th shackle."

The Celestial-Hunting battle was of great importance to any force. There was a huge division of interests behind it.

As the number one master of the Fane of Meteorite, Fang Mofeng played an important role. The stronger he was, the more beneficial it would be for the Fane of Meteorite.

Fang Mofeng was afraid that Zhang Ruochen would go back on his words. Fang Mofeng immediately said, "Supreme Saint Ruochen saved my life. I owe you a huge favor even if you don't do so." Zhang Ruochen looked at him deeply and said, "The favor I want is the one that you must return even if you have to undergo sufferings or give up your life in the future."

Fang Mofeng was obviously a decisive person. He pointed at the sky. "I, Fang Mofeng, swear in the name of the Lord of the Fane of Meteorite that if the Supreme Saint Ruochen needs me in the future, I will do my best to help him and return the favor regardless of the price I will pay."

Zhang Ruochen thought a little higher of Fang Mofeng. At the same time, he realized more clearly that Infernal Court was indeed a place where strength was respected. Other things were not important.

“Okay, I’ll help you find the 100th shackle.”. “You must have taken an Ampliofruit. With its power, it shouldn’t be difficult to break the 100th shackle in a month as long as your potential is not too bad,” Zhang Ruochen said.

The deities in the Fane of Destiny saw Zhang Ruochen defeat Wu Jiang and suppress Saint Lord Zuo Mu. His method was clean and neat. He already displayed the heroic bearing of a young lord.

Ghost Lord and the others all fell silent.

They were gods. They could predict the outcome. They all thought that Zhang Ruochen would get defeated by Wu Jiang and even lose his life. However, the result was out of their expectations.

With Wu Jiang defeated and Zuo Mu dead, Zhang Ruochen had officially become one of the most powerful figures on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. No one could stop him.

At first, the gods all thought that Que was the biggest variable on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. But no one had expected that Zhang Ruochen would suddenly appear with so many elites around him. He seemed to be dominating the battlefield.

“It seems that there really are cultivators who are not subject to the laws in this world. Even the gods can’t see through them.”

“Que, Yan Wushen, and Zhang Ruochen are not subject to the laws of the Celestial-Hunting battle. Did you know that they are the chosen ones who can break the rules since the beginning?” A God asked Fukurokuju.

Fukurokuju said, “The existence of the laws is constant, but each person is subject to different universe laws. Watching every Celestial-Hunting battle is like looking at the future of Infernal Court. Although Wu Jiang lost to Zhang Ruochen, he was still not out of the game. It depends on whether he can recover, reflect on himself, and recover his courage. There are infinite possibilities in each individual.”

In Luo Yan’s divine demiplane

Wargod Bloodximius’ mouth curled into a smile. He said, “You’ve lost!”

There was still a trace of doubt in Luo Yan’s eyes. After a long silence, he let out a long breath and said, “I’m sure that if Zhang Ruochen doesn’t die, his future achievements will not be lower than yours.”

“What a great future son-in-law; why are you still hesitating?” Wargod Bloodximius asked.

Luo Yan flung his sleeves and snorted. “If you are willing to bet, you must admit defeat. I don’t object to this marriage. However, I still have to ask for Sha’er’s opinion and her consent. Bloodximius, are you betting all on Zhang Ruochen?”

Wargod Bloodximius smiled. He left the demiplane without a word.

As the ruler of a divine kingdom, Luo Yan was unhappy with Wargod Bloodximius’ attitude.

“Why are you so angry? Bloodximius has always been like this,” Amane comforted him.

Luo Yan’s tone became gentler as he asked, “I’m not angry at him. I’m just thinking about Sha’er... Sigh, Sha’er hates marriage alliance. Last time, because of the marriage proposal of the Mara family, she was so angry that she ran to the Battlefield of Merits alone. How dangerous!

“She holds a deep grudge against Zhang Ruochen. If she knew that I agreed to the marriage, I’m afraid that she would do something again.”

On Amane’s beautiful face, an elegant and alluring smile appeared. “You don’t understand the love between young men and women. That kid from the Mara family is not worthy of my Sha’er.

“However, Zhang Ruochen is one of the top talents in this Yuanhui period. If it were not because Sha’er highly regarded Zhang Ruochen, he would have died at her hands. He would not have survived until now

“Let’s not talk about the distant future. During the fight for the Saintwill pills, Zhang Ruochen would have died at the hands of Wu Jiang if it were not for my Sha’er’s interference.” Luo Yan snorted. “I only hope that kid can remember this. If he dares to bully my daughter again, I will not forgive him.”

With the profound Path of Truth, after helping Fang Mofeng find the 100th shackle, Zhang Ruochen, Moyin, and Lord Xia Yu immediately set off for the planet where they had set up the dimensional teleportation array.

On their way to the destination

Moyin said, “What’s the use of a Supreme Saint with 99 severed shackles? Why did master spend so much time on him?”

“Furthermore, you gave the meteorite armor back to him with only two empty promises. It isn’t a wise deal.”

“I agree with Zhang Ruochen. We can’t just make enemies. We also need allies,” Lord Xia Yu said.

Moyin said, “If you want allies, you can make friends with more powerful figures, such as Luo Shengtian. The Fane of Meteorite is ranked 18th among the 24 Asuran Fanes. It’s too inferior!”

Zhang Ruochen, who had been silent, said, “Even if I get the meteorite armor, it’s useless. Only the secret technique of the Fane of Meteorite can activate it and use it.

“As for Fang Mofeng and the Fane of Meteorite, it depends on who you compare them to.

“Compared to you, Fang Mofeng’s current cultivation is indeed not strong enough.

“However, in the eyes of cultivators who are not Supreme Saints, he is the young leader of a Fane, a rising star within the Saint realm.

“The Fane of Meteorite’s ranking is indeed not high. However, as one of the 24 Fanes, no matter how weak it is, it is comparable to the top 100 powerful Macroworlds in the western universe of Celestial Court. You should not underestimate Fang Mofeng’s potential.

“Moreover, the Fane of Meteorite is located at the edge of Infernal Court, very close to Tianchu Civilization. It is the only way to reach Kunlun and Celestial Court. Planting a chess piece there will be of great use in the future.”

Lord Xia Yu’s expression changed when she heard him. She looked at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen happened to look at her too. “Don’t look at me like that. I can no longer go back to Celestial Court and Kunlun. Don’t forget that you still owe me a favor.”

Chapter 2338 Return

The Pure Sky Continent... home planet to the Immortal Vampires.

Yue Tinghai was the only Supreme Saint that had reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm in the Puresky Clan. After 830 years of cultivation, it was naturally something to be proud of.

He had been hiding his cultivation all this while because he wanted to amaze everyone in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting and let the entire Infernal Court know the name “Yue Tinghai”.

However, he had suffered an unprecedented blow on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Before the Celestial-Hunting Battle had even begun, he had been defeated by Lord Xia Yu and had one of his arms cut off. He had suffered the greatest humiliation of his life. Now, when the battle had finally begun, the Bloodysky clan had stolen all the limelight instead.

The hundreds of millions of Immortal Vampires in the Infernal Court only saw Zhang Ruochen sweep all over the place with great achievements. Did anyone even know of his name Yue Tinghai?

Would the Puresky Clan members who had high hopes for him be very disappointed?

“The points of the Bloodysky Clan have reached 12 million, and Zhang Ruochen alone has 10.84 million. Even that nobody, Yi Xuan has accumulated 1 million points. As for me, I only have 590,000 points.”

Yue Tinghai held the diamond-shaped mirror in his hand and looked at the ranking of the points on it. He clenched his hand angrily and wished that he could crush the mirror.

From the start of the battle until now, the Immortal Vampires had obtained 20.4 million points from killing the Celestial Captives. They were temporarily ranked second among the ten clans. Compared to the first-ranked Yanluo clan, they were only two million points behind.

The reason why the Yanluo clan was so strong was mainly due to their overall strength. They had many Supreme Saints that have reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and many who had broken through 90 shackles or more.

In the previous Celestial-Hunting Battles, the Yanluo clan's points were often double the amount of the number 2 clan and leading by a wide margin.

This time, the Immortal Vampires were able to tightly follow the Yanluo clan's points. This was already an incredible feat. It was the glory of the entire Immortal Vampires.

One could imagine that in the Infernal Court, all the Immortal Vampires should be paying attention to their ranking of points in the Celestial-Hunting Battle. They must all be fired up and shouting the names of the "Bloodysky Clan" and "Zhang Ruochen".

The Celestial-Hunting Battle was a battle of great interest and carries great significance in ranking for a clan.

However, it was more important for the cultivators who participated in the Celestial-Hunting Battle because it represents their future.

Those who performed well in the Celestial-Hunting Battle would naturally be treated as the future leaders of their clans and nurtured accordingly. It was what the people yearned for.

Whoosh

Suddenly, ripples appeared on the ground in front of Yue Tinghai.

Lord Bladehell stood in the blood mist with his long golden hair hanging loosely. He had emerged from the center of the ripples with a majestic aura. "Lord Bladehell, what are you doing in the Pure Sky Continent?" Yue Tinghai asked in confusion.

Lord Bladehell replied, “The Bloodysky clan has been established. Don’t you want to do something?”

Yue Tinghai understood the hidden meaning in Lord Bladehell’s words, and he snorted. “I’ve received news that Zhang Ruochen destroyed the Ghost Clan’s home planet. Even Xu died at his hands, and Supreme Saint Yanhong fled after being defeated. It was obvious that he had hidden his strength before. His combat strength is probably comparable to Lord Lei. With Lord Xia Yu and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, the Bloodysky Clan had become the strongest force of the Immortal Vampires. What else can we do other than watch him continue to stir up troubles on the battlefield?”

“In the Celestial-Hunting Battle, the Bloodysky Clan’s points will not affect the Qitian Clan even if they are ranked first among the ten great clans.” said Lord Bladehell, “However, the Puresky Clan’s ranking might be pushed down by one place.”

“So what?” asked Yue Tinghai

Lord Bladehell said, “It means that the Puresky Clan will get fewer resources. It also implies that you will disappoint the gods of the Puresky Clan.”

Yue Tinghai was silent and he clenched his fists.

No matter what the reason was, the Puresky Clan’s ranking had fallen and he was to take the blame.

With great strength comes great responsibility.

Lord Bladehell continued, “It’s a good thing that Zhang Ruochen is working so hard. The higher the ranking of the Immortal Vampires, the more benefits we’ll get. But there is also a way that we can get more benefits.” “What way?” Yue Tinghai asked.

“Do you remember that the leaders of the Ten Clans decided on one thing at the beginning which was that each of the ten great clans will protect their clansmen on a continent? Whichever clan loses all of their clansmen will have half their points taken away. The points that are taken will be distributed to the other nine great clans. This is the inside rule of us Immortal Vampires!” Lord Bladehell said.

Yue Tinghai looked enlightened and replied, “You want me to kill the Immortal Vampires on the Bloodysky Continent? But if I do that, a part of the total points of the Immortal Vampires will be deducted.”

Lord Bladehell laughed. “There are only 30 million Immortal Vampires on the Bloodysky Continent. Even if we kill them all, it will only deduct 3 million points from the Immortal Vampires.”

“The Celestial-Hunting Battle has just begun. With Zhang Ruochen and the Bloodysky Clan’s abilities, we can collect more points later. But those points will have to be distributed to us. Don’t you think this is very interesting?”

Yue Tinghai knew that it was highly beneficial to turn Zhang Ruochen and the Bloodysky Clan into tools for them to earn points. Even if they didn’t go out to hunt Celestial Captives, they would still be rewarded handsomely.

Yue Tinghai chuckled and said, “Why don’t you do it yourself?”

Lord Bladehell shrugged, and said, “I’m hunting Celestial Captives. It’ll be too late when we get back to our home planet. If you want to make a move, you’d better hurry up as there are presently no strong elites in the Bloodysky Continent. When Zhang Ruochen comes back, you won’t have another chance.”

His last words echoed in the room. Lord Bladehell’s spiritual avatar had disappeared into thin air.

“Zhang Ruochen, Lord Xia Yu, the Bloodysky Clan...”

The more he repeated these three names, the colder his eyes became.

Although he knew that Lord Bladehell was using him, he had to admit that this was a drastic move. As long as he did it secretly, who would know that he was the one who killed 30 million people on the Bloodysky Continent?

The Celestial-Hunting Battle was unscrupulous. Those who followed the rules would only have mediocre results.

All the Immortal Vampire cultivators on the Bloodysky Continent were connected in three cities.

The largest city was called the Cloud City. The dimensional teleportation array Zhang Ruochen had set up was in the city mayor's mansion in Cloud City. It was guarded by Xue Ningxiao.

Xue Ningxiao's cultivation had already broken through to the Supreme Saint realm. In the past few days, news had kept coming from the starry sky. There was both bad news and good news.

If it wasn't for the fact that she couldn't determine the dimensional coordinates of the Ghost Clan's home planet, she would have led the cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan there long ago. Through the diamond-shaped mirror, Xue Ningxiao could see that Zhang Ruochen's points would suddenly skyrocket every once in a while. While she was secretly glad that he was still alive, she could also guess that an intense battle must have broken out in a faraway place.

As the points of the Bloodysky Clan grew higher and higher, even pushing the Immortal Vampires to second place in the total points, all the Supreme Saints in the clan who once had a problem with Zhang Ruochen had changed their opinions about him.

Zhang Ruochen had won their respect and won hard-earned glory for the entire Bloodysky Clan.

Countless cultivators were looking forward to Zhang Ruochen's return in triumph, and they hoped that nothing unexpected would happen.

Crash

The array suddenly began to revolve while emitting a dazzling light.

Xue Ningxiao was originally sitting cross-legged and cultivating with her body sometimes distinct and other times see-through. At this moment, she suddenly opened her bright and seductive eyes and her delicate body turned solid. She stood up happily and walked toward the array.

Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu appeared in the array. Xue Ningxiao's worried heart finally calmed down, "Cousin, Lord Xia Yu," she said. "You two are the heroes of the Bloodysky Clan. The news of the Celestial-Hunting Battle will spread everywhere. After the battle, you'll get the chance to cultivate in the Fane of Immortality."

Lord Xia Yu remained cold and serious. and spoke cautiously. "He's the hero. I wouldn't dare to take credit."

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Did anything big happen on the Bloodysky Continent while I was away?"

"Last night, a tsunami ravaged our planet. The waves rose up for a thousand meters and almost sank the Bloodysky Clan. Fortunately, Gu Chenzi was there to guard against and repel the tsunami so it didn't damage the three cities," Xue Ningxiao said meaningfully.

Lord Xia Yu's eyes turned cold as he said, "A thousand-meter-high tsunami is definitely man-made. I've set up a Defensive Array on the periphery of our home planet. Since the Array hasn't been broken, it means that the attack didn't come from the outside."

"Humph! It seems that some people among the ten great tribes are jealous of the points that the Bloodysky Clan has gotten. They want to take advantage of the situation and stab us in the back."

"Have you found out who it is?"

Xue Ningxiao said, "I was guarding the dimensional teleportation array last night so I don't know what happened exactly. Gu Chenzi should know more."

Zhang Ruochen's face was cold, but his tone remained calm as he spoke. "The Immortal Vampires must unite if they want to compete with the Yanluo clan for first place. If they want to kill their clansmen and stir up trouble internally, they must be punished as an example."

Then Zhang Ruochen looked up at the sky and said, “Xiao Xiao, send a message to all the Supreme Saints staying behind on our planet. Tell them to meet me at the Cloud City immediately. I’ll personally go and invite those who do not arrive in 12 hours.”

After saying this, Zhang Ruochen disappeared from where he stood.

Xue Ningxiao was shocked by Zhang Ruochen’s strength with his swift and decisive actions. She looked at Lord Xia Yu with worry in her beautiful eyes and said, “Isn’t giving such an order self-proclaiming himself as the leader of the Immortal Vampires? Will it anger Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind? The cultivators from the other clans would also be unhappy.” Lord Xia Yu stroked her chin and stared at the blood-red sky, “Xu is dead,” she proclaimed. “Supreme Saint Yanhong had lost and even Wu Jiang was heavily injured by Zhang Ruochen. How much significance will Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind be? Zhang Ruochen is leading the Immortal Vampires to take first place among the ten clans. Anyone who dares to hold him back will be in big trouble.”

“Even Wujiang had lost to my cousin...”

Xue Ningxiao had not yet received the news of Wu Jiang’s defeat. She was extremely shocked. She immediately understood that cousin Ruochen might eliminate the cultivators who did not agree with him. He would unite all his forces and lead everyone to strive for the number one position that the Yanluo clan held.

The Immortal Vampires were going to change!

Chapter 2339 The Murderer

“You and Lord Xia Yu are too bold. How dare you go to the Ghost Clan’s home planet? If you fail, the favorable situation of the Bloodysky Clan will be ruined.”

Gu Chenzi shook his head as he spoke.

He was a person who sought stability. He didn’t agree with Zhang Ruochen’s reckless behavior. It seemed that he had a great battle record, but it was dangerous. He could very well lose everything if he was careless.

Zhang Ruochen stood under some blood bamboo with his hands behind his back and replied. “If we don’t take risks, how will the Immortal Vampires have a chance to be number one? If we want more, we have to take greater risks.”

Gu Chenzi said, “But some of those in the Immortal Vampires don’t have such an ambition. Instead, they’re jealous of everything the Bloodysky Clan has and those people are looking to bring us down.”

“There are such people everywhere. They act timid and weak in front of outsiders, but they are ruthless when dealing with their people.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes showed a hint of mockery. He let out a long breath and asked, “Who was the one that attacked the Bloodysky Continent last night?”

Gu Chenzi’s sleeves swelled up as if they were filled with wind.

He waved his arm, and seven balls of bloody light flew out of his sleeves.

Each ball of bloody light had a figure accompanying it.

A total of seven creatures were bound and suppressed by the blood-red threads. They knelt on the ground. There were two Supreme Saints from the Neverwilt Realm and five Saint Kings.

“Why are there seven Celestial Captives on our planet?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gu Chenzi said, "They are not Celestial Captives, but instead Blood Captives refined from Celestial Captives."

Zhang Ruochen looked carefully again. Sure enough, the seven creatures' eyes were blood-red. Blood inscriptions floated on their skin. Their faces were ferocious but their intellects were weak.

"Have you found out the one who refined them into Blood Captives?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Gu Chenzi shook his head lightly. "I can't. The memories of the seven Blood Captives have been wiped clean, and their Blood Qi has been purified by special methods. However, that person must be a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

"How can you be so sure?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"Last night, I fought with him amongst the waves. He wasn't injured and retreated quickly. In an instant, he had disappeared without a trace. Apart from a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, who else could do it?"

"Interesting."

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and released his spiritual power, spreading it across the entire clan planet.

With his current spiritual power at level 65 and the perception from the Heart of Truth, there were few cultivators from the clan that could escape his detection.

"There are only two Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm on the clan planet, namely Lady Wind and Yue Tinghai," Zhang Ruochen said. Gu Chenzi thought for a moment, "It shouldn't be Lady Wind," he replied. "She's much stronger than me and if she attacked last night, there's no reason for her to run away immediately if she missed. Besides, she still needs our strength to take the position of Scioness. She can't offend the Bloodysky Clan at this time."

"Won't we know the result if we just call her here to ask some questions?"

In the Infernal Court, Zhang Ruochen didn't trust anyone easily. He only believed in the truth that he had discovered himself.

Gu Chenzi said, "Lady Wind's identity is special. I'll invite her myself."

"There's no need. She's already here!" Zhang Ruochen waved his hand.

Xue Ningxiao walked in quickly. She glanced over at Zhang Ruochen and Gu Chenzi in the courtyard and said, "Cousin, Lady Wind has arrived and she wants to see you."

"Invite her over!" Zhang Ruochen replied.

This courtyard was originally an ordinary place. However, because Gu Chenzi, who was a Supreme Saint, had cultivated here for several days, a holy blood spring was gushing out from the soil. Spiritual medicines grew along with blood bamboos, it had been turned into a misty patch of holy land.

The place where a Supreme Saint lived would be affected by the Precepts. It would evolve and transform and would merge with heaven and earth, connecting with all spirits. Naturally, this was extraordinary.

Lady Wind was extremely talented and powerful. Divine light flowed throughout her body, and her skin was as hard and supple. She wore a mask made from golden threads, making her exquisite face faintly visible. It made her even more beautiful and mysterious.

After entering the courtyard, Lady Wind's razor-sharp eyes looked at Zhang Ruochen carefully. Her red lips curled and she said, "Congratulations, Supreme Saint Ruochen, Your cultivation has improved greatly and you destroyed the Ghost Clan's home planet, even killing Xu, and injuring the Pink Skull. You single-handedly suppressed the Ghost Clan and raised the glory of you Immortal Vampires."

"It's a pity that I didn't get the news in advance. Otherwise, I wouldn't have missed this battle."

Then, she sighed softly, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, why don't you treat me as one of your own. Next time, you must let me know if there is such a big operation, I'm not afraid of trouble. Fighting for the Immortal Vampires is the duty of every cultivator from it."

Zhang Ruochen said, "There are no elites in the three middle clans, so it's not a difficult bone to swallow. The Bloodysky Clan can swallow it without problem."

Lady Wind's beautiful eyes turned to look at Gu Chenzi and she said, "The Bloodysky Clan is indeed full of talented individuals in hiding. Who would have thought that Mr. Gu Chenzi has also reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?"

Gu Chenzi knew very well that Lady Wind's identity was special. Furthermore, Supreme Saint Yanhong had already been defeated, and Pan Ruo's supporter, Wu Jiang, had also been seriously injured. The position of Scioness was tilting towards her favor. As such a person, Zhang Ruochen could be arrogant and disrespectful towards her, but he didn't.

Gu Chenzi cupped his hands and smiled in return as a compliment. "Last night, I sensed that powerful aura too. But he retreated too quickly and disappeared. I couldn't find any trace of him also." Lady Wind said.

Zhang Ruochen had his back to Lady Wind. His hands were clasped behind his back and he looked cold and arrogant. "It's not impossible to find," he said in a neutral tone.

"What can you do, Supreme Saint Ruochen?". Lady Wind looked towards his back.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I heard that if you practice the Path of Destiny to a certain level, you can recover the erased memories of cultivators. As a candidate for the Scioness of the Fane of Destiny, Lady Wind must be very skilled in the Path of Destiny, right?"

Gu Chenzi praised him secretly in his heart. This was a brilliant move.

It could be a test for Lady Wind and also reveal the true culprit from last night.

Lady Wind looked at the seven figures suppressed in the seven clouds of blood mist and asked, "Are they the ones whose memories have been erased?"

Zhang Ruochen did not respond. He expressed his attitude through silence and created pressure on Lady Wind.

Gu Chenzi nodded to Lady Wind.

Lady Wind certainly understood that Zhang Ruochen was doubting her, so she had to prove her innocence no matter what. She could not lose Zhang Ruochen's support. This was a crucial step for her to become a Scioness.

Lady Wind chose a Saint Kinghood Blood Captive and manifested the Precepts of Destiny. She mobilized the Path of Destiny and pointed a finger between his eyebrows.

The lower the realm, the easier it was for a cultivator to recover his memory.

After a long while, Lady Wind withdrew her finger. A troubled and complicated look in her eyes under the golden mask could be seen, "His memory has been restored," announced Lady Wind.

"Who is it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lady Wind was silent for a while, then she uttered, "Yue Tinghai." Zhang Ruochen said, "Gu Chenzi, kill them." Confusion could be seen briefly in Gu Chenzi's. How could Zhang Ruochen believe Lady Wind's words so easily? Could it be that he did not want to investigate it himself?

Weren't they still suspicious just now?

Zhang Ruochen had his own judgment. When he should doubt, he would doubt. And if he should trust, he would be decisive.

He turned around and walked toward Lady Wind. His nose picked up an elegant fragrance, and the coldness on his face thawed. A smile appeared on his face, "Congratulations, Lady Wind," he said. "You've successfully fused with and used Grade Three Saintwill. It seems that the position of Scioness is already in your hands."

Zhang Ruochen wasn't surprised that Lady Wind could fuse with the Grade Three Saintwill.

With the help of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, if she couldn't even fuse with the Grade Three Saintwill, she probably wouldn't even need the Celestial-Hunting Battle to prove it. She would be instantly kicked out of the list of candidates for the Scioness.

Lady Wind's previous strength was not much weaker than Lord Xia Yu and Lord Bladehell. Now that she had improved, she might be able to replace Xu and rank seventh on the list of Great Perfections at the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Lady Wind faced Zhang Ruochen, and she smiled. "Compared to the Grade Two Saintwill of the Supreme Saint Ruochen, my achievements are nothing. If I want to take the position of Scioness, I still need the support of the Supreme Saint Ruochen."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Supreme Saint Yanhong is seriously injured. I'm afraid it will be difficult for her to recover her battle strength during the Celestial-Hunting Battle. As for Pan Ruo, she is too weak. Her biggest reliance is on Wu Jiang and the cultivators of the three upper clans. Unfortunately, Wu Jiang was severely injured by me. It will be difficult for her to do anything for a short period of time. As for the Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm from the three upper clans, they have also suffered heavy losses. Several of them have already been eliminated."

Lady Wind was quite surprised and she asked. "You defeated Wu Jiang?"

Lord Xia Yu had appeared unbeknownst to them in a corner of the courtyard and killed all seven blood slaves. She glared coldly at Gu Chenzi as if she was mocking him for not being firm enough.

She said, "Defeating Wu Jiang is nothing. Saint Lord Zuo Mu, the strongest among the Celestial Captives of the Thousand-Koan Realm, was even killed by us."

Lady Wind knew that Zhang Ruochen was very strong and that the Bloodysky Clan was at its peak, but she had still underestimated Zhang Ruochen's strength.

Defeating Wu Jiang was no small matter. Even gods would be shocked.

This meant that the Immortal Vampires had a top-tier elite.

Lady Wind quickly calmed down and asked, "In that case, doesn't it mean that the Immortal Vampires already have the strength to compete with the Yanluo Clan?"

"That's the purpose of gathering the cultivators from the ten great clans. This time, the Immortal Vampires would compete for first place, as it is also time for the cultivators from the Infernal Court to reacquaint themselves with us," Lord Xia Yu said.

Lady Wind was very shrewd, but at this moment, an unprecedented ambition was stirred up, and her heartbeat slightly accelerated.

That's right, compete for first place.

If the Immortal Vampires could win first place among the ten clans, her identity as a Scioness would only be expected, and no one would dare to question her.

Now, only the Asura and Yanluo Clan could pose a threat to the Immortal Vampires.

A cold light flashed through Lady Wind's beautiful eyes, and she said "The ten clans must be unified. We can't have any disloyalty. In this Celestial-Hunting Battle, all Immortal Vampires from mortals to gods will take pride in us."

"What if Lord Bladehell and Yue Tinghai have different opinions?"

Zhang Ruochen glanced sideways and asked tentatively.

Lady Wind said, "We've all decided. Even if they don't agree, they have to endure it. The gods are watching. Whoever dares to ruin the plans of the Immortal Vampires will suffer after the Celestial-Hunting Battle."

Chapter 2340 Invite Him in Person

“Remind me when it’s two hours later.”

Zhang Ruochen disappeared into space.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen didn’t leave but entered his Spatial Domain. The Spatial Domain he cultivated was not an ordinary Domain, but a Profound Domain.

The Profound Spatial Dimension was a type of Spatial Domain, but it was higher than most Spatial Domains. It was like the difference between the Door of Trueself and the Gate of Destiny of the Path of Destiny.

Once he released the Profound Spatial Dimension, Zhang Ruochen’s control over dimension and space would increase greatly. He could become an absolute presence.

However, the Profound Spatial Dimension that Zhang Ruochen condensed could only reach a diameter of 300 meters. In a battle between Supreme Saints, it wouldn’t be as effective as the Spatial Domain.

Lady Wind stared at the spot where Zhang Ruochen had disappeared. A look of confusion and thought flashed through her eyes. She took a few steps forward.

“Eh!”

She found that she seemed to be standing still. The distance between her and Zhang Ruochen had not changed.

She took a few more steps.

Nothing had changed.

“Is it the legendary Profound Spatial Dimension?” Lady Wind muttered to herself.

Only the Profound Spatial Dimension was unfathomable for her. She could only stay where she was. The regular Spatial Domain wasn’t that mysterious.

The Profound Spatial Dimension was something that could only be cultivated by the top cultivators practicing the Path of Dimension. With it, one could fight against the Gate of Destiny and the Realm-frame of Truth. Zhang Ruochen had been inside the Dark Star for ten years. As a result, his number of Dimensional Precepts had increased a lot. Hence, the Profound Spatial Dimension had reached a higher level.

In the Profound Spatial Dimension.

Zhang Ruochen took out Violet Gourd and used his Spiritual Power to investigate. He found that Saint Lord Zuo Mu had been completely refined and turned into Spatial Purple Rain. Saint Lord Zuo Mu had completely merged with the Gourd.

The internal space of the Gourd, which was used to be about 20,000 kilometers in diameter, could now hold a planet.

Now, the volume of the space had expanded several times.

“If I have the chance, I must go to Haishi Star Bastion. If I can find enough Spatial Rain of the remaining six colors, the internal space of Violet Gourd might grow to the size of a star. When that time comes, I can easily snatch an entire world away.”

Zhang Ruochen released Lord Sinluo from the Gourd.

Because Ghost-headed Whip had devoured part of Lord Sinluo’s soul, he was still unconscious.

Zhang Ruochen pressed his hand on Lord Sinluo’s head and erased Lord Sinluo’s memory again.

A Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage could play a great role in the Celestial-hunting Battlefield. Hence, Zhang Ruochen did not plan to take Lord Sinluo’s life.

“Wake Up!”

Zhang Ruochen patted Lord Sinluo’s forehead, and a stream of cool Saint Qi entered Lord Sinluo’s body. Lord Sinluo twitched and woke up. He felt a splitting headache. Pressing his hands on the ground, he panted and asked in puzzlement, “What is this place? Who am I... Uh... and who are you?”

“Moyin, tell him who he is, ” Zhang Ruochen said.

Vines extended from Zhang Ruochen's back, forming an enchanting beauty. The beauty picked up Lord Sinluo and dragged him to the side.

Zhang Ruochen took out the 14 Regal Artifacts. They were the weapons Saint Lord Zuo Mu had taken away from the 14 Supreme Saints of Ghost Clan.

The 14 Supreme Saints of Ghost Clan had fled in a hurry. They did not take their war weapons away, so Moyin took all of them.

Most of them were Class Two Regal Artifacts. Zhang Ruochen only looked at them briefly before throwing them aside. He was not interested.

Then, Zhang Ruochen took out Hexadirection Cauldron from Violet Gourd.

In his opinion, this cauldron was the biggest gain from entering the Dark Star.

The bronze cauldron landed on the ground, sinking the earth. Lines of dark gas wrapped around it, making it look mysterious, ancient, evil, and even ferocious. Facing it, Zhang Ruochen felt like he was standing before an evil god. It was as if he could get devoured at any time.

Zhang Ruochen released the Realm-frame of Truth and activated the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. Carefully, he broke open the gas lines again and examined Hexadirection Cauldron.

This cauldron was a bit strange.

There were no Regal or Supreme Inscriptions inside. Instead, there were dense beast-shaped patterns. There were golden birds spreading their wings, red centipedes coiled around their bodies, and phoenixes dancing in the nine heavens...

These countless beast patterns contained a mysterious charm that Zhang Ruochen could not decipher.

"Is it a Divine Artifact?"

Zhang Ruochen had come into contact with Divine Artifacts, such as Imperial Ruler.

However, his understanding of Divine Artifacts was still very little.

It was said that the divine patterns inside each Divine Artifact were different. They were created by nature and were unique. Even deities could not understand the mysteries of the patterns inside the artifact.

If a Supreme Saint understood the patterns inside the Divine Artifact, he could increase his chances of becoming a god. “No, it shouldn’t be a Divine Artifact. There are so few Divine Artifacts. If Pan Ruo knows about the origins of Hexadirection Cauldron, how could the deities not know? If they know, why wouldn’t they take it for themselves?

“The beast patterns inside Hexadirection Cauldron have endless charm, but they shouldn’t have reached the level of Divine Artifact patterns.”

Zhang Ruochen unleashed spiritual power to communicate with the Vessel Spirit of Hexadirection Cauldron but to no avail.

There was an independent internal space inside Hexadirection Cauldron. It was shrouded in mist, and light suddenly appeared. It was very likely that it was where the Vessel Spirit was.

Zhang Ruochen did not dare to probe it with his Spiritual Power simply. If there was a sleeping Vessel Spirit in the cauldron, the consequences of waking it up would be unpredictable.

If the Vessel Spirit was too powerful, Hexadirection Cauldron might escape his hand and fly away. “It’s best to wait until I leave the battlefield and let Mother see it.”

Zhang Ruochen stared at the lid again. He hesitated whether he should open the lid to see what pill was refined inside?

In the end, he restrained himself.

Back then, a ray of energy flew out and sent him flying. If the pill inside was an Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, Zhang Ruochen would be courting death if he opened the lid. That pill would definitely swallow him.

Generally speaking, the combat strength of an Emperor Grade Sacred Pill could almost rival a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

The Emperor Grade Sacred Pill refined by the Yanluo Clan's Grand Supreme Master was also an Emperor Grade Sacred Pill. However, a large part of its power was sealed, making its combat strength equivalent to a peak Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

“Space freeze!”

Zhang Ruochen spread out his hands and released Precepts of Dimension, freezing the space around Hexadirection Cauldron and forming a four-meter-high sealed space box. He put it back into Violet Gourd and stored it properly. “Two hours have passed!” Lord Xia Yu's voice reached Zhang Ruochen's ears.

Zhang Ruochen put away the Profound Spatial Domain and reappeared in the courtyard. He asked, “How many people have arrived?”

Lord Xia Yu said, “Apart from Lady Wind and the cultivators of Yellowsky Clan, no one has come. During these two hours, many Supreme Saints left our home planet. They claimed they were out to hunt for Celestial Slaves.”

“It seems that they still don't take us seriously,” Zhang Ruochen said.

A cold light appeared in Lord Xia Yu's eyes. “In the end, in the eyes of the cultivators of the ten tribes, existing elites like Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind are the true masters. Qitian Clan and Yellowsky Clan are the top two big tribes. Only Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind have the power to rally people.”

“Although we have risen in recent days, many are not willing to accept this fact, so they refuse to obey us.”

Lady Wind did not expect this situation. She said, “I will gather them...” “No.”

Zhang Ruochen gave a meaningful look. “I'll call them myself.”

Before he could finish, Zhang Ruochen turned into a streak of golden light and flew up into the sky.

Lady Wind didn't think that Zhang Ruochen, who was currently so powerful, would really humbly call a group of weaklings to come over. She immediately used her Spiritual Power to send a message to the cultivators of different tribes she was on good terms.

Puresky Continent

In a city of Immortal Vampires, Lord Bladehell's spiritual power clone was having a secret discussion with Yue Tinghai. Thick blood Qi enveloped the room, preventing sound from reaching the outside world.

Lord Bladehell said in a reproachful tone, "What's going on? Your cultivation is at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but you still failed to attack Bloodysky Continent. You disappoint me."

Yue Tinghai was also in a bad mood. He snorted, "Do you think there are no elites in Bloodysky Continent? Last night, another top Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint appeared in Bloodysky Clan." "Who?"

"Gu Chenzi."

Lord Bladehell fell into silence and paced back and forth, he said, "How could this be? How could so many top Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints suddenly appear in Bloodysky Clan?"

"Could it be related to the Fugue Pills that Xue Tu bought?"

"It shouldn't be. Even with the help of Fugue Pills, Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi would need at least 100 years of hard practice to reach the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm."

Yue Tinghai said, "You'd better hurry back. Just now, Zhang Ruochen sent someone to order all cultivators of the ten tribes to go to Bloodysky Continent to meet him."

"It seems that the position of leader of Bloodysky Clan is not enough for him. He wants to be the leader of immortal vampires." Lord Bladehell smiled and said, "Zhang Ruochen is still too young. He's so proud after only one big victory. The cultivators of the other nine clans won't listen to him. I'd like to see how he ends up."

Yue Tinghai also smiled. "As far as I know, no cultivators from the other eight tribes went except for Lady Wind."

Lord Bladehell snorted, "Lady Wind is short-sighted. She bet on Zhang Ruochen and is destined to lose everything.

"Bloodsky Clan seems to be in the middle of the day now. But when Wu Jiang and Lan Ying free their hands, they'll be the first to be dealt with. Zhang Ruochen won't be able to stay alive for long."

Suddenly, the murderous blood Qi in the room shook violently.

A deep voice sounded above Yue Tinghai and Lord Bladehell. "Yue Tinghai, you controlled the tsunami and intended to kill immortal vampires. How should you be punished?"

"It's Zhang Ruochen," said Lord Bladehell.

He stared at Yue Tinghai. "There were no traces of what happened last night, right?"

Yue Tinghai's expression didn't change. He shook his head.

"Then don't be afraid of him. The deities are watching! I'll leave first. You deal with it properly." Lord Bladehell's Spiritual Power clone dissipated into nothingness.

Yue Tinghai walked out of the room and looked up at Zhang Ruochen, who was floating in mid-air; he smirked. "If you don't have any evidence, don't slander me. Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms does cover here. The entire Infernal Court is watching. Don't make a fool of yourself."

The ten wings on Zhang Ruochen's back spread. Golden light shone behind him. Even the clouds in the sky were golden, "Do you think I'm here to reason with you?" He asked. "I'm here to tell you that my fists are harder. You have to obey me. If you don't, I'll kill you."

Rumble

A towering Saint Might was released by Zhang Ruochen. The golden light grew brighter, like a divine sun hanging in the sky. In the city, all the immortal vampires felt the pressure until they knelt on the ground, trembling in fear.

Even the Supreme Saints of Puresky Clan felt as if a mountain was pressing down on them. Their legs trembled, and they couldn't control their knees.

Yue Tinghai felt the same pressure. His legs kept sinking into the ground. He couldn't help but be shocked.

Zhang Ruochen's strength was stronger than he had imagined.

However, as a Supreme Saint who had attained the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he couldn't cower before a fight. He still spoke with a tough tone, "Zhang Ruochen, you're too arrogant!"

"I think you're deliberately trying to start infighting. Your Bloodysky Clan is indeed powerful, but once you start infighting, you'll be a sinner of the immortal vampires."

"Hehe, it seems like you're still not convinced!"

Zhang Ruochen sneered. He turned into a streak of golden light and swooped down, throwing a punch at Yue Tinghai. Yue Tinghai's reaction speed was fast, but compared to Zhang Ruochen's speed, it was far inferior. His palm had just reached out when it was hit by Zhang Ruochen's fist to his chest. The bones and joints of his arm were broken.

Bang!

Yue Tinghai's body was bent. His legs left the ground, and he flew backward, breaking through the buildings in the city. After being sent flying for dozens of miles, he hit the city wall and knocked it down.

"So... strong..." Yue Tinghai was in great pain. He lay on the ground as if he had fallen apart. He had just mobilized the murderous Blood Qi and had not completed a full cycle in his body.

Zhang Ruochen descended from the sky and landed beside him. Zhang Ruochen grabbed his neck and lifted him up like a chicken.

Boom

He pressed hard against the ground again, creating a huge pit dozens of meters in diameter.

The ground shook and dust flew everywhere.

Yue Tinghai spat out blood. His flesh and blood detached from his bones. His eyes were pitch-black, and he was about to faint from the pain.

In the nearby city, the Supreme Saint of Puresky Clan was scared out of his wits. Zhang Ruochen was too terrifying. Yue Tinghai, the number one master of Puresky Clan, couldn't fight back at all.

The tens of millions of immortal vampires in the city knelt even more neatly. They kowtowed and trembled.

"He's still alive. He's tough."

Zhang Ruochen lifted the Yue Tinghai and turned into a streak of golden light. A moment later, he flew back to Cloud City, the largest city in Bloodysky Continent.

He threw Yue Tinghai down from the sky.

Yue Tinghai was a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint at Great Perfection. He was powerful and had profound cultivation. He suppressed his injuries in a short amount of time.

He flipped over and landed steadily. Biting his bloody teeth, he roared, "If you dare, let's fight again."

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had been too fast. Before he could react, he had been knocked down. Therefore, he refused to admit defeat.

As Yue Tinghai's blood burned vigorously in his body, his power got stronger. To regain his dignity, he no longer cared about losing his potential to ascend to a higher level of cultivation.

Standing on the city wall, Zhang Ruochen said indifferently, "You're not qualified to fight with me yet. Kneel and reflect on yourself. When you've thought it through when you'll get up again."

Rumble.

Thunder rumbled in the sky.

The dense lightning interweaved into the shape of a thousand-meter-long handprint. It pressed down and fell on the top of Yue Tinghai's head. Yue Tinghai let out a long roar. He used all his strength to block the giant handprint of lightning.

"Kneel." Zhang Ruochen shouted. His command contained the Spiritual Power shock wave.

Chapter 2341 Mighty Aura

The more Yue Tinghai took the Spiritual Power attack, the intense the sharp pain he felt in his brain. All of a sudden, he was worn out, and his body trembled. He couldn't help but bend his knees downward.

Roar!

Yue Tinghai let out an indignant roar.

“Zhang Ruochen, as a Supreme Saint, I must not tolerate insult... from now on... I will fight you to death!”

The space around Yue Tinghai shook violently.

Under the suppression of the Dimensional force, Yue Tinghai could not hold on any longer. He knelt on the ground hard, causing the earth to sink.

With Yue Tinghai's body as the center, the space within a five-mile radius was frozen.

The entire world fell into silence.

Whoosh

Lady Wind's beautiful figure flew onto the city wall. Shock appeared in her almond-shaped eyes. “You should not do this.”

Lady Wind said, “A Supreme Saint would rather get killed than endure humiliation.

“Moreover, Yue Tinghai is a talented elite with the potential to ascend. Not only him, but the forces behind him and even the entire Puresky Clan will view you as an enemy.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Yue Tinghai doesn't have that much influence. A loser has no honor in Infernal Court.

“The cultivators of Puresky Clan worship Yue Tinghai due to his achievement as someone who has attained Great Perfection at the Hundred-Shackle Realm. They won't worship the Yue Tinghai who knelt.”

Lady Wind sighed softly, “Maybe you're right. As long as we lead the immortal vampires to win first place in Infernal Court's ten clans, all immortal vampires will regard us as their pride and respect us like they respect their deities."

The 23 streaks of Saint Light flew from afar and landed at Cloud City.

They were the 23 Supreme Saints of Puresky Clan.

The moment they saw Yue Tinghai kneeling on the ground, some were terrified; some were angry, and some rushed over. They wanted to save Yue Tinghai, but they were blocked by the frozen space.

"Zhang Ruochen, you're humiliating the entire Puresky Clan. We're no match for you. But when the Celestial-Hunting battle is over, the deities of Puresky Clan won't let you go."

A young female Supreme Saint in her twenties scolded angrily. She spread out her six red wings and slashed at the frozen space with a sword.

Crack!

Zhang Ruochen's Spiritual Power moved. A lightning bolt in the form of a dragon and serpent flew down from the clouds. It struck her and sent her flying. Her body was charred; she was severely injured.

"Yue Tinghai did something wrong, so he must reflect on it. On the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, the gods of Puresky Clan can't discipline him, but I can," Zhang Ruochen said.

"Who do you think you are? How can you discipline the Supreme Saint of Puresky Clan?"

"Whether Yue Tinghai did something wrong or not, it's not up to you to decide."

Seven or eight Supreme Saints of Puresky Clan activated their murderous Blood Qi, intending to attack Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's voice became bone-chilling, "I did not kill Yue Tinghai because he could still take a punch from me," he said. "Besides, he is useful. As for you guys, if any of you dare to offend me, I will kill you without mercy."

Hearing this, those Supreme Saints of Puresky Clan felt like they had been splashed with cold water. Their heads became clearer.

The one they were facing Zhang Ruochen!

This guy was famous for being fearless. He had killed countless Infernal Court deities' children, scions, and scionesses. Even the seventh son of the Ghost Lord had died at his hands. What else did he not dare to do?

Lady Wind was really afraid that Zhang Ruochen would start a massacre, she quickly said, "I heard that Yue Tinghai controlled the tsunami last night and wanted to kill 30 million immortal vampires on Bloodysky Continent. I can testify to that.

"Fortunately, he attempted such a serious crime on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. Otherwise, the Fane of Immortality would have taken him away and skinned him.

"Did you also participate in what happened last night?"

In Infernal Court, strength was indeed the most important thing. As long as one was strong, they could decide the life and death of the weak.

However, no clan would allow the strong to slaughter their own clansmen. Such a person would only end up like Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

In comparison, the punishment of the immortal vampires was even heavier.

Not to mention the 23 immortal realm Supreme Saints of Puresky Clan, even Yue Tinghai, who was kneeling on the ground, had a change in expression.

Even if he killed 30 million clansmen on the Celestial-Hunting Battlefield, it was not a big deal for a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. After all, he alone was worth more than 30 million clansmen. If the attack had succeeded last night, the deity of Puresky Clan would have protected him. The Fane of Immortality couldn't do anything to him.

However, the operation had failed last night, and Zhang Ruochen and Lady Wind had found out about it. Now that he'd lost so much face, the deity of Puresky Clan would definitely be very disappointed in him. Would the deity still protect him?

"No... No. We don't know what happened last night."

"Did Yue Tinghai really commit such a heinous crime?"

"I don't know what happened last night. It has nothing to do with me."

The Supreme Saints of Puresky Clan sensed that something was wrong. They all became obedient.

The reason why they dared to disobey Zhang Ruochen's orders was that they knew that Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell would never submit to Zhang Ruochen. They had thought Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell would definitely stand up to him.

However, Lady Wind was actually on Zhang Ruochen's side. Together with Lord Xia Yu, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi, they had formed a force that even the other eight clans combined couldn't contend with.

"They're here!"

Zhang Ruochen looked up and saw the blood clouds rolling in the sky. He felt the powerful aura of the saintly way.

The Supreme Saints of the ten clans were coming from all directions on the planet.

Yue Tinghai's kneeling was a warning signal.

The cultivators of the other seven clans were afraid of the same fate. Who dared to wait for Zhang Ruochen to personally invite them?

"Yao Bing of Sealsky Clan is here. I've led seventeen Supreme Saints of our clan to greet Supreme Saint Ruochen."

Eighteen streaks of blood light descended from the sky and landed outside Cloud City.

"Saint Yihui of Demonsky Clan is here. I've led twenty-four Supreme Saints of our clan to pay respects to the Supreme Saint Ruochen.”

Blood-red figures descended outside Cloud City.

Apart from one or two Hundred-Shackle Realm elites, the others who stayed behind to guard Immortal Vampires’ home planet were all Supreme Saints who had just entered Neverwilt Realm.

A moment later, more than 100 Supreme Saints gathered outside Cloud City.

Apart from Qitian Clan, all the cultivators from the major clans had arrived.

Zhang Ruochen snorted and ordered, “Lord Xia Yu, go to Qitian continent personally and invite all the Supreme Saints of Qitian Clan here. Remember, you must invite Lord Bladehell.”

Lord Xia Yu frowned and said, “Lord Bladehell is on our planet?”

“Even if he isn’t here, there must be a Spiritual Power clone.” Zhang Ruochen gave a meaningful look.

A dense blood cloud flew over from the horizon, rolling like a sea of blood.

A heavy and overbearing voice came from the blood cloud. “Don’t bother Lord Xia Yu. I and the Supreme Saints of Qitian Clan are here!”

The blood cloud swooped down like a waterfall and crashed to the ground.

The Blood Qi instantly covered thousands of miles of land. When the blood Qi dispersed, Lord Bladehell and more than a dozen Supreme Saints of Qitian Clan appeared outside the city gate.

It was not Lord Bladehell’s Spiritual Power clone, but he himself.

Seeing Lord Bladehell appear, the cultivators of other clans who obeyed Qitian Clan all breathed a sigh of relief. Their eyes shone with excitement. They seemed to have someone to rely on and were no longer afraid of Zhang Ruochen's might.

Without Hellblade Realm backing them, they didn't dare to challenge Zhang Ruochen.

Groups of people approached Lord Bladehell, ready to fight Zhang Ruochen.

The female Supreme Saint of Puresky Clan, who had been charred black by Zhang Ruochen's lightning strike, came to Lord Bladehell. She said weakly, "Zhang Ruochen acted arbitrarily. He started infighting and humiliated the Supreme Saint of Puresky Clan. Lord Bladehell, please do justice!"

"Yue Tinghai would never do anything to harm immortal vampires. Zhang Ruochen planted the evidence on purpose. He thinks he can be lawless just because he is strong," another cultivator said.

The other Supreme Saints of Puresky Clan all stood behind Lord Bladehell.

They radiated powerful Saint Might. They were full of fighting spirit. Lord Bladehell glanced at Yue Tinghai, who was kneeling on the ground. He snorted, "How could a figure like the Supreme Saint Ruochen and Lady Wind do something like this on purpose? Don't be presumptuous!"

All the Supreme Saints of Puresky Clan were stunned.

The Supreme Saints of the other clans looked at each other. They weren't sure what Lord Bladehell was trying to do.

Lord Bladehell stood straight and spoke righteously. He said, "I think that the more Tinghai does something wrong, the more he should be punished.

"The situation of the immortal vampires is great now. We should stay united as one and fight against outsiders. We should strive to achieve better results in the Celestial-Hunting battle. Only then will we live up to the expectations of our gods and the entire immortal vampires. "At this time, I will not let anyone who dares to create internal strife go.

“Let Yue Tinghai kneel first. Kneeling on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield is better than being sent to the Fane of Immortality to be skinned.

“The young cultivators in Infernal Court are still lacking in respect. It’s a good chance to temper his character.” When he said the last sentence, Lord Bladehell’s eyes were as cold as a blade. He glared at Yue Tinghai, obviously threatening him.

Yue Tinghai was extremely humiliated. He thought that his situation would change when Lord Bladehell returned to their home planet. Who would have thought that Lord Bladehell would cast him aside after using him and shift all the blames on him?

‘No, it shouldn’t be.

‘Lord Bladehell is a proud man. How could he give up so easily? There is no way he would willingly submit to Zhang Ruochen.

‘Why?

‘Why?’

Yue Tinghai’s heart was filled with a grievance, confusion, resentment, and confusion.

“Supreme Saint Ruochen, let’s enter the city to discuss our big plans.”

Lord Bladehell waved his hand and took the lead to enter the city gate.

On the city wall, Lady Wind and Lord Xia Yu both showed strange expressions.

Zhang Ruochen had only been in Infernal Court for a short time, so he didn’t know Lord Bladehell very well. However, they had interacted with Lord Bladehell many times, so they knew what kind of person Lord Bladehell was. How he acted just now was definitely unusual.

Lord Xia Yu was puzzled. She muttered to herself, “What is Lord Bladehell planning?”

Zhang Ruochen didn't seem to care. If Lord Bladehell was willing to obey, it would be a good thing.

If he refused to do so, Zhang Ruochen could just beat him into submission.

Lady Wind said, "Lord Bladehell is ranked in the top ten on the top Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators. Since he took the initiative to show his goodwill, we have to show him something."

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly. He walked down the city wall with Lady Wind and Lord Xia Yu to welcome Lord Bladehell.

From Afar, Lord Bladehell cupped his hands and bowed. He laughed and said, "Saint Ruochen is indeed the prodigy of the Xue Jue family. After the Celestial- Hunting battle, he will definitely be famous throughout the world. I admire him."

Zhang Ruochen said calmly, "I haven't even reached the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. What's there to admire, Lord Bladehell?"

Lord Bladehell said seriously, "Being able to defeat Wu Jiang before attaining the Great Perfection stage makes your achievement even more impressive. Luo Shengtian can't do it, neither can Yan Huangtu, nor can Lan Ying."

Lord Xia Yu and Lady Wind suddenly understood, and then the two girls smiled.

The Supreme Saints behind Lord Bladehell who hadn't received the news that Zhang Ruochen had defeated Wu Jiang were all struck by Lord Bladehell's words.

They all understood why Lord Bladehell's attitude toward Zhang Ruochen changed drastically.

If Zhang Ruochen had only defeated Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong, even if Lord Bladehell knew that he was no match for him, with the support of the other clans, he still had the confidence to fight against Zhang Ruochen.

As long as Wu Jiang and Lan Ying made their moves, Zhang Ruochen would most likely die horribly and cease to become a threat.

However, just now, when Lord Bladehell received the news that Zhang Ruochen had defeated Wu Jiang, he instantly dismissed all ill thoughts against Zhang Ruochen. Zhang Ruochen, who could defeat Wu Jiang, would not be afraid of Lan Ying.

Whose presence could threaten him on the entire Celestial-Hunting battlefield?

Maybe Que could.

However, there were not many feuds between Que and Zhang Ruochen. He definitely wouldn't make someone enemies easily. All sorts of thoughts flashed through Lord Bladehell's mind. In an instant, he thought of the immortal vampires' gods. Now, immortal vampires had many elites. They could already rival Yanluo Clan and Asuras.

With such an advantage, the immortal vampires' gods must have hoped that the immortal vampires could fight for better ranking: second place, or even first.

If he, Lord Bladehell, interfered, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't let him go. The Immortal Vampires' gods would also be angry.

It was because of all these considerations that Lord Bladehell rushed back to his home planet, ready to discuss the big plan with Zhang Ruochen. Only in this way would he get a share of the achievements in the future.

The Spiritual Power clone of Supreme Saint Jinkun of Azuresky Clan asked Lord Bladehell telepathically, "Did Zhang Ruochen really defeat Wu Jiang?" Lord Bladehell said, "Don't harbor other ill thoughts against Zhang Ruochen. Not only did he defeat Wu Jiang, but he also killed Saint Lord Zuo Mu. Moreover, he has cultivated a Grade Two Saintwill and held two Supreme Artifacts in his hands.

"It's said that even his parasitic plant, the Saint Devourer, has the battle strength of the top 10 Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators.

"With such strength, the number of people who dare to challenge him on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield is not more than five."

The expression of Supreme Saint Jinkun became grave. He said, "In this case, in terms of power among the elites, the immortal vampires have already surpassed Asuras. Can we compete against Yanluo Clan?"

Lord Bladehell's expression became grave as he nodded his head heavily and said, "This is indeed something that we didn't dare to imagine before. I'm afraid the immortal vampires' gods are also very surprised.

"The gods must have great expectations for us. After all, Yanluo Clan has been the number one clan in every Celestial-Hunting battle. If we can defeat them this time, all of our names will be listed in Fane of Immortality's record.

"Rewards are secondary. The meaning behind it is the most significant. Even the deities care about it.

"Defeating the most upper clan despite being a lower clan is what we, the immortal vampires, want the most. Whoever screws things up at this big-time will have to suffer the consequences after the Celestial-Hunting battle ends.

"This must be why Zhang Ruochen called us here."

Chapter 2342 Bloody Shadowseed

Yue Tinghai was still kneeling outside the city. He was suppressed by the giant palm made of lightning and thunder. The ground beneath him was in ruins.

Close to 200 Supreme Saints from the ten great clans gathered at the Cloud City Governor's mansion.

At the top, there were seven chairs. Lord Xia Yu, Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, Supreme Saint Jin Kun, Gu Chenzi, and Saint Lord Yi Hui sat atop them.

Zhang Ruochen sat in the middle of the row of seven chairs. He appeared to be the leader.

Saint Lord Yi Hui of the Demonsky Clan was a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm hidden in the Immortal Vampires. He was only listed on the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm after entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Of course, most of the Supreme Saints were looking at Lord Sinluo, who was standing behind Zhang Ruochen.

They were all surprised. How could a top-tier powerhouse of the Deathkin come to the Immortal Vampires' home planet and stand behind Zhang Ruochen like a guard?

Zhang Ruochen displayed a strong saint's might, but his tone was calm. He said, "I asked you to come here today to discuss one thing. We are going to combine all the powers of the Immortal Vampires to take down the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. "I think the ten great clans shouldn't have any more grudges. Those who have grudges should put them aside first. Those who have conflicts should restrain themselves first. This Battle of Celestial – Hunting is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. It's the time for the Immortal Vampires to show off their power in the Infernal Court. We must unite and take first place among the ten clans."

"First place among the ten clans?" everyone present muttered.

Everyone present was a Supreme Saint. They were calm, but many were still shocked. They had guessed why Zhang

Ruochen had summoned the cultivators of the ten clans, but they hadn't expected him to be so ambitious?

A Supreme Saint stood up with a serious expression and said, "It's not easy to fight for first place. The Yanluo Clan and Asura are both powerful. We may not be weaker than them. But there's still a big gap between the number of the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints. This was one of the reasons.

"Secondly, if the Immortal Vampires show too much of their abilities, they might become the target of public criticism and be suppressed by the alliance.

"Of course, we are not afraid of a single clan. However, if two or three clans join forces, we are definitely not their match.

"So, I want to know how Supreme Saint Ruochen plans to resolve these two points."

Fighting for first place in the ten clans was not a slogan. Once they did it, they would face a huge challenge and resistance. It was very likely that a Supreme Saint among them would die in battle.

Dying in battle was not scary.

As long as they had a chance to win first place in the ten clans, they were not afraid of battle or death.

What they were afraid of was that fighting blindly was not worth dying.

Zhang Ruochen had already done careful thinking and deduction, he said, "First of all, my opponent is only the Yanluo Clan. As for the Asura, they are indeed very powerful. However, there are too many internal forces and they are divided into 24 fanes. The hatred between the fanes is very deep and there are many contradictions. It is impossible to unify them.

"If the Asura can not be unified, there is nothing to be afraid of.

"If we want to defeat the Yanluo Clan, we need two steps.

"First, we need to be united. We need to combine all our forces to kill the Celestial Captives to get more points. "Most of the Celestial Captives are hiding in the starfields near the seven Dark Stars. Besides the third Dark Star, which Lord Xia Yu and I have cleared once, we need to go to the other six Dark Stars.

“Secondly, I will personally go to the home planet of the Yanluo Clan and destroy more than half of the Yanluo Clan. This is my promise to everyone.”

All the Supreme Saints present were moved.

Zhang Ruochen’s promise was no small matter. The home planet of the Yanluo Clan was full of danger. The Ghost’s home planet couldn’t compare to it.

Just breaking into the home planet of the Yanluo Clan was almost impossible.

The Yanluo Clan had more than a dozen Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. There were also many powerful Array Masters, Talisman Masters, Illusionists, Summoners, and Necromancers. All of them were at the level of High-Saints.

Some of them had the strength to fight against Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The Immortal Vampires had Zhang Ruochen, Lord Xia Yu, Lord Bladehell, and Lady Wind. They could fight against several Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm on their own. That was why they dared to challenge the supreme position of the Yanluo Clan. Otherwise, it would be like hitting a rock with an egg.

wa

Zhang Ruochen continued, “If the Immortal Vampires really try their best to fight for the first place among the ten clans, they will definitely be suppressed by the alliance. However, there is one condition: we must defeat the Yanluo Clan.

“Before we completely defeat the Yanluo Clan, the other clans will only watch from the sidelines.

“What I want to say here is that all of you are the most outstanding powerhouses of the Immortal Vampires in the past thousand years. If we can even defeat the supreme clan, why should we be afraid of a group of weaklings?

“Of course, we have to be fully prepared. If we are really suppressed by the combined forces of multiple clans, we have to be able to withstand them.

“Therefore, the most important thing is our defense. This matter will be handled by Lord Xia Yu. She’s one of the most powerful Array Masters in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. She also has the Pleiades Lotus, a Supreme Artifact. The defensive array she has set up can make our home planet impregnable.”

Yao Bing, the captain of the Sealsky Clan, stood up and said, “Supreme Saint Ruochen, I have a question.”

“Speak,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yao Bing said, “Among the Celestial Captives, there’s a Supreme Saint, Lord Hornless, in the Banshi Isshou Realm. No one knows where he is hiding. If we go on a large-scale campaign against the six Dark Stars, we will definitely suffer heavy losses. How can we guard against him?”

“Before we go on a large-scale campaign against the six Dark Stars, I will scout the way first. If I find Lord Hornless, I will attack him first. I may not be able to defeat him, but it shouldn’t be too difficult to pin him down.” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen exuded a strong sense of confidence.

This confidence could not be shaken no matter how great the danger was. It infected the Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints in the mansion, making them feel confident. Their worries and worries were reduced.

Yao Bing stared into Zhang Ruochen’s eyes and nodded deeply. “If Supreme Saint Ruochen really takes the lead, then I shall lead the Sealsky Clan to closely follow your footsteps.” Following that, several other Supreme Saints stood up and voiced their concerns. Zhang Ruochen answered smoothly, showing that his decision to fight for the first place of the ten clans was not a spur-of-the-moment decision. It was a deliberate decision.

“The Azuresky Clan will listen to Supreme Saint Ruochen’s orders.”

“The Mendsky Clan will listen to Supreme Saint Ruochen’s orders.”

When all the cultivators had no objections, Zhang Ruochen spoke again. “There is one thing that everyone should have guessed. The home planets of the ten clans are not ordinary planets.

“There’s a huge opportunity inside the home planet of the Ghost. There should be something extraordinary inside the home planet of the Immortal Vampires. have any cultivators gone underground to investigate?”

The news of the home planet of the Ghost had long been sent back to the home planet of the Immortal Vampires. No one who could cultivate to the Supreme Saint realm was stupid. They could definitely guess the clues of the ten home planets.

How could the Fane of Destiny and the gods favor one over the other?

A pale-faced Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint shook his head. He said, “I’ve gone underground to investigate. I found that the entire home planet is like a huge living creature.”

“What do you mean?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint said, “Thousands of meters underground, there are many underground rivers of blood. They’re complex and endless. They’re like blood vessels in a person’s body.

“Furthermore, the river is very strong. It’s very difficult to destroy by the Supreme Saint’s power.

“I once followed a river and tried to find where the rivers of blood converged. However, I encountered a very strange thing. The blood in my body decreased unknowingly. Luckily, I retreated quickly. Otherwise, I would have turned into a dried corpse.”

More than one person had entered the underground blood river. All of them had lost a lot of blood.

The most serious one had half of his body withered. His skin was like tree bark, and the outline of his bones could be seen. Furthermore, with his cultivation of the Supreme Saint realm, he found it difficult to recover.

“Could it be the Blood-devouring Curse?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

The Supreme Saints who had entered the underground shook their heads. One of them said, “No, it can’t be. After being hit by the Blood-devouring Curse, the blood in his body disappears on average.

“In the underground, however, the blood begins to disappear from the surface of my body or concentrates in a specific area.”

It was shocking to hear that the blood of the Immortal Vampires who were the best at manipulating with blood and those Supreme Saint’s blood was taken without a sign.

Zhang Ruochen was deep in thought, he thought to himself, ‘Although there are great opportunities inside the Ghost’s home planet, there are also great dangers. If I didn’t have the Violet Gourd, the Five-element Chaotic Neverwithier Physique, and a powerful Demigod-level physique, I’d be in big trouble if I forced my way in.

‘There must be great opportunities inside the Immortal Vampires’ home planet, but there must be great dangers if I want to pass the test.’

Zhang Ruochen had the experience of entering the Ghost’s home planet. He had a certain degree of respect for the inside of the Immortal Vampires’ home planet. He didn’t dare to hope for the opportunities inside the planet.

Of course, just because he didn’t dare to Hope didn’t mean he didn’t dare to try.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Lady Wind, wanting to know more.

Lady Wind had stayed behind to guard the home planet. It was impossible for her not to have been underground. With her cultivation, she might have already found some clues.

While Lady Wind was hesitating, Zhang Ruochen said, “The opportunity on the home planet belongs to every Supreme Saint of the Immortal Vampires. I said just now that we should all work together and obtain the same information. There’s nothing to hide.”

Hearing this, everyone nodded in unison. Their recognition of Zhang Ruochen grew. Lady Wind shook her head. “It’s very dangerous underground,” she said. “To be precise, it’s very dangerous. If you’re not a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, you’ll die if you try to break in. If you’re not a Supreme Saint of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, you’ll die if you try to force your way in.

“I did find something. The reason why everyone suffers blood loss might be related to the legendary Bloody Shadowseed.”

‘Bloody Shadowseed?’ All the Supreme Saints present looked puzzled. None of them had heard of it.

Some even suspected that Lady Wind had made it up to hide the truth.

Zhang Ruochen wasn’t suspicious. After refining part of the Heart of the Divine Tree, he had inherited a lot of knowledge and insight from the Divine Sky-connecting Tree. He had some clues about the Bloody Shadowseed.

The Fane of Destiny had the largest collection of books in the universe. They had collected countless books from the Macroworlds. As one of the candidate Scionesses, they were all knowledgeable. They read thousands of books and knew all sorts of secrets and strange things.

“The legend of the Bloody Shadowseed is very old,” Lady Wind said. “It can be traced back to the birth of the Immortal Vampires.

“Some records say it was a tree, others say it was a humanoid creature, and still others say it was a dead spirit. There are too many records, but there is no unified explanation. Even its existence is a myth.

“The most important legend is that the Bloody Shadowseed grew out of the Pale Blood Soil. With the disappearance of the Pale Blood Soil, it also became extinct.”

Someone exclaimed, “Pale Blood Soil! What kind of treasure grew out of the Pale Blood Soil?”

The other Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires were also excited. Their eyes were shining and they could not calm down.

The Pale Blood Soil was the number one relic of the Immortal Vampires.

The Immortal Vampires were not a race that was born and raised naturally. They originated from the human race.

The first progenitor of the Immortal Vampires was called Yin. He was once a human and was buried in a patch of Pale Blood Soil after his death. It was unknown how many years later, he came back to life from the Pale Blood Soil, and that was how the Immortal Vampires came into being.

Yin lived in a time that predated the ten primogenitors who founded the ten great clans. He was a myth. Even the god of the Immortal Vampires was not sure if he really existed.

Yin was also known as the primogenitor. The Pale Blood Soil was known as the soil of immortality, the soil of resurrection, and the soil of rebirth. There were even rumors that the Pale Blood Soil was related to the secret of immortality.

Unfortunately, after countless years, the Pale Blood Soil had been used up.

Of course, many cultivators suspected that the Fane of Immortality definitely still had the Pale Blood Soil, which was used as a place for the gods to sleep. Perhaps one day, they could be awakened from the soil.

Lady Wind said, “Everyone, it’s best not to have too much hope. All of this is just my guess. Besides, the Bloody Shadowseed was indeed useful, but it was also very dangerous. It’s best not to go underground without reaching the Supreme Saint Realm.”

They were already connected to the Pale Blood Soil. How could the saints of the Immortal Vampires remain calm?

Even though they had a slim chance of survival, many Supreme Saints were willing to put their lives in danger. Zhang Ruochen saw the excitement in their eyes. He frowned and regretted asking Lady Wind to reveal this secret in front of everyone.

The more people who couldn't control their desires knew, the faster they would die.

"How about this? I, Lady Wind, and Lord Bladehell will go in first to investigate and gain a deeper understanding of the internal situation of our planet. If we can control the danger, it won't be too late for us to go in and try to seize the opportunity," Zhang Ruochen said.

Chapter 2343 A Song

The water on the home planet of the Immortal Vampires was blood-red.

They arrived at the underground river after entering the hole. The water was not only redder but also stickier here. It had a faint bloody odor as if it had been formed from blood.

The river was complicated and had many branches. It was like a maze.

Cultivators without strong spiritual power couldn't get out of the river.

The river was made of sealed crystal rock. It was milky white in color, and there were streaks of spiritual light flowing inside. It was like a spiritual snake swimming inside, emitting white light spots.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen condensed his Saint Qi into a four-foot-long Saint Sword and slashed out.

The crystal rock was broken, leaving a meter-long and deep sword scar.

"How is it so strong? Lady Wind, what are these crystal rocks?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

With Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, a casual slash could create a fifty-meter-long sword qi canyon on the ground. From this, it could be seen how hard the crystal rocks were. They were comparable to the bones of Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints. They could be used to refine sacred artifacts.

"I've never seen them before," said Lady Wind.

Lady Wind shook her head and she added, "Actually, I can't even tell if they're natural materials, or if they're bones or fascia of some creature."

Lord Bladehell, who was standing aside, let out a soft exclamation.

The crystal rock that Zhang Ruochen had cut open with his sword began to show specks of light. They grew at a speed visible to the naked eye and returned to their original appearance. Zhang Ruochen, Lady Wind, and Lord Bladehell all had powerful cultivations, but at this moment, their backs were numb. A thought popped up in their minds, ‘Is this planet really a giant blood-devouring creature?’

After a moment of silence, Zhang Ruochen said, “Let’s go! I’m looking forward to seeing what’s beyond the blood pool? What secrets are hidden in the depths of this planet?”

Releasing the Profound Spatial Dimension, Zhang Ruochen formed an egg-shaped Qi shield. He followed the direction of the blood flow and headed deep into the planet’s core.

Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell followed closely behind.

The deeper they went, the wider and sturdier the river became. It was almost impossible to breakthrough.

Suddenly, a melodious song entered Zhang Ruochen’s ears. It sounded like a peerless beauty was singing a classic song. He couldn’t help but be intoxicated by it.

Zhang Ruochen stopped and looked at Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell.

Obviously, they had heard the song as well. Their faces were filled with shock and doubt. The blood-red aura in their bodies surged.

“I didn’t hear such a strange sound when I came in last time,” Lady Wind said.

Lord Bladehell said, “Last time, you went underground from the Yellowsky Continent. This time, we went underground from the Bloodysky Clan. We must have encountered something different.”

Zhang Ruochen used his spiritual power to investigate, but found nothing. He said seriously, “Everyone, be careful. If you encounter an irresistible danger, don’t fight. Retreat to the ground immediately.”

S

Lord Bladehell was confused, he said, “It’s strange. We’ve been in the ground for so long, but our blood hasn’t been sucked away. Is it because our cultivation is strong and we’ve made all kinds of defenses that the Bloody Shadowseed can’t get close to us?”

Lady Wind’s eyes also showed a hint of confusion. She said, “If it really is the Bloody Shadowseed, they definitely won’t be afraid of us. Our defenses won’t be able to stop them.”

“Be careful.”

Zhang Ruochen’s low voice rang out.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen waved his Saint Sword like lightning and slashed at a certain spot in the blood pool.

Zhang Ruochen quickly retreated. He opened his hands and activated the Profound Spatial Dimension. It condensed into a rapidly spinning Dimensional Vortex as if it was defending against something.

The water in the underground blood river churned violently.

Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell didn’t know what had happened, but they still tried their best to defend using the blood-red aura wrapped around their bodies.

“Leaving so soon? Get back here!”

Zhang Ruochen shouted. He stretched out his palm and strands of Saint Qi flew out from his fingertips. They trapped a ball of blood and dragged it back forcefully. The ball of blood made a sharp and ear-piercing sound. It made Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind’s eardrums hurt.

SWOOSH!

The pool of blood suddenly disintegrated and turned into a gaseous state, much like a hungry wolf.

It was impossible to see with the naked eye because the blood-colored waves were flowing in all directions. Even with spiritual power, they were unable to detect the Qi fluctuation.

Zhang Ruochen was able to find it because he had the Profound Spatial Dimension.

Anything that entered the Profound Spatial Dimension could not escape his perception.

The gaseous wolf was more than five meters tall, but when it was suppressed by Zhang Ruochen, it became only the size of a fist. At this moment, it emitted a strong blood light. Its eyes were fierce, and it still let out a sharp cry.

Lord Bladehell closed his hearing and came to Zhang Ruochen's side. He looked at the blood wolf, surprised, and said, "Is this a wolf soul? Huh..."

The gaseous blood wolf suddenly turned liquid again, no different from the blood-red water around it.

Despite that, it was unable to escape Zhang Ruochen's palm.

"It's a Bloody Shadowseed. It must be it," said Lady Wind.

Lady Wind's eyes stared at Zhang Ruochen's palm with excitement and said, "Legend has it that if you can refine and absorb the Bloody Shadowseed, you can improve your Blood Qi and Saint Soul. You should give it a try and quickly."

The most important thing for the Immortal Vampires was Blood Qi.

As long as one could continuously strengthen their Blood Qi, their cultivation would increase quickly.

Zhang Ruochen didn't try to refine the blood in his hand because even if he just held it in his hand, his urge to devour blood would increase greatly. If Zhang Ruochen really refined it, he probably wouldn't be able to suppress his urge to devour blood in the future.

"I'll give it to you. You do it!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen handed the ball of blood to Lady Wind. Lady Wind was 90% sure that Zhang Ruochen was suppressing the Bloody Shadowseed, and it was a very powerful one.

So she immediately took it and carefully suppressed it between her hands. She refined it and destroyed the spiritual will of the Bloody Shadowseed.

When Lord Bladehell saw that, he couldn't help but lick his lips and think to himself, 'To be able to excite Lady Wind so much, it appears that the Bloody Shadowseed must be endowed with the ability to greatly improve one's Blood Qi and Saint Soul. This is not a dangerous thing, but a precious blood medicine.'

However, Lord Bladehell quickly realized that he didn't sense the aura of the gaseous wolf just now. If it weren't for Zhang Ruochen, he would have fled because his blood was being sucked.

'Since Zhang Ruochen can suppress the Bloody Shadowseed, it seems that I have to be friendly to him so that Lady Wind won't be the only one getting all the benefits.' Lord Bladehell thought.

Lord Bladehell stared at Lady Wind's graceful and beautiful figure with a strange look, he thought to himself, 'The Bloody Shadowseed is given away just like that. Zhang Ruochen and Lady Wind must have a special relationship. Maybe they've already had a good relationship. This woman is willing to fight hard to become a Scioness.'

If Lord Bladehell Blood Qi and Saint Soul were stronger in the same cultivation realm, his battle strength would naturally be stronger.

Lord Bladehell knew very well that if he wanted to improve his battle strength again, he could only work on his Blood Qi. It was already difficult to make big breakthroughs in other aspects.

The more he accumulated now, the stronger he would be when he broke through to the Thousand-Koan Realm in the future.

Lady Wind completely destroyed the spiritual will of the Bloody Shadowseed. It no longer turned into a gaseous wolf, nor did it make sharp sounds. It turned into strands of Blood Qi and was continuously absorbed by Lady Wind.

Lady Wind's Blood Qi kept rising, and her power fluctuated greatly.

Lord Bladehell approached Zhang Ruochen and asked him in hushed tones for advice on how to capture the Bloody Shadowseed. When Lord Bladehell discovered that he needed to practice the Profound Spatial Dimension, he immediately dismissed the notion. “Supreme Saint Ruochen, can you help me capture a Bloody Shadowseed?” asked Lord Bladehell.

Lord Bladehell felt that it was inappropriate to make such a request. He quickly added, “I will definitely reward you handsomely.”

“What handsome reward?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Bladehell glanced at Lady Wind and said, “I can give you double, no, ten times what Lady Wind can give you.”

Zhang Ruochen raised his eyebrows and said, “What did Lady Wind give me?”

Lord Bladehell gave an evil smile that everyone understood, he said, “There are countless Immortal Vampires’ beauties. With my cultivation and identity, it’s not difficult for me to find ten beauties no weaker than Lady Wind. Lady Wind’s status is nobler and her cultivation is stronger. That’s why she’s more attractive.

“Don’t worry, Supreme Saint Ruochen. What I’m giving you is at least a Saint Realm. If you want, I can capture all the beauties of the Celestial Court.”

Zhang Ruochen’s expression didn’t change. He smiled bitterly in his heart. It seemed that because of Lian Xi, he was already famous in the Infernal Court. Even Lord Bladehell was willing to do what he wanted to please him.

‘This wasn’t a bad thing!’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

One had to reveal some weaknesses to make those who feared you feel at ease.

Zhang Ruochen said in a low voice, “Don’t tell anyone about me and Lady Wind.”

“I understand,” said Lord Bladehell.

Lord Bladehell thought that he had something on Zhang Ruochen and Lady Wind. He was secretly pleased. If he left the Battle of Celestial-Huntingfield and the three of them fell out, he would have at least one trump card to use.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I don't need ten Saint Realm beauties for the time being. If I come across a Bloody Shadowseed, I can suppress it for you. But, you have to help me do one thing!"

"What is it, Supreme Saint Ruochen? Just say the word," Lord Bladehell said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "After we return to the ground, you must persuade Yue Tinghai to prioritize the overall situation and refrain from doing anything detrimental to the Immortal Vampires' interests. I believe he will definitely listen to you."

Lord Bladehell's heart tightened. He thought to himself, 'Does Zhang Ruochen already know that Yue Tinghai attacked the Bloody Continent because of my instructions?'

"Okay, I will persuade him to make up for his mistakes by hunting the Celestial Captives," said Lord Bladehell.

At this time, the melodious song was heard again. It was getting clearer and closer.

Zhang Ruochen's face turned solemn. He held up the Profound Spatial Dimension and wrapped Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind in it. He said, "The truly powerful Bloody Shadowseed should be here. You Go and protect Lady Wind. I will deal with it."

Chapter 2344 Saint Bloody Shadow

The song was pleasant to the ear, like the sound of nature.

However, Zhang Ruochen could not determine which direction it came from. He only knew that it was getting closer and closer, which made his hair stand on end. However, he could not block his hearing. Once he lost his hearing, it would only give the Bloody Shadowseed a greater opportunity to take advantage of him.

Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind blocked their hearing at once. However, they felt even more tormented when they could not hear anything.

The song contained powerful illusions. Gradually, it affected Zhang Ruochen.

As the song changed, Zhang Ruochen recalled all kinds of scenes in his mind.

There were scenes from his assassination by Chi Yao 800 years ago. Another scene occurred 800 years later when he encountered a white-haired Kong Lanyou in the bamboo forest. When he first saw Chi Yao's statue, this was the scene. Another scene involved him standing in front of Ziwei Palace. Then there was the scene where he saw Huang Yanchen sever her robe.

Every image and memory hit a weak spot in his heart.

“What a brilliant illusion. It merged with the song and made me lose myself,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual will was so strong that he woke up in an instant. He roared, “Break!”

His voice combined with his 65th level spiritual power and exploded with a powerful force.

The song disappeared. All the images in his mind faded away.

The underground river suddenly became extremely quiet. Only the sound of water flowing could be heard.

‘Has the Bloody Shadowseed retreated? The underground is indeed terrifying. It's not a place to stay for long,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

“Supreme Saint Ruochen, what’s wrong?” asked Lady Wind.

Lady Wind’s swaying figure walked toward Zhang Ruochen in the Profound Spatial Dimension like a swaying willow. Her eyes showed concern and tenderness. Her gaze seemed to be able to melt everything in the world, including men’s hearts. Zhang Ruochen did not have much psychological fluctuation. Lady Wind only cared about him because of his strength.

Otherwise, even if Zhang Ruochen died here, she would not give him a second look.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where is Lord Bladehell?”

Lady Wind shook her head and said, “I don’t know. He suddenly disappeared. Could he have been taken away by the Bloody Shadowseed?”

Zhang Ruochen frowned and immediately released his spiritual power to investigate.

But he found nothing.

It shouldn’t be. Even the Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint could escape. How could Lord Bladehell be taken down so easily with his cultivation?

And even if he was taken away, he should have left his presence and traces.

‘Could it be that Lord Bladehell has been completely swallowed by the Bloody Shadowseed?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen’s face became even more unattractive as a result of that.

Lady Wind’s cultivation wasn’t much higher than Lord Bladehell’s. She was clearly terrified. She showed her frail and delicate appearance. Zhang Ruochen’s arm was grabbed by her slender hands. Her tall and delicate body squeezed into his arms. She said, “We must have encountered the Saint Bloody Shadow of the Bloody Shadowseed. The Saint Bloody Shadow is the scariest. It has already gained wisdom.”

Zhang Ruochen felt the warm and fragrant body of hers in his arms. He lowered his head and glanced at Lady Wind. A flash of doubt appeared in his eyes and said, “You are a candidate for the Scioness and a powerhouse among the Supreme Saints. You should have some courage and bravery. Isn’t it just the Saint Bloody Shadow? Why are you so afraid?”

“Windy is just a girl after all. There will be times when Windy feels afraid and timid. Supreme Saint Ruochen, aren’t you afraid that Windy will get angry at you for making fun of Windy?” said Lady Wind.

Lady Wind raised her snow-white neck. Her eyes were sparkling and full of resentment.

Zhang Ruochen said, “We can’t stay here for long. Let’s leave first.” “But... Windy wants to refine another Bloody Shadowseed. Supreme Saint Ruochen, please help Windy.”

Lady Wind kept calling herself “Windy”. She wasn’t as noble and sacred as before. Instead, she had a gentleness that could seduce a man’s heartstrings.

Fortunately, it was Zhang Ruochen who was standing here. If it were any other man who was still so affectionate after being embraced by Lady Wind, he would have surrendered long ago. Let alone a Bloody Shadowseed, he would do anything for her, including dying for her.

Zhang Ruochen looked at her closely and said, “Refining a Bloody Shadowseed has greatly increased your Blood Qi. Can you bear refining another one?”

“Of course, I can. If you are willing to help, Windy can satisfy you in everything,” said Lady Wind.

Lady Wind smiled and took off her golden mask, revealing an exquisite and flawless face. Her long eyelashes fluttered and her red lips were full of seductive luster, she said charmingly, “I will be your woman sooner or later. I don’t mind giving myself to you sooner.”

She untied her blood-red robe, revealing a crystal-clear snow-white body, as she spoke. Her curves were stunning, more enticing than any other scenery.

At the same time, her fragrant lips moved closer to Zhang Ruochen's face.

"Do you really think that I'll fall for that?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Zhang Ruochen's expression did not change. He reached out a hand and pressed it roughly on Lady Wind's face. He exerted force on his wrist and crushed her head with a bang, turning it into a cloud of blood mist.

A painful and sharp cry resounded throughout the Profound Spatial Domain.

Lady Wind's headless body turned into a liquid and turned into a stream of blood that circled around Zhang Ruochen's body.

The stream of blood flowed to Zhang Ruochen's head and extended out a woman's head. Her long hair fluttered in the wind, but her facial features and face could not be seen clearly. She said coldly, "So what if you have seen through me? I will still devour all your blood."

The blood-red liquid woman's head was very close to Zhang Ruochen. If she stuck out her tongue, she could lick his face.

However, Zhang Ruochen remained calm and said, "You must be the Saint Bloody Shadow, right? You're indeed powerful. In the beginning, I was fooled by you and completely fell into your illusion. It's a pity that you don't know me well enough. Otherwise, you wouldn't have lost everything.

"Also, don't be so arrogant in my Profound Spatial Dimension."

The stream of blood snorted and contracted violently. Like a blood-red iron chain, it tried to entangle Zhang Ruochen.

At the same time, the liquid head bit Zhang Ruochen's neck.

"Freeze!" Zhang Ruochen shouted.

The space in the Profound Spatial Dimension froze.

The stream of blood and liquid head became motionless in an instant.

Zhang Ruochen's body shrank to the size of a thumb. He flew out of the confinement of the stream of blood and became a normal person again.

"Moyin, can you absorb the Bloody Shadowseed?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"Master, Moyin is more than willing," said Moyin.

The Saint Devourer extended from Zhang Ruochen's back and separated dozens of roots. It pierced into the stream of blood and directly refined and absorbed it.

Obviously, this Bloody Shadowseed was much stronger than the one given to Lady Wind. Zhang Ruochen almost fell into its hands.

Zhang Ruochen certainly didn't want to give such a powerful Bloody Shadowseed to Lord Bladehell.

"It seems that the Bloody Shadowseed prefers spiritual power attacks. Its physical attacks aren't strong. Once it's frozen in space, it can't break through space and escape," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had a certain understanding of the Bloody Shadowseed. This kind of soul-like and liquid-like creature was similar to Ye Changzai of the Ghost. Both were good at hiding, making it impossible to guard against.

However, their weaknesses were also obvious.

Once they were found, they were no longer terrifying

Of course, each Bloody Shadowseed was different. Zhang Ruochen had only encountered two. He could not guarantee that the other Bloody Shadowseeds had the same weakness.

Furthermore, even if the Bloody Shadowseeds had obvious flaws, he would be extremely dangerous if he came into contact with someone with greater spiritual power and illusion attainments.

Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind were still in the area covered by Zhang Ruochen's Profound Spatial Dimension.

Lord Bladehell looked at the stream of blood being absorbed by Moyin and said, "It was so easy. Did you take down another one?"

"Easy? I almost died at its hands just now. The spiritual power and illusion attacks of the Bloody Shadowseeds are very terrifying. You should be careful. Don't let your guard down," Zhang Ruochen said seriously.

Lady Wind asked, "Did you fall into an illusion just now?"

Zhang Ruochen stared at Lady Wind. He couldn't help but think of the beautiful and seductive scene just now.

He said, "Yes! In the illusion, the Bloody Shadowseed turned into you. It used all kinds of tricks to lure me. I still remember it. Unfortunately, the illusion is just an illusion."

"Haha!"

Lord Bladehell let out a clear laugh. He only controlled the muscles on his face when he saw the cold eyes of Lady Wind staring at him, he said solemnly, "It was indeed very dangerous. The Bloody Shadowseed could actually choose cultivators' weaknesses to cause hallucination. It seems that it has very high intelligence. Moreover, it must have heard our previous conversation and thus did so."

"Your conversation? What did you say?" Lady Wind asked.

Lord Bladehell shrugged and said, "Nothing. Zhang Ruochen didn't tell me anything. I don't know anything."

Lady Wind's Blood Qi increased significantly after refining and absorbing the Bloody Shadowseed. The power waves from her body were stronger than before. With such strength, she didn't think she would lose to Lord Lei, who was ranked sixth on the list of Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The coldness in Lady Wind's eyes disappeared. She said softly, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, can you help me capture another Bloody Shadowseed?"

Zhang Ruochen had heard this before in the illusion.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You can refine and absorb it?"

more

“I have to try. The stronger I am, the more helpful I will be in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Besides, you haven’t forgotten my promise to you, have you? Whether I become a Scioness or not, we are all on the same side.”

There was a charming smile in Lady Wind’s eyes.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen understood what she meant. He thought to himself, ‘So she also thinks that she can use me to work for her with her beauty.’

If it weren’t for the fact that Lady Wind was still valuable, Zhang Ruochen would have slapped her hard in the face with the method he used to deal with the Bloody Shadowseed.

There was no such thing as a free meal in this world. He didn’t want to give anything, but he wanted to take everything. Even Lord Bladehell knew better than her what a deal was.

If he wanted to take something, he had to give something.

Chapter 2345 A Treant

Zhang Ruochen said, “The Bloody Shadowseed contains thick Blood Qi. Refining one at a time can greatly increase a cultivator’s Blood Qi for a short period, but it will also have a strong impact on a cultivator’s body. I think, Lady Wind, you’d better not refine and absorb other Bloody Shadowseeds for a short period to avoid a backlash.”

Just as Lady Wind was about to say something, Zhang Ruochen continued, “There are still many Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints. They haven’t refined the Bloody Shadowseeds yet. We should give them a chance.”

Lady Wind’s eyes sparkled beneath the golden mask. She had a good idea of what was going on.

‘It seems that Zhang Ruochen isn’t stupid. A verbal promise won’t make him support me wholeheartedly. We must give him some tangible benefits.’ Lady Wind thought.

This was normal. After all, Lady Wind and Zhang Ruochen didn’t have a deep relationship before.

How could Zhang Ruochen give her all the benefits for free?

After the Saint Devourer absorbed the Saint Bloody Shadow, it retreated back into Zhang Ruochen’s body.

Zhang Ruochen carefully sensed and discovered that Saint Devourer’s energy fluctuation had greatly increased. Even his spiritual power had grown. It was in a very active and full state.

Zhang Ruochen thought, ‘If I can capture more Bloody Shadowseeds, the overall strength of the Immortal Vampires will definitely increase greatly in a short time. Then, what will the Yanluo Clan fear?’

‘No, that’s not right.’

Zhang Ruochen quickly realized his mistake, ‘I can find a way to increase the overall strength of the Immortal Vampires in the home planet. Yan Wushen and Yanhuang Tu are both extraordinary people. Can't they seize the opportunities in the home planet of the Yanluo Clan?'

After witnessing what occurred on the home planets of the Ghost, the Dark Star, and the Immortal Vampires, Zhang Ruochen realized that the so-called Battle of Celestial-Hunting was more complicated than simply killing the Celestial Captives.

There were too many opportunities in the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

The Celestial Captives were hunted to find the next pillar of the Infernal Court. This goal was the competition between different clans, as well as the distribution of opportunities across the battlefield.

"Let's not hurry to catch the Bloody Shadowseed. Let's go to the underground river where the blood water gathers. We might find something bigger." said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen took out the Violet Gourd and flew into it with Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind.

The gourd flowed down the river and swam toward the center of the planet.

It was unusual for the underground river to be filled with the Bloody Shadowseeds. There had to be a source.

That source must be even more precious.

Zhang Ruochen had achieved a breakthrough in his cultivation inside the Ghost's home planet. This news spread like wildfire across the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

The cultivators of the ten clans all guessed that their home planet must be extraordinary.

Thus, the Supreme Saints of the Infernal Court entered the underground of their home planet to look for opportunities. This became even more important than hunting Celestial Captives.

On the home planet of the Nether Clan.

The heavily injured Wujiang stood on the top of a towering black mountain. Beside him was a volcanic crater that was emitting thick smoke.

His pale and handsome face revealed a malevolent expression. He said in a low voice, “Zhang Ruochen, no matter how powerful you become, I will defeat you and avenge myself.”

Wujiang jumped into the crater of the volcano.

On the home planet of the Bone Clan.

A pink skeleton stood on the vast and boundless field. It suddenly hit the ground with its palm. The ground was instantly torn apart and a bottomless hole appeared.

The pink skeleton walked in step by step.

In the Fane of Destiny.

The gods of various clans were talking about the opportunities in the home planet and the chosen figures among the Supreme Saints of their clans.

Even they cared about the opportunities in their home planet.

“This year, many talented heroes be born. Many opportunities will be taken away.”

“I’m afraid it won’t be that simple. In the last festival, only Sword God Feng Chen succeeded. The festival before, no one succeeded. How can you take the opportunities in the ten great home planets just like that?”

“Zhang Ruochen, Yan Wushen, Yanhuang Tu, Que, Lan Ying, Luo Shengtian, and Wujiang. Their talents are definitely among the best in the past. They can all succeed.”

In the divine world of Wargod Bloodximius, a god asked, “What are the opportunities inside the Immortal Vampires’ home planet? How can there be a Bloody Shadowseed?”

“Is it the Pale Blood Soil?” Another god asked tentatively.

“The opportunity in our home planet was planted by the Lord of the Fane of Immortality 5,000 years ago. Naturally, only the Lord knows the secret of it,” said Wargod Bloodximius.

“In the past 5,000 years, countless geniuses have been born in the Immortal Vampires. Some have caught the Bloody Shadowseed, and some have reached the deepest part of the planet. However, none have been able to take away the opportunity. This shows that it’s not easy to take the opportunity.”

Another god said, “Zhang Ruochen is a genius of the Yuanhui level. It shouldn’t be difficult for him to enter the deepest part of the Immortal Vampires’ home planet after passing the test of the Intergold Tiger. Maybe he’ll have a chance to take the opportunity.”

Wargod Bloodximius’s face was solemn. He looked in the direction of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting and said meaningfully, “That little boy...”

That was all he said.

He didn’t continue.

Of course, Wargod Bloodximius knew what was happening inside the Immortal Vampires’ home planet. He knew that Zhang Ruochen had never been willing to consume blood. He had never truly regarded himself as a member of the Immortal Vampires.

Wargod Bloodixmius wasn’t worried that Zhang Ruochen wouldn’t get the opportunity. He was worried that Zhang Ruochen wouldn’t take it even if he could.

Whoosh

The Violet Gourd was protected by the Supreme Power. It moved through the underground river.

BANG!

BOOM!

Along the way, the Bloody Shadowseed attacked the Violet Gourd, but it couldn’t penetrate the gourd wall or the Supreme Power light membrane. The three of them arrived at the center of the planet safely.

When Zhang Ruochen, Lord Bladehell, and Lady Wind walked out of the gourd, they were shocked.

The core of the planet was empty.

At first glance, heaven and earth looked like a huge hollow ball with a diameter of more than 500 miles.

The Blood Qi in the core space filled the air, and the sound of water could be heard from all directions. It turned out to be blood waterfalls falling from the sky. A sarcophagus more than 3 meters long was supported by the Blood Qi in the center of the sphere-shaped space.

Zhang Ruochen and the other two were more than 200 miles away from the sarcophagus. They were fortunate to have good eyesight, so they could clearly see the ancient ley lines and unidentified characters on the sarcophagus.

A tree growing on the sarcophagus was more eye-catching than the sarcophagus itself. A Treant!

The tree was crystal white, more transparent and delicate than saint jade. It looked like a graceful and charming girl.

The hair of that beauty was straight up like a tree branch. It extended in all directions and pierced into the soil and rocks.

Lord Bladehell held his breath for a long time before letting out a long breath. He stared at the Treant in a daze and said, "So those river channels are her hair. No, no, it's her branch."

"She is the real Bloody Shadowseed. The ones we met before were mostly her Spirits or Blood Qi clones," said Lady Wind. Her eyes were filled with respect as she bowed to the Treant.

Lord Bladehell swallowed and said fearfully, "Let's go. Let's get out of here. If we wake it up, we'll all die here."

Lady Wind nodded. "We can just catch some Bloody Shadowseeds wandering in the branches. This will greatly increase the Immortal Vampires' overall strength."

Zhang Ruochen carefully observed the sarcophagus and the Treant. He had no intention of leaving. "What do you think is in the sarcophagus? Could it be the Pale Blood Soil?"

Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind, who had planned to leave, suddenly had a cold look in their eyes.

That's right!

Legend had it that the Bloody Shadowseed grew in the Pale Blood Soil and became extinct along with the Pale Blood Soil.

Since the Bloody Shadowseed had appeared, there might really be Pale Blood Soil in the sarcophagus.

Zhang Ruochen's Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill had already fused five types of Saintwill. He only needed the Earth Saintwill and Fire Saintwill to complete it.

According to the Divine Sky-connecting Tree, no one had ever fused six types of Saintwill together. It would be extremely difficult for Zhang Ruochen to break through, even with the help of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

However, if he could get the Pale Blood Soil, his chances of successfully fusing the Earth Saintwill would be higher.

Zhang Ruochen walked along a stone path toward the floating sarcophagus.

The opportunity was right in front of him. He had to take it.

"Supreme Saint Ruochen, don't take any risks," Lord Bladehell called out.

Lady Wind also tried to persuade him. "It's too dangerous. The Immortal Vampires need you to lead them. If something happens to you, how can we compete with the Yanluo and Asuras for first place?"

Zhang Ruochen stopped and looked at the Treant. He was deep in thought, then he smiled. "You're right. We should put the big picture first. However, I'm only going to scout the way. If there's any sign of the Bloody Shadowseed itself, I'll retreat immediately."

With that, he continued climbing.

Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind looked at each other and followed.

They thought they were extraordinary. Of course, they wanted to take the opportunity in the sarcophagus, so they wanted to try.

Their expressions changed as they stepped onto the stone steps.

An invisible pressure fell on the two of them. Aside from that, a strange and unknown sound entered their ears, interfering with their thoughts and creating illusions.

Every step up a step, it was as if a mountain would fall from the sky and press down on them.

Before they had even walked 50 kilometers, the two of them were drenched in sweat and their cheeks were flushed red. It was extremely challenging.

The strange noises beside their ears became even louder. It was as if thunder was constantly rumbling, causing them to feel uneasy.

“I feel like... I feel like I’m carrying a planet on my back. Can you still continue moving forward?” Lord Bladehell panted heavily as he asked Lady Wind.

Lady Wind gritted her teeth and shook her head.

The two of them raised their heads and looked at the Treant on the sarcophagus. They noticed that the tree’s trunk, which resembled the young lady’s body, had suddenly grown incomparably tall and lofty. It was as if it had risen for ten thousand kilometers, and its body was emitting an incomparably brilliant divine might. Both Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind felt as if they had been struck by lightning. Their bodies trembled slightly, and they immediately retreated without thinking.

If they continued to move forward, they would most likely be unable to withstand the pressure of the Treant and collapse to the ground. They might even lose their lives on the road.

Zhang Ruochen walked nearly 200 miles. Suddenly, the spherical hollow world shook slightly.

“What’s going on?”

He stopped and looked forward.

He saw wisps of blood-red light appear on the Treant’s two snow-white slender arms. Its ten fingers moved rhythmically.

Chapter 2346 A Trade

Two bright red Blood Qi streaks flowed around the Treant's arms. They reflected a network of ley lines that looked like human bloodstream inside the arms.

Ten long, slender fingers hung on the thighs. They moved rhythmically as if they were strumming the strings of a zither.

FUH!

The gentle sound of breathing rang in Zhang Ruochen's ears, bringing with it a fragrant wind.

The tree-like hair swayed gently, shaking the heaven and earth space. It made the hollow underground world and even the entire planet tremble.

"We can't go any further," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen held his breath and carefully stepped back.

This Treant was no different than any other living being. It had blood and was alive. Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation would not be enough to land a hit on her if she was awakened.

When they returned to the bottom of the stone steps, Zhang Ruochen was still calm, but his back was wet with sweat.

Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind weren't much better than him. They restrained their Qi with all their strength and didn't move, as if they had become two stone statues.

When the Blood Qi on the Treant was restrained and the hollow world returned to peace, the three of them finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"Let's go back to the surface," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen and the other two entered the Violet Gourd again without saying anything else.

Riding the gourd, they swam upstream toward the surface.

On the way back to the surface, Zhang Ruochen captured three Bloody Shadowseeds.

The Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires were still waiting in the governor's mansion. Seeing that the three of them had returned safe and sound, they all went forward to ask about what had happened in the underground.

Lady Wind's aura was noble. She said coldly and arrogantly, "We can already confirm that the ones who entered the underground river and sucked away your blood are the Bloody Shadowseed.

"Although the Bloody Shadowseed is dangerous, it is also a treasure that can strengthen the Blood Qi and Saint Soul. Refining one is equivalent to decades of hard cultivation. It will bring unimaginable benefits to your cultivation in the future."

BOOM!

All of the Supreme Saints were ecstatic in the governor's mansion, and their eyes shone with fervent light.

Every increase in strength meant an increase in competitiveness on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

If refining one required decades of bitter cultivation, how terrifying would the Bloody Shadowseed be to cultivators Blood Qi and Saint Soul?

Perhaps, it would bring endless benefits to the cultivation of the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm.

"What are you waiting for? Let's attack together and hunt down the Bloody Shadowseed." said one of the Supreme Saints.

Some of the Supreme Saints could not wait any longer and were prepared to go underground.

Lord Bladehell snorted coldly, "Although the Bloody Shadowseed is good, it's not something you can capture. Even with the cultivation of the Supreme Saint Ruochen, he was almost at a disadvantage. If you want to go underground, you'd better think twice before you risk your lives."

The Supreme Saints who had gone underground were all fearful. They agreed with Lord Bladehell's words.

Lord Bladehell added, "Everyone, you should be more rational. If you're not powerful enough, you'll definitely die."

“Sigh! I’ve just broken through to the Supreme Saint Realm not too long ago, and my cultivation isn’t stable yet. It seems like I’ll miss the Bloody Shadowseed.” said one of the Supreme Saints.

“Not everyone can get lucky. We should be more level-headed. If we get lucky, we’ll be lucky. If we lose, we’ll lose.” said another Supreme Saint.

All the Supreme Saints shook their heads with bitter smiles.

Even though they were unwilling, they thought, if we don’t even have our lives, why do we still need the Bloody Shadowseed? All of a sudden, the thoughts in their hearts disappeared, leaving only endless disappointment.

Zhang Ruochen saw all this and raised his voice. He said, “I’ve said before that I’ll lead everyone to take first place among the ten clans for the Immortal Vampires. Naturally, I’ll put improving the Immortal Vampires’ overall strength first.

“I have a way to capture the Bloody Shadowseed. Everyone has a chance to refine and absorb it.”

All the Supreme Saints’ gloomy eyes brightened in an instant. They stared at Zhang Ruochen in disbelief.

Many people doubted whether his words were true or false?

They had no doubts that Zhang Ruochen would be able to capture the Bloody Shadowseed. They had a feeling Zhang Ruochen wasn’t going to give them the Bloody Shadowseed to refine and absorb.

Everyone knew that capturing the Bloody Shadowseed was dangerous.

Why would Zhang Ruochen take such a risk?

Just because he wanted to increase the overall strength of the Immortal Vampires and lead everyone to win first place among the ten clans?

This...

How could there be such a selfless person in the world? Only a fool would do such a stupid thing.

Zhang Ruochen took out the three Bloody Shadowseeds and imprisoned them in the Profound Spatial Dimension.

The three Bloody Shadowseeds each took the form of three strange beasts. Their bodies shone with crimson light.

Lord Xia Yu used her spiritual power to analyze the three Bloody Shadowseeds and felt a huge amount of Blood Qi. She sent a voice transmission to Zhang Ruochen. “Are you crazy? You’re giving the Bloody Shadowseeds to all the Immortal Vampires? They may listen to you now, but it’s not certain whether you’re friends or enemies after leaving the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting!”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t respond to Lord Xia Yu. He turned to all the Supreme Saints and said, “I’m not giving you the Bloody Shadowseed for free. I’ll take a certain amount of Godstones. If you’re willing to buy it, you can find Xue Ningxiao and register with her.”

“But we don’t have any Godstones.” some of the Supreme Saints sounded.

All the Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints were anxious and helpless.

“Just acknowledge your debt to me. I’m not afraid of you going back on your word, right, Xue Tu?” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Xue Tu, who had just returned to his home planet. However, when he saw Xue Tu’s appearance, he frowned deeply.

After Xue Tu came to the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, he left his home planet and claimed that he was going to hunt Celestial Captives.

However, his points were pitifully low these days. On the contrary, he had several more Regal Artifacts on him.

He wore leopard-print golden light armor. He held a sword in his left hand and a blade in his right. There was a string of bone beads around his neck, a chain around his waist, and a defensive white jade crown on his head. He looked nondescript, but the Supreme Saints around him were all envious.

Xue Tu had clearly robbed many Supreme Saints in a surprise attack. That's why he had such a bountiful harvest.

Zhang Ruochen did not know that he was the one who had stimulated Xue Tu. He had also made Xue Tu realize that robbing others was the fastest way to get rich.

That was why Xue Tu had always thought that the Battle of Celestial-Hunting was a great opportunity for him to make a fortune.

Seeing Zhang Ruochen staring at him, Xue Tu put away his happy smile and snorted. "If anyone dares to deny my senior brother's debt, I, Xue Tu, will be the first to refuse."

As he said this, Xue Tu cursed in his heart. 'I knew it. He wants to make a fortune again. It should be easy to capture the Bloody Shadowseeds. The reason why they made it sound so dangerous was most likely Zhang Ruochen's way of making money. I'm not buying from Zhang Ruochen. I'll catch them myself.'

While Xue Tu was thinking, Zhang Ruochen gave the three Bloody Shadowseeds to Lord Xia Yu, Gu Chenzi, and Lord Bladehell.

"Come here."

Zhang Ruochen waved at Xue Tu and called him to the side. Zhang Ruochen looked at the various Regal Artifacts on Xue Tu and patted his shoulder. Zhang Ruochen said, "You're right. Indeed, no cultivator can blame me. You've robbed many Supreme Saints, right? How many Regal Artifacts do you have?"

Xue Tu had a bad feeling. Instinctively, he wanted to retreat.

However, Zhang Ruochen's hand on his shoulder pressed him down.

"Six!" Xue Tu cried.

"Don't lie to me," Zhang Ruochen said. "My spiritual power has reached the 65th level."

Xue Tu was filled with hatred and resentment, he thought indignantly, 'How long has it been since he broke through to the spiritual power Supreme Saint? He's already reached the 65th level. Is he still human? He was torturing me not only physically, but also mentally.'

In the end, Xue Tu chose to accept his fate and said, "Including my own weapons, there are nine in total. No more, really no more!"

Zhang Ruochen spread his hand and signaled him with his eyes.

Xue Tu appeared disheartened. He removed the Regal Artifacts one by one, mechanically and numbly, and handed them to Zhang Ruochen.

Xue Tu really wanted to slap himself. Why did he want to show off?

Why did he expose these Regal Artifacts to Zhang Ruochen?

He had learned his lesson!

He was still young. He had to be careful in the future.

Zhang Ruochen put away the eight Regal Artifacts that Xue Tu had handed him. He waved his hand, "Go. There are still many Regal Artifacts on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. You must seize the opportunity. After we leave the battlefield, it won't be so easy to get rich again!"

Walking out of the governor's mansion, Xue Tu looked back at the towering door. He gnashed his teeth and stomped his feet. "Just wait and see," he said. "I'll be more cautious next time. I won't let you take what belongs to me again."

In the next few days, Zhang Ruochen spent a lot of time capturing more than 100 Bloody Shadowseeds.

Not every Supreme Saint could refine a Bloody Shadowseed. In fact, most of the Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints could refine one at a time.

Lord Bladehell had once visited Yue Tinghai. He had no idea what Yue Tinghai had said to him. Yue Tinghai admitted his mistake and apologized to Zhang Ruochen and the Bloodysky Continent's Immortal Vampires. He was eager to make amends.

All of this was within Zhang Ruochen's expectations.

Whether Yue Tinghai was submissive or suffering humiliation, now was the time for extra hands, so Zhang Ruochen didn't make things difficult for him.

On a tower in the governor's mansion, Zhang Ruochen leaned against the railing and looked into the distance. He thought about the ancient sarcophagus and the Treant underground

Right now, fighting for the first place of the ten clans is the most important thing. I can't take too much risk. But when everything is set, I must go again. There must be something amazing in the sarcophagus.

Next, I should get the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill first.'

Zhang Ruochen's palms erupted with Time Precepts, which condensed into Self-Defined Mark of Time light spots. He closed his eyes and focused intently.

Although Que had taken the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he was chased by Yan Huangtu and Lan Ying. He shouldn't have a chance to refine it in a short time.

However, after entering the Dark Star, Zhang Ruochen began to feel uneasy.

After all, the time ratio inside the Dark Star was different from the outside world.

Que had a part of Zhang Ruochen's Self-Defined Mark of Time on him. No matter how far he ran, Zhang Ruochen could find his position accurately.

Whoosh

A fragrant wind blew into the tower.

Lady Wind, wearing a blood-red robe, appeared beside Zhang Ruochen. She wasn't wearing a gold silk mask. Her face was exquisite, and her skin was as white as snow. She was as beautiful as a painting.

“You can buy a Bloody Shadowseed with at least 200 Godstones. Supreme Saint Ruochen, you’re letting them off too easily.” Lady Wind’s voice was very pleasant and unforgettable.

Zhang Ruochen removed the Self-Defined Mark of Time from his hand and said, “Lady Wind was born from a prestigious family. You’re talented and are an outstanding disciple of the Fane of Destiny. Of course, you wouldn’t lack Godstones.”

“But for most Supreme Saints in the Neverwilt Realm, 100 Godstones are all they have.”

Lady Wind’s eyelashes fluttered slightly, revealing her pearly teeth, she smiled and said, “I never believed that Supreme Saint Ruochen truly wanted to join the Immortal Vampires. Now that I see you are thinking of them and fighting for better results for the Immortal Vampires, I have no doubt.”

“Tell me, why are you here?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lady Wind said, “Supreme Saint Ruochen should have guessed it already. Why do you pretend like you don’t know?”

“If you want to buy a Bloody Shadowseed, you can look for Xue Ningxiao,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lady Wind said, “I want to buy a Saint Bloody Shadow. She doesn’t have one. The Supreme Saint Ruochen must have one, right?”

me

“I’m not lying to you. Saint Bloody Shadows are extremely dangerous. I only caught two in total. The Saint Bloody Shadow could not only improve a cultivator’s Blood Qi and Saint Soul, but also the spiritual power of the cultivator. Lady Wind should know that it’s not worth it to sell something of this level on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lady Wind said, “I’ll give you 10,000 Godstones.”

Zhang Ruochen turned around and looked directly into her starry eyes, “10,000 Godstones is not a small amount, but it’s not enough to move me. If you can give yourself to me, I can consider it.”

The two looked at each other as if they wanted to see through each other’s hearts.

After a long while, Lady Wind smiled. “Supreme Saint, how can you be so forgetful? Have you forgotten what I said?”

“I don’t want to make empty promises. We are all Supreme Saints. There’s no need to play such tricks. It’s better to be realistic,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Many expressions flashed through Lady Wind’s eyes. She thought to herself, ‘Zhang Ruochen is really a womanizer. He wants to make me his woman now.’

Lady Wind didn’t think that being a womanizer was a mistake. After all, how could there only be one woman for a strong man like him?

Zhang Ruochen had cultivated the Grade Two Saintwill and defeated Wujiang. He was destined to be the champion of this era. His future potential was limitless. However, if Lady Wind followed him now, it meant that she was betting all her chips on him.

What if he lost?

Zhang Ruochen watched Lady Wind’s expression change, he laughed. “Don’t think about anything else. I want you to give yourself to me. I don’t want you to become my woman right now. I want you to come with me and help me get the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.”

Lady Wind felt that Zhang Ruochen was teasing her to test her bottom line.

Lady Wind said, “The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was taken by Que. We don’t know his location yet. How can we take it back from him?”

“Besides, Que’s cultivation is unfathomable. Even if we work together, we might not be his match.”

Zhang Ruochen looked up at the sky and said, “Of course, I can find him. No matter how strong he is, he is only one person. How can he be stronger than the entire Immortal Vampires?”

Chapter 2347 The Home Planet of Yanluo Clan

Zhang Ruochen wouldn't let all the Immortal Vampires attack together. It was too risky to deal with Que. Besides, Que cultivated the Path of Oblivion. An army wouldn't be effective against him.

Only Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, Lord Sinluo, and Yue Tinghai were traveling with Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Xia Yu stayed on the home planet and continued to set up the array.

Taking the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill represented Zhang Ruochen's personal interests, not the interests of the entire Immortal Vampires.

Lord Bladehell and Yue Tinghai were willing to help Zhang Ruochen because they had no choice. After all, both of them had participated in the plan to attack the Bloodysky Continent.

If Zhang Ruochen wanted to take revenge on them, he would definitely send them to charge into the battle and do the most dangerous thing.

Since that was the case, they might as well agree to help Zhang Ruochen deal with Que and help him get the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Even if Que could breach the heavens, he would have to admit defeat with so many powerhouses working together.

Whoosh

The space shook slightly as a light flashed.

Zhang Ruochen and the others arrived in a distant starry sky via the dimensional teleportation array in Cloud City.

Six-colored star fog surrounded them. They were thousands of miles away from the Immortal Vampires' Home planet.

"We're not far from Que. Wait for me. I'll set up a dimensional teleportation array first."

Zhang Ruochen released his spiritual power and found a rock meteorite that was more than 600 miles long in the nearby starfield. He released 100,000 Spirits and placed several purple Dimensional Saint Jades and a Godstone on the ground.

The Godstones of the Bloodysky Clan had been used up by Zhang Ruochen in the Dark Star.

However, many Godstones from the cultivators of the other nine clans had fallen into Zhang Ruochen's hands.

"With this teleportation array, we can attack and retreat. We have the initiative. I'll set up a Cloaking Array to hide this rock meteorite."

Lady Wind's spiritual power was not insignificant. She also possessed the abilities of a High-Saint Array Master.

In the myriad worlds of the Celestial Court, there wasn't even a single High-Saint Array Master in the weak worlds, besides the gods who expertise in arrays. But there were many new generation Supreme Saints in the Infernal Court.

The competition in the Infernal Court was strong

An hour later, the Dimensional Array and Cloaking Array were formed. Zhang Ruochen and the others restrained their aura and flew quickly in the direction of Que.

Not long after, a blue planet appeared in front of them.

The closer they got, the bigger the planet became.

"Que is hiding on that planet?" asked Lady Wind.

She added, "There seems to be a lot of life on that planet. It's not a barren planet. No... almost all the living planets in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting are home planets of other clans."

Zhang Ruochen also realized that something was wrong. He stopped first and said, "A home planet? This is the center of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Which clan's home planet is it?"

Lord Bladehell's face had a strange expression and he said, "The Yanluo Clan's."

Everyone looked at each other with fear in their eyes. Then they looked at Zhang Ruochen.

How could Que be on the Yanluo Clan's home planet?

There were only two possibilities.

First, Zhang Ruochen's senses were wrong.

Second, Que had been captured by the Yanluo cultivators and locked up on the home planet.

Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind had all seen Que's extraordinary methods. They were obviously more willing to believe the former.

"My senses are correct," Zhang Ruochen said with certainty.

Zhang Ruochen then added, "There are two possibilities. First, Que hid in the home planet of the Yanluo Clan. After all, the most dangerous place is the safest place.

"Also, hiding here can make the Yanluo Clan afraid to attack.

"Secondly, Que discovered the mark I planted on his body and purposely lured me to the Yanluo Clan's home planet. He wants to use the Yanluo Clan's hand to deal with me, and he also wants to use my hand to restrain the Yanluo Clan.

"No matter what, the first step is to enter the Yanluo Clan's home planet first."

Lady Wind said, "The Yanluo Clan's home planet must be protected by layers of arrays. It's the most difficult place to breakthrough in the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. With our strength, even if we activate the Supreme Artifact, we can't break-in."

"Even if we force our way in, we'll die. This is the Yanluo Clan's headquarters," Yue Tinghai said.

"Of course, we can't force our way in," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen picked up the Violet Gourd and said, "You guys enter the gourd first. I'll think of a way to enter the home planet of the Yanluo Clan myself."

After putting Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, Yue Tinghai, and Lord Sinluo into the gourd, Zhang Ruochen thought carefully for a while. Then he used a Dimensional Warp and disappeared.

Not every cultivator in the Yanluo Clan had the surname “Yan”.

In fact, the surname “Yan” was the prominent surname in the Yanluo Clan. It represented the noblest bloodline and the most powerful inheritance.

The surname Wu was the 19th surname in the Yanluo Clan.

Wu Wuji had cultivated for more than 800 years and reached the Neverwilt Realm of the Supreme Saint. Among the Wus, he was considered the pride of his generation and the son of tomorrow.

Wu Wuji stepped on a rainbow and flew through the void space. This time, he had earned 50,000 points from hunting Celestial Captives. He had heard that the inner parts of his home planet contained great opportunities, so he rushed back immediately.

BANG!

Suddenly, Wu Wuji crashed into an invisible wall. His body was in immense pain, and his vision blurred. He nearly fainted from the impact.

“Oh no, there’s an ambush,” said Wu Wuji.

Wu Wuji was punched in the back of the head just as this thought crossed his mind. His vision abruptly went black, and he lost consciousness.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the space and looked at Wu Wuji carefully. Then, he pressed his palm on Wu Wuji’s head and mobilized his spiritual power to invade.

Zhang Ruochen did not forcefully erase the divine power of the defensive consciousness in Wu Wuji. He only peeked at his memories after he entered the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

“From now on, I am Wu Wuji, a Supreme Saint at the pinnacle of the Neverwilt Realm,” said Zhang Ruochen

Zhang Ruochen changed into Wu Wuji's robe and held Wu Wuji's scissor-like Regal Artifact in his hand. He used the Divine Purification Flame to refine the vessel spirit.

Then, he transformed.

Zhang Ruochen reshaped himself into Wu Wuji's appearance. He was tall and sturdy. His shoulders were wide and his eyes were like copper bells. The scissor in his hand looked like a scorpion's pincer.

Zhang Ruochen threw Wu Wuji into the Violet Gourd and flew toward the home planet of the Yanluo Clan.

"Halt."

Two Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints walked through a light screen and stopped Zhang Ruochen when he was still a thousand miles away from his home planet. It was a man and a woman. They were both very young Zhang Ruochen looked at them carefully. He was shocked. Although they weren't at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, they had both broken 92 shackles.

The Yanluo Clan was indeed full of powerhouses.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his hands and said in a deep voice, "Wu Wuji greets both Supreme Saints."

The male Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was called Xue Kai. He said in a calm tone, "So it's you. How come you came back to our planet so quickly? How many Celestial Captives did you kill?"

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, "I heard that there was a great opportunity on our planet. I wanted to try my luck, so I came back early."

The female Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was called Xue Ling. She snorted with ridicule.

Even Xue Ling and Xue Kai were hesitant to enter their home planet. A mere Supreme Saint of the Neverwilt Realm wished to go. He had no idea where he stood.

Xue Kai said, “This is a critical period. Any cultivator who wants to enter or leave the home planet has to pass the verification of the Mirror of Revelation.”

“What happened? Why is it so troublesome to return to the planet?” Zhang Ruochen looked at the ancient mirror in Xue Kai’s hand and asked.

Xue Ling said coldly, “It’s not in your place to ask.”

Four days ago, Que had sneaked in behind a Yanluo cultivator who had returned to the planet.

Because of that, Xue Ling and Xue Kai were severely reprimanded by Yan Huangtu. Now that hundreds of millions of people on the planet were in danger, they couldn’t escape the blame. Naturally, they weren’t in a good mood.

Zhang Ruochen did not continue to ask. He calmly accepted the reflection of the Mirror of Revelation.

The Mirror of Revelation could not reflect his true body with the current strength of Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power and the Thirty-six Formless Transmogrification.

“You may pass,” said Xue Kai.

Xue Kai put away the Mirror of Revelation and opened a corner of the Grand Array of Defense of the home planet.

Zhang Ruochen flew to the gap of the array and paused slightly. He memorized the dimensional coordinates and flew through the clouds toward the ground.

More than 80 percent of the Yanluo Clan’s home planet was covered in water. Islands were scattered everywhere. Each island was full of life, with trees and seabirds.

The sky was blue and the clouds were white. The water was clear and the sand was white.

The environment here was different from other places in the Infernal Court. Zhang Ruochen felt as if he had returned to Kunlun.

Flying in the direction he sensed, Zhang Ruochen came to a halt outside a large city.

This city was the biggest city on the planet. There were 40 million Yanluo clansmen living in the city.

“Que sure knows how to pick a place and hide here. Even if the Yanluo Clan’s Supreme Saint finds him, he probably won’t dare to fight him. This way, he can focus on comprehending the Path and refining the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.” said Zhang Ruochen.

Que cultivated the Path of Oblivion. Once he hid in a crowded place, Yan Huangtu wouldn’t be able to find him in a short time.

Zhang Ruochen did not use his spiritual power to deliberately investigate after entering the city, but he still sensed the powerful presence of the Path.

Among them, the presence emitted from a 17-story tower in the center of the city was the most powerful.

Zhang Ruochen carefully observed the geographical structure of the entire city and studied the inscription of the array in the city. He muttered to himself, “That should be the array hub of the entire city. There are several powerful Array Masters gathered there. It seems that Yan Huangtu also guessed that Que would hide in this city. They are all smart people and not easy to deal with.”

Que’s position became clearer.

Zhang Ruochen stood at the busy intersection. He looked up and could see through the buildings and layers of array enchantments. He saw an ancient Bloodbeast carriage passing by the river, it was driven by a 12-or 13-year-old boy.

The river was 40 meters wide and paved with bluestones on both sides.

The Bloodbeast looked like a cow or a giant wolf. It had blood-red fur all over its body. The carriage was made of redwood and hung with a string of wind chimes. It made a bell sound when it moved, which was very pleasant to hear.

When Zhang Ruochen crossed dozens of streets and saw the ancient Bloodbeast carriage, Que, who was sitting cross-legged in the carriage, suddenly opened his eyes and said to himself, "Have I been discovered?"

"Stop the carriage," said Que.

The boy who was driving the carriage pulled the rope tightly and the Bloodbeast stopped immediately.

At that time, Zhang Ruochen's figure had already silently stood on the other side of the river with his hands behind his back. He stood quietly and became one with the surrounding environment.

The boy who was sitting in the carriage looked back and asked, "Sir, why did you want to stop the carriage?"

"Because the person I was waiting for has arrived." A low voice came from the car.

The boy looked around with a pair of bright eyes, looking for the person that Que was talking about.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Do you know who I am?"

"There is only one person in the world who can find me because he has left a Self-Defined Mark of Time on me," said Que. His voice was vague and uncertain.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I can't believe you discovered me. It seems that you are stronger than I thought."

"If I can't even do that, how can I be the strongest in this era? I have studied the Path of Time as well," Que said.

Zhang Ruochen was not surprised. Just like he was the Master of Time and Space, he was still cultivating and studying the Path of Truth, Darkness, and Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen studied the Path of Darkness and Destiny because he was terrified of them, not because he wanted to master them.

The more Zhang Ruochen was afraid of power, the more he had to understand it and study it.

Only when Zhang Ruochen knew himself and his enemy could he be calm and unhurried.

This was probably the reason why Zhang Ruochen lacked studying the Path of Time. It meant that the Power of Time made him feel danger and he had to understand it.

“You can’t be the strongest in this era because of me,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Que said, “You’re impressive. You weren’t even qualified to fight me the last time I saw you. But this time, you’re much stronger. To be exact, you’re stronger than I expected. But you are still weak. You’ve only broken 30 shackles and are far from being my match.”

“I think it’s just the right time. We can’t wait until you’ve refined the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, right?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Que said, “How can you be sure that I haven’t refined the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?”

“Because you’re still comprehending the Path. That means you’re not ready to take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill to condense the Saintwill,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Que said, “Then can you tell which Path I’m comprehending?”

Zhang Ruochen looked at both sides of the river and said, “Water! These days, you have been sitting in the carriage and driving along the river. There are traces of wheels on the stone slabs.

“Moreover, compared to the first time I saw you, you have less sharpness and more flexibility and patience.

“After the first time I met you, I discussed with the cultivators of the Bloodsky Clan. My evaluation was that you are competitive and narrow-minded. But after practicing the Path of Water, you slowly make up for your weakness in character.

“Water benefits all things without fighting for it. It flows downward and does not reverse the formation. This is the first Major Path of cultivation.

“I’m guessing you cultivate the path of Water not only to compensate for your spiritual weakness but also to compensate for the flaw in your Saintwill. If your Saintwill still has a flaw, it means that the Saintwill you cultivate must be extremely brilliant. You have likely reached Grade Two.”

In the carriage, there was a long silence.

The boy driving the carriage scratched his head in confusion and asked, “Sir, are there any marks on the ground? Why can’t I see them?”

“There are some marks that you can’t see, just like how you can’t see the precepts of heaven and earth. However, the precepts are there, and the marks are there too.” Que sighed softly.

Chapter 2348 Xi and The Eight Sons of Life and Death

“Water nourishes all living things, but it flows calmly. It doesn’t compete with all living things, and it doesn’t ask for anything in return. Who can achieve such a state of mind?” said Que.

Following that, Que continued, “You say that I’m competitive, but what about yourself? Aren’t you the same? Once you step onto the path of cultivation, if you don’t compete, you’ll only become mediocre.

“I’m very curious. How can a person like you, who fights with people, gods, and heaven, cultivate the Path of Water to the Great Perfection stage in the Saint King Realm?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “You’re curious, and so am I. Why don’t we each ask each other two questions to resolve the doubts in our hearts?”

“Okay!”

Que agreed.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Since you asked first, I’ll answer first. The Path of Water means not only not fighting, but also tolerating everything “My Path of Water gives birth to all kinds of things, including all good and bad, praise and abuse, justice and evil. I can accept all of them because that’s who I am and the world I live in. I can live along with the good and evil no matter what.”

Que fell silent again and thought carefully about what Zhang Ruochen had said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “I am very curious. Why did you appear on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting? If I remember correctly, you were not among the cultivators of the ten clans at the Celestial-Hunting Festival.”

Que said, “Every cultivator who enters the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting has his own mission. The mission of the weak is to hunt Celestial Captives, while the strong have other goals.

“Just like the three candidates for the position of Scioness.

“Before you entered the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, the God behind you also gave you a mission, right?”

“I entered the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting with two goals.

“First, to kill the only Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, Lord Hornless.

“Second, to make up for the flaw of the Saintwill and cultivate the complete Grade Two Saintwill.

“To me, the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting is a cultivate, a trial, and a test.”

Zhang Ruochen believed that Que was not lying, but he did not believe him completely. Who knew how much truth Que was telling and how much he was hiding?

Que asked, “Second question, the Saintwill that you have combined now should have nothing to do with the Path you are cultivating. But why can you reach the Grade Two level?”

Undoubtedly, what Que cared about the most was the Grade Two Saintwill.

Although Zhang Ruochen did not guess wrong, he had indeed cultivated a Grade Two Saintwill. However, this Grade Two Saintwill had a huge flaw.

In other words, he still could not be considered to have cultivated the Grade Two Saintwill.

The harder it was to cultivate the Grade Two Saintwill, the more incomplete the Saintwill was. It was nearly impossible to cultivate a complete Grade Two Saintwill.

Until recently, only one or two Supreme Saints could cultivate a complete Grade Two Saintwill in a single Yuanhui period.

Que thought that his talent for cultivation had surpassed Sword God Feng Chen from a thousand years ago. However, he still could not complete the flaw and take the final step.

The Battle of Celestial-Hunting was his last chance.

Now, Zhang Ruochen was in front of him, making him feel pressure and urgency.

Zhang Ruochen said, “My Grade Two Saintwill is not perfect, but as long as the Saintwill is strong enough, it can naturally burst out the power of the Grade Two Saintwill.”

Zhang Ruochen’s Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill had already fused with five kinds of Saintwill, which was considered top-class among the Grade Two Saintwill.

Even if it was not complete, it could still burst out the power of the middle-lower Grade Two Saintwill.

However, the Grade Two Saintwill that Que cultivated obviously could not reach that level. Its power was probably still at the level of the Grade Three Saintwill.

Zhang Ruochen did not tell Que the whole truth. At least, he did not tell him that he was walking on the path of perfection of the Saintwill.

However, this path was too difficult. Although Zhang Ruochen was very confident, he was also very clear that the chance was slim. He needed to seize the good fortune of heaven and earth to succeed.

Que sighed and said, “So your Grade Two Saintwill also has flaws. The hardest part of a Grade Two Saintwill is having no flaws.

“Generally speaking, a Grade Two Saintwill is formed by the fusion of four Saintwills. It’s like putting a four-corner scale on the ground and placing four Saintwills on the four corners. The selection of the four Saintwills, their strength, and compatibility with the cultivators themselves are all very high requirements if you want the scale to be the most stable. It’s almost impossible.

“If it’s a Grade Two Saintwill formed from five types of Saintwill, the difficulty would be ten times higher.

“I wonder how Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian managed to form two perfect Grade Two Saintwill. I thought Wargod Bloodximus taught you the experience of fusing Saintwill, but I didn’t expect you to be a failure as well.”

Fusing Saintwill did not mean that the higher the grade, the better it was. It had to be perfect and stable. The higher the grade, the more difficult it would be. This wasn't a good thing.

For a top-tier Supreme Saint, fusing the third and fourth Saintwills wouldn't result in more than Grade Seven.

The lower the grade, the greater the chance of success.

Only when he discussed the Path with Zhang Ruochen would he mention fusing four and five Saintwills.

It was already a great achievement for other Supreme Saints to be able to fuse two kinds of Saintwills into one.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It's my turn to ask the second question. You don't belong to the camp of the ten clans, but you appear on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. This is very unusual. I think you don't have the right to interfere in the fight between the ten clans. Or rather, you have some kind of restriction. What is this restriction?"

"Why do you think I have a restriction?" Que asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Because... I found out that you don't dare to kill people. Or rather, you don't dare to kill the cultivators of the Infernal Court who participated in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. When you fought for the Saintwill Pill, you held back everywhere. You didn't dare to use your full strength."

Que laughed. "So, you think I don't dare to kill people, so you don't want to live?"

Without any warning, Que flew out of the frame, crossed the river, and appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Almost without any time, he was already close to Zhang Ruochen. The index and middle fingers of his right hand merged, and the two fingers pointed like swords, directly piercing Zhang Ruochen's glabella.

In the past, Zhang Ruochen's cultivation was too low, so he had never seen Que's real face clearly. He could only see a black shadow.

This time, Zhang Ruochen finally saw his face and figure clearly. His face was thin and his gaze was sharp. Other than these two points, there was nothing else.

Facing an opponent like Que, Zhang Ruochen was naturally on high alert at all times.

Whoosh

The Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, the Realm-frame of Truth, and Spiritual-power Domain were all released in an instant. At the same time, Zhang Ruochen spread out the ten golden wings on his back and retreated rapidly.

Zhang Ruochen had seen Que's speed before. Not to mention being invincible in the same realm; even among the Supreme Saints of the Thousand-Koan Realm, few could catch up with Que.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen's speed was not slow either.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen instantly retreated 6 kilometers and knocked down a long string of buildings.

Que's fingertip slowly approached his glabella. Even if he used the Power of Dimensions to block it, the suppression of the Power of Time was still useless.

"Even if I try my best, my speed is still inferior to his."

Zhang Ruochen was already prepared. The two fingers of his right hand formed a sword gesture, releasing a dazzling divine light. He stabbed out like a golden rainbow.

"Sword Eleven."

In the ten years Zhang Ruochen was on the Dark Star, he had consumed the Ampliofruit and cultivated Sword Eleven to the top level. He was only one step away from the Great Perfection stage.

A ray of light flashed across the sky above the Yanluo Clan's home planet as he stabbed out with his sword.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's fingers collided with Que's fingertip, directly shattering his fingers, arms, and body. Que's body was like mud and sand, shattering into smoke.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's sword only shattered Que's clothes, turning them into shreds of ribbons that fell to the ground.

"Just as I thought, a trap." Although he had expected this to happen, Zhang Ruochen was still a little depressed after it happened.

Que's robe clone sat in the carriage from start to finish. He didn't know where his original body was hiding in the city.

Such a big commotion naturally alarmed all the Yanluo cultivators in the city.

Whoosh

Whoosh

Eight light shadows descended in an instant, forming eight Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. They surrounded Zhang Ruochen in the center.

At the same time, the 17-story tower in the center of the city had dense array inscriptions. A thick pillar of light shot up. The pillar of light shot up to a height of 30,000 meters. It split into eight parts and fell down. It crashed into eight directions of the city where Zhang Ruochen was.

In this short period, the city was imprisoned. The eight light pillars held up an upside-down light bowl, turning this place into a cage.

The Yanluo Clan's quick reaction and thorough preparation surprised Zhang Ruochen.

However, he didn't panic.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the eight Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm standing in eight directions. He said calmly, "Won't Yan Huangtu and Yan Wushen come out personally? I'm afraid the eight of you won't be able to keep me."

"If Supreme Saint Ruochen underestimates them, I'm afraid you'll suffer a great loss. Be careful not to lose your life here."

A handsome young man, Xu, wore a loose black robe and held an ebony staff. He crossed the light wall of the array's membrane and walked 300 meters to Zhang Ruochen.

Although Zhang Ruochen retained Wu Wuji's appearance, the Yanluo Clan cultivators were able to deduce his true identity after he used the Power of Time, Dimension, and Truth?

Zhang Ruochen looked at the young man in front of him and asked, "Who are you?"

"Xi," he said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I didn't expect you to be so young, Xi, ranked 13th on the list of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Xi, isn't your real name? As far as I know, the word 'Xi' originated from ancient times."

"In ancient times, the Path of Wiccan was very popular, and there were many Wiccan cultivators."

"Women were called witches, and men were called warlocks."

Xi shook his head and smiled. "Supreme Saint Ruochen is very knowledgeable, and I admire you. Xi cultivates one of the Ten Deva Paths of the Yanluo Clan, the Deva Path of Great Wiccan. It was created by the ancestors of the Yanluo Clan based on the Path of Wiccan."

Xu ranked 13th was definitely not a simple character. With eight Supreme Saints of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and the help of the array, even with Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, he still felt great pressure.

Zhang Ruochen looked carefully at the eight cultivators standing in all directions again.

When they were fighting for the Saintwill pill, all eight of them showed up. However, their main focus at that time was to suppress the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. When Lan Ying attacked them from behind, they were all severely injured in an instant. It was impossible to judge their strength.

After careful observation, Zhang Ruochen's expression became more and more serious.

The eight of them breathed in and out in unison. Their auras intersected and weaved into a net. They were one and the same.

Xi said, "Of the eight of them, four of them cultivate The Book of Life and the other four cultivate The Book of Death. In the Yanluo Clan, they're called The Eight Sons of Life and Death. The Indestructible Great Array formed by the eight of them once trapped Yan Huangtu for ten days and ten nights.

"Supreme Saint Ruochen shouldn't have come to the home planet of the Yanluo Clan. You've become a pawn for Que."

Zhang Ruochen shrugged and smiled. "Will the Yanluo Clan let me go?"

"Of course not."

Xi said straightforwardly, "The fact that Supreme Saint Ruochen was able to defeat Wujiang and unite the Immortal Vampires demonstrates your desire to challenge the Yanluo Clan's supremacy.

"I have to say that the Immortal Vampires have indeed become one of the few opponents of the Yanluo Clan. Since Supreme Saint Ruochen is here, we must kill you even if we know that we are being used.

"As long as you die, the Immortal Vampires will not be a threat to the Yanluo Clan."

On a ship outside the city.

Que looked into the city and saw the array activated. The saint light shone for thousands of miles, he chuckled. "O' Zhang Ruochen, you think you've seen through my weakness in my state of mind, but you don't know that I deliberately let you see it. Only when you see my so-called weakness will you underestimate your enemy and fall into my trap.

"I hope you're stronger than I thought. How boring it would be if you died at the hands of the Yanluo Clan."

The ship moved away, leaving only a clear stream of water.

Yan Huangtu stood at the top of the 17-story tower in the city. Behind him sat 64 Array Masters of the Supreme Saint realm, six of whom were High-Saint Array Masters.

With his hands behind his back, Yan Huangtu looked at the city in the distance, he said coldly, “Bring me Xue Kai and Xue Ling. Allowing Que and Lan Ying to sneak in was already a big mistake. Yet Why was Zhang Ruochen able to break in? Was the defense of the Yanluo Clan’s home planet so weak?”

At every Celestial-Hunting Festival, the Yanluo Clan could control the overall situation no matter how big the challenge was.

But this time, as the strongest warrior of the Yanluo Clan, Yan Huangtu felt that he was more than capable. Even if all the powerhouses were sent back, he still felt that he could not control the situation.

Que, Lan Ying, and Zhang Ruochen were not easy to deal with. Each of them was more scheming than the other. They were powerful and had plans. It was difficult to deal with them.

They could turn the world upside down wherever they went with their abilities. A cultivator in a wide black cloak stood behind Yan Huangtu. There was no head, only two balls of spiritual fire dancing in the cloak.

The cloak emitted a hoarse voice, “Que came to our home planet to escape from you and Lan Ying. He wanted to comprehend the Path in peace so that he could refine the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Lan Ying came to our home planet to take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. However, besides coveting the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, Zhang Ruochen also came to our home planet intending to kill our clansmen. This person is the most dangerous.”

Yan Huangtu said, “Once the battle breaks out, a large number of Yanluo Clansmen will die. Que or Lan Ying, it’s the same. However, we can only kill one now.”

Chapter 2349 Breaking the Array

The Eight Sons of Life and Death's Indestructible Great Array might be powerful, but Zhang Ruochen was not alone. It might not be impossible to break the array if he released Lord Bladehell, Lady Wind, Lord Sinluo, and Yue Tinghai from the Violet Gourd.

However, this was the home planet of the Yanluo Clan. Not only did they have The Eight Sons of Life and Death and Xi, but they also needed Yan Huangtu, Yan Wushen, and a large number of Supreme Saints.

If Lady Wind and the others were released, the Yanluo Clan would definitely view him as their greatest enemy and would only mobilize stronger forces to deal with them.

Zhang Ruochen reverted to his true form and said, "Wu Wuji is still in my hands. Do you not care about his life or death?"

"If Supreme Saint Ruochen kills Wu Wuji, there will naturally be someone with the surname Wu to avenge him," said Xi.

As Xi said that, his eyes emitted a dark ray. He softly chanted two words, "Soul Capture."

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen's vision darkened and he felt dizzy.

Soul Capture was one of the most powerful techniques of the Path of Wiccan. With Xi's cultivation, if he wanted to, he could control all living beings within a radius of 10,000 kilometers and be controlled by him.

Xi's spiritual power was one of the best in the Yanluo Clan. It had reached the 65th level and was no weaker than Zhang Ruochen's.

That was why he could use the Path of Wiccan to influence Zhang Ruochen.

Whoosh

Whoosh

The Eight Sons of Life and Death, who had reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, all put their hands together. The power of the Path exploded from their bodies.

Four of them were covered in white light. Four of them were covered in black light.

The Power of Death and the Power of Life interweaved. Each of the eight was accompanied by a book. In addition, the book emitted both white and black light. A slew of enigmatic words jumped on it.

“The Indestructible Great Array is about to take shape. Zhang Ruochen’s defeat is already set. I didn’t expect to take him down so easily.” The cultivator in the wide black cloak on the 17th floor laughed hoarsely.

Yan Huangtu’s tensed nerves relaxed slightly, “Xi and The Eight Sons of Life and Death are working together. Even though I know them very well, I’m still afraid of them. Zhang Ruochen has never fought with them before and lacks vigilance. That’s why he was ambushed by Xi.

“Coming to the Yanluo Clan’s headquarters, even the Lan Ying and Que have to hide carefully. Zhang Ruochen exposed his tracks, so he’s doomed to die today,” said the cultivator in the wide black cloak.

Yan Huangtu did not let his guard down completely. His eyes stared at the array in the distance.

Xi chanted an ancient incantation. The ebony staff in his hand gave off a gray light.

Xi looked at the drowsy Zhang Ruochen and could not help but smile.

Killing Zhang Ruochen was something that many people wanted to do.

If Zhang Ruochen died in his hands, there would be endless benefits for him in the future.

All of a sudden, Zhang Ruochen’s eyes, which had been dull, opened wide and burst with a fierce and terrifying light. His whole body trembled as if he had been struck by lightning, and his brain hurt.

“Oh no, it’s a spiritual power attack. How could he attack me with spiritual power?” said Xi.

Xi didn’t expect Zhang Ruochen had already divided his Saint Soul into six parts. Although the Soul Capture technique was powerful, it could not target the six Saint Souls at the same time. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen was only slightly affected.

The reason why he looked sleepy just now was that he was waiting for an opportunity.

The more Xi wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen, the greater the flaw in his state of mind and the weaker the defense of his spiritual power.

Zhang Ruochen took advantage of the situation. His spiritual power of the 65th level erupted in full force. It flew out like thousands of needles and rushed into Xi’s body. Even though Xi was shocked in time, he was unable to completely block it. His spiritual power was severely harmed.

Xi’s face turned extremely pale. He took a few steps back.

‘Zhang Ruochen... Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power is actually not weaker than mine... how is this possible? This is impossible...’ Xi thought. He was shocked. He quickly adjusted his state of mind and recuperated from the spiritual power injury. Xi cultivated the Deva Path of Great Wiccan, and his spiritual power was far superior to Zhang Ruochen’s.

The main reason Xi was injured by Zhang Ruochen was his desire to win.

The more Xi wanted to kill his opponent, the bigger his weakness would be.

Zhang Ruochen did not continue to attack Xi. In his opinion, the biggest threat was still The Eight Sons of Life and Death. His hands formed palm prints and struck out like lightning toward a Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm in front of him.

After breaking 30 shackles, Zhang Ruochen’s Demigod-level physique released a large amount of divine power. As he struck out, the air instantly exploded with a thunderous sound.

The Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was calm and collected. The white Book of Life hovering above his head flipped quickly. His hands formed a mark to meet Zhang Ruochen's palm print.

Boom

The moment the palm prints collided, dense words flew out from the other seven books and rushed into the light of the Book of Life above the Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The combined power of The Eight Sons of Life and Death contained a certain degree of amplification.

Zhang Ruochen's palm seemed to hit an iron wall. The other side did not move at all, but he was thrown backward.

The Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm behind Zhang Ruochen took advantage of the situation and took a step forward. His right hand formed a finger print and poked at Zhang Ruochen's back.

Both his speed and strength had reached an incredible level.

He would be pierced through if he was hit by Zhang Ruochen's fingertip, no matter how strong Zhang Ruochen's physical body was. Swoosh

The space was distorted. The finger that was clearly aimed at his back pierced through Zhang Ruochen's armpit.

Zhang Ruochen twisted his body in mid-air. Using his arm as a sword, he slashed at the neck of the Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm with a brilliant light.

The body of the Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm suddenly shrank and turned into a streak of black light. He retreated to his original spot.

Zhang Ruochen's sword cut through the air.

In the other direction, another Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm seized the opportunity. He clenched his fist and shot out a thunderlight pillar as thick as a bucket.

The thunderlight pillar swooped down on Zhang Ruochen. It circled around Zhang Ruochen and flew back in the opposite direction, affected by the Profound Spatial Dimension. It collided with the Supreme Saint's fist in the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage.

Rumble

The exchange just now seemed to be one move after another.

In fact, their speed was extremely fast. Other than a few elites like Yan Huangtu, the other cultivators could only see human figures flashing. Lightning flashed and thunder roared. Ear-splitting sounds kept ringing.

Only the true elites understood the danger.

“Bell of Time.”

A large bell slowly condensed and formed from countless Mark of Time's light spots, spinning rapidly, with Zhang Ruochen's body as the center.

“Return to your positions.”

Any cultivator knew how terrifying the Power of Time was. The Eight Sons of Life and Death stopped attacking and returned to their positions. The power in their bodies burst out completely. They activated The Book of Death and The Book of Life above their heads.

BOOM!

The Bell of Time rang, and a large number of Mark of Time's light spots fell down. Together with the sound waves, they rushed in all directions like waves.

The light of The Book of Death and The Book of Life collided with the Mark of Time's light spots and quickly annihilated them.

BOOM!

The bell rang again.

Dense ancient characters flew out of The Book of Death and The Book of Life and collided with the Mark of Time's light spots. The two disappeared into nothingness once again.

BOOM!

BOOM!

The bell kept ringing, but the Mark of Time's light spots could not reach 900 meters away.

Xi's spiritual power recovered. He stood at the edge of the array and observed Zhang Ruochen in the Bell of Time, he said, "It's pointless. No power can break the Indestructible Great Array once it is activated. The Eight Sons of Life and Death can trap a Supreme Saint of the Banshi Isshou Realm for a moment, let alone you."

An eight or nine-year-old child stood in a city courtyard filled with seven-colored begonias. His entire body was bathed in silver light.

That boy was the number one powerhouse of the Asura, Lan Ying.

Lan Ying looked in the direction of the battle ripples and revealed an evil smile. "What a powerful Indestructible Great Array. The Eight Sons of Life and Death of the Yanluo Clan are not easy to deal with!"

Hong Futu was four meters tall and his blood-red muscles were exposed. He stood not far away and his fists were bigger than an ordinary person's head, he said in a deep voice, "That's only if they have the chance to form an array and surround their opponent. Only then can they unleash their strongest power."

Lan Ying nodded. "Que is more powerful than I thought. He actually found a scapegoat like Zhang Ruochen."

"No matter how powerful he is, he'll still be chased by us until he can only escape," said Hong Futu.

Lan Ying shook his head and said, "If he didn't have the Supreme Artifact, even if the two of us joined hands, we might not be his match. Que is very powerful. As long as I can devour him, I will definitely rise to a higher level.”

Hong Futu said, “Why don’t I devour Zhang Ruochen first? It is said that Zhang Ruochen has cultivated the Grade Two Saintwill. If I devoured him, I would definitely grow to be stronger than Que.”

“You’re probably right. However, Zhang Ruochen has fallen into the Indestructible Great Array. I’m afraid he has no chance of survival. What a delicious dish. I can only watch him be destroyed.” said Lan Ying. He shook his head and sighed.

Yan Huangtu’s spiritual power had always covered the entire city. Even if Lan Ying wanted to sneak attack The Eight Sons of Life and Death and let Zhang Ruochen out, the chance of success was slim.

Zhang Ruochen stood upright in The Indestructible Great Array, still calm and collected.

“Come out.”

Zhang Ruochen opened his left hand. A black droplet appeared above his palm. He said to himself, “I can only test your power.”

The black droplet was a Dark Space-time Matter.

BANG!

Zhang Ruochen’s five fingers shot out. He activated the Precepts of Time, Dimension, and a small number of Precepts of Darkness. The Precepts hit the Dark Space-time Matter. Instantly, the black droplet exploded and released a strong dark ray.

The entire world turned pitch-black in an instant.

The entire planet of the Yanluo Clan was covered by a black light screen at this moment. The outline of the star became dark and blurry.

The city where the Indestructible Great Array was located fell into an extremely dark state.

At the same time, the space expanded violently and attacked in all directions. The powerful space shock wave hit The Eight Sons of Life and Death. Even with the protection of the Indestructible Great Array, they were still thrown back.

“Oh no, this power...”

Xi gathered the ebony staff above his head. In front of him, a 10-meter-wide round Mark of Wiccan condensed. However, his body still flew out and fell into the ruins.

“The power of the Dark Space-time Matter in an instant is so powerful. Furthermore, I have only released about one-third of the power of Time, Dimension, and Darkness with my current enlightenment.”

With that in mind, Zhang Ruochen transformed into a ray of golden light and flew into the sky.

The Precepts of Dimension in his body surged out at the same time, condensing into dozens of swords and circling his body as he approached the light screen of the array.

Dozens of swords condensed from Power of Dimension merged together and stabbed out.

Wherever the sword tip passed, space shattered into pieces.

The Sword Qi ripped the space where the array’s light screen was torn apart with a bang, creating a massive hole.

Zhang Ruochen followed behind the Dimensional Sword and flew out.

The Dimensional Sword Dance was a spatial technique that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated in the Dark Star. It was harder to cultivate than the high-level saint technique of the Thousand-Koan level. Of course, this technique was extremely powerful and could break through anything.

Zhang Ruochen vanished after flying out of the array. It was almost as if he had vanished into thin air.

Yan Huangtu rushed to the city at the first moment. There was a vast area of ruins under his feet. It was filled with broken walls, and the ground was filled with potholes. It was pitch-black.

The dark power corroded the entire city and the area covered by the array.

“What happened just now? What power did Zhang Ruochen use?” Yan Huangtu shouted and questioned The Eight Sons of Life and Death and Xi.

Although The Eight Sons of Life and Death were blown away by the dimensional shock wave, their defense was strong and they were not seriously injured.

However, everyone was weak, as if they had aged hundreds of years in an instant.

With blood on the corner of his mouth, Xi crawled out of the ruins and said, “Darkness... Dimension... Time... is... is a Dark Space-time Matter. It was discovered by Zhang Ruochen. Cough, cough.”

Yan Huangtu’s figure flashed and came to Xi’s side. He pressed his palm on his back.

Divine Qi surged out of Yan Huangtu’s palm, helping Xi refine the Power of Darkness that had invaded his body.

Xi’s hair turned white, and his face looked like a dead person. He said, “It’s a liquid Dark Space-time Matter. Even though it’s just a drop, it expanded the space thousands of times in an instant. A speck of dust can expand to the size of a palace, or even larger.

“Even if the space around Zhang Ruochen expanded, the space shock wave that burst out could kill a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm in an instant.

“In addition, a large amount of Power of Time and a small amount of Power of Darkness gushed out. It must be because Zhang Ruochen’s Path of Darkness is still in its early stages, with little Power of Darkness in the Dark Space-time Matter.

“That’s why I’m still alive.”

Yan Huangtu's face turned ugly. He said, "If the Dark Space-time Matter is so terrifying, doesn't that mean Zhang Ruochen is invincible? Who can control him on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?"

Xi shook his head, "It's not that simple! Although the Dark Space-time Matter could erupt with unparalleled power in an instant, it was difficult to control this power. Just now, the space was so small. Zhang Ruochen was also in the attack range of the Dark Space-time Matter.

"If I'm right, Zhang Ruochen must be injured. And it's quite severe."

Chapter 2350 Communicating with Lan Ying

The entire city that was enveloped by the array had been razed to the ground. The Power of Darkness, Time, and Dimension had yet to completely dissipate.

This place had become a restricted area for cultivators below the Supreme Saint Realm.

Rumble

In the sky, the wind and clouds raged as a golden vortex with a diameter of more than 50 kilometers appeared.

The vortex stirred up a whistling hurricane and emitted a terrifying energy fluctuation, causing the members of the Yanluo Clan on the ground to keep quiet out of fear.

Yan Huangtu raised his head and looked over. His expression became even more unsightly as he roared, “Be on guard! Lead all the Yanluo clansmen away from the city!”

It was too late!

Swish

A Dimensional Tide erupted from the golden vortex, bringing with it countless Dimensional Rifts as it slammed towards the ground.

Rumble

Wherever the Dimensional Tide passed, buildings collapsed one after the other, streets were cut off, and the array’s light patterns were ripped apart... The entire city was then engulfed in thick black smoke, becoming deathly silent and dilapidated.

Countless Yanluo clansmen had died an unnatural death.

The defensive light barriers that the various Yanluo Clan’s Supreme Saints had erected only protected a small portion of their clansmen.

This was a war where there was no right or wrong. As long as you killed others and others killed you, everything would be bloody. To obtain the final victory, you had to be ruthless. There could be no mercy at all.

This was how the laws of the Infernal Court worked.

“Zhang... Ruo... chen...”

Violent waves of divine Qi surged out from the body of Yan Huangtu. Veins bulge on his face.

The ground beneath Yan Huangtu’s feet sank with a thud. He shot into the sky, wrapped in divine light, and punched at the golden vortex. The vortex was ripped apart, and the sky was shattered.

In the shattered vortex, Yan Huangtu didn’t find any trace of Zhang Ruochen. He disappeared again.

Lan Ying’s childish eyes flashed with surprise in the courtyard filled with seven-colored begonias. “As expected of the Master of Time and Space,” he said. “Zhang Ruochen can vanish without a trace. I can’t pick up on his presence.”

Lan Ying had some experience in the art of concealment.

When Lan Ying had seized the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, Lan Ying had avoided the perception of nearly 1,000 Supreme Saints of the Yanluo Clan. He had hidden inside them to successfully launch a sneak attack. If Que had not come out of nowhere, the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill would have been in his pocket long ago.

Hong Futu said, “What’s more terrifying is that he actually found the Dark Space-time Matter.”

Lan Ying’s face darkened.

Even if Lan Ying was hit, the destructive power of the Dark Space-time Matter would most likely injure him severely. Zhang Ruochen was nothing more than an ant in Lan Ying’s eyes before entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. With a stomp, he could kill him.

Lan Ying became more interested in Zhang Ruochen after learning that he had defeated Wujiang

At that moment, Lan Ying was finally afraid of Zhang Ruochen.

Lan Ying said, "If Zhang Ruochen hadn't revealed this trump card, I might have suffered a great loss when I fought with him. Now, even if he uses Dark Space-time Matter, he might not be able to hurt me.

"Senior Brother, your sense of smell is a thousand times better than an ordinary Supreme Saint's. Find Zhang Ruochen. Now is the best time to deal with him."

Hong Futu's human head cracked. It expanded several times and turned into a huge beast head.

Hong Futu's nose was shaped like a bull's. It took up one-third of the volume of the head. It was enormous. He inhaled deeply. Wisps of smell rushed into his body in an instant.

Suddenly, Hong Futu noticed something. His expression changed.

Lightning surged out of his blood-red muscles. Hong Futu was about to punch back with all his strength. He realized that Zhang Ruochen's presence was in this courtyard.

"Are you sure you want to do this here?" Zhang Ruochen's voice sounded out of nowhere.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't be seen in the courtyard. He spoke like a ghost.

"Stop!" said Lan Ying.

Lan Ying was very calm. His eyes shone with nine lights and eighteen colors. He locked onto one of the directions and looked across the pond. He laughed evilly and said, "Amazing. You found us!"

Hong Futu dispersed his power and stood beside the Lan Ying like an iron tower.

Hong Futu didn't dare to make a move here. After all, there were many Supreme Saints of the Yanluo Clan in the city. Once his position was exposed, it wouldn't be easy to escape.

Zhang Ruochen appeared by the pool bit by bit and became solid.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I can sense you when you're observing me. Even though you've hidden well, you can't hide from the Eye of Truth."

Lan Ying's lips were flushed and his teeth were pearly white. His skin was silver in color. "Then why didn't your Eye of Truth see through the trap?" he asked.

Zhang Ruochen hung the gourd on his waist. He looked free and easy. He said while smiling, "The Power of Oblivion can dissolve the Truth near itself into nothingness. It's like your eyes. They can see me, but they can't find it."

"You're walking into a trap by coming here. Do you really think we won't dare to attack? You have to understand that the Yanluo Clan wants to kill you more than us," Hong Futu said.

Zhang Ruochen provoked them with a gesture and said, "If I can escape from their attack once, I could do it again. What about you? Can you escape if The Eight Sons of Life and Death trap you in The Indestructible Great Array?"

Lan Ying's eyes turned dark. "You're already injured. How dare you talk so arrogantly?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Do injured people dare to come to you?"

Lan Ying looked at Zhang Ruochen with his hands behind his back.

If Lan Ying was certain that Zhang Ruochen was seriously injured, he would use the Supreme Artifact to suppress Zhang Ruochen as quickly as possible. Lan Ying would devour him before the Yanluo Clan's cultivators arrived.

Zhang Ruochen said casually, "Actually, there is no hatred between us. The two of you only wanted to kill me on the orders of Asurendra Samay."

"Asurendra Samay's orders are the reason why you must die," Hong Futu said.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Lan Ying and said, "But right now, the most important thing for us to do is to take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. If we don't act now, Que will swallow it.

“When that happens, his cultivation will surely rise to another level. No cultivator can keep him in check on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. You’ve been chasing him for so long. How can he let you go?”

Lan Ying’s eyes kept changing. He smiled and said, “Why are you sure Que will swallow the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill soon?”

“If I were him, I would definitely save the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill for after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. That way, I’ll have enough time to comprehend the Path. Maybe I’ll have a chance to condense a Grade Three Saintwill from a single Path.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Que is currently comprehending the Path of Water, and he has already reached a very deep level. Besides, you are wrong about one thing!”

“What is it?” asked Lan Ying.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Have you ever thought of trying to condense a Grade Three Saintwill from a single Path? Because it is almost impossible. He wants to condense the tenth Saintwill from the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.”

“The tenth Saintwill... ” Lan Ying muttered.

Lan Ying’s face became serious. The words “The tenth Saintwill” hit the softest spot of his heart.

Although the ninth Saintwill was called the limit of what a Supreme Saint could condense, the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was a rare treasure in the world.

Lan Ying thought, ‘If it helped, Que might really be able to condense the tenth Saintwill.

If Que succeeded, would his body transform even more?’

Zhang Ruochen said, “Do you still remember the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill that disappeared when we fought for the Saintwill Pill? I’m sure Que took it away.

“With the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, I can condense the tenth Saintwill.

“With the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, I can merge the tenth Saintwill into my flawed Grade Two Saintwill and become a top and complete Grade Two Saintwill. This day shouldn’t be far away.”

Lan Ying smiled. “So, you’re here to cooperate with me?”

“That’s right. At least we can deal with Que. Taking the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill is our common goal,” Zhang Ruochen said.

DUI

Lan Ying was obviously tempted. He asked, “Who should take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?”

“Whoever lives gets it. Didn’t you want to kill me? Once we’ve dealt with Que, we’ll decide who lives and who dies,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lan Ying’s lips twitched. He indicated Zhang Ruochen with his finger. “Good,” he said with a smile. “Your suggestion is appealing to me. However, I can sense that Que has left the city. It won’t be easy to find him.

“This planet is only so big. Where can he hide? Besides, the Yanluo Clan will help us find him. I’ll leave first. I’m afraid your location will be exposed soon. Yan Huangtu isn’t a simple person. He’ll find us here.

Before Lan Ying could finish his sentence, Zhang Ruochen’s body turned into a speck of light and disappeared into the air.

Hong Futu said in a deep voice, “Junior Brother, you don’t really believe him, do you?”

Lan Ying laughed. “Of course, I can’t trust Zhang Ruochen, but his words make sense. In many situations, we have to kill the strongest first. That’s why Que must die.”

“What about the Yanluo Clan? Perhaps they were even more terrifying than Que. Zhang Ruochen had grown to such a powerful level. Yan Wushen, who was as famous as him, wouldn’t lag too far behind. Yan Huangtu, Yan Wushen, and

The Eight Sons of Life and Death. With such a lineup, even Que must flee,” said Hong Futu Lan Ying said, “Yanluo Clan wants to deal with Zhang Ruochen the most, not us. Do you think I’ll really fight Zhang Ruochen to the death after I take care of Que? I only need to sell him to the Yanluo Clan to kill him.

“Let’s go. If Zhang Ruochen can find this place, so can Yan Huangtu. We shouldn’t stay here for long.”

Yan Huangtu appeared in the field of colorful begonias not long after Lan Ying and Hong Futu had left. His skin was as icy as ice.

Xi walked into the courtyard and asked, “Is this where Lan Ying and Hong Futu were hiding?

“When the Dimensional Tide swept down just now, only a few places were able to resist the power. This is one of them. Unfortunately, they have already left.”

Yan Huangtu’s expression was volatile. His heart was filled with anger, but he controlled himself with his will, telling himself to remain calm and restrained.

One had to cultivate his mind before cultivating a path.

One had to cultivate his spirit before cultivating a technique.

Xi said angrily, “What kind of place do these people think the Yanluo Clan’s home planet is? They come and go as they please. It’s really hateful.”

In all the Battles of Celestial-Hunting, the Yanluo Clan had never been touched before. The dignity of the Supreme Clan had been trampled on by Que, Lan Ying, and Zhang Ruochen. The Yanluo clan had lost a lot of faces!

Yan Huangtu said, “It seems that there is only one way to lure them all out and capture them all.”

“Which is?” asked Xi.

Yan Huangtu said thoughtfully, “The opportunities in the home planet of the Yanluo Clan.”

“This... is not very good, right? What if the opportunities in the home planet are really taken away by them?” said Xi. He was a little worried and felt that Yan Huangtu’s action was quite risky.

Xi quickly said, “In my opinion, I can send ten Supreme Saints to put all the people on our planet into their robes.”

“Then wouldn’t it be more convenient for Zhang Ruochen to kill people? Besides, can you guarantee that Zhang Ruochen is among the people? Or Lan Ying? Or Que?”

Yan Huangtu continued, “Don’t worry! Wushen had most likely taken the opportunity of the home planet. If we lure the ambitious Que, Zhang Ruochen, and Lan Ying into the underground, they’ll fight themselves first. We only need to harvest the rewards at the end.”

Xi said, “They’re all very smart. It won’t be easy to lure them into the inner parts of the home planet.”

“It’s precisely because they’re very smart and powerful that they’ll investigate even if they know it’s a trap,” said Yan Huangtu as he swayed his fingers and thought carefully.

After separating from Lan Ying and Hongfu Tu, Zhang Ruochen left the city and escaped to the bottom of the sea.

Using Dark Space-time Matter to break the array had indeed hurt him, and it was not light.

When he reached the bottom of the sea, he continued to descend and rushed into the mud and rocks tens of thousands of meters deep. After setting up a Cloaking Array, he spat out a mouthful of black blood.

It was the uncontrollable Power of Darkness that had backfired on him.

The impact of the Power of Time and Dimension on him had almost been resolved by him.

Using the power of the Divine Purification Flame and the Heart of the Divine Tree, Zhang Ruochen refined all the Power of Darkness in his body. Although his injuries had not fully recovered, he was no longer in serious danger.

‘I should be more careful when using Dark Space-time Matter in the future,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Walking out of the array, Zhang Ruochen thought carefully. He didn’t return to the ground immediately. Instead, he rushed deeper into the planet’s core, intending to find opportunities in the planet of the Yanluo Clan.

Since he was already here, he had to give it a try.

With his current cultivation, he could maintain an extremely fast speed even in the depths of the planet.

To his surprise, the geological structure of the home planet of the Yanluo Clan had no other space apart from being very hard. It was completely different from the home planet of Ghost and the home planet of Immortal Vampires.

After two hours, Zhang Ruochen flew out of the deep sea on the other side of the planet and floated on the surface of the sea.

‘How can this be? This shouldn’t be! Is the opportunity of the home planet of the Yanluo Clan not in the planet’s core?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t dare to use his spiritual power to investigate. He was afraid that the Supreme Saint of the Yanluo Clan would find out. Thus, he gave up on the idea of continuing to look for opportunities. He planned to go to the city on the home planet to get information first.

After such a long time, the Yanluo Clan couldn’t just sit around and wait to die. They should have been making a move now!

Chapter 2351 Yan Zhexian

Wind-gather Island was the fifth largest island on the planet. It housed up to 10 million Yanluo clansmen.

The Yanluo clansmen were born with great strength. Even mortals could lift an elephant with one hand. Naturally, there were many cultivators among them.

Zhang Ruochen discovered a teahouse on a simple dock shortly after arriving on the island. He drank bitter, slightly hot tea from a thick porcelain bowl.

The tea was very ordinary.

Zhang Ruochen, on the other hand, calmed down after consuming it. He reflected on his initial decision to pursue cultivation.

Without so many grudges, the oppression that kept falling on him, and the special background of the “Crown Prince of Shengming” or the “Ninth Prince,” he should have been able to live a peaceful life in his previous life.

Instead, he had come to this planet to rob, kill, and kill a group of low-realm cultivators and mortals who bore no ill will toward him.

They were all things he had to do, but they were not the things he most wanted to do.

He didn’t know when he had become like this. It seemed that he had gone against his original intention. Where would he go next?

Zhang Ruochen looked at the tea-yellow water in the bowl.

He was so unfamiliar with the water that he did not recognize it!

Gulp

After finishing the bowl, Zhang Ruochen collected his emotions and his eyes became extremely sharp. He still had to take the next route.

He had no way to retreat. If he took a step back, he would be smashed into pieces.

Whoosh

100 spiritual power light spots flew out of Zhang Ruochen's body and landed in different areas of Wind-gather Island. They turned into 100 Spirit avatars of him.

Soon, in a small city, one of his Spirit avatars heard two Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints on the island talking about something that caught his attention.

"Buddha's light has appeared in the North Pole. It shines for thousands of miles. It seems that the opportunity of our planet has appeared. Yan Wushen will most likely take it away."

"I heard there's a Rainbow Bridge of Buddha's light that has appeared in the North Pole, spanning across the glacier continent. The sound of Buddha's chant is coming from underground, just like the voices of ten thousand buddhas."

"In the beginning, Yan Huangtu guessed that the fortuitous encounter on our planet might be a Buddha sarira. After all... that place has a dense Buddha aura, and its quality is shockingly high. There are also images of Buddha and Bodhi trees."

"Don't you know that there is the latest news?"

"What latest news?"

CV

The voice whispered, "It is said that the supreme treasure of Buddhism, the Bright Kannati, may also be there."

At first, Zhang Ruochen was still listening carefully.

However, when Zhang Ruochen heard about "Buddha Sarira" and "Bright Kannati", he smiled and gently shook his head.

Buddhism had been around for tens of thousands of years. There were, however, only six people who could be called "Buddha."

The last Buddha was called the Sixth Buddha by all the Buddhists in the world. He died during the last Yuanhui period, before the establishment of the Celestial Court.

From then on, there was no longer a Buddha in the world.

The Sixth Buddha passed away and left behind 84,000 sariras. They were Buddha sariras and supreme treasures of Buddhism. The bodhisattvas and Buddhas in the Buddha sect wanted to obtain one and use it to comprehend the wondrous technique of reaching the realm of Buddha.

However, out of the 84,000 sariras, 83,990 of them turned into a Bright Kannati the moment they were born. Only ten of the sariras of Buddha were left in the ten sacred grounds of the Buddha sect.

How could a treasure like the sariras of Buddha end up in the Infernal Court?

The Bright Kannati, on the other hand, was said to be made up of more than 83,990 Buddha's sariras. Someone later refined it into a Buddha Artifact using an unknown method.

As a weapon, the power of the Bright Kannati was comparable to a Divine Artifact.

As a Buddha's treasure, it could help all Buddhists in the world to cultivate and comprehend the Path.

As the crystallization of the Buddha's sariras, it could open up civilization, make all living beings intelligent, and make all living beings spiritual.

It could be said that the Bright Kannati was a treasure more precious than a Divine Artifact.

'The Buddha's sarira and the Bright Kannati. It seems that Yan Huangtu wants to use them as bait to lure me, Lan Ying, and Que to the Northern Glazier Continent.' Zhang Ruochen withdrew his Spirits and thought so.

He could see that this was a trap, but he could not suppress the palpitations in his heart. He could not help but look north.

A faint golden glow indeed appeared in the northern sky.

If there was anything better than swallowing Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills to comprehend a single top-tier Saintwill, it would have to be a Buddha's sarira.

If there was anything better than swallowing Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills to aid in Saintwill integration, it had to be the Bright Kannati.

Yan Huangtu had seen that for Zhang Ruochen, Lan Ying, and Que, cultivating the Saintwill and integrating the Saintwill were the most important things. That was why he had released this news.

If they didn't go, they would be restless and unable to enter the state of cultivation.

"Okay! To integrate the Grade One Saintwill, even if this news is only one in ten thousand, I have to go," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well how difficult his path was now. He could not let go of any opportunity.

He cut a bloody mark on his right index finger. A drop of Supreme Saint's blood dripped from it and fell into the tea bowl.

The water in the tea bowl boiled and turned into a ball of Blood Qi.

The Blood Qi condensed into another Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's clone soared into the sky and flew north.

The two Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints guarding Wind-gather Island sensed Zhang Ruochen's clone when it flew over their heads. The two looked at each other and were about to send a voice transmission to Yan Huangtu.

Suddenly.

Rumble

Wind-gather Island stretched for over a thousand miles. A terrifying spatial pressure crushed it. Mountains and rivers collapsed, causing the ground to sink.

The mountains turned into flat land. All the buildings were crushed.

A moment later, the entire island sank to the bottom of the sea. Many Yanluo clansmen were buried alive. What was more terrifying was that they didn't even know where their enemies were until they died.

"Whoa! What... What just happened?"

"Is the planet destroyed?"

At the dock, the Yanluo clansmen who were carrying goods were so scared that they sat on the ground.

They had seen the scene of the sky falling and the earth-shattering with their own eyes. Except for this dock, everything else had become a part of the sea.

The tea-maker in the tea shed was trembling. He stared at Zhang Ruochen, who was still sitting on the bench.

Zhang Ruochen had been calm and indifferent from the beginning to the end.

However, the tea-maker saw with his own eyes that when Zhang Ruochen raised his hand and pressed it down again, a vast land disappeared in front of him.

"It's... It's you... You Devil..." the tea-maker said with trembling lips and extreme fear.

Zhang Ruochen stood up. He wanted to pay and leave but found that he didn't have any money on him. So, he pulled a strand of hair from his head and put it on the table. He said, "This counts as tea money!"

He turned around and was about to fly away.

The tea-maker mustered up his courage and asked angrily, "Why don't you kill us too?"

Zhang Ruochen looked up at the sky and was silent for a while. He said, "What I can see in front of me are still living people. What I can't see, they are already ants."

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen had already left when a golden light flashed.

The tea-maker climbed up from the ground with difficulty and looked at the strand of hair on the table.

“One hair for tea money. Who... Who does he think he is?”

The tea-maker's finger touched Zhang Ruochen's hair. Suddenly, an unbearable power of the Path surged into his body.

CRASH!

Two Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan flew up from the bottom of the sea. Both of them were seriously injured.

“Quick, send a message to Yan Huangtu. Wind-gather Island has been sunk by Zhang Ruochen. He's heading north.”

The North Pole of the Yanluo Clan's home planet was originally a glacial continent. But now, most of the ice that was thousands of meters thick had melted, revealing black soil and rocks.

The air was cold.

The sky was covered by golden clouds. Beams of light shot straight down from the gaps between the clouds.

Zhang Ruochen landed on the continent and listened carefully. He vaguely heard the Buddha's chant coming from afar.

There was more than one person who chanted.

Zhang Ruochen thought, ‘The Buddha Qi is so strong. My spiritual power has obviously increased after breathing and exhaling. Yan Wushen and Yan Huangtu couldn't create such a treasure land. It seems that the opportunity of the Yanluo Clan's home planet is here.

‘A place with dense Buddha Qi must have a spiritual treasure of heaven and earth. After swallowing it, I should be able to increase my spiritual power.’

Zhang Ruochen released his spiritual power as he moved forward.

The deeper he went into the continent, the thicker the Buddha Qi became. It was shocking. If he didn't know that he was in Infernal Court, Zhang Ruochen would have thought that he was in a Buddha sacred ground.

The precepts of heaven and earth had changed greatly. With Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, he could only activate the Precepts in him. He couldn't activate the power of the precepts of heaven and earth.

Apart from that, a lock appeared in the space.

"Why is there a lock? Did I come to a Buddha's realm?"

Zhang Ruochen was a little excited, but he was also extra cautious.

What he was hoping for was that such an incredible Buddha realm would contain a Buddhist Sect treasure.

He was concerned that, because there was a Path lock, the Yanluo Clan had set up an impenetrable net on this continent. The road ahead was fraught with peril.

The so-called "Path Lock" was the Shackle of Deva Path.

The Shackle of Deva Path was the same as the shackles in a cultivator. It would imprison a cultivator's power. Some would imprison the physical body, some would imprison the Saint Soul, and some would imprison the spiritual power.

The more Shackles of Deva Path, the greater the suppression of a cultivator.

Generally speaking, there were many shackles in a god's divinity. They were the shackles formed by the gods' own Path.

A towering mountain appeared in front.

The shape of the mountain was like a huge sleeping Buddha that was hundreds of miles long.

Above the mountain, the golden clouds were brilliant.

Zhang Ruochen, standing 500 miles away, gazed at the sleeping Buddha. He was stunned and filled with an inexplicable sense of awe. He was even more convinced that this location was extraordinary. There has to be a huge opportunity here.

“Zhang Ruochen, I’ve been waiting for you here for a long time!”

A graceful figure emerged from behind an ice and snow-covered hill in front of him.

It was a young lady in her early twenties. She was dressed in white and looked stunning. She had long black hair and held a meter-long brush.

She looked very elegant and had the aura of a scroll.

Her temperament was similar to that of Divine Scripture Maiden.

However, there was a bit of heroic spirit and coldness about her.

Although this woman hadn’t reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and had only broken 99 shackles, Zhang Ruochen felt a sense of danger from her.

Today, there were less than ten people on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting who could make him feel danger.

“Who are you?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“Yan Zhexian of the Yanluo Clan,” she said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I’ve read about you. You’re the most powerful spiritual power genius of the Yanluo Clan in this generation. You’ve received guidance from the Supreme Leader.” “Is that all you know about me?” Yan Zhexian asked.

Zhang Ruochen observed her carefully and he said, “You are less than 300 years old this year. You should be proficient in Talismans, right? Your spiritual power should have just reached level 65. I guess your spiritual power broke through because you got an opportunity here.”

“It seems that you have some insight. It’s not unreasonable for Yan Wushen to regard you as the number one enemy,” said Yan Zhexian.

She continued, “Unfortunately, you shouldn’t have barged into the home planet of the Yanluo Clan alone, much less start a massacre. You should be aware that in history, people as daring as you have all died without a place to be buried. You are no exception.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Can you make me die without a burial place?”

Yan Zhexian picked up the brush in her hand and pointed it at Zhang Ruochen. “I am more than capable.”

Boom

Zhang Ruochen stood still. Dense Dimensional Rifts flew out from his body. Like dozens of blades dancing, he slashed at Yan Zhexian.

Affected by the Path Lock, even a Supreme Saint couldn’t unleash the destructive power of something shocking here.

Yan Zhexian shook her wrist. Her brush resembled a swiping dragon. She drew a round-shaped rune quickly.

Instantly, dense light patterns wrapped around her body.

BOOM!

The Dimensional Rift hit the light patterns and disappeared.

“Heaven-halberd!”

Yan Zhexian’s slender figure flew up and waved her brush toward Zhang Ruochen.

The stroke turned into a halberd and shot out like a shooting star.

The halberd pierced Zhang Ruochen’s body with a bang. He disintegrated into a wisp of Blood Qi and dispersed in the air.

Yan Zhexian’s eyes were cold. She raised her voice and said, “Zhang Ruochen, I know that your real body is nearby. Why don’t you show yourself?”

“I have to say, the Yanluo Clan is indeed full of powerhouses. There are hidden dragons and crouching tigers. They are more powerful than I thought.” Zhang Ruochen’s voice sounded.

Zhang Ruochen appeared out of thin air. He walked toward Yan Zhexian with his hands behind his back and said, “But, aren’t you underestimating me by coming to deal with me alone?”

“Of course, I won’t be alone. But if you can’t even defeat me, they don’t have to show themselves,” said Yan Zhexian. Her eyes were full of confidence. Her beautiful figure seemed even more breathtaking.

She wasn’t afraid of a powerhouse like Zhang Ruochen. Instead, she was happy.

The joy was hidden in her heart.

“Seal Talisman-World.”

Yan Zhexian held a brush in her hand and wrote the word “World” in midair and it flew toward Zhang Ruochen.

In the eyes of outsiders, it was the word “World.” A magnificent world was pressing down on Zhang Ruochen’s eyes. This world was extremely real, and it gave him substantial pressure. It did not seem like an illusion at all.

Chapter 2352 Flowers Dancing in the Mortal Realm and The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha

The world condensed by the Talisman was vast and boundless, covering Zhang Ruochen's field of vision. The terrifying and peerless power seemed to want to kill him and bury him under the thick soil.

The attacker wished to seize Zhang Ruochen's soul first before killing him.

Zhang Ruochen's protective Saint Qi was deformed by the Talisman's world. He could not control his body and slid backward.

BANG!

His feet sagged. He was standing on the ground. The Profound Spatial Dimension of 300 meters in width appeared out of nowhere.

He spread his hands and drew a dustpan-like shape. Then he quickly closed them and formed two palm prints.

ROAR!

The dragon elephant roar resounded throughout heaven and earth.

Three dragon and three elephant souls flew out at the same time. They combined with the power of the Palm from the two palm prints and clashed with the Talisman's world.

An earth-shattering explosion spread out from Zhang Ruochen's palm.

The Talisman's world was shattered by the power of the Palm and disintegrated.

However, the moment the Talisman's world was shattered, the shock wave exploded and sent Zhang Ruochen flying dozens of miles again.

Zhang Ruochen's body was as light as a leaf thanks to the Profound Spatial Dimension's protection. He landed on the ground without leaving a trace of dust. He fixed his gaze on Yan Zhexian, who was as beautiful as a graceful fairy and hovered in the sky. He thought, 'What a powerful Talisman technique. A talisman is more powerful than a Nine Stratum Array. In the last thousand years in the Infernal Court, is there a Talisman Master more powerful than her?'

Lord Xia Yu's Talisman abilities were far inferior to hers, at least as a Talisman Master.

Of course, no matter how powerful Yan Zhexian's Talisman technique was, Zhang Ruochen was not afraid. He was only filled with a strong sense of surprise.

It had to be known that it took a long time for an Array Master to set up a Nine Stratum Array. As a Talisman Master, Yan Zhexian did not spend much time. He could reach the power of a Nine Stratum Array just by drawing a "World" talisman.

Any Supreme Saint would be shocked by such a strange thing

There were only two explanations.

The first was that Yan Zhexian's spiritual power was far greater than the 65th level, allowing her to summon a great talisman in an instant to fight against Zhang Ruochen, a top-tier powerhouse comparable to the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

The second was that Yan Zhexian had spent a lot of time drawing the talisman in advance and hiding it on her body. At this moment, she only drew the talisman out.

Talismans were easier to preserve than arrays. Zhang Ruochen felt that the second explanation was more likely.

It was already shocking that Yan Zhexian could reach the 65th level of spiritual power at her age. After all, many gods' spiritual power hadn't reached the 70th level.

If her spiritual power reached the level of a god, how shameful would it be for the gods whose spiritual power was still at the 60th level?

Zhang Ruochen could reach the 65th level in a short time, but he had obtained Sundials, Apex Intergold Qi, Heart of the Divine Tree... all kinds of opportunities. Each of these opportunities was extremely precious and was a treasure that even gods hoped to obtain.

Yan Zhexian's achievements in spiritual power and Talisman had reached a level that even Zhang Ruochen was amazed by.

However, even in the second case, it was not an easy thing

Because the more powerful the talisman, the more precious materials were needed to refine the talismans that could bear it. Not only was it difficult to refine the talisman, but the ink needed to draw the talisman also had high requirements.

In the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, it was not easy for Yan Zhexian to solve these two points.

High-Saint Talisman Master and High-Saint Array Master could be very powerful or very weak. As long as they were given enough time and materials and were well prepared, there was almost no upper limit to the combat power they could unleash.

On the contrary, if they did not have enough time and materials, their combat power would be greatly reduced.

SWISH!

The Talisman's world was shattered. Yan Zhexian's expression didn't change. She was as rock-solid as a mountain. She carried out the second round of attacks. As she danced, her posture sagged. The brush in her hand was like a dragonfly skimming the water. She kept tapping out and condensing Heaven-halberd talismans.

Each talisman was a Heaven-halberd.

The Heaven-halberd turned into dense black dots with the force of ten thousand arrows piercing the heart. It hit Zhang Ruochen on the ground.

Zhang Ruochen didn't dodge. He spread out his ten golden wings. They turned into a streak of golden light and met the Heaven-halberd rain.

Yan Zhexian finally looked surprised. She hadn't expected Zhang Ruochen to be so brave. She treated her Heaven-halberd talismans as if they were nothing. BOOM! BOOM!

The progenitor's blood patterns on the ten golden wings gave off a crimson light. Like a sky-splitting golden saber, they shattered the Heaven-halberds.

Heaven-halberd talismans weren't talismans prepared in advance, but with Yan Zhexian's attainments in talisman techniques, each talisman could pose a threat to the Supreme Saint.

Zhang Ruochen destroyed them one by one like a paper butterfly. He arrived in front of Yan Zhexian.

"Take this!" Zhang Ruochen shouted.

He threw out a punch. Dense Precepts of Fist flowed along his arm and towards his five fingers.

An illusory Celestial River appeared naturally. It circled around Zhang Ruochen's back and gave off a majestic aura.

With Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, he could use the Luoshui Fist Technique with all his strength. Even powerful figures like the Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong might not be able to take it.

Yan Zhexian did not dare to take it head-on. For a spiritual power Supreme Saint who specialized in Talisman, such a close distance and such a powerful attack was already a fatal threat.

However, her mental quality was strong. She remained calm in the face of change. She reached out the brush in her hand and drew a huge circle with a diameter of 120 feet. The circle contained the Qi of absorption.

The Luoshui Fist Technique looked soft, but it was actually very domineering. It seemed like it would never return.

However, when Zhang Ruochen wanted to break all of Yan Zhexian's defenses with one punch, his body was pulled into the circle. His vision darkened. When he regained his vision again, he found that he had returned to his original position and was still standing on the ground.

Boom

The punch hit the ground, causing sand and stones to fly and black dust to roll up.

Zhang Ruochen understood what had happened. The circle that Yan Zhexian had drawn was similar to the Spatial Wormhole Mirror. It had transported him from one space coordinate to another and neutralized his Fist technique effortlessly.

It was a Spatial Wormhole Mirror created by the Talisman technique. It was extremely brilliant.

Zhang Ruochen finally saw clearly that Yan Zhexian's talisman was hidden in the jade-green sacred brush in her hand. That brush was extraordinary and contained endless mysteries.

No one knew how many talismans she had kept in the brush?

"So you wanna play using Power of Dimensions. I'll play with you then," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's tone was cold. He looked up and saw Yan Zhexian dancing like a fairy.

The ink on the tip of the brush turned into a rain of flowers.

The sky turned dark red under the influence of the talisman.

A beautiful flower flew down from the dark red clouds.

The strange flower was very similar to the legendary Moon Crimsonia. Its petals were like silk and there were thousands of threads. Yan Zhexian stood in the center of the Moon Crimsonia and continued to draw the inscription of the Talisman technique. Suddenly, more flowers appeared in the sky, turning hundreds of miles into a sea of flowers.

The sea of flowers kept sinking, and the pressure of heaven and earth kept increasing. It pressed down on Zhang Ruochen from all directions.

'What is this?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen held up the 300-meter-wide Profound Spatial Dimension to resist the pressure of heaven and earth. He looked at the beautiful sea of flowers in the sky. It was simply a scene of beauty in the human world.

Unfortunately, it contained the killing intent of death. The more beautiful it was, the more it killed people.

“Flowers dance in the human world to mourn for all living things.” Yan Zhexian chanted.

Yan Zhexian continued, “If you cast this technique elsewhere, the flowers of the Moon Crimsonia would be like the bright moon shining in the sky. The brilliance could shine for 100,000 miles and the sea of flowers could stretch for 30,000 miles. Unfortunately, here, you can only see 800 miles of the sea of flowers because of the influence of the Path Lock.”

Yan Zhexian’s voice was beautiful and vast like a song.

“A beautiful woman like you should be able to dance in the world of flowers. Not doing things like mournfully bury people,” said Zhang Ruochen.

A world-shaking saint might burst out from Zhang Ruochen. Tens of millions of Precepts of Dimension surged out crazily. In an instant, the Profound Spatial Dimension grew from 900 meters in diameter to 90,000 meters in diameter.

The Moon Crimsonia and Yan Zhexian fell into the Profound Spatial Dimension.

To reach 3 kilometers of the Profound Spatial Dimension, one had to integrate the Saint Aspect of Dimension into it. The Profound Spatial Dimension was very unstable and could collapse at any time.

In the past, Zhang Ruochen would only use this move when he was in a life-and-death situation.

But now, as his spatial attainments became more and more advanced, Zhang Ruochen became more and more familiar with the control of the Profound Spatial Dimension. It will be the norm in the future.

“Dancing in the world is beautiful and moving. Please take a look at my sword dance, Lady Yan.” “Dimensional Sword Dance.”

In the Profound Spatial Domain, invisible swords appeared. Only Supreme Saints with spiritual power could detect them. They were swords that had been condensed from dimension. There were a total of 36 of them.

The dimensional swords were like wind blades in the air and ice blades in the water.

The moment Yan Zhexian landed in the Profound Spatial Dimension, her face turned pale. She quickly bit her arm and used her saint blood to dye her white brush hair.

Swoosh

36 dimensional swords interwoven into a sword net and slashed at her.

Boom Boom

Yan Zhexian drew a blood talisman. While blocking the dimensional swords, she rode the Moon Crimsonia and fled out of the Profound Spatial Dimension.

Zhang Ruochen's fingers on the sword suddenly closed.

36 dimensional swords combined into one. They pierced through the blood talisman and the Moon Crimsonia and flew past Yan Zhexian.

The sharp sword Qi tore through dimension and her skin.

Yan Zhexian flew out and fell to the ground in a sorry state. Blood dripped from her neck, dyeing half of her white dress red. The sea of flowers in the sky was attacked by the Power of Dimensions. The flowers withered and disappeared into specks of light. The dimensional swords split into 36 again. They flew back to the 10,000-meter Profound Spatial Dimension and floated around Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen walked forward. The sword followed him like a shadow.

"It turns out that you're no match for me. But you're indeed very strong. To be able to survive the dimensional swords, you're at least two levels stronger than Xu and Supreme Saint Yanhong who don't have a Supreme Artifact."

Yan Zhexian stood up straight and looked at Zhang Ruochen coldly. She said, “Don’t talk to me like a victor. This battle has just begun. You’ll definitely fall at my feet later.”

Whoosh

Figures appeared around Zhang Ruochen with white sigils in their hands.

There were a total of 61 Supreme Saints. Each of them had spiritual power over level 60. They had all cultivated Talisman.

Yan Zhexian’s appearance was even more heroic than before. The jade-green brush in her hand became 3 meters long. It turned into a spear and struck the ground. Instantly, the earth shook violently and space shook violently.

Rumble

The mountains broke through the soil and rose up.

Yan Zhexian’s red lips were as bright and clear as gemstones. He said, “All the Talisman cultivators of the Yanluo clan are here. Together with me, we have prepared a large talisman to kill you.”

“The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha.”

There were 62 Supreme Saint Talisman Masters, including Yan Zhexian, who continued to carve Talisman inscriptions.

Some of the Talisman inscriptions flew into the sky, while others fell to the ground.

Seven mountain peaks rushed out of the ground.

Each of them was ferocious and angry. They took the form of ghost spirits. They became higher and higher, and their power became more and more shocking. They squeezed Zhang Ruochen’s Profound Spatial Dimension until it was only 300 meters in diameter.

It was getting smaller and smaller. Obviously, the Talisman Masters of the Yanluo Clan had tampered with this area and combined it with their Talisman.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen wasn't arrogant enough to fight against dozens of Supreme Saint Talisman Masters on his own. Besides, Yan Zhexian was in charge of the Talisman array.

The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha sealed off the seven directions.

IIS.

Each evil spirit released a powerful spiritual power and looked down at Zhang Ruochen.

"I must not let The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha take shape. Otherwise, I will die today."

Zhang Ruochen controlled the 36 dimensional swords and turned them into a streak of golden light. He rushed to the most powerful position of the Talisman Array, which was where Yan Zhexian was.

'How does Zhang Ruochen know that my position is the strongest and weakest point of The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha?' Yan Zhexian thought.

ver

Yan Zhexian was about to mobilize the power of The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha Talisman, but he was surprised to find that Zhang Ruochen's body had made a space jump and arrived in front of her in an instant. The dimensional sword pierced her glabella.

"It can't be!" Yan Zhexian said.

Yan Zhexian had seen the power of the dimensional sword and knew that she could never resist it. She sighed in her heart. Zhang Ruochen was indeed as outstanding as Yan Wushen. It was not unjustified for her to die under his sword.

The dimensional sword broke through the runes and pierced through her glabella.

However, she didn't die. She wasn't even injured. There was only a hint of coolness between her eyebrows. The dimensional sword was like a breeze blowing across her snow-white forehead. It didn't contain any lethality. Yan Zhexian touched her glabella with her fingers in disbelief.

Zhang Ruochen actually let her go? He could have killed her with a single strike, but he turned the dimensional sword back into space at the last moment.

Zhang Ruochen had already flown over her head. Like a heavenly dragon, like a swan goose, and like a cloud, he rushed toward the Reclining Buddha Hill. On the golden ground, he turned into a blood-red dot.

“Zhang Ruochen, there are 270 Supreme Saints of the Yanluo Clan guarding this place. Even if you can turn the world upside down, you will die without a burial place,” shouted Yan Zhexian as she stared at the blood-red dot in the distance.

“Thank you for the reminder.”

Zhang Ruochen’s indifferent voice was blown back in the wind.

The blood-red dot disappeared into the air as if it had been swept away by the wind.

A Supreme Saint Talisman Master came to Yan Zhexian’s side, he said, “Zhang Ruochen is too terrifying. Although The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha hasn’t formed yet, it isn’t something a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint can split apart with a single sword. But he did it.”

“What do we do now?” Another Supreme Saint Talisman Master asked.

Yan Zhexian’s gaze was cold. The jade-green brush shrunk and inserted itself into the silk belt. “The road to the Dracopent Temple isn’t that easy. Let’s chase after him. We have to stop him no matter what.”

She raised her head and looked at the golden buddha light that was swallowed by the black clouds. “The sky has changed. Has Yan Wushen taken the opportunity?”

A lightning bolt flashed across the sky. The sky darkened completely, and the Buddha’s light was swallowed up by it.

BOOM!

Then, a deafening thunder sounded. It was unknown whether the sound came from the sky or from the ground.

Chapter 2353 The Twenty Devas

This world was originally as peaceful as the purified land of the Buddhist kingdom. However, black clouds covered the ground and lightning flashed at that moment. The entire space began to boil.

It was as if an evil demon had invaded the Buddhist kingdom.

Drip-drop!

Black raindrops fell, causing the pitch-black world to become even darker and colder.

The wind blew on the ground with a chilling whistle.

The raindrops were as heavy as saint iron. When they landed, they left deep holes in the hard ground.

A drop of rain was like an arrow.

The purified land of the Buddhist kingdom suddenly became extremely dangerous.

Zhang Ruochen held up the Class Two Regal Artifact, Metal Parasol. He stood in the rain and looked ahead.

In his field of vision, it was hazy and dim.

The curtain of rain was like intermittent lines that fell from the sky to the ground.

Most of the raindrop lines were black, but occasionally, a golden line would appear. When it landed on the ground, the hole it created was bottomless and contained the penetrating power that could kill a saint.

Zhang Ruochen felt a strong sense of danger. If it weren't for the faint Buddhist light in the temple on the Reclining Buddha, he might not have wanted to continue forward.

“What is this place? Is it the Buddhist kingdom or the demonic realm?”

The path to the Reclining Buddha Hill was difficult to traverse.

To climb the mountain was even more difficult.

The Path Locks between heaven and earth were even denser. Even with Zhang Ruochen's cultivation as a Supreme Saint, he felt that the path to the mountain was very difficult to traverse.

Whoosh

A Death's Door flew through the rain not far from Zhang Ruochen.

It appeared to be a door, but it was actually a five or six-meter-long Dimensional Rift. The rift flew very fast. On the other side, the Power of Oblivion spread out.

Boom

Another demonic thunder hit the cliff, cutting down the huge rocks the size of houses and falling down the mountain.

CAW! CAW!

A strange and cold cry came from a copper tree. On the tree, there was a crow with blood-red feathers. Its eyes were like human eyes. When it stared at Zhang Ruochen, it had a bloodthirsty look.

It flapped its wings and flew toward Zhang Ruochen. It screamed sharply, "Blood! Blood! Blood..."

"I haven't even sucked any blood yet, and you want to suck my blood?"

said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen raised his hand and pointed. A strong and absolute Yang finger power turned into sword qi and flew out.

The blood-red crow flapped its wings and turned from one to a group. They rushed toward Zhang Ruochen from all directions.

The finger sword only killed three of them.

"I can't believe it can split into two," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. The white Divine Purification Flame spread out from his body and formed a huge fireball.

The blood-red crows hit the fireball and their feathers burned.

Boom

The fireball expanded with space and turned into a shockwave. It was like an autumn wind sweeping away fallen leaves. All the crows were sent flying and their bodies shattered.

Only one blood-red crow escaped and flew into the darkness.

There were too many dangers in the darkness. Zhang Ruochen didn't chase after it. He muttered to himself, "There are Nine-lives Blood Ravens of Thousand-Koan Realm here. It really isn't a treasured land of the Buddha realm."

Since it was a place to store opportunities, how could it not be dangerous?

Ordinary people couldn't reach a place of opportunity.

Zhang Ruochen held the parasol and continued to climb higher. The only sacred ground on Reclining Buddha Hill was the copper temple atop the Buddha's head.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen was standing outside the copper temple. There were 384 bronze stairs in front of him. It was magnificent. If he climbed it, he could reach another world.

Faintly, he could see the outline of the bronze temple and the thick bronze pillars in front of the temple.

Zhang Ruochen climbed the stairs one step at a time.

There were fresh bloodstains on the stairs. There were remnants of sacred artifacts. The bloodstains seemed to have merged with the bronze stairs. Even the rain couldn't wash them away. Not long ago, a fierce battle between Supreme Saints must have broken out here. Some were injured, and some might even have died.

The rain fell even faster.

The parasol made a popping sound. At the top of the bronze stairs, Zhang Ruochen, dressed in blood clothes, stood between the two bronze pillars. He turned to the right and looked at the bronze pillar on the right.

The bronze pillar was as thick as a millstone. It was more than 200 feet tall. There was a tall and mighty statue on it. It had three eyes and held a sword in each arm. It was in the posture of raising its hand to cut the sky.

Although it was a bronze statue, it gave off terrifying power. It had a terrifying aura.

Zhang Ruochen could only hold his breath in front of it. He was under extreme duress.

me

A Supreme Saint wouldn't dare to look at it like that. As for cultivators below the Supreme Saint Realm, they'd most likely be kneeling on the ground before they reached the bronze stairs.

There were a total of 20 bronze pillars that surrounded the bronze temple.

The bronze statues on the bronze pillars were all different.

There were golden Bodhi Buddha trees, giants holding battle axes, celestial maidens with human bodies and fishtails, and heavenly dragons with nine heads.

Zhang Ruochen walked under the bronze pillars. He didn't dare to look at their figures carefully because he felt a splitting headache just by looking at them. It was as if they were all forbidden figures that he could look at without being a Supreme Saint.

'Who are they? Why are their bronze statues cast on the pillars of this bronze temple?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen had read countless ancient books in the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, but he couldn't find their corresponding figures.

"They're the Twenty Devas," said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu's burly figure walked out from behind the bronze pillar with the nine-headed heavenly dragon.

The divine light on his body was restrained. He lacked his usual sharpness, but he lacked any killing intent when confronted by his adversaries. He looked like any other strong man.

However, the more he did so, the more Zhang Ruochen knew that Yan Huangtu must have made a breakthrough and become even more terrifying.

A Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm not only had to break the shackles but also had to cultivate the Precepts.

Some Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm only had three billion Precepts in them. Some of them had ten billion Precepts. The difference in combat power between the two was like heaven and earth.

Even though they were both at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, there was still room for improvement.

Zhang Ruochen was not surprised at all when he saw Yan Huangtu. He looked calm like meeting his old friend. He said, "The Twenty Devas. What an unfamiliar name."

"The reason you don't recognize this name is that they've been around for too long," Yan Huangtu explained.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "How long?"

"At least 300,000 years, maybe longer," said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu stood by the bronze pillar and looked down at the pitch-black mountain. He continued, "About 300,000 years ago, they disappeared completely. How long ago was this name first born? Perhaps only the greatest gods know it now.

"The Twenty Devas represent the 20 most powerful gods in your universe.

"Before the Celestial Court was established, they ruled over everything, maintaining order in the world and intimidating the ten races of the Infernal Court. The gods had to bow to them. In that era, the cultivators of the Infernal Court could only live in darkness. How could they have the glory of today?"

Zhang Ruochen listened quietly. It was like a lost history book being flipped open page by page. "Every era had different Twenty Devas," Yan Huangtu said. "In the same way, they represent the strongest of that era. The bronze statues on the 20 pillars are actually the first Twenty Devas. Who knows how many tens of thousands of years have passed since our current era.”

“Then why don’t you tell me why the last Twenty Devas completely vanished 300,000 years ago?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yan Huangtu didn’t appear to be in a rush to fight Zhang Ruochen. “Legend has it that they went to do a big thing,” he said leisurely. “All twenty Devas set out together, but only two and a half returned.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes narrowed. He was shocked and confused. He asked, “Why two and a half?”

Yan Huangtu turned around and stared at Zhang Ruochen. “You’re most curious about the half, right? That half refers to Sixth Buddha.”

“When Sixth Buddha fled back to the Western Buddha Realm, he was only left with half a body. According to legend, the calamity he faced not only cut off half of his Buddha body, but also half of his lifespan. That’s why he died in the last Yuanhui period.”

Zhang Ruochen said firmly, “Impossible.”

“What’s impossible?” Yan Huangtu said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Sixth Buddha is the most powerful Buddha cultivator in the entire universe in the last ten million years. He’s the sixth Buddha. who can cut off half of his Buddha body and half of his lifespan?”

Yan Huangtu’s eyes were dazed, “I know why you don’t believe me,” he said. “It’s because your master, Saint Monk Xumi, isn’t even as powerful as Sixth Buddha. In your heart, your master should have invincible influence, right? Unfortunately, Sixth Buddha was among the Twenty Devas, but not him.”

Zhang Ruochen knew that Yan Huangtu wanted to use this to mess with his mind.

In the Celestial and Infernal Court, Zhang Ruochen had read a lot of ancient books. He had a better understanding of Buddhism, Kunlun, and his master, Saint Monk Xumi.

According to the ancient books, even when Saint Monk Xumi had achieved great success in his cultivation, he had learned a lot from the debates with the Sixth Buddha. He often felt inferior.

In front of the Sixth Buddha, Saint Monk Xumi was only a junior.

Although Zhang Ruochen respected Saint Monk Xumi and knew that his cultivation of Buddhism was boundless, he was one of the few powerful figures in the world. However, he also respected Sixth Buddha and didn't dare to judge him easily. Zhang Ruochen said, "In the battle 100,000 years ago, how many gods in the Infernal Court died at the hands of Saint Monk Xumi? Outside Kunlun, how many planets are still blood red?"

Yan Huangtu nodded, he said, "It's undeniable that Saint Monk Xumi was indeed powerful enough to reach the level of Buddha when he died. The gods who participated in the battle against him all praised him. Unfortunately, that was his final glory. He died in an instant and didn't have the chance to become the Seventh Buddha."

Yan Huangtu entered the copper temple as he spoke.

There was a bronze statue in the temple. It had the body of a dragon, but it had three heads.

One was a child.

The other was an elder.

The middle one didn't have any facial features. There was only a "Swastika" symbol on its forehead.

Yan Huangtu bowed to the bronze statue and said slowly, "He's one of the Twenty Devas in 300,000 years, Dracopent."

Zhang Ruochen gazed at the bronze statue. He felt that the statue was growing taller and taller, forming a stronger and more oppressive force.

Yan Huangtu continued, “Dracopent is the former leader of the dragons, the dragon supreme. He has nine wives and nine sons. All of them are extraordinary. The ninth son is the most talented and has the most extraordinary achievements. His name is Ji Wang

“As a cultivator in Kunlun, you should have heard of his name, right?”

Of course, Zhang Ruochen had heard of it. It was the Dragon Lord’s name, Ji Wang.

He was said to be in charge of the Shenlong Chaos Tower of Sun and Moon, one of Kunlun’s ten great Divine Artifacts. He was a person who roamed across myriad realms.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You said that 300,000 years ago, only two and a half members from the Twenty Devas came back alive. Who are the other two, besides Sixth Buddha?”

“One of them is the master of the Celestial Palace of Celestial Court,” Yan Huangtu said.

The master of the Celestial Palace was mysterious, and Zhang Ruochen knew very little about him. However, he was able to control the Celestial Palace and command all the realms, so he was naturally not a trivial existence.

Yan Huangtu said, “No one knows the other. Perhaps only the master of the Celestial Palace and Sixth Buddha know who he is.”

“Some guessed that he is Lord Wentian of the Ten Tribulations. Some guessed that he is God Panyuan of the Pangu Realm. Others guessed that he is the previous clan leader of our clan.”

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes. “The gods of the Infernal Court can be listed in the Twenty Devas?”

Yan Huangtu was silent for a moment. Then he added, “In fact, there’s a legend that the Twenty Devas are not just twenty of them, but Twenty-four Devas. The other four Devas are from the Infernal Court.”

Then Yan Huangtu laughed and shook his head. He said, “They’re just legends. How can we juniors who are less than 1,000 years old figure out what happened hundreds of thousands of years ago? How can we possibly know the secrets of heaven-level figures?”

“Time has changed, and the world has changed. The rise and fall of the Celestial and Infernal Court have changed. Now, it’s just the two of us talking. Whether it’s the Twenty Devas or the Twenty-four Devas, they’ve long been in the past. All the glory of the past has vanished.”

Whoosh

Outside the temple, the sharp sound of rushing wind could be heard.

Yan Zhexian appeared at the gate. Her beautiful figure was projected on the ground under the Buddhist light, leaving a long black shadow. Behind her, there were more shadows on the ground.

Zhang Ruochen looked back at Yan Zhexian and said, “I didn’t know you were just stalling for time by telling me so much.”

Chapter 2354 The Battle in the Temple

Yan Zhexian only stood at the entrance of the temple casually. Dense runic patterns naturally appeared around her delicate body, interweaving like a spider web.

White saint light radiated from her body, resonating with the Buddhist light in the temple.

“Since you kept your sword and didn’t kill me just now, you can destroy your cultivation. I can guarantee that you will leave this place alive,” Yan Zhexian said.

Yan Huangtu stared at her deeply and didn’t say anything. It was obvious that he had tacitly agreed to her promise.

Zhang Ruochen held the wet black parasol in his hand and said calmly, “If I cripple my cultivation, even if I can leave this place alive, I’ll soon die somewhere else.”

Yan Zhexian said, “I can guarantee your life until the day you die of old age.”

Yan Huangtu revealed a faint smile, he said, “The words of the direct descendants of the Yan clan must carry weight. Xian’er said that she can secure your life, so she can. Zhang Ruochen, I think this is your only choice now. Otherwise, what awaits you is death.”

“You think you can kill me? Yan Zhexian, where are the hundreds of Supreme Saints you mentioned? Why don’t I see them?” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes looked contemptuous, but his heart was already tense. When he looked around, he was actually looking at the layout and environment of the copper temple.

Logically speaking, Que and Lan Ying would never miss the opportunity on the Yanluo Clan’s home planet. They would definitely come.

But why didn’t he see them along the way?

Since the Yanluo clan had set up an inescapable net here, they must have sent out all their powerhouses. Where had Xi gone?

What happened to The Eight Sons of Life and Death? Where had Yan Wushen gone?

It was not wise to fight with Yan Huangtu at this moment.

Yan Huangtu saw that Zhang Ruochen wanted to escape. He said, "Stop looking. There is only one exit from this copper temple."

Yan Huangtu's finger was pointing to where Yan Zhexian was standing at the time.

Yan Zhexian twisted her wrist and drew a flame-shaped rune pattern in front of her to seal the temple door.

Although the flame rune pattern had not yet been activated, it emitted a shocking amount of heat, turning the Buddha platform, bronze statues, and pillars in the copper temple crimson.

"You can't leave today. The will of the Yanluo clan has never been shaken by anyone since ancient times," Yan Zhexian said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "The temple door has been sealed. Are you planning to fight me to the death here, Brother Yan?"

"I'd love to." said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu slowly rolled up his sleeves, he said again, "Since you've defeated Wujiang, you're naturally qualified to fight me. The Imperial Path I cultivate is to continuously defeat powerful enemies, accumulate momentum, and achieve a big breakthrough in the state of mind. Only then can I achieve a big breakthrough in cultivation.

"The Imperial Path is the supreme will that can control all the ways in the world. Only with a big breakthrough in the Imperial Path can I integrate more Saintwill and breakthrough to the level of the Grade Two Saintwill.

"That's why I can't do what you can do by consuming the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills. What I want is to defeat all the opponents in the world or kill them."

Yan Huangtu's aura continued to rise, and wisps of golden divine light shot out of his pores and filled the entire copper temple.

ROAR!

Dragon roars came from within his bones, and they were deafening.

The fire runes that Yan Zhexian had drawn trembled from the impact. She was shocked and thought, ‘Fifth uncle’s cultivation has become even stronger!’

Yan Zhexian knew that Yan Huangtu was able to fight head-on against a peak Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

To other Supreme Saints at the peak of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, this was something unimaginable. Because they were still pursuing the ranking below the Thousand-Koan Realm, Yan Huangtu was already vying for the position of the top elites below the Banshi Isshou Realm.

The difference between the two was thousands of miles.

Now, Yan Huangtu has become even more unfathomable. Yan Zhexian felt that he could no longer see through him.

“It seems that Yan Huangtu can take down Zhang Ruochen without our help in this battle.” A Supreme Saint Talisman Master laughed behind her.

Yan Zhexian stared at him coldly. “Zhang Ruochen isn’t easy to deal with. If he counterattacks and triggers the Dark Space-time Matter, have you thought about the consequences?”

The destructive power of the Dark Space-time Matter had long spread throughout the Yanluo clan. Even the Supreme Saint’s expression changed when he heard it.

The copper temple was so small. If Zhang Ruochen was forced into a life-and-death situation, it was entirely possible that he could use the Dark Space-time Matter to perish together with Yan Huangtu.

“Does this mean that Zhang Ruochen is invincible?” said the Supreme Saint Talisman Master as his face turned solemn. He was no longer as optimistic as before.

“How can there be an invincible person in the world? If Zhang Ruochen uses Dark Space-time Matter, he will be the one to die.”

Yan Zhexian stated solemnly. Then she said, “Help me carve runes. I have to draw another flower dance runes and bury Zhang Ruochen in grief.”

BOOM!

A bolt of dark purple lightning fell from the clouds and hit the top of the copper temple. Instantly, dense lightning covered the temple.

Lightning also spread out from the temple, taking the form of a dragon and a snake dancing

Yan Huangtu and Zhang Ruochen’s power had reached a climax at that point.

Yan Huangtu took the lead. His fist wrapped in divine light struck out like a shooting star.

When Yan Huangtu struck, a massive golden shadow rushed out of his body, resembling an ancient Emperor God.

Zhang Ruochen was unafraid. He struck out with his palm, and the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King rushed out of his body.

Boom

OW.

The fist and palm collided, producing a more deafening sound than the thunder just now. The sound reverberated in the copper temple, shaking the space so much that it seemed like it was going to explode.

If it had been a Supreme Saint of the Neverwilt Realm, he would have fallen to the ground with blood pouring from his seven orifices if he was in the temple right now.

Their bodies separated in an instant.

BANG!

Zhang Ruochen flew backward and hit the copper wall behind him, which was more than 30 meters away. The sound of metal colliding was like the sound of the Great Lyu Bell being hit.

Ancient Divine Marks appeared on the copper wall, blocking all the impact.

Zhang Ruochen's body was strong and uninjured. He slid down from the copper wall and quickly recovered.

Yan Huangtu took four steps back and steadied himself, he said, "No one under the Thousand-Koan Realm can match my power. Not Lan Ying, not Luo Shengtian, not Wujiang, not you. If you want to continue this battle, Zhang Ruochen, you'd better show your true ability."

Yan Huangtu's ultimate power and defense had been established by the Royal Divine Frame.

It was said that when Yan Huangtu had just broken through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he had received a punch from a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. Although his flesh and blood had been destroyed, his bone structure was undamaged and could regenerate flesh and blood.

His Saint Soul and Sainthood Source were inside his bones.

Even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, let alone a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, would struggle to kill Yan Huangtu at his current level of cultivation.

'Yan Huangtu is indeed powerful. If I want to compete with him in power, I need to break at least 80 shackles in my body. Warlord Mara was also very powerful, but he's far inferior to Yan Huangtu,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

In terms of power, Que and Lan Ying were probably not as powerful as Yan Huangtu.

Only Luo Shengtian, the divine prince, might be able to fight him head-on. After all, Luo Shengtian mainly cultivated power. He had a pair of natural divine eyes and refined two active Divine Planets.

If Yan Huangtu's physical body was not extremely powerful, how could he withstand two active Divine Planets?

Zhang Ruochen said, "On the path of cultivation, not only physical strength is refined, but also the Path. I'd like to see how much power you can burst out under the suppression of the three Great Paths of the Ancients."

Crash

The Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth rushed out of Zhang Ruochen's body at the same time and covered the entire copper temple.

Zhang Ruochen stood where he was. His hands moved slowly. Dense Precepts of Time rushed out of his sea of Qi and revolved around his body, turning into the illusory image of a long River of Time.

"Take this too!" Zhang Ruochen shouted.

Zhang Ruochen struck out with his palm. The illusory image of the long River of Time continued to rush toward Yan Huangtu.

Under the suppression of the Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth, Yan Huangtu seemed to have fallen into a swamp. It was as if there were thousands of chains wrapped around his body, and lava poison was corroding his body.

Boom

Yan Huangtu's foot stomped on the ground, and golden Yama Qi surged out crazily, forming a world map scroll.

At the same time, the Gate of Destiny appeared behind him, finally blocking the suppression formed by the three Great Paths of the Ancients.

Splash

The sound of water flowing could be heard.

The River of Time passed through the golden world created by Yan Huangtu, crashing toward his chest.

Yan Huangtu didn't dare to let the River of Time touch him. He quickly performed the high-level Thousand-Koan Realm saint technique and shouted, "Streams of Myriad Dragons."

He punched out and countless dragons flew out. They were all golden and turned into a river of myriad dragons.

The river of myriad dragons collided with the River of Time. There wasn't any earth-shattering sound, but the two continued to cancel each other out.

'The Nine Dragons Divine Marks on Yan Huangtu's Royal Divine Frame are truly enigmatic. They can actually block the attack of the long River of Time after combining with the fist technique of the Streams of Myriad Dragons,' Zhang Ruochen thought, secretly amazed.

Yan Huangtu was even more taken aback. In this punch, he had used all of his strength. The combined power of the Divine Marks and the Thousand-Koan level fist technique could only compete with Zhang Ruochen. It was amazing.

The River of Time flowed from beginning to end. Yan Huangtu's fist power had also been exhausted.

In this short break, it was time to test the two of them.

The person who changed their moves the fastest would be able to strike the second strike first. They would be able to gain an advantage in the next battle.

As a Master of Time, Zhang Ruochen clearly had a huge advantage. He didn't spend time condensing a saint technique. Instead, he picked up the Violet Gourd hanging by his waist and used the Great Dimensional Shift to smash at Yan Huangtu's head.

Yan Huangtu was shocked. No cultivator had ever dared to fight him in close combat. Was Zhang Ruochen courting death?

And what was he holding in his hand?

A gourd!

Yan Huangtu didn't have time to use the saint technique. He had to raise his arm to block.

Yan Huangtu's body was the most powerful shield, thanks to the Divine Royal Frame. He was unconcerned about any attacks.

BANG!

The Violet Gourd cracked Yan Huangtu's arm. Blood splattered everywhere.

This injury was like an old itch to Yan Huangtu. He was about to counterattack, but Zhang Ruochen moved sideways and swung the gourd toward his back.

If it were any other cultivator, they would have to close their eyes and wait for death when Zhang Ruochen changed his move so quickly.

But Yan Huangtu wasn't afraid. He arched his back and a boundless divine light burst out from his body. The Violet Gourd hit his back and broke the divine light. There was a loud bang.

Yan Huangtu's body rolled on the ground like a rubber ball.

"Take that," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift and appeared next to him again. He smashed the gourd in his hand like an invincible Divine Artifact. He didn't waste time activating the Supreme Power contained in the gourd. Zhang Ruochen wanted to suppress Yan Huangtu so that he couldn't fight back.

Outside the copper temple.

Yan Zhexian and the Supreme Saint Talisman Masters were stunned.

They had been looking forward to the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Huangtu. After all, they were both geniuses of the generation. They would definitely use all their skills to fight. Watching this battle might benefit them.

But who could tell that two peerless Supreme Saints were fighting in the temple?

What was the difference between fighting with two local ruffians and hooligans?

One was smashing with a gourd, while the other was blocking without rhyme or reason.

A Supreme Saint Talisman Master found it hard to understand, he said, “That shouldn’t be! Yan Huangtu has already reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. With the Royal Divine Frame, his physical strength should far surpass Zhang Ruochen’s. How can Zhang Ruochen be his opponent in close combat?”

“Yes, in close combat, Yan Huangtu is absolutely invincible,” said another Supreme Saint Talisman Master, feeling depressed.

The battle between the two in the temple disappointed him greatly. There was no elegance, no wonder, and no earth-shattering.

However, Yan Zhexian saw otherwise and said, “You only talk about strength, but forget about speed. Which one of you can see Zhang Ruochen’s moves clearly?”

The Supreme Saint Talisman Masters looked carefully and found that there were as many as 17 figures of Zhang Ruochen in the temple. With their cultivation, they could only see seven of them as afterimages. They could not tell which of the other ten were real bodies.

They were helpless because Zhang Ruochen was too fast!

Yan Zhexian said, “Although Yan Huangtu’s power was strong, he is suppressed by Zhang Ruochen’s speed.”

Then she said, “In fact, Yan Huangtu’s speed is not slow. However, being trapped in Zhang Ruochen’s Profound Spatial Dimension and Null Time realm, even if it has 100% speed, it can only exert 70%.”

Yan Zhexian thought to herself, ‘if I am trapped in the current situation of Yan Huangtu, what will happen to me?’

Yan Zhexian shook her head and told herself, ‘If I fight with Zhang Ruochen in the future, I must not enter within 3 kilometers of him, at least outside the Profound Spatial Dimension.'

It wasn't until now that Yan Zhexian realized that Zhang Ruochen hadn't used his full strength when fighting with her.

"The narrower the space is, the more advantageous it is for Zhang Ruochen. The plan to assassinate Zhang Ruochen in the copper temple appears to be a blunder." Yan Zhexian sighed softly and thought about how to help Yan Huangtu.

Zhang Ruochen was a strong enemy. He was more difficult to deal with than expected.

At this moment, the battle in the copper temple took a turn for the better. Taking the risk of withstanding three strikes from Zhang Ruochen, Yan Huangtu took out the Supreme Artifact, the Scepter of Heaven's Pass. He waved his hand and struck out, sending Zhang Ruochen flying.

Because he had been hit on the head three times by the gourd, Yan Huangtu's scalp was broken. His face was covered in blood. Holding the Scepter of Heaven's Pass, he stomped his feet and gritted his teeth. "Come on, who's afraid of who?"

The bloody Yan Huangtu looked like a ferocious ghost. Just his appearance alone could scare off many cultivators.

Zhang Ruochen wiped the Saint Blood off the gourd and his robe, "Forget it," he said. "If we had to use the Supreme Artifact and fight in such a small space in this copper temple, the power of the Supreme Artifact would have killed both of us before the winner was determined."

"You'll die, but I won't. Fight! Keep Fighting!"

Yan Huangtu had suffered so much just now. He was being chased and beaten by Zhang Ruochen. It didn't matter if it hurt, but it was a loss of face. So how could he let it go?

Chapter 2355 Slaining Hong Futu

Of course, Zhang Ruochen didn't want to continue fighting. Yan Huangtu was too resilient. It had been hit so many times by the Violet Gourd, but it hadn't hurt him at all.

Zhang Ruochen probably had to use the Power of Time to destroy Yan Huangtu's lifespan. Or Zhang Ruochen could use the Divine Purification Flame to refine it slowly. Only then would he have a chance to kill Yan Huangtu.

However, the Nine Dragons Divine Marks on the Royal Divine Bone in his body could resist the erosion of the Power of Time. Even if he stood still, it would take a lot of effort and time for Zhang Ruochen to kill him with the Power of Time. It was not an easy task.

As for refining Yan Huangtu with the Divine Purification Flame, it would take even more time.

In other words, with Zhang Ruochen's current cultivation, he could not kill Yan Huangtu.

Moreover, Zhang Ruochen had come to the Yanluo clan's home planet to take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and continue to fight with Yan Huangtu. It was harmful to him and not beneficial.

RUSTLE!

The fragrance of flowers drifted into the copper temple.

Beautiful spiritual flowers bloomed at the temple's entrance, beneath Yan Zhexian's feet, and soon covered the entire copper temple.

Not only were the spiritual flowers runes, but even the fragrance of the flowers were runes as well.

I can't stay here any longer. Yan Huangtu has the help of dozens of Supreme Saint Talisman Masters. He is at the advantage now.' Zhang Ruochen thought as he gazed at Dracopent's statues in the center of the temple. The Buddhist light in the bronze temple was emitted from a round ancient mirror on Dracopent's chest.

The ancient mirror was only the size of a palm, and its surface was full of light and colors.

As a Master of Space, Zhang Ruochen had sensed a strange Power of Dimension fluctuation from the ancient mirror when he stepped into the bronze temple. The Precepts of Dimension around the ancient mirror were distorted.

“I’ll leave first. I’ll fight again in the future,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen moved quickly and rushed toward the ancient Buddhist light mirror. At the same time, his body shrank rapidly.

“Where are you going?”

Yan Huangtu shot out and chased after Zhang Ruochen. He raised his arm and activated some of the Supreme Inscription on the Scepter of Heaven’s Pass, emitting a blinding saint light.

This attack was aimed at stopping Zhang Ruochen.

If Zhang Ruochen continued to rush toward the Buddhist light ancient mirror, the illusory image of the Scepter of Heaven’s Pass would definitely strike him. If he was hit by the Supreme Artifact, Zhang Ruochen would be heavily injured even if he didn’t die.

Once Yan Huangtu forced Zhang Ruochen back and fell into the sea of flowers runes, he would naturally have more ways to deal with him.

It could be said that the angle and speed of this attack contained everything that Yan Huangtu had learned all his life. It wasn’t a saint technique, but it was more terrifying than a saint technique.

“If I wanted to leave, you won’t be able to keep me,” said Zhang Ruochen.

A black-light flew out of Zhang Ruochen’s hand and landed on Yan Huangtu’s chest with a whoosh.

The black light was from the black parasol of Class Two Regal Artifact that Zhang Ruochen kept in his sleeve. This attack was like a sword in his sleeve. It had an unexpected effect.

Yan Huangtu frowned. He quickly changed the direction of his attack. The Scepter of Heaven's Pass struck the black parasol accurately.

The black parasol exploded, turning into pieces of iron cloth and metal shards.

The Class Two Regal Artifact was very weak in front of the Supreme Artifact. It couldn't withstand a single blow.

When Yan Huangtu looked up again, Zhang Ruochen had already rushed into the ancient Buddhist light mirror.

Entering the mirror was like jumping into the water.

Yan Zhexian stared at the bronze statue and said worriedly, "Zhang Ruochen broke in after Que and Lan Ying. Yan Wushen can't handle them alone. We..."

Yan Huangtu interrupted her, "Zhang Ruochen and Lan Ying's main goal is to take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Under normal circumstances, they won't attack Yan Wushen.

"Besides, with Yan Wushen's intelligence and strength, he'll definitely have a way to deal with it. We don't need to worry.

"On the contrary, when we send a large group of people in, Zhang Ruochen, Lan Ying, and Que will sense danger. They'll definitely turn around and deal with the Yanluo clan first. This isn't good."

Yan Zhexian felt that Yan Huangtu's point made sense. She nodded slightly and said, "In that case, we'll set up more powerful runes and arrays in this copper temple. It's best to seal all three of them inside until the Celestial- Hunting Festival ends."

The 62 Supreme Saint Talisman Masters, including Yan Zhexian, and a large group of Yanluo Clan Array Masters gathered outside the copper temple and began to carve inscriptions.

Zhang Ruochen bumped into the surface of the ancient mirror, creating spatial ripples. Then, his vision darkened, and his body was pulled into another space out of control.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen regained his vision and found himself in a green world.

There was a ray of good luck all around him. Around him, ancient golden trees grew. They glistened like pure gold.

There was also a lake.

The water in the lake was green.

No, what's that?' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen's expression froze. He saw a huge green mountain in the eastern sky. Looking from a thousand miles away, he could feel its towering height.

The average height of the mountain was more than 100,000 meters, and he couldn't see its end.

WHOOSH!

A deep breath sounded between heaven and earth.

Rustle

The metal tree shook violently in the wind, and a lot of golden leaves fell down.

At that moment, the green mountain range seemed to rise and fall, and it trembled slightly.

When the wind blew away the clouds and mist, Zhang Ruochen finally saw some details of the mountain range. He found that the mountain was covered with giant scales.

It wasn't a mountain range. It was a giant green beast.

However, its body was humongous. He couldn't tell what creature it was.

The three Thousand-Koan Realm dragon souls in Zhang Ruochen's left arm let out anxious moans. They were very nervous and uneasy.

What exactly did the Fane of Destiny hide inside the ten home planets? Why do such terrifying creatures always appear?' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't someone who would be blinded by fortune and treasures. Seeing the mountain ridge entrenched here, he was even more certain that there was no so-called Bright Kannati or Buddha sarira, he wanted to retreat.

At that moment.

Boom

A loud sound came from hundreds of miles away.

Then, a powerful nine-colored chaotic light burst out from the direction of the loud sound. The force swept away all the leaves on the golden trees near Zhang Ruochen.

The golden trees became bald.

"It's Lan Ying's presence," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power was affected by the Path Lock and he could not be detected hundreds of miles away. So he took off and hovered in the air near the clouds.

Around 500 miles away, Lan Ying, Hong Futu, Que, and Yan Wushen were fighting in shambles.

Lan Ying, Hong Futu, and Yan Wushen were all attacking Que at the same time.

"Leave behind the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, and I'll let you leave this place," said Yan Wushen. He activated his Golden Giant Mode. He was valiant and fierce, and his body was surrounded by eighty-one Buddha halos as he attacked with a palm after palm.

"You think you can snatch the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?" said Que.

Even though Que was suppressed by the Path Lock, his technique was still as smooth as flowing water, and his body appeared and disappeared at times.

Whoosh

Suddenly, Que appeared in front of Hong Futu in a flash and waved out an invisible force.

Hong Futu's face changed in shock. He quickly retreated. At the same time, he activated the power of lightning as quickly as he could. He raised his arms and crossed them to block in front of him.

CRACK!

Hong Futu's arms were broken. His body was thrown hundreds of meters away, leaving a long ravine on the ground.

Hong Futu was in extreme pain. Apart from his broken arms, a one-meter-long wound appeared on the chest of his four-meter-tall body. Saint Blood gushed out like a spring.

What was even more terrifying was that the Power of Oblivion invaded the wound.

With the wound as the focal point, Hong Futu's body faded away, gradually fading into oblivion.

One had to know that Hong Futu was a pure-blooded Divine Beast, Bloodborne. In the future, he would at least be a pseudo god.

Hong Futu, as a young Divine Beast, could instantly kill an opponent in the same realm, and he could even kill cultivators from the Celestial Court across multiple realms.

His battle strength was not unparalleled, but it could also be said to be at the top of the line.

However, under the circumstances of being besieged, he was actually seriously injured by one move. It could be said that he had suffered a great blow in his heart.

Crash

Hong Futu gritted his teeth, and a fierce light flashed in his eyes.

After activating the ancestral divine power contained in the divine blood, he resisted the Power of Oblivion that invaded his body and slowly refined it. His severed arms grew back.

Just as Hong Futu stood up and prepared to fight again...

Suddenly, an ice-cold hand silently grabbed his neck from behind.

Whoosh

A Dimensional Sword cut off his head.

Hong Futu's life force was strong. Even after his head was cut off, he still let out an earth-shattering roar, "Who? Who are you?"

Divine Power and lightning surged out of his scalp.

"Shh! Lower your voice," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen held the antennae in the shape of a pagoda above Hong Futu's head. Divine Purification Flame erupted from his palm, condensing into a Deific Flower of Flames. It encircled his head, including the Divine Power and Lightning that had been released from his head.

In the Deific Flower of Flames, curses and screams could be heard.

A moment later, Hong Futu's head was reduced to ashes and scattered on the ground.

Only a fist-sized Sainthood Source remained in Zhang Ruochen's palm.

The Sainthood Source was unusual. It was brimming with divine material and Divine Marks. It was gleaming and gleaming. Inside the Sainthood Source, there was also the Soul Shadow of the Divine Beast, Bloodborne.

"The Sainthood Source of a pure-blooded Divine Beast is indeed extraordinary. It's very close to the Divinity Source. This is good stuff. If a Supreme Saint refines it, he might become a pseudo god. At the very least, it's possible to even become a Demigod."

Zhang Ruochen nodded with satisfaction and put away the Sainthood Source.

Hong Futu's headless body still had a strong spiritual will. He waved his fist and attacked Zhang Ruochen. Rays of divine light appeared on his fist.

Even if Hong Futu was at his peak, Zhang Ruochen wasn't afraid of him, not to mention that his head had been chopped off.

Hong Futu was sent flying like a scarecrow by a wave of Zhang Ruochen's hand.

Swoosh

Several Dimensional Rifts cut his body into seven pieces.

Hong Futu was dead. Seeing that his body was about to turn into the original form of a young Divine Beast, Zhang Ruochen quickly put its body into the Violet Gourd.

Zhang Ruochen had killed Hong Futu in the Profound Spatial Dimension. From the outside, nothing could be seen there. Everything was silent.

However, Hong Futu's original form was hundreds of miles long. It was definitely huge.

That was why Zhang Ruochen had to put away its body before it turned into its original form. He couldn't let Que, Lan Ying, and Yan Wushen find out that he was hiding nearby.

This time, Zhang Ruochen wanted to sit back and watch them fight before making his move.

Because of Asurendra Samay, Hong Futu and Lan Ying, including the Fane of Barasingha, were Zhang Ruochen's biggest enemies. On the surface, Zhang Ruochen went to find Lan Ying to form an alliance, but everyone had their own ulterior motives. How could he be lenient when he had the chance to kill him?

Zhang Ruochen had always been decisive when facing enemies that could threaten his life.

As for why he didn't kill Yan Zhexian earlier, it was because Zhang Ruochen had enough enemies in the Infernal Court. He didn't want to form an irreconcilable hatred with the Yanluo Clan anymore.

In the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen killing the clansmen of the Yanluo clan on their home planet wouldn't create too much hatred.

After all, it was unlikely that 100 million or hundreds of millions of Yanluo clansmen would give birth to an ordinary Supreme Saint. Their value was very limited.

However, Yan Zhexian was different. She was a direct descendant of the Yanluo clan and had extraordinary talent. Her future was limitless.

Killing her would definitely anger the god of the Yanluo clan behind her. It would do Zhang Ruochen a lot of harm and no good.

Zhang Ruochen didn't know when, but he had learned to consider the way he did things from the perspective of benefits. He didn't think about right and wrong and good and evil like before.

Perhaps this was the price of growth, a helpless act to survive in a cruel environment.

However, he had lost part of his original self and heart.

The inner demon would not appear for no reason.

After cleaning up all traces, Zhang Ruochen carefully observed the Battle of the three people not far away.

Even if Zhang Ruochen hid in the Profound Spatial Dimension at another time, he would not be able to hide from the senses of Que, Lan Ying, and Yan Wushen. However, they were in the midst of an extreme battle. They were extremely focused, so how could they have the spare energy to care?

"Yan Wushen's cultivation has increased so much. He broke at least 20 shackles. How did he do it?" Zhang Ruochen was extremely shocked.

One had to know that he could break 30 shackles because he had eaten nine Ampliofruits and a large number of Fugue pills. He had also cultivated in the Dark Star for ten years.

Yan Wushen must have gotten a great opportunity to break these shackles.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the green mountain ridge in the distance and said to himself, "Is it related to that creature?"

He needed not only talent and hard work to become a Yuanhui level genius, but also a great inheritance and luck. He had to reach the limit in all aspects.

Obviously, Yan Wushen's luck was not much worse than Zhang Ruochen's.

The Path of Oblivion that Que cultivated was indeed strange and unpredictable. It could change without a trace. However, Lan Ying and Yan Wushen were not easy to deal with.

Lan Ying released more than 13 billion Precepts in him, which evolved into a nine-colored embryonic universe. He also developed the Asura World with Qi of Slaughter to suppress Que's Power of Oblivion.

Yan Wushen, on the other hand, activated his Light of Origin and Profound Spatial Dimension, forcing Que to reveal his true form. He could not turn into oblivion to escape.

Zhang Ruochen, 'The Precepts cultivated by Lan Ying actually reached 13.7 billion. Wujiang had only cultivated 9.7 billion, and Yan Huangtu has just broken through 10 billion. As expected of a Divine Fetus that was nurtured by the Divine Qi and Qi of Slaughter for three Yuanhui periods.

It is said that in the past Battle of Celestial-Hunting, only on rare occasions would a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm breakthrough 8 billion Precepts. Sometimes, in thousands of years, there would not be a Supreme Saint at the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage with more than 8 billion Precepts.'

Zhang Ruochen was even more certain that killing Hong Futu was the right decision. Killing him was equivalent to cutting off one of Lan Ying's arms.

Chapter 2356 The Ultimate Battle

‘The Power of Oblivion doesn’t seem to be invincible. Under the interference of Dimension, Origin, Slaughter, Chaos... all kinds of powers, it’s faintly suppressed!’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen observed and comprehended carefully. He knew too little about Oblivion.

Every time, Que’s body turned into oblivion. Zhang Ruochen’s vision and spiritual power couldn’t sense his existence. However, in an instant, Yan Wushen and Lan Ying released a domain that could force him out again.

Yan Wushen hasn’t cultivated the Path of Destiny, but he has cultivated the Light of Origin. He’s becoming more and more difficult to deal with. This person is my enemy for life.’ Zhang Ruochen.

No one had ever put so much pressure on Zhang Ruochen.

No one had ever received such a high evaluation from Zhang Ruochen.

Although Zhang Ruochen had fought Yan Wushen three times and Yan Wui seemed to be slightly better than him three times, he had used all his trump cards and won very narrowly.

If he was not careful, he might lose.

In the Infernal Court, Zhang Ruochen had the help of the Sundial and all kinds of opportunities, but he still could not pull the gap between the two.

He suspected that he would be surpassed by Yan Wushen if he relaxed a little.

Yan Wushen’s existence was like a fierce beast chasing after Zhang Ruochen. Sometimes, he could even keep up with him, forcing Zhang Ruochen to not dare to stop.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen was not afraid of such an opponent. On the contrary, he hoped that there would be more such opponents.

Only in this way could he always keep an enterprising and hard-working heart.

Humans could not live without pressure.

Wargod Bloodximius would not have been able to reach his current cultivation level after just over 100,000 years of cultivation if it hadn't been for Huang Tian during the last Yuanhui period.

The Light of Origin was a light that could only be formed when one cultivated the Path of Origin to an extremely high level. It was known as the first ray of light at the birth of the world.

With the Light of Origin, there would be all things.

This light could create all things, destroy all things, and reshape all things.

Of course, all things included the cultivator himself.

Where the Light of Origin shone, the soil, water, trees, and flowers all turned into tiny particles that were difficult to see with the naked eye. The entire world was like sand, and it was rapidly disintegrating.

Even Que was affected by the Light of Origin shone on him.

There was a Power of Oblivion surrounding his body, blocking the Light of Origin. His body did not decompose. However, the Power of Oblivion was also suppressed.

The Path of the Ancients countered each other.

'The Light of Origin can suppress the Oblivion, forcing Que to show up and fight them. Can Dimension and Time do the same?' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen thought of a strategy to deal with the oblivion and Que, but he was disappointed to find out. If Que entered the oblivion state, he could only use Dimension and Time to escape immediately. At most, he could only guarantee his life.

Not more than five people could survive Que's pursuit in the Thousand-Koan Realm. Wujiang, Luo Shengtian, and even Yan Huangtu might not be able to do so.

There were very few Supreme Saints in the Thousand-Koan Realm who could survive a fight with Que.

Zhang Ruochen was confident that he could survive. It seemed to be a great achievement, but it was not what he wanted.

Zhang Ruochen could only save himself by fleeing because once Que entered oblivion, he would no longer be in Time and Dimension and could no longer be harmed.

It was a state of jumping out of the three realms and out of the five elements.

“I’ve got it! Null time,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes lit up.

Null time had something in common with oblivion, which might be able to restrain it.

The so-called null time was actually time that was out of the scope of the Precepts of Time. It was no longer in time.

The reality was positive.

Null was negative.

People always stood at a certain point in the River of Time. Time was in front of them and null time was behind them.

If Zhang Ruochen’s time attainments were higher, he would be able to condense more Self-Defined Marks of Time. Then, he could combine them with the Null Time realm he had cultivated to form the Absolute Null Time realm.

The Absolute Null Time realm would definitely be able to restrain Que.

If the Absolute Null Time realm was strong enough, it was very likely that there would be time reversal. In other words, time was negative.

Even a moment of time reversal was enough for Zhang Ruochen to do a lot of things.

However, it was too difficult to reverse time. With Zhang Ruochen’s current time attainments, he could only condense several Self-Defined Marks of Time at one time. It was still far from condensing the Absolute Null Time realm.

“Is there really no way at this point?” Zhang Ruochen stated.

Zhang Ruochen had always thought that Que must be under some kind of restriction, so he did not dare to kill anyone on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. This speculation was confirmed at that moment. He had been restrained in his fight with Lan Ying and Yan Wushen.

But what about after leaving the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?

How could he fight with him then?

Zhang Ruochen sighed softly and closed his eyes. He completely immersed his mind to perceive the power in Que.

‘Time and Dimension are part of the Path of the Ancients. They must be able to restrict Oblivion in some way. The reason why I find it difficult to deal with it must be because I don’t understand Oblivion well enough.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Gradually, the sounds of battle became softer and softer.

Zhang Ruochen’s heart became more and more tranquil. He entered a mystic realm. Specks of starlight scattered from his body and evolved into a starry world in the Profound Spatial Dimension.

The Heart of Truth shone brightly in his body.

All of a sudden, Que’s movement in the distance, the changes in his moves, and the changes in his footwork appeared in Zhang Ruochen’s mind.

This strange realm lasted for a moment and then disappeared.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly opened his eyes and smiled, he said, “My Path of Time and Dimension have not cultivated the Saintwill, let alone the augmentation of the Canon. At present, it is indeed difficult to fight against Que’s Oblivion.

“However, in the Path of Truth, I not only have the Canon, but also the Heart of Truth. How can Que’s oblivion escape the perception of the Heart of Truth?”

Zhang Ruochen suddenly understood.

At the same time, he made up his mind to find Saint Monk Xumi's final resting place immediately after the Celestial-Hunting Festival.

Only there would he have a chance to find the Canon of Time and Canon of Dimension. Only then could he achieve a big breakthrough in his Path of Time and Dimension.

Zhang Ruochen used the Heart of Truth to sense him and Que felt a chill run down his spine while he was fighting with Lan Ying and Yan Wushen.

Que immediately realized that there must be a powerhouse hiding nearby.

‘Forget it. Let’s end this quickly.’ Que thought.

Que was uneasy. He stopped fighting with Lan Ying and Yan Wushen.

A long sword flew out from between his eyebrows and fell into his hand. The sword was four feet and two inches long and as thin as a cicada’s wings. It emitted a dazzling white light, like a sword condensed from light.

SWOOSH!

Que swung his sword backward with no grace. The Sword Qi shone like divine moonlight. It landed at an awkward angle on Yan Wushen’s Golden Giant Mode.

Yan Wushen’s defense was probably not much weaker than Yan Huangtu’s Royal Divine Frame with the Half-Buddha Physique and the golden body.

Whoosh

The sword dragged on the golden arm, emitting golden spots of light.

Yan Wushen was unable to block it in the end, and his huge golden body was sent flying.

A shallow sword scar appeared on his arm.

Yan Wushen's heart trembled. Que's seemingly casual sword had fused with the Power of Oblivion, and it had almost broken through his golden body.

On the other side, Que's sword had broken through Lan Ying's embryonic universe, leaving a deep gash on his tender face, and his head had almost been split into two.

Lan Ying and Yan Wushen stood on both sides of Que and stopped for a moment. Both of them were obviously shocked. They realized that Que had finally become serious and was a lot stronger than before.

Que's body was sometimes illusory and sometimes real. He elegantly raised the long sword and gently stroked it with two fingers. He said, "This sword is my Imperial Artifact of Precept. It has always been nurtured by my Sainthood Source. Today is the fourth time it shows its appearance in front of people.

"If you don't die today, you should remember its name, Kagemaru."

Yan Wushen clenched his five fingers tightly. Golden light flashed and the sword mark on his arm disappeared. He smiled and said, "To cultivate an Imperial Artifact of Precept to your level, you can be considered the number one person below divinity in this Yuanhui period."

Que said, "You don't understand the meaning of the existence of the Imperial Artifact of Precepts. Was the Supreme Artifact very strong? Was a Divine Artifact very strong? Yes, they were! But, they were all external objects.

"If you want to truly become a peerless figure in the universe, you have to cultivate yourself.

"The Imperial Artifact of Precept is made up of the precepts that I have grasped. It is a part of me. The more perfect the Precepts I have comprehended, the more perfect it will be. "If my Path deviates, it will tell me immediately.

"My future is not to control a Divine Artifact, but to nurture my own Imperial Artifact of Precept into a Divine Artifact. A Divine Artifact is immortal, and I will be Immortal with it."

Most cultivators cultivated the Imperial Artifact of Precept as if they were honing their own Path.

Very few cultivators actually used the Imperial Artifact of Precept as weapons.

For Que to be able to cultivate to such a high level, not only was his mind outstanding, but he also had a unique understanding of the Path. He was definitely not someone ordinary people could compare to.

“So, you have also cultivated the Swordsmanship, and you have even integrated the Swordsmanship and the Oblivion,” Lan Ying licked his lips and said with a stern smile. There was no fear in his eyes.

Que raised his sword and stood proudly, he said, “How could I integrate the Swordsmanship and the Oblivion? I’m just walking the path of my predecessors. The Oblivion Sword was created many years ago after my master lost to the Sword of Time and spent a Yuanhui period creating it.

“Now, my master’s sword technique has reached the Mahayana stage. Unfortunately, the person who defeated him back then has already died. He won’t be able to avenge himself.”

Lan Ying’s hand reached into his chest and grabbed a blood-red sword from his flesh.

The sword was long and slender, and it emitted a demonic light.

“Since we’re both sword cultivators, why don’t you try my Sword of Asura first?”

THUMP!

Lan Ying’s finger flicked on the sword.

Instantly, Supreme Power and Qi of Slaughter surged outward.

Lan Ying had a total of six swords, and each of them was extraordinary. Two of them were Supreme Artifacts, while the other four were Divine Artifacts.

The Sword of Asura was ranked first among the six swords, so he brought it to the Celestial- Hunting Battlefield.

There were countless legends about the Sword of Asura. There was a saying that it once belonged to an ancient god Asura the Great. It was originally a Divine Artifact. The Sword of Asura, however, was shattered in an earth-shattering battle.

The Asura descendants had collected all the fragments and reforged the sword, but only one Supreme Artifact had been forged.

Lan Ying was able to obtain the Sword of Asura because he had climbed Mount Asura, the ancient god Asura's burial ground.

No one knew what kind of opportunity Lan Ying had gotten on Mount Asura. They only knew that he had taken the Sword of Asura and cultivated the Asura Sword Technique after he left the mountain.

Que had already witnessed the power of the Sword of Asura after being pursued by Yan Huangtu and Lan Ying. "Zhang Ruochen, since you're here, don't hide any longer," he said solemnly.

There was a strange look in the eyes of both Lan Ying and Yan Wushen.

Zhang Ruochen put away the Profound Spatial Dimension and revealed himself. He slowly walked toward them, "No wonder you're ranked first in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm," he said. "You still have the strength to sense that I'm hiding nearby when you're fighting two powerhouses."

"I'm just bluffing. I'm not sure if you're really hiding nearby," Que said.

"It doesn't matter!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes swept over Lan Ying and Yan Wushen. "Let's kill him together first, then fight for the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill."

“I didn’t expect that I would join hands with you one day,” Yan Wushen said with a smile. Lan Ying’s body released colorful lights that reflected the entire world. The Sword of Asura in his hand had already been swung out. “Kill! Kill! Kill...”

In this area, sounds of killing rose in all directions and blood light filled the air.

A battlefield of thousands of soldiers and horses appeared. There were Ghost Knights holding Bone Spears, Giants holding sharp swords, and spirits of the dead in black robes... the sword moved, and the Asura world appeared. The four of them seemed to have arrived at an ancient battlefield.

“Dimensional Sword Dance.”

Zhang Ruochen activated the Realm-frame of Truth and 36 Dimensional Swords appeared around him.

The swords flew around his body. They combined with the Precept of Truth and exploded with more and more powerful waves of power. When the waves of sword Qi increased tenfold, they flew toward Que like a rain of swords.

“Thousand Heads and Bodies.”

Yan Wushen created 999 shadows that spread out in all directions. He was actually using the Yanluo Clan’s forbidden technique, the Great Yanluo Thousand Heads and Bodies Technique.

His true body and 999 shadows formed a Pagoda of Origin.

As the 1,000 Pagodas of Origins pressed down on Que, they brought the Light of Origin with them.

“Ever since I stepped into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, today, I finally feel a sense of danger. If I kill all of you, I will be the only one in this era,” said Que.

The divine light in Que’s eyes shone brightly, and the aura on his body rose to its peak. His long hair shot up.

The Kagamaru in his hand drew a snake-shaped scar. It tore open the Asura World and blew away thousands of soldiers.

The sword Qi was like lightning as it clashed with the Sword of Asura in Lan Ying's hand.

The Oblivion devoured the Supreme Power on the sword.

Boom

IS.

as

A loud sound that could shatter the Supreme Saint's eardrums rang out. Lan Ying was sent flying backward. His feet landed on the ground again and he retreated several miles before he stabilized himself.

“Fight!”

Without any hesitation, Lan Ying roared and charged forward again.

Chapter 2357 All of Them Were Powerhouses

The Dimensional Sword Dance was a technique that Zhang Ruochen had combined dimension and sword technique into one. It had invincible destructive power. With the enhancement of the Path of Truth, the Dimensional Sword exploded with ten times the attack power. Its power was terrifying.

SWISH! SWISH!

The 36 swords cut many of the Path Locks in this world.

Even with Que's cultivation, he didn't dare to take them head-on.

He displayed a move as fast as a ghost and kept dodging. No matter how fast he was, how could he dodge all 36 swords?

WO

One of the swords stabbed directly into Que's heart.

Just when Zhang Ruochen thought that the attack would heavily injure him, Que's body became illusory. The Dimensional Sword seemed to pierce through the air and pass through his body.

Then, four more Dimensional Swords slashed at Que's body, which was resolved by his blurry state.

'As expected, the blurry state of Que is no longer in dimension. Even the Dimensional Sword can't hurt him.'
Zhang Ruochen thought and his heart sank slightly.

The Path of Truth's ten times attack power was only temporarily increased.

The power of the 36 Dimensional Swords was quickly diminished. They were no longer unstoppable.

Bang Bang

Que's Kagemaru Sword struck out 36 times in one-thousandth of a breath, destroying all 36 Dimensional Swords.

The oblivion broke the dimension.

SLASH!

Yan Wushen drew 1,000 Pagodas of Origin above his head. The wind force was also locked onto Que as a result of the pressure. Que, on the other hand, had the time to swing his sword at Zhang Ruochen.

Then, Que raised his sword and soared into the sky. He took the initiative to face the Pagoda of Origin. His figure was elegant and graceful, containing an invincible power.

The sword Que swung at Zhang Ruochen contained the Power of Dimensions. The densely packed Precepts of Dimension trembled. Then, the sword Qi created a space jump and appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen in an instant.

The Sword Qi was not sharp, but there was no fluctuation of power.

It was like a ray of light without any offensive power.

The more it was like this, the more Zhang Ruochen felt the danger. However, in his Profound Spatial Dimension, with just a thought, his body had retreated 300 meters.

“Condense!” Zhang Ruochen shouted.

Zhang Ruochen put his hands together, and the space in front of him froze layer by layer.

The Sword Qi broke the frozen space by 230 meters before it dissipated.

If such a powerful attack had hit a planet, that planet would have been split into two.

The purpose of Que’s attack was not to kill Zhang Ruochen. He only wanted to force Zhang Ruochen to retreat so he could break Yan Wushen’s Pagoda of Origin and the Great Yanluo Thousand Heads and Bodies Technique.

He did it!

Que’s body turned into an illusory light beam and shot into the sky, destroying all the 1,000 Pagodas of Origin.

Que’s Kagamaru struck Yan Wushen’s chest with incomparable precision. When it collided with the golden body, a golden bell chime that reverberated for tens of thousands of kilometers rang out. Yan Wushen clasped his hands together and clamped onto Kagamaru, dissipating a portion of its power.

“Your golden body is even harder than I imagined,” said Que.

Que wanted to retract his sword, but he realized that Yan Wushen’s hands were grabbing onto Kagamaru tightly.

“Asura Heaven’s Kill,” said Que.

Lan Ying’s body appeared behind Que, transitioning from blurry to solid.

Que’s Sword of Asura exploded with Supreme Power. Light broke through the clear sky, and he executed the Asura Sword Technique, slashing out horizontally.

Que snorted lightly, and Kagamaru turned from solid to blurry, leaving Yan Wushen’s palms.

In an instant, the sword turned from blurry to solid again.

SWISH!

SWISH!

Que waved more than 300 swords in a row, interweaving into an Oblivion Sword Domain. Dense sword light filled the entire world.

The Sword of Asura and the Asura world collided with the Oblivion Sword Domain.

BOOM!

The attack was evenly matched with Lan Ying’s. Both Lan Ying and Que were sent flying at the same time.

It seemed that they were evenly matched, but Lan Ying was not happy at all. That was because he had attacked with all his strength and activated the Supreme Power.

However, Lan Ying didn’t have time to accumulate power. He had received his attack in a hurry.

Such a result was already shocking enough.

The four people present were all peerless figures. They had been through more than a hundred battles. Each of them knew how to seize the opportunity and perform the most lethal moves.

As soon as Que was thrown out, tens of thousands of starlight beams flew out from Zhang Ruochen's Realm-frame of Truth. They hit him like thousands of arrows piercing through his heart.

Que gritted his teeth and put his body into a blurry state.

"Come out!"

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen shouted at the same time.

Their Profound Spatial Dimension was pushed to the extreme and suppressed the space where Que was. Then, the Light of Origin and the Null Time realm descended, forcing Que to reveal his body again.

Boom

The light of the stars in the shape of the Realm-frame of Truth hit Que.

Even though he was on the verge of death, Que was able to defend himself thanks to his incredible reaction time.

He blocked with his sword. Dense Precepts appeared on the sword and formed a circular arc of light to resist the light of the stars.

'How could I block it?' Que thought.

He flew backward again like a cannonball.

Lan Ying had already calculated the best time to attack. He sneaked out from behind Que and slashed across his waist.

Crack

Saint Blood splashed all over the place.

Que fell to the ground. A long sword wound appeared on his waist, and he bleed out Saint Blood continuously. Lan Ying laughed loudly, "I've fought with you so many times. Finally, you're bleeding!"

Lan Ying had previously been injured every time they fought, but Que had escaped unscathed.

How could Lan Ying not be happy? Seeing the wound on Que's waist, even Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were slightly relieved. They thought to themselves, 'It seems that he's not invincible.'

"Nobody has ever been able to harm me. You're pretty good," Que said.

Que's gaze turned extremely sharp.

He suddenly stomped on the ground. Suddenly, thick ice appeared on the ground under his feet and spread to the three people standing in three directions.

The ice rose from the ground and turned into three ice dragons. They let out deafening dragon roars. "Om!"

The Buddhist light on Yan Wushen's body was boundless. He spat out the first syllable from The Six Syllables Mantra. The ice dragons that rushed in front of him instantly exploded and turned into pieces of ice crystals.

"Not good," said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen's spiritual sense was astonishing. He sensed that danger was approaching

He immediately understood that the three ice dragons that Que had shot out were used to block the Light of Origin.

Without giving Yan Wushen a chance to react, a light sword as thin as a cicada's wings appeared on his upper right.

The sword slashed at Yan Wushen's neck.

BOOM!

The collision caused golden light to fly everywhere.

Yan Wushen's golden body was broken by the Power of Oblivion and flew out like a scarecrow. A long gash was left on his neck and he almost lost his head.

"How is this possible? How can the Power of Oblivion be so terrifying? My Golden Giant Mode and my Half-Buddha Physique can not be broken by even a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint," said Yan Wushen.

The golden light on Yan Wushen's body dissipated. He was worried that Que would continue to chase after him. Even if Yan Wushen did not die if Que has struck again, his head would most likely be severed.

Hence, after landing on the ground, Yan Wushen immediately fled into the distance, pulling a certain distance away.

Que was also very shocked. Yan Wushen was only slightly injured after being hit by his full-strength attack?

It should be known that he planned to kill Yan Wushen in one attack.

This was the most important part!

Because once Yan Wushen died, Que would be able to deal with Zhang Ruochen and Lan Ying without the suppression of the Light of Origin.

But the attack didn't work this time. Que had already been attacked by Zhang Ruochen and Lan Ying, so he'd missed his chance to kill Yan Wushen.

“Asura Cross-slash!”

Lan Ying's body seemed to split into two in an instant. He slashed out two swords at the same time.

The two swords crossed each other.

The Sword Qi was formed from the Qi of Slaughter, the chaotic qi, the Divine Qi, and the Supreme Power. More importantly, the Asura Sword Technique was amazing.

The Sword Qi Cross seemed to contain a unique space in the center that crazily absorbed everything in this space.

Que only felt that the space was divided into four parts, forming another four walls of Sword Qi.

“Mirror of Oblivion.”

Que's Kagemaru dispersed, and all the Precepts of Oblivion sank, forming a round, smooth mirror under his feet. The space around the mirror became distorted, and the sword Qi immediately turned into oblivion as it approached.

Lan Ying's Asura Cross-slash was swallowed by the Mirror of Oblivion as soon as it got close and silently dissipated.

Lan Ying's tender face revealed a hint of surprise.

BANG!

Que displayed unparalleled speed and punched Lan Ying's chest, causing his body to explode and turn into a colorful and chaotic light fog. "Huh?"

Que was a little surprised. No matter how weak Lan Ying's defense was, he shouldn't have been killed so easily, right?

Que didn't have time to investigate Lan Ying's life or death and he diverted his attention to Zhang Ruochen.

Kagemaru has condensed on Que's hand again.

Que and Kagemaru merged into one. They turned into a sword of flowing light and flew out, hitting Zhang Ruochen's River of Time.

The sword broke the River of Time.

The tip of the sword struck Zhang Ruochen's right palm from the head of the River of Time to the end of the river.

Zhang Ruochen's speed was not much slower than Que's thanks to the Profound Spatial Dimension and Null Time realm. He moved out at the first opportunity, avoiding the sword.

It could be said that only Zhang Ruochen's speed could compete with Que's.

Swish Swish

Kagemaru slashed again, but Zhang Ruochen dodged it again.

Each holds a sword, one chasing, and one dodging.

It didn't take long for Que to slash out thousands of swords. Finally, he caught up with Zhang Ruochen, forcing him to a corner.

The white light sword was right in front of Zhang Ruochen's eyes, filling his pupils. Yan Wushen's golden body was also shattered. Que's Oblivion Sword must have been terrifying. If he was hit, his body would be split into two.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the Violet Gourd and hacked it out at the critical moment. It slammed into Kagemaru. Sword Qi erupted and spread in all directions.

Zhang Ruochen slid back more than 10 miles. His body was hit by the Oblivion Sword Qi, leaving four bloody holes in his chest.

Swoosh

Kagemaru flew in a circle in the air and landed on the ground, revealing Que's tall and thin figure.

He stood there as if he was standing in the center of the universe, displaying a King's Qi of the first place on the list of Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Zhang Ruochen had to raise his understanding of Que to another level after the battle. A person who could cultivate the Grade Two Saintwill and the Master of Oblivion was indeed a rare existence in a Yuanhui period.

"Why did you stop?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Que said, "If I continue to attack, you won't be able to fight back. In the end, you won't be able to escape death. But I'd like to see your Grade Two Saintwill before you die."

Grade Two Saintwill couldn't be seen all the time.

In an era, the probability of two Grade Two Saintwill appearing at the same time was very small.

Of course, Que wanted to see Zhang Ruochen's Grade Two Saintwill. Perhaps he could comprehend something from it. It would help him perfect his Grade Two Saintwill.

"Aren't you afraid that you'll die under my Grade Two Saintwill?" Zhang Ruochen understood Que's intentions and smiled.

Que said, "With your cultivation of breaking 30 shackles, if you can threaten my life, I deserve to die at your hands."

“Okay, as you wish,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen spread his ten golden wings on his back and flew up.

Then, the huge Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King appeared behind him, giving off a dazzling golden light. He displayed the saint technique, Incarceration of Divine Demon, and combined it with the Saint Aspect.

As Zhang Ruochen’s aura became stronger and stronger, Que’s eyes became more and more serious.

In this world, Zhang Ruochen could be considered one of the cultivators who could make him cautious.

The sword in Que’s hand drew out sword moves one after another. He also mobilized the Saintwill he had cultivated and merged it with the sword moves, reaching a natural state.

His Grade Two Saintwill was a combination of the Path of Oblivion, Swordsmanship, Path of Flowing Light, and the Path of Wind.

He was so fast because he had excelled in both the Path of Flowing Light and the Path of Wind. He had also bred the top-tier Grade Four Saintwill.

The Path of Flowing Light was the fastest among the speed category Path. It was one of the best among the 72 Paths of Supreme Saint.

Que closed his eyes and completely immersed himself in the sword technique.

He had to go all out with this strike. He had to not only break Zhang Ruochen’s Saintwill but also kill Zhang Ruochen. When he entered the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, he did have the restriction of not killing anyone. However, Zhang Ruochen, Yan Wushen, and Lan Ying had joined forces and threatened his life.

How could he just sit there and wait for death?

“Yin Yang Five-Element, Incarceration of Divine Demon.”

The Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill and the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King merged into one. Zhang Ruochen stepped on Que while standing in the center of the Divine Demon's shadow.

With the support of the Saintwill, this attack triggered a heaven and earth phenomenon. Thunder and lightning struck the nine heavens above the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King.

There were hundreds of millions of corpses below. It was the scenery of hell.

The entire world was dark.

“Oblivion Sword form, A Thousand Revolutions and One Sword.”

When Que flew up, his body disappeared. He merged with Kagemaru and attacked the Yin Yang Five-Element light cloud below the Divine Demon Shadow's feet. As soon as they came into contact, the Yin Yang Five-Element light cloud turned into a Taiji Mark.

Chapter 2358 The Last Seal

The Taiji Mark spun rapidly, emitting five-colored saint light.

Five different powerful forces surged within. Like a Doomsday Millstone, they could crush everything in the world.

Zhang Ruochen was confident that he could compete with a Supreme Saint at the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm with this attack.

Even if it was as powerful as Kagamaru, when it hit the Taiji Mark, it was pulled in by the spiral Qi contained in the mark. The sword's direction was shifted.

However, soon, 16 billion Precepts burst out from the sword. With a loud bang, the Taiji Mark was broken.

Boom

The Incarceration of Divine Demon was also pierced through by the sword.

Kagamaru was like a beam of light. It passed through the huge Divine Demon's shadow and stabbed straight at Zhang Ruochen, who was floating in the center of the shadow.

Zhang Ruochen did not panic amid a life-or-death situation. Instead, his thoughts were unmistakable.

Zhang Ruochen did not understand enough about Que.

However, Zhang Ruochen understood his own power very well.

With the 3.6 billion Precepts that Zhang Ruochen had cultivated, it was easy for him to defeat other Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Zhang Ruochen did not think much of the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints who had cultivated more than ten billion Precepts and had already transformed into Path.

Because the more Precepts, the better. One had to know how to use them exquisitely.

But Que also knew how to use the Precepts in the best way. The number of Precepts was many times more than Zhang Ruochen's. It could be said that Zhang Ruochen knew that he would lose without a doubt before the battle even started.

He might even die.

However, Que had made a fatal mistake.

He should not have given Zhang Ruochen the chance to use his strongest attack when Yan Wushen was still alive and Lan Ying's life was uncertain.

He was too conceited!

The conceit was the biggest weakness of all geniuses and powerful people.

Zhang Ruochen had the opportunity to save his life and change the outcome today because of Que's error.

As long as Zhang Ruochen could block Que's sword, even if it was only for a short time, Yan Wushen and Lan Ying would seize the opportunity to give Que a fatal blow.

When Que attacked with all his strength, his defense would be at its weakest.

Zhang Ruochen's challenge was to see if he could block Kagemaru for a split second. The outcome, their life and death, their success and failure, all depended on this split second.

Yan Wushen stood on the ground in the distance and his neck wound had healed.

Yan Wushen's eyes burned like fire as he watched the shadow of the Divine Demon collapse. Kagemaru was getting closer and closer to Zhang Ruochen, he couldn't help but say, "Zhang Ruochen, no matter what, you can't die under Que's sword. Otherwise, I will regret it for the rest of my life. You must die under my palm if you want to die."

Boom

Yan Wushen's palms collided. His body shone with a peerless golden light again. His golden body grew bigger and bigger, transforming into Golden Giant Mode.

Inside the golden body, there were thousands of Buddha chants, and the sound of Buddha was like thunder.

A Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared in front of him. He was ready to cross space and attack at any time. Even though it was very dangerous to walk through the Spatial Wormhole Mirror in this world full of Path Locks, he wasn't afraid at all.

After Lan Ying's body exploded, he turned into a colorful and chaotic light fog and filled the world.

At this moment, all the chaotic light fog started rolling. Like boiling water, energy tides burst out.

Of course, Que knew that Lan Ying was probably not dead. He also knew that Yan Wushen would definitely attack.

Therefore, Que didn't just want to kill Zhang Ruochen. He wanted to lure Lan Ying and Yan Wushen to attack and kill them too. Otherwise, if Lan Ying, Yan Wushen, and Zhang Ruochen wanted to escape, he could only kill one person at most.

If Que wanted to kill, he had to kill all of them.

Kagemaru finally broke through all of Zhang Ruochen's defenses, and the tip of the sword hit the bottom of Zhang Ruochen's left foot.

If any other cultivator faced such a threat, he would most likely perish, even if his cultivation had advanced to the Banshi Isshou Realm.

However, Zhang Ruochen's leg was not ordinary. It was a divine leg.

Whoosh

His entire left leg turned golden in an instant. 10 million crimson Divine Marks of Flame appeared. A large number of divine flames surged out from his foot and clashed with Kagemaru. It suppressed the sword's momentum for a moment.

At that moment.

Yan Wushen stepped into the Spatial Wormhole Mirror and appeared beside Kagemaru in an instant. He struck out with all his strength.

Although Que had merged with Kagemaru and seemed to be one with the sword, he was still injured.

However, as long as Yan Wushen hit him, it would still hurt Que.

“I’ve been waiting for you for a long time!”

Que’s voice was heard.

Kagemaru, which had collided with Yanshen’s leg, changed its attack direction and slashed down vertically.

The sword tip reached the top of Yan Wushen’s head and wanted to split his body into two.

This was a premeditated killing sword!

Yan Wushen was obviously prepared. He demonstrated the adaptability and reaction speed of a peerless genius at this critical moment of life and death. He shouted, “Bridge of Vaitarna!”

An ancient stone bridge flew out from between his brows and collided with Kagemaru.

The Bridge of Vaitarna was not a Supreme Artifact, but a stone bridge formed naturally from heaven and earth. It had been formed for tens of millions of years.

Legend had it that this bridge was once located in the distant dark starry sky between Celestial Court and Infernal Court. Although it was a bridge, it was connected to many worlds.

The bridge was hundreds of millions of miles long when it was fully opened. It has the potential to cross the galaxy and connect all worlds.

Later, many gods of the Yanluo clan worked together to take the Bridge of Vaitarna away.

Even with the power of the gods of the Yanluo Clan, they could not refine the Bridge of Vaitarna into an artifact. They only left a large number of secret engravings on the bridge.

They could easily use the Bridge of Vaitarna as a weapon by controlling the secret engravings.

The Bridge of Vaitarna that flew out from Yan Wushen's glabella was not its actual body, but a light shadow condensed from a secret art.

BOOM!

Kagemaru was indestructible and cut the Bridge of Vaitarna in half. The sword light landed on Yan Wushen's body.

Yan Wushen turned around and jumped into the Spatial Wormhole Mirror.

Crack

The Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared on the ground a hundred miles away. Yan Wushen rushed out and crashed heavily into the ground. His body was covered in blood and he was severely injured.

Que was also in great danger. When he was controlling Kagemaru and attacking Yan Wushen, Lan Ying rushed out with the Sword of Asura in his hand from the colorful and chaotic light fog.

Flames were burning in Lan Ying's eyes, and the Sword of Asura in his hand was so red that it was dripping blood.

"Take my strongest move, World-destroyer Asura."

With this attack, Lan Ying activated his Saintwill and released all the Precepts in his body. The Sword of Asura in his hand became extremely heavy. He held the hilt tightly with both hands and used all his strength to slash out.

The Asura world within a thousand miles turned completely red.

Boom

The Sword of Asura and Kagemaru collided heavily.

In an instant, Que reappeared. He held the hilt tightly and fought against Lan Ying.

In the end, Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen's cultivation was still too low. Only Lan Ying was Que's strongest enemy and the one who could threaten him the most.

The two held each sword in a stalemate.

On Lan Ying's child-like face, a sinister smile appeared. He said, "Zhang Ruochen's Incarceration of Divine Demon and Yan Wushen's Bridge of Vaitarna have long exhausted your Saintwill's power. You are now an arrow at the end of its flight. Rather than struggling, it's better to save your energy to escape."

Que didn't say a word. His face was as grim as iron, and his eyes were sharp and fierce.

Lan Ying was right. Most of Que's strongest sword power had been consumed by Zhang Ruochen's Grade Two Saintwill and Incarceration of Divine Demon. However, there was also a strong Swordsmanship power that rushed into Zhang Ruochen's left leg through the soles of his feet.

Zhang Ruochen's left leg was a god's leg. It could indeed burst out a strong power, but that power was not completely under his control.

Que's sword attack contained a strong Power of Oblivion. It broke through the last seal that Moon Goddess had placed on Yanshen's leg.

Suddenly, the divine power and divine flame, which were ten times stronger than before, gushed out crazily.

This power could only be controlled by comprehending the Divine Mark of Flame. However, Zhang Ruochen had only comprehended 10 million Divine Marks of Flame. After the seal was broken, the number of Divine Mark of Flame had reached 100 million.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't possibly control it.

Zhang Ruochen's plan was to wait until he had reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm before he could break the fourth seal that Moon Goddess had placed on the leg. Then, he would seclude himself for some time and slowly comprehend 100 million Divine Marks of Flame without anyone disturbing him, he would control all the divine power contained in the leg.

Zhang Ruochen's plan was disrupted, and he fell into a desperate situation instead.

The divine flame in his left leg was raging uncontrollably. His flesh and blood were burned red like a hot iron. They glowed golden as if they were about to melt.

Zhang Ruochen tried his best to control 10 million Divine Marks of Flame to suppress the divine flame, but he failed.

The divine flame spread to his waist through his meridians, sainthood meridians, and blood vessels. His whole body gradually burned.

The Demigod-level physique was indeed powerful, but the divine flame was cultivated by Yanshen. It could be used to burn and refine gods. Wasn't it easy to burn and refine a demigod?

Zhang Ruochen clenched his fists. His body was writhing in agony. The fire melted his meridians, sainthood meridians, and blood vessels. His body was turned into gold by the fire.

Even after suffering so much, Zhang Ruochen still didn't give up. He struggled to activate the Heart of the Divine Tree and recover his melted body.

"Precepts of Water!" Zhang Ruochen called out.

In the Heavenly Stream, a large number of Precepts of Water rushed out of his sea of Qi to fight against the divine flame.

However, it was a drop in the bucket.

Tens of millions of Precepts of Water couldn't stand up to the blazing divine flame.

The more dangerous the moment, the clearer Zhang Ruochen became. Suddenly, he thought and said, "Yin Yang five elements, Elemental Conversion."

The power of the five elements countered each other.

Since Zhang Ruochen could transform the power of metal contained in the Apex Intergold Qi into water, fire, earth, and wood, he could transform the power of fire contained in the divine flame into metal, wood, water, and earth. With the conversion of the five elements.

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and let the divine flame burn his body. He cultivated the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill and activated the Empyrean Emperor Ming's Scripture.

In the distance, the green scale-covered mountain range raised a huge dragon head. On the top of the head, there was a swastika mark. "His body has integrated the Apex Intergold Qi. It seems that he has passed the Tiger's preliminary test. He's indeed a peerless hero. He actually thought of cultivating the Yin Yang five elements and achieved incredible results." said the Swastika Seiryu.

The Swastika Seiryu had been paying attention to the battle between Zhang Ruochen and the other three. He was actually quite amazed. Their talents, minds, and methods were all Grade One.

He had waited here for 30,000 years and seen countless talents of the Yanluo Clan. However, there were only one or two who could reach the level of the four of them.

The Swastika Seiryu said, "It's a pity that this kid's body contains the power of the divine flame. It's so powerful that he can't control it. The five elements conversion was indeed a good method. Unfortunately, the divine flame was too powerful. The conversion speed couldn't keep up with the refining speed of the body.

"It's been 30,000 years here. I can't sleep anymore. Since I've decided to come out, Tiger, you should come out with me!"

The Swastika Seiryu decided to help Zhang Ruochen. After all, if he was burned to death by the divine flame, the Intergold Tiger would lose its guide. Who knew how many years it would take before it could be born.

If one is to be born, both must be born together.

Just as Zhang Ruochen's internal organs began to melt, a cool dragon-shaped Qi flow surged into his body.

This dragon-shaped Qi flow was the same as the energy released by the Heart of the Divine Tree. It was also of the wood element. It protected his body and bought him more time.

Zhang Ruochen didn't have time to care about where this dragon-shaped Qi flow came from. He just greedily absorbed it. While recovering his burned body, he continued to activate the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill to transform the divine flame.

Boom!

Inside his body, there was an explosion. It was the thirty-first shackle. The divine flame had shattered it.

Boom

A moment later, the thirty-second shackle was broken.

Lan Ying and Que's swords collided. In the end, the Sword of Asura broke Kagamaru and slashed at Que's chest, leaving a deep bloody scar.

Que's body was almost broken into two.

Lan Ying laughed. "Now you know that the so-called Imperial Artifact of Precept is not as strong as you think, right?"

"You are too proud!" Que snorted.

The broken Kagamaru turned into dense Precepts, and soon, it condensed into a sword again.

Que ignored the wounds on his body and attacked with all his strength. He slashed out with his sword, and Lan Ying could only defend passively.

After more than two thousand strikes, Que broke through Lan Ying's defense and pierced through his chest. The Power of Oblivion burst out, and Lan Ying's chest became a transparent hole.

Lan Ying screamed and retreated quickly.

His speed was incomparable to Que's. He was caught up in an instant.

“Slash!”

Que used another sword technique of Oblivion to cut into Lan Ying’s right arm.

His entire right arm was swallowed by oblivion and disappeared.

Lan Ying was shocked and scared. He looked around to find Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen. He was no match for Que alone. It was even difficult for him to escape.

Unfortunately, Yan Wushen disappeared after he fell to the ground with serious injuries.

Zhang Ruochen was hit by Que’s sword. His body burned up and he fell to the ground. A large area of golden land was burned into a lava lake. Most of them had died from self-immolation.

How could Que be so powerful? The three of them had failed miserably together.

Lan Ying had never accepted his fate. He had never been afraid of anything. But at this moment, he felt a trace of despair. It was not because of Que, but because of oblivion.

No matter how strong Que was, if he had not mastered the Path of Oblivion, he would definitely not be able to do anything to him.

Que followed closely behind Lan Ying, he said, “Aren’t you the Spirit of Slaughter? Don’t you have an undying body? I want to see what will happen when the nine-colored chaotic qi and the Qi of Slaughter in your body completely turn into oblivion.”

Chapter 2359 Lan Ying's Downfall

"If you want to kill me, you will have to pay a heavy price," said Lan Ying.

Lan Ying's face turned ferocious, and silver demonic marks appeared on his face.

The Power of Oblivion continuously devoured the chaotic energy and Divine Qi in his body, making him weaker and weaker. If he continued to sit and wait for death, he would definitely be worn to death.

Instead of doing that, he might as well fight back with his life.

"Chaos beginning, birthing Asura."

The Sword of Asura flew out of his hand and floated above Lan Ying's head, emitting an astonishing blood light.

The sword light turned into sword Qi, forming a circular sword domain.

In the sword domain, Lan Ying's missing arm grew back. Soon after, his body became chaotic, like a human-shaped nine-colored universe.

Three hundred years ago, Lan Ying had absorbed all the divine Qi and Qi of Slaughter from an ancient battlefield relic before he was born.

He was a cultivator in Saint Realm when he was born.

Although he had become a Supreme Saint, there was still a large amount of divine Qi and Qi of Slaughter hidden in the depths of his body.

At this moment, Lan Ying used a secret technique to draw out the hidden power by burning his divine Qi.

Que sensed that Lan Ying's aura was getting stronger and stronger. He knew that he was going to give it his all. His eyes turned cold and he took two steps forward. Kagemaru in his hand left a long sword mark and slashed at the Sword of Asura's domain.

Whoosh

The blood-red sword domain was torn apart by a twelve-meter-long gash.

Que raised his sword and rushed into the sword domain. His sword was like a light as it stabbed at the center of Lan Ying’s brows.

“Is that so?”

Lan Ying, who was standing in the center of the chaotic light, suddenly opened his eyes. Two beams of colorful lights flew out from his pupils and collided with the sword light that was coming straight at him.

Rumble

The collision of two powerful forces shook the sword domain until it collapsed.

Que retreated backward until he was outside of the chaotic fog. Only then did he stabilize his body. He stared at Lan Ying and muttered to himself, “He has become so much stronger?”

Burning his divine Qi was to burn the foundation of his godhood in exchange for a short period of powerful strength.

The Qi of Slaughter on Lan Ying’s body surged. He grabbed the Sword of Asura and chased after Que.

“As long as I kill you, I’ll be first on the list of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

Lan Ying’s aura was ferocious. He slashed down with his sword vertically.

Que used his nimbleness to escape at high speed. He did not confront Lan Ying head-on.

Que had to pay a huge price to burn his divine qi. As long as he could stall Lan Ying for a while, he would collapse without attacking.

“Where are you going?”

Lan Ying raised the Sword of Asura above his head. The sword qi and the Qi of Slaughter condensed into an Infernal Asura in the sky. As he slashed down with his sword, the blood-red Infernal Asura also pressed down.

Que looked up as he ran away and immediately mobilized the Power of Oblivion.

Whoosh

In an instant, Que's body turned into oblivion and disappeared from the ground.

The suppression of the Infernal Asura caused the land within a thousand miles to shake violently.

The sword Qi of the Sword of Asura was like a blood-red aurora, piercing through the golden land from north to south.

Crack

Que appeared from oblivion and was hit by the Sword Qi of the Sword of Asura. His body was split into two, flying left and right, and a large amount of blood spilled on the ground.

However, the two halves of his body quickly got up from the ground. A dazzling light appeared on both halves of his body, and the other half grew out. Instantly, two identical figures stood on the left and right, as if they had used the clone technique.

Both Que and Yan Wushen raised their heads at the same time and looked at the eastern sky with sharp eyes.

There was a blazing sun floating in the sky.

The blazing sun emitted the Light of Origin.

In the center of the blazing sun, there was a heroic figure. It was none other than Yan Wushen, who had disappeared earlier.

Previously, if Yan Wushen hadn't used the Light of Origin at the critical moment to force him out of the oblivion, Lan Ying's attacks would have been ineffective.

Lan Ying let out a sinister laugh as he walked over step by step, "You've already been invaded by the Qi of Slaughter, you'll definitely lose today. Hand over the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and I'll let you live."

"I've already swallowed the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill." Que's split bodies spoke at the same time, making a series of overlapping sounds.

"What did you say?" Lan Ying asked angrily.

The Qi of Slaughter on Lan Ying's body became even more intense. His eyes were about to pop out of their sockets, and he was extremely angry.

Lan Ying had to pay a huge price to burn his divine Qi. He wanted to snatch the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and make up for his losses.

If Que had already consumed the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, then Lan Ying had only one option.

"I'll devour you," said Lan Ying

A vast, chaotic mist surged out of Lan Ying, emitting colorful lights as it spun rapidly.

Even a large portion of Lan Ying's body turned into mist, enveloping Que's split bodies and pulling them toward the center of the vortex.

Devouring was the innate ability of the Lan Ying.

Once any powerhouse was absorbed into his body, they wouldn't be able to escape the fate of being refined. There was no way for them to break free. This was because the body of the Lan Ying was formed from Qi of Slaughter. It was the Spirit of Slaughter.

If one couldn't break through the Qi of Slaughter, they wouldn't be able to escape.

Que appeared extremely calm as he said, "If you wish to devour me, you are only destroying yourself."

Que, who was standing on the left, executed the Path of Flowing Light and charged towards the center of the vortex at his fastest speed. His body emitted a blinding light as his body exploded.

“Return to oblivion,” said Que.

Lan Ying let out a terrified cry, “You want to die... together...”

Boom

After Que’s body exploded, the Power of Oblivion that was formed devoured the colorful and chaotic light that spread for hundreds of miles and instantly turned into oblivion.

Even the golden soil on the ground, as well as the space itself, vanished.

The area with a diameter of hundreds of miles directly turned into oblivion. At the edge of the oblivion, there was a space-shattering zone. Half of it was golden and the other half was black.

Lan Ying had fallen!

No one would have thought that Lan Ying, who should have unlimited possibilities in the future and had the potential to become a deity, would actually die here.

Que’s other body stood at the edge of the oblivion, holding Kagemaru in his hand. He stared at the sun in the eastern sky and said, “How do you wish to die?”

Yan Wushen was extremely shocked. He still could not accept the fact that Lan Ying had died. After a long time, he finally calmed down, he said, “You self-destructed half of your body to kill Lan Ying. Your combat power must have dropped drastically. Do you think you can still kill me?”

Que said, “Blow up half of my body and my battle power will definitely drop? Your understanding of me is still too little.”

The battle intent on Que did not decrease. He burst out with extreme speed and charged straight at Yan Wushen.

Kagemaru was like a shooting star that pierced through the sky. In front of the tip of the sword, oblivion was formed.

“The Six Paths of Reincarnation.”

Behind Yan Wushen, the huge shadow of Progenitor Yama appeared. He punched out, forming a scene of The Six Paths of Reincarnation. The world shook.

Kagemaru broke through The Six Paths of Reincarnation with a crushing force. The sword slashed across Yan Wushen's face, leaving a deep bloody scar.

Que changed his move quickly and swept the sword across.

Yan Wushen froze the space, forming layers of Spatial Shields. However, he was still hit by Que's sword, leaving a bloody wound on his abdomen. He was almost cut in half.

BANG!

Yan Wushen fell heavily to the ground, creating a huge pit with a diameter of dozens of meters.

'Half of his body was self-destructed, how come it didn't weaken at all?' Yan Wushen thought. He flipped over and stood up with one hand on the ground. His pair of Divine Eyes of Origin stared at Que, who was floating in the air, trying to see through him?

"This era is my era after all. It's over. Send my regards to Lan Ying!" said Que.

Que held his sword with both hands and raised the white light sword above his head. Streaks of lightning-like white light connected the sword and the sky, illuminating him as if he was a divine being.

Just as Que was about to slash down, he sensed a spatial fluctuation.

Above his head, a palm-sized Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared.

A black droplet flew out from the mirror.

BOOM!

The black droplet exploded, forming a terrifying destructive wave. It contained Darkness, Dimension, and Time, three different attacking powers.

Even though Que's reflexes were extremely fast and he had escaped for miles in an instant, he was still pierced through by a Dimensional Rift. The Power of Darkness and Time invaded his body.

Yan Wushen, who was in the pit, had already activated the Bridge of Vaitarna between his brows. He intended to fight Que to the death.

The sudden accident made him slightly stunned. He looked up into the sky.

He saw a crimson fire cloud appear.

Every cloud was like a ball of divine fire, burning fiercely and releasing a terrifying power that made one's heart palpitate.

The sea of fire clouds covered the entire sky, with no end in sight.

A foot as big as a mountain broke through the clouds and stepped on the top of Que's head. "Zhang... Ruo... Chen... Chen..."

Que felt a strong and hot air pressure pressing down on his body, making him unable to move.

Being attacked by the Dark Space-time Matter, Que was extremely weak at the moment. He immediately used the Power of Oblivion and his body rapidly turned into oblivion. Only by turning into complete oblivion could he neutralize the power of Zhang Ruochen's kick.

"I knew you wouldn't die so early."

Yan Wushen coughed up blood and laughed. He released the Light of Origin and the Profound Spatial Dimension at the same time and suppressed Que's body, forcing Que to be unable to completely turn to oblivion.

Rumble

Finally, Zhang Ruochen's Yanshen's leg and Que's palms collided.

The golden earth couldn't withstand the impact and sank. The powerful Qi waves sent Yan Wushen, who was standing in the distance, flying for more than ten miles.

When all the power fluctuations calmed down, Yan Wushen looked over. Zhang Ruochen stood on the ground, his left leg still burning with divine flames. The ten golden wings on his back were like ten clouds.

Que's presence didn't disappear, but it became very weak.

Whoosh

Que flew out from the broken ground. He was covered in blood. Standing in front of Zhang Ruochen, he glanced at Yan Wushen in the distance. His eyes were filled with unwillingness and coldness.

Que had killed Lan Ying in today's battle, but he hadn't expected to end up in the hands of Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, two cultivators whose cultivation was still far from the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You are seriously injured. Lan Ying's Qi of Slaughter, the Power of Dimension, Darkness, and Time of the Dark Space-time Matter, as well as the divine flame power of Yanshen's Leg, have all invaded your body and are destroying your flesh and Saint Soul. Do you still want to fight?"

"You seem to have become stronger!" said Que.

It was obvious that Zhang Ruochen had broken eight more shackles.

The total number of broken shackles reached thirty-eight.

"It's all thanks to you," Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Wushen walked up from another direction, forming a triangle with Que and Zhang Ruochen.

Obviously, Yan Wushen no longer regarded Que as his biggest enemy but was also on guard against Zhang Ruochen.

Que knew that Yan Wushen still had a trump card that he had not used yet, so he could not ignore him. He suggested, "Zhang Ruochen has mastered the Dark Space-time Matter and has achieved a great breakthrough in cultivation. Why don't we join hands and kill him first?"

Yan Wushen said, "If you give me the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, I'll join hands with you."

Then he added, "Don't tell me that you've already eaten the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Only Lan Ying will believe that."

Zhang Ruochen picked up the Violet Gourd and injected Saint Qi into it. The Supreme Inscription inside the gourd revived and released more and more power.

Zhang Ruochen said, "You'd better think it through. This is the home planet of the Yanluo Clan. Even if you and Yan Wushen join hands to kill me, you won't be able to escape. Only if you and I join hands will we have a chance to survive today. I only want the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. I don't want your life."

Zhang Ruochen continued, "Outside, the Yanluo clan cultivators must have set up an impenetrable net at this point. We can't break out by force. Only if we join hands to capture Yan Wushen can we make them fear the consequences."

Que asked, "You want to work with me?"

"There are no eternal enemies in the world, only eternal interests," Zhang Ruochen said.

Que took out the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and held it in his left palm. The pill was sealed inside a crystal, emitting a dazzling light. There were dense pill ley lines that spread outward and interweaved like a spider web.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen's eyes tightened.

Que indeed hadn't swallowed the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was rare. It was a treasure that even the Grand Supreme Elixir Master couldn't refine. No one knew how amazing its power was. It could even help a cultivator condense a single Grade Three Saintwill.

Any cultivator who saw it couldn't control their desires.

Que smiled and said, "You all want the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Who should I give it to?"

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were both extraordinary people. They quickly restrained their emotions and forced themselves to calm down.

“Why don’t I take it myself?”

Que’s eyes turned cold. With a crack, he crushed the crystal on the surface of the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. He pinched the pill between his fingers and fed it to his mouth.

“Dimensional Freeze.”

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen used their strongest Power of Dimension at the same time to suppress Que.

At the same time, a golden pillar of light formed by Supreme Power rushed out from the Violet Gourd and charged toward Que’s chest.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen’s swift and fierce attacks forced Que to not be able to swallow the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Que had to use the Oblivion Sword to break through the frozen dimension. Then he swiftly dodged the Violet Gourd’s attack.

“Dimensional Sword Dance.”

“Yama Naraka.”

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen reached a tacit understanding. They rushed forward and used their skills. They wanted to kill Que first before fighting for the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

Chapter 2360 A Sudden Turn of Events

The strange mark on Yan Wushen's forehead emitted an extremely dim light, causing the Buddha aura and precepts of heaven and earth to continuously gather towards him.

At the same time, the nearly four billion Precepts in his body surged out and formed a materialized Infernal world.

The cold wind whistled, and tens of thousands of ghosts wailed.

In that Infernal world, Blood Suns were hanging in the sky, tens of thousands of tombstones, divine coffins floating, and white skeletons marching. When Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen first fought in Luoshui, he was forced to use the Sundial to resolve this powerful attack.

Now, Yan Wushen's cultivation was many times higher than it was back then, and he had developed the Yama Naraka again. Its formation had suppressed Zhang Ruochen to a certain extent.

'He has already cultivated four billion Precepts, 400 million more than me.' Zhang Ruochen thought as he was a little surprised. He didn't know what Yan Wushen's opportunity was, how he could have improved so much.

"A mere Yama Naraka can't suppress me," said Que.

In front, Que let out a long whistle.

Kagemaru was like a white rainbow piercing the sun. It flew into the sky and clashed with the Infernal world.

One sword split into eight swords, then sixty-four swords, evolving into five hundred and twelve swords.

TO

Finally, ten thousand swords flew together.

"If I was at my peak, I would only need one sword to break his Yama Naraka."

Que used all his power to tear Yama Naraka apart with ten thousand swords, turning them into wisps of ghastly ghost mist. At the same time, he spat out blood and suffered the backlash from all the power in his body.

Pfft

Zhang Ruochen's thirty-six Dimensional Swords combined into one and hit Que's chest.

Que's hands formed sword fingers and controlled the ten thousand swords to block his chest. The dense sword light was like sparks on water, colliding fiercely with the Dimensional Swords.

Bang Bang

The ten thousand swords shattered.

The Dimensional Swords pierced through Que's chest with crushing power and flew out of his back.

The impact of the sword sent Que's body flying backward. He crashed into a golden mountain and created a deep pit on the cliff.

Zhang Ruochen didn't give him time to catch his breath. He flew to the top of the golden mountain. His left foot burst out with earth-shaking divine power and pressed down heavily.

The golden mountain was more than 3,000 meters high. Its geological structure was compact and even more stable than a mountain made of gold.

Boom

The mountain sank under the foot of the Yanshen's Leg. A large amount of soil and rocks melted.

A moment later, the golden mountain disappeared. There was only a divine flame fire domain and a golden lava lake below.

Zhang Ruochen spread the ten wings on his back and controlled his body to balance. His spiritual power locked onto Que's Qi fluctuation. He secretly mobilized his Saint Qi and injected it into the Violet Gourd to activate the Supreme Inscription.

Yan Wushen arrived not far away. His gaze was solemn. The strength of Zhang Ruochen's leg astounded him.

The strange mark between his brows flashed with dark light again. He didn't know if he wanted to activate Yama Naraka again or the Bridge of Vaitarna.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Yan Wushen from the corner of his eyes. He was on guard.

CRASH!

Que turned into a black light beam, broke through the golden lava, and flew into the air.

His injuries became more serious. His skin was charred black by the divine flame. He no longer had the heroic bearing of number one on the list of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He was no longer human, and blood kept gushing out of the wounds on his body.

Que looked at Zhang Ruochen with his eyes and waved his right hand.

“Zhang Ruochen, here is the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill,” said Que.

A ball of bright light flew to Zhang Ruochen at an extremely fast speed.

Zhang Ruochen was worried that there was a trap. He used the Power of Dimension contained in the Profound Spatial Dimension to neutralize the impact of the light fog, causing it to slowly stop in front of him.

Upon closer inspection, it was indeed the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill in the light fog.

Although Zhang Ruochen was extremely excited, he did not lose his mind. He quickly understood.

This was a delaying tactic and a diversion.

Que was very clear that the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was a hot potato. It was the root cause of the siege.

Even if Que ingested the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill right now, he would almost certainly be captured by the Yanluo Clan, thrown into the pill furnace, and refined into a pill once more.

Hiding in the Yanluo Clan's home planet was a brilliant strategy.

Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen's cultivation had far exceeded his expectations. They were the two biggest variables in his defeat today.

At that moment, the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill could not be kept. Que could only give it away.

The keeper of the pill could only be Zhang Ruochen.

This was because even if Zhang Ruochen received the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he would not refine it immediately. Instead, he would save it and further enhance his Grade Three Saintwill.

'I'll leave it with you for now. When I recover, I'll take it back myself,' Que thought.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen knew that if he took the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he would be attacked from all sides and end up like Que. But he still reached out and took the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill without hesitation.

"The path I'm taking now is too difficult. I can't do it without the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill." Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen took the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Without thinking, he rushed to the exit of this world at his fastest speed.

Ahead.

Specks of light scattered in the air.

The specks of light were nine-colored and formed a small vortex.

A blood-red sword flew out of the nine-colored vortex. It dragged a dozens-meter-long tail and slammed into Zhang Ruochen's chest.

"Sword of Asura!" Zhang Ruochen exclaimed.

Zhang Ruochen's pupils contracted. He was both surprised and shocked.

Zhang Ruochen thought, 'Who was controlling the Sword of Asura?

'Was it the sword spirit or Lan Ying?'

Not to mention Zhang Ruochen, even Yan Wushen and Que were shocked.

The speed and power of the Sword of Asura were extremely powerful. Moreover, it was very precise in timing. It had been hidden perfectly.

The sword attack contained profound sword comprehension and rushed toward Zhang Ruochen's weakest point.

How could the sword spirit do it?

At that critical moment, it was too late to use any means. However, Zhang Ruochen had used three moves in a row to resolve the crisis of death.

The first move was to use the power of the Profound Spatial Dimension to perform Dimensional Freeze instantly.

The second move was to rapidly shrink his body.

The third move was to bend the ten wings on his back and wrap his body inside, turning it into a golden ball the size of a marble. With the strength of the golden wings and the power of the Progenitor's blood vein, this move was always effective in the face of sudden danger.

BANG!

The Sword of Asura seemed to break through the layer of paper, piercing through the frozen space. The tip of the sword hit the golden ball with astonishing accuracy.

The golden ball was covered in blood streaks. It turned into a streak of golden light and flew backward.

The golden ball hit the ground and stirred up a thick layer of dust.

Zhang Ruochen's figure reappeared in the dust. All ten golden wings on his back were pierced through and golden blood flowed out. A bloody hole appeared on his back. The Qi of Slaughter invaded his body.

As Zhang Ruochen mobilized the Divine Purification Flame to refine the Qi of Slaughter, he released his spiritual power to guard against Que, Yan Wushen, and the Sword of Asura.

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly. He understood Que's previous situation. Being attacked by a group of freakishly strong geniuses was indeed a huge pressure.

More importantly, these freakishly strong geniuses couldn't die no matter how they fought.

Just like Lan Ying, he seemed to have survived the fatal attack.

Wisps of colorful light mist rushed out from the Sword of Asura and condensed into the figure of Lan Ying.

Lan Ying stood on the sword with his bare feet and said, "Don't look at me with such strange eyes. You are not qualified to kill me."

"Did you swallow the sword spirit and become one with the Sword of Asura?" Yan Wushen said with a smile as if he was deep in thought.

Lan Ying glanced at him coldly, "You don't know how great the Sword of Asura is. It's just that after it was reforged, it couldn't give birth to a sword spirit. That's why it remained at the level of a Supreme Artifact and couldn't advance any further.

"I ascended Mount Asura and became its sword spirit. That's why I was able to take it away.

"In the future, it and I will both step on the peak of gods and Divine Artifacts.

"Que, if you want to nurture a Divine Artifact, why wouldn't I want to nurture a Divine Artifact as well?"

Lan Ying wasn't a human, nor was he a living being or a dead spirit. He was a Spirit of Slaughter nurtured by the Qi of Slaughter on the ancient battlefield.

Because of that, Lan Ying could become the sword spirit of the Sword of Asura.

The Qi of Slaughter and the sword spirit could exist at the same time.

A trace of disdain could be seen in Que's eyes as he looked up, he said, "We are different. My future has unlimited possibilities. And your future will definitely be restricted by the Sword of Asura. When you decide to take control of the Sword of Asura and become its sword spirit, the so-called Divine Fetus is already dead!"

The Light of Slaughter on the Sword of Asura surged unceasingly, showing how intense the emotional fluctuations of Lan Ying were.

Just as Lan Ying was about to activate the Sword of Asura and attack Que, a loud laugh came from the direction of the golden world's exit. "Why hasn't your battle ended yet? Looks like I'm early!"

Yan Huangtu put his hands behind his back and strode forward, dragon shadows weaving around his body.

The Eight Sons of Life and Death followed closely behind Yan Huangtu and lined up in a row. The Yama Qi on the eight of them intertwined and complemented each other. The burst of power was much stronger than that of Yan Huangtu.

Zhang Ruochen's expression didn't change, but he looked toward the exit of the golden world. His eyes shone with a deep light.

Yan Huangtu glanced at Que, Lan Ying, and Zhang Ruochen one by one. He smiled. Everything was planned.

"All three of you seem to be seriously injured. Who has the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill? Hand it over immediately!" Yan Huangtu's tone was strong, and his eyes were sharp.

Before the other three could speak, Zhang Ruochen pointed at Yan Wushen and said, "Yan Wushen has already taken the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill."

"That's right. I gave it to him personally," Que said.

Standing on the Sword of Asura, Lan Ying could clearly see the situation, he said coldly, “Yan Wushen’s cultivation speed is too fast. Even I underestimated him. I didn’t expect him to become the final winner. In my opinion, Yan Huangtu, you are no longer his match. He is the number one powerhouse of the Yanluo Clan.”

The three of them knew very well that to break the dominance of the Yanluo Clan, they could only divide and alienate them.

They were all top geniuses. They didn’t believe that Yan Huangtu wasn’t jealous of Yan Wushen’s talent at all? He didn’t care about being surpassed by Yan Wushen?

Even if he wasn’t jealous, he didn’t care. The cultivators of the Yanluo clan would probably have many discussions.

Besides, did Yan Huangtu really not want the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?

Yan Huangtu might be able to surpass Yan Wushen and become the number one person in the Yanluo clan if he swallowed the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Such a temptation is not for everyone.

Yan Huangtu’s gaze swept over the four people. At least, he couldn’t find any flaws in Zhang Ruochen, Que, and Lan Ying. Finally, his gaze fell on Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen stared deeply at Zhang Ruochen and said, “Using an Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill to test the will of the Yanluo cultivators is probably the wrong idea.”

“Brother Wushen, what do you mean?” Zhang Ruochen asked curiously.

Yan Wushen’s breath in and out deeply. He obviously didn’t expect Zhang Ruochen to be so shameless and ruthless.

Yan Wushen stared at Yan Huangtu and The Eight Sons of Life and Death and said, “The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill is with Zhang Ruochen. Forget it. Whether it’s with him or not, we have to kill all three of them. They’re all heavily injured. There’s no better chance than this.”

One of The Eight Sons of Life and Death looked like a scholar. He asked in a puzzled tone, “Why do we have to kill all of them?”

“Yes! What if we can’t find the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill after killing them?” Another one of The Eight Sons of Life and Death said.

Yan Wushen’s eyelids shrank. “What do you mean? Do you really doubt that I have the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill? So what if I do have the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill? Are you qualified to take it?”

Yan Huangtu’s gaze turned cold as he stared at the two people who had just spoken, he said, “The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill should have been given to Wushen to swallow. If it was really on him, how could he lie? The two of you should stop spouting nonsense and let outsiders see you as a joke.”

Yan Huangtu’s words seemed to be reprimanding the two Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. However, Yan Wushen thought he heard an alternate meaning and his heart sank slightly.

Maybe Yan Huangtu didn’t care about the title of the number one powerhouse of the Yanluo clan before, but he did care about it after being called too many times.

Maybe Yan Huangtu didn’t envy Yan Wushen’s talent before, but he would always change his mind when compared with others.

“Will he be dissatisfied with me taking away the opportunity of our clan’s home planet?”

This thought flashed through Yan Wushen’s mind. He laughed and said, “My cousin knows me well. Today, I have to keep the three of them. Leave Zhang Ruochen to me. You can split the other two.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Yan Wushen put his hands together. His body emitted two lights, one extremely bright and the other extremely dark. The powerful and chaotic Yama Naraka Qi gushed out from under his feet and turned into a sea of Qi that was bright and dark.

“Nothing can be done on the Bridge of Vaitarna and the flowers bloom on the other shore.”

Rumble

The air churned, the space vibrated, and the whole world shook violently.

An ancient stone bridge rushed out from between Yan Wushen’s eyebrows.

The stone bridge was only a few hundred feet long, but it dominated the landscape for a thousand miles. Many secret patterns resurrected on the bridge and formed Path Locks that resembled chains, all of which fell on Zhang Ruochen’s body.

Chapter 2361 Escape

Arctic Ice Continent.

Pitch-black demonic clouds covered the sky, and the cold night rain dripped incessantly.

Raindrops could pierce through mountains and the hardest rocks.

BANG!

Lightning would occasionally streak across the sky like a bright sky blade, traversing thousands of miles before dissipating into nothingness.

This land, which was unknown whether it was Buddhist land or the demon's domain, had become even more dangerous.

Moyin, Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, Yue Tinghai, and Lord Sinluo stood in a Cloaking Array not far from the Reclining Buddha Hill. They were looking at the Dracopent Temple from afar.

They did not follow Zhang Ruochen into the temple but hid at the foot of the mountain.

Lord Bladehell's face was gloomy and his eyes were deep. He said, "Six hours have passed."

"Zhang Ruochen is still too reckless. If he takes us into the copper temple, the danger will be reduced a lot. How can he fight against Que, Lan Ying, and Yan Huangtu alone?" Lady Wind sighed softly, wearing a golden veil.

Even if Zhang Ruochen defeated Wujiang, she still did not think that he had the strength to fight against Que, Lan Ying, and Yan Huangtu.

It is not so easy to achieve the impossible.

Yue Tinghai said in a low voice, "Maybe he doesn't want to take us with him. After all, the Bright Kannati and the Buddha's sarira can only be shared by themselves, not equally."

"What nonsense are you talking about?"

Lord Sinluo growled and took a step forward, ready to teach Yue Tinghai a lesson.

Moyin raised her hand gently and stopped Lord Sinluo, she smiled and said, “Even if my master wants to take the Bright Kannati and the Buddha’s sarira for himself, it’s because he can take them. If you go, Yan Zhexian can kill you without the help of Yan Huangtu. What right do you have to talk about my master? Haven’t you kneeled enough?”

Yue Tinghai was the number one powerhouse in the Puresky Clan and was obeyed by tens of thousands of people. He felt proud and said, “Who do you think you are? You are just Zhang Ruochen’s servant. Do you have the right to criticize me?”

Moyin’s expression was seductive. She licked her red lips and looked at Yue Tinghai as if she were eating Lord Bladehell knew very well how terrifying Moyin’s cultivation was. He moved sideways and stopped between them, he smiled apologetically and said, “Miss Moyin, we haven’t heard anything from Zhang Ruochen. We’re all worried about his safety. Please think of the bigger picture. Don’t lower yourself to his level.

“Hurry up and apologize to Ms. Moyin.”

The more Yue Tinghai learned about the Saint Devourer’s power, the more he despised it.

With the Yanluo clan’s arrangement in the Dracopent Temple and the monstrous strength of Que, Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, and the others, Zhang Ruochen, in Yue Tinghai’s opinion, would most likely not be able to come out alive if he barged in alone.

As long as Zhang Ruochen died, the Saint Devourer would die too. What was there to be afraid of?

However, Yue Tinghai still had to give face to Lord Bladehell.

Yue Tinghai cupped his hands and said perfunctorily, “I was not careful with my words just now. Please forgive me, Ms. Moyin.”

Lord Bladehell quickly tried to smooth things over. He smiled and said, “You should know how terrifying Zhang Ruochen’s opponent is today. We are all very worried. After waiting for a long time, we will inevitably become impatient. It is human nature.”

“You do things flawlessly,” Moyin said coldly.

“Since you all know how powerful Que, Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, and the others are, you should understand my master didn’t take you there because he didn’t want you to die,” she said, turning to face the crowd at Dracopent Temple.

Moyin’s words left Lord Bladehell, Yue Tinghai, and Lady Wind speechless.

They were indeed top-notch powerhouses below the Thousand-Koan Realm. However, if Zhang Ruochen really brought them to break into the Dracopent Temple, they would be more or less afraid.

After all, fighting for top-class treasures would definitely lead to a life-and-death battle.

They were in great danger of dying in a life-and-death battle with powerhouses at the levels of Que, Lan Ying, and Yan Huangtu.

Lady Wind said, “Yan Huangtu and The Eight Sons of Life and Death have entered the temple. Yan Zhexian and Xi have set up an inescapable net around the copper temple. However, they are targeting the powerhouse in the temple. They don’t know that we have also come to the home planet of the Yanluo clan.

“I think we can take this opportunity to break the Yanluo clan’s plan first. This way, once Zhang Ruochen escapes, he can leave smoothly.”

Lord Bladehell shook his head, “No! There were over 200 Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan outside the copper temple, including top powerhouses like Yan Zhexian and Xi. At most, we can only break through their formation for a while. Soon, they will be able to rearrange their formation.

“I think we must attack from the inside and outside at the most appropriate time to truly break through the formation of the Yanluo clan.”

Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell looked at Moyin, wondering what she would decide. “I agree with Lord Bladehell. Wait for my master’s signal!” Moyin said.

Yue Tinghai’s eyes sparkled, “We can’t do it without a backup plan. If Zhang Ruochen dies in the copper temple, the Yanluo clan cultivators will immediately establish formations on their own planet. By then, it will be too late for us to think about how to leave.”

Even Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind didn’t dare to ignore this problem.

If Zhang Ruochen died in battle, the plan of the Immortal Vampires to fight for the first place among the ten clans would fall through. They had to think of a way to escape from the Yanluo clan’s home planet.

“If you want to escape, hurry up and leave. I won’t stop you,” Moyin said coldly.

Yue Tinghai wanted to leave, but he was afraid that Zhang Ruochen would escape alive. When the time came for Zhang Ruochen to settle the score, Yue Tinghai wouldn’t have a good ending Yan Wushen released the Bridge of Vaitarna’s true vessel. Just one part of it suppressed the space, making it difficult for Zhang Ruochen to move.

On the other side, The Eight Sons of Life and Death formed The Indestructible Great Array to trap the heavily injured Que. Waves of attack power shot out, turning into an ocean of energy that swallowed Que’s body.

Yan Huangtu faced Lan Ying again.

Lan Ying had lost a significant amount of chaotic energy, Qi of Slaughter, and Divine Qi in the previous battle. It could be said that his vitality had been greatly damaged.

Lan Ying's attack power had greatly decreased although he had the Sword of Asura as his body. The sword had been dulled by Yan Huangtu's Scepter of Heaven's Pass. It was showing signs of being suppressed.

It had to be said that Yan Huangtu's plan was very successful.

If Que, Lan Ying, and Zhang Ruochen were all in their prime, the Yanluo clan wouldn't be able to hold them back even if they mobilized hundreds of Supreme Saints to attack them.

Yan Wushen's eyes were bright, he raised his voice and said, "Zhang Ruochen, I haven't had enough fun in the past three big battles. I haven't been able to determine the winner. Why don't we have a fair and just battle today? The winner will live, and the loser will die."

Although Zhang Ruochen was suppressed by the Bridge of Vaitarna, he smiled and said, "This is the home planet of the Yanluo clan. I have a bond in my heart, but you can enjoy yourself. How can it be fair? Besides, this Buddhist land is compatible with your power. It gives you an absolute geographical advantage and allows you to burst out with stronger combat power. How could it be fair?"

Zhang Ruochen said in a voice transmission, "There's a third point. I've got the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. What's the point of fighting with you? A stone bridge can't stop me."

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen released a large amount of Divine Purification Flame from his body. It formed a flame light shield and burned the lock patterns on his body.

He slowly lifted his left leg.

Powerful divine power surged out of his leg, forming a magnificent power. "Blazing-flame Kick, one hit to subjugate demons."

Zhang Ruochen used Yanshen's leg to cultivate the high-level Thousand-Koan level saint technique, Blazing-flame Kick, that he had honed in the dark star.

This kick was based on strength. It was heightened by the Path of Fire. It could set off the Precepts of Fire between heaven and earth, unleashing unrivaled destructive power.

When combined with the Yanshen's leg, it was even more powerful.

RUMBLE!

His left foot landed and instantly caused the ground to sink. Powerful Fire Qi surged up with the dust and broke the suppression power of the Bridge of Vaitarna.

Zhang Ruochen spread his ten golden wings and flew out of the golden dust toward the exit of the golden world.

"Brother Wushen, I'll leave first," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen exited the golden world with a whoosh as he passed through a layer of water light curtain.

Yan Wushen looked at the huge pit on the ground with a diameter of 100 kilometers. His eyes were extremely solemn. Zhang Ruochen's kick had shocked him.

If that kick wasn't aimed at the ground but at Yan Wushen, would he be able to block it?

"Zhang Ruochen's cultivation speed is even faster than mine. This time, I let him walk in front! I have to fuse the fifth Path of The Six Paths of Reincarnation Saintwill as soon as possible." said Yan Wushen to himself.

Yan Wushen felt immense pressure. For the first time, he was afraid.

Yan Wushen was afraid that he wouldn't be able to keep up with Zhang Ruochen's cultivation speed and would be left behind.

If that day really came, there would definitely be a serious flaw in Yan Wushen's state of mind. His perfected body of good and evil might split up again.

Next, he had to work hard.

No!

It wasn't only hard work.

Yan Wushen had to work hard and cultivate hard. He wouldn't let go of any chance to become stronger.

Wasn't Zhang Ruochen always working very hard with his life at stake?

Yan Wushen's cultivation environment was too comfortable.

Yan Wushen chased after him. He couldn't let Zhang Ruochen escape. He had to get the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill no matter what.

Outside the Dracopent Temple, 61 Supreme Saint Talisman Masters and nearly 200 Yanluo clan's Supreme Saints formed a three-layered encirclement. Sealing this place as tight as an iron chain.

With Yan Zhexian and Xi as the leaders, more than a dozen first-rate Yanluo clan's Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm gathered together.

"Zhexian, you don't have to be so nervous, do you? Let's not talk about whether the three of them can get past Yan Huangtu, Yan Wushen, and The Eight Sons of Life and Death. Even if they manage to break out and enter the copper temple, how can they get past us?" A Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm with 99 severed shackles laughed.

Clearly, Xi had great confidence in the arrangements outside the copper temple, he said, "Let alone Que, Lan Ying, and Zhang Ruochen, even a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm can forget about breaking through the runic array we've set up. It's even more impossible for them to break through the combined attack of 198 Supreme Saints.

"I don't know why, but I just feel uneasy. I always feel that something unpredictable will happen."

Yan Zhexian frowned slightly. Deep in thought, her beautiful eyes turned to look at the foot of the mountain. "Yan Huangtu is chasing Que and has brought The Eight Sons of Life and Death," she explained. "Lan Ying pursued Que and brought Hong Futu with him. Zhang Ruochen came to the home planet of the Yanluo clan to take the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. But why did he come alone?”

“You suspect that there are other Immortal Vampires who came to the home planet of the Yanluo clan with Zhang Ruochen?” Xi’s expression changed slightly.

Yan Zhexian said, “Since I was young, my spiritual sense has always been very accurate...”

At that moment, an exclamation sounded. “All the Supreme Saints are on full alert. Zhang Ruochen has come out from the golden world! Talisman Masters activate the runes. Wherever you are Lord Zhexian, please come and take charge.”

Chapter 2362 Danger Is Everywhere

The Dracopent's statue stood in the center of the copper temple on the altar.

A subtle spatial fluctuation appeared in the ancient mirror on the chest of the statue.

Swoosh

A light spot flew out of the mirror.

The light spot landed on the ground and turned into Zhang Ruochen's figure.

The runes in all directions were activated as soon as Zhang Ruochen appeared, creating a sea of flowers in the temple's narrow space.

The sea of flowers was colorful and beautiful.

On the ground, it was bright purple and red. In the air, petals flew like rain.

SWOOSH!

A petal flew past Zhang Ruochen's cheek.

The petals were sharper than blades. It all broke through his protective Saint Qi and the Demigod-level physique's skin defense, leaving a shallow bloody mark on his face.

A drop of Supreme Saint's blood flowed out of the wound.

"What a powerful rune mark. It's just a petal. Yet, it's more powerful than a full-strength strike from some Supreme Saints."

Zhang Ruochen immediately held up the Profound Spatial Dimension. He controlled the size of the dimension to three meters in diameter, forming the strongest defensive power.

At the same time, the blood-red aura in his body surged out of his pores.

The blood light illuminated the three-meter-wide Profound Spatial Dimension, transforming it into a massive blood-colored embryo. The light then made its way from the copper temple to the outside world.

Under the Reclining Buddha Hill, there was a dark area. The five powerhouses of the Immortal Vampires all sensed the powerful Path fluctuations coming from the hilltop. They knew that something big was going to happen, so they tensed up.

Suddenly, the copper temple, which was shining with golden light, burst out with a dazzling blood light.

Lord Sinluo was delighted. He said, "That's the signal from Master Ruochen. Let's hurry up and attack together. We will work together from the inside and the outside to break the arrangement of the Yanluo clan."

Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind both looked surprised and pleased when they saw the blood light coming from the temple. Their opinion of Zhang Ruochen had advanced to a new level.

'Zhang Ruochen was able to escape from the fight with powerful figures like Que, Lan Ying, and Yan Huangtu. Did this mean that Zhang Ruochen had the battle strength to fight with them?' Yue Tinghai thought.

Yue Tinghai's face changed again and again, and he felt very upset.

Suddenly, Yue Tinghai realized that his mind was indeed much weaker than everyone present. He was not as experienced and profound as Lord Bladehell, and he was not as watertight as Lady Wind. He was still too impulsive in doing things and speaking.

"Attack the copper temple!"

Just as Yue Tinghai shouted this sentence, Lord Sinluo had already drawn his Frostwood Bow and shot an arrow.

Crack

The Divine Tree Arrow shot out a 100-meter-long tail of light and struck a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint outside the copper temple. It pierced through his body and left a bloody hole the size of a basin.

He was instantly severely injured and lost his battle prowess.

Moyin's movement was as fast as a ghost. She climbed up the Reclining Buddha Hill and came to the bottom of the 384 copper stairs. Her snow-white hands pressed down on the ground.

Swoosh Swoosh

Moyin's ten fingers turned into ten Raiden Wisterias and charged up the stairs, entangling the ten Yanluo clan Supreme Saints.

After a series of screams, the ten Yanluo clan Supreme Saints were all charred by the lightning

Ten Raiden Wisterias shot up into the sky and threw them away before they fell down the mountain.

“Enemy Attack!”

“A powerful enemy is attacking from below the mountain.”

The top of the copper stairs was in chaos.

The Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan were all focused on the temple. Who would have thought that an enemy would attack from behind?

As Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, and Yue Tinghai joined in the battle, the combined attack formation formed by the 198 Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan was quickly destroyed. They could only defend with great difficulty.

The Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan were all extremely depressed.

No matter how powerful Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, and the Saint Devourer were, they wouldn't have been able to win against the enemies' combined attack formation if they hadn't been ambushed and fought head-on. They wouldn't have been so easily broken through.

In the Fane of Destiny, the gods were all paying attention to the Dracopent Temple.

Unfortunately, they couldn't see the golden world created by the Swastika Seiryu. They didn't know what was going on inside. They could only make all sorts of conjectures and calculations.

Zhang Ruochen was the first to return to the copper temple, exceeding the expectations of most gods.

“This junior’s cultivation has improved quite a bit. Could he also get a share of the opportunity of the Yanluo clan’s home planet?”

“Do you feel it? Zhang Ruochen has the aura of the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.”

Even though the gods were deep and knowledgeable, they were still surprised and couldn’t figure it out.

They couldn’t figure out how Zhang Ruochen had taken the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill from Que?

Luo Yan frowned. His eyes showed that he was thinking. “It’s incredible. This kid from the Xue Jue family is really interesting. The impossible has become possible for him.”

Amane’s temperament was gentle and moving. She said elegantly, “If Zhang Ruochen can protect the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and fight his way out of the encirclement, there will be a bigger change. By then, the situation on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting will definitely change.”

“Whether or not he can fight his way out of the encirclement and escape the Yanluo clan is indeed a bigger test.” Luo Yan said and nodded.

There was an inescapable net in front and a powerful enemy chasing after him.

In Luo Yan’s opinion, even if he gave Zhang Ruochen twice the combat power, it wouldn’t be easy for him to break out of the encirclement. The key was still to see if the other Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires could display their extraordinary power. The gods of the ten great clans of the Immortal Vampires all gathered together and paid close attention to the home planet of the Yanluo clan.

They knew very well whether the Immortal Vampires could suppress the Yanluo clan on the Battlefield of Celestial-

Hunting and take first place. This battle played a crucial role.

“If I was young, I would have already used a forbidden technique and burned my blood. With my strongest power, I would have first paralyzed the first layer of power formed by the 198 Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan.

“Then, I would kill my way up the copper stairs and break the formation and runes from the outside. Killing a group of Array Masters and Talisman Masters would be as easy as chopping vegetables.

“Look, those juniors are clearly much stronger than the Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan, but they are fighting so weakly and without any imposing manner. If this was when I was their age, I would have already washed the ground with the blood of the Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan.”

A god of the Yellowsky Clan was very anxious. He covered his head and beat his chest. He wished he could go to the battlefield himself.

This crucial battle was too important for the Immortal Vampires.

“There are hundreds of Supreme Saint Talisman Masters and Array Masters in the temple. Zhang Ruochen won’t be able to hold on for long. If Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell are not able to threaten the Yanluo clan’s Talisman Masters and Array Masters from the outside in time, the Immortal Vampires may be extinguished today,” said an elder clan chief.

The god of the Yellowsky Clan shouted again, “Burn the Saint Blood and cast the forbidden technique. Hurry up and fight. Let’s turn the world upside down. Whatever supreme clan, step on them.”

The other gods of the Immortal Vampires rolled their eyes.

Who would burn the Saint Blood to fight unless it was a life-or-death situation?

Not everyone was as crazy as you. It was a miracle that a madman like you could cultivate until divinity alive.

“Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind are indeed quite talented. It’s a pity that they don’t know how to seize the opportunity. Even if they don’t burn their Saint Blood, they should at least use their trump cards, right? At this moment, why are they still doing nothing?” The god from the Yellowsky Clan said, he clutched his chest, looking as if his liver was in pain.

Actually, Lord Bladehell, Lady Wind, Moyin, and even Yue Tinghai were all going all out to attack the upper echelons.

However, there were too many Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan. Although they had destroyed dozens of them in one wave of attacks, there were still more than a hundred Supreme Saints. Under the leadership of Xi and more than ten Hundred-Shackle Realm powerhouses, they quickly stabilized their formation.

Xi wore a wide black robe and held an ebony staff in his hand. His face was delicate and pretty as he said condescendingly, “Lord Bladehell, you dare to barge into the Yanluo clan’s home planet? Are you here to die?”

Lord Bladehell sent the four Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan flying with a single slash. He climbed a few levels higher and laughed, “You are just a weakling ranked thirteenth. How dare you say that I am here to die?”

Xi’s expression did not change and his voice was even colder, “Alright! Let me see if your blade is as tough as your mouth.”

He raised the ebony staff above his head and chanted a series of ancient incantations.

The black light emitted by the ebony staff was like thin threads that extended to an endless distance

CAW! CAW!

In the darkness, an ear-piercing raven’s cry sounded.

The two Nine-lives Blood Ravens were covered in blood. They released an aura that was comparable to that of a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint as they attacked Lord Bladehell at the same time.

What Xi cast was the Wiccan technique, Soul Capture.

He used it to control all spirits.

Although the Nine-lives Blood Ravens were powerful, their intelligence and willpower were far inferior to that of a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. Hence, Xi was able to control two of them with his level 65 spiritual power.

As Lord Bladehell was restrained by the two Nine-lives Blood Ravens, the battle outside the copper temple became even more intense.

Yan Zhexian and 61 Supreme Saint Talisman Masters guarded the only exit of the copper temple, which was the door.

Dozens of Supreme Saint Array Masters sat cross-legged on the four sides of the copper temple. Each of them released their spiritual power and pushed the three Ninth Stratum Array to the extreme. Among them were three Array Masters.

In the temple.

The “Flower dance in the mortal world” rune pattern complemented the three Ninth Stratum Arrays. It suppressed Zhang Ruochen so much that he could only defend passively. He couldn’t even move a step.

Flower petals rained down on Zhang Ruochen.

Two of the three Ninth Stratum Arrays were offensive arrays. They formed 81 Saint Swords and an Array Beast whose combat power had reached the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

After defending for a few breaths, Zhang Ruochen’s body was covered in blood. There were 27 wounds.

Luckily, he had avoided his vitals. The wounds were all shallow.

“The Yanluo clan has really put in a lot of effort. Even if I, Lan Ying, and Que aren’t injured, they’re all at their peak. It won’t be easy to break through the runes and arrays in the copper temple.” said Zhang Ruochen.

In Zhang Ruochen’s eyes, the danger here was enough to threaten the life of a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint.

He could only hope Moyin and Lord Bladehell could attack from the outside as soon as possible.

It was much easier to break the formation from the outside to the inside.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen did not place all his hopes on others. He thought quickly and thought of a way to break the situation.

‘I will retreat first.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen was about to rush toward the ancient mirror on the chest of the Dracopent statue, but a figure flew out from the ancient mirror first and manifested into Yan Wushen’s appearance.

“This is even more troublesome. It’s really a double disaster,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen thought of something. He formed his right hand into a palm and attacked Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen obviously didn’t expect such a situation in the copper temple.

Yan Wushen immediately activated his Golden Giant Mode and exchanged a palm attack with Zhang Ruochen. Powerful power erupted from their palms and shattered a large number of runes.

The petals disappeared into thin air.

“Zhang Ruochen, you have no way out. Give me the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and I’ll give you a fair chance to fight.”

Yan Wushen had fought with Zhang Ruochen three times, but he still hadn’t won. It had become an obsession in his heart.

If Yan Wushen didn’t break this obsession, it would affect his cultivation state of mind.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t answer him. His body moved to the right like lightning.

The Array Beast that was chasing after Zhang Ruochen suddenly rushed toward Yan Wushen with great momentum.

Yan Wushen knew that he had been tricked by Zhang Ruochen again. He had to raise his golden arms and hit the Array Beast.

The Array Beast's attack was so powerful that even with Yan Wushen's power, he was pushed back and pressed against the wall of the copper temple.

Taking this opportunity, Zhang Ruochen threw out a drop of Dark Space-time Matter. Then, his body turned into a golden light and rushed into the ancient mirror on the chest of the copper statue.

Boom

The Dark Space-time Matter was detonated. The vigorous power of Darkness, Time, and Dimension spread out and filled the entire copper temple, destroying a large number of runes and inscriptions of the array.

There was even a powerful force surging out from the temple gate.

At this time, Zhang Ruochen returned to the golden world where the Swastika Seiryu was.

Zhang Ruochen saw Que, who was ragged all over, rush over with Kagamaru in his hand as soon as Zhang Ruochen landed on the ground.

Que's speed was extremely fast. His flight trajectory was like a black line. He passed Zhang Ruochen and rushed into the water curtain to the copper temple.

'It's no surprise that Que is ranked first in the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage. He's already been heavily injured, but he can still break through the Indestructible Great Array and escape from The Eight Sons of Life and Death,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

The Eight Sons of Life and Death caught up.

Zhang Ruochen calculated that the destructive power of Dark Space-time Matter had been exhausted, so he turned around and rushed back into the water-screen.

SWOOSH!

Back in the copper temple, Zhang Ruochen found that the originally narrow space in the temple had become pitch-black. His vision was greatly affected, and he could hardly see anything.

It was caused by the remnants of the Dark Space-time Matter. The energy fluctuation in the temple was extremely chaotic. Even spiritual power could not detect it.

Zhang Ruochen did not have time to check whether Yan Wushen had been killed by the Dark Space-time Matter, nor did he have time to find where Que was hiding. He immediately set up the Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth, he hid above the heads of the copper statue and stared at the ancient mirror on the copper statue's chest.

A moment later.

Space ripples appeared on the surface of the ancient mirror.

One of The Eight Sons of Life and Death rushed out first.

Kagemaru pierced the head of one of The Eight Sons of Life and Death, a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage, just as Zhang Ruochen was about to attack. Blood splattered and dyed the copper statue red.

The next moment, Kagemaru flew back to Que's hand and chopped off the second of The Eight Sons of Life and Death who had rushed out of the ancient mirror.

Chapter 2363 Teasing Zhexian

Pfft!

Ugh!

Que killed three Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm in a row. His attacks were fast, accurate, and ruthless. It was clear that he had been hit with true fire today, and he couldn't care less about the "No Killing" prohibition.

Just as Que was about to kill the fourth member of The Eight Sons of Life and Death, the pitch-black copper temple shone with the Light of Origin.

Yan Wushen charged out of the darkness. Half of his flesh and blood had disappeared, revealing a large number of golden bones. His face was ferocious, and he looked like the Infernal Yama.

The Precepts of Origin in his palms formed a Pagoda of Origin.

"Die!" Yan Wushen shouted.

He leaped up and smashed the Pagoda of Origin towards Que.

Yan Wushen was also enraged today.

In an instant, the entire copper temple was filled with powerful qi. The wind howled, and the Qi surged.

Que had no choice but to give up on his killing intent. He swung his sword backward, leaving behind a dazzling arc of sword light that slashed toward the Pagoda of Origin.

Boom

The Pagoda of Origin shattered, turning into an even more dazzling Light of Origin.

Yan Wushen and Que each spat out a mouthful of blood and flew in two different directions.

Suddenly, the remaining five members of The Eight Sons of Life and Death all appeared in the copper temple. They saw the three members lying on the ground and realized that their life force was rapidly losing.

The Eight Sons of Life and Death had grown up together and cultivated together. They were like brothers.

Seeing this scene, they felt like their eyes were about to explode. Each of them held up The Book of Life and The Book of Death. They activated the incomplete Indestructible Great Array and attacked Que.

“Kill!”

Que is half-knelt on the ground. He supported his body with his sword. Biting his bloody teeth, he charged forward.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Yan Wushen. He was very surprised.

In such a small space like the copper temple, Zhang Ruochen had activated Dark Space-time Matter and Yan Wushen was actually able to survive.

Yan Wushen was heavily injured. After getting up from the ground, he didn't care about his injuries. He rushed to the side of the three Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He mobilized his Power of Origin and Buddhist light to purify the Qi of Oblivion that invaded their bodies.

Que's three swords hit their vitals, and the Power of Oblivion had invaded their bodies.

If they didn't dissolve the Power of Oblivion in time, no matter how strong their vitality was, they would be devoured by the Oblivion in a moment. They would die without a trace.

Zhang Ruochen turned into a breeze and flew down from the top of the copper statue. He glanced at Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen also stared at him.

Their eyes met. There were all sorts of complicated emotions in their eyes.

If Zhang Ruochen attacked, this was the best time to kill Yan Wushen. He would definitely die.

However, Zhang Ruochen didn't do so. He quickly looked away and rushed to the temple gate.

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to kill an opponent like Yan Wushen while he was saving people. This was one of the reasons.

The other reason was that Yan Wushen couldn't be killed.

The Dark Space-time Matter destroyed the rune patterns and many array patterns in the temple. When Zhang Ruochen arrived at the door, he found that there were remnants of the array of inscriptions floating in the air.

"Not good!"

In front of him, a blinding sword light flew over. The light was so bright that Zhang Ruochen felt like he was going blind.

Zhang Ruochen quickly closed his eyes and used his spiritual power to analyze.

"It's the ninth-class sword array," said Zhang Ruochen.

The blinding sword light came from 81 swords. Under the control of dozens of Supreme Saint Array Masters, they turned into a long sword dragon and charged toward Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen extended his right hand and rotated his five fingers.

Suddenly, 36 Dimensional Swords condensed in the space in front of him and collided with the 81 swords.

This ninth-class sword array was guarded by a High-Saint Array Master. It was extremely powerful.

When the swords collided, they let out deafening sword chimes.

The sword light transformed into thousands of sharp sword Qi that flew out and collided with the copper temple's walls, pillars, and floors, leaving white marks.

It was unknown what the copper temple was made of or what mysterious power it possessed. It could not be destroyed even by a Supreme Saint. It was unshakeable even by Dark Space-time Matter.

“Violet Gourd,” Zhang Ruochen called out.

Zhang Ruochen summoned the Violet Gourd and used Supreme Power to protect his body. He pressed his arm against the ground.

The 36 Dimensional Swords turned into a sword path. The sword rolled from the ground all the way to the distance and hit the High-Saint Array Master who was in charge of the sword formation.

CRACK!

The High-Saint Array Master’s defense was penetrated. Three Dimensional Swords pierced through his chest, abdomen, and right leg.

The High-Saint Array Master let out a scream and was sent flying backward.

Yan Zhexian waved her dark green brush in her hand as she realized she was about to be hit by the other seven Dimensional Swords and killed by the chaotic swords. It cut the Dimensional Swords in half by forming seven runic patterns.

The ninth-class sword array’s power was greatly reduced when it was not under the control of the High-Saint Array Master.

“Break!”

Zhang Ruochen’s body released a burst of space vibration power that struck 81 swords.

All the swords flew out in pieces.

Yan Zhexian’s body was suspended above the 384 copper steps. She looked at Zhang Ruochen at the same level. Her beautiful eyes were cold and sharp, she said, “I didn’t expect that you could kill your way out of the copper temple. Let us fight again.”

“If you don’t want the Yanluo clan to suffer heavy casualties, you’d better not stop me,” Zhang Ruochen said.

In the end, the Battle of Celestial-Hunting and the War of Merits in Celestial and Infernal Courts were completely different.

The War of Merits was a life-or-death struggle. It was a fight for life and death.

The Battle of Celestial-Hunting was just a competition between the various races in Infernal Court. It didn't have to be a battle of life and death. It could only be described as a battle of advantages, a battle of honor and disgrace.

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to become too hostile with the Yanluo clan on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting if it wasn't the last resort.

“Great Rocfish Talisman!”

Yan Zhexian's brush was stained with the blood of the Rocfish and she drew a genuine Rocfish.

The Rocfish spread its wings and flew toward the temple gate.

The ten tattered golden wings on Zhang Ruochen's back spread out. They turned into a streak of golden light and cut the Rocfish in half. Then he flew toward the pitch-black night rain.

After flying for a distance, Zhang Ruochen sensed that something was wrong.

The night rain had disappeared!

Everything was bright in front of him, and a cold wind blew around him.

He stood in a world of white snow. The mountains were covered in snow, and snowflakes were falling. He couldn't see the end of the world.

“This is... an illusion formation!” Zhang Ruochen exclaimed. Zhang Ruochen opened his palm and caught a snowflake in it.

The snowflake melted and turned into a drop of ice water.

It appeared to be very real and not an illusory formation.

“What a brilliant illusory formation. It's got to be set up by both the High-Saint Array Master and the High-Saint Illusionist. The Yanluo clan is really full of talents,” Zhang Ruochen said to himself.

“Zhang Ruochen, now you know you’ve been tricked, right? I have no intention of fighting you alone. I just want to lure you into the formation.”

Yan Zhexian’s voice was still cold, but it was particularly pleasant.

RUMBLE!

The vast glacial world shook.

Seven towering snow-capped mountains broke through the ground and stood up.

The seven peaks looked like seven Maleficents. Their faces were terrifying, but they released a powerful oppressive force that landed on Zhang Ruochen from seven directions.

This suppressive force was real. It compressed Zhang Ruochen’s Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth, making the space he could move in smaller and smaller.

“Myriad Glacier illusory formation, together with The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha Talisman, nearly a hundred Supreme Saint Talisman Masters and Supreme Saint Array Masters working together. Is that enough to kill you?”

Yan Zhexian’s figure appeared on the top of one of the snow peaks. She was beautiful and had an extraordinary temperament. She was like a pure and flawless snow lotus.

“With the High-Saint Array Master, High-Saint Talisman Master, and High-Saint Illusion Master all working together to set up these two arrays, it would be enough to kill a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, let alone me,” Zhang Ruochen said calmly.

“I’ll give you another chance. Cripple your cultivation and you’ll have a way out. Think carefully. This is your only chance,” Yan Zhexian said.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. “Your arrays can kill me, but you’re also in the array now. I can guarantee that I’ll kill you before the array kills me.”

“Really?”

Yan Zhexian only said one word, but seven overlapping voices sounded in the cold wind. At the top of the other six snow peaks, Yan Zhexian also appeared. Her white clothes fluttered, and she held a jade brush. She looked like an ice fairy.

It was hard to tell which is her true self out of the seven Yan Zhexians.

Yan Zhexian didn't have a choice. She had to enter the formation of The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha Talisman to wield great power.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Yan Zhexian on the top of the seven peaks and said, “I'm afraid you don't know how profound my attainments in the Path of Truth are. Using the illusory formation to deal with me will be the stupidest decision you have ever made.”

Swoosh

Zhang Ruochen turned into a streak of golden light and flew to the top of one of the snowy peaks at the fastest speed.

Yan Zhexian looked at Zhang Ruochen who was flying straight toward him. A look of surprise appeared on her clean face. She thought to herself, ‘The illusory formation is not an illusion. How could he see through it so easily? Is he also the Master of Truth?’

Yan Zhexian had no time to think. She immediately activated the rune patterns.

Even without the Myriad Glacier illusory formation, she was confident that she could kill Zhang Ruochen with The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha Talisman.

Rumble

One of the snow peaks moved. It looked like Maleficent. A pair of huge hands of ice and snow formed an ancient seal and slapped down Zhang Ruochen.

This palm print was as powerful as a full-strength attack from a peak Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

Zhang Ruochen evaded it with extreme speed and continued to fly upwards.

The second Maleficent-shaped snow peak formed a seal.

The third snow peak attacked.

Zhang Ruochen evaded the power of the five snow peaks in a row. Finally, when the sixth snow peak struck the palm print, there was no way to dodge. He had to activate the Violet Gourd and activate the Supreme Power.

A thick golden pillar of fire surged out from the mouth of the gourd and collided with the snow palm that was as large as a cloud.

The two forces clashed and could not hold out.

The palm print from the seventh snow peak was suppressed at that point.

‘More than 60 Supreme Saint Talisman Masters attacked at the same time. Their power is too powerful. It is indeed not something that my current cultivation can withstand.’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes darkened. He left the Violet Gourd with both hands and flew out from between the fingers of the snow palm print in a flash.

Above his head was the seventh palm print.

“River of Time!” Zhang Ruochen called out.

Zhang Ruochen struck out with his palm. Tens of millions of Precepts of Time gushed out of his body. He activated the Mark of Time in this space and condensed a River of Time that was as long as 300,000 meters.

The River of Time collided with the snow and ice palm print. The flow of time changed, making the palm print fall very slowly. Taking this opportunity, Zhang Ruochen flew from the edge of the ice and snow palm print to Yan Zhexian on the peak.

No matter how calm Yan Zhexian was, her beautiful face was filled with shock and panic.

Once The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha Talismans were used, they were comparable to the combined attack of seven pinnacle Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints. They could even fight against Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saints.

No matter how heaven-defying Zhang Ruochen's combat strength was, he was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. How could he break through The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha Talisman's attack circle?

Didn't this mean that even if several pinnacle Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints attacked him at the same time, they wouldn't be able to kill him with Zhang Ruochen's strength?

Zhang Ruochen came close to Yan Zhexian. He pinched her fingers and snatched the brush from her hand in an instant.

Yan Zhexian turned to escape, but Zhang Ruochen grabbed her shoulder. Her beautiful face showed pain. She was about to cut off her arm to survive, but Zhang Ruochen grabbed her neck.

Saint Qi gushed out from Zhang Ruochen's fingertips and invaded her body.

"Tell those Supreme Saint Talisman Masters to stop activating the runes, or else..." Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Zhexian's face showed determination. She gritted her teeth and said, "Don't even think about it. Even if I die, I'll drag you down with me."

The Seven Evils of Ksitigarbha Talisman had already taken shape. Even without Yan Zhexian, they were still powerful. Zhang Ruochen wasn't confident that he could break them. Capturing Yan Zhexian was the only way he could think of to break the situation.

"Did I say I wanted to kill you?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

no

Zhang Ruochen's lips moved closer to Yan Zhexian's snow-white ears. He breathed gently, "You should know who I am,"

he said softly. "I'm a man who takes care of women. I didn't even kill Fairy Lian Xi. How could I bear to kill you?"

"Shameless man," said Yan Zhexian.

Yan Zhexian thought of the reason why Zhang Ruochen didn't kill her earlier. It was likely that he had some kind of intention for her. She felt a chill in her heart. She hated this person to the core.

Yan Zhexian had a strong personality. She released her spiritual power and wanted to continue fighting Zhang Ruochen to death.

However, just as Yan Zhexian released her spiritual power, she felt a sharp pain in her brain.

Yan Zhexian's spiritual power dispersed immediately and she was unable to condense it into attack power.

"You won't be able to use me to escape from the home planet of the Yanluo clan," Yan Zhexian said.

Zhang Ruochen kissed her crystal-clear face. His pupils turned blood-red. He said sinisterly, "Since you say I'm a shameless person, I can only do shameless things. Even if I die today, it's worth it!"

"What are you doing?" Yan Zhexian asked.

Yan Zhexian couldn't move. The kiss from Zhang Ruochen made her feel even more disgusted. She wanted to tear this shameless person into pieces.

"I wonder if the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms can reflect here."

Zhang Ruochen looked up. One hand was around Yan Zhexian's neck, and the other hand reached toward the collar of her white robe. His five fingers slowly moved inside, feeling the soft touch.

"All Talisman Masters, Listen up. Stop activating the rune patterns."

Yan Zhexian trembled in fear. She closed her eyes and shouted.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes became serious again. He withdrew his hand and gently stroked her cheek. He said, "Thank you."

"You can't escape today. The Talisman Masters will listen to me, but the other Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan won't," said Yan Zhexian. Her delicate body was still trembling. She had never been humiliated like this since she was young.

Zhang Ruochen was the shameless one she had to kill first.

Chapter 2364 Battle of Two Yans

The dense runic patterns gradually disappeared as Yan Zhexian's voice rang out.

Buzz

The seven snow peaks in Maleficents form melted and vaporized.

A star-like shine burst out of Zhang Ruochen's body. He controlled the power of the Realm-frame of Truth to attack Myriad Glacier illusory formation.

The illusion disappeared, revealing the real scene outside Dracopent Temple.

It was a dark night, icy cold rain was splashing the 384-story bronze stairs. Chaotic ripples of battle were still present.

“Kill!”

Bang Bang

Boom!

...

The sounds of killing, attacking, and Saint Qi colliding intertwined.

Outside Dracopent Temple, Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan stared at Zhang Ruochen as if they wanted to eat him.

How dare he blaspheme the Honorable Yan Zhexian? This was an act of capital crime.

“Zhang Ruochen, I advise you to release Yan Zhexian immediately. Otherwise, the cultivators of Yanluo clan will chase you to the ends of the Earth.” a Supreme-Saint Talisman Master was so angry that his eyes were red.

“Yan Zhexian is the pearl of Yanluo clan. She is sacred and inviolable.”

“Zhang Ruochen, you are the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius. Yet you are not a true man. You can only be regarded as a sinister and despicable scoundrel.”

Even though Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan were furious, none of them dared to attack. They could only curse.

Without the strength of runes and arrays, they were no match for Zhang Ruochen. Who would be able to bear the responsibility if they angered this crazy bandit, making him kill Yan Zhexian?

“Have you said enough? If you’ve done, get out of my way. I don’t want to kill you and get my hand dirtier.” Zhang Ruochen was extremely cold. He grabbed Yan Zhexian’s neck with one hand and held her in his arms.

Wisps of Divine Purification Flame appeared in his other palm.

Whoosh

Moyin’s graceful and attractive body flew out of Spatial Wormhole Mirror above Zhang Ruochen’s head and landed outside Dracopent Temple.

Her hands turned into dozens of thunder fire vines. They quickly spread out and entangled the 21 Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters. The thunder and Divine Purification Flame on the vines instantly refined the 21 Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters until they lost their battle strength.

She dragged the 21 Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters to her side and floated them around her body.

Some vines wrapped around their neck, and waist. Some pierced through their chest.

The 21 Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters were not weak, but they weren’t good at close combat. When they were suddenly attacked by Moyin, they naturally couldn’t defend themselves at all.

Furthermore, Moyin’s current combat strength was even stronger than many Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints.

How could the majority of them, who were still Neverwilt Realm talismans be compared to her?

“They’re all fresh and delicious Supreme Saints. I really want to eat them all.”

Moyin revealed an enchanting smile as she stared at those Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters who were restrained.

“Demon, you’re courting death.”

The remaining Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters joined forces and quickly drew a great talisman.

The dense talisman inscriptions interweaved to form a beast that was hundreds of feet tall. It released cold rays of death. Its aura was overbearing and its gaze was fierce.

“It’s only a matter of time if I want to kill them. You better not force me.” Moyin licked her red lips and smiled.

The dozens Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters of Yanluo clan were suddenly indecisive about their action.

Yan Zhexian did not expect that nearly 200 Supreme Saints led by Xi could not stop Moyin. This Saint Devourer managed to break through five Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires.

If Yanluo clan’s Supreme Saint had set up a Defensive barrier, this Saint Devourer would not have been able to open Spatial Wormhole Mirror.

Below the bronze stairs.

Lord Bladehell restrained Nine-lives Blood Raven and Xi on his own. He displayed the power of a Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivator at his peak state. Each slash seemed to be able to cut through mountains, rivers, and stars.

Lady Wind knew very well that the gods must be watching this battle. Hence, she did her best to display her true strength as a Destiny Scioness candidate.

Behind her, the Gate of Destiny released a bright light. Every ray of light was a Precept of Destiny that suppressed the cultivation of Yanluo clan’s Supreme Saints.

At the same time, she held a three-foot-long white feather in her hand.

When the feather waved, it stirred up a breeze.

All Yanluo clan’s Supreme Saints who had been hit by the wind were bewitched. Some of their eyes became conflicted, some confused, and some murderous. The wind attacked the Supreme Saints around them.

There were many Supreme Saint cultivators of Yanluo clan, but at this moment, they were attacking each other. It was a mess.

This was why Moyin could open Spatial Wormhole Mirror and meet up with Zhang Ruochen.

The white feather in Lady Wind's hand was called Destiny Feather. It was a treasure of Destiny. It contained a large number of Destiny Divine Mark.

With her profound attainments in Path of Destiny, the feather could affect a cultivator's spiritual will. It could even change parts of a cultivator's memories.

The memories of some lower-level Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan were altered by Lady Wind using Destiny Feather, thinking that they were members of Immortal Vampires.

This was a very terrifying trick from Destiny!

Even if a person's body was changed, as long as his memories and mental state remained unchanged, he would still be the same person.

However, if a person's memories and mental state were changed, would he still be the same person?

The power of Destiny was mysterious and could easily change a person. If Lady Wind's Path of Destiny was even more profound, she could turn a Supreme Saint into a weak ant with a wave of Destiny Feather.

Or, she could turn a small rock into a mountain that was heavier than a hundred stars.

Deva Path of Great Wiccan that Xi cultivated could suppress Lady Wind to a certain extent. Unfortunately, Xi was held back by Lord Bladehell and could only watch as the Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan killed each other.

In the temple.

Swoosh!

The blood-red Sword of Asura flew out from the ancient mirror of Dracopent statues.

The sword flashed.

The sword stabbed into the back of one of the five Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm that was attacking Que. Following that, Lan Ying's body rushed out from the sword and dragged the Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm to the edge of the temple's gate.

In the next moment, Yan Huangtu chased after him and shouted, "Lan Ying, you can't escape."

Lan Ying was indeed extremely weak, but he still had a sinister smile on his face. "Let me leave Yan Luo clan's home planet. Otherwise, I will destroy his body and soul."

Que caught the perfect timing and used the sword to force the remaining four Supreme Saints to retreat. He turned into an afterimage and rushed out of the temple gate.

His body turned into an illusion and rushed into the heavily injured High-Saint Array Master's body. Then, Que merged with his body.

"If you want to kill me, you'll have to kill this High-Saint Array Master as well." The High-Saint Array Master spoke, but it was Que's voice.

Boom

Thunder rumbled in the sky.

A bolt of lightning streaked across the sky.

Yan Huangtu released his spiritual power. He knew the current situation very well.

Although Yanluo clan had lost this battle, they still had a strong will to fight. If they continued fighting, none of the cultivators who had broken into Yanluo clan's home planet would survive.

Yanluo clan still had a higher chance of winning

Yan Huangtu's gaze fell on Que and Lan Ying who were both at the end of their rope.

As long as they were killed, it would be much easier to deal with Zhang Ruochen and Immortal Vampires.

However, if this battle continued, they would be forced to fight to the death. It was hard to imagine how serious the losses of Yanluo clan would be.

Yan Huangtu's eyes were sharp and as cold as an emperor's, "All the cultivators who died today are heroes of Yanluo clan. I promise to do my best to take care of your clansmen. Your names will be written on the scrolls of Fane of Yama."

All Yanluo clan cultivators understood that Yan Huangtu had already made his decision.

He could not back down from this battle.

After this battle, there would be no one on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting who could compete with Yanluo clan.

Whether it was for Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills or the glory of Yanluo clan, Yan Huangtu had to continue the battle.

Yanluo clan cultivators who were restrained by Que, Lan Ying, and Moyin all had a gloomy look in their eyes. They knew that they had been abandoned today.

Yan Zhexian, on the other hand, appeared very calm. He was neither happy nor sad.

"As expected of the cold-blooded Divine Bones of Imperial Path. Good, very good. Today, even if I have to be refined and die here, I will kill a bunch of Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan and bury them with me." Lan Ying faced the sky and roared. He was about to make his move.

"Stop."

A deafening voice rang out from Dracopent Temple.

Yan Wushen walked out step by step and stood not far from Yan Huangtu. His gaze was cold and sharp as he said, "Let them go."

The Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan who thought that they would die for sure regained their spirits and stared at Yan Wushen in unison.

Yan Huangtu said, “We can’t let them go. If we let them go, there will be endless trouble. Today is the best chance to get rid of them.”

Yan Wushen turned around and looked at Yan Huangtu, “The best chance? The Supreme Saints present here are all elites of Yanluo clan that have been around for thousands of years. They are the pillars that will support the future of Yanluo clan. Sacrificing a large number of Yanluo clan’s elite in exchange for victory, what kind of best chance is that?”

“Yanluo clan can not accept today’s humiliation. If they want to win back their reputation, they must make sacrifices,” Yan Huangtu said.

Yan Wushen said, “We should be responsible for today’s humiliation. We should not sacrifice them and let them bear it.”

Yan Huangtu stared at him deeply, his gaze as sharp as a knife.

Yan Wushen shifted his gaze away and his tone became gentler. He said, “Right now, many Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan are seriously injured and their lives are on the line. Our first priority is to save them.

“Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting is not a battle of life and death. We don’t have to fight to the death. Whether it’s for our honor or disgrace, it is not worth sacrificing too much.

“Yanluo clan has been sitting in the top position for too long. Many cultivators think that they are truly supreme. Today’s humiliation can be considered a lesson for all of us. From now on, it is true glory to know shame and courage and regain the glory that we have lost.”

Yanluo clan’s leading figure of this generation had always been Yan Huangtu.

Therefore, everyone followed his lead.

Although Yan Wushen's age was not much different from Yan Huangtu, he had stayed in Saint King Realm for too long. Yan Wushen was known as a top genius, but his strength was far too inferior.

Moreover, Yan Wushen cultivated alone and rarely interfered with the internal affairs of Yanluo clan most of the time.

It was only until today, when Yan Wushen and Yan Huangtu had a disagreement and fought against each other, that many Yanluo clan cultivators saw the aura of a king on Yan Wushen.

Yanluo clan was no longer one-man in power, but a pair of peerless geniuses.

“Good! This is your decision. If Yanluo clan loses in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, you will take full responsibility,” Yan Huangtu said.

“No matter what the outcome of my decision is, I will take full responsibility.”

Yan Wushen's gaze swept over Que, Lan Ying, Zhang Ruochen, and the others and said, “You can leave now!”

The battle on the bronze stairs stopped.

All Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan retreated.

Que, Lan Ying, Zhang Ruochen, and Moyin all had Supreme Saints of Yanluo clan in their hands. They left Arctic Ice Continent with Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, Lord Sinluo, and Yue Tinghai. Then they flew out of the atmosphere and Star-Shield Grand Formation of Yanluo clan's home planet.

Zhang Ruochen went with Immortal Vampires.

He turned to Lady Wind and asked, “Are there any arrangements on Yanluo clan's home planet?”

“Don't worry. They're just a bunch of low-level Yanluo clansmen. I can kill them with a little bit of force,” Lady Wind said with a smile.

They flew thousands of miles in the void space, but Yanluo clan cultivators didn't chase them.

Moyin still used her vines to entangle the 21 Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters. “Master,” she said with a smile, “Since Yanluo clan cultivators didn’t chase us, why don’t you give them to me as nourishment?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, “Forget it! Killing a Supreme Saint of Yanluo clan would not only deduct a lot of points. It would also create an irreconcilable feud. There was no need to do this. Yan Wushen was right. Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting wasn’t a life-and-death battle. The gods wouldn’t care about the lives of these elite Supreme Saints.” Moyin was slightly disappointed. She let go of the 21 Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters.

Zhang Ruochen sealed Yan Zhexian’s spiritual power. He pushed her on her back and sent her to the 21 Supreme-Saint Talisman Masters.

Then he took out the jade-green pen and sniffed it. There was a hint of Yan Zhexian’s body fragrance on it. “This pen will be considered your gift to me. I’ll see you again.”

Zhang Ruochen used Great Dimensional Shift and brought everyone hundreds of miles away.

Yan Zhexian gritted his teeth in anger. He stared at Zhang Ruochen and the others who were running away in the distance and said, “Shameless brat, the next time we meet, I will become stronger. Then, I will definitely chop off your hand and cut off your tongue.”

After grasping the Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm. Lan Ying swallowed him after flying out of Yanluo clan’s home planet. Then, he merged with Sword of Asura and turned into a streak of blood-red light, and rushed into the six-colored star fog.

His injuries were too severe. He could only recover his combat powers by devouring the Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Yan Wushen stood above the atmosphere of Yan Luo clan’s home planet and pointed in the direction where Sword of Asura had escaped. He said, “Within ten days, I will definitely go to Asura's home planet and flatten Fane of Barasingha. From now on, I will kill every cultivator of Fane of Barasingha I see."

A large number of blood-devouring bugs flew out from the underground of Yan Luo clan's home planet, sucking countless members of Yan Luo clan into dried corpses.

It was a method left behind by Lady Wind.

Chapter 2365 Ten Dragon Souls

On diamond-shaped mirror, the points of Yanluo clan dropped from 25 million to 14 million.

The points of Immortal Vampires also dropped from 23 million to 20 million, temporarily ranking first among the 10 clans.

Asura who is ranked third also dropped their points, but their total points still exceeded Yanluo clan's, reaching about 17 million.

In City lord of Cloud City's mansion.

Zhang Ruochen sat at the top of the hall, looking at the rankings and data on diamond-shaped mirror. He said, "Yanluo clan lost 11 million points. It must be the result of the large number of deaths."

"But our points have been deducted by 3 million. What happen?"

Lady Wind sat on Zhang Ruochen's right side and said, "We broke into Yanluo clan's home planet. As long as we attack a Yanluo clan's Supreme Saint, we will lose 5,000 points."

Zhang Ruochen said, "There are not more than 300 Yanluo clan's Supreme Saints that we have attacked. The most points will be deducted is 1.5 million. How can 3 million be deducted?"

Lord Bladehell looked embarrassed and said, "It's me. I killed two Yanluo clan's Supreme Saints by mistake. 1 million points will be deducted."

"I also killed one," Lady Wind said.

On Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, 5000 points were deducted for attacking an Infernal Court Supreme Saint.

Half a million points were deducted for killing an Infernal Court Supreme Saint.

If the points were negative, they would be kicked out of the battlefield.

This was a rule set by Fane of Destiny to prevent large-scale killing.

Zhang Ruochen checked the points of Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind on the diamond-shaped mirror.

He found that Lady Wind only had 70,000 points left.

Lord Bladehell's points were even worse. He has only 800 points left.

In other words, Lord Bladehell didn't dare to attack any cultivator now. He had to stay put.

Once he attacked, 5000 points would be deducted.

If his points were negative, he would be expelled from Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting by the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms.

It could be said that Immortal Vampires had won the battle, but it was a close one. Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell were almost expelled from the battlefield.

Lord Bladehell stood up abruptly, picked up his saber, and walked out. "I'll go hunt Celestial Captives now to earn points. I'll earn back the points that have been deducted as soon as possible. I won't hold Immortal Vampires back."

"Don't worry,"

Zhang Ruochen stopped him and said, "In the Battle of Yan Luo clan's home planet, it was a life or death situation. No one could control their power. It's understandable that one or two Supreme Saints were killed."

Lord Bladehell thought that Zhang Ruochen would take this opportunity to punish him to get revenge.

He didn't expect that Zhang Ruochen, who was always cruel, would let him go.

The more he did so, the more nervous Lord Bladehell became.

"Don't be so nervous. The most important thing for us now is indeed to kill Celestial Captives. However, you won't go alone. We'll go together."

Zhang Ruochen waved at Lord Bladehell, signaling him to return to his seat and continue the discussion.

Lord Bladehell walked back carefully, trying to maintain his head held high and cold. “It’s not good to go together, is it? We just went to the home planet of Yanluo clan and killed everything. Yanluo clan will definitely take revenge.

“Besides, We Immortal Vampires are now ranked first among the ten clans. We’re in the limelight. The other nine clans probably want to break into our home planet and wipe out all our clansmen.

“Anyone can go out to hunt Celestial Captives. However, Supreme Saint Ruochen, you must stay on our planet. Only with you can we guarantee that nothing will go wrong.”

Lady Wind’s beautiful eyes were deep. She nodded her head and said, “Lord Bladehell is right. Only with you can we be a deterrent.

“Not only because of your powerful strength, but also because you are not within the rules of the war of Celestial-Hunting. You could attack and kill Supreme Saints without deducting your points. Who dares to provoke you?”

On diamond-shaped mirror, Zhang Ruochen’s personal points were still 10.84 million, accounting for half of the total points of Immortal Vampires.

In the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen was ranked first in personal points.

He had attacked many Supreme Saints on the home planet of Yanluo clan, but he hadn’t deducted a single point.

Now, almost all cultivators knew that Zhang Ruochen wasn’t within the rules.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said. “No. We must hurry and go to the dark stars as soon as possible. At this stage, Yanluo clan has suffered heavy losses, they can’t even take care of themselves. It’s difficult to organize a large-scale attack on Immortal Vampires’ home planet in a short time.

“Cultivators from other clans should still be focused on finding fortuitous encounters on their home planet. Besides, they’ll definitely want to see Yanluo clan fight against the two elites of Immortal Vampires. They won’t attack too early.

“Besides that, there’s another important reason. Lord Hornless from Banshi Isshou Realm, hasn’t given himself up. No one knows where he is hiding.

“Therefore, I must go and hunt Celestial Captives. At least I can hold Lord Hornless back when encountered with him.

“Lord Xia Yu and Lady Wind are going to guard our home planet. They should be able to make sure nothing goes wrong.”

Immortal Vampires who are present were all elites in Hundred-Shackle Realm. They were the top fighting forces.

They all nodded and agreed with Zhang Ruochen’s analysis.

Lady Wind furrowed her willow-like eyebrows and said, “Why should I stay on our home planet? I don’t have enough points right now. I have to go out and hunt Celestial Captives.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Your mission is important. You have to stay on our home planet.

“Right now, the biggest threat to us is Yan Huangtu.

“He was the least injured in the battle on the home planet of Yanluo clan, but he lost all his reputation. He hates Immortal Vampires to the bone. He might come alone and wipe out the people on our home planet.”

Lord Xia Yu snorted. “Yan Huangtu is strong, but I’m confident that he can’t break the Defensive Array of our home planet by himself.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “What if Yan Huangtu uses Shapeshifting technique and becomes a Supreme Saint of Immortal Vampires? There are other secret techniques that could allow him to sneak into our home planet.”

Lord Xia Yu went silent and fell into deep thought.

Zhang Ruochen continued, “Only Path of Destiny cultivated by Lady Wind and Path of Truth cultivated by me can see through the foreign cultivators who want to sneak into our home planet. This is why Lady Wind has to stay on our home planet!”

“Okay! I will stay on our home planet temporarily and personally guard the gate of Star-Shield Grand Formation. I will not let any foreign cultivators enter our planet.”

Lady Wind said to Zhang Ruochen in a concerned tone, “How are your injuries? Why don’t you rest for two days and then go to Dark Star?”

Her voice was particularly soft and beautiful.

Any man who heard such concern and looked at Lady Wind’s beautiful eyes would feel his heart melt.

Lord Xia Yu’s eyes were full of disdain. She said to herself in a voice that only she could hear, “Crocodile tears.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “It doesn’t matter. Just give me half a day. It’s enough to stabilize my injury. You all can leave too. Gather the Supreme Saints of the big tribes. Half a day later, we’ll set off from Cloud City. We’ll go directly to the first dark star through dimensional teleportation array.”

The cultivators of the ten big tribes left one after another. They were busy preparing for the battle.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Lord Xia Yu, who was still sitting in her chair, “Why are you still here? Don’t you have anything else to do? Immortal Vampires’ home planet would definitely face a cruel war in the near future. The array you’ve set up might play a crucial role.”

Lord Xia Yu’s beautiful face was frozen without any expression.

“I stayed to remind you not to be blinded by beauty. Don’t think that you’re so charming that you can easily win a woman’s heart. Who knows? Others might just want to use you,” Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't help but laugh. "You mean Lady Wind?"

"I don't dare to criticize the future Scioness of Destiny, but..."

Lord Xia Yu's crystal-like eyes met Zhang Ruochen's, she added, "Lady Wind has a noble status, pure bloodline, and the potential to become a god. Even a God would want to marry her. Once she becomes Scioness of Destiny, she will have more choices in the future. How could she like you? Your identity is too special!"

"Didn't you say that you wouldn't dare to criticize the future Scioness of Destiny?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Lord Xia Yu snorted and said, "Did she promise you something?"

Zhang Ruochen was still indifferent and said, "How do you know?"

"You gave her two Bloody Shadowseed, and one of them is a Saint Bloody Shadow. If you weren't infatuated with her, how could you do such a stupid thing?" Lord Xia Yu said in a reprimanding tone.

Zhang Ruochen said, "She said that she would marry me and be my wife no matter if she could become Scioness of Destiny or not. Any man would be moved by such a promise."

"If she becomes a Scioness, she will break off all love within 1,000 years. After 1,000 years, she will step down from her position as Scioness of Destiny. With her status as the Scioness of Destiny, even a warlord would want to marry her. Do you really think you can win the heart of the beauty? You've been deceived, but you don't know it," Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen touched the hair above his forehead and said, "What you said makes sense. But what does it have to do with you? Why are you angrier than me?"

Lord Xia Yu stared at Zhang Ruochen with her bright eyes, unable to say a word.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I gave you a Supreme Artifact. Are you infatuated with me? Are you lying to me?"

"I'm different from her," Lord Xia Yu said coldly.

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and said, "Go away! Remember to mind your own business. If Lady Wind finds out that you told me this today, you'll be killed. Women are all petty."

Lord Xia Yu stood up, flicked her sleeves, and walked out coldly. "Wait," Zhang Ruochen's voice came from behind.

Lord Xia Yu stopped and said in a deep voice, "What else?"

"I have only one Saint Blood Shadow left. Take and refine it! Refining the Saint Blood Shadow can not only improve your blood qi and Saint Soul but also spiritual power. It should be of great help to you."

Zhang Ruochen took out Saint Blood Shadow and turned it into a ball of blood light. He threw it at Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu caught Saint Blood Shadow in her palm. Her beautiful eyes were full of surprise, confusion, dazed, and even a trace of panic.

Since she was young, Zhang Ruochen was the only one who treated her well, except for her brother and the ancestor of Xias who had died. He had given her all kinds of precious treasures that even the gods wanted without extra thought.

If he wasn't stupid, he must have had other intentions.

"What-What are you trying to do? What do you mean?"

Lord Xia Yu's voice trembled as she spoke in a low voice.

She really wanted to say that if you wanted to buy people's hearts, you could buy off Lord Bladehell, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, or Gu Chenzi. They all had gods behind them. But the Xias behind her, the ancestor of the gods, had already fallen. They couldn't give you much support.

Zhang Ruochen took out Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Holding it in his palm, he studied it carefully. Without looking at her, he said, “You’re very important. Raise your spiritual power as soon as possible. It’ll be best if you can break through to the 65th level.”

“Oh, right. You’re not only a High-Saint Array Master but also a High-Saint Talisman Master. What about this? Except for Array Masters, I’ll transfer Immortal Vampires’ Talisman Master to you. You must guard Immortal Vampires’ home planet well. If you can’t do it, you won’t get anything good in the future!”

Zhang Ruochen trusted very few people in Infernal Court.

Lord Xia Yu was someone worth spending a lot of resources to cultivate.

Unfortunately, her temperament was still a bit lacking. She needed to be honed.

Guarding the home planet was a test for her.

After Lord Xia Yu left, Zhang Ruochen put away Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Just as he had expected, although the spiritual will of the Elixir Spirit had been refined, the energy contained inside was too great. It wasn’t something he dared to refine with his current cultivation.

Once he swallowed it, his body would definitely explode and die.

He estimated that he would only be able to withstand it if he cultivated the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm, broke all the shackles in his body, and awakened his demigod body completely.

Then, Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes to check the ten dragon souls flowing in his saint meridian.

The ten Blue Dragon Souls gave off a cold aura and swam in the saint meridian relentlessly driving the divine flame from Yanshen’s Leg away.

It was the ten dragon souls that appeared out of nowhere that saved Zhang Ruochen’s life.

Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen observed carefully and found that the ten Blue Dragon Souls were exactly the same. There was a swastika symbol above their heads. The aura they emitted was not the aura of Path.

It was the aura of divinity.

The auras of the ten Blue Dragon Souls were of the same origin.

“Could it be the ten dragon souls of a divine dragon?”

Zhang Ruochen was very shocked.

Each dragon soul was no weaker than a dragon soul in Thousand-Koan Realm.

“Could it be related to the fortuitous encounter on the home planet of Yanluo clan? No, fortuitous encounters on home planets should be extraordinary. How could it be only the ten dragon souls of a divine dragon?”.

Ten dragon souls in Thousand-Koan Realm were indeed extraordinary to the Supreme Saint.

However, for a divine dragon, they were probably equivalent to ten scales on its body.

“Forget it. Since I’ve got ten dragon souls, I’ll refine them first. Maybe I’ll be able to improve the power of Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike,” Zhang Ruochen thought.

Chapter 2366 The Return to the Hidden

The news of the battle against the Yanluo Clan's home planet quickly spread throughout the Celestial-Hunting battlefield and shocked all the forces.

Yanluo Clan, known as the supreme clan, had an absolute advantage every time they fought in the Celestial-Hunting battle. They had won first place among the ten clans. They had never suffered such a defeat.

Almost half of their clansmen had been killed, and countless Supreme Saint elites had been killed or injured.

What was even more humiliating was that the first place had been taken away by Immortal Vampires.

“Zhang Ruochen led a group of Immortal Vampires and ambushed Yanluo Clan's home planet. He severely injured Yanluo Clan at the cost of zero casualties. He is not somebody that we can underestimate.”

“First, he exterminated Ghost Clan. Then he targetted Yanluo Clan. He can stir up endless storms alone.”

“As far as I know, Zhang Ruochen and Immortal Vampires were able to succeed because Que and Lan Ying were also on Yanluo Clan's home planet.”

“Anyway, this time, Yanluo Clan has lost their faces!”

After hearing the news, all the cultivators who participated in the Celestial-Hunting battle sighed with awe.

In the past Celestial-Hunting battles, although there had been competition and friction between the ten clans, such an intense battle was very rare. In less than half of the 100 days, two home planets had already suffered severe casualties. There was even a clan's most powerful elite who died. Many Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints, who had attained the Great Perfection stage, had died tragically or left the battlefield.

No one knew where the war would take place next time?

On the Rakshasan home planet

Devala was the head of the seven great Rakshasan Divine Kingdoms. It was known as “the Nation among Nations” of ten thousand countries and “the Rakshasan Stronghold.” Its forces far surpassed the other six divine kingdoms, so it had to shoulder greater responsibilities.

On the home planet, nearly 100 million Rakshasas were under Devala’s protection.

The Devalan prince, Luo Shengtian, was a handsome, well-built hunk. Among Rakshasan males, he was considered a Prince Charming.

Standing by a green lake with a royal bearing, he sighed with some regret. “If I had known that Yanluo Clan’s home planet was so lively, I would have visited the place.”

The lake bank was lined with snow-white willow trees whose long, hanging branches were gracefully drooping down, wafting to and fro in the breeze.

Luo Sha stood below the willow branches. The beauty in cyan robe, who gave off a noble demeanor, curled her lips into a graceful smile. “My dear brother, you just want to join the fight, right?”

Luo Shengtian nodded. “For cultivators like me, it’s hard to improve further except for breaking through to the Thousand-Koan Realm. Only by fighting with a superior of the same level can we find our shortcomings and improve further.”

“Que, Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Wu Jiang, and the rising stars — Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen — are all worthy opponents to meet once in the bluemoon.”

Luo Sha smiled faintly. “In your eyes, I’m not considered a rising star?”

Luo Shengtian said with a serious face, “You, Pan Ruo, Xuemo, and Lord Jadebone are still a step behind. You will only know who will stand out when you reach the Great Perfection Stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.”

Luo Sha put away her smile and said with a deep look in her eyes, “Zhang Ruochen has initiated a war against Yanluo Clan. He probably has some big plans.” Luo Shengtian snorted. “If he wants to lead the Immortal Vampires to aim for the first place among the ten clans, he is seeking his own destruction.”. Yanluo Clan would not let this go. The other eight clans would never allow the Immortal Vampires to become the first among the ten clans. Zhang Ruochen is still too young. Flaunting his brilliance in every aspect will definitely get himself into trouble.”

Luo Sha raised her pretty face and looked at the clear blue sky. “Zhang Ruochen killed Supreme Saint Manjian. It’s enough to show how determined he is. Anyone who wants to stop him will have to pay a heavy price.”

Luo Shengtian looked surprised. “Are you thinking that he has a chance?”

“I have no idea.”

Luo Sha shook her head lightly. “But he isn’t an ordinary person. He can always create miracles. Brother, you didn’t expect him to defeat Wu Jiang in such a short time, right?”

Luo Shengtian asked, “You think so highly of him?”

“I didn’t feel so. I’m just thinking that if he succeeds, it will be also a good thing for the Rakshasas,” said Luo Sha.

Luo Shengtian asked, “What benefits will we get?”

“Immortal Vampires do not only represent the three lower clans. They are also living beings. If they can push Yanluo Clan out of the top place, the three lower clans and the living beings will have a much higher status in the Infernal Court,” Luo Sha said.

Luo Shengtian thought for a while and said, “Are you saying that we shouldn’t attack Immortal Vampires, but we should help them at the right time instead?”

Luo Sha shook her head and spoke like a wise lady, “No. We shouldn’t help them. Immortal Vampires are attracting attention. They are the subject of public criticism. If we help them, we will become the subject of controversy too.”

Luo Shengtian could not understand what his little sister was thinking. “Then what are you trying to say?”

“Instead of harming or helping them, we should do nothing.”

Luo Sha smiled and said, “However, there’s a long feud between Warlord Mara and Zhang Ruochen. We must warn Warlord Mara not to get manipulated and invade Immortal Vampires’ home planet.”

“Don’t worry. I will handle this matter. He won’t dare to disobey me even if he has ten balls.” Luo Sheng Tian clenched his right fist and released bolts of lightning.

Luo Sha continued, “There will definitely be a battle between Yanluo Clan and the Immortal Vampires. Even the upper three clans and the middle three clans might join it. They can’t wait to destroy the Immortal Vampires. This is an opportunity for us.” “What opportunity?” Luo Shengtian still didn’t understand.

Luo Sha continued, “When all elites of each clan go to the Immortal Vampires’ home planet, what will happen to the defense of their own home planet?”

Luo Shengtian suddenly came to a realization. “If we destroy their home planet, even if we can’t get the first place, we’ll be in the top three.”

“It depends on how many elites Zhang Ruochen and the Immortal Vampires will attract. Also, it depends on when Yanluo Clan attacks Immortal Vampires.”

Luo Sha suddenly thought of something and asked, “Brother, are you confident in cultivating a Grade Two Saintwill?”

Luo Shengtian shook his head with a smile. “It’s not easy to do so. In a Yuanhui period, only a few can succeed.”

Even though he had a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he didn’t dare to take it because he wasn’t confident.

There was only one Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. If he failed, he wouldn’t have another chance.

Luo Sha said, “Brother, tell me the truth. What are your chances?”

“If I didn’t have the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, I wouldn’t have any chances. With the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, I have a twenty to thirty-30 percent confidence level,” said Luo Shengtian said.

Luo Sha’s eyes brightened up. “There’s extraordinary fortuitous encounter hidden inside every home planet. Now is your time to visit the underground of this planet.”

Luo Shengtian said, “I have been there, but unfortunately, I found nothing. The Rakshasan home planet is completely different from Ghost Clan’s home planet. There are no secret realms or treasure lands. Perhaps there is no fortuitous encounter inside the Rakshasan home planet at all.”

“I did find something though,” Luo Sha said.

Luo Shengtian couldn’t control his emotions. He said in surprise and anticipation, “You found a fortuitous encounter?”

“Maybe!”

Luo Sha opened her snow-white palm right palm, and a ball of light appeared on it.

With a wave of her hand, the ball of light flew out and landed on the ground, turning into a translucent skeleton.

The skeleton sat cross-legged. It was a Supreme Saint’s remains, and each of its bones was at Neverwilt state.

Although there were tiny dots and lines carved all over the skeleton, one could not identify the patterns of these carvings.

Luo Shengtian looked disappointed.

Luo Sha said, “Don’t you think it’s abnormal to have a Supreme Saint skeleton on a planet that doesn’t even have a Demi-Saint?”

“It is indeed abnormal.”

Luo Shengtian carefully observed the Supreme Saint skeleton again and finally noticed the small dots and lines on the bones. He exclaimed, “Who on earth carved so many holes and lines on these bones? That person must've been bored out of his mind."

"It's a type of word character," said Luo Sha.

Luo Shengtian was surprised. "How is that possible? I've read many books, but I've never seen this type of character."

Luo Sha said, "This type of word character has never been recorded before. However, I once saw 57 ancient symbols on a stone tablet in the imperial ancestral land."

"At that time, when I asked daddy about them, he shook his head and said he didn't know the meaning of these symbols either."

Luo Shengtian said, "Father has already lived for hundreds of thousands of years. For someone as experienced and knowledgeable as him, how could there be anything that he was clueless about?"

Luo Sha continued without answering his question, "So, I asked mom. She said 57 symbols on the stone tablet were the oldest 57 characters of the Rakshasas. They formed the foundation of the complete writing system of the Rakshasan civilization."

Luo Shengtian pointed at the skeleton on the ground and said, "So, the symbols on its body are the ones you saw on the stone tablet?"

Luo Sha shook her head again. "No, they are even older than the symbols I saw on the stone tablet. However, there is a subtle connection between the two that can be deciphered."

"Have you deciphered them?"

Luo Shengtian knew that his little sister was much smarter than him.

Moreover, Luo Sha had obtained a Divinity Source and part of a Stellar Soul of God when she was in Kunlun. Now, her spiritual power was stronger than his, and her understanding of the word characters had become better than before.

Therefore, he had great expectations in his heart.

Luo Sha took out a scroll of beast skin and handed it to Luo Shengtian. “The time is too short. I only managed to decipher the ancient language carved on the head. Take it and have a look. You might comprehend something helpful to form a second-grade Saintwill.”

Luo Shengtian unscroll the beast skin to take a look. He blurted out, “The Return to the Hidden.[1]”

“That’s right. It’s The Return to the Hidden.”

Luo Sha blinked her eyes and inadvertently looked at the sky above her.

The Rakshasan deities in the Fane of Destiny exclaimed in shock when they heard these four words.

“It’s The Return to the Hidden! The Return to the Hidden! The text on the skeleton is actually The Return to the Hidden!”

“It must be the complete version. And should be the earliest script.”

“The portion of The Return to the Hidden in the Rakshasas’ possession is less than one-tenth of the earliest script. And most of it was just a few words of enlightenment shared by the deities of later generations.”

“The advent of The Return to the Hidden will open up a new path of the Rakshasan cultivation system.”

The divine spirits flew in the direction of the Rakshasan home planet one after another.

Rumble—

Luo Yan sat in his Divine Plane and spat out a mouthful of murderous Qi. It turned into a thunderstorm and dispersed all the divine spirits.

Immediately after, he snarled, “What are you all trying to do? The Return to the Hidden was deciphered by my daughter. Are you trying to steal it?

“Back then, there were plenty of you who had personally studied the skeleton. Unfortunately, you were lacking in knowledge that you failed to identify it. That was why we buried the skeleton on our home planet and waited for the right owner.”

“Obviously, my daughter was the one The Return to the Hidden had been waiting for. This was fated long ago.”

At this moment, Luo Yan was in an extremely good mood. When he spoke, there was a hint of pride and schadenfreude.

In fact, after that skeleton was discovered in an ancient land of the Fane of Rakshasa, he had studied it himself. But to no avail, he found nothing. He had not expected those holes and lines on the skeleton to be word characters.

There was indeed a stone tablet with 57 symbols engraved on it in the imperial ancestral land.

But this stone tablet on the ground was not eye-catching at all, so Luo Yan had not deliberately studied it.

Moreover, the words on the skeleton were completely different from the 57 symbols. At least, he could not see any connection. Who knew that his daughter was so smart that she could link the two together and even decipher them?

Many Rakshasan deities had studied that skeleton.

The Rakshasan deities immediately tried to recall the holes and lines on the skeleton. However, to their surprise, they failed to recall any despite their photographic memory.

The images in their minds were very blurry.

It was as if an invisible force had erased part of their memories.

“The ancestor who carved the characters on the skeleton must be an extraordinary person. After countless years, the divine spell effect he cast on the skeleton is still not completely worn out,” a Rakshasan deity sighed.

Luo Yan beamed with delight. He turned to Amane and whispered, “Are the words on the skeleton really related to the 57 symbols on our ancestral land’s stone tablet?”

Amane understood her daughter too well. She shook her head lightly, “You actually believed it?! Sha’er knows the importance of The Return to the Hidden. And she knows the deities are paying attention to the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. Do you think she would tell the truth?”

Luo Yan was slightly stunned, but he immediately revealed an awkward expression.

Amane continued, “Among the deities which have seen the skeleton, some of them with strong spiritual power can remember the words on the skeleton. If they were to decipher it according to the 57 ancient symbols, they would not find anything.”

Luo Yan said, “So, what is recorded on the skeleton is not The Return to the Hidden?”

“Not necessarily.”

Amane shook her head gently. “Maybe yes. Maybe No. Only Sha’er knows the answer. And whether the secret of the skeleton is related to the holes and patterns on its surface remains a question.

“But one thing for sure is... She must have discovered the secret of the skeleton. After all, fusing Saintwills to form a new one is not a trivial matter. There is no way she will harm her brother and lead him to the wrong path.”

Chapter 2367: Planning the Next Move

In the pitch-black space of the universe, no light could be seen. It was cold, hollow, and silent.

Suddenly,

a dazzling light lit up, burning through the darkness.

“Dragon-Elephant Destruction.”

The dragon’s roar shook the sky and earth, causing ripples to appear in the space.

Ten green dragons covered in divine fire surged forward like ten Celestial Rivers, crashing into a black demon tree tens of thousands of meters tall.

Each branch of the black demon tree was like a hand, resisting the attack desperately with boundless strength.

The tree was one of the five Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captives, a Heaven Devourer.

“Zhang Ruochen, as a cultivator from Celestial Court, you’re willing to be a pawn of Infernal Court. I-I curse y-you. Y-You shall d-die horrible d-death...”

The Heaven Devourer roared as it released tens of billions of Precepts in its body. They transformed into Path, forming an illusory majestic yet spooky city. The city clashed with the ten green dragons.

KABOOM!

The city collapsed.

Then, the huge tree exploded.

Under the burning of the divine fire, the life force of the Heaven Devourer quickly vanished. It turned into ashes.

Eventually, what remained was only a Sainthood Source of demonic Qi in the void space of the universe.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the Sainthood Source telekinetically from the void space. He said to himself, “A Supreme Saint in the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm is so weak. It’s so easy to kill.”

The other Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm who were hunting the Heaven Devourer twitched their lips when they heard this.

‘He is too OP!’

Even though they had helped Zhang Ruochen block the escape route of the Heaven Devourer, they were still terrified that Zhang Ruochen could kill a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint with one palm.

‘Doesn’t this mean that Zhang Ruochen only needed one palm to kill them?’

Before attacking the dark star, Zhang Ruochen had refined the dragon souls of the ten green dragons — the Swastika Seiryus — into his left arm.

For some reason, when the ten swastika green dragon souls were refined into Zhang Ruochen’s arm, they devoured the three Thousand-Koan Realm Dragon Souls in his arm. It was as if other dragon souls were not allowed to coexist.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen might seem like releasing one palm strike; he actually struck out ten dragon souls.

In fact, each palm contained the power of 13 dragon souls of the Thousand-Koan level. Even without the support from a Saint Technique, a casual palm strike was comparable to a full-strength strike unleashed by a Supreme Saint of the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

It was even more powerful.

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had struck out with his full strength. With the divine fire and the Saintwill of Fire fusing into his palm strike, how could the Heaven Devourer possibly withstand it?

Although Zhang Ruochen had yet to practice Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike to the grand completion of Thousand-Koan level, his palm strike was far more powerful than many Thousand-Koan level Saint Techniques.

‘These ten dragon souls are extremely precious. Under my nurturing, I might be able to grow to the level of one in ten thousand deaths and one in life, or even the ultimate realm. If I can get ten elephant souls that can also grow, why wouldn’t my dragon and Elephant Prajna palm reach the peak?’ Zhang Ruochen thought as he sighed.

Holding a diamond-shaped mirror, Gu Chenzi walked to Zhang Ruochen’s side with a look of awe. “After a few days of continuous battles against the first and second dark stars, we have killed 307 Supreme Saints, 17,000 Saint Kings, and countless Saints and Demi-Saints among the Celestial Captives.

“At present, the total points gained by Immortal Vampires reached 71 million, which secures Immortal Vampires the top spot.”

Zhang Ruochen fell into deep thought for a while. There had been a point in the past when Sainthood and Demi-Sainthood were cultivation ranks out of his reach. At that time, Saint Kings and Supreme Saints were even legendary figures to him.

But now, they had become prey and targets for him to hunt. They were powerless to fight back in his hands.

More than 300 Supreme Saints and 17,000 Saint Kings were massive numbers. Some Macroworlds could not even nurture this many Saint elites.

With so many Saint elites driven to become prey on the battlefield, no wonder Infernal Court valued the Celestial-Hunting battle so much.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t help but think, in this world where the strong preyed on the weak, what kind of elite was a truly powerful elite?

What kind of Macroworld was a truly powerful Macroworld?

When Kunlun was at its most glorious, there were many deities and Saints in the past. What was it like?

Zhang Ruochen collected his emotions and asked, “How many points did I gain?”

“28 million,” Gu Chenzi replied.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. “That’s all?”

Gu Chenzi let out a bitter smile. “Other than the Immortal Vampires, Asuras, and Yanluo, the total points of all the other seven clans combined are not as much as yours. You are No. 1 in the Celestial-Hunting battle.”

All the cultivators present had witnessed Zhang Ruochen’s brutal slaughtering methods. He showed no mercy to any Celestial Captives.

If these images were all projected by the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms, Zhang Ruochen would definitely be called the “Slaughter King.”

All the living beings in Celestial Court would be scared to death when they saw this scene.

Now, they would never believe that Zhang Ruochen would betray Infernal Court. They felt that Zhang Ruochen had completely regarded himself as a member of Immortal Vampires.

Even if Zhang Ruochen returned to Celestial Court now, no cultivators there would accept him. They would only regard him as a deviant and execute him.

It could be said that Zhang Ruochen had already completed the first trial given by the Infernal Court deities. Wargod Bloodximius, Blood Empress, and Lord Ming all breathed a sigh of relief and nodded in satisfaction.

It was a big decision that required a great resolve from Zhang Ruochen. He had to experience pain that ordinary people couldn’t understand.

Zhang Ruochen’s expression was calm. “What about the casualties of Immortal Vampires?”

“Three Supreme Saints died here when Celestial Captives self-detonated,” said Gu Chenzi. “Some Supreme Saints were severely injured, but they survive.”

This time, Zhang Ruochen led over 600 Immortal Vampires to fight together. They had the absolute advantage.

When being forced to the brink, the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives would self-detonate their Sainthood Sources.

However, their spiritual power was sealed. When these Celestial Captives wanted to self-detonate, their spiritual wills would get suppressed instantly. Only under rare circumstances could some Supreme Saints self-detonate successfully and cause casualties to the Immortal Vampires.

Otherwise, if they wanted to kill more than 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives, the Immortal Vampires would have lost more than 300 Supreme Saints.

Celestial Captives were slaves and prey after all.

Their roles and fates had already been decided when they entered the Celestial-Hunting battlefield.

This was a game between hunters and prey. From the start, it was already unfair.

The 600 or so Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints stood on the surface of the huge Violet Gourd like divine beings. They flew out of the dark starfield within the vicinity of the second dark star.

Whoosh—

A Communication talisman flew over from afar and landed in Gu Chenzi’s hand.

After reading the contents of the talisman, Gu Chenzi was stunned. He reported it to Zhang Ruochen, “It’s a message from Supreme Saint Xueqi. Yan Wushen broke into the Asuran home planet and killed most of their clansmen. He has rushed to the fifth dark star to meet with Yan Huangtu.”

It was almost impossible to wipe out a clan.

A Supreme Saint of each clan would at least take a few clansmen with them. This was the only way to ensure that the total points would not be deducted in half.

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised. “He did it. He’s really ruthless!”

The Asuras knew that Yan Wushen would definitely pay them a visit, so they must have made a foolproof plan and set up an inescapable trap. Many powerful figures were waiting for Yan Wushen to fall into the trap.

Under such circumstances, even Zhang Ruochen had to think twice before going to the Asuran home planet.

Not only did Yan Wushen go alone, but he also killed most of Asuran clansmen. More importantly, he escaped unharmed.

He was like a celestial being.

Gu Chenzi was also very shocked. “Yan Wushen is indeed a top elite. I’m afraid only you can compete with him.”

“Yan Wushen is indeed amazing, so is Yan Huangtu. Yan Huangtu’s presence, can restrict Yan Wushen,” Zhang Ruochen said thoughtfully.

Gu Chenzi looked confused. He didn’t quite understand what Zhang Ruochen meant.

In fact, Zhang Ruochen had never taken Yan Huangtu seriously before. He had never seen Yan Huangtu as a threat. In his opinion, Yan Huangtu was flinty and conceited. Hence, Yan Huangtu should not be a tough opponent.

But this time, it was beyond Zhang Ruochen’s expectations.

Yan Huangtu restrained his anger and did not rashly barge into the Immortal Vampires’ home planet alone. Instead, like Zhang Ruochen, he led the Supreme Saints of Yanluo Clan to attack other dark stars and fight for points.

That was why, although almost half of Yanluo Clan had been killed, their points had risen rapidly to 60 million over the past few days. They weren’t far behind the Immortal Vampires.

From this, it could be seen that Yan Huangtu wasn't as simple as he appeared. Hatred and humiliation couldn't affect his emotions and judgment. He was a resilient person who knew when to yield. He knew how to judge the situation and was shrewd.

Such character was the most terrifying.

He was unfathomable and unpredictable.

The way he acted was just the facade he wanted all to see.

Even the strength he displayed might not be his true strength.

"It's a pity. If Yan Huangtu was really an obstinate and autocratic person, he would attack the Immortal Vampires' home planet, leaving Yanluo Clan without a leader, and getting 3,000 points would be considered amazing for them in such situation." Zhang Ruochen sighed.

The Immortal Vampires' points had risen rapidly recently. The cultivators of the ten clans were under pressure. They stopped fighting and focused all their energy on killing the Celestial Captives.

Under Yan Huangtu's leadership, Yanluo Clan destroyed the Celestial Captives gathered near the fourth dark star and started attacking the fifth dark star.

The battle for points was in full swing.

"We have to take down at least one dark star and get 100 million points. Only then can we guarantee that our current ranking — top one among the ten clans — is safe," said Zhang Ruochen.

Not all Celestial Captives gathered around the seven dark stars.

It was just that the space region where the seven dark stars were located was strategic for hiding, so the population of Celestial Captives was more concentrated there. Fighting in these seven places could collect many points in a short time.

A star map was floating in front of Zhang Ruochen after Gu Chenzi opened it. Gu Chenzi pointed to a black ball and said, “Yan Huangtu and Yan Wushen are both on the fifth dark star. There was no room for us to interfere the battle there.

“So now we are left with only the sixth and seventh dark stars.

“The three middle clans are the ones who attacked the sixth dark star. They have occupied it since a long time ago. More than half of the Celestial Captives hiding there have been wiped out.”

“If we go now, we might fall into the trap they set. And once we do so, it will affect the entire battle.”

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly, “Although there was no top elites among the three middle clans, we should not underestimate their combined strength. There is no need to compete with them for the remaining points. What is the situation of the seventh dark star?”

Gu Chenzi took a deep breath and said with a solemn expression, “The seventh dark star is quite special. It is the largest dark star on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, covering a space region a diameter of six million miles.

“That place is like the abyss of death or a forbidden land.

“All the Infernal Court Supreme Saints who participated in the Celestial-Hunting battle have never returned after they entered it. Seventy-three Supreme Saints went missing there.

“No one knows whether it was due to man-made cause or it had something to do with the environment inside the dark star.”

“Many cultivators perceived that Lord Hornless is likely to be there. Therefore, no force dares to barge in easily. In contrast, more and more Celestial Captives are hiding there.”

“The seventh dark star is where Celestial Captives gather the most. If any force can take it down, their points will significantly increase.”

Zhang Ruochen looked at the huge black ball on the star map.

Gu Chenzi continued, “However, I’ve received news that the Supreme Saints of the upper three clans, led by Pan Ruo, Yuan Fei, and Que Fei, are rushing toward the seventh dark star.

“It seems that the upper three clans are planning to crack the tough nut.”

Lord Bladehell laughed coldly. “Ever since Wu Jiang has been severely wounded by Supreme Saint Ruochen, he hasn’t shown up.

“The upper three clans don’t have any top powerhouses to hold down the fort currently. Hence, once they enter the complex environment of that dark star region and encounter Lord Hornless, they will suffer heavy casualties.”

“Why don’t we wait for a while and let the upper three clans take the lead? We can attack after they return in defeat,” said Gu Chenzi.

Everyone looked at Zhang Ruochen to see how he would make a decision.

Zhang Ruochen’s gaze was sharp. “I hope Lord Hornless is really on the seventh dark star. After all, his points alone are 10 million.”

At this moment, two things came to Zhang Ruochen’s mind.

The first was Intergold Tiger’s test.

Only by passing the test could he obtain the special opportunity inside Ghost Clan’s home planet. At that time, his cultivation might rise to a higher level in a short time.

Second, Lord Hornless was a cultivator of Avīci Pavilion, and the leader of Avīci Pavilion was Empress of Thousand Bones.

The first place in the Celestial-Hunting battle was so important to her.

Could it be that Lord Hornless showing up on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield was part of Empress of Thousand Bones’ plan?

Chapter 2368: A Kindred Spirit

Zhang Ruochen stood alone in a six-colored star fog and looked ahead.

Color, light, time, space, and the precepts of heaven and earth all showed signs of distortion here.

Further ahead was a pitch-black and empty space, containing unpredictable dangers. The star fog turned into twisted ribbons that lingered on the surface of the darkness.

Those Saint cultivators who traveled the universe were most afraid of encountering such a place.

That place was at the edge of the seventh Dark Star.

‘The energy here was 100 times stronger than the third Dark Star. The seventh Dark Star is not a place for ordinary cultivators,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

The core area covered by the third Dark Star was only one million miles in diameter.

The seventh Dark Star was six million miles in diameter.

Even a Supreme Saint would find it extremely difficult to ascend to the third Dark Star. Zhang Ruochen suspected that an ordinary Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint might not even be able to fly off the ground when he ascended to the seventh Dark Star.

The target of 600 Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires was too large, so Zhang Ruochen stuffed them all into the Violet Gourd.

Zhang Ruochen decided to investigate the situation of the seventh Dark Star on his own first. To avoid unnecessary casualties, he would then release all of the Supreme Saints to wipe out the seventh Dark Star.

Just as Zhang Ruochen was about to fly into the dark space, the Heart of Truth suddenly trembled and sensed something.

“Huh?”

He looked back and looked across the layers of space. He saw a meteoroid thousands of miles away.

There were many powerful energy fluctuations on the meteoroid.

...

This meteoroid was like a stone mountain tens of thousands of meters long. It flew in the universe and never once stopped.

There were dozens of saint corpses lying on the ground with blood stains on them.

The Saint Blood was ignited and turned into a sacred flame with the smell of blood.

The powerful Wills of Death subdued the thirteen Saint King Celestial Captives and forced them to kneel on the ground. They lacked the dignity and power of a Saint King. Their clothes were tattered, and they were as skinny as sticks. They were the same as the beggars on the streets.

Even their eyes had become cloudy due to the long period of torture, humiliation, and enslavement. They had lost the spirit and energy that a Saint Realm powerhouse should have.

Apart from that, there was also a white-bearded elder in the Supreme Saint Realm.

The Supreme Saint Blood in him had been drained countless times. His blood qi had become extremely thin, and he was even skinnier. His old face was like a layer of skin covering his bones.

The white-bearded elder knelt on one knee in front of Yuan Mo and Qi Yang. He looked at the dead body on the ground. His heart was aching, but he still spoke in a pleading tone, he said, “I am the Supreme Lord of the Southern Sword Realm. My Lords, please spare our lives. We will definitely do our best to serve you. From now on, all living beings in the Southern Sword Realm will be your slaves. We will construct 100,000 sacred temples throughout the world and carve the divine statues of my lords, which will be worshipped by all slaves.”

Yuan Mo raised his chin and revealed a mocking smile. He said, “A Supreme Lord of the realm is actually willing to kneel at my feet. Aren’t you too cowardly?”

The white-bearded elder knelt on the ground and lowered his head. He laughed miserably.

Then, he said, “I’m the only living being in the Southern Sword Realm who has cultivated to the Supreme Saint realm. At least, I have some use. I can speak to the Supreme Saint of the Infernal Court and beg to be a slave.”

“But if I die, who can speak for the living beings of the Southern Sword Realm? They will either become food for the Rakshasa or be killed by the Ghost and the Corpusian. They will become wandering ghosts with corpses strewn all over the place.”

As he spoke, he started to shed tears.

“I don’t ask for anything else... I just... I just want to find a way for them to live.”

Behind the white-bearded elder, the thirteen Saint Kings were also covered in tears.

They were not crying for themselves, but for the billions of lives in the Southern Sword Realm.

They were already the strongest powerhouses of the Southern Sword Realm, but they were unable to find a way for the mother world to live. The pain in their hearts, the unwillingness in their hearts, and the helplessness in their hearts made them want to die.

However, they struggled to live until now.

Qi Yang wore golden armor and was extremely handsome. His long and narrow eyes were raised as he smiled evilly, “Are there any beauties in the Southern Sword Realm?”

“Yes... There are. If my lord accepts the Southern Sword Realm as your slave realm, all the beauties in this realm will belong to you.” A Saint King Celestial Captive had an expectant look in his eyes.

Qi Yang smiled, he snorted, “I already have 7,000 concubines in my imperial palace and 30,000 slaves. There are many Saints and Saint Kings among them. How can the mortal women of the Southern Sword Realm be of my taste? I was just joking with you, but you actually took it seriously!”

The Southern Sword Realm’s 13 Saint Kings gritted their teeth and struggled furiously to get up.

“A bunch of lowly slaves. Do you still want to resist?” said Yuan Mo.

Yuan Mo’s eyes turned sharp as he released an even more powerful Will of Death. He suppressed them until they knelt on the ground again, and the sacred bones on their bodies crackled.

“Trash like you don’t even have the right to be my slaves. You should just be the prey when you are in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.”

The white-bearded Supreme Saint elder lowered his head. His eyes were filled with despair as tears dripped down.

He could not help but think about why the universe was so cruel. What did the Southern Sword Realm do wrong to end up like that?

He was a gifted genius. He was determined to lead the Southern Sword Realm to prosperity. He did not have a path of cultivation for the Saint King Realm. Instead, he created his own path of cultivation.

He did not have a path of cultivation for the Supreme Saint Realm, but he cultivated painstakingly for five hundred years and developed a method to become a Supreme Saint.

When he reached the Supreme Saint Realm, he thought that he could finally realize his dream. However, what came next was the attack of the Infernal Court.

In front of the Infernal Court, he was as weak as an ant.

Qi Yang said, “Don’t talk so much nonsense with them. Kill them and bring their saint corpses back quickly. We still need some saint corpses to build The Altar of Death.”

Just as Yuan Mo was about to make his move, he suddenly felt a powerful wave of Saint Qi. He raised his head and looked forward.

Whoosh

A streak of golden light approached from afar and landed on a rock in the starry sky. It condensed into an evil and handsome figure.

Who was it, if not Zhang Ruochen?

The arrogant Yuan Mo and Qi Yang noticed him. Their expressions shifted in fear. They couldn’t help but take a step back. To defend themselves, they each summoned a weapon at the Regal Artifact level.

The Saint King and the Supreme Saint of the Southern Sword Realm were both confused.

Why did these two powerful Supreme Saints of the Infernal Court suddenly become so nervous?

What were they afraid of?

Could it be that the young man with ten Golden Wings was an important figure?

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised. He said, “So it’s you two. Long time no see.”

Yuan Mo was the younger brother of Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, the number one powerhouse of the Deathkin. He was once the commander of the Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun’s Northern Region and a top Deathkin powerhouse below the Supreme Saint Realm.

Qi Yang was the son of Lord Qi Tian of the Deathkin. He had also been to the Battlefield of Merits in the Northern Region. Like Yuan Mo, they were both first-class powerhouses below the Supreme Saint Realm.

Qi Yang had a strong desire for beauty. His goal in taking part in the War of Merit was to capture one of the nine beauties from the Portrait of the Nine Beauties. He had even set his sights on Fairy of a Hundred Flowers at the time.

Yuan Mo and Qi Yang were both extremely talented. They had the battle strength to fight a Supreme Saint with the cultivation of a Saint King.

Now, the two of them had reached the Neverwilt Realm.

Yuan Mo's face muscles trembled. "Why are you here?" he asked quietly. "Are the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires arriving soon?"

Yuan Mo had killed a large number of innocent people in Kunlun. Zhang Ruochen had a strong desire to kill him. However, he hadn't found a chance to do so in the Divine Domain of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen gazed sharply and said. "Is this how you speak to me?"

Yuan Mo felt a shiver run down his spine as he sensed Zhang Ruochen's cold killing intent. He continued to retreat, he said tremblingly, "My elder brother is Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, the number one powerhouse of the Deathkin. If... If you dare to... kill me, my elder brother will... will definitely make you die a horrible death."

Zhang Ruochen walked over step by step and said, "Are you threatening me? I, Zhang Ruochen, have never been provoked by a weakling in such a presumptuous way. If I don't kill you, I will not be able to wash away the humiliation on me."

Qi Yang's face had turned ashen from fear. When he saw Zhang Ruochen walk by, he quickly retreated into the distance.

How could he be a hero and help Yuan Mo at that time?

Zhang Ruochen had even said such shameless words. Obviously, he wanted to find an excuse to kill Yuan Mo. What was the difference between rushing forward and seeking death?

Zhang Ruochen didn't deduct points for killing people.

Killing one was murder, and killing two was also murder.

“If you dare to escape, I will drain the blood on your body one drop at a time and make you beg for death,” said Zhang Ruochen as he glanced at Qi Yang.

Qi Yang, who had wanted to escape, was so scared that his legs went soft. He stopped in place with a sad face.

Yuan Mo sensed that Zhang Ruochen’s killing intent was getting stronger and stronger. He knew that Zhang Ruochen must be trying to settle the old scores of Kunlun.

Zhang Ruochen was like a peerless demon king now. Even his elder brother would be afraid, let alone him.

Swoosh

Yuan Mo used a forbidden technique to burn the Qi of Death in his body. He turned around and fled at an extreme speed.

“You think you can escape from me with your cultivation?” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen stretched out his hand and pointed across space.

Whoosh

A Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared in front of his fingertip.

With a bang, Yuan Mo fell from the Spatial Wormhole Mirror and was stomped on the ground by Zhang Ruochen.

The divine flame burst out from his feet and burned through the Qi of Death and The Will of Death protecting Yuan Mo. It refined his body and burned his flesh.

Yuan Mo was in great pain. He roared, “I want to...”

Before he could say the words “I want to withdraw from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting,” the space was frozen by Zhang Ruochen. His voice stopped abruptly.

Qi Yang, who stood on the side, watched Zhang Ruochen refine Yuan Mo. He gritted his teeth, his heart trembled. He said, “Zhang Ruochen can kill a person without a word. It’s too terrifying. What are the gods thinking? How could they let such a terrifying guy enter the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?”

The cultivators of the Southern Sword Realm looked at each other in shock and fear.

They were curious. Was this young man a cultivator from the Infernal Court or a Celestial Captive?

If he was a cultivator from the Infernal Court, why would he be so ruthless to his own people?

Under Zhang Ruochen's watchful gaze, Yuan Mo was reduced to ashes. He tucked the Supreme Sainthood Source away.

Qi Yang was shocked when he saw Zhang Ruochen staring at him. He swallowed and stepped back. "I..."

"How dare you speak of yourself in my presence," Zhang Ruochen said.

Qi Yang remembered that Yuan Mo had been turned into ashes by Zhang Ruochen because he said something wrong. His face turned green, and he quickly said, "Lord Ruochen, I... I... I swear to God that I did not kill innocent people on the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun. My goal is to capture a fairy from the Portrait of the Nine Beauties."

"Yes, yes. We are, in fact, on the same side. I have no friendship with Yuan Mo. We're not on the same team. Good kill, good kill. Yuan Mo must have eaten God's guts to dare to provoke Supreme Saint Ruochen. He deserves to die."

Zhang Ruochen approached Qi Yang step by step. He patted his shoulder lightly and said, "You also think he deserves to die?"

Qi Yang's body was slapped so hard that he almost knelt on the ground. He bowed and said, "He definitely deserves to die."

Zhang Ruochen pressed his palm on Qi Yang's shoulder. After a long time, he pulled it back. "You're a sensible person. Like me, you always follow principles."

Qi Yang let out a long sigh of relief and stood up again, "I have 7,000 concubines and 30,000 servants. They were all captured from all realms. They're all first-class beauties. Since the Supreme Saint Ruochen is a fellow kindred, you must come to my imperial palace as a guest after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. I guarantee that you will be satisfied."

"How can I do that?" said Zhang Ruochen.

"No, if you don't come, you are not giving me face. So either way, I must have you come by invitation," said Qi Yang.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Well, it's rare for you to have such a heart. You are indeed a better person than Yuan Mo."

The cultivators of the Southern Sword Realm were even more stunned. It was hard to imagine that a Scion of the Supreme Saint-level would curry favor with another Supreme Saint of the Infernal Court.

Who was that Supreme Saint of the Infernal Court?

Qi Yang asked tentatively, "If the Supreme Saint Ruochen is here, are you planning to attack the seventh Dark Star?"

"If I wanted to attack the seventh Dark Star, I would definitely bring the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires with me. Why would I be alone?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Qi Yang was confused. "If we're not going to attack the Dark Star, are you having another goal, my lord?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Didn't you say that we're in the same boat? You should understand why I'm here."

Qi Yang was shocked. He stared at Zhang Ruochen's evil eyes and said, "Is it true? Supreme Saint Ruochen is interested in Her Highness Pan Ruo?"

"If not, how could she have escaped from the third Dark Star alive? Who do you think is more attractive? A Scioness from the Fane of Destiny or your 7,000 concubines?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Other cultivators would not believe such nonsense.

However, as a "fellow cultivator", Qi Yang knew the allure of beauty.

Even Qi Yang coveted Pan Ruo. It was just that Pan Ruo's background was overwhelming, and her cultivation was stronger than his, so he didn't dare to act rashly.

'It seems that Zhang Ruochen killed Yuan Mo not only because of their enmity in Kunlun. Maybe it has something to do with Pan Ruo,' Qi Yang thought.

Everyone in the Infernal Court knew that Yuan Mo had been pursuing Pan Ruo and was her most loyal follower.

Since Zhang Ruochen was targeting Pan Ruo, how could he not get rid of this eyesore?

...

Chapter 2369: The Altar

The white-bearded elder knelt in front of Zhang Ruochen and said piously, “My lord, please accept the Southern Sword Realm as your slave world. We will offer our worship to you.”

“We are willing to be your slaves.”

The 13 Saint King Celestial Captives said in unison.

Qi Yang pointed at them and sneered disdainfully. “Who do you think Supreme Saint Ruochen is? All of his slaves are either Scions or Scionesses. Who do you think you are to serve under him?”

The cultivators of the Southern Sword Realm gritted their teeth and endured the humiliation without saying a word.

Zhang Ruochen waved at Qi Yang and said, “You make a move first and wait for me.”

“They are just Celestial Captives of an undeveloped Macroworld. Why do you care about them... Okay, okay, I’ll go first...”

Qi Yang tactfully flew out of the meteors and retreated to the sky above a patch of starry fog hundreds of miles away.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the 14 cultivators kneeling on the ground. They were all shabbily dressed and in dire straits. They were inferior to the commoners.

“Since you can become the top powerhouse of a realm, you must be wise men. Why don’t you understand the law of the jungle? Rather than live in humiliation, it’s better to die in a fierce battle,” Zhang Ruochen said calmly.

“We can die in a fierce battle, but... What about the others in the Southern Sword Realm?” said the white-bearded elder, he looked sad and helpless.

Zhang Ruochen squatted down and looked at the wrinkled face of the white-bearded elder. He said, “It’s so humiliating to be a slave of the entire realm. It's better to die than live. Is this the kind of life you want?

"As long as you live, there is hope. If you die, there is nothing! Nothing!" The white-bearded elder said while shaking his head.

Zhang Ruochen was not a heartless person, but he still could not understand their persistence.

What was the belief that supported them to live?

To survive, they had to persevere even if it meant being a slave, having no dignity, and being as lowly as a dog. All they desired was a glimmer of hope, which they could only wish for.

Was there really hope for the future of the Southern Sword Realm?

Would the future of Kunlun also face the choice of destruction and survival?

Zhang Ruochen stood up and let out a long sigh. He said, "This is the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. You are destined to die. No one can change this."

The cultivators of the Southern Sword Realm had a spark of hope that was finally lit, but it was mercilessly extinguished.

Yes, they were a group of Celestial Captives and a group of prey.

No hunters would ever let go of their prey.

Zhang Ruochen changed the topic and said, "But there is a saying, it's better to help yourself than depend on others."

"Ourselves?"

"What can we do by ourselves?"

...

The cultivators of the Southern Sword Realm looked at each other, not understanding what Zhang Ruochen meant.

If helping oneself was useful, who would kneel down and beg others?

Zhang Ruochen said, "If I want to kill you and get points, it is just a matter of a snap of the fingers. However, if you can play some role, help me do one thing. Although I can not save your lives, I can help the Southern Sword Realm find a way to survive."

"There's a way out?"

A Saint King Celestial Captive asked quickly.

Zhang Ruochen just looked up and did not say a word.

The white-bearded elder understood and asked, "What do you want us to do, my lord?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "What is your purpose in coming to the seventh Dark Star?"

"We heard that the Celestial Captive powerhouse is hiding in the seventh Dark Star and can intimidate the cultivators of the Infernal Court," the white-bearded elder replied honestly. "We came here specifically to seek refuge to survive."

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, "This is also my goal!"

The white-bearded elder was capable of cultivating the Supreme Saint Realm with his knowledge. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen's intent was already clear to him.

"If you can help me find the information of the Celestial Captives in the starfield where the seventh Dark Star is located and Lord Hornless is hiding," Zhang Ruochen said, "I promise you that I will protect the lives of those from the Southern Sword Realm for 10,000 years."

"Only... For 10,000 years?" The white-bearded elder asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "10,000 years is not a short time!"

The white-bearded elder discussed with the 13 Saint King Celestial Captives for a while. Then, he kneeled in front of Zhang Ruochen again and kowtowed heavily.

He said, "Sir, the Southern Sword Realm is not a Microworld, but a Marcoworld. There has been no birth of gods because of the devastating disaster and the loss of inheritance."

"Why are you telling me this?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

The white-bearded elder stared at the ground, he said, "I want to tell you, my lord, that the Southern Sword Realm is full of talents and geniuses. They are not a burden to you. As long as you are willing to teach them, they will become a powerful force under you in the future."

Then, the white-bearded elder spat out a three-inch sword-shaped token. He held it in his hands and handed it to Zhang Ruochen.

"If you agree to teach the Southern Sword Realm to fight, we will risk our lives to do what you asked us to do."

The cultivators of the Southern Sword Realm said in unison.

There was a tragic and resolute feeling in them. They knew that they were doomed. They could only pin all their hopes on Zhang Ruochen.

Even though they did not know this person, they had no choice.

Zhang Ruochen touched his hair and said, "It seems that you are not stupid at all. On the contrary, you are very smart and know how to bargain."

"I can see that you are different from other cultivators in the Infernal Court. You have a kind heart. You want to help the Southern Sword Realm. You don't want innocent lives to be destroyed," the white-bearded elder said.

Zhang Ruochen smiled coldly. "I have a kind heart? You probably didn't see it. When I killed, I didn't even blink an eye."

"But you're willing to protect the Southern Sword Realm for 10,000 years. Even if we didn't finish the mission, you'd still do it, right? I believe in you," the white-bearded elder said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Don't think you can see through me. Go do your job. If you succeed and help me, I'll seriously consider helping the Southern Sword Realm."

The white-bearded elder and the thirteen Saint Kings were overjoyed. They said in unison, "Please accept the realm token. You are now the Supreme Lord of the Southern Sword Realm.”

“Please accept the token, my lord.”

...

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the realm token and held it in his hand. Then, he released Lord Bladehell from the Violet Gourd.

“I’ll leave them to you! It should be easier for the Celestial Captives to spy on the other Celestial Captives.”

Zhang Ruochen briefed Lord Bladehell on what happened. Then, he picked up dozens of saint corpses on the ground, flew out of the meteors, and met up with Qi Yang.

Qi Yang stared at the meteors that had flown far away and asked, “Where are the dozen Celestial Captives from the Southern Sword Realm? Did you let them go?”

Qi Yang didn’t know what had happened inside because Zhang Ruochen had just released the Profound Spatial Dimension to cover the entire meteor.

“Don’t ask anything you shouldn’t ask,” Zhang Ruochen said coldly with his hands behind his back.

Qi Yang naturally didn’t think that Zhang Ruochen would let them go after a few pleas from the Celestial Captives. However, when he thought about how badly Yuan Mo had died, he suppressed his curiosity and didn’t dare to ask any more questions.

“Let’s go. Take me to see Pan Ruo,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Qi Yang thought he’d heard wrong. He said in shock, “Supreme Saint, What are you doing? Are you trying to steal her? Her Highness Pan Ruo has a powerful backer. Please don’t act rashly.”

“It seems like you have forgotten what I just said,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Qi Yang quickly shut his mouth. He held it in for a while and said in a low voice, “Her Highness Pan Ruo has a large group of powerful figures from the three upper clans gathered around her. It's probably... Not good for you to go so openly."

"You're right. We can't swagger out like this," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen transformed into Yuan Mo and said, "This should be enough, right?"

Zhang Ruochen's voice changed. He sounded exactly the same as Yuan Mo.

His aura, eyes, and power fluctuations were flawless.

Qi Yang circled around Zhang Ruochen three times. He swallowed his saliva when he saw the surging Qi of Death around him.

If Yuan Mo hadn't died right in front of him, he wouldn't have believed that the person in front of him was actually Zhang Ruochen.

"Everyone says that the Immortal Vampires' Shapeshifting technique is amazing. I've finally seen it today!" Qi Yang exclaimed.

Qi Yang and Zhang Ruochen used the Qi of Death to carry dozens of saint corpses and flew away quickly.

Soon, they arrived at a rocky asteroid at the edge of the dark space.

After verifying their identities, the two of them entered the interior of the asteroid through an invisible enchantment. Only then did Zhang Ruochen sense a Supreme Saint's powerful aura.

Supreme Saint cultivators from the Nether Clan, Deathkin, and Stone Clan flew past him from time to time.

The total number of Supreme Saints was most likely greater than 1,000.

The Celestial Captives' bodies were piled upon an altar on the asteroid. On the altar, their Sainthood Source flashed.

Scarlet Saint Blood flowed down from the altar and filled up the mysterious inscriptions on the ground.

The corpse of Celestial Captive had over a million bodies piled up like a small mountain. Their souls flew around the altar and let out hoarse howls, using the corpse skin as a sacrificial flag and the sacred bones as pillars.

Nearly 300 Deathkin Supreme Saints had gathered near the altar. They continued carving inscriptions with the Will of Death.

With each inscription, the power of the altar became stronger.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Why are you building The Altar of Death?"

Qi Yang smiled proudly and said, "This Altar of Death was built by Her Highness Pan Ruo. It has a divine and unfathomable power. With it, we can dominate the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Even if Lord Hornless comes, he will die."

Qi Yang threw dozens of saint corpses to a Deathkin Supreme Saint. He raised his head and looked at The Altar of Death which gave off a terrifying aura. "Her Highness Pan Ruo is a genius of the Fane of Destiny. Only she can build such a magnificent masterpiece in such a short time," he said.

"Is this the secret weapon you used to conquer the seventh Dark Star?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Qi Yang was worried that Zhang Ruochen would destroy the altar. He stopped smiling and said quickly, "The Altar of Death is almost complete. It has the power of self-defense. Supreme Saint Ruochen, please don't act rashly."

"What if I want to?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Qi Yang said anxiously, "There are nearly 300 Deathkin Supreme Saints near The Altar of Death. Supreme Saint Ruochen, as soon as you activate your power, they will sense it and release The Will of Death to combine with The Altar of Death.

"The power of nearly 300 Supreme Saints' Will of Death combined with altar enhancement. I'm afraid you won't be able to resist it with your current cultivation."

Following that, Qi Yang bent his body and quickly said, “I have no intention of threatening you. I’m only thinking about your safety and my own life.”

Pan Ruo’s beautiful figure walked out from a gray light door below the altar. She looked at the two of them.

Qi Yang sensed her and quickly straightened his body. A smile appeared on his handsome face and he said, “Greetings, Your Highness Pan Ruo. Your Highness is even more beautiful than before. You are as beautiful as the moon in the nine heavens.”

Pan Ruo was quite tall. The water of the Nether River surrounded her. Destiny’s sacred light radiated from every inch of her skin. It was a stark contrast to the desolate surroundings here.

Her gaze fell on Zhang Ruochen. “So you are here too, Yuan Mo. I was about to find you. Follow me to the altar.”

With that, Pan Ruo walked into the altar.

Qi Yang stared at the side of Zhang Ruochen’s face and was stunned for a moment.

Wow!

If it was outside The Altar of Death, Zhang Ruochen certainly would not be able to destroy it. However, once he entered the inner part, the self-defense mechanism of the altar would be ineffective. With Zhang Ruochen’s terrifying cultivation, the altar that the three upper clans had painstakingly built would probably be torn down in an instant.

More importantly, the altar was covered in secret engravings. Even gods couldn’t find out what was happening inside.

Zhang Ruochen had come for Pan Ruo. What if he did something reckless after entering the altar?

Pan Ruo was bringing disaster to herself.

Qi Yang was extremely anxious. He wanted to expose Zhang Ruochen’s identity several times, but he restrained himself because the image of Yuan Mo’s tragic death appeared in his mind.

That image would probably haunt him for the rest of his life.

“I shall take my leave from Supreme Saint Ruochen and Her Highness Pan Ruo,” said Qi Yang.

Qi Yang turned to leave, but he found that he couldn’t move, Zhang Ruochen’s voice rang in his ears. “You’ll go in with me. If you dare to escape or try to reveal my identity, I can guarantee that you’ll die a worse death than Yuan Mo.”

“I... I don’t want to disturb you...” Qi Yang replied telepathically

Qi Yang followed Zhang Ruochen into the altar miserably.

The precepts of heaven and earth in the altar were chaotic.

The Sainthood Sources emitted bright light and released a large number of precepts, forming a chaotic environment.

The ground was a liquid surface like the surface of the water. Ripples would appear when one stepped on it.

Pan Ruo stood in the center, holding the cyan-brown Compass of Destiny. The bright Door of Trueself appeared with a light stroke of her hand.

“Follow me into the Door of Trueself,” she said.

Qi Yang was intrigued and inquired, “The Door of Trueself is formed by the interweaving of the Precepts of Destiny. Inside is Her Highness Pan Ruo’s Realm of Trueself. Why are we entering her realm?”

“Don’t ask so many questions. Just go in.” Zhang Ruochen ordered.

Then, Pan Ruo’s gaze fell on Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen took the lead and walked in.

Qi Yang thought to himself, ‘Is Her Highness Pan Ruo smart enough to see through Zhang Ruochen’s true form? So, she wants to trap him in the Realm of Trueself?’

The more Qi Yang thought about it, the more he felt it made sense. He quickly followed and stepped into the Door of Trueself.

The interior of the Door of Trueself was another scene. It was a vast expanse of whiteness with only a white stone island floating in it.

It was raining eternally in the sky.

The rain was also white.

Drip Drip

Zhang Ruochen stood on the island and closed his eyes to listen to the sound of the rain. He smelled the faint fragrance approaching him, he said, "It is said that every cultivator can cultivate a realm of his or her own. The world is what the heart is like. "I didn't expect your world to be so simple and pale. "Why is there no vitality at all?"

Pan Ruo stood beside Zhang Ruochen and stared straight ahead. Her eyelashes were long and curved. She said, "The more I think, the more mistakes I make. I'm not really simple and pale. I just have to choose this."

"Can't you stop the rain?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Pan Ruo said, "Why should we stop? I think it's good."

Qi Yang stood to the side. He didn't understand what they were saying, but he instinctively felt that Pan Ruo and Zhang Ruochen were both strange.

One was as cold as ice in Qi Yang's eyes, and the other was ruthless.

But at that moment, no matter how he looked at it, they were shy towards each other.

Pan Ruo wasn't like this when she normally communicated with Yuan Mo.

When Zhang Ruochen killed Yuan Mo, he was not as calm and gentle as he was now.

Suddenly, Pan Ruo asked Zhang Ruochen a question that made Qi Yang's heart jump. "Is Yuan Mo still alive?"

"He's dead!" Zhang Ruochen said.

Pan Ruo said, "Did you kill him because of Kunlun?"

“Because of myself.” Zhang Ruochen replied.

Zhang Ruochen did not want her to continue asking. So he decided to ask her, “How did you see through my Thirty-six Formless Transmogrification?”

“Do you think I’m still the same person? Actually, I don’t need to see it. When you appeared in front of me, I knew it was you. A person can change anything, but if his heart does not change, he will definitely notice.” Pan Ruo said.

The more Qi Yang listened, the more he felt that something was wrong. He felt that he had heard things he shouldn’t have heard and knew things he shouldn’t have. He felt a chill run down his spine. He felt like a disaster was coming.

Dong

Qi Yang knelt on the ground, trembling, and said, “I... I didn’t hear anything. I, too, don’t know anything. Can you please allow me to leave the Realm of Trueself now? I’m not at all interested in your secret.”

Zhang Ruochen acted like he couldn’t hear him. “I’m here to ask you a question.”

“What is it?” Pan Ruo asked.

“Why did Lord Hornless appear on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting? Was it because of the Empress?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

...

Chapter 2370: Destruction of the Altar

“Lord Hornless willingly surrendered to become a Celestial Captive. He gave up his life to assist the Empress in accomplishing that great feat,” said Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo didn’t hide her admiration for her breathtaking face.

She admired those who dared to sacrifice themselves to accomplish great things and give more people a better future.

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s not easy for a cultivator to cultivate from a mortal to Banshi Isshou Realm. Is it worth it to sacrifice everything?”

Pan Ruo said, “Yes.

“Even the Empress is not sure if the Grand Supreme Master is still alive. Maybe his sacrifice is not worth it at all.”

Pan Ruo’s tone was firm. She added, “Even if it’s just a one-in-a-million chance, it’s worth it. If I die, I can play a role in saving the Grand Supreme Master. I will give up my life without hesitation and have no regrets.”

“Just like when you gave yourself to Chi Yao?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“I don’t know what you’re talking about,” Pan Ruo replied.

“It seems that you’ve lost a lot of your memories,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Pan Ruo said, “I don’t care what memories you want me to remember, but I know that the Empress did the right thing. She has a heavy responsibility on her shoulders. She’s stronger than anyone else. She can face all the joys and sorrows of the world.

“Zhang Ruochen, you are not like her. You are not as strong as her. You still don’t know where your future leads you.”

“Really?” Zhang Ruochen seemed to be asking himself.

Pan Ruo asked, “Do you have a dream?”

“Do you have an ultimate goal?”

“What kind of life do you think you should live in the future?”

Then Pan Ruo added, “You did not. You’re just walking on the path that others want you to walk on. The path that the Shengming Empire’s old cadre wants you to take, the path that Moon Goddess wants you to take, the path that Blood Empress wants you to take, the path that Wargod Bloodximius wants you to take...”

“But I’m different. I always know what I want to do, what I’m doing, and what cultivation means.”

Qi Yang, who was kneeling by the side, finally understood the meaning of curiosity kills a cat. His entire body was trembling. He only felt that his death was imminent.

What did these secrets have to do with him?

He didn’t want to know at all.

If he had known earlier, he wouldn’t have entered The Altar of Death, much less enter Pan Ruo’s Realm of Trueself.

Now, he couldn’t escape even if he wanted to.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t have any intentions of targeting Pan Ruo. The two of them were old friends. They might even be old lovers.

“Your Highness Pan Ruo, Supreme Saint Ruochen, you two are people with great supernatural powers. Why don’t you erase this memory of mine? If it doesn’t work, erase all my memories. Then I won’t know anything!” Qi Yang begged.

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and remained silent.

Pan Ruo sighed. “Lord Hornless doesn’t know that you’re working with the Empress. Before he became a Celestial Captive, he received a mission to die at my hands. He’ll do his best to cooperate with me and take first place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.”

Zhang Ruochen finally opened his eyes. They shone with a fiery light. He said, “You can kill a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint?”

“Of course, I can’t kill a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint with just my cultivation. But I can use the Compass of Destiny to control this Altar of Death and combine the power of 300 Deathkin Supreme Saints. That power is enough to kill anyone on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting,” said Pan Ruo. She had an aura as strong as a mountain.

Zhang Ruochen said, “The Spirits of the gods are all paying attention to the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. No matter how real your acting is, there must be a god who will see through it.”

Pan Ruo said, “So this battle must be carried out on the seventh Dark Star. The seventh Dark Star contains a huge amount of energy. It’s enough to avoid the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms, and it can also deceive the gods’ senses and predictions.”

“What if the gods’ spiritual power is strong enough?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Pan Ruo shook her head slightly, “Impossible!” She said, “The distance between the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting and the Fane of Destiny was very far, to begin with. It was hundreds of millions of miles away, and it was difficult for the gods’ senses to reach it. With the influence of the Dark Star’s energy, no matter how strong the spiritual power is, it will be useless.”

“It’s not that simple. Let me do it!” Zhang Ruochen said.

Pan Ruo said, “Indeed, you should do it. All the points will be given to you, and you will definitely be first in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. However, if you can’t do it by yourself, The Altar of Death can help you.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were determined. He shook his head and said, “I told you not to get involved, so don’t get involved.”

Pan Ruo frowned and said, “You can’t be his opponent. If you try to be brave, you will only die. Since you’re here, come with me. Use The Altar of Death and fight on the seventh Dark Star. Lord Hornless will recognize you as long as you're with me."

"Don't think of the gods of the Infernal Court as simple. We shouldn't be close. Being enemies is good for everyone."

Zhang Ruochen looked at the white rain in the sky and said, "Let me out. It's time to go. If you don't, those who are looking at the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms will think that I've really done something to you!"

"Right! I'll think carefully about what you asked me."

...

The Altar of Death was made of more than 1.7 million saint corpses. It was magnificent and saint light shot into the sky. Before it could operate, the power it released made even the Saint Soul of the Supreme Saint feel uneasy and trembling.

The number one powerful figure of the Deathkin, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, was a young man who looked quite elegant.

He stood below The Altar of Death, and his body was filled with pride, he said, "Only on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting can such a majestic altar be built. If it were any other place, I'm afraid that they would have to kill all the living beings in a Macroworld to build it. From today onwards, we Deathkin will dominate the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting."

A purple-haired girl with a green-gold staff came to the side of the Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, she reported excitedly, "The Altar of Death has been completed. A total of 1,790,000,000 secret engravings have been carved on it. It can absorb the dark energy released by the Dark Star and convert it into offensive and defensive power. Now, we can enter the dark space and conquer all the Celestial Captives."

Around the altar, the Deathkin Supreme Saints were ecstatic. Their faces were filled with anticipation.

Today, the Deathkin would shake the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. All the cultivators in the entire Infernal Court would be in awe of them.

Next, they could use the power of The Altar of Death to take care of the Immortal Vampires and fight against the Yanluo clan. In the end, the Deathkins would have the last laugh in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei asked, “Is Her Highness Pan Ruo in the altar?”

“Yes!” the purple-haired girl replied.

After some thought, the purple-haired girl said, “Yuan Mo and Qi Yang are in there too.”

“What are they doing in there?” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei asked.

The altar was filled with the Precepts and the arcane runes of death. If cultivators who were not familiar with the altar entered, it would be very dangerous.

BOOM!

A deafening sound came from inside the altar.

The ground shook and the small asteroid beneath the feet of the cultivators of the three upper clans was shaken until it deviated from its trajectory. The asteroid showed signs of cracking.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei’s expression changed and he was about to charge into the gray door of light beneath the altar.

BOOM!

The door of light shattered.

The dense cracks in space passed through the door and there were more than a hundred of them. They were like inch-long flying knives that crashed into Supreme Saint Yuan Fei’s body.

It was too fast!

Supreme Saint Yuanfei couldn’t avoid them. Five bloody holes appeared on his body.

Fortunately, he had activated the Supreme Artifact, The Scroll of Truth and Deceit, in time so he wasn’t hit by more Dimensional Rifts.

However, the purple-haired girl standing not far from him wasn't so lucky. Hundreds of Dimensional Rifts struck her. Her slim figure was like a sieve. She was launched over ten miles away.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei gave the purple-haired girl a glance. His face was riddled with blue veins. "The Power of Dimension..." he roared. "That's the presence of Zhang Ruochen. Immediately activate The Altar of Death."

Boom

Another loud sound.

The altar was made of more than 1.7 million saint corpses shattered with a bang. The corpses were thrown into the sky like crushed stones.

The 1.790 million Death arcane runes had yet to display their full potential before they started to crack.

A powerful dimensional storm erupted from the center of the altar like a tsunami. It hit the bodies of the three hundred Deathkin Supreme Saints and sent them flying.

Some of their muscles and bones were injured by the Dimensional Rifts. Some of their bodies were deformed by the chaotic space.

Crack!

The asteroid couldn't withstand the impact of such a powerful force. It cracked and shattered.

Not only the Deathkin Supreme Saints but also all of them were dumbfounded!

The Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan and the Stone Clan were also at a loss. They didn't know what had happened and were in a panic.

Zhang Ruochen held a corpse in his hand and flew up from the collapsed Altar of Death. He floated 10,000 meters away from Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, he raised his voice and said, "Last time, you three upper clans plotted against me and wanted to kill me. Today, I'll return the favor."

Then, he threw the corpse in his hand at Supreme Saint Yuanfei.

The corpse was wrapped in the Divine Purification Flame. When it fell in front of Supreme Saint Yuanfei, it was only burned to the bones.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei sensed the aura on the corpse. It belonged to Qi Yang.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei's state of mind was originally very profound, but now, he was furious. He gritted his teeth and asked, "Where is Yuan Mo?"

Zhang Ruochen didn't answer him. He spread his ten golden wings and flew away.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei and Deathkin's Supreme Saint attacked together. They cast killing saint techniques one after another.

Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen was too fast. After the killing saint techniques flew out, they had already lost sight of him.

Pan Ruo's face was pale, and there was blood at the corner of her mouth. She flew out of the ruined Altar of Death. She was so weak that she almost fell to the ground, "Zhang Ruochen's Thirty-six Formless Transmogrification is too powerful," she said. "He turned into Yuan Mo and came back with Qi Yang. He hid it from me. It's all my fault. I shouldn't have let my guard down. I never thought that Zhang Ruochen would be so bold to break into the gathering place of the cultivators of the three upper clans."

The Supreme Saints of the Stone Clan and the Nether Clan rushed over. They stared at the destroyed Altar of Death in a daze.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei suppressed the killing intent in his heart and comforted her. "It's not your fault. There are many powerful figures in the Yanluo clan. They all suffered because of Zhang Ruochen's Shapeshifting technique, not to mention Qi Yang leading the way.

"Qi Yang must know that Zhang Ruochen had transformed into Yuan Mo's figure. He caused all the Supreme Saints of the Deathkin to lose everything. He deserves to die."

A Supreme Saint of the Deathkin gnashed his teeth. He wanted to whip the Supreme Saint bone on the ground.

Que Fei, who was wearing the Armor of Darkness, said, "Zhang Ruochen destroyed The Altar of Death. He must be worried that we will use The Altar of Death to deal with the Immortal Vampires in the future.

"Since Zhang Ruochen is here, it means that the Battle of the second Dark Star has ended. The Immortal Vampires must have set the seventh Dark Star as their next target. We can't delay any longer. We have to act immediately."

A Stone Clan Supreme Saint said, "Without The Altar of Death, what should we do if we meet Lord Hornless?"

"As long as the three upper clans can summon ten Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm to activate The Scroll of Truth and Deceit with me, it will be enough to trap Lord Hornless for a while. Don't be too concerned," Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said.

Que Fei said, "I just got word that Wujiang has emerged from the Nether Clan's home planet's underground. He's fully recovered and is on his way to the seventh Dark Star. He'll be able to meet us soon."

The news that Wujiang was on his way boosted the morale of the cultivators of the three upper clans, who had recently suffered a setback.

"Wujiang's injuries have healed so quickly. He might have gotten an opportunity from his home planet."

"Great! Wujiang's heart is strong. This time, he will undoubtedly fight Zhang Ruochen and avenge himself."

"Someone can stop Wujiang as long as he comes, even if he runs into Lord Hornless."

A top-notch powerhouse represented not only a powerful fighting force but also the spiritual support of countless cultivators.

Just like Zhang Ruochen to the Immortal Vampires and Luo Shengtian to the Rakshasas, as long as they were here, the cultivators of the clan would be full of confidence and fighting spirit.

...

Zhang Ruochen went to meet Lord Bladehell after leaving the broken asteroid.

After flying for a while, Zhang Ruochen found Lord Bladehell in a crimson fog of stars.

Lord Bladehell had silver hair, his figure was tall and straight, and he had a dignified aura. He asked, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, you came back so quickly. How is it? Has The Altar of Death been destroyed?"

"Yes!"

Zhang Ruochen was still deep in thought. He answered casually.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen felt something was wrong. His eyes became sharp. He glared at Lord Bladehell and said, "How do you know about The Altar of Death? Who are you?"

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen moved in a flash and crossed a hundred feet in an instant. With his five fingers, he grabbed Lord Bladehell's neck.

The three upper clans had been acting in secret. Before Zhang Ruochen went to the rock asteroid, he had no idea that they were building The Altar of Death.

Lord Bladehell had no way of knowing.

Lord Bladehell's body exploded, transforming into a ball of crimson gas.

A long hair fell from the gas.

"It's fake," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. Although he had been thinking about what Pan Ruo had said and was a little absent-minded, he had been fooled by a single hair. It could be seen from this that the caster must be a person of great skill.

Zhang Ruochen immediately released his spiritual power to check his surroundings. He was secretly relieved that he did not find an ambush.

He twirled the strand of hair and a series of Precepts of Truth appeared in his eyes. He raised his head to look around and said, "So it's you. Your Thousand-illusion has become even more brilliant. Come out!"

Chapter 2371: Visions of the future

“Haha! Zhang Ruochen, how come your vigilance has become so bad?”

A burst of melodious, bell-like laughter rang out in the fog of stars. The sound came from left to right unpredictably.

Luo Sha’s slim and tall figure strolled out of the fog. She was at least 1.8 meters tall and her long and straight legs moved, full of youthful vigor. Her slim waist turned slightly, and she possessed a soul-stirring charisma.

She was dressed in ornate robes and had her hands clasped behind her back. Her long hair was tied into two braids. Her beautiful face that cause nations to fight over always had the pure smile of a young and innocent girl.

Such a young, clear, and pure-looking woman was like a lamb without any aggression. Who would believe that she was hiding military strategies within and full of schemes?

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where is Lord Bladehell?”

“He is ranked in the top 10 on the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm list. With my cultivation, how can I eat him? Besides, the Immortal Vampires are also human-shaped creatures. I have no appetite for those at all.”

Luo Sha bit her red lips lightly and touched her belly. “I’m really hungry! Zhang Ruochen, do you have anything to eat?”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Seriously where is Lord Bladehell? Is Luo Shengtian nearby also?”

The ten clans were all rivals.

Zhang Ruochen had to make no mistakes in order to win first place among the ten clans.

“Lord Bladehell, Lord Bladehell, everything you speak of is about Lord Bladehell. Is he your lover? If I wanted to harm you, the one who became Lord Bladehell just now would not be a hair, but my royal brother. With my royal brother's cultivation, even if you didn't die from the sneak attack just now, you would at least lose a layer of skin, right?"

Luo Sha beckoned with her finger and said, "If you want to know where the Lord Bladehell is, follow me."

She turned into a streak of green light and flew away.

"Since Luo Sha turned into the Lord Bladehell's appearance to trick me and knows that I had destroyed the Altar of Death, it can be seen that she knows the stars around the seventh Dark Star like the back of her hand." Zhang Ruochen thought to himself. "There should be many Supreme Saints of the Rakshasa scattered around nearby."

Lord Bladehell's cultivation was indeed very strong, but Luo Sha's Thousand-illusions technique was hard to guard against.

If they really fought, Lord Bladehell would most likely not be Luo Sha's match.

Zhang Ruochen's thoughts swirled around in his head, and then he chased after Luo Sha and flew into the Dark Star Domain covered by the energy of the seventh Dark Star.

They didn't enter into the depths and instead halted at areas by the edge.

The two of them landed on an asteroid that revolved around the Dark Star.

The asteroid was more than 1,000 meters long and flat. Dozens of Rakshasa girls were stationed there. They were all Supreme Saints with lithe bodies and snow-white skin.

The Rakshasa girls were all beautiful, especially those who had reached Supreme Sainthood. They were all as beautiful as fairies and possessed devilishly slim figures.

"The princess is back!"

Rakshasa girls came forward one after another.

Their bodies carried elusive fragrance, and their eyes were glistening. They didn't have the imposing manner of a Supreme Saint. Instead, they carried a gentle and seductive charm.

Even though many of their cultivation was above Luo Sha's, they behaved extremely respectfully to Luo Sha. From this, one could see Luo Sha's methods and abilities.

Luo Sha smiled and said, "Look who I brought back. Zhang Ruochen, the grandson of the Wargod Bloodximus. He has talent, status, and good looks. You fairies are lucky!"

Then he said hurriedly, "Han Ying, didn't you kill a dragon in the Supreme Sainthood? Hurry up and cook it. I'm hungry."

Other than the Rakshasa girl named Han Ying, all the other Rakshasa girls looked at Zhang Ruochen.

Their beautiful eyes flashed with fiery light as if they wanted to swallow Zhang Ruochen.

Not every Rakshasa girl looked at faces like Luo Sha, but they all worshipped the strong. There was not a single Rakshasa girl who could dislike an elite that emerges once in an era like Zhang Ruochen.

"Supreme Saint Ruochen, I heard that you defeated Wu Jiang. Is this true?"

"Has Supreme Saint Ruochen condensed and used the Grade Two Saintwill? I swore 500 years ago that I would only marry a genius who could condense the Grade Two Saintwill."

"I am Yan Qing of the Yan Saint Clan of Devala, and I have long heard of Supreme Saint Ruochen's great name. Seeing you today, you are indeed extraordinary. I wonder if we can get to know each other as friends?"

There were Rakshasa girls who introduced themselves with unconcealed love in their eyes.

If the Supreme Saints were like this, it could be seen that the Rakshasa girls were indeed bold in nature. They express their emotions freely and few were pretentious.

Luo Sha stood at the side and quietly looked at Zhang Ruochen who was being surrounded by the girls. Her face was full of smiles as she waved her hand while saying, "All of you can leave now. If you want to get to know Supreme Saint Ruochen, there will be plenty of opportunities in the future. Now, let me discuss important matters with him.”

These Rakshasa girls could attain Supreme Sainthood within 1,000 years. Naturally, they had very high standards. Only someone with family background and talent like Zhang Ruochen was worthy of them to take the initiative to approach.

If a female cultivator’s talent was too high, there would be countless lonely old people.

If they are talented, then naturally their standards would also be high.

When they reached Supreme Sainthood and sometimes even became gods, they would look down on the weak even more. Their feelings for men and women would also gradually fade, and they would focus more on understanding the Deva Path.

After the Rakshasa had dispersed, Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha sat in the heptangular palace. Dragon meat, liver, and ears carrying an elegant fragrance were served before them.

Just a sniff was enough to make saliva flow.

The heptangular palace was an Imperial Artifact of Precept.

The various precepts flowed densely in the temple. One could eat and cultivate at the same time.

Luo Sha was a glutton.

Zhang Ruochen had known this when he first met her in the Zuling Realm.

Luo Sha ate elegantly and without cutlery by picking up pieces of fragrant dragon meat with her two jade fingers and putting them into her mouth. She chewed delicately and a layer of grease shone on her cheeks.

Her big, bright eyes stared at Zhang Ruochen, “Try some,” she said. “There are only a few dragons that have attained Supreme Sainthood in the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. These ingredients are very precious! However, Han Ying’s culinary skills are far inferior to Qing Mo. I had wanted to bring Qing Mo back to the Infernal Court when I was in Kunlun, but that girl was too stubborn. She wouldn't come with me no matter what."

Zhang Ruochen was still wary of Luo Sha. He didn't touch the food on the jade plate. "You were spying on me when I met Yuan Mo and Qi Yang right? Your spiritual power is so strong that I didn't sense anything at all."

Before Luo Sha had broken through to the Supreme Saint Realm, she had been able to control the corpse of a Supreme Saint with the help of the Dark Divinity Lotus. Her spiritual power was already very strong.

Now, it had grown a lot and wasn't much weaker compared to Zhang Ruochen's.

Luo Sha nodded, "My spiritual power is strong because of the foundation I built from reading books since I was young," she said. "I have traveled all over the world to gain more knowledge. In the end, I obtained the Stellar Soul of God inside the Divine Python's corpse in Kunlun. That's how I advanced through leaps and bounds."

Of course, Zhang Ruochen knew about the Divine Python's corpse.

Back then, Zhang Ruochen had seized the Divine Python's corpse and fused the evil spirit with the divine corpse. Luo Sha, on the other hand, had taken the more precious Divinity Source and the Stellar Soul of God.

Luo Sha's cultivation of the paths and increase in spiritual power must have something to do with it.

"Where is Lord Bladehell?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha rolled her eyes and said, "Why is it Lord Bladehell again? Don't worry, I didn't do anything to him. Besides, Lord Bladehell is also a tough guy. How can he be taken care of so easily?"

"Tell me your purpose."

Zhang Ruochen was very direct. He didn't want to waste too much time.

Luo Sha licked his lips and wiped her fingers on the scarf, saying, "Since Supreme Saint Ruochen doesn't like foreplay, let's get to the point. I want to work with you. To be more precise, I want to work with the Immortal Vampires to take down the seventh Dark Star."

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised. He smiled and said, "I prefer to work alone compared to working with others."

"No, you do." Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen replied, "How so?"

"Because in the Battlefield of Celestial Hunting, the Immortal Vampires have enemies everywhere. Only the Rakshasa clan can be your friend."

Luo Sha placed the jade plate containing the dragon meat in the center of the table, and said, "The seventh Dark Star is too big for the Immortal Vampires to take over. Besides, the three upper clans have been staying here for many days so you wouldn't have any advantage over them."

"Go on," said Zhang Ruochen

"The Rakshasa clan has been operating and setting up on the seventh Dark Star. They have a better grasp of information there than the dozen or so Celestial Captives that you can send out at a short notice."

"The dark dimension of the seventh Dark Star is 100 times wider than other Dark Stars," said Luo Sha. "Without detailed and accurate information, you won't be able to wipe out the Celestial Captives hiding everywhere, let alone in a few days. Even if you have a few years, you won't be able to wipe them out."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Now that you mention it, there seems to be a basis for cooperation. But, how do I know that you won't betray the Immortal Vampires at a critical moment?"

Luo Sha picked up the dragon meat and ate another piece, she laughed and said, "What good would it do the Rakshasa clan to betray the Immortal Vampires? For them to provoke a great enemy like you for no reason... The Rakshasa clan certainly does not want to follow the footsteps of the Ghost and the Yanluo clan.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where is Luo Shengtian? I want him to come out and talk to me personally.”

Luo Sha straightened her pink back and sat upright, and she said heroically, “I can make decisions for the Rakshasa.”

“But only if Luo Shengtian makes a move can we have more confidence in killing Lord Hornless,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Although Lord Hornless’s realm was profound, his spiritual power was sealed, and his hands and feet were bound by divine chains. His combat power was greatly reduced. Zhang Ruochen had dark time and space matter, so he was confident that he could kill him.

However, if Lord Hornless wanted to escape, Zhang Ruochen couldn’t stop him.

Therefore, he needed an elite to help tie him down.

Luo Sha said, “If you want to kill Lord Hornless, I can help you.”

“You?”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were full of doubt.

Luo Sha smiled and said, “I will personally go with you to kill Lord Hornless. Now, do you believe me?”

“You are playing with your own life,” Zhang Ruochen said in a deep voice.

When one’s cultivation reached Lord Hornless’s level, even the fallout of a battle could threaten Luo Sha’s fragile body.

Luo Sha said, “I love my life very much, so I am not joking.”

Zhang Ruochen could not guess what Luo Sha’s trump card was, but she was indeed extraordinary, so he temporarily believed her.

Zhang Ruochen finally let down his guard. He raised his glass and said, “Then I wish us a great victory to take down the seventh Dark Star as soon as possible.”

After clinking his glasses and drinking, Zhang Ruochen asked, "The three upper clans must have started to move. Your Highness, when do you think we should set off?"

Luo Sha's almond-shaped eyes stared straight at Zhang Ruochen's evil and handsome face, and she said, "There's no rush. Let the three upper clans clear the way for us first. We'll set off after they've cleared the array patterns, runes, and saint technique traps. Come, let us talk again."

"Talk about what?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, "About... how about feelings? I'm still curious. Are you a passionate man or one that is fickle with love?"

"Boring."

Zhang Ruochen stood up and was about to leave. Suddenly, he stopped. He thought of something and sat back down.

Luo Sha curled her red lips and chewed on the dragon liver in her mouth. "Why aren't you leaving?" she asked.

"I have a few questions. I want to communicate with you to know what you think about them," Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha looked very interested. "That's great! Supreme Saint Ruochen has already treated me as a close friend. Now please tell me what are you confused about, and maybe I can help you figure it out," she said excitedly.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Does your Highness have a grand goal or vision?"

Luo Sha had a strange look in her eyes, and she smiled while saying, "This is the question that Wargod Bloodximius asked you to think about, right?"

Zhang Ruochen didn't say anything.

Luo Sha said, "Actually, only a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint would think about this question seriously and make a careful decision. The fact that the Wargod Bloodximius asked you to think about it at this stage is correct. If you figure it out earlier, you will be less troubled when you are in the Thousand-Koan Realm."

“Why the Thousand-Koan Realm?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha stood up with her arms behind her back, and she spoke frankly with assurance, “The most important thing for the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint is to transform the Path. The so-called transformation of the Path is to show what the heart is thinking.”

“Therefore, cultivators at this stage will ask themselves all sorts of questions, such as by inquiring themselves about the gains and losses in their lives. They will ask about the right and wrong of the past and the direction of the future... and so on. Then, they will solve the problems one by one.”

“The more complete one’s state of mind is, the more complete one’s Path will be.”

“At this stage, the most important question is the cultivator’s vision. Every cultivator at this stage will have a vision that they will have to work hard to achieve. It can also be called a dream and goal.”

“The Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Koan Realm calls this ‘The heart determines your future achievements.’”

“Of course, it doesn’t mean that the bigger the wish, the better. For example, some cultivators in the Thousand-Koan Realm make a grand wish to become the leader of the Rakshasa in their lifetime. As such, the grand wish will take root and become his obsession.”

“However, as his cultivation grew higher and higher, he realized that this vision could not be realized. Instead, it gives birth to a mental demon which consumes him and causes him to become a madman that had lost his mind.”

“Therefore, for every cultivator in the Thousand-Koan Realm, when they asked about their future goals and dreams, they decided based on their strength and true thoughts. The more false and empty the wish is, the worse the result,” she said darkly, “Just like...”

Zhang Ruochen woke up from deep within his thoughts and asked, “Just like what?”

“You must not hit me if I said it,” Luo Sha warned.

Zhang Ruochen replied, “Just say it. I won’t hit you.”

Luo Sha said, “Just like Saint Monk Xumi. He made a grand vow that he wouldn’t attain Buddhahood until the Infernal Court was empty. But in the end, he died in the hands of the Infernal Court deities. Isn’t that ironic? What are you doing, Zhang Ruochen? This is the territory of the Rakshasa. You can’t go back on your words...”

This was a complete provocation!

She knew that Zhang Ruochen was the disciple of Saint Monk Xumi, but she still said such words. so wasn’t she asking for a beating?

Based on his previous experience beating her up, Zhang Ruochen seriously suspected that Luo Sha was deliberately courting death and wanted to be beaten up by him... because females always said one thing but secretly think of the opposite.

Chapter 2372: Direction

Zhang Ruochen had raised his hand but didn't hit her in the end. Shaking his head, he said, "If the Infernal Court isn't empty, He swears that he won't attain Buddhahood? You might have misunderstood what he meant by that."

"For the so-called Infernal Court to be empty. It's not to destroy everything in Infernal Court, but instead to overcome all evil in the world."

On the last page of the Secret Tome of Time and Space is written, "If the Infernal Court isn't empty, I swear I won't attain Buddhahood."

Zhang Ruochen had read countless books, and there were records of these words which are related to Saint Monk Xumi in them.

It was a great aspiration that Saint Monk Xumi made after listening to the sermon of the Sixth Buddha several Yuanhui periods ago.

At that time, the Infernal Court was not called the Infernal Court. The Infernal Court's Ten Clans also communicated frequently with the other macroworlds. They were not as opposed to life and death as they were now.

"What? Do you want to make the same aspiration as Saint Monk Xumi? Don't you ever force yourself to become a monk!" Luo Sha was a little nervous and worried.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I'm selfish and also not that selfless and great."

"It's good to have selfish motives. It's better than not being selfish. People who aren't selfish are too unreal. They don't look like people," Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "What's your vision of the future?"

"I... I've thought about it. Actually, my ambitions aren't that big. In the future, being the Empress of Devala or the leader of the Rakshasa will be enough,” Luo Sha said seriously.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to grab her and beat her up.

Wasn't she afraid of being beaten up just because of her pretty looks?

Luo Sha said, “What's with your expression? I think that with my talent, it's only a matter of time before I become the Empress of Devala. If my father doesn't pass the throne to me, will he pass it to my royal brother? At the moment, my brother is still far behind me.”

“Do you dare to say that in front of him?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha snorted and said, “You know why I believe in destiny, but have no desire in joining the Fane of Destiny and become a core Scion? I don't even care about the position of the Scioness of Destiny.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “You've already said this before. Becoming the Scioness of Destiny will require you to sever all feelings and desires for 1,000 years...”

“It's all a lie. It's just 1,000 years. For a Supreme Saint, that is not a long time. For a princess like me, who will attain godhood in the future, the time passes with a snap of the finger.” Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen was speechless. He was silent for a long time before asking, “Then how many of your words before were true and how many were false?”

“Why do you care so much about whether what I said was true or false?”

A cunning light flashed in Luo Sha's eyes and she laughed, “Do you want to know the truth and lies of the destined one for you? Don't open your mouth yet... since you want to know so much, let me tell you,” she said. “Any of my words may be false. However Zhang Ruochen you are indeed the destined one for me. Those words are true.”

Hmph

Zhang Ruochen did not have a good impression of the Rakshasa. He had always been hostile to them.

The first time he stepped onto the Battlefield of Merits, he saw the Rakshasa roasting human flesh. That left a deep impression of disgust on him.

But he could not hate Luo Sha.

It could be that because she was too beautiful, or perhaps it was because she did not eat the flesh of humanoid creatures, and they both cultivated spiritual power, or maybe it was because Luo Sha had never done anything to hurt him.

It's because Zhang Ruochen had a good impression of Luo Sha that he was willing to confide with her all his inner feelings like a friend.

Luo Sha saw that Zhang Ruochen was sitting there like a withered stone ignoring her, so she restrained her arrogance a little, saying, "Actually, the biggest reason is that even if I become the Scioness of Destiny for a thousand years, it won't help me much when I become the Empress of Devala in the future. If that's the case, why should I waste 1,000 years working for the Fane of Destiny?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Becoming the Fane of Destiny can bring more benefits to the Rakshasa and Devala. Didn't your father tell you about the strong relationship between them and urged you?"

"Well..."

Luo Sha rolled her eyes and smiled. "I understand now, so there is where your confusion lies."

"What do you understand?" Zhang Ruochen looked at her calmly.

Luo Sha said, "You're conflicted inside. Should you do what you want or what others force you to do? You want to be yourself, but inside you don't even know what you really want."

"When you killed Supreme Saint Manjian, you were in pain, weren't you?"

“If you want to survive in the Infernal Court, but have to do countless things you don’t want to do, you must be in pain, right?”

“You don’t like killing, but you’ve gone further and further on the path of slaughtering. Aren’t you afraid of growing inner demons if you go against your heart?”

“Zhang Ruochen, do you feel that because of responsibilities, feelings, survival, protection... and other external reasons, you haven’t been doing things according to your heart and have become someone you don’t even know?”

“In your heart, there is a lack of perseverance... a perseverance that is worth persevering for.”

Luo Sha’s eyes were exceedingly penetrating. It almost seemed that she could see through Zhang Ruochen and force him into a corner with nowhere to go. He had to face his own heart.

For everyone... the path of cultivation required constant reflection.

It requires you to correct your own mistakes and see clearly in confusion, and also to guide yourself amid difficulties.

Luo Sha said, “My father forced me to be the Scioness of Destiny. My mother taught me countless principles and responsibilities, but I still didn’t follow the path they arranged because I have things I wanted to do and know what I want. Being the Scioness of Destiny will only bind me for a thousand years.”

“Some cultivators can stand on their own after merely reaching the Demi-Saint realm

“Some cultivators have reached the Supreme Saint realm but still don’t know what they want in the future.”

“Do you think my royal brother is okay? The Divine Prince of Devala is one of the most dazzling geniuses of the past thousand years. However, in my opinion, he is a loser. Specifically, a loser who is dragged down by the identity of the Divine Prince!”

“He could have broken through to the Thousand-Koan Realm seventy years ago and continued to advance. However, for the sake of the Celestial-Hunting Battle and Devala, he suppressed his cultivation until now.”

“Is he wrong to do that? There’s no wrong.”

“It’s because of people like him who keep giving. That’s why Devala has always been the leader of the seven great kingdoms of the Rakshasa,” she said. “But he can’t change the fact that he’s a loser. He’ll be bound by his identity all his life. There will be more things to restrict him in the future.”

“Zhang Ruochen you are the same. You didn’t want to participate in the Celestial-Hunting Battle but still came. You could have not come instead.”

Zhang Ruochen replied, “Do I have a choice?”

“Of course, you can choose, but you didn’t. If you, Zhang Ruochen, are a heartless and cold-hearted person, who can control your will? Unfortunately, you are not that kind of person. This is the source of your pain and confusion. The coldness on your face is all an act because the more unscrupulous and ruthless you act, the more you struggle and suffer.”

Luo Sha sighed. “Just like me, I fell in love with you.. a man who doesn’t love me and caused me to become more indecisive than ever. Do you think we’re doomed?”

There was a long silence.

“I understand!”

Zhang Ruochen’s solemn face suddenly relaxed.

Luo Sha said, “It’s good that you understand that I have been encumbered by you.”

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had been thinking and had a direction in mind.

There was a direction, but no answer.

Because the answer was too difficult, he still did not know it without a doubt. In other words, he did not dare to confirm the answer without further confirmation.

Pan Ruo said that he had been walking the path that others wanted him to walk.

Yes!

Zhang Ruochen was indeed confused in the past. From the moment he became the ninth prince of Yunwu Commandery, his heart had been confused. At that time, hatred was all he had.

But hatred was not a person's future.

The future that Zhang Ruochen wanted was not necessarily to become a deity or a ruler of heaven and earth. He wanted a peaceful and tranquil world where there was no killing, no cannibalism, and no evil... where all his friends and family could live happily without all the bad things around them and live out their years fully, and all of his descendants would continue for generations.

However, this was precisely the hardest part.

His birth that was out of the ordinary meant that the life he imagined was an extravagant hope.

Wanting peace and tranquility was countless times harder than cultivating to achieve divinity.

Perhaps...

This chaotic and cruel universe needed a new order!

That's right!

A brand new order.

To establish that new order, he had to work hard on his cultivation and become stronger.

This was a path to follow, and it was something that Zhang Ruochen had always longed for in the depths of his heart.

After thinking this through, the pain and struggle in Zhang Ruochen's heart were reduced by more than half. He felt a sense of relief and joy as if he had just gotten free from a swamp. Despite that, the path he had chosen was as difficult as ascending to heaven.

It was very likely that he would not reach the end even if he worked hard in his lifetime.

However, he was willing to keep going until the day he ushered in a new order.

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and immersed himself in the grand vision that he imagined. In his mind, he tried to perfect the perfect picture of the new order bit by bit to get a complete answer.

Whoosh

Gradually, Zhang Ruochen's body bloomed with an increasingly bright white light, like a saint lamp that was set alight.

Luo Sha exclaimed in surprise. She carefully observed Zhang Ruochen and found that he was currently extremely divine. There was an aura of flawless solemnity and sacred, inviolable dignity.

This scene was like when Zhang Ruochen wielded the Imperial Ruler and charged into the thousands of soldiers of the Infernal Court alone. It left a lasting impression on her heart.

Crack! Crack!

The 12 shackles in her heart broke automatically in an instant.

By now, Zhang Ruochen had broken 50 shackles.

After a long while, Zhang Ruochen opened his eyes. He raised his hand and looked at it.

Then he stood up and looked around his own body.

Then, a warm and sunny smile appeared on his face, and he said, "Thank you, Your Highness. I have benefited for life from your words today."

Luo Sha didn't think that she had helped Zhang Ruochen much. However, she was used to Zhang Ruochen's cold look and he turned so gentle and modest all of a sudden. It made her feel like she had eaten honey, all sweeten up inside. She was also about to give a modest reply.

Zhang Ruochen abruptly changed the topic, “However, there are many flaws in what you said. Forgive me that I can’t agree with you blindly.” He continued. “For example, I don’t think it’s appropriate to comment on the prince. If it weren’t for his and your father’s hard work, you wouldn’t have the right to do as you please. As another example, if you want to be the empress, but don’t want to sacrifice for Devala, why should the people of Devala submit to you?”

“Get lost!” Luo Sha replied.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t continue anymore. He smiled briefly and walked out of the heptangular palace.

The moment he stepped out of the palace, the smile on his face disappeared and turned cold again.

He looked up at the pitch-black void and declared, “Only by becoming stronger can my vision become reality. and the reality I’m facing now is the cruelest.”

Pan Ruo’s figure could not help but appear in Zhang Ruochen’s mind.

She was always like that since the beginning. She always said such harsh words and never wanted to communicate properly. However, she had pointed out the biggest flaw in Zhang Ruochen.

Half of the reason why Zhang Ruochen was able to realize enlightenment today was because of her causing him to have a realization.

Otherwise, he didn’t know when the twelve locks around his heart would break.

“Sooner or later, I will tell you my answer. Now how about your answer? What is your vision and purpose of coming to the Infernal Court?” Zhang Ruochen said to himself.

...

In just three days, the cultivators of the three upper clans had broken through the layers of defense set up by the Celestial Captives. They had traveled millions of miles to reach the sky above the seventh Dark Star.

In the past three days, almost all the Celestial Captives they had killed were useless troops in the Saint King Realm.

However, the three upper clans had suffered heavy losses because of the arrays, runes, and saint technique traps that Celestial Captives had set up in advance.

Two Supreme Saints had fallen, and hundreds of them were injured.

There were more than 700 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives gathered on the seventh Dark Star. They occupied one-third of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. They were a huge force that couldn't be underestimated.

If the three upper clans attacked forcefully, they would suffer heavy losses.

...

In the heptangular palace...

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha received the news immediately.

Luo Sha crushed the communication talisman and laughed.

"This is interesting! More than 700 Supreme Saints all gathered together. The cultivators of the three upper clans must have been shocked."

"Without the Altar of Death, the battle for the three upper clans will not be easy," Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha said, "The three upper clans initially thought that the Celestial Captives would be scattered in this millions of miles of dark space and could be defeated one by one. Now, all the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives are gathered together, they are unable to attack."

On the Dark Star, spiritual power and cultivation would be severely suppressed. However, that would be an advantage for the Celestial Captives instead.

One side was determined to die and wanted to drag a few people down with them.

The other side cherished their own lives and just have the will to hunt.

Once the war started, even if the three upper clans had an absolute advantage, they would suffer countless losses to vanquish the Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star. Thus, the three upper clans didn't dare to fight.

Luo Sha said, "If the Altar of Death is here, the three upper clans can launch a strong attack. Zhang Ruochen, I'm afraid that the monks of the three upper clans are hating you to death right now!"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and chuckled.

Without the Altar of Death, Lord Hornless and Pan Ruo couldn't continue their drama.

What decision would Lord Hornless and Pan Ruo make next?

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Did the message you received only contain information about the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives on the Dark Star? What about the Celestial Captives in the Saint King Realm, Saint Realm, and Demi-Saint Realm?"

"Cultivators below the Supreme Saint Realm will be suppressed till they were like ordinary people on the seventh Dark Star. Once the war starts, they will be cannon fodder," Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "But there are many Celestial Captives below the Supreme Saint Realm. There are millions of them. One Saint King might be cannon fodder, but what about 10,000 Saint Kings working together? One saint might not be able to exert much power but what about 100,000 of them?"

Luo Sha nodded and said, "You're right. Celestial Captives below the Supreme Saint Realm are the biggest variable in this battle. But so far, the Rakshasa clan hasn't found out where they're hiding yet."

"Lord Hornless isn't an ordinary person," Zhang Ruochen said. "He's a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm. Since he can hide millions of Celestial Captives, he must have his reasons. We have to be careful."

Celestial Captives could die as they pleased, but the Supreme Saints of the Rakshasa and the Immortal Vampires were all precious. They were the foundation of the clan's future.

Luo Sha and Zhang Ruochen naturally had to be careful.

Luo Sha said thoughtfully, "Then let the three upper clans help us first. We'll take action after they have drawn out Lord Hornless trump card. Zhang Ruochen, why don't you accompany me to find someone?"

"Who?"

"Yan Guang of the Deathkin, the most powerful necromancer on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting."

"Why do we need to find him?"

"To borrow an army from him."

...

Chapter 2373: The Legion of Death

After the Altar of Death was destroyed, there were still over a million corpses of the Celestial Captives preserved.

All the corpses were handed over to Yan Guang.

As the most talented necromancer seen in the past thousand years of the Infernal Court, Yan Guang's spiritual power had reached level 65. As long as he had enough high-level corpses and spirits, even the top elite of the Deathkin, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, had to be wary of him.

According to reason, Yan Guang, who was only 759 years old, should be able to retain his youth and remain young forever.

However, he was extremely old. Half of his hair was white while the other half was black.

Cultivating the Path of the Necromancers has caused his body to be severely corroded.

Over a million corpses of Celestial Captives floated in the void, stretching for hundreds of miles long and turning the place into a Sea of Corpses.

Some of the corpses were sacred beasts whose bodies were even bigger than mountains.

Some of the corpses were smaller than human bodies, resembling reptiles.

In the Sea of Corpses, clusters of bluish spectral flames floated, illuminating the pitch-black world in a ghastly and terrifying way.

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha stood in their respective Profound Spatial Dimensions and came to the edge of the Sea of Corpses. They restrained their aura and carefully conceal themselves.

“He could split and summon out 100,000 spiritual avatars. This Yan Guang is indeed not a simple person.”

Zhang Ruochen stared at the elderly person in the Sea of Corpses. He saw the old man holding a bone scepter and summoning numerous clones. The clones were using their fingers to constantly draw runes onto the corpses of the Celestial Captives.

“He’s drawing death talismans. With those talismans, he can control all the saint corpses by himself,” Luo Sha said.

Zhang Ruochen was shocked and replied. “The corpses here were at least Demi-saints when they were alive. There are also many Supreme Saint corpses. Even if they are dead, they can still unleash powerful battle strength.”

One person controlling an army of a million saint corpses?

The thought of it was shocking!

How powerful was the battle might that Yan Guang could unleash then?

“If I’m not wrong,” Luo Sha said, “The Deathkin have lost their Altar of Death. They can only settle for the next best. Yan Guang will control the Legion of Death and act as the vanguard to charge into the Dark Star and destroy the fort made up of more than 700 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives. As long as we disrupt Lord Hornless’ arrangements on the dark star, the three upper clans will have a chance to destroy all of them.”

“This is likely the best plan!” Zhang Ruochen exclaimed.

Luo Sha laughed. “That’s why I want to destroy their best plan and borrow this Legion of Death.”

“It won’t be that easy.”

Zhang Ruochen pointed to the southeast edge of the Sea of Corpses and said, “See? Four Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints with 99 severed shackles are guarding there. Beside Yan Guang, that Lie Chang at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm is also there.”

Luo Sha said, "That's why I brought you here. With your cultivation, it's as easy as taking care of a few cats and dogs."

"It's not that easy."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, "The armies of the three upper clans' Supreme Saints are less than a thousand miles away from here. They could arrive here at a moment's notice and even the slightest movement will alarm them. When that happens, thousands of Supreme Saints will come together. How many can your Highness defeat?"

A cunning look appeared on Luo Sha's snow-white face. "Where are the cultivators of the Immortal Vampires? How about you dispatch them to pin down the Supreme Saints of the three upper clans?"

Zhang Ruochen turned his face and stared into her eyes. "I was just about to ask your Highness where are the Supreme Saints of the Rakshasa? Don't tell me there are only dozens of Rakshasa girls following you to the seventh Dark Star?"

Luo Sha and Zhang Ruochen do not completely trust each other. They hid the cultivators from their clans in the dark and would not deploy them until the last moment.

"Then there's nothing we can do. We can only watch the three upper clans use the Legion of Death to conquer the seventh Dark Star and collect a large number of points."

Both of them covered up and did not give in to the other. Each of them did not want to be used by the other side.

After a while, Luo Sha thought of something. She blinked and said, "Don't you have a Gourd? Why don't we use the Gourd first and take away the Saint Corpses of the Celestial Captives here?"

"We can't use the Gourd for now."

Zhang Ruochen said again, "But I have another way. Moyin, come out."

Whoosh

The vines of the Saint Devourer extended from Zhang Ruochen's back like tentacles, forming the Moyin's seductive figure.

Zhang Ruochen transmitted his voice to the Moyin and gave an order.

Moyin took the order and left them.

Luo Sha stared in the direction where Moyin had left and said, “This Saint Devourer is very powerful. Zhang Ruochen, how could you let her retain the independent spirit and Saint Soul in her body? Be careful to nurture a tiger that may result in calamity for you.”

“I don’t need you to remind me. I know how to deal with it,” Zhang Ruochen replied.

Luo Sha touched her slender chin and asked, “Where did you send her?”

“You’ll find out later!” Zhang Ruochen replied.

Luo Sha looked at the Gourd on Zhang Ruochen’s waist and laughed. “Are all the cultivators of the Immortal Vampires hiding in this gourd?”

Zhang Ruochen’s expression didn’t change, but his heart fluttered briefly.

He had to admit that Luo Sha was indeed smart. It was hard for him to keep secrets from her.

Perhaps she had guessed that the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires were hiding in the Violet Gourd before she suggested using the Gourd to keep the Sea of Corpses.

Her suggestion was just to probe him.

Zhang Ruochen denied it, “You’re too suspicious of me!” he said. “I don’t use the Gourd to take away the Sea of Corpses because there are too many precious treasures in the Gourd. I can’t just put the cultivators in without considering them. Also, Lie Chang and Yan Guang are still in the Sea of Corpses!”

Luo Sha smiled and didn’t say anything.

Zhang Ruochen immediately changed the topic. “There are millions of saint corpses in the Sea of Corpses. Even if we take them away, are you confident that you can control them?”

“I can do whatever Yan Guang can do,” Luo Sha said.

Time went by with every passing minute...

Yan Guang’s spiritual power clones carved death talismans on each saint corpse.

“It is done!”

Yan Guang laughed with the bone scepter in his hand and withdrew his 100,000 spiritual power clones. In an instant, a cold and terrifying aura erupted from his body. Streams of cold air condensed into frost that spread for hundreds of miles.

“Rise!”

Yan Guang raised the bone scepter in his hand and chanted an incantation.

Instantly, the Silent Sea of Corpses erupted with clamoring.

All the saint corpses stood up and let out roars, killing cries, and wails. Their bodies emitted a powerful Qi of Death as they greedily absorbed the Power of Darkness released by the Dark Star.

A Legion of Death had come to life.

Lie Chang, who was standing behind Yan Guang and bearing a heavy shield, couldn’t help but suck in a breath of cold air.

Originally, as an elite of the Great Perfection in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he was quite proud and didn’t take Yan Guang seriously. But at this moment, he felt the huge pressure of death.

Lie Chang said, “Lord Yan Guang is worthy of being the number one Necromancer of the past thousand years, Her Highness Pan Ruo did not misjudge him. Now, we will lead the Legion of Death to attack the seventh Dark Star and destroy all the Celestial Captives.”

Yan Guang was quite proud of himself in his heart, and he said, “With this Legion of Death composed of saint corpses, who else in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting can match me? I want to personally chop off the head of Lord Hornless and prove to the gods that I am the most outstanding cultivator in the past thousand years.”

“Congratulations, Sir!”

“In this battle, Sir Yan Guang will surely become the greatest hero of the Deathkin.”

The four Supreme Saints that had broken the ninety-nine shackle of the Hundred-Shackle Realm joined together with Yan Guang and Lie Chang, and they spoke flatteringly.

In Yan Guang’s heart, he was even more pleased with himself. He even felt that his position was above Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Pan Ruo, and even Wu Jiang, just as if he had become the first person of the three upper clans.

Luo Sha looked at the Sea of Corpses and said, “Why hasn’t the Saint Devourer taken action yet? If we don’t act now, we won’t have a chance!”

Zhang Ruochen looked up at the night sky.

In the endless darkness, a dazzling flame flew over the Sea of Corpses. It headed toward the place where the Paths were the densest thousands of miles away.

That was where the Supreme Saints of the three upper clans had gathered.

The streaks of flame were countless rocks and asteroids in the starry sky. They turned into a meteor shower.

Zhang Ruochen had learned this move from Hong Futu. He could use it to create the greatest amount of disturbance at minimum cost. This would create chaos and pin down the Supreme Saints of the three upper clans.

“Now, do it.”

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha rushed into the Sea of Corpses as fast as they could.

They had no choice. This place was too close to the seventh Dark Star. Its atmosphere was much more solidified than in the third Dark Star. They couldn't use the Great Dimensional Shift.

The six Supreme Saints in the Sea of Corpses immediately sensed their auras.

“Watch Out! Enemy Attack!”

Lie Chang shouted loudly. The heavy shield on his back emitted a dark light. It flew out automatically and crashed into the oncoming duo.

Bang

Zhang Ruochen hit the heavy shield with one punch, and violent waves burst out.

The surrounding saint corpses were all sent flying.

The heavy shield flew back.

Lie Chang had just caught the heavy shield when the expression on his face changed dramatically.

“This power...”

The returning heavy shield carried an overwhelming crushing force with it.

He could not control his body and flew backward, knocking countless saint corpses over and sending white bones and corpses flying everywhere.

“I'll leave them to you. As for Yan Guang, I'll take care of him.”

Luo Sha's melodious voice rang in Zhang Ruochen's ears.

“Deal with Yan Guang alone?”

Zhang Ruochen turned around abruptly and looked at Luo Sha's graceful figure. It was hard to imagine how she could take care of an elite like Yan Guang...

Could the title of the number one Necromancer be false?

Even if Yan Guang did not control the Legion of Death, Luo Sha might not even be his opponent.

Not to mention that the surrounding saint corpses controlled by Yan Guang were his home ground.

Even Zhang Ruochen wanted to end the battle quickly. Before Yan Guang activated the power of the Legion of Death, he would be the first to deal with him instead of fighting head-on.

Worried about Luo Sha, Zhang Ruochen left Lie Chang who had been pushed back, and rushed toward Yan Guang.

“Assemble a tactical formation.”

The four Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saints who had broken 99 shackles, each summoned a Regal Artifact spear. They assembled in a tactical formation and thrust their spears at Zhang Ruochen simultaneously.

The combined attack of the four people was more powerful than the full-strength attack of Supreme Saint Lie Chang.

Zhang Ruochen stretched out his left arm and casually struck out with his palm. A palm print the size of a cloud landed on the four of them.

Bang! Bang!

Bloody mist burst out from their bodies as they were sent flying like mere scarecrows.

They were shocked to the extreme. The four of them working together could not block an attack from the intruder?

Ignoring them, Zhang Ruochen flew to a place not far from Yan Guang and Luo Sha. He let out a soft exclamation.

Yan Guang and Luo Sha were ten steps apart. They looked at each other without moving. It was a very strange situation.

“What a powerful spiritual power field. Luo Sha is fighting Yan Guang’s with spiritual power.”

Zhang Ruochen stopped ten steps away. He didn’t move forward.

A spiritual power fight was very dangerous. It couldn’t be disturbed.

Lie Chang and the four injured Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm charged forward again. A strong Power of Death erupted from their bodies.

“How dare you trespass here. Who are you to be so bold?”

Lie Chang knew that the newcomer had profound cultivation, but with such a violent battle that had erupted here, the cultivators of the three upper clans could arrive in an instant. Naturally, they had nothing to fear.

“All of you should leave the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting on your own accord to save your lives.” Zhang Ruochen turned around and stared at them.

Just now, Zhang Ruochen was too fast for them to see his face clearly.

Now that they had seen him clearly, they all turned pale with fear and couldn't help but step back.

“Zhang Ruochen!”

“How could it be this killer?”

“What should we do now?”

...

Zhang Ruochen said calmly, “I'll count to three.”

“One!”

“Two!”

“Three!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Zhang Ruochen raised his left arm above his head and suddenly brought it down separating the air.

His five fingers burned with divine fire.

Ten giant green dragons coiled around his five fingers and palm and roared furiously.

Before the palm print pressed down, the powerful power and heat scared the five people, including Lie Chang, so much so that their bodies trembled and could not move.

“How can he be so powerful? Is Zhang Ruochen really just a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?”

Everyone was shocked and afraid.

The five couldn't withstand the pressure and were afraid of being killed by Zhang Ruochen's palm. They shouted almost at the same moment, “I'm leaving the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.”

Bang

Zhang Ruochen tore open a Dimensional Rift and smacked all five of them into the void and he recited, “Let the deities watching over all of you personally enter the void space to save you.”

Although the space here was stable, with Zhang Ruochen's dimension attainments, he could still tear open a rift.

The power of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms could not cover the area where the Dark Star was. Naturally, it could not hear their voices to teleport them away from the battlefield.

Bang

Yan Guang, who was fighting with Luo Sha, spat out a mouthful of blood. His old body bent over as he coughed violently.

Luo Sha's graceful figure rushed to Yan Guang's front with a swoosh and struck his head with a palm.

Crash

Nine spiritual energy chains rushed out from her palm and entered Yan Guang's body, binding his spiritual energy and Saint Soul.

Yan Guang struggled fiercely and roared unwillingly, “No, it's impossible. I'm the number one Necromancer. My spiritual energy is strong enough to rank in the top five on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. How could I lose to you?”

“Your spiritual power is indeed strong. It's a pity that carving death talismans on millions of saint corpses consumed too much of it from you. Otherwise, I would need to spend more effort to defeat you.”

Luo Sha waved her sleeve and sent Yan Guang flying toward Zhang Ruochen like a fallen leaf. “Send him out of the battlefield,” she commanded.

Zhang Ruochen did not hesitate to shoot Yan Guang into the Dimensional Rift.

“It’s useless. I’ve set up death talismans on these saint corpses. You can’t control them. You can’t... you can’t...”

Yan Guang’s body disappeared into the void, and the Dimensional Rift closed again.

“Just because others can’t control them doesn’t mean I can’t. Calling yourself the number one Necromancer doesn’t mean you are the number one Necromancer.” Luo Sha smiled and shook her head gently.

Then, she opened her jade-white palm. Her palm was like the surface of the water, and a black lotus floated out.

It was the Dark Divinity Lotus.

The Dark Divinity Lotus was a divine level treasure that could control evil spirits. It only grew on the divine corpses and would absorb all of its power. Only then would it bloom and mature.

Zhang Ruochen, who was standing guard by the side, suddenly felt extreme danger. It was like the tip of a blade on his back or a blade against his neck. Life and death could be decided in an instant.

“Who is it?”

He suddenly turned around and looked behind him. His gaze was sharper than two divine swords.

The Realm-frame of Truth, Profound Spatial Dimension, and the Null Time Realm were all revealed in an instant, and his body burst into white divine flames.

There weren’t many people on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting who could still cause him to feel such a sense of danger.

...

Chapter 2374: A Hidden Talent Below and A Bright Genius Above

The Qi of Death and spectral flame floated and roared in the ghastly sea of corpses.

Zhang Ruochen's body felt as if he had fallen into an ice abyss. It was so cold that his bones were about to freeze.

His eyes were intertwined with the Precepts of Truth. He scanned the saint corpses in all shapes and sizes. He wanted to pierce through the corpses, even time and space, to find the source of danger.

However, the killing intent disappeared in a flash.

It disappeared without a trace.

Luo Sha, who was emitting a charming fragrance, approached Zhang Ruochen and asked cautiously, "What's wrong?"

"He's gone! Hurry up and collect the saint corpses. We have to leave immediately," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's expression was still as solemn as ever.

Zhang Ruochen was certain that the sense of impending danger he was experiencing was not a figment of his imagination. There must be a top powerhouse hiding among the corpses, attempting to ambush and kill him.

Unfortunately, the other party did not expect that he had the Heart of Truth and amazing perception.

After being detected by Zhang Ruochen, he immediately ran away.

Luo Sha was both shocked and confused.

She had never seen Zhang Ruochen so nervous. She thought, 'Was there really a powerful figure hiding nearby just now?'

She couldn't sense anything with her level 65 spiritual power. She didn't notice any changes even after she unleashed the Profound Spatial Dimension.

How powerful was the other party to be able to be so silent?

Luo Sha had always believed that with her spiritual power achievements and that hidden trump card, she could be fearless on the Celestial-Hunting Battlefield.

At that moment, she realized that there was always someone better than her. If she did not raise her cultivation to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, she was still far from it.

Whoosh

Under Luo Sha's command, the Dark Divinity Lotus bloomed with divine light right away.

The entire sea of corpses was sucked into the black lotus.

An extremely alluring redness appeared on Luo Sha's snow-white face. It was obvious that she had used all her strength to do it.

This space became dark, empty, and silent again.

"Let's go!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha hid in the dark space and flew away quickly.

Splash

A Nether River meandered over. The water was sometimes dark and sometimes bright.

Pan Ruo's beautiful figure stood on the Nether River. She was like a flawless spiritual flower, blooming with a beautiful scent. The pitch-black world instantly became bright because of her arrival.

She looked in the direction where Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha had left. Her long, thin eyebrows furrowed slightly.

The Legion of Death had been taken away. The three upper clans' plan to conquer the seventh Dark Star without bloodshed had been ruined again.

There were still wisps of Qi of Death floating in the air.

Suddenly, Pan Ruo sensed something. Her pretty face, which was as calm as the surface of a lake, suddenly turned cold. She asked, "Who is it?"

A tall and thin black shadow appeared silently in the front of the Nether River.

Strangely, his body could swallow the light from the Nether River, so Pan Ruo couldn't see his figure and face clearly.

However, Pan Ruo still figured out his identity at once. She said, "Que!"

"Your Highness Pan Ruo is more shrewd than I thought. You recognized me just by showing a slight flaw. In time, when I cultivated to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, I will definitely amaze the world." Que said with a firm and resolute tone.

Pan Ruo said, "Are you here on purpose?"

"Actually, I'm here to find Lord Hornless and Zhang Ruochen. Lord Hornless is my biggest challenge since I came to the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Zhang Ruochen is the target I have to kill no matter what," Que said.

Pan Ruo had a thought and said, "Then why didn't you attack just now?"

"I was going to attack just now, but Zhang Ruochen is more powerful than I thought. He immediately noticed my slight killing intent and never gave me any chance to sneak attack again," Que said.

Pan Ruo was even more taken aback. Que's cultivation was so profound that despite being the number one powerhouse on the list of the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage, he could still conceal his identity and sneak attack and kill his opponent.

In that way, who else could he not kill?

Pan Ruo said, "With your cultivation, why do you need to sneak attack? Even if it's a head-on fight, Zhang Ruochen is definitely not your opponent."

"Zhang Ruochen is not as simple as you think. I can defeat him in a head-on confrontation, but it's difficult to kill him. Once he knows that I've come to the seventh Dark Star, it will be much more difficult to kill him," Que said.

Pan Ruo said, "So, you're giving up this opportunity for a better next opportunity?"

"Yes," said Que.

"I need Your Highness' help to create the next opportunity," he continued.

"Why should I help you?" Pan Ruo asked.

"Zhang Ruochen's cultivation has improved too quickly. It has reached an unprecedented level. Now, his strength has entered the top ranks. Only a few people are qualified to kill him on the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. And I'm the most qualified one," said Que.

Que's tone was calm with a hint of supreme aura. He continued, "If Your Highness wants to become the Scioness, your biggest threat is not Pink Skull, but Lady Wind. So, you have to kill Zhang Ruochen.

"Once Zhang Ruochen dies, the Immortal Vampires will be exterminated, and Lady Wind will be thrown into the abyss.

"We can't let Zhang Ruochen continue cultivating. Otherwise, if he is successful, no one will be able to stop him."

It was obvious that Zhang Ruochen posed a significant threat to him after receiving such a high evaluation from the number one powerhouse on the list of the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage. He wanted to get rid of him as soon as possible.

Pan Ruo's emotions surged, but she remained calm. "That's right. Zhang Ruochen is our common enemy. The three upper clans have suffered heavy losses because of him. Tell me, how can I help you create an opportunity?"

Whoosh

The tall and thin black shadow on the other side swallowed all the darkness around him and formed a man in black armor.

He looked ordinary and sallow.

It was hard for anyone to link him to Que.

It was unknown whether his current appearance was his true form.

Que stepped into the Nether River and stood beside Pan Ruo's magnificent figure, he said in a low voice, "From now on, I will be a Supreme Saint-level guardian by your side. When the war breaks out, I will look for the best opportunity to surprise Zhang Ruochen and Lord Hornless and give them a fatal blow."

Pan Ruo looked at the man in front of her carefully and said, "I can't see any flaws in your qi-restraining technique, Mr. Que. However, it may not be able to fool a superior of Zhang Ruochen's level."

"As long as Your Highness' Door of Trueself can block the detection from Zhang Ruochen's Path of Truth, he won't be able to find any clues," Que said.

Pan Ruo's expression was as usual, but she sighed in her heart. Que was too dangerous. He clearly had the absolute advantage, but he was still unscrupulous.

If Que plotted to kill someone, that person would probably die.

"With Mr. Que's support, my position as Scioness is already within reach."

Pan Ruo said with a smile. Her smile was beautiful, sacred, and mysterious. It had an alluring bearing that could topple all living things.

However, Que's will was astonishing. Standing so close to her, he was not affected by her beauty and temperament. It was as if no external force could shake him.

Only this kind of strong willpower could condense a Grade Two Saintwill.

Even if the Saintwill was incomplete.

BANG!

A streak of lightning tore through the darkness and approached from afar.

The lightning flew in front of Pan Ruo and condensed into Wujiang's handsome and extraordinary figure.

His entire body emitted a dark ray. The violent and heavy power on his body surged in all directions like a tidal wave, exploding with a terrifying aura capable of killing gods and demons.

This was the result of achieving a great breakthrough in cultivation, but not being able to perfectly control the new power.

Both Pan Ruo and Que looked at Wujiang.

The number of precepts in Wujiang had increased greatly. It had broken through ten billion precepts. The fatal injury from the battle with Zhang Ruochen had also healed.

Wujiang took a deep breath. His eyes shone with fervent and malicious light. He said, "It's Zhang Ruochen's presence. He came here just now."

"He was here. He destroyed The Altar of Death and took the Celestial Captives' saint corpses," Pan Ruo said.

"Since I'm here," Wujiang said, "He'll have to pay a heavy price for everything he's done. He will pay for the humiliation last time."

Que, who was standing on the side, glanced at Wujiang indifferently.

Wujiang sensed him and immediately stared at him.

Pan Ruo knew that Wujiang's spiritual power had reached level 66. On the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, almost no one could compare to it. She was worried that he would discover Que's true identity.

"Who are you?" Wujiang's tone was filled with hostility.

Because Wujiang had never seen Pan Ruo alone with another man, and so close to him.

Wujiang wondered, 'How could this person enter Pan Ruo's Nether River?'

The Nether River was Pan Ruo's defense. If one was not absolutely trusted, they would not be able to enter.

Que was silent.

Pan Ruo said, "He is a hidden powerhouse that I invited. He can play an important role in attacking the seventh Dark Star this time."

"Almost all of the powerhouses on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting are on the list of those who achieved the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. What other hidden powerhouses can there be?"

Wujiang stared at Que. There was disdain and provocation in his eyes. He said, "Since I'm here, I can destroy the seventh Dark Star in an instant. Why do I need the help of an outsider?"

Pan Ruo wondered if she should tell Wujiang about Que's identity.

Que shook his head to signal at Pan Ruo. He transmitted his voice to her and said, "Only by deceiving Wujiang can we deceive Zhang Ruochen and Lord Hornless."

Pan Ruo said, "Is the Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint confident of conquering the seventh Dark Star?"

"I have already obtained half of the opportunity of the Nether Clan's home planet. Not only have my injuries healed, but my cultivation has also improved. I came to the seventh Dark Star to devour Lord Hornless so that I can break through to the Thousand-Koan Realm and take the other half of the chance," Wujiang said.

It was not that they could not break through to the Thousand-Koan Realm on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

There were three reasons why those Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm did not breakthrough.

First, they had to suppress their realms and fuse with a stronger Saintwill. They had to accumulate more precepts so that they could cultivate to their best state.

Only in this manner could they gain access to the Thousand-Koan Realm and reap greater benefits.

Second, not every Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm could break through to the Thousand-Koan Realm. The threshold of the cultivation realm was enough to stop many cultivators who wanted to breakthrough.

Third, and most importantly, every Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm had to enter seclusion to break through to the Thousand-Koan Realm. If the time was shorter, it would generally take two to three years. It could even take a hundred years if the time was longer.

The Battle of Celestial-Hunting only last for a hundred days, it would not be enough for one to enter seclusion to breakthrough.

Wujiang knew that he absolutely couldn't fuse a Grade Two Saintwill, and he didn't want to waste any more time, so he planned to break through immediately. Then, he would sweep across the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting to maximize the benefits.

He'd already spent a long time in the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage, and he was only one step away from the Thousand-Koan Realm.

If he could use the Path of Darkness to devour Lord Hornless, it was entirely possible to break through the realm in an instant and save years of seclusion.

"You took half of the opportunities?" asked Que.

Que finally carefully observed Wujiang.

Wujiang revealed an unhappy expression and said, "Is there a place for you to speak here?"

SWOOSH!

Wujiang's right hand clenched his claws and turned into a ray of black light. He rushed in front of Que like lightning.

As Wujiang attacked, numerous claw shadows appeared and sealed off all of Que's paths of retreat. At the same time, the claw prints released a dark power that sucked everything out of the surrounding space.

However, Wujiang's claw missed Que.

Que's figure stood on the other side of the Nether River and said, "Your cultivation has indeed improved a lot. However, it's still impossible to devour a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. Be careful that you don't choke yourself to death."

A look of disbelief appeared in Wujiang's eyes as he looked at Que in a daze.

After coming out from the Nether Clan's home planet, Wujiang had great confidence in himself. Even if he did not break through to the Thousand-Koan Realm, he would still be invincible in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. At least, the likes of Luo Shengtian and Yan Huangtu would definitely not be his match.

But now, a nameless person could actually dodge Wujiang's claws.

Although Wujiang didn't use his full strength, he just wanted to test his opponent's strength.

"Again," said Wujiang.

Wujiang, undeterred, gathered his strength and prepared to launch another attack.

"Stop!" Pan Ruo shouted.

Pan Ruo stopped between them, she advised, "Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha appearing here at the same time means that the Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasa have formed an alliance. The army of the two races has probably come to the seventh Dark Star to snatch points. So, the most important thing now is to destroy the Celestial Captives first."

Wujiang's eyes were still fixed on Que. He restrained his power and said, "I only used 50% of my speed just now. You might not be my match if I used all of my strength."

"Let's go to the Dark Star first," said Wujiang.

Wujiang took off on his own. He gathered with the Nether Clan's Supreme Saints a moment later. They were only a few tens of thousands of feet from the Dark Star.

Wujiang was energized at the time, and Nether Qi was gushing from his body.

The auras of the cultivators of the three upper clans were activated when Wujiang arrived.

"The Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint is here!"

"The Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint's might is so terrifying. I wonder how much his cultivation has improved."

"Finally, there's someone who can stop Lord Hornless."

...

Wujiang took out the Supreme Artifact, Myriad Curse Bead. He held it in his palm and shouted, "All the Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan, listen up. Together with me, we will activate the beads and unleash the Blood-devouring Curse. We will curse and kill all the living beings on the Dark Star."

...

Chapter 2375: A Heavy Loss

Wujiang's hands released the Myriad Curse Bead, which floated hundreds of meters away.

Whoosh

Hundreds of Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan stood behind Wujiang in different directions. They were like the divines from the heavens, channeling the Nether Qi with all their might. They shot out from their hands and turned into beams of light that poured into the Myriad Curse Bead.

In an instant.

The Myriad Curse Bead exploded with an extremely dazzling light that illuminated ten thousand miles of space.

At the same time, the Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan, led by Wujiang, chanted the Blood-devouring Curse in unison.

The Blood-devouring Curse was one of the six most terrifying curses of the Nether Clan. It could silently sip away the blood of all living beings and turn them into dry corpses.

Most of the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star were living beings full of blood qi.

At that moment, they were horrified to find that their bodies were rapidly shriveling up. They were getting weaker and weaker. The blood in their bodies was flowing out of their control. However, they didn't know where they had lost it.

"The Blood-devouring Curse! It's the Blood-devouring Curse..."

"We can't resist it at all. We can only wait for death. This curse is the nemesis of all living beings with blood qi... ah... I can't accept this... I can't just die like this..."

All the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives fell into panic.

The Supreme Saints of the Stone Clan and the Deathkin were all shocked when they saw what happened.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei sighed, “The Blood-devouring Curse is the best way to kill the Celestial Captives. It seems like all the points here will be taken by the Nether Clan.”

“Wujiang’s cultivation base is higher than before. Otherwise, he wouldn’t be able to control the Myriad Curse Bead, which is supported by hundreds of Supreme Saints,” another Supreme Saint of the Deathkin said.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei nodded and said, “Wujiang’s cultivation level has reached its peak. No one can stop him.”

Wujiang’s current cultivation level was the level that Supreme Saint Yuan Fei had always dreamed of reaching.

Unfortunately, there was still a gap between humans.

Just the physique of Wujiang’s myriad hands and eyes was two to three levels lower than Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Furthermore, Wujiang’s master was an extremely great existence in the Nether Hall, which made Supreme Saint Yuan Fei unattainable.

Thinking of this, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei sighed again.

Whoosh

A five-colored light appeared on the Dark Star and formed a circle that spread out in all directions.

The Supreme Saint Celestial Captives attacked one after another and injected the power in their bodies into the five-colored circle.

The five-colored circle became brighter and brighter as it released the Supreme Power. The entire space started to boil.

“Why are there fluctuations of Supreme Power?”

“Don’t tell me that the Celestial Captives can control a Supreme Artifact?”

The expressions of the cultivators from the three upper clans changed.

Swoosh

A five-colored Saint Sword flew out of the circle and slashed toward the Myriad Curse Bead.

The tip of the sword clashed with the bead.

BOOM!

Hundreds of Nether Clan Supreme Saints all trembled and were sent flying.

Among them, Wujiang, who controlled the Myriad Curse Bead, let out a muffled sound. His face turned pale and he was sent flying more than ten miles away.

A violent wave of Supreme Power swept across hundreds of miles, forcing the Supreme Saints of the Deathkin and Stone Clan to fend for themselves.

“How could the Pentastone Sword of the number one powerhouse of the Stone Clan be snatched away by the Celestial Captives?”

“The Pentastone Sword belongs to Lord Lei. How... how could it be on the other’s hand? That’s not possible, absolutely impossible.”

...

Hundreds of Celestial Captives flew out of the Dark Star and charged toward the cultivators of the three upper clans, who were stunned and in a state of chaos.

These Celestial Captives had ferocious expressions and their eyes were filled with killing intent. They were burning their lifeforce and bursting out with extreme speed.

Pan Ruo, who had just returned, stood on the Nether River and witnessed everything. She immediately shouted, “Retreat! Retreat quickly and distance yourself. They are going to self-detonate their Sainthood Source and perish together with you.”

The Supreme Saints of the three upper clans were all pale with fright.

Some of them ran away in panic.

Some of them released their spiritual power in an attempt to suppress the spiritual will of the Celestial Captives and stop them from self-destructing. Unfortunately, the spiritual power released was dispersed by the sword Qi from the Pentastone Sword.

“If you want to die, we will die together.”

“If the Infernal Court wants to kill us all, we can only die together.”

Dozens of Celestial Captives laughed crazily and charged into the area where the Supreme Saints of the three upper clans gathered.

Rumble

Earth-shattering sounds rang out.

Their Sainthood Source and Neverwithers physique exploded at the same time, releasing dozens of destructive powers.

From afar, they looked like fireworks in the night sky. They illuminated the pitch-black world like it was daytime. It was brilliant and beautiful.

The terrifying qi spread thousands of miles away.

3,000 miles away, Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha stood. The layers of shock waves continued to jolt them. They couldn’t standstill. The energy in the center of the self-detonation was probably very concentrated.

“Wujiang was too rash. Attacking the seventh Dark Star so aggressively and forcing Celestial Captives into a desperate situation would backfire. Perhaps the boiled frog effect might be a better solution.”

Luo Sha sighed. She felt that it wasn’t worth it for those Supreme Saints of the Infernal Court who had died tragically.

It was Wujiang’s wrong decision that had killed them.

Dozens of Supreme Saints had self-detonated at the same time. The impact of the detonation was too powerful. At that moment, the center area was still in chaos. All kinds of power interweaved, and lightning and fire filled the air.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Wujiang underestimated Celestial Captive’s strength and determination. It was too easy for him to destroy more than 700 Supreme Saints. Also...”

After a moment of silence, he said, “How did the Pentastone Sword fall into the hands of Lord Hornless?”

The person controlling the Pentastone Sword must have been Lord Hornless.

Other Celestial Captives couldn’t control such a powerful force.

Luo Sha frowned deeply and said, “Even the Pentastone Sword has been lost. I’m afraid Lord Lei is doomed. This is a big trouble!”

That’s right.

Big trouble!

Lord Hornless was the Banshi Isshou Realm powerhouse. In the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, no one could defeat him.

With an additional Supreme Artifact, it was as if his power got redoubled.

Who would dare to provoke him?

There was a tragic scene in the dark space not far from the seventh Dark Star. More than 200 Supreme Saints from the three upper clans were present. As they floated in the void, their bodies were incomplete.

The Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan suffered the most losses because they were the closest to the Dark Star.

Some of the Supreme Saints of the Stone Clan had their bodies shattered into pieces of stone. Some of the Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan had their immortal bodies explode and turn into a ball of dark gas. Some of the Supreme Saints of the Deathkin only had one arm and one head left.

“The Scroll of Truth and Deceit!”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei immediately unfurled the Supreme Artifact of the Deathkin and turned it into a thousand-mile scroll. It enveloped all the Supreme Saints of the Infernal Court to prevent the Celestial Captives from launching a second suicidal attack.

The other Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm were all on high alert. They escaped from the area where the Celestial Captive self-destructed and were almost unharmed.

They all held up their Regal Artifacts and formed a defensive force at that point.

The vitality of a Supreme Saint was strong, especially a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. Even if their Neverwilt physique was shattered, they would not die and their cultivation would not drop to the Saint King Realm.

There were only thirty-four Supreme Saints from the three upper clans who were killed by the Celestial Captives' self-explosion.

The stone fragments floating in the void slowly gathered together and formed a stone body once again.

Balls of black Nether Qi also started to gather under the control of the Sainthood Source, forming the outline of a human.

Tentacles grew out of one of the heads of the Deathkin Supreme Saint, forming a neck, chest, hands, and legs. Gradually, they formed a complete body.

Of course, they had suffered such serious injuries. They couldn't recover completely in a short time.

Wujiang looked at the shocking scene in front of him. His eyes lost focus. Then, he revealed a furious expression again. "Such a hateful group of prey. I'll kill all of you."

Losing to Zhang Ruochen had made a huge flaw in Wujiang's state of mind. He couldn't calm down.

Wujiang's cultivation had improved greatly this time. He thought he could sweep through the Battlefield of Celestial-

Hunting, but he'd already suffered so much in the first battle. His emotions were naturally even more extreme.

Splash

The water of the Nether River swept over and stopped Wujiang, who wanted to charge into the Dark Star alone.

Wujiang looked back. His gaze fell on Pan Ruo and said, "Let me go. I want to avenge the dead cultivator."

"Calm down first. Lord Hornless is in control of the Supreme Artifact and hundreds of Supreme Saint Celestial Captives are gathered on the Dark Star. If you go now, it will be suicide," said Pan Ruo Pan Ruo's tone was cold. She mobilized the Power of Destiny to help Wujiang control his emotions.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and Que Fei rushed over. Both of their eyes were filled with dissatisfaction.

The fact that the Celestial Captives were able to cause such a huge loss to the three upper clans meant that they had to bear the main responsibility for their recklessness.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei advised, "The most important thing for us to do now is to stabilize our position so that we won't be attacked by the Celestial Captives."

"Not good!"

The four of them sensed danger at the same time. All of them looked behind them.

A meteor shower tore through the dark space and flew towards the 200 or so three upper clans Supreme Saints who had just reformed their saint physiques.

Looking closely, the meteor shower was actually over a million stone swords.

The stone swords were covered with a layer of sacred light.

If this wave of attacks hit, the 200 or so Supreme Saints, who were already heavily injured and extremely weak, would most likely be wiped out. It would be an unbearable pain to the entire three upper clans.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and the others' defensive measures were mainly placed on the edge facing the Dark Star. Who would have thought that such a powerful attack would suddenly erupt from behind?

Everyone's faces were extremely pale.

Wujiang was indeed worthy of being a level 66 spiritual power powerhouse. He was the first to notice the rain of stone swords and displayed the reaction speed of a top-notch powerhouse. He rushed over immediately.

"Nether Domain."

"Netherdeus."

The Nether Qi from Wujiang's body spread out for hundreds of miles, revealing the Nether Domain. The black palace, the blood stone walls, the white bone divine mountain... it was as if an ancient Nether kingdom appeared under his feet.

At the same time, the phantom of the Netherdeus rose up and collided with millions of stone swords.

Everyone was shocked and forgot to rush to help.

3,000 miles away, Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha were also slightly absent-minded.

"Where did these stone swords come from? Which force did it?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Dense Precepts of Truth appeared in Zhang Ruochen's eyes. He looked in the direction where the stone swords flew.

Luo Sha said, "Wujiang must be crazy! He's alone against millions of stone swords. The swords can chop him into ashes."

BOOM!

Millions of stone swords smashed Wujiang's Nether Domain into pieces. Then, they exploded the phantom of Netherdeus.

Wujiang's body turned into a 9-meter-wide black hole.

Any stone sword that hit the black hole immediately disappeared.

However, more rain of stone swords continued to fly towards the 200 or so Infernal Court Supreme Saints who had just formed their saint physiques.

Luckily, Wujiang was able to stall for time. Pan Ruo controlled the Nether River to flow over quickly and swept the 200 Supreme Saints away from the danger zone.

After the rain of stone swords flew past, the black hole could no longer withstand it. It exploded and shot out tens of thousands of stone swords.

CRACK!

Wujiang stood during the tumultuous Power of Darkness. He spit blood out of his mouth. His body was splattered with blood. "I will try my hardest to make up for my mistake," he panted heavily.

...

Luo Sha shook her head and said, "Impossible. How can Wujiang withstand this wave of attacks? There must be a problem. There must be."

"His Nether Domain is more than twice as powerful as before, especially its defensive power." Zhang Ruochen commented.

Zhang Ruochen had fought with Wujiang before. He knew more than Luo Sha and could see through its hidden power.

When Wujiang manifested the Nether Domain just now, Zhang Ruochen had a completely different feeling from the last time he fought.

Last time, Wujiang had only manifested the Nether Domain.

This time, it was as if the real Nether Domain had appeared.

This feeling was as if the Realm-frame of Truth had transformed from the "Shoreless Star Ocean" to the "Boundless Universe".

The Nether Domain was a strange phenomenon formed when Wujiang cultivated one of the eight volumes, the Nether Domain volume of the Nether Scrolls. During this period, it must have undergone a qualitative change, which could increase Wujiang's battle strength and defense, it was even more powerful.

"The opportunity Wujiang received in the home planet of the Nether Clan must be related to this. It has improved his understanding of the Nether Scrolls. I just don't know what is new in his Nether Domain."

Luo Sha looked thoughtful. Her red lips curled up slightly. It was unknown what she was up to.

"The three upper clans have stabilized their formation. It's hard for the Celestial Captives to take advantage of this. Next, they'll probably fight a long battle," Zhang Ruochen said.

"With Pan Ruo's intelligence, she'll definitely take the strategy of encircling and then attacking from afar. In this way, she'll drag Celestial Captives to their death. After all, there's no Saint Qi of heaven and earth, saint stones, or Godstones on the Dark Star."

It was obvious that among the three upper clans, Luo Sha only looked up to Pan Ruo and regarded her as the biggest opponent of her generation.

As for the likes of Wujiang and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, they were both power-type cultivators and her royal brother should deal with them.

"Do you think Lord Hornless would be trapped on the Dark Star so easily without considering this?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha immediately understood and said, "You mean..."

Zhang Ruochen's hand pointed in the direction where the millions of stone swords had flown.

Chapter 2376: Snowpetra

There were more than 700 Supreme Saint-level Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star.

One could imagine the number of Celestial Captives below the Supreme Saint-level in this galaxy. The Rakshasas and the three upper clans had yet to find any of their tracks, making them a huge variable.

Just now, their tracks were finally discovered.

The one million stone swords that attacked the cultivators of the three upper clans were not very powerful. However, each stone sword gave off a different aura.

If it wasn't an attack from the Celestial Captives, who were below the Supreme Saint Realm, Zhang Ruochen really couldn't think of a second possibility.

Zhang Ruochen spread out his ten golden wings and was about to burst out to track down the Celestial Captives.

"Hey, are you trying to do this alone? Aren't you afraid of ending up like the Nether Clan? Shouldn't we continue to work together?" Luo Sha called out in a clear and beautiful voice.

Zhang Ruochen turned around and asked, "Your Highness, what do you mean?"

Luo Sha pursed her lips and snorted. She reached out a small hand that was as fair as snow and said, "Take me with you."

Zhang Ruochen looked down at her flawless hand.

It was a hand that countless cultivators in the Infernal Court dreamed of holding. Her forearm was crystal clear, and her fingers were long and slender. Her skin gave off a faint fluorescent light. It didn't look like a hand. It was like a work of art carved by a god using saint jade.

"Let's go!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed Luo Sha's wrist, which was slightly cold. Her skin was delicate and smooth. He spread out his ten golden wings and burst out with extreme speed. He turned into a streak of golden light and rushed in the direction of the stone sword.

Zhang Ruochen was so fast that thousands of Thousand-Koan Supreme Saints could not catch up with him.

Luo Sha didn't seem to care about locating the Celestial Captives at all. Her beautiful eyes were fixed on Zhang Ruochen's chiseled profile, whether it was his cold eyes, straight as a mountain nose bridge, or tightly pursed lips that made her heartstrings tremble.

'What a lovely man. How could I have met you in my life? For I am so noble, so beautiful, so talented, and so free. How could I be trapped in a love net like other shy women?' Luo Sha thought and sighed softly.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen could feel the fiery love in Luo Sha's eyes. He spoke in a ruthless tone, "Your Highness is a very intelligent person. You should understand how absurd it is to decide your own feelings because of an illusory prophecy."

"Who said it's just because of a prophecy? I really like you. I like you from the bottom of my heart," Luo Sha argued.

Zhang Ruochen didn't know if Luo Sha's words were true or false. After a moment of silence, he said, "Then you'd better control your feelings because we're not meant for each other."

Luo Sha's eyes darkened slightly. She could no longer tell.

That's right!

They were destined to never be together.

Luo Sha and Zhang Ruochen were too special.

Luo Sha could be stubborn and do whatever she wanted. But her father would never agree to this, and the royal family of Devala would also strongly oppose it.

At the same time, it also included Zhang Ruochen's heart.

Luo Sha knew Zhang Ruochen better than the gods of the Infernal Court. He was too hostile to the Infernal Court. To be more specific, it was his beliefs that clashed with the Infernal Court.

Zhang Ruochen despised the fact that the Infernal Court only knew about killing and destroying.

Zhang Ruochen desired that all things in the universe awaken, become vibrant, and live in harmony. He desired for life to become more exciting, civilization to become more brilliant, and the world to become more prosperous.

Zhang Ruochen had been through every battle and slaughter to save others since the day they met. He had not killed for the sake of killing, but of destroying.

What the ten clans of Infernal Court had done was contrary to Zhang Ruochen's firm belief.

It was destined that Zhang Ruochen would not be able to integrate into the Infernal Court. What he was doing now could not be his original intention.

For some reason, the more Luo Sha thought about it, the more her heart hurt. There was no longer a trace of joy. She wanted to break free from Zhang Ruochen's grasp.

Finally, Luo Sha asked, "Have you killed any innocent people?"

Zhang Ruochen did not understand why Luo Sha suddenly asked such a question. He answered expressionlessly, "Yes."

Luo Sha asked again, "Have you ever killed for the sake of killing?"

"I haven't reached the Thousand-Koan Realm yet. Why is everyone asking me all kinds of questions?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Luo Sha said, "Answer me first."

Zhang Ruochen thought for a long time and kept thinking about the past. He said, "Yes."

Luo Sha looked surprised. She said, “Why? A good person like you has done so many things against your will. Can you pass the Thousand-Koan and Banshi Isshou test?”

“Do you know what my heart is made of?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Zhang Ruochen stared into her eyes. He lowered his voice and said, “Sometimes, even I’m confused.”

Zhang Ruochen went into deep thought during the following period. He had to admit that Luo Sha had dug up things he didn’t care about before, causing him a lot of trouble.

His mind was full of distracting thoughts.

Luo Sha stared at him. Although he looked calm on the surface, he sometimes frowned and sometimes was confused. She could not bear to see him continue to be so distressed, she said, “I don’t know what you’ve experienced in the past. However, the Zhang Ruochen I know has always been an extremely determined and strong-hearted person. I believe that you’ve found the path you want to take next. You won’t be as confused as before.”

This was a simple sentence, but it made Zhang Ruochen’s heart skip a beat.

It was unusual and heartwarming to hear such a sentence from a woman who had been hurt by him numerous times. What he lacked the most since he was a child were encouragement and recognition.

What a child needed made Zhang Ruochen extremely touched.

Because no one had ever treated him like a child.

It only made him stronger and stronger.

“Instead of spending so much time studying me, you should think more about your own heart. The right person... if you keep saying that, you will only look as ridiculous as a child.” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were cold. He quickly collected his emotions and released his spiritual power to explore the area he had flown past, not letting go of any clues.

“You can keep pretending,” Luo Sha muttered to herself.

The Dark Star suppressed spiritual power greatly.

Even with Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha’s 65th-level spiritual power, they could only explore extremely small areas.

Therefore, it took them half a day to find the tracks left by the Celestial Captives in the empty space of the universe.

Luo Sha mobilized the evil energy and moved a giant rock to her side. She sensed the aura on it and said, “They’ve left and hidden again.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “We can only explore a radius of 100 miles at one time. The Celestial Captives can hide in an area of millions of miles. It is almost impossible to find them in less than 10 years.”

Luo Sha nodded and said, “Besides, it will be more difficult to find them if they keep moving.”

Zhang Ruochen pressed his hands to his temples and activated the Precept of Truth in his eyes.

Swoosh

His eyes opened and burst out a bright light like the stars.

Even if the space was filled with Power of Darkness, he could see thousands of miles away with the Eye of Truth. The Cloaking Array and barrier could not hide from his eyes.

After looking in all six directions, Zhang Ruochen closed his aching eyes and said, “They have left this area.”

“This is bad! No one knows which direction they are going. If we pursue in the wrong direction, they will only go further and further away.” said Luo Sha as she shook her head lightly.

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha were well aware that, in comparison to Lord Hornless on the Dark Star, the group of Celestial Captives below the Supreme Saint Realm would be much easier to eliminate.

Furthermore, there were tens of millions of points worth of Celestial Captives below the Supreme Saint Realm.

They were no less than the 700 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives on the Dark Star in terms of points.

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha would win more than half of the Battle of Merit if the Celestial Captives were discovered.

Zhang Ruochen's pupils were dilated and he said, "Go find them. We have to find them."

Zhang Ruochen had to take first place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting no matter what.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen released tens of thousands of Spirits and condensed them into shadows. Like a swarm of bees leaving a nest, they flew in all directions.

"The environment here is special. Once your shadows flew a hundred miles away, your body would lose its perception and control over the shadows. Even if you are killed, you won't know who attacked you," Luo Sha reminded him.

Luo Sha didn't release her Spirit shadows because she wanted to control The Legion of Death in the Dark Divinity Lotus.

Zhang Ruochen nodded, "I understand what you mean," he said. "But I'll retract my shadow at a certain time. If one of the shadows doesn't come back, it means something's wrong. This way, at least we'll know which direction to go."

This was a long pursuit and retrieval, which tested Zhang Ruochen's endurance and perseverance.

Three days had passed, and Zhang Ruochen had lost 200 Spirits, but he still could not catch up with the Celestial Captives.

When he retrieved his Spirits, one of the shadows came back with Lord Bladehell and a Saint King Celestial Captive.

They met on the way.

Zhang Ruochen remembered the Saint King Celestial Captive. He was a cultivator from the Southern Sword Realm.

Lord Bladehell smiled and said, "You must be looking for the Celestial Captives below the Supreme Saints on the seventh Dark Star, aren't you?"

"It seems that you have good news," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Bladehell glanced at Luo Sha and said warily, "Your Highness is here as well."

Zhang Ruochen said, "The Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star are powerful, and the three upper clans are involved. So, I have formed an alliance with the princess. The Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasas will kill the Celestial Captives together. We are on the same side. There is nothing to hide."

Lord Bladehell laughed, "I was worried that it would be risky to kill the Celestial Captives with only the Immortal Vampires. Now with the princess leading the Rakshasas as our support, the chances are much higher!"

Lord Bladehell gestured to the scrawny Saint King Celestial Captive.

The Saint King Celestial Captive was too scared to look up at Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha. He said in a trembling voice, "We've found the location of the Celestial Captives. Supreme Saint Ruochen, please don't forget your promise."

The Celestial Captives had no relationship other than being prisoners.

Other Celestial Captives, in the eyes of the cultivators of the Southern Sword Realm, were no different than cultivators of the Infernal Court.

That was why it was normal for the Celestial Captives of the Southern Sword Realm to sell them out to save hundreds of millions of lives in their homeworld.

The Saint King Celestial Captive flew more than 100,000 miles with Zhang Ruochen, Lord Bladehell, and Luo Sha. Then he slowed down and stopped.

Zhang Ruochen looked around and asked, "Have we arrived?"

"We've reached the nearby area," said the Saint King Celestial Captive.

Luo Sha smiled and said, "It seems that we've been chasing in the right direction. We're so close to them."

Lord Bladehell activated his blood-red aura. His golden hair became brighter and his eyes turned blood-red. He locked his eyes on a pitch-black asteroid thousands of miles away.

The asteroid was a hundred miles long, and its color was extremely dark. It looked like a crouching turtle.

The Saint King Celestial Captive still lowered his head and pointed at the asteroid. He said, "They're hiding there! There's a very strong Cloaking Array on the asteroid."

"The Celestial Captives' spiritual power is sealed. How can they set up an array?" Lord Bladehell asked.

The Saint King Celestial Captive said, "They used Saint Blood to carve the array."

Zhang Ruochen stared at Luo Sha and asked, "Where are the Rakshasa cultivators?"

"I've sent a message to them. They're on their way," Luo Sha said.

The asteroid that had been motionless suddenly moved slowly. It became faster and faster.

Lord Bladehell's face changed. He asked, "What's going on? Did they sense something? Are they trying to escape?"

The hundred-mile-long asteroid reached the speed of sound within a few breaths.

It was getting faster by the second.

The Saint King Celestial Captive was panicking. He said, "Once that asteroid is fully activated by the cultivators on it, its speed can reach a hundred times the speed of sound. It can travel a thousand miles in an instant. At that time, I won't be able to find it."

"It can even travel at 100 times the speed of sound in the area where the Dark Star is," said Lord Bladehell.

Zhang Ruochen spread out his ten golden wings, and his body emitted a dazzling light. He was about to catch up.

“Wait a moment.”

Luo Sha stopped Zhang Ruochen, but his eyes were fixed on Saint King Celestial Captive, who had his head lowered. She said, “Be careful of any tricks. Don’t fall into the Celestial Captive’s trap.”

“Your Highness, you are indeed worthy of being the brains of the current generation of the Devala. You made the correct decision. I almost missed it. The Celestial Captives despise the cultivators of the Infernal Court. He might not work for us wholeheartedly.”

Lord Bladehell walked in front of the Saint King Celestial Captive and pointed his finger at his glabella. He injected a stream of spiritual power into it to retrieve his memories.

“It’s useless. If it really is a trap, the powerhouses among the Celestial Captives will definitely cut off part of his memories. They will not leave such a flaw for us.” Luo Sha said.

Indeed, Lord Bladehell did not find anything unusual after his investigation. He said, “Perhaps we are too sensitive. Even though they are just lowly Celestial Captives, they do not dare to play tricks in front of us.”

“We can’t wait any longer. Even if it’s a trap, we must track them down,” said Zhang Ruochen.

To be on the safe side, Zhang Ruochen asked Lord Bladehell and Luo Sha to stay where they were and act according to the situation. Then, he chased after the hundred-mile-long asteroid alone.

A moment later, Zhang Ruochen came close and took out a Class Two Regal Artifact.

The sword spun rapidly between his hands. On the surface of the sword, dense Regal Inscriptions emerged, emitting a dazzling blue light.

SWOOSH!

The sword flew out. Hundreds of sword shadows separated from the sword.

Boom

About 500 meters away from the asteroid, the sword collided with a layer of a blood-red array. As the array's light membrane appeared, the scene inside the light membrane also appeared before Zhang Ruochen's eyes.

The so-called asteroid was actually a magnificent city of stone that was hundreds of miles long.

The city was completely snow-white and seemed to be covered in a layer of wind and snow. It gave off an ancient and archaic charm.

“The city name is Snowpetra, that's Lord Lei's true form. Lord Lei had been refined into a Celestial Captive's nest...”

In the distance, Luo Sha and Lord Bladehell were both shocked.

Lord Lei's true form was a city.

Chapter 2377: Massacre

Snowpetra was originally a barren city in an ancient ruin.

After countless years of baptism, it gave birth to a spirit, and the spirit condensed into a true soul. Under the guidance of the Stone Clan's gods, it embarked on the path of cultivation.

It was called Lei.

The gods of Stone Clan had placed high hopes on Lei. Hoping that he could cultivate divinity and transform Snowpetra into a divine city to support the greatest Fane of Stone Clan.

Lei did not let them down. He displayed outstanding talent and became one of the leading figures of this era.

He was titled, Lord Lei after reaching Supreme Saint realm.

Who would have thought that Lord Lei would be defeated on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?

In Snowpetra, there were beams of holy light like fireflies. They were Celestial Captives who were sitting cross-legged on the ground. There were countless of them and even the weakest one was a Demi-Saint.

The city walls were covered in blood inscriptions.

It was the power of blood inscriptions that had burst out. They formed a formation and blocked Zhang Ruochen's Class Two Regal Artifact sword.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

After a series of ear-piercing sword sounds, spiderweb-like cracks appeared on the battle sword.

Boom!

The battle sword exploded.

Dozens of sword fragments flew out and charged at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen mobilized Precepts of Dimension and formed a three-thousand-meter-wide Profound Spatial Dimension. All the sword fragments flying toward him twisted and avoided his body.

“What a powerful Defensive Array,” Zhang Ruochen sighed.

Suddenly, dense stone swords rose up in Snowpetra. The tip of the sword was facing up, and the hilt was facing down.

“Oh no!”

Luo Sha frowned deeply. Holding Dark Divinity Lotus in her hand, she flew quickly toward Snowpetra.

“Why are there so many stone swords?”

Even though Lord Bladehell was thousands of miles away, he felt the danger and instinctively wanted to escape.

However, he thought of the hundred Immortal Vampire’s Supreme Saints who were still in Zhang Ruochen’s gourd. No matter how many stone swords came hitting, he could block them all.

What was there to be afraid of?

Lord Bladehell stayed where he was. He glared at the Saint King-level Celestial Captive and said, “Low life, is this a trap?”

The Saint King-level Celestial Captive trembled in fear at Lord Bladehell’s Supreme Saint Aura. He lay in the void space and said in a trembling voice, “I don’t dare, I definitely don’t dare...”

“I don’t think you dare either.”

Lord Bladehell stared at the blood vessels on the Celestial Captive’s neck. If he hadn’t been worried that Zhang Ruochen would scold him, he would have already opened his mouth and sucked the Celestial Captive’s blood dry.

In his eyes, no matter how strong Celestial Captives were, they were just food.

...

Zhang Ruochen was decisive. He released Saint Aspect of Time and Saint Aspect of Dimension at the same time. He extracted a drop of Dark Space-time Matter from each of the two Saint Aspects.

The two drops of Dark Space-time Matter spun around each other, releasing blacklight threads that twisted together.

Releasing two drops of Dark Space-time Matter at once was very dangerous. Zhang Ruochen had never tried it before, but he had no choice but to do it now.

Boom

As soon as the two drops of Dark Space-time Matter collided with the blood-red array, they immediately exploded and turned into a huge black cloud, enveloping the entire Snowpetra.

Looking from afar, it seemed to be swallowed by darkness.

The chaotic power of time and space spread in all directions, forcing Luo Sha who was trying to get close, to stop. She had no choice but to immediately use her defensive power to resist.

Within a 500-mile radius, even a Supreme Saint wouldn't dare to get close to the forbidden zone.

Only Zhang Ruochen, who had profound attainments in Time and Dimension, avoided the strongest impact of Dark Space-time Matter and rushed toward Snowpetra again.

This was the moment.

He charged in in one go.

The blood-red array light screen was carved by tens thousands of Saint-level cultivators. Even if two drops of Dark Space-time Matter exploded at the same time, they still couldn't break it.

Snowpetra shook violently. All the Celestial Captives were shocked.

The sky became extremely dark and nothing could be seen.

What was more terrifying was that the light screen was corroded by the dark energy and became much dimmer.

The densely packed stone swords floated in the air, but they didn't know where to slash.

All the Celestial Captives looked at the high platform in the center of Snowpetra.

Kymorpho, one of the five thousand Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captives, was standing on the high platform. She was an old woman with white hair. It was as if there was a mountain on her back. Her body was so bent that it almost touched the ground.

Kymorpho's eyes were blood-red. She looked up and said hoarsely, "Here he comes. Kill him."

Bang!

Just now, where the two drops of Dark Space-time Matter hit, an extremely sharp sword light pierced through the array and struck straight down to Snowpetra.

It was Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's body was wrapped by 36 Dimensional Swords and flew down.

Hundreds thousands of stone swords suspended in the air turned into sword rain and flew out.

"Profound Spatial Dimension."

"Dimensional Warp."

"Dimension Solidification."

...

Zhang Ruochen used Power of Dimensions to the extreme to block and dodge the stone swords.

At the same time, the 36 Dimensional Swords danced wildly, making dense sounds of metal and stone colliding. All the stone swords that approached him were smashed into powder.

They flew from the sky to the ground.

Boom!

Zhang Ruochen landed in the city. The hundred-mile-long ancient city sank dozens of feet. The force under his feet shook the dozens of Saint-level Celestial Captives closest to him until their bones and blood were separated, turning into blood mist and skeletons.

More than 300 Saint-level Celestial Captives were thrown out. They were badly injured and couldn't get up from the ground.

Divine flames surged from Zhang Ruochen's feet. His aura soared. One strike towards the sky sent the sword stream that was made of thousands stone swords to fly all around.

“Stop!”

Kymorpho who stood on the high platform made a deep and long sound.

Hundreds thousands of stone swords stopped attacking in the air. They floated above Zhang Ruochen's head like stars.

Zhang Ruochen was fearless. As a Master of Time and Space, he wasn't afraid of being surrounded. This didn't scare him.

His gaze fell on Kymorpho. He was a little surprised. “I didn't expect a Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive.”

“Zhang Ruochen. I'm from Demon God Realm. My name is Kymorpho. I've cultivated in the Supreme Saint-level for 9,000 years.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Cultivated for 900 years yet you've only reached the initial stage of Thousand-Koan Realm. Your talents are so-so, you'll never reach divinity. Oh wait, you even can't touch the edge of becoming a demi-god.”

“I don't want to argue with you because you've fallen into a fatal trap. Now, I just want you to know who killed you.”

Kymorpho's voice was soft and weak, she looked old.

Zhang Ruochen was noncommittal. “Really?”

“It seems that you don't believe me,”

Kymorpho laughed. Her voice was very strange, it sounded like a ghost's cry.

“Bring them up,” she said.

Immediately, 13 Celestial Captives, including the Supreme Lord of Southern Sword Realm, were escorted up by a group of Celestial Captive elites made up of Nine-Step Saint Kings. They all knelt below the platform.

Kymorpho said, “You used them to spy for you, but with their cultivation level how could they escape my eyes. Do you really think that there aren’t any capable people among Celestial Captives?”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes swept over the 13 Celestial Captives of Southern Sword Realm.

He found that there were many more wounds on their bodies. Two of them had their flesh cut off with a knife. Only their heads were left with flesh and blood, but their bodies had turned into white bones.

It was obvious that they had experienced torture.

“This is what happens when you join Infernal Court!”

Kymorpho waved her arm, and thirteen streams of blood mist flew out from her palm and landed on the bodies of the 13 Celestial Captives of Southern Sword Realm.

Instantly, the 13 Celestial Captives let out shrill screams. The bones on their bodies gradually melted, and they could no longer support their bodies. They collapsed to the ground.

The blood mist that Kymorpho shot out had the power to corrode bones.

The stronger the life force was, the longer it would be tortured. The bone-eroding pain would last until one’s death.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were extremely cold.

He was about to attack, but as soon as he moved, dense blood inscriptions appeared under his feet. They were like thousands of tentacles pulling his feet.

There were 30,000 blood inscriptions controlled by 30,000 Saint-level cultivators.

Those cultivators included Demi-Saints, Saint-level cultivators, and Saint Kings.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen raised his feet again.

The number of blood inscriptions increased to 100,000. Now, the blood inscriptions were controlled by 100,000 Saint-level cultivators.

The cultivation and battle strength of a Supreme Saint was indeed far superior to other Saint-level cultivators.

However, a large number of ants could bite an elephant to death.

Furthermore, Saint-level cultivators were much more powerful than ants. They were scorpions, wasps, and centipedes. Let alone 100,000, even 10,000 of them could kill a Supreme Saint if they were well prepared.

Kymorpho's trap in Snowpetra wasn't just set up with 100,000 Saint-level cultivators, it was with a million.

"Don't move. The more you move, the more blood inscriptions you'll draw." Kymorpho revealed her yellowish-brown teeth and smiled.

Zhang Ruochen could see that Kymorpho was at the center of everything. "You broke the spiritual power seal?"

"You can see that? That means you're not that stupid,"

Kymorpho released her Saint Aspect of spiritual power. Hundreds of blood rivers appeared behind it, converging into a blood butterfly that was hundreds of feet long.

The Butterfly's body was in the form of a Kylin.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Without strong spiritual power, you can't see through that the Southern Sword Realm's Celestial Captives are working for me.

"Without strong spiritual power as a support, you can't set up the blood inscriptions array and trap. It's not difficult to guess that you broke through the spiritual power seal. I'm just curious. How did you do it?"

"My spiritual power has reached 66th level, but it has always been hidden. It only shows the strength of a 60th level. Gods from Infernal Court are too stupid to notice this. Therefore, I easily broke through the spiritual power seal placed on me.” A contemptuous smile appeared in Kymorpho’s eyes.

Zhang Ruochen frowned deeply and said, “This labor job of sealing Celestial Captives’ spiritual power should be done by some Demigods and pseudo gods. Most of their spiritual power is below the 70th level. They might be fooled by you.”

In the void space, Lord Bladehell lifted the Saint King-level Celestial Captive, he said angrily, “Damn you! How dare you join hands with those Celestial Captives to deceive me. Believe it or not, I will suck your blood right now! After the battle of Celestial-Hunting is over, I will lead Immortal Vampires to suck the blood of all living beings in Southern Sword Realm.”

“I don’t think this has anything to do with him. It’s Kymorpho who tampered with his memory. Lord Bladehell, don’t waste your time on him. Come with me and break the blood inscriptions array first and save Zhang Ruochen,” Luo Sha threw out the seven-cornered palace and released dozens of Supreme Saint-level Rakshasi.

They quickly formed an array and stood around Luo Sha. They released their spiritual power and shot it into Dark Divinity Lotus.

Whoosh

Luo Sha pushed it lightly.

Dark Divinity Lotus flew out like a miracle. An endless army of death flew out and attacked the blood inscriptions array.

Luo Sha was very confident in Zhang Ruochen. A group of Celestial Captives below the level of a Supreme Saint could not do anything to him.

However, Kymorpho was a huge variable. Her spiritual power was too strong. It was enough to pose a fatal threat to Zhang Ruochen.

Only by breaking through this layer of defense could Zhang Ruochen advance and retreat calmly. He would not be trapped and die inside.

“This Rakshasa Princess is so amazing.”

Lord Bladehell looked at the sky full of saint corpses. He withdrew his contempt and picked up his saber to join the attack.

Boom! Boom!

Dense booming sounds came from all directions of Snowpetra.

Kymorpho raised her head to take a look. Her expression changed slightly. “Attack! Kill Zhang Ruochen as fast as you can.”

In the ancient city, the blood light on the ground flourished.

Millions of blood inscriptions spread toward Zhang Ruochen like countless poisonous snakes.

“You don’t even know you’re about to die.”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head lightly as he strike the gourd.

As Violet Gourd flew up, Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires flew out one after another. They all released terrifying Saint Aura and charged in all directions like endless weapons descending from the heavens.

There were more than 600 Supreme Saints.

Among them were Lord Sinluo, Yue Tinghai, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and others. They were all elites in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

In Snowpetra, apart from Kymorpho, everyone was below Supreme Saint Realm.

If the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires hadn’t broken into blood inscriptions formation, they could have fought back with the arrangements they had made in Snowpetra.

However, Kymorpho was too clever. She wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen, but she didn’t expect Zhang Ruochen to bring an army of Immortal Vampires’ Supreme Saints into the city.

“So many Saint-level Celestial Captives. That’s great.”

“They’re all points. Kill! Kill! Kill!”

“You think you can stop me with just a few blood inscriptions? You’re too naive.”

...

The army of more than 600 Supreme Saints was a terrifying force no matter where they were.

The Celestial Captives in Snowpetra were slaughtered by them.

This was a massacre and a harvest. Kymorpho and Celestial Captives had indeed prepared all sorts of methods. However, they were not facing a Supreme Saint. Instead, they were facing an army of Supreme Saints.

Kymorpho’s teeth trembled. A murderous look appeared in her eyes as she released an ear-piercing sound wave from her mouth.

Wherever the sound wave spread, the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires immediately held their heads in pain and fell from the sky. They rolled to the ground. Their spiritual power and Saint Souls were severely injured.

Whoosh —

Suddenly, a dimensional barrier formed around Kymorpho, blocking all the sound waves.

The sound wave surged back and attacked Kymorpho.

“Power of Dimensions.”

Kymorpho noticed this and immediately stopped the sound waves and spiritual power attacks. Her body entered the Saint Aspect of spiritual power and became one with it.

The Saint Aspect of spiritual power of the blood butterfly let out a long cry. “Zhang Ruochen, I want you to die miserably.”

Zhang Ruochen had already broken free from the blood inscriptions and appeared below the high platform not far away from Kymorpho. He looked at the 13 Celestial Captives of Southern Sword Realm whose bones had melted. Not only had their bones turned into pus, but even their flesh and blood had been corroded.

They were all screaming and suffering unbearable pain.

The Supreme Lord of Southern Sword Realm said with a trembling voice, “Zhang-Zhang Ruochen, don’t-don’t-don’t forget... your promise to us...”

“Even though what you did wasn’t very efficient, I still managed to find them. If Immortal Vampires win first place among the 10 clans, you’ll definitely have a share of the credit. You can go in peace. I’ll take care of Southern Sword World!”

Hearing this, the 13 Celestial Captives who had been in extreme pain, smiled.

Bzzz

Zhang Ruochen waved his arm and shot out Divine Purification Flame, burning the 13 of them into ashes.

They couldn’t be saved anymore.

Rather than for them to continue suffering, it was better to give them a quick death.

As for the idea of preserving their Saint Souls, Zhang Ruochen didn’t even think about it. As the gods of Infernal Court wanted him to be a merciless saber.

If a saber was too soft and dull to kill a Celestial Captive, how could it be a saber of the gods?

If he wanted to get more resources, become stronger quickly, and cultivate the Grade One Saintwill, he had to be the saber at this stage.

Zhang Ruochen raised his face and looked at the blood-red butterfly in the air with killing intent in his eyes.

Swoosh!

He spread his ten wings and flew up. His left arm formed a palm print, and the Phantom of ten Swastika Seiryus appeared. They burst out with a deafening dragon’s roar and struck at him with a palm.

Chapter 2378: Disfavored Saints

RIP!

The blood butterfly's body released a dazzling red glow that carried the smell of blood. It illuminated the once white Snowpetra to blood-red.

In front of it, red crystals condensed and formed a protruding round shield. It was even bigger than a palace and made up for the mysterious ancient runes and strange beast portraits.

The ten Swastika Seiryu phantoms collided with the round shield and exploded with ten loud sounds in a row.

The dimension shook.

Surprisingly, the shield blocked the attack and didn't break.

It was incredible!

It must be known that Zhang Ruochen's palm strike was an all-out attack. It was the tenth palm of Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike, Dragon in Nine Heavens. Its power was no weaker than the advanced Saint technique of Thousand-Koan Realm.

How could a Supreme Saint at the initial stage of Thousand-Koan Realm resist it?

Obviously, Kymorpho was using a spiritual power defensive spell.

Only the spiritual power of 66th level could resist the palm strike of Zhang Ruochen's all-out attack.

"Your spiritual power is indeed very strong. Your battle strength has probably surpassed Saint Lord Zuo Mu, who is known as the strongest Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive. Killing you should give me extra points," Zhang Ruochen flew up in the air. His desire to fight grew stronger.

Although the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms couldn't see the area covered by the dark star, Zhang Ruochen didn't believe that the gods of Infernal Court couldn't see what was happening here.

"You still want to kill me? Zhang Ruochen, take a good look. All the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires are destined to die here." The blood-red butterfly let out a vicious laugh.

Kymorpho was much soberer than the other Celestial Captives. She had never thought that she would leave Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting alive.

Since that was the case, the more Infernal Court Supreme Saints she killed, the happier she would be.

Only now did Zhang Ruochen realize that the light emitted by Kymorpho's Saint Aspect of spiritual power was the same as the power of the 13 Celestial Captives of Southern Sword Realm. They had the characteristics of eroding the bone.

"Oh no, it's Bone-eroding blood Qi. Everyone, be careful. Don't get caught in the red light."

"Ah... It's so uncomfortable. Bone-eroding blood Qi has entered my body..." an Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint clutched his chest crazily. He wanted to dig out his every bone.

"Supreme Saints who have been corroded by Bone-eroding blood Qi, stop fighting and refine it with all your strength. Don't let it corrode your bone marrow and blood."

...

Screams and curses rang out continuously.

Within a short period of time, 17 Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires who were stained with red light lost their fighting strength. They had no choice but to sit cross-legged and refine the Bone-eroding blood Qi that had invaded their bodies.

Furthermore, more Supreme Saints were affected one after another.

The morale of an army of Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints was once again severely affected.

“A Supreme Saint with a spiritual power of level 66 is too terrifying. She can fight against a thousand soldiers alone. Let’s go and help Zhang Ruochen.”

Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi rushed to Zhang Ruochen’s location.

Zhang Ruochen’s heart was calm. He sent a message to Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and Gu Chenzi, “Leave this to me. You two, lead the Immortal Vampires to break through the Supreme Saint-level Celestial Captives first. As long as we break the formation, no matter how many Saint-level Celestial Captives there are, they won’t be able to escape the slaughter.”

“But Kymorpho’s spiritual power is too strong!”

Gu Chenzi was a little worried. He was afraid that Zhang Ruochen wouldn’t be able to handle it alone.

“That’s right! Kymorpho’s cultivation has reached Thousand-Koan Realm. She’s outstanding in both cultivation and martial arts. She has no weakness.” Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was also worried.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Listen to my orders and do what you have to do.”

2.6 million Saint-level Celestial Captives were scattered all over Snowpetra. Apart from the one million cultivators who controlled the blood inscription trap, there were also 160 more. They controlled the defensive and attacking blood inscription arrays respectively.

At this moment, the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires hadn’t even broken through the first layer of the blood inscription trap.

A million Saint-level Celestial Captives was a sea of people. Even if they were to cut melons, they would not be able to do so in a short period of time.

Further away, the one million Saint-level Celestial Captives that were controlling the blood inscriptions array were in combat mode. They controlled one million stone swords and flew above all the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires.

Swoosh Swoosh!

Sword Qi crisscrossed and formed a web.

There were too many stone swords and this situation could pose a threat to the Supreme Saints' lives.

Gu Chenzi and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan realized that Celestial Captives weren't that easy to kill. If they didn't destroy the three formations of Celestial Captives as soon as possible, Immortal Vampires would definitely suffer heavy losses even if they won today.

A heavy victory was a defeat.

"Let's go!"

Gu Chenzi and Yi Xuan chose to believe Zhang Ruochen.

No matter how strong Kymorpho was, could she be stronger than Wujiang?

She was definitely no match for Supreme Saint Ruochen.

Right now, their only worry was that Zhang Ruochen wouldn't be able to take down Kymorpho.

The longer the battle between the two lasted, the more Immortal Vampires would be affected. Therefore, the more serious the casualties would be.

They were even more worried that if Kymorpho was defeated, and while facing death she would choose to self-destruct. In such a small space like Snowpetra, if a Thousand-Koan Realm and a 66th level spiritual-power Supreme Saint self-destructed, the consequences would be unimaginable.

The key was that no one's spiritual power could stop Kymorpho from self-destructing.

Gu Chenzi and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan were both worried. They only hoped that Zhang Ruochen could show off his might and kill Kymorpho in a short time, not giving her the chance to self-destruct.

Only in this way could Immortal Vampires obtain victory at the smallest price.

“A group of cultivators, come with me to the south and kill. We will break the formation of Saint-level Celestial Captives who are controlling the attack of the blood inscription array.”

With such a loud shout, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan was the first to push towards the south.

“I’ll go with you.”

“Count me in.”

...

In an instant, more than 40 Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints followed closely behind Supreme Saint Yi Xuan and charged towards the south of the city.

Another 100 Supreme Saints followed Gu Chenzi and Yue Tinghai, and charged towards the north. They planned to break the blood-inscription Defensive Array so that Lord Bladehell and Rakshasa Princess, who were outside the array could join in the battle.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well how important his battle with Kymorpho would be to the battle.

He had to use 100% of his strength to end the battle quickly.

He lifted Violet Gourd with one hand and gathered it above his head. He mobilized an endless stream of Saint Qi and activated the Supreme Inscription in the gourd.

Boom!

The gourd shot out dazzling purple and golden lights, like thousands bolts of lightning shuttling between heaven and earth.

A Supreme Artifact has terrifying powers that could allow a cultivator to cross realms and kill enemies. Kymorpho sensed the fluctuation of Supreme Power and immediately stopped using Bone-eroding blood Qi to deal with Immortal Vampires. She concentrated her spiritual power, condensed a sharp sword-like spiritual power light strike, and attacked Zhang Ruochen.

A 66th level spiritual-power Supreme Saint could control or kill an ordinary Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint with just a glance.

The spiritual power attack launched by Kymorpho with all her strength forced even the top Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint to retreat immediately. They didn't dare to fight her head-on.

However, Zhang Ruochen didn't retreat.

Although his spiritual power wasn't as strong as Kymorpho's, he had reached the 65th level too.

He might not be able to fight it.

But he could protect himself.

"Thundergod Reverend!"

Zhang Ruochen's Saint Aspect of spiritual power appeared. It was formed by thunder and lightning. It was huge and looked exactly like him. It was like a thunder mountain, blocking in front of him.

The spiritual power light spike collided with Thundergod Reverend.

Powerful spiritual power shockwaves swept in all directions.

Saint-level Celestial Captives who were close all bled from their eyes, ears, nose, and mouth. They cried out in pain.

Their spiritual power and Saint Souls were scattered, and their sea of consciousness became empty.

The spiritual power shockwave was too strong, and the spiritual power seal set up by the gods vanished into thin air.

Let alone Saint-level Celestial Captives, even Immortal Vampires' Supreme Saints were injured. They were scared out of their wits, afraid that they would become an idiot who had lost consciousness. They quickly rushed into the distance.

Everyone just wanted to run as far as possible.

“Their spiritual power is too strong. It’s even stronger than the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of our clan.”

“That’s insane. Their spiritual power is at least level 65.”

“Isn’t Celestial Captives’ spiritual power sealed? Are gods so unreliable?”

...

Thundergod Reverend blocked the spiritual power attack from Kymorpho, buying time for Zhang Ruochen. He pushed the Supreme Inscription in Violet Gourd to the extreme.

Boom!

Like a volcano erupting, a golden pillar of light surged from the mouth of the gourd. The fiery waves rushed toward the 30-meter-long blood-red butterfly.

Facing a Supreme Artifact, Kymorpho was very clear that she would definitely not be able to block it and was going to be beaten until her soul was scattered.

Therefore, the blood-red butterfly flapped her wings and drew hundreds thousands of blood inscriptions on the ground, twisting them into a blood river. She drew the power of hundreds thousands of Saint-level Celestial Captives who had set up the blood inscriptions trap, into her body.

The scarlet-golden light collided with the blood river, and the violent power quickly spread through Snowpetra.

Even the outer layer of the blood inscription array trembled violently as if it was about to be torn apart.

The Supreme Power continuously evaporated and refined the blood inscriptions in blood river. The two powers clashed and tens thousands of Saint-level Celestial Captives were refined into ashes.

In such a confrontation, the lives of saints were worthless. They were turned to ashes.

It was for this reason that Battlefield of Merits between Celestial Court and Infernal Court would not allow Supreme Saints to get on the internal battlefield. As Supreme Saints' destructive power was too terrifying, it was a disaster for ordinary creatures.

Kymorpho was extremely crazy. She did not care about the lives of those Celestial Captives, she laughed ferociously. "The Supreme Artifact is indeed powerful, but there are no spirits in the dark star to replenish the consumption of the body. Zhang Ruochen, how much longer can you hold on?"

Zhang Ruochen was exhausted. The Saint Qi in his body was severely depleted. Even with four Sainthood Sources, he couldn't hold on.

The Supreme Artifact consumed too much Saint Qi.

"Don't worry. It's more than enough to kill you."

Zhang Ruochen looked down and saw that Lord Sinluo and hundreds of Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires had already entered the Saint-level Celestial Captives formation. They were killing everyone.

Their saint blood flowed like a river on the street.

Because of the large number of Saint-level Celestial Captives dying, the power of the blood river controlled by Kymorpho gradually weakened.

"Moyin, come and control Violet Gourd."

Zhang Ruochen moved to the right. Then, he rushed toward the blood-red butterfly that was hundreds of feet long with extreme speed. While flying, he took out a Sainthood Source and crushed it with his five fingers, turning it into a divine rain of light.

Zhang Ruochen absorbed all the light rain into his body.

The Saint Qi that had been severely consumed recovered more than half in an instant.

Moyin and Zhang Ruochen had fought in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting and consumed countless Celestial Captives. Now, they were even more powerful. They were two or three times more powerful than Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind, who were the top 10 elites in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

To put it bluntly, if Wujiang hadn't gotten the fortuitous encounter on Nether Clan's home planet, he might not have gained any advantage against Moyin.

The reason why Zhang Ruochen had tamed Saint Devourer as a parasitic plant, kept its spiritual consciousness, and provided it with an endless supply of food was because he saw its potential. He saw that it could continue to grow until it became a god.

Unlike other cultivators, who would hit many plateaus.

After becoming a parasitic plant, it could even share some of Zhang Ruochen's enlightenment. It was more or less proficient in all kinds of power and Paths that Zhang Ruochen cultivated.

Such a Saint Devourer was rare in the entire universe.

Of course, it was worth Zhang Ruochen's effort to cultivate it.

Now, it was time for this Saint Devourer to show its true value.

The two snow-white palms of Moyin pressed on the bottom of Violet Gourd. The power of the blood river was sent flying to the ground by her power. After landing on the streets of Snowpetra, they continued to retreat.

However...

She managed to block it in the end!

Moyin's long hair fluttered in the wind and cut more than a dozen Saint King-level Celestial Captives who were trying to sneak attack from behind into more than a hundred pieces. A happy smile appeared on her bewitching face as she said, "I haven't tasted a level 66 spiritual-power Supreme Saint yet!"

"Oh no."

Kymorpho realized that the cultivator holding Supreme Artifact had been replaced. She immediately realized the danger.

Unfortunately, it was too late!

With Zhang Ruochen's current speed, if his opponent made even the slightest mistake, one would come to a bad end.

"No need to look. I'm up here."

Zhang Ruochen stepped on a cloud made of divine flame and urged the power of Yanshen's Leg. He descended from the sky and pressed onto the back of the blood-red butterfly.

Boom!

The blood-red butterfly was the Saint Aspect of Kymorpho's spiritual power. It couldn't withstand the power of Zhang Ruochen's foot. It exploded like a balloon and turned into a sky full of red light.

Zhang Ruochen's foot pressed onto Kymorpho's original body, pressing her down from the sky to the ground.

Boom!

Snowpetra was Lord Lei's original form. It was also an ancient city. It could be called an indestructible city as every stone was as hard as jade.

Zhang Ruochen's stomp caused the ground in the city to sink.

Kymorpho was not only a powerful spiritual-power Supreme Saint but also a Thousand-Koan Realm Martial Arts Supreme Saint. Naturally, her body was very powerful. However, she was badly injured by Zhang Ruochen's stomp. Her body was penetrated and almost broke into two from her waist.

Zhang Ruochen used the divine flame to refine Kymorpho under his feet.

"After reaching the 66th level of spiritual power, it's not so easy to be killed. You can't kill me, you can't kill me... Even if my body is destroyed, my spiritual power will not be destroyed," Kymorpho laughed loudly. Then, her body was shattered and broke into pieces.

Every piece of the broken flesh seemed to have a consciousness. Every drop of blood on the ground seemed to have an independent soul.

They all flew in the same direction, re-condensed into the body of Kymorpho.

Chapter 2379: Merciless Zhang Ruochen

Although Kymorpho had re-condensed her body, the aura on her body was much weaker than before.

Only her spiritual power was still full.

Zhang Ruochen didn't give her a chance to catch her breath. He burst out with rapid speed. His left arm burned like hot red iron and hit Kymorpho's chest with his palm strike.

The speed was so fast that his body seemed to have disappeared.

Because of her powerful spiritual power, Kymorpho's reaction was astonishing. She was far faster than other Thousand-Koan Realm's Supreme Saints. When Zhang Ruochen had just formed his palm strike, she had already mobilized her spiritual power and summoned wind from ten directions.

This wind was a hundred times more terrifying than squalls. It could be used to change the landscape of a world and change the trajectory of the stars.

The ten wind forces condensed into ten translucent human-shaped Wind emperors.

The human-shaped wind emperors let out a long howl and swung their sabers.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

In an instant, the six human-shaped wind emperors were shattered by Zhang Ruochen's palm power and turned into a chaotic wind blade. Countless Saint-level Celestial Captives were chopped into pieces.

The sabers of the human-shaped Wind emperors landed on Zhang Ruochen with the sound of metal colliding with rocks.

However, it was blocked by ten golden wings. Zhang Ruochen could not be hurt at all.

Boom!

Zhang Ruochen's palm strike finally hit Kymorpho, shattering her body again.

In an instant, Kymorpho's body condensed in another place.

She put her hands together and shouted, "Condense!"

The remaining four human-shaped Wind emperors collided and turned into a 33-meter-tall knight. He wore armor, held a spear, and rode a dragon.

Rustle! Rustle!

The wind between heaven and earth gathered toward him.

The sound of the air flowing was like a surging river.

The knight's aura grew stronger and stronger. His eyes shone with blue light and lightning interweaved in his body. While riding the dragon, he charged toward Zhang Ruochen.

Rumble

Wherever the knight passed, strong winds raged.

The Saint-level Celestial Captives within 300 meters turned into blood mist and were crushed into particles by the wind. Even the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires were all thrown away. Their bodies were covered with deep bloody scars.

Some Supreme Saints were cut in half.

Zhang Ruochen stood in the middle of the street and looked at the approaching knights. His long hair flew up. "I don't believe that I can't kill you."

The power of the knight was almost the same as Saint Lord Zuo Mu.

However, Zhang Ruochen was different now. He had broken 50 shackles. If he met Saint Lord Zuo Mu again, he was confident that he could defeat him even without the Supreme Artifact.

Crash.

36 Dimensional Swords appeared and floated around his body.

“Unite!”

The 36 swords combined into one.

They hacked down.

This sword strike cut open the stable dimension in Snowpetra. It tore a long Dimensional Rift and pierced through the knight’s head.

The knight formed by wind was directly split into two.

“How is this possible?” Kymorpho was shocked.

Swoosh

The Sword Qi was extremely sharp. It passed through the knight and crossed hundreds of feet. It cut her body into two halves.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t give Kymorpho the chance to condense her body. He released Profound Spatial Dimension and forcefully separated the two halves of her body. Precepts of Dimension condensed into dimensional chains and wrapped around the two halves of her body.

The two halves of her body struggled desperately and burst out powerful saint power, trying to escape.

“You can’t get out,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“What’s the use of trapping my body? I’m strongest at spiritual power,” Kymorpho’s gloomy voice sounded behind Zhang Ruochen.

Dense Spirits gathered together and condensed into a giant shadow that looked like a soul.

It was the form of Kymorpho.

The body of a Kylin and the wings of a butterfly.

“Soul Devouring,” said Kymorpho.

Zhang Ruochen seemed to have expected it. The Saint Aspect of spiritual power, Thundergod Reverend, and Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King rushed out of his back at the same time. They combined and turned into the Immovable Wisdom King that was covered in thunder and lightning.

This Immovable Wisdom King looked exactly like Zhang Ruochen. With endless power, he stomped down.

Kymorpho tried to fight back, but the thunder and lightning from the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King broke her spiritual power thoughts, making her weaker and weaker.

“No... This is impossible. your spiritual power is only at level 65. How can you fight against me?”

Kymorpho was not convinced at all. She roared with grief and indignation.

This was the first time she felt the threat of death on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

With the strength of her spiritual power and her cultivation of Thousand-Koan Realm, she felt that she could look down on all her opponents on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. The number one master of Stone Clan could not escape after falling into her spiritual power trap. In the end, she was punched by Lord Hornless until her soul was scattered.

However, in the battle with Zhang Ruochen, she was extremely sullen. Not only did she lose the upper hand, but her body was also shattered several times.

With the suppression of Profound Spatial Dimension, it was not easy for her to escape.

Zhang Ruochen said lightly, “Your spiritual power is indeed much stronger than mine, and you use it perfectly. However, I have the spiritual wills of two ancestors. Not to mention that your spiritual power is only at the 66th level, even if you reach the 67th or 68th level, you won’t be able to break through my spiritual defense.

“If you can’t break through my spiritual defense, how could you fight me?”

The Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King contained the Immovable Wisdom King’s spiritual will. After combining it with Zhang Ruochen’s Saint Aspect of spiritual power, it was naturally able to suppress Kymorpho.

Zhang Ruochen knew that Kymorpho would definitely go all out. She might even self-detonate her saint heart and Sainthood Source to kill all the creatures in the Snowpetra.

Thus, he cast a glance at Moyin.

Kymorpho went completely mad. She laughed loudly “Zhang Ruochen, you traitor of Celestial Court. Even if I die today, I’ll destroy your body and soul. I’ll bury all the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires with you.”

The blood inscription array shattered. Luo Sha took the lead and flew above Zhang Ruochen and Kymorpho. She was extremely nervous, “Careful! Not only is she going to self-detonate her Sainthood Source, but she’s also going to self-detonate her saint heart. Once the saint heart is self-detonated, the destructive power will be even more shocking.”

She waved her arm and struck with Dark Divinity Lotus.

Luo Sha then mobilized her 65th level spiritual power to forcefully suppress Kymorpho’s thoughts of self-detonating.

Luo Sha absolutely could not let her succeed.

“I can finally enter Snowpetra and kill my way through. I can collect a large number of points. I can kill a group of Celestial Captives below the Supreme Saint realm with a single slash,”

The formation was shattered. Lord Bladehell was ecstatic as he charged in with his saber.

However, when he saw that Kymorpho was about to self-destruct and the chaotic energy that filled Snowpetra, his expression immediately changed.

“Oh my god! This is... Escape!”

Lord Bladehell wasn’t as stupid as Luo Sha who had run to the center where the destructive energy was most concentrated. He spread his wings and turned around to run as fast as he could.

Escape!

Run!

Zhang Ruochen is dead. Immortal Vampires are finished. Everything is over! This was the only thought in Lord

Bladehell's mind.

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha's spiritual power were very strong. They were the top cultivators of the same generation, but they still couldn't stop Kymorpho. Kymorpho's two half bodies were already burning.

The spiritual power body also released a spiritual power storm, which gave Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha a splitting headache.

At this critical moment, Moyin activated Violet Gourd and aimed the mouth of the gourd in the direction of Kymorpho. She opened her red lips slightly and whispered, "Collect!"

Zhang Ruochen seized this fleeting opportunity. He waved his palm and mobilized the power of Profound Spatial Dimension. He struck the two halves of Kymorpho's body and spiritual body toward Violet Gourd.

Whoosh —

After keeping Kymorpho into Violet Gourd, Moyin was quite decisive. She threw Violet Gourd with all her strength.

No one knew if Violet Gourd could withstand the destructive energy formed by the self-detonation of a Thousand-Koan Realm's Supreme Saint. After all, Violet Gourd was not a pure Supreme Artifact. It was a vessel that Zhang Ruochen had randomly refined.

It was unknown whether Moyin was intentional or not. Violet Gourd flew in the direction where Lord Bladehell had escaped.

In the dark void space, Lord Bladehell flew rapidly, he thought to himself, "I have to escape. The further the better. Staying there will only lead to death. I have to protect myself. I still need to support the future of Immortal Vampires."

Boom!

A loud sound came from behind.

The dimension shook.

Lord Bladehell was shocked. Why was the sound so close? The destructive power of the self-destruction of a Thousand-

Koan Realm Supreme Saint was more terrifying than he imagined.

Lord Bladehell even wanted to burn his saint blood and use a forbidden spell to increase his speed.

However, he could not help but turn his head and look. He saw a ray of light energy charging toward him, it was right in front of him.

The light energy was from the mouth of Violet Gourd after Kymorpho self-destructed.

Lord Bladehell was so frightened that he didn't dare to move. He watched as the light energy which was even stronger than Supreme power charged past him and extended out into the darkness thousands kilometers away.

He was only a few meters away from the light energy.

After a long time, the destructive energy finally calmed down.

Lord Bladehell was petrified for a long time. His mind was blank. After he finally regained his senses, he couldn't help but gasp. Then, he decisively kept Violet Gourd and flew quickly toward Snowpetra.

Standing in the broken city, Zhang Ruochen let out a long breath.

He would rather fight a Supreme Saint at the peak of Thousand-Koan Realm than a Supreme Saint with the 66th level of spiritual power. The latter was too difficult to deal with. Moreover, once one self-detonated, there was no way to stop it. It was equivalent to dying together with him.

If Kymorpho did not want to die, she would use self-detonating to negotiate with Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen would most likely choose to let her go.

Just now, if Luo Sha had not risked her life to join the battle in time and mobilize her spiritual power to suppress Kymorpho, delaying the most precious moment, it was hard to say whether he could put Kymorpho into Violet Gourd. At least Zhang Ruochen wasn't absolutely sure.

It was too dangerous!

It was practically risking his life.

Luo Sha's long dress fluttered and landed lightly on the ground. She spread out her hand and held Dark Divinity Lotus.

Zhang Ruochen looked at her and said, "I believe what you said the other day!"

That was it.

Luo Sha was very smart. Of course, she knew what he was referring to, but she pretended not to know. She asked, "I've said so many things. Which one are you referring to?"

The sounds of battle were endless, and the flames soared into the sky.

Where they were, it was exceptionally quiet. A strange atmosphere had descended upon them.

It had been extremely dangerous just now, but Luo Sha had rushed up to help him without hesitation. There was no need to say anything more. Zhang Ruochen will remember all ties of comradeship.

Perhaps she had lied a lot, but that sentence should be true.

Unfortunately, they were not the same kind of people. Rather than suffering in the future, it was better to stop the spread of feelings now and cut off all possibilities. In Infernal Court, Zhang Ruochen would never allow himself to fall in love. That would be his biggest flaw and obstacle.

Lord Bladehell held Violet Gourd and descended from the sky. He laughed loudly and said, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, I have taken back your gourd. It is indeed a Supreme Artifact. It is not damaged at all."

There was no trace of shame on his face. Instead, he looked like he had done a great service, he continued to laugh and said, "Fortunately, I was quick. Otherwise, it would have flown tens thousands miles away. The void space is too vast. Once it flies too far away, it will be difficult to find it."

Luo Sha stared at Lord Bladehell with a look of extreme disgust and said, "The Supreme Artifact has a vessel spirit. It can fly back to its owner."

Lord Bladehell pretended to be stupid and said in surprise, "Really? Is it so magical? It's a pity that I don't have a Supreme Artifact."

Luo Sha said, "Lord Bladehell, don't you need to collect points? The battle is still not over!"

"Leave the following battle to me,"

Lord Bladehell handed Violet Gourd to Zhang Ruochen with both hands. Then, he burst into the formation of Saint-level cultivators with his blood Qi which was as vast as the river and sea.

In the past, Lord Bladehell would have been overjoyed to get Violet Gourd. He would have taken it for his own. He would never return it to Zhang Ruochen.

Now, he would not dare to do so even if he was given the guts.

Zhang Ruochen knew that Lord Bladehell had abandoned all the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires and escaped alone.

Logically, Lord Bladehell should have been punished severely for running away at the last minute.

However, Zhang Ruochen did not expose him.

In the face of life and death, it was not a huge mistake to choose to run away.

That was why it was so precious for Luo Sha to choose to resist difficulties in the face of life and death and fight side by side with him. How could he not be touched?

When Lord Bladehell finally left, Luo Sha thought that Zhang Ruochen would say a few sincere words. For example, thank you for your help, Your Highness. I, Zhang Ruochen would bear firmly in mind.

Or, your highness is very affectionate. Even if I, Zhang Ruochen can't marry you in this life, you will have an important place in my heart.

...

Unfortunately, the merciless Zhang Ruochen turned around and left to hunt Celestial Captives with Moyin.

Luo Sha was so angry that her eyes bulged and her cheeks trembled, she stamped her feet and said, "What an ingrate. Do you think that it's my responsibility to treat you well? I swear that if I ever speak to you, smile at you, think of you in my heart, and care about your life again, I will slap myself."

Luo Sha thought about it and realized that there was no need to mistreat herself because of this bastard. She immediately regretted it and thought to himself, "Even if I do, I should slap him."

...

Fane of Destiny.

The scene of the battle just now appeared in Fukurokuju's Gate of Destiny

Wargod Bloodximus walked out of his Divine Plane and said, "Why isn't the spiritual power of Kymorpho sealed? Whoever is in charge of this matter must be severely punished."

It was too dangerous just now. A large number of Immortal Vampires' Supreme Saints would have died.

"They didn't even notice that a Celestial Captive hid her spiritual power. Such a ridiculous thing has never happened before."

"Punishing gods who are careless is only secondary. The key is to reward points. Kymorpho is too powerful. If they kill her, we have to give Immortal Vampires at least five million points."

"Yes, Kymorpho's points must be higher than Saint Lord Zuo Mu's."

"Fane of Destiny must give Immortal Vampires an explanation for what happened today. Our young Supreme Saint almost died."

...

Immortal Vampires' gods stepped forward one after another.

To be able to get first place in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen and the young Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires were fighting desperately. Outside the battlefield, the gods of Immortal Vampires naturally did their best to fight for the best situation given to Immortal Vampires.

For five million points, for the first place, and for the pride of Immortal Vampires, Immortal Vampires' gods had all put aside their past grudges and united.

In any case, they were on the right side, so they weren't afraid of making a big deal out of it.

On the contrary, it was Fane of Destiny that couldn't afford to lose their reputation. They needed to control the situation so that the outside world wouldn't know about it.

Chapter 2380: Battle for Points

If there were no mistakes made in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, none of the gods would be qualified to stand up and blame Fane of Destiny or ask for points.

However, there were mistakes.

Those who could cultivate divinity, and those who could survive in the cruel environment of Infernal Court, were all beings of wisdom and treachery.

How could they let go of this opportunity?

They didn't even need to exchange glances with each other to know what to do next.

Qi Feng was a pseudo god, General of the Fane of Destiny's Adjudication Division.

He wore divine armor and knelt down on one knee under the statue of Fukurokuju. He said, "I was careless and almost made a big mistake. Please punish me, Reverend."

Fukurokuju's voice was majestic. He said, "Your division should be the one to carry out the punishment. However, Fortune Palace is the host and the organizer of Celestial-Hunting Festival. If something goes wrong on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, I will take care of it."

Punishing the gods was not a trivial matter.

However, with Fukurokuju's status and cultivation base, he was actually so cautious and unwilling to overstep his authority while making the decision. This made all the gods present fall into deep thought.

They realized that the internal struggle in Fane of Destiny must have reached an extremely severe stage.

This was not a good thing!

If this continued, not only would Fane of Destiny fall into chaos, but the entire Internal Court would fall into civil war.

Fukurokuju said, “Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun’s field has been reopened. It has become the most important battlefield between Celestial Court and Infernal Court. Go there now and report to Skywrath. If you don’t obtain enough merits and make up for your mistakes, don’t come back.”

“Yes, sir,”

General Qi Feng stood up and left Fane of Destiny.

Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun’s field was divided into the internal battlefield and the external battlefield.

The internal battlefields were the battlefields for cultivators below Supreme Saint level. The most brutal and bloody battlefields happened there.

The external battlefields belonged to Supreme Saints and the gods.

Of course, without great benefits, Supreme Saints and the gods would not personally enter the battlefields, much less erupt in large-scale battles. They were more concerned to maintain the fairness of the internal battlefields and fighting in the dark.

For example:

The plan to destroy the roots of Kunlun’s field was decided and participated by the gods.

However, in the vast starry sky outside Kunlun’s Field, there were Divine Planets, God tombs, and ancient world-protecting cities. In short, these had huge benefits to them.

Because of this, the number of gods sent by Celestial Court and Infernal Court to the external battlefield of Kunlun’s field was gradually increasing.

They were not sent to kill each other, but to fight for treasures.

After a short period of silence, Wargod Bloodximius spoke again, “Reverend, Immortal Vampires are the biggest victims. Fortunately, my grandson was good enough to overcome the difficulties and kill a strong enemy. Five million points should be given to him no matter what.”

The biggest victim?

The gods from Stone Clan were furious. They felt that Wargod Bloodximius was too shameless while lying through his teeth. At this moment the gods from Stone Clan were about to step out.

Luo Yan of Rakshasa appeared a step before them and said, “My daughter contributed to killing Kymorpho. If you were to give five million points, Rakshasa should at least be given two million points.”

Then, he added slowly, “Rakshasa would have almost been the biggest victim. I almost... lost my daughter.”

As he said that, Luo Yan did not forget to look at Wargod Bloodximius as if he was saying, “Even you, Wargod Bloodximius has no sense of shame. I will not hold back anymore! Who has not been barefaced when they were young?”

The gods from Stone Clan were even angrier. Luo Yan, you are an emperor, one of the few magnates in Rakshasa, why do you have to learn from Wargod Bloodximius. How could Rakshasa be the greatest victim? It was your daughter who mindlessly risked her life. Even if she died, it would be for nothing.

Of course, these words could not be said out loud.

In the entire Stone Clan, there were not many gods who dared to offend Luo Yan.

Although Fortune Palace hadn't decided if they should reward them with five million points, Immortal Vampires and Rakshasa's gods were already fighting over points.

“How could Rakshasa still want points? Does killing Kymorpho have anything to do with you?”

“Kymorpho died from self-destruction. Princess Luo Sha participated in this battle, so why can't she get points? I think Rakshasa should get half of the points.”

“Who dares to share the points of Immortal Vampires? Come on, let’s fight! Come on now. I don’t care even if I have to burn my divine blood and self-destruct my Divinity Source.” The god of Yellowsky Clan went crazy again. His fighting spirit rose as he pointed at Luo Yan who was standing in the center of the Fane.

The expressions of the gods from Immortal Vampires and Rakshasa changed. They all quieted down and they distanced themselves from him, not daring to provoke him.

Even Luo Yan’s eyelids twitched.

He knew that god. He was the son of the Yellowsky Clan’s leader. He had fought all his life and never lost a single battle.

Every time he was about to lose, his enemies would be scared away by him.

That was because, ever since this god started cultivating, he had self-detonated his Sainthood Source three times and his Divinity Source once. He had killed many elites whose strength far surpassed his.

His experience in self-detonation was incomparable. He could choose the best time to self-detonate and never give his opponent a chance to escape.

Most importantly, his constitution was special. Every time he self-destructed, he could kill his enemy, but not himself. After that, he could cultivate his Sainthood Source and his Divinity Source again. It could be said to be extremely heaven-defying.

Some gods guessed that he had swallowed Pale Blood Soil.

Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to be so reckless and not die.

Taking advantage of the chance when Fane of Destiny quieted down, a god of Stone Clan finally stood up, “We, Stone Clan, are the biggest victims. The most potential person of Stone Clan, Lei has died. Fifteen Supreme Saints of Stone Clan have died at the hands of Kymorpho. Reverend, you must compensate Stone Clan with at least ten million points.”

The gods of the various races looked at him with sympathy.

Half of the Supreme Saints who could participate in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting had a chance of becoming a god. For a rising star like Lord Lei, as long as he was not killed entirely, he had a 70-80% chance of reaching divinity.

Stone Clan was indeed the one who suffered the most. It was quite miserable.

Suddenly, an ear-splitting sound rang out.

“Does Stone Clan still have any sense of shame? In Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, death and injury were inevitable. How could you ask for compensation when a few juniors die? The number one genius of Ghost died from self-explosion and his soul was scattered. Did Ghost Master ask for compensation?” said Wargod Bloodximius.

Damn!

Ghost Master who sat in his Divine Plane was fuming and almost spitting blood. What does it have to do with me?

What’s the point of mentioning this? Am I someone you can mock?

Forget it, hold it in.

Let them fight. It would be best if they shed all pretenses and fought.

Luo Yan acted like an emperor and said in a low voice, “On Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, you can only gain points by killing a Celestial Captive. How could you gain compensation after being killed by a Celestial Captive? Do you think Infernal Court hasn’t lost enough reputation?”

“That’s right. Stone Clan has humiliated Infernal Court. They should be punished with points.” A god suggested.

Things were getting more and more outrageous.

The gods of Stone Clan were furious. They couldn’t bear it anymore and showed their divine shadows in Fane of Destiny.

“If the god of Fane of Destiny wasn’t careless, how could the young heroes of our clan die?

“Lei, has extraordinary talent and cultivated the Grade Three Saintwill. With the willpower of Snowpetra’s city lord, he will definitely become a god. However, he died because he misjudged the enemy’s strength. What a tragedy!

“Who dares to punish Stone Clan’s points? I will fight him until the end.”

When the son of Yellowsky Clan’s leader heard this, he was overjoyed. He rushed forward and said, “Come, let’s see could self-destruct their Divinity Source and dies first.”

...

The gods of the three races argued endlessly, causing the respected gods to be dumbstruck.

The main point was that the gods who dared to personally appear and argue were all powerful. Normal pseudo gods and new gods didn’t dare to show their faces in front of them.

In the end, in order to control the situation and prevent it from spreading, Fukurokuju announced, “Kymorpho’s spiritual power has reached the 66th level. She’s a Celestial Captive whose power is second only to Lord Hornless. Two million points don’t fit her status. We’ll increase her points to seven million.

“Zhang Ruochen of Immortal Vampires has six million points, and Rakshasa has one million points.”

The gods of Stone Clan was about to start a fight.

Fukurokuju added, “This mistake has indeed caused losses to Stone Clan. Fortune Palace will compensate you with Godstones.”

How much could Godstones compensate?

The rankings and benefits of Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting were astronomical. That was why the gods had to fight for it.

However, Stone Clan’s god was also very clear that being able to obtain Godstones as compensation was already the best outcome.

If it weren't for the fact that Fukurokuju was easy to talk to and was a good person, would Death Reverend and Skywrath give Godstones as compensation? Even if they killed General Qi Feng to pay for their crimes, they would never compensate with Godstones.

Naturally, everyone was happy with the current distribution.

After returning to their respective Divine Planes, Luo Yan still had a smug smile on his face. He thought to himself, it didn't take much effort for him to obtain one million points. It seemed that there were times when he had to fight. If he was always restrained by his identity, he would only be at a disadvantage.

Amane said, "Now, you should understand Luo Sha's intentions, right?"

Luo Yan's smile instantly disappeared, and he was incomparably angry.

An ancient god of Yanluo Clan appeared in Fane of Destiny. His long black hair fell to the ground, and he clasped his hands in front of his chest and said, "Your Excellency, I have a suggestion."

The appearance of this ancient God made the gods of the various races very surprised, and they all kept quiet.

Fukurokuju smiled and said, "Ancient God of Knowledge, here's no harm in speaking."

The Ancient God of Knowledge slowly said, "Hornless has obtained a Supreme Artifact, Pentastone Sword. With this sword, it's very likely that he has already broken the chains on his body. Those juniors on the battlefield are far from his match now."

Fukurokuju said, "Gods are not allowed to interfere in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting in any way. This is the rule of the past. No matter how strong Hornless becomes, he can not be brought out of the battlefield ahead of time."

The Ancient God of Knowledge said, "Of course, I don't dare to ask Reverend to change the rules of Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. However, Hornless has become more powerful and harder to kill. Shouldn't his points be higher?"

The ten gods instantly understood what the Ancient God of Knowledge wanted.

In the past battles of Celestial-Hunting, the gods of Yanluo Clan had almost never interfered.

Why would the venerable Ancient God of Knowledge of Yanluo Clan personally appear in Fane of Destiny this time to interfere with Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?

It was mainly because he felt threatened by Immortal Vampires.

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had led an army of Immortal Vampires' Supreme Saint to a great victory, and his points had soared again. It was as difficult as climbing to the sky for Yanluo Clan to catch up with Immortal Vampires.

After all, there were only a certain amount of points on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Therefore he could only make a fuss about Lord Hornless.

As long as Lord Hornless's points were high enough, Yanluo Clan could kill him and have a chance to turn the tables.

Even though the Ancient God of Knowledge had an extraordinary background and was extremely ancient, Wargod Bloodximius had no taboos. He said impolitely, "Is Yanluo clan so confident that they can kill Hornless?"

The Ancient God of Knowledge said, "If there are still cultivators who can kill Hornless on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, they must be from Yanluo clan. Your Excellency, I suggest raising Hornless's points to 30 million."

"Isn't that too high?" The leader of Yellowsky Clan said.

The Ancient God of Knowledge smiled, he said, "Kymorpho can have 7 million points. Hornless's combat strength is several times higher than hers. Isn't it normal for his points to be several times higher? As long as his combat strength is strong, his points should be higher. Isn't that what you said just now?"

Obviously, Ancient God of Knowledge was telling Immortal Vampires that if Hornless's points couldn't be raised, then Kymorpho's points couldn't be raised either.

Chapter 2381: Luo Sha's Strategy

Without a doubt, the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires and Rakshasa had eliminated the Celestial Captives in Snowpetra.

At this moment, the city was littered with corpses. Saint blood converged into a lake.

The Supreme Saints of Rakshasa had only arrived after Immortal Vampires, thus the Celestial Captives they killed were far inferior to Immortal Vampires. More than 70% of the points fell into the pockets of Immortal Vampires.

White stones soaked in blood dyed the city red. Resentment surged into the sky.

Zhang Ruochen's robe was wet as he was covered in blood. He was a little tired. He sat on the back of a stone and took out diamond-shaped mirror.

It wasn't his body that was tired, but his heart.

The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms couldn't reflect the scene of the dark star, but they could sense who had killed Celestial Captives. They knew how to distribute the points.

"Immortal Vampires have 103 million points."

"Zhang Ruochen's points are 41 million."

"Yanluo clan has 72 million points."

If nothing unexpected happened, Immortal Vampires would win.

After all, there were only a certain amount of points on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Almost all the dark stars had been cleared. The remaining Celestial Captives were all weak and had very few points.

The Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires were all collecting Saint blood and Sainthood Source.

The Supreme Saints of Rakshasa were also cleaning up the battlefield. Some were collecting saint corpses, while others were collecting Saint Souls.

Luo Sha walked to Zhang Ruochen's side. Looking at his determined eyes and face that was solemn. She smiled and said, "You've won everything. You have more than 100 million points. Why aren't you happy at all?"

"I'm not unhappy," Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha said, "You're right. Under your leadership, you killed millions of Saint-level Celestial Captives. No matter how you lie to yourself and numb yourself, you can't pretend that it has nothing to do with you. What's the point to look at the mirror in your hand for so long? Why don't you take a good look at this bloody battlefield as a victor? Or are you afraid to look?"

Zhang Ruochen put away diamond-shaped mirror, jumped off the stone, and said coldly, "There are many Saint-level Celestial Captives' corpses on this battlefield. Why don't you go and collect them to expand your Legion of Death?"

With that, Zhang Ruochen turned around and left.

Luo Sha called out, "I have an important matter to discuss with you."

Zhang Ruochen didn't stop.

"What are your plans next?"

Zhang Ruochen still didn't stop.

Luo Sha said, "About Yanluo clan."

Zhang Ruochen finally stopped and said, "Continue."

Luo Sha said, "Immortal Vampires now have more than 30 million points than Yanluo clan, and there aren't many points left on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. If you were Yan Huangtu and Yan Wushen, would you just sit there and wait for defeat?"

"Of course not," Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha said, "If you were them, what would you do?"

Zhang Ruochen thought of something and his expression changed slightly.

Lord Bladehell walked out of nowhere, he said, "Obviously they would gather all elites of Yanluo clan and attack the seventh dark star immediately. Only by eliminating the Supreme Saint-level Celestial Captives and Lord Hornless on the seventh dark star can they have a chance to turn the tables."

Lord Bladehell continued to talk, "So, we have to gather Immortal Vampires and Rakshasa's cultivators immediately and kill all the Supreme Saint-level Celestial Captives before Yan Luo clan arrives at the seventh dark star. With that, Immortal Vampires will truly secure their position as the first place within the ten clans."

Luo Sha rolled her eyes and said, "Are you in charge of Immortal Vampires?"

"I'm sorry, I'm just passing by. Your Highness, Supreme Saint Ruochen, please continue." Lord Bladehell quickly disappeared from the street.

Luo Sha humphed and continued, "Lord Hornless has obtained Pentastone Sword. His combat power has increased greatly. No one dares to fight him head-on. How can Yanluo clan not understand this?"

"Now, the upper three clans, Rakshasa, and Immortal Vampires are all on the seventh dark star. Even if an army of Supreme Saints from Yanluo clan really comes, how many points can they get? They can't catch up with Immortal Vampires at all.

"So I think, Yan Wushen or Yan Huangtu, has gone to Immortal Vampires' home planet. Moreover, Yan Huangtu would be the one who went."

Lord Bladehell retreated step by step and said in shock, "Impossible! Is this your Highness' prediction? Or have you already received some news?"

"I don't need any news to deduce it,"

Luo Sha glared at Lord Bladehell and felt that this guy was exceptionally annoying, she continued, “There are so many elites in Yanluo clan. Yan Wushen, Yan Huangtu, Xi, Yan Zhexian, can all take charge alone. How can they all attack the fifth dark star? If I’m not wrong, after Yan Wushen exterminated the members of Asura’s home planet, Yan Huangtu had already set off. Calculating the time, he has already arrived outside Immortal Vampires’ home planet.

“Lady Wind and Lord Xia Yu are no match for Yan Huangtu. Immortal Vampires’ home planet is in imminent danger. If you must wait for the news, by the time it arrives, it will be too late!”

Lord Bladehell said, “I’ll lead a team of Supreme Saints back to our home planet.”

Luo Sha chuckled. “You? Back then, even by deploying all the masters of Yanluo clan, they couldn’t stop Que, Zhang Ruochen, and Lan Ying. Can Immortal Vampires compare to Yanluo Clan?”

Zhang Ruochen agreed with Luo Sha’s guess, but he didn’t show too much panic. Instead, he thought calmly, “Immortal Vampires took most of the points in the battle of Snowpetra. Your Highness, you must be very dissatisfied. Do you think it’s unfair? So, you’re going to send me away?”

“Yes, my purpose is to send you away. However, if you decided to stay here, let’s join hands and continue to attack the seventh dark star.” Luo Sha tilted her head and smiled.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Lord Bladehell, “I’ll go back to our home planet now. From now on you’ll lead the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampire and continue to work with Rakshasa to hunt Celestial Captives. Remember, be careful of Luo Sha. Don’t let her use you.”

Lord Bladehell stared at Luo Sha and sneered. “Don’t worry, Supreme Saint Ruochen. I’m very careful.”

Zhang Ruochen burst into a streak of golden light and flew away.

After flying more than 1,000 miles out of Snowpetra, Zhang Ruochen was still worried. He summoned Moyin, “You stay here and help Lord Bladehell in secret. You can collect fewer points, but don’t let Immortal Vampires suffer too many casualties.”

Not long after Zhang Ruochen left, Luo Sha and the top masters of seven great Rakshasan Divine Kingdoms were having a meeting in a secret place outside Snowpetra.

“Zhang Ruochen has left. It will be much easier for Rakshasa to gain more benefits from the cooperation with Immortal Vampires,” Luo Sha said.

A Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm said, “If Zhang Ruochen leaves, who will fight against Lord Hornless and Wujiang? Without top elites, it will be difficult for us to fight against the upper three clans and Celestial Captives.”

Luo Sha was confident. “That’s easy! Tian Shuang, go do something.”

A Rakshasi who broke 99 shackles stepped forward with her long legs. “What do you need me to do, Princess?”

“Go tell the upper three clans in secret that Zhang Ruochen has left the seventh dark star and gone to the home planet of Nether Clan, Deathkin, and Stone clan,” Luo Sha said with a smile.

Tian Shuang smiled and said, “If that’s the case, I’m afraid that a large number of the upper three clans’ Supreme Saints will leave and rush back to their own home planet. Wujiang might even try to kill Zhang Ruochen.”

“Once the upper three clans are weaker, it will be easier for us to destroy the Supreme Saint-level Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star. Your Highness, that’s a good plan.”

Someone raised doubts. “The upper three clans can’t threaten Immortal Vampires’ ranking now. Why would Zhang Ruochen destroy their home planet? I’m afraid this plan won’t fool the upper three clans.”

Luo Sha said, “Who said Zhang Ruochen went to the upper three clans’ home planet just to kill people? He went to seize the fortuitous encounter of the upper three clans’ home planet. I don’t believe that they won’t panic after hearing this.

“It’s better for us to spread the news that Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation improved so quickly because he seized the encounters of Ghost’s and Immortal Vampires’ home planet.”

“Seizing the fortuitous encounter of a home planet to Zhang Ruochen is as easy as pie.”

The cultivators of Rakshasa nodded slightly. They had to admit that this move would indeed cause chaos in the upper three clans.

Immediately after, Luo Sha looked into the darkness and said, “Brother, since you’re already here, come out and meet everyone. I’ll have to rely on you to pin down Lord Hornless for the next battle.”

The Devalan prince, Luo Shengtian walked out of the darkness. His body was majestic and his divine force surged.

“Your Highness.”

“Your Highness is here. Haha, That’s great!”

The cultivators present were all excited.

It turned out that the Devalan prince had arrived. Now there was nothing to worry about, Rakshasa would definitely win this battle!

...

Not long after, the news of the destruction of millions Saint-level Celestial Captives in Snowpetra and Zhang Ruochen’s rush to the upper three clans’ home planet reached the ears of the upper three clans’ cultivators.

Pan Ruo immediately made a decision, she said, “It can’t be trusted. I just received news that Yanluo clan has destroyed the Celestial Captives on the fifth dark star. Zhang Ruochen must be worried about Yanluo clan’s revenge, so he rushed back to his home planet. This is Luo Sha’s plan to weaken our strength.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said, “That’s right. Immortal Vampires’ points have already exceeded 100 million. There’s no need to go to our home planet to slaughter our clansmen.”

“No, Zhang Ruochen is going to take the fortuitous encounter on our home planet,” Wujiang asserted.

His heart couldn’t calm down.

After all, Wujiang had only gotten half of the fortuitous encounter on Nether Clan’s home planet. If the other half was taken by Zhang Ruochen, he would regret it for the rest of his life.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said, “The fortuitous encounter on our home planet isn’t so easy to take away. Zhang Ruochen is indeed a rare figure in this Yuanhui period but...”

Wujiang interrupted him and said, “I’ll leave this to you. I have to rush back to our home planet. The encounter in Nether Clan’s home planet must not be lost.”

Before he could finish his words, Wujiang had already broken through space and left.

Pan Ruo sighed. “Zhang Ruochen has become an inner demon of Wujiang. This move of Luo Sha’s move is ruthless. However, it won’t be so easy for Rakshasa to take the points on the seventh dark star. I’ll definitely make her pay a heavy price.

“Cultivators of the upper three clans, listen up. Stop surrounding the seventh dark star and retreat into The Scroll of Truth and Deceit. Hide in the dark first. Let’s make room for Rakshasa and Immortal Vampires.”

Chapter 2382: Well-planned Strategy

Immortal Vampires' home planet was blood-red. In the starry sky, it was especially dazzling.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen flew outside of the planet's atmosphere.

Below, clouds churned like an endless sea of blood. One could see the outline of the continent and the distribution of the sea.

Whoosh

A corner of the planet's surface array opened.

Lady Wind walked out without wearing a gold mask. Her beautiful face revealed a charming smile. "Why did Supreme Saint Ruochen come back all of a sudden?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "Seeing that the formation is intact, my worried heart finally settled. I originally received news that Yanluo clan had wiped out all the Celestial Captives on the fifth Darkstar. I was worried that Yan Huangtu would come to our home planet to slaughter our clansmen. It seems that my worries are unnecessary."

Lady Wind said, "With me and Lord Xia Yu guarding our home planet, even if Yan Huangtu comes, it won't be a big deal. Why would Supreme Saint Ruochen come back personally? I see that Immortal Vampires' points have increased by tens of millions. What is the situation on the seventh Darkstar? Has it been taken down?"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, "The seventh dark star is under the control of Lord Hornless. It's not that easy to completely destroy it. I have some ideas that I have to set up now. If the powerful elites of Yanluo clan dare to come, I will make sure they never go back."

...

Lord Xia Yu had led the Array Masters of Immortal Vampires to set up the formation from the start of Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Three defensive arrays had been set up, one stacked on top of the other. Even if Lord Hornless came personally and used a Supreme Artifact, he would not be able to break the array.

There were six Offensive Arrays.

Besides that, the Universe's talisman was also set up to deal with the Supreme Saint elites.

Immortal Vampires had set up so many formations to block the enemies from leaving their home planet. These formations and runes were the strongest first line of defense.

They were like the walls of a city.

Whoosh

Whoosh!

...

The formations of their home planet were opened layer by layer.

Under Lady Wind's lead, the two of them passed through three layers of the Defensive Arrays. They walked through the void space as if they were walking on flat ground.

Suddenly, Lady Wind who was walking in front said, "Why did Supreme Saint Ruochen come back from the starry sky? Why didn't you return from the dimensional teleportation array of our home planet?"

Zhang Ruochen, who was walking at the back, had a flash of light in his eyes. He decisively punched Lady Wind's back.

As he punched out, an earth-shaking dragon's roar sounded.

The nine dragon Divine Marks appeared on his fist and released violent divine force.

Lady Wind seemed to have expected this. She was one step ahead of him as she activated the Path of Wind's Saintwill and merged it into her body. She then turned into a streak of light and disappeared into the arrays.

Zhang Ruochen's punch was like a stone sinking into the sea. It was swallowed by the formation.

"Yan Huangtu, I knew you would come. How can you hide from my Gate of Destiny with your Shapeshifting technique?"

Lady Wind appeared 300 meters in front of 'Zhang Ruochen'. She hovered in the air with the Gate of Destiny condensed behind her.

The Gate of Destiny was like a mirror, reflecting Zhang Ruochen's true appearance.

It was the domineering and mighty figure of Yan Huangtu.

Since he was recognized, Yan Huangtu twisted his body and changed back to his original appearance. He snorted. "I underestimated you. You have some ability to become a candidate for Scioness. But you are far from being able to fight with me."

Yan Huangtu's Yama Qi surged out like a dragon, forming a Golden Scroll of Heaven and Earth.

"I've already lured you into the array. Do you think that I will fight you alone?" Lady Wind laughed.

Lord Xia Yu slowly descended from above Lady Wind, her long dress fluttering in the wind.

Following that, countless array inscriptions appeared in all directions of Yan Huangtu.

Pleiades Lotus was the most important key in this array. Every petal was 770 feet long and each petal had array inscriptions.

"Heavenly Fire Tribulation."

Lord Xia Yu flicked her finger, and the array revolved while unleashing its offensive power.

Bzz

The array condensed into hundreds of flaming rivers, releasing scorching energy. All the rivers twisted together and converged into a torrent that crashed into Yan Huangtu.

Even though Yan Huangtu was protected by a Supreme Artifact, Scepter of Heaven's Pass, his defense was still broken through by the power of the array. Blood spurted out of his mouth, and like a shooting star, he was thrown into the void space of the universe.

The torrent flames knocked Yan Huangtu thousands of miles away before it ran out of energy.

Lady Wind could clearly see that the flesh and blood on Yan Huangtu's body had been burned by the flames, revealing a large amount of golden Divine Bones. She could not help but feel proud of herself.

Yan Huangtu was such a powerful figure, the strongest elite of the supreme race who has a God's Destiny.

In this era, who could make him suffer such a huge loss?

She did it!

The gods should have seen it. With this brilliant performance, when Immortal Vampires take first place among the ten races, who else could compete with her for the position of Destiny Scioness?

Royal Divine Frame allowed Yan Huangtu's defense to reach a shocking level. Even after suffering an unprecedented amount of damage, he still did not die.

His body was almost half-skeletal and his aura was extremely weak. His eyes were filled with resentment and hatred, "When I recover, I will lead a Supreme Saint Army of Yanluo clan to flatten Immortal Vampires. Lady Wind, Lord Xia Yu, don't cry for victory too fast."

With that, Yan Huangtu coughed up blood again.

"You still want to flatten Immortal Vampires? I'll kick you out of the battlefield today."

The silver wings on Lady Wind's back spread as she chased after Yan Huangtu.

After refining Saint Bloody Shadow, Lady Wind's combat strength had improved greatly. She was fearless. She only wanted to get rid of Yan Huangtu and not lay up trouble for the future.

For her, this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

As long as she could get rid of Yan Huangtu and take the Supreme Artifact of Yanluo clan, Lady Wind's influence could even surpass Zhang Ruochen's.

As for Lord Xia Yu, even though she'd used the formation to heavily injure Yan Huangtu, she could only be her foil. Lord Xia Yu had only created an opportunity for her to shine in the future.

Yan Huangtu's injuries were too severe. It was obvious that he was unable to contend against Lady Wind, a first-class elite in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. After temporarily suppressing his injuries, he immediately fled at his fastest speed.

"You won't be able to escape! My title is wind. Path of Wind is my main path, and Path of Wind is specialized in speed. Not to mention that you are now seriously injured, even if you were at your peak condition, your speed might not be faster than me."

Lady Wind had a smile on her face as she pushed the Precepts of Wind to the extreme, merging her body with the wind.

It was not an ordinary wind, but a silent squall that could stir up storms in the starry sky. Its speed was extremely fast.

Being able to chase after Yan Huangtu was definitely something worth showing off. With such a battle record, after becoming a Scioness, no cultivator in the Infernal Court would dare to look down on her.

Logically speaking, Lord Xia Yu should have attacked together with Lady Wind. With their combined strength, they would have more confidence in chasing Yan Wushen out of the battlefield.

However, Lord Xia Yu always remembered Zhang Ruochen's instructions. No matter what happened, she couldn't leave their home planet. She had to protect Star-Shield Grand Formation.

Looking at Lady Wind and Yan Huangtu chasing after each other and disappearing thousands of miles away, Lord Xia Yu felt a bit uneasy.

How famous was Yan Huangtu? How could he be chased by Lady Wind to such a sorry state?

This scene was hard to believe.

“Yan Huangtu is also a human. There will always be times when he will fall.” Lord Xia Yu repeated this in her heart, trying to convince herself.

“Lady Wind is one of the top ten elites in the Great Perfection stage of Hundred-Shackle Realm. There shouldn’t be any accidents chasing after the heavily injured Yan Huangtu. Even if she can’t expel Yan Huangtu, she should be able to protect herself. What do I have to worry about?”

Lord Xia Yu thought carefully. “What would Zhang Ruochen do if he faced such a situation?”

After a moment, she calmed down and continued to stay on her home planet.

After a long wait, Lady Wind finally returned.

Lord Xia Yu was finally relieved.

“Lord Xia Yu, why didn’t you go after Yan Huangtu with me just now? Do you know the consequences of letting a tiger return to the mountain?” Lady Wind reprimanded seriously.

It was obvious that Lady Wind couldn’t do anything to Yan Huangtu. Therefore, letting him escape!

Lord Xia Yu was very calm and said, “My mission is to guard our home planet. I won’t step a foot out of our home planet.”

“Do you know what it means to adapt to circumstances? If you and I had attacked together just now, how could Yan Huangtu have escaped? We could even seize the Supreme Artifact of Yanluo clan. The best situation has been ruined by you,” said Lady Wind.

Lord Xia Yu didn't argue with Lady Wind. In short, Immortal Vampires had the upper hand now. As long as their planet wasn't harmed, they wouldn't lose.

Nothing was more important than protecting their home planet.

As for the responsibility of Yan Huangtu escaping, Lady Wind insisted on adding it to her. She just had to accept it. The gods were watching anyway. They had their own judgment as to whether she had done anything wrong.

If Zhang Ruochen came back, he would definitely agree with her.

She didn't care what Lady Wind thought of her.

Lady Wind said, "Do you still want to cultivate divinity? Do you want to revive the Xias? Dream on! Why don't you rely on Zhang Ruochen? After all, he dotes on you now. When he cultivates divinity, he'll definitely be a powerful figure among the gods. At that time, he'll take better care of you. It's easier to rely on a man than to work hard. After all, with your beauty, you have the ability to rely on a man."

If it was Lord Xia Yu's previous personality, she won't restrain her anger and would have taught Lady Wind a lesson.

But now, she understood that the bigger picture was more important.

The planet still depended on her and Lady Wind. If they fought, they would definitely give Yanluo clan a chance.

Therefore, Lord Xia Yu remained silent.

"Forget it. I'm not the leader of Immortal Vampires, so I can't punish you. Let's wait for Zhang Ruochen to come back and see how he punishes you. Hurry up and activate the array," Lady Wind said.

Lord Xia Yu was very careful. She checked Lady Wind with her spiritual power and confirmed that there was nothing wrong with her before opening the array layer by layer.

Lady Wind turned into a streak of light and flew into the atmosphere. Standing on the sea of clouds, she looked down at Immortal Vampires on the continents. Her red lips curled up slightly. "I'm finally here!"

Her moving eyes looked up and landed on Lord Xia Yu's slender figure, she smiled like a silver bell, "Lady Wind's greatest weakness is her desire to succeed. She has an extreme desire to prove herself to the gods. The more she does so, the easier it will be to deal with her.

"But you... how should I put it? Xia Yu, you've really changed a lot. You're so cautious that I didn't expect you to be so careful. I almost thought that I wouldn't be able to break into Star-Shield Grand Formation."

Lord Xia Yu's heart tightened as she asked coldly, "Who are you?"

With a thought, Lord Xia Yu activated Star-Shield Grand Formation's Offensive Array. Dense lightning bolts flashed above her head, emitting a powerful rumbling sound.

Lady Wind added, "Your spiritual power is very strong. You've already reached the peak of the 64th-level right? There's a slight deviation from the information I've obtained. But, you're still weaker than me. That's why your spiritual power can't see through my true form."

"You are Yan Zhexian," Lord Xia Yu said.

Lord Xia Yu's spiritual power was already at the top level.

In Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, there were not more than ten cultivators whose spiritual power was stronger than hers.

Only Yan Zhexian and Xi had such spiritual power.

No matter how marvelous a man's Shapeshifting technique was, it was impossible for him to learn a woman's subtle eyes and movements to the point of being lifelike. Therefore, the Lady Wind in front of her must be Yan Zhexian.

Everything was clear now!

Yan Huangtu didn't want to change into Zhang Ruochen's appearance and intrude into Immortal Vampires' home planet. Instead, he used desperate measures and the trick of luring the tiger away from the mountain.

Only after luring Lady Wind away could they have a chance to enter Immortal Vampires' home planet, which was defended like an iron bucket.

In order to deceive Lady Wind and Lord Xia Yu, Yan Huangtu had gone through a lot of trouble, and he was ruthless enough to himself.

Lady Wind slightly twisted her slender waist, and her body changed into Yan Zhexian's appearance. She wore a white robe and looked as delicate as an otherworldly fairy.

She smiled and said, "Since I've entered Immortal Vampires' home planet, your formation can't do anything to me anymore. Once your Offensive Array land, the first ones you kill will definitely be Immortal Vampires."

Yan Zhexian spread her arms and flew toward the nearest continent like a white swallow.

Lord Xia Yu didn't attack with the array. After all, to kill a superior like Yan Zhexian, the destructive power would spread all over the planet.

Back then, when Supreme Saint Yanhong and Yan Zhexian were dealing with Zhang Ruochen, they had cleared out a continent and set up a large number of Supreme Saint inscriptions and formation patterns to stop the destructive power from engulfing the entire home planet.

Boom

Boom!

..

Every time Yan Zhexian flew past a city, she would strike out a talisman.

Then, the city sank. All Immortal Vampires were reduced to ashes with the city.

She felt a strong sense of joy in her heart.

"Zhang Ruochen, you shameless person. When you humiliated me back then, did you ever think that this day would come for Immortal Vampires' home planet? This is just a small amount of payback. In the future, I will cut off your hand and tongue, making you pay an even greater price.”

Every time Yan Zhexian thought of Zhang Ruochen, she gritted her teeth in hatred. She finally felt that there was something crawling on her face that could not be washed clean.

Perhaps, only with his blood could it be washed clean.

“I have already destroyed six continents. Immortal Vampires’ points should have been deducted a lot, right?”

Yan Zhexian took out diamond-shaped mirror and was stunned.

Immortal Vampires’ points didn’t change at all.

“Could it be that there’s a delay in the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms?”

Yan Zhexian immediately denied herself. She felt extremely uneasy and said, “No! There must be a problem.”

“Of course there’s a problem.”

Lord Xia Yu’s figure appeared mid-air. She stood in the center of Pleiades Lotus and emitted a beautiful blood-red light, she said, “Yan Zhexian, it’s true that your spiritual power is stronger than mine. However, can it be stronger than all the Array Masters and Talisman Masters of Immortal Vampires combined? You’re so proficient in illusions. Can’t you see that you’re in a huge illusion formation?”

Yan Zhexian’s heart thumped. She realized that she had underestimated Lord Xia Yu and made a fatal mistake.

Underestimating the enemy was the most common mistake made by top elites.

Yan Zhexian was still too young and lacked experience, unlike Lord Xia Yu who often honed herself on the Battlefield of Merits. Although her personality was extreme, her sense on the battlefield was sharper than any cultivator.

Yan Zhexian quickly calmed down and said, “You knew my identity from the start?”

“No, you really fooled me. I have to say that this is your ability. If I didn’t have any arrangements, Immortal Vampires might have suffered a great loss today.”

Lord Xia Yu continued, “Ghosts, Yanluo clan, and Asura’s home planets have all met with accidents. Do you think that as the guardian of our home planet, I didn’t make any arrangements? To tell you the truth, there is not a single member of Immortal Vampires here. There is only an illusion formation waiting for you to jump in.”

Yan Zhexian was silent for a long time, she said, “In this era, there are not many cultivators that I can consider my opponent. From today onwards, you, Xia Yu, can be considered one of them. Next, let me see if you have the ability to deal with me.”

Lord Xia Yu didn’t want to fight Yan Zhexian alone. She waved her arm and numerous Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampire appeared. They pushed the formations to the extreme.

“Zhang Ruochen, I’ve proven to you that your Supreme Artifact and Saint Bloody Shadow weren’t given to the wrong person. Yan Zhexian is my gift to you.”

Chapter 2383: The Changes Underground

Zhang Ruochen returned to his home planet through the teleportation array.

The moment he stepped out of the teleportation array, Zhang Ruochen frowned and looked up at the sky. The sky was dark and filled with all kinds of chaotic power fluctuations.

“Am I too late?” He muttered to himself.

Xue Ningxiao had been standing guard beside the teleportation array. When she saw Zhang Ruochen, she immediately showed joy and said, “Cousin, you came back early. Could it be that the battle on the seventh dark star has ended?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. He released his spiritual power instantly and covered the entire planet.

“Eh?”

There were many inscriptions of illusion formation on the planet, covering every continent.

Zhang Ruochen could see the illusion formation not only because his spiritual power was stronger than Yan Zhexian’s, but because he had The Heart of Truth. He could see through illusions and sense reality without using his eyes and spiritual power.

“All the clansmen have been hidden. It seems that Lady Wind and Lord Xia Yu are smarter than I thought.”

Although there was some damage on the continent of their home planet, but no clansmen were injured or killed.

Zhang Ruochen was quite satisfied with this result.

It wasn’t easy to fight with Yan Wushen or Yan Huangtu. It was already amazing to ensure that they wouldn’t suffer any losses.

Lord Xia Yu sensed the dimensional fluctuations and landed beside the teleportation array. She used her spiritual power to probe Zhang Ruochen and asked, “What is my obsession?”

She wanted to confirm whether the person in front of her was really Zhang Ruochen.

“Your brother died because of you,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu put away her spiritual power and Pleiades Lotus. She let out a sigh of relief and said, “You’re finally back!”

Then, she told Zhang Ruochen about the detailed process of Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian coming to Immortal Vampires’ home planet.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised and stared at Lord Xia Yu.

The one Zhang Ruochen favored the most to protect their home planet was actually Lady Wind. After all, Lord Xia Yu’s character was too obvious and could be easily attacked.

He didn’t expect that Lord Xia Yu could overcome her character weakness and make both Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian suffer.

Yan Huangtu’s trick of self-injury to win the enemies’ confidence didn’t work, so he had definitely suffered a great loss.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Where are the clansmen on our planet?”

Lord Xia Yu said, “There are 240 million clansmen on our planet. Lady Wind and I have arranged 24 Supreme Saints. Each Supreme Saint took 10 million clansmen.

“Of course, Lady Wind and I are also within the 24 Supreme Saints.”

With a Supreme Saint’s cultivation and higher knowledge, it was easy for one to take in 10 million clansmen.

Zhang Ruochen nodded and said, “You can’t put all eggs in one basket. What you did was right. How did you arrange the 24 Supreme Saints?”

Lord Xia Yu said, “Most of them stayed on our home planet and hid in various secret places. Some turned into stones and slept underground, while others went into the belly of the blood fish and hid in the sea. Some hid in the starry sky through the teleportation array. Unless Yanluo clan finds all these Supreme Saints, they will never be able to kill all Immortal Vampires.”

As long as their clansmen were not killed, their points would not be deducted by half.

According to the calculation of killing ten clansmen, one point would be deducted.

Even if Yanluo clan could kill 99% of Immortal Vampires, they would only deduct 24 million points at most, which was within the range of Immortal Vampires could accept.

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s better to be careful. Powerful cultivators of Path of Destiny can deduce many things. No matter how well they hide, they can still be found.”

“Even if other Supreme Saints are found, I will protect the lives of the last 10 million people,” Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen believed in Lord Xia Yu’s determination. “Give me a clansman with a stronger cultivation base.”

With the advantage Immortal Vampires had now, as long as their clansmen were not wiped out, it would be fine.

Even if only one of them was alive, it’s not considered wiped out.

With Lord Xia Yu and Lady Wind’s arrangements, it was almost impossible for Yanluo clan to wipe out Immortal Vampires.

Zhang Ruochen asked for a clansman just to take precautions.

Lord Xia Yu released an elder from Pleiades Lotus. His cultivation base was about the ninth change in Fish-dragon Realm. He was considered a superior on this planet. He could survive without food or water for at least a few months.

Zhang Ruochen pulled out a strand of hair and blew on it.

The hair turned white instantly, and a small dimension appeared inside.

With his current cultivation as a Supreme Saint, even a strand of hair was a treasure for ordinary cultivators.

Zhang Ruochen put the elder into the dimension inside the hair. Then, he took out Yan Zhexian's dark green pen and cut the hair. He inserted the hair into the brush of the pen and hid it in the deepest part.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the pen in his hand. Then, he activated Precept of Truth. His fingertips released a bright star-like light, washing every brush of hair and assimilating their aura.

"You said that Yan Zhexian escaped into the underground?" He asked casually.

Lord Xia Yu said, "Yan Zhexian is more powerful than I imagined. The array had already enveloped her, but she used a forbidden technique, Great Yanluo Thousand Heads and Bodies Technique, and manifested a thousand clones.

"The array only destroyed 935 of her clones, her true form tore through the array and escaped.

"I chased after her and heavily injured her a few times, but she escaped every time. In the end, she sneaked into the underground. I didn't dare to enter rashly. Therefore, I'm currently worried about this matter."

It wasn't that Lord Xia Yu didn't dare to chase after her. She was worried that there were still other powerful figures from Yanluo clan hiding outside their home planet. They might use this opportunity to break into the array.

"I'll deal with her. You just have to guard our home planet," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu said, "It's been a long time since Lady Wind went to kill Yan Huangtu. She hasn't come back yet."

"Yan Huangtu must have been seriously injured by the array. Lady Wind's strength wasn't ordinary. Her attainments in Path of Destiny are high and she's very alert. Unless Yan Huangtu brought more powerful figures, it's not a problem for her to protect herself." Zhang Ruochen said.

The difference in points between Yanluo clan and Immortal Vampires was huge. The entire clan must be fighting to kill the Celestial Captives. Time was precious. It was already out of Zhang Ruochen's expectations that Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian could come to Immortal Vampires' home planet at the same time.

More powerful figures.

All of a sudden, Zhang Ruochen thought of the three middle clans.

After the defeat of Ghost's home planet, the three middle clans had become low-key, strangely low-key.

"If Yan Huangtu can't mobilize the elites of Yanluo clan, will he mobilize the elites of the three middle clans? However, the three middle clans also want to compete for the ranking of the ten clans. This is a dog in the manger attitude if the middle three clans help Yanluo clan, they won't do such a thing right?" Zhang Ruochen thought.

Now, apart from Immortal Vampires and Yanluo clan who were far ahead, the other eight clans didn't have more than 40 million points.

Nether clan's points were second only to Immortal Vampires and Yanluo clan. They were in third place with 38 million points.

Rakshasa, who was in fourth place, had a very small difference of 35 million points from Nether clan.

Apart from Ghosts who had fallen behind, the ten clans only had a difference of several million points from the other clans. If they were lucky, they could instantly catch up with dozens of Supreme Saint-level Celestial Captives.

How could the three middle clans keep a low profile at this time?

Even if they didn't, they should have gone all out to hunt the Celestial Captives instead of dealing with Immortal Vampires.

Even if they beat Immortal Vampires, could their points still surpass the previous one?

“Oh no. Lady Wind is in danger,” Zhang Ruochen’s expression changed slightly.

Lord Xia Yu said, “Yan Huangtu is heavily injured. It can’t be fake.”

“It’s not Yan Huangtu or Yanluo clan’s elites, it’s Pink Skull. The middle three clans would never attack a cultivator of Immortal Vampires at this time. They would put aside their hatred and focus on killing Celestial Captives to collect points. However, Pink Skull would, she would kill Lady Wind,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu trusted Zhang Ruochen’s judgment and asked, “What should we do now?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, “This is the battle for Destiny Scioness. Lady Wind must face it herself. Even if I rush over in time and help her pass this trial and save her life, she will lose this precious opportunity to prove herself. In the future, even if Immortal Vampires get first place in the ten clans, she might not be Destiny Scioness.

“Pan Ruo has cultivated the Door of Trueself. She’s the first choice of Fane of Destiny’s gods.

“But if Lady Wind can block this wave of crisis, even if she only escaped from Yanluo clan and Pink Skull, the position of Scioness of Destiny will definitely belong to her.”

In Zhang Ruochen’s opinion, it was not rash for Lady Wind to chase after the heavily injured Yan Huangtu. It was the right thing to do.

If the enemy was heavily injured and one did not attack, then when would they attack? Should they wait for Yan Huangtu to recover and return with Yanluo clan’s Supreme Saint army?

Of course, Lord Xia Yu’s actions were not wrong too.

Each of them had their own mission, so their decisions were naturally different.

The only thing Zhang Ruochen was worried about was that Lady Wind was too eager to win. Her rationality and judgment would be affected, and she would fall into Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull's trap without realizing it. Once she was successfully ambushed by Pink Skull, the first attack could kill her or seriously injure her.

It was hard to say if she could survive.

Lord Xia Yu was very worried. "Lady Wind becoming Destiny Scioness represents the interests of the lower three races and Immortal Vampires. Are we really going to ignore it? If she is killed, it will be a heavy blow to Immortal Vampires."

"If you really want to save her, go tell Yan Huangtu that Yan Zhexian is in your hands. That might be useful"

Zhang Ruochen didn't care about Lady Wind's life. However, he had invested some capital in her. If she was really killed, wouldn't he lose everything?

Everything was up to fate.

"How should I tell Yan Huangtu?" Lord Xia Yu asked.

Zhang Ruochen moved his body and arrived at the entrance where Yan Zhexian had sneaked underground.

He could only find her if he followed the traces she left behind.

"I hope you didn't die at the hands of Bloody Shadowseed," Zhang Ruochen muttered to himself. Then, he went underground.

Only the living Yan Zhexian was more valuable.

Lord Xia Yu thought for a moment. Then, a smile appeared on her beautiful face. "This is the only way!"

She flew to the upper atmosphere of Immortal Vampires. She released her spiritual power and activated the blood-red clouds. The clouds seemed to have turned into rivers. They gathered into three words — Yan Zhexian.

Each word was one-third the size of the planet.

With the Supreme Saint's eyesight, one could see these three words even if they were millions of miles away.

With these three words, Yan Huangtu should understand the meaning behind them.

If he dared to kill Lady Wind, Yan Zhexian would definitely die.

Zhang Ruochen followed Yan Zhexian's aura all the way to the center of his home planet.

The further he went, the more shocked Zhang Ruochen became.

Zhang Ruochen had captured a large number of Bloody Shadowseeds underground. However, there were still many left. How could Yan Zhexian, someone who was seriously injured, have the ability to sneak into such a deep place?

Not long after, Zhang Ruochen arrived at the center of the planet. It was a spherical space with a diameter of 500 kilometers.

The space was filled with blood-red waterfalls. Blood Qi filled the air, and endless wave sounds could be heard.

"Yan Zhexian must be very capable to make it all the way here."

Zhang Ruochen found footprints covered in blood on the ground. He looked at the footprints and his eyes narrowed. The bloody footprints led to the stone coffin that was more than 30 meters long, which was at the center of the spherical space.

There was a tree growing on the stone coffin.

The tree was snow-white and crystal-like jade. It looked like a graceful girl. Her hair turned into white branches and pierced into the soil, and there were rocks all over the planet.

Zhang Ruochen had seen it the last time he came.

This time, Zhang Ruochen found that the "Girl" had some subtle changes. The location of the heart had turned blood-red.

Many bloodlines spread out from the heart and covered the tree trunk.

What was more shocking was that he heard the beating of the heart like a drum.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that this “Girl” was the real Bloody Shadowseed. Therefore, he stepped back decisively and planned to leave immediately.

At this moment, he found that a corner of the stone coffin was opened more than 200 miles away.

The coffin was emitting yellow light.

The extremely pure yellow light seemed to be separated from the black yellow.

At the same time, his Five-element Chaotic Neverwither Physique was fluctuating out of his control. The five elements in his body automatically started a cycle over and over again.

Among them, the power of Earth was growing rapidly.

“Is it the legendary Pale Blood Soil in the stone coffin?”

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth. In the end, he decided to step on the stone steps and walk toward the stone coffin and the “Girl”.

There was no other way. There were seven types of Saintwill in Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. If he took the ordinary path to cultivate it, it would be impossible to fuse them together. No matter how talented he was, it would be useless. No matter how strong his will was, it wouldn't work.

There was never a lack of talented and strong-willed cultivators in this world.

If he wanted to become a legend, not only did he have to be tough, but he also needed the support of legendary-level treasures.

Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill were legendary-level treasures that could cultivate and refine Saintwill. They could help him break through the basis of Grade one Saintwill, but it was still not enough.

Only Pale Blood Soil was strong enough.

As long as he could fuse with the sixth Earth Saintwill, he should be able to touch the edge of Garde one Saintwill or even directly reach Garde one Saintwill. At that time, it would definitely shock all cultivators, including gods.

He had to take this risk.

Chapter 2384: Madre Bloody Shadow

Zhang Ruochen stepped on the stone steps again. He was surprised to find that although the tree in a girl's form had changed, the pressure on him was not as great as the last time.

The tree's disturbance to his spiritual power was also minimal.

But another strange power was affecting his spiritual power and judgment, leading him to approach the stone coffin step by step.

Zhang Ruochen clearly sensed this power. However, as if he lose his mind, he couldn't stop himself from moving forward. At this moment, he was like a donkey with a carrot hanging in front of his eyes.

To eat the carrot, he could not control himself to move forward.

Of course, other than the mysterious power that was guiding him, his subjective consciousness too wanted to approach the stone coffin. Without this consciousness, no matter how strong the guide was it couldn't do anything to him.

"Who is it? Who is guiding me?"

The circulation of the five elements in Zhang Ruochen's body was faster.

The chaotic brilliance turned into a five-colored cloud and wrapped around his body.

The power of Earth surged out of the stone coffin and rushed into his body continuously. However, it was like dense invisible threads that pulled his body.

Finally, Zhang Ruochen walked to the bottom of the tree beside the stone coffin.

The tree in the shape of a young girl was graceful and moving. It was so beautiful that it could make one's soul tremble.

However, when one looked at it up close, one realized that her body was actually 120 feet tall.

The sound of her heartbeat was as shocking as thunder, but Zhang Ruochen was not affected at all.

The stone coffin was more than 100 feet long. It was magnificent and emitted strong ancient charm. It was like a rectangular stone palace. One could only feel the impact when they came close.

Zhang Ruochen stood next to the stone coffin. His body was not even one-fifth of the height of the stone coffin.

The aura from the girl-shaped tree was far less terrifying than the last time, but it still suppressed Zhang Ruochen. It was as if he was carrying a rock on his back.

Many gods could not give him such great pressure.

Under such pressure, flying was just wishful thinking.

“The bloody footprints extend to the bottom of the stone coffin. Yan Zhexian must have been here. Where did she go? Did she enter the stone coffin?”

“Grow!”

“Grow!”

“Grow!”

He shouted three times in a row.

Zhang Ruochen resisted the pressure and his body grew three times.

Finally, he became 50 feet tall and turned into a giant.

He looked into the stone coffin through the opening. Suddenly, he felt a strong sense of dizziness. His spirit, Saint Soul, and body seemed to have fallen into a whirlpool. His body fell into the stone coffin uncontrollably.

“Oh no.”

Zhang Ruochen’s hand desperately grabbed the stone coffin and urged the power in his body with all his strength.

He felt danger. The stone coffin was like the mouth of a demon. Once he fell, he would be devoured until there were no bones left.

A beautiful song rang in his ears.

The song came from above and came out of the tree in the shape of a girl.

“So the power that lured me here was her. I’m afraid that Yan Zhexian has also fallen into her trap.” Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and mobilized his spiritual power and the Heart of Truth, he resisted the illusory sound and hypnotic power contained in the song.

Logically speaking, if Yan Zhexian’s spiritual power was strong, she could restrain Bloody Shadowseed. However, she was seriously injured. Therefore, making it extremely difficult for her to enter the core of the Earth.

It was even harder to get close to the stone coffin.

However, if the girl-shaped tree wanted to lure her into the stone coffin, all the obstacles would disappear.

“Go in. I don’t have much time. I need the blood of Immortal Vampires.”

A beautiful voice entered Zhang Ruochen’s ears.

The next moment, Zhang Ruochen felt his body being slapped. All his strength was scattered and he fell into the stone coffin.

Who was It?

Was it her?

“It’s over. It’s said that wealth comes from danger, but most people die in danger. Only a few people can get wealth. Did I lose this gamble?”

Zhang Ruochen knew how terrifying the tree in the girl’s form was. It wasn’t something he could fight with his current cultivation.

“I’m afraid my blood will be sucked dry by it.”

The stone coffin was only a few meters tall, but Zhang Ruochen had fallen for a long time and still hadn't reached the bottom of the stone coffin.

Everything around him was dim yellow.

Powerful and pure Earth power continued to rush into his body.

Precepts of Earth and the five elements in his body were growing rapidly.

Finally, Zhang Ruochen saw a cloud of mist below. It was emitting black, white, gold, cyan, and red. The five elements power were moving in disorder.

In the center of the five-colored light was a beautiful figure with long hair. It was Yan Zhexian, whom Zhang Ruochen had been looking for.

She seemed to be floating in the water with her eyes closed.

"Does she also have Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Although Zhang Ruochen was shocked, he was not surprised.

Zhang Ruochen could find the materials to cultivate Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique, which are the five-element spiritual treasures, and Five-element Divine Objects. How could the huge Yanluo clan not find them?

Moreover, even the ninth Prince of Yunwu Commandery with such a weak physique could cultivate successfully. Yan Zhexian's foundation was far stronger than his, so the difficulty of cultivation was much lower.

"It's not Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique, but Five-element AzureTerra Neverwithers Physique," Yan Zhexian opened her eyes and said.

Zhang Ruochen thought that Yan Zhexian was dead, but he was shocked when he saw her suddenly speak.

Wait, something's not right.

The woman in front of him was Yan Zhexian, and her voice was also her.

However, Zhang Ruochen felt unfamiliar. He felt an oppressive pressure. It was as if the person standing in front of him was not a Supreme Saint but a god.

The one who spoke was not Yan Zhexian.

Zhang Ruochen instinctively wanted to release Profound Spatial Dimension, the Realm-frame of Truth, and Null Time realm. However, he could not release any of them. He was extremely shocked.

How powerful was she?

Yan Zhexian said, “When cultivating the Five-elements physique, every cultivator has a different way. The Five-elements shaped everything in the world. They are unpredictable and have billions of forms.

“Just like a leaf, even with the same material, the Five-element have different ratios, thus its form would be different too. They can be green tender leaves, yellow withered leaves, or stone leaves buried underground.

“Five-element Chaotic Body is the strongest of the Five-elements physique.

“Chaos represents the world before the creation of Heaven and Earth. There was no space, no time, no everything.

“The fact that you can cultivate Five-element Chaotic Body is both a coincidence and a necessity driven by a certain force. There are too many traces of top elites on your body. It is a chess piece that countless people are playing. Some people want you to go east, some people want you to go west, some people want you to live, and some people want you to die. When the first chess player placed you on the chessboard, all the chess players had their eyes on you.

“In the chaos, there is no direction or fixed position. Your future depends on the chess players behind you and how well they could play the game.”

Zhang Ruochen said in a deep voice, “Who are you? Why are you telling me this? My future depends on me.”

“You can’t decide! The chess players behind you are all very powerful. No matter how hard you try, you can’t escape their chess game. You should be glad that you are still a useful chess piece,” Yan Zhexian said.

Zhang Ruochen gritted his teeth and blood seeped out.

Yan Zhexian said, “You don’t have to be so angry. In this game, many gods are not even qualified to be chess pieces. It is something to be proud of that you can play a role on the board.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “You know so much. It seems that you are also a chess player.”

“No, I am also a chess piece, and a discarded chess piece.”
Yan Zhexian’s face showed a bitter self-mockery.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. Why are you discarded when you’re so powerful.

How powerful must the chess player be to be able to control you?

Zhang Ruochen was smart, after all. He quickly adjusted his emotions and calmed down. “You’re the Bloody Shadowseed outside?”

“I’m Madre Bloody Shadow,” Yan Zhexian said.

Zhang Ruochen gasped. She was indeed a divine-level creature.

Yan Zhexian said, “I don’t have much time. I’m leaving this world. Do you have anything else to ask?”

“Is Five-element Chaotic Neverwith Physique really ranked first among the Five-element physiques?”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t believe it.

Because in the history of Kunlun’s field, there had been more than one Five-element Chaotic Body.

Cultivating the Five-element Chaotic Neverwith Physique didn’t seem too difficult. With Zhang Ruochen’s innate horrible physique, he could successfully cultivate once he found the Five-element spiritual treasure and Five-element Divine Object.

“I’ve said it before. It’s both a coincidence and a necessity that you can cultivate it successfully. With this physique, almost no other living creature could cultivate it successfully postnatal except for the disciples of the Zhang family in Kunlun’s field. As a disciple of the Zhang family, the exercises you cultivate should be the ancestral Trāyastriṃśa, right?” Yan Zhexian said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Trāyastriṃśa? No, it’s not.”

Yan Zhexian snorted. “Trāyastriṃśa is ranked second on Taiyi Divine Techniques Rank. It’s not a secret in Celestial Court and Internal Court. What’s there to hide? In the past, your Zhang family’s patriarch, the Immovable Wisdom King, cultivated Trāyastriṃśa to Maṇicīrā level. He fought against the heavens without losing a single battle. Trāyastriṃśa ranking was created by him.”

The age of the Immovable Wisdom King was unknown, but from her tone, it seemed like she had seen him in person.

Zhang Ruochen had actually suspected that Empyrean Emperor Ming’s Scripture was a part of Trāyastriṃśa.

Therefore, he wasn’t particularly surprised to learn the truth.

“If you hadn’t cultivated such a divine technique, if your bloodline wasn’t special, how could you have successfully cultivated Five-element Chaotic Neverwith Physique?” Yan Zhexian asked.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What is the fortuitous encounter of Immortal Vampires’ home planet? Why did you lure us here? Is there Pale Blood Soil here?”

Yan Zhexian said, “The first question is that the opportunity doesn’t belong to you, so you don’t have the right to know.

“The second question is that I lured this girl from Yanluo clan here because she has the Five-elements physique. Maybe she can withstand my powers after I die. I lured you here because you have the bloodline of Immortal Vampires

“As for the third problem, Pale Blood Soil is right in front of you.”

Zhang Ruochen understood that the fortuitous encounter of Immortal Vampires’ home planet was her, Madre Bloody Shadow.

She was about to die. Before she died, she wanted to find a creature with a Five-elements physique to accept her inheritance. She chose Yan Zhexian.

Zhang Ruochen was confused. “I have the Five-elements physique too. I’m stronger than her and have the bloodline of Immortal Vampires. Why can’t I accept your inheritance?”

Zhang Ruochen didn’t care much about the inheritance of Madre Bloody Shadow. After all, compared to the inheritance of Saint Monk Xumi, the latter was definitely stronger and more suitable for him.

However, he really couldn’t understand.

“You’re not suitable. You just need to provide blood. My time is up. Now, give me your blood!” Yan Zhexian said.

“Why on earth?”

A snow-white root wrapped around Zhang Ruochen’s body and pulled him to Yan Zhexian.

Yan Zhexian’s eyes softened quickly. The oppressive aura around him disappeared. The tree root of Madre Bloody Shadow wrapped around her. Streams of blood-red mist continuously surged into her body, converging towards her lower abdomen.

Yan Zhexian seemed to be in great pain. Her entire body trembled, and she let out an ear-piercing scream.

Madre Bloody Shadow’s voice rang out in this space. “After living for thousands of years, experiencing countless periods of time, and seeing all the good and evil in the world. In the end, I’ll still die.

“Master, you’re right. Pale Blood Soil can not allow any living creature or dead spirit to live forever. When it’s time to die, it will be destroyed. When it's time to die, no matter how much it struggles, it will still die.

"I only hope that in the next life, I can continue to search for the answers you didn't find back then, and also continue to search for you. Am I really just your sacrificed piece? I don't believe it, I don't believe it! You must have been killed by them!"

The voice completely disappeared.

The blood and Essence Qi in Yan Zhexian's body all flowed towards her lower abdomen. It became even more painful, and her body gradually withered.

Finally, she bit Zhang Ruochen's neck. She bit through his blood vessels and sucked his blood to make up for the loss of blood in her body.

Zhang Ruochen was tightly entangled by Madre Bloody Shadow's roots. He couldn't stop her at all.

Zhang Ruochen only felt pain and humiliation. His head was dizzy from the loss of blood.

For a moment, Zhang Ruochen thought of himself as a member of Immortal Vampires. He felt that he had humiliated Immortal Vampires. He was Immortal Vampires' Scion, but he was bitten on the neck and sucked blood by a woman from Yanluo clan.

Was there anything more shameful than this?

What Zhang Ruochen didn't realize was that the power of Madre Bloody Shadow, his blood, and Yan Zhexian's blood had all gathered at Yan Zhexian's lower abdomen.

Gradually, Yan Zhexian's lower abdomen bloated as if she had been pregnant for months.

"No. If this continues, she will suck all the blood in my body,"

Zhang Ruochen was about to faint from Yan Zhexian's suction. He couldn't control himself anymore. He let out a long howl. Sharp teeth grew out of his mouth. Turning his head, he bit Yan Zhexian's neck, his mouth full of blood.

Chapter 2385: Each Respective Battlefield

The attack formation of their home planet was not just for show. Even if the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint was struck by the formation, there was a high chance that he would die.

Hence, Lady Wind concluded that Yan Huangtu must have been severely injured.

If Lady Wind could use this opportunity to expel Yan Huangtu from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, who else would be qualified if she did not become the Scioness?

Yan Huangtu had been running away and couldn't heal his wounds.

His injuries worsened and he became weaker and weaker.

The two of them chased each other and soon entered the deep space zone.

“Yan Huangtu, you should leave the battlefield of your own accord! If you continue to worsen your injuries, it will definitely affect your progress in the next few decades. You don't want Yan Wushen to catch up with you, do you?” Lady Wind said.

She knew very well what kind of pressure it was for a young elite to appear in the same clan.

Of course, Lady Wind's pressure did not come from her fellow clansmen.

Although Zhang Ruochen came aggressively and advanced rapidly, stealing all the limelight of his generation of Immortal Vampires, he was a man after all. No matter how fast he rose, he could not affect Lady Wind.

Lady Wind's pressure came from within the Fane of Destiny.

It was Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo was the competitor who put Lady Wind under pressure and made her feel like she needed to get rid of her quickly. Lady Wind would be extremely uneasy if she was surpassed by Pan Ruo.

Lady Wind believed that Yan Huangtu would definitely feel the same pressure as he and Yan Wushen were competitors.

Yan Huangtu, who had been fleeing, abruptly came to a halt. He turned around to face Lady Wind.

‘He actually stopped fleeing. It seems like he wants to have one last fight,’ Lady Wind thought to herself.

The right thing to do was not to flee.

If Yan Huangtu continued to run, he would only get weaker and weaker.

Now, at least he still had the strength to fight.

If Yan Huangtu could heavily injure Lady Wind within three to five moves, he would be in an undefeatable position. He would not need to continue running.

On the other hand, if he could not gain the upper hand in a short period, he could still choose to withdraw from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

From Lady Wind’s point of view, that was definitely what Yan Huang Tu was thinking.

If it was before, Lady Wind hadn’t refined the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintill Pill, cultivated Grade Three Saintwill, and absorbed the Bloody Shadowseed, she really didn’t have the confidence to block three to five moves from Yan Huangtu’s strongest attack.

However, with Lady Wind’s current strength, even if Yan Huangtu wasn’t injured, she still had the confidence to fight him.

‘It was time to prove myself!’ Lady Wind thought.

Lady Wind smiled and flew closer to Yan Huangtu with her silver wings.

“Very well. I will defeat you personally today and break the legendary halo on you, Yan Huangtu,” said Lady Wind.

Even though Yan Huangtu was heavily injured, Lady Wind didn’t dare to underestimate him. All her spiritual power was focused on him, and she was extremely cautious.

The two of them were thousands of miles apart.

They were getting closer and closer.

Yan Huangtu’s face turned contemptuous when Lady Wind was within a hundred miles.

Countless creatures in the world wanted to defeat Yan Huangtu and make a name for themselves. Unfortunately, most of them had already turned into ashes.

Seeing the smile on Yan Huangtu’s face, Lady Wind’s expression changed.

Lady Wind’s vigilance was extremely high due to her cultivation of the Path of Destiny, and she sensed an extremely dangerous aura.

Whoosh

A huge scarlet skeleton appeared in the vast starry sky above Lady Wind and Yan Huangtu’s heads. It exuded a foreboding aura. The two people beneath it were as insignificant as dust.

It was Supreme Saint Yanhong’s true form and it was 1,800 miles tall.

With all its might, the divine bone skeleton slammed down. The power of the Supreme Artifact Ring on its finger was unleashed by this palm. It was Supreme Saint Yanhong’s most powerful attack.

It aimed to kill Lady Wind completely.

BOOM!

Lady Wind’s body was like a piece of ceramic as it exploded inch by inch, unable to escape.

Not only did Lady Wind turn into a cloud of blood mist.

Even her Supreme Saint bones were broken.

Even if Supreme Saint Yanhong possessed the Supreme Artifact, she would struggle to defeat Lady Wind in a direct confrontation. Lady Wind, on the other hand, was killed instantly by the surprise attack.

The 1800-mile-long divine skeleton shrank to the size of a normal person, transforming into a pink skeleton. It landed close to Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu immediately distanced itself from Pink Skull and said, “Lady Wind has fallen. Congratulations, Supreme Saint Yanhong, you are one step closer to becoming the Scioness.”

Pink Skull was clearly a skeleton, but her long hair fluttered in the wind. Her fingers gently stroked the ends of her hair as it walked towards the direction where the blood mist gathered, she said, “The Immortal Vampires Supreme Saint has a strong life force. That B*tch may not be dead yet. We must destroy her Sainthood Source, Saint Soul and Spirit. It would be best if we incinerate her Saint Blood as well.”

The Supreme Saint’s life force was much stronger than the Saint King’s.

Pink Skull and Lady Wind had fought for hundreds of years in the Fane of Destiny. They had a deep grudge against each other. Once they seized the opportunity, they wanted to destroy the other party’s bones and ashes. They would use the cruelest methods to torture one another to death.

Suddenly, Pink Skull stopped. The bone fire in its eye sockets flickered.

Yan Huangtu sensed that something was wrong. He asked, “What’s wrong?”

“There’s no Sainthood Source, not even a saint heart. How is that possible? That’s... The Destiny Feather. She actually got the Destiny Feather...” Pink Skull said.

A three-foot-long white feather floated in the blood mist.

The Divine Mark of Destiny appeared on the white feather, sucking away all the blood mist in the area.

SWISH!

The white feather turned into a ray of white light and flew out at high speed.

“Stop her!”

Pink Skull shouted loudly. In an instant, the pink Qi of Death on its body was released, forming a spherical barrier.

Yan Huangtu stomped his foot, and Yama Qi was released, turning into a golden world map.

BOOM!

The Destiny Feather’s speed was extremely fast and its penetrating power was extremely shocking. It broke through the unformed pink barrier and the golden world map and flew into the distance.

Lady Wind’s figure reappeared and stood on the feather. Her skin was pale and her aura was weak. She thought, ‘That B*TCH, that sneak attack is too strong. Fortunately, I have refined the Saint Bloody Shadow, which greatly increased the strength of my spiritual power and Saint Soul. Otherwise, even if the Destiny Feather can protect my Sainthood Source, my Saint Soul and spiritual power will be shattered.’

Pink Skull immediately went to chase after Lady Wind, but Yan Huangtu didn’t follow.

Lady Wind’s injuries would almost certainly not heal after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. She was already a non-essential character. And Yan Huangtu had more pressing matters to attend to.

“Exterminating the members of the Immortal Vampires’ home planet is the most important thing,” said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu looked in the direction of the Immortal Vampires’ home planet.

The blood-red planet appeared to him to be the size of a jade plate.

Swoosh

A streak of light cut through the starry sky and landed in Yan Huangtu’s hand.

It was a Communication Talisman.

The Communication Talisman was sent by Yan Wushen, and it recorded a dimensional coordinate.

“This is great. With this dimensional coordinate, the Immortal Vampires’ home planet will be a dead planet.” Yan Huangtu laughed.

After cultivating for so many years, Yan Huangtu rarely got angry. However, the last battle on the Yanluo Clan’s home planet made him extremely angry.

He had never suffered such a humiliation. Not only was he disgraced, but he also made the Yanluo Clan lose face.

He had to take revenge.

This humiliation had to be washed away with the blood of the Immortal Vampires and Asura.

Because Yan Wushen had already destroyed the Asuras’ home planet, Yan Huangtu had no choice but to destroy the Immortal Vampires’ home planet, no matter what the cost.

The dimensional coordinates Yan Wushen sent over were the coordinates of the dimensional teleportation array on the Immortal Vampires’ home planet.

Although the array set up by the Immortal Vampires sealed the space, it didn’t seal the dimensional teleportation array they set up themselves.

Yan Huangtu could descend directly onto the Immortal Vampires’ home planet with this coordinate in hand.

The source of Yan Wushen’s dimensional coordinate was actually quite simple. This coordinate was known by several Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires, and it was convenient for them to return to their home planet.

Yan Wushen only had to apprehend one of them. It would be extremely simple for him to obtain the dimensional coordinate using his methods.

Yan Huangtu sat cross-legged and began cultivating. The golden bones on his body emitted a dazzling light. The nine dragon divine marks rushed out of his body like thousands of dragons twining around him.

Yan Wushen's flesh and blood were rapidly growing on his body.

After a moment, his external injuries were completely healed. No wounds could be seen at all.

Before entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Yan Huangtu had swallowed a Quasi-Emperor Grade Recovery Elixir. It had been floating inside his head. Once he was injured, the Elixir Qi would be released.

Yan Huangtu had recovered fifty to sixty percent of his injuries in just two hours.

"Lady Wind actually thought that this little injury would affect my cultivation progress for the next few decades. I had no idea that with the help of the Quasi-Emperor Grade Recovery Elixir, I could recover quickly regardless of how serious the injury was," said Yan Huangtu.

Every Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill was sky-high in price. It was not something that an ordinary Supreme Saint could afford.

The Fugue Pill that Yan Huangtu had bought in the Realm of Star Ocean was only a Half-King Grade Sacred Pill. The price of one pill was already worth twenty Godstones.

A Quasi-Emperor Grade Sacred Pill was many times more precious than a Fugue Pill. Without a few thousand Godstones, one could forget about it. It could be said that it was something that even Supreme Saints found hard to obtain.

Of course, the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was even more precious. This was because it broke the normal grade of the Saintwill pill. It was very likely that in the entire universe, only these ten pills from the Celestial-Hunting Festival were the work of the Grand Supreme Elixir Master.

It was something that the Grand Supreme Elixir Master refined and nurtured this generation of juniors to help them condense Grade Three Saintwill and Grade Two Saintwill.

If a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was placed outside, its value would probably only be lower than a Supreme Artifact.

As for the only Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, it was a pill that even the Grand Supreme Elixir Master might not be able to refine. It was a product that exceeded the Grand Supreme Elixir Master's expectations, and its value could no longer be measured by Godstones.

In other words, it was even harder to refine than divine pills.

Yan Huangtu took out the dimensional teleportation array and was about to descend to the Immortal Vampires' home planet.

Suddenly, he saw huge words appear on the distant blood-red planet, Yan Zhexian.

The steel-like face of Yan Huangtu instantly turned cold.

'Something had happened to Yan Zhexian!' Yan Huangtu thought.

In the current generation of the Yanluo clan, Yan Huangtu was a genius, and Yan Wushen was a genius that was hard to come by in a Yuanhui period. On the other hand, Yan Zhexian was a genius in spiritual power and Talisman. She was deeply loved by one of the ancient gods in the clan and was groomed as an Archsaint Talisman Master.

An Archsaint Talisman Master had a higher status than many gods.

Of course, even so, Yan Huangtu's will to destroy the Immortal Vampires' home planet was still firm. He couldn't choose to compromise just because Yan Zhexian was in trouble.

He didn't dare to activate the teleportation array and travel to the Immortal Vampires' home planet because he couldn't figure out who had kidnapped Yan Zhexian.

Yan Huangtu wondered, 'How could Lord Xia Yu, who had grown stronger with the help of Zhang Ruochen, have the ability to do that?

Could it be that Zhang Ruochen had returned to the home planet?'

The possibility was very high.

Moreover, the Immortal Vampires' home planet must have prepared a foolproof plan. If Yan Huangtu went now, he would undoubtedly be walking into a trap.

"Yan Zhexian is in their hands. They will make me hesitate. Besides, I haven't fully recovered yet. I won't be able to win against Zhang Ruochen in his territory. How about..." said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu put away the dimensional teleportation array and transmitted his voice to Supreme Saint Yanhong. "Have you caught up with Lady Wind?"

"She can't escape," Supreme Saint Yanhong said.

Yan Huangtu said, "I'll lend you a hand and capture her alive."

Supreme Saint Yanhong also saw the words on the Immortal Vampires' home planet. She understood Yan Huangtu's intentions and said, "We can spare that B*tch's life, but you have to help the Bone Clan enter the top five of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting."

"Alright! However, the Bone Clan's legion of Supreme Saints must follow me and enter the Immortal Vampires' home planet through the teleportation array and turn it into a Death Star. And you have to use the Path of Destiny to help me predict the whereabouts of all the Immortal Vampires. Find them and kill them all," Yan Huangtu said.

Supreme Saint Yanhong said, "I want to take Pan Ruo's life."

"I can promise you that," Yan Huangtu said.

After bargaining, the two of them reached an agreement.

...

On the seventh Dark Star.

After the Supreme Saints of the three upper clans hid in The Scroll of Truth and Deceit, Luo Sha didn't fall for it. She brought the Supreme Saints of the Rakshasa and the Immortal Vampires with her and hid as well.

No one wanted to be the first to fight head-on with Lord Hornless.

It all depended on who had more patience.

The Yanluo clan and the Immortal Vampires were fighting for first and second place.

The Nether Clan, Rakshasa, and the Deathkin were fighting for third, fourth, and fifth place.

Their stalemate finally led to the arrival of the Yanluo Clan's legion of Supreme Saints.

Yan Wushen was the leader.

Yan Wushen had come with the mindset of fighting a tough battle. He wanted to achieve the impossible. He thought that the three upper clans and the lower two clans were already locked in a fierce battle with Lord Hornless.

When Yan Wushen came to take a look, there was no sign of them?

On the Dark Star, millions of Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were waiting there. It was as if they were saying, "You don't need to steal the glory. Your prey is right here. It's all here waiting for you. No one is competing with you."

Yan Wushen circled around the Dark Star. Then, he retreated with the Yanluo clan's legion of Supreme Saints and hid.

The seventh Dark Star fell into an extremely strange atmosphere. There were many powerful figures, but no one could be seen. Some of the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives finally couldn't hold it in anymore and flew out of the Dark Star.

However, they had only flown a few hundred miles when they were shot by a sacred arrow.

Everyone hiding in the dark was anxious.

Pan Ruo was anxious because she couldn't find an opportunity to communicate with Lord Hornless. She couldn't send him the message that Zhang Ruochen represented the Empress.

Luo Sha was anxious. The Rakshasa and the Nether Clan were only a few million points apart.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was anxious. The Deathkin and the Rakshasa were only a few million points apart.

Yan Wushen was even more anxious. The difference in points between the Yanluo clan and the Immortal Vampires was too big. He and Yan Huangtu had to open two battlefields. They had to risk their lives to bring the Immortal Vampires down from the first place.

The prestige of the supreme clan must not be tarnished in their generation.

One had to know that their generation was considered the golden generation in the Yanluo Clan. It was the strongest generation in this Yuanhui period. Of course, the Immortal Vampires' generation could also be considered the golden generation.

No matter how anxious they were, they had to hold it in now.

The points of the hundreds of Supreme Saint Celestial Captives in the seventh Dark Star could determine the final ranking. Whoever became the winner would have the last laugh.

Chapter 2386: The Last Day of the Battle

“Princess Luo Sha, we have been waiting for four days. When are we going to attack the seventh Dark Star? If we are worried that Lord Hornless is too powerful, we can attack from afar and deplete their Saint Qi. To do nothing like this is too passive!”

This was the sixth time Lord Bladehell came to see Luo Sha.

If it weren't for Gu Chenzi and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan stopping him, he would have led the Immortal Vampires' Supreme Saint cultivators away to take care of the Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star alone.

Lord Bladehell was very anxious. It wasn't easy for Zhang Ruochen to leave. He could finally show off and help the Qitian Clan collect more points. However, Princess Luo Sha led the cultivators of the two clans to hide and didn't dare to attack.

Once Zhang Ruochen returned, Lord Bladehell would lose his authority again.

How could Lord Bladehell not be anxious?

In the heptangular palace, Luo Sha was calmly practicing her calligraphy.

Luo Sha said, “Our enemies aren't just Lord Hornless and the 700 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives on the Dark Star. There are also the three upper clans, the Yanluo clan, and perhaps some hidden Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. At this time, if they don't move, we can't move.”

Lord Bladehell said, “We will lose 5,000 points if we attack the cultivators of the Infernal Court maliciously. If we kill one, we will lose 500,000 points. They all value points now. Do they dare to attack us? There are only a few cultivators like Zhang Ruochen who don't follow the rules."

Luo Sha calmly practiced her calligraphy and said, "They won't attack first. Instead, they will force us to attack them first. At that time, we will be the ones losing points."

"If we don't attack, no matter how much they force us, it will be useless," Lord Bladehell said disdainfully.

Slap

Luo Sha slapped Lord Bladehell without warning.

Lord Bladehell was completely taken aback. Then, from his chest and abdomen, a wave of rage erupted.

Lord Bladehell thought angrily, 'What was that for?

'She, Princess Luo Sha, is unbelievable. She is the daughter of Luo Yan and Amane. You are born with extraordinary nobility. However, I am not an ordinary cultivator. How can you hit me just like that?

'Furthermore, I am being slapped in the face.

'This is a great humiliation.

'A Supreme Saint can be killed but not humiliated.'

Luo Shengtian, who had been silent the entire time, stood up from his seat. He did not move or show his might. However, Lord Bladehell's anger was suppressed by him.

Luo Sha smiled sweetly and said, "I am forcing you this way! Hey, I am only demonstrating. Why are you getting angry, Lord Bladehell?"

It's more than angry.

Lord Bladehell thought, 'Even if you had thousands of reasons, I would have broken at least one of your hands with just this slap if it hadn't been for Luo Shengtian standing by the side.'

Restraint? Forbearance?

Those didn't exist.

He, Lord Bladehell, represented the face of the Qitian Clan. If his face was damaged, what was there to endure? With a slap, it would be a deadly enmity.

Lord Bladehell's face tensed up and he said coldly, "Your Highness, is this a demonstration? How could the three upper clans and the Yanluo clan humiliate me in such a way?"

Luo Sha shook her head and said, "No, it won't be that simple. However, when the time comes, it won't be just your face that will be slapped, Lord Bladehell. But the entire face of the Immortal Vampires. Once the Immortal Vampires lose all their faces, will you fight or not? Will you take the initiative to attack them?"

The Battle of Celestial-Hunting was a competition between the ten clans, an all-round competition.

The Immortal Vampires would lose all face if the battle ended. Even if they won first place, they would be mocked by a large number of people.

Luo Sha continued, "When I slapped you just now, the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms didn't deduct any points. Don't you think it's interesting? There are too many loopholes in the so-called rules. They're useless."

Lord Bladehell glanced at Luo Shengtian and calmed down. He said, "I'm curious. How would they make the Immortal Vampires lose all their faces?"

Luo Sha shook his head. "Which clan suffered the most humiliation in the whole Battle of Celestial-Hunting?"

"The Ghosts," Lord Bladehell said.

Luo Sha said, "The Battle of Celestial-Hunting had just begun, and the Ghosts were destroyed by Zhang Ruochen alone. It was indeed shameful. However, the number one Ghost powerhouse died heroically. He would be respected by all the Ghost cultivators. Besides, the Ghosts were destroyed by the cultivators of the Infernal Court. Zhang Ruochen is a rare gem in a Yuanhui period. It's not shameful to lose to him."

Lord Bladehell's eyes narrowed. He asked, "You mean the Stone Clan?"

“Yes,” said Luo Sha.

Luo Sha said, “Lord Lei was the representative of the Stone Clan. He was the Supreme Artifact’s controller, but he was assassinated by the Celestial Captives and the Supreme Artifact was also taken away. The cultivators of the Infernal Court wouldn’t pity him. They would only insult him and the entire Stone Clan. Not only would they disgrace the Stone Clan, but they would also disgrace the entire Infernal Court.

“Think about it. If our two clans attack the seventh Dark Star right now, the Celestial Captives, including Lord Hornless, would regard us as their biggest enemies.

“If the battle reached the point where it was in full swing, the top powerhouses of the three upper clans and the Yanluo clan would suddenly attack us and plot against us. They don’t need to plot against too many people. They only need to plot against you, Lord Bladehell, me, and my royal brother. If the three of us fall into the hands of Lord Hornless or are killed by him, what will be the consequences?

“If Lord Hornless humiliates us, the Rakshasa cultivators and the Immortal Vampires won’t be able to take down the Dark Star. At that moment, if they are slightly provoked by someone, the Rakshasa, and the Immortal Vampires who carry their hatred will attack the three upper clans and the Yanluo clan. That way, we will fall into their trap.”

Lord Bladehell’s expression changed again and again when he heard this. At the same time, he was a little afraid of Luo Sha.

Lord Bladehell thought, ‘This woman’s thoughts were too deep!

‘Perhaps, she also wanted to use this method to deal with the three upper clans and the Yanluo Clan.’

Luo Sha said, “Lord Bladehell, you have walked into a blind spot. In the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, no matter how powerful the Celestial Captives are, they are just prey and points. They are not our opponents. You can’t even tell your opponents apart. No wonder you were the number one powerhouse of the Immortal Vampires back then, but you couldn't represent the Immortal Vampires to control the Supreme Artifact.”

“Alright, I'm convinced. I'll take my leave,” said Lord Bladehell.

Lord Bladehell turned around and left. There was still a knot in his heart that he couldn't resolve.

When Lord Bladehell thought of putting the overall situation first, he temporarily endured it. However, Princess Luo Sha was too arrogant. Sooner or later, he would have to teach her a lesson.

Of course, Luo Sha knew that Lord Bladehell hated her, but it didn't matter. She didn't care about a mere Lord Bladehell.

It was a good thing to make him hate and angry.

Only then Lord Bladehell was easy to manipulate and deal with in this state.

The Rakshasas and the Immortal Vampires were both in an alliance and were competing for points.

Luo Sha saw that Lord Bladehell was about to walk out of the gate, she said, “None of the clans dare to take the points on the seventh Dark Star. However, there are other Celestial Captives on the battlefield. If Lord Bladehell is too bored, you can lead the Immortal Vampires to sweep the area.”

After Lord Bladehell's presence disappeared, Luo Shengtian sighed, “Lord Bladehell is a powerhouse who condensed a Grade Three Saintwill after all. He has a bright future. You shouldn't have offended him.”

Luo Sha said, “It was just a slap. He wasn't injured.”

“You slapped his face,” Luo Shengtian said.

Luo Sha said, “He was too stupid. If he impulsively led the cultivators of the two clans to their deaths, we would have suffered a crushing defeat! This slap can make him sober up a bit.”

Luo Shengtian shook his head and planned to chase after Lord Bladehell.

Luo Sha said, “Did you swallow the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill?”

Luo Shengtian shook his head, he said, “Although I’ve comprehended some things from the Return to the Hidden, there’s still only a 30-40% chance of cultivating a Grade Two Saintwill. I intend to cultivate in seclusion for some time after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting concludes. When I’m completely prepared, I’ll take the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Perhaps the likelihood will be even higher.”

Luo Sha sighed. She wanted to say something but stopped. Finally, she waved her hand, “Go!” She said, “But remember, Lord Bladehell holds a grudge. It’s useless to apologize to him. As long as he has absolute power, he’ll naturally give in and give up on revenge.”

Luo Shengtian chased after Lord Bladehell.

Luo Sha sighed again.

‘This royal brother looked mighty and domineering, but he was indecisive. He was even more indecisive than Zhang Ruochen. Zhang Ruochen was only indecisive in matters of the heart.’ Luo Sha thought.

A Grade Two Saintwill could only be condensed in two ways. Either way, it was a success or a failure. There was no such thing as a 30-40% chance.

Even if there was only a slight chance, other cultivators would have already swallowed the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. They wouldn’t hold it in their hands all the time and gradually lose their confidence in trying to condense a Grade Two Saintwill.

How could a Grade Two Saintwill be condensed without a big heart and great boldness?

Luo Sha was certain that once they left the Celestial-Hunting Battlefield, her royal brother’s Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill would be taken away by her father. This was because her royal brother could no longer condense a Grade Two Saintwill, and swallowing it would be a waste.

Hesitation was a big taboo.

“Both Wujiang and her royal brother have lost the right to try for a Grade Two Saintwill. Who will be the next to fall?”

Luo Sha unconsciously wrote Yan Huangtu’s name on the sand table.

“It should be Yan Huangtu. He cultivates the Imperial Path and must defeat all the powerhouses of his generation to accumulate his might to the pinnacle before he has the chance to condense a Grade Two Saintwill. Unfortunately, he was born in the wrong era. He is destined to be a foil to this era.”

Luo Sha crossed out the name of Yan Huangtu. Finally, she wrote names such as Que, Yan Wushen, and Zhang Ruochen on the sand table.

In the fourth row, she also wrote Lan Ying and Pan Ruo, but there was a question mark at the end.

“The Grand Supreme Elixir Master personally refined a batch of Saintwill Pills. He thinks highly of the cultivators of this generation and wants to help them. If Zhang Ruochen was the only one who cultivated the perfect Grade Two Saintwill in the end, he would be very disappointed,” Luo Sha mumbled to herself.

...

Time flew by.

Before they knew it, dozens of days had passed. It was the last day of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

During this time, the three upper clans, the Rakshasas, and the Yanluo clan all sent their top powerhouses to attack the Celestial Captives on the Dark Star. Of course, they mainly attacked the Celestial Captives instead of fighting them head-on.

There were almost no casualties among the Celestial Captives on the Dark Star.

However, they had consumed a lot of their Saint Qi and were in an extremely weak state.

If it weren’t for the various clans in the Infernal Court restraining each other, they would have been exterminated long ago.

They would have been exterminated long ago if it hadn't been for the various clans in the Infernal Court restraining each other.

Except for the seventh Dark Star, the Celestial Captives on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting had been repeatedly wiped out by the cultivators of the other clans. Almost all of them had been eliminated.

The Immortal Vampires still ranked first with 92 million points.

The Yanluo clan ranked second with 82 million points.

The Nether Clan ranked third with 41 million points.

The Rakshasas ranked fourth with 39 million points.

The Deathkin ranked fifth with 35 million points.

The Bone Clan ranked sixth with 30 million points.

The Asuras ranked seventh, the Corpusians ranked eighth, the Stone Clan ranked ninth, and the Ghosts ranked tenth.

The Immortal Vampires' points were decreasing because they had lost nearly ten million points after being slaughtered in large numbers.

In addition, Yan Huangtu had captured tens of millions of Immortal Vampires and brought them to the edge of the seventh Dark Star. He had killed them cruelly in front of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms.

At that time, the entire space was filled with screams and wails.

The scene spread throughout the ten clans of Infernal Court.

The Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints couldn't help but launch an attack against the Yanluo clan cultivators.

Hence...

Many of Immortal Vampires' points were deducted.

At that time, Lord Bladehell finally understood what it meant to lose face, what it meant to be humiliated, and what it meant to force you to attack. He knew that his points would be deducted, but he still couldn't control himself and had to rush forward to fight.

Luo Sha's slap didn't wake him up.

However, Yan Huangtu had woken him up!

...

Yan Wushen and Yan Huangtu stood side by side in the air, gazing at the stars in the sky.

Yan Huangtu asked, "After obtaining the opportunity of our clan's home planet, you should have condensed a Grade Two Saintwill, right?"

"We should all be clear that the most important thing on the path of cultivation is to keep moving forward bravely and climbing higher mountains. A mere Saintwill is just a fleeting moment for us. How to write about the future is more important than this." said Yan Wushen as he did not directly answer Yan Huangtu's question.

But Yan Huangtu already had the answer. He said, "This is the last battle. No matter what, we must not lose to the Immortal Vampires, even if our methods are a little despicable."

Yan Huangtu had disdained to torture and kill the Immortal Vampires in the past.

Yan Huangtu had no choice but to do it for the sake of the Yanluo clan.

"There is no distinction between noble and despicable means. There is only a difference between being useful and being useless," Yan Wushen said.

Yan Huangtu said, "Next, I will go to the Immortal Vampires' home planet and find all their people. As long as we kill them, the scales of victory will tilt in our favor."

Yan Wushen said, "The Immortal Vampires' home planet has been built like an iron wall. It will be extremely dangerous."

"I'm not going alone. There are also the Bone Clan cultivators," Yan Huangtu said.

Yan Wushen said, “Bring all the Array Masters, Talisman Masters, and The Eight Sons of Life and Death with you. They can disrupt the Immortal Vampires’ array formation outside the planet. That way, after you enter the planet, you can easily capture Lord Xia Yu and the Immortal Vampires’ Array Masters and Talisman Masters in one fell swoop.”

Although one of The Eight Sons of Life and Death had died, they quickly picked another Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm to substitute.

Of course, the Indestructible Great Array formed by the Eight Sons of Life and Death was not as good as before.

Yan Huangtu revealed a surprised expression and said, “I’ve taken all the powerhouses away. What about you?”

“I have my ways. Moreover, I’ll come to the Immortal Vampires’ home planet soon to meet you. At that time, when we join hands, the situation of the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting will be under Yanluo Clan’s control. We’ll use our actions to tell the entire Infernal Court that the position of the Yanluo clan as the supreme clan is not something that any clan can provoke.” said Yan Wushen. His long hair fluttered in the wind, his eyes were sharp, and there seemed to be flames burning in his pupils.

The nebula churned and the air current surged. It was as if it was a sign that a world-shaking battle was about to begin.

Yan Huangtu said, “Then I will cut off half of the Immortal Vampires’ points first. If I want to fight, I will beat them into the mud and let them remember the power of the Yanluo clan forever.”

“Be wary of Zhang Ruochen,” Yan Wushen reminded.

Yan Huangtu had already flown away. His voice traveled back. “Facing a great force, even if Zhang Ruochen has the power to reach the heavens, he’ll be like a boat in the water that capsizes instantly and shatters into pieces.”

“Yeah, in the face of the great force, how can one person’s power turn the tide?” said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen turned around and entered the dark space. A moment later, he appeared in front of the cultivators of the three upper clans.

Chapter 2387: The Great Momentum

Although Yan Wushen was the only one who came, the atmosphere in the three upper clans became tense. All the important figures appeared, including Wujiang, Pan Ruo, Que Fei, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, as well as nearly 20 Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The three upper clans were filled with powerhouses. If the three clans joined forces, even the Yanluo clan would not be able to contend against them.

Yan Wushen showed no fear and said, “You don’t have to set up such a formation. I came here as a friend.”

“A friend?”

When Wujiang saw Yan Wushen, he was eager to make a move. He snorted, “On the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, if you are not one of us, then you are our enemy.”

Yan Wushen smiled and said, “If that’s the case, aren’t the three upper clans all enemies?”

Killing intent shot out from the eyes of all the powerful figures present.

Because of Pan Ruo’s influence, the three upper clans may form an alliance army. Back then, she had promised the cultivators of the three clans that she would lead them to seize the second, third, and fourth places in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

If Zhang Ruochen hadn’t led the Immortal Vampires to a sudden rise, and if Lord Lei hadn’t died at the hands of the Kymorpho and Lord Hornless, she might have succeeded.

Even now, Pan Ruo hadn’t kept her promise, but no cultivator from the three upper clans blamed her.

The Battle of Celestial-Hunting had just begun. When everyone was still looking down on Zhang Ruochen, Pan Ruo had set up an inescapable net to kill him.

Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen was too powerful. He had defeated Wujiang and shocked all the cultivators from the three upper clans who had looked down on him.

Could it be Pan Ruo's fault?

No.

In the case of Lord Lei's death, it was the fault of the god of the Fane of Destiny. Is it possible that Pan Ruo is to blame?

No.

At least so far, the Nether Clan and the Deathkin were in the top five.

Pan Ruo's cold figure walked out and faced Yan Wushen. She said, "Mr. Yan, what do you mean by you are our friend?"

Yan Wushen had fought side by side with Pan Ruo in Kunlun. He had a good impression of her. He explained, "The Yanluo clan and the three upper clans are working together to destroy the Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star."

The powerhouses of the three upper clans all laughed coldly.

Working together?

The Yanluo clan probably wanted to use the three upper clans to take the lead while they followed behind to take advantage of the situation.

Were the cultivators of the three upper clans that easy to fool?

"If we destroy the Celestial Captives together, what about the points?" Supreme Saint Yuan Fei asked calmly.

Yan Wushen said, "The Yanluo clan only wants the points from Lord Hornless. The other Supreme Saint Celestial Captives belonged to the three upper clans."

All the Supreme Saints of the three upper clans were in an uproar. They felt incredulous.

Lord Hornless' points were sought after by the Yanluo clan. In other words, they desired Lord Hornless' death at their hands.

Why did the cultivators of the Infernal Court not attack the seventh Dark Star?

Because Lord Hornless was far too powerful and the various clans restraining each other!

Once the battle started, he alone could kill a lot of people.

No one could bear the responsibility of losing a large number of genius Supreme Saints.

Now, Yan Wushen had taken a tough nut to crack and the remaining 700 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were not that difficult to deal with.

More importantly, the 700 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were worth tens of millions of points.

Pan Ruo's heart trembled slightly. Why did Yan Wushen have the confidence to kill Lord Hornless who wields the Supreme Artifact?

Was it because the Yanluo clan had the means to kill Lord Hornless? Or did Yan Wushen just say these words to deceive them and actually have another plan?

Yan Wushen said, "You'd probably still doubt my sincerity. To tell you the truth, the reason I chose Lord Hornless was that I had to kill him to obtain all the opportunities on the Yanluo clan's home planet."

"Why should we believe you?" Wujiang asked.

Yan Wushen said, "Because your three upper clans are not qualified to be the Yanluo clan's enemies. Even so, why would I lie to all of you?"

Immediately, a series of angry curses rang out.

"Yan Wushen, how dare you?"

"How dare you look down on the three upper clans. Are you picking a fight with us?"

“If the three upper clans join forces, no matter how strong your Yanluo clan is, I’m afraid you will be defeated. Fight! Fight! Fight!”

Yan Wushen crossed his arms in front of his chest. His eyes were filled with disdain as he said, “Even if the Yanluo clan does nothing now, none of you have the points to catch up with us. Am I right?”

The cultivators of the three upper clans gritted their teeth in hatred.

They couldn’t refute Yan Wushen due to his arrogance.

Only Pan Ruo, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, and a few other cultivators remained calm as they thought about Yan Wushen’s true goal.

After a while, Pan Ruo said, “I believe you.”

Yan Wushen laughed out loud, “Indeed, only Pan Ruo is a sensible person. There are too many mediocre people in this generation of the three upper clans. They have disgraced the three upper clans. Thinking back to the Battle of Celestial-Hunting 2000 years ago, the three upper clans had many powerful cultivators. All of them were ranked in the top five. In this round, if we do not cooperate with the Yanluo clan, I’m afraid that no one will be able to enter the top five.”

Wujiang smiled coldly and was about to speak.

Yan Wushen said, “There’s only one day left in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Time is tight. If the three upper clans don’t cooperate with the Yanluo clan, I can only look for the middle three clans. The Bone Clan and the Corpusians would very much want to enter the top five.”

Pan Ruo stopped Wujiang and said, “Isn’t the Yanluo clan cooperating with the Bone Clan?”

“They’re just using them. Whether it’s Pink Skull or the Bone Clan, they won’t amount to anything. Of the three upper clans, Her Highness Pan Ruo and the Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint are people that I like. Our cooperation could last for a thousand years even after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting,” said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen was telling Pan Ruo indirectly that he would support her to be the Scioness of Destiny.

However, other than Pan Ruo and Wujiang, the other three upper clans Supreme Saint were so angry that their faces turned red.

What does Yan Wushen mean? We are all people who have cultivated to the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm within a thousand years. We have the potential to become gods, yet you didn't even see our worthiness?

You really look down on the heroes of all realms.

Yan Wushen then looked Pan Ruo in the eyes and said, "If the three upper clans work together with the Yanluo clan, it is possible to crush the Immortal Vampires."

Wujiang, who was originally full of hostility towards Yan Wushen, could not help but ask, "Crush the Immortal Vampires?"

Yan Wushen gave him a look of affirmation, "As long as we exterminate the Immortal Vampires, we'll cut their points in half," he said. "The Nether Clan had a chance to trample them and ascend to second place. What was the point of defeating Zhang Ruochen, Wujiang? Wouldn't it be more satisfying to crush the Immortal Vampires to dust and watch Zhang Ruochen's hard-won glory crumble?"

Wujiang's eyes flashed with a cold light. He smiled. "So the Yanluo clan wants to use us to deal with the Immortal Vampires."

Yan Wushen didn't deny it and he said, "From the beginning to the end, only the Immortal Vampires were the enemies of the Yanluo clan in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Aren't the Immortal Vampires also the enemies of the Nether Clan? So, our interests are the same."

"Okay! I'm in this!" Wujiang said.

Yan Wushen smiled. "The Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint is indeed the strongest of the three upper clans. You are indeed the most outstanding hero of this era. You should have such courage in the face of major events."

“But I have one condition,” said Wujiang.

“Speak,” said Yan Wushen.

Wujiang said, “Zhang Ruochen must die by my hands.”

Yan Wushen praised, “A man was born to be a man, that is the way it should be. Avenge yourself and return the favor. When the time comes, I will personally hold the fort for you and witness you decapitate Zhang Ruochen’s head.”

Since Wujiang had agreed, the Deathkin and the Stone Clan would not reject cooperating with the Yanluo clan.

After all, they were not in a competitive relationship with the Yanluo clan. It would be best if they could take advantage of it and take care of Zhang Ruochen, their enemy.

Pan Ruo said, “Of course, the three upper clans can cooperate with the Yanluo clan. But even if we join forces with the four clans to conquer the seventh Dark Star, it’s still risky. You have to know that the cultivators of the Rakshasas and the Immortal Vampires are still lurking in the dark.”

Yes, once they started a war with the Celestial Captives, how could the Rakshasas and the Immortal Vampires sit still?

Yan Wushen said, “The Rakshasas and the Immortal Vampires are not worth worrying about. Just let them continue to hide. The battlefield we have created is not on the seventh Dark Star at all.”

The cultivators of the three upper clans were all stunned.

How could the battlefield not be on the seventh Dark Star?

Pan Ruo seemed to have guessed Yan Wushen’s intentions. She said calmly, “You want to use the dimensional teleportation array?”

“No, to be exact, it should be a dimensional teleportation array of darkness,” Yan Wushen said.

Pan Ruo said, “The battlefield is on the Immortal Vampires’ home planet?”

“That’s right,” Yan Wushen said.

Pan Ruo let out a long sigh and revealed a look of admiration. She said, "That's killing two birds with one stone."

Except for a few people present who understood what was going on, the other cultivators were still confused.

How did the battlefield end up on the Immortal Vampires' home planet?

Pan Ruo said, "Even if you mobilize the Dark Star's Power of Darkness and activate the dimensional teleportation array, it's impossible to enter the Immortal Vampires' home planet directly. Have you forgotten that there's a space-isolating array?"

"Yan Huangtu will break the array of the Immortal Vampires' home planet in advance," Yan Wushen said.

Pan Ruo's heart sank. Against a powerful opponent like Yan Wushen, all of Zhang Ruochen's previous efforts would be in vain.

His momentum...

Yan Wushen's momentum was set. He brought the forces of the Yanluo clan, the three upper clans, and the Bone Clan to the Immortal Vampires' home planet. Who could stop him?

Zhang Ruochen?

No one could.

Zhang Ruochen might not be able to stop Yan Wushen, Yan Huangtu, and Wujiang working together, even if he had extra heads and hands. There were also Que, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Que Fei, Pink Skull, and others.

Was the Immortal Vampires' first place among the ten clans going to be taken away just like that?

Was the Empress' and Sword Saint Xuanji's plan all for naught again?

Was Lord Hornless going to die in vain?

Were the billions of lives in Kunlun going to continue living in the flames of war and humiliation? Being trampled, killed, and enslaved?

No!

That was definitely not the case.

There was still a chance, there had to be a chance.

“Since Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull have already gone to the Immortal Vampires’ home planet, I’m afraid that all of the Immortal Vampires will die very soon,” Pan Ruo said. Then she asked, “Is it still necessary for us to relocate the battlefield there?”

Yan Wushen looked at Pan Ruo suspiciously and said, “Your Highness, can you locate a better battlefield?”

Yan Wushen’s Divine Eye of Origin was staring at Pan Ruo as if her soul was about to be exposed. Yan Wushen’s vigilance was unrivaled among cultivators of the same generation.

“The other few Dark Stars are all good choices. For example, the third Dark Star,” Pan Ruo said.

The reason why the battlefield could not be located on the seventh Dark Star was that the Rakshasas and the Immortal Vampires were here, which would affect the outcome of the battle.

Therefore, the battlefield had to be relocated somewhere else.

There was an uncertain factor in the interior of the third Dark Star, which was the biggest reason why Pan Ruo wanted to lure everyone there. Only in this way could the Immortal Vampires and Zhang Ruochen have a chance of survival.

Yan Wushen shook his head gently and said, “It’s true that we have a greater advantage in the battle on the Dark Star, but the Celestial Captives will never agree.”

Pan Ruo did not speak again.

Yan Wushen’s will was stronger than Wujiang. He would not be controlled by anyone, and his mind was extremely terrifying. If he continued to speak, he would definitely be suspected, and the consequences would be unimaginable.

Yan Wushen withdrew his gaze from Pan Ruo and said, “Next, I still have to meet Lord Hornless. I’ll take my leave first!”

Many cultivators present still did not understand Yan Wushen's intentions.

Another battlefield?

How?

Should the Celestial Captives go to the Immortal Vampires' home planet?

Yes, that was Yan Wushen's plan.

Won't Yan Wushen be afraid of being struck to death by Lord Hornless?

Yes, Yan Wushen was fearless.

"Yan Wushen is courting death. He thinks his cultivation is strong, and he dares to go to the seventh Dark Star alone. Wait and see. With Lord Hornless's cultivation, he won't need three strikes to kill Yan Wushen."

"Yan Wushen claims to be a Yuanhui level genius. He's even more arrogant than Zhang Ruochen. He'll definitely pay the price."

"It's best if Yan Wushen doesn't die. After all, working with the Yanluo clan is beneficial to us."

"He's being suicidal. What can he do?"

The cultivators of the three upper clans were discussing and mocking. They were ready to watch a good show.

At that moment, Pan Ruo suddenly said, "I'll go with you."

This was the only chance to get close to Lord Hornless. She couldn't miss it.

Otherwise, Zhang Ruochen and the Immortal Vampires would definitely lose.

In the past, the Immortal Vampires had the absolute advantage. There was no need to deliberately mobilize the pawn such as Lord Hornless. But now, she couldn't. Only by using this pawn well could she break Yan Wushen's momentum.

Yan Wushen turned his head and looked surprised. "Your Highness Pan Ruo..."

Pan Ruo did not give him the chance to reject and said, "I have cultivated the Door of True Self. If the negotiation fails, I can suppress the power of Lord Hornless. You will have the chance to escape."

Then, she added, "Only if we go together can we have a chance to negotiate. After all, you can only represent the Yanluo clan, not the three upper clans."

Yan Wushen's shocked expression disappeared and he nodded with a smile. He said, "Good, you have guts. Even if the negotiation fails, I will definitely send you away first."

Watching Yan Wushen and Pan Ruo flying towards the seventh Dark Star, the cultivators of the three upper clans were still in shock.

Has Her Highness gone mad?

Negotiating with the Celestial Captives and changing the battlefield with Lord Hornless, was there anything more ridiculous than this?

The two flew side by side. Yan Wushen said telepathically, "Does Her Highness have a deep relationship with Zhang Ruochen?"

"Why do you ask that, Mr. Yan?" said Pan Ruo. Her face was as cold as an ice mountain, without any emotion.

Yan Wushen said, "I heard that you fell into the third Dark Star with Zhang Ruochen, and he let you escape once. That's why I'm a little confused."

"I heard that on the eve of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, you treated Zhang Ruochen to a drink, The Twelve Blossoms. I also know that you took Chi Kunlun as your disciple. Aren't your relationship with Zhang Ruochen closer?" Pan Ruo said.

Yan Wushen was stunned for a moment. Then he laughed loudly. "I was worried that your Highness Pan Ruo will be like other secular women and your heart has been captured by Zhang Ruochen. After all, only he and I are heroes of this Yuanhui period. There are no women who can resist our charm. The difference is that although I am from Yanluo Clan, I cultivate Buddhism. I am destined to have no attachments and be heartless and joyless all my life. But he was a person with emotions... No, to be exact, it should be when he seemed to have emotions, but in reality, he was heartless. When he seemed to be heartless, he actually had emotions. Your Highness Pan Ruo, you have to be careful!”

Pan Ruo obviously knew the reason behind his words. She said coldly, “I cultivated as a Buddha too.”

Yan Wushen was stunned again. He said solemnly, “Alright, now that your Highness Pan Ruo has said this, I can rest assured! We will definitely win this battle.”

Chapter 2388: Zhang Ruochen's Cruelty

Zhang Ruochen did not know how long he had been asleep. It seemed that 10,000 years had passed. He finally woke up.

He rose from the ground and sat. His mind was a jumbled mess and a blur. His body appeared to have transformed into something else. For a long time, his thoughts could not be brought together.

Zhang Ruochen wondered, 'Who... Who am I?

'Where am I?'

...

After sitting quietly for a long time, Zhang Ruochen's memories finally came together.

But his memory only stopped at the moment when he was talking to Yan Zhexian... No, it was the moment when he was talking to the Madre Bloody Shadow.

What happened after that?

He seems to recall that he and Yan Zhexian were kissing each other. They kissed each other's necks passionately.

'How was that possible?'

Zhang Ruochen frowned as he wondered. He could not calm down for a long time.

Could it be that he could no longer control his Yang Qi?

Otherwise, how could he kiss Yan Zhexian on the neck?

Zhang Ruochen could not help but touch his neck. He felt a faint pain.

However, the blood vessels bitten by Yan Zhexian had long healed. There was no scar.

Zhang Ruochen sensed something. He lowered his head and saw Yan Zhexian.

One had to know that they could only bring one weapon when they entered the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, so they were not wearing sacred robes or raiments. For two Supreme Saints, if something happened that was out of their control, their attires would be destroyed.

Yan Zhexian was very fair. She looked like she was made of divine jade.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at her and immediately looked away.

There was nothing much to see. Women were all the same.

However, Zhang Ruochen's gaze quickly fell on Yan Zhexian again. He couldn't look away.

Yan Zhexian's exquisite and suffocating figure curled up in his lower abdomen. She looked like she was five or six months pregnant.

Zhang Ruochen was a calm person, but at that moment, his eyes turned cold and he could not help but form a palm strike.

WHOOSH!

Divine fire scourged in his palm.

Finally, he withdrew his palm, he muttered to himself sadly, "Zhang Ruochen, you are really too weak. The so-called callousness and so-called ruthlessness are all faked. When you really need to kill decisively, you can't do it."

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that this ill-fated relationship with Yan Zhexian should not exist.

Although it was just an ill-fated relationship, he actually had a child.

If Zhang Ruochen let Yan Zhexian live and let the child be born, he would have had endless troubles in the Infernal Court. This was even more troublesome than having Chi Kunlun and Chi Kongyue.

The best way was to kill Yan Zhexian and the fetus in her belly decisively to prevent all this from happening.

Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen really could not kill his own flesh and blood.

Even if the child's mother hated him to the bone.

Even if he hated the baby's mother to the bone.

He could not do it. He just could not strike his child.

'God's will is playing tricks on me. Why would I have such a relationship with her? Could it be that the gods of Infernal Court deliberately set a trap for me?' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen tried hard to recall, but he could not remember why he and Yan Zhexian kissed each other on the neck. He could not remember what happened after the kiss.

"Maybe this child is not mine," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to slap himself as soon as he had this thought. A man could be promiscuous and amorous, but he couldn't avoid responsibility or refuse to accept it.

'Zhang Ruochen, your ambition is to break away from the situations of all the worlds and establish a new law and order. Now, what is in front of you is only a small problem, a very tiny problem.' Zhang Ruochen thought.

After a fierce psychological struggle, Zhang Ruochen stood up calmly, took out a robe, and put it on for Yan Zhexian.

Then, Zhang Ruochen looked around.

This was a 12-meters-high, 39-meters-long, and 18-meters-wide enclosed space.

In this space, a dense mist and colorful light were flowing around.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Zhexian should be in the sarcophagus.

At the bottom of the sarcophagus, there were numerous hard white roots. They grew close to the sarcophagus and extended up the stone wall, passing through the sarcophagus lid.

‘Are they the roots of the Madre Bloody Shadow?’ Zhang Ruochen pondered.

Zhang Ruochen jumped up and hit the top of the stone lid with his palm.

BOOM!

The earth-shattering sound kept echoing in the sarcophagus.

Zhang Ruochen slumped to the ground. His arm was in a lot of pain. In disbelief, he looked up.

How could he not open a coffin covered with one palm with his current physical strength?

Fortunately, he had only used a small amount of power. If he had used all of his strength, the recoil could have hurt him. It meant he had used all of his strength and struck himself.

“This is bad,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen rushed to Yan Zhexian like lightning. He put his wrist on the ground and leaned his head against her belly. He listened carefully with a solemn expression.

The explosion of the palm just now was so shocking. The rebounding force was so powerful. The baby was still in the early stages. How could the baby withstand such an impact?

Zhang Ruochen blamed himself. He had not been thinking properly!

Fortunately, the baby’s heartbeat was still normal and its vitality was still strong.

Zhang Ruochen let out a long sigh of relief.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen sensed something. He retreated faster and stood straight in the other corner of the sarcophagus. He put his hands behind his back and exuded a cold aura.

Yan Zhexian opened her eyes and slowly sat up.

Yan Zhexian’s current state was not much better than Zhang Ruochen’s. She only had a vague impression of what had happened before she fainted.

A moment later, Yan Zhexian felt something in her belly. She also noticed Zhang Ruochen, who was standing in the distance. Then she woke up suddenly.

A Supreme Saint-level figure was indeed not an ordinary woman. She did not scream or cry.

Yan Zhexian was more decisive than Zhang Ruochen. She slapped her stomach.

Zhang Ruochen's mouth corners twitched. In his eyes, there was a flash of rage. He was about to launch an attack.

Something strange happened.

The baby in her belly seemed to sense danger. It released a streak of blood-red divine light and bounced Yan Zhexian's falling palm back.

Yan Zhexian's hand was bloody and mangled.

"Such vigorous divine power. This is a natural Divine Fetus," said Zhang Ruochen. He was overjoyed.

Yan Zhexian's eyes were red. She wanted to strike a second time.

Zhang Ruochen's anger grew. He couldn't believe Yan Zhexian would be so ruthless towards her own flesh and blood.

"This child has gathered all the divine power and spiritual Qi of the Madre Bloody Shadow after her death. You can't kill her. Why don't you let me try?"

Tap Tap

Zhang Ruochen walked over step by step. He pretended to take out a sword from the Violet Gourd.

Zhang Ruochen thought, 'It was too dangerous!

'I had to get close to her first and suppress her by surprise.'

Yan Zhexian did not strike the second palm because she felt the heartbeat of the baby in her belly. She was a girl and had a life. She was kicking gently and full of vitality. Moreover, she had never felt so close before.

Although this feeling of flesh and blood being connected was only for a moment, she already knew that she could not do it anymore.

There was love at first sight, but the love between a mother and her child was much deeper. Even if she only felt the baby move slightly, she couldn't bear the thought of losing it.

'Yan Zhexian, you are of the Yanluo clan. How could you become so weak? The child in your belly is Zhang Ruochen's son. Are you really going to give birth to her?' Yan Zhexian wondered.

Yan Zhexian had an answer in her heart. She took a deep breath, raised her head, and stared at Zhang Ruochen who was holding a sword. She yelled, "Don't you dare! If you dare to kill her, I will self-detonate my Sainthood Source and perish with you."

Zhang Ruochen was shocked.

Zhang Ruochen thought, 'Yan Zhexian, you have changed so fast!

'One moment, you want to kill your child, and the next moment, you want to protect your child with your life.'

Zhang Ruochen wanted to make sure that Yan Zhexian wouldn't attack the baby again, so he said coldly, "I can't leave this bastard alive. She'll become a shackle in my heart and a stumbling block on my path of cultivation. I must kill her."

Zhang Ruochen was full of killing intent. His eyes turned bloodthirsty.

Yan Zhexian said resolutely, "Zhang Ruochen, you heartless, cold-blooded monster. No wonder you could kill Supreme Saint Manjian without hesitation and slaughter the Celestial Captives. She's your child. How could you kill her?"

"A great man must be ruthless. Today, not only will I kill her, but I'll also kill you. I'm a Yuanhui-level genius. My future is limitless. I can't let you affect my cultivation," Zhang Ruochen said decisively.

The sword in his hand rang.

Yan Zhexian looked around at the enclosed space, “You’re so disgusting. You don’t have any sense of responsibility that a man should have. I know I’m no match for you. However, my spiritual power is higher than yours. You can’t stop me from self-detonating my Sainthood Source. If you dare to take another step forward, we’ll die together.”

At that moment, Yan Zhexian seemed to have completely forgotten about losing her virginity. She only wanted to protect her baby.

She looked down on Zhang Ruochen even more and hated this man.

In the past, it was because Zhang Ruochen was too shameless, and his methods were too despicable.

Now, it was because Zhang Ruochen did something and didn’t want to take responsibility. He even wanted to kill his own woman and child.

He’s a monster.

Good for nothing.

His sins were intolerable.

‘No... why do I think that if I’m pregnant with his child or became his woman? We’re just two strangers. It’s all the Madre Bloody Shadow’s fault. If it wasn’t for her, we wouldn’t have this ill-fated relationship.’ Yan Zhexian thought.

Zhang Ruochen seemed to be intimidated by her, but he also seemed to be woken up by Yan Zhexian’s scolding. His face revealed a look of repentance and said, “You’re right. The child is innocent. How about this? After the Battle of Celestial-Hunting ends, you and I will return to the Bloodysky Clan. After the child is born, you can return to the Yanluo clan.”

Yan Zhexian understood what Zhang Ruochen meant. After the child was born, it would belong to him. She could do whatever she wanted. From then on, they would forget about one another and pretend that nothing had happened.

The child had nothing to do with her.

Yan Zhexian was naturally furious. She thought, ‘Who does Zhang Ruochen think he was? Did he think that I couldn’t even raise a child? The Yanluo clan was the supreme clan. My grandfather was a god, my great-grandfather was an ancient god, and my great-grandfather was a Grand Supreme Master.

How could the Xue Jue Family dare to take my child away?

The child was mine. Don’t even think about it.’

However, Yan Zhexian was worried that she would anger that monster, Zhang Ruochen. She was worried that he would kill her child with his sword again. So, she said perfunctorily, “Fine! As long as you don’t kill her, I will do as you said.”

Swoosh

In an instant, Zhang Ruochen appeared in front of her. He stabbed Yan Zhexian 144 times with his sword.

Yan Zhexian’s eyes were filled with sword light. She didn’t have time to defend herself.

“Zhang Ruochen, you can’t be so cruel. Please, let her live... She’s innocent... how can you be so cruel...”

Yan Zhexian cried and pleaded.

She cried until she lost her voice.

A moment later, Yan Zhexian found that Zhang Ruochen didn’t kill the baby in her belly. He only used the sword hilt to seal her cultivation. Even her Spirits were locked in the saint heart by the sword hilt.

Only now did she realize that she had no chance to self-destruct in front of Zhang Ruochen.

It happened in a flash!

It was even faster than the speed at which she released her spiritual power.

However, it was good that he did not kill the baby in her belly. At least Zhang Ruochen still had some humanity.

Yan Zhexian was actually very bright. It was just that she was too young and lacked experience. Her cultivation seemed to have reached the Supreme Saint Realm. In fact, she spent most of her time in seclusion and studied Talismans on the clan's sacred ground.

Even when she fought in duels, her opponents were her own clansmen.

Among the Yanluo clan, who would dare to hurt her? Who would dare to trick her?

In the real secular world, she might not even be able to compete with a teenage girl. Compared to Yan Wushen and Yan Huangtu, her gap was many miles apart.

Otherwise, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't have been able to fool her so easily.

Her attack just now had surprised Zhang Ruochen, and her speed seemed to have become faster. He immediately mobilized his spiritual power to analyze. He wanted to know if he had made any progress during this short period of sleep?

After analyzing, Zhang Ruochen was shocked beyond words.

'What was going on?' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

"The Madre Bloody Shadow said that the opportunities on this planet don't belong to me, but... But why has my cultivation improved so much?"

The number of precepts had increased by more than one billion.

The total number of precepts had reached five billion.

Despite the fact that there was still a significant gap between Zhang Ruochen and the likes of Yan Huangtu and Wujiang, it had already saved him several decades of hard cultivation time. Naturally, his combat prowess had improved significantly.

Among them, the five elemental precepts of metal, wood, water, fire, and earth had increased the most dramatically, by several orders of magnitude.

There was also an even bigger surprise.

The Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique became stronger, and the power of the five elements in him became purer. Every drop of blood, every inch of skin, and every bone seemed to be condensed from the purest power of five elements; it didn't contain any impurities.

Even the power of the Demigod-level physique, the divine blood of the Phoenix, had become one with the chaotic five elements.

His body was like chaos, and the five elements were like clouds and smoke.

In the past, Zhang Ruochen's physique wasn't actually the Inborn Five-Element Chaotic Body. It had been cultivated and had many impurities. But now, his physique was even purer than the Inborn Five-Element Chaotic Body.

Zhang Ruochen was so excited that he almost trembled.

This was because this physical body could perfectly match the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill and create a possibility for him to cultivate the Grade One Saintwill. He finally had hope.

At that moment, Zhang Ruochen was eager to fuse with the Earth Saintwill and take himself to the next level.

He thought of the Pale Blood Soil again.

The Madre Bloody Shadow had said that the Pale Blood Soil was right in front of him.

Where was it?

Chapter 2389: Attack of Insanity

“Forget it. The most important thing right now is to find a way to escape,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen hadn’t found the Pale Blood Soil, and he restrained himself from fusing the Earth Saintwill.

He had been trapped in the sarcophagus for god knows how many days. He also wondered if the Battle of Celestial-Hunting concluded?

Probably not.

If the Battle of Celestial-Hunting had ended, the gods of the Immortal Vampires and the Yanluo clan would have come to the planet’s core to save him and Yan Zhexian.

Yan Zhexian’s belly was either this big after the Madre Bloody Shadow infused it with divine power and Qi, or she had been pregnant for months. Overall, Zhang Ruochen was concerned when he saw her belly.

When Zhang Ruochen entered the planet’s core, the Immortal Vampires indeed had the absolute advantage. It was almost impossible for them to lose.

However, the Yanluo clan would never give up the first place to the Immortal Vampires. They would definitely fight back fiercely and use all means at their disposal. The Battle of Celestial-Hunting would become more and more intense in the later stages.

Zhang Ruochen had to return to the battlefield this instant.

He began to try all kinds of methods to open the sarcophagus.

Yan Zhexian gradually recovered from her breakdown in the corner.

When she woke up just now, her mind was a mess, and then she found that she was pregnant. Later, she and Zhang Ruochen both wanted to kill the baby in her belly. She had been in an unprecedented extreme mood swing.

After she calmed down, she immediately understood many things.

First of all, she had been deceived by Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had never thought of killing the baby in Yan Zhexian's belly. If he wanted to kill the child, he would have done it when she was unconscious.

Yan Zhexian thought, 'Damn it!

'Damn Zhang Ruochen!

'He probably wants to use this method to continue pretending to be cold-blooded and heartless. Also, he's testing me to see if I won't kill the baby in my belly again.'

Yan Zhexian closed her eyes. The more she thought about it, the angrier she got.

She was angry that she thought she was smart, but she was fooled by Zhang Ruochen. Especially since she had been too weak just now. She had begged Zhang Ruochen and even cried.

It was too humiliating!

It was even more humiliating than when she had been captured by Zhang Ruochen on the home planet of the Yanluo clan and taken advantage of.

Next, she understood another thing. She and Zhang Ruochen didn't have intercourse.

Because she sensed Zhang Ruochen's blood in her body.

She was different from Zhang Ruochen. She was born with the Five-element AzureTerra Neverwithers Physique. The divine power and spiritual Qi of the Madre Bloody Shadow did not change her physique too much.

Her physique had reached its pinnacle and could not continue to change.

Therefore, Yan Zhexian knew that she had Zhang Ruochen's blood in her body, but Zhang Ruochen did not know that he had her blood in his body.

Earlier, they were not kissing each other but sucking each other's blood.

However, now that she was pregnant, who would believe that she and Zhang Ruochen were innocent?

Moreover...

Yan Zhexian looked at the robe that belonged to Zhang Ruochen. There was nothing under the robe. Suddenly, she let out a long sigh. Were she and Zhang Ruochen really innocent?

No one in the whole Infernal Court would believe it.

The divine power and Qi of the Madre Bloody Shadow, which had been cultivated for many years, gave birth to the baby in my womb. But it absorbed my blood and Zhang Ruochen's. It has something to do with Zhang Ruochen. Destiny, why should I be entangled with Zhang Ruochen?' Thinking of that, Yan Zhexian let out a long sigh again.

Yan Zhexian looked at Zhang Ruochen in the distance and recalled her brief encounter with Zhang Ruochen.

In terms of talent and intelligence, Zhang Ruochen was definitely the best among the cultivators of his generation.

In terms of appearance, Zhang Ruochen was a first-class handsome man.

In terms of family background, the Xue Jue family was ancient and powerful, and Wargod Bloodximus was revered and worshiped by all cultivators of the Infernal Court.

Zhang Ruochen seemed to have no choice. He was a fatal attraction to every woman. But why did Yan Zhexian not like Zhang Ruochen?

After thinking for a long time, Yan Zhexian had an answer.

The most fundamental reason was not that Zhang Ruochen had taken advantage of her. After all, Zhang Ruochen only wanted to leave the home planet of the Yanluo clan alive. He didn't mean to humiliate her and take advantage of her.

The most fundamental reason was that she hated Zhang Ruochen from the start.

Zhang Ruochen was a cultivator from the Celestial Court, but he betrayed the Celestial Court and joined the Infernal Court. He could even kill his close friend, Supreme Saint Manjian.

Many cultivators also said that Zhang Ruochen was a spy sent by the Celestial Court to the Infernal Court.

Yan Zhexian didn't like either of these two types of people.

The man she liked was not only talented but also an indomitable hero. He was a strong man who valued loyalty and righteousness. He would not easily change his beliefs and stand, and he should not be a sinister and despicable person.

In the last Yuanhui period, Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian were the two most outstanding talents.

However, Yan Zhexian only worshiped Wargod Bloodximus and despised Huang Tian.

If Zhang Ruochen were still with the Celestial Court, Yan Zhexian would be filled with endless expectations and admiration for him even if they were enemies. It was even possible for her to fall in love with him.

She was such a willful and romantic woman who yearned for her husband to be perfect.

From the beginning, she had been prejudiced and disgusted with Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Zhexian thought, 'This baby belongs to me alone. Zhang Ruochen can forget about having anything to do with my baby. After the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, I will return to the Yanluo clan and give birth to her. I will never marry any man in my life.

'Now, I have to stall Zhang Ruochen. I can not let him return to the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Without Zhang Ruochen, the Immortal Vampires will never be a match for the Yanluo clan.'

Yan Zhexian stood up and walked to Zhang Ruochen. She asked, "You still can't open the sarcophagus?"

"Yup!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had tried all kinds of methods, but the lid of the sarcophagus did not move at all.

There were no divine patterns or mechanisms inside the sarcophagus.

They were completely trapped here!

Yan Zhexian was delighted. She said calmly, "Let's not go out. When the Battle of Celestial-Hunting is over, the gods will come to save us. Why don't we just talk for now?"

"What was there to talk about?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yan Zhexian said, "Our relationship has become closer now, yet we don't know much about each other. Should we keep distancing ourselves forever? Or we could try to get to know each other better."

"Is that necessary?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Yan Zhexian wanted to hold him back and didn't want him to go out.

"I've heard a lot about you," Yan Zhexian said. "You've succeeded in crossing the tenth region of the Sea of Truth. You have two children with Kunlun's Goddess Chi Yao. You are a highly regarded emissary of the Moon goddess. You have fought with Yan Wushen three times. You have fought against the Saint Realm Warriors of the entire Infernal Court alone etc... You are one of the most legendary cultivators of this Yuanhui period.

"But why did you join the Infernal Court? Don't you have a deep hatred for the Infernal Court? Don't you hate the Immortal Vampires the most?"

"Did you ever think that the cultivators who used to worship you and admire you would be disappointed? Did you ever think that the gods who once groomed you would be heartbroken? Although you were ostracized and suppressed by many cultivators in the Celestial Court, you still have many friends who support you and share your hardships with you. Many gods protect you.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Are you sure you want to have a good talk with me?”

“I just want to know, have you really betrayed your beliefs, betrayed your friends, or become a spy of the Celestial Court?” Yan Zhexian asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Are these the only two possibilities in your eyes?”

Yan Zhexian frowned and said, “Could there be a third possibility?”

“There are many things that you don’t understand. With your noble status, you can do whatever you want. You can choose your future, choose what you like, and dispose of what you dislike. However, there are countless lives in every world. They don’t have a choice.”

With that, Zhang Ruochen continued to figure out how to open the sarcophagus.

At the beginning of the battle, the spiritual-power Supreme Saints sent by the Immortal Vampires to gather intelligence on the other nine clans had all returned.

Now, 324 cultivators were participating in the battle on the Immortal Vampires’ home planet. 172 of them were Nine-Step Saint King. Even though they had consumed the Altofruits and earned a large number of heavenly and earthly treasures at the festival, their realms still hadn’t broken through.

Of the remaining 152 Supreme Saints, nearly 100 of them were Talisman Masters and Array Masters.

Lord Xia Yu, who was in charge of the clan’s home planet, had been under a lot of pressure recently.

The Immortal Vampires’ points were constantly being deducted. She knew that the Yanluo clan must have found those Supreme Saints who had their clansmen with them. All the clansmen had been slain.

Zhang Ruochen had guessed correctly. Yan Huangtu had already formed an alliance with Pink Skull.

Only the three Scionesses of Destiny could accurately predict where the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires were hiding.

“The Yanluo clan will definitely attack our home planet. Why hasn’t Zhang Ruochen returned from underground? Please be safe.”

Lord Xia Yu was worried. She wanted to go underground immediately, but she didn’t have the strength to fight against the Bloody Shadowseeds. She had to restrain herself.

Lady Wind had not returned and was believed to have been doomed. The Immortal Vampires’ home planet was completely dependent on Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu had sent cultivators to the seventh Dark Star. She wanted Lord Bladehell to lead the Immortal Vampires’ legion of Supreme Saints back to their home planet. However, she had already sent three Supreme Saints out and none returned.

It was the last day of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, and the unease in Lord Xia Yu’s heart grew stronger and stronger.

A Saint King descended from the sky and walked in quickly, he bowed and said, “Reporting to Lord Xia Yu, six High-Saint Array Masters and one High-Saint Talisman Master from the Yanluo clan, as well as more than a hundred Supreme Saint Array Masters and Talisman Masters, have appeared in the sky above our home planet.”

“They have come! The Yanluo clan actually has six High-Saint masters, how terrifying,” said Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu was a little flustered, but she had to control her emotions and expression. She had to remain calm. ‘So what if there were six High-Saint masters? They couldn’t break the formation I had set up in a day,’ She thought.

Another Nine-Step Saint King barged in and reported in panic, “The 52 Supreme Saint Array Masters of the Bone Clan have appeared not far from our planet. There are also three Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm escorting them.”

Lord Xia Yu asked, “Has Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull appeared yet?”

The Nine-Step Saint King shook his head.

“This is bad. Hundreds of Bone Clan Supreme Saints have appeared above our home planet,” Another cultivator came in to report.

Rumble

An earth-shaking explosion erupted in the sky, and the entire planet shook.

In the starry sky, many small and large-scale asteroids were gathered densely as they flew towards the blood-red home planet of the Immortal Vampires. They were blocked by the light barrier of the array and exploded with a dazzling light like fireworks.

The entire home planet seemed to have been ignited.

Meteors streaked across the sky, and the sound of collisions was endless.

The cultivators on the home planet saw that the sky had been hit and created dense ripples. The sound was deafening. Even with their cultivation, they felt like the end of the world had arrived.

How could cultivators like them stop the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan once the Star-Shield Grand Formation was broken?

“Why hasn’t cousin Ruochen returned yet? Without him, how can we fight against the strong enemies?” said Xue Ningxiao as she bit her lip. She wanted to go underground immediately.

The other Immortal Vampires were also worried. They asked, “Why hasn’t Lord Bladehell brought the Immortal Vampires back to defend?”

“It’s the last day. Even without Zhang Ruochen and the Immortal Vampires’ legion of Supreme Saints, we have to defend with our lives.”

“Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull haven’t shown themselves yet. Once they deployed the Supreme Artifact, our Star-Shield Grand Formation might not last a day.”

...

Xuemo swaggered into the governor’s mansion.

While all the Immortal Vampires were panicking and anxious, he was calm and relaxed. Not like Lord Xia Yu who was pretending to be calm. He was truly fearless.

Lord Xia Yu was ready to leave the governor’s mansion to take charge of the attack array and launch a counterattack.

Xuemo stopped her and said, “Xueqi hasn’t returned.”

That was a very strange phrase that came out from Xuemo’s mouth!

Lord Xia Yu was very anxious and did not have time to listen to Xuemo’s nonsense. She was about to walk past him.

Xuemo stopped her again and said, “Xueqi is one of the leaders of the intelligence group. He has the coordinates of the dimensional teleportation array on our planet. Don’t you think it’s a big problem that he didn’t return?”

Lord Xia Yu’s heart tightened. She realized that something was wrong, but she quickly shook her head and said, “Impossible. Xueqi couldn’t have betrayed the Immortal Vampires.”

“Of course, he couldn’t have betrayed the Immortal Vampires, but someone could have taken away part of his memories. If I’m not wrong, Xueqi was either killed or kicked out of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting,” said Xuemo.

Lord Xia Yu shouted, “Xue Ningxiao, destroy the dimensional teleportation array immediately!”

Xue Ningxiao was stunned outside the hall.

Xue Ningxiao thought, ‘Destroy the teleportation array?’

‘How would Lord Bladehell and the Immortal Vampires’ legion of Supreme Saints return?’

Xuemo smiled, “Ningxiao, don’t listen to Lord Xia Yu. Destroying the dimensional teleportation array is the worst plan. Once Yan Huangtu fails, they will attack the array on our home planet. How long can your array block them? There are seven High-Saint Array Masters and two Supreme Artifacts outside the planet.”

Lord Xia Yu said, “What do you suggest we should do?”

“The first step is to put this dimensional teleportation array on top.”

Xuemo pointed to the sky.

Lord Xia Yu thought of something and said, “You mean to put the teleportation array into the attack array of the Planet?”

“Haha, no wonder Zhang Ruochen values you so much. It seems that he’s not stupid just because of your body. That’s right. Put the teleportation array into the attack array. Activate it when Yan Huangtu and the others are about to arrive. Beat them up first,” Xuemo said.

Lord Xia Yu said, “But then the teleportation array will be destroyed!”

“It doesn’t matter. There’s another teleportation array on our planet. Zhang Ruochen asked me to keep an eye on it. No other cultivator knows its dimensional coordinates except us. Of course, the Saint Devourer at Lord Bladehell’s side knows it too.”

Then, Xuemo said, “If the first plan can’t severely injure the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan, then the second plan can only be activated.”

“What’s the second plan?” asked Lord Xia Yu.

Xuemo pointed to the ground and said, “The strongest defense and most terrifying attacks of the Immortal Vampires’ home planet are never in the sky, but underground.”

Chapter 2390: Bone Clan's Defeat

A thousand years ago, Xuemo's cultivation had reached the Supreme Saint Realm with his heaven-defying talent in Kunlun, where the precepts of heaven and earth were incomplete. Back then, he was Blood Empress's greatest enemy.

Blood Empress joined forces with Emperor Ming and Yan Lirento killed Xuemo.

To be exact, they didn't end Xuemo completely. He preserved his head and Saint Soul and hibernated for a thousand years.

After a thousand years, Xuemo woke up. His cultivation fell to the bottom. He didn't have a Sainthood Source or a complete body. However, he had cultivated and reached the Nine-Step Saint King Realm in the Endless Abyss within a few years.

At his pinnacle state, the precepts within Xuemo had exceeded 90 million. He could challenge the invincible Yan Wushen.

Xuemo seemed to be more than a thousand years old, but it couldn't be considered that. Zhang Ruochen's soul had merged with the Ninth Prince's body 800 years later. But that doesn't mean Zhang Ruochen was already over 800 years old, right?

In fact, the current Xuemo was completely different from Xuemo from 1,000 years ago. As though he had reincarnated.

Some Immortal Vampires god saw Xuemo as extraordinary. He used his divine spirits to ask the chief of the Demonsky Clan, "When did such a powerful junior appear in the Demonsky Clan? He just broke through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm and already possessed such paramount might."

The chief of the Demonsky Clan said calmly, "He's powerful? The Demonsky Clan is full of geniuses. Xuemo can only be considered to be above average!"

The god who asked just now really wanted to spit on the face of the Demonsky Clan chief.

The god thought, ‘Above-average?’

‘Why don’t you find another above-average person if you have the ability?’

Many gods of the Immortal Vampires had long been aware of Xuemo. He was the first cultivator from the Infernal Court to break into the Dark Star after entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

After coming out of the Dark Star, his cultivation had reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

In this Battle of Celestial-Hunting, there were a total of fifty-three cultivators who had entered the Dark Star. There were only six who could escape, and the death rate was almost 90%.

Xuemo was one of the six survivors. It was hard not to be noticed.

In Wargod Bloodximius’ divinity realm, the gods of the Bloodsky Clan were also discussing Xuemo.

“Xuemo’s body was already destroyed,” Blood Empress explained, “but in the Endless Abyss of Kunlun, he obtained the secret cultivation method of the Ancient Path of Wiccan and condensed the Deva Wiccan Demonic Physique.”

“Cultivating the Path of Wiccan? Interesting,” said Wargod Bloodximius.

For Wargod Bloodximius, who looked down on all living things, to say “interesting” was obviously something out of ordinary.

“The precepts of heaven and earth in this era are very different from those in the ancient times. It is no longer suitable to cultivate the Path of Wiccan. For him to be able to cultivate the Path of Wiccan to such an extent is indeed extraordinary,” said a god.

The Path of Wiccan was not inferior to the Nine Great Paths of the Ancients. It was a power that even gods yearned to grasp.

Apart from that, the Path of Wiccan also had all sorts of ancient secrets that could open up the various ancient ruins.

Unfortunately, times had changed. Today, there were very few cultivators who could cultivate the Path of Wiccan successfully. Even the Deva Path of Great Wiccan of the Yanluo clan had been modified so that the Yanluo clan cultivators could cultivate it.

Blood Empress said, “He can control the Power of Wiccan. It should have something to do with cultivating nine Demonstone Engravings at the same time.”

...

Amane once again descended into Luo Yan’s divinity realm and said, “Just now, I went to read the Tome of the Divines. Xuemo is ranked second in first class, second only to Yuan Qianmo.”

Luo Yan was surprised and said, “With such a high ranking, does that mean that he will definitely become a god?”

Amane nodded and said, “Yuan Qianmo is a demigod. He is just one step away from becoming a god. To be exact, he could have become a god two hundred years ago. It’s just that he has been suppressing his realm.”

The Tome of the Divines was one of the six Heavenly Tomes of Destiny. In the Celestial Court and Infernal Courts, the names of Supreme Saints who had a 10% chance of becoming a god would naturally appear on it.

The higher the chance of one becoming a deity, the higher the ranking.

Those who could be classified as first-class were almost all demigods. They were definitely people who could become deities.

Xuemo was only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he was already classified as first-class and was ranked second. Naturally, Luo Yan was shocked.

Luo Yan sighed, “Why are there so many outstanding figures in this thousand years?”

“Not this thousand years. It should be this Yuanhui period. This Yuanhui period has given birth to too many powerful juniors. It’s just that there are especially many in this thousand years.” Amane said.

Luo Yan’s eyes darkened, and he said, “Perhaps it is a sign that a cruel era is about to arrive. I hope that the War of the Divines from 100,000 years ago will not happen again.”

Even a prominent figure like Luo Yan did not wish for a large-scale War of the Divines to erupt.

Every time he thought about it, Luo Yan felt that the battle from 100,000 years ago was too terrifying.

The injuries from that battle had affected him for 100,000 years.

Luo Yan and Amane’s hearts were heavy. They knew very well that there would be an even more chaotic era soon. It was impossible to avoid it.

It was very likely that it would be even crueler than 100,000 years ago.

Luo Yan said, “Zhang Ruochen’s name hasn’t appeared on the Tome of the Divines yet?”

Zhang Ruochen was in a very low ranking.

Luo Yan said, “It shouldn’t be because he was able to condense the Grade Two Saintwill. It’s because his state of mind has changed. It’s good that he got a ranking... At least there’s still hope for him.”

Many cultivators thought that with Zhang Ruochen’s talent, he would definitely become a god.

But in reality, Zhang Ruochen’s name didn’t appear on the Tome of the Divines for a long time. According to the gods’ analysis, the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm would be big obstacles for Zhang Ruochen. He might not be able to break through and would not advance forever.

...

On the Immortal Vampires' home planet.

The asteroids still crashed crazily onto the Star-Shield Grand Formation. The seven High-Saint Array Masters used the asteroids as a cover to break into the array and begin to break it.

At the same time, Xuemo moved the dimensional teleportation array to the sky and placed it inside the array.

All the Immortal Vampires' Array Masters stood at the important nodes of the attack array, waiting for Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull to come.

Lord Xia Yu looked up and said, "The High-Saint Array Masters of the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan are already breaking the first layer of the Star-Shield Grand Formation. Why don't we activate the attack array first and deal with them?"

Xuemo stared at the teleportation array and said, "If they want to break through the array, it won't be that soon. Focus on dealing with Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull. Don't just attend to one thing and lose sight of another."

Two hours later.

There was no response from the teleportation array. However, the first layer of the Star-Shield Grand Formation was on the verge of collapse. 70% of the inscriptions on the array had been broken.

Lord Xia Yu was anxious and said, "Yan Huangtu might not come through the teleportation array. I think we have to activate the attack array immediately and deal with the seven High-Saint Array Masters first."

Xuemo said, "Calm down! The 300 Bone Clan Supreme Saints were gathered outside to resist the power of the attack array. You will not be able to kill the seven High-Saint Array Masters. Yan Huangtu will undoubtedly attend. I'm certain of it. Very soon, the moment the first layer of the Star-Shield Grand Formation is broken, he will come to the teleportation array. That's the best time."

BOOM!

The first layer of the Star-Shield Grand Formation was broken.

Many asteroids fell and hit the second layer of the Star-Shield Grand Formation like raindrops.

While most of the cultivators' attention was attracted, a beam of light appeared in the teleportation array floating in the void.

Lord Xia Yu stood on the Pleiades Lotus and said, "Finally! Activate the array and launch the strongest attack."

All the Immortal Vampires' Array Masters released their spiritual power and Saint Qi activated the dense array inscriptions.

The first wave of attack was crucial because all the invading cultivators were gathered in the array at this time, which was equivalent to a fixed-point attack. However, once they escaped the first wave of attack, the invading cultivators would instantly scatter, and the effect of the attacking array would greatly decrease.

"Wait a moment."

Lord Xia Yu was stopped by Xuemo. His gaze was fixed on the three-dimensional teleportation array. Through the light, he could see inside.

There was a figure in the array.

It wasn't Yan Huangtu nor Pink Skull.

It was Sang Ki, a Bone Clan Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He was 40 meters tall and had a pitch-black physique. He held a dark-red evil saber.

"Haha! Yan Huangtu is indeed powerful. He sent a bait first to make sure nothing went wrong. Zhang Ruochen's woman, I'll leave this to you. I'm going to meet the Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

Xuemo turned into a blood shadow. It shot out at high speed and crashed into Sang Ki in the portal, sending him flying.

Lord Xia Yu didn't pay much attention to the way Xuemo addressed her, but she was shocked by Xuemo's behavior.

A mere Supreme Saint at the beginning of the Hundred-Shackle Realm dared to challenge a Supreme Saint at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

'Do you think you're Zhang Ruochen or Yan Wushen?' Lord Xia Yu thought.

Swoosh

A beam of light appeared once again in the dimensional teleportation array.

It's here!

Lord Xia Yu did not look at Xuemo who was courting death anymore. Together with the Immortal Vampires' Array Masters, she activated the ninth-class attack array to the extreme. The Pleiades Lotus under her feet emitted an extremely dark radiance and merged with the array.

Yan Huangtu, Pink Skull, and more than 100 Bone Clan Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm appeared in the dimensional teleportation array.

All of them were powerhouses, and their saint might surge.

Pink Skull said, "Actually, we don't need to send Sang Ki over. The main forces of the Immortal Vampires are all on the seventh Dark Star. With our strength, even if all the Immortal Vampires on our planet were to ambush outside the teleportation array, they would only be like a mantis trying to stop a chariot. Moreover, they might not know that we have the coordinates of the teleportation array."

Yan Huangtu's eyes shone with a golden light as he stared at the light of the teleportation array. His expression changed as he shouted, "All cultivators, activate your Artifacts to defend yourselves. Hurry!"

The attack array's power attacked the teleportation array from all directions. It was a lightning bolt in the shape of a dragon. Each bolt had a diameter of 3 meters.

CRACK!

The teleportation array shattered instantly and turned into dust.

More than a hundred Bone Clan Supreme Saints were sent flying.

The Regal Artifacts were shattered by the bolts of lightning. The bones of the Bone Clan Supreme Saints were turned into ashes.

In just an instant, fourteen Bone Clan Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm perished and their bodies were burned to ashes.

Many of the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints of the Bone Clan were severely injured and their bones flew in the air.

Only the bones of the 40-odd Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints of the Bone Clan were relatively well-preserved and could continue fighting.

Pink Skull was also blasted away by the array. However, she had a divine bone body and she managed to activate the Supreme Artifact to protect her body in time. Hence, her injuries were not serious.

However, the Bone Clan being so heavily injured made her so angry that she was about to go crazy.

“Lord Xia Yu, you’re courting death.”

Pink Skull’s body grew rapidly, becoming 100 meters tall, 1,000 meters tall, 10,000 meters tall, and 100,000 meters tall... its enormous and ferocious body waved a huge hand and slapped Lord Xia Yu, who was standing on the Pleiades Lotus.

Lord Xia Yu remained calm and controlled the attack array.

Over a hundred dragon-shaped lightning bolts flew out from the array and struck the giant divine skeleton’s body. Pink Skull turned black and fell back into the array.

Chapter 2391: The Pale Blood Soil

“Those severely injured Bone Clan Supreme Saints, retreat from the battlefield at once.”

“Those who can still fight, quickly disperse or gather beside me and Supreme Saint Yanhong. Do not clash head-on with the offensive power of the formation.”

Yan Huangtu immediately sent out two telepathic messages. He was also injured.

The Immortal Vampires’ Array Masters, led by Lord Xia Yu, created this attack array. They put in a lot of time and effort to set it up. They also had a Supreme Artifact as the array’s core. Its power was, of course, terrifying.

“I will withdraw from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.”

“I... I want to withdraw from the battlefield.”

...

Voices were heard one after the other. The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms then teleported the cultivators away.

At that critical moment, they did not feel ashamed. Their priority was to stay alive.

There were a total of 47 Bone Clan Supreme Saints in the attack array, including Yan Huangtu, Pink Skull, and Sang Ki. All of them were the top-notch powerhouses in the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The array was still operating as streaks of dragon-shaped lightning flew out. However, it was very difficult for them to pose a threat to the lives of the Bone Clan Supreme Saints in the array.

Their cultivation was strong and their speed was fast. They could avoid dragon-shaped lightning and even fight against a bolt of single dragon-shaped lightning.

They had only forced the two Bone Clan Supreme Saints to retreat from the battlefield after three consecutive breaths.

There were 45 left.

Yan Huangtu's face was ice cold. "Where is Zhang Ruochen?" he demanded of Lord Xia Yu. "Why hasn't he shown up?"

Even though Lord Xia Yu's array was powerful, the person Yan Huangtu feared the most was still Zhang Ruochen.

As Lord Xia Yu controlled the array, she said, "Zhang Ruochen is in the array. Can't you see him?"

The Bone Clan Supreme Saints were shocked. They looked around.

Yan Huangtu snorted. "Zhang Ruochen isn't even on the planet."

After the first wave of attack, all the cultivators were thrown into chaos. They were all injured. If Zhang Ruochen was on the home planet, that would be his best chance to attack.

He could use the Violet Gourd to kill them all.

But Zhang Ruochen didn't attack.

There was only one explanation. Zhang Ruochen wasn't even on the home planet.

Lord Xia Yu knew that Yan Huangtu was probably trying to trick her, so she kept her mouth shut and concentrated on mobilizing the power of the array. She condensed hundreds of dragon-shaped lightning bolts and attacked Yan Huangtu.

The whole world became dark.

The violent power surged everywhere. It could easily tear apart the Supreme Saints' Neverwithers physique.

Lord Xia Yu still didn't know how to pretend.

Yan Huangtu's guess was confirmed when he saw Lord Xia Yu in this manner. He is no longer hesitant. He channeled the Yanluo Qi into the Supreme Artifact, the Scepter of Heaven's Pass.

Besides him, 13 other Bone Clan Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm also poured their power into the artifact.

The power of the Supreme Artifact caused the attack array to tremble violently. The huge home planet also shook and many Dimensional Rifts appeared in the air.

“Use the Supreme Artifact to kill that b*tch Xia Yu and tear her into pieces.”

“Use all of your strength to avenge the fallen Bone Clan Supreme Saints.”

“Kill! Kill all the Immortal Vampires.”

...

All the Bone Clan Supreme Saints were filled with death aura and killing intent.

Originally, they were here to beat the Immortal Vampires to the bottom of a pit. However, they had only just arrived and had been severely injured.

How disappointed were the Bone Clan gods when they saw this scene?

The entire Infernal Court was probably laughing at the Bone Clan.

Fight!

They would regain their lost face.

Pink Skull and the other 17 Bone Clan Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints activated the Supreme Artifacts and attacked Lord Xia Yu from another direction.

They knew very well that the Pleiades Lotus beneath Lord Xia Yu's feet was the core of the attack array.

The attack array would naturally be destroyed if they killed Lord Xia Yu and destroyed the core.

...

Within the sarcophagus.

“What a strong Power of Earth.”

Zhang Ruochen pressed his palm on the wall of the sarcophagus. Instantly, the Precepts of Earth in him became very active. Then, the precepts of the five elements were all very active.

His palm showed signs of petrification.

He quickly withdrew his palm. The petrified part of his palm quickly disappeared and returned to normal.

At the same time, a powerful and pure Power of Earth fused into his body and spread throughout his body.

‘What’s happening? Could it be... ‘ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen’s heart beat faster. He revealed a happy expression and carefully observed the sarcophagus wall.

His spiritual power could not penetrate it and was isolated by a mysterious power.

Zhang Ruochen, on the other hand, could see something extraordinary with the Eye of Truth. The sarcophagus had a very dense structure. Even if it was only a stone wall, the Earth’s Power contained within it was greater than that of a planet.

“Interesting, very interesting! No wonder the Madre Bloody Shadow said that the Pale Blood Soil was right in front of us,” said Zhang Ruochen and he couldn’t help but laugh.

Yan Zhexian noticed the sarcophagus’s unusualness. She asked, “Could this sarcophagus be made from the Pale Blood Soil? It’s amazing. How much Pale Blood Soil was used?”

The Pale Blood Soil was the number one Artifact of the Immortal Vampires. It was also known as the immortal soil, the soil of rebirth, and the soil of resurrection.

If a sarcophagus was made from the Pale Blood Soil, one could imagine how precious it was.

Yan Zhexian said, “Release the seal on me now.”

Zhang Ruochen ignored her. He sat down cross-legged and prepared to refine and absorb the Pale Blood Soil.

Since he couldn't open the sarcophagus, he could only "devour" it.

Perhaps he could take this opportunity to fuse the Earth Saintwill.

'The precepts of the five elements in my body are 300 million, far more than other Paths. The chances of success should be high,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

He thought for a moment. Just in case, he took out a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and held it in his palm. He was ready to swallow it at any time.

Yan Zhexian's cheeks swelled with rage after Zhang Ruochen ignored her. "Can you digest all of these Pale Blood Soil by yourself?" she asked. "Aren't you afraid of dying as a result of overeating?"

Zhang Ruochen stared at her.

He couldn't let anyone disturb him while he was fusing the saintwill. Even if Yan Zhexian's cultivation was sealed, she could still be a threat. So, Zhang Ruochen put her into the Violet Gourd.

"You have all the divine power and Essence Qi of the Madre Bloody Shadow in your body," Zhang Ruochen said to himself as he patted the gourd. "The advantages are numerous. Don't even try to compete with me for the Pale Blood Soil."

The baby in Yan Zhexian's belly was many times more powerful than the energy contained in a divine source.

Even though she was the one carrying the baby, it gave her more benefits.

Yan Zhexian's future path to godhood would be easier than countless cultivators.

Furthermore, the speed of her cultivation would be ridiculous. Yan Wushen and Yan Huangtu might not be able to catch up.

It could be said that Yan Zhexian had taken away the opportunity of the Immortal Vampires' home planet!

Time transcended quickly. The Precepts of Earth in Zhang Ruochen's body grew more and more. They kept changing into the Precepts of Water, Precepts of Fire, Precepts of Metal, and Precepts of Wood.

In such a short time, the precepts of the five elements increased from 300 million to 400 million, and then to 500 million.

When they grew to 800 million, the total number of precepts of the five elements in Zhang Ruochen's body had transcended the sum of all the other precepts. It had reached a critical point.

His body was no longer in the state of flesh and blood. It was colorful, like a colorful human-shaped Godstone.

The five precepts were gathered into five different colored rivers. They made their way through his body. They broke the shackle wherever they went, like a river breaking a bank.

CRACK!

CRACK!

...

The shackles broke one by one.

Zhang Ruochen's Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique expanded again. He shouted, "Saintwill merge with the five elements."

The Earth Saintwill was released and rushed toward the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. The two forcefully collided.

Boom Boom

The Saintwill collide again and again.

However, the repulsion was too strong. The Earth Saintwill kept bouncing back. There were no signs of fusion.

Zhang Ruochen didn't take the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill immediately. He wanted to try it first. After all, this was the sixth type of Saintwill, not the seventh.

If he could succeed without taking the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, his chances of cultivating the Grade One Saintwill would increase greatly.

...

...

Lord Xia Yu and the Immortal Vampires' Array Master managed to hold on for 15 minutes and forced the two Bone Clan Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm out of the battlefield.

However, the attack array was also damaged by the two Supreme Artifacts. It was on the verge of collapse.

At the northwest border of the Demonsky Continent, more than a hundred Immortal Vampires looked at the sky filled with thunder and fire. They could clearly feel the destructive power colliding with each other.

Most of the cultivators were Nine-Step Saint Kings. Their bodies trembled and their legs swayed uncontrollably.

"The collision of three Supreme Artifacts can be considered a high-level battle in a battle between Supreme Saints."

"The array is about to be broken. Who can stop Yan Huangtu and Supreme Saint Yanhong?"

"A Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint with my cultivation level can kill me with the snap of his finger."

Xue Ningxiao looked at the shocking battle in the sky and controlled the fear in her heart. She followed the instructions of Xuemo and formed two thousand-meter-long blood-red hands, tearing apart the plains beneath her feet.

Rumble

A hundreds-of-meters-wide crack appeared.

Below the crack was a dimensional teleportation array.

"Now you have a total of 140 million clansmen on you," Xue Ningxiao said. "Divide them equally amongst yourselves."

140 million clansmen were released from the sleeves of the 14 Immortal Vampires Supreme Saint. They were standing in the middle of the plains. There was an ocean of people with no end in sight.

“Each cultivator will take a million people. I will teleport you away,” said Xue Ningxiao.

One of the Supreme Saints said, “I am not leaving. I want to continue guarding my home planet.”

Xue Ningxiao said, “The reason why Yan Huangtu and Supreme Saint Yanhong came to our home planet is not to occupy this planet, but to kill all the Immortal Vampires. Protecting our people is the most important thing right now.”

“I’ll go first.”

A Nine-Step Saint King did not say anything else. He used his blood-red aura to envelop a million of his clansmen and stood in the teleportation array.

SWOOSH!

The array was activated and sent him to a certain part of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Following that, the teleportation array lit up continuously.

The 63 Nine-Step Saint Kings of Immortal Vampires were dispatched not long after. They traveled to 63 different locations in the starry sky, bringing 63 million clansmen with them.

A deafening roar, ten times louder than before, erupted from the sky.

The Supreme Power turned into a shockwave that could be seen by the naked eye. It descended from the sky and covered the entire planet. It surged toward the ground of their home planet.

Pfft

In an instant, a Nine-Step Saint King spat out blood and half-knelt on the ground.

Even Xue Ningxiao, who had reached the Supreme Saint Realm, had her eardrums ruptured and two blood lines flowed out.

Fortunately, the 14 Supreme Saints had kept the remaining seventy-seven million members of their clan.

“The attack array has been compromised. There isn’t enough time to keep teleporting. Everyone, go underground.” said Xue Ningxiao.

Xue Ningxiao turned into a streak of light and flew into the air. She descended from the sky and stomped on the teleportation array, intending to destroy it.

After waiting for so long, Lord Bladehell and the Immortal Vampires’ legion of Supreme Saints did not return. There was no point in continuing to keep this teleportation array. At the very least, they could not leave it for Yan Huangtu and Supreme Saint Yanhong.

“You are not allowed to destroy the array.”

Supreme Saint Yanhong’s voice came from the sky.

Supreme Saint Yanhong’s voice contained powerful spiritual energy. It was just a simple sentence, but it made Xue Ningxiao’s thoughts blurry. She flew in the air and could not continue to stomp down.

Supreme Saint Yanhong’s voice was like a command, and Xue Ningxiao couldn’t resist.

The skeleton-like Supreme Saint Yanhong broke through the atmosphere and flew towards the teleportation array.

Supreme Saint Yanhong could use the Path of Destiny to predict the locations of the 63 Nine-Step Saint Kings who had just left as long as she could protect the teleportation array.

Otherwise, the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was so vast. Even if the Bone Clan and the Yanluo clan had the power to reach the heavens, they would not be able to find all 63 Nine-Step Saint Kings within a day.

However, the Immortal Vampires knew that the teleportation array had to be destroyed.

“I’ll hold her for a moment. You guys destroy the teleportation array immediately.”

Just now, the Supreme Saint who said that he would “continue to guard our own planet” let out a long roar. The Saint Blood in his body burned as he spread out his six blood wings and flew into the sky, crashing directly into Supreme Saint Yanhong.

“You bunch of trash want to destroy the teleportation array? Dream on.” said Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Supreme Saint Yanhong released all of her spiritual energy and covered the area within a thousand miles. She suppressed all the Immortal Vampires cultivators.

At the same time, she struck the head of the Immortal Vampires Supreme Saint who was burning his Saint Blood.

Boom

His head exploded and his body was split into two.

The difference in cultivation level was too great. He could not stop Supreme Saint Yanhong for even a second.

Supreme Saint Yanhong was overcome with indescribable joy. Previously, the Immortal Vampires had severely injured the Bone Clan, and they had already formed a feud. She was finally going to be able to teach the Immortal Vampires a lesson.

She did not need to kill them. All she needed to do was to beat them into a sorry state.

After all, as an intruder, killing an Immortal Vampire cultivator would cost her 500,000 points.

Suddenly, Supreme Saint Yanhong sensed a dangerous presence and looked up.

The body of the Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint, which she had split in half, remerged. Her body turned crimson red and emitted a blood-red light that was boundless. She unleashed a wave of ever-increasing destructive power.

Not good, that's a self-detonated Sainthood Source! Is this Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint crazy? It's just a competition for rankings, not a life-and-death battle.'

Supreme Saint Yanhong cursed in her heart. She immediately mobilized all of her strength and injected it into the Supreme Artifact ring to boost her defense.

Although her opponent was only a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint, such a close self-detonation would pose a huge threat to Supreme Saint Yanhong.

Using this opportunity, Xue Ningxiao's body became illusory and escaped Supreme Saint Yanhong's spiritual pressure. She stomped on the teleportation array, shattering it into fragments.

Following that, Xue Ningxiao turned illusory once more as if she had blended into the air and charged into the ground.

Boom

The powerful destructive force of the self-detonated Sainthood Source crashed into Supreme Saint Yanhong's body. Her body fell straight down. On the plains, a huge pit with a diameter of a few hundred meters was created.

Dust rolled and surged.

Supreme Saint Yanhong crawled up from the bottom of the pit. She was not injured at all. Her body released a monstrous Qi of Death that covered the entire planet, she shouted, "Listen up, Bone Clan Supreme Saints. Go after the Immortal Vampire's cultivators that escaped underground. Don't kill them. Just destroy their Neverwither Physique or snatch their Sainthood Source. Destroying their cultivation is the true torture for them."

Chapter 2392: Colourful Radiance Brought Light to the World

Lord Xia Yu was launched into the air the moment the attack array was shattered. Saint Blood splattered everywhere as her skin split open.

She gritted her teeth and forced herself to stabilize her body. She sent a telepathic message through her spiritual energy, “All Array Masters, withdraw from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting immediately.”

“However, there are still two Star-Shield Grand Formations that need our protection.”

“No, we can still continue fighting.”

“There are still twenty hours before the Battle of Celestial-Hunting ends. We can delay them for as long as we can.”

None of the dozens of Array Masters of the Immortal Vampires left. Some entered the two Star-Shield Grand Formations, while others entered the illusion formations on the ground to continue fighting.

The first ranking of the ten clans was very close to their possession. On that crucial last day, they had to persist no matter what.

If they persevered for a moment longer, the time that the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan would have to chase after the Immortal Vampires would be reduced by a moment.

If they persisted for a moment longer, Zhang Ruochen might be able to rush back and stabilize the situation.

For the Immortal Vampires, there was no moment that they were more eager to see Zhang Ruochen than now. Not only the cultivators on the battlefield of their own clan but also the Immortal Vampires in the entire Infernal Court who were watching the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms.

Lord Xia Yu knew very well that the attack array had been destroyed. Under the combined efforts of the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan cultivators, the two Star-Shield Grand Formations would soon be broken.

Rather than continuing to resist and having her cultivation destroyed, it was better to leave the battlefield immediately.

However, she couldn't protect herself now, so she naturally couldn't order other cultivators.

A golden light rushed over.

It was Yan Huangtu.

“Die!” Yan Huangtu shouted.

Yan Huangtu didn't use any saint techniques and just threw out a punch without any fancy moves.

Lord Xia Yu barely held up the Pleiades Lotus to block the punch.

BANG!

She flew out, and more blood spilled from her body.

Yan Huangtu's punch was like a divine mountain pressing down. The power was endless, and it shook all the bones in her body to the point that they cracked and almost shattered.

Blocked it?

Yan Huangtu was slightly surprised. He chased after her and threw out another punch.

Lord Xia Yu's expression was ice-cold as she blocked it once more. Her slender body flew out like a scarecrow. The flesh and blood on her arms turned muddy, revealing her jade-like bones.

Yan Huangtu threw out the third punch.

Lord Xia Yu landed heavily on the ground, her entire body was in a bloody mess.

BANG!

Yan Huangtu landed on the ground, causing a slew of cracks to form. As he walked towards Lord Xia Yu, who was lying on the ground, the Nine Dragons Divine Marks revolved around his body, he said, “You were able to create a huge problem for me with the array, and you were able to take three punches from me without dying. You’re quite impressive. You stood out in the Celestial-Hunting Battle. The Immortal Vampires had undoubtedly nurtured you well. I don’t want to kill you. Surrender yourself by handing over the Pleiades Lotus and the Immortal Vampires!”

Lord Xia Yu stretched out her hand, which was half flesh and half bone, and supported herself on the ground. She slowly got up, flames burning in her eyes, and her expression was extremely resolute, she said in a deep voice, “I can’t admit defeat to the enemy. I’d rather die... than retreat.”

Every word was squeezed out from between her teeth.

Whoosh

She used a forbidden technique, and her bloody body began to burn.

“Heaven and earth devour blood and the Grim devours the soul.”

Blood-snake-shaped flames shot through her skin, flesh, and bones. Immense pain spread throughout her body, and she could not help but let out a long scream.

Her Supreme Saint’s blood and lifespan were quickly depleted, and they were converted into powerful energy, causing the aura that erupted from Lord Xia Yu’s body to grow stronger and stronger.

Above Lord Xia Yu’s head, the Pleiades Lotus was covered with countless Supreme Inscriptions. The energy it released was cold and dark, causing the thousands of miles long continent beneath their feet to be instantly covered in a thick layer of black ice.

Tens of thousands of souls flew out from the Ghost Lotus and howled in the sky.

The expression on Yan Huangtu's face turned completely cold as he said, "Continue rejecting my good intentions. Next, you will have to bear the responsibility of your own life and death."

Lord Xia Yu was a powerhouse who could enter the top ten of those who attained the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. After burning her Saint Blood and lifespan, her battle prowess had increased greatly. In addition, she had a Supreme Artifact. It was enough to pose a threat to Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu could only go all out and could not show mercy to her.

Even Yan Huangtu had to go all out. One could imagine how powerful Lord Xia Yu's battle prowess was at this moment.

RUSTLE!

Yan Huangtu arched his back and waved his Scepter of Heaven's Pass.

The light of the Scepter of Heaven's Pass was boundless, and wherever it shone, the black ice instantly melted.

Finally, the two streams of Supreme Power collided, and the continent beneath their feet began to collapse.

All of the illusion formation inscriptions were shattered.

The cultivators on the continent were flung into the air, and many of them were severely injured and forced to flee the battlefield.

Lord Xia Yu retreated dozens of miles. More than 70% of her flesh and blood were blown away by the Supreme Power storm. Even if she used a forbidden spell, she still couldn't fight against Yan Huangtu.

"I have to fight! Must never admit defeat. Must never retreat." Lord Xia Yu muttered.

Lord Xia Yu was strong and stubborn. She never bowed to any cultivator, including Zhang Ruochen. Although he had defeated her, she had never admitted defeat to Zhang Ruochen.

It could only be considered a spar with Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Huangtu was now an enemy that threatened the entire Immortal Vampires, so it was even more impossible for her to admit defeat.

BOOM!

BOOM!

...

The Supreme Artifact collided fiercely. The continent under their feet split into dozens of islands.

Huge waves rose on the blood-red sea.

The powerful energy storm kept blowing hurricanes on the planet. The whole world became extremely dark.

“I can’t lose. I can’t lose. I once promised Zhang Ruochen that no one could break into our home planet. Even if I have to fight to the last drop of my blood, I have to defend.” Lord Xia Yu muttered.

90% of Lord Xia Yu’s flesh and blood were sent flying by Yan Huangtu. Her internal organs were torn and tattered. She looked like a skeleton, but she still held up the Pleiades Lotus and fought fiercely with Yan Huangtu.

Xuemo defeated Shang Ki, the Bone Clan Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He spread his ten black wings and flew in mid-air. He looked at the sea area where Lord Xia Yu and Yan Huangtu were fighting and was stunned for a moment, he said, “This woman looks delicate and cold. However, she is too stubborn. She actually fought head-on with Yan Huangtu who has the Royal Divine Frame. How long can she hold on with her body and the Supreme Artifact?”

Xuemo was not as stubborn as Lord Xia Yu. He was smart enough to dive into the ground.

“I better go find Zhang Ruochen first. If he doesn’t come out, no one can stop Yan Huangtu.” said Xuemo.

Although Xuemo had defeated Sang Ki, he had been seriously injured. His chest had been pierced through.

Fortunately, the Deva Wiccan Demonic Physique had an extremely strong self-healing ability, so it didn't affect him to continue fighting. Otherwise, he would have already retreated from the battlefield and wouldn't have taken his own life as a joke. There was no point in forcefully holding on.

All the gods of the Bloodysky Clan gathered in the Wargod Bloodximius's divinity world.

Blood Empress nodded in satisfaction, she said, "Xia Yu's will is firm, and she has successfully fused a Grade Three Saintwill. She can ascend to godhood. If she can survive this hurdle, she might be able to soar to the sky in the future and become another god of the Bloodysky Clan who has mastered the Canon. Chen 'er, you are good at seeking the talented!"

There were very few gods who could master the Canons in the entire Bloodysky Clan. Each of them was an existence that could hold up the sky.

All the gods present sighed.

They knew very well that Lord Xia Yu would definitely submit to the Xue Jue Family. It was already too late to rope her in now!

They did not see that the Supreme Artifact had been given out.

They heard Blood Empress's tone. It was as if she was commenting on her own daughter-in-law.

Perhaps, after the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, Lord Xia Yu would marry into the Xue Jue Family and become a core member, completely dispelling the thoughts of the other gods.

The Fane of Thousand Clearwater had always been enemies with the Xia Family and had annexed a large amount of the Xias' territory.

The lord of the Fane of Thousand Clearwater was only a pseudo god, sitting at the bottom of the throne. At this moment, he was thinking about whether he should take the initiative to return the territory to the Xias. After all, with the support of the Xue Jue Family, Lord Xia Yu had a high chance of becoming a god in the future.

Furthermore, even if Lord Xia Yu was unable to become a god, as long as she could marry Zhang Ruochen, a world-shattering peerless genius, how could he, a pseudo god, afford to provoke her?

Blood Empress only had one son, Zhang Ruochen.

Moreover, everyone could see that Wargod Bloodximius had high hopes for Zhang Ruochen and intended to nurture him as the future successor of the family.

“No, wait a little longer. What if Lord Xia Yu dies at the hands of Yan Huangtu?”

The lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater closed his eyes again and waited quietly for the result.

The gods of the Bloodysky Clan actually hoped that Lord Xia Yu would admit defeat and withdraw from the battlefield immediately. After all, it was already very impressive to be able to fight with Yan Huangtu until now.

If she continued to hold on, she would be in danger of dying.

Actually, the one who was most depressed was still Yan Huangtu.

It was just the Battle of Celestial-Hunting and there was no great enmity between the two sides. Was there a need to risk their lives like this?

Back then, the reason why Xu self-detonated his Sainthood Source was entirely because he was the leading figure of the Ghosts. He had to bear the main responsibility for the destruction of his own planet. Even if he escaped from the battlefield, he would still be cruelly punished by Ghost Master.

Ghost Master was known for his ruthlessness and Xu would most likely die.

Since Xu was going to die, he naturally chose to kamikaze. He would die a more heroic death.

Lord Xia Yu was only ranked fourth among the Immortal Vampires. Why did she have to fight to the death with Yan Huangtu? Losing to him was an honorable thing. It wasn't shameful at all.

To the Immortal Vampires, the most important thing was blood.

More than 90% of Lord Xia Yu's Saint Blood had been lost, so how could she still hold on until now?

Yan Huangtu looked carefully and finally found that Lord Xia Yu's bones and heart were engraved with array inscriptions, forming a ninth class array. Blood Qi kept gushing out of her heart, supporting her to keep fighting.

"How can a heart contain so much blood Qi? How did she do it?" Yan Huangtu found it hard to understand.

Of course, Yan Huangtu didn't know that Lord Xia Yu had sealed the Saint Bloody Shadow inside her heart.

During the time when Yan Huangtu was delayed by Lord Xia Yu, the two Star-Shield Grand Formations hadn't been broken. A large number of powerhouses from the Bone Clan and the Yanluo clan were still blocked outside the planet.

However, the Array Masters of the Immortal Vampires had been wiped out.

Some of them fled the battlefield.

Some of their Sainthood Sources were taken away and banished to the void.

Some were beaten to death by the Bone Clan Supreme Saints and perished in mid-air. Their flesh and blood turned into ashes and scattered on their own planet.

This battle was too cruel.

It was the same for the Bone Clan and the Immortal Vampires.

In the Fane of Destiny, the Immortal Vampires' gods were all cold and solemn. They weren't moved by the Immortal Vampires' defeat. After all, this was what they had expected.

They were already very satisfied that the Immortal Vampires could fight to this extent.

The only thing that made them angry and confused was where Zhang Ruochen had run off to? If he had been there, the battle wouldn't have ended up like this.

Pink Skull stood at the edge of the broken dimensional teleportation array. The Gate of Destiny appeared behind her.

Precepts of Destiny flew out of the door like threads. They pulled the broken array back and restored it to its original state.

The bone fire in her eyes jumped as if she was smiling.

"Stop fighting and finish her off immediately. Killing all the Immortal Vampires is more important," Pink Skull sent a voice transmission to Yan Huangtu.

"Alright, it's time to end this!" said Yan Huangtu

Yan Huangtu controlled the Scepter of Heaven's Pass and sent the Pleiades Lotus flying.

At the same time, he punched out with both fists, and thousands of dragon shadows with Divine Marks flew out and hit Lord Xia Yu's body.

Crack

Lord Xia Yu flew up. The array on her body broke inch by inch.

The crystal-clear bones of the Supreme Saint broke like glass. Lord Xia Yu's eyes were filled with unwillingness, she felt bitter and she said, "Even if I try my best, I can't change the outcome of failure. Zhang Ruochen... I have disappointed you... I'm sorry..."

At that moment, she didn't want to consider herself a lord anymore.

It wasn't that her confidence had been crushed, but that she didn't have the face to see Zhang Ruochen again. The Saint Bloody Shadow and the Supreme Artifact had been given to her and helped her cultivate the Grade Three Saintwill.

Unfortunately, she was still defeated and couldn't defend her home planet.

...

After the Madre Bloody Shadow died, all the Bloody Shadowseeds in the underground disappeared.

Xuemo followed the blood river and came to the center of the planet through a maze-like river. Zhang Ruochen was sitting cross-legged under a jade tree in the form of a young girl. He sat on the foot of the tree and emitted colorful light.

"This kid is still cultivating in such a critical moment. Wasn't there a sarcophagus in the center of the planet? Where is it?"

Xuemo was also very interested in the opportunities on his own planet.

Just as he stepped on the stone stairs and was about to walk toward Zhang Ruochen, the colorful brilliance on Zhang Ruochen's body suddenly increased by 10,000 times. The colorful tidal waves formed sent Xuemo flying backward and his body crashed into the stone wall.

Whoosh

The colorful brilliance flowed through the river channels, causing the water to flow backward. It spread from the planet's core to the surface. The cultivators in the river channels were also washed away.

Colorful light pillars flew out from the ground.

At that moment, the entire planet was like a blood-red light bulb that was lit up. Dazzling colorful light emitted from all parts of the planet. It was beautiful.

The planet was like it was made of sand, soil, rocks, mountains... all of them were separated, revealing a complicated jade-white hard river channel.

The Madre Bloody Shadow's body was completely detached. It was more than 10,000 miles tall, in the form of a jade tree.

Every river was a branch.

Even though the Madre Bloody Shadow had fallen and the divine power, Essence Qi, and soul fragments had all entered Yan Zhexian's stomach, they still gave off an extremely shocking aura.

Zhang Ruochen sat cross-legged at the foot of the tree. The colorful light emitted from his body illuminated the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. It could be seen from hundreds of millions of miles away.

Although it was not even one-tenth of the brilliance of a star, it shocked all the gods, who were brighter than a star.

...

Chapter 2393: Flooding the Fane of Destiny

They were all stunned as they stood in the colorful starry sky, whether it was the Immortal Vampires or the Bone Clan's Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints.

"It's... It's a tree. The planet is so huge."

Some of the cultivators were shocked and couldn't help but kneel in front of the jade tree.

When the Madre Bloody Shadow was alive, her spiritual power was extremely powerful and few gods could compare to her. Now that she was dead, the remaining spiritual power was released as the tree's body was revealed. It was able to affect the Supreme Saint's spiritual power.

Only Yan Huangtu, Pink Skull, Xuemo and a few other Supreme Saints with strong spiritual power were able to resist the attack of the spiritual power.

The last two Star-Shield Grand Formations collapsed when the planet disintegrated.

The cultivators of the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan gathered together and retreated to a place thousands of miles away from the jade tree.

The scene in front of them was too spectacular and shocking. It made them wary.

"Look, look, the colorful light is coming from Zhang Ruochen."

"The precepts of this world have become very active. They are flowing regularly with Zhang Ruochen as the heart of the world, especially the precepts of the five elements. They are growing more and more."

"What a terrifying power fluctuation. Has Zhang Ruochen comprehended Path under the tree?"

Yan Huangtu's ferocious gaze was fixed on Zhang Ruochen, who was motionless. Even he was taken aback.

The Precepts of Fist, Palm, Water, Earth, Metal, and Wood in Zhang Ruochen had a total of more than three billion precepts. All of them were gathered together, they flowed in a circle.

Sometimes, all the precepts are condensed into six different types of Saintwill.

Sometimes, the six types of Saintwill merged into one.

Sometimes, they spread out and turned into precepts ley lines.

The state of the Saintwill was very unstable, causing the soil, rocks, and water that had scattered out of the home planet to undergo unimaginable changes. Just a moment ago, they had turned golden and turned into metal. In the next moment, the metal melted and turned into water.

After a while, the water solidified and turned into stone.

Immediately after, dense trees grew out of the stone and turned into a forest.

In the area of more than ten thousand miles covered by the jade trees, all the materials were undergoing the transformation of the five elements. It did not conform according to nature and was completely unreasonable.

Gradually, the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill condensed from the six kinds of Saintwill stabilized.

At this moment, the entire world fell into a strange silence, as if all the sounds had disappeared.

The gods in the Fane of Destiny, including the ancient gods who had closed their eyes to rest since the start of the Celestial-Hunting Festival, all turned their gaze to the starry sky, where the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was located.

"How can six types of Saintwills merge into one? Impossible, I don't believe it."

"Six types of Saintwills, and each of them is at Grade Four or Five. Once they merge, how strong will the Saintwills become?"

“How can a Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivator have such a shocking colorful radiance?”

A thought appeared in the hearts of all the gods, but none of them said it out loud.

This was because they all felt that it was impossible.

For a Supreme Saint to be able to fuse a Grade Five Saintwill meant that he had the potential to become a god. He was known as the “God Candidate”.

Be it the Celestial Court or Infernal Court, the vast majority of gods cultivated with their Grade Four or Grade Five Saintwill to the divine realm.

For Supreme Saints like Lord Xia Yu, Lord Bladehell, and Yan Huangtu who could cultivate Grade Three Saintwill, once they became gods, they would become powerhouses among gods. If they could grasp the Canon, it would be easier for them to overcome the first Yuanhui Tribulation. Of course, there was also a huge gap between cultivators who could cultivate Grade Three Saintwill.

As for the Grade Two Saintwill, it was too rare. Once a cultivator became a god, he would become a heaven-defying existence like Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian. He would have the chance to conquer the entire universe in the future.

However, Zhang Ruochen’s current state was one level higher than when Wargod Bloodximius and Huang Tian were young.

“Could that be the Grade One Saintwill?”

Many gods had their guesses.

The gods could still recognize the Grade Two Saintwill. After all, many Supreme Saints had succeeded in cultivating it in history, and there were many written records about it.

The Fane of Destiny had recorded the Grade Two Saintwills that had been born in ancient times into a book. There were thousands of Grade Two Saintwills recorded in the book.

When Zhang Ruochen combined five different types of Saintwills, they were able to accurately determine that it was a powerful Grade Two Saintwill, but it wasn't perfect.

They could also provide an accurate assessment of Que's unfinished Grade Two Saintwill that he had cultivated.

Ordinary gods, however, would not dare to make such an assessment of Zhang Ruochen's Saintwill. Because no cultivator had ever succeeded in combining six different types of Saintwills. At the very least, no such record could be found in any of the books.

Moreover, no matter how powerful the Grade Two Saintwill was, it could not cause such a big commotion for Zhang Ruochen.

After holding his breath for a long time, Wargod Bloodximius only spat out two words. "This kid..."

In Wargod Bloodximius's divinity world, the gods of the Bloodysky Clan were silent. They didn't say anything to congratulate Zhang Ruochen. It was as if they'd all suffered a blow and needed some time to recover.

Lord Ming was spinning the Stellar Sword in his hand and said to himself, "The legendary Grade One? No, the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill wasn't complete. How can the incomplete Saintwill be considered as Grade One?"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng looked at the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms in the sky and lowered his head and sighed, he said, "It's getting harder and harder to understand. What is going on in this world? Participating in a Celestial-Hunting Festival, the Grade Two Saintwill is condensed. No, it's very likely to be even stronger. No wonder you can only be a family head. Trash, you can't understand it. You can't understand it. Xue Qingsheng, you'll never understand it!"

At the foot of Mount Destiny.

The Gate of Destiny, which was made of tens of thousands of stellar cores, emitted a light that alternated between brightness and darkness.

In the "Destiny's Creek" where the Celestial-Hunting Festival was held, the water of the stream went against the current and surged toward the top of Mount Destiny. It rushed straight into the Fane of Destiny and flooded the fane for several feet.

Such a strange and horrifying phenomenon actually happened in the Fane of Destiny, which caused waves of exclamations.

The peace was broken.

Ghost Master's shadow appeared, he said sternly, "The Gate of Destiny, yin, and yang are unstable. The Destiny's Creek flowed backward, flooding the fane. This is a bad omen, a warning from destiny. It means that Zhang Ruochen has a rebellious heart. Sooner or later, he will lead disaster to the Fane of Destiny. We must get rid of him as soon as possible. We can't let him continue to grow."

Asurendra Samay's shadow also appeared. He said, "I agree with Ghost Master. The Fane of Destiny is sacred ground. Nothing like this has ever happened. Zhang Ruochen will definitely become the enemy of the Fane of Destiny in the future."

The gods in the Fane of Destiny clearly did not expect such a thing to happen on the mountain. A Supreme Saint had just condensed the Saintwill. It wouldn't cause such a big commotion, right?

The three gods, Wargod Bloodximus, Blood Empress, and Lord Ming, appeared at the same time.

Wargod Bloodximus said in a deep voice, "Ghost Master, Asurendra Samay, my grandson is only a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. His cultivation base is not even one-tenth of one-hundred-thousand of yours. Yet, he is being targeted by all of you. Do you still wish to keep your reputation?"

In the Infernal Court, gods could not interfere in matters of those cultivation were below divinity. They could not even interfere in the fight for benefits between the various powers.

Therefore, even the Scioness of Destiny, who was in charge of the Fane of Destiny, could only be a Supreme Saint.

It was against the laws for Ghost Master and Asurendra Samay to ask the Fane of Destiny to kill Zhang Ruochen.

Blood Empress said, “You want to kill my son with a personal grudge. Do you really think the Xue Jue family is easy to bully?”

“You’re both ancient gods who have cultivated for hundreds of thousands of years. You’re still so narrow-minded. There’s no room for a junior Supreme Saint. If this gets out, your reputation will be ruined!”

Lord Ming continued, “To be honest, no matter how strong a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm is, in my eyes, he is no different from the ants on the ground. I will not even look at him, let alone compete with him. If I compete with the ants, what is the difference between me and the ants?”

Lord Ming was telling the truth.

It was not just a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. It could be said that any Supreme Saint was no different from an ant in his eyes.

Who was Que?

He did not care at all.

Who was Yan Wushen?

‘I will remember your name when you reach the divinity state. Before you become a god, no matter how strong you are, you are still an ant.’ Lord Ming thought.

Ghost Master laughed coldly, he said, “Xue Jue, this son of yours is too arrogant. He is really like you, arrogant and conceited. However, I am very cautious. I do not dare to underestimate those juniors. I’ll pay attention to any Supreme Saint who has the potential to become a god and get his name to appear in the Tome of the Divines. You know very well that Zhang Ruochen is not an ant. He has already broken the limits of the Saintwill from ancient to modern times. His future achievements may be even higher than yours, Xue Jue.”

“The more you try to belittle Zhang Ruochen, the more you want to help him get away from the anomaly of the Fane of Destiny,” Asurendra Samay said.

To Ghost Master and Asurendra Samay, Zhang Ruochen was indeed a small character, almost negligible. Their hatred was not on Zhang Ruochen at all, but on the Wargod Bloodximius.

Killing Zhang Ruochen would not only cut off the future hope of the Xue Jue family but also deal a severe blow to the Wargod Bloodximius.

They could even use Zhang Ruochen's special identity to drag the Wargod Bloodximius down with them.

Killing Zhang Ruochen was only a means to an end.

Dealing with Wargod Bloodximius was the actual goal.

Ghost Master continued, "The Saintwill that Zhang Ruochen has cultivated has most likely reached the legendary Grade One. Now, there was an ominous sign on Mount Destiny. This meant that Zhang Ruochen would certainly oppose destiny and become its enemy in the future. It's better to kill such a rebellious son as soon as possible."

Wargod Bloodximius's words were so shocking that he wouldn't stop until death. "To oppose destiny and become its enemy. Many gods in the Infernal Court don't believe in destiny, right? Many of you were eager to change your destiny, weren't you?"

Ghost Master and Asurendra Samay didn't dare to speak.

This topic was too sensitive. Only Wargod Bloodximius dared to say such words in the Fane of Destiny.

All the gods in the Fane of Destiny quieted down, along with gasps.

Wargod Bloodximius continued, "If I remember correctly, the number one powerhouse of Ghosts, Great Emperor Fengdu, who doesn't believe in destiny the most. He once said, 'my destiny is in my hands.'"

The gods didn't dare to speak anymore. They all thought that Wargod Bloodximius was crazy to pull Great Emperor Fengdu out as a shield.

Great Emperor Fengdu dared to say, "My destiny is in my hands" because others were invincible and fearless. Of the three World Trees, “Fengdu Ghost City” had one. It was on par with “Yama Boundless Realm” and “Divine Domain of Destiny”.

There were differences among gods as well.

Then, Wargod Bloodximius said, “Just now, I received news that Great Emperor Fengdu had transcended the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation in the remote starry sky.”

This hint was even more obvious.

He said it outright, “The reason why Mount Destiny has such an ominous sign is not because of a nobody like Zhang Ruochen, but because of Great Emperor Fengdu, who is more important.”

The gods had been completely shocked by the news that Great Emperor Fengdu had transcended the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation, so it didn’t matter whether Wargod Bloodximius was courting death or not.

It was the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation, not the tenth Ghost Tribulation.

Apart from the cultivators of the plants and some special clans, the gods who had transcended the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation were all extremely rare.

Apart from that, there were also differences in the difficulty of different clans transcending the Yuanhui Tribulation.

It was harder for the Ghosts’ gods to transcend the first Yuanhui Tribulation than for the human gods.

As a Ghost, Great Emperor Fengdu was able to survive the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation.

In the Infernal Court, the three lower clans had the most difficulty to survive the Yuanhui Tribulation, followed by the three middle clans, and then the three upper clans. It was the easiest for the Yanluo clan to survive the Yuanhui Tribulation.

Of course, the difference between difficulty and ease wasn’t too big.

“How is this possible? How can we not sense the powerful ripples of power from the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation?”

“It’s normal that we can’t sense it because the starry sky is too far away from the Divine Domain of Destiny.”

“I did some predictions just now. The time when Great Emperor Fengdu transcended the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation should have been recent.”

A god muttered to himself, “Could it be that Great Emperor Fengdu is the cause of the ominous phenomenon on Mount Destiny?”

The moment he said this, he immediately shut his mouth.

This matter was of great importance and had far-reaching implications. Other than Wargod Bloodximus, no other gods dared to speak carelessly.

Ghost Master and Asurendra Samay were also stunned for a moment. Then, they were secretly delighted. Whether or not Great Emperor Fengdu had really survived the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation, Wargod Bloodximus’s words were tantamount to offending him.

Of course, Wargod Bloodximus was talking nonsense. In fact, he did not know whether Great Emperor Fengdu had survived the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation or not. He just pulled him out and used him as a shield for Zhang Ruochen.

After all, if Ghost Master and Asurendra Samay really pointed out the ominous vision of Mount Destiny at Zhang Ruochen, then Zhang Ruochen would die without a doubt. No one could save him.

The gods of the Fane of Destiny placed great importance on omens and celestial phenomena.

Because they believed it.

As for whether this lie would be exposed, Wargod Bloodximus wouldn’t worry for the time being.

Firstly, Great Emperor Fengdu had indeed gone to the desolate galaxy.

The desolate galaxy was too vast. Even if he transcended the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation, no cultivator would know about it.

Secondly, to transcend the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation, Great Emperor Fengdu would definitely go into seclusion for a long period. It could be a few months, or it could be a few hundred years.

If Great Emperor Fengdu failed to transcend the tribulation, it would naturally be for the best. It would be like he had been missing for thousands of years.

After tens of thousands of years, who would still remember what happened on Mount Destiny?

Even if they did, they would be too embarrassed to bring it up again.

If Great Emperor Fengdu succeeded in transcending the tribulation and returned, Wargod Bloodximus believed that with his status, he would not care about such a trivial matter. Did it matter what the god of Fate of Destiny thought of him?

Moreover, if Great Emperor Fengdu knew that Zhang Ruochen was once an emissary of Moon Goddess, he would more or less show some mercy.

Wargod Bloodximus seemed to be arrogant and reckless, but in fact, he had already thought of all kinds of escape routes.

The Divine Shadow of Asurendra Barasingha appeared and said with a smile, "We haven't received the news that Great Emperor Fengdu has survived the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation. How did Wargod Bloodximus find out before us?"

Chapter 2394: Rescuing Lord Xia Yu

Ordinary gods wouldn't dare to get involved in this matter.

However, Asurendra Barasingha was an incredible figure, one of the prominent figures of the Asuras. Four Yuanhui periods ago, he founded the Fane of Barasingha by himself. At that time, no one thought that the Fane of Barasingha would be able to stand for long.

The Asuras were always in bloodshed and war, so the creation and downfall of a fane were common to them.

However, the Fane of Barasingha did not collapse. Instead, it trampled on the ancient fanes and became the second-ranked fane among the Asuras.

Even Wargod Bloodximius did not dare to say that he could lead the Xue Jue Family to become the second-largest faction of the Immortal Vampires in just four Yuanhui periods.

Moreover, Asurendra Barasingha had started from scratch and did not have a family of his own.

In terms of cultivation, Wargod Bloodximius was confident that he could beat Asurendra Barasingha. However, he was far behind in terms of managing and expanding his forces.

Ghost Master claimed that the Supreme Saints whose name appeared in the Tome of the Divines would pay attention to them. In reality, he spent very little energy and didn't pay much attention to them.

However, Asurendra Barasingha valued nurturing the talents of his juniors. He did many things by himself. He would pay close attention to every Supreme Saint who had the potential to become a god. If he could win them over, he would do everything he could to win them over. If they were enemies, he would assassinate them directly.

In addition to the Supreme Saints who had the potential to become gods, the Fane of Barasingha also set up divisions for the extremely talented half-saints, saints, and Saint Kings. They made specific plans to recruit them.

Since this Yuanhui period, the Fane of Barasingha had nurtured a new generation of powerhouses that were almost comparable to the Fane of Asura.

Lan Ying and Hong Futu were the younger generation geniuses that Asurendra Barasingha had personally subdued. In these thousand years, they were among the top powerhouses of the Asuras.

Asurendra Samay was the target that Asurendra Barasingha had spent countless efforts to rope in.

These were just the tip of the iceberg of what Asurendra Barasingha had done.

In the entire Infernal Court, Asurendra Barasingha was one of the few people that Wargod Bloodximius feared. It was not only because of his outstanding cultivation base but also because of his extraordinary means.

When Wargod Bloodximius and Asurendra Barasingha looked at each other, a voice sounded.

“Barasingha, do you think that Great Emperor Fengdu won’t be able to survive the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation? Or do you think that Xue Jue will make a joke out of Great Emperor Fengdu?”

Luo Yan’s mighty Divine Shadow appeared and his voice was majestic.

Asurendra Barasingha smiled, “Your Majesty, you are wrong. Of course, I believe in Wargod Bloodximius and even more so that Great Emperor Fengdu will be able to survive the tenth Yuanhui Tribulation. I’m just curious.”

“Every god has their secrets. Why are you asking so many questions? If Xue Jue’s words are false, Great Emperor Fengdu will have his plans. It’s not good for you to interfere, right? After all, we are all from the three lower clans!” Luo Yan said.

Barasingha's eyes flashed. He cupped his hands and said, "Your Majesty is right."

Barasingha retreated and his divine shadow disappeared.

The reason why Asurendra Barasingha stopped interrogating was Luo Yan's last sentence, "we are all from the three lower clans."

There were many conflicts between the ten clans in the Infernal Court.

Specifically, the life-or-death battles between the three lower clans and the three middle clans.

That was why the three lower clans couldn't fight among themselves first.

This was the biggest reason why Luo Yan would appear at this time.

The second reason was that Luo Yan admired Zhang Ruochen's talent and looked forward to Zhang Ruochen's future. If Luo Sha could marry Zhang Ruochen and become his wife, it would undoubtedly draw him into the Devala's camp.

'Since Amane said that she saw the destiny of Luo Sha and Zhang Ruochen, no matter if their future is a blessing or a curse, we have to help them now,' Luo Yan thought.

Wargod Bloodximus retreated to the divinity world and fell into deep thought.

From the beginning, Wargod Bloodximus was confident that Zhang Ruochen would try to break through to the Grade One Saintwill. He longed for Zhang Ruochen to walk the path that he hadn't been able to walk before.

However, the combination of the sixth Saintwill had triggered the phenomena on Mount Destiny, which was far beyond his expectations.

Because Fukurokuju and Luo Yan were in charge of Mount Destiny, Zhang Ruochen's negative influence was temporarily suppressed. However, this was not the end of the story. Later, there would be a violent backlash.

Wargod Bloodximius thought, ‘After this, it’s hard for those gods not to pay attention to Zhang Ruochen. Especially the gods who had a grudge against Zhang Ruochen. In the past, they had many children. Even if Zhang Ruochen killed one or two of them, they would still feel fine. Their path of growth would not be smooth. But now... Their wills will probably become quite radical.

‘And those gods and Supreme Saints who believe in destiny will attack. They’d rather kill the wrong person than let it go.’

Wargod Bloodximius was indeed powerful, but he had only cultivated for more than 100,000 years.

Just like Huang Tian, he didn’t even have the power to resist the lord of Fane of Truth.

There were powerful figures like the lord of Fane of Truth in the Infernal court, such as Luo Yan.

Luo Yan was only at a disadvantage when he fought with Wargod Bian Zhuang, the number one wargod of the Celestial Court. It was obvious how powerful his cultivation was. Even Asurendra Barasingha was afraid of him.

The reason why Wargod Bloodximius wanted to establish an alliance with Luo Yan was to find shelter for Zhang Ruochen.

Wargod Bloodximius thought, ‘What Luo Yan cares about is his daughter. If things get out of control, he might not show up again. It seemed that he had to ask that old fart to show up. No, wait a little longer. I don’t want to alarm him for the time being. It won’t be too late to alarm Zhang Ruochen after he has crossed the threshold of the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm.’

Wargod Bloodximius was well aware that, while Zhang Ruochen had performed admirably, the likelihood of him becoming a god was too remote, and the enemy had little regard for him. The enemy’s priority was still Wargod Bloodximius.

Only when Zhang Ruochen was sure that he could become a god would a world-shaking storm come.

‘Since he has performed so well, there must be many forces who want to bet on him. Alliance... more alliances will work. As long as the net of interests is big enough, even the Fane of Destiny would not dare to touch him.’ Wargod Bloodximius thought.

The grim look on Wargod Bloodximius’s face disappeared. He smiled and thought of his past self.

With his unyielding character, the net of interests formed by marriage would be of great help to him if he could grow to the position of the clan chief.

Zhang Ruochen’s situation was worse than before. Naturally, he needed more marriages with other forces.

Wargod Bloodximius immediately sent a divine thought to Supreme Saint Qingsheng and ordered, “Make a list of all the unmarried Scionesses of Infernal Court or the direct disciples of the gods.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s expression became very strange when he heard the divine thought, he thought to himself, ‘Father, what are you doing? Are you going to choose some young partners to show off your status after becoming a clan chief? Or are you going to arrange a marriage for Lord Ming?’

Supreme Saint Qingsheng did not think about Zhang Ruochen. After all, he had just received the divine thought of Wargod Bloodximius, asking him to prepare for the marriage between Zhang Ruochen and Princess Luo Sha. He claimed that this matter was already 70-80% complete.

The divine thought of Wargod Bloodximius came again. “Oh, right. Prepare a list of all unmarried Scionesses of Destiny within 100,000 years.”

“Including those who have become gods?” Supreme Saint Qingsheng asked.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Yes.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was sure that his father was planning to arrange a marriage for his sixth brother, Lord Ming.

Wargod Bloodximius, on the other hand, believed that if Zhang Ruochen married a former Scioness of Destiny, it would be seen as him taking the initiative to express his goodwill to the Fane of Destiny. The Fane of Destiny would most likely accept such a gesture if they saw Zhang Ruochen's talent and potential.

...

Aside from the head and the Sainthood Source, Lord Xia Yu's body had almost turned into jade bones. Many of them were shattered, like strewn gems.

However, the broken body didn't fly out.

Instead, it was wrapped in colorful lights. It floated down from the sky until it reached the root of the jade tree and landed in Zhang Ruochen's hands.

Zhang Ruochen cut open his wrists. Blood dripped out and fell on Lord Xia Yu's body.

The blood was red, but it also emitted a colorful mist.

The blood contained not only the Heart of the Divine Tree's majestic life force but also the Pale Blood Soil. It could resurrect even the dead.

Whoosh

Pieces of broken saint bones condensed again.

Blood, meridians, and saint veins grew out of the saint bones. Strands of life grew out of the bone marrow and merged with Zhang Ruochen's blood.

Zhang Ruochen looked thousands of miles away and locked onto a Yanluo clan Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He reached out with one hand. Before the Supreme Saint could react, a Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared and pulled her in.

"Oh no..." said the Yanluo clan Supreme Saint.

She wanted to struggle, but she found herself in front of Zhang Ruochen.

"Lend me your blood," Zhang Ruochen said.

That Supreme Saint was one of The Eight Sons of Life and Death.

She stared at Lord Xia Yu, who was floating in the air, and guessed what Zhang Ruochen was going to do. She put her hands together and summoned The Book of Death.

BOOM!

The Book of Death was shattered by Zhang Ruochen's palm.

At the same time, a Dimensional Lockdown power came from all directions and pressed on her body, making her unable to move. She wanted to resist, but she couldn't even use her power.

Zhang Ruochen cut the vein on her wrist, drew out her Supreme Saint blood, and injected it into Lord Xia Yu's body.

Her flesh, blood, and skin immediately grew on her crystal-clear bones.

"How dare you!"

"Let's kill Zhang Ruochen together and save Wu Fei."

...

The other seven of The Eight Sons of Life and Death each held up the Book of Life or the Book of Death and attacked Zhang Ruochen at the same time.

The saint might of the seven masters at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm shattered the colorful light between heaven and earth. Countless precepts of heaven and earth gathered toward them, forming seven huge precept vortexes.

The surviving cultivators of the Immortal Vampires were worried about Zhang Ruochen. They didn't think that he could fight against the seven masters at the Great Perfection stage when he saved Lord Xia Yu.

Unfortunately, their cultivation was too low to help.

"Good timing. With all your blood, it should be enough!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen left a spiritual power clone to support Lord Xia Yu's body. He rushed to the first Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm like a flash of light.

The first Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm reacted quickly. He was the first to attack. Using The Book of Life, he created a Tree of Life and swept it across.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen's palm was like a blade. It is cut down diagonally.

The tree of life was split into two. The first Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was also sent flying. A foot-long wound was left on his chest.

In the next moment, Zhang Ruochen appeared diagonally above the second Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Yanshen's leg kicked out and crushed his Neverwithier Physique. Many of his bones were broken.

The third Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was hit in the back by Zhang Ruochen. A basin-sized hole appeared in his chest.

...

The seventh Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm met Zhang Ruochen's fist with full preparation.

As a result, the saint bones in his entire arm were turned into dust.

He struck out seven times in a row, severely injuring seven Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. The whole process only took a breath of time.

What was even more terrifying was that Zhang Ruochen had only used physical strength from the beginning to the end.

He wanted to test what level of his physical strength had reached.

After all, he had already broken through 68 shackles and the shackles of the Demigod-level physique had become even smaller. Moreover, his Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique had improved and absorbed a large amount of Pale Blood Soil.

“With my current physical strength, I should be able to defeat a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint, let alone a Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm’s Great Perfection stage.” Zhang Ruochen stated.

Zhang Ruochen released the Profound Spatial Dimension and enveloped the seven Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

In the profound dimension, dense dimensional chains formed and bound them. They dragged them to the bottom of the jade tree.

“Fight! A Yanluo clan Supreme Saint would rather die in battle than live as a prisoner.”

One of the Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm had just shouted this. Zhang Ruochen waved his sleeve, and the space immediately froze. The Supreme Saint couldn’t open his mouth and circulate the Yanluo Qi.

Next, the seven Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm had their wrists cut open. They let out their blood and gathered toward Lord Xia Yu.

Lord Xia Yu’s flesh and blood grew quickly in the thick blood mist. Her skin was as white as jade and as soft as fat. Her body’s life aura gradually returned. She appeared to be even more stunning than before.

However, she did not wake up.

Zhang Ruochen could not sense Lord Xia Yu’s consciousness fluctuations. He could not help but frown.

What was going on?

Could it be that most of the Saint Souls and Spirits had been shattered, and only a small amount was preserved?

If that was the case, even if Lord Xia Yu were to come back to life, she would not be able to wake up.

Unless a spiritual-power Supreme Saint was willing to pay the price of his life to summon her soul. Moreover, it had to be a spiritual-power Supreme Saint whose spiritual power had exceeded the 65th level.

Zhang Ruochen had defeated eight Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm in an instant, shocking all the cultivators present. However, that did not include Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu lifted the Pleiades Lotus and shouted from afar, “Before Xia Yu died, she saved most of her Saint Soul and Spirits into the Pleiades Lotus.”

Zhang Ruochen raised his eyes and stared at him. Then he landed on the Pleiades Lotus and said, “How about a trade? The lives of the Eight Sons of Life and Death for the Pleiades Lotus.”

Yan Huangtu laughed. “The Eight Sons of Life and Death are much more important than Lord Xia Yu. Only a sentimental person like you would be willing to trade. How about I add one more condition?”

“Why are you talking so much? I’ll take it back myself then,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Huangtu shook his head. “I guarantee that before you touch the Pleiades Lotus, Lord Xia Yu’s Saint Soul and spiritual power will all be destroyed.”

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes and nodded. “That’s right. I’m a sentimental person. I’m very tender to women. Tell me, what other conditions do you have?”

“Where’s Xian ‘er?” Yan Huangtu asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You mean Yan Zhexian? She’s... fine. You don’t have to worry.”

“Where is she?” Yan Huangtu asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, “She’s in a very safe place. No one can hurt her.”

The more Zhang Ruochen said this, the more worried Yan Huangtu became.

Yan Huangtu had tens of thousands of cousins like Yan Wushen. Their bloodlines were very far apart. However, Yan Zhexian was his niece. She was his elder brother's only daughter and the favored daughter of the ancestor.

Before the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, the ancestor had talked to him alone. Any cultivator of the Yanluo clan could be injured. Yan Zhexian must not be injured. Otherwise, he would be in trouble.

“Return Xian ‘er and The Eight Sons of Life and Death. I will immediately return Lord Xia Yu’s Saint Soul and Spirits to you,” Yan Huangtu said.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He looked at Lord Xia Yu, who was still in a deep sleep. Finally, he took out the Violet Gourd and let Yan Zhexian out.

‘Yan Huangtu finally breathed a sigh of relief when he saw Yan Zhexian. ‘Zhang Ruochen has some grace. He didn’t do anything to Xian ‘er... this... that is...’ he thought to himself.

Yan Huangtu’s eyes fell on Yan Zhexian’s lower abdomen. His eyeballs almost popped out.

Then...

An extremely enraged roar erupted between heaven and earth.

Chapter 2395: An Audacious Act

“Zhang Ruochen, you... you’re courting death. You’ll be dead. You should be cut into a thousand pieces...”

Yan Huangtu was trembling with anger. He couldn’t help but curse and even speak incoherently.

From the moment Yan Huangtu knew that Yan Zhexian might be captured, he had thought of all kinds of possibilities. However, he felt that Zhang Ruochen should know how important Yan Zhexian was in the Yanluo clan. There was no way he could kill her. At most, he could injure her and imprison her.

Therefore, Yan Huangtu was not particularly worried about Yan Zhexian’s safety.

However, Yan Huangtu did not expect Zhang Ruochen to be so crazy. He actually... actually made Yan Zhexian carry his child in her belly. How long had she been pregnant?

Had she been forced? Had she been wronged?

Yan Huangtu knew that Yan Zhexian loathed Zhang Ruochen. She couldn’t have a good impression of him, let alone give birth to his child.

‘That’s right!

‘She must have been forced.

‘Xian ‘er must have suffered a lot.’

Yan Huangtu was furious at the thought.

You, Zhang Ruochen, used to be the Divine Envoy of Moon Goddess. How could she have a Divine Envoy like you? You have completely disgraced Moon Goddess! You have also disgraced Wargod Bloodximius!

‘How could you be such a beast?’ Yan Huangtu thought angrily.

Yan Huangtu gritted his teeth until they were about to break. Suddenly, he felt a weak spatial fluctuation coming from his side.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen crossed the Spatial Wormhole Mirror and appeared in front of him. Ten dimensional chains had already wrapped around the Pleiades Lotus.

Although Yan Huangtu had taken the Pleiades Lotus, he hadn’t had time to refine the vessel spirit, so he couldn’t control it as he wished. The dimensional chains wrapped around him and dragged him away.

“Zhang Ruochen, how dare you attack first!” said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu responded quickly. He dashed out the door, clutching the Pleiades Lotus in his hands. While gathering power in his right arm, he released dazzling golden light and divine power. He pushed out with his palm.

Yan Huangtu didn’t attack Zhang Ruochen. He attacked the Pleiades Lotus instead.

Yan Huangtu, who had been through countless battles, could make the most rational and accurate judgments even in his most angry moments.

Zhang Ruochen frowned. He moved faster than Yan Huangtu and protected the Pleiades Lotus. He threw a punch toward Yan Huangtu’s palm strike.

“You’ll be in a mess if you care. Zhang Ruochen, you’ve been tricked!”

Yan Huangtu’s voice came from above Zhang Ruochen’s head. Holding the Scepter of Heaven’s Pass, he hacked downward with Supreme Power.

“There are two Yan Huangtu!” Zhang Ruochen exclaimed.

Zhang Ruochen was taken aback. He didn't freak out. The fist power has yet to return. It collided with Yan Huangtu in front of him, sending him flying for dozens of miles like a cannonball.

When the Scepter of Heaven's Pass struck, Zhang Ruochen had already released the Profound Spatial Dimension, freezing the space layer by layer.

Bang Bang

The Supreme Power was unstoppable.

The frozen space was pierced through and fell on top of Zhang Ruochen's head.

Even if Zhang Ruochen had a Demigod-level physique, he would be severely injured if he was hit by the Supreme Artifact.

Zhang Ruochen waved the Violet Gourd and clashed with the Scepter of Heaven's Pass.

The two Supreme Artifacts made a deafening sound of a collision. All the Bone Clan cultivators standing nearby were knocked back.

The Violet Gourd's Supreme Inscription, after all, hadn't fully recovered. It was unable to obstruct the Scepter of Heaven's Pass. Zhang Ruochen fell for more than 70 miles before regaining his footing.

His body was covered in bloody scars.

His arm, which was holding the Violet Gourd, was bleeding from the Supreme Power's attack.

Zhang Ruochen sighed. "I can't underestimate you. I didn't expect you to have a hidden card."

Just now, Zhang Ruochen had predicted that Yan Huangtu would be angry.

Once he was angry, his rationality and judgment would be affected.

Therefore, he seized the opportunity to take the Pleiades Lotus by surprise. Unfortunately, he had underestimated Yan Huangtu's battle awareness. He could maintain his best fighting state even in the angriest moment.

The Eight Sons of Life and Death was far from him in this aspect. That was why they were defeated by Zhang Ruochen in an instant.

What was even more shocking was Yan Huangtu.

Ever since the last fight, Yan Huangtu had studied repeatedly to think of a strategy to deal with Zhang Ruochen. He had revealed his biggest trump card, the Great Demonic Shadow, to heavily wound Zhang Ruochen.

However, after being hit by the Supreme Artifact, Zhang Ruochen had only received a minor injury... No...

All the minor injuries were gone!

Just now, the wounds on Zhang Ruochen's body healed in an instant. The blood that had escaped also flowed back into his body.

In this exchange, both of them were surprised. It seemed that Zhang Ruochen had suffered a slight loss, but he had successfully taken back the Pleiades Lotus.

In this way, the one who suffered a loss was Yan Huangtu.

'Compared to the fight in the Dracopent Temple, Zhang Ruochen's power has improved a lot. It's going to be difficult to deal with him now!' Yan Huangtu thought.

During the fight in the Dracopent Temple, Yan Huangtu's power was far greater than Zhang Ruochen's.

At that time, Zhang Ruochen had relied on his speed and dimensional advantage to force Yan Huangtu to take a beating.

However, in the previous exchange, Yan Huangtu's real body had been sent flying by Zhang Ruochen's punch. The strength advantage that Yan Huangtu was most proud of had been surpassed by Zhang Ruochen. His state of mind had suffered a certain blow.

Fortunately, there were still a large number of powerful figures from the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan present. Yan Huangtu still had full confidence in suppressing... No, killing Zhang Ruochen.

If Yan Huangtu didn't kill Zhang Ruochen, the hatred in his heart couldn't be dispelled.

If Yan Huangtu didn't kill Zhang Ruochen, how would the Yanluo clan retain their dignity?

...

The cultivators of the entire Infernal Court were shocked.

It wasn't because of the short battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Huangtu. The two were indeed stunning. However, compared to Yan Zhexian, their battle was nothing.

Many of them were even more furious than Yan Huangtu.

"Zhang Ruochen is a cultivator from the Celestial Court. How dare he be so arrogant in the Infernal Court? Supreme Saint Zhexian is the favored daughter of the Yanluo clan. She's a thousand or ten thousand times nobler than the princesses of the big countries. How dare he humiliate her?"

"Outrageous. I'm going to report this to Lord Qianmo. Lord Qianmo has always regarded Supreme Saint Zhexian as his confidante. Knowing this, he'll definitely personally cut Zhang Ruochen into pieces."

"It is said that as a result of Zhang Ruochen's affair with the Fairy Shadowless, cultivators from all realms in the Celestial Court labeled him the number one traitor of the Yuanhui period and formed an alliance to eliminate him. I propose that cultivators from the Infernal Court take similar action."

"An outsider who lives under someone else's roof dares to misbehave in the Infernal Court. He should be taught a lesson."

"Just a lesson? In my opinion, we should take his blood, crush his bones, and devour his soul."

...

Because of Lian Xi, Zhang Ruochen became the common enemy of all Celestial Court cultivators.

Because of Yan Zhexian, Zhang Ruochen became the common enemy of all the cultivators of the Infernal Court. Especially the cultivators of the Yanluo clan, the reaction was the most intense. They had already gathered and went to the temple to petition the gods and execute Zhang Ruochen in the cruelest way possible.

Wargod Bloodximus, Lord Ming, and Blood Empress were also shocked by Yan Zhexian's bulging belly.

After a while, Wargod Bloodximus sat upright and pretended to be calm, "I underestimated this kid. There's no need to arrange a marriage for him. I've already found a suitable partner. Yan Zhexian isn't bad. She's good enough for my grandson."

"If he's good enough, he can do whatever he wants?"

A rather stern voice appeared in the divinity world.

The gods of the Bloodsky Clan all stood up and looked to the west.

They saw an imposing figure forcefully enter the god realm of Wargod Bloodximus. His face was slightly old, but he was full of energy. His long black hair fell to the ground.

He was Yanluo clan's Ancient God of Knowledge.

He was here to punish him!

An ancient god was at least a god who had lived for hundreds of thousands of years.

The Yanluo clan held Ancient God of Knowledge in high regard. He was in charge of the clan's instruction. Countless gods had listened to his sermons. It had been heard twice by Wargod Bloodximus.

Wargod Bloodximus was considered a young and frivolous person among gods. However, in front of a sage-like Ancient God of Knowledge, he couldn't be so frivolous.

Ancient God of Knowledge said, "Xue Jue, Zhang Ruochen's talent is very high. His future has unlimited possibilities. I can understand why you are indulging him. In the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, the gods couldn't interfere. The participants were responsible for their own lives. This was something the Yanluo clan could accept. However, there was a bottom line. Killing people was fine, but insulting the Yanluo clan's women. Do you think he deserved to die?"

The gods didn't dare to speak.

Ancient God of Knowledge had always been gentle. He had never killed. He was as pure as the snow in Infernal Court. This was the first time the gods had seen him get so angry.

The mighty divine might he released shook the entire divinity world.

"Ancient God of Knowledge's words are too harsh," said Wargod Bloodximius with a smile. "Zhang Ruochen's personality is like mine. He seems arrogant, but in reality, everything he does is carefully thought through. He wouldn't do something that would insult the Yanluo clan. I believe they're in love."

Ancient God of Knowledge stared at him.

Wargod Bloodximius pretended not to see him and continued, "One of them is a talented Talisman Master, and she's extremely beautiful. The other is the most outstanding person in the Yuanhui period, handsome and free. Aren't they a match by heaven?"

Ancient God of Knowledge certainly hoped that this would be the case.

If Yan Zhexian and Zhang Ruochen were in love and had a child, it would be a good thing for everyone. With Zhang Ruochen's talent, the Yanluo clan could not ignore him. They were eager to take him in.

Ancient God of Knowledge's anger subsided a little. He said, "If Zhang Ruochen forcefully insulted Xian 'er, it would be useless. Xue Jue, you'd better be mentally prepared."

Suddenly, an old and distant voice entered the divinity world. "The baby in Yan Zhexian's stomach is the reincarnation of the Madre Bloody Shadow. Yan Zhexian had taken the opportunity of the Immortal Vampires' home planet!"

Hearing this voice, all the gods of the Bloodysky Clan, except for the Wargod Bloodximius, bowed.

It was the Yanluo clan leader's voice.

"I didn't expect that this matter would alarm the leader of the Yanluo clan." The gods looked at each other.

Wargod Bloodximius laughed. "Haha! Now it's explained clearly. My grandson is indeed innocent. Ancient God, your Yanluo clan has gained a great advantage this time. You actually obtained the opportunity of the Immortal Vampires' home planet."

The anger in the eyes of the Ancient God of Knowledge disappeared completely, but he still pretended to be angry, he said in a deep voice, "If the Madre Bloody Shadow wants to reincarnate, she must need a large amount of blood from the Immortal Vampires. How dare you say that the baby in her belly has nothing to do with Zhang Ruochen?"

Besides, many eyes in Celestial and Infernal Court have seen it. Can this be explained clearly? Can this be explained?"

Of course not.

If it was announced to the public that Yan Zhexian had the reincarnation of the Madre Bloody Shadow in her belly, it would be very dangerous for Yan Zhexian. It was enough to attract the gods to take a risk.

In short, Zhang Ruochen had to take the blame.

Ancient God of Knowledge said, "There is only one way to solve this problem. Zhang Ruochen will join the Yanluo clan."

"Join?" asked Wargod Bloodximius.

Wargod Bloodximius laughed. This old man seemed to be honest and kind, but he was full of deceit. He wanted to abduct Zhang Ruochen, a top genius, and take him under the Yanluo clan.

"No, no. My grandson can't join another clan. We can't afford to throw away our reputation."

When Wargod Bloodximus said this, he sent a voice transmission to Luo Yan.

Even the Ancient God of Knowledge, a respected god, was shameless enough to try to steal Zhang Ruochen. Wargod Bloodximus suddenly felt that he had underestimated the influence of Zhang Ruochen's successful integration of the sixth Saintwill.

He was now a rare commodity!

Ancient God of Knowledge said sternly, "Can the Yanluo clan afford to lose face? Even if it was explained to the outside world that they were in love, the cultivators in the world would think that it was the Yanluo clan's woman who took the initiative to fall in love with Zhang Ruochen. Only Zhang Ruochen's marriage can make up for this negative influence."

"There's a reason that you didn't know. The reason why I opposed it."

Since the fault wasn't on his side, Wargod Bloodximus no longer felt guilty and addressed himself as "I".

Ancient God of Knowledge asked, "What reason?"

Before Wargod Bloodximus could speak, Luo Yan's sky-shaking divine voice erupted, "There's always a first come, first served, right? Zhang Ruochen has long been engaged to my daughter, Luo Sha. Even if the women of the Yanluo clan are pregnant, they'll have to wait in the back row."

Ancient God of Knowledge looked doubtful. "Already engaged?"

How could he be engaged? It would be strange if Luo Yan agreed to this marriage before Zhang Ruochen had successfully fused with the Grade Two Saintwill. Therefore, the Ancient God of Knowledge didn't believe it.

Amane followed Luo Yan. She was dignified and beautiful. As a junior, she wasn't as arrogant as Wargod Bloodximus. She bowed respectfully to the Ancient God of Knowledge and said, "This is absolutely true. Master personally instructed me to do it."

Amane's master was, of course, Fukurokuju.

This marriage was the blessing that Fukurokuju had bestowed upon Zhang Ruochen.

If Fukurokuju personally arranged the marriage, it would be the same as announcing to the outside world that there were three forces behind Zhang Ruochen. They are Fortune Palace, Devala, and the Xue Jue family.

At that time, any god who wanted to touch Zhang Ruochen would have to think carefully.

Amane's words surprised even Wargod Bloodximus. He thought to himself, 'No wonder the marriage was so smooth. It was the Reverend's idea. Now Zhang Ruochen had some defensive means!'

Ancient God of Knowledge said, "They are not officially engaged, and the outside world doesn't know. I think we can make way. After all, the Yanluo Clan's favored daughter is already pregnant."

"I'm sorry, I can't make way! I won't object if the Yanluo girl wants to marry Zhang Ruochen, but she can only be a consort. I also want to save face. My daughter must be the most honorable mistress when she marries," Luo Yan said firmly.

Wargod Bloodximus had already sat back down as if it had nothing to do with him. With a smile on his face, he looked at the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, but his eyes suddenly shrank as if he had seen something incredible.

Great changes had happened in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Chapter 2396: There Will Be No Compromises

No one had expected that when Zhang Ruochen took the Pleiades Lotus from Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, whose cultivation had been sealed, had torn open the frozen space that suppressed the Eight Sons of Life and Death, allowing them to escape.

Before Zhang Ruochen could return to the tree, a sharp pain came from his head.

Yan Zhexian's finger shattered the spiritual clone left under the tree.

The spiritual clone was condensed by Zhang Ruochen using 1,000 Spirits.

The destruction of 1,000 Spirits didn't damage Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power greatly, but it also caused him serious injuries.

A spider web-like talisman rune flew out from Yan Zhexian's fingertip and covered Lord Xia Yu's body. She looked at Zhang Ruochen in the distance and said with a cold voice, "It's best if you don't attack me with your Path of Dimension. A flick of my finger, her body, which she had painstakingly condensed, will instantly turn into many pieces of flesh and blood."

On the side, the Eight Sons of Life and Death quickly formed The Indestructible Great Array.

Four Books of Death and four Books of Life floated above their heads, emitting a dazzling radiance that was as bright as the stars.

Despite the serious loss of blood in their bodies, with their cultivation in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and the power of the array formation, they still had the battle strength to overpower the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

The Eight Sons of Life and Death were all enraged. They wanted nothing more than to rush up to Zhang Ruochen and teach him a lesson so they could regain their lost face.

This time, they would never give Zhang Ruochen the chance to defeat them one by one.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were fixed on Yan Zhexian's tall and slender figure.

Divine light flowed from Yan Zhexian's body, and the spiritual power fluctuation she emitted was even more powerful. It could affect the vision of all cultivators who were staring at her. Her figure was like a shadow.

Zhang Ruochen thought, 'Her spiritual power should have reached the peak of the 65th level. What a mistake! I have benefited greatly from the sarcophagus. Not only did the Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique achieve the greatest transformation, but my spiritual power has also increased greatly. As the recipient of the Madre Bloody Shadow's Spiritual Qi, divine power, and Divine Soul, Yan Zhexian must have gained more benefits.

'Although I sealed all 144 acupoints in her body, I didn't seal the divine embryo in her belly. It doesn't seem difficult for her to break the seal in her body by mobilizing the power of the divine embryo.'

It was too late to regret now!

Zhang Ruochen was depressed because he had become passive as a result of a lapse in judgment. He, on the other hand, remained calm and devised a solution to the problem.

If Zhang Ruochen had not been soft, he would have killed Yan Zhexian and the baby in her belly and none of these complications would have happened.

Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu would not have threatened Zhang Ruochen if he had been cold-blooded enough to disregard Lord Xia Yu's life. Who could possibly stop him?

Unfortunately, it was these shackles and weaknesses in his character that allowed the enemy to take advantage of Zhang Ruochen.

But that was also why he felt that he was still a living person, not a soulless pawn that was manipulated by others.

Seeing that everything was going well, Yan Huangtu wanted to laugh but seeing Yan Zhexian's protruding belly, he couldn't, he asked in a deep voice, "Xian'er, did Zhang Ruochen mistreat you while you were on the Immortal Vampires' home planet?"

Yan Zhexian was speechless.

She wondered, 'Is that how he shows his concern?'

Could she answer this question?

It was the same as asking her, "Did Zhang Ruochen force you to have a child, or did you do it voluntarily?"

Should she say yes or no?

Yan Zhexian certainly knew the secret of the reincarnation of the Madre Bloody Shadow. She could not expose it, even if it was misunderstood by all the cultivators in the world.

The only way was to acquiesce.

The baby was Zhang Ruochen's.

As for whether it was forced or voluntary?

It was not for outsiders to know.

Zhang Ruochen scolded, "You're pregnant. You should take care of the baby. Don't participate in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting anymore. Leave the battlefield immediately."

Yan Zhexian raised her eyelids and said, "You can't control me."

"Of course, I can't control you, but I can control the child in your belly. I can't control where my strikes would land. When the battle starts later, I won't stop no matter what," Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Zhexian secretly gritted her teeth and said, “Zhang Ruochen, you’re the one who should leave the battlefield.”

Yan Huangtu’s eyes turned cold. He asked, “Xian’er, are you sure you want to let him leave the battlefield?”

Yan Zhexian’s answer was very important.

If Yan Zhexian was humiliated by Zhang Ruochen, Yan Huangtu and the Yanluo clan cultivators would not allow Zhang Ruochen to leave the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting alive.

If Yan Zhexian was willing to let Zhang Ruochen leave, then... her behavior was a bit funny, and people had to think about it.

Yan Zhexian was so angry that she was about to vomit blood. Why would her uncle ask so many questions?

Yan Zhexian said, “Zhang Ruochen let me go once on the home planet of the Yanluo clan. I’m just repaying his kindness.”

In the end, although Yan Zhexian hated Zhang Ruochen, she didn’t want to kill him.

The reason why Yan Zhexian had destroyed Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual clone was that everyone had their own master in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. She had no choice but to do so. Just like Luo Sha, although she liked Zhang Ruochen very much, she had to put the interests of the Rakshasas first in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

Coming to the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting represented more than just herself.

They have to put their personal feelings aside.

It’s the same as how Zhang Ruochen had to kill Supreme Saint Manjian.

“Alright, I respect your decision,” said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu’s eyes flashed with the words “I understand.” “Zhang Ruochen, you should know this flute, right?” he said, pulling out a blood jade flute.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen knew it. It was Lord Xia Yu's Soul-siphoning Flute.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes flashed with surprise. He immediately checked the Pleiades Lotus in his hand. Then he let out a long sigh. "I didn't expect that Yan Huangtu, who cultivates the Imperial Path, would be so cunning."

"The Imperial Path is unpredictable," Yan Huangtu said.

There were only 100,000 Spirits of Lord Xia Yu in the Pleiades Lotus. Her Saint Soul was nowhere to be found.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Is her Saint Soul in the Soul-siphoning Flute?"

Yan Huangtu nodded, he said, "My last attack sent the Pleiades Lotus flying in advance. She had no chance to hide her Saint Soul in it. The Soul-siphoning Flute had been hanging on her body and became the carrier of her Saint Soul. I have won. What else do you have to say?"

Zhang Ruochen was silent.

Yan Huangtu said, "If you want Lord Xia Yu to live, you should immediately withdraw from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. This is the best outcome for you."

Zhang Ruochen remained silent.

Yan Huangtu said, "I know that your cultivation has improved greatly and your fighting spirit is high. You must be very unwilling. However, it's useless. Look at this starry sky. The powerful figures of the Bone Clan and the Yanluo clan are gathered. As for you Immortal Vampires, you are either a low-level Nine-Step Saint King or a seriously injured Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint. This is the momentum. You can't turn it over by yourself! I believe that even if you leave the battlefield, the Immortal Vampires' gods won't blame you."

Hundreds of Supreme Saints of the Bone Clan gathered here. Every one of them was extremely imposing.

Pink Skull stood in the repaired dimensional teleportation array and predicted the coordinates of the 63 Nine-Step Saint Kings of the Immortal Vampires who had left. At the same time, he sent the Supreme Saints of the Bone Clan to chase after them; they wanted to destroy the Immortal Vampires that those Nine-Step Saint Kings had taken away.

Other than Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, and the Eight Sons of Life and Death, all the Array Masters of the Yanluo clan formed three ninth-class arrays under the leadership of six High-Saint Array Masters. They formed three giant beasts that looked like centipedes.

All the Talisman Masters of the Yanluo clan drew the Great Orbital Talisman. It formed a circular wall that sealed off this space.

The cultivators of the Immortal Vampires had come out of seclusion because of Zhang Ruochen. Their cultivation was low, but their fighting spirit was strong.

However, at this moment, because of the reversal of the momentum, Zhang Ruochen was tightly held by Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian. They all looked depressed as if they felt that the momentum was over.

“Zhang Ruochen is indeed strong, but it’s a pity that it’s hard to fight alone. The Yanluo clan is destined to be the supreme clan. No clan can challenge them.”

“I feel so bad. I had a chance to win first place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.”

“Supreme Saint Yao Jia died in vain!”

...

As a cultivator of the Imperial Path, Yan Huangtu was very satisfied with the current atmosphere. He suppressed any enemy with his power and was very happy. If he could force Zhang Ruochen out of the battlefield, his momentum would rise to a higher level. He would have a chance to fuse a Grade Two Saintwill.

As a winner, he didn’t have to defeat the enemy himself.

Utilizing the momentum was the true winner.

Yan Huangtu said, “Your Power of Dimension and Time is indeed mysterious. Maybe you can take away Lord Xia Yu’s body from Xian'er, or maybe you can take away the Soul-siphoning Flute from me. However, you can't do both at the same time.

"After all, Lord Xia Yu is a Supreme Saint who has fused a Grade Three Saintwill. She's also the number one beauty of your Bloodysky Clan. Are you willing to watch her die? Instead of struggling bitterly, why don't you take a step back and take the beauty home?"

"I can promise you that as long as you withdraw from the battlefield, I will not exterminate the Immortal Vampires and leave the Immortal Vampires in second place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting."

Yan Huangtu's words were very tempting. It made the eyes of the Immortal Vampires shine and made them lose their will to fight.

Second place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting seemed to be a very good result. It had far exceeded the expectations of the Immortal Vampires' gods.

However, Zhang Ruochen remained silent.

Yan Huangtu's eyes were cold. He seemed to have lost his patience. He waved his sleeve and said, "Go and capture all 14 Immortal Vampires' Supreme Saints who have their clansmen with them."

Instantly, a team of Array Masters from the Yanluo clan controlled the 300-mile-long centipede formation to fly toward the Madre Bloody Shadow jade tree.

The 14 Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints who stood near the jade tree had 77 million clansmen with them. They all looked at Zhang Ruochen in panic.

The aura of the centipede formation was comparable to that of a Thousand-Koan realm Supreme Saint. They couldn't resist it at all.

Some Immortal Vampires weren't willing to lose. They wanted to take first place among the ten clans. Although they were heavily injured, they were still charged at the 14 Supreme Saints, trying to cover their escape.

“It’s already the last day. How can we give up just like that? Let’s fight to the death with the Yanluo clan.”

“Retreat quickly. As long as the Immortal Vampires aren’t wiped out, we still have a chance.”

They knew that they were just like a mantis trying to stop a chariot, so they all looked at Zhang Ruochen. Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen seemed to have chosen to compromise with Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian. He had no intention of attacking.

The 300-mile-long centipede formation swooped down and exploded with terrifying force. Even a Supreme Saint couldn’t stand firm in the face of such power. He resembled a ship at sea.

“Fight!”

“I will self-detonate my Sainthood Source and destroy it.”

A Supreme Saint from the Qitian Clan revealed a look of determination as he spread his blood-red wings and flew toward the centipede formation.

A slightly plump High-Saint Array Master from the Yanluo clan chuckled within the centipede formation. “He’s just a Supreme Saint of the Neverwilt Realm. He won’t be able to destroy my Gigantic Centipede Formation even if he self-destructs.”

WHOOSH! WHOOSH!

He raised the staff in his hand. Immediately, ten layers of defensive halo shot out from the centipede’s body.

The other Array Masters within the centipede also raised their staffs.

The ten layers of the defensive halo became even brighter.

To them, the self-destruction of a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint was insignificant.

Only the self-destruction of a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint could pose a threat to their array. From this, one could see how powerful the array they had set up was.

However...

The 300-mile-long centipede formation shook violently. Tens of thousands of inscriptions of the array were shattered from the back.

“How is it possible... He hasn’t self-destructed yet...”

More than 20 Array Masters of the Yanluo clan looked up.

They saw a fire cloud breakthrough 10 layers of defensive light. It broke through the Gigantic Centipede Formation and rushed toward them.

A remarkable figure was wrapped in the fire cloud.

Only Zhang Ruochen was capable of such an entrance.

Boom

The centipede formation exploded and turned into a cloud of divine flames.

More than 20 Array Masters of the Yanluo clan flew out. Most of them were severely injured. Their bodies were charred black and they screamed in pain.

The next moment, more than 20 Array Masters of the Yanluo clan were pulled back by the Power of Dimension. They were all trampled under Zhang Ruochen’s feet.

The divine flames were still burning on their bodies. Some of them were only left with bones.

Zhang Ruochen said in a deep voice, “I’m sorry! Since I’m on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, I represent the entire Immortal Vampires. No threat can make me surrender. Let her go!”

The Immortal Vampires watching the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms all breathed a sigh of relief.

Zhang Ruochen did not disappoint them. Although he was a womanizer, he was able to forsake his personal feelings and sever all ties in the face of major events.

One needed such boldness to achieve great things.

The Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint who was about to self-detonate was stunned. Then he revealed a look of ecstasy and stopped activating the blood-red aura in his body. As long as Zhang Ruochen was willing to fight, it would be extremely difficult for the Yanluo clan to exterminate the Immortal Vampires.

Because Zhang Ruochen was very powerful, he was one of the strongest cultivators on the battlefield.

After many battles, many of the Immortal Vampires had let go of their prejudice. They worshiped Zhang Ruochen like an idol.

Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, the Eight Sons of Life and Death, and all the cultivators of the Yanluo clan wanted to attack at the same time.

Crack

As soon as they moved, there was the sound of bones breaking under Zhang Ruochen's feet.

Some of the Yanluo clan's Array Masters' bones were shattered.

"Zhang Ruochen, do you think I will be threatened?" Yan Huangtu's eyes were cold. He had no intention of compromising.

Over 20 Array Masters, including two High-Saint Array Masters, were extremely valuable. Many Macroworlds lacked even a single High-Saint Array Master. However, in Yan Huangtu's opinion, the Yanluo clan's face and dignity, the supreme clan's status, and a firm heart were more important.

Yan Wushen was the one who compromised on the Yanluo clan's home planet previously.

However, Yan Huangtu would never compromise.

If Zhang Ruochen dared to kill more than 20 Array Masters, he would be hunted down by the Yanluo clan endlessly.

Yan Huangtu stared at Zhang Ruochen, “Kill them!” He said. “If you kill them, I’ll kill Xia Yu right now. I’ll do as I say. Next, all the Immortal Vampires present, including you, will suffer the Yanluo clan’s most vicious revenge.”

No cultivator doubted Yan Huangtu’s will.

Zhang Ruochen had long known that Yan Huangtu was such a ruthless person. Nothing could threaten him, so he had prepared a second strategy.

Chapter 2397: An Undefeated and Unkillable Force at Its Pinnacle

“Since no one is willing to compromise, we can only fight to the death.”

Zhang Ruochen swept his foot horizontally, creating a Qi wave that sent more than 20 Yanluo clan Array Masters flying like kicking rocks.

Whoosh

A Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared, and all Array Masters sank into it.

In the distance.

Yan Huangtu’s eyelids twitched as he realized that something was wrong.

No one knew where the other end of the Spatial Wormhole Mirror was connected to. However, Yan Huangtu had guessed it in advance and retreated rapidly.

As expected.

Just as Yan Huangtu retreated, the Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared where he was floating earlier. More than 20 Array Masters with divine flames burning on their bodies flew out and let out heart-wrenching screams.

Some of them had their bones almost melted from the fire and were on the verge of death.

“Zhang Ruochen’s timing is precise!”

Yan Huangtu sighed. He had to use his icy power to help them expel the divine flames on their bodies.

When more than 20 Array Masters had been suppressed by Zhang Ruochen, Yan Huangtu could have chosen not to compromise. However, now that he had been thrown in front of Zhang Ruochen, he could not leave them to die.

This was Zhang Ruochen's plan!

To wait until the right moment and force Yan Huangtu to save them immediately.

Yan Huangtu extinguished the divine flames on more than 20 Array Masters in half a breath. Another space Spatial Wormhole Mirror opened on the right side of his body, and Zhang Ruochen rushed out.

At that moment, Yan Huangtu had an illusion that space seemed to freeze and time seemed to stop.

No!

It was not an illusion.

Space had really frozen and time had indeed stopped for a moment,

Zhang Ruochen's right hand grabbed onto the Soul-siphoning Flute.

Zhang Ruochen struck with his left palm toward Yan Huangtu's chest.

Yan Huangtu knew how terrifying Zhang Ruochen's palm print was. He didn't dare to take a direct hit from him. Even if he had invincible defense and the Royal Divine Frame, he definitely wouldn't be able to take it.

ROAR!

Yan Huangtu roared. Tens of thousands of golden dragon shadows rushed out of his body. He released monstrous divine power, shattering the solidified space. He gave up on the Soul-siphoning Flute and retreated quickly.

He didn't stop until he was 300 meters away. He still had lingering fear.

"The combined Power of Time and Dimension is terrifying," said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu couldn't move at that moment. All of his power, including his thoughts, had stopped. It was as if he was at the mercy of others. That feeling was extremely painful for him.

Fortunately, time had only stopped for a moment. If it had been any longer, Yan Huangtu was afraid that he would have lost the confidence to fight Zhang Ruochen.

“Xian'er, kill Xia Yu... Xian'er immediately...”

Yan Huangtu had just communicated with his spiritual power when he came across a startling scene.

At that moment, the space where Yan Zhexian, the Eight Sons of Life and Death, and Lord Xia Yu were was collapsing in a large area, forming a space with a diameter of hundreds of meters. All of them sank into the void.

From a distance, the scene looked like a thin layer of ice on the surface of a lake had shattered. They all fell into the water.

“Zhang... Ruo... Chen...”

Yan Huangtu squeezed out these three words from between his teeth.

Above the shattered space, there was still a space Spatial Wormhole Mirror that had not dissipated.

Clearly, in the half-second it took Yan Huangtu to save more than 20 Array Masters, Zhang Ruochen had first attacked the space where Yan Zhexian and the others were and then attacked him.

His moves were nimble.

“The Master of Time and Space... This is the Master of Time and Space! Are there still any cultivators able to take him down in the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting?” Yan Huangtu exclaimed.

Yan Huangtu was filled with regret. If he had known earlier, he would have ordered the Array Masters and Talisman Masters of the Yanluo clan to set up a great array to suppress time and space. Otherwise, how could he fight with Zhang Ruochen when both time and space were under his control?

...

Yan Zhexian and the Eight Sons of Life and Death were also regretting it.

The Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was located in the colorful divine fog nebula in the Forest of No Return. The space was so stable that even with their powerful cultivation, they could only tear a crack in the space at most.

However, Zhang Ruochen, the Master of Space, mobilized the Precepts of Dimension. He shattered a vast space hundreds of meters long with one palm and swept all of them.

“I’ll assist you in returning to the battlefield. You must put a stop to Zhang Ruochen. The first place is within the Yanluo clan’s grasp. We must not lose now.” Yan Zhexian stated.

Yan Zhexian stood in a sinking Fragment of Space. Her ten fingers moved quickly and drew eight talismans. She struck the Eight Sons of Life and Death. Before the space closed again, she pushed them out of the void.

Yan Zhexian and Lord Xia Yu sank deeper into the void and were swallowed by the darkness.

Of course, Yanluo clan’s Ancient God of Knowledge and Wargod Bloodximius quickly rescued them from the void.

“Finally, they were out of the battlefield. Now, I have nothing to hold me back. I can finally fight to my heart’s content.” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen checked the Soul-siphoning Flute and confirmed that Lord Xia Yu’s Saint Soul was inside. So, he took out her spiritual power from the Pleiades Lotus and put it into the flute’s internal space.

Then Zhang Ruochen threw the Soul-siphoning Flute into the void.

Countless gods were watching the battlefield. Zhang Ruochen believed that the god who had saved Lord Xia Yu would take the Soul-siphoning Flute with him.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen didn't attack Yan Huangtu anymore. He flashed across the Spatial Wormhole Mirror and appeared in front of Pink Skull.

"Zhang Ruochen, you're too late. I've sent 63 Bone Clan Supreme Saints to kill the 63 Nine-Step Saint Kings of the Immortal Vampires."

Pink Skull had anticipated that Zhang Ruochen would be the first to deal with her. She was prepared. Divine light radiated from her body. She pointed to Zhang Ruochen.

There was a ruby ring on the bone finger.

It was the Bone Clan's Supreme Artifact.

Pink Skull had used all her strength against Zhang Ruochen.

This finger strike was a high-level saint technique of the Thousand-Koan level. It interchanged from fast to slow and it was unpredictable. Even though Zhang Ruochen had the Heart of Truth, he still couldn't figure it out. He couldn't help but be shocked.

'Pink Skull has such a unique technique. With this finger strike, even powerful figures like Wujiang and Yan Huangtu might not be able to escape unscathed.' Zhang Ruochen thought.

BANG!

Thousands of starlight spots rushed out of Zhang Ruochen's body, forming the Realm-frame of Truth—Shoreless Star Ocean. Then, the rays of Light of Truth shone on Pink Skull.

Zhang Ruochen finally saw the bone finger's attack trajectory clearly.

Due to the influence of the Profound Spatial Dimension, in Pink Skull's eyes, Zhang Ruochen's body was sometimes far, sometimes close, sometimes left, and sometimes right. It also gave her a hard time figuring him out.

Just as Pink Skull was in a daze, the Pleiades Lotus flew out of nowhere and collided with her bone finger.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen's palm print hit her chest heavily. Ten Swastika Seiryus flew out of his palm. Pink Skull screamed and flew more than 100 miles away.

"Impossible... How could he break my Illusory Finger so easily? It's combined with the power of the Supreme Artifact."

Immortal Inscriptions lit up on Pink Skull's divine bone, neutralizing the power of Zhang Ruochen's full-strength palm.

Pink Skull didn't get the opportunity on the Bone Clan's home planet, but she did have some luck. She had a better understanding of the Immortal Inscriptions on her bones.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen crossed space and appeared in front of Pink Skull again.

Before she could stabilize herself, she struck again.

Boom

Pink Skull flew out again.

"I don't believe that you really can't die," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen continued to attack. This time, he mobilized the Divine Purification Flame to refine the Immortal Inscriptions on Pink Skull.

Zhang Ruochen had heard from Luo Sha that Pink Skull was immortal. It had been killed three times by a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint, but it had come back to life three times. It was extremely strange.

Zhang Ruochen refused to believe it.

There was only absolute power in the world. How could there be an immortal?

In a breath's time, Zhang Ruochen had sent Pink Skull flying 13 times. She couldn't fight back at all. Every time she cursed, her voice was interrupted halfway through.

Yan Huangtu and the Talisman Masters of the Yanluo clan gathered together. Staring at Zhang Ruochen and Pink Skull, they pointed and said, “Seal that space.”

More than 60 Supreme Saint Talisman Masters of the Yanluo clan attacked together. They struck out the runes that had been carved long ago that looked like a city wall.

The runes that looked like a city wall originally covered an area of 20,000 miles. Now, they quickly shrank and only covered an area of 10,000 feet.

They wanted to continue shrinking, but were blocked by Zhang Ruochen’s Profound Spatial Dimension and the Realm-frame of Truth.

“Enough!” Yan Huangtu said.

More than 60 Supreme Saint Talisman Masters attacking at the same time was enough to suppress Zhang Ruochen. It was equivalent to turning from a fierce tiger into a trapped beast.

Yan Huangtu activated the Supreme Power of the Scepter of Heaven’s Pass. It rushed into the city wall rune patterns and attacked Zhang Ruochen’s waist and abdomen.

Zhang Ruochen could not use the Great Dimensional Shift to dodge. He could only use the Pleiades Lotus to meet it head-on.

The Ghost Lotus spun and released a large amount of cold ghost qi.

Boom

When Yan Huangtu attacked, Zhang Ruochen was already prepared.

Therefore, he wasn’t at a disadvantage in this exchange.

The two retreated quickly.

“As expected, Zhang Ruochen’s Power of Dimension is suppressed!” Yan Huangtu was delighted.

Zhang Ruochen was the first to dissolve the Supreme Power of the Scepter of Heaven’s Pass. Then, he used the Pleiades Lotus, which was still spinning rapidly, to turn into a streak of golden light and attack Yan Huangtu again.

Yan Huangtu was not afraid. He shouted, “Come and fight.”

However, Yan Huangtu’s face quickly turned ugly because Zhang Ruochen had released the Null Time realm. In this realm, the flow of time slowed down a lot.

It was as uncomfortable as the freezing of space and the stopping of time.

What was more uncomfortable was that Yan Huangtu found that the slowing of time was continuous. It did not disappear in an instant.

On the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen had obtained several opportunities in a row. The Precepts of Time and the Precepts of Dimension had increased by nearly ten times. Naturally, their power had increased greatly. They could even affect a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm to a certain extent.

It also had a huge impact on a Supreme Saint below the Banshi Isshou Realm.

BOOM!

Yan Huangtu’s Scepter of Heaven’s Pass moved much slower than Zhang Ruochen’s. His skin split open, his internal organs ruptured, and half of his body was broken when the Pleiades Lotus landed on his chest.

However, the Royal Divine Frame was intact.

‘Another Supreme Saint with abnormal defense. Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull are perfect for each other,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Just as Zhang Ruochen thought of Pink Skull, she attacked from behind. She activated all the power of the Supreme Artifact ring and suppressed Zhang Ruochen.

“Petals of Pleiades Lotus bloom in seven.” Zhang Ruochen chanted.

The Pleiades Lotus in Zhang Ruochen’s hand instantly split apart. Seven petals flew out, all carrying Supreme Power. They attacked Pink Skull and Yan Huangtu at the same time.

The three powerhouses activated three Supreme Artifacts in the city wall rune pattern. They fought fiercely.

Surging Ghost Qi, Divine Purification Flame, immortal divine power, Nine Dragons Divine Marks, Supreme Power... all kinds of power shuttled chaotically. They kept crashing into the runes.

The more than 60 Supreme Saint Talisman Masters of the Yanluo clan were all nervous and sweating. They had tried their best, but they still couldn't control the runes. They looked like they were about to be crushed.

"Zhang Ruochen is too strong. He's fighting two people at the same time, but he still has the upper hand. I feel that the runes will soon be crushed by the power of three Supreme Artifacts."

"If Supreme Saint Zhexian was still here, she might be able to suppress Zhang Ruochen with her attainments in Talismans."

...

On the other side, hundreds of Supreme Saints of the Bone Clan all moved out to encircle the cultivators of the Immortal Vampires.

The focus of the encirclement was naturally the 14 Supreme Saints with 77 million Immortal Vampires. As long as they were destroyed, the points of the Immortal Vampires were likely to be cut in half.

After all, the 63 Supreme Saints sent out by Pink Skull could easily wipe out 63 Nine-Step Saint Kings.

"Break out, break out immediately. Zhang Ruochen has already restrained the most powerful figures of the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan."

"For the glory of the Immortal Vampires, I have no regrets in dying today."

"We must show the momentum of our last resort in order to intimidate the Bone Clan cultivators. Let's not hide anymore. Let's burn our saint blood together and cover the 14 Supreme Saints' escape."

...

The Immortal Vampires charged at the Bone Clan's legion of Supreme Saints with murderous intent.

The Bone Clan Supreme Saints were intimidated by their aura. Did these Immortal Vampires really want to die? It was just the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Why did they have to fight to the death?

Did they not care about their lives?

Did they have bloodshot in their eyes?

If they all self-destructed, wouldn't they die together with them?

An Immortal Vampires Supreme Saint had already self-destructed!

The Bone Clan Supreme Saints slowed down their attack and spread out quickly. They didn't dare to fight the Immortal Vampires at close range.

If they chose to fight at a distance, the speed of casualties would definitely slow down. It would take more time to destroy the Immortal Vampires.

Zhang Ruochen, Yan Huangtu, and Pink Skull were in a bad situation.

Yan Huangtu's body was constantly broken by Zhang Ruochen, and many blood and pieces of flesh flew out. In the end, more than 90% of his flesh and blood were lost, leaving only a golden Royal Divine Frame.

Lord Xia Yu had previously been unable to withstand the rebound force of the Supreme Artifact, so Yan Huangtu had beaten her until she was left with only her saint bone.

The wheel of fortune turned.

At that moment, Yan Huangtu could not withstand Zhang Ruochen's attack either. He was sent flying countless times, and his flesh and blood were almost lost.

However, Yan Huangtu was different from Lord Xia Yu. His Royal Divine Frame was indestructible. His Sainthood Source, meridians, and sea of Qi were all hidden in his bones. He had been beaten so miserably, but he was still full of battle strength. He was extremely abnormal.

The Immortal Vampires watching the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms were all excited. They felt that Zhang Ruochen was avenging Lord Xia Yu. He was giving him a taste of his own medicine.

Yan Huangtu was such a powerful figure, but he was beaten to a pulp by Zhang Ruochen. It was only a matter of time before he was defeated.

After all, no matter how strong a defense was, it could not be unbreakable forever.

Chapter 2398: The Death of Supreme Saint Yanhong

The two Array Masters of the Yanluo clan rode two 300-mile-long centipede formations and flew to the sky above the battlefield where Yan Huangtu, Pink Skull, and Zhang Ruochen were.

The figures of the Eight Sons of Life and Death hovered above the city wall runes. They put up their defense and did not attack.

The flesh on Yan Huangtu's face was completely destroyed. His teeth, cheekbones, and jaw were all exposed. He looked very ferocious. He said in a deep voice, "How long can you keep activating the Supreme Artifact?"

"I can fight for an entire day. How about you? When will you run out of Yanluo Qi and divine power?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

They all needed the divine power inside their bones to support them, whether it was the Nine Dragons Divine Marks on Yan Huangtu or the Immortal Inscriptions on Pink Skull. Even the divine bones could not protect their Sainthood Source and Saint Soul once their divine power was depleted and the divine matters were destroyed.

Yan Huangtu could no longer sit still as Zhang Ruochen had discovered his weakness.

This was because the divine power contained in his divine bones was indeed about to be exhausted and could not be maintained for long.

On the other hand, Zhang Ruochen was still full of spirit. Although Yan Huangtu did not believe that he could really last a day with such a battle intensity, he felt that he was unfathomable and could not see the bottom.

Pink Skull was even worse. She couldn't maintain its peak battle strength anymore, and her aura was slipping.

"After he had combined the Demigod-level physique and the Five-element Chaotic Neverwith Physique, his physical body became tougher. His battle endurance is actually better than my Royal Divine Frame?"

Yan Huangtu sent a voice transmission. "All cultivators, attack together."

"Fight, kill Zhang Ruochen."

The Eight Sons of Life and Death immediately mobilized the power of the Book of Life and the Book of Death. They turned into the Tree of Life, the Lake of Life, the Bloody Death Tablet, the Deathly Plume... and four other different forms. They attacked Zhang Ruochen through the air.

The eight of them formed a formation, and their aura and power increased layer by layer.

As they joined the battle, the city wall runes, which were already on the verge of collapse, finally showed signs of damage.

"This is it," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen released The Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect and propped it up a thousand miles high. The magnificent power fluctuation swept in all directions and completely shattered the city wall runes, which were on the verge of collapse.

More than 60 Yanluo Clan Talisman Masters spat out blood and flew in all directions like scarecrows.

Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull knew that Zhang Ruochen's Saint Aspect was powerful, so they retreated at the same time.

"Where do you think you're going?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen had already prepared the Violet Gourd.

At the mouth of the gourd, 72 million Dimensional Inscriptions lit up, causing the space within 800 miles to tremble.

“Zhang Ruochen is finally going to use the Violet Gourd! Retreat, as far as possible,” said Yan Huangtu.

Yan Huangtu turned into a streak of golden light and fled into the distance.

“We can’t escape. Zhang Ruochen has been planning for a long time. He deliberately used the Violet Gourd at this moment to capture us all in one fell swoop.”

Pink Skull became much calmer after realizing the gap between her and Zhang Ruochen. On the contrary, she could see more clearly.

Although Yan Huangtu was very fast, he could not escape to a distance of 800 miles.

The reason why Zhang Ruochen used the Violet Gourd at this time was that he had calculated that the divine power in their divine bones had been greatly exhausted. They could no longer break free from the suction force of the Violet Gourd and the power of space collapse.

“Yan Huangtu, I will help you escape. You have to remember your promise to me,” said Pink Skull.

The divine light on Pink Skull surged. She manifested a divine bone true body that was 1,800 miles tall. A Gate of Destiny appeared behind her. She charged toward the Violet Gourd.

She mobilized the remaining divine power and attacked with a punch.

Boom

The space array covered an area of 800 miles and quickly collapsed.

The eight attacks from the Eight Sons of Life and Death were absorbed into the gourd immediately. They couldn’t hurt Zhang Ruochen at all.

There were also Talisman Masters of the Yanluo clan who could not control their bodies and flew into the gourd.

If Pink Skull had not used her huge divine bone true body to block most of the space collapse power, the Eight Sons of Life and Death would have all been sucked into the gourd by Zhang Ruochen.

“What a pity. The good opportunity to catch them all in one fell swoop was destroyed by you,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen raised his head and looked at the divine bone skeleton that was attacking with a fist.

It was just a fist, but it was as huge as a blood-red mountain. It was covered with Divine Marks and carried a terrifying divine might.

Compared to Pink Skull, the Immovable Wisdom King’s Saint Aspect was much shorter.

“Incarceration of Divine Demon.” Zhang Ruochen chanted.

Zhang Ruochen activated a Divine Demon’s shadow and combined it with the Immovable Wisdom King’s Saint Aspect. His feet stepped on hell and struck out a palm power with the nine heavens above his head, clashing with Pink Skull’s fist power.

“Ten times attack power.” Zhang Ruochen muttered.

The Realm-frame of Truth shrank rapidly and combined with the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King, making the palm strike ten times more powerful.

Boom

With a crushing force, the Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King sent the 1,800-mile-tall skeleton flying backward. The divine light on its body quickly dimmed.

The Eight Sons of Life and Death had originally escaped behind Pink Skull and thought they were safe.

At this moment, they raised their heads and looked at the divine skeleton flying over their heads. Their hearts trembled.

Before today, they couldn’t believe that Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull would be defeated so miserably.

Zhang Ruochen crossed space and caught up with the flying divine skeleton. He flicked his fingertip.

A drop of Dark Space-time Matter flew out!

With his current cultivation, he could activate the stronger power of Dark Space-time Matter, allowing darkness, dimension, and time to erupt more perfectly.

Boom

The Dark Space-time Matter landed on the skull of the divine skeleton and quickly wrapped around its head, which was more than 200 miles long.

The three ancient powers of darkness, dimension, and time were eroding the Immortal Inscriptions on the divine skeleton. They wanted to destroy the Pink Skull's Saint Soul hidden in the skull and destroy her completely.

Zhang Ruochen didn't kill the cultivators of the Yanluo clan. Apart from not wanting to make another strong enemy, the biggest reason was that the cultivators of the Yanluo clan had never taken the initiative to kill him.

Even if they were enemies, it was because of competition, not personal hatred.

Moreover, the competition was initiated by Zhang Ruochen.

Pink Skull was different. Before entering the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, she had already declared that she wanted to take Zhang Ruochen's life and was plotting to kill him.

Seizing the opportunity, Zhang Ruochen naturally wanted to kill her as well.

The gods wanted Zhang Ruochen to be the blade and it's about to unsheathe.

Three drops of Dark Space-time Matter were shot out in a row. The Immortal Inscriptions on the pink skull dimmed completely. There was no more light. All the ripples on her body returned to silence.

The entire void seemed to have quieted down.

“One of the three Scioness candidates, Supreme Saint Yanhong, was... killed by Zhang Ruochen... just like that...”

“Zhang Ruochen is in big trouble. Supreme Saint Yanhong has a great relationship with the Fane of Destiny and the Bone Clan.”

“I don’t believe it. I don’t believe it. Supreme Saint Yanhong has a Neverwilt physique. Even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint can’t kill her. How can she be killed by Zhang Ruochen?”

“The Immortal Inscriptions on her head have been destroyed. How can she still be alive?” A Bone Clan cultivator sighed.

...

Zhang Ruochen flew above the planet-sized divine skeleton. He released his spiritual power and inspected it. Then, he shot out Dimensional Inscriptions to entangle it.

The 1,800-mile-tall divine skeleton gradually became smaller. It became the size of a normal human.

Zhang Ruochen sealed the Supreme Artifact ring. Then, he put Pink Skull into the internal space of a Regal Artifact.

Although Pink Skull was dead, her divine bone was very valuable. The Immortal Inscriptions on the divine bone were also of great research value.

Furthermore, even though she had been eroded by three drops of Dark Space-time Matter, Zhang Ruochen had a vague feeling that there was still a strange area in the depths of Pink Skull’s skull that could not be inspected by spiritual power.

Perhaps there was a greater secret hidden in her body.

After doing all this, Zhang Ruochen held the Pleiades Lotus in one hand and the Violet Gourd in the other. With a disdainful look, he looked at Yan Huangtu in the distance and shouted, “Where’s your clone?” He asked. “Why don’t you activate this trump card? It’s useless to hide in the dark. I’ll find him soon.”

“Zhang Ruochen, you’re worthy of being a Yuanhui-level genius, but I won’t admit defeat,” said Yan Huangtu.

The original Yan Huangtu was like a golden skeleton. He was too heavily injured and couldn’t regrow his flesh in a short amount of time.

The Eight Sons of Life and Death and the two centipede formations flew quickly to Yan Huangtu's side. The Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan all had bloodshot eyes and were full of fighting spirit. They were ready to fight Zhang Ruochen to death.

They didn't believe that Zhang Ruochen could really defeat all the powerful figures of the Yanluo clan on his own.

...

Yan Wushen had set up a 300-meter-wide dimensional teleportation array on the seventh Dark Star. It could mobilize the Power of Darkness and Power of Dimension inside the star to achieve long-distance dimensional teleportation.

Lord Hornless had done some research on the Path of Dimension and confirmed that this teleportation array was indeed safe and reliable. It was not one of Yan Wushen's traps.

He waved his hand and said, "All Supreme Saint Celestial Captives, enter the array."

"There's no rush. We can wait a little longer," Yan Wushen said.

Pan Ruo gave Yan Wushen a strange look.

Lord Hornless also cast a puzzled look and said, "Why wait?"

Yan Wushen said, "The teleportation array on the Immortal Vampires' home planet must have been exposed. It has likely been destroyed. We can't teleport at a fixed point. Therefore, we have to wait for the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan cultivators to destroy the Star-Shield Grand Formation on the Immortal Vampires' home planet. Otherwise, it will be quite troublesome."

Yan Wushen and Pan Ruo stood three thousand steps away. There was also a teleportation array under their feet. The array light flickered and they could be teleported away at any time.

Obviously, Yan Wushen was very careful when dealing with a powerhouse like Lord Hornless.

Survival came first.

Lord Hornless asked, “Didn’t you receive the Communication talisman from the Yanluo clan? Didn’t they send you the news that the array had been broken?”

Yan Wushen shook his head.

Pan Ruo looked at Yan Wushen again with a look of understanding.

Although Yan Wushen had not heard that the Immortal Vampires’ Star-Shield Grand Formation had been breached, he had heard that the Immortal Vampires’ home planet had released an unusually colorful light.

It was obvious that the Star-Shield Grand Formation had been broken.

The colorful light most likely had something to do with Zhang Ruochen.

In addition, when Yan Wushen had set up the formation earlier, he was doing it neither fast nor slow. He didn’t seem to be in a hurry at all.

Thus, Pan Ruo guessed that Yan Wushen was stalling on purpose.

Stalling.

Pan Ruo wondered, ‘Why was he stalling on purpose?’

Yan Wushen probably wanted to exhaust Zhang Ruochen and Yan Huangtu to the greatest extent possible so that both of them would suffer heavy losses.

The worst-case scenario was that Yan Wushen probably wanted to use others to kill.

He wanted to use Zhang Ruochen to kill Yan Huangtu.

No cultivator in the world knew how powerful Zhang Ruochen was better than Pan Ruo and Yan Wushen. What was powerful was not only his combat strength but also his heart.

A heart that grew stronger the more he fought in adversity.

The more desperate he was, the more he could burst out with extraordinary strength.

Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull seemed to have the advantage and were powerful, but in Pan Ruo and Yan Wushen's eyes, they might not be a match for Zhang Ruochen together.

Pan Ruo thought to herself, 'All cultivators in the world think that Yan Wushen is a martial fanatic without scheming and wisdom. They all think that he absolutely can't beat Yan Huangtu. However, a cultivator who can come and go freely on the Battlefield of Merits without any schemes or wisdom has died countless times. Moreover, how can Yan Wushen not know the jealousy and hatred that Yan Huangtu has for him? Two tigers simply cannot live on the same mountain!'

In the sky above the seventh Dark Star, Wujiang, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, and the others were standing on The Scroll of Truth and Deceit. They were all astonished.

They never expected that Pan Ruo and Yan Wushen would actually persuade Lord Hornless to lead all the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives to the Immortal Vampires' home planet.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said solemnly, "I understand! Two armies face off against each other. It's not easy for Lord Hornless to kill Yan Wushen and Pan Ruo."

Wujiang thought for a moment, then he smiled and said, "I understand now too! It turned out that it was not difficult for the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives to go to the Immortal Vampires' home planet. The key was to have enough courage to talk to them. In terms of deep thought, I am far behind Pan Ruo and Yan Wushen. Why did I only think of this now?"

"Over the past dozens of days, all the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives, including Lord Hornless, have used up a lot of their Saint Qi. They are unable to sustain a long-lasting battle. After all, on the Dark Star, they can only continue to use up their Saint Qi. Therefore, those Supreme Saint Celestial Captives want to leave the seventh Dark Star more than anyone else," Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said.

Wujiang said, “The seventh Dark Star is now a cage that they can not escape from. If they go to the Immortal Vampires’ home planet, the situation will become complicated and chaotic. Only then will they have a chance to escape.”

“If only Yan Wushen promises one or two more things to Lord Hornless... ” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said.

Wujiang nodded, he said, “Yan Wushen purposely waited until the last day because he knew that on the last day, all the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives’ desire to live would reach its peak. They would no longer think that they would die for sure. “If their desire to live was strong enough and there was a glimmer of hope in their despair, how could they not agree?”

Chapter 2399: Lord Hornless

The gravity of the Dark Star was immense. For those cultivators below the Supreme Saint Realm and without spiritual Qi or Saint Qi, it was a forbidden land of death.

Even a Supreme Saint's strength and speed would be suppressed to an extremely low point on the Dark Star.

That was why Yan Wushen calculated that the "3000 steps" was a safe distance to negotiate with Lord Hornless.

The divine chains that bound the feet of Lord Hornless had long been cut off by the Pentastone Sword.

However, the divine chains on both of Lord Hornless's hands were still there. They could only be pulled apart by a foot, which would greatly limit the power of Lord Hornless. If that was not the case, the safe distance of three thousand steps was far from enough.

The true form of Lord Hornless was a green hornless dragon. It has cultivated for eight thousand years before it reached the Supreme Saint Realm.

Compared to the Supreme Saints of the Infernal Court who participated in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, Lord Hornless was a late bloomer. If he had not met Empress of Thousand Bones, he would not have been able to break through to the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Right now, although his cultivation had reached Banshi Isshou Realm and became an important figure in the Avīci Pavilion, he was already over 10,000 years old.

He was nearing the end of his lifespan.

Rather than dying of old age in another 100 years, he might as well die with some value to repay the great empress for her kindness.

Perhaps the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was a good place to die.

Lord Hornless was in human form. He held the Pentastone Sword in his hand and stood tall. His body was sturdy and his skin was covered with scales. He didn't look old at all.

After a long time, he withdrew from his thoughts and looked at Yan Wushen and Pan Ruo in the distance.

“What the empress did must be done by obtaining the Destiny Token and Canon of Destiny. Therefore, I must help Pan Ruo reach first place among the ten clans. However, with the Nether Clan and the Deathkin's points, how could they compete with the Immortal Vampires and the Yanluo clan? Could it be...”

Lord Hornless' gaze swept over Yan Wushen, leaving no trace.

Could it be that Pan Ruo wants to tell me that she has cooperated with Yan Wushen to help the Yanluo clan get first place in the ten clans? Lord Hornless felt that Pan Ruo wanted to say something to him, but she didn't dare to say it. That was why he guessed so.

Perhaps the great empress had some kind of arrangement with Yan Wushen that allowed her to get the Destiny Token and Canon of Destiny from him.

...

SWOOSH!

A Communication talisman tore through the darkness and fell into Yan Wushen's hand.

Yan Wushen grabbed the talisman and looked at it. At first, he was startled, but then his eyes became bewildered.

Pan Ruo didn't see the content of the Communication talisman. She was curious about what had happened that could make Yan Wushen lose his composure.

Yan Wushen quickly regained his composure and stared at Lord Hornless, he said, “The Star-Shield Grand Formation of the Immortal Vampires' home planet has been broken. You can teleport there without worry. There are no Nether Clan, Deathkins, Stone Clan, Immortal Vampires, and the Rakshasa's legion of Supreme Saints surrounding you. You can escape wherever you want. Moreover, you can also absorb the colorful divine fog in heaven and earth to recover the severely depleted Saint Qi in your body.”

“Kid, it sounds nice. I believe that a large number of your Yanluo clan cultivators are guarding over there, ready to hunt us down at any time to increase their points, right?” Lord Hornless said in a deep voice.

Yan Wushen smiled bitterly and replied, “I originally planned to do so, but unfortunately, something went wrong. The Yanluo clan powerhouses sent to the Immortal Vampires’ home planet are engaged in a fierce battle with the Immortal Vampires. I’m afraid that both sides have suffered heavy losses.”

Lord Hornless’s eyes were filled with disbelief, he said, “Most of the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires are here. How can they have the ability to start a war on their home planet? You, Yan Wushen, are just trying to lure us to teleport over as soon as possible. Since that’s the case, I will stay here for a while longer.”

Yan Wushen was not anxious. He said, “You are also an elite who has cultivated for more than 10,000 years. Don’t you know that there are heroes who could face a group of enemies of the same realm single-handedly in this world?”

“One versus many?” Lord Hornless sneered.

When their realm was low, there were indeed some cultivators who could fight one against dozens.

After all, there were too many mediocre people in the same realm.

It was impossible to fight one against many after reaching the Supreme Saint Realm! Because every Supreme Saint could fight one against many when they were young.

Yan Wushen said, “Zhang Ruochen of the Immortal Vampires is such an existence. With him guarding the planet, he is comparable to thousands of soldiers and horses. Even a hundred Supreme Saints of the same realm might not be able to suppress him.”

“Is Zhang Ruochen that strong?” Lord Hornless asked.

Here comes the opportunity!

Pan Ruo quickly spoke, “When Zhang Ruochen became famous, Lord Hornless had already been captured by the Fane of Destiny and locked up. It’s normal that you didn’t hear about him,” she said. “That man was born in Kunlun. On the Battlefield of Merits, he had wielded the Divine Artifact—Imperial Ruler. He had single-handedly fought against the legion of Saints of the entire Infernal Court. Wherever he transcended, he swept through everything. He and Yan Wushen were the most outstanding talents of this era. They were known as geniuses of the Yuanhui-level. Let alone the Supreme Saint realm, they can fight against a group of people. Even if they become gods in the future, they can fight against ten people in the same realm.”

Lord Hornless’ pupils contracted slightly when he heard the name “Kunlun.” He showed a glimmer of comprehension.

“Why would a cultivator from Kunlun come to the Infernal Court?”

Lord Hornless inquired to confirm his guess.

Pan Ruo looked at Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen said, “Because Zhang Ruochen still has half of the blood of the Infernal Court. He is the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius.”

“The grandson of Wargod Bloodixmius... Then his father would be... I see. I understand!” said Lord Hornless. He was moved. He could confirm what Pan Ruo wanted to tell him.

Lord Hornless’s expression didn’t change.

However, Yan Wushen sensed a faint killing intent from Lord Hornless.

Who was this killing intent directed at?

Yan Wushen was very vigilant and secretly guarded against it.

“As a cultivator of Kunlun, he willingly defected to the Infernal Court. Such a traitor deserves to die,” said Yan Wushen.

Lord Hornless exuded a venomous hatred for Zhang Ruochen. “All Supreme Saint Celestial Captives, listen up,” he said with a wave of his hand. “We’ll teleport to the planet of the Immortal Vampires. I won’t be able to control the other cultivators once we arrive. We can each flee separately. But would the Celestial Captives of the Avci Pavilion and the Celestial Court dare to murder Zhang Ruochen alongside me?” “I’ll follow your orders, Lord Hornless.”

Almost half of the 700 Celestial Captives spoke. Their voices were filled with strong killing intent.

They hated Zhang Ruochen bitterly for being willing to surrender to the Infernal Court.

Besides, they knew very well that it was hard to escape from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Only by following Lord Hornless would they have a better chance of survival.

Whoosh

The first batch of 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives teleported away instantly.

Following that, Lord Hornless and the remaining 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives entered the teleportation array.

The moment they stepped into the teleportation array, Lord Hornless suddenly turned around. He held his sword with both hands and slashed at Yan Wushen.

The colorful sword radiance surged and locked onto Yan Wushen.

No one expected Lord Hornless to suddenly attack. If it was any other cultivator, they would definitely be killed instantly. However, Yan Wushen was prepared. He pressed his hands on his temples and the Bridge of Vaitarna shot out from between his eyebrows.

BOOM!

The colorful sword light was blocked by the stone bridge.

Blood oozed out from between Yan Wushen's eyebrows and he flew hundreds of meters away. On the ground, he crashed into a long ravine and his body was covered in blood. Pan Ruo was also sent flying by the shockwave. The Nether River that protected her body was turned into water droplets.

"Audacious Celestial Captive, you are courting death."

Deep roars rang out in the sky. Wujiang and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei led the Supreme Saints of the three clans and rode The Scroll of Truth and Deceit. They quickly rushed to the seventh Dark Star.

Unfortunately, the light of the dimensional teleportation array dimmed. All the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were teleported away.

Yan Wushen got up from the ground and touched his bloody forehead. He looked at Pan Ruo. But he found that Wujiang had already helped her up. Wujiang pressed his palm on her back to heal her. He even said something like "You're taking too much risk".

Pan Ruo pushed Wujiang away and wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth. She looked very determined and said, "This little injury won't kill me!"

Wujiang was not angry. If Pan Ruo was not such an independent and strong character, he would lose interest instead and would no longer see her as attractive.

There were thousands of beautiful women, but very few who weren't pretentious.

Yan Wushen walked over and said, "It's strange. I didn't sense any killing intent from Lord Hornless at the beginning. But just now, when we talked about Zhang Ruochen's background, he seemed to have changed his mind and wanted to kill me. What's going on?"

Of course, Pan Ruo guessed what was going on.

At first, Lord Hornless must have thought that the cultivator chosen by the empress was Yan Wushen, so he would not kill them.

But after knowing that Zhang Ruochen was the cultivator chosen by the empress, his killing intent increased greatly. He wanted to kill Yan Wushen with one sword strike and help Zhang Ruochen kill a powerful enemy.

Unfortunately, Yan Wushen was too vigilant. He actually blocked the sword strike and was not killed.

Pan Ruo said, "Lord Hornless is a cultivator of the Avīci Pavilion. The master of the Avīci Pavilion was born in Kunlun. When Lord Hornless found out that Zhang Ruochen was a traitor to Kunlun, his emotions would naturally become extreme. Besides, the cultivators of Infernal Court and the Celestial Captives are mortal enemies. How could Lord Hornless not have killing intent towards us? He just wanted to escape and hid it well."

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and Wujiang nodded their heads lightly.

Yan Wushen shook his head and did not agree with Pan Ruo's point. This matter was not as simple as it seemed on the surface. He felt that there was a crucial point that he had overlooked.

Pan Ruo interrupted Yan Wushen's train of thought and said, "Let's hurry up and teleport to the Immortal Vampires' home planet. If we delay any longer, those Celestial Captives points will be collected by the Yanluo clan and the Bone Clan!"

The cultivators of the three upper clans teleported away one after another.

Yan Wushen stood alone on the seventh Dark Star. He looked at the Communication talisman in his hand. What it said was, "Zhang Ruochen's cultivation has improved greatly. Yan Zhexian has been expelled from the battlefield. Supreme Saint Yanhong has fallen. Yan Huangtu is heavily injured. The situation is extremely critical."

"The situation seems to be different from what I expected at the beginning! What went wrong? Cough, cough!" Yan Wushen coughed out a mouthful of golden blood.

It was not easy to block a sword from a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. He had sustained serious injuries.

The hundreds of Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan received Yan Wushen's message. Under the guidance of Xi, they quickly descended to the seventh Dark Star and stood at the edge of the teleportation array.

“Greetings, Lord Wushen.”

After Yan Wushen went to the Asuras' home planet alone, he became extremely powerful. Now, the Supreme Saint of the Yanluo clan was extremely respectful to him.

After a short period of recuperation, Yan Wushen's injuries had recovered, he said with a powerful aura, “Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, and the Eight Sons of Life and Death have already been defeated by Zhang Ruochen. Next, we will shoulder the responsibility of taking the first place of the ten clans for the Yanluo clan. The glory of the supreme clan must not be lost to our generation.”

“Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight for the glory of the supreme clan, and fight for the first place of the Yanluo clan.”

The Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan were filled with fighting spirits. They followed Yan Wushen and stepped into the teleportation array.

...

Chapter 2400: A Dramatic Turn

The Albajade Tree, which was more than ten thousand miles tall, was like rootless duckweed floating in the same spot where the Immortal Vampires' home planet used to be. Its entire body was glowing with radiance. Around the Albajade Tree, there were fragments of different sizes of stars. They were left behind after the home planet had disintegrated.

Rumble

A chaotic battle at the Supreme Saint-level erupted here.

Even in the Battlefield of Merits, it was rare to see a battle of this level. It could be said that the sky was falling and the earth was shaking.

The Immortal Vampires' Nine-Step Saint Kings and the heavily injured Supreme Saints had all retreated from the battlefield. Of course, many of them were forced to retreat by the Bone Clan Supreme Saints.

If they continued to stay on the battlefield, not only would they not be of any use, they would become a burden.

As for self-detonation of the Sainthood Source...

There were only a few cultivators who were determined to die.

Other than Zhang Ruochen, there were less than 50 Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints left on the battlefield. Under the pursuit of hundreds of Bone Clan Supreme Saints, they could only hide in the Albajade Tree and use the complicated environment inside the tree to continue fighting.

Of course, it was only a matter of time before they were all captured.

On the other side, Zhang Ruochen had single-handedly defeated the Eight Sons of Life and Death and forced them out of the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. He had also destroyed the two centipedes formed by the Array Masters of the Yanluo clan.

His battle results were astonishing.

However, when Zhang Ruochen sent the Eight Sons of Life and Death into the void, he was ambushed by Yan Huangtu's Great Demonic Shadow and was punched in the back. Even with the defense of his ten golden wings, he was still badly injured and his face was pale.

The Great Demonic Shadow was a secret technique cultivated by Yan Huangtu according to one of the ten Deva Paths of the Yanluo clan, the Deva Path of Great Demonic. It was condensed from the souls of millions of demonic cultivators and was very powerful, it was about 70% of the original body.

This was Yan Huangtu's biggest trump card, which had never been used publicly before.

With this move, Yan Huangtu was confident that he could dominate this era.

Unfortunately, in this era, more and more powerful figures appeared. Especially Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, made Yan Huangtu feel like he would be surpassed.

Yan Huangtu's original body and the Great Demonic Shadow stood side by side, looking at the injured Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Huangtu said, "The Immortal Vampires will all be wiped out soon. The defeat is set. There's no point in continuing to fight. How about this? Give me one Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and one Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. I promise to give the second place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting to the Immortal Vampires."

Zhang Ruochen glanced in the direction of the jade tree.

Hundreds of Bone Clan Supreme Saints surrounded the 10,000-mile-high Albajade Tree. They activated the bone fire and burned the Immortal Vampires who had escaped into the tree.

Any Immortal Vampires would grit their teeth at this sight.

Zhang Ruochen tried his best to remain calm. “How many points will the Bone Clan lose by attacking the Immortal Vampires so desperately? It doesn’t seem to be beneficial to them!”

“As long as we don’t kill the Immortal Vampires, we won’t lose many points. At most, one or two million.”. As for the self-destruction of the Immortal Vampires cultivator, of course, it has nothing to do with the Bone Clan. After all, he chose to commit suicide.” said Yan Huangtu while he was inhaling the colorful mist to recover from the severe depletion of Saint Qi and injuries.

Zhang Ruochen was caught in a dilemma.

As long as Zhang Ruochen attacks with all his might, it shouldn’t be long before he can drive the seriously injured Yan Huangtu off the battlefield and finish off this formidable foe.

However, the Immortal Vampires couldn’t wait that long.

If Zhang Ruochen returned to the Albajade Tree to rescue now, he would definitely be surrounded by hundreds of Bone Clan Supreme Saints. Even if he managed to escape, he would definitely be heavily injured.

Fighting one group at a time wasn’t easy. He would definitely have to pay the price.

“I still have a clansman with me. As long as he doesn’t die, the Immortal Vampires still have a chance to hold on to the number one position among the ten clans.”

Right now, Zhang Ruochen only hoped that on the battlefield on the seventh Dark Star, Lord Bladehell and Moyin could kill more Celestial Captives and collect more points. They must not disappoint him.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes were sharp. He was about to attack.

BOOM!

A powerful spatial ripple appeared in the direction of the Albajade Tree. Then, more than 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives appeared.

As soon as these Supreme Saint Celestial Captives appeared, they immediately spread out and fled in different directions.

...

The colorful divine fog at Celestial-Huntingfield was not the Saint Qi of heaven and earth, the Spiritual Qi of heaven and earth, the blood-red aura, or the Qi of energy that the cultivators of the Infernal Court breathed and breathed.

The Qi of energy contained in the colorful divine fog could be absorbed by all kinds of cultivators.

However, it was complicated to refine in one’s body.

The Qi of energy in the world was actually connected. They were the same in nature, but they had different attributes. It was like a cup of water. It could be salty, tasteless, sweet, bitter, hot, cold...

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. His expression changed again and again.

How could this be?

How could the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star be teleported here all of a sudden?

“Impossible, impossible... The Dark Star has an extremely strong pulling force. The dimensional teleportation array can’t operate there. It’s even more impossible to teleport a cultivator away. Unless...” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. Then Yan Wushen’s figure appeared in his mind.

It must be Yan Wushen.

It was Yan Wushen who had set up the dimensional teleportation array of darkness and mobilized the enormous

Power of Darkness contained in the seventh Dark Star to make the teleportation array work.

Only he had this ability.

Zhang Ruochen couldn't set up the dimensional teleportation array of darkness.

It wasn't because Zhang Ruochen's spatial attainments were inferior to Yan Wushen's, but because his understanding of the Path of Darkness was still at the elementary level.

"It seems that Yan Wushen's Path of Darkness is also very high. Yan Wushen, Yan Wushen, I underestimated you." Zhang Ruochen said as his face turned solemn. He felt his heart sink to the bottom.

Yan Huangtu was surprised at first too, but he quickly figured out the reason. He nodded slightly, but there was no joy on his face.

The most excited ones were none other than the Supreme Saints of the Bone Clan.

More than 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were suddenly sent to them. It was as if a pie had fallen from the sky. Naturally, they were extremely excited.

A Supreme Saint of the Bone Clan, who was in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, was the first to withdraw the bone fire, he waved his hand and said, "Don't worry about the Immortal Vampires for now. Follow me to hunt the Celestial Captives. Killing so many Supreme Saint Celestial Captives might help us enter the top five.

"The Immortal Vampires have nowhere to run. Leave them to the Yanluo clan to deal with!"

Hundreds of Bone Clan Supreme Saints were extremely excited. They quickly chased after the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives.

They all had weapons and could attack from a distance. They weren't afraid of the Celestial Captives exploding their Sainthood Sources.

Whoosh

A moment later, Lord Hornless and the other 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were teleported to the starry sky near the Albajade Tree. They didn't escape immediately. Instead, they quickly formed a formation.

Lord Hornless saw Zhang Ruochen from afar. He had a complicated look in his eyes.

He raised the Pentastone Sword and pointed at him. "That human man with ten golden wings is Zhang Ruochen, that bastard. Let's go and kill him."

Lord Hornless sent a secret message to one of the Celestial Captives, a Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

That Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was a purple beast from the Demon God realm of Celestial Court. Its upper body looked like a human, and its lower body had elephant-like legs. It is tall and sturdy.

The purple beast held a war hammer that it had taken from a cultivator from the Infernal Court. It led more than 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives and charged toward Zhang Ruochen and Yan Huangtu.

Lord Hornless stayed where he was and carefully observed the Albajade Tree.

With a flash, he hid on a branch. The branch was as thick as a river and was crystal white.

After a while, spatial fluctuations appeared again.

Under the leadership of Pan Ruo, Wujiang, and Supreme Saint Yuanfei, more than 1,000 Supreme Saints from the three upper clans arrived at the same time. Each of them was like a divine soldier and a heavenly general. Their saint might be unparalleled.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei scanned the entire starry sky. He had a general understanding of the current situation.

"This is bad," Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said. "Half of the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives have gone to kill Zhang Ruochen! They're no match for Zhang Ruochen. They're just giving him points."

Wujiang fixed his gaze on Zhang Ruochen. "We can't let Zhang Ruochen continue collecting points," he said in a deep voice. "Otherwise, the Immortal Vampires will sit firmly at the top of the ten clans."

Wujiang took out the Myriad Curse Bead and held it in his right palm.

Beside him, Pan Ruo asked in confusion, "Where did Lord Hornless go?"

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and Wujiang's hearts sank. They realized that something was wrong.

Whoosh

A brilliant colorful light appeared above their heads. Powerful Sword Qi slashed down.

Lord Hornless stood on the branch of the jade tree. The Pentastone Sword in his hand became hundreds of miles long. Like a colorful sacred river, it fell into the camp of the three upper clans' Supreme Saints.

Normally, the three upper clans had many Supreme Saints. No matter how high Lord Hornless's cultivation was or how powerful the Pentastone Sword was, he could easily neutralize them.

However, right now, they had just teleported over. Their formation was not stable and they did not expect to be ambushed by a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. Of course, they did not have the time to join forces to defend.

CRACK!

CRACK!

...

Dozens of the three upper clans' Supreme Saints were crushed by the Supreme Power of the Pentastone Sword.

There were also nearly a hundred Supreme Saints who screamed and were sent flying. Their injuries were severe.

With just one sword strike, they were able to achieve such a spectacular result. The three upper clans' Supreme Saints were all shocked by the battle prowess of the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint before them. They all retreated.

"Be careful, Lord Hornless is hiding in the tree." Supreme Saint Yuan Fei shouted.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was shocked. He and the 10 or so Supreme Saints beside him immediately held up The Scroll of Truth and Deceit. The scroll spread out and extended for hundreds of miles. It turned into a layer of defensive light.

Wujiang's eyes were cold. He summoned the power of the Myriad Curse Bead and started to curse Lord Hornless.

Lord Hornless laughed. His body became blurry and he charged into the depths of the tree branch.

The Albajade Tree was the true body of the Madre Bloody Shadow. There were more than 100,000 branches and they crisscrossed with each other. Once one hid within it, it was like a drop of water that dripped into the ocean. It was extremely difficult to find it.

The Supreme Saints of the three upper clans did not dare to recklessly chase after it.

"What do we do now?" said the Supreme Saints of the three upper clans.

Everyone present turned their gaze at Pan Ruo, Wujiang, and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Pan Ruo stared at the scattered branches of the jade tree. The branches looked dense, but in reality, the two closest branches were dozens of miles apart. The furthest branches could reach hundreds of miles.

The gap between the branches was wide.

Pan Ruo said, "Just now, I used the Path of Destiny to predict. Within that jade tree doesn't only have Lord Hornless. There are dozens of Immortal Vampires and the rest of the Immortal Vampires on them. As long as we kill them, the Immortal Vampires' points will be halved."

Then, Pan Ruo continued, “Everyone should have seen the data on the diamond-shaped mirror. Lord Hornless’s points have increased to 30 million. As long as we kill him and the Immortal Vampires, both the Nether Clan and the Deathkins will have a chance to take the second place among the ten clans.”

“I’m willing to lead the Nether Clan Supreme Saints to exterminate Lord Hornless and kill all the Immortal Vampires.”

“I’m willing to lead the Deathkin Supreme Saint in.”

Wujiang and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei spoke almost at the same time.

Both of them looked at each other in surprise.

Wujiang snorted coldly. “You think you can kill Lord Hornless alone?”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei smiled, “Doesn’t the Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint want to kill Zhang Ruochen? Zhang Ruochen had the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, and two Supreme Artifacts. If the Ten Thousand Hands Supreme Saint uses the Path of Darkness to devour Zhang Ruochen, he might have a chance to fuse the Grade Two Saintwill.”

Wujiang’s expression changed.

“There are more than 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives who want to kill Zhang Ruochen,” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said. “I’m afraid they will have more than 20 million points.”

After careful analysis, Wujiang finally made a decision. He raised his voice and said, “Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan, listen up. Go and kill the group of Celestial Captives charging at Zhang Ruochen as fast as you can. Make sure to kill them all.”

Swoosh

Before he could finish his words, Wujiang turned into a streak of lightning and flew over first.

A large group of Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan followed closely behind.

The corners of Supreme Saint Yuan Fei's lips curled up as he looked at them.

The 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives seemed to be easier to deal with than Lord Hornless. However, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei knew that they were chosen by Lord Hornless and most of them were determined to die.

The Nether Clan Supreme Saints would have to pay a huge price to surround them.

As for finding Lord Hornless and killing him, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei had his own methods.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei looked at Pan Ruo and clasped his hands together. He smiled and said, "Your Highness, please use your Path of Destiny to find the position of Lord Hornless and the Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints. We, the Deathkins, will deal with them."

"Alright!" Pan Ruo said.

Que, who was standing not too far away from Pan Ruo, revealed a strange expression. He looked at Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and was curious. How did this cultivator, who was much weaker than Wujiang, dare to kill Lord Hornless?

Although he was curious, he did not ask.

'Perhaps I will have to act up in the end,' Que thought to himself.

Chapter 2401: Curse of Dark and Light

Seeing more than 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives charging at him, Zhang Ruochen was not afraid. Instead, he was happy. He had to keep such a large amount of points.

Of course, he would never fight them head-on.

Even if more than 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives each used a saint technique and combined their power, they could easily kill a Supreme Saint at the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm. Even a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint would have to avoid their attacks.

Within a thousand miles, some Celestial Captives had already attacked.

Whoosh

A snake-shaped electric arc transcended through the void and struck Zhang Ruochen's chest.

Zhang Ruochen didn't move at all. He used his body to dissolve the attack. He laughed deliberately, "You weaklings, don't even think about hurting me from a long distance."

Perhaps it was because he had refined the Pale Blood Soil, but Zhang Ruochen's injuries healed quickly. He had mostly recovered from the punch from the Great Demonic Shadow.

Even Zhang Ruochen was surprised.

The Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were enraged. They thought to themselves, 'You're a traitor who defected to the Infernal Court. How dare you laugh at us?'

"The traitor deserves to die. I'm going to self-destruct with my Sainthood Source and die with him. Help me get within a thousand steps of him," a Bodhisattva from the Western Buddha Realm said angrily like a Vajra.

After reaching the Supreme Saint Realm, one can be titled “Bodhisattva” in the Western Buddha Realm.

This Vajra-like Bodhisattva’s Dharma name was Dao Yuan. His cultivation had reached the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He was one of the top five powerful figures in this group of Supreme Saints.

They got closer and closer. In a moment, they were within 50 kilometers of Zhang Ruochen.

All the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were delighted. As long as they got closer, they didn’t need to self-destruct with their Sainthood Source. They all attacked together. Hundreds of saint techniques covered him. No matter how high Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation was, he would be reduced to ashes, including Yan Huangtu, who wasn’t far from Zhang Ruochen and had to die.

Dao Yuan had been paying attention to Zhang Ruochen. Suddenly, his expression changed. “Not good, Zhang Ruochen has disappeared!”

Whoosh

The space trembled.

Zhang Ruochen used the Great Dimensional Shift and appeared among the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives.

“The Spatial Domain.”

“Null Time realm.”

“The Realm-frame of Truth.”

“The Immovable Wisdom King’s Saint Aspect.”

“Thundergod Reverend.”

Zhang Ruochen used five techniques in a row. He also used the Pleiades Lotus as a shield. He used six different things at once, squeezing his spiritual power to the limit.

The Spatial Domain and Null Time realm greatly reduced the speed of all the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives.

The Realm-frame of Truth could allow Zhang Ruochen to see through all illusions and fantasies. It could also increase his attack power, greatly increasing the battle strength of Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect and Thundergod Reverend, each strike could make a Supreme Saint Celestial Captives bleed or explode.

Some were heavily injured, while others were killed instantly.

In just six breaths, the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect and the Thundergod Reverend had killed nine Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints and injured 54 Supreme Saints. There was bloody fog rolling in the starry sky.

It was a shocking scene to fight against more than 300 Supreme Saints alone and destroy the bodies of 60 to 70 Supreme Saints in a row.

All the cultivators watching the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms felt their souls tremble.

Zhang Ruochen had only maintained his peak condition for six breaths, but he was already out of strength. His head was dizzy. He quickly put away the Thundergod Reverend and continued to control the Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect and the Pleiades Lotus with all his strength, one attack, one defense.

The Supreme Saint Celestial Captives' attacks continued to hit Zhang Ruochen.

However, Zhang Ruochen was able to use the mysteries of The Realm-frame of Truth to predict in advance and move out to avoid their attacks.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen was like a wolf in a flock of sheep.

He could only kill Celestial Captives but they couldn't hurt him at all.

Countless cultivators who were onlookers fell silent as they witnessed this scene. They wondered how this could have happened. Even if the spiritual power of the Celestial Captives was sealed, there were far too many people. How could they be helpless in the face of such adversity?

In the end, a god came up with an answer. Zhang Ruochen cultivated Time, Dimension, and Truth at the same time. These three Paths of the Ancients allowed him to not only kill enemies across realms but also be at ease when facing attacks from low-realm cultivators, he could advance and retreat freely.

Besieging was ineffective against Zhang Ruochen.

“This is the terrible thing about a Master of Time and Space! The higher the cultivation, the more powerful he is.”

Some gods of the Infernal Court recalled the battle when they besieged Saint Monk Xumi.

If it hadn't been for Saint Monk Xumi's desire to protect Kunlun, the Infernal Court might not have been able to kill him even if they sent a swarm of gods to besiege him, because they couldn't keep him.

Of course, even though many gods attacked Saint Monk Xumi, they still couldn't kill him.

Saint Monk Xumi used all his divine power to transform it into the power to protect Kunlun before he died.

It was a martyr's death.

He had fought for 100,000 years for the lives of Kunlun. He had also fought for time for the severely injured gods of Kunlun to recuperate.

All the gods of an eternal and indestructible Macroworld couldn't die.

“If Zhang Ruochen keeps killing like this, won't the points between the Immortal Vampires and the Yanluo clan widen again?”

Yan Huangtu stopped healing and killed more than 300 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives with his Great Demonic Shadow.

“Zhang Ruochen, do you not care about the lives of the remaining Immortal Vampires? If all of them are killed, what's the point of collecting more points now?”

Yan Huangtu himself hunted the Celestial Captives, while the Great Demonic Shadow held the Scepter of Heaven's Pass and guarded by his side. It was used to defend against the Celestial Captives' attacks and to guard against Zhang Ruochen's sudden attack.

Zhang Ruochen didn't say anything.

Under the hunting of the two powerful figures, even if the Supreme Saint's vitality was strong, the Celestial Captives kept dying.

Many heavily injured Celestial Captives were killed several times. Their souls and bodies were instantly destroyed.

Not long after, nearly 100 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives died.

The remaining Supreme Saint Celestial Captives were killed to the point of fear. They immediately scattered in all directions.

"Zhang Ruochen isn't someone we can kill. Let's wait for Lord Hornless to come and kill him," the purple beast stared at Zhang Ruochen with fear. He turned into a phantom and fled into the distance.

"Going somewhere?"

Zhang Ruochen folded his arms. A powerful space shock wave spread out with him at the center.

36 Dimensional Swords condensed around him. They turned into a rain of swords and flew toward the fleeing purple beast.

The purple beast was a Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He had a million points.

Any cultivator would look at it with shining eyes. It was more attractive than a beautiful woman.

The Dimensional Sword Dance was a technique comparable to the high-level saint technique of the Thousand-Koan Realm.

The purple beast looked back and saw the rain of swords flying toward it. Its Saint Soul trembled. It felt like it was locked on to death.

Boom

The Great Demonic Shadow appeared in the middle of the attack. It waved the Scepter of Heaven's Pass and controlled the Supreme Power, shattering more than half of the Dimensional Swords.

Only five Dimensional Swords caught up to the purple beast. They were blocked by the purple flames he spat out, neutralizing Zhang Ruochen's fatal attack.

Zhang Ruochen's face darkened. Yan Huangtu was still interfering.

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to pay attention to him for the time being. He used the Great Dimensional Shift and prepared to continue chasing after the purple beast.

Bang

He was only halfway through casting the Great Dimensional Shift when he was bounced back by an invisible space wall. His body reappeared in space. Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen sensed that something was wrong in advance, so he wasn't injured.

He steadied himself and looked forward.

A dark green light ball appeared out of thin air around him. It had a diameter of about 30 meters and trapped him inside.

The light ball was originally invisible. It only appeared after he hit it.

At this moment, the light of the dark green light ball gradually faded and disappeared into nothingness.

Zhang Ruochen did not dare to act rashly. He knew that the light ball was still there.

'Did someone set this trap in advance? No, that's not right. If this ball of light was here earlier, my Spatial Domain and Realm-frame of Truth would have sensed it,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Yan Huangtu was surprised when he saw this.

A moment later, he seemed to have guessed something. He turned his head and saw a large group of Nether Clan Supreme Saints flying into the void. They formed small teams to hunt the escaping Celestial Captives.

“Zhang Ruochen, you can stay here. I’ll go hunt the purple beast first!”

Yan Huangtu laughed loudly. He turned into a streak of golden light and chased after them.

Zhang Ruochen, of course, saw the Nether Clan Supreme Saint. He had attained enlightenment. He turned on his Eye of Truth and took a look around. “Wujiang, I know you’re hiding nearby,” he said. “What kind of enchantment is this?”

There was no response in the void.

However, the dark green ball of light with a diameter of 30 meters naturally appeared and quickly shrank.

27 meters, 24 meters, 21 meters...

The space that Zhang Ruochen could move in became smaller and smaller.

Zhang Ruochen’s face darkened. Wujiang had learned his lesson. He no longer fought him head-on. Instead, he took full advantage of his situation and hid in the darkness to curse him.

“Rise!”

Zhang Ruochen opened his hands and held up the Profound Spatial Dimension, blocking the dark green light ball 9 meters away.

The Profound Spatial Dimension could hold up to 3000 meters. Zhang Ruochen thought that he could break the light ball directly. However, the strength of the light ball was far stronger than he had expected. At first, it was only about 30 feet in diameter, but soon, it was pushed back to 30 feet in diameter.

‘It seems that Wujiang is using the Myriad Curse Bead. A Supreme Artifact should be that powerful,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

The dark green light ball didn’t continue to shrink, but hundreds of Nether Clan Supreme Saints flew in this direction.

They were all mobilizing their Nether Qi and activating the Regal Artifact in their hands. It seemed like they wanted to attack together and kill him in the light ball.

Hidden in the darkness, Wujiang held the Myriad Curse Bead with both hands and mumbled, "Trapped in the Curse of Light and Dark, you can't escape. Today is your funeral."

At this moment, Wujiang didn't show any emotion on his face. He was frighteningly calm.

If Pan Ruo, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, and the others were here, they would be shocked. This was because they all felt that after being defeated by Zhang Ruochen, Wujiang had become extreme and reckless. There was a huge flaw in his state of mind.

But who would have thought that it was all an act?

In fact, after being defeated by Zhang Ruochen, Wujiang's state of mind had not collapsed. Instead, it had been tempered. He had become more reserved and deep. Otherwise, he would not have gotten half of the opportunity of the Nether Clan's home planet.

The reason for his disguise was that after careful analysis, Wujiang felt that there might be spies in the three upper clans, and they had a different relationship with Zhang Ruochen. Otherwise, there would not always be mistakes in their actions.

Wujiang had several suspects, including Pan Ruo and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

The purpose of pretending to be blinded by hatred was to make the spy look down on him. The more careless he was, the easier it would be for the spy to give himself away.

Earlier, when Pan Ruo was injured, Wujiang immediately went to help her heal. He wanted to investigate her background. Although he didn't think that Pan Ruo was a spy from the three upper clans, he still wanted to investigate her.

"Break!"

The Pleiades Lotus turned into a black flower. It spread out seven petals and became hundreds of meters in size. Together with the Profound Spatial Dimension, it broke the light ball formed by the dark light curse and turned into dark green light spots.

Zhang Ruochen escaped.

Only a Supreme Artifact could resist another Supreme Artifact.

In the darkness, Wujiang's eyelids twitched. He quickly put away the Myriad Curse Bead.

Whoosh

Above Wujiang's head, Zhang Ruochen rushed out from the spatial ripples. He stomped down with Yanshen's leg. The scorching divine flame dispersed the Power of Darkness enveloping Wujiang, revealing his handsome figure.

Wujiang put his hands together. The divine shadow of Netherdeus appeared behind him.

The Divine Shadow stretched out its huge palm and collided with Yanshen's leg.

After a moment of stalemate, the divine shadow of Netherdeus shook violently and cracked.

Wujiang's face changed slightly. He turned into a black light shuttle and retreated quickly.

BANG!

The divine shadow of Netherdeus shattered and was burned into sparks by the divine flames.

"Netherdeus, such vulnerability."

Zhang Ruochen flew to the opposite side of Wujiang with flames burning all over his body.

Although he said this, Zhang Ruochen thought more highly of Wujiang because he intended to seriously injure him with that kick.

It was indeed remarkable that Wujiang could retreat unscathed.

His alertness and judgment were far better than before.

Wujiang's expression didn't change. "It seems that your cultivation has improved greatly. You can find my hiding place in the dark. What's with the colorful radiance?"

The colorful radiance on Zhang Ruochen's body could be seen throughout the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. It was too shocking. Wujiang was naturally curious.

Wujiang was still uneasy because he didn't understand this.

Time was precious. Zhang Ruochen didn't have the time to talk about this with him. He was going to chase after Yan Huangtu and stop him from hunting the purple beast.

But...

BOOM!

A deafening sound came from afar.

The gold skeleton-like body of Yan Huangtu was slashed back by a blood sword filled with killing intent. It flew more than 200 miles.

The power of the blood sword was so strong that the bones of Yan Huangtu exploded. Golden light dispersed everywhere as if the Royal Divine Frames were about to be shattered.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes narrowed. "Lan Ying is here to join in the fun? No... It's her."

Lady Wind's figure appeared beside the blood sword.

She held a 33 centimeters long white Destiny Feather and controlled tens of millions of Precepts of Destiny. She shot it into the body of Yan Huangtu's Great Demonic Shadow, causing it to freeze on the spot.

It didn't mean that Lady Wind's cultivation was stronger than the Great Demonic Shadow's.

It was just that the power of the Destiny Feather could counter the Great Demonic Shadow.

Lady Wind wanted to try to control the Great Demonic Shadow's body, but she didn't succeed. Her two willow-like eyebrows couldn't help but frown.

Lan Ying flew out of the Sword of Asura and condensed a child-like body, he grinned hideously and said, "This Great Demonic Shadow's body was condensed from the souls of millions of demonic cultivators and was repeatedly condensed and assimilated by Yan Huangtu. How can it be controlled by your cultivation? Let me devour it in one bite."

Lan Ying opened his mouth wide and swallowed the Great Demonic Shadow into his stomach.

Chapter 2402: Chant of Death

“Boom.”

The space collapsed and a huge hole appeared. The exhausted Yan Huangtu was pushed into the void by Zhang Ruochen.

Wujiang hesitated for a moment and did not stop him.

It was not necessarily a bad thing for him that Yan Huangtu was driven out of the battlefield.

After swallowing the Great Demonic Shadow, Lan Ying's face suddenly changed. His child-like body became bigger and bigger like a balloon being blown up.

“Not good. The soul power contained in the Great Demonic Shadow is too powerful, and it also has the powerful will of Yan Huangtu.”

Lan Ying's body radiated a rainbow of colors. They shifted between light and dark, barely keeping his body from expanding. He sent a message to Lady Wind before flying into the Sword of Asura.

Lady Wind was stunned. She thought, ‘Lan Ying was unrestrained. How powerful was the Great Demonic Shadow? He dared to swallow it in one gulp. Wasn't he afraid of being stuffed to death?’

It seemed that Lan Ying had to refine the Great Demonic Shadow in a short period and couldn't make a move.

However, after Lan Ying's sneak attack succeeded, he got rid of Yan Huangtu and helped the Immortal Vampires a lot.

Lady Wind was being pursued by Yan Huangtu and Pink Skull a few days ago. She was able to flee because she met Lan Ying. She then made some secret deals with Lan Ying. One of them was to work together to deal with the Yanluo clan.

Lady Wind looked at the Scepter of Heaven's Pass floating in mid-air. A smile appeared on her beautiful face and she was about to retrieve it.

Whoosh

The Scepter of Heaven's Pass turned into a white light and flew away. It landed in Yan Wushen's hands.

Yan Wushen's figure was cold and indifferent as he played with the Scepter of Heaven's Pass in his hands, he said in a deep voice, "The Supreme Artifact of Yanluo clan is not something that you can take lightly. Xi, you are ranked 13th on the list of those who achieved the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. Do you dare to fight against Lady Wind alone?"

Xi wore a black robe and held an ebony staff in his hand as he walked out from the hundreds of Supreme Saints of the Yanluo clan, he said, "I have subdued two Nine-lives Blood Ravens on my home planet. I have long wanted to battle and raise the ranking of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

Two crows with blood-red feathers flew on the left and right sides of Xi and croaked strangely.

The croaks were so strange that even Supreme Saints would feel uneasy when they heard them.

One had to know that Supreme Saints who were ranked in the top 18 of the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm were all extraordinary individuals. They had at least fused a Grade Four Saintwill and possessed the ability to cross realms and fight against Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints.

The two Nine-lives Blood Ravens which Xi used the Soul Capture of the Deva Path of Great Wiccan to tame were both in the early stage of the Thousand-Koan realm. If the three of them attacked together, they would be able to fight against a Supreme Saint in the mid-stage or advanced stage of the Thousand-Koan realm.

Yan Wushen warned, "Be careful of her Destiny Feather."

“My Deva Path of Great Wiccan is used to counter the Destiny Feather.”

Xi stepped on the two Nine-lives Blood Ravens, it was as if he was stepping on two blood wheels. He burst forth with unparalleled speed.

He was still a thousand miles away from Lady Wind. The ebony staff in his hand had already started to glow with a dark light. He used a secret technique of the Path of Wiccan and attacked Lady Wind.

Lady Wind's injuries hadn't healed, but she wasn't afraid of Xi at all.

She reached out with one hand and grabbed the hilt of the blood-red Sword of Asura. She looked exhausted. She reached out with her other hand and held the sword with both hands. She finally managed to lift the Supreme Artifact, the Sword of Slaughter.

The battle between Lady Wind and Xi was about to start.

“Lady Wind is being held back by Xi. Then, only Zhang Ruochen remains among the Immortal Vampires,” said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen's gaze shifted from the battlefield between Lady Wind and Xi to Zhang Ruochen. He instructed the Yanluo clan Supreme Saints behind him, “Hurry up and hunt the Celestial Captives. Try your best to collect points.”

A Yanluo clan Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm asked, “Why don't you go and kill Lord Hornless first? He is worth 30 million points.”

Yan Wushen stared at him.

Immediately, the Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint did not dare to continue speaking. Together with the other Yanluo clan cultivators, they flew rapidly in all directions.

Yan Wushen shook his head gently and took out the diamond-shaped mirror. He saw the rankings on it.

The Immortal Vampires were in first place with 89 million points.

The Yanluo clan was in second place with 83 million points.

The Immortal Vampires' points were lower because the 63 Nine-Step Saint Kings who had teleported away with 6,300 clansmen were almost all captured by the Bone Clan Supreme Saints, and a large number of clansmen died.

If Zhang Ruochen hadn't killed a large number of Supreme Saint Celestial Captives, the Immortal Vampires' points would have been even more unsightly.

Of course, the Yanluo clan's points were also deducted because they attacked the Immortal Vampires' cultivators.

Yan Wushen said to himself, "There's only a difference of six million points. As long as Zhang Ruochen is restrained, even if we don't kill Lord Hornless, the Yanluo clan can kill other Celestial Captives to close the gap."

It was too risky to surround and kill Lord Hornless. Even if they could, a large number of Yanluo clan Supreme Saints would die.

Yan Wushen knew Supreme Saint Yuan Fei had brought a large number of Deathkins to surround and kill Lord Hornless for all of these reasons, but he was unmoved. Leaving aside whether or not Supreme Saint Yuan Fei could kill Lord Hornless, even if he did, it would be a huge help to the Yanluo clan.

Of course, Yan Wushen didn't believe that Supreme Saint Yuan Fei could kill Lord Hornless.

Lord Hornless could only die at Yan Wushen's hands.

"It's not too late to take care of Lord Hornless after we've locked on to the absolute victory of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting," said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen had to admit that the Yanluo clan had never been forced into such a predicament in the previous Battle of Celestial-Huntings. There was no doubt that the Immortal Vampires led by Zhang Ruochen was indeed very powerful.

He wanted to fight Zhang Ruochen fair and square on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. He wanted to determine victory and even death.

But now, he couldn't do that. He had to ensure that the Yanluo clan could win first place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. He had to do everything he could to deal with a powerful challenger like Zhang Ruochen.

In the face of the Yanluo clan's interests, Yan Wushen's personal feelings had to be put aside.

...

Zhang Ruochen was not interested in fighting Wujiang. He knew that killing the Celestial Captives was the most important thing to do at this moment.

However, Wujiang did not give up. He kept mobilizing the Myriad Curse Bead to cast a curse on Zhang Ruochen.

Wujiang said, "Zhang Ruochen, it's useless. These Celestial Captives are destined to be divided among the Nether Clan, the Stone Clan, the Bone Clan, and the Yanluo clan. It's only a matter of time before the points of the Immortal Vampires are surpassed by the Yanluo clan.

"Once Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and the Deathkins kill the Immortal Vampires hiding in the jade tree... Then, the points of the Immortal Vampires will not only be surpassed by the Yanluo clan, but also by the Rakshasas, the Nether Clan, and the Deathkins. They'll be beaten back to their original state. All your efforts will be in vain.

"Falling to the bottom of a pit must be hard for you, right? But you can't change anything!

"Instead of struggling, why don't you stay and fight me fair and square?"

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen, who was flying, stopped. He stared at him coldly and said, "Okay, as you wish."

Zhang Ruochen was caught off guard by Wujiang's curse. He didn't want to fight just now, so he suffered a few small losses.

Since Zhang Ruochen couldn't shake off Wujiang, he changed his strategy and decided to finish him off as soon as possible.

“Brother Wujiang, Wushen is here to hold down the fort for you.”

said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen crossed space and appeared 300 miles behind Zhang Ruochen. He smiled and didn't seem to plan to attack.

However, Yan Wushen's Spatial Domain was released and covered a vast area. He wanted to stop Zhang Ruochen from escaping and trap him on the battlefield.

Of course, wasn't that the same as trapping Wujiang here?

“Thank you, Brother Wushen,” said Wujiang.

Wujiang was aware of the strangeness of the Dimension and Time. Streaks of dark rays appeared on his body and formed a 9-meters-wide black hole. His body disappeared inside.

Zhang Ruochen turned his head and glanced at Yan Wushen. “You want to join hands with him?”

Yan Wushen shook his head and said, “I've already promised Brother Wujiang that I would give him a chance to avenge himself. So, I won't attack until the victor has been decided.”

“I still believe in your words,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen nodded and ignored him. His body flashed and he disappeared. When he reappeared, he was already within 3000 meters of the black hole. Then, he released the Profound Spatial Dimension.

“Dimensional Freeze.”

The space within 3000 meters became frozen.

Only the space around the black hole was affected by the Power of Darkness. It instantly shattered a large area of frozen space.

“Violet Gourd.”

“Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect.”

“Incarceration of Divine Demon.”

“Realm-frame of Truth.”

Zhang Ruochen held the Violet Gourd with both hands. He urged the Supreme Power to condense a red light pillar and fly toward the black hole.

The void burned wherever the light pillar transcended.

The Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect and Incarceration of Divine Demon merged into one. They supported their enormous bodies and formed a cloud-sized handprint. They pressed down from above.

In the Realm-frame of Truth, each star flew out a beam of light. They turned into a torrent of starlight and struck the black hole together with the scarlet beam of light.

Yan Wushen's eyes focused. He saw that Zhang Ruochen was planning to win in one strike. He wanted to get rid of Wujiang in the shortest time possible.

"To control these powerful techniques, Zhang Ruochen must have used all his strength and concentrated his mind. If I attack from behind now, he won't be able to resist at all. He'll be defeated instantly."

Yan Wushen was conflicted. He had already made up his mind to deal with Zhang Ruochen at all costs to win first place for the Yanluo clan.

But now...

The opportunity was right in front of him. He was too embarrassed to attack.

"I still believe you, Yan Wushen." If another cultivator had said this, Yan Wushen might not have taken it to heart. However, Zhang Ruochen's words affected Yan Wushen's state of mind.

Yan Wushen wondered, 'Zhang Ruochen must have said this on purpose to affect my heart. If I attack him from behind now, even if I defeat him or even kill him, I will feel guilty. In the future, in the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm, there will be a huge knot in my heart.'

Finally, Yan Wushen smiled bitterly and did not make a move.

Wujiang was also amazing. With the 66th level of spiritual power, he used the Myriad Eye Illusion to support the divine shadow of Netherdeus. He also released the Nether Domain and mobilized the Myriad Curse Bead to cast thirteen curses in a row.

Rumble

The two of them used their techniques and clashed intensely.

After about three breaths, the divine shadow of Netherdeus has shattered again. The 900-meters-wide black hole was broken by the columns of flames and starlight.

Pfft

Wujiang spat out blood and was sent flying.

It was strange. The divine shadow of Netherdeus and the black hole were both shattered, but the Nether Domain he condensed only suffered some damage. It was because of the Nether Domain's defense. Even if he was hit by the Supreme Power, Wujiang only spat out a mouthful of saint blood.

If it had been any other cultivator, they would have been turned into ashes.

Zhang Ruochen had been attacked by the curse. His spiritual power, physical body, and Saint Soul had all suffered some injuries, but none of them were severe.

His current physique seemed to have a strong resistance to the curse.

Whoosh

After Wujiang flew out, he had yet to stabilize his body when Zhang Ruochen rushed out of the void. The Violet Gourd in Zhang Ruochen's hand hacked directly at the top of Wujiang's head.

Blood spurted out of Wujiang's head with a bang.

Then Zhang Ruochen struck Wujiang's heart with his palm again.

...

...

In the blink of an eye, Zhang Ruochen attacked 12 times in a row. Wujiang's skull was shattered, his chest caved in, and his legs were smashed into bloody mud.

Every move was meant to kill Wujiang.

More than 100 Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan caught up and saw this scene. They were all terrified.

Zhang Ruochen was too bold. He wanted to kill Wujiang.

Did he know who Wujiang was? Did he know who Wujiang's master was?

"Stop."

"Form a formation and attack together. Use the curse to attack Zhang Ruochen."

There were a total of 132 Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan. They formed a strange seal with their hands and chanted curses.

The power of the curse shuttled between them, becoming stronger and stronger.

The starry sky within a thousand miles was enveloped by the Qi of Death.

Yan Wushen, who was watching the battle from the side, felt his heart stop beating. His body turned cold and his body temperature instantly disappeared. Furthermore, it continued to drop.

"The Chant of Death," said Yan Wushen.

Yan Wushen's expression changed slightly. Golden Buddhist light burst out from his body, expelling the power of the curse that invaded his body. He quickly cast the Great Dimensional Shift and retreated far away.

More than 100 Nether Clan Supreme Saints had cast their curses at the same time. After layers of overlapping, they could easily kill a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint.

Zhang Ruochen's heart stopped beating. His palm that had been attacking Wujiang slowed down for a moment.

At this moment, Wujiang, who had been beaten to the point of being unable to retaliate, exploded and turned into a cloud of black fog.

Whoosh

The black fog appeared again in the center of the 132 Nether Clan Supreme Saints. It condensed into Wujiang's body. His body was still dripping with blood and was even slightly deformed. Countless bones in his body had been broken.

Fortunately, Wujiang's spiritual power was far stronger than Zhang Ruochen's and protected his Saint Soul.

Otherwise, after being hit by Zhang Ruochen 12 times in a row, even if his body was not destroyed, his Saint Soul would be destroyed.

"I see, it's the Chant of Death. I'll control it and kill Zhang Ruochen."

Wujiang knew that his strength was indeed far from Zhang Ruochen's, so he gave up fighting him alone. His body could not move, but his spiritual power could activate the Myriad Curse Bead and float above his head.

He chanted the curse.

Wujiang and the 132 Nether Clan Supreme Saints' Power of the Curse all gathered toward the Myriad Curse Bead.

"Zhang Ruochen, this Chant of Death was meant to kill Lord Hornless. I didn't expect it to be used on you first. More than 100 Nether Clan Supreme Saints sent you to your death. You've died gloriously!"

As Wujiang's voice rang out, the entire starry sky darkened. Terrifying killing intent brewed.

Yan Wushen retreated a thousand miles again. He was extremely fearful of the Chant of Death. This was the first time he was worried about Zhang Ruochen. 'With the help of the Myriad Curse Bead, the curse can threaten the life of a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. Zhang Ruochen can't stop it. is he going to die at Wujiang's hands?'

Although Yan Wushen saw Zhang Ruochen as this generation's only opponent and didn't want him to perish at the hands of other cultivators, there was no reason to save him at this time.

So, Yan Wushen stood aside and wanted to see if Zhang Ruochen could break the curse and break himself free.

...

Chapter 2403: Perception

It was necessary to obtain something personal from the target in order to cast a curse on them. It could be a drop of blood, a strand of hair, or a person's clothing.

Without any of these items, if one wanted to cast a curse on the enemy, one had to use one's spiritual power or gaze to lock on to the enemy.

If one could not lock on to the enemy, the power of the curse would naturally be greatly reduced.

Just like Yan Wushen, he had used the light of Buddha and easily purified the curse that had invaded his body.

Wujiang's spiritual power was unparalleled in the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. No cultivator could compare to him. Zhang Ruochen had moved more than 20 times, but he still couldn't escape from Wujiang's spiritual power lock.

At the end, when Wujiang cast the Chant of Death, he also cast the Curse of Light and Dark, completely trapping Zhang Ruochen.

'What a strange curse.' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen stood in a circle of dark green dark light. He didn't panic, but his heart had stopped beating.

No matter how immune his body was to the curse, it couldn't resist the power of such a terrifying curse.

His body temperature dropped rapidly to the freezing point.

His blood flow slowed down.

What was more terrifying was that his heart had lost its vitality. It was like it was frozen or turned into stone. Even with his level-65 spiritual power, he couldn't protect it.

'Many gods of the Infernal Court are probably watching me. If I use the Heart of Truth, I'll definitely be exposed,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen was confident that he could break the Chant of Death by using the Heart of Truth.

But he didn't dare to use it directly.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen could also escape into the Violet Gourd and use Supreme Power to fight against the Chant of Death. However, even though he could save his life, it was the same as giving up the Battle of Celestial-Hunting and completely trapping himself.

Zhang Ruochen came up with several countermeasures in a flash, but they didn't work.

"This is the only way!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes became icy. He unleashed a million times more absolute yang Qi that he had previously suppressed. The divine flames contained in the Divine Purification Flame, as well as Yanshen's leg, became violent as a result.

His body turned red in an instant.

Lub-dub

His heart beat again.

Zhang Ruochen's body burned with divine flames. His two eyeballs turned into fire beads. The dark green light that trapped him became slightly distorted.

"Blood Grind Ember."

A blood-colored millstone gradually formed above his head.

The light of stars in the Realm-frame of Truth spread around his body. It pushed open the dark light and gathered toward the blood-colored millstone. The destructive aura from the blood-colored millstone grew stronger and stronger.

Wujiang's expression froze, he sent a voice transmission to the 132 Nether Clan Supreme Saints at the same time, "What Zhang Ruochen used was the ultimate technique that Wargod Bloodximus was famous for when he was a Supreme Saint. He used the Path of Truth to fuse with it. He probably wants to use ten times his attack power.

“Everyone, listen up. Those who can manifest The Gate of Destiny can use the Power of Destiny to suppress Zhang Ruochen.

“Zang Wentian, Zang Wenhai, Supreme Saint Wu Ji... The ten of you, enter my Nether Domain and form the decagon nether formation.”

The eerie Nether Domain appeared beneath Wujiang’s feet and spread out for hundreds of miles. Inside, there was the white bone demon mountain, the blood-red lake, the magnificent nether city... all sorts of terrifying and unparalleled scenes.

On the Nether Clan’s home planet, half of the opportunities that Wujiang had obtained were related to the Nether Domain, which doubled the effect of his Nether Domain.

Furthermore, as long as he spent more time, Wujiang was confident that he could make the Nether Domain even more mysterious. Even if he became a god in the future, there would be endless benefits.

The ten Supreme Saints of the Nether Clan rushed to the ten directions of the Nether Domain, preparing to form a formation.

Once the formation was completed, even if Zhang Ruochen unleashed ten times his attack power, he wouldn’t be able to break through the defense of the Nether Domain.

“Amitabha! This is great! The opportunity has finally come!”

The Supreme Saint Celestial Captive, Dao Yuan used the “Boulder secret technique.” His body became like a rock fragment floating in this space, ready to ambush Zhang Ruochen at any time.

However, Zhang Ruochen’s Path of Dimension was powerful. He hadn’t found a suitable opportunity.

Wujiang was doing his best to control the Chant of Death, the Curse of Light and Dark, and the Nether Domain. Suddenly, he sensed a rock fragment flying toward him.

“Huh? A stone? That’s not right,” said Wujiang.

Wujiang's expression changed and he shouted, "There's an ambush. Be careful."

"Haha! It's too late. Ashes to ashes, dust to dust. Everything will be gone."

The stone fragment turned into Dao Yuan's figure. It had a bald head and a round face. Its body gave off a golden light and its body started to crack.

Boom

He self-detonated his Sainthood Source.

The ten Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints who wanted to form a formation were the first to bear the brunt. They were in the center of Dao Yuan's self-detonation. They all exploded into ten balls of blood mist. Only pieces of saint bones were left.

Dao Yuan was a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint. The destructive power of his self-detonation was too strong. He pounced on Wujiang and more than a hundred Nether Clan Supreme Saints.

Wujiang gritted his teeth. He was so angry that he was trembling.

If he hadn't used all his strength to deal with Zhang Ruochen, how could a mere Celestial Captives have the chance to self-explode his Sainthood Source in front of him?

Ten Hundred-Shackle Realm Nether Clan Supreme Saints had died. The losses were too great. In the eyes of the Nether Clan gods, it was all Wujiang's fault. He had to take full responsibility.

Wujiang took a deep breath and pressed his palm forward.

Whoosh

A circular dark ray formed in front of the Myriad Curse Bead. It was like a shield, blocking the surging destructive power.

Zhang Ruochen was slightly surprised. He hadn't expected such a change.

Actually, Dao Yuan wanted to ambush Zhang Ruochen, but he saw more than 100 Nether Clan Supreme Saints gathered. They weren't prepared at all. They seemed like they could all be killed in one wave.

Thus, he changed his strategy at the last minute.

What was the point of dying together with Zhang Ruochen?

Killing more than 100 Infernal Court Supreme Saints in one go would give him a greater sense of accomplishment.

"This is a good opportunity," said Zhang Ruochen.

BOOM!

Zhang Ruochen shattered the Curse of Light and Dark and struck out the Blood Grind Embers with 10 times the attack power. It passed through the destructive power formed by the self-detonation of the circle and crashed into the circular dark light screen in front of Wujiang.

"Oh no!" said Wujiang.

Wujiang's heart sank when he saw the blood-red millstone that was bigger than a mountain.

A brilliant destructive light wave spread out. The dark light Shield shattered. Wujiang and more than 100 Nether Clan Supreme Saints were thrown out at the same time. They were all seriously injured.

"In the end... I still lost..." said Wujiang.

Wujiang's body had suffered even more damage. The Myriad Curse Bead had an effect on his spiritual power as well. He was injured to some extent.

"Slash!"

Zhang Ruochen chased after him. He waved his hand and cut open a Dimensional Rift.

Wujiang barely held up the Myriad Curse Bead to block it.

"Slash!"

"Slash again!"

...

Layers and layers of Power of Dimension fell on Wujiang. He finally could not hold on anymore. He fell into the broken space, surrounded by oblivion and darkness.

Zhang Ruochen grabbed the Myriad Curse Bead that was about to fly away and quickly sealed it.

Another Supreme Artifact was in his hands.

In an instant, the space became normal again.

Zhang Ruochen felt a little regretful that he could not kill Wujiang after all.

With his ability to reach the realms of Wujiang, Yan Huangtu, and others, it was easy to defeat him, but it was too difficult to kill him.

Previously, Zhang Ruochen had wanted to kill Wujiang, but he had put himself in a dangerous situation. So this time, he was very decisive. He directly sent Wujiang into the void and made him leave the battlefield.

Next, Zhang Ruochen had more important things to do.

“Killing Supreme Saint Yanhong and defeating Yan Huangtu and Wujiang in a row. Zhang Ruochen is simply too arrogant.”

“I’m afraid that only Que can be his opponent in the entire Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting!”

“Have you forgotten Yan Wushen? Yan Wushen is also a Yuanhui-level genius. He’s definitely not weaker than Zhang Ruochen.”

...

Countless cultivators in the entire Infernal Court were talking about Zhang Ruochen.

At the same time, they talked about Que, Lan Ying, Yan Wushen, and even Luo Shengtian. However, they rarely talked about the defeated Yan Huangtu map and Wujiang.

The loser was destined to be a foil and dim.

Yan Wushen’s eyes were deep. He said, “You haven’t used the Saintwill in your fight with Wujiang. Is it because the Saintwill you have cultivated has reached a higher level and can not be perfectly integrated with the saint technique?”

The Saintwill had to be combined with the saint technique in order to be transformed into combat power.

This integration required a significant amount of time to cultivate and polish.

Zhang Ruochen’s body was engulfed in flames. His fighting spirit was brimming with zeal. He smiled at Yan Wushen and then disappeared.

Zhang Ruochen reappeared hundreds of miles away.

Time after time, he moved quickly towards the Albajade Tree.

Yan Wushen said, “It seems that Zhang Ruochen has given up on spending a lot of time hunting the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives. Instead, he’s going to rescue the Immortal Vampires hiding in the Albajade Tree. At the same time, he must have set his final target on Lord Hornless. As long as he kills Lord Hornless, he’ll be able to secure victory in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

“Besides, Zhang Ruochen shouldn’t have completely expelled the Power of Curse in his body. He might even have suffered some degree of injury.”

Yan Wushen analyzed it secretly and shouted, “Zhang Ruochen, don’t leave. Fight with me.”

Yan Wushen also used the Great Dimensional Shift to chase after him.

When they reached the edge of the Albajade Tree, more than 30 Deathkin Supreme Saints each took out their Regal Artifacts and attacked Zhang Ruochen.

“Get out of the way,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen took out the Pleiades Lotus and turned it into a seven-petaled ghost lotus. He busted all the Regal Artifacts away. Half of them were cracked and half dull.

In front of a Supreme Artifact, a Regal Artifact was nothing.

Then, Zhang Ruochen formed a sacred fire handprint and used the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike. He sent more than 30 Deathkin Supreme Saints flying. The Divine Purification Flame also ignited their Neverwithers physique.

“Oh no, it’s the Emperor-level Divine Purification Flame. Quickly expel them from our bodies. Otherwise, we’ll be burned to ashes,” a Deathkin Supreme Saint cried out.

Zhang Ruochen ignored them and rushed into the Albajade Tree.

...

On the seventh Dark Star.

Luo Sha hovered in the darkness and looked at the seventh Dark Star. “Have you found it? Where are the cultivators of the Yanluo clan and the three upper clans hiding?”

A Rakshasi Supreme Saint stood behind Luo Sha. She was nervous. Bowing, she said, “We... We can’t find them. They’re hiding very well.”

“How can there be no trace of them?” asked Luo Sha.

Luo Sha felt even more uneasy. She asked again, “What’s the situation on the seventh Dark Star?”

Another Rakshasa Supreme Saint said, “All the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives are still gathered on the planet.”

Luo Sha said, “All of them?”

“The Supreme Saints of the six clans have surrounded them. How can they escape?” that Rakshasa laughed.

Luo Sha was silent for a moment before she shook her head and said, “No, no.”

“Your Highness, what’s wrong?” Lord Bladehell asked.

Luo Sha said, “One hour and a half had gone on the last day. How can the Yanluo Clan and the three upper clans remain calm and not take any action? This is one of the reasons.

“The second reason is that the Saint Qi of the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives has almost been used up. Why are they still waiting for death on the seventh Dark Star?

“Something’s fishy. Investigate deeper.”

The Rakshasas and the Immortal Vampires looked at each other and smiled. They felt that Luo Sha’s worries were unnecessary.

A soft and beautiful voice came from the darkness, “There’s no need to investigate further. The Yanluo Clan, the three upper clans, and the Celestial Captives on the seventh Dark Star have all left.”

Moyin’s alluring figure flew out gracefully and landed in front of everyone.

“That’s impossible. I’ve checked up close just now. All the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives are still on the seventh Dark Star,” the Supreme Saint who reported to Luo Sha said firmly.

The Supreme Saint added, “If the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives, the three upper clans, and the Yanluo clan all left, how could we not notice them?”

Most of the Supreme Saints present had looks of disbelief on their faces.

Upon hearing Moyin’s words, Luo Sha’s expression turned extremely ugly.

Moyin stared at the Rakshasa Supreme Saint who had just spoken, she laughed coldly and said, “What you saw was just an illusion left behind by them. Their goal was to keep us in the seventh Dark Star. How much time did the Rakshasas waste by having such an idiot like you? Do you know that you have already been sentenced to death?”

The face of the Rakshasa Supreme Saint was deathly pale. He took a step back as his legs became weak.

When he went to investigate, he did not dare to get too close to the seventh Dark Star because he was afraid of danger.

Naturally, he was unable to see through the planet’s illusions.

If he truly caused the Immortal Vampires and Rakshasas to lose in the Battle of Celestial-Huntingfield, the ramifications would be dire. It was highly likely that it was a death sentence.

Luo Sha did not like Moyin, but she still asked patiently, “What’s the situation?”

Moyin said, “I went to the seventh Dark Star just now. After I broke the illusion, there were two dimensional teleportation arrays left on the ground. The smaller one had already been destroyed. The larger one was very complicated. It was completely different from the dimensional teleportation array that master had set up before. I don’t know where it was sent to.”

Luo Sha frowned and muttered to herself, “Setting up a dimensional teleportation array on Dark Star... I understand now. It’s Yan Wushen. It has to be him!”

In an instant, Luo Sha had figured out the whole incident and concluded, “If I’m not wrong, it’s Yan Wushen setting up the stage and performing the last play on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. They must have gone to the home planet of the Immortal Vampires. That’s right, it must be so.”

She immediately took out the diamond-shaped mirror and found that the points on it had not changed much from yesterday.

CRACK!

The diamond-shaped mirror was crushed by her.

“The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms must have done it on purpose. In this last battle, they specifically tested our intelligence and did not remind us about the points.” Luo Sha said angrily as she was breathing heavily.

Ever since she was young, she was the only one who toyed with others.

She didn’t expect that she would be tricked by Yan Wushen today.

The Immortal Vampires all felt their scalps go numb. They didn’t dare to imagine how serious the consequences would be.

How could the Nine-Step Saint Kings and the few Supreme Saints on their own planet stop the legion of Supreme Saints of the three clans and the Yanluo clan? It was unknown how bad the situation had become.

Lord Bladehell's expression changed several times. He said, "Let's go. We should be able to make it back in time."

"We can make it. We definitely can make it. Zhang Ruochen was on the planet. If he wanted to leave, thousands of soldiers and horses wouldn't be able to stop him. As long as he can leave with some of his clansmen, our points won't be cut in half," Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said in a trembling voice.

The Supreme Saints of the four clans had gathered together. There were also top powerhouses like Yan Huangtu, Yan Wushen, and Wujiang. In fact, none of the cultivators present thought that Zhang Ruochen could escape.

The outcome of losing on the last day seemed to have been decided.

All the Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints were angry, disappointed, and unreconciled.

Luo Sha stopped them and said, "Where are you all going?"

"It's none of your business," said Lord Bladehell.

Lord Bladehell was too anxious to talk to her.

At the edge of the seventh Dark Star, the Immortal Vampires had a dimensional teleportation array. Of course, this secret was not meant for Luo Sha. However, it would take several hours to get to the dimensional teleportation array from here.

Unfortunately, the dimensional teleportation array on the Dark Star was different from ordinary ones. Except for Yan Wushen, no other cultivator could use it.

Even with Moyin's dimensional attainment, they couldn't activate it.

Luo Sha had calmed down. Her beautiful eyes sparkled with a strange light, she said, "If you Immortal Vampires want to fight for the first place among the ten clans, you'd better listen to my suggestion. Besides, there's a dimensional teleportation array on the Dark Star. Why do you want to go far instead of near?"

Chapter 2404: Han Jue

The Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasas gathered on the seventh Dark Star and surrounded the dimensional teleportation array of darkness that Yan Wushen had set up.

Luo Sha stood alone in the array. From time to time, she would crouch down and use her fingers to gently touch the array patterns on the ground.

Suddenly, the corners of her mouth curled up as she said with a smile, “I knew that Yan Wushen would never leave the array here for no reason. He has finally started to reveal his true side, revealing his methods everywhere.”

Yan Wushen had tampered with the array patterns on the ground.

If the Supreme Saints of Rakshasa and the Immortal Vampires were too impatient and entered the array, they would immediately try to teleport. The final result would be that the teleportation array would be shattered and the space would collapse. The Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires and the Rakshasa would fall into the void and be eliminated.

Luo Sha was also a Master of Dimension. Her attainments in dimension were extremely high and she was able to repair the problematic array patterns one by one.

Lord Bladehell greeted Luo Sha as he walked out of the array and asked, “How is it? Have you finished repairing it?”

Luo Sha nodded.

Then Lord Bladehell and a large group of Immortal Vampires cultivators rushed impatiently into the teleportation array.

No one knew how far the battle on their home planet had progressed, and they could only race against time to return. Every Supreme Saint was extremely anxious.

Luo Sha thought about it and finally said, “I have something to say. I don’t know if I should say it.”

Gu Chenzi cupped his hands and bowed. He said, “Your Highness, are you trying to say that it’s too late for us to rush back to our home planet? Why don’t we kill our way to the Yanluo clan’s home planet and kill their clansmen?”

Luo Sha said, “That’s right.”

Gu Chenzi shook his head and said, “The Yanluo clansmen must have been brought along by the Yanluo clan Supreme Saint. It’s impossible to keep them on our home planet.”

Luo Sha shook her head, she said, “Firstly, we can’t bring all of our clansmen out of our home planet. Secondly, to the Yanluo clansmen, there is no place safer than our home planet. After all, Lady Wind’s Path of Destiny is profound. We can predict where they are hiding.

“Perhaps a large number of our clansmen have been taken away by the Yanluo clan Supreme Saint. However, there must be quite a number of them left on our home planet.

“Thirdly, I happen to know the coordinates of a teleportation array on the home planet of the Yanluo clan.”

Gu Chenzi’s expression kept changing and he finally made a decision. “Your Highness, please send me to the home planet of the Yanluo clan alone.”

“You alone?” Luo Sha was slightly surprised.

Gu Chenzi smiled and said, “I should take the risk alone than bring a large group of cultivators with me. Besides, I’m only going to investigate and see if the Yanluo clan’s home planet is real or not.”

Moyin and Lord Sinluo walked over and said, “We’ll go to the Yanluo clan’s home planet too.”

Luo Sha said, “The Yanluo clan has sent out all their powerhouses. There won’t be too much danger on our home planet. With your three cultivation levels, it should be more than enough.”

Lord Bladehell led hundreds of Immortal Vampires' Supreme Saints and teleported away first.

Immediately after, Moyin, Lord Sinluo, and Gu Chenzi were teleported to the Yanluo clan's home planet.

Luo Shengtian said thoughtfully, "Who do you think will win? The Immortal Vampires or the Yanluo Clan?"

"In reality, it is solely dependent on Zhang Ruochen. The Immortal Vampires will most likely be number one among the ten clans as long as Zhang Ruochen can withstand the siege and hold on until the end of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting," Luo Sha said.

Luo Shengtian was surprised. "Doesn't it depend on who can kill Lord Hornless?"

Luo Sha shook her head. "Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen won't let each other kill Lord Hornless so easily. In that case, Lord Hornless will be very safe. If nothing changes, Lord Hornless will most likely die under Que's sword."

Luo Shengtian said, "Que? Why do you think Que will kill Lord Hornless?"

"With Que's battle strength that far surpassed other cultivators, he must have a purpose for appearing on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. If his opponent is not Que, why did the Fane of Destiny let him enter the battlefield as an anomaly who would break the balance of the ten clans?" Luo Sha asked.

Luo Shengtian thought carefully, "It seems that only Lord Hornless can be Que's opponent on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Although Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen cultivate very fast, they are still far from the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm."

Luo Sha smiled and said, "Nothing is absolute. After all, this is a battle between clans. No matter how strong Lord Hornless and Que are, they are only one person. In front of the clan's legion of Supreme Saints, they were still too weak. With a large number of Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints rushing back, Zhang Ruochen still had a chance to kill Lord Hornless.

Next, it's up to Zhang Ruochen, Yan Wushen, and Que to seize the opportunity.

“Relatively speaking, among the four of them, Zhang Ruochen is in the most disadvantageous position because he has the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.”

Luo Shengtian said, “So, you still favor Yan Wushen and the Yanluo clan in the end?”

Luo Sha smiled but didn't say anything.

Sometimes, no matter how many analyses there were, they couldn't keep up with the changes in the situation.

Luo Sha said, “Let's go to the home planet of the Nether Clan first. It's time for my Path of Destiny to come in handy!”

Luo Sha and Luo Shengtian were the children of the former Scioness of Destiny. They had the best teachers since they were young. With their talent and comprehension ability, their attainments in the Path of Destiny were naturally not weak. They could be used to predict many things, so it was not difficult to find the Nether clansmen.

...

Zhang Ruochen slowed his flight speed as he approached the Albajade Tree.

The Chant of Death cast by Wujiang's alliance with more than 100 Nether Clan Supreme Saints was very terrifying. It hurt Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power and Saint Soul. His body was also severely injured.

Fortunately, he had refined the Pale Blood Soil and had the Heart of the Divine Tree. That was how he had survived.

If it had been Yan Wushen, Yan Huangtu, and the others, even if they had not died, they would have been injured to the point of losing their battle strength.

It's almost impossible to fight against a clan alone. I can't do it without it, and neither can Lord Hornless. Only when my cultivation reaches the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and I release all the divine power of the Demigod-level physique can I truly fight against a clan,' Zhang Ruochen thought.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen desperately hoped that the Supreme Saint of the Immortal Vampires could come back as soon as possible.

He didn't want to lose the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei dared to chase after Lord Hornless because he had the support of the entire Deathkin's Supreme Saint. Lord Hornless fled because he knew that he couldn't win against a clan.

As he flew, he refined the Power of Curse in his body.

After flying for about 500 miles, Zhang Ruochen met a Deathkin's Supreme Saint hiding behind a tree branch.

That Deathkin Supreme Saint was about to send a message to Supreme Saint Yuan Fei with a Communication talisman when Zhang Ruochen appeared behind him and knocked him unconscious with one palm.

Zhang Ruochen removed the Deathkin Supreme Saint's clothes and donned them himself.

After stealing some of the Deathkin Supreme Saint's memories, Zhang Ruochen did not hesitate to use the Divine Purification Flame to burn him to ashes and steal his Sainthood Source.

Then, Zhang Ruochen transformed into his appearance.

These Deathkin Supreme Saints were here to deal with the Immortal Vampires. There was no need to be merciful to them.

If they had to be killed, they had to be killed.

That Deathkin Supreme Saint who had died was called "Han Jue". He was short and fat. He didn't look good.

Next, Zhang Ruochen met six more Deathkin Supreme Saints. They were guarding six different places. After greeting them one by one, they flew over.

Fifteen minutes later, Zhang Ruochen saw the corpse of an Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint.

This Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint had obviously burned his blood and fought with all his might before he died. His body had become shriveled. However, the opponents he faced were far too formidable. They flattened him and nailed him to the white tree like a patty of meat.

The Sainthood Source had been dug out.

Zhang Ruochen kept silent and flew forward.

Along the way, he encountered more than a dozen corpses of Immortal Vampires. Some had been refined into bones. Some had been attacked by the saint techniques of the Deathkins and turned into rotting corpses. Some had been dismembered and their bones were incomplete.

Although he hadn't seen the battle with his own eyes, Zhang Ruochen could guess how cruel the battle had been.

No Immortal Vampires had left the battlefield. They were all burning their blood to fight with the Deathkin pursuers to buy time. Perhaps every time they died, they hoped that Zhang Ruochen would arrive in time.

Unfortunately, there weren't so many things that could be done in time.

Zhang Ruochen was composed. He wasn't angry or depressed. However, the fact that these Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints were willing to die for the honor and benefits of the clan, and fought to the last drop of their blood, had left an impression on his heart.

No matter how much he hated the Immortal Vampires, he had a sense of admiration for the dead.

Boom

The sound of battle came into his ears.

There were strong waves of death qi and blood-red aura moving through the branches.

Zhang Ruochen sped up and landed on a branch that was more than 70 meters thick. He saw nearly 100 Deathkin Supreme Saints attacking 22 Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires.

Seven Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints had been killed by a silk-like Regal Artifact.

There were two Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage. One of them was a young lady. She was ugly and had small eyes. Her entire body was filled with death Qi. She was holding a Regal Artifact made of silk.

The other Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm was a burly man with horns on his head. His spiritual power was strong. He held a blue pearl and suppressed the Immortal Vampires who wanted to self-destruct.

Pan Ruo and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei were nowhere to be seen.

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes. He adjusted his robe and flew over openly.

There were more than enough Supreme Saints. They could, in theory, kill a powerhouse like Zhang Ruochen, but it all depended on the circumstances.

They could use the power of each Supreme Saint reasonably if they couldn't organize a joint attack in a short period of time and there weren't any top-tier powerhouses in charge of the overall situation. They were then completely dispersed. Zhang Ruochen couldn't destroy them with time and space, but he could easily defeat them.

After all, there were nearly 100 Supreme Saints. If Zhang Ruochen wanted to escape, it was already amazing that he could keep one-third of them.

The ugly-looking young woman sensed a cultivator approaching. She glanced at Zhang Ruochen and asked, "Han Jue, what are you doing here?"

"The situation outside has changed. Wujiang lost to Zhang Ruochen and was expelled from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting," Zhang Ruochen said.

The ugly-looking woman was slightly shocked. "How is that possible? There are so many Nether Clan saints around Wujiang. Even if he lost, he wouldn't be expelled from the battlefield."

Chapter 2405: Suppressing a Hundred of Supreme Saints

“Where’s Supreme Saint Yuan Fei? Hurry up and tell him about this. We have to make preparations,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen carried a gust of wind and landed not far from the black-ugly woman. He walked over step by step and looked at the battlefield not far away.

“Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and His Highness Pan Ruo are not here. They have gone to kill Lord Hornless,” the black-ugly woman said.

Including the two Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, there were a total of 94 Deathkin Supreme Saints here.

The Qi of Death on their bodies was thick, and they were filled with corrosive power. Powerful energy waves constantly erupted, causing the air to boil.

The Deathkin Supreme Saints did not attack randomly. Instead, they formed two combined attack arrays.

The innermost one was formed by 60 Supreme Saints.

Each of them released hundreds of millions to billions of precepts. In total, hundreds of billions of precepts interweaved and turned into different attack powers. There were human-shaped lightning, palace-shaped fireballs, and deadly shadows...

Zhang Ruochen didn’t know how the Deathkins had managed to completely merge the 60 Supreme Saints’ precepts into one without repelling each other.

But Zhang Ruochen knew very well that if hundreds of billions of precepts came at him at the same time, he might not be able to withstand all kinds of attacks. He would most likely choose to retreat temporarily instead of fighting them head-on.

But the 22 Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints who were surrounded in the center had no way to retreat. They could only try their best to resist.

They were burning the Supreme Saint's blood in their bodies and turning into 22 human torches. They let out long howls to resist the attacks of the 60 Deathkin Supreme Saints.

"Fight, fight until we are left with the last drop of blood."

"This is the last day of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. The Immortal Vampires must not fall on this day."

...

Xuemo was the strongest of the 22 Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints. He sat cross-legged in the void and revealed nine demonic portraits. It was as if nine demonic worlds had opened up.

Nine blood holes appeared on Xuemo's body. Nine streams of blood flowed out continuously and flowed into the nine demonic worlds to block the attacks of the Deathkin Supreme Saints.

However, Xuemo's body quickly dried up.

The Supreme Saint blood would soon run out.

The other 21 Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints' blood had also burned more than half of their bodies. Their battle strength had declined and they could no longer defend against the Deathkin Supreme Saint's attack.

Despair spreads in the hearts of every Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints.

After spending hundreds of years, they stood out from hundreds of millions of Immortal Vampires and became the kings among the Saint Realm. Every single one of them was ambitious and unwilling to die just like that.

However, they could sacrifice themselves for the Immortal Vampires.

They absolutely could not die on the last day.

If that was the case, today would become their lifelong regret and they would be mocked by other cultivators for the rest of their lives.

“You are the Immortal Vampires and we are the Deathkins. Your lives are destined to be ended by us,” the Deathkin Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm with two horns on his head said in an indifferent voice.

The ugly black woman said, “Hand over the Immortal Vampires hidden on your bodies. Don’t struggle for no reason.”

Zhang Ruochen did not launch an impulsive attack. ‘The 60 Deathkin Supreme Saints in the inner layer are responsible for attacking,’ he thought to himself. ‘The 32 Deathkin Supreme Saints in the outer layer, along with the Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm’s Great Perfection stage with two horns, are responsible for releasing the Will of Death to prevent the Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints from self-detonating their Sainthood Source. Supreme Saint Long Li, the black-ugly woman, was guarding the outermost perimeter against outside sneak attacks.

‘The two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm pose the least threat. The two combined attack arrays need to be broken at the first moment. As long as their powers can not be combined, the threat is not great.’

Zhang Ruochen’s hands behind his back condensed into numerous tiny Dimensional Rifts after he made his decision.

Each Dimensional Rift was only an inch long.

The black-ugly woman was very cautious. Sensing the spatial fluctuations, she immediately looked at Zhang Ruochen.

Attack.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen formed more than 300 Dimensional Rifts and merged the Mark of Time into them.

He waved his hand.

More than 300 Dimensional Rifts silently flew toward the black-ugly woman and nearly 100 Deathkin Supreme Saints like a black rain of knives.

“Be careful... Ah...”

The black-ugly woman had just shouted when the death qi shield protecting her body was pierced through. Six bloody holes were left on her body. Her flesh and bones seemed to have been dug out.

The inch-long Dimensional Rifts penetrated her body and could take away a piece of flesh the size of a palm.

After the Dimensional Rifts were integrated with the Mark of Time, her flying speed was more than ten times faster than before. At such a close distance, how could she avoid it with her cultivation in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm?

Swish

The Supreme Saints’ reaction was very fast, but the Dimensional Rift was even faster.

Half of the 90 Deathkin Supreme Saints were hit by the Dimensional Rift. They made muffled sounds and suffered different degrees of injuries. The attacks of the two arrays were naturally interrupted and the formation was scattered.

Many angry eyes locked on Zhang Ruochen.

“Who are you?”

“There’s no need to ask. It’s Zhang Ruochen.”

Zhang Ruochen felt that it was a pity that he couldn’t tear open too many Dimensional Rifts inside the Albajade Tree. Otherwise, they wouldn’t just be injured.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen's body disappeared in an instant.

A loud bang sounded. Before the black-ugly woman could react, Zhang Ruochen's palm struck her neck. Her tibia broke and her body flew out.

The next moment, Zhang Ruochen appeared in front of the Deathkin Supreme Saint with horns on his head. He gently pressed his palm forward.

The Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm barely held up an arm. He wanted to resist, but Zhang Ruochen broke his arm. His body flew away like a cannonball. He crashed into a tree branch. The sound of bones breaking rang in his body, and blood flowed out of his head and back.

In less than a breath's time, he had severely injured two Supreme Saints in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

THUMP!

Zhang Ruochen stomped on the void with his left foot. The void seemed to turn into water and shook.

Then, the surging sea of divine flames spread out and enveloped all the Deathkin Supreme Saints.

“Bell of Time.”

Zhang Ruochen raised his hands. The Marks of Time between heaven and earth gathered rapidly and condensed into a huge bell above his head. It spun quickly.

Suddenly...

A deafening bell chime sounded.

The Marks of Time and sound waves surged like waves. They crashed into each Deathkin Supreme Saint and sent them flying like fallen leaves.

The Marks of Time had cut off a lot of their lifespan. Their bodies fell into a temporary state of weakness.

At this moment, the divine flame burned through their protective death qi and entered their bodies. Their skin turned crimson and turned into black dust. It spread into their bodies.

Swoosh

The Pleiades Lotus flew out of Zhang Ruochen's hand. The seven flower petals couldn't be cut off. They dismembered the Deathkin Supreme Saints' Neverwithers physique one by one. Their hands, feet, and heads flew everywhere.

These moves were all unleashed within a breath's time.

The 22 Immortal Vampires were taken aback by Zhang Ruochen's appearance. They couldn't believe a Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm had such terrifying battle power. He had defeated nearly 100 Deathkin Supreme Saints on his own.

They would never forget this scene.

"He's Here! He's finally here! Zhang Ruochen is finally here!" An Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint laughed loudly. He couldn't hold it in anymore. He fell from midair onto a tree branch.

Xue Ningxiao stopped using her secret technique. Her face was pale, but a smile appeared on her delicate face. It was as if she had seen a ray of light in the darkness. "It's... It's Cousin Ruochen..."

It was as if being Zhang Ruochen's cousin was a kind of pride.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen sensed something. He suddenly turned around and punched.

The secret technique was activated by the ugly black woman. She set fire to her life and left a handprint. It smacked into Zhang Ruochen's fist. Her fractured neck had been repaired. Her eyes were red with rage.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen caught her palm, and his body only shook slightly.

After burning her lifespan, the black-ugly woman could burst out with the battle strength of a Supreme Saint in the initial stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm in a short time. However, it was still not enough in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen kicked her in the chest.

Pfft

The black-ugly woman spat out blood and flew out.

Zhang Ruochen reached out his hand and was about to use the Power of Dimension to pull her back. Suddenly, his head hurt, and the Power of Dimension was interrupted.

It was the Will of Death.

Hundreds of Deathkin Supreme Saints attacked Zhang Ruochen with the Will of Death at the same time, led by the two-horned Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage.

"You're courting death," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen withdrew the Pleiades Lotus and used the Supreme Power to defend.

Then, he put his hands together. The huge Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect rose behind him. It released a bright light that was even brighter than the sun. Its aura rose higher and higher.

"All Deathkin Supreme Saints, retreat immediately," said the two-horned Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm's Great Perfection stage. "I'll cover the back."

The Supreme Saints' vitality was strong. Zhang Ruochen's wave of attacks had only killed six Supreme Saints. The rest of the Deathkin Supreme Saints were either injured or had been burned by the Divine Purification Flame. They were all greatly weakened.

Looking at the growing Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect, they couldn't help but feel terrified.

"What a powerful saint might. How is this still a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint? The Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saints I've seen are also much weaker than him."

The sound of wind breaking could be heard!

More than 80 Deathkin Supreme Saints flew in different directions. Because they were too fast, their original bodies were already dozens of miles away. The afterimages they left behind were still very clear.

The Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect grabbed the two-horned Deathkin Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and crushed his Neverwither physique. His bones cracked.

"Ah! Zhang Ruochen, you can't kill me. It's just the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. We don't have any personal grudges. Let me go and I'll never forget your kindness." said the two-horned Supreme Saint.

The two-horned Deathkin Supreme Saint cried out in pain. He was scared. He didn't want to be crushed by Zhang Ruochen.

"You're one of the top elite of the Deathkin," Zhang Ruochen said. "You were crushed like a clay figurine in front of so many cultivators. How could you not feel resentment? If I let you go, will you remember my kindness? No, you will remember the hatred and anger in your heart. Once you have the chance, you will definitely think of ways to kill me."

The black-ugly woman flew from behind, holding a silk-like Regal Artifact. It stretched out for more than 1,000 meters, like a bright light thread.

Zhang Ruochen did not look back. A bolt of lightning condensed in the void and struck her body.

This bolt of lightning was a spiritual power attack.

The black-ugly woman's Qi of Death dissipated. With a scream, she fell down.

Boom

The Immovable Wisdom King's Saint Aspect's palm exerted force and crushed the two-horned Deathkin Supreme Saint's body until it exploded, turning into a cloud of blood mist.

The Divine Purification Flame in Zhang Ruochen's palm refined the two-horned Supreme Saint's Saint Soul into a wisp of smoke.

Even until his death, the Supreme Saint in the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm could not believe that Zhang Ruochen would really kill him.

Zhang Ruochen did not chase after the fleeing Deathkin Supreme Saints. They had either been invaded by the Divine Purification Flame or had their lifespans cut off. It would be difficult for them to recover their combat strength in a short period.

At least today, they could not continue fighting.

Xue Ningxiao flew in front of Zhang Ruochen. She looked at her cousin, who had defeated nearly a hundred Supreme Saints with a wave of his hand. Her originally pale face blushed and said, "You shouldn't have killed Supreme Saint Xu Man," she said softly. "He's Deathkin's God Candidate. He has a deity backing him. If you kill him, you'll have a vendetta."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Don't the Immortal Vampires have a grudge against the Deathkin? We've killed many of the Scions and Scionesses of the Deathkin anyway. Killing one more won't make much of a difference."

"The position of Scion or Scioness might not be as high as the God Candidate," Xue Ningxiao muttered. She didn't dare say it out loud.

The Albajade Tree couldn't tear open too much space inside. Zhang Ruochen couldn't send his enemies into the void, so he had to kill them.

"Greetings, Supreme Saint Ruochen."

The Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires all bowed to Zhang Ruochen. Their eyes were filled with respect and worship.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Give me all your clansmen."

Xue Ningxiao hesitated for a moment, but said, "Cousin, if you take your clansmen with you, it will definitely affect your combat power."

"Don't worry. I have many Regal Artifacts that are suitable for storing lifeforms. I won't use them as weapons."

As he spoke, Zhang Ruochen took out 11 Regal Artifacts. There was a brush, a cauldron, a sword... all of them had stable and huge internal spaces. Even ordinary humans could survive in them for a while.

The Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints all looked at each other.

The only Regal Artifacts they had were all shattered. They had suffered heavy losses. After all, the Regal Artifacts they had brought into the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting were their strongest weapons. They were worth more than half their wealth.

On the other hand, Zhang Ruochen took out more than 10 of them.

This comparison made them feel sad.

They were all Supreme Saints. Why was there such a big difference?

Zhang Ruochen put the 34 million surviving clansmen into 11 Regal Artifacts and stared at the Immortal Vampires. He said, "You're too heavily injured. Leave the battlefield! Leave the rest to me."

The Immortal Vampires didn't leave. They stood still and showed their determination to Zhang Ruochen through their eyes that they wanted to continue fighting along his side.

Only Xuemo stood up, he sighed. "Too much Supreme Saint blood has been lost. We can't continue fighting! Don't just stand there. Let's go together. Zhang Ruochen is The Scion of Time and Space. If he wants to escape, the Deathkin and Yanluo clan Supreme Saints won't be able to stop him."

Thinking of this, the Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints nodded. It made sense.

WHOOSH!

Streaks of white light flashed. The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms sent all the Immortal Vampires out of the battlefield.

As Xuemo had predicted, Zhang Ruochen's best option now was to flee with the remaining Immortal Vampires and hide until the Battle of Celestial-Hunting was over.

This way, the Immortal Vampires could at least be ranked second. They might even have a chance of staying first.

As long as Lord Hornless wasn't killed by the Yanluo clan.

Zhang Ruochen didn't run away. He took out the diamond-shaped mirror and glanced at it:

Immortal Vampires, 89.75 million points.

Yanluo clan, 89.07 million points.

The Immortal Vampires were in the lead. They were still in the lead.

But how much longer could they stay in the lead?

"Luo Sha and Moyin should be able to react soon. I hope the final decision isn't about which clan can kill Lord Hornless."

Zhang Ruochen did not want to kill Lord Hornless, but he also hoped that he could win more easily.

However, to be safe, he had to find Lord Hornless first, or at least stop the Yanluo clan from killing him. If there was a chance, he would not mind cutting off one of Lord Hornless's hands or legs.

Therefore, Zhang Ruochen released his spiritual power to search for the Qi of Lord Hornless, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, and the others. Then, he spread his ten wings and flew in one direction.

This time, he didn't change into the appearance of a Deathkin cultivator.

The Deathkin Supreme Saint who had escaped just now must have passed the news to Supreme Saint Yuan Fei. With his intelligence, he would be cautious. There was no point in changing into the appearance of a Deathkin cultivator.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen hid in the space as if he was invisible.

...

The Scroll of Truth and Deceit unfolded and turned into a lightmap that was hundreds of miles long.

On the scroll, there were not only words, but also mountains, rivers, and lakes.

Words and scenes appeared and disappeared at times, sometimes in nothingness, and sometimes in reality.

400 Deathkin Supreme Saints were standing in all directions of the Scroll of Truth and Deceit.

Lord Hornless was only about 10 miles away from the Scroll of Truth and Deceit, and he was being attacked by words one by one. There were more than 100,000 words. Each of them was 33 centimeters long and heavier than a mountain. They turned into a sea of words.

BOOM!

Even though Lord Hornless's cultivation level was high and his defense was impenetrable, he was able to send the words flying. However, even if the words were destroyed and turned into nothingness, they could be formed immediately. They continued to attack him as if they were endless.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and Pan Ruo stood at the center of the Scroll of Truth and Deceit. There were words beneath their feet.

"Use the words to attack and deplete Lord Hornless's Saint Qi. At that time, he will only have physical strength left and he will be exhausted. Then, we can easily kill him," Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said.

Pan Ruo stood at the side and a look of confusion flashed across her eyes.

She had to admit that she had underestimated Supreme Saint Yuan Fei in the past. This person was not as easy to use as he appeared to be. He had many things hidden in his heart. Just like the power of the Scroll of Truth and Deceit, it was only now that it was fully unleashed. It had always been hidden.

Originally, Pan Ruo thought that the Scroll of Truth and Deceit was given to Supreme Saint Yuan Fei by the Deathkin's deity.

However, after witnessing Supreme Saint Yuan Fei's mastery of the Scroll of Truth and Deceit, she couldn't help but suspect that this Supreme Artifact had long been a weapon of Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

It was able to use the Scroll of Truth and Deceit to hide all the Deathkin Supreme Saints and from Lord Hornless's senses. After they approached him, they suddenly erupted and trapped him completely.

What did this mean?

It meant that Supreme Saint Yuan Fei had cultivated the Path of Oblivion and his attainments were not low.

Otherwise, how could he accurately control the Power of Oblivion of the Scroll of Truth and Deceit? This was something Pan Ruo didn't know before.

Not to mention Pan Ruo, even Que, who was standing in the Scroll of Truth and Deceit, in deep thoughts.

...

Chapter 2406: Yin Yang Five Elements: One Against Three

RAWRRRRRR!

Lord Hornless let out a long roar. The sound waves spread across the vast world where the Albajade Tree was located. The thick branches of the divine tree trembled, and the word characters surrounding them were on the verge of collapsing.

Greenlight burst out from Lord Hornless. His body expanded, turning into a Hornless Dragon that was more than twenty miles long.

The beast had the form of a dragon but with no horns. The scales on its body were as green as jade, reflecting a metallic luster.

If not because the Albajade Tree had too many branches and the space was too small, it would have been difficult for it to be unleashed. The actual body of the Hornless Dragon should have been even bigger.

The divine chains still locked the two front claws of the Hornless Dragon. The Hornless Dragon charged forward and sent the word characters flying. It was not hurt at all.

Inside The Scroll of Truth and Deceit, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was not shocked. Instead, he was delighted. “Lord Hornless has been forced to reveal his true form. It seems like the Saint Qi in his body is almost depleted. Now, it’s time to kill him.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei laughed. He was in high spirits. All the meridian points in him released a powerful Death Qi. The Qi surged into The Scroll of Truth and Deceit, and he shouted, “Seal of Hollow.”

BAM! BAM!

The countless word characters surrounding the Hornless Dragon suddenly flew away.

They collided and formed a word character that was even bigger than the Hornless Dragon's body — "Hollow."

The "Hollow" character emitted a strange light. Not only was it dazzling, but everything touched by the light gradually became illusory. In the end, it turned into oblivion.

Only the Supreme Saints standing on The Scroll of Truth and Deceit were unaffected.

Of course, the Albajade Tree was not devoured by the power of Oblivion since it was the body of Madre Bloody Shadow.

The word "Hollow" pressed down on the Hornless Dragon's body. The power of Oblivion wrapped around it, and its hard scales gradually became transparent. Despite his attainment of Banshi Isshou Realm, it was clear that it would not be able to hold on for long.

The Hornless Dragon spat out Pentastone Sword from its mouth and continuously slashed toward the word character "Hollow".

The sword light slashed down and easily cut through the word character. However, as if passing through a layer of water, it failed to destroy the word character.

Pan Ruo could see that Lord Hornless had already used all his strength. Unfortunately, the power of The Scroll of Truth and Deceit was too unpredictable. Lord Hornless couldn't escape at all. His death was approaching.

'Lord Hornless entered the Celestial-Hunting battlefield with a death wish. Hence, him dying at the hands of Deathkin might not be a bad thing. Although these thirty million points will go to Deathkin, Deathkin won't be able to surpass the Immortal Vampires,' Pan Ruo thought to herself.

She looked at Lord Hornless with deep respect.

'Sacrifice ourselves to save more people.' Those Celestial Court cultivators who entered Infernal Court were mentally prepared for the worst at all times. Death was also their final destination.

Today was Lord Hornless, and tomorrow might be her.

Que had never been interested in weapons. He only believed in his absolute strength. However, after seeing the power of The Scroll of Truth and Deceit, his originally firm mind wavered a little.

‘If I can control The Scroll of Truth and Deceit, will my battle strength be able to rise to a higher level?’

However, this thought only appeared for an instant as he had shrugged it off immediately.

His mind, which had been steadfast for hundreds of years, could not be shaken. Otherwise, he would have to spend countless amounts of time in the future strengthening his mind. His cultivation leveling progress would be delayed, and it might even affect his potential to attain Godhood.

‘I am who I am. With a single word, I can kill all the enemies in the world. Using other battle weapons will only restrict me.’

Que opened his eyes once more. His pupils shot out a dazzling light. He no longer hid his aura. Like a divine sword being unsheathed, the light pierced through the sun like a white rainbow. His aura soared into the sky.

At the moment that Que held onto his mind, his mind became crystal clear. He vaguely found a way to perfect his incomplete Grade Two Saintwill.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei sensed that terrifying aura. He looked at Que in surprise, and their eyes met.

“Lord Hornless can only die under my sword!”

Dense Sword Qi was condensed around Que. It formed into a ring-shaped rain of swords flying in all directions.

Thud!

“Arghhh! Wh-Who the hell attacked us?”

“How could the attack get into The Scroll of Truth and Deceit?”

...

Before many of those Deathkin Supreme Saints could react, they were pierced by the Sword Qi, and blood flowed continuously.

The Sword Qi, with the power of Oblivion, had invaded their bodies.

Flesh and blood on their wounds started to turn into nothingness.

The word “Hollow” pressing on the Hornless Dragon started to waver and fade.

KABOOM!

Green Flames erupted from the Hornless Dragon’s body and shattered the word character “Hollow”. It escaped through the gaps in the branches.

“You can’t escape from me!”

Que moved at speed of light. He appeared in the sky above the Hornless Dragon and slashed out with his sword, Kagemaru.

A black sword light that was more than ten miles long appeared. It was like a long snake in the void. It shuttled between reality and the virtual realm, changing constantly. It was very magical.

The Hornless Dragon gave a deep snort and spat out Pentastone Sword, slashing out a five-colored sword light.

Zztttttt

The two sword radiances clashed and broke in the middle before dissipating quickly.

Que furrowed his brows and muttered, “As expected of a Banshi Isshou Supreme Saint. He is already at the end of his rope, yet he can still block my attack.”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei’s expression was cold as he stood in The Scroll of Truth and Deceit. He was very unhappy.

He placed all his chips on Lord Hornless. He was about to succeed, but Que destroyed his plan. If he could not kill Lord Hornless, the Deathkin’s ranking would become unsightly.

“If any of you are not dead yet, come with me and reactivate The Scroll of Truth and Deceit. If we fail to kill Lord Hornless, we will end up being sinners of the Deathkin,” said Supreme Saint Yuan Fei coldly.

The streaks of Sword Qi Que had unleashed were in the tens of thousands. The power of Oblivion contained in each of them was very thin. Hence, some of the Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saints had already absorbed the power of Oblivion and recovered.

Whoosh!

The Scroll of Truth and Deceit once again released a bright light and formed a huge word character, “Hollow.” At the same time, it suppressed Que and Lord Hornless.

Que felt the dense energy contained in the word character “Hollow.” He raised his head and looked at it. “Using the power of Oblivion before a Master of Oblivion. What a joke!”

He ignored the “Hollow” character and disappeared.

When he reappeared, he was already standing on the back of the Hornless Dragon. He held Kagemaru tightly with both hands and suddenly stabbed downwards.

The four-foot-two-inch-long sword body emitted a dazzling light and pierced through the scales on the back of the Hornless Dragon. The Sword Qi pierced through its body. A large amount of blood gushed out from the scales and turned into a fountain of blood.

Growl!

The Hornless Dragon roared miserably, full of sorrow.

It flew at high speed, trying to break free.

However, Que clung to it like shit to a shovel. He pressed down on the sword and stabbed it even deeper.

Boom! Boom!

Pentastone Sword kept slashing at Que, but Mirror of Oblivion dispelled all the attack power under Que’s feet. Mirror of Oblivion was like an impenetrable sphere. Even a Supreme Artifact couldn’t pierce through it.

Pan Ruo's expression was calm. She did not dare to reveal her emotion. However, all her fingernails had already pierced her palm.

'I must restrain myself. I must hide all my emotions.

'Is this the strength of a top Hundred-Shackle cultivator in the ranking?! Que is too terrifying. He is unrivaled.

'Although Lord Hornless' spiritual power is sealed and his Saint Qi is almost exhausted, he is still a Banshi Isshou Supreme Saint. How could he fail to break free from Que's sword?'

...

The Scroll of Truth and Deceit flew behind and chased after the Hornless Dragon.

The Deathkin Supreme Saints were shocked by Que's bravery. If they were in his shoes, they would not dare to kill Lord Hornless alone. That was no different from courting death.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei's expression was icy cold. He gritted his teeth and controlled the word character "Hollow" without saying a word.

Whoosh—

Suddenly, a meandering golden light flew out from between the branches.

The golden light charged towards Que, who was on the back of the Hornless Dragon. Someone threw a punch. Mirror of Oblivion under Que's feet reflected the true identity of the golden light. It was Yan Wushen, who was in Golden Giant Mode.

Yan Wushen emitted the light of Origin to resist the corrosion of the Mirror of Oblivion. His golden fist was getting closer and closer to Que.

In front of his fist, an arc of light formed.

Que squinted, pulled out his Kagemaru, and slashed at Yan Wushen.

Clang!

The sound of metal colliding came as Yan Wushen was thrown backward and hit a branch. However, after he was sent flying, he quickly chased after the Hornless Dragon as if he wasn't injured.

Yan Wushen laughed as he chased, "Que, killing Lord Hornless is useless to you. Why don't you leave him to me?"

"Lord Hornless' life is mine. Whoever dares to fight for it must be mentally prepared to die under my sword."

Que's posture was straight as he stood on the back of the Hornless Dragon. He held Kagemaru as thin as a cicada's wing and stared at Yan Wushen, who was chasing after him. Que was actually a little surprised. After taking Que's sword head-on, Yan Wushen did not seem to be injured at all.

Yan Wushen's golden body became even stronger!

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Que, Lord Hornless, Yan Wushen, Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, and the rest of the Deathkin Supreme Saints controlling the word character "Hollow" continued to attack each other, setting off waves of energy one after another.

From the beginning to the end, Que stood on the back of the Hornless Dragon and did not move. He only defensively blocked the attacks of Pentastone Sword, Yan Wushen's attack, and the word character "Hollow." Every casual swing of his sword neutralized their killing moves.

It was not that Que did not want to end the battle as soon as possible, but because he sensed a strong aura lurking in the dark. In other words, there was someone who had yet to make a move.

The aura was intimidating to him.

Therefore, Que did not dare to use his full strength. He reserved some strength to deal with the attack from the person in the dark.

Zhang Ruochen had already expelled all the Curse power in his body and stayed hidden in a dimension. He followed Que and the rest closely to find the right time to attack.

“It seems that Lord Hornless won’t live no matter what. In that case, I’ll send him off myself.”

KABOOM!

When Que swung his Kagemaru again and sent Yan Wushen flying, Zhang Ruochen spread out his ten golden wings and flew out of the dimension. Holding a Pleiades Lotus, he aimed at Lord Hornless’ head.

All the cultivators saw Zhang Ruochen at this moment.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei’s eyes were bloodshot. He roared, “Stop him!”

Que’s reaction was very fast. He formed a sword tactic with both hands.

Whoosh!

Kagemaru flew out. The tip of the sword stabbed straight at the Pleiades Lotus and struck the center of the lotus.

Energy ripples emerged in all directions.

In the next moment, Que’s figure flashed. He appeared in front of the Pleiades Lotus and grabbed the hilt. The power in his body erupted like a mountain flood, tsunami, and collapsing sky.

Zhang Ruochen was different from before. He wasn’t pushed back by Que. Instead, he punched the Pleiades Lotus and instantly exploded with nine layers of tremor force.

Fist Saintwill, Nine-tremor Saintwill.

Nine layers of tremor force spread toward Que and forced him back nine steps.

Que’s expression changed again and again. ‘Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation had improved so much in just a few dozen days? He broke 68 Shackles and cultivated close to ten billion Precepts.’

Of course, even if Zhang Ruochen was so powerful, Que was still confident that he could defeat Zhang Ruochen.

Que quickly stabilized his posture and activated more power. Thousands of sword shadows appeared on the body of Kagemaru. They crashed into the supreme light protective barrier the Pleiades Lotus formed like raindrops.

As long as the light barrier was broken, the rain of swords would fall on Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Hornless had returned to his human form. He wielded Pentastone Sword and slashed at Zhang Ruochen and Que simultaneously. The Sword Qi enveloped them.

Forced into a corner, Zhang Ruochen and Que retreated immediately. They used different methods to block the penta-colored sword light.

“Haha, this is great. This battle is getting more and more interesting!” Yan Wushen rode a golden light and flew over. He laughed and shot out a Communication Talisman.

Obviously, he was trying to call the Yanluo Clan Supreme Saints to come quickly.

Lord Hornless suddenly stopped running. He waved his sword and attacked Zhang Ruochen.

Pentastone Sword burst out with five-colored supreme power. It condensed into a cloud. Illusory images of golden spears, battle horses, long rivers, majestic mountains, dragon-shaped flames, and green trees appeared and evolved in the cloud.

Que thought for a moment and swung his sword at Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Hornless' goal was to die at Zhang Ruochen's hands.

Que's goal, on the other hand, was to kill Zhang Ruochen first and take back the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. If possible, it would be best to take away the Supreme Artifacts and the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill from Zhang Ruochen.

After all, it was easy to kill Lord Hornless, who was at the end of robe, but there was very little chance to kill Zhang Ruochen.

Even more unexpected was that Yan Wushen had condensed a Pagoda of Origin and suppressed Zhang Ruochen. In his opinion, no matter who killed Lord Hornless, the person could not be Zhang Ruochen.

In this case, Que had to kill Zhang Ruochen first.

At least he had to force Zhang Ruochen to withdraw from the battlefield.

Que had been the target of public criticism last time. Even if Zhang Ruochen, Lan Ying, and Yan Wushen joined hands, both sides could only fight in an internecine state.

This time, for various reasons, Zhang Ruochen was targeted.

Zhang Ruochen didn't retreat. If he did, he would lose the chance to kill Lord Hornless forever.

Looking at Lord Hornless' performance, Zhang Ruochen guessed that Pan Ruo must have used some method to pass the message to him. That was why Lord Hornless didn't choose to run away when he was at the end of his rope. Instead, he attacked Zhang Ruochen.

He wanted to die in Zhang Ruochen's hands!

"Yan Wushen, don't you want to see my Saintwill? As you wish!"

"Yin Yang Five Elements, Heaven and Earth Rotation."

Zhang Ruochen wasn't afraid of the combined attack of the three powerful forces. Instead, his fighting spirit was boiling. His body was covered in flames, and his long hair stood. He raised his hands and released his Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill.

Suddenly, a five-colored light of Primordia burst out from Zhang Ruochen's body and illuminated the Albajade Tree, that was more than 10,000 meters tall.

A Taiji mark appeared around Zhang Ruochen's body to block Pentastone Sword that Lord Hornless swung at him.

Pentastone Sword contained the power of the five elements. The power was absorbed and transformed by the Taiji mark.

Boom!

Que's Kagemaru hacked down, releasing boundless power of Oblivion and Sword Qi.

However, these powers did not break the Taiji mark. They only made the Taiji mark shake violently. Then, the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill absorbed the power of Oblivion and Sword Qi, transforming them into the power of the five elements and the power of Yin-Yang.

Boom!

The Pagoda of Origin condensed by Yan Wushen hit somewhere above Zhang Ruochen's head, but it still could not break the Taiji mark formed by the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. Its power was also absorbed.

Zhang Ruochen stood at the center of the Taiji Mark. His body spun rapidly, constantly absorbing their attack power. He transformed it into the five elemental power and Yin-Yang power to attack them in reverse.

He had single-handedly blocked three powerful figures.

All kinds of power shuttled between the four people. Any one of them could kill a Supreme Saint.

"How is this possible? Zhang Ruochen...How can he be so powerful?" Supreme Saint Yuanfei trembled. He couldn't believe what he was seeing.

Pan Ruo gritted her teeth. Her face was stiff.

In the Fane of Destiny, the deities all looked at the battlefield where the four of them were.

This was Zhang Ruochen's first time using the newly fused Saintwill!

They all wanted to see how powerful the Saintwill was after fusing six types of Saintwill. Was it the legendary first-class Saintwill?

"This..."

Even the deities' mouths were agape when they saw Zhang Ruochen fighting against the three masters alone.

They didn't think that Zhang Ruochen was stronger than Lord Hornless or that he could defeat Que.

However, it was still shocking that Zhang Ruochen could absorb and transform their attack power with the Saintwill and block the three forces by borrowing their strength.

The deities could see the true nature, but the ordinary cultivators who watched the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms didn't.

The cultivators only saw that Zhang Ruochen had fought against Lord Hornless, Que, and Yan Wushen to a draw. Moreover, he hadn't been defeated in a short time. This had completely overturned their understanding of strength.

Chapter 2407: The Fall of Lord Hornless

Que, a top Hundred-Shackle Realm elite on the ranking, was a Master of Oblivion.

Yan Wushen, a Yuanhui-level genius with demi-buddha physique, had attained the Great Perfection in terms of his Precepts at his Saint Kingdom.

Lord Hornless was a Banshi Isshou Supreme Saint.

The three powerful figures were all existences that all living beings looked up to. However, at this moment, the three of them could only fight Zhang Ruochen to a draw.

There was nothing more shocking than this.

“With this Saintwill, Zhang Ruochen can definitely go a long way in his future practice,” said a deity who was in deep thought.

All the deities understood that the longer a cultivator could practice, the higher their cultivation level would be.

During a cultivator’s Sainthood, it was crucial to choose a wide enough path, lay a strong foundation, and support themselves to keep going and become stronger.

Even the deities who held grudges against Zhang Ruochen started to think about whether they should kill Zhang Ruochen at all costs or use some means to resolve their feuds.

After all, with such talent, Zhang Ruochen should be able to attain Godhood in less than a thousand years.

Once he ascended, he would be superior among the deities.

A thousand years was too short a time.

If they went into seclusion training, a thousand years might pass already when they came out. By then, Zhang Ruochen would already be a deity.

Certain things had to be resolved in time. The longer they delayed, the more serious the consequences would be.

Zhang Ruochen's weight in the deities' views had changed!

Ancient God of Knowledge and Luo Yan were still in the divine realm of Wargod Bloodximius. They held their wine cups and said no words. No one knew what they were thinking. The atmosphere turned uncanny.

Blood Empress stared in the direction of the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. Her eyes were solemn. Apparently, she was worried.

On the surface, Zhang Ruochen was fighting three enemies simultaneously, but in reality, it was extremely dangerous. Once his Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill was broken, the outcome could be tragic for Zhang Ruochen.

It would only take a moment to decide life or death.

The key was that even with her cultivation in the divine realm, she couldn't predict the outcome of the upcoming victory or defeat.

...

After a short moment of shock, Supreme Saint Yuanfei's eyes darkened. He said, "Let's join hands to use the Seal of Hollow."

Pan Ruo could not help but say, "No..."

Supreme Saint Yuanfei stared at her sternly and said, "Your Highness, what do you mean by 'No'?"

Pan Ruo's panicked heart quickly recovered. She said calmly, "The battle between the four of them is very dangerous at the moment. They are in a delicate balance. Once the balance is broken, the lives of the four of them will be in danger."

"Do you care so much about Que's safety, Your Highness? Don't forget Que just ruined our big plan. I don't care about the lives of Zhang Ruochen, Que, and Yan Wushen. I just want to kill Lord Hornless."

Supreme Saint Yuanfei raised his hand. Countless word characters flew up from the ground and imprisoned Pan Ruo.

Que had ruined Supreme Saint Yuanfei's plan, and Pan Ruo was the one who had brought him here. Obviously, this pissed Supreme Saint Yuanfei off and affected their ties.

"Seal of Hollow."

Under Supreme Saint Yuanfei's control, the huge "Hollow" character fell rapidly.

Seeing this, the deities behind Zhang Ruochen, Yan Wushen, and Que couldn't sit still. If the three of them died, it would be a huge loss for either side.

"No deity is allowed to interfere in the Celestial-Hunting battle. This is the rule." Fukurokuju's stern voice spread throughout the Fane of Destiny.

Boom!

The "Hollow" seal landed and hit the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, creating a huge ripple.

The balance was broken. The Taiji diagram around Zhang Ruochen couldn't hold on anymore. It broke apart. The surging power hit the four.

"Ptui!"

The four spat out blood and flew in four directions.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen both had Supreme Artifacts to protect them. Comparatively, they weren't too badly injured. The first thing Que did was virtualize himself into an incorporeal state. Hence, most of the impact force had been neutralized; he did not receive any major injuries.

Only Lord Hornless, who was at the end of his rope, was the most severely injured. His body had almost been destroyed, with large areas left with only his bones.

Even his vitality was rapidly declining.

Everyone could see that Lord Hornless was really done for. It was just one last attack away from taking his life. The life of this Supreme Saint at Banshi Isshou Realm was about to reach its end.

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

Zhang Ruochen, Yan Wushen, and Que couldn't care less about their injuries. They rushed toward Lord Hornless at their fastest speed.

Their speed was even faster than using Great Dimensional Shift at such a close distance. Using the Great Dimensional Shift move would require time.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei gritted his teeth and seized every second. He controlled the word "Hollow" and attacked Lord Hornless.

Lord Hornless knew that he would die today. He smiled bitterly and glared at Zhang Ruochen. He roared, "Zhang Ruochen, you bastard. Even if I die today, I'll drag you down with me."

RAWWRRRRRR!

He transformed into his true form, the Hornless Dragon, and charged at Zhang Ruochen.

The huge eyes of the Hornless Dragon saw Zhang Ruochen flying towards it. There was no sadness or fear. It was already the best outcome for it to die at Zhang Ruochen's hands and help her highness to accomplish her goals.

"No!"

Que, Yan Wushen, and Yuan Fei shouted almost at the same time.

The Seal of Hollow, formed by Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, was the closest to Lord Hornless. It was about to kill him first. Who would have thought that Lord Hornless would want to die with Zhang Ruochen before he died?

The victory that was right in front of them slipped away again.

Once Lord Hornless succeeded and died with Zhang Ruochen, those 30 million points would go to Immortal Vampires.

Lord Hornless was already self-detonating his Sainthood Source. It was too late for anyone to use spiritual power to suppress him.

Yan Wushen and Que forced themselves to stop. They stared at Zhang Ruochen deeply. Then, they fled the scene quickly. They didn't want to die under Lord Hornless's self-detonation.

Zhang Ruochen only exchanged a glance with Lord Hornless. Zhang Ruochen understood all Lord Hornless's emotions. Then he roared, "You won't be able to self-detonate in front of me that easily."

"Null Time Realm!"

The Null Time Realm's domain enveloped the huge Hornless Dragon. In the domain, time slowed down and almost stopped. It bought Zhang Ruochen a moment of time.

"Dimensional Sword Dance!"

36 Dimensional Swords condensed around Zhang Ruochen and wrapped him up. They hit the center of Lord Hornless's brows and pierced through.

Bang! Bang!

Zhang Ruochen and the 36 Dimensional Swords rushed from the head to the tail of the Hornless Dragon. By the time he flew out, he was covered in blood. In his hand was a crystal clear Sainthood Source.

In the end, Lord Hornless could not self-detonate.

The Hornless Dragon let out a mournful cry. Its huge body fell, and its breath of life completely disappeared.

At this moment, the entire world was silent. All eyes were on Zhang Ruochen.

Pan Ruo wanted to cry, but she restrained herself in the end. She knew that Lord Hornless didn't die in vain. Everything was worth it. If she was in Zhang Ruochen's shoes, she wouldn't feel sad if she died under Zhang Ruochen's sword.

...

The battle was still going on in the starry sky outside the Albajade Tree. The Supreme Saints of all races were hunting the escaping Celestial Captives. There were less than 100 Supreme Saint Celestial Captives left.

The Supreme Saint army of the Immortal Vampires rushed back and joined the battle.

“Charge!”

Xue Tu used five Regal Artifacts to kill a Supreme Saint Celestial Captive at Neverwilt Realm. First, he took away his Sainthood Source. Next, he cut off the Supreme Saint’s heart, lungs, and kidneys... In other words, he sorted and stored all the valuable items on the Supreme Saint’s body carefully.

Finally, he collected the drops of blood from the Supreme Saint’s corpse with a jade bottle. Only then did he nod in satisfaction.

He took the diamond-shaped mirror out of habit to check his points.

“1,770,000. Not Bad, not bad. My performance in the Celestial-Hunting battle was too outstanding. I’m even better than some of the Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. I’ll definitely be a prominent talent nurtured by the clan.

“The key is that I’ve seized several Regal Artifacts. I’ve collected a lot of Sainthood Sources, blood, heart, kidneys... I should be able to sell them at a high price. It should be enough to support my training until I reach the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. “Unfortunately...”

Thinking about how Zhang Ruochen had taken eight Regal Artifacts away from him, Xue Tu was resentful.

‘How could there be such a shameless person in the world?’

“I just owe him a Supreme Artifact, and it was already taken away by him. Why does he keep pestering me to repay ‘debts’ at any time?

“When I attain the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm, I must take revenge.

“If he still insists repayment from me, he will have to defeat me first— Eh?”

Suddenly, Xue Tu’s eyes widened. He looked at the diamond-shaped mirror in shock as if he had seen a ghost.

Why did the points of the Immortal Vampires suddenly increase by 30 million?

It was now 120 million!

“Lord Hornless! Lord Hornless must have been killed. He is a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm. Who could possibly kill him?”

Zhang Ruochen’s figure appeared in Xue Tu’s mind. He quickly checked Zhang Ruochen’s score.

A moment later, he was stunned again.

“As expected! As expected... Amazing! He actually killed a Banshi Isshou Supreme Saint. How can he be so OP?” Xue Tu lightly brushed his chest to calm himself after he said it. “I was too conceited. I was too conceited just now. I must keep a low profile, a low profile...” he muttered to himself.

Then, he immediately hid the five Regal Artifacts.

Gradually,

Immortal Vampires, Bone Clan, Netherkin, Yanluo Clan... the cultivators of the ten clans all saw the changes in their points. Some were happy and excited, some were silent, and some shook their heads and sighed.

“Yanluo Clan... was defeated in the end...”

“We have become sinners. We have lost the honor of the supreme clan.”

The morale among the Supreme Saints of Yanluo Clan charging at the Albajade Tree went low. It was as if the Celestial-Hunting battle had ended prematurely. Even if they killed all the other Supreme Saint Celestial Captives, their points wouldn’t surpass the Immortal Vampires’.

The defeat was set.

After killing Lord Hornless, the injuries Zhang Ruochen suppressed and endured finally went out of control. Cracks appeared on his body, as if his body was about to explode.

The power contained in the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill ran through his body, shattering his blood vessels, arteries, veins, and meridians.

He could only rely on the Qi of Life contained in the Heart of the Divine Tree to repair his body. However, blood continued to seep out of his skin.

All the Yanluo cultivators lost their will to fight, but Yan Wushen didn't give up. He took out the diamond-shaped mirror and looked at the points on it. Then he stared at Zhang Ruochen, "No, we haven't lost yet. There's still a chance."

Then he raised his voice and asked Pan Ruo, "Your Highness, are the rest of the Immortal Vampires with Zhang Ruochen? Help me calculate. Yanluo Clan owes you a favor."

This favor was owed by the entire Yanluo Clan, not Yan Wushen.

In other words, as long as she helped, Yanluo Clan would support her in pursuing the position of the Scioness of Destiny at the critical moment.

Pan Ruo had no choice.

Her only competitor was Lady Wind.

It was in her interest to defeat the Immortal Vampires.

If she didn't agree, everyone could see that she was helping Zhang Ruochen and the Immortal Vampires. If she continued to investigate, everything that happened in the Celestial-Hunting battlefield would be related to her and Zhang Ruochen.

Pan Ruo held the Door of Trueself and adjusted the Precepts of Destiny. She started to calculate.

Que's face was cold. "Zhang Ruochen, give me the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, and I'll leave the Celestial-Hunting battlefield now and stop meddling in the fight between the Immortal Vampires and Yanluo Clan."

There was a strong sense of threat in his words.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei said, "I want a Supreme Artifact, a Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, and 100,000 Godstones. As long as you agree to this condition, the Deathkin won't interfere in your fight.

"You can owe me 100,000 Godstones until after the Celestial-Hunting battle. However, you must swear in the name of Wargod Bloodximus and Blood Empress."

Even if the points of the Immortal Vampires were cut in half, the Deathkin would not be able to surpass them.

Since that was the case, it was better to take advantage of the situation and obtain some benefits.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei believed that Zhang Ruochen, who was seriously injured, would definitely choose to compromise and accept any of their terms. Otherwise, if all the major forces joined hands, Zhang Ruochen would not be able to leave the battlefield alive.

Furthermore, the points of the Immortal Vampires would be reduced half if that was the case.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei felt a little regretful. He felt that he didn't ask for enough. He should have made harsher conditions.

Zhang Ruochen temporarily suppressed the chaotic power of the Saintwill in his body. He laughed. "I'm the Scion of Time and Space. I can go anywhere. Do you think I will agree to your terms?"

Swoosh!

Zhang Ruochen turned into a streak of golden light and rushed out.

"Stop right there!"

Yuan Fei controlled The Seal of Hollow to suppress Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen did not want to be surrounded. He held the Pleiades Lotus and floated above his head. The lotus bloomed with a bone-chilling black light. Thousands of phantoms appeared and blocked The Seal of Hollow for a moment.

Zhang Ruochen took this opportunity to surprise everyone. He flew to the The Scroll of Truth and Deceit and shouted, “If you want a Supreme Artifact, I can give you one now.”

Violet Gourd appeared in Zhang Ruochen’s hand.

“Quick! Activate the defensive inscriptions of the scroll to strengthen the Seal of Hollow!”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei saw that Zhang Ruochen was getting closer and closer. He thought that Zhang Ruochen was going to activate the Supreme Artifact to attack, so he immediately withdrew the power to control the the Seal of Hollow and activated another power contained in The Scroll of Truth and Deceit:

The Seal of Actuality.

It was to enter defense mode from attack mode.

One by one, the “Actuality” word characters rose up on the edge of the scroll and arranged themselves into a scripture.

However, Zhang Ruochen was so fast that he barged into The Scroll of Truth and Deceit. In the blink of an eye, he appeared in front of Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Bang! Bang!

He sent 13 palm strikes in a row.

He executed Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike from the first move to the 13th move. All of them landed on Supreme Saint Yuan Fei.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was sent flying 13 times in a row. All the bones in his body were almost shattered. His body was turning into a pool of blood. It was unknown whether he was alive or dead.

“How dare you!”

The voices of the Deathkin Supreme Saints rang out one after another. They could not contain their anger. They all used their spiritual power of Death power in attempt to crush Zhang Ruochen’s soul and spirit.

However, Zhang Ruochen had already escaped. He flew dozens of miles away from The Scroll of Truth and Deceit.

After Yuan Fei was beaten to the ground, the Seal of Actuality of The Scroll of Truth and Deceit had disappeared. Of course, it couldn’t stop Zhang Ruochen from leaving. Zhang Ruochen could come and go as he wished.

A Deathkin Supreme Saint suddenly cried out, “Oh no, Zhang Ruochen has taken her highness away!”

“He caught her highness using the Violet Gourd. Zhang Ruochen is a beast. How dare he abduct a woman at such a dangerous time?”

“Quick. Stop Zhang Ruochen from leaving. Don’t forget about what he did to Yan Zhexian whom he caught. He has the balls to do anything he wants. If we’re late, things can go awry.”

Chapter 2408: Ambushed

Pan Ruo's cultivation in the Path of Destiny was profound. With the Door of Trueself, she could infer the secrets of all the immortal vampires. She could even track Zhang Ruochen.

Hence, Zhang Ruochen would want to capture her.

Whoosh!

Zhang Ruochen spread his ten wings and flew through the branches.

The Deathkin Supreme Saints had long been left behind.

Yan Wushen chased after Zhang Ruochen for a while, but he was also left far behind.

Only Que cast a Flowing light Technique. He was faster than Zhang Ruochen. He chased after him and attacked him with Kagemaru from time to time.

Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to stay. He was afraid that he would be surrounded by enemies.

If it was only a few immortal and Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saints surrounding him, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't be afraid. But if there were powerful figures like Yan Wushen and Que among the Neverwilt and Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saints, he would be in big trouble.

Boom! Boom!

The Pleiades Lotus floated behind Zhang Ruochen and clashed fiercely with Kagemaru coming from behind.

The Sword Qi and Supreme Power clashed, creating balls of brilliant energy light clouds.

'I have to fly out of the Albajade Tree as soon as possible. Once I get out, my Dimensional cultivation techniques will be of great use. Que won't be able to catch up to me!'

A thought flashed in Zhang Ruochen's mind.

Suddenly, hundreds of powerful energy waves appeared in front of him. They surged from all directions.

The moment the Yanluo Clan's Supreme Saints received a message from Yan Wushen, they regained their fighting spirit. They gathered all the Supreme Saints of their clan to surround Zhang Ruochen, wanting to fight one last time to win first place in the Celestial-Hunting battle.

"Leave Zhang Ruochen behind and exterminate the Immortal Vampires.

"Yanluo Clan still has a chance. This is a desperate battle. They'll do whatever it takes to cut the Immortal Vampires' points by half.

"Fight! Fight until everything turns into chaos. Die with no regret!"

...

Hundreds of Supreme Saints of the Yanluo Clan were filled with fighting spirit. They charged toward Zhang Ruochen like a tide.

Zhang Ruochen flew and shouted, "Retreat or die!"

"Hell no! We'll fight even if we have to die."

The Supreme Saint's voice came from all directions.

The Yanluo Clan's Supreme Saint army stayed united. Every single of them was determined to win first place among the ten clans, even if it would cost their lives.

The only pity was that time was too short. Zhang Ruochen was too fast, and Yanluo Clan lacked the leadership of a top elite. They couldn't form a joint attack formation.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were cold. He put his hands together.

Marks of Time in the form of light spots appeared one by one. They wrapped around his body, forming into the shape of a bell.

"Chime,"

Zhang Ruochen shouted.

The Bell of Time rang. Marks of Time and sound waves surged out like a tsunami. They hit the Supreme Saints of the Yanluo Clan.

BONG!

BONG!

...

The bell chimed again and again. More and more Yanluo Supreme Saints were sent flying.

Not only were they hit by the sound waves, but their lifespans were also cut off by the Marks of Time.

Que slowed down his pursuit and held up the Mirror of Oblivion to resist the attack from the Marks of Time. He was shocked as he thought, 'Zhang Ruochen has suffered the backlash of the Saintwill power. His internal injuries are serious, yet he can execute such a powerful Time Technique continuously? Isn't he afraid of suffering another backlash from Time?'

In the past, he had thought that with Zhang Ruochen's attainment in the Path of Time, Zhang Ruochen would be considered amazing if he could chime the bell three times in a row.

But now, the time bell rang five times in a row.

It must be known that every time the time bell rang, it would be strongly impacted by the time saint phase. If he used it too much, the time saint phase would shatter.

The Bell of Time rang five times, sending countless Yanluo Clan Supreme Saints flying and weakening them.

However, these Yanluo Supreme Saints still charged at him as if they didn't care about their lives.

"Stay out of my way or die!"

Zhang Ruochen's body spun rapidly. He activated Divine Purification Flame in his body. It became a flaming tornado in corn shape.

The ten golden wings were like ten sharp blades, slashing away all the Yanluo Supreme Saints that approached him.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Some of the Yanluo Supreme Saints were slashed by the golden wings. Their bodies were torn apart, and blood splattered everywhere. Some exploded, turning into a cloud of blood mist. Some caught fire once they contacted Zhang Ruochen's Divine Purification Flame.

In a few seconds, Zhang Ruochen broke through the siege line formed by the Yanluo Supreme Saints and flew out.

Behind him, there were dozens of severely injured Yanluo Supreme Saints. Countless Supreme Saints had contacted the Divine Purification Flame. Some of them had even died. Their bodies and souls had been destroyed.

Zhang Ruochen seemed mighty and powerful. He killed hundreds of Yanluo Supreme Saints easily. But his injuries had actually gotten worse. He spat out a mouthful of blood as soon as he got out.

If given other circumstances, he would not have fought against hundreds of Supreme Saints head-on.

Fortunately, he had chased almost all the Yanluo Clan's top elites, Array Masters, and Talisman Masters out of the battlefield. If a Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saint as powerful as The Eight Sons of Life and Death had appeared and blocked one or two of his attacks, he would have suffered dire consequences.

Swoosh!

Zhang Ruochen flew out of the Albajade Tree and saw Lady Wind and the Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint army.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen had escaped, all the Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints were overjoyed. They looked at Zhang Ruochen with respect.

It was because of Zhang Ruochen that they felt for the first time how great the Immortal Vampires were. They could be even stronger than Yanluo Clan.

Killing Lord Hornless had made Zhang Ruochen gain the most crucial 30 million points. It had pushed Zhang Ruochen's reputation among the Immortal Vampires to the peak.

Although Zhang Ruochen was injured, he was like an unsurpassable divine peak in their eyes.

"Supreme Saint Ruochen, we will fight along with you," shouted hundreds of Immortal Vampires at the same time.

Zhang Ruochen sensed that a large group of Supreme Saints of the Deathkin and Yanluo Clan had caught up with him. He ordered, "I must leave immediately. Find a safe place to hide and protect the remaining members of the Immortal Vampires."

Since there were a large number of powerful figures of the Immortal Vampires, Zhang Ruochen didn't want to continue fighting to the death. He didn't want to hurt the foundation of his Saintwill either. Finding a place to control the injuries in his body was the priority.

Zhang Ruochen was confident that with his cultivation in the Path of Dimension and Thirty-six Formless Transmogrification, no one would be able to find him in a short time as long as he lay low.

Lady Wind's face was delicate and beautiful. Holding the blood-red Sword of Asura, she said, "Don't worry. The Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints and I will try our best to stop them."

After defeating Xi, Lady Wind was full of confidence and fighting spirits.

If nothing unexpected happened, the position of the Scioness of Destiny would be hers.

Zhang Ruochen reached out his right hand and pressed forward.

Crash!

A dimensional wormhole mirror was formed.

He was about to cross a space through the mirror.

Suddenly, a blood-red sword light with fierce Qi of Slaughter cut through the dimensional wormhole mirror. The sword light aimed at Zhang Ruochen's neck.

The dimensional wormhole mirror was less than three meters away from Zhang Ruochen.

The sword strike was so fast that even a Banshi Isshou Supreme Saint could not dodge it, let alone Zhang Ruochen.

“Die!”

The sword light slashed past, separating Zhang Ruochen's head from his neck.

The Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints did not expect such a turn of events. The sight of it caused an uproar among them.

Most of their eyes looked in Lady Wind's direction.

Her hands were covered in blood.

The Sword of Asura in her hands had broken free from her grip and flew out, cutting off Zhang Ruochen's neck.

Lan Ying, who looked like a child, flew out of the Sword of Asura. He let out a grating laugh. “Zhang Ruochen, you've been in the limelight on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. You've fought intense battles, defeated one elite after another, snatched the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, banished Yan Huangtu and Wu Jiang from the battlefield, and even cultivated an incredible Saintwill. “But all your fruits of battle will eventually become mine .”

“What you think you are doing, Lan Ying?” Lady Wind asked in a stern voice.

Lan Ying glanced at her and smiled. “Our cooperation is to deal with Yanluo Clan together and help you gain the position of Scioness. Don't worry, I'll agree to both. But how to deal with Zhang Ruochen is not within the terms of our deal.”

“Did you use me?” Lady Wind asked. “You used me to approach Zhang Ruochen and kill him with a sword when he was defenseless.”

“I just want to devour Zhang Ruochen and take the Saintwill pill from him. If I refine him, I might be able to have the Grade Two Saintwill without practicing.

“Lady Wind, our deal remains. I can help the Immortal Vampires resist Yanluo Clan’s attack and win the top place among ten clans.

“So Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires, you’d better restrain your emotions and think about what’s best for you.

“If you attack me now to avenge Zhang Ruochen’s death, you’ll make another great enemy.

“Why don’t you take a step back?

“Taking a step back is good for all of us.”

“If you fight me to death, Yanluo Clan will be the one who wins in the end.

“It’s not worth it to fight for Zhang Ruochen, who is already dead. From now on, I will take over Zhang Ruochen’s position and lead the Immortal Vampires to the top place among the ten clans.”

The Celestial-Hunting battle had made the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires accept Zhang Ruochen, and many of them admired him and regarded him as their goal.

However, Zhang Ruochen had once been a member of the Celestial Court and had killed countless Immortal Vampires.

There was a wall between them, and it wasn’t something that could be broken in a short time. It was even harder for them to become comrades willing to fight side-by-side till the end.

When Zhang Ruochen was alive, they respected him and were willing to follow his orders from the bottom of their hearts.

But now that Zhang Ruochen was dead, it was unrealistic to risk their lives to avenge him. Their relationship had not reached that stage yet.

Among the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires, only Lord Xia Yu might do that.

All the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires glared at Lan Ying with blood-red eyes, but they did not step out in the end. Some were afraid of Lan Ying's strength, and some were concerned about the interests of the Immortal Vampires.

Seeing this, Lan Ying laughed loudly and flew toward Zhang Ruochen's head with the Sword of Asura in his hand. He opened his mouth, which had turned into mist, and was about to swallow it into his stomach and refine it directly.

Something strange happened. Zhang Ruochen's floating head suddenly regained its spirit.

"Oh no, Zhang Ruochen is not dead."

Sensing that something was wrong, Lan Ying retreated quickly.

However, it was too late. Zhang Ruochen had spat out a mouthful of fire. It hit Lan Ying, burning him until wisps of smoke were emitted.

On the other side, Zhang Ruochen's headless body with a Pleiades Lotus in his hand hit Lan Ying hard.

Bang!

Lan Ying was smashed into pieces and turned into a mass of Qi of Slaughter.

The Pleiades Lotus was about to absorb all the Qi of Slaughter, but the Sword of Asura flew over quickly and took all the Qi of Slaughter before absorbing it into the sword body.

Swoosh!

The Sword of Asura flew far away. The light it emitted reflected the surrounding starry sky into a blood-red color. It was brilliant and strange.

From the body of the sword, Lan Ying's cold voice came.
"The Sword of Asura decapitated you. The powerful Qi of Slaughter should have instantly devoured all of your life force and destroyed your sea of Qi. How can you possibly still survive?"

Lan Ying had been accumulating energy to execute that sword strike for a long time, and the attack had caught Zhang Ruochen off guard. The Qi of Slaughter it contained was even stronger than the one Lan Ying had used to attack Que.

Back then, Que had been prepared. He had mobilized the power of Oblivion and dissolved a large amount of Qi of Slaughter. That was why he survived despite being split into two halves. ‘Could it be Zhang Ruochen was also prepared and dissolved the Qi of Slaughter of the Sword of Asura?’ thought Lan Ying. But he remained skeptical.

‘The Sword of Asura is a powerful divine weapon. No one can dissolve the Qi of Slaughter.’

Zhang Ruochen’s head and body flew together and merged. Divine Flames burned on his body. “How can that little Qi of Slaughter you mobilized destroy me, someone with Five-element Chaotic Neverwithers Physique?”

If it had been before meeting Madre Bloody Shadow, Zhang Ruochen could not have withstood such a powerful strike from Lan Ying.

But now, after refining his physique with the Pale Blood Soil, the Sword of Asura could not kill him. At least, with Lan Ying’s cultivation, Lan Ying could not kill him.

Zhang Ruochen sensed Yan Wushen and Que’s presence. His expression changed slightly. He glanced at Lady Wind and immediately executed dimensional techniques to escape across space.

He appeared 500 miles away the next moment.

Then he opened the dimensional wormhole mirror and stepped into it.

Zhang Ruochen’s sneak attack and words had struck Lan Ying. In fact, the Qi of Slaughter within Zhang Ruochen had not been completely dissolved. And thus, his combat power had greatly decreased.

Therefore, he had to escape and avoid a direct confrontation with Que, Yan Wushen, and Lan Ying.

Moreover, Zhang Ruochen could not figure out whether the deal between Lady Wind and Lan Ying had included him.

He wondered whether Lady Wind and Lan Ying were just acting.

Logically speaking, the sword that Lan Ying decapitated Zhang Ruochen, the Sword of Asura, must have shown signs of conserving energy. At that time, it had been in Lady Wind's hand. Hence, she should have noticed the signs.

If Lady Wind hadn't used the power of Destiny to wipe the killing intent on the sword away, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't have been caught off guard.

Moreover, Zhang Ruochen had gotten too much limelight in the Celestial-Hunting battle. In contrast, the other Immortal Vampires did not stand out. As long as Zhang Ruochen was alive, even if Lady Wind became the Scioness of Destiny, she would draw controversy. Other cultivators would say that she got the position all thanks to Zhang Ruochen.

The Immortal Vampires Supreme Saints in the Celestial-Hunting battle would respect Zhang Ruochen more highly than her since they would think she did not earn the Scioness position with her own efforts.

Zhang Ruochen dying and losing his value on the last day was what Lady Wind wanted to see the most.

So when the time came, she could sit back and reap all the fruits of Zhang Ruochen's victory.

Chapter 2409: The Final Battle

Whoosh!

After crossing the wormhole, Zhang Ruochen instantly arrived 200,000 miles away and entered the deep zone.

He looked back and saw the 10,000-mile-tall Albajade Tree had become the size of a millstone. Its light was still dazzling.

Before Zhang Ruochen could heave a sigh of relief, spatial fluctuations appeared not far away. Another Wormhole Mirror appeared.

“You are fast,” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen could tell who was the person easily without even guessing. After all, on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, there was no one other than Yan Wushen who could open a wormhole like him.

RAWWRRRR!

With a long roar, Yan Wushen, who was 96 feet tall, jumped over the mirror and rushed out. He said, “Zhang Ruochen, stop running. Let’s fight!”

Zhang Ruochen ignored him. He pointed with his finger to open a Wormhole Mirror again and stepped into it.

Whoosh!

Yan Wushen caught up again. He raised his voice as he said, “Your injuries are serious. If you continue like this, there will be incurable hidden dangers. Why don’t you stay and fight me? I’ll give you 15 minutes to recover.”

“15 minutes is too short. How about a day?” Zhang Ruochen replied.

Yan Wushen snorted.

Zhang Ruochen did not stop. He continued to cross the space.

Now, the initiative was in Zhang Ruochen's hands. Once he promised Yan Wushen to stop fighting, Yan Wushen would have the initiative instead.

After swallowing the Pale Blood Soil, Zhang Ruochen was confident that he could hold on until the end of the Celestial-Hunting battle.

If he chose to keep running, Yan Wushen would not be able to catch up with him, even if Yan Wushen's attainment in the Path of Dimension was not inferior to his.

"If you want to fight, there will be plenty of opportunities in the future. But today, I only want to take first place among the ten clans. So, I won't accompany you."

With these words, Zhang Ruochen stepped into the Wormhole Mirror for the fourth time.

There was not much time left before the Celestial-Hunting battle ended. Most cultivators stopped fighting and waited for the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms to teleport them back to Mount Destiny.

But Yan Wushen refused to give up. He continued to chase after Zhang Ruochen. "There are rules set by the Fane of Destiny. You are not allowed to take all your clansmen off your home planet. You broke the rules. Even if the Immortal Vampires get the most points, they'll be stripped of their rank," said Yan Wushen.

"The planet of the Immortal Vampires doesn't exist anymore. Why should we follow the rules?" Zhang Ruochen retorted.

...

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen fled for millions of miles in the chase. The colorful fog filled the surroundings, the space quivering.

Que and Lan Ying had practiced the Path of Dimension, but they were not good enough to open a Wormhole Mirror. They could not catch up with Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, the two Masters of Dimension.

Yan Wushen was still slower than Zhang Ruochen. He could not stop Zhang Ruochen.

If this went on, Yanluo Clan would definitely lose.

Yan Wushen had no choice. He could only use his last move. "I'll give you one last chance. Stay and fight with me. We'll determine the ranking of Yanluo Clan and the Immortal Vampires based on our victory.

"Otherwise, Que and Lan Ying will join the forces targetting you.

"The two of them won't let go of this chance to kill you."

After ten years of practicing in the dark star, refining Pale Blood Soil, and cultivating his sixth type of Saintwill, the gap between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen's cultivation and combat strength had widened.

If Zhang Ruochen had not been so severely injured, he would not have minded fighting Yan Wushen to inflict a full defeat on Yan Wushen.

But now was not the time.

Zhang Ruochen did not say a word and continued his escape.

Yan Wushen shook his head and did not hesitate anymore. He waved his hand and sent out two Communication talismans, telling Que and Lan Ying the spatial coordinates of him and Zhang Ruochen.

After that, every time Yan Wushen crossed the Wormhole Mirror, he would send out two Communication talismans.

Yan Wushen believed that the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill had a fatal attraction to Que and Lan Ying. They would definitely try to catch up.

After receiving the message, Lan Ying and Que did not act immediately. They knew that they could not catch up to Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen by flying.

Soon, they received seven Communication talismans in a row.

Que raised his hand. A vast starry realm appeared in his palm. Seven spatial coordinates automatically appeared in his palm, forming an irregular line.

“As expected, Zhang Ruochen will appear in this area next time.”

Que extended his finger and pointed to one of the areas.

As expected, Yan Wushen’s eighth Communication Talisman flew over. The location of the spatial coordinates was very close to the location Que had analyzed.

“But it isn’t enough to analyze the location Zhang Ruochen will cross next time.

“Because the universe is vast. The small area you have figured out is probably thousands of miles wide.

“Even if we reach that area ahead of time, it’s possible that we are still far away from Zhang Ruochen. If so, we won’t be able to stop him from crossing a space again in time,” said Lan Ying.

“Thousands of miles? That’s about it. We just need to stop Zhang Ruochen from opening a Wormhole Mirror again. Even if we can only stop him for a moment, Yan Wushen, who is catching up from behind, will be able to stop him completely.”

Lan Ying and Que did not wait any longer. They entered the dimensional teleportation array and teleported away.

This dimensional teleportation array was the one that Supreme Saint Yanhong had repaired. It had always been guarded by the Bone Clan Supreme Saint.

Whoosh!

The boundless void was silent. Suddenly, a Wormhole Mirror appeared.

Zhang Ruochen’s face was pale. He rushed out.

His internal injuries worsened again.

He knew very well that with Que and Lan Ying’s talent and wisdom, they could definitely catch up once they got the coordinates. Just like back then, Que could not lose Yan Huangtu and Lan Ying chasing him despite his unrivaled speed.

Those whose cultivation was at their level were not ordinary people.

Yan Wushen was chasing after him too hard. Zhang Ruochen did not have much time to think. He had to keep opening a Wormhole Mirror. The further he ran, the lower the probability of Que and Lan Ying catching up with him.

Swoosh!

A beam of blood-red light hit the Wormhole Mirror Zhang Ruochen had just opened. It shook the mirror until it was unstable.

If he forced his way into the mirror, the mirror would collapse instantly. It was very dangerous.

Zhang Ruochen saw the source of the blood-red light. Thousands of miles away, Lan Ying and Que stood together. They both injected their power into the Sword of Asura at the same time, causing the sword light to hit the Wormhole Mirror in an instant.

When they were on the home planet of Yanluo Clan, they were mortal enemies and had a great enmity with each other.

But for the sake of common interests, they chose to join hands at this moment.

It was at that moment that Yan Wushen caught up to him. From behind, he shattered the Wormhole Mirror that Zhang Ruochen had opened with a punch across space. Then, he enveloped Zhang Ruochen in a Profound Spatial Dimension, trying to stop Zhang Ruochen from using Dimensional techniques to escape.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Yan Wushen, who was standing 33 meters away. He did not continue his escape.

Que and Lan Ying flew over from the other two directions. They were very fast. In a moment, they had crossed thousands of miles and reached the edge of Yan Wushen's Spatial Dimension. They sealed off Zhang Ruochen's escape route.

Three powerful auras squeezed Zhang Ruochen in the middle.

Yan Wushen said, "This isn't what I want to see. You bring this to yourself."

Zhang Ruochen glanced at Yan Wushen, Que, and Lan Ying. "I have to admit that each of you is very powerful." His tone was indifferent.

"Zhang Ruochen, you have been through a series of battles today. You are exhausted and wounded. You are not at your best state. If you were at your best state, the three of us would never be able to stop you," said Que

"That's why we cannot allow someone like him to live," said Lan Ying.

Que continued, "Return my Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. I'll leave immediately."

Compared to last time, Que lowered his conditions again. He only wanted the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill back.

He did not want to participate in the fight between the Immortal Vampires and Yanluo Clan. Once he did, he would definitely offend these two clans. Why would he make enemies for no reason?

The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was his, to begin with. It was only right for him to take it back.

Lan Ying's eyes flashed with a sly smile. "Unfortunately, I also want the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Zhang Ruochen, if you give it to me, I'll leave immediately."

Of course, Lan Ying wanted to devour Zhang Ruochen more. However, he was greedy and did not want to let go of the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

If Zhang Ruochen gave the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill to Que, it would be difficult for him to snatch it from Que.

If Que got the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill, he might leave the Celestial-Hunting battlefield immediately. Lan Ying, on the other hand, would never do that.

Devouring Zhang Ruochen and taking away Zhang Ruochen's cultivation was Lan Ying's ultimate goal.

"This is troublesome. I only have one Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Who should I give it to?"

As he spoke, Zhang Ruochen took out a square Spatial Box with a length, width, and height of four meters and held it in his hand. The box was transparent. It was a solid shape formed after the space was frozen.

A small brass cauldron was sealed inside the Spatial Box.

The small brass cauldron was wrapped in a layer of black gaseous patterns. It was extremely heavy, causing the surrounding space to distort slightly. Even the light was sucked in.

Que and Lan Ying's eyes focused on the small brass cauldron.

"This cauldron... is very interesting..."

There were so many treasures and weapons in Infernal Court. They did not recognize Hexadirection Cauldron. They just instinctively felt that it was extraordinary. It was not something a Regal Artifact could compare to.

It seemed reasonable to use it to store the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

"The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill is in this cauldron."

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand. The four-meter-tall Spatial Box flew toward Lan Ying.

Lan Ying saw the Spatial Box fly over. He was surprised. "The Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill is within my reach?"

Soon, Lan Ying realized that Zhang Ruochen was trying to create a diversion. Zhang Ruochen attempted to make Lan Ying and Que could fight first.

Whether or not the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill was really in the cauldron, since it was right in front of him, with Lan Ying's character, how could he not take it? Besides, just this cauldron alone made Lan Ying feel that it was something rare and valuable.

Of course, Que understood that there might not be Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill in the cauldron, but there was indeed the Pill Qi of Emperor Grade Sacred Pill flowing on the surface of the cauldron, so he was not willing to give it to Lan Ying directly.

Clang!

Kagemaru flew out and slashed at the Spatial Box.

With a bang, the Spatial Box that sealed Hexadirection Cauldron exploded. The small brass cauldron was completely exposed, emitting an even thicker pill fragrance.

If Que and Lan Ying could savor it carefully, they would discover that although the pill fragrance was potent, it was different from Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills. However, there was no time left to think about it carefully since they want to take the small brass cauldron!

Bang! Bang!

Que flew over while controlling the sword in the air. His Kagemaru kept slashing out to stop Lan Ying from getting close to the small brass cauldron.

After swallowing the Great Demonic Shadow, Lan Ying's cultivation improved again. In addition, Que was injured, so Que could not kill Lan Ying in a short time.

On the other side, the fight between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen was intense.

In the beginning, Zhang Ruochen shot out a drop of Dark Space-time Matter to detonate it, wanting to take this chance to escape.

But Yan Wushen seemed to be desperate. He forced his way through the forbidden zone formed by the explosion of Dark Space-time Matter. With his golden body and the protection of the Scepter of Heaven's Pass, he withstood the chaotic power of Darkness, Dimension, and Time.

Zhang Ruochen's escape plan failed, but Yan Wushen also paid a heavy price.

The destructive power of Dark Space-time Matter was shocking. In the narrow area, even though Yan Wushen was well-prepared, he still could not completely defend himself. His body was covered in bloody holes.

He had been torn apart by the power of Dimension.

As for the power of Darkness and the power of Time, they had inflicted wounds that could not be seen with the naked eye.

Boom!

The Pleiades Lotus and Scepter of Heaven's Pass collided. One bright light and one dark light hit Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen like waves.

Yan Wushen's golden body, which was already in imminent danger, broke with a crack.

Zhang Ruochen spat out a mouthful of blood and flew backward like a kite with a broken string. He hit a cosmic rock and broke it into pieces.

“Again!”

“Yama Naraka.”

Boom!

...

Under Yan Wushen's feet, a magnificent illusory hell appeared. It kept evolving into different scenes. First, it was the beginning of Heaven and earth, then the birth of thousands of spirits, and finally, the death of the galaxy... These scenes kept repeating.

“River of Time.”

Zhang Ruochen stood in his Realm-frame of Truth and stretched out his hands.

Crash!

A river formed by the Marks of Time rushed into Yama Naraka like a flying dragon and hit Yan Wushen.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen was hit in the chest by a bone hand emerging from Yama Naraka. His chest burst open immediately. Except for his heart, the rest of his internal organs were shattered and turned into bloody mud.

The two of them were thrown out again.

Yan Wushen was hit by the River of Time. His lifespan was cut down for thousands of years in an instant. His body was extremely weak, and strands of white hair appeared on his head.

He raised his arms and let out a long roar. "I can still fight."

Fighting with Zhang Ruochen always stimulated Yan Wushen's wild nature.

The Supreme Saint's blood in Yan Wushen's body burned up. His weak body gradually recovered its power. The shattered Yama Naraka appeared at his feet.

The power of the Saintwill in Zhang Ruochen's body was in chaos. The murderous Qi kept hitting his body. A million times more Qi of Yang rushed to his brain, destroying his rationality and making him a little crazy.

Zhang Ruochen was lying on the verge of death in the void. His blood began to burn. He slowly stood up. His long hair swayed in the flame.

The blood and minced meat scattered in the void flew back to his chest automatically.

"Everything to Nothing."

"Dimensional Sword Dance."

BANG!

When they collided again, Yan Wushen's legs were cut off by Zhang Ruochen's Dimensional Sword.

Zhang Ruochen was hit on the left side of his body by Yan Wushen's strike. Even though he avoided getting hit on his heart, the vital point, his left arm was cut off from his collarbone, tearing off a large piece of flesh.

The wound on his neck, which had just healed, reappeared, forming a circle of red bloody lines.

The old wound receded as if the head and body were about to be separated again.

The fierce battle moved all the cultivators watching the image projected by Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms.

This was no longer a simple battle. It was a battle of victory and defeat, a battle of honor, and a battle of interest between the two clans. It was also a battle of spiritual will between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, the two most outstanding elites of this era.

Chapter 2410: Growling Tiger, Roaring Dragon

After Que and Lan Ying left, the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires, the Deathkin, and Yanluo Clan started a fierce battle in the void near the Albajade Tree.

Under the leadership of Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind, the Supreme Saint Army of the Immortal Vampires launched three attacks and finally broke out of the encirclement.

Unfortunately, the teleportation array was destroyed by the Bone Clan Supreme Saint.

Lord Bladehell stood at the edge of the shattered dimensional teleportation array, his face cold as he said, “Oh no! Zhang Ruochen is under attack from Yan Wushen, Que, and Lan Ying. He might not be able to make it until the end of the Celestial-Hunting battle. Lady Wind, could you repair the teleportation array with your Destiny power?”

Lady Wind shook her head. “Many parts of the dimensional teleportation array have been shattered into dust, and the Dimensional Inscriptions have been destroyed. Its damage is beyond my competence in the Path of Destiny to repair.”

Lord Bladehell took out the diamond-shaped mirror and checked the points on it.

The points of Yanluo Clan were dropping rapidly. It was obvious that the Saint Devourer and Supreme Saint Yi Xuan had arrived on Yanluo Clan’s home planet and were killing Yanluo clansmen.

It was impossible to kill all Yanluo clansmen.

Therefore, the key to the final victory was still Zhang Ruochen.

Lord Bladehell stared at the Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires; he used his spiritual power to send a message. “The Celestial-Hunting battle is coming to an end. There’s no point in continuing the battle. The Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires should leave the battlefield immediately. They don't want to lose their points by attacking first."

The Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires left the battlefield one after another.

The Supreme Saints of Yanluo Clan, Deathkins, Bone clan, and Stone Clan all stopped fighting because they had killed all the Supreme Saint Celestial Captives. Some left the battlefield directly. Some took out diamond-shaped lenses and stared at the changes in their points.

There were less than two hours left until the Celestial-Hunting battle ended.

As for the Supreme Saints of the Netherkin, they had used the teleportation array to rush back to their home planet before Que and Lan Ying went to kill Zhang Ruochen. They had no choice. Their home planet had been attacked by the Rakshasas, so they had to return immediately.

The battle that broke out on the home planet of the Netherkin would determine the third and fourth places.

...

Que turned around and slashed with his sword. He used the Oblivion Sword technique and hit the spiritual body of Lan Ying.

As the sword light passed through, a large part of the spiritual body of Lan Ying was devoured by the power of Oblivion, and his body was split into two.

"Ah!" A miserable cry came out of Lan Ying's mouth. The two halves of his body could not reunite for a long time.

He was not only a Spirit of Slaughter born from a Divine Fetus but also the spirit of the Sword of Asura. His spiritual body was originally immortal and indestructible. Even if it was shattered ten times, it could still return to its original state.

However, after being attacked by Que's Oblivion Sword technique, he was heavily injured with just one strike.

Kagemaru hovered above Que's head and enveloped him with Sword Qi.

He carefully approached the small brass cauldron. Black gaseous patterns flowed out of the hollow pattern and wrapped around the cauldron.

Que did not believe that Zhang Ruochen would hand over the Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill so easily, so he was on guard and did not advance rashly.

“Such strong Power of Darkness. If I touch the brass cauldron rashly, I'm afraid that even with my cultivation, I'll be at a great disadvantage.”

Que observed black gas lines and realized that this brass cauldron was definitely no small matter. After all, the Power of Darkness could not be withstood by just any vessel.

Even a Regal Artifact would be corroded into scrap metal by the Power of Darkness.

Back then, Zhang Ruochen had used the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill to crack the black gas lines.

Que mobilized the power of Oblivion and filled his hands. His arms suddenly disappeared. Only he could sense the existence of his hands.

Both of his hands pressed on the black gas pattern. The power of Oblivion continued to destroy the power of Darkness, forming a two-meter-wide hole. Que walked in.

After a moment of hesitation, Que did not approach. Instead, he struck the lid of the cauldron with his palm.

Whoosh!

The lid was blown away.

A dark blue light rushed out from the cauldron.

The light was dazzling. It illuminated Que's pupils to a dark blue color. Following that, blood flowed out of his eyes.

“What a terrifying light. This is not good. This aura is an Emperor Grade Sacred Pill. The fluctuations of energy are not weaker than that of a Supreme Supreme Saint.”

Que was extremely shocked and quickly retreated.

It was an Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, not an Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill.

Swoosh Swoosh—

Each streak of light was like a peerless divine sword that stabbed toward Que.

There were more than a thousand streaks of light that flew toward Que.

Kagemaru blocked in front of Que and continuously slashed out, forming an impenetrable sword barrier. However, the power of the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill was too terrifying. The barrier lasted for a moment before it was shattered.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

Streak after streak of light beam struck Que's body.

Que desperately used the power of Oblivion to make his body become illusory, but his speed was a beat slower.

After being hit by hundreds of light beams, Que was sent flying with blood all over his body.

In front of Paramount¹ Supreme Saint, even with Que's cultivation, he was nothing. The Emperor Grade Sacred Pill did not attack personally. It only emitted light beams, yet he could not block them.

"He's not dead?" A voice sounded from within the cauldron.

Yes, Que was not dead.

When he was hit by the light beams, his body entered a semi-illusory state, which reduced more than half of the attack power.

Que supported his heavily injured body and turned into an oblivion state, escaping from this area. After entering the oblivion state, even a Paramount Supreme Saint would not be able to find him at a certain distance.

Lan Ying and Yan Wushen looked at the small brass cauldron in shock.

‘How did another Emperor Grade Sacred Pill appear on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield?’

Moreover, this Emperor Grade Sacred Pill was obviously not sealed. Its combat strength was very terrifying.

Not to mention them, even some deities were bewildered at this moment.

Emperor Grade Sacred Pills were extremely rare and even had some effect on gods.

The projection image of Wargod Bloodximius appeared in The Fane of Destiny and said, “The presence of the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill has already broken the power balance of the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. In order to protect the lives of a few outstanding juniors, please end the Celestial-Hunting battle early.”

“Please end the Celestial-Hunting battle early,”

said the Immortal Vampires’ deities appeared one after another simultaneously.

Ghost Master’s voice in a sarcastic tone rang out. “The Celestial-Hunting battle has been held 100 times. No one has ever broken the rules set by the Fane of Destiny. Even if there were only two hours left, they had to wait. If they couldn’t defeat the opponent, Zhang Ruochen could completely withdraw from the battlefield. With the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms, how could one Emperor Grade Sacred Pill kill him?”

‘Withdraw from the battlefield?!’

All the Immortal Vampires were with Zhang Ruochen. If he chose to withdraw from the battlefield, they would be considered dead. At that time, the Immortal Vampires’ points would be cut in half.

A Deathkin deity appeared and said, “Bloodximius, don’t worry too much. Since Que can escape with his life, I believe Zhang Ruochen can do it too. Besides, he’s the one who took out the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill.”

“The rules set by the Fane of Destiny must not be broken. Otherwise, the Celestial-Hunting battle will not be held in the future!” said another deity.

...

With Ghost Master leading the way, the other deities of the other clans were happy to watch the show. All of them advised Fukurokuju to stick to the rules set by the Fane of Destiny and not end the Celestial-Hunting battle early.

The Asuran deity, Asurendra Barasingha, and the deity of Yanluo Clan fell silent and did not appear in the Fane of Destiny.

Fukurokuju said, “The Celestial-Hunting battle continues. No deities are allowed to interfere in the battle. Those who violate the rules will be punished by the judicial department of the Fane of Destiny.”

The Immortal Vampire deities were furious.

They were not angry at Fukurokuju. After all, Fukurokuju was in that position, so he had to be fair. He could not help the Immortal Vampires.

If it weren’t for Ghost Master, Fukurokuju might have ended the battle prematurely because he cherished young talents.

That way, the Immortal Vampires would win.

Now, Lan Ying and Yan Wushen could both leave the battlefield, but only Zhang Ruochen could not. With his cultivation, how could he be a match for a Paramount Supreme Saint?

Returning to a Divine Plane, the eyes of Wargod Bloodximius were grim, “Now, I only hope that Zhang Ruochen won’t be so stubborn and will leave the battlefield immediately. Even if the Immortal Vampires can only get second place, I also hope that he can prioritize his life first.”

“I think so too,” Luo Yan echoed as he sat on the side.

The Ancient God of Knowledge stroked his beard and said with a smile, “This is naturally for the best. Everyone will be happy.”

Wargod Bloodximus had not spent much time with Zhang Ruochen, his grandson, but he knew Zhang Ruochen's character very well. He felt that Zhang Ruochen would unlikely withdraw from the battlefield.

He could not help but sigh.

...

Celestial-Hunting battlefield—

Lan Ying left the battlefield immediately.

Only Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, who were severely injured, remained in the void space. They were wrapped in a strand of Pill Qi, like a divine chain. They could not escape.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the small brass cauldron and then at Yan Wushen. "Aren't you going to leave the battlefield? If you don't, I'm afraid you'll die at the hands of the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill."

"I won't leave until you leave the battlefield." Yan Wushen gritted his teeth and fought against the Pill Qi.

The Pill Qi was like a chain, dragging Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen toward the small brass cauldron.

The Emperor Grade Sacred Pill's voice came from the cauldron. "One of you has a demi-buddha physique while the other has a demigod physique. Your bloodlines are very powerful. If I refine you into my body, I might have a chance to become a Divine Pill."

Zhang Ruochen spoke to Yan Wushen telepathically, "Since we don't plan to leave the battlefield early, why don't we cooperate and suppress the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill first? Then we can continue the battle."

"Suppress the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill?"

Yan Wushen widened his eyes. He thought Zhang Ruochen was too crazy.

Zhang Ruochen said, "If I'm not wrong, the small brass cauldron should be able to suppress the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill, so it can't come out of the cauldron. It can only attack us with light beams and Qi remotely.

"As long as the lid is closed, the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill will be suppressed again."

"How confident are you?" Yan Wushen asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I'm not confident. But I have to try, right? I won't admit defeat, and I won't leave the battlefield. If you're scared, you can leave the battlefield now."

"If I leave the battlefield now, Yanluo Clan will lose the chance to become number one.

"Okay, let's suppress the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill first.

"I won't lose the Battle of the Celestial-Hunting without fighting until the last moment," said Yan Wushen.

"Okay! I'll hold it back and divert its attention. You cover the lid."

Zhang Ruochen's broken arm was reattached. His internal injuries were very serious, and his combat strength was far from his peak. However, this did not affect his determination to fight against the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill.

No matter what, he had to win first place among the ten clans.

"Saint Aspect: The Immovable Wisdom King!"

A huge golden shadow rushed out of Zhang Ruochen's body and kept expanding the Pill Qi around his body. In the next moment, Zhang Ruochen's body contracted and broke away from the restriction of the Pill Qi.

"You still want to escape?"

The Emperor Grade Sacred Pill's voice rang out. Hundreds of thousands of light beams flew out from the small brass cauldron and shot toward Zhang Ruochen.

There were too many of these light beams. Even Que could not block them. Zhang Ruochen, who was heavily injured, did not dare to block them forcefully. He threw out Violet Gourd and contracted his body to rush in.

More than a dozen light beams followed him into the mouth of the Gourd.

Among them, there was a light beam that contained the spiritual clone of the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill.

After entering the Gourd, the light beam continued to chase after Zhang Ruochen.

The light beam did not fly straight. It was like a flying sword, slashing at him from all directions.

Thud!

Thud! Thud!

...

Zhang Ruochen was hit by several streaks of light beams. Streams of blood flowed out of his body.

The last streak of light beam stabbed toward his glabella.

At this moment, a door of light flew over and collided with the light beam.

Pan Ruo's slender figure appeared behind the door of light. She pressed her hands forward, and the door of light turned into a spiral shape, absorbing the light beam into her Realm of Trueself.

Pan Ruo then looked at Zhang Ruochen carefully. She frowned, and there was a noticeable gentleness in her eyes. "Why are you hurt so badly?"

"I don't have time to explain. Come with me. Let's suppress the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill first. Yan Wushen won't be able to hold on for long," said Zhang Ruochen.

Pan Ruo was full of questions, but she still agreed decisively. "Okay!"

Yan Wushen could not die. Once he died, it would be useless even if Zhang Ruochen hid in Violet Gourd. He would not be able to escape death.

They could either die together or live together.

When the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill attacked Zhang Ruochen with the light beam, Yan Wushen immediately used his Profound Spatial Dimension to break away from the restriction of the Pill Qi. He circled to the back of the small brass cauldron and picked up the lid.

But before he could do anything, the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill noticed him.

This time, the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill split out dozens of strands of Pill Qi and wrapped around Yan Wushen's body. It wrapped tighter and tighter, crushing his demi-buddha body into pieces. His bones cracked as if they were about to turn into mud.

"Then I'll refine you first. Then I'll deal with the Immortal Vampire who hid in the Gourd," said the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill.

Yan Wushen could not move. He was pulled by the Pill Qi and flew toward the small brass cauldron.

"Zhang Ruochen is too... too sinister... he let me cover the cauldron but hid in the Gourd..."

Seeing the small brass cauldron getting closer and closer, Yan Wushen could not say a word. His mouth could not move. He could not shout out to leave the battlefield. He only felt that he would die being duped by Zhang Ruochen today.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo flew out of the Gourd at the same time.

Pan Ruo's cultivation was too low. She burned the Supreme Saint's blood and lifespan at the same time to increase her power to the peak. Then she used all her strength to open the Door of Trueself. The light of Destiny shone on the small brass cauldron.

The power contained in dozens of Pill Qi instantly decreased.

Taking this opportunity, Zhang Ruochen moved his five fingers. 36 Dimensional Swords condensed. He slashed out and cut off all the Pill Qi surrounding Yan Wushen's body.

At this moment, Yan Wushen was only ten feet away from the small brass cauldron.

After escaping, Yan Wushen's deformed eyes shot out two rays of light. They exploded with unparalleled reaction power. He waved his hand like lightning and pressed the lid down.

Boom

The lid closed.

The power from the Emperor Grade Sacred Pill instantly disappeared.

It was finally suppressed again.

The world fell into a long silence.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen looked at each other with smiles on their faces. At this moment, they had completely forgotten that the other party was their enemy.

In the starry sky, tiger roars and dragon roars came from two different directions.

The starry sky near Zhang Ruochen turned white. The light was blazing, illuminating all the darkness in the world. Vaguely, a tiger shadow could be seen in the white light.

On the other hand, the starry sky near Yan Wushen turned blue. It seemed to be able to cleanse the world. The shadow of a dragon meandered in the starry sky.

Chapter 2411: Primeval Divine Genus

Translation

The 100-day Celestial-Hunting battle had finally come to an end.

All the cultivators of the ten clans who participated in the battle were teleported back to Mount Destiny by the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms. The battle was brutal with casualties among all the clans.

The surviving Celestial Captives were also teleported back. There were 3,456 of them. Most of them were Half-Saints or Saints. They were ones that slipped through the net and had very few points.

Only four of them who had killed the Immortal Vampires could survive and regain their freedom.

The remaining 3,000 Celestial Captives were killed on the spot. Their flesh and souls were devoured by the cultivators of all races. Their fate was worse than dying on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield.

The points on the diamond-shaped mirror had all disappeared. No one knew the result of the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen at the last moment. All the participating cultivators were waiting anxiously.

“The tiger roars and the dragon roars rang out. The projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms shattered. I wonder what happened.”

“Why are there tiger roars and the dragon roars on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield?”

“Could it be that a deity intervened in the Celestial-Hunting battle?”

“At that time, I sensed an extremely powerful divine power. If the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms did not teleport me away in time, I would have been shattered by the roar,” said a Ghost Clan’s Supreme Saint who had just entered the Neverwilt Realm. He still had some lingering fear.

At that time, he had stayed behind to guard the home planet of Ghost Clan.

A Supreme Saint of the Fane of Barasingha asked Lan Ying in a low voice, “Senior, the Celestial-Hunting battle has ended. Why aren’t Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen back yet?”

The corners of Lan Ying’s lips rose. “There were indeed some accidents on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. I’m afraid they won’t be able to come back!”

Many cultivators heard this.

They all went forward to ask about the situation, but Lan Ying crossed his arms in front of his chest. He was cold and scornful. He ignored them. Other than the cultivators of the Fane of Barasingha, he only saw Zhang Ruochen, Que, Yan Wushen, and a few others in this era as someone on his par. Other cultivators were not qualified to talk to him.

The Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires gathered together. When they heard what Lan Ying had said, they all looked grave. They were more anxious than any other clan.

Only Moyin remained calm. It did not believe that anything bad would happen to Zhang Ruochen. After all, it would have been dead if Zhang Ruochen had not survived on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield.

Of course, it was not something a regular cultivator would know.

Most cultivators did not even know that Moyin was a parasitic plant cultivated by Zhang Ruochen.

Lian Xi, Gaunt, Zhou Zhen, and Shentu Yunkong, who had attended the Celestial-Hunting Banquet with Zhang Ruochen, were still at Destiny's Creek. When they heard all kinds of news about Zhang Ruochen, they were distraught.

If they were not under Zhang Ruochen's protection in Infernal Court, they might be reduced to livestock or food immediately.

At this moment, a cultivator of the Rakshasa clan walked past them with a Celestial Captive's leg in his hand.

They were all nervous. This was the first time they realized how important Zhang Ruochen was to them and how fragile they were.

"Zhang Ruochen, please survive. If you are dead, what will happen to us?" Zhou Zhen said with a bitter face.

Lian Xi habitually raised her head and looked at the sky.

There was nothing in the sky.

However, during the 100 days of the Celestial-Hunting battle, she had seen with her own eyes from the projection in the sky that Zhang Ruochen had created miracles, again and again, taking one step after another to the peak of the Celestial-Hunting battle.

It seemed that there was an endless amount of combat power in that man's body, and he would never fall.

'He is likely to survive on the last day,' Lian Xi thought.

...

It seemed that he had slept for a thousand years. Zhang Ruochen's hot and painful body was nourished by a cool power. The pain disappeared and was replaced by a pleasant feeling.

Zhang Ruochen opened his eyes and found himself lying on a white beach.

Although the sun in the sky was bright, the light was not so dazzling. When it shone on his body, it felt warm, as if he was bathing in a divine spring. All his limbs and bones relaxed.

In the distance, the seawater was as blue as water. The waves rippled, and the seabirds swooped down to eat the fish. The scenery was beautiful and full of vitality. It was completely different from the Infernal Court's environment filled with darkness and death.

Beside him, a hundred-meter-tall giant tree grew green leaves. Dense branches hung down like a green umbrella. The leaves emitted sparkling light, like white rain.

Zhang Ruochen sat up. A hint of confusion appeared on his face. He muttered to himself, "Where am I?"

"This is the Divine Plane of Fukurokuju!" A voice rang out.

Zhang Ruochen turned his head and saw a white tiger about five meters long lying next to him. It had a huge head and a very fat butt.

Strangely, it did not have a single hair on its body. Its skin was as white as jade, and there was a golden word "Burial" on its head.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes narrowed. He immediately stood up and asked cautiously, "Senior, is that you?"

"It's me. Of course it's me."

Intergold Tiger stood up and shook the sand off its body.

When Zhang Ruochen had first seen Intergold Tiger on Ghost Clan's home planet, it had exuded a terrifying power. Its body was enormous, and one head could fill Zhang Ruochen's field of vision.

Now, it was only slightly bigger than an ordinary tiger, and its aura was completely restrained.

The only thing special about it was that it was hairless.

Zhang Ruochen thought of something, and his expression changed. "Is This Divine Realm World of Fukurokuju?"

Then, he carefully observed his surroundings.

"The place is somewhat far from what I had imagined?"

"It is no different from the real world."

He released his spiritual power to investigate. He could not sense the edge of the world at all.

The more he investigated, the more shocked he became.

There were not just mountains and seas in this Divine Plane. There were also all kinds of creatures. Some powerful creatures had even reached the Neverwilt Supreme Sainthood.

As for whether there were more powerful creatures further away, it was unknown.

One could not tell whether these creatures had been captured by Fukurokuju or were born naturally. If it was the latter, Zhang Ruochen had to say that Fukurokuju must have cultivated to an unfathomable level.

He was a Macroworld himself, the creator of this world.

“Oh no. The deities can know everything in Divine Plane. Could Fukurokuju already know some of my memories or read my thoughts directly?” Zhang Ruochen became nervous.

It was difficult for Zhang Ruochen to remain calm in the face of a terrifying superior that he could not fathom.

The voice of Intergold Tiger sounded in Zhang Ruochen’s mind. “don’t worry. You have merged with my Apex Intergold Qi. With my protection, no deities can read your memories and thoughts, not even a Reverend can’t.”

Zhang Ruochen stared at it, feeling even worse.

It was game over. With this tiger’s existence, he could not keep any secrets anymore.

Intergold Tiger added, “Don’t worry. I won’t read your thoughts anytime, anywhere.”

‘It claimed it wouldn’t yet it is still doing it now!’ Zhang Ruocheng retorted in his mind.

Intergold Tiger continued, “Since you are not speaking, I can only read your thoughts.

“Besides, this is Fukurokuju’s Divine Plane, his divine realm. You don’t seem to want to reveal any secrets. Since you can’t speak, I can only read your thoughts and communicate with you.”

Zhang Ruochen was speechless. He really wanted to empty his mind.

The white tiger continued, “Don’t be so nervous. You passed my test and are now my guide. Our fates are connected. You don’t have to guard against me.”

‘But you are a deity in Infernal Court,’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

The white tiger said, “No, I don’t belong to Infernal Court. I come from God’s Ancient Nidus.”

Although Zhang Ruochen had already vaguely figured out its origin, he was still shocked to hear Intergold Tiger admit it.

God’s Ancient Nidus was one of the most mysterious places in the universe. It was known as the relic of a primeval civilization.

Zhang Ruochen relaxed a little. He finally opened his mouth and asked, “You just said that I’m your guide. What do you mean?”

“Since you’re awake, let’s meet Fukurokuju. He’ll tell you what a guide is. Come on my back. I’ll take you to see him.”

Zhang Ruochen looked hesitant. “This... isn’t a good idea! It’s better if you lead from the front. I’ll fly behind. Just follow.”

What a joke. This was a divine beast from God’s Ancient Nidus. It was on equal footing with the deities of the Infernal Court.

Even the deities did not dare to treat it as a mount.

How could Zhang Ruochen, a mere Supreme Saint, have the audacity to do so?

“With your cultivation, you won’t be able to fly there even if you fly for ten years. Don’t dawdle. Come,” Intergold Tiger said.

Zhang Ruochen saw that it seemed serious, so he took a deep breath. Without hesitation, he leaped and landed on its back.

It was too surreal. A Supreme Saint could actually fly on a divine beast.

Swoosh —

Intergold Tiger released a peaceful white light and turned into a ray of light. It flew toward a certain direction of the deity world and crashed into the void. Lines of Precepts appeared where the space was hit.

They flickered for a moment, then disappeared again.

“My injuries seem to have healed,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Intergold Tiger guessed what Zhang Ruochen was thinking and said, “don’t worry. Half of your injuries were healed by me. Fukurokuju did not investigate you. He did not know that you have the Heart of Truth.”

Zhang Ruochen facepalmed. He really wanted to jump off Intergold Tiger.

There was no secret between him and Intergold Tiger.

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen calmed down. He thought to himself, ‘I must calm down. I’ve fused with Apex Intergold Qi. That’s why it can read my thoughts at any time. Other deities can’t do that.’

“You’re right. That’s true.

“In a sense, our relationship is closer and more equal than that of a human couple. You should absolutely trust me,” said Intergold Tiger.

Zhang Ruochen smiled bitterly and said nothing. He thought to himself, ‘If our relationship is so close and equal, why can’t I read your thoughts and only you read my thoughts?’

“Because your cultivation is not as high as mine, and your spiritual power is not as high as mine. If one day you surpass me, you will be able to reverse everything,” Intergold Tiger said.

There was no way to refute it.

Zhang Ruochen stopped thinking about this nonsense and asked, “You said that half of my injuries were healed by you. What about the other half?”

“The other half is, of course, yourself. Your self-healing ability is very powerful. I suspect that if I tear you into pieces, your body can be united again. However, it will take a long time,” Intergold Tiger said.

Zhang Ruochen stopped asking and began to think about how to empty himself and not think about anything.

Having his thoughts read by a tiger all the time was no different from stripping naked and running naked on the street.

“If you feel that reading your memory makes you feel conflicted and uncomfortable, then from now on, I won’t read it anymore.”

After saying this, without waiting for Zhang Ruochen to reply with an “Okay,” Intergold Tiger said again, “But I read your thoughts because I want to know more about you. Only in this way can we get along better in the future.”

“Let’s go to meet Fukurokuju first.”

Although he said this, Zhang Ruochen was thinking about how to reject his new identity as a “Guide.”

Intergold Tiger seemed to be easy to get along with. It even helped him to heal his injuries and even became his mount. It was not malicious. However, Zhang Ruochen had too many secrets. He did not want others to know about them. He absolutely could not keep it with him.

The best thing was to let Blood Empress draw out the Apex Intergold Qi in his body and completely cut the connection with Intergold Tiger.

...

Intergold Tiger brought Zhang Ruochen to a sea area in the Divine Plane.

Yan Wushen was standing on top of a green dragon. He had been waiting on the surface of the sea for a long time. When he saw Zhang Ruochen coming, he was surprised at first, but then he smiled knowingly.

Intergold Tiger landed on the surface of the sea. It stepped on the water as if it was walking on flat ground.

Zhang Ruochen looked carefully at Swastika Seiryu under Yan Wushen. He finally understood where the ten dragon souls in his body came from.

So he cupped his fists and said, "Thank you, senior."

"I helped you because I saw that you had merged with the Apex Intergold Qi. It's very likely that you were chosen by Intergold Tiger as a guide. In fact, with your physical quality and willpower, you might not be able to pass the trial," said Swastika Seiryu.

Whoosh—

Clouds and fog churned in the sky.

Layers of white clouds pressed down on the surface of the sea, forming a majestic, gaseous face. The aura it exuded made Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, two Supreme Saints, feel their bodies sink. They could not help but want to kneel and worship.

However, they were all extraordinary people. They held their bodies and did not kneel.

"Greetings, Reverend." Yan Wushen took the lead to bow.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his fists and said, "Greetings, Reverend."

Fukurokuju's imposing face made a deafening sound. "Very good. Both of you are very good. You are qualified to represent Infernal Court and become the guides of the Primeval Divine Genus, which is the two Primeval Divine beasts from the God's Ancient Nidus."

Zhang Ruochen immediately said, "Can I not be a guide?"

Yan Wushen was surprised and looked in Zhang Ruochen's direction.

Yan Wushen knew that Zhang Ruochen was very arrogant, but not to the extent of paying no heed to the identity, "the Guide of the Primeval Divine Genus."

'Zhang Ruochen can't be thinking too little of the Primeval Divine Genus, right?

‘Did you know that many deities wanted to be the guide of Intergold Tiger, but they did not have the chance?’

Before Fukurokuju could ask, Intergold Tiger spoke to him first, “Fukurokuju, I have a secret to report to you. It concerns the cultivator on my back.”

When Zhang Ruochen heard this, his face froze.

‘No way. This white tiger is going back on its words. Just because I’m reluctant to be your guide, you are against me now?’

Zhang Ruochen only knew that Intergold Tiger could read his thoughts. As for whether it could read his memories, he had no idea.

If it could read his memories, it would be very troublesome. Many people would be affected.

Most likely, it could read the memory. After all, its spiritual power was much stronger than Zhang Ruochen’s. When Zhang Ruochen was asleep, his mental defense was very low. The tiger had probably done everything to him!

‘What a b*stard.

‘I thought you were silly and sweet. Little did I expect you to be a scheming b*stard.’

Chapter 2412: The Guide

“What’s the matter?”

Fukurokuju’s voice was like a great bell, and the sound waves spread throughout heaven and earth.

Zhang Ruochen was shocked, but he did not lose his mind. His thoughts spun rapidly, and he thought of a strategy.

Intergold Tiger spoke, “I carried this cultivator on my back,” he said. “Because of the Apex Intergold Qi, I can read his thoughts and some of his memories.

“I discovered that he came from Celestial Court on the other side of the starry sky. He had a close relationship with a Celestial Captive from the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. However, he killed that Celestial Captive for some reason.

“That Celestial Captive’s name is Manjian. He’s a Supreme Saint from Guanghai.”

Fukurokuju’s divine eyes shone brightly as he stared at Zhang Ruochen. “Zhang Ruochen, why did you kill Supreme Saint Manjian?”

“To be honest, when I was forced to leave Celestial Court, Supreme Saint Manjian did take good care of me. He was both my teacher and my friend.

“However, I am now a member of Infernal Court, representing the Immortal Vampires. My grandfather fought against public opinion and placed all his hopes on me. On the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, even if I had no other choice, I had to take action.

“Furthermore, Supreme Saint Manjian knows that he will never leave the Celestial-Hunting battlefield alive. He doesn’t want to implicate me, and he doesn’t want to be tortured to death by other cultivators of Infernal Court. That’s why he wanted to die when we met,” Zhang Ruochen said calmly and slowly.

There were many things that could not be hidden from Fukurokuju.

Rather than denying his relationship with Supreme Saint Manjian, it was better to tell Fukurokuju the truth.

At the same time, Zhang Ruochen secretly heaved a sigh of relief. It was clear that Intergold Tiger's move was only a test threat. It did not force him into a dead end.

If Zhang Ruochen continued to refuse to be its guide, what it had said would definitely be more lethal.

Fukurokuju said, "It's a good thing that you can recognize yourself as a member of Infernal Court and understand your own place. However, since Supreme Saint Manjian is close to you and is also your teacher and friend, why didn't you persuade him to join Infernal Court? Wouldn't that save his life?"

"With your talent and strength, coupled with the background of the Xue Jue family, it's not difficult to save the life of a Supreme Saint."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. "Supreme Saint Manjian is different from me. He has disciples and clansmen in Guangan. If he joins Infernal Court, countless people will die because of him.

"If I ask him that question, he'll think that I'm humiliating him," said Zhang Ruochen.

Fukurokuju fell silent. After a while, he asked, "You really don't want to be the guide of Intergold Tiger? You probably don't know what a guide is, do you?"

Zhang Ruochen did not dare to reject him immediately. He asked curiously, "I don't. Please explain."

"It starts with the origin of Intergold Tiger and Swastika Seiryu. They were brought out by Great Emperor Fengdu from the God's Ancient Nidus." The God's Ancient Nidus was a primeval civilization relic. The word 'primeval' referred to the era before 50,000 Yuanhui-s

“The gods all agreed that about 50,000 Yuanhui-s ago, there was great destruction in the universe. It destroyed everything at that time. Only the five primeval civilization relics remain. “Perhaps there are other relics of the primeval civilization, but at least Celestial Court and Infernal Court haven’t discovered them yet.”

“The embryos of Intergold Tiger and Swastika Seiryu were preserved from 50,000 Yuanhui-s ago. After experiencing the great destruction, they were finally hatched in this Yuanhui after 50,000 Yuanhui-s.

“That’s why they’re called Primeval Divine Genus, Primeval Divine Beasts, to be specific.”

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were greatly shocked. ‘The two embryos were not destroyed during the great destruction. They were still preserved for 50,000 Yuanhui-s.

‘Even after 50,000 Yuanhui-s, they did not turn into dead embryos. They were even hatched.

‘This...

‘Lan Ying was a Divine Fetus of Lan Ying nurtured for three Yuanhui-s. Fairy of a Hundred Flowers, on the other hand, has survived since ancient times. Her case was rare, and she could be considered a rare treasure in the universe. However, compared to Intergold Tiger and Swastika Seiryu, she was still far behind.

‘They were probably the only two Primeval Divine Genus!’

Fukurokuju continued, “They have experienced the great destruction. They might even have absorbed the special power during the great destruction. They will definitely become the first-class overlord in the world in the future. However, they can’t leave God’s Ancient Nidus.”

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were puzzled.

‘They can’t leave God’s Ancient Nidus?’

Fukurokuju said, “The laws of Heaven and earth are completely different from those in primeval times. Once they leave God's Ancient Nidus, they will be attacked by the laws of Heaven and earth and attract punishment.

"Great Emperor Fengdu hid them in his own Divine Plane for thirty thousand years before bringing them out of God's Ancient Nidus and sending them to Infernal Court.

"Even so, they could only stay in their own isolated worlds inside the two home planets. They could not leave.

"It took 30,000 years for them to slowly become more compatible with the laws of Heaven and earth of this era. They were no longer attacked by the laws.

"However, once they activated the power in their bodies when their power reached a certain level, it would still be detected by the laws of Heaven and earth. They would receive the wrath of heaven and earth and die a horrible death."

Zhang Ruochen gradually understood that Intergold Tiger and Swastika Seiryu were creatures that could not be tolerated in this era. They should have died before the apocalypse.

To illustrate this using an analogy, one could regard the laws of Heaven and earth in primeval times were meant for creatures living in the water.

In contrast, the laws of Heaven and earth in this era were meant for creatures living on land.

Intergold Tiger and Swastika Seiryu were two powerful fish that lived in water. However, no matter how powerful the fish were, they would still die on land.

It was simply because the Laws of Heaven and earth were different!

Even the gods could not resist the laws.

Fukurokuju said again, "Not only that, they are unable to cultivate under the laws of heaven and earth of this era."

Yan Wushen said, "Since it is so dangerous to come out, why don't they continue to stay in God's Ancient Nidus?"

Fukurokuju said, "Just now, I said that they experienced the great destruction. It is even possible that they absorbed the special power during the great destruction and will definitely become the overlords of the universe in the future.

“But there is a prerequisite. They have to leave God’s Ancient Nidus and blend themselves into this era. Otherwise, they will be trapped in the shoals. Their current achievements will become their limit.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “So the guide can help them solve the problem of being rejected by the laws of heaven and earth and not being able to practice, right?”

“Yes.” Fukurokuju said, “One of you has integrated the Apex Intergold Qi, and the other has integrated Apex Swastika Qi. You have integrated with their power at the initial stage.

“As long as they follow you, the laws of Heaven and earth will repel them lesser.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “But this doesn’t address the root cause. It can’t fundamentally change their situation.”

Fukurokuju said, “So after you become their guide, you must help them practice until they can fully integrate into this era. “Of course, as a reward, they will protect your lives and teach you some prehistoric cultivation techniques and knowledge.

“At the same time, you can establish a close relationship with God’s Ancient Nidus, which is equivalent to having a powerful backer and background.”

There were other creatures in God’s Ancient Nidus that originated from primeval times. However, they were born in this era and were not repelled by the laws of Heaven and earth. They could roam free in this universe.

The five ruins of primeval civilization still existed. They had not been flattened by Celestial Court and Infernal Court. This showed how powerful they were.

Yan Wushen asked, “They’re divine beasts. We’re only Supreme Saints. How do we help them in practicing cultivation?”

Fukurokuju said, “You will need to communicate with each other.”

Zhang Ruochen thought for a long time. He asked one last question. “I still don’t understand. Since there are so many benefits to being a guide, why did you choose us two Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm as guides?”

“Wouldn’t it be better if it were you, deity, or Great Emperor Fengdu?”

“It’s not that simple.” Fukurokuju was very patient. He said slowly, “You should know how difficult it is to fuse the Apex Intergold Qi, right? Countless geniuses from Ghost Clan were born over the past 30,000 years, but none of them succeeded. In the end, it became yours.”

Zhang Ruochen frowned. “So you and Great Emperor Fengdu can’t fuse the Apex Intergold Qi,?”

“We can do it,” said Fukurokuju. “Just that it is not possible to reach the state of perfect fusion. And I’m afraid even if Intergold Tiger’s is drained, it is not achievable. If they can’t fuse completely, they won’t be able to be a guide.”

“Even if other deities can fuse with the Apex Intergold Qi, the amount of Qi they absorb will weaken Intergold Tiger for a long time. This is one of the reasons.

“The second reason is that Intergold Tiger pays no heed to the growth potential of deities. It just doesn’t want them to be its guide.”

“The third reason is the most important. The deities’ bodies and Paths of Cultivation have already been fixed. This will affect Intergold Tiger. Compare to deities, Supreme Saints have more flexibility. Their number is higher too. So Intergold Tiger can find the one that suits them best.”

After listening, Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen roughly understood what a guide was.

Fukurokuju asked, “Zhang Ruochen, are you still not willing to be the guide of Intergold Tiger?”

“No, I’m willing to be the guide of Intergold Tiger,” Zhang Ruochen said.

‘Huh? This tiger threatened to expose my secrets indirectly. Do I look like I have a choice?’

Besides, Zhang Ruochen felt that being the guide of Intergold Tiger was indeed a way out. If he could not stay in Celestial Court and Infernal Court, he could at least take refuge in God’s Ancient Nidus when he was facing death.

Intergold Tiger snorted.

It seemed to be dissatisfied with Zhang Ruochen but also proud of making Zhang Ruochen’s compromise.

Fukurokuju said, “Since you’ve recovered, it’s time to go out! The Celestial-Hunting battle has ended since two hours ago.”

Suddenly, a white light enveloped Zhang Ruochen and Intergold Tiger. As the world turned upside down, Zhang Ruochen found that the scene around him had changed and appeared at Tungsten Square at the foot of Mount Destiny.

Intergold Tiger’s aura was restrained, and it stood majestically at the side.

In front of the square was the Gate of Destiny, which was made of tens of thousands of stellar cores. It was majestic and intimidating, as if it could pass through the ancient and modern times and the sea of stars.

“Look, Zhang Ruochen is back!”

...

Countless pairs of eyes looked at Zhang Ruochen. Some were happy and excited, while others frowned in disappointment.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen was revealing his muscular upper body. His long hair was disheveled, and there was a layer of blood-red light in his eyes. He was devilish, masculine, and handsome. His charm was fatal to female cultivators.

In the other direction, Yan Wushen and Swastika Seiryu returned to the Yanluo Clan’s camp. They caused a huge commotion and were surrounded by many cultivators.

On the other hand, Intergold Tiger and Swastika Seiryu were ignored by them. It was as if they could not sense the terrifying power in their bodies. They only thought that they were ordinary Saint Beasts.

Zhang Ruochen communicated with Intergold Tiger in his heart and asked, “You really only read a certain portion of my memory?”

“Yes. Your sea of consciousness is sealed by many powerful forces. Even I can’t crack it. If I really want to read it by force, I’m afraid your sea of consciousness will shatter, and you will die,” said Intergold Tiger.

Zhang Ruochen had a wonderful connection with Intergold Tiger. He could vaguely tell that it was telling the truth and was not deliberately deceiving him.

“Many powerful forces? Other than my mother, tWargod Bloodximius, Moon Goddess, are there other gods that have put a seal on my sea of consciousness?” Zhang Ruochen frowned.

Intergold Tiger said, “There is a very powerful seal. I feel that the caster’s spiritual power is more powerful than mine. That seal has isolated your consciousness.”

“What do you mean?” Zhang Ruochen’s eyes became piercing.

Intergold Tiger said, “It means that you have a memory that even you yourself are unaware of.”

“How is that possible?!” Zhang Ruochen said.

Even if the sealer was a god, Zhang Ruochen would at least recall some pieces of memory about it. How could he not know about it?

Moyin was the first to come to Zhang Ruochen’s side. She stared at Zhang Ruochen’s body with infatuation and said with a smile, “Congratulations, Master. Your cultivation has improved again.”

Zhang Ruochen’s face was solemn. He just nodded.

Moyin did not say anything more. She turned into a ray of light and rushed into Zhang Ruochen's back.

Then, Lady Wind, Lord Bladehell, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and Gu Chenzi all rushed forward. They all asked Zhang Ruochen about the result of the Celestial-Hunting battle. More Supreme Saints of the Immortal Vampires rushed forward to pay their respects.

Zhang Ruochen gradually showed the demeanor of an Immortal Vampire leader of this generation.

The likes of Lady Wind and Lord Bladehell had been completely stolen by him. They were reduced to a foil.

Before Zhang Ruochen could speak, Fukurokuju, Black Robe High Priest, who was thousands of feet tall, walked out from the peak of Mount Destiny. He held a scroll in his hand and slowly opened it. "Now, I hereby announce the rankings of the ten clans in the Celestial-Hunting battle."

The cultivators of the ten clans all looked at Black Robe High Priest with solemn expressions. No one dared to make a ruckus.

In fact, only the top four rankings were in doubt.

The battle between Yanluo Clan and the Immortal Vampires continued until the last moment.

On the home planet of the Netherkin, the Netherkin and the Rakshasa clan fought fiercely for third place. Their points were very close.

Zhang Ruochen knew the final result, so he was very calm.

However, the cultivators of the entire Infernal Court were extremely nervous. Many cultivators gathered near Mount Destiny held their breaths.

Although it was just a ranking, it was related to a clan's glory and interest.

Chapter 2413: Ranked Top among Ten Clans

“10th place, Ghost Clan.”

“9th place, Stone Clan.”

“8th place, Corpusians.”

“7th place, Asuras.”

“6th place, Bone Clan.”

“5th place, Deathkin.”

Every single voice of Black Robe High Priest sounded far away as if it could travel everywhere.

In the Divine Domain of Destiny, although the cultivators of various clans had long expected this, when they heard that their clan’s ranking was actually so low, they were still furious.

An Asuran youth dressed in plain clothes held a black spear in his hand. He let out a long cry, “If it wasn’t for Yan Wushen, our clan’s ranking would not be so low.

“Today, I swear that one day, I will kill Yan Wushen and avenge today’s humiliation.

“On the name of Asundera, once this oath is completed, Heaven and earth will bear witness, and I will die without regret.”

When the oath was completed, a blood-colored divine fog gathered above his head.

An elderly Ghost cultivator sat on a tower in a city in the Divine Domain of Destiny. He muttered, “Ghost Clan lost because they had underestimated Zhang Ruochen in the battle on our home planet. It’s not shameful to be defeated by someone who is at the Yuanhui level. However, we will definitely send talented people to recover our dignity.”

...

Similar scenes happened all over the Divine Domain of Destiny.

Some were reflecting; some were filled with hatred, and some were regretful and silent.

In the universe, every incident or outcome would entail a plethora of facets.

“The fourth is the Netherkin.” Black Robe High Priest’s voice rang out again.

The Netherkin cultivators were silent.

The cultivators of the Rakshasa clan cheered and laughed. Some were happy, while others were sad.

“The third is the Rakshasa clan.”

One of the Netherkin Supreme Saints, who had not entered the Celestial-Hunting battlefield, said, “Wu Jiang put all his energy into encircling the Immortal Vampires. He did not expect that our planet would be attacked.”

“Wu Jiang didn’t do anything wrong. If he had not lost to Zhang Ruochen, even if Luo Shengtian attacked our planet, Luo Shengtian would not have been able to do much,” another Netherkin Supreme Saint said.

“If Wu Jiang didn’t make an enemy of Zhang Ruochen in the beginning, if he put all his energy into hunting the Celestial Captives, wouldn’t the ranking be better?”

“What happened, happened. The Netherkin... No, the three upper clans have all fallen. Zhang Ruochen alone can suppress the three upper clans. After today, he’ll become the leader of the younger generation of the Immortal Vampires.”

“Now, let’s see if Yanluo Clan can retain their former ranking.”

What followed was the result everyone anticipated.

It had been 100 years since the Celestial-Hunting battle had been held. Yanluo Clan had never lost. They had been undefeatable.

In this Celestial Hunting battle, Yanluo Clan deployed a young generation who was even more outstanding. They were all top elites: Yan Wushen, Yan Huangtu, Xi, Yan Zhexian... Each of them could take charge. Their overall strength far surpassed the past generations of previous hunting battles.

However, they fought with great difficulty this time. They were suppressed by the Immortal Vampires led by Zhang Ruochen until the last moment.

Empress of Thousand Bones stood on a small island in a lake in the Divine Domain of Destiny. The island was covered with purple-scarves trees. Their trunks were as tall as dragons. When the wind blew, purple petals danced in the air like butterflies.

She looked in the direction of Mount Destiny. It was quiet and deep.

Sword Saint Xuanji stood to the side and said, "Don't worry, Empress. Zhang Ruochen will win first place among the ten clans."

Empress of Thousand Bones seemed to be standing in a virtual time-space. Sometimes her figure was there, sometimes dissipating. She said, "Zhang Ruochen will do everything he can to hold on until the last moment. He will fight against all the powerful enemies alone. He has gone through life and death several times.

"I know that there is a big reason. It is because of the promise he gave me. He will definitely succeed in the future.

"Xuanji, you have a good disciple."

Sword Saint Xuanji could not hold back the smile on his face. "I didn't teach him anything. He has achieved what he has today because of himself."

Empress of Thousand Bones shook her head, "It is already amazing that a mortal can become a saint by himself.

"Zhang Ruochen has made many outstanding achievements because there are so many people behind him who have been helping him. You must be one of them."

Then, she added, “Many people will die if we save the Grand Supreme Master. Xuanji, it’s time for you to go back to Kunlun!”

Sword Saint Xuanji quickly bowed with a firm attitude, “Saving the Grand Supreme Master and hundreds of millions of people in Kunlun has been my ambition since I entered Infernal Court. Now, hope is right in front of me. How can I run away in fear of death? Please allow me to stay and help.”

Empress of Thousand Bones reappeared. Her figure was extremely beautiful. Her gaze remained on Mount Destiny. “The result is out!”

Black Robe High Priest’s mighty voice spread through Heaven and earth. “2nd place, Yanluo Clan.”

“The first place, Immortal Vampires.”

All the Immortal Vampires’ cultivators on Tungsten Square, including Lord Sinluo, who was standing in their camp, burst in excitement.

“We won, we won, we finally won!” Lord Sinluo raised his fist, his face flushed red as he shouted along with the cultivators around him.

Even the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires let out a long, wild laugh to vent the joy in their hearts.

In the major cities of the Divine Domain of Destiny, the Immortal Vampires all came to the streets and shouted, “Immortal Vampire, Number One!”

“Immortal Vampire, Number One!”

...

Light Communication Talismans streaked across the starry sky like a meteor shower. They flew to all the territories of the Immortal Vampires to spread the news.

Among the vampires, one shouted “Zhang Ruochen,” and it immediately caused a chain reaction.

“Zhang Ruochen!”

“Zhang Ruochen!”

..

From today on, Zhang Ruochen's name was completely bound to the Immortal Vampires, and he became the leader of this generation of the Immortal Vampires.

This generation of Immortal Vampires accounted for 99 percent of the total number of Immortal Vampires.

After all, there were less than one in a hundred or even less than one in ten thousand Immortal Vampires who could live for more than 1,000 years.

The influence of the Celestial-Hunting battle was huge. The publicity effect was enough to make Zhang Ruochen more famous than some deities.

The cultivators of other clans looked on coldly; Some mocked them; Some went up to congratulate the vampires because they were happy to see Yanluo Clan being suppressed.

Today was destined to be recorded in history. The names of "Zhang Ruochen," "Lord Bladehell," "Lady Wind," and "Lord Xia Yu" would definitely be written down by the Immortal Vampires. It would be known for at least hundreds of years.

The cultivators from Yanluo Clan were extremely depressed. Countless people were gnashing their teeth to get second place, but Yanluo Clan cultivators felt even worse than the Ghost cultivators who got last place.

Other than the first place, any other ranking was a humiliation to Yanluo Clan.

Sitting in the Divine Plane, Wargod Bloodximius had already received dozens of congratulatory messages from his good friends.

Wargod Bloodximius did not hide his emotions. He laughed loudly. His laughter spread to the Divine Planes of Ghost Master, Asurendra Samay, and the other deities of Infernal Court. It drew many displeased grunts.

Immediately, Wargod Bloodximius announced, "Today, the Bloodsky clan will celebrate and release all the prisoners except for the cultivators of Celestial Court."

The Immortal Vampires had defeated Yanluo Clan. The vampires were the only race that had brought the supreme clan down from their glory.

Moreover, it was Wargod Bloodximius's own grandson who led the Immortal Vampires to accomplish all of this. Zhang Ruochen was the descendant of the Xue Jue Family, and he made him proud.

The Xue Jue Family had heroes for generations. This was a sign of prosperity, or it could restore the glory of the ancestors.

Wargod Bloodximius was happy from the bottom of his heart. He was even happier than when he had obtained glorious achievements.

The other Immortal Vampires were also very excited. They felt proud.

The son of the chief of the Yellowsky Clan wrote a poem on the spot.

"The so-called Supreme race, topped the past Celestial Hunts."

"The so-called Supreme race, beaten like a dog by vampires. What bad luck!"

Once this poem was written, the faces of the Yanluo Clan's deities all turned ashen.

A deity covered in lightning angrily smashed the table and held a lightning ax as he prepared to charge at him.

However, he was stopped by the Ancient God of Knowledge.

"Why bother to lower yourself to the level of an idiot?" The Ancient God of Knowledge was very reserved. He did not get angry.

The son of the Yellowsky Clan's chief seemed to be in high spirits. He immediately wrote another poem:

"Pretty lassie from Yanluo, raised in a secluded place, hidden from public eye."

"Met Zhang Ruochen in debut, came home with a little one. What bad luck!"

Once the poem was finished, the Ancient God of Knowledge was enraged. He formed a palm print and directly smashed into the Divine Plane of the son of the Yellowsky Clan's chief. This palm print was caught by the chief and dissolved into nothingness in the air.

The chief of the Yellowsky clan hurried over to appease the emotions of the Ancient God of Knowledge. He repeatedly apologized and promised that he would strictly discipline his son in the future.

The rage in the Ancient God of Knowledge remained for a long time. The chief of the Yellowsky clan tried his best to persuade the ancient god, and he even gave away a sacred tree of the Yuanhui level to apologize. Only then did this matter come to an end.

The powerful deities were more composed.

However, a great deal of shame was felt by Yanluo clan's Supreme Saints who had participated in the battle. They were extremely resentful of the situation.

To them, losing to the Immortal Vampires was worse than getting killed.

Yan Wushen was also slightly resentful. In the final battle, Swastika Seiryu and Intergold Tiger roared. The roars knocked him and Zhang Ruochen unconscious at the same time. That was why the Yanluo Clan lost.

If he continued to fight, he might have a chance to turn defeat into victory.

Of course, he also understood why Swastika Seiryu and Intergold Tiger had done so. The injuries on his and Zhang Ruochen's bodies were already very serious, especially since Yan Wushen had lost thousands of years of his lifespan. If they were to continue fighting, it was very likely that both sides would die.

Even if they did not die, the foundations of their cultivation would be damaged.

Yan Zhexian used an illusion to cover her bulging tummy and walked toward the Gate of Destiny. She had a strong personality. Unwilling to admit defeat, she bowed and said, “The Fane of Destiny has a rule that all clansmen can not leave their home planet. If the Immortal Vampires break the rule, they should be stripped of their ranking.”

The Supreme Saint of the Immortal Vampires was furious.

Lord Bladehell rushed forward and roared, “Our planet has been destroyed. Why can’t we move our people away?”

Yan Zhexian said, “Your planet has been destroyed. Doesn’t that prove the failure of the Immortal Vampires?”

Lady Wind said, “The Fane of Destiny only requires us to protect our people. There is no rule that we must protect our planet.”

Another member of Yanluo Clan walked out. It was Xi.

“Albajade Tree is the home planet of the Immortal Vampires. The Immortal Vampires can’t all leave Albajade Tree, right?”

The cultivators of Yanluo Clan stepped out one after another.

Voices that traveled for tens of thousands of miles rang out in the world. “The Immortal Vampires have violated the rules of the Fane of Destiny. I request Fukurokuju to strip them of their rank and return the Celestial-Hunting battle to a fair and just one.”

There were many Yanluo cultivators in the Fane of Destiny, and they were all shouting and petitioning. There were even cultivators who charged straight into Mount Destiny.

“If the Fane of Destiny can not be fair and just, I will die on Mount Destiny today.”

A Yanluo youth pulled out a sword and slashed his neck. Immediately, blood splattered all over the ground.

Pop!

Another cultivator smashed his own head with a palm and fell into a pool of blood.

They wanted to use their own lives to prove the will of Yanluo Clan and force the Fane of Destiny to give in. They wanted to use their blood to exchange for the glory and dignity that belonged to the supreme clan.

More and more Yanluo Clan cultivators died. Each and every one of them did not hesitate, and their blood splattered all over the street.

Such a heroic and tragic scene touched even the deities.

The deities of the Yanluo Clan did not stop them. It seemed like they wanted to see if the Fane of Destiny would strip the Immortal Vampires of their ranking.

Although Black Robe High Priest shouted a few times, more Yanluo cultivators committed suicide at the foot of Mount Destiny. The priest did not know what to do.

Whoosh —

Finally, Fukurokuju appeared above the Fane of Destiny at the top of the mountain.

Countless Yanluo cultivators knelt on the ground.

The Supreme Saints of Yanluo Clan did not kneel, but each and every one of them had looks of anticipation on their faces. They could force a Reverend to send his projection here. In other words, there might be a turning point in this matter.

Fukurokuju’s voice rang out, “The Immortal Vampires did not violate the rules.”

Just this sentence had stirred up the dissatisfaction in the hearts of countless Yanluo cultivators. However, they were afraid of the divine might of Fukurokuju, so no cultivators acted up. However, many cultivators had already pulled out their sharp blades and were prepared to continue declaring their will with death.

Fukurokuju stretched out a gaseous palm and grabbed the Albajade Tree from the Celestial-Hunting battlefield hundreds of millions of miles away and held it in his palm.

The divine tree, which was more than 10,000 miles tall, was as small as grass in his palm.

Fukurokuju took out Lord Hornless' corpse from the divine tree. A green pen flew out of the corpse.

Yan Zhexian's beautiful eyes shrank in Tungsten Square. She immediately recognized that it was her talisman pen.

Fukurokuju plucked a hair from the pen and released the Immortal Vampire that Zhang Ruochen had placed in the space within the hair. The Immortal Vampire was frightened by the invisible divine power and fell to the ground. He trembled and could not speak.

Seeing this, the cultivators of Yanluo Clan were speechless.

Yan Zhexian's pretty face was even colder. She glared at Zhang Ruochen and cursed in a low voice.

Zhang Ruochen wanted to be number one among the ten clans. How could he let Yanluo Clan get hold of him so easily? He had prepared a backup plan.

The Immortal Vampires were even more impressed by Zhang Ruochen.

Fukurokuju said, "The Celestial-Hunting battle is over. The ranking of the ten clans only represents the strength of this new millennium cultivators. If you want to regain your dignity and glory, you will have a chance to fight again in a thousand years.

"Next, I have a few announcements to make."

Chapter 2414: Two

Marriages

“In this Celestial-Hunting battle, the Immortal Vampires are ranked first. All participating cultivators will be rewarded with the opportunity to enter the Ancient Ruins to choose a Destiny Treasure, an item with the power of Destiny. In addition, each cultivator will be allowed to enter the Fane of Destiny to cultivate for 100 days.”

The Immortal Vampires were all extremely excited.

To think they could enter the Ancient Ruins and obtain a Destiny Treasure, even Supreme Saints were ecstatic.

Even if they did not use a Destiny Treasure, it would fetch a hefty price if they sold it. They could exchange it for a large amount of Godstones. With Godstones, they could buy the items they wanted.

As for the opportunity to enter the Fane of Destiny to cultivate, it was something that all the cultivators in Infernal Court dreamed of.

A strange light flashed in the eyes of Lady Wind as she thought, “My Destiny Feather is a Destiny Treasure from the Ancient Ruins. Now that my cultivation level is higher, if I go there, I might be able to find an even more precious treasure.”

“It’s said that the core disciples of the Fane of Destiny need to make great contributions before they are qualified to enter the Fane of Destiny to cultivate for a day. However, we can cultivate for a hundred days in one go. Our attainments in the Path of Destiny will definitely improve greatly.”

“With this opportunity, I might be able to condense the Gate of Destiny in one go.”

“My Gate of Destiny can become even stronger!”

“Don’t get excited. This is just the reward given by the Fane of Destiny. When we go back, the rewards given by the Fane of Immortality, our respective clans, and our families will be even more generous. Haha!”

The Immortal Vampires were in a frenzy. They felt that everything they had done in the Celestial-Hunting battle was worth it, and they finally got what they deserved.

The other races were all envious.

Fukurokuju’s voice sounded again, “Yanluo Clan is ranked second. All the cultivators will each receive a King Grade Luck Pill and the chance to enter the Fane of Destiny to cultivate for a hundred days.”

It was said that the so-called “Luck Pill” could increase a cultivator’s luck after consuming it.

This kind of thing was extremely mysterious. However, since the Fane of Destiny had openly given it to them, it should have some effect. Whether or not it could improve one’s luck, it would be good to treat it as a blessing gift. Perhaps the success rate would be higher when one broke through.

After all, after the Celestial Hunting battle, those cultivators who had been stuck at the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm would definitely try to break through to the Thousand-Koan Realm.

Breaking through was not that simple.

“The Rakshasas is ranked third. All cultivators will be given the opportunity to enter the Fane of Destiny to cultivate for a hundred days.”

Only the top three cultivators could receive rewards.

The Netherkin, Deathkin, Asura clan... the rest of the cultivators were indignant and envious. They only hated their defeat in Celestial-Hunting. Otherwise, all the benefits should have belonged to them.

Wu Jiang’s tone was deep as he said, “I’m afraid that Yan Huangtu and Luo Shengtian will receive countless rewards. With these resources, their practice speed will improve by leaps and bounds. I have to work harder to ensure I don’t fall behind them.”

In Wu Jiang's eyes, Yan Huangtu and Luo Shengtian were his competitors.

Although Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen's performance was amazing, they were destined to practice in the Hundred-Shackle Realm for a long time. Not only did they have to break the shackles, but they also had to polish their Saintwills.

Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, and Wu Jiang had accumulated enough experience. They would break through to the Thousand-Koan Realm in an instant and continue to advance.

It was still unknown whether Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen could catch up with them in cultivation realms.

If they were one realm lower, no matter how amazing they were, Wu Jiang was confident that he could crush them.

“Fuurei.”

When Fukurokuju called out this name, Lady Wind, who had been waiting for a long time, suddenly became spirited. She immediately took a few steps forward, knelt on one knee, and said, “Greetings, Reverend.”

Fuurei was only the first name of Lady Wind.

Her surname was called “Kagesawa,” and it was a family of the Yellowsky tribe. They ruled over a vast and extremely mysterious region in the territory of Yellowsky Clan.

Fukurokuju said, “I declare that you are officially the Scioness of the Fane of Destiny and will be in charge of everything for the Fane in the next thousand years. Are you willing to accept the appointment?”

Lady Wind suppressed her excitement and said, “Yes, I am.”

She exclaimed silently with joy, ‘I have succeeded. I have finally succeeded!’

From now on, she would ascend to the pinnacle of power in Infernal Court. She could be called the number one person below the deities. Even those Paramount Supreme Saints and demigods would have to fear her status when they saw her. She could even sit on the same level as some pseudo gods.

The gods would not care too much about the secular world. In other words, she was the secular master of Infernal Court.

‘So what if Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen are talented? What is the point for Pan Ruo to practice the Door of Trueself? If they can’t attain godhood, they will stay below me in the end.’ thought Lady Wind.

With her status as a Scioness, she could get a lot of practice resources. It wasn’t necessarily impossible for her to practice the Door of Trueself. Moreover, her cultivation realm could advance by leaps and bounds, leaving Pan Ruo far behind.

If she wanted to, she could even kill Pan Ruo with the help of others without anyone knowing, completely eliminating this threat.

“It’s only a matter of time before I catch up with Wu Jiang, Luo Shengtian, Yan Huangtu, and Lan Ying. By then, I’ll be able to stand proudly at the peak of this era, and I might even ascend before them.”

Lady Wind knew very well how many resources the Scions and Scionesses of Destiny could mobilize. She was full of anticipation for her progress in cultivation.

“Zhang Ruochen!” said Fukurokuju.

Zhang Ruochen was very calm. He walked to Lady Wind’s side, bowed, and said, “Greetings, Reverend.”

Lady Wind was a little displeased. She also paid her respects to Fukurokuju. Zhang Ruochen only bowed, but she knelt on one knee. ‘Is Zhang Ruochen trying to put me, the Scioness, in an awkward situation?’

‘What will the other cultivators think when they see this?’

‘Does Zhang Ruochen think that he is more honorable than a Scioness?’

Lady Wind wanted to stand up, but she realized that as soon as she moved, there was a force as heavy as the stars pressing down on her.

It was divine power.

It was easy to kneel but difficult to get up.

Especially when Fukurokuju had not spoken, how could the person who knelt down get up?

Of course, Fukurokuju did not mean to press her there. Before he finished speaking, there was already an invisible divine will pressing down on Lady Wind until she could not move.

Fukurokuju said, “Zhang Ruochen, you’ve performed well on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. You’ve led the Immortal Vampires to win first place. You’ve even killed a Banshi Isshou Celestial Captive. You can get the final reward, 30 percent of the Canon of Destiny and a Destiny Token.”

Whoosh

Whoosh

The two Destiny Tokens turned into two streaks of white light and flew toward Zhang Ruochen and Lady Wind, respectively.

Zhang Ruochen reached out and grabbed. Just as he touched the token, it suddenly disappeared.

The token rushed into his palm.

Bzzzt

The dense white lightning wrapped around Zhang Ruochen’s right hand and gradually withdrew.

The word “Token” appeared in his palm.

The Destiny Token was formed from the divine power of the twelve Reverends of the Fane of Destiny. It contained the cultivation paths of the twelve Reverends. No cultivator could imitate it.

With the Destiny Token, Zhang Ruochen could have the same transcendent status as the Scioness of Destiny. He could enter the various secret realms of the Fane of Destiny to practice at will.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen’s Destiny Token was different from Lady Wind’s one.

Zhang Ruochen's Destiny Token could only be considered a status symbol.

However, Lady Wind's Destiny Token represented supreme power, as if it was given by the emperor.

Fukurokuju did not mention anything further about the Canon of Destiny. Instead, he said, "You can leave now!"

Lady Wind suddenly felt the pressure on her body gone. She stood up slowly and resumed her noble and elegant posture. She looked at Zhang Ruochen and secretly expressed her dissatisfaction. She said, "The Reverend is the most powerful existence in the world. We should respect him."

"Okay."

Zhang Ruochen responded and retreated to the camp of the Immortal Vampires.

'So what if he is a deity? I will not kneel if I don't feel so.'

His pride was unbreakable.

Fukurokuju said, "There are many outstanding talents in this generation of the Infernal Court: Divine Fetus, demi-buddhas, demigods, Imperial Path Divine Bone, Myriad Hands and Eyes, and a Master of Oblivion... This is the world of the great war. I want to bestow two marriages."

After the vast divine voice sounded out, it immediately caused a clamor that was as loud as a tsunami. It was even more shocking than when Lady Wind became a goddess.

A Reverend personally bestowed a marriage on such an occasion. The honor was immense.

Without a doubt, the status of the person who was bestowed a marriage would rise steadily in the Infernal Court in the future.

Luo Shengtian grinned and whispered to Luo Sha, who was standing by his side, "There will be one or two times a Reverend personally bestows a blessing every thousand years, but personally bestowing a marriage has never happened before, right?"

Luo Sha's pretty face was as flawless as jade, and her eyebrows were slightly furrowed. She said, "It is indeed a little strange. Gods cannot interfere with the affairs of the secular world. So bestowing a marriage to a Supreme Saint is equivalent to interfering with the power wrestling among various major forces.

"Fukurokuju has always been indifferent to secular affairs and has always been neutral. There must be some deeper meaning behind his actions."

Luo Shengtian said, "I wonder who will be the one to be bestowed a marriage?"

Luo Sha thought carefully, and then her eyes shone sharply. She said, "Actually, it's not hard to guess. There are only a few people who can enter Fukurokuju's eye and personally give the marriage. Que, Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, Wu Jiang, you, my brother, and Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen.

"Could it be..."

Luo Sha's pair of slightly charming eyes glanced at Zhang Ruochen in the distance. She guessed in her mind, 'Could it be that Wargod Bloodximus personally asked Fukurokuju to give the marriage to Zhang Ruochen? The possibility was very high!'

After all, Zhang Ruochen had too many enemies in Infernal Court. Without the protection of a Reverend, it would be difficult for him to grow up.

Luo Shengtian followed Luo Sha's gaze and asked in surprise, "Zhang Ruochen?"

"It's most likely that guy. and the one who's getting married is most likely Yan Zhexian."

Luo Sha felt inexplicably annoyed, irritated, and jealous. 'Zhang Ruochen is clearly my destiny. Why did this Yan Zhexian steal my man? It's so unfair!

'If the Reverend personally bestows the marriage between Yan Zhexian and Zhang Ruochen, her status as his wife will be irreplaceable.'

‘And when the time comes, Yan Zhexian will target and oppress me whenever I want to meet Zhang Ruochen. Moreover, my name will be tainted.

Luo Sha did not think that she would be the one who would receive the blessing because of her special status; her father was Emperor Luo Yan. He would never allow her to marry Zhang Ruochen. No matter how powerful Fukurokuju was, he could not suppress her father’s will. As a ruler of a Divine Kngdom, he could not compromise and yield to anyone.

Luo Shengtian said, “Zhang Ruochen is really a b*stard. He even got Yan Zhexian pregnant on the Celestial-Hunting battlefield. Only by bestowing them a marriage, Fukurokuju can appease the anger of the Yanluo Clan.

“Anyone who marries a man like Zhang Ruochen must have eight lifetimes of bad luck. What a pity for Yan Zhexian, the favorite daughter of Yanluo Clan.”

Fukurokuju said, “Zhang Ruochen, Luo Sha.”

Zhang Ruochen was not surprised to hear his name. He had already guessed it, but he did not expect Luo Sha to be his bride-to-be. After all, many cultivators knew he had more enmity with Luo Sha.

Not only had he captured Luo Sha, but he had also beaten her until she vomited blood on the Battlefield of Merits and killed countless Rakshasa Saints.

If Zhang Ruochen had not cooperated with Luo Sha on the Battlefield of Merits, many cultivators would have thought that their enmity was immense.

‘How could Luo Yan, the emperor, agree to this marriage?’ Zhang Ruochen did not dare to go against the will of a Reverend. He walked out.

Luo Sha was stunned when she heard her name. It was completely out of her expectations. Then, her snow-white and crystal face could not hold it anymore. She smiled and walked out happily.

Soon, she caught up with Zhang Ruochen. They walked side by side.

Luo Shengtian was even more stunned. He was petrified. 'Fukurokuju is out of his mind. How could he let my little sister marry that b*stard? She will suffer a lot after marriage.

'Zhang Ruochen has bullied her many times... No, absolutely no. This is unacceptable!'

Luo Shengtian took a step forward. Suddenly, he could not move his body. It was as if there were countless divine chains wrapped around his body. His mother's voice rang in his mind. "Noone has the audacity to disobey a marriage bestowed by a Reverend."

"But, Mother, we can't just watch my little sister walk into a lion's den. Can't Father stop the Reverend?" Luo Shengtian said.

Amane's voice rang out again. "Your father and I have already agreed to this marriage."

Luo Shengtian's rage was instantly extinguished, and he was in confusion.

Fukurokuju said, "I intend to marry the two of you. Zhang Ruochen, are you willing to marry the princess of Devala, Luo Sha?"

"Yes," replied Zhang Ruochen.

Just as Amane had said, "Noone has the audacity to disobey a marriage bestowed by a Reverend."

Fukurokuju had granted the marriage in front of all the cultivators in Infernal Court. Whoever disobeyed his will and refused his good intentions would have severe consequences. It was a thousand or ten thousand times more serious than rejecting a marriage granted by an emperor in the secular world.

"Luo Sha, are you willing to marry Zhang Ruochen of the Xue Jue Family?"

Luo Sha pursed her red lips and said shyly, "Yes."

Luo Sha was the dream girl among countless young elites of the Rakshasa clan. They all wanted to marry her. Seeing that she had become Zhang Ruochen's bride-to-be under the blessings of Fukurokuju, their eyes turned red with jealousy.

However, none of them dared to stand out and oppose.

Pan Ruo stood in the crowd and looked at Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha standing side by side from afar. One was handsome, and the other was as beautiful as a fairy. They were like a perfect couple.

A hint of sadness appeared in Pan Ruo's eyes. Her ten fingers pierced into her palm. Her heart ached, but she immediately lowered her head. She did not want anyone to see her emotions.

At this moment, Fukurokuju's voice sounded again. "Yan Wushen, Pan Ruo."

Chapter 2415: Total Despair

“How could it be me?”

Yan Wushen muttered in a low voice. Then he seemed indifferent and walked out.

The Path of Cultivation he practiced was destined to have no desires and no emotions in his life. Whether to have a spouse or not, was never important to him. However, since it was a marriage bestowed by a Reverend, there must be a deeper meaning. Hence, he had to agree.

Moreover, he had a good impression of Pan Ruo.

The ones who were most shocked were Pan Ruo and Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen’s expression did not change, but his pupils contracted quickly, and his breathing stopped for a moment. But soon, everything returned to normal.

Pan Ruo’s performance was much more obvious than Zhang Ruochen’s. She suddenly raised her head and looked at the Shadow of Fukurokuju in disbelief.

There were too many cultivators who were shocked. Even some gods were surprised. No one noticed her obvious expression.

In the distance, Sword Saint Xuanji’s heart skipped a beat. His expression changed. “Oh no, why did Fukurokuju do this?”

Empress of Thousand Bones said, “What are you worried about?”

Pan Ruo and Zhang Ruochen were both sword Saint Xuanji’s disciples. He knew their personalities.

He said, “The hardest trial in the world is love. Your highness should know that Zhang Ruochen is a man of his word. No matter how hard it is, he will do everything he can to fulfill his promise.”

“That’s true,” Empress of Thousand Bones said.

Sword Saint Xuanji said, “In the past, when Zhang Ruochen proposed marriage to Huang Yanchen, he said his feelings for Huang Yanchen would not change in three lifetimes.

“Due to past events, the two of them are estranged. Their ties have broken, but the feelings within Zhang Ruochen remain.”

Empress of Thousand Bones said, “Are you worried that Zhang Ruochen will not be able to control himself and stop Fukurokuju from marrying him?”

“I don’t know what he will do, but he will definitely do something.”

Sword Saint Xuanji said, “I’m more worried about Pan Ruo. She’s more stubborn than Zhang Ruochen, and she’s more affectionate than Zhang Ruochen.”

Empress of Thousand Bones said, “In a sense, Fukurokuju wants to marry Zhang Ruochen. He wants to use the relationship of in-laws to keep Zhang Ruochen in Infernal Court and make his relationship with Infernal Court closer. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen must not refuse. Once he does, he will be criticized and criticized.”

“Pan Ruo has practiced the Door of Trueself, but she hasn’t become the Scioness of the Fane of Destiny. It is already very dangerous. In a sense, Fukurokuju wants to protect her. If she refuses, she will be ignorant of the situation and will only accelerate her death.”

“But she is not afraid of death at all,” Sword Saint Xuanji said.

Ordinary cultivators did not dare to talk about a marriage bestowed by a Reverend. A deity snorted, “The Fane of Destiny wants to form ties with the two geniuses of the Yuanhui level in advance!”

This deity came from the Fane of Darkness, but he only dared to say this in his own Divine Plane.

Pan Ruo represented the Fane of Destiny, and Luo Sha’s mother was the former Scioness of Destiny. The two girls were deeply involved with the Fane of Destiny, and by marrying them to Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen, the Fane of Destiny was indeed trying to win them over.

...

After a moment of hesitation, Pan Ruo's expression returned to normal. She walked to Yan Wushen's side.

Fukurokuju said, "I intend to bestow a marriage for the two of you. What say you?"

"I'll accept it with all my heart."

After Yan Wushen said that, he could not help but look at Pan Ruo. He was surprised to find that her expression was strange. Her exquisite face was as cold as an iceberg. She did not look happy at all. Instead, she was filled with resistance.

"Why does she show this kind of expression? Could it be that she wants to reject the marriage?"

When this thought appeared in his mind, Yan Wushen's expression became grave and unsightly.

In his opinion, Pan Ruo was a very intelligent woman. She should not have made such a stupid decision. Moreover, what was so bad about him. Countless women from the infernal realm wanted to marry him, but they did not have the chance.

If Pan Ruo really refused, Yan Wushen and Fukurokuju would soon become the jokes of countless cultivators.

Perhaps the Infernal Court cultivators did not dare to laugh at the Reverend. But what about the cultivators from Celestial Court?

Pan Ruo's action might not bother Yan Wushen. That did not mean it wouldn't offend the entire Yanluo Clan.

Seeing that Pan Ruo did not answer for a long time, the atmosphere gradually became tense. Not only the cultivators in Tungsten Square were shocked, but the deities in the Fane of Destiny also showed stern faces.

Black Robe High Priest, whose cultivation realm was high, was so scared that his face turned pale. He spoke to Pan Ruo telepathically, “It’s an honor to have a Reverend bestow you a marriage. Why don’t you bow and thank him immediately?”

Pan Ruo was not moved.

The surrounding atmosphere became tenser. All the voices disappeared as everyone fell silent.

Fukurokuju seemed to be very patient. He did not urge her but just waited quietly.

Lady Wind smiled and waited quietly for Pan Ruo’s suicidal act.

Luo Sha could not help but look at Pan Ruo. She could not understand why Pan Ruo was so resistant to the marriage arranged by the Reverend.

‘Was she unhappy because she failed to become the Scioness of Destiny?’

‘It shouldn’t be!’

‘Pan Ruo shouldn’t be such a short-sighted woman.’

Zhang Ruochen did not look at Pan Ruo, but he had an inexplicable feeling. It was as if Pan Ruo was waiting for him to express his stance or for him to protect her.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen let out a long breath.

The surrounding was too quiet that even the sound of exhaling was particularly clear, so he attracted the attention of many cultivators.

“It is a great honor to have a Reverend bestowed a marriage. I will protect Luo Sha for the rest of my life. I will never let her down.”

Zhang Ruochen raised his voice and said this. Then, under the gaze of many pairs of eyes, he spread his arms and hugged Luo Sha.

Zhang Ruochen kissed her fair forehead.

Luo Shengtian’s eyes were as wide as copper bells. He gnashed his teeth. He felt that Zhang Ruochen was out of line.

‘How dare this b*stard take advantage of my sis in front of so many cultivators.’

Luo Sha was at a loss at first. Soon, the corners of her lips curled into a smile. She lowered her head. Apparently, she was elated.

Anyone who was smart could see that Zhang Ruochen was breaking the oppressive atmosphere. He was also reminding Pan Ruo not to go against Fukurokuju’s decision.

After all, her response concerned the face of Fukurokuju, the Fane of Destiny, Yanluo Clan, and even Infernal Court.

Pan Ruo understood Zhang Ruochen’s intentions. She felt disheartened. The coldness in her eyes finally melted. “Thank you for bestowing the marriage. I’m grateful eternally.”

She knelt, pressing her nose against the ground. No one could see her expression at this moment.

The projection of Fukurokuju finally disappeared.

Black Robe High Priest threw a grateful look at Zhang Ruochen. Then, he made a few announcements about the Celestial-Hunting battle before wrapping things up.

When everything was over, the cultivators who participated in the Celestial-Hunting Banquet left Mount Destiny one after another.

Zhang Ruochen led Intergold Tiger, Xue Ningxiao, Xue Tu, Xue Chen, and other cultivators of the Bloodysky Clan, as well as Lian Xi, Gaunt, Zhou Zhen, and Shentu Yunkong, out of Tungsten Square and into Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

He turned around and saw that Pan Ruo was still kneeling at the square.

Beside her stood Yan Wushen.

Xue Tu said resentfully, “What’s wrong with this Pan Ruo? She had the audacity to show reluctance when accepting a marriage a deity bestowed.

“If a deity bestows me a marriage, I can do whatever I want at Infernal Court!” Supreme Saint Yi Xuan said enviously.

Gu Chenzi's expression was solemn. "Luckily, she agreed. Otherwise, it would have caused a huge uproar."

Xue Tu chuckled. "She should thank my senior. If he had not been kind enough to hit her at the critical moment, she would have lost her life because of her stubbornness."

"Shut up," Zhang Ruochen said coldly.

Xue Tu immediately felt a chill. He could not help but shiver. He did not dare to say anything else.

The eighteen Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords carried the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and headed straight to the Immortal Vampires' territory.

In the Bingsi District of Winterpage City, tens of thousands of cultivators from the Bloodysky Clan had gathered. When they saw the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, and the rest, they immediately let out deafening shouts and greeted them with joy.

In one of the manors in the city district, a banquet had already been prepared.

The important figures of the Bloodysky Clan walked out of the banquet venue one after another. They came to the main entrance and personally welcomed the triumphant return of Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Gu Chenzi, and the others.

Top elites of powerful forces of Bloodysky Clan, including the three major progenitor families, the forces of the six seas, and the forces of twelve cities from the seven mountains, were present. Each force's representative brought along the most beautiful woman in their respective faction. It was obvious that they were trying to rope in and befriend Zhang Ruochen.

The strength of each force was at least comparable to the top 4,000 Macroworlds of Celestial Court.

For example, "Southern Ridge" was one of the seven mountains. The Xia clan where Lord Xia Yu lived had 340 billion clansmen, and they used to have a deity overseeing them. However, the status of the Xia clan was only equal to one of the forces under the "Southern Ridge."

The envoy of the Fane of Immortality, Lord Huoyuan, repeatedly looked in the crowd and asked, "Where is Zhang Ruochen?"

Zhang Ruochen was the main character of tonight's banquet. All the major forces wanted to make friends with him, and they all wanted to marry their most beautiful descendant, whose cultivation was at Saint Realm, to Zhang Ruochen.

After all, the news that Wargod Bloodximius was interested to form marriage alliances with many powerful forces was spread.

Lord Xue Chen went up and bowed to Lord Huoyuan. He said, "Ruochen is injured and can't attend the banquet. He has returned to Vastsea Manor to rest."

Hearing this, Lord Huoyuan and cultivators from all the forces were stunned.

...

Vastsea Manor had been modified by Zhou Zhen, who was a High-Saint Array Master. The scenery was beautiful; the birds sang; the flowers were fragrant, and the lake was green. It was no different from the places for cultivation in Kunlun.

At this moment, Zhang Ruochen was sitting by the lake, staring at the reflection in the lake.

Outside the manor, it was noisy. The lights were so bright, but he was not moved at all. He was completely immersed in his own inner world.

Intergold Tiger could sense what Zhang Ruochen was thinking, "Like you," he said. "Your inner demon will become stronger. One day, it'll devour you. Do whatever you want. The more you go against your heart, the more trouble you'll face in the future. The path to godhood will be extremely difficult."

Zhang Ruochen did not say anything.

Just like that, he sat by the lake all night. No one dared to disturb him.

The next day, Supreme Saint Yi Xuan, Lord Xue Chen, Xue Tu... all the cultivators who had participated in the Celestial-Hunting battle came to visit, but they were all blocked by Zhou Zhen.

On the third day, the leaders of the six seas, seven mountains, and twelve cities had come to visit with their beautiful successors, but they could only go back with disappointment.

On the fourth day, Lord Bladehell and Lady Wind came to invite Zhang Ruochen to attend the celebration feast hosted by the Fane of Immortality. Zhang Ruochen refused to attend.

...

Ten days passed, and countless forces were turned away. None of them saw Zhang Ruochen.

The reason he gave was still to seclude himself to heal his injuries.

During this time, Blood Empress came and asked Zhang Ruochen why he turned down all invitations. Zhang Ruochen gave an excuse that he did not like such a lively scene.

Blood Empress told Zhang Ruochen that since the deity had granted him a marriage, he had to go and propose marriage as soon as possible. At the very least, he had to completely settle the marriage in the Divine Domain of Destiny to show that he attached importance to this matter.

He did not need to personally prepare for the marriage proposal and engagement. The cultivators of the Xue Jue Family and Devala would discuss and take care of it.

However, Zhang Ruochen had to participate on the day of the engagement.

The date of the engagement had already been announced to the public. It was set to be held in five days, and it would be held in Fortune Palace. Yan Wushen and Pan Ruo were also engaged on this day.

...

Jianyin District, in a magnificent palace.

Yan Wushen stood alone in the center of the palace. His figure was outstanding, and he was imposing and calm. Streams of Yama Qi that intersected with light and darkness emanated from his body.

Crack!

Suddenly, the space above his head cracked, and a three-meter-wide hole appeared. It was as if the space-time door had been opened.

An ancient and shocking divine might was emitted from the hole.

Respect appeared in Yan Wushen's arrogant eyes. He bowed and said, "Master, I've lost the Celestial-Hunting battle!"

"It's not your fault. Didn't Yan Huangtu lose as well?"

"Your opponent is this Yuanhui's most outstanding prodigy. The Saintwill he cultivates is even stronger than that of Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian.

"It's reasonable for you to lose to him." The black hole spun. It was like a whirlpool.

Yan Wushen said, "But I refuse to admit defeat like this."

"So, is this why you want to see me?" A majestic voice sounded.

Yan Wushen said, "Even if Zhang Ruochen walks the path of first-class Saintwill, I'm confident that I'll fight him to the end.

"However, he's the Master of Time and Space. His practice speed is fast. My cultivation progress is far behind him now.

"I have to catch up with him or even surpass him."

The existence in the black hole was silent for a long time. He said, "To narrow the gap of strength, your answer lies in the third dark star.

"Why don't you visit there? Not only does it have a shocking time difference, but it also has a great opportunity.

“If you can walk out of it alive, your cultivation will definitely surpass Zhang Ruochen’s.”

“I’ll go to the third dark star now.”

Although Yan Wushen had lost a lot of his life and knew that the interior of the dark star was extremely dangerous, he did not show any fear.

In this era, he did not want to be inferior to anyone.

Zhang Ruochen’s existence might be his motivation to force himself to become stronger. He could be an enemy for life.

The voice from the black hole rang out, “I can send you to the third dark star, and I believe you can come back alive.

“But have you really made a decision on the practice of the Saintwill?

“You must know that since ancient times, no cultivator has ever been able to practice a first-class Saintwill.

“At least not in the records of all the classics.”

There was no hesitation in Yan Wushen’s eyes. He said, “Zhang Ruochen practiced the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, and he is walking the path of cultivating a first-class Saintwill. My Six Paths of Reincarnation Saintwill is also on the path to become a first-class Saintwill. If he dares to take the path, why shouldn’t I?”

A voice came from the black hole. “Do you really know what ‘The Six Paths of Reincarnation’ means? If you haven’t experienced it, you’ll never be able to understand it. If you can’t, you’ll never be able to practice it successfully.”

Chapter 2416: To Kill Someone

Zhang Ruochen's true body sat by the lake, meditating like an old monk. However, his consciousness entered the Qiankun Realm.

Standing under the Divine Sky-connecting Tree, Zhang Ruochen stared at the sword-shaped Canon mark on the tree trunk. He said loudly, "Empress, I've won first place in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Can I see you?"

The sword-shaped Canon mark was left by Empress of Thousand Bones. It contained her spiritual will.

When Zhang Ruochen called out the Empress of Thousand Bones' name, she sensed it on the Purple Turban Island. In the next moment, her divine spirit crossed time and space and descended into Zhang Ruochen's Qiankun Realm.

Empress of Thousand Bones was unparalleled. Although it was a divine spirit, the aura she gave off was like the sun in the sky.

Zhang Ruochen was expressionless, neither happy nor sad, he said, "I've got the Destiny Token. I can give it to you now. As for the Canon of Destiny, it hasn't been given to me yet. It's probably because my attainments in the Path of Destiny are too low to bear the power of the Canon."

"Without the Canon of Destiny, what's the use of getting the Destiny Token? Zhang Ruochen, you must have another purpose for meeting me, right? Tell me quickly. I can't stay here for too long," Empress of Thousand Bones said.

“When I agreed to participate in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting and borrow the Destiny Token and the Canon of Destiny for you to comprehend, you promised to give me an Avci token,” Zhang Ruochen explained.

“That’s right. Every Avīci token I give out is because I owe a huge favor. That’s why, as long as a cultivator comes to see me with the Avīci token, I will do something for him,” Empress of Thousand Bones said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Anything?”

“No matter how difficult or dangerous it is, I’ll do it.” Empress of Thousand Bones’ voice was firm and powerful.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I want the Avīci token now.”

Empress of Thousand Bones was smart enough to guess Zhang Ruochen’s intentions when he opened his mouth.

“I don’t need to give you the Avīci token. Just tell me what you want me to do for you.” Empress of Thousand Bones’ tone became serious. She paused and said again, “But you’d better think it through. Do you really want to use this opportunity now?”

Zhang Ruochen cupped his hands and bowed slightly. “I’ve thought it through. I want you to kill someone for me. You must kill her within five days.”

“Who is it?” Empress of Thousand Bones asked.

Zhang Ruochen’s lips moved. He said a name through voice transmission.

After listening, Empress of Thousand Bones stared at Zhang Ruochen. “You’re making things difficult for me.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “That’s all I ask.”

“Killing someone in the Divine Domain of Destiny is easy to alert the gods of the Fane of Destiny. Besides, the person you want to kill has the protection of the Twelve Reverends. Once you attack her, the Twelve Reverends will know, which will cause a world-shaking ripple. I’m afraid that no cultivator in the Infernal Court would dare to do this.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “But, it doesn’t include you, right?”

Empress of Thousand Bones was silent for a long time, she said, “It’s not difficult to kill her. However, at the critical moment of saving the Grand Master, I’m not willing to do such a thing. I don’t want to let the Reverends of the Fane of Destiny know that I’m here in the Divine Domain of Destiny.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “You once said that you will do it no matter the difficulty.”

Empress of Thousand Bones shook her head gently with a stern look in her eyes, “I know what you want to do,” she said. “But this is very dangerous. It’s equivalent to going against the will of a Reverend or even challenging destiny. Are you prepared to die if you fail?”

“I know what I’m doing,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Well, those from Avīci Pavilion will kill her in five days.”

Empress of Thousand Bones’ divine spirit disappeared, leaving Zhang Ruochen alone under the Divine Sky-connecting Tree. His figure was bleak, but his eyes were sharp and determined.

In the next five days, Zhang Ruochen activated the Sundial in the Vastsea Manor. He used the Divine Purification Flame to refine one weapon after another, including the Myriad Curse Bead that he had taken from the Wujiang.

He took out the Regal Artifact that he had taken from the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting and gave it to the Ancient Abyssal Sword to refine and absorb.

The Regal Inscriptions inside the Ancient Abyssal Sword grew rapidly. There were more than 300,000 of them, reaching the critical point of breaking into a Class Three Regal Artifact.

Five days later.

Xueqi, Xue Chen, and Xue Ningxiao, the three most outstanding young Supreme Saints of the current generation of the Xue Jue family, came to the Vastsea Manor. They looked at Zhang Ruochen, who was wrapped in the divine fire domain, from a distance.

Xue Ningxiao's pretty eyes sparkled, she said, "Cousin Ruochen has worked too hard. He just won the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Everyone is immersed in revelry, but he's not affected. He still chooses to cultivate and improve himself. It's really worth learning from him."

Xueqi said, "The stronger a person is, the more sense of danger they have."

Xue Chen said, "Today is the day he and Princess Luo Sha are engaged. Cultivators from all the major forces have rushed to the Fortune Palace. He's the main character tonight. we can't be late."

"I'll go!"

Xueqi came to the edge of the divine fire domain. Feeling the heatwave, she bowed and said, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, it's late. We should go!"

In the center of the fire domain, Zhang Ruochen put away his weapons one by one. The flames turned into horned dragons and entered his body.

At this moment, everyone could see clearly that he was wearing the red Armor of the Fire God. He had the Divine Dragonbone Whip, which was a Quasi-Supreme Artifact, around his waist. He wore the Myriad Curse Bead around his neck. He held the Pleiades Lotus in his palm. The Zangshan Demonic Mirror floated above his heart, a Violet Gourd hung on one side of his waist, and the Ancient Abyssal Sword hung on the other.

Everyone who was a Supreme Saint didn't dare to look at him directly.

Xueqi looked at Zhang Ruochen's treasures. He swallowed silently. He was only going to get engaged. Was there a need to reveal so many Supreme Artifacts?

It was too exaggerated!

Though it was exaggerated, it really made people jealous.

Xue Chen and Xueqi had completely different thoughts. They frowned. He could feel the killing intent from Zhang Ruochen.

He didn't look like he was going to get married. Instead, he looked like he was going to kill someone.

He brought all the weapons with him. He didn't want to show them off, but he valued the person he was going to kill.

Xue Chen said carefully, "The engagement gifts have been prepared. We can go to the Fortune Palace now."

"Okay!"

Zhang Ruochen answered and walked out first.

Outside the Vastsea Manor, there was a long convoy pulled by a Saint King-level white bone beast. The carriages were filled with all kinds of treasures.

Zhang Ruochen didn't check the engagement gifts. He took his maid, Lian Xi, and went to the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

Xue Chen and Xueqi sat on the backs of a Supreme Saint-level fire beast and led the way. The 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords carried the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and followed closely behind.

The news of the Reverend's blessed marriage had long spread throughout the Infernal Court.

Seeing the marriage parade of the Xue Jue family, countless cultivators in the Infernal Court watched and discussed it wherever they went. Many people had envious looks in their eyes.

"Princess Luo Sha is extremely beautiful. She's the beauty that all the men of the Rakshasa dream of marrying. They didn't expect her to marry Zhang Ruochen in the end."

"Zhang Ruochen is so talented. He's a peerless figure among the Immortal Vampires. He's worthy of Princess Luo Sha."

An Immortal Vampire cultivator said in a low voice, "I don't think Zhang Ruochen wants to marry Princess Luo Sha. He's just forced by the Reverend to agree."

"How can that be? Princess Luo Sha is so beautiful. How can Zhang Ruochen not want to marry her?"

The Immortal Vampire cultivator shook his head and said, “Princess Luo Sha is beautiful, but does Zhang Ruochen lack beauty by his side? Fairy Lian Xi and Lord Xia Yu were both top-notch beauties. It was said that Princess Luo Sha was very powerful. Once Zhang Ruochen married her, he wouldn’t be able to have such a good time anymore.”

Zhang Ruochen’s spiritual power was strong. Of course, he could hear the discussions.

However, he didn’t care at all. He just held the Ancient Abyssal Sword and used the white scarf that Lian Xi handed him to repeatedly wipe the sword.

Then he took out a Godstone the size of a human head and sharpened the sword on it.

Crack

Sparks flew when the sword tip rubbed against the Godstone.

The Zangshan Demonic Mirror and Violet Gourd were Supreme Artifacts with great power. However, Zhang Ruochen preferred to use the Ancient Abyssal Sword whenever he had a major decision to make.

Holding the hilt, he felt like they were connected by blood. No matter how impetuous he was, he could calm down in an instant.

The Intergold Tiger could feel that Zhang Ruochen’s killing intent was getting more and more intense as he sharpened the sword. His aura kept accumulating, and the aura he emitted became fierce.

The Intergold Tiger said, “It’s a great day for the engagement. Why do you decide to kill someone?”

Crack

The sparks from the sword became brighter.

The Intergold Tiger said again, “Your motive for killing today is too obvious. It will arouse suspicion.”

“Under normal circumstances, of course, people will be suspicious,” Zhang Ruochen said.

The Intergold Tiger said, “Then when is it an abnormal situation?”

“When the inner demon invaded my body, it caused me to lose my mind and turned me into a demon,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Standing aside, Lian Xi could feel the killing intent coming from Zhang Ruochen’s body. She felt that he was like a peerless killing god and couldn’t help but feel frightened.

Zhang Ruochen in this state was simply too terrifying.

Zhang Ruochen no longer suppressed the inner demon and let it erupt wantonly. Then his eyes gradually turned red, as red as blood drops.

Boom

The ten wings on his back spread out. Zhang Ruochen carried the Ancient Abyssal Blade and flew out of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, breaking through the air.

In front of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Xueqi and Xue Chen, who was sitting on the back of the fire beast, were sent flying by the blood qi surging out of his body. The two landed on the ground and looked in the direction Zhang Ruochen flew away in shock.

“What a strong killing Qi. What does he want to do?” Xueqi’s expression was grave.

Today was the day of the engagement. Countless important figures were waiting in the Fortune Palace, including some gods. Would Zhang Ruochen dare to run away from the engagement?

If he ran away, not only would he offend the royal family of Devala, but he would also offend Fukurokuju.

Xue Chen said, “The parade can’t stop. Keep moving.”

Then, Xue Chen immediately drew two Communication talismans and sent them out.

The Fortune Palace was one of the twelve divine palaces of the Fane of Destiny. It was located on Fortune Floating Island, which was about 90,000 miles away from Mount Destiny.

Normally, the Fortune Floating Island was completely hidden in space. Other than the gods, no cultivator could see it.

Today, the Fortune Palace was revealed. It floated in the sky and emitted a dazzling light.

Below the divine palace, there was a group of palaces built on a lake. The walls were red and the tiles were green. The divine fog lingered for thousands of miles. This was the outer hall of the Fortune Palace. It was where all the saint realm disciples practiced.

The place where Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha were engaged was in this outer hall.

It was getting dark, but the place was brightly lit. It was extremely lively.

The engagement banquet drew cultivators from all ten clans. The Immortal Vampires were vicious, the Ghosts were sinister, the Stone clan was strange, and the Nether Clan was mysterious. The banquet in Infernal Court was always filled with the stench of blood and terror. Human heads, soul food, infants, and fresh blood were frequently seen at the banquet.

Luo Sha was dressed in red, with feathers from a phoenix embroidered into a hundred phoenixes. There was a jade hairpin on her head.

She was not wearing any makeup, but today, she had drawn her eyebrows and wiped her lips. She walked among the ferocious and terrifying Rakshasas, Ghost Lord, Bone Clan, and Corpasian cultivators, looking especially charming.

When she saw the flesh and blood of human cultivators visiting the banquet table, she frowned, she said in a deep voice, "Didn't I tell you earlier? Supreme Saint Ruochen has half of the human bloodline. Tonight's engagement banquet, no food related to human bodies is allowed."

The two Rakshasis immediately knelt down in fear.

One of the Rakshasis said in a trembling voice, "Your Highness, forgive me. This... This is an order from the Divine Prince. We have already told him, but... but the Divine Prince said that he just couldn't stand Supreme Saint Ruochen and wanted to do this on purpose."

Luo Sha said, "You don't have to listen to him. Quickly remove it. Remember, this is taboo for Supreme Saint Ruochen. Don't make such a mistake again in the future. Otherwise, I will not let you off easily. I will personally go and talk to my brother."

The two Rakshasis agreed and quickly left.

Luo Sha raised her snow-white head and looked at the night sky that had completely darkened. In her mind, she couldn't help but recall what Zhang Ruochen had said at the foot of Mount Destiny. She couldn't help but smile blissfully.

Suddenly, she felt something. It was as if a pair of eyes were staring at her. She turned her face to the right.

300 meters away, Pan Ruo was also dressed in red.

The two women looked at each other.

Luo Sha was an intelligent woman. Just by looking at each other, she could sense the unusual emotions in Pan Ruo's eyes.

"Her Highness Pan Ruo looks calm, but why do I feel a hint of hostility? No, it's envy. No, it's sadness. It doesn't seem right either. Why do her eyes look so complicated? What's on her mind?"

When Luo Sha looked at Pan Ruo again, there was no one there.

...

Zhang Ruochen flew for a long time. He slowed down and landed by a big blood-red river.

This river was linked to the lake in the Fortune Palace's outer hall. It was 300 meters long and 300 meters wide. The current was swift and brimming with Blood Qi. Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes and focused his attention on the current and the waves.

After waiting for about 15 minutes, a huge ship appeared on the blood river.

There was a black flag at the bow of the ship. The words “Yanluo” were printed on it.

Zhang Ruochen opened his eyes. Blood light flew out of his eyes, causing the river to create waves more than 30 meters high. A deep voice rang out, “Yan Wushen, haven’t you always wanted to fight with me? Today, let’s have a showdown and completely determine who’s the strongest in this era.

“This battle will determine victory and defeat, as well as life and death.”

Rumble

The waves crashed over and stopped the fast-moving giant ship.

Chapter 2417: The Yan Family

Among the Yanluo Clan, “Yan” was the number one surname. It represented the noblest bloodline and had the strongest inheritance.

However, those with the Yan surname were divided into two lines of descent and thirteen gods.

The so-called two lineages were known as the Yan Family of Yama and the Yan Family of Trayastrimsa.

The thirteen gods referred to the other thirteen Yan Families that had given birth to gods. Because they lived in different places to cultivate and their ancestors had different inheritances, they became thirteen relatively independent forces.

Although their strength was far from that of the two-line of descent, they had many clansmen and became an important part of the Yan Family.

The Yan Family of Yama was the strongest. From a certain point of view, they were the representatives of the entire Yan Family. The vast majority of the elites with the Yan surname who were active in the Infernal Court came from this family.

Yan Wushen, Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, Ancient God of Knowledge, as well as the past clan leaders of the Yanluo Clan were all from the Yan Family of Yama.

However, since the recent Yuanhui period, the Yan Family had come up with the third line of descent.

The reason for this was that after the Yanluo Clan’s last clan leader, Yan Huanyu, went missing a hundred thousand years ago, the majority of his clansmen were stationed in the Abyss of Darkness, attempting to rescue Huanyu, who might have been trapped in the Abyss of Darkness.

At that point, the Yan Family of Yama was split into two.

After 100,000 years, this part of the Yan Family members had been vaguely separated and was called the Yan Family of Abyss.

Of course, the Yan Family of Abyss and the Yan Family of Yama were of the same bloodline. Their relationship was extremely deep. At least in the eyes of all the cultivators in the entire Infernal Court, they were still of the same bloodline.

Yan Wushen was born from the Yan Family of Abyss.

Yan Chu was an old man who looked to be in his sixties or seventies. His appearance was ordinary. He wore a white scarf on his head and held a foot-long tobacco pipe in his hand. He stood on a giant ship that was 90 meters tall and breathed out clouds and smoke.

He had lived for 25,000 years and was one of the strongest elites under the god of the Yan Family of Abyss.

Yan Chu could completely run amok in the world and settle all matters if the god could not interfere with the secular world. It was precisely for this reason that Wu Qingzong dispatched him. They needed to ensure Yan Wushen's safety.

Even Fukurokuju could see that Yan Wushen was in danger. He bestowed the marriage between Yan Wushen and Pan Ruo and used the influence of the Fane of Destiny to intimidate the Yan Family of Yama. He did not wish for this Yuanhui-level genius to become the strongest in Infernal Court in the future, and die in the aftermath of the conflict between the previous generation of the Yan Family.

How could Wu Qingzong not see this?

After the Celestial-Hunting Festival ended, Yan Wushen had lost his final value. It was time for him to die. In the current generation of the Yanluo Clan, it was enough to have Yan Huangtu alone.

Puff

Yan Chu looked at the rolling river and exhaled a smoke ring. He was waiting for the Yan Family of Yama to make a move.

The Yan Family of Yama would not be willing to see Yan Wushen marry Pan Ruo. If that happened, Yan Wushen would have two backers, Fukurokuju and Skywrath.

The one who killed Yan Wushen would definitely not be a god.

If a god made a move, it would be the same as breaking the rules that everyone had silently set. At that time, the Infernal Court would not be as calm as it was now.

Every move of a god would set off huge waves.

The conflict between cultivators beneath the divinity was like a raging undercurrent. Even though there were fierce clashes, it was still calm and peaceful on the surface.

Whether it was the Fane of Destiny, the Fane of Darkness, or the leaders of the ten clans, they were all trying their best to maintain this calm. At the very least, before they destroyed all the worlds in the Celestial Court, the Infernal Court couldn't be turned upside down.

What should come will come eventually. Who will make a move? The demigod Yan Yu? The dark walker Yan Xuelai? Or maybe it's Lady Fu Xiang?' Yan Chu's thoughts were in a daze, and many figures appeared in his mind.

Each figure had a mysterious charm. They represented a peerless elite.

At this moment, Yan Chu felt powerful killing intent. Waves more than 30 meters high rose from the blood-red river and swept toward the giant ship.

"Yan Wushen, didn't you want to fight with me?"

...

"This battle will determine victory and defeat, as well as life and death."

Zhang Ruochen's voice turned into waves of sound waves and surged over.

Yan Chu's old eyes shrank in shock and showed an incredulous expression. He said, "I see, I see. They actually want to use Zhang Ruochen's hand to openly kill. I should have thought of it earlier."

Creak

One of the cabin doors of the giant ship opened. Yan Wushen's imposing figure stepped out and looked at the blood mist surging with murderous intent in the night sky.

Yan Wushen said, "Zhang Ruochen has never been a real lecher. But in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Yan Zhexian is pregnant with his child."

"A beauty trap?" Yan Chu asked.

Yan Wushen shook his head, he said, "If a beauty trap can take down Zhang Ruochen, then I don't need to see him as my lifelong enemy. I believe that the Yan Family of Yama has made some kind of agreement with Zhang Ruochen and promised him something. Zhang Ruochen needed their support if he wanted to gain a foothold in the Infernal Court world. Zhang Ruochen's situation in the Infernal Court world is more difficult than mine."

Yan Chu said, "Since Zhang Ruochen is the blade of the Yan Family of Yama, we don't need to care about him. Let's go to the Fortune Palace first. As long as you marry Pan Ruo, you have two powerful figures behind you, Fukurokuju and Skywrath."

Yan Wushen shook his head, "Fighting with Zhang Ruochen has always been my obsession," he said. "If I retreat without a fight today, my obsession will be even deeper. I'm afraid it will affect my cultivation of the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm, not to mention not being able to cultivate the Six Paths of Reincarnation.

"Fight! Whether it's Zhang Ruochen or the Yan Family of Yama, I'll kill any enemy that stands in my way.

"Fight! I've been trapped in the Saint King realm for hundreds of years. I've accumulated a lot. Why should I be afraid of Zhang Ruochen?

"Fight! Zhang Ruochen came with a purpose. His intent isn't pure and fell to mediocrity.

“Fight! I’ll kill him today. Only when my Path is perfect can I combine the six paths into one.”

The four words “Fight” raised Yan Wushen’s momentum to the peak. The space seemed to freeze and the world was extremely quiet.

Yan Wushen had a fantastic figure. In the wind, his long hair fluttered. He laughed and exclaimed, “Good! This battle should have happened a long time ago! I will raise your son, Kunlun, as my own after you die.”

After returning from the third Dark Star, Yan Wushen’s cultivation had improved greatly.

However, Yan Wushen didn’t have any confidence that he could defeat Zhang Ruochen.

In the face of a life-and-death battle, Zhang Ruochen took it very seriously. He came with all his treasures. How could Yan Wushen not take it seriously?

He said those words to mess up Zhang Ruochen’s heart.

“After you die, I will raise your son, Kunlun, as my own.” In other words, if Yan Wushen dies, so does Kunlun.

Zhang Ruochen was not affected by Yan Wushen’s words at all. He was not worried about Chi Kunlun’s safety at all.

The battle between him and Yan Wushen was not a personal grudge. It was a fair and square battle.

If the Yanluo clan killed Yan Wushen’s disciple Chi Kunlun as a result of this, they would be mocked by all cultivators around the world, and they would also face the Xue Jue Family’s vengeance.

The reputation of the supreme clan was more important than their lives.

How could they do such a shameless thing?

“Stop talking nonsense. Let’s fight,” said Zhang Ruochen.

The Blood Qi under Zhang Ruochen’s feet condensed into strange patterns, like tadpoles and earthworms, which triggered the precepts of heaven and earth. The power of heaven and earth turned into lightning and struck the giant ship in all directions.

Yan Wushen punched out a black fist shadow that was bigger than the giant ship. It shattered all the surging lightning and laid it on the Blood River.

Lightning flashed on the surface of the river.

ROAR!

Buddhist light burst out from the giant ship.

Yan Wushen activated his Golden Giant Mode and let out a furious lion roar. The roar contained the true meaning of the Six Syllables Mantra.

Om mani padme hum.

The six syllables are combined into one.

The phantom of a golden lion that was dozens of centimeters long appeared on the surface of Yan Wushen's body. The sound waves of the lion's roar were all golden in color. Space was thrown into chaos, and the river was vaporized by the roar.

In the Six Syllables Mantra, each word was comparable to a high-level Hundred-Shackle level saint technique. It could clear away evil creatures, cut off life and death, destroy wisdom, and cut off lifespan.

The six syllables combined into a lion's roar. Its power was even stronger than the high-level Thousand-Koan saint technique.

“Slash! Slash! Slash...”

Zhang Ruochen didn't retreat. Instead, he turned into a streak of light and rushed toward the incoming golden sound wave. He swung the Ancient Abyssal Sword and broke through the layers of waves.

The sound wave that didn't break through rushed within 30 meters of Zhang Ruochen. It was blocked by the Profound Spatial Dimension.

The sound wave rotated in the dimension and surged out in the opposite direction.

“I heard that you went to the third Dark Star. Your cultivation has indeed improved greatly.”

Zhang Ruochen took to the skies above the massive ship. On his body, the Armor of the Fire God burned fiercely. For thousands of miles, the light it emitted illuminated the night sky. The plants on both sides of the river were reduced to ashes, much like paper.

He stomped down, and more than 20 million Divine Marks of Flame appeared on his legs. They condensed into a thick divine cloud.

Yan Chu raised his head and looked at the sky. He revealed a look of surprise and said, “What a powerful divine might.”

For a Supreme Saint to be able to possess and control divine power was already very impressive.

To be able to control such a powerful divine power was naturally even more shocking. Yan Chu finally understood why Yan Wushen would treat this person as his lifelong enemy.

Yan Wushen felt a huge pressure. His eyes were solemn as he leaped up from the huge ship. He took out the Scepter of Heaven’s Pass and slashed it down with Supreme Power.

The Scepter of Heaven’s Pass originally belonged to Yan Huangtu, but now that it had fallen into his hands, there was no need to return it.

Whoosh

The Scepter of Heaven’s Pass became more than 30 meters long, and it collided with the divine cloud formed by Yanshen’s leg.

After an earth-shattering boom, Supreme Powers and divine flames shot out in all directions. Every ball of divine flame landed, creating a crater several meters wide on the ground.

In the pit, the divine flames burned for a long time.

Yan Wushen fell into the dried blood river and hit a crater-like pit on the riverbed. Some divine flames touched his hair and burned it into ashes.

With the current power of Yanshen's leg, Yan Wushen could not completely block it with the Supreme Artifact.

Although Zhang Ruochen's Yanshen's leg had broken the fourth seal on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, he could only control more than 10 million Divine Marks of Flame.

In the five days after activating the Sundial, Zhang Ruochen spent five years refining another 10 million Divine Marks of Flame.

The power of Yanshen's leg was naturally far greater than before.

It could be said that this battle had just begun. Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were already using their most powerful moves. There was no probing attack at all.

“Thousand Yama Shadows.”

Yan Wushen split into a thousand and stood on the ground. The Primordial Infernal Yama Qi, which was formed from the combination of extreme brightness and extreme darkness, covered the ground for hundreds of miles and turned it into a sea of Qi.

In the sea of Qi, the figure of the Progenitor Yama appeared. He stepped on the Nether and held the Nether Tome in his hand.

The Progenitor Yama waved his big hand and slapped Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen pulled out the Divine Dragonbone Whip that was wrapped around his waist and swung it. The body of the whip made crackling sounds. A huge divine dragon rushed out from the inside and released a terrifying divine might.

This bone whip was made from the backbone of a divine dragon. The dragon's soul inside was indestructible and preserved by divine power.

At the same time, a shadow rushed out of Zhang Ruochen's body.

It wasn't the Immovable Wisdom King.

The shadow had 24 pairs of golden wings. It was the form of the Progenitor Bloodximius.

If one looked from a hundred miles away, one would see the Progenitor Bloodximius holding a divine dragon and using the dragon as a whip to attack Progenitor Yama. The scene was extremely shocking.

Rumble

The sound of the heavens collapsing and the earth-shattering spread out.

Ten thousand kilometers away, a man and a woman were standing under a large black umbrella.

They were the demigod gods, Yan Yu, and Lady Fu Xiang. Both of them were first-class elites below the divinity in Infernal Court. They were ranked at the top of the Tome of the Divines and the Eminence Ranking.

The Tome of the Divines came from the Fane of Destiny.

The Eminence Ranking was written by the Celestial Palace.

Lady Fu Xiang was dressed in a blue crystal veil. Her jade-like arms were long and slender. She took a crystal bow from her bag. Heaven and earth's precepts twisted together and condensed into a translucent arrow on the bowstring.

The direction the tip of the arrow pointed to was precisely the direction of Yan Wushen, who was tens of thousands of kilometers away.

In terms of Archery, Lady Fu Xiang could be said to be the number one elite below the divinity in the entire galaxy. Compared to her, Lord Sinluo was no different from a child who had just learned how to hold a bow.

Yan Yu's voice was gentle. "Put it away first!"

Lady Fu Xiang did not put away her arrow. Her voice was clear and cold. She said, "Do you think Zhang Ruochen can kill Yan Wushen?” She asked. “I heard that after Yan Wushen returned from the third Dark Star, not only did his cultivation improve greatly, but his lifespan also increased in a heaven-defying way. Without a doubt, he must have gotten some kind of opportunity there.”

Yan Yu said, “We’d better not be the ones who killed Yan Wushen. There’s no internal strife in the Yanluo clan. The Yan Family of Yama and the Yan Family of Abyss are the closest. No, to be exact, there’s no such thing as the Yan Family of Abyss.

“The Dark Parasol of Obfuscatory can indeed hide all the secrets of the heavens, even from the gods. But it can’t hide from the hearts of people. As long as Yan Wushen is killed by an arrow, then everyone will know that you’re the one who shot him.

“I don’t know why Zhang Ruochen wants to kill Yan Wushen, but I can feel the killing intent from him. He also seems to want others to think that he’s representing us.”

Lady Fu Xiang said, “The opportunity is fleeting. If we don’t kill him now, we won’t have another chance until the divine spirit of Fukurokuju arrives.”

Yan Yu crossed his hands behind his back. His sleeve flapped. “Give Zhang Ruochen a chance,” he said casually. “I can tell he’s hell-bent on killing.”

Lady Fu Xiang let go of her fingers, and the arrow on the bowstring disappeared. She carried the crystal bow on her back, which was longer than her slender body.

Chapter 2418: Lady Wind's Death

Although the Divine Domain of Destiny was built on the leaves of the world tree, it was quite vast. At the moment, the city where Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were fighting was relatively barren. Only a few cultivators lived there.

They had long been alarmed by the aftermath of the battle and fled into the distance.

“It’s terrifying. What a powerful force. The precepts of heaven and earth of the entire city have been stirred.”

“Who are they? How dare they fight in the divine domain? Aren’t they afraid of being taken away by the enforcers of the Fane of Destiny?”

“They’re definitely Supreme Saints. We’d better step back to avoid being killed in the aftermath of the battle.”

...

The Fane of Destiny forbade cultivators from fighting in private. Even if there were personal grudges, they had to go to the Battle District.

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen’s battle quickly alerted a team of enforcers passing by. They wore armor, rode on white bone beasts, and held saint swords. Their bodies emitted a death glow.

The leader of the enforcers was called Yan Xiao. Although he had a human body, his skin was covered in stone. His cultivation had reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle realm.

The enforcers behind him were all at the Saint King Realm.

An enforcer covered in ghostly qi said in shock, “What a powerful battle might. There seems to be a ripple of Supreme Power.”

They were far from the center of the battle, so they couldn't see who was fighting. They could only see blood-red and golden lights, which sometimes shot out for thousands of miles, and sometimes were pitch-black.

The air force formed by the aftershocks of the battle swept across the world like a storm.

Yan Xiao's figure was as straight as a spear. He snorted and said, "The two people who are fighting are called Yuanhui level geniuses. They have the battle strength to kill Banshi Isshou Realm Celestial Captives with the cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. How can they not be strong?"

"What? Is it them?"

All the enforcers were in an uproar.

In this era, who else could be called a Yuanhui-level genius besides Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen?

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

...

The sound of the wind breaking could be heard continuously. Groups of enforcers came one after another. The leaders were all Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints.

In a moment, there were seven hundred Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saints enforcers here. There were seven to eight hundred enforcers in total.

When the enforcers arrived, they would ask Yan Xiao why he did not capture the cultivators who were fighting in private. However, when they found out that the two people fighting were Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, they became silent and shocked.

An Immortal Vampire enforcer said in surprise, "If I remember correctly, today should be the day Zhang Ruochen and Princess Luo Sha are engaged. Many important figures have gone to the Fortune Palace. Why is he fighting with Yan Wushen?"

“Yan Wushen and His Highness Pan Ruo are also engaged today.”

“These two are really battle maniacs. How dare they ignore the rules of the Divine Hall? How can the Divine Domain of Destiny be a place where they can fight at will?”

An enforcer leader standing on top of the black python said in a deep voice. She wore a black robe and had a thin face. She added, “Arrest them. Those who break the rules, regardless of their identity, must be severely punished.”

Yan Xiao sneered. “Arrest Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen? With just us? Any one of them can kill all of us.”

That Immortal Vampire leader of the enforcers looked at the sky and said, “Lord Zhen is here, and so is Lord Qi Xin.”

Two whirling black qi tornadoes flew out of the clouds and landed on the ground. They condensed into two terrifying figures.

Lord Zhen was wearing bone armor and his body was a mass of black ghost fog. There was a firefly-like glow dancing in the ghost fog.

Lord Qi Xin was 21 meters tall and his head was like an ox. He held a long spear in his hand.

They were both Marshals of the Adjudication Division. They were subject to the Judge of the Divine Domain’s jurisdiction. Their cultivation had advanced to the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm, and they were ranked among the Marshals’ top ten.

A skinny female leader of the enforcers in a black robe jumped down from the black python’s head and bowed to the two Marshals. She said, “The illegal fighters are Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen. Do you want to take them down?”

Lord Zhen waved his hand, “Qi Xin and I have received orders from the Judge. This is the edge of the exclusive territory of the Fortune Palace. It’s not convenient for the Adjudication Division to interfere. We just need to make sure that their fight doesn’t affect the city.”

“What?”

The black robe female leader of the enforcers looked surprised and said, “The Adjudication Division oversees the order of the entire Divine Domain of Destiny, including the Fortune Palace.”

The three divisions and the twelve palaces were independent forces in the Fane of Destiny.

The Adjudication Division had a high status. Even if the disciples of the twelve palaces broke the rules of the fane, they had to be punished unconditionally.

“Are you questioning the Judge?”

The lantern-sized eyes of Lord Qi Xin glared at her. The saint might that erupt made her tremble.

“Forgive me, my lord,” the black-robed female leader of the enforcers said quickly.

Under the leadership of Lord Qi Xin and Lord Zhen, nearly 1,000 enforcers formed a great barrier that covered thousands of miles. It prevented the aftermath of the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen from spreading outward.

The news of the decisive battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen quickly spread throughout the Divine Domain of Destiny, causing a huge uproar.

“What? Weren’t they engaged in the Fortune Palace today? Why did they start the decisive battle?”

“It’s said that this battle not only has to determine the victor, but also life and death. It determines the identity of the strongest person in this era.”

“This battle is too interesting. I want to watch the battle. Perhaps I can witness the death of a Yuanhui-level genius. Just thinking about it makes me excited!”

Many young cultivators from the ten clans had gathered in the Divine Domain of Destiny as a result of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. They ran to inform one another and then rushed to the location where the battle erupted in groups.

In the marriage proposal parade of the Xue Jue family, Xueqi and Xue Chen were so scared that their faces turned pale after they heard the news.

They felt that after Zhang Ruochen had left, he had gone to fight Yan Wushen.

Why?

Even if he wanted to fight, why did he choose today?

Xue Chen said, "I have sent a message to my 14th aunt and father. I believe they have rushed over. What is Zhang Ruochen thinking? Does he think that a life-and-death battle is more important than marrying Princess Luo?"

"I hope that they are not really fighting a life-and-death battle. On a day like today, whoever dies will cause a huge uproar," Xueqi sighed.

The news reached the Fortune Palace.

Luo Shengtian, who was already depressed, smashed a wine jar onto the ground. Monstrous evil Qi surged out of his body and condensed into battle armor, he roared, "Zhang Ruochen, how dare you go to a life-and-death battle with Yan Wushen on the day of the engagement. What do you mean? Are you leaving my sister here? Is the Princess of Devala so unimportant?"

"Where is the Saint Army of Devala? Come with me to capture Zhang Ruochen."

A Saint Army made up of Saint Kings and Supreme Saints gathered around Luo Shengtian. Each of them had a very strong aura, and their fighting spirit was shocking. They were the most powerful guards of Devala, and they usually guarded the royal palace.

Luo Sha, dressed in crimson clothes, chased after them. She looked worried and said, "I'll go with you."

Luo Shengtian shook his head and said, "Don't worry, sister. Leave this to me. Today is your wedding day. Don't go anywhere. Just wait for me to capture Zhang Ruochen and bring him to you."

Luo Sha's eyes were filled with anxiety. "No, you can't stop Zhang Ruochen. I have to go."

Whoosh

Amane's divine shadow appeared and blocked Luo Sha. She said, "Sha'er, where's your usual intelligence and calmness? You'd better not go anywhere on the wedding day."

Luo Sha said, "Mother, the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen will determine life and death. How can I not go?"

Amane said, "The battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen will break out sooner or later. Zhang Ruochen chose today's decisive battle because of you."

"Because of Luo Sha?" Luo Shengtian was puzzled.

Amane said, "Zhang Ruochen obviously doesn't have absolute confidence in this battle. If he marries your sister and then dies at the hands of Yan Wushen, won't it destroy your sister's life?"

"Can't we stop them?" Luo Shengtian asked.

Amane said, "The battle has already erupted. No one can stop it anymore. Even if we stop it, they will still fight. Xue Jue and Huang Tian lacked their determination to fight to the death back then. That's why they left behind regrets that they couldn't make up for their entire lives."

Xue Jue wanted to revive the Xue Jue family. He was destined not to throw his life away.

Huang Tian also had its own restrictions, so he could not completely ignore life and death.

Amane said, "No matter whether it was Wargod Bloodximus or Wu Qingzong, they should be supportive. Only when you reach their level will you understand the meaning of this battle."

Not far away, in another courtyard of the Fortune Palace.

Pan Ruo was stunned when she heard the news of the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen. Her emotions were mixed, and she could not calm down for a long time. She stood under the wall and stared at the indistinct waves of Qi in the sky. Her beautiful eyes became sparkling.

Lady Wind was riding in a golden sacred carriage drawn by three saint beasts. The carriage was pursued by two teams of death-defying saint guards. They rushed to the Fortune Palace for tonight's engagement party.

Whoosh

A Communication talisman flew over and rushed into the golden sacred carriage.

Lady Wind grabbed the talisman and looked at it. She was shocked. "This... This is very interesting! Hehe."

A shadow appeared in the corner of the sacred carriage. His voice was hoarse. "Lady Scioness, what happened? Why such a delightful face?"

Lady Wind laughed. "The battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen has been brought forward. Someone must die tonight. No matter who dies, it's something to celebrate."

The shadow said, "This is indeed wonderful news! If Yan Wushen died, Pan Ruo would lose the support of the Yanluo clan. If you wanted to get rid of her, there would be fewer obstacles. If Zhang Ruochen died, your position among the Immortal Vampires would definitely rise."

"How can we miss such a wonderful battle?" said Lady Wind as her red lips curled up. Her smile was like a flower.

ROAR!

Suddenly, the golden sacred carriage shook violently.

The three sacred beasts pulling the carriage let out terrifying roars.

Lady Wind revealed an unhappy expression and scolded, "You three, what are you so agitated about?"

The outside became silent.

Lady Wind cultivated the Path of Destiny and was very sensitive to danger. She sensed that something was wrong and her pretty face changed. She said in a low voice, "Uncle."

The dark shadow in the corner was like a black piece of paper. It suddenly propped itself up and turned into a tall and straight white-bearded elder. His eyes were bright, and he did not look old at all.

Kagesawa En was a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint of the Yellowsky Clan.

Although Lady Wind had not been officially crowned, she was already a Scioness. Naturally, she needed the protection of a top-notch elite below divinity.

Boom

The murderous aura that surged out of Kagesawa En's body was like a sword blade. It shattered the golden sacred carriage into pieces.

Outside the carriage was a strange world. There were long and thin rivers flowing into the horizon. The three sacred beasts pulling the carriage had already rotted and their flesh and blood had turned into thick water.

“Divine Plane.”

Kagesawa En's expression changed and he shouted, “Lady Scioness, run!”

Kagesawa En immediately activated a forbidden technique. The Supreme Saint's blood in his body burned and his body exploded with a gaze that was even brighter than a star. He activated a Regal Artifact saber and slashed at a corner of the divinity world.

The power of this attack was no less than that of a demigod.

Unfortunately, it did not break through the Divine Plane. Instead, it was struck by a large golden hand. The Neverwithers physique exploded and turned into a cloud of blood mist.

In front of a god, even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint was like an ant. He had no power to resist.

Lady Wind's face was as pale as a sheet of paper. She knew that she could not escape. She stared at the large golden hand and raised her voice, “Who dares to kill me? If a god makes a move and breaks the unspoken rules of the Infernal Court, you will definitely bring yourself a disaster.”

“The Avīci Pavilion has never placed the rules of the Infernal Court world in their eyes.” A deep voice sounded.

The golden hand descended. It was as if the entire world was pressing down on Lady Wind’s head. The unparalleled power crushed the Saint Soul of the Supreme Saint into pieces.

At this moment, the word “life” in Lady Wind’s palm suddenly exploded with a brilliant divine light. Twelve streaks of divine light shot out and formed twelve majestic divine shadows.

The attack from the golden hand was blocked by the divine shadows of the Twelve Reverends.

At this moment, the true bodies of the Twelve Reverends sensed it.

Fukurokuju, who was in charge of the Fane of Destiny, let out a divine roar from an unknown distance of tens of thousands of miles. The divine roar transcended space-time and charged towards the Divine Plane that trapped Lady Wind.

The entire Divine Domain of Destiny was filled with earth-shattering thunder, causing countless cultivators below the Supreme Saint Realm to kneel and tremble.

Empress of Thousand Bones stood in the pitch-black void space, a long river formed from Marks of Time flowing under her feet. She pushed her palm out into the air, forming a space-time wall that collided with the divine roar.

BOOM!

The space-time wall kept shattering, and the divine roar gradually faded away. In the end, it was completely dissolved.

Empress of Thousand Bones looked in the direction of the Divine Plane and said, “Fukurokuju’s true body has moved. In a breath’s time, you must kill Fuurei and seize the Destiny Token.”

In the Divine Plane that trapped Lady Wind, a vaguely human figure appeared. He hovered in the air and looked down. “It’s just divine shadows of the Twelve Reverends. It can't save your life."

Lady Wind glanced at the figure and found that it was a middle-aged man with a remarkable figure. He looked somewhat like Zhang Ruochen. However, the temperament of the middle-aged man was like the abyss of the sea. One couldn't see the bottom, and he was like a high mountain. One could only look up to him.

This was the last time Lady Wind saw him.

In the next moment, the divine shadow of the Twelve Reverends was put into a divine bottle by the middle-aged man.

Lady Wind's body shattered into tiny fragments. All of her bones, Saint Soul, and Sainthood Source were destroyed. She had no chance of resurrecting herself.

Even though she was beautiful and talented, under the god's palm, she disappeared in an instant, as if she had never been to this world.

Chapter 2419: The Peerless Sword

The three world trees in the Forest of No Return were located at the core of the starry skies of the Infernal Court. Yama Boundless Realm, Divine Domain of Destiny, and Fengdu Ghost City were all located on top of the world trees.

Although there were gods in the Divine Domain of Destiny, it had been many years since a divine war broke out.

The divine roar of Fukurokuju contained boundless anger. It tore apart the many years of peace in the Divine Domain of Destiny, causing countless cultivators of the Infernal Court to tremble in fear. Even a Supreme Saint could not help but tremble in fear.

In the sky, divine clouds piled up and lightning flashed.

Countless powerful figures with high cultivation looked in the direction of Mount Destiny in shock.

“What happened to make the Lord Reverend so angry?”

“Did a god from the Celestial Court break into the Divine Domain of Destiny?”

“A god from the Celestial Court dares to break into the Divine Domain of Destiny? Even if the number one Wargod Bian Zhuang in the Heaven Palace comes, he will die.”

Compared to the divine voice of Lord Reverend, the decisive battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen was as insignificant as two children fighting.

Although there were twelve Reverends in the Fane of Destiny, only one or two of them were usually in charge. Others had to oversee the Battlefield of Merits, some had to seclude themselves for cultivation, some traveled around the starry sea, and some explored the secret realm of the universe.

During the Celestial-Hunting Festival, only Fukurokuju was guarding Mount Destiny.

When Fukurokuju's true body moved, it immediately triggered the precepts of heaven and earth that spanned millions of miles, causing the gods that were still in the Divine Domain of Destiny to sense it. They were extremely shocked.

"The Reverend's furious roar was actually unable to kill the enemy. He needed to use his true body?"

"Could it be that the Celestial Palace's wargod level powerhouse has really barged into the Divine Domain?"

"No matter who comes, since the Reverend's true body has been activated, they will definitely die without a burial ground. Even if Bian Zhuang comes, it will be useless. The precepts of heaven and earth in the Divine Domain of Destiny are not something that he can easily control."

The gods originally planned to follow in Fukurokuju's footsteps and kill the invading enemy together.

At this moment, a river hundreds of millions of miles long appeared in the sky of the Divine Domain of Destiny. It fell down like the rivers in the nine heavens. The night sky was illuminated as if it was daytime by the light emitted by the river.

"It's a river formed by the Mark of Time," a god said in a trembling voice.

"How many Marks of Time must be mobilized to form such a river? Once it falls into the Divine Domain of Destiny, how many cultivators of the Infernal Court world will die because of it?"

"Time has become chaotic. The precepts of heaven and earth are being reshaped by time."

In the Divine Domain of Destiny, groups of cultivators from the Infernal Court rapidly lost their lifespans. They turned from youth to middle-aged and eventually became white-haired.

Hundreds of millions of cultivators were about to die of old age and turn into dry bones.

Fukurokuju sighed and stopped chasing. He raised his right hand above his head and established communication with the Fane of Destiny. He shouted softly, "Reverse."

Whoosh

The Fane of Destiny emitted a sparkling white light that illuminated the entire Divine Domain.

Standing in the starry sky, the leaf on the top of the world tree was covered in white light and emitted a light that was even more dazzling than the stars.

The hair of Infernal Court realm cultivators who had lost a lot of their lifespan turned from white to black. The wrinkles on their faces disappeared and they returned to their youthful appearance.

The chaotic time was calmed down by the Fane of Destiny.

In the void, Empress of Thousand Bones held a divine sword in her hand. She looked in the direction of the Divine Domain of Destiny and let out a soft sigh.

The long River of Time just now had been slashed out by her sword with all her strength.

She didn't expect that it didn't cause any substantial damage to the Divine Domain of Destiny. Not a single cultivator died. Without a doubt, her current cultivation was far from enough to shake the Divine Domain of Destiny.

Of course, her goal had been achieved, and she had successfully held back Fukurokuju for a breath of time.

Not daring to stay any longer, Empress of Thousand Bones took a step back and crossed the endless void, disappearing without a trace.

Fukurokuju and Luo Yan rushed into the void almost at the same time, arriving at the spot where Empress of Thousand Bones had been standing.

Luo Yan's body was so big that it was like a cloud covering the sky. The Power of Oblivion couldn't even corrode him. He said, "There's a remnant of the Canon of Time. It's that little girl from the Avīci Pavilion. I didn't expect that in just 100,000 years, she had grown to the point where she could escape from us."

Fukurokuju said, "She has a large amount of Canon of Time and is hidden in the void. Naturally, she comes and goes without a trace."

If Empress of Thousand Bones dared to appear in the Divine Domain of Destiny, even if she had mastered a large amount of Canon of Time, it would be difficult for her to escape. The Divine Domain of Destiny contained more than half of the Canon of Destiny in the world. It was not something the Empress of Thousand Bones could resist.

If she was exposed, she would die without a doubt.

Luo Yan said, "The one who killed Fuurei must be a god of the Avīci Pavilion. We must find him and kill him."

The god who killed Fuurei had already left and was hiding silently.

Luo Yan and Fukurokuju both believed that he was hiding in the Divine Domain of Destiny and was one of the gods from the ten clans. Therefore, the two of them split up.

Fukurokuju rushed back to the divine hall and gathered all the gods who were still in the Divine Domain of Destiny. He wanted to gather them together and investigate them one by one.

Meanwhile, Luo Yan rushed to the place where Fuurei had fallen, looking for clues and traces left behind. When he arrived, he found a woman dressed in palace clothes. She had already come here to investigate.

Luo Yan recognized her and asked in surprise, "The fourteen gal of the Xue Jue Family?"

Blood Empress stood on the empty street. Her eyes were as clear as water, and she was deep in thought. She only woke up when Luo Yan approached her. She did not show the respect and humility of a junior. She said calmly, "It's you."

Luo Yan gritted his teeth. He was furious.

An emperor of a generation had higher seniority than Wargod Bloodximius, but now, he is on the same level as the daughter of Wargod Bloodximius. He was very upset.

Luo Yan was someone who could hold back his anger. He said calmly, "Do you have any clues? Who killed the new Scioness?"

Blood Empress shook her head and said, "The person who did it was very cunning. He escaped at the first moment. Also, I suspect... that he is a god in the Fane of Destiny."

"What?"

Luo Yan was shocked. His face was solemn as he said, "Why do you say that? Do you have any proof?"

Blood Empress said, "I don't have any. However, this person was able to escape quickly and disappear. He's very compatible with the precepts of heaven and earth in the Divine Domain of Destiny. Other than the gods of the Fane of Destiny, there shouldn't be many in the Infernal Court realm who can do this, right?"

Luo Yan nodded and said, "This is going to be a big problem! Let's keep it to ourselves for now."

Blood Empress naturally understood how bad the consequences would be if news of this got out. It would be a serious blow to the Fane of Destiny's reputation. No one dared to publicize it without absolute evidence.

...

The battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen was not affected by the chaos because the gods were nearby.

The battle between the two had been going on for almost two hours. There were tens of thousands of attacks, with all kinds of saint techniques, and all kinds of weapons.

Although Zhang Ruochen had many Supreme Artifacts, he did not have an absolute advantage. With his cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, he could only activate two or three Supreme Artifacts at a time.

Moreover, if he activated two or three Supreme Artifacts at the same time, the power of the Supreme Artifact would be weakened. Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power was strong. If it were any other Supreme Saint of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, they wouldn't be as powerful as activating one Supreme Artifact.

Yan Wushen used The Book of Death to protect himself. He held the Scepter of Heaven's Pass in his right hand and a Supreme Artifact glove in his left. He was like a god killer from Infernal Court. Wherever he passed, mountains and rivers would collapse, the earth would crack, and space would tremble, even the formation and enchantment formed by nearly a thousand enforcers could not withstand it. They were shattered by the power of the Supreme Artifact.

All enforcers below the Supreme Saint Realm were injured.

In the end, it was Yan Chu and the Supreme Saint Qingsheng who used the techniques of the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint technique to control the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen within a certain range.

"Both of them are full of treasures. Any weapon they take out is a Supreme Artifact. Even the gods will be envious."

"Is this the luck of a Yuanhui-level genius? Under the call of destiny, the Supreme Artifact will naturally gather around them and become their weapon."

"If I have the Supreme Artifact to protect myself and the Supreme Artifact to attack, I can also fight across realms. I can challenge the Thousand-Koan Realm with my Hundred-Shackle Realm."

...

Yan Wushen had made great progress in the third Dark Star. He had broken 70 shackles and had close to 10 billion precepts in him.

“Zhang Ruochen, I have cultivated in the third Dark Star for 150 years. I didn’t expect that I could only draw with you after I came out,” Yan Wushen said in a long voice.

150 years of cultivation in the Dark Star was only two hours in the outside world.

“150 years? How is that possible?” Zhang Ruochen was shocked and showed a look of disbelief.

It was known that the time in the third Dark Star was very strange. The proportion of time was shocking, but it was not a precious place to cultivate, but a place of death.

That was because staying inside for a year would lose 1,000 years of lifespan.

Cultivated for 150 years, Yan Wushen would lose 150,000 years of lifespan. Even though he was a god, he had already died inside. After all, the lifespan of a god was only 129,600 years of the Yuanhui period.

More than half of Yan Wushen’s lifespan had already been cut off by Zhang Ruochen. How could he cultivate for 150 years inside the third Dark Star, and his lifespan would not decrease but increase instead?

Yan Wushen said this deliberately to disturb Zhang Ruochen’s state of mind and make him think.

Suddenly, Yan Wushen, who had been at a disadvantage, seized the opportunity to strike back fiercely.

Rumble

The Scepter of Heaven’s Pass turned into a 300-meter-long cloud and shattered Zhang Ruochen’s Profound Spatial Dimension. It collided with the Pleiades Lotus above his head.

The powerful shock wave of Supreme Power passed through the Ghost Qi formed by the Pleiades Lotus and landed on Zhang Ruochen.

However, the multi-dimensional space formed by the Secret Tome of Time and Space dissolved all the remaining waves of the Supreme Power and could not hurt Zhang Ruochen at all.

Zhang Ruochen cleared his mind and stopped thinking about what had happened to Yan Wushen in the third Dark Star. As long as he was killed, nothing would matter anymore.

“Yan Wushen, there is no point in fighting like this. Even if we fight for ten days and ten nights, we can not kill the other party. As long as we can’t kill each other, we’ll never truly win. Since we’ve decided to fight to determine victory and death, why don’t we enter the void and fight?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Wushen said, “Yes, it’s too difficult for us to kill each other. We’ll probably have to fight for a month or even a few months to exhaust each other’s strength before we can stop. Entering the void to fight is a good suggestion. I want to take this opportunity to feel the void more thoroughly.”

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were not absolutely invincible in this era. After all, there was still Que, the Master of Oblivion.

They wanted to learn more about the Path of Oblivion because they both saw Que as a threat.

The cultivators watching the battle nearby were all shocked by the conversation between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen.

Fight in the void?

The Power of Oblivion would erode everything that entered it. Whether it was the Celestial Court or Infernal Court, living beings or dead souls, they could not avoid it. Once they fell into the void, it was equivalent to being dead.

“Do they think they are gods? They are only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, and they dare to fight in the void.”

“They are insane. Even gods don’t dare to stay in the void for long.”

“Even if a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint does nothing and tries his best to defend in the void, he won’t last more than two hours. He’ll become a part of the void. If Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen dare to fight in the void, the survivor will be decided in less than an hour. Both of them might even die.”

The Supreme Saint entering the void to fight was like two mortals fighting underwater. The victor and the dead would soon be decided.

If their cultivations were the same, there was a high chance that they would die together.

Yan Chu and the Supreme Saint Qingsheng were both scared. These two little guys were really audacious. Even with their cultivation of the Paramount Realm, they were still in awe of the void. The two Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivators treated the void as a battlefield.

Luo Shengtian gulped. When his father took the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill from him, he finally understood what his father had said, “You’re not bold enough to condense a Grade Two Saintwill. It’s a waste to take the Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill. Leave it to your sister.”

Compared to Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen’s bold personalities, he did seem to be a little lacking.

Of course, it wasn’t that Luo Shengtian was timid. It was just that he was too cautious and conservative, which was why he wasn’t bold enough. How could a timid person reach his level?

Luo Shengtian wouldn’t be careless when he encountered real trouble.

Xue Tu stood in the crowd and was extremely happy. He shouted loudly, “Enter the void and determine the winner and loser. Senior brother, I support you. Fight and die with no regrets.”

A Supreme Saint beside him looked at him with a puzzled expression and said, “Aren’t you afraid that the one who will die will be your senior brother, Zhang Ruochen? Or will Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen perish together?”

“Is that so? The probability is high, right? That’s great!”

Xue Tu was even happier. He shouted again, “We must enter the void and fight. We must determine the victor. Let us witness the battle between two exceptional geniuses of the Yuanhui level. The living is the king, and the dead is the bandit. Senior brother, Fight.”

Chapter 2420: Strike Down Yan Wushen With a Slash

Wujiang hadn't fully recovered from his injuries on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. When he heard the news of the life-and-death battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen, he decisively stopped recuperating and rushed over to watch the battle.

It was the same for Yan Huangtu.

Beside them stood a large group of cultivators from the Fane of Darkness and the Yanluo clan.

Wujiang said with certainty, "The Divine Domain of Destiny is at the top of the world tree. The spatial structure is stable. With Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen's cultivation, they can't break the world's membrane and enter the void."

"Only gods can break a corner of the divine domain. Demigods and Supreme Saints may be able to break the space, but the cracks are definitely not big enough for a cultivator to enter the void," Yan Huangtu concluded.

Even a crack in the space was fatal to a cultivator.

Entering the void was as dangerous as a mortal jumping into a sea of fire. It was courting death.

"That's right. How can the space of the Divine Domain of Destiny be easily broken by the two of them?"

Yan Chu and Supreme Saint Qingsheng finally reacted and heaved a sigh of relief. They began to think about whether they could separate the two of them from each other.

If they did not have a life-and-death grudge, why did they have to have a life-and-death battle?

Wouldn't it be great if they were like Wargod Bloodximus and Huang Tian, the two pride of their generation? Why did they have to decide who would win and who would die?

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen each mobilized the tens of millions of Precepts of Dimension in their bodies and performed the dimensional saint technique. In an instant, the space shook violently like boiling water.

The cultivators who were close to them couldn't stand steadily. Their bodies were pulled and deformed by the space fluctuations.

A three-meter-wide space hole appeared in the center of the most intense space fluctuations. Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were like two fish who had gotten lost in it.

"This is..."

Yan Huangtu and Wujiang were stunned. They realized that Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen were not ordinary Supreme Saints. They were Masters of Space.

With the power of a Master of Space, it was easier to tear open space than a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

Yan Chu and Supreme Saint Qingsheng were shocked. They immediately flew toward the area where the space was broken. However, when they arrived, the space hole had already calmed down.

The two attacked with their power, wanting to tear the space apart again. However, no matter how hard they tried, they could only tear a half-meter-long space crack.

"What should we do? There are dangers in the void that even gods fear. They really don't have a fear of taboos. How dare they enter the void for a decisive battle?" Supreme Saint Qingsheng stomped his feet anxiously.

If Zhang Ruochen died in the void, it would be a great loss to the Xue Jue family. Supreme Saint Qingsheng was even more afraid that Blood Empress would be unreasonable and find trouble with him.

Yan Chu was relatively calm, but he still recorded a Communication talisman and prepared to inform the god of the Yanluo clan.

SWOOSH!

The shadow of Wargod Bloodximius and a god of the Yanluo clan appeared on the chaotic battlefield.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng breathed a sigh of relief. He bowed and said, “The battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen is out of my control. Please stop them.”

Wargod Bloodximius waved his hand and said, “They want to fight in the void. Then so be it.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was shocked. He hadn’t expected Wargod Bloodximius to have such a response. He knew better than anyone else how much Wargod Bloodximius valued Zhang Ruochen. He favored Zhang Ruochen more than his son.

Did Lord Wargod not care about Zhang Ruochen’s life?’ Supreme Saint Qingsheng thought.

Seeing Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s confused eyes, Wargod Bloodximius shook his head. He was slightly disappointed, “Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen are both walking on the path to condense a Grade One Saintwill,” he said. “They’ve reached the final stage. They’re just one step away from making history. No one will be able to do it again.”

“But that step is too difficult.”

“If there was only one Zhang Ruochen or Yan Wushen in this era, they wouldn’t have been able to cross that step.”

“But they were born in this era at the same time. They’ve cultivated the Path that’s closest to Grade One Saintwill. That makes it possible.”

“They need to find the true meaning of the Grade One Saintwill in the life-and-death battle. They also need a state of mind and a spirit of supremacy. If this battle doesn’t break out now, it will in a few years. No one can stop it.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “But what if...”

“How can there be so many “what if” in the path of becoming a true powerhouse? If there is a chance to reach an unprecedented height, then even death is worth it.”

“If Zhang Ruochen can kill Yan Wushen in one battle and cultivate the Grade One Saintwill, then even if I go to find the unmarried Scionesses of Destiny who have cultivated divinity to marry, they should seriously consider it,” Wargod Bloodximius said in high spirits.

Why did they talk about marriage again?

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was a little speechless. He felt that Wargod Bloodximius was too ambitious. He actually wanted Zhang Ruochen to marry the Scionesses of Destiny who had cultivated divinity. They were such proud women. They were already peerless masters. How could they be willing to marry a junior Supreme Saint?

Even if Wargod Bloodximius wanted to marry them, they probably wouldn't be willing.

Wu Qingzong was the god of the Yanluo clan. He was a prominent member of the Yan Family of Abyss and the fifth son of the previous Yanluo clan leader. He had survived five Yuanhui Tribulations.

Wu Qingzong had no intention of stopping Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen. He shared the same thought as Wargod Bloodximius.

...

...

Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen felt their bodies lighten as they entered the void. They appeared to have fallen off a cliff. Then, from all directions, invisible pressure surged, eroding the Yanluo Qi and the blood-red aura they had released.

Even their Profound Spatial Dimension was eroding and becoming smaller and smaller.

The Path of Origin that Yan Wushen cultivated had a strong restraining effect on the Power of Oblivion. He quickly adapted and activated the Supreme Artifact gauntlet. He used a high-level Thousand-Koan saint technique and shattered Zhang Ruochen's Profound Spatial Dimension layer by layer.

The Power of Oblivion eroded through the cracks of the broken Profound Spatial Dimension toward Zhang Ruochen.

“Dragon-Elephant Destruction.”

The roar of a tiger and the roar of a dragon rang out in Zhang Ruochen’s body. Ten dragon souls and ten tiger souls surged out of his arms with the power of his palm, bursting with monstrous battle might.

With the help of the ten tiger souls that he had obtained from the Intergold Tiger, Zhang Ruochen cultivated the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike to the grand completion of the Thousand-Koan Realm’s advanced stage saint technique.

Of course, it could not be called the Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike now. It should be called the Dragon-Tiger Prajna Strike.

Boom

The fists and palms met.

A huge cloud of power appeared in the void. Both of them were thrown back.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Profound Spatial Dimension again. He used the Secret Tome of Time and Space to shield his body and deployed the Zangshan Demonic Mirror. The demonic mirror revealed an endless mountain range. It enveloped Yan Wushen and suppressed him under the mountains.

Seizing this opportunity, Zhang Ruochen released the Realm-frame of Truth.

“Break it.”

Yan Wushen’s long hair danced in the wind. He waved the Scepter of Heaven’s Pass and broke the demonic mountains one by one. Then he rushed out.

Above Zhang Ruochen’s head, a shadow of the Blood Grind had already condensed. A large number of flames danced in the Blood Grind. The deafening sound of the Blood Grind shook Zhang Ruochen’s eardrums so much that they hurt.

Yan Wushen felt a strong sense of danger and his face changed.

“Not good. Zhang Ruochen has integrated the Path of Truth into the Blood Grind Ember, a Thousand-Koan high-level saint technique. It will explode with ten times the attack power.”

As soon as Yan Wushen had this thought, the Blood Grind had already flown over and crushed his Profound Spatial Dimension. It broke through the Light of Origin and collided with the Book of Death, which was guarding him.

The Book of Death flipped quickly, forming page after page of shadows of a book.

Zhang Ruochen had finally seized the opportunity and unleashed the ten-fold terrifying attack power. The Book of Death couldn't defend against it either. All the books' shadows were shattered and turned into specks of light.

Yan Wushen was fearless. He let out a long cry and punched at the burning Blood Grind with his Supreme Artifact gauntlet.

BOOM!

The Blood Grind sent him flying.

Yan Wushen spat out blood. He was finally injured. His arm, which was wearing the Supreme Artifact gauntlet, was covered in blood. His bones could be seen.

“It's a pity that the Power of Oblivion has eroded the embers of the Blood Grind. The power has been reduced. Otherwise, even if this attack can't kill Yan Wushen, it should be able to severely injure him and lock in the victory.”

Zhang Ruochen sighed. He took advantage of the victory and continued to attack. He took turns attacking with the Zangshan Demonic Mirror and the Pleiades Lotus, knocking Yan Wushen back.

The blood Qi in Yan Wushen's body surged. Every strike of the Supreme Artifact was like a hammer striking the heart. His body seemed to be torn apart.

Several divine shadows charged into the void and watched the battle from afar.

Zhang Ruochen's battle became fiercer and fiercer. He was like a god of war with endless power. He didn't care about the Power of Oblivion eroding his body. He just wanted to kill Yan Wushen as quickly as possible.

Yan Wushen was always in danger, but he could always turn the situation around and block Zhang Ruochen's sure-kill attack.

"The Bridge of Vaitarna."

Yan Wushen took a moment to clench his teeth. He quickly formed a seal with his hands, and a strange mark appeared between his eyebrows.

Boom

A stone bridge rushed out from between his eyebrows.

Only half of the bridge flew out. It was ancient and grand. The arcane runes on the bridge were revived, dissipating all of Zhang Ruochen's attack power.

Zhang Ruochen's Saint Soul was affected by the power of The Bridge of Vaitarna. It showed signs of the Saint Soul leaving his body.

"It has the power to capture Saint Souls. This stone bridge is no small matter."

Zhang Ruochen pulled back the Saint Soul that had flown out of his body. Then he quickly retreated and hid the Saint Soul in the Sainthood Source.

Yan Wushen had finally turned the situation around. How could he let go of this perfect opportunity?

On The Bridge of Vaitarna, the arcane runes shone brightly. They broke through the boundary of the void and appeared in front of Zhang Ruochen. They broke through all his defenses.

Boom

The Pleiades Lotus, the Secret Tome of Time and Space, and the Zangshan Demonic Mirror flew out and fell into the darkness.

Zhang Ruochen's fighting spirit was boiling. The Armor of the Fire God on his body burned. He threw his arms out at the same time. Drawing the power of ten dragons and ten tigers, he clashed with the stone bridge.

The shadow of the dragon and tiger instantly shattered.

The divine fire scattered and turned into a brilliant fire cloud.

Zhang Ruochen's arms were bleeding. His body was sent flying by The Bridge of Vaitarna.

Yan Wushen let out a long cry and chased after him. He wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen under the stone bridge with one strike. He spat out blood and pounced on the stone bridge, causing the light on the stone bridge to bloom even more.

At the same time, more bridges rushed out from between his eyebrows.

Yan Wushen and The Bridge of Vaitarna were connected as one. The power that erupted grew to its peak.

Even though Zhang Ruochen had hidden his Saint Soul in the Sainthood Source, they were pulled out by the ancient power of the stone bridge. His Saint Soul flew out of his body uncontrollably. At the same time, the stone bridge was like a stone sword. It swung down from above and hacked at Zhang Ruochen's body.

Even Wargod Bloodximius could not calm down at this moment. His eyes suddenly shone with light.

If Zhang Ruochen was hit by this attack, his body and Saint Soul might not be able to survive.

BOOM!

The Bridge of Vaitarna struck Zhang Ruochen's head. To everyone's surprise, he was not defeated. Instead, he blocked the attack. His body only sank a few hundred feet.

Above Zhang Ruochen's head, a circular stone plate floated.

It was the Sundial.

The moment the Sundial collided with The Bridge of Vaitarna, it released a cyan light and flew out densely-packed light spots of the Marks of Time.

There was no time and space in the void. However, under the influence of the Sundial, the Sea of Time appeared in this area and attacked Yan Wushen.

Time was chaotic.

The time flow in the area where Yan Wushen was was unpredictable.

Yan Wushen was also an extraordinary person. He was very clear that the reason why the light spots of the Marks of Time could stay for so long was that his Spatial Domain had blocked the Power of Oblivion.

If he wanted to dissolve the influence of time, he only needed to withdraw his Spatial Domain.

“Withdraw!”

After Yan Wushen withdrew his Spatial Domain, his body was completely exposed to the Power of Oblivion, and his skin instantly became illusory. Blood flowed out of his body, turning into blood-colored light spots and disappearing.

“It’s time to end this!”

Holding the Sundial in his hand, Zhang Ruochen stepped on the River of Time. He brandished the Ancient Abyssal Sword and cut Yan Wushen’s body in half.

As a Master of Time and Space, Zhang Ruochen’s speed was so fast that Yan wushen could not compare to him. Even if he saw him attack, he would not have the chance to defend.

After Yan Wushen’s two halves flew out, they were quickly swallowed by the Power of Oblivion.

Even The Bridge of Vaitarna and the Supreme Artifact gauntlet could not resist the erosion of oblivion. Yan Wushen’s body was like sand, turning into fine particles and flowing into the darkness.

Zhang Ruochen stood in the world's endless darkness. Nothing existed around him. His heart was devoid of joy. Instead, there was nothing but loneliness and boredom.

Ever since he started practicing, Zhang Ruochen had met countless prominent figures. However, no one had given him as much pressure as Yan Wushen. This pressure turned into motivation.

Zhang Ruochen might not have chosen the path of condensing a Grade One Saintwill if Yan Wushen hadn't pursued him relentlessly.

"I didn't expect Yan Wushen to lose so quickly. In the end, the Master of Time and Space is stronger."

"Time and space are the most perfect combination of the nine Great Paths of the Ancients. Zhang Ruochen might become the next Xumi in the future."

The figures watching the battle whispered to each other.

Wargod Bloodximus didn't show joy because of Zhang Ruochen's victory. Instead, his face became serious. He looked at the figures of Wu Qingzong as if he wanted to confirm his guess.

Wu Qingzong was very calm. They looked calm and composed.

This made Wargod Bloodximus's heart sink slightly.

Chapter 2421: The Dark Elemental

The void was boundless and empty.

Everything in the world would be eroded by the Power of Oblivion and eventually disappear.

Zhang Ruochen's Profound Spatial Dimension was only 30 meters in diameter after being eroded by the Power of Oblivion. Therefore, after killing Yan Wushen, he didn't dare to stay any longer and was prepared to leave.

At that moment, he suddenly sensed something and stared at the spot where Yan Wushen's body had disappeared with a surprised look.

With the Eye of Truth, Zhang Ruochen finally saw it clearly. Although Yan Wushen's two halves had become fine particles and merged with the darkness in the void, they had not become one with oblivion.

Those fine particles moved through the air like wisps of black Qi.

The oblivion could not erode them in a short period.

"What a pure Qi of darkness. It is purer and of higher quality than the power cultivated by Wujiang, who is the Master of Darkness." Zhang Ruochen felt incredulous.

He had fought with Yan Wushen many times and knew his power like the back of his hand. Yan Wushen had cultivated the Path of Darkness and his attainments were not low, but he was far from reaching the same level as Wujiang.

Then, where did this Qi of darkness come from?

The Power of Darkness grew stronger. The intensity of the waves quickly surpassed the Hundred-Shackle Realm, Thousand-Koan Realm, and even the Banshi Isshou Realm... It appeared that it would never peak.

The power shook Zhang Ruochen back.

Even the divine shadows hanging in the void showed an expression of disbelief.

Crash

Strands of Qi of darkness gradually solidified and twisted like a twist. Finally, they condensed into Yan Wushen's figure.

Yan Wushen's long hair was standing on end, and his eyes were ferocious and intimidating. His powerful aura was comparable to a few cultivators beneath the divinity. Yan Wushen would tremble as if he were an evil god if he stood in front of Yan Huangtu and Wujiang.

Zhang Ruochen was pushed back 800 miles by Yan Wushen's imposing manner. He felt that Yan Wushen had become completely different from before. It was as if he had entered an evil state. He was very similar to the evil Wushen from before.

There were some differences.

He was eviler than the evil Wushen.

Zhang Ruochen summoned the Secret Tome of Time and Space, the Zangshan Demonic Mirror, and the Pleiades Lotus. He stared at Yan Wushen as if he was facing a great enemy. He asked, "The aura of the third Dark Star? Did you absorb its Power of Darkness?"

Yan Wushen looked like an evil god. His eyes were red. He said, "Power of Darkness? No, I devoured the entire third Dark Star."

"Devoured..."

Zhang Ruochen muttered something to himself. His expression was solemn.

The third Dark Star was thousands of miles in diameter. It was 100,000 times denser than ordinary iron. Picking up a rock casually would weigh more than a million pounds. How could a Supreme Saint devour it?

It was more like a Macroworld, condensed from hundreds of thousands of planets.

Even the divine beasts roaming the universe could not swallow it.

In a corner of the void, the Swastika Seiryu's body was coiled and covered with green clouds, he smiled proudly and said, "Zhang Ruochen is very powerful. Unfortunately, he should not have been born in the same era as Yan Wushen. He is destined to be Yan Wushen's stepping stone to the top of the universe. Tiger, after Zhang Ruochen dies, why don't you let him be your guide too?"

The Intergold Tiger stood above a golden light the size of a lake and said, "Isn't it too early to say this?"

The Swastika Seiryu shook its head, it said, "The third Dark Star, although in the Dark Star, it can only be considered to be of medium and inferior size, with a diameter of thousands of miles. However, it is extremely ancient. The Darkness Power within it gave birth to intelligence as well as a Dark Elemental.

"The Dark Elemental devoured the Stone Clan Supreme Saint, Immortal Blue Marrow, who entered the third Dark Star to cultivate. It took away a sliver of the Blue Marrow Supreme Saint's consciousness and was able to cultivate it. It then reached a cultivation level comparable to a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint."

"When Yan Wushen was cultivating in the third Black Star, he was chased by the Dark Elemental for decades. He was almost devoured and possessed by the Dark Elemental.

"Unfortunately, the suppression of the Dark Elemental allowed Yan Wushen to fuse the Grade Five Saintwill and almost complete The Six Paths of Reincarnation. It suppressed the Dark Elemental into The Six Paths of Reincarnation and imprisoned it with a Half-Buddha Physique.

"Then, after decades of refining and purification, the Dark Elemental was almost completely absorbed by Yan Wushen and became a part of his body and Saint Soul.

"When he fused the Grade Five Saintwill, he attracted the phenomenon of the universe. Yan Wushen was in harmony with the precepts of heaven and earth, and his lifespan was greatly increased. It created a miracle that no one had ever done before or since. The third Dark Star has already been fused into Yan Wushen's sea of Qi. His body and the third Dark Star have become one. They are no different.

"If he uses the power of the third Dark Star and the Dark Elemental, Yan Wushen can even challenge a Supreme Saint. How can Zhang Ruochen defeat him?"

The Intergold Tiger was still calm. He smiled and said, "With his cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, if he uses the power of a Supreme Saint, even if Yan Wushen kills Zhang Ruochen, he will die."

"I don't think so! Yan Wushen has a Half-Buddha Physique and strong spiritual power. He can withstand the power of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint," the Swastika Seiryu said.

The Intergold Tiger said, "If his realm is not high enough, he will be like an ignorant child who controls a world-destroying weapon. Even if he can kill the enemy, he will hurt himself. In the end, we will all die together."

This time, the Swastika Seiryu did not argue with the Intergold Tiger. He said, "This is a life and death battle between the two of them. Yan Wushen has reached the point where he has to use the power of the Dark Star."

More and more gods received the news.

Some of them were very interested in Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen, so they sent down their own projection of the divine shadow to watch the battle.

Blood Empress' divine true body appeared not far away from Wargod Bloodximius. There was a worried look in her eyes.

As long as it was a divine spirit, how could it not see that Yan Wushen had absorbed the Dark Elemental and carried a Dark Star in his body?

'There is no suspense in this battle. As long as the god of Xue Jue Family doesn't interfere, Zhang Ruochen will die without a doubt.' Ghost Master thought as he looked at the solemn Wargod Bloodximius and smiled happily.

Zhang Ruochen's death would be a heavy blow to the Xue Jue Family.

Wargod Bloodximus was congratulated on all sides after winning the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. The Xue Jue Family had three generations of geniuses, as everyone could see. It was a sign of great wealth. They would most likely dominate the Immortal Vampires and shock the entire Infernal Court after a few Yuanhui periods.

Not to mention the Bloodysky Clan and the Immortal Vampires, even the other forces sent gifts to express their goodwill.

As one of the biggest losers in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, Ghost Master was naturally jealous.

Now, only half a month had passed, and Zhang Ruochen, the brilliant son of the Xue Jue Family, was about to die. How could the Ghost Master not be happy?

Asurendra Barasingha nodded and let out a sigh of relief. He said, "The Fane of Barasingha has already formed a grudge with the Xue Jue Family. Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen is going to die at the hands of Yan Wushen. Otherwise, the Fane of Barasingha will have a hard time in the coming days."

Zhang Ruochen could fully unleash the power of the Demigod-level physique once he reached the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm and broke all the shackles in his body. There were only a few of them left from the Fane of Barasingha who could suppress Zhang Ruochen in circumstances where gods could not interfere with the secular world.

When Zhang Ruochen reached the Thousand-Koan Realm and the Banshi Isshou Realm, he could control the power of the Demigod-level physique more perfectly. With the power of the cultivation realm, he would be even more invincible under divinity.

Zhang Ruochen would undoubtedly sweep through the Infernal Court if the gods did not intervene.

Wargod Bloodximius, Luo Yan, and Fukurokuju would all come looking for them if the gods intervened. Nobody could stand it.

Asurendra Barasingha attached great importance to the cultivation of the younger generation, so he was very worried about that day. When Zhang Ruochen was in the Saint King Realm, he had almost killed a generation of people in the Heavenly Realm.

Asurendra Barasingha sent a message to Ghost Master. “Zhang Ruochen is about to die. The gods of the Xue Jue family might intervene.”

Ghost Master smiled cruelly and said, “With you and I here, how can we give them the chance to intervene? Since it’s a life-and-death battle, there will naturally be death.”

Lord Yuan Tian of the Deathkins descended into the void. Beside him were three Supreme Saints. They were all his children. They were Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, Supreme Saint Yuan Li, and Yuan Shu.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei was his sixth son.

Supreme Saint Yuan Li was his fifth son.

Yuan Mo, who had died at Zhang Ruochen’s hands, was his seventh son.

Yuan Fei, Yuan Mo, and Yuan Li were all prodigies of their generation. They were famous at the same time and had the potential to become gods. They were heavily nurtured by Lord Yuan Tian and were regarded as his pride.

However, Lord Yuan Tian placed the most importance on his fourth child, Yuan Shu.

Yuan Shu was no older than 2,000 years old. She was not much older than Supreme Saint Yuan Fei. She was the first child that Lord Yuan Tian gave birth to after he transcended the Yuanhui Tribulation. The Saintwill that she cultivated had reached the peak of Grade Three Saintwill, her cultivation had broken through to the Paramount Realm.

If everything went well, Yuan Shu would undoubtedly become a god before the age of 10,000.

That is why Yuan Shu was bestowed the title of True Lord. She was the ruler of the starry skies and in charge of everything under Lord Yuan Tian's rule.

Although Yuan Shu was a member of the Deathkin, she did not exude an aura of death. On the contrary, she was bright and beautiful. Her skin was snow-white and her body shone with holy light. She had the aura of an empress who ruled over the world.

Supreme Saint Yuan Li and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei stood in front of Lord Yuan Tian in awe. They did not stand straight.

However, Yuan Shu was determined. She did not show any signs of weakness in her state of mind. Her gaze was vast and sharp.

Lord Yuan Tian let out a long sigh, "She can even devour and fuse with a Paramount Realm Dark Elemental. Not to mention this Yuanhui period, even in the past few Yuanhui periods, there has never been such a prodigy. Within a thousand years, Yan Wushen will definitely become a god. Yuan Shu, are you willing to marry him?"

Supreme Saint Yuan Li and Supreme Saint Yuan Fei were shocked. Their father valued Yuan Shu so much that he saw her as his successor. However, to win Yan Wushen over, he was willing to marry her.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei bowed, he said, "Father, Yuan Shu has the potential to become a god. Furthermore, she might even become a god before Yan Wushen. Why should she marry a man she doesn't like? Furthermore, Pan Ruo was bestowed by Fukurokuju and she would be Yan Wushen's first wife. If Yuan Shu were to marry him, her position would definitely be awkward."

Supreme Saint Yuan Li said, "Yuan Shu's attainment has reached the Paramount Realm and the first-class existence below divinity. Yan Wushen is only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. When Yan Wushen becomes a god, it will not be too late to consider this matter.”

Lord Yuan Tian snorted. “You are too short-sighted. You don’t understand the Divine Plane at all. Many forces can plan ahead 100,000 or even a million years to do something. It’s too late to plan on Yan Wushen now. I feel like it’s already too late! Fukurokuju is still the best. After the Battle of Celestial-Hunting ended, he arranged marriages for both Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen to someone.

“When Yan Wushen becomes a god, Yuan Shu won’t want to marry him anymore. I’m afraid he won’t even look at her!”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei didn’t expect his father to take Yan Wushen so seriously. No wonder so many gods had come to watch the battle of life and death between Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen.

Let alone Supreme Saint Yuan Fei, even the likes of Wujiang and Yan Huangtu were far from this important.

Was it because he had condensed the Grade Two Saintwill?

Suddenly, Lord Yuan Tian spoke with a profound meaning, he said, “Yan Wushen is likely to be the first to condense the Grade One Saintwill. After becoming a god, no one knows how terrifying he will be. I’m afraid that even the Reverends and the divine kings will be trampled under his feet. He should be like Yan Wushen when he gives birth!”

A bright light appeared in Yuan Shu’s eyes. “Yan Wushen is indeed unparalleled. His luck is heaven-defying and rarely seen. Marrying him isn’t a grievance. However, it won’t be easy for him to defeat Zhang Ruochen.”

Lord Yuan Tian was surprised. “Shu’er actually thinks that Zhang Ruochen can resist the power of a Dark Star?”

Yuan Shu stared at the two people in the distant void, “If it were any other Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint, they would have run away from the power of Yan Wushen. But Zhang Ruochen didn’t. Instead, his fighting spirit became stronger!”

“Is he scared?” Said Supreme Saint Yuan Li.

Yuan Shu said, “If you think so, you must be a fool. I think Zhang Ruochen still has a trump card he hasn’t used yet. He should still have the strength to fight. I’m really looking forward to who will be the king of this Yuanhui period.”

...

Yan Wushen’s physical body was reassembled. His imposing manner was magnificent and unparalleled. He slapped out the constantly invading Power of Oblivion. The Power of Darkness that erupted from his body covered tens of thousands of miles.

“Six paths of reincarnation. Life and death can not be destroyed.”

Yan Wushen raised his hands slightly. The Power of Darkness condensed into a palm above his head and slapped Zhang Ruochen.

This palm contained the power of the Dark Star. It had the true meaning of The Six Paths of Reincarnation. Although it wasn’t as powerful as a Supreme Saint’s attack, it was still terrifying. It was far stronger than Yan Wushen’s own power.

Standing in the darkness, Zhang Ruochen felt heaven and earth pressing down on him. There were walls in all directions. The power from each side was ten times stronger than Yan Wushen’s.

“The five elements of yin and yang and the rotation of heaven and earth, they are endless.”

Zhang Ruochen threw out all kinds of weapons, and all kinds of power surged out. He also activated the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, forming a tai chi mark and floating above his head.

Boom

One Supreme Artifact after another flew out. The Profound Spatial Dimension, the Realm-frame of Truth, and the Null Time realm were all pierced through.

The Hand of Darkness and the Taiji Mark collided.

Zhang Ruochen let out a long howl. He controlled the Saintwill and tried his best to absorb the Power of Darkness from his hand. However, the hand was like a dark ocean. It couldn't absorb all of it.

As if it was breaking through a layer of paper, the Hand of Darkness broke through the Taiji Mark and slapped Zhang Ruochen.

"It's over!"

The Ghost Master smiled, feeling extremely happy.

Asurendra Barasingha said, "The Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill that Zhang Ruochen has cultivated is no weaker than Yan Wushen's Six Paths of Reincarnation Saintwill. However, Yan Wushen can control the power of the Dark Star and has fused with the Paramount Realm Supreme Saint's Dark Elemental. His power is too strong for Zhang Ruochen to resist... what? He actually blocked it!"

All the gods who had descended were shocked.

Zhang Ruochen's entire body was burning with flames. His arms supported the Hand of Darkness. Then, a light pillar shot out from his glabella. It shattered the Hand of Darkness into pieces and disappeared.

"A Dark Star is nothing. My grandson has a Macroworld in his body. If he doesn't use the power of the world and the Supreme Saint doesn't come out, who can fight him?"

Just now, he had broken the seal of the Qiankun Realm and allowed Zhang Ruochen to enter his strongest state. He was no longer suppressed and could fully use all the power he had.

Zhang Ruochen had never used the power of the Qiankun Realm, whether it was on the Battlefield of Merits or the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Actually, the Qiankun Realm was a part of Zhang Ruochen. It didn't belong to external forces.

Chapter 2422: The Only Survivor

“He blocked it. He... he blocked it!”

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and Supreme Saint Yuan Li beside Lord Yuan Tian were dazed. The light pillar shot out from the Shenwu Mark between Zhang Ruochen’s eyebrows. It shattered the Hand of Darkness and hit their hearts and minds.

“Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen are so powerful. It seems that even if Wujiang, Yan Huangtu, and Lan Ying have broken through to the Thousand-Koan Realm, they still have to avoid Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen’s attacks. The Battle of Celestial-Hunting has limited their strength.” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei said as he smiled bitterly.

Although Wujiang, Yan Huangtu, Lan Ying, and the others couldn’t bring their trump cards to the Battle of Celestial-Hunting, they couldn’t defend against a Dark Star or a Macroworld?

Lord Yuan Tian said, “Do you still think that Yan Wushen isn’t good enough for your sister?”

Both Supreme Saint Yuan Fei and Supreme Saint Yuan Li shook their heads.

There’s only one Yan Wushen who appeared in a Yuanhui period. He was in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, fighting against Banshi Isshou Realm. He was absolutely stunning.

No one in the Saint Realm could suppress Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen unless a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint appeared, just as Wargod Bloodximius had said.

Ghost Master’s body began to burn with spectral flame, he said, “I didn’t expect that Zhang Ruochen’s body was sealed with a Macroworld. When his body was hosting the Macroworld, he shouldn’t have reached the Supreme Saint Realm. How did he do it?”

Many gods helped Zhang Ruochen to hide the secrets of heaven. The Ghost Master couldn't figure out the secrets hidden in Zhang Ruochen's body.

Besides, there were marks of gods on the wall of Zhang Ruochen's sea of Qi. Ordinary gods couldn't find the secrets in his sea of Qi even if they captured him. At most, they could only kill him.

Asurendra Barasingha narrowed his eyes, he said to himself, "With only the Five-element Chaotic Body, he couldn't possibly host a Macroworld in the Saint King Realm. Did Zhang Ruochen inherit Saint Monk Xumi's mantle and possess the Canon of Dimension in his body? Yes, that must be it."

Yan Wushen was able to absorb the Dark Elemental and host a Dark Star. He possessed the Half-Buddha Physique and had used the power of the Six Paths of Reincarnation Saintwill to succeed.

Luo Shengtian was able to refine the two lively Divine Planets into his eyes because he had a pair of natural-born with divine eyes. The so-called divine eyes were no different from the eyes of gods. There was a huge space inside.

Even so, the two planets that were comparable to stars were sealed layer by layer.

The reason why Luo Shengtian was so powerful was that when he was born, his mother, Amane, had already ascended to godhood. A god's flesh and blood were born with divine blood, divine bones, and even a divine soul.

Furthermore, Luo Shengtian's father was a great emperor of the Rakshasas.

For example, the children of two humans would be humans.

Even if the children of two gods were not gods, the heights they could reach in the future would be extraordinary.

This was why many cultivators only had children after becoming gods, or after transcending a Yuanhui Tribulation.

The stronger they were, the stronger their children would naturally be.

Female gods' children were on a completely different level than male gods' children.

The children of female gods were born with divine blood, divine bones, and divine souls. They were basically born with Divine Embryo, just like the offspring of a divine beast. As long as they weren't too useless, their future achievements would at least be at the level of a pseudo god.

However, every time a female god gave birth to a child, her cultivation would be greatly damaged. She might only have one or two children in her lifetime.

Furthermore, the children she gave birth to were too weak and didn't have complete consciousness. They couldn't control the power in their bodies. The divine-level power would be sealed. Only when they reached the Supreme Saint Realm would it gradually be released.

The same goes for Luo Shengtian and Luo Sha.

When Zhang Ruochen was hosting a Macroworld, he had neither a Demigod-level physique nor was a son of a female deity. He was not unique at all. Why was he so heaven-defying?

Other than the Canon of Dimension, Asurendra Barasingha could not think of any other possibilities.

Que descended into the void alone. He looked at Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen, who were fighting, and a trace of confusion appeared in his eyes.

Que's master had taught him that he had nothing to lose. He could sweep the entire world alone with just a sword.

When his cultivation reached a certain level, he would even abandon his sword and truly become the only one in the world.

"Each has their own path, each has their own journey," Que muttered.

Que's sword quickly cut off the confusion in his eyes. He left the void decisively. He made up his mind that he would never appear unless he cultivated the perfect Grade Two Saintwill.

...

...

The Power of Darkness of the third Dark Star could cover millions of miles in the starry sky. In the void, although it only covered thousands of miles, it was still very terrifying.

Zhang Ruochen's body seemed to have turned into a colorful stone. It shone with five-colored light. With the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, he controlled the power of the Qiankun Realm and turned the world of darkness upside down.

It was like an endless black ocean that was constantly shattered by the five-colored light.

The Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill was the Saintwill of Zhang Ruochen's six paths.

The Six Paths of Reincarnation Saintwill was the Saintwill of Yan Wushen's five paths. It included the "Origin", "Dimension", and "Darkness" of the Ancient Paths.

To construct The Six Paths of Reincarnation, "Dimension" was the foundation, "Origin" was the essence of everything, "Darkness" was death, "Buddha" was creation, and "Nether River" was flow and change, and lastly, "Yama" ruled the six paths.

Now, other than the Deva Path of Yama, the other five paths had already merged into one.

This battle pitted Zhang Ruochen against Yan Wushen. It resulted from a collision between a Dark Star and a Macroworld. It was also a collision between two paths.

Rumble

Zhang Ruochen mobilized more and more power from the Macroworld. The light on his body became brighter as if he was about to melt. He punched through the darkness and sent Yan Wushen flying. Blood spewed out of his mouth.

The power of this palm could reach the level of a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint.

“Again!”

Yan Wushen roared. He activated The Six Paths of Reincarnation again and crashed into Zhang Ruochen.

Yan Wushen pushed the power of the Dark Star to the extreme and reached the strongest state he could control. He broke through Zhang Ruochen’s Yin Yang Five-Element Taiji Mark and sent Zhang Ruochen flying thousands of miles.

It was as if he had been hit by a Dark Star.

Zhang Ruochen’s body kept cracking as if he was going to be smashed into pieces.

But surprisingly, his body recovered very quickly and took the hit head-on.

Yan Wushen’s strength was finally exhausted.

Zhang Ruochen seized the opportunity and launched a counterattack. He punched again and again, hitting Yan Wushen’s chest like a string of pearls.

Bang Bang

Yan Wushen’s chest caved in. Blood gushed out, and his ribs and internal organs were shattered. In the end, he was pierced through by Zhang Ruochen, and his spine was broken.

The shattered flesh and blood turned into particles of Origin and condensed back to build a complete body.

Zhang Ruochen’s face turned solemn. After fusing the Dark Elemental and the fifth type of Saintwill, Yan Wushen’s recovery ability had become so powerful.

If this battle continued, it would probably drag on until everyone was devoured by the void. That was the end.

Yan Wushen obviously realized this too. His eyes were as black as ink. He used his spiritual power to pierce through the void and roared, “Zhang Ruochen, after fighting for so long, how much have you learned about the yin yang five elements?”

“Nothing,” said Zhang Ruochen as he shook his head.

Yan Wushen said, “If you weren’t in a life and death situation, how can you understand The Six Paths of Reincarnation? This is it, this attack will determine your life and death. Are you ready for it?”

“Yes. How could I communicate with heaven and earth and comprehend the true meaning of the yin yang five elements if I wasn’t in a life-or-death situation? Let’s see if you can really force me into a life-or-death situation in the last attack. Please allow me to see the future of the great path of yin and yang and the integration of the five elements,” Zhang Ruochen stated.

“Come forth, Dark Star.”

A strange mark appeared between Yan Wushen’s brows. The Dark Qi surged out like ink, forming a light screen with a diameter of 10,000 kilometers.

It was like a black mirror standing in front of Yan Wushen.

A terrifying sense of danger enveloped Zhang Ruochen’s entire body.

The light screen in front of him was like a door of death. It was desperately pulling him, causing his body to be in pain and slightly deformed.

With a loud boom, the enormous Dark Star flew out of Yan Wushen’s sea of Qi and rushed hundreds of miles on the black light screen. It looked like a crescent moon in the shape of a fishhook.

Only one-tenth of the original body of the Dark Star had appeared. However, the energy waves that Yan Wushen had released were far stronger than before.

Crack

Yan Wushen’s Half-Buddha Physique could not withstand the power of the Dark Star, and a crack appeared between his eyebrows.

One-tenth of the Dark Star rushed out again.

CRACK! CRACK!

Several more cracks appeared between Yan Wushen's brows, and fresh blood flowed out.

...

The divine figures in the distance were all shocked and bewildered.

"What is he doing? is he going to summon the Dark Star out of his sea of Qi? Can he control such terrifying power? Is he not afraid that the Dark Star will kill him instead?" Blood Empress said.

Just because a person could carry a huge rock that weighed hundreds of kilograms did not mean that he could use it as a weapon in battle.

If he could not use it, he would be crushed to death.

More and more Dark Stars rushed out. Yan Wushen's power had exceeded to the extent that an advanced stage Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint could not reach. However, Yan Wushen's entire body was covered in cracks. His skin became like a spider web. It was a terrifying sight as if it would shatter at any moment.

"Take a hit from my Dark Star. I'll crush your body and Saint Soul and destroy both your body and soul."

Yan Wushen shouted. Using The Six Paths of Reincarnation, he controlled half of the Dark Star to suppress Zhang Ruochen.

The third Dark Star was as heavy as hundreds of thousands of planets. Even though it was only half of its original size, it still sent out waves of Qi that forced the Power of Oblivion to retreat temporarily.

Zhang Ruochen stared straight ahead. What he saw was not a star, but boundless darkness.

A great fear, power, and momentum rolled toward him.

If he could not block it, he would definitely turn into dust.

“Qiankun Realm, lend me your power,” Zhang Ruochen shouted.

Streams of power and Qi from the Qiankun Realm in his sea of Qi rushed into Zhang Ruochen’s body.

The five-colored brilliance on Zhang Ruochen’s body multiplied several times. He took the initiative to move forward. He lifted the Yin Yang Five-Element Taiji Mark with his palms and attacked the boundless darkness.

Even the gods stared at him without blinking.

Victory and defeat were decided in an instant. Today, one peerless genius would die, and the other would ride the wind and become the hottest rising star in the entire Infernal Court.

Who would be alive?

Boom

As soon as he collided with the Dark Star, Zhang Ruochen’s arms exploded and turned into two clouds of blood mist. Only white bones were left. Even the Armor of the Fire God was eroded by the Power of Darkness.

Immediately after, blood-red cracks appeared on Zhang Ruochen’s neck, head, chest, and legs.

“Has Zhang Ruochen lost?” Supreme Saint Yuan Fei asked.

Yuan Shu calmed herself down and said, “The power of the Dark Star attacks Zhang Ruochen, but it also backfires on Yan Wushen. It’s still unknown who will live and who will die.”

Lord Yuan Tian said, “If Zhang Ruochen doesn’t have any other means, he’ll most likely die.”

Boom

Zhang Ruochen’s arms were completely broken. His bones turned into powder. He could only rely on his body to resist the crushing power of the Dark Star.

Yan Wushen roared, “Die!”

Yan Wushen’s body was shattered, and the Dark Star rushed out a bit more. Its power was even stronger.

Although his body was shattered, strands of dark Qi connected it. It could be said that it was connected to death.

Just when all the cultivators thought that Zhang Ruochen would die for sure.

Whoosh

A Dimensional Gate opened between Zhang Ruochen's brows. World tree branches flew out and clashed with the Dark Star.

"It's the Divine Sky-connecting Tree," the Ghost Master shouted. His eyes were wide open.

Kunlun's spirit root was the Divine Sky-connecting Tree. It was one of the universe's oldest living things. The aura alone was enough for the old gods to recognize it.

"The Divine Sky-connecting Tree is dead," said Wargod Bloodximius. "That's just a sapling from a dead root."

The Ghost Master was unpredictable. Even a sapling of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree made him drool.

Rumble

The branches of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree kept rushing out of the Dimensional Gate. They crashed into the Dark Star and stopped it.

Zhang Ruochen's body couldn't withstand such a powerful force. It kept shattering, but he still gritted his teeth. He put his palms together and roared, "Come out, Qiankun Realm, suppress the six paths and destroy reincarnation."

The light from the Dimensional Gate surged. A corner of the world rushed out from the inside and collided with the Dark Star.

The two collided. Black and white light intertwined, and energy burst out.

After a long time, the void returned to calm.

"Who won?" Supreme Saint Yuan Fei asked.

Supreme Saint Yuan Fei looked over. How could he see Zhang Ruochen's shadow?

There was only one Dark Star floating in the void. It gave off terrifying dark waves.

“It seems that Yan Wushen is the one who has reached the peak of this era,” Supreme Saint Yuan Li said.

Yuan Shu shook her head and said, “Yan Wushen’s aura has completely disappeared. Only Zhang Ruochen is left in this world.”

Zhang Ruochen walked to the top of the Dark Star, step by step, under everyone’s stunned gaze. Step by step, his broken body condensed again. Even the gods were astounded by his ability to recover.

Wargod Bloodximus’s tense face finally relaxed. He let out a long laugh. “Today, my grandson, Zhang Ruochen, is the best in the world. No one can compete with him. Wu Qingzong, are you convinced?”

Wu Qingzong displayed the bearing of a god. “In a life-and-death battle, life and death are acknowledged. Zhang Ruochen won with his true ability. He should be the pride of the world.”

On the day of Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha’s engagement, he killed Yan Wushen and became the best in this Yuanhui period. He was a world-shaking talent and extremely strong combat strength. The news quickly spread to all realms of the Celestial Court and the ten clans of Infernal Court, making the proud sons of heaven of his generation dim.

Chapter 2423: Return From War

Wargod Bloodximius and Blood Empress flew to the top of the dark star at once.

Blood Empress was concerned. She grabbed Zhang Ruochen's right wrist and mobilized divine force and blood Qi into him. It continues to help him heal his injuries and dissolve the dark power that had invaded his body.

Yan Wushen's last attack was terrifying. His power had almost reached the level of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

Wargod Bloodximius was floating mid-air with his hands behind his back. His temperament was imposing but he wasn't angry. He was observing Zhang Ruochen and discovered that Zhang Ruochen's eyes were red and evil Qi was overflowing from his body. Five-element Chaotic saint Qi in his body had turned into blood force. Zhang Ruochen was in a state of bedevilment.

The aura of humans was almost completely devoured by the aura of Immortal Vampires.

Wargod Bloodximius didn't mind if Zhang Ruochen had completely become an Immortal Vampire.

However, he was worried that Zhang Ruochen's mind and will weren't compatible with Immortal Vampires. If Zhang Ruochen was forcefully changed, he wouldn't become an Immortal Vampire, but a crazy demon who had lost his mind.

"He refined Pale Blood Soil. He can heal himself no matter how serious his injuries are. However, his inner demon has completely erupted and occupied his mind. The most important thing now is to send him to Fortune Palace. Only Path of Destiny can suppress his inner demon." Wargod Bloodximius didn't keep quiet about it, he deliberately let the surrounding gods hear him.

Blood Empress was shocked. She said telepathically, "Send him to Fortune Palace and let Path of Destiny suppress the inner demon in his body? No, absolutely not."

Blood Empress had once summoned Zhang Ruochen's soul and helped him fuse with his body from his previous life. She knew that there were many secrets in his body that could not be known to outsiders.

Wargod Bloodximius knew Blood Empress's worries, "I know that Zhang Ruochen must have an incredible treasure in his body. But a deity wouldn't be interested in the things of a junior. Even the seedling of Divine Sky-connecting Tree, Qiankun Realm, and the fallen Sundial are nothing in the eyes of a deity."

Blood Empress still didn't agree, Wargod Bloodximius said again, "The inner demon corrodes the spiritual will. Outsiders can't help at all. Only Path of Destiny can suppress it. If we don't want Zhang Ruochen to fall into the abyss of the inner demon, we have no choice... Eh..."

Wargod Bloodximius was suddenly surprised. He looked at Zhang Ruochen again.

Zhang Ruochen's blood-red eyes faded slightly.

The bloodlines on the ten golden wings gradually disappeared. They were no longer as evil as before.

"Chen'er's spiritual will is strong. The inner demon has been suppressed by him,"

Blood Empress was overjoyed. She released her spiritual power and turned into dense light spots like fireflies, enveloping Zhang Ruochen's body.

The spiritual power of a god could affect a Supreme Saint's inner demon to a certain extent.

She cried softly, "Wake up."

These two words contained Blood Empress' entire life of spiritual power. It was like a heavenly incantation, shaking Zhang Ruochen's sea of consciousness and deterring the demonic barrier in his heart. All the distracting thoughts dispersed.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes gradually regained clarity. The chaotic power surrounding his body was all absorbed into his body.

"Chen'er!" Blood Empress called out softly.

Zhang Ruochen turned his head and stared at Blood Empress as if he had returned from a daze. He hesitated for a moment and said, "Mother, where is this place?"

Blood Empress narrowed her eyes and asked doubtfully, "You don't remember anything from before?"

Zhang Ruochen thought about it carefully and shook his head gently.

Blood Empress said, "Your consciousness was invaded by the inner demon. Then a life-and-death battle broke out between you and Yan Wushen. This is the void space."

"A life-and-death battle? I remember... Today is the day Princess Luo Sha and I are engaged. How could the inner demon suddenly invade? What about the inner demon now? Was it suppressed by mother and grandfather?"

Zhang Ruochen's eyes were puzzled. As he spoke, he coughed violently. His entire body was weak and he couldn't even maintain his Hundred-Shackle Realm cultivation. He looked like he was about to fall.

He quickly looked at his insides and found that his body was covered in wounds.

His blood, Saint Meridians, Meridians, internal organs, bones, even his Sainthood Source, sea of Qi, and Saint Soul all had dense and tiny cracks. The cracks contained the purest Power of Darkness, power of Origin, Buddha Might, and Yama Qi.

Power of Darkness was the strongest.

Blood Empress supported Zhang Ruochen and said, "You were the one who suppressed the inner demon. My spiritual power only helped a little."

“Where’s Yan Wushen?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Blood Empress said, “He’s dead.”

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen stood there for a long time. He looked around and let out a long sigh.

Wargod Bloodximius stood aside and looked at Zhang Ruochen carefully. His eyes were as deep as an endless pool of blood.

Logically speaking, it was impossible for him to recover his own strength after being corrupted by the inner demon. He knew that Zhang Ruochen had great perseverance.

However, some things couldn’t be endured with perseverance.

“Let’s go. This is not a place to talk. Let’s find a place to heal first. Otherwise, there will be hidden dangers that can never be cured,” said Wargod Bloodximius.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, “I can still bear the injuries. However, today is the day of the engagement. I must go immediately. I can not break my promise. Otherwise, it will damage the face of Fukurokuju and the royal family of Devala. It will also hurt Luo Sha.”

Finally, Wargod Bloodximius showed a satisfied look. He nodded and said, “Very good. Being responsible is the most basic thing a man should have. Let’s go!”

After Wargod Bloodximius, Blood Empress, and Zhang Ruochen left the void space, the shadow of Wu Qingzong appeared in the sky above the dark star. He stared at the star for a moment. Then, he rolled up his sleeve, took the dark star away, and disappeared.

“Two Yuanhui-level geniuses. One has fallen, and the other must soar to the sky and become the leader of this era. Zhang Ruochen, oh Zhang Ruochen.” Asurendra Barasingha sighed and gradually disappeared.

Ghost Master’s eyes changed. Then, he waved his sleeve, broke through the void space, and flew back to Divine Domain of Destiny.

Supreme Saint Yuanfei's eyes narrowed, "Zhang Ruochen killed Yan Wushen. His power has reached his peak. In his desperate state, he can almost challenge a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. It seems that only sister can take revenge for seventh brother."

Lord Yuan Tian was silent.

Yuan Shu's beautiful eyes were as bright as the stars in the sky. She stared at Supreme Saint Yuanfei and said, "Revenge? Why do you want revenge?"

Supreme Saint Yuanfei was stunned. He quickly said, "Seventh brother lost his life in Zhang Ruochen's hands. We have to take revenge. Zhang Ruochen has to bear the responsibility for Deathkin's failure on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. How can we let him off so easily?"

Yuan Shu patted Supreme Saint Yuanfei on the shoulder and said earnestly, "It's different now."

Supreme Saint Yuanfei only felt that Yuan Shu's palm was as heavy as a mountain. Every slap seemed to be able to shatter his Neverwither physique.

Just as it was about to land, all the power was withdrawn in an instant.

Yuan Shu said, "Zhang Ruochen's lot has been cast. Now, whoever dares to touch him in Infernal Court will definitely provoke Xue Jue Family and the royal family of Devala to take revenge. How many forces do you think can withstand their anger? Wu Qingzong has already chosen to remain silent. Why should we go against them? We can't afford to offend them."

Supreme Saint Yuanfei wanted to say something, but he hesitated. He wasn't willing to give up.

Lord Yuan Shu said, "The three slaps I gave you just now, each one of them is comparable to Zhang Ruochen's full-strength attack. Think carefully. Seventh brother was too weak, it was fate that he died on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Don't mention the word 'revenge' again. Be careful not to get yourself killed."

“Thank you for your teachings, sister.”

Supreme Saint Yuanfei cupped his hands and bowed slightly.

Yuan Shu nodded slightly, and said, “However, Zhang Ruochen is too outstanding and has too many treasures. He had been targeted by many forces. Although we don’t dare to touch him, there are still people who dare to. Whether or not he can become a god alive is still unknown.”

After the shadows of the gods disappeared.

Yan Yu and Lady Fu Xiang walked out with Dark Parasol of Obfuscatory in hand.

Their faces were still filled with surprise.

Lady Fu Xiang’s beauty was comparable to Yuan Shu, like a fairy in a painting, her red lips opened slightly. “Yan Wushen and Zhang Ruochen’s cultivation hasn’t reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm, yet they are so powerful. Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen killed Yan Wushen. Otherwise, I suspect that my arrow from 10,000 miles away might not have been able to kill him.”

Yan Yu was handsome and ethereal, “Lady Wind was assassinated by the gods of Avīci Pavilion. Yan Wushen died in the battle of life and death. I have a feeling that the peace of the various clans in Infernal Court will soon be broken. Zhang Ruochen might very well be the person standing in the center of the whirlpool.”

The various clans in Infernal Court!

It was not the ten clans of Infernal Court.

The ten clans in Infernal Court were only the ten largest clans that holds all the power. In addition, there were many small clans.

For example, Evarcha Culicivoras, Dracula Ant Clan, Calyptra Moth Clan, and so on were affiliated with Immortal Vampires.

Even among Immortal Vampires, there were more than ten great clans and countless small clans.

“Is that so? The good thing in these troubled times is that the strong will be born. Someone should have appeared to break the peace a long time ago. The Tower of Eminence, Afterglow Sprite Valley, the outer realm of the Searock Asterism¹, and the Cumulonimbus.

“I want to catch the stars in heaven, but the road to divinity is long. When can I expect it?” Lady Fu Xiang’s long hair fluttered in the wind. Carrying a crystal longbow, her figure of a meteor-like white light flew out of the void space.

Yan Yu followed closely.

There are very few under divinity who can enter and leave the void as they do.

....

....

Fortune Palace.

The representatives of the major forces were all shocked by the news of “The assassination of Lady Wind” and “The life-and-death battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen”.

“Avīci Pavilion is too impudent. They dare to assassinate the new Destiny Scioness. They are clearly provoking Fane of Destiny. In my opinion, we should mobilize all our forces, flatten them, and kill them all without mercy.”

“The Master of Avīci Pavilion is very secretive. His cultivation is unfathomable. It is said that he has beheaded a god.”

“What do you think Avīci Pavilion is trying to do by killing Kagesawa Fuurei?”

“Zhang Ruochen is also making a mess. He actually went to fight Yan Wushen on his engagement day. Isn’t he afraid of angering Reverend?”

“What’s there to be afraid of? If Zhang Ruochen dies in battle, Why would Reverend blame him? If Yan Wushen dies in battle, Zhang Ruochen will be the only supreme figure in this Yuanhui period. If so, Reverend won’t be too harsh on him.”

Wargod Bloodximius and Luo Yan had made friends all over the world. The representatives of the forces who had come to attend the engagement ceremony were numerous and all well-known. Without the cultivation of a Supreme Saint, they couldn't enter the outer hall of the palace.

The area that stretched for dozens of miles was brightly lit. Countless powerful figures had gathered.

Luo Sha was gorgeous while wearing a phoenix red brocade dress. Accompanied by dozens of Saint-level maids, she stood motionlessly in front of the palace. Her eyes were filled with worry while she looked into the endless darkness.

It was as if she had become a stone that's waiting for her partner.

News of the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen kept coming back.

"Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen have entered the void space. They're going to fight to the death."

After receiving this news, Luo Sha desperately wanted to rush over and stop the two from continuing the battle.

She knew very well that once they entered the void space to fight, the chances of them dying together were very high.

Unfortunately, because of the "New Scioness's death", the gods were summoned to Mount Destiny by Fukurokuju. Luo Sha wanted to enter the void space, but there was no way in.

Luo Sheng Tian brought an army and returned to Fortune Palace.

Luo Sha moved towards him and asked anxiously, "Is there any result?"

Luo Sheng Tian shrugged and spread his hands, "I can't enter the void space either. How can I know the fate of those two psychopaths? However, Yan Wushen's Path of Origin has a certain restraining effect on the void space. Fighting in the void space would give him a big advantage."

Luo Sha's heart sank.

Pan Ruo stood in the brightly lit courtyard, surrounded by people. However, she felt that she was the only one in the world. She was exceptionally cold and lonely.

When the news of Lady Wind's assassination came, she already knew what Zhang Ruochen wanted to do.

"Didn't you say that you've already cut off all ties? Why are you still doing this? Why? It's not worth it."

Pan Ruo's eyes were misty. She muttered, "You must come back alive! Otherwise... everything will be meaningless!"

After drinking a lot of wine, Warlord Mara staggered to Luo Sha and Luo Shengtian, he said with his tongue slurred, "Princess... Princess, I think Zhang Ruochen clearly doesn't care about you. If he... if he cares about you, how could he fight to the death on the day of the engagement? How about... How about marrying me instead?"

Luo Sha was nervous and worried. How could she care about him?

Luo Shengtian rolled his eyes. Even if my sister didn't marry Zhang Ruochen, how could you, Warlord Mara be worthy to marry her?

However, Warlord Mara's previous words hit the nail on the head. Zhang Ruochen had fought with Yan Wushen on the day of the engagement and left his sister and countless cultivators at the ceremony. He was indeed a bastard.

Even though his mother had sided with Zhang Ruochen and put in a good word for him, Luo Shengtian was still very dissatisfied.

Luo Shengtian let out a long breath of resentment, he said gently to Luo Sha, "Forget it. Let everyone go. Let's not talk about whether Zhang Ruochen will come back or not. Even if he wins, it will most likely be a pyrrhic victory. How would he come to the engagement?"

Luo Sha stood still, apparently not listening to him.

Luo Shengtian said again, "The new Scioness has fallen. Reverend and father must be busy with this matter. I'm afraid they won't be able to attend the engagement ceremony. Sister, there's no need to wait any longer!"

"Zhang Ruochen said that he will protect me for the rest of my life. He won't let me down. I believe him!" Luo Sha said firmly.

Luo Shengtian grinned and thought to himself, how could she believe such nonsense? His sister must have lost her mind because of Zhang Ruochen.

Swoosh!

The space shook violently.

A Dimensional Gate was torn open by the divine light.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the Dimensional Gate and appeared in front of Luo Sha. Although his face was pale, his posture was outstanding. He smiled and said, "Luo Sha, I'm here!"

Chapter 2424: At The Engagement Ceremony

The outer hall of Fortune Palace was covered with locks. No one could tear through the dimension except for the almighty gods.

As a result, the guests in the outer hall sensed the dimensional fluctuations and quickly surrounded that area.

The Dimensional Rift had disappeared, leaving only a handsome young man standing in front of Luo Sha. Although he looked injured all over, he exuded a heart-palpitating aura.

“Zhang Ruochen, it’s Zhang Ruochen. Doesn’t that mean...”

“Maybe Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen only decided the winner and didn’t fight to the death.”

“Yes, it must be so. If Yan Wushen dies, it will definitely shake the entire Yanluo clan. No, it will shake the entire Infernal Court. The news will spread to all sectors of Celestial Court.”

“Yan Wushen has just broken through the Dark Star and returned. He has triggered a strange phenomenon in the universe. His lifespan has increased, and he is blessed with great luck. How can he die?”

...

Countless voices rang out in the halls.

This too was the place where Pan Ruo and Yan Wushen are engaged. Why did they only see Zhang Ruochen but not Yan Wushen?

The voices of cultivators who did not believe that Yan Wushen would die at Zhang Ruochen’s hands became quieter. They looked at Zhang Ruochen with a strange gaze in their eyes.

Luo Sha bit her red lips and stared at Zhang Ruochen for a long time. Her eyes were misty. She looked like she was crying and smiling. "It's good that you're back. It's good that you're back... I thought you ran away from the marriage. Hehe..."

She said "It's good that you're back" instead of "It's good that you're here".

This meant that she cared more about whether Zhang Ruochen could come back alive than whether he could come to the engagement.

Luo Shengtian, who was standing at the side, didn't sense Yan Wushen's aura. He immediately understood the result of the battle. He wanted to scold Zhang Ruochen, but for some reason, the anger in his heart was filled with curiosity, surprise, confusion, and other emotions. Therefore, he didn't say a word.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng, who had returned early, stood in a corner of the ceremony with Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest, and Lord Samudra of Devala. They looked in the direction of the door.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng smiled like a spring breeze and said, "High Priest, Lord Samudra, I told you that Zhang Ruochen would definitely come. Will you believe me now? The disciples of Xue Jue family would never break their promise."

Black robe high priest frowned slightly. "Unfortunately, tonight's engagement ceremony... Sigh, perhaps fate has already been decided. It's not his fault."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng and Lord Samudra naturally understood why black robe high priest sighed.

Of the two engagement ceremonies, the one between Pan Ruo and Yan Wushen was also grand. There were many guests who came, but the betrothed had died. The engagement ceremony naturally couldn't go on.

It was supposed to be a happy occasion but turned out a funeral.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng and Lord Samudra looked at each other and smiled. Yan Wushen's death wouldn't conflict with their interests anyway. Zhang Ruochen's return was a happy occasion.

They should smile more on happy days.

It wasn't just them. The entire outer hall of Fortune Palace was filled with both joy and sorrow. Yanluo clan and the cultivators from the upper three clans who had come to attend the engagement ceremony gathered in North Wing. The atmosphere here was gloomy. Everyone looked at Pan Ruo with complicated expressions and softly shook their heads.

They all felt that Pan Ruo was too miserable. Although she hadn't become Destiny Scioness, being able to marry a Yuanhui-level elite wasn't bad either.

But fate had toyed with her. Something this sad had happened on the day of the engagement.

"Zhang Ruochen has gone too far."

"Since he ruined his junior Pan Ruo's engagement ceremony, let's go ruin his too."

"The god's favorite of Yanluo clan mustn't die in vain!"

The cultivators were filled with righteous indignation and rushed toward South Wing.

Swoosh

Pan Ruo's figure appeared in front of them. Her body emitted a dazzling radiance of destiny. She called out, "What are you doing? Are you trying to cause trouble in Fortune Palace?"

A Supreme Saint of Fane of Destiny walked out from the crowd. He said angrily, "Pan Ruo, Zhang Ruochen's actions tonight have put you in the most embarrassing situation. It's intolerable."

"Yes, we must all be in an uproar."

...

The disturbance grew louder and louder, reaching the ears of Supreme Saint Qingsheng, Lord Samudra, and Fortune

Palace's Black Robe High Priest.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng and Lord Samudra's expressions turned cold.

Without the gods, they were the greatest here.

They dare to cause trouble in front of them. Did they really think there's no one in Xue Jue Family and Devala?

Seeing that the situation wasn't good, black robe high priest quickly said, "We're in Fortune Palace after all, let me handle this!"

"Thanks, appreciate it." Supreme Saint Qingsheng snorted.

Lord Samudra said, "It's best for High Priest to handle it."

After Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest arrived in North Wing, he quickly suppressed the cultivators of Yanluo clan and the upper three clans. The noise gradually died down.

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha walked hand in hand into the center of South Wing in the outer hall. They came to a Yuanhui-level ancient tree and bathed in a white rain of light. There were cultivators who came up to congratulate them from time to time.

"Liu Shen of Mystic Blood Sea. Under the orders of Ethergod Tartarus, I have brought three carriages of sacred medicine, one Quasi-Emperor Grade Blood Pill, and ten pieces of Saint Dragon Skin. Congratulations to Master Ruochen and Princess Luo Sha on their marriage and eternal love."

Supreme Saint Xueqi stood aside and whispered to Zhang Ruochen, "Mystic Blood Sea is one of the seven blood seas of Bloodysky Clan. Ethergod Tartarus is the leader of Mystic Blood Sea and has been famous for hundred thousands of years. Liu Shen is his emissary."

This one clan from Bloodysky Clan was comparable to the top 100 powerful realms of Celestial Court. There were many gods developed there.

Ethergod Tartarus was a giant in the entire universe. He was on equal footing with Wargod Bloodximius.

For such a big figure to send an emissary to deliver gifts, showed the importance of the marriage between Zhang Ruochen and Princess Luo Sha.

Zhang Ruochen had seen Liu Shen before. He was one of the participating cultivators of Bloodysky Clan in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. With his initial cultivation of Hundred-Shackle Realm, he was able to become Ethergod Tartarus's emissary. From this, it could be seen how the first place of Immortal Vampires against the ten clans had such a huge impact on these participating cultivators. It had almost changed their lives.

Liu Shen admired Zhang Ruochen extremely. He was very respectful standing in front of Zhang Ruochen. He didn't act like an emissary at all. Instead, he looked like a soldier looking at his commander.

"Emperor Canghu of Teal Blood Sea, under the orders of Ethergod Ptah, has given you a box of Godstone and ten herbs of Yuanhui level sacred medicine. Congratulations to Master Ruochen and Princess Luo Sha for your uniting and promising eternal love.

Another cultivator of Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

"Armageddon Blood Sea..."

...

Xueqi was a Supreme Saint of Hundred-Shackle Realm. He knew all Infernal Court's famous figures in the back of his hand. He stood beside Zhang Ruochen and introduced them one by one.

He used to dislike Zhang Ruochen, but now he admired Zhang Ruochen.

"Fang Mofeng, Mo Cuo, and Yan Hanyu have come to congratulate you under the order of Fane of Meteorite's lord."

Fane of Meteorite was ranked lower than the other major Fanes of Asura. It was only ranked 18th, but it was still considered an overlord.

In Infernal Court, whether it was the gods or Saint-level cultivators, they mostly befriended cultivators from the same clan. Just like in Kunlun's field, there were humans, dragons, and cats... However, most of the cultivators with the deepest relationships were still in their own clans.

Fane of Meteorite's lord, one of the 24 Asura Fanes, had personally sent his disciples to the engagement ceremony between Zhang Ruochen and Princess Luo Sha. It was undoubtedly a signal of friendship and closeness. It was of great significance.

Almost all the major forces of Immortal Vampires and Rakshasa had sent representatives to the engagement ceremony. They accounted for more than 70% of all cultivators. In addition, Ghosts, Stone Clan, Corpusian, Bone Clan, and Asura had sent representatives of various forces to congratulate them. The Fane of Meteorite was the most typical representative, and rank among the top forces of Asura.

The Ancient God of Knowledge of Yanluo Clan also sent an emissary to deliver gifts.

Only Nether Clan and Deathkin didn't send any cultivators. Even if they did, they would gather in South Wing to attend Yan Wushen and Pan Ruo's engagement ceremony.

Xue Chen, Xue Ningxiao, and the other cultivators of Xue Jue Family received generous gifts from all parties. They were all struck in astonishment.

It was just an engagement ceremony, but all the major forces had sent so many gifts. Wouldn't it be even more amazing when the day of the official wedding arrived?

Is this what happens when the wedding is arranged by Lord Reverend?

Was this the influence of the marriage between the two major forces?

Luo Sha had many close friends. There was the princess of the Divine Kingdom, the daughters of the gods, and the favored women of the top forces in Infernal Court. All of them were stunning and couldn't be compared with ordinary beauties.

After parting with them, Luo Sha quietly came to Zhang Ruochen's side and whispered, "It's just an engagement ceremony. You should rest first. I'll deal with them."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head slightly and said, "As long as I don't fight with others, my injuries won't worsen."

Luo Sha wanted to persuade him again, but she saw more than ten graceful and moving figures walking over with a fragrant wind and pleasant laughter. They were the close friends of her childhood.

Feng Qingli was the disciple of Amane. Her spiritual power had reached the peak of 66th level. Although she was Rakshasi, she wasn't coquettish. She was elegant and holy.

She speculated Zhang Ruochen carefully for a moment. "Yan Wushen is dead?"

"Yes."

Zhang Ruochen was also looking at Feng Qingli. Like the other Rakshasi girls, she was very tall. Even in multiple layers of clothing, one could still see her amazing curves.

Zhang Ruochen only glanced at her casually, but it made Feng Qingli unhappy. "You've only been in Infernal Court for a short time, but there are already many rumors about you."

After a pause, she continued, "Mostly bad rumors. After the engagement, treat my junior well. If you dare to betray her, you'll die a horrible death."

She seemed to be deliberately trying to intimidate Zhang Ruochen. When she said this, her spiritual power burst out invisibly.

Zhang Ruochen saw all kinds of horrifying images suddenly. There were images of his body being cut open, images of Lord Xia Yu, Lian Xi, and other women's souls dissipating... These images seemed to be real and invaded Zhang Ruochen's heart.

It had to be said that Feng Qingli's spiritual power was very terrifying. It was far superior to Wu Jiang and Kymorpho.

A woman in red giggled. She waved her sheer-like sleeves and dispersed Feng Qingli's spiritual power, "Qingli, Master Ruochen just came back from a life-and-death battle. He's seriously injured, yet you're so strict. If you don't feel sorry for him, my little Sha Sha will! Am I right?"

"Agree, your spiritual power is so strong. After all, Master Ruochen is only in Hundred-Shackle Realm. Even if he's not injured, he probably won't be able to withstand it. Not to say that he's still injured now. If he makes a fool of himself, he'll lose our sister's face," a charming voice chuckled.

Luo Sha stole a glance at Zhang Ruochen. Seeing that he wasn't angry, she breathed a sigh of relief.

She knew very well which of her close friends were real and which were fake. Clearly, there were many b*tches among them.

Luo Sha faked a smile and said, "Zhang Ruochen has killed a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint Celestial Captive in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting before. You'd better not provoke him. Be careful of being beaten up by him. I won't help make peace."

The woman with a charming voice was the representative. Many of her close friends were sneering.

Lord Hornless was indeed a Supreme Saint of Banshi Isshou Realm. However, not only was his spiritual power sealed but his hands were bound by divine chains. He was also heavily injured. When he was killed by Zhang Ruochen, his battle strength wasn't even comparable to a Supreme Saint at the peak of Thousand-Koan Realm.

The woman with a soft and charming voice was Princess Qi of Beyond Ancient Divine Kingdom, one of the seven great Rakshasan Divine Kingdoms. Her cultivation had reached the peak of Thousand-Koan Realm. Therefore, she didn't have much respect for Zhang Ruochen, the so-called Yuanhui-level genius.

Even if Lord Hornless was in his peak state, she was confident that she could kill him.

Luo Sha's group of close friends was all extraordinary and beautiful. Many of them had a high cultivation base.

Unfortunately, Zhang Ruochen didn't have a good impression of them. After Luo Sha introduced them, Zhang Ruochen found an excuse and left decisively.

Princess Qi was wearing a luxurious robe made of a hundred saint flowers' petals. She was gorgeous like a flower fairy. She walked to Luo Sha's side and held her wrist. She said in a delicate voice, "Sister, I think this Yuanhui-level genius is just so-so. It's a pity that you have to marry him!"

Beside her, a goddess of noble status said sarcastically, "I didn't expect that with sister's talent, you too wouldn't be able to escape the fate of arranged marriage. After being attacked by Qingli's spiritual power, he didn't even dare to say a word. It must be because of the human blood in his body that he was so weak.

"After all, Zhang Ruochen's cultivation is quite low. He'll be the one at a disadvantage if he fights with a Supreme Saint of spiritual power at the peak of the 66th level. If it were me, I'd choose to hide too. Hehe."

"It's said that Zhang Ruochen's ranking in Tome of the Divines is very low. It's very likely that he won't be able to become a god. Poor sister."

Luo Sha kept smiling. She had been trying to control her emotions and didn't want to ruin the festive atmosphere of the engagement ceremony. However, the more they talked, the more furious she became. She couldn't control her anger anymore.

At this moment, the ceremony was filled with exclamations.

"Is this for real? Is this possible? Is there a macroworld inside him?"

"How can it be fake? At that time, many important figures entered the void space to watch the battle. The news has already spread!"

"He's only in Hundred-Shackle Realm, yet his battle prowess is so strong that he can suppress a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint. This is unheard of. This is too terrifying. I'm afraid that only the two of them have such capabilities."

...

As the cultivators discussed, they looked at Zhang Ruochen with even more respect.

Princess Qi, Feng Qingli, and other close friends knew that they were discussing the details of the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen through voice transmission. They were all shocked after getting a general understanding.

They looked at Zhang Ruochen again, not daring to underestimate him.

This Yuanhui-level genius was more powerful than they had imagined. It seemed that they couldn’t treat him as a normal Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint.

Chapter 2425: Guye

Zhang Ruochen ignored the discussions and stares of the crowd. He sat on a chair and closed his eyes to recuperate. He recalled the battle with Yan Wushen and tries to comprehend what he had experienced.

Although he has been invaded by his inner demon, his rationality had not completely disappeared at that time.

It was The Heart of Truth that had helped him preserve his last shred of clarity.

After the battle ended, Zhang Ruochen recovered with The Heart of Truth when Wargod Bloodximius planned to go Fortune Palace and ask Reverend to suppress his inner devil with Path of Destiny.

However, after the assassination of Lady Wind by Avīci Pavilion, the life-and-death battle between him and Yan Wushen happened at the same time. It was inevitable that people would suspect the connection between the two events. Therefore, Zhang Ruochen played along and pretended that he didn't know what happened, he blamed everything on his inner demons.

In the fight with Yan Wushen, Zhang Ruochen was unprecedentedly free and unrestrained. He was like a dragon soaring in the sky, displaying what he had learned in his life to his heart's content. He had a lot of enlightenment and needed to digest it carefully.

“Even if I can hide it from others, I couldn't be able to hide it from Grandpa.”

Zhang Ruochen heart trembled slightly after carefully recalling the look in the eyes of Wargod Bloodximius. He felt that those eyes seemed to have the power to see through all mysteries.

Rustle.

A faint fragrance wafted over.

There was a faint sound of footsteps.

Zhang Ruochen did not look back or release his spiritual power. However, a picturesque figure automatically appeared in his mind. She was dressed in red, her clothes fluttering in the wind. Her face was hidden in the illusion. Her posture was hidden between precepts of heaven and earth, like a gust of wind and Qi.

She was like a red dress walking without a body.

However, her posture was real.

“Master Ruochen, have you heard of Tome of the Divines?”
Guye Jing said from behind him.

The voice was like a young girl’s, cheerful and pleasant to the ear. It was also like a child’s voice, clear and innocent. If you mused for some time, her voice was like it had experienced boundless secular world and was full of life experiences.

It was just a simple question, but it gave Zhang Ruochen many wonderful feelings.

In Zhang Ruochen’s eyes, among Luo Sha’s close friends, she was the most powerful one. He could not see through her cultivation. Besides that, she could disperse Feng Qingli’s spiritual power attack with one sleeve. It proved that her strength was above Feng Qingli’s.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Of course, I’ve heard of it. It’s one of the six Heavenly Tome of Destiny in Fane of Destiny. Legend has it that the name of every cultivator in the world who has a 10% chance of becoming a god will appear on it automatically.”

“Tome of the Divines has grades A, B, C, and D. Grade A is the best. More than 70% of cultivators who can enter this grade could become a god. Master Ruochen is ranked 87th in Grade D. The probability of becoming a god is less than 20%.”

Guye Jing slowly said while reaching 10 feet away from Zhang Ruochen.

The faint fragrance was getting stronger.

Zhang Ruochen was not very interested in Tome of the Divines. He did not think that this Heavenly Tome was really that bizarre. How could a mere scroll of Heavenly Tome contain the entire universe's information in it?

However, he was still a little surprised when he heard that his ranking on Tome of the Divines was so low.

Guye Jing quietly smiled and said, "It's really incredible that a world-shaking Yuanhui-level genius is only Grade D."

The laughter did not have a hint of mockery.

It was as if she was curious and interested.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Yes, it's unbelievable."

"The ranking of Tome of the Divines is not fixed. The probability of becoming a god will gradually increase if you can make up for your own shortcomings and treat the problem right," Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen understood that this was her purpose.

He said, "Based on Fairy Guye's opinion, what flaws do I have to make up for?"

"Don't call me a fairy. You can call me demoness," Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen finally raised his head and glanced at her. His heart jumped in fear.

He saw red clouds in the sky. Strands of demonic Qi twisted inside the red sheer. He couldn't see her face clearly. He could only feel the bone-piercing coldness and the despairing aura of death.

The aura of death was stronger than Ghost, Deathkin, Bone clan, and Deathkin Supreme Saints.

Earlier, Luo Sha had introduced Guye Jing. Luo Sha said that she came from the Rāhu Mountains. Legend had it that it was the most dangerous place in Rakshasa.

After the death of Rāhu, the Demon Patriarch, his body collapsed and condensed into a realm.

Guye Jing said, "Inner demon! I heard that you went to fight Yan Wushen because you lost your mind after being invaded by your inner demon. Your inner demon has become the biggest obstacle on your path to divinity."

Zhang Ruochen was very calm. He said, "Can you help me get rid of my inner demon?"

"If you go to the Rāhu Mountains with me, it won't be difficult to get rid of your inner demon," Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a moment and said, "What price do I have to pay?"

"I heard that Master Ruochen has a lot of Demonstone Engraving. I want to borrow them to study for a while," Guye Jing said.

So she was here for Demonstone Engraving.

Zhang Ruochen neither admitted that he had the Demonstone Engraving nor denied it, "The Rāhu Mountains is an amazing place. It must contain countless demonic techniques. I think the cultivation techniques that you're cultivating are not inferior to Demonstone Engraving."

Guye Jing could understand Zhang Ruochen's tactful refusal, "The techniques I cultivate are called Nekromanteia Portrait. They are indeed not inferior to Demonstone Engraving. However, my ranking on Tome of the Divines is far from Xuemo."

"Xuemo?"

Zhang Ruochen thought for a while and said, "Is his ranking on Tome of the Divines very high?"

"Second in Grade A," Gu Shejing said.

Zhang Ruochen suddenly understood.

Xuemo had cultivated a little more than a thousand years only, but he was able to rank so high on Tome of the Divines with the cultivation in Hundred-Shackle Realm. Everyone would naturally attribute all of this to Demonstone Engraving.

They thought that it was because he cultivated nine engravings at the same time.

Zhang Ruochen sighed, “You must have checked me since you know my ranking on Tome of the Divines. Well then, you should know that it was a matter of my previous life that I was once a cultivator in Kunlun’s field. In my previous life, I had already fallen. Even if I had Demonstone Engraving, I would have lost it.”

“Master Ruochen, you don’t have to reject yet. You can think about it. The Rāhu Mountains really has a way to help you get rid of your inner demon.”

After Guye Jing left, she suddenly said “Let me remind you, the first in Grade A of Tome of the Divines is Yuan Qianmo. He has a close relationship with Yan Zhexian.”

The fragrance disappeared, and she was gone.

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that his inner demon was indeed a hindrance to his path to divinity. However, since The Heart of Truth could help him block his inner demon, he didn’t have to worry too much at the moment.

Besides, Wargod Bloodximius had once said that Path of Destiny could suppress the inner demon.

Zhang Ruochen was planning to spend more energy comprehending the Path of Destiny. It was used to deal with inner demons as well as to be ready to accept the Canon of Destiny.

Path of Destiny was not strong enough to withstand Canon of Destiny.

This was probably the reason why Fukurokuju had not given him 30 percent of Canon of Destiny.

As for what Guye Jing had said before she left, Zhang Ruochen didn’t take it personally.

That was because Zhang Ruochen planned to cultivate in seclusion for the next period of time.

First, to heal his injuries.

Second, to break through the full strength of Yin-yang Five-Elements Saintwill.

Third, to break through the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Once he reached the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm, the power of Demigod-level physique would be fully released. At that time, Zhang Ruochen might not be invincible under divinity, but he didn't have to fear anyone else.

"Yuan Qianmo! I hope he's not a calculative person as he's someone who got first place in Grade A in Tome of the Divines." Zhang Ruochen did not want to have a strong enemy out of nowhere.

If Yan Wushen heard Zhang Ruochen's words, the coffin would not be able to hold him down, "You call this calculative? You've fought me to death when it's just a marriage bestowed by Reverend. Now, you have made Yan Zhexian pregnant. Why can't Yuan Qianmo kill you to appease his hatred?"

Luo Sha walked over with a smile and asked curiously, "What did Jing say to you?"

"She wants to borrow Demonstone Engraving," Zhang Ruochen said straightforwardly.

Luo Sha understood how much Zhang Ruochen valued the inheritance of Kunlun's field. How could he let it pass to the cultivators of Infernal Court? So she said, "I'll talk to her."

"No need. I've already rejected her," Zhang Ruochen said.

Luo Sha said, "You don't know her. She will take what she wants at any cost. Fortunately, I can still talk to her. Maybe I can dispel her thoughts."

Zhang Ruochen didn't stop her.

Luo Sha's identity was indeed extraordinary. Her father was the Emperor of Rakshasa, and her master was a deity. Even if Guye Jing came from The Rāhu Mountains, she would still be afraid.

Zhang Ruochen didn't ask why Luo Sha and Guye Jing could become best friends and whether they were really that close.

Boom

South Wing let out a deafening noise. Countless cultivators let out long howls as if something incredible had happened.

"What happened? Yan Wushen has already died, but they're still so excited? Didn't the engagement ceremony cancel?"

"Are they trying to cause trouble?"

...

The guests who had come to attend Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha's engagement ceremony were all very curious. They immediately sent people to gather information.

A moment later, the cultivator who had gone to gather information returned.

"What exactly happened?" Supreme Saint Xueqi asked.

The cultivator who had gathered information said, "It's said that the oracle of Mount Destiny has arrived and is preparing to bring Pan Ruo back."

"They're going to the fane now?" Supreme Saint Xueqi asked in shock.

"Yes."

"Only her?"

"Yes."

All the cultivators in North Wing were shocked.

Fuurei was stabbed to death, and the oracle of Mount Destiny immediately came to welcome Pan Ruo. What did this mean?

Could it be that Pan Ruo was going to benefit from this misfortune and become the new Scioness?

This was no longer a possibility, but a sure thing.

Pan Ruo becoming a Scioness had too much of an impact. The representatives of the three major forces of the lower three clans were all deep in thought. Then, they carved out communication talismans and spread the news like a meteor shower.

There were cheers and acclaims from South Wing to North Wing.

Pan Ruo was as graceful as jade. She was standing straight and dignified. She wore a festive red dress and walked into North Wing. Behind her were a large group of cultivators from the Nether clan and Deathkin.

The oracle of Mount Destiny was bathed in starlight. He stood aside and waited.

Everyone looked at Pan Ruo and whispered to each other.

“What’s she doing in North Wing?”

“Better show some respect to the new Scioness. Be careful not to get into trouble later.”

“Look at how smug the Deathkins and Nether clan are. It looks like Pan Ruo came here to show off.”

Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha walked side by side to greet them.

Pan Ruo stared at them, watching them approach from afar. Her face was cold and emotionless, like an iron-and-stone face.

Luo Sha was tall and had a charming smile on her face. She asked, “Congratulations, your highness. It seems that you are going to take over the position of Scioness. May I know why you are here?”

Pan Ruo looked at Luo Sha for a long time and said, “Princess Luo Sha is extremely beautiful and charming. She is indeed the favorite of all men in the world. It is Zhang Ruochen’s fortune to be able to marry you.”

Luo Sha’s red lips were crystal clear. She slightly raised the corners of her mouth and said, “Chen is a peerless genius that only appears once in a Yuanhui Period. It is my pleasure to be able to marry him.”

Zhang Ruochen’s heart tightened. Luo Sha was a bit abnormal.

Why did she suddenly become so intimate and call him “Chen”?

Could she have guessed something?

Zhang Ruochen and Pan Ruo’s expressions didn’t change, but they seemed tense and unnatural.

“Your Highness Pan Ruo too had the chance to marry a Yuanhui-level genius. What a pity, what a pity!” Luo Sha said.

Pan Ruo walked to a jade table and picked up the wine on the table. She filled three cups and picked up one of them, “I’m here to toast the two newlyweds, especially Zhang Ruochen. If it weren’t for you, I’m afraid I wouldn’t have been Destiny Scioness. What should I wish for the two of you? I wish the two of you a happy marriage for a hundred years.”

With that, Pan Ruo downed the wine in one gulp.

Behind her, the cultivators of Nether clan and Deathkin laughed loudly.

“Wishing you a harmonious union lasting a hundred years! Haha!”

Everyone could see that there was a hidden meaning in her words. She was clearly declaring war on Zhang Ruochen. A hundred years of harmony was fine between mortals, but to a cultivator in Supreme Saint realm, a hundred years was just a snap of the fingers.

Pan Ruo left with the oracle.

The cultivators who attended the engagement ceremony between her and Yan Wushen did not leave. Instead, they became even more jubilant, drinking and laughing.

Not long after, Wargod Bloodximius, Blood Empress, Luo Yan, Amane, and other gods arrived at the outer hall of Fortune Palace. Under the witness of Fukurokuju, Zhang Ruochen and Luo Sha completed the engagement ceremony.

The time of the official marriage needed to be discussed separately.

Unlike an engagement, the official marriage could not be carried out hastily. There were many things to prepare.

After the engagement ceremony ended.

In Wargod Bloodximius' Divine Plane, he summoned Zhang Ruochen alone and asked, "Have you comprehended the true meaning of Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill after the battle with Yan Wushen?"

This sentence exposed Zhang Ruochen.

What nonsense about his inner demons had invaded his mind, making him forget the battle process? Obviously, it could not deceive Wargod Bloodximius.

Chapter 2426: Interlocution

In front of a god like Wargod Bloodximius, no cultivator could remain calm. What's more, the secret that he didn't want to reveal was exposed on the spot.

Zhang Ruochen maintained his composure and replied, "I have a slight understanding."

If he continued to deceive, it would only make Wargod Bloodximius contempt and dislike him. It was better to admit and face it calmly.

Wargod Bloodximius was not an ordinary person. There was no point in playing tricks in front of him.

Zhang Ruochen added, "The Six Paths of Reincarnation and Yin Yang Five-Element can be united into one. They represent the foundation of the truth of heaven and earth. However, it is extremely difficult to reach full strength."

"I have now integrated six types of Saintwill. It seems that I am only one step away. However, standing in my current position and seeing the road ahead, I realize that the last step is still far away."

"Difficult. It's almost impossible to unite Yin Yang Five-Element."

In the past, Zhang Ruochen stood on the ground and wanted to ascend to the sky. He saw the majestic mountain peak in the distance connecting with the sky. He thought that he could touch the sky when he climbed up the mountain peak.

He thought that it was possible.

After experiencing thousands of difficulties and blockages, Zhang Ruochen has finally climbed the mountain peak.

The people standing on the ground thought that he was only one step away from ascending to the sky. A light step would do the job.

However, only Zhang Ruochen, who was standing at the peak of the mountain knew that he was still infinitely far away from the sky. It was many times farther than the road he had taken.

In the past, there was at least a road to climb the mountain. Now, there was no road at all!

The battle with Yan Wushen showed Zhang Ruochen the distance between him and the sky.

The clearer he saw it, the more desperate he felt.

If Zhang Ruochen hadn't been a mortal for three lifetimes and experienced every difficult situation, he would have broken down and given up on ascending to the sky.

"Are you going to give up, or do you want to continue?" asked Wargod Bloodximus.

"I want to continue. I want to condense Grade One Saintwill no matter what it cost," Zhang Ruochen said without hesitation.

Clad in the divine armor, Wargod Bloodximus sat in the center of his Divine Plane. He was silent for a long time, "Only a cultivator who has condensed Grade Two Saintwill can understand the difficulty of condensing Grade One Saintwill. The Saintwill you've cultivated has reached the limit of a Grade Two Saintwill. It even has a hint of the charm of Grade One Saintwill. It's a Grade One I've never reached before."

At this point, Wargod Bloodximus paused and then said, "You should know very well now how far you are from Grade One Saintwill, right?"

"Very clear," Zhang Ruochen said.

Wargod Bloodximus looked into the sky and said, "I too wanted to walk the path of cultivating Grade One Saintwill. However, I gave up in the end due to various reasons. After becoming a god, I've got a deeper understanding of Saintwills, Canons, and precepts of heaven and earth. Do you want to hear it?"

“Please guide me, Wargod.”

Zhang Ruochen cupped his hands and bowed.

There were very few cultivators in the world who could guide Zhang Ruochen to break through Grade One Saintwill and find a road for him. Wargod Bloodximius, was one of the few.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “I don’t know how to condense Grade One Saintwill. But I’m sure that with your current ability, it’s impossible to condense it successfully.

“Condensing Saintwill requires external conditions as well as self-strengthening conditions.

“As for external conditions, you have Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pill and Violet Gourd. They’re all rare treasures. I can even send you to Fane of Immortality and lend you a hand. So external conditions aren’t important.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What more do I need to improve myself?”

Wargod Bloodximius stretched out his right index finger and said, “First, advance your cultivation to the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm and break all the shackles in your body.”

Then he stretched out his middle finger and said, “Second, spiritual power. Your spiritual power must be improved to a more powerful level.”

“My spiritual power has reached the 65th level,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Wargod Bloodximius shook his head, “For other Supreme Saints, the 65th level is already very impressive. However, if you want to integrate with Grade One Saintwill, your spiritual power is far from enough. If you can become a god with spiritual power and reach the 70th level, it will be a great help to integrate with Saintwills.”

Zhang Ruochen’s pupils constricted.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t even dare to imagine that he could reach the 70th level of spiritual power and become a god in Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The 70th level of spiritual power was enough to challenge a TrueGod.

Before he could say anything, Wargod Bloodximius said, “Considering your young age and lack of experience, it’s almost impossible for you to reach the 70th level of spiritual power in a thousand years. So, I want you to reach level 67 or level 68 of spiritual power first.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “With the help of Sundial, even if it takes 1,000 or 2,000 years, I will reach level 70 of spiritual power. It’s the best preparation to integrate with the Saintwills.”

Zhang Ruochen thought that he would get the support of Wargod Bloodximius, but this time, Wargod Bloodximius stared at him without saying a word.

“What do you think is wrong?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “If we only rely on time treasures and Time Arrays to create top-level elites without limit. The number of gods in Infernal Court would be many times more than now. They would have already turned Celestial Court into ashes.

“Sundial is indeed a very powerful time treasure. If Sundial had not been destroyed, it does have that kind of ability.

“Sundial could cover a very wide area. When a cultivator cultivates in it, one could experience, fight, and comprehend inside it. One can experience all kinds of things in life and the world.”

Zhang Ruochen said thoughtfully, “Wargod, you mean that Sundial is incomplete. It can only be used for me to cultivate in it, but not for me to fight and experience in it?”

“You can think of it that way!”

Wargod Bloodximius said, “There are no less than 10 time treasures like the broken Sundial in Infernal Court. Most of them are given to Saint-level cultivators to rapidly increase their cultivation.

“To gods, it’s useless.

“Unless the range of the time treasure can cover the entire body of the god and the entire Divine Plane.

“Even so, the powerful power of a god will still impact Mark of Time, making it unable to enter the god’s body. Just like your current attainments in Time, you can pose a threat to any Saint-level cultivator, but you can’t do anything to a god. You won’t be able to cut off a god’s lifespan if he stood there and let you.”

Wargod Bloodximus continued, “It only took you a very short time to raise your spiritual power from level 60 to level 65. This was the help of Divine Sky-connecting Tree’s Heart of the Divine Tree and Intergold Tiger. However, have you digested the knowledge contained in Heart of the Divine Tree?”

Zhang Ruochen nodded.

Wargod Bloodximus said, “The knowledge contained in Heart of the Divine Tree is already vast enough. With this foundation, it will be much easier for you to cultivate your spiritual power.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “The knowledge contained in Heart of the Divine Tree is all-encompassing. It includes astronomy, geography, the mystery of the arrays, Talisman, pills, language, logic, and arithmetic... Although I have integrated this knowledge, they are still disordered in my mind. Only by deliberately meditating can I find the information I want.”

Wargod Bloodximus asked, “You haven’t integrated Path of Fire Saintwill yet, right? ”

“That’s right.”

“Then let me ask you a question. What is Path of Fire?”

Zhang Ruochen was stunned.

“Is there no knowledge related to Path of Fire contained in Divine Sky-connecting Tree?”

There was.

Of course there was, and there were many of them.

It was because there were too many of them that Zhang Ruochen had no idea how to answer them.

If he organized all the knowledge about Divine Sky-connecting Tree and wrote it down on paper, he could probably load dozens of carriages.

Zhang Ruochen thought carefully. The more he thought about it, the more things appeared in his mind. They were countless and endless making his head hurt more and more. It was as if thousands of needles were stabbing his scalp

“AH!”

With a scream, Zhang Ruochen fell to the ground.

Wargod Bloodximus watched quietly and did not help him, “Although you have integrated Divine Sky-connecting Tree’s knowledge, this knowledge doesn’t belong to you. You still need countless years of tempering and digestion before it can be completely transformed into something that belongs to you. By then, you should be able to become a god with your spiritual power and reach level 70.

“And this process isn’t something that you can complete by using Sundial. In Sundial, even if you cultivate for a thousand years or ten thousand years, the final result will be the same as now. You’ll have a splitting headache as if you’ve gone mad.

“If you want to completely transform this knowledge into your own, you need to travel thousands of miles, experience thousands of worldly affairs, and truly comprehend the knowledge from the details of your experiences.”

Zhang Ruochen forced himself to stop thinking. Gradually, the pain in his head lessened. He got up from the ground, drenched.

Wargod Bloodximus continued, “Walking is an experience. Eating is an experience. Taking a wife is an experience. Killing is an experience. Saving people is also an experience. Everything you experience is an experience. It’s all about comprehension.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Thank you for your guidance, Wargod.”

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Do you know that with your current cultivation, you can be stronger?”

“Stronger? How strong can I be?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Strong enough that if you do it all over again, you can defeat Yan Wushen without getting hurt. Do you know why you are so weak?”

If a Supreme Saint of Infernal Court heard this, one would cry.

How was Zhang Ruochen weak?

Zhang Ruochen shook his head.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Whether it’s your spiritual power or cultivation, you have improved too quickly. You lack the necessary stabilization.

“You have both Five-element Chaotic Saint Qi and Blood force in your body, but they’re too mixed and not condensed enough. The result is that you can’t cast saint techniques fast enough, and activate the power of Supreme Artifact strong enough. Your reaction speed to danger is slow.”

Zhang Ruochen was deeply touched because it was always difficult to trigger ten times the attack when fighting with top masters. Moreover, it was difficult to perform Thousand-Koan level’s advanced Saint technique in the shortest time.

Wargod Bloodximius continued, “You have Five-element Chaotic Neverwither Physique and Demigod-level physique. You should be invincible in all battles. However, you were repeatedly injured when fighting with Que, Yan Wushen, and Lan Ying. Your Neverwither physique is like paper, and your Demigod-level physique is like tofu.”

Zhang Ruochen did not admit it in his heart. After all, Que, Yan Wushen, Lan Ying, and others were all extraordinary people. It was not shameful to be injured by them.

Besides, they were more seriously injured.

Wargod Bloodximius seemed to see what he was thinking. He said, “You are a person who wants to fuse with Grade One Saintwill. You should look further. Don’t compare yourself with them. Treat them like ants.”

Who knew how Que, Lan Ying, and the others would think when they heard this?

Wargod Bloodximius said: "Your physical body is strong but you have no idea on how to use its powers and protect yourself. What you are facing now is only Supreme Saints like Que, Yan Wushen, and the others. You can still use your physical body to block their attacks and even withstand their attacks.

"If you're facing a Supreme Saint of Banshi Isshou Realm or Paramount Realm, they can break your body into pieces with a single strike. Don't you think it's ridiculous that you can't resist their attacks even though you have the Five-element Chaotic Neverwithier Physique and Demigod-level physique?"

Zhang Ruochen said, "So, the third point to fuse Grade One Saintwill is that I have to condense the Qi in my body and perfectly control my physical body?"

Wargod Bloodximius nodded with satisfaction. He had to admit that Zhang Ruochen had a high comprehension ability.

He stretched out his fourth finger and said, "The fourth point is Saint Soul.

"There are many Scion and Scioness in Celestial Court and Infernal Court. Divinity was born with them and their souls were very powerful. Unfortunately, when your mother gave birth to you, she hadn't become a God yet. Otherwise, your Saint Soul would be much stronger than it is now.

"The fastest way to improve your Saint Soul is to refine The Stellar Soul of God. It just so happens that there's a bit left in Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Go find it yourself and use it.

"I've said so much, but there's only one sentence that sums up all. If you want to fuse a Grade One Saintwill, you have to be the strongest in every aspects of Hundred-Shackle Realm. Spiritual power is the key."

"I understand!" Zhang Ruochen bowed again.

Wargod Bloodximius finally asked, "Why did you pretend to be invaded by inner demons?"

Zhang Ruochen had already thought about how to answer, “Actually, my mind was really invaded by inner demons. It’s just that... I have a treasure on me that helps me keep my last shred of clarity. I can’t reveal that treasure no matter what. There were other gods around, so I naturally couldn’t tell the truth.”

Zhang Ruochen planned to reveal the secret of The Heart of Truth. He couldn’t hide it anymore.

If Wargod Bloodximius also coveted this treasure, Zhang Ruochen could just give it to him to save his own life. Of course, Zhang Ruochen believed in Wargod Bloodximius’s temperament more.

As the most outstanding hero of the last Yuanhui period, he had great luck and countless treasures. How could he steal a treasure from his grandson?

If Wargod Bloodximius didn’t show any interest, Zhang Ruochen could trust him more in the future. He could truly see him as his backer in Infernal Court.

Something unexpected happened..

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Since you can’t reveal it, you don’t have to say anything. Hide your secret. Next, is the second matter. Do you understand the meaning behind Fukurokuju’s marriage to you and Luo Sha?”

“I do! It’s to help me gain a foothold in the Infernal Court world,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Actually, there’s a hidden meaning. It’s to keep you in Infernal Court forever. The deeper your connection with Infernal Court is, the harder it will be for you to leave in the future. You are a person who values relationships. Only relations can become your bond.”

“I...” Zhang Ruochen’s face changed, and his eyes became serious.

“You don’t have to deny it. Even if you really want to leave in the future, you will still be my grandson and a disciple of Xue Jue family. However, I’m afraid that many things will not be up to you now. At the moment, I’m standing on the side of Infernal Court. Of course, I hope that you'll stay and do something. Thus, you have to be mentally prepared."

Chapter 2427: Lord Xia Yu's Question

Swoosh!

With a wave of his long sleeve, a small brass cauldron flew out and hovered in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Hexadirection Cauldron.

“This cauldron belonged to the master of Lancern Ocean, Yu Sanjie also known as Lord Labrys. While Yu Sanjie was cultivating in seclusion, it was stolen by Immortal Blue Marrow.

“Immortal Blue Marrow wanted to borrow Hexadirection Cauldron to cross the bottleneck of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. Immortal Blue Marrow was afraid that after Yu Sanjie finished his seclusion, he would investigate this matter. Thus, Immortal Blue Marrow hid inside the third dark star.

“Unfortunately, Immortal Blue Marrow didn't expect that the third dark star would give birth to Dark Elemental. He also underestimated the danger of a dark star and died inside.”

Zhang Ruochen understood.

He had always suspected how could Immortal Blue Marrow a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint have such a treasure as Hexadirection Cauldron?

“A Supreme Saint dares to steal a treasure from a god. Immortal Blue Marrow is really audacious,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Wargod Bloodximus said, “Immortal Blue Marrow doesn't have much time left, and he definitely can't break through to Paramount Realm on his own. He naturally dares to take risks in order to advance and survive.”

Zhang Ruochen wanted to know more about the god, so he asked tentatively, “I heard that gods are omnipotent and omniscient. How could Lord Labrys not notice when Immortal Blue Marrow stole Hexadirection Cauldron? Besides, did Lord Labrys not leave a divine spirit clone to guard the cauldron? Or did he carry the cauldron with him?”

Wargod Bloodximus had achieved his status and strength, thus he dared to call Lord Labrys by his name. However, Zhang Ruochen did not dare to be so arrogant.

Wargod Bloodximus said, “The gods are not as omnipotent as you think, and Supmere Saints aren’t as weak as you think. The gods know a lot of things because they have countless divine spirits.

“If it’s just one divine spirit, even a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint can destroy it. Just like a Saint King could easily destroy one of your divine spirits.

“Secondly, a god’s prediction ability is limited. The higher the cultivation base of the predictor, the harder it is to predict.

“Even for the gods, is not an easy task to predict a Supreme Saint’s action. Unless there is a special relationship between the two, such as a bloodline relationship, master-disciple relationship, and so on. Only then, it will be much easier to predict.

“Therefore, unless Yu Sanjie forms a powerful clone using a large number of divine spirits, only then will it be possible to suppress Immortal Blue Marrow.

“In addition, Hexadirection Cauldron doesn’t belong to Celestial Court nor Infernal Court, but a vessel from the desolate starry sky. Its vessel spirit is powerful, but it has been sleeping. Yu Sanjie hasn’t subdued it, so there are huge variables. How could Yu Sanjie dare to take it with him when he is in closed-door cultivation?”

Zhang Ruochen had many secrets. After coming to Infernal Court, he had been careful as if he was treading on thin ice. The most fundamental reason was that he did not know enough about the power of the gods. He did not know whether his secrets would be discovered by the gods.

After listening to the words of Wargod Bloodximius, Zhang Ruochen realized that with his current cultivation base, he did not need to be too afraid of the gods.

Unless the gods themselves made a move.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Has Wargod met Lord Labrys?"

Wargod Bloodximius snorted. "How could Yu Sanjie not know that Hexadirection Cauldron has come into being? However, no one in the world can take it away from me. Hexadirection Cauldron was obtained by you from the inside of the third dark star. Naturally, I won't return it to him."

Zhang Ruochen only thought about it secretly. In his mind, he could picture the battle between Wargod Bloodximius and Lord Labrys.

Unfortunately, Hexadirection Cauldron was in the hands of Wargod Bloodximius now. Lord Labrys was doomed to not be able to take the treasure back.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen thought of something and said, "You said that the vessel spirit of Hexadirection Cauldron is powerful and has been sleeping?"

To be called powerful by Wargod Bloodximius was definitely not simple.

Wargod Bloodximius nodded and said, "There are huge variables and potential dangers in this cauldron. You can't suppress it, so I can't give it to you yet. I plan to give it to your mother temporarily and let her keep it. Do you have any objections?"

"No objections," Zhang Ruochen said.

Wargod Bloodximius said, "Emperor Grade Saint Pill in the cauldron is the material that Immortal Blue Marrow has collected for countless years. He was going to refine it to break through to Paramount Realm. Unfortunately, his attainments in Elixir were a little lacking and he almost didn't succeed. In the end, it succeeded because Dark Elemental refined him into the pill and turned him into an Elixir Spirit.

“When your cultivation reaches the peak of Banshi Isshou Realm, you can ask your mother for it. Swallowing this pill will be of great help to you in breaking through to Paramount Realm.”

Them, Hexadirection Cauldron was kept by Wargod Bloodximius. Now it's about Madre Bloody Shadow and Pale Blood Soil.

It was said that Madre Bloody Shadow's true form divine tree was taken away by Ancient God of Knowledge from Fukurokuju.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Pale Blood Soil is very mysterious. It is known as the number one treasure of Immortal Vampires. Many gods have never seen it before. It is still a secret that you can refine and absorb Pale Blood Soil. However, this secret won't last long.”

“What will happen if this secret is made public?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Wargod Bloodximius's eyes were sharp, “You will become a human form, Divine Herb. Everyone will want to suck your blood and eat your flesh and bones. Of course, you don't have to worry too much. With your current background, not many people dare to touch you.”

In the end, Wargod Bloodximius reminded Zhang Ruochen, “Refining and absorbing Pale Blood Soil has indeed made your body stronger. Your self-healing ability is top-notch now. You can recover even if your body is torn to pieces. You are almost immortal. However, there is no absolute immortal body in the world. People who think they are immortal usually die the fastest.

“There are endless mysteries in Pale Blood Soil. You can slowly experience it yourself in the future.”

Zhang Ruochen thought in his heart. Why did Wargod Bloodximius say such a thing? Could it be that he had also refined and absorbed Pale Blood Soil?

Zhang Ruochen did not ask this question in the end.

Wargod Bloodximus mentioned Yan Zhexian and Intergold Tiger again and told Zhang Ruochen some things. After listening, Zhang Ruochen didn't say anything. He just nodded slightly.

“One last thing... Forget it. You can leave now!”

Wargod Bloodximus wanted to say something but stopped. He finally waved his hand and signaled Zhang Ruochen to leave.

Zhang Ruochen had a strange look on his face. He was curious. What was the last thing that Wargod Bloodximus was going to say?

One had to know that Wargod Bloodximus had always been decisive and strong. He rarely showed such a look.

“I'll take my leave.”

After Zhang Ruochen left, Wargod Bloodximus shook his head and sighed. He said to himself, “Let Qingsheng talk to him about secular matters. It's not appropriate for me to talk about it personally.”

Then, Wargod Bloodximus opened his left palm. There was a jade token in his palm.

There were words carved on the surface of the jade token — Jadeite.

” It's a little subtle that Jadeite Realm is activated at this time.” He played with the jade token while his eyes became deeper and deeper.

...

The news of Pan Ruochen becoming a new Scioness had been officially confirmed and the news quickly spread.

The details of the battle between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen had spread like wildfire.

Some people claimed that both Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen had supreme treasures. They could defeat a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint with the cultivation of Hundred-Shackle Realm.

There were also rumors that Zhang Ruochen could defeat Yan Wushen because he had inherited the treasures of Kunlun's field and had a lot of Canons.

There were all kinds of rumors, and each one was exaggerated.

They were meant to incite the audacious murderers to attack Zhang Ruochen. Let others do the dirty job of killing Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen didn't care about the rumors in the outside world. He didn't want to explain himself either. He went straight back to Vastsea Manor and prepared to seclude himself to heal his injuries.

...

Lord Xia Yu wore a cyan feather robe. The violet gold phoenix hairpin was stuck in her hair. Her temperament was elegant and didn't contain the evil feeling that a cultivator from Infernal Court should have.

The cultivators of Bloodysky Clan who participated in Celestial-Hunting Festival stayed in Bingsi District because they had to enter Fane of Destiny to cultivate.

They all had respectful expressions on their faces when they saw her walking down the street.

Although Lord Xia Yu had suffered a crushing defeat in the battle with Yan Huangtu and had almost fallen, she displayed the elegant demeanor of Bloodysky Clan and Immortal Vampires. Thus, gaining her the respect of countless cultivators.

Lord Xia Yu had gone through a life-and-death situation once, so her state of mind had undergone a huge change. Her temperament was completely different from before. She had a feeling that she was hidden in the clouds. She was different from her past self who showed everything on her face and didn't know how to restrain herself.

Lord Xia Yu had heard a lot of news along the way.

There was news of Immortal Vampires taking first place in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, news of Fukurokuju's bestowed marriage, news of Lady Wind's death, and news of Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen's life-and-death battle.

"I didn't expect so many things to happen while I was asleep."

Before she knew it, Lord Xia Yu had arrived outside Vastsea Manor. She paused and hesitated whether she should go in.

A moment later, she stepped forward and said, "Xia Yu of the Xias has come to pay a visit to Supreme Saint Ruochen."

Whether it was because of the array inscriptions all over Vastsea Manor, or because of Zhang Ruochen's position in her heart, she could no longer barge in like before.

Lian Xi opened the array restriction and looked at Xia Yu standing outside. She said gently, "Supreme Saint Ruochen has been summoned by Wargod. He hasn't returned yet."

"Okay, I'll go in and wait for him," Lord Xia Yu said.

Lian Xi clearly has knowledge of Lord Xia Yu's ability and knew that she held a high position in Zhang Ruochen's heart, so she did not stop her.

Lord Xia Yu did not have a good impression of the cultivators of Celestial Court. She walked in front and said, "As a fairy of Celestial Court and a goddess in the hearts of countless cultivators, are you willing to be Zhang Ruochen's handmaiden?"

Lian Xi was silent.

"That's right. You have no other choice."

Lord Xia Yu walked to a pavilion in the lake. She put her hands behind her back and looked at the beautiful scenery in front of her. She asked, "Can you tell me what happened in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting? Why did I come back to life after I died?"

Lian Xi could watch the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms. Therefore, she knew what had happened.

"Zhang Ruochen saved you," Lian Xi said softly.

Lord Xia Yu said, “I know. He must have saved me. What I want to know is the process, the details, and the answer that has puzzled me for a long time.”

Lian Xi didn't want to pay attention to Lord Xia Yu, but thinking that she couldn't afford to offend her, “Zhang Ruochen is really good to you. He used his blood to rebuild your body.”

Blood Qi was very important to Immortal Vampires.

No matter how close Immortal Vampires were, it was difficult for them to cut open their own blood vessels without hesitation and give their blood to another person.

Hearing that Zhang Ruochen had captured The Eight Sons of Life and Death of Yanluo clan and used the blood of the eight elites to make up for her lost blood Qi, Lord Xia Yu's eyes lit up and her heart beat faster.

Lord Xia Yu was both angry and touched when she heard that Zhang Ruochen had been controlled by Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian everywhere in order to take back her Saint Soul and spiritual power.

When she heard that Zhang Ruochen had not given up on her when he had to make a choice between the future of Immortal Vampires and her life, she realized that Zhang Ruochen really cared about her.

In the past, Zhang Ruochen had helped her everywhere, even giving her a Supreme Artifact. Lord Xia Yu had always thought that Zhang Ruochen had other intentions. He coveted her beauty and wanted to take her into the harem of Sevenstar Imperial Palace to become like Lian Xi, the woman he had toyed with.

However, after experiencing Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Lord Xia Yu had a deeper understanding of Zhang Ruochen. She gradually changed her biased thinking.

With Zhang Ruochen's status and talent, he could have all kinds of beauty if he wants.

If he only wanted her beauty, how could he save her at all costs?

“Zhang Ruochen is a true and righteous person. He is different from those insidious cultivators in Infernal Court and different from those hypocritical cultivators in Celestial Court.”

Lord Xia Yu closed her eyes, but Zhang Ruochen’s figure unconsciously appeared in her mind. She could not get rid of him.

This man had been imprinted in her heart. She would never forget him.

Standing aside, Lian Xi understood what Lord Xia Yu was thinking.

How could a woman be indifferent after being so valued and protected by the most powerful genius of this Yuanhui period?

Even she was a little envious.

Unfortunately, Lian Xi also felt sad for Lord Xia Yu. After all, Zhang Ruochen was too outstanding. Only noble daughters like Luo Sha and Yan Zhexian were worthy of him.

Lord Xia Yu could only be a concubine.

If Luo Sha was pushy, Lord Xia Yu could only be an external concubine and could not enter Xue Jue family.

When Zhang Ruochen returned to Vastsea Manor, he happened to see the two girls standing by the lakeside. A surprised look appeared in his eyes. He walked over and said, “You’ve recovered so quickly?”

Lord Xia Yu had already composed her emotions, she said calmly, “I was too heavily injured this time. Fortunately, Blood Empress helped me to integrate my spiritual power and Saint Soul into my body. However, it will take at least 20 years for me to fully recover.”

“Go in Sundial and cultivate. Recover as soon as possible. It’s a rare opportunity to cultivate in Fane of Destiny. Don’t miss it!” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu hesitated for a moment and said, “You don’t have to be so nice to me. I’m afraid I can’t repay you.”

Zhang Ruochen frowned and looked at her carefully, “What’s wrong? Where did the high-spirited, arrogant and capricious Lord Xia Yu go? Just with the failure of Yan Huangtu made her lose her confidence? The Xias entitled you Lord, you have to act like one too.”

“No, it has nothing to do with Yan Huangtu.”

Lord Xia Yu hesitated for a while and finally mustered up her courage and said, “I heard that there is also an Empress in Kunlun’s field who has a close relationship with you. Are you treating me so well just because I have her shadow? Is she also so arrogant and willful? Is she also so domineering and haughty?”

Zhang Ruochen’s expression tightened, and the air around him became colder.

After saying this, Lord Xia Yu regretted it immediately.

She had checked Zhang Ruochen’s information and knew that this matter was taboo for him to mention. But today, she could not help but say it.

The space seemed to be frozen. The more quiet Zhang Ruochen was, the heavier Lord Xia Yu’s mood became.

After a long time, Zhang Ruochen said coldly, “That Empress is very powerful. You are worse than her a hundred times. Don’t even think about competing with her. I asked you to recover as soon as possible because there is a secret matter that I want you to do for me personally. In the entire Infernal Court, there are not many people I can trust. You are one of the few.”

Lord Xia Yu was not angry at Zhang Ruochen’s derision. After all, that Empress was indeed an extraordinary woman. Of course, she did not admit defeat. Just because she could not compete with her now doesn’t mean that she couldn’t compete with her in the future.

She asked, “What’s the matter? Do I have to go?”

“Help me find someone. Someone from Kunlun’s Field.”

“A man or a woman?”

Zhang Ruochen stared at her and said, “A woman.”

Chapter 2428: A Visit From God

Lord Xia Yu's expression kept changing. First, she was wondering why Zhang Ruochen had asked her to look for the person personally?

Second, she was wondering how Zhang Ruochen knew that a woman from Kunlun's field had come to Infernal Court? Could there be cultivators from Kunlun's field hiding in Infernal Court?

Third, she was wondering if this matter would attract the attention of the god and bring disaster to the Xias.

After a while, Lord Xia Yu was very cautious. She asked telepathically, "Who is it?"

"Mu Lingxi, the disciple of Moon Goddess," Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu couldn't help but ask, "How did you know she came to Infernal Court?"

Zhang Ruochen took out Mu Lingxi's Bracelet of Dimension and said, "Do you know why I taught Warlord Mara a lesson on Arena of Life and Death? It's because of this Bracelet of Dimension. It's something I gave to Mu Lingxi."

Lord Xia Yu breathed a sigh of relief and said, "So you deduced that Mu Lingxi had come to Infernal Court through this bracelet?"

Zhang Ruochen nodded.

Lord Xia Yu had wanted to ask why Mu Lingxi had come to Infernal Court.

But after thinking about it carefully, she thought it was stupid to ask this question, so she shut her mouth.

With Zhang Ruochen's current status and identity, it was not difficult for him to protect Mu Lingxi in Infernal Court. Unless Mu Lingxi was too unlucky and fell into the hands of Zhang Ruochen's enemies.

Lord Xia Yu had looked up Zhang Ruochen's information, so she knew who Mu Lingxi was. She could be said to be Zhang Ruochen's number one confidante in Celestial Court. Since Zhang Ruochen had entrusted this matter to her, she naturally had to take it seriously. She won't let anyone know about it.

Lord Xia Yu said, "You joined Infernal Court and killed countless Celestial Captives, including Supreme Saint Manjian. Mu Lingxi must have been ostracized by all sides. Of course, she can't continue to stay in Guanghan. It's understandable that she came to Infernal Court to seek refuge with you. However, if you can guess that Mu Lingxi came to Infernal Court, would Warlord Mara guess it too?"

"With your strength, are you afraid of him?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

A smile appeared on Lord Xia Yu's face. She said, "In your opinion, which path will Mu Lingxi take to come to Infernal Court?"

Zhang Ruochen had analyzed it many times, he said, "The closest place between Kunlun's field and milky way of styx of Infernal Court is about a light-year away. It's about 20 trillion miles away. No one can cross it except for the gods. Therefore, you could firstly rule out the possibility of her crossing the milky way."

The length of milky way of styx, which was the size of the entire Infernal Court, was more than 100,000 light-years.

The distance of one light-year was actually very close. It could be said that Kunlun's field and Infernal Court were very close to each other. (the diameter of the milky way was about 100,000 light-years. It was one of the hundred billions of galaxies in the known universe, some of which could be millions of light-years in diameter. Therefore, the length of Infernal Court is 100,000 light-years. In the universe, it is not too big.)

If it were not for the array left by Lord of Nephilim Island, Kunlun's field and the surrounding starry sky would have been swallowed and assimilated by milky way of styx.

Zhang Ruochen continued, "The major teleportation arrays and spatial wormholes in Kunlun's Field and Infernal Court are all heavily guarded by Infernal Court. It should be difficult for Mu Lingxi to muddle through. Therefore, it can be ruled out too.

"I think the biggest possibility is that she came by Sanzu River.

"There is a special space gap in Kunlun's field that is connected to Sanzu River in Infernal Court. Plus, Sanzu River is so vast that Infernal Court can't completely guard it. It's the easiest place to enter Infernal Court."

After listening to Zhang Ruochen's analysis, Lord Xia Yu shook her head, "Sanzu River is controlled by Ghost, Corpusian, and Bone clan. It is too dangerous to go there. Moreover, it is in the territory of the three middle clans. It is still infinitely far to reach Immortal Vampires from Sanzu River. If she doesn't go through teleportation arrays and spatial wormholes, she may never reach the territory of Immortal Vampires."

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised. He asked, "Which path do you think she will take?"

Lord Xia Yu said, "For the cultivators of Kunlun's field, maybe Sanzu River is the only gap. But for the cultivators of Celestial Court, there are many ways to enter Infernal Court.

"Infernal Court is too big. The core area controlled by the ten clans is less than half of milky way of styx. The wider starry sky is in a chaotic area where small clans, small forces, and small tribes fight each other. It is also a place where the big forces of the ten clans fight in secret. The conflict of interests is very fierce, and there are many cultivators of Celestial Court mixed in.

"Mu Lingxi wanted to come to Infernal Court to find you. Her destination must be the Dominion of Bloodysky Clan.

“If I were her, the first step would be to reach the edge of Infernal Court first.

“The second step is to spend Godstones and go through the dark forces: sneak into the Bloodysky Clan’s Dominion through the teleportation array that is not supervised by the ten clans, Fane of Destiny, and Fane of Darkness.”

“There are many dark forces at the edge of Infernal Court. The more famous ones are Avīci Pavilion, Pneuma Hall, League of Ourang Celeste, and the Enchanteur Chamber. They are known as the ten giants of Infernal Court’s Dark World. Each one ran by gods. They are so powerful that even Fane of Destiny can’t completely destroy them.”

Lord Xia Yu continued, “From the edge of Infernal Court to the Bloodysky Clan’s Dominion, there is a path that must be taken. It is called Hoth. To be exact, it is the path that the cultivators of the dark world must pass.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Since it is the path that must be taken to the Bloodysky Clan’s Dominion, why didn’t the gods of Bloodysky Clan destroy Hoth and cut off this path?”

Lord Xia Yu shook his head, “Hoth is an eighth-level planet, ten billion times bigger than an ordinary planet. There are trillions of intelligent lives and countless cultivators living on it. Ordinary gods can’t destroy it at all. This is one of the reasons.”

“The second reason is that Hoth is too profitable. All the major forces of Bloodysky Clan have businesses there, including your Xue Jue Family. Destroying Hoth is equivalent to cutting off a source of income.

“The third reason is that the Master of Hoth is said to be an extraordinary figure who has a close relationship with Fane of Immortality.

“It is the combination of these relationships that have caused Hoth to become a place that no force can control. The major dark forces there are rampant, and countless shady deals are made there too.

“If you want me to find her, my first destination will definitely be Hoth. Also, you’d better give me a token from Xue Jue family. That way, I can save a lot of trouble on Hoth.”

“You know more about Infernal Court than I do. I trust your judgment.”

Zhang Ruochen thought to himself. Avīci Pavilion was very powerful in the dark world, he could ask his master to help find Mu Lingxi. Both openly and covertly could the operation be done.

He used to worry that letting Avīci Pavilion interfere in this matter would harm Mu Lingxi instead.

Now that he knew that the gods were not as omnipotent as he had imagined, Zhang Ruochen was naturally more daring. He could do things more freely.

“Master, Supreme Saint Qingsheng is here to visit.” Zhou Zhen walked over and bowed to Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, “It’s about time. Please invite uncle in.”

Zhou Zhen retreated.

A moment later, Supreme Saint Qingsheng and an old man in black walked into Vastsea Manor side by side.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was extraordinary. His red hair was like blood. Along the way, he gave Zhou Zhen, Lian Xi, and the others great pressure. They didn’t dare to look up.

However, the old man who walked with him didn’t have a trace of a saint’s might. He gave people a simple, unadorned, and unfathomable feeling.

Lord Xia Yu glanced at the elder. She, who was usually calm, suddenly changed her expression. She stood up abruptly and retreated to the side.

Zhang Ruochen was a little surprised to see her behavior. He could not help but observe the elder in black carefully. The more he looked, the more shocked he became. He felt that this person was not in space at all. It was as if he was walking in another world.

Even though he didn't have any aura, the pressure in Zhang Ruochen's heart grew stronger as he walked closer.

He was even more terrifying than a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. It was obvious that he was a god.

Zhang Ruochen stood up and cupped his fists. "Greetings, God."

Yuan Yi, Lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater smiled gently with the wrinkles on his face. "Ruochen, you've done wonders for Immortal Vampires and Bloodysky Clan. I'm really impressed with your doing. I've wanted to visit you for a long time."

Zhou Zhen, Lian Xi, and the others were shocked beyond words. Zhang Ruochen's status in Infernal Court had reached such a terrifying level? Even gods had come to visit him personally.

Lord Xia Yu stepped back and was about to leave.

Lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater noticed her and said, "Lord Xia Yu, don't go yet. I'm here to see you too."

Lord Xia Yu stopped, but her face was still cold. She didn't flatter or be humble just because the other party was a god. She didn't want to be bothered.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng introduced, "Ruochen, this is the Lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater, one of the gods of Bloodysky Clan."

The confusion in Zhang Ruochen's heart disappeared instantly. He showed a thoughtful look.

Fane of Thousand Clearwater and Lord Xia Yu's Xias were both located on the southern ridge of the Dominion of Bloodysky Clan. They were the two of the more powerful forces in the southern ridge.

After the ancestor of the Xias died, Fane of Thousand Clearwater had been encroaching on the Xias' territory. Both sides had a deep grudge.

The Xias had close to 300 billion people. They had seven saint cities and countless Saint-level cultivators. However, after so many years of fighting, the Xias suffered heavy losses. Four of the seven saint cities had been lost.

The Xias were not far away from extermination.

Infernal Court was just as cruel as it was. The internal struggles between the powers had never stopped. It was very normal for power without a deity to be swallowed by a power with a deity.

Lord Xia Yu's outstanding performance in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting and ability to condense a Grade Three Saintwill meant that she would definitely receive Immortal Vampire's attention and nurture. In the future, she would very likely become a TrueGod.

Yuan Yi, Lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater, was just a pseudo god. How could he not be afraid?

Once Lord Xia Yu became a god, he would be the first one to be dealt with.

Lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater could certainly nip Lord Xia Yu in the bud, but Zhang Ruochen was standing behind Lord Xia Yu. After what happened in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, everyone could see how much Zhang Ruochen valued Lord Xia Yu.

If he dared to touch Lord Xia Yu, how could Zhang Ruochen not take revenge on Fane of Thousand Clearwater?

If Fane of Thousand Clearwater was not a force of Bloodysky Clan, but another clan, with Yuan Yi's identity, he would not be afraid of Zhang Ruochen.

However, Wargod Bloodximius had become the leader of Bloodysky Clan, and Zhang Ruochen was highly valued.

Thus, Yuan Yi had to lower himself and take the initiative to visit Zhang Ruochen.

Of course, what really crushed Yuan Yi was a message from Blood Empress not long ago. "I think highly of Lord Xia Yu. How about letting the Xias go?"

Lord Xia Yu had the potential to become a god. She was beautiful and has Zhang Ruochen as her backer. Naturally, Blood Empress that loves the tree loves the branch. She probably already regarded Lord Xia Yu as her daughter-in-law. Thus, taking her matter a little more seriously.

Xue Jue Family was at the peak of their power. Blood Empress had just killed a pseudo god and fought with Asurendra Samay, who was famous for his battle prowess. When Yuan Yi received Blood Empress's divine order, he was shocked.

He had never expected Blood Empress to personally intervene in this matter.

The difference between a TrueGod and a pseudo god was too great. Moreover, the gods of Xue Jue Family were not easy to deal with. They could not be provoked.

"Lord Xia Yu, Fane of Thousand Clearwater has borrowed four of the Xias saint cities. I have already ordered all the cultivators of our Fane to retreat and return the four saint cities to the Xias," Yuan Yi said.

Lord Xia Yu was stunned. Her face was filled with disbelief.

If not for Yuan Yi's true form being here and Supreme Saint Qingsheng standing by the side, she would have suspected that this was a scam.

Lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater, a god that everyone could only look up to, had actually taken the initiative to compromise with a Supreme Saint like her?

Of course, she didn't think that she had that much power. She thought to herself, could it be that Zhang Ruochen had gone to ask Wargod Bloodximius to pressure the Lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater?

Yuan Yi continued, "The territory that Fane of Thousand Clearwater has occupied will gradually be returned to the Xias within three years. Lord Xia Yu, you performed well on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting and displayed the prestige of Bloodsky Clan. I have high hopes for you. I will work hard to cultivate with Master Ruochen and strive to enter divinity as soon as possible."

Yuan Yi did not apologize or compensate her. However, as a deity, it was already the limit for him to make such a concession to a Supreme Saint.

Unless Lord Xia Yu became a deity in the future, Yuan Yi would not be able to yield to her.

After Yuan Yi left, Lord Xia Yu remained motionless as if she had been petrified.

For so many years, the Xias had been bullied by Fane of Thousand Clearwater. They had suffered grievances and countless clansmen had died tragically. However, no one had helped them and they were powerless to resist.

She had never expected that the Lord of Fane of Thousand Clearwater would personally pay a visit to return to the Xias' saint city and territory because of her relationship with Zhang Ruochen and their performance on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

It was all because of Zhang Ruochen.

She only felt that she would never be able to pay back what she owed Zhang Ruochen!

“Thank you.”

Lord Xia Yu clenched her teeth. Tears welled up in her stubborn eyes.

This day had finally arrived after so many years.

She could imagine that at this moment, hundred millions of clansmen in the territory of the Xias were celebrating and singing. Finally, they no longer had to suffer oppression and humiliation.

“Let her be alone. Ruochen, come with me. I... I have something to discuss with you.”

In front of Zhang Ruochen, Supreme Saint Qingsheng was a little embarrassed.

Back then, Supreme Saint Qingsheng had taught Zhang Ruochen a lesson, telling him not to cultivate Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill. He had even said that if he could cultivate Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill to Grade Two level, he would write his name upside down.

It was unknown whether Zhang Ruochen still remembered this matter.

He hoped that he had forgotten it!

“Why did Wargod leave this matter to me? Why didn’t he negotiate with Zhang Ruochen himself? Really... This kind of matter. Sigh, is it so difficult to be the head of the family? And it’s only a temporary one.” Supreme Saint Qingsheng felt very upset.

He could be the head of the family.

He could do dirty, tiring, and cheap work.

However, could the word “temporary” be removed? Besides that, why not also improve the treatment for the head of the family?

Chapter 2429: The Future of the Family

Supreme Saint Qingsheng and Zhang Ruochen walked along the lake. There were spiritual flowers under their feet and blood trees by the roadside. Wherever they passed, inscriptions of array appeared. They were like transparent lines and soon disappeared.

“Zhou Zhen is a talent. He has become Lord of Mountain among the High-Saint Array Masters at such a young age. I think his attainments are not far from becoming the King of Sea and Land.

“Xia Yu has condensed Grade Three Saintwill and was able to challenge Yan Huangtu. She’s also a promising talent who has unlimited potential in the future.

“Ruochen, you may be young, but you have many talented people around you. I’m very envious.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said this casually.

Zhang Ruochen did not say much and nodded.

Suddenly, Supreme Saint Qingsheng stopped and said seriously, “You’ve been in Infernal Court for a while. What do you think of this place?”

“It’s fine. It’s no different from Celestial Court,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng beat around the bush. “What do you think of Xue Jue Family?”

“I don’t know much. What do you mean?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng sighed and continued walking forward.

Zhang Ruochen stared at his back and followed him thoughtfully, he asked, “I see that Xue Jue Family is powerful.

The three gods dominate the clan, and Wargod has become the ruler. We are on the crest of a wave. Why do you sigh?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng walked in front. He smiled slyly with his eyes moved.

His smile disappeared as he turned around. He said with a frown, “Yes, Xue Jue Family is indeed a big family that even has three gods. However, gods can’t interfere with worldly affairs. If one wanted to grow and protect their family, they have to rely on Saint-level disciples. Supreme Saints are the pillar of a force’s development.”

Zhang Ruochen’s heart lit up. He understood something and smiled. “Uncle, if you have something to say, just say it.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng’s face darkened, he said earnestly, “Xue Jue Family is in Dominion of Bloodysky Clan. Their core territory is more than ten million miles wide. They control trillions of Immortal Vampires. Other than that, we have eight million Planet of Life in milky way of styx. To manage such a large family, I am more than willing but I lack talent.”

Before Zhang Ruochen could speak, Supreme Saint Qingsheng continued, “Talents! Every family and force needs an endless stream of talents to flourish and grow stronger. Only then can they have a foothold in this cruel world of competition.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I see that Xue Jue family is full of talents. In the last thousand years, Xueqi, Xue Chen, and Xue Ningxiao have all cultivated Supreme Saint Realm. Not to mention, some of the direct descendants of Xue Jue family have also cultivated to Supreme Saint Realm, right?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “There are some Supreme Saints in Xue Jue Family, but most of them are only in Neverwilt Realm and Hundred-Shackle Realm. To bring up a Supreme Saint requires a huge amount of resources. Some of these resources are very scarce and can not be bought with Godstones. For example, Saintwill Pill.”

Zhang Ruochen completely understood!

After taking such a big detour, Supreme Saint Qingsheng was actually planning to take the Saintwill Pills in his hand.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng struck while the iron was hot. He continued, “During this Celestial-Hunting Festival, Grand Supreme Master refined 100,000 Saintwill Pills in one go. Even the lowest level of it was Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills. No matter what, those are all Grand Supreme Master’s doing!

“Usually, it’s rare for a High-Saint Elixir Master to refine dozens of Saintwill Pills in one batch. Moreover, the level is far from Grand Supreme Master. However, even so, these dozen of Saintwill Pills will be quickly snatched up by all the big forces.

“Ruochen, you must have collected a lot of Saintwill Pills, right?”

Zhang Ruochen looked at Saint Qingsheng’s smiling face. He was like a fox.

“It seems that the family really lacks Saintwill Pills,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “Of course. Condensing Saintwill is too important for Supreme Saints in Neverwilt Realm and Hundred-Shackle Realm. Those Supreme Saints who can’t condense Grade Five Saintwill all choose to stop accumulating at Hundred-Shackle Realm. This has a bad effect on the future of Xue Jue family.”

Zhang Ruochen nodded, “As a member of Xue Jue family, I’m definitely willing to support the family’s future. How about this? I’ll take out 20 top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills and 10 King Grade Saintwill Pills as a contribution.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng shook his head and said, “You’ve made a great contribution to Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. You should be rewarded by the family. How can the family take what you’ve risked your life for? How about this? We’ll buy It.

“I’ll buy Saintwill Pills from you in the name of Xue Jue family.

“One Godstone for one top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills.

“20 Godstones for one King Grade Saintwill Pills.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng knew that he couldn't buy Quasi-Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills and Emperor Grade Saintwill Pills with Godstones, so he didn't even mention it.

Zhang Ruochen said, “The price is fair.”

“But I want to buy all Heaven Grade and King Grade Saintwill Pills in your hand.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng immediately added, “These Saintwill Pills are useless to you. They're worthless in your hands.”

Zhang Ruochen readily agreed and said, “Okay, I've collected 37 King Grade Saintwill Pills and 458 top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills. I'll sell them all to the family.”

“Ruochen, uncle wants more than this.” Supreme Saint Qingsheng stared at him.

Zhang Ruochen spread his hands and said helplessly, “Uncle, you must have seen the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms. I've only collected so many Saintwill Pills.”

“Indeed, you've only collected so many Saintwill Pills. But there should be more that you've taken from other Supreme Saints, right?” Supreme Saint Qingsheng looked shrewd.

Indeed, Zhang Ruochen had defeated and killed many Supreme Saints of Infernal Court on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. He had also taken their storage. He had taken more than 200 King Grade Saintwill Pills and more than 3,000 top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills.

However, Zhang Ruochen also knew how to plan ahead. Whether it was establishing Ming Sect or Qiankun Realm, he would definitely nurture Supreme Saints in the future.

How could he not keep a priceless treasure like Saintwill Pills?

After a long while, Zhang Ruochen said, “Uncle, I have cultivated Grade Two Saintwill. Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill has merged with the six elements. I would like to ask for your guidance.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's face suddenly turned green, and he let out a series of dry coughs.

"No need, no need... Emm, you are injured. It's better not to do so. How about this? 100 King Grade Saintwill Pills and 1,000 top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills. With this batch of Saintwill Pills, it's enough for the family to use them for ten thousand years."

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and said, "Uncle overestimates me too much. I don't have so many. I really don't."

Supreme Saint Qingsheng stroked his beard and took out a box from his sleeve. He said solemnly, "Wargod has a treasure. He asked me to bring it to you."

"What's this?"

Zhang Ruochen took the box and felt a little pressure on his hand.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, "Before you entered Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, the protective Divine Marks carved on your body by Moon Goddess and sister were all erased, right?"

"In fact, after reaching Supreme Saint Realm, you no longer need the protection of Divine Marks. Supreme Saints are all elites who have grown up. With the protection of Divine Marks, one would be like a baby who has not been weaned.

"However, in order to prevent you from being assassinated by the gods, you need to be prepared."

Zhang Ruochen opened the box. A dazzling blood light burst out from it, causing his eyes to narrow slightly.

It was an ancient belt.

The belt looked like it had been forged from blood jade. It was crystal clear. In the center, it was forged into the shape of a wing with black metal. In the center of the pair of black metal wings, there was a mysterious character with a terrifying aura.

It was a divine text that contained the will of a powerful god.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “That’s the word ‘fight’.”

“Fight!”

The blood in Zhang Ruochen’s body boiled under the light of the blood. The fighting spirit in his body grew stronger and stronger. Array inscriptions in the entire Vastsea Manor trembled.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, “This belt is called Wargod Belt. It was given to Wargod Bloodximius by Fane of Immortality when he became the 13th Wargod of Immortal Vampires. It has an incomparable symbolic meaning. Only Wargods of Immortal Vampires is qualified to wear it.”

No matter how profound Zhang Ruochen’s state of mind was, he was still shocked at this moment.

Only Wargods could wear the belt. How could Wargod Bloodximius give it to him, a Supreme Saint?

This was just like how Luo Yan had suddenly asked Luo Shengtian to sit on his throne one day. Luo Shengtian would probably be so scared that his legs go soft!

How could a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint afford such an identity?

Supreme Saint Qing Sheng said, “If a God attacks you, Wargod Belt will be activated in an instant and Wargod Bloodximius will be alarmed. With Wargod Belt, you can cross dimensions and borrow part of Wargod Bloodximius’ divine force. You should have no problem protecting yourself.

“Of course, Wargod Belt is more symbolic. It means that Wargod Bloodximius has high expectations for you. If you can become the Wargod of Immortal Vampires in the future, Xue Jue Family will really be able to look down on the world.”

Zhang Ruochen was touched and his heart was heavy.

“Thank you, Grandpa.”

Zhang Ruochen did not refuse.

He was indeed in danger in Infernal Court. There were gods who wanted to take his life.

He wrapped Wargod Belt around his body. Suddenly, the light on the belt was restrained and became plain.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's eyes shone with envy. As one of the few surviving sons of Wargod Bloodximius, when had he ever been so valued?

Wargod Bloodximius valued Zhang Ruochen far more than all of his children.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, "For Immortal Vampires, when you reach Supreme Saint Realm, you will be given your own fiefdom. With your attainments in cultivation, I have decided to represent Xue Jue Family and give you 300 Planet of Life and 200 mineral planets in Sky Solitude Domain as your private fiefdom."

Xue Jue family was indeed powerful and rich.

Zhang Ruochen was only in Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he had already obtained 500 fiefdom planets.

If his cultivation had higher attainments in the future, wouldn't he have more fiefdom?

For other Supreme Saints, they needed to run their own fiefdom to earn Saint Stones and Godstones to buy cultivation resources. However, Zhang Ruochen was richer than some gods, so there was no need to waste time on fiefdom.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It's too troublesome to manage 500 planets. I heard that Xue Jue family also has businesses on Hoth. Why don't you divide the businesses and territories among Hoth to me?"

Supreme Saint Qingsheng's eyelids twitched, he said, "Hoth is complicated and dangerous. Xue Jue family doesn't have many businesses there. It's meaningless for you to go. Why don't I give you 800 planet fiefdoms, including a sixth-level main star?"

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand, "Uncle, let's not beat around the bush. Hoth's an eighth-level planet. It's billions of times larger than a normal first-level planet. Divine veins could be nurtured inside. Even if it only takes a portion of the benefits, it's still stronger than 800 planet fiefdoms.

“Besides, Hoth is the only way to the edge of Infernal Court and Dominion of Bloodysky Clan. There’s a lot of movement of wealth there. Who doesn’t want to get a share?”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng knew that he couldn’t fool Zhang Ruochen. He sighed. “Hoth isn’t that simple.”

“Don’t you believe in my ability, uncle? I’m confident that I can expand Xue Jue family’s business and power on Hoth. I can even control it.” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng glared at him, “Only the top masters in Saint-level can snatch food and benefits from the tiger’s mouth. Even I don’t have the confidence to control those tigers and wolves. You’re only in Hundred-Shackle Realm. How dare you speak so arrogantly?”

“Didn’t I achieve my goal of condensing Grade Two Saintwill?”

“I also achieved my goal of leading Immortal Vampires to get first place of the ten clans!” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng shook his head and said, “It’s different. This time, it’s different. Do you know who controls the properties and territories of Hoth within Xue Jue Family?”

“Who?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said in a low voice, “The matriarch of Xue Jue Family, Wargod’s wife, Madam Nixuan.”

Zhang Ruochen’s pupils constricted, and his face became serious.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng thought that Zhang Ruochen would back down. He patted his shoulder and said, “Wargod doesn’t want internal disputes in Xue Jue family. Otherwise, it’ll be difficult for him.”

Zhang Ruochen snorted. “As far as I know, after mother and Lord Ming came back, the first step was to hollow her out and send all the cultivators under her to Battlefield of Merits. How can she still control part of the power and interests of Xue Jue Family?”

When Blood Empress and Lord Ming were young, Madam Nixuan sent them to Kunlun's field to kill them.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng said, "When brother and sister came back, Madam Nixuan did keep a low profile and chose to hide. But as the wife of Wargod Bloodximius, who would dare to attack her directly? Besides, Madam Nixuan's background is Fane of Asura."

"Leading Fane in Asura," Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng nodded, he said, "Brother and sister can distribute the cultivators of Xue Jue family under her banner to Battlefield of Merits, but they can't control her. She can also mobilize the superiors of Fane of Asura to help her control the property and interests.

"After all, the gods can't interfere with worldly affairs. Brother and sister can't do anything to her.

"Since Madam Nixuan has retreated behind the scenes, we shouldn't take the initiative to cause trouble. We don't want to provoke her and cause internal disputes."

"Madam Nixuan must have married into Xue Jue family after Wargod had passed the Yuanhui tribulation, right? She could represent Fane of Asura and marry Wargod Bloodximius. She must be extremely talented. What are her attainments in cultivation now?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen was still unwilling to give up, Supreme Saint Qingsheng threatened, "Madam Nixuan was once Fane of Asura's Scioness. Anyway, I am far from being her match."

"Uncle, the reason why you are still the temporary head of the family is that she still has a lot of power of invisibility. Why don't we join hands and defeat her? By then, the word 'temporary' should be removed from your title!" Zhang Ruochen said seductively.

Chapter 2430: Twenty Years

Supreme Saint Qingsheng was stunned for a moment and shook his head. “No... no... That will stir up trouble.”

“Wargod gave you the temporary head position instead of the official one was probably to test your ability. Xue Jue Family is too big. It needs a strong and decisive figure to support it. Wargod would be disappointed if uncle continued to be so indecisive. Don’t you know what kind of person Wargod likes?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng squinted his eyes. He had long been tempted.

Zhang Ruochen gave him a final blow. “If uncle grants me the territory and property of Hoth, I’m willing to take out 100 King Grade Saintwill Pills and 1,500 top Heaven Grade Saintwill Pills.”

“Sheesh!”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng took a deep breath. This kid really had a lot of Saintwill Pills.

He hadn’t told the truth earlier.

“I’m the head of the family. I don’t accept bribes.”

“I’m selling them to the family. How is that a bribe?”

As he spoke, Zhang Ruochen had poured out 2,000 Saintwill Pills. They surrounded Supreme Saint Qingsheng like glowing pearls.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng rolled up his sleeve and put away all the Saintwill Pills. His expression was solemn, he said in a low voice, “The benefits on Hoth are shocking. Even if I give you the property of Hoth as the head of the family, it’s useless. Ni Xuanshi won’t let go.”

“If she won’t let go, then we’ll take it by force. What I want now is a legitimate reason,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“If we take it by force, we’ll definitely start a war. There’s always blood in wars.”

“Since ancient times, achievers always bleed.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng touched his chin with his finger. He felt that Zhang Ruochen was right. If he wanted to become the head of Xue Jue Family, he really had to fight this tough battle.

Only by defeating Ni Xuanshi could all the powerful people in Xue Jue Family truly submit to him.

Only then those forces that were attached to Xue Jue Family would truly regard him as their leader and not continue listening to Ni Xuanshi.

Zhang Ruochen had just taken first place in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, and it was time for him to surge forward with great momentum. If he were to face Ni Xuanshi head-on, no one in the family would dare to say anything.

Moreover, Supreme Saint Qingsheng was still thinking about whether Blood Empress and Lord Ming had instigated Zhang Ruochen to have designs on Hoth and Ni Xuanshi.

Hoth, an eighth-level planet.

In Celestial Court, an eighth-level planet was the size of a small macroworld.

Furthermore, Hoth’s location was special. Taking it down was equivalent to taking down an independent passage at the edge and center of Infernal Court. It could be put to great use at a critical moment. It was definitely a place that all strategists would fight for.

Moreover, Lord Xia Yu needed a reason to go to Hoth and find someone, right?

“2,000 Saintwill Pills and 3,500 Godstones.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng took out the Godstones from a Ring of Dimensions.

The Godstones emitted dazzling divine light and contained powerful energy fluctuations like burning meteorites. Zhang

Ruochen put them all away.

“I need a token that represents Xue Jue Family,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Supreme Saint Qingsheng asked thoughtfully, “Why do you need it?”

“I plan to send an elite to Hoth first. Some preparations must be made in advance.” As he said this, Zhang Ruochen stared in the direction of Lord Xia Yu.

“Deal, it’s just a token.”

Supreme Saint Qingsheng didn’t have much hope in this fight.

Ni Xuanshi was too powerful. Even if he and Zhang Ruochen joined hands, they were still far from being enough.

But this fight had to be fought.

Wargod hated people who were afraid before a fight.

Even if he lost, at least he proved that he dares to fight. Maybe Wargod would look at him differently. It was better to be punished than to be ignored.

After Supreme Saint Qingsheng left, Zhang Ruochen opened Sundial.

Besides Zhang Ruochen and Lord Xia Yu, there were also Lian Xi, Zhou Zhen, Gaunt, and Shentu Yunkong cultivating in Sundial. There was also Lord of Sword, Lord of Stone, and Moyin who had been following Zhang Ruochen.

On Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, the fourth fruit of Saint Devourer was ripe.

The fourth fruit was its Dharmakāya.

If Moyin swallowed and absorbed it, her cultivation would increase greatly again. That was why she was separated from Zhang Ruochen’s body and was cultivating independently.

On Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Wu Wuji and the others, who had been subdued and suppressed by Zhang Ruochen, were all exiled after the battle.

Only Lord Sinluo could not be chased away no matter how hard Zhang Ruochen tried. He shamelessly stayed in Vastsea Manor. Seeing Zhang Ruochen turn on Sundial, he ran out and sat beside Zhang Ruochen to cultivate.

What made Zhang Ruochen speechless was that Lord Sinluo's father had no intention of picking him up. Perhaps it was because he was too embarrassed and had given up on him, or he had other motives.

Zhang Ruochen did not enter Sevenstar Imperial Palace to cultivate.

When he fought with Asurendra Samay, Sundial showed signs of recovery. It seemed to cover an area of only 200 meters. However, Sundial could cover Sevenstar Imperial Palace which was more than 200 meters now.

Except that, the more space Sundial covered, the more Godstones it consumed.

Zhang Ruochen had done experiments. After he entered Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Sundial consumed Godstones twice as fast than usual. After he entered Violet Gourd, Sundial consumed Godstones 15 times faster.

If he didn't enter Sevenstar Imperial Palace and Violet Gourd — these two vessels that contained an inner dimension — Sundial's consumption of Godstones was the same even if these two vessels were placed within the 200 meters of Sundial.

The time flow inside Sevenstar Imperial Palace and Violet Gourd was still normal.

Zhang Ruochen didn't know much about Sundial. He didn't understand why this would happen. He could only guess that he had some special connection with Sundial. That was why he'd entered a special dimension. Mark of Time produced by Sundial would pass through the spatial wall and enter that dimension.

...

In Sundial, it took Zhang Ruochen half a year to refine the Power of Darkness that had invaded his body. Thus, his injury healed immediately.

The power contained in the dark star was too terrifying. This was the longest time that Zhang Ruochen had healed himself.

After his injury healed, Zhang Ruochen did not rush to Fane of Destiny. Instead, he continued to cultivate and prepared to refine all Divine Marks of fire contained in Yanshen's Leg.

Now, he had only refined more than 20 million Divine Marks of fire. Yet, the power of Yanshen's Leg was enough to fight head-on with a Supreme Artifact.

If he could refine and master all 100 million Divine Marks of fire, how powerful would his one leg be?

Moreover, if he did not refine and master all Divine Marks of fire, it would be a hidden danger for him.

...

Time flew by and 20 years passed.

Zhang Ruochen had mastered 80 million Divine Marks of fire in Yanshen's Leg. The strength of his left leg had once again reached an uncontrollable level. Even if he didn't deliberately activate it, the divine fire in his leg was still burning.

With a slight step, his entire leg sank to the ground.

Once again, he became a cripple.

Zhang Ruochen wasn't depressed because of this. Instead, he was very excited. He could feel the terrifying power contained in his left leg. With a step, he seemed to be able to step through mountains and rivers.

In the past 20 years, the number of Precepts in Zhang Ruochen's body had increased to 13 billion, and he had broken 76 shackles.

His spiritual power remained at the 65th level. It seemed to have reached a bottleneck. Even after swallowing a lot of Sacred Pills, it still did not improve much.

"Crash."

Zhang Ruochen activated Armor of the Fire God and covered his entire body. Using the power of the armor, he controlled the divine fire in his left leg. He closed his eyes and sorted out his numb, confused, and blurry consciousness.

If a person stayed in seclusion for too long, there would be problems with his thoughts and consciousness.

It was like a mortal locking himself in a room for dozens or hundreds of days without any contact. After a long time, he would definitely break down and even become mentally deranged.

Of course, with the current strength of Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power, he wouldn't have any major problems after 20 years of seclusion.

Many cultivators who secluded themselves for too long couldn't even distinguish between the real world and their inner world. Or they forget the precepts, forms, and emotions of the real world. They had to force themselves to become an ordinary person, blend into the mortal world and live for a lifetime before they could recover.

It meant "Cleanse your heart in the mortal world and find your true self."

Zhang Ruochen took out the bronze coffin containing a god's corpse. He opened the lid and looked at the changes of God-eater Bugs.

The bronze coffin contained half of a god's corpse. Zhang Ruochen had bought it from Realm of Star Ocean at a sky-high price of 180,000 Godstones.

Even half of a god's corpse was more than 3 million meters long.

Back then, Zhang Ruochen had placed a large number of God-eater Bugs on the god's corpse. Although most of them had been poisoned to death by the god poison contained in the corpse, there were still some who survived.

Zhang Ruochen had great expectations for these surviving God-eater Bugs. He planned to use them to deal with Supreme Saints of Banshi Isshou Realm, or even Paramount Realm

God-eater Bugs on the god's corpse were still asleep and motionless.

But there were also some subtle changes. A layer of green poisonous cocoons appeared on the surface of these bugs.

The poisonous cocoons were not thick. They were translucent like bubbles.

Zhang Ruochen frowned and said to himself, "If it doesn't work, I can activate the power of Sundial. Maybe I can wake them up in a short time."

Zhang Ruochen had a lot of Godstones in his hands. He was not afraid of using them. He was eager to try.

Behind him, footsteps sounded.

It brought a faint fragrance.

"The remnant of the divine soul of this half-god corpse can be used to refine Subdivine Soul Elixir. It can also be used to cultivate the 18 Six-Tribulation Ghost Lords who will carry Sevenstar Imperial Palace for you. If three or five of them could survive the seventh Ghost Tribulation, it will be a huge profit for you," Lord Xia Yu said.

Ghost cultivators who survived the seventh Ghost Tribulation could be titled Ghost Lords. Their cultivation was comparable to a Supreme Saint.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Have you recovered from your injuries?"

"Yes," Lord Xia Yu said.

"How long will it take to break through to Thousand-Koan Realm?"

"Although I'm in the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm, my accumulation is still shallow. I'm far from Yan Huangtu and the others. I haven't even succeeded in cultivating a Thousand-Koan level saint technique. I'm still far from Thousand-Koan Realm!" Lord Xia Yu's arrogance had lessened, she boldly admitted the gap between her and a top elite.

Zhang Ruochen said, “With the help of Sundial, how long do you think it will take to break through to Thousand-Koan Realm?”

“It’s not that easy. To break through to Thousand-Koan Realm, you have to develop your own Path first. This step was very crucial. It was not easy to succeed just by cultivating for a long time. In Immortal Vampires, all the Supreme Saints at the Great Perfection of Hundred-Shackle Realm who had connections would go to Fane of Immortality before breaking through to Thousand-Koan Realm.

“It was said that only the Supreme Saints of Immortal Vampires who had been to Fane of Immortality could develop the most perfect Path. However, there are very few Supreme Saints who are qualified to enter Fane of Immortality,” Lord Xia Yu said.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, “You have made a great contribution to Immortal Vampires in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. How could Fane of Immortality not give you space to cultivate?”

“Of course.”

A smile appeared on Lord Xia Yu’s ice-cold face.

Zhang Ruochen waved his arm slightly, and Pleiades Lotus flew out. It floated in front of Lord Xia Yu and spun slowly.

The smile on Lord Xia Yu’s face froze. She stared at the black lotus, which was more beautiful than any flower. She felt a strong sense of closeness, but she didn’t reach out to take it.

She knew that Zhang Ruochen had given her Pleiades Lotus on Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting because he had no one else to use it with.

But now, she could see that Moyin, Lord of Sword, and Lord of Stone were all powerful Supreme Saints. Zhang Ruochen had many elites around him.

Besides, she had already lost Pleiades Lotus when she lost to Yan Haungtu. She didn’t dare to dream of continuing to control the Supreme Artifact.

“What are you waiting for? Take it!” Zhang Ruochen said.

Lord Xia Yu didn’t argue. There was no need for her to reject a Supreme Artifact. She immediately put Pleiades Lotus away.

“I’ll go to Fane of Destiny to cultivate now. I’ll leave for Hoth in 100 days.”

“I’ll go with you.”

It was a rare opportunity to cultivate in Fane of Destiny. Zhang Ruochen knew little about Path of Destiny, so he treasured these 100 days.

...

Blood Empress walked into Wargod Bloodximius’ Divine Plane. There were ripples of water under her feet. Her slender and beautiful figure was reflected in the void space.

“Have you found the god who killed Lady Wind?” Blood Empress asked.

Wargod Bloodximius shook his head and said, “Reverend speculated that the assassin must be a god in Fane of Destiny. So after killing her, he could act in an underhand way.”

“There shouldn’t be many gods left in Fane of Destiny. We can find him eventually,” said Blood Empress.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “The relationship between the three divisions and the Twelve Reverend of the Fane of Destiny is delicate. Without evidence, even Reverend wouldn’t dare to act rashly. Moreover, this matter must not be made public. Tell me, why did you come to me?”

Blood Empress was calm and said, “Yan Wushen is dead, I want to go and bring Kunlun back.”

Wargod Bloodximius asked, “Do you think there is a need for that?”

“There is no need? Do you think because he does not have the bloodline of Xue Jue Family, there is no need to have a conflict with Yan Luo clan because of him?” Blood Empress said.

Wargod Bloodximus' voice sank, "Is this how you talk to your father?"

Blood Express leaned back and didn't look at Wargod Bloodximus's cold face, "Chen 'er is willing to come to Infernal Court because of Kongyue and Kunlun. I don't want to hurt his heart. With Yan Wushen's death, even if Yanluo clan didn't take the opportunity to take revenge, Chi Kunlun wouldn't have had it easy. I'm here just to tell you that I'm going, whether you agree or not."

"Stop."

Wargod Bloodximus stood up, his body was mighty and proud. He said, "Do you really think your father is such a heartless person? Zhang Ruochen didn't mention this to me when he came and see me."

"That's because it's hard for him to tell you," said Blood Express with her back hunched.

Wargod Bloodximus said, "I don't think so. I think he wants to do it himself."

"He wants to do it himself?"

Blood Empress raised her eyebrows and understood something.

Wargod Bloodximus said, "It's best for gods to stay away from worldly affairs. I trust Wu Qingzong. He is not a narrow-minded person. If I were him, with a young genius like Zhang Kunlun by my side, there's not even enough time and effort for me to nurture him. How could I bully him? Moreover, Yan Wushen might not have really died. In that battle, it's not certain who will succeed!"

"Isn't Yan Wushen already dead in body and soul?" Blood Empress revealed a surprised expression.

Wargod Bloodximus sat down again and said with an enigmatic smile, "My girl, you have just only become a god. You still have a lot to learn."

Chapter 2431: The Mount Destiny Incident

Blood Empress said, “Without a physical body, even soul summoning is useless. Moreover, the battle ends in the void. The body particles and the fragments of the Saint Soul will instantly turn into oblivion. No matter how high the cultivation base of Wu Qingzong is, I’m afraid there’s nothing they can do. They can only accept it as it is.”

Wargod Bloodximius shook his head, he said, “No, the place where the battle ends is on the Dark Star. The domain of the Dark Star is enough to absorb all of Yan Wushen’s body particles and Saint Soul fragments. You have to know that Yan Wushen has fused with the Dark Elemental. The Dark Star itself is a part of his body.”

Blood Empress’ eyes were filled with disbelief. She pondered for a long time and then said, “Even so, he can’t come back to life. Even if he does, he’s just a cripple. Will Wu Qingzong pay a huge price to resurrect him?”

When Zhang Ruochen had just attained the Supreme Saint Realm, his body hadn’t been destroyed. By just summoning his soul and almost killing Blood Empress.

With Yan Wushen’s current cultivation, if he wanted to come back to life, a god had to be sacrificed. One god for a saint. Only then ritual would succeed. Moreover, even if he were to summon the Saint Soul, he would have to reincarnate and cultivate it again.

To reach his current level was as difficult as ascending to the heavens.

Wargod Bloodximius said, “Therefore, it depends on Yan Wushen’s spirit and will. If the spirit is strong enough, it can transcend the body and soul and connect to the Celestial Soul.”

“The legendary Celestial Soul?” Blood Empress asked.

Wargod Bloodximius sighed and said, “As of today, all the living beings in the Celestial Court and Infernal Court cultivate the human soul. They cultivate the human soul into the Saint Soul. However, in the distant past, there was a group of Qi Practitioners who cultivated the Celestial Soul. They called the Celestial Souls the primordial spirit.

“The Celestial Soul is not in the living beings’ bodies but has merged with the Deva Path, which is a part of it.

“Those Qi Practitioners tried to cultivate the Deva Path and went against the heavens. In the end, they were punished by the heavens and went extinct.

“There are records of The Six Paths of Reincarnation. It is said that the ancient Qi Practitioners wanted to build something to fight against the Deva Path and rebel against the heavens.

“Zhang Ruochen killed Yan Wushen and shattered his soul. It was equivalent to forcing him into a dead end and forcing him to steal from the heavens. Only by stealing the Celestial Soul and the Deva Path and cultivating The Six Paths of Reincarnation could he have a chance of survival. This is also a step that must be taken to cultivate the Grade One Saintwill and The Six Paths of Reincarnation Saintwill.”

Wargod Bloodximius looked up at the sky, he then continued, “We have already reached the top of the mountain. If we want to ascend to the sky, there is no way. Unless we give up this body, everything that we once had, and use the spiritual method to break the restraints of the Deva Path on living beings, there is a chance of success.

“The path of cultivating Grade One Saintwill is the path of fighting against the Deva Path. One must break the existing rules.

“Yan Wushen chose to steal the Deva Path. He places himself in a hopeless spot, then he will survive. I wonder what Zhang Ruochen will choose?”

“Cultivating Grade One Saintwill is so dangerous. Is there a high chance that Yan Wushen will come back to life?” Blood Empress asked worriedly as she frowned.

The one who was worried was not Yan Wushen, but Zhang Ruochen, who was still on this path.

Blood Empress was silent for a long time. She said, “What is the probability of a dead person crawling out of the coffin? The probability of Yan Wushen coming back to life is ten times lower than this.”

Blood Empress was worried. She wanted to stop Zhang Ruochen from cultivating the Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, but she knew it was too late. At this point, Zhang Ruochen could not back down.

Wargod Bloodximus took out the Hexadirection Cauldron and handed it to Blood Empress. He said, “This cauldron has developed unique patterns between heaven and earth. It has the potential to become a Divine Artifact. You can take care of it for now.”

Blood Empress put away the Hexadirection Cauldron and prepared to leave.

Wargod Bloodximus asked, “Are we still going to the Yanluo Clan?”

“Since you think Zhang Ruochen wants to pick up Chi Kunlun himself, I believe in your judgment. He can solve worldly matters himself!” Blood Empress sighed.

She believed in Zhang Ruochen’s ability.

“The secular world indeed has nothing to do with us,” said Wargod Bloodximus. “But there is a big matter that will soon engulf the entire Celestial Court and Infernal Court. Every god will be alerted.”

“What is it?” asked Blood Empress.

“The Jadeite Realm is about to open,” said Wargod Bloodximus. “As the clan chief, I must lead the gods of the Bloodysky Clan to go with me. This time, you will go with me. Lord Ming will stay behind to guard the Dominion.”

...

The main purpose of entering the Fane of Destiny to cultivate was to help cultivators comprehend the Precept of Destiny and understand the Path of Destiny.

For some special cultivators, cultivating in the fane for a day was more rewarding than cultivating outside for a year. They could achieve great breakthroughs.

Zhang Ruochen was talented, but he had only been in contact with the Path of Destiny for a short time. Obviously, he was not a special cultivator.

Even though he'd tried his best to mobilize his Saint Soul and spiritual power, he'd only comprehended two million Precepts of Destiny after 100 days of cultivation. It wasn't even one percent of any of the precepts of the five elements.

100 days of cultivation was over.

The Bloodysky Clan and the Immortal Vampires bid farewell to Zhang Ruochen at the foot of Mount Destiny. Some were preparing to return to their clan's Dominion, while others were heading to the Battlefield of Merits or the Fane of Immortality to break through to the Thousand-Koan Realm.

All good things must come to an end. Every cultivator had his own path.

"The Fane of Immortality has announced to the public that all cultivators participating in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting have the qualification to enter the fane to cultivate. They can also choose whether or not to join the fane and the Bloodregius Legion."

"The legendary Bloodregius Legion! Those who can join are the elites of the Immortal Vampire Supreme Saints. Those below the divinity can sweep through everything."

"Since I have such an opportunity, I must join the Bloodregius Legion. It's said that the Bloodregius Legion will pass by the Battlefield of Merits. The starry sky is filled with the Supreme Saint corpses of the Celestial Court."

...

Zhang Ruochen had heard a lot of news. Some were about the strength of the Bloodregius Legion, the Fane of Immortality's reward for participating cultivators, and the latest ranking of the top ten clans...

In general, because of the Battle of Celestial-Hunting's victory, the Immortal Vampires were still in a jubilant mood.

There was also bad news.

"The Battle of Celestial-Hunting has ended. The Infernal Court has sent more legions of saints to the Battlefield of Merits in Kunlun. They are preparing to launch a larger-scale war. They want to completely destroy this Macroworld that should have been destroyed in 100,000 years in a short time."

Zhang Ruochen had friends, subordinates, senior brothers, confidants, and even relatives in Kunlun.

How could he be happy when he heard this news?

Unfortunately, he couldn't stop it.

In front of such a level of war, his achievements were insignificant.

"Perhaps only by saving the Lord of Nephilim Island can we force the Infernal Court to retreat."

Zhang Ruochen stood in front of the Gate of Destiny and watched the Immortal Vampires leave one by one. Then, he stepped on the ray of sunset and walked to the top of the mountain.

"With the Precepts of Destiny I have now, I should be able to bear 0.003 percent of the Canon of Destiny. Getting the Canon is the key to saving the lord. This is the only thing I can do now. The life and death of the Kunlun cultivators can only depend on themselves."

Zhang Ruochen walked up Destiny's Creek and crossed the stone stairs.

When he reached the mountainside, the two Deathsworn Guards of the Saint King Realm who were guarding the sacred mountain each raised a spear to block his way.

The two Deathsworn Guards were very arrogant since they could look like Mount Destiny. They didn't think much of Zhang Ruochen as Supreme Saint.

“Master Ruochen, your 100 days of cultivation are over. You’re not a disciple of the Fane of Destiny. Please leave the sacred mountain as soon as possible,” one of the Deathsworn Guards said in a shriveled and ear-piercing voice.

He was from the Bone Clan.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I want to see the High Priest.”

“There are 12 Black Robe High Priests in the Fane of Destiny. Which one do you want to see?” Another Deathsworn Guard of Ghost asked coldly.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest.”

“Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest is currently not in the sacred mountain. Please go back!” The two Deathsworn Guards said at the same time.

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes darkened. “You didn’t even report it. How do you know that the Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest is not in the fane?”

“I’ve used my spiritual power to ask. The high priest is indeed not here,” the Bone Clan Deathsworn Guard said.

The Ghost Deathsworn Guard said, “Master Ruochen, why don’t you go to the Fortune Palace? Maybe you can find the High Priest.”

The two Deathsworn Guards were not afraid of Zhang Ruochen at all. They were expressionless, but they were sneering in their hearts.

‘No matter how powerful you are, Zhang Ruochen, would you dare to cause trouble on Mount Destiny?’

Zhang Ruochen was indeed favored by Fukurokuju. However, they were under the Destiny Division and weren’t under the control of Fortune Palace.

‘A cultivator from the Celestial Court has come to the Infernal Court. It’s fine if he doesn’t know how to control himself, but he's still arrogant. We should have punished him a long time ago.

'Supreme Saint Yanhong died at his hands. The Fane of Destiny has lost a lot of face because of this.

'Be careful. Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power is strong. Don't let him hear you!

'So what if he hears you? Does he dare to attack? I hope he does. There are some big figures in the Adjudication Division and the Destiny Division who have wanted to deal with him for a long time, but they didn't have a reason to.'

The two Deathsworn Guards communicated with each other through spiritual power. They didn't have any respect for the Supreme Saint from the Celestial Court. Instead, they were provoking him.

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power was many times stronger than theirs. Naturally, he could hear them clearly.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Why do you need to communicate through spiritual power? If you have anything to say, just say it. I don't dare to do anything to you on the sacred mountain anyway."

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen didn't have any of the legendary killing power, the Bone Clan's Deathsworn Guard didn't have much fear in his heart. He said "Fine then, the Fane of Destiny doesn't welcome humans. No, you don't seem to be a human either. You're only... a b*st*rd."

BOOM!

A powerful saint might burst out. Invisible airwaves sent the two Deathsworn Guards flying.

Along with the saint might burst out the divine flame from Yanshen's leg.

The divine flame engulfed their bodies.

The two Deathsworn Guards immediately let out shrill screams. A moment later, they were burned into ashes and fell to the ground. The long spears in their hands turned into molten iron, dripping on the ground with a sizzling sound.

The power of the divine flame was powerful, and it triggered the divine inscriptions and array of inscriptions on Mount Destiny.

“Such insolence! Who dares to break into Mount Destiny?”

A thunder-like roar was heard. A Destiny Guard in the Banshi Isshou Realm of the Destiny Division turned into lightning and descended hundreds of feet above Zhang Ruochen.

This Destiny Guard had three dog heads, and Ghost Qi was flowing all over his body.

As soon as he descended, the Destiny Guard enveloped Zhang Ruochen in his own Precept Domain.

The Precept Domain that the Nine-Step Saint King had cultivated could only release the precepts that he had cultivated to form a simple domain.

The Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint could transform his Precept Domain into a scenery. It was either a yellow sand world, 300 battle swords, battlefields, or an embryonic universe.

The Precept Domain of a Banshi Isshou Realm powerhouse had already reached a perfect state. He didn't even need to attack. He could suppress other Supreme Saints with just his Precept Domain.

There were nine Ghost Cities in Commander Cerberus's Precept Domain. They suppressed Zhang Ruochen one by one.

The only Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm that Zhang Ruochen had fought with before was Lord Hornless.

However, not only was Lord Hornless's spiritual power sealed but he was also bound by the divine chains. When Zhang Ruochen fought with him, he was already heavily injured. The saint Qi in his body was almost exhausted. His battle strength was ten times weaker than that of Commander Cerberus at the moment.

This was the true Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint.

The first Ghost City pressed down, but Zhang Ruochen couldn't move anymore. His skin seemed to crack.

The second Ghost City pressed down. Zhang Ruochen immediately released the Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth to resist the Commander Cerberus's Precept Domain.

...

Under the pressure of the fifth Ghost City, Zhang Ruochen had to mobilize the power of the Qiankun Realm to resist it.

Nine Ghost Cities were pressing down on Zhang Ruochen's head, causing his veins to bulge. The divine flame under his feet burned fiercely, like a cloud of fire. His eyes shone with sharpness.

'Is this the true strength of the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint? It's indeed powerful. No, this is only the power of his Precept Domain. He hasn't even made his move yet!' Zhang Ruochen thought.

Commander Cerberus was astonished.

He had long heard that Zhang Ruochen's battle strength was comparable to that of the Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint when he fought with Yan Wushen. He had thought that it was just a rumor and didn't take it seriously.

But Zhang Ruochen was able to withstand nine of his Ghost Cities without even bending his spine. He was indeed incredible.

Whoosh

The sound of wind breaking rang out continuously.

Deathsworn Guards and Destiny Guards in armor and holding long spears rushed over from all directions.

Five of them had auras that were no weaker than that of Commander Cerberus. In fact, they were even more powerful and profound.

Zhang Ruochen was fearless. When he had killed the two Deathsworn Guards, he had sensed that Commander Cerberus's aura was nearby. However, Commander Cerberus had not shown up. It seemed that he was waiting for Zhang Ruochen to make a mistake.

Moreover, Zhang Ruochen suspected that the reason why the two Deathsworn Guards dared to be so presumptuous was probably because of Commander Cerberus's secret order.

"Zhang Ruochen, do you know what you should be punished for intruding into Mount Destiny and killing two Deathsworn Guards?" Commander Cerberus's voice was cold and arrogant.

It was as if Zhang Ruochen had finally fallen into his hands.

Before Zhang Ruochen could speak, the voice of the Destiny Guard came from the left.

"Forcing your way into the Mount Destiny is a death penalty, and so does killing a Deathsworn Guard. You now have two death penalties on hand. Your sins lay heavy upon you and you shall be obliterated."

The dog head in the middle of Commander Cerberus showed its sharp teeth and chuckled. "Do you hear that? Take him down and lock him in the Purgatory of souls of the Destiny Division. If he dares to resist, execute him on the spot and kill him without mercy."

"Stop."

A cold female voice came with the wind.

Then, a graceful white figure wrapped in the bubbling Nether River slowly walked down from the top of the sacred mountain on stone steps.

Chapter 2432: Lord Wu Yue

“Greetings, Lady Scioness.”

All the saint guards below the Supreme Saint Realm knelt on one knee.

Even the Destiny Guards of the Supreme Saint Realm bowed slightly to show their respect.

No matter what, the Scioness represented the twelve Reverends.

Pan Ruo wore a veil and her hair swayed in the wind. She had a mysterious temperament. Her feet left the ground slightly and stepped on the water of the Nether River. Even though her cultivation was still shallow, she still gave off a powerful aura. No one dared to underestimate her.

Commander Cerberus knew that Pan Ruo and Zhang Ruochen had a deep grudge. He was delighted, he cupped his fists and said, “Lady Scioness, Zhang Ruochen is arrogant because of his talent. He used the reputation of Fukurokuju and the Xue Jue family to disregard the laws of the Fane of Destiny. Not only did he barge into the sacred mountain, but he also killed two saint guards. He should be punished according to the law.”

Pan Ruo stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, “Is what Commander Cerberus said true?”

Zhang Ruochen replied, “No.”

“I saw it with my own eyes. How dare you quibble? Men, take him down!” Commander Cerberus shouted angrily.

“Wait,” said Pan Ruo.

Pan Ruo reached out a hand to stop the saint guards and slowly walked into Commander Cerberus’s Precept Domain.

Commander Cerberus naturally didn’t dare to use the Precept Domain to suppress the Scioness. He quickly withdrew the nine Ghost Cities into his body. His three pairs of eyes shone with a strange light.

Why did this new Scioness stop him from dealing with Zhang Ruochen?

Commander Cerberus could not see through it. He really could not see through it.

The pressure on Zhang Ruochen's body lifted. He put away the Profound Spatial Dimension, Null Time realm, and the Realm-frame of Truth. However, his left leg was still burning with divine fire. Ordinary Supreme Saints could not get close.

"Why did you kill the saint guards?" Pan Ruo asked.

The two of them were less than three meters apart. Pan Ruo stood at the edge of the divine fire. She could only block it with the water of the Nether River.

Zhang Ruochen stared into her eyes and said, "I didn't kill them."

"Do you think I'm blind? The Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms have been hanging on Mount Destiny. Everything you've done has been reflected," Commander Cerberus said in a deep voice.

"You've all seen it," Zhang Ruochen stated calmly. "My leg is divine. It's far too powerful. I have no control over its power. It's all their fault. The two saint guards' cultivations are too low, but they dare to be so close to me. So I didn't kill them. They're pleading for death."

The surrounding saint guards were enraged by Zhang Ruochen's arrogance. They groaned.

Their killing intent condensed into a thick cloud.

Zhang Ruochen looked at Commander Cerberus, he asked, "Are you sure you want to meet the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms? I wonder what crime a Saint King has committed for insulting the Supreme Saint in the Fane of Destiny. Moreover, he is insulting the honorable guest of the Fane of Destiny."

Zhang Ruochen raised his palm, revealing the Destiny Token, as he said that.

Swish

The saint guards had just stood up when they immediately knelt down.

Commander Cerberus's proud and burly body also bent down and bowed to Zhang Ruochen.

"Since Zhang Ruochen has the Destiny Token, it's not considered breaking into Mount Destiny. Commander Cerberus, do you still want to pursue this matter?" asked Pan Ruo.

Commander Cerberus lowered his head and said, "Not anymore. Master Ruochen is innocent."

Zhang Ruochen said, "I want to see Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest."

"Since I'm going to Fortune Palace, do you want to go with me?" Pan Ruo asked.

"Of course, I'd like to go with you."

Zhang Ruochen activated the Armor of the Fire God again and absorbed the divine fire into it. He followed Pan Ruo to the depths of the sacred mountain, leaving a group of saint guards who looked at each other.

"What's going on? Lady Scioness is helping Zhang Ruochen?"

"Zhang Ruochen is too arrogant. He obviously doesn't care about our Destiny Division. He's even more domineering than the gods when he killed the saint guards on Mount Destiny. Nothing like this has happened in the last thousand years."

"He has the Destiny Token and Fukurokuju as his backers. Naturally, he has the right to be arrogant."

...

Commander Cerberus raised his head again and looked in the direction where Pan Ruo and Zhang Ruochen had left. There was no anger on his face. Instead, a smile of success appeared on his face.

Destiny Mountain looked like a mountain, but in fact, it couldn't be called a mountain. It occupied a vast area with many domains and palaces.

Commander Cerberus came to the abode where Lord Wu Yue of the Destiny Division was. He recounted what had just happened.

Whoosh

A shadow of Lord Wu Yue passed through the stone door of the abode and formed in front of Commander Cerberus. It was a middle-aged man with two horns on his head and claws on his hands.

Although it was a shadow, the power it exuded was enough to make Commander Cerberus bow.

The Lords of Destiny of the Destiny Division were the most powerful beings below the divinity. They were responsible for managing all the saint guards. If something big happened, even the high priests of the twelve divine palaces could not control them.

Lord Wu Yue was not angry, but he was mighty. He said, "How dare Zhang Ruochen kill the saint guards of the Destiny Division in the sacred mountain?"

Commander Cerberus knew how powerful Lord Wu Yue was. He didn't dare to hide anything from him, "Zhang Ruochen killed Her Highness Yanhong on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting," he said indignantly. "It was because of this that the two Deathsworn Guards couldn't help but offend him. Who knew that Zhang Ruochen had the Destiny Token and didn't care about the Destiny Division at all? He killed people just like that on Mount Destiny.

"This time, the Destiny Division has completely lost face! Who knows how the Adjudication Division and the Divination Division will laugh at us."

Lord Wu Yue glanced at Commander Cerberus and said, "The two Deathsworn Guards dare to provoke Zhang Ruochen? Or was it you who ordered them to do so?"

Commander Cerberus was shocked. He did not expect Lord Wu Yue's insight to be so terrifying. Suddenly, his back bent even lower and said, "Zhang Ruochen was too presumptuous in the Infernal Court. Shouldn't we teach him a lesson? He's a cultivator from the Celestial Court. Who knows if he's harboring evil intentions?"

Lord Wu Yue asked, "I heard you went to see Ling?"

THUMP!

Commander Cerberus knelt on one knee and said in a trembling voice, "This... this..."

"From the day you joined the Destiny Division, you should have known that you had to leave behind your Ghost identity. You can't involve yourself in the battles between the ten clans anymore," Lord Wu Yue said in a deep voice

"I understand, I understand," said Commander Cerberus.

Commander Cerberus put his hands behind his back and took a deep breath. He looked at the dark sky and said, "You did meet me, so you can still keep your life. If it were any other Lord of Destiny, your soul would have perished."

"Yes, my lord," said Commander Cerberus.

"Go and Tell Ling that if he wants to use me to deal with Zhang Ruochen, don't play such a low trick. If he angers me, the Ghost Master won't be able to keep him alive."

As soon as Lord Wu Yue said this, thunder sounded in the sky. Commander Cerberus's body shrank in fear.

Lord Wu Yue was too terrifying. Even a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm felt a great pressure in front of him.

"However, Zhang Ruochen is far too arrogant. If the Destiny Division doesn't teach him a lesson, I'm afraid the Adjudication and Divination Divisions will mock us. This I'll leave to you!" Lord Wu Yue stated.

Commander Cerberus's eyes lit up with joy. He thought to himself, it seems that what Ling said is true. This matter can indeed force Lord Wu Yue to act.

Commander Cerberus said, "This matter... is a bit difficult to handle..."

"Difficult to handle? You're a Destiny Commander in the Banshi Isshou Realm. You're dealing with a Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, and you're telling me it's difficult to handle? What use do I have for you?"

Lord Wu Yue thought of something and smiled. "Do you really believe the rumors and think that Zhang Ruochen can reach the Paramount Realm?"

Commander Cerberus shook his head. "No matter how powerful Zhang Ruochen is, I'm not afraid. However, Her Highness Pan Ruo seems to be protecting him. I can't do anything on Mount Destiny."

Lord Wu Yue was surprised, "The new Scioness? That's not right. I heard that they fought fiercely in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Moreover, on the day of the engagement, Zhang Ruochen also... Hmm... I see! This Scioness must not be taken lightly."

"Lord Wu Yue, what do you think Her Highness Pan Ruo is trying to do?" Commander Cerberus asked.

"All fights can end because of common interests," said Lord Wu Yue. "Zhang Ruochen is known as the number one genius of this Yuanhui period. If nothing goes wrong, he will soon become the ace powerhouse below the divinity."

"There is no life-and-death conflict between Pan Ruo and him that can not be resolved. Why must they continue to fight? Why don't we do Zhang Ruochen a favor now? Not only can we turn hostility into friendship, but we might even gain his strong support."

Lord Wu Yue's expression kept changing. He said, "Don't deal with Zhang Ruochen for now."

"Are we just going to let this go?" Commander Cerberus was a little anxious.

A gust of cold air was released from Lord Wu Yue. The world around him was completely covered in ice and snow, he said, "I almost made a wrong move just now because of you. Fortunately, Scioness Pan Ruo woke me up. If a person like Zhang Ruochen didn't provoke me, he wouldn't have a life-and-death grudge. There's no need to make an enemy out of him. There are so many cultivators who want to deal with Zhang Ruochen. I won't be someone else's blade."

...

In Mount Destiny, there was a Fortune palace that was guarded by the Black Robe High Priest.

Most of the disciples of the Fortune Palace who entered the sacred mountain to cultivate lived within a thousand miles of the Fortune Palace.

Zhang Ruochen didn't see Fukurokuju. It was the Black Robe High Priest who had brought him to the top floor of the Fane of Destiny. The soul of the fane was the one bestowed Zhang Ruochen the Canon of Destiny.

0.003 percent of the Canon of Destiny entered his body. Zhang Ruochen suddenly felt that the surrounding Precepts of Destiny were all active and surging into his body.

The Precepts of Destiny in his body were increasing all the time.

Walking out of the fane, the Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest said, "After mastering the Canon of Destiny, you are no different from a Master of Destiny. You have become one of the most suitable cultivators in the world to cultivate the Path of Destiny."

"However, the Canon is something that only the gods can fully control. The Canon of the Path of Ancients is a treasure that can drive the gods crazy."

"The whole world knows that you control 0.003 percent of the Canon. It's good for you, but it will also bring you death."

Lady Wind was protected by the 12 Reverends and was assassinated.

That was why the Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest was deeply worried about Zhang Ruochen's safety.

"Why don't you cultivate for a while in Mount Destiny? It's not too late to leave after you reach the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm," the Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest said.

Zhang Ruochen cupped his hands, “Thank you for your kindness, High Priest. If there really is a god who wants to assassinate me, I’ll still die if I reach the Great Perfection stage of the Hundred-Shackle Realm. I’m confident that I can protect myself if a cultivator below the divinity wants to kill me.”

The Fortune Palace Black Robe High Priest said solemnly, “Don’t underestimate a cultivator below the divinity. I haven’t reached divinity either, but I’m afraid it won’t be easy for you to escape from me.”

“I don’t dare to underestimate cultivators from all realms. I have to act cautiously.”

Since the Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest cared about him and didn’t treat him as an outsider, Zhang Ruochen naturally accepted it humbly.

The Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest had been worried that Zhang Ruochen would make countless enemies if he didn’t know how to restrain himself. Seeing that Zhang Ruochen had such a humble side, he nodded in satisfaction.

‘Luckily, Zhang Ruochen doesn’t resemble Wargod Bloodximus. Otherwise, he would probably die young,’ the Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest thought.

Wargod Bloodximus dared to be so arrogant. He dared to fight against any powerhouse because he was an absolute cultivator of the Infernal Court. The big shots of the Infernal Court could absolutely trust him. They wouldn’t treat him as an enemy, much less kill him.

If Huang Tian dared to be so arrogant, he would have died long ago!

For a genius, before he became a god, his strength was a part of him. However, he still had to know how to behave. He could not be surrounded by enemies.

The Fortune Palace Black Robe High Priest asked, “Have you gone to The Ancient Ruins to choose a Destiny Treasure?”

“Not yet,” Zhang Ruochen said.

“Then when?”

“I want to comprehend the Canon of Destiny first. After I have a deeper understanding of the Path of Destiny, I will choose a suitable Destiny Treasure.”

The Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest thought for a moment and said, “Come with me to the Fortune Palace! I will provide you an abode for yourself. You can slowly comprehend it there.”

“Thank you, High Priest,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Returning to the Fortune Palace, Zhang Ruochen followed a white-robed priest to Lake Abode.

In the palace.

The Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest looked at Pan Ruo, who was sipping tea on the right chair. He smiled and said, “Sorry to keep you waiting, Your Highness. May I know why you are here?”

As he spoke, the High Priest sat on the chair at the side.

Pan Ruo held the teacup. The tea in the teacup was steaming hot.

The tea leaves were gifts from the Rakshasas. It was said that the leaves were from Kunlun. Drinking this tea could help cultivators comprehend the Path.

Pan Ruo said, “The assassination of Fuurei is a disgrace to the entire Fane of Destiny. Seven of the twelve Reverends have passed down a divine order at the same time. We must investigate this matter thoroughly and wipe out the Avīci Pavilion. I am too young to be convinced by the masses. However, you are highly respected and I admire you. I wonder if you have any good suggestions?”

Pan Ruo was able to catch the eyes of the Reverend. The Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest wouldn’t dare to underestimate her.

He smiled and said, “Although the seven Reverends have given two orders, we can completely ignore the first one. After all, if even the Reverends can't find any results, how can we possibly do it?"

"In my opinion, our focus should be on the matter of wiping out the Avīci Pavilion."

"However, the Fortune Palace is not in charge of external battles. I think that Her Highness Pan Ruo should first discuss with the ten Lords of Destiny of the Destiny Division and the ten Great Adjudicators of the Adjudication Division. The Fortune Palace can mobilize the force of the Realm of Star Ocean to collect intelligence and information about the Avīci Pavilion as assistance.

"In addition, His Highness can also go to the fanes of the ten clans. Every clan should contribute to the fight against the Avīci Pavilion."

Pan Ruo had anticipated that despite her cultivation and experience, she would be unable to summon the high priests of the twelve divine palaces to Fortune Palace's Black Robe High Priest. It was merely a formality.

She had to let all the cultivators of the Fane of Destiny know that she was really working hard on this matter.

Chapter 2433: Ki Tian

The Ancient Ruins was one of the many hidden realms in Mount Destiny. It was said that there were many Destiny Treasures, each of which was priceless. Many core disciples of the Fane of Destiny were not qualified to enter the Ancient Ruins.

Zhang Ruochen activated the Sundial in the Lake Abode and comprehended the Canon of Destiny for half a year.

After he came out of seclusion, he came to the Ancient Ruins to look for the Destiny Treasures.

Crack

Zhang Ruochen stepped on a piece of green tile and made a cracking sound.

The Ancient Ruins were completely different from what he had imagined.

The sky of the hidden realm was very dark. Only the west side had a faint green light.

The vast land was full of broken walls and withered wood and rubble. It looked like a huge ruin. At a glance, one could not see the border.

Through the broken walls, the huge rocks, and the sacrificial instruments buried deep underground, one could imagine the glory of this place. It felt as if the celestial palace had collapsed.

Such a vast ruin reminded Zhang Ruochen of the Dragon Temple.

‘Was there once a magnificent fane here, and it was also destroyed?’ Zhang Ruochen thought.

Zhang Ruochen was shocked. Even though the whole world was broken, the stone pillars, the rusty cauldron, and the altar still gave off a sacred and solemn aura.

“This used to be the Fane of Destiny,” said Zhang Ruochen.

A low voice sounded beside him with a sigh.

Zhang Ruochen’s expression changed slightly. He turned his head to look. He saw a black figure standing not far away.

That person was dressed in a black robe. There was no movement of his aura. He appeared to be a mortal. Zhang Ruochen, on the other hand, couldn’t see his face or figure clearly. When he used the Eye of Truth, he only saw three blurry shadows.

Zhang Ruochen’s state of mind calmed down for a moment. He said calmly, “Who are you? Why are you here?”

“Although the Fane of Destiny has collapsed, there are still some ancient places of cultivation. I have been comprehending Path for a hundred years in the Ancient Ruins. Today, I just came out of seclusion and happened to pass by this place,” said the black-robed man.

Zhang Ruochen said, “What a coincidence!”

Could anyone enter the Ancient Ruins?

To be able to cultivate for a hundred years in the Ancient Ruins, this person was definitely not simple.

The black-robed man slowly walked forward, passing through broken walls and stepping over gullies.

Zhang Ruochen did not know why, but he chose to follow.

After walking for a long time, the black-robed man said, “Aren’t you curious how the Fane of Destiny collapsed? How long did it collapse? And who built the new fane?”

Zhang Ruochen was indeed curious, but he didn’t ask.

The black-robed man said, “There is no empire, no family, no fane that can be strong forever. When the apocalypse comes, the whole world will collapse. The Fane of Destiny was destroyed because it wasn’t strong enough. But as long as the inheritance isn’t broken and more excellent successors are born, the fane can be rebuilt, and it will be more magnificent than before.

“The setback of the destruction of the fane is only a short period of darkness. As long as the confidence is not broken and countless cultivators persist in their beliefs, there will always be light. Look at how powerful the newly born Fane of Destiny is now.”

Zhang Ruochen said coldly, “Who are you?”

Zhang Ruochen did not believe that a person who happened to pass by would say such a thing to him.

“My name is Ki Tian. I am a person who has abandoned everything, including myself. Now, I only have the sky above my head. Maybe one day, the sky will also step on it.”

The black-robed man turned around and walked away.

Zhang Ruochen chased after him. However, no matter how fast he moved, he could not catch up with the black-robed man’s slow footwork. He could only watch the black-robed man disappear into the horizon.

Zhang Ruochen panted heavily. Gritting his teeth, he hissed, “Who are you?”

The black-robed man’s appearance made Zhang Ruochen uneasy.

Unknowingly, he walked to the place the black-robed man had taken him to. He saw a dense mass of graves. Some had steles, and some only had a cross. It was extremely desolate.

On the stele and cross, there were names written one after another. They were all cultivators from the Fane of Destiny.

One of the areas was full of new graves.

All cultivators who died in the Fane of Destiny appeared to be buried here.

Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and sat down cross-legged to adjust his state of mind.

After he had completely calmed down, Zhang Ruochen opened his eyes again. He no longer thought about what the black-robed man had said. He was ready to focus on finding the Destiny Treasure.

After half a year of comprehending the Canon of Destiny, Zhang Ruochen had a deep understanding of the Path of Destiny.

The Fane of Destiny had twelve palaces namely, Life, Death, Misfortune, Fortune, Ominous, Prosperous, Joy, Anger, Emptiness, Reality, Past, and Future. They correspond to twelve different powers.

However, Zhang Ruochen reclassified them.

Life, Death, Misfortune, Fortune, Ominous, and Prosperous, in fact, represented light and darkness.

Joy and Anger represented the heart.

Emptiness and Reality represented oblivion and space.

The Past and Future represented time.

The power of Destiny was all-encompassing.

Words like joy or anger were not simply representing emotions. Instead, it contained more power. For example, Pan Ruo could use the Power of Destiny to cure cultivators with amnesia. In fact, it was a manifestation of the power of the heart.

Lady Wind possessed the Destiny Feather, which could control cultivators' emotions and muddle their memories. That power came from the heart as well.

The power of life, death, misfortune, fortune, ominous, and prosperous was more extensive.

After careful consideration, Zhang Ruochen decided to look for a Destiny Treasure that could be related to time or space.

Swoosh

He released the Precepts of Dimension, Precepts of Time, and spiritual power at the same time, spreading out inch by inch to explore the six directions of space.

If there was a Destiny Treasure that was compatible with dimension or time nearby, he would definitely sense it.

“Huh?”

In just a moment, Zhang Ruochen sensed it. He looked at a tomb the size of a mountain in front of him.

Although it was also a new tomb, it was much larger than the tombs of other cultivators. Clearly, the owner of the tomb had a great background.

Zhang Ruochen's figure flashed. He appeared under the tomb mound and looked up at the words on the stone tablet.

Suddenly, his pupils constricted.

“The tomb of the Scion, Yu Qiu.”

Zhang Ruochen hadn't expected that the previous Scion of the Fane of Destiny would die!

Was It so dangerous to be the Scion and Scioness of the Fane of Destiny?

When he read the content on the stone tablet, Zhang Ruochen sighed with relief. It was later revealed that the Scion had not been assassinated, but had died after failing to reach the divinity.

Those who could become the Scions and Scionesses of the Fane of Destiny must be the top geniuses of their era. Unfortunately, they were also under great pressure.

If they could not break through divinity within a thousand years, they would step down from the position of Scions and Scionesses.

The status of a Scion and Scionesses who were not gods was too embarrassing, and they could not avoid being ridiculed. There would definitely be countless cultivators who felt that they had wasted the massive amount of resources provided by the Fane of Destiny.

They would fight with all their might for the next thousand years, whenever they had the chance to break through to divinity.

In this way, the chances of them failing to break through to the divinity increased greatly.

Boom

Zhang Ruochen slapped his palm on the ground. He threw out all the Precepts of Time and Precepts of Destiny in his body to communicate with the Destiny Treasure in the tomb.

The Destiny Treasure only trembled slightly.

It didn't fly out.

“What? Does it want me to dig up the tomb and enter the coffin to take it?”

Zhang Ruochen didn't do it rashly. The tomb of a Scion who was almost in the divinity wasn't simple. Once he dug up the tomb, it would be disrespectful, and he would definitely suffer a backlash.

“Oh right, the Canon of Destiny.”

Zhang Ruochen formed a finger gesture with both hands and activated the power of the Canon of Destiny in his body.

CLANG!

A white light broke through the soil of the tomb mound and flew straight toward Zhang Ruochen.

It flew around Zhang Ruochen at an unparalleled speed.

It was so fast that even Zhang Ruochen felt danger. If he was hit by it, he would most likely be injured.

As it flew, the flow of time around it became chaotic. Marks of Time appeared on their own and gathered into a light tail behind it.

Zhang Ruochen released the Profound Spatial Dimension and Null Time realm at the same time to suppress it. At the same time, he spread out his right hand and transferred the power of the Canon of Destiny to his palm.

It slowed down and flew to Zhang Ruochen's palm.

It was a white bracelet. It wasn't made of stone, gold, or jade. It looked sparkling, but it wasn't transparent.

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen mobilized a beam of blood-red aura and injected it into the bracelet. Immediately, a layer of faint brilliance appeared on the bracelet. On the surface, there were ancient words that appeared—Universum Bracelet.

The universe is all space and time.

This bracelet was named after the universe and indeed had some connection with time. Fortunately, Zhang Ruochen had the Canon of Destiny. Otherwise, he would not have been able to subdue it.

“From now on, you’re coming with me!” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen put the Universum Bracelet on his wrist. He didn’t plan to continue searching for the Destiny Treasure. He left the Ancient Ruins.

The Destiny Treasure of a Scion wasn’t ordinary. It was also compatible with the Path of Time.

It wasn’t easy to find a better Destiny Treasure. Zhang Ruochen didn’t want to waste too much time in the Ancient Ruins.

As for the power of the Universum Bracelet, he planned to study it after he left.

After leaving The Ancient Ruins, Zhang Ruochen went to the Fortune Palace to thank and bid farewell to the Fortune Palace’s Black Robe High Priest. When he left, he wanted to ask about Ki Tian, but he held back the words.

On the way out of Mount Destiny, Zhang Ruochen could feel that there was a cultivator following him. He was very clever. Even with the Heart of Truth, Zhang Ruochen could not determine the identity of the person.

Zhang Ruochen ignored him and pretended not to notice. He went straight back to Winterpage City.

The Battle of Celestial-Hunting had ended a few months ago. The majority of the cultivators who had taken part in the experiment had now left. The entire city had been deserted. There weren’t many people on the streets. It was difficult to imagine the commotion leading up to the Battle of Celestial-Hunting.

The bustle died down.

The pursuer finally left. It seemed that he just wanted to confirm Zhang Ruochen's whereabouts.

When he was about to reach Vastsea Manor, Zhang Ruochen saw a familiar figure on the street.

It was Xue Tu.

Xue Tu wore a gray-white robe. He didn't have a single valuable treasure on him. He was even barefoot and wore no shoes.

Xue Tu checked his entire body again as he stood outside the Vastsea Manor. He walked toward the manor's door after ensuring that he was truly plain.

One should keep a low profile.

Although he was scared to death of Zhang Ruochen, Zhang Ruochen had a Sundial and a lot of resources for cultivation. If he followed Zhang Ruochen, he wouldn't be able to get many benefits. If he could salvage some of it, other cultivators would be envious.

'No matter what, I am his junior brother. With our relationship, can he kick me out? As for paying off the debt, I won't even think about it. As time goes by, he will eventually renege.' Xue Tu thought.

Xue Tu thought so and could not help but smile.

"Xue Tu, are you looking for me?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen's voice came from behind. Xue Tu was so scared that his whole body trembled. He stiffened and slowly turned around.

He saw Zhang Ruochen standing not far in front of him. He forced a smile that was uglier than crying, "Senior, long time no see. Oh, I almost forgot to congratulate you on your marriage with Princess Luo Sha. From now on, you are the prince consort of Devala."

"Why didn't you come to the engagement party?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu coughed dryly and said, "I was busy."

Xue Tu thought that Zhang Ruochen and Yan Wushen would die together in the void. Of course, he didn't go to the Fortune Palace to attend the engagement party. Instead, he excitedly went to the House of Enchanteurs and found two beautiful elven women. He drank happily for the whole night.

Zhang Ruochen sized him up from top to bottom. He smiled and said, "You're a Scion after all. How can you be so poor? Where are your shoes?"

Xue Tu's eyes turned red. Crying, he said, "I met a ruthless character in the House of Enchanteurs. I lost all of them in a bet. I was this close to selling my Supreme Saint blood. Look at my clothes. They're illusions."

His words were half true and half false.

Xue Tu's goal in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting was clear. He wanted to make a fortune. So he used all kinds of sneak attacks and robbed many Supreme Saints.

As a result, he was able to obtain six Regal Artifacts.

Not counting the Sainthood Source of different levels, the Supreme Saints' blood, bone, heart, etc...

After leaving the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, he sold all the treasures he had and exchanged them for a large amount of Godstones. He stored them in the Realm of Star Ocean for fear that Zhang Ruochen would see them.

He did meet a powerful figure in the House of Enchanteurs, but he lost face, not Godstones.

Zhang Ruochen certainly did not believe in Xue Tu. He said, "I remember that every warrior of the Immortal Vampires can enter the Ancient Ruins to look for a Destiny Treasure. Have you been to the Ancient Ruins?"

"Yes!" said Xue Tu.

"You lost that Destiny Treasure too?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

"Yes! I'm so miserable, Senior! I'm Your Junior Brother and the disciple of Blood Empress. I'm so miserable that I'm not only losing face but also your face and my master's face. Senior, do you have any boots and armor of the Saint Weapon Level? Give me a pair. I am not picky, just a Regal Artifact level will do.”

Xue Tu looked at Zhang Ruochen with anticipation.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “What kind of place is the House of Enchanters you mentioned just now?”

Xue Tu said mysteriously, “It is a branch of the Enchanter Chamber in the Divine Domain of Destiny.”

Zhang Ruochen had heard Supreme Saint Qingsheng mention the name of the Enchanter Chamber. It was one of the ten magnates of the world of darkness in the Infernal Court. It was as famous as the Avīci Pavilion.

Zhang Ruochen looked surprised. “The Enchanter Chamber dares to open a branch in the Divine Domain of Destiny?”

“Senior, you don’t know this. The Enchanter Chamber is different from other dark forces. It has a deep foundation in the Infernal Court.

“The master of the House of Enchanters — located at the Fane of Desitiny — and the Death Palace¹’s Black Robe High Priest have an extraordinary relationship. They have prominent backgrounds!”

Chapter 2434: Combining Saint Technique and Saintwill

Zhang Ruochen didn't care whether Xue Tu was telling the truth or not. He said, "I need you to do something for me. You should have some time, right?"

"It's my bounden duty to help Senior brother."

Xue Tu patted his chest. The next moment, his eyes moved and he asked in a low voice, "Is it dangerous? I'm only at Neverwilt Realm. I'm afraid I can't do something too dangerous!"

"It's not dangerous. Just help me ask about something."

Xue Tu breathed a sigh of relief. "What is it?"

"I want to know everything about Southern Sword Realm," Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu's eyes were filled with confusion. "Southern Sword Realm? Is there such a macroworld in the Myriad Realms of Celestial Court?"

"No. Southern Sword Realm isn't a subordinate mortal world of Celestial Court. It's a macroworld without any gods. It should be under the control of some force in Infernal Court now," Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu's worries were swept away, he smiled and said, "I was wondering why I hadn't heard of it before. Turn out it's a weak realm without gods. There are so many macroworlds like this in Infernal Court. It's a piece of cake. I'll go check it out."

Just as he was about to leave, he stopped again and said with a fake smile, "Senior, look at me. Should I go barefoot working for you? Honestly, I could go barefoot, but I can't be naked right?"

“If you like being naked, go naked!”

Zhang Ruochen passed through an invisible light screen and entered the array of Vastsea Manor. His body disappeared.

Xue Tu clenched his fists. He was too angry to speak. Finally, he stomped his feet and rushed to Realm of Star Ocean. It seemed that he had to take out a part of the Godstones that he had just stored.

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the array again and looked in the direction where Xue Tu had left. He said to Lord Sinluo beside him, “Lord Sinluo, follow him quietly and keep a close watch on him.”

“Don’t worry. If he dares to play tricks, I’ll break his legs.”

Lord Sinluo used a Cloaking Saint Technique. He disappeared and followed Xue Tu quietly.

Zhang Ruochen had promised the group of Celestial Captives that he would protect Southern Sword Realm for 10,000 years.

They had all died in Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

However, Zhang Ruochen had made a promise. He naturally took it to heart and would definitely fulfill it.

Zhang Ruochen activated Sundial again. He was not in a hurry to cultivate. Instead, he took out a blood-red bead and removed Supreme Saint Yanhong’s skeleton from the bead’s internal space.

Supreme Saint Yanhong’s body was a divine bone. Legend had it that she had woken up in the depths of Sanzu River. She had been killed three times by a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint and had been resurrected three times. She could be said to be immortal.

Her divine bone body was 1,800 miles tall.

Zhang Ruochen had used dimensional chains to confine her. Now, she looked about the same height as a normal human.

He laid her down on the ground. Other than her head, her entire body was pink. The bone seemed to be made of jade. It was crystal clear and gave off a faint divine light.

Immortal Inscriptions could be faintly seen inside the bones. It was extremely mysterious and contained incomprehensible rhymes of Path.

Zhang Ruochen's finger touched the bone on her left hand. He immediately felt as if he had been electrocuted. The divine light emitted from the bone repelled any cultivator who came into contact with her.

"Interesting. As expected of Pink Skull that even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint couldn't kill. She really is dead but not stiff."

Zhang Ruochen could sense that the divine bone on her body was slowly absorbing the death Qi between heaven and earth.

The cranium of Pink Skull that had been attacked by Zhang Ruochen with three drops of Dark Space-time Matter turned dark. Immortal Inscriptions in the divine bone had also become very dim.

Zhang Ruochen closed his eyes, mobilized his spiritual power, and gathered them at his fingertips.

He pointed at the forehead of Pink Skull.

His spiritual power condensed into an electric shuttle and rushed into her skull from his fingertips.

There was a strange area inside her skull that could not be explored. It was blurry. As soon as Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power rushed into that area, it was immediately counterattacked by a powerful force.

Boom!

Where Zhang Ruochen's fingertips and Pink Skull's glabella touched, a divine light wave exploded. The force was so powerful that Zhang Ruochen staggered back four steps.

"It contains such terrifying energy. It seems that Dark Space-time Matter didn't kill Pink Skull."

Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to probe further. He rested his chin on his finger and thought carefully.

Was Pink Skull a Bone Clan cultivator with intelligence or a living God?

If it was the latter...

Keeping her by his side would be an uncontrollable disaster.

In the next half a year, Zhang Ruochen studied the Immortal Inscriptions on Pink Skull. He tried to draw them on spiritual papers, but all of them failed.

The Immortal Inscriptions were too complicated and mysterious. The best attempt was when Zhang Ruochen managed to draw half of it. Yet the inscription still collapsed and turned into wisps of red smoke.

In the library of Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Zhang Ruochen found some records related to Immortal Inscriptions.

The so-called Immortal Inscriptions could only be cultivated by top-level gods. The more Immortal Inscriptions one cultivated, the more chance one could fight against the Yuanhui tribulation and live another Yuanhui period.

The reason why Truegods were hard to kill was also related to Immortal Inscriptions.

“Forget it. I’ll study Immortal Inscriptions after my spiritual power reaches the 66th level!”

The 66th level of spiritual power was another major watershed for spiritual-power Supreme Saints. Once one reached it, one could fight against Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint using only spiritual power.

Moreover, the cultivator’s vitality will be greatly increased, and his spiritual power could be integrated into his body.

Even if his body was destroyed, his spiritual power could not be destroyed.

Kymorpho in Thousand-Koan Realm Celestial Captive was a 66th-level spiritual-power Supreme Saint. With her powerful spiritual power, she could hide her strength and deceive the pseudo gods of Fane of Destiny.

Zhang Ruochen didn't want to alert the gods, so he didn't look for Blood Empress and Wargod Bloodximius. Instead, he sent Pink Skull into Qiankun Realm.

In Qiankun Realm, death Qi was thin.

If Pink Skull wanted to wake up by absorbing death Qi, it would take hundreds or thousands of years. Even if she woke up, as long as she wasn't a real God, Zhang Ruochen could suppress her again.

Zhang Ruochen tried to communicate with the Canon Mark of Swordsmanship left by Empress of Thousand Bones on the trunk of Divine Sky-connecting Tree. Unfortunately, her divine spirit did not appear this time.

"Lady Wind has just died. The entire Divine Domain of Destiny is in a state of panic. All the cultivators of Avīci Pavilion have gone into hiding. The Empress should have also left. It seems that I can only contact her again when I am far away from Divine Domain of Destiny."

Zhang Ruochen left Qiankun Realm, but Xue Tu and Lord Sinluo were still not back.

So, he took out the bronze coffin containing the god's corpse again, he thought, "I've almost exposed all my trump cards in the battle of Celestial-Hunting and the battle with Yan Wushen. If someone wants to kill me, they must have analyzed me thoroughly, prepared well, and been able to predict all my moves. I must prepare one or two powerful tricks that no one knows about."

Zhang Ruochen had a strong sense of crisis in Infernal Court.

So, he decided to nurture God-eater Bugs at all costs.

He placed the bronze coffin within the coverage of Sundial. Zhang Ruochen did not immediately fly into the coffin. Instead, he tried to use his spiritual power to communicate with Sundial.

The communication failed.

Zhang Ruochen had no choice but to fly into the bronze coffin himself. Suddenly, Mark of Time condensed by Sundial followed him into the vast dimension in the coffin.

When he landed on the surface of the god's corpse, Zhang Ruochen first carefully observed God-eater Bugs that were sleeping.

Then, he found a place where there was no divine poison and began to cultivate.

Wargod Bloodximius had pointed out his weakness. Zhang Ruochen also knew what he needed to make up for. At the moment, there were at least two things he needed to do besides breaking his shackles.

First, he needed to cultivate Path of Truth. He wanted to be able to draw out ten times the attack power in a shorter time when he fights.

Second, he needed to combine Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill with Thousand-Koan level Saint Technique.

The second thing was the most important one.

Although Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill was powerful, Zhang Ruochen could not integrate it into the Saint Technique and use it as he pleased. He could only use the Saintwill superficially and attack alone.

To cultivate Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill perfectly, it was necessary to integrate it into the Saint Technique first. Only then, one could gain a deep understanding of it through endless battles.

“Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike is a Thousand-Koan level Saint Technique that I am most familiar with. Let Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill combines with it first.”

Zhang Ruochen spread his arms and slowly released Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, condensing a huge Taiji Mark.

...

Time passed quickly.

Zhang Ruochen cultivated for one year and three months in the bronze coffin.

He only cultivated Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike and Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill every day. He cultivated it more than 10,000 times, thus his proficiency in both increased greatly.

It took a lot of time for a Hundred-Shackle Realm Supreme Saint to use a Thousand-Koan level's advanced Saint Technique.

After cultivating for more than a year, the time for Zhang Ruochen to display Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike was at least half of what it used to be. However, when he wanted to combine it with Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill, he could not succeed.

"I'll try again. If I still can't combine it, I won't waste any more time. I will put up with the second best. It should be much easier for me to combine Saintwill with a Hundred-Shackle Realm's advanced Saint Technique."

Whoosh

With a thought, Taiji Mark formed by Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill floated in front of Zhang Ruochen.

Then, he drew his bow and stepped forward. His powerful masculinity ignited his entire body.

Ten Swastika Seiryu phantoms coiled around his left arm.

On his right arm, the phantoms of the ten Intergold Tigers howled.

As the power of the palms grew stronger, Taiji Mark in front of him was pulled into a hollow distortion. It kept rushing toward his two palms.

"Hold on. Quick, just a little bit more..."

Zhang Ruochen's palms were already burning gold. It was as if they were going to melt. The palm power was accumulated to the peak. However, this palm strike had not struck out.

It could not be struck out yet.

"Suppress it!"

Zhang Ruochen made a bold decision. He released Profound Spatial Dimension and used Power of Dimensions to forcibly merge Taiji Mark toward the two palms.

Unexpectedly, it worked.

When Taiji Mark and his palms were completely merged, Zhang Ruochen felt as if his hands did not belong to him anymore. They were as heavy as mountains and he could no longer control the power of his palms.

Bang!

His right palm struck forward with an earth-shaking tiger roar.

The terrifying palm power surged out of the bronze coffin and turned into a golden pillar that shot into the sky.

The bronze coffin was like a bell that had been struck. It made an ear-splitting sound and sent everyone who was cultivating under Sundial flying.

Xue Tu had just entered Vastsea Manor. Before he could call out “Senior brother,” he was sent flying by the power from the bronze coffin. He crashed heavily into the light wall of the array.

Blood flowed out of his ears.

...

Inside the bronze coffin.

Zhang Ruochen stood on the surface of the god’s corpse and looked at the two bloody palms.

The power of that palm was too powerful. It was so powerful that he couldn’t control it, and even hurt himself.

However, Zhang Ruochen looked up at the sky and laughed. He was in a good mood.

No matter what, Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill had finally merged with Dragon-Elephant Prajna Palm Strike. Even if it didn’t work every time. Even if it takes a long time to activate it. Even if he would hurt himself by it.

However, this was a good start!

As long as he cultivated diligently, there would be a day when he could master it.

At that time, the palm will be where the heart was.

“If I want to cultivate Yin Yang Five-Element Saintwill to full strength, perhaps Power of Dimensions will play a huge role.”

“Dimensions... Yin Yang... Five-Elements...”

“Yin Yang... Dimensions... Five-Elements...”

Zhang Ruochen stood still and repeated these words, trying to find the key to cultivate Grade One Saintwill.

Everything has two sides, Yin and Yang.

Everything is a part of the dimensions.

Everything is composed of Five-Elements.

After thinking for a long time, Zhang Ruochen could not figure it out. He could only shake his head.

How could he comprehend Grade One Saintwill in a day?

Outside the bronze coffin, Zhang Ruochen sensed the aura of Xue Tu. He stopped cultivating and flew back to Vastsea Manor. The wounds on his palms had healed themselves.

Zhang Ruochen stared at Lian Xi and asked, “How many Godstones are consumed in a day?”

“15,” said Lian Xi.

Zhang Ruochen frowned deeply, he muttered to himself, “It’s actually 15 times more than normal. Indeed, the larger the dimension, the greater the consumption. I wonder if the consumption of Godstones are affected by the cultivator’s stronger cultivation or the more amount of cultivators cultivating inside the broze coffin.”

Cultivating for a year cost 15 Godstones.

Cultivating for 1,000 years cost 15,000 Godstones.

An ordinary Supreme Saint could not afford to waste such amount of Godstones.

Xue Tu walked carefully behind Zhang Ruochen and said, “Senior brother, I’ve found out the information about Southern Sword Realm!”

Zhang Ruochen turned around and asked seriously, “What’s the general situation? Which force is in control of Southern Sword Realm?”

Xue Tu said, “The situation is a bit complicated! Originally, Divination Division of Fane of Destiny had figured out the location of Southern Sword Realm in the universe. It is for Death Palace — one of the 12 Fane of Destiny — to go there and attacked it. At last, becoming the private territory of Death Palace.

“But not long ago, a few forces joined forces and paid a high price to buy Southern Sword Realm from Death Palace’s Black Robe High Priest.”

Zhang Ruochen snorted. “Not long ago? How long ago?”

“Not long after Battle of Celestial-Hunting,” Xue Tu said.

Zhang Ruochen nodded slightly, he said thoughtfully, “Southern Sword Realm doesn’t have a powerful inheritance or a treasure land. There’s only one cultivator who reached Supreme Saint Realm through his own trial and error. It can be said to be an extremely low-value macroworld. Yet, someone is willing to pay a lot of money to buy it. Which forces was it?”

“Led by Ghost’s Dishastan. Bone clan’s Roopkund Sea and Corpusian’s Hall of Permanence also paid a lot of Godstones,” Xue Tu said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “So it was Dishastan. It seems that they really came for me. Only very few cultivators know about the deal between me and the cultivators of Southern Sword Realm. Who leaked the secret?”

The master of Dishastan was Ghost Master.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen thought of someone. A cold look flashed in his eyes. He asked, “Is Lord Bladehell still in Divine Domain of Destiny?”

“Him? He left a long time ago. It’s said that he’s going to Fane of Immortality to break through to Thousand-Koan Realm,” Xue Tu said.

“He dared to betray me. Did he think that he can survive by hiding in Fane of Immortality or breaking through to Thousand-Koan Realm?”

Zhang Ruochen’s killing intent soared.

Zhang Ruochen thought about the matter of Southern Sword Realm. The only person he could think of that who would leak the secret was Lord Bladehell.

Zhou Zhen walked in from outside and handed Zhang Ruochen a post. “Master, a Ghost just sent an invitation to the House of Enchanteurs.”

Chapter 2435: Enchanter Palace, Reception Hall

Zhang Ruochen opened the invitation and read it quickly.

Finally, his eyes became sharp when he saw the name at the end of the invitation card.

Closing the invitation, Zhang Ruochen smiled coldly and said, “He actually came to me on his own initiative.”

“Who?” Xue Tu asked curiously.

Zhang Ruochen said, “The fifth son of Ghost Master, Ling.”

Xue Tu was shocked, he said, “There’s a long-held grudge between Xue Jue Family and Dishastan. Whether it’s Wargod, Ghost Master, or the cultivators below, there are countless public and hidden fights. Why would Ling invite you? I get it. It must be the matter in Southern Sword Realm. As far as I know, the cultivator who bought Southern Sword Realm from Death Palace’s Black Robe High Priest was Ling.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “How much do you know about Ling?”

“Not much.”

Xue Tu shook his head gently. “In any case, the nine sons of Ghost Master are all top-level talents and all have the potential to become gods. It was said that Ling had passed the eighth Ghost Tribulation a thousand years ago. I haven’t heard of him in the last few hundred years. I don’t know if he has passed the ninth Ghost Tribulation yet.”

A Ghost who had survived the ninth Ghost Tribulation was one of the top elites below divinity. One was comparable to a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

Xue Tu laughed. “I guess Ling must have wanted to use Southern Sword Realm to blackmail you. But he had miscalculated. Xue Jue Family is a big family. How could they put Southern Sword Realm in their eyes? I don't think we should go to the invitation tonight. We can't afford to offend an elite like Ling."

"What's wrong? Let's go." Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu was stunned and said, "Senior brother, now is not the time to be impulsive. Why don't we open Sundial and cultivate for 1,000 years? After that, we can go out and kill every last one of them."

"If we keep cultivating in seclusion, our progress will be slow. We will be just wasting our life," Zhang Ruochen said.

The Battle of Celestial-Hunting had only lasted for 100 days, but Zhang Ruochen's cultivation had improved more than cultivating in Sundial for hundreds of years.

The path of cultivation could not be separated from tempering and opportunities.

Southern Sword Realm was indeed insignificant in Zhang Ruochen's heart. However, the promise he made was as heavy as a mountain. No matter how difficult it was, he had to try his best to fulfill it.

Perhaps part of the reason why Dishastan, Roopkund Sea, and Hall of Permanence had joined hands to purchase Southern Sword Realm was to target Zhang Ruochen. However, a macroworld contained countless living beings and buried hundred millions of bones.

After these living beings were killed, countless Corpusians and Ghost souls could be born. The bones buried underground could be cultivated into a large number of Bone cultivators.

If Zhang Ruochen did not go to the invitation, Ling could give the order to wipe out Southern Sword Realm and turn it into a city of dead souls. Thus, increasing the strength of the three forces.

At that time, Zhang Ruochen would not be able to fulfill his promise because he did not save them. His state of mind would be affected.

Naturally, Ling had achieved his goal.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the sky and said, "Let's go to the House of Enchanters now. Xue Tu, lead the way."

"Senior, I have something important to do, so I won't go to the House of Enchanters!"

If it was another time, Xue Tu would definitely go to the House of Enchanters to have fun. However, he had ruined his reputation and suffered a great loss two days ago. Naturally, he wasn't going to embarrass himself again.

Besides, Ling was a powerful existence. He is definitely up to no good in inviting Zhang Ruochen.

How could he, a Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saint dare to get involved in this matter.

"Are you sure you don't want to go?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

"It's not that I don't want to go. Father has passed down a divine order. I have to rush back to Dominion of Bloodysky Clan." Xue Tu had no choice but to lie and blame it on the god.

Zhang Ruochen said casually, "I heard that you have stored a lot of Godstones in Realm of Star Ocean."

Xue Tu's face turned as pale as paper.

Lord Sinluo had returned to Vastsea Manor and was standing at the gate. He had just transmitted his voice and told Zhang Ruochen the secret of Xue Tu.

Xue Tu was sweating profusely. His body was trembling. He cried, "Senior, How-how did you know?"

"How much did you save?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu was about to cry, "I risked my life to get those Godstones. It wasn't easy for me! Senior, I'll definitely pay you back for the Godstones I owe you. However, I need to have some savings in the path of cultivation that costs so much, right?"

"I didn't say I wanted your Godstones. Why are you so nervous?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Hearing this, Xue Tu heaved a long sigh of relief.

Zhang Ruochen asked again, “Do you want to take me to the House of Enchanteurs?”

“No problem. I know that place well.”

“Aren’t you in a hurry to return to Dominion?”

“No, not at all. What could be more urgent than Senior’s matter?”

“Okay. The expenses in the House of Enchanteurs Tonight will be paid by Scion Xue Tu.”

Xue Tu’s face, which had recovered with much difficulty, turned pale again. He was petrified.

...

The House of Enchanteurs was built in Metaform City. It only needed one dimensional teleportation to get there from Winterpage City.

Zhang Ruochen still couldn’t fully control the power of Yanshen’s leg. So he stood by the lake with Xue Tu in Armor of the Fire God, looking at the brightly lit House of Enchanteurs in the center of the lake.

The House of Enchanteurs wasn’t a tower. It was a group of magnificent palaces on the water.

The palaces were golden and resplendent. Saint trees rose from the layers of jade tiles. They gave off purple light. Purple leaves fell like dancing lights. The sounds of singing and dancing could be faintly heard. It gave people endless thoughts.

There were many ships on the lake. Most cultivators on the ships had extraordinary cultivation. They could often sense a Supreme Saint’s aura.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen sensed a familiar aura fluctuation. His eyes fell on a blue ship. The ship seemed to be made of holy jade. It was engraved with Supreme Saint’s inscription, which could stop spiritual power from probing.

Zhang Ruochen could vaguely see the inside of the ship with the Eye of Truth.

He saw the Devalan prince, Prince Luo Shengtian sitting cross-legged. His body was shining brightly, and his aura was like a dragon or a roc. He gave off a faint divine power as if he could overturn heaven and earth.

Zhang Ruochen’s face showed a strange expression.

It was out of Zhang Ruochen’s expectations that he would meet Luo Sha’s royal brother in a place like the House of Enchanteurs.

Zhang Ruochen could see that Luo Shengtian had broken through to Thousand-Koan Realm. His cultivation and combat power had both increased by several times. With his current combat power, he could probably severely injure Que and Lan Ying — who were in Hundred-Shackle Realm — with only one move.

Zhang Ruochen had expected that Luo Shengtian would be able to break through to Thousand-Koan Realm before the others.

After all, Que, Lan Ying, Yan Haungtu, and Wujiang were all severely injured on the Battlefield of Celestial Hunting. They needed to spend a lot of time healing first. Luo Shengtian had accumulated his strength for many years. He was just one step away from Thousand-Koan Realm. Naturally, he could break through easily without any injuries.

What Zhang Ruochen couldn’t understand was Luo Shengtian was always serious and he didn’t seem like someone who was addicted to wine and sex. Why did he secretly come to the House of Enchanteurs when he had just broken through and couldn’t perfectly control the explosive power in his body?

The blue ship docked.

Luo Shengtian wore a special holy robe that made him shorter and thinner and wore a golden mask. Accompanied by a 60-year-old man, he climbed the white jade-like steps.

Apparently, the House of Enchanteurs knew the great identity of the Devalan Prince. They sent a beautiful woman in blue from Rakshasa to wait on the shore.

As soon as Luo Shengtian got off the boat, the beautiful woman in blue bowed and invited them into the House of Enchanters with a respectful attitude.

All of this was observed by Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was curious about what was going on with Luo Shengtian. Why was he so mysterious and secretive.

Zhang Ruochen asked Xue Tu beside him, “Can you hide your identity when you enter the House of Enchanters?”

Xue Tu quickly shook his head, “Of course not. the House of Enchanters must have a clear grasp of the identity of every cultivator. The destructive power of a Saint-level cultivator is too terrifying. If a crazy person appears and causes trouble, the House of Enchanters will be destroyed.”

Suddenly, Xue Tu thought of something, he said seriously, “Senior, you just got engaged to Princess Luo Sha. It’s not suitable for you to show up in public. If you don’t want to expose your identity, you can contact the hall master first. With the permission of the hall master, you can hide your real face to others.”

“No need to trouble yourself.”

Zhang Ruochen’s body swayed, and the sound of flesh moving came from his body.

After a moment, he changed his appearance and turned into Xueqi. Even Armor of the Fire God on his body had changed. The divine light had completely disappeared, and the armor was no different from an ordinary one.

Xueqi was also a proud son of Xue Jue Family. He was less than 1,000 years old, and his cultivation had reached Hundred-Shackle Realm. It was reasonable for him to go to the House of Enchanters with Xue Tu.

Although Xue Tu and “Xueqi” were both Supreme Saints, there were many Supreme Saints who came to the House of Enchanters that didn’t receive any special treatment. They could only take the House of Enchanters’s guiding spirit ship and enter the House of Enchanters with other cultivators.

After getting off the ship and arriving outside Reception Hall, Zhang Ruochen finally felt the extravagance of Enchanteur Palace.

Reception Hall was built from materials used to refine Regal Artifacts. It was 300 meters tall and majestic. The two bronze doors could allow dozens of people to pass side by side.

Every detail was meticulously studied.

For example, the phoenix carving on the golden pillars, the lanterns on both sides of the door, the design of the window lattice, the bone carving used for decoration, the planting method of the holy tree spirit flower... All the designs and arrangements were masterful creations. Saint-level cultivators would be amazed when they saw it.

It was completely different from what Zhang Ruochen had imagined. Instead, it was like an art museum.

Every step and scene was beautiful and magnificent.

Such scenery could be seen in just the Reception Hall. He didn't know how many more mysterious scenery there were in the House of Enchanters.

Compared to this place, Zhang Ruochen's Vastsea Manor was no different from a simple thatched cottage.

"If it weren't for all the noise and racket, the House of Enchanters would be an excellent place for self-cultivation," Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu stood to Zhang Ruochen's right and looked at the lights in front of him, he sighed and said, "Senior, you may not know this, but there are nine halls in the House of Enchanters. Among them, there are also places that are extremely peaceful and natural. To put it bluntly, any cultivator who comes to the House of Enchanters will probably be addicted to this place. They won't leave until they've spent all their treasures."

Zhang Ruochen chuckled and shook his head. He obviously didn't agree with Xue Tu.

A Supreme Saint's will was very strong. He could control his desires and wouldn't be easily addicted. Of course, this didn't apply to cultivators with inner demons.

There were many cultivators gathered in Reception Hall. Beautiful women in white shuttled back and forth, communicating with them and settling them down.

Some of these women were charming, some had a pure temperament, some came from Immortal Vampires, Rakshasa, Nether Clan, Yanluo clan, and so on. There were also humans, elves, dragon ladies, foxes, and people from Celestial Court.

They were at least Demi-Saints. They were all calm and collected when communicating with a Supreme Saint.

Zhang Ruochen saw two familiar figures. They were Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu.

Both of them had changed their appearances and figures. They wore robes that concealed their auras. Around them were more than a dozen guards with powerful cultivations. They looked imposing and attracted the attention of many cultivators.

The hall master of Reception Hall had reached the Supreme Saint Realm. She was a woman in her 20s. According to Xue Tu's introduction, her name was Han Yun'ge. She was a human.

She looked young and had a very immature temperament. Yet in reality, she was already over three thousand years old and a rather shrewd person.

For a human woman to be able to reach such a high position in Infernal Court, she had to be very shrewd.

Han Yun'ge took the initiative to welcome Yan Zhexian and Yan Huangtu. She bowed to them and with a faint smile on her face, she used her spiritual power to communicate with them.

No one knew what they were communicating about.

A moment later, Yan Huangtu said, "Tonight, I'll still be staying at Peach Annex. You should know what to do."

"Of course!"

Han Yun'ge immediately called over a white-clothed girl and led the people of the Yanluo clan through Reception Hall to the depths of the palace complex.

“Who has such a high profile to actually speak to Master Han in such a tone?”

“Ordinary Scion doesn't have such power. Could it be a superior from Thousand-Koan Realm or Banshi Isshou Realm?”

“I don't think it's that simple. That person definitely has a powerful background.”

...

Apart from Zhang Ruochen, few cultivators could see through the disguise of Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian. They were all discussing and speculating.

Zhang Ruochen was even more confused. He thought to himself, “What's going on? Why are Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian Here? Did something big happen in the House of Enchanteurs?”

It was understandable if Yan Huangtu had come alone.

The men had just experienced a life-and-death battle on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. He should relax with a romantic experience. However, the appearance of Yan Zhexian made Zhang Ruochen think deeply. Did the elites of Yanluo clan come to the House of Enchanteurs for another purpose?

Then, Zhang Ruochen found traces of several elites. They were all personally received by Han Yun'ge. Clearly, they had a powerful background.

Even Xue Tu realized that something was wrong, he said in a low voice, “Senior, the House of Enchanteurs is a bit strange today. Normally, Han Yun'ge is almost nowhere to be seen. I didn't expect that the hall master of Reception Hall would come in person today and personally receive several groups of cultivators.”

There was envy and curiosity in Xue Tu's tone.

He added, “Xueqi’s status is still a bit low. If Senior revealed your true identity, no matter how lofty the House of Enchanters is, Han Yun’ge would definitely take the initiative to welcome you instead of being ignored.”

Han Yun’ge was dressed in immortal silk wrapped around her wrists. Her temperament was lucid and elegant. She was like a fairy in the clouds and did not have any mundane sense.

A maid in white held a scroll in her hand and walked quickly to Han Yun’ge’s side. Her lips moved as she whispered something to her.

A look of surprise appeared in Han Yun’ge’s eyes. She took the scroll and glanced at it. Then, she could not help but look in the direction of ‘Xueqi’ and Xue Tu.

Han Yun’ge walked over like a gentle and talented lady. She placed her hand on her waist and bowed slightly, “Yun’ge’s greetings to Supreme Saint Xueqi and Scion Xue Tu.”

Many cultivators in Reception Hall looked over.

Some of them were surprised. Why was Han Yun’ge so respectful to Xue Tu and Xueqi? After all, Han Yun’ge was also a Supreme Saint.

Xue Tu was excited as he was finally valued. He couldn’t help but straighten his back and feel honored.

Zhang Ruochen remained calm and showed an extraordinary bearing.

Han Yun’ge transmitted her voice to Zhang Ruochen through spiritual power. “Master Ruochen, why didn’t you tell me that you were coming? Please forgive me for my slight.”

Zhang Ruochen transmitted his voice. “How do you know my real identity?”

“Master Ruochen’s Shapeshifting technique is rather brilliant that Yun’ge can’t see through it. However, the House of Enchanters knows that Xueqi has returned to Dominion of Bloodysky Clan and is not in Divine Domain of Destiny.”

A gentle look appeared on Han Yun’ge’s pure face, which dazzled many cultivators present.

Zhang Ruochen thought to himself. It seemed that the information system of the Enchanter Chamber was very powerful. Most of the information and movements of the Supreme Saints in Infernal Court were under their control.

Han Yun'ge did not transmit another message. She asked, "Supreme Saint Xueqi is an honored guest of the House of Enchanters. Do you want to arrange some ladies of the night?"

"Arrange some ladies of the night?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu looked envious and jealous. He quickly sent a message to Zhang Ruochen, "Han Yun'ge is smart. It seems that she has guessed your identity. In the House of Enchanters, only people with outstanding status and cultivation talent are qualified to request courtesans.

"In other words, if you only have your current cultivation talent and not the status of the grandson of Bloodysky Clan's leader and Blood Empress' son, you are not qualified to request for a lady of the night.

"Even if you are the grandson of the clan's leader and Scion, without your current cultivation talent, you are also not qualified.

"Talent and background are indispensable.

"Of course, if your cultivation has reached Paramount Realm, and you are ranked second-class or above on Divine Ascension Ranking, you are also qualified."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "Forget it, I'm not interested."

Hearing this, Xue Tu was dumbfounded. No cultivator had ever been qualified to request for courtesans, but not request them.

He was even more anxious than Zhang Ruochen, he immediately transmitted his voice, "Senior, the courtesans nurtured by the House of Enchanters are not comparable to those of ordinary Saint-level women. They are all versatile and gentle. Some of them can even reach the level of spiritual-power Supreme Saint with their zither skills and calligraphy.

They are not inferior to those great scholars and Saint Confucians in Kunlun's Field.

"More importantly, once you request for a courtesan, she will belong to you alone for life. She will never come into contact with other men."

"Why is the House of Enchanters so detached? It is because they know that lust can only attract ordinary cultivators. Only love can resonate with the top heaven's pride and God devisee."

Hearing this, Zhang Ruochen was a little curious. He asked, "It is hard to find a woman like so as you said. Can the Enchanter Chamber nurture a batch of women like this?"

Xue Tu said, "Yes. The power of the Enchanter Chamber is so great. The courtesans they nurture are like their own daughters. The cultivator who fell in love with them is, in a sense, the son-in-law of the Enchanter Chamber. It's said that the house master of Fane of Destiny's House of Enchanters is the lover of Death Palace's Black Robe High Priest in the Enchanter Chamber."

"No wonder you said that the Enchanter Chamber has a deep foundation in Infernal Court. It turns out that their sons-in-law are all over the world, and all are extraordinary," Zhang Ruochen said with a smile.

Xue Tu said, "Senior, are you going to request a courtesan? Let's try. I want to see how amazing the courtesans of Enchanter Palace are. They can make so many powerful and talented people fall for them."

"No," Zhang Ruochen said.

Xue Tu was stunned again and said, "Why? I understand. Senior, are you afraid that Princess Luo Sha will know?"

Zhang Ruochen ignored Xue Tu and shook his head at Han Yun'ge. He smiled and said, "Thank you for your kindness. I won't request them for now."

"Okay. the House of Enchanters respects your choice."

Although Han Yun'ge said so, how could the Enchanter Chamber give up on investing in a Yuanhui level genius like Zhang Ruochen?

Once Zhang Ruochen became a god in the future, the position of the Enchanter Chamber would be more consolidated.

However, Han Yun'ge understood that Zhang Ruochen had Fairy Shadowless from Portrait of the Nine Beauties, the number one beauty of Bloodysky Clan, Xia Yu. As well as his fiancée, Princess Luo Sha, who was both intelligent and beautiful. How could he be interested in ordinary flowers?

“Perhaps only Qing ‘er could catch his eye. Unfortunately, Qing ‘er is also arrogant and looks down on all the talents in the world. She might not be interested in this Yuanhui level genius.”

Han Yun'ge thought of Bai Qing ‘er who was in Divine Domain of Destiny. However, even the house master of the House of Enchanters could not force her to do anything.

After all, Bai Qing ‘er's father had a great background. In the last Yuanhui period, he too was a Yuanhui-level genius and was on par with Wargod Bloodximius.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I came to the House of Enchanters to meet Ling. Where is he?”

As he spoke, Zhang Ruochen handed the invitation card to Han Yun'ge.

After Han Yun'ge read the card, she smiled and said, “I know about the grudges between Xue Jue Family and Dishastan. I hope that you can respect the rules of the House of Enchanters and not fight. Even if there is a fight, the House of Enchanters has a battle stage with Divine Marks. If there is any conflict, you can go to the battle stage to resolve it.”

“Don't worry. As long as they follow the rules, I won't fight,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Han Yun'ge said, “Lord Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing, the three Supreme Saints are all in Phoenix Annex.”

“Don't tell them that I'm here,” Zhang Ruochen said.

When Xue Tu heard Cang Baizi's name, his face became strange. He was embarrassed, angry, and scared. He just stood there and didn't move.

"What's wrong?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu said, "Nothing, nothing. Senior, I have to remind you that Cang Baizi is an elite of Hall of Permanence. His cultivation is unfathomable. Huo Xing is a big shot in Roopkund Sea. His strength is not weaker than Ling. None of these three elites are easy to deal with."

"If you are afraid, Don't go! Go and investigate something..."

Zhang Ruochen stopped mid-sentence and looked in the direction of the entrance of Reception Hall. A woman dressed as a man walked in.

Chapter 2436: The Gamble

“Why is this demoness here?” Zhang Ruochen muttered to himself.

The womanly figure dressed as a man was clad in dark green commoner’s clothes, with a bracelet of rosary beads in her hand. Her appearance was not particularly outstanding and did not attract much attention from the cultivators.

Although she had performed the secret transformation technique and deliberately restrained the demonic Qi in her body, Zhang Ruochen could still sense the unique aura of death that emanated from her.

This woman was Guye Jing from the Rāhu Mountains

Zhang Ruochen had met her once at the engagement feast. She was one of Luo Qian’s close friends, and her cultivation skill was unfathomable.

Zhang Ruochen only stared at her for a moment, but she noticed it. She glanced over and met Zhang Ruochen’s eyes for a moment. Zhang Ruochen immediately looked away and pretended that he had just seen her by accident.

Guye Jing fiddled at the prayer beads with her delicate fingers. A trace of doubt flashed through her demonic eyes. She did not look at “Xue Qi” anymore and went straight to the depths of the House of Enchanters.

“The House of Enchanters is quite lively tonight.”

Zhang Ruochen said to Xue Tu, “Go and check it out. See what’s going on in the House of Enchanters.”

After leaving Xue Tu, Zhang Ruochen walked alone through the reception hall to the luxurious chambers within the multiple layers of the palace.

Han Yun’ge could tell that he was Zhang Ruochen based on the fact that Xue Qi was not in the Fane of Destiny. The other well-informed powerful cultivators could also guess that person was Zhang Ruochen.

He had to change his identity.

CRACK

Walking through a dimly lit place, Zhang Ruochen shook his body and instantly changed his appearance.

He became tall and thin with long limbs, His looks weren't handsome, but he had an attractive heroic spirit.

The House of Enchanters had nine sprawling halls, each with dozens of chambers. There were cloud pagodas, lunar boats, and flower platforms. After passing through the reception hall and a stone path above the water, the path forward became more lively with brighter lights.

That was the largest group of halls in the entire House of Enchanters. It was called the "Jadehill Palace."

The Jadehill Palace was built on an island made of saint bones. Its main body was the shell of a turtle which was a Supreme Saint of the Paramount Realm, the shell stood at more than 800 meters tall. Many strangely shaped palaces were built around the mountain. The eaves of the palaces were all adorned with saint fire lanterns.

This group of palaces in the Jadehill Palace was the main body of the House of Enchanters. It included the casino, the fighting arena, the forest of wine pools, and meat trees... it was all-encompassing and did not lack a single thing. More than 90% of the cultivators could only stay here.

The other eight palaces had their unique characteristics and required a costly sum. It wasn't just someplace that normal cultivators could enter.

The Phoenix Annex was located in another palace out of the many that was very close to the Jadehill Palace and they were connected by a stone path on the water.

Zhang Ruochen didn't go to the Phoenix Annex immediately. He wandered around the Jadehill Palace, secretly observing the arrival of other powerful figures while waiting for news from Xue Tu.

He passed by a 30-foot-high dark ice jade platform and saw 12 beautiful girls dancing on it.

Some of the dancers were fox girls, sexy and charming, with swaying tails, while some were dragon girls, with horns on their heads and possessing a high and mighty temperament. Others were elves, with sharp ears and lively and beautiful looks.

They had been carefully trained and taught, as their dancing was beautiful and pleasing to Zhang Ruochen's eyes.

The other cultivators of the Infernal Court completely lack the manner of powerful saints. They shouted together and threw saint stones or sacred pills onto the stage from time to time.

A Supreme Saint of Corpusian directly climbed onto the dark ice jade platform. Leading a fox girl in one hand, he walked directly to a bustling palace. Countless cultivators of the Infernal Court envied him greatly.

Only do Supreme Saints dared to do this in the House of Enchanters.

It was special treatment for a Supreme Saint.

Zhang Ruochen went to the forest of wine pools and meat and tasted a good wine called "Forgetful Heart". It was indeed a good wine and was comparable to the wine brewed by an obsessed person.

The battle stage was built on the top of the Jadehill Palace. No matter where one stood in The House of Enchanters, one could see it at a glance.

At this moment, there were two Neverwilt Realm Supreme Saints fighting on the battle stage.

One was from the Nether Clan, and the other was from the Deathkin.

The two seemed to have a great enmity as the fight was very intense. In the end, the Nether Clan Supreme Saint was more skilled. He chopped off the head of the Deathkin Supreme Saint, attracting the cheers of countless cultivators.

Passing by a castle-like building, Zhang Ruochen sensed Yan Zhexian's aura. He suddenly stopped and looked up.

The castle was made of black stone. It was five stories tall and built at a grand scale. The top of the gate was made of bones carved with the words, "Citadel Casino."

"What does the Citadel Casino mean?" Zhang Ruochen muttered to himself.

Beside him, a Nine-Step Saint King in chainmail armor with a human body and a taotie head said, "I can't believe you don't know Citadel Casino. Is this your first time in the House of Enchanteurs?"

"You're right. This is my first time."

Zhang Ruochen walked into the castle.

After stepping through the gate, the lights inside were much dimmer, but the clamoring noise was louder and more ear-piercing.

"This is an ancient weapon comparable to a Regal Artifact. I'll give you 90 million saint stones for it."

"This ring contains a strong Supreme Saint's aura. It must be valuable."

"I'll give you three million saint stones."

...

There were ten gambling tables in the hall on the first floor of the castle.

Each gambling table had a vessel wrapped in a glowing shield.

Around the gambling tables were a large group of craze cultivators. They judged the value of the vessel and placed bets.

These cultivators didn't have normally high cultivation, so it was hard to find a Saint King among them.

The Nine-Step Saint King with the taotie head walked to Zhang Ruochen's side and glanced at the ten vessels in the light shields. He shook his head and said, "The first floor is just for the low-end game. We can't see anything good here. Only the things above are really valuable."

They walked to the second floor.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Is this a place to sell vessels or a place to gamble?"

"It is both!"

The Nine-Step Saint King with the taotie head said, "The House of Enchanters can sell artifacts and take money from the gambling games. It's a win-win situation for both sides."

They had arrived on the second floor!

Almost all the cultivators on this floor were of Saint Kingdom, but their realms were lower, so it was difficult to see the figure of the Nine-Step Saint King.

Coming to the third floor, the Nine-Step Saint King with the taotie head arrived at his destination and walked toward the hall.

There were only six gambling tables in the hall. Almost all the cultivators who were gambling here were high-level Saint Kings. There were even some Supreme Saints.

The Nine-Step Saint King with the taotie head came to the bottom of gambling table No. 1. He opened his eyes wide and carefully observed the rusty war hammer on the table and his breath quickened.

He instantly entered the gambler's state.

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the war hammer. He saw that although the war hammer was rusty, traces of dark light emitted from the cracks in the rust. There was a powerful aura of a Supreme Saint spreading out through the light shield.

It was the aura of a Supreme Saint that had reached the Thousand-Koan Realm.

He quietly released his spiritual power to check out the Warhammer.

When his spiritual power touched the light shield, it immediately shot out a blinding ray of light. Thunder and lightning appeared.

“Where did this ignorant person come from? How dare he use spiritual power to investigate?”

“This is bad luck. Go ahead and gamble. I’m not here to gamble anymore!”

“Cang Jie, who did you bring?”

...

The cultivators below the gambling table cursed and glared at Zhang Ruochen.

Gamblers are easily irritated when they are gambling.

The Nine-Step Saint King with the taotie head, named Cang Jie, quickly apologized to them and said, “It’s my friend’s first time in The House of Enchanters. He doesn’t understand the rules here. Please forgive him and don’t lower yourself to his level.”

After a while, everyone’s anger subsided.

However, some cultivators chose to leave and didn’t continue gambling here.

Cang Jie transmitted his voice to Zhang Ruochen. “All the vessels here are covered by a light shield. cultivators can only judge its value based on its aura. They can’t use spiritual power to investigate.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “I’m afraid it’s quite hard to judge!”

“It’s indeed hard to judge, that’s why it’s called gambling,” Cang Jie said.

Zhang Ruochen thought it was quite new and asked, “What’s the gambling method?”

Cang Jie said excitedly, “More than two cultivators will bid for the vessels together. If the final price is lower than the original value of the vessels, then the winner will be the one with the highest price. Not only can you get the vessels, but you can also get the saint stones of all the bidders

“If the final price is higher than the original value of the vessel, then the one with the lowest price will become the winner and get the vessel and the saint stones of all the bidders.”

Zhang Ruochen asked tentatively, “Winner takes all?”

“Yes! Isn’t that exciting enough?” Cang Jie laughed in reply.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, and said, “From the first level to the third level, I took a rough look. All the artifacts that were put on the gambling table were quite special. It seemed that they were ancient artifacts dug out from the tombs. I’m afraid that it’s not so easy to judge the value of these artifacts.”

Cang Jie said, “You may not know this, but the House of Enchanters and the temple of the dead souls work closely together. The death souls temple travels all over the world and specializes in digging into large tombs. Their main goal is to find powerful corpses and bones to sell them at a high price to the Corpasian and the Bone Clan’s forces. However, they also dug out a lot of ancient artifacts. Most of them were sent to the House of Enchanters!”

“The real good stuff was taken away by the temple of the dead souls first, right?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Cang Jie shook his head hard, “It’s hard to determine the value of the artifacts dug out from the tomb because of the passage of time,” he said. “Some of them look powerful, but in fact, their insides have already rotted away. These turned into dust instantly when activated by saint power.”

“Especially the ancient divine artifacts. They are stained with the power of the deities, and divine marks are formed within them. Even spiritual power can not detect them thoroughly. One must refine them before determining their value.”

“Therefore, these artifacts in the tombs are usually sealed as soon as they are unearthed. Then they are sent to the House of Enchanters or other gambling places, and the cultivators themselves will bet on their value. In this way, the temple of the dead souls and the House of Enchanters will make a profit.”

As long as a Supreme Saint had used an artifact before, it would be a Supreme Saint ancient artifact.

As long as a god used a vessel before, it would be an ancient divine artifact.

However, there was a grade to the artifact, and there was also a difference in how precious it was. The wine cups and war weapons used by the same Supreme Saint might give off the same aura of a Supreme Saint, but the value of the two could not be compared.

If he made a mistake, he would lose everything.

Below the gambling table, there were seven cultivators who had placed their bets.

Four of them bid 100 million saint stones.

The other three bid: 1.2 billion saint stones, 800 million saint stones, and 2.1 billion saint stones.

Besides the gambling table, a person in charge of the Enchanter Palace said, “The aura of a Supreme Saint is coming off thickly from this weapon. It’s a war hammer, and it’s most likely a weapon of a Supreme Saint. Do any more cultivators want to raise the price?”

Cang Jie laughed and sat beside the gambling table, he said, “Based on the Supreme Saint aura that this war hammer gives off, we can determine that its previous owner was a Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Koan Realm. This war weapon should be at least at the level of a Class Two Regal Artifact. How can saint stones measure their value? In my opinion, it’s worth at least 80 Godstones.”

80 Godstones were equivalent to 80 billion saint stones.

The three cultivators who had already placed their bets stared at Cang Jie as if they were looking at an idiot.

If it was a battle hammer, must it be a weapon belonging to a Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Koan Realm?

Even if it was a Supreme Saint of the Thousand-Koan Realm's battle weapon, looking at how rusted it was, it was very likely to be a useless piece of equipment.

A useless piece of equipment would have different values depending on how useless it was.

It was possible that it was worthless, or it was possible that some of the materials used to forge the weapon still had a certain value.

It was very obvious that most cultivators felt that the battle hammer was a worthless weapon.

Especially the four cultivators who had bid 100 million saint stones. They were certain that the Warhammer was worthless and wanted to gamble big with small amounts. If not for this gambling table that limited the lowest bid at 100 million saint stones, perhaps they would have bid for an even lower price.

If the Warhammer was truly worthless, the four of them would have won. They could split the saint stones that the other three cultivators had offered and earn one billion saint stones each.

To a Nine-Step Saint King, one billion saint stones was an enormous wealth.

Of course, if the interior of the Warhammer was intact then it would be a Supreme Saint ancient artifact comparable to a Class Two Regal Artifact, and the winner would be the cultivator who had offered 2.1 billion saint stones.

Not only will he win all the saint stones, but he would also be able to obtain a Supreme Saint ancient artifact that was worth dozens of Godstones. It was a huge profit.

Of course, the probability of this was extremely low.

With the strength of the House of Enchanters, it was still possible to determine the value of a Supreme Saint ancient artifact. If it was truly a Class Two Regal Artifact that was intact, with the probability being only 20-30%, it would be sent to the fourth floor. There is no way that it could have appeared here.

This kind of gambling depended equally on luck and eyesight.

The person in charge of the Enchanteur Palace stared at Cang Jie and smiled, "How many saint stones are you prepared to bet?"

"I'm poor, so I'll bet 100 million saint stones!"

Cang Jie took out a crimson crystal card and threw it on the gambling table.

The surroundings immediately erupt with jeering sounds.

He had boasted so fiercely just now, and it turned out that he was also a guy who wanted to take advantage of others.

The four cultivators who had already bet 100 million saint stones looked displeased. With one more person betting, the number of saint stones each of them would get if they won would be less!

The person in charge of the Enchanteur Palace asked, "Are there any more cultivators betting?"

There were many cultivators watching, but none of them had placed any bets.

After all, the 100 million saint stones were not a small amount. It was enough to make some Saint Kings bankrupt.

The person in charge looked at the eight cultivators who had placed their bets and asked, "Do you still want to place more bets?"

The cultivator who had placed 1.2 billion saint stones hesitated slightly but did not raise the price in the end.

Although he could not use his spiritual power to investigate or inject his Saint Qi into the vessel, Zhang Ruochen had the Heart of Truth. A mere light shield could not stop his sensing.

Previously, Cang Jie had spoken up for him and explained to him his doubts about the Citadel Casino. He had a good impression of this person and planned to give him an opportunity.

As a result, Zhang Ruochen secretly transmitted his voice and said, "Raise the price to 2.2 billion saint stones."

Hearing Zhang Ruochen's voice, Cang Jie was surprised and could not help but turn his head to look at him.

Zhang Ruochen nodded at him.

Of course, Cang Jie didn't think that Zhang Ruochen was secretly supporting the others, but he didn't believe in Zhang Ruochen's ability.

2.2 billion saint stones wasn't a small amount.

Did he think that this Warhammer was worth more than 2.2 billion saint stones?

"Brother, can you do it? If I lose 2.2 billion saint stones, I'll have nothing. My hundreds of years of savings will all be gone!" Cang Jie asked telepathically.

Zhang Ruochen patted his shoulder and said, "Trust me."

With this pat, a powerful Supreme Saint's Qi surged into Cang Jie's body.

"So... so you are actually a senior Supreme Saint..."

Cang Jie had seen the power of a Supreme Saint in battle. However, those Supreme Saint in the Neverwilt and Hundred-Shackle Realm were far inferior to this brother... No, senior behind him.

Could it be that senior was a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint?

Cang Jie sucked in a breath of cold air. He was both excited and fanatical, "I, Cang Jie, have finally met my destiny. To be able to receive the guidance of a Thousand-Koan Realm senior Supreme Saint, how can I possibly lose? Perhaps I might even win big today."

The person in charge of the Enchanter Palace asked for the third time, "If everyone is sure that you will not raise your stakes, I will open the light shield now to test the value of the Warhammer.”

“Wait a minute.”

Cang Jie stood up and tried to control his excitement, but his hands still couldn’t help but tremble. “I bet... I bet 2.2 billion saint stones.” he stuttered.

All the cultivators below the gambling table were stunned.

Someone laughed loudly. “This stupid taotie is too greedy. Does he think that this war hammer is an intact Regal Artifact?”

“A Nine-Step Saint King taking out 2.2 billion Saint Stones to gamble. I wonder if he’ll cry after losing.”

“We’ve made a fortune! With 2.2 billion saint stones, the four of us can each earn an additional 550 million saint stones.”

...

The Ghost Supreme Saint who had placed a bet of 2.1 billion Saint Stones had a grim expression on his face. He threw two more crimson crystal cards onto the gambling table and increased the bid to 2.3 billion saint stones.

“I have senior backing me. How can I be afraid of a Ghost Supreme Saint in the Neverwilt Realm?”

Cang Jie rolled up his sleeves and threw out eight crystal cards in a row. He had bet 3 billion saint stones in total.

The Ghost Supreme Saint was not rich. Although he was furious, he did not continue to bet. He snorted, “Very good. You have the guts, but I wonder if you will be able to take out that many saint stones after you lose.”

“Just mind your own business, old senior. I am confident that I will win all the matches,” Cang Jie said rather arrogantly.

“Those from the taotie clan are too greedy. Just wait and see, he will be crying later.”

“The number of saint stones in this round has reached 7.7 billion in total. It’s a big bet. It is hard to know who will win.”

...

The person in charge of the Enchanteur Palace spoke, "Since there are no more cultivators to raise the stakes, I will open the light shield now. It's up to fate whoever wins or loses."

The person in charge formed a seal with both hands. Two bloody lines appeared on their palms and pressed on the light barrier.

The light barrier gradually faded and dissipated.

In the hall, the other onlookers gathered. They held their breaths and waited for the unveiling of the answer.

The most nervous one was none other than Cang Jie.

Although the senior behind him had profound cultivation, he couldn't use his spiritual power to confirm it, and also who could be 100% correct?

Three billion saint stones... If he lost the bet, not only would he have to sell all of his properties, he would even have to sell himself to the House of Enchanteurs as a slave. Only then would he be able to repay the debt.

But if he won the bet, he would be able to win a lot of saint stones.

Cang Jie pressed his hands on the gambling table. Both of his eyes became blood red and gritted his sharp teeth with his entire body trembling violently. He felt both excited and nervous, with the blood coursing violently throughout his body.

As soon as the light shield was opened, streams of spiritual energy surged toward the Warhammer.

Crack

Unable to withstand the impact of the chaotic spiritual energy, a crack appeared on the surface of the Warhammer.

The cracks gradually increased in size and became as dense as a spider web.

Furthermore, the Supreme Saint aura that flowed out of the cracks also dissipated. It became thinner and thinner as if it was about to be completely depleted.

Anyone could tell that this Supreme Saint ancient artifact had been corroded by the power of time. All of its essence energy had been drained. It was probably impossible to even refine some rare materials from it.

A piece of trash!

The four cultivators who had only bet 100 million saint stones were so excited that they began to clap their hands on the table and laugh loudly.

“Hahaha, we’ve won! From what I can calculate, we’ve won at least 1.8 billion saint stones.”

“That stupid taotie is so generous. He had bet 3 billion saint stones.”

...

The other cultivators who had bet all looked bitter. They sighed and left the table.

As if struck by lightning, Cang Jie lost all his strength. His strong and tall body slid to the ground. There was only one thought in his mind. “It’s over, it’s all over!”

He didn’t blame Zhang Ruochen. After all, everyone had their moments of failure.

He was the one who had made the decision.

He could only blame himself for being too greedy. He had lost so badly that he didn’t even have a chance to turn things around!

The four cultivators who had bet 100 million saint stones began to collect the crimson crystal cards on the gambling table under countless envious looks from the onlookers.

One card represented 100 million Saint Stones.

“Hold on.”

Zhang Ruochen took a step forward and tapped the gambling table lightly with his finger. “Who said you won?”

The few gamblers who had intended to leave all stopped in their tracks.

Could there be more variables?

Chapter 2437: Rainbow Viburnum

A streak of scarlet blood Qi surged out of Zhang Ruochen's palm. It circled the gambling table and struck the heavily cracked Warhammer. Immediately, the Warhammer let out a rustling sound.

The Warhammer turned into dust and fell to the ground.

From the center of the Warhammer, a rough black crystal flew out and landed in Zhang Ruochen's palm.

A surprised voice rang out. "The Warhammer hasn't been completely corroded."

"The Regal Artifact has been corroded into dust. Why is this still intact? It seems to be an incredible treasure."

...

All the cultivators looked at the black crystal.

The crystal was about the size of a walnut. Although it was a crystal, it wasn't transparent. The crystal seemed ordinary and didn't emit any powerful aura fluctuations.

However, after Zhang Ruochen transferred a wisp of blood energy Qi into it, a powerful dark power surged out of the black crystal. The Qi wave swept in all directions, forcing everyone to step back.

Someone exclaimed, "The Divine Darkness Crystal! It is a divine power crystal refined by deities who practice the Path of Darkness."

"The value of a divine crystal is usually ten times that of a Godstone. Darkness is the path of ancient times, so the price of a divine darkness crystal should be higher. In my opinion, this divine crystal can be sold for at least 15 Godstone."

Cang Jie had already been revived by these words and crawled up from the ground. He was ecstatic as he said, "What? Fifteen Godstone which means fifteen billion divine stones? Hahaha! I've won!"

"Mine, it's all mine. Don't move... I'm talking to you, don't move! The chips on the gambling table are all mine."

Cang Jie spread his arms and gathered the scarlet crystal cards in front of him.

There were a total of 77 cards.

It was equivalent to 7.7 billion divine stones.

Apart from his capital of 3 billion, plus the 3 billion he paid to the House of Enchanters and the 77 million he took from the gambling table, he had made a net profit of more than 1.6 billion divine stones.

The number of divine stones he won was equivalent to more than half of the wealth that he had accumulated over hundreds of years.

Awesome!

Cang Jie felt as if his Saint Soul was about to leave his body. He laughed non-stop, the wealth he had now was enough to support him to cultivate the Supreme Saint Realm.

Remembering that his senior was still beside him, Cang Jie walked over and bowed respectfully. "Thank you for your guidance, sir."

"Take this... Catch."

Zhang Ruochen threw the Divine Darkness Crystal over.

Cang Jie caught the Divine Darkness Crystal. He was a little dazed. "No, I can't take this divine crystal. You won it rightfully sir."

The value of the Divine Darkness Crystal was too great. It was comparable to the wealth of a Supreme Saint of the Neverwilt Realm. Cang Jie didn't dare imagine himself owning it.

This was a taotie that could control his greed. Zhang Ruochen looked at him in a new light. He thought that perhaps there were some important things that he could tell him to do.

“You have won, so naturally it belongs to you,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Cang Jie’s hands trembled. He thought that a Divine Darkness Crystal could even be considered a small fortune for a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint. His senior is indeed a very able person worthy of admiring.

However, as he thought about it again, his senior had won a Divine Darkness Crystal casually.

With his senior eyesight, he would have won a large number of Godstones if he walked around the gambling city.

He could not even compare.

Boom

An explosion came from above the gambling city.

A Stone Clan cultivator came running down the stairs. The entire gambling city was shaking. He was very agitated and shouted, “Everyone, go and take a look. There’s a big bet going on upstairs.”

“Thousand-feet Lord, what is the big bet that got you so excited?”

The cultivator of the Stone Clan named the Thousand-feet Lord said, “It’s the Rainbow Viburnum, one of the two important items in the Citadel Casino.”

Boom

The cultivators on the third floor of the gambling city also exploded.

There weren’t many Saint-level cultivators who liked to gamble.

However, as long as they liked to gamble, most of them had heard of the Rainbow Viburnum in the House of Enchanteurs.

It was said that the starting price of the bet was 1,000 Godstones.

Those who didn’t have a net worth of 10,000 Godstones wouldn’t dare to get involved easily.

Great gods below the Thousand-Koan Realm didn't even have the chance to get involved unless they had their own personal mine like Wu Jiang.

"Let's go and take a look."

"Those who dare to participate in the bet must be big shots."

"I'd like to know the true value of the Rainbow Viburnum. I heard that when the bet reaches the ideal state, its value can not be estimated by Godstone."

...

On the first floor, the second floor, the third floor... all the cultivators in the gambling city rushed to the top floor of the castle in such numbers that the stairways became blocked.

Zhang Ruochen looked calm on the outside and was not so crazy.

Cang Jie was very interested. He was as excited as the other cultivators, and said, "Senior, don't you want to see it?"

"Do you want to go?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Cang Jie said, "Of course, I want to see whatever is happening."

"Then let's go and see it together."

An invisible spatial power gushed out of Zhang Ruochen's fingertips and enveloped him and Cang Jie. Instantly, their bodies shrank and turned into two specks of light. They flew through the blocked stairway, all the way to the top floor of the castle.

Passing through the light veil at the entrance, a powerful divine power pressed on both Zhang Ruochen and Cang Jie.

If Zhang Ruochen had not protected Cang Jie, this taotie would have been pressed sprawling onto the ground.

No wonder all the cultivators who wanted to watch were blocked off in the corridor. Because the cultivators who were not strong enough could not resist the divine power to enter the door of the top floor.

The divine power came from the Rainbow Viburnum.

The top floor of the castle wasn't big. It was about 80 meters long and 60 meters wide. The walls in four directions were made of special crystals. One could see more than half of the Jade Mountain Palace from here.

Apart from Zhang Ruochen and Cang Jie, there were only 25 cultivators in the gambling hall. They were all at least Supreme Saints of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

The person in charge of this betting was Ye Xiao, the mayor of the Citadel Casino. He was a middle-aged male Supreme Saint in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. He didn't belong to any of the 10 clans and came from a small clan at the edge of the Infernal Court, the Yakshas.

All those below the 10 clans were all small clans.

The Yakshas had many people. Among the thousands of small clans, they were one of the most powerful. In the past, they were even one of the ten clans.

There were nine people who participated in the gambling.

Zhang Ruochen glanced around. Six of them wanted to take advantage of the situation and bet 1,000 Godstone.

There were only three people who were gambling.

Sitting on the north side of the gambling platform was a Deathkin elite. His face was old, with sunken eyes, and his aura of death was thick. Even if he restrained himself, no one dared to approach him.

He had already placed a bet of 140,000 Godstone.

Seeing this elder, Cang Jie's expression changed. He couldn't help but exclaim, "The god of gambling!"

"God?"

Zhang Ruochen looked puzzled. Although the Deathkin elite had powerful cultivation, he could vaguely sense that his cultivation was at a higher level. He couldn't reach godhood.

It was even impossible to be a fake god.

Cang Jie knew that it was useless for him to use his spiritual power to transmit his voice in front of these powerful figures. So he spoke respectfully in a low voice, "I'm afraid that the god of gamblers is the only one in the Infernal Court who is not a god but can be called a god." He continued, "Legend has it that he once showed off his power in the headquarters of the House of Enchanters 12 lane. He was also killed in the gambling city opened by the dead souls temple and the Pneuma Hall. He even won a bet against a god and seldom lost. Even a god might not be able to match the wealth of the god of gamblers."

To all gamblers, the god of gamblers was the object of their worship. They were all in awe of him.

"If he has won a bet against a god then he must be really capable," Zhang Ruochen thought.

Sitting on the east side of the gambling platform was a cultivator in a black robe. Their figure and face were completely wrapped in a black veil. It was impossible to tell their gender or race.

Even their exposed hands were engraved with magic patterns.

With a slight movement of his hands, more than a dozen shadows appeared.

Zhang Ruochen found that the black veil on the person was a real treasure even though it was gaseous. It could block spiritual power detection and seemed to have other magical uses.

Gaseous treasures were very rare.

With the heart of truth, Zhang Ruochen vaguely sensed that this person's body was cold. It didn't seem like a flesh and blood creature, but more like one from the Stone Clan, Ghost, Corpusian, or Bone Clan.

Sitting in the west was Yan Zhexian.

She wore a talisman that could change her shape and appearance. The runes were dense and mysterious. If Zhang Ruochen didn't know her and knew her special aura, he wouldn't be able to see through her identity.

Behind Yan Zhexian stood two Supreme Saints with profound cultivations.

“As expected of a genius Talisman Master from the Yanluo clan. They only came briefly to the House of Enchanters, but they sent two Hundred-Shackle Supreme Saints to follow along.” Zhang Ruochen said.

They were just following you, not protecting you.

Zhang Ruochen believed that with Yan Zhexian’s favor in the Yanluo clan and her pregnancy, she must have a protective treasure like the Wargod Belt.

“If you’re pregnant, you should stay in the clan to nurture your fetus. Why are you running around? It’s one thing to come to the House of Enchanter, but I didn’t know that Miss Yan likes to gamble too. It’s not good to gamble!” Zhang Ruochen couldn’t help but frown.

Cang Jie gently bumped Zhang Ruochen with his wrist which was as thick as a bucket, and said in a low voice, “Senior, do you feel that the time and space here have become a little different?”

As the Master of Time and Space, did Zhang Ruochen need to be reminded?

This gambling hall seemed to be only 80 feet long and 60 feet wide. It would take at least two miles to walk from the wall to the bottom of the gambling platform.

It was the Rainbow Viburnum that stretched the space!

The closer he got to it, the more the space was stretched.

The flow of time became very chaotic. Sometimes it was fast and other times slow. The Mark of Time turned into a small stream that flowed in the gambling hall.

“Is it a time and space treasure?”

Zhang Ruochen was puzzled, and asked Cang Jie, “What is the origin of this Rainbow Viburnum?”

Cang Jie shook his head and said, “How could a nobody like me know the origin of a treasure of this level? I only heard that it was dug out from an ancient god's tomb in the Searock Bastion."

"It is said that the temple master of the dead souls hall wanted to break its seal to see if it was an intact treasure. However, after knowing the identity of the owner of the ancient God's tomb, he gave up!"

"Who is the owner of the ancient god Tomb?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Cang Jie shook his head, indicating that he did not know.

Yan Zhexian looked over and said coldly, "What are you chattering about noisily? Are you quarreling?"

Cang Jie was shocked by the cold light in Yan Zhexian's eyes. He quickly hid behind Zhang Ruochen.

There was nothing he could do. He was a Saint King. It was already amazing that he could speak in such a gathering of Supreme Saints.

Zhang Ruochen crossed his arms in front of his chest and walked over without fear. He didn't care about her eyes. Instead, he walked behind her and glanced at the chips on the gambling table. "You're really rich. You've bet 150,000 Godstone."

"Stop, sir."

"My Lady, no one is allowed within 30 feet."

The two Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm of the Yanluo clan looked at Zhang Ruochen with sharp eyes. They stopped him from getting closer.

Zhang Ruochen raised his arms and pressed them down.

The two Supreme Saints in the Hundred-Shackle Realm of the Yanluo clan remained in the same position as before. They froze on the spot as if they had become statues.

This move stunned everyone in the gambling hall. No one dared to underestimate him anymore.

Yan Zhexian knitted her eyebrows together and said, "Power of Dimensions? I didn't expect him to be a powerful space cultivators. Do you want to take part in the bet?”

“I can’t afford such a big bet. I’m just here to take a look,” Zhang Ruochen said with a smile.

Yan Zhexian said, “That’s good. Since you’re dimensional cultivators, you should have a unique judgment about the Rainbow Viburnum. If you can help me win this round, I’ll give you 10,000 Godstone as a thank you.”

Hearing this, the “Seven-armed elder” who currently has the title of god of gamblers sneered disdainfully.

His eyesight was so brilliant that he had long seen through the true identity of Yan Zhexian. This girl’s cultivation was only at the Great Perfection of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, yet she didn’t know the immensity of Heaven and earth and had gambled on the Rainbow Viburnum.

At this moment, the bet had already reached more than 100,000 Godstone. She didn’t have any confidence at all. In a desperate situation, she had resorted to desperate measures. To ask for the help of a cultivator she didn’t even dare to go on stage. was there anything more ridiculous than this?

Although the Rainbow Viburnum was a time and space treasure, it was impossible for spatial cultivators to make an accurate judgment without spiritual power.

In the end, it still depended on one’s eyesight and ability.

“10,000 Godstone!”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked and sighed.

What a waste!

“Is it so easy for High-Saint Talisman Master to make money? Or are they extremely rich and can squander away their wealth simply?”

Even favorites like Wu Jiang and Lan Ying had a hard time taking out 10,000 Godstones. Yan Zhexian dared to claim that she would give 10,000 Godstones directly.

Zhang Ruochen was very rich, but he was far less generous than her.

“If I win, will you give me 10,000 Godstone?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Yan Zhexian said, “With my status, how could I go back on my word? But you’d better show me something. If I think you’re useless, you won’t even get one Godstone, let alone 10,000 Godstone.”

“I’ll give it a try.”

Zhang Ruochen was quite interested in the Rainbow Viburnum. He started observing it.

He wasn’t only observing the tree itself, but also the changes in space and time in the gambling hall.

A moment later, he said solemnly, “This isn’t a natural Timespace Viburnum. It’s been refined.”

The Sea Stone Star Dock produced all kinds of natural time and space treasures. There were also Timespace Viburnum, but they were very rare. Rainbow-colored ones were even rarer.

If it was a natural Rainbow Viburnum, and it was alive, its price could even surpass that of a Supreme Artifact.

Even a dead Rainbow Viburnum was worth more than 100,000 Godstone.

However, after being refined by someone, its value became difficult to judge.

It was possible that its price was higher than a living Rainbow Viburnum. It was also possible that its price was lower than a dead one.

More importantly, if it was too old and not preserved properly, the Rainbow Viburnum could have been corroded. It looked magnificent and sparkling on the outside, but once it encountered air, it would instantly turn into sand.

Chapter 2438: Heavens and Earth Slaughterer

Yan Zhexian was interested and asked, “How can you tell that it has been refined?”

Zhang Ruochen spoke confidently, and said, “It was recorded in the ancient books that the Timespace Viburnum came from the Searock Bastion where it grew in the Archean mines. Its initial color was white like jade, and after a Yuanhui Tribulation it will grow into a black or white tree that lights up the surroundings for 500 miles, where three months each will be light and dark and together equal to a single day.”

It meant that the Timespace Viburnum emerged from the Searock Bastion and grew on the Archean mine. In the beginning, it was as white as jade. After the Yuanhui Tribulation, it became black and into two colors. Within 500 miles of the light that it emits, three months were day and three months will be night, and half a year will become one day.

Zhang Ruochen said, “From this, it can be seen that even the black and white Timespace Viburnum causes time to be extremely slow in its light. Half a year under the tree will only be one day outside. Moreover, the time flow within is very stable.”

“A Rainbow Viburnum is unheard of. If it was born alive, many deities would be alarmed for its value far exceeds that of a Supreme Artifact, and can even be compared to a Divine Artifact.

“The Power of Dimensions released from this Rainbow Viburnum is very unstable and its power of time is also very chaotic. Obviously, this is a dead tree that has been refined by others.”

The cultivator covered in black said hoarsely, “How do you know it’s a dead tree? What if it’s not completely dead?”

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, “The Timespace Viburnum can only survive in the Archean divine mine. If it leaves the divine mine, it won’t be nourished and will die soon.”

Ye Xiao, who was in charge of the auction, pointed to the gambling platform and said, “Don’t you see that there is a cauldron of divine mud under the Rainbow Viburnum? When it was dug out from the ancient divine tomb, the divine mud was already there, and it hasn’t lost its divinity.”

The God of gamblers, the Seven-Armed Elder, revealed a mouthful of yellow teeth. He smiled maliciously and said, “Even a dead tree is worth a lot.”

Yan Zhexian nodded and agreed with the Seven-Armed Elder.

Even a dead tree of the Rainbow Viburnum should be worth more than 100,000 Godstones. If they were lucky, the Rainbow Viburnum wouldn’t be completely dead. Even if it still had a bit of life force, with the Yanluo clan’s secrets, there was still a chance to bring it back to life.

If they gambled to that state, what would 100,000 Godstones be?

Zhang Ruochen said, “If the dead tree is successfully refined and well preserved, its value is indeed very high and comparable to a Supreme Artifact. Selling it for hundreds of thousands of Godstones is not a problem.”

Back then, Zhang Ruochen’s Class Seven Regal Artifact, the Wheel of the Nether Sun, had been sold for 300,000 Godstones in the Realm of Star Ocean because he had the chance to cultivate it into a Supreme Artifact weapon.

True Supreme Artifact weapons were priceless. No one would sell them.

Yan Zhexian noticed that this spatial cultivator seemed to have some discerning eyes, so he asked, "How many Godstones do you think this Rainbow Viburnum is worth?"

Zhang Ruochen glanced at the chips on the gambling table and said, "I don't think there's a need to raise the stakes!"

Yan Zhexian pursed his lips slightly, and his eyes became suspicious. "Do you think this Rainbow Viburnum has been refined but failed? Or has it been improperly preserved and is no longer worth anything?"

"As I said earlier, the space here is unstable and time is chaotic. Even if it's just a dead tree, it shouldn't be in this state," Zhang Ruochen said.

A Corpusian Supreme Saint laughed mockingly. "Don't you know that the Rainbow Viburnum has been refined and turned into a weapon? Weapons need energy to be activated to display their power."

This Corpusian Supreme Saint was Cang Baizi from the Hall of Permanence.

He wore a green robe and a Taoist crown, and he also carried a horsetail whisk. There was a moon mark on his forehead, and he gave off a strong stench of rotting corpses.

Yan Zhexian asked, "How confident are you?"

"What I just said is just a guess. I'm only 30-40% confident." Zhang Ruochen didn't dare to be too confident. After all, Madam Yan wasn't someone to be trifled with.

If he made a mistake and made her lose 150,000 Godstones, she wouldn't be as polite as Cang Jie.

It didn't concern her anyway. He just had to tell the truth.

"Hahaha, 30-40% sure is no different from blind gambling."

The onlookers including Cang Baizi laughed.

Yan Zhexian became hesitant. She had already thrown 150,000 Godstones in. If she listened to this unknown space cultivator and did not raise the bet, even if she stopped the loss now, all the Godstones would go down the drain.

150,000 Godstones. Even if she was born noble, she couldn't take that many out. She had to ask the patriarch for them.

If the patriarch knew that she had lost 150,000 Godstones on the gambling platform, he would definitely punish her.

She was truly unwilling to resign to her fate.

“No, no. If it was something of no value, how could the Seven-Armed Elder, who is known as the god of gambling, place a bet of 140,000 Godstones?”

Yan Zhexian immediately suspected that this space cultivator with an unknown identity was sent by the Seven-Armed Elder.

The Seven-Armed Elder won every bet. He was well-versed in scheming humans.

Zhang Ruochen saw through Yan Zhexian's thoughts and was speechless. He sighed to himself. With your little experience, you dared to gamble with the god of gamblers. He pitied his ancestors in the Yanluo clan.

After all, she was a mother with child. If she lost the bet and lost her mind, it would be very bad for the child.

Zhang Ruochen did not want to watch her fall into the pit. He decided to do his best to help her win this round or reduce the losses.

Of course, everyone present was a Supreme Saint with extraordinary eyesight. There was also the legendary god of gamblers. Zhang Ruochen was not sure he could pull this off.

The god of gamblers would occasionally stare at Zhang Ruochen with a smile. His smile was very strange, which made Zhang Ruochen feel great pressure. He always felt that those eyes seemed to be able to see through all the unknown in the world.

Zhang Ruochen suspected that the god of gamblers had seen through his ability to change.

Zhang Ruochen threw away all the distracting thoughts in his mind and looked at Ye Xiao. He said, “If I knew the identity of the owner of the ancient divine tomb that this Rainbow Viburnum is dug out from, I might be able to make a more accurate judgment.”

The Seven-Armed Elder laughed like a spirit. “That makes sense. At least we can judge whether he has the ability to refine a treasure of the level of the Rainbow Viburnum.”

Everyone looked at Ye Xiao.

Ye Xiao said, “This...”

“I think we have the right to know,” Yan Zhexian said.

Ye Xiao hesitated and said cautiously, “Please wait a moment. I have to ask the House Master.”

A clear and pleasant voice came from a certain direction of the Enchanter Palace through the crystal wall. It sounded in the gambling hall. “No need for that. Tell them.”

Zhang Ruochen looked in the direction of the voice.

Through the crystal wall and the thick darkness, he saw a woman standing on a red tower at the palace complex in the distance. She was as bright as the moon.

He could just glimpse at the graceful figure before the woman disappeared.

Was she the House Master of the House of Enchanters?

There were only three people in the entire gambling hall who had figured out the woman’s location. They looked over.

Apart from Zhang Ruochen, the other two were Seven-Armed Elder and Cang Baizi.

Ye Xiao said, “The owner of the ancient divine tomb has existed for a very long time. According to the artifacts found, he should be the Withered Divine Lord.”

Hearing this name, most cultivators present were at a loss.

Zhang Ruochen had absorbed the knowledge of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree. He closed his eyes and searched for information about the Withered Divine Lord and found some. He was an elite from 40 to 50 yuanhui tribulations ago and belonged to the Infernal Court, where he was known as the god of the Stone Clan.

When Zhang Ruochen found the information, Ye Xiao also told him some information about the Withered Divine Lord.

“So it’s the Withered Divine Lord whom I’ve heard some legends about. He’s indeed an incredible god.”

“The dead souls temple had dug up the Withered Divine Lord’s grave. How many good things did they dig up?”

“If this news gets out, the Stone Clan’s elites will definitely go and cause trouble for the dead souls temple. No wonder Ye Xiao didn’t dare to say anything. It’s all thanks to the house master’s boldness.”

“I don’t believe that the dead souls temple can dig up the tomb of the Withered Divine Lord. Even if they did, they probably only dug up part of the tomb.”

...

Though millions of years have passed since the age of the Withered Divine Lord, the name of a great man like him can still be remembered throughout the ages, even if his body and spirit have perished.

To be remembered forever is the dream of all the deities in the world.

“With the Withered Divine Lord’s cultivation, it’s not difficult to refine the Rainbow Viburnum.”

“It seems that the Rainbow Viburnum has been refined into a space-time treasure. Its value is very likely higher than a Supreme Artifact weapon.”

“Oh my god, the dead souls temple is willing to give such a valuable treasure to the Citadel Casino in the House of Enchanteurs?”

...

The Seven-Armed Elder snorted lightly, “Blind optimism! The Withered Divine Lord has already fallen for forty to fifty yuanhui periods. The immortal body of the deities might have already been corroded into bones. How could the Rainbow Viburnum not be corroded?”

Someone retorted, “The Withered Divine Lord must have carved divine marks and supreme inscriptions on the Rainbow Viburnum to resist the corrosion of time.”

“The god of gamblers only said that because he was afraid that others would bet more and raise the price too high.” Cang Baizi said while smiling strangely.

Zhang Ruochen inadvertently looked at Cang Baizi. He thought to himself that this person had profound cultivation of the corpse path so he couldn’t be a lord without any Godstones. However, he didn’t participate in the betting but kept talking instead.

Could it be a secret agent hired by the House of Enchanters?

The six Supreme Saints who had only bet 1,000 Godstones all looked interested. However, they shook their heads dejectedly when they saw the 100,000 Godstones on the gambling table.

“I’ll bet 200,000 Godstones.”

The quiet black-veiled cultivator threw out seven black chip cards and bet 70,000 Godstones more at once.

The Seven-Armed Elder chuckled. “I’m in too.”

Following that, he threw out seven black chip cards and increased the bet to 210,000 Godstones.

A smile appeared on Cang Baizi’s ghastly pale face, and he said, “Didn’t the god of gamblers just say that the Rainbow Viburnum is very likely to have been corroded? Why did he raise the bet himself so quickly?”

The Seven-Armed Elder replied, “Anyway, I’ve bet a lot of Godstones. I don’t care much so I’ll add another 70,000 Godstones. What if... there’s a 10-20% chance of winning?”

Cang Baizi glanced at Yan Zhexian blankly without a trace of expression. Then he smiled and said, “The god of gamblers can only deceive little girls.”

Yan Zhexian obviously trusted the Seven-Armed Elder's eyesight more. She twirled the Seven-Armed Elder black chip cards between her fingers and prepared to place a bet.

Zhang Ruochen grasped her arm.

"Let go? How dare you touch my hand? Do you believe that I'll dare to chop off your hand?" Yan Zhexian's eyes were cold. A sacred flame rune appeared on her arm.

Zhang Ruochen let the sacred flame rune burn his hand and secretly transmitted his voice to say coldly, "Listen to my advice. Don't raise the bet again."

"With your 30-40% confidence in this?" Yan Zhexian didn't transmit her voice and spoke out loud directly.

Seeing that the other party did not let go, she became even angrier. She thought of Zhang Ruochen on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.

Zhang Ruochen's disgusting hand had touched places that it should not have touched. She had always wanted to chop it off.

A big part of the reason why she joined the bet on the Rainbow Viburnum was that she wanted to use it to deal with Zhang Ruochen and suppress the so-called Scion of Time and Space.

Although all the cultivators in the Infernal Court now misunderstood that she was pregnant with Zhang Ruochen's child, and her great-grandfather even wanted her to marry Zhang Ruochen, it was a pity that she would rather die than agree to that.

A treacherous person like Zhang Ruochen, who was promiscuous and cold-blooded, had also killed his good friend treacherously. So what if he was talented?

She would only hate him.

How could he make her marry him?

In the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, Zhang Ruochen had done everything he could to save Lord Xia Yu. In her eyes, it was not because he valued the friendship, but because he lusted for Lord Xia Yu's beauty and could not change his lascivious nature.

Of course, Zhang Ruochen did not know that so many thoughts had passed through Yan Zhexian's mind. He said telepathically, "I'm not 30 to 40 percent sure. I'm now more than 70 percent sure."

Zhang Ruochen's hand was still on her arm. For some reason, Yan Zhexian's initial resistance had lessened a lot. Instead, she began to feel an inexplicable sense of intimacy.

She didn't know where this strange emotion came from, but it made Yan Zhexian calm down temporarily to ask telepathically, "Why are you suddenly more than 70% confident?"

"Because the owner of the tomb is the Withered Divine Lord."

"What do you mean?"

"The Withered Divine Lord is indeed a god with powerful cultivation, but he's not proficient in refining weapons, nor is he a cultivator of space and time. A natural treasure like the Rainbow Viburnum cannot be refined just with strong cultivation! If it were Saint Monk Xumi, I would fully support you and bet everything."

Yan Zhexian said suspiciously, "The Withered Divine Lord existed millions of years ago. How do you know him so well? Who are you actually and why should I believe you?"

"If you don't believe me, you have to believe in the deities of the dead souls temple and the twelve deities from the Enchanter Chamber right? If the Rainbow Viburnum was refined into a weapon, would they send it to the gambling table?" Zhang Ruochen said.

Yan Zhexian naturally had thought of that, but she was hoping for a fluke.

Perhaps the deities of the dead souls temple and the twelve deities from the Enchanter Chamber were not that confident and did not dare to unseal it easily.

If it was not unsealed, it could be sold for at least hundreds of thousands of Godstones.

If they lost the bet, they would suffer a heavy loss.

The two powerful groups of deities did not dare to gamble, but Yan Zhexian wanted to gamble.

Zhang Ruochen saw that she still didn't give up and said, "That's all I have to say. I won't persuade you further anymore. Anyway, I definitely won't get your 10,000 Godstones reward!"

The Seven-Armed Elder seemed to have heard the spiritual power transmission between Zhang Ruochen and Yan Zhexian, he smiled and said, "Little girl, listen to his advice and stop here. He's not only a space-time cultivator but also a Master of Space! His judgment is sure to be more accurate than yours."

"But senior, why don't you stop then?" Yan Zhexian retorted.

The Seven-Armed Elder said, "I'm already old and have a lot of Godstones, but I'm afraid of death, so I have to fight. If I win the 10-20% chance and get the Rainbow Viburnum, I can prolong my life and live longer."

Yan Zhexian was very conflicted. It was not like her character to admit defeat without gambling.

Moreover, 150,000 Godstones had been placed out.

Zhang Ruochen stared at the Seven-Armed Elder with an incomprehensible look in his eyes. It was obvious that this old man had already seen through his identity. With his shrewdness, he must know that gambling on the Rainbow Viburnum carries a huge risk.

Why did he continue to gamble?

Was it really like what he said, that it was only a 10-20% chance? This did not sound like what the god of gamblers would have said!

Ye Xiao urged, "If you don't raise the bet, you'll automatically give up your bet."

Yan Zhexian clutched the Seven-Armed Elder black chip cards tightly. Her eyes show resoluteness. Just as she was about to throw them onto the gambling platform...

Her hand was grabbed again.

Yan Zhexian thought it was Zhang Ruochen again so her eyes widened. Just as she was about to get angry, she heard Yan Huangtu's voice. "We're not following!"

"Fifth uncle," Yan Zhexian said.

Yan Huangtu let go of her wrist and strongly reprimanded her, "Nonsense! You're being far too bold to fight with the famous god of gamblers. Take the loss of these 150,000 Godstones as a lesson."

In Yan Huangtu's eyes, a bet between Yan Zhexian and the god of gamblers was like a child fighting with a Supreme Saint. It was no different from giving away money. He would lose for sure.

It was the best outcome to stop the loss in time before it happened.

Along with Yan Huangtu were four powerful elites from the Yanluo clan. All of them had cultivation above the Thousand-Koan Realm. They wore robes with multiple talismans and had powerful auras. Clearly, they all had powerful backgrounds.

Yan Huangtu looked at Zhang Ruochen carefully and clasped his hands together, "Thank you for stopping her," he said. "I'll make you my friend no matter whoever wins or loses, and the 10,000 Godstones she promised will be paid to you. How should I address you, sir?"

Zhang Ruochen knew that Yan Huangtu had taken a fancy to his strength and wanted to befriend or subdue him. In short, he had some bearings of an emperor.

"I am the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth hundreds." Zhang Ruochen said while clasping his fists in return.

The name sounded familiar to Yan Huangtu, but he had forgotten where he had heard it before.

This person in front of him had profound cultivation and was proficient in the Path of Dimension. It was not unusual for him to have heard of his name.

After he went home, he would slowly investigate his background.

While Zhang Ruochen and the Yan Huangtu were exchanging pleasantries, the betting on the gambling platform was getting more intense. In just a few rounds, the chips thrown out by the Seven-Armed Elder and the black-veiled cultivator had increased to more than 500,000 Godstones, which caused all the cultivators present to be dumbfounded.

After all, there are even some deities who couldn't take out so many Godstones.

The news of betting on the Rainbow Viburnum had spread throughout the House of Enchanters in a short time, and more and more cultivators came to watch the show.

Chapter 2439: Win or Lose

“550,000 Godstones.”

“560,000 Godstones.”

The former was the bet placed by the black-veiled cultivator.

Noqoilpi placed the latter. He would always place his bet of ten thousand Godstones higher than his opponent.

The Wheel of the Nether Sun, owned by Zhang Ruochen, could fetch a sky-high price of three hundred thousand Godstones because it could be refined into a Supreme Artifact. Other top-tier Regal Artifacts could not fetch such a high price.

It could be said that the bet between the Seven-Armed Elder and the black-veiled cultivator was the greatest gambling match in the entire mundane realm. It was destined to shake Heaven and Hell and become a legend.

Cang Jie was scared witless. Despite being a Taotie, his breath became heavy, and his heart had almost stopped beating.

Yan Huangtu had been looking at the black-veiled cultivator with curiosity.

It was not surprising that the Seven-Armed Elder could take out 560,000 Godstones. After all, the old man had lived for more than ten thousand years and won more than ten thousand games.

‘But who is this black-veiled cultivator? How can he afford 550,000 Godstones?’ Yan Huangtu wondered.

Zhang Ruochen said, “The winner is about to be decided!”

“How do you know?” Yan Huangtu asked with a smile.

Zhang Ruochen said, “The Rainbow Viburnum is undoubtedly a dead tree. Even if it is refined into a Supreme Artifact, it can’t be called a Supreme Artifact now because it doesn’t have a vessel spirit. A Supreme Artifact without a vessel spirit is worth only about 500,000 Godstones.”

Yan Zhexian looked at Zhang Ruochen and said, “What if the vessel spirit is just asleep? or the Rainbow Viburnum isn’t completely dead?”

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and did not answer her.

Yan Huangtu sighed lightly. His niece was brilliant and had potential that millions of cultivators could not rival. Unfortunately, she was protected too well and ended up being too ignorant and inexperienced.

“Why didn’t you say anything?” Yan Zhexian asked unyieldingly.

Yan Huangtu finally couldn’t help but speak up. “Those two possibilities of yours are too slim, and the amount of wealth required is something that even the Seven-Armed Elder couldn’t bear.”

“Just now, the Seven-Armed Elder had already said that he was going all out, betting on that ten to twenty percent winning chance. More than five hundred thousand Godstones, betting on a ten to twenty percent winning chance is already a huge risk.”

“Gambling in the two situations you mentioned would cost a million or even a few million Godstones to bet on a one percent chance of winning. The price was too high. Even a deity wouldn’t do such a thing. Didn’t the deities of the Deathwraith Fane and the Enchanter Chamber withdraw?”

It was Yan Zhexian’s first time taking part in a gamble. After hearing the explanation of Yan Huangtu, she suddenly understood. She stole a glance at Zhang Ruochen. Her pretty face covered in runes was embarrassed and red.

The black-veiled cultivator hesitated for a long time. He again put down the black chip card and said, “I don’t want to raise the bet!”

The Seven-Armed Elder stood up and laughed. “Since the bet is fixed, let’s open the last seal and see what color the Rainbow Viburnum is.”

Zhang Ruochen had been observing the Seven-Armed Elder's eyes. 'He didn't seem to be betting on a ten to twenty percent chance of winning. He was very confident. Or am I wrong?'

Zhang Ruochen used the Heart of Truth to sense again, but the subtle feeling told him that the Rainbow Viburnum wasn't worth betting on.

The atmosphere in the hall was pushed to the climax.

The result of a betting involving millions of Godstones was about to be unveiled. Who would be the final winner?

"Noqoilpi! Noqoilpi! Noqoilpi..."

Many cultivators in the Citadel Casino were shouting these two words.

It was the title the Seven-Armed Elder had earned for his zero-defeat record. It was instilled in the hearts of every gambler.

Everyone in the gambling hall was of high status. They all held their breath and were nervous.

Even an experienced gambler like Ye Xiao was trembling in fear during the opening of the seal.

Boom!

The last seal was removed.

The Rainbow Viburnum shot out a dazzling rainbow light, accompanied by the tremendous energy of Dimension and Time rushing toward all directions. Even though everyone in the gambling hall was prepared, there were still a dozen people who were swept away by the spatial turbulence and were thrown hundreds of feet away.

Although the Marks of Time in the form of light spots were dense, they did not form a harmful attack.

"Such a powerful energy storm. Who dares to say that the Rainbow Viburnum has been corroded?" Cang Baizi was excited. He stared at Zhang Ruochen with a mocking look.

Yan Huangtu frowned and sighed. "It seems that the Seven-Armed Elder has won the bet again!"

“Too beautiful. Too exquisite!”

“What powerful active energy of space and time. Could it be that the Rainbow Viburnum isn’t dead but a living tree?”

“Impossible! A living Rainbow Viburnum... this, this will alarm all the deities in Infernal Court...”

“I missed such a divine item. If I had known it earlier, I would have risked everything and made a bet.” A cultivator sighed.

Yan Zhexian regretted it. She felt she should have stuck to her own idea. A treasure like the Rainbow Viburnum was worth gambling, no matter how high the stake was.

Almost everyone present exclaimed in their mind, ‘Noqoilpi was discerning.’

‘Tu Tian, the so-called Emperor who slaughtered the Heavens and Earth hundreds, had misjudged!’

While everyone was immersed in the beautiful halo of the Rainbow Viburnum, only three people remained silent. These three people were Zhang Ruochen, the Seven-Armed Elder, and the black-veiled cultivator.

The Seven-Armed Elder only let out a loud laugh at the beginning.

As the seal was broken, the smile on his face disappeared. His eyes became more and more serious. In the end, his face turned pale. It was clear that something unexpected had happened.

“How could this happen?” Someone shouted in fear.

On the gambling platform, the light of the Rainbow Viburnum in a stone cauldron quickly disappeared.

The tree gradually turned into sand and slid down.

The cultivators who had been excited and amazed just now were all dumbfounded. They could not believe what they were seeing.

Yan Huangtu was stunned for a moment. He then burst into laughter. “It turns out that the energy fluctuation just now was the last essence of the Rainbow Viburnum. The seal was broken and exposed to the air. It dissipated in an instant. Haha, even Noqoilpi would misjudge.”

Thinking of this, Yan Huangtu couldn't help but look at Zhang Ruochen. He thought to himself, “He is even more perceptive than Noqoilpi. He'll become someone outstanding one day.”

“Impossible! I saw the active living signs. How could it be a dead tree?! Impossible!”

A powerful spiritual power storm unleashed by Noqoilpi. It sent the people closest to him flying. Their hair was disheveled. They landed on the stone cauldron and reached out to hug the Rainbow Viburnum.

When they touched it, the colorful sand fell even faster.

The eyes of the six cultivators who had bet one thousand Godstones were all shining with excitement.

Three of them were extremely happy. Their laughter seemed to be able to shatter the entire castle.

Although the other three were also laughing, Zhang Ruochen was keenly aware that they were all glancing at the black-veiled cultivator.

The glance was quick and obscure. In addition, everyone was attracted by the Rainbow Viburnum. Other than Zhang Ruochen, no other cultivator had noticed it.

Zhang Ruochen was suddenly enlightened. He could not help but smile and sigh. “Amazing!”

No one knew who he was praising.

BANG!

Noqoilpi's face was ferocious. He reached out his eagle-claw-like hand and pierced through the Rainbow Viburnum.

With a bang, the three-meter-tall tree completely exploded.

Noqoilpi's tightly clenched hand slowly opened. A ball of seven-colored light flickered in his palm. Inside the light was a worm the size of an earthworm with a seven-colored ring.

“So it was you who emitted that weak aura of life. It was you...” Noqoilpi’s eyes were about to pop out of their sockets, and he was trembling in rage.

It was apparent that Noqoilpi had sensed the living signs on the Rainbow Viburnum. He thought it was not a dead tree, so he had bet everything.

Who would have thought that a worm had grown in the Rainbow Viburnum?

Zhang Ruochen had a new doubt. ‘Even with my Heart of Truth, I couldn’t sense any living signs on the Rainbow Viburnum. How did Noqoilpi sense it?’

‘It seemed that Noqoilpi was powerful in certain aspects. He must have a big secret.’

An Immortal Vampire in a blood robe with ten wings on his back looked at Ye Xiao and smiled proudly. “Is it the time to announce the result?”

Ye Xiao looked at Noqoilpi, who was still standing on the stone cauldron. He cupped his hands and said, “Senior, are you okay?”

“It’s okay... It’s okay... I accept the result.”

Noqoilpi closed his eyes. He couldn’t calm down for a long time.

This was the first time he had lost after so many years. And he had lost so badly.

“Noqoilpi has suffered a great loss. Even if he has a lot of wealth, I’m afraid it’s a terrible setback for him this time,” Cang Baizi said in a low voice with a smile.

Yan Zhexian was a little scared. If Zhang Ruochen and Yan Huangtu hadn’t stopped her, she might have bet more than five hundred thousand Godstones. She would have faced consequences she could not imagine.

Losing 150,000 Godstones was the best outcome.

Staring at the tall and thin man who claimed himself as the “the emperor who slaughtered Heaven and Earth,” she felt grateful and curious.

Ye Xiao calmed himself down. He announced, “Everyone can see that the Rainbow Viburnum has lost all of its essences and turned into dust.

“Although the seven-colored sand has some value, it’ll only fetch a price far less than a thousand Godstones.

“Therefore, the winner of this bet is— ”

“Hold on.”

A voice interrupted Ye Xiao’s announcement.

The joy of the six winners was about to reach climax, but they were suddenly interrupted. Hence, they got annoyed. Their eyes were frosty as they stared at the person who had spoken.

The one who interrupted Ye Xiao was Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen walked up to Yan Zhexian and smiled. “Miss, would you like me to buy the worm in the hands of Noqoilpi at the price of a thousand Godstones?”

Yan Zhexian was stunned and could not react in time. ‘Is he crazy? A thousand Godstones for a worm...

‘That’s not the point! Why does he want to buy it from me?

‘I’m not the owner.’

Some cultivators in the hall reacted quickly and understood Zhang Ruochen’s intention.

Cang Baizi laughed loudly. “Do you think everyone is an idiot? Who would spend a thousand Godstones for that worm?! Are you trying to make her a winner by claiming the worm is worth a thousand Godstones? Haha!”

If that worm could fetch that price, coupled with the seven-colored sand’s value, the total value would exceed a thousand Godstones.

When the total value exceeded a thousand Godstones, the six gamblers who had only bet on the value of a thousand Godstones were the first to be eliminated.

The gamblers who had bet on the value of more than a thousand Godstones were only Yan Zhexian, the Seven-Armed Elder, and the black-veiled cultivator.

According to the rules, the one placing their bet on the value closest to the price would be the winner.

If that were the case, Yan Zhexian would win.

Ye Xiao scolded Zhang Ruochen. “Mister, you’d better not break the rules set by the House of Enchanters. An item’s value can’t be determined by you alone.”

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen dared to play tricks openly, the six “winners” were the most furious.

The Immortal Vampire Supreme Saint with ten wings on his back said in a low voice, “Tsk, a fool is trying to act smart.”

“Chase him out. He should be banned from entering the House of Enchanters in the future.”

“Just how badly he wants to win!”

...

Cang Jie was embarrassed. He felt that this must be the first time his senior had visited Citadel Casino and did not know the rules. That was why he made a joke of himself. Cang Jie wanted to explain on his senior’s behalf, but he was suppressed by the intimidating aura from all directions.

He was just a Ninth-Step Saint King. There was no place for him to speak in front of many Supreme Saints.

Zhang Ruochen was still calm, “Haven’t you ever thought that a worm that can grow in a Rainbow Viburnum is not something ordinary?”

“As long as this lady agrees to sell it to me at the price of a thousand Godstones, I have a way to prove that it’s worth more than a thousand Godstones. You’ll be convinced.”

Cang Baizi laughed loudly as if he had heard the funniest thing in the world. He said, “Even if it’s a rare species, it won’t even be worth a hundred Godstones.”

“Everyone here is an experienced cultivator. Even if it were a valuable species we hadn’t seen before, we would’ve heard about it. So, this worm isn’t a valuable species.”

However, the six “winners” were already worried. They talked to each other telepathically with the fear that something might go wrong.

Then, they all took a tough stance.

“Throw him out.”

“If the House of Enchanters doesn’t take action, I’ll do it.”

“How dare you raise a ruckus in front of me?! Are you looking for death?! You would have died if this wasn’t the House of Enchanters.”

...

Those who dared to participate in this game had powerful cultivation and prominent backgrounds.

Instead of arguing with Zhang Ruochen, they unleashed an intimidating aura and dashed toward Zhang Ruochen.

However, there was no slightest change in Zhang Ruochen’s facial expression. Instead, he smiled.

“I dare you!” said Yan Huangtu with a thunderous voice. Then, the four powerful elites behind him unleashed their aura, revealing themselves. Their aura was more imposing than the six “winners.”

One of them was at the middle stage of the Thousand-Koan Realm, while two were at the peak of the Thousand-Koan Realm. The last one had reached the Banshi Isshou Realm.

Some cultivators were shocked as they had recognized the identities of those four elites. They exclaimed, “They’re Terra Demons: Xuanwu Ji, Xuanwu Tian, Xuanwu Ying, and their elder, Kun Yunhuang.”

Despite being a small clan, Terra Demons were a clan dominating the borders of the Infernal Court.

Who could make the four great powerful Terra Demons become their followers?!

Among the four elites, there was even one elder who had reached the Banshi Isshou Realm.

Everyone looked at Yan Huangtu, feeling shocked and nervous as they wondered about his identity, ‘Who is he?’

The six “winners” were all stunned.

Yan Huangtu found a chair and sat on it. He said, “What I mean is let him finish his words. Any objections?”

Chapter 2440: Primordial Spatial Worm

Yan Zhexian was happy to win, but she didn't want to lose. She said, "If you can really prove the value of this worm, more than 1,000 Godstones. If I win, I'll give it to you for free."

"Okay! I'll remember that!" said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen walked up to Seven-Armed Elder, reached out his hand, and said, "Senior, can you let me keep this worm for the time being?"

Seven-Armed Elder opened his palm, and the colorful worm flew into Zhang Ruochen's palm under the cover of spiritual power.

For some reason, the colorful light on the worm's body was much dimmer than before. It had lost a lot of its lifeforce and was in low spirits.

After falling into Zhang Ruochen's hand, the worm's spirit suddenly increased. It opened its small, lively eyes and crawled intimately in the palm.

Its lifeforce recovered speedily.

The cultivators present were amazed.

Zhang Ruochen said, "This is the Primordial Spatial Worm. It shuttles through the universe and feeds on all kinds of Spatial Treasures. It's the fastest creature in the world."

Cang Baizi couldn't help but snicker, "What Primordial Spatial Worm? I've never heard of it. The fastest creature in the world? I think it's the slowest creature!"

A gambler who had bet 1,000 Godstones said, "The fastest creatures in the world are the Golden Rocs, the Nine-talons Dragons, the Heavenly Phoenixes. Some cultivators specialize in the Path of Flowing Light. The golden-winged Immortal Vampires and the jade-bone Rakshasa are also known for their speed. Have you heard that a worm can become the fastest creature in the world?”

Many cultivators laughed and shook their heads.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You are all powerful figures among the Supreme Saints. I didn’t expect you to be ignorant. How about we make a bet? I will ride this worm to Mount Immortal, which is 300,000 miles away. Whoever is faster than me and arrives before me, I will never mention that I bought the worm with 1,000 Godstones. Moreover, I will give that person 1,000 Godstones as compensation.”

Hearing this, countless people were tempted.

1,000 Godstones was definitely not a small amount.

“I’ll bet with you.”

“I’ll bet too.”

...

“If you follow the rules and only use this worm as a mount, and not rely on your own cultivation to travel, then I’ll bet with you too.”

Zhang Ruochen said, “Don’t worry. In front of so many powerful figures, I don’t need to play word games. It’s definitely the worm that’s traveling, not me.”

“Okay, I’ll bet too.”

“I want to join too.”

...

Not only did everyone in the gambling hall want to join the bet, but even the Neverwith Realm Supreme Saints who couldn’t enter the gambling hall also wanted to win Zhang Ruochen’s 1,000 Godstones.

Zhang Ruochen waved his hand and said, “Not everyone is qualified to participate in this bet. If you want to bet with me, you have to take out 1,000 Godstones.”

Countless cultivators immediately gave up. Only the thirteen Supreme Saints, including Cang Baizi, received 1,000

Godstones. They quickly threw the Godstones onto the gambling platform and they looked for Ye Xiao to be notarized, as if they were afraid Zhang Ruochen would retract his words.

Yan Zhexian secretly transmitted her voice, she reminded Zhang Ruochen, “The rules of your bet are too lax. There is a teleportation array between the House of Enchanters and Mount Immortal. What if they use it? Moreover, the Fane of Destiny has set up many barriers. If you want to reach Mount Immortal, you need to go through at least seven of them. So, you can’t win just by being fast.”

Zhang Ruochen was taken aback. He had no idea Yan Zhexian would think of this. This woman appeared to have a cunning side.

Of course, even if she said so, Zhang Ruochen only smiled.

Yan Zhexian frowned. She really didn’t understand what the Emperor Who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth was thinking. The mysterious veil on this person made her even more curious.

Not all cultivators thought that Zhang Ruochen would definitely lose.

At least, the black-veiled cultivator and Seven-Armed Elder didn’t join the bet. That was because 1,000 Godstones was too little for them. Another reason was that they couldn’t figure out what Zhang Ruochen was playing and couldn’t see the result clearly.

“If you lose, you’ll have to pay 13,000 Godstones. Do you have that much to pay?”

Zhang Ruochen took out a token and pinched it between his fingers. He threw it onto the gambling table with ease.

Ye Xiao took the token and looked at it. His expression changed slightly. “The purple gold token of the Realm of Star Ocean can only be obtained by cultivators who have completed large transactions of more than 100,000 Godstones there.”

“Am I qualified to bet with you now?” Zhang Ruochen looked across and asked.

Cang Baizi and the others sneered in their hearts, tacitly acknowledging Zhang Ruochen’s wealth and strength.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the northern night sky and said, “Let’s set off from here. Let me ask you in advance. If I win, can I prove that this worm is worth more than 1,000 Godstones?”

Everyone looked at each other and finally nodded in unison.

If this worm could reach Mount Immortal 300,000 miles away before the group of top-notch Supreme Saints, it would undoubtedly prove its rarity. It was worth 1,000 Godstones, which was not too controversial.

“In that case, let’s begin!” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen made a gesture and invited the thirteen Supreme Saints to leave first.

This was a huge bet involving 1,000 Godstones. The thirteen Supreme Saints didn’t hold back. They all rushed out of the gambling hall at their fastest speed.

The walls of the gambling hall were decorated with inscriptions of an array. They could only use the door.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head slightly. He slowly raised his hand and said to the Primordial Spatial Worm, “Little guy, let’s go!”

Although it was the first time they had met, the Primordial Spatial Worm was very intimate with Zhang Ruochen. It was very obedient. Its small body rolled around. Suddenly, a huge spatial energy tide erupted from its body.

Countless threads appeared in the space around Zhang Ruochen. They were quickly stretched.

The palm-sized space became as big as a palace.

The earthworm-like Primordial Spatial Worm’s body expanded and became hundreds of feet long. Like a seven-colored python, it opened its mouth and gnawed at the space.

Suddenly, the space in front of it caved in and became pitch black.

Seven-Armed Elder was knowledgeable after all. He exclaimed, "Wormhole... Wormhole in space..."

Countless cultivators present were shocked to the point of numbness.

This worm had bitten out a wormhole in space.

Could it be...

Could it be that the wormholes all over the universe had been bitten out by this worm?

Some wormholes could cross a starry sky and connect to places tens of thousands of light-years away. No matter how powerful a spatial cultivator was, he couldn't do this.

"There's no need to compete. The winner has been decided. Lord Ye, send a message to tell them to come back!" The black-veiled cultivator said.

When he said this, the black-veiled cultivator's eyes were fixed on Zhang Ruochen. It seemed that he wanted to see through him and understand.

Before they left the Citadel Casino, they received a message from Ye Xiao and returned to the gambling hall.

Obviously, Ye Xiao had told them about the Primordial Spatial Worm's ability. At that moment, they were all staring at Zhang Ruochen, who was standing on top of the colorful giant worm, and the spatial wormhole that had just been gnawed on. They were both shocked and unable to accept it.

There was such a strange worm in the world.

Since it could gnaw out wormholes, the array and barrier could not stop it.

Its ability was definitely not as simple as rushing on the road.

"No wonder this guy is so confident!" Yan Zhexian's pretty face could not help but show a charming smile.

Zhang Ruochen looked down from above and said, "Since everyone has returned, does it mean that I have already won? Cang Jie, go and collect the Godstones."

Cang Jie's blood was boiling. He didn't know how to express his admiration for his senior. It was amazing. He had won more than 10,000 Godstones with just a casual attack.

The Godstones he had won before were nothing!

"I want to hang out with you, senior. I want to acknowledge you as my teacher. I want to cling to you tightly," said Cang Jie.

Cang Jie gulped. He was very excited. He put away the bags of Godstones on the gambling platform and carried them on his back. He retreated to Zhang Ruochen's side and stood straight.

It was as if being Zhang Ruochen's underling was a great thing.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

A series of applause rang out. Yan Huangtu stood up and laughed, "Wonderful, wonderful. What an amazing worm. The final winner of this round should be self-evident now, right?"

Cang Baizi's face was extremely gloomy. He stared at Zhang Ruochen with murderous intent.

The six Supreme Saints who had bet 1,000 Godstones felt even colder and more murderous.

If it wasn't for this Emperor Who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth, they would have been the winners. How could they lose again and again?

Ye Xiao's forehead was covered in sweat. He wasn't sure what to do. He wanted to seek the leader's advice.

Seven-Armed Elder suddenly said, "The wormholes in the universe are all eaten by Primordial Spatial Worms," he said. "Such a divine worm should be worth more than 1,000 Godstones. In my opinion, they're worth more than 560,000 Godstones."

Hearing this, Cang Baizi and the others' eyes lit up and immediately agreed.

"Senior Noqoilpi is right. Controlling this worm is equivalent to having a powerful Spatial Array Master. Besides, isn't it easy to break all kinds of barriers and arrays? I think its value is even higher than a Supreme Artifact."

"It's a divine beast! Godstones can't measure its value."

"It should be Senior Noqoilpi who wins."

...

They had just lost 1,000 Godstones and hated Zhang Ruochen. How could they be willing to see Zhang Ruochen go to the Primordial Spatial Worm?

Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian's eyes turned cold, but they couldn't refute these people. After all, they also felt that the Primordial Spatial Worm was very valuable.

The news of the Primordial Spatial Worm's birth had been quickly sent out by many cultivators.

The Communication talisman flew out of the House of Enchanters like raindrops.

Many of them sent messages to the gods.

After all, the Primordial Spatial Worm had never been heard of or seen before. It was probably because it was hard to catch. Now, there was one that was born. Even the gods would be moved!

Seven-Armed Elder smiled and saluted Zhang Ruochen with his withered hands. He said, "Thank you, young cultivator. If you hadn't seen the origin of the Primordial Spatial Worm, I would have lost more than half of my fortune here today. Don't worry, I will give you 10,000 Godstones as a thank you. Now, shouldn't you return the Primordial Spatial Worm to the real winner?"

Looking at the open palm of Seven-Armed Elder, Zhang Ruochen realized that once he handed over the Primordial Spatial Worm, it would be impossible to purchase it with another 1,000 Godstones.

Zhang Ruochen sighed and said, "You overestimate its value!"

Cang baizi chuckled. "Not at all. I'm willing to spend 570,000 Godstones to buy the Primordial Spatial Worm on behalf of the Hall of Permanence."

"The House of Enchanters is willing to spend 1 million Godstones to buy the Primordial Spatial Worm."

"The Fane of Asura is willing to spend 2 million Godstones to buy the Primordial Spatial Worm."

...

Shocking bids kept ringing out.

Even a Supreme Artifact couldn't cause such a fierce fight.

Zhang Ruochen whispered to Seven-Armed Elder, "Why don't we sell the Primordial Spatial Worm to the Fane of Asura for 2 million Godstones? After that, we'll split it 50-50?"

Seven-Armed Elder laughed hoarsely. "Why should I split it 50-50 with you?"

"Because if I say a few more words, the price of this Primordial Spatial Worm will fall below 150,000 Godstones. Not only will you not get one Godstone, but you'll also have to offer a large sum of Godstones that you lost in a bet. Why should you refuse such a win-win situation?" Zhang Ruochen said with a sinister smile, "It's a win-win situation."

Seeing Zhang Ruochen's smile, Seven-Armed Elder, who had been confident, became uncertain.

The Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint who represented the Fane of Asura was called Xing Qian. Hearing this, he could not help but feel nervous.

Although he was a disciple of a god in the Fane of Asura, if he misjudged the value of the Primordial Spatial Worm, he would definitely die.

The Fane of Asura would never give him two million Godstones.

Only by killing him could he sever the relationship between this matter and the Fane of Asura.

“I’ve already sent the news to my master. Why hasn’t he replied?” When Zhang Ruochen and Seven-Armed Elder looked at each other without saying anything, Xing Qian was extremely nervous. He was afraid that Seven-Armed Elder would suddenly agree.

This was another grand gamble!

An even grander gamble.

The battle between Zhang Ruochen and Seven-Armed Elder.

It was a gamble of the heart.

The difference was that Zhang Ruochen’s victory was within his grasp. He was already in an undefeatable position. He just... wanted to win more.

It all depended on Seven-Armed Elder’s judgment?

Xing Qian couldn’t bear the mental torture anymore. He said in a trembling voice, “I can take it back...”

“Alright, I agree. I’ll sell it to the Fane of Asura for two million Godstones,” Seven-Armed Elder said.

At that moment, Xing Qian heard his master’s divine voice and transmitted it into his mind. “It’s just a puny worm. The price to raise it into an adult is too high and its value is limited.”

Not only Xing Qian, but the other cultivators who had sent the message also received a reply from the gods.

“Although Primordial Spatial Worms are rare, some powerful gods can still catch them. The reason why they aren’t raised is that the cost of raising them is too high. Raising one adult worm is more expensive than raising ten gods.

“Even gods can’t control the adult Primordial Spatial Worms, so they have no value.

“If there are no Spatial Treasures to devour or spatial cultivators to provide it with Saint Qi to absorb, the young Primordial Spatial Worm will die within a day.

“You can buy them to research and refine medicine. If the price of a larva exceeds 30,000 Godstones, don’t buy it!”

...

The Primordial Spatial Worm was very unfamiliar to Saint Realm cultivators, but the gods clearly knew of its existence. Information about the Primordial Spatial Worm spread.

Some gods gave it an estimate of 30,000 Godstones.

After all, a god that had just died was only sold for hundreds of thousands of Godstones.

Xing Qian of the Fane of Asura was ashen-faced. He looked at Seven-Armed Elder with pleading eyes and said, "I won't buy it, I won't buy it, the Fane of Asura won't buy it... No, no, it is I who won't buy it!"

Seven-Armed Elder's aura of death was exuberant. He said, "You Fane of Asura can buy it if you want to, but you won't buy it if you don't want to. Do you really think I'm easy to bully?"

The outcome was set. Yan Huangtu was in a good mood. He said, "The Fane of Asura is the number one fane of the Asuras after all. There are many gods, so of course, they can look down on you, Noqoilpi."

"The Fane of Asura also has a lot of gambling properties in the metropolis. If you don't give me these two million Godstones, I'll make sure that your gambling cities won't be able to open. You'd better believe that I have such strength," said Seven-Armed Elder.

Xing Qian knelt down on one knee and said, "Dear Sir Noqoilpi, I was wrong this time. Please let me live!"

Seven-Armed Elder naturally knew that the outcome was set. No matter how hard he tried to scare Xing Qian, he could not take out two million Godstones. The Fane of Asura would not be able to fork out this amount of money.

The final result was to force Xing Qian to death.

He had already lost. What was the point of forcing Xing Qian to death?

Seven-Armed Elder shook his head and said, "From today onwards, you will be my servant for a thousand years. Are you willing?”

“I am willing.”

Xing Qian heaved a sigh of relief. He had finally saved his life.

Seven-Armed Elder was the first-class powerhouse below divinity. In addition to his godly gambling techniques, the various major forces had no time to recruit him. Who would be willing to provoke him?

It was already the best outcome to appease his anger in such a way.

Although Xing Qian had a godly master, this matter would definitely spread to the world. For the sake of the Fane of Asura’s face, the god did not dare to interfere in the secular world and personally deal with Seven-Armed Elder.

Although the Fane of Asura did not care about killing, it cared about being looked down upon by the world.

This gamble that had alarmed countless cultivators had finally come to an end.

The winner was Yan Zhexian. After deducting all the expenses, she had earned close to a million Godstones.

Although the price of a Supreme Artifact was more than a million Godstones. However, Supreme Artifacts were priceless. Even if they were to be sold, they would be bartered with other Supreme Artifacts, elixirs, and Yuanhui sacred herbs.

In reality, many gods had never seen a million Godstones before.

With such a large amount of wealth, Yan Huangtu and Yan Zhexian were both excited and cautious.

Yan Huangtu ordered, “Send a message to Yan Yu and ask him to come to the House of Enchanters personally.”

High Demon Elder Kun Yunhuang said in shock, “Milord, does Master Yu need to personally handle this?”

“Do you think that a million Godstones is a small amount? Even gods would be tempted.”

“But this is the Divine Domain of Destiny.”

“The Scioness of Destiny had died in the Divine Domain of Destiny.”

After thinking for a moment, Yan Huangtu said again, “Of course, other than the Master of the Avīci Pavilion, no other gods would dare to do such a heaven-defying thing. He had asked Yan Yu to come here to collect the debt. Seven-Armed Elder and the black-veiled cultivator were not people to be trifled with. Only Yan Yu would be able to suppress them.”

“I understand!” Kun Yunhuang said.

The black-veiled cultivator and Seven-Armed Elder had only given them a bargaining chip and had yet to take out the Godstones.

For more than 500,000 Godstones, it was enough to tempt the gods. Moreover, the two of them were not gods yet. They could escape and deny the payment of the Godstones.

Even if they wanted to collect the debt from the House of Enchanters, they needed a powerful figure.

“Where did the Emperor Who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth go?”

Yan Zhexian searched everywhere for Zhang Ruochen, but unfortunately, there was no trace of him in the Citadel Casino.

...

Among the nine palaces of the House of Enchanters, the Peacock Palace was where the core members of the House of Enchanters lived. Outsiders could not enter it.

Zhang Ruochen’s figure was invisible. He hid in the Profound Spatial Dimension and followed Lord Huanxu into the Peacock Palace.

Lord Huanxu was a Demonsky Clan Supreme Saint. His training had advanced to the Thousand-Koan Realm and was considered one of the first-rate saints. He was a gambler for the Rainbow Viburnum and he'd wagered 1,000 Godstones.

After leaving the Citadel Casino, Lord Huanxu was very careful. He changed his appearance and activated an invisible treasure. He walked around the Jadehill Palace four times before taking a small boat to the Peacock Palace.

When he arrived at the Peacock Palace, he entered a courtyard filled with exotic flowers and plants.

Zhang Ruochen came to the courtyard. With his hands behind his back, he looked around and smiled. "It's quiet here!"

There was an array outside the courtyard.

However, it could not stop the Master of Time and Space. Zhang Ruochen quietly passed through the array and sneaked into the courtyard. He hid behind a blood-red sacred tree.

With the help of the dim light, Zhang Ruochen saw four figures standing under the pavilion in the courtyard.

He knew all four of them.

He had just seen them in the Citadel Casino.

Besides Lord Huan Xu, two other participants had bet 1,000 Godstones. They were all first-class Supreme Saint powerhouses, each with an impressive background.

The fourth person in the green robe was Cang Baizi.

Two rows of white jade spirit lamps were lit in the pavilion.

In the middle of the hall, a black figure sat. It was the mysterious black-veiled cultivator.

"Greetings, Lady Bai."

Four Supreme Saints from different forces bowed to the pavilion at the same time.

...

Chapter 2441: The Beginning of a Nightmare

Cang Baizi of the Corpusians' Hall of Permanence.

Lord Huan Xu of the Demonsky Clan.

Thandee of the Rakshasas' Paarth Family.

Lord Ironclad of the Nether Clan's Nine-order Temple.

Any one of the four was an existence that all the Supreme Saints of the Celestial Court feared. In the Infernal Court, they were even more infamous. At this moment, they were kowtowing to a woman at the same time.

'Lady Bai?' Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen's eyes widened in surprise. He couldn't believe a woman from the Enchanter Palace possessed such incredible power. The four powerhouses were all from great forces and were divine in nature. They should not be tamed.

Wouldn't it be even more shocking if they voluntarily submitted to her?

Even the master of the House of Enchanters didn't have such power.

Who was she?

A black-veiled cultivator named "Lady Bai" was sitting in the hall. Her snow-white fingers were holding a vermillion brush as she copied the scriptures.

The yellowed scriptures were placed beside the table.

A golden cauldron was emitting green smoke.

She was copying according to the scriptures, and her eyes would look over from time to time. However, there wasn't a single word in the scriptures. It was extremely weird.

What was even weirder was that the words written on the white paper were like dragons and snakes. After the next word was written, the last word had disappeared.

Cang Baizi and the rest stood outside the hall. They kept their bodies in a bow state and did not dare to move.

They knew that Lady Bai would be extremely angry that the bet against Seven-Armed Elder had failed.

No one spoke. The atmosphere was somber and solemn.

Zhang Ruochen knew that everyone present was superior. They could easily sense his gaze, so he only took a glance at the beginning. Then, he pressed his back against the tree trunk and closed his eyes to listen.

It was quiet for a long time.

In the darkness of the night, there was only the sound of the wind blowing the leaves.

After copying ten scriptures in a row, the black-veiled cultivator finally stopped. She closed the yellowed scripture and put it into her sleeve. She seemed to have finally thought of the four people outside the hall. She said, "Tonight's game is not a complete failure. You don't have to be so afraid. All of you can leave now!"

It was an extremely pleasant voice.

Just by listening to her voice, one could imagine the most beautiful image of a woman in one's mind. She was as beautiful as a gentle and talented woman.

The four people let out a long sigh of relief as if a heavy burden had been lifted off their shoulders.

Cang Baizi cupped his fists with both hands, and his waist was almost bent to the ground, he said coldly, "If it weren't for the Emperor who slaughtered the Heavens and Earth tonight, Noqoilpi who was known as the undefeatable god of gamblers, he would definitely have lost to you. However, all of the Godstones have now been won by an unknown woman who appeared out of nowhere, causing you and the House of Enchanters to suffer significant losses. I will go and kill him now, extract his soul, and offer it to you.”

The Enchanter Chamber has 180 floors.

Even the most profitable House of Enchanters might not be able to earn 500,000 Godstones after thousands of years of operation.

Tonight’s loss was indeed shocking. Any cultivator would not be able to remain calm.

However, the black-veiled cultivator’s voice was indifferent and his tone was elegant and gentle. “You’re wrong on three points.”

“What three points?” Cang Baizi asked curiously.

The black-veiled cultivator said, “First, the Emperor who slaughtered the Heavens and Earth isn’t that person’s real name.

“Second, the nameless woman isn’t nameless. She’s very famous.

“Third, I’ve already said that tonight’s battle wasn’t a complete defeat. Whether or not the House of Enchanters will suffer heavy losses will depend on how things turn out later. So far, we’ve succeeded by at least half.”

Zhang Ruochen secretly exclaimed. This Lady Bai dared to scheme against Seven-Armed Elder and almost succeeded. She was indeed a remarkable person.

Zhang Ruochen wondered, ‘Has she already seen through me and Yan Zhexian’s true form?

‘What does she mean by at least half of the plan is successful?’

Cang Baizi asked, “What are the identities of the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth and the nameless woman?”

“Do not ask questions that you are not supposed to ask!” the black-veiled cultivator said.

Cang Baizi said, “Are we just going to let them go?”

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen felt an extremely cold qi sweeping through the entire courtyard. Even if he was hiding far away, he could still feel the stinging pain on his skin and the clotting of his blood.

His Saint Soul was almost pulled out of his body. Fortunately, his sea of Qi was stable and he had the protection of the Armor of the Fire God, so he was able to block the unknown power.

Cang Baizi screamed, causing the night to become creepy.

Zhang Ruochen didn't know what had happened, and he didn't dare to look with his eyes. He only heard Cang Baizi rolling on the ground, screaming and begging. He seemed to be in extreme pain.

"I'm sorry... I won't do it again. I won't... ask any more questions. What I shouldn't know... I mustn't know... I beg you, let... Let me go... Ah!"

It was easy to imagine how torturous it was to make a top-notch Supreme Saint beg for mercy and wail.

This Lady Bai is too temperamental. Cang Baizi only asked a few questions, and she already caused so much pain. Zhang Ruochen was speechless. He couldn't help but reflect on whether he had been too lenient with the cultivators below.

Cang Baizi's sobbing gradually faded. He struggled to stand. His green robe had been ripped. Blood was dripping all over his body. He knelt down and said, "Thank you for your forgiveness. I won't ask anymore!"

The other three powerful figures were trembling with fear.

The black-veiled cultivator's voice was still pleasant. She said, "I heard that you, Ling, and Huo Xing invited Zhang Ruochen to the Phoenix Annex. Why aren't you going yet?"

"I'm going now. I'm going now," said Cang Baizi.

Cang Baizi stood up, took three steps back, and walked out of the courtyard quickly.

Honeylocust Fair and Lord Ironclad immediately followed as if they were running away.

Only Lord Huanxu was still standing outside the hall.

The black-veiled cultivator asked, "Why aren't you leaving?"

Lord Huanxu quickly bowed and said, "I have been having nightmares for the past few days. Not only am I unable to cultivate, but it has also affected my ability to work for you. Please, give me the antidote."

"Nightmares are the most fearful, the most frightening, and the most vulnerable part of your heart. Why can't you face it directly? To fight a nightmare is to fight with yourself," said the black-veiled cultivator.

Lord Huanxu gritted his teeth and said with a pale face, "I... I am just a mediocre person."

"Well, you are very clear-headed to admit that you are a mediocre person. "I will grant you a beautiful dream so that you can avoid the torture of ten years of nightmares. "Ten years later, if you are still obedient, the beautiful dream can continue."

The voice was extremely pleasant and could make one's imagination run wild. One could not extricate themselves from it.

Zhang Ruochen was both surprised and amazed.

Who was this Lady Bai? Was she controlling these top-notch Supreme Saints with dreams?

Zhang Ruochen was also afraid of nightmares.

Because he also had fear, fright, and frailty.

The nightmares magnified all of this, so much so that even the Supreme Saints fell into fear and trepidation all day long.

At this moment, a strange scene happened in the courtyard.

Lord Huanxu seemed to be waking up from a dream. He let out a carefree laugh. His eyes were infatuated at times as if he had obtained a treasure that he yearned for. At times, he was lustful, as if he was hugging the body of the most beautiful woman in the world. At times, he looked down on all living things, it was as if he was a divine emperor, and all the gods were kneeling at his feet.

A beautiful dream, the desired life.

Who didn't wish to be the main character of a beautiful dream? For them, everything went swimmingly. They could get whatever they wanted. This sensation was incredible. It was so wonderful that the Supreme Saint would fall for it after tasting it once. He couldn't stop.

"Beautiful dreams make people fall. Nightmares make people fear."

Zhang Ruochen stood behind the tree and shook his head with a smile. He was about to leave. Suddenly, he heard the woman in black call out, "My lord, have you found out the identity of the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth?"

A three-foot-tall stone turtle walked out from the corner.

Lord Turtle's body was jade green all over. He was walking on two legs. His head was no bigger than a fist. His eyes were gleaming. He held a scroll in his hand and walked in front of the black-veiled cultivator, he stuttered, "Found, found, found... Him!"

"Speak," said the black-veiled cultivator.

"Acc... Acc... According... To... To..." said Lord Turtle.

The black-veiled cultivator shook her head and said, "Forget it! General, read it."

The stone pillar that supported the pavilion suddenly moved. Two long stone arms stretched out from the pillar and took the scroll from Lord Turtle's hand.

Lord Turtle was a little angry. He snorted at the stone pillar and said, "It's... all... all... My... My... My..."

"I know. It's all thanks to you."

"According to the name list of cultivators who came to the House of Enchanters," General Pillar read out loudly. "We can conclude tonight that the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth had to change his form. He could be one of the thirteen cultivators.”

“What about those who are proficient in the Path of Dimension?” asked the black-veiled cultivator.

General Pillar replied, “There is only one...”

“That’s enough. I know who it is!” said the black-veiled cultivator.

General Pillar said, “There is other relevant information here. There is a creature who claimed to be the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth. Not long ago, he appeared on Hoth and burned the slave market opened by the Xue Jue family. After leaving his name, he escaped.”

The black-veiled cultivator was surprised. She said, “Send a message to the House of Enchanters on Hoth. Tell them to capture the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth. I want him alive.”

General Pillar closed the scroll and asked in a low voice, “Do you want to deal with the Emperor who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth in the House of Enchanters?”

“We have more important things to do. Let’s put him on hold for the time being. Don’t cause any more trouble. My lord, keep an eye on Seven-Armed Elder. Don’t let him escape! If he escapes, we’ll really lose tonight!” said the black-veiled cultivator.

Zhang Ruochen breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that although the black-veiled cultivator was powerful, she hadn’t seen through his transformation technique. If everyone could see through the Thirty-six Formless Transmogrification, he wouldn’t be able to use this technique in the future.

At the same time, he was confused.

The black-veiled cultivator had set up a trap for Seven-Armed Elder. It wasn’t just for hundreds of thousands of Godstones. She had a bigger plan. What was she up to? What secrets was Seven-Armed Elder keeping?

And was the Emperor who slaughtered the Heavens and Earth on Hoth, Blackie?

He dared to burn down the Xue Jue Family's slave market and leave his name. He was really bold.

Zhang Ruochen quietly left the Peacock Palace and returned to the bustling Jadehill Palace. He could not calm down for a long time.

What he had just seen and heard was too much information. He needed to calm down.

Just as he wanted to calm down, silence appeared in front of him.

Guye Jing stood under a spectral ghost lamp. Beside her was a jade tree with silver flowers. She wore a scholar's robe. Her long hair was tied up on her head with a wooden hairpin. She looked like a man and a woman, but could not tell the gender.

She stared at Zhang Ruochen and said, "We will meet again!"

Zhang Ruochen changed his appearance after leaving the Peacock Palace. To be more different from humans and the Immortal Vampires, he had become half a fat cat. He had a tail and cat ears.

Perhaps he had just thought of Blackie. He had thought of it from his heart.

Zhang Ruochen was still confident in his ability to change. His eyes were blank. He waved his cat paws and said gruffly, "You've got the wrong cat. We've never met before. Move aside. I don't have time to waste on you."

"You can't get information from Xue Tu," she said.

Zhang Ruochen had just walked past Guye Jing. Hearing this, he knew he couldn't keep up the act. The flaw wasn't with him, but with Xue Tu.

Zhang Ruochen stopped and asked, "Where's Xue Tu?"

Guye Jing turned around and opened her right hand. A figure the size of a green bean appeared in her snow-white palm. It was Xue Tu, who had been squeezed into a ball.

Xue Tu had clearly struggled and resisted. Unfortunately, he couldn't escape from her palm.

Zhang Ruochen sighed. "Ah! How amazing. A Supreme Saint was easily squeezed by you!"

Xue Tu had a drop of Zhang Ruochen's blood on him. He could find him with this.

It wasn't strange for Guye Jing to appear in front of him.

Xue Tu sobbed. "Senior brother, save me. I didn't mean to reveal your secret to her. This demoness is too abnormal. She's proficient in soul-siphoning secret arts. I couldn't resist her."

Zhang Ruochen said, "There are two gods behind Xue Tu. I think you should let him go."

Guye Jing threw the "green bean" out, "He's of no value to me," she said. "I'm only interested in you. Don't you want to know what's going on in the House of Enchanters tonight? I can tell you."

Plop

Xue Tu reverted to his true form and fell into the cold lake, splashing.

Zhang Ruochen thought for a while and said, "I'd like to hear more. Unfortunately, I have another plan. I'm in a hurry!"

"Ling's plan?" Guye Jing asked.

"It seems that he told you everything!"

Zhang Ruochen really wanted to slap Xue Tu who had just gotten up from the water.

Guye Jing said, "Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing are not good people. Aren't you afraid of dying if you go there alone?"

"This is the House of Enchanters!" Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing said, "Yes, it's because this is the House of Enchanters. Do you really think this is a place for pleasure? Don't forget that the House of Enchanters is one of the top ten dark giants. Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing may not dare to kill you personally, but there are many desperate people in the dark world.”

Zhang Ruochen was shocked to hear what Guye Jing said. He realized that he had underestimated his enemy!

“Why are you telling me this?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing said, “You should go to your appointment. We can talk when you come back.”

“Give me back that drop of blood,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing shook her head and said, “Your transformation technique is brilliant. I have to make sure that I can find you anywhere, anytime.”

Xue Tu was wet all over. He walked to Zhang Ruochen’s side and was very afraid of Guye Jing. He advised Zhang Ruochen in a low voice, “Forget it, Senior Brother. This demoness’ cultivation is so high that we can’t afford to offend her. When it’s time to admit defeat, we have to admit defeat.”

“So she didn’t use any soul-siphoning secret technique on you. You admit defeat?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Xue Tu was stunned for a moment. Then he patted his chest, “How is that possible? Is he serious? It’s my own business. Maybe I’ll admit defeat. I won’t admit defeat even if I have a knife to my neck. Senior brother, believe me. Her soul-siphoning secret technique is really powerful. I can’t handle it. I really can’t handle it.”

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t be bothered with him. He turned around and left. Just as he took a step, he stopped and said, “You can find me with that drop of blood, and I can find you at any time with that drop of blood.”

On the surface, Guye Jing was Luo Sha’s best friend, but she spied on Zhang Ruochen with the Demonstone Engraving. In Zhang Ruochen’s eyes, she was not a friend.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t see through this demoness.

It was not only her cultivation but also her personality. Every time she appeared, her temperament was different. On the engagement, Guye Jing was extraordinarily charming and eccentric. She called Luo Sha “Little Shasha” as if she was an innocent young girl.

But the meeting just now was like an old-fashioned and cold nun. She could kill any man’s desire for a woman.

There was a Lady Bai, and now there was a Jing Jing. He still had to deal with Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing. Zhang Ruochen only felt that there was thunder in the silence. Danger and death lingered around him.

Unknowingly, he had crossed the curved bridge and arrived outside Phoenix Annex. His body and appearance had changed.

“Master Ruochen, Master Ling is already inside. He’s been waiting for you for a long time.”

A human saint in her 20s, wearing a thin white veil, stood outside the garden to welcome him.

The gentle breeze blew. The graceful body of the human saintess was barely visible. Her beautiful face flushed with shyness. She was extremely appealing.

Her eyes were filled with admiration. She said in a low voice, “I am Lian Rou, and have watched the projection of the Mystic Eye of Myriad Realms in the Battle of Celestial-Hunting. Tonight, when I see Master Ruochen’s true form, I feel like I’ve seen a banished immortal. A wargod of the human clan.”

“Take me in!” Zhang Ruochen said expressionlessly.

Ling had deliberately asked a human woman to accompany him. It was a huge provocation.

Chapter 2442: Shadow Incense

The air became much colder when Zhang Ruochen stepped into the Phoenix Annex. It was as if he had fallen into an ice cave.

Zhang Ruochen swept his gaze across the room. There was a long bronze table in the room. Ling, Bai Zi, and Huo Xing were already sitting in the north, west, and east. There were also three beautiful women accompanying them. Two were half-saints of the Immortal Vampires, and one was a human half-saint.

Aside from fine wine and delicacies, there were dishes cooked with human flesh and soul food on the table.

A glass lamp was placed in the center of the table.

The lamp oil was clear and transparent, and the wick was like beans. As it burned, it gave off ripples of patterns. The fragrance was like sandalwood, giving people a sense of tranquility and distance.

“Haha! Brother Ruochen, I’ve been waiting for you for a long time. Why are you only here now? I think you have to punish yourself with three cups.” Ling said with a familiar smile as if he had seen an old friend.

This fifth son of the Ghost Master had restrained his Ghost Qi. His ghost body was no different from a body of flesh and blood. He looked to be in his thirties. He had a white face and no beard. The top of his head was bare, and he didn’t have a single strand of hair.

Cang Baizi and Huo Xing looked at Zhang Ruochen silently.

Zhang Ruochen sat on the south side of the table and looked at Ling. He looked at the glass lamp on the table and said, “Buddha Oil Lamp?”

“Yes, it’s the Buddha Oil Lamp,” Ling said.

Refining the oil from a deceased Buddha and making it into lamp oil.

Once ignited, it could suppress the cultivator's spiritual power from leaving the body and also suppress the cultivator's spiritual perception.

This arrangement alone made Zhang Ruochen realize that the three people in front of him intended to kill him today.

Cang Baizi changed into a clean Taoist robe. He did not look as miserable as he did in the Peacock Palace. He said, "The ancestors of the Hall of Permanence went to the Western Buddha Realm and dug up a Buddha's corpse. They refined a lot of Buddha oil. If you're interested, I can give you some."

Buddha was considered a god.

Zhang Ruochen covered his nose and said rudely, "It stinks. Where did this stench coming from? Even the Buddha incense can't cover it."

Cang Baizi's stiff and pale face turned cold. He was about to flare up.

Ling held Cang baizi down.

Cang baizi snorted and vented his anger on the human half-saint woman sitting on his lap. Her pretty face twitched and her body trembled slightly.

Ling stared at the human saint named Lian Rou and said, "Why aren't you pouring wine for Ruochen?"

Lian Rou was charming. She picked up the wine jug and fill it up. Leaning against Zhang Ruochen, she exhaled and said, "Sir, please drink."

Zhang Ruochen reached out two fingers to block the wine cup. He looked at Ling and said, "There's no need to be so polite between us. I came here for only one purpose, the Southern Sword Realm."

Ling narrowed his eyes and put down the wine cup. "What kind of status do you have to be so interested in a poor and weak world?"

“Aren’t you also interested in that place?” said Zhang Ruochen.

He continued, “What did Lord Bladehell tell you?”

“This has nothing to do with Lord Bladehell. We just want to buy the Southern Sword Realm to strengthen our power and cultivate more clansmen,” said Cang Baizi.

Ling shook his head slightly. Cang Baizi was really an idiot.

Zhang Ruochen could not be sure that Lord Bladehell had leaked the secret. It was obvious that he was testing the waters by asking that question. Although it was a denial, what was the difference between it and an admission?

Lord Bladehell was having a hard time!

However, Ling felt that this was not necessarily a bad thing.

They had promised Lord Bladehell that they would not leak it to anyone.

They had done it. Indeed, they did not leak it on purpose.

Now, Zhang Ruochen was extremely angry and would definitely seek revenge on Lord Bladehell. However, once Lord Bladehell entered the Thousand-Koan Realm, his cultivation would skyrocket. Zhang Ruochen would undoubtedly face a formidable opponent in him.

Even though Lord Bladehell still couldn’t defeat Zhang Ruochen and died at his hands.

How could the forces behind Lord Bladehell let it go?

No matter how they settled the score, they wouldn’t lose anything.

Of course, it still depended on whether Zhang Ruochen could leave alive today.

Zhang Ruochen said, “There’s no need for you to lie. To tell you the truth, I am determined to get the Southern Sword Realm.”

Ling smiled, he said, “Since brother Ruochen is so interested in the Southern Sword Realm, we can bear to part with it.

However, the three forces spend a lot to buy a world. I wonder, Ruochen... What price do you offer to buy it back?"

Zhang Ruochen was very straightforward. "Three Godstones."

While the three powerful figures were stunned.

Zhang Ruochen took out three Godstones from his Ring of Dimensions and threw them at Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing respectively.

SWOOSH! SWOOSH! SWOOSH!

Cang Baizi reached out his hand to grab the Godstones that were flying toward him. He could no longer suppress his anger. He suddenly stood up and the Yin Qi in his body flourished. He said, "I gave you face, but you don't want it. Zhang Ruochen, don't be arrogant. To tell you the truth, the Hall of Permanence wants the Myriad Curse Bead on you. If you don't, I'll give the order and turn the entire Southern Sword Realm into a dead zone. Billions of lives will die because of you."

Huo Xing said, "The Roopkund Seas wishes to retrieve the body of Supreme Saint Yanhong."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a cold smile. He looked at Ling and said, "If I'm not wrong, Dishastan wants the Pleiades Lotus, right?"

"Ruochen is really my confidant," Ling said.

Zhang Ruochen took the wine cup from Lian Rou's hand and sniffed it. He said, "You want to sell three Supreme Artifacts in the Southern Sword Realm. Do you think I have to be this sucker?"

The Roopkund Sea desired the body of Supreme Saint Yanhong, but the ring on her finger was a Supreme Artifact.

The ring could not be removed from her finger.

Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing all had smiles on their faces.

They all had different smiles.

Ling's smile was warm, Cang Baizi's smile was hard, and Huo Xing's smile was like the bone fire in his eyes, jumping with excitement.

Zhang Ruochen didn't drink the wine in his glass after all. "To tell you the truth, I've never thought of buying the Southern Sword Realm from you."

Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing still smiled, but their smiles became stiff.

Zhang Ruochen said again, "A long time ago, someone told me that the Infernal Court is a place where the strong prey on the weak. Even so, why buy things that can be stolen with Godstones?"

The entire room became solemn.

"You're probably dreaming if you want to steal the Southern Sword Realm from us three forces," said Cang Baizi.

Zhang Ruochen said, "There are some people in this world who like to dream."

Cang Baizi's expression changed slightly when he heard this.

Ling was calm and still maintained his posture, he said, "Brother Ruochen, you've just arrived in the Infernal Court. I'm afraid that you don't understand the rules here. The law of survival is indeed the law of the jungle. However, there are also some basic rules.

"If you dare to forcefully seize the Southern Sword Realm, it's undoubtedly because you want to start a large-scale civil war between divine level forces. If everyone was like you, the Infernal Court would have long been in chaos. You've crossed the bottom line. Even if we spare you, the Fane of Destiny won't be able to spare you."

Then he drank a glass of wine and said slowly, "Over the years, the Adjudication Division has killed many disobedient Scions, Scionesses, and Divine Scions. Brother Ruochen, you must think twice before you act."

Zhang Ruochen stood up. His killing intent was overflowing and said, "Don't use the Fane of Destiny to pressure me. I must carry out this battle. If you know what's good for you, hand over the Southern Sword Realm. Otherwise, the Southern Sword Realm will be your burial ground. Goodbye!”

Ling’s eyes instantly turned cold. From the corner of his eye, he looked at the human saint named Lian Rou.

Bang

The wine cup fell to the ground and shattered into pieces.

BOOM!

Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing released their Precept Domains at the same time.

In Ling’s Precept Domain, there was a magnificent yin mountain. The mountain stretched for thousands of miles. Tens of millions of souls passed through the mountains and surged toward Zhang Ruochen like a tsunami.

Cang Baizi Zi’s Precept Domain was seven palaces of Paths.

Huo Xing’s Precept Domain was a gray sea of corpses. One could vaguely see mountain-sized bone bodies with the bone fire burning inside.

The three Precept Domains stacked on top of each other and suppressed Zhang Ruochen at the same time.

“Rise!”

Zhang Ruochen roared. The Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King rushed out of his body and held up a world to resist the suppression of the three Precept Domains.

Lian Rou, who was standing beside Zhang Ruochen, instantly lost the tenderness in her eyes. At some point, a black dagger appeared in her hand. She stabbed at Zhang Ruochen’s temple like a flash of lightning.

At this moment, she didn’t look like a saint. The waves of her aura had clearly reached the Thousand-Koan Realm.

At such a close distance, with her unparalleled speed, it could be said that she had sentenced Zhang Ruochen to death.

Zhang Ruochen’s protective Saint Qi was pierced layer by layer by the black dagger like it was made of paper. The moment it was unsheathed, the three women sitting next to Ling, Bai Zi, and Huo Xing were sucked away by it, their souls and blood, and turned into three dry bones.

Its evil power made the entire room ring with thousands of voices. Some were crying, some were begging, and some were laughing wildly.

The foot-long dagger contained countless evil spirits.

Seeing that the black dagger was about to pierce through Zhang Ruochen's temple, Zhang Ruochen hit her chest as if he had expected it.

BANG!

Lian Rou's eyes widened with disbelief. Her body flew backward.

Her chest exploded from Zhang Ruochen's palm. It caved in and shattered her sternum, turning her internal organs into a splatter of blood. Before she could fly out, her left wrist was pulled back by Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen did not show any mercy to her. He hit her head with his palm.

BANG!

Lian Rou's head exploded. Her seductive body turned into a bloody mess and fell to the ground.

She was still alive. Her fingers and legs were wriggling.

Zhang Ruochen suppressed her in the true Profound Spatial Dimension, making it impossible for her body to recover.

"Break for me."

The Saint Aspect of the Immovable Wisdom King tore the three Precept Domains apart. The surrounding scene recovered. They were still in the Phoenix Annex. Ling, Bai Zi, and Huo Xing were still sitting at the table.

The difference was that the three women beside them had turned into hideous, gray, and black bones.

Lian Rou's Supreme Saint blood splattered all over the room.

Zhang Ruochen ignored the three of them. He picked up the wine cup on the table and drank it in one gulp. Then he crouched down and took the black dagger from Lian Rou's hand. He looked at it, "The Scourging Dagger!" He said. "As far as I know, it has been passed down for more than 200,000 years. It has taken in numerous evil spirits and blood. It's a cursed artifact capable of killing Demigods. You are not an Infernal Court cultivator. Are you with the Empyrean Assassins?"

Lian Rou's broken body let out a chilling voice. "Zhang Ruochen, you're indeed strong, but I don't understand. How did you see that I was the one who really tried to assassinate you?"

"Your qi-concealing secret technique is exquisite. You've hidden your cultivation in the Saint Realm. Unfortunately, even if you can hide it from a Demigod, you can't hide it from me." said Zhang Ruochen. Of course, he wouldn't reveal the secret that he had the Heart of Truth.

If Zhang Ruochen hadn't noticed it in advance and taken precautions, even a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint would have had a 10-20% chance of being assassinated in that situation.

First, using the women of the Humans and the Immortal Vampires to accompany him. Then prepared all kinds of human flesh and food to affect Zhang Ruochen's mood.

At the moment of the attack, three Precept Domains pressed down on him. They wanted to draw Zhang Ruochen's attention to the three non-existent cultivators. Then, Lian Rou tried to kill Zhang Ruochen with the Scourging Dagger.

This killing scheme had been planned from the very beginning.

"Haha, Zhang Ruochen, you have become a target in both heaven and Infernal Court. You are one of the most valuable cultivators on the Supreme Saint Bounty List. Countless assassins want to take your life. You won't live long." Lian Rou laughed crazily.

Zhang Ruochen said, “The Empyrean Assassins are cooperating with Dishastan, the Hall of Permanence, and the Roopkund Sea. I wonder how the Fane of Destiny will deal with them after they find out?”

“You won’t have a chance,” said Lian Rou.

“How so?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

“Because you have no evidence,” said Lian Rou.

Lian Rou’s body began to be engulfed in flames.

Her calm voice came from the flames. “Shadow Incense is only the introduction. The shadow of death will fall over the entire world. When the Peach Blossoms bloom, you’ll be reduced to dust like me.”

Zhang Ruochen wanted to stop Lian Rou, but it was too late. As soon as she finished talking, she burned up, leaving only a handful of ashes.

Even the Supreme Saint’s blood scattered in the room was burned up.

“I can stop her from self-detonating her Sainthood Source, but I can’t stop her from using the self-incinerating secret technique. The killers of the Empyrean Assassins were too terrifying. She didn’t look like a human at all. She was more like a killing weapon. Even with the cultivation of the Thousand-Koan Realm, she still chose to commit suicide so decisively. Is she really not afraid of death?” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen carefully recalled what she had said at the last minute.

“Shadow Incense is only the prelude... when the Peach Blossom blooms, you will be like me...”

“Shadow Incense and Peach Blossom.”

SNAP!

On the table, the Buddha oil in the glass lamp burned out.

The light went out, and the entire room became pitch-black. Only the whispers of the spirits in the Scourging Dagger could be heard.

Zhang Ruochen's spiritual power could finally escape his body if the Buddha Oil Lamp was not suppressed.

Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing were still sitting on the three sides of the table, but Zhang Ruochen could not sense their auras. He snorted, "It seems that you still don't dare to attack openly."

A cold wind blew from outside the window. Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing's bodies disintegrated and turned into three piles of yellow sand.

They were only shadow clones.

...

Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing stood in the Geese Annex and looked in the direction of the Phoenix Annex.

Cang baizi said in confusion, "Is Zhang Ruochen really a lustful person? Why couldn't he be fooled by beauty such as Shadow Incense?"

"Not only is he not a lustful person, but he's also a ruthless person who destroys anything beautiful," Huo Xing said.

Although the assassination failed, Ling was still calm and had a smile on his face. He said, "Lan Ying, Yan Huangtu, and Wujiang, all of them are top-notch heroes in the world, but they were all defeated by Zhang Ruochen in the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. Such a figure, even if he is lustful, yet can not be killed by beauty?"

Huo Xing said, "Shadow Incense is not only a beauty but also a top-notch emperor-level killer among the Empyrean Assassins. We must admit that Zhang Ruochen is more difficult to deal with than we thought."

"If he is not powerful enough, it will be meaningless." Ling laughed.

"How can you laugh? Zhang Ruochen already knows Shadow Incense's identity. If he reports it to the Fane of Destiny, we will be in big trouble." Cang Baizi was worried.

“I am not worried about that. Zhang Ruochen’s backer in the Fane of Destiny is the Fortune Palace. Unfortunately, the Fortune Palace can’t interfere in this matter. As for the Adjudication Division... Well, with our power in the Adjudication Division, if Zhang Ruochen doesn’t have absolute evidence, the Adjudication Division won’t care about him.”

Chapter 2443: Troubled Times

Ling thought of something and said meaningfully, “I’ve received news that Zhang Ruochen and the new Scioness of Destiny have become closer than before.”

“How is that possible?” asked Huo Xing.

Cang Baizi looked incredulous and said, “These two fought fiercely on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting.”

Huo Xing said, “The new Scioness of Destiny still needs the support of the three upper clans. They can’t get along with Zhang Ruochen no matter what. The new Scioness should know what’s important.”

Ling smiled. “Don’t worry about it for now. The new Scioness has just been appointed. Her cultivation is too low. She can’t convince the masses, and she can’t command the Adjudication Division. Even if Zhang Ruochen finds her, he can’t do anything to us without solid evidence.”

Cang Baizi stroked his beard and nodded. “Do you think Zhang Ruochen will really attack the Southern Sword Realm?”

“I think so! Father said that Zhang Ruochen’s ranking on the Divine Ascension Ranking is very low because of his inner demons. If he doesn’t fulfill his promise, he will die if he wants to become a god,” Ling said.

Cang Baizi smiled sinisterly and said, “Why don’t we issue an order to release the Corpse Blight into the Southern Sword Realm and turn it into a realm full of dead spirits? This will drive Zhang Ruochen crazy. It’s interesting just thinking about it.”

Ling raised his arm and shook it. “Killing people can’t just be fun. This is a bad idea! Zhang Ruochen claims that he wants to take the Southern Sword Realm by force. Why not give him what he wants?”

“How can this be?” asked Cang Baizi.

Cang Baizi was stunned. He reacted immediately and smiled sinisterly. “Very good, very good. If Zhang Ruochen dies in the Southern Sword Realm, you can’t blame us.”

CLANG!

CLANG!

...

After receiving Ling’s voice transmission, the guards of the Scioness Palace rushed over and surrounded Phoenix Annex.

The 50 guards were all dressed in blood armor and armed with long spears. They completely surrounded Phoenix Annex. Their armor reflected the night, making it cold and solemn.

The head guard, Ye Fancheng, struck the ground with his spear.

WHOOSH!

Countless Supreme Saint Inscriptions and Array Inscriptions appeared underground, he said sternly, “I received intelligence that someone killed three saint realm attendants of the House of Enchanters in Phoenix Annex. Do you want to come out yourself and surrender, or do you want us to go in and do it ourselves?”

The appearance of the guards alarmed many cultivators.

Their spiritual power reached out to Phoenix Annex.

“Who dares to kill in the House of Enchanters? And it was a saint realm attendant.”

“The master of the House of Enchanters is a very powerful figure. She has a deep relationship with the Death Palace. No matter who the person is, he or she won’t have a good ending if one causes trouble here.”

Creak

The door of Phoenix Annex opened.

Zhang Ruochen walked out with a black dagger in his hand.

The Scouring Dagger was temporarily suppressed by Zhang Ruochen, but it still emitted a terrifying evil power.

The 50 guards only felt their vision darken and all the lights were devoured up. They couldn't see anything. They could only hear the sounds of curses.

Ye Fancheng's cultivation was powerful. He could block the evil power of the Scouring Dagger and see Zhang Ruochen's appearance clearly.

His expression changed slightly. He quickly bowed and said, "Greetings, Supreme Saint Ruochen."

Zhang Ruochen looked around. Soon, he found Ling, Huo Xing, and Cang Baizi in Geese Annex's pavilion. He smiled at them.

Then, he looked at Ye Fancheng and said, "I didn't kill the three attendants. This dagger did. Do you believe it?"

"Of course I believe you, Supreme Saint Ruochen. But can you come with me and explain it to the master?" Ye Fancheng said in neither a servile nor overbearing manner.

"Sorry, I don't have the time," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen walked straight out.

Ye Fancheng took a step forward and blocked his way. He said, "Since the Supreme Saint said that they were killed by this dagger, can you give it to me? I have to report to the master, right?"

"I can't give you this dagger. If you want an explanation, you can ask Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing. I won't say anything else."

Zhang Ruochen's tone was calm, but the aura he exuded made the guards dare not breathe.

The House of Enchanters clearly knew that Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing had entered the Phoenix Annex.

Now that people were dead and they only looked for Zhang Ruochen. What did that mean?

Besides, the top-notch emperor-level killers of the Empyrean Assassins could appear in the House of Enchanteurs, which had a powerful intelligence network. Zhang Ruochen would never believe that this had nothing to do with the House of Enchanteurs.

“Get out of the way,” Zhang Ruochen said.

These words sounded like thunder in Ye Fancheng’s ears. His face instantly turned pale and his body swayed.

Finally, he moved to make way for Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen straightened his clothes and walked over.

Only when Zhang Ruochen was far away from the 50 guards did they feel relieved and let out a long sigh of relief.

One of the guards was quite confused. He said coldly, “Sir, are you going to let him go? Whoever kills someone in the House of Enchanteurs will be punished.”

“Many cultivators are watching. If Zhang Ruochen leaves like this, where will the dignity of the House of Enchanteurs be? How will the House of Enchanteurs stand tall in the Divine Domain of Destiny after this?” another guard said.

Ye Fancheng wished to escort Zhang Ruochen to see the master.

However, the master had sent a message to him personally asking him to let Zhang Ruochen go. Of course, he had to do it. In the end, the House of Enchanteurs was a dark force that could not be seen in the light. They did not dare to show their strength in the Divine Domain of Destiny.

With Zhang Ruochen’s status, if he really made a big fuss, the House of Enchanteurs would be the one to suffer.

In the Geese Annex.

Cang Baizi laughed, “Ling’s move is brilliant. Zhang Ruochen was so arrogant. The House of Enchanteurs couldn’t do anything to him, but he had also offended the House of Enchanteurs. Offending the House of Enchanteurs meant offending the Death Palace.

“Zhang Ruochen had no choice. If he compromised with the House of Enchanters, the reputation of the Yuanhui-level genius would be ruined. Not only would he lose face, but also the faces of Wargod Bloodximus and Fukurokuju. Rather than losing his face, it’s better to let the House of Enchanters lose face,” said Huo Xing.

Ling looked at Zhang Ruochen, who was leaving, and said, “It’s fun to fight with Yuanhui level genius.”

...

Zhang Ruochen walked out of the Phoenix Annex and thought about whether there was a way to get rid of Ling, Cang Baizi, and Huo Xing with the help of the Empyrean Assassins.

However, Zhang Ruochen finally found out that Ling was too cautious and almost wiped out all the evidence.

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t defeat them with just a Scouring Dagger.

Zhang Ruochen let out a long breath. He saw a burly 60-year-old man standing in front of him.

The 60-year-old man stood by the water and nodded at him with a smile. He said telepathically, “Yan Hanyi greets the Prince Consort.”

Zhang Ruochen had seen Yan Hanyi before. He had followed Luo Shengtian to the House of Enchanters.

“A cultivator from the Yanluo Clan?”

Yan Hanyi nodded, he said, “You don’t have to be so strange, Prince Consort. The Yanluo clan is very big, and there are countless cultivators. Not all of them are loyal to the Yanluo clan. I’m one of the teachers of the Divine Prince and the Princess. I’m in charge of teaching techniques and passing on the Path of Flowing Light.”

It was not easy to be the teacher of Luo Shengtian and Luo Sha.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Senior, don’t call me Prince Consort. I’m not going to be your princess’s consort. She will be my consort.”

“It’s all the same, it’s all the same,” said Yan Hanyi.

Yan Hanyi seemed to be an easy person to talk to. At least when he faced Zhang Ruochen, he always had a smile on his face. He said, “The Divine Prince wants to see you.”

It was not strange that Luo Shengtian knew about the commotion caused by Phoenix Annex just now.

Zhang Ruochen did not need to guess why Luo Shengtian was looking for him. That Divine Prince had always been unhappy with him. Now that he had finally found something, how could he let him go so easily?

Zhang Ruochen could not refuse him outright. He said, “I have something urgent to do. Why don’t you tell me where your Royal Brother is staying first? I’ll go see him after I’m done.”

“I see...” said Yan Hanyi.

Yan Hanyi looked troubled. Finally, he knew that he could not force Zhang Ruochen. He agreed and said, “Okay! His Royal Highness is staying at the Poinsettia Mansion.”

“Poinsettia,” said Zhang Ruochen.

A strange light flashed in Zhang Ruochen’s eyes.

Poinsettia was a flower. Did Luo Shengtian adore flowers?

He did not realize that the Divine Prince had such a wild heart under his serious appearance.

“Prince Consort, please excuse me,” said Yan Hanyi.

Yan Hanyi’s figure disappeared in an instant.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. Yan Hanyi was too fast. He seemed to be faster than the Great Dimensional Shift. After all, the Great Dimensional Shift had a process of mobilizing Saint Qi.

“Is this the top speed in the saint realm? Even if it’s Que, it’s still not as fast as him.”

Zhang Ruochen had been very confident that he could escape from any saint realm cultivator.

However, could he really escape from existence like Yan Hanyi?

Yan Hanyi left silently and Guye Jing appeared silently.

She stood in the shadow of a broad-leaved silver maple tree by the water. Like a ghost in the night, she said, “You’re weaker than I thought. I’ve already warned you, but you still fell into Ling’s trap.”

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, “Is that so? Didn’t I escape unscathed?”

“Your goal is to escape unscathed? Do you know that you have just offended the House of Enchanters and made the master lose face?” asked Guye Jing.

“Yes, of course I know,” said Zhang Ruochen.

“The master of the House of Enchanters is a woman. A very powerful woman,” said Guye Jing.

“Yes,” said Zhang Ruochen.

“Do you know that women are usually narrow-minded? Powerful women are even more narrow-minded. If you make her lose face, she’ll dare to make you lose your life,” said Guye Jing.

Zhang Ruochen didn’t care at all. He asked, “You’re also a powerful woman. Are you also narrow-minded?”

Guye Jing’s eyes were as cold as ice. She said, “You’re very lucky. Something big happened in the House of Enchanters recently. The master probably doesn’t have time to care about you.”

“What big thing?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

“This isn’t a place to talk. Follow me,” said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing’s body dissipated and turned into wisps of scarlet Qi that wrapped around Zhang Ruochen’s body.

Zhang Ruochen watched while he was on guard.

Gradually, his vision was completely covered by the scarlet Qi. He couldn’t see anything else.

‘What is she doing?’ Zhang Ruochen wondered.

Zhang Ruochen felt uneasy. He condensed the Divine Purification Flame between his fingers and was about to break the red clouds.

Suddenly, the red clouds dispersed.

Zhang Ruochen found himself in an antique room. The walls were covered with calligraphy and famous paintings. A fan-shaped screen was located in the northeast corner.

Guye Jing stood by the window and looked at the scenery outside.

Zhang Ruochen said, “What did you do just now? How did you get here? I clearly sensed that there was no spatial fluctuation.”

“If you lend me the Demonstone Engraving to study, I will tell you the secret,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen walked to the table and sat down. He said, “Why don’t you tell me what happened in the House of Enchanters first?”

Guye Jing was very direct. She said, “About a month ago, Tan Fei, an Asuran Supreme Saint, won five superior-grade divine crystals in the casino of the House of Enchanters on Hoth.

“Ordinary divine crystals can be exchanged for ten Godstones.

“But superior-grade divine crystals can be exchanged for 1,000 Godstones.

“At that time, someone recognized that five divine crystals were superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin.”

Zhang Ruochen couldn’t maintain his relaxed state, he said seriously, “How is this possible? Since the disappearance of the Fane of Origin, no cultivator could become a god by cultivating the Path of Origin. Even if other gods who cultivate the Path of Origin could condense Divine Crystal of Origin, they couldn’t do so.”

Guye Jing said, “That’s why this matter has caused a huge sensation. Some people have guessed that the Fane of Origin has come into being.”

“Would the gods of Celestial Court and Infernal Court be alarmed by such a big matter?” Zhang Ruochen asked.

Zhang Ruochen could imagine that the gods would definitely attack the birth of an ancient fane. There might even be a large-scale battle of deities.

Guye Jing said, “That’s right. If the Celestial Court discovers that the Fane of Origin has appeared, a massive battle of deities is unavoidable. However, there is still no evidence to prove that the Fane of Origin has been born. Moreover, the news about the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin has been tightly sealed. Those who should be silenced are all dead!”

Zhang Ruochen chuckled. “The news has been sent to you. I don’t believe that it can be sealed.”

“In the entire Infernal Court, no more than 20 forces know about this. They know about it because the cultivators of these forces immediately sent a message to the gods when the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin was born,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Is the Rāhu Mountains one of them?”

“In the Rāhu Mountains, I’m the only one below divinity who knows about it,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Then why did you tell me the news so easily?”

“Because I need your help to find the Fane of Origin.”

Before Zhang Ruochen could speak, Guye Jing continued, “Five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin are the key to finding the Fane of Origin.”

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Can you deduce the location of the Fane of Origin through five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin?”

Guye Jing nodded and shook her head again. She said, “You can’t deduce the location of the Fane of Origin with only superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. You also need the blood of a Master of Origin as a primer.

“Do you know why the gods think that the Fane of Origin has been born? It’s because, in the past ten thousand years, nine Masters of Origin have appeared in the Celestial Court and Infernal Court.

“In the past, there weren’t so many Masters of Origin in a Yuanhui period. Also, there should be some cultivators who didn’t reveal their identity as Masters of Origin.

“Some gods speculate that the Fane of Origin is choosing its future master.”

Zhang Ruochen shrugged and said, “I can’t help with such a big matter.”

“You may not be able to help, but you know who the Master of Origin is,” said Guye Jing.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I do know him, but I’ve already killed him!”

“I’m not talking about Yan Wushen,” said Guye Jing as she turned around and stared at Zhang Ruochen with eyes sharper than knives.

Zhang Ruochen knew who Guye Jing was talking about. After a moment of silence, he said, “I have two questions.”

“What is it?” asked Guye Jing.

“First, more than a dozen forces know about this. But there are only five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin. How do you divide them?” asked Zhang Ruochen.

Guye Jing said, “Tonight, all the forces gathered at the House of Enchanters to fight for the ownership of these five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin.”

“The second question is that this involves an ancient fane. Even if it’s still a guess, I think the gods should come out personally. Why are you saints here?” asked Zhang Ruochen as he found it funny.

Guye Jing said, "I've already said that once the gods of the Celestial Court receive the news, a large-scale divine war will be inevitable. Recently, it has been an extraordinary period. The gods of the Celestial Court and the Infernal Court Court have been monitoring each other's movements. Once the gods of the Infernal Court make any unusual movements, they will definitely be noticed by the gods of the Celestial Court."

"What extraordinary period?" Zhang Ruochen asked curiously.

Guye Jing said, "You don't know the news that the Jadeite Realm is about to open?"

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, indicating that he did not know.

Chapter 2444: Making a Decision

“It’s normal that you don’t know about the opening of the Jadeite Realm. It’s a major event in the Divine Plane. It has nothing to do with us Saint Realm cultivators,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I’d like to know some of this secret.”

“It’s not a secret. You just need to ask Blood Empress and Wargod Bloodximus. They’ll tell you,” said Guye Jing.

After thinking for a while, she continued, “The Jadeite Realm is one of the five great prehistoric civilization ruins in the universe. There are relics there that can help gods transcend the Yuanhui Tribulation. Therefore, it is a shocking event for the entire Celestial Court and Infernal Court’s Divine Plane.

“Any god who is worried that they will not be able to transcend the Yuanhui Tribulation will go.

“The longer the gods live, the more they must go. Although their cultivation is strong, it’s even harder for them to transcend the Yuanhui Tribulation.

“Even the gods who are confident that they will survive the next Yuanhui Tribulation must go. Because the Jadeite Realm only opens once every Yuanhui period. Any opportunity to enter must be seized by the gods.”

Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath. He finally understood the meaning of the opening of the Jadeite Realm. He said, “Doesn’t that mean that all the gods of Celestial Court and Infernal Court must go to the Jadeite Realm?”

Guye Jing shook her head, “Theoretically, every god is desperate to go,” she said. “But the Celestial Court and Infernal Court don’t trust each other. How can they not leave some gods behind to deal with unpredictable variables?”

“We need to be careful about how many gods we leave behind and which ones to leave behind.

“It’s because this matter is so important that the Celestial Court and Infernal Court are keeping a close eye on each other’s gods at this critical time. We can’t afford to make any mistakes.

“If the gods of the Infernal Court were to send out a large-scale operation because of the Fane of Origin, how could the Celestial Court not notice?

“So, the investigation and search for the Fane of Origin can only be assigned to the Saint Realm cultivators.”

Zhang Ruochen thought to himself. It didn’t seem difficult for the three gods of the Xue Jue family to survive the next Yuanhui Tribulation. There was no need to rush to the Jadeite Realm.

However, Wargod Bloodximius had just become the chief of the Bloodsky Clan. He must be leading a team to the Jadeite Realm.

Between his mother and Lord Ming, there should be one person left to protect the family.

Zhang Ruochen said, “You should go to the other Masters of Origin, not me. Are you telling me this to force me to cooperate with you?”

“No, even if I don’t tell you, you will soon realize that the Xue Jue Family is one of the forces that are aware of the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes.

The news of the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin came from Hoth.

It would be strange if the huge force of the Xue Jue Family on Hoth didn’t know about it.

However, the force on Hoth was controlled by Madam Nixuan, the wife of Wargod Bloodximius. It was very likely that Madam Nixuan didn’t tell Wargod Bloodximius about it.

Guye Jing continued, “After Yan Wushen died, the Celestial Court and Infernal Court added up to a total of six Masters of Origin. There are three in the Infernal Court...”

“Wait a minute. I remember you said that the Celestial Court and Infernal Court have produced a total of nine Masters of Origin in the past 10,000 years. Even if Yan Wushen dies, there should still be eight, right?” Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing said, “If Yan Wushen can die, are the other Masters of Origin immortal? Geniuses have always been the main targets of assassination between the Celestial Court and Infernal Court.”

Zhang Ruochen smiled. “You make a lot of sense.”

Guye Jing said, “There are only three Masters of Origin in the Infernal Court who are still alive.

“Huan Zhen of the Deathkins is too young. He has just reached the Demi-Saint realm. It’s too difficult for him to find the Fane of Origin with his cultivation.

“Baili Qianye of the Fane of Asura has reached the Paramount Realm. He is a first-class powerhouse in the Saint Realm. Plus, the Fane of Asura is very powerful. If I tell him this news, the Rāhu Mountains will not be able to be involved in this matter.

“The last one was from the Yanluo clan. Yan Huangtu is the available candidate. How can I compete with him?

“These three are not the best candidates. Although they are Masters of Origin, how can they be as close to the Origin as the Lotus of Divine Reflection?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that the one she had her eyes on was Ji Fanxin, the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers.

The Lotus of Divine Reflection was born in the void of the universe. It had no roots or leaves. It was formed from heaven and earth’s Power of Origin and turned into a lotus seed. The bloom is naturally a Master of Origin.

It could be said that Ji Fanxin was the Spirit of Origin and the embodiment of the Power of Origin.

If Ji Fanxin possessed a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, she would almost certainly be able to sense the direction of the Fane of Origin based on the aura of the Divine Crystal.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Since I'm qualified to fight for the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin, why should I cooperate with you?"

"Because with your current cultivation, you can't protect Ji Fanxin. If she comes to the Infernal Court to help you, she'll only die. But with me, I'm afraid no cultivator below the divinity can do anything to her."

Snap

Guye Jing snapped her finger, and the space shook.

Cracks appeared around Zhang Ruochen like broken glass.

With a boom, he, the table in front of him, and the chair under him fell into the dark void at the same time, like a small island.

Zhang Ruochen was calm on the surface, but in his heart, he was extremely shocked.

This was the Divine Domain of Destiny.

Even Supreme Saint Qingsheng couldn't destroy the space in such a large area and enter the void.

Guye Jing could.

What did this mean?

Zhang Ruochen took a deep breath and spread out his arms, releasing the Power of Dimensions.

Then the space was pulled back, and the broken space was restored. He returned to the room as if nothing had happened.

Although Zhang Ruochen was very interested in the Fane of Origin, he knew that if he asked to see Ji Fanxin, she might come. However, he would never put her in danger because of this.

Zhang Ruochen sighed. "It's a pity that Ji Fanxin and I are just ordinary friends. She's pure and innocent. She's a fairy who doesn't live in the mortal world. I'm a traitor to the Celestial Court and joined the Infernal Court. We're no longer in the same world. She probably already sees me as an enemy and wants to kill me. You've come to the wrong person."

Guye Jing said, "I've gathered a lot of information about you and her. I think you've misunderstood the word 'ordinary friend'."

"Why don't you believe me?" Zhang Ruochen asked.

Guye Jing said, "I believe in the charm of a Yuanhui-level genius. Few women can reject a perfect man like you."

"It's useless to praise me," Zhang Ruochen said.

Guye Jing said, "I know what you're worried about. Don't worry. Our goal in The Rāhu Mountains is the Fane of Origin. Although the Lotus of Divine Reflection is rare, it's still far from the Fane of Origin.

"I can. I swear in the name of Rāhu that I won't do anything against her."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head with a smile.

"The cultivators of the Rāhu Mountains won't do anything against her," said Guye Jing.

Zhang Ruochen still shook his head.

"The Rāhu Mountains and I won't order other cultivators to do anything against her," Guye Jing reassured again.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen still had no intention of agreeing, Guye Jing's tone became colder, she said, "Zhang Ruochen, you still haven't realized one thing. The moment the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin appeared, she was already involved in this mess. She can't stay out of it.

"Do you think that without you, the Rāhu Mountains wouldn't be able to capture her?"

"If we use force, the Rāhu Mountains will indeed pay a price. It's even possible that the news of the birth of the Fane of Origin will be exposed. However, you can't deny that the chances of success are very high.

“Once she’s captured, whether she lives or dies, honor or disgrace, it’s not up to you, Zhang Ruochen.”

Zhang Ruochen’s eyes darkened. Of course, he knew that what Guye Jing said was true.

Back then, even Luo Sha, when she was a Saint King, could freely enter the Celestial Domain of Truth, the core area of the Celestial Court. For the sake of the Fane of Origin, the Rāhu Mountains would go to the Celestial Court world to capture people. The chances of success were indeed high.

Guye Jing said, “Not only the Rāhu Mountains but more than a dozen forces in the Infernal Court know about the birth of the Fane of Origin. How could they let go of Ji Fanxin? Perhaps some forces have already started to take action.

“You think you are protecting her, but in fact, it is precisely because of your inaction that you will harm her.

“Besides, the birth of the Fane of Origin is also a great opportunity for her. If she knows about this, she will go even if she is at risk of dying. Why don’t you give her the right to choose?”

Zhang Ruochen slammed the table and exclaimed, “I have to say, not only is your cultivation powerful, but your words are even more powerful. I was almost convinced by you!”

“Do you think these reasons are not enough?” Said Guye Jing.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head, “No, it’s enough! But your cultivation is too powerful. I don’t have a sense of control when I work with you. Ji Fanxin is the Lotus of Divine Reflection, and you are certain that I have the Demonstone Engraving on me. If the two of us travel with you, we will be like sheep entering the tiger’s den.”

“So you don’t believe me,” Guye Jing said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “I can’t believe you.”

The entire room became quiet. The two of them didn’t say another word.

Outside the room, footsteps could be heard.

Han Yun'ge's voice came from outside. "Miss Guye, it's starting over there!"

Guye Jing stared at Zhang Ruochen. "The battle for the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin has begun. Do you want to go?"

"I'm not interested in the Fane of Origin, so I won't go!"

Zhang Ruochen knew very well that Guye Jing would follow him closely for the next few days. And now was the only time he had a chance to arrange something.

After Guye Jing left with Han Yun'ge, Zhang Ruochen shifted out of the room with the Great Dimensional Shift. He then changed his appearance, he quickly left the House of Enchanteurs.

Cang Jie was waiting at the lakeside outside the House of Enchanteurs.

After Yan Zhexian, Seven-Armed Elder, and Lady Bai's bet ended, Zhang Ruochen asked Cang Jie to leave the House of Enchanteurs immediately so that he would not be punished for his actions.

"What is your identity, boss? He said that someone wants to harm me. It must be true," said Cang Jie.

Cang Jie had a huge Tao Tie's head on his head. He hid his aura and paced back and forth.

He wasn't worried about Zhang Ruochen's safety, but that Zhang Ruochen had forgotten about him. He was a cultivator who had ascended to the Infernal Court. He had no background, no sect, and no backing. It wasn't easy for him to meet a senior. What if he was abandoned?

In the dense forest.

Zhang Ruochen's body appeared silently from the space. He called out, "Cang Jie!"

Cang Jie was overjoyed. He immediately rushed over and smiled. "Boss, I thought you didn't want me anymore!"

"Boss?"

Zhang Ruochen was a bit confused. This guy was familiar.

Seeing that Zhang Ruochen didn't seem to want to take him as a follower, Cang Jie's eyes showed disappointment, he said dejectedly, "Yes, I'm a Saint King who has ascended from the lower realm to the Infernal Court. I have nothing. I'm not qualified to be your follower."

Zhang Ruochen had long seen that he was an ascendant. His aura was completely different from those of Asura cultivators born and raised on the Ashuran Planet.

Zhang Ruochen patted his shoulder and said, "You don't need to belittle yourself. All cultivators who can ascend from the lower realm to the Ashuran Planet are top geniuses. Just like Sword God Feng Chen a thousand years ago, he was an ascendant."

"Do you know Sword God Feng Chen?" Cang Jie could not help but show admiration in his eyes.

Zhang Ruochen said, "No."

"Sword God Feng Chen has ascended to the Ashuran Planet less than a thousand years ago. He already has the power to kill gods. How can I compare with him?" Cang Jie said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "If you help me with something, not only will I take you in as my underling, but I will also give you enough cultivation resources so that you can have a chance to peek at the Great Path of Paramount."

"Really?"

Cang Jie was so excited that he almost roared. He grabbed Zhang Ruochen's body with his two claws and shook it hard.

Zhang Ruochen's body was like a rock. He did not move at all. He said, "If you shake it again, it won't be real!"

Cang Jie quickly let go and smiled awkwardly.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I need you to go to the Battlefield of Merits of Kunlun immediately. Your cultivation has not reached the Supreme Saint Realm, so you can enter it."

"To do what?" asked Cang Jie.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Deliver a letter for me... No, help me find someone and deliver a message."

It was too dangerous to send a letter. What if it was intercepted?

"Is that person a cultivator from the Celestial Court?" asked Cang Jie.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised. "How did you know?"

"Why would you need me, a cultivator you've only met once, to help you with your cultivation if you're looking for an Infernal Court cultivator? Besides, since you're willing to pay such a high price to nurture me, a Saint King, it's obviously very important and dangerous," Cang Jie said.

Zhang Ruochen stared at him deeply and smiled. "You're smarter than I thought."

"An ascendant without a backer or background must not only be a Tao Tie with his tail between his legs but also be smarter. Otherwise, he'd already be dead!" Cang Jie said with a sad face.

Zhang Ruochen said, "This is indeed dangerous. You can choose not to go."

"I will go! I, Cang Jie, am a gambler. Thank you for giving me such an important task. If I'm timid this time, I won't have a chance to see the Great Dao in the future. Don't worry, boss. If the truth is exposed, I won't let the information leak even if I blow up my Sainthood Source."

Then, Cang Jie asked in a low voice, "Boss, can I ask you something personal?"

"You ask," Zhang Ruochen said.

Cang Jie's eyes were filled with anticipation and nervousness. He licked his lips and said, "Boss, are you The Scion of Time and Space, Zhang Ruochen?"

Zhang Ruochen's gaze swept across him.

Cang Jie immediately withdrew his head and said, "I... I... I just heard someone talking about Zhang Ruochen appearing in the House of Enchanters and killing someone. Then I thought that you were the Master of Space and you wanted me to send a letter to the cultivators of the Celestial Court. That's why I guessed. If I'm wrong, I can't be blamed. Don't you think so?"

"No, you're not wrong," Zhang Ruochen said.

Chapter 2445: A Puzzling Matter

Zhang Ruochen had led the Immortal Vampires to the first place on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. He had made a name for himself. After returning, he had been bestowed marriage by the Reverend and killed Yan Wushen. His name was well-known, it might not be enough to intimidate the top-notch Supreme Saints like Ling and Cang Baizi, but for Cang Jie, who was in the Saint King Realm, the impact was too great. It was as if he had seen heaven.

SWOOSH!

Zhang Ruochen's body swayed and he returned to his original appearance.

Cang Jie was so excited that he almost fainted when he saw Zhang Ruochen's real face. He immediately knelt down on one knee and said, "Cang Jie is willing to follow boss for the rest of my life. I will die with no regret."

Zhang Ruochen took a new leaf of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree from the Qiankun Realm and took out a white jade box.

The new leaf was placed in the box and sealed with the Power of Dimensions.

Zhang Ruochen handed the box to Cang Jie, he said, "Go to Kunlun's Battlefield of Merits and give it to Ji Fanxin of the Qianrui Realm. Tell her that someone wants to see her. If she still remembers and trusts her old friend, she will go to the Royal City of Hundred Clans at the edge of the Infernal Court within three months and drink a cup of Blossoms Brew.

"If Ji Fanxin is no longer in Kunlun, go to the Endless Abyss and find a woman named Kong Lanyou. Tell her what I said. Leave the rest to her."

"Understood," said Cang Jie.

Cang Jie secretly breathed a sigh of relief. It turned out that his boss only wanted to meet his old lover.

He took the box carefully and said, "Don't worry, boss. I will deliver it to the Fairy of a Hundred Flowers as soon as possible."

The news of the birth of the Fane of Origin was too important. Zhang Ruochen could not tell Cang Jie anything, and he did not want to involve too many people. In Kunlun, Zhang Ruochen had absolute trust. There were very few cultivators with strong cultivation.

Kong Lanyou was the most suitable candidate.

Even if the world did not trust him, Lanyou must be the one who trusted him the most.

After Cang Jie left, Zhang Ruochen fell into deep thought. How should he deal with the following situation?

There was no need to worry about the matter of the Southern Sword Realm.

In Phoenix Annex, he deliberately showed his determination to seize the Southern Sword Realm. In fact, he just wanted to stabilize Ling and make him feel that the Southern Sword Realm could be used as a trap to deal with him.

In this way, the lives on the Southern Sword Realm were temporarily safe.

As for the Fane of Origin, although Zhang Ruochen was interested, deep down, he still felt that it was illusory. Now, only five superior grade Divine Crystals of Origin had appeared. Even the gods were not sure whether the Fane of Origin had appeared or not.

Looking for Mu Lingxi and the Emperor Who Slaughtered the Heavens and Earth who had appeared on Hoth was Zhang Ruochen's biggest concern at the moment.

However, before he went to Hoth, Zhang Ruochen decided to do something that would shake the whole world.

He didn't want anyone to provoke him.

...

Many forces in the Infernal Court were ruled by gods. They were as many as the 8,000 worlds in the Celestial Court.

However, there were only a dozen forces that knew about the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin.

The Hall of Permanence wasn't one of them. Therefore, after the plan against Zhang Ruochen failed, Cang Baizi left the House of Enchanters. As a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm, he was a first-class existence. Of course, he did not bring any guards.

Zhang Ruochen thought that Cang Baizi would go to the dimensional teleportation array near the House of Enchanters and leave.

However, to his surprise, Cang Baizi did not go to the teleportation array. Instead, he restrained his aura and rushed along the tributaries of the River of Present. It seemed that he had something important to do.

The Fane of Destiny was vast. Metaform City was remote and sparsely populated. Only the House of Enchanters had a large dimensional teleportation array. Once he left the House of Enchanters, it would take him a long time to reach another city on foot.

What was Cang Baizi going to do?

Zhang Ruochen was not in a hurry to make a move. He followed quietly.

The river became wider and wider as he went down the river.

After traveling for about 30,000 miles, it became very desolate and there were signs of battle. The river water was frozen, the blood-red mountains on both sides of the river collapsed, and a thousand miles of land turned into a crimson fire field.

Such a terrifying scene was horrifying.

The most horrifying thing was that Zhang Ruochen did not sense any battle ripples before entering this area. There was no doubt that someone with strong spiritual power had concealed the battle ripples to prevent the enforcers of the Fane of Destiny from noticing.

Zhang Ruochen thought, ‘The battle should be an hour ago. What kind of powerful existence could cause such destruction?’

‘Why did they ignore the Fane of Destiny’s ban and fight in the divine domain?’

‘How did Cang Baizi know that a battle had broken out here?’

Zhang Ruochen was curious. Suddenly, he saw Cang Baizi stop on the frozen river and slap his palm down.

BOOM!

A large piece of the ice shattered, and a blood-red water column rushed up.

At the top of the water column, there was a corpse.

Zhang Ruochen was surprised when he saw the appearance of the corpse.

It was Xing Qian, the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint of the Fane of Asura.

Xing Qian was willing to be his servant for a thousand years in the Citadel Casino of the House of Enchanteurs because he had offended Seven-Armed Elder. Even so, he was still the Supreme Saint of the Fane of Asura and a disciple of the gods. Who would dare to kill him in the Divine Domain of Destiny?

The key was, why should he be killed?

Cang Baizi grabbed the collar of the corpse and grinned hideously. He said, “What a poor guy. How could he suffer such an unexpected disaster?”

Zhang Ruochen knew that Cang Baizi must have known what was going on here, so he did not wait any longer. He took out the Violet Gourd and secretly activated it.

Cang Baizi’s expression changed dramatically when he sensed danger.

Swoosh

The Violet Gourd floated above his head. 72 million Dimensional Array Inscriptions gushed out from the mouth of the gourd, forming a large Dimensional Array with a diameter of 800 miles. It illuminated the night sky as bright as day.

“Zhang Ruochen...” said Cang Baizi as he looked up.

Boom

The Dimensional Array collapsed and Cang Baizi was instantly sucked into the gourd.

With Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation, he might not be a match for a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint without using the power of the Qiankun Realm. However, this battle was not a head-on clash. Instead, he used a Supreme Artifact to sneak attack.

Naturally, he succeeded in one move.

Just as Zhang Ruochen grabbed the Violet Gourd, an earth-shaking noise came from the gourd. It shook his arm until it hurt.

“Ruochen, you’re only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm. How dare you imprison me? Are you looking forward to dying?” shouted Cang Baizi.

Cang Baizi roared in the gourd.

No one knew what saint technique he had used. The Violet Gourd grew bigger and bigger, from one foot tall to one person tall to the size of a house.

Zhang Ruochen wasn’t afraid of Cang Baizi breaking the Violet Gourd. He snorted and pressed his palm on the wall of the gourd. He started spinning quickly.

After spinning more than ten times, Cang Baizi couldn’t take it anymore. He screamed, “What kind of gourd is this? Why does time flow so fast? Stop it! Stop it!”

Every time the Violet Gourd spun, it could cut off 100 years of lifespan.

Cang Baizi’s vitality was severely harmed. He couldn’t take it any longer. Then, the Violet Gourd shrank once more.

Zhang Ruochen didn't stop. He circled around more than ten times.

At first, Cang Baizi was still tough. He cursed in the gourd, but after losing a lot of lifespans, he became afraid. His tone softened. He said, "What happened in the House of Enchanters had nothing to do with me. It was Ling's idea. Why are you taking revenge on me?"

"I can't keep going. A Corpasian may have died once, but he still has life. My corpse is rotting! Zhang Ruochen, I can give you anything you want."

Zhang Ruochen hadn't expected Cang Baizi, a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, to be so weak. He'd given in so quickly. He was about to take the chance to ask about his doubts.

Suddenly, Zhang Ruochen felt a terrifying aura approaching quickly.

His expression changed. He quickly sealed the Violet Gourd and used the Great Dimensional Shift to escape. He didn't go to the House of Enchanters. Instead, he went to the closest city with a lot of cultivators.

Not long after Zhang Ruochen escaped, the black-veiled cultivator descended like a bolt of lightning.

Although Lord Turtle was a jade stone turtle, it was not slow. Instead, it was extremely fast. It ran like a duck and appeared on the other side of the ice river.

Its two eyeballs rolled and it stuttered, "Di... Di... Men... Men... Sion..."

"It's the remnant Power of Dimension, and it's Zhang Ruochen's aura." said the black-veiled cultivator. Her voice was as sweet as an oriole, but there was a hint of coldness in her tone.

Lord Turtle widened his eyes and pointed at the shattered ice river. "Corpse... Corpse..."

"Xing Qian's corpse is missing! However, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't use such a vigorous Power of Dimension just because of a corpse. If I'm not wrong, it must be because Cang Baizi followed him rashly that Zhang Ruochen saw this," the black-veiled cultivator said.

Lord Turtle said, "Why..."

"Why? Because the only cultivator who knows about this has something to do with Zhang Ruochen is Cang Baizi," explained the black-veiled cultivator.

Lord Turtle stopped talking and looked at her with a look that said, "What should we do next?"

"Don't worry. My spiritual avatar has gone after him to silence him. Let's see if this Scion of Time and Space deserves his reputation." said the black-veiled cultivator.

The black gauze on the black-veiled cultivator's body dispersed, and a jade-white radiance condensed into a sacred cloud that enveloped her hazy and graceful body. Every inch of her skin was as bright as immortal jade, and her long black hair swayed like a waterfall.

Her temperament was ethereal, like the rosy moon in the clouds and the pearl in the water. No one could see her true appearance clearly.

Whoosh

Beneath her feet, Saint Qi which contained the five elements and Origin surged out in all directions.

In her mind, the terrain and landform before the destruction appeared. Thus, wherever the Saint Qi surged, the frozen river channel melted, the collapsed mountains rose again, and the fire field was extinguished.

Dense five-element origin particles surged out of the soil, condensing into various plants.

In a moment, everything that had been destroyed recovered, as if there had never been a battle here.

He would have been shocked to the core if Zhang Ruochen had not fled. The Maiden of a Thousand Stars had previously demonstrated the mystery of the Path of Origin in front of him.

All matter could turn into Origin particles and condense into another form.

However, compared to Bai Qing'er, the Maiden of a Thousand Stars' attainments in Origin were like fireflies compared to the blazing sun.

When the Origin was combined with the five elements, it could even create plant life in an instant.

General Pillar rushed back. Although his body was tall, his speed was much slower than Lord Turtle's, he asked, "My Lady, we still haven't found Seven-Armed Elder. That old fellow couldn't have been killed by you with one palm, right?"

Bai Qing'er shook her head and said, "As the god of gambling, if he didn't even have this bit of life-saving ability, he would have died long ago!"

"However, your spiritual power is not much weaker than his. If he was still in this area, how could you not find him?" General Pillar said.

Suddenly, Bai Qing'er frowned and said to herself, "He escaped!"

"Who escaped?" General Pillar asked curiously.

Lord Turtle looked proud. Finally, there was something you didn't know, so he said arrogantly, "Zhang... Zhang..."

"It's Zhang Ruochen. This kid had some talent. He's only in the Hundred-Shackle Realm, but he already can escape from my spiritual avatar," Bai Qing'er said.

General Pillar's tone was disdainful. "Even if he condensed a Grade Two Saintwill, he's only outstanding. The only real Yuanhui level figures are Lord Huang Tian and that old fox Wargod Bloodximus."

"Shut up," said Bai Qing'er.

She did not want to hear General Pillar mention that name.

"Yes, my lady," said General Pillar as he quickly shut up.

"Hehe."

Lord Turtle secretly laughed.

Bai Qing'er closed her eyes and pondered for a moment. Suddenly, she thought of something and said, "I understand! Just now, we went to chase after Seven-Armed Elder's puppet form, but we neglected Xing Qian's corpse."

"You mean Seven-Armed Elder is hiding in Qian Xing's body?" General Pillar asked in surprise.

Bai Qing'er said, "That's the only possibility!"

"Qian Xing's body... was taken away by Zhang Ruochen?" General Pillar asked.

Bai Qing'er was very decisive, she said, "General Pillar, go to the Adjudication Division immediately... No, go to the Death Palace and tell the Death Palace's High Priest that Zhang Ruochen killed Qian Xing of the Fane of Asura and captured Cang Baizi of the Hall of Permanence."

"Can the Death Palace interfere in this matter?" General Pillar asked.

Bai Qing'er said, "The Death Palace's High Priest can restrain the Fortune Palace's High Priest, and he can also mobilize his connections in the Adjudication Division to capture Zhang Ruochen."

"I'm afraid that the Death Palace's High Priest is unwilling to interfere in this matter. After all, the true cause of death of Xing Qian is not difficult to investigate," General Pillar said.

Bai Qing'er said, "So you have to go back to the House of Enchanters and ask the master to go with you. It's impossible for the Death Palace's High Priest to not give you face."

"My Lady, what about you?" General Pillar asked.

Bai Qing'er said, "Zhang Ruochen has a big background after all. If we want to deal with him, we have to add more crimes to his name. We can make use of the big event in the House of Enchanters Tonight."

Chapter 2446: The Key Figure

A month ago, the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin appeared in the House of Enchanteurs, stirring up a thousand ripples. More than ten major forces that knew about it were shocked, and they all sent their Saint Realm core disciples over.

However, there were only five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin.

How should they be distributed? Which five forces should they give them to?

It was precisely because this matter was important and difficult to deal with that it had been delayed until now.

Although the gods did not appear personally, they had already discussed it behind the scenes. The powers that were closer had also discussed it in secret and formed alliances in secret to discuss the distribution of benefits.

It seemed like there were more than a dozen powers, but in reality, they had already formed small groups.

Those who did not join small groups would find it extremely difficult to obtain a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin tonight.

...

Tan Fei, the Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint of the Asura, won five superior-grade divine crystals and five thousand Godstones a month ago in the House of Enchanteurs. This was something that made him ecstatic.

However, after someone recognized that the five superior-grade divine crystals were of the Origin attribute, everything changed!

An innocent man gets into trouble because of his wealth.

He fell from the peak of his excitement to the bottom of his fear.

He saw with his own eyes that dozens of cultivators from small forces were killed. What he didn't see was that more cultivators would be killed.

This was a big matter that couldn't have any mistakes!

The reason why Tan Fei was still alive was that the cultivators from more than a dozen large forces were restraining each other. Everyone wanted to keep the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin for themselves, but no one dared to take them.

Therefore, for a month, the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin had been placed on his body. And he was trapped in layers of seals, waiting to die.

Because he knew that when the distribution results came out, he would be the next person to be silenced.

Tan Fei held the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin in his hands and sat in the center of the stone platform.

Under the stone platform, many figures walked in one after another. Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, Ling, Huo Xing, Guye Jing... Each represented a major force, and in groups of three to five, they looked at the Divine Crystal of Origins in Tan Fei's hands.

The small five divine crystals were very likely to be the key to finding the Fane of Origin.

Someone laughed softly. "The Enchanter Chamber is quite honest. They have preserved the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin very well."

"Do they dare to be dishonest? To plot on the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin is courting death."

...

Bai Qing'er was wrapped in black gauze and appeared in a corner not far from the stone platform.

No one knew what secret technique she had used, but her body was completely invisible and did not emit any aura. Lord Turtle stood beside her and carved out many Dimensional Inscriptions in the air. He was a spatial cultivator with high attainments.

“The clues of the Fane of Origin must not be leaked. I originally wanted to frame Seven-Armed Elder for everything, but now my plan has changed. I can only let Zhang Ruochen be the scapegoat.”

Whether it was the bet against Seven-Armed Elder or the pursuit of Zhang Ruochen, everything was because of the Fane of Origin.

“It’s... It’s... done...” said Lord Turtle.

Lord Turtle raised his head and stared at Bai Qing’er excitedly.

In front of him, there was a Dimensional Array with a diameter of about one meter.

Bai Qing’er said, “The seal that imprisoned Tan Fei was set up by the cultivators of the 17 major forces. Are you sure that your Dimensional Array can penetrate the 17 layers of seals?”

Lord Turtle’s eyes were filled with confidence as he nodded his head vigorously.

“Alright, let’s do it together. I have never tried to use dream to kill a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint,” said Bai Qing’er.

Bai Qing’er closed her eyes as her snow-white hands stretched out from the black veil.

A ball of illusory light condensed in the center of her hands.

Tan Fei, who was sitting on the stone platform, was originally in an extremely good state of mind. However, he suddenly became extremely exhausted. His eyelids seemed to weigh a thousand pounds as he slowly closed them.

No cultivator knew those blood vessels appeared in Tan Fei’s eyes under his eyelids as he fell into a terrifying dream. Most importantly, he didn’t know that he was in a dream and thought that he was still awake.

The nightmare would still come just whether you are sleeping or not.

Guye Jing sensed that something was wrong with Tan Fei. She suspected something and approached the stone platform.

Huo Xing and Ling stood together and stared at Guye Jing with an unfriendly look.

Huo Xing shouted, "Guye Jing, what are you trying to do?"

This voice alarmed all the cultivators under the stone platform.

Some took out their weapons, while others condensed their saint techniques. All of them had vicious looks in their eyes, and they were all on guard against Guye Jing, afraid that she would take the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin by force.

Guye Jing was about to speak...

Bai Qing'er and Lord Turtle attacked at the same time.

A Spatial Wormhole Mirror appeared in front of Tan Fei and swept all five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin into it.

"Someone used the Power of Dimensions to break through the seventeen seals and steal all the Divine Crystal of Origins," said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing's eyes shone brightly. She immediately turned around and looked around, looking for the cultivator who had stolen the Divine Crystals of Origin.

It wasn't an easy task to break through the 17 layers of seals.

She was sure that the person who had attacked wasn't only skilled in space, but was also nearby.

"Zhang Ruochen, don't even think about killing me. Die, and we'll die together!" said Tan Fei.

Tan Fei, who was sitting on the stone platform, trembled. He roared and stood up abruptly. Powerful Asura Battle Qi erupted from his body. His Neverwithers physique cracked open inch by inch, releasing a more brilliant light than the stars.

Ling's eyes were about to pop out of their sockets. She shouted in shock, "Run, run, run! Tan Fei is about to self-detonate his Sainthood Source."

If a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint self-detonated, the world would definitely be destroyed.

Even a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint could not escape if they were too close. Even a Supreme Saint of the Paramount Realm would have to pay a high price.

Ling, Huo Xing, Yan Huangtu, Luo Shengtian, and the rest were all battle-hardened figures. They smashed through the wall like lightning and rushed out of the room. They only wanted to get as far away as possible.

Guye Jing was the closest, but she didn't run away. Instead, she formed a palm print and pushed it out.

Whoosh

The palm print formed a wall of light filled with demonic inscriptions.

The other two directions also had top-tier powerhouse attacking. Each of them held a weapon and activated it with all their strength. At the same time, they released their Precept Domains.

Yan Yu held a black parasol and stepped through the wall of the room, blocking the fourth direction.

Boom

Tan Fei self-detonated his Sainthood Source and formed a destructive force that crashed into the defensive wall formed by the four great powerhouses. Apart from Guye Jing and Yan Yu who did not move at all, the other two retreated continuously and the Precept Domain they released was continuously shattered.

Yan Yu raised his head to look up and secretly exclaimed, "Not good."

They blocked the four directions from the east, south, west, and north, but the destructive force formed by Tan Fei's self-detonation would still spread out from the top. Although the area affected wouldn't be too wide, it would definitely engulf the entire House of Enchanters. Who knew how many cultivators would die because of this.

Suddenly.

Colorful light illuminated the sky.

Bai Qing'er was dressed in white. Stepping on the colorful divine cloud, she floated down from the sky and forcefully suppressed the surging destructive power.

The five powerhouses attacked together and blocked each side. It was as if they had sealed Tan Fei's self-explosion energy into an invisible box.

The ground and underground were filled with Defensive Array Inscriptions, but they have still been torn apart.

Violent energy surged into the ground.

BANG BANG

The House of Enchanters was built in the middle of a vast lake.

At this moment, huge cracks appeared at the bottom of the lake, swallowing up the lake water.

The array formations in the House of Enchanters were activated one by one, emitting a dazzling light.

The nearby buildings were still unable to block it and turned into ruins.

Although there were not many casualties, about a third of the entire House of Enchanters had been destroyed. Many palaces had collapsed and countless cultivators were in a panic.

"What happened? Who dares to fight in the House of Enchanters?"

"I think I heard a cultivator shouting that Zhang Ruochen killed him."

"How can Zhang Ruochen be so arrogant? Does he really think that he can do whatever he wants in the Infernal Court with the backing of Wargod Bloodximius? Doesn't he know that the son of the first wife of the Qitian Clan was too arrogant, he broke the bottom line of the Divine Domain of Destiny and died under the ax of the Judge?"

"Zhang Ruochen must have angered everyone this time. He almost destroyed a city in the Divine Domain of Destiny. No one can protect him now."

...

Before the storm subsided, Bai Qing'er had already left and returned to the Peacock Palace.

The five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin floated in her palm.

"Tonight's event will definitely alarm the gods. I have to absorb and refine these Divine Crystals of Origin as soon as possible, leaving no traces behind," said Bai Qing'er.

She was the Master of Origin. As long as she refined and absorbed the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin, she would naturally be able to find the Fane of Origin.

The other forces would no longer have the chance.

"No, these... These are just ordinary Divine Crystals of Origin, not the original five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin," said Bai Qing'er. Her calm and profound state of mind was instantly broken, and her expression changed again and again.

"How could this be?" said Lord Turtle.

Lord Turtle, who had always stuttered, was also shocked, and he actually said a fluent sentence.

Bai Qing'er was not an ordinary woman, after all, so she quickly calmed down and said, "Who has been guarding Tan Fei for the past month?"

"All the forces have sent someone. The Enchanter Chamber has sent Qi Tiangao." Lord Turtle knew that things were not going well, so he replied.

"Is Qi Tiangao still alive?" asked Bai Qing'er.

“Yes,” Lord Turtle replied.

“Fetch him for me. I have some questions for him,” Bai Qing’er ordered.

Lord Turtle knew very well that the lady had spent a lot of effort and time on the matter of the Fane of Origin.

Now, the two operations have failed. All the previous planning and arrangements were probably going to be in vain.

Soon, Lord Turtle brought Qi Tiangao to Bai Qing’er.

“Greetings, Lady Bai,” said Qi Tiangao.

Qi Tiangao was dressed in black and bowed.

Bai Qing’er didn’t want to waste time asking questions. She said, “Don’t resist. Open your sea of consciousness. I need to know everything that happened during the process of guarding Tan Fei in the past month.”

Qi Tiangao said, “Okay!”

Bai Qing’er stretched out a hand and grabbed it across the air. Instantly, Qi Tiangao’s memory bubbles flew out from between his eyebrows and kept surging toward her.

A moment later, Bai Qing’er finished checking all of Qi Tiangao’s memories of the past month.

Qi Tiangao said, “Don’t worry, Lady Bai. No one can get close to Tan Fei. Tan Fei is not only guarded by us but there are also 17 layers of seals.”

Bai Qing’er put her hands behind her back and shook her head. She said, “You’re wrong. The Power of Dimension can penetrate 17 layers of seals.”

“Could it be Zhang Ruochen?” Qi Tiangao asked.

Bai Qing’er shook her head again, she said, “Although Zhang Ruochen’s dimensional attainments are very high, his spiritual power is only at the 65th level. He can’t do something like this under the noses of a group of powerful people. If I’m not wrong, it should be Seven-Armed Elder. I really underestimated that old guy. He might have seen through my plan.”

As Noqoilpi, how could he not be proficient in the Path of Dimension?

Bai Qing'er had discovered the source of the superior-grade Origin divine spirit through layers of analysis when the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin appeared in the casino of House of Enchanteurs.

It was Seven-Armed Elder, who was known as Noqoilpi.

However, Bai Qing'er did not believe that the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin were Seven-Armed Elder's output.

One had to know that Seven-Armed Elder had never lost before.

The information network of the Enchanter Chamber's markets was well-developed. Very quickly, it was found that Seven-Armed Elder had spent countless Godstones in the past three thousand years to buy various life-prolonging treasures. The amount of Godstones was so large that it was enough to shock even the gods.

Bai Qing'er made a bold guess that Seven-Armed Elder had already spent all his wealth to prolong his life. That was why he had no choice but to take out five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin in exchange for life-prolonging elixirs from another gambler. That was why superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origins appeared in the Citadel Casino.

She set up tonight's trap with the Rainbow Viburnum as bait to prove her theory.

First, she wanted to win a large sum of Godstones from Seven-Armed Elder to see if he could pay for the Godstones.

Second, Bai Qing'er suspected that Seven-Armed Elder had gone to the Fane of Origin a long time ago and brought out the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin from the fane. Furthermore, the reason Seven-Armed Elder's gambling abilities were so powerful was very likely due to the fact that he had obtained some treasure in the Fane of Origin that could see through the Origin.

Therefore, her second goal was to see if Seven-Armed Elder could see through the Origin.

It was proven that Seven-Armed Elder at least could see through the Origin of life. Therefore, he knew that there was a trace of life inside the Rainbow Viburnum.

Actually, Seven-Armed Elder was Bai Qing'er's main target from the start.

As long as she caught him, she would naturally be able to find the Fane of Origin.

As for the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin, she planned to destroy them all. In this way, only she could find the Fane of Origin.

Unfortunately, Seven-Armed Elder escaped and was taken away by Zhang Ruochen into the Violet Gourd.

Therefore, she could only settle for the second-best. She took the risk and stole the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin under the name of Zhang Ruochen. At the same time, she asked the master and General Pillar to ask the Death Palace's High Priest to get rid of Zhang Ruochen.

Unfortunately, Bai Qing'er didn't expect Seven-Armed Elder to be cunning enough to swap the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin first, which made her lose everything.

Lord Turtle was extremely nervous and said, "My Lady, what should we do now?"

The more nervous he was, the more he didn't stutter.

"The only thing we can do now is to find Zhang Ruochen. We can take Seven-Armed Elder and the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin before the Adjudication Division does. I hope it's not too late."

Bai Qing'er was determined. Anyone who stood in her way was an enemy.

Her only worry now was that the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin would fall into Zhang Ruochen's hands and then into the Adjudication Division's hands.

Once the Adjudication Division took the superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin for themselves, how could other forces have a chance?

As for Cang Baizi and Seven-Armed Elder, she was not that worried.

Cang Baizi knew very little.

As for Seven-Armed Elder...

As long as the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin were not exposed, who would know that Seven-Armed Elder was the key to the secret of the Fane of Origin?

...

Chapter 2447: The Adjudicators Intend to Kill

“Such strong spiritual power. Fortunately, I used the power of the Qiankun Realm. Otherwise, it would have been difficult to escape from her. Who is she anyway? How dare she kill a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint from the Infernal Court in the Divine Domain of Destiny?” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen was chased by Bai Qing'er's spiritual avatar. In the end, he escaped to the city where there were many cultivators. He changed his appearance and was able to escape.

Lady Bai obviously had some misgivings.

She wouldn't stop until she killed Zhang Ruochen. If it were anywhere else, she would find Zhang Ruochen even if she had to kill all the cultivators in the city.

After returning to Vastsea Manor and opening the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, Zhang Ruochen immediately released Cang Baizi from the Violet Gourd.

Zhang Ruochen asked, “Tell me, who is Lady Bai? Why did she kill Xing Qian?”

Cang Baizi had lost a significant portion of his lifespan. His body had decomposed badly. He was weak and sickly as he lay on the ground.

“You don't want to tell me? Fine. You're of no value to me. Die now,” said Zhang Ruochen.

A ball of Divine Purification Flame surged out of Zhang Ruochen's palm.

Cang Baizi's expression changed. “Zhang Ruochen, this is the Divine Domain of Destiny. If you dare to kill me, the Adjudication Division will never forgive you. The Hall of Permanence will treat you as their mortal enemy.”

In any force, the Supreme Saints of the Thousand-Koan Realm and Banshi Isshou Realm were all powerhouses.

If it was in Guanghan, with Cang Baizi's cultivation, he could be ranked among the top ten in the entire Macroworld. If Moon Goddess is ranked first, then he was at least eighth or ninth.

If Cang Baizi was killed, one could imagine how furious the Hall of Permanence would be.

"You dare to kill me?" asked Cang Baizi.

"Why shouldn't I dare to kill you?" asked Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen flicked his finger, and a wisp of Divine Purification Flame fell on his body. It burned his body and made a sizzling sound.

Zhang Ruochen had never thought of searching for his memories.

This was not the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting. His important memories must have been protected by the power of the gods.

Moreover, he was not weak. He was a Supreme Saint at the initial stage of the Banshi Isshou Realm. His spiritual power was also very strong. Although he was very weak now, Zhang Ruochen did not dare to underestimate him.

If he was ambushed while searching for memories, it would not be worth it.

"You want to kill me? Do you think you're worthy?" asked Cang Baizi.

Cang Baizi's eyes flashed with rage. He let out a long roar, shaking the sky. Dense precepts poured from his body. They pressed down on Zhang Ruochen, condensing into seven Path palaces.

No matter how powerful a genius was, he couldn't defeat a Supreme Saint in the Banshi Isshou Realm with the cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm.

Cang Baizi believes he was only captured by Zhang Ruochen because he was ambushed. Even though he was very weak now, he still had the strength to fight in a real fight.

As for the rumors, when Zhang Ruochen fought with Yan Wushen, Zhang Ruochen exploded with power close to that of a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint. In Cang Baizi's opinion, it was just a rumor and nonsense. It was impossible.

Zhang Ruochen shook his head. The Armor of the Fire God appeared naturally. The divine power in his body surged and he kicked it out.

Dense Divine Marks of Flame appeared on his left leg. The power of Yanshen's leg was completely unleashed.

Boom

The Precept Domain of Cang Baizi was shattered. The seven Path palaces were destroyed. His body flew out and slammed into the array wall of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He collapsed once more.

"How... How can you be so strong? Your power..." said Cang Baizi.

Cang Baizi looked at Zhang Ruochen, who was walking toward him step by step. His eyes were filled with shock.

Even in his peak state, it wouldn't be easy for him to catch the power of that kick.

Zhang Ruochen's entire body was burning. The temperature in the palace became extremely high, like a copper furnace. He threatens, "I'll give you one last chance. Are you going to tell or not?"

Cang Baizi knew that in his current state, he could not escape from the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He had to stabilize Zhang Ruochen first. He quickly said, "Alright, I'll tell you."

Zhang Ruochen knew that Cang Baizi was not a tough person. He must have been tortured by Lady Bai until his spirit collapsed. Otherwise, how could he look like a slave in the Peacock Palace?

Such a person would never have the chance to become a god in his life.

Zhang Ruochen said, "It's best not to talk nonsense. I'm not a patient person."

"After I tell you, will you let me live?" asked Cang Baizi.

"That depends on how much the things you say are worth," said Zhang Ruochen.

Cang Baizi lowered his head and thought for a moment. Then he raised his head again, "Lady Bai's identity is not a secret. Many cultivators in the Infernal Court know about it. She is the daughter of Empress Bai, the current ruler of the Enchanter Chamber. Her name is Bai Qing'er."

"Her identity is indeed extraordinary. No wonder she acts so recklessly." Zhang Ruochen snorted.

"There is a rumor that Lady Bai's father is likely to be Lord Huang Tian," said Cang Baizi. "Of course, this rumor has never been proven, so the possibility of it being false is higher. Many cultivators think that the Enchanter Chamber is just using the name of Lord Huang Tian to intimidate everyone."

The lion-like and dog-like palace guardian lying outside the Sevenstar Imperial Palace suddenly raised its huge head and looked around with its bell-sized eyes, trying to find out who was talking about it?

"The daughter of Huang Tian?" the Palace Guardian wondered.

Zhang Ruochen narrowed his eyes and said with a sharp look, "Why did she kill Xing Qian?"

"Lady Bai's real target is Seven-Armed Elder. Xing Qian should have been killed in passing," said Cang Baizi.

Zhang Ruochen asked, "Why does she want to deal with Seven-Armed Elder?"

"Well..." said Cang Baizi.

WHOOSH!

The Divine Purification Flame in Zhang Ruochen's palm burned again.

Cang Baizi shrank his neck, and he said quickly, "I don't know the specific reason. I think it's because Seven-Armed Elder won too many Godstones in the casinos under the Enchanter Chamber. That's why Lady Bai attacked him."

Zhang Ruochen smiled coldly, "Do you think I'm that easy to fool? If it was just for the Godstones, why would Lady Bai kill Xing Qian? After I took you away, she came after me. She looked like she wanted to kill me to silence me. This isn't simple."

"Maybe Xing Qian was killed by her."

Cang Baizi said tremblingly as he noticed Zhang Ruochen still staring at him with an unfriendly expression, "She came after you because you discovered she had murdered Xing Qian. She wished to silence you."

Zhang Ruochen said, "But before she came after me, I didn't know who killed Xing Qian."

Cang Baizi was almost driven mad by Zhang Ruochen. He gritted his teeth and said, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, I really don't know what's going on. If you spare my life, I'll help you seize the Southern Sword Realm. What do you think?"

Zhang Ruochen frowned and fell into deep thought.

'Bai Qing'er must have a big plan to deal with Seven-Armed Elder.' Zhang Ruochen thought.

However, Cang Baizi was just a subordinate controlled by Bai Qing'er using the dream realm. It should be impossible for her to have access to the core secrets.

Cang Baizi said again, "Supreme Saint Ruochen, I know that you are a promising figure. You will definitely become a paramount deity in the future. However, it's not so easy to pass the test of the Southern Sword Realm. You need someone to help you."

Zhang Ruochen glanced at him and said, "It's too risky to use someone like you."

Cang Baizi's heart sank. Realizing that something was wrong, he said anxiously, "Supreme Saint Ruochen..."

Whoosh

Zhang Ruochen pressed his palm on Cang Baizi's head. The Divine Purification Flame surged out of his palm and wrapped around his body. It was like burning a rotten corpse, giving off a foul smell.

Cang Baizi wanted to self-detonate his Sainthood Source and perish together with Zhang Ruochen.

Unfortunately, his spiritual power wasn't as strong as Zhang Ruochen's. His mind and consciousness were suppressed.

Not long after, Cang Baizi was burned to ashes. There were only bits of Sainthood Source left on the ground.

"I should quickly absorb and refine the Sainthood Source," said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen threw the Sainthood Source to Moyin that was fusing with his body.

The Sainthood Source of a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint could only be found by chance. Moyin happily received it.

Killing Cang Baizi was a warning to the cultivators of the Infernal Court who wanted to deal with Zhang Ruochen. However, they couldn't leave any traces. At the very least, they couldn't be caught by the Adjudication Division.

In the Infernal Court, the strong preyed on the weak and killing was rampant.

However, killing cultivators with powerful cultivations and backgrounds should be concealed. They couldn't be too brazen.

...

Yao Qing was an Archmarshal of the Adjudication Division. His cultivation base had reached the Banshi Isshou Realm a thousand years ago.

He only obeys one of the Adjudication Division's ten great judges, the Divine Judge.

The Divine Judge was directly under the orders of the Reverend Adjudicator. The Divine Judge was responsible for managing the order of the entire Divine Domain of Destiny. The Divine Judge could punish the high priests of the twelve divine palaces and kill all cultivators who violated the rules of the Fane of Destiny.

It could be said that the Divine Judge was an existence that all cultivators of various clans were afraid of.

Even the Scions and Scionesses would choose to retreat when they saw him.

Yao Qing's face was livid. He led a group of enforcers consisting of dozens of people. They were clad in armor and held Saint Swords in their hands as they surrounded the Vastsea Manor.

Two Marshals who had reached the pinnacle of the Thousand-Koan Realm, Marshal Qi Xin and Marshal Zhen, stood on the left and right sides behind him respectively.

"What's going on? There are so many powerful figures in the Adjudication Division, and they are surrounding the Vastsea Manor."

"Archmarshal Yao Qing has arrived. Something big must have happened."

"The Marshals can capture Scions and Scionesses, while the Archmarshals can capture the wives and concubines of gods. If they refuse to be captured, they can be executed on the spot."

"Zhang Ruochen was too arrogant in the Divine Domain of Destiny, and he finally suffered the consequences."

...

Except for a few cultivators who stayed to watch, more cultivators retreated far away. The murderous aura from the cultivators of the Adjudication Division made them feel uncomfortable.

Gaunt opened the door and walked out of the Vastsea Manor.

He looked carefully and was shocked by the Path aura from the enforcers outside.

However, when Gaunt thought of Zhang Ruochen's noble status in the Infernal Court, the fear in his heart lessened.

He said, "Why are you surrounding the Vastsea Manor?"

Marshal Qi Xin shouted coldly, "Lower the array. We are here to arrest Zhang Ruochen under the order of our Lord Judge."

Gaunt was shocked. As the grandson of the Wargod Bloodximius and a proud son of heaven with marriage bestowed by the Reverend himself, the Adjudication Division actually said that they would arrest him.

Yao Qing gave an impatient look and pushed out his palm during Gaunt's hesitation. The array of inscriptions in front of him shattered with a thud. The ground beneath Vastsea Manor shook nonstop.

The array set up by the High-Saint Array Master was broken in an instant.

As a Banshi Isshou Realm Supreme Saint, Yao Qing was more than ten times stronger than Cang Baizi.

Yao Qing approached the door of Vastsea Manor with his hands behind his back and said, "You did not kneel as a servant of a Celestial Court Supreme Saint when the three Judges arrived. Death is your penalty!"

Gaunt looked terrified and was dragged away by the two Supreme Saint enforcers.

Chop

His head was cut off by Saint Sword.

The Sword of Judgment could destroy all life. Even if you were a Supreme Saint, you could still be killed with one sword strike.

Gaunt, a former Heavenly Realm sect's first-class genius, was now a headless corpse. He collapsed on the crimson steps, and Saint Blood erupted like a pillar.

The cultivators around Gaunt were in an uproar and retreated again.

The blood of a Supreme Saint finally woke them up. It made them realize that the Adjudication Division was serious this time. They would not be afraid of Zhang Ruochen because of his special status.

Zhou Zhen, Shentu Yunkong, and Lian Xi were alarmed. They rushed out of the manor and saw the scene of Gaunt being killed.

Their hearts were like hit by a heavy hammer, and they quickly knelt on one knee on both sides of the gate.

It was not until this moment that they realized how fragile their lives were in the Infernal Court. A Marshal of Adjudication could decide their life and death with a single word.

Yao Qing's figure was as straight as a spear. He walked into the Vastsea Manor and arrived below the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Zhang Ruochen was already standing in front of the palace gate, staring down at him from above.

Yao Qing said expressionlessly, "Zhang Ruochen if you are smart, don't resist. Follow me to the Adjudication Division."

Zhang Ruochen opened his palm and revealed the Destiny Token. "With my status, even if the Adjudication Division wants to arrest me, they must give me a reason, right?"

Yao Qing and all the enforcers bowed to Zhang Ruochen in unison.

They weren't bowing to Zhang Ruochen, but to the Destiny Token.

After bowing, Yao Qing stood up straight again. "The Adjudication Division received news that you killed Xing Qian of the Fane of Asura and captured Cang Baizi of the Hall of Permanence. Do you acknowledge these two crimes?"

Zhang Ruochen only knew that the House of Enchanters and the Death Palace's High Priest were very close, but he didn't expect that they could even mobilize the power of the Adjudication Division.

Of course, it was impossible to agree with them.

Zhang Ruochen said, “These two offenses are false. Someone is attempting to frame me. I have no animosity toward Xing Qian. Why would I kill him? Isn’t Cang Baizi of the Hall of Permanence in the House of Enchanters? I didn’t capture him.”

Yao Qing said, “Since you didn’t do it, then follow me to the Adjudication Division. When the matter is clear, you will be a free man once more.”

Marshal Qi Xin and Marshal Zhen held the divine chains and stepped onto the steps of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. They walked toward Zhang Ruochen.

Rumble

A powerful white light exploded from the steps. The two Marshals were sent flying. When they landed, they hurriedly retreated. They were in a sorry state.

The Sevenstar Imperial Palace was once the palace of Wargod Bloodximus. With Zhang Ruochen’s current cultivation and the joint operation of the Palace Guardian, Huang Tian, the defensive power was strong enough to stop a Paramount Realm Supreme Saint.

How could the two Marshals break in?

Zhang Ruochen smiled, he said, “Please forgive me, Marshals. It’s not that I don’t want to go to the Adjudication Division. However, if any cultivator gets into trouble, the Adjudication Division will arrest me and interrogate me. Wouldn’t I have to stay in the prison of the Adjudication Division for the rest of my life? Therefore, I suggest that you find enough evidence before you arrest me.”

Zhang Ruochen had just returned to the Vastsea Manor when the enforcers of the Adjudication Division arrived. Wasn’t it too fast?

It was certain that Bai Qing'er had deliberately used the Adjudication Division to deal with him.

Zhang Ruochen had heard that after successfully fusing the sixth type of Saintwill, there was a strange phenomenon in which Destiny's Creek flowed backward, flooding the fane. Despite the fact that Wargod Bloodximus had forcibly explained it in the name of Great Emperor Fengdu.

However, the Adjudication Division would rather capture Zhang Ruochen than let go of this opportunity to get rid of him.

Killing Zhang Ruochen was to protect the Fane of Destiny.

Bai Qing'er and the Adjudication Division had the same interests and goals in this matter.

If Zhang Ruochen surrendered, he would probably be executed before he reached the Adjudication Division. By then, even if Wargod Bloodximus and his mother wanted to save him, it would be too late!

The only thing they could do now was to defend the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. They could delay as long as they could.

Yao Qing's face was extremely dark. In the Divine Domain of Destiny, no cultivator had ever dared to speak to the Marshals of the Adjudication Division in such a tone. Did he not take the Adjudication Division seriously at all?

"Zhang Ruochen resisted arrest and shall be executed without mercy," said Yao Qing.

Yao Qing's voice seemed to squeeze out from between his teeth.

He gave the order.

The enforcers of the Adjudication Division attacked the Sevenstar Imperial Palace at the same time.

Of course, Yao Qing knew about the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. He knew that it would be difficult for them to break in.

The reason why he still attacked was to force Zhang Ruochen to resist.

Once Zhang Ruochen resisted, the Adjudication Division could kill him, whether he was guilty or not.

“Zhang Ruochen refuses to be arrested. Please come in person, Lord Judge.” Yao Qing carved a Communication light talisman and sent it out.

Lord Judge had to break the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and kill Zhang Ruochen himself.

...

After the five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin were stolen, the cultivators gathered in the House of Enchanters immediately rushed to the Vastsea Manor. However, the Vastsea Manor was surrounded and sealed by the Adjudication Division. No cultivator could get close.

Bai Qing'er stood on a pavilion and said to herself, “I’m still a step late.”

She could ask the Death Palace’s High Priest and the Adjudication Division to help because they both had the same goal. They both wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen.

However, she couldn’t stop the Adjudication Division from capturing Zhang Ruochen.

Seeing the Gaunt’s corpse on the stairs, Xue Tu felt his scalp go numb and his legs go weak. He said, “The Adjudication Division... came too fast...”

“It was indeed a little too fast,” said Guye Jing.

Guye Jing’s eyes were deep as she looked at Vastsea Manor which was constantly roaring with fighting sounds. No one knew what she was thinking.

Xue Tu said, “My Senior Brother must have been framed.”

“Since you know, why don’t you hurry and report to Blood Empress? Do you think you can save him?” Guye Jing said.

Xue Tu hesitated for a moment, then left quickly.

As the disciple of Blood Empress, he naturally had a way to contact her quickly.

Xue Tu chose to save Zhang Ruochen because Zhang Ruochen had saved him from Guye Jing in the House of Enchanters, despite the fact that Zhang Ruochen was aware Xue Tu had leaked the information.

It was indeed Xue Tu's fault for deceiving the Supreme Artifact.

Xue Tu had realized that his Senior Brother was a sentimental person. He was not as cold as he appeared to be. Perhaps he was only being strict with him to temper his temperament.

Moreover, with a Yuanhui-level genius Senior Brother around, Xue Tu would definitely rise in the future.

Luo Shengtian walked to Guye Jing's side with a solemn expression, he said, "It's useless. Gods can't interfere with the secular world. It's useless to look for Blood Empress. Back then, Qi Longfei, the firstborn son of the Qitian Clan's chief, fought with a Thousand-Koan Realm Supreme Saint in the Divine Domain of Destiny. This resulted in the deaths of hundreds of thousands of cultivators in a city.

"After the Adjudication Division took Qi Longfei away, the Qitian Clan's chief immediately went to plead for mercy. After all, she only has one son. She probably won't have another one in the future. He had always been pampered.

"But the Qitian Clan's chief was stopped by Reverend Adjudicator. Back then, Reverend Adjudicator had said that if there were no rules, how could the world be ruled? If the gods could ask for mercy, why would they need the Adjudication Division? Then, Reverend Adjudicator killed Qi Longfei with his own hands."

Guye Jing said, "Zhang Ruochen is smart. As long as he hasn't entered the Adjudication Division, there's still room for redemption. Would the Adjudication Division dare to attack the Xue Jue Family if Blood Empress could arrive in time and return him to them?"

Luo Shengtian said, "If that's the case, Zhang Ruochen will have to hide in the Xue Jue family for the rest of his life. He won't be able to go out again."

“Don’t Devala want to help?” Guye Jing asked.

Luo Shengtian said, “I’ve sent all the cultivators out to look for Cang Baizi and Xing Qian. As for the incident in the House of Enchanters, we all know that Zhang Ruochen isn’t that powerful. He stole the superior-grade divine crystals without anyone noticing and killed Tan Fei through 17 layers of seals. He must be a terrifying figure who can summon wind and rain below divinity.”

“What if Zhang Ruochen really killed Xing Qian and captured Cang Baizi?” Said Guye Jing.

Luo Shengtian was silent for a long time, he said, “The Adjudication Division has long wanted to kill Zhang Ruochen. After all, in the Divine Domain of Destiny, the Fane of Destiny still has the final say. We can’t help much. It’s a pity that Wargod Bloodximius is not in the Divine Domain of Destiny. Otherwise, with his strong character, the Adjudication Division would be more or less afraid.”

...

Xue Tu knelt on one knee in the Divine Plane of Blood Empress and quickly told the whole story.

“Master, you have to save Senior Brother. Once he is brought into the Adjudication Division, I’m afraid... The consequences will be unimaginable...”

The Divine Shadow of Blood Empress was tens of thousands of feet tall and stood in front of Xue Tu like a mountain, she said, “Gods can not interfere in worldly affairs. Moreover, the Adjudication Division has always been impartial and will not accuse your Senior Brother. So, you don’t have to worry.”

“I heard that the Adjudication Division has long wanted to kill Senior Brother,” Xue Tu hurriedly said.

Blood Empress said, “Even if they want to kill Chen’er, the Adjudication Division has to produce evidence. I believe in Chen’er’s ability. Even if he really killed someone, he must have erased all traces. If there’s nothing else, you can leave. I still have to continue cultivating.”

Xue Tu did not expect his master to have such an attitude.

Xue Tu wondered, ‘She actually believed in the Adjudication Division at the critical moment of Senior Brother’s life and death? She actually still had the mood to cultivate?’

‘Was this still the master who didn’t hesitate to fight with Asurendra Samay to save Senior Brother’s daughter?’

‘Could it be that the master was afraid of the Adjudication Division?’

‘That’s strange, really strange!’

‘What on earth was going on?’

Chapter 2448: A Friend of the Lord of Destiny

“Huang Tian, stop them!” Zhang Ruochen ordered.

Zhang Ruochen patted Huang Tian’s head and walked into the Sevenstar Imperial Palace. Seeing that Moyin was still refining and absorbing Cang Baizi’s Sainthood Source, he urged it.

Bang

He took out the Violet Gourd and poured out Xing Qian’s corpse.

Although he didn’t kill Xing Qian, the Adjudication Division was obviously not interested in evidence. It was useless to explain, so it was better to destroy the body.

. COM

“Eh?”

Zhang Ruochen had a strange feeling. He couldn’t help but carefully look at Xing Qian’s body. Then he slowly stepped back and used the Saint Qi in his body to activate the inscription of the array and Divine Marks in the palace.

The entire palace was covered in dense nets of lightning.

After retreating to a safe place, Zhang Ruochen said coldly, “Come out. Do you want to continue hiding?”

Something strange happened.

Xing Qian’s stiff body stood up and said hoarsely, “Yuanhui-level genius is something. Even with the cultivation of the Hundred-Shackle Realm, you can sense my aura.”

Whoosh

Seven-Armed Elder separated from Xing Qian’s body. His eyes were deep as he looked at the lightning around him. He had the demeanor of a calm powerhouse.

“What Cang Baizi said is true. Bai Qing’er is really dealing with you,” said Zhang Ruochen.

. COM

Zhang Ruochen knew that Seven-Armed Elder’s spiritual power was strong. He was a very dangerous person, so he was on high alert at all times.

Seven-Armed Elder glanced outside the hall and laughed sinisterly. “You dare to go against the Adjudication Division in the Divine Domain of Destiny. I don’t know whether to say that you’re brave or that you’re courting death. Forget it. I won’t get involved in this. I’ll leave first.”

“Leave?” Zhang Ruochen asked. “I don’t think you should leave. Since you’re here, you can help me testify. Xing Qian was killed by Bai Qing’er. Don’t you want to get rid of Bai Qing’er?”

Seven-Armed Elder said, “Testify? Get Rid of Bai Qing’er? My genius, don’t be naive. What kind of place is the Adjudication Division you think? Once I enter, all my secrets will be dug out. If I testify for you, my soul will be searched thoroughly. When the time comes, will you be able to hide the fact that you killed Cang Baizi and destroyed his body?”

“You can cut off that part of my memory,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Seven-Armed Elder said, “The Fane of Destiny will help me recover my memory.”

Go to the Adjudication Division? Go to the Fane of Destiny?

Seven-Armed Elder would never go. If he did, the secrets of the Fane of Origin would definitely no longer be a secret.

Zhang Ruochen had never thought of asking Seven-Armed Elder to testify against Bai Qing’er. He just said those words to test him and confirm his guess.

Zhang Ruochen said, “So, senior god of gamblers didn’t want to come out for my own good?”

“I admire a junior like you. I must take care of you,” Seven-Armed Elder said seriously.

It will be strange for Zhang Ruochen to believe in him.

In the House of Enchanters, Zhang Ruochen had caused him to lose more than 500,000 Godstones. He might even want to kill someone.

Seven-Armed Elder looked outside again and thought to himself, 'If this continues, Fane of Destiny's adjudicator will arrive soon.'

Once the adjudicator arrived, Zhang Ruochen wouldn't be able to leave no matter how strong his spiritual power was.

Seven-Armed Elder waved his hand and said, "I must leave now. Great genius, quickly put away the array and the Divine Marks."

Zhang Ruochen shook his head and said, "Senior, you can't leave."

"Why? If I am caught by the Adjudication Division, you will not be able to clear your name!" Seven-Armed Elder said seriously as if he was thinking of Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I can kill to cover up!"

"Kill to cover-up? Kill who? Kill... Me?" asked Seven-Armed Elder.

Seven-Armed Elder pointed at himself, his face full of astonishment. Then, he laughed out loud, he said, "I don't want to lower myself to your level because you're the grandson of Wargod Bloodximius. I didn't expect you to want to kill me. Do you know what level my spiritual power has reached? No one below the divinity would dare to threaten me."

Zhang Ruochen said, "Senior, you lost a lot of your lifespan in the Violet Gourd, right? Are you still weak?"

Seven-Armed Elder sneered and said nothing.

Zhang Ruochen said again, "This Sevenstar Imperial Palace was forged by Wargod Bloodximius. The Supreme Saint Inscriptions and Divine Inscriptions, including the Array Inscriptions, were carved by him. In your current state, are you sure you can escape?"

Seven-Armed Elder's face turned blue and purple. He said, "Great genius Zhang, we have no grudges against each other. Why do we have to fight to the death? Do you know that you are going to die, so you deliberately dragged someone down with you... hiss..."

Seven-Armed Elder took a deep breath. He felt that he was most likely right!

How could Zhang Ruochen be so crazy?

Seven-Armed Elder's tone softened, he said, "How about this? If you let me leave the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, I'll do my best to save you from the Adjudication Division. What do you think? If you don't believe me, I can swear to the gods."

So what if he swore?

He could do his best anyway. If he couldn't save Zhang Ruochen, he couldn't be blamed.

Zhang Ruochen said, "I'm very curious. Why did Bai Qing'er want to deal with you?"

"Why else? It's all because of the Godstones. In the House of Enchanters, I lost more than 500,000 Godstones. If I couldn't return them, she would hunt me down and kill me. Sigh! More than 90% of the killings in this world are because of the Godstones," Seven-Armed Elder said.

Zhang Ruochen said, "A god of gambling who doesn't have more than 500,000 Godstones?"

Seven-Armed Elder sighed repeatedly, trying to win Zhang Ruochen's sympathy, he said, "Outsiders only see that I won a lot of Godstones, but they don't know that I also spent a lot of Godstones to prolong my life. The pills to prolong my life are extremely expensive, and I have already emptied my savings."

Zhang Ruochen comforted him and said, "You should have come to me. I can help you."

"What do you mean?" Seven-Armed Elder asked.

Zhang Ruochen said, "Don't you know that I have the new seedlings of the Divine Sky-connecting Tree, and it can also give birth to the Spring of Life?"

“Really?” Seven-Armed Elder asked.

Seven-Armed Elder’s spirit was greatly boosted, and his eyes shone brightly.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Before I answer your question, let me ask you a question.”

“Hurry up and ask,” said Seven-Armed Elder.

Zhang Ruochen smiled and said, “Since you don’t have a long lifespan, how did you survive in the Violet Gourd? Cang Baizi was inside and has lost thousands of years of lifespan.”

Seven-Armed Elder immediately restrained his excitement and realized that this junior had been leading him on.

He was wrong.

Seven-Armed Elder chuckled and said, “How could a powerhouse like me not have the means to fight against the Mark of Time?”

“Since you say so, I’ll answer your question. I don’t have... the Spring of Life,” Zhang Ruochen said.

Seven-Armed Elder said angrily, “Zhang Ruochen, the most important thing for you now is to solve the crisis of the Adjudication Division. What’s the point of you manipulating me?”

Zhang Ruochen said, “The Adjudication Division came to me for no reason because of the fight between you and Bai Qing’er. How can I solve the crisis if I don’t even know why I’m being targeted?”

Seven-Armed Elder said, “What do you want to know?”

Zhang Ruochen’s face became serious. He said, “I overheard the conversation between Bai Qing’er and the others. She used the Rainbow Viburnum to set up a trap in the House of Enchanters to deal with you.”

“This vicious woman dares to plot against me,” Seven-Armed Elder said angrily.

Zhang Ruochen added, “But she lost more than 500,000 Godstones, yet she claims that she didn’t lose. Moreover, as long as she keeps an eye on you, she can win it back.”

“I have reason to guess that you must have a secret that is worth more than 500,000 Godstones.”

“If you tell me that secret, I will let you go now. Otherwise, when the Divine Judge arrives, you won’t be able to leave even if you want to.”

Seven-Armed Elder remained silent. He gave Zhang Ruochen a cold stare. He unleashed his immense spiritual power and prepared to charge out.

Zhang Ruochen was not afraid at all, he said, “If I’m not wrong, senior, have you cultivated the Path of Origin? Under the divinity, only the Time cultivator and the Divine Eye of Origin can see the Mark of Time clearly. Only when you can see clearly can you avoid it.

“Senior, you must have used the Power of Origin in the House of Enchanters to sense the fluctuation of life inside the Rainbow Viburnum, right?

“Just the Power of Origin alone is not enough to make Bai Qing’er go all out to deal with you. If there isn’t a huge benefit, no one is willing to provoke a powerful enemy like you.

“It doesn’t matter if senior doesn’t say it. When I am captured and sent to the Adjudication Division, I can use this to make a deal with the Divine Judge. Compared to killing me, I believe that the Divine Judge should be more interested in the secrets of you.”

Seven-Armed Elder was discouraged. He retracted his spiritual energy and said, “You won! I will tell you everything.”

...

The Fane of Destiny was the center of power of the ten clans. Countless people believed in destiny.

It was these believers who pushed the Fane of Destiny to its supreme ruling position and became the ruler of the Infernal Court.

Among the three divisions and twelve palaces of the Fane of Destiny, the Death Palace, the Misfortune Palace, the Anger Palace, the Ominous Palace, the Adjudication Division, and the Destiny Division were all main forces for killing.

However, their targets were different.

The Death Palace, the Misfortune Palace, the Anger Palace, and the Ominous Palace were focused on killing the various worlds, ancient civilizations, undiscovered worlds, hidden realms, and planets in the universe.

The Adjudication Division was focused on judging and punishing those cultivators who did not abide by the bottom line among the major forces in the Infernal Court. It maintained a delicate balance among the ten clans and demonstrated the control of the Fane of Destiny over the Infernal Court.

The Destiny Division was more concerned with defense, protecting the Fane of Destiny, the Divine Domain of Destiny, and defending the supreme position of the Fane of Destiny. During the recent Yuanhui period, the Destiny Division had grown a lot. Gradually, it began to interfere with external affairs and encroach on the power of the Adjudication Division and the major divine palaces.

At the headquarters of the Destiny Division.

Lord Wu Yue, one of the ten Lords of Destiny, had gone into seclusion to cultivate an unrivaled divine ability. He chose to come out of seclusion early to see an old friend.

It was worth mentioning that the saint technique was a cultivation method for Saint Realm cultivators.

The higher knowledge was a cultivation method for gods.

Lord Wu Yue was not a god, but he could cultivate divine abilities. His cultivation had obviously reached a shocking level.

Lord Wu Yue's old friend was a black-robed man who sat opposite him.

Commander Cerberus stood outside the hall and heard the laughter coming from the hall. He was extremely curious, 'Why was the Lord of Destiny, who was always serious, smiling so happily?

'Who was that black-robed man?'

The Lord of Destiny raised the bronze triangular cup and said, "Brother Ki Tian, you must have gained a lot after cultivating in the Ancient Ruins realm for a hundred years, right? When did you come out of seclusion?"

"Recently," said Ki Tian.

Ki Tian drank a cup and said, "After I have ascended divinity, every step is very difficult. Let alone a hundred years, even a thousand years of seclusion won't make much progress."

Lord Wu Yue shook his head and said, "I would believe that if it were others. But, You are Ki Tian. In less than a thousand years after ascending to the Infernal Court, you will become a deity. You are someone who can compete with Sword God Feng Chen and Yu Qiu. In the last thousand years, the most outstanding people in the Infernal Court were you guys.

"Unfortunately, Yu Qiu failed to transcend the Divine Tribulation, and the world lost an opponent. Come, let's drink."

Ki Tian finished his drink, put down his wine cup, and asked, "How long will it take you to transcend the Divine Tribulation?"

"I don't dare to take such a risk as you, and I don't want to follow in Yu Qiu's footsteps. I still have to accumulate more time. Moreover, the Destiny Division is in a critical period of development. If I breakthrough to become a god, won't the Adjudication Division celebrate?" Lord Wu Yue, said with a meaningful smile.

He and Ki Tian were best friends. Naturally, they talked about everything and had no scruples.

Ki Tian lowered his voice and said, "I heard that the Adjudication Division is plotting something big again."

Lord Wu Yue stopped smiling and said, “A move to deal with Zhang Ruochen?”

“Even Zhuo Yunong went there personally!” Ki Tian said.

Lord Wu Yue said, “Destiny’s Creek flows backward and floods the fane. Such a phenomenon had never happened before. I had long heard that several Judges in the Adjudication Division wanted to get rid of Zhang Ruochen. Now that they finally had an opportunity, how could they let it go?”

“But I didn’t expect Zhuo Yunong, such a smart man, to make a move himself. Zhang Ruochen, the so-called genius of the Yuanhui level, had a slim chance of becoming a god. At least for now, he was insignificant. However, if we kill him, how could the Wargod Bloodximus, who was behind him, let it go?”

“I don’t understand what Zhuo Yunong did this time.”

Qi Tian nodded, “Exactly! Why do we have to kill Zhang Ruochen personally? Even if the Adjudication Division does, it’s enough to send a general. If the Wargod Bloodximus comes looking for trouble, we can just push the general to be the scapegoat. “It doesn’t seem like his style to make a move personally.”

Lord Wu Yue’s eyeballs rolled and he said, “Is there something we don’t know about?”

Ki Tian sat up straight and smiled.

Lord Wu Yue said, “Brother Ki Tian, you must know the inside story. Hurry up and tell me!”

Ki Tian said through a voice transmission, “I heard that a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin appeared in the House of Enchanteurs. It may have something to do with this.”

“Superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?” Lord Wu Yue said puzzly.

Lord Wu Yue stood up abruptly as if he had been electrocuted. His eyes were like two burning divine suns as he said, “The Fane of Origin has been established?”

“It’s very possible,” said Ki Tian.

Then, Ki Tian continued, “If it wasn’t for the Fane of Origin, I can’t think of any other reason that could make Zhuo Yunong so desperate.”

“The secret of the Fane of Origin can’t be revealed. Of course, he has to go there personally,” Lord Wu Yue said coldly.

Ki Tian said, “Originally, the Divine Domain of Destiny should be managed by the Destiny Division. However, the Adjudication Division has seized more than half of the power. If the Adjudication Division finds the Fane of Origin, the Destiny Division will no longer have the ability to contend with them. Perhaps, one day, there will only be two divisions left in the Fane of Destiny!”

Lord Wu Yue let out a loud snort like a bolt of lightning as he said, “Brother Ki Tian, don’t worry. You will not be left behind in our generation.”

Commander Cerberus walked in and said, “Reporting to Lord Wu Yue, Princess Luo Sha of Devala has sent an envoy to seek an audience.”

“No,” said Lord Wu Yue.

Lord Wu Yue waved his hand. Suddenly, he thought of something and changed his words, “Let her in.”

A moment later, a Rakshasa Supreme Saint held a purple-gold box and smiled, “Your Highness, the princess has ordered me to present you a gift.”

The purple-gold box flew into Lord Wu Yue’s hand.

When he opened the box, a blinding purple light surged out. Accompanied by a deafening lion’s roar, it was as if a divine lion was sealed inside.

Even with Lord Wu Yue’s cultivation level, his expression changed when he saw the pill in the box. He quickly closed the box again. He took a deep breath and calmed himself down. He said, “Did your princess ask you to deliver any message?”

The Rakshasa Supreme Saint shook his head and smiled, “The princess said that as long as Lord Wu Yue likes it, it’s fine.”

“Return to your princess and tell her that I like this gift very much. I appreciate her generous gift,” said Lord Wu Yue.

After the Rakshasa Supreme Saint left, Lord Wu Yue patted the box, he could not help but smile. “This Princess Luo Sha is really a smart woman. She knows very well that in the Divine Domain of Destiny, only the Fane of Destiny dares to challenge the Fane of Destiny. To deal with the Adjudication Division, only the Fane of Destiny can do it.”

“The Emperor Grade Sacred Pill is indeed precious. But, were you been bribed just like that?” Ki Tian said.

Lord Wu Yue shook his head, “Since I’ve already decided to interfere in this matter, why not do me a favor? The princess is very good at choosing gifts. This Emperor Grade Sacred Pill can help me transcend the Divine Tribulation. I can’t refuse it no matter what!

“Commander Cerberus!”

Commander Cerberus said, “Yes, sir.”

“This is an order. Tell all the saint guards of the Winterpage City to go to the Vastsea Manor immediately and capture Zhang Ruochen. I’ll arrive later.”

After passing down the order, Lord Wu Yue thought of something and said coldly, “Commander Cerberus, whoever you met today and what you heard, it’s best not to spread it.”

Commander Cerberus was afraid of being silenced. He jumped in fright and quickly swore, “I swore in my name, if I say anything, my soul and body will be destroyed. I’ll die a horrible death.”

...

Zhang Ruochen held a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin in front of him. He looked at it carefully and said, “Are you saying that Bai Qing’er is going to kill you because of this superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?”

“The superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin is so important that I took it out. Why would I lie about it?” Seven-Armed Elder said.

Zhang Ruochen said, “Is there really only one?”

“Young man, why are you so suspicious? This is a superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin. Do you think it can be found everywhere? Because of it, I almost lost my life. It’s good to give it to you. This kind of thing will bring death to anyone.” Seven-Armed Elder looked indifferent.

Zhang Ruochen said, “But there are five superior-grade Divine Crystals of Origin in the House of Enchanters. Why would Bai Qing’er take this one from you?”

“Those five have already been reserved by the major forces. How can The Enchanter Chamber have the right to have them?”

Seven-Armed Elder said in a pleading tone, “Great genius, can you let me go now?”

Zhang Ruochen stretched out a finger and said, “One last question. Where did you get this superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin?”

Seven-Armed Elder stared into Zhang Ruochen’s eyes with a sincere look, “Of course I won it from the casino of the House of Enchanters!” he said. “Quickly put away the divine inscriptions and inscription of the array. If we are late, we will fall into the hands of the Divine Judge.”

“It’s too late. He’s already here!” said Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruochen looked at the sky outside the hall.

He saw a thick layer of black clouds rolling in from afar. The strong might of the Path seemed to be able to crush heaven and earth.

The three magnates of Guanghan, Wu Zu, Emperor Nirvana, and Supreme Saint Jiu Ling were far weaker than the Saint Realm cultivators Zhang Ruochen had met. Only Lord Ming, who had yet to break through, could overcome such power.

Chapter 2449: Adjudication Division and Destiny Division

Zhuo Yunong charged out from the rolling black clouds and shot toward the ground like a shuttle of light.

Boom

A loud sound rang out.

Apart from the Sevenstar Imperial Palace, all the buildings in the Vastsea Manor had collapsed. The array inscriptions were destroyed, and dust flew everywhere, blocking the sight of the cultivators present.

They had descended to intimidate.

A moment later, the dust dispersed, and Zhuo Yunong appeared below the Sevenstar Imperial Palace.

The Vastsea Manor, which had once been as beautiful as a sacred land, was now a scorched wasteland.

Zhuo Yunong was a cultivator of the Nether Clan. His upper body was a human, and his lower body was a centipede. His long hair fell over his shoulders, and his face was handsome. Some creatures looked like a python wrapped around his arms, one green, and one red.

He was a half-human and half centipede.

“Greetings, Lord Judge.”

All the enforcers of the Adjudication Division knelt on one knee.

Outside Vastsea Manor, there were waves of exclamations.

“The Divine Judge has come in person.”

...

Huo Xing was in a good mood. He smiled and said, "I didn't expect that Zhang Ruochen would die at the hands of the Adjudication Division without our help."

Ling was not so happy. He shook his head gently and said, "Strange, it's really strange."

"How is it strange?" asked Huo Xing.

"It's been so long, but why haven't the gods of the Xue Jue Family appeared? Logically, they can't give up on Zhang Ruochen," said Ling.

Huo Xing smiled and said, "Isn't it simple? The Jadeite Realm was about to open. The gods of the Xue Jue Family must have returned to the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan to discuss and arrange things. I guess the news hasn't reached the Dominion of the Bloodysky Clan yet!"

Ling nodded with a solemn face.

No matter what, with the arrival of the Divine Judge, Zhang Ruochen had no chance to turn the tables.

The death of a potential enemy was something to be happy about!

Yan Huangtu, Yan Zhexian, Yan Yu, and the cultivators of the Yanluo Clan gathered on a wide street. Their imposing manner was so strong that outsiders could not get close to them.

Yan Zhexian stared at the Sevenstar Imperial Palace without blinking and said, "How dare the law enforcement judge of the divine domain capture Zhang Ruochen? Does he know what kind of character Wargod Bloodximius has?"

Yan Yu said, "If the Adjudication Division will compromise or do nothing because of a god, then there is no need for the Adjudication Division to exist! The adjudicator should be ruthless, selfless, and fearless."

Yan Zhexian said, "Don't you think the Adjudication Division appeared too quickly this time? They actually arrived at the Vastsea Manor before us."

Yan Huangtu and Yan Yu looked at each other and smiled.

Yan Huangtu said, “Xian’er, are you worried about Zhang Ruochen?”

Yan Zhexian’s face turned cold and said, “How is that possible? Although Zhang Ruochen is talented, he’s a despicable person who betrayed his position and killed his good friend. Such a person deserves to die.”

“However, there are indeed many suspicious things about today’s incident.”

“Such as?” Yan Yu asked.

Yan Zhexian said, “First, Zhang Ruochen and Xing Qian have no enmity. Why did you kill him?”

“Second, based on Zhang Ruochen’s performance on the Battlefield of Celestial-Hunting, he’s obviously a cunning and wise man. Even if he wanted to deal with Cang Baizi, he wouldn’t leave any traces so that the Adjudication Division could find him.”

“What else?” Yan Yu asked.

Yan Zhexian thought carefully and his eyes lit up, he said, “The most important thing is that if Zhang Ruochen really stole the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin and killed Tan Fei, he would immediately escape the Divine Domain of Destiny. How could he go back to Vastsea Manor and wait for the Adjudication Division to catch him? Is someone trying to frame him?”

“Xian’er, you should think more about big things in the future,” Yan Yu said with a satisfied smile.

“But who stole the superior-grade Divine Crystal of Origin? Why would they frame Zhang Ruochen? Could it be...”

Yan Zhexian pointed her finger in the direction of Ling and Huo Xing.

Yan Yu said, “They do have the motive to frame Zhang Ruochen, but they can’t steal the Divine Crystal and kill Tan Fei.”

Yan Huangtu looked at Yan Zhexian’s abdomen and touched his chin. He said, “Zhang Ruochen will probably die if he is caught in the Adjudication Division. Do you really not care about his life?”

Yan Zhexian recalled everything that had happened and was still full of resentment toward Zhang Ruochen, he said, “Uncle! I know what you want to say. I can raise this child myself. It’s a good thing that the Adjudication Division can really kill Zhang Ruochen. Otherwise, with a father like him, the child will be cursed at the moment she’s born. She won’t be able to hold her head up high.”

The fewer people knew about the Madre Bloody Shadow’s secret, the better.

Even Yan Huangtu and Yan Yu didn’t know the truth yet.

Yan Yu was calm and collected. “Since you don’t care, we’re happy to just sit by and watch.”

...

Luo Shengtian looked at Zhuo Yunong’s tall body and knew that he was a first-class figure below divinity. He couldn’t fight him head-on. Taking a deep breath, he said, “I’ll go to the Fortune Palace now.”

Returning to Devala was too far. To save Zhang Ruochen, the Fortune Palace was the closest choice.

Wargod Bloodximus and Amane were both from the Fortune Palace. Even if Fukurokuju didn’t interfere in the secular world, he had to think about their involvements, right?

No matter how much Fukurokuju disliked Zhang Ruochen, he was engaged to Luo Sha.

How could Luo Shengtian, the royal brother, just sit and watch?

Guye Jing said, “Let’s not talk about that. With your status, you might not be able to meet Fukurokuju. Even if you go now, it’s too late! If Zhang Ruochen resisted, Zhuo Yunong could kill him directly. Instead of rushing to the Fortune Palace, it’s better to persuade Zhang Ruochen to raise his hand and surrender. He should go to the prison of the Adjudication Division first.

“If he goes to the prison of the Adjudication Division, Will he still have a chance to live?”

Luo Shengtian stomped his feet heavily and said, “Is Zhang Ruochen going to die today?”

Guye Jing kept quiet and seemed to be thinking about something.

...

More and more cultivators gathered around the Vastsea Manor. Those who had a grudge against Zhang Ruochen were all happy and thought that he was going to die today.

Some cultivators wanted to take Zhang Ruochen away.

It must be known that the five Divine Crystals of Origin might have been stolen by Zhang Ruochen. Naturally, they couldn't let him fall into the hands of the Adjudication Division.

They might have dared to kill the Adjudication Division cultivators if they were not in the Divine Domain of Destiny. But who dared to act rashly in the Divine Domain of Destiny?

Yao Qing bowed and said, “My lord, Zhang Ruochen has openly rebelled against the arrest of the Adjudication Division. He treats the Adjudication Division and the Fane of Destiny as nothing. I think he should be killed.”

Zhuo Yunong nodded and looked at the Sevenstar Imperial Palace with his golden eyes.

He saw Zhang Ruochen's handsome figure standing in the center of the palace gate. He wore red armor and looked like he wanted to fight the Adjudication Division to the end.

It had been many years since he had met such a courageous cultivator.

Zhuo Yunong smiled slightly and said, “Zhang Ruochen, you are the descendant of Wargod Bloodiximius, why don't you have the demeanor of your ancestor? Do you know the consequences of making an enemy of the Adjudication Division?”

Zhang Ruochen did not show fear because of his cultivation and identity. Instead, he smiled and said, “I have never made an enemy of the Adjudication Division. The Adjudication Division wants to kill me. If they want to punish me, why not blame them?”

Outside the Vastsea Manor, someone humphed softly, “How can you still laugh when you’re about to die?”

Zhuo Yunong said, “The Adjudication Division has always been fair. It will never accuse any cultivator wrongly. Now, I give you two choices. First, lower the defense array of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and come with me to the Adjudication Division. We’ll find out what happened and clear your name. Second, I will personally break through the defense of the Sevenstar Imperial Palace and take you back to the Adjudication Division.

“I will count to three.

“One!”
