

GOD-LEVEL ALL-ROUNDER EXPERT

13: Chapter 13, I'm just a wanted criminal!

13: Chapter 13, I'm just a wanted criminal!

Fang Yi kicked the prone Feng Wenhua a few more times, showing no mercy at all.

After all, why not kick when it's free?

This caused Shen Binnan, who was standing by, to slightly frown.

"Is this your way of waking people up?" Shen Binnan said.

"Although it's a bit rough, you have to admit that my method is very effective," Fang Yi said.

Just as Shen Binnan was about to say more, Feng Wenhua suddenly opened his eyes on the ground, and immediately saw Fang Yi's incoming kick, shouting, "What are you doing!"

Fang Yi's kick had already launched, this time landing squarely on Feng Wenhua's backside, causing Feng Wenhua to grimace in pain.

Ignoring Feng Wenhua, Fang Yi turned his head to look at Shen Binnan and said, "You see, isn't this very effective?"

Shen Binnan: "..."

The bodyguard driver drove back to Shen Binnan's home, allowing Fang Yi to witness the state of Shen Binnan's house, an extremely luxurious villa that only the wealthy could afford.

Inside the villa were a few bodyguards, but the guards were very lax, which made Fang Yi sigh heavily.

"What are you sighing about?" Shen Binnan couldn't help but ask.

"I'm saying, which bodyguard company did you hire these bodyguards from?"

They are too poor.

With your defenses here, give me one minute, and I could break through," Fang Yi said.

"What did you say!" Feng Wenhua snapped, his forehead still bearing the imprint of a fist that hadn't faded.

Fang Yi lifted an eyebrow and said, "Why, are you angry, do you think I'm wrong?"

Feng Wenhua sneered, "There are just a few people missing here, but we have infrared, alarm lines, and some high-tech defense systems.

It's impossible for the enemy to easily enter here."

Fang Yi coldly replied, "Don't give me that.

I said I could break through the defense system here in one minute, and I can do it in one minute.

If you don't agree, we can try it out."

Feng Wenhua said, "Fine!

I want to see how you break through the defense system here!" He was very confident in his arrangements.

"Better not agree so quickly.

What if you lose?" Fang Yi said.

Feng Wenhua paused, having never considered that possibility.

"If you lose, you get on your knees, admit your mistake, and from then on, I'm the boss," Fang Yi bluntly stated his conditions.

"And what if you lose?" Feng Wenhua sneered.

Fang Yi chuckled and said, "If I lose, then you're the boss, and whatever you say in the future, I'll listen."

Feng Wenhua sneered, "Hope you'll keep your word!"

As for Shen Binnan on the side, she didn't interject.

In fact, she also wanted to see for herself just how skilled Fang Yi really was.

Although Fang Yi had already shown his skills on the road earlier, Shen Binnan still wanted to witness how Fang Yi would break through the defense system here within a minute.

Fang Yi exited the villa, though he still kept the tranquilizer gun with him.

As soon as Fang Yi stepped out, someone shouted inside and sent up a signal flare—the signal to start.

Feng Wenhua stood at the villa's gate, sneering, "Humph, I want to see how, in one minute, you can break through a defense system like this!"

For Feng Wenhua, his animosity towards Fang Yi was rooted in hate, not just because Fang Yi's presence made him 'fall out of favor' with Shen Binnan, but more importantly, Feng Wenhua wanted to use this opportunity to show off his strength in front of Shen Binnan.

Fang Yi stood outside the villa's large iron gate, a cigarette dangling from his mouth.

After a full ten seconds, Fang Yi exhaled a puff of smoke, a sharp gleam flashing across his eyes...

The next moment, Fang Yi moved!

Still as a pine when quiet, swift as the wind once in motion!

Fang Yi didn't enter through the iron gate but instead chose to enter from the side.

Feng Wenhua watched clearly from behind the gate and immediately grabbed the walkie-talkie: "Team ABC pay attention, the enemy is entering from a roundabout route, stay alert..."

However, before Feng Wenhua could finish his sentence, a muffled cry sounded, causing Shen Wenhua's heart to sink.

This...

this fast?!

Indeed, Fang Yi was fast.

Although he didn't go through the front door, he didn't choose to enter from the back of the villa either.

He simply left Feng Wenhua's line of sight, climbed over the fence, and knocked out a guard.

Then, like a swift cheetah, Fang Yi circled around the villa.

Not far away was a swimming pool with two guards swimming on patrol.

The two guards also had tranquilizer guns, but it depended on who was using them.

Fang Yi did not hesitate; taking the tranquilizer gun, he charged directly towards them.

The two guards, of course, saw Fang Yi and were immediately alarmed.

Someone shouted into the walkie-talkie and at the same time fired at Fang Yi.

Their aim was appalling...

Of course, rather than saying their aim was poor, it was more accurate to say that Fang Yi's speed was too fast for them to get a bead on him.

But Fang Yi, in high-speed motion, didn't lack accuracy.

Fang Yi fired two shots at the two guards.

These were shots fired on the move, yet for Fang Yi, it was nothing short of routine.

The two guards went down.

Feng Wenhua, guarding the door of the villa, clutched the walkie-talkie, his hands trembling.

However, he quickly steadied his mind and sneered, “As long as I guard the door, you will never get in!”

Before long, there were more muffled groans coming from the walkie-talkie, with more people going down.

What puzzled Feng Wenhua was that no infrared or alarm lines were triggered.

Meanwhile, in the security room, the guards didn’t transmit any information to Feng Wenhua about Fang Yi’s whereabouts.

There was no sign of Fang Yi in the surveillance feeds, meaning...

Fang Yi had completely avoided the cameras!

Simultaneously, Feng Wenhua glanced at his watch; one minute was almost up, with only the last twenty seconds left.

Time passed second by second, but no sound came from Fang Yi, making the smug Feng Wenhua increasingly anxious.

...

Shen Binnan sat in her own living room, holding a cup of boiled water.

As she brought the cup to her lips, footsteps sounded, and she abruptly stopped.

Fang Yi walked past Shen Binnan from behind and then sat down in front of her, picked up a cup, poured himself some boiled water with a glass kettle and took a sip.

He said, "Miss Shen, have you witnessed my skills now?"

Shen Binnan finally took a sip of water, set the cup down elegantly, and then fixed her gaze on Fang Yi sitting in front of her.

"Indeed very impressive, you've opened my eyes."

Fang Yi replied indifferently, "I told you, I'm not like that fool outside."

The term 'fool' made Shen Binnan's mouth twitch.

She had personally gone to the bodyguard company to select Feng Wenhua, but today, she realized that within the strong there is always someone stronger, and there's always a higher mountain.

"Were you a special forces soldier before?" Shen Binnan suddenly asked.

"Special forces?"

How could that be, I have nothing to do with that," Fang Yi took another sip of water, then set down the cup, and slowly articulated, "I am nothing but a wanted criminal."