Chapter 1051: The auction begins (1)

"Xia Qing!" Xia ruofei's spiritual will entered through the Spirit map.

"Yes, master!" Xia Qing immediately replied respectfully. "Your subordinate is here, master!"

"Do you know the recipe for the elemental gathering pill?"

"Master, I do not have this formula." Xia Qing replied in shame.

"It doesn't matter. This prescription isn't complicated." Xia ruofei said indifferently, "note it down. 50g of Angelica, 50g of Angelica, 500g of angelica root ..."

Xia ruofei quickly told Xia Qing about the ingredients and the method of making the energy gathering pill.

Although this prescription had been lost in the current Traditional Chinese Medicine, it was not a complicated prescription. The preparation method was also quite simple. It could be made by normal decocting and refining honey into pills.

Therefore, after Xia Qing heard this, she immediately said, "Master, your subordinate will remember this!"

Xia ruofei said indifferently, "these commonly used herbs are all in the space. Immediately make 50 pills. I need them tomorrow."

"Yes, master!" Xia Qing replied.

After handing over the production of the gathering elemental pill to Xia Qing, Xia ruofei went online in his Room to Read the news related to the auction for a while before going to bed.

The next morning, Xia ruofei got up on time and sat cross – legged on the balcony of his bedroom to cultivate.

Midnight and 7:00 am were the time of the day when the spiritual Qi was the most active. On earth, where spiritual Qi was scarce, it could barely meet the requirements for cultivation. Hence, as long as there were no special circumstances, Xia ruofei would persist in cultivating every day.

Now, Xia ruofei could clearly feel the bottleneck of Qi disciple Level 4, so naturally, he would cultivate non – stop every day, hoping to break through to Qi disciple Level 5 as soon as possible.

He still remembered that he had a potential enemy who was suspected to be a Mystic. Although the possibility of him being exposed was very low, he had never let his guard down.

Since there were Mystic class Warriors, there might be higher level Warriors or even cultivators. Xia ruofei guessed that these people were just focused on cultivation and rarely came out. However, it was very likely that they would cross paths with this mysterious group in the future.

In the world of cultivators, strength was King.

Now that Xia ruofei had the ability, he would try his best to improve his strength. Only then would he be able to keep the initiative in his hands.

The spiritual Qi of heaven and earth trembled and gathered in Xia ruofei's direction.

Unknowingly, his cultivation had also started to slowly increase.

Although this was a rather slow process, as long as he improved every day, it was only a matter of time before he broke through.

The balcony of the master bedroom faced Victoria Bay. As time passed, a red sun rose above the sea, and the sparkling sea was suddenly dyed with a layer of golden light.

Xia ruofei was completely oblivious to the beautiful scenery and was still cultivating with all his heart. He only stopped cultivating when he felt the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth become turbid and impure.

When he was cultivating, Xia ruofei noticed that the door on the other side of the Presidential Suite was open. Feng Rao had already left the suite.

However, Xia ruofei was cultivating and did not pay much attention to it.

Now that he was done with his cultivation, Xia ruofei went to take a shower and walked out of the master bedroom.

At this moment, Feng Jing pushed the door open and entered. After Yingluo confirmed that Feng Jing had moved in with her, Xia ruofei had asked the Butler of the Presidential Suite to bring a new room card for Feng Jing.

Feng Jing was wearing a tight sports tank top and a pair of tight – fitting pants, which revealed her snow – White waist. Her body was covered in a layer of sweat, and her hair was wet. Her face was also slightly flushed, and it was obvious that she had just come back from exercise.

"Good Morning!" Xia ruofei took the initiative to greet him.

Feng Jing didn't expect Xia ruofei to wake up so early. She was usually dressed as a professional beauty in front of Xia ruofei. This was the first time she was dressed so skimpily, and she couldn't help but feel a little uncomfortable.

"Good ... Good Morning, Chairman!" Feng Jing said with a red face.

Xia ruofei's gaze swept past Feng Rao's hot body and asked with a smile, "Did you exercise?"

"Yup! I went to the hotel's gym to work out for a while. " Feng ke said.

"Then hurry up and take a shower! Otherwise, you'll catch a cold. " Xia ruofei said, "Oh right, I'm about to order breakfast. What do you want to eat?"

Feng Rao's heart warmed. She smiled at Xia ruofei and said, "Anything is fine. I'm not a picky eater. Chairman, you can decide!"

"Alright!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Feng Rao greeted Xia ruofei and hurriedly returned to her room. Yingying's cool outfit made Xia ruofei feel a little uncomfortable.

Xia ruofei ordered two sets of breakfast through the hotel's internal phone.

After a while, the doorbell rang, and two waiters pushed the dining cart to deliver breakfast.

Although Xia ruofei only ordered two portions, the breakfast was very sumptuous and exquisite. It was probably enough for four people with ordinary appetites.

After the waiter served breakfast on the table, he bowed and left.

Soon, Feng Rao came out of the room. She had clearly just finished her bath as her hair was still wet. She had changed into a formal suit and her face was still slightly flushed, making her look even more beautiful.

Xia ruofei smiled and called Feng Jing over to eat.

After enjoying a sumptuous breakfast, Feng Jing said, "Chairman, I'll go down first. The auction starts at 9:30 in the morning. I'll go to the venue to see if there are any problems."

Chapter 1052: The auction begins (2)

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "President Feng, I'll have to trouble you. I'll be an audience member for today's auction. I'll be counting on you!"

"Yeah!" Feng Rao nodded. It's all prepared, so there shouldn't be any problems!"

After speaking, Feng Jing stood up and left the Presidential Suite.

At around 8:30, Ma Zhiming arrived at the Presidential Suite and invited Xia ruofei to the venue below.

Today, Huan Huan still had Summer School, so Tian Huixin brought her to class. MA Xiong and Ma Zhiming, the father and son, would also be attending the auction.

Xia ruofei and Ma Zhiming took the special elevator to the grand banquet hall on the third floor of the hotel.

Xia ruofei realized that the entire banquet hall had been redecorated. The Hengfeng auction house and paradise corporation's s could be seen everywhere. Other than the promotional posters around the venue, there were also number plates prepared for everyone. The s of paradise Corporation and Hengfeng auction house were printed on the sticky notes, paper cups, and other small items used in the venue.

There was a huge spray – painted poster at the back of the stage. The content was the same as Banner's on the auction house's front page. The visual center was also a picture of the best one – headed abalone. Of course, the company's was also printed in the striking spots on the poster.

On both sides of the stage, there were huge projection curtains, on which a carefully edited promotional film was being played simultaneously. This promotional film was also widely circulated on the internet recently.

There were two check – in areas at the entrance of the venue. One was for the media, and the other was for the guests.

Xia ruofei noticed that some reporters had already arrived at the venue. After they had signed in, they would receive a gift bag and a lottery ticket. After the guests signed in, they would also receive a lottery ticket.

Xia ruofei specially went to the media’s reception area to take a look. The gifts in the paper bag were quite thoughtful. There was a sun umbrella, a pair of sunglasses, a box of Tieguanyin tea leaves, a pen, and a small backpack.

All of these small gifts had the of paradise Corporation printed on them. Many reporters could put the gifts directly into their small backpacks after receiving them. As these reporters walked around the venue, the of paradise Corporation was printed on the backpacks they were carrying, so they were quite eye – catching.

Xia ruofei knew that this was most likely Feng Rao’s idea, so he could not help but smile.

The auction had not started yet, but these small details were enough to make Xia ruofei feel more at ease. Feng Rao and the Hengfeng auction house team had indeed put in a lot of effort.

Feng Jing was patrolling the venue. When she saw Xia ruofei and Ma Zhiming, she immediately walked over.

“Chairman, you’re here!” Feng Jing looked at the large thermal box in Xia ruofei’s hands and said, “leave it to me!”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “how can you let a lady do such physical labor?” Just tell me where I should put it.”

“Follow me then, Chairman!” Feng Jing said with a smile.

Feng Jing led Xia ruofei to the center stage. Xia ruofei then noticed that there were two vertical freezers on the stage. They were similar to the freezers in shops. The door was made of transparent glass, but the inside had been modified.

Feng Rao asked Xia ruofei to place the 21 abalones that were either one – headed or above the one – headed abalone standard in the freezer according to their weight, from top to bottom. The few abalones that were slightly lighter were placed in another freezer.

Then, Feng Rao pressed a switch on the side of the refrigerator. The spotlights that had been installed in the refrigerator in advance immediately lit up, and the light just so happened to shine on every single abalone. The quality of the abalones instantly increased by a lot.

The four big Men in Black suits were responsible for guarding the two freezers. The waists of the four men were bulging, obviously carrying weapons. It could be seen that Hengfeng also attached great importance to the safety of the auction items.

After all the abalones were placed, Ma Zhiming led Xia ruofei to the VIP area, while Feng Jing continued to direct the crowd.

There were still 40 to 50 minutes before the auction started, and MA Xiong arrived at the auction hall.

Everyone naturally exchanged pleasantries again.

The seats in the VIP area had their respective names pasted on them. Initially, MA Xiong wanted Xia ruofei to sit in the middle, next to him. However, Xia ruofei wanted to keep a low profile this time, so he declined politely.

Hence, his seat was arranged to be next to Ma Zhiming, in the middle of the third row. This way, Xia ruofei's identity would be highlighted, but at the same time, it would not be too eye – catching.

Otherwise, a young man in his 20s who was on the same level as a billionaire like MA Xiong would definitely cause all kinds of speculations.

The media and reporters would not let go of such news. It would be unrealistic for Xia ruofei to keep a low profile.

As the time for the auction drew closer, reporters from all over the world began to enter the venue.

Xia ruofei noticed that there were quite a lot of reporters here today.

A few famous newspapers, magazines, websites, and TV stations in Hong Kong had all sent their reporters to the auction. Since MA Xiong had come to Hong Kong to greet them personally, there were very few media outlets that didn't buy it. Furthermore, the auction itself was full of gimmicks.

Other than the local media in Hong Kong, Xia ruofei also found reporters from Singapore, Malaysia, and other countries that were mainly Chinese.

Most of the people in these countries were Chinese, and some of them even spoke Chinese as their official languages. Everyone's living habits were similar to that of Chinese people, so the news of the auction of the top – Quality one – Head abalone also received a lot of attention in these countries.

In addition, there were many media from the mainland. Several media outlets from the southeast province, especially from Sanshan city, and several media outlets from the coastal provinces had also come to interview him.

Xia ruofei even saw a reporter from the National television station. Of course, he was a reporter from the National television station in Hong Kong. He did not come from the capital. More than half of his work was to run around various venues. It was naturally impossible for him to appear on a comprehensive channel or news channel for an auction like today.

But even so, Xia ruofei was very surprised.

If the news of the auction could be broadcast on the National television, even if it was on the agriculture channel, the audience would be completely incomparable to the provincial and municipal media.

The guests also arrived at the venue one after another.

MA Xiong started to get busy as well. He kept greeting the guests and introduced some of them to Xia ruofei.

Of course, most of the guests were not qualified to talk to MA Xiong directly. Some of them would chat with Ma Zhiming. After all, there were only a few rich people in Hong Kong who could be compared with MA Xiong.

Other than greeting the guests, Ma Zhiming would also introduce Xia ruofei to the people who were present.

Xia ruofei could not help but be surprised at the second son of Superman li, the daughter of gambling King he, the nephew of King Zheng ... In a short while, Xia ruofei heard many rich names that he had only seen on TV and newspapers before.

Although not all of the top tycoons were attending, most of them sent their nephews and nephews. A few business leaders even flew to Hong Kong from overseas to attend.

Within a short period of time, Xia ruofei had a very direct understanding of MA Xiong's influence in Hong Kong. At the same time, he was more and more confident about the auction today.

Soon, it was 9:30, and the venue was almost full.

Melodious music started playing.

Dressed in a professional suit, Feng Jing walked onto the stage with a microphone in her hand. She had light makeup on and a confident smile on her face, which instantly attracted everyone's attention.

Many of the media reporters immediately aimed their cameras at Feng Jing.

There were many cameras flashing and there were also many billionaires in the audience, but Feng Jing didn't have any stage fright. She smiled and said enthusiastically, "Hello, everyone! I'm the CEO of paradise Corporation, Feng Rao. The top – grade one – headed abalone for this auction is exclusively provided by paradise Corporation. We welcome all our distinguished guests and media friends to attend this auction!"

Chapter 1053: An incomparably successful warm – up (1)

Feng Rao was a very attractive beauty, and everyone who came here was very interested in the top – Quality one – headed abalone, so everyone applauded her.

The rich people sitting in the VIP area also smiled and clapped gently.

With a charming smile on her face, Feng Rao continued, "Before the auction officially begins, we've also arranged a small segment. I believe everyone will like it!"

After speaking, Feng Jing turned to the side and gestured.

Two tall beauties in cheongsam each carried a transparent lucky draw box on the stage and showed it to the audience to confirm that the box was empty.

Feng Jing continued, "all our distinguished guests and media friends have received a ticket before entering the venue. Now, please tear off the secondary ticket. Our Lady will come and collect it."

The reason why they used a transparent lottery box and did not collect the lottery ticket when they signed in was to show that there was no hidden operation during the whole process.

After Feng Rao finished speaking, the two female receptionists walked off the stage. One went to the media area, and the other to the guest area. They began to collect secondary vouchers.

Everyone didn't know the purpose of the Paradise Corporation holding a lucky draw before the auction, but no matter what, they wouldn't lose anything. They might even bring a surprise, so they were very cooperative.

There were about 30 people in the VIP area in the first few rows. They did not get any tickets, so the hostess did not go to the VIP area to collect them.

Very quickly, the two waitresses collected all the secondary vouchers and placed them on the table in the middle of the stage.

Feng Rao smiled and said, "in order to let all the guests and media friends have a more intuitive understanding of the top – grade abalones provided by our paradise Corporation, we will draw 30 lucky people for the next segment. Together with the 30 guests in the VIP area, they will personally taste our paradise brand's top – grade dry abalones!" Next, let's invite the chairman of Hengfeng group, Mr. MA Xiong, to the stage to pick the lucky guest!"

The audience couldn't help but feel a little disappointed when they heard that the prize was only tasting the abalone.

Generally speaking, before the start of an auction, there would be a public display time. Under the condition of ensuring safety, those interested in competing and media reporters would be allowed to come into close contact with the auction item.

They didn't expect that this unknown paradise Corporation would actually use such a normal segment as a reward. Could it be that those who didn't get it didn't even have the chance to see the abalones up close? You don't even let people see it and you want people to spend money to bid for it? How could there be such a good thing?

They couldn't help but curl their lips when they saw Feng Rao asking the highly respected MA Xiong to draw the lucky guests.

Some of the rich people and some of the media in Hong Kong looked down on the mainland. Many people were waiting to see the small domestic company that had recently attracted a lot of attention.

MA Xiong was the main reason why so many people and media outlets were present at the auction this time.

It was obvious that Feng Rao had informed MA Xiong about this beforehand, so MA Xiong immediately stood up with a smile and bowed slightly to the VIP area. Then, he walked up to the stage.

“Chairman MA, please draw 15 vouchers from each of the two lottery boxes!” Feng Rao said with a smile.

“Alright!” MA Xiong said with a bright smile.

Then, he walked directly to one of the waitresses. The lucky draw box in the hostess ‘hand was filled with the guest’s lottery tickets.

MA Xiong reached his hand into the lottery box, stirred it, and drew the first ticket.

He gave it to Feng Jing after a quick glance.

Feng Rao showed the ticket to the camera, and the camera immediately captured the number on the ticket. Everyone could see it clearly on the big screen.

“Congratulations to the guest with lottery ticket number 0213! You’re the first lucky person!” Feng Jing said with a smile.

The people in the audience also clapped in cooperation, but the applause wasn’t very enthusiastic. It was obvious that many people didn’t care about the opportunity to “taste” the top – Quality abalone.

However, Feng Rao didn’t mind and continued to host the event with a confident smile.

Soon, MA Xiong had drawn 30 vouchers, 15 for the guests and 15 for the media.

The big screen on the side of the stage was connected to the computer, and all thirty numbers were displayed on the screen, so everyone could see them at a glance.

“Thank you, Chairman MA. Please go back to your seat and rest!” Feng Rao said with a smile.

MA Xiong smiled and nodded. He walked down the stage and returned to his seat. The two female assistants also walked down from the sides of the stage.

Feng Rao waved to the people behind her.

Melodious music started playing, and a few people in white chef’s uniforms pushed a moving stove onto the stage.

There were two stainless steel steaming pots on the moving stove, and a chef wearing a tall chef’s hat was looking after the two steaming pots.

This chef was the head chef of Jiahua restaurant that MA Xiong had invited Xia ruofei to dinner last night. He was a Michelin star chef, Liu fuwang, and his specialty was cooking seafood.

While everyone was still confused, Xia ruofei moved and immediately looked at the vertical freezer at a striking position on the stage.

Chapter 1054: An incomparably successful warm – up (2)

Just as he had guessed, two abalones were missing from one of the freezers, and the abalones in this one were all ten to twenty grams short of the standard of a one – headed abalone.

Although Xia ruofei did not listen to any reports regarding the arrangements of the auction, he had worked with Feng Jing for a long time and had a good understanding of each other. Hence, he could guess Feng Jing's intentions almost immediately.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but praise Feng Jing's idea and looked at her with admiration.

Feng Jing happened to look at Xia ruofei at this moment. Their eyes met and they smiled at each other.

When the guests and reporters below the stage saw the moving stove being pushed up, they couldn't help but discuss it.

At this time, Feng Rao smiled and said, "in order to let everyone have a direct understanding of the top – grade abalones for today's auction, our paradise Corporation has specially prepared two top – grade abalones. We have invited the Michelin star chef, Mr. Liu fuwang, to personally cook them. In a while, everyone seated in the VIP area, as well as the 30 lucky guests, will personally taste the top – grade abalones personally prepared by Chef Liu!"

With a boom, it was as if the audience had exploded. Everyone suddenly revealed an expression of surprise and then began to discuss.

Even the wealthy people in the VIP area had a strange expression on their faces, feeling that it was a little unbelievable.

Each of the guests and media reporters received an introduction booklet. They knew very well that although some of the abalones put up for auction today had not yet reached the standard of a one – headed abalone, they were actually very close to it. They were definitely much bigger than the typical two – headed abalone.

Even if the top – Quality abalones, which were only 10 to 20 grams short of the standard of a one – headed abalone, were taken out for everyone to taste, they would still be worth a lot.

As the saying goes, it's hard to buy two – headed abalones with a thousand pieces of gold, not to mention that these were basically one – headed abalones.

"This paradise Corporation is really going all out!"

"I didn't expect this mainland company to be so bold!"

"Did any of you win the prize just now? My number is only missing one character ..."

Everyone was talking animatedly, and the 30 people who had won the lottery were all overjoyed. They had been nonchalant just now, but now they were both surprised and happy.

This was especially true for the media reporters. Their entire fortune might not even be enough to buy such an abalone at today's auction, but because they won the lottery, they actually had the opportunity to taste the legendary one – headed abalone!

Moreover, with such a gimmick, it would be easy to write a draft when he went back!

Those 15 lucky reporters could definitely write a very convincing article. After all, they had personally tasted this precious auction item!

Some of the reporters couldn't help but stand up and ask, ""Miss Feng, are you sure the abalones cooked in the steamer are the same as the ones being auctioned later?"

"Of course," Feng Rao replied without hesitation. Every single one of our items for today's auction has a serial number and a record of their weight. We've even taken a photo for safekeeping. The two abalones that have already been cooked are still packaged. When they're ready to be cooked, you can send a representative to verify them with the photo in the brochure!"

Feng Jing paused for a moment before she continued, ""Of course, the two abalones we're using are the lightest of all the items for today's auction. However, they're still more than 500 grams each, far exceeding the standard of a two – headed abalone!"

After Feng Jing finished speaking, the reporter immediately asked, ""Then, are the abalones that are slightly below the standard and the abalones that exceed the standard of a one – Head abalone of the same quality?"

"All the abalones are raised in the same batch and are from the same place!" Feng Rao smiled and said, "but there are also tall and short brothers and sisters. We can't guarantee that every abalone is the same, right? However, I can tell everyone responsibly that their quality is definitely the same, and there won't be any major fluctuations!"

"Miss Feng, may I know ..." Another reporter stood up.

"I'm sorry, we'll arrange a Q & A session for the media after the auction. " Feng Rao smiled and said, "I can't answer everyone's questions now! I believe that after everyone has tasted it personally, they will definitely have an intuitive understanding of our paradise corporation's abalone! This is much better than what I said. "

Feng Jing's words drew friendly laughter from the audience.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile. It seemed that Feng Jing knew that if she didn't stop these reporters from asking questions, they would continue to ask questions and the entire venue would be in chaos.

After all, Feng Jing had seen a lot of things. Xia ruofei was not worried about her ability to control the situation.

Soon, Liu fuwang nodded at Feng Ye, indicating that the abalones were ready.

Hence, Feng Jing followed her promise and randomly picked a few guests and reporters to come on stage to check the abalones.

In fact, when everyone saw the huge size of the abalone that Liu fuwang took out, they already believed in Qianqian. Besides, it was impossible for the Paradise Corporation to cheat in such a situation. Wouldn't that be ruining their own reputation?

However, the representatives still looked at the abalones carefully and noted down the serial number on the packaging. They checked the photos through the brochure and finally confirmed that these were indeed the two abalones in today's auction.

Many of the people below the stage could no longer sit still. They all excitedly stretched their necks.

The 30 lucky ones were even more excited. They sat in their seats with anticipation and looked at the top – grade abalones on the stage.

Liu fuwang started to process the steamed abalone. He was going to make abalone with chicken sauce.

Liu fuwang was very familiar with the process. He had prepared all the seasonings beforehand and had a few assistants to help him. Soon, the two abalones were ready.

The fragrance of the top – grade abalone began to spread throughout the venue. Everyone couldn't help but inhale, their hearts filled with anticipation.

Liu fuwang picked up the knife and started to cut the abalone. The assistants kept passing him small plates. Liu fuwang moved the knife quickly. Soon, the huge abalone was cut into thin slices and placed on the plate. Then, he poured a spoonful of soup on it.

Plates were already placed on the table beside them. Every time a set was prepared, the assistants would take it and place it on the plate neatly.

Liu fuwang was very fast. In a short while, he had divided the abalone into 60 equal portions.

There were at least seven to eight pieces of abalones on each plate, which showed how big the two abalones were.

After all the abalones were cut up, the ceremonial ladies began to line up, each holding a plate, and walked down the stage to the VIP area to begin distributing.

There were also six ceremonial ladies standing on both sides of the stage, also holding plates in their hands.

Feng Rao picked up the microphone and said with a smile, "Now, let's invite the guests and media friends who won the prizes earlier to come up and collect the abalones with their tickets!"

The winners who couldn't wait any longer immediately stood up from their seats and walked up with their tickets under everyone's envious eyes.

On one side was the reception area for media reporters, and on the other side was the reception area for guests.

There were staff members on both sides who were in charge of verifying the vouchers and distributing the small plates with the top – Quality abalones.

In a short while, all sixty abalones were distributed.

Without Feng Jing's words, the rich and ordinary guests in the VIP area, as well as the 15 reporters who had won the lottery, all eagerly picked up their chopsticks and began to taste the precious abalones.

As soon as he chewed, the chewy texture and fresh fragrance bloomed in his mouth. It was as if every taste bud cell was cheering for joy.

"It's too delicious!" An ordinary guest couldn't help but exclaim, "this is what a real abalone is!"

“The taste is so special!”

“I can’t believe I got to taste the top – grade one – headed abalone. My life is really worth it ...”

The guests and reporters who had tasted the abalone couldn’t help but praise it. One of the guests even said loudly, “I just wanted to join in the fun, but I didn’t expect this abalone to be beyond my imagination. I must bid for one today and let my wife and children have a good taste!”

For a time, the sound of praise rang out from every corner of the venue.

Chapter 1055: selling like crazy_1

The 30 people who won the lottery were scattered in all corners of the venue. The delicious smell of the abalone also spread in the venue. Those who didn’t win the lottery looked enviously at the other winners who were tasting the top – Quality abalones.

Even the rich people in the VIP area nodded their heads after tasting the abalone and whispered to the people next to them.

From their expressions, it was clear that these billionaires were also very tempted by the top – grade abalones provided by the Paradise Corporation.

Not to mention that almost all of the abalones had reached the standard of top – Quality one – headed abalones, the quality of the abalones itself surprised the rich people. It was completely beyond their imagination.

The meat of the abalone was very tender, chewy, and chewy. It was quite fresh and delicious. Under the cooking of a Michelin star chef, not only did it not have the slightest fishy smell, but it also had a special fragrance, which left a deep impression on everyone who had tasted it today. 1

In fact, it was not that Chef Liu’s cooking skills were superb, but that the abalones grew in the spirit map space and absorbed the rich spirit Qi in the space all day long. The seawater in the space was countless times purer than the ocean environment outside, so the meat was very pure. Even if an ordinary chef cooked it, there would not be too much of a fishy smell.

Of course, regardless of whether everyone thought that Chef Liu’s skills were good or that the abalones from paradise Corporation were of superb quality, Feng Jing’s warm – up event was a hit.

The atmosphere of the entire venue became lively all of a sudden. The guests who were already interested in competing were all eager to try. Many rich people in the VIP area also showed an interested expression.

There weren’t many abalones on each plate. Seeing that everyone was almost done eating, Feng Rao smiled and said, “I believe that everyone has a very direct understanding of the top – grade abalone that our paradise Corporation is auctioning today. Let's cut the chit – chat and go straight to the auction!"

Feng Rao made an inviting gesture and said with a smile, "I'll hand the stage over to the Hengfeng auction house's chief auctioneer, Mr. Lu zhongguang! Everyone, please give him a round of applause!"

The audience immediately burst into a round of warm applause.

Lu zhongguang was quite well – known in Hong Kong, especially in the auction industry. He was the chief auctioneer of Hengfeng auction house and one of the executive directors of Hengfeng auction house. Usually, he would only host very important auctions. This detail also reflected the importance of the Hengfeng group to this auction.

Lu zhongguang was dressed in a black suit with a festive red tie. He had hair oil on his head, and his hair was combed back meticulously. He was also wearing shiny black leather shoes. He walked with light steps, almost as if he was jogging to the center of the stage.

Lu zhongguang first bowed slightly to Feng Jing, then picked up the microphone and said, "Ladies and gentlemen! Welcome to Hengfeng group and paradise corporation's joint abalone auction. I'm today's auctioneer, Lu zhongguang!"

"As the saying goes, it's hard to buy a two – headed abalone with money. As we all know, it's very difficult to raise an abalone to the standard of a two – headed abalone, and the risk is very high. So, big abalones of this standard have always been very rare. It can be said that it's hard to find even with money. Some people even regard two – headed abalones as family treasures!" Lu zhongguang said in his very unique and magnetic voice, "two – headed abalone is so rare, let alone one – headed abalone. Most of the top – Quality abalones we are auctioning today are over the standard of a one – Head abalone. It is unprecedented to auction so many one – Head abalones at once in the history of Hong Kong!"

At this point, Lu zhongguang's voice began to increase in volume, and his voice was full of appeal. "This is a once – in – a – lifetime opportunity. Friends who love this, please don't miss this rare opportunity. Perhaps your hesitation today will cause you to regret it in the future ..."

Lu zhongguang picked up the auction mallet and knocked on it. He smiled and said, "Now that everyone has a deep and direct understanding of the top – grade abalones we're auctioning today, let's get to the main topic!"

"The first batch of abalones to be auctioned is three in total!" Lu zhongguang held a cue card in his hand and said, "these three abalones are the same as the two abalones we shared just now. They are all a dozen grams away from reaching the standard of a one – headed abalone. If we measure them by the standard of a two – headed abalone, they are far beyond the standard!"

"The three abalones weigh 599 grams, 592 grams, and 589 grams respectively!" Lu zhongguang said after looking at the prompt card.

When the guests and reporters below the stage heard this number, they couldn't help but exclaim in surprise. Some people also made a sound of pity.

The standard for one – headed abalone and two – headed abalone was measured by several abalones that weighed one Sima Jin. If an abalone weighed more than one Sima Jin, it was undoubtedly a one – headed abalone. Two – headed abalone was two abalones that weighed more than one Sima Jin. In other words, an abalone that weighed more than half Sima Jin and less than one Sima Jin was a two – headed abalone.

The unit of measurement for Sima Jin is much heavier than our usual Jin. One Jin is 500 grams, and one Sima Jin is about 604.79 grams.

Chapter 1056: selling like crazy_2

In other words, the standard for a two – headed abalone was that the weight of a single abalone reached or exceeded 302.4 grams.

The weight of the three abalones was very close to 600 grams. The heaviest one was only five grams away from one Sima Jin, which was no different from an abalone. The other two were also very close.

However, because of the difference of a few grams to a dozen grams, strictly speaking, it could only be regarded as a super large two – headed abalone, which was much less valuable.

Lu zhongguang smiled and announced, “the three abalones will be auctioned in one batch. The top three bidders will get the item. The highest bidder will get the heaviest one, and so on!” Of course, if you really like these three abalones, you can also bid multiple times. If your bids are all in the top three, then congratulations, you will be able to win all three abalones!”

“I believe everyone is clear about the rules of the first auction. Let’s start the auction!” Lu zhongguang said, “the first batch of three abalones has a starting price of 800000 Hong Kong dollars. Each increment must not be less than 10000 Hong Kong dollars. Please make your bids!”

“The gentleman in number 214 has bid 820000 Hong Kong dollars!”

“The gentleman in number 186 has bid 830000 Hong Kong dollars!”

“Ms. Chen from the VIP area has made two bids, 880000 and 900000 respectively! It seemed that Ms. Chen was also very interested in this batch of top – grade abalones! Are there any higher bids?”

“The lady in number 39 has bid 910000 Hong Kong dollars! Your vision is too good! Guests, this is a rare opportunity, so don’t hesitate!”

As soon as the auction began, everyone was very enthusiastic about bidding. Lu zhongguang’s gentle temperament had also changed. His tone was full of passion and his voice was very high, even a little hoarse.

He was an experienced auctioneer and knew how to mobilize everyone’s emotions and stimulate everyone’s desire to bid.

Of course, he didn’t actually need to deliberately stir up the mood. The guests were still quite enthusiastic in bidding.

Because most people were not rich, there were many middle – Class or slightly rich families, as well as some seafood restaurant owners and seafood store owners who heard the news.

These people had limited financial resources. They knew very well that the three abalones were auctioned based on the market price of two – headed abalones. In fact, their quality and weight were very close to that of one – headed abalones, so the price – Performance ratio was very high.

In addition, more than a dozen super – rich people had come today. The poorest of the 30 people in the VIP area had a net worth of more than one or two billion. Once the rich people in the VIP area bid for the one – Head abalone, it was basically impossible for the people from the ordinary areas to compete with them.

And as the auction progressed, the price would definitely get higher and higher.

As the number of one – headed abalones decreased, their weight also increased, so the price would inevitably rise.

Hence, many of the guests in the normal server wanted to grab the opportunity before them.

However, when most people had such thoughts, the price was destined to not be too low.

Very soon, the highest price had broken through one million HKD, and the third – highest price had reached 960000.

Everyone’s enthusiasm was still very high because even a million Hong Kong dollars was still quite cost – effective.

Without Lu zhongguang’s encouragement, the top three prices broke through one million Hong Kong dollars very quickly. The highest price even reached 1.2 million Hong Kong dollars.

Only then did the frequency of bidding gradually slow down. Lu zhongguang could finally catch his breath. He had been talking at a very high frequency just now. Sometimes, the bidding was so fast that he didn’t even have time to bid. Soon, new bids would appear, which was a bit too much for an experienced auctioneer like him to take in.

Lu zhongguang was also secretly amazed, ‘this is crazy!

Of course, Lu zhongguang knew very well that this madness was only an appetizer. The real feast was the one – headed abalone auction later, especially the three heaviest one – headed abalones, which would probably be auctioned for a sky – High price!

In the end, the three extra – large two – headed abalones were sold for 1.89 million, 1.87 million, and 1.86 million Hong Kong dollars respectively.

The three abalones were filmed by the owner of a good advertising company and the owner of two seafood restaurants.

The three people who won the bid were still very happy to buy an abalone at such a high price. The people around them were also very envious. Some people even secretly regretted that they didn’t clench their teeth and bid again.

Ms. Chen in the VIP area gave up on bidding for 1.5 million Hong Kong dollars. In fact, she did not want to participate in the auction because the real target of the rich people in the VIP area was the one – headed abalone at the back.

Lu zhongguang's back was already drenched in sweat. His shirt was sticky to the touch, but he was in high spirits.

"Congratulations to the three of you!" Lu zhongguang said, "I also want to thank everyone for bringing a good start to the auction! Let's start the auction for the one – headed abalone!"

Lu zhongguang looked at the prompt card in his hand and said, "There are a total of 21 top – Quality one – headed abalones in this auction, and their weights range from 610 to 650 grams! Let's start with the first one! Its weight was 611.5 grams! The starting price was 1.5 million Hong Kong dollars! Every bid must be at least 30000 Hong Kong dollars! Please place your bids!"

Although this one – headed abalone was only a dozen grams heavier than the two – headed abalone that had just been auctioned, the starting price was almost double.

Chapter 1057: selling like crazy (3)

No one thought that there was anything wrong with this. The weight of a dozen grams was actually a dividing line. Two – headed abalone and one – headed abalone were completely different in meaning and their preciousness could not be compared.

1.55 million Hong Kong dollars!"

1.58 million Hong Kong dollars!"

"1.61 million!"

As soon as Lu zhongguang's voice fell, people started to bid.

The auction of the Super – Large two – headed abalone had stirred up everyone's mood. There were many owners of seafood stores in the normal area. They had been waiting and watching, but now they were full of hope that they could bid for a one – headed abalone as the treasure of their store.

There were also many old customers from well – to – do families who drooled at the sight of the one – headed abalone on the stage and placed their bids one after another.

The abalones that were to be auctioned later on would be more and more valuable, and the prices would definitely be more and more expensive. Therefore, many people wanted to take advantage of the opportunity now to fight for it. After all, the rich people in the VIP area had not participated in the large – scale competition yet.

When the 630 – gram and even 650 – gram abalones started to be auctioned, it was obvious that it would be a wealth game for the rich people in the VIP area. It had nothing to do with them.

As such, everyone's enthusiasm for the one – headed abalone did not diminish at all. In fact, it was even more intense than the bidding for the Super large two – headed abalone.

In a short while, everyone's bid had exceeded two million Hong Kong dollars, and the price was still rising rapidly.

"2.3 million Hong Kong dollars!"

"2.33 million!"

"2.4 million Hong Kong dollars!"

.....

In the end, the one – headed abalone was sold at a high price of 2.83 million Hong Kong dollars. The successful bidder was still the owner of a seafood company in the normal District. When the hammer finally fell, the owner heaved a long sigh of relief.

The momentum of the price increase was somewhat unexpected to him. Fortunately, he had been gritting his teeth and bidding, and he did not hesitate to increase the price, showing his determination to win.

Of course, the key was that the rich in the VIP area had not bid much. Even if there were bids, they did not fight to the death. They often shrugged and gave up after one or two rounds.

That was why he managed to get a one – headed abalone without any danger.

This time, he had the shop's treasure! The boss said happily in his heart as he cupped his hands to express his gratitude to the people who congratulated him.

The auction had just begun, but the Paradise Corporation had already earned 8.45 million Hong Kong dollars. There were still 17 top – grade one – headed abalones waiting to be auctioned off. It was easy to imagine that the subsequent prices would definitely not be lower than the bid price of the first one – headed abalone.

This mainland company was going to earn tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of Hong Kong dollars in this auction! Many people did some mental calculations and couldn't help but exclaim.

Many people turned to look at Feng Jing with envious eyes, and many media reporters also aimed their cameras at this Beautiful CEO.

The auction had only just started, but it was already a success. Feng Jing would definitely be the focus of all the media in Hong Kong the next day.

However, no one knew that the boss of the Paradise Corporation, who had really made a lot of money, was sitting in the audience happily. Xia ruofei was also counting how much money he could make this time!

The auction was still going on. There was almost no rest in the middle. The hostess brought out the second one – headed abalone and showed it around the stage before placing it on the display stand in the center of the stage.

“Next, we’ll start the auction for the second one – headed abalone. This abalone weighs 615.4 grams. The starting price is still 1.5 million Hong Kong dollars, and each bid must be at least 30000 Hong Kong dollars higher!” Lu zhongguang said with a smile. His voice was already a little hoarse. “Everyone, please make your bids!”

Chapter 1058: The final auction item (1)

Ma Zhiming, who was sitting beside Xia ruofei, could not help but turn his head and look at him with envy.

Ma Zhiming wasn’t that envious of paradise corporation’s profits this time. Tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of funds were nothing in the eyes of a wealthy family like him. He was only envious of Xia ruofei’s company, which had only been established for a little more than a year. Moreover, the team was so young, but they could achieve such dazzling results.

Ma Zhiming had also inherited MA Xiong’s business acumen. He had slowly begun to take control of his family’s business empire. A few years ago, Ma Zhiming had used the funds given to him by MA Xiong to start a company, and the profits had been very good.

However, no matter what kind of achievements he made, it was inevitable that he would be labeled as MA Xiong. Others were more envious of his good life, outstanding reincarnation skills, and a good father, but they often ignored the efforts he had put in.

This situation was similar to that of young master Wang in the mainland.

Hence, Ma Zhiming was especially envious of young people like Xia ruofei who started from scratch and built their own business Kingdom from scratch.

Xia ruofei sat below the stage and looked at Feng Jing, who was standing by the side of the stage. She had a faint smile on her face and exuded a strong sense of confidence. Feng Rao seemed to have felt something and looked at Xia ruofei. The two of them smiled at the same time.

At this time, the auction for the second top – Quality one – headed abalone had already begun. This abalone weighed about 613 grams, and the bidding was also quite enthusiastic.

In the end, the abalone was sold at a price of 2.92 million Hong Kong dollars. It was also won by a bidder from the normal District, who was a glutton from a well – off family.

The auction went on quite smoothly.

Starting from the third one – headed abalone, the final price had already exceeded 3 million Hong Kong dollars.

In the audience, Xia ruofei couldn't help but be stunned. He had a small agreement with Tang He. That was, if the transaction price exceeded 3 million Huaxia dollars, the sales of the abalones produced by paradise Corporation in North America would be entrusted to shengbang Corporation.

It seemed that he had lost the bet.

3 million Hong Kong dollars and 3 million Chinese dollars were basically the same value. There were still 15 abalones waiting to be auctioned, and their weight was gradually increasing. It would be too easy for them to exceed 3 million Chinese dollars.

Of course, Xia ruofei would not be dejected even if he lost the bet.

With the strength of shengbang group, and the cooperation area was the headquarters of shengbang group, the Paradise company would not suffer a loss no matter what.

Xia ruofei's principle was that, with the exception of Paradise Farm, the company's shares must not be further diluted. Furthermore, he had no plans to go public in the future. He wanted to have 100% control over the company.

Xia ruofei would not mind working with other companies during the company's development.

The auction was live – streamed on the Internet. Xia ruofei didn't know if Tang He was watching it on the computer. If he was, the old man should be very proud now. Xia ruofei thought to himself.

The abalones were being auctioned off one after another.

Everyone's bidding enthusiasm was always high, and the final price kept rising until it was around 3.9 million Hong Kong dollars.

The first 18 top – Quality one – headed abalones were sold out very quickly. In the end, the average price of each abalone was about 3.6 million Hong Kong dollars. In addition to the three extra large two – headed abalones that were used to warm up the auction, the total transaction price was about 70 million Hong Kong dollars. This had far exceeded Xia ruofei's expectations.

In fact, when an abalone weighed more than 620 grams, the rich people in the VIP area would compete with each other. The last two abalones weighed more than 630 grams, and their prices exceeded 4 million Hong Kong dollars. That was why the average price of the first 18 abalones was raised to about 3.6 million Hong Kong dollars.

There were only three top – grade one – Head abalones left in the auction. They were the heaviest and of the highest quality among the items.

More than half of the rich people in the VIP area didn't bid at all, and there were only a dozen people who bid for the abalone.

These were all billionaires, so everyone's target was actually concentrated on the final auction item. It was conceivable that the competition for these three abalones would be quite fierce, especially the last one, the “abalone King” that weighed 653.2 grams. It was estimated that it would set off a “bloody storm”.

Everyone was filled with anticipation, waiting for this exciting moment.

Even the eyes of many rich people in the VIP area were filled with eagerness.

Lu zhongguang’s voice also became more excited. He said loudly, “Ladies and gentlemen! The next item up for auction is our final item! The final three abalones all weighed more than 635 grams, far exceeding the standard weight of a one – headed abalone! It’ll be difficult to buy such high – Quality abalones in the future if you miss them!”

There were three trays on the stage in the middle of the stage, all covered with red silk. Lu zhongguang pulled the red silk off the tray on the left, revealing a huge abalone.

“Let’s cut to the chase. Let’s start the auction for the first Finale abalone!” Lu zhongguang did not even need to look at the cue card. He already knew the situation of the three abalones. “This abalone weighs 638.8 grams. The starting price is 3 million Hong Kong dollars. Each bid must be at least 100000 Hong Kong dollars!”

As soon as Lu zhongguang finished speaking, someone in the VIP area immediately raised his sign.

“3.5 million!” A middle – aged man with a balding head raised his sign and shouted.

Chapter 1059: The final auction item (2)

“Mr. Dong from Jialin industry bids 3.5 million!” Lu zhongguang said immediately.

As soon as Lu zhongguang finished speaking, a new bid was immediately refreshed.

“3.6 million Hong Kong dollars!”

“3.8 million!”

” 4 million Hong Kong dollars!”

After three consecutive bids, the price of the abalone soared to 4 million Hong Kong dollars in an instant.

This was actually very normal. Two of the abalones that had been auctioned earlier were more than 630 grams, and the final price was over 4 million Hong Kong dollars.

This was the final abalone that weighed almost 640 grams. Besides, there were a lot of rich people in the audience who didn’t lack money. These people were too lazy to raise the price by 100000 Yuan, because the final price would definitely not be lower than 4 million Yuan. Everyone knew this very well.

There was only one or two seconds of difference between the three bids, so Lu zhongguang only had time to make his last bid.””Mr. Li from Changjiang group has bid 4 million Hong Kong dollars! Are there any higher bids?”

The guests in the audience couldn’t help but look at Jian Jia. Even the son of Superman li couldn’t help but make a move. The charm of this abalone was really great!

However, even if he was the son of Superman li, it was impossible to stop the enthusiasm of others to bid. Which one of the guests in the VIP area was not in the billions?

Therefore, the price was refreshed very quickly.

“Hahaha! I bid 4.1 million Hong Kong dollars!” A rough – looking man in his thirties grinned and raised his sign.

“Alright, Mr. Zheng from Xinyu Group offers 4.1 million Hong Kong dollars!” Lu zhongguang said excitedly.

This Mr. Zheng’s name was Zheng zhilun, the nephew of Zheng qitong, the founder of Xinyu group. In terms of status, he was comparable to Li Kai, the son of Superman li, and Ma Zhiming. Whether it was in terms of wealth or influence, he was among the top of the second generation of rich people in Hong Kong.

“Then I’ll join in the fun!” A lazy voice rang out,”4.3 million Hong Kong dollars!”

It was a mature woman in an expensive evening dress. The corners of her mouth curled up slightly, revealing a faint smile.

Seeing this, Lu zhongguang was even more delighted and quickly said,””Ms. He from the xinhao group has bid 4.3 million Hong Kong dollars! The competition for this abalone was very fierce! Guests who are interested in bidding, please hurry up and bid!”

This Ms. He’s full name was he Xinyi, and her father was the famous gambling king of Hong Kong.

Among the guests attending tonight’s auction, Li Kai, Zheng zhilun, and he Xinyi were undoubtedly the three with the highest net worth. Now that these three people could not help but participate in the bidding, it would be difficult for the price to drop.

When Zheng zhilun saw he Xinyi make a move, he immediately shrugged and said,””lady first! Since miss he likes it, I’ll give up. There should be more chances in the future ...”

He Xinyi immediately bowed slightly to Zheng zhilun and said,””Then I’ll have to thank you, young master Zheng!”

After she finished speaking, he Xinyi turned her gaze to Li Kai, who was also sitting in the first row.

“I really admire Mr. Zheng’s demeanor, but I think you’ve used it in the wrong way!” Li Kai smiled. Since everyone was here to bid, when they encountered something they liked, they naturally wouldn’t give in an inch! If everyone was like Mr. Zheng, I think the Hengfeng auction house would be very depressed ...”

Everyone burst out in laughter.

What Li Kai said was true. The auction house naturally hoped that the competition would be as intense as possible. If everyone was as flamboyant as Zheng zhilun, how could they be auctioned off at a high price?

Zheng zhilun was a little embarrassed, but he still maintained a good demeanor. He only smiled slightly, then spread his hands, and did not say anything to refute.

“4.5 million Hong Kong dollars!” Li Kai said indifferently.

He Xinyi’s eyes flashed with a hint of displeasure. She didn’t expect Li Kai to not give her any face at all. He even increased the price by 200000 in one go. It was obvious that he was determined to win.

The abalones that had been auctioned earlier were definitely considered high – Quality items under normal circumstances. However, with these three as the highlight of the auction, they were not worthy of he Xinyi’s attention.

That was why he Xinyi had not bid until the 638 – gram abalone was up for auction.

She knew that the competition for the last three abalones would be getting fiercer and fiercer. It would be best to get one as soon as possible, otherwise, she might really return empty – handed today.

Now, Li Kai clearly had the same thoughts.

There was no way to use any tricks, so he Xinyi was pretty free and easy. She only thought for a moment, then raised her board and said, “4.9 million! Mr. Lee, if you’re willing to pay more than 5 million Hong Kong dollars, then I’ll have to part with it ...”

The money of the rich did not come from the wind. On the contrary, the children of these business bigwigs had been in the business world for many years and had been exposed to such things since they were young. They had always maintained a rational attitude towards money. No matter how good the abalone was, they would not madly increase the price in a moment of impulse. Even if they increased the price by 10 million Hong Kong dollars, it would not hurt them. But they would not do that.

He Xinyi raised the bid by 400000 Hong Kong dollars in one go. Her attitude was quite clear. This was her last bid and the highest price she had in mind. If Li Kai continued to raise the bid, she would give up.

When Li Kai heard this, he smiled at he Xinyi and said, “Then I’ll thank you, miss he!”

Li Kai raised his board without hesitation and said loudly, “5 million Hong Kong dollars!”

This was the first time that the bid had exceeded the five million mark in today’s auction. The guests below the stage couldn’t help but discuss excitedly. The reporters were even more excited. Some were busy taking photos, while others were directly typing quickly on their laptops.

Chapter 1060: The final auction item (3)

There were too many gimmicks for today's auction, and the points written were very rich. It was estimated that once the auction ended, many reporters would have finished their special articles.

"Alright!" Lu zhongguang immediately replied. Mr. Li from Chang Jiang group has bid 5 million! Are there any higher bids?"

When Lu zhongguang spoke, his eyes were directly on he Xinyi.

Because in the end, it was only he Xinyi and Li Kai who were competing. Some of the others did not have the financial resources, and some did not want to offend these two famous rich second generation, so they all withdrew from the competition early on.

The gambling king's daughter had the style of her father. She shrugged her shoulders and said, "I give up!"

"The current price is 5 million Hong Kong dollars! Is there anyone else who wants to bid?" Lu zhongguang asked.

" 5 million going once!"

" 5 million going twice!"

" 5 million going thrice! Deal!"

With a 'Dong', the auction gavel fell and the first Finale, the abalone, was taken by Li Kai at a price of 5 million Hong Kong dollars.

Lu zhongguang did not deliberately delay the time when he was counting down. The interval between the three counts was not very long, and then he simply dropped the gavel.

The hall was filled with warm applause. Li Kai also stood up and bowed slightly in a few directions, his face revealing a trace of joy.

This time, he didn't come in vain!

He Xinyi also smiled at Li Kai, looking very gentlemanly.

Lu zhongguang had a good grasp of the auction's rhythm. After the applause gradually died down, he immediately began the auction of the second finale abalone. This abalone weighed 640.3 grams, which was a little heavier than the abalone that was sold for 5 million.

What price would the abalone be sold for? Everyone was filled with anticipation.

The starting price was still three million Hong Kong dollars.

As soon as the auction started, the rich people in the VIP area started to bid.

This time, he Xinyi still participated in the bidding. However, after Li Kai got the one-headed abalone as he wished, he didn't have any intention of bidding again. Just now, he didn't give in at all. At least, he had bid before he Xinyi. If he came out again this time, he wouldn't be giving them any face. Basically, he would have to shed all pretenses of cordiality.

These rich young masters and young mistresses all had high emotional intelligence. Li Kai would not do something like this that would offend people for no reason.

Zheng zhilun was a little embarrassed. He had already said that he would give it to he Xinyi, but he did not expect that he Xinyi would not be able to snatch Li Kai's prize. Moreover, she immediately participated in the bidding in the second round.

Since he had already said it, Zheng zhilun was too embarrassed to fight with he Xinyi again. So, he did not even bid symbolically and just sat in his seat, feeling depressed.

Of course, without Li Kai and Zheng zhilun, the competition was not low at all.

Because there were many rich people in the VIP area, most of them hadn't bought the top – Quality abalones yet. Seeing that there were only two left, they also started to bid.

Therefore, the price of the abalone also soared and soon reached 4.8 million Hong Kong dollars.

After a few rounds of bidding, the price easily exceeded 5 million Hong Kong dollars.

In the end, it was he Xinyi who won the bid for the abalone with an auspicious number of 5.2 million. Although she had said that her ideal price in the previous round was 4.8 million, this abalone was a little heavier than the previous one. It had even exceeded 640 grams. In addition, the competition had become much fiercer.

As such, he Xinyi had also raised the price in her heart slightly, and in the end, she had also successfully bought the abalone.

In the blink of an eye, Xia ruofei had earned another 10.2 million Hong Kong dollars. The total transaction price today had also exceeded 80 million Hong Kong dollars.

At this moment, there was only one super large abalone left on the stage. It weighed 653.2 grams, much higher than the previous items. It could be said to be the well – deserved “King of abalones.”

What would the price of this abalone be? Everyone turned their attention to the only tray on the stage that was still covered with red silk.
