Chapter 2021 Sniping_1

The doctors of the Gelman family hurriedly woke old Gelman up.

The first thing he said when he woke up was, convey my orders. No one is to return to the manor. Immediately organize your own men and counterattack! We must defeat the Chinese!

Yes! A subordinate quickly went to convey old Gelman's latest order.

Wait! Old Gelman stopped him and said, this must be the Chinese's doing! The biggest threat was that mysterious killer! Immediately give the order to not let everyone's hands go out! Hide a few of the best marksmen near the important figures of our family, and then distribute the killer's appearance. As long as you find his whereabouts, immediately kill him from a distance!

Yes! The subordinate hurriedly went to convey the instructions.

Xia ruofei's series of assassinations had indeed thrown old ghelman into confusion. However, he was an old fox, after all, and he quickly grasped the key to the problem.

It was obvious that the killer hiding in the dark, who specialized in killing the core members of the Gelman family, was the biggest threat.

Every time Xia ruofei made a move, he would only target a few pre – determined targets. He did not kill the innocent people around his targets, so old Geerman was able to obtain a lot of information.

His first judgment was that the killer only killed the most important people of the Gehrman family. In addition, the killer's skills were simply unfathomable. Even under the protection of layers of bodyguards, the killer could still enter no man's land. The tactic of using a sea of people alone could not do anything to him. Only long – distance sniping could work.

Old ghelman did not believe that even a large – caliber sniper rifle bullet could not kill this killer.

As long as he could get rid of this despicable assassin, even though the trouble caused by the Hong sect was not small, he could still deal with it. If it really couldn't be dealt with, he could still ask the glory society for help.

After old Gelman gave his orders, he said to the Butler who had been serving him, Find the information on the Hong sect's power distribution in Turin! I'm going to study it!

Mr. Gelman, the family doctor quickly said, your blood pressure is very high right now, and your physical condition is not very ...

Get lost! Old Gelman said rudely.

The family doctor kept quiet out of fear and quickly left. He knew that if he said one more word, the brutal old Gehrman would kill him.

The Butler followed old Gelman's instructions and quickly went to find the information.

Turin was destined to be a chaotic night.

There were conflicts between gangs in several places at the same time, and the harsh police sirens sounded in many places in the city.

Lui hai drove the ordinary Hutton back to the city with Xia ruofei.

As soon as they crossed the bridge, lui hai received Lu zhengfeng's message. One of the assassination targets, Sean Gehrman, who was in charge of the construction business, had brought a large group of people to reinforce the construction site.

Xia ruofei replied without hesitation, ah hai! I'll rush over immediately!

Yes! Mr. Xia! Lui hai answered with excitement.

He had followed his father across the ocean since he was a child and had lived a life of fighting and killing for so many years. Compared to the average person, he could be considered to have experienced many storms and waves. However, all those experiences added up were not as exciting as tonight.

Lui hai felt that it was so cool to settle the scores with Xia ruofei!

The Horton car drove through the night, and the rain seemed to be getting heavier and heavier. The raindrops hit the car window and made pitter – patter sounds.

Hopefully, the rain would wash away the blood tonight ... Xia ruofei slowly leaned back in his seat and closed his eyes to rest.

Duling city wasn't very big, plus it was a rainy day and there were gunshots from gangs, so there were barely any pedestrians or cars on the road. Lui hai drove smoothly and soon arrived at the construction site.

Xia ruofei glanced at the GPS and said, Hai, let's find a more secluded place to Park!

Mr. Xia, lui hai said, it's quite far from the construction site. We can get closer ...

No need! Xia ruofei said, I have a bad feeling about this. For safety's sake! Stay away!

Alright! Lui hai just gave a suggestion. Since Xia ruofei had made a decision, he would follow it unconditionally.

The car stopped by the side of the road, then reversed into a small alley and stopped at the entrance of the alley.

Xia ruofei opened the car door and said, Ah hai, just stay in the car. Turn off the engine and don't turn on the lights. In addition, pay attention to remain vigilant at all times and load the bullets! If anything happens, just shoot. I'll rush over as soon as I hear the gunshot!

Lui hai felt warm, nodding, I know! Mr. Xia, you don't have to worry about me, just be careful!

Xia ruofei nodded, patted lui Hai's shoulder, and then pushed the door open to get out of the car.

Through the rear mirror, lui hai saw Xia ruofei's figure sneaked into the back alley and soon disappeared into the night.

Xia ruofei was like a cat as he walked through the dark night, heading towards the construction site.

In the brightly lit construction site, two groups of people were fighting to the death.

An Italy man in a black trench coat stood in the rain, and a man in a black suit was holding an umbrella for him. Neither of them said a word as they silently watched the situation at the construction site.

The man in the black trench coat was Sean Gelman.

He looked very calm, but his legs were already trembling.

Sean was old Gelman's nephew. He was well aware of his uncle's latest order. He was basically a bait. His goal was to lure out the terrifying killer and then let the sniper hiding nearby kill him.

Sean had already received detailed information about what had happened that night. The elusive assassin who specialized in assassinating the core members of the Gelman family was like a nightmare.

In addition to the arms and drug business, the Gelman family also had a lot of businesses on the surface. Among them, the highly profitable construction industry was also the core investment of the Gelman family. They usually used some underworld means to make their opponents not dare to compete with them, so that they could continuously obtain all kinds of projects, and the profits were also amazing.

Old Gehrman had entrusted Sean with the important task of being fully in charge of the construction industry, so Sean was naturally one of the core members of the family.

He was very clear that he was most likely the target of that killer.

Although there were many bodyguards around him, and there were several snipers hidden in different directions not far away, Sean still did not feel safe. The killer's means were too terrifying. Sean had no confidence that the snipers and bodyguards could get rid of this trouble before the killer killed him.

However, he didn't dare to disobey old Gehrman's orders. Otherwise, he would be in a worse state than being killed by an assassin. Old Gehrman would not recognize anyone and would definitely torture them to the point that they wouldn't die for a while.

Sean looked into the distance, praying in his heart.

There were a few other people who were acting as bait like him. He hoped that he was not that unlucky fellow ...

Xia ruofei reached the wall of the construction site in no time.

He was not careless just because he was strong. On the contrary, he was as cautious as ever.

Xia ruofei lightly stepped on the ground, and his body suddenly rose up. He lightly flew over the wall of the construction site, and then rolled into a dark shadow.

Then, he carefully peeked at the brightly lit area.

Xiao en, who was wearing a black windbreaker, stood at the side. His target was quite obvious. Xia ruofei could see Xiao en's face clearly at a glance and was sure that Lu zhengfeng's information was correct. The person standing there was indeed old Gelman's nephew, Xiao en.

Xia ruofei's eyes glinted. He immediately leaped up and flew in Xiao en's direction.

One second, two seconds, three seconds ... He was getting closer and closer to Sean.

Suddenly, Xia ruofei felt a strong sense of danger.

He didn't have time to think at all, almost subconsciously doing a standard roll to avoid the attack.

Almost at the same time, a sniper bullet hit the spot where he had just been, and a few sparks splashed on the concrete ground.

Xia ruofei didn't stop. Instead, he rolled forward and then rolled to the side. In a short time, he had made several dodging movements.

Every time, the bullet would arrive right after he left. The sniper bullet seemed to be chasing after his butt.

As Xia ruofei dodged, his brain was working quickly. He quickly determined the situation based on the initial analysis of the trajectory. It was obvious that he was in the range of several sniper rifles.

He could even roughly determine the positions of a few snipers.

Xia ruofei kept dodging without any pattern. He was being chased by the sniper bullets and looked a little embarrassed.

Fortunately, after his training, Xia ruofei's reaction speed had far exceeded his level when he was in the lone wolf assault team. It also exceeded the reaction time of the snipers, so he could always avoid the attacks.

After more than ten consecutive evasive maneuvers, Xia ruofei finally found a blind spot beside a thick concrete wall.

He leaned against the concrete wall and panted slightly. He was still a little scared.

If it wasn't for his keen sense of danger and his high concentration, he might have been dead at the construction site.

The bullet fired from a large – caliber long – range sniper rifle could exceed the speed of sound.

In other words, when he heard the gunshot, the bullet had already entered his body.

No matter how powerful a cultivator was, with his Qi refining stage cultivation, it was impossible for his body to resist a sniper bullet. Even if he was a high and mighty cultivator, if his heart was shattered, he would also die.

The other party had adjusted their strategy so quickly that Xia ruofei was not afraid. On the contrary, a strong fighting spirit was born in him. At the same time, his killing intent towards the Gehrman family grew even stronger. The more dangerous the enemy was, the faster he had to get rid of him. He absolutely couldn't give him a chance to revive, or he would be irresponsible to himself.

Xia ruofei quickly caught his breath. At this moment, Xiao en was being escorted out by a large group of bodyguards.

Obviously, Xia ruofei's sudden appearance and rapid approach had scared him out of his wits.

Xia ruofei did not rush out to deal with Sean. He quickly analyzed the bullet's trajectory in his mind again, and a route became clearer in his mind.

He cast his gaze on an unfinished building about 800 meters away ...

Chapter 2022 Counterattack (1)

Xia ruofei was sure that there was a sniper on the roof of the building with only a reinforced concrete frame.

This was also the most threatening sniping point among the few. It was the highest point of the entire construction site, and the area it could control was quite large.

Xia ruofei took a deep breath and stomped hard on the ground. His entire body was as agile as a cheetah. Then, he did a beautiful side roll and hid behind a pile of cement bricks.

Then, Xia ruofei leaped in another direction. His figure was partly visible and partly hidden in the construction site, and his route was erratic.

On the rooftop, the best sniper of the Gelman family, Edmund, was chewing gum while searching for the whereabouts of his target through his scope.

Through the scope, Edmund could see Xia ruofei's figure flashing like a ghost. However, the time he was exposed to the muzzle was very short each time. Edmund did not have time to adjust his firing before he realized that the target had used the terrain to hide in his blind spot.

Hell ... Edmund muttered.

He pressed the communication device and said,Guys! Raise your spirits and open your eyes! That guy is a little hard to deal with ...

Edmund, he has appeared in my shooting range a few times, but the damn Chinese are too fast. I didn't have time to react!

I've seen him a few times too, but I couldn't find a chance to shoot!

There's no pattern to his movement! We don't know where he will appear next, so it's hard to predict in advance!

Edmund frowned and said,anyway, everyone, stay alert. The area he is in is completely within our Crossfire blockade. He can only hide here and there. If he wants to leave this place, he has to go through that open area! That will be our chance! Everyone, don't shoot!

Understood!

Received!

While the snipers of the Gelman family were communicating on the comms channel, Xia ruofei had unknowingly moved two to three hundred meters forward. Of course, this was the straight – line distance between him and the building. In fact, his movement trajectory was erratic. In just one to two minutes, he had moved more than a kilometer.

.....

Another two minutes passed.

Dammit! Just a little bit more!

Montillo! You should've fired a shot just now!

You try! That guy is faster than a rabbit, how could I react in time

How can he always find our blind spots Does he have special powers

Those damn Chinese are too cunning!

The snipers 'communication channel was filled with curses.

What's the point of him running around It's impossible to get out of this area!

Wait! At this moment, the sniper named Montillo suddenly shouted,guys! Why do I feel like this Chinese kid is slowly approaching Edmund's position

Hey! It was Montillo! Did your brain burn out The other sniper sneered.We're all covering fire! If that kid really did that, he'd be riddled with holes before he could even get into the building!

Edmund also smiled and said,I was hoping he would come! This guy is too troublesome. He's the toughest target I've ever encountered, no one else!

While they were talking, Xia ruofei had unknowingly advanced more than a hundred meters in the direction of the building.

He was now less than 50 meters away from the building's entrance, but there was no cover in this area. It was completely open, and this area was completely exposed to the shooting range of all the snipers except for Edmund.

Xia ruofei leaned against an excavator and caught his breath. Then, he quickly ran through the route that he had just set in his mind. After taking a deep breath, he rushed out with all his might.

Edmund was the closest to Xia ruofei. When Xia ruofei rushed out, he aimed and fired at once. The whole movement was done in one go.

However, Xia ruofei's speed was too fast and he changed directions constantly. Edmund's bullets all missed.

As they were already very close to the building, Xia ruofei quickly ran out of Edmund's shooting range.

Dogshit! Edmund cursed,guys, shoot immediately! Kill him! Kill him!

Without Edmund's command, the other snipers also aimed at Xia ruofei and fired.

However, Xia ruofei had already calculated the fastest and safest route. Of course, this safety was relative. Even the best Special Forces soldier would find it difficult to pass through such a large open area safely under the surveillance of three or four snipers. Xia ruofei relied on his extreme speed and his sharp sense of danger. Every time there was a hair's breadth to go, his body would change direction in a strange way, avoiding the sniper bullet.

For Xia ruofei, a distance of 50 meters was just a sprint.

More than a dozen sniper bullets hit the ground. In just two seconds, Xia ruofei's body flashed and he rushed into the building.

The sniper's comms channel was suddenly in a state of panic.

Edmund! Quickly retreat! Quickly retreat! We can't stop him! Montillo shouted madly. We couldn't stop him! He has already rushed into the building!

Retreat immediately! Edmund, he's coming for you!

Quickly run!

Hearing that, Edmund got up and rushed to the other side of the roof without a word.

Chapter 2023 Counterattack (2)

As an experienced sniper, when choosing a sniping position, he would definitely arrange the retreat route in advance.

It took Edmund five seconds to reach the guardrails on the other side of the rooftop. There was a steel cable hanging there, connected to a slightly shorter building opposite.

Edmund quickly took out a lock from his bag, one end fixed under the pulley, and the other fixed to his waist.

Then, Edmund jumped over the guardrail, grabbed the pulley with both hands, and pushed hard on the guardrail. His body immediately slid out in the direction of the opposite building.

The whole evacuation process only took a dozen seconds. Edmund finally relaxed a little. He said to himself, I'll definitely not accept such missions in the future! That guy was simply a pervert!

He had never seen such an agile person. Under the aim of three or four sniper rifles, he could actually Dodge and Dodge without being injured. This was simply too terrifying!

Edmund slid to about half the position when he heard Monty's slightly frightened shout from his earpiece, Edmund! He's here! He's here!

Edmund was stunned for a moment. He tried to turn his head back and saw a figure appear on the roof of the building. The figure even had the time to smile at Edmund. Then, he reached out and drew a line on the steel rope, lowering his body to avoid the bullets that were coming from other directions.

Edmund suddenly felt his body sink, and then he fell uncontrollably. He was terrified and grabbed the steel rope with all his might.

However, this was just a last – ditch struggle. Although he avoided falling directly from the sky, he had no way to reconnect the steel cable, so the next moment, he crashed straight into the opposite building.

Edmund howled in despair. The outer wall of the building rapidly enlarged in his eyes.

Bang! Bang! With a muffled sound, Edmund crashed into the building. At this speed, with such a huge impact, even a kui cow would not be able to withstand it, let alone a fragile human body.

Edmund had died almost at the moment of impact.

Before he fell into eternal darkness, Edmund's last thought was, How could he be so fast I just need five more seconds and I can escape ...

After Xia ruofei broke the steel rope with his bare hands, he didn't care about Edmund anymore because he knew that Edmund was dead for sure.

After he dodged a sniper bullet, he used the concrete fence of the building as cover and quickly arrived at the spot where Edmund had sniped.

Xia ruofei glanced at the sniper rifle that Edmund had abandoned and couldn't help but whistle. He muttered to himself, "M82! This gang of yakuza is really well – equipped!

The M82A1 large – caliber sniper rifle produced in the United States was known as the King of snipers. On the 12.7mm sniper rifle market, the M82a1 almost dominated the market for its long range, high accuracy, and powerful performance. The military and police forces of at least 30 countries were equipped with this sniper rifle.

The Chinese army had their own domestic sniper rifle, which was also of excellent performance. The ordinary soldiers of the reconnaissance team naturally had no chance to come into contact with foreign firearms. However, the lone wolf assault team was different. Although they used the same standard equipment in actual combat, the soldiers of the lone wolf had the opportunity to come into contact with and learn from some of the famous foreign firearms. Xia ruofei had naturally used open fire guns like the M82A1 before and was very impressed with the performance of this sniper rifle.

He lay on the rooftop and deftly removed the magazine to check. There were six bullets left. The standard magazine could hold ten bullets. In other words, Edmund had fired four times but did not even touch a hair on Xia ruofei's head.

In addition, there were two magazines filled with large – caliber sniper bullets on the ground. Edmund was in a hurry and didn't have time to take these things away.

Xia ruofei immediately loaded a fully loaded magazine and quickly loaded it. He moved his eyes to the scope and adjusted the direction of the muzzle.

Sean Gelman had already retreated to the outside of the construction site under the protection of a large number of bodyguards and was about to board his bulletproof Mercedes – Benz.

Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to shoot. He knew that as long as he did not hit his target with the first shot, he would not have a second chance. The bodyguards would immediately form layers of meat shields. Even if he ran out of bullets, he would not be able to kill Sean.

Xia ruofei held his breath and placed his finger gently on the trigger. He kept adjusting the direction of the muzzle according to what he saw through the scope.

A bodyguard pulled open the car door, and under the heavy protection of the bodyguards, Sean Gehrman got down to the side of the car and lowered his head to get into the car.

When they were closing the door, one of the bodyguards moved slightly to the side, leaving a small gap.

He had been waiting for this opportunity! Xia ruofei quickly adjusted and stabilized the muzzle. Then, he pulled the trigger without hesitation ...

The bodyguard felt a chill in his ear, and then he heard a pfft. He quickly turned around and saw Sean Gehrman's eyes wide open as he collapsed on the car seat.

There was a huge bullet hole on the left side of Sean's forehead. It had almost pierced through his head, and red and white liquid was gurgling out of it ...

The bodyguards immediately surrounded the car and screamed in horror.

Only the bodyguard who felt a chill in his ear was stunned. He reached out to touch his ear and found that his hand was covered in blood. Obviously, the bullet just flew past his ear.

As a professional bodyguard, he knew very well that the angle of the shot just now was very small. If the other party's hand had trembled slightly, the one whose head would have been shot would not have been Sean, but him ...

This caused him to feel a sense of fear, and his back was already drenched in cold sweat.

The bodyguards were not afraid of death as they surrounded the important person that Jian Jia and the others were responsible for protecting. The person was assassinated in front of everyone. If they couldn't kill the murderer, they would die even if they returned.

Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to leave.

There were at least three snipers just now. He had to get rid of them in passing to prevent these snipers from sniping Lu zhengfeng and the rest when they were fighting with the Mafia.

In fact, after the three of them saw Xia ruofei kill Edmund, none of them hesitated for even a second. They all chose to retreat decisively.

Every sniper had shot at Xia ruofei more than once, so Xia ruofei knew their sniping positions like the back of his hand.

After killing Sean, his eyes did not leave the scope. He turned the head of the gun at an angle.

It was an eight – story building about 400 meters away, and one of the snipers was hiding in the building.

Xia ruofei accurately found the window where the sniper had laid in ambush. The sniper's gun was still in front of the window, but the person was gone.

He looked left and right through the scope, and soon a figure running at full speed appeared in the scope's field of view.

The sniper had obviously been professionally trained. He kept changing his position as he ran, and he deliberately chose walls, pillars, and other obstacles to seek protection.

If it was an ordinary sniper, under such circumstances, they would most likely not have the chance to make a move.

However, Xia ruofei's reflexes were much better than the best snipers. Besides, he had also undergone strict sniper training and was very familiar with this model of sniper rifle.

Many factors determined that the sniper would not be able to escape.

Xia ruofei was highly focused. The muzzle of his gun kept following the trajectory of the sniper's movement. Then, he fired decisively.

This shot seemed to be aimed at a gap and fired, not at anyone at all. However, in the next moment, the figure of the sniper appeared in that gap, as if he had delivered himself to the door.

The sniper bullet accurately hit his head, and his eyes revealed a look of disbelief as he softly fell to the ground.

Two more! Xia ruofei said emotionlessly. He turned his gun around and looked for his next target.

A minute later, with two crisp gunshots, the four snipers sent by the Gehrman family had been completely eliminated by Xia ruofei.

At that moment, Sean's bodyguards had already rushed to the bottom of the building.

They knew very well how terrifying the killer Upstairs was, but they still chose to charge into the building with no way out.

Xia ruofei clapped his hands and stood up.

He put the sniper rifle and the remaining bullets into the spirit map space, then rushed to the other side of the roof. Without hesitation, he jumped over the guardrail and jumped down from the building like a ROC spreading its wings ...

Chapter 2024 Dead end (1)

Xia ruofei used the force from the outer wall to slow down a few times before landing lightly on the ground.

At this time, the group of bodyguards who had rushed in from the front of the building had climbed up almost seven or eight floors.

Only the framework of the building had been built. The four outer walls had not been built yet. Hence, they were all dumbfounded when they saw Xia ruofei descending from the sky like a giant Roc.

There's such an operation

The group of bodyguards hurriedly rushed to the other side. However, they could only see Xia ruofei land lightly on the ground and then quickly escape into the dark rainy night at an unbelievable speed.

The bodyguards fired a few shots in the direction that Xia ruofei had disappeared in despair. Then, they ran down the stairs in a mess and chased after him.

But how could these people catch up to Xia ruofei

Not to mention that after Xia ruofei entered the woods, he immediately changed his direction and ran towards lui Hai's car.

While the bodyguards were still searching in the wet woods with their last hope, Xia ruofei had already left the construction site in lui Hai's car.

Xiao en and the other snipers had been killed. The remaining members of the black gang were no match for the Hong sect. There was no need for Xia ruofei and lui hai to stay here.

News from the Hong sect kept coming in.

That night, the Gelman family was like a stray dog, beaten to a pulp by the Hong sect.

On the other hand, Xia ruofei had been receiving information from Lyu zhengfeng. Soon, he and Lyu hai killed the last two targets.

Xia ruofei already knew that the important figures of the Gelman family had snipers around them, so he paid special attention when he took action.

He had even used his years of experience in the Special Forces to find the hidden sniper and kill him before he even killed the core members of the Gelman family.

The assassination operation was naturally extremely smooth.

Now, other than the head of the family, the core members of the family had all been killed by Xia ruofei. The lower – Level members had also been defeated by the Hong sect. Even if the Gelman family was not dead, they would be crippled.

When Xia ruofei killed the last core member of the Gehrman family named robto, he returned to the car. Lui hai immediately handed him a dry towel. The rain was getting heavier and heavier, and Xia ruofei was inevitably wet.

Xia ruofei took the towel and dried his hair as he asked,Ah hai, how's the battle situation at zhengfeng

Lui hai said excitedly,Mr. Xia, the Gelman family is in complete chaos. All the core members have been killed. The subordinates are not in the mood to fight anymore. Zhengfeng has gained a lot tonight!

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.Tell them to keep up the good work. We must completely eradicate this family tonight! Otherwise, the police would definitely increase their patrols and surveillance on the gangs tomorrow, which would make it inconvenient for them to do anything! In addition, the Gelman family will definitely ask for help from the glory society. You should also be careful of this!

Lui hai was full of confidence, saying,Don't worry! We're also keeping an eye on the glory society! If they dare to act rashly, then they better be prepared for an all – out war with us!

Then, lui hai asked expectantly, Mr. Xia, are we going to Moore Manor next

Although the manor had been changed to the Gehrman Manor after the fall of the Moore family, lui hai still called it the same.

Xia ruofei nodded. Contact zhengfeng. He should be able to send some people over now. Let's bring some people over and kill them!

Yes! Lui hai answered with excitement.

Although lui hai was very excited when Xia ruofei killed the core members of the Gelman family, he could only hide far away and watch from the side. He still felt unhappy.

Therefore, when he heard that Xia ruofei was going to take them into the German Manor, lui hai couldn't hold back his excitement. He immediately took out his phone and called LV zhengfeng.

Zhengfeng! How are things on your side Lui hai said as soon as the call was connected, Mr. Xia ordered us to transfer some people here, and ... You come here yourself. He will take us to attack the Gelman Manor!

Lu zhengfeng had always been a brave and ruthless person. Tonight, he had brought his brothers from the Hong sect's Turin branch. Every time, he would rush to the front, regardless of the danger. So, when he heard that they were going to destroy the old nest of the Gelman family, Lu zhengfeng was so excited that he almost jumped up.

He immediately gathered his men and drove to meet lui hai outside the city. Then they drove towards the direction of the German Manor.

In the Gelman Manor, phone calls came in one after another. Old Gelman collapsed in his chair, his face ashen.

Pieces of information were being collected. Pieces of territory that originally belonged to the Gelman family had been conquered, and the members of the underworld had suffered heavy losses. What drove him crazy was that almost all of the core members of his family had been killed, including his most valued sons, grandsons, and his brothers and cousins ...

Old Gelman already knew that after tonight, the Gelman family would probably be removed from the family ...

Chapter 2025 Dead end (2)

At this moment, his heart was filled with despair.

Who wanted to deal with the Gelman family This was no longer a fight for territory. The other party was clearly trying to uproot the entire Gelman family!

Although the people involved in the fight were from the Hong sect's Turin branch, old Geerman did not think that the Hong sect was behind it.

It was obvious that they had provoked someone they should not have.

However, there was no point in studying these things now. Even if the Hong sect stopped now, the Gelman family's strength would fall greatly. It was impossible for them to maintain their former glory under the joint attack of Southeast Asian gangs, nihilas Nigeria and the powerful Hong sect.

Furthermore, how could the Hong sect stop now

That night, the city was filled with the smell of blood. The territory controlled by the Hong sect had suddenly increased by a few percent. Not only that, but the small and medium – sized gangs were also like cats that smelled fish, coming out to loot the burning house.

Under such circumstances, the already chaotic Gelman family could not resist at all.

Obviously, the fate of the Gehrman family had been decided. They would be torn to pieces by the other forces in Duning city, led by the Hong sect.

Everyone kicks a man who is down. This was the law of the jungle that had never changed since ancient times.

Old Gehrman's eyes were blood – Red like a trapped beast. The people serving him were also trembling with fear, afraid that they would anger old Gehrman and cause a fatal disaster.

Old Gelman kept mumbling to himself, Who are they Who are they

Tonight, he thought about it countless times. The Gelman family had many enemies, but none of them had anything to do with the Chinese. Although their expansion in Turin had some conflicts with the Chinese Hong sect, both sides had been very restrained and there had been no bloody conflicts.

Everything seemed to have changed since yesterday.

Toles had been killed by a Chinese man in his villa. Then, this Chinese man had rescued the woman from the Grasso family who Toles had taken a fancy to and left the villa with a swagger.

Wait a minute! A woman from the Toles family

An idea suddenly flashed through old Gelman's mind. Could it be that ... All of this was related to that woman

It was true that after the Chinese man saved the woman named Monica yesterday, the Hong sect had started to attack the Gelman family like crazy.

As for the mysterious killer who had killed nine core members of the Gehrman family as if he was cutting vegetables, although he looked slightly different from the Chinese man who had killed Toles last night, it was very likely that they were the same person from their figure and the way they did things!

Old Gelman couldn't help but grit his teeth in hatred. Just because of a woman, the force he had worked so hard to build collapsed overnight

It was really ironic!

He was filled with unwillingness. After a while, he glared with blood – Red eyes and asked loudly, Paul! Is the patriarch of the Grao family still around

After Toles was killed the day before, the arrogant Gehrman family in Turin naturally vented their anger on the Grasso family. Since they did not manage to capture Monica's brother, deyork, the young head of the Gehrman family, who had been killed by Xia ruofei, personally led his men and smashed the Grasso family into pieces. At the same time, they even brought the head of the Grasso family, Monica's uncle, Carras Grasso, to the Gehrman Manor.

Even their patriarch had been imprisoned, but the Grasso family still did not dare to speak out. Instead, they sent people to search for Monica's whereabouts, hoping that they could hand her over in exchange for the forgiveness of the Gelman family.

Sir, Paul the Butler quickly said, Caras Grasso is locked up in the manor's cellar!

Old Gelman panted heavily and said with blood – Red eyes, Pull him up!

Yes! Paul hurriedly shot a look at the two guards beside him. At the same time, he was silently mourning for carraglas.

In a short while, the guards of the Gehrman family pushed and shoved a bruised and swollen karles up.

As soon as klass saw old Gelman, he quickly begged, Kind Mr. Gelman, please forgive our family! This is all Monica's fault. I promise that I will hand Monica over personally and let you deal with her!

Old Gelman laughed hideously, just hand over Monica Do you know how much our family has lost

Mr. Gelman, said Calas hurriedly, your loss will be fully borne by the Grao family!

Old ghelman could not help but laugh wildly as he said, You will bear the responsibility Can your Grao family afford this Do you know In just one day, our Gelman family has lost almost all of our territory, and only this Manor is left! Also, almost all of our family's core members are dead! You will bear the responsibility How are you going to bear the responsibility

Karlas was dumbfounded, his mouth unconsciously wide open, unable to speak for a long time.

When he came back to his senses, his heart was immediately filled with the greatest fear.

Although he couldn't believe that the powerful Gelman family would be beaten so badly in one day, there was no doubt that old Gelman had blamed everything on the Grasso family and him.

Thinking of this, Calas's body began to tremble uncontrollably, and his face turned pale, without a trace of blood.

Chapter 2026 Dead end (3)

Calas, tell me ... How should I thank you old Gelman grinned hideously.

Old Gehrman emphasized the word thank you, almost gnashing his teeth in anger, causing klass to shiver.

He quickly said, Mr. Gelman, we ... We really didn't know anything! How dare we ... How dare we attack the Gelman family The entire Grao family is a dutiful businessman ...

Hmph! You wouldn't dare! But that Monica from your family dares to! Old Gelman's face was as still as water as he said, if she didn't bring those damn Chinese people here, would our family end up in this state today

As if struck by lightning, Klass muttered with a pale face, Monica ... Monica again ... She's a jinx! I should have kicked her out of the family long ago ... It's over ... It's over ... It's all over now ...

Old Gelman said coldly, enough! Stop acting! Are you secretly happy to see our family in such a miserable state

I don't dare! He didn't dare! Mr. Gelman, Monica has been disobeying my orders. This matter was her own doing, and it has nothing to do with our Grao family! Klass hurriedly said.

His life was in old Gelman's hands! Even if he was secretly happy, how would he dare to show it Furthermore, after hearing that everything was caused by Monica, he did not feel happy at all. When Monica was in the family, they treated her very badly. Now that Monica had such a great help, it was not a good thing for the Grasso family.

Old Gehrman sneered and glanced at the pale and trembling Calas. He said indifferently, Paul, help me thank Mr. Calas ... Remember, don't kill him! This man is still useful to us!

Yes, sir! Paul said politely as he bowed.

Klass's expression changed greatly as he repeatedly begged, Mr. Gelman, please don't ...

Naturally, Paul ignored Calas's pleas. He gestured to a few burly men beside him, who immediately came forward to lift Calas up and drag him outside.

Old Gelman said coldly, greet him here! I want to take a good look ...

Yes! The burly men replied in unison.

No... Calas shouted in fear.

Then, a series of shrill screams rang out. Old Gehrman had only told him to keep his life, and there was no need to worry about anything else. The burly men were also very heavy – handed.

In a short while, Klass was on the verge of death, lying limply on the ground. His hands and feet were twisted in an irregular manner, obviously broken. His face was as swollen as a pig's head, and probably even his closest family members might not recognize him.

Seeing that Calas had already fainted, old Gehrman suddenly felt a little dispirited. He said indifferently, Get a basin of water and wake him up!

Yes!

At this moment, a young voice lazily spoke in English, The Moore Manor is quite lively tonight!

Other than a trace of mockery, there was no killing intent in his voice. His aura was not strong, but in the ears of old Gehrman and the others, it was no different from a clap of thunder.

Who's there Come out! Butler Paul shouted.

The big men in charge of protecting old Gelman also acted as if they were facing a great enemy and surrounded him.

Old Gelman, on the other hand, was very calm. He pushed away the burly man who was protecting him and quickly walked to the side of the limp Caras on the ground. He took out a dagger and pressed it against Caras' neck.

Then, old Gelman said, Chinese, stop hiding! Come out!

Chapter 2027 Burning Jade and stone together (1)

As soon as old Gelman finished speaking, a figure appeared in the room strangely. It was a young Chinese man wearing a black trench coat and a faint smile on his face.

No one noticed how this young man had entered.

The manor was heavily guarded, and there were no warnings. It was as if he had appeared out of thin air.

This young man was Xia ruofei. He did not even change his appearance. He had the same face as when he had killed the core members of the Gelman family.

Of course, this face was different from the one on his passport under the name Xia Tian. It was even more impossible for it to be the same as his original appearance.

Old Gelman's bodyguards hurriedly pulled out their guns and surrounded him.

Xia ruofei's body swayed slightly and everyone felt their vision blur. Then, the bodyguards were shocked to find that all their guns were in Xia ruofei's hands.

With a twist of his hand, Xia ruofei turned all the guns into twisted pieces of scrap metal.

He casually threw the scrap metal on the ground and looked at old Gelman with a smile.

Old Gehrman waved his hand to stop the bodyguards who wanted to rush up empty-handed. He knew that it was a meaningless act. Xia ruofei's performance tonight was enough to prove his strength.

At this moment, a guard rushed in in a panic and said, Mr. Gelman, many Chinese people are attacking! Everyone can't resist ... Ah!

He was in the middle of his sentence when he realized that Xia ruofei was standing in the middle of the room and was shocked.

Old Gelman frowned and chided, Get down!

The guard retreated as if he had been pardoned. Before he left, he could not help but glance at Xia ruofei. He had been standing guard not far from the door just now and had no idea how this Chinese man had gotten in.

Old Gelman did not seem to care that the manor was about to be breached. He clenched the dagger in his hand and slowly said in his English with a strong Italy accent, Young man, how about we make a deal

Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows and shrugged his shoulders. He asked with a faint smile, Mr. Gelman, what bargaining chip do you think you have to make a deal with me now

Old Gehrman pouted at the beaten – up Caras and said, Do you know who this person is He was the head of the Grao family, karlas! Using his life to exchange for mine, this is not a bad deal!

Xia ruofei looked at the ‘pig head’ on the ground and didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. What does this person have to do with me Using him to exchange for your life, is there something wrong with your brain or my brain

Old Gelman’s expression changed slightly as he said, Young man, didn’t you kill the Gelman family because of that Monica

Although Xia ruofei had changed his appearance when he was trying to assassinate Toles, it was not hard for old Gehrman to guess who he was as long as he was not too slow – witted. Hence, Xia ruofei was not surprised.

So he asked, shrugging.

Karlas is the patriarch of the Grasso family! He’s the most important person in the Grao family! I’m not asking for much, old Gelman said hopefully. I just want you to let me live. There’s no more hope for my family. I just want to find a safe place to live the rest of my life. This is a very simple matter for you.

On the ground, Calas’s mind had also cleared up a little. He seemed to have seen a glimmer of hope for survival, and quickly said in a muffled voice, Sir, I ... I’m Monica’s uncle. Please ... Save me ... Our Grao family will always remember your kindness!

All the teeth in Carras ‘mouth had been knocked out, and there was a slight leak in his speech. In addition, his English had a heavy Italy accent. Xia ruofei had a hard time listening to him, but at least he understood.

He had long known about the people of the Grasso family from Monica, especially the things that this patriarch, Caras, usually did to Monica and her brother. Therefore, he did not have a good impression of the Grasso family at all. He was even filled with disgust towards Caras.

Xia ruofei frowned and said, shut up! Do you have the right to speak here

Then, Xia ruofei looked at old Gelman with a faint smile on his face and said, Mr. Gelman, I’m a very timid person. I’ve already killed almost all the core members of your Gelman family, and I’ve also destroyed the foundation that you’ve built for so many years. It’s just that the difference in strength is too great, so you chose to endure, am I right

Old grimman’s expression changed again and again, but he did not say anything.

He did hate Xia ruofei because not only had Xia ruofei destroyed the German family’s business, but he had also killed his most valued grandson, which was equivalent to destroying the hope of the German family.

Even if he could revive the Gehrman family with his own power, he was already in his dying years. Even if he could create another family business, what was the point if no one inherited it

The only thing that kept old Gelman going was hatred.

He only hoped to survive, find the big boss of the glory society, and try his best to avenge his grandson and the other core members of the family.

Chapter 2028 Burning Jade and stone together (2)

The first target of his revenge was naturally the young man in front of him. Although he didn't know the young man's name, he believed that as long as he could live, he would have a chance to find this young man and kill him in the cruelest way.

Other than this young man, there was also the Hong sect. It might seem difficult, but he would definitely use all his strength to complete the revenge plan.

Of course, the premise of everything was to survive.

Now, it seemed that the hope was slim.

Xia ruofei looked at old Gehrman teasingly, then pointed at Calas on the ground and said sarcastically, Also, even if you want to live, you should at least be more careful! You're threatening me with this kind of trash Are you sure This guy didn't tell you that Monica has been ostracized and wronged in the family. Besides Toles, the person she hates the most is probably this karlas who has been plastic – changed into a pig's head by you! So, do you still think he's your bargaining chip

Old Gelman's expression changed drastically. He glared at Calas and asked, Is everything he said true

Klass's face was already pale, and now it was even paler. He trembled as he said, I won't ... I'm Monica's uncle! He was only talking about the friction within the family. Monica would not leave him to die! Where was she I want to see her! I want to see Monica!

As soon as he finished speaking, a cold voice came from outside the house, I'm coming!

Xia ruofei turned around in surprise. He saw Lyu zhengfeng walking in with Monica. Lyu hai was pushing a wheelchair with Rousey on it.

Lu zhengfeng bowed slightly to Xia ruofei and said, Mister! When I went back to gather manpower, Monica and her brother insisted on coming with us. I thought the situation here was settled, so I took the initiative to bring them along. Please don't take offense ...

Before Xia ruofei could say anything, klass seemed to have grabbed onto a life – saving straw and quickly said, Monica! Rousey! Please save me ... I'm your uncle!

If it wasn't for old Gehrman's dagger still at his neck, he might have already pounced over.

Monica looked at Calas with some disgust and said coldly, Uncle When you wanted to gift me to that homicidal maniac like a commodity, did you ever think that you were my uncle When you put Rousey under house arrest and threatened me, did you ever think that you were my uncle I'm sorry, I don't have an uncle like you, nor do I have those cold – blooded clansmen! In the entire Grao family, only Rousey is my family!

No... No... Calas cried out in despair, Monica! I was wrong in the past ... Please don't leave me in the lurch! I ... I promise you! As long as you save my life, I will support you to be the head of the Grasso family! I'll completely listen to your orders from now on!

As long as you're dead, Xia ruofei said sarcastically, with the Hong sect's control in Turin, we can choose whoever we want to be the head of the Grasso family. Isn't that easy

Karlas was stunned for a moment. He suddenly felt that Xia ruofei's words made sense, but at the same time, his heart sank.

Monica did not pay any more attention to Carlos. Instead, she bowed to Xia ruofei and said, Sir, please don't care about this person! Rousey and I only came here to see how the Gelman family is destroyed. As for this man, he has nothing to do with us. Don't mess up your plan because of us!

To prevent Xia ruofei's identity from being exposed, both Lu zhengfeng and Monica addressed Xia ruofei as Mister. It was obvious that they did not want to reveal any information about Xia ruofei, not even his surname.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded at Monica.

Then, he turned his eyes to the ashen – faced old Gehrman and asked, Mr. Gelman, do you now know how ridiculous your so – called bargaining chip is Old Gelman's hand trembled slightly as he held the dagger. He refused to accept this fact, but he had to.

Old Gelman's expression changed several times, and then he threw the dagger away with a strange smile on his face.

He looked at Xia ruofei and said, at first ... I wanted to keep my life so that I could have a chance to avenge my son and grandchildren. Now it seems that I can only start the second plan ... It's a pity that I can't wipe out the damn Hong sect in one fell swoop ...

Lui hai and lui zhengfeng's expressions slightly changed, except for Xia ruofei, who remained calm. He asked with a smile, Oh So you have a second plan! Why don't you tell me

Old Gelman slowly reached his hand into his pocket. Lu zhengfeng's eyes flashed with a sharp light and he raised the gun in his hand.

Xia ruofei waved his hand at him, indicating for him to calm down.

At such a close distance, everything was under his control. There was indeed no need to make a fuss.

Old Geerman took out a small black remote control and looked at Xia ruofei. Actually, it's better this way. After all, it will take a lot of time and effort to find out your identity. It's better to do it this way. Even if some small fish and shrimp get away, it doesn't matter ...

At this point, old Gehrman waved the remote control in his hand, and an abnormal blush appeared on his face. He said in a calm but slightly crazy tone, Did you know There's a large amount of TNT buried under this house. As long as I press it lightly, the entire Gehrman Manor will turn into ruins, and we ... You, you, and you ... All of us will be blown to pieces. It's impossible to tell who those broken limbs and rotten flesh belong to. This is a true 'you are in me, I am in you' ... Hahaha! Hahaha! Hahaha ...

Old Gehrman couldn't help but laugh madly at the end of his sentence.

The expressions of Liu Hai and the others changed drastically. They knew that the Gehrman family might have a backup plan, but they didn't expect it to be so crazy.

The Hong sect had just launched a full – scale attack on the Gehrman family tonight. If what old Gehrman said was true, there was a large number of explosives buried under the house. It was definitely not a temporary arrangement. It might have been set up when they moved into the manor.

In other words, old Gehrman slept on a pile of explosives every day, ready to die with the enemy at any time.

This was just too crazy.

Looking at old Gehrman who was laughing crazily, Liu Hai and the other brothers of Hong sect, Monica and Monica, as well as the Butler and bodyguards of the Gehrman Manor, all changed their expressions.

Although the members of the Gehrman family were loyal to the family, no one wanted to be buried in the sea of fire with their family in such a tragic way!

Old Gehrman had obviously gone crazy. His face was a sickly red, as if he would press the button to detonate at any moment.

Among all the people, only Xia Ruofei's expression remained the same. He even had a mocking smile on his face as he crossed his arms and looked at old Gehrman.

After laughing for a while, old Gehrman looked at Xia Ruofei suspiciously. You're not afraid

Should I be afraid Xia Ruofei asked.

Old Gehrman snorted and said, Did you think I would be afraid of death In any case, I can't escape the fate of death in your hands. Why wouldn't I be happy to take so many people with me So, please do not doubt my determination!

Xia Ruofei smiled and gestured for her to go ahead. If that's the case, then don't hesitate! I'm looking forward to it!

Old Gehrman laughed and said, I don't care if you're trying to be mysterious or not, in short ... Go to hell with me!

With that, old Gehrman's eyes were filled with determination as he pressed the remote control in his hand ...

Chapter 209 Treasure hunt (1)

Old Gehrman's face was filled with madness, while the others were horrified. Monica couldn't help but close her eyes, her face filled with despair.

However, after a few seconds, the violent explosion that everyone had imagined did not happen. The scene was dead silent.

Monica couldn't help but open her eyes. She saw that everyone was equally shocked. Old Gehrman looked as if he had seen a Ghost as he kept pressing the button on the remote control. Xia ruofei, on the other hand, was still smiling and looking on calmly.

When they first found out that there was a large amount of explosives buried under the house, everyone except Xia ruofei felt their hearts Twitch when they saw old Gelman's fingers move.

However, now that she saw his exaggerated actions, she felt that it was comical no matter how she looked at it.

Old Gelman's heart was also broken.

He wasn't bluffing, nor was he reluctant to die at the last moment. The actual situation was that no matter how hard he pressed, the button didn't move at all.

Was this not a ghost?

Xia ruofei looked like he was watching a show. He crossed his arms and looked at old Gelman with a smile. After a while, he walked toward him.

Seeing this, old ghelman shouted in horror, ""Don't come over! If you come any closer, I'll press it!"

Monica couldn't help but burst out laughing and said, ""Haven't you already pressed it a few times? Why isn't it exploding?"

The brothers of the Hong sect couldn't help but burst into laughter. The originally tense and tragic atmosphere was suddenly destroyed.

Xia ruofei walked in front of old Gelman and said as if he was coaxing a child, ""Be good, this thing is very dangerous, let me take care of it!"

With that, Xia ruofei easily removed old Gelman's fingers and took the remote control from him.

Old Gehrman was like a person who had been cast with a petrifying spell. He stood there in a daze without any resistance. It was only when Xia ruofei turned around and left that he collapsed limply on the ground as if his spine had been pulled out.

Xia ruofei put the remote control in his pocket. In fact, he put it in the spirit map space to cut off the signal.

He knew very well that old Gehrman was not bluffing. There was indeed a large number of explosives buried underground. He had just used his mental power to control objects remotely to lock the button. So, even if old Gehrman used all his strength, he would not be able to press the button.

Now that he had the remote control, if he accidentally touched it, it was likely to cause an earth – shattering explosion. Even if he was a Qi cultivation stage cultivator, it would be difficult for him to escape.

Therefore, it was safer to keep it in the space.

Xia ruofei turned to Lu zhengfeng and asked, ""Zhengfeng, what's the situation outside?"

"Sir, the Gelman Manor is already under our control!" Lu zhengfeng looked excited. "From tonight onwards, the name of the Gelman family can be said to be removed from Turin!"

He couldn't control his excitement. Ever since he followed lui hai, lui zhengfeng had been operating in Duling city for several years, but his achievements were not as good as tonight.

It could be said that after tonight, the Hong sect's branch in Turin would be the real boss of the underground world. Their power and territory would double.

This feeling was too good!

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "tell your men to hurry up and clean up the battlefield!" Let's evacuate as soon as possible! Maybe the police will come and join in the fun, who knows?"

"Yes!" Lu zhengfeng said.

"Right, you don't have to clean up the surveillance cameras!" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "pick something valuable and useful to you. We'll leave after you take it!"

Lu zhengfeng was stunned for a moment, but out of his fanatical admiration for Xia ruofei, he had definitely become Xia ruofei's die-hard fan after tonight's incident. He would definitely carry out Xia ruofei's words without hesitation.

Therefore, Lu zhengfeng immediately passed down the order. The brothers of the Hong sect began to clean up the battlefield in the spacious Manor. There were even small-scale battles in some places. Some people hid in the beginning and did not escape in the chaos.

But overall, the situation was set.

On the other side, Lu zhengfeng's trusted brothers had also arrested old Gelman and his butlers and bodyguards.

Although old Gehrman was still alive, he was like a walking corpse. No matter how the brothers of the Hong sect tied him up, he did not resist.

While the brothers of the Hong sect were cleaning up the battlefield, Xia ruofei was not idle. He squatted in front of old Gelman and said with interest, "Mr. Gelman, I've heard that the big families in Europe have their own treasure rooms. I'm very interested in your family's treasure room! I wonder if you can take us on a tour?"

Old Gehrman shot a cold glance at Xia ruofei and closed his eyes without saying a word. It was obvious that he had lost all desire to live.

Xia ruofei felt bored. He looked at Rousey, who was sitting in the wheelchair, and asked with a smile, "Rousey, if there's a treasure vault in this house, where do you think it's most likely to be?"

Old Gehrman had closed his eyes tightly, looking as if he had nothing to live for. However, after hearing Xia ruofei's words, he could not help but open his eyes and look at Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei did not seem to see old Gehrman and continued to smile at Rossi.

Chapter 2030 Treasure hunt (2)

Rousey also looked around the room with interest.

This was the most luxurious building in the manor. The first floor was a tall Hall that was very spacious. The various furnishings were also quite luxurious. There were beautiful sculptures, expensive oil paintings, and shiny crystal lamps ... It was really not an easy task to find the treasure room in such a place.

Furthermore, this was just what Xia ruofei said. It was very likely that there was no treasure room here.

However, Rousey treated it as an interesting game. He carefully observed everything in the room and analyzed where the treasure room would be located if there was really a treasure room.

It must be the most unexpected position. It might be right under everyone's eyes, but it was a position that was very easy to ignore.

Seeing Rossi's serious look, lui hai and the others couldn't help but be interested and joined the game.

"Sir, I think it might be behind that bookshelf!" "This is obviously a living room," Rousey said. "It doesn't make sense to place a bookshelf a few meters high on the entire wall here ..."

Lu zhengfeng, who was good at English, immediately retorted, "It's definitely not such an obviously unreasonable place. Otherwise, wouldn't it be easily discovered?"

"Where do you think it will be?" Rousey asked, somewhat unconvinced.

After looking at it for a long time, he felt that the bookshelf was the most likely. As for the other places, it was difficult to set up a treasure room.

"Maybe it's inside this wall!" Lu zhengfeng said, "but this needs to be measured inside and outside the house to see how big the difference is. If it's big, it means that there's a hidden space!"

Lui hai knocked on the wall and said, "It's solid, so it's not possible! I think if there really is a treasure room, it might be underground, or ... In these pillars? I keep feeling that these pillars are too thick, and they don't seem to match ..."

Hearing the discussion of lui hai and the others, old Geerman curled his lips, and then he immediately became depressed again.

Xia ruofei also saw the disdain on old Gelman's face. He smiled and said, "Everyone's imagination is pretty big!"

Lui hai laughed, "anyway, my brothers are still cleaning up. We're free anyway." Right, you were the one who suggested it, you haven't even guessed it!"

Everyone's eyes were on Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled. "Just now, everyone had put forward a lot of good ideas. Their train of thought is very broad. Actually, what everyone said was ..."

Just when everyone thought that Xia ruofei was going to say "it makes sense", he suddenly changed the topic and said, "It's all wrong!"

After saying that, Xia ruofei looked at the speechless lui hai, lui zhengfeng and the others, and asked with a smile, ""You guys must really want to know the reason, right?"

Lu zhengfeng and the others nodded repeatedly.

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, "the reason is simple!" Because there's no treasure room in this room ..."

"Tsk ..." Even Lu zhengfeng, who admired Xia ruofei to the extreme, could not help but have the urge to give him the middle finger after hearing this.

Even old Gehrman, who had been playing dead, could not help but open his eyes and look at Xia ruofei with a strange expression.

Xia ruofei cleared his throat and smiled. ""Everyone, would you like to take a look at Mr. Gelman's treasure room? Then follow me!"

"Is there really a treasure room?"

"Is he really not in this room?"

Lui hai and the others couldn't help but ask curiously.

Xia ruofei glanced at old Gelman and said, ""Although the Gelman family hasn't been in Turin for long, they are still a well – known Mafia family in southern Italy. How could they not have some family background? Am I right? Mr. Gelman?"

Old Gelman snorted and closed his eyes again.

Xia ruofei was not offended. He laughed and said, "Those who want to see the treasure room, follow me! Right, zhengfeng, bring Mr. Gelman over too!"

With that, Xia ruofei took the lead.

After passing through the luxurious Hall, there were rooms on the side. One of them was old Gehrman's study. Xia ruofei led lui hai and the others into the room. Monica pushed the wheelchair into the study with Rossi. The brothers of the Hong sect pushed old Gehrman into the room as well.

Old Gehrman couldn't help but sneer when he saw Xia ruofei bring everyone into the study.

There was indeed a secret room in this Manor, and it was not in the hall just now. However, the entrance was not in this study either.

When old Gehrman saw Xia ruofei's confident look, he thought that Xia ruofei was really resourceful enough to find such a hidden secret room! Now, it seemed like he was just bluffing.

Even if he had to die, he didn't want his family's treasures to be taken away by these Chinese.

Although many people had entered, the study was very spacious and did not seem crowded.

Lu zhengfeng looked at the furnishings of the study with great curiosity and asked, ""Sir, is there really a treasure room here?"

"You'll have to ask Mr. Gelman," Xia ruofei said with a smile.

After that, Xia ruofei smiled at old Gelman and said, "Mr. Gelman, why don't you open the treasure room yourself and let us broaden our horizons? Maybe if I'm in a good mood, I'll let you Live!"

Old Gehrman naturally did not believe Xia ruofei's nonsense. He said sarcastically, "There's no treasure room here, stop daydreaming!"

"It seems like Mr. Gelman isn't being honest!" Xia ruofei shrugged.

Xia ruofei pointed to a bookshelf on one of the walls and said, "Zhengfeng, two of you go and push these two bookshelves away!"

"Alright!" Lu zhengfeng was eager to give it a try. He personally led a brother of the Hong sect up. Each of them was responsible for one bookshelf and pushed it hard to the sides.

"Stop! Stop! Stop!" Xia ruofei shouted.

"What's wrong?" Puzzled, Lu zhengfeng asked, "didn't you ask us to push it away?"

Xia ruofei walked over and said, "I forgot to tell you. It's very difficult to push open such a heavy bookshelf with brute force!"

After saying this, he walked to one of the bookshelves and found the fifth and eighth book among the beautiful books. Then he pressed on the upper part of the book and pulled it out in half.

Then, Xia ruofei walked to another bookshelf and took out half of the 11th book on the third row.

There seemed to be no pattern at all. He only did two simple actions. Then, Xia ruofei said, "That's enough, you can start pushing now!"

"What?" old Gehrman laughed when he saw this. "Deliberately mystifying!"

He was speaking in Italian so Xia ruofei could not understand. He could not help but ask Monica, "What did he just say?"

Monica pursed her lips and smiled. "This is an Italy slang. It means that you are deliberately doing something unfathomable to make people think that you are very profound. That's what it means."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. "It seems like Mr. Gelman won't shed tears until he sees the coffin!"

Then, Xia ruofei said to Lu zhengfeng, "What are you doing? Do your work!"

"Oh!" Lu zhengfeng said.

To everyone's surprise, this time Lu zhengfeng and the brother of the Hong sect easily pushed the heavy bookshelf to the sides until it touched the two walls, revealing a gap of more than one meter wide in the middle.

But behind the bookshelf was an ordinary wall. Lui hai even knocked on it out of curiosity. The sound was muffled. Apparently, the wall was solid.

Everyone's expressions were a little strange. Yingluo, did Mr. Xia make a mistake?

Only old Gehrman had a sneer on his face, as if he already knew this would be the result.

Xia ruofei's expression remained the same. He strolled to the corner of the room and pulled down a brass lamp.

Suddenly, the sound of hinges could be heard. On the wall behind the bookshelf, about two meters high, the bricks slowly sank down, revealing a dark entrance.

"It really is a different world!"

"Godly! You can even discover this!"

"This is unbelievable ..."

Lui hai and the others all gasped and couldn't help exclaiming.

Old Geerman looked like he had seen a ghost.

Was there really a secret room here? Why didn't I know about it? What was going on?

He had always thought that Xia ruofei was bluffing, just like how Xia ruofei had always thought that he would not give up until he saw the Yellow River.

What old Gelman did not expect was that Xia ruofei would actually find the entrance to a secret room in this study!

At that moment, old Gehrman was starting to doubt his life.
