Chapter 2031 A huge amount of wealth_1

In fact, these kinds of traps and secret rooms that were set up by ordinary means, under the investigation of spiritual power, had almost no secrets to speak of. Xia ruofei had already used his spiritual power to investigate once before entering the building, so it was not surprising that he could find the treasure room.

For old ghelman, it was like a fairy tale.

Even he himself didn't know that there was such a secret room hidden in the study that he often used.

This Manor had originally belonged to the Moore family. After they took it for themselves, they had checked the house inside out and indeed found a secret room, but it was not on the first floor.

Therefore, when he saw that there was really a secret passage hidden here, he was shocked on one hand, but on the other hand, he was secretly relieved. Perhaps there were things left behind by the Moore family hidden here, but at least some of the Gehrman family's treasures would not be discovered.

Although he knew that it would be difficult for him to survive today, he didn't want to let the wealth accumulated by the Gelman family for several generations benefit these Chinese people.

Xia ruofei also noticed old Gelman's expression. He thought for a while and smiled. "Mr. Gelman, it seems that I have wronged you ... You really didn't know that there was a secret passage here!"

Old Gelman snorted coldly and did not say anything.

Xia ruofei was still smiling. "I'm also curious! The exit of this secret passage is set so high that it's not convenient for you to come in and out! How could there be such an anti – Human Design?"

Lu zhengfeng, who was at the side, was already a little impatient. He said, "Sir, it doesn't matter if this old man knows about this secret passage or not. There must be treasures in such a secret place! Let's go in and take a look!"

Xia ruofei waved his hand, indicating for him to calm down.

Then, Xia ruofei continued to smile and said to old Gelman, "Mr. Gelman, I forgot to tell you that this secret passage leads to a room on the second floor. The layout of that room is very interesting. It is hidden in the middle of many rooms, and through an ingenious spatial illusion, it makes it impossible for people to notice that there is a place isolated from the rest ..."

The more old Gehrman heard, the more he felt that something was wrong, and a bad feeling grew in his heart.

Xia ruofei chuckled. "That's right. If I'm wrong, there are two exits to the hidden room. One is here. The other one is ..."

He deliberately paused for a few seconds, then smiled and said, "The other one is behind the big bed in the master bedroom on the second floor! Like the two bookshelves, the heavy bed was designed with a guide track. After pulling the mechanism, it could be easily moved away, revealing the door of the secret room. How was it? Doesn't it sound familiar?"

Old Gehrman's eyes widened. Xia ruofei's smile was like a demon's smile, making him shudder.

How could he not be familiar with it? That was his treasure room on the second floor!

This treasure room was told to him by the Butler of the Moore family to save his life when he first entered the Moore Manor. At that time, there were many treasures of the Moore family hidden inside. Of course, they had all become his spoils of war.

Old Gehrman loved this secret room very much. After taking the collection of the Moore family for himself, he also put in the treasures that his family had collected for many years.

In the dead of the night, he would often go to the secret room and admire the past. Some of the treasures even came from the Middle Ages, and every one of them fascinated him.

The Butler of the Moore family, who had tried to save his own life, had naturally shut his mouth forever.

It was unknown whether the Butler had not had the time to tell him about the second entrance, or he wanted to keep something up his sleeve. In any case, even old Gehrman did not know about the secret passage in the study on the first floor.

Old Gelman thought that after the Butler died, no one would know the secret of the secret room. He didn't expect that this demon – like Chinese man in front of him could find a secret passage that even he himself didn't know about.

The thought of the wealth accumulated by generations in the secret room upstairs made old Gehrman's heart ache. He was like a mad beast, roaring and struggling violently.

The brothers of the Hong sect who were in charge of keeping him in custody didn't react in time and were directly flipped over by this old man.

However, old Gelman had been tied up and was like a trapped beast. Soon, he was pressed to the ground by the Hong sect brothers who rushed up.

Xia ruofei looked at old Gelman's Red eyes and did not feel any sympathy for him.

Those who kill will be killed.

According to Xia ruofei's understanding of lui hai, the number of souls that died directly or indirectly in old Gehrman's hands could fill up the whole Manor. Therefore, there was nothing to sympathize with this old man.

"Let's go! Let's take Mr. Gehrman and tour the treasure room!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

He walked straight to the front of the wall and pulled at the hole above his head. An exquisite ladder hung down. It was clearly designed.

Xia ruofei climbed up the ladder first, followed by Lyu zhengfeng and Lyu hai. As for the other brothers of the Hong sect, they didn't follow him, but stayed in the study to guard old Gelman.

Chapter 2032 A huge amount of wealth (2)

Because her brother Rousey could not move freely, Monica wanted to go and watch the show, but in the end, she chose to be with Rousey.

Unlike the design of ordinary secret passages, the entrance of this secret passage was about two meters high. Moreover, after entering the secret passage, there was a flight of steps that led up. No matter how one looked at it, it seemed to be designed in an anti – human way. It was unknown what the Moore family had thought back then.

Xia ruofei and the other two walked up a dozen steps along the secret passage. After pushing open a door, they entered a room.

The room wasn't big, only about a dozen square meters.

However, to be able to separate a space of three to four meters in both length and width among the many rooms, and to be undetectable from the outside, the design was actually very delicate.

The room only had two hidden doors and no windows, so it was pitch black when they entered.

However, Xia ruofei's eyesight was much better than ordinary people. When Lu zhengfeng and Lu hai were about to turn on the light function of the phone, he had found a rope switch on the wall.

Xia ruofei walked over and pulled on the light. A hanging light from the ceiling lit up.

After a short period of adjustment, lui hai and lui zhengfeng finally saw the whole room clearly. But they still couldn't help rubbing their eyes as if they couldn't believe what they saw.

The two uncouth men didn't know the value of the oil paintings on the four walls, so they didn't mention it for the time being. There were also two rows of shelves with a dazzling array of antiques. They ignored all of them and just looked at the large boxes in the room.

These boxes were stacked in a corner of the room, and there were at least twenty to thirty of them.

The two boxes at the top were still open, and they were filled with gold coins.

The only thing missing from this scene was a flag with a skull in the middle of the gold coins. Otherwise, it would be like a pirate's treasure like in the movies!

Lui hai had lived in Europe for many years, so he had a good eye. He walked over and took a handful of gold coins, then exclaimed, "It's the gold coins of Byzantine ..... There are so many of them!"

The Byzantine gold coins were called "medieval US dollars," and they were the common currency in that era.

If these 20 or 30 large boxes were all filled with this kind of gold coins, even if the collection value was not high due to the large number of gold coins in the world, the value of gold alone would be difficult to estimate.

Lyu hai and Lyu zhengfeng's breathing became rapid. In contrast, Xia ruofei was much calmer. With the increase of his cultivation, he was more and more indifferent to worldly wealth. He was more interested in the exquisite antiques and oil paintings on the two rows of shelves on the other side and enjoyed them with great interest.

“Mr. Xia, what ... What should we do with these gold coins?” Lui hai asked.

Xia ruofei said casually, “do as you see fit!” These are your spoils of war!”

“That won’t do!” Lui hai said hurriedly, “you’re the one who killed the Gelman family this time. We’re just assistants. We can’t take these things!”

The Hong sect valued loyalty the most. Those who were greedy for money would be despised by everyone. Moreover, Xia ruofei’s identity was not ordinary and his ability was beyond their imagination. No matter how valuable these gold coins were, they did not dare to covet them.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “let’s count first!” He still didn’t know if there were gold coins in those boxes! Also, now is not the time to decline, we have to transport these things back first!”

“Yes!” Lui hai agreed with Xia ruofei. Although the Gelman family could no longer pose a threat to them, it was hard to say whether old Gelman had asked for help from the glory society or whether the Turin police would come. Therefore, he couldn’t stay in this troublesome place for long. He had to quickly take everything away and return to his own base camp.

Lyu hai and Lyu zhengfeng immediately checked the boxes.

Of course, they couldn’t count the gold coins one by one. They just opened each box and confirmed what was inside to have a rough idea in their hearts.

At the same time, Lu zhengfeng immediately called a few of his most trusted brothers and arranged for a van to drive downstairs so that they could also enter the secret room to move things.

One by one, the boxes were opened and closed.

Gold coins, gold coins ... The boxes of gold coins were really visually shocking.

He opened more than a dozen boxes in a row, and all of them were gold coins from the Byzantine era.

When there were only about ten boxes left, they were filled with cash when they were opened again, all in euros.

No matter how indifferent Xia ruofei was to fame and fortune, he could not be numb to the sight of boxes of gold and euros.

He couldn’t help but ask, “does this guy like the feeling of being a nouveau riche?” Why are you hiding so much cash at home?”

Based on the size of the boxes, if ten boxes were full of such large banknotes, it would probably be hundreds of millions of euros.

“I can understand ...” Lui hai smiled, “these mafia families have a lot of money that can’t be exposed to the public. Although their money – laundering channels are very developed, it’s normal for them to keep some cash that hasn’t been laundered yet!”

There were tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of euros in money that had not been laundered? This was just a small Mafia family. Xia ruofei couldn't help but be secretly speechless.

Lu zhengfeng's men were still waiting outside. He told Lu hai to check all the boxes before moving them out. Although these brothers could be absolutely trusted, it would be better if they didn't see the things in the box.

One box, one box, another box ... He opened ten boxes in a row, all full of euros.

There was only one box left.

This box was placed in the corner of the wall, under the other boxes. It was only after they were all moved away that it was revealed.

Lu zhengfeng was already a bit numb to gold and euros. He went to open the box as usual. After taking a look, he couldn't help but exclaim, "It's not money ..."

Xia ruofei also took a look and couldn't help but laugh. "Although it's not in euros or gold coins, it seems to be more valuable!"

It was filled with jewelry, including pearls, diamonds, marnaw, and gemstones of all colors. Although it was only half a box, it was obviously worth much more than a box of euros.

"Zhengfeng, close the box!" Lui hai said. Tell the brothers to come in and move it! Right, let them bring in a few more boxes and take away all these antiques, oil paintings, and the like!"

"Alright!" Lu zhengfeng said.

Just as he was about to close the box, Xia ruofei suddenly said, "Wait a moment!"

Lu zhengfeng stopped what he was doing and looked at Xia ruofei. He asked, "Mr. Xia, is there a problem?"

Xia ruofei walked to the box and removed the Pearl agate covering it, revealing a gray box.

"There's another box here?" Lu zhengfeng was also a little surprised. "I didn't notice it just now ..."

"Mr. Xia, please open it!" Lui hai said with a smile, "since it's put together with these jewelries in a special box, the value of the things inside should be high!"

Xia ruofei nodded. He had also taken a quick glance at the box through the gaps of the jewelry and was curious.

He tried to use his mental power to probe it and found that his mental power could not penetrate the surface of the box. He then called Lu zhengfeng to stop.

"Stand further away. What if there's a trap or something ..." Xia ruofei said.

He wasn't joking. The material of this box couldn't even be penetrated by his spiritual power, so it was obviously not an ordinary item.

The information from the secular world was not much of a threat to him, but if it came from the world of cultivation, it was a different story.

He might be able to avoid the possible threats with the protection of his genuine Qi and his sensitive nerve reaction, but Lyu hai and Lyu zhengfeng would not be able to escape.

Seeing Xia ruofei being so serious, lui hai and lui zhengfeng stepped back.

“Forget it. For safety’s sake, you should all retreat into that passageway!” Xia ruofei said.

Although the two of them felt that he was making a mountain out of a molehill, they still carried out Xia ruofei’s order without hesitation.

Seeing that both Lyu hai and Lyu zhengfeng had retreated to the outside of the room, he started to operate his genuine Qi to protect his vital parts. Then, he concentrated and slowly opened the box ...

Chapter 2033 An unexpected gain (1)

The lid of the box was opened without any fluctuations.

There was no unknown danger as Xia ruofei had imagined. Instead, there was an aura that Xia ruofei was very familiar with. The box was filled with black stones that were neatly stacked. It was about half the box, and there were at least ten to twenty of them. These black stones were the realm stones that Xia ruofei had considered extremely precious.

Xia ruofei was also stunned.

To Xia ruofei’s spirit map space, the world stone was the best nourishment. If the space only relied on absorbing jades to level up, the consumption would undoubtedly be an astronomical figure. The conversion efficiency of the world stone would be much higher.

It was just that world stones were something that could only be encountered by luck and not sought out. It was extremely difficult to take the initiative to find one.

Xia ruofei had never thought that there would be such a pleasant surprise waiting for him after he destroyed a small Mafia family.

Could it be that in the future, he would have to find a few more evil mafia families and exterminate them? Xia ruofei thought.

Of course, this was just a joke. It was definitely a coincidence that the Gelman family’s treasure room had a boundary stone. No matter if these boundary stones were from the Moore family’s or the Gelman family’s collection, Xia ruofei could guarantee that they definitely did not know what these small black stones were used for. They probably just kept them as a collection.

The moment the box was opened, the White realmfox, who had been immersed in the mysterious space rules and constantly comprehending, suddenly opened its eyes.

Then, this little guy seemed to be injected with chicken blood, and his figure shot out like lightning, wanting to pass through the spatial barrier.

However, even though it was known as the darling of space, the White sector Fox did not have the ability to travel freely in the man – made space of the spirit map world.

The White realmfox was so anxious that it kept squeaking when it was bounced back after hitting the space membrane several times.

Its abnormality also quickly alarmed Xia Qing, who was busy in the space.

Xia Qing's control of space was naturally not as good as the realm Fox 'S. He also had no way to restrain the realm Fox, who had a tendency to go berserk. Seeing that this little fellow was going to continue jumping up and down, it was about to destroy the medicinal gardens and rice fields in the space. Xia Qing was also very anxious.

Just as he was about to contact his master, Xia ruofei, an invisible force enveloped the white fox and locked it in a narrow space cage.

In fact, Xia ruofei had sensed the White realm Fox's abnormal behavior in the spirit map space at the first moment. He knew that the little fellow's abnormal behavior must have something to do with the realm stones. After all, these were the most delicious food in the realm Fox's eyes!

After being restrained by Xia ruofei, the White realmfox continued to RAM around, hoping to break out of the cage. However, it was obviously in vain.

Xia ruofei used his spiritual energy to whisper into the White fox's ear,""Hey! Little fellow! Are you crazy!"

The White realmfox squeaked as it gestured.

Xia ruofei easily understood what the white fox was trying to say. He couldn't help but laugh."You want these world stones? In your dreams! I'm the one who discovered it!"

Xia ruofei ignored the jumping realm Fox and continued,""I haven't scolded you yet! You only know how to freeload off my family's spatial law comprehension all day. I've asked you to help me find world stones, but you have no results at all! This time, I discovered it on my own! Speaking of which, this world stone is right under our noses, yet you actually have no reaction at all! I say ... Are you sure you can do it? You're not bragging, are you?"

The White realm Fox waved its front claws and squeaked loudly, looking like a humiliated leopard.

Xia ruofei finally understood. The White realm Fox was trying to say that the realm stones were blocked by a strange container. Not a single trace of their aura leaked out, which was why it could not sense them.

Xia ruofei, who was still standing outside, couldn't help but look at the gray box in his hand. This was definitely not an ordinary Kasaya. Not only could it block the probing of spiritual energy, but it could also block the world Fox's heaven – defying sensing ability. Its material was definitely not ordinary.

Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to tell the white fox,""No matter what, you didn't put in any effort at all for this harvest, so why should you share the fruits of victory with me? You can't have the idea of getting something without working!"

The spirit map space was like a bottomless pit. If he wanted to level up, he had to keep absorbing world stones, and Xia ruofei didn't even have enough! How could he give it to the white fox as food?

If it was really the realm Fox that sensed it and guided him to find the realm stone, then out of the spirit of the contract, Xia ruofei did not mind sharing some with it. However, under such circumstances, unless Xia ruofei's head was stuck between a door, how could he have shared it for no reason?

The White realmfox's expression changed to a pleading one. No matter how one looked at it, it seemed to be flattering.

Xia ruofei laughed, "you haven't replenished your world stone for a long time. Are you starving?" Poor thing ..."

Then, Xia ruofei immediately changed the topic and said, ""You ate so many pieces last time. If you didn't save more, you'd deserve to starve to death!"

Xia ruofei continued, "don't even think about this batch of world stones!" There's no place for you! If you don't want to starve to death, please don't think about comprehending the laws by yourself all day long. Can you help me sense the world stone? I'll leave my words here! As long as you can find a clue to the world stone, I will definitely not keep it for myself. I will definitely give it to you!"

"Alright! Stop it!" Xia ruofei said, "reflect on your actions there! When you stop, I'll let you out!"

Chapter 2034 An unexpected gain (2)

Then, Xia ruofei used his spiritual power and said to Xia Qing, ""Watch it! Report to me immediately if anything happens!"

"Yes! Master!" Xia Qing said respectfully.

Next, Xia ruofei placed two layers of space outside the space cage where the White realmfox was imprisoned, locking it up tightly.

The rules of space here were different from the outside world. The White realmfox had used all its strength, but it still couldn't shake the space cage. Now that there were two more layers, it had to accept its fate and stopped going crazy.

Xia ruofei then retracted his spiritual power.

He closed the small box and said, ""Ah hai! Zhengfeng! Come in!"

After lui hai and lui zhengfeng came in, Xia ruofei said to them, ""Hurry up and let the brothers come in to move! Oh right, I want this box ..."

"Yes!" Lui hai and lui zhengfeng said in unison.

From their point of view, everything in the treasure room was Xia ruofei's spoils of war, including the box in his hands. Hence, they were only curious about the item in the box and were not dissatisfied at all.

After the members of the Hong sect came in, Lyu hai and Lyu zhengfeng divided the work.

Lyu hai went outside to supervise the people moving the boxes into the car, while Lyu zhengfeng stayed in the treasure room. He found a stack of white paper and wrote a seal. Before each box was moved out of the treasure room, the seal was stuck on it.

One of the brothers was inside, and the other was outside. This basically put an end to the possibility of this batch of treasures being stolen.

It was a little troublesome to move the antiques and oil paintings, but it was easy to find a few boxes in the large Gelman Manor.

They found boxes of different sizes and stuffed them with waste paper, foam, and other shock absorbers. They also packed the antiques and oil paintings on the wall one by one, put on seals, and carried them out.

One van couldn't fit everything, so lui hai asked people to drive two more vans and finally loaded all the items in the treasure room.

Old Gehrman watched helplessly as his family's treasures were taken away. His heart felt like it was bleeding, but he had no other choice.

Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to check. He even considered the box's unique attribute of shielding his spiritual power. After checking with his spiritual power, he personally knocked on the walls a few times to make sure that he did not miss any hidden space. Then, he left the treasure room through the secret passage.

"Sir, everything has been loaded into the car!" Lu zhengfeng said respectfully.

"What about the other brothers?" Xia ruofei nodded.

"It's almost done!" Lu zhengfeng said, "those that need to be cleaned up have been cleaned up. Those that need to be taken away have also been loaded into the car!"

Xia ruofei nodded and looked around. He realized that other than old Gehrman, who was tied up and thrown on the carpet, the bodyguards and Butler were all gone.

He could roughly guess what would happen to these people. Basically, anyone who could pose a threat to the Hong sect would not be able to escape death. After all, this was the Gehrman Manor. Those who remained were the loyal followers of the Gehrman family. If they were not eliminated, they might become a hidden danger in the future. And those who were indeed old, weak, women, and children would also be driven out of the manor area.

"Then it's about time to retreat ..." Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Then, he slowly walked to old Gehrman and squatted down.

Although old ghelman no longer had any hope of staying alive, he still couldn't help but tremble when the moment came, and his eyes were full of fear.

At this moment, old Gehrman finally experienced the fear and despair in the hearts of the people he tortured and killed before they died.

However, to his surprise, Xia ruofei did not kill him directly. He only patted him lightly and said with a smile, "Goodbye, Mr. Gelman!"

After he finished speaking, he stood up and walked straight out.

Old Gelman was stunned. You're letting me off just like that? This didn't make sense!

And ... Since you don't intend to kill me, can you please release that damn rope first?

Not only old Gelman, but also Lyu hai and Lyu zhengfeng were stunned.

Lui hai hurried to catch up with Xia ruofei, saying in a low voice, "Mr. Xia, we can't let this old man Live!"

"I know!" Xia ruofei said without turning his head.

Lui hai thought for a while and said, "Understood!"

"Understand what?" Xia ruofei smiled and glanced at him. "I didn't ask you to kill him! Let's go! Don't let our brothers wait, hurry up and get in the car!"

"Ah?" Lui hai was stunned.

After all this talk, you still want to let this old man go?

Although he was full of questions, Xia ruofei was no different from a God in his heart. He did not hesitate to follow Xia ruofei's order and immediately called Lu zhengfeng to follow.

At first, Lu zhengfeng was a little worried about the treasure in the van and wanted to escort it with the van. However, Xia ruofei stopped him and let him go with him.

What a joke, with him in the convoy, the treasures in the Vans couldn't possibly fly away.

Thus, it was still Lu zhengfeng who drove. Xia ruofei, Lu hai, Monica and Monica all sat in the same car. Soon, the team drove out of the Gelman Manor.

The huge Manor was quiet. The bodyguards, guards, and other staff members had either been killed by the Hong sect brothers or driven out, leaving only old Gelman, who was tied up and thrown on the ground.

As the car drove on the private road outside the manor, Xia ruofei, who was sitting in the middle row, suddenly asked with a smile, "You guys don't understand, right?"

"I don't dare!" Lui hai said hurriedly, "Mr. Xia must have his own reasons for not killing old Gelman. We dare not speculate!"

Xia ruofei took out the remote control from his pocket with a smile and handed it to lui hai.

Lui hai was stunned and took it subconsciously.

While driving, Lu zhengfeng turned his head and took a look. He asked curiously, "Isn't this the old man's remote control? Speaking of which, she was really shocked by him at that time! I didn't expect that old man to be bluffing!"

Xia ruofei revealed a mischievous smile and said, "Zhengfeng, why don't you try pressing it?"

"Isn't this thing broken?" Lyu zhengfeng was confused. He held the steering wheel with one hand and took the remote control from Lyu hai with the other.

Then, he found the only button on the remote control and pressed it hard.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

A violent explosion sounded behind him, and the entire ground shook.

Lu zhengfeng, who was driving, was even more shocked. His hands trembled and he almost drove the car into a ditch. Fortunately, Xia ruofei was prepared. He held the back of the driver's seat with one hand and adjusted the direction for him with the other.

Lu zhengfeng stepped hard on the brake and stopped the car.

The other vehicles in the convoy were also shocked by the explosion and stopped one after another.

Lu zhengfeng turned around and looked at the Gelman Manor that had been blown to ruins. His voice had changed a little. "Mr ... Mr. Xia, what's going on?"

Xia ruofei held back his laughter and said seriously, "Zhengfeng! Well done! All the evidence of our activities in the manor will be destroyed! I told you that there was no need to deal with the surveillance video!"

"No... I ..." Lu zhengfeng looked at the remote control in his hand, and the scene of old Gehrman pressing it hard but not being able to move kept appearing in his mind. "Didn't old Gehrman just ..."

"You're talking about that old man!" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "you've blown him up with your own hands! The explosives were buried right under his butt. I'm guessing that he's been blown up to the point where not even his bones can be found!"

"I ..." Lu zhengfeng did not know whether to laugh or cry.

Xia ruofei's godlike image in his mind started to crumble. Where did such a naughty God come from? When the explosion happened, he was so scared that he almost peed his pants ... And he had already killed so many core members of the Gelman family, so why did he keep this old man alive? He even tricked him into pressing that button ...

Killing people was nothing to Lu zhengfeng, but he would still have a little shadow in his heart if he blew a person up until not even the bones were left.

Lui hai also looked at lui zhengfeng with a funny expression, "Alright, alright, hurry up and drive! The police should be here soon! By the way, inform the brothers in the front car that we'll take a slight detour and not let the surveillance cameras along the way capture us!"

"Oh! Alright!" Lu zhengfeng said quickly. Then, he restarted the car and directed the convoy to continue moving forward through the walkie – talkie.

Chapter 2035 The aftermath (1)

It was already one o'clock in the morning when they returned to the Hong sect's branch in Turin.

This rainy night was undoubtedly filled with blood. Xia ruofei had killed more than ten core members of the Gelman family. The Hong sect had taken the initiative to attack the Gelman family. Both sides had suffered casualties. Of course, in general, the Gelman family, who was in a state of panic, must have suffered more losses.

As old Gelman also flew into the sky in the violent explosion, it could be said that the name of the Gelman family had been completely wiped out. The remaining small fish and shrimp, without a leader, naturally scattered. Even if they stayed in Turin, they did not dare to disclose their former identity.

The Hong sect had gained a lot, and they had basically replaced the Geerman family as the most powerful force in the underworld of Turin.

Of course, the Turin police force would definitely increase their control of the Hong sect. The Hong sect needed to stay low for a while to consolidate their territory.

Boxes of various sizes were moved into the meeting room in the small building and stacked neatly together.

Lyu hai and Lyu zhengfeng told the others to leave.

"Mr. Xia," lui hai said respectfully, "these are your spoils. How do you want to deal with them?"

Xia ruofei replied casually, "Didn't I tell you?" I'll take this box, you guys can split the rest! It's not a bad idea to leave it for your daily expenses!"

In Xia ruofei's opinion, that half box of world stones was much more valuable than gold, jewelry, and cash. Furthermore, he had already achieved financial freedom. These things were worth a lot, but how could he take them? He couldn't put them into the spirit map space in front of so many people, could he?

Besides, although the Hong sect had gained a lot of benefits from this trip, especially their power in Turin, which would definitely expand greatly, they were still helping Xia ruofei. He could just take the treasures as compensation for his hard work.

Obviously, lui hai didn't dare to accept it, so he said hurriedly, "You must not! Mr. Xia, you can't accept a reward without doing anything! We've already killed Turin's biggest enemy, so how can we take your loot?"

Xia ruofei furrowed his brows and said, "I'm sure many of our brothers were killed or injured in tonight's operation." Take out a part of this money to compensate our dead and injured brothers, and leave the rest for your activities!"

After saying that, Xia ruofei didn't give lui hai and lui zhengfeng a chance to decline, he yawned and said, "Alright, alright, let's not talk about these small things anymore! I'm tired after a busy night! I'm going to sleep!"

With that, Xia ruofei carried the gray box and left the small meeting room.

Lyu hai and Lyu zhengfeng looked at each other while facing the room full of gold, silver and jewelries.

"What should we do, big brother hai?" Lu zhengfeng asked after a long while.

Even if Xia ruofei did not care about these treasures, Lu zhengfeng did not dare to take them. They were hot to the touch!

"How should I know?" lui hai said with worry.

"If Mr. Xia doesn't accept it, we can't take it either! Are we going to throw it away in the river?" Lu zhengfeng said, "why don't you ... Ask uncle Yi?" We'll do whatever the old man says!"

"Yes," lui hai nodded, "that's the only way ..."

"I might as well make the call now!" Lu zhengfeng said, "the United States is six hours behind us. It's only about eight o'clock in the evening now. Uncle Yi shouldn't be sleeping so early!"

"Alright!" Lui hai said while taking out his phone, finding Li Yifu's number and making a call.

Of course, Li Yifu didn't rest. Lui hai had reported to him that Turin was preparing to take action tonight, so he had been waiting for the news.

Li Yifu's phone rang, and he immediately picked it up.

"Ah hai! How's the situation?" Li Yifu asked.

"Uncle Yi! Mr. Xia is a God!" Lui hai couldn't contain his excitement, "he's invincible, even snipers can't do anything to him!" We'll wipe out the entire Gelman family in one night!"

To Li Yifu, this was all within his expectations. He nodded lightly and said, "Uncle Yi didn't trick you, did he?"

Lui hai scratched his head with embarrassment, "Uncle, we are just ordinary people, how can we imagine the ability of a master like Mr. Xia? I'm a little short-sighted, please don't make fun of me ..."

On one hand, he wanted to ease his embarrassment, and on the other hand, he needed to ask Li Yifu about the treasures. So lui hai quickly said, "Uncle Yi, there's still something we don't know how to do, and we'd like to hear your opinion ..."

Li Yifu suddenly became serious and asked, "Is it related to Mr. Xia?"

"It can be considered so!" Lui hai knew how important Mr. Xia was in Li Yifu's heart, so he didn't dare to keep him in suspense. He immediately said, "well, we are in the old nest of the German family ..."

Lui hai briefly told him about the treasures and then asked, "Uncle Yi, it's a hot potato to hold onto these treasures! But Mr. Xia insists on not accepting it, what should we do?"

Li Yifu also fell into hesitation after hearing this.

Xia ruofei's words were the Golden Rule for him, but the situation was different.

Li Yifu muttered to himself for a long time before he made a decision and said, "How about this! You can estimate the market value of these items, then take out the money from the Hong sect's funds and transfer it to Mr. Xia. I will give you the account number! All you need to do is to report the valuation to the headquarters, and I will inform the others! I'll personally pay the rest to the organization!"

Chapter 2036 The aftermath (2)

Whether it was gold coins or antiques, they definitely could not be sold through normal auction channels. If they went to the black market, the price would be discounted. In addition, there would definitely be losses in the process of whitewashing such a large amount of money.

According to Li Yifu's plan, no matter how much these things were actually worth, he would transfer all of them to Xia ruofei and he would pay for the loss. This way, the Hong sect would not lose any money.

Hearing that, lui hai hurriedly said, "understood!" Don't worry, uncle Yi, we'll take care of it!"

With Li Yifu's words, this hot potato finally had a place to go. Although it would be troublesome to evaluate the price and find a safe channel to sell it, the Hong sect had been in Europe and the United States for so many years. It was still possible to do this.

Li Yifu told lui hai to keep it a secret from Xia ruofei and then hung up the phone.

Lui hai put away his phone and said to Lu zhengfeng, ""Uncle Yi has spoken. He wants us to evaluate the price first, then apply for funds from the higher – ups and send it directly to Mr. Xia. What we need to do now is to figure out the value of this batch of property, and then find a suitable channel to exchange them for money. Uncle Yi will take care of the rest!"

Lu zhengfeng also heaved a sigh of relief and said, ""That's much easier!"

Xia ruofei didn't know the result of the discussion between Li Yifu and lui hai. After he returned to his room, he put the small gray box into the spirit map space. The White realm Fox was still confined in a small space by him. Naturally, he didn't need to worry that the little guy would take away the precious realm stones.

Of course, he was also rather wary of the realm Fox's spatial talent, so he still instructed Xia Qing to inform him as soon as the little fellow showed any signs of escaping, so as not to let it waste these realm stones.

Although Xia ruofei wanted to let the spirit map space absorb the world stones directly, this was a foreign land after all. Moreover, with so many world stones absorbed, the space would probably level up again. It would be bad if there were any strange phenomena, so he decided to let the space absorb them when he returned home.

After keeping the world stones, Xia ruofei went to take a shower and went to bed.

Although he had killed a few people that night, it did not affect his sleep. He still slept all the way until dawn.

When he woke up, Xia ruofei was also thinking about it. He did not know if it was because of the improvement in his cultivation that his respect for life seemed to have decreased a lot. He still remembered the first time he went on an actual combat mission. After he had personally killed a drug dealer, he could not eat for a week. Every time he closed his eyes, he would see the bullet hole in the drug dealer's forehead that was bleeding ...

Although he had killed the core members of the Mafia last night, and every one of them deserved to die, he did not have any psychological trauma at all. This made Xia ruofei a little uncomfortable.

Just as he was sitting on the bench under the eaves in the backyard, staring at the light rain in the garden in a daze, a sweet voice came from behind him.

"Mr. Xia! What are you thinking about?"

Xia ruofei turned around and realized that Monica was already behind him.

Monica was wearing a long black down jacket, and her hot figure was wrapped in the down jacket. She was less sexy and attractive, but more cute.

Looking at Monica's relaxed smile, Xia ruofei felt that his hard work these few days had not been in vain. This trip to Italy was not in vain.

He stood up with a smile and said, "I'm not thinking about anything. I'm just in a daze!" Monica, did you sleep well last night?"

"Of course! This is the most peaceful sleep I've had in the past few months!" Monica looked into Xia ruofei's eyes and said sincerely, "Xia, thank you!"

Xia ruofei smiled and made room for Monica to sit down.

The two of them sat side by side on a bench facing the garden.

"Monica, do you have any plans for the future?" Xia ruofei asked.

Monica's face revealed a trace of astonishment as she said, "I don't know ... I grew up in Turin, and I have many good memories. However ... This city has also left me with many bad memories ..."

"The Gelman family is history," Xia ruofei said. "If you're willing to stay in Turin, no one will cause you any trouble!"

"I know ..." Monica said. "I think I need to think about it and ask Rousey for his opinion ... Xia, can we stay for a few more days?"

Xia ruofei shrugged. "Of course! You can stay as long as you want!"

"Thank you!" Monica stood up and said, "I'm going to see Rousey. There are no nurses here. I have to take care of him!"

Hearing this, Xia ruofei's heart skipped a beat. "Have you done a detailed examination of Rousey's condition? Is there any possibility of recovery?"

"I've seen a lot of doctors over the years. This is the after – effect of severe polio, which can only be improved through rehabilitation training. The possibility of a complete recovery is very low!" Monica said sadly.

Then, she quickly smiled and said, "But Rossi is a very optimistic young man, and he's quite smart! Although he needs the help of a wheelchair, he can still take care of himself in most situations!"

"I can tell!" Xia ruofei nodded.

"Then I'll head over first, goodbye!" Monica said.

“Goodbye!”

After Monica left, Xia ruofei said without looking back, “Ah hai, come out! What are you hiding there for?”

Xia ruofei had already noticed that lui hai was hiding behind them, but Monica was here just now, so he pretended not to know.

Lui hai walked out from the corner with embarrassment, “Mr. Xia, I saw that you were talking to miss Grasso and was afraid to disturb you ...”

“Is there something you need?” Xia ruofei asked.

“It’s like this. That Carlos woke up in the hospital. He wants to see miss Grasso. We can’t make the decision, so we have to ask you ...” Lui hai said.

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment before he remembered who exactly karlas was.

“This old man isn’t dead yet?” he asked, raising his eyebrows.

Lui hai smiled embarrassedly, “after all, he’s a victim of the Geerman family!” That’s why when our brothers from the Hong sect left, they took him to the hospital for the sake of humanity ...”

Speaking of which, he had to thank old Gehrman for beating him up so badly that the brothers from the Hong sect would take him down the mountain and help him inform the Grasso family to send him to the hospital.

If he had really been imprisoned somewhere in the manor, he would have died in the explosion last night.

“This old man is quite lucky!” Xia ruofei said, “he wants to see Monica? What are they trying to do?”

“Yes,” lui hai said, “he said that he hoped miss Grasso could take over the family. He’s willing to give up his position as the family head and assist her with all his might!”

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said with a smile, “This old man is quite smart!”

Obviously, he knew that the Gelman family was finished, and the underground Kings of Turin would be the Chinese from last night.

Monica was clearly very close to this Chinese mafia group.

If he didn’t say anything, Monica would have every reason to take revenge on him and the entire Grao family based on the various suppression and restrictions he had placed on Monica and her brother in the past.

A pure business family like them could easily crush the Gelman family, let alone this Chinese organization that was even more terrifying than the Gelman family.

Therefore, it was wise for him to give up the position of The Family Leader to Monica. Maybe he could get her forgiveness. Under Monica’s leadership, with the support of the Chinese, the family would be able to do well in Turin, and their business would grow.

It had to be said that this old man had a good plan!

Chapter 2037 Returning to the country (1)

"I can't make the decision on this matter!" Xia ruofei said, "we have to see if Monica is willing! How about this ... I'll find a suitable opportunity to ask her. "

"Alright!" Lui hai said. He looked at the direction where Monica left and said with a smile, "Mr. Xia, you're so nice to Ms. Grasso!"

In fact, lui hai had seen all the things that Xia ruofei had done for Monica. But what puzzled him was that although Monica was grateful to Xia ruofei and respected him, she didn't seem to admire him like a man and a woman.

Could it be that a super awesome man like Mr. Xia still had girls he couldn't hit on?

"You're the one who talks too much!" Xia ruofei said, "let's settle the Hong sect first!" You'll be busy for a while from now on!"

"Hehe!" Lui hai smiled, "it's all thanks to you, Mr. Xia!" We won't be able to stay idle for a while!"

"By the way, is there any reaction from the glory society?" Xia ruofei asked.

Lui hai said seriously, "our brothers in the Italy Freemasonry are paying close attention to the movement of the glorious Association. So far, they have not done anything unusual. According to our spies, the elder behind the Gelman family is very angry. He even proposed to take revenge on the Italian Freemasonry ..."

"Oh? What's the attitude of the glory society's higher – ups?" Xia ruofei did not find it strange that the Hong sect had a mole in the glorious society. He was more concerned about the collective will of this huge mafia organization.

After all, if it really turned into a full – scale conflict, Xia ruofei would not be afraid of them. However, there would be casualties in the Hong sect. No matter how powerful Xia ruofei was, he could not protect all the brothers in the Hong sect.

Moreover, this kind of full – scale gang conflict in Italy and even all of Europe would definitely cause heavy casualties.

Naturally, Xia ruofei did not want to see such an outcome.

"Yes." Lui hai smiled, "the glory society isn't United. The old Mafia family has many factions. It's hard to pass such a radical motion! "Besides, we've only used the people from the Turin branch this time. It's a local competition, so the glorious Association doesn't dare to expand the scope of the conflict. That's why the elder's proposal wasn't passed. "

"That's good ..." Xia ruofei heaved a sigh of relief.

Lui hai smiled, "don't worry, Mr. Xia!" At most, they will express their dissatisfaction to me and the headquarters of the Hong sect in North America. If they really want to start a full – scale war with us, those big noses won't dare to!"

Xia ruofei nodded. "We can't let our guard down. Ah hai, you have to monitor the glorious Association's movements closely. If there's anything unusual, inform me immediately!"

"Yes!" Lui hai answered seriously.

After lunch, Xia ruofei called Monica over to the back garden and told her about the incident with Caras. He then asked, "Monica, what do you think of this matter?"

Monica was silent for a long time before she said, "Xia ... I'm conflicted too ... I've grown up in this family and have been in the truffle business ... It's just that this family has left me with too many bad memories. I don't know if it's a good choice to go back ..."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I can see that you still have feelings for your family ..."

"No! I hate them!" Monica retorted, "ever since grandfather passed away, those carefree days have come to an end ... Especially this time. Rousey and I have been restricted by our family, and Calas even used Rousey to threaten me ..."

Xia ruofei looked at Monica and said, "I understand!" But think about it from another perspective, you only hate Calas and those family members led by him. Can they represent the entire family?"

Monica's eyes revealed a hint of confusion as she said, "I don't know ... Only uncle muntley and Aunt Jessica stood up for me in this family crisis, but they have been marginalized ..."

"Actually, many of our clansmen are probably angry but don't dare to say anything!" Xia ruofei said, "you can't expect everyone to be so selfless, but this is your family after all. Many of them are related to you by blood, some close and some distant ..."

Xia ruofei looked into Monica's eyes and said, "Monica, I won't interfere with your decision, but I can tell you that if you return to the family, Calas will give up his position as the head of the family. The Hong sect will support you unconditionally, and you can easily control the family! Who I think is good to you and who is not good to you; You should have a scale in your heart as to who's the majority that doesn't dare to speak out, and who's gloating over someone's misfortune when they're down. When you take control of the family, you can just drive those people who treat you and Rousey badly out of the decision – making circle or even the family. For people like uncle Monteli and Aunt Jessica, who will never leave you in times of need, you can totally put them in important positions! At that time, how the family operates will be up to you. I guarantee that no one will dare to say no!"

The confusion in Monica's eyes gradually disappeared. She was obviously moved by Xia ruofei's suggestion.

Chapter 2038 Returning to the country (2)

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I don't think you want the truffle family, which has been passed down for so long, to fall from grace." Besides, if you go back, you can help people like uncle muntley and give them a better stage to show off. "Of course, I will respect any decision you make. If you are not willing to return, I will send someone to speak to that Calas. Even if you want to continue to squeeze the living space of the Grasso family, there will be no problem!"

At this moment, a voice came from behind them, "Monica! Let's go back!"

Monica turned around and saw that Rousey had already arrived behind them.

Monica quickly walked over and said, "Rousey, what are you doing here? The wind is strong outside ..."

"Monica, I heard everything Mr. Xia said to you just now." Rousey said, "I know what you're hesitating about! But I can tell you that I also want you to return to the family ..."

"But they did that to you ..." Monica frowned.

Obviously, what she cared more about was that the family had once used Rossi as a bargaining chip to make Monica hesitate and not even dare to escape. She was still brooding over this matter.

"Only by going back to take control of the family can we make those who have treated us badly pay the price!" Rousey said with a smile. Only when you go back will the clan be our clan, isn't it?"

Xia ruofei stepped aside with a smile after Rossi appeared, letting the siblings make their own decision.

Monica fell into deep thought after hearing Rossi's words. After a long while, she raised her head and said to Xia ruofei, "Mr. Xia, I've decided to listen to your suggestion and return to my family!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "OK! I'll get them to make the arrangements as soon as possible!"

.....

Two days later, Xia ruofei and lui hai came to the Grasso family with Monica and her brother.

Along with him was the heavily bandaged klass.

He had many fractures on his body, so it was naturally impossible for him to be discharged so soon. However, when he found out that Monica had decided to return to the family today, he still struggled to get people to carry him back.

Many of the members of the Grao family had their own houses in Turin, but most of the direct descendants lived in a small Manor in the southern suburbs of Turin.

Some time ago, after the Moore family, which had just found a backer, was swallowed up by the Gehrman family, the members of the Grao family had always been in a state of panic. The events that had happened in the past few days had made the small number of people who had suppressed Monica and Rossi in various ways, or who had helped the evildoers, feel even more uneasy.

Today, Monica, accompanied by the people of the Italy Hong sect, returned to the family with the attitude of a King. Everyone looked at her with a complicated expression.

Karlas announced on the spot that Monica would take over the position of the head of the Grasso family from today.

No one was surprised. The winner was the king and the loser was the bandit. This was an eternal truth.

Since Monica had already made up her mind, she naturally wouldn't decline. She took the sapphire ring that symbolized the clan leader's power from Calas's hand.

Then, she took out a piece of paper and announced a series of personnel changes in the family.

The faction led by Calas was stripped of all their positions without exception. They were temporarily left to work at the most basic level in the family to see what would happen next.

Of course, Monica did not kick them out directly not because she was merciful. In fact, it was Xia ruofei's suggestion to keep them in the family so that she could slowly investigate. Once she found out that they had embezzled money from the family's company, Monica would definitely not be soft – hearted and deal with them.

With the threat of the Hong sect, these people didn't even have the thought of running away. They could only helplessly accept Monica's arrangement.

When some people left the core, there would naturally be others who reentered the decision – making circle.

Like the monter couple that Monica had mentioned, she had entrusted them with important tasks. As Monica's assistant, Monti was in charge of many businesses that were originally firmly controlled by Calas and the others. His wife, Jessica, was also in an important position and was in charge of the family's internal affairs.

There were also some capable clansmen who had sympathized with Monica and her brother's experience and were promoted.

Xia ruofei and the others were there to support Monica. They did not express any opinions throughout the entire process. Just by standing there, they were already the biggest deterrence to them.

Monica arranged everything in an orderly manner.

The family's business had almost been cut off during this period of time, and it could be said that there were many things to be done now.

Previously, she might have harbored some resentment in her heart, but after she got busy, she had forgotten about it. She just felt very fulfilled.

Xia ruofei waited for Monica to finish her business before walking over. He smiled and said, "Monica! You've made the right decision! Look! Now you're glowing!"

Monica said, a little embarrassed, "It's all thanks to your help! Thank you!"

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "you don't have to be so polite ... Since you're fine here, we'll go back!" Ah Yong and Ah Hua will stay to help you. If there are any blind people who dare to go against you, tell them ..."

When the members of the Grasso family saw the two burly men who represented the underground Kings of Turin, they couldn't help but tremble.

Monica said gratefully, "thanks!" Xia, I'll make arrangements for the two brothers from the Hong sect! Thank you!"

“Goodbye!” Xia ruofei said, “by the way, I might be returning to my country in two days. I hope that the next time we meet, you’ll have already brought the Grasso family to greater heights!”

“Are you going back?” Monica’s heart trembled for some reason. “Which day are you flying? I’ll go to the airport to send you off!”

“No need!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “in Chinese words, we’ll meet again if we’re fated!”

After saying that, Xia ruofei waved to Monica and walked out of the door with lui hai and the others.

Monica looked at Xia ruofei’s back as he walked further and further away. She felt an inexplicable sense of reluctance.

When she was with Xia ruofei, she always had a strange feeling. It was as if the two of them were very familiar, but this familiar feeling would suddenly disappear.

I can’t possibly have a good impression of him, right? It was impossible! ‘I already have someone for Xia Xin. It’s impossible for me to accommodate other men ...’ Monica said in her heart.

This ‘Xia’ was not the ‘Xia Tian’ after the disguise. It was the Xia ruofei in Monica’s mind.

Thinking of Xia ruofei, Monica couldn’t help but mock him. Could this Xia guy have forgotten about me? They hadn’t been in contact for so long, and he didn’t reply to the email she sent him last time ...

After a long while, Monica finally managed to calm down her complicated feelings. She continued to lead Monterey and the others to discuss the next step of the family’s development plan.

.....

The next day, Xia ruofei boarded a flight to Huaxia.

After more than ten hours of flight, Xia ruofei had returned to the capital of Huaxia.

He didn’t inform anyone about his return from Italy. After leaving the Beijing International Airport, he took a taxi to a busy shopping mall in the city and found a bathroom to restore his original appearance.

Then, he changed his clothes and put away his phone, watch, clothes, passport, and other things that he had used during his stay in Italy. He walked out of the bathroom, hailed a taxi at the entrance of the mall, and went straight to his courtyard house.

In the car, Xia ruofei turned on his phone. During his time in Italy his original mobile phone had been turned off, mainly to prevent being located in Italy.

As soon as he turned on his phone, he received an email notification.

He opened it and saw that it was from Monica a few days ago. After reading the contents, Xia ruofei couldn’t help but feel a little dazed ...

Chapter 2039 A face full of confusion (1)

In fact, Xia ruofei had already seen Monica’s determination in the courtyard of Toles ‘villa that day.

When he saw the email today, his heart was in turmoil.

There was no doubt that Monica had written her last letter in that situation. Monica did not hide her passionate feelings for Xia ruofei at all in the letter. She also sincerely asked Xia ruofei to go to Italy to save her brother Rossi. It was equivalent to entrusting her child to her.

Xia ruofei stared at the phone screen for a long time. Suddenly, he raised his head and said, "Sir, please find a place to Park."

The taxi driver looked at Xia ruofei in surprise and said, "This place is quite far from liuhai Lane!"

"I'm sorry, I suddenly remembered that I have something to do. I won't go back for the time being!" Xia ruofei said.

"Alright!" The taxi driver replied readily. He then found a temporary parking spot and slowly stopped the car.

Xia ruofei took out a 100 yuan note and handed it to the man. "Thank you, master! There's no need to look ..."

Then, he pushed the door open and got out of the car.

Xia ruofei stood on the streets of the capital. They had just parted ways, but he still missed Monica, who was far away in Italy.

Xia ruofei muttered to himself on the street.

Monica mentioned in the email that her brother, Rossi, was under house arrest by the family, and naturally, she also mentioned Rossi's physical disability.

In Xia ruofei's eyes, this was an opportunity.

In fact, when he was in Italy, Xia ruofei already had the intention to save Rousey. However, he had appeared in Turin as Xia Tian and had only met Monica by chance. If the Hong sect's attack on the Gelman family could be explained by the Hong sect's own interests, then his action of treating Rousey's leg disease, which was the sequelae of polio, which was not effectively treated by modern medicine, was very abrupt.

Initially, Xia ruofei had planned to find a reason or pretend to ask about Monica's family after returning to the country. He would then suggest to try treating Rousey after learning about his condition.

Now that Monica had mentioned it in her email, Xia ruofei did not need to go in circles.

He thought for a while and called Monica.

.....

In a small Manor in the southern suburbs of Turin.

Monica was carefully reading the financial statements in her exclusive office. The first thing she would do after taking over the GLO family was to thoroughly check the accounts of several companies under the family.

The core assets of the Grao family were these few companies, which were mainly engaged in truffle – related industries. Before this, it was naturally people who were absolutely loyal to Calas who held the power of the company. Now that Monica was in power, the first thing she had to do was to firmly grasp these few companies in her hands.

Controlling the financial lifeline was equivalent to controlling the entire family.

In addition to sending her more trusted clansmen to take over the company, Monica also entrusted a third – party independent accounting firm to conduct a comprehensive investigation of the accounts of these family companies.

The first purpose of doing so was naturally to find evidence of people from the original Calas's side embezzling positions and pocketing. On the other hand, they also hoped to clear up the company's accounts and solve all the problems left behind by history. Only then would everyone be able to travel with ease.

So Monica was quite busy these few days. Even her younger brother, Rousey, who couldn't walk properly, couldn't stay idle. He was also helping Monica take care of many matters of the family.

Monica looked at it very carefully, so much so that the phone on the desk rang a few times before she reacted.

She frowned slightly. There had been too many calls for her in the past few days, and it was difficult for her to concentrate on her work. Most of these calls were for her instructions and reports.

Monica had just taken over the family's overall Affairs. She had to adopt a gentle attitude towards the family members, especially those who had taken the middle position in the matter between her and Rousey.

Therefore, although Monica was a little unhappy, she still put down the financial statement in her hand and reached for her phone.

When she saw the caller's name on her phone, her beautiful eyes suddenly exuded a strange light, and her heart beat faster.

Monica's hands trembled as she swiped open the phone screen and answered the call.

"Xia?" Monica said with a trembling voice.

She could not believe it. Xia ruofei seemed to have disappeared for the past few days. He did not reply to her urgent help email at all. Sometimes, she even wondered if Xia ruofei had deleted her contact information and did not even use the email address he left her.

After all, even though she and Xia ruofei had been together a few times, they had never confirmed their relationship as lovers. The two of them were more like each other's relief from loneliness and didn't have to take responsibility for each other. Even if Xia ruofei disappeared from her life, it wouldn't be a surprise.

Xia ruofei's gentle voice came from the phone. ""Monica, it's me!"

Monica's tears flowed down immediately.

She didn't know how she had survived these days. She didn't dare to imagine what kind of tragic fate she would have faced if it wasn't for that young Chinese man who also had the surname Xia.

Perhaps the best outcome would have been that she had successfully stabbed Toles to death that day, and then had the time to commit suicide!

Chapter 2040 A face full of confusion (2)

"Monica, are you listening?" Xia ruofei's voice was heard from the phone.

"I'm here ..." Monica quickly said.

"I'm sorry!" Xia ruofei said, "due to some special reasons, I didn't check my emails in time. I just saw your email ... How's the situation on your side?"

Monica could feel Xia ruofei's concern. She said, "The most difficult stage has passed. Xia, don't worry, I'm safe now!"

Xia ruofei pretended to heave a sigh of relief and said, "That's good! That's good! I was scared to death when I saw your email ..."

Although Monica had guessed countless times that Xia ruofei would not appear in front of her and had blamed Xia ruofei countless times, Monica still felt warm in her heart at this moment. She smiled and said, "I'm fine now! By the way, Xia, Did you know? The reason why I was able to turn the tide this time was all thanks to a fellow Countryman of yours!"

"My fellow countrymen?" Xia ruofei asked, pretending to be curious as he tried to suppress his laughter.

"Yup! And he's also surnamed Xia like you!" Monica said excitedly, "do you know? When I first saw him, I almost thought he was you!"

"Do I look like him?" Xia ruofei asked.

"Actually, it doesn't look like it!" Monica said, "but that feeling was very strange. I almost mistook him for someone else a few times. Sometimes, that familiar feeling made it seem like that Mr. Xia was you!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but secretly wipe his sweat. A woman's sixth sense was too scary!

He was sure that his appearance, temperament, and even height had all changed. Even people who were very familiar with him would not easily connect the two identities together.

Monica was naturally the same, but she always had a familiar feeling. This feeling was unclear. Perhaps it could only be explained by a woman's intuition.

Xia ruofei listened to Monica's vivid description of what had happened in the past few days. Although Xia ruofei had experienced it personally and was very clear about everything, he still listened with great interest.

Monica's excitement could even affect Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei didn't say anything. At this time, being a loyal listener was obviously the best choice.

Finally, Monica finished. She asked, "Xia, what I've been through these past few days, isn't it amazing?"

"It's indeed magical!" Xia ruofei smiled and said,"but I'm more afraid. I didn't expect you to be in such a dangerous situation ... That Mr. Xia has helped you so much. You really have to thank him! If there's a chance next time, introduce me to him! Maybe we can become good friends ..."

When Xia ruofei said this, he more or less had a wicked sense of humor.

As expected, Monica immediately said,""Xia! That Mr. Xia said the same thing! It's almost exactly the same as what you said! You guys are so well – coordinated! You really don't have any brothers who got separated from you when you were young?"

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry."How is that possible?"

Then, Xia ruofei immediately changed the topic and said,""Monica, I'm really sorry about this. I wasn't able to appear by your side when you needed me the most ..."

At the same time, Xia ruofei said in his heart,""Actually, I've already gone. It's just that for the sake of everyone's safety, I can only use another identity ...

"I'm fine now!" Monica consoled him. Then, she hesitated and said,"Xia, if you have time, can you make a trip to Turin? I really, really miss you!"

Xia ruofei replied without hesitation,"of course, no problem!" I was just about to talk to you about this!"

"You were already prepared to come to Italy?" Monica's mood instantly became better.

"Mm! "I saw in your email that your brother, Rossi, has a sequela of polio, so he can only spend the rest of his life in a wheelchair ..." Xia ruofei said."I hope to help him treat his illness!"

Monica said,"Xia, Rousey's after – effects are quite serious. I've taken him to see many doctors over the years. There are no effective drugs to treat the after – effects of polio at the moment. He can only take rehabilitation training, but the effect is generally not very good ..."

"I know! Those are all Western medicine theories!" Xia ruofei said,"actually, I'm a pretty good Chinese medicine practitioner. From a Chinese medicine perspective, Rousey's condition is caused by the heat and wind that has seeped into his meridians. Although it has left behind some serious side effects, if you stimulate the acupuncture points, with the help of medicine and massage, it should be able to improve greatly!"

Then, Xia ruofei added,"Western medicine and Chinese medicine are two completely different theoretical systems. You may not know much about Chinese medicine, but in fact ..."

"No! I believe you!" Monica interrupted Xia ruofei and said,"Xia, come to Italy as soon as possible! I need you to ..."

Monica's last sentence ignited the fire in Xia ruofei's heart. These few days in Turin, he had been very close to Monica. Unfortunately, he had another identity and could not get close to her. Xia ruofei had suppressed the fire in his heart for a long time.

After hearing Monica's words, Xia ruofei wished he could fly to Italy immediately.
