Chapter 221: two doses effective (1)

The process of brewing the Chinese medicine was very simple. After Xia ruofei made sure that the doors and windows were locked and the curtains were drawn, he carefully checked the entire room. After making sure that there were no surveillance cameras, he followed the Chinese medicine prescription for liver cancer that he had memorized in advance and found the corresponding herbs from the list. Xu Wu's work was very meticulous. Not only did he have a complete set of equipment for brewing medicine, but he also bought an exquisite and small scale. Xia ruofei easily weighed the herbs involved in the prescription and put them into the claypot. There was a sink in the room for the doctor, but Xia ruofei did not turn on the tap water. Instead, he summoned a spirit painting from his palm and connected to the space with his mind. He took out a small basin of water from the space pool. After that, it was Wen Huo's slow cooking. Considering that elder song was still in a coma, it would be a little troublesome to feed him the liquid, so Xia ruofei had to wait for a long time so that there was not much liquid left. He poured the herbs in the claypot into a clay bowl and obtained about half a bowl of dark brown medicinal soup. Then, Xia ruofei opened the suitcase and found a bottle of flower petal solution with a relatively high concentration. The entire bottle of petal solution contained about half a petal. Xia ruofei poured almost one – fifth of the bottle into the clay bowl and stirred it well, making half a bowl of medicinal soup. Xia ruofei decided to give elder song five doses of the medicine. It should have a good effect. He would decide on the next step of the plan after that. Elder song's condition was very serious. Xia ruofei estimated that an entire petal might not be able to cure him completely. Therefore, the solution that contained half a petal would not be able to cure him completely. At the same time, it would have a good effect. This would achieve his initial goal. After the medicine was prepared, Xia ruofei placed the clay bowl aside and let the medicine cool down naturally. Then, he randomly grabbed some herbs from each Chinese medicine packet, including the ones used to decoct the medicine before. He mixed them all together and poured them into the dregs in the claypot, then added some tap water to re – boil it. After all the herbs were mixed together, Xia ruofei poured the medicinal soup in the casserole into the sink and washed it away. He also poured the remaining dregs into the stove and burned them all. After doing all this, the medicinal soup in the clay bowl had almost cooled down. Xia ruofei put the rest of the Chinese medicine packets into the box and carefully locked it. Then, he carried the clay bowl out of the room. "Doctor Xia, is the medicine ready?" Manager Lu, who was at the door, asked hurriedly. The entire process of boiling the medicine took one to two hours, but manager Lu had actually stayed by her side. "En!" Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "You can give the chief his medicine now." "Good, good, good!" Manager Lu couldn't help but look at the clay bowl in Xia ruofei's hand. The brown liquid was his only hope now. Whether elder song could survive this crisis would depend on the effect of the medicine that the young Xia ruofei had prescribed. Song Zhengping, Tian Huilan, and song Rui were already waiting in the ward. When Xia ruofei entered the room, a few eyes fell on him. Xia ruofei smiled at Tian Huilan, indicating for her to relax. Then, he went straight to the bed and put the clay bowl on the bedside table. Then, he personally raised the head of elder song's bed at an angle and took off his oxygen mask without hesitation. Xia ruofei started to feed elder song the medicine. Actually, elder song was no longer in a deep coma after he had taken the bottle of petal solution with the lowest concentration a few hours ago. Hence, he could subconsciously swallow the soup when Xia ruofei fed him. Xia ruofei was very patient. Moreover, there was not much medicinal soup, only about half a bowl, so he successfully fed her all of it. Xia ruofei waited for a while after feeding him. Then, he put the bed down and put the oxygen mask back on. Song Zhengping and the others only heaved a sigh of relief when Xia ruofei stood up. They had almost held their breath before this. Even though manager Lu knew that the effects of Chinese medicine were usually slower, he still couldn't help but ask, "Doctor Xia, how's the situation?" "Let's observe for a while more!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "give the chief a dose of Chinese medicine tomorrow morning. I think he should be able to wake up in the morning." "Wake up ... Wake up!" Manager Lu's jaw dropped slightly. "Doctor Xia, you're saying that the chief might wake up tomorrow morning?" "This is just my estimate, I can't guarantee anything!" Xia ruofei smiled. "That's right, that's right ..." Manager Lu said. "Thank you for your hard work, Dr. Xia!" Song Zhengping said as he stepped forward. Thank you, thank you ... Song Zhengping had rushed to Hongzhou just to see his father for the last time. He knew his father's condition very well and didn't expect his father to recover. He didn't expect that a young Chinese medicine doctor would bring him hope after coming to Hongzhou. Song Zhengping, who had long since developed a shrewdness that did not show his emotions, could not help but reveal a trace of excitement at this moment. "You're too polite." Xia ruofei said, "Chief Judge song, I'll go back to my room first. I'll brew the second Chinese medicine for the chief tomorrow morning." One person will be enough in the ward, as long as the monitoring equipment doesn't give any warnings, it's fine!" Xia ruofei had received Tian Huilan's call in the afternoon and had rushed over. Along the way, he had experienced so many things. At this time, the sky had already turned dark, and Xia ruofei felt a little tired. "Alright, doctor Xia, you've worked hard. Go and rest!" Song Zhengping said. Xia ruofei greeted manager Lu, Tian Huilan, and the others before returning to the doctor's lounge. He washed up and went to the inner room to rest. The bed sheets and blankets that Liang Haitao had used previously had naturally been changed by the staff to new ones. Xia ruofei did not care about what kind of difficult night the medical team would have to spend in the big conference room. Xia ruofei woke up on time the next morning. He asked manager Lu to send breakfast into the room. After a simple breakfast, Xia ruofei locked the door and windows and began to brew the second Chinese medicine. This time, he was even more familiar with it. After more than an hour, Xia ruofei came to elder song's bed with a bowl of medicine. Before feeding him the medicine, Xia ruofei observed elder song's condition. His vital signs were quite stable, and the black spots on his hands and feet had faded. It was clear that the medicine from yesterday had worked. Song Zhengping and the others had also arrived at the room early. Today, not only was song Zhengping and his son present, but there were also a few middle-aged men and women who looked similar to song Zhengping. They were all elder song's children. Elder song had three sons and two daughters, and all of them held important positions in Beijing or other parts of the country. Elder song's third son, song Zhengming, was on a diplomatic visit with a leader and could not make it back in time. His other children had all arrived after Xia ruofei's rest last night. Xia ruofei fed elder song the second bowl of Chinese medicine and waited in the ward with the others. As time passed, everyone except Xia ruofei was looking at elder song nervously. Xia ruofei had said that elder song might wake up after he drank the Chinese medicine. The success or failure of the treatment would depend on whether elder song would wake up or not. Although Xia ruofei had successfully stabilized elder song's vital signs, everyone was still doubtful about whether he could treat liver cancer with the right medicine. If elder song could really wake up from his coma as Xia ruofei said, Xia ruofei's treatment was undoubtedly the right one. As a result, song Zhengping, his siblings, Tian Huilan, and manager Lu were all extremely nervous. Even the usually happy-go-lucky song Rui had a serious expression on his face at this time. He stood obediently at the side, but his eyes would occasionally glance left and right restlessly. Under everyone's gaze, eccentric song was still lying there quietly, his chest rising and falling very gently. The rhythmic beeping of the monitoring instrument seemed to be amplified in the quiet

Ward. Ten minutes ... Twenty minutes ... Soon, half an hour had passed, but elder song still showed no signs of waking up. There was a dead silence in the ward, and the atmosphere was tense. Just as everyone felt that the hope was getting slimmer and slimmer, elder song's finger suddenly trembled ..

Chapter 222: Knocking on the mountain to scare the Tiger (1)

Everyone's attention was on eccentric song, so they all saw the slight tremble. Everyone stood up in unison and surrounded the bed. On the other hand, Xia ruofei was slower by half a beat because he did not pay attention to elder song's condition all the time. Xia ruofei knew that half an hour was enough for elder song's body to absorb the petals of the strange flower in the soup. With the dose of medicine yesterday, elder song had absorbed almost one – fifth of the petals. He would wake up at this time. When Xia ruofei got up, elder song's bed was already surrounded by people. Song Zhengping, song zhenglin, Song Zhiping, song Zhilan and her sister, manager Lu, Tian Huilan, and song Rui. There was no space for Xia ruofei in front of the bed. "Uh ..." Xia ruofei said awkwardly. Manager Lu then realized that the doctors were being blocked outside. He awkwardly moved aside and said, "Doctor Xia, can you please take a look? is the chief about to wake up?" Xia ruofei nodded and went over to take elder song's pulse. In fact, he knew with a glance at the monitor that elder song's vital signs were almost the same as a normal person's. This meant that the cancer cells in his body might still be raging, but he should be able to wake up from his coma very soon. As expected, just as Xia ruofei let go of elder song's wrist, before he could speak, elder song's fingers moved again. Then, his eyelids trembled slightly and he opened his eyes slowly with great difficulty. "Dad ..." Song Zhengping called out in a trembling voice. Song Zhengping's younger siblings were also looking at their father with tears in their eyes. Elder song opened his turbid eyes and scanned his children's faces. Then, he looked at manager Lu, Tian Huilan, song Rui, and Xia ruofei. Seeing his children, elder song's eyes clearly showed a trace of relief. His lips under the oxygen mask moved a few times, but he did not make a sound. "Chief, you're still very weak. Please don't speak," Xia ruofei said. "Dad, this is Xia ruofei, Dr. Xia," song Zhengping said from the side. "He was specially invited by Huilan to treat you." Your coma was very dangerous this time, and it was all thanks to doctor Xia's miraculous hands!" Elder song's gaze fell on Tian Huilan and Xia ruofei. He showed a trace of gratitude and even nodded slightly with difficulty. Xia ruofei also smiled and nodded at elder song. Xia ruofei continued, "Chief Judge song, leaders, the chief has woken up. You can rest assured." What the Bureau chief needs the most now is rest. Let's go out first!" "Yes, yes, yes, doctor Xia is right!" Song Zhengping said, "let's all go out! Don't disturb dad's rest!" Song Zhengping then turned to elder song. "Dad, have a good rest. Don't worry! Doctor Xia is very skilled, he will definitely be able to make you recover!" Eccentric song still couldn't speak. He only nodded slightly and slowly closed his eyes. The group of people quietly left the room, leaving squad leader Lu to look after them. The bottle of petal solution from yesterday had been taken back by Xia ruofei. Elder song was no longer in danger, so naturally, he had no use for it. In a small meeting room on the second floor, Xia ruofei and song Zhengping's family were sitting on the sofa. "Doctor Xia, thank you so much for this." Song Zhengping said, "I'll have to trouble you with the next step of the treatment." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you're welcome, Chief Judge song. Elder song was everyone's idol when I was in the Army. All of us are familiar with his legendary experiences. I'm very honored to be able to do something for him this time!" Then, Xia ruofei continued, "Chief Judge song, my medicine seems to be the right one. I'm going to give the Bureau chief three more doses. I'll adjust the prescription according to the effect. If the effect is ideal, it should be able to inhibit or even kill the tumor." "Good! You can decide on the treatment, we will fully cooperate!" Song Zhengping said excitedly. Then, he looked around at the other people in the room and said, ""We're all here today, so let's discuss the problem of Liang Haitao's medical team! How should we deal with this matter? everyone, please tell us!" "Chief Judge song, why don't I leave for a while ..." Xia ruofei stood up. Song Zhengping smiled and waved his hand. "No need, no need, Dr. Xia. It's not a state secret. There's no need to hide." Besides, doesn't this matter have something to do with you? I still have something to ask for your opinion on later!" Hearing song Zhengping's words, Xia ruofei could only sit back down. Manager Lu had told song zhenglin and his sister about the medical team as soon as they arrived the night before, so they knew what was going on. The second son, song zhenglin, thought for a moment and said, "Big brother, I don't think we should treat this as an isolated incident. Liang Haitao is not an ordinary chief physician! What was the Liang family's attitude on this matter? It's very thought – provoking!" "Big brother, I think second brother's words are very reasonable." The youngest of the siblings, song Zhilan, said, "recently, father has been seriously ill. Some evil spirits and monsters have appeared! This time, Liang Haitao's matter could be said to be due to a lack of professional ability and self – opinionated; To put it more seriously, he was neglecting his duty and not taking the safety of the Bureau chief seriously! We must have an attitude!" Song zhenglin and song Zhilan had the same idea. They were just using this as a pretext to make a scene. Song Zhengping muttered to himself for a while, a glint in his eyes. He had clearly made up his mind.

Xia ruofei felt like he was sitting on pins and needles. Although he was just an ordinary person, he had heard of some of the big families in China. The old men of these families were all famous figures who had lived through the war years. Almost no Chinese had never heard of their names. It was obvious that he was now involved in the battle between these families. Moreover, this incident was likely to be the fuse. Xia ruofei only listened for a while, but he could feel the glint and flash of swords. There was no benefit in listening to such a family secret. He wanted to get up and leave, but song Zhengping had made it clear that they weren't avoiding him, so he was now in a dilemma. However, Xia ruofei was also from the military and had a decisive personality. Since he could not leave, he would just take things as they came. He had a heaven – defying divine weapon like the spirit painting scroll. The worst outcome would be to leave Huaxia and go overseas. No matter how powerful these families were, they could not cover the entire world. After a day of interaction, Xia ruofei felt that the song family was not the kind of heartless people who would burn the bridge after they had served it. They would not let an ordinary person like him get involved in family disputes and sit by and do nothing. Just as Xia ruofei's mind was racing, song Zhengping finally spoke, ""Old Lu, draft a report immediately and clearly write down the entire incident of the medical group. Then, express our serious doubts about the professionalism of the medical group and our strong indignation. Finally, request to select suitable candidates to form a new medical team. This report will be signed under the names of us siblings and submitted directly to the central administration!" "Alright, I'll get it done immediately!" Manager Lu said. "Zhenglin, you'll be returning to Ludong province today." Song Zhengping continued, "do what you have to do. Remember, although you are the head of Port Authority in name, you are still far from being able to control the work situation. When you go back, you will have two tasks. One is to ensure the safety and stability of the port; The second is to strengthen the building of the cadre. " The Secretary had always been the person in charge. Song Zhengping was worried that someone would deliberately cause trouble at this time. If there was a petition or other group events, or even a major accident, song zhenglin's position as the acting Secretary would probably be over. As for the construction of the cadre, to put it bluntly, it was to choose and use people. This was also the meaning of being a leader. By grasping the power of personnel, the prestige of a leader would naturally be established. "Brother, um ... Dad ..." Song Zhenglin was stunned. "You don't have to worry about dad. I still have a few days off, so I'll be here! You return today!" "Remember," song Zhengping said. "After you return to Lu Dong, put aside all that 'biding your time' stuff! The only thing you need to do is to control the situation at the port in the shortest time possible. Get rid of those who should be sneaky!" Song Zhengping's words were filled with killing intent, and it roused song zhenglin. He immediately said, "I know what to do. Don't worry, big brother!" Song Zhengping nodded and continued, "Old Lu, Zhiping, Zhilan, spread the news through some channels today that our old man's condition is under control and is gradually getting better!" "Alright!" "Understood!" Manager Lü, Song Zhiping, and song Zhilan all replied in unison. Song Zhengping muttered to himself for a moment before asking, "By the way, Zhiping, I remember that the auction for Beijing's Plot No. 8 is in a few days, right?" Song Zhiping was mainly in charge of the song family's family business, Huatian group. She was basically in charge of all the business matters. Song Zhiping nodded. "It'll be auctioned the day after tomorrow. However, the competition this time is more intense. Plus, Hongsheng and a few other real estate companies have already formed a team. Huatian is planning to strategically give up on this auction." Hongsheng group was the family business that the Liang family controlled. "Go back to Beijing tomorrow," song Zhengping said firmly. "Personally follow up on the matter of Plot No. 8. We must obtain this plot of land at all costs!" "But Hongsheng ..." "You don't have to worry about Hongsheng!" Song Zhengping said, "I'll talk to him personally. It's fine if it's a fair competition, but if Hongsheng dares to use those underhanded methods, I guarantee that he'll suffer a double loss!" The only thing you need to do is to defeat Hongsheng in a fair fight!" Song Zhiping immediately said, "Alright! Don't worry!" Song Zhengping was indeed the eldest son of the song family. In such a short time, he had issued a series of orders, targeting the Liang family. He showed his muscles, warned them, and beat them down. The song family's power was on full display. After the arrangements were done, song Zhengping slowly retracted his aura. He looked at Xia ruofei with a pleasant expression and said, "Doctor Xia, other than the treatment, I have something else to ask for your opinion on." "Please speak, Chief Judge song." Xia ruofei said in a neutral tone. "You heard it just now. We will immediately request for a change in the medical team members from the central office." Song Zhengping said, "you will definitely be the leader of the next treatment, so I was thinking that it would be better to form the new Medical Group with old Chinese medicine experts as the foundation." Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "Governor song, I have the opposite opinion. I think that the medical group should still be mainly composed of Western doctors." "Oh? I'd like to hear more details!" "I'll be arrogant, but I'm more than enough to handle Chinese medicine." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "however, the treatment of liver cancer is a very complicated process. This process also requires the cooperation of Western medicine. Moreover, it's best to have the final treatment effect based on the various tests of Western medicine, which is more intuitive and accurate." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I'm not Liang Haitao. I won't deny Western medicine just because I'm in Chinese medicine!" Everyone couldn't help but smile when they heard this. In fact, everyone present was very clear that Liang Haitao's behavior this time was mostly because he was headstrong and self-opinionated. It wasn't the Liang family's idea to instigate the Liang family. No matter how powerful the Liang family was, they couldn't be so bold as to murder a former core leader. Besides, with elder song's condition, he didn't need them to kill him! At that time, even if they tried their best to save elder song, he would not live for more than a day. However, the song family had been holding back for a few months and needed a reason to declare their existence. And so, Liang Haitao became such an unlucky person. In this sense, Xia ruofei had helped them again. Xia ruofei did not beat around the bush like these people in the government. He said directly,””In addition, I would also like to give you my personal opinion on the composition of the medical team! “I’m more inclined to the young and middle – aged experts. Forget about the old professors who enjoy special subsidies from the National affairs Department. I’m afraid that the two sides will have different ideas and differences. “Of course, the young and middle – aged experts must make sure that it’s not an arrogant third generation red generation expert like Liang Haitao. Otherwise, it’ll be even more difficult to deal with than the old experts.” “No problem!” Song Zhengping chuckled. I’ll personally make the arrangements. “

Xia ruofei returned to elder song’s room to check on his condition. When it was close to noon, he brewed another Chinese medicine and sent it over. According to song Zhengping’s arrangements, song zhenglin and Song Zhiping bade elder song farewell in the morning. One returned to Ludong, while the other returned to Beijing. The song family was very efficient. The report drafted by director Lu had been sent back to Beijing through an encrypted Telegram in the morning. With song Zhengping’s personal intervention, the response from Beijing was also very fast. The entire medical team that Liang Haitao was in charge of was called back urgently. Liang Haitao, who had been insufferably arrogant the day before, was covered in dirt as he led the entire medical team back to Beijing under the “escort” of a squad of soldiers. Originally, all they needed to do was to replace the doctor, but this matter was already politically involved, so the entire medical team, including the nursing staff and technical support staff, were all withdrawn. Because of his own headstrong personality, Liang Haitao would not only suffer a serious setback in his official career when he returned to the capital, but he would also have to bear the anger of his family. His future days would definitely not be good. However, Liang Haitao must have hated Xia ruofei because of this. One of the leaders in charge of the health Bureau personally called song Zhengping to express his sincere apologies. He also promised to strictly control the political situation and strictly select new medical team members according to the request of song Zhengping and his sister. The new Medical Group was set up quickly and would leave Beijing in the afternoon. They were expected to arrive in Hongzhou at night. Prior to this, the health Bureau had also coordinated with Jiangnan provincial People’s Hospital and sent several senior nurses to provide temporary support. These were all experienced head nurses from the provincial People’s Hospital and had rich nursing experience. The news of elder song’s recovery spread like wildfire, and many people in Beijing and Lu Dong felt like a storm was brewing. With the return of song zhenglin and Song Zhiping, a storm was brewing ... In the Western mountain area of Hongzhou. In the heavily guarded courtyard. Eccentric song had already woken up, but his body was still weak. As his daughter, song Zhilan had been serving elder song by the bed. The dose of Chinese medicine that Xia ruofei had given him was also personally fed to him by song Zhilan in a clay bowl. After elder song took the medicine, his physical condition improved and his mental state was much better than in the morning. However, Xia ruofei did not let song Zhengping and the others stay in the room for too long as elder song needed to rest. Even if he did not speak, it would still be very tiring to listen to song Zhengping and manager Lu’s reports. In the afternoon, Tian Huilan came to elder song’s room and said goodbye to him. As the Secretary of the provincial government of the provincial capital, Tian Huilan had a lot of work to do. She had already accumulated a lot of work after taking two days off. Now that she saw that elder song was gradually recovering, she felt a lot more at ease and naturally rushed back to the three mountains. Before she left, Tian Huilan specially looked for Xia ruofei to express her gratitude. In the evening, Xia ruofei finished brewing the fourth dose of Chinese medicine. Song Zhilan didn’t ask the head nurse to do it. She still fed elder song the medicine personally. Elder song's mental state was already very good before he took the medicine. He even took the initiative to smile at Xia ruofei. It was a miracle in the medical world that almost one – third of the petal of the strange flower had helped elder song recover from his dying state to his current level. Not long after Xia ruofei returned to the doctor's lounge, manager Lu knocked on the door and entered. "Doctor Xia, the chief wants to see you." Manager Lu said. "Oh? Didn't you tell him to rest?" Xia ruofei stood up and said in surprise. Manager Lu smiled bitterly. "After drinking the medicine in the evening, the old man's mental state has improved a lot. He was just talking to provincial judge song for a long time, and now he wants to see you ... I can only follow the chief's orders!" Xia ruofei smiled. "Alright, I'll talk to him later. He'll listen to the doctor, right?" "Yes, yes, yes, doctor Xia. The chief will definitely listen to you." Manager Lu said. Xia ruofei and manager Lu walked into elder song's room. The siblings, song Zhengping and song Zhilan, were also sitting by the bed, talking to the old man. Seeing Xia ruofei come in, Master Song smiled and waved at Xia ruofei, "Doctor Xia, come and sit ..." This legendary General's voice was still rather weak, but one could still sense a wisp of the aura of an Iron Horse in his calm voice. This was a killing intent that had naturally developed over many years of life – and – Death battles, an aura that had been nurtured from being in a high position for many years. Song Zhengping and song Zhilan both stood up. Song Zhengping said respectfully, "Dad, we'll go out first. You should rest early later." Eccentric song nodded with a smile. Song Zhengping nodded at Xia ruofei and even patted his shoulder. Then, he left the room with song Zhilan. Manager Lu also left quietly and closed the door behind him. "Good day, chief!" Xia ruofei said as he stood at attention in front of the bed. Eccentric song had a kind smile on his face, and his muddy eyes seemed to have a strange look. He raised his hand and said, "Please have a seat, doctor Xia." "Yes! Thank you, chief!" Xia ruofei sat down on the stool in front of the bed, his back straight. In front of this legendary general, Xia ruofei subconsciously put himself in the position of a soldier. Although the old man on the bed was like a candle in the wind, Xia ruofei still felt like he was looking up at a tall mountain. Elder song leaned on the bed and looked at Xia ruofei. He smiled and said, "Doctor Xia ..." "Chief, you can just call me Xiao Xia!" Xia ruofei quickly said. "Alright, I'll call you little Xia then ... Little Xia!" Elder song chuckled. I really have to thank you this time. I thought I would have to go down and play the bridge Card with the old political commissar. I didn't expect that my old bones would actually make it through again. It's all thanks to your miraculous hand that can bring me back to life!" The old political commissar that elder song was talking about was a great man. He was the political commissar of the field army that elder song was in. After the founding of the country, he went through a few ups and downs and eventually became the core of China's leadership. Among the ten hobbies of this great man, one of them was playing the bridge. A great man had passed away at the end of the last century, so elder song's words were actually a funny expression. He was trying to say that he thought he couldn't make it this time and was going to die. "Chief, you don't have to be so polite!" Xia ruofei said, "you're my idol! I'm very honored to be able to contribute to your health!" Elder song laughed heartily. "I almost forgot that you were once an excellent soldier. Now, you've become an excellent doctor. In this regard, you and I have a lot in common!" Elder song had once been an outstanding soldier, and after transferring to another place, he had also made a great career. Xia ruofei quickly said, "chief, I can't be compared to you!" In the Army, you're the general and I'm the soldier. When I go back to work, you're the leader of the country. I'm just doing a small business ... To be honest, I'm not even qualified to practice Chinese medicine!" "There's no need to belittle yourself, Xiao Xia. The old political commissar once said, 'I'm sorry. Regardless of whether it was a black cat or a white cat, a good cat was one that could catch mice! Practice is the only standard to test the truth. Your medical skills have already been tested by practice, so how can it be denied by a medical qualification certificate?" It could be seen that elder song also admired his old political commissar very much. He was able to speak some of the famous sayings of that great man. "But ..." Elder song changed the topic and said, "without this certificate, it's easy for people to find fault with you. I've already asked Xiao Lu to get it done as soon as possible. I'll get you the qualification certificate in two days. Then, you'll be in charge of my treatment."

"Thank you for your concern, chief!" Xia ruofei quickly replied. He couldn't help but sigh in his heart. What did he do to make elder song, a high – ranking official, personally care about a small matter like his medical qualification certificate? "You're welcome. You're worthy of that certificate." "Oh, I heard from Zhengping that you had a conflict with Mr. Desheng's grandson because of the emergency treatment yesterday?" elder song smiled and asked. Liang Desheng was the old master of the Liang family, and he was also Liang Haitao's grandfather. "Chief, it was an emergency. If we didn't treat you immediately, you might have been in a terrible situation ..." Xia ruofei said. "So, I didn't care about the medical discipline and used a simpler and more violent way to deal with it. This is my problem. You can criticize me!" "Simple and crude?" Elder song couldn't help but laugh, "that's a good word! If it wasn't for your simple and brutal actions, I would probably be in the eight Treasures mountain by now. You saved my life and I'm criticizing you? I, song Yaowu, am not an old fool!" "Chief, I didn't mean it that way ..." Xia ruofei quickly said. Elder song waved his hand and said, "little Xia, Zhengping and Xiao Lu have reported to me what happened. You did the right thing." You don't have to worry about this, I've already told Zhengping that the song family will take care of the aftermath. We can't let you be affected by this. " "Thank you, chief!" Xia ruofei said. "If there's anything you can't do in the future, you can go to Zhengping or Zhiping." Elder song said indifferently, "of course, the premise is that you have to operate according to the law." "I understand. Thank you, chief." Xia ruofei quickly said. Elder song was giving Xia ruofei a calming pill and returning the favor for saving his life. After that, elder song didn't mention this matter again. Elder song had already learned about Xia ruofei's background. It was because of Xia ruofei's brilliant background in the Army that elder song admired him. He started to talk about the Army with Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei was naturally very interested in elder song's legendary experience. He had long forgotten about manager Lu's instructions and became a qualified fan. Fortunately, he had a porcelain bottle of petal solution with him and gave some to elder song in time. The diluted flower petal solution might not have an obvious effect on killing cancer cells, but it was quite effective in restoring the old man's spirit. The old man and the young man chatted in the room for more than an hour before they ended the conversation. Xia ruofei left elder song's room and saw manager Lu pacing back and forth anxiously. Seeing Xia ruofei, manager Lu quickly came up to him. He looked at the door and said in a low voice, "Doctor Xia, what took you so long? Didn't you say that you'd advise the chief to rest well?" "Uh ..." Xia ruofei felt a little embarrassed and said, "I was talking to the chief about his condition! The chief didn't say much ... That ... Manager Lu, I've already told the chief that his main task is to rest. Even if he wants to meet someone, it's best not to exceed ten minutes. The chief has agreed. " "Oh ... That's good, that's good ..." Manager Lu said. "By the way, the new Medical Group has arrived. I have arranged for them to stay on the first floor. Do you want to meet their main person in charge?" Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "okay!" It's fine to meet him. " Soon, a man and a woman in their 30s were led to Xia ruofei's room by manager Lu. "Doctor Xia, let me make the introductions." Manager Lu said, "this is chief physician Zhou Jiaming, who is also the leader of the Bureau chief's medical team. This is Dr. Su Xiaohong, the Deputy leader of the medical group. " Manager Lu then said to doctor Zhou and doctor su,””Director Zhou, professor su, this is doctor Xia ruofei. This time, the chief’s treatment will be led by doctor Xia.” Zhou Jiaming and su Xiaohong had obviously received instructions from their superiors before they set off. They understood that their main focus in this mission was cooperation. Hence, they were very clear about their positions. Their attitudes towards Xia ruofei were very warm and they didn’t look down on him even though he was young. After exchanging a few pleasantries, everyone took their seats on the couches. “Doctor Xia, is there anything else you need us to cooperate with you on the treatment plan? we would like to hear your thoughts.” Zhou Jiaming said. Xia ruofei pondered for a moment and said,”director Zhou, this treatment will be based on traditional Chinese medicine. We will no longer use chemotherapy and radiotherapy.” Chemotherapy for cancer was very harmful to the body. To put it bluntly, it was an indiscriminate attack. Whether it was good cells or cancer cells, they would all be killed. Xia ruofei would naturally not use it again. Moreover, elder song’s condition had gone through multiple chemotherapy sessions, which had proven to be ineffective. Zhou Jiaming and su Xiaohong had already expected this, so they didn’t show any surprise. They just nodded and waited for Xia ruofei to continue. Xia ruofei continued.”After giving the chief the fifth dose of Chinese medicine tomorrow, I will give him a diagnosis. From a Western perspective, you should also give him a full physical examination. According to the results, I will further adjust the prescription.” “Sure, no problem.” Zhou Jiaming said. “Some of the more effective anti – cancer drugs can be combined with Chinese medicine. As for which drugs to use, you guys are more professional than me. You can decide.” Xia ruofei said,”after that, I’ll do regular checkups for you. That’s the main thing.” Zhou Jiaming and su Xiaohong understood immediately. Their first task was to do a good index check for elder song and provide a reference for Xia ruofei’s treatment. Next, they needed to find some Western supplementary anti – cancer treatment. “Understood.” Zhou Jiaming said,”if there’s anything else you need, just let us know. We’ll do our best to cooperate.” “Director Zhou, you’re too kind.” Xia ruofei smiled.”Our goal is the same. We must work together to treat the chief.” Zhou Jiaming and su Xiaohong both nodded in agreement. After communicating with Xia ruofei, they were more confident and quickly got up to leave. It was a quiet night. The next morning, after breakfast, Xia ruofei made the fifth dose of Chinese medicine and sent it to elder song. About half an hour after taking the medicine, Xia ruofei estimated that the petals of the strange flower in the medicine should have been absorbed. He asked the doctors to come over and check on elder song. Some routine tests could be done directly, but one or two indicators had to be sent to Hongzhou for a checkup, mainly because of the limited conditions. Some large test equipment was definitely not available here. The results of the comprehensive examination were finally out by noon ...

When Zhou Jiaming and the rest went to prepare the test report, Xia ruofei was chatting with elder song in the ward. After elder song took the fifth dose of Chinese medicine, his physical condition was much better, especially his face, which was not as yellow as that of liver cancer patients. He looked no different from a healthy person. Some of the life – Support facilities and monitoring equipment had been removed in the morning. If it were not for Xia ruofei and song Zhengping’s persuasion, the old man would have gotten out of bed and walked around a few times. Although song Zhengping was on vacation, the workload of a provincial governor was unimaginable. Therefore, he often stayed in his room on the second floor, listening to reports and giving instructions through the phone. Some urgent and important documents were even faxed to his Secretary and presented to him for perusal. Therefore, song Zhengping didn’t spend much time with elder song. On the other hand, Xia ruofei had nothing to do other than brewing a dose of Chinese medicine in the morning, afternoon, and evening. In the afternoon, he was waiting for the test report and preparing to adjust the prescription, so he had not started brewing the medicine at noon. Therefore, Xia ruofei had a lot of time to talk to elder song, and elder song was willing to talk to Xia ruofei about the Army. Even though he had taken off his military uniform for decades, he was still a hot – blooded soldier! The old man and the young man were chatting happily. From time to time, elder song's hearty laughter could be heard in the ward. From the laughter, one could tell that the old man's voice was full of vigor and that his body was indeed recovering very well. Zhou Jiaming and su Xiaohong knocked on the door and came in with a stack of test reports in their hands. "Chief, doctor Xia, the results are out!" Zhou Jiaming looked at Xia ruofei with a strange expression. Su Xiaohong's expression was also a little strange, as if there was a flower on Xia ruofei's face, and she glanced at him from time to time. Seeing this, eccentric song laughed and said, "Little Zhou, what's with your expression? Did it not end well? It doesn't matter, I'll just report the truth. I've already died once, so I can accept any result." "No, no..." Zhou Jiaming quickly said, "chief, the result was too good, we couldn't even believe it ..." "Yes, chief. When I saw the results, I couldn't believe my eyes." Su Xiaohong said. Xia ruofei couldn't help but Pat his forehead. It seemed that two days 'time and half a petal was still too much. He had tried his best to control it, but it turned out that he had created a "medical miracle". Eccentric song became even more interested and asked, "Oh? Then tell us, what is the result that surprised our experts so much?" Zhou Jiaming cleared his throat and said, "chief, after the results of the examination came out, we immediately compared it with the results of the previous examination ..." Liang Haitao's medical team had left, but the medical records, reports, and information of the entire treatment period had definitely been left behind. Zhou Jiaming continued, "the last test was three days ago, and it has only been three days since then. The test results showed that the tumor area has shrunk significantly, and the tumor markers have all dropped significantly. Several of the iconic indicators of liver function have also improved to a large extent." "Chief, to put it simply, your body has recovered to a large extent compared to three days ago," su Xiaohong continued. Our treatment group has determined that your current condition is basically between early and medium stage liver cancer." Elder song's condition two days ago was basically the final stage of cancer. The cancer cells had invaded his whole body and he was about to die. In just two days, he had taken five doses of Chinese medicine and recovered to such an extent. This made the two medical experts, who were well – versed in both Chinese and Western medicine, feel that it was incredible. Zhou Jiaming and su Xiaohong were chosen to come because they weren't biased against Chinese medicine. Su Xiaohong's research was on the integration of Chinese and Western medicine during her PhD stage. Even so, they didn't have much hope for Xia ruofei's Chinese medicine treatment. This was because many people who suffered from late – Stage liver cancer would choose Traditional Chinese Medicine as their treatment method, but most of them had little effect. Deep down, they still believed that Western Medicine's radiotherapy and chemotherapy were the most direct and effective way to treat cancer. When the results of the examination came out today, it really made the two of them drop their glasses. Eccentric song was also surprised. "Looks like the results are pretty good! I was diagnosed as late – Stage when I was first checked, but now I've recovered to Early – Middle stage ... Little Xia, your medical skills are amazing!" Zhou Jiaming said, "chief, we also found a rather strange phenomenon ... You've received some hepatectomy operations abroad. This time, we compared the results of the two operations and found that the part of your liver that was removed has grown a lot ..." "Oh?" Elder song raised his eyebrows and asked, "do other patients have this phenomenon?" "Some patients in the early stage also have similar self – Healing symptoms after receiving resection surgery, but the extent of it is very small." Zhou Jiaming said. Elder song looked at Xia ruofei and asked, "Little Xia ..." "Chief, this is a normal phenomenon." Xia ruofei laughed bitterly in his heart. Then, he said confidently, "everything is within my expectations. Don't worry!" Zhou Jiaming and su Xiaohong looked at Xia ruofei in shock. Even the removed liver could recover, and in two days, it recovered so much. Was this the Traditional Chinese Medicine they knew? "Alright, I've got the basic situation." Xia ruofei stood up and said, "Sir, I'll adjust the prescription immediately. I'll give you one dose later and another in the evening. You can get out of bed and move around from tomorrow onwards." "Good, good, good. It's good to get off the bed and move around." Elder song laughed and said, "I'll feel uncomfortable all over if I continue to lie down!" Xia ruofei and the other two left elder song's room. As soon as they went out, Dr. Su Xiaohong said excitedly, "Doctor Xia, the treatment was too successful! To be able to recover to such an extent in two days from terminal stage liver cancer was definitely a Nobel Prize – Level achievement! If it's promoted, it'll be a blessing for liver cancer patients!" Zhou Jiaming, who was standing at the side, had long noticed that Xia ruofei's expression was not quite right. He couldn't help but give su Xiaohong a look. However, su Xiaohong had been studying in the college for a long time. She was not as sophisticated as Zhou Jiaming in terms of social experience. She didn't notice Zhou Jiaming's reminder and continued to speak excitedly. Xia ruofei, who was about to open the door, stopped and turned around. "Director Zhou, professor su, please come in with me. Oh, by the way, please call director Lu over." "Uh ..." Su Xiaohong was stunned. Zhou Jiaming quickly nudged su Xiaohong's arm, then said, "Okay, doctor Xia." He ordered a nurse to look for manager Lu and followed Xia ruofei into the room with a confused su Xiaohong ...

"Director Zhou, Dr. Xia is ..." Su Xiaohong asked in a low voice, puzzled. "Professor su, doctor Xia definitely doesn't want this treatment to spread, so he specifically asked us to stay behind to explain!" Zhou Jiaming said. "How is that possible?" Su Xiaohong was shocked. "That's a Nobel Prize – Level achievement! There's no such good treatment in the world, and it's pure Chinese medicine. This research on liver cancer ..." "Professor su, doctor Xia must have his own ideas. Let's just listen to him." Zhou Jiaming laughed bitterly as he looked at su Xiaohong. As expected, when manager Lu arrived, Xia ruofei said directly, "Director Lu, director Zhou, professor su, I called you all here today for one thing. The Bureau chief's medical report is out, and the treatment is much better than expected. However, I hope that this matter can be kept absolutely confidential." "Why? Shouldn't such a good treatment method be promoted?" Su Xiaohong was the first to express her confusion. "This is definitely a major breakthrough in Cancer Research!" "Professor su!" Zhou Jiaming coughed and said, "let's hear what Dr. Xia has to say!" Xia ruofei smiled. "Actually, there's no special reason. First of all, I'm afraid of trouble and don't want to publicize this kind of thing. After all, my main job is not to be a doctor. If a large number of patients come to me, I won't be able to work anymore." People had a strong desire to live. Previously, a Chinese researcher had tried to add sodium bicarbonate (or sodium bicarbonate) to an arteriological embolism surgery. This was supposed to be a very good research, but they only targeted large liver cancer patients who were not as effective as ordinary chemical embolism surgery. Moreover, they had only conducted a small study of dozens of cases. As a result, it was reported by the media as "baking soda starved the cancer cells." A large number of patients seemed to see the hope of survival and rushed to the second People's Hospital of Jiangsu and Zhejiang Province, where the research team was located. Xia ruofei did not want to face such a situation. The reason why the healing effect was so good this time was entirely due to the effect of the petals of the strange flower. There were so many patients in the world, even if the spirit map space produced 500 petals of the strange flower every day, it wouldn't be enough! Xia ruofei continued,"secondly, there are a few very rare herbs in my prescription. I brought them from the three mountains. Now, they can only be found occasionally in the deep mountains and forests. They can't be cultivated by man. The more they are used, the less they are. Without these herbs, my prescription can't work at all. Therefore, this treatment is destined to not be widely promoted. To avoid trouble, this must be kept a secret!" Su Xiaohong opened her mouth, but she didn't say anything in the end. If it was only the first reason, according to her personality, she would definitely use "a doctor should have the heart of a parent","for the advancement of human medicine" and other great principles to persuade Xia ruofei. However, Xia ruofei's second reason made her swallow her words. Since it was destined that it could not be promoted on a large scale, what was the point of saying that? Manager Lu looked at Xia ruofei thoughtfully and said,""Doctor Xia, I understand what you mean. I'll issue a gag order on the medical team. The chief's treatment has to be kept strictly confidential. I'll emphasize it again. There's definitely no problem." The current medical Group was not like Liang Haitao's Medical Group. The members of this Medical Group were all ordinary experts and medical staff with no background. The words of manager Lu, the big Butler, were naturally quite authoritative. Manager Lu also knew that he didn't need to ask elder song for permission. Even if he did, elder song would definitely support Xia ruofei. Elder song's admiration for Xia ruofei came from the bottom of his heart. Even his grandson, song Rui, was a little jealous. In his memory, his grandfather had always been very strict. When had he ever been so kind to the younger generation? Zhou Jiaming also quickly said,"doctor Xia, we will definitely keep our lips sealed!" There aren't many people who have access to the chief's inspection report. I'll talk to them one by one and emphasize the confidentiality of the rules. " Xia ruofei smiled and said,"thank you, everyone." I'll adjust the prescription now and prepare to brew the Chinese medicine for the chief. " Manager Lu and the other two tactfully stood up and said their goodbyes – Xia ruofei's prescription was an absolute secret, and no outsiders were allowed to be present during each brewing session. Soon, Xia ruofei had the medicine ready. The so – called change in the prescription was just Xia ruofei's excuse. In fact, he was still using the liver cancer treatment formula. However, the bottle of solution that contained half a petal of the strange flower had been used up. Xia ruofei used a bottle with a lower concentration. Coincidentally, Xia ruofei also felt that the previous treatment effect was too good and needed to control the rhythm. After bringing the medicine over, elder song quickly finished it himself. Elder Xuxu had recovered a lot and basically didn't need anyone to serve him anymore. Just like that, another two days passed by. Xia ruofei's daily job was simple. He would brew three doses of Chinese medicine for elder song. The medical group was also more like a bystander. They just prescribed some Western medicine for anti – cancer treatment and regularly checked elder song's body. In the past few days, Xia ruofei had become very close to song Zhengping's son, song Rui. Young master Song was too bored in the mountains, and Xia ruofei was the only person his age that he could talk to. Xia ruofei's medical skills were so brilliant that he pulled the spiritual pillar of the song family back from the brink of death. Therefore, even song Zhengping did not object to song Rui and Xia ruofei being together. Yesterday, when everyone went to the reconnaissance station outside, Xu Wu had arranged for a few good fighters to compete with Xia ruofei. Without exception, they were all defeated very quickly. In the end, Xia ruofei had fought against ten elite Scouts and won easily. In the end, Xu Wu, who refused to believe it, personally went into battle. This expert from the guard Bureau was subdued by Xia ruofei in less than ten moves. Xu Wu started to doubt his life. He kept saying,""What the ... Are all the soldiers of lone wolf this strong? Should I apply for a transfer ..." Song Rui, who had witnessed all of this, was even more impressed with Xia ruofei. He insisted on pestering Xia ruofei to Learn Kung Fu. Xia ruofei, who could not bear the trouble, had no choice but to go to the Reconnaissance Company and find a physical training outline and throw it to song Rui. He told him that if he wanted to learn kungfu, he had to build a good foundation first. The most basic requirement was that his physical fitness had to reach the excellent level and above the standard of the training outline. The standard of a Scout was higher than that of an ordinary troop, and the standard of excellence was even more perverted. Even the more outstanding squad leaders in the ordinary infantry troops might not be able to reach it. Song Rui gave up after one look. He smiled cheekily and said that a gentleman should not stand under a dangerous wall. As a son of the song family, there was no need to do everything personally. Anyway, he had a good brother like Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei immediately rolled his eyes at him. On the fifth day of Xia ruofei's arrival in Hongzhou, elder song had recovered even better. He could get out of bed and move around for about an hour every day. His physical indicators were returning to normal, and his mental state was basically no different from that of a healthy person. Xia ruofei felt that it was time for him to bid farewell and return to Sanshan city ...

Chapter 228: Please return to a great God (1)

Xia ruofei came out in a hurry this time as there were a lot of things waiting for him at home. Because he was not present at the transfer of ownership, he was stuck at one of the segments. Guan Ping called every day to urge and complain. At that time, Taoyuan vegetables only had five days 'worth of supply left, and it was taken away by Xijiang Moon Club and Ling Ji restaurant at once. If they didn't go back, the supply would have to be interrupted. The succulents should have been released yesterday, so Xia ruofei had no choice but to put up a notice to delay the release. Many customers left messages to urge them. Some people tried to get their hands on the succulents several times but failed, and they were quite resentful. Also, it was time to add some petal solution to the water tower in the farm. The two Blood Dragons at home had not been fed petal solution for a few days, and he wondered how they were doing. Hence, seeing that elder song's condition was stable, Xia ruofei wanted to bid farewell and leave. He called song Zhengping and the others to elder song's room and shared his thoughts. "What? You're going back?" Song Zhengping was shocked. "No, no, Dr. Xia, the treatment just started showing its effects. What if your condition worsens if you leave?" "Doctor Xia, the chief's treatment is at a critical moment," manager Lu said hurriedly. "You can't leave at this time!" They all knew that even though the anti – cancer drugs in Western medicine sold at a sky – High price, the real effect was probably Xia ruofei's Chinese medicine. If Xia ruofei went back, what would happen to elder song's illness? Song Zhilan also frowned slightly, "doctor Xia, please stay. You're in a hurry to go back. Is there something wrong?" We, the song family, can help you deal with it. " Even song Rui said, "ruofei, you're not very kind!" Help people to the end! If worse comes to worst, when my grandfather recovers, I'll take you to the big ..." At this point, song Rui felt song Zhengping's murderous gaze. He shuddered and forcefully suppressed the word "health care." "Big ... Big capital, have a good tour!" He laughed. This guy was quick – witted, and although he was very stiff at the end, he managed to salvage the situation. Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile bitterly. He had just mentioned that he wanted to leave, and the song family's reaction was so intense. What should he do? Eccentric song, who had been silent all this time, suddenly frowned and said in a deep voice, ""Zhengping, Zhilan, what are you guys doing? Can't you let little Xia finish her sentence? He came all the way here to give this old man voluntary treatment, and now he's in trouble, and you won't let him go?" "No... Dad, don't be angry. We're not stopping Dr. Xia from leaving, it's just ..." Song Zhengping hurriedly said. Xia ruofei quickly said, "chief, provincial head Inquisitor song and the others are just concerned about you. It's my fault for not making things clear." After a pause, he continued, "Chief Judge song, I do have a lot of things to deal with at home. However, the reason why I want to leave is mainly because the Bureau chief's condition has completely stabilized. He just needs to follow the prescribed order of treatment." Before I leave, I'll boil a total of six doses of Chinese medicine for two days. They can be stored in the refrigerator, and you just have to take the medicine on time. "

"Doctor Xia, two more days of medicine shouldn't be enough for my father's condition, right?" song Zhengping asked with concern. "It's like this," Wang Yao said. "After taking the medicine for two days, the treatment is basically completed." Xia ruofei said, "by then, the cancer cells in the chief's body should be suppressed to a very small amount, or even completely annihilated. In the future, you only need to take Western anti – cancer drugs. In addition, I'll adjust the prescription and formulate some Chinese medicine for the chief to nourish and protect the liver to continue to consolidate. " Xia ruofei looked at elder song and said, "you can brew the medicine for three to five days at a time. You just need to send someone to get it from me regularly. This way, you won't have to delay the time." "I think this is a good idea!" Elder song smiled. Xiao Xia has her own career. She can't possibly stay in this remote mountain and accompany an old man like me!" Song Zhengping was still worried. He said, ""Doctor Xia, the three mountains are quite far from here. It's quite inconvenient to go back and forth ... Can't you stay for a few more days?" Song Zhengping had already identified Xia ruofei's Chinese medicine. He felt that the anti – cancer drugs in Western medicine were basically useless. He would only be at ease if he kept taking Xia ruofei's Chinese medicine. Elder song's health had finally improved. Song Zhengping was worried that once Xia ruofei left, his condition would worsen. Although the song family had long been deeply rooted, without elder song as their pillar, the impact was still great. Xia ruofei showed an apologetic expression and said, ""Chief Judge song, it's not that I don't want to stay, but ... My company can't do without me! As for what you said about the distance between the two places ..." Xia ruofei pondered for a moment and suddenly his eyes lit up. "I do have a solution, but I don't know if it's appropriate ..." "Tell me." Eccentric song said with a smile. "Chief, why don't you go to the three mountains to recuperate for a while?" Xia ruofei said, "it's warmer in the South and the winter climate is pleasant. It'll be good for your recovery. I can also treat you when the time comes. We won't delay anything!" Song Zhengping's eyes lit up as well. He quickly said, "Dad, I think Dr. Xia's suggestion is very good! Why don't you consider it?" "Go to the three mountains to recuperate?" Eccentric song was also lost in thought. He was also tempted. The reason why he insisted on staying in Jiangnan Province was largely because he felt that he might not be able to get through this. He had the idea of returning to his roots. But now, his body was getting better day by day. It was clear that as long as he continued to receive treatment, it was still too early to return to his roots! In that case, staying in Jiangnan Province would not be as important as it used to be. Moreover, the southeast province was also considered the traditional sphere of influence of the song family. There were many students and old friends there, so it was quite appropriate for elder song to recuperate there. "It's been a few years since I've been to the three mountains. It's not a bad idea to stay there for a while!" Elder song said with a smile, then frowned. I'm just afraid that it will affect the work of the local comrades!" At elder song's level, no matter where he went, it would involve many aspects, so he was basically not willing to go down. "Dad, it's not that ..." Song Zhengping hurriedly said. "I'll pass on your instructions to Secretary Lin in advance and tell them not to make a big fuss. We're only going there to recuperate. We're not going to inspect the other places or give any instructions. How can we affect their work?" Song Zhilan also said, "dad, doctor Xia said that the weather in the south is more suitable for your recovery. You're a patient now. You should listen to the doctor's words, right?" "Woof! You actually brought up little Xia!" Elder song laughed and said, "alright! Then I'll stay in the southeast province for a while. I haven't caught up with Xiao Tian and the others in many years!" Xia ruofei watched from the side and felt that it was a bit dramatic. He did not expect that his casual suggestion would bring back such a big God for the southeast province ...

Chapter 229: You're so dirty (1)

Once elder song made up his mind, the next step was simple. Manager Lu was busy reporting to the central government about elder song's status. He was no longer able to go wherever he wanted. Even though he had retired, he was still an important figure. His every move attracted the attention of many parties, so it was natural that he had to inform them in advance. Of course, this was just a routine procedure. Several of the core leaders had been promoted by elder song. If the old man wanted to move to another place to recuperate, who in the functional departments below would dare to object? Wasn't that the same as looking for death in the toilet? Song Zhengping began to coordinate with the southeast province. If elder song wanted to go, the medical team could bring him, but the security guards would definitely be elites selected from the local Garrison, including the deployment of the residence and the surrounding areas. There were many things that needed to be discussed in advance. Therefore, even though elder song had decided to go to Sanshan city, he could not make it immediately. Xia ruofei shut himself in his room and brewed enough Chinese medicine for elder song to take for two days. He put the medicine in a big clay pot and handed it to Zhou Jiaming, who was in the medical team. He told them to give it to the chief on time. Xia ruofei wasn't worried that the secret would be revealed. The composition of the Chinese medicine was complicated. No one had been able to test the ingredients in a bowl of medicinal soup. As for the composition of the strange flower petal, it had been directly dissolved in the medicinal soup. The petal was so magical that its composition was definitely not something that could be detected by the current level of science. It might even be a special substance that human beings had not discovered. Moreover, Zhou Jiaming and the others had gone through a strict Political Review, and they didn't have a complicated family background, so it was unlikely that they would dare to have any ideas about the Chinese medicine. In addition, the cold cabinet used a double lock, which required both manager Lu and Zhou Jiaming to be present to open it. Therefore, the possibility of the secret being leaked was infinitely close to zero. Xia ruofei mixed the rest of the herbs together and threw them into the fire to burn, completely wiping out the last trace of evidence. Then, Xia ruofei left the small courtyard that he had stayed in for five days. Song Zhengping's son, song Rui, was also going with him to the three mountains. This guy was obviously suffering in the mountains, but he claimed that he was going to the three mountains to help his grandfather. Song Zhengping was obviously happy that song Rui and Xia ruofei were on good terms. For the first time, he didn't stop song Rui and just gave him a few instructions with a straight face. More than six hours later, Xia ruofei and song Rui walked out of the exit tunnel of Sanshan International Airport. In fact, more than half of the time was spent on the road from the small courtyard in the mountain where elder song lived to Hongzhou city. This time, it was naturally impossible for Youyou to use a land helicopter. The two of them took a military off – Road command vehicle on the bumpy mountain road for more than two hours before arriving at Hongzhou airport. They waited at the airport for nearly an hour before they boarded the nearest flight to Sanshan city. Song Rui, who had left his grandfather and father, was like a different person. He was in high spirits and no longer looked like an obedient baby. Song Rui pushed his limited – edition rimeva aluminum travel suitcase with one hand and put his other hand on Xia ruofei's shoulder. He said with a smile, ""Ruofei, I'm finally free! I'll take you to a good place later. " Xia ruofei pushed song Rui's hand away in disgust and said, ""Thank you! I'm not gay ..." "Your sister! I'm also a straight man, okay!" Song Rui said, "hey, to be honest, the three mountains is my territory. Wherever I take you, you'll definitely forget about returning! Heavenly earth and earth on earth are so weak!” Xia ruofei did not stop and rolled his eyes.”It seems like I’m the one who was born and raised in the three mountains! When did the three mountains become your territory?” “I have many friends here!” Song Rui said matter – of – factly,”you’re definitely not as familiar as me when it comes to eating, drinking, and playing! I’m telling you, that place ... Tsk tsk! The girl was simply too fresh! And the key was that there were many tricks to live well! It was definitely the best enjoyment! You’ve heard of the poison Dragon? Have you ever heard of the double – Sound cannon? Looking at your old – fashioned look, you must have never seen it before! I’m telling you, there’s also Ice and Fire ...” “Stop, stop!” Xia ruofei saw that song Rui’s words were getting more and more unreliable, so he quickly interrupted him and said,”young master Song, you can enjoy it yourself. I’m not interested in these things ...” Song Rui widened his eyes and carefully took two steps away from Xia ruofei. His eyes were filled with exaggerated fear as he said,””What the ... You don’t really have that kind of taste, do you?” Xia ruofei did not understand what song Rui meant and looked confused. Song Rui quickly added,”it’s okay, ruofei. It’s not embarrassing. Society is very tolerant now. No one will discriminate against you!” “Young master Song, what are you trying to say? Who’s discriminating against me?” Xia ruofei was confused. “Hehe, it’s nothing ...” Song Rui laughed drily and said,”then all the more reason you should come with me! Not only were there a lot of beautiful women there, but there were also a lot of handsome men! I see that you’re so good at fighting, so you should like those young fresh meat with soft skin and tender flesh, right? I’ll get someone to arrange it for you! Or a trap would do! As long as it’s something you want, they can arrange it for you!” Xia ruofei finally came back to his senses. He was speechless and glared at her.”Fuck! Song Rui, if you keep talking nonsense, do you believe that we can’t even be brothers anymore? I’m a man, and you’re arranging a young hunk for me? A trap? F * ck me ... It’s too dirty ... It’s so disgusting. No, no, let me vomit for a while ...” “Didn’t you say that you don’t like women?” Song Rui said innocently. “Your sister! When did I say I don’t like women? I don’t like women from those places!” Xia ruofei scolded,”you’re the young master of the song family. Can you not have such a dirty mind?” “You scared me ...” Song Rui laughed.”I knew it!” You don’t look like glass at all!” Xia ruofei said anxiously,”you’re the one who’s glass!” Your whole family is ...” He stopped talking. It was fine to scold song Rui however he wanted, but it would be inappropriate to bring his entire family along. Wouldn’t that include elder song and song Zhengping? “I’ve misunderstood! “Look at you, you’re so anxious ...” Song Rui put his arm around Xia ruofei’s shoulder and smiled cheekily.”I’m just here to thank you. That’s why I’m taking you to see what a rotten life is like. You’re the one who doesn’t appreciate it ...” “Thank you!” Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said,”do you think I’m just looking for an excuse to go back to the three mountains? I have a lot of things to deal with at home! You can do whatever you want! I won’t keep you company ...” “Tsk, how boring ...” Song Rui said in disdain. The two of them bickered as they walked out of the departure hall. A black Mercedes – Benz was already waiting at the door, and a burly man in a black suit and sunglasses quickly greeted them.

Chapter 230: News of the Phoebe zhennan (1)

“Young master Song!” The Man in Black called out respectfully. Song Rui smiled at Xia ruofei and said,”let’s go!” Get in the car, I’ll send you off first!” “No need! My car is parked in the airport’s parking lot!” Xia ruofei said,”I can drive back by myself.” “Alright then! Remember to contact me after you’re done. ” Song Rui said,”when my grandfather comes in a few days, he won’t have that much freedom!” “I know! You can go first!” Xia ruofei watched as song Rui’s Mercedes – Benz left the harbor Hall. Then, he walked to the parking lot and picked up his pickup truck, which was covered in a layer of dust. He drove away from the airport. Xia ruofei paid a total of 150 yuan for the parking fee at the airport's exit. It turned out that the overnight parking fee was 30 yuan a day. Xia ruofei threw the receipt into the receipt box beside the driver's seat and criticized, "The fees were a little too high ... He started the car and drove away from the airport toll booth. After driving for dozens of meters, Xia ruofei felt that the black Mercedes – Benz parked by the side of the road looked familiar. He fixed his eyes on it and saw song Rui standing by the side of the road. He was leaning on the car and smoking while looking in the direction of the incoming car. Xia ruofei slowed down and drove to song Rui's side. He rolled down the window and asked, "Young master Song, what's the situation? The car broke down?" Song Rui didn't notice the dirty pickup at first, but he raised his head when he heard Xia ruofei's voice. He opened his eyes wide and said, "F * ck ... Ruofei, why are you driving such a broken car? Aren't you a businessman? You won't be so miserable, right?" "Get lost!" Xia ruofei laughed and scolded, "what's wrong with my car? It could be used for both passenger and cargo, and it was also sturdy! Buzzzzzz! Did your car really break down? Why don't ... I reluctantly send you off?" Song Rui pouted and said, "tsk!" How could a Big Ben break down so easily? I purposely stayed behind to see how your car looks like, but I'm really disappointed!" "You're really boring, kid!" Xia ruofei was speechless. "Alright, since your car is fine, I'll leave first!" Then, Xia ruofei did not wait for song Rui's reply. He put the car into gear and stepped on the accelerator. Before they could even go two kilometers, the black Mercedes whistled past the pickup, accompanied by song Rui's whistle. Xia ruofei looked at song Rui's arm stretching out of the window and shook his head with a bitter smile. He said in his heart, "I wonder if all the children of the big families are as childish as this kid ..." Xia ruofei drove unhurriedly until the black Mercedes – Benz drove away. When he could no longer see the taillights, he sped up. At dusk, Xia ruofei finally returned to Taoyuan farm. As soon as Xia ruofei got out of the car, lightning rushed out of the doghouse in the courtyard and threw itself onto Xia ruofei affectionately. Almost at the same time, ye Lingyun's figure appeared at the door. He scanned the room vigilantly. After confirming that it was Xia ruofei, he called out respectfully, "Brother Xia, you're back?" Xia ruofei hugged lightning and rubbed the fur on its head. Then, he smiled and asked, "Mm! Ling Yun, how's the house these few days?" "Everything is normal!" Ye Lingyun replied, "it's just that Chairman Ling from Ling Ji restaurant and President Zheng from Xi Jiang Yue came to the farm in person. They went back when they saw that you weren't back. They looked quite anxious." "I know." Xia ruofei patted Lightning's head and put it down. He continued, "it's fine. They're just worried that I won't be able to supply enough vegetables. Now that I'm back, it's fine. I'll go out and bring back the vegetables for tomorrow." "Alright," he said. "Is everything else fine?" Xia ruofei asked. "They're all good. The vegetables in the greenhouse are growing very well. Old Cao said that they might be able to harvest in more than ten days." Ye linyun said. Originally, Cao tieshu had estimated that the vegetables with the shortest maturity period would be harvested in about a month. The current growth rate had also far exceeded his expectations. They would be able to ripen in a little more than 20 days. Xia ruofei nodded and said, "okay, I got it." Then I'll go in first. You should rest early if you have nothing to do. " "Brother Xia, you can go back first!" Ye linyun said, "I'll go to the farm to patrol again." Ye Lingyun beckoned to lightning and walked out of the room, disappearing into the night. Xia ruofei entered the house with his suitcase. He first went to the big fish tank in the living room. Seeing that the two Blood Dragons were still alive and well, he was relieved. The fish tank was equipped with a very advanced circulation and filtration system. It was not a problem to change the water once a month. Furthermore, Xia ruofei was using the spiritual pool water in the interspace. It did not matter how long it would take. Xia ruofei opened his suitcase and found a bottle of petal solution with the lowest concentration. He dropped some into the fish tank. The two Blood Dragons were obviously much more excited. They swam happily in the wide fish tank, greedily absorbing the petal solution. Xia ruofei looked at it for a while, then went upstairs with his suitcase. He first called the managers of lingji F & B and Xi jiangyue, who were in charge of purchasing, to tell them that he had returned to San Shan and asked them to come over as usual tomorrow morning to pick up the dishes. The two managers were overjoyed. The cell phone signal in the ravine was not very good these few days. Xia ruofei mainly used the fixed – line phone to communicate with the outside world. They could not contact Xia ruofei and were almost driven crazy by their boss. Xia ruofei then called Ling Qingxue to let her know that he was safe. The two of them cuddled on the phone for a long time before they reluctantly hung up. After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei remembered that he had to provide the vegetables tomorrow morning. Therefore, he took out the spirit map scroll and entered the space with a thought. He harvested the vegetables with ease and put them in the basket according to their type and weighed them. Then, Xia ruofei took the opportunity to check out the medium. It was still a thriving scene, especially the pair of little red Dragons. They were almost 40 centimeters long, a lot longer than their siblings in the other fish pond. Then, Xia ruofei went to the new space to play with Blackie and the others for a while. After giving them some food, he left the space. After keeping the painting, Xia ruofei went downstairs to get the pickup truck. In fact, he had only gone to the beach to smoke a few cigarettes and rested for about half an hour before he drove back. Xia ruofei found an empty spot on the road and took out the vegetable basket from the medium and placed it in the car. In order to keep the vegetables fresh, Xia ruofei sprinkled a lot of space spirit pool water on the vegetables. After returning to the villa, Xia ruofei asked ye Lingyun to help him move the vegetables to the garage and then went upstairs to his room. After returning to his room, Xia ruofei thought of the new building on the farm, so he took out his phone and called Liang Qichao. “Hey, RUO Fei! What’s the matter?” Liang Qichao asked in a low voice. Xia ruofei felt that Liang Qichao seemed to be a little unhappy, so he asked, “”Brother Liang, what’s wrong? I feel like you’re a little unhappy!” “Oh ... It’s nothing,” Liang Qichao said, “Do you remember when I asked you to help me find the Phoebe zhennan wood? I haven’t found anything yet, but a few days ago, one of my father’s cousins found a piece of good wood. My cousin’s grandfather in the United States is quite satisfied with it, and he’s preparing to return to China soon ... Sigh!” It was no wonder that Liang Qichao was so depressed. It was conceivable that Liang Qichao’s relatives must have been trying their best to find the Phoebe zhennan material, all of them trying to gain points in front of the old man. They had searched for Liang Qichao’s house for so long and had spent a lot of energy and money, but they had returned without success. Now that someone else had gotten there before them, how could they not be depressed? However, Xia ruofei’s heart skipped a beat when he heard Liang Qichao’s words. He wasn’t in a hurry to talk about building a house, so he asked, “”Brother Liang, what’s the size of the material that your relative found?”
