Chapter 2249 – 2300

Chapter 2249: Chapter 2251-Can 't Promise

Qi Xibei asked them to wait inside before leaving.

The young woman frowned as she watched Qi Xibei leave.” What is she doing? Don’t tell me he’s going to inform them?”

These words made the captain’s face sink.” Yanlin, what nonsense are you talking about!”

Hu Yanlin looked at the captain.” I’m not talking nonsense! Who could guarantee her identity before she met her boss?”

Since they couldn’t guarantee her identity, who could guarantee that she wasn’t an enemy?

If Qi Xibei was on Princess Ruyi’s side, then wouldn’t they all be finished?

Then they would be caught in one fell swoop!

“We can’t guarantee that she’s a bad person.”The man who disagreed with her snorted coldly.” If you’re worried, you can leave on your own.”

“You!”

Hu Yanlin’s expression was ugly as she glared at him angrily.

“It’s useless even if you look at me.” The man shrugged.” Why don’t you explain it to her?”

At the mention of Qi Xibei, Hu Yanlin could not help but tremble.

Qi Xibei’s reaction just now made them understand that she was not someone to be bullied.

However, Hu Yanlin refused to believe that Qiao Yanyu’s partner was such a young and talented person. An hour later, Qi Xibei returned.

“We can go now.”

Are you sure there's no danger outside?”

Although Hu Yanlin was a little afraid of Qi Xibei, she still stood up and asked.

“I'm not sure.”

Qi Xibei did not get angry at Hu Yanlin's provocative expression. Instead, he looked at her calmly. “This is a forest. Even if there are no humans here, there are other spirit beasts and all kinds of poisonous creatures. I can't guarantee that.” After all, you're not a child, and you're not my child. I don't have to be responsible for you.”

These words made Hu Yanlin's face turn even uglier.

The narrator couldn't help but burst out laughing.

This was too funny!

Especially that man, he stared at Hu Yanlin's eyes and laughed out loud. “I think so too. Miss Qi definitely doesn't have such an ugly daughter!” Hu Yanlin gritted her teeth in hatred and almost rushed over to attack.

“Alright!”

The captain shouted in a low voice, “Stop arguing. Focus your energy on the back! We have to leave! Otherwise, it would be troublesome when Princess Ruyi and the others came looking for him.”

After they quieted down, he looked at Qi Xibei. “Let's leave now.”

“Alright, let's go.”

Qi Xibei swept his gaze across the crowd and turned to leave.

“Stop fooling around!”

The captain couldn't help but warn Hu Yanlin when he passed by her.

Hu Yanlin's face turned red.

It was red and black. It was very exciting.

When the man passed by her, he gave her a mocking look.

“Damn it!”

Hu Yanlin stomped her feet in anger.

However, Qi Xibei was too strong and stronger than her. Even if she was angry, she could not resist.

Moreover, if she dared to resist, she would be scolded to death by the captain.

Therefore, she could only endure it.

“Alright, let’s leave this place first.’

“We’ll make plans after we leave this place,” her friend said to her.”

Hu Yanlin’s mouth moved, and she finally nodded.” Let her be smug for a while!”

Then, they left the cave.

The sky outside was already bright.

The air in the forest was better in the morning. The chirping of birds could be heard all around, making it very comfortable.

If not for their special circumstances, they might have felt very comfortable here.

Qi Xibei walked in front.” There are no spirit beasts here.” As she said this, everyone followed her.

Halfway through, an exclamation came from behind..

Chapter 2250: Chapter 2251-Bite

Translator: 549690339

Everyone turned around and saw Hu Yanlin hugging her leg as she sat on the ground with a pained expression.

“What’s wrong?”

The captain walked over. When he saw her face clearly, his expression immediately changed.

What bit you?”

Hu Yanlin’s face was pale, and there was a little black on it. One look and one could tell that something was wrong.

The others also gathered around.” What’s wrong?”

Everyone was walking peacefully, and Princess Ruyi’s people didn’t appear. How could such a thing happen?

After seeing Hu Yanlin’s condition, everyone became anxious.

“This is the Scarlet Flame Blood Beast’s poison!”

Everyone’s expression changed immediately.

The Flaming Blood Beast’s poison was extremely strong!

If he was bitten and couldn’t undo it within the time it took to brew a cup of tea, he would be dead!

Hu Yanlin was a martial artist, so her physical fitness was different. However, she could only hold on for fifteen minutes.

If the poison was not cured within fifteen minutes, he would be dead!

After understanding this, everyone’s expression changed.

“Hurry up and get the antidote!”

They immediately started to dig into their pockets.

“I brought the antidote here!”

Someone immediately took out an antidote and stuffed it into Hu Yanlin’s mouth.

Because it was too painful, Hu Yanlin bit her mouth tightly and ate it after a while.

However, after taking the antidote, before anyone could heave a sigh of relief, they saw her expression turn even uglier.

Originally, it was just a little black in white, but now the black was even deeper!

Wasn’t the situation even more serious?

“This antidote can’t cure the poison!”

This time, everyone was anxious.

The antidotes they brought this time were all the same. They could only cure some poisonous creatures.

However, this was not enough to cure the Flaming Blood Beast's poison!

This time, Hu Yanlin was dead!

In fifteen minutes, no, because she had taken the wrong antidote, her situation was even more troublesome now. Hu Yanlin could not hold on for another fifteen minutes.

They couldn't leave this place in such a short time, nor could they find a suitable antidote.

She was dead!

Thinking of this, everyone could not help but feel sad.

Although there were some conflicts, no one wanted Hu Yanlin to die in the face of life and death.

However, they had no choice but to watch Hu Yanlin die.

The captain's expression was very ugly. He bent down to pick Hu Yanlin up and wanted to run out with her.

Even if there was no hope, he still had to work hard!

Perhaps a miracle would happen at the last moment?

However, before the captain could carry Hu Yanlin, he heard a voice, ‘ ‘Don't touch her.”

Everyone turned to look. It was Qi Xibei.

Qi Xibei walked over.” Don't touch her.””

Hu Yanlin's friend, Chang Xinhui, immediately frowned and said in a harsh tone,” Are you trying to force her to death?! You're too heartless!”

Although they knew that the chances were slim, Qi Xibei did not even give them a chance to work hard. This was too much.

The others also looked at Qi Xibei with a strange expression.

Could it be that he wanted to get rid of her because Hu Yanlin was her love rival?

Qi Xibei walked forward and asked the captain to leave. Then, he squatted down.

“Let me take a look.”

What can you see?”

Chang Xinhui’s tone was harsh and furious.” You’re trying to kill her!”” What could she see? Wasn’t this stalling for time?

Qi Xibei turned a deaf ear to her anger. He tore open Hu Yanlin’s trouser leg and saw a black tooth hole.

“It was indeed bitten by the Flaming Blood Beast.”

“It’s good that you know. Quickly let... Ah!”

Chang Xinhui’s words came to an abrupt halt, and were replaced by a scream..

Translator: 549690339

Chang Xinhui screamed, looking at Qi Xibei with fear and anger.

A knife appeared in Qi Xibei’s hand and he stabbed it into Hu Yanlin’s leg!

Was she trying to kill Hu Yanlin?!

Chang Xinhui was so anxious that she wanted to rush forward.

” What are you doing?!”

“Captain, stop her.”

‘ Don’t disturb my treatment,” Qi Xibei said lightly.”

“Heal?”

Everyone was stunned.

Was this treatment? Wasn’t it killing?

Qi Xibei did not even raise his head as he continued to cut Hu Yanlin’s leg with the knife.

Soon, Hu Yanlin’s leg was covered in black blood.

“You want to kill someone!” Chang Xinhui panicked. If it wasn’t for the captain stopping her, she would have already rushed forward.

“Captain!”

“Shut up.” Qi Xibei turned to look at her coldly. “If you don’t want her to live, you can continue to cause trouble.”

Qi Xibei’s gaze made Chang Xinhui’s heart skip a beat, and she subconsciously shut her mouth.

She realized that Qi Xibei’s aura was very strong, and she could not say anything else.

After intimidating Chang Xinhui, Qi Xibei continued with his work.

She used a knife to cut open the wound on Hu Yanlin’s leg. After squeezing out the black blood inside, she flipped her hand and a bag appeared in her hand.

When he opened it, he saw silver needles of different thickness.

These silver needles shocked everyone.

Was this really treatment?

Qi Xibei’s eyes were calm. One silver needle after another landed around the wound on Hu Yanlin’s leg.

However, Hu Yanlin’s wound did not heal after the needles landed on it. Instead, the blood flowed even faster.

Hu Yanlin was about to faint. She gritted her teeth and couldn’t even speak.

Although she did not want Qi Xibei to do anything, she did not have the strength to retort at this moment.

The blood of the Flaming Blood Beast was not only highly toxic, but it also had a numbing effect.

Her entire body was in pain and numbness. She felt complicated and was about to go crazy. How could she have the strength to refute?

After an unknown amount of time, which seemed like a very long time, but also seemed like a very fast time, the numbness and pain in her body began to fade.

The fading effect was very fast, as if it had just begun and soon ended.

She felt the pain that had trapped her recede like the tide.

When she opened her eyes, she met Chang Xinhui’s concerned gaze. “Yanlin, are you alright?”

Hu Yanlin's expression was a little blank. She turned her head and looked around." I..."
What about me?"

"You're fine now!"

Chang Xinhui was extremely excited." Your poison is cured! You're fine!"

These words made Hu Yanlin dazed for a while before she was surprised." I'm fine?!"

"Yes!"

Chang Xinhui held her hand." Your poison has been cured, you won't die!"

"This... What happened?"

Hu Yanlin frowned in confusion. She clearly felt that she had lost consciousness, but why was she still alive?

This question made Chang Xinhui's expression turn awkward." Have you forgotten what happened before? Have you forgotten who saved you?"

Could it be that the poison would affect his memory?

Hu Yanlin blinked her eyes. When her memories returned, her eyes widened.

"It's her?"

Hu Yanlin widened her eyes in shock.

"Yes, it's her." Chang Xinhui's expression was complicated." She saved you. If it weren't for her, you would have died by now."

Hu Yanlin's face scrunched up. Her mouth moved, but she didn't know what to say..

Translator: 549690339

Hu Yanlin didn't expect to be saved by her love rival.

Even though he was the only one who thought of her as a love rival, it was still very awkward.

Could she still continue to be hostile towards Qi Xibei?

Although her hostility did not affect Sibe much.

Hu Yanlin's mood was very low for the rest of the time.

Qi Xibei did not care about her, as she was more concerned about Qiao Yanyu's safety.

Because of her lead, the group quickly left the forest without encountering Princess Ruyi's people.

Actually, with Qi Xibei leading the way, it was very safe. Hu Yanlin was the one who caused the accident.

Because she was in a bad mood, she couldn't help but fall and step on a Flaming Blood Beast.

Therefore, it would be strange if he didn't bite her.

After avoiding the pursuit of Princess Ruyi and the others, Qi Xibei led a group of people out of the forest.

After leaving the forest, they had also changed their appearance.

Qi Xibei had even provided some masks.

When they received these masks, everyone was a little surprised.

This was really a pleasant surprise.

After using these masks, their movements became even more convenient.

Although Princess Ruyi and the others had not seen their faces, they had an additional layer of protection with such masks.

Moreover, these masks were also very valuable!

They could also buy it in the shop, but the price of a mask was very high.

Therefore, they usually wouldn't want to buy a mask unless there was something important. After all, they usually did things in a big way and didn't need to be sneaky.

However, they did not expect Qi Xibei to take out so many masks so casually. It was completely beyond everyone's imagination.

As expected, he was rich and overbearing! Just like Boss!

After they came out, Qi Xibei brought the captain back to his place. As for the others, they waited elsewhere.

When the matter was settled, he would gather them together. That way, they would not attract attention.

Qi Xibei had gone out for a while. No one knew what she had gone to do, and the three disciples had no idea where their master was.

Of course, they wouldn't ask such questions. Their master naturally had his own thoughts.

"Can we contact him now?" Qi Xibei quickly sent his disciples away and immediately asked the captain about this matter.

The captain couldn't help but smile bitterly. He was too anxious!

However, he knew that if his boss knew that he had found Qi Xibei, he would be very anxious.

"Alright, I'll prepare it now." The captain nodded. "However, I'm not sure when they will reply."

"It's okay. You start first." Qi Xibei nodded. "Just tell him where I am." Oh no, you told him to wait for me there."

If Qiao Yanyu could have left, he would have left long ago. He would not have stayed there.

Since Qiao Yanyu couldn't move freely, she had no choice but to go and find him.

"Alright."

The captain nodded and left in a hurry.

She didn't know what agreement he had with Qiao Yanyu.

After the captain left, someone knocked on Qi Xibei's door again.

"Master Maverick, please help me!"

The person who came was from the Wen family, and he was Wen Luochun's personal guard.

"What's wrong?" Qi Xibei was surprised. "What happened?"

"One of our brothers is injured!"

Was he injured?

“Bring me there.”

Qi Xibei nodded without hesitation.

The man was immediately delighted..” Alright, please follow me!”

Translator: 549690339

Soon, Qi Xibei followed the man to another place.

If she hadn’t seen Wen Luochun, she would have thought that he was lying to her! This place was too remote!

In the house, Wen Luochun was already waiting anxiously.”

His expression was not too good. He must have been tormented by this matter.

“Where is he?” Qi Xibei asked.

“Inside. ”

Wen Luochun brought Qi Xibei in.

Soon, she saw a man lying on the bed.

After seeing this person’s appearance, she finally understood why Wen Luochun had asked her to come over.

This person’s body was covered in all kinds of blisters, looking terrifying and disgusting.

He was tied up, probably to prevent him from scratching the blisters.

“He was poisoned.” Wen Luochun’s expression was serious.” He was in charge of following the Crown Prince, but he was discovered and poisoned.”

It was not so easy to cure the poison.

Moreover, they could not let outsiders know about this matter, so they could not ask anyone else for help.

As for the doctors in the residence, Wen Luochun didn’t really trust them.

After all, for so many years, the doctors in the Wengu Group had been poisoned, but they had not discovered it. Either their skills were not good enough, or their hearts were not good enough.

No matter what, he couldn't let others know about this.

Therefore, Wen Luochun immediately thought of Qi Xibei.

The poison that had been so troublesome to them had been removed. This person's condition did not look too good, but it should not be too much of a problem for Qi Xibei.

"Okay, let me take a look first."

Qi Xibei walked up to the man and began to check on him, ignoring his terrifying appearance.

The man lay on the bed, motionless. His face was pale with a tinge of black, and he looked very terrifying.

Qi Xibei immediately came up with a countermeasure after checking the place.

"I'll write you a list. Get someone to buy the medicine."

"Good! "

Wen Luochun immediately took out a brush, ink, paper, and inkstone.

These were all prepared long ago.

Qi Xibei did not stand on ceremony. He took the brush and wrote down his request.

"I'll split it into two orders for you." "This won't attract anyone's attention," said Qi Xibei."

"Alright, thank you so much!"

Wen Luochun was extremely grateful.

Then, Wen Luochun found two people and asked them to buy medicine.

After they left, Wen Luochun heaved a sigh of relief.

Although he had yet to start treatment, with Qi Xibei around, he felt that there was hope. He was not afraid of anything happening.

"What is going on?" Qi Xibei asked," How did you get poisoned all of a sudden?"

"I asked him to follow the Crown Prince, but I didn't expect to be discovered. Fortunately, he came back in time. Otherwise, he would have been caught by now."

Wen Luochun felt a little lucky.

“Why are you following the Crown Prince?” Qi Xibei was surprised.

“Because he should be the one behind the poisoning.” Wen Luochun’s tone was heavy.

“What?”

Qi Xibei was shocked.

Didn’t they always say that this was done by Prince Gong? How did he become the Crown Prince?

Although Qi Xibei did not have a good impression of the Crown Prince, was this related to him?

“That’s not right! Ten years ago, the Crown Prince was only in his teens!”

Qi Xibei was surprised. Such a young crown prince already had such schemes?

“Yes.” Wen Luochun’s expression was serious. Ten years ago, he was only a teenager. However, the Crown Prince had always been very thoughtful.”

Before this, Wen Luochun did not suspect the Crown Prince. After all, they had a good relationship with the Crown Prince.

But this time, he had to be suspicious!

Translator: 549690339

“I learned from the housekeeper that the matter back then was related to the Crown Prince.”

“Butler?”

Qi Xibei was not too surprised.

Previously, when Wen Guqun was poisoned, she had also noticed the reactions of the people present.

The butler’s response was the most enthusiastic.

Moreover, he was a little flustered.

After that, when he found out that Wen Luochun’s poison had not been completely cured, he heaved a sigh of relief.

Although it was very secretive, it was very obvious in the eyes of people like them.

After that, Wen Luochun ordered his men to keep an eye on the butler.

Then, he learned something different from the butler.

For example, the butler was the Crown Prince's subordinate.

"This is too deep!"

Qi Xibei was very surprised.

Although she knew that there was something wrong with the butler, she did not expect that this was related to the Crown Prince!

One had to know that ten years ago, the Crown Prince was only a teenager.

Although it was said that children who grew up in the cannibal palace were all scheming, who would have thought that a child in his teens could do such a thing?

He had been planning this since ten years ago. His thoughts were too terrifying!

Moreover, he had attacked the Wen family!

"But why did the Crown Prince attack you?" Qi Xibei was puzzled. "You don't have any conflict of interest with him, right?!"

This was also the strangest point.

Ten years ago, the Crown Prince was already the Crown Prince.

He did not have any grudges with the Wen family. After all, the two sides did not have any dealings at all.

The Wen family supported the Emperor, and it didn't matter who became the Emperor.

They didn't have any close contact with the other princes, and only had some normal interactions.

They had never expressed their support for anyone in public.

No matter if it was the Crown Prince, the Second Prince, or the Third Prince, no matter who sat in this position, it had nothing to do with them.

They were only responsible for protecting the country.

However, who would have thought that the Crown Prince would actually make a move against them? Moreover, he had already started plotting ten years ago!

Even though Qi Xibei was experienced and knowledgeable, he was still shocked at this moment.

Should he say that he was worthy of being the Crown Prince? He had actually started to set up the plan so early.

"We really don't have any conflict of interest." Wen Luochun nodded. "But I can guess what he means."

"Oh?" Qi Xibei was all ears.

"He probably wants to use this matter to give our family a little favor and let us follow him!" Wen Luochun was nonchalant, but Qi Xibei could tell that he was not calm.

After all, anyone who found out that something like this had happened to them would have the same reaction.

"That's indeed possible." Qi Xibei nodded.

The Crown Prince had started his plan ten years ago, poisoning Wen Guqun and weakening Wen Luochun's resistance.

Wen Luochun was poisoned, his body weakened, and his strength plummeted.

Under such circumstances, Wen Luochun and the Wen family would become weak and would suffer all kinds of attacks.

When the Wen family was in a precarious situation, if the Crown Prince acted and got someone to detoxify Wen Luochun's poison, the Wen family would be able to cheer up again.

In that case, he was the Wen family's benefactor!

If that was the case, the Wen family could no longer remain neutral and could only support him.

After all, it was such a great favor!

After understanding this, Qi Xibei could not help but sigh. This was too deep of a thought! Moreover, in order to achieve their goal, they actually cooperated with the MO Lin Kingdom!

This method of taking a step and watching hundreds of steps was really not ordinary.

But in Wen Luochun's eyes, it was terrifying.

Who could allow others to scheme against them behind their backs?

Translator: 549690339

"I sent someone to follow the Crown Prince to find out about him, but I was discovered." Wen Luochun frowned. "I didn't expect him to be so vigilant!" If he had not escaped in time, he might have been discovered by now.

Of course, even if they weren't discovered, Wen Luochun's subordinates weren't in a good situation.

After all, the blisters on his body were itchy and painful. Moreover, it might infect others. This was too terrifying.

"He will definitely be vigilant." Qi Xibei nodded. "To be able to do such a thing, he definitely won't be discovered so easily."

To be able to start planning from ten years ago, this crown prince's thoughts were really deep. Ordinary people really could not play against him.

Qi Xibei finally understood why the Third Prince was so afraid of the Crown Prince.

With such deep thoughts, he was indeed a terrifying enemy.

Of course, Qi Xibei did not have a good impression of the crown prince.

After all, he was still related to Qiao Yanyu.

He was also using poison to restrain Qiao Yanyu so that he could not act rashly.

If Qi Xibei wanted to meet Qiao Yanyu smoothly, the Crown Prince would be the most troublesome key.

While they were chatting, the two people who went out to buy medicine returned.

"We went to a few drugstores to buy these. Moreover, we also discovered that there were people guarding outside the pharmacy." "When we came back, there were people following us, but we lost them."

Their words made Wen Luochun even more shocked.

They should be the Crown Prince's men!

He must have noticed that something was wrong, so he wanted to find out the problem from the pharmacy.

“Will we be discovered?” Wen Luochun was a little worried.

He had recovered his strength, so he did not need to be afraid of the Crown Prince. However, he did not want to face the Crown Prince head-on, at least not now.

“I won’t.” Qi Xibei shook his head.” This antidote is my own creation. The prescription must be different from the other party’s. Therefore, they wouldn’t suspect too much. Besides, we sent two people to buy medicine and went to a few drugstores. The other party can’t possibly keep an eye on us.” Qi Xibei’s explanation made Wen Luochun finally heave a sigh of relief.

If that was the case, that would be great.

He did not want to be targeted by the Crown Prince.

“Alright, I’ll detoxify him first.”

Qi Xibei said as he looked at the man who was tied up on the bed and had a pained expression on his face.

“Alright, then I’ll have to trouble you!” Wen Luochun immediately said.

This poison was too terrifying. It was better to quickly cure it.

Qi Xibei went to the kitchen and began to boil the herbs.

An hour later, a barrel of boiling black liquid that emitted a terrifying smell was brought into the room.

Then, she asked someone to put the man into the water.

As soon as he entered the water, the man could not help but scream.

Qi Xibei was quick to react. He stuffed the cloth into his mouth and stopped the terrifying scream.

This move shocked everyone.

What potion was this? It felt terrifying!

The man soaked in the water for a while. His face, which had been twisted into a ball, slowly relaxed, revealing a relaxed expression.

“Continue soaking for an hour.”

After an hour, the man was carried out.

The blisters on his body had already disappeared.

Qi Xibei took out a bag of silver needles and inserted them into his body.

Another hour passed, and the man finally fell into a deep sleep. His brows were no longer furrowed.

“Alright.” Qi Xibei stood up and wiped his sweat.

“That’s great!” Wen Luochun nodded happily.” Thank you, Master Maverick!”

“You’re welcome.” Qi Xibei smiled..

Translator: 549690339

When the man woke up, he was surprised to find that his body had recovered.

The terrible itch from before had disappeared.

Wen Luochun managed to get a lot of information from him.

Although he was poisoned midway and had to leave early, the man still found out a lot of things.

For example, the Crown Prince had a manor somewhere.

Although there was no way to investigate the things in the manor, he was sure that there must be something unspeakable here.

Or rather, there was the Crown Prince’s treasure and trump card in this. After understanding these things, Wen Luochun told him to have a good rest and left the rest to them.

Qi Xibei did not leave. Instead, he stayed where he was. After hearing the news, he also fell silent.

The Crown Prince’s thoughts were too deep. She did not know how many things he had done.

Qi Xibei would not have interfered in such matters in the past. After all, the power struggle between the princes had nothing to do with her.

But now, the crown prince was related to Qiao Yanyu, so she couldn't avoid it.

She didn't know what the crown prince had fed Qiao Yanyu to control him.

Qi Xibei did not know about Qiao Yanyu's situation, but she was sure that she had to be prepared.

Qi Xibei could not guarantee that he would be able to remove the poison in Qiao Yanyu's body. After all, there were too many magical things here.

Even if she was not weak, she could not guarantee that she could solve all the problems.

Who knew what the Crown Prince would do?

Therefore, Qi Xibei quickly made a decision." I'll go."

"You're going?"

Wen Luochun was stunned and almost stood up." I don't need to trouble you with this! This is too dangerous!"

If they were to follow the Crown Prince, it would be very dangerous!

The man he sent out this time was the best and most experienced in tracking.

However, he was still discovered!

If Qi Xibei went over, he might not succeed.

It would be even worse if something happened to her.

"It's alright." Qi Xibei shook his head." I have the ability to protect myself. You don't have to worry."

"No!" Wen Luochun shook his head." This is too dangerous!"

Who knew what kind of crazy things the Crown Prince would do?

Qi Xibei was so good-looking, so he was in even more danger.

"You don't have to persuade me." Qi Xibei shook his head." I have my own plans."

Wen Luochun could not help but sigh when he saw how determined she was." Alright, if you want to go, you have to ensure your own safety first."

“Don’t worry, I will.” Qi Xibei smiled confidently.

If she wasn’t confident that she could guarantee her safety, she wouldn’t dare to go out.

Therefore, Wen Luochun told Qi Xibei everything he knew so that she could be mentally prepared.

Qi Xibei pondered over this matter as he listened.

Soon, she decided on a plan.

When she returned home that night, the captain came over with news about Qiao Yanyu.

Qiao Yanyu had already received his message and replied.

However, he told Qi Xibei not to act rashly and not to expose their relationship, especially not to the Crown Prince.

As for the rest, he would settle it himself.

Although Qiao Yanyu had said so, how could Qi Xibei just sit there and let him settle everything by himself?

So, late that night, after she was ready, she set off for the Crown Prince’s manor..

Translator: 549690339

It was late at night, and there were not many people walking outside.

The moonlight tonight was weak, but it provided a good environment for the crime.

Qi Xibei carefully walked along the shadows to avoid being discovered.

Soon, she arrived outside the Crown Prince’s manor.

If not for the news, she would not have thought that this seemingly simple and unremarkable manor actually belonged to the Crown Prince.

The manor was built at the foot of a small mountain and did not look big.

However, Qi Xibei was sensitive enough to realize that there was more to this place.

Moreover, there were quite a few people among them.

Qi Xibei's expression was very serious when he sensed the various auras inside.

This was the Crown Prince's territory, and the security inside was tight. It was definitely not that easy to enter.

However, how could he understand the situation inside?

The gatekeepers here did not seem to be eye-catching, but Qi Xibei could feel the surging aura from them.

These were all fourth grade Revered Martial Artists!

The gatekeepers were all at Level Four, so the people inside were definitely stronger.

If he entered rashly, he would only be discovered.

At this thought, Qi Xibei turned around and headed in another direction.

Soon, she arrived at the small forest beside her.

This small forest was not big, only a few acres of land.

However, there were also many birds and insects here.

She released her mental power.

Soon, there was a response.

The sound of flapping wings rang out, and a flock of birds appeared in front of him.

Qi Xibei moved his hand, and the birds flew into the sky.

She blew a whistle and the birds flew in one direction.

Soon, a few birds flew into the Crown Prince's manor.

The birds landed on the branches and rooftops, taking care of their wings leisurely.

When the people below noticed the situation above, they could not help but look up.

"Why are there so many birds?" "Yeah, what happened?"

"Did something happen?"

“How could this be? Don’t spout nonsense!”

“Alright, it’s just a few birds. What’s there to worry about?”

“Hurry up and send the things over. Otherwise, you’ll be punished!”

As soon as he said this, the people below no longer had the mood to pay attention to these birds.

There would be birds landing on the trees here anyway.

Humans and animals could not communicate.

They didn’t have a beast tamer here, and even if they did, they wouldn’t put their energy on these ordinary birds.

Besides, the birds couldn’t do anything. At most, they would just make the place a little dirty.

The few of them muttered in their hearts and ran away with the things.

And in a place that they did not see, there were a few small snakes and inconspicuous bugs.

These little things walked back and forth here and soon figured out the situation here.

Outside, Qi Xibei was expressionless.

Her spiritual power was carefully attached to these small animals. If these small animals were attacked, her spiritual power would also be affected.

However, each cave animal only had a little spiritual energy, so even if something happened, it would not affect her too much.

Through the eyes of these small animals, she quickly figured out the distribution of the area.

It looked simple from the outside, but there were many guards inside.

Moreover, the weakest among them was a fourth grade Martial Honor.

Apart from the fourth grade Revered Martial Artists, there were also a few fifth grade Martial Marquises.

When these marquises passed by, they even looked in the direction of the small animals, but they did not find anything wrong, so they did not mind.

Apart from the experts, there were also some closed rooms..

After figuring out the distribution, Qi Xibei withdrew his mental power.

The birds flew away again.

The guards who were hiding in the dark only took a glance and didn't say anything. They then focused their attention on their vigilance.

And in a place they didn't know, in a blind spot that wasn't involved, there was a thin figure.

Qi Xibei's face was covered and he was dressed in black. Under the gauze, there was still an unfamiliar face.

She shuttled under the wall, avoiding the patrols and the sight of the secret guards, and walked towards the center.

This place looked small, only three steps into the house, but there was another world behind it.

Because it was close to a small mountain, the back should be connected to the mountain.

He just didn't know what was under the mountain.

Qi Xibei was curious as he carefully walked inside, avoiding the eyes and ears around him.

Her movements were very smooth and did not make any noise. This place was different from Earth. After all, there were no surveillance cameras here.

Even if some experts would use their spiritual power to patrol this place, their spiritual power was not unlimited, and it was impossible for them to release it at all times.

Therefore, her infiltration was much easier.

Of course, if he was discovered here, it would be really troublesome.

After all, there were many experts here.

Qi Xibei was now at Level Five. If everyone came at her like a swarm of bees, she would be dead for sure.

Fortunately, she had made all kinds of preparations and there were still many things in the storage ring.

The interior of the house looked very ordinary, just like the furnishings of the other houses.

However, Qi Xibei did not know what was in the room. After all, those little things could not enter.

Therefore, she could only rely on her own efforts.

When he passed by a certain room, Qi Xibei suddenly hid behind a pillar.

Soon, there were a few more people on the path.

All of them were carrying something in their arms.

Upon closer look, it was a person!

When they looked more clearly, they were all women!

These women were all unconscious and were brought in just like that.

Their clothes were different, and the fabric was good and bad, so their identities were different. However, he was certain that they were all unmarried young women.

Qi Xibei held his breath and completely restrained his aura. She watched as these people brought these young women to a room.

“Open the door.”

Someone shouted.

Soon, the person inside opened the door.

Seeing the women in their arms, he could not help but frown.” Just these few?”

“These are already a lot!” The man retorted unhappily,” It’s already not easy to find these! It’s not like you don’t know how troublesome it is now! ” It was not easy to find so many women.

The situation outside had become chaotic because of the woman’s disappearance.

It was already very impressive that they could still find so many people in such an environment.

“Alright, come in.”

Soon, the few of them entered.

Qi Xibei's eyes darkened as he looked at the closed door.

There was something different here!

He just didn't know why they were looking for these women.

She waited outside for a long time before the person inside came out, cursing.

“Mom. Yes! They really felt that it was easy to say! We worked so hard, but they didn't even thank us and scolded us!”

“F * ck! If it wasn't for you, Boss, stopping me, I might have already made a move! They're too despicable!”

“Alright, stop arguing. It's all for Master, there's no need to quarrel.”Boss spoke.

“But, where are we going to find other women? It's already like this outside, it's going to be difficult for us!”

“That's right! We've found so many women, and now there are all kinds of rumors outside. It won't be so easy for us to make a move.”

“There's no choice. Master needs it, so we can only fight with all our might.”

There was nothing they could do about it. Their master had ordered them to do so, so how could they resist?

“Now that they've learned their lesson and don't dare to come out at night, what can we do?”One of them sounded worried.” I'm afraid that we won't be able to complete the mission!”

“Let's look for more. If not...We can only kidnap people from our homes.”

“Then I'll go take a look at Fangyuan Street tomorrow night?”

“Alrigh t. ”

“Alright then...’

Qi Xibei's eyes were cold as he listened to their voices fade away.

She looked at the door and hesitated for a moment, but she still did not approach it.

When the sky was about to brighten, she left the place.

When he returned home, the three sisters had already gotten up to cultivate.

They were all very happy to see Qi Xibei return.

"Master!"

"Yes." Qi Xibei nodded and told them some ways to learn. Then, he reminded them, "When you go out, you must travel together and not alone, understand?" Her serious attitude made the three of them a little nervous. "What's wrong?" "It's dangerous outside, especially for single women, so you must be careful. "Qi Xibei did not completely hide it from them, but he did not reveal it either.

Even so, they were a little nervous." There's such a thing?"

"This is too much! Don't those people have any laws?"

"If I meet these bad guys, I'll definitely teach them a lesson!" Liu Yiya clenched her fists and said.

Qi Xibei rolled his eyes at her." Who can you teach a lesson with your little strength? If you encounter any danger, run quickly and come back to me for help, understand? Don't try to be brave!"

"Alright, got it."

After being scolded by her master, Liu Yiya became listless and nodded obediently. "Alright, focus on your cultivation."

Qi Xibei then left.

There were so many bad people chasing people everywhere, so he had to protect himself.

Of course, other than letting them protect themselves, they also had to catch all these bad guys in one go. This was the most fundamental way.

Only being a thief for a thousand days, not guarding against thieves for a thousand days.

Qi Xibei had only wanted to resolve Qiao Yanyu's matter. He did not expect such trouble.

His three female disciples were all charming. If anything happened to them, it would not be good.

Therefore, to prevent those people from reaching out to more women, Qi Xibei decided to take the initiative to attack.

That night, Qi Xibei went out.

This time, she had changed her appearance.

She looked a little weak now, the kind that could be easily bullied.

Although she was tall, she did not attract too much attention because of her delicate appearance and expression.

She walked along Fangyuan Street, which the few of them had mentioned before, looking lost.

Sure enough, someone came up very quickly.

It was a middle-aged woman.

"Little girl, what happened?"

The woman's eyes were kind and she looked very amiable.

Qi Xibei's eyes welled up when he met her concerned gaze." I-I..."

Before she could finish speaking, she started crying. Her tears flowed down, and she looked very pitiful.

The woman was anxious." Don't be anxious! If there's anything, just tell me. I'll help you."

She looked around." Come, let's find a place to sit and have a good chat. I've lived for decades longer than you, so I should be able to help you."

"Alright.."

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei's eyes were closed as someone carried him inside.

Although her eyes were closed, her spiritual power sensed that she had already entered the Crown Prince's manor.

The middle-aged woman from before was one of them.

The woman looked for some targets on the street and used various methods to bring them over. These people then knocked them out and brought them back to the manor.

Qi Xibei naturally cooperated with their actions.

She was brought in by the drug.

Qi Xibei was worried about the situation inside, so he did not dare to barge in.

After all, there were too many experts here. If they were not careful, they would really be finished.

After using such a move, she could easily enter this place. After all, who would have thought that she would enter on her own accord?

Qi Xibei closed his eyes and carefully observed the situation outside.

She could feel that this place was indeed different.

It was just an ordinary door outside, but after entering the door, they walked for a distance.

Such a long distance surprised her.

As she had expected, this place was embedded in the mountain.

After walking for more than ten minutes, the man stopped and a voice sounded in his ear. "I've brought her here."

"Not bad!"

"I said it wouldn't work before, but aren't there many ways now?" One of them laughed.

The other party snorted and said in an unhappy tone, "We have no choice but to fight! Why don't you help me plead for mercy?" Qi Xibei felt as if he had been placed on a bed.

After a while, they all walked away.

After they left, Qi Xibei carefully opened his eyes and observed his surroundings.

This was a very large hall. The furnishings inside were very crude. One look and one could tell that it was made by hollowing out the mountain wall.

The area here was very large, and there were many flames, so it was not dark.

Those people were gathered in front of him, talking about something.

Seeing that no one was paying attention to him, Qi Xibei turned his head carefully and saw his situation more clearly.

She was now in a cage. The cage was not small. There was a bed and a toilet inside. It looked quite simple. It was just a simple prison cell.

Beside it was a cage.

On the other side of the fence was a girl. The woman curled up and did not move.

He turned around and saw many bottles and jars in the middle of the hall. There were also all kinds of strange utensils. He knew that something was wrong with just one look.

This reminded Qi Xibei of Miracle Corporation's laboratory.

Qi Xibei frowned.

The Crown Prince was actually doing these things?

"Chief Jiang, I've brought him here." Master Jiang?

Could it be Jiang Rongguang?

Qi Xibei's heart skipped a beat and he immediately looked over.

However, to her disappointment and relief, this person was not Jiang

Rongguang.

However, this person's surname was also Jiang... This made people suspect the connection between them.

A man of medium build strode in with a serious expression." Who are you?"

"He's a Grade 2 Warrior." the others replied.

"It's alright."

If he was a Grade 2 Warrior, his physical fitness would be stronger.

This would also be of greater help to their experiments.

The man's appearance was ordinary, but his eyes were terrifying. It was as if there were all kinds of terrifying thoughts in them.

Jiang Feiyang nodded in satisfaction when he saw the woman in the cage.

He pointed at a person behind a fence and said, "Bring her out."

"Yes."

When the woman realized that she had been called out, she was so scared that her face turned pale. She hid behind and refused to come out.

However, she could not stop them at all. In the end, she was brought out crying..

Chapter 2261: Chapter 2262-Drinking Medicine

Qi Xibei carefully observed the situation. Even though the woman was crying miserably, she did not act rashly.

If she rushed out, she would also die. She was not that stupid.

The woman cried pitifully, but the men in front of her were not moved at all.

On the contrary. they were very calm and heartless.

"Let her drink it."

Jiang Feiyang said to the others.

"Yes, sir!"

The man took out a bowl filled with a terrifyingly colored liquid.

Even though Qi Xibei was quite a distance away from them, he could still smell the terrifying scent.

She sniffled and thought about it carefully. Her expression changed slightly.

There were many medicinal herbs inside, and these medicinal herbs were all poisons.

Even if there was a little tonic in it, it would be very terrifying if it was placed together with these poisons.

The woman's mouth was pinched, and after she drank the medicine, her face turned even paler.

Everyone let go of her hand, and she strangled her own neck. She reached out to dig her throat, wanting to spit it out, but she could only spit out some saliva. It was useless.

Looking at her miserable appearance, these people were not moved at all." Bring her in and get the medicine later.'"

"Yes."

After Jiang Feiyang left, the place became quiet again.

Qi Xibei was about to open his eyes when he heard a shrill voice beside him.

"Where is this place? Let me out!"

Oh, it was the person who was arrested with her.

If it was someone else who was already here, they definitely wouldn't have such a reaction. After all, they had already accepted their fate.

Only those who had just entered would have such a reaction.

Therefore, the effects of the medicine had already worn off.

Qi Xibei also opened his eyes and sat up from the bed.

She looked scared." Where is this? Who are you? Why am I here?"

She looked around in a panic and soon found more things here.

He couldn't move his head before, so he couldn't see his surroundings clearly.

Now, he realized that there were cages everywhere.

There were many girls in the cages.

These girls were all young. Their hair was disheveled, their bodies were thin, and their faces were pale. They looked very pitiful. It was unknown how many crazy tortures they had experienced.

"Shut up!"

The crying here angered the guards. They walked over and knocked on the fence with a stick." If you make any more noise, I'll kill you!'"

The woman was obviously frightened, and her crying stopped abruptly.

Seeing that she was quiet, the guard snorted and returned to his seat.

The little girl was sobbing, but she could not cry out loud.

After what happened just now, she now understood that her situation was not good.

Although she was anxious and afraid, she also knew that she could not make these people angry. Otherwise, she would definitely be even sadder.

When she stopped crying, Qi Xibei also shut up.

Qi Xibei looked at the little girl beside him and could not help but raise an eyebrow.

This little girl was young, but she was very tactful.

If it were anyone else, they would have cried non-stop and loudly.

The little girl cried and turned to look at Qi Xibei. She could not help but hiccup." You..." You were caught too?"

Qi Xibei nodded." Yes, we've all been captured."

The little girl's tears grew even more and flowed down.

However, she could only bite her lips tightly and did not dare to cry out loud.

Qi Xibei ignored her and continued to observe the situation.

After a while, someone pulled the woman who had just drunk the medicine out..

Qi Xibei saw that when the woman was brought out, the other women in the cage were all in shock and fear.

As for the woman who was brought out, she was held down by two people.

Then, one of them took out something that looked like a syringe and dropped it on the woman's stomach, drawing out her blood.

These people's actions were not gentle at all. They were very rough.

Under their control, the woman screamed repeatedly. Towards the end, even her voice became softer.

By the time they stopped, the woman was already silent.

The others' faces were also pale. It was obvious that they had experienced this too many times.

Qi Xibei was silent as he stared at their actions.

After a while, the woman was casually applied with some medicine to stop the bleeding. She was sent back and thrown on the bed without any pity.

Qi Xibei suddenly thought that putting a bed here could be considered very 'benevolent.'

If they didn't have a bed to rest on, they would be even worse off.

These people took the blood and left.

Everyone was like frightened quails, not daring to speak at all.

Qi Xibei followed the crowd and silently squatted in his cage.

The people outside saw that no one was causing trouble here, so they didn't think too much about it.

After all, the women who were captured were not experts. Moreover, they were locked in such a strong cage. They could not escape.

Moreover, these people had been locked up here for so long that they no longer dared to escape. There was no need to worry.

Qi Xibei's expression was cold as he looked at the people chatting and laughing outside.

She curled up in the corner of the bed, but her ears were listening to their conversation outside.

Rustling sounds came from the side, followed by the nervous and panicked voices of the girls. "What should we do? Is it our turn next?"

"I don't know."

They sounded like they were about to cry in the next second.

Oh no, they were already crying.

However, they did not dare to cry out loud, or they would be punished.

“Today, it’s our turn to bleed. Tomorrow, it’s our turn!”

“Wuuu... I don’t want to be bled!”

“It’s still good to be with Fang Xue. I’ll have to drink poison in a few days!”

When the man mentioned this, he trembled and his voice was filled with horror.” I’ve seen a few women die before. They were all so miserable!”

“Stop talking! Don’t say anymore! ”

“What are you talking about? Silence!”

The guard who was chatting at the door shouted. The two of them trembled and quickly shut their mouths.

“Alright, don’t worry about them. Come, continue drinking!”

One of the guards patted his comrade’s shoulder.” We can change shifts tomorrow.” When the time comes, ge will bring you to Cui Hua Lou to have some fun!”

“Brother! You’re really my brother!”

That person immediately became excited.” Are you really inviting me to Cui Hua Lou?”

“Of course!” That person patted his chest.” If it wasn’t for the fact that we can’t touch the people here, we wouldn’t have to spend money.”

“Yes, I am.” The man shook his head.” If these women can be used..

“Alright, don’t think about this impossible thing. Otherwise, if Master finds out, we’ll be finished.”

“Sigh, what a pity! These were all virgins!”

The guard’s lecherous eyes swept over, and all the women here cowered.

“What a pity!”

“Don’t feel pity. The money Master gave us is enough for us to spend.”The older man patted him.” You can’t touch these. Otherwise, they’ll be useless.”

"I wonder where Chief Jiang came from and what's going on..

Chapter 2263: Chapter 2265 -The Person Who Was Caged

Translator: 549690339

"Alright, stop thinking about it. Master Jiang was a master specially invited by Master! Even Master had to be respectful in front of him!"

The older man was obviously more familiar with these things. He educated the young man, "Anyway, remember that you can't touch anything here. These women couldn't be touched, and the other drugs couldn't be touched either. If you want to live, do as I say."

"I will!" " Yes." The young man nodded." But what is this place for?"

"You brat!" The older man frowned." I already told you not to be so curious. Why are you still curious?!" If anything happens, I won't be able to save you!"

"Alright, I'll shut up."

The kid quickly covered his mouth.

"Anyway, it's something that has nothing to do with us. It's not something we can know. The more we know, the faster we die, understand?"

"Understood!"

He quickly nodded.

"Alright, come, have a drink!"

The two of them began to clink glasses again and drank happily.

When the women heard their conversation, they felt even sadder.

They had been brought here for no reason.

Originally, there were many people here, but later on, there were fewer people, and then there were more newcomers.

No matter what, the number of people here was about the same.

Every day, they could see their little friends being fed medicine and their blood being taken.

A few days later, she was fed medicine again, but it was obviously poison.

After these poisons entered their stomachs, not many people could survive. Those who could survive were also taken away in the end. No one knew where they were taken.

However, no matter how naive they were, they would not think that these people were still alive.

It was just that the way they died was different.

They felt like they were about to break down when they saw this every day.

The fact that he didn't collapse was just his last bit of strength.

Didn't they see that these people didn't care about their existence at all when they were chatting?

Only the dead did not need to worry.

At the thought of this, the women felt sad and tears fell again.

However, they didn't dare to cry out loud. They only sobbed faintly.

The two men were also in a bad mood. After a while, they scolded them. After they were so scared that they did not dare to cry, they continued to say some scary things.

After scaring them to tears, he made them stop crying.

In this way, these women were either numb or crazy.

Qi Xibei was the only one who was quietly huddled in a corner.

In the eyes of these people, she was afraid.

She couldn't escape anyway, so no one cared what she was doing.

What they did not know was that a few spiders had run out of Qi Xibei's body.

These spiders were very small and did not attract attention.

They were like small animals that were native to this place, climbing freely inside.

They climbed over the roof and quickly passed over the heads of these people.

The few people who were drinking did not notice the existence of these little spiders and continued to laugh.

Qi Xibei's mental power followed the little spiders forward.

Fortunately, the little spider did not go too far away.

It was probably more than ten meters away. After two rooms, the little spider stopped and took in the situation below.

When Qi Xibei saw the situation, his eyes widened.

Because this was another cage.

However, it was not a woman here, but a young man.

There were obviously more young men here than there were women.

They were also locked in cages..

Translator: 549690339

These young men were locked in cages like animals.

Their expressions were as painful and numb as the women from before. They just watched the people coming and going outside.

After a while, one of them was pulled out and fed something.

This scene made the people around them a little restless.

But soon, under the cursing of the others, they quieted down.

They didn't dare to continue making noise.

The place was suffused with a suffocating deathly stillness.

Through the little spider's eyes, Qi Xibei could see the situation clearly.

Just as the little spider was about to leave, a few more people appeared.

Judging from the appearance of the person in the lead, he should be the person in charge of this place.

That was because that person's attitude was very arrogant, while the others were fawning over him.

The man walked in, raised his chin, and narrowed his eyes.

"How is it now?"

“Milord, the situation is good. There are no problems.” “We’ll have a result in a few more days,” one of them said immediately.”

“Alright then.” The man nodded arrogantly. “Master is waiting for you. Don’t disappoint Master.”

“Don’t worry, I definitely won’t!”

The subordinate patted his chest and nodded seriously.

“Alright, that’s it.”

That person patrolled the place and made sure that everything was safe before leaving.

When he passed by the little spider, he suddenly looked up.

He saw a small spider.

However, the little spider did not surprise him. It was a little damp here and would attract some mosquitoes. After all, it was in a cave.

It was not a big problem to see small insects here. “Did he run out from inside?” he asked with a frown.

“It can’t be?”

The others also looked up. When they saw the little spider, they could not help but frown. “It should be a bug that came in from outside.”

They had many poisonous insects here. This spider was obviously not poisonous, so it should not have come out.

Therefore, it should have come in from outside.

Besides, if he came out from inside, it was impossible for him to continue staying here.

“Alright, don’t let anything happen.”

“Yes, sir! I understand!”

The others nodded.

The little spider did not seem to know what they meant and continued to climb freely.

These people did not care about the little spider’s existence and continued to move forward.

Soon, they arrived at the girls 'room.

Looking at the women in the cage, the man raised his eyebrows." That's all?"

"Milord, this is all I have for now. Don't worry, in a few days, there will be more people coming."

"We have to hurry. Otherwise, I'll see how you'll explain yourself if you delay Master's matter!"

"Yes, sir! Don't worry! We will definitely be careful!"

This person led a group of people past Qi Xibei's cage.

However, Qi Xibei's current appearance was very ordinary, so it did not attract much attention.

What they didn't know was that another little spider had climbed onto the leader's clothes.

Because it was too small and moved quickly, they did not notice its existence at all.

Qi Xibei lowered his head and did not say a word. He only hoped that they would not be too far away.

If she was too far away, her mental power would not be able to support it.

Fortunately, this group of people stopped after they left the door.

Just as she was feeling puzzled, the man in the lead separated from the others, turned around, and walked in another direction.

After a while, she heard the sound of a door opening. Then, there was the sound of people walking down..

Chapter 2265: Chapter 2267-Controlling the Heart

Translator: 549690339

Following the little spider's view, Qi Xibei realized that the person was heading toward the basement.

This surprised her.

She originally thought that these things were already very special here. She did not expect there to be another cave below.

If she hadn't come here, she wouldn't have thought that there was another place down there.

There was already a hiding place here. Who would have thought that there were other things below?

As this place was below Qi Xibei's position, his mental power was still sufficient.

This was also convenient for her.

Thus, the little spider quickly followed the person down.

When he got down and saw the situation clearly, Qi Xibei could not help but widen his eyes.

Below, it was far more terrifying than she had imagined!

There was a large basement below. There were many tables, chairs, and shelves in the basement. There were also many strange things on the shelves.

There were parts of spirit beasts and human bodies.

There was a suffocating cold aura in the air, and the sinister aura permeated everywhere.

The man walked forward and soon reached the middle.

To Qi Xibei's surprise, she saw Jiang Feiyang, who she had just met!

"Chief Jiang."

The man was very arrogant in front of others, but he was very respectful in front of Jiang Feiyang.

"You're here."

Jiang Feiyang straightened his body and looked at the man. "We're almost done. We'll be able to make it in a few days."

"There's definitely no problem if Chief Jiang takes action. The man smiled brightly. "Master is waiting for your masterpiece."

"Don't worry. We are on the same boat." "Of course. We all believe in you."

"Oh right, you can take this over first."

Jiang Feiyang handed him a bottle.” The poison in this can control people’s minds.”

“You got it out so quickly?”

The man was shocked.” That’s great. Master also said that the person seems to be getting out of control! It can be used now.”

“Don’t worry, there won’t be any problems.”

Jiang Feiyang shook his head and looked at him coldly.” Not many people can unlock the thing that came out of my hands.”“

“Of course!”

The man immediately nodded, his face full of admiration.” We all know your abilities. It’s just that that kid’s strength isn’t ordinary. We’re just taking precautions.” “Alright, I got it.” Jiang Feiyang waved his hand.” You can go first.’

“Alright!”

The man immediately nodded and turned to leave.

“Wait!”

Jiang Feiyang suddenly frowned and called out to him. “What’s wrong? Is there anything else?”

The man stopped in confusion and turned to look at him.

Jiang Feiyang walked over to the man and searched his clothes for a while. He found a small spider.

“When did this little thing get on my body?”

The man was confused. Then, he threw the spider to the ground in disgust and stomped it to death.

After he was done, he looked at Jiang Feiyang in confusion.” Master Jiang, what’s wrong?”“

Jiang Feiyang frowned in confusion, but he did not notice anything wrong.

He walked around the man and still didn’t find anything wrong. In the end, he could only shake his head.” It’s fine. You can go first.”

“Are you really alright?”

“I’m fine. You can leave now.”

“Alright, I’ll be leaving first.” Although the man looked confused, he still nodded and left.

On the other side, Qi Xibei retracted his mental power in time and was not discovered by the other party..

Chapter 2266: Chapter 2268 -Terrifying Scene

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei sat at the corner of the bed and curled up, looking very nervous and afraid.

His appearance didn’t attract any attention.

No one knew that she would actually use her spiritual power to command a spider to investigate the situation inside.

Qi Xibei buried his face in his knees and frowned.

She did not expect that there was a basement below.

As expected, a crafty rabbit had three burrows!

Even if someone found this place and found everything here, who would have thought that there were other things down there?

It was also dark under the lights.

She could not help but feel nauseous at the thought of what she had just seen.

The situation he saw at Miracle Corporation was similar to what he saw here.

However, the situation at Miracle Corporation was relatively normal because there were not that many oddly-shaped spirit beasts and strange plants there.

Therefore, it looked relatively better.

Of course, this was only relative.

But when it came to the level of bloodshed, both sides were the same.

However, the situation in this basement was even more terrifying.

Even though Qi Xibei’s spiritual power was attached to the spider, she could still feel that there was a faint remnant of spiritual power inside.

The spiritual energy should be left behind by the spirit beasts or humans in the jar.

The fact that they were able to release their spiritual energy and retain it showed how much pain they had suffered before they died.

Otherwise, an ordinary death would not have resulted in such an outcome.

Only extreme pain would cause one's mental power to be released.

And this made her feel scared.

What was the Crown Prince trying to do?

What was he plotting?

Of course, she was more concerned about the poison that Jiang Feiyang had given to the man.

Because that person said that there was a kid who was disobedient.

This disobedient kid made Qi Xibei a little worried.

Could it be...Was that someone she knew?

For example. Qiao Yanvu?

Other than Qiao Yanyu, there shouldn't be anyone else who would do this, right?

There was a reason why Qi Xibei guessed that it was Qiao Yanyu.

The owner of this place was the Crown Prince.

The Crown Prince was one of the most respected people in the country. In other words, as long as he extended an olive branch, not many people would reject it.

If they could become the Crown Prince, they would be overjoyed.

But Qiao Yanyu wasn't from here.

It should be said that Qiao Yanyu had memories of this place, but his thoughts were not exactly the same as here. At the very least, he did not care so much about the imperial power.

Therefore, he would appear very disobedient.

The captain had also said that Qiao Yanyu was poisoned, so he would only listen to the Crown Prince.

But with Qiao Yanyu's strength, he should be able to slowly undo the control of the poison.

Therefore, the Crown Prince would definitely think of other ways to deal with him.

However, she did not know what Jiang Feiyang had taken out.

If the drug was too strong, she might not be able to cure it.

At this thought, Qi Xibei immediately wanted to leave.

The fact that Qiao Yanyu was able to neutralize the poison on his own showed that the poison wasn't too strong.

In that case, she should have the ability to undo it.

If Qiao Yanyu ate these new poisons...Then she couldn't guarantee it.

Thinking of this, she immediately had other ideas.

However, she did not do anything. She just sat quietly in her cage, very obedient.

Even the guards here did not take her seriously.

After all, they only cared about the thorny ones.

In the afternoon, she finally saw the scene of the "poisoned blood" they were talking about..

In the evening, they brought food in.

Qi Xibei was also surprised.

The food was actually not bad. There was meat and vegetables, and it seemed to taste quite good!

She immediately understood.

The food had to be nutritious so that these people who were locked up could have a good body.

Only when his body recovered would he be able to deal with this series of torture.

Otherwise, it wouldn't be good if he died.

Qi Xibei picked up the bowl and chopsticks and looked around.

"Eat!"

"Hurry up!"

"If you don't want to eat, then don't!"

The guards shouted and knocked on the iron cage, warning these people to eat quickly.

Who would dare not to eat after being frightened like this?

Although it was tasteless, everyone still ate obediently.

Qi Xibei did not resist and obediently ate the food.

After eating, she continued to sit obediently at the side.

After the others finished eating, they didn't say anything and just sat quietly.

However, the silence was soon broken.

When Qi Xibei saw them enter, he realized that the girls who had arrived earlier were all tensed up and looked terrified.

They even tried their best to hide in the corner, as if no one could see them that way.

Qi Xibei mimicked their actions and shrank back.

However, she had just arrived, so it was not her turn yet.

The men opened a cage and, as if they had taken out a little chick, they ignored the woman's screams and forced the contents of a bottle into her mouth.

The girl mumbled, but she could not resist these people's actions.

The surrounding people were as silent as cicadas in winter. Even if they felt that it was terrifying, they did not dare to make any movements.

There was no other movement in the entire space except for the girl's voice.

Everyone was afraid that if they made any noise, they would be captured.

Qi Xibei watched this scene silently and did not move.

Soon, the girl finished the food.

After she finished drinking, she grabbed her throat and wanted to spit out the contents.

However, the next moment, she looked like she was in pain. She opened her mouth for a long time, but she could not make a sound.

Soon, a large black bump appeared on her arm.

This black ball was extremely terrifying, as if it had been infected with some terrifying virus.

The people in the cage covered their mouths in fear, not daring to make a sound.

The people outside nodded in satisfaction." Let them bleed.""

Then, they grabbed the girl and took out a knife.

The knife cut open the black bump on the girl's body.

It was as if he heard a splash of blood.

Qi Xibei's senses were more sensitive, so he could smell the scent inside.

The smell was extremely fishy.

These people were very happy. They took the equipment and collected the blood.

When they stopped, the black color on the girl's hand had disappeared, but her face was already pale.

They applied some medicine on her to stop the bleeding and locked her back in the cage.

Then, they left.

After they left, the others made a sound.

Qi Xibei heard the whispers of the other girls.

“She’s still alive!”

“Heavens! She was still alive! She actually didn’t die!”

“We might not die, right?”

“Why don’t you want us to live forever?”

“I want to too! But... Do you dare to think about it?”

Qi Xibei’s eyes darkened as he listened to their discussion, but he remained silent.

At around midnight, she suddenly opened her eyes..

Qi Xibei opened his eyes. It was already dark outside because the room was already lit up.

However, the fire here was not too bright. Moreover, there was no light where they were.

This also made it easier for her to move.

She used her spiritual power to look around to make sure that no one was paying attention to her. The women beside her were also quiet.

This kind of silence was very suitable for stirring up trouble.

Thus, she released her mental power and soon, there were some bugs and small animals in front of her.

There were also a few rats inside.

These rats looked a little dirty, but they were very useful to Qi Xibei.

Then, she took out something from the storage device at her ankle.

Yes, she refined the storage device into an anklet and placed it on her ankle.

When they brought her in, they had checked her body, but they did not find any storage devices.

After all, no one would have thought that a storage device would have such a shape.

Generally speaking, everyone would refine their storage devices into rings, bracelets, or necklaces.

After all, it was easier to take the items this way.

Who would put it on their feet?

Therefore, Qi Xibei's storage device was not discovered.

Qi Xibei took out the items and handed them to the rats and bugs.

Soon, these little things received the order and began to spread out.

The speed at which they spread out was very fast. In the darkness, they could not attract any attention at all.

After these little things disappeared, Qi Xibei closed his eyes to rest.

She had to maintain her mental energy at all times.

Moreover, she had prepared a lot of food in her storage device that could replenish her strength.

She had made ample preparations for this operation.

After all, there were many experts here. She could not guarantee that she would be completely fine.

Soon, there was some movement outside.

"What happened? Why are you sleeping?"

"Get up..."

Before he could finish speaking, there was already no movement from the other side.

Qi Xibei released his mental power again and realized that the person guarding them had fainted.

The effects of these knockout drugs were still very effective.

Before they could react, they fainted.

After confirming that they had fainted, Qi Xibei took out another iron wire.

Then, she fiddled with the lock on the cage.

Her movements also attracted the attention of others.

Initially, these girls were silent and numb. After all, the security here was so strict and the cage was so strong. How could they escape?

There were people who resisted before, but they all died in the end.

After a few times, they had completely lost the ability and courage to resist.

They didn't expect that someone beside them would actually dare to make a move!

Moreover, how did she get the iron wire?

Before they came in, everything on them had been taken clean. They had no sharp weapons or weapons on them. Although his strength was not restricted, he could not use it either.

Under such circumstances, it was already very difficult for them to keep their lives.

Therefore, Qi Xibei's actions surprised them.

However, although they were surprised and curious, they did not say anything.

"Can you let us out?" someone whispered."

It was as if they had grabbed onto a life-saving straw and were about to cry.

"Wait here."

Qi Xibei did not even raise his head as he continued to unlock.

Her movements were not very skilled, but they were not unfamiliar either.

After fiddling with it for a while, she unlocked the door..

When the cage was opened, the people around them felt as if their hearts had been opened.

With a click, they felt as if a light had appeared in the darkness in front of them.

Although it was just an illusion, they felt that there was hope!

This kind of hope made them even more excited.

However, they did not dare to say anything. They could only hold their breaths nervously and wait for Qi Xibei to come over and help.

After Qi Xibei came out, he did not stop and walked straight to the cage beside him

The girls were very excited to see her coming. "Don't make a sound." "I'll let you out," Qi Xibei said."

"Good!"

They hurriedly nodded and shut their mouths tightly, not daring to say anything.

Soon, Qi Xibei released their chains.

These locks were indeed very strong. If one wanted to use force to unlock them, it was possible. However, it would require a lot of strength.

It was possible that he would run out of strength if he were to undo it.

However, Qi Xibei had used a metal wire to unlock these locks. He did not need to use any mental power or Yuan Qi. In comparison, it was extremely easy.

As expected, having more skills did not pressure him.

The girls stared at Qi Xibei's actions. The moment they saw the lock open, tears flowed out of their eyes.

"That's great!"

One of them couldn't help but shout. Then, he immediately covered his mouth and looked around nervously, afraid that he would be discovered.

However, those people were all drugged and would not notice the problem here.

Of course, they still didn't dare to speak loudly.

What if he woke these people up?

Next, Qi Xibei opened the cages of the others.

There were more than a dozen women locked up here, and their ages ranged from ten to twenty years old.

When everyone came out of the cage, they were all frightened and nervous.

“Next...What should he do? There are still people guarding outside!” someone said nervously.

This was just the inside. There were still people outside!

If they went out and were discovered, they would be dead for sure.

The excitement and joy of surviving the disaster disappeared at this moment.

That’s right, there were still people outside!

They could not escape either!

Everyone looked at Qi Xibei, hoping that she could give them some ideas.

Qi Xibei looked at them.” Don’t worry. I’ll lure the people outside away.” Next, you will run out. However, I can’t guarantee your safety. Take care of yourself.”

“Then we...”

The girls were shocked.

He couldn’t guarantee his safety?

What if they were caught after they went out?

However, before the girl could finish speaking, she was pulled back by the person beside her. Then, he gave her a warning look, telling her not to continue.

After all, Qi Xibei did not know them at all, so there was no need for him to be responsible for their lives.

The girl who wanted to speak bit her lip. Although she felt uneasy and nervous, she didn’t say anything.

Qi Xibei glanced at them and moved his hand.

In the next moment, some weapons appeared in her hands.

When they saw these things clearly, they could not help but widen their eyes and gasp.

“These are...”

There was actually a weapon!

And from the looks of it, it seemed to be an elementary spiritual weapon!

Although their levels weren't high, these primary spiritual weapons were enough for them to use!

No matter how high-grade the spiritual weapon was, they couldn't use it!

“Take these. When there is a sound outside, you can go out. The rest of the matters will be settled by you.”Qi Xibei said.

“Good!”

Everyone took their weapons and immediately nodded heavily..

After distributing the weapons to the girls, Qi Xibei continued walking inside.

There were still some men locked up inside.

If he wanted to cause trouble, he had to make it bigger.

She could attract the attention of those people, but she could not draw all the firepower away.

It wasn't like she wouldn't die.

Soon, she arrived at the room where many men were locked up.

The guards here had also fainted. The scene was very quiet.

When they saw Qi Xibei's appearance, these people were first stunned, then anxious.

Are you here to save us?”

A young man shouted excitedly.

“Shut up!”

Qi Xibei shouted coldly,” Are you trying to lure the people outside here?”

The young man was stunned by her cold shout, and then he could only shut his mouth in embarrassment.

The eyes of the others lit up. This was someone who had come to save them!

That was great!

Thinking of this, they were extremely excited.

They were about to go crazy after being locked up here.

Now that there was finally someone who could save them, it was as if they had grabbed onto a life-saving straw.

Qi Xibei stepped forward and unlocked them one by one.

After the lock was unlocked, they immediately came out.

“This... What should he do next? How do we leave?”

A seventeen or eighteen-year-old youth asked.

“I’ll lure the people outside later. You guys seize the opportunity to leave.”

“What?”

A young man gasped.” You’re not coming with us?”

Qi Xibei looked at the man coldly.” I’ll go with you. Who’s going to distract them?”

“But, if you don’t protect us, what should we do? Those people are so cruel!” The young man looked indignant.

Qi Xibei was so angry that he laughed.” Why should I protect you? Why?”

The young man’s face stiffened.” Since you’ve saved us, then save us to the end!”

Qi Xibei sneered.” Then you can go back to the cage and pretend I never came.”” She was in a bad mood.

When she saved the group of girls just now, although they were nervous and worried, they did not dare to let her escort them back. This group of men wanted her to escort them out?

What a joke!

Qi Xibei looked at everyone coldly and realized that they all had the same expression of injustice.

This made her laugh coldly.

It seemed that she had saved the wrong person.

These people should not have been saved!

Still thinking of sending Buddha to the west?

Haha.

“Anyway, I’ve already let you out. You can do whatever you want.”

However, now that they had been released, there was no need to stuff them back.

After saying that, Qi Xibei turned to leave.

“Why are you like this!”

The young man behind him grumbled unhappily with a hint of arrogance.

This made Qi Xibei feel like laughing.

Did they not know where they were?

They couldn’t even tell the time and place. Did they want to die?

However, she did not have the time to argue with them. She turned around and left.

She did not leave any weapons for them.

Letting them out was already the best thing she could do.

Soon, Qi Xibei was outside.

The incense that she had made previously was very effective, and it had almost charmed the people inside.

However, this kind of intoxicating fragrance was easier to use indoors, but it was not so easy to deal with outdoors.

Therefore, she did not want to do this for the people outside.

She carefully leaned against the door and listened to the situation outside.

After a while, she quickly opened the door and rushed out.

” Who is it?!”

Translator: 549690339

As soon as she came out, she attracted the attention of the people outside.

After all, her figure was sneaky, so it was naturally impossible for people not to notice her.

Qi Xibei moved very quickly. He did not give them a chance to react at all and immediately turned around to escape.

Looking at her, who wouldn't know that something was up?

These people immediately rushed forward.

Qi Xibei did not stop and rushed forward.

She pushed forward with all her might, not giving them any chance to catch up.

Although they were not weak, they were not as strong as Qi Xibei.

These people were all at Level Three and Level Four. They could not catch up to her at all.

Someone had already started to blow the whistle to inform the others to come over.

“Assassins!”

“Catch her!”

Hearing the chaos behind him, Qi Xibei moved even faster.

There were still some attacks coming from behind, but she dodged all of them. They fell to the ground and raised a cloud of dust.

The people inside naturally heard the commotion outside. Thinking of Qi Xibei's words, they carefully followed him out.

When they came out and confirmed that there were no more guards here, they immediately rushed out.

Qi Xibei did not know what had happened to them, but she continued to charge forward like crazy.

When she came in earlier, she had used her spiritual power to notice the layout here, so she quickly found a place to hide along the way.

With a flash, she immediately hid in the fake mountain.

After a while, hurried footsteps came from behind.

“Hurry up and chase after her. We can’t let her escape!”

Soon, the footsteps passed.

Hearing their footsteps, Qi Xibei smiled.

After she came out, she turned around and went back to the place she came out from.

The most dangerous place was also the safest place.

She had lured those people here, so there shouldn’t be that many guards there.

Most importantly, that was the fastest way to leave.

There was a shortcut there.

When she returned to her original place, she was stunned.

Because the man and woman who were locked up earlier had already run here.

Looking at their chaotic and nervous expressions, he knew that the situation was not good.

There were many guards around them. These people held weapons and said to them coldly, “Put down your weapons and come back with us. Otherwise, you’re dead!”

It was unknown how the group of people had gathered together, but they were actually trapped by these guards.

The girls held their weapons tightly, refusing to let them get close.

If they had to go back and live such a painful life, they would rather die like this!

Beside the girl, there were many men.

These men were not in good health either. They looked at the well-equipped guards in front of them with ugly expressions.

If this continued, they would die here!

At the thought of this, one of the men pushed a girl beside him out.” You can just arrest her, not us!”

The girl was caught off guard and was pushed out.

This shocked her and she couldn’t resist. She was pushed over.

Seeing that the girl was about to be pushed into the guards on the opposite side, a figure flashed past.

There was a scream, and then everyone was shocked to find that the woman had been taken away. The guard who had wanted to pull the girl back was clutching his arm and crying out in pain.

“It’s her! She let us out!”

When the group of men saw Qi Xibei, they were first shocked, then ecstatic.” You can just arrest her! It’s all her fault!”

These words made Qi Xibei and the girls ‘faces darken..

Chapter 2272: Chapter 2274-Stalling for Time

Translator: 549690339

When the men in their teens or twenties saw Qi Xibei, they were very excited.” You can just arrest her, not us!” She’s so powerful. She’ll definitely be able to cooperate with your operation!”

They had gone completely crazy and could not understand the current situation at all.

In their confused minds, as long as the guards captured Qi Xibei, they would not attack them.

Such a foolish thought made them forget their identity and current situation. He only wanted to push Qi Xibei out and survive.

The girls were furious.

“Are you crazy? If it weren’t for her, would we be here?!”

A clear line appeared between the group of men and women.

Because of the man’s actions just now, the other girls were so scared that they quickly pulled away.

If they were pushed out to be cannon fodder, they would be dead!

“Just arrest her! It was all her doing! Otherwise, we wouldn’t have come out!” The men continued to go crazy.

This scene made Qi Xibei’s face darken.

Looking at the dozen girls and the group of men, her expression was very ugly.

However, there was no time to dwell on it now.

She looked at the tall and burly guards opposite her and threw something at them.

“Let’s go!”

She shouted as she threw the things out.

The guards wanted to rush up, but they found a thick fog in front of them, blocking their way.

After throwing the bomb, Qi Xibei’s hand moved, and a whip split into a dozen. He lashed out and wrapped around the girls’ waists, pulling them forward.

The girls were a little dumbfounded and could only follow the force at their waists.

After running for a few steps, Qi Xibei retracted his whip.” Follow me!”

The girls were very flustered, but they still ran away.

“Where are the men?”

Some people were puzzled as they ran.

“They are helping us stall for time. “Qi Xibei took the time to answer.

The others were stunned.

Someone suddenly remembered that there seemed to be two loud bangs just now!

One of them was smoke, and the other was...

Qi Xibei smiled but did not answer.

One was a smoke bomb, and the other was a bomb with added ingredients.

Those materials would cause them to lose their ability to move for a short period of time.

Initially, she wanted to stop the guards. However, who asked those men to be so disgusting?

He actually wanted to pull her out to block the knife!

She had indeed saved the wrong person.

Since he had saved the wrong person, he would let them continue to stay here!

Moreover, he had to let them delay the guards!

Qi Xibei ran very fast in front.” If you don’t want to be captured, follow me.” The girls were already exhausted, but these words rekindled their strength.

No! They absolutely could not stay here any longer!

They didn’t want to die!

However, as they rushed forward, they suddenly heard footsteps in front of them.

“There’s someone!”

Their expressions immediately changed.

There were still people ahead!

There were more guards here.

“Follow me.”

Qi Xibei’s expression was cold and hard. With a move of his hand, he threw out another Smoke Bomb and a Soft Bone Bomb.

With a rumble, another batch fell in front of them.

Qi Xibei did not stop. He walked in a circle and immediately moved to the side.

A few girls followed behind and rushed over.

“There’s still a little distance. We’ll be able to get out soon!”

Qi Xibei said loudly.

Everyone gathered their strength again and continued to charge forward.

When they saw a large door, they became excited..

When they saw the door, the girls were very excited.

He could finally leave this place!

However, before they could rejoice, their expressions froze.

That was because a group of people had appeared by the door!

These people were tall and wore heavy armor. One look and one could tell that they were not simple people.

Their hearts sank.

It was over!

These people were definitely experts. How could weak women like them escape?

Everyone stopped in their tracks.

A taller man walked out of the crowd and shouted, "Don't run anymore. Just surrender obediently! "

Seeing his confident look, the girls panicked.

What should he do?

Everyone looked at Qi Xibei.

The man in the lead also noticed Qi Xibei and everyone's attention on her.

It seemed that this was the person who planned this escape.

His appearance was ordinary, but his eyes were really extraordinary. They seemed to be shining.

However, no matter what she did, she could not escape their capture!

There were so many people here. No matter how strong she was, it would be difficult for her to escape!

"What should we do?"

The girls began to panic, and tears began to fall. “Just surrender obediently!”

The man sneered.” At least we can let you live!”

Otherwise, if they really started fighting, they would be dead for sure.

Qi Xibei smiled at them, then suddenly moved his hand.

Seeing her move, a defensive barrier immediately appeared in front of those people.

No matter what kind of attack it was, it could be blocked.

Moreover, there were so many people here. No matter how powerful she was, it was impossible for her to break through the encirclement here alone. “Just give up!” The man sneered.” You can’t escape!”

The atmosphere at the scene was very tense, and the girls were even more nervous.

What should he do?

He wouldn’t really die, right?

Under their watchful eyes, Qi Xibei moved his hand, and an object flew out of his hand. However, it did not fly toward them. Instead, it flew straight into the sky.

This action stunned everyone.

What was he trying to do?

When a bright firework exploded in the air, everyone was stunned.

The man’s expression changed drastically.”

They had miscalculated!

Qi Xibei did not want to attack them at all. He wanted to attract others over! The sky was still dark, and the sudden appearance of such fireworks would naturally attract everyone’s attention.

How could such eye-catching fireworks not attract attention?

Although this was the Crown Prince’s manor, no one usually came here.

But who wouldn’t pay attention to such a conspicuous person?

Once someone came over, it would be troublesome!

“Capture them!”

The man was flustered and exasperated, and his face darkened.

Only by capturing these people could he send away the others who came to his door later.

As long as they couldn't find a hostage, no one could think too much about it.

Faced with their anger, Qi Xibei turned to the people beside him and said, “Everyone, spread out. Take care. I can't take care of you anymore.”

These words made the girls' expressions change.

If she couldn't take care of them, wouldn't she be dead for sure?! However, before they could say anything, Qi Xibei ran away.

“Chase after him!”

The person opposite was about to go crazy with anger.

She actually ran away?

What was even more hateful was that when she ran away, the others followed suit.

This was the only way to escape, which was why they had gathered here.

However, they all ran back. This was not good..

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei smiled at them, then turned around and ran.

This time, she ran at full speed.

Previously, she was so slow because she wanted to accommodate the speed of other girls.

But now, she didn't care about the existence of these people at all, so she spread her legs and ran like crazy.

The pursuers chased after him frantically.

However, what made them speechless was that they were wearing relatively heavy armor.

Because they had to protect themselves, their armor was heavier, so their defense was stronger.

This weight was not much trouble for them usually.

However, when it was necessary to speed up at full speed, this weight would be very troublesome.

This weight suppressed their running speed.

Qi Xibei went into battle lightly, and his body was as light as a swallow. He quickly pulled away from the crowd behind him.

With the guidance of her spiritual power, she avoided the people in front of her in time.

The people behind couldn't catch up and angrily took off their heavy armor.

Without the burden of the armor, they were naturally much more relaxed.

They swore that they would capture Qi Xibei!

However, halfway through, a cloud of smoke suddenly appeared in front of him.

Caught off guard, they inhaled the smoke.

Then, they felt dizzy, their vision went dark, and their bodies went weak.

Bang bang bang, the weapons in their hands fell to the ground. Many people could barely stand, and most of them fell to the ground.

"Men! Continue chasing!"

The leader was stunned by this scene.

He did not expect Qi Xibei to have these things!

What kind of medicine was this?

How many magical things did she have?

Because of these medicines, they had no way of blocking these attacks without their armor.

"Damn it!"

The leader gritted his teeth." Continue chasing! We must catch her!"

After catching her, he must take good care of her!

Everyone continued to rush forward, but Qi Xibei was too fast, and they soon lost track of him.

“Find him! Continue searching! She’s right here. She can’t escape!”

The leader was extremely furious.

“Yes, sir!”

There were so many guards here. A portion of them went after Qi Xibei, and a portion went after the girls.

But now, many people were chasing after Qi Xibei, and he could not catch up even if he wanted to.

The leader gritted his teeth and sent out a signal.

Soon, some of the soldiers who had gone to chase the other girls came over.

“Find him! Find that little slut! Then, skin him alive!” The leader gritted his teeth.

“Yes, sir!”

However, after searching for a long time, they still could not find Qi Xibei.

Where is he?

While they were struggling, another firework exploded in the sky.

The fireworks were very beautiful and eye-catching. They almost went crazy!

F * ck! That b * tch actually dared to do this!

Wasn’t she afraid that she would be exposed?

If this continued, others would definitely be lured over!

Of course, in the face of other people’s suspicions, they could also say that it was mainly because their master was interested that they set off the fireworks.

Although it was a little strange to set off fireworks in the early hours of the morning, such an excuse should be able to be used.

However, he did not expect that just as he thought of this, a huge explosion would occur.

The earth shook and the mountains shook!

How could such a strong movement be treated as fireworks?

Everyone's faces darkened completely.

What should he do?

"Master is here!"

Someone rushed over and reported.

"Master is here?"

The leader's expression immediately changed.

It was over!

Translator: 549690339

When their master arrived, everyone's expression immediately changed.

Outsiders couldn't know what was going on here, but what happened today was obvious.

Under such circumstances, Master would definitely be very angry.

Thinking of his master's reaction, the man's face turned green. "I'll go see Master. You guys continue to look for people!" he said to the others.

"Yes, sir!" "If you can't find her, don't come back to see me!"

"Yes, sir!"

After the man left, everyone continued to look for him.

However, after searching for a long time, they still could not find Qi Xibei.

He didn't know how she did it. This was clearly their territory, but she just hid and couldn't be found!

However, just as they were about to be disappointed, there was another boom!

Feeling the earth shaking and the mountains shaking, their faces turned as black as the bottom of a pot.

Was he provoking them?

She could have just hidden herself, so why did she have to attract their attention?

No matter what, they were going crazy.

They wanted to capture this damned bastard and skin him alive!

However, no matter how angry they were, they could not find Qi Xibei.

On the contrary, there were some people outside.

Someone even jumped onto the wall and looked down.

“Who are you? This is private territory!”

Looking at the people on the wall, they immediately brandished their weapons at them.

There were a few people on the wall. They looked like they were all fourth grade Revered Martial Artists.

” We’re the Second Prince’s men. We’re here to see if you need any help.”“ The Second Prince’s men?

Everyone’s heart skipped a beat, and their expressions immediately changed.

Even the Second Prince came?

Things were going to be troublesome.

Everyone was shocked and angry.” No matter who you are, come down! Otherwise, don’t blame us for being rude!”

“Alright then.”

Those people didn’t say anything. They really went down like this, as if they were just going to walk around the wall.

However, this did not mean that things were over.

On the contrary, things had just begun.

Soon, someone knocked on the door.

The Second Prince waited at the door with a group of people. He smiled warmly.” I’m here to see if there’s anything I can help you with.”“

If one only looked at his attitude, one would really think that he was here to help.

However, everyone knew that he was here to make a fool of himself.

The steward who came out to welcome them smiled and secretly ordered people to arrest those people.

Even if they couldn’t catch them, they couldn’t let them appear in front of these people. Otherwise, things would get out of hand. Soon, the Second Prince was welcomed into the hall.

The Crown Prince was there.

When the two brothers met, it was naturally harmonious again.

Qi Xibei stood at the side and listened to their conversation. His expression did not change.

Yes, Qi Xibei had been able to escape everyone’s pursuit because she had used a mask.

She had already found an opportunity to knock out a guard and replace his identity.

Because of the smoke grenades thrown by Qi Xibei, they had no choice but to put on their armor and masks.

This made it easier for Qi Xibei to move.

After she blended into the crowd, her movements were even more unrestrained, and she could even find time to throw a bomb.

Now, she had even managed to sneak in front of the Crown Prince and the Second Prince.

Who would have thought that she would actually dare to appear in front of them?

Even the crafty Crown Prince would not have thought of this.

“Imperial brother, I don’t know what happened here. I was worried, so I came over to take a look.”The Second Prince’s smile was a little worried, but he looked very sincere..

Looking at the Second Prince's concerned expression that could not be concealed, the Crown Prince smiled very calmly." It's nothing. It's just a little trouble here. They will handle it well."

"Just a little troublemaker?" The Second Prince was shocked." This is quite a commotion!"

Not only was it not small, but it had already spread throughout the entire city.

The sound of the bomb was so loud that it shook the entire place.

If the Imperial Palace wasn't so far away, the news might have already spread to the palace.

"If Imperial Father knew, he would be worried."The Second Prince still had a sincere look on his face." Father works so hard every day, yet he still has to worry about these things. How tiring!"

The Crown Prince remained unmoved." Don't worry. BenGong won't let Imperial Father worry. Second brother, you don't have to worry, bengong will handle this matter well."

"Is that so?" The Second Prince maintained his smile." If there's anything, remember to look for us. We'll definitely help."

"Of course, we're brothers."

Qi Xibei's expression did not change as he watched the two of them fight back and forth.

The Second Prince didn't manage to get anything out of the Crown Prince and didn't continue to pester him." Then I'll be leaving first?"

"Thank you for your concern, Second Brother." The Crown Prince stood up and sent him out.

After the Second Prince left, the Crown Prince's smile also disappeared.

His face darkened as he looked at the steward in the manor." What exactly happened?"

He had just arrived. After all, the commotion here was too big. How could he not know about the commotion here?

If not for the fact that others knew that this was his territory, they might have already come over.

Of course, other than the Second Prince, the others would definitely not let go of this opportunity.

“Your Highness, the people inside...He escaped.”

The butler’s face was pale and he was covered in cold sweat.

“Escaped?”

The Crown Prince’s expression turned even uglier.” Who’s guarding it? How did ne escape

Those people had taken medicine and could not move freely. Moreover, the cage that they were locked in was very strong.

There were still many people watching outside.

There were several layers of protection in total. How could he come out so easily?

“Your Highness, someone did sneak in, and then...”

The steward’s face turned even paler.

“Sneak in?”

The Crown Prince was stunned for a moment before he smiled. His smile was cold.” Look at this place. Someone actually sneaked in?”

This was too ridiculous!

“Your Highness...”

The manager knelt down with a thud.” I suspect that someone discovered the situation here, so they sneaked in!”

Looking at the steward kneeling in front of him, the crown prince’s eyes were cold.” Oh? Do you know who it is?”

The manager hesitated for a moment.” I don’t know.”

“I don’t know!”

The Crown Prince waved his sleeve and a gust of wind blew past. The steward grunted and covered his chest, but he did not dare to scream.

The Crown Princess had already restrained her attacks.

If the Crown Prince had attacked with all his might, he would not have been able to stand at all.

This was already showing mercy.

“You don’t know anything. What’s the use of keeping you alive?” The Crown Prince was furious.” Where is she now? Did you catch him?”

These words made the steward’s expression turn even uglier.

He hesitated for a moment and lowered his head.” No. They are still in the process of capturing him.”

The Crown Prince sneered.” What about the others who escaped?”

If he couldn’t find the one who came in, then he should be able to find the one who was locked up here for a period of time, right?

“We’ve already caught some, and... I didn’t catch some.”

The ones they caught were all men, and the women were quite cunning. This answer made the Crown Prince’s expression turn even uglier..” Useless!”

Chapter 2277: Chapter 2279-Unfathomable Crown Prince

The Crown Prince quickly gave the order.

This place was no longer safe. After those people escaped, they would definitely bring her back here.

Even if everyone was captured, this place had already been exposed. Someone would definitely come to check it out later.

At the very least, the Second Prince would not miss this opportunity.

Although the Second Prince had left, he would not give up so easily.

The steward covered his chest and nodded.

After that, the manager led his men out in an orderly manner.

Qi Xibei had thought that he could more or less stop the Crown Prince this time. However, he did not expect that he was even more unfathomable than he had imagined.

He could still think of other ways.

That's right. If not for this, he would not have been able to become the Crown Prince and stand tall under the gazes of his younger brothers.

Qi Xibei did not leave, nor did he care about the others. He moved out with the others.

Although she was worried about those people's lives, they were not her responsibility. She was more concerned about where the Crown Prince wanted to go.

He wondered if there would be more victims in those places.

If he could uproot the Crown Prince's power, that would be great.

But now, Qi Xibei did not dare to do anything to avoid alerting the enemy.

Most importantly, the Crown Prince had two experts by his side.

Qi Xibei's heart tightened at the aura of these two experts.

The auras of these two experts were not weaker than Wen Luochun!

Wen Luochun was the general here. He was powerful and was the guardian of the country. His strength was also the strongest here.

However, if the two bodyguards beside the Crown Prince had Wen Luochun's strength, then it was not ordinary.

This made Qi Xibei even more curious.

Why would such a bodyguard follow the crown prince?

After all, the Crown Prince was only the Crown Prince of a small country. His strength was at most at the peak of Level 4.

For his age, this strength was already very strong. His talent was also strong enough. He could be considered a top genius.

However, he had two Level Six Martial Arts Grandmasters by his side. This was incredible.

Qi Xibei felt that there might not be many Level Six Martial Grandmasters around the emperor.

However, the Crown Prince had two Wu Zongs protecting him!

This was really incredible.

Jiang Feiyang's existence and the series of events that had happened had made her even more confused.

Therefore, she remained silent and did not alert the enemy. She just quietly acted as her own soldier.

The crown prince did not know of Qi Xibei's existence. He was very dissatisfied with this matter, but it was not to the extent that he could not accept it.

He just didn't like it when his secret was exposed, but it didn't mean that he couldn't handle this matter.

Even if someone came knocking on his door, as long as he destroyed all the evidence, no one would be able to blame him.

As long as he wasn't caught red-handed, what was the problem?

Although the Second Prince and the others would definitely try their best to find evidence against him, it was not so easy to find evidence.

Therefore, the Crown Prince was still very relaxed.

Qi Xibei carefully observed the crown prince's expression and realized that he had calmed down very quickly, as if these things had no effect on him at all.

Her heart sank even more.

She had been furious when she found out that Qiao Yanyu was being controlled by the crown prince.

She knew Qiao Yanyu's strength and situation.

However, Qiao Yanyu was also controlled by the crown prince. This was not right.

Now, he realized that the Crown Prince was indeed not an ordinary person!

Chapter 2278: Chapter 2280-Staying

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei carefully concealed his aura to prevent himself from being exposed.

A small soldier with the strength of a Level 5, who wouldn't be able to see the problem?

Therefore, she remained silent and did not resist. She really treated herself as an unremarkable soldier.

Soon, they entered a tunnel.

After entering the tunnel, Qi Xibei was even more shocked.

She had never been here before.

Although she knew that there was definitely something different here, when she really came in, she realized that this place was even scarier than she thought.

There were two rows of torches on the eerie tunnel walls.

This was a man-made tunnel, and the ground was quite flat. At least, they would not be obstructed when they walked.

Moreover, the air circulation here was quite good, and the smell was not bad. There should be people walking here often.

"Hurry up!"

The leader shouted in front, and the others followed.

Like the others, Qi Xibei was carrying a box.

The box was very small. Qi Xibei was not mentally prepared when he picked it up and almost could not lift it.

When she mentioned it, her expression changed.

Even she felt that it was heavy. What was in it?

Moreover, why couldn't these things be placed in the storage device and needed to be moved by hand?

The storage device could not store living things, only dead things.

Putting it in and taking it out was the same.

If it was a living creature, it would die immediately if it was placed in.

The Crown Prince must have a storage device.

However, they couldn't use storage devices to transport these things, which meant that these things were alive. However, what was so small but so heavy?

This density...It was too big!

Qi Xibei was curious, but he held the box tightly in his hand and kept up with everyone's speed.

Looking over, everyone was carrying a box or a bottle.

There were no glass bottles here, but there were some glass bottles with higher clarity.

The purity of the glass bottle was not high, so he could only vaguely see what was inside.

The part inside made one's heart turn cold.

Qi Xibei's heart became even more solemn when he recalled the scenes he had seen before.

The Crown Prince's request was not small!

Such a huge commotion was really terrifying.

The group of people walked silently below. Other than the leader, the others did not dare to speak.

He didn't know how long it had been underground, and he didn't know how long he had walked for before the leader stopped. "Alright, stop!"

It was an iron door, and there was a small group of people guarding the door.

After opening the heavy iron door, everyone could clearly see that it was bright outside.

It was already bright outside.

Qi Xibei followed everyone to move the things over and placed them on the ground according to their instructions.

"Leave a few people here to tidy up."

The leader looked at these burly men and then selected a few people.

“You, you, you...The few of you, stay here.”

“Yes, sir!”

Qi Xibei was among them.

When she stayed behind, she was a little surprised to find that these people seemed to be quite thin.

Of course, this thin and weak was compared to those burly men.

Strength was not based on appearance.

However, in the leader’s opinion, the thinner one might have a gentler movement.

Qi Xibei was not the team leader, so he did not know the criteria for his selection.

However, it was also a good thing that she was able to stay.

If she did not stay, she would have to follow everyone back.

At that time, how would she be able to find the location of this place?

This was just right..

Chapter 2279: Chapter 2281-Formation

After being left behind, Qi Xibei started working with the leader like the others.

What made her satisfied was that these people were not familiar with the person she was pretending to be, and no one came to get close to her. That was why she could stay here so easily without being discovered.

“You guys tidy up these things. Don’t make a mistake!”

The leader pointed at the shelves in the room and began to give instructions.

“Yes, sir!”

The few of them responded loudly and then began to move the things here.

This time, about ten people stayed behind. Everyone struggled for a long time before they finally arranged these things.

After arranging these things, Qi Xibei looked around and was a little speechless.

The furnishings here really looked like the laboratories she had seen before!

She wondered if it was for Jiang Feiyang.

She wondered if Jiang Feiyang and Jiang Rongguang were a family. Even if they were not, it was fate.

They had the same surname and the same style of doing things. They were really fated.

“Alright, let’s go out from here.”

After doing all this, the leader said to them.

Not through the tunnel?

Everyone looked at each other but did not ask.

At this time, of course, it was better to ask less and do more!

Otherwise, who knew when they would die?

Everyone obediently followed him out.

Everyone walked up for a while.

Qi Xibei was surprised to find that they were also underground.

However, when they came out of the iron gate just now, they saw the sun.

Why did he have to go up now?

She only understood what was going on when she reached the top.

The place where they saw the sunlight was a cave entrance that faced outwards.

There was sunlight at the entrance of the cave.

However, they were actually halfway up a mountain.

Now, they had to go up to get out.

Of course, they could also go down. However, they would encounter many demon beasts if they continued down.

Yes, they were now in the forest, in a certain mountain in the forest.

Qi Xibei was extremely surprised by this position.

Who knew how many years this Crown Prince had planned for, but he was actually able to dig out a mountain!

The Crown Prince was clearly only in his twenties, but he already had such deep thoughts. It was really shocking.

As Qi Xibei walked, he carefully memorized the routes.

However, the leader would not let them remember the route so easily.

He led everyone around a few times.

If they hadn't seen a familiar plant on their way back, they might not have known how long they had been walking around.

However, they did not say anything and did not dare to ask.

It was already very good to be able to come into contact with these things without being killed.

The leader should have covered their eyes, but he did not do so. After all, they were in the forest now, and it was too dangerous.

If their eyes were covered, they would not be able to fully deal with danger and would even drag others down.

As long as they walked a few more rounds until they fainted, they would naturally not be able to remember where they were.

Qi Xibei followed the leader slowly. In the end, she frowned.

The others might not have noticed it, but she did. There was a formation here!

Yes, there was an array here!

Although she didn't know much about arrays and the arrays here were very secretive, she was pulled here by the array when she returned to this plane, so she knew the aura of the array.

Therefore, she could feel that there was indeed an array here!

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei carefully sensed the atmosphere here. His heart was in a storm, but his expression was very calm.

The leader walked in front. He was very familiar with the environment here and knew the situation of this array.

This was a maze formation. If no one led the way, they would not be able to walk out.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have dared to bring them here, let alone let them leave.

With the existence of the array and the Crown Prince's deterrence, no one dared to find out where they were in private.

After walking for half a day, they finally left the mountain when the sky was about to darken.

Qi Xibei turned around and took note of the situation.

When they reached the foot of the mountain, they were given a blindfold.

The blindfold was used to prevent them from finding their way.

Although they already had the protection of the array, they still could not leave safely.

If someone had a good memory and remembered the path here, it would be bad.

Like everyone else, Qi Xibei obediently put on his blindfold.

On the way, she released her spiritual energy.

The leader didn't notice this either.

After all, only Armament Masters and Alchemists were able to release their Spiritual Energy. Ordinary people's Spiritual Energy was not much.

And these soldiers did not have such ability.

If they could release their spiritual power, they wouldn't have to be small soldiers. They would have long become the confidants of a master or the crown prince.

Therefore, the leader led them away very easily.

Everyone sat in the car, wearing eye masks, and staggered away.

After some time, the car finally stopped.

They returned to the outside of the Crown Prince's manor.

Qi Xibei looked around and did not find anything wrong. No one was causing trouble here.

Then, she found an opportunity to leave.

After all, this was the Crown Prince's territory. Perhaps they were still looking for her inside, but no one expected her to leave from the outside.

After leaving, she heaved a sigh of relief.

That was great!

She was also worried about how she could leave successfully.

However, he did not expect that he would leave in such a way and not attract their attention.

After she left and made sure that no one was paying attention to her, she found a place and changed her appearance.

He had an ordinary face. Even if he walked out, he wouldn't attract anyone's attention.

She didn't go back directly, but went to the streets.

It was completely dark now, and the lights outside were already lit.

Under the flickering lights, there were still many people left on the street.

There was no curfew here, but there were fewer people at night. After all, the business here was not developed, and there was nothing fun to do here at night.

Qi Xibei did not care about that. She just wanted to know what happened yesterday.

She found a teahouse and ordered a pot of tea. Then, she gave the waiter a little reward." Tell me, did anything special happen in the past few days?"

"Sir, you asked the right person!"

The waiter took the money and beamed." I know what happened here!"

"Tell me."

Qi Xibei took a sip of tea and asked.

“Alright!”

The waiter answered happily and then began to talk about what had happened in the past few days.

“There have been some strange things happening here recently. There were several families whose children had gone missing!” “A child?” Aren’t they teenage girls and boys?

“Yeah, a teenager!”

The waiter nodded.” I don’t know what happened to those children. They went missing.. However, a few of them had returned in the past few days!”

Translator: 549690339

When the waiter talked about this matter, he was very excited.” Those families thought that something might have happened to their children and that they might have died. I didn’t expect them to come back!”

“Oh? Do you know what happened?” Qi Xibei added.

“I heard that they were captured! It wasn’t easy for me to escape!”

“Oh? Captured? Who caught you?”

“I heard that it’s...”

The waiter whispered into Qi Xibei’s ear, “It’s the people from above!”

“Someone from above?”

He didn’t even explain his identity clearly? “That’s right! It’s the work of those princes above!” “Which prince?” Qi Xibei’s voice was normal.

“Aiyo, Miss, keep your voice down!”

The waiter quickly lowered his voice.” Don’t be so loud. If someone hears you, I’ll be in trouble!”

“Continue.” Qi Xibei lowered his voice.” I won’t tell anyone about this anyway.” She glanced at him.” In any case, everyone should know about these things.” Otherwise, how could a waiter like him dare to say such words?

The waiter chuckled.” That’s true. However, this is what everyone says in private. Don’t go out and make a fuss.”

"I know. Please continue."

"Alright." The waiter nodded. "Actually, I heard from others that this matter is related to the princes!"

"How many princes?" Qi Xibei raised an eyebrow. "What do you mean?"

Shouldn't this matter only be related to the Crown Prince?

Even if the Second Prince had also appeared, it should not have anything to do with him, right?

"Yes, I am!"

The waiter nodded. "I heard that those people were captured by the Second and Third Princes!"

"What?"

Qi Xibei was truly shocked.

This matter was somewhat related to the Second Prince. After all, he had appeared at the scene. However, how did he get involved with the Third Prince?

Although Qi Xibei had a grudge against the Third Prince, what did this matter have to do with the Third Prince?

"Yeah, that's what everyone says."

The waiter said excitedly, "I heard that the Second and Third Princes captured a group of people. I don't know what they did, but those people escaped. After those people escaped, they said that they were captured by the Crown Prince and wanted to use this to slander the Crown Prince!"

After hearing the waiter's explanation, Qi Xibei was dumbfounded.

There was such a development?

This was clearly the Crown Prince's doing. How did it become the Second and Third Princes 'matter?

Now, the Crown Prince had become a little innocent being slandered, while the Second and Third Princes were the most dangerous existences.

Qi Xibei was surprised for a while, but he quickly recovered.

The Crown Prince was indeed ruthless!

It had only been one night, and he had already come up with such a response.

As expected of the Crown Prince, he could even turn black into white.

“But didn’t the Crown Prince’s manor explode? It has nothing to do with the Crown Prince?” Qi Xibei asked.

“Indeed!” The waiter nodded. “It’s because someone is stirring up trouble inside and then pushing all the blame onto the Crown Prince!”

The waiter was obviously very respectful of the Crown Prince.” I don’t know which bastard actually framed the Crown Prince like this. How despicable!

Qi Xibei found the waiter’s furious expression laughable.

The Crown Prince’s reputation was indeed good enough. Even after such a thing had happened and the evidence was in front of them, they still trusted him so much.

It had to be said that the Crown Prince had played this very well!

Translator: 549690339

From the waiter, Qi Xibei understood everything.

The people who had been arrested previously had returned. They were the children of rich families, but they were not rich. At the very least, they were not important officials or nobles.

Previously, when the Crown Prince’s men attacked, they knew their limits. At the very least, they would not attack someone like Princess Ruyi.

If something happened to these children, the family would definitely be anxious. It would not be so easy to fool them.

As for the children who were caught, they were doted on, but not to the extent of being doted on.

When the children went missing, the family was anxious and searched for them for a while.

After that, he couldn’t find it and slowly gave up.

The elders were also very happy that these children had suddenly returned.

However, the children told them that they had been captured by the Crown Prince and had managed to escape with great difficulty!

This statement shocked the parents. How could the crown prince do such a thing!

One had to know that the Crown Prince's reputation was extremely good.

Usually, he was polite to the wise and even to the ordinary poor people. He would never bully others because of his status. If there were any natural or man-made disasters, he would immediately send people to help.

Moreover, he was a genius and powerful. When dealing with other countries, he had never let them take advantage of him.

Such a perfect genius was the ideal husband in the hearts of many women of the right age, and the idol in the hearts of many iron-blooded men.

Therefore, no one believed that such an existence would do anything bad.

Not to mention capturing a group of people and then coming back to test the medicine.

Therefore, these children's words surprised the parents.

However, the parents still followed their children out, wanting to clarify this matter with the crown prince.

Because there were too many people, everyone gathered together on the way.

Everyone bolstered their courage and really went to the Crown Prince's manor.

They had thought that they would be stopped, but they did not expect that they would not be stopped at all when they arrived at the Crown Prince's manor. Instead, the people inside were very polite, just like the Crown Prince.

After hearing their intentions, the Crown Prince's steward did not show any dissatisfaction. Instead, he directly denied that such a thing had happened.

After that, in order to prove his innocence, the manager even asked them to look for evidence here.

Those who had escaped immediately returned to their original positions, only to discover in horror that the place had actually changed!

The original house had been razed to the ground. There was nothing left!

And the evidence they had seen before no longer existed!

This shocked them!

Unable to find any evidence, the steward sighed and told them that these people might have been provoked, so they pushed everything onto the Crown Prince.

However, the Crown Prince was kind and would not take these things to heart. However, he also hoped that they would let go of the haze in their hearts and live well.

After saying this, the steward sighed." I also know who is such a bastard. He actually used this kind of thing to slander our Crown Prince!" These words immediately made the parents imagine a lot.

Who did the Crown Prince have a grudge against?

Of course, it was the Second Prince and the Third Prince!

It was very likely that these two princes had misled these children and made them hate the Crown Prince.

Hence, this rumor spread.

Even the few people who had escaped from here began to waver. Could it be that they had really been deceived?

After Qi Xibei understood the situation, he could not help but admire the Crown Prince's adaptability.

It was simply too terrifying!

Chapter 2283: Chapter 2285 -Going Far Away

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei had thought that this would deal a blow to the Crown Prince.

After all, those people had escaped from inside, so they should be able to bite him death.

But who would have thought that it would end up like this?

The Crown Prince didn't suffer any losses, but the Second and Third Princes' reputations were ruined.

As expected, he could not be underestimated!

To be able to respond in such a short period of time and even make everyone believe his words, it really wasn't easy.

The Second Prince and the Third Prince were also quite miserable. They still had to take the blame.

However, he did not know how angry the two of them would be.

But this was something that could not be helped. Who asked the Crown Prince to be too cunning?

When he knew that he had been exposed, the Crown Prince immediately ordered his men to move everything away without leaving any evidence.

Without evidence, those people did not dare to make a fuss. After all, this was the Crown Prince!

There was no video here, so it was impossible to record the situation here.

Without any evidence, there was naturally no way to attack the Crown Prince.

After all, the Crown Prince was the heir here!

Of course, the Crown Prince was also a wily old fox. He should have already thought about how to deal with it if the matter was exposed.

This time, the response was very fast.

If Qi Xibei had not been the instigator of this incident, she might have thought that this incident was really an illusion.

Otherwise, how could things turn out like this?

This made her even more vigilant.

The Crown Prince was indeed not to be trifled with!

She had to save Qiao Yanyu!

If she didn't make a move, she didn't know how much pressure Qiao Yanyu would get from the crown prince.

It was not easy to deal with such a scheming person.

Moreover, Jiang Feiyang had also taken out an even more vicious poison. If

Qiao Yanyu was poisoned, it would be even more difficult for him to survive.

Qi Xibei went through everything and decided to set off for Molin Country first.

Qiao Yanyu was there.

Things would be easier once Qiao Yanyu was free.

Qiao Yanyu had always been in the Crown Prince's hands, so Qi Xibei's movements were somewhat restricted.

After giving the waiter a little reward, Qi Xibei returned home amidst his joyful farewell.

Seeing that she had returned, several disciples came up to her excitedly.

"Master! Where have you been these past few days?"

They were all worried.

Although they knew that Qi Xibei was powerful and did not need to worry about her safety, they were still worried after not seeing him for a few days.

Fortunately, she returned safely.

"I'm fine." Qi Xibei shook his head. "I'm going on a long trip this time." "Going far away?"

The few of them were surprised and looked at each other. "Where are you going?"

"MO Lin Kingdom." Qi Xibei said.

"MO Lin Kingdom?!"

They gasped.

They had never traveled far, especially for the Yueya and Yueyuan sisters. The furthest they could go was to Xuan City.

But now, Qi Xibei said that he was going to the MO Lin Kingdom?

"Master, let's go with you!" They said in unison.

"No." Qi Xibei shook his head. "It'll be inconvenient for me if you follow me."

Although the children were working very hard and improving very quickly, they could not help her much.

At that time, she did not know what kind of danger she would encounter. How could she dare to let them go with her?

“Master...” They could not help but act coquettishly.

“I have some pills here. Eat them and cultivate well. I hope that when I return, your strength will have increased again.”

Qi Xibei took out a few bottles. These were pills that were helpful for cultivation and did not have any side effects..

Chapter 2284: Chapter 2286 -People at the City Gate

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei handed the medicine to his three disciples.

The three of them had decent talent, but it wasn't very good. If they didn't have the help of medicinal pills, their improvement would be very slow.

Although taking the pill would more or less affect his future development, Qi Xibei had already tried his best to minimize these effects.

The few of them also knew that their current strength was too weak and could not help their master at all. If they followed him out, they would instead burden their master.

Therefore, even though they were very worried and unwilling, they still stayed. “If you have any problems, remember to look for General Wen. He will help you.”

” I'll be back as soon as possible,” Qi Xibei told them. Be careful and don't provoke Princess Ruyi.””

“Alright, we got it! We won't!”

The three of them nodded in unison.

They were not fools and would not seek death everywhere.

These few days, Qi Xibei was not at home, and neither of them went out. They only worked hard at home to cultivate. If there was anything, General Wen's men would go out to handle it.

They all knew that this was Xuan City, the capital. There were many powerful people outside, and there were even more people with backgrounds.

Just like Princess Ruyi from before, if he accidentally offended her, it would be troublesome. They did not want to die, nor did they want to drag Qi Xibei down.

This time, Qi Xibei was going on a long trip, so they were even more nervous and did not dare to act rashly.

Qi Xibei was satisfied with their caution.

She did not expect them to be very strong, but there was one thing that they must know how to protect themselves.

Those who were fooling around were simply courting death.

She didn't want to have a disciple who was courting death, and she didn't want to be implicated.

After arranging everything, Qi Xibei set off with the captain of the mercenary group.

The captain was waiting for Qi Xibei's notification. He did not expect that there would be no news for two days, which made him a little worried. However, before he could do anything, Qi Xibei came to him again.

Thus, he packed his luggage and set off with Qi Xibei.

As for the others, they split into small teams and followed behind.

Because of what they had done, they had offended Princess Ruyi.

If Princess Ruyi found out that they were the ones who did it, it would be troublesome.

These few days, they had been hiding in their small courtyard and did not go out.

However, even though they did not go out to stroll, they heard that Princess Ruyi had been particularly irritable these few days.

They were well aware of Princess Ruyi's situation, so they became even more careful.

If Qi Xibei was not there, they might have already left Xuan City.

If he continued to stay here, he would be easily discovered.

Although the chances of Princess Ruyi finding them were not high, they did not want to take the risk.

However, they did not expect to find a few people guarding the city gate as soon as they reached it.

These people were not soldiers guarding the city, but they were standing guard at the side, carefully watching the people entering and leaving.

Seeing how they were glaring at them like they were about to make a move in the next second, the residents who were entering and leaving were a little nervous.

When two tall men passed by, they were stopped by these people. The two of them were a little dumbfounded.” Why are you stopping us?”

“Did we do something wrong?”

The few of them did not say anything. They just came over and stared at them for a long time before waving their hands.” Forget it, let’s go!”“

The two of them were even more confused.

What was going on?

However, they still left quickly.

Qi Xibei’s expression turned grave when he saw this..

Chapter 2285: Perfume

These people should be the people around Princess Ruyi because she recognized two of them.

Many people had entered the forest before, but Qi Xibei remembered their faces. After all, she had to sneak into the forest at that time. If he didn’t get a clear picture of these people, it would be very easy for him to fail.

Now that these people had appeared here, she was a little puzzled.

These people were Princess Ruyi’s men, but they were guarding the city gate and even captured people entering and leaving for inspection. If they said that there was no problem, they would be deceiving themselves.

These people probably wanted to find the person who had ruined their plans previously!

She and the captain exchanged a look.

The captain was also a little surprised.

These few days, because they were afraid of being discovered, they were very quiet and did not make any movements.

Moreover, they did not leave the city, so they did not know that there were still people guarding here.

Therefore, they did not go out. Instead, they found a tea stall not far from the city gate and sat down.

“Auntie, what’s going on?”

Qi Xibei ordered a bowl of tea and started talking to the tea seller.

The auntie looked over and understood what they were asking. She whispered into their ears, “They seem to be looking for someone!”

“Who are you looking for?”

Qi Xibei whispered.

“We don’t know either. However, they were all looking for men.” The auntie shook her head. “These people seem to be Princess Ruyi’s men!”

Speaking of Princess Ruyi, she looked a little scared. “Alright, I don’t dare to say too much about the rest. However, this has nothing to do with us, so there’s no need to know so much, right? Hey, it’s here!”

Qi Xibei and the captain exchanged a glance as they watched the aunt go back to work.

The two of them did not continue asking. Instead, they slowly took a few sips of tea.

The taste of the tea was very ordinary, but it calmed them down.

These people were guarding the door. They didn’t know if they would discover their identities.

Qi Xibei was confident that they would not be able to discover his identity, but that might not be the case for the others.

Most importantly, she could control her expression, but others might not.

Especially when she looked at the people behind her, she felt even more confused.

Princess Ruyi’s men were guarding the city gate to find the person who had attacked them. He didn’t know what method they used to find him, but he was sure that if they were discovered, they would really be in trouble.

Qi Xibei looked at the slightly nervous captain and patted his hand." Follow me. ""

The captain nodded, drank a mouthful of tea, and followed her.

The two of them arrived at a quiet place. After making sure that there was no one around, they spoke.

"I have some perfume here." "Perfume?"

The captain was dumbfounded.

Although he had never used perfume before, he knew what it was. It should be the same thing as the sachet.

But why would a man like him use perfume?

Qi Xibei did not pass the perfume over. Instead, he sprayed a little on his hand.

When the fragrance assailed his nostrils, the captain was even more surprised.

It smelled so good!

But why did he have to use perfume like a woman?

This perfume was a by-product of Qi Xibei's previous pharmaceutical production, so she kept it.

He did not expect it to come in handy today.

"They haven't seen you before, but they're still waiting for you here. They probably want to recognize you from other aspects." Qi Xibei said..

Chapter 2286: Chapter 2288 -Cooperate

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei's expression was serious." In terms of body size, they probably couldn't see it clearly because of the night. However, I heard that some people have some special abilities. For example, their noses are very powerful. If they recognize you from the smell, it will be troublesome."

The captain was shocked." Taste?!"

However, after his shock, he felt that it was not impossible.

After all, there were so many people in the world. There were also people with some special skills.

Moreover, this was the most likely possibility. Otherwise, those people would not be guarding here.

Although he didn't know how so many people remembered their taste, he had to take precautions no matter what.

"But... I'm a grown man, and I'm sprayed with this smell... Isn't it wrong?" The captain sniffed his own body with a complicated expression.

This fragrance was indeed quite good, but the problem was that he was a grown man. Wouldn't it be even more problematic if he had such a smell?

Which man would put fragrance on his body?

Qi Xibei smiled." It's alright. Just cooperate with me later. ""

"Cooperate with you?" The captain was dumbfounded." How can I cooperate with you?"

How should they cooperate?

"Later, I will dress up as a prostitute and you will carry me out."

As soon as he said this, the captain froze.

"What?!"

This method was too terrifying!

Qi Xibei was actually going to dress up as a prostitute, and then he would become a girlfriend?

Although this could indeed hide their identities, at least those people would never expect them to go out with such identities, but... This was too shocking.

Besides, Qi Xibei was Boss 'woman. How could he dare to do that?!

Qi Xibei smiled when he saw his nervousness." It's okay. It's just acting. It's okay.""

Qi Xibei could not guarantee that he would not be discovered.

Normally, she wouldn't care if she was discovered. She would always have a way to escape.

However, she couldn't do it now. She still had to go see Qiao Yanyu. She couldn't be trapped here.

Dressing up as a prostitute was something that no one expected.

Who would have thought that they would use such a surprise move?

It was precisely because they could not think of it that they were the most confident.

"No, no, no!"

The captain shook his head repeatedly." Absolutely not! If Boss finds out, my legs will be broken!"

Even though this was Qi Xibei's suggestion, he did not dare to face his boss.

Which man would tolerate such a thing?

"It's okay, he understands..."

The captain shook his head firmly and refused to cooperate." I can't betray Boss!"

Qi Xibei was speechless. It was just a show, and he was talking about betrayal?

However, seeing how determined her captain was, she could not continue to persist.

"Forget it, let's find someone else."

Originally, they had planned to go out together, but now it seemed that they had to change their plans.

The two of them did not continue to go out. Instead, they carefully returned to the place they were at earlier.

After some discussion, Hu Yanlin was the last one to join them.

Hu Yanlin and Qi Xibei would be prostitutes together, and then they would go out with the captain, the guest.

When that time came, the captain's focus would be on Hu Yanlin and he would not have much contact with Qi Xibei.

This arrangement finally made the captain nod.

Although Hu Yanlin's expression was not too good, she still nodded and decided to cooperate with them.

However, she did not expect to get a small perfume..

Translator: 549690339

Hu Yanlin's eyes widened when she smelled the fragrance." It smells so good!"
Occasionally, they would carry sachets with them, but none of them smelled as good as this perfume.

Moreover, their sachets were made of various materials and could not be used on their bodies.

However, these perfumes could be sprayed on the skin!

This was really magical!

Why did Qi Xibei have everything?

Hu Yanlin's attitude toward her was a little strange after she was saved by Qi Xibei.

Qi Xibei was her love rival. Although it was one-sided, it was very subtle that she was saved by her love rival.

Now that she had gotten the perfume provided by Qi Xibei, her feelings were even more complicated.

"You like it?" Qi Xibei looked at her expression and immediately said,"If you like it, I have other flavors here.'

"There are other smells?" Chang Xinhui was also excited and came over."

What's the smell?"

As a girl, she liked to smell nice.

She liked the fragrance that Qi Xibei had brought out.

"There are still a few smells.

Qi Xibei did not say anything and took out the other perfumes.

Other than the two girls, there were two other girls in their team.

These two girls were in logistics and had not gone on missions with them before.

But this time, everyone was gathered together, so they naturally followed.

Seeing the commotion here, they also came over.

Therefore, the original plan turned into a perfume tasting.

Although the world was different, girls still pursued beauty.

Some men also liked the fragrance and came over.

Of course, even if they couldn't use it, they could give it to their girlfriends!

Or rather, he could find a girlfriend with these perfumes!

Qi Xibei's emotions were a little complicated as he looked at the fervor of the crowd, as if they were in a supermarket.

Weren't they discussing how to leave? How did it become like this?

However, this was also good. After this matter attracted their attention, they did not have to be so nervous.

They had been so nervous before, and it was easy for them to expose their identities when they faced the people searching.

Now, with the help of the perfume, they were not as nervous as before. This way, they would not attract the attention of others.

"Alright, let's act according to our plan. We'll leave in batches!"

Seeing that the situation was getting more and more chaotic, the captain quickly shouted for them to stop.

Everyone could only stop, but they were all holding a bottle of perfume in their hands.

Qi Xibei could not help but rub his chin when he saw how enthusiastic they were.

It seemed that perfume was also very popular here!

In the next second, an idea flashed through her mind.

She knew how to get close to the Princess of MO Lin Kingdom!

Soon, everyone began to disguise themselves according to their previous arrangements.

They had used human skin masks and masks before, so their true faces had not been exposed before, so they were all traveling with their true faces this time.

Qi Xibei and Hu Yanlin were wearing slightly revealing clothes, and their faces were painted with various colors. It was impossible to tell what they looked like.

However, this was also the most popular makeup for those prostitutes.

After disguising themselves, they rented a carriage.

The carriage carried the three of them out of the city gate.

As expected, they were stopped at the city gate.

When they got out of the car, they were greeted by a fragrant scent.

The smell made the man who came to check sneeze a few times, and his snot almost came out..

Chapter 2288: Chapter 2290 -Release

Translator: 549690339

Qi Xibei's guess was right. The man who came to look for her this time had a very sensitive nose.

Although he couldn't remember everyone's smell, as long as he could catch one of them, he could find the entire team.

Not to mention, he remembered the smell of a few people.

Therefore, Princess Ruyi asked him to guard this place.

This time, when he saw the carriage coming, the man also wanted to go forward to check.

However, he did not expect to smell a strong fragrance the moment he came up.

He did not know what was inside, but the smell was simply too terrifying.

To others, the smell was just a little fragrant and not too scary.

However, for someone as sensitive as him, the smell was too strong.

He almost flipped over from the smell.

By the time he recovered, he saw three people in the car, two women and one man.

The man was hugging her left and right, and he still smelled of alcohol. His face was flushed from drinking, and his eyes were a little dazed." Who are you?"

"Official, don't be anxious.'

A woman next to him smiled coquettishly." Let's check first before we can go out."

"Inspection?"

The man frowned and was a little impatient. However, after thinking about it, he burped and nodded." Alright, let's check!"

As he spoke, he moved closer to the woman's neck and sniffed.

Looking at his appearance, it was obvious that he did not put his mind on these things at all.

However, the man did not think too much about it.

He looked at the three of them, sniffed, and then covered his nose.

"Alright, alright, get out!"

"Is that all?" The other woman blinked her big eyes." Alright then. Thank you, brother.'"

After saying that, she handed a cup of tea to the person beside her." Drink some tea to relieve the hangover..."

"Yes..."

Looking at their reactions, he knew that they did not care about his existence at all. The man did not say anything.

There was a lot of smell in here, and the woman's fragrance was even stronger, but it was not the smell he had previously remembered.

Of course, even if there was a smell, he would not be able to recognize it. After all, this smell had completely covered the original smell.

The car was quickly let through.

After another half a day, a few more people came over.

The smell on these people was also very strong. Some of them even smelled like alcohol. It was obvious that they came from a certain place.

The man checked them as usual and then let them go.

At night, before the city gates were to be closed, another group of people arrived. It was the same chaotic atmosphere.

After another inspection, he went out.

After these people left, the man suddenly reacted.

Oh no! What a coincidence!

He immediately went to the buildings in the city and found that there was indeed such a smell.

Therefore, the people he checked earlier were indeed guests here.

This made him heave a sigh of relief. Fortunately, he did not let her out.

However, he was helpless after that because he waited for a few more days and still did not catch the person.

Faced with Princess Ruyi's anger, he had no choice but to flee.

Otherwise, he was afraid that he would be killed.

But he had no choice! Those people might not have left the city gate at all, but were hiding somewhere and not moving? There was no way he could find these people!

If they couldn't find the person and were punished by Commandery Princess

Ruyi, they would definitely die.

Fortunately, he was alone. It was better for him to leave quickly.

On the other side, Qi Xibei had successfully brought everyone to MO Lin Kingdom's capital, MO Capital..

Chapter 2289: Chapter 2291-Misleading Beauty

Translator: 549690339

Modu City was the capital of MO Lin Kingdom.

The MO Lin Kingdom was a medium-sized country. Its land area and strength were much stronger.

The emperor of the MO Lin Kingdom had many children, but the one he doted on the most was Princess Moya.

Princess MO Ya was the daughter of the Emperor's favorite concubine. She was extremely talented and was only 22 years old this year, but she was already a Fifth Grade Martial Marquis.

Although this kind of strength was cultivated by the royal family with many resources, she also had to have enough talent to have such a result.

Princess MO Ya's cultivation was higher than the other princes and princesses. Therefore, she was the Emperor's favorite daughter and could get anything she wanted.

Recently, Princess Moya had reached the age of marriage and had her own thoughts.

Originally, the emperor wanted to arrange other marriages for her, but she was very independent and wanted to choose the person she liked.

The Emperor couldn't dissuade her and couldn't say anything. He could only let her resolve it herself.

Anyway, he believed that she had the ability to solve everything.

Furthermore, the Emperor had seen that the man that Princess Moya had taken a fancy to was indeed not bad.

They were of the same age and were strong. Most importantly, she was also very good-looking.

Princess Moya was a beauty lover. If she was not good-looking, it was useless no matter how talented she was. She did not even take a fancy to her.

Hence, this man named Qiao Yanyu successfully caught her eye.

It was a pity that no one understood. Qiao Yanyu did not know what medicine he had taken to reject the princess's goodwill.

However, it did not matter. Although he rejected the princess's favor, the princess would not give up.

To Princess MO Ya, Qiao Yanyu was so good-looking that he had the right to be willful.

As a result, Qiao Yanyu stayed in the palace. He would be free to do whatever he wanted whenever he agreed to her proposal.

Of course, in the face of Princess MO Ya's threat, Qiao Yanyu did not relent at all.

Princess Moya was not in a hurry. She just came over every day to see if he had softened.

Unfortunately, a month had passed and there was still no change.

As time passed, Qiao Yanyu could feel that Princess MO Ya's mood was beginning to change.

Previously, when he firmly refused, Princess Moya was still smiling. But slowly, Princess Moya lost her patience and wanted to use force.

Qiao Yanyu was in a bad mood at Princess MO Ya's threat.

He did not expect that he would end up in such a situation today.

At this moment, he could understand what it meant to be blinded by beauty.

He had been delayed by her beauty!

If not for his good looks, Princess Moya would not have taken a fancy to him and he would not be able to leave now.

For Qiao Yanyu, the best news he had received these days was the news of Qi Xibei's whereabouts.

He had wanted to find Qi Xibei before, but he did not dare to do so openly.

If the Crown Prince knew that he had such a weakness, it would be troublesome.

That was why Qiao Yanyu had asked the mercenary group he had saved to secretly search for Qi Xibei.

However, this kind of private search would definitely be slower.

Qiao Yanyu wondered how long it would take before he could find Qi Xibei's whereabouts. He was already mentally prepared for a long wait.

He just didn't expect that there would be news from the other side so quickly.

Qi Xibei was indeed not far from him!

This was good news.

However, they were now in different places, which made him a little anxious.

He was even more worried when he heard that Qi Xibei was coming to find him.

She wouldn't just barge in, would she?

Chapter 2290: Chapter 2291-Make-up Artist

Translator: 549690339

Qiao Yanyu was locked in a courtyard. He couldn't go out, and he couldn't. Of course, with his strength, he could go out, but he could not leave just like that.

If he left, the poison in his body would take effect.

After all, his life was now in the Crown Prince's hands.

The Crown Prince had hoped for him to come to the 'marriage alliance,' but he had always refused.

Of course, the Crown Prince did not make a move on him because of his refusal. After all, as long as he was still alive, there would not be any problems with Princess Moya.

If anything happened to him, the cooperation between Princess MO Ya and the Crown Prince would be canceled.

Therefore, for the sake of Princess MO Ya, the Crown Prince would not let anything happen to him.

Qiao Yanyu could leave this place in a short period of time, but there was still a bomb in his body. No one knew when it would explode.

Therefore, he could not act rashly.

Only by detoxifying the poison in his body could he leave safely.

That was why he sent his men to get the antidote.

Previously, he had received news that they had obtained the item with Qi Xibei's help.

This was a good thing. It seemed that he would be able to detoxify the poison in his body soon. After that, he would not have to be restrained by others.

After Qiao Yanyu received the news, although he told Qi Xibei not to come and take risks, he knew that Qi Xibei would definitely come.

That was why he was even more worried.

In the past few days, his attitude towards Princess Moya had become even colder.

Princess Moya noticed his absent-mindedness and was a little dissatisfied.

However, on account of his face, Princess Moya did not say anything.

Qiao Yanyu also knew that Princess MO Ya's patience was running out. However, he could not allow himself to feign civility with her.

However, he did not expect Princess Moya to change her mood after a few days.

In the past, her face would occasionally turn black, but these few days, she was smiling very happily.

What happened?

Qiao Yanyu was very curious.

He was not curious about Princess MO Ya, but who asked his life and death to be linked to Princess MO Ya?

If he did not understand Princess Moya's situation, who knew what would happen?

That was why he was concerned about Princess Moya's mood.

Who knew if Duke MO Ya had found a way to make him obedient?

Hence, Qiao Yanyu sent someone to check on the situation.

He was a little surprised when he found out the situation.

Princess Moya was so happy because she had found a new treasure.

Princess Moya was not ugly, but she was not considered good-looking either.

It could be said that her appearance could only be considered average.

Even a peerless beauty wanted to make herself more beautiful.

Princess Moya naturally wanted to make herself more beautiful.

However, no matter how fair her skin was, her facial features could not be changed!

This wasn't Earth. There was no plastic surgery, so there was no way to change one's facial features.

This time, Princess Moya had found a way to become beautiful!

Other than plastic surgery, she could also put on makeup!

Make-up was one of the modern "sorcery"

How many ordinary girls and boys would become completely different people after makeup?

It was as if his head had changed!

Qiao Yanyu had heard that Princess MO Ya had found a very skilled makeup artist. The makeup artist's skills were very good, and he could make her look very good!

She was in a good mood now that she looked better!

This explanation also made Qiao Yanyu have a different guess in his heart.

He had been here for so long, but he had never seen any good makeup skills.

Now, a makeup artist suddenly appeared..

Chapter 2291: Chapter 2292-Make-up Technique

Qiao Yanyu was right. The so-called makeup artist was Qi Xibei.

On the way here, Qi Xibei learned about Princess Moya's situation from the captain.

Princess Moya was a princess with a different status, so she naturally received everyone's attention.

Everyone knew about her looks and personality.

Everyone knew that Princess MO Ya liked handsome men. Moreover, she was very worried about her looks.

After understanding the situation, Qi Xibei had an idea.

If Princess Moya wanted to become beautiful, others might not be able to do it, but she did!

Qi Xibei had been in this world for a long time, so he naturally knew the situation here.

The makeup skills here were similar to those in ancient times.

The makeup was very retro, far from being as magical as modern makeup techniques that had changed over the years.

Modern makeup technology could turn a person into another person!

Qi Xibei's makeup skills were also very good.

After all, she was in the entertainment industry. She had to be capable too!

If she didn't know how to put on makeup, wouldn't she be scammed if something happened?

She had almost been tricked by the makeup artist the previous time. Fortunately, she was capable.

Her makeup skills could be seen as outstanding even in the modern world, let alone in this world where makeup skills were very backward.

Therefore, after understanding everything, she immediately had an idea!

She had planned to use another identity to sneak into Princess Moya's side, but it was a huge risk.

After all, Princess Moya was a princess. A princess would definitely have many people protecting her, and she would definitely be very concerned about the identity of the person she served.

If she was discovered, she might not be able to escape.

Princess Moya was protected by a Level 6 expert!

With Qi Xibei's strength, he would be courting death if he went up against a level-six expert!

Therefore, she had to be very careful.

He had to be careful when he came to Princess Moya's side with another identity, or he would be easily discovered.

However, if that was the case, she wouldn't be able to unseal Qiao Yanyu. How could the people around Princess Moya act so casually?

If she approached Princess Moya as a makeup artist, it would be easy.

Qi Xibei immediately had an idea.

On the day she arrived at Modu City, she began to take action.

Eye shadow, blush, lipstick, highlight...He had to do whatever he could.

Oh right, there was even perfume!

These things could all increase a woman's charm!

Of course, there were also many men who would use these. However, in this world, those who would use these were usually women.

It was also this time that Qi Xibei found out that Hu Yanlin was also an alchemist.

Even though he was only an elementary alchemist, his strength was considered pretty good.

No wonder she was so proud before.

However, in front of Qi Xibei, Hu Yanlin had no room for complacency. Especially when he found out that Qi Xibei was a high-level alchemist, he was even more shocked.

Towards the end, Hu Yanlin was already silent.

Her obsession with Qiao Yanyu had also slowly dissipated.

Compared to Qi Xibei? She couldn't win!

Don't humiliate yourself!

Qi Xibei did not care about Hu Yanlin's feelings. Instead, he trained her as his assistant.

With Hu Yanlin around, the operation went much smoother.

In just a few days, Qi Xibei had successfully reached Princess Moya's side. He had even turned Princess Moya into a great beauty with his amazing makeup skills, successfully gaining her attention.

Soon, Qi Xibei became Princess Moya's most valued person..

Chapter 2292: Chapter 2294-Exclusive Make-up Artist

Translator: 549690339

After Qi Xibei arrived at Modu City, he immediately began his journey to becoming famous.

Only then did she know that the mercenary group had also opened a small shop here.

Yes, the mercenary group did not just rely on taking risks and completing missions to earn money. They also opened a small shop.

Of course, the reason this shop existed was because of Qiao Yanyu's suggestion.

Otherwise, they would not have such thoughts.

To them, working hard to complete the mission, then earning money and continuing to have fun was the best life.

With their status, no one knew who would come first tomorrow or an accident. Of course, he would drink today!

Under such circumstances, how could they have a good sense of money?

Most importantly, even if they wanted to do business, they didn't know how to handle it.

After all, they didn't know how to use money to make money.

However, after following Qiao Yanyu, they had learned a lot of knowledge.

For example, if they opened this shop, this shop could be their base and could also be used to make money.

This was a grocery store that sold some rare goods.

At the moment, business was not very good, but they could still make a lot of money.

Most importantly, they couldn't make it too big. Otherwise, it might attract the attention of others.

Apart from that, there was another problem-Qiao Yanyu couldn't focus on this.

Therefore, this shop was not very popular.

Now that Qi Xibei was here, he had made it his base and turned it into a cosmetics store.

As an alchemist with modern insight and knowledge, Qi Xibei had many ideas. She had done cosmetics before, so this time, she quickly came up with what she wanted.

Eye shadow, blush, lipstick, highlight...She had created a series of products.

The people here also liked to put on makeup, but their makeup skills were not good. At least in Qi Xibei's eyes, they were really rubbish.

Make-up was to make a person more beautiful, not to make her uglier.

At least in Qi Xibei's opinion, many people's makeup skills were terrifying.

They looked better without makeup.

Because of her unique makeup skills, she quickly became famous here.

After the product was created, Qi Xibei found a few girls with good facial features who did not wear makeup to be models.

After they put on makeup, they immediately changed their appearances.

After these people returned, they immediately attracted everyone's attention.

This was too good looking!

This effect was too magical. The change was really too great!

This was Modu City, the imperial capital. Many things could spread very quickly, especially these new things.

Therefore, in just a few days, everyone in the Imperial Capital knew that there was a shop that had a very magical thing. These things could turn an ordinary woman into a very beautiful person!

Thus, many women came to Qi Xibei's place after hearing the news and were quickly captivated by his skills and products.

Princess Moya had also heard the news. After all, she was very concerned about her looks.

After hearing the news, she personally went to the shop.

Then, she realized that many ordinary-looking women came out with smiles on their faces after entering, as if they had changed their faces!

Such a change immediately moved her.

So, she had someone recruit Qi Xibei to her princess's manor and make her her personal makeup artist..

Chapter 2293: Chapter 2295 -Fainted

Qi Xibei went to Princess Moya's side as he wished.

Princess Moya's looks were not outstanding, but her skin was very good.

Under Qi Xibei's skillful hands, she quickly changed her appearance.

Qi Xibei's appearance had changed when he came to Princess Moya's side. In order to stay safe by Princess Moya's side for a long time, she had spent a lot of effort to make a mask that could pass off as real.

This mask would not be discovered by anyone and was very safe.

Her looks had decreased a lot compared to before, and she looked like a middle-class beauty.

It was precisely because of her beauty that Princess Moya was not jealous.

If Qi Xibei used his true identity to stay by Princess Moya's side, he would definitely be envied.

After a few days, Princess Moya was very satisfied.

Most importantly, Qi Xibei often taught her some makeup techniques. Even if Qi Xibei was not by her side, she could still put on good makeup herself.

Of course, Princess Moya's maidservant was also learning from the side.

In just a few days, Qi Xibei had become Princess Moya's confidant and was allowed to walk around her freely.

Princess Moya was quite generous to someone with such capabilities.

Qi Xibei did not immediately take action when he was beside Princess Moya.

Instead, he waited quietly so that Princess Moya would not worry about him.

In the past few days, Qi Xibei had provided Princess Moya with many ways to seduce people.

For example, playing hard to get.

Princess MO Ya had been unable to take down Qiao Yanyu and was a little frustrated.

This time, Qi Xibei's suggestion hit the nail on the head.

Just as Qi Xibei had said, she should keep Qiao Yanyu busy.

Otherwise, how would Qiao Yanyu know how good she was? She had given him too much face, and it made him feel proud instead.

It was only then that Qiao Yanyu realized that Princess MO Ya had not come over for the past few days.

This was a good thing. He did not want to face Princess Moya.

Qi Xibei used the time he spent making makeup for Princess MO Ya to quickly figure out where Qiao Yanyu was.

Princess MO Ya had her own princess residence, and Qiao Yanyu was locked up in a courtyard in the princess residence.

There were many people guarding Qiao Yanyu's courtyard, especially at night.

Qi Xibei was very glad that he had not come in rashly. Otherwise, it would have been troublesome.

After a few days of settling down, Qi Xibei began to take action.

Because the captain had a way to contact Qiao Yanyu, she wrote down the plan for this operation.

Qi Xibei used the excuse of helping Princess MO Ya find the materials to go to Qiao Yanyu's courtyard.

Qi Xibei was a little excited when he saw the courtyard from afar.

She hadn't seen Qiao Yanyu for a long time, and she really missed him.

However, they could not meet now, so they could only suppress the anxiety in their hearts.

She looked at the people around her who were staring at her without saying anything.

Then, while she was picking herbs, she placed something in the flowers.

Then, she stood up and left with the group of people.

After Qi Xibei left, someone appeared.

The man quickly found the medicine Qi Xibei had left behind.

Qiao Yanyu had a complicated expression when he received the pill.

They had not seen each other for too long, and he missed Qi Xibei very much.

Thinking of what Qi Xibei had said earlier, he took a deep breath.

It was fine, they would see each other very soon!

The next day, Qiao Yanyu's servant was frightened and ran to Princess MO Ya.

"Princess, Young Master Qiao has fainted!"

When the people who were taking care of Qiao Yanyu found out that he had fainted, they immediately went to find Princess MO Ya and told her about it.

"What happened?"

Princess Moya panicked." Wasn't everything fine before?"

She hadn't gone to look for Qiao Yanyu for the past few days, but she had been paying attention to his condition, waiting for him to soften up.

However, who knew that instead of receiving the news that he had softened, she received the news that something had happened to him.

"I don't know either. Young Master Qiao suddenly fainted and we couldn't wake him up!"

The attendant was also very anxious.

How could he not be anxious? Everyone knew that Qiao Yanyu was the princess's treasure!

If anything happened, they would have to use their heads to pay for it!

"Quickly find the imperial physician!"

Princess Moya immediately got up and rushed over.

Qiao Yanyu was a very important person to her.

Such a good-looking man, of course, he had to become her husband.

Of course, if Qiao Yanyu was still adamant in refusing, she wouldn't mind using other methods.

However, she had been very patient with Qiao Yanyu over the past few days, which was why she had been so gentle with him.

It was like raising a little pet. She could still tolerate a little bit of awkwardness and temper.

However, she didn't expect that something would happen to Qiao Yanyu before her patience ran out.

The imperial physician came over very quickly.

This was a white-haired doctor with superb medical skills. He was the most powerful imperial physician in the palace.

The imperial physician took a deep breath and immediately checked Qiao Yanyu's pulse.

As he took her pulse, his expression was solemn." This..." Young Master's condition isn't too good."

These words made the princess 'expression change." What do you mean? What do you mean by not too good?"

"Young Master's pulse is thick..."

The imperial physician rattled on, but was interrupted by Princess Moya." Don't tell me this, I don't understand! Just tell me how he is now!" She wasn't a professional, so she couldn't understand.

The doctor smiled awkwardly and explained, ""The poison in this young master's body might affect his life!"

"Affect one's life?" Princess Moya immediately panicked." Can you save him?"

She knew that there was poison in Qiao Yanyu's body. After all, it was the crown prince who told her about it.

Without these things, Qiao Yanyu would not have been so obedient. This was also a bargaining chip the Crown Prince had given her.

"I can save him, but..."

The imperial physician fell silent.

"Tell me!"

Princess Moya's face darkened." What can't I say?"

The imperial physician looked at the unconscious Qiao Yanyu and then at the people around him.

Princess Moya understood what he meant and immediately asked the others to leave." Hurry up and say it!"

The imperial physician sighed," It's possible to detoxify the poison, but after detoxifying the poison, it might affect some conditions."

"Where will it affect?" Princess Moya frowned." Speak clearly!"

The imperial physician was a little embarrassed. Husband and wife life."

His words stunned Princess Moya for a moment before she understood what he was talking about. She was immediately stunned.

What?!"

Since he had already said it, the imperial physician would not hide it anymore.

"The poison that this young master was poisoned with was very potent and had a great impact on his body. In addition, the young master was extremely worried, so the poison only broke out a few days ago. Moreover, it even affected his...Function. I can cure his poison, but the after-effects...This old master is powerless."

These words stunned the princess.

Affect its functions?

What was the use of this?

Chapter 2295: Chapter 2297-Useless

If Qiao Yanyu was crippled, what use was there?

He was not one of those eunuchs who served in the palace!

Princess Moya's expression was very ugly. It was very interesting. "Don't you have any other way?"

The imperial physician shook his head, "Your Highness, if I had a way, I wouldn't say that." But this old minister... There's really nothing I can do."

This imperial physician was the best doctor in the palace. Otherwise, he would not have been brought here by Princess MO Ya.

If even he couldn't solve Qiao Yanyu's problem, then no one else could.

At the thought of this, Princess MO Ya looked at the unconscious Qiao Yanyu with a complicated expression.

If he didn't receive treatment, Qiao Yanyu would die.

However, even if he was treated, it would be useless after he recovered.

So, should he be treated or not?

After hesitating for a moment, Princess Moya gritted her teeth. "I don't care.

Let's treat him first!"

"Alright."

The imperial physician nodded and immediately went to prepare the medicine for treatment.

Princess MO Ya sat down on the chair and looked at Qiao Yanyu's sleeping handsome face with a conflicted expression. Such a good man was crippled just like that?

However, she did not give up.

After all, Qiao Yanyu was the only person who was so good-looking and suited her taste so well.

No matter what, he had to treat him first.

After he was cured, if there was really a problem, he would continue to solve it.

After half a day, the imperial physician came in with a bowl of medicine.

After drinking the medicine, the unconscious Qiao Yanyu spat out a mouthful of blood.

The blood was very thick and smelly, making people frown.

After taking the medicine, Qiao Yanyu woke up very quickly. He was obviously much better.

The imperial physician took his pulse again but shook his head.

Seeing the imperial physician's expression, Princess MO Ya's heart turned cold.

Really?

Qiao Yanyu woke up with a weak expression." Princess, what's wrong with me?

"It's nothing."

Princess Moya quickly shook her head." You'll be fine after taking the medicine."

"Am I really fine?"

Qiao Yanyu sat up with a suspicious expression." Are you really alright?"

"Of course!"

Princess Moya smiled." Have a good rest first. I still have something to do. I'll come and see you later."

"Really?"

Qiao Yanyu, on the other hand, was no longer as cold as before. He was a little reluctant to part with Princess MO Ya.

"Of course it's true!"update by .o r g

Princess Moya looked at his delightful face and nodded." I'll look for you after I've settled my matters."

"Alright, I'll wait for you." Qiao Yanyu's tone was gentle, completely different from his previous cold and hard tone.

However, Princess Moya did not feel happy. Instead, she felt a little uncomfortable.

If he had been so warm and gentle to her before, she would have died of joy.

But now, a half-defective was so gentle to her, which made her feel complicated.

“Alright, I’ll be leaving first.”

The corners of Princess Moya’s mouth twitched, and she turned around decisively to leave.

After that, she found many doctors and asked them to examine Qiao Yanyu’s body.

But in the end, the doctors all came to the same conclusion.

He was really crippled.

After a few days, Princess Moya could only give up.

Qiao Yanyu was really useless..

After confirming that Qiao Yanyu was really useless, Princess MO Ya’s attitude changed.

To Princess Moya, she wanted to find a handsome and powerful husband. Qiao Yanyu was the most perfect person she had found so far.

But now, Qiao Yanyu was no longer perfect.

As a man, he was useless. Was he still a man?

If Qiao Yanyu wasn’t so good-looking, she might have already chased him out.

A place like this was not for a useless man.

However, Qiao Yanyu was also good-looking and pleasing to the eye.

It was just that every time she thought about Qiao Yanyu’s condition, she felt uncomfortable.

At the same time, she was also very unhappy with the Crown Prince.

Previously, the crown prince had told her that he was the one who had poisoned Qiao Yanyu and controlled him.

Wasn’t Qiao Yanyu in this state because of these poisons?

The crown prince wanted to use this to restrain Qiao Yanyu, but now, the effects of the medicine had gone too far and Qiao Yanyu was crippled.

Qiao Yanyu was crippled, so of course she was angry!

If not for the fact that the Crown Prince was far away, she might have already fallen out with him.

As a result, Princess MO Ya saw Qiao Yanyu much less often and did not miss him as much as before. However, she had not completely given up on him. She still had a faint hope in her heart. Perhaps he would get better after some time.

It was precisely because of this tiny bit of hope that Princess MO Ya did not completely give up on Qiao Yanyu.

However, Qiao Yanyu was very dissatisfied.

It was already like this, but she still hadn't given up on him?

It had been a few days since he had been "diagnosed". This amount of time was enough for Princess Moya to contact the Crown Prince.

This made Qiao Yanyu even more anxious.

If the Crown Prince knew about the situation here, things would be even more troublesome.

It was just that Princess MO Ya actually had such deep feelings for him, which made Qiao Yanyu very puzzled.

Fortunately, after two days, he and Qi Xibei had figured out the mistake this time.

Qiao Yanyu was just 'useless', but he was still good-looking!

Judging from Princess MO Ya's obsession with looks, it was not yet time for her to completely give up on Qiao Yanyu.

After the two of them understood this, they wanted to slap themselves on the head.

They were really too stupid! There was actually a mistake!

If Qiao Yanyu was disfigured, Princess MO Ya would definitely give up on him!

After understanding this, Qi Xibei immediately got some medicine.

Qi Xibei took the opportunity to deliver the medicine to Qiao Yanyu while he was out looking for ingredients.

After taking the medicine, Qiao Yanyu quickly changed.

Many blisters began to appear on his face. They were densely packed, and it was very terrifying.

These blisters appeared on one face, giving people goosebumps. Even without tryphobia, they would be scared to death. As expected, Princess Moya immediately ran out in fright.

"What's going on?!"

She pointed at the person who was taking care of Qiao Yanyu and roared, "How did it become like this?! What did he eat?"

The imperial physician from before was called over again.

After checking on Qiao Yanyu's condition, he frowned. "It looks like he took too much medicine before, and the effects of the medicine collided with each other. That's why he's like this now."

After hearing the doctor's explanation, Princess MO Ya's face darkened.

"Can it be solved? Can it return to its original appearance?"

The imperial physician shook his head. "It's very difficult. This old man...If you're not capable enough, there's nothing you can do." These words made Princess Moya's heart turn cold.

No way? What should he do then?

Princess MO Ya did not need to hesitate. Very soon, Qiao Yanyu's condition worsened.

In less than half a day, his illness was so severe that he lay in bed and could not get up.

After the imperial physician went in to take a look, he came out with an indescribable expression.

"It's starting to spread throughout my entire body..."

Princess Moya was stunned for a moment before goosebumps appeared on her skin.

In other words, the blisters had spread from his face to his body?

How disgusting was that!

Princess Moya immediately trembled and shook off the image in her mind.”

Can he still be saved?”

“This...”

The doctor’s hesitation allowed Princess Moya to understand what he meant. Qiao Yanyu’s weak voice came from inside.” Princess...”

In the past, if Qiao Yanyu had used this voice to call her, Princess MO Ya would have found it extremely sweet. What a beautiful voice!

But now, when she thought about how Qiao Yanyu had addressed her, this...

Princess Moya felt goosebumps all over her body. This was too disgusting!

She didn’t go in to see Qiao Yanyu either. She didn’t want to ruin the good impression Qiao Yanyu had left on her.

A man who was so handsome and perfect before had now become like this. It was simply a nightmare!

“If you can save him, then save him.”

Princess Moya turned her head ruthlessly.” If I die...” That’s it!”

It was just one man, but there were so many men outside!

There was no need to make herself feel bad for a man.

“Alright, I will work hard.” The imperial physician nodded and watched Princess MO Ya leave.

At night, the imperial physician came.

“How is it?” Princess Moya still had a faint hope in her heart.

“Princess, this old man is powerless. He can only live for three days at most.”

The imperial physician’s words made Princess Moya’s eyes widen.” Three days?!”

"Yes." The imperial physician sighed, "The poison in his body is too strong. I can't do anything."

Princess Moya fell silent. This was too unexpected.

"Alright, you can go." She waved her hand and did not continue speaking.

After the imperial physician left, the servants who served Qiao Yanyu came over.

"Princess, Young Master wants to see you."

"See me?"

Princess Moya was surprised and immediately shook her head firmly. "No." She didn't want to see Qiao Yanyu like this.

"Princess, Young Master said that even if we don't meet, he would like to talk to you. Even if it was through the door, they just needed to talk."

The people who came all knelt down, looking very pitiful.

Seeing how pitiful he sounded, Princess MO Ya hesitated for a moment before deciding to meet Qiao Yanyu.

Oh, no, it was to listen to him talk. The two of them had their last conversation.

Soon, Princess MO Ya arrived outside Qiao Yanyu's room.

"Is the princess here?"

Qiao Yanyu's weak voice came from inside.

His weak voice, coupled with Qiao Yanyu's handsome face, should be a very enjoyable experience.

However, when she thought of Qiao Yanyu's current appearance, Princess MO Ya did not want to think too deeply about it.

"Yes." She responded, "Why are you looking for me?" Search new novels on google

"Actually, I just wanted to say goodbye to the princess and thank her for taking care of me these days." Qiao Yanyu's voice was very weak, and it carried a warmth that had never been there before.

"I didn't expect things to turn out like this. Now that things have come to this, I have no choice but to tell you the truth."

The truth?

The princess could not help but frown. Was there a problem?

“Actually, I knew that this day would come.”

Qiao Yanyu’s words made the princess widen her eyes.

He already knew?

Princess MO Ya had always thought that Qiao Yanyu’s situation was just an accident. But now, Qiao Yanyu was telling her that he knew this would happen?

“What do you mean?” She asked coldly from outside the door.

“Actually, before I came here, the Crown Prince told me about my plan this time.” Qiao Yanyu’s voice sounded weak but strong. “If he can ally with you, his position will be stable. But... I can’t bear to lie to you.”

“Lying to me?”

Princess MO Ya was even more shocked. “What are you lying to me about?”

“Do you know what will happen if I get together with you?”

“What is it like?”

“If I were to be with you, your strength would regress. Moreover, all your forces would be devoured by me bit by bit. This is the path that the Crown Prince has arranged for me.”

These words made Princess Moya’s eyes widen. “Say that again?”

“The Crown Prince has already made arrangements. If he can successfully unite with you, he can officially force the abdication. After that, he will promote you to the throne. “You will form an alliance, but after that, he will take the opportunity to devour the MO Lin Kingdom.”

Qiao Yanyu’s words shocked Princess Moya!

She knew that the Crown Prince had deep thoughts and also knew that he had many requests.

However, she was also a person with lofty goals.

She was the most powerful princess in the MO Lin Kingdom. Why couldn't she be the emperor?

It wasn't like there weren't female emperors.

As long as he was strong enough, he could naturally become the emperor.

Who would be willing to submit to someone else?

That was why she chose to work with the Crown Prince.

The two of them worked together and then took the throne separately. This was the most stable alliance.

However, she did not expect the Crown Prince to have such a plan!

"How can you guarantee that I'll be obedient?"

"If I get together with you and give you pillow talk later, you'll naturally be obedient." Qiao Yanyu smiled, his smile full of self-mockery. "And you have to know that if I have sex with you, you'll be poisoned too."

What?!"

This time, Princess Moya was really frightened.

She was poisoned too?

"I will become like you?"

"Pretty much. It shouldn't be too far off."

Princess Moya's heart was beating wildly.

What?

Would she also become so terrifying?!

Princess MO Ya was a beauty lover. If she became like this, she really wished she could die just like that!

"Of course, you definitely won't be poisoned so early. At the very least, you'll only act like this after you take the throne." Qiao Yanyu sighed. "The Crown Prince poisoned me and told me to be obedient. If I don't listen, it will become like this."

“Actually, I was already mentally prepared. Anyway, I’m alone and have nothing to worry about. I don’t want to implicate others either. I just hope that I can have a burial place...”

“Originally, I wanted to drag you down with me, but you’ve been so good to me these days, so I couldn’t bear to.”

“Besides, I’m not some noble young master. I’m just acting. Because if I don’t perform well, I’ll be punished...”

Hearing Qiao Yanyu’s words, Princess MO Ya’s expression turned uglier and uglier.

The Crown Prince’s wild ambitions also made her heart tremble.

She and the Crown Prince had always helped each other and guarded against each other. However, when the Crown Prince’s true colors were exposed in front of her, she only felt that it was too terrifying!

Although she was wary of the Crown Prince, who would have thought that he was far more terrifying than she thought!

Translator: 549690339

Qiao Yanyu continued, “I was an orphan since I was young, and no one has ever treated me so well. That’s why I listened to the Crown Prince... I only have a rotten life. Actually, if you had been a little bad to me before, I would have really chosen to listen to you...”

These words made Princess Moya feel a little guilty.

Actually, she wanted to drug him and force herself on him. But wasn’t it too late?

Princess Moya’s patience was slowly wearing away, and she really wanted to do it.

But didn’t Qi Xibei just happen to appear and provide her with new ideas?

It was precisely because she had other methods that she did not make a move.

However, who knew that such a method would make Qiao Yanyu have a good impression of her?

This was really a coincidence!

Princess Moya sighed in her heart, but she was also glad that she did not use force. Otherwise, she would have fallen for it too.

The thought of her becoming like that made her feel terrified.

She absolutely could not tolerate herself becoming like this!

It wasn't easy for her to become good-looking through makeup, but she had to become so ugly. She would really go crazy!

Princess Moya could not help but grit her teeth when she thought of the culprit behind all of this.

They were all Crown Princes!

He was actually so vicious!

Thinking of the series of things that the Crown Prince had done, she felt terrified.

This person was too disgusting!

She was dancing with wolves!

Moreover, Qiao Yanyu was an orphan! This was too unexpected.

Looking at his actions, everyone would think that he was a noble young master!

However, Princess MO Ya's heart felt even heavier.

It would take a lot of time and effort to turn an orphan into such a noble young master.

After all, temperament was not something that could be cultivated overnight.

And this also showed that the Crown Prince's thoughts were deep!

How many years had he planned this!

It was terrifying just thinking about it!

Fortunately, Qiao Yanyu still had a conscience. Thinking of this, her heart softened a little.

"Thank you."

Her voice was much gentler than before." Thank you for doing this."

"No need to thank me." Qiao Yanyu chuckled." Actually, I was thinking that since I can't live anymore, I'll just find someone to die with! But you are a good person."

This was the truth. Although Princess MO Ya was unruly and willful, she was already very good compared to the other princes and princesses.

After all, Qiao Yanyu had been here for such a long time, yet she hadn't made a move. This was already very rare.

In this aspect, she was already a good person.

Qiao Yanyu's praise made Princess Moya blush. She felt a little guilty. This was the first time she had been praised as a good person.

"I only have one request now."

"Go ahead."

"I should be...It was about time. But I don't want to die alone at the last moment. I want to leave this courtyard before I die. I hope to die in the sea."

"The sea?" Princess Moya was surprised.

The MO Lin Kingdom was close to the sea, so this was not a problem.

"That's right. I just want to let my corpse wander around with the waves and see this world."

Such a humble request made Princess Moya's heart soften.

.. Alright, I promise you."

"Thank you, Princess!" Qiao Yanyu's voice suddenly became much more energetic. "Then I'll have to trouble you, Princess!"

"Alright, I'll arrange it now."

"Thank you!"

After ending the conversation, the princess stood up and stood for a while before leaving.

The next day, someone came..

Chapter 2300: Chapter 2302- Settle It Yourself

Translator: 549690339

This man was sent by Princess MO Ya. He was the princess 'confidant and was here to bring Qiao Yanyu out.

When this person came over and saw Qiao Yanyu's appearance, he was also shocked.

Qiao Yanyu's original handsome face could no longer be seen clearly because his face was completely covered by all kinds of black scars.

After the blisters subsided, they turned into black scars, layer by layer. It looked very terrifying.

At first glance, the man almost vomited.

This was too disgusting!

Fortunately, the princess did not come. If she saw this scene, she would not be able to eat for a few days!

Although Qiao Yanyu had all kinds of disgusting scars on his body, his limbs were fine. It was just that his body was a little weak.

The man took a few deep breaths and stopped looking at him. Instead, he focused his attention on other things and tried to eliminate the shock he had given himself." I'll take you out."

"Thank you." Qiao Yanyu's voice was weak as he walked on his crutches.

He didn't let anyone get close to him to avoid infection.

As soon as he said this, the man immediately froze and quickly dodged to the side.

It was contagious?

This was too terrifying!

Hence, he brought Qiao Yanyu to the side of the carriage. After letting him get on, he carefully took out a piece of armor that completely covered his mouth and nose. He wrapped himself up to prevent himself from being infected.

If he became like this, then it would be over!

The car started moving very quickly.

Modu City was also near the sea, but it would take two hours to get from the center to the sea.

The car moved forward at a constant speed, not affected by the situation of the passengers.

The coachman drove the carriage in front, carefully listening to the coughing sounds coming from inside.

He didn't see Qiao Yanyu's appearance just now. He only saw his weak body and didn't know what was going on.

However, he was just a coachman, so it was not good for him to ask anything.

He could only drive the carriage obediently.

After driving for two hours, they finally smelled the smell of the sea.

They reached the seaside.

When Qiao Yanyu alighted from the carriage, the coachman glanced at him and gasped in shock.

Because Qiao Yanyu's face was too scary when he got out of the car! It was as if he had been burned by flames and then contaminated with some terrifying poison.

The coachman had goosebumps all over his body and almost vomited.

The man in charge glared at the coachman and told him to get lost.

However, he didn't dare to step forward. Instead, he kept a distance from Qiao Yanyu and said, "Young Master Qiao, do you have any other instructions?"

Qiao Yanyu used his clothes to hide his appearance, not revealing his scary face." No, this is fine."

He took a few steps forward with the help of his walking stick, swaying as if he would fall down in the next second.

The others panicked, but they did not dare to go forward.

If he went forward, he might be infected! They did not dare to take this risk.

Qiao Yanyu continued to walk forward. After walking for a long time, he finally reached the water.

The few people behind opened their mouths, but they did not dare to say anything.

Princess Moya had given her orders, so he just had to listen to her.

Princess Moya had already figured out that Qiao Yanyu's condition was contagious. If he waited until he was dead to deal with the corpse, it might cause trouble.

Now that he could still move, let him settle it himself.

This also saved him some trouble.

Qiao Yanyu continued to walk forward, and the seawater gradually reached his waist.

The crowd watched as he continued to walk into the water and slowly disappeared..
