The news of Qi Xibei's return quickly spread.

Unsurprisingly, this caused a huge uproar.

Especially her fans, they were so happy that they cried.

She had clearly said that she would be in a light circle, so why did she end up leaving the circle without a sound?

Everyone had not seen her for more than two years, and now there was finally news!

Some reporters quickly posted photos of Qi Xibei participating in the event, and the fans' eyes were filled with tears.

[Sister Bei is finally back! I can see my beautiful and awesome Sister Bei again!]

[I'm freaking crying! My crying scared my parents to death. They thought something had happened! I'm typing now and I'm still crying. I can't help it!!]

[Sister Bei is back. Some demons and ghosts are about to reveal their true forms! Hahaha, Sister Bei is mighty!]

[Our dormitory is all Sister Bei's fans. When we heard the news that Sister Bei was back, everyone cried. As she cried, she realized that something was wrong.

Why was she crying so loudly? It turned out that the neighbor was crying too! 23333]

[Sister Bei V587! Waiting to lick her face! Waiting to be slapped in the face!]

Qi Xibei's return quickly ignited everyone's frenzy.

The topic about her quickly became a trending topic.

She opened the trending searches and saw that it was all about her.

Everyone in the entertainment industry was shocked. Qi Xibei actually had such terrifying appeal!

Initially, everyone thought that even if she came out again, there would not be such an exaggerated commotion. However, they did not expect that once she returned, everyone's wishful thinking would be shattered.

She was simply the king of the entertainment industry!

The king had returned, who could compete with him?

The scariest thing was that Qi Xibei had not only returned, but he had also brought back new medicine!

Only then did everyone know that she had not appeared for a long time because she was focused on her research.

This time, she had developed several kinds of drugs, and they were all targeted at the terrible but powerless diseases.

The moment these drugs appeared, they immediately attracted the attention of the higher-ups.

In just a few days, Qi Xibei's fame had once again spread throughout the country and even the world!

After Qi Xibei's return, SY Company was completely renewed.

Their Godly Sea Steadying Needle had returned!

Mu Qiaona and the others hugged her and cried in excitement. Since she was back, their backbone was back.

And those who had previously suppressed SY Company were all scared out of their wits.

F * ck! Wasn't Qi Xibei dead?

Alright, it's over now!

Those who thought that they could still be saved sent out olive branches and gifts one after another, afraid that Qi Xibei would target them.

Lu Tianqi's company, which bullied them especially, was in a state of despair.

Lu Tianqi was full of fighting spirit after his nervousness.

She did not believe that Qi Xibei could be that awesome!

However, when Qi Xibei really took action, she knew that the distance between them was like a chasm!

She also realized that Qi Xibei had probably just gotten out of his research and wanted to have some fun. That was why he was keeping an eye on her.

Thus, she sang one song and Qi Xibei sang two, suppressing her performance without any ripples.

She was participating in the show, and Qi Xibei was also participating, so she did not get many shots.

She wanted to be the spokesperson, but Qi Xibei snatched it away. She might not be the one to be the spokesperson herself, but she had given it to another artist from SY Entertainment.

She wanted to act, and Qi Xibei had joined the same production team. He had even brought in an artist from SY Company, and they had joined forces to make her lose all her glory!

Two months later, Lu Tianqi collapsed.

'Qi Xibei, you're f * cking inhumane!'

Lu Tianqi, who had a mental breakdown, immediately quit the entertainment industry. All his fighting spirit had been wiped out, and he no longer had any intention of fighting Qi Xibei..
