

Godly Choice 1801

Chapter 1801: You Ming Hotel

"Hmm, we don't take your car."

Fang Xue proudly took Li Yun's hand and looked at the other side of the road, where there was also a luxury car parked.

"...BMW M760Li, a top luxury car worth tens of millions." A classmate who knew the goods silently reported the origin of this white luxury car, and let a group of students take a breath.

The school flower of Fang Da... turned out to be so rich!

Zhu Dayou was in awe, and looked at Fang Xue more and more respectfully, his waist bent down: "It turns out that Miss Fang, you really are the daughter of the Fang family."

As long as they are in Longyang County, after reaching a certain level, there will be no one who does not know Fang's family.

As the true local family in Longyang County, the Fang family has always stood at the top of the upper class in Longyang County, welcoming countless locals in Longyang County.

Zhu Dayou's wealth is hundreds of millions, but he belongs to the wild, and his industry is all gray, and he has not been completely whitewashed.

He just wanted to get into Fang Xue's social circle, and no one introduced him at all. All the upper-class society in Longyang County didn't bother to interact with him at all, at most politely in the business arena.

As for the other invisible behemoth in Longyang County, the Hu family is completely aloof. It has long since belonged to Longyang County and has become Huang Xuan's wealthy family.

"Yes, Fang Huyu is my dad."

Fang Xue reported her name triumphantly, but she could only show off in Longyang County because she felt sorry for her majestic eldest lady from the Fang family.

If you go to Zhonghai City, whether it is Hu Xiaomeng, Gong Qingyu, Su Muxin, Liu Xianxian, Xia Feiyao, etc., she can't compare.

Not to mention the Lord Saint.

"Silly in stupid, let's go."

Li Yun smiled and shaved his girlfriend's little nose, and took her hand to the BMW. Fang Xue puffed up her mouth. She finally showed off. Does the villain say she is stupid?

"Huh~! It doesn't matter if I can't compare to others, anyway, I'm the first, and everyone else can't compare to me, so that's it~!"

Fang Xue actually didn't care much about the "humiliation" of her life experience, she believed Li Yun would not care either.

In the envious eyes of many other classmates, more than 20 luxury cars set sail and left Zhicai High School like a line.

There are so many luxury cars that can almost be enjoyed by a classmate. The exaggerated effect is that cars on the road should be avoided at a distance and not offend this long line of luxury cars.

"You Ming Hotel..."

Not long after, the unimpeded team of luxury cars stopped in front of a big hotel. Wang Houliang looked up and saw the five golden characters inlaid on the 20-storey building.

"It turned out to be at Youming Hotel for dinner!"

The classmates in class 14 were also in a commotion.

In Longyang County, almost no one does not know this hotel. As one of the few five-star hotels, it has always been the capital that people in Longyang County usually brag about. For example, when someone gets married, they hold a banquet in a big hotel and so on.

But the commotion among the classmates quickly stopped. After all, there were twenty luxury cars in front of him to pick up and drop off, and the district hotel was nothing.

However, after getting off the car, Zhu Dayou's words shocked everyone again.

"Welcome all students to visit my hotel!" Zhu Dayu stood in front of the hotel with a big smile, "Let's have a good time tonight. The banquets are all of the highest standard. The drinks are champagne, whether it is Lafite in 1982 or Bishang The dry red wine of the Chateau Duchess, or Moutai Tsingtao, is free of charge!"

Everyone was dumbfounded, dare to love Youming Hotel is this brother Li's?

Chapter 1802: Classmates, follow the boss to make a fortune

"Youming Hotel...Is he Dayou Zhu?!"

Wang Hou Liang vaguely guessed his identity, he was shocked suddenly, the eyes looking at Zhu Dayu became a little frightened.

Li Yun took Fang Xue out of the car and glanced at Zhu Dayou after hearing the words, and said, "You have 82 years of Lafite? Then come a bottle. I will try this legendary wine."

In Lafite in 1982, this wine has become a symbol of famous wine after being rendered by a large number of movies and televisions. Three-year-old children understand the preciousness of this stuff!

"Uh, boss forgive me, I just just say it casually, hehe!" Zhu Dayou smiled and said: "But there is no Lafite in 82 years, and there are several bottles of red wine from the 96th and 98th vintages. I will bring them all tonight. NS!"

The classmates were silent again.

There are only a few bottles in the five-star hotels in Longyang County, which is enough to show the preciousness of this wine, I am afraid it is more than a hundred thousand bottles.

Seeing that Li Yun's classmates were a little restrained, Zhu Dayou quickly patted his chest and said, "Dear friends, don't be polite to Old Zhu. By the way, you just call me Brother Zhu, or simply Brother Zhu, I'm old. Zhu doesn't care! Hey, the boss's classmates are my classmates...Bah, I mean, everyone will be friends in the future. Just let them go and eat and drink tonight!"

A bite of an old pig made Fang Xue couldn't help but laugh, and the crisp laughter like a silver bell made Wang Houliang and the others relax a lot.

Li Yun smiled and said nothing. This Zhu Dayou deserves to be on the road. Maybe he can't do other things, but his social skills are full.

And know how to be humble, Bo Ren smiled.

With Dayou Zhu's current status, who would dare call him Lao Zhu in Longyang County? But he completely lowered his posture in front of Wang Houliang and others, which was equivalent to saying that he had given Li Yun enough face and tried his best to please him.

It's no wonder that Li Yun kicked him, but Zhu Dayou was able to get up and begging Li Yun to accept him as a younger brother. Not everyone can do this kind of lowering ability.

"Then we will call you Brother Zhu? Er, yes, my name is Wang Houliang, I am a classmate of Brother Li, um, I have been in the same class for three years! By the way, Brother Zhu, you can call me a monkey, classmates, and Brother Li calls me that way!"

"Haha, that's the right thing for Brother Wang! Let's go, I will show you some people tonight. As long as you work hard, you can make a fortune with the boss and the boss's brother!"

Zhu Dayou was very loyal, and he directly pointed out when he was looking for a job, so that everyone was bright and quickly followed.

In front of the hotel, there were many people waiting. They all greeted him after seeing Dayou Zhu. The boss Zhu's call was probably some of his wine and meat friends.

"Come on, Brother Wang, let me introduce to you. This is Yuan Ping, Brother Yuan. He is the owner of the Shenghao Club, with a net worth of tens of millions."

"This is located in Zhengjing, we all call him serious, hahaha, you just call him Yuge! By the way, he is the owner of Jingge jewelry store, he has no net worth, he has a lot of jewelry and jewelry, and wants to give him away. If your friend asks him to give you a few pieces later, hahaha."

Zhu Dayou's enthusiastic introduction went on, all of them were rich people in Longyang County.

Although I don't have a face or a face, at least I have a wealth. Everyone is a boss and occupies many industries in Longyang County. If they can successfully get into their circle, doing business in the future will be like a fish in the water, and there is no need to worry about relationships at all.

Chapter 1803: Different circles

Everyone has his own circle.

Li Yun's circle is the Sage of Fanqing, Concubine Wanqing, Xia Ming, Liao Hua, Wu Ke, Gong Qingyu, etc., each of which is a top existence in a certain field.

Fang Xue's circle is the upper-class society of Longyang County, and she befriends a young lady from a listed company. She is studying in Longyang County. If Li Yun is not available, she will return to Longyang County to develop after college in the future, and she may recruit one. The door-to-door son-in-law continued to allow the Fang family to maintain the status of the top family in Longyang County and waited for the opportunity to enter Zhonghai City.

And Zhu Dayu's circle is the experience of various bosses. These people have turned from ordinary people to bosses with a net worth of tens of millions by various means. They can eat well in all walks of life, have many wild ways and have many relationships.

Although they are worth tens of millions, most of them do not have a serious company, nor have they become a family after three generations. Most of their relatives and friends are ordinary people, and they are in a state of bankruptcy and decline at any time.

Zhu Dayu is the core of their circle, and is higher than them. He has established his own company and initially started to use professionals to manage his own money. If he cultivates a good son again, he can try to fight with Longyang. The upper-class society of the county became in-laws to enter Fang Xue's circle.

However, Zhu Dayu wanted to reach the sky in one step, relying on himself to break through the innate realm, to forcibly open the way to the upper level.

"This is...?" Zhu Dayu's friends looked at Li Yun one after another.

They had noticed that Brother Zhu was respectful to this young man, and they knew that tonight's banquet was mainly to entertain him. The bosses had speculated that this was the boy brother that would make Brother Zhu call the other boss.

"My name is Li Yun."

After simply reporting his name, Li Yun stopped saying anything, and instead introduced Fang Xue: "This is my girlfriend, Fang Xue."

"Fang Xue...? Could it be that it belongs to the Fang family!?"

The bosses quickly guessed the truth. After all, the surname is Fang, and Brother Zhu can be cautious. There is only Fang's family in Longyang County!

"Hello everyone, it's nice to meet you." Fang Xue put aside the image of the cold school girl in the school, and greeted them politely.

After all, her current status is Li Yun's virtuous internal helper, and she can no longer be a high-cold school girl.

"Hello Miss Fang!"

"I have long heard of the famous name of the daughter of the Fang family. When we met today, I felt that you and Mr. Li are the golden boys and girls. We will definitely be there when the wedding reception will be held!"

The bosses accompany the smiling faces. They also know that there is a huge gap between their own family and the Fang family. If they can climb some of the relationships with the Fang family tonight, business will be much smoother in the future!

The mood of class 14 students is getting more and more complicated.

Li Ge is undoubtedly the strongest, but his younger brother Zhu Dayou has a net worth of hundreds of millions, and in their eyes, he is already an existence that can only be looked up to.

And Zhu Dayou's younger brothers, these bosses, after they reported their names and origins, the classmates of Class 14 also found it difficult to match.

This shows how rich Li Ge is now!

"Let's go, let's go, everyone go in for dinner and drink." Zhu Dayou smiled and greeted: "We will not be drunk or return tonight...Hahaha, yes, we will not return drunk. After all, Brother Wang, you are both a senior in high school and you are already an adult. You can drink. NS!"

All the classmates looked embarrassed. As students in class, they didn't know how many times they drank alcohol.

"and many more!"

When they were about to enter, Li Yun stopped them.

"A few more people are coming."

Speaking of it, it didn't take long for everyone to see a very ordinary car approaching and parked in front of the hotel.

"Boss, here we are!"

The car door opened, and a man and two women walked out, plus a 6-year-old cute little Lolita.

Chapter 1804: Goodbye Guo Xun

"Brother Guo, sister-in-law, Sister Yang."

Li Yun smiled and greeted the three of them one by one, then squatted down and hugged the little Lolita who was rushing over, and squeezed her little fat face: "Xinxin, do you want brother?"

Little Lori was very excited, she blushed and nodded violently and said, "I think~~!"

"So good!"

Li Yun rubbed her little head and stood up to introduce them.

Guo Ge, also Guo Xun, Li Yun's first recruit was a former agent, but he returned to Longyang County after being injured. Li Yun used a few medium recovery pills to heal enough, and he never returned to the army. It was protecting Li Yun's family secretly.

Sister Yang, named Yang Jie, is Guo Xun's former teammate, and her relationship with him is not simple. Now it seems that the three of them live together...

"Let's go, let's go in."

Li Yun greeted, and everyone walked into the hotel.

Zhu Dayou's expression was tense, he just remembered that just now, he actually passed the boss to make a decision, what a damn!

"However, another subordinate of the boss, this man named Guo Xun, is not simple!"

Zhu Dayu guessed the origin of Guo Xun in his mind, but he was doing the work of leading the way.

Everyone got on the elevator in batches and brought together the hotel banquet hall on the 20th floor. The entire floor is a place for banquets and banquets, which can accommodate nearly a thousand people for dinner together.

When Wang Houliang and others stepped into the hall, the wine and food were ready. Two rows of beautiful waiters dressed in cheongsam bowed to welcome them. The voices were beautiful and beautiful, which made people enjoy the supreme enjoyment of the master. I feel extremely satisfied mentally.

"Boss, sit down here!"

The banquet was placed into a long table, with a dozen long tables spliced together, just like a family restaurant in a western aristocratic castle.

There is no doubt that the main entrance is opposite, and the head of the table close to the inside is the main seat. Naturally, Zhu Dayu asked Li Yun to sit down. This is especially important at the formal Huang Xuan state banquet!

Li Yun was not polite, and calmly sat down to the chief, let Fang Xue sit beside him, and Guo Xun's family sat on the other side. As for Zhu Dayou, he could only squeeze pitifully with the group of bosses.

The bosses did not dare to say much, although they do not know the origin, but his girlfriend is the daughter of Fang family, this is enough!

"Xiao Xinxin is hungry?"

Everyone sat down. After Li Yun sat down, he asked the youngest Lori with a smile. Little Lori touched her belly, and said with a milky voice, "Brother, Xinxin is hungry, belly Flat."

"Hahaha, Xinxin is so cute, well, since we are hungry, let's eat first and talk as we eat!"

Li Yun lifted his chopsticks and picked up a dish. After putting it into Fang Xue's bowl, everyone raised the chopsticks.

This is also one of the rules.

There is a paragraph that says: I work so hard, so that when I am eating with people, no one dares to turn the table when I raise my chopsticks.

The meaning of this passage is to be a master, so that others will respect you.

Li Yun actually didn't care about these differences at all, but Zhu Dayou cared especially, and Li Yun didn't care.

After drinking for three rounds, it gradually became lively, and the topic was brought to work by Zhu Dayou. After all, he knew that the boss had let him eat together tonight for this purpose.

"Come, I have a drink with you, Brother Zhu!"

Zhu Dayou, Wang Houliang and others toasted their cups. After drinking a sip, their faces turned red, and they said with great loyalty: "You can rest assured, monkeys, as long as you graduate and wait for the end of the summer vacation, then you can come to my company to work. Do it, wait for a year or two, and let you be the store manager after getting familiar with it!"

Chapter 1805: Future arrangements

Wang Houliang and other students lifted up their spirits and finally came to this.

"Don't worry!" Zhu Dayou continued: "I have dozens of bars and discos, shopkeeper positions, and higher managers. You can choose a lot of positions for purchases, logistics, etc.!"

Wang Houliang said quickly: "Brother Zhu, we don't dare to expect to be any manager or store manager. It would be nice to be able to mix and eat!"

"Hahaha, what can young people do without ambition?"

Zhu Dayou patted Wang Houliang on the shoulder, and then said: "But don't worry, even if you don't go to those positions, every store will get dividends. Ten thousand yuan a month is not a problem.

Moreover, it may not always work with me. I am afraid that after working for me for two or three years, if you learn the experience, you will all start your own business and start a company in the future. Instead, you will have your brother Zhu and mine. The company is buying, let me work for you, hahaha! "

All the classmates also laughed, but Zhu Dayu made it clear.

If they have the ability to mix, then they can become store managers, and making one million a year is not a problem.

If you don't have the ability, then become a clerk, relying on Li Yun's relationship every month, earning more than ordinary employees, and living in a comfortable life in the small county.

If you don't want to do it in the future, you can also quit your job and start your own business. With the experience of working under Zhu Dayu, plus a network of connections, people with a little savvy mind can easily earn hundreds of thousands every year.

It can be said that Zhu Dayou made clear arrangements for the future of the 14 classmates-so that their lives can be very comfortable.

"Furthermore!" Zhu Dayou waved his hand and pointed to his friends. "All of you here are my old Zhu's friends. Just open your mouth. Where can't you go to Longyang County?"

"Yes, Brother Zhu, you are right!"

Wang Houliang and others continued to laugh.

Fang Daxiaohua laughed but didn't say anything. With Fang's family here, who would dare to say where to go in Longyang County?

After thinking about it, Fang Xue smiled and said, "Unfortunately, the main industries of the Fang family have already been listed. They belong to a formal company, so there should not be too many exceptions."

Everyone expressed their understanding.

Wang Houliang and the others are too far apart from the Fang family, and they can't count on this Li Yun's girlfriend. In comparison, Zhu Dayou is close to them.

Li Yun almost laughed out loud, what his girlfriend said... as if Zhu Dayu's company was not a formal company.

However, Fang Xue was here to discuss business for the first time after all, and some blunders were excusable. Just remind her later.

"But." Fang Xue looked at Zhu Dayu and those bosses, "If you want to do business with the Fang family in the future, just mention it. As long as it is mutually beneficial, I don't think my dad will refuse."

The bosses were overjoyed. With the words of Fang's daughter, let alone arrange one or two classmates of Li Yun, or arrange ten or eight, that is not a problem!

The Fang's casually leaked a little oily water from his fingers, enough for them to eat for ten or eight years!

"Thank Mrs. Boss!" Zhu Dayou said, Mrs. Fang, who successfully caught Fang Xue's flattery, made Mr. Fang laughed with joy.

Everyone negotiated properly and looked at Li Yun together.

Although this young man has not spoken, everyone understands that he is the backbone of this place!

Chapter 1806: Brother Li, toast you

"I still said that."

Li Yun glanced at Zhu Dayou slowly, "Your past experience is not obvious, I can leave it alone, but afterwards, especially after my classmates join in with you, you will never be able to do anything with Zhu Dayou. Do those black|industry things, try to touch the gray as little as possible, so as not to get the upper body in flames. If the police file a case to arrest you, I will never protect you, and I can't protect you, you know?"

"Yes, boss, I will definitely keep it in my heart, and I will never defy your orders!"

Zhu Dayu nodded with cold sweat on his forehead to express his understanding.

In fact, he doesn't need to touch those things anymore. When he breaks through his innate realm, he still looks down on the upper class of Longyang County!

"This is not an order, it's just a warning."

Li Yun said lightly, and stopped talking about this topic. One of the purposes he brought Guo Xun here tonight is to let him pay attention to Zhu Dayou when he is free in the future, so as not to bring his class 14 classmates. Go crookedly.

The bosses are even more surprised. What is the origin of this young man?

They thought that Old Brother Zhu wanted to climb his relationship, but now it seems that Dayou Zhu is completely a dog of this young man, and he can beat and scold the pug that he drove away at any time.

"Could it be said that it is the giant of Zhonghai City?"

The bosses wondered about Li Yun's origins, and became more respectful to him. They kept their heads down when toasting.

After talking about the most important thing tonight, Wang Houliang and others fell a stone in their hearts and became relaxed.

In the future, they only need to follow the steps. After the college entrance examination is over, they will go to Zhuge's company to work and learn some things. Although the future is far less than that of Li, they can also be called bright. Buying a house, a car, marrying a wife and having children is not a problem at all. .

"Come on, Brother Li, my monkey toast you a cup!"

"Brother Li, Brother Li, I'll toast you too~"

The students from Class 14 took turns to give Li Yun wine, and the atmosphere gradually heated up. Everyone chatted all over the world, chatting and chatting, and they came to Zhonghai City.

This is actually normal. After all, Zhonghai City is too big and too prosperous, and Longyang County is under the jurisdiction of Zhonghai City, so it will naturally be mentioned frequently when chatting.

Everyone in Longyang County will go to Zhonghai City when he grows up; every businessman from Longyang County is proud to be able to enter Zhonghai City.

Especially the Fang family, a family that has achieved the top in Longyang County, is full of eagerness to gain a foothold in Zhonghai City.

Unfortunately, even Fang Huyu's generation failed to get what he wanted.

"Do you know?" a boss said mysteriously: "Recently, there has been a big joke in Zhonghai City. People across the country and even the world are laughing at Zhonghai City people."

It is strange to say that the people of Longyang County both yearn to enter Zhonghai City, but also despise the people of Zhonghai City and do not regard it as their own family.

"What joke?" Zhu Dayou asked cooperatively.

This is how chatting is, one party raises a topic, and the other party follows up, so that the conversation can continue.

The boss was very satisfied, and continued: "It's that China Shipping has a very weird company. Do you know what a weird trick? Hey, hey, it claims to have companies all over the world give it tribute and hand in 80% of it. Profits, but also the acquisition of fruit companies, hahaha, it's no longer possible, it's so funny!"

Zhu Dayou also laughed, "I, Cao, let global companies turn in 80 profits, what kind of amazing company is this awesome?"

With a smile, he noticed something was wrong.

Chapter 1807: Let you see

Why Wang Hou Liang and others, as well as the boss, boss wife, Guo Xun, etc., all stopped smiling and looked at them with weird eyes.

"Hahaha, isn't it!"

The boss hadn't noticed the change in the atmosphere, and he was still smiling and chatting with Zhu Dayou: "I heard that this company claims to have raised 300 billion yuan in Series A. It bought an entire building and bought a tens of billions of dollars. Car companies, maybe this is the reason for its expansion, dare to say that they bought the fruit company!"

Does it know the market value of the fruit company? Don't be afraid to scare it when you say it! Twenty trillion, a full market value of twenty trillion! Hahahaha, do you guys find it funny? "

No one dared to laugh.

The boss finally noticed something was wrong, looked tremblingly around, and finally fixed his gaze on "Young Master Li", as if he had realized something.

"What's the matter? Keep talking." Li Yun smiled and said, "What is this company called? How it does something similar to my company."

"What is Baiyun Technology?" The boss replied subconsciously, then his eyes widened suddenly, "Boss Li is yours..."

"Well, yes, I also have a company called Baiyun Technology."

"..."

thump! x2

Both Zhu Dayou and the boss knelt down on the red carpet of the hotel, knocking their heads like garlic, sweating like rain.

"What are you doing?" Li Yun said.

"Boss, I was wrong, I am not a human being!"

Hey, Zhu Dayou slapped himself, and the boss next to him did the same. The two of them slapped so hard that their faces were swollen.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Make a face to the world and prove the strength of Baiyun Technology! By the way, he had a face in front of the people of Longyang County. Reward experience value +20 million, all attributes +10000, colorful gift bag*1, extra reward: strong artificial intelligence.

Option 2: Continue to ignore, wait for the company's response, reward skill: Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles (passive, endurance improved).

Option 3: Leave without reward. "

Option event again? Li Yun focused his attention on the first item. The rewards have become higher and higher with his tolerance, and now he has reached the level of colorful gifts, and the real artificial intelligence technology that also rewards is far from the mobile phone intelligence born out of automatic driving. The voice is comparable to Xiao Xiaoyu.

Yes, it's time to wrap up!

If you bear it any longer, you will truly become a Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle.

"Okay, get me up!"

Li Yun stopped them, the hotel banquet hall was quiet, everyone was afraid to speak, for fear of offending the chairman of Baiyun Technology.

The bosses were even more horrified. The boyfriend of Fang's daughter is indeed from Zhonghai City, and he started a large company with a market value of 100 billion at a young age!

After learning that Li Yun was the chairman of Baiyun Technology, their perception of Baiyun Technology was suddenly reversed.

Don't look at the nonsense in the news. Looking at Baiyun Technology as a stupid company, but the chairman really stands in front of you, it will still make people feel full of pressure.

"Li Yun?" The only one who dared to speak was Fang Xue.

She tilted her head to look at Li Yun, a little worried for him. After a day of fermentation, Fang Xue read news and forums, and even foreign media, all mocking Baiyun Technology, and now Longyang County people are also mocking him...

"I'm fine."

Li Yun waved his hand and looked around with deep eyes for a week: "Aren't you going to see Baiyun Technology, does it have the ability to make the world's mobile phone manufacturers surrender? Then I will show you!"

Chapter 1808: Really Fragrant (Part 1)

Zhou Tao, the common name of an ordinary young man, but has an unusual job:

Weibo blogger with 3 million followers.

The Weibo name is

Relying on his flexible information gathering ability, his sensitivity to global technology, plus a little bit of brilliant text, Zhou Tao is a small blogger on Weibo, and he can get a big ticket every time he posts Weibo. The masses, or people in the technology circle reply and forward.

"Three million likes, one million comments, nearly 500,000 reposts, and more than 100,000 followers a day, so cool!"

On this day, Zhou Tao was lying comfortably on the sofa and swiping Weibo, watching the blog post he posted yesterday about Baiyun Technology, and refreshing the data every moment. The number of comments has skyrocketed, making Zhou Tao even better. It is refreshing.

"Sure enough, the people who eat melons like to watch fools say cross talk, hahaha!"

"Fortunately, Baiyun Technology is such a stupid company that dares to say that global mobile phone manufacturers turn in 80% of the profits. I don't know if their chairman's brain is broken? By the way, who is the chairman of Baiyun Technology? "

Zhou Tao was triumphant at the moment. He accurately grasped the hot spot, so that the people who eat melons flocked to see Baiyun Technology's jokes, and then guided a little bit with a small situation to talk about a few stalks, so as to make this hot spot even more popular.

For example: three years of acquisition of fruit companies, redefining mobile phones, global tribute, redefining "definition", 300 billion A round of financing and so on.

Especially the first three stalks, both joyful and funny, and unruly and heroic, are simply the perfect spreading template for Internet buzzwords!

Zhou Tao can almost conclude that this year's top ten buzzwords must have a place for Baiyun Technology!

"Good."

Seeing his fast-rising fans, Zhou Tao was so happy from ear to ear, he decided to open a few more trumpets to bring rhythm under his own large Weibo, deliberately supporting Baiyun Technology, and "fighting wits and courage" with those normal people. Both parties You come and talk, so as to create a stronger opinion point.

So, sometimes the brain fans you see on the Internet are actually the celebrity team behind it.

If there are brain-remaining fans, there will naturally be black fans, which will evolve into the whole network black, regardless of black or praise, the current Internet age traffic is everything, until the end of the black, we will do some public welfare whitewashing, and make a wave of tears to successfully transform.

It's beautiful again.

"Hehe, come on foolish netizens, come and scold me!"

Zhou Tao enthusiastically published a blog post supporting Baiyun Technology and patiently waited for the first reply.

"I agree with your opinion!"

What?

Zhou Tao suspected that he had sent the wrong comment. Take a second look. That's right, he praised Baiyun Technology for its awesomeness, winning glory for the country, and allowing global mobile phone manufacturers to pay tribute to the comments. How could anyone agree with it?

"I, Cao, do you really have a fan of Baiyun Technology?" Zhou Tao, who pretended to be a black fan, was shocked. Sure enough, there are so many fools in the world!

"Agree!" replied the next day.

"Yes, we have all been slapped, alas, Baiyun Technology is really awesome!" Article 3.

"I'm blind. From now on, you and I will be Baiyun Technology's stubborn fans. Come, everyone and me read: Baiyun Technology is awesome!"

"Baiyun Technology is awesome!"

"Global tribute!"

"Global tribute +1, hahaha, I can't wait to see how foreign news will comment."

"Baiyun Technology is awesome, global tribute! / Laughing and crying, my face is swollen, hiss!"

Zhou Tao: "..."

He was completely shocked!

Chapter 1809: Really Fragrant (Part 2)

As soon as he refreshed the large Weibo, many words came up to support Baiyun Technology, and Zhou Tao almost doubted whether his eyes were faulty.

"No, this TM is the navy of Baiyun Technology!"

In an instant, Zhou Tao came back to his senses, and immediately took screenshots of all these navy forces, and then immediately uploaded the screenshots to and uploaded the screenshots with the text:

"For everyone to watch, whether it is a navy or not, you have the final say!"

This is his useful routine. He never expresses his opinions, but guides netizens to make their own judgments. The results obtained by this are often better than saying all.

However.

This time, he miscalculated.

"Exme? When did I become Baiyun Technology's navy?"

"Front row, blogger Sidibi."

"666, onlookers Sunspot."

"Myna, you are wrong, now Baiyun Technology is so awesome, they are not navy!"

"Oh no, I am indeed the navy of Baiyun Technology, tap water!"

"Tap water +1, Baiyun Technology is awesome!"

"Tap water +2. Baiyun Technology is awesome! Bloggers are stupid +1!"

After every comment was brushed out, Zhou Tao was about to vomit blood.

Under what circumstances, how did the wind turn around all at once?

"Are you a navy?"

Zhou Tao was very angry. He thought that he had been in the Internet for many years, and he had contacted more navy forces than normal people had eaten. Now Baiyun Technology navy forces went to his Weibo to spread the wild!

Immediately, Zhou Tao and the people in the comments tore it apart.

"You TM are the navy! No, you are the sunspot!"

"Not the navy? Do you also think that Baiyun Technology can buy a fruit company in three years? Or do you think it can make global companies claim tribute? Don't show the lower limit of IQ, okay?"

"Sorry, Baiyun Technology doesn't need three years, it only takes two years to buy a fruit company."

"Send you two words: ha ha."

"I also give you two words: silly ratio!"

"Laughs, isn't this blogger from Mars? Now I don't know that Baiyun Technology has released dry goods, and it is still the top black technology dry goods that shocked the world!"

"Mars saves the blogger."

I'm Cao!

Seeing this in the comments, Zhou Tao cursed directly.

Shocking the world?

The foolish behavior of Baiyun Technology is indeed shocking, but unfortunately it is not black technology, but IQ!

"I don't believe it anymore. Baiyun Technology's Weibo can't be said to be a mess? Still running water, I'm sucking!"

Zhou Tao, who was extremely upset, immediately clicked on Baiyun Technology's Weibo, took a look, and immediately cursed: "What JB stuff? The world's first smart phone is about to come out? Please, the era of smart phones has come for 13 years. It's exactly what you want. The global smartphone era started after the acquired fruit company released the fourth generation of fruit!"

To this day, Zhou Tao still feels the awe-inspiring feeling brought by that fruit 4th generation conference, and now this Weibo of Baiyun Technology is simply insulting the * in his mind!

"Grass, see if I won't scold you to death. Ah, there is a link? What...it's pretty big, more than 500M."

Zhou Tao patiently downloaded the software released by Baiyun Technology. While waiting, he clicked on the comment below.

"Open a new era, strong! [/thumbs]"

"Great plus!!"

"My mother, people are stupid, tell me this is not true!"

"Don't say anything, Baiyun Technology is awesome!"

"Baiyun Technology is awesome! By the way, when will the phone be released? I can accept it below 100,000 yuan!"

Chapter 1810: His face was beaten and swollen (top)

What shocked Zhou Tao was that the comments were all good reviews, and there was no yin-yang curse at all. Even if there were, they were irritable guys who directly cursed without downloading the software, but after he downloaded the software to try it out, he immediately came back to beat himself. s face.

"I'm Cao...really?"

Zhou Tao began to feel suspicious, and when the software was downloaded, he immediately installed it into the phone.

After enduring patiently to grant more than a dozen licenses to the software, Zhou Tao finally entered the main interface. A three-headed cute girl wearing a serious black skirt appeared on the screen and said in an emotionless tone:

"Hosts are welcome to use this software. Please note that this software is still in the testing stage, and all functions are restricted...Lala~, how about it? Have you been fooled by Xiaoxiaoyu?"

What? !

Zhou Tao was so shocked that his jaw almost fell. What is Baiyun Technology doing? Arranged this kind of nonsense opening remarks!

"Test, test, understand!"

Zhou Tao vaguely changed his opinion. After all, the ancient Q version of the * the screen is really cute, and the performance is also very good. The cute round face expression is extremely rich, which makes people suspect that the 500M is full of animation.

"Yes, Xiaoyu is in the testing phase." The cute girl snapped her fingers and changed her clothes: "Let me introduce to the owner what Xiaoyu can do at this stage."

"...?"

Zhou Tao was shocked, "Can this software answer my questions?"

"Of course, Xiao Xiaoyu is not a fool!"

"I'm Cao!"

"Master... swearing is bad, Xiao Xiaoyu hates bad guys who swear!"

"Uh."

"Hehe, I will forgive you this time. By the way, I'm back to the topic. Xiao Xiaoyu hasn't introduced him to the master yet."

"..."

Fifteen minutes later, Zhou Tao recovered from the huge shock. His whole person was in a kind of intense excitement, his head floated, forgetting time and location, as if the whole world was following him. Cheers, everything becomes better.

"Little cute, help me open Weibo."

Yes, Zhou Tao changed Xiao Xiaoyu's name to become a cute!

"and then?"

"Delete my last Weibo, that's the Weibo of the netizen."

"Hey... the master is really bad, and Little Cutie can see from the master's message that the master always scolds people!"

The ancient style girl showed a contemptuous expression, and Zhou Tao accompanied a smiling face and said: "I'm eating too much, please don't tell others!"

"Hee hee, don't worry, cute me, once installed, I'm completely the owner's person, and I won't tell anyone else, including the creator of cute, the creator has the right to let me disappear, but I will never betray my master!" Little cutie clenched his fists and made a firm expression.

The creator is Baiyun Technology.

Zhou Tao understands that this means that Baiyun Technology reserves the ability to delete any "xiaoxiaoyu" in the world and ask her to stop the service, but has no right to collect any user information, nor will it reveal the contents of the user's mobile phone.

For example, Little Cutie knows that he is a rhythmic man and is an online navy, but he will not reveal it on the initiative, let alone report to the police.

"Awesome!"

Zhou Tao kissed the cute little cutie on the phone screen fiercely. He immediately deleted the last Weibo, thought about it, and kept the first blog post with rhythm, as a black history to warn himself.

Then, another Weibo was posted.

"Now my Weibo is sent by Baiyun Technology's artificial intelligence voice assistant Little Cute. First of all, I express my deep apologies to Baiyun Technology, I'm sorry!

Once again, I feel sad for my stupidity and ignorance. Huang Xuanguo's artificial intelligence has surpassed the world and officially possesses... the power of global tribute!

Yes, global tribute! We, Huang Xuanguo, have this strength! ! ! "

Weibo is boiling.
