

Godly Choice 1831

Chapter 1831: Thank you, your voice is not good

"Please, please come in!" The principal of No. 1 Middle School made a please gesture. As the principal, he was under considerable pressure in front of this young lady of the college entrance examination.

Sage Fanqing nodded slightly, and walked toward the school gate with his feet wearing ordinary women's canvas shoes.

"It doesn't have to be like this next time."

"?"

"The Lord Saint means that those of you who are welcome don't have to come next time, just let the Lord Saint go in by yourself! Really, Lord Saintess is not a child, she knows where to go... Ah! Saintess Your lord, wait for Qingzhu!"

The little maid quickly wanted to keep up, but was stopped by Saint Fan Qing.

"You don't want to go in."

"Eh?"

Sage Fanqing pointed to the entrance of the school, where there was a red sign with the words "Parents Stopped" written on it.

Qingzhu blinked his big cute eyes, "My Lord Saint, but I'm not a parent, I'm just your maid!"

"..."

Everyone can't laugh or cry, it's rare that the sign has to write "The Maid Stopped"?

"You are waiting outside."

Leaving the little maid a light and flirty word, let her succeed on the spot, Van Qing Sheng stepped into the campus of No. 1 Middle School.

Although she is just a very ordinary pace, but the audience inexplicably feel that there is a sense of beauty that is like a fairy, like a fairy walking in the clouds, with a wonderful expression and a beautiful posture.

With her previous words, the leaders did not dare to go forward to send each other, and could only watch the fairy leave.

Fortunately, the principal has a solution.

He winked at a female classmate, and the girl understood and quickly followed Fanqing Sheng.

"Hello, classmates, my name is Liu Ruorui, the president of the student union of my No. 1 Middle School."

".....Um."

"Classmate, you also came to take the college entrance examination? I'm sorry, I'm a little curious. No foreign student has ever come here for the college entrance examination in No. 1 Middle School, hehe."

"Um."

"By the way, where is your examination room? I'll take you there, I'm afraid you are not familiar with No. 1 Middle School."

"46 examination room, thank you."

"Ah, no thanks, no thanks, hehe, your voice is so nice!"

Liu Ruorui, who received the task of the principal, was very excited. The fairy in front of her was very beautiful. Even though she was also a girl, she didn't like girls, but who wouldn't like to see beautiful things?

Moreover, the fairy is not only good-looking, but also has a good-sounding voice. It is the first time that Liu Ruorui, who has a mysterious origin, a cheerful personality and a wide range of friends, has an urge to make friends with people!

She vaguely felt that as long as making friends with this fairy, it would definitely be of great benefit to the future!

"Thank you, your voice is not good."

"?What did you say?"

"Thank you, your voice is not good."

"...???"

Liu Ruorui almost doubted her ears, why did this fairy suddenly scold her in a bad voice? !

Bad voice = bad sound = annoying her?

"sorry!"

"Why apologize?"

"?"

The two puzzled each other, Liu Ruorui followed her out of a distance with a dazed expression, confused in her mind, looking stupidly at the fairy walking around the teaching building with the admission ticket, and successfully attracted the attention of countless students who were still doing the final review. Liu Ruorui suddenly realized.

"I praised her for her good voice, so she pointed out that my voice was not good?"

Liu Ruorui, who followed the Sage Fanqing, looked at her in tears, classmate, no, classmate fairy, you are too "honest"!

It is really beautiful like a fairy of nine days. She does not eat the fireworks and has no mundane thoughts. Her mind is so pure that Liu Ruorui, who is an ordinary person, is incomprehensible, and she feels extremely shocked.

"Student Fairy...No, Fan Qingsheng, please wait, go here, Exam Room No. 46 is here!!"

Chapter 1832: come on

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Get the first place in the national college entrance examination, reward: to be determined, additional reward: the skills below the master level will be upgraded by one level.

Option 2: Become the top scorer in Zhonghai City, reward experience value +10 million, all attributes +1 million, golden gift bag*5, extra reward: upgrade to doctoral level in six disciplines.

Option 3: Get the champion of Zhonghai City, reward experience value +3 million, all attributes +2000, golden gift bag*1. "

On the first day of the college entrance examination, when Li Yun opened his eyes early in the morning, he received a prompt from the system, which caused his sleepiness to dissipate and he sat up vigorously.

"Um~, I still want to... sleep, sleep."

The little princess in him was wearing pink bear pajamas. She was still asleep and made a vague protest. Li Yun squeezed her cute face amusedly, put her back in the cup, and covered her with a thin blanket.

Recently, he rarely slept on his own, either with the little princess or with Li Feng, but recently he had to take the college entrance examination, and the time with Li Feng was much less. After all, he had to recharge and prepare for this life test.

"No. 1 in the national college entrance examination? How to do it?"

Looking back at the system's option prompt, Li Yun frowned.

Although the national senior high school candidates all take the exam on the same day, the college entrance examination papers of each province are different, such as the national I paper, the national II paper, the Zhonghai city paper, the Suzhou paper and so on.

The so-called college entrance examination champions actually refer to the provincial champions, at most six province champions in the national I volume. Even if Li Yun scores 10,000 in the exam, he is not expected to satisfy the first option of the system!

"What is certain is that if you want to become a champion, you must take an exam, but I can't take the exams in all provinces at the same time. I can only take the exam after the college entrance examination is over!"

"Should Xia Ming arrange the exam for me alone? That would be too 'privileged'! And it may not be recognized by everyone—systemic urinary sex, it is estimated that most people recognize me as the national champion."

Li Yun has strong self-confidence in his own strength. The only question now is how to take the exam in an upright manner and pass the review.

"Exams... you need an exam room, test papers, an invigilator, and then you need to mark the papers to get a score... I probably know how to do it!"

A smile appeared at the corner of Li Yun's mouth. There was no examination room, so he would create an examination room!

"Little Shu'e, I'm leaving."

I kissed the cute face of Princess Yongning who was sleeping, and Li Yun was very satisfied. Zhu Shue's figure was petite and exquisite. Although she was fifteen or six years old, she was still like an underdeveloped elementary school girl. This may be related to her long-term illness.

Li Yun hasn't gotten to the point where the beasts attacked her. Most of the time, he seemed to be loving his sister or daughter.

After washing and washing, Caiwei and Caixia have already prepared breakfast for him and Li Feng. The twin sisters usually wait for Li Yun and Li Feng to make breakfast. They woke up early today, and in turn took care of their brothers and sisters.

"Brother, come on!"

"Sister, come on!"

The sisters held small pink fists, their eyes shining brightly to cheer on Li Yun and Li Feng.

Two members of the family participated in the college entrance examination, it was wrong, there was one more thing: Brother's sister-in-law, and sister Fang Xue also participated.

"Don't worry, my brother will definitely get a national champion for you to see!"

Li Yun "pretended to be forced" in front of his sisters with great affection, causing his sister Li Feng to roll his eyes, and muttered: "Returning the national champion, you are also the Zhonghai city champion, and you have to be careful that your girlfriend crushes you on your head. superior."

"Hehehe~"

The sisters snickered, and sister-in-law Fang Xue's grades were also very good, and her brother might not have beaten her.

If your elder brother loses, it will definitely be Sister-in-law Fang Xue at home in the future... No, regardless of whether your brother wins or not, Sister-in-law Fang Xue has the final say!

Chapter 1833: Director pick-up

Because the college entrance examination requisitioned part of the classrooms for junior high school students, the Caixia sisters did not go to class, and Li Yun did not need them to send them. They stayed at home and waited at ease. It would be nice to go shopping for vegetables and come back at noon.

"Li Yun, oops, you have finally settled down, otherwise I will have to call you... Forget it, hurry up, the car is ready for you, we will go to school now!"

As soon as Li Yun and his sister came downstairs, the director of the Political Education Office of Zhicai Middle School greeted him with enthusiasm, and eagerly pulled him to a car next to him.

"... Director, you don't seem to see me?" Li Feng stood still, dumbfounding.

"Uh, classmate Li Feng, cough cough, go together, go together!"

The director of the Political Education Office greeted her embarrassingly.

Li Feng's grades are actually top-notch in any school. Top class, excellent class, and experimental class are all easy to enter.

However, the light of her brother Li Yun was so dazzling that others ignored her.

Fortunately, Li Feng and Li Yun's sister and brother are very close. She doesn't care about this, otherwise she has to be grudging.

"Trouble the Director."

Li Yun and his sister were sitting in the back of the car, and they were polite with the master of the Political and Education Office. It is estimated that the principal arranged for him to come. The purpose is to let Li Yun take the college entrance examination smoothly and unmistakably and win glory for Zhicai Middle School!

"It's no trouble, how can it be troublesome!" The director smiled, "Zicai Middle School, no, Longyang County has never been a champion since the establishment of the new Huang Xuanguo, even from the ancient imperial examination to the college entrance examination. Oh! Of course, Li Feng, you have to work hard too, maybe you can be the top scorer with your brother, hahaha!"

Both sisters and brothers are perfect score champions, which is definitely enough to speak out!

Of course, both the director and Li Feng knew that they were just thinking about it.

The first mock exam was far less difficult than the college entrance examination, and in the second and third mock exams, Li Feng only scored about 720 points, including Fang Xue.

Although Li Yun did not participate in the subsequent mock test, his strength is undoubtedly No. 1, belonging to the legendary level of Jianghu!

The car arrived at the gate of the school, and the atmosphere of the college entrance examination suddenly rushed over.

There are parents who come to give off their children everywhere. Banners full of blessings are hung on the school gates and fences. A huge banner is also hung in the teaching building: I wish all senior high school students of Zhicai Middle School a smooth exam, and the title of the gold list!

Li Yun wiped his forehead, but fortunately, the principal did not name him.

"Student Li Yun, can you do a simple interview?! What do you think of the next college entrance examination?!"

As soon as he got off the car, Li Yun was surrounded by a group of spears and cannons-reporters from various media and news websites could not wait to interview the first genius of Zhonghai City and ask him about his views on the next college entrance examination.

Not far away, on a red Mercedes-Benz, a girl with a model figure wearing big sunglasses was stunned on the spot.

She had seen Li Yun's eyes light up, and was about to trot over to surprise him, but now so many reporters are present...

"Ah, I just remembered that the reporters were here to cover the college entrance examination today, and it is reasonable to interview Li Yun."

"Hmm, I'll just wait."

The beautiful girl wearing big sunglasses waited patiently in the car, looking at Li Yun all the time. The love and eagerness in her eyes made the agent behind the car frown.

"Is it really like what it said in the trail lace news...Xianxian and Li Yun have a male-female relationship?!"

Chapter 1834: Goal, No. 1 in the country

"I don't have any opinion." Li Yun shrugged and smiled in front of a bunch of microphones surrounding him: "The college entrance examination is very important. I hope that all senior high school students across the country can show their strength and don't leave any regrets! "

"Uh!"

Many reporters are crazy, they are not asking like this!

For the first mock test, because of Li Yun's participation, the popularity of the mock test in Zhonghai City was scary on the Internet, and the reportable value was also very high.

Just as the reporters were gearing up to interview Li Yun during the second mock test. When the big traffic news came out, Li Yun ran away... The people disappeared, so they didn't take the second mock test and let a group of people wait in school. The reporters at the door were dumbfounded on the spot.

Now that I finally reached the college entrance examination, the reporters can be regarded as catching him!

"Student Li Yun!" The reporter of the New Youth Daily directly pointed out the question everyone wanted to ask: "I mean, do you have an estimate of your score and ranking? I heard that in Zhonghai City, the first middle school and third school There are many talents in the middle school and the experimental middle school, and they all want to beat you in this college entrance examination!"

This is a matter of course.

As an international metropolis, Zhonghai City has millions of students and 100,000 high school third-year candidates. It has abundant educational resources and a gathering of talented elites.

However, for the first mock exam, a student from a private school in Longyang County won the first place. How could the geniuses of Zhonghai City bear it?

We must know that most of the students in Zhonghai City are middle-class people who are not bad at money. Many students have already set their sights on famous foreign schools and don't care about the scores of the college entrance examination.

but!

Don't care, doesn't mean they can be crushed by a hillbilly from Longyang County!

Including Song Yidao, Cheng Zhixin, Liu Ruorui and other geniuses who are expected to hit the top prize, all have geared up, waiting for the arrival of the college entrance examination today!

"Song Yidao?"

Hearing the reporter's question, Li Yun smiled: "I am not familiar with this classmate, but he and mine should have different goals."

"Different goals?"

The reporters were confused. Song Yidao, a genius who was familiar with netizens all over the country because of the "Genius Challenge", his goal is undoubtedly to defeat Li Yun and become the only champion in Zhonghai City.

Isn't Li Yun's goal to be the top pick? He flinched? !

"My goal is: No. 1 in the country!"

Throwing a loud voice, Li Yun took Li Feng's little hand and walked into the school gate.

All, first in the country! ! ?

The reporters were dumbfounded, and the beautiful girl with the perfect body of the model wearing sunglasses in the car not far away was also stunned.

How to become the first in the country?

After a while, there was a burst of cheers from the surrounding Zhicai Middle School candidates:

"Brother Li is awesome! Brother Li learns God and helps me run the college entrance examination smoothly!"

"Learning God is invincible!"

"Woohoo, Li Geshen bless my composition to be correct!"

The chaotic cheers, like thunderous bursts, made many parents look at each other, and they all knew from their children the existence of the genius Li Yun. Now it seems that the prestige of this brother Li in Zhicai Middle School is more than imagined. It's even scary.

"Ahem, everyone is awesome, come on together!"

With such enthusiastic cheers, Li Yun could only bite the bullet and respond, followed by another burst of cheers. The enthusiasm of everyone was encouraged to the extreme, and he waited for the first course that started at 9 o'clock!

The reporters quickly took this scene, combined with Li Yun's previous words, enough to be reported as good news.

However, when Li Yun was about to walk into the campus, and reporters thought that this morning's news was only this, a familiar, crisp woman shouted.

"Li Yun!!!"

Chapter 1835: Fairy sister

Everyone was stunned, because the voice was so familiar. Many of them didn't even hear the woman's voice from their mobile phones or MP3s.

It's just that what I heard from the phone was singing, and now the girl called out Li Yun's name.

"Xianxian?!"

Li Yun immediately recognized the person, turned his head in surprise, and saw a tall figure of over 1.7 meters, wearing a khaki shirt with light blue jeans, a playful and lively style, with her temperament. A touch of immortality looks extremely dazzling.

The crowd suddenly calmed down, and everyone looked at her with wide-eyed eyes.

After a long time, there was a burst of cheers that were more enthusiastic than before.

"It's Xianxian!!"

"I'm Cao, I'm the fairy sister!"

"Fairy Buns!!! Real people!!!"

"Wow, sister Xianxian asks for an autograph!"

A group of people rushed over like crazy. Fortunately, Liu Xianxian, an international star, was prepared for a long time. A group of bodyguards stopped the crowd in time. She calmed the crowd with her excellent eloquence. Then, Liu Xianxian ran over and gave him a hand. Pounced into Li Yun's embrace.

Three full turns!

"Surprise?"

Liu Xianxian, the big star who is called the fairy sister and the fairy buns by fans, has a happy smile on his beautiful face, and he put his arms around Li Yun's neck triumphantly and asked. The appearance of being intimate with him makes everyone Just look dumbfounded.

"I'm Cao!"

After the reporters recovered, they pressed the shutter like crazy and photographed Liu Xianxian's happy and beautiful smiling face.

"...I think I must be the front page headline today."

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry and put her down, Liu Xianxian's bright eyes were full of smiles, but he didn't hinder his movements or leaned forward to kiss her, lest the big news really broke out.

——As an international star has a boyfriend, it is big news in any country.

"You are already a front page headline!"

Liu Xianxian glared at him angrily, then turned to say hello to Li Feng-as her future aunt, it would be rude to ignore it all the time.

Li Feng responded with a smile, but secretly gave his brother a compliment in his heart.

She still can't believe that, as a big star, Liu Xianxian will be taken down by her brother and become her sister-in-law.

More importantly, Liu Xianxian still knew the existence of Fang Xue and other women, but was still willing to be with her brother.

"My brother's charm is really amazing! But, too much is not good, let him relax a bit, lest there are all girls in the house."

Li Feng and Fang Xue have slightly different thoughts. For her, it would be great for Li Yun to have a few confidantes. After all, it is her younger brother. It is also the duty of being an older sister to make her younger brother happy.

"Xianxian, come with me."

Li Yun cheered and brought Liu Xianxian into the campus. Although today's Zhicai Middle School prohibits all parents and outsiders from entering, Liu Xianxian is a student of Zhonghai City, shouldn't it matter?

Liu Xianxian smiled and waved to the surrounding classmates, and Li Yun held hands and entered Zhicai Middle School.

—Now even a fool can guess the relationship between her and Li Yun, but unfortunately, as long as Liu Xianxian does not admit it for a day, outsiders can only guess.

There were still many students watching on campus, but it was much better than outside. Li Feng also left and went to the classroom, allowing the two to have a time alone.

Li Yun, who was chatting unintentionally, took Liu Xianxian directly to a small forest in the distance of the playground. The two looked around like thief, and after secretly confirming that there was no one around, they hugged each other intimately and hugged each other warmly. To kiss.

Chapter 1836: Fairy buns

I have to say that the private schools in the county seat are good, the schools are also big, and the playgrounds are also big.

In addition, today is the first day of the college entrance examination. There are only third-year candidates in the school, and no one will come to the playground.

As a result, the couple, who hadn't seen each other for two months, spent a blushing and heart-pounding fifteen minutes.

"Yes, okay? Big bad guy~!"

The big star Liu Xianxian, who is loved by countless fans all over the world, is called the fairy sister. His pure and immortal temperament has disappeared. The original bright and clear eyes are full of shame at the moment, and the water is shining, with indescribable tenderness and honey. , Reaching out to stop Li Yun's next move.

"Big villain, it really doesn't work!"

Liu Xianxian bit his lip. Although the two of them had already sat down, surrounded by flower gardens, but when she and Li Yun came here just now, many students saw it, maybe someone followed?

Li Yun blinked innocently, "I don't want to do anything, I just want to hug my fairy!"

"Huh, ghosts believe you... No, ghosts don't believe me!"

Liu Xianxian didn't know the existence of Nie Xiaoqian, but she and Li Yun had seen zombies in Donggou Village, so they said that ghosts didn't believe in this big villain.

"Haha, okay, let's talk next."

Li Yun almost had the urge to bring Liu Xianxian into the Lotus Immortal Mansion just now. As long as he enters the Immortal Mansion, wouldn't this fairy bun be let him be bullied?

"What are you talking about?" Liu Xianxian's mind was empty at the moment, his eyes leaning in Li Yunqi's eyes blurred, and he didn't want to think about anything. He even forgot the purpose of coming to Longyang County. He just wanted to hold Li Yun and feel that he could let him. Her breath of peace of mind.

"Xianxian finished your documentary?"

When Li Yun mentioned this incident, Liu Xianxian was a little more sober, with a bright smile on his beautiful and innocent face: "Well, all the filming is over, and I will wait for the post-editing and dubbing. Ah, I feel that this time the documentary film is really very good. It's worth it. I saw a lot of things that I thought were only from the last era... The children in the mountain villages really had a hard time."

Li Yun and her were sitting on the side of the playground and chatting slowly. In Liu Xianxian's narration, she learned that she was actually very confused at this time last year. Especially after the college entrance examination, Liu Xianxian, who had already succeeded, didn't know what to do in the future. It doesn't seem to make much sense for her to go to college.

Therefore, after planning a summer vacation, Liu Xianxian chose to take a year off from school to shoot a documentary.

"And then~"

Fairy Bun's voice became cheerful and playful, "I met a big bad guy who changed my life from the first shooting location in Zhonghai City, and was taken away by this bad guy, huh!"

"Body and mind?" Li Yun scanned Liu Xianxian's graceful figure with his scanner-like eyes, and said with a smirk: "Why didn't I remember taking someone's body? Ah, or just now..."

"What do you want to do? Don't mess around, you have to take the college entrance examination later...Um!"

Before Liu Xianxian's words were finished, Li Yun's lips were blocked again, so that Sister Shenxian could only use her small pink fist to hammer him in protest, and she soon lost her energy.

"Li Yun."

After the separation, Liu Xianxian's eyes were blurred and he panted slightly: "I will report to China Overseas University in September. You must come too!"

"Well, yes, don't you know my grades yet?"

Chapter 1837: Encouraged by big stars

Li Yun held her little hand and said apologetically: "Besides me, Fang Xue, Li Feng, and Gong Qingyu will also go to Zhonghai University to study..."

"Woohoo!"

Fairy bun is jealous, her mouth is so high, her cheeks are like her when she was a child, full of baby fat, no wonder fans call her Fairy Bunzi.

"Okay, okay, I'm not angry, I was wrong, I apologize!"

Li Yun smiled and rubbed her bulging cheeks, and it took a long time to coax her.

"never mind."

Saying forget it, the bulging cheeks of the fairy buns are higher: "They will be together. Anyway, I know these people... Li Feng is gentle and Fang Xue is good to talk. Although Gong Qingyu is very proud, but Not a bad person either."

Speaking of the confidantes around Li Yun, Liu Xianxian's jealousy disappeared a bit. After all, they are all very good girls. The nickname of Master Saint Fan Qingsheng is even more beautiful than her. The voice of speaking is also very nice.

"Sorry, Xianxian, I wronged you."

"It's fine."

Liu Xianxian took the initiative to hold Li Yun's hand, and said softly: "I have been ready to face this since I regarded you as a boyfriend. This is probably the trouble caused by a good boyfriend."

"Furthermore." Liu Xianxian spit out her little pink tongue again, "I am not a good girlfriend either. After I go to college, I will definitely go out to film movies. When I am no longer at school, let them accompany you, but I When you come back, you must spare time to accompany me, otherwise I will be very jealous!"

"Of course! Xianxian, I will always treat you well!"

Li Yun hugged her tightly. Although what he said was a bit old-fashioned, the men and women in love are like this, and it is too normal to say something nasty.

"Well, let's make an agreement~" Liu Xianxian was pure and full of happiness, and was about to enjoy her boyfriend's embrace. He suddenly woke up and looked at the time quickly:

"Ah, it's broken, it's broken, there are only fifteen minutes left! Go go!"

She hurriedly pushed Li Yun to let him go to the examination room, but Li Yun was not in a hurry, stood up and embraced Liu Xianxian's slender waist with big hands, and gave her a hard kiss in her exclamation.

"Youxianxian came here to give me encouragement. I will definitely get a good score on the test. Come and kiss your husband and me!"

"Woo, big bad guy, big bad guy, Li Yun, you are really big bad guy..."

Liu Xianxian blushed and said, he still stood on tiptoe and kissed him on the cheek. The soft big star's lips smelled of fragrance, and Li Yun was resurrected with blood.

"Enough, enough?" Liu Xianxian left Li Yun's embrace, covering his ruddy mouth with three fingers, and said shyly: "Wait for you to finish the exam, and then..."

"After the exam?!"

Li Yun's eyes lit up, "Xianxian, you haven't worked these days? Okay, then you go to my house and wait for me, and I will go back after the exam."

Liu Xianxian pursed his mouth and smirked, "Aren't your exams fast, right? Ah, forget it, no pressure on you, let's go, I'll wait for you to come out!"

Before Li Yun was moved, he was pushed hard by Liu Xianxian towards the teaching building.

In the last three minutes, Li Yun finally appeared in front of the teaching building, causing all the principals and leaders to weep happily. If this does not appear again, they all want to use the school-wide radio to call people!

"Sorry~"

Liu Xianxian spit out her little tongue, she shouldn't let Li Yun's bad guy keep bullying her, making her almost forget the time.

What she didn't know was that Li Yun had been paying attention to the time. At his speed, let alone fifteen minutes, one minute was enough for him to run back and forth from the playground to the examination room!

Chapter 1838: Song Yidao's Goddess

"Welcome to participate in the 2020 National Uniform Enrollment Examination for General Colleges and Universities. This examination..."

"...Now is the time to check the test papers, please examinees..."

"The exam begins, please start answering the questions."

At 9:30, as the announcement sounded out on the radio, nearly tens of millions of candidates across the country entered the tense test, immersing themselves in writing.

"Huh~!"

Song Yidao took a deep breath and forced his gaze away from the beautiful shadow.

In the morning, he suddenly received a notice from the principal, asking him to change to examination room No. 46 to take the examination with a very special person.

Because the principal and the leadership of the Education Bureau of Zhonghai City personally made the guarantee, Song Yidao didn't doubt anything, but was very curious about who the very special person was, so that the principal and the leadership of the Education Bureau could open it for him.

Green light.

As a result, he was not him, but a fairy with extraordinary beauty, holy and cold temperament, as beautiful as not in the world!

Yes, it's a fairy!

Only a fairy can describe her beauty!

Song Yidao, who won the first place in the national "Genius Challenge" TV program and has already received the admission notice of the world's TOP3 top universities, was shocked on the spot when he saw her, and has not recovered for a long time.

"What a nice view!"

In the 46th examination room, someone unconsciously uttered compliments, and it seems that only these two words can express their feelings at the moment.

Soon, Song Yidao learned about this fairy, whose name was Fan Qingsheng, and only this information was there. Everything else was a mystery.

After the Saint Fanqing came to No. 1 Middle School, he made the No. 1 middle school boil up and down instantly. The former No. 1 middle school students, the president of the student union Liu Ruorui, the dance student Su Xiaolu, the top class student Ye Hui, and the daughter Zhong Lipiao, etc. , All were killed by the fairy in all directions.

The beauty, the temperament, the voice, the demeanor, and even the pomp, the new fairy kills all the Zhonghai No. 1 middle school students.

Not only does she have maids to serve, but also the principal and education leaders personally pick up and drop off her. This scene can be called luxurious!

"When the exam is over, when I get the top pick, I will get to know her again!"

The genius Song Yidao, for the first time developed a strong love for a girl, even the Gong Qingyu from the experimental middle school failed to make him tempted, but as soon as Van Qingsheng appeared, he firmly treated him. My heart is caught!

"As long as I get the champion, she will definitely look at me with admiration. For her, I can give up top foreign universities and stay in China to accompany her to the school that accompanies her!"

Song Yidao struggled to write on the Chinese test paper, and the school asked him and a few top geniuses to come to this examination room, undoubtedly wanting this fairy to lend them a little light, and maybe... secretly turn on the green light.

As a genius, Song Yidao was originally a person who hated this kind of behavior, but if a fairy came to do this kind of thing, he would like to personally write a handwritten test paper for the fairy, so that she would also get a perfect score!

For the goddess, he gave it up!

"The plan is perfect!"

Song Yi said a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, but soon after thinking of something, his smile instantly froze.

"The only imperfect place is...Li Yun in Longyang County!"

"After several months of complimenting Chinese, I will definitely get a full score in the college entrance examination, and my composition will not trouble me. If I get 2 points deducted, Li Yun will definitely be deducted."

"In other words, I and his score are likely to be the same, both are 748 points...Although I have bonus points in the competition, as a genius, I disdain to beat him by this means!"

"Since the scores are the same, then—"

Song Yidao's right hand turned into an afterimage, and he quickly wrote on the test paper: "Come and compare, who will get out of the examination room first!"

Chapter 1839: Roll noodle points, full marks

In the teaching building of Zhicai Middle School, as the signal for the start of the exam was sent out, Li Yun took a deep breath and emptied his head. All the chores were temporarily left behind, including Li Feng, Fang Xue, Liu Xianxian, Caixia Caiwei, and Including Baiyun Technology, Six Doors, Hidden Sacred Valley, Xia Ming.

I don't even think about things that I usually resent, love, and dislike. Li Yun only has test papers in his eyes!

Only test papers!

"The words with dots in the following words and the pronunciation are all correct is: A. Invitation. (tiě) Sanskrit. Text (fán

Li Yun's gaze is not swift and slow, neither speeding up because of the simplicity of the question, nor worrying about the difficulty of the question, everything flows into the water of the mountain stream, slowly flowing down the top of the mountain.

When the water comes, it will happen!

He must carefully review every topic, never make mistakes, and ensure that every word gesture is clear and recognizable, and there is no error in the slightest!

Only in this way can Li Yun guarantee full marks!

You need to pay close attention to review before the college entrance examination, but the more you get to the college entrance examination, the more you have to relax your mind, face it with peace of mind, and defeat it!

Only by facing the college entrance examination can we defeat the college entrance examination!

Go, the seagulls soaring in the storm, through the thorns and thorns, breaking through the wind and waves, can only see the real sunshine!

" ... "

After an hour and a half, Li Yun's active and unrestrained brain cells gradually recovered and calmed down. After slowly exhaling, he picked up the pencil case and stood up.

"?"

"??"

"???"

Is this done? !

In the same examination room, the teachers and classmates looked at him in shock. They had known that Li Yun was quick to answer questions, but it was too fast!

The fastest of the candidates has just begun to write the essay questions. The 800-word essay will take half an hour to write less, leaving half an hour to check the gaps, which is already a good progress.

However, compared with Li Ge, they all seemed too slow.

Leaving them with a smiling face, three test papers and a draft paper, Li Yun walked out of the classroom confidently. After he left, the invigilator came back to his senses and hurriedly put away his test papers so as not to be seen by other students. (In reality, the college entrance examination can only be handed in half an hour in advance)

"This.....!"

The chief invigilator came from outside the school. He had also heard of Li Yun's name. Now after receiving his test paper, he couldn't help but look at it a few more times, and he was shocked.

The handwriting in the test paper is comparable to printed type. Even the ABCD and the Chinese characters in each square are located right in the center. At a glance, this test paper feels really comfortable!

"Rolled noodles, full marks!"

The chief invigilator secretly graded Li Yun's test papers, not to mention anything else, at least the genius who said he wanted to get full marks in the college entrance examination would not lose a point!

What a pity, he is now in the college entrance examination, can not appreciate this super genius and brilliant composition, it is really a pity!

"Don't be influenced, do your own questions, don't compare with others!"

Put the test paper on the podium, the invigilator said in a deep voice.

"How dare we compare with Brother Li."

A classmate whispered and drew a burst of laughter, but because it was the college entrance examination, he quickly calmed down.

Li Yun walked out of the teaching building, did not spend much time on campus, and walked directly to the school gate.

"Someone has come out!"

Suddenly, all the parents and reporters who were waiting at the school gate all looked over.

"Classmate, why do you hand in papers so quickly? Can't you do it?"

"Hahaha, don't you know him? This is a genius from Longyang County, Li Yun!"

Chapter 1840: Out of the examination room

"Sure enough, Brother Li handed in the paper first!"

"Student Li Yun, how difficult is the college entrance examination this time?"

"Uh, I don't think I can get an answer even if I ask it, it's all simple."

A group of parents waited for two or three hours under the strong summer sun. Now they are all sweating and their faces are flushed. But after seeing Li Yun, they all rushed over, and they can't wait to know the number one in the examination room. First-hand information!

The reporters were actually squeezed out, and they couldn't do interviews.

"The test paper is okay." In the face of the enthusiastic and eager parents, Li Yun could only answer with a smile: "I don't remember that there are particularly difficult questions, but the composition questions are a little bad for the purpose of reviewing the questions."

Oops!

When I heard that the essay question was difficult, a group of parents changed their faces. A reporter outside the room hurriedly shouted: "Student Li Yun, what is the essay question this year?"

"Time changes." Li Yun replied.

"era?!"

The parents became anxious.

"This is terrible. My daughter doesn't know if I can answer the propositions of the age."

"Oh, so is my bastard. Normal composition is not good. I don't know where to go to the side topic now!"

"Don't worry too much. The proposition is big and there are few chances to prove the off-topic. Although a good literary composition is more difficult to come up with, it still has an advantage for students with average grades!"

"Oh, remember, when the children come out, we don't show a worried expression, so as not to put pressure on them and affect the next subject!"

"Of course, don't worry, you all remember."

"Huh? Why does the exam end in one hour? My god, classmate Li Yun, you are too fast to do the questions!"

Poor parents in the world, parents are also broken for their children.

Li Yun hurriedly walked towards the target-a car surrounded by a few bodyguards. There was already a beautiful and innocent beauty standing beside the car, looking at him with a bottle of mineral water smiling.

"How was your test?" Liu Xianxian handed him the frozen mineral water, and asked: "There is still ice watermelon in the car, do you want to eat? Hehe, see how nice I am to you, I specially prepared you to cool off the heat. Thing, thank me soon!"

"Successful in the exam, thank you for the reward~"

"Little Lizi is flat~~...Hahaha, hate it, they are not Lafayette!"

Liu Xianxian smiled and took Li Yun's hand into the car. The car was air-conditioned. It was very comfortable in the summer of June. As for the bodyguards, they can only stay in the shade of the trees. This is also their job...

It's a pity that Li Yun wanted to be in love with Xianxian in the car, but she didn't expect her agent to sit in the front row with a cheek, it seemed that Liu Xianxian's words and deeds were deliberately supervised!

Li Yun and this agent met once and knew that she was Sister Zhang, she was about thirty-five years old, she was not married, and her personality was very popular. She was very good to Liu Xianxian, but she was too stingy. He only focused on the entertainment industry and always paid attention to maintaining Liu Xianxian The image has reached the point of demanding.

Therefore, now that Li Yun and Liu Xianxian are so close, Sister Zhang is particularly uncomfortable.

"Xianxian, I have to warn you." Sister Zhang said in a deep voice: "Within today, there will be many news about you and this classmate Li Yun. You must be mentally prepared. In addition, I need to find The company's public relations divert the public's attention, otherwise, this matter will surely spread!"

She spoke very vaguely, but Liu Xianxian understood.

"Let them pass it."

"what!?"

"I said-let them pass it!"
