

Godly Choice 1901

Chapter 1901: Dare not dare

"How do you call them?"

With a faint smile on Lai Yongsì's handsome face, he walked forward confidently as if he was holding a winning ticket, and looked at Li Yun: "Look at my friend, you are also a practitioner, who has studied martial arts for several years. No wonder I can easily beat my brother in the car just now."

"I haven't practiced martial arts, don't talk nonsense."

Li Yun did not practice martial arts. He only gained a strong strength by relying on system rewards. Six months ago, he did not practice martial arts for a day.

"Huh, don't you admit it?"

Lai Yongsì lowered his face: "It just so happens that I have a friend who is on the mountain, who has also learned martial arts, dare you to go up the mountain and compete with him?"

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Agree to the opponent's invitation to fight, reward experience value + 1 million, free attribute points + 3000, purple gift bag * 1, a small probability to cause the anger of the whole group.

Option 2: Reject, and follow each other quietly to see exactly what they want to do! Reward: To be determined, additional reward: Justice value +500.

Choice 3: Ignore it, and it's important to travel with your sister and fiancée. Reward skills: love beauty but don't love the country (passive, can make girls more easily moved), extra reward: skin whitening and beauty pill*2. "

The corner of Li Yun's mouth twitched, and the passiveness of loving beauty or not? Yes, the system!

"Dare you?!" Bu Junxian said provocatively. He was already upset. After learning that there are many martial arts practitioners in the so-called Quanyi View, Bu Junxian wanted to let Brother Lai invite them to take action. , Beat Li Yun severely!

"Don't dare."

With a word from Li Yun, Li Feng and Fang Xue were surprised to look at him. Bu Junxian was overjoyed, and was about to laugh at him. Li Yun said again: "I'm afraid that I would lose my hand and give the whole view a fire. , So let's forget about the competition."

Everyone was shocked.

"...My Cao!"

After a long while, Bu Junxian popped out these two words, looking at Li Yun like a madman, "Forget Brother Lai, this man is crazy, don't mess with him, let's go!"

His three school sisters also nodded in agreement, saying that they burned other people's Taoism, not a lunatic.

"If you have a kind, go to Taihuang Mountain!"

The radical method was invalid, and Lai Yongsu could only drop a sentence, and went up the mountain with the four in grief.

Fortunately, four fools are enough this time.

"Li Yun."

Watching them walk up the mountain, Fang Xue looked at him weirdly: "Why don't I know you are so...unreasonable? It's just like those big villains!"

"What? My Xiaoxue is scared?" Li Yun smiled.

"Huh, nonsense, what am I afraid of? You are not my husband... No, are you not my boyfriend?"

Fang Xue gave Li Yun a roll of eyes and walked forward grinning.

"I also think you have changed a lot, brother." Li Feng echoed.

Li Yun shrugged innocently: "I didn't tell lies. Really, it's easy to burn a Taoist temple after a fight. Didn't I tell you? The last time I went to Aduo Mountain, I just I lifted a volcano."

"Nonsense, Xiao Fengfeng, ignore your brother~~ Hee hee, let's go together!"

"Okay, let my brother eat fart behind us~~~tooth~"

Li Feng gave Li Yun a wink and followed Fang Xue's pace.

"Fart, tooth? Peach? Peach?"

Li Yun couldn't help but look up, and he saw the water honey...cough cough cough cough!

Li Yun, Li Yun, you are thinking of peaches.

Chapter 1902: Mr. Lee, do you know kung fu

Taihuang Mountain is very high, Taihuang Mountain is very big, Taihuang Mountain is very beautiful.

After decades of modern development, the mountain roads of Mount Taihuang have become wide and tidy, enough for five people to walk side by side. The wide area can even be driven by two vehicles, such as Guandi Temple, Red Gate Palace, Doumu Palace, Jing Shiyu, Wusong Pavilion and other scenic spots are overwhelming, enough to be dazzling.

When he reached the middle of the mountain, Li Yun saw no less than a hundred handwritings of celebrities. Li Bai's immortal "Qing Xiao rides the white deer and goes straight to Tianmen Mountain.", and Du Fu's arrogant "will be the top of the mountain, overlooking the mountains." Little.", Zhang Heng's "What I think is in Taishan", Zhang Guanqing's "Misty tigers and leopards are beautiful, Songyinlong, basilisk-like solitary." and so on.

I don't know if it was engraved by the predecessors, or the later generations printed their verses.

However, it is precisely because this poem is gathered here that it brings a deep historical heritage to Taihuang Mountain, and makes every Huang Xuan countryman who comes here feel the excitement and pride from the heart.

This is an emotion that is difficult for foreigners to empathize with. It belongs to the self-confidence style of a nation that has been passed down for five thousand years!

"Hei, Mr. Li, you really don't know martial arts? Well, it's Kung Fu, Chinese gongfu!"

Abbott, a foreigner Li Yun met on his way up the mountain, about twenty-seven or eighty-eight, with a messy black hair and beard, looked very rough, much like those foreign men with big beards.

He didn't know what was going on, he looked at Li Yun after looking left and right, and wanted him to admit that he knew how to CN Kung Fu.

"There is no such thing as Kung Fu."

Li Yun said not salty and not indifferent, it is indeed the same. Kung fu in film and television is just embroidered with fists. The nature of performance is mostly, and it is completely different from martial arts.

"Really?!"

Abbott didn't give up, pointing to Li Yun's forehead, and then to the smooth and full foreheads of Fang Xue and Li Feng: "But why have you climbed the mountain for so long and haven't sweated a drop of it? You must know how to do it.!"

Li Yun was speechless, but he dared to reveal his identity.

Fang Xue and Li Feng glanced at each other, and they both laughed. They wouldn't say that they had a spell sent by Li Yun.

Climbing to the halfway of Taihuang Mountain, most of the tourists are already sweating, panting and wiping sweat, and there are only a few who have good physical strength and can keep their breath free.

This includes the three of Li Yun.

"You will definitely know how to do it!" Abbott insisted on the matter.

"Abbott!"

A blonde beauty twisted his ears angrily: "You also said that you came to Taihuang Mountain to travel with me, not to find some Kung Fu school. The result? Huh!"

"Ouch, Lucini, you let go first and listen to my explanation!"

"Isn't this the way to go? You know, I have liked Kung Fu since I was a child, and I especially want to see the real CN Kung Fu with my own eyes. How cool is Li in the movie!"

"I think you are crazy. Movies and reality are indistinguishable. I will take you to a psychiatrist when I go back!"

"Oh~~NO~~!"

Li Yun and Fang Xue laughed as they watched the couple play and fight. Abbott has a very good personality, optimistic and positive, and full of curiosity about the world. On the contrary, her girlfriend Lucini was very arrogant and almost never talking to the three of Li Yun, it seems that from the bottom of my heart, I look down on Huang Xuanguo and the so-called Kung Fu.

Fang Xue inferred from the clothes and jewelry she was wearing, Lucini's background should be very good. I don't know why she became boyfriends with Abbott, perhaps because she was attracted by his character?

Chapter 1903: Li Changwei, you said you can't martial arts

"Li, you really don't know Kung Fu?"

After coaxing his girlfriend, Abbott still did not give up, and he leaned close to Li Yun and looked at him from left to right. He also glanced at Fang Xue and Li Feng by the way: "The three of you are too suspicious! Look. Look at me and Lucini."

He pointed to his forehead and pointed to Lucini's forehead. The faces of the two were already covered with sweat. After all, they had climbed from the foot of the mountain to the halfway of 1500 meters, at least five kilometers of winding mountain roads, normal people climbed. Ten floors are exhausted, let alone climbing a 1,500-meter mountain.

Lucini was so tired that she opened her mouth and panted slightly. Seeing that there was no sweat on the faces of Li Yun's trio, and the backs of their clothes were not wet, her expression finally changed.

"These three Huang Xuan people...really know how to do it?"

She really looks down on Huang Xuanguo, thinking that this country is still in a very backward period, and there may still be a braid behind her head. If Abbott hadn't insisted on coming to Taihuang Mountain to find some martial arts school, she would not come to this backwardness. nation.

Just after getting off the plane, Lucini was shocked by the modern airport. It turned out that Huang Xuanguo had already undergone earth-shaking changes!

"Generally speaking, shouldn't it be our physical strength?" Li Yun smiled.

"No, no, no!" Abbott waved his hand and said in blunt Chinese: "My physical strength is also very good. I run and exercise beautifully. I can beat 5 people per person. This is how Lucini was saved by me. Look at me now, it's all sweat!"

Fang Xue suddenly realized that it was a hero who saved the beauty. It's no wonder that Miss Lucini's hair is messy, and she doesn't look like Abbott of a rich man at all.

"Well, it's the same as me~" Fang Xue thought of her first meeting with Li Yun. She was suffering from menstrual cramps at the time, and the driver and bodyguard were not nearby, but Li Yun just appeared, helped her back to school, and gave her back Bought a cup of hot drink.

Isn't this also a hero who saves the beauty?

—Although the two must have seen each other in three years of high school, Fang Xue stubbornly believed that the day six months ago was the day when she and Li Yun met.

"Lee, you lied!" Abbott deduced surely.

"...You say yes, then so be it."

Li Yun was helpless. This foreign friend didn't know what kind of illness he had committed. He had to see the real kung fu and was so annoyed that he wanted to show his hands so that this guy could shut up.

But considering that after exposing his hands, Abbott would pester him to apprentice, and Li Yun said nothing could be done.

"Oh oh oh! You admit it! Li, you really know how to do it!"

Abbott was as excited as a child, turned somersault on the mountain stairs, and punched a set of decent punches, which caused the tourists to look over and applaud.

After all, a foreigner hits Huang Xuanguo's boxing method, wherever he puts it is an eye-catching thing.

"Lee, what do you think of the kung fu I learned from Bruce Lee's Jeet Kune Do?"

"good."

"Wow, Li, I found one thing! You and Bruce Lee are both surnamed Li. Are you and him in the same family?!"

"...It was a family three thousand years ago."

"Omg, is it a long-standing family with a history of 3,000 years? It really is Huang Xuanguo with a history of 4,000 years!"

"It's five thousand years of history!"

Fang Xue corrected him solemnly.

As expected, foreigners are still a bit annoying, and Xia Chao has never been recognized, and there are clearly unearthed texts.

Fortunately, Abbott is not that kind of annoying person. He was surprised and said: "Five thousand years? Excuse me, I always thought it was four thousand years."

Chapter 1904: The foundation of an ancient country

Li Yun didn't show Abbott anything in the end.

While chatting, the five people walked along the stone steps to the mountainside at an altitude of 1,800 meters. Finally, Lucini was so tired that her legs trembled and she couldn't catch her breath, so she had to sit in a pavilion to rest.

The entire mountain of Taihuang Mountain has been developed, and the mountain roads are covered with stone steps, like a hovering dragon surrounding the entire Taihuang Mountain.

There are stone benches, pavilions, etc. at intervals in the middle, and in some places there are wide platforms to look into the distance, allowing visitors to relax while enjoying the scenery.

Of course, small stall vendors are also indispensable. Things are generally five times more expensive than Yamashita. A bottle of water for 2 yuan can sell for 10 yuan, and cold watermelon, sugar water, and Jiao Ji cold products start at 30 yuan, and the price is expensive. It discourages ordinary tourists.

"Lucini, you, do you believe it!"

Abbott, who was sitting on the stone bench, was also panting, but his spirit was very excited. His eyes could shine brightly at the three of Li Yun, Fangxue, Li Feng, and he wished to kneel down and apprentice immediately, learn Chinese.gongfu and return home to show off Down.

The sweaty Lucini looked at Li Yun, then at Fang Xue and Li Feng, and finally had nothing to say.

She was already very tired when she was a thousand meters above sea level, and she gritted her teeth and insisted on climbing 800 meters. Now she feels so tired that her legs are not her own, but the three of Huang Xuanguo are still calm and relaxed. Looks like.

Fortunately, the two girls said that a layer of sweat appeared on the nose, and the face was full of red light, but the boy has always maintained an elegant and relaxed manner, without the slightest trace of fatigue, as if it was not a few kilometers of mountain roads, but Take a stroll in the park, leisurely and contented.

"How do you... do it?"

Lucini couldn't help being curious, so she asked for the first time.

Fang Xue and Li Feng glanced at each other, and their eyes were proud and proud that couldn't be concealed, and there was a sense of superiority that was detached from the world.

After all, because of Li Yun's relationship, they are now regarded as half of the practice circle, and they have obtained all kinds of incredible benefits from Li Yun, which are more and more distinct from ordinary people.

"This belongs to the foundation and secrets of an ancient country with a history of five thousand years~!" Fang Xue pretended to be a mysterious answer. After speaking, she herself felt that her answer was great!

On the one hand, I explained why I didn't sweat and didn't feel tired. On the other hand, it blocked the mouths of two foreigners, leaving them speechless. After all, it's impossible to tell you the secrets of the 5,000-year-old country, right? ?

"Little Baixue, you are awesome~"

Fang Xue praised herself inwardly.

Sure enough, both Abbott and Lucini stopped questioning. Abbott knew from the movie that Huang Xuanguo's kung fu was passed down by family or sects. Unless he came under Li Yun, he would never be able to learn the real thing. effort!

This is also the reason why he traveled all the way to Huang Xuanguo!

"Mr. Li, would you like some watermelon?"

"Mr. Li, are you tired? I'll fan you!"

"Mr. Li, do you want some water?"

"Mr. Li, are you hungry? I have alpine lollipops here!"

Abbott licked the dog, and Mr. Li barked passionately and numbly. The key point was that Li Yun couldn't make a move. After all, he didn't hit the smiley person with his hand, and the person was a foreign friend, right?

When Fang Xue was idle and bored, she wandered around on this platform. She walked to a common notice sign that was erected, and looked at the content on it with curiosity, "Warning notice?"

Chapter 1905: Missing case

Police. Information notice?

Li Yun quickly left Abbott and walked to Fang Xue's side in three steps and two steps.

"Well, someone has disappeared recently. The police in Taihuang Mountain are reminding tourists to be safe."

Fang Xue didn't care about it, she just said casually, but when she turned her head, she saw Li Yun's brows furrowed deeply.

"What's wrong? Is there anything weird?"

Li Feng also surrounded him.

"Isn't it strange that the disappearance case?" Fang Xue speculated: "Mount Taihuang is very large, and there are many tourists staying on the mountain at night. If some tourists who do not pay attention to safety leave the mountain road and go elsewhere, they will easily fall on Mount Taihuang. fall down."

Although Taihuang Mountain at an altitude of 3,000 meters has been commercially developed, there are still many dangerous places. If reckless tourists ignore the warning and go to the place prone to collapse without authorization, it is easy to be dangerous.

"The disappearance case is not strange, but if seven people disappeared in half a month, it would be a little strange."

Li Yun pointed to the notice board. Fang Xue was taken aback. When she turned her head and looked around, she noticed that the number of missing persons was not one or two, but as many as seven!

"Really, how come so many people are missing? Is it because all the people in the team have their brains and they disappeared together?"

Fang Xue and Li Feng both expressed surprise and guessed what happened.

At this time, an aunt selling things in the pavilion interrupted and said: "There are more than seven people. I saw a group of people going up the mountain a few days ago to play. Later when they came down, only two people ran down the mountain in a panic. I think It might be... what, it's suspicious anyway!"

Li Yun asked curiously: "There are so many tourists, so aunty, do you remember so many people?"

"Look at what you said." The aunt obviously despised Li Yun, "I can't remember ordinary tourists, but I can remember non-ordinary tourists at a glance, such as five of you, two beautiful girls, and two foreigners. , You said I won't remember?"

Li Yun: "..."

I'm not a handsome guy?

Fortunately, he thought he was handsome enough to be remembered at a glance!

Seeing the embarrassing look on their boyfriend's face, Fang Xue and Li Feng laughed together.

"Ahem, aunt, you are right." Li Yun then asked: "The aunt, do you remember the situation at that time?"

The hawker aunt glanced at her stall, shook her head and said: "How can I remember so much, I only remember that the things in my stall were bought from Tiaoshan workers, and they are not cheap."

"Uh!"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, so he could only take out his mobile phone and swip the two hundred yuan worth of non-cheap snacks, juice, etc., and finally let the hawker aunt remember.

"Five days ago, yes, it was five days ago, when I first purchased the goods... Hey, don't blame the aunt for selling the goods, and the goods are also expensive. The pickers are struggling to pick things up, and you can pick them once a day. Need to understand, right?"

"Yes, you can understand and understand, mom, please speak up!"

"Young people are really impatient now, well, I continue.

It is said that five days ago, when I first bought the goods, the price of a bottle of mineral water went up by one dollar. Tiaoshan Gong said that the price of pork would also go up, and I was so angry that I was going to die... Don't worry young people, I specially emphasized this. I'm saying that I remember it very clearly, on the day the price was raised..."

It was already evening, Taihuang Mountain was gradually shrouded in the afterglow of the setting sun, and the whole mountain turned golden yellow.

As the aunt's recounting, the night grew darker, and everyone was frightened by the aunt's words.

"...At eight o'clock in the evening, I closed the stall and went down to the foot of the mountain, and met the two fat guys who were fat into a ball. Their fat faces became pale and pale, as if they had met in the mountains... met, ghost!"

Chapter 1906: Cable car, monthly pass

As soon as the ghost character came out, Fang Xue screamed in fright, and hid beside Li Yun and hugged his arm tightly.

There is a mysterious and weird atmosphere in Taihuang Mountain in the evening night, especially the aunt who tells this story, with a lot of wrinkles on her face, guarding a stall with battery lights, and the atmosphere of horror is even more full.

"Ghost? Ghosts?"

Abbott scratched his head. He came to find Kung Fu. How did he suddenly become the style of "Midnight Bell" and "The Grudge"?

As for the ghosts of the East, Abbott only saw them in these two films of Country M. He was so scared at that time. The ghosts of the East had a completely different style of painting from the * horror of Country M. The horror and weird escaping from the screen can scare a Kung Fu master to death!

"Shit?"

The aunt took a strange look at the foreigner, stood up to clean up her stall, and said at the same time: "Shit is not good, you need black dog blood to deal with ghosts, you see I have black dog blood."

The aunt showed a bag full of black liquid: "After I told the people who set up the stall, they also think Taihuang Mountain is very strange recently. There are too many missing and lost people, and some people dare not. Going up the mountain to set up a stall, even if it comes up, I dare not stay till late at night.

Okay, I'm going down the mountain. You should also go to the hotel on the mountain. It's a bit expensive, more than 1,000 a night, so expensive... but at least you can see the sun tomorrow, right?"

After that, the aunt had already packed up her stall, and was walking on the mountain road with at least fifty or sixty kilograms of things on her back. Abbott was stunned to see: "Huang Xuan people are all kung fu?! Lucini, you see it! This is crazy! Now! An aunt Huang Xuanguo rushed from the foot of the mountain to the mountain to sell a lot of snacks on her back. This is too...kung fu!!"

Lucini was also shocked. She came up here from the foot of the mountain with a small bag on her back, and she was already half tired.

But Huang Xuanguo's aunt was carrying a lot of food...

"Fool foreigner."

The aunt's figure has gone away, leaving them only in the evening breeze: "The things are stored in the warehouse on the mountain. I go down the mountain by the cable car... monthly pass."

Everyone was messy in the wind.

It turned out to be so, no wonder, no wonder.

"Really a ghost?" Fang Xue expressed her doubts after returning to her senses.

Of course she has seen ghosts. Nie Xiaoqian is a female ghost in Li Yun's fairy mansion.

"There are no ghosts in the world." Li Feng said. She had never been to the fairy house, but vaguely knew that her brother had become very powerful.

Therefore, this sentence made Fang Xue give her a strange look, and then she realized that Li Yun hadn't let her into the fairy house, and Fang Xue suddenly felt a little happy.

She is one step faster than Li Feng.

"I don't believe it either." Lucini said the same.

Li Yun smiled, "Regardless of this, are you hungry? Are you looking for a restaurant to eat, or go up the mountain to a hotel to eat?"

There are several hotels at 2500 meters from Taihuang Mountain, which can provide tourists with lodging on the mountain so that they can climb to the summit early the next morning to watch the sunrise.

Li Yun has booked a high-end guest room, and he can move in as soon as he goes up the mountain.

"I want to go and watch it." Abbott made his own suggestion and looked at Li Yun: "Mr. Li, shall we go to the restaurant of Quan Yiguan for dinner? I saw on the map that there is also a restaurant there. , I heard that there are also special Taoist vegetarian meals there!"

All in one view?

Li Yun heard this Taoist name for the second time.

Chapter 1907: Holistic view

Fang Xue looked at Li Yun. She was a little curious about the so-called Jianghu people, but she was worried that Li Yun would not be able to fight. After all, she had only seen Li Yun shot once and had no idea about combat.

"OK."

Li Yun nodded, took out a map he bought at the foot of Taihuang Mountain, and looked at it, "All one can see the restaurant...well, it's not far away, and you'll be there by walking up two hundred meters."

"Ok, let's go!"

Abbott walked upwards enthusiastically. After all, in Huang Xuanguo's Kung Fu movies, Taoist priests, monks in temples, and masters in the mountains are all very powerful kung fu masters. They are full of style and can often become The master of the protagonist teaches top-notch kung fu!

Everyone continued to climb the mountain.

It is said that it is two hundred meters, which refers to the vertical distance, and at least one kilometer is required to walk the mountain road.

Fortunately, there is a sign next to the main mountain road, which clearly points to the whole restaurant.

The five people left the main mountain road and walked along a small path in the mountains. The night was mostly dark. Fortunately, there were lights on the side of the road, and there was an antique restaurant waiting for them in the distance.

The five quickened their pace and soon came to the front of the restaurant, only to breathe a sigh of relief.

"All together!"

The gate of Taoist temple is towering, five ancient characters are written on the plaque, which is full of immortal charm.

Everyone looked inside and found that the whole area is very wide. The main building is built on the mountain, and various pavilions, pavilions, and corridors, Xiaowan, are faintly visible. There is a hall dedicated to immortals, and there is a place outside the Taoist temple. There are many tourists staying on the observation platform on the cliff.

"The food is over there!"

Just as Li Yun and the others were about to step into the Taoist Temple Gate, a young man in Taoist robe guarding the door pointed to the distance, "If you want to enter the main gate of Taoist Temple, you have to pay 3,000 yuan for incense!"

Seeing him stretched out a pair of right hands that had obviously not undergone physical labor, and were well-maintained, Li Yun was stunned.

Incense money is not unexpected. Buddhism and Taoism both have the concept of incense money. After all, temples and Taoist temples must survive and money is necessary.

Christianity in foreign countries also has the concept of tithing and indulgences. It is said that you can atone for your sins and go to heaven after you die.

But anyway, three thousand yuan is a bit too expensive!

"No money?"

The young Taoist lazily retracted his hands again, and waved them impatiently: "Then don't enter the Taoist temple, eat there, there is also a side hall there, you can go there to enjoy incense!"

Temples have incense, and Taoist temples also have incense.

Li Feng and Fang Xue glanced at each other with contempt in their eyes. Obviously, they were not interested in this place that was polluted by the world with the smell of copper.

They can easily take out three thousand yuan, but they will never throw it in such a place!

But they don't want to give, some people do!

"Yes, we have money!"

Abbott raised his hand quickly, and some unskilled Chinese said: "We want to go in and learn Kung Fu, great Kung Fu!"

"Oh?"

The young Taoist priest was a little surprised. Seeing what the foreigner suddenly thought of, his attitude suddenly became more enthusiastic: "Do you want to learn Kung Fu? Yes, as long as you join us, Tai Chi, Tai Chi Sword, Wu Qin Xi, Tai Xuan Zhang Method Wait, it will be taught to you!"

Abbott was overjoyed in an instant, and he couldn't imagine that he would be able to worship Huang Xuanguo's true Kung Fu school so easily!

"Really? Really have so much effort?"

"Naturally it is true!"

Chapter 1908: Tiger call

The young Taoist priest was quite arrogant. He stretched out his hand to make a fist and his expression became fierce. After a loud shout, his fist slammed against the huge stone in front of Quanyi Guanmen.

boom!

A small noise made Abbott stunned, because he saw that there was no trace of injury on the fist of the young Taoist priest!

"Awesome, kung fu is amazing!" Abbott was so excited, but his girlfriend didn't take it seriously, and reached out to stop him. "What kind of kung fu is this? My bodyguards abroad can also do such a thing, even the stone is not broken. , Is it Kung Fu?"

"Humph!"

The young Taoist priest dismissed it, "Naturally, I can't break the stone with a punch, but my master can. You can pay for what you want to learn. If you pay a fee of 100,000, you can join the whole group and become an outer disciple. Those who can be promoted to the inner sect, then will be taught to you is the real jerk!"

The real jerk!

These words obviously irritated Abbott, and he took out his bank card directly, so he was really cheating.

"and many more."

Li Yun stopped him. Although this foreigner was a little stupid, he was not bad in character. If you can help him, let's help him.

"How many innate realms are there in your holistic view?" Li Yun looked at the young Taoist priest and asked directly, judging from the various performances, this holistic view is a certain second-rate or even third-rate Jianghu sect!

As for how many congenitals they have, I don't know yet.

However, even if there are a hundred and eighty innates and a few grandmasters in the whole view, Li Yun can now come and go freely, rushing in and out.

"Oh?"

The young Taoist's expression quickly darkened, and he looked at Li Yun for a few moments before he said: "It turns out that Brother Taoist is also from the rivers and lakes, but I don't know which school you come from?"

Abbott was shocked. Was this the exchange between Huang Xuanguo's Kung Fu sects? It turns out that Mr. Li is really a master of Kung Fu!

"No school, no school." Li Yun smiled faintly, "If you insist, you can treat me as a palace eater."

Hearing the palace family, the young Taoist's face changed again, but he said forcefully: "Huh, the palace family is indeed amazing, but Taihuang Mountain is my place to watch, and your palace family can't reach here.

In addition, I will not pick up customers recently, so please feel free! "

Abbott scratched his head, his face was puzzled: "What do you mean by yourself? It's convenient to go by yourself? Why are the hands of the palace so long, why do you stretch it here?

Everyone's expressions froze, and they didn't know what to say for a while.

Li Feng smiled and said, "Mr. Abbott, please feel free to mean..."

"Roar!!!"

A tiger roar sounded, the mountain shook in an instant, and the sound shook hundreds of miles. The roar of the king of beasts seemed to shake the entire Taihuang Mountain, causing countless birds to fly high and frightened fish.

Li Feng, Fang Xue, and Lucini were scared to death on the spot. Even Abbott was so scared by the roar that he looked at the back of the whole view in disbelief.

"What's this?!" Li Yun's eyes narrowed slightly, his eyes shot like a scarlet light towards the young Taoist priest, and an inexplicable aura made the young Taoist breathe quickly.

"You, can't you hear it? This is the tiger that I watched and reared together!" The young Taoist priest replied reluctantly, his body faltering.

Everyone also watched. Abbott was frightened by Li Yun's performance, and once forgot to speak.

"I naturally know this is a tiger."

Li Yun said slowly, turning his eyes to the back mountain of Quanyi's view: "But there are not many tigers in the world that can make such a domineering roar."

Moreover, there is a breath that makes Li Yun very concerned!

Chapter 1909: Three Taoists

Lucini also said: "I have seen real tiger hunting in the wild, even wild tigers don't have this... this kind of scary cry!"

Everyone looked at the young Taoist priest, waiting for an explanation.

"I have a long history. The purpose of raising tigers is to kill its fierceness, so that you can cultivate your character and become immortal. You should be nosy!"

Throwing an explanation casually, the young Taoist priest hurriedly left the mountain gate and walked quickly towards the inner hall.

The people who were left looked at each other, not knowing what to say.

In a Taoist temple on Mount Taihuang, there is a mighty tiger. This incident is quite mysterious, which makes people curious to investigate the details.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Choice 1: Get into the whole view, reward justice value +500, experience value +5 million, all attributes +1000, golden gift bag*1, extra reward: a random martial arts skill upgrade.

Option 2: In the name of the palace family, forcibly visit Quanyiguan to investigate whether there is anything nasty hiding in it! Reward experience value +10 million, all attributes +1000, purple gift bag*3.

Option 3: Give up, no reward. "

The system prompt sounded, Li Yun was quite entangled about which one to choose, and finally gave up.

Among the options given by the system, the best reward may not be the correct one. Even if Li Yun can do it, he may not choose it!

"Go, let's go eat."

Li Yun walked towards the Quanyiguan restaurant not far away. Fang Xue and Li Feng naturally followed him. Although Abbott wanted to be a teacher, considering that Mr. Li is also a master of kung fu, he went cheeky. beg.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, reward: zero egg."

When Li Yun came to the restaurant, he twitched his mouth and chose to ignore the cheating system.

There are not many people in the restaurant with the whole view. After all, the number of tourists staying at Taihuang Mountain was originally small, and now there are even fewer people staying halfway down the mountain. When five people enter, there are fewer than five tables in the quaintly decorated restaurant. Have a meal.

"Three Taoists, and... two foreign friends, I wonder if you want to stay here or just to worship the five internal organs temple?"

A female Taoist priest wearing a female Taoist robe with three buckles on the collar and a peacock pattern on the bottom of the Taoist robe? Waitress? , Walked up and asked in a peculiar way of greeting.

Li Yun didn't know if she was a Taoist priest or a waiter, but from her professional smile, she should be a waiter. Wearing a robe is just a feature of the restaurant.

"Fellow....."

Fang Xue felt weird, like walking into a Japanese restaurant and being kneeled on the ground by the waiter wearing Japanese kimono with a small pillow behind him, serving the guests respectfully.

Temple of the Five Internal Organs?

Before Li Yun saw the restaurant's name, it was called Wu Zang Temple, which was quite appropriate.

"Do you still have accommodation for Taoist temples?" Li Feng asked curiously.

Taoist temples can't help but have foreign restaurants and rooms for overnight guests. Before entering the temple, they had to buy tickets for 3,000 yuan. This whole view is truly secular!

"correct."

The female Taoist waiter smiled and replied: "The Taoist temple has wing rooms for guests, which are different from ordinary hotels. The layout of the wing rooms is similar to that of ancient houses, so that fellow Taoists can have the feeling of being close to the ancients and pursuing the fruit of Taoism."

Pursuing Dao Fruit? What a mess!

Li Yun was speechless, waved his hand and said: "We booked a hotel, so we don't have to stay."

"Okay, several fellow daoists, please here!"

Chapter 1910: Friends of the Road

Fang Xue was called a fellow Taoist by her, and she always felt that there was something strange that she couldn't tell!

Maybe Huang Xuan people are too sensitive to the word taoist?

"Daoyou? Mr. Li, what is this name? Is it the name of Kung Fu master?" Abbott was as curious as a child.

"Friends of Taoism are..."

Li Yun choked, how should he explain to a foreigner the meaning of fellow Daoist?

A friend who cultivates together is a Taoist friend?

What does it mean to be able to cultivate?

What is Tao?

Tao is Tao, very Tao, famous, very famous?

These explanations can't be explained for ten years!

Finally, Li Yun replied: "Friends who practice Kungfu together and walk on the same path are Taoists!"

"Oh oh oh!"

Abbott, who was full of scumbags, suddenly realized, "No wonder I have never seen Huang Xuan people calling each other Dao friends before. It turns out that Dao friends are considered as Dao friends if they practice Kung Fu together. I understand! Li Dao friend, next is Dao friend? Hehe? ,Is that right?"

Fellow Dao?

Li Feng and Fang Xue laughed together again, and even the female Taoist waiter with a professional smile couldn't help laughing. She didn't dare to call the two foreigners a fellow Taoist before, for this reason!

"Please, ask a few fellow daoists." The waiter suffocated a smile and asked.

"I am not a Taoist friend."

Lucini interrupted her and said nonchalantly: "I have no interest in Huang Xuanguo's Kung Fu, and I have no interest in martial arts worth 20,000 M yuan. No matter how strong Kung Fu is, it will be a shot when I encounter my bodyguard with a submachine gun. Down!"

The atmosphere suddenly solidified, and the standard smile on the female Taoist waitress froze. Upon seeing this, Abbott quickly persuaded his girlfriend: "Lucini, although the Taoist friend just now is not very good, his master must be very good. , Has a great skill, don't underestimate him!"

Using two consecutively is very powerful, worthy of a foreigner.

Li Yun said to the waiter indifferently: "What did you want to ask just now?"

"Uh, what I want to ask is, how many guests...no, four fellow daoists and one guest, do you want to eat on the second floor, or the first floor?"

The female Taoist waiter was so nervous that she couldn't even speak, "The second floor is more expensive, and the consumption level is about 1,000 yuan per person..."

The consumption level of one thousand yuan per person is very expensive in big cities, and the middle class can eat it once or twice a month.

But what status is Li Yun now? Is he still short of money? joke!

"Go to two..."

"Go to the second floor, please!"

Abbott took the lead in saying Li Yun's lines. After finishing speaking, he gave him a "enthusiastic" look, which made Li Yun's goosebumps all goosebumps. This guy has to stay away from him!

"Okay, some guests go here."

The waiter no longer struggled with the address problem, and made a please gesture.

Five people followed her to the side of the stairs. Just about to go up the stairs, several acquaintances came down from the upper floor.

Three girls including Bu Junxian, Lai Yongsi, and Xiaoping Xiaoqin.

The two parties were stunned as soon as they met. After all, it was so coincidental that it made people wonder if the other party was following.

"What a coincidence."

Li Yun smiled and greeted the five Bu Junxian, "I saw a few more people, I didn't think it was so fate."

"I'd rather not have this fate with you." Lily of the three girls muttered. Every time I meet Li Yun four people, I'm not in a good mood. After all, the two girls around him are really beautiful.

"Lily, you are so right!"

Bu Junxian said in a weird way: "Brother Lai, this guy actually chased the whole group of views, do you see...?"

"Humph!"
