

Godly Choice 1991

Chapter 1991: What a big monkey

There are all mountains near Taihuang Mountain, although the height is not comparable to it, but there are not many precipices at all.

Fortunately, the direction the little fox was pointing was not up to the mountain. Otherwise, apart from Li Yun and Fang Xue, the other three would definitely be unable to keep up.

After the six people crossed a mountain and reached the back, the cameraman finally couldn't hold back to take a break, and he was so tired that he was breathing hard with a camera.

"Then take a break."

As soon as Li Yun spoke, Huang Changye's trio suddenly sat on the ground, panting for breath with hand fans.

"Walking in the mountains and forests this night is really not what people do!" Huang Changye began to complain, he would not come if he knew that far.

"You can go home if you don't want to go!"

Fang Xue said to him, her personality is not usually like this, but now what they are doing is related to finding the little fox's house, and Fang Da's school flower naturally wants to look at her new pet.

"Hey, I didn't mean that."

Huang Changye looked around awkwardly, and said with a guilty conscience: "I'm afraid that some monster will suddenly rush out. Look, you can't see five fingers around here, maybe there will be something..."

"Wow~~~!"

The little fox yelled suddenly, his voice full of threats. It stood up in Fang Xue's arms, its hair counted down, and its eyes were staring in a direction far away.

"You are really a crow's mouth, what are you talking about!" The cameraman couldn't help but scolded him, and Huang Changye was also stupid, "Isn't it so coincidental?"

"All stand up, get ready, something is coming."

Li Yun ordered, several people hurriedly stood up and looked around alertly, with a trace of horror on their faces.

In the mountains and forests at two o'clock in the middle of the night, are there really... relatives in the ground running out? !

"Squeak!"

There was a shrill monkey cry, which made everyone breathe a sigh of relief. Fortunately, they were not relatives.

But they quickly panicked again, this Nima monkey might not be able to fight them!

Especially those muscular gorillas, fight too hard, they will even swallow the same kind of corpses, * and cruel.

"Woo~!!!"

The louder the little fox screamed, it jumped out of Fang Xue's arms, stood on all fours, its fiery red tail raised high, shaking like a fluffy whip, and constantly making threatening sounds.

Soon, the squeaking monkey appeared in front of everyone.

"hiss!"

Huang Changye gasped, "Is this Nima a monkey?"

He pointed the camera of his phone at them, and under the illumination of his head-mounted lamp, the audience in the live broadcast room clearly saw the monkeys at the scene.

"I'm Cao Nima, this is a monkey?!"

Everyone was shocked,

In front of them, there were at least seventeen or eight monkeys. The five monkeys at the head were two and five meters tall. They were black and yellow and stiff. They had a pair of arms hanging down to their heels, and their chests were sturdy, almost huge. Like a transformed gorilla!

But the group in front of them are indeed monkeys, not gorillas!

The most obvious difference is that gorillas are apes, they don't have a long tail behind their buttocks, while monkeys have tails!

From behind the five huge monkeys, everyone could see the little monkeys jumping and barking, all with tails!

Take another ten thousand steps and say that the person in front of you is a gorilla, but even the largest orangutan is only about two meters tall. After all, orangutans and humans are close relatives, and the height of humans is about the same as their height.

But where is the monkey in front of you?

Two meters and five!

It weighs two hundred kilograms!

He is as strong as a calf!

Chapter 1992: Drive away

"Wh, what kind of monster is this Nima?!" Huang Changye wanted to cry without tears, he could be sure that he couldn't run for 120,000 points-these big monkeys are too exaggerated, and they run fast in the mountains and forests in the night. It is absolutely impossible to beat the opponent!

It can only be seen that Brother Xueshen is showing great power and will...

"Woo~~!"

Huang Changye wanted to wait eagerly for Brother Xueshen to take action, but instead of thinking about it, the little fox stepped forward.

The flaming red fox leaned down and made a threatening sound at a group of monkeys dozens of times its size. I have to say that Meng Meng Fox is cute regardless of her name and appearance, but she has a lot of courage and courage.

The audience in the live broadcast room was dumbfounded and swiped their screens to cheer on the little fox.

"Wow!"

"Squeaky...Roar!"

The two sides confronted each other and roared, the voices of these monkeys were stern, vaguely smelling of the roar of King Kong gorillas, and their screams were particularly scary.

But the little fox was not afraid of it, leaned down, and his cry became deeper and deeper, gradually turning into the kind of grunting roar from his throat.

Suddenly, the little fox jumped up, his figure turned into a flash of lightning again, and flew into the group of monkeys.

"Swish!"

The sharp finger claws swing, bringing up countless monkey hairs. The little fox is invincible when fighting in groups. Its movements are too flexible. In addition to the red hair, which is not conducive to hiding itself, speed, strength, weapons (finger claws)) Are all perfect, jumping back and forth in the monkey group, the monkeys can't catch it at all.

The audience in the live broadcast room was dumbfounded.

"This this this!"

"Anchor, you still say it's not a vixen?"

"Come on little fox, my sister will call for you!"

"Fight, fight, Daji will kill that monkey 233 with one stroke!"

Huang Changye became excited again, holding the phone with trembling hands, and fully broadcast the scene of the little fox showing his power.

"Hey?!" Huang Changye was startled, and Li Yun took his mobile phone away.

"The next picture is too bloody, so don't broadcast it."

Li Yun said indifferently, exiting the live broadcast software, causing countless viewers to beat their feet.

The reporter Gao Xiaoxiao and the cameraman looked at each other, and could already guess that the video taken tonight will probably be broadcast after strict auditing.

Fortunately, they are not live, and they can still record the video completely with the camera on.

Li Yun turned his head and looked at the battlefield. The little fox's speed slowed down a bit. Now he only dared to harass the group of little monkeys. He didn't dare to get close to the five big ones. His small body would be seriously injured by the big monkey.

"Dongfang Qinglong, the monsters retreat!"

Li Yun sighed in a deep voice. The loud voices shook Huang Changye and the others' eardrums. The monkeys on the opposite side were so scared that they were all over the countdown, and each one froze in place and did not dare to move.

"Little Meng, come back."

With a swish, a flash of red lightning flew back to Li Yun's feet. The little fox squatted on the ground, panting for exhaustion. These big monkeys were really hard to deal with, even if it ate a delicious fruit. .

Li Yun drew a fiery red sword out of thin air. When the group of monkeys on the opposite side saw it, they all squeaked in fright. The five big monkeys picked up the little monkeys beside them and quickly screamed and fled.

"Running very fast." Li Yun did not choose to pursue, he vaguely guessed one thing, these monkeys might not be the point!

"I... Cao!"

Huang Changye was completely stupid. The sword in the hands of Brother Xueshen glowed red in the night. It looked like a divine sword that could burn the mountains and forests with one sword. It had infinite power!

In fact, he really guessed it right.

Chapter 1993: Flurry of Demons

"keep walking."

Li Yun said in a deep voice, walking forward first, and then Huang Changye saw a magical scene!

Every time the sword in the hands of Brother Xueshen is swung, it will sweep away a large area of weeds, branches and shrubs in front of you!

The flames were flying all over the sky, very eye-catching in the night sky, and the light of the fire illuminates the faces of everyone present.

"This, this is...!!!"

Gao Xiaoxiao's delicate body trembled slightly because of fear and tension, as well as an inexplicable excitement. She knew that the scene before her could never be explained by modern science and belonged to a mysterious and unknown field.

It is a pity that such a picture that surpasses ordinary people's perception of the world, even if it is captured by a camera, will never be released to the public, otherwise it will cause very serious consequences.

But what if, maybe... can it?

"Everyone who sees this video, you should trust your eyes and the pictures taken by me and my fellow cameraman." Gao Xiaoxiao took the microphone and made live recordings very quietly.

No matter who sees this video, she will hear the commentary by her Gao Xiaoxiao-and it will be the voice of the live commentary!

This is definitely a very rare experience.

"Dear Mr. Li Yun, he is holding a weapon that looks like a fairy tale. You can see—" The camera hurriedly pointed at the flame sword in Li Yun's hand, "Every time Mr. Li Yun waved it, he would A large swath of weeds burned out, this kind of power lady is terrible!"

"Trust me, this is definitely not a special effect. We can even feel the terrible threat and heat brought by this flame... Forgive me for being a little excited, I'm so excited!"

Li Yun: "..."

If you are excited about using it twice in a row, you are not a good host!

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. He had known that he would meet so many monsters. He would definitely not bring Gao Xiaoxiao and the three of them. Li Yun thought he was just looking at the fox den of the little fox, but he didn't expect it to be here...

"Roar~!"

"Crack!"

"Squeak!"

Li Yun took a deep breath, there was already a group of demons dancing in front of him.

Except for Li Yun, the other five people opened their mouths in horror, and looked at what was called a horrible scene in disbelief.

Dozens of weird and terrifying animals appeared in front of them, car-like frogs, pangolins with a tail of one meter long and full of armor and helmets, lizards like small dinosaurs, and scarabs with their wings flapping in the wind and brilliant colors , Even the rabbit has become a terrifying rabbit with no friends and protruding front teeth...

Numerous animals that used to look down on humans and could be crushed to death by raising their feet suddenly felt like being irradiated by nuclear radiation, directly undergoing abnormal changes, becoming a kind of monster that makes human scalp numb!

"This, what is this?!" The cameraman's thighs trembled, but his hands still resisted the camera and shot all the scene in front of him.

In the front, dozens of monsters are distributed within a radius of one kilometer, forming a huge circle surrounding a certain thing.

"Woo~~~!"

Not to be outdone, the little fox Mengmeng let out a roar.

It's a pity that although it is the smartest monster here, it can't beat so many of its kind, so it can only scream and look at Li Yun with anticipation and flattering eyes.

Fang Xue, Li Feng and others also looked at him.

The only thing they can rely on now is Li Yun!

"It's... very lively."

Chapter 1994: Tongtian Pine

Li Yun sighed and was surprised.

This scene of dozens of monsters gathering together, I am afraid that even Qing Sheng has never seen it. Of course, a certain six demon gate demon girls must have never seen it. I don't know if they will be frightened when they see this scene.

Well, Qingsheng certainly won't, but that demon girl is hard to say.

"Brother cameraman." Li Yunchong and Gao Xiaoxiao said, "Are you still shooting now? You will record all the images, and when you finish shooting, you will step back, so as not to affect you."

Huang Changye was about to cry: "Brother, can't it be called your brother? Hurry up and think of a solution! These monsters are all going to eat people!"

As the only 6 humans in the field, the 6 people have already received serious attention from the monsters present. The strange and mighty monsters looked at them and kept roaring menacingly.

Fortunately, they seemed to have seen the extraordinary sword in Li Yun's hand, and didn't immediately pounce on it.

As for the little fox, they just ignored it.

"Not urgent."

Li Yun smiled softly, "There must be so many monsters together for what, let's figure it out before we talk...it's a pity that Xiaoxiaomeng can't speak, tusk."

Huang Changye wants to cry without tears, Brother Xueshen, you are not in a hurry, but I am in a hurry!

He regretted coming along with him seriously, and couldn't help but slap himself, cursing: You said you didn't sleep in the middle of the night and came to the forest to play live broadcast. Isn't this a death hunt?

Li Feng took a deep look at his younger brother, and took the initiative to hold Fang Xue's little hand. The two women retreated behind him, leaving Li Yun alone to face the group of monsters.

Oh, there is a little fox lying on his feet.

"Wow!"

Hu Mengmeng roared at the monsters around, causing a commotion around, but no one...no monster dared to rush up.

The situation maintained a weird balance. The demons were waiting for something anxiously, not daring to take it easily.

With such a slightly stable situation, everyone finally had time to put their eyes on the field, which was the thing surrounded by the group of monsters.

A pillar that stretches to the sky.

In the flashlights of a few people and the infrared camera shooting, everyone clearly saw a huge pine tree surrounded by thousands of people in front of them. The pine tree is so huge that its trunk is like a thick wall. Can't see the head at a glance.

The flashlight turned left and right, and everyone was shocked as they watched.

"Okay, so big!"

The cameraman slowly turned the lens, but he quickly discovered with a horror that more than 20 meters above his head was enveloped by the branches and leaves of the pine tree!

That is to say, when they walked into this valley just now, they had already entered under this huge pine tree without knowing it!

Go straight into the sky and cover the clouds and the sun.

Everyone looked up in shock, there was no trace of starlight or moonlight at all, and all the sharp pine leaves above their heads.

Li Yun was thoughtful, that is to say, the entire valley was actually covered by this pine tree. No wonder outsiders couldn't find the anomaly here-from the sky, the valley was full of emerald green colors.

"It's terrible... how can there be such a big tree!"

Gao Xiaoxiao muttered to herself blankly. She read a document by accident. The largest tree on the earth was only about 100 meters away, and it went straight into the sky. It was not as luxuriant as the pine tree in front of her, completely blocking the valley!

This big tree can never be bred in nature, and it will fall as soon as the wind blows...Theoretically speaking, it is like this.

"Roar!"

Suddenly, the monsters became restless again.

Chapter 1995: Divine fruit

Forty or fifty monsters roared at the huge pine tree, and the little fox seemed to feel something. He walked around uncomfortably, his red hair standing up, and the fox's tail flicked very quickly.

"Fa, what happened?"

Fang Xue covered her ears, the sounds of these monsters were terrifying, hoarse and harsh, faintly evoking the instinct of fear in people's hearts.

Li Yun looked at the center of the monster group, under the huge pine tree.

Everyone also pointed the lights there, illuminating the surroundings of the tree trunks. The monsters did not fear the bright lights. Instead, they followed the light to see what was about to happen and kept roaring at the pine trees.

The agitation became stronger and stronger, the croaking of frogs, the croaking of monkeys, and the flapping of beetles' wings one after another, which made people distraught.

I don't know how long I waited, the scene finally changed.

From the pine tree more than ten meters high and seemingly luxuriant canopy, a branch slowly hangs down.

It's like a willow tree in spring, one by one hanging down to the ground.

But the branches of this pine tree are particularly different.

It is very thick, and the end part near the ground swells up, forming a sporangia-like structure, and the inside is swollen and swollen as if something is gestating, and it emits a dim dim light.

"Will it shine?!"

Li Feng cried out in surprise, moved the flashlight away a little, and stopped irradiating the cyst-like thing directly.

The rest of the people also removed the flashlights, and everyone saw it emit a red light. In the night, it looked like a colorful light rotating in a disco, attracting the attention of everyone and demons present.

"Ho * ho ho!"

Countless monsters roared, thumped their chests, vomited and raised their tails, and made various threatening actions.

Scorpions, mice, snakes, monkeys, frogs...

The animals that are common in the mountains and forests have all become monsters at this moment, peeping at what is protruding from this huge pine tree.

"Is this the fruit of a pine tree...?" Fang Xue said in an uncertain tone, after all, pine trees in nature do not result in this way.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Under the eyes of the group of demons, capture the pine tree's divine fruit, reward experience value +5 million, all attributes +2000, golden gift bag*1, aura value +20,000.

Option 2: Kill all enemies in front of you directly, reward experience value +10 million, all attributes +2000, golden gift bag*1, additional reward: to be determined.

Option 3: Wait for the change, no reward. "

The system finally gave a selection event, and Li Yun once again set his eyes on the so-called divine fruit, and he had a guess in his heart.

"Oooooooooo~~"

The little fox yelled louder, and circled Li Yun's heels, flicking and flicking his tail. You don't need to guess that it was urging the owner to hurry up and grab the fruit.

It is estimated that Mengmeng Fox, like this group of monsters, peeped at this divine fruit for a long time, just waiting for today!

Li Yun remained unmoved, and even patted the fox's head with the blade of the Leap Fire God Sword to make it restful and don't bark!

"Woooooo~"

The little fox was extremely wronged and watched the fruit slowly fall, only less than two meters from the ground.

At this distance, any monster present can jump up and take away this divine fruit the size of an adult's head!

But no monster dared to act first.

Everyone looked at the luminous divine fruit, and the scene fell into weird silence for a while.

Sudden.

"Squeak!"

Chapter 1996: All show their magical powers

A golden monster jumped up, and the lightning generally crossed a distance of more than ten meters. It landed and jumped again, quickly approaching the divine fruit.

"Roar!!!"

The monsters reacted, a cold light flashed in the frog monster's eyes, opened his mouth, and his slimy tongue ejected out. It flew over a distance of tens of meters in an instant and was just sticking to the golden monster.

It was only now that everyone could see that it turned out that the golden yellow was a weasel.

This weasel monster did not grow bigger like a fox, but its hair became hard and golden, like a Buddha statue with a layer of gold leaf in a temple, golden and very mysterious.

"Squeak!"

The weasel demon leaping out for several tens of meters was entangled with the slimy tongue of the frog demon the size of a car, just like a frog in nature catching mosquitoes with its tongue, the frog's tongue shrank, and the weasel suddenly made a sharp cry. Be absorbed by the frog demon at a faster speed.

"Uh... just died like this?"

Everyone was stunned. The battle started suddenly and ended suddenly. The frog monster's tongue ejected at a terrifying speed. It passed a distance of forty to fifty meters, and it was more accurate than a guided bullet. Just kill the weasel in seconds and swallow it in his belly.

"Puff~!"

Just when everyone thought the weasel was about to be devoured, a disgusting fart sounded, causing people and monsters to evade, and they were in the middle of the smelly fart. They were hit by the frontal zero distance to the frog monster, and fell to the ground and twitched on the spot. , The tongue sticks out long, just like a dying fish ashore.

"I'm Cao, the weasel really stinks!"

Huang Changye pinched his nose and ran away, this thing is simply a biochemical attack.

Fang Xue hurriedly got to Li Yun's side, trying to see how he would deal with this kind of attack, but saw the little fox at his feet flicking his tail frantically, fanning the air, and rushing to the other side.

"Uh, the little fox is amazing..." Fang Xue couldn't help laughing, and shaking his tail to drive away the stinky little fox was too cute.

But the monsters on the other side are not vegetarian. They are all agitated. An eagle-sized * is flapping its wings, bringing up a gust of wind, blowing the stench of the weasel all over the field.

The demons can't stand it. ,

The armored chafer spread its wings again, a sudden vibration, and the rapid shaking of its thin wings, giving it terrifying speed, swish to the pine tree's divine fruit.

"Roar!!"

The monkey demon Li Yun encountered before picked up a stone on the ground and smashed it fiercely at the chafer.

On the ground, a light and slippery python crawled quickly.

In the sky, the titmouse descended from the sky like a fighter jet and swooped down.

In the ground, the pangolin was digging the dirt frantically, and a bulging tunnel quickly rushed towards the Shen Guo.

Countless monsters each showed their magical powers and launched a plundering action against the * fruit, the scene was extremely chaotic.

Gao Xiaoxiao and the others were stunned. The things they encountered tonight were more outrageous, and the scene of the monster battle before them was beyond their understanding.

"Wow~"

The little fox looked at Li Yun pitifully, but was knocked on the head by his master.

"Protect them."

Li Yun pointed to Fang Xue, Hu Mengmeng seemed to understand, and walked over in frustration, her tail shaking weakly.

Immediately afterwards, he was hugged by the big colonel Fang.

"Little Mengmeng, behave, don't run around, wait for my husband and your master to take action, you will definitely be able to..."

"boom!!"

Chapter 1997: Hanging branches

Suddenly, a huge vibration sounded, and the ground trembled, making everyone and the demon's feet jump back and forth like they were drunk.

"what is this?"

"What big monster is coming? Is it an elephant?"

"How do I feel... the things above our heads are moving!"

"Squeak!"

Ahead, a monkey monster holding the fruit of the pine tree screamed triumphantly. Around it stood four huge monkey monsters, staring at the surrounding monsters with their scarlet eyes.

It was through the cooperation of the monkey group that the monkey demon became the demon who had the last laugh.

The demons panted and waited for the five monkeys. When they were about to pounce, the monkey demon holding the fruit suddenly opened its big mouth, exposing Bai Sensen's fangs, and snapped the branch that was connected to the divine fruit in one bite.

"Boom!"

The vibration sounded again, and many monsters began to look around anxiously, and the blood-red eyes of the monkey demon also showed a panic expression, holding the divine fruit and shouting, they were about to flee for their lives.

At this moment, a branch stretched out from the sky and grabbed it towards the monkey demon.

The speed of this branch is not fast or slow, just like a good fisherman, holding a fishing rod and turning his fishing line leisurely, without worrying about the hooked fish running away.

"Roar!"

The monkey holding the divine fruit let out a triumphant roar, does this branch want to catch it? Humph, plants are plants, even if they become monsters, they are still as weak, far inferior to their monkeys, they can stand on top of monsters immediately after mutation!

However, the monkey demon's mocking expression quickly froze.

The second branch fell.

Immediately after.

The third root.

The fourth...

Countless branches are springing up like bamboo shoots after a rain, and like the sword of heaven's punishment falling from the sky, densely pointed towards the earth.

Within a few kilometers, in the area covered by the huge canopy of pine trees, thousands of branches fell down, like the sword of Damocles hanging upside down above the heads of people and demons. The lives of the creatures on the scene can be killed in the next second. Take away.

"It turns out that the fruit is the bait of the pine monster!"

Fang Xue said subconsciously, the little fox in her arms looked at the branches that slowly fell in the sky with a dull look, with an expression of impossibility-it was a clever fox, unlike the animals present. The same creature, it will also go to human villages to learn their language and imitate their behavior.

But now, it was actually deceived by a tree! ! !

"Wow!!!"

The little fox is very excited!

Also very angry.

Howling barking.

Unfortunately, the branches falling from the sky made it feel the threat of life, and it had to tremble with fear.

The monsters who competed for the divine fruit have also returned to their gods, all rushing to flee, but at the same time, the speed of the branches falling from the sky has also increased, and the distance has been completely sealed, even those who have drilled under the ground. The pangolin was also frightened by the shaking roots under his feet, and screamed frantically and went back to the ground.

There is nowhere to hide.

It's densely packed with branches all over it.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Choose to take action at this time, destroy the conspiracy of the pine tree monster, save the group of monsters, reward justice value +10, experience value +15 million, all attributes +2500, golden gift bag *2, spiritual value *50,000.

Option 2: Stand by and wait for the monsters present to be swallowed by the pine trees, and then kill them, reward experience value +14 million, all attributes +2400, golden gift bag *2, aura value *40,000.

Option 3: Take Fang Xue and others to escape, no longer pay attention to this matter, and reward a purple gift bag*3"

Chapter 1998: Raging fire

Countless sharp branches fell to form a closed space, and the sky was full of thick branches like tentacles. At this time, dozens of monsters were too late to wake up, and were surrounded by anxious roars and circles.

What's more frightening is that the underground is also shaking, and the roots of trees with thick wrists gradually emerged, twisting back and forth, like a monster in * showing a terrifying picture of the world.

"Ouuuuuuu~~"

The little fox turned anxiously, a fiery red tail stretched straight, and his eyes toward the sky were full of horror.

"Don't be afraid." Fang Xue comforted it. After hesitating for a while, she reached out to touch the bracelet she was wearing on her wrist, and said to the little fox: "Your master has the power to reach the sky and earth, this little thing. ...Can't help him!"

Fang Xue's gaze at Li Yun was full of love and expectation. She had already seen it, and a bright red light gushing out of her lover.

next moment.

Li Yun swung his sword up.

"boom!"

A faint blue flame soared into the sky, and in a blink of an eye, it submerged in the canopy of the tree that covered the sky and the sun, and burst out loudly.

The scorching flame spread like ocean waves, igniting the huge pine trees above everyone's heads, the flame spread rapidly, and the sky was full of fire.

"Roar!!"

Everyone heard a dull roar, and the branches of the pine trees in the sky trembled, as if they wanted to shake the flames down.

But this flame was extraordinary, and it was still stubbornly spreading along the branches. The millions of branches that had fallen down before were ignited, and everything the eyes saw turned into a sea of flames.

"We're going to die! We're going to die!" Huang Changye hurriedly cried. The branches and leaves that were lit in the sky continued to fall, turning into flames within a five-kilometer radius.

The huge fire light illuminates the sky and the earth, and I don't know how many people's attention has been drawn, but it is not important to Huang Changye who is trapped here, he is about to be burned to death!

"I will protect everyone!"

Fang Xue yelled, took out the bracelet decisively, and raised it towards the sky: "Ice and Snow Sword, change, change!"

This kind of image that seems to be a beautiful girl in the animation, the shame brought by it makes the face of Fang blush, but the expression has an excitement that can't be concealed.

Bing!

With a soft sound, the bracelet turned into a crystal-clear, ice-snow sword that reflected the light of fire. The air-conditioning diffused to separate all the flames falling from the sky.

"what is this?"

Everyone was shocked. It turned out that the thing Fang Xue was wearing was also a treasure!

"Hehe~, this was given to me by Li Yun."

Fang Xue waved the ice and snow sword in his hand, and a fire not far away was instantly extinguished. The coldness contained in this sword was completely controlled by her, it was amazing!

Li Feng's eyes moved slightly, quite a bit envious.

As her best friend, Fang Xue couldn't tell, she smiled and said, "Xiao Fengfeng, let my husband give you a treasure too!"

"What your husband!" Li Feng rolled her eyes, "Is that my brother?"

"It's your husband too?"

"you!"

"Hehehe, I'm still shy and don't admit it, I see, you are the so-called proud...arrogant."

At this time, the huge roar sounded again.

"Roar!"

The painful roar resounded throughout the valley, and the ground began to shake violently. Li Feng thought of something, and subconsciously turned his head to look at the trunk of this huge pine tree and found that it had come alive!

Chapter 1999: Kill the Dryad

"Boom!"

The pine tree monster suddenly grew many one-meter-thick wrists, struggling and twisting one by one, slapping and tearing on the body, slapping out the flames spreading to the trunk.

"My goodness....."

Everyone was stunned, the pine tree monster's huge body twisted and struggled, and it was fighting against Tianwei with a giant one hundred meters tall, as if it could tear the world apart with every move.

Many monsters were trembling with fear by this pine tree monster. It turns out that even plants can mutate. Their giants dare to enter the pine tree's sphere of influence to * the so-called divine fruit. They are really impatient!

"Roar!"

The faint blue flame turned to crimson, igniting this huge tree monster covering a radius of four kilometers, and the flames soared to the sky, burning the entire valley as if it had turned into a volcanic crater, with heat gushing out.

The monsters fled in all directions, but suddenly they saw a fiery red sword light flashing past, falling on the pine tree monster that was three hundred meters high, making a violent booming explosion.

"Wow!!!"

The pine tree demon let out a painful cry, and the huge body turned into a pillar of fire that reached the sky. The light blue flame burned everything, burned countless arms, and the flame invaded the body, causing the pine tree demon to completely lose its movement.

"Cracking."

The surroundings were quiet, only the crackling sound of flames burning trees.

The huge pine tree with a height of three hundred meters is burning, as if a high-rise building in the city is lit, and the spectacular scene is deeply imprinted in everyone's mind.

After a long time, the pine tree demon collapsed, his body turned into a thick charcoal, falling to pieces on the ground, knocking down countless big trees along the way.

When everyone and demons looked at Li Yun again, their eyes were full of awe, and they didn't dare to go any further!

"ended?"

Fang Xue Chong shouted Li Yun not far away.

"ended!"

Li Yun smiled slightly, and then received a prompt from the system.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, rewards justice value +10, experience value +15 million, all attributes +2500, golden gift bag *2, aura value *50 thousand."

Li Yun was basically satisfied with the reward this time. Although the pine tree monster is the largest monster he has ever seen, it is also limited by the characteristics of the plant, and the pine tree monster's actions are very inconvenient.

Moreover, Li Yun had mastered the terrible fire weapon, to deal with the tree demon, he only needed to spit out the fire, the pine tree demon couldn't stop it at all, and could only be passively beaten.

"Brother Xue, Xue Shen is awesome!" Huang Changye even trembles with praise, which is enough to prove the excitement and fear in his mood at the moment-he has been frightened by the strength that Brother Xue Shen has just shown.

"Is Mr. Li Yun a fairy?"

Reporter Gao Xiaoxiao was still in a daze and panic, and asked a rather naive question.

Li Yun smiled: "I am not an immortal, just a slightly better ordinary person."

"Ordinary people?"

The few people looked at each other, and they believed your words only when their hearts said ghosts.

In fact, Li Yun didn't lie. In addition to having a system plug-in, everything else remained in the category of ordinary people.

Neither can go into the sky, nor move mountains to fill the sea, and even the life span has not reached the point of being immortal for thousands of years and immortal for thousands of years. It is completely incomparable with the true immortals in mythology.

What is not an ordinary person?

"Hehe, I'm an ordinary person, of course my husband is an ordinary person~" Fang Xue hugged the little fox, then took Li Feng's little hand and walked over with a smile, and proactively stood on tiptoe and kissed Li Yun on the cheek. , Said quietly: "My husband is so handsome~"

The soft and gentle voice, full of deep affection, makes Li Yun feel refreshed, this life is worth it!

Chapter 2000: Burst out a * fruit

"Woohoo~~~"

The little fox in Fang Xueqi was also very excited. A pair of big fox eyes looked at Li Yun admiringly, but then, the fox couldn't help but turn his head and look at the scorched pine tree demon, his saliva sputtered. The stream, constantly urging and calling.

"You little guy, so greedy!"

Li Yun rubbed the little fox's head and turned to look over there: "Go, Xiaoxue, sister, let's see what the tree demon has lost."

Huang Changye and the three hurried to follow, and there were monsters around, they didn't dare to stay away from Li Yun.

"Ah, that fruit is still there!"

Fang Xue screamed, pointing at the divine fruit that fell to the ground and said.

Looking closer, the fruit used by the pine tree demon as bait was quite big, and it was as tall as a big school flower, and it was as fat as a ball, with a bulge in the middle, and I didn't know what was inside.

The little fox was very excited, trying hard to jump out of Fang Xue's embrace and rush to the divine fruit. Unfortunately, Fang Xue had already penetrated his thoughts and hugged the little fox tightly.

In theory, Hu Mengmeng is much stronger than Fang Xue, but he dare not break away from the embrace of the hostess.

The surrounding monsters came around again, looking from a distance, with fear and longing in their eyes. Many monsters were walking anxiously, trying to rush over to * this divine fruit several times, but every time they saw Li Yun's hands full body After the flaming sword, he stopped quickly and looked at him in fear.

"Brother Xue Shen!" Huang Changye was very excited, and went forward to touch the huge black and red fruit: "What will be in it? Will there be elixir, people will gain a hundred years of skill after eating it. Hey, of course you are better than Xue Shen Brother!"

Li Yun shrugged, "How do I know what's in it? It's probably some flesh-and-blood fruit specially made by the Pine Tree Demon, which can produce a special smell to attract animals to die."

Fang Xue smiled and glanced at Mengmeng fox, but found that his face was stunned-this fox spirit couldn't understand complicated words.

"I think there will be a small pine tree demon inside!" Gao Xiaoxiao excitedly stepped forward and touched the huge fruit, holding the microphone to face the camera: "Dear audience, there is a huge pine tree in front of me, very surprised. Right? The pine tree can actually produce such a huge fruit after being refined!

However, based on my inference from some words of Mr. Li Yun, after plants and animals become sperm, they are likely to imitate human behaviors, such as the cute fox. "

The camera pointed at the little fox with interest, and then turned back a few seconds later.

"So I have reason to judge!" Gao Xiaoxiao patted the * fruit: "There is an orc turned into a pine tree...No, it should be called a vegetable...Uh, sorry, hahaha, it's not right, it should be called a pine tree!"

"Vegetable..."

Several people laughed, and Li Feng's expression was weird: "Animals have IQs and plants have IQs. What will the world be like in the future?"

No one could answer, everyone fell silent, thinking about Li Feng's question.

"What the * is inside, just open it and take a look."

Li Yun raised the Leap Fire God Sword, everyone was startled, and hurriedly avoided. Even the monsters in the distance screamed and fled, and dared to stop after running several hundred meters.

They have all seen the power of this flame sword, a branch and leaf that sweeps the sky and the sun, and another sword burns the huge pine tree demon to death. The power of the sword can be called destroying the world!

"Ding!"
