

Godly Choice 2361

Chapter 2361: prisoner

On the other hand, if they cannot keep the three million people on Weiyi Island-1.21 million permanent residents, two million floating populations and tourists from all over the world, country M will also become a laughing stock, and its international status may not plummet. But it will definitely be ranked behind Huang Xuanguo!

what to do?

Everyone, four-star generals, three-star generals, staff officers, logistics chiefs, etc., these big people who used to hold great power and awe-inspiring and unsatisfied, are now all lost in confusion, the more they think about it, the more cold sweats they feel.

The monsters that came out of the myth have not yet met them, and just used a trick to cover the sky, and Haowei Island was plunged into an unprecedented predicament!

"Strictly guard the port!"

Philip said in a deep voice: "The purpose of the opponent is unknown, and it may even be the enemy sent by Huang Xuanguo to destroy our port. We must defend several military bases on Oahu!"

A staff officer put forward a different opinion: "Huang Xuanguo once reminded us that there are mercenaries from other countries sneaking in. Will this fog be released by their people?"

"I only said it was possible, not sure."

Everyone has different faces.

Huang Xuanguo must have mastered a lot of information on mythological monsters, especially since they once captured a mythical land-the floating tower in the valley, the other party might send someone to release the mist.

But if the other party really has such a powerful force, there is no need to conceal it. With the cooperation of national power, it is enough to threaten the whole world, and directly find an excuse to attack Haowei Island from the front.

Just like their ambassador, he dared to invade other countries in the United Nations with a pack of washing powder.

"If it is true that mercenaries enter Haowei Island, what do they want to do?" Someone asked.

"There are several possibilities, but they will inevitably destroy our base and completely master Weiyi Island."

"Strictly guard against the deadlock, and don't let the other party's conspiracy succeed!"

"Do you want to tell the people about this?"

"Don't do it for the time being, so as not to cause panic, people's ships will go to sea at that time, causing casualties."

"Strengthen guard."

"That is to contact the White House, let them... also think of a way."

The only thing to be thankful for now is that the fog does not block communications. Otherwise, Haowei Island will be in chaos in an instant. The residents quickly know what is going on, afraid of the fog, and three million people become panicked and hurried. The state of fleeing, by then, the casualties will be really heavy!

"Report, report!"

A soldier rushed into the conference room out of breath, ignoring the stern gazes of these generals, and said quickly: "The White Palace came with an order that in the Pacific Ocean less than 300 nautical miles from us, a giant cruise ship was attacked by a giant whale. Let the generals send personnel to rescue as soon as possible!"

"Giant whale?!"

"Yes, a whale more than two hundred meters long hit a 100,000-ton cruise ship!"

"..."

The generals looked at each other, and after learning about the situation, the meeting room fell silent again.

"The White Palace let us go to the rescue?" A lieutenant looked weird. "Don't we report them that the fog of Haowei Island has trapped us? What are they doing? Think we are joking!?"

"Those * in the White Palace will play politics!" Another general was very upset with Otchima's team. "Those guys thought the thick fog was just a small matter, and maybe they haven't paid attention to it yet!"

Chapter 2362: Monster attack

Philip's face grew darker and darker, and said to the soldier: "You go back and report, and you say we can't get out, let the White House find a way to rescue."

After the soldiers left, everyone became silent.

Five days ago, Huang Xuanguo had already notified them that there were international mercenaries who had mixed into the customs of more than a dozen countries through various channels and entered the Haowei Island through cruises, airplanes, etc.

At that time, they threw the news directly into the trash can. Who would dare to make trouble on Haowei Island? Not to mention the hundreds of mercenaries, there are tens of thousands of them, but there is nothing to do with the 200,000 navy, army and air force here!

Unexpectedly, things would turn out to be like this!

ten minutes later.

"Report, report!" The soldier ran to report again, with an expression of excitement on his face: "The Ocean Princess has been cleared. A member of Huang Xuan killed the mysterious man who controlled the giant whale and controlled the giant whale. He, he He is Huang Xuanguo's super soldier, and it's said on the Internet that he is a super-man!!!"

"...We already know."

"Uh?"

The soldier looked up at the conference room. On the big screen inside, the situation on the Ocean Princess was playing on the spot. Some people were rescuing, some were celebrating, some were crying, and the sorrow and joy were mixed on the brightly lit cruise ship. People all over the world empathize, mourning for the dead tourists, and happy for the survivors.

"Or..." A staff member suggested in a low voice: "We let the Ocean Princess dock and ask that Huang Xuan countryman for help. We can benefit him privately, or even let him join country M and give him the best treatment. !"

Everyone was refreshed, yes, there is this way!

Country M is an immigrant country, so why can't it absorb Huang Xuanguo's superman?

No, he is not Superman Huang Xuan, but Superman M!

"Call me the captain of the Ocean Princess immediately!" Philip ordered immediately, with excitement: "I want to personally talk to the hero who saved the cruise ship, and invite him to Haowei Island!"

"Yes!"

The soldier immediately went to find a relationship and connected the captain's call through the boss of the Carnival Group.

In less than a minute, the soldiers hurriedly ran over again: "Report——!!!"

"What are you doing... Hey, you're not the one just now, say, what's the matter?"

"No, it's not good General, the seafood in the sea has landed!"

Everyone was taken aback, what a mess! ?

"No, that's not right!" The soldier quickly changed his words: "It is the fish in the sea that all ran ashore, and they also grew legs, tentacles, and tentacles!"

"... Are you crazy?"

Or is the world crazy?

"Mr. Lee, Mr. Lee!" After finishing the report, Captain Davis wiped the cold sweat on his forehead and said, "What should we do now? Hao Weiyi Island was attacked. I believe this incident will spread all over the world soon, causing The reaction is definitely stronger than ours!"

Hao Weiyi Island is too important. The younger brothers who are so important to Country M can't wait to pull it out, so that the Pacific Ocean can be restored to an ownerless state, so that the aircraft carrier of Country M will not trample on their ocean gates!

Li Yun pondered for a moment: "First, slow down the cruise speed, don't rush to get close to Hao Weiyi, I will wait for someone to come, and then make a decision."

".....Yes!"

Davis bowed respectfully and turned away.

He can't manage that much now, he just wants to let the Ocean Princess dock safely, as for the others, let the people on Haowei Island get a headache.

Chapter 2363: Pawn

In the capital, several of the most important leaders and more than 20 important leaders held a secret meeting.

"The news has been confirmed." A leader in his early fifties said first: "Reports from Shangguanming and Li Yun. After being covered by a thick fog, Haowei Island has now been caught in it!"

"Fight?" an old general couldn't wait to ask.

This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, and the domestic hawks can no longer help it from the moment they know the news!

Huang Xuanguo has been oppressed for too long. In the past few decades, even his own marine defense has been very difficult. The various submarines, warships, aircraft carriers, aircrafts, etc. on Weiyi Island have come to provocation from time to time. For the sake of economic development, Huang Xuanguo Had to squeeze my strength and endure it again and again.

If it is in a normal state, this situation will continue for several decades, until Huang Xuanguo stands upright, not afraid of the dozen or so aircraft carriers of the country M!

But now, the world situation is undergoing rapid changes, and a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity is in front of them!

As long as Weiyi Island is well laid down, Huang Xuanguo can win at least twenty years of peaceful development opportunities!

"I don't agree." Someone objected immediately.

"I also don't agree. This is completely different from the Pearl Island attack. This is an attack from those immortal cultivators at Six Daomen. The consequences of our participation are unknown!"

"Indeed, there are still Chinese citizens on Haowei Island, and we should find a way to rescue them."

"I heard that the fog can't get in or out. The White Palace and the 200,000 troops on Weiyi Island have nothing to do."

"The same as the last time on Shiwangfu Street?"

"What did Li Yun say?"

"He is waiting for our fighter to be manned over."

There was a lot of discussion, and basically rejected the idea of the Eagles taking the opportunity to send troops to capture Weiyi Island.

On the one hand, it has to bear unpredictable risks, and it will conflict with the six gates. On the other hand, even if all the warships on Weiyi Island are sunk, State M can still retain most of its strength, and subsequent retaliation will lead to a war quagmire.

Finally, there are at least tens of thousands of Huang Xuanguo tourists on Haowei Island. These are all things that need to be considered.

"I don't think we can fight or not." Xia Ming said slowly, everyone looked at him, and a leader asked, "You mean, Li Yun?"

"And Shanguan Ming."

Xia Ming smiled faintly, "They are the fighters fighting in the forefront. They are also the people who understand the situation best. If they say they want to send troops, I think we need to seriously consider whether to send troops to destroy the enemy and destroy the citizens of our country. Save it!"

"Occupy Weiyi Island by the way?" The leader who had just spoken to fight laughed.

The leaders are thoughtful. This is the best of both worlds. Of course, it is best to take the opportunity to send warships when Country M asks for help.

"Okay, it's so decided!"

The host of the meeting made a decision to shoot the table: "After tonight, the world's 7.5 billion people will know the existence of immortals through the Internet and live broadcast, and the world situation will also undergo earth-shaking changes!"

The host looked around the crowd for a week: "Our next task is very heavy. We must calm the people's emotions and we must always pay attention to the news on Haowei Island tonight. If you want to make a decision, make a decision as soon as possible. Don't let the soldiers in front of you wait long. In addition, strengthen guards in the capital to prevent Liudaomen from taking the opportunity to sneak attacks."

Everyone nodded. Tonight is destined to be a sleepless night, which is the same for 7.5 billion people around the world.

"I am now officially announcing a major military order: the two fleets in the East China Sea and the Nanhai Sea have entered a wartime state, and they should contact Li Yun at any time to give them the privilege of sending troops to Weiyi Island at any time! Including but not limited to warships and fighter jets. ,submarine!"

"Yes!"

No one opposes this important order of the host. Tonight, the initiative will be recorded in the annals of history!

Send troops to Weiyi Island, this is a vocabulary that makes all the soldiers of Huang Xuan country enthusiastic!

Chapter 2364: Princess Alice

Country Y, the Palace of Platinum.

This was once the center of this empire that never sets, and it is the palace that controls more than two billion people in the world, dozens of countries and regions, and is known as the most powerful and vast country in global history!

But all of this has vanished with the defeat of World War II.

The sun never sets, the empire has reached the point where it lives on an island, and even the island of Ireland has begun to become independent. The degree of decline, just like the age of Elizabeth II, has come to the point of dying.

Alice Windsor, the royal princess, the granddaughter of the late prince, and the fourth heir to the throne, this princess with beautiful golden and smooth hair, at this moment, regardless of royal etiquette, hurried into the palace with a report Inside, I saw Queen Elizabeth II who was about to sleep.

—If it were placed a hundred years ago, this kind of behavior would definitely be reprimanded, and there was no princess at all.

But after the glorious revolution three hundred years ago, country Y has gradually become a constitutional monarchy, the rights of Elizabeth II have been greatly reduced, and the so-called rules of the royal family have long been in vain, leaving only a little afterglow.

"grandmother!!"

Kneeling on one knee on Queen Elizabeth II's bed, Alice respectfully presented a report: "I wonder if you know what happened in the Pacific tonight?"

The rights of Elizabeth II were restricted by the Parliament, and his age was already high. The whale attack on the cruise ship that happened an hour ago was something that politicians all over the world could know in a flash, but for Elizabeth, no one wanted to know about it. If you tell her, maybe she won't understand what happened until tomorrow morning when she gets up to read the newspaper.

But the decision was made the next morning, all dishes were cold!

"The Pacific Ocean?"

With gray hair and wrinkles on her face, Elizabeth hesitated for a while, seemed to be thinking, and then replied after a long while: "What happened there? Someone hijacked the ship? However, there is good Wei Yi on the M country base. Now, there will be no major changes."

Speaking of Haowei Island, the country's monarch who has experienced the glory of the empire without setting sun, and then went from glory to decline, has a strong voice of helplessness.

Haowei Island is too strong. Country M has formed the Matthew effect: the stronger the stronger, the weaker the weaker.

By absorbing global talents, Country M is now strong enough to fight against the whole world!

In the past few decades, Country Y has followed them and has become a hypocrite that everyone in the world calls and beats. This is really helpless.

What is even more embarrassing is that the first immigrants from country M are actually from country Y! Even country Y once colonized and controlled country M.

"..."

Alice, who was on one knee, didn't know what to say for a while.

The mistress is too old, so old that she doesn't care much about the changes in the world, and may not even believe in the unthinkable.

But Alice knows deeply that this is an opportunity, the first great opportunity since the end of World War II!

Even in the next hundred years, there will be no such opportunity to revive the empire that never sets in the sun!

"Mother, I want you to hold a noble house meeting!" Alice stood up, her beautiful sky blue eyes shining with light!

"Aristocratic meeting? What do you want to do?"

The Y country's parliament is divided into upper and lower houses.

The House of Lords is called the House of Nobility and does not have much real power. The powers of the descendants of the royal family, hereditary aristocrats, lifelong nobles, judges of the court of appeal, and church archbishops and bishops are not in the House of Commons.

Chapter 2365: Underestimate your grandmother

Of course, the Presbyterian Church still has a lot of influence, and Alice wants to pass this, affect the Common People's House, and let those clumsy people make decisions as soon as possible.

"Grandma, the matter is urgent, I..."

"Don't worry, your grandmother is not old yet!"

Elizabeth saw the distrust of her great-granddaughter, a smile appeared on her face full of patterns, she reached out and nodded on her smooth forehead, and smiled kindly: "But you girl doesn't say anything, how can I hold it? The elders' meeting? Besides, it's already late at night."

The time difference is different. Li Yun is in the evening on the Pacific Ocean, but it is already late at night here.

Alice took a deep breath, "Grandma, don't get excited about what I'm going to say next, this is also for your health!"

Elizabeth squeezed her face amusedly, "During the war seventy years ago, the enemy sent hundreds of planes to bomb our land. It was your grandmother. I arranged for people to go to the air-raid shelter to escape, and decided to issue a mobilization speech to fight together. The enemy ruled. When I did these things, your father was not born yet."

The blonde princess Alice couldn't help being ashamed. Indeed, she looked down on her grandmother too much.

The grandmother went through the great war 70 years ago, and experienced the great collapse of the never-setting empire. After that, she was defeated at the East Canal and was attacked by two powerful national forces at that time.

There were great ups and downs in life, glorious troughs, and all kinds of things my grandmother had experienced, but that was all about the sea monsters.

"Grandma, please watch a video!" Thinking of this, Alice hurriedly played a video taken from the first point of view of the Ocean Princess tourists.

"Lord Tolkien's "Lord of the Rings" has a new movie?"

Elizabeth was surprised: "Or did Ms. Rowling's "Harry Potter" have a new novel?"

"..."

Alice covered her forehead, knowing it would be so.

The creator of the Lord of the Rings, Professor Tolkien, is the Lord of Country Y, and she was given the title by her grandmother.

Moreover, Harry Potter's author JK Rowling, also the Lord of Honor of the Sunless Empire, was also self-appointed by her grandmother. The names and works of these two writers have spread all over the world and have been more than twenty. Loved by billions of viewers.

From here alone, we can see how prosperous the culture of the once never-setting country is.

"Grandma, it's all real in the video!"

"real?"

It took a lot of effort, countless discussions and videos, and Alice called the servant to prove it, so that Elizabeth believed that this happened.

"Help me up."

Elizabeth's wrinkled face exuded an inexplicable brilliance, and her housekeeper hurriedly stepped forward and helped her sit on a chair.

"Let Johns come and see me!"

Queen Elizabeth II slapped the table angrily, and yelled at the housekeeper and servant: "Do you all treat me as an old man who doesn't know anything? Don't report such a big thing!"

The housekeeper opened his mouth sobbing, he didn't dare to speak.

It was Alice who made the rounds, saying that she was afraid that grandmother would have to rest and take care of her body.

"Your Majesty." The butler whispered: "The Chief Minister of Johns is holding a meeting, and the discussion is about the Haowei Island. How about...you and the princess go there in person?"

"...Okay, get a car."

If it were a hundred years ago, it was the prime minister and ministers who came to the Palace of Platinum in person, not the queen to find them.

Chapter 2366: The vegetable market begins

The arrival of Her Majesty the Queen caused panic among many ministers.

You know, the queen is 94 years old, and it's late at night. If you don't pay attention, it will happen... accidents!

What's more, the Platinum Palace and the ministers have done several funeral drills for Her Majesty the Queen after his death, and they have also given a code name: Pigeon Castle.

This is not disrespect to the queen, but the ministers respect her too much.

Elizabeth II has become a symbol of the empire that never sets. If she dies, it means that the empire that never sets has officially become a historical relic!

"Your Majesty, what are you...?" The Prime Minister (Prime Minister) Johns hurriedly left the main seat, wanting to go to welcome the Queen and the Princess.

"Don't worry about me, I want to attend this meeting."

Elizabeth waved her hand, found a place for herself and sat down with Alice.

With her age and status, ordinary storms of struggle have long been ignored, and others will not embarrass her anymore. In fact, after entering the new era, the never-settling country has already lost the soil of royal rule, and it will only become auspicious in the future. The existence of things in general.

It is almost impossible for the royal family to regain the right to rule, and it is impossible for the people to support them.

Unless, there is another talented monarch in the royal family, who gains unparalleled popularity, can he once again have the foundation of ruling the nation without setting sun!

"Your Excellency Johns."

Seeing his embarrassment, Alice took the initiative to explain: "My grandmother and I are only here to listen. After all, this is related to the interests of our people. I think even the king and princess should have the right to listen!"

"Of course." Johns nodded, "His Royal Highness is the fourth heir to the throne. Of course you are eligible to participate in meetings of elders, nobles and civilian ministers."

The vegetable market officially started.

The description of the vegetable market was not first proposed by Alice, but a joke from her grandmother, saying that once there are disagreements between the upper and lower houses, the two houses will be opposed, and the quarrel will be as lively as the vegetable market.

Alice participated in a meeting of the House of Commons for the first time, and now it looks like a vegetable market.

"I don't agree! Offending that rogue country will not end well!"

"I also don't agree. The domestic economy is already on a downward  this year. If we give Lican countries an excuse to sanction us, the consequences are unimaginable!"

"My suggestion is to wait and see. The fog that engulfed Weiyi is not that simple. I got news that the people in the White Palace are now in a mess and can't come up with good measures."

"Isn't that a chance for us to take advantage of this opportunity?" Alice couldn't help speaking.

"My princess!"

A minister smiled with a hint of sneer: "Even if the 200,000 soldiers and a large number of ships and planes on the island of Haowei are all destroyed, their global power still retains an incomparable deterrent. They... The sun won't set, it's still strong!"

At the end, he became helpless again.

Everyone nodded their heads. Most people did not approve of this matter. The best way is to watch the fire from the shore. If Haowei Island completely falls, then it will be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for Country Y, and there is no need to do more!

"I still disagree!"

Princess Alice, with long blonde hair and bright blue eyes, still has a strong tone: "First, it's not that we face Li Jian Nation alone. Others will definitely not let this opportunity go and send troops to look for opportunities, such as Huang Xuan Guo and fighting. Bear country!"

Chapter 2367: Everyone please see

Everyone frowned, mixing with these two countries?

After all, the princess is still young, she doesn't even know what Huang Xuanguo and the fighting bear country are facing internationally!

It can be said that the world-or Western countries don't want to see these two countries, even though they are both very powerful!

"your Highness."

"Second." Alice interrupted Johns's words and continued with the same tone: "The world situation has become turbulent with the appearance of those mysterious monsters. If we can't seize this fleeting opportunity, the empire will The decline is even worse!"

Everyone was speechless.

"His Royal Highness Princess Alice!"

Johns increased his tone and looked at her with straight eyes: "I think you are not yet the age to participate in the discussion of country and family affairs!"

Means, you yellow-haired girl don't speak any more.

Everyone looked at the princess with some teasing, but Elizabeth, just silent, did not speak to her great-granddaughter.

If you want to gain a foothold in Parliament, you can only rely on yourself.

"Then Lord Johns meant that we don't send troops? Our fleet will stay in the harbor to sleep tonight?" Alice asked aggressively.

"This is the best choice."

"Abandon the safety of our people?"

Alice's voice became severe: "There are tens of thousands of Chinese citizens on Haowei Island. Their lives are seriously threatened, but we sit here and do nothing?!"

Johns's expression was stagnant, "I didn't mean that, I'll call Okima in the White House personally later, and ask him to protect us..."

"Okima cannot protect itself!"

Alice took out her phone indifferently and played a recording.

The two people in the recording are using Chinese, one is from Huang Xuan, and the other is standing in front of them, the voice of Her Royal Highness Princess Alice!

"This is a conversation between me and Li Yun, the hero who saved the Ocean Princess." Alice's mouth turned up. "He told me that Haowei Island was already contacting him for help, and hinted that if he joins, will be awarded directly to the four-star general!"

"Li Yun!"

A group of parliamentarians looked at each other, and most of them had heard of the name for the first time.

However, there are already some people who are already familiar with this name.

"He is Huang Xuanguo's secret weapon."

"Also the chairman of Baiyun Technology."

"The origin is very mysterious, and it seems to have mastered the power beyond ordinary people!"

Members of the House of Representatives talked a lot, and Johns sat in his position, and for the first time since taking office three years, he felt that the Parliament was not in his control.

"If you still don't believe--"

Alice clapped her hands, and her servant, who was standing at the door of the meeting room, immediately walked in, holding a long stick wrapped in pure white cloth in her hand, and sent it respectfully to the front of the Princess Palace.

"Your Royal Highness, your weapon!" The servant knelt on one knee, like a * servant who offered a weapon in the myth, with a fanatical and awe-inspiring expression.

"Alice, you!"

Everyone, including Queen Elizabeth II, looked at her in surprise.

"Everyone, please see!"

Alice stretched out her hand to grab the weapon with a hundred cloths, raised it high, and waved it hard.

boom!

A flame appeared out of thin air, igniting the cloth instantly, and the strong fire and heat radiated out, shocking the surrounding members of Parliament and forgetting to escape.

Everyone lost their color in amazement, and stared blankly at the weapon made of gold-red and dazzling gold in the hands of the princess's Royal Highness.

No, this is an artifact! ! !

Chapter 2368: Valkyrie

"What is this?!" Johns stood up in shock, his eyes full of horror.

"The legendary Hades weapon."

Alice's face was calm, she held this golden double-stranded fork and lightly tapped it against the table in front of her. With a bang, flames emerged, and the entire table melted into red coke instantly, and the powerful force once again shocked everyone.

"Hades..." a minister murmured: "I seem to have heard of this man, no, this great god, he is the master of hell, rules the underworld, and controls our dead souls!"

"Myths and legends!?"

"Hades?!"

"Are all the gods in mythology real?"

"Is this Alice you found in the ancient cemetery?"

"Oh my God, the history of our country is so missing!"

"So powerful, this weapon is so powerful!"

"Alice, Your Royal Highness...!!!"

More than 300 parliamentarians, ministers, nobles, and bishops all looked at Alice together, with wonderful expressions on their faces.

This is their first close encounter with extraordinary things, and it is far more shocking than what you saw in the video!

And holding the magical Alice, who is tall and made of gold, with a delicate face under the light of the fire, she is like a Valkyrie who descends from the sky, leading the Japanese empire to glory again!

"I approve of sending troops!" The congressman who opposed the most fiercely before stood up enthusiastically, saluted Alice respectfully, and said excitedly: "Your Royal Highness, you have an unimaginable power, and you are with that Huang Xuanguo. Li Yun is very close, and we can join hands with him to win...No, no, we are just going to save the citizens of our empire!"

He began to emphasize that the sun never sets, which is self-evident.

It is the wish of everyone here to revive the empire that never sets in!

"I agree too!" Another congressman stood up. "There are tens of thousands of Chinese citizens on Haowei Island. Since they can't protect them, then we have reason to send a boat to pick them up!"

As long as the ship goes, whether to pick it up, or to stop at Haowei Island for a while, it's up to them to decide!

"I also agree. In addition, I propose that Her Royal Highness be the commander-in-chief of this operation!"

"Agree."

The Presbyterian House, the Common House, and at least two hundred of the three hundred ministers were in favor. Johns wanted to oppose it, and he could not stop Her Royal Highness Princess Alice from "going out" tonight.

"Then you, without further ado, I will go to the port now!" Alice smiled slightly and said firmly: "Please rest assured, I will return with victory!"

The crowd was full of enthusiasm, as if they saw the legendary Valkyrie leading the army and shouted:

"Looking forward to the triumph of Her Royal Highness!"

"Send your Royal Highness the princess!"

The staff member who filmed this meeting as a record was William. He pointed the camera lens at the back of Princess Alice's departure, his eyes were frenzied, and he looked like a guardian knight of a princess.

"We will usher in the great victory of a century!"

"And this victory is brought by the great Princess Alice!"

"I must let all the people pay tribute to the heroic appearance of the princess!"

William was extremely enthusiastic, and his body was shaking with excitement. After a word, he immediately took out the memory card in the camera, slightly deleted the image recorded just now, and removed some content that should not be made public, and then directly uploaded it to the Internet.

"Let this storm come more violent!" William looked at the person in the video who was shocked and exclaimed the Princess, and his heart became more and more excited.

In ancient times, Arthur drew his sword and became the king. Today, Alice is holding a spear. The empire will never set, and the glory of the past will be restored again!

"Long live your Royal Highness!"

Chapter 2369: Future queen

"You said, you came to me with an aircraft carrier fleet?"

Li Yun was shocked. He received at least ten phone calls just now. Various people called him to inquire about him, including Fang Xue, Gong Qingyu, Xia Ming, Liao Hua, and even the leaders of Beijing. , All personally called him to ask about his current situation, and cordially expressed his condolences and care, saying that the two fleets in the East Coast Sea and the South Coast Sea are ready to go. If you need help, just contact Xia Ming directly.

—The reason why I did not contact the commanders of the two fleets was that the people in the capital were afraid that Li Yun would not know them for a while and would delay things, so it would be better to contact Xia Ming directly.

Li Yun only had a wry smile, but he couldn't imagine that things would get worse.

If you are not careful, it is not impossible for the third war to happen directly.

This Royal Highness Princess Alice is a blonde beauty Li Yun once met in Yongning Princess City. She has noble and elegant temperament and strong abilities and means. Li Yun once cooperated with her once, and then gave it to her. A gold double-strand fork.

The purple grade is not very powerful, but it is related to the Hades of the Western legend, and it is just right to give to Alice, the princess of the Never Settling Kingdom.

"Come to support you."

Standing on the deck of the aircraft carrier, Alice said quite playfully. She looked back at the more than a dozen majestic fighter jets on the aircraft carrier and the frigate that followed closely to protect the aircraft carrier. Her heart was full. Excited and proud:

"Li Yun, you must help me this time!"

Li Yun is inexplicable, why is this blond princess so straightforward!

"I got the news. Not only did we send out an aircraft carrier, you Huang Xuanguo, Fighting Bear Country, Lance, Asan, etc., are all ready to move, and things are not going to end so soon tonight!"

Alice said sternly: "I don't know what the direction will be, but at least we have to participate in it and see the strength of those mythological monsters head-on, and we must not sit still!"

So, Li Yun, you have to help me! "

"Uh."

Li Yun opened his mouth, Your Royal Highness, you are really not welcome at all!

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Explicitly help Alice Windsor and help her win certain benefits, so as to gain support from the domestic people, rewards, all attributes +100,000, experience value +100 million, colorful gift bags*3, skill Dan*3, Aura value * 500,000, additional reward: Princess Alice's favorability degree +10, there is a certain probability of getting the support of a real power queen in the future.

Option 2: Practicing Tai Chi, walking and watching, reward purple gift bag *3, Alice favorability degree +3.

Option three: sneer and refuse, face the crisis of Weiyi Island alone, win all the benefits, and reward peerless treasures*1. "

"Li Yun~."

Alice's voice turned soft, and there was a shy smile on the corners of her mouth: "You helped me tonight. I, I would like to be your secret overseas girlfriend, how about?"

"puff!"

Li Yun directly vomited blood, the princess was really bold, and directly began to use beauty.

However, she is really qualified to use this beauty plan.

Alice Windsor is not only a noble birth, she is a rare princess from a big country, far from the imperial family of those small countries, and she is a great beauty, especially Li Yun recalled her pair of slender and fit long legs. As well as Jin Cancan's long hair, I was so excited.

The cold and proud Valkyrie, who doesn't love?

Chapter 2370: There are so many benefits

Therefore, Li Yun decisively chose to refuse.

Even if it is to obtain a future queen, coupled with generous rewards, Li Yun does not want to provoke too many women now, it is too troublesome!

It's not that it's troublesome to take care of the confidante around him, and of course it feels good to be with the girl you like, but that Alice has nothing to do with him, and Li Yun doesn't bother to pursue more beauties. Thorny.

Now the confidante beside Li Yun is enough, no more!

"Don't rush to refuse, I have many advantages."

Alice listed the benefits of being Li Yun's girlfriend one by one, and finally said: "You don't need to be responsible. You only need to come to country Y once in a while and see me when you come to travel. Will be with other men again, and...whatever you do."

"Alice, these words don't seem to be what you said!" Li Yun's expression was weird. Didn't this reduce his position to the dirt?

"Hehe, you didn't know me last time, did you meet this time? Okay, that's it, you help me, I'll be your girlfriend, that's it!"

Alice hung up the phone with a triumphant smile on her lips.

Of course she is not such a humble princess, but believes in Li Yun.

Believe that he will not be so shameless, go to country Y to play with her, and will not expose what she said just now, so Alice can safely say those words and deliberately pick Li Yun.

The intention is also very simple, that is, to get closer to him.

Otherwise, just because the two met in the underground tombs last time and only got along for two or three days, why did others help you?

So Alice took the initiative to use the beauty trick.

Another reason... She does have a good impression of Li Yun.

"Golden double-stranded fork, he just gave it to me so easily..."

Alice took this weapon, her eyes faint, she didn't know what she was thinking.

Not far away from her, a group of people who were originally dissatisfied with the things that the princess was commanding them, saw the videos spread on the Internet, especially after seeing the weapons in the hands of the princess that actually burst into flames, now they look at her again, their eyes are already There is a hint of respect.

To have such a powerful princess is the luck of the empire that never sets in!

Li Yun was shocked and put the phone on the table.

He closed his eyes and recalled the news he had just learned.

The situation is changing much faster than he imagined. As long as the stronger countries in the world, it is estimated that they will send a fleet to Haowei Island to see what is going on. Not to mention conspiracy to take Haowei Island, but at least close observation. Now, what is the so-called mythical monster!

Especially now that Li Yun is still allowing giant whales to fish at sea, the world's major satellites can directly observe this huge monster from space, and it is estimated that they will be even more curious.

And, deep fear.

"You go and tell the captain!" Li Yun turned to look at the secretary sent by the captain who was guarding the door, "Let him speed up and drive to Haowei Island!"

The secretary was visibly stunned, swallowed, and said in English: "Mr. Li Yun, are we really going to Haowei Island? I saw the news that a monster explosion happened on the island, and there are so many oceans. The creatures are all pouring ashore!"

Li Yun was startled, "When is the news?"

"Just now, a reporter risked his death and came to the coast and captured the scene of the defenders of the Weiyi Island base fighting with the monsters!" The secretary picked up the phone and said quickly, "Mr. Li, are we going to make a detour..."

"No, continue to move in the direction of Haoweiyi Island!"
