Chapter 2381: Let go of the belly to eat

Everyone was stunned!

The two-hundred-meter long and thousands of tons of big guy jumped onto the island, leaning on the flippers and tail, and jumping forward on the island forcibly.

Every time the giant whale jumps, it will make a loud explosion sound when it hits the ground. Countless monsters are crushed. The giant whale is constantly twisting its head, twisting left and right, swallowing monsters along the way with its big mouth full of fangs and sharp teeth. !

Too happy.

Yes, everyone could see that this giant whale was clearly jumping and swallowing happily. It followed the domestic puppy and flicked its tail crazily after seeing the food tray, its tongue stretched out.

It's so graphic!

"Giggle." Jin Liuli couldn't help laughing. "Feiyao, that big whale is so happy and walks on its belly."

Xia Feiyao's eyes widened, and a sentence came out of her small mouth: "Will the big whale eat so many weird foods, will it be poisoned?"

Among the marine demonized creatures, there are jellyfish, mullet, octopus, shells, sea prawns, etc., especially the blue and quiet jellyfish, which is not easy to provoke at first glance.

"I don't think so!" Su Muxin said with a serious gesture: "Those monsters are like fried beans in the mouth of a giant whale. They are poisonous and not very poisonous, but they eat a lot, and they seem to have grown up again. , Is it because of the aura?"

Eat Reiki?

Li Yun thought of one thing, or rather, thought of his own daughter!

"Fluttershy, come out."

Raising his hand, the black feather butterfly, who was sleeping in the fairy mansion, appeared in front of the four women. They were the first time they saw the beautiful and delicate black feather butterfly with three pairs of starry sky wings, like a goddess, and they were a bit dazed for a while. Living.

"Baba?"

The Black Feather Butterfly lying on Li Yun's palm rubbed his eyes and sat up, lazily kicked his calf, looked around dimly, and was about to spread his wings and flutter and kiss Baba's face suddenly.

She smelled something delicious!

"Wow...? Wow!!!"

The Black Feather Butterfly woke up in an instant, and quickly hit Li Yun's cheek like lightning + kissed, the black figure turned, and projected like a ray of light onto the small island in the distance.

Hundreds of thousands of demonized marine creatures seemed to feel something, and they all calmed down.

The giant whale that was happily tossing and devouring, its huge body was directly frozen in the air, and then it fell straight down, hitting the ground with a bang, and did not dare to move!

"Here, it's all Xiaodie's!"

Black Feather Butterfly spoke in a squeaky voice, opened her mouth wide, and the wind was violent in an instant. Countless spiritual energy and mist were sucked into her mouth. The suction power was so great that even the clouds in the sky were about to hang down. It seemed that the entire Pacific Ocean was sucked dry by her!

With such a domineering and fierce scene, not to mention the tens of thousands of tourists on the cruise ship dumbfounded, Li Yun himself was frightened.

The ten great evil insects of ancient times are really not worthy of a name.

In the fairy house, the black feather butterfly has obviously curbed his desire for hunger, and carefully only eats some spirit fruits to maintain physical activity.

But when it comes to the outside world, when encountering a place full of aura, the black feather butterfly directly reveals its cruel side, releases its belly, and uses its magical powers to swallow all the aura that can demonize millions of marine creatures on an entire island. Lose!

"This is... Li Yun, the elf you raised?"

Xiao Mingzhu recalled the cute little elf he saw just now, and then looked at the scene where countless monsters were trembling with fright and fled hurriedly. It is hard to believe that such a shocking movement was caused by the cute little butterfly elf. of!

Chapter 2382: The enemy is coming

"She's called Black Feather Butterfly." Li Yun smiled slightly and explained to the four women: "She is like a monster and a gu worm. She has a high IQ, can talk, talk with people, and can tell right from wrong. Creation is another kind of creature."

"She seems to call your father too?" Su Muxin thought of this, and a blush appeared on her pretty face.

She...also called Li Yun's father, hehe.

"Pet, and daughter." Li Yun smiled.

Xiao Mingzhu nodded to express that he understood that many modern people have kittens and puppies, and they regard them as part of their families.

The black feather butterfly has a very high IQ. It is not surprising that Li Yun raised her as a daughter. If she had obtained such a beautiful and delicate elf, she would be pleasantly surprised to raise her.

It's just...Will Li Yun's black feather butterfly grow up?

"Um?"

Li Yun stopped talking with them, turned his head to look into the distance, and the four women followed. He was surprised to find that there were a few more black shadows in the distant sky, just like seagulls flying in the sky. Came here quickly.

At the same time, there were several whale calls from the sea in the distance, spreading vastly in the middle of the night in the sea, giving people a feeling of horror.

"The enemy is coming."

Li Yun's face was indifferent, with a single hand, the intercalary fire sword appeared in his hand, and the blue flame quickly wrapped around the red sword, exuding a terrifying sense of power, making the four women beside him awed in awe.

Xiao Mingzhu turned his head to the secretary's voice with a hint of majesty: "Report to the captain immediately, and let the security on board be prepared, and stand on the deck with a gun to defend against the enemy!"

"Yes, yes!" The secretary was startled. Why did the enemy come again?

At the same time, I was somewhat fortunate. Fortunately, there was Mr. Li on the cruise ship. Otherwise, if they left alone, they would definitely be overtaken by the monsters in the sea, and the consequences would be disastrous.

"Brother Li Yun~~" Jin Liuli came up coquettishly, looking at the sword in Li Yun's hand greedy.

"Don't call me the big bad guy?" Li Yun said with a smile.

When this girl begged him, she called Brother Li Yun, and when she was arrogant, she called big bad guys and big satyrs.

Of course, Li Yun can still be her husband, husband, and husband at night.

"Hee hee~"

Jin Liuli put his arms around him, acting cute and coquettish, blinking with big eyes, a faint trace of charming girlishness was revealed, which was so heartbreaking that he could not wait to hug her and kiss her.

Li Yun's eyelids jumped, and helplessly took out a sword embroidered with a golden dragon on the hilt: "This is a golden dragon sword. I can't use it for the time being. Let me say it first. It can only be used for self-defense, not active attacks! "

He now has the Leap Fire God Sword, and his own strength is more than several times stronger. The golden quality Golden Dragon Sword has little effect.

"YESSIR! Guarantee to complete the order!" Jin Liuli's slender, white palms were raised together, her petite body straightened, and her small face bowed to Li Yun with a serious face, making Xia Feiyao's three daughters laugh directly.

Xiao Liuli must have learned these messy things from those mercenaries.

Snapped.

Li Yun blankly slapped her head with the hilt of the Golden Dragon Sword, and Jin Liuli smiled and took the golden sword and stroked it back and forth with love.

At the same time, he triumphantly gave Xiao Mingzhu a look, making the latter dumbfounded. Dare to feel that this cute little girl has been jealous of her taking the ice sword that Li Yun gave her?

"Get ready, the enemy is coming, don't despise the opponent."

Chapter 2383: Stand ready

Li Yun warned the four women, but also warned himself.

The congenital Taoist is very strong, but it is not equal to invincibility, especially his current method of transporting mana is still very immature, and he doesn't know much about various spells. Facing the enemy's weird methods, if you look down on the enemy's strange methods, you may be too big deficit.

Li Yun can spend huge sums of money at the gambling table, 500 billion yuan, and even Baiyun Technology can take it out to bet.

But on the battlefield, when four confidantes were still standing behind him, he wouldn't bet once!

"coming."

Li Yun whispered, the enemy in the distance had come close.

"Woo~~"

"Crack!"

The roar of more than a dozen monsters sounded messily, a weird and terrifying atmosphere once again enveloped the Ocean Princess.

Many of the old people and children who survived the last attack can't hold back to sleep, but now these monsters that have never appeared on earth hover above their heads again, and the strange cry seems to be able to bring this ship to sleep. The 10,000-ton cruise ship was shattered!

"Why, why are you here again?"

"Mom, mom, it's so scary, the monster is so scary! Uuuuuu."

"Don't be afraid, don't be afraid, mother is holding Jenny, don't be afraid, with Mr. Li Superman and Huang Xuanguo Invincible Superman, he can definitely defeat the bad guys!"

"Really?"

"Of course it's true, yeah, look at Jenny, Superman has done it!"

A fiery red with a touch of blue flame soared into the sky, rushing towards the monsters hovering in the sky, dispelling these weird-looking monsters, and fled to the distance in panic.

The people on the boat cheered, and as soon as possible, the scene before them greatly exceeded their imagination of the battle, but they were still cheering for "Superman Li"!

——Li Chaoren, this is called because they don't know Li Yun's name, they just heard it from the captain and some crew members.

On the 6th, 10th, and 14th decks of the cruise ship, the three teams are already waiting. Shangguanming, Doris, and the captain led a pair of security guards, replaced the small pistols, and replaced them with people from Yan Jingyi and Yu Shengnan. Of submachine guns and various heavy weapons.

"My God...what the * is this!"

Doris looked at more than a dozen strange birds in the sky, and there were several huge monsters in the sea: three huge whales, a shark over 30 meters, and a tentacle covering a radius of 100 meters. It was like the myth of Cthulhu. The horrible octopus like Mr. Ke in China!

Doris saw this scene with his hands shaking. He couldn't help but gave himself two big ear scrapers, crying and muttering to himself: "Boss Li, Mr. Li, Superman Li, you must help us. I was wrong, I was really wrong before, and when it's safe tonight, I will kowtow to Li Chaoren to apologize!"

Thinking of the "small conflict" with Li Yun before, Dorris wanted to slap himself a few more times.

Mr. Li did not slap him to death. Sure enough, there are a large number of adults, and the yellow race is the big measure!

——In order to survive, Doris madly said nice things to Superman Li.

"Stand up!"

Shangguanming's voice came from the intercom, and Dorris straightened up quickly and shouted to the players who were also shivering with fright: "Give me that good gun, who the * is..."

"boom!"

Before he could speak, the sound of gunshots rang out in front of Doris' eyes, and the people around him were almost half scared to death, looking at the shooter in horror.

"Old, boss!" The man's hands and feet were shaking, "I, my hands are out of control, I..."

"You TM get out of here!"

Doris slapped him and knocked out his gun.

But after thinking about it, Doris kicked him again: "F*uck, you * die, give me a weapon and take out the dagger."

"Yes, yes! Boss."

Chapter 2384: One person, one bag

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Kill everyone in the six gates, reward justice value + 500,000, experience value + 10 million, all attributes + 3000, golden gift bag * number of kills, additional reward: aura value + 100,000.

Option 2: Stand on the bow and frighten the many monsters, wait for the opportunity, and the reward is yet to be determined.

Option three: I slipped away. jpg, reward skill: what good is it for you to eat so much? "

Li Yun's eyes lit up, and he actually killed someone to reward a golden gift bag?

In an instant, the group of people from the Six Doors who were riding on the monsters turned into golden bags with tightly closed mouths in his eyes, all of which were full of colorful quality equipment, so they were so happy to fly!

"Beasts, are you guys here?" Li Yun shouted loudly, his words were full of joking meaning, making the group of six demon-riding sects furious.

"Boy is so bold!"

"Rampant, suffer to death!"

"You are Li Yun?!"

An old man riding a huge seagull with an incomparable look in his eyes swooped down, condescendingly and asked Li Yun: "Did you kill my junior brother?!"

"Your Junior Brother?" Li Yunman casually lit up the Leap Fire God Sword in his hand, "I don't know who your Junior Brother is, but I used the sword to kill a beast wearing a black robe and claiming to be a brute."

Xiao Mingzhu suffocated a smile. It turned out that Li Yun meant that when they scolded them as beasts.

The cultivator who was born in the Six Dao Men Beast Dao, controls the demons and threatens mortals = Beast, this is a very reasonable name.

"court death!"

The eyes of the vulture old man burst out with an angry fire, and he looked at Li Yun stubbornly.

Li Yun is naturally not afraid. He is much stronger now than a few hours ago. The congenital Dao tire has given him a strong self-confidence. I can't wait for one of these people to return to the Void Realm, so that the sword in his hand can pass. Kill the addiction of returning to the virtual world!

"Arrogant kid, I don't know how high the sky is!"

The old man slapped the head of the seagull monster under his feet and ordered it to attack.

The seagull demon didn't move.

"You beast, attack him!" The old man became more and more angry, but the beast at the foot of the critical moment gave birth to bones. After returning, he has to beat him severely to let him know who is the master!

The seagull demon uttered a long cry, and the shaking of its wings became more intense, bringing up violent winds, which made the old man vaguely feel that something was wrong.

"what happened?"

Li Yun took the sword and flew up, step by step towards the sky, with a bright smile on his face: "You beasts can't control the same kind anymore? Tsk tsk, for those of you who have the face to talk about your own beasts, I think you are not a beast at all. , Go directly to the underworld, and devote yourself to the beast road yourself, and be a beast in your next life."

"Boy is so courageous!"

The six sects who controlled the group of monsters in the sky were furious, and drove the monsters under their feet to fly.

Everyone under the cruise ship was stunned. The security guards' hands trembling with their guns, huge and weird monsters flying in the sky, and the screams of these monsters echoed all over the sky. The screaming calls made my heart chilling.

Sudden.

The movement of the group of monsters stopped in an instant, a fiery red sword light flashed, and the four people on the back of the monster were directly cut off!

"These beasts..."

Another sword light flew by, and the three heads flew up again, and the blood fell one after another. The scene was extremely tragic, and Su Muxin was a little afraid to watch it.

The Liudaomen were shocked, and they finally realized that the beasts at their feet were all controlled by this kid!

Chapter 2385: kill

"Little things, all attack your original masters, be good, I will take you to a big meal after the fight."

Li Yun laughed and sent a thought to these monsters that he had tamed with the beast control technique. The monsters hovering in the sky moved again, tumbling and biting frantically, attacking the former master and the people around him. .

Li Yun entered with a sword, and the scene instantly became chaotic.

Toba, blood, and severed limbs fell one after another, and the screams kept screaming. Li Yun, holding the fire * sword, followed the tiger into the flock, and cooperated with the rebellious monsters to behead the six sects in the sky one by one.

"you!"

Cruising on the surface of the sea, the people controlling the giant whales and sharks were extremely angry. They thought that so many people would be enough to deal with the incoming enemy. I did not expect to be killed by Li Yun alone, and the monsters under his feet were also killed by the opponent. Take away control easily.

"I'll let all your people die!" The Liudaomen disciple standing on a giant whale looked grim, looked at the brightly lit Ocean Princess, stomped the giant whale fiercely, and shouted: "Knock me over. he!"

"Woo~!"

The giant whale let out a sky-shaking cry, and a huge water column spouted from its back, which happened to hit a petrel monster in the sky over a hundred meters high.

"Ah, not good." Jin Liuli shouted: "The big whale is spraying water, it is breathing air and accumulating energy, I, we..."

"Everyone who disturbs Xiaodie's eating, except Dad, is dead!"

A sharp, small sound came from a small island in the distance, and then, a faint red light flashed across, piercing the head of the giant whale, piercing the six disciples on its back, and disappearing into the distant sky.

Bright as a comet.

Li Yun, a disciple of the Six Dao Sects, many monsters, and the people on the cruise ship's chills stood up in an instant, as if feeling a great sense of crisis, so nervous that he even forgot to breathe, his eyes looked at the red light dumbly. .

Endure for a long time.

Five seconds later, the head of the giant whale exploded with a bang, and exploded along with the person on its back. A wave of blood sprayed onto the cruise ship, as if to coat the ocean princess with a layer of red paint.

"This red light... terrible!"

Xiao Mingzhu let out a sigh of relief. The red light should have come from a black feather butterfly. It was only the size of a thumb. The power was truly earth-shattering. She suspected that a little bit of the red light could cut the 400-meter-long cruise ship.

It is even more terrifying than the epoch-making laser weapon newly developed by the country!

If that little black feather butterfly can fire continuously, she alone can dominate the Pacific Ocean!

"A small slap-sized thing dominates the Pacific Ocean... Why is this scene so weird?"

Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help but think of a picture: Li Yun stretched out his hand to support the black feather butterfly, the little thing constantly biubiubiu emitted red light, shooting groups of enemies...

"escape!"

The remaining six sects were frightened by the red light and Li Yun's methods, and, apart from anything else, they turned around and fled while the beasts under their feet were still under control.

Two giant whales, a big shark, and a funny picture of a hundred-meter-long octopus desperately upstreaming the sea made everyone on the cruise stunned. Many people began to cheer, cheering for Huang Xuanguo's Li Chaoren!

"pity."

After Li Yun killed all the six men in the sky, the enemy on the sea had fled to a distance. Although he could catch up, he didn't want the four women on the boat without his protection to prevent the enemy from turning the tiger away from the mountain.

At this moment, a fighter plane cut through the night sky.

Chapter 2386: Fairy descends

Everyone looked up at the sky in astonishment. The speed of the fighter jet was extremely fast. After it passed the cruise ship, the sonic boom rolled over.

"Which country's plane is this?"

The speed of the fighter was so fast that everyone could not see the nationality mark on it, until this mighty and extraordinary fighter was pulled up and rushed up, pulling straight above the heads of the four six-door men in a nearly vertical manner. Everyone saw the national emblem on its fuselage.

"Five stars! One big and four small!"

Su Muxin's eyes lit up, and a feeling of pride came to her heart, and she shouted, "Xiao Liuli, it's our fighter!"

Jin Liuli was stunned for a moment. She had rarely paid much attention to the government before, let alone a good impression.

But now when I am overseas, when I see the five stars that I felt a little disgusting before, I actually feel a kind of inexplicable touch.

After I went abroad, I learned about the concept of hometown after seeing many black and white foreigners with blond hair and blue eyes.

The hometown is the place where you have the same skin color, the same language, and the same culture as yourself, so you can have a strong sense of belonging!

"Wow!!!"

Jin Liuli waved and shouted, "The fighter is so handsome!!!"

Xia Feiyao was equally excited. The fighter planes of her own country were the first to come to the rescue, and they leaped thousands of miles into the ocean and came to her.

This feeling... is really great!

"It's really handsome, but—" Li Yun looked at the glass door of the cockpit that the climbing fighter had opened, and after seeing the peerless figure in the co-pilot seat inside, he couldn't help but smile: "Next will be More handsome!"

"what?"

In Jin Liuli's surprised eyes, a pure white female figure fluttered down from the fighter plane, like a fairy of nine days descending to the mortal dust, and the eyes of all the creatures in the world converged on the fallen fairy.

Looked at her foolishly.

Looking at the sword in her hand, a bright purple thunder burst out, falling from the sky, sweeping away all the evil spirits in the world.

"It's the Purifying Sword of the Saintess of the Hidden Sacred Valley...No!!!"

The four Liudaomen who escaped, and the monsters at their feet, could only turn into ashes in their panic. The purple thunder fell on the sea, and the rays of thunder spread, but they did not kill a fish on the sea. They only turned the evil spirits. Beheaded!

Everyone was stunned again. Today they have seen too many magical things, but now they see the fairy descending from the sky, and the peerless picture of defeating the group of demons is still shocked to speak.

Beautiful, as beautiful as the goddess of wisdom and war in the myth, full of divine charm!

"Ding, the host makes a choice, kills all the six gates in front of him, rewards justice value + 500,000, experience value + 10 million, all attributes + 3000, golden gift bag * 15, extra reward: aura value + 100,000. "

"Qing Sheng."

The huge amount of golden gift bags couldn't make Li Yun excited. He looked at the fairy who fell from the sky tightly, couldn't help but flew up, greeted the graceful figure falling in the distance, and hugged her tightly. In my arms, my heart is turbulent and hard to calm.

"Li Yun, I'm here." The cold and immortal Saint Fan Qing was hugged by him. In his arms, he quickly gave up flying, and let Li Yun take him down. In the bright and clear eyes looking at him, Faintly have the tenderness of reunion.

"Um!"

From an angle that Su Muxin's daughters could not see, Li Yun quietly bit the small ears of the holy fairy in his arms, making the fairy's breathing suddenly become unstable.

Chapter 2387: Qingsheng

"Would you like to kiss me?" Fan Qingsheng was as straightforward and pure as ever. The two stepped on the sea. Li Yun looked at her beautiful eyes with a hint of desire, and almost couldn't help but hug her tightly and kiss. I kissed her until she breathed slightly, her beautiful eyes were blurred, and her holy and beautiful face appeared dizzy and red, and then we stopped.

Li Yun knew, had seen it, and personally let Qing Sheng show such a moving expression!

"You decide." But Li Yun still held back, just looked at her eyes and chuckled: "If I kiss you now, our relationship will definitely be exposed, but my current strength is soaring. I'm not afraid that your elders will oppose it!"

Li Yun squeezed his fists and said proudly and proudly: "I am now able to compete with Qingyue you, and I am no longer the one I used to be...cough cough, white face!"

"Yes?"

There was a faint smile in the eyes of the Sage Fanqing, even the beautiful and clean, slightly ruddy corners of his mouth raised a little: "You are not a little white face, you have never been, if you want to kiss me, you can kiss me. But) you don't want to kiss now, (so) I want to hear your inner thoughts."

She covered Li Yun's chest with her white palms, feeling the powerful beating in his heart, making her heart happy with it.

Li Yun can be regarded as discovering a shortcoming of Fanqingsheng.

This temperament, figure, background, family background, character, voice, etc., can be called a perfect fairy, but there is a shortcoming in him:

Talking is messy.

Often two sentences are connected into one sentence, and sometimes some words are omitted inexplicably, such as "but, so" and ignored, which makes people wonder what she said for a long time.

That's it!

"Haha." Li Yun couldn't help but laugh, maybe it has something to do with Qing Sheng's reluctance to talk?

After falling in love with him, Sage Fanqing talked more and more, maybe it will become normal in the future?

"My thoughts?"

The two of them were still standing on the sea, and Li Yun knew that Su Muxin and Jin Liuli must have been looking at this side, guessing about his relationship with Fan Qingsheng, so they could only make a quick decision.

"I think." Li Yun paused and said with a smile: "Hiding our relationship has a special nasty taste. For example, if Concubine Wan Qing knew about my relationship with you, she would definitely be shocked. Then if there is a chance, , How about we personally scare her?"

It's like a little boy prank.

But Fan Qingsheng nodded and agreed, without any dissatisfaction.

Of course, there seems to be no expectation, just to satisfy Li Yun's evil taste and cooperate with him in doing these things.

"Qingsheng, do you care if our relationship is not open?" Li Yun took her hand and flew to the cruise ship and asked directly.

"Will not."

"Well, if you care, just say it, no, you should say what you want from me, just say it, I will try my best to do it!"

"Yeah~" Fan Qingsheng took his hand and said with her voice like that day: "The same is true for you. You can do anything you want to me."

For example, things between men and women?

Li Yun couldn't help laughing. Qing Sheng must mean that. She didn't expect it, but only satisfied her boyfriend's idea of being an ordinary man.

The Sanctuary of Vatican has always been so pure, with a heart that is exquisite and clear, and people can see what she is thinking at a glance.

Of course, many times Qingsheng is taciturn, and she may not know what she is thinking.

Chapter 2388: Mother-in-law god

"I am back!"

Li Yun flew to the 12th deck again, but this time brought a Saintess back.

"Let the captain continue to sail and speed up to Haowei Island!"

Li Yun first ordered the secretary to inform the ship to sail, and then introduced the Sanctuary to the two women who were surprised.

Xia Feiyao and Jin Liuli were both the first time they saw the saints of the Hidden Sacred Valley. Like Xiao Mingzhu, they were deeply shocked when they saw Sage Fanqing.

The woman in a pure white dress in front of her used adjectives like Chen Yuluoyan, closed moon and shameless flower, bright eyes and white teeth on her body, which is completely blasphemous.

She shouldn't use mortal words to describe her. If Xiao Mingzhu can describe her beauty in the words Mingyan, moving and overwhelming, then the lady of the Hidden Sacred Valley can only use Gushe Shenren, Xianzi's lost appearance, and Chang'e in the moon, can praise her for one or two of her looks.

In the mountain of Miaogushe, there are gods and people living in Yan, and the skin is like ice and snow, and the beauty is like a virgin. Don't eat grains, inhale and drink dew Riding on the clouds, guarding the six dragons, and swimming beyond the four seas.

The saint in front of me is the fairy who became immortal and attains Taoism described in "Zhuangzi·Xiaoyaoyou". She does not eat grains, is otherworldly, rides clouds and mists, swims all over the world, and lives in a fairy palace.

"Sister...Ah, no, fairy sister, so beautiful!" Jin Liuli's small face flushed red. This lively and mischievous little girl has become helpless now, standing in front of the fairy and embarrassed herself.

—Regardless of men and women, of course, when the other's face, temperament, status, and strength are far better than one's own, a feeling of inferiority arises involuntarily in one's heart.

This is actually what ordinary people say, there is an aura of majesty in a big person.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Well, there is nothing to be nervous about, Xiao Liuli, say hello to Master Saint, everyone knows each other."

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at him, why do you want to know him?

"Master Saint, you, hello."

Jin Liuli is like a little girl who sees an idol. Her small face is both excited and shy. She wants to get close and is afraid of disturbing the idol.

This saint lady really crushed her in all aspects, no matter her temperament or appearance, Jin Liuli felt that she was no better than her, so she could only look up to the other side, and worship her as a mountain to chase.

"Hello."

The little Jingui mouth of Saint Fanqing opened and closed slightly, and the natural words spoken, making Xia Feiyao and Jin Liuli dumbfounded.

Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help but exclaimed: "My Lord Saint, your voice is as beautiful as ever."

Fanqing Sheng's cold eyes turned to her, and Xiao Mingzhu explained: "Last time at the Zhonghai City Auction, I was fortunate to meet the Lord Saint."

"......Um."

Sage Fanqing nodded reservedly. Others might think she was precious, but Li Yun was 100% sure. She just didn't know how to answer, so she could only say hum.

"Xiao Liuli, go get a chair for the lady to sit on!"

Li Yun ordered, Jin Liuli hurriedly ran to the messy pile of tables and chairs next to the party, turned over to find a clean chair, moved it over and wiped it clean, and then pushed it to Master Saint.

Like a little maid.

"Bad guy! You!" Seeing the smile on Li Yun's mouth, Jin Liuli reacted, staring at him with a pair of eyes: "Why don't you serve the Lord Saint by yourself? You just want me!"

Chapter 2389: recommend

Li Yun pointed to the golden dragon sword on the table, Jin Liuli was speechless and muttered for a long time, choosing to ask for the golden dragon sword.

Su Muxin hugged her and rubbed her cheek: "Little Liuli is so cute~"

Sage Fan Qing glanced at them, sat on the chair, and Li Yun smiled and said, "Sage Qing, should you say thank you to Xiao Liuli?"

The girls were stunned, and they all looked at the Sage Fanqing with all their eyes.

What's wrong with Li Yun? Actually let the fairy-like saint thank you!

Even Jin Liuli felt wrong.

"...Thank you, sister Liuli."

There is still no emotional fluctuation on the beautiful face of Fanqing Sheng, but the beautiful little mouth is slightly opened, and his cold eyes look at Jin Liuli, nodding in thanks.

"No, no thanks, Lord Saint." Jin Liuli was flattered, and this big man in front of her was much more powerful than her grandmother. It is said that the Return to Void Realm can separate the peaks with a sword, soar into the sky, coming and going without shadow, strong. Incredible.

Such a person actually said thank you to her?

and!

And also called her sister Liuli!

——She ignored Li Yun, in fact, she is also a strong man who can divide the world with one sword.

"Okay, everyone sit down."

Li Yun smiled and sat next to Fan Qingsheng, then turned to the captain's secretary who was standing at the door stupidly and said, "Thank you for a few drinks. By the way, what do you want to drink? Qingsheng, you drink juice. , Or tea, or coffee?"

coffee? Are you sure this thing matches the fairy? What kind of drinks are these!

The fairy should sit under the bamboo forest deep in the mountains, sipping a cup of fragrant tea, accompanied by cranes and bamboo sounds.

"Recommendation." Fan Qingsheng said softly, habitually omitting a large number of subject, predicate, and objects, neither calling Li Yun nor saying "recommend" drinks or the like.

In short, the way she speaks is extremely strange, and this is probably the only way for the saintess to speak in the world.

"it is good."

Li Yun was more and more able to guess a little bit of her words, and said to the secretary: "Bring me two glasses of juice, just add a little ice, how about you?"

The three girls all chose juice, only Jin Liuli was greedy, and ordered a cup of milk tea with ice cream, saying it was for supper.

Li Yun checked the time and found that it was already past 12 o'clock in the evening (the phone automatically calibrates the time zone), and it is indeed late.

"I'm rushing to Haowei Island tonight, how about you?" Li Yun said to the five beautiful and beautiful daughters in front of them, and couldn't help but flash their eyes one by one.

Su Muxin, Xia Feiyao, Jin Liuli, Xiao Mingzhu, and finally came the Brahma Sage, these five people are all first-class beauties, especially the Vatican Sage, no matter what kind of aesthetics, see her At first glance, he will be shocked by its fairy-like temperament.

"It doesn't matter to me. It doesn't matter if I don't sleep all night." Xiao Mingzhu smiled, "There are my friends on Weiyi Island, and I want to be there as soon as possible."

Jin Liuli naturally didn't want to go back to sleep.

"It should be getting better now, right?" Su Muxin thought for a while, "Let's talk about it when we get to the island, I'm afraid the people on the boat can't sleep without Brother Li Yun, right?"

Li Yun nodded and did not deny this statement.

The tourists on the cruise ship are now in a panic and are in a state of extreme anxiety. If he leaves, the tourists will surely fled away on the island in a panic.

"Then talk about it until Hao Weiyi!"

Li Yun sent a message to the big star, and soon got her voice reply. The hotel is still safe, but the outside is already... outrageously messy.

"Qingsheng, let me tell you..."

"Baba~~~!"

Chapter 2390: Hyun Xing Tie

A few kilometers after the cruise ship departed, a shrill voice came from a distance, and then a little butterfly elf slammed into Li Yun's face.

"Baba, bad! Leave Xiaodie, necrosis~~~!"

The black feather butterfly who drove back from the island made Li Yun stunned for a moment, and then grabbed her body dumbfounded, and clicked on her little head: "Who told you to be so greedy? The boat left. I can't bear to come back! How is it? Is it comfortable to eat this time?"

Because of the arrival of the Saint Fanqing, he actually forgot his own daughter, which is really sinful.

Fortunately, Black Feather Butterfly still knew that he had come back, and was not fascinated by the aura that escaped from the island-this little guy was so edible, he was full of food.

"Hmph, eat comfortably~, hehe."

The Black Feather Butterfly broke free from Li Yun's palm, jumped happily on the table, and flew to Li Yun's drink cup, holding a handful of juice in it with her white as jade hands, and took a gulp and gulp.

The little girl's belly looked at the size of * of a normal person, and her waist was incredibly thin. She made indecent movements with her palms, but instead of feeling dirty, everyone was amused by her naive attitude.

"It's so beautiful, are you called Hei Yudie?" Jin Liuli leaned over to grab her with her hands, but Hei Yudie gave her a white eye and flew away flexibly.

"I won't play with you~"

"Uh?"

Everyone laughed. Su Muxin also joined the team playing with the black feather butterfly. The two women and a black feather butterfly laughed and laughed, which was very contagious. In the end, even Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help it, and reached out to grab it. This little fairy wearing a beautiful black starry sky skirt rubbed his beautiful face, causing Black Feather Butterfly to scream and let Ba Ba help his life.

Li Yun asked them to fool around, and while drinking a drink, he told Qing Sheng what happened tonight.

"Ancient Ding?" Sage Fanqing looked at Li Yun, and Li Yun looked at Jin Liuli again. The latter was shocked, then he patted his head suddenly and took out the ancient eroded by endless years from the ring of space. tripod.

After the misty island was raged by the giant whale jumping on it, it is estimated that the ruins on the island have been completely destroyed. This old small tripod is the only witness.

"Master Saint, have you seen anything?" Xiao Mingzhu asked curiously.

She is very curious about the sea town that has existed for thousands of years. The archaeological history of the outside world (relative to the hidden sacred valley and Liudaomen) pointed out that Huang Xuanguo was still in a very backward civilization five thousand years ago. It is impossible to build a small town on the ocean and refine this exquisite small tripod!

The slightly filthy and simple small tripod looks a little inappropriate in the so-white and graceful hands of the lady-sage, but the Sage Fanqing is not disgusted, but is very interested in this small tripod. A pair of curved willow eyebrows lightly frown. Use force to carefully explore its structure, looking for possible formation lines.

Finally, I came to the conclusion: the predecessor of this small cauldron may be a spirit weapon-level cauldron. It can be large and small, and can be brought into the sea of consciousness at will. It becomes an existence similar to the magic weapon of life, but it is completely broken and cannot do anything to mana. In response, Kong left the "corpse".

For a spiritual tool that has spirituality, if it does not respond to mana, it is equivalent to dead.

"This tripod should be made of Xuanxing Iron as the main material."
