

Godly Choice 2571

Chapter 2571: See off brother Li

Li Yun was also quite surprised. He didn't expect this female president to go into the kitchen to help.

"Miss Zhuang, you don't have to go back to Zhonghai City to deal with the company's affairs?"

"Just call me Siliu...As for the company." Zhuang Siliu shook his head, "Now the world is in terrible chaos, and employees don't want to go to work, so I simply gave them a week off and waited until the situation stabilized!"

God knows how much turmoil occurred in the world the night the Ocean Princess was attacked by the monster.

Robbery and killing were no longer reported that night, and they occurred all over the world. Those restless elements roared that the end of the world was coming, and they robbed shops and banks one after another, and the streets were in chaos.

Until now, some countries with poor public security have not eliminated the impact of that day, and because of the rise of Penglai Island and the advent of a new era, these already unstable countries have become more precarious.

Zhuang Siliu looked at him and asked, "Li Yun, what do you think will become in the future?"

"How would I know."

Li Yun shrugged and smiled again: "But don't worry, Zhonghai City will be safe with me, and you will be safe too!"

After the favorability level became one hundred, although it was a fake one hundred, Li Yun's attitude towards Zhuang Siliu also changed a little.

So when Cai Wei went downstairs, she even wondered if Sister Si Liu had just kissed her brother, otherwise, how could she blush and look like Sister Sichun?

When Zhuang Mengdie went downstairs, when he saw Zhuang Siliu with beautiful eyes with aversion and joy, he was also suspicious, thinking that his eldest daughter and youngest daughter might be Li Yun in the future...

After breakfast, Li Yun and Zhuang Siliu accompanied the sisters to do their homework. Fang Xue and Li Feng only got up at noon.

Therefore, Li Yun did not eat at home at noon, and went back to her house with Fang Xue, and had a meal at Lao Zhang's house. By the way, he wanted to take Fang Xue to Zhonghai City for a week or two.

In the afternoon, Caiwei and Caixia went out to see their classmates and bid farewell to them. The sisters will go to Zhonghai City to study in the next semester.

In the evening, Li Yun made an appointment with Wang Houliang and other classmates, and had a meal with Zhu Dayu and other bosses. After Zhu Dayu knew that Boss Li was leaving Longyang County, he wanted to go with him.

Unfortunately, he knows that Boss Li is not what he used to be. He has changed from the Boss Li of Zhonghai City to the world-famous Superman Li. He will gradually drift away from him in the future. Only when he returns to Longyang County will he think of his former subordinates.

"Fuck! See Mr. Li off!"

Li Yun was rather helpless. After graduation, a group of his classmates from Class 14 had passed through a month of social life, and now they have begun to take on the boldness and politeness of a social person, and are drifting away from their original youthfulness.

Whether it is good or bad, people will change.

"Fuck, I wish everyone a bright future!" Li Yun drank, "If there is anything you can't do, you can come to me, and I can help!"

Having said that, Wang Houliang, who once walked with Li Yun on his shoulders, knew that in the future, there will really only be a little friendship between him and Li Yun. If you help once, this friendship will fade away.

After all, to Li Yun, Wang Houliang could hardly help him. If he always asks for help, even his brothers will turn their faces, let alone classmates.

"Fuck off, see off for Brother Li!" Wang Houliang burst into tears, raised his head boldly and drank a large glass of wine, haha laughed: "Brother Li will surely marry ten or eight beautiful women in the future. Be a wife!"

Everyone laughed.

Chapter 2572: The dragon enters the sea

"Master, everything is ready."

Li Yun's new housekeeper, 34 years old, graduated from the Never Setting State Housekeeper Academy, and perfectly inherited from his father's mantle, Zhou Qi, waited in front of Li Yun's house in Longyang County early in the morning. After Li Yun opened the door, he was respectful. Bend down and salute him respectfully.

An elegant gentleman butler's clothes, wearing Zhou Qi's body looks very neat and tidy, the surrounding families on the upper and lower floors know that Li Yun is moving today, when they came to Li Yunmen to see off, they saw this professional Western-style butler at a glance. .

"Li Yun, are you moving to Huangting Mountain in Zhonghai City?!"

A neighbor asked with eyes wide open.

Housing prices in Zhonghai City are very expensive. An ordinary house costs 10 to 20 million yuan, while a villa starts at 50 million yuan.

But even for a villa with a size of 50 million, it is impossible to use such a professional Western-style housekeeper. One is that I can't afford it, and the other is that it is not necessary at all. The ordinary villa is only two or three stories, covering an area of four to five hundred square meters, and the servants Two or three, still need a steward of wool? !

There are only a few high-class communities located in Huangting Mountain and other high-class communities. Those top-level villas covering several acres with gardens, swimming pools, outdoor gymnasiums, and attached maid's rooms have 17 or 8 maids, servants, etc. Bodyguards, gardeners, and chefs will need butlers to help manage them!

This kind of luxurious house is completely equivalent to the most luxurious house that can be shot in the movie-except for the palace.

"Yes." Li Yun replied with a smile, causing people around him to * in cold air.

Huangting Mountain, no matter how many high-end descriptive words can be used to describe it, every villa in it lives in a wealthy man with a net worth of more than tens of billions, or a home of the powerful, a whole Huangting Mountain, not only Including the top upper class figures in Zhonghai City, and the top richest people from other cities across the country, they also want to invest in a real estate in Huangtingshan.

For example, Su Muxin, her family has an estate in Huangting Mountain.

Another example is Qinglei Valley, which also has a small villa at the foot of Huangting Mountain.

"Mr. Lee."

A neighbor said enviously: "You are the dragon from our Longyang County. You bought a house in Huangting Mountain as soon as you shot it. It's really amazing!"

Li Yun could only deal with it with a smile.

Zhou Qi has contacted the most professional moving company. Li Feng, Caiwei, and Zhuang Siliu also packed up their personal belongings last night. All the furniture was left in Longyang County and only some personal belongings were taken away. For example, clothing and textbooks from previous years.

Under Zhou Qi's command, a group of neatly dressed and extremely professional moving company personnel filed in, leaving Li Yun and...Qu Fang behind.

"Qu Fang, why are you here?" Li Yun was a little surprised. This Qu Fang was the former owner of Villa 36 he bought. It is said that Qu Fang is about to immigrate to Canada. The whole mountain, there is also a large estate with a wine-making house, which is much larger than the house in Zhonghai City.

"What happened to Penglai Island, do you think we can still immigrate now?" With a helpless smile on Qu Fang's face, there was a good-looking young man standing beside her, probably her fiancé.

"Sorry." Li Yun said.

"Uh?"

Qu Fang was taken aback for a moment, and then immediately thought of one thing, and was shocked: "The one in the news..."

"Shhh."

Li Yun held up a finger and signaled Qu Fang not to say anything. He didn't want his identity of Superman Li to be exposed in front of the people of Longyang County-Zhu Dayu and others had already recognized it, but they would not announce it.

Chapter 2573: Moving (Part 1)

"Oh, I see, Mr. Li!"

Qu Fang hurriedly closed his mouth, and even her fiancée became a little nervous. After all, he was a figure who founded Baiyun Technology at the age of eighteen, who is more legendary than legend.

Li Yun smiled, turned around and instructed the staff to move.

Qu Fang, who stayed outside the door, was extremely shocked. When she saw foreign news, she had a vague guess. She didn't expect that Li Chaoren was actually Li Yun who bought her house!

In an instant, Qu Fang thought of many things in his mind. Whether to move abroad or not has to be carefully considered again!

The moving process is very fast, after all, there is not much luggage, but the trouble is the little princess of Yongning.

Zhu Shue's sleepiness is as usual. She usually goes to bed at nine o'clock in the evening, and sleeps until noon the next day. After lunch, she takes a rest and takes a nap, and she doesn't wake up until more than four o'clock in the afternoon.

After sleeping for most of the day, the little princess can gather enough energy at night, and have a little energy to chat with Li Yun online for a while-if Li Yun is at home, watch TV as a family.

Therefore, at eight or nine o'clock in the morning, Princess Yongning was naturally sleeping, wearing a pink bunny pajamas, and she was slumbering under the velvet quilt.

Moreover, the position of the little princess's bed is very interesting. It must be close to the wall, and the outside must be surrounded by wooden boards, just like a baby carriage. Li Yun slept with her at night and experienced the little princess 400 years ago. How restless the princess sleeps at night, her petite body crawling around in the cup like a baby maggot, and it disappears within a few minutes.

"Come on, little princess, raise your hand, we dress and move."

Li Feng, Caiwei and Fang Xue spent a long time trying to help the bewildered Princess Yongning dressed up, and Fang Xue carried them on his back, like an older sister with a sleepy younger sister to school, and walked with the little princess on his back.

The 16-year-old Zhu Shue developed very slowly because of his body, petite and exquisite, plus lethargy, which is very distressing.

"Husband~?" Zhu Shue, who was still in a daze, saw Li Yun and called out softly.

"Yongning will continue to sleep, we will wake you up when we arrive in Zhonghai City."

"......Um."

When they saw her, Qu Fang and others were very surprised. They didn't expect that there was such a petite sister in Li Yun's family.

No, it's not right!

Qu Fang quickly reacted. The little girl was called Li Yun Fujun just now, which proved that it was not her sister, but Li Yun's... Jin Wu Zang Jiao!

Butler Zhou Qi stepped forward and asked, "Master, this lady is...?" He knew Li Yun's three sisters, but he didn't know the little princess who came from four hundred years ago.

"She's Zhu Shu'e, she's a princess."

"Princess?"

"Yeah, and it's—" Li Yun glanced at Princess Yongning, and said with a smile: "She will also be the mistress of the future Li Family Mansion, your immediate boss!"

"!!!"

Zhou Qi, who graduated from the Butler Academy and dedicated to bringing perfect service to his master, was shocked on the spot. Is this sleeping little baby a wife?

Chapter 2574: Moving (below)

Zhou Qi couldn't help looking at Fang Xue. The information he collected simply showed that this girl named Fang Xue is the heroine!

"The little princess is the wife of the inner house, and I am outside."

Fang Xue replied to Zhou Qi with a plausible sentence, and the housekeeper immediately understood: There is one master, but the wife has two, or many.

In the future, he may still be involved in the struggles of the wives. These wives fought openly and secretly for the jurisdiction of the Li family's inner house. He must not be caught in it. The master is the head of everything!

The various plots of palace fighting in the TV series and novels appeared in his mind, Zhou Qi bowed his head and saluted: "Yes, ma'am!"

With a cry, Madam, he smiled like a flower, and gave Li Feng a triumphant look, as if to say, look, I am the wife of the Li family~~.

Li Feng angrily patted his girlfriend on the head, "You be careful not to throw the little princess on the ground."

"Then you still pat me on the head?"

"I'm here to make you be careful!"

"Well, two beauties, we should go now."

Amid the noise of the two women, Li Yun took the girls and officially left the room. After the door was locked, it meant that the family would not come back for a long, long time in the future.

Caiwei was a little melancholy: "Brother, this house cost 10 million to buy. We only lived in it for less than half a year and then it was vacant."

"Yes, yes." In front of the stairs, Caixia turned her head and glanced at the five-hundred-square-meter house with two floors.

She and her sister felt the happiest period of time when they moved from the second bedroom to this suite.

The house is not big, not small, warm and sweet. The family eats on the first floor and rests to watch a movie on the second floor. The space is so spacious that Caixia can even have a study room.

Of course, it is the study room of her and her sister. No matter what they do or eat, they will share together.

"Small has small benefits, and big has big advantages."

Qu Fang joked: "When you arrive at the villa in Zhonghai City, I'm afraid you will be reluctant to miss you little sister.

"Hehe." Caixia covered her mouth and asked Qu Fang curiously: "Senior sister, the big villa you lived in before seems to have a garden? How much does it cost? My brother always doesn't tell us."

"Don't worry, it's not expensive, your brother can earn it in a few days."

"Ten, billion?" Cai Wei guessed a number, and Qu Fang smiled without saying a word.

"Three billion?"

"Isn't it five billion?! Oh my god, it's so expensive!"

After confirming that it would cost at least 5 billion, the sisters exclaimed, their eyes full of admiration when they looked at their brother—they still don't know exactly how profitable Baiyun Technology is now.

Butler Zhou Qi has taken the license for everything. In addition to carrying luggage and getting on the car, he also rented three million-class luxury cars to come to Zhonghai City to pick up the master's family.

—The price of a million luxury car is just right, the price is too high, it is a waste of the master's money, and it is too low to meet the current status of the master.

When Qu Fang saw this, he smiled and said, "Li Yun, I think you should buy a few cars for daily use. Well, although my father kept a few cars for babysitters and bodyguards, don't you have a car yet? "

Zhou Qi also looked at this young master.

Li Yun was taken aback. Indeed, he wanted to buy a car many months ago, but he hasn't bought it until now.

Chapter 2575: Give the princess a bumper car

Usually he goes to Zhonghai City to do errands, either by train, or by Zhu Dayu or Gongjia. If he moves in Zhonghai City, Qingyu and Lianyi have long ordered the people to take care of him, and Li Yun does not have to worry about the car. .

"How many?!"

Caiwei and Caixia both looked at her brother in surprise, isn't one car enough? There are so many places in the villa... Well, it's said that Senior Sister Qu Fang's villa has a garden, a swimming pool and a fitness track. It seems like parking a few cars should be fine?

But the two sisters still couldn't imagine what such a big house would look like. Is it exactly the same as the castle in the movie?

"Yes, a few cars!"

Li Yun glanced at the girls around him, and suddenly noticed: "Well, wait for the day after tomorrow, let's go to the car dealership in Zhonghai City and buy a car for you all!"

"One per person?!"

The twin sisters opened their mouths in surprise, and Li Feng was also surprised: "Me and Fang Xue also have?"

Fang Xue also looked over curiously.

"Of course." Li Yun said with a smile: "Not only do you have, the little princess also needs a... bumper car, which is specially driven in the villa."

"Hee hee hee."

The girls looked at the sleeping little princess and thought of her strolling in the garden of the villa by driving a bumper car in the afternoon. It was absolutely innocent and cute.

"Auntie, Si Liu, do you want it?" Li Yun asked the mother and daughter flowers, and the two naturally refused without hesitation.

"By the way, the housekeeper, do you want one as a transportation?" Li Yun asked Zhou Qi. Sure enough, the housekeeper didn't refuse, and thanked me slightly: "Master, the housekeeper and I need a car worth about 500,000 yuan. "

Five hundred thousand is an entry-level car of a wealthy butler. It is not impossible if it is expensive, starting at one million. But if the price is lower than this, it will definitely not work, and it will be no face when it is driven out-it is not that the housekeeper has no face, but that Li Yun as a master has no face.

Caixia is already stupid.

Among her classmates, when discussing the car, many boys also showed off how much money their father bought a car. It was an imported brand, automatic transmission and automatic navigation on leather sofa, etc. Wait.

But in fact, the price is more than 300,000 yuan, which is quite expensive for a family to spend 300,000 yuan on a car.

And now?

The car provided by a housekeeper in her family starts at 500,000 yuan, and she will go to buy a car in two days, buy her own car!

It should be... They are all millions of cars, right?

"Amazing....."

Caixia felt more and more that her brother was too good!

"Sister Caixia, you won't know what's truly awesome until Huangting Mountain." Qu Fang said teasingly, making Caixia and Caiwei look forward to a new home more and more.

After bidding farewell to the neighbors in the community, the car officially set sail and left Longyang County, the county town where they had lived for more than ten years, to a broader world.

After getting on the expressway, Cai Wei, who was quite sentimental, couldn't help but glance back, and bid farewell to Longyang County silently in her heart.

In the future, as her brother said, she rarely returns to Longyang County. Even if she does, she will only go back to pay respects to her grandfather and parents during the Qingming Festival.

Li Yun was speechless all the way, sitting in the car, the front co-pilot was the steward Zhou Qi, and the twin sisters beside him, naturally it was impossible to do anything-Li Feng and Fang Xue seemed to be afraid of him coming again, so the two women Avoid him.

Chapter 2576: pink clouds

Several cars entered Zhonghai City, and the tigher Caiwei sitting on Li Yun's left held his hand, she could clearly feel her nervousness and anxiety.

"Cai Wei doesn't like living in big cities?" Li Yun asked with a smile, and Caixia next to her also looked at her sister.

The two sisters are petite, and they don't look squeezed when sitting in the back row with Li Yun. Just now, the two sisters were hugging one of his arms and were getting hair. The body of the girl in education has the softness that belongs to a girl. Li Yun clearly realized that Caiwei and Caixia were already big girls.

In the next semester, they will be in the third year of junior high school, facing the high school entrance examination, plus they have to transfer, and it will take time to adapt to the new environment.

Li Yun secretly decided to take care of the sisters with Li Feng in the next year, so as not to adapt to the school in Zhonghai City. After all, Longyang County is a rural county in the eyes of Zhonghai City. Students in Zhonghai City may look down upon it. they.

"No, it's not."

Caiwei's face was reddish, her hands tightly hugged her brother's arm, her small head was resting on her brother's shoulder, and she whispered, "It's just...somewhat weird."

"strangeness?"

"Um."

Cai Wei rubbed her brother's generous shoulders, and said in a soft voice: "Brother, are we going to live in the castle in the future? We also want to go to the noble middle school? But... Caixia and I don't understand anything, a lot of etiquette and rules, Caixia and I have never studied, will it..." "Fuck?"

She didn't finish, but Li Yun had already guessed what Cai Wei was going to say.

As the elder sister of the twins, Cai Wei has been introverted and sensitive since she was a child. She is very cautious and cautious about everything. She is afraid that she will make a fool of herself in the public. A little bit of things will make her face flushed with irritation.

Caixia blinked, and she could feel her sister's inner anxiety. This was the little secret between their twin sisters, even the elder brother and the eldest sister did not know.

"Haha." Li Yun held her little hand and deliberately smiled in a hearty voice: "What am I supposed to be, it's okay, the housekeeper will teach you some common sense, and even if you can't learn it, or if you make a fool of yourself, it's fine. Brother will always be your backing!"

Caiwei was touched, and was about to get up to kiss her brother on the cheek.

"Oh, that's not right!" Li Yun said again: "It should be your brother's money, it should be your strongest backing!"

"what--?"

Li Yun smiled, took out his mobile phone, and asked the sisters to take out their mobile phones and transfer them 500 million directly from the mobile bank...no!

Li Yun looked embarrassed and discovered that mobile banking can only transfer 5 million yuan a day, and higher ones need to be handled at the counter. Of course, as his major customer, it is okay to let the staff come to his door to handle the transfer business for him.

"Brother is really~~!" The introverted Plucking was moved and happy, so she couldn't help but leaned forward and kissed her brother's cheek hard, blushing and said: "Brother, I don't need money. It's good to have brother and sister by your side and stay together for the rest of your life!"

The girl's soft lips are very beautiful, but Li Yun didn't think too much. Caiwei and Caixia are both his younger sisters, and they are closer than their own sisters, that's all.

"No, I must give the three of your sisters a sum of money today!"

Li Yun made up his mind and made a direct call to Baiyun Technology's vice president, who was also the former head of personnel department and Li Yun's secretary Xu Chunxue.

Chapter 2577: Plucking

"Boss, are you looking for me? Uh, you need to transfer 1.5 billion at once? Okay, I will find the Finance Department to arrange it." Xu Chunxue felt baffled. The boss suddenly asked her to transfer, which was exactly the same as a phone fraud.

But she did not dare to disobey the boss's will. The boss of an ordinary company might be able to temporarily delay for various reasons, but the boss of Baiyun Technology is not an ordinary person!

"Uh, boss..." Xu Chunxue asked cautiously: "Can you take a video to prove that you gave this order?"

A listed company, or any company, cannot use the money in its finances at will. Even if the chairman personally orders it, it is impossible to use the money in the company's account by himself. Only through formal document resolutions can the company's money be used. .

However, companies that are not listed are usually not so strict. The money the boss withdraws only needs to be recorded in the account at the end, which is counted as an early dividend or converted into shares, and reported to other shareholders to know. As for whether other shareholders will protest in the future, it will not be known.

Moreover, Xu Chunxue also has various methods to transfer funds by means of company document resolutions.

"Row."

Li Yun did not embarrass his secretary. He took out his mobile phone and took a short video. The twin sisters were also taken in, and Li Yun explained that he would pay back the money that he lost.

Rules are rules, but if everything is followed by rules, wouldn't Li Yun create Baiyun Technology for nothing? Sometimes you have to break the rules to make yourself more comfortable.

For example, now, the drama of the overbearing president directly transferring 1.5 billion yuan has moved the two sisters so much. The snapping face of the brother's brother looks at him affectionately, making Li Yun uncomfortable.

"Okay, I'll do it right away!"

Xu Chunxue vaguely guessed something. The two little girls around the chairman tightly hugged the chairman's intimacy. They were not like younger sisters and nieces, but more intimate.

This made Xu Chunxue dare not think about it anymore. The rich raised several Xiaomis in the name of adopting their daughters. She was not unheard of. On the other hand, the rich woman used a fitness coach to keep young people who didn't want to work hard to follow. It is also very common around.

These things are rarely known to the public, and only a small part of it has been exposed. The vast majority of rich people have secretly played games that ordinary people have never expected.

For example, Dong Ge, who has a big beautiful wife at home, went abroad for a trip, but was caught in a fairy jump and almost couldn't come back.

However, the premise of the fairy jumping is that you have moved your mind!

"Ding Dong."

Five minutes later, both the twin sisters and Li Feng in the other car received a message that the bank had arrived.

"Account *9600 deposited 500000000.00 yuan at 9:30 on August 3, and the available balance was 501523600.36 yuan. Chairman's account. [Bank]"

They had received more than one million pocket money from their brother before, but they have never used it when they are used to it. Now they have again received 5+8 0s transferred by their brother, 500 million for each person, and 10 for the two sisters. How can the sisters not be surprised with billions of pocket money?

This is five hundred million!

5 is followed by 8 zeros. How many people can't even earn 10 million in their lives. The living expenses for a semester are only two to three thousand, and at most two to three hundred thousand from elementary school to university.

But the two of them now have one billion disposable assets!

"Do you like it?" Li Yun looked like an overbearing president, with a deliberately "evil" smile on the corner of his mouth. He wanted to make a joke, but he didn't expect to see the two younger sisters blushing.

"I like it, brother~~~"

Caiwei came up again, and printed marks on the corners of Li Yun's mouth with her soft young girl's lips. She seemed to be nostalgic and said: "Caiwei... I like my brother the most."

When Caixia saw this, she followed suit and made the same action. The two sisters kissed Li Yun alone, and she was too comfortable to serve Li Yun: her brother should pet her sister like this!

"Ahem, it's all right."

Before the atmosphere became more ambiguous, Li Yun hugged one of his sisters and said to them seriously: "You can use the money. Use it to buy whatever you want, buy a car, buy cosmetics, reward others, and go to the best. You can eat at an expensive restaurant, or even give it to your classmates!"

The two sisters protested at the same time: "Brother, we don't use money like this!"

"I know." Li Yun squeezed Caiwei's face and smiled: "I'm just making an analogy, but you should also be careful not to be affected by the charm of money. You must study hard in school, and other things too. It's not one thing to learn, but another thing to attitude!"

"My brother hopes that you can all go to university smoothly and have a good university life, instead of having fun at a young age and feeling empty when you are old."

Cai Wei bit her lip and shook her head firmly: "Brother, we won't become like that, we will... stay by my brother's side forever!"

"Don't marry someone?" Li Yun smiled.

"Don't marry!" x2

"Well, don't marry, don't marry, follow your brother for the rest of your life, and let your brother give you the best life."

"real?"

"certainly!"

"Hehe, brother, let's pull the hook, no one can go back!"

"Retract the hook, but you have to promise me to study hard, enter a good university in the future, wait for university to graduate, do whatever you want, do not want to work, travel around the world, take pictures, taste food, my brother will support you!"

Li Yun said with a smile that his only requirement for the sisters was indeed to finish university, how to choose to let them in the future.

University, you may not learn anything, but you must go!

The world's smartest, best-born, and top-notch young talents are all in colleges and universities. Instead of getting to know them, you go to the society and hang out with those who drop out of school?

"Good~~~"

The twin sisters agreed in unison, and they both extended their little thumbs towards the brother at the same time. Li Yun was taken aback, followed by the little thumb, and hooked up with the slender white little thumbs of the sisters.

The three of them had three little thumbs entwined, and the picture became a little strange.

"Ah, okay?"

"Um!"

The faces of sisters Caiwei and Caixia were flushed as if they were drunk, and they both threw themselves into Li Yun's arms and acted like a baby. The elder brother kept screaming, just like when they were children.

"Sure enough, she is still a little girl who hasn't grown up!"

"Then brother~" Caixia took out her mobile phone from him, and said with a grin: "I want to charge 10,000 yuan to buy skins in the game of kings I play now, and buy all the skins, how about?"

"Whatever you want." Li Yun asked: "Ten thousand yuan is not enough? Make another one hundred thousand! Buy the skins that come out in the future!"

Chapter 2579: Rich life

"Hee hee hee, enough, enough, we don't like to use male characters, brother, come and play with us?"

"Okay, come on, get on the number!"

Li Yun took out his mobile phone and said with a smile: "Your brother, I am platinum, can you match it?"

Sometimes at night, he would play a few games with his confidantes around him. With his super reaction power, the king's rank is not low.

"Only platinum? I am a diamond! My sister is the strongest king!"

"The strongest king? Plucking your game well."

"Uh, it's okay... Brother, I didn't delay studying, but... I like playing games a little bit."

"It's okay. Summer vacation should be fun. By the way, I will introduce you to a sister who also likes to play games. You must be able to play with her."

"Sister Qingyu?"

"Huh? You know?"

"Well, Sister Fang Xue told us."

While chatting, Li Yun and the sisters played a game online, and suggested that they give their classmates a few skins to connect with each other.

The reason why he gave money to the sisters is very simple, that is, to give them confidence, so that they have the right to control a lot of money at any time.

Longyang County is just a small county. The middle school they attended was just an ordinary junior high school, and the classmates around them all came from ordinary families with an annual income of less than 200,000.

Therefore, the twin sisters had more than one million in their bank accounts, which was enough for them to use.

But when they arrive in Zhonghai City, they will enter the top private aristocratic school, where students receive the most elite education from childhood. The tutors are first-class talents from all walks of life. Each time they teach them, a lesson costs 5,000 yuan. Get started.

Not to mention that these students usually go in and out of high-end occasions and travel abroad during summer vacation. The temperament that ordinary people can imitate from this is not what ordinary people can imitate.

Therefore, Li Yun needs to give the sisters and Li Feng enough money so that they have the confidence to socialize with the children of the rich and become friends instead of being isolated.

After thinking about it, Li Yun told Zhou Qi, the housekeeper who drove in front of him,: "From now on, we will transfer 100 million to the two ladies, Caiwei and Caixia, and 200 million to my sister Li Feng. Madam use it, buy her whatever she wants!"

Madam, it refers to Princess Yongning, not Fang Xue, who has not yet passed the door.

"Yes, sir!" Zhou Qi took it down carefully.

How many children of the rich will receive a gift of shares from their parents when they are adults, usually 1% to 5% of the shares, valued in the billions to tens of billions.

Not to mention that every birthday will receive a mansion or all kinds of precious jewelry, which adds up to a lot of money.

Although the pocket money of 100 million a month is a bit more, the master is the chairman of Baiyun Technology, and the speed of making money is much faster than the speed of spending money. With a few more ladies in the family, the master can easily support it.

"Brother, it's too much!" Cai Wei said tenderly. She can't use up one thousand yuan a month. These hundreds of millions are lying in the bank card, and she doesn't know where to use it.

"It's okay, despite the flowers, my brother may not have time to give you a lot of things in the future, just buy what you want!"

Li Yun is not a person who is accustomed to celebrating birthdays. He has only one birthday in his impression. When the girl next to him celebrated his birthday, he just gave out a red envelope.

"Ok."

Caiwei's little face is full of happiness. She will be very happy to play games with her brother or do anything.

Chapter 2580: New home, luxury villa

Caixia blinked, and she could also feel her sister's mood. The only pity was that Li Yun still treated them as younger sisters. She had kissed him so much...

Naturally, Li Yun didn't notice that the sisters' feelings for him had quietly changed. After playing two games with them, the car had entered Zhonghai City and passed through the streets of the bustling Zhonghai City.

The two sisters stopped the game, looked at the car window together, and looked at this cosmopolitan city curiously.

"Oh, forget it, you two haven't been to Zhonghai City yet!"

Li Yun said ashamed.

Although they live in Longyang County under the jurisdiction of Zhonghai City, they have lived on the scene since they were young and have never visited Zhonghai City once.

In the past, I was poor. If I came to Zhonghai City for a trip once, it would cost thousands of dollars to stay overnight. In the past six months, I didn't have time.

"Tomorrow, aren't we going to buy a car?" Caixia said expectantly: "Brother will accompany us to visit Zhonghai City, okay? Let's go to the amusement park with Sister Fang Xue and the eldest sister. I heard that there is one Very fun amusement park!"

"Okay, that's it!"

Li Yun promised with full mouth, now it is rare to take a leisurely time, naturally it is the sister who said what she said, and enjoy the feeling of being with her family.

"Whee."

The two sisters looked at each other and smiled, and then took the initiative to kiss Li Yun on the cheek, their small cheeks flushed with shy happiness.

After more than a month and an hour, the car came from the southern end of Zhonghai City to the northern suburbs. When driving into a mountain, Caixia exclaimed afterwards: "Brother, our new home is on the mountain?! Wow, sister, look! , There are some beautiful castles on the hill!"

On Huangting Mountain, several magnificent castles are looming in the mountains and forests, and a waterfall flows down from the top of the mountain. The beautiful scenery is like a 4A scenic spot, and there are beautiful flowers everywhere.

"Unfortunately, our home is not those castles." Li Yun said narrowly: "It's a villa halfway up the mountain."

"Master." Zhou Qi interrupted, "Actually, Villa 36 is not smaller than the castle at all. It covers an area of nearly 60 acres and is the size of ten football fields."

Ten football fields!

The sisters Caiwei Caixia were already dizzy. They had only lived in a five-hundred-square-meter duplex, and they couldn't imagine how big they were.

The security guards of Huangting Mountain had long been informed that the owner of Villa No. 36 moved today, so the housekeeper Zhou Qi quickly drove in with a few cars and drove towards the mountainside.

"Okay, awesome!"

Li Caixia felt that her eyes were not enough.

At the foot of the mountain are rows of beautiful villas, each family has a swimming pool and a small garden, and there is a large green meadow in the distance, which is a golf course.

There are also several basketball courts, two football fields, a soft sandy ground, a kindergarten full of childlike facilities, and an open-air cafe. Several bosses and beautiful women in beach pants and swimsuits are sunbathing. .

Farther, there is a blue and blue swimming pool, where many young men and women play and fight in the water.

The car circled all the way to the mountainside. Every place Caixia's eyes could see was the same as the scenery in the park. Nothing was imperfect, even better!

The forest trail is paved with pebbles, and the flowers and plants are beautifully trimmed. Even the pavilion on the side of the road has marble tables and stools, making people want to sit in it and watch the scenery with the mountain breeze.
