

Godly Choice 2591

Chapter 2591: Demon fox drinking

The paints of the murals are made of unknown materials. They have been buried underground for tens of thousands of years without much fading. They are still legible.

Yellow, blue, green, cyan, etc. pigments are all available, and the ink is delicately used to form a unique and exquisite mural.

In the center of the painting, there is a group of women wearing palace costumes, slender, cleverly smiling and charming, drinking by the river. They are sitting on the ground. Judging from the peach blossoms in bloom on the tree next to them, it can be inferred that it was spring. These palace beauties are drinking, having fun, enjoying flowers and spring.

If this is the case, it's nothing surprising. Ancient men and women were very defensive, but women could also go out to play together in the spring. Some men also went to see flowers and make poems on excuses. In fact, it was just to see beautiful women. A blind date in disguise.

But in the arms of these palace beauties, beside them, on the trees, in the river, there are many fox demon, rabbit demon, bird demon, and even a few that climbed up from the river, shrimp head human body, or The weird monsters with human heads and crabs make the whole picture indescribable.

Yanran smiles, beautifully dressed, with sweet smiles, charming palace beauties, but surrounded by a large group of weird monsters, as if these beauties are drinking and having fun with the monsters, the pictures are weird and evil, which makes the heart hairy. Was shocked by these palace beauties.

Yes, it is not the monsters that are scary, but the beauties in palace costumes drinking and having fun in the center of the mural!

"Damn!"

He Shao took a few steps back in fright, and almost fell to the ground with a weak leg. He stammered and pointed to the mural and said, "This, there are all monsters in it!"

Indeed, after seeing this mural, anyone will guess that these enchanting palace-dressed women are monsters transformed into human figures, enjoying the flowers and drinking with the monsters.

"But there is another possibility." Li Yun said: "These beauties are humans...no, they are fairies, and monsters are their mounts and pets. Although the atmosphere between the two is very friendly, we can't ignore this. Possibly: Maybe in ancient times, the relationship between monsters and immortals was very good?"

"Mount?"

Tang Anxi subconsciously looked at a prawn demon. The lower body of this guy had very strong muscles, and his legs were just like the two tongs of a lobster.

This sturdy male prawn, no, male prawn, if it is the mount of a beautiful palace costume, I am afraid it is not...that kind of "mount", right?

Tang Anxi, who has been in KTV for a few months, naturally knows why men call their female companions horses at night.

"Boss, is this mural useful?" He Shao asked boldly.

"Useful and useless."

As a result, I found that there were 20 or 30 pictures of murals in the picture list!

"...I took a few pictures of this broken phone with just one click? It seems that the fruit machine is not very reliable. When the new smartphone comes out, I will change it."

Li Yun's mobile phone was obtained when he went to the game hall to draw a lottery during the first date with Fang Xue, and has not been changed.

After browsing the photos at random, Li Yun said to He Shao after he felt that there was no problem: "Okay, this slate is useless to me. If you want to make money, you can come here later, ship it out, and brag about it. It is said that this is a mural of an immortal, and it is estimated that it can be sold for a little money, mainly depending on whether it is taken advantage of."

Chapter 2592: The identity of Li Yunzhui's son-in-law exposed

After Li Yun came back to his senses, he knocked on her little head irritably. Although he used this to deal with the past, it was inevitable that there was something strange in his heart.

Caiwei and Caixia are not his relatives, but they are better than relatives.

If he and Li Feng were childhood sweethearts who grew up in an orphanage together, then Cai Wei Caixia is more like a brother and sister. In my childhood, they were both taken care of by Li Yun, while grandfather was outside. Collecting waste, he was the only man in the family... at that time he was a boy.

But now, the sisters say they like him...

"I'm not talking nonsense!" Cai Wei stood up angrily, raised her chest hard and shyly, and the figure of the girl who had begun to grow up was faintly visible under the split swimsuit.

The young girl is full of vitality and vigor, as if the body of Huaguduo, can always attract people's attention.

"In ancient times, I could get engaged at my age!" Caiwei looked at Princess Yongning and asked seriously: "Little princess, do you think so? In ancient times, can Caixia and I get married?"

Princess Yongning nodded naturally, "It's almost the same age, so naturally she has already found someone to marry her, and she can get married when she gets old..."

Zhu Shu'e suddenly understood, and opened her eyes wide to look at Caiwei and Caixia, and said in surprise: "It turns out that the two younger sisters are mate's daughter-in-law!"

"Children's daughter-in-law!?"

All the people present were surprised by this statement.

After thinking about it carefully, it seems to be true.

The so-called child bride-in-law is the mother-in-law raising a baby girl and marrying her own son when she grows up. The baby girl and the son grow up together, isn't the relationship between them resembling siblings?

Caiwei and Caixia stared at each other blankly, and Caixia suddenly realized: "So my sister and I are child brides...Huh, aren't they?" She suddenly looked at Li Yun, "Brother, you should be a child bride... Ah yes. Yes, hee hee hee hee hee hee hee hee hee hee elder brother is the child husband!! It is the grandfather who raises the eldest brother and then let him marry us!

Li Yun & Fang Xue & Li Feng: "..."

The three of them were both scorched and tender at the same time, especially Li Yun, who suddenly learned that he had become a child husband, this was simply...shocking!

"Whee."

Princess Yongning covered her mouth and snickered, "Sister Caixia, you are wrong. A man should not be called Tong Yangxiong, but Junzuo. I have heard from Concubine Hui that a big family who can't give birth to a boy usually adopts a little boy. When he grows up, he will be hired as his son-in-law, and the situation of He and He Xianggong is similar."

—She also recognized Caiwei and Caixia as her sisters, which surprised them secretly.

Fang Xue looked at Li Yun with a weird expression: "In that case, your identity as a big bad guy is... the son-in-law!!!"

"Me-son-in-law?"

This Li family, don't wait. jpg (crooked mouth)

Li Yun vomited blood and died. Unexpectedly, his identity is also the most popular  of war on the Internet? After thinking about it carefully, both he and Li Feng have the same surnames as the adopted grandfather's surname Li, which is far more than his son-in-law!

"Hahaha." The five beauties saw Li Yun, who had always been strong, now dumbfounded, and suddenly laughed tremblingly.

"Dare to laugh at me? Humph!"

The corner of Li Yun's mouth crooked, showing an expression of "contempt", "Today I will let you see how superhuman Li and the Dragon King return and meet the God of War!"

"Wow, brother-in-law is angry~~~"

"Hee hee, brother-in-law, don't~~~"

"My father-in-law is a son-in-law, am I...?"

Chapter 2593: Rich life

The five beautiful beauties were finally caught by the son-in-law·Li Yun, and gave a severe lesson to them, showing their tenderness.

After the fun, Caiwei was so tired that she lay next to the bath, her mouth slightly opened and panting, and after another sip of milk, she calmed down a little bit of excitement.

Tonight, it is a 0 to 1 breakthrough. In the future, as long as she and Caixia continue to express their hearts and love their brother, they will definitely know that tonight's words are similar to a joke, but they are true words from her and Caixia.

Brother, I really want to be Li Jiazhui's son-in-law~~, hehe.

In the morning, I took Fang Xue to visit Zhonghai City, shopping, buying high-end clothes and accessories, and dressed Li Feng and Caixia Caiwei like a rich lady.

And Li Yun also exchanged his promise and bought a luxury car worth more than 10 million yuan for the three sisters and Fang Xue.

It just didn't cost much. As soon as Li Yun entered the BMW 4S store, the president of BMW's Huang Xuanguo district drove to the store from a dash of farts, and personally presented him with top-notch, customized luxury cars, which are unique in the world!

Starting with a value of 50 million yuan, it is the only car model in the world.

It was just that Li Yun was too lazy to wait, took a car that Caixia liked from the spot, and then left.

Finally, when I went to Maserati to select cars for Plucking and Li Feng, several vice presidents of Maserati Huangxuan Country also arrived quickly, saying that they would be happy to give the chairman of Baiyun Technology a top luxury car, just to ask Baiyun Technological cooperation to jointly launch vehicles with autonomous driving technology.

".....Not interested in."

Li Yun was all pushed down, so he didn't want to be famous for this reason. Now only the upper-level people of large cars and technology companies know his identity. If ordinary people also know him, then Li Yun probably won't even be able to get out of the door. Like the president of a large company, a large group of people hold their cameras to take pictures when they go out.

—— He wants to buy a luxury car worth 20 million, and the manager of the 4S store will report it to his superiors, so Li Yun's identity is exposed.

He bought five luxury cars and spent less than 100 million yuan. Li Yun, who thought it was cheap, asked the housekeeper to give the three sisters extra Fang Xue, equipped with two female drivers on duty, and exclusive female bodyguards taking turns to protect them. After all, Caixia and Cai The two sisters Wei were not old enough to take the driver's license, and Li Feng had no conditions and no driver's license before, so she took advantage of the remaining half a month of this summer vacation and hurriedly went to the driving school to sign up.

At noon, go home to accompany the little princess for lunch, take a nap by the way, play ball in the villa in the afternoon, watch the beauties play, or take the little princess to see the bustling night view of Zhonghai City.

Soaking in the open-air bath at night, while sleeping with three beauties, I was so happy.

Of course, the little princess still kept her virgin body, Li Yun had not touched her, including the perfect quality of the fairy pill.

Li Yun wanted to wait and see again, after the aura of Penglai Island slowly spread to the world, and the concentration rose a little, then he could see what changes would happen to Princess Yongning's body.

In fact, the aura has spread all over the world. The flora and fauna of the world are changing every day. The tropical rainforest of the equator has become a forbidden zone for human beings, which is full of various dangers, including mutated animals and plants, and all kinds of cruelty. Rainforest ants, insects, etc.

Chapter 2594: Go out again

It's just that the concentration of aura has not reached the level that makes monsters become monsters. It will take a while. The aura of Penglai Island is still oozing out, like spring water gushing from the earth's crust, filling the world. If it continues for another year or two, In the future, the whole world will be the same as Penglai Island now, with aura strong enough to cause all creatures to mutate.

At that time, the changes in the world are really unpredictable!

Because of this, after spending a few days happy with Fang Xue, Li Feng, and his family, Li Yun finally thought about moving, planning to go out and take a look at the ancient fairy mansion that the system prompts. What on earth is there.

"Huh? Brother is leaving again tomorrow?"

At night, in the cozy living room on the third floor of the villa, when Li Yun said that he was going out for two or three days, Cai Wei looked at him in surprise and dismay, then couldn't help but stepped forward and sat on the sofa and hugged tightly. Li Yun's arm, said pitifully, "Can you not leave your brother? Finally, we just... moved for a few days."

"Don't worry, I will only go out for two or three days this time."

Caixia also hugged her brother's other arm, and then, the little princess Yongning also squeezed over and threw herself into Li Yun's embrace, doing her final tenderness. Every time her husband left, she would miss her husband very much.

"Humph."

Li Yun hugged left and right, with the picture of the little princess still hung on him, still making Fang Xue's real girlfriend a little jealous, and said sourly: "Let's go, anyway, these few days are enough..." It was absurd.

Thinking of the past few days, she, Li Yun, and the little princess Li Feng have been together every night and night, often until two o'clock in the evening, and occasionally at noon, all kinds of pictures appear, Fang Xue has a beautiful picture. His face couldn't help being flushed.

Li Yun is leaving tomorrow, and she will definitely toss them up later.

"I, I will go back to Longyang County tomorrow!" Fang Xue quickly changed the subject and said, "We have already signed up. Just wait for the start of school."

When signing up, she thought for a long time, but in the end she didn't choose the same major as Li Yun.

For one thing, Li Yun will definitely go to school very rarely in the future. The same profession is of little significance. Anyway, she is alone—at most, she will go to class with Li Yun's confidante, Gong Qingyu, and Liu Xianxian. .

Secondly, for various reasons, Fang Xue felt that Li Yun should be given some space to be alone and not to stick him too close.

The biggest factor is that there are so many beauties around this guy, if they stick too close, they will be given the name of a jealous woman.

".....it is good."

Li Yun pondered for a moment, and nodded slightly: "Xiaoxue, you go back to Longyang County to live for a while, and you can go back to Zhonghai City when school is about to start. Didn't you just buy a house? You can start school when you prepare."

Fang Xue glanced at him: "Are you going to drive me away?"

"Of course not, what are you thinking about." Li Yun hugged the little princess, crying and laughing: "We will not be able to come back to live from Monday to Friday in class. It is too far from the school. It is better to buy a house nearby. Caiwei and the others will also live At Qingyu's house, I'll be back at the weekend. Of course—"

There was a smile on Li Yun's face: "We and Qingyu can also..."

"You want to be beautiful!"

Chapter 2595: Waiting again

Fang Xue, with a blushing face, picked up the pillow and smashed the bad guy who wanted to enjoy the beauty of the people, but hit the little princess's head. Fang Xue quickly stepped forward and hugged the little princess's head and gently rubbed it. Rubbing his forehead to express sorry.

She spoils the little princess very much.

As a result, Princess Yongning was directly taken away by Fang Xue, and she shrank into her arms like a doll, accepting Fang Xue's affection and kneading.

"Brother~"

After Princess Yongning left Li Yun's hug, Caiwei gathered courage and leaned to his cheek again, lightly imprinting her own mark. After separation, her little cheek flushed with shame.

"Why kiss again?"

Li Yun was helpless. In the past few days, regardless of Fang Xue and Li Feng's presence, Caiwei and Caixia would kiss him on the face as long as they seized the opportunity. They are so nostalgic for their elder brother, it seems because they have just moved and are too unaccustomed to the environment reason.

"Well, because I like my brother the most~" Caiwei smiled happily and replied in a soft voice, her eyes filled with tenderness of a girl.

Seeing her cute sister being so coquettish, Li Yun's heart melted in half, and after Caixia kissed the other cheek, the other half of her heart also melted.

What's the dissatisfaction with having such two lovely sisters?

"Okay, go do your homework!"

Li Yun patted the sisters' small butts, pretending to be harsh, and said, "When I'm not at home, don't pull down your summer homework. I can't adapt to school when I go to school!"

"Yes~"

The so-called eldest brother is like a father, when Li Yun became majestic, the sisters did not dare to resist him.

However, Caixia still coquettishly asked her brother to kiss her face before she was willing to do her homework. As a result, Li Yun had to kiss her.

Li Feng saw the actions of the three brothers and sisters in his eyes, and thought in his heart amusedly that it might not be long before her brother will really become Li Jiazhui's son-in-law.

When we take a bath together in the open-air bath at night, I am afraid it will really reproduce the scene of Taihuang Mountain Tenshin Pavilion at that time.

At nine o'clock the next morning, after eating breakfast, Li Yun left the new home of Huangtingshan Villa and came to Zhonghai City in the car driven by the driver.

The housekeeper has already bought him a ticket for 11 o'clock at noon. Although there is still a lot of time before boarding, Li Yun likes to leave room for everything. He prefers to wait at the airport instead of stepping on a point to leave home. If you encounter a traffic jam by accident, that's a constant complaint.

Anyway, I was waiting at home with my mobile phone, so I might as well wait in the VIP room at the airport.

"This is the legendary VIP service?"

Li Yun came to the VIP room of Zhonghai Airport, leaned comfortably on the soft imported high-end sofa, and waited for the plane with Erlang's legs tilted up.

Zhonghai City is an international metropolis, and the decoration of the VIP room at the airport is really extraordinary, with some postmodern style. The window position facing the airport, you can clearly see a plane taking off and landing.

There are also free drinks in the VIP room. Of course, in addition to the free ones, there are many good drinks, such as coffee, cola, tea, milk tea, etc. Special drinks from all over the world can be found here.

In the past, although Li Yun had money, he never deliberately bought first class. Although his bank card deposits were already up to the gold card standard, he could enter the VIP room with the cooperation between the bank and the airport, but Li Yun never used it. pass.

It seems that the VIP room is quite different from the ordinary waiting hall. It looks like a casual coffee shop, and the street is crowded with people. No wonder the rich must travel in first class. Needless to say, there is a huge difference in the way of waiting for the flight alone.

Chapter 2596: World change

There were not many people in the VIP room. Li Yun could vaguely hear some conversations in English and Huang Xuan's Mandarin. In addition to his own affairs, the most talked about Penglai Island.

"I heard that Penglai Island now has more than 100,000 supernaturalists. Really?"

"More than that, this is only inferred, and it's still only on Penglai Island. There are many small islands that have risen in the Pacific Ocean. There are also many activities there, and there are more abilities!"

"I really envy these lucky guys. A college classmate of mine just went to relax. He did not expect that after experiencing the fog incident, he gained the ability to manipulate water. Now he is officially recruited by Huang Xuanguo. Not only does he have a staff, but he also gave him a bonus. Wan An's family expenses, my doctoral treatment is not as good as his bachelor's degree!"

"Are you talking nonsense? How could a supernaturalist join the official?"

"Hehe, what do you think? I thought it was the supernatural person of the movie Magneto against humans? Monsters can't be killed, and humans can't fight inwardly!"

"Um, that's what I said and said, there are too many people with supernatural powers, and every country in the world has established corresponding departments, right?"

"Of course, our country seems to be called Dragon Team. It hasn't been announced yet, but it's coming soon."

Dragon group? !

Li Yun almost squirted out a sip of coffee, why is this name so weird! As if I have heard of it somewhere.

However, the dragon is the totem of Huang Xuan country, and the people of Huang Xuan country are also descendants of the self-proclaimed dragon. Now the organization responsible for managing the supernatural beings is called the Dragon Group, which is still very appropriate. You can't deny it because it is too vulgar, right?

"The 100-meter world record broke again. The trapeze athlete from Heizhou broke his own world record once again after a lapse of ten hours with a time of 1:38!"

The corner of Li Yun's mouth twitched. It turned out that the world record for the 100-meter race was 9.58. However, after the recovery of his spiritual energy, the physical fitness of human beings has been continuously improved. The athlete who is known as the flying man has already announced his retirement, but he heard about Penglai Island afterwards. , He just flew to the island the next day.

As a result, by virtue of his excellent physical fitness, he was like a freshman, continuously breaking the world record in the 100-meter race.

Now it only takes more than one second to run a hundred meters, and the converted speed is more than 300 kilometers per hour, which is approximately equal to Li Yun's current flying speed.

Of course, the trapeze is only exploding fast now, and the duration is definitely far worse than Li Yun.

Li Yun can fly now, and can fly for a long time, enough for him to fly from Zhonghai City to the destination by himself, but if he does this, he will have to be half tired after landing. It is easier to fly by plane, but after getting off the plane , And then fly directly to the destination.

"A thousand-meter giant blue-ray creature appeared in the ocean, which seems to be a huge jellyfish."

"The tropical rain forest monkey population is overwhelming, primitive tribes are brutally attacked, appeal to the international community..."

"The appearance of white plants in the Arctic Ocean is different from the existing plants that rely on photosynthesis. These plants are fed by cold and spiritual energy and are spreading rapidly on the ice!"

"Yesterday, the * country announced a comprehensive militarized management to resist more and more monster attacks in the wild."

"Princess Alice of the Kingdom of Never Setting Sun established a shrine on Penglai Island to enshrine the * Athena. It is said that this goddess is a beautiful goddess who symbolizes wisdom and war. Princess Alice became the chief high priest, and more than half of the people of Y are fanatical. Become a teacher..."

Chapter 2597: Sick and beautiful woman (part 1)

"Sakura Country Shrine and Sakura Shrine issued a statement that Amaterasu Daimikami is a great * in ancient times and the supreme ruler of the Sakura Country, and the Emperor Sakura Country is a descendant of Amaterasu Daimika..."

Every time he reads the news these days, there is always a sense of urgency that forces him to think about what the future will become!

Although it has been said countless times, the gods can't figure out what the future will be like.

But every time Li Yun sees these weird, absurd, and totally unscientific news, he still makes his brain unable to stop thinking about these issues.

Although the last, as always, can't think of anything.

The earth is undergoing earth-shaking changes. It is more driving and destructive than the industrial revolution two hundred years ago. Reiki has unimaginable power. It can make all living things on the earth need tens of thousands of years to evolve within a year. Concentrated in just one year.

Moreover, the aura also supports the mutation of the creatures on the earth in an incredible way.

Bigger, stronger, higher.

Many people even speculate that in the future there may be towering trees reaching into the sky, branches touching artificial satellites, and huge sea monsters that can set off a tsunami when moved, just like the Godzilla and King Kong in the movie. Weapons must be developed in the direction of destroying monsters, rather than continue to deal with humans.

Wait, all the messy things and problems are placed in front of the earth human beings, waiting to be resolved.

"Forget it, I don't have enough people to swallow the elephant. I already have enough early advantages, and I still have the system plug-in in my hand. No matter what the future becomes, I can at least protect the people around me."

"Speaking of which, this is the first time I traveled without a girl with me? It's also a rare experience to enjoy a single life!"

Li Yun leaned back on the sofa and took out his mobile phone to chat with the girls on Penglai Island.

At this moment, a waitress not far away said in a slightly louder voice: "Ladies and gentlemen, I am sorry to disturb everyone."

Everyone turned their heads in unison. In this autumn of change, any unexpected situation is worthy of attention.

"There was a lady wandering outside the door, asking her to go to the waiting hall and not going, saying that she wanted to see someone, so I would like to ask everyone, are you..."

Presumably the girl outside is a lover. She chased the boy to the airport, but she was still a bit reserved. She didn't forcibly break into the VIP room, but just wandered outside the door, probably because she wanted to see the boy for the last time.

Of course, it is also possible that it is a girl who can't discriminate against LGBT groups.

Li Yun smiled. After playing on the Ocean Princess for more than a week, the foreigner's various treatments made him a little nervous now.

Just about to ignore the waiter's words, when leaning on the back of the sofa to play on the phone, Li Yun inexplicably received a prompt from the system.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Go out and have a look. Reward: In the next few days, the beautiful and sick will be with you.

Option 2: Ignore, reward: none. "

Sick and beautiful?

Suddenly, Li Yun's heart jumped. It shouldn't be the girl who chased the airport VIP room outside the door, or came to him, Tang...

Chapter 2598: Diseased beauty (part 2)

In the weird eyes of everyone in the VIP room, Li Yun got up and walked out of the door. With just a glance, he recognized standing hovering in the doorway, wearing tight jeans, a good-looking figure, but wearing long sleeves, black masks and sunglasses, and Girl in a stylish wide-brimmed hat.

Isn't it her!

After seeing Li Yun, the girl who was in a weird dress and hiding in hiding was so frightened that she fled. While running away, she turned her head and looked at Li Yun with loving eyes, looking very reluctant.

"...Tang Anxi, stop for me!"

Li Yun took a deep breath and called out the girl's name. The girl suddenly froze in place, turned around inch by inch, looked at him flustered, and quickly lowered.

Sure enough, the only person Li Yun could barely call Jiao Jiao was Tang Anxi who knew him in ktv and had only a few fate, but made the girl fall in love with him madly.

"Li, Li Yun..." Tang Anxi whispered tremblingly.

"Take off the mask!"

"Yes Yes!"

It was impossible for Tang Anxi to defy Li Yun's orders. After extending her slender hand, she slowly took off her black mask, revealing her beautiful face like a pear blossom with rain and a pitiful little white flower.

People around me who have been paying attention here let out an exclamation, especially boys. Men are the least resistant to this poor little white flower. Girls are disgusted, but boys like such girls very much, which can stimulate men to the greatest extent. Desire to protect!

Especially now that Tang Anxi is eager to cry, grieving for completeness, but looking at Li Yun with longing eyes, this kind of love and undesirable poor little white flower can almost make a man just pick up the bench and smash it towards Li Yun. Come, scold Li Yun to make their good sister cry.

"Uh, come in first."

Li Yun saw that something was wrong, and Tang Anxi deserves to be someone who is about to learn to perform. This kind of expression that I see pity is too vivid.

"Yes, yes, Li Yun...no, master." Tang Anxi summoned the courage to shout out the last two words.

Owner? !

Li Yun almost fell to the ground, and the crowd around the audience opened their eyes wide. What's the situation? This white lotus-like beauty is actually calling a man to be the master?

"I, I will live for you in the future, even if it's only a moment, I want to see you... So, you are my master!" Tang Anxi blushed shyly, and said this half enthusiastically. .

Li Yun hurriedly stopped her. He really didn't have such an inexplicable hobby of masters and servants. He liked uniforms at best, or cute girls, Lori and the like, for example, let the little princess Yongning wear dead water last time...

But for the master and servant, he does not have this hobby, nor does he have an S tendency.

Tang Anxi bit her lip, nodded slightly, and obediently followed Li Yun into the VIP room.

Tang Anxi was originally an eight-pointed beauty who was able to become the top princess in a good KTV in Zhonghai City. The name of Princess Anxi began to spread to the ears of foreign guests.

After getting acquainted with Li Yun, she received a few more medicinal pills for skin care and beauty, making her skin more supple and smooth.

The appearance is sweet, the temperament is little birdy, and the original gloomy character is not shown when getting along with Li Yun. It is completely just like a pure and ignorant girl who has just fallen in love. It makes people feel heartbeat when they see it.

Chapter 2599: Tang Anxi

Li Yun asked Tang Anxi to sit opposite him, and ordered her a drink. After the two of them sat down, there was a moment of silence.

For Tang Anxi's sudden appearance, Li Yun's emotions were complicated.

Originally thought it was the little girl with the most affectionate girl who was chasing the door of the VIP room, Li Yun also condemned the man, but now he condemned himself, which is really slapped himself in the face.

"I... I'm sorry." Tang Anxi lowered her head weakly to apologize, with an expression that was all my fault.

Li Yun didn't know how much she performed to win his sympathy and concern, or if this was her sincere performance, she could only vaguely replied, "It's okay. I'm a bit busy lately and didn't go to accompany you. How are you doing lately? ?"

Tang Anxi's eyes lit up, and she nodded violently, and said: "I'm studying some books about acting recently, preparing for college. In addition, I also reviewed Liu Xianxian's movies and learned her acting skills..."

One by one, she listed the things she had done recently, and her cautious manner made Li Yun amused, and her originally perfunctory heart softened a bit.

"Liu Xianxian?"

Li Yun interrupted her talking and laughed: "She is my girlfriend. Later.. I will introduce her to you. The fairy is very good. I believe it can help you develop in the entertainment industry!"

Yes, Tang Anxi chose to apply for the Zhonghai Drama Academy, which is the same school as Li Feng, but with a different major.

"...Okay." Tang Anxi blushed and nodded. Seeing this, Li Yun knew that she had learned about the woman next to him through some means.

"How did you know that I came to the airport?"

The only thing Li Yun suspected was this. Tang Anxi couldn't join the Fairy Club, and he got into a group with the confidantes around him, right?

Tang Anxi stubbornly said: "I, I have invited people, each of them is 7,000 yuan a month, let them stay at the airport and the train station, and send text messages to tell me when they see you."

Li Yun was stunned. Tang Anxi actually invited people to watch him at the airport and train station in order to see him. As soon as he was found, he would report immediately. He even suspected that Tang An was also in the train station in Longyang County. People hired by Xi!

"Sorry!!" Tang Anxi was trembling with nervousness, with a white lotus expression about to cry, making the men around me feel pity.

Li Yun is in a complicated mood, and men are very real. He can pursue the goddess for several years, but as long as a woman is willing to chase him backwards, and fanatically like him, most men will give up the goddess and choose someone who loves him.

Now Tang Anxi can do this for him, what else can he say?

"Please so many people, do you still have money?"

"There are five million more."

"Huh?" Li Yun looked at her suspiciously, where did Tang Anxi get so much money? He once only gave her three million.

"No, no, I'm not going to be a princess again..."

Tang Anxi waved her hand again, raising her hand in a hurry, and summoned a small group of dim flames. The dim yellow flames were particularly eye-catching outside the VIP room at the airport, making everyone around them turned their heads and looked over.

"Li Yun, I have powers!"

Tang Anxi became very excited, and tried to show off a small group of flames in her hand to Li Yun.

"Miss, here, here...you can't use fire." A waitress reminded her in a bewildered manner. After holding back for a long time, she said.

Chapter 2600: Ability

Speaking of it, the world has undergone earth-shaking changes due to the rejuvenation of spiritual energy, but no special laws have been issued in various places to restrict people's use of supernatural powers, including dealing with the future crimes of supernatural powers that will inevitably occur.

After all, only a week has passed since the Penglai Island incident, and all countries are still busy dealing with the Penglai Island incident, temporarily not paying attention to what is happening in the country.

"Feel sorry."

When facing Li Yun, Tang Anxi looked nervous and at a loss, but when facing outsiders, she was indeed cold and gloomy. After a glance at the waitress, she clenched her fist and extinguished the flame in her hand.

The waitress didn't dare to say more, even the security guard who came after hearing the news looked at each other and stepped back.

There has been a lot of rumors about the supernatural beings on the Internet. It was the first time that they saw a real supernatural being. They had no idea what Tang Anxi's power was. Could it be possible to burn everyone on the scene to death with a single flame?

"This world has really changed!"

Everyone ran away without fear, but the eyes looking at Tang Anxi were already full of awe.

Tang Anxi's image in their eyes has changed from a fanatical  to a powerful man who holds a powerful force and mutates his body, and can burn them to death with a single flame!

She is a  and a strong one.

This is the difference.

"... Yun, I'm sorry." After looking back at Li Yun, Tang Anxi turned back into the harmless little white flower, soft as if a wind could blow away.

cloud? Forget it, this name is fine.

Li Yun acquiesced in what Tang Anxi called him, and asked: "Did you go to Penglai Island?"

"Um."

Tang Anxi nodded obediently, took out her phone carefully, showed a photo in front of Li Yun, and asked in a low voice, "Yun, is this person you?"

Needless to say, this photo was taken by someone on the Ocean Princess while Li Yun was standing on the whale monster. With the title of Li Chaoren, Tang Anxi recognized him normally.

"Just to verify, you went to Penglai Island directly after the fog cleared?" Li Yun was very surprised and moved inexplicably.

"Yeah~"

Tang Anxi lowered her head, bit her lip, and showed a shy smile: "I, I have a strong premonition that it is you, so I went to the pier early the next morning to find out which ship is going to Penglai Island. Yes, in the end, I spent 1 million to buy a boat ticket and successfully boarded the boat to Penglai Island."

Li Yun became more surprised. Tang Anxi's mobility was simply the most powerful one he had ever seen, and he actually relied on this stupid method to go to Penglai Island!

"Then, after getting ashore, I quickly felt that I had something in my grasp, that is, the flame just now..."

Speaking of this, Tang Anxi gave a happy expression, "Then I want to find you, but unfortunately I can't get into that hotel. I had to go to the island and wander around, and found that my power is still very useful and can kill A monster... happened to meet some people, and they also have supernatural powers, so I went into a team with them, walked around in the mountains, and picked a herb that exuded a strange aroma, with seven or eight knots on it. fruit."

"Then." Tang Anxi smiled triumphantly: "The team wants to grab the spirit fruit. I deliberately fell behind one step. After their powers ran out, I suddenly shot it. I wasn't greedy. I just grabbed three and fled. , And later sold to a wealthy foreign businessman, sold 30 million US dollars | gold, and did not have to pay taxes, hehe~.

After I heard that you came back, I also came back. "

Li Yun was so shocked that he could not speak, Tang Anxi actually got all kinds of adventures... This is already the treatment of the heroine of the novel!
