

Godly Choice 491

Chapter 491: Expel

Yuwenfu said indifferently: "Now all the people in the rivers and lakes know that there is a conflict between my Yuwen's family and Li Yun. Even if someone else kills him, even if the murderer is willing to admit that he did it, all the people in the rivers and lakes will blame the kid for his death. On our heads!"

"You want to cause a traffic accident to kill him? Haha." Yuwen Fu smiled mockingly, "It's useless, no one will believe that, whether you did it or not, people will default to you!"

Yuwen stubbornly dare not speak.

"Even if you want to come to a dead end, but that's still foolish!"

"Patriarch, please!" Yu Wenji asked respectfully.

"Humph!"

Yuwenfu said: "The correct way is to wait for a while, when Li Yun conflicts with others again, or find a way to make him conflict with others, and you kill him again, so that even if someone suspects you, you There are also reasons for defense."

Yu Wenji nodded repeatedly.

"Do you know how I deal with you now?" Yuwen Fu asked patiently.

"No, I don't know."

"Hehe, you're an idiot, listen up, this may be the last time you hear my instructions to you!"

Yufuki walked out of this secret room with his head bowed respectfully, a trace of resentment flashed in his eyes, of course, because of his head down, no one could notice his eyes.

"It is forbidden to return to Yuwen's house within five years, go to Korea for plastic surgery, and kill Li Yun one year later..."

Either way, it is very unacceptable to Yuwenji!

The second day.

As the palace family officially announced the bad behavior of Yu Wenji and others, for a while, all the people in the world who knew about it were shocked.

"The Yuwen family actually murdered a beggar? When were they so mean?"

"Hey, Yuwen's people are like that, I've seen it through long ago!"

"Yuwen has a small belly and chicken intestines. A few years ago, there was a scandal involving * of good women. Yuwen's family is short-term!"

"I am so ridiculous that I want to pretend to be a traffic accident. What's even more funny is that Yuwenji and Yuwen Shangfu also failed!"

"Yuwen's family is a big joke!"

"Shhh, keep it quiet, don't be heard by God of Fire God, otherwise, he will leave you dead!"

"Wow, I'm so scared!"

For a time, the Sword Evil Sect (the sect where Fairy Feijian is located), Tiandanmen (Huang Lao, genius doctors everywhere), Qingleigu (Xia Feiyao) and other first-class powerful families, as well as many second-rate sects, such as Feihumen, Qian Jiashanzhuang, Mojiabao and so on, the people of all rivers and lakes are not the ones who look at Yuwen's family with mocking eyes.

There is quite a sense of everyone shouting and fighting.

One day later, Yuwenjia, who was in a whirlpool of public opinion, finally issued a notice, expelling Yuwenji and Yuwensheng from the family. Their future actions have nothing to do with Yuwenjia. In addition, they sincerely compensate Gongjia and Li Yun. For the loss, ask for the understanding of both parties and so on.

The attitude of correcting mistakes has finally calmed the arguments of the people of the rivers and lakes.

Li Yun ignored Yuwen's request for peace talks, and gave them all to Gong Lianyi for processing. She also allowed her to take all the gains, or gave Gong Qingyu to Li Yun without accepting any money.

Anyway, the two women are both his girlfriend and prospective wife, and Li Yun is not at a loss.

In addition, Director Wang sent someone to arrest Yuwenji and asked him for his opinion. Li Yun naturally had no opinion. He caught the best, and it didn't hurt if he couldn't catch it. Anyway, Yuwenji's reputation is already stinking, and he can only live in the shadows in the future. .

However, Li Yun wanted to prevent him from jumping over the wall in a hurry and coming to trouble his family, so Li Yun wanted to find someone.

Chapter 492: Fang Xue limited

Wednesday.

After school at noon, Li Yun planned to take a leave of absence to see someone in the afternoon, but Fang Xue became nervous, grabbed his wrist, bit her lower lip with her white and correct teeth, and looked at him with tears in her eyes:

"Li Yun, do you want to take a week off again?"

"No, no."

Li Yun quickly held the charming face of his real girlfriend with both hands, but unfortunately because he was at school, he couldn't give her a bitter kiss.

It was already 6 o'clock in the evening when he returned home on Sunday, but Fang Xue still came from home, met him excitedly, and had dinner again. The two of them stayed in Li Yun's room for a long time until Fang Xue's body was tender and soft. Powerless, after being kissed with a red face, he did not leave Li Yun's home until ten o'clock.

It can be seen that Fang Xue has not seen Li Yun for a week, so she missed him so much in her heart.

"I haven't said that, last week you..."

Fang Xue puffed up her cheeks, she looked very cute, where could she be a little cold-blooded.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Coax your girlfriend, make her angry, and reward a special gift: small and medium-sized Zhujidan (limited by Fang Xue).

Option 2: Be perfunctory at will, turn around and leave, reward skill: straight man of steel.

Option 3: Show off the style of a big man, frighten Fang Xue, reward skill: scumbag! "

Li Yun was speechless for a while, and the system gave another spoof option. However, the system marked all the wrong options, which made Li Yun more aware of how to understand the heart of a girl, which is not bad.

In addition, Fang Xue deserves to be his true girlfriend, and the system rewards many small gifts, which are limited to Fang Xue's use, and it is a small and medium-sized base building. The system * is really thoughtful!

"Xiaoxue, all right."

Li Yun smiled and nodded her smooth cheeks, and said, "I just went to see my bodyguard in the afternoon and asked him to help protect Li Feng and Caixia. I will come to school at 7 o'clock in the evening, and we will see you in the library. !"

Generally speaking, Li Yun, like Fang Xue, does not come to school to study at night, but in order to accompany Fang Xue, he is willing to go to the library to accompany her.

Fang Xue's bulging cheeks disappeared a little, and she whispered: "You let Li Feng study in the classroom tonight... The two of us will go to the library tonight, and the three of us will be together tomorrow and tomorrow night."

At least tonight, she is going to be with Li Yun. Anyway, Li Feng can be alone with Li Yun for many nights. What intimate things do the two of them do without their twin sisters?

Therefore, Fang Xue doesn't want Li Feng tonight, only Li Yun.

"Okay." Li Yun agreed with a smile, and kissed her on the forehead dozingly, Fang Xue blushed and let go of Li Yun, turned and ran away, leaving only a shy sentence:

"See you tonight."

"Um!"

"Ding, the host makes a choice and rewards a special gift: small and medium-sized Zhujidan (limited to Fang Xue)."

Li Yun was still satisfied. The small and medium-sized Zhuji Pill was suitable for Fang Xue to eat now. She had already taken the small Zhuji Pill, but the medium-sized one could not take it temporarily.

"I'll give it to her in the evening, now I'll go see Guo Xun."

Yes, the person Li Yun wanted to see was a subordinate he had previously treated with a small recovery pill: Guo Xun.

According to Guo Xun, he used to be a mercenary abroad, but Li Yun has always been suspicious of this, but Guo Xun is really close to some mysterious people, such as his confidante, Yang Jie's 30 Many years old. Women.

Chapter 493: High-end community

Li Yun still has 4 medium-sized recovery pills. Since the system once said that Guo Xun can be cured completely and his loyalty can be obtained, then Li Yun does not need to hide and treat him directly, so that Guo Xun and him can be treated. Comrades in arms protect his family.

Although the system also prompts Guo Xun to have an enemy, Li Yun is no longer a weak scum who was not even the Houtian realm in the first place. He even dares to be an enemy of the six magic gates, and is he afraid of Guo Xun's enemy?

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon, after a rare nap at home, Li Yun took a taxi to Guo Xun's new home.

Guo Xun had no money, but his confidante and close friends had money. They estimated that after seeing Guo Xun actually living in that kind of ruined house, they bought him a house.

Li Yun pays him 20,000 yuan a month, and now Guo Xun estimates that he still has no money to buy a house.

"Ankang apartment is here."

Following the taxi driver's reminder, Li Yun paid to get off the car and took a look at the newly established high-end community.

Looking at the luxury of the community, it can often be seen in the guards.

In an ordinary community, there is freedom to enter and exit, and the security guard is over sixty years old, and basically can only sit.

A better community, with a card to enter and exit, the security guard is over 40 years old, has a certain fighting capacity, can deal with the little thieves.

The high-end residential area is strictly fortified. There are usually three or two capable security patrols. The combat effectiveness is strong. In addition, the door is worth millions of dollars by visual inspection. This residential area is very high-end!

"Yes, Brother Guo's new home is pretty good!"

Li Yun smiled. There is a small garden in the community, as well as a fitness place. It is estimated that it will be very lively in the evening. On the whole, the community is quite good, and Li Yun is excited to see it.

"Or, I'll buy a suite here too!"

"Little brother wants to buy a house?"

Li Yun's self-talking voice was heard by the security of the community. Perhaps seeing that he had a good temperament, the security said with a smile: "That just happens. Recently, the sales department of this community is engaged in activities. It seems that the first place is free. Send the house, Saturday is the best day. If your family wants to buy a house, you have to hurry up!"

Although it is a high-end community, the security guard is also afraid that the occupancy rate is low, the house is vacant, and he will lose his job if the community property costs are not high, so he is particularly enthusiastic about this.

Of course, he didn't think Li Yun could buy a house. He probably heard his parents say that he wanted to buy a house, so he said that he would buy a house.

"Activity? Free room delivery?"

Li Yun was stunned, but didn't think much about it. Most of the activities are not time-consuming and laborious, or ordinary people can't participate at all, and most of them are cheating.

After learning about the location of the sales department in this community from the security guard, Li Yun planned to come back on Saturday to have a look.

After registering his ID card, Li Yun successfully entered the community and made a call to Guo Xun. Soon, others came downstairs to pick up Li Yun.

Guo Xun was quite happy to see Li Yun, after all, he healed part of his injuries.

"Brother Guo, how much did you spend on buying a house here?"

"It's not expensive." Guo Xun was a little embarrassed, "Yang Jie bought it for me, more than five million points, I'm worried about how to pay her back."

Li Yun teased: "I see your relationship with Sister Yang, I'm afraid you don't have to pay it back, right?"

Guo Xun was even more embarrassed, not knowing what to say.

He already has a wife who is a childhood sweetheart, even a daughter.

But Yang Jie is his partner from birth to death, and loves him deeply. Between the two...

It's a mess!

Li Yun didn't ask, he should solve Guo Xun's matter by himself.

But judging from the fact that Yang Jie bought a house for Guo Xun, it is estimated that she has been approved by Guo Xun's wife.

Chapter 494: Guo Xun's identity

Li Yun entered Guo Xun's new home. It was a large five-bedroom and two-living room. It was very spacious and luxuriously decorated. It is estimated that the furniture alone is worth 500,000 yuan.

"Ah, big brother~!"

As soon as Li Yun entered the door, Guo Xun's daughter, a cute 5 or 6-year-old girl, Guo Xinxin, rushed over and happily hugged Li Yun's thigh for a hug.

"Xinxin, are you behaved recently? Are you happy or not?"

"Hehe, they are very well-behaved. I am very happy to move to a new house. Aunt Yang is also happy to live in our house!"

Guo Xinxin's milky words made Yang Jie who was sitting in the living room blush, and she admitted in disguise that she was integrated into the family.

Li Yun smiled, squeezed Guo Xinxin's fat face, and sat on the sofa holding her, but the girl Guo Xinxin jumped down and took the initiative to pour tea to Li Yun, very polite.

In the living room, besides Guo Xun and his wife, Yang Jie and Hu Fanbo were also there. The latter two were said to be companions that the mercenary Guo Xun knew overseas, and the two came to investigate the weird thing like the spirit stick.

Of course, Yang Jie's purpose is not only to investigate, but also to find her old lover Guo Xun.

A few people chatted for a while. During the process, Li Yun saw that Guo Xun, his wife, and Yang Jie were still in a good relationship, but Yang Jie was obviously a little girl and regarded herself as a younger sister.

Moreover, Yang Jie likes Guo Xinxin very much, and her gaze reveals the gentle maternal brilliance from time to time.

"Ahem!"

Li Yun said, "Big Brother Guo, let's get it right."

"Alright." Guo Xun motioned to his wife to take Guo Xinxin to leave, leaving the four to talk alone.

Li Yun solemnly said to the three of them: "Sister Yang, I know that you have an extraordinary background, but what I say next may far exceed your imagination. Believe it or not, it's up to you to decide! Participate or not. Wandering in the muddy water, I also hope you will seriously consider it!"

"Cut!" Hu Fanbo, who was less than 30 years old, wrapped his arms around his chest and said lazily: "Xiao Yunzi, just say it, don't think we are frogs at the bottom of the well. In fact, we have seen things and experienced major events. Far beyond your imagination!"

The trio once fought as mercenaries overseas, traveled to dozens of countries, experienced the worst battles, and secretly sneaked into certain secret agencies to investigate intelligence. How can Li Yun know?

Hu Fanbo has the right to be proud of the three secret identities alone!

"Are you sure?" Li Yun asked again, "I didn't know the six magic gates before, but now I have realized that this school is extremely powerful and mysterious. No one can fight against them except the country!"

The three were aroused curiosity, can they contend with the mysterious power of a country?

Guo Xun and Yang Jie looked at each other. The latter nodded in agreement. Guo Xun said, "Li Yun, in fact, you have already guessed our true identity, right?"

"I guessed it, but I don't dare to confirm it." Li Yun smiled, and then was glared by Sister Yang, "You little slipper, I really don't know where you learned this from, forget it, I'll tell the truth. You, but you must not reveal our identity, otherwise it will easily cause international disputes!"

Li Yun was surprised, international disputes? It seems that the secret identities of these three people are indeed not simple!

After thinking about it, Yang Jie said, "In fact, our identity is also very simple. In ancient times, we called it Jinyiwei, but in modern times, we changed it to an agent."

Chapter 495: Fluttershy

Li Yun nodded, just as he expected.

Jin Yiwei, the military|political intelligence collection agency of the Ming Dynasty, was directly responsible to the emperor.

In this case, the three Guo Xun directly belonged to the highest military agency, a secret intelligence gathering squad, operating abroad, and therefore used their identities as mercenaries as a disguise.

Guo Xun is estimated to be the captain of the three, but unfortunately, he was injured in an accident and had to retire sadly.

Li Yun estimated that he had a pension, but he didn't know why it was gone. It was estimated that he had spent the money on treatment.

"After talking about us, should I talk about you?" Yang Jie said with a smile: "What have you done recently? Why do you keep asking for leave."

She did not go into the details until she clicked, and Li Yun could also understand that these unseen secrets are destined to be rotten in the stomach, otherwise, it is really easy to cause international disputes!

Li Yun smiled and said: "Next, I will show you someone, you must not be too surprised, and don't be too excited!"

"Hey!" Hu Fanbo used his nose to express disdain, but his attention was quite concentrated, and he was thinking to himself, alone?

"Who is it?"

"A villain."

Li Yun stretched his hands into his jacket pockets, and the three of them became more surprised, villain?

"Fluttershy, come out."

Seeing Li Yun holding a little girl in a black delicate skirt between his hands with two fingers, the three Guo Xun couldn't believe their eyes.

Is this a doll?

"Ahhh~~~" The little girl in the black dress stretched her waist and rubbed her sleepy eyes. Without looking around, she crawled up Li Yun's arm, crawling and babbling. Yeah said: "Bab Bab Baba, hungry, Xiaodie, hungry~~!"

The small voice caused the three of them to drop their jaws by surprise.

"This, this... are real people?!"

Hu Fanbo, who had expressed disdain before, now his eyes widened, staring at the little girl.

Small arms and legs, thick black hair like a waterfall, exquisite features, black dress, except for only three inches tall, this little girl who crawls up Li Yun's arms is indistinguishable from humans!

"Well, it should be said that it is a cute elf named Black Feather Butterfly."

Li Yun smiled and took out a small Jidan, Black Feather Butterfly's eyes lit up, and she suddenly yelled with excitement. It was not until Li Yun stuffed the pill into her that Black Feather Butterfly held this foot. There was a pill the size of her head, and she happily took it.

While eating, he looked at Guo Xun and them with  eyes.

The three looked at each other, and the black feather butterfly in front of them had greatly destroyed their three views!

"How do you feel now?" Li Yun looked at Hu Fanbo mockingly, who was dumbfounded, unable to speak for a while.

"This is really... quite amazing!"

Guo Xun said with emotion: "I feel like I had lived for nothing more than 30 years ago. I can't think that there are still these magical things in the world.

"Perhaps it is really a myth." Li Yun smiled and told them what happened recently.

for a long time.

After listening to Li Yun's narration, the three of them remained silent for a long time.

"In this way, these six magic gates are indeed very good!" Sister Yang pondered, looked up at Guo Xun, and said: "I want to contact the old leader. From now on, we will follow Li Yun to investigate, if possible. , Let the old leader send more people to assist!"

Guo Xun nodded.

Chapter 496: Tomb of ancient generals

Both Yang Jie and Guo Xun were in a semi-retired state, and Hu Fanbo was on vacation, but after learning about the hidden whereabouts of the Six Demon Gates, the three decided to stay for investigation.

Although Liao Hua already knew about this, perhaps the upper hand was ready to send someone down.

Li Yun sighed in his heart that Yang Jie and the three were heroes who shed their blood for the country. Although they were half retired, the sense of justice in their chest still drove them to fight against evil, which made them admire!

Thinking of this, Li Yun took out a medium recovery pill and handed it to Guo Xun.

"this is.....?"

Guo Xun showed a puzzled expression, but Yang Jie was beautiful, and looked at Li Yun in surprise: "Could it be the pill that can cure Brother Xun?"

"Yes, this pill should be able to heal Brother Guo's hidden injuries to your body!" Li Yun nodded with a smile.

"Daen doesn't say thank you, Li Yun, no, boss, please tell me to do anything in the future!"

Guo Xun was very excited. He held the pill tightly in his hand and looked at Yang Jie and Hu Fanbo. The scenes of fighting with them in the past kept pouring out of his mind. After his body recovered, he would set foot on the battlefield again!

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. When he saw Guo Xun for the first time, he still looked decadent, and it was really sad because he couldn't fight.

This fighting madman!

Guo Xun temporarily put the recovery pill away and waited to eat it at night.

The four continued to chat. After Guo Xun was expected to recover his former strength, his mental outlook was much better, and Hu Fanbo no longer regarded Li Yun as a kid, and his attitude was extremely respectful.

Black Feather Butterfly ate and ran back to Li Yun's pocket to sleep. Li Yun also discovered something. Black Feather Butterfly is actually not afraid of pressure. Her body is very solid, and ordinary collisions can't hurt her at all. Therefore, put her in It's not in the pocket at all.

"Speaking." Guo Xun glanced at Li Yun's pocket and said thoughtfully: "Recently, we accidentally inquired about a piece of news."

"Oh?"

Li Yun took a sip of tea, chatted with Gong Lianyi on the phone, and asked casually: "What news?"

"It is said that a group of tomb robbers encountered a moving corpse in the tomb of an ancient general."

Guo Xun's voice just fell.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Investigate the matter in detail, reward experience value +300,000, all attributes +300, green gift bag*3, extra bonus skill: advanced tomb robbery knowledge.

Option 2: Ignore, no reward.

Option 3: Give Guo Xun a roll of eyes, mock him for being suspicious, and reward him with +50 evil. "

"Cough cough cough!" Li Yun was so embarrassed by the sudden system prompt that he almost squirted out the tea.

"what happened?"

Yang Jie has a weird face. Didn't Li Yun say that he has encountered zombies? Why now I heard that there are moving corpses in the ancient tomb, and I have a scared expression?

"nothing."

Of course Li Yun can't tell what happened to the system, but the system prompts it, does it mean that the matter is true?

Moving corpse, zongzi?

The so-called zongzi, in the terminology of tomb robbers, refers to a corpse that is well preserved, not decomposed but has become a corpse, that is, turned into a sleeping zombie.

The zongzi is wrapped with a layer of zongzi leaves, which is very similar to the coffin outside the zombie. Therefore, the corpse transformed into a zongzi becomes a zongzi, which is a very appropriate name.

But what Li Yun considered was: "Is this zongzi a natural corpse, or is the Six Demon Sects doing a ghost?"

Chapter 497: Late self-study

Hearing Li Yun's question, Yang Jie frowned: "We have not yet determined whether this matter is true or false. We heard it accidentally when we were investigating. I heard it as a rumor from the streets. Li Yun, you think it is true. ?"

"Perhaps, since I have nothing to do anyway, it is better to investigate." Li Yun remained silent, naturally he could not reveal what he had prompted by the system.

"Also."

Guo Xun nodded, "Originally, we were looking at Feihumen for investigation recently, but they are acting more and more concealed, and they didn't show any hints. In that case, we will leave the matter of stalking Feihumen to the people like Liao Hua you mentioned, We stay in Longyang County to assist you."

"Listen to my command?" Li Yun asked jokingly.

Sister Yang gave him a roll of eyes, "Now you know the most, besides, if you want to call your boss, you will naturally follow your instructions!"

The implicit meaning is that she is Guo Xun's wife and naturally listens to Li Yun.

Hu Fanbo also had no objection, and he heard Li Yun's potential meaning.

If a team is acting together, it is most taboo to have unknown command. One wants to go east and the other wants to go west. The group can't go.

Therefore, it is very advantageous to set the command as soon as possible.

"That's okay." Li Yun smiled. In fact, he just tried it out. From the bottom of his heart, he didn't want to listen to other people's commands.

After all, he has a system and can't tell many things. If he has command power, he can just let them do the same.

"In this case, how about we go to investigate tomorrow morning?"

The three of them had no objection, and Yang Jie smiled and said, "I thought you would say to go tonight."

"Ahem, I'm going to accompany my girlfriend tonight!"

"I'm going, Li Yun, you can do it, I don't have a girlfriend yet." Hu Fanbo cried out strangely, causing everyone to laugh.

After chatting for a while, Li Yun got up and said goodbye. He didn't say more about Zongzi. These will be kept for tomorrow.

7 o'clock in the evening.

Li Yun came to the school gate. After he entered high school, he never came to school at night. He always used the excuse to study at home, but actually went to work in food stalls.

Until he got the system, Li Yun had mastered all the knowledge in high school, not to mention having to come to school.

Therefore, Li Yun looked particularly excited when he saw the beautiful shadow of Yingying standing at the school gate.

The medium-length woolen coat and slim jeans make her figure more and more eye-catching. In addition, the single ponytail that demonstrates vitality makes her passers-by turn their heads and glance at her.

Li Yun's heart was warm, and the person standing not far away was his first girlfriend, Fang Xue!

"Xiaoxue!"

"Ah, Li Yun, you are here!"

In the evening, the beautiful figure leaped towards him happily, Li Yun gently caught her, and the two embraced her heartily, making many passing people and students who came to attend the evening self-study a lot of attention.

"It's Brother Li and the school flower Fangxue. Tsk tsk, this pair of dog men and women are really made in heaven, no, heaven doesn't tolerate it!"

"I'm Cao! I'm so sour!"

"I'm sour into a lemon person, just lemon, ooh!"

"Men are handsome and talented, and women are beautiful and talented...In short, in a word: I'm sour!"

"Look at your boyfriend, how good he is, then look at you!"

"Hmph, why don't you look at the figure, look, and family background of your girlfriend..."

"Look for a fight!"

"Spare my wife, I was wrong~"

Amidst the roar of classmates, Li Yun let go of Fang Xue, kissed her red face, held her little hand, and said softly: "Let's go in."

"Um."

Fang Xue blushed and responded. At this moment, she felt extremely happy.

Chapter 498: Press the road

The two came to the library door holding hands and then let go. After all, it is the library. Being too intimate will cause spiritual harm to the students inside.

Zhikai High School is a private school, relatively free, and the library is open at night, but there are fewer people. After all, the high school still focuses on the content of textbooks, and there are not many materials to check, unlike universities that require in-depth research.

Li Yun found a place by the window and sat down. Fang Xue took out the books and materials from her backpack, only to see Li Yun empty-handed, she couldn't help but laugh out loud:

"Hey, you bastard!" She said defiantly: "You also said to review with me, but you didn't get any books. Really! I'll give you one, what do you want to review?"

"Do you think I am someone who needs review?" Li Yun shrugged and refused. "Next time I will get full marks in the exam, fool, I'm just here to accompany you."

"...Huh, I don't want you to be with me."

Fang Xue refused in her small mouth, but the smile and happiness between her eyebrows could be seen at a glance.

Li Yun crossed his hands on the table, put his chin on his hands, and looked at Fang Xue with straight eyes. She looked redder and redder, and finally knocked his head with the book in annoyance, and said with shame. : "What are you looking at?"

"Look at my wife."

"...Who is your wife, at most a girlfriend!"

"Xiaoxue, don't you know? Girlfriend and wife mean the same thing."

"That's not the same thing. Where did you fall in the wrong reason? Ah, I blame you, I don't even want to learn!"

"So I'm testing you, so that you can concentrate on it anytime, any time."

"Go, I don't want you to test it."

Li Yun was satisfied, teasing his girlfriend was really interesting, making her face flushed, and feeling more fulfilled.

It is rare to enjoy a pleasant time.

Ashamed, Fang Xue picked up the 'five-year college entrance examination and three-year simulation' and, like Gong Qingyu, challenged Li Yun and asked him how to solve some extremely difficult final questions.

Li Yun naturally took the challenge happily, and had a back and forth with Fang Xue.

In the end, Fang Xue contentedly took a sip of the tea in the thermos, licked her blushing lips, and said, "Since Li Yun, you gave me those strange pills, my memory and body have improved a lot. , It seems that you can get a score of 720 or more without studying!"

Li Yun smiled and looked at her beautiful ruddy lips, "Xiaoxue, are you suggesting me?"

"Huh? What's the hint?"

"Since you said you can do without studying... Then, let's go!"

"Ah? Ah! I hate it, I still want to review, where are you bad guys taking me?"

In Fang Xue's half-push, the two packed up their books and left the library, holding hands to the track and field, and pressed the road (track and field track) together at 8 pm.

After that, Li Yun found a hidden corner, sat down, and let Fang Xue sit on him, achieving his purpose: to hold him.

Tired and crooked for a long time, until Fang Xue complained shyly that her lips were swollen, Li Yun let her go, holding her sitting in the corner of the track and field, watching the moonlight and chatting.

During this period, Li Yun's hands have been well-behaved and did not touch randomly. In fact, he has never been messy. Although Fang Xue looks like a cold school girl, she is actually very shy when she is in love.

"Li Yun." Fang Xue leaned on his shoulder, did not look at the moonlight, but looked at him, softly said: "You... go to my house on Saturday?"

Chapter 499: Fang Xue's bravery

The two hugged each other and Li Yun was stunned when he heard Fang Xue's shy words.

Because Fang Xue invited him to her home, which meant that he was officially introduced to his family, and the relationship between the two went further.

In the traditional sense, the woman invites the man to join her on her own, or vice versa, both of which mean the initial engagement of the marriage contract, from the relationship between boy and girl friends, to become a formal unmarried couple.

In addition, Fang Xue estimated that there was another meaning.

Li Yun went to see her parents. After being approved, it meant that she could give herself to Li Yun. Simply put, the two could roll the bed sheets.

"Xiaoxue..."

Li Yun's heart was fierce, and he was about to agree, but the system interrupted again.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Accept your girlfriend's request, choose a suitable time to visit Fang's house, reward 1.88 million yuan, small-scale Peiyuan Dan*2 (limited to Fang Xue's parents, effect: body conditioning), small-scale recovery Dan*1.

Option 2: Reject her, reward skill: scumbag character.

Choice three: perfunctory, reward skills: scumbag second nature. "

Li Yun raised his eyebrows, it was the first time Pei Yuan Dan saw him, but it seemed to be of little use, it was a gift to the future father-in-law!

"Why, what's the matter?" Seeing Li Yun pondering, Fang Xue was suddenly lost, "Aren't you willing to go?"

As a girl, she was invited by Li Yun after plucking up the courage. Because Fang Xue had a sense of crisis, there were more and more girls around Li Yun, and they were all beautiful and excellent girls not much worse than her. .

Although Li Yun has always loved her very much, and he chats with her every night, saying good night to each other, but Fang Xue is still a little worried. What should I do if a good boy like Li Yun is taken away?

Just thinking that Li Yun no longer loves her, Fang Xue's heart can't help but tighten.

"no."

Li Yun gently held her small smooth hand, and Fang Xue's mood immediately improved a lot. The girl in love is like this, because a boy's word is sad, and he is happy because of a simple comforting word.

The emotions are controlled by the other party, which shows how much Fang Xue loves Li Yun.

"Not what?" Fang Xue asked.

"I mean find some time..."

"what!"

Fang Xue interrupted him and said angrily: "Are you asking for leave again?"

Her beautiful eyes are full of reluctance and a trace of complaint, as if she is saying that she always abandons her girlfriend to ghost, and provokes so many girls!

Li Yun thought for a while, took out the small and medium-sized Jidan, put it into Fang Xue's little hand, and said, "This is for you to eat. It can make your body better. Well, my sister doesn't have it. Now You have it!"

Hearing that Li Feng didn't have this pill, Fang Xue immediately became happy, grabbing the pill and holding on to it.

"in addition."

Li Yun rubbed her single ponytail hair and whispered softly, "I'll show you someone."

"people?"

In doubt, Fang Xue saw the delicate and small body of Black Feather Butterfly, and she was stunned.

"Li Yun, this is..."

"Xiaoxue, let me talk to you slowly."

Li Yun hugged her and told her about the Six Demon Gates. Fang Xue was a little scared, but Li Yun promised that everything would be fine.

"I see, you... go." Fang Xue bit her lip and agreed. Li Yun told her this, which meant to persuade her to let her know her whereabouts.

"Xiaoxue."

"Hmph, you have to leave tomorrow, then I..." Fang Xue suddenly hugged him and shyly offered her own fragrant kiss.

For a long time, never separated.

Chapter 500: Set off, go to investigate

At 8 o'clock the next day, Li Yun had breakfast at home, sent away the twin sisters Li Feng and Caiwei, packed his luggage, and bought some things from the nearby supermarkets and hardware stores to get home, all stuffed into the space ring.

He had a hunch that this time he might really go to find the ancient tomb with zongzi (that is, zombies), so Li Yun prepared a lot of things.

For example, flashlights, biscuits, mineral water, gasoline, ropes, etc., no matter how useful or useless, he has a space ring, all of which are stuffed in!

In addition, Black Feather Butterfly also went with her. She stayed in Li Yun's pocket and did not even want to leave at night, which made Li Yun quite a headache.

However, the newborn child is always clinging to his parents, and Li Yun can only take her with him.

"drop--"

"Li Yun, are you ready?"

When the car horn sounded, Guo Xun and the three drove to pick him up. Li Yun took a backpack and went out and sat in the back row with Hu Fanbo.

Needless to say, it was Sister Yang and Guo Xun in the front row. Guo Xun was in charge of driving. Li Yun looked at him and he looked refreshed and confident and powerful.

"Brother Guo, have you recovered?"

"good!"

Guo Xun shook his right hand vigorously, feeling the regained innate instinct, and said gratefully again: "Boss, in retrospect, I did not refuse your invitation at the beginning. It is really one of the best choices I have ever made in my life. If I don't have a boss, I'm afraid I won't live to be forty years old in my life, and I will die of depression!"

"What are you talking about!" Yang Jiejiao groaned, and Guo Xun laughed, "I'm telling the truth, my boss really gave me this life!"

Li Yun smiled and said: "Okay, let's drive, let's go to the airport."

Last night Guo Xun roughly told him that the news of the ancient tomb did not come from Zhonghai City, but Guo Xun heard it from a friend.

That friend was in an antiques business. I heard that a group of tomb thieves sneaked into an ancient tomb. When they were about to get it, the corpse sleeping in the mahogany coffin suddenly moved, frightening the tomb robbers and fleeing after dropping their things. .

After returning, three of the five-member gang died, and the remaining two were said to have only one breath. They spread throughout the antique circle for a while, and everyone was amazed.

But whether it is really zongzi, no one can tell.

Therefore, today they are flying to find Guo Xun's friends and ask what is going on.

Parked the car in the airport parking lot, and the four of them came to the airport waiting room. Guo Xun asked Li Yun to sit and he went to take out the booked ticket.

"The ticket is here."

Soon, Guo Xun handed him a ticket. Li Yun took it and saw that Fair City, Jiandong Province, is a relatively backward province in China. It is an important strategic location, and Jiandong Province is no longer important.

If it is not for mineral resources, Jiandong Province is even more backward.

However, Li Yun didn't care about this. He collected the ticket and scanned the waiting room at random, gazing at a girl with a good figure for an extra second.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:
