

Godly Choice 731

Chapter 731: exploded

Yin Zheng's whole person is going crazy.

He used the King Kong Fighting Ghost Talisman, and his strength skyrocketed. He thought that even if he was consummate innate, he could even fight against a master-level master.

Unexpectedly, when Li Yun used King Kong's finger, he would burst him with one finger!

Does King Kong refer to the inherent restraint of King Kong fighting ghost symbols? !

"What, what's going on?"

Qingzhu can't understand it anymore. What is the situation? Isn't Li Yun using martial arts moves?

But how could the martial artist's moves have such a destructive effect on the spell skills? !

"Enter the Tao with martial arts."

Sage Fanqing said these four words in a flat tone, but Qingzhu almost jumped up in shock.

It may seem difficult to enter the Tao with martial arts, but it is actually more difficult than imagined!

For thousands of years, geniuses have been like crucian carp who crossed the river. There are three-year-old martial arts, ten-year-old acquired, fifteen-year-old congenital super genius, and there are also rich accumulations. The legendary figure, and even the 25-year-old grandmaster, disregards the entire martial arts, is respected as the Sword Emperor, established a school, established a sect, and wrote a book.

But among so many geniuses, those who can break through the realm of warriors without relying on the means of practitioners (Hidden Sacred Valley or the Six Demon Gates) and become practitioners alone can be counted by Qingzhu with both hands.

For example, Da Mozu teacher, Zhang Sanfeng, painting sage Wu Daozi, six demon lord, sage king, return traveler, etc.

Entering the Tao with martial arts, breaking through the limits of martial artists, represents that he has a clear understanding of himself and the world. The realm of thought has reached the unity of nature and man, returning to the nature and the supreme realm of Taoism.

"This bastard...no, Li Yun, is a peerless genius who enters the Tao with martial arts?!"

Despite the judgment of Lord Saintess, Qingzhu still can't believe it. Just like Li Yun's big-eyed ghost, who peeks at the bottom of Lord Saintess's skirt and sneaks into other people's sects sneakily, can he enter the way with martial arts? !

"Perhaps." Sage Fanqing is not so sure. She has indeed never seen anyone who enters Taoism with martial arts. The last person who could enter Taoism with martial arts and stepped into the realm of spiritual practice was five hundred years ago. Now he has long retired. It is said that In the pursuit of a higher level, it will not show up easily.

Qingzhu nodded secretly. The Lord Saint probably read it wrong. Li Yun, a villain, has already been exposed to spiritual practice, and he is not simply using martial arts!

"Yin Zheng, do you have any other moves?"

Li Yun smiled slightly, quite satisfied with his strength.

The acquired Great Perfection realm, plus the breakthrough of the innate with all attributes full of 30,000, allows him to gain divine consciousness as soon as he enters the innate realm, plus the bonus of the god-level vajra finger and the god-level nine-sun celestial scripture, which is in line with ordinary practice. Or, he can hit the opponent's face with just one punch!

It just so happened that he could experiment more on Yin Zheng to see how effective his current strength is against practitioners.

"escape!"

Thirty-six tactics are the best tactic, knowing that the Yinzheng that he couldn't beat is very simple, he turned and ran wildly, and his men were also scattered in a rush.

Just kidding, their boss was so awesome just now that Li Yun was stabbed with a finger. These Lie Demon disciples are not fools, of course they want to escape!

"Can you escape?"

Li Yun used his ethereal footwork, caught up with Yin Zheng in a flash, stretched out his hand, and squeezed his whole body.

Yes, it's 'squeezed'!

Yin Zheng almost exploded like a bomb, blood, water-bone brain, pulp, white and red brains all sprayed out, splashing all around his subordinates.

Chapter 732: Dust to dust, dirt to dirt

Fortunately, Li Yun dodged in time and looked at "Yin Zheng" with a dumbfounded look. He had become a pile of broken flesh and bones, and blood shed all over the floor.

"what's the situation?"

Li Yun swears that he definitely didn't use a lot of force, just grabbed his shoulder a little, and the whole person exploded directly!

The body exploded, can you believe it?

"vomit!"

The people around vomited all over the floor, and several guards, as well as the yin-minded men, and the engravers who were watching from afar, all vomited.

This pool of flesh and blood is simply too amazing and too disgusting!

"Forcibly using the power of the ghost, but being beaten back, you will be swallowed up by the ghost as it is now."

Sage Fan Qing explained that Li Yun looked at the group of flesh and blood with a bad expression, and saw something squirming inside, seeming to be swallowing the sullen wreckage.

Sweeping away his spiritual thoughts, he felt that there was an evil spirit with a deep resentment, who was constantly devouring all the sinful things, flesh and blood, and soul!

"The dust returns to the dust, the soil returns to the earth, wash away sins, and rebirth in the next life."

Sage Fan Qing said softly, a pair of white and slender hands squeezed the magic, stretched out a finger, a white light shot out, shrouded the sinister flesh and blood, the ground trembled for a while, and soon returned to calm.

All the flesh and blood sank into the ground and disappeared, as if nothing happened.

Everyone was shocked and inexplicably, they didn't know whether to be happy or fearful.

The power of this fairy in the red dress is really shocking!

"Master Saint is kind, and helped him get free."

Qingzhu slapped the flattery of his sage lady, and Li Yun knew that it was indeed the case.

The devouring evil spirit was purified, and the sinister soul was liberated. Although I don't know if I can reincarnate, at least I don't have to suffer.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, kills the fierce demon gate, rewards justice value +2000, experience value +800,000, free attribute points +4000, purple gift bag*3, extra reward: Yiyang punch is upgraded from advanced to Master class."

Li Yun was overjoyed. Yiyang Fist is also a move to deal with practitioners. It is even more professional than Diamond Finger. Yiyang Fist works with the Nine Sun Classics and is afraid of being able to kill directly in the face of Yin Zheng!

Four thousand free attribute points, just added to the physique, so that the physique has reached 40,000 points!

Qingzhu glanced at him. Why is this bad guy so happy?

"Ahem! Everyone!"

Li Yun took a deep breath and solemnly said to Yin Zheng's subordinates and several armed guards: "You have also seen that Yin Zheng used the power of ghosts forcibly, and now he has been bitten by them, and he has received his retribution. If you continue to resist, The end will be the same as him!"

"So, surrender immediately, you can still have a way out!"

Everyone looked at each other, and finally put down their weapons, standing dejectedly, waiting for Li Yun to fall.

"Li Yun!"

At this moment, there was a loud noise outside the door. Li Yun turned his head and looked around and found that Liao Hua had arrived with a group of gunmen and had quietly controlled the entire factory.

"Brother Liao." Li Yun smiled, but Liao Hua rolled his eyes to greet him: "Li Yun, you are always surprised like this every time. Last time you dug 28 ancient tombs, now I came to the factory to do things again, and every time I receive a call from you, I am shocked!"

Qingzhu's eyes widened: "You dug 28 ancient tombs?!"

"No, that's my wife's house... digging up your own wife's house, can it be called digging a tomb?"

Chapter 733: Won't you follow me

Everyone is unclear. Therefore, Li Yun's heart moved, thinking of Princess Yongning's physical condition. Didn't the system suggest that the clue to the Fairy Nine Heavens lies with Saint Fan Qing?

"These two are...?" The soldiers brought by Liao Huarang took down the guards. He turned his head to look at Sage Fanqing, a look of surprise flashed in his eyes.

This is the first time he has seen such a beautiful woman!

"Let me introduce to you."

Li Yun pointed to Liao Hua and said, "His name is Liao Hua. He is the leader of the national emergency response team. He is also in charge of dealing with matters related to the Six Demon Gates."

"What is the emergency?" Qingzhu was confused when he heard it, and glanced at Liao Hua: "Are you from the government?"

"Government? Indeed, but..."

Liao Hua was confused by this name, even the warriors in the arena, now they rarely use this ancient name.

It can be seen that these two beautiful women must come from a very closed family.

"That's just right." Qingzhu said proudly: "You send some people to assist us. Just let the lady come to deal with the six magic gates, so don't make trouble!"

Liao Hua looked weird and glanced at Li Yun.

"Ahem, everyone work hard!" Li Yun looked up at the sky. Qingzhu estimated that he would still do it according to the method recorded in the hidden sacred valley a hundred years ago. At that time, the government was unreliable and could only rely on the hidden sacred valley to deal with the six magic gates.

But now, as soon as the guide | bounces over, the cultivator has to stop cooking.

Of course, the premise is that they can be hit, the cultivator hides, or keeps dodge back and forth, a few guided missiles are probably not able to destroy them, and coverage strikes are needed.

Sage Fanqing did not speak to Liao Hua, but looked at Li Yun: "Aren't you following me?"

Her voice like that that day made Li Yun's heart tremble suddenly.

This sentence is too... ambiguous!

She simply invited Li Yun to go with him. The two of them stood hand in hand to defeat the six magic gates, composing an epic and moving deed, and finally the hero and the heroine cultivated the fruit, got married together, and completed the harmony of life.

But Li Yun knew that the Sage of Fan Qing definitely didn't mean that!

"Of course I will continue to fight the Six Demon Sects, but, I mean..." Li Yun was a little embarrassed. Sage Fan Qing didn't know if it was sincere or deliberate. What she said was simply...too blunt. .

"It's fine if you are there, I don't want to pay attention to the rest."

After speaking, Sage Fan Qing walked to the table, picked up the blood-stained gloomy wood he picked up earlier, and observed it again.

Liao Hua is also very embarrassed. Such unreasonable people are very difficult to deal with. Fortunately, Li Yun has a good relationship with her and can use this to get to know her.

"Li Yun, what are these two people...?"

"Ahem, this blue dress is called Fan Qingzhu, and the red dress is Fan Qingsheng. They come from a sect called Yin Sacred Valley."

Li Yun slightly explained the origin of Xiayin Sacred Valley, but he didn't know much.

But it was enough for Liao Hua. He was surprised to look at Qingzhu immediately: "It turns out that the six magic gates have enemies too! Let me just say, there can be no evil but no justice in the world!"

Li Yun smiled and said bluntly: "Hidden Sacred Valley is not necessarily good."

"What are you talking about?!" Qingzhu was furious and stared at him.

"I'm telling the truth." Li Yun looked a little complicated, "Of course, including me, I am not a good person."

Chivalrous criminals are forbidden by martial arts, and the Hidden Sacred Valley is beyond the outside world, and masters the power that ordinary people can't reach. Will they lower their heads and cooperate with the government?

Chapter 734: Gloomy wood alive

Li Yun knows that he is the same, and sometimes it is inevitable to do things that violate the rules.

It is already a bad behavior to break into someone else's territory without permission later than today.

Of course, it's useless to think so much. Li Yun won't think that he has done something wrong. He still acts in the same way as before.

"Huh, inexplicable."

Qingzhu made a grimace at Li Yun, and also ignored Liao Hua, and ran to her own Lord Saint to serve her.

Just like Master Saint thought, as long as Li Yun is there, Qingzhu feels that there is no need to deal with government officials. That would be too troublesome. Just leave these chores to Li Yun.

Although this villain is very annoying, he can barely be trusted.

"Brother Liao, they are like this."

Li Yun shrugged helplessly, and Liao Hua said in embarrassment, "It's okay. Experts are always independent and special. In other words, are they very powerful? Can they fight against those powerful practitioners?"

"It might work."

"Okay! That way, there is no problem at all!"

Liao Hua raised his eyebrows, patted Li Yun on the shoulder, and signaled that Li Yun had a good relationship with the people of Hidden Sacred Valley. He was going to deal with other affairs. This factory must not be opened again, and subsequent workers' compensation and disposal are still needed. Meeting to discuss.

Li Yun was still thinking about the Nine Heavens Fairy four hundred years ago, so he walked quickly to Fan Qingsheng's side, but he saw the gloomy wood in her hand and was a little surprised.

Why does Saint Fanqing still hold a piece of ordinary wood?

"It's amazing."

Fan Qingsheng said softly, handing him the wood in his hand. When Li Yun took it, his finger touched her little hand. The soft and beautiful skin touch made him feel unusually enjoyable.

The slender hands of this lady of the saint are simply wonderful...cough cough!

"What's amazing?" Li Yun asked with a serious face, and Qingzhu's eyes were rolled again. The perception of these practitioners was terrifyingly sharp!

Li Yun was sure that Sage Fan Qing also felt his sloppy thoughts just now.

But Sage Fanqing still maintained a calm expression, and said, "Look at it with divine mind."

"Fool."

Qingzhu murmured, Master Saint was very patient with Li Yun, and even this kind of nonsense dialogue was willing to explain to him.

Li Yun pretended not to hear, so he swept the piece of wood with his spiritual thoughts, and suddenly hey.

"Evil?"

What was originally plain and gloomy, but now there is a touch of evil, as if it suddenly "lived" and became a ghost that can be a mess!

Li Yun looked through it and found that there was a little blood on it. He immediately understood that this was the blood stained by the injured engraver!

"Yeah." Fan Qingsheng nodded slightly, "I guess it is the wood that has absorbed the spirit of the blood master, so he will be so tired to fall down."

Li Yun was very puzzled: "The gloomy wood engraved with runes will become an evil weapon if it comes into contact with human blood?"

"Never heard of such a thing!" Qingzhu replied on behalf of the lady.

"That is how the matter?"

Regarding Li Yun's question, Fan Qingsheng also couldn't answer. She went around the factory again, and when she came back, she shook her head at Li Yun, saying that she still didn't see any problems.

Li Yun still has an unfinished selection event. The system prompts him that there is still a suspicious place inside the factory, but the only place where Lidakang stores gloomy wood is here. It stands to reason that there is a problem here!

Chapter 735: an examination

Sage Fanqing took the blood-stained gloomy wood and said, "There are some runes in it that I can't understand. Maybe the elders who are proficient in runes can identify them."

"But Master Saint's rune literature is also praised by the elders, saying that it is no less than him!" Qingzhu said from the side.

Li Yun gave a wry smile. It seems that not only he underestimated the Six Demon Sects, but even the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley had also fallen.

But where is the anomaly?

underground?

The top of the plant?

Gloomy Wood?

In the end, Li Yun became fierce, and personally cut a hole in his finger, put a little blood on it and stained it with a carved gloomy piece of wood.

The blood quickly penetrated, and Sage Fan Qing carefully observed, and finally shook his head, and said, "There is no change."

"It's not like this?"

Li Yun felt very miraculous, could this wood only absorb the spirit of ordinary people?

He offered a reward of 50,000 yuan. Under the so-called heavy reward, there must be a brave man. Another engraver stepped up and volunteered to experiment.

But the final result was disappointing, and the gloomy wood remained unchanged.

As if it were accidental, only the first gloomy piece of wood changed, and Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng couldn't understand the mystery at all.

The situation suddenly fell into stagnation, and Liao Hua, who knew the cause and effect, also showed a solemn expression.

Not afraid of the enemy being strong, most afraid of not knowing what the enemy is doing!

"That's right." Li Yun rubbed his chin, thought of one thing, and looked at Saint Fanqing and asked: "The place where the saint you said evil before is the whole factory?"

Sage Fanqing nodded.

"Could it be that the entire plant has problems?"

"It doesn't seem to be."

Fan Qingsheng pointed to the pile of gloomy woods that had been carved together, "Here, I feel very bad, not evil, but the impression is very bad!"

She used a very affirmative sentence, which is rare.

Li Yun frowned and looked at the pile of wood. A total of more than two hundred gloomy woods that had been carved with runes were built up one by one to form two black-brown mountains.

Wait, pile up like a mountain?

A flash of lightning flashed in Li Yun's mind, and he suddenly became excited: "I thought about it!"

"Huh? What did you think of?"

The little maid Qingzhu was thinking hard, and when she heard Li Yun's words, she immediately looked at him expectantly.

But I saw Li Yun fly out, kicking the two gloomy woods away!

"Ah! What are you doing!?" Qingzhu glared at him with bulging cheeks, Li Yun smiled, and asked Fanqing Shengdao: "My Lord Saint, do you think there is something evil now?"

"Yes!" Fan Qingsheng nodded affirmatively, automatically ignoring Li Yun's address to her as a saint.

With another kick, Li Yun kicked the gloomy wood even more. More than two hundred pieces of wood were scattered on the ground in a radius of ten meters.

"now what?"

".....A little."

Li Yun nodded, took a wooden stick, swept it out, the wood was flying, everyone evaded quickly, they already knew there was a problem with the wood, so naturally they didn't dare to touch them again.

In the end, more than two hundred pieces of wood were scattered in the 700-square-meter factory building, far apart from each other.

"What about now? Do you still feel evil?"

Li Yun smiled and looked over, Fan Qingsheng slowly closed his eyes, and his mental power carefully checked in the factory.

She was born in a special way. She was born with keen intuition, and she has unparalleled insight into evil energy, malice, resentment, and ghosts. This physique is called a holy body by the people of the Hidden Sacred Valley, and she is naturally immune to evil infringements.

Chapter 736: Charm resonance

For this reason, Fan Qing Sheng was designated as the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley from birth, which was unbelievable in the past.

"there is none left."

In Li Yun's expectant eyes, Sage Fan Qing opened his eyes and replied affirmatively.

The whole plant feels that she has returned to calmness, no different from the things outside.

The little maid Qingzhu was surprised: "Bad Li Yun, how did you discover this?"

Li Yun looked interested and smiled: "Didn't I say it before? The gloomy wood piled up in the imperial court villa complex formed an injustice when they gathered together, and took possession of the people around me. I was thinking, Does this thing have the power of resonance? Only when you get together can you make a difference!"

"The power of resonance? Runes also have resonance?"

Qingzhu feels that her three views have been refreshed. She has cultivated for more than ten years since she was a child. She has benefited from following the Lord Saintess. She is also a top practitioner, but this is the first time she has heard of this theory.

Sage Fanqing meditated for a moment, and asked Li Yun, "Can you take these pieces of wood outside?"

"Yes, what do you want to do?"

"Put it in an open place."

"Row!"

Li Yun and Liao Hua said hello, and Liao Hua immediately sent someone to collect the scattered gloomy wood and pile it on the basketball court of the factory.

"I feel evil again."

Sage Fanqing glanced at Li Yun, and his judgment was correct. There was a kind of resonance power on these gloomy woods, which caused them to produce an incredible change.

Then, Fan Qingsheng stood on the basketball court with a serious expression, took out a bell-like magic weapon, and shook it slightly.

"Jingle Bell."

The crisp and sweet bells spread all over the basketball court. Liao Hua and a group of soldiers stared at it. The saint dressed in red, with a holy expression and noble temperament, shook the bell gently, and her black hair followed. The wind is blowing and the picture is beautiful.

After the bell shook three times, an evil spirit that was almost invisible to the naked eye emerged from the wood, but soon, before the Sage Fan Qing could do anything, the evil spirit completely dissipated between the heaven and the earth.

"Ding, the host made a choice, searched the inside of the factory, and found suspicious places, rewarded experience value +500,000, all attributes +1000, purple gift bag*1, extra bonus skill: Hide and Seek (Elementary)."

Li Yun breathed a sigh of relief, at least tonight is over.

It's already two o'clock in the middle of the night, so let's talk about it tomorrow.

Li Yun told this idea to Sage Fanqing. She had no objection, so Li Yun and Liao Hua said goodbye and drove the master and servant back to the hotel.

On the way, Li Yun asked her something.

"Fairy Nine Heavens?" Little Maid Qingzhu yawned and said, "Master Saint is Fairy Nine Heavens."

The people from the rivers and lakes gave her the nickname Jiu Tian Xuan Nv, Xuan Nv is also a fairy, so there is nothing wrong with her.

"No." Li Yun smiled slightly, watching the car and letting the car drive on the roads of Zhonghai City in the middle of the night, and said: "I'm talking about four hundred years ago, I went to the imperial palace and built it. The nine-day fairy of the ancient tomb of the stars!"

Fan Qingsheng leaned on the soft seat of the car, with a small bag of gloomy wood at her feet, and a drawing copied for the engraver. She was staring at the city of Zhonghai at night, hearing the words, and looking at Li Yun. At a glance, he said in a leisurely tone: "I am twenty-three years old this year."

"Uh....."

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, this kind of straightforward way of reporting his age was really special and very holy.

Chapter 737: News from Nine Heavens Fairy

"It's not that I don't believe you, but there really was a nine-day fairy who appeared in the palace at the time in 400 years!"

Li Yun briefly said about Princess Yongning.

In exchange for anyone else, such as Concubine Wan Qing, Li Yun would never say this!

Because why the Jiutian Fairy built that ancient tomb, why did she deliberately maintain the vitality of Princess Yongning, let her sleep for four hundred years, and created a large-scale illusion to test the people who entered, and so on, everything seems very suspicious.

Sage Fanqing gave Li Yun a very special feeling. She was taciturn, but with keen intuition, and she could always point out the key points of things.

Although he spent only a short day with her, Li Yun believed her inexplicably.

"Twenty-eight sun and moon tombs? Princess Yongning?"

Sage Fanqing lowered his head and thought, his voice changed slightly, and said, "I know this formation."

"Oh?"

Li Yun was surprised at once, and as expected, the system prompt couldn't be wrong. Sage Fan Qing really knew about the Nine Heavens Fairy!

Four hundred years is a long time for ordinary people, but for practitioners and the hidden sacred valley that cannot escape from the world, Li Yun estimated that he would retreat several times. There must be people living in the hidden sacred valley and the six demon gates for a long time. Four hundred years!

"My master told me." Fan Qingsheng took a deep look at Li Yun. "She said, if I encounter a woman who walks out of the ancient tomb in the future, I should pay more attention to her. If she is not dead, take her back to the Hidden Sacred Valley."

Hearing such a strange thing, Qingzhu's sleepiness was wiped out.

Four hundred years ago, did the former saintly lady anticipate what is happening today? Foresee the appearance of Li Yun?

Li Yun calmly asked, "Any more news?"

Sage Fanqing shook his head, "No, she mentioned it to me when she was a child. Now that the master is in retreat, there is no one to see."

Retreat, which means that we can't see her yet!

Li Yun secretly said that it was a pity, but he was not ready to meet the so-called Nine Heavens Fairy. This person must be more mysterious. She asked Princess Yongning's father to build a magnificent tomb of the 28th Sun and Moon, just for the sake of Help Yongning? No other exchange?

Perhaps, Fairy Jiutian left more things, such as another ancient tomb, and some formations and buildings.

"I'll help you see the princess?" Fan Qingsheng asked directly.

"Thanks, Lord Saintess."

Li Yun did not refuse. It is a good thing that Yongning's body can recover quickly.

Fan Qingsheng was silent for a while, and said softly: "You can call me Qingsheng."

Li Yun was stunned. This sentence was very literal, but the translation was: just call me a sage, you don't need to call me a saint.

Qingzhu's small mouth opened into an O shape. Why did Master Saint let the villain Li Yun call her such an intimate name?

Could it be that.....

"Okay." Li Yun smiled slightly, "My Lord Saint is actually pretty good, so I'll take turns calling, I hope you don't mind."

"Well, it doesn't matter."

Having said that, Van Qingsheng turned his gaze out of the car window again and looked at Zhonghai City at 2 o'clock in the morning. Although there are almost no pedestrians, it is still brightly lit. It is limited to the prosperous international metropolis, and it is a bit more hidden than the fairyland-like sacred valley. not bad.

Rows of high-rise buildings are endless, the roads with street lights on both sides, and the flickering lights slowly flying in the sky, that is the light of planes passing by.

Perhaps, it's time for change.

She thought of it silently in her heart.

Chapter 738: Fairies can't use it (Part 1)

Back at the previous hotel, Li Yun sent them back to the room and helped her open the door of the hotel room. Just as he was about to leave, Sage Fan Qing stopped him: "Li Yun."

"Huh? Something else?"

"I want to wash my body, then lie down and rest."

"what!?"

Li Yun looked at her in horror, did the Lord Saint want him to serve him in a bath?

Glancing at her quickly, Fan Qingsheng definitely has the 175 model figure that all women admire. Although he was blocked by the thick skirt, when he was standing in the three-story pavilion, he was blown by the evening breeze. Close to her, that graceful, beautiful, tall and slender body really made Li Yun feel hearted.

Not to mention that Fan Qingsheng is not only good in figure, her facial features, her temperament, the desire to conquer brought by her strength and identity, etc., are all top-notch!

"Master Saint!!"

Qingzhu blushed and screamed. At the same time, he glared at Li Yun, as if he was a big bad wolf and wanted to eat the Lord Saint in one bite!

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Comply with the requirements of the Holy Spirit, reward the Holy Spirit degree +0.2, free attribute points +500, blue gift bag*1, a modern knowledge science book (limited to the Holy Spirit).

Option 2: Turn your head and go, reward skill: Steel Straight Man Deluxe Upgraded Edition.

Option 3: Laugh. Laugh, touch the cheek of the Holy Spirit, reward the Holy Spirit of Fanqing -20, and the evil value +666, but the host has a chance to get 99 points of Favor of the Holy Spirit, and get a super reward .

Note: This selection restricts the host to make a choice before the next sentence of the Sanctuary. "

A black line appeared on Li Yun's forehead.

The cheating system also added a time limit, and also tempted him to stroke Fan Qingsheng's cheek?

The cheating system is cheating. Who the **** does this!

"it is good."

No matter what, Li Yun agreed first, even if Fan Qingsheng wanted to take a mandarin duck bath with him, the little maid next to him would never allow it.

"Ding, the host makes a choice, rewards the Fan Qing Sheng's favorability degree +0.2, free attribute points +500, blue gift bag*1, and a modern knowledge science book (limited to the Fan Qing Sheng).

Favorability, 79.5.

Sage Fanqing glanced at Li Yun, as if he could see the evil thoughts in his heart, and calmly said, "I mean, there is no firewood, no water can be burned, and no servants can bring hot water."

"I understand!" Li Yun patted his head, laughing and crying: "You mean you can't use a water heater?"

"Um."

Sage Fanqing nodded reservedly.

She knows from books and mobile phones that there are water heaters in modern times, but she has never seen or used them, and her little maid, Qingzhu, has never used it.

"Didn't you come out to experience it last time?"

"Last time I only came out for ten days." Qingzhu mumbled: "And we are going to be a guest, and the host has prepared a bathtub for us."

"...Okay, it's okay, I'll teach you all."

Li Yun showed a funny expression. He is no stranger to such things. After all, Princess Yongning doesn't understand anything, but Caixia taught her how to use the water heater.

Taking the two into the bathroom, Li Yun began to teach them.

"This is called a faucet, which is equivalent to a switch, which can be flipped left and right, or turned on by induction... Remember to be lighter and don't twist it.

"This is a shower. Twisting it to the left is hot water, and to the right is cold water. The temperature can be adjusted."

Chapter 739: Fairies can't use it (below)

Sage Fanqing took note one by one, keeping a calm expression on his face, not in a hurry.

The little maid, Qingzhu, flushed with shame, especially when Li Yun said that she could take a shower under the shower, she always felt that she was standing in front of Li Yun naked and was extremely ashamed.

"This is a bathtub." Li Yun smiled slightly: "You can take a bath, which is similar to an ancient bath tub, but the touch is smoother and more comfortable."

"Hmph, hum, what's so great!"

The little maid tried her best to conceal her shyness, and blushed and said, "In the Hidden Sacred Valley, the lady of my family has a special hot spring pool made of jade. It is hot water at a suitable temperature all year round, so it doesn't need to be so troublesome!"

"A hot spring made of jade?!"

Li Yun vomited blood for three liters. This Nima is too outrageous. It's no wonder that Saint Fanqing said that he bought a house in Zhonghai City and dare to believe that she has a mine at home, no, there is jade!

After teaching them all the functions of the bathroom, Li Yun briefly introduced the hotel rooms, including door cards, light switches, water heaters, kitchenettes, washing machines, dryers, and so on.

It is estimated that the two of them will not be able to cook. Li Yun told them that he would ask the front desk of the hotel to deliver meals to them in the morning, afternoon and evening. Although the hotel does not have this service, the money is not a problem.

"Is it all?" Li Yun asked them.

Sage Fanqing nodded slightly, reached out his hand to remove the hairpin from his head, and his black hair fell down, which was so beautiful.

"Holy, Master Saint?!" The little maid looked at her in horror.

"Qingzhu, I want to wash my body."

Sage Fanqing opened his hands and signaled Qingzhu to serve her wide|clothes untie. With that, Li Yun blushed, and under Qingzhu's anger, he hurriedly turned his back and walked out of the room.

What a shame!

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. Does the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley know the difference between men and women?

"My Lord Saint is really."

The little maid did not untie her belt first, but moved a single sofa with great force and blocked the door of the room. Although she knew how to lock, she was always worried about these modern mechanisms and doubted them. There will be problems.

"How can it be like this in front of a man." The little maid Qingzhu took off the pale red underskirt for the lady of the saint, revealing the white petticoat inside.

Although he didn't really reveal all his posture, the slender and graceful arms of Saint Fan Qing, his exquisite figure, and the snow-white skin were enough to shock anyone.

A sense of shock that comes from the appreciation of beauty.

At least the little maid was slightly fascinated by her own saint, and a blush appeared on her small face.

The Lord Saint is a flawless existence.

"He likes me."

Sage Fanqing said indifferently.

"Of course." Qingzhu continued to serve her, taking off her clothes, and said: "My saint is so beautiful, of course the stinky men like...ah? My saint, what do you mean?"

Qingzhu looked at her in surprise.

"Li Yun helped us, I am very grateful to him." Fan Qingsheng thought a little bit, "If he stays, I might agree..."

"No way, no way, no way!"

Qingzhu hurriedly interrupted her: "Holy lady, how can your noble body be used to repay such a small kindness? Don't say this again in the future, and don't think about it, otherwise the grandmother will definitely do it. angry!"

After a moment of silence, Sage Fanqing said, "Perhaps, it's because I don't mind him."

Qingzhu was dumbfounded.

What does the Lord Saint mean?

Chapter 740: Red Date Chicken Soup

Li Yun originally wanted to open a room in the hotel where the Saint Fanqing stayed, but he received a text message from Gong Qingyu, and as a last resort, he had to drive to her house.

The car quickly came to the side of the Huangjiang River, drove into the French rent boundary, and came to the No. 3 mansion.

Li Yun did not play the horn, but the sound of the car had already alarmed the doorman. When he saw that it was Li Yun, he immediately came out and opened the classic iron gate, respectfully made a please gesture, and said, "Mr. Li, Miss. Still waiting for you, please come in!"

Li Yun was very surprised, Gong Qingyu was still waiting for her?

He hurriedly started the car and entered the door, only to drive far away when he heard a cheer of surprise.

"Li Yun!"

A beautiful young girl with classical temperament wearing a white dress with long black hair like a waterfall, she was rushing with her skirt and threw herself into the arms of the person who opened the car door to greet her.

"Li Yun!! You are finally here!"

"Qingyu."

Li Yun hugged her tender body, the softness in her heart was touched, Gong Qingyu, this girl who had a 100% affection for him, entrusted with such fierce and strong feelings, made Li Yun feel that he was sorry for her more and more.

When you come to Zhonghai City, you should actually come to see Qingyu and Lianyi, but Li Yun considered that he might go out many times, and on the other hand, he was worried that he might be involved here, so he wanted to stay in a hotel.

"Qingyu, let me make up your husband!"

Li Yun didn't speak much, he directly held the charming cheeks of the classical beauty, and printed a kiss on her bright red double fringe.

Gong Qingyu let out a cry, her heart beating so fast, she felt a strong sense of happiness in her heart, and only felt that the waiting tonight was worth it.

for a long time.

Li Yun just let go of her, let Gong Qingyu lean on his shoulder, and looked up at the other beauty standing at the door, shyly looking at him.

This beauty is wearing an emerald green dress, with a beautiful figure hidden in it, with a demure and graceful temperament, as gentle as a lady.

"Lian Yi, you haven't slept either?"

Li Yun hugged Gong Qingyu's slender waist and led her to the living room. At the same time, he hugged Gong Lianyi's soft waist.

The gesture of hugging left and right made the surrounding maids dumbfounded.

"Yes, not yet."

Gong Lianyi was shy and hard to bear, and Li Yun always felt so shy when he did these things to her in the public.

Fortunately, there are trustworthy servants in the mansion, and they will not spread these things out.

"Huh~"

Gong Qingyu pinched Li Yun's waist and pulled Aunt Lian's small hand, and the two women walked into the living room side by side.

Li Yun smiled, did not stay in the living room for a long time, but followed them up to the third floor of the mansion.

"This....."

The maids were stunned. Although they had guessed that Li Yun would take the two golden flowers from the palace, they were shocked to see the young lady and grandmother take him to the third floor.

Only Gong Lianyi and Gong Qingyu live on the third floor of the mansion, which is the private secret place of the two of them. Ordinary guests are very important if they can be invited to the second floor, and the third floor..

Plus, it's the evening. Could it be that they will be with Uncle Li Yun tonight...

"Tomorrow morning I will talk to the kitchen and prepare some red date chicken soup for body replenishment at noon."

A servant in his fifties said in the tone of someone who came by, and several people around him agreed.

Miss and grandma, especially Grandpa Li Yun, will be very tired if he has to deal with them tonight. It's not good not to drink red jujube chicken soup.

Soon, the lights on the first floor went out, but the room on the third floor was still on.
