Chapter 153: The Terrifying Magic Power of Peak Master Rank

Above the white clouds.

The elegant woman quietly observed the massacre below, where Doomsday Warriors and Elemental Assassins were slaughtering.

After a moment, she finally moved.

With a gentle wave of a broom with long bristles in her hand, the thick clouds were instantly torn apart by an invisible force!

A vast and overwhelming aura surged out like the sea!

She took a step forward, stepping out of the clouds, her black robe fluttering.

Her toes lightly touched the air, and the void immediately rippled in clear waves.

Strange magical energy gathered beneath her feet, turning into blooming white flowers.

The ripples spread, and the air instantly froze, as if even the floating dust had been frozen, remaining suspended in midair.

The world, it seemed, changed with every movement she made.

Her black robe danced with the wind, making her appear as a flawless, holy nun.

Her clear eyes shone with a penetrating light that seemed to see through souls.

A vast and powerful mental pressure descended, like an invisible giant hammer striking deep into everyone's soul!

In that instant, all Doomsday Warriors and Elemental Assassins were struck by an intangible mental attack.

Many Hero Rank Doomsday Warriors spat out blood on the spot, their spirits weakening. Dephans, Sochiby, and others were also affected by this indiscriminate mental shockwave, vomiting blood.

They looked up in horror at the woman floating in midair.

"Peak Master Rank!"

They screamed in their hearts, feeling utterly small, as if facing a mountain.

The attack just now was magical energy!

It was another level beyond mortal life and abilities!

An incomprehensible power!

Behind the woman, several graceful figures followed her.

Each of them was a Master Rank!

Each one was incredibly beautiful, with a pure and otherworldly temperament, like elves from the forest or divine attendants from mythology.

And these were the members of Skypeak Tower!

Not only a semi-dominant force but also a purely female organization.

Their selection criteria were extremely strict, requiring not only outstanding looks but also exceptional talent and extraordinary potential.

As a result, Skypeak Tower had accumulated an unimaginable foundation!

"Will you retreat, or will you not?"

The woman's ethereal voice echoed in everyone's soul.

The terror of Peak Master Rank lies here.

They can communicate with the elements of the world, probe souls, and with a thought, command weapons to take the enemy's life from miles away!

She lightly tapped the void with her toes once more.

Countless green leaves began to move without wind, soaring into the sky.

Each leaf's edge was surrounded by a cold light formed from killing intent.

The Master Rank Doomsday Warriors immediately locked onto her as their target.

The Master Rank Elemental Assassins hidden in the void also adjusted their positions, with murderous intent emerging.

This allowed Dephans, Sochiby, and the others to finally catch their breath, desperately trying to escape the battlefield.

Overthunder stared at the Peak Master Rank woman with his ever-cold expression.

From the very beginning, he had known there was a Peak Master Rank expert hiding nearby!

The Chaos Warhammer appeared in his hand, and the third eye on his forehead began to shine brighter, emitting destructive energy fluctuations that made the air around him hum under the pressure.

"Any citizen of the Empire who dares to defy the Emperor's will shall die!"

Overthunder issued his final warning.

Boom!

In an instant,

The green leaves, glowing with brilliance, shot through the air like arrows, emitting sharp whistles as they covered the Imperial warriors.

Up close, each green leaf was wrapped in a layer of condensed energy, slicing through the air at high speed, forming white shockwaves at their surfaces.

A chilling murderous intent instantly filled the entire space.

Dephans, Sochiby, and others, under the blanket of omnipresent killing intent, felt their bodies turn cold.

At the same time, the Mountain Shieldbearer's eyes exploded with steady golden light!

The primary purpose of sending them here was to withstand the Peak Master Rank's attacks!

They stepped forward.

Rows of heavily armored warriors holding giant shields stood in the air, like an impassable wall.

From within the mountains, streams of pale golden air began to rise, as if summoned.

These were gold and earth energy, hidden deep within the earth, now gathered into heavy golden shields in the hands of the Mountain Shieldbearers.

"Thousand-Layer Holy Light Barrier!"

The thousand-layered holy light shield instantly unfolded, and the dark sky seemed to be illuminated by this golden light.

Boom—

Boom boom boom—

The green leaf storm, infused with the Peak Master Rank's killing power, slammed violently against the golden shields.

The golden light continuously shattered and dissipated, but the green leaves seemed endless, charging forward relentlessly.

The outermost golden shield was completely shattered, and then they crashed into the thousand-layer holy light shield.

The ripples on the holy light shield surged violently, with one layer after another breaking apart rapidly.

In a moment, nearly two hundred layers had been shattered!

The power of a single Peak Master Rank strike was terrifying!

To put it into perspective, a normal Master Rank expert's full-strength attack would rarely break through even dozens of shields at once.

But a single strike from Peak Master Rank had destroyed nearly two hundred layers!

However,

It was still blocked.

"This is impossible!"

Dephans, Sochiby, and others were horrified.

They looked in disbelief at the holy light shield, still glowing with golden light.

The killing will contained in the green leaves just now, they had felt it clearly and knew the destructive power within.

The gap between Peak Master Rank and Master Rank was not just a level difference; it was a complete transcendence of power essence, life level, and mental realm.

Peak Master Rank harnessed magical energy that surpassed mortal life, able to command more primal elemental forces.

The energy core within them had fully transformed into a higher-level magical energy, a qualitative leap.

And yet, these seemingly ordinary Mountain Shieldbearers had managed to block the attack!

It was beyond belief.

"Incredible defense!"

Surprise appeared on the faces of the ten or so graceful figures behind the elegant woman.

That was an attack from a Peak Master Rank lv1 expert, using magical energy to control the elements of the world, a blow that could easily kill a Master Rank lv9 peak expert.

Yet, these golden-armored warriors, who hadn't even reached Master Rank, managed to block it together.

A trace of barely noticeable surprise flashed in Maria's calm eyes.

But she did not stop.

In the blink of an eye,

She raised her long-bristled broom once again, and a pure beam of light rapidly formed in front of her.

With her other hand, she elegantly gestured, as if weaving the threads of fate.

Then, she lightly pushed toward the Mountain Shieldbearers.

The beam of light instantly transformed into countless condensed killing beams, like divine punishment from the gods of light, and teleported to strike the thousand-layer holy light shield.

Boom!

Boom boom—!

—Crack!

This attack was even more powerful than the last.

With a single strike, it shattered more than three hundred layers of the holy light shield!
