Chapter 245: Two Hundred Thousand Stellar Rank Cataclysm

The Sacred Coffin opened, and light radiated!

A white-haired young man stepped out, a divine halo formed of laws floating behind him. He stood in the air, and the entire world seemed to become an extension of his will!

"It's His Holiness Pope Ronyx!"

"The Holy Light has not forsaken its followers!"

The desperate followers looked up at the supreme figure, cheering so loudly that their voices shook the heavens.

The ancient forbidden existence that had slumbered for tens of thousands of years had awakened, and in that moment, all the shadows in the hearts of the followers were dispelled.

The current Pope, Karon, knelt on one knee, reverently greeting the arrival of Pope Ronyx.

Pope Ronyx's gaze had already pierced through the barrier, locking onto the hundred thousand Stellar rank imperial soldiers in the distance.

Nine Cardinals of the Holy Temple followed the Pope out of the barrier.

The void once again rippled.

Twelve figures, shrouded in a mysterious aura, broke through space, all of them at the Sage rank!

Among them, the fluctuations of law surrounding some were even at the level of Divine Envoy!

"Even the sealed Divine Envoys have awakened!"

"It's time to show these arrogant fools the true power of the gods!"

The followers and knights were in tears, gripping their sword hilts tightly, watching these towering figures that bore the glory of the Holy See.

More than twenty supreme auras stepped out of the barrier, like moving mountains, advancing toward the enemy army.

Thousands of Stellar rank knights followed, and where their swords pointed, the space itself began to tremble!

"Indeed..."

Gersent, observing from a distance, took a deep breath.

What he saw confirmed his worst fears—the Ordon Theocracy's strength far exceeded anyone's imagination!

Forget about the fact that among the twenty-plus Sage rank figures, there were several Divine Envoys. Just the existence of Pope Ronyx alone was enough to shake the entire continent's power structure!

This ancient existence, who had once fought alongside the War God Sazin, had long transcended the limits of mortal comprehension.

"Hundred thousand Stellar rank... truly impressive."

Pope Ronyx's voice was ethereal, and his overwhelming will descended upon the imperial army, forcing the laws of the world to press down upon them.

"But it's still far from enough to destroy the Ordon Theocracy."

"Retreat, or die?"

The cold declaration was like a divine command, unquestionable.

Tina's lips curled into a sharp arc.

Her Moonlight Twin Swords drew elegant trajectories through the air.

"The Eternal Starlight will bear witness to whose bold words will be laughed at!"

"In the name of Moonlight!"

Tina's shout tore through the sky.

Her twin swords cut two intersecting silver streaks through the void.

The hundred thousand Stellar rank soldiers responded, and in the next moment, the entire sky above Ordon Holy Mountain was engulfed in a thunderstorm.

Tens of thousands of Doomsday Warriors simultaneously chanted ancient incantations, summoning the Thunderous Judgment.

The heavens above were torn asunder, and a boiling sea of thunder poured down.

Tens of thousands of destructive lightning columns pierced through the heavens, targeting Pope Ronyx and his twenty-plus Sage rank followers.

Pope Ronyx's white hair flew wildly in the storm, and the divine patterns above his head formed a massive magical array, forcibly resisting the barrage of lightning.

At the same time, he transformed into a streak of light and plunged into the army. Where the holy light passed, space shattered in layers!

"Sword Domain activate!"

Tina's twin swords crossed and struck, and her domain immediately engulfed Pope Ronyx.

Meanwhile, the Life Cantor and others had broken through the thunderstorm's blockade and led several hundred Stellar rank knights toward the army.

"Using our sacred grace to summon the Cataclysm!"

A Sage rank follower laughed maniacally, invoking the Sage rank Cataclysm, and immediately charged toward the imperial legion.

The other Stellar rank knights who had not yet overcome the cataclysm followed suit, and a Stellar rank Calamity surged toward the army like a tidal wave.

"Too terrifying!"

"Let these invaders taste the wrath of the heavens!"

The Ordon Theocracy followers watching the battle cheered with joy.

What had once been feared as a cataclysm was now the most reliable weapon!

However, the Void Warlocks had long constructed a teleportation network, and tens of thousands of Doomsday Warriors had already teleported away before the calamity could descend.

As the followers and knights attempted to chase, countless Spatial Fractures appeared in the void!

The immense spatial gravity immediately dragged large numbers of Stellar rank knights into the void!

Only Sage rank figures could barely break free, while many Stellar rank knights were crushed into dust by the relentless flow of sand.

The wailing cries echoed across the Holy Mountain, and the cheers of the Ordon followers abruptly ceased.

At this moment, Pope Ronyx had already broken through the domain's restraint. With a flick of his finger, he shattered vast portions of the void.

Having reached Divine Envoy level 4, his strength far surpassed that of Lars, who had never undergone the divine tribulation.

Four Divine Envoy-level Cardinals fought alongside him, and every strike they made resulted in groups of Stellar rank imperial soldiers perishing.

Tina, using Void Swordsmanship, flickered and leaped through space, her destructive sword energy slashing from impossible angles.

Pope Ronyx blocked several strikes, a greedy look appearing in his eyes.

If he could master these spatial laws, he would step into the realm of the gods!

"Severing Annihilation!"

The Life Cantor ordered, and four Cardinals moved in four directions to strike the army.

The remaining Sage rank figures and several hundred Stellar rank knights followed, and the battlefield was immediately plunged into chaos.

Karon's back was surrounded by several Sage rank Divine Aspects, and his strength rivaled that of a Divine Envoy, fighting against hundreds of Stellar rank soldiers without losing ground!

The Ordon followers watching the battle held their breath.

If not for the four Cardinals and Pope Ronyx, the situation would have collapsed long ago.

Suddenly,

The entire Ordon Holy Mountain trembled violently!

Around the battlefield, countless spatial whirlpools appeared out of nowhere!

Well-organized legions stepped out, stepping through the void.

"More... more Stellar rank soldiers!?"

"This is impossible! How many armies does Aurek have!?"

"We're finished..."

When the Ordon followers saw the new reinforcement of one hundred thousand soldiers, their mental defenses completely crumbled.

Karon's offensive froze for an instant, and even Pope Ronyx's expression changed dramatically.

"We're here to help."

Harry and Lucy tore through the void and arrived on the battlefield.

Two hundred thousand Stellar rank soldiers raised their weapons simultaneously.

In the next moment, the world lost its color!

Over two hundred thousand destructive energy flows merged into a torrent, striking out.

There was no need for precise targeting.

The Ordon Theocracy's Stellar rank knights had no proper defense and were scattered like dust!

Over twenty Sage rank figures were either dead or severely wounded, and four Cardinals were heavily injured.

"Withdraw to the divine formation!"

Karon retreated with his broken body, his eyes filled with undeniable fear!

A combined assault from two hundred thousand people made even the Cardinals pale. The four Divine Envoy rank Cardinals dared not resist, let alone him!

Facing this transformation caused by sheer numbers, no one would be foolish enough to take it head-on.

Harry's nine Demon Slayer Daggers unleashed anti-magic concealment, Lucy's Silent Sacred Codex formed absolute defense, and Tina's Moonlight Twin Swords flickered unpredictably in the void!

With the three powerful figures joining forces, Pope Ronyx finally felt a life-threatening danger!

"Since it's come to this..."

Pope Ronyx took out the Holy See's sacred artifact—the Book of Radiant Light!

From the divine light erupted four massive ancient magical beasts, each a hundred meters tall, charging toward the army.

This was the highest sacred artifact of the Ordon Theocracy, and under the Divine Envoy rank's activation, it emitted an overwhelming aura that struck fear into the heart.

"Blasphemers of the Light! None of you will escape!"

"Even if you run to the ends of the world, you will never escape the Light Goddess's domain!"

Pope Ronyx's white hair fluttered, and the divine brilliance shone intensely, even sending Tina coughing blood from the force.

Just then,

Joanna and Benjamin tore through space and arrived!

"The gods above!"

Benjamin gasped, quickly realizing the situation and retreated thousands of miles.

Joanna's eyes flashed with shock.

"Two hundred thousand Stellar rank strong... are you kidding me!?"

Lucio, Philip, Gonsh, and other powerful figures from the Eastern Domain arrived and were all deeply stunned by the sight before them!

"What is this power!? How is this possible!?"
