Chapter 289: The Reckless Giants

"Stellar rank! Sage rank! Divine Envoy... God Fire!"

"Where did these guys come from? Where exactly are they from?!"

"How can there be so many of them? What kind of methods does Aurek have?!"

"Damn it! Damn it..."

Eureka's usually calm expression instantly twisted, as he watched the shadow clan surrounded from all sides. His expression became filled with madness.

He had investigated again and again.

But Aurek's army seemed to have appeared out of nowhere—more and more, and increasingly terrifying. It was completely impossible to fathom!

First, there were hundreds of thousands of Stellar rank, then tens of thousands of Sage rank, and now tens of thousands of God Fire rank...

Could there possibly be tens of thousands of Divine Cleric rank next?

"This is impossible!"

Douglas roared in his heart as he looked at the tens of thousands of God Fire rank warriors forming an encirclement. His heart sank.

No matter how hard he tried, he never could have imagined so many God Fire rank warriors hiding here.

What kind of force is the Crossbridge Empire?!

"Everyone, open the portal at all costs!"

He screamed hysterically.

There was no retreat now. They could only go all-in.

A team of sixteen near-Divine Cleric rank warriors was formed, led by two shadow clan Divine Cleric figures, as they fought desperately to repel the titans blocking their way.

Six guardians showed concern.

"You all hold them off! I'll take care of them!"

A cold voice rang in their ears as the god of slaughter, Suvorov, stepped out of the void.

He crossed the space in one step and directly blocked the two shadow clan Divine Clerics.

With his long, dark hair flying wildly, he exuded an aura of intense killing intent, his face set in a cold, resolute expression.

He reached out, and a dark red divine seal spread across his palm, eventually solidifying into a massive two-handed sword—Slayer!

The sword radiated a fierce killing intent, surrounded by a heavy aura of death.

Suvorov swung the sword.

He cleaved a long spatial tear in the canyon's void, separating the two shadow clan Divine Clerics from the sixteen near-Divine Clerics.

Then, with a single step, he crossed the rift and charged toward these eighteen warriors.

"Kill!"

The two shadow clan Divine Clerics were filled with murderous intent.

If they couldn't open the portal today, all of the shadow clan's schemes over the past tens of thousands of years would be ridiculed!

This was an unbearable humiliation!

For the last shred of their race's dignity, they unleashed their full strength and fought fiercely against Suvorov.

On the other side, sixty thousand God Fire rank titans quickly surrounded over eight hundred shadow clan God Fire rank warriors.

One titan after another transformed into hundred-meter-tall giants!

They charged forward with incredible speed.

Star-crushing giant fists!

Tens of thousands of giants struck out with their fists simultaneously.

Boom—!

The sky above trembled violently.

The powerful shockwave made the onlookers shudder, quickly using their power to resist, all of them staring at the battlefield in shock.

The battle ring, stretching for tens of thousands of kilometers, collapsed under the force of the Star-crushing giant fists.

Even the chaotic void currents began to surge!

Over eight hundred shadow clan God Fire rank warriors were instantly slaughtered.

The black magical mist churned, and the abyssal magic wheels of the God Fire rank were shredded by the void currents.

The excruciating pain of their souls made the black mist scream with unbearable anguish.

The space shattered and expanded outward for millions of kilometers, as if the entire sky had been torn apart.

Waves of destruction surged outward, pushing Eureka, Joanna, and others back in haste.

"These are monsters!"

Joanna gasped, her heart trembling.

Just one punch!

And it shattered the heavens!

The pure power these giants possessed was simply terrifying.

And this was only God Fire rank—if it were Divine Cleric rank...

Wouldn't that be enough to destroy the Eura continent, or even the outer cosmos?!

Chiusen and Dorothy were completely stunned.

The prey—it was not just a boast!

"Seems pretty strong, huh!"

Dorothy took a swig of rum, trying to calm her shaken nerves.

Roosevelt, the guardian of the Anglian Empire, watched all this and couldn't help but let out a long sigh.

"Across the entire Eura continent, who can match this empire?"

The Anglian Empire had stood for countless ages, accumulating great strength, but he knew that against the full force of these sixty thousand giants' punches, few would survive.

Watching this, he finally understood what true power meant!

Outside the canyon,

Over ten thousand titans had also wiped out all the shadow clan forces, including Daoier Ross.

To Dorothy, Chiusen, and the other powerful figures, it looked like life was being harvested in a rush!

A longstanding threat to the Eura continent was crushed just like that, without any meaningful resistance.

Boom—!

The shadow clan warriors of God Fire rank and below were cleared away.

The sixty thousand God Fire rank titans turned to lock onto the shadow clan Divine Cleric rank warriors, who were still engaged in battle with the six guardians.

While God Fire rank seemed like ants in front of Divine Clerics, easily wiped out with a wave of the hand, the titans' battle spirit was incredibly intense!

Their eyes, as big as lanterns, were filled with fanaticism, and they couldn't hold back their fists, hammering wildly at the shadow clan Divine Clerics!

One punch from each titan—sixty thousand punches!

Even the six canyon guardians watched in disbelief.

Though these attacks couldn't cause fatal damage to the Divine Cleric rank figures, they were effective in holding them back!

This allowed the guardians to free their hands to launch more powerful attacks.

The six shadow clan Divine Clerics were enraged, launching a series of powerful attacks and magical symbols at the titans.

One titan after another was blasted apart.

Even so, it didn't extinguish their raging battle spirit.

Instead, it made them even wilder!

Rage of Titan erupted!

At the same time, titan battle skills were unleashed.

Their power seals shone brightly, further amplifying their raw physical strength.

Each fist slammed into the six shadow clan Divine Clerics.

Under the guardians' restraint, the six shadow clan Divine Clerics were actually sent tumbling backward from this furious joint attack.

"These big guys are simply...!"

Many powerful figures gasped in astonishment.

Their bodies were shattered, yet they still dared to directly clash with Divine Clerics?!

And they even managed to knock the Divine Clerics back!

This fierce display completely shattered their understanding of power.

When Catherine arrived at the Godfall Canyon, she witnessed this scene and was equally stunned.

"I must remind Empress Elizabeth to reassess Aurek's threat!"

These giant warriors were far too powerful.

Remember, Divine Cleric rank could easily obliterate God Fire rank—this was a gap no quantity could make up.

Yet they still dared to strike at Divine Clerics!

Even in the face of massive casualties, they kept charging forward!

"Unless a god realm powerhouse descends, no one can deal with Aurek!"

"We can't delay any longer. Who knows where Aurek got these giants? If he has Divine Cleric rank warriors, or even stronger warriors, it will be a huge problem!"

Joanna muttered to herself.

She hadn't seen Aurek as a threat before, but now everything had changed.

Aurek's methods were a complete mystery!

Dorothy and Chiusen were both focused on Suvorov.

He stood alone, effortlessly facing two Divine Clerics and sixteen near-Divine Clerics.

Roosevelt and Mac were also paying close attention to this battle.
