

Gods Daily 347

Chapter 347: Guardian of the Divine Gate

With her mind made up, Natasha didn't hesitate any longer.

Even if she touched upon a taboo, the entire Crossbridge Empire stood as her backing.

She trusted the king's extraordinary power!

Cyriel and the True God entity flew toward the Gold Giant Gate.

"Master, you cannot touch this Gold Giant Gate!"

Blood Lion Reo urgently warned as they prepared to act on the giant gate.

"There's a Divine Gate Guardian protecting it, and it can't even be opened!"

Natasha ignored the warning and focused intently on the gate.

"Go back!"

A cold voice echoed from the center of the light on the gate.

An overwhelming force surged forward, creating massive waves of magical energy that reached hundreds of meters high.

The giant ancient trees in the mountains were blown and rattled by the hurricane.

Cyriel and the True God entity did not stop.

Cyriel, covered by shimmering ice-like arrow runes, and the True God entity, whose holy light grew brighter, both resisted the terrifying sound waves and pressure.

Cyriel drew her bow and aimed at the glowing light on the giant gate.

Flashes of divine light fell from the Gold Giant Gate, constantly gathering.

An ancient script floated down, merging with the light, transforming into a towering human-shaped figure of light that stood before the gate.

Where it stood, order was disrupted and chaos prevailed.

This was the Divine Gate Guardian that Blood Lion Reo had spoken of!

Its eyes, burning like stars, locked onto Cyriel and the True God entity, firing two beams of unparalleled destruction at them.

"Leave immediately!"

The Guardian coldly commanded.

With a single step, the void shattered, shaking the entire small world!

The surrounding divine peaks crumbled, turning into flying rubble.

The very essence of the world's origin began to collapse, as though the entire world would crumble.

Zach was struck with horror at the sheer power.

Had he come alone, he would have been unable to survive.

Cyriel fired an arrow.

The icy arrow shot forth with incredible speed.

The Divine Gate Guardian waved its hand, and a mysterious rune fell from the Gold Giant Gate, transforming into a light sword infused with unparalleled killing power.

It effortlessly intercepted the freezing arrow.

After blocking the attack, it pointed a finger, and a mystical light ball formed at its fingertip, radiating with divine energy.

At the same time, the space around Cyriel began to collapse, compressing toward her.

Several Void Warlocks immediately cast a reversal of space, forcing the collapsing space to revert to its original state.

Hmm?

The Divine Gate Guardian let out a low grunt of surprise.

The rune-formed light ball expanded, growing into a massive sphere.

Runes spiraled along its surface, and the murderous power emanating from it made Cyriel's eyes narrow.

The Guardian's power was at the Quasi-God King level, and the use of the ancient divine script from the Gold Giant Gate made it even stronger.

Cyriel attracted most of the Divine Gate Guardian's attention, and the True God entity immediately drew the Doomspear, stabbing it toward the Guardian!

The Chaotic Artifact unleashed a streak of destructive dark light, piercing through hundreds of thousands of miles from the opposite side of the mountains to strike the Divine Gate Guardian.

With True God 8th level backing the Chaotic Artifact, it was nearly impossible to withstand the strike below the God King level!

"A Chaotic Artifact!"

The Guardian's tone shifted, now filled with caution.

It swiftly retreated to the Gold Giant Gate, its hands quickly forming seals to summon countless destructive electric arcs to counter the Doomspear.

Though the Divine Gate Guardian was Quasi-God King level, Cyriel's arrows were extremely strange and dangerous.

Though she was only True God 1st level, the power behind her arrows was immense, forcing the Guardian to take it seriously.

Moreover, with the added power of the True God 8th level entity wielding the Chaotic Artifact, they had the potential to break the Guardian completely.

Cyriel shot a Holy Shield Arrow to block the light sphere's attack and then launched a series of Shatter Arrows.

The arrows merged into the void, swiftly piercing toward the Divine Gate Guardian.

The Divine Gate Guardian leapt into the air, intending to retreat back to the Gold Giant Gate.

The True God entity pursued closely, holding the Doomspear.

The power of the True God 8th level enhanced the weapon's might.

With a single stab, half of the small world's space was immediately shattered.

Even the space around the Gold Giant Gate began to collapse.

Boom!

Boom, boom—!

Each collision caused the small world to tremble.

The purple sun in the sky wobbled as if it were about to fall.

The torrent of magical energy was shattered, and the already unstable subplane collapsed and broke apart.

The Elemental Assassins quickly retreated, forming a protective circle around Natasha.

Zach and Blood Lion Reo were both filled with terror.

If this continued, the world would be destroyed, and they would all be buried in the rubble.

However, Cyriel's arrows carried multiple elemental attributes, and they traveled through space, killing unexpectedly.

The Divine Hunter skill was fully activated, merging the killing power of the arrows with divine bodily attacks, continuously shooting at the Divine Gate Guardian.

Taking advantage of the situation, the True God entity thrust the Doomspear, pinning the Guardian's light body to the Gold Giant Gate!

Just as the divine runes began to fall off the Guardian's body, Cyriel's freezing arrows struck again, completely encasing the Divine Gate Guardian in ice.

"Foolish! The Gold Giant Gate is not something you can covet!"

"You will regret this!"

The Divine Gate Guardian struggled in the ice, issuing cold threats and warnings.

Boom!

Boom, boom!

Three successive arrows infused with God-slaying power shot toward the Guardian!

The ice shattered, and the powerful God-slaying power relentlessly destroyed the essence of the Guardian's spirit.

The chaotic power of the Doomspear also eroded its existence.

In the end, the Guardian, along with the divine runes, was completely destroyed.

Only an ancient divine script remained, drifting back toward the Gold Giant Gate.

Cyriel soared toward the Gold Giant Gate.

Natasha, steadying herself, flew after her.

The immense divine pressure emanating from the Gold Giant Gate made Natasha feel immense discomfort.

She hadn't even reached Divine Cleric level yet, and could hardly withstand such a terrifying divine metal's oppressive aura.

Thankfully, Cyriel intervened, allowing her to approach.

With the Divine Gate Guardian dead, the giant gate was now theirs for the taking!

Of course, that was if they had the capability to open it!

Blood Lion Reo and Zach snapped out of their shock and attempted to move forward, but were stopped midway by a Void Warlock.

A terrifying aura enveloped them, and they dared not move any closer.

Natasha gazed at the giant gate.

The ancient divine runes had not yet been activated. If they were all activated, the pressure would likely be unimaginable.

She also wondered why the Giant Elephant Demon Race had appeared here.

Why had they all perished?

Why was such a precious giant gate guarded by only one being?

Natasha didn't want to waste time pondering these unanswered questions.

Her curiosity and anticipation about what lay behind the giant gate overshadowed all else.

She retrieved the golden Seal of Authority.

As soon as the seal touched the Gold Giant Gate, it suddenly burst with dazzling golden divine light, hovering in the center of the gate.

Mysterious runes flew out from the gate.

The ancient divine script fell once more, forming a perfect groove in the center of the gate.

The golden seal fit precisely into it!