

Gods Daily 358

Chapter 358: The Madness of Numbers

Such an incredibly powerful army appearing in a lower realm!

This is utterly absurd!

Fett's mind power pierced through the storm, probing the void to uncover what hidden tricks lay within.

However, his mind power was blocked by an invisible barrier, and even the probing attempts of Barris and the others were cut off.

"Shall we strike now?"

Barris asked with a furrowed brow.

"No, they will reveal themselves," Fett sneered.

With eight million soldiers advancing, they would inevitably force any hidden enemies to reveal their position.

"Crossbridge Empire's forces are not enough to concern me."

Ganseng recalled Wesley's earlier warning, and said in a deep voice,

"Only the presence of True Gods and the Chaotic Artifact... these are what we must be cautious about."

"Indeed,"

The others nodded in silence.

After experiencing the terrifying combat power of the Crossbridge army firsthand, Wesley, Lenon, and the other demon generals were filled with dread.

Their powerful mind powers frantically scanned the distance, trying to pierce through the chaotic energy currents to reveal the true identity of the enemy employing strange techniques.

"Counterattack! Fire the arrows!"

One demon general seized the opportunity to give the order.

The four-winged Demon archers immediately began to retaliate.

Arrows charged with magical crystal energy tore through the void, radiating a destructive force, covering the direction from which the storm came.

Several God General-level experts acted first, transforming into streaks of light and unleashing columns of destructive light filled with world laws and magical runes to strike at the storm, scattering it.

The massive rain of arrows from the Dawonru Empire followed closely, shattering large swaths of the void.

The four-winged Demon legion and Darkness Demon legion seized the opportunity to launch a fierce assault, attempting to break through the mid-line defenses of the Fallen Gorge and charge into the interior of the Crossbridge Empire.

The main force of the Empire, the four-winged Demon legion, was well-trained, well-equipped, and highly coordinated, unlike any ragtag army.

In just moments, their powerful integration and coordination abilities were fully demonstrated!

"All troops, attack!"

Seeing that the enemy's main force had fully entered the pre-established battlefield of the gorge, Suggwoth no longer hid his presence.

He took a single step into the void, and his overwhelming killing intent expanded like a blood-red domain.

The several God Generals at the front of the Dawonru Empire army, as well as enemies within a radius of several dozen miles, were all locked on!

The chilling killing intent caused the hearts of several God Generals to race.

Mind power immediately locked onto Suggwoth.

"This aura is powerful!"

"Finally, he shows himself!"

The few God Generals of the Dawonru Empire did not feel fear but instead were filled with joy.

What they feared most was the enemy hiding and never revealing itself, leaving the army without a target.

The unknown is always the most terrifying!

"Isn't he out now?"

Fett also chuckled, turning to Barris.

Ganseng's gaze remained solemn as he focused on Suggwoth.

The nearly tangible killing intent emanating from him made even this True God Level 6 powerhouse feel threatened.

Right behind Suggwoth, the Frostbound Warlock legion also stepped out of the void in unison.

"Found these rats!"

"All troops, charge! Let these lower realm natives see what real warriors are like!"

Wesley was ecstatic.

He waved his sword forward, eager to give the order.

However, as soon as his command left his mouth, it was abruptly cut off.

Boom—!!!

With a massive sound that vibrated the void!

More than forty million attribute warriors suddenly appeared simultaneously from all parts of the Fallen Gorge!

A huge military force, capable of suppressing the heavens and earth, instantly enveloped the vast, boundless battlefield!

...

What's happening!?

Looking at the dense army emerging from all directions,

Ganseng, Barris, Fett, and Osinger's mouths uncontrollably twitched, and their hearts sank in shock.

This scene made their scalps tingle and their minds tremble!

Fett's smile froze completely.

His boundless mind power swept through, and all he could detect were armored soldiers!

Moreover, most of them were above the Divine Cleric level!

There were even large numbers of Grand Divine Cleric-level armies among them!

It wasn't tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands, but millions!

As for the Divine Cleric-level soldiers, there were so many it was impossible to count.

The total number could easily be tens of millions!

This left him utterly dumbfounded.

"How could there be so many?!"

"This is already the main force of an empire! How could it appear in a lower realm?"

"How is this possible? Aurek cultivated such an army in just a year and a half?!"

Osinger's eyelids twitched uncontrollably, and even his True God-level brain went temporarily blank.

Weren't there supposed to be only a few hundred thousand troops? What were these?

These words struck Ganseng and the others like a hammer to the chest.

They suddenly remembered the reports from before, and when they compared them to what they saw before their eyes, it seemed even more unbelievable.

Hearing about it was one thing, but seeing it firsthand was an entirely different shock.

"Damn it! This can't be true!!"

Wesley's joy evaporated in an instant.

He stood frozen, staring at the enemies emerging from all directions.

He couldn't understand what was happening before his eyes.

The range covered by his mind power was entirely filled with elite Divine Cleric-level troops.

The battlefield stretched far and wide, and the numbers were undoubtedly in the tens of millions...

How could they possibly fight this?!

What could they fight it with?!!

"Ah—!!"

A scream, more shrill than any before, suddenly pierced the air, breaking the stunned silence.

At the forefront of the Dawonru Empire's army, one God General-level expert was engaged in battle with Suggwoth.

Suggwoth's killing domain completely enveloped the man, and he raised Slayer high.

The powerful sword cleaved the man in half!

Even the divine power within his body was shattered by the violent sword energy!

Suggwoth didn't care about the divine power collapsing—his sword energy mercilessly shredded the divine soul, erasing it entirely!

The God General let out a tragic wail before dying, which silenced the entire battlefield.

Suggwoth charged into the enemy ranks, and any Dawonru Empire soldier caught in his killing domain was swiftly struck down by his sword.

Like cutting grass, they fell in droves.

He absorbed the battlefield's bloodlust and vitality, growing faster with each kill, his combat power skyrocketing.

He could even fight four or five God Generals from the Dawonru Empire alone, pushing them back one after another!

After slaying one God General, two more were knocked flying by his Slayer, blood spilling everywhere.

Not satisfied with how slow the kills were, Suggwoth plunged straight into the heart of the four-winged Demon legion's core formation.

Surrounded by the symbols of death, he swung his sword.

The solid formation was brutally cleaved apart!

Thousands of soldiers were slaughtered within the rampant killing domain.

Not only was his combat power surging, but his rank was also subtly rising with each kill!

"Kill!"

"Kill them all!"

"For the Empire!"

The four-winged Demon legion, Darkness Demon legion, and the three million summoned troops, after a brief moment of fear, were forced into a frenzied charge.

Like cornered beasts, their eyes turned red as they launched an all-out assault.

At that moment...

The Frostbound Warlock legion, in perfect unison, formed hand seals and unleashed the Ice Law.

The chilling force of ice drew from the heavens and earth, ripples forming in the air, turning into visible white frost storms.

The entire legion began chanting a spell, casting the powerful war magic—The Ice Storm!

The terrifying blizzard, like a white reaper, advanced toward the front lines of the eight million Dawonru Empire coalition troops with unstoppable force!

As countless Dawonru Empire soldiers watched in terror, the ice storm swept through, instantly freezing the void.

Mountains, rivers, and forests turned to shimmering ice peaks, and towering ancient trees were instantly frozen into ice sculptures!