Chapter 371: The Frozen Empire—Two Dominions

Outside the defense line...

Suggwoth leaned on his Slayer sword, coldly watching ahead. A tremendous killing intent swept toward him. He knew that the general assault from the Dawonru Empire had begun! This also meant that Stellan had received reinforcements.

With the countless enemy generals and soldiers he had slain on the battlefield, Suggwoth's strength had rapidly risen to the Semi-True God level! Facing all enemy God General-level opponents alone was already well within his grasp.

Moreover, with the power of his army formation, he could even restrain True God-level strong individuals.

Cyriel had also reached the seventh level of True God and could now contend with several True Gods without losing ground.

Only Covenant Deity, due to some unknown restraint, was unable to fully unleash her strength. She could only rely on the Doomspear to fight Stellan to a standstill, even slightly at a disadvantage. This was the biggest variable in the battle.

Thanks to the resources from the Sanctuary and spoils of war, Harry had reached the Semi-High God level. Tina had reached Grand Divine Cleric level, and Overthunder, War Bear, and Golden Armor were all Semi-Grand Divine Cleric-level.

As special hero units, they could rapidly grow with sufficient resources and combat, though they couldn't yet engage in the top-tier battle, they played a massive role in commanding and directing their respective legions.

In addition, the blood lion Reo, Zach, and Paineck could each restrain an enemy God General-level opponent.

However, the enemy had Stellan and reinforcements brought by Sherman. This unexpected variable posed the true threat!

Since Stellan dared to launch the general assault, it meant that at least one of the reinforcements was at the Semi-God King level. When that happened, the Elemental Assassin legion's ability to restrain the enemy would be greatly diminished.

Boom—!

Stellan was the first to tear through space and enter the Secondary Demon Realm!

Dozens of True God-level strong individuals and several tens of God Generals followed closely behind. Their mind power immediately locked onto Suggwoth, Cyriel, Covenant Deity, and the others.

Maurice, Victor, and the governors of the two states also joined the battle.

"More powerful opponents!" Zach's face paled, and a sense of retreat began to stir within him. He felt that the Crossbridge Empire had underestimated the Dawonru Empire's determination and potential.

Without corresponding reinforcements from high-level strong individuals, the war would likely continue for a long time, which was highly disadvantageous for the Crossbridge Empire. The reinforcements from the Dawonru Empire could increase even further...

Painek, too, was filled with worry.

This was just a localized war controlled by the military. If the Dawonru Empire fully mobilized...

"Kill!"

"Drive these lower realm ants back!"

"Protect the Empire's territory!"

With a lock on their targets, the True God-level strong individuals from Dawonru unleashed torrents of devastating law energies toward the defense lines!

The God Generals immediately charged toward the Mountain Shieldbearer formation, hoping to crush them with their rank advantage.

They hoped to create an opening for the three main legions at the rear to break through the defense line.

Maurice, Victor, and the others rushed directly toward Suggwoth!

Suggwoth gripped the hilt of his sword, preparing to draw it and face them.

At that moment...

A terrifying cold current suddenly spread from the void without warning!

Wherever it passed, the space froze, and the very essence of the world seemed to be instantly sealed in ice!

Victor, caught off guard, was struck by the cold current.

In an instant, he turned into a block of ice and fell into complete silence!

This sight made Maurice and the other True God-level strong individuals retreat immediately!

Stellan, with a swift motion, slapped toward the source of the cold current. Divine power transformed into a golden giant palm attempting to disperse the cold flow.

Boom!

The frozen void and the golden giant palm exploded simultaneously.

But the frozen Victor shattered into ice shards along with the explosion!

A Semi-True God-level strong individual was completely obliterated!

This spectacle sent shockwaves through all the strong individuals present!

Zach and Paineck instinctively looked toward Cyriel, but Cyriel turned her head to look behind her.

Stable spatial whirlpools began to open at the rear of the defense line.

Two hundred thousand 15th-level Void Warlocks lined up and emerged.

Four hundred thousand 16th-level Frostbound Warlocks descended, their cold gazes instantly locking onto Stellan, Maurice, and all the military strong individuals.

The four hundred thousand Frostbound Warlocks didn't hesitate and rushed straight into the battlefield.

The legion battle technique, Extreme Cold Seal, activated in unison!

Instantly, countless ice cages materialized out of thin air, directly trapping the several God General-level opponents at the forefront of the battle!

"What is this...?"

"What terrifying ice power!!"

"Wait, are those... are they a God General-level legion?!"

A military True God-level officer trembled, almost unable to speak.

"Retreat..."

"Everyone, retreat—!!"

Stellan's face showed an incredulous expression of horror.

"A God General-level... legion?!"

"A whole legion of God General-level?!"

He clenched his fists, then immediately ordered a retreat.

A God General-level legion?

The Dawonru Empire didn't have that, and it absolutely couldn't come up with one!

"Now you want to retreat?"

The two hundred thousand Void Warlocks simultaneously raised their hands and activated Dimensional Barriers!

The space around Stellan and the other True God and God General-level individuals began to fold and twist violently.

Countless spatial barriers trapped them inside, rendering them immobile!

"Break for me!"

Stellan roared, punching out with violent force, smashing through several layers of spatial barriers.

The other True Gods and God Generals also used their techniques to strike at the cages.

But the Void Warlocks immediately launched a second round of attacks.

Space Devour!

Invisible spatial blades began to ruthlessly slice through the inside of space!

"Ah—!"

Dozens of God General-level strong individuals were instantly torn to blood mist, with only their divine essences left in the cage, crashing violently around.

This was just an appetizer from the Void Warlocks!

The four hundred thousand Frostbound Warlocks were already closing in.

The light from the Extreme Cold Seal enveloped the surviving divine essences and True Gods, and the freezing power began to encase them in ice.

Stellan erupted with powerful magic energy!

A mighty sword cleaved open a spatial rift!

He grabbed several nearby True Gods and forcibly pulled them out of the cages.

Together, they crashed into the rift, escaping to the outside of the Secondary Demon Realm.

Maurice also used all his strength to shatter an ice cage, escaping in a disheveled manner.

Cyriel and Covenant Deity were momentarily stunned at this sight, but they quickly regained their senses and took advantage of the chaos to strike at the military True Gods who hadn't escaped in time.

With a single fatal blow as the ice froze them, they crushed their divine essences under the force of their powerful mind power.

The Frostbound Warlocks didn't pursue the retreating top-tier strong individuals.

They surged into the Sapphire Dominion and the Demonbone Dominion, locking onto the advancing three main legions.

They didn't even need to get close to cast their seals.

"Everfrozen Death Domain!"

"Absolute Zero!"

A series of extreme cold domains, spanning dozens of miles, fell from the sky.

The cold currents of Absolute Zero swept through, freezing everything to stillness.

Immediately afterward, the Void Warlocks launched a remote spatial shock.

Crack!

Crack, crack—!

The entire world, frozen in ice, including the soldiers of Kuylan, Oblivion, and the Destroyers, instantly turned into bloody ice crystal dust, flying in the air.

Countless Dawonru Empire soldiers were annihilated in an instant.

Sherman and the others, overseeing the rear, stood dumbfounded.

"Quick, retreat—!!"

"This is a God General-level legion!?"

"What kind of force are we even fighting?!"

"All forces, retreat! This isn't a war, this is a massacre!"
