

Gods Daily 456

Chapter 456: The True Apocalypse of the World

"Aurek, will you choose to leave the Abyss Demon Realm, or will you bury your entire empire here?"

The Dark Sage Lord gave Aurek two options.

"Just a Sage Lord!" Aurek responded coldly.

"If you dare to block my Empire's military force, then I will slay you!"

Aurek's eyes erupted with a brilliant killing intent, and in an instant, the Golden Sword was drawn.

He took a single step forward and charged directly into the front lines.

The pressure from the Proto-World Relic instantly enveloped all the powerful enemies.

"Kill—!"

James issued the final attack order.

"Kill—!"

Suggwoth let out a deafening roar.

In an instant...

Not only did the Abyss Demon Realm tremble violently, as if it were about to collapse, but even the distant Starry Sea began to tremble as well.

The stars shifted, and a chaotic storm surged inward.

Everywhere was filled with slaughter!

The Snail Sea, Yuli, Holy Kare Mountains...

Everywhere fell into a frenzied battle!

The Sage King-rank members of the Order Legion stepped onto the battlefield only to be hit by a combined strike from the one hundred million God King troops. In an instant, they were obliterated into dust.

The speed was so fast that both sides in the battle were momentarily stunned.

This time, the Crossbridge Empire had gained reinforcements from the Ossuary Court and other newly allied forces, making their numbers in the Sage King-rank more comparable, turning the tide a little.

In the sky above.

As soon as Aurek made a move, the Dark Sage Lord moved in tandem.

However, as Aurek used the Spatial Laws to teleport, he secretly cast Mirror Saint Arrival.

He used a mirror image clone to first draw the Dark Sage Lord's attention.

Meanwhile, his true body arrived directly above the three quasi-Sage Lords, the Sword of Order, and James!

The Thousand Sword Judgement Domain instantly unfolded, enveloping everyone in an instant!

He channeled the full power of the empire's national force into the Thousand Sword Judgement Domain.

Several Divine Oracles were instantly consumed and slain.

Amidst the wailing screams, Divine Oracles and the Sword of Order fell one after another.

The three quasi-Sage Lords were filled with terror, and with James, they desperately activated the Ouros Disc.

The Ouros Disc expanded rapidly, growing millions of meters, then billions of meters!

It seemed as though it was about to break the boundaries of the world!

They tried to quickly break free from the domain, but Aurek was close behind, swinging his sword to intercept!

The sword energy, like a waterfall of heaven and earth, slashed through the laws of order and shattered the sky.

One part of the sword energy struck the Ouros Disc, which intercepted it completely.

Another part struck directly at the three quasi-Sage Lords and James.

With this one sword, James was thrown back, blood spurting from his mouth.

He flew like a rag doll, crashing into the distant void.

The sheer force of the attack made his body and soul tremble!

Had it not been for the Artifact of Authority-level armor he wore, this sword would have shattered him.

This was not the power of a Divine Oracle; it was far too strong!

It was so strong that it was comparable to a Sage Lord in its terrifying might.

This single sword nearly destroyed his authority as the Lord of the Divine Court.

His fear and wariness of Aurek reached its peak.

Quickly, he drew upon the national force of the Council of the Dark Order, and his own aura surged into the quasi-Sage Lord realm, continuing to rise.

The three quasi-Sage Lords, on the other hand, were covered in blood, as if their skin had been peeled away.

The Dark Sage Lord struck and shattered Aurek's mirror image clone.

The Sage Lord's mind power immediately locked onto Aurek, binding all the laws around him and heading straight for him.

Aurek acted first.

He slayed many powerful beings at the Divine Oracle level to reduce the pressure on his empire's army.

Then, he leaped higher into the sky, though he did not leave the Abyss Demon Realm, for he needed to channel the empire's power to fight.

The Dark Sage Lord, the three quasi-Sage Lords, and James surrounded Aurek.

Other powerful figures fought fiercely with the Crossbridge Empire's forces.

The adjudicators and the head of Judicatory Sanctum, Miles, activated the Artifact of Authority, the Soul Reaping Claws and the Heavenly Curtain, joining the battle against the Crossbridge Empire.

At this moment.

Within Judicatory Sanctum, several powerful figures from the Eura Continent, along with Griffith from Ancient Y City, Aurek, and others, suddenly turned on Judicatory Sanctum from behind, causing heavy losses.

The Crossbridge Empire, with nearly two billion peak legions, alongside one hundred million God King-level Soul Warlocks and Void Warlocks, seemed unstoppable.

The enemy's Sage King-rank forces were slaughtered in large numbers, creating a gap in their ranks.

With the combination of these two special forces, Prologue Sage and others were easily able to slay Sage Kings.

It was pure crushing dominance!

Many enemies were hindered by soul attacks and imprisoned by the Spatial Laws.

Prologue Sage and the others killed them as if they were crushing ants!

The Soul Warlocks even controlled some of the Sage Kings with their soul powers.

With mastery over the Spatial Laws, the Void Warlocks were capable of individually crushing Sage Kings and could even battle against Divine Radiants.

"This... this is too terrifying!"

A rough-spoken Divine Radiant was left speechless.

Prologue Sage and the five from Mount Culott, as well as Lord of Sacred Light and others, couldn't help but twitch their lips.

Under the might of this one hundred million-strong special army, the Council of the Dark Order had almost no resistance left.

The Gargoyle tribe was so terrified that they withdrew from the battlefield!

The entire Holy Kare Mountains quickly fell.

...

In the sky above.

Aurek, while in the heat of battle, quickly absorbed the power of the divine pills, and his rank soared to the quasi-Sage Lord level!

With the power of the Crossbridge Empire behind him, his strength reached a whole new level.

The Dark Sage Lord commanded the Ourois Disc.

With the Sage Lord realm's power coupled with the World Relic, he was nearly invincible below the Sage Lord rank!

Streams of Sage Lord laws and the essence of order were injected into the Ourois Disc.

The full power of the Ouroos Disc was unleashed, manifesting the vast Starry Sea.

An endless starry sea world, with laws and order, surged toward Aurek.

There was no escape!

The range of the slaughter was vast and boundless, covering everything.

Aurek poured all his power into the Golden Sword and struck out with the Thousand Sword Judgement Domain, forcing a collision with the vast starry sea.

At the same time, he swung out the Eternal Barrier to block.

With a loud boom, the sky exploded, and the Abyss Demon Realm was plunged into eternal darkness. The order completely collapsed.

The world's barriers were shattered, and endless void storms surged into the Demon Realm.

Countless beings trembled, gripped by despair.

This was the true apocalypse of the world!

The heavens shattered, the source withered, and all things withered.

Down below, Prologue Sage, Lord of Sacred Light, the Judicatory Sanctum adjudicators, Miles, Otto, and all others fighting were stunned by the sight. The fierce battle gradually slowed.

Everyone gazed up at the ultimate confrontation in the sky above.

Miles and the other adjudicators were filled with regret.

The reason they had sided with the Council of the Dark Order was because the Dark Sage Lord had broken through to the Sage Lord realm.

But they never expected...

This young Emperor of Crossbridge could be so monstrously powerful!

He withstood the Dark Sage Lord's might, along with the World Relic, and was not the slightest bit weaker—he was incredibly ferocious.

Moreover...

The entire Crossbridge Empire had been built by him alone in just two or three short years.

When they realized this, Miles, the adjudicators, Otto, and all the Divine Oracles couldn't help but tremble with fear.

They could only describe this kind of potential as unprecedented!

Such potential...

Absolutely qualifies to build a Divine Court-level force.

Judicatory Sanctum had completely chosen the wrong side this time.

This thought made Miles and the others regret so deeply that their insides turned cold.