

Gods Daily 496

Chapter 496: Maintaining Order, Peace Committee

Chaotic Void.

Even with the Olympian Sword to rely on, the two quasi-Sage Masters were repeatedly struck down by Kaos, dying multiple times.

The phantom of the supreme being that had been conjured also dimmed considerably.

This was still under the influence of the God Mountain guardian formation's power.

Without that phantom, it would have already been shattered by Kaos.

Kaos was at least Sage Master rank, and logically, if he used his full power, he should be able to resolve the situation easily.

However, it seemed he was restraining his power, which caused the battle to become a stalemate.

This raised some questions among the distant figures standing in the light.

But if this continued, the two quasi-Sage Masters would inevitably meet their final demise.

"Your Majesty!"

"Eternal Winter Divine Empire is attacking Devers Divine Empire!"

A Divine Oracle supporting Sherana came to report.

Sherana felt confused.

"Why is she attacking Devers Divine Empire instead of dealing with Olympian God Mountain?"

"She's been in the lower realm too long; her mind is slipping?"

Lora was also puzzled.

Right now, Olympian God Mountain was being pressed into the ground by Crossbridge Empire, and if Eternal Winter Divine Empire took advantage of the situation, it would be a huge gain.

But instead, her dear sister had gone to attack Devers Divine Empire?

Was she foolish, or was there something else going on?

However, Sherana chose not to return, continuing to stay within Olympian God Mountain's domain to observe.

At this moment, the vast territories of Red Mountain, Star Blue Sea, Silent Death Dunes, and others on the border of Devers Divine Empire had already been taken over by the billions of soldiers of the Eternal Winter Divine Empire, led by the Extreme Ice Legion.

Sage Lords Evelyn and others, along with many quasi-Sage Lords and Divine Oracles, were heading straight toward Devers Divine Empire's core ruling region—Devers Province.

In the Holy Capital of Devers Divine Empire, Holy Hill.

Looking at the urgent war reports, Kichin's face turned extremely grim as he slammed the reports to the ground.

Based on the brutality and scale of the war, it was clear this was a fight to the death!

"Empress Shirino, what does she think she's doing?!"

Kichin was furious, but also deep in thought.

The wisest choice at this time should have been to finish off Olympian God Mountain, not Devers Divine Empire.

Anyone with a clear mind could see that, so would Empress Shirino not understand this?

This woman had disappeared for hundreds of thousands of years and suddenly returned, first expelling Sherana, and now she was making such an illogical move...

If she didn't have a deeper plan, Kichin couldn't believe it.

At that moment, a messenger entered hurriedly.

"Your Majesty! The Snowbound Kingdom's Imperial Guard of Eternal Winter Divine Empire has mobilized and is heading straight toward Devers Province!"

Kichin's brows furrowed tightly upon hearing this.

The Snowbound Kingdom's Imperial Guard—one of the most powerful legions in Celestial Light God Realm, alongside the God Mountain Imperial Guard and Devers Divine Empire's Creation Legion.

Their soldiers were all at least Sage King rank, representing the core military strength of a kingdom.

Once deployed, it meant a full-scale war for annihilation!

"Damn it, mobilize the Creation Legion immediately!"

"With Olympian God Mountain being occupied by Crossbridge Empire, we don't need to worry about being attacked from both sides."

Kichin decisively ordered, deciding to focus all of Devers Divine Empire's strength to counter the invasion.

"Red Mountain, Star Blue Sea, Silent Death Dunes have all fallen."

"Your Majesty, I believe we need to notify the Peace Committee and ask them to mediate."

A thin figure quietly appeared in the hall.

He had thick eyeliner, a cold gaze, and a squinting expression that gave off a decidedly sinister aura.

This person was the Chief Minister of Devers Divine Empire, Wance!

"Peace Committee?!"

Kichin paused to think at Wance's suggestion.

He was, of course, familiar with the Peace Committee's role.

Wance continued, "Olympian God Mountain has likely already asked the Committee for help."

"As the order-maintaining authority in Celestial Light God Realm, they don't want the God Realm to fall into excessive chaos."

"After all... the Cursed Sword has returned, meaning the situation in the Star Sea has reached a critical point."

"This Crossbridge Empire is truly despicable!"

Kichin let out a cold snort after a long silence.

If it weren't for Crossbridge Empire stirring up such chaos, the situation wouldn't have escalated to this point.

He immediately arranged for an envoy to head to the Peace Committee.

This move was not only to prevent Eternal Winter Divine Empire's relentless attacks but also out of necessity.

He never expected the other side to launch a full-scale surprise attack, and Devers Divine Empire wasn't prepared for it.

Red Mountain, Star Blue Sea, and Silent Death Dunes accounted for almost half of Devers Divine Empire's territories, covering dozens of states, each one as vast as a lower realm.

If Eternal Winter Divine Empire occupied these regions for a long time, reclaiming them would be an immeasurable cost.

If the Peace Committee stepped in, the situation would be very different.

Boom—!

A door emitting soft white light suddenly opened above the sky of Olympian God Realm!

Nine ancient runes representing the Peace Committee floated before the door, slowly rotating.

"That's... the Peace Committee! They've finally decided to intervene!"

A Sage Lord from the Flame Eagle Clan in the Primordial Sacred Land let out a mocking snort.

In the forbidden area of Starlight Colonnade, several ancient Sage Lords turned their attention toward the door.

In Cloud Domain, a towering figure on the Nine Rainbow Bridge also gazed at the door, clearly watching the Committee's movements with great interest.

The hidden experts of Chaotic Realm, the terrifying powerhouses in Sea God Temple, the revered figures of Covenant East Fortress...

Nearly all of the top existences focused their gaze on the nine rotating Committee runes.

Even Empress Shirino and Alvin looked up.

"This meddling stick really is coming out,"

Alvin shook his head and chuckled.

Shirino, however, remained calm and said, "But Crossbridge Empire... won't back down!"

Olympian God Mountain.

Simona returned to Silas's side.

Requesting the Peace Committee's involvement was her suggestion.

She was also the one who formally reported the situation of Crossbridge Empire's city massacres to the Committee.

Silas's eyes were deep and thoughtful.

He was more concerned about the battle in the Chaotic Void!

The Olympian God Mountain territory, equivalent to the size of tens of thousands of lower realms, had already been shattered in battle, with even the void itself breaking apart.

The methods of the Sage Master were truly terrifying, and each strike could completely obliterate a mid-sized world.

If the battlefield hadn't been dragged into the Chaotic Void, the entire Olympian God Realm might have already ceased to exist.

Even now, Starry Chaos was being shattered.

In the Starlight Colonnade area, countless broken stars rained down like a violent storm.

Boom—!

From the Committee's gate, four quasi-Sage Masters stepped out.

They wore identical white guild president robes, with stars embroidered on the chest, and Committee emblems.

Their eyes were deep, as if containing the entire Star Sea, holding boundless truth.

Ignoring everyone else, they turned their gaze toward the battlefield in the void.

After observing for a moment, two of them entered the Chaotic Void, one heading to Crossbridge Empire's base and the other to Eternal Winter Divine Empire.

"We are Peace Committee's peace envoys, maintaining the order of Celestial Light God Realm. You will either stop immediately or move the battlefield outside the God Realm. Do not harm the innocent lives of Celestial Light God Realm."

"If you do not heed our advice..."

"The Committee will have no choice but to intervene."

The two Peace Envoys who entered the void declared.

"Stop! We will stop!"

The two quasi-Sage Masters of Olympian God Mountain immediately responded.

They simply could not continue the battle!