Chapter 499: Declaration of War - If You Want War, Then Let It Be!

In Aurek's next set of plans, the entire Celestial Light God Realm must be conquered! By then, even if he doesn't reach the grand and unparalleled rank of the Supreme Holy Realm, he will undoubtedly reach the peak of the Sage Lord rank and might even touch the threshold of the Supreme Holy Realm!

Moreover, with the vast territories of the Olympian God Mountain to be absorbed, along with the entire Abyss Demon Realm and the continent of Eura, the Crossbridge Empire's power will be magnified a thousandfold.

Even the imperial officials who were enfeoffed through the Royal Grace now possess the strength of Sage King rank!

While Aurek continuously monitors the situation in the Celestial Light God Realm, he is also consolidating his own strength. At the same time, he is considering whether to upgrade the summoned troops. This decision ultimately depends on whether the Peace Committee decides to intervene forcefully. If they dare, Aurek will definitely prepare a gift for them they will never forget!

Celestial Light God Realm.

The tip of the Sword of Golden Light is firmly locked on the four Peace Envoys of the Committee. There is no sign of retreat, and the killing intent is chilling.

If war is to be declared, Aurek could easily send an avatar directly to descend.

"Emperor of Crossbridge Empire, you truly refuse to accept the decision of the Peace Committee and choose to go your own way?" One of the Peace Envoys, a semi-Sage Lord rank, wearing the starry insignia, issued another warning.

The killing intent of the golden sword grew heavier in response!

The Emperor's essence surged forth, madly absorbing the energies of heaven and earth into the sword. A boundless illusory figure began to faintly manifest around him.

"Very well, very well!" Aurek sneered, his voice low and resolute.

"Since you've made your choice, the Peace Committee will officially intervene in this matter."

"Just hope that the Emperor of Crossbridge does not regret it!"

The four Peace Envoys no longer lingered. Their figures transformed into beams of light and retreated into the magnificent gate.

Whoosh—!

In the next moment, the Sword of Golden Light turned into a golden flash and relentlessly stabbed towards the gate!

The nine ancient runes on the gate that tried to block it shattered instantly upon contact with the sword's edge.

The golden sword pierced straight into the gate, its body trembling and humming endlessly!

"Scoundrels!!!" A furious roar echoed from the distance, causing the very heavens to tremble!

"How dare he...!"

An ancient Sage Lord from the Flame Eagle Clan extended his mind power towards the Peace Committee's hidden location deep within the rules of the Celestial Light God Realm.

He widened his eyes, and two blazing flames burst from his pupils as he stood in stunned disbelief.

"Has he gone mad...!" Even the astrologer Alvin was momentarily stunned.

Countless semi-Sage Lords and Sage Lords were left speechless, their eyes wide in shock.

The golden sword wasn't aimed at destroying the gate.

Instead, it remained there, quietly lodged at the entrance to the Committee's residence, neither advancing nor retreating!

This went beyond mere provocation. It was naked contempt and a declaration of war!

It was like sticking a blood-stained weapon right at their doorstep, proclaiming in the most audacious manner:

If war is what you want, then let it be!

"How dare he...?"

Many strong figures from Cloud Domain, Sea God Temple, and Starlight Colonnade were left stunned for a long time.

They couldn't help but feel an intense curiosity and wariness towards the Emperor of Crossbridge Empire. This was not just a matter of power, but an almost reckless, audacious disregard!

This act placed the Peace Committee directly in opposition to the Empire!

Though the Peace Committee rarely reveals its full power, its deep and terrifying foundation is well known to ancient Sage Lords and other mysterious entities standing in the light.

Now, the waters of the Celestial Light God Realm had been completely stirred up.

The only question was, does Crossbridge Empire truly have the strength to bear the colossal storm this would bring?

Olympian God Mountain.

At this moment, Silas felt ecstatic.

He had never been happy with the Peace Committee's judgment. But now that the Crossbridge Empire openly defied it, and the foolish Emperor had even stabbed his sword at the Committee's doorstep, this was effectively drawing the entire Committee—and even the Divine Court behind it—into direct opposition with the Empire.

The fire had been thoroughly ignited!

"Foolish, he will eventually pay the price!" he sneered inwardly.

Deep within the Peace Committee.

Massive figures gazed at the golden sword nailed to the gate, and a cold will spread, causing the surrounding rules and order to freeze as though covered by frost.

"Since they've already delivered the declaration of war to our doorstep..."

"We should give them a response."

The figures reached a unanimous decision quickly.

They not only intended to intervene but would use a thunderous means to show the Crossbridge Empire just how far its defiance would lead them in front of others in the Celestial Light God Realm!

"This kid truly doesn't intend to give the Peace Committee any face, does he?"

"Has he advanced again?"

Kaos thought to himself.

He scanned the direction of Eura.

After a brief moment, his eyes focused on two semi-Sage Masters from Olympian God Mountain. He casually made a fist with his hand, and an ultimate law, almost like a void, shot out.

The two semi-Sage Masters, along with their surrounding world, were instantly dragged into the chaotic void by an irresistible force!

The Olympian Divine Sword seemed to sense the crisis and uncontrollably trembled, slashing toward the chaotic world.

The highest illusory figure, along with the magical defense array of Olympian God Mountain, moved to rescue them.

Crack!

However, the two semi-Sage Masters were trapped in the chaos, completely suppressed by the supreme law.

Kaos casually twisted his wrist.

"Oh no—!"

"How could... ah!!!"

The shrill screams echoed through the chaos!

The two semi-Sage Masters, who had been able to fight back against Kaos previously, were effortlessly crushed and killed in the blink of an eye!

Moreover, Kaos eradicated all traces of their existence!

The rules of the Celestial Light God Realm began to sense this and unleashed a rain of blood across the sky!

The world mourned!

This was a true, complete fall!

"Wait, this aura... it feels so familiar!"

"I feel like I've sensed this somewhere before."

At this moment, the mysterious figures of those standing in the light stiffened, and their mind power searched toward the depths of the chaos, trying to deduce Kaos's true identity.

The aura was overwhelming, ancient, and familiar—it was as if it had reached the Supreme Holy Realm!

No wonder he had been deliberately suppressing his power before, not revealing his true strength.

Alvin's eyes flickered slightly. The crystal ball in his hand shimmered faintly as he silently calculated.

White Lady Shirino asked, "Have you figured anything out?"

Alvin slowly shook his head. "The specific identity is still unclear, but we can glimpse its origins."

"It seems my decision twenty thousand years ago was correct."

At hearing this, Shirino fell silent.

"This is going to completely erase the two semi-Sage Masters!"

"He is erasing all their rule sources and traces of existence!"

"Even within the Sage Lord rank, he is an untouchable taboo existence!"

Looking at the blood rain pouring from the sky, Vivien, Vane, Haibote, Gold Coin Master, the experts from Chaotic Realm, and even Sherana all felt an overwhelming sense of fear.

Semi-Sage Masters are extremely difficult to kill, as they have become partially integrated with the world's rules and order. Even a true Sage Master would need to kill them multiple times to ensure there is no chance of resurrection.

Yet, they had been wiped out so completely, with their very existence eradicated!

How terrifying was this mysterious figure from the Crossbridge Empire?

The Crossbridge Empire had such a powerful figure under its command!

At this moment, all Sage Lords, ancient Sage Lords, and semi-Sage Masters felt a chill run down their spines.

Because with this precedent set, they too could face real, eternal death at any moment!
