

Gods Daily 504

Chapter 504: The Emperor of the Empire Descends into the God Realm

Although the risk of confronting the Committee was enormous, in the Celestial Light God Realm, the Crossbridge Empire, which had the power to destroy Olympian God Mountain, was the most reliable force for Sherana to reclaim her throne.

This risk was worth taking!

Josephine pondered this and secretly discussed it with Elizabeth and the others.

Shirino and Sherana, these two sisters—one had just reached some tacit understanding with the Empire and was about to attack Devers Divine Empire.

The other had immediately come seeking cooperation to reclaim the throne...

What kind of game were these two playing?

White Lady's true purpose was becoming increasingly mysterious and suspicious.

Seeing that Josephine and the others remained unmoved, Sherana continued.

"Currently, Eternal Winter Divine Empire is in fierce battle with Devers Divine Empire."

"If the Empire can withstand the Committee's intervention and help me regain control of the Divine Empire, I am willing to sign a holy alliance with the Empire, and together we will fight the Committee."

"I can temporarily agree to this cooperation on behalf of His Majesty. The details will be submitted for the Holy Judgment by His Majesty."

Josephine responded, "No matter what your calculations are, I will agree for now. This does not represent the final will of Aurek, and there is still room for negotiation later."

In this critical moment, the combat power of Divine Oracles and semi-Sage Lords was indeed needed.

We will use it for now!

Aside from Sherana and her group, another six or seven Divine Oracles came to offer their allegiance.

But more factions were still observing.

If the Committee was just a branch of the Celestial Light God Realm, they might not be as fearful.

But what was truly terrifying was the fact that this was only a branch!

Meanwhile.

The war between Devers Divine Empire and Eternal Winter Divine Empire was growing fiercer, with scenes of earth-shattering destruction unfolding on the frontlines at all times.

Peace Committee.

It was as if the void had been torn apart by an invisible, colossal force, and the rules of order were crumbling piece by piece.

A giant hand, imbued with both divine and destructive energy, extended from deep within the Committee, aiming to strike down the golden sword nailed at the door!

The golden sword trembled violently and erupted with golden sword light, charging fiercely at the giant hand!

Flame Eagle Clan Territory.

Clan Leader Bo Id manifested a divine aspect of a flaming bird that reached a height of a million meters. It soared into the sky, lighting up the vast territory.

Ancient Sage Lords appeared one by one, directing their mind power toward the Committee.

They all understood: the Committee had made its move!

"How will they deal with the true Sage Master from the Crossbridge Empire?"

"At least one Great Sage Lord will need to intervene to counter him, I suspect."

An ancient Sage Lord murmured.

"Isn't Star Sea already on the brink of war? Can the Committee really spare a Great Peace Lord?"

"The situation is dire, and they won't make a full-scale move yet. This is just a warning shot, to kill the chicken to scare the monkeys."

"Forget all that. Just focus on protecting the clan!"

Bo Id's commanding voice cut off the discussions.

Cloud Domain, Summit of Sacred Cloud Mountain.

General Terrence rode a magnificent divine roc, standing at the peak of a bridge that stretched to the edge of the world. His gaze was fixed on the dramatic changes occurring in the direction of the Committee.

"Quickly report to the Sovereign, the Committee is about to take action!"

Terrence commanded solemnly.

A semi-Sage Lord swiftly stepped onto the bridge.

At the far end of the bridge, the figures of three semi-Sage Masters appeared quietly, all already on high alert.

Boom—!!!

The golden sword and the divine giant hand collided with tremendous force, causing the void to collapse in pieces!

But the golden sword remained firmly nailed in the void, its tip pointing straight into the depths of the Committee.

Within the Committee, lines of terrifying divine light ignited one after another, as if endless and infinite.

Each light represented a being at least of Sage Lord rank!

"They've deployed everyone... Looks like they're really trying to kill the chicken to scare the monkeys!"

The forbidden existences and ancient Sage Lords from Chaotic Realm and Starlight Colonnade felt a heavy weight in their hearts.

The number of light beams ignited by the Committee clearly signaled their unwavering resolve.

At the same time!

Aetherian Sanctuary, Supreme Sanctuary.

Aurek's deep eyes seemed to swirl with the power of the Star Sea.

A mirror-like avatar, identical to him, stepped out from his body and descended the twelve layers of the Divine Sanctuary's heavy stairways.

Merolle, Natasha, Sophia, Lucy, Alice, and other imperial consorts and officials walked out from the palace, gazing up at the figure that caused them to tremble with awe.

This was an avatar, the manifestation of the Emperor's will!

As this avatar took a step, the very rules and order of the Eura continent seemed to celebrate and welcome it, manifesting a brilliant light that stretched for millions of meters!

Winston, Heimerdinger, and the billions of people on the Eura continent all felt it, pausing what they were doing to respectfully gaze up at the sky.

"His Majesty is eternal!"

In an instant, the imposing presence and sense of belonging that crossed the world made countless beings bow involuntarily.

The avatar stepped into a path formed by the interweaving of the world's rules.

The next moment, it had descended into the Celestial Light God Realm!

It was as if a supreme God King, coming straight from a mythic epic, was walking through the river of time and space.

The appearance of this imperial avatar directly triggered a resonance and strengthening of the Celestial Light God Realm's primal order, forcibly drawing all the attention that had been focused on the Committee!

Almost every being with the privilege to observe locked their gaze on this avatar!

Dressed in a majestic black and gold robe, with a crown symbolizing supreme authority atop his head.

The man's physique was as mighty as a mountain, his bearing noble like a god descended to the mortal realm.

Every inch of his face was etched with coldness and absolute authority, his eyes carrying the will to overlook all living beings, symbolizing unparalleled nobility, supreme power, and unquestionable imperial authority...

Even the flowing light of the God Realm seemed to complement his divine radiance, making everything else seem dim in comparison.

Chaotic Realm.

The Snake Lady with green pupils gazed with dazed eyes, her body unconsciously swaying.

Nalodebi trembled with his whole body, his face flushed.

In the God Mountain region, Sherana and Lora were lost in awe.

In Sanctified Heart Garden, Vivien's eyes shone with excitement, as if seeing the manifestation of a supreme existence.

Inside the temple, Josephine, Belinda, and others felt immense pride and glory...

Countless women were captivated, and countless men gazed in admiration, their blood surging with the impulse to worship.

Strong figures across all realms were also shaken to their core!

Is this... the legendary Emperor of the Crossbridge Empire—Aurek Veynar?!

The avatar's gaze seemed to pierce through layers of space, looking toward somewhere in the void.

Kaos, who was within it, slightly nodded, and then also stepped out.

Then, a boundary gate spanning across the Celestial Light God Realm and the dimension where the Peace Committee resided stood firm between the two worlds!