

Gods Daily 513

Chapter 513: Sudden Event, Chaos Primordial Giants

Boom!

The ten Sage Lords launched a full-scale attack, and in the blink of an eye, the Godslayer Clan's allied forces were completely defeated.

Miles, fallen!

The leader of the Wayshift Clan, fallen!

The lord of Starfall Wardenhold, fallen!

The Ancient Starwatchers, fallen!

Godslayer Clan's quasi-Sage Lord, fallen!

"Bastards!"

Shadow Blade didn't know whether he was cursing the Crossbridge Empire or venting his anger at Miles and the Ancient Starwatchers, his soul trembling in rage.

He urged the Godslayer Blade to forcefully break through the imprisoning domain, turning into a streak of light as he charged toward the small Wayshift Realm, desperately fleeing toward the Star-realm gate.

He glanced back at the battlefield, his lips trembling slightly.

The Godslayer Clan had fallen into a deadly trap, a place where entry was allowed, but no one could leave— a perilous forbidden zone where once you stepped in, death was certain.

Tens of millions of Sage King rank legions!

He even suspected that he had accidentally trespassed into the domain of a Divine Court.

"Is this the kind of power a Divine Empire-level force should have?"

Shadow Blade's soul was trembling.

Another Sage Lord of the Godslayer Clan, left behind in the small Wayshift Realm, led some of his people to escape through the Star-realm gate.

Before they could speak, Shadow Blade quickly shouted,

"Stop being foolish! Get away from this damned place, now!"

"Ancestor, they..."

The Sage Lord looked toward the small Wayshift Realm's interior.

"Don't wait any longer. If I hadn't escaped quickly, I would have been trapped there too!"

"From now on, our clan must never approach this world again. Leave immediately!"

Shadow Blade urged harshly.

As for them?

At this point, there was no "them" anymore!

...

Boom!

In the Abyss Demon Realm.

Two Godslayer Clan Sage Lords, a Wayshift Clan Sage Lord, and a Starfall Wardenhold Sage Lord were all held back fiercely.

The sharp World Relic Olympian Sword, under the combined efforts of the ten Sage Lords, was even capable of contending with a Sage Master!

They fought their way into the depths of the starry sky, and after several days of intense battle, the four Sage Lords were finally slain by the Olympian Sword.

The blood of the Sage Lords spilled, and several forbidden zones appeared throughout the Demon Realm.

While this might not seem like much to the most powerful beings, for the average strong, stepping into a forbidden zone to collect the blood of the Sage Lords and comprehend the supreme mysteries within was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

The joint forces of both sides, except for Shadow Blade, who had desperately fled with the Godslayer Blade, were completely annihilated!

And it all ended very quickly!

The beings in the Abyss Demon Realm were stunned for a long time before slowly coming to their senses.

"I knew it!"

"When did Otto become so bold? He dares to appear so openly, making such a grand display!"

An ancient Divine Oracle shook his head and laughed.

Otto's daring display was not due to the weakness of the small Wayshift Realm invaders, but because the Crossbridge Empire had too many troops.

Over thirty million Sage King rank legions!

This was not only a blow to perception.

It was a complete redefinition of power!

Aurek, too, was shocked into silence.

This meant that, without the backing of Crossbridge Empire's national power, even an ordinary soldier's strength would now surpass that of him, the founding ancestor.

...

Just as the Crossbridge Empire legions were sweeping through the small Wayshift Realm,

In the Celestial Light God Realm, beyond the Starlight Colonnade, deep in the boundless Star Sea.

Boom... Boom...

The booming echoed through the Star Sea, causing countless worlds to tremble.

The Star Sea seemed to be pushed by some entity, with a chaotic storm sweeping across billions of miles, continuing to churn.

The Star Sea, Starlight Colonnade, and the entire Celestial Light God Realm shook violently.

Five massive giants crushed their way through the chaotic storm!

They were so large.

Each one was billions of meters tall, like primordial giants who had split the heavens and the earth, and this was not a manifestation of divine arts, but their true physical size.

The five were heading straight toward the Celestial Light God Realm!

The ancient Sage Lords in the forbidden zone of the Starlight Colonnade were all alarmed!

The mind power of the Sage Lords reached into the Star Sea, and these ancient Sage Lords seemed to know their origins, their faces filled with horror.

Taboo experts from the Flame Eagle Clan, Sage Lords from Cloudcrown Sanctum, the Office of Light, and many other forbidden beings all cast their gazes.

In the Eternal Winter Divine Empire, Alvin also looked up.

White Lady Shirino's eyes suddenly narrowed.

"Strange, how did they find their way here?"

By the side of the Heavenly Mountain Pillar, the Sea Temple Master and another elegant figure also looked toward the distant Star Sea.

"Primordial Giants..."

The Sea Temple Master knew the origin of these five giants, but confusion appeared on his face.

The Primordial Giants were from a far, far distance from the Celestial Light God Realm, and judging by their posture, their target was clear—they were heading straight here!

Boom...

Crossing the starry river, the five giants lowered their heads into the Celestial Light God Realm's sky, looking down.

Their five pairs of eyes were as large as stars, radiating incomparable divine light.

Their five giant faces nearly occupied the entire starry sky, creating an extremely terrifying sight.

The might of the Primordial Giants' bodies suppressed everything, and even the Sage Lords could feel their unparalleled oppression.

The Primordial Giants were the primordial race of the Star Sea, having lived between the Star Sea and Chaos, not within any world.

They hunted celestial beasts, devoured stars, and slept in the ruins of the Star Sea.

In such a harsh environment, their bodies evolved to be incredibly enormous and have endured until now.

For the beings of the worlds, the Star Sea was a realm of danger and forbidden zones. But for them, it was a paradise.

Able to exist in the chaotic storms, the Primordial Giants could be said to be the favored children of the Star Sea's origin.

They possessed unparalleled strength and an incomparable source of power.

The eyes of the five giants slowly turned, like the eyes of gods, searching for something in the Celestial Light God Realm...

...

The five giant eyes, like divine gazes, swept through the heavens and earth, and finally fixed upon the summit of Olympian Mountain.

The five Primordial Giants stared together, making the beings at the mountain peak tremble in fear.

Their gaze seemed to pierce through all secrets, leaving nothing hidden!

Josephine, Elizabeth, Fiona, Belinda, and many powerful figures from the Crossbridge Empire looked up in confusion.

Boom!

At that moment, the starry sky was shaken.

Stars, like dust, were swept down, falling from the direction of the Starlight Colonnade.

An extreme destructive storm was pushed into the deep corridor, devouring countless beings.

Even the ancient Sage Lords in the Starlight Colonnade's forbidden zone dared not make a sound.

The five Primordial Giants, hidden in the chaos, raised their massive hands.

The giant hands stirred the chaos, causing riots, as five palms swept across the Star Sea, obscuring the sky, and plunged toward the Celestial Light God Realm, heading straight for the God Mountain Royal Court!

The beings below could not help but swallow nervously.

All they could see was an endless palm.

The lines of the palm were even visible, carrying brilliant divine light.

All the powerful beings in the Celestial Light God Realm silently watched this scene, not understanding the intent of these five giants.

"Go back!"

A sudden roar erupted, shattering layers of space.

Ares, wielding a blood-red battle axe, took a step into the void, and the powerful laws of strength instantly shattered the sky above.

"This is Crossbridge's domain! Any offender will die!"

Ares gave a low rumble toward the five giants.

The giants paused briefly, and their five pairs of enormous eyes locked onto him, as if examining him, but it was only for an instant.

Their descending palms then turned into fists and crashed down toward the ground below!