Chapter 517: A Counterattack, Aurek Personally Arrives

"Hehehe... 'Kill without mercy'?"

The Office of Light deliberately added fuel to the fire.

"Crossbridge Empire's ambitions are truly vast. If we don't eradicate you, the Celestial Light God Realm will never know peace!"

"If you want a war, we're ready to go to the end. Let's see if Crossbridge Empire can withstand the wrath of the entire Celestial Light God Realm!"

"Then come and try?"

Before the Office of Light could finish speaking, a cold voice, carrying boundless killing intent, swept toward them.

Suggwoth, wielding the bloody Slayer sword, stepped out of the endless void, appearing beside Harry.

The intense aura of slaughter made all the powerful beings tremble.

Boom!

At that moment, the Peace Envoy of the Sun and the Seven Guardians of Light, along with two other Sage Lords, arrived simultaneously.

The Olympian Sword, thick with the scent of destruction, erupted with unparalleled annihilation energy.

Boild and the experts from Cloudcrown Sanctum were all deeply moved.

"Suggwoth, General!"

Lucio, Philip, Harry, and the others quickly bowed.

Suggwoth pointed his bloodied sword toward the figures inside the shield.

"Crossbridge Empire's soldiers, attack with full force!"

"Anyone who dares to hinder us, kill without mercy!"

"Kill—!"

At that moment, thirty million Sacred Radiance rank legions suddenly appeared from the void, sweeping toward the capital of Devers Divine Empire!

The vast pressure immediately spread across the entire Celestial Light God Realm.

"Sacred Radiance rank?!"

Kichin's eyes suddenly contracted.

He was frozen in place, even forgetting to breathe.

"How... is this possible?!"

The Sovereign of Cloudcrown Sanctum's mind trembled violently!

Many of the faction leaders were stunned and bewildered.

At that moment—

Boom!

From behind them, the Sea God Temple and Eternal Winter Divine Empire's forces suddenly launched a surprise attack!

Bang!

Kichin's head was shattered in a single blow by a high priest from the temple, his soul obliterated!

At the same time, Shirino instantly froze the president of the Star God Merchant Guild, erasing him completely.

A terrifying scream suddenly echoed!

The Sea Temple Master waved his sleeve and struck, completely shattering the massive energy shield from the inside!

The devastating shockwaves caught everyone off guard.

"Sea God Temple! Eternal Winter Divine Empire! What... are you doing?!"

"What's wrong with you, have you gone mad?!"

"Just a few threats from Crossbridge Empire, and you're defecting?! Betraying us?!"

The Office of Light roared in fury.

Boild, General Terrence, and the other powerful beings turned pale and quickly retreated.

Meanwhile, Sherana, Lora, Master Gold Coin, and Nalodebi, along with other affiliated experts from Crossbridge Empire, were also confused, completely unable to comprehend what was happening.

At this moment, Suggwoth led thirty million Sage Kings, crashing into the battlefield like a tidal wave!

The enslaved Office of Peace, the Peace Envoy of the Sun, and a group of ancient Sage Lords also attacked the Sage Lords and ancient Sage Lords from the opposing factions.

"Hahahaha... Looks like we've been counter-schemed!"

In the sky, Lord of the Blazing Eagle let out a bitter laugh, then tore open the void and appeared.

The Sage Lords from Cloudcrown Sanctum followed suit, and the Sage Masters from Primordial Sacred Land and Starlight Colonnade also joined the battle.

Kaos's figure then emerged.

He waved his sleeve, and the world seemed to become cloudy as powerful laws of order manifested, transforming into terrifying attacks that surged toward Lord of the Blazing Eagle and the other six Sage Masters.

In the Sea God Temple, the high priest, also a Sage Master, joined Kaos in assisting with the attacks.

At the same time, the God of Wisdom and the War Executor tore through the void and charged into the battlefield!

The faces of the Lord of the Blazing Eagle and the other Sage Masters changed drastically, never expecting that such a powerful being from Sea God Temple, a transcendent existence in the Star Sea, would side with Crossbridge Empire.

"Fiery Eagle Divine Stone!"

The Lord of the Blazing Eagle realized that their defense was no longer a simple matter of protection but that they had fallen into the enemy's trap.

If they didn't fight with all their might, there would be no way out.

He gave a low shout, and the Flame Eagle Clan's World Relic, the Fiery Eagle Divine Stone, flew out of the lava sea and crashed toward Kaos!

At the same time, the Sage Master from Cloudcrown Sanctum summoned the Holy White Crystal to strike at the high priest from the temple!

The other Sage Masters also joined forces to launch a coordinated assault.

The Office of Light then activated the Peace Mana Stone to strike at Kaos.

The ancient Sage Lords and quasi-Sage Masters from Flame Eagle Clan, Primordial Sacred Land, Cloudcrown Sanctum, the Star God Merchant Guild, and the Three Sacred Temples also realized that the nature of the war had completely changed. They poured all their strength into the battle.

The entire Celestial Light God Realm, caught off guard, plunged into full-scale war!

Endless god realm beings were helpless, only watching as the order was shattered.

The sky, earth, and starry space all shattered into dust.

The battle within Devers Divine Empire's territory became intensely fierce.

Crossbridge Empire's tens of millions of Divine Radiant troops and a large number of Divine Oracles, quasi-Sage Lords, Sage Lords, ancient Sage Lords, and quasi-Sage Masters were engaged in a fierce melee.

The dazzling divine radiance from the World Relics cut across the sky, and even Primordial Sacred Land, Cloudcrown Sanctum, and the outer worlds could see it clearly.

Cyriel, Overthunder, War Bear, Natasha, Merolle, and others had all arrived at the battlefield of the Celestial Light God Realm.

Clang—!

The golden sword rang loudly, flying out from the royal palace's divine temple!

Josephine and the others looked toward the sound.

The golden divine light pierced through the world, flying out from the void and hovering in the shattered space.

Boom!

A tremendous shockwave exploded, and the world barrier collapsed!

A massive, elliptical world portal, tens of millions of meters tall and hundreds of thousands of meters wide, appeared!

Thunderous rumblings emanated from deep within the portal, drawing the attention of all the powerful beings on the battlefield.

Amid the shock of everyone, an imperial chariot emerged from the portal.

Nine giant dragons, each over hundreds of thousands of meters tall, marched in unison, crushing space as they approached.

Endless golden light poured from the top of the chariot, and colorful clouds and auspicious light swirled around it.

A towering figure stood atop the imperial chariot!

The golden sword rang in response.

Roar—!

The golden dragon of national power, hovering above the royal palace, roared toward the sky, spiraling up, smashing through the space barrier and charging toward the imperial chariot, circling around it.

"Crossbridge Emperor Aurek!"

Lord of the Blazing Eagle and the other Sage Masters, quasi-Sage Masters, and ancient Sage Lords all turned their gaze to the figure wearing a crown and royal robe, embodying imperial authority!

Boild and countless other powerful beings looked on, feeling as if they were suffocated by the immense royal pressure. They could barely move, filled with an overwhelming sense of dread.

A Sage Master!

The Emperor of Crossbridge was actually a Sage Master—!

Everyone's pupils widened in shock!

"Imperial fate, destiny, national power..."

Alvin stood in the depths of chaos, perceiving the flow of time.

The Sea Temple Master and White Lady Shirino also looked toward Aurek.

Aurek's gaze briefly met the Sea Temple Master's.

Then, with a single step, he entered the heavens.

The golden sword fell into his hand.

With a swing of his sleeve, the Thousand Sword Judgment Domain instantly covered the chaos, enveloping all the Sage Masters, including Kaos.

"Not good, retreat quickly!"

The God of Wisdom, the War Executor, and the High Priest all felt a surge of fear.

Even Kaos's eyelids twitched as he looked at Aurek in shock.

After reaching the Sage Lord rank, Aurek had become a real threat to him!

Just as the God of Wisdom was about to take action, Aurek swung a sword.

Within the Thousand Sword Judgment Domain, countless sword realms materialized and immediately covered the Sage Master of Cloudcrown Sanctum!

In an instant, it struck him millions of times, erasing him completely!

The laws of order were obliterated, and continuous killings occurred within the sword realms' chaotic space!
