

Gods Daily 574

Chapter 574: Enemy Attack — The Gold Giant Gate Has Been Breached

The sage lord legion was already enough to make people suffocate.

The moment a Sage Master legion appeared, the entire Star Sea would tremble!

"Divine Court... and the ancient scions of the Chaotic Extreme."

Aurek murmured in a low voice.

He would prepare a proper gift for them.

For now, he did not care about these petty skirmishes.

As long as no Emphyrean Sanctum expert made a move, they could scheme and form alliances however they pleased.

When the time was right, and the Gold Giant Gate opened—

He swore he would make the entire Starry Chaos tremble beneath his feet!

Aurek considered for a moment, then ultimately chose to upgrade the Elemental Assassin authority to level 23.

After its rank increase, the Elemental Assassin was exceptionally suited for surprise assaults in Star Sea warfare and carried tremendous deterrent power.

Now that he had gained even more Emperor Points, combined with what he already had, even if he still could not break through to Emyrean Sanctum, he would have enough power to stand against Emyrean Sanctum experts.

As he continued to comprehend the mysteries of fate, he also kept spending points to upgrade.

After mastering the time attribute, he could alter the flow of time to a certain extent, helping himself consume Emperor Points faster.

...

A primitive world outside the Celestial Light God Realm.

Countless living beings were moving into it one after another. It was connected to the starry corridor, forming a complete world-system and invisibly expanding the Celestial Light God Realm.

Ever since the Crossbridge Empire defeated the various powers and the ancient scions, the Celestial Light God Realm had become a pilgrimage ground for experts from surrounding starfields and innumerable worlds large and small.

Even the gargoyle clan and the Godslayer Clan, who had once held grudges, quietly drew closer.

...

In the starry corridor, within an inconspicuous castle.

Storm Thunder God stood atop a pavilion, gazing in the direction of the Gold Giant Gate.

Suddenly, a violent anomaly erupted outside the Gold Giant Gate!

The world origin gathered frantically, the Sea of Order condensed, and the Threads of Fate intertwined into a multicolored vortex.

At the center of the vortex, an utterly unremarkable drop of blood slowly rose.

Very soon, a crimson lightning arc burst from that drop of blood and slashed upward into the sky, ultimately transforming into a mighty deity!

That deity was wrapped head to toe in lightning, clad in battle armor woven from thunder serpents. The law of destruction condensed into divine eyes, and his entire figure shone like the sun.

A vast aura made him appear incomparably majestic.

Before anyone could even react, he suddenly threw a punch at the Gold Giant Gate!

That lightning—powerful to the absolute extreme—instantly annihilated all the guards defending the Gold Giant Gate!

The pressure radiating from him was so terrifying that even the living beings of the Celestial Light God Realm dropped to their knees as one!

That pressure even crossed the Eastern Starfield and reached the Styx Sector, and spread to even more distant starfields...

Countless beings sensed that horrifying aura.

"Empyrean Sanctum—!"

Alvin, who was studying the Holy Magicstone Star Compass, had his pupils contract sharply.

Across the Empire's territory, countless true Sage Masters and quasi-Empyrean Sanctum experts felt their hearts tremble violently.

The Threads of Fate were in chaos, and the will in their hearts was being suppressed from every direction!

And this was happening despite the vast distance between them!

If they were any closer, the sheer oppressive might would be unimaginable.

Who besides a true Empyrean Sanctum expert could possibly do this?

An Empyrean Sanctum expert... had made a move!

At that moment, everyone looked toward the Eastern Starfield almost simultaneously.

Only that imperial land could trigger such a terrifying upheaval.

"One of the Four Sacred Regions' Thunder Adjudicator."

"If nothing unexpected happened, then the one who came should be the son of the Lord of the Formless—Storm Thunder God!"

In another corner, Dreamweaver and the young man and woman beside him looked up at the sky.

Dreamweaver recognized that figure.

He came from the Primordial Epoch, and he knew the Lord of the Formless, who created the Godblood Scion world. He also knew this sovereign of wind and thunder.

"Is he an Emyrean Sanctum expert too?"

The woman's voice trembled with fear.

If their own ancestor had not also been an Emyrean Sanctum expert, that invincible pressure alone would likely have forced the two of them to kneel on the spot.

Dreamweaver shook his head. "He is not an Emyrean Sanctum expert, but he has used an Emyrean Sanctum divine art of the Lord of the Formless."

"That divine art is enough to let him cross ranks and match a newly advanced Emyrean Sanctum expert. It is an invincible divine art that once swept across the Primordial Epoch—crafted from a single drop of the Lord of the Formless's sacred blood fused with countless resources."

Hearing this, the woman and the young man were deeply shaken.

The Thunder Adjudicator of Storm Thunder God was already this terrifying.

Then just how terrifying must the Lord of the Formless be, if he could forge such an invincible divine art using only one drop of sacred blood?

Boom—!

The Gold Giant Gate took the strike, and the ancient divine patterns on it were activated, erupting with peerless divine light in an attempt to resist the damage.

But the Thunder Adjudicator paid no heed to anything and, seizing the momentum, stepped into the Gold Giant Gate, preparing to break straight into the Sanctuary!

The Twelfold Aetherian Sanctuary shook violently at that instant!

Josephine, Elizabeth, Sophia, and the others all stood atop the Sanctuary, tensely watching the direction of the Gold Giant Gate.

This was the first time anyone had been able to threaten the Divine Sanctuary!

The maidservants of the crystal Moonshine Hall, such as Tracy, also turned to watch.

Just then, a mirror-image avatar suddenly condensed behind the Gold Giant Gate!

Those eyes brimmed with boundless killing intent!

Aurek was truly enraged!

...

Within the Supreme Sanctuary.

The mirror-image avatar locked onto the Thunder Adjudicator who had forced his way into the Divine Sanctuary.

The golden sword rang out with a sharp hum!

Then, with a thrust, it pinned toward the Thunder Adjudicator!

The sword momentum surged to the heavens, and the ultimate power of slaughter condensed into a single beam of light!

The Thunder Adjudicator formed eighteen hand seals in succession. Lightning arcs infused with the might of an Emyrean Sanctum expert blazed brilliantly, suppressing all existence within the First Divine Sanctuary!

The power of an Empyrean Sanctum expert was simply too terrifying, involving suppression at the level of fate itself—completely beyond ordinary divine arts and law-based attacks.

And yet, at that very moment—

The mirror-image avatar stepped forward, carrying an incomparably overbearing imperial aura, and slammed his palm onto the hilt of the golden sword!

Bang! Bang! Bang...!

Eighteen consecutive explosions!

All eighteen violent bolts of lightning were instantly shattered!

The ultimate force of destruction exploded right in front of the Thunder Adjudicator!

"Myriad-Ton Thunderbolt!"

The Thunder Adjudicator was just about to cast a forbidden art to defend himself—

"How dare you!"

Aurek's voice carried the Empire's supreme national might!

The Myriad Judgment Domain instantly condensed tens of millions of cosmic worlds and directly smashed the Thunder Adjudicator out through the Gold Giant Gate!

Boom—!

Outside the Gold Giant Gate, the Thunder Adjudicator was hurled far into the distance.

Steadying himself, he clasped his hands together, his whole body seeming to be plated in a silver-white halo of lightning arcs.

Aurek stepped out through the Gold Giant Gate in a single stride.

"Thunder Silent Extinction!"

The Thunder Adjudicator spread both hands!

Using himself as the origin point, endless destructive lightning spread rapidly toward the Gold Giant Gate, forming an infinite sea of ruinous thunder!

The laws of order and the Threads of Fate were all transformed into killing power!

Strands of ultimate Emyrean Sanctum might were hidden within it!

The moment this strike was unleashed, even the world barrier of the Celestial Light God Realm began to shatter in vast stretches, unable to bear this force at all!

The power of an Emyrean Sanctum expert had already surpassed every form of attack.

"This is bad... the Celestial Light God Realm can't withstand it anymore!"

Experts like Vivien were forced to their knees under the pressure, yet they could still sense that the world was gradually heading toward destruction.

The living beings of the Celestial Light God Realm were filled with despair and helplessness, able only to silently endure that impact descending from the level of fate itself!