Chapter 9

Chapter 9 Fated Mate Meadow's p.o.v. Finished I went back to the buffet three more times , I just needed to taste everything and now I am leaning back in my seat with a cup of coffee in my hand . Taking a sip from my coffee I listen to the conversation around me , most of them are about a test they have to do in a few days and some are talking about an attack on Elder Morton . I don't pay more attention to the conversations than that , I am just wrapped up in my own little bubble .

I do notice that most of the people around me have left the dining room , but I am in no hurry to go anywhere and as long as there is coffee I am staying right here . " Meadow ? " I hear Elder Chelsea asks and I look up at her to see another Elder with her . I saw him walk into the dining room , when I had gotten my second serving and I was told that his name is Elder Josiah . " Nice to know there are also Lycans here , Elder Josiah . " I say as I get out of my seat and I hold my hand out for him to take .

" Chelsea already said you had no trouble identifying what kind of Shifter she was , but she doubts you have had any training . " Elder Josiah says , as he shakes my hand . I had asked Elder Chelsea if I could have my first conversation with just her present and I was relieved when she granted me my request . " Why don't you tell me why you want to join the Renegades ? " Elder Chelsea says , before she leans back in her seat . I know I can't sit down to tell her , so I start pacing the floor . " The answer to that question is what you would call , my life .

I don't have a lot of memories about my Mother , but they are both good and bad memories . Every memory reminds me of the love she had for me , I am always sitting in her lap , listening to whatever it is she says . I can't hear the words , but I see her lips moving . My last memory of my Mother is from the day she left me , it is also the only memory in which I can hear her speak . She told me that I should remember that she loved me , no matter what happened . The bad part of those memories involve my Brother , River .

In almost every memory my Mother has her hand stretched out towards him , but all he does is look at me with anger and hatred in his eyes . " I can feel the tears running down my cheeks , it is the first time that I have cried as I remember those moments . " It took me a while to realize that the only real memory I have of my Father , is from the morning after my Mother left . I am lying in my bed , he opens my bedroom door , a look of hatred on his face and then he slammed the door shut . I don't know how much time passed between that memory and the next , but I doubt it was long .

An unfamiliar woman walked into my room , her eyes red from crying . She was the one constant in my life for the next few years , she would wake me in the morning and feed me before sending me to school . I must have been about nine , when I heard a classmate talking about her Nanny and how they would spent their days I came home from school and asked Francis if she was my Nanny , she told me I could refer to her as my 1/2 12:23 Wed , Jan 14 Chapter 11 aterf Mate Finished Nanny , When I asked her why she never read me a story or help me with my homework , my world was shattered .

" I take a moment to look out the window , before I start pacing again . " Francis was ordered by Alpha Hank to raise me , he refused to take into consideration that she lost her Mate and Pup only six months prior . She told me that she just hated the situation she was in , that I reminded her every day of the things her Pup would never experience and the things she would never experience with her Pup . Two months before I turned fourteen , Francis met her second chance Mate and moved out of the Pack without saying goodbye to me .

Luckily , Hayden knew that Francis had left and he made sure I could move in with him and Brooklyn . It was my home until I left a few days ago . " I say . " Can you tell me about Hayden and Brooklyn ? " Elder Chelsea asks . " I met Brooklyn and her friends when I was twelve , I was at a clearing near school . Twice a week I would sneak down to the training grounds to look at other Pack - members train and twice a week I would head to the clearing to practice everything I saw and what I had learned in school . One day , Brooklyn and her friends showed up and I wanted to make a run for it .

The fact that Brooklyn offered to train me is what stopped me from running , they later brought their Brothers with them . It took me months to finally trust their Brothers and they are the only ones that know about my upbringing . " It still hurts to think about my upbringing and I stop talking for a moment . Elder Chelsea doesn't say a word and I just stare out of the window , not sure if I should continue with my story or not . It doesn't get any better and I am not sure if I am in the mood to explain the one thing that should have been sacred .

However , I don't get the chance to say another word . Rebel is forced to shift , as a searing pain shoots through my neck and the next moment she howls in pain . I am curled up in the back of her mind , consumed by my own pain . I don't remember what happened after that , all I know is that I wake up in the infirmary . Three worried looking Elders at the foot of my bed and I want to crawl into a dark corner , when I hear Elder Chelsea ask , " Who is your fated Mate ? " admin

Chapter 10 Tried To Stop Elder Morton's p.o.v. Finished I have been waiting for this call for years and now that I have gotten it , I am not sure how to feel about it . Alpha Hank has been a thorn in the eyes of the Elders for years , from the moment he took over from his Father he had opposed the Elders in every way he could . From banning the Elder in their territory after an argument to not filing reports on Pack matters , he had done it all and now he was gone .

I get in my car to head down to Gold Moon Pack , I need to let the Pack - members know that the Elders support Alpha Lincoln and any decision he makes for Gold Moon Pack . Halfway through my trip , I get a call from Elder Chelsea . Our newest recruit is on her way and I want to be there for her interview . " I will take the jet on the way back , that way I will be back on time . " I tell her before I disconnect the call . For just a second I think I am hallucinating , but I am not . Four Rogues jump out of the tree line and I manage to evade them , but I know I am not faster in my car .

I come to a full stop at the side of the road and make a run for it , as fast as I can . I skid to a halt , one of the Rogues is right in front of me and a moment later I am surrounded by all four of them . I take a few swings at them , connecting with a face and a ribcage . I stagger back as one of them connects with my stomach and when I hear a door open I pray to the Goddess to keep that person safe . Not that I needed to send the prayer , because all four Rogues are dead in the blink of an eye .

Our eyes lock for a moment and I can see the pain and distrust in her eyes , but she walks into her room before I can say anything . The owner and his Son start cleaning up the mess and I walk back to get my car . I find out that my savior has disappeared and she is traveling in the opposite direction . Maybe we will meet again someday . I am glad when I finally reach Gold Moon Pack and after informing the Pack of the Elders ruling , I walk into the Pack - house . I need to make sure that Lincoln turns this Pack inside out and for him to find every damn secret Alpha Hank hid from the Elders .

None of the Elders can tell an Alpha directly what to do , but we can give them advice and Lincoln is known to follow that advice . Until he thinks it isn't in his best interest anymore , than he will toss that advice out the window . I give Lincoln all the information I can and I can see that he is already processing a few things . His answer to my question on what he plans to do with this territory , is diplomatic as always . I let my eyes pass along everyone present in the room and when they land on Beta Lennox , I know he has a nasty surprise for some people .

" Sorry , Alpha Lincoln , I can't stay for dinner . A new recruit arrived today and I need to be there for her interview . Our jet is already waiting for me , it will get me back in time for some dinner . If you have any questions or any other issues , you know how to reach me . " I say to Alpha Lincoln . " She could tell that Chelsea is a Lynx ." Josiah says the moment I walk into our private living room . " I don't know who trained her , but she is very good . I checked the files from Gold Moon Pack and she is the first to apply for studies with the Renegades .

" 12:23 Wed , Jan 14 Chapter 10 Tried To Stop Finished . I already knew this the day her application came in and I hope she can tell me how she tricked Alpha Hank in signing the document . Josiah tells me that Elder Chelsea is in a private meeting with Meadow , " When she asked Chelsea , I could tell that she has been hurt . I just couldn't tell if it was physical or mental and we decided it was best to grant her request ." A blood curdling scream stops him from continuing and we walk into Elder Chelsea's office . We are faced with a Lycan , with what looks like fur on fire .

Her Lycan howls in pain and in mere seconds other Shifters join her howls . It only lasts a minute or so , than she collapses to the floor in her Human form . Chelsea grabs one of my spare shirts , pulls it over her head and once it is in place Josiah picks her up . We wait outside her room in the infirmary , while Doc is examining her . I already know what happened , but my main question can only be answered by Meadow . " How did she shift " Josiah mumbles , but I doubt I have to explain it to him . " I think the better question would be ; who is her fated Mate ? " Chelsea responds .

" I knew she had her Lycan , she used her claws on those Rogues . I just didn't think it was my place to reveal that secret , I doubt there is anyone that knew she had her Lycan . " I say and I know that Josiah and Chelsea understand my reasoning . " Elder Morton , she will wake up soon . Everything is fine , just make sure that she shifts every day . I would hate to see this forced shift become a problem for her . If you want to talk to her that is fine , but I will be there to monitor her . " Doc says and I know there is nothing I can say to stop him from being there .

It takes half an hour for her to wake up and I decide to bite the bullet , " Who is your fated Mate ? " Chelsea asks and each of us take a seat to listen to the rest of her story . " Rebel showed up over nine weeks ago . I was surprised to hear her and I made the decision to keep it a secret . We used all our private time to talk and during my schooldays she would go through my memories , to say she was pissed is putting it mildly . Six weeks ago we were gathered in front of the Pack - house , our future Gamma was turning eighteen and we were all to witness his shift .

It would also be possible for him to find his fated Mate and his girlfriend , Stella , was telling everyone that he would finally be able to sense that she was his fated Mate . There was only one problem that night , Stella wasn't his fated Mate but he did announce her as his Mate and yes , he didn't use the word fated . I was his fated Mate and he chose to ignore what the Goddess had decided . " She closes her eyes for a moment . " Florence knew immediately that something was wrong and Rebel confided in my friends , I was in no shape to answer any questions .

Hayden made sure that Alpha Hank signed my application the following day , he wanted me to have a back - up plan if Rufus would keep lying . I had to wait six weeks for Stella to turn eighteen and I don't have to tell you what happened that night . Not with Stella and not with Alpha Hank , I left in the early hours that morning and I have no intention of going back . "

She says , finally allowing the tears to escape she tried to stop . ๗ 1 admin
