

Goodnight 1621

Chapter 1621

1621 Big trouble (2)

The event had not started yet, but the atmosphere at the scene had completely gone crazy with najilie's arrival.

The people were looking at the first Prince, whom they had not seen for many years, as if they were enchanted. Even the followers of the second Prince had to admit that the handsome carved face was more impressive than yhars'.

Even though he was sitting in a wheelchair, it didn't stop him from releasing his extraordinary charm.

The more it was like this, the more it made people feel pity.

If that incident had not happened back then, with najilie's style of speech and cultivation today, his supporters would probably have an overwhelming victory.

After all, although the second Prince, yeres, was known as the 'smiling Prince', it was not that everyone could not feel the sense of alienation between him and the people. It was just that there were only two princes in the royal family, and one of them was disabled, while the other was a general picked out from the dwarves!

And all of these undercurrents were transmitted to the royal family through a certain camera.

At that moment, Lei Xiao was sitting opposite to su bu.

"It's been many years since we've met. I hope you've been well, Mr. Ley."

Lei min looked at the other party expressionlessly, distant and cold. The dark suit showed the nobility in his bones, and his attitude did not change because of the other party's noble status.

The LCD screens hanging on the wall were divided into two halves. One half was broadcasting najilie's movements, and the other half was showing eehes. Rou chengsu just looked at it calmly, as if he was facing two strangers.

"Mr. Ray, have you ever fought crickets?"

Rou Cheng Su chuckled as he asked.

His voice behind the camera caused Lei Xiao to suddenly frown.

Comparing his son to a cricket, he watched them fight but maintained a laissez-faire attitude, only waiting for the final 'general' to win. The whole process was played out impeccably, but the reality was cruel.

it is their responsibility to be in their position.

"So, what's your purpose in calling me here?"

Lei Xiao's deep and cold eyes fell on Rou Cheng's face.

"I hope that Mr. Ray and miss Lin can do their best to add fuel to the fire."

Rou chengsu didn't look at Lei Xiao.

.....

The mute uncle's sharp gaze swept back and forth through the crowd. On the other hand, Yuan Kang was much more relaxed. From time to time, he would look at na jilie, who was putting on airs, and pout.

If it was two days ago, who would have thought that this man, who was exuding a domineering aura, was a dying man with deep sunken eyes and a pale face?

Rubbing his chin, Yuan Kang was already regretting that he didn't leave the number of the stylist behind. This was simply a makeover that could be done directly after being reincarnated into a new life!

Look, even na jilie's uncle would look at him suspiciously from time to time.

"Ah lie, are you really ready to fight with ehelius?" he asked.

Dapano sized up his nephew, his voice complicated.

"Uncle, he was never prepared to let me go."

If it was not for the appearance of that woman, he would have entered the King of Hell's Palace long ago and would not have the chance to appear here. Although his attitude towards her was still very bad on the surface, najilie's heart could still distinguish between good and bad.

"If he wants to use me as a stepping stone on his path to the Emperor, he has to ask if I'm willing!"

"A ... A.lie ..."

"Uncle, I have a question I want to ask you personally."

Before dapano could finish, naggilie interrupted him.

"Ah?"

"Was my leg really beyond saving back then?"

Najilie's malicious eyes met his uncle's. The latter's heart skipped a beat. He could not even force a smile. He wanted to run away from this suffocating environment.

"Ha ..."

Na jilie, who did not wait for an answer, already had an answer in his heart. He could not help but lower his head and chuckled. In his heart, he had long believed Lin Hanxing's words about 'big trouble' two days ago.

"Mute uncle, why haven't they come yet?"

The event was about to begin, but Lin xiaojiu and the others still hadn't made any moves. Yuan Kang felt a little depressed when he thought about this, and he was actually a little uncomfortable.

If something really happened later, he was afraid that he would make a mess if he didn't perform well!

The mute uncle glanced at Yuan Kang and didn't say anything.

Alright.

Ever since he had gotten his revenge in Thailand, the mute uncle had returned to his usual silence.

There was a period of time when Yuan Kang was really curious about how he managed to hold his tongue for so long.

"The event is about to begin."

Zuo Xiangdong, who was wearing a black suit, walked over. The brothers from Hua Ji and Hong gang had already dispersed in an orderly manner in the crowd. Everyone was ready at their own positions, and they were in an orderly manner in silence.

As soon as he finished speaking, Zuo Xiangdong's phone rang.

He glanced at the caller ID and quickly picked up. Lin Hanxing's simple words on the other end of the phone made Zuo Xiangdong's expression remain subtle for a few seconds before he hung up.

"Lin xiaojiu? What did she just say?"

Looking at Zuo Xiangdong's expression, Yuan Kang was so curious.

Zuo Xiangdong glanced at Yuan Kang, who didn't say anything. After he walked a few meters away, he ordered Lin Hanxing's arrangements through his earphones, which made the curious Yuan Kang very tempted.

miss Lin told you not to leave first Prince na jilie's side.

Zuo Xiangdong turned around and said, but Yuan Kang clearly felt that he wasn't done. He didn't know if he was being too sensitive, but he saw ...

Sympathy?

He returned to na jilie's side in a daze. Yuan Kang mumbled in his heart and was shrouded in an inexplicable uneasiness.

And this uneasiness was confirmed five minutes later!

Just as the event began, the media's cameras were all aimed at na jilie. Just as the host was about to officially introduce him, someone in the crowd roared and a few rotten eggs were thrown in na jilie's direction.

With a few "pa pa" sounds, the rotten eggs had already bloomed on Yuan Kang and Na jilie's bodies.

The air was dead silent.

What followed was an uproar.

Only the smell of rotten eggs silently spread in the air.

Yuan Kang was about to vomit!

He subconsciously looked at Zuo Xiangdong, who was standing in the dark. The latter made a gesture of encouragement with sympathy. Apparently, he had guessed what would happen but it was not time to make a move yet, so he did not move.

...

Lin xiaojiu!

That's why she smiled so cunningly when he gave her the car keys. It turned out that she was waiting for him!

Damn rotten eggs!

It was so stinky!

The security personnel in charge of the event quickly rushed over and pressed the man to the ground. A heart-wrenching roar followed the next second.

"Liar! They're all liars!"

The professional sensitivity made the reporter instantly prick up his ears and focus the camera.

"You'll die a terrible death! My daughter won't be able to stand up for the rest of her life!"

His painful cries seemed to pierce through the clouds, making those who heard it sad and cry, but also more confused about what had happened!

"The relief money we agreed on, not a single one has been received! We've all been tricked!"

Chapter 1622

1622 Big trouble (3)

Yuan Kang's hands suddenly stopped moving. He squinted his eyes and looked at the source of the voice.

So this was the big trouble Lin xiaojiu was talking about?

Using the sensational effect caused by nagilie's first appearance in many years to pave the way for his careful plan, it was obvious that the second Prince's side, in order to bring down nagilie, did not hesitate to dig out the hidden clues that had been hidden for many years. It was enough to show his urgency.

Having thought this through, Yuan Kang was no longer in a hurry.

As for the rotten eggs ...

He was going to settle the score with Lin xiaojiu when he got back!

Sitting in a wheelchair, nagilie was expressionless, but the muscles in his body were as tense as stones. He looked at the commotion in the crowd opposite him and the reporters who had their cameras pointed at him. His expression management was impeccable.

All of this was seen by the mute uncle, who was observing in the dark.

what are the security guards doing? take her away!

Dapano's head was covered in cold sweat. This was completely different from what they had discussed at the beginning.

The security guards wanted to follow his orders and take him away, but the other party became even more agitated. He took out a fruit knife from somewhere and started waving it around desperately. Someone immediately saw blood.

The entire venue was in an uproar, and people were fleeing in all directions.

All of these scenes were broadcasted live with the cameras in the reporters' hands.

The TV station welcomed a small peak in ratings almost instantly.

The mute uncle made a hand gesture, and the designated personnel who were originally hidden in the crowd temporarily left, hiding in the nearest dark spot.

your Royal Highness, all these years, you've been selling sheep's heads and eating human blood to fill your own pockets. How many families in country G are like me? just like me!

With a bloody fruit knife in his hand, the other party's eyes were red as he waved and shouted. It was a great exaggeration.

The people around him were all excited.

"Have you said enough?"

Najilie's cold voice was transmitted through the microphone on his collar.

The people who heard it were stunned.

"Ah lie, you can leave first. Leave this to me."

Even though debonno had lowered his voice, he could not stop it from trembling.

Na jilie raised his head.

He just looked at his uncle coldly.

It was as if she was seeing him clearly for the first time in years.

Najilie reached out and took off the handkerchief that was attached to the heart of his suit. He slowly wiped the dirt off his face. Every action was filled with an indescribable Royal nobility, and it made one's heart skip a beat.

"Why can't we speak? Why must you seal our mouths! We want the truth."

It was not known who shouted this from the crowd, but the supporters of second Prince eheus exploded and roared in excitement. It was as if they were going to rush up to the stage and tear najilie to pieces in the next second.

In fact, they did try to do so.

Looking at the crowd below, Yuan Kang couldn't help but clench his hands on the armrests of his wheelchair. Only God knew if Zuo Xiangdong had brought enough people here today. Once the emotions of so many people were stirred up, it would be a real disaster!

Yuan Kang's back was covered in cold sweat.

If anything were to go wrong, he and Najilie would not be able to see the sun tomorrow.

Lin Xiaojiu, Oh Lin Xiaojiu, what are you waiting for? Come quickly!

At the same time, all the major media reporters received a call from their superiors, asking their personnel to send back real-time images of the scene at full speed. Dozens of TV stations in country G followed up with a live broadcast at the same time. It was a grand event for a while.

"We want an explanation,"

The person holding the fruit knife spoke gloomily and looked at Najilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair.

First, there's a problem with your uncle.

Second, there's a problem with the charity fund he named after you.

Yingluo, third, you're in big trouble.

Lin Hanxing's three sentences were verified one after another.

Before his eyes, Najilie was indeed in big trouble.

In the current situation, even if he said that he was just a nominal person all these years, no one would believe him. They would even think that he was quibbling, which would cause even greater chaos.

Explaining was wrong, keeping silent was wrong, this was a dead end.

Najilie had already prepared for the worst case scenario of his reputation being ruined.

"We want an explanation!"

The crowd was in high spirits.

Everyone's emotions were pushed to the extreme with this sentence.

It was about to cause a mass incident.

Even the reporters in the media area broke out in a cold sweat for Najilie, who was on stage.

Suddenly ...

The ear-piercing metallic sound penetrated the eardrums of everyone present through the moving speakers. The sound was like the sound of nails scratching a blackboard. It made everyone's hair stand on end and they subconsciously frowned and covered their ears.

"Then I'll give you an explanation."

...

The cold female voice followed closely, as if winter had passed, and no one was spared from it.

The dark crowd subconsciously turned their heads back and forth to find the source of the sound.

As for Yuan Kang, who was standing on the stage, his eyes were filled with tears as he finally put his heart back into his stomach. He felt that his hands and feet were full of strength.

It was unknown where it started, but the crowd automatically parted to make way for the middle path. One person after another, like the ebbing tide, echoed in silence.

The calm clatter of her high heels on the ground penetrated the eardrums of everyone present.

Even the reporters couldn't help but aim their cameras.

In the next second, Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao's faces were the first to appear in everyone's line of sight.

The couple's outfit, which was also black in color, was eye-catching, not to mention that it was such a handsome man and a beautiful woman, as if they had come out of a comic book.

Behind them, 12 foreigners with serious expressions followed in an orderly manner.

They were all dressed in elite attire, and their gazes sent chills down one's spine.

"Jin orwenz!"

...

It was not known which reporter among the reporters had whispered something, but it caused a chain reaction.

Even if it didn't match his face, who wouldn't shiver when they heard the name 'King Owen'? He was the world's top lawyer, and he was leading a team of lawyers ...

Wait ...

The reporter who spoke first narrowed his eyes. When he counted the number of foreigners, he suddenly sucked in a cold breath.

Twelve people!

There were exactly twelve people!

The exorbitant lawyers of X group!

Any one of them could be considered an international figure in the legal world!

Let alone when they were combined together!

Now, they had actually appeared here at the same time?

It was simply magical and unbelievable.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao passed through the crowd and went up the stage without looking sideways, until they were in front of Na Jilie.

"It seems like I've won the bet,"

Lin Hanxing's body emitted a faint, cold fragrance that washed away the smell of rotten eggs. Even though Na Jilie did not want to admit it, the moment he saw her, he could not help but sigh in relief.

Na Jilie turned his head away and did not look at the smile in her eyes.

Lin Hanxing retracted his teasing gaze and returned to his serious and expressionless face. He exchanged a look with Lei Xiao beside him and with a gesture, the situation completely reversed!

Chapter 1623

1623 Standing in front of others and saying

Following Lin Hanxing's hand gesture, Lei Xiao's subordinates and the members of the Hua Ji Hong gang who were originally standing in the dark walked out. Like a circle, they surrounded the group of people who had been shouting at Na Jilie.

When Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao appeared, Zuo Xiangdong had already returned to the mute uncle's side.

"Didn't you want an explanation? Why is there no sound?"

Lin Hanxing's tone was sarcastic as he glanced at the faces below the stage.

"Who ... Who are you?"

The man who had been the first to cause trouble with the fruit knife had a hoarse voice and his hands were trembling.

"Me?"

A careless smile slowly bloomed on his frosty face, as if he was playing with his prey before a hunt, making people shiver in fear.

"You can call me Lin Hanxing,"

The moment these three words came out of her mouth, the reporters in the media area had completely exploded. This emotion even spread through the cameras and into the hearts of every country G citizen watching the live broadcast.

Lin Hanxing, the Lin family's little nine.

The woman who had just thrown Xue LAN into chaos not long ago!

Needless to say, she already knew the identity of the cold man beside her.

Lei Xiao, the president of the Lei Corporation.

The man who could set off a storm of blood in the world's business world with a casual move of his fingers!

“Who the hell ...”

Just as the vulgarities started, Thunder Valiant’s gaze swept across coldly. It was as if a pair of invisible hands had caught his throat, and the words below were automatically cut off, like a rooster’s throat being cut off.

of course, who I am is not important at all. What’s important is to resolve the misunderstanding.

Lin Hanxing spoke again under the watchful eyes of the crowd.

He didn’t seem to care about the insignificant interlude just now.

“Misunderstanding? Misunderstanding my ass!”

A sharp voice came from the crowd, as if to stir up the People’s emotions again.

Lin Hanxing’s expression did not change and he chuckled.

Almost at the same time, Lei Xiao’s underlings, who had not made any movements since the beginning, walked into the crowd expressionlessly and accurately pulled out the person who had spoken from the crowd and threw him to the ground.

Like a mouse that had seen the light, it didn’t have time to cry out in pain, but it was the first to cover its face.

“Go on, stand in front of the people and say it.”

At the intersection of light and darkness, Lin Hanxing stood there like an angel and a devil. There seemed to be an invisible pressure surging from all directions, suffocating people.

“I hate people who do things sneakily.”

Lin Hanxing looked down at him.

Humans were like that. When they were hidden in a group of people, they seemed to be able to say anything they wanted. However, when they were alone, their rationality came back. They could say what they could and couldn’t say. They could easily find their bottom line and sense of propriety.

“The first Prince pocketed the Foundation’s money and embezzled it. I was wrong!”

The other party had hardened his heart and pointed the spear at the first Prince.

This accusation would be serious.

“Defend yourself?”

Lin Hanxing turned sideways and looked at na jilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair, with a faint smile.

“I didn’t.”

These three simple words were sonorous and powerful.

“You’re so reticent, that person must have a good grasp of your personality.”

Lin Hanxing chuckled.

“I have evidence!”

The man who was threatening with the fruit knife followed his plan and blurted out the sentence.

Then, he threw the information he had prepared at the reporters.

these people are the same as me. They didn't receive any money. However, our names are all on the official website of the foundation. If the money hadn't been pocketed by the first Prince, how could a cripple with a broken leg afford to drive such a good car? ”

“What a coincidence, I also have a list of names here.”

When Lin Hanxing turned around to face the crowd again, he took the information that he had prepared from Kim Alvin with one hand.

“Also, I'd like to correct one of your mistakes.”

Lin Hanxing paused and smiled.

“I lent that car to najilie.”

The first Prince's supporters burst into an uproar.

She was not disappointed, but sad.

Which Prince would need to borrow a carriage to travel?

Their first Prince, sob, sob, wasn't he too pitiful!

For a moment, najilie, who received many master's wives 'pitiful and sympathetic gazes, frowned.

“Why don't I start with you?”

Lin Hanxing flipped through the information in his hand. The sound of the video was clearly transmitted to everyone's ears through the microphone. The rising ratings since her appearance made the heads of major TV stations happy.

Wang Qiang, 47 years old, Chinese from country G. Unemployed, gambling is a habit. As for your daughter, she had a chance to be cured by surgery when she was five years old, but you gave up on it because you were afraid that you would never get the aid money again.

Lin Hanxing's voice was very calm, so calm that it was almost heartless.

It made the person opposite him furious.

“You're talking nonsense!”

just last night, three million Yuan was transferred into your private account out of nowhere ...

Over the years, the list of people whom the foundation had aided was as vast as the sea. Even after screening, there were more than 270 people on the list. However, Lin Hanxing had matched all the names on the list in just half a day, allowing her to recognize Wang Qiang's identity at first glance.

“As for you ...”

When Lin Hanxing’s gaze fell on the face of the young man who had accused the first Prince of embezzling money, the latter could not help but take a step back and gulp.

“Last night’s earnings were also considerable, am I right?”

...

Lin Hanxing smiled.

However, the smile did not reach his eyes.

It was also because of this that it gave people an indescribable feeling of understanding everything.

as for what I have, I’ll distribute it to the media later. The electronic version will also be announced to the public through the charity fund’s official Weibo account.

Lin Hanxing’s words caused a strong reaction from dabono.

All the accounts?

How did she get it without my permission?

Not to mention, all the accounts on the official Weibo account were managed by his own people, so how could she bypass him and directly operate it?

oh, by the way, I’ve marked some parts that have objections in red. Those who are interested can go and compare it with the contents of the public notice. I believe you’ll learn a lot.

Almost at the same time as Lin Hanxing’s words, Lei Xiao’s subordinates had already prepared the information and distributed it to the media personnel. Everyone could not wait to read it.

It was only half a year’s accounts, but the red-marked parts were already dense. Everyone present was smart and had heard about the private operations of some organizations. The red-marked parts obviously had hidden problems that could not be brought to the table. If they really investigated it, they were afraid that they would dig out the carrot and bring out the mud.

In an instant, everyone’s attention was focused on debonno, the actual controller of the fund for the past few years.

“But even this can’t prove that the first Prince didn’t know anything from the beginning, right?”

Dapano was the first Prince’s uncle. What if the two of them joined forces?

Chapter 1624

1624 Who would be so stupid?

Lin Hanxing laughed.

Someone handed her a pillow when she was sleepy. Wasn’t she waiting for someone to ask this question?

“Who told you that you can’t?”

Lin Hanxing looked straight at the reporter who asked the question. The same lady’s suit as Lei Xiao’s perfectly highlighted her strong aura, her back was elegant and straight, making people reluctant to look away from her.

The sunlight fell on Lin Hanxing’s body, and even the deer-head brooch on his collar flashed coldly.

Hearing this answer, everyone began to flip through the information in their hands.

Could these things prove the first Prince’s innocence?

“Miss Lin really knows how to play tricks! Then why don’t you just say it clearly, what can this prove?”

The reporters, who had already received instructions from the second Princess Consort’s faction, did not give up.

“Courtesy demands reciprocity. Before I answer your question, shouldn’t you answer mine first?” he asked.

Lin Hanxing’s smile was cold as he asked.

The reporter who had tried to stir up trouble was already prepared for the next round of questions, but after being interrupted by her unconventional rebuttal, he was stunned on the spot and forgot all the words that were on the tip of his tongue.

Yuan Kang, who was standing by the side, couldn’t help but roll his eyes.

Idiot, you’ve already fallen into that woman’s trap!

“I want to know what the relationship between the first Prince and the second Prince is like in Rou city.”

Lin Hanxing’s voice was transmitted to everyone’s ears through the microphone, and at the same time, it was also transmitted to the audience watching the live broadcast through the cameras of the media.

For a moment, everyone was silent.

They did not have the guts to rashly talk about the royal family, let alone in such a public occasion.

But there was no doubt that everyone present knew the true relationship between the first and second princes.

If there were only three words to describe it, [Ice and Fire] was definitely the most suitable.

Ice was melted into water by fire, and fire was put out by water.

The two could not coexist, but they had to maintain a peaceful surface.

These were the unspoken facts, but they did not know what Lin Hanxing meant by asking such a question at a time like this.

“What’s wrong? Is it difficult to answer?”

Lin Hanxing urged coldly, as if he was impatient with the silence.

“The relationship between the first Prince and the second Prince ... Is acceptable.”

The reporter was forced to use the most tactful word to describe it.

A sneer broke the silence.

If it was not for the inappropriate occasion, najilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair, would have really mocked and ridiculed.

If his relationship with yhars could be considered decent, then there would be no old enemies in this world.

“If something happens to me, he’ll be the first one to be happy.”

There were some words that others did not dare to say, but najilie did not have any scruples. He straightforwardly made the people present look at each other. They could not help but wonder if he had forgotten that there was a live broadcast.

Lin Hanxing lowered his head to hide his smile.

Actually, from a certain perspective, najilie’s character was quite likable.

“So, what are you trying to prove, miss Lin?”

The more the reporter spoke, the more guilty he felt, and the louder his voice became.

“It proves that all the funds in the foundation with unknown whereabouts were transferred to the second Prince’s private account by this Mr. Dapano through extraordinary means. And now, you still think that the first Prince knew from the start?”

Lin Hanxing calmly dropped a bomb in the crowd.

There was complete silence.

What did they just hear?

The first Prince’s uncle was using money to help the second Prince?

Was this for real?

If this was true, not only would no one suspect that the first Prince was involved in the Golden Foundation’s underhanded operations, they would even sympathize with him. What kind of pitiful person was he? after being scammed by his trusted uncle for so many years, this was the first time he had mustered the courage to face the public, and he had to face such an embarrassing situation?

“You ... Can you be responsible for the words you’ve said?”

The reporter finally found his voice, even though it was so dry that even he found it unfamiliar.

not only will I be responsible for what I say, but if the second Prince has any objections to what I just said, the team of lawyers behind me will also provide me with the best legal service.

Lin Hanxing’s gaze moved away from the reporter’s face and accurately looked in the direction of the camera.

For a moment, the audience sitting on the other side of the screen felt as if they were looking at Lin Hanxing, who was in the stadium, face to face. It made people feel a shiver that rose from their tailbones to their scalps.

"I'll be waiting for you."

.....

The royal family.

lhuis was watching the TV with a blank expression, and the second consort, Daisy, who was beside him, had already exploded. She was already prepared to wait for najilie to make a fool of himself, but who knew that her backyard would be on fire in just a short while?

How could this Lin xiaojiu be so cunning?

Wasn't the last sentence 'I'll be waiting for you' a declaration of war?

"How did she know about the accounts? We've spent so much time and effort to do all these things without making a sound. How did she manage to investigate everything in just a few days? Sue! Didn't she ask us to Sue?!"

If they hadn't seen and heard it with their own eyes, no one would have thought that the other party would declare war on them in such a bare and open way.

Lin xiaojiu was simply a lunatic!

Over the years, even if everyone knew about the open and secret struggles between najilie and yhars, no one had ever dared to point it out to their faces. It was because of this that they had more time to make more preparations.

do you know who are those people standing behind her? "

Yeres's voice was unprecedentedly cold, and it stunned Daisy.

"Didn't she say it? That's her team of lawyers ..."

Before she could finish her sentence, ehuis had already turned his head to look at her.

"This is the exorbitant legal team led by Kim orwenz! Do you think we can win if we really go to court?"

He couldn't win even if he sued, and not suing him would mean that he had a guilty conscience. Now, she, Lin xiaojiu, had put him on the fire to be roasted, but he couldn't even complain!

...

"Jin ... Jin orwenz?" he asked.

Daisy was dumbfounded.

Even though she was not familiar with the lawyer profession, the impact of this name still made her unable to say a complete sentence for a long time.

He turned his gaze back to the television.

The camera happened to sweep across the lawyers 'faces one by one.

One two three four five six seven eight ...

No more, no less, exactly twelve!

It matched the rumors of the expensive legal team of the mysterious X group in his memory.

"That's not right! What did Lin xiaojiu have to do with X group? What right do you have to ask X group to lend out their exorbitant legal team?"

Any one of them was a big Shot in the International legal community!

This was no longer a question of whether they wanted to file a complaint, but whether the other party would involve other problems. After all, once they were targeted by this group of people, they would be skinned even if they didn't die!

Yeres didn't say anything, his eyes gloomy.

&Nbsp; yeah.

What was Lin xiaojiu's relationship with X group?

Chapter 1625

1625 Brewing up trouble

The event was forced to stop.

The boiling crowd was on the verge of losing control.

Lei Xiao's bodyguards in black suits and the Huaji Hong gang's men were like a steel wall, surrounding the stands. No matter how violent the storm was outside, it did not affect Lin Hanxing, Lei Xiao, and the rest from leaving the stage.

At that moment, everyone's mind was still occupied by Lin Hanxing's sneer at the camera before he left the stage!

The stratagems also carried a strong provocation to the enemy.

If a smile had a voice, Lin Hanxing would have probably driven him to his death.

In the Backstage Lounge.

As soon as he entered the lounge, debonno, who felt that he had lost all his power, knelt on the cold ground with a pale face. Large beads of sweat rolled down his cheeks.

"F * ck, that's disgusting! I want to apply for a work injury!"

Yuan Kang directly took off his suit jacket and threw it into the trash can. He couldn't wait to take a shower.

Lin Hanxing walked to the black leather sofa in his high heels and sat down. The sound of his cold footsteps stepped on dapano's heart.

"Do you like that car?"

Lin Hanxing sat down on the sofa, one hand supporting his face, all the sharpness he had when he was in front of the stage was gone, he was lazy and beautiful.

In contrast to her relaxed state, the exorbitant team of lawyers led by Kim orwenz began to get busy in an orderly manner. Everything was going on in an orderly manner.

"Nonsense!"

Yuan Kang said in a bad mood.

Right now, he only felt that he and Na jilie were moving stinky eggs.

Just let him die.

"I'll give it to you,"

Lin Hanxing smiled.

OMG!

Hot tears filled her eyes!

What death!

Isn't it good to be alive?

He had a car if he was alive!

"Thank you, boss!"

The mighty and unyielding student Yuan Kang eventually became lustful because of wealth!

The resentment from before was swept away, and he came back to life!

"Boss, you've worked hard! Do you need me to help you ..."

Lei Xiao's cold gaze swept over, forcing Yuan Kang to swallow the word 'leg'. Bai Xi, who had witnessed the whole process, instantly laughed and laid on Jiang Xibao's shoulder.

No one paid any attention to debonno.

However, the more it was like this, the more fear filled debonno's heart.

Very quickly, that ominous premonition was confirmed.

Someone knocked on the door of the lounge, and his wife, Sally, was thrown in the next second.

Sally's face was contorted from crying.

Not to mention that her makeup was all over her face, making her look as pathetic as she could possibly be.

“Oh, Hermes.”

Bai Xi took Sally’s bag from the bodyguard’s hand and slowly walked past the kneeling dagano to Lin Hanxing. With a crash, the things in the bag were all poured out on the table by Bai Xi.

Even the newly bought big diamond ring couldn’t escape this fate.

However, that wasn’t bai Xi’s goal. She took out a USB flash drive from the dark and casually threw the bag that cost hundreds of thousands to the side.

Who would have thought that debonno’s life would be stored in his wife’s hermès all year round?

Bai Xi handed the USB to Kim orwens.

Najilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair, looked at his uncle.

Ever since his mother’s death, he had treated his uncle as his closest relative, leaving everything to him to handle. Was this how he treated him? Colluding with the second Princess Consort’s faction to trick him?

If Lin xiaojiu had not found out, how long would he have been kept in the dark?

“My leg, back then, what exactly ...”

The words were on the tip of his tongue, but najilie still could not bear to ask.

His eyes were filled with anger and hostility.

It was like a thick fog that covered his entire face, concealing the youthful look he once had.

Many people present were familiar with najilie’s expression. If he had not met the ninth lady, he would have struggled in this quagmire for the rest of his life, unable to extricate himself.

Kneeling on the ground, debonno did not dare to breathe loudly. He could only shake his head desperately with snot and tears in his eyes.

Ka-da ...

Lin Hanxing casually pushed away the lighter that had rolled out of Sally’s bag and rolled to his feet. His mechanical voice sounded particularly cold and heartless in such an atmosphere.

...

The fire lit up Lin Hanxing’s eyes.

“From now on, I only want to hear the truth from you.”

As soon as he finished speaking, a burly bodyguard arrived beside Bonnie under the hint of Thunder Valiant’s gaze.

“Was there any hope for najilie’s leg back then?”

“No... No... Ah ...”

Lin Hanxing made a hand gesture, and the bodyguard had already lifted his leg and broken the bone in dapano’s knee. The intense pain caused dapano, who still wanted to explain himself, to scream in pain. It was heart-wrenching, and Sally was so scared that she cried and moved back, afraid that she would be affected.

“I told you, I only want the truth.”

These words were said lightly, but it made those who heard it shiver.

“The only hope is ... The second Princess Consort ... Found ... Found me ...”

Dapano sprawled on the ground and panted heavily. He did not dare to play any tricks anymore. He endured the pain and told the truth that he had kept in his heart for many years. He was afraid of the woman in front of him from the bottom of his heart.

Najilie, who was sitting in the wheelchair, closed his eyes. The hand that was on the armrest of the wheelchair suddenly clenched tightly. Blue veins were all over the back of his hand. Every word seemed to be approaching the limit of his body. He was suffocating and crazy.

It was like a public execution.

Lin Hanxing did not say a word from the beginning to the end. He only looked at the fire with an indifferent expression.

The exorbitant team of lawyers behind her turned a blind eye to the commotion and did not even bother to look at her.

if you don’t have any evidence, then you’re slandering the royal family. That’s a serious crime.

Lin Hanxing’s cold voice pierced through people’s eardrums and reached the bottom of their hearts.

“Evidence! I have evidence!”

From the very beginning, dapano knew that making deals with people like the second Princess Consort was like asking a Tiger for its skin. With his cautious nature, how could he not leave something behind every time he made a deal?

“Oh?”

Lin Hanxing’s interest was piqued, and he raised his eyebrows and looked at him.

“From the first time, I kept everything that I could. Big and small, I kept them all.”

He was afraid that he would be abandoned one day.

“But those ... Can’t bring down the second Princess Consort and the others.”

If she thought that she could rest easy with these things in her hands, he was afraid that he would really disappoint her. If he wanted to shake the other party's Foundation, these things in his hands were completely a drop in the ocean. At most, they could only be used to touch porcelain ...

It was not enough to hurt his bones.

"Who told you that I'm going to bring her down now?"

Lin Hanxing asked in return. Not only was Dapano stunned, but even Najilie subconsciously looked at her.

It's here, it's here.

Yuan Kang rubbed his small hands expectantly in his heart.

Looking at Lin Xiaojie's expression, he knew that she was up to no good again.

Thinking of the people who were tricked by her and didn't dare to make a sound, Yuan Kang wanted to cheer for her in his heart!

He couldn't let those rotten eggs on him be thrown in vain!

Get it back, get it back!

Lin Xiaojie will help him get it back!

Chapter 1626

1626 Come on, stir up some trouble (1)

The reflection outside the car window quickly moved back.

I didn't think that Dapano could be so cautious.

Lin Hanxing flicked his fingers, his delicate features were filled with playfulness.

It saved her a lot of trouble.

"The more one cherishes his life, the more he understands the principle of a cunning rabbit having Three Burrows."

Lei Xiao's deep voice exuded a deadly charm, causing Lin Hanxing to turn to look at her husband.

The collar of his black shirt was secured by two luxurious collar buttons, and his Adam's apple was like a small mountain. He was cold and abstinent, as if he was inviting her.

Lin Hanxing was silent for a long time.

Lei Xiao tilted his head and happened to meet her infatuated eyes.

He coughed and covered his nose with his hand to hide his heartbeat.

"You're shy?"

Lin Hanxing's body suddenly leaned forward, and his porcelain white face enlarged in Lei Xiao's eyes without warning. His thin lips curved up uncontrollably, and he wished he could put his life in her hands.

"No, I didn't,"

Lei Xiao cleared his throat, but it didn't seem to have much effect. His voice was extremely hoarse.

"You don't mean what you say."

As he spoke, Lin Hanxing leaned over to his ear and whispered something.

The Thunder valiant beast's heart thumped, and his voice came out from his chest.

After he finished speaking, Lin Hanxing did not forget to bite his ear lightly, and Lei Xiao almost lost control of himself.

"Do you believe that if you keep teasing me, you won't be able to get out of the car today?"

The Thunder valiant beast's voice was hoarse.

Lin Hanxing laughed out loud. Fortunately, there was a soundproof block in front of them, otherwise, her ah Xiao's image would be completely destroyed.

"I was wrong."

Lin Hanxing obediently admitted his mistake with an innocent face.

Lei Xiao snorted coldly and held his wife's hand in his large palm. He turned his gaze to the window and calmed his body's restlessness.

After a while, Lin Hanxing's hand was already warm.

Nearly ten Mercedes Maybach S600s slowly drove through the Royal Gate without any obstacles.

One of the carriages carrying na jilie and Yuan Kang returned to the first Prince's residence first and asked the two of them to do a simple cleaning. The rest of the people went straight to the second wangfei's residence. Their grandiose appearance attracted the attention of many.

Naturally, someone from the second Princess Consort's side had also informed her.

By the time the carriage stopped, the door to the second Princess Consort's residence was already heavily guarded. It looked as if even a fly could not fly through it. It made the people who saw it not know whether to laugh or cry.

How much was she afraid of miss Jiu?

That was Bai Xi's first thought when he got off the car.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao could not help but laugh when they saw this scene.

"No one is allowed to enter without the second Princess Consort's order."

The head guard warned coldly.

Lin Hanxing smiled and glanced at him. His smile was light and breezy, but it made the other party shiver and instantly raise his guard.

Behind her, Zuo Xiangdong and the others were ready.

The air seemed to be filled with the smell of gunpowder.

Thunder owl raised his hand and made a gesture.

The atmosphere of daggers drawn slightly stopped.

Lei Xiao immediately dialed the number and handed the phone to the other party, indicating for him to answer.

The leader of the guards reached out his hand under the pressure of the strong gaze. When he heard the voice on the other end of the phone clearly, he broke out in a cold sweat and was completely out of his control.

“Let them in.”

The phone call ended. The leading guard struggled to say these two words under the surprised gazes of everyone behind him.

Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao looked at each other. Who was this phone call to?

They had been prepared to go all out, so why did Mr. Lei's phone call change everything?

Under the orders of their leader, the layers of guards that had been guarding the place opened up a path in the middle like a tide. Lin Hanxing and the others did not waste a single soldier and turned the situation around dramatically. And all of this ...

The second Princess Consort, who was in her residence, did not know about this.

It was not until Lin Hanxing came in through the door that she sat up from the chaise lounge like a spring. She looked at Lin Hanxing and the group of people behind him in disbelief.

Were the people outside all dead?

Even the second Prince, yes, who was discussing secret matters with his confidants, was shocked and frowned.

“There's no need to introduce each other.”

Lin Hanxing said indifferently.

It really had a stance of angering people to death.

...

The confidant saw the situation and quickly stood in front of the second Prince, iches, and stared nervously in Lin Hanxing's direction.

Lin Hanxing walked towards the second Prince and second Princess Consort with a smile on his face. The sound of his high heels clicking on the floor was like a death knell.

“Since you’re all here, let’s have a chat.”

Lin Hanxing laughed. The only lawyer in the team of lawyers behind him was the chief lawyer, Kim orwenz. At this time, his sharp eyes swept across the second Princess Consort and the second Prince’s faces, but he did not make a sound.

Jiang Xibao leaned against the wall, took out a packet of Wintermelon candy from his pocket, and ate it slowly.

He felt that he should chew something in his mouth to satisfy himself with this kind of drama of watching the other party suffer a loss. Hmm ... The winter melon candy was delicious.

Jiang Xibao stretched out his hand and pushed away one of the second Prince’s henchmen who was about to slip away to inform the others ...

A loud boom was heard ...

One of the second Prince’s confidants and a kite that had lost its string crashed into the wall. His neck tilted as he fell to the ground, unconscious.

“.....”

“.....”

...

“.....”

Everyone’s eyes turned to her in shock.

Jiang Xibao swallowed his saliva.

Only the heavens knew that she had really just given him a light push.

“I’ll be gentler next time.”

It would not be good if someone died.

“.....”

“.....”

“.....”

Lin Hanxing pursed his lips and suppressed the smile on his face.

As expected of their family’s Xi Bao, he was able to hold the ground.

“I’m sorry, my men are a little heavy handed.”

Although he said ‘sorry’, Lin Hanxing’s tone clearly did not sound apologetic at all.

“But don’t worry, I won’t die.”

As soon as Lin Hanxing finished his sentence, blood trickled down the corner of the man’s mouth.

“.....”

“.....”

“.....”

Indeed, he wouldn't die, just that his internal injuries were a little serious.

“What do you want to talk about?”

Yeres was the first to calm down, and a thin smile quickly formed at the corner of his mouth. Although the smile didn't reach his eyes, at least he stabilized his character.

“Let's talk about the money.”

At the mention of the word money, Lin Hanxing's eyes brightened up at a visible rate. Lei Xiao, who noticed this, could not help but laugh. He knew his wife's little scheme too well, and he silently lit a candle for the second Prince and the others who were still clueless about their future.

“What a joke. What money problem do we have to talk about? Take your men and get out of here!”

The second consort, Daisy, roared.

“Are you stupid? Who allowed you to let them in?”

The tone of his voice changed sharply, and he roared at the leading guard.

“It's ... It's Su No.”

The head guard lowered his head in response.

Su 'er?

It was only at this moment that the mystery of Lei Xiao's phone call was completely solved. No wonder the other party's attitude had a 180-degree change after the phone call. So this was the inside story?

He couldn't tell that su mo, who was still invisible, still had the potential to be a sh * t stirrer.

Chapter 1627

1627 Come, cause trouble (2)

Lin Hanxing glanced in Lei Xiao's direction, the latter raised his eyebrows innocently and looked back.

“We'll talk about it when we get back.”

Lin Hanxing mouthed the message, not forgetting to secretly clench his fist for Lei Xiao to see when no one was paying attention to them.

“What did you just say?”

The second consort, Daisy, almost thought that she had heard wrong and could not help but repeat it.

However, he still received the same answer.

How could this be?

“What’s the problem with the money?”

It was still Ehuis who was the first to regain his calm and looked at Lin Hanxing.

In response, Kim Orwenz handed the document to him in a business-like manner.

Yeres took it.

However, after a few casual glances, his expression sank.

“What do you mean by that?”

Lin Hanxing’s reaction was different from when she was with the Thunder valiant beast. The way Lin Hanxing looked at EHESS caused the latter to seriously doubt his own intelligence. The only thing he did not do was to write ‘are you an idiot’ on his face.

The sound of a wheelchair Breaking the Silence.

Yuan Kang, who had thoroughly washed up, pushed Na Jilie in a wheelchair and appeared refreshed. He had even sprayed some men’s cologne on purpose to make himself look more fragrant.

It was perfect!

“It means that I want you to spit out everything you’ve eaten!”

In any case, Yuan Kang had been by Lin Xiaojiu’s side for a long time, and he had already used the phrase ‘a Fox exploiting a Tiger’s might’ to its fullest. Not to mention, this mother and son were the main culprits who had caused him to make a fool of himself on stage today!

He was angry!

They were tricked! They were tricked! Hurry up and trick them!

The fine blood holes on Yuan Kang’s body seemed to be sending out lines of bullet comments as he stared at the second Princess Consort and the second Prince.

Bah!

“Hey, can you do some facial expression management?”

Bai Xi couldn’t help but remind him in a low voice. Yuan Kang’s stupid look gave her a headache.

“Bai Xi,”

“Al.”

Hearing Lin Hanxing call out to her, Bai Xi immediately smiled and raised her hand. How could she miss out on such a scamming segment? However, she wasn’t like that idiot Yuan Kang, who would make her thoughts so obvious.

Reserved!

Do you know how to be reserved?

"I'm going to settle the score with the second Prince."

Lin Hanxing and Bai Xi looked at each other. With just one look, they could hear the sound of the little golden Abacus in her heart.

"Alright!"

Bai Xi took the copy of the document from Kim orwenz. Without even using a calculator, he started to do mental calculations with eloquence. He was like a calculator, and his speed was so fast that it dazzled people.

wow, the amount of money that the second Prince has taken from the foundation over the years is really an astronomical figure!

The more Bai Xi calculated, the wider his eyes widened. He couldn't help but shed tears of sympathy for na ji lie in his heart. His own uncle was a traitor who had cheated him. If it wasn't for the ninth lady, this ...

Who could he reason with?

"The total is ..."

When Bai Xi finished, it was an astronomical figure!

Even najilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair, could not help but clench his large hands, as if he could not believe his ears.

"Second Prince, second Princess Consort, why don't we discuss how you're going to return such a large sum of money with interest?"

Lin Hanxing smiled lazily, and even the mole at the corner of his eye shone with a scheming light.

It was really ... Damn annoying!

Ehuis was so angry that the roots of his teeth were itching, but he still had to maintain a smile on his face. In the eyes of others, it looked ferocious, and there was an indescribable feeling of ... Gloating.

"Miss Lin, are you joking?"

lhuis tried to make his voice sound calm.

"Do you think I'm joking with you?"

Lin Hanxing asked.

Of course, he F * cking knew that it wasn't!

But he would rather he was!

"I think you're crazy."

The second Princess Consort sneered. What made her think that they would pay for this?

"I don't want what you think. I want what I think."

...

Lin Hanxing chuckled, the mockery in his eyes deepened.

Sure enough, it was a simple sentence that could easily start a battle. The second Princess Consort was about to flare up on the spot, but she was suppressed by yhars.

"I think you'd better pay up."

Lin Hanxing added fuel to the fire.

"What else?"

Iches's eyes were gradually shrouded in a haze, and he was on guard.

"Otherwise ..."

Lin Hanxing casually snapped his fingers, and the arrogant Jin orwenz respectfully handed the lawyer's letter that had been drafted a long time ago into the hands of yhars's confidant.

I'm afraid the first case in country G that involves the royal family will start from your Rou city.

Lin Hanxing's smile disappeared. His eyes were as deep as an abyss. Not only did he not show any respect to the royal family, but he even provoked them, as if he wanted to see how far they could go.

"Lin Hanxing, even if you said that during the live broadcast, do you have any evidence to prove my relationship with the foundation? All of this is just your imagination."

...

Yeres had to admit that even though he had been prepared, he had still underestimated the woman in front of him.

Lin Hanxing's eyes swept over EHESS 'face.

Compared to farrick, the second Prince of Rou city was of a much higher status.

But that was all.

we Chinese have an old saying called 'gossip is fearsome'. Since I said those words in front of the people of country G, it's like planting a seed of 'gossip'. Regardless of whether I have evidence or not, you can't clear your name.

She would hit the snake where it was seven inches from its head, and whatever irises cared about, she would point it out.

"You ..."

doing a hundred good things is not as effective as doing one bad thing ". Today, he had wanted to use this method to make najilie suffer, but he did not expect ...

Retribution came so quickly?

"Besides, do you think that I don't have the real thing in my hand since I dare to stand here?"

Lin Hanxing and EHESS looked at each other.

There was a dangerous aura in the air that could be triggered at any moment.

“Ha.”

lhuis suddenly sneered. It wasn't the fake smile that he had on his face before, but the most genuine expression of his emotions.

“You think I'm afraid of rumors?”

“You will be afraid.”

Lin Hanxing's tone was too firm, causing everyone in the second Princess Consort's faction to be stunned. After the shock, they were angry, and they could not suppress their anger.

“Otherwise, why would you set yourself up as a person who is close to the people?”

It was a simple sentence, but it was instantly like a cold and sharp blade that pierced through hypocrisy.

in the beginning, you tried all kinds of routes until you realized that this kind of character was the best. Then, you slowly built yourself into the 'smiling Prince' you are today. Ask yourself, after running this business for so long, are you really not afraid? ”

Lin Hanxing, who was well-versed in the ways of the human heart, had already placed his hand on yhars's Achilles 'heel.

there are only two paths in front of you. Either you give up your principal and interest, or we'll meet in the International Court of Justice.

Lin Hanxing's casual words made iches, who knew the stakes, break out in a cold sweat.

Was his ten years of hard work really going to be in vain?

Chapter 1628

1628 Don't talk nonsense, pay up

Yeres didn't say anything and just looked at her with a gloomy face.

His confidant was the first to get angry with his Lord. Seeing that a conflict was inevitable, Lei Xiao's dark, falcon-like eyes swept coldly across the other party. He lightly dusted the dust on his fingers and spoke coldly.

“I advise you to think carefully before you act.”

During this period of time, Lei Xiao rarely spoke in front of others, but once he did, things were no longer simple.

in addition, if anyone disrespects my wife, apart from the problems she has mentioned, all the land, sea, and air transportation routes under the Lei group will stop because of the second Prince.

As soon as he said this, not to mention yhars, even the second Princess Consort's face turned pale.

Only God knew that the Lei Corporation occupied 68% of country G's transportation lifeline. He could cause them to suffer heavy losses with a casual move of his fingers, not to mention that he had other things in his hands ...

This was also one of the reasons why the 13 royal families in country G were in awe of him, even though he was still young!

"The Lei clan can afford the losses, but can you?"

In a simple sentence, Lei Xiao had completely blocked the escape route of the second Princess Consort's faction.

"You can't do this!"

Daisy's lips trembled in anger, and the only response she got was Thunder Valiant's disdainful smile. He was obviously too lazy to care about her.

This wasn't a negotiation at all. It was a one-sided suppression.

Handsome!

Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao were cheering for Lei Xiao in their hearts excitedly!

As expected of miss Jiu's man, he was so powerful at the critical moment!

Lin Hanxing lowered his head slightly and could not help but chuckle.

Ah Xiao was just short of saying the words 'stop talking nonsense, return the money'.

Najilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair, had not seen such a defeated look on EHESS's face for many years. His eyes were filled with the words 'unwillingness'!

It felt so good.

Najilie, who had been depressed after discovering his uncle's betrayal, heaved a sigh of relief for the first time. Even his face, which had been pale all year round due to his unhealthy body, looked much better.

don't be indignant. Your mistake is that you're too confident in yourself.

Although the mother and son in front of him were of a higher level than shamaga and farick, they had a common problem in the senanda family, which was blind confidence.

What was wrong with him was that he had forgotten the principle of 'bare feet are not afraid of wearing shoes'. Wasn't it asking for trouble if he used his fine porcelain-like character to clash with a hard rock that had no worries?

Lin Hanxing loved opponents who were confident but forgot how high the sky was.

Originally, he was able to suppress his emotions, but Lin Hanxing's words made him tremble with anger.

"This is the first Prince's private account. If I don't see any money in the next three days ..."

As soon as Lin Hanxing finished speaking, Bai Xi handed the account information to him.

Tsk, such a huge sum of money.

The first Prince had suddenly gone from a poor peasant to a rich man!

“Bear the consequences.”

“Do you think our money fell from the sky? That’s such a big sum, how could three days ...”

“That’s your problem.”

Lin Hanxing replied coldly. He did not seem to have any intention of relaxing the deadline.

After saying this, the conversation between them had obviously come to an end. As for what kind of big trouble would be caused by the ‘bear your own consequences’ in ‘bear your own consequences’. ..

Everything was said without words.

Lin Hanxing turned around and walked towards Lei Xiao.

“Lin Hanxing ...”

The second Prince, Yalas, suddenly called out to him from behind.

“Can I ask you a question?”

Lin Hanxing, who had his back to him, stopped in his tracks. His elegant and straight back was beautiful and charming, but he did not turn around.

What’s your relationship with X group? ”

To be able to get X group’s exorbitant legal team to help her deal with such a small matter, how big of a reputation did she have?

“What did you just say?”

Lin Hanxing still did not turn around, but there was a meaningful smile on his lips.

“I said, you and X group ...”

“The previous sentence.”

“Can I ask you a question ...”

“I can’t,”

Lin Hanxing then walked towards the door. As for the others, they smiled secretly and followed behind her, not looking at the second Prince who had lost his dignity.

Tsk, how pitiful.

At the entrance of the second Princess Consort’s residence.

...

Before he got into the car, Lin Hanxing seemed to have thought of something. He turned around and looked at Na Jilie, who was sitting in the wheelchair.

She squinted her beautiful eyes as if she was planning something.

This caused Na Jilie to subconsciously tense up.

“As the saying goes, Blood Brothers should settle accounts clearly.”

Lin Hanxing’s face slowly curved into a smile that he thought was ‘warm’, but he did not know that in the eyes of others, he was as cunning as a Fox, and it also ... Made people’s hair stand on end.

“You see, I’ve contributed both manpower and effort today, shouldn’t I show some appreciation?”

Pfft.

Looking at Lin Hanxing’s miser-like behavior, Yuan Kang almost burst out laughing.

Was she poor?

Pfft, he couldn’t find anyone richer than this couple.

However, his personality was like a wild goose that would pluck all its feathers when it flew by. He was really ...

...

I love you to death!

Na Jilie was dumbfounded.

“Ah Xiao and I can get a discount, but you have to pay the others. How about five million per person?”

“.....”

Was he that direct?

“Oh, that’s not right. Yuan Kang suffered the most losses today. His will be counted separately. Ten million.”

Yuan Kang was almost in tears.

He even wished that he could turn back time and let those people throw a few rotten eggs at his face. Although he knew how protective Lin Xiaojie was, he still had a car and money ...

He couldn’t take it!

“No, no, this ...”

This was the first time that Yuan Kang felt guilty.

“You think it’s too little?”

Lin Hanxing raised his eyebrows. She had always been generous to her family, but just as she was about to raise the price, Yuan Kang, who had already seen through his tricks, quickly stopped her. Only God knew that he felt guilty when he looked at Na Jilie in the wheelchair.

This poor thing ...

“You ...”

Na Jilie had never seen such a fresh and refined way of asking for money. For a moment, he was shocked and stood rooted to the ground. He looked at Lin Hanxing’s face with a blank expression and could not make a sound for a long time.

Suddenly, Na Jilie laughed.

Different from the superficial smile on the face of herse, Na Jilie was laughing from the bottom of his heart. Even the wheelchair under him started to shake.

Had he been driven mad by Lin Xiaojie?

Na Jilie was still laughing. Even though he knew that the people in front of him were looking at him as if he was a ghost, he could not control himself. Before today, he had never known that Lin Xiaojie was someone he liked so much.

It was a pleasure to be friends with such a person.

As he laughed, tears rolled down from the corner of his eyes.

It was so, so pitiful.

Even Bai Xi couldn’t help but think so.

Lin Hanxing looked down at Na Jilie and seemed to be in deep thought.

“How about ...”

Everyone turned to look at Lin Hanxing and nodded like chicks pecking at rice.

Seeing how pitiful he was, she decided to just forget about it.

They took it as a show of love.

“Give you a 5% discount?”

“.....”

Chapter 1629

1629 Her appearance

Three days later, at the Green Sea Villa.

The group was awoken by Yuan Kang’s Groundhog’s scream.

Ten minutes later, Yan beixiao and the others came down one after another, yawning. They saw Yuan Kang sitting on the sofa with his phone in his hand, grinning like a fool. The corners of his mouth were so wide that it almost reached his ears.

“What’s wrong with you?”

Bai Xi leaned his head on Song Chenxi’s shoulder and looked at Yuan Kang with disdain.

“Money! Arrived! Account! It’s done!”

Yuan Kang said as he excitedly turned the screen of his phone around. There were indeed a lot of dazzling zeros on it.

The others took out their phones to take a look. The amount that Lin Hanxing and Na Jilie had agreed on three days ago had indeed arrived. Other than Yuan Kang’s 10 million, everyone else’s was 5 million.

“This little bit of ambition.”

Yan beixiao was lazily lying on the sofa, yawning continuously.

No one knew better than him how loyal Little Star was to his own people. Moreover, after receiving the shock of Little Star from Rivertown giving an entire box of gold bars to Ah Xiao as pocket money, these were nothing!

“Yehuis has really suffered a double loss this time.”

Zhan Nanheng sneered.

“To be able to gather this much money in just three days, I’m afraid that the second Prince and second Princess Consort have taken out all the money they have accumulated over the years.”

Song Chenxi calculated from the perspective of a businessman.

In a short period of time, they would no longer have any liquid funds to use. Furthermore, the matter of the foundation was enough for the second Prince to be in a terrible fix for a while. Na Jilie could also take this opportunity to adjust his state.

A clever housewife can not cook without rice. The second Prince, who had no money, would not act rashly for a long time.

In addition, because of this crisis, many people from G nation who had watched the live broadcast began to pity Na Jilie. Na Jilie, who had originally been lacking in the popularity of the people, could be considered to have gained a blessing.

“Where did big brother and sister-in-law go?”

Lei Min pushed his glasses up.

“Miss Jiu and Mr. Lei have gone to the airport to see someone off.”

Jiang Xibao answered softly.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao had indeed arrived at the international airport early in the morning.

In the VIP lounge, Lin Hanxing was helplessly signing one important document after another brought by Kim Alvin's gang. Because of the tight schedule, his hands were almost going soft from signing.

"You've been out for too long this time."

Kim Orwenz spoke in fluent French, and there was a Noble's arrogance in his every move.

"Why don't you send Uncle Jin back?"

Lin Hanxing asked with a smile and signed another copy.

The phone's FaceTime call notification suddenly rang.

He looked at the display and saw that it was Jennifer.

Lin Hanxing picked it up with one hand.

"Star!"

The surprise on Jennifer's face could be felt even through the screen.

She had even forgotten about the time difference and was eager to share her joy with Lin Hanxing.

"Eh? Orwenz is here too?"

Jennifer did not forget to say hello to her old friend Kim Orwenz, so she did not miss Lei Xiao either.

"What made you so happy?"

Lin Hanxing's hands did not stop moving as he scanned through the document.

"Do you still remember that I'm going to take in a last disciple?"

Lin Hanxing nodded.

With Jennifer's international status, there was no need for her to take in a disciple so early, let alone a last disciple. However, she had released the news a long time ago and had been looking for a suitable candidate all these years.

Unfortunately, none of Jennifer's men had caught her eye even after she had traveled the world.

Lin Hanxing had a general idea of where to go when she suddenly brought this up.

"Unbelievable, I've found it! This Long Xi'er is the miracle I've been looking for!"

Long Xi'er?

The surname Long was not common.

Lin Hanxing thought to himself, but he did not notice the meaningful look in Lei Xiao's eyes when he heard the name.

"Xing, look at her design!"

Jennifer held up the design in her hand excitedly for Lin Hanxing to see through the screen. Even though there was a color difference, Lin Hanxing knew why Jennifer was so excited at first glance.

Indeed, it was a great piece of art.

As they were talking, there was a commotion outside the private lounge. Lin Hanxing frowned.

“Let’s go and see what’s happening outside,”

Lei min ordered his subordinates without turning his head.

...

Very soon, Thunder Valiant’s men returned. Their originally serious expressions were inexplicably strange, and they did not respond for a long time.

Thunder valiant lifted his head and coldly looked at the other party.

“Mr. Ley, I ...”

The other party hesitated for a moment, then spoke with uncertainty.

“I think I saw miss Yun.”

Even Lin Hanxing turned to look at her.

“Jennifer, I’ll call you back later.”

After saying that, Lin Hanxing immediately cut off the call with Face Time, and his cold and sharp eyes fell on Lei Xiao’s bodyguard.

“Which miss Yun?”

This time, the bodyguard didn’t dare to hesitate and answered directly.

“Miss Yun,”

...

He was considered the Lei family’s most experienced bodyguard. Naturally, he had seen Yun WA before. Even though so many years had passed and she had lost her naivety, he could still recognize her at a glance in the crowd.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao looked at each other and stood up abruptly.

“Where are they?”

.....

The common VIP lounges outside the individual VIP lounges were in chaos.

Yunyao’s eyes widened in disbelief as she looked at the woman who had appeared in front of her. Even though her entire body was covered in coffee, she still didn’t react.

On the contrary, her best friend beside her who was affected suddenly stood up and arrogantly wanted to give her a backhand slap!

“Do you know who I am?”

Yun WA’s cold face did not change at all when she heard this. Almost at the same time as the other party attacked, she grabbed her wrist and gave her a slap.

There was a slap.

It was loud and clear.

This was the scene that Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao saw when they arrived.

She recognized Yun WA almost at first sight!

Her long black hair was casually tied behind her head, and her fair and delicate face was covered in frost. Her movements were fast, fierce, and accurate, without giving the other party any buffer. Even the other party’s personal bodyguard could not react in time.

When he came back to his senses, he gasped.

“Now, I’m afraid you’ll forever remember who I am.”

Yun WA spoke calmly, without any signs of panic.

“You dare to hit me?”

Long Xi ‘er covered half of her face and laughed in anger.

“Capture her!”

Long Xi ‘er shrieked as she ordered her bodyguards. She could not wait to let this crazy woman have a taste of her own medicine.

“I’ll see who dares!”

Lin Hanxing’s words were cold and distant. Almost at the same time, Lei Xiao’s bodyguards had already blocked the enemy forces out of the chaos. This sudden turn of events caught everyone off guard, and they all turned to look at Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao.

When she saw Lei Xiao’s face clearly, Yun Yao couldn’t help but gasp, and shouted in shock.

“Big brother Ley? What are you doing here?”

Big brother Ley?

Lin Hanxing smiled and turned to look at her husband who was standing beside her.

“.....”

Chapter 1630

1630 An old friend has come

Long Xi 'er followed yunyao's line of sight. When she met Lei Xiao's eagle-like eyes, her heart felt as if it had been shot by a bullet. It was beating wildly and out of control. She even forgot to control her expression.

God, he's so handsome!

"Another one,"

When Lin Hanxing looked at Lei Xiao, the smile at the corner of his mouth grew wider, but the words 'go home and wait' were written all over his beautiful eyes.

Lei Xiao's face was full of innocence and the desire to live.

"Yunyao, who is he?"

Long Xi 'er asked her good friend shyly. She glanced at Lei Xiao from time to time, almost showing her lust on her face.

Just as Yun Yao was about to open her mouth, the beautiful but sharp woman in front of her gave her a sharp look, instantly making her swallow the words that were about to come out of her mouth.

"He's my husband."

Lin Hanxing's smile had disappeared at some point, and her eyes were frosty. She looked at long Xi 'er expressionlessly.

"So fierce."

Long Xi 'er, who was shocked by the other party's aura, could not help but mock him in a low voice.

"Big brother Ley, you ... Are you here to look for big sister?"

Yun Yao's eyes flickered as she looked at Lei Xiao in surprise.

"Fourth brother, he's also here?"

Lei Yue, fourth brother Lei, are you here too?

Yun Yao's heart was filled with anticipation as she looked around. The coffee stains on her body and the tears in her eyes echoed each other, making her look very pitiful.

Lin Hanxing looked at the familiar green tea operation and laughed coldly in his heart. He walked in the direction of doll Yun.

"Release her."

Lin Hanxing said to Yun WA.

Yun WA raised her head and looked at her.

She let go of long Xi 'er's wrist.

The airport's security personnel arrived one after another and surrounded long Xi 'er. Long Xi 'er's status was not ordinary. She was a VIP at the airport, so the reception she received was of the highest scale.

“Hey! Hand him over to me!”

Long Xi ‘er was obviously furious, but no one paid her any attention.

“You are, Yun wa wa?”

In fact, the answer to this question was self-evident, but Lin Hanxing could vaguely sense that something was wrong from her brows. As for what was wrong, she couldn’t put her finger on it at the moment.

“I am.”

Lin Hanxing, who had received a positive answer, smiled faintly and reached out to her.

“I’m Lin Hanxing.”

Your ... Sister-in-law.

Of course, Lin Hanxing had hidden the last part of his sentence behind a meaningful smile.

“Don’t be afraid. Tell me what happened.”

Perhaps Lin Hanxing thought that the sound of long Xi ‘er’s bodyguard’s struggling behind him was too loud, so he raised his hand without looking back. With a series of banging sounds, the bodyguard had already knocked down all the other party’s men.

The air instantly froze.

Even long Xi ‘er, who was used to being arrogant, was shocked speechless by this.

The cloud child glanced at the White finger that was stretched out in front of her and held it for a while.

It was very cold, but it was very powerful.

She thought.

“Sister ...”

Hearing this, Yun Yao bit her lower lip and looked pitifully at Yun WA. However, she was met with the other party’s cold eyes, which made her shiver in her heart and she was extremely nervous.

“This is a matter between us. Unrelated people, get lost!”

Long Xi ‘er’s stomach was filled with anger.

She had just received a call from her teacher, Jennifer, today. She wanted to fly to France and talk to her personally. If she delayed her matter, she would skin this crazy woman alive.

Lin Hanxing tilted his head lazily and glanced at long Xi ‘er’s face.

He slowly reached out his hand and made a shushing gesture.

Long Xi ‘er felt as if all the blood in her body had been frozen in an instant. She was stunned by the other party’s aura and stood rooted to the ground.

Kim Owen stepped forward unhurriedly, as if he was used to such conflicts. He handed his gold-stamped business card to the airport head who was sweating profusely.

The airport head was stunned when he saw the title on the card.

He had a bitter expression.

All of them were people they could not afford to offend!

"They stole my design drafts."

Even though Yun WA's voice was calm, Lin Hanxing could see through her true emotions.

...

"Design drafts?"

Yun WA raised her head and looked at Lin Hanxing.

teacher Jennifer's design competition ...

She paused for a moment as if she was thinking about how to explain who Jennifer was. Lin Hanxing, who was standing opposite her, suddenly chuckled and turned to look in long Xi 'er and Yun Yao's direction.

He sized her up.

What a coincidence, Jennifer had just told him about her 'miracle'.

"Hanxing,"

Lei Xiao's calm tone carried an air of authority, which easily attracted everyone's attention.

"She's long Xi 'er."

"You know me?"

Long Xi 'er looked at Lei Xiao. Her eyes were filled with surprise and joy. She did not notice Lin Hanxing's narrowed eyes after Lei Xiao emphasized the word 'Dragon'.

...

Ah Xiao wouldn't mention someone's name for no reason. So, this 'long' was really related to the long family in Beijing?

Lin Hanxing's gaze on long Xi 'er deepened.

"Long Xi 'er, is it?"

Lin Hanxing chuckled, as if he was trying to tempt people into committing a crime.

"What is your relationship with long qingru of the long family in Beijing?"

Her voice was faint, and no emotions could be heard.

A proud smile appeared on long Xi 'er's face when she heard the other party mention the long family.

"You know my mother?"

Mom?

It turned out that she was long qingru's daughter.

Lin Hanxing smiled but did not say anything. He carefully sized up long Xi 'er's eyes.

"Since you know who I am, you should also know how bad the long family is."

Long Xi 'er's initial panic was gone. The arrogance in her bones had returned.

"Hand her over to me now, and I'll pretend that nothing happened!"

Long Xi 'er raised her chin slightly and looked at Lin Hanxing, who was smiling. There was a hint of provocation in her eyes.

However, she did not notice that Lin Hanxing's eyes were filled with danger.

It was as if he was a ferocious beast staring at its prey. His thoughts were deep and his expression did not change as he laid out an inescapable net. The person opposite him was in danger but he did not know.

do you have any evidence to prove that they stole your design drafts? "

Lin Hanxing looked away and asked Yun lahua. His lazy attitude did not cause any misunderstanding.

"I have one."

Yun WA replied calmly.

Lin Hanxing smiled and walked towards the airport head. He whispered a few words to the latter and the latter's expression became strange, which made people curious.

At this time, some people in the VIP room at the airport had recognized Lin Hanxing. After all, the live broadcast of the event three days ago was still very popular.

Seeing that Lei Xiao was ignoring her, Yun Yao bit her lower lip and her eyes flickered nervously. She turned her back and secretly opened her phone. Her fingers jumped back and forth on the keyboard in a panic, and she secretly sent a message.

"Alright," he said.

The person in charge of the airport came back soon and nodded at Lin Hanxing.

Almost at the same time, all the LED screens in the VIP lounge turned black and were replaced by remote controlled images.

The moment Lin Hanxing turned on his phone's Bluetooth, the entire venue's LED screen lit up and was synchronized with her phone's Face Time screen.

The call marked with a 'J' was dialed.

The melodious sound of a notification resounded in every corner of the VIP lounge.

Everyone looked at her actions in confusion.

Soon, the video call was picked up.
