1: Chapter 1 Let's Get Married!

1: Chapter 1 Let's Get Married!

Linchuan City, an international metropolis, although it isn't ranked as a first-tier city, it stands out among the second-tier cities.

Lin's Group is a symbol of Linchuan City, with a market value approaching one billion, not to mention the CEO of Lin's Group, who is a celebrity.

Lin Yi, the most beautiful woman in Linchuan City.

Meanwhile, across from Lin's Group headquarters, a bizarre scene was unfolding: a man selling egg-filled pancakes at his stall was confronted by a mature, sultry woman.

"Um..."

Miss, I'm about to close up.

Are you going to buy it or not?

There's only one left.

If you don't want it, I'll take it home and eat it myself."

Li Chen actually had some thoughts about the beauty standing before him, for he knew she was Lin Yi, the CEO of Lin's Group.

Lin Yi was really beautiful that day, at least in Li Chen's eyes, who had never seen such a beautiful woman before.

Her eyes were clear and bright, her eyebrows arched, her long eyelashes trembling slightly, her skin pale and flawless with a soft blush, and her thin lips as inviting as rose petals.

Especially the mature aura emanating from Lin Yi; probably no man could resist it.

Lin Yi didn't speak, but bit her lips tightly, her expression struggling as if she was making an incredibly difficult decision.

"Come with me!"

After a while, Lin Yi ran over, grabbed Li Chen's hand, and ran forward.

At that moment, Li Chen was stunned.

Was this woman out of her mind?

"Hey...

what are you doing?

I'm just a pancake seller, I sell my craft, not my body!"

Li Chen shouted as he was pulled along by Lin Yi.

In fact, with Lin Yi's strength, she could hardly move him; it was more about him willingly moving forward.

"Hey, if you really want a man, just go out and find one.

Why pull me into this?

I'm telling you, I can't afford to pay!"

Hearing Li Chen's 'rogue' words, Lin Yi felt her face burning, but she was truly out of options; otherwise, she wouldn't have gotten involved with an egg pancake seller.

Lin Yi looked at the man sitting in front of her, finding the reality somewhat ridiculous.

Although the man was not ugly, quite the contrary, he was somewhat good-looking, but his attire and crude behavior were something Lin Yi would never consider seriously.

Yet today, she had to do something that would seem laughable to the entire city of Linchuan.

"Let's get married."

Lin Yi gathered her courage and spoke these words.

"Pfft..."

Li Chen was drinking coffee and spit it out upon hearing this.

"Um..."

I'm sorry."

Li Chen quickly pulled out a tissue to wipe it off, then looked at Lin Yi and said, "Beauty, you are the CEO of Lin's Group, look at me, dressed in clothes worth less than one hundred.

Marry you?

Wouldn't I become a kept man?"

What Li Chen meant was that he was currently very poor, but he had integrity and absolutely would not become a kept man.

Lin Yi could easily tell what he meant, but after glancing at Li Chen, a look of disdain flashed in her eyes.

A kept man?

As if you even qualify?

If it weren't for her company, she would never have said such a thing.

The ideal man in Lin Yi's dreams was nothing like this man.

"I just want to register our marriage; of course, we won't actually marry.

You live your life, and if you register with me, I will give you an extra amount of money."

"You mean, we'd be having a sham marriage?"

Li Chen immediately understood that this woman was trying to get him into a fake marriage.

"Yes."

"Are you kidding me?"

How can you fake something as serious as marriage?

Although I'm poor, marriage is no child's play.

I'm not doing it, go find someone else!"

Li Chen spoke righteously, completely disregarding Lin Yi's increasingly pale complexion.

The president of Lin's Group, the goddess of many men in Linchuan City, was actually being rejected.

Lin Yi had her own pride, which, to put it bluntly, included looking down on others, especially someone who sold egg pancakes.

"Five hundred thousand, I will give you five hundred thousand once it's done, and we'll divorce after three months, how about that?"

Lin Yi nearly gritted her teeth as she spoke, having no choice but to do as that person demanded so her company could secure the necessary funding.

She didn't know why that person specifically chose this egg pancake vendor, nor why that person wouldn't lend her the money until after she had registered the marriage with this man.

Yes, her company was now in dire straits, and the bank had already stopped providing loans.

Without further capital, Lin's Group might very well declare bankruptcy.

She was forced to comply with that person's arrangements, even though she despised him.

"Five hundred thousand?"

Upon hearing this, Li Chen's eyes instantly lit up, but he quickly said, "A mere five hundred thousand, how can it buy my dignity!"

"One million, after this, we won't interfere with each other and you'll stay out of my life."

"I'm not that kind of person, dignity is priceless."

"Two million, that's my limit, don't push it!"

Lin Yi bit her teeth, her face had already turned pale, and her hands had started to tremble involuntarily.

This man was raising the price, even though she had already offered two million, he still wasn't satisfied!

"It's really not about the money, I, as a person..."

"Five million, no more than that, I'm telling you, if you don't agree, I have at least a dozen ways to make you unlivable in Zhonghai, believe it or not!"

After saying this, Lin Yi felt as if all her strength had been drained.

This whole situation was humiliating for her, so why did this man act so self-righteous, as if he was suffering a great loss?

Is there such a shameless man in the world?

“Deal!

I want cash!”

Li Chen chuckled; he hadn’t expected to unexpectedly make five million, which was a significant amount of money.

Originally after returning to the country, he was broke, but now it seemed like a windfall had come his way, a buy-one-get-one-free deal with an additional beautiful wife included.

“Cash is impossible, I will transfer it to you only after we divorce normally in three months!”

Lin Yi did not want to wait until then for the man to change his mind.

What if he refused to sign the divorce papers?

“No, I want it now.”

“Impossible, I won’t back down.”

“People even pay a down payment when buying a house, and you’re buying a man, you should at least pay something upfront, one million, I want a one million deposit.”

“Only ten thousand, consider it your pocket money for these three months, nothing else!”

Hearing Li Chen mention buying a man, Lin Yi felt particularly uncomfortable.

She used to be so proud, chased by many successful men.

When had it come to her buying a man?

“Fine, but I have a condition.”

In the end, Li Chen compromised; after all, it was just for three months.

He could wait.

“What condition?”

“I want to move into your place, your...

what’s with that look?

I don’t have any ulterior motives, it’s just that my lease is almost up and I need somewhere to live,” he said.

2: Chapter 2 You can start taking action now!

2: Chapter 2 You can start taking action now!

This day was a big one for Li Chen, as he had gotten married, and his bride was a stunning beauty.

However, for Lin Yi, it was a day of agony, because she had just registered her marriage with a man she found utterly detestable.

Li Chen, she knew his name, and also that he was an orphan with no living relatives here.

In Haitian Villa District, where Lin Yi lived, Li Chen showed up, and without a word, threw the belongings he had brought from his rental onto the beautifully carved white jade bed, before he plunged himself onto it.

“So comfortable, it’s been so long since I’ve slept on such a nice bed.”

All Lin Yi could do was watch coldly, while tightly clutching the marriage certificate in her hand, because this document could net her a large sum of money.

“Aunt Wang, I’m stepping out for a bit.

Please see to the house.”

Lin Yi said to the nanny next to her.

The nanny, Aunt Wang, appeared to be in her fifties, but well taken care of, looking more in her forties.

She had just learned of the stranger’s identity from her young mistress.

Having watched Lin Yi grow up, she could never have imagined that this man would be her son-in-law.

Since Lin Yi didn’t say anything, naturally, Aunt Wang wouldn’t ask.

Watching Li Chen enjoying himself in the room, she couldn't help but smile.

Though this son-in-law didn't seem to be wealthy, as someone who has been around the block, she didn't use wealth to judge a person.

At least, when her son-in-law walked through the door, the respect he showed her was genuine, unlike others who wouldn't give her a second glance when they visited.

"Son-in-law, what would you like for lunch?"

"I'll go cook for you."

Upon hearing this, Li Chen suddenly realized and showed an embarrassed expression.

"Uh... Aunt Wang, right?"

"We're family, no need to be so formal."

"Just whip up something simple."

"But make sure there's plenty of meat, I love meat."

If Lin Yi had been there, she would definitely have cursed under her breath, "Who's family with you?"

"You'll be out on your ass in three months!"

However, Aunt Wang found Li Chen to be a forthright young man and said with a smile, "Alright, I'll go to the nearby supermarket to buy some."

"Not just some, a lot."

"I can eat quite a bit."

Li Chen added another reminder, and Aunt Wang left, still chuckling.

After Aunt Wang had left, Li Chen sprang up from the bed and turned on the computer in the room.

Soon, he entered a chat room where a blonde, blue-eyed woman appeared on the screen, her figure exceptionally voluptuous, especially the two papayas on her chest—bordering on the realm of terrifying.

"My dear Chen, you finally thought to contact me, huh?"

"You've been missing for over a month."

The woman spoke in English, her voice sultry and... coy.

"Alice, can we keep it normal please?"

Also, don't let your man find out about our calls, got it?"

Li Chen responded back in equally fluent English.

"Chen, that statement of yours is quite ambiguous, you know.

According to what you people in Huaxia say, would this count as, say, stealing your brother's wife?"

"Steal your brother's wife my foot, I'm his big brother!"

"So that makes it stealing a younger brother's wife."

"Steal your younger brother's wife my ass!"

"How do you know I have a sister?"

Her name is Karina, do you want her?"

Next time I'll drug her a bit and send her to your bed, how about that?"

"You're beyond hope.

For Wolf Dog to have ended up with a woman like you, I truly feel sorry for him."

"Hmph, he's not as strong as you.

Actually, I've always liked you.

Ever since you showed me what a real man is, I've realized that I'm completely in love with you.

Chen, what if I divorce him and stay by your side from now on?"

Do you like playing with maids?"

I'll be your maid, how about that?"

After saying this, Alice licked her moist lips and batted her captivating eyes non-stop.

"Damn it, last time I only rescued you from a bunch of mercenaries, and now you're trying to latch onto me or what?"

“I wish I could, but I know you have someone else in your heart, which means I’ll probably never have a chance.

But, my sister is really beautiful, she’s only eighteen this year, and she has developed even better than I have.

And most importantly, she doesn’t have a man yet...”

Listening to Alice’s words, Li Chen envisioned a figure with a proud figure and a bewitching gaze...

“Stop...”

I came to you this time for serious matters, enough chit-chat!”

Li Chen quickly interjected, thinking this woman was mad.

Only a certain man could tolerate her—if it were him, he would have been fed up long ago.

“Serious matters?”

What matters?

Is there anything in the world that could possibly trouble you, Lord Nether King?”

Alice showed a look of surprise.

“Don’t, I’m not omnipotent.

The Z substance in my body is running out.

Get me some more from the lab.”

As he spoke, a helpless expression crossed Li Chen’s face.

Even Alice, on the other end of the video, looked troubled.

“Are the injuries on your body still not healed?”

Using Z substance to suppress them isn’t a solution, and besides, Z substance itself is a very aggressive agent.

When you can’t suppress it anymore, I fear...”

Alice finally started speaking seriously to Li Chen.

“It’s nothing, there will be a solution sooner or later.

I’ve come back to Huaxia to use the medical techniques here to find a cure.”

“That would be great.

The miraculous traditional Chinese medicine in Huaxia will definitely bring you a surprise.”

...

After finishing the conversation with Alice, Li Chen closed the video and pulled a small glass vial from his bag, which contained a pale red liquid.

Without even looking, he drank it down in one gulp.

After drinking it, his face began contorting, and he clutched tightly to the wardrobe beside him, beads of sweat as large as beans forming on his forehead.

Five minutes passed before Li Chen finally calmed down, then he seemed as if he had just emerged from a pond.

“Huff, huff...”

damn it, if it doesn’t arrive in ten days, I really won’t be able to control it anymore.”

After calming down, Li Chen muttered to himself, then quickly entered the bathroom, took a shower, and changed into a clean set of clothes.

Meanwhile, in a dimly lit basement, Lin Yi stood there, looking at the person sitting in front of him.

“I’ve followed your demands and registered our marriage.

Now, shouldn’t you fulfill your promise?”

Right there, a black figure slowly turned around, and Lin Yi could not even discern their facial features clearly.

“Good, go to the backyard now, and a check for three hundred million will be delivered into your hands.”

The voice belonged to a woman, but it was gloomy, giving an uncomfortable feeling.

“I’ve done what you asked.

I want the check now and then I’m leaving.”

Lin Yi suddenly became very assertive, and for some reason, she felt afraid.

This time, she really was dealing with the devil, and she couldn’t afford to make any mistakes.

“Alright, wait here, I will go get your check.”

After saying this, the figure turned and left the basement.

Behind the basement, there was a small door.

Emerging from that door, they were greeted by light.

Only then was the woman’s face clearly visible.

A woman in her twenties with an oval face and very attractive features, yet her eyes were filled with an unbearable chill, as if harboring endless coldness.

“Get her a check, and also tell the Ghost King, it’s time to start taking action.”

3: Chapter 3: Wife’s Crisis!

3: Chapter 3: Wife’s Crisis!

“Mmm...

Aunt Wang’s cooking is really delicious.”

Li Chen kept eating while lavishing praise on Aunt Wang without reservation.

“As long as the young master likes it, it’s good.

Miss always eats at the company, and it’s quite lonely for me to eat alone at home every day.

From now on, feel free to tell me what you want to eat; Aunt Wang will go buy it and cook it for you.”

“Now that’s what I’m talking about.

Let’s have seafood tomorrow; it’s been so long since I’ve had some.”

Just as the two of them were eating, Lin Yi came back.

“Miss, you’re back?”

That’s great; we just started eating.

“I’ll grab a set of utensils for you.”

Aunt Wang was quite surprised to see Lin Yi come back so early today; she usually came back only after Aunt Wang had finished eating.

“Wife, come, sit next to me.”

Li Chen also stood up and shouted to Lin Yi.

“You...

you’d better remember our relationship.”

Lin Yi had just returned when she heard Li Chen shout such a phrase, immediately feeling her brain go fuzzy.

Yes, although the money was in hand, she was now married.

Even if they were to divorce after three months, she would still be considered a young widow in people’s eyes, and her next marriage would be a second marriage.

Deep down, Lin Yi was a conservative woman.

Once married, she wanted to stick with it.

As long as Li Chen was even slightly nice to her, she might try hard to keep the marriage going.

Not for any other reason, but because she knew that for someone like her, it’s often hard to have control over one’s marriage.

Marrying anyone would be the same, so if Li Chen could make her feel comfortable, then even if she had to endure some ‘grievances’, what would it really matter?

Yet looking at Li Chen now, she felt a surge of annoyance.

This man, what virtues or abilities does he have to be worthy of her!

Lin Yi was proud, as she had the capital to be proud.

“Relationship?”

Aren’t we husband and wife?

What’s wrong with me calling you wife?”

Li Chen chuckled, seeing the pride that Lin Yi carried deep within— he was doing it on purpose just to irritate this woman.

“You...”

Lin Yi realized that arguing with this man was not a wise choice.

“Aunt Wang, I’m not eating.

Don’t bother.”

After saying that, Lin Yi headed straight upstairs, the sound of her high heels clacking against the wooden floor was so clear and distinct.

But Lin Yi had only taken a couple of steps when suddenly her brain went blank, followed by a wave of weakness throughout her body.

Her handbag slipped powerlessly from her grasp, and she slumped down all at once.

Just as she was about to fall, she suddenly felt herself leaning against something warm, and when she turned her head to look, it turned out to be the very person she despised the most.

She tried to struggle, but her entire body had no strength at all, not even enough to keep her eyelids from growing heavier.

“Wife, what are you trying to do, huh?”

If you want to get close to your husband, you don’t have to go to such lengths.

Just leave the door open for me tonight, and I’ll come over, won’t I?”

Li Chen spoke with a smile.

However, Lin Yi’s body was truly soft; as Li Chen’s hands supported her waist, it felt as if her body had no bones at all.

Moreover, there was a unique scent on Lin Yi that he was all too familiar with; it wasn’t perfume, but a woman’s natural fragrance—Li Chen, who had roamed through countless ‘flower fields,’ knew this without a doubt.

The two remained tightly embraced.

Lin Yi wanted to struggle but had no strength, while Li Chen took the opportunity to take some liberties.

“Mmnh...”

Lin Yi’s eyes suddenly became hazy, and she couldn’t help but let out a sound from her cute nose.

The initiator of all this was Li Chen’s hands.

At that moment, whether intentionally or unintentionally, they found their way to Lin Yi’s ample bust.

Feeling all of this, Lin Yi’s face changed instantly; this man was actually...

But Li Chen remained blissfully unaware, giving Lin Yi a very meaningful look.

Just as Aunt Wang emerged from the kitchen and saw the two of them in that pose, she immediately turned her head and walked away.

The young people these days really, they have no regard for the presence of an old person like me.

Lin Yi swore that if she could move at that moment, she would definitely chop off Li Chen’s thieving hands and then gouge out his roguish eyes.

Unable to tolerate being teased by Li Chen like this, Lin Yi suddenly felt a rush of heat to her brain, and then she lost consciousness entirely.

Li Chen had wanted to continue teasing Lin Yi, but he suddenly realized something was wrong—that Lin Yi had actually fainted.

At first, Li Chen thought Lin Yi had just stumbled while walking, but now it was clear that wasn’t the case at all.

He immediately freed one hand and placed it at Lin Yi’s philtrum, only for his hand to suddenly jerk back, his face showing a shocked expression.

“Sicalin, how could this be, how could you have such a toxin in your system!”

No wonder Li Chen was shocked, because the toxin known as Sicalin was no simple matter, accessible only to those at a certain level.

Lin Yi was merely a minor CEO with a net worth of less than ten billion.

Even if someone wanted her dead, they wouldn't use such a toxin.

After his initial shock, Li Chen immediately calmed himself, picked Lin Yi up around the waist, and ran upstairs.

Just then, Aunt Wang happened to come out again and seeing this scene, couldn't help but complain in her heart: The young people today are really too impatient, at least wait until after dinner to go upstairs.

Li Chen couldn't care less about that now, carrying Lin Yi straight to her room, he kicked the door open with one foot.

He placed Lin Yi on the bed and immediately started to unzip her tight dress.

At this point, he couldn't be concerned with propriety, and stripped off Lin Yi's clothes, leaving her in just her underwear.

Although Li Chen had no particular feelings for Lin Yi, she was, after all, the first woman he'd married, and he didn't want to see her life at risk.

Sicalin is a toxin that puts its victims into a coma within an hour, appearing as if they are asleep, and lasts until death, with doctors unable to detect any issues unless they are familiar with the characteristics of Sicalin.

And Li Chen happened to know because his lab was capable of producing such a toxin.

The lethal mechanism of Sicalin is to slow down the person's blood flow, similar to an Aging Potion, turning the victim's body functions into that of an eighty or ninety-year-old within just two days, ultimately leading to death.

He returned to his room, opened a package, and took out a syringe filled with a clear liquid, then went back to Lin Yi's side.

This was the Antidote for Sicalin, but it couldn't completely eliminate the toxin.

After the injection, Li Chen sat on the bed, placed his hands on Lin Yi's back, and closed his eyes.

At this moment, he had to use his own True Qi to restore Lin Yi's bodily functions to a certain level, and she would get better within a couple of days.

Ten minutes later, the room was filled with a faint mist, and Li Chen's lips were a bit dry.

Gradually, Lin Yi regained some consciousness, and when she saw herself nearly naked in front of Li Chen, she mustered the courage from nowhere and pushed Li Chen away.

“Pfft...”

Li Chen’s body suddenly fell backward, hitting the cushion behind the bed.

At this moment Li Chen’s eyes were bloodshot, and the corners of his mouth were stained with the fresh blood he had just coughed up.

He hadn’t expected Lin Yi to do that to him.

Just now, his True Qi had already leaked out, and in his efforts to save Lin Yi, he had severely overexerted his bodily strength.

Lin Yi’s push had caught him off guard and winded him.

As a Martial Artist, getting winded is no simple matter; at best it leads to serious injury, at worst, it results in death.

4: Chapter 4 I Hate You!

4: Chapter 4 I Hate You!

Li Chen suddenly lunged at Lin Yi.

How could Lin Yi break free from Li Chen?

“No...”

don’t...”

Lin Yi’s hands were slapping against Li Chen’s chest, but it was useless against him.

Her strength was too feeble, unable to make any waves against Li Chen.

A few minutes later, Lin Yi no longer had the strength and could only give up.

Lin Yi felt as though she was being crushed by a mountain.

Thinking about what was to come, she couldn’t help but let two hot tears slide from the corners of her eyes.

All of a sudden, Li Chen saw the tear marks on Lin Yi’s face and the tears in the corners of her eyes.

“Boom...”

It felt as if something had exploded in Li Chen's brain, and seeing Lin Yi's pale face and despairing expression, he suddenly became a little overwhelmed.

Why was it like this, why did he feel so distressed upon seeing such an expression on Lin Yi's face?

He had only met this woman a few times, spending less than a day together; why should he feel this way?

Lin Yi had already lost hope, yet suddenly, she felt the pressure on her body ease.

When she opened her eyes, all she saw was Li Chen's retreating figure stumbling out of the room.

Seeing the disheveled bed and the clothes scattered on the floor, Lin Yi couldn't help but sob.

Yet when she saw the fresh blood on her arm, the expression on her face changed again.

This blood definitely wasn't her own, so there was only one possibility.

Thinking back to how Li Chen had behaved when he awoke, she had not thought too much about it and just pushed him away.

She tried hard to recall what had happened, but eventually, all she could remember was that she seemed to have fainted suddenly, and when she woke up, things had turned out like this.

There was still a syringe on the table next to her, and Lin Yi lifted her white wrist, which showed a small pinhole.

"What exactly is going on?"

What is he really doing?"

Lin Yi didn't understand, but now she was certain of one thing: Li Chen must have been doing something for her, and she...

"Li Chen, I hate you!"

...

Li Chen returned to his own room, locked the door without a word, needing a quiet environment.

The True Qi within his body was in turmoil, and without proper regulation, he would be completely ruined.

Another thing was the immense power inside him that was close to becoming uncontrollable.

Originally, with the Z substance, he could barely suppress it, but having used too much True Qi today, and with Lin Yi's push, he almost reached a point of no return.

He didn't know where the mysterious power inside him came from, but he knew if it erupted, he couldn't survive—it would cause his body to explode and he would die.

Using all his strength, it took him three months to develop the Z substance, which could only barely suppress the mysterious power within him.

He never dared to use his full strength in a fight, fearing the power's eruption.

It took two full hours, well into the night, for Li Chen to feel some recovery in his body, at least the urge to vomit blood from his throat had subsided.

“This won't do, my Z substance supply is almost depleted.

It looks like I need to hurry Alice on this.”

Li Chen muttered to himself and immediately turned on his computer.

His return to China this time was to seek Healing methods for himself.

He brought back only about ten bottles of Substance Z, with one bottle ensuring that he wouldn't have any problems for three days.

He had used up the last bottle during the day.

He connected to the chat room, but couldn't see Alice for a long time.

Normally, as soon as he logged into the chat room, Alice would come as quickly as possible.

After waiting and waiting, an hour later, Alice finally appeared on the screen, but there was something wrong with her; she was very dirty, and she had wounds as well.

“Alice, what happened?

What's going on over there?”

Hearing Li Chen's voice, Alice immediately started to sob.

“Boss, I...

I’m sorry, the lab was breached, and...”

Boom...

The lab was breached?

How could that lab, so well-hidden and heavily defended, possibly be breached?

Not even the strongest Flying Tigers could do it without bringing several hundred people along with advanced weapons.

“What about the Z Substance?”

Is the Z Substance alright?”

This was what Li Chen was most concerned about.

The Z Substance was his lifeline; he wouldn’t tolerate any mishaps.

“They...

Their target was the Z Substance.

The other labs are fine, but the lab for Substance Z was attacked, all the research staff were killed, and...

and all the data about Z Substance was destroyed.”

Alice said these things, her face showing fear because through the screen, she could already see Li Chen’s face turning ashen.

When the King of the Netherworld goes into a rage, he can incinerate corpses for miles, and no one could withstand his fury.

“Who was it?

Who did it?”

He asked calmly, but those who knew him would know that he was on the verge of exploding.

“It was...

Ghost King.”

Alice said in a low voice.

“Ghost King?”

Alice, don’t treat me like a three-year-old child.

I’m well aware of Ghost King’s strength.

Even if he could achieve that, so what?

I left you and Wild Wolf in charge of the entire lab, and Wild Wolf’s strength is almost equal to Ghost King’s.

How did he manage all this?”

As soon as Li Chen spoke, Alice fell silent.

Seeing Alice like this, how could Li Chen not see through it?

“Was Wild Wolf involved as well?”

He’s got some nerve to betray me like this.

I just want to know, who gave them the courage to do it!”

On the screen, Alice suddenly knelt down and then cried out, “Boss, I’m sorry, I let you down.

I will resolve the matter with Wild Wolf myself.

After this matter is settled, I will definitely explain everything to you!”

Explanations.

With such a big issue at hand, what could she do other than die?

She knew Li Chen’s temper very well; if she had to describe him in two words, those would be ‘ruthless tyrant’.

Seeing Alice like this, Li Chen didn’t want to blame her anymore.

One could say that Alice was someone he could trust.

Suddenly, Li Chen’s ears moved slightly, and then the corners of his mouth lifted into a smile.

“Alright, let’s leave it at that.

Hurry up and rebuild the lab for Substance Z for me.

In one month, I want you to synthesize Substance Z for me again.

As for Wild Wolf and Ghost King, I will deal with them personally!”

After Li Chen finished speaking, he immediately closed the chat room, then opened the window of his room.

Looking at the figures moving around in the darkness, his eyes deepened.

“You guys sure arrived quickly.

Seems like you’ve been planning this for a long time.”

5: Chapter 5, Just You?

5: Chapter 5, Just You?

The night had deepened, and even Lin Yi could no longer resist drowsiness and had fallen into a deep sleep.

The events of the day were more than what she experienced in a typical month, so she was very exhausted.

Meanwhile, Li Chen had quietly left the villa.

A figure in the darkness was slowly approaching, and Li Chen also moved to meet it.

Li Chen hardened himself and dashed toward the shadow.

At about five hundred meters from the villa, he met with the shadow.

“You must be from the Italian Mafia, right?”

Li Chen said to the dozen or so figures before him.

Clearly, the group had not expected their identities to be revealed as soon as they met each other face-to-face.

A few figures exchanged glances and then nodded fiercely before charging directly at Li Chen.

True experts, upon meeting, won't waste time talking, because even a few seconds' delay can change the tide of battle, especially when they were not on their home ground in Huaxia.

Li Chen, observing their well-trained manner, knew their strength would not be lacking.

The Italian Mafia, twelve leaders.

It was just unknown what grade these people belonged to.

The opponents had rushed in, and Li Chen couldn't show weakness.

In his palm suddenly appeared a dagger, emitting a cold gleam, chilling to the bone.

The silhouette blinked and had already reached in front of Li Chen, all wielding weapons — swords, daggers, and military spikes, varied in kind.

If it were an ordinary person, they might be scared to pee seeing this formation.

The first to rush was Li Hao, who blocked the opponent's weapon with a dagger and then kicked the opponent's abdomen with incredible speed.

But that person got up quickly and charged at Li Chen again.

"Hmph, you even dare to take the zombie drug.

It seems you really came prepared today!"

Li Chen realized the condition of these people at a glance.

If it were a normal person, although that kick just now wouldn't be fatal, it definitely wouldn't allow them to get up so quickly.

This could only mean these people had taken some special potion, apparently not fearing pain.

Li Chen was very fast, hardly anyone could engage him in close combat.

Mostly, he could repel opponents with a single move upon meeting.

However, there were many opponents, and they fearlessly kept rushing at Li Chen, leaving him only able to react passively.

But Li Chen had his moments of success, like just now, when his dagger had stabbed into someone's lower abdomen, reducing their combat power by at least thirty percent.

However, after fighting for several minutes, Li Chen felt something was off, as these people seemed not to want to kill him but to exhaust his power.

Could these people know that he no longer had the Z substance?

This thought suddenly popped up in Li Chen's mind, which was soon confirmed, as he deliberately sold a flaw, but the opponents seemed not to notice it at all.

This wasn't possible, these people were not weak.

How could they not notice that flaw?

End it quickly, no more dragging it out.

This was Li Chen's first instinct.

"Tssss..."

Li Chen effortlessly sliced open a person's neck with his dagger, but likewise, was kicked in the back.

If it had been before, a kick with such Power wouldn't have phased Li Chen at all, but today was different.

He had expended too much True Qi for Lin Yi's sake, and now his strength was less than a tenth of what it had been.

This was also why Li Chen had initially held back, worrying that these people might have some tricks up their sleeves.

But now, he couldn't afford to keep his guard up.

That kick just now had actually caused him pain.

What was pain?

Apart from the times when he fought with those old fogeys, no one else could even pose a threat to Li Chen.

Gradually, more and more blood appeared on Li Chen's hands, and even his clothes were stained significantly.

His eyes turned bloodshot, and his movements became quicker.

In two minutes, a dozen dark figures lay sprawled on the ground.

When the King of the Netherworld was furious, corpses floated for miles.

After wiping the blood off his dagger on a corpse, Li Chen slowly stood up.

At this time, he was merely feigning composure; in reality, his stomach had been churning with turmoil.

Just now, he had nearly mobilized all the True Qi in his body.

With no suppression from the Z substance, the mysterious Power within him was already showing signs of erupting.

“Clap, clap, clap...”

Applause rang out in the dark night, clearly audible.

Standing within a pile of bodies, Li Chen’s senses were sharply concentrated.

“No wonder you’re called the King of the Netherworld.

Back then, you single-handedly annihilated the entire Sky Wolf Mercenary Team—a total of eight hundred and thirty people, leaving no survivors.

You truly ascended to godhood with that battle, and since then, no one has dared to challenge you.

No wonder, no wonder...”

The voice was sharp, almost like a woman’s, but Li Chen could tell it was definitely a man’s voice, and a familiar one at that.

“Shouzi Shenglang, instead of staying put at Tucker Castle, you’ve come to me!”

In front of Li Chen, a man appeared.

He was slender with a pale complexion, looking quite handsome—if it were a woman, she would definitely be considered beautiful.

However, his dainty mannerisms might make one feel nauseous upon seeing them.

But Li Chen wasn’t considering these things; all his attention was focused on the man in front of him because he was a formidable opponent.

Shouzi Shenglang, said to be a descendant of the Japanese but living in Europe, belonged to a branch of the Mafia.

This androgynous fellow was the son of Shouzi Sky Wolf, one of the twelve chiefs of the Mafia.

Although he was almost akin to a ladyboy, his strength was quite the opposite, ranking thirteenth on the Earth Ranking!

In this world, there are many individuals with exceptional Combat Power, so these people are ranked on a list: the Heaven, Earth, and Human Rankings, with the Heaven Ranking consisting of one hundred, the Earth one thousand, and the Human ten thousand.

Above these three rankings, there are the titles of the Twelve Main Gods, and Li Chen's title was the fourth-ranked King of the Netherworld.

Actually, once reaching the Earth Ranking, the difference in strength isn't that wide; these rankings are only assigned according to some special circumstances.

It was precisely because Li Chen slaughtered eight hundred and thirty members of the Sky Wolf Mercenary Team that he was designated the King of the Netherworld.

In his prime, he wouldn't fear Shouzi Shenglang, but now, he was likely more willing than able.

"King of the Netherworld, there's no need to pretend you're composed in front of me.

To use your words from Huaxia, you're already at the end of your rope.

Do you think your lab being destroyed was an accident?

No, let me tell you, I did it all, and today, I will kill you, the King of the Netherworld, and take your place completely!"

Shouzi Shenglang squinted his Phoenix Eyes and spoke menacingly.

"Heh, you?"

Shouzi Shenglang, no offense, but I really haven't taken your abilities seriously.

If you were capable of destroying my lab, you wouldn't have been stuck in the Earth Ranking for so long!"

With that, Shouzi Shenglang's face suddenly changed color.
