

MY GORGEOUS WIFE

14: Chapter 12 Are You Talking About This Kind of Perfume?_3 14: Chapter 12 Are You Talking About This Kind of Perfume?_3 After getting injured later, I'd have to blend Substance Z myself.

If I can't even make such a simple thing, I might as well crash into a block of tofu and die.

It worked!

Li Chen's eyes lit up, then he put on the lid, and in front of everyone, he began to shake it vigorously.

The perfumers at Lin's Group were all stunned, and Wang Lei was furious.

Allowing such a person to make perfume in his own lab was an insult to him!

"President Lin, you must make him leave now, or I will resign!" Wang Lei said angrily.

Lin Yi frowned slightly, just about to say something, when he suddenly smelled a faint fragrance.

Wang Lei also froze, his nose twitching.

The scent of the perfume was so familiar; a subtle fragrance yet with a hint of seductive maturity.

Wasn't this the perfume previously crafted by Ferdinand's team?

Li Chen removed the lid and spoke softly, "The perfume you mentioned earlier, is it this one?"

The bottles on the table were emitting a fragrant scent, and Wang Lei and the group of perfumers were already stunned.

Did he really make it?

Was it that simple to make?

Lin Yi was a bit incredulous, and at this moment, Li Chen gave a mischievous smile, dabbed his right hand on the perfume, and walked over to Lin Yi.

"Come here, my sweet wife, check out your husband's achievement."

With a swipe of his right hand, he applied the perfume to Lin Yi's neck.

"What are you doing?" Lin Yi couldn't help but step back.

"Mmm, it smells so good." Li Chen said, completely enthralled.

Lin Yi's face turned red.

She too could smell the perfume, which smelled almost the same as the one made by Ferdinand's team, but this still needed final confirmation.

"My sweet wife's scent is really fragrant." Li Chen continued to revel, in fact, he was not referring to the scent of the perfume, but Lin Yi's body scent.

Virgins always have a body scent, and Lin Yi exuded a faint body scent.

"Stop it, let's talk at home." Lin Yi said softly, blushing, but then she froze.

Why had she said that?

"Huh?" Li Chen's eyes suddenly brightened, followed by a mischievous grin.

Lin Yi couldn't take it anymore and shouted, "Wang Lei!"

Wang Lei also came to his senses, quickly took out the sample perfume from before, then picked up the perfume Li Chen had formulated, smelled them both, his face full of disbelief.

Lin Yi's gaze was also fixed on Wang Lei's face, clearly filled with anticipation.

Coming back from his shock, Wang Lei said joyfully, "President Lin, it's exactly the same!"

The same?

The other people present were startled and then began to cheer, while Lin Yi at that moment burst into a radiant smile, her beautiful eyes sparkling.

My beautiful wife's smile is simply breathtaking, Li Chen was mesmerized.

"Can it be produced?" Lin Yi asked.

Instantly, Wang Lei looked troubled and glanced at Li Chen, "President Lin, that, you should ask your husband."

Hearing this, Li Chen hummed in agreement, looking incredibly cheeky.

Lin Yi also paused, then turned to look at Li Chen, biting her lip before saying, "Come with me."

"Where to?" Li Chen asked.

"To my office."

In the office, Lin Yi sat at her desk, Li Chen sat opposite her, propping his cheek with one hand and staring at Lin Yi intently.

"So beautiful, so pretty, so fragrant!" Li Chen watched Lin Yi's long eyelashes flutter, her lips thin as rose petals appearing tender and juicy, the virgin scent emanating from her was intoxicating.

Lin Yi's face turned red again, inwardly cursing him as a jerk, really wanting to punch his rogue face.

"I want to ask for your help." Lin Yi said seriously.

"What help, my sweet wife?" Li Chen said, smiling.

"The formula for the perfume you just made." Lin Yi said.
